AS WE SEE IT
By Art Kinney

While there are headaches in publishing a paper, there is also nice things that can happen to an editor . . . We get a lot of invitations to attend all kinds of gatherings mainly because they want some publicity, and some of the meetings are boresome, and then one comes along like the Old Settlers meeting held here at the Winter Guest Club on Wednesday of this week that we were invited to attend . . . we felt honored and was justly proud to join these "young oldsters" at their open air luncheon, and was more than sorry that time did not permit us to remain for their afternoon program . . . as one meets and talks to these old timers it is forced home to you more and more why America has grown to be the most wonderful place in the world to live . . . we salute these old settlers and hope that you will be with us for many more years.

• • •

May we suggest that you read the "Winter Guest Club" column and see how they feel about repealing the utility tax . . . We invite other organizations and individuals to write the "Editor's Mail Bag" and state their opinions either for or against the petition that was filed this week asking for a repeal of the utility tax . . . Let's have some good sound arguments from both sides on this important question.

• • •

Read the letter in the "Editor's Mail Bag" column this week from another one of our leading citizen's as to why he attends church . . . there is plenty of spiritual food for thought in it.

• • •

Fresh Eggs ? ? ? A romantic bachelor, breakfasting in a restaurant, noticed his soft-boiled egg bore the inscription: "Should some young man see this who wishes to marry a farmer's pretty daughter of 17, write . . . He wrote promptly, and a few days later received a note which read: "Sorry, your offer came too late. I have been married twice, widowed once and have three children."

• • •

Who want's a job that carries darn poor monetary remuneration and less thanks . . . there is an opening on the Avon Park City Council that should be filled . . . put your application in with the Mayor if you would like to have this job, and remember, ladies you are not barred . . . No charge to the City for this ad.

• • •

We predict that the City Council will not repeal the utility tax, thereby giving the citizens a chance to vote on the question . . . and we don't mind shoving our neck out a little further and predict that if the proponents of an utility tax will present their side in an intelligent manner, that they have a chance of carrying the election . . . Let us have some good old fashion town meetings on this important question so that we can all vote as our better judgment dictates.

• • •

The ballots for the general election to be held November 2nd are in the hands of the printer, and absentee voting will start on Tuesday, October 19th at County Judge Livingston's office.

• • •

There has been a number of complaints to the City Council on the way the youths of Avon Park ride bikes and motor scooters . . . this we feel is something the parents should look into . . . Study the drawing on this page showing the "Do's and Dont's" of bike riding . . . show this to your children.

The Old Settlers of Avon Park met Wednesday at Donaldson Park, where they enjoyed the fourth annual assembly and picnic.

A delicious picnic lunch was served at noon at the Tourist Club Picnic Center.

The president, Mr. Wm. Hauptman presided over the meeting that followed the picnic. New officers were elected and installed as follows: Cyril Baldwin, president; Mrs. Edith Wild, vice-president; Mrs. Annye Bennett, Secretary and Mrs. Cora Wray, Treasurer. Dr. E. G. Woods gave a reminiscence talk of his first trip to Avon Park, February 22, 1900 and the friendly greeting he received.

Mrs. Fred Stevens read two poems "The Old Home Town" and "Avon Park."

Mr. Charlie Krause had been in Avon Park longer than any other member present. He came in 1886.

J. C. Wilcox also gave a very interesting speech. He read a paper, entitled "Avon Park Town" and sang "An Echo in the Town".

Rev. H. D. Graetz, present pastor of the Congregational Church, was a guest speaker. The first church in Avon Park was known as Union Church. It is now the Congregational Church.

Many old Pictures of the early settlers of Avon Park were on display throughout the meeting.

The following registered and gave the date of their arrival in Avon Park:

PTA Opposed To Two Amendments

Mrs. Floyd J. Griffin, president of the Florida Congress of Parents and Teachers, today called upon the PTA to make an all-out effort to defeat the first two constitutional amendments."

In a letter to PTA presidents she urged them to meet with school principals and teachers "to inform the voters of what the amendments will mean to the schools and why it is necessary to defeat them."

Calling present state school funds "insufficient to meet the current outlay" the PTA leader said "passage of Amendment No. 1 would mean that the schools will lose over 6 million dollars in revenue.

"The present program of education of boys and girls would be impossible unless new or additional taxes are levied," she added.

And concerning the second amendment she said "if this passes our program for housing school children will be hampered and delayed. This, too, must be defeated."

Mrs. Griffin declared "the new school program for which we worked and which was passed by the 1947 Legislature is in danger.

Praises Avon Park Disaster Committee

The Avon Park Disaster Committee of the Red Cross deserve the highest praise for making the most thorough preparation for effective service in case disaster struck or they were called upon to care for evacuees from stricken areas. While this need did arise, under the fine leadership of Vaughn Driggers, Chairman of the committee and L. M. Mosley, Vice-Chairman, the community could easily and efficiently have cared for its quota of 1,500. The sub-committee chairmen were: General A. Owens, Warning and Rescue; Dr. H. W. Coleman, Medical; Mayor O. C. Wilkes, Shelters; A. B. Wilhite, Food; Mrs. J. T. Ward, Clothing; I. L. Hall, Transportation and Communications and Mrs. Mary Reddick, Registration and Information.

Special mention is due Mr. Hall for the transportation of colored refugees to and from the Air Base. Under these committee chairmen scores of citizens were willing and ready to render any aid to those in need. Avon Park and its Red Cross representatives can justly be proud of its excellent Disaster Committee and the Disaster Chairman of Highlands County joins them in their pride and praise. Probably he can appreciate them more than any one else because he knows better what they have done.

O. K. CULL,
Disaster Chairman,
Highlands County Chapter,

HIGHLANDS VET HELD FOR FIRING AT 2 DEPUTIES

David Boney, World War II veteran, who lives south of here, faced five charges Tuesday as the aftermath of a shotgun spree, including one blast at two sheriff's deputies.

The deputies—J. B. Stanley and Broward Coker—had been summoned last night by neighbors who complained Boney had been firing his shotgun indiscriminately around his house.

Stanley and Coker said that when they identified themselves to Boney, he put a double-barreled shotgun to his shoulder and fired at them. They ducked and the blast missed them.

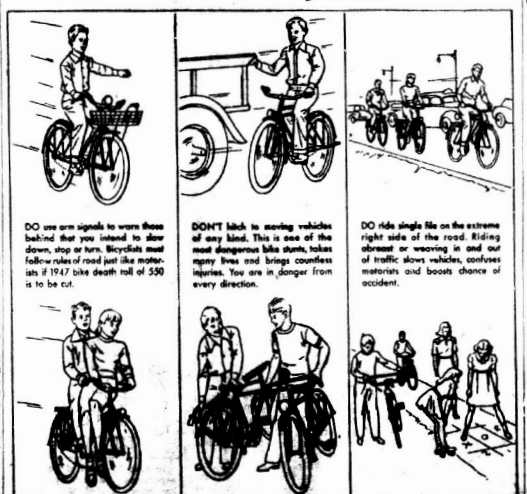

The deputies said they then rushed Boney and disarmed him. They said Boney later apologized for his action.

Boney was charged with two counts of assault with intent to commit murder, drunkenness, driving while drunk, and discharging firearms in public.

Deputy Stanley, who has been a peace officer for 15 years, said last night's affair was his "closest call."

Attention! Bicyclists!

DO use arm signals to warn those behind that you intend to slow down, stop or turn. Bicyclists must follow rules of road just like motorists if 1947 bike death toll of 550 is to be cut.

DON'T hitch to moving vehicles of any kind. This is one of the most dangerous bike stunts, takes many lives and brings countless injuries. You are in danger from every direction.

DO ride single file on the extreme right side of the road. Riding abreast or weaving in and out of traffic slows vehicles, confuses motorists and boosts chance of accident.

DON'T carry passengers on the crossbar, handlebar or fenders. Never break this rule, even for the best girl friend. Extra load is hard to handle, is one of chief crash-up causes.

DO have a dependable headlight on front and clean reflector on rear for night riding. Still game on as can get one for 25c. Riders will have time to prepare by nightfall to be safe.

DON'T ride bike on sidewalk when there are pedestrians or playing children. Dismount and walk your bicycle around them.

Toy Drive

We're still collecting those old toys you don't use anymore. Wouldn't you rather you gave them to us and let us fix them up and give them to some of the children who won't get a lot more toys at Christmas? Just think of all the joy they will get.

If you will call Mrs. John Bunting at 153-R or Miss Barbara Bridges at 162-M, they will see that someone stops by to pick your old toys up.

We wish to thank all of you who have already so generously donated.

Report From County Welfare Board

Workers in the State Welfare Board put into effect during September new policies affecting methods to be used in determining the needs of the aged, the blind, and dependent children which welfare officials believe will speed up processing of applications. At the same time, the maximum assistance program was increased in Highlands County. 745 persons received $22,-[illegible].

Warren Anderson, chairman of the county's Welfare Board, said the increased revised food budgets, based on current food costs, would be felt as workers make their periodic reviews of cases on the assistance rolls. Since these revisions will take place over a considerable period of time, they will not be effective in all cases immediately.

During the month, in the state as a whole, assistance grants showed a net increase of $58,800.50 covering 1,488 additional cases over those in August. Total payments were $3,171,757 for assistance to 106,850 residents of Florida.

Aged needy residents of Highlands County numbering 419 received $15,986.00; 309 dependent children received $5,513.00; and 16 blind received $679.00. In August, the grants were 419 aged, $16,038.00; 307 dependent children, $5,421.00; and 16 blind $677.00.

700 Signers Ask Mayor and City Council Repeal Ordinance 294

Dr. Coyle E. Moore

Family Life Education Institute

Because marriage is one of the most intricate of human relationships, education for marriage is as necessary as education for a profession. This is the firm belief of Dr. Coyle E. Moore, chairman of the Division of Applied Sciences and head of the Department of Social Work at Florida State University in Tallahassee, who is conducting the Family Life Education Institute at A. P. H. S., Thursday, October 14th at 8 p. m. and Friday, October 15 at 2:15 p. m., with the Avon Park PTA as sponsor.

Dr. Moore and his staff are leading a series of Family Life Institutes throughout Florida, under the auspices of the General Extension Division of the University of Florida and Florida State University. Dr. Moore, a teacher in Marriage and Family to 1700 alumni and a thousand students now enrolled at FSU, Dr. Moore has had years of experience in the lecture hall is bringing out and answering questions concerning youth and family marriage problems.

The present series of Institutes is concerned especially with the adult approach to the education of youth for marriage and adjustments to family living. Dr. Moore and his staff see the need for the lack of preparation for marriage is largely responsible for the rising divorce rate, with its attendant problems of broken homes and ruined lives.

Primarily for adults concerned with the problems of youth—parents, ministers, social workers, teachers, and others—the Institute will consider such topics as "Questions Children Ask," "Education for Responsible parenthood", "Parents Part In The Sex Education", "How Parents Can Help Teen Agers", and "The Basis of a Successful and Happy Marriage".

Local Legionnaires To Attend Convention

An expected 10,000 Legionnaires from over the nation will start pouring through Florida in the next few days enroute to the American Legion convention at Miami, October 19-21. Some of the advance guard will be members of the Legion's fun group, the 40 et 8, which opens its pre-convention promenade on October 16th.

American Legion Posts throughout the state are spreading up for "open house" on the days preceding and following the convention. Gateway hostess at the northern end of the state will offer orange juice and information to the Legionnaires as they enter Florida and there will be hospitality available for those at all of their stopping places overnight.

The actual date of the convention program will be participated in officially by fifty-two airplanes chosen from all over Florida by their fellowmembers as they will be formally assisted by several thousand Florida Legionnaires, many of whom have already registered.

School Band Extends Invite

The Avon Park High School Band Association, the High School Band, and the Junior Band are cordially invited to be guests of the Auburn football game, Saturday night.

The Band had a very enjoyable time and a grand meal.

A committee of which Keith Collyer acted as Chairman, presented to the City Council at its regular meeting Monday night a petition to require the repeal of Ordinance No. 294, which ordinance adopted by the Council on July 19th, 1948, imposed a tax of 10 percent on all sales of electricity, water, telephone service and liquified petroleum. Mr. Collyer stated that the petitions as submitted contained approximately 700 of the registered voters of the City.

The City Charter provides that in the event a petition is submitted which contains the signatures of 30 percent of the registered voters in the matter of repeal of an ordinance, such ordinance must be repealed or a special election must be called within 60 days at which election he matter will be submitted to the voters. Mr. Collyer urged that the Council repeal the ordinance without resort to a special election. Mr. Padgett, sitting as president of the Council, advised the committee that the petition would be considered and acted upon in accordance with the provisions of the Charter.

John C. Wright, operator of a store licensed for the sale of intoxicating liquor in Avon Park, appeared before the Council requesting that the present hours of operation as being from 9:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. be changed to 9:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. each day, be extended so as to permit sale from 9:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m. as a minimum. Mr. Wright based his request upon the premise that the early closing of this part of the city deprived him of a considerable amount of business that would be diverted to other stores in other cities if they were allowed to remain open. The Council stated that the matter would be considered by the Council at a future meeting.

Mrs. Ruth Hall, Librarian, appeared before the Council and requested that the Council set up the Library as a separate department of the City Government. Mrs. Hall stated that the Library Board had been operating for a number of years and that the Library was now in a position to be set up as a separate department. Mrs. Hall's request was referred to the City Attorney for study and report.

GREATER WEEKLIES

AN OLD DEMOCRATIC SUPPORTER CHANGES OVER

Most newspapers follow the same policy and support the same party in presidential elections year after year. Not often do you find the old-liners switching from Republican to Democratic, or vice versa. Back in 1932, some of the old Republican papers swung over to Roosevelt. This year, there are a number of old-line Democratic papers switching over to Governor Dewey.

A case in point is one of the outstanding papers of the Pacific coast, the Oregon Journal of Portland. The Journal has been supporting Democratic candidates for most of the last 46 years (the exception was 1940 when it backed Wendell Willkie because of opposition to a third term for anybody, but in 1944 it was back again behind President Roosevelt).

This year the Oregon Journal has turned from its Democratic ways and here are some of the reasons it gives:

"We have had a Democratic administration for 16 years and, except for the recent loss of Congressional control, the federal government has been in the hands of the Democrats.

"President Truman—pathetically brave, and sound in his demands for price reduction and more housing—in descending to the level of his Missouri training in campaign villification, has lost leadership of the nation.

"Governor Dewey has abstained from class appeal and yet has tacitly recognized in his appeal for labor harmony that the American institutions, law and liberty, could not continue without the faith and support of men who toil with their hands. Above all, Governor Dewey holds a deep responsibility of America's new world leadership. Unity at home to correctly defines as the way to win the peace, just as unity was the secret of winning the war.

"In 16 years, bureaucratic agencies have multiplied and [illegible] over willingly leaves the payroll. Dewey [illegible] a spring housecleaning in January. It is necessary.

"Governor Dewey cannot alone do all he pledges. The [illegible] of the Congress is not only essential but is candidly [illegible] cannot change he takes in view of the record of the 80th [illegible]. He has, however, more support, less divided, than [illegible] President Truman can command. If in November [illegible] wins a Senate majority, his position would be [illegible]."

That's what the longtime backer of Democratic presidential candidates thinks. Furthermore, these same sentiments have been expressed by a number of influential Southern Democratic papers.

...TANT THUNDER ACROSS THE SEA

By JAMES A. CLENDINEN

Back home they come by ones and twos;
Automatically sealed, tagged and properly escorted according to the latest War Department circular.
Back to Arcadia, Avon Park, Bartow, Bradenton, Clearwater, Dade City, Dunedin and Eustis.
Private, Colonel and Machinist's Mate;
Men who mocked the guns and boys who fought their way to the attack.
Back to Fort Myers, Gainesville, Inverness, Jacksonville, Kissimmee, Key West, Lakeland, Leesburg and Miami.
Fragments of youth, dust of ambition, ashes of hope;
Now but a paragraph, a once familiar face upon the printed page:
Services will be held Tuesday at 3 p. m. with full military honors . . .
"Dear Joe . . . Is it just four years? . . . My first high school date . . . I was in the crowd that cheered him when he left . . . And his mother's never been the same, they say . . ."
Back to Naples, Ocala, Orlando, Palmetto, Sarasota, Sebring, Tallahassee, Tampa and Tarpon Springs.
From the burning bomber, the island foxhole, the floundering ship, encompassed by the moist and lonely reach of Death;
Back by the numbers, with identities certified in triplicate by duly accredited officers.
Back to Umatilla, Venice, Vero Beach, Wauchula, Winter Haven, Ybor City and Zephyrhills.
With regulation honors and minutes of mourning from a scant-filled chapel.
The rifles and the bugles speak so softly here—
The great wheels grind and the busy streams flow on without pause.
As the war dead come home.
Home from Agattu and Kwagalein, from Anzio and Milne Bay; home from St. Lo, Algiers, Bastonge and the Philippines.
There are thousands more and we must haste,
For a chill wind rises in the East and distant thunder sounds across the darkening sea.

Among the major causes of death in America, cancer is one of two which has not declined in the last half century.

'Cracker Politics'

By Allen Morris

There just doesn't seem any question but that the 1949 legislature will have to pass one or more new tax laws.

The good anti-tax intentions of Governor-apparent Fuller Warren, and of Senate President-designate Newman C. Brackin and Speaker-designate Perry E. Murray and of lawmakers generally have been bumped up against bitter facts.

The money would run out even if the people reject at the November election the proposed constitutional amendment to divert the seventh cent of gasoline tax from general government and schools to roads.

Should that amendment be written into the constitution, the money problem of the lawmakers will be larger by the amount of the productivity of that tax—$6,000,000 a year now, but increasing.

What complicates the fiscal situation, apart from the costly new development of water control, is that three of the biggest tax-eaters — schools, welfare and institutions—are set up on what may be called an "escalator" basis.

* * *

For example: the 1947 legislature held out to teachers the incentive of pay geared to training —the more educational credits, the more money. Along with attracting a host of teachers from other states, the program caused thousands of Florida instructors to equip themselves to do a better job—and, automatically, to get more money — through summer college courses and in other ways.

School money also is distributed on the basis of units of student enrollment. Florida's school population is increasing (in Broward county, for instance, there was a 14 per cent jump during the last school year.)

All this means the schools already are bumping against the $42,000,000 ceiling for 1948-49 built into the 1947 school law. There doesn't seem any reasonable likelihood of the state abandoning these formulas for distributing school money. The alternative, of course, is the providing of more money.

The universities supply another example of growing demand upon the state treasury. There will be a tapering off next year of the federal funds for veterans' education but authorities predict there will not be any proportionate decrease in enrollment. More and more youngsters (and their families) are accepting college as a natural sequel to high school graduation.

In the field of welfare, inflation has thrown back on public assistance thousands of oldsters whose families were able to care for them through the war years. Employment opportunities now are fewer for the oldsters, too.

* * *

Two hours and more of speaking had passed at the water control conference before Governor-apparent Warren's turn came at the microphone.

With a short, blunt question, Warren quickly sliced through the blubber of oratory and self-praise and back patting and general smugness. He asked:

"Where's the money coming from?"

(Of the $208,000,000 which the United States Engineers estimate will be necessary for effective water control in Central and South Florida, Florida's local tax share will be $37,000,000 for construction and $3,040,000 a year for maintenance.

(The Florida portion roughly will be required at the rate of $3,700,000 a year for 10 years—the equivalent of $1.60 apiece each year from every man, woman and child in the state at present—with the maintenance burden necessarily starting at zero and running up to the annual figure of $3,040,000 as the control system becomes useable. The U. S. Engineers will spend an additional $660,000 a year for upkeep of the master works.)

Warren said the need for water control certainly had been demonstrated to the conviction of everyone. He said the prosperity and economic stability of the state seemed at stake. He said the plan had been drawn by the U. S. Engineers, appeared acceptable to state interests and preliminary authorization given by Congress.

"This, then, is basically and primarily a question now of getting the money," declared Warren.

"This is not the time to be mealy-mouthed, this is not the time to be timid, this is certainly not the time to hold your tongue. This is the time to show courage and to show statesmanship in finding out where we are to get this money."

Silence followed Warren's call. Shortly afterwards, Warren announced that, with Governor Millard F. Caldwell's cooperation, a committee of legislators and laymen would be named to produce an answer to the question of where the money was to be found.

Joe Allen Lander

Funeral services for Joe Allen Lander, 23, who died Tuesday, September 28 near Hollywood, were held at 4:00 o'clock the following Friday afternoon from the chapel of Stephenson Funeral Home in Avon Park. The Rev. H. D. Graetz, pastor of the Congregational Church, conducted the services. Special organ selections were arranged by Mrs. J. Paul Garber. The many beautiful floral offerings were a silent tribute of respect and the high esteem in which the deceased was held in the community.

Interment in Bougainvillae cemetery followed the services at the chapel. Active casketbearers were Frank Crews, Ft. Myers, Sanford Hartt, Wendell Smith, Edward McClelland, Washington Boney, and Desmond Roberts. Honorary bearers were R. P. DeLaney, Ralph Nettles, Pi. Pierce, Enos Hayes, Starke, Erle Pabor, Pensacola, Powell Skipper, Harry Elwell, Herbert Todd, and Coyle Powe, West Palm Beach.

Joe Allen, a descendent of a prominent pioneer family of Avon Park was born here on Jan. 11, 1925, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen Lander. He received his early education in the schools of Avon Park, and was graduated from Bradford high school in Starke, where he took an active part in athletics. He attended the University of Florida in Gainesville, and Georgia School of Technology in Atlanta, where he majored in engineering, and was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity.

During the war, he was engaged in drafting and designing in the engineering department of Wainwright Shipyards, Panama City, and later served a year in the U. S. Merchant Marines. For the past year, he has been an employee of the State Livestock Sanitary Board, and has been located on the east coast, near Dania.

When an infant, Joe Allen was christened into the Presbyterian Church, by his late paternal grandfather, the Rev. David Lander, retired Presbyterian minister, formerly of Avon Park.

Joe Allen, because of his high ideals, and friendly and generous disposition, had always endeared himself to a wide circle of friends. He possessed many of those splendid characteristics so outstanding in a young man, such as sincerity, loyalty and kindness, which made him a true and sincere friend, and a loving son and grandson. Though he had spent much time through the years away from Avon Park, he always called this "Home," and most every summer he could be found at the home of his grandmother on Lake Lotela, or with other relatives here. Scores of friends from all over the county and state were here to attend the funeral services.

On his paternal side, Joe Allen was the grandson of the late Rev. and Mrs. David Lander. His maternal grandmother, who is among the surviving relatives is Mrs. Lulu E. Bass, and his paternal grandfather was the late T. A. Bass, the family being pioneer residents of Highlands County.

Other surviving relatives include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allen Lander; four aunts, Mrs. A. B. Sircom, New York City, Mrs. Ruth Bass Hylton, Mrs. Fred M. Smith, and Mrs. C. Parke Anderson; two uncles, Mel A. Bass and Roscoe Bass, all of Avon Park and several cousins.

Among the out-of-town relatives and friends attending the funeral were Mrs. Mamie Stubbs Lander and her mother, Mrs. Stubbs of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. David Lander, Clermont, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Smith, Lake Wales, Mrs. A. B. Sircom, New York City, Mrs. Gertrude Starkey and Roy Starkey, St. Petersburg, L. B. UNITED KINGDOM BUYS ORANGE JUICE

The United Kingdom has purchased $2,050,000 worth of concentrated orange juices from the United States with Economic Cooperation Administration funds authorized for the fourth quarter of 1948, the Florida Farm Bureau has learned through its Washington offices.

While the purchase isn't enough to affect the citrus situation, informed growers feel that similar orders would be a big help this winter.

Groundwork for these purchases was laid as early as last June when the Economic Cooperation Administration advised participating nations that citrus fruits and citrus products were known to be in sufficient supply to be available for distribution abroad.

WHY YOU SEE ME IN CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY

The most respectable, and best people are there. The Lord Jesus was found in the house of worship on the first day of the week as his CUSTOM was.

My father and mother attended church every Sunday and the whole world can not convince me their religion was insincere. My Lord gives me help with all my troubles, which are many, and I enjoy worshiping him in church with other people meeting for the same purpose.

I have three boys that the Lord has blessed me with and for whom He has made me personally responsible. For their best intetest and best spiritual development, they need to be in church. If church is good for my children it is good for me too and certainly I could not teach them there is any good in church attendance if I gave that teaching the lie by not attending church myself.

I attend church every Sunday because I am always needing divine help in my private, public, civic, business, social and family activities. My Bible at Matthew 6:33 says "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his rightousness and all these things shall be added unto you." Therefore I seek God and his rightousness first thing on the first day of the week and try to put first things first all through the week so I can claim his promises of help in all these other things.

You see me in church every Sunday because I am happy in my worship of God and my little service to Him. I heartily recommend regular church attendance as a first step toward a happy complete life.

Sincerely,
E. Ray Wells.

Looking around the border of this ad you can find nine different types and sizes of Certified Lamps in various styles. This is only a small sample, because the lamps are made by more than 100 different manufacturers in their own individual colors, fabrics and designs. However, and this is highly important, ALL lamps bearing the Certified tag are built to the same exacting specifications with regard to lighting performance and electrical safety.

Probably there is a place in your home right now for more than one of these Certified Lamps. The large floor and table lamps (combination incandescent-fluorescent or incandescent alone), the swing-arm lamp, bridge lamp, pin-up lamp and end table lamp all provide varying degrees of light suitable for reading, writing, sewing and other close tasks. The dresser lamp is designed to provide proper make-up light for women standing at a bureau or dresser, while the dressing table lamp is designed for women seated at a vanity or dressing table.

But whatever style you choose, look for the orange and blue tag that says Certified Lamp . . . it's your guarantee of excellence.

Winter Guests Club News

By DAVID ARTHUR BRODIE

Your correspondent wishes to correct an error which appeared in the third sentence of the last paragraph in the October first issue. This sentence reads: "These northern lakes were there millions upon millions of years before the peninsula of Florida was even sighted above the ocean." This sentence should have read: "The limestones of the northern lakes area were there millions upon millions of years before the Peninsula of Florida was ever sighted above the ocean."

Almost daily, now, new arrivals of winter guests to be noted. While it is out of the question to try to keep up with even the one-time members of the Club, the following are known to have arrived since our last issue:

Mr. and Mrs. George Riffle, Mr. and Mrs. Crofutt, Mrs. Lena Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Warwick, Mr. and Mrs. Loy H. Brodie.

A lot of sickness has been reported among our former members. We are glad to state that Miss Jennie Coe, who has been quite ill for several months, is able to be up and about and apparently on the road to recovery. Mrs. Philip Lavis is quite ill at the home of Mrs. Ollie Walker at 615 West Main Street. Mr. Drummond has been laid up for some time with an infected ankle. It is understood that Mr. Book is in the hospital, having suffered a slight stroke. It is also reported the Mr. Fish had the misfortune to get into an automobile accident. Just how serious his injuries are has not been fully ascertained. There may be others, but to one and all the Club extends its best wishes for speedy recovery.

For some years, the Winter Guest Club has been handicapped for space in the Clubhouse to accommodate its increasing membership. A larger auditorium is a very real and pressing need. During our entertainments last winter, a large percentage of those in attendance could not get within the doors of the hall. We have had assurances from some of the City representatives that an addition to the Clubhouse would be forth-coming this year, provided money could be made available. In order that available funds for this and other City requirements could be found, a utilities tax was approved by the City Council some time ago. However, word has come now that this ordinance is being contested, and that a petition is being circulated to have the ordinance nullified. This is very much to be deplored, because it is well known that the Winter Guest Club furnishes a revenue to the City each month during the season many times greater than the aggregate amount spent by the City for Club benefits since it was first organized. So it appears to those who are really interested in maintaining the mutual relations between the City and its winter guests, that to deny the Club more adequate accommodations at this time, will tend to seriously discourage tourists from spending their winters in Avon Park. Cases are already known where prospective members have gone elsewhere, because of the lack of accommodations here. It cannot be truthfully denied that it is greatly to the interests of each and every man, woman, and child, directly or indirectly, that the revenue from the Winter Guest Club, be maintained and increased by exerting every effort to make our accommodations more and more attractive to winter visitors, and that before too many of them pass up and spend their vacation money somewhere else. It is highly important that this ordinance be sustained, and that the protesting petition be suppressed, because it is definitely inimical to the best interests of the business people and bonafide residents of Avon Park and its immediate vicinities.

Petition Presented For Repeal

The Council felt that the pay of the employees referred to, now lower than the average of the cities of the Ridge Area, should be increased to meet in part the increased cost of living. Increases are from $5.00 per month to $15.00 per month with an average of $10.00 per month for 16 employees.

The Council was advised that the Ridge Municipal League would hold its regular monthly meeting at Avon Park on the evening of Thursday, October 14th., 1948. The Ridge Municipal League, organized about four months ago, consists of the mayors and city officials of the cities of Kissimmee, Haines City, Auburndale, Lake Alfred, Winter Haven, Bartow, Lakeland, Wauchula, Lake Wales, Frostproof and Avon Park. The purpose of the meetings is to discuss mutual problems in city administration and to make available to each other operational data on city operations. The exchange of information has proved of value to each of the cities named and it is felt that the organization can do a great deal to improve generally management of the affairs of the cities included in the league.

By Art Kinney

We want to commend the Junior Women's Club for their activity in promoting interest and securing equipment for the Children's Play Ground in Donaldson Park . . . More equipment is needed and we would like to suggest that possibly some of the other service clubs including the new organization of Jaycees could help this project by contributing, or any individual that feels the playground is essential and may have slides or swings at home that their children have outgrown could present them to the city, and a coat of paint would make them look like new.

The voters of Highlands county will vote the largest ballot ever used in this county, at the General Election to be held Nov. 2nd, . . . The ballot is 13 inches wide and 30¼ inches long and carries besides the Democratic and Republican ticket, the States Right and Henry Wallace ticket . . . The Prohibition and the Socialist party have no electors on the ticket . . . There are 11 Constitutional Amendments, and 2 referendums effecting the county to vote on . . . There will be 4,000 sample ballots passed out through the county, and it would be a good idea for the voter to get hold of one of the sample ballots and study it so they will not have to spend so much time in the voting booths.

We commend the Commissioners for their act in this matter, and their foresight in realizing the value to Highlands County in advertising that a good float will bring to the county.

The Ridge League Of Municipalities Met Here Oct. 14

The Mayor and members of the Avon Park City Council were hosts on Thursday night of last week to the Ridge League of Municipalities at the council rooms in the City Hall.

The main subject of discussion was how the cities could get their share of "beer tax." Municipalities now are excluded from sharing in the 3-cent per bottle state tax. The League approved a resolution to maintain the present tax but to give the cities a portion as yet unfixed.

The recommendation will be presented to the Florida League of Municipalities for inclusion in a program to be pressed before the 1949 legislature.

The meeting was conducted by Mayor R. C. Allen of Auburndale, president of the League. The following were present: R. C. Allen, J. Wiley Jones, Jere Stambaugh, C. R. Gutteridge, Auburndale; H. M. Cobb, C. R. Odom, Bartow; Chas. H. Leighton, Haines City; C. D. Adams, A. F. Crosby, Kissimmee; Ruth H. Smith, secretary, Lake Alfred; Chas. Larson, K. C. Rogers, G. J. Tolson, D. L. Spinks, L. Pressgrove, Lakeland; J. W. Herdry, F. C. Darling, Wauchula; L. H. Recker, Cletus Allen, Winter Haven; J. L. McNair, Lake Wales; O. C. Wilkes, A. M. Owens, R. L. Padgett, J. T. Williford, J. L. Delegal and E. B. Carter of Avon Park. Mr. Shilling representing the Lakeland Ledger and A. S. Kinney of the Avon Park Sun were present on invitation from the League.

The League will hold their next meeting at Bartow on Wednesday, November 17th.

Commissioners For Amendment One

The Highlands County Commission Tuesday went on record as favoring the adoption of the proposed amendment number one to the state constitution relative to the gasoline tax.

In addition, the commission will sponsor advertisements in county newspapers urging electors to vote for the amendment at the general election next month.

Action on the request of Lester Armstrong, of Avon Park, for a $500 donation for a Highlands County float at the inauguration of Governor-nominee Fuller Warren, was delayed until the next meeting of the board Oct. 30. At that time the members also will prepare the ballot boxes for the general election Nov. 2.

Because the commission's first November meeting falls on general election day, the session will be postponed until Nov. 3.

"Men And Missions" Sunday, Nov. 14th.

Earle H. McLeod, Publicity Director of the Laymen's Missionary Movement announces that the churches of Highlands County are being invited to observe Men and Missions Sunday on November 14. This will be the 18th annual observance in the United States.

The plan is to have a layman speak briefly on World Missions before the morning sermon, and the pastor will in most cases discuss a similar topic at that morning service.

This promises to be one of the great days in the churches of North America. Men—not leaving to the women folk, alone—will be confronted with their responsibility for Christian world missions as possibly never before.

The conditions which obtain everywhere in the world at the present emphasize this need. The leaders of the Movement have shown great wisdom in the choice of this year's theme, "Millions are waiting—while Christ waits for us."

The resident Chairman who is promoting the observance of the day in all the churches in this County is the Rev. O. K. Cull, pastor of the First Christian Church in Sebring.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

W. F. Ward, president of the Florida State Horticultural Society announces that the annual meeting will be held at West Palm Beach, on October 26, 27 and 28th. The Citrus, Vegetable and Ornamental Sections and the Krome Memorial Institute will hold all of their meetings in the George Washington Hotel.

Splendid programs have been arranged and every citrus grower will find it profitable to attend.

Playground Equipment Ready For Children

The Children's Play Ground in Donaldson Park, has had new equipment installed and was officially opened on Tuesday of this week.

The Avon Park Junior Women's Club is to be complimented for sponsoring this undertaking and in securing the new equipment for the use of the children of this city. The equipment installed consists of one 3-seat swing, one 2-seat swing, two single nursery swings, one merry-go-round, one climbing rack and one slide. The 3-place swing, merry-go-round, climbing rack and two nursery swings were purchased by the Junior Women's Club. The 2-place swing and the slide were obtained by the City from War Housing Administration without cost. The installations including cost of concrete, paint and minor items was made by the city employees without cost to the Club.

The number of units installed are not great, but is a start toward making Donaldson Park a place for recreation for the people and guests of Avon Park. It is hoped that additional items can be installed in the near future, and other improvements can be made in the Park so as to provide additional recreational facilities for all age groups.

C. T. A. Meeting Held October 14th

Reports from the State Classroom Teachers Association meeting, plans for an art institute, possibilities in the Blue Cross hospitalization plan, and results of the local membership drive were topics on the agenda of the Highlands County Classroom Teachers' Association meeting last Thursday afternoon.

This meeting, held in the Sebring school auditorium at 4:00, was the second in the year for the local C. T. A., a young organization started last spring for Highlands County teachers with Mrs. Alice Sherman of Avon Park at the helm as president.

Bringing reports of the state meeting in Tampa to the group were Miss Millie Pearson, and Mrs. Sherman of Avon Park, and Mrs. Claire Rowe of Sebring. Miss Pearson reported on Advisory Board meeting, Mrs. Sherman on the general over-all business meeting, and Mrs. Rowe on Superintendent-elect Tom Bailey's speech. Mrs. Rowe also reviewed the accomplishments of C. T. A. in promoting teachers' working conditions.

Members were told of an art institute to be held March 30-April 1 in the Sebring school with Miss Elizabeth Belk of the Binny Smith Art Institute offering instruction in crayola, paper mache, finger painting and other media to interested teachers. This institute is to be free and will run from 4:00 to 6:00, then from 7:00 to 10:00 on the days held. Those wishing to enroll should do so at an early date since membership is limited.

It was announced that a representative of the Blue Cross Hospitalization Plan would be the principal speaker at the November meeting. General questions concerning the plan were asked and the possibility of group action to make this plan available to teachers was discussed.

Mrs. Eunice Carter of Avon Park, as chairman of the membership committee, reported 100% membership from the Sebring elementary and junior high schools, 90% membership from the Avon Park School, and lesser percentages from other schools in the county. Methods were planned for securing 100% membership from all the county schools.

SEBRING ADOPTS STATE SANITARY CODE

Letters and inquiries are received constantly by the Highlands County Health Department, regarding sanitation (milk, water, eating places, etc).

The Department would like to give credit to the Sebring Council for it's foresight in adopting the Sanitary Code of the State of Florida as it's health ordinance. This permits greater cooperation between city and county on health problems, and at the same time, provides for an automatic revision of the Code when the State makes improvements of the Code.

Whenever problems of sanitation arise, D. L. Smith, Highlands County Sanitary Officer and J. A. Bartley, City Sanitary Officer would appreciate hearing of them so that they may investigate and remedy the complaints.

Three Injured In Truck Crash

A man and two women were injured at 10:15 A. M. Friday, when a truck owned by the Canada Dry Bottling Co., of Tampa rolled over three times attempting to avoid a pedestrian on State Road 25, two and a half miles north of here.

State Highway Patrolman Gracy listed the injured as Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hoyt Taylor, both 19, of Lakeland, and Mrs. Lena Stansbury, 39, of Lorida, mother of six children. None was injured seriously.

Gracy said Hoyt, salesman for the bottling company, and his wife were in the truck, which was traveling south. The patrolman said Hoyt applied the brakes to miss Mrs. Stansbury, who was crossing the road, and the truck went out of control and overturned three times.

On its first roll, the truck clipped Mrs. Stansbury and knocked her 57 feet. She landed among broken bottles spilled from the truck and suffered cuts all over her body and a dislocated left shoulder.

Hoyt's injuries were confined to cuts and bruises, and Mrs. Hoyt sustained a dislocated right wrist.

Gracy estimated damage to the truck at $1300 and the loss in broken bottles and contents at $300.

NATIONAL BIBLE WEEK OCTOBER 18th TO 24th

Today the enemies of America's sacred traditions are bending every effort to replace Freedom and Liberty and Justice under God with national socialism and policing government. It is for liberty-loving Americans to show the world in unmistakable terms that faith and trust in the "Book of Books," which will never be banned under our constitution, will continue to be our Guide. National Bible Week is a manifestation of such a resolution.

Warren To Hold Citrus Meeting

Fuller, Warren, Democratic Nominee for Governor, will hold a hearing on the citrus industry's problems in Lakeland on October 26 at 10:00 a. m., in the Harry S. Mayhall Auditorium. This hearing is designed especially for citrus people from Highlands, Hardee, and Polk Counties.

During his primary campaigns, Warren stated that he intended to hold such hearings for the purpose of discussing the problems and ills of citrus growing and marketing, and to invite criticism and comment and ideas from everyone concerned from the grove worker to the largest packer.

Mr. Warren is especially interested in having a large attendance from Avon Park and Highlands County because of the interest in the problem previously evidenced by our citizens. Everyone will be welcome to attend.

Legalized Racing Returned Highlands County $600,000.00

Tallahassee, Oct. 21—Legalized racing has saved Highland County taxpayers more than 600 thousand dollars since 1932, it is disclosed by a survey here sponsored by Hialeah Race Course of what happens to tax dollars collected by the State from parimutuel sales and admissions to Florida race tracks.

"Without racing revenue I do not know what we would have done," is a typical comment of county clerks in the 67 counties checked.

As a result of the racing revenue, the survey showed, local taxes have been reduced in all counties for the support of schools, roads, courts, charity, pest control and other public services. As a bonus, moreover, racing money has made possible such special benefits as county hospitals, farmers' markets, county libraries, school gymnasiums, help to veterans and soil surveys.

In Highlands County, the distribution of racing revenue is made by the county commission and Board of Public Instruction.

Hialeah—the state's oldest and finest racing plant—has been the largest contributor in the $604,-248.30 saving to Highlands County taxpayers. Of the $43,685,857.-67 collected since 1932, more than one-fourth—$12,728,873.61— came from Hialeah despite the fact that the tracks was shut down two seasons because of the war effort.

From $9,236.22, Highlands County's share has grown by leaps and bounds. It reached the record high of $98,000 in 1946. The amount was $90,900 in 1947, and $83,697 this year.

Besides the sum of $40,476,035 collected for the counties, racing has contributed since 1942 a total of $21,455,678 to provide good housing and other necessities of life for Florida's aged needy.

A meeting of the Celery Division of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Division was held at the Jaearanda Hotel on Thursday afternoon, Oct. 14, with La Monte Graw, manager of the association presiding over the meeting. The meeting was attended by the growers and shippers of the three principal celery areas, mainly the Lake, Sanford and Sarasota.

The main subject of the meeting was the discussion of the pros and cons as to whether or not the industry would be interested in a celery marketing agreement. It was finally decided that meetings would be held in the three areas the first to be held in Sanford in the near future.

S. R. Smith, the director of fruit and vegetable branch, and M. A. and Nathan Koenig, marketing assistant to the secretary of agriculture from Washington, D. C., were honored guests and explained the manner in which marketing agreements were established and operated.

'Cracker Politics'

By Allen Morris

It is interesting to speculate how much the use of convicts—under shotgun and bloodhound guard—on main highways costs the tourist state of Florida in goodwill and public esteem.

While the state road department—concerned only with dollars and cents—figures forced labor at 34 cents an hour, against 60 cents for free labor, perhaps allowance somehow should be made for the waste of tourist advertising money.

If the road department can't find money enough to maintain roads without prison labor, possibly the harm could be reduced by using convicts on highways other than those heavily traveled by tourists. (Some qualified observers contend the best use of convicts would be in the production of some of the foodstuffs for which state institutions now pay a million and a half dollars a year.)

This is not to suggest there is actually anything inhumane about working prisoners on roads, nor that visitors possess any greater sense of fair treatment than do Floridians. But these two factors ought to be considered:

1—Shotgun and bloodhound equipped stock visitors, for the American Prison Association reports the use of prisoners on road work "is almost completely confined nowadays to the South."

2—Shotgun and bloodhound squads give substance to a feeling by the North that the South spends its prisoners with brutality—a feeling evidenced by the recent given escaped convicts who, when caught in the North, appeal for public sympathy by stories of prison camp cruelties.

The American Prison Association, which classes road work as "efficient" employment for convicts, reports this largely has been stopped in the North because of the opposition of road contractors and others interested in eliminating the competition of prison labor, the short working season, and the high custodial risk unless one uses questionable methods of restraining and guarding prisoners."

In recommending road work, the APA assumes prisoners will be kept under guard of shotgun and bloodhound squads.

"In every institution," observes the association, "there are men who can do road work on a trusty basis or under medium custody conditions, either through the major part of their sentences or during the last months before release."

Accompanying working squads of convicts with leashed bloodhounds (observed within recent weeks on U. S. 90, the Jacksonville-Pensacola artery, and U. S. 27, the Chicago-Tallahassee-Miami beeline) seems to be a new practice of the road department.

The APA opines the use of dogs even "in pursuit of escaped prisoners (let alone as a deterrent to escape) is not considered proper practice in the great majority of states."

PS—A constructive measure of the present administration of the road department's penal system (independent of the state's regular prison department) was the clothing of the shotgun guards in uniforms. Along with the value in better appearance if the state must use the squads on the main roads, the uniforms undoubtedly improve the morale and spirit of the guards.

Here's a story that Governor-apparent Fuller Warren tells on his good friend Hays Lewis, Jr., of Marianna:

In speaking for Warren during the 1940 gubernatorial campaign, Lewis told an audience at Two-Egg that "he's sure to win!" Returning to Two-Egg in 1948, he made substantially the same speech, including the assurance that Warren couldn't fail.

He was, however, interrupted at that point by a townsman with a long memory.

"Mr. Lewis," he said, "didn't you come here in 1940, and didn't you say that Fuller Warren was sure to win' then?"

"Yes I did."

"Well, why didn't he win in 1940?"

"My friend," stalled Lewis, "I wondered about that for a long time myself. I asked friends and I asked political experts. Finally, I carried my problem to the Lord. And when I did, out of nowhere came a voice saying:

"'Hays, I was saving him for 1948.'"

Constitutional Amendments

By JIM MASSEY
Journal Political Editor

The sixth proposed change of the Florida constitution approved by the 1947 Legislature that will appear on the ballot in the November general election is a relatively minor alteration, of concern mainly to the bench and bar of Florida.

It proposes an amendment to Article V by adding a section authorizing supreme court justices and circuit judges to retire instead of resign, thereby making them eligible to be called upon to serve on the bench when needed.

This amendment is purelly statutory. It relates to provisions of the 1941 Florida statutes, which authorized retirement by resignation from office.

However, since the statutes so were worded that a complete resignation was required and the justices and the judges eligible to retire, and who had done so, were not qualified to serve in their former capacities if needed.

* * *

The proposed amendment provides that no retired judge or jurist may be called to serve without his consent, and permits utilization of qualified judges who already have resigned. This is the procedure followed in federal courts. The amendment would involve no additional cost to the taxpayers, since the judges who receive retirement pay, would draw no additional compensation for serving.

Should this amendment be added to the Florida constitution, it would open up an avenue of occupation to the elder jurists not otherwise incapacitated, who wish to assist in the work of the state judicial department.

As the law stands, a justice or a judge must resign to be eligible for retirement benefits. This follows decisions of the courts which hold that to gain the benefits of retirement, the judge must give up some of his elective time by complete resignation. The result is that no retired justice or judge can serve temporarily on the bench.

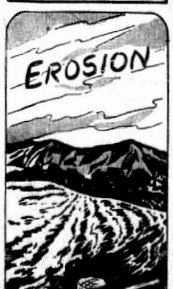

* * *

By 1946, 26 states had made some provision for judicial retirement. Louisiana, Maine, and New Hampshire had a compulsory retirement age for judges, varying from 70 to 80. In New Hampshire a judge must retire at the age of 70, but the Superior Court may employ retired justices of the supreme and superior courts as referees, auditors, and masters.

Connecticut appoints justices to the position of "state referee" when they reach 70. In Kentucky, retired judges of the Court of Appeals may serve as "Commissioners of the Court of Appeals," with the same salary as before retirement. The same procedure is followed, with variations, in Maine, New York and Wyoming.

Winter Guests Club News

By DAVID ARTHUR BRODIE

The first meeting of the season of the Board of Directors was held Monday evening, October 18th, and quickly disposed of the business held over from the last meeting in April. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. I. D. Kelley, 2nd Vice President, in the absence of Mr. William Mann, President, and Mr. Clarence Tallman, Vice President. This is probably the first time since its organization, that a lady has had charge of any of the Board meetings. We are happy to say that Mrs. Kelley certainly carried out that duty with the calm efficiency of a seasoned presiding officer.

The shuffleboard courts are being re-lined by Mr. Edward Dobbins, and he is making an excellent job of it. Now, you would-be kitchen shooters, come right along. The kitchen boundaries are clear, and plain, but do not forget that your opponent can see them too.

The new walk recently built by the City, between the street sidewalk and the cue house, is highly appreciated by the Club members.

It has been reported that Mrs. Clarence Tallman, wife of our vice-president, who has been confined to the hospital for some time, is well on the way toward recovery.

THEY SHOOT TO KILL

A special agent firing behind a barricade on the practical pistol course on the FBI range, at Quantico, Virginia.

SPECIAL agents of the FBI are trained to shoot only in self defense, therefore they shoot to kill.

This cold philosophy of training has saved the lives of both agents and the criminals they arrest. Knowing that the agents of the FBI do not bluff, few law breakers choose to test their sharp-shooting powers.

After he had surrendered meekly, Eddie Bentz, often called the king of the bank robbers, was asked why he made no attempt to escape. He answered simply, "You fellows shoot too straight."

Since 1934, there have been over 116,000 convictions in cases handled by the FBI. That figure represents an imposing number of arrests of kidnapers, bank robbers, car thieves, gangsters and fugitives of varying types. Yet in the entire history of the FBI only 29 criminals have been killed while resisting arrest. Eleven agents have died at the hands of law breakers.

Firearms training, an essential part of proper law enforcement, is largely responsible for the record noted above. It is of particular importance in a period when crime is on the increase.

Eighty-two police officers reportedly were killed in the performance of their duties in the year 1946.

Firearms training is the only sure way to reduce officer-death statistics. Firearms training at the FBI's completely equipped set of ranges located at the United States marine corps base at Quantico, Va., is reduced to an almost exact science. The practical pistol course is a routine range exercise. Fifty shots are fired into a silhouette target in the total time of 6 minutes and 10 seconds. This allotted time covers 10 shots fired from the seven-yard line, five from the 60-yard line, 20 from the 50-yard line and 15 from the 25-yard line. Before the course is completed, the four firing postures—prone, sitting, standing, hip shooting—have been assumed. The course includes firing at close range, at a distance, and from behind barricades.

There are many other types of firearms training afforded to special agents. For example, there is the surprise target course. Life-size photographs are used for targets. Agents are required to recognize the individual and the circumstances justifying shooting from the standpoint of firing in self defense. The surprise course offers the same experience ordinarily present in the course of 11 different gun battles. The agent walks along a certain line toward a position to command a view of the rear entrance of an imaginary apartment house. En route he is confronted by the figures which appear at different intervals. He is allowed three seconds to take the necessary action and is rated on his reaction to the targets; that is, whether he shoots or does not shoot.

Besides training in revolver shooting, the agents are also given extensive training in the handling of the Thompson sub-machine gun and the rifle. Certainly such training results in greater safety for a larger number of people, and, as always, preparedness is the best strategy.

Cattle corn, ten feet high and equal in yield to crops raised in the nation's corn belt, can be successfully and profitably raised in Florida soil, Foremost Foundation, a non-profit organization devoted to improving agriculture, has reported. Tuberculosis Fifty Years Ago

By Barbara Darsey

As Elie approached the lane leading to her home she saw that Mama was not there to meet her and she was sad, thinking: "What is the matter? Mama has not walked with me for a long time now."

The day was filled with sunshine and little plum trees bordering the lane were harbingers of spring in their soft green leaves and snowy blossoms. Elie missed their appeal and her blue eyes were clouded with apprehension as she walked sadly on. "Mama is so different lately," she mused, "so pale and tired and she cannot even talk much with me."

As she reached her house her sense of foreboding was so great that she could not enter but sat on the steps. Here, Bud, her faithful spaniel, found her. He seemed to sense her despair and did not bark his usual joyous greeting but sat down beside her nuzzling his cold nose in her hand.

"Even Mama's voice sounds tired," she sobbed to Bud, "and she never reads to me now. And Papa looks so worried. Oh! what can be the matter."

Elie, an only child, twelve years old, "standing with reluctant feet where the brook and river meet," was at the age when she most needed her Mother's care.

Finally she and Bud opened the door but no cheery greeting came as they made their way to Mama's room. Here Mama was resting but smiled faintly and held out her hands to the little girl. Elie noted the deep flush on her Mama's face, the weakness of her extended arms, heard again the wracking cough and thought how hot Mamas' hand felt on her cheeks.

Thus went Elie's life for some months. Then her Mama's illness was diagnored as tuberculosis—a death sentence in that day for there were neither Health Clinics nor specialized treatments.

How different would be Elie's story today, when, through the never ceasing work of Physicians, State Boards of Health and County Tuberculosis Association, this dread disease is being eliminated. Caught in its early stages, by X-Ray and other examinations provided by our State Boards of Health for everyone, tuberculosis is cured or arrested in most cases.

Chislers Are Being Exposed

Eighty out of 91 veterans suspected of fraudulent drawing of Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance checks in September have been barred from any future benefits, according to statement by Carl B. Smith, Chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission.

A total of 650 have been disbarred since the program started in September of 1944.

Wage reports by employers liable under the State Unemployment Compensation Law has been the chief source of detecting fraud. These reports provide a means of checking wages earned by veterans against claims made, Smith said.

During September, 25 new cases were referred to the Appeals Tribunal for determination. Total cases on hand at the first of October were 227 in comparison with 293 on hand at the first of September. The Appeals Tribunal handled more cases in September than in any other single month.

Smith explained that the disbarments from Servicemen's Readjustment Allowances were made under Section 1300, Title V of the G. I. Bill, which says in part: "Any claimant who knowingly accepts an allowance to which he is not entitled shall be ineligible to receive any further allowances under this Title."

Title V of the G. I. Bill provides for Readjustment Allowances in the form of money payments to self-employed and unemployed veterans of World War II. A self-employed veteran must give a complete statement of his business for the month he is filing his claim and show his net gain, if any. Unemployed veterans must report any wages they earned for the week they are claiming allowances.

Veterans disbarred may be prosecuted in the Federal Courts under Section 1301 of the G. I. Bill and if found guilty, may be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned for not more than one year.

Cancer is not confined to the aged. Only half of those who died of this disease last year were over 65 years of age.

The American Cancer Society distributed more than 10 million pieces of educational literature during 1947.

Twenty-five cents of each dollar raised by the American Cancer Society is spent on research.

. . . One Southerner's Viewpoint

EARL WARREN FOR STRONG LOCAL GOVERNMENT

I take it that there is a meeting of minds between Gov. Thomas Dewey and Gov. Earl Warren. A person as thorough as the governor of New York would not have it otherwise.

Therefore, it seemed to me that at least all the Southern newspapers should have pulled out the stops and given an 80 or 90-point spread to the utterances of the Californian who has the No. 2 spot in the Republican campaign. Yet, I find that all of us more or less overlooked it.

And that is a pity, too, because he was promising something that has the South in a hysterical political condition which has already led it to decisions which, in the light of a more sober day, will seem incredible.

* * *

There is a high ground of discussion for States' Rights. The citizen must give thought to just how far he wants the federal government to go in regulating his personal and state affairs.

The great and awful pity of it is that the issue in the South should have been made a racial one. Strom Thurmond may dispute it all he pleases, and he may personally stand upon sincere ground, but his organization is anti-Negro and its front of States' Rights has behind it every demagague and every interest in the South that is committed to States' wrongs and the status quo. That such an organization should carry a few Southern states, might even carry Georgia, is an illustration of the depth of our political hysteria.

Therefore, the speech by Earl Warren was tremendously important. It was a speech on States' rights. It was pitched on a high level, recognizing, as the Southern revolt hypocritically refuses to do that it is the Congress and the Supreme Court which will determine the issue of States' rights.

* * *

Gov. Warren, asserting the 48 states were perfectly able to solve their own problems, spoke in behalf of decentralization to an audience at Springfield, Mass.

"It is neither necessary nor desirable for the national government to depart from the spirit of the old town meeting of New England," the Californian said. "It is just as necessary now as it ever was to keep government close to the people."

"Every problem that can possibly be solved locally should be solved on the local level," he continued. "Every problem which can be solved in whole or in part through state government should be attacked in state government. Even when the federal government must participate, it should do so with the aid of our state governments.

"Unfortunately, the people of America have been propagandized to the effect that every program designed to improve their lot must be administered from Washington under the jealous, watchful eye of a paternal federal government. There is no magic in Washington."

That is a most significant and important statement. It attacks the problem on a high level, and not on a sordid one, as does the leadership now behind the Southern fourth party.

* * *

There is a very real chance that of Gov. Dewey, in his North Carolina speech, and Gov. Warren, in a speech which may be delivered in Georgia and which will be given in the South, should repeat these sentiments in so many words they might carsy deep South states such as Georgia.

The Dixiecrats ought, in service to the South, to withdraw their ticket. But if they are to remain in, then the anti-Truman votes may be so divided between them that enough Southerners who believe strongly in the two-party system will go to the Dewey ticket, on the basis of its states' rights pledge, and give him an edge.

At any rate, we welcome Gov. Warren's statesmanlike position on states' rights — concerning which we long have taken the Warren position. The States' Righty party, which is supported by every Ku Klux Klan and every associated prejudice in the South, is the South's spokesman for states' rights. That this should be so is tragic.

Let Warren and Dewey come South with their message.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

"PROBATION AFTER DEATH" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churchese of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, October 24.

The Golden Text is: "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new" (IICorinthians 5:17).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption . . . For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality" (I Corinthians 15:50, 53).

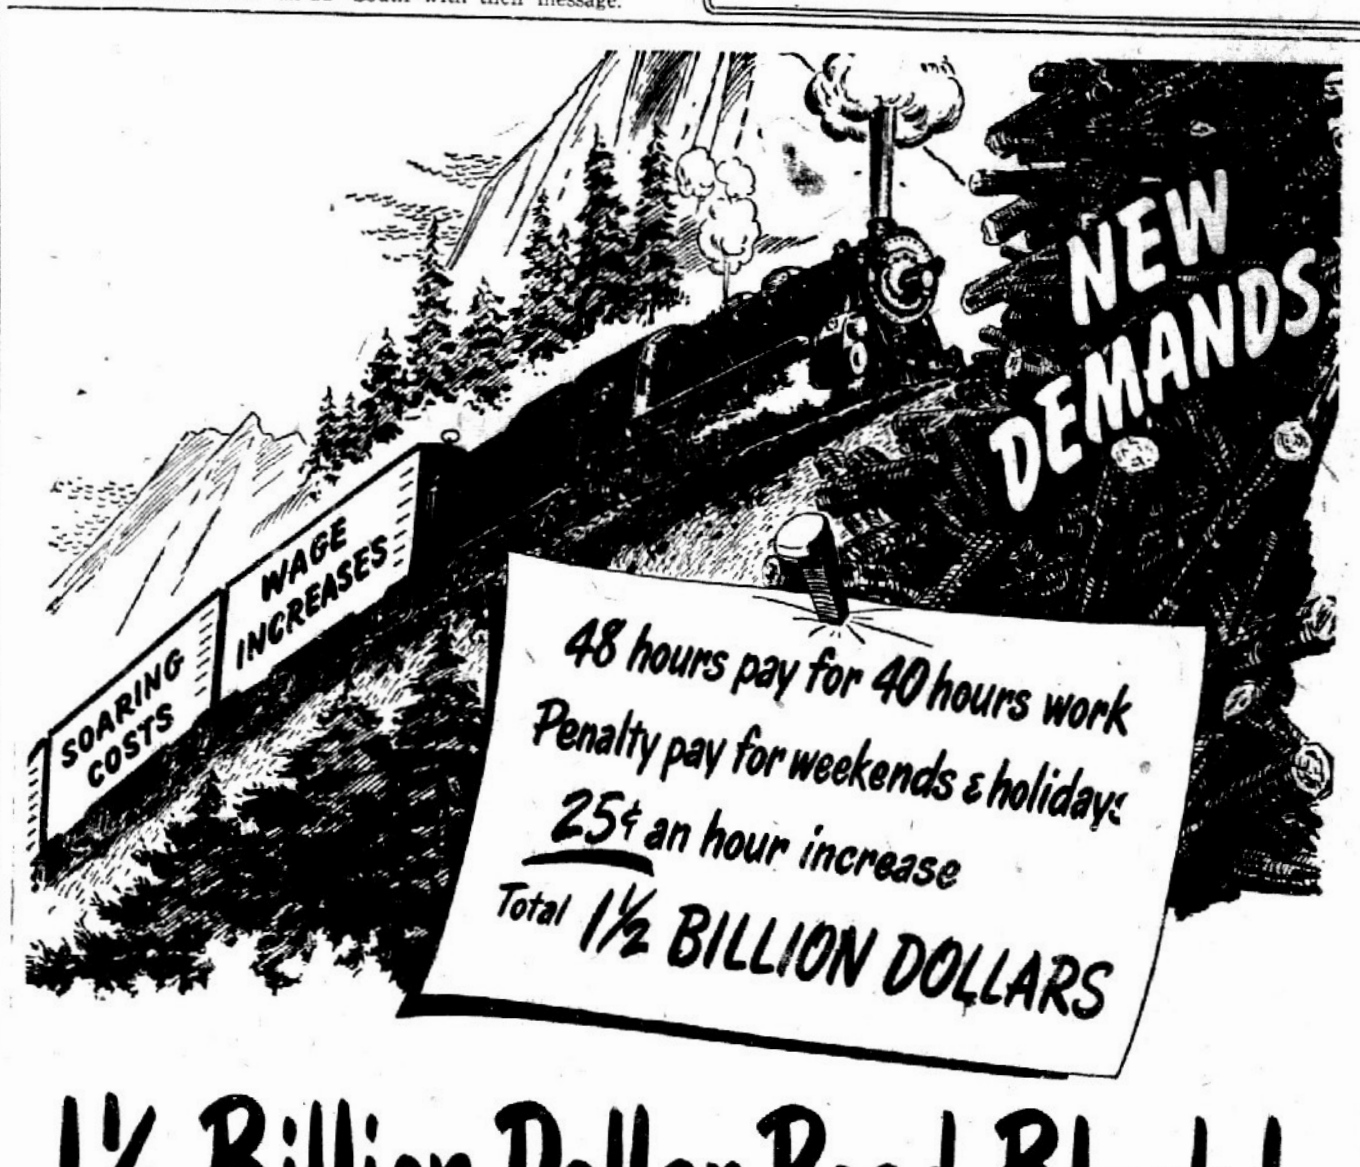

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "If the change called death destroyed the belief in sin, sickness, and death, happiness would be won at the moment of dissolution, and be forever permanent; but this is not so. Perfection is gained only by perfection. They who are unrighteous shall be unrighteous still, until in divine Science Christ, Truth, removes all ignorance and sin" (290:16).

1½ Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employes.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25c an hour for every employe!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employes an annual raise which would average $1500 per employe!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1½ billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employes have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48c an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10c an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody— Not Employes Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!

WEEKLY BUSINESS REVIEW

The trade dollar, the strongest single source of personal income of Floridians, amounted to $815,007,000 last year, the research and industrial division of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce stated yesterday in its weekly business review dealing with a study of the principal origins of earnings of Floridians.

"This total was 12 per cent above the 1946 total and includes wages and salaries paid to employees of all trade and service establishments, and the profits of the proprietors of these establishments.

"This Florida trade dollar last year accounted for 31.7 per cent of the $2,571,000 total personal income received by Floridians.

"In only three states did the trade and service dollar account for a greater proportion of income in 1947 than in Florida. The people of Nevada earned 32.7 per cent of their income from this source, Californians 32.2 per cent and New Yorkers 31.9 per cent. The national figure was 26.8 per cent."
