Cat Eyes...

Have you ever seen the eyes of a cat at night—with light reflected in their glassy stare?

And the eyes of this tabby—there is an eerie quality in them, something hypnotic and almost without life.

Yet these are the eyes of a living creature, the eyes of an animal that sleeps and eats and walks and runs.

What then is the mystery of cat eyes? What do these eyes lack that would give them softness, kindness, and radiance?

IMMORTALITY is the answer—for a cat has no soul.

A cat has nothing of the spiritual, which in man makes him the unique being among God's creatures. Man has a little something of the Divine in him—the immortal soul. And to develop this soul is one of the greatest responsibilities we have in life.

With the help of God's Holy Word and through the guidance of the Church, man is able to add new lustre to his life, a lustre that shines in his eyes and mirrors the soul within.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) for the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

'Cracker Politics'

By Allen Morris

Right now, the Warren administration is moving in two directions at the same time.

Usually, the first weeks and even months of a new gubernatorial regime are pretty much devoted to the unwinding of the protective red tape by which the old administration had sought to cocoon its political friends.

That includes the rescinding of resolutions, the cancelling of contracts, and the withholding from the Senate of the names of old-regime appointees whose continuance in office depends upon senatorial confirmation.

That process of removing the dead hand of a past administration—a process backward-looking in nature—from the constitutional period of the new is unfolding again, but at the same time progress also is being made in a forward direction.

Count on the side of progress the new Governor's speedy establishment of central buying for the offices under his jurisdiction. Count also on the side of progress Warren's leadership in the creation of a years-overdue coordinatorship for higher education.

This observer hasn't figured out yet whether Warren is piloting the ship of state by instruments or by the seat of his pants—by intellect or by intuition. But whatever the method, it has served him well so far.

Take central purchasing as an instance of what appears to be Warren's instinct for grasping opportunity by the forelock instead of deliberately creating a situation.

A close advisor of the new Governor stoutly maintains Warren had no thought of broaching the subject of central purchasing at his first meeting with the six independent constitutional officers who constitute what informally is known as the "Governor's Cabinet."

A spot opened, however, and hardly before those present realized the ramifications, Warren had borrowed the Cabinet's own purchasing agent for the State's hospital and correctional system to do the buying for the offices under his control.

Happily or not, opposition to central purchasing has been lodged at the doorstep of a number of the Cabinet members, but those, if in fact they exist, would seem now to have been disarmed by the Governor's employment of their own man to prove the worth of his scheme for saving the people's money.

Warren has snagged on the reef of Cabinet opposition in the retention of two State employes the Governor would have liked to replace—Col. H. N. Kirkman, Director of the Department of Public Safety (the highway patrol) and Terry Lee, Coordinator for the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions.

The Governor, in the face of strong resistence, seemed inclined to let Lee slip by for the moment and even in recent days to contend he might be doing a good job, but Warren was nettled when the Cabinet balked at Kirkman's removal.

Warren objected mainly to Kirkman, in a closed-doors session in his office, on the ground that the retired Army officer was "cold" and "stand-offish". He argued that Kirkman, by his lack of warmth, could jeopardize Warren's goal of highway safety—a campaign depending greatly for success upon public acceptance.

The Governor perhaps has a deeper feeling about highway security than about anything else in his public life. He has crusaded with success now just months away—for the fencing of cattle off roads without regard for political expediency. He promised in his inaugural address to rid the highways of drunken drivers. He has clamored for proper marking of curves and other highway hazards. He urged at his second Cabinet meeting the planting of white crosses by the roadside where traffic death has occurred, as a brake on the speeding driv-

Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo, Secretary of State R. A. Gray, Attorney General Richard W. Ervin, Jr., and Treasurer J. Edwin Larson spoke up for Kirkman, and while they said relatively little of a positive nature there, Comptroller C. M. Gay and School Superintendent Thos. D. Bailey afterwards declared their support of Kirkman.

Mayo tried to persuade Warren that the Director should be given a chance to prove himself with the Governor. Ervin told of working happily with Kirkman, a fellow townsman from Palatka, for many years in their governmental service at Tallahassee. Gray made the point that a change of Directors now, at the beginning of the Governor's administration, would frustrate the efforts to consolidate patrolmen and public that control had been taken out of politics by the 1941 law which created its operation under the Cabinet instead of the Governor, as formerly.

Moody Bible Conference At Sebring

"Sunshine for your soul in the land of sunshine" is the theme of this year's Moody Bible Conference in Sebring, Fla., to be held from January 30 through February 27. Four of America's greatest Bible teachers are scheduled to bring messages during the four weeks, climaxing in a showing of the new scientific film, "Voice of the Deep", in the conference tent on February 26.

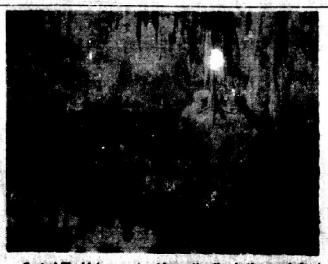
Opening speaker will be Dr. G. Allen Fleece, who was on the Sebring program last year. He is now serving as pastor of the Westminister Presbyterian Church in Chattanooga, Tenn., and formerly taught at Moody Bible Institute and Columbia Bible College.

The following week, February 7-13, the Bible study at 10:00 a. m., and evening services at 7:30 p. m. will be led by Ralph H. Stoll, pastor of Calvary Independent Baptist Church of Altoona, Pa. Although he is in great demand as a Bible conference speaker, Stoll accepts only a limited number of engagements each year because of his church duties.

An even greater treat is in store for the week of February 14-20, when Dr. H. A. Ironside comes to Sebring. Known as the "dean of American expositors," Dr. Ironside recently retired from the pastorate of Chicago's Moody Memorial Church to devote full time to writing and speaking.

The president of Moody Bible Institute, Dr. William Culbertson, will close the conference with a week of challenging messages beginning February 21. Music throughout the entire four weeks will be led by Rev. Edwin Guber, tenor soloist of the Moody extension staff.

MULTIPLICATION AND ADDITION . . . Using the multiplication system for a problem in addition, the Earl L. Jones household of Chicago has come up with an odd but accurate mathematical equation that says $1,000 plus $150 equals $675. The $675 is the product of nine times $75, estimated value of each of nine cocker spaniel pups whelped by Duchess Buff, shown proudly surveying her litter. The Duchess is worth $150, but the most costly dogfish of the family group is the $1,000 sire, Champion Clovermist Golden Amigo.



Central Florida's newest outdoor attraction is the scenic boat tour through tropical gardens at Seminole Springs, located on U. S. Highway No. 17, midway between Sanford and Orlando. Similar to the types now in use at Silver Springs and Cypress Gardens, the fleet of silent electric boats have been installed on the scenic waterways of Seminole Springs, following a winding course through the tropical gardens and natural jungleland.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

"TRUTH" is the subject of the Lesson Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, January 23.

The Golden Text is: "Thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, long-suffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth" (Psalms 86:15).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands . . . For the Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations" (Psalms 100:1-5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "To seek truth through belief in a human doctrine is not to understand the infinite. We must not seek the immutable and immortal through the finite, mutable, and mortal, and so depend upon belief instead of demonstration, for this is fatal to a knowledge of Science. The understanding of truth gives full faith in Truth, and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings" (286:1).

Washingtonacies On Florida

By Walter A. Shead, Washington Correspondent
John K. Perry News Bureau

Washington, D. C.—Congressman Charles E. Bennett of Jacksonville made his maiden speech on the floor of the House in a statement concerning a bill which he introduced and which would call upon the federal government to reimburse states for all schools constructed for negroes during the next ten years.

The Jacksonville congressman said his bill would give "those friends of the south from the north who are so interested in the south an opportunity to really do something to help the south." He said that the Florida state board of education had estimated that it would cost approximately $65,000,000 to construct schools necessary to educate negroes in the elementary and high school grades in Florida alone. The bill would preserve segregation where it already exists.

Congressman Robert L. F. Sikes of Crestview introduced a measure and spoke for its passage, to provide for a program of armory construction to cost some $500,000,000. The measure would share national guard armories with the army and naval reserve.

Said Mr. Sikes: "The national guard has long since outgrown its historic function as a state force. Other reserve units are entirely federal in scope. In consequence, my bill proposes to relieve the state and local communities of the expense of armory construction. It is my belief that a common armory can be shared by all reserve components in a community and by the recruiting officers of the various services."

While Florida's two freshman congressmen failed to obtain the committee assignments for which they asked, others in the delegation were successful. Congressman J. Hardin Peterson was assigned to Public Lands; Dwight Rogers of Port Lauderdale to Interstate and Foreign Commerce; George Smathers of Miami to Foreign Affairs, and Congressman Sikes to the Appropriations committee.

Congressman Bennett who had asked for Armed Forces was assigned to Merchant Marine and Fisheries, which is not a bad committee for Florida. Congressman [illegible] Herlong, Jr., of Leesburg who had asked for Agriculture was assigned to Postoffice and Civil Service.

The Leesburg congressman was given quite a feature write-up in Washington newspapers over his "trade" of his home in Leesburg with a Washingtonian who wanted to go to Florida for the winter. The two swapped houses through a want-ad in the Washington Post, it seems, with the Floridian getting his heat thrown into the deal. They'll swap back in the summer.

Senator Spessard Holland for Senator Claude Pepper and himself in the senate, and Congressman [illegible] for himself and other Floridians in the delegation in the House, introduced identical bills which give the Secretary of the Interior authority to acquire land for Everglades National Park within the confines of the original boundry set forth in the deed executed by the state of Florida December 28, 1944. There were several parcels of land still held by private owners and the act enables the Secretary of the Interior to proceed to acquire the land.

Senator Holland also introduced a bill which would amend the Interstate Commerce Commission Act to give the commission the same power of revocation as to certificates of water carriers that it now has over motor carriers and freight forwarders.

Congressman Peterson introduced the same bill which he was unsuccessful in sponsoring in the 80th congress, to include flowers or "flori-culture" in the perishable agricultural commodities act.

William Johnson of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce appeared with members of the Florida congressional delegation at the hearing before the Civil Aeronautics Board seeking extension of the licensing of Florida Airways, Inc. Indications are that the firm will get another year's tenure to operate.

MAP OF FLORIDA IN CITRUS—Commemorates National Citrus Week

CYPRESS GARDENS, Florida.—This giant Vitamin C map of Florida in oranges and grapefruit commemorates National Citrus week from January 20 to January 26, the week proclaimed by President Truman to aid citrus sales over the nation. Newsreel and Television outfits shot a story of the girls picking the fruit from the trees and building the map, then seating themselves in positions to represent the principal cities of Florida from Key West up to the Georgia line where the girls are wearing the costumes of the Old South.

TSETSE CURE . . . Dr. David Garnett Davy of London helped in research work on new drug, antricyde, which cures sleeping sickness spread among animals by the tsetse fly. Experiments will be carried out on cattle in Africa with the hope that the vast potential meat supply from that continent can be opened up.

DIDN'T DANCE . . . One of the more decorative items at the annual Chelsea Arts club New Year's eve ball in London was Beryl Brien who practiced her mermaidenly wiles on a jolly, bewhiskered tar. She couldn't dance, though.

these polio fighters." Further, the Foundation furnished great quantities of equipment, and material aid comes high today.

"Exclusive of the funds which local chapters in North Carolina pooled, this service of the National Foundation cost more than $1,000,000 by the end of the year." Remember, this is just the story of one state. Forty-one other states received aid from the emergency fund of national headquarters. North Carolina counted 2,407 victims of infantile paralysis. California had 4,150 and Texas victims numbered 1,611 — all up to October 30.

AS WE SEE IT
By Art Kinney

Avon Park must not fail! . . . We have been asked to devote some space in our column this week to the "March of Dimes", that all important drive that comes annually and is the cheapest insurance that fathers and mothers and all of us with a heart for the unfortunate can invest in . . . Marion Nelson, local chairman reports to us that the people of Avon Park are falling down on their gifts this year by about 50 per cent, and this is the year that all chapters are trying to raise 50 per cent more on account of the polio epidemic last year having drained all chapters funds . . . You and I know that AP people are the finest in the world when it comes to a drive for the benefit of humanity, and that we have always dug down in our sock for every good cause that has been promoted here, and we simply cannot afford to fail in putting this drive over the top. None of us know when the dreaded disease may strike, and strike close at home. Then what happens? The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, through their County Committee steps in, and places you or your child in the proper hospital for treatment, at practically no cost to you . . . and in no sense of the word is this charity, as that is what the Foundation is for, made possible by the gifts of your dimes and dollars . . . Some of you may say, "I can pay my own hospital and doctor bills," but think of the thousands of us that are not that fortunate. Most of us would have to sell our car, mortgage our home, borrow from our friends and be in debt the rest of our lives, simply because we failed to do our duty now by giving a few dimes, yes dollars, that many of us can afford to give even if we have to forego a few worldly pleasures and spend an extra evening at home . . . You will never miss the dime or dollars you contribute . . . Resolve now to give generously to the MARCH OF DIMES. You may be sure that you will share in the prayers of thousands of children, that may again be able to share in the play of other more fortunate youngsters, yes, even your own loved ones . . . There are March of Dime containers in most of the stores to make it easy for you to place your change in, and those of you who have received March of Dimes Coin Cards, please stuff them generously and return promptly, it will give you a great spiritual up-lift to know that you have done your share in this great work . . . Avon Park people cannot afford to fail in this great humanitarian drive.

The next time an out-of-town printer solicits you for business, ask him what occupational tax he pays in AP, and how much of his payroll is spent in this town?

All Avon Park people who like the better things of life are invited to attend an Art exhibit to be held at the Jacaranda Hotel on Sunday, Feb. 13, at 2 o'clock p. m. The exhibit is sponsored by Grace Wood Herring, art director of the AP Women's Club and will be open for two weeks . . . Visiting hours are from 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 evenings.

The City Council had a rather short session at their regular meeting Monday night, and decided to hold a postponed meeting again Monday night, Jan. 31st., and maybe we will have something to report from that meeting. Members of the Council are still wondering why one of our County commissioners wanted to charge them 2 bucks a load for clay to be used on our streets, when Commissioner Tubbs gladly gave them an order for 50 loads gratis from the County clay pits . . . after all AP is still a part of Highlands county.

"How I love that man's B-A-R-B-E-C-U-E" . . . Demos Mandis is going to do it again, and I, for one will be present to sink my dentures into that glorious barbecue and gladly part with my 5 bucks, as Demos is furnishing everything and turning all proceeds over to the Ridge Area Hospital Association . . . This is Mr. Mandis annual party for the 40 et 8 that will be held February 9th at the Mandis Ranch West of this city, and it is expected that a large number of "distinguished guests" will be present from over the State . . . and, Demos says, "you can donate any amount from 5 bucks to a hundred," and for this you will get that delicious barbecue, entertainment, (and this is frankly a plug that we cheerfully give) the best milk in the state, with the lowest bacteria count of any dairy in the county.

Heads Up, Jimmy

Two-year-old Jimmy Biesele of Brooklyn, N. Y., is learning to walk for the first time after being stricken with polio. The football helmet is for protection against falls. Jimmy's treatment is made possible by the March of Dimes.

Florida Citrus Mutual Enters Final Drive

A concerted campaign to sign up the final 10 million boxes of Florida citrus production in Florida Citrus Mutual was underway this week with the newly elected temporary board of directors determined to get the required 75 percent of the tonnage signed up not later than Feb. 1.

Given new impetus with a board of directors named by Governor Warren and Senators Holland and Pepper, and with the assurance that the Indian River Citrus League would join the organization with a block of about 10 million boxes, Mutual officials, including the new temporary president, C. Walton Rex of Orlando, veteran grower-leader, were confident today that enough tonnage would be signed up this week to make it possible to call the prescribed growers' elections to name permanent directors and officers.

Merton L. Corey, veteran agricultural organization expert, who has been working on the formation of Mutual, said "we are gratified at the response we have received since the election of a new temporary board of directors last week, and at the obvious determination of banking and business leaders, along with citrus men, to put the Mutual drive 'over the top' within the next few days."

Serving with President Rex on the executive committee of the organization are Dodge Taylor of Howey and J. J. Parrish, Jr., of Titusville, vice presidents, and A. V. Saurman of Clearwater, secretary-treasurer. Other members are Harry E. Tooke, Jr., of Sanford; Earl Hartt of Avon Park and Tom B. Swann of Winter Haven, from the board of directors.

In addition to the officers and directors already included in the list above, the following are serving under appointment from either Governor Warren, Senator Pepper or Senator Holland:

A. G. Mann, Kissimmee; Warren T. Zeuch, Vero Beach; Senator Jeff Flake, Wauchula; Ben Hill Griffin, Frostproof and Avon Park; J. W. McKethan, Brooksville; George W. Whitehurst, Fort Myers; Mark Dopler, Lake Wales; Leo Wlison, Bradenton; Douglas Igou, Eustis; C. S. Lee of Oveido, and John J. Schumann of Vero Beach.

The B String girls' team, gave an interesting game with a 16 to 13 winner over the Wauchula B String girls.

Party Enjoys Fishing Trip

On Wednesday, January 19, Mrs. J. S. Atkins accompanied a party of Avon Park Tourists on a fishing and sightseeing trip to Everglades, Florida. Before leaving Avon Park, arrangements had been made by Chief Dep. Sheriff, Roy O. Atkins to charter a boat for deep sea fishing, as it is hard to procure such accommodations at the height of the tourist season in this "hunting and fishing paradise" of the late Byron Collier, well known publisher and hotel magnate.

A party of six set sail early Thursday morning from the Rod and Gun Club, where dinner was served President Truman the day he dedicated the new National Everglades Park last summer. Soon they were in the midst of the Ten Thousand Islands that dot the western shore of south Florida, a real paradise for a fisherman.

About 4:30 in the afternoon, they returned with happy faces and 91 nice fish ranging in size from 1 to 4 pounds each, a very pretty sight which represented the fun all had while catching so many.

Then Thursday evening, Mr. Atkins treated his mother's company and other friends there to a fish and hush-puppy dinner on his beautiful and spacious lawn, where he has an out-door grill and equiptment to feed a large crowd.

Among those who enjoyed this service were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Williams, the Boston Red Sox star, Boston; Attorney and Mrs. Harold Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. John Becking, Sheriff and Mrs. L. J. Thorpe, Patrolman and Mrs. C. J. Hughes of Everglades; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Schoenualt, Coral Gables; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mygrant and children Charlene and Bobby and Dep. Sheriff and Mrs. G. Ray Williams of Ochoppe, Mr. and Mrs. Orla Cottrell, Hicksville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Mack Darnell, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Thurmon Powell, and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Powell of Antwerp, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Krost, Lima, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Curtis, Boston; Chief Dep. Sheriff and Mrs. Roy O. Atkins, and his mother, Mrs. J. S. Atkins of Avon Park.

Two Convicts Are Still At Large

At time of going to press, Ted Rinehart, 21, and Robert Sapp, 26, Hillsborough County badmen, were still at large after they and three other convicts escaped from a road gang near Brighton, Monday morning. They were believed armed with a revolver and a shotgun.

The pair eluded a posse that scoured the scrub, swamp and groves between Sebring and Lake Placid.

Bloodhounds from the Citrus Center road camp near Moore Haven failed to pick up their trail.

Rinehart, who is doing a five-year stretch for safe robberies in Tampa, broke away from another road camp in 1947 and later was caught in Oklahoma. Sapp is serving 10 years for holding up a Tampa cab driver.

The companions of Rinehart and Sapp were captured between Sebring and DeSoto City. Lee McAfee, 21, serving seven years for a Dade County robbery, and William Febre, 35, of Tampa, under a 15-year sentence for manslaughter, and John Lloyd, of Madison County, were caught in the swamp west of the highway.

The convicts seized a State Road Department truck from Driver J. Leon Albritton, who said McAfee covered him with a revolver. The revolver and a shotgun were taken from Guard Homer Capp, whom them overpowered.

The truck, out of gas, was found abandoned and hidden by brush about four miles east of DeSoto City.

The manhunt was conducted by Sheriff Broward Coker and his deputies, James G. Creel and Robert Barringer. They were assisted by State Highway Patrol Lt. Edwin R. Ferrell, of the Miami division, and Patrolmen John Hicks and Howard Gracy. Capt. Lee and the trusty convicts and nearly 100 citizens from Sebring and DeSoto City made up the possee.

Author-Playwright To Speak At First Methodist Church

"America's Greatest Peril" will be the subject of Mr. Hayward H. Johnson, guest speaker, next Sunday morning, January 30th., at 10:55 o'clock at the First Methodist Church of Avon Park. Mr. Johnson is an author, playwright and nationally known lecturer. Mr. Johnson comes to Avon Park from the headquarters of The Methodist Church in Washington, D. C. He received nation-wide recognition when he led the clean-up fight against road-houses, gangsters and booze-runners in Bloody Williamson County—Herrin, Illinois. His present lecture tour for The Methodist Church has brought him from the Pacific Coast where he addressed large audiences and was received with enthusiasm in leading pulpits throughout the West.

Mr. Johnson, one of the outstanding lecturers on the American platform, has the reputation of dealing with present social problems particularly as they apply to modern youth and their relation to their elders, in a most practical, constructive and engagingly interesting way.

Mr. Johnson as a former Deputy Investigator in Illinois had a rare opportunity to study the traits of "the bad men" and "the bad kids" and the conditions in society lying back of them, along with other valuable data on social problems of the day. His several years of experience of organization work in social welfare, and particularly his unique contacts with vast numbers of high school and college youth has been responsible in part for the high regard in which he is held by ministers and school men throughout the country.

GREATER WEEKLIES

Winter Guests Club News

By DAVID ARTHUR BRODIE

Again, it is our painful duty to report the death of a fellow member, Mr. John Henderson, of Providence, R. I. Mr. Henderson was an active member, too active, as later events proved. It is reported that on the day of his collapse, he went on a hunting trip during the forenoon with men much younger than himself and kept pace with them during the hours they were out. During the afternoon and again in the evening he played shuffleboard, and some pinochle with boon companions. He was always ready to help in the home-talent entertainments of the Club. He had marked histrionic ability—natural and unaffected. His characterization of Old Black Joe last winter will long be remembered by those who were present.

Last Friday, January 21st., when the evening's entertainment began, he seemed to be in the best of condition and spirits, and enthusiastically took the lead in showing off the activities with the Virginia Reel. Hardly had the dance started when suddenly he was seen to sway and stagger and fall backward. In a few minutes he was gone, in spite of the efforts to revive him. The remains were taken to the Mizell Funeral Home where services were held the following day, with Rev. J. Ashworth, Pastor of the Avon Park Church, officiating, which was attended by a large number of sympathizers. Among the flowers was a beautiful wreath, a special contribution from the individual Club members, artistically arranged by Mrs. Robinson, proprietress of Betty's Flower Shop. Mrs. Henderson and her daughter, Mildred, accompanied the remains back to their home in Rhode Island for interment. Mr. Henderson would have been eighty years old had he lived four days longer. At the time of his retirement, he was superintendent of a weaving factory in Providence, R. I. In addition to his wife and daughter who were here to spend the winter, he leaves a son, John C. Henderson, of Philadelphia, Pa. The Winter Guest Club extends its fullest sympathy to the bereaved family.

THE SECRET OF THE PEACE OF GOD. TEXT PHIL. 4:6-7

"In everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God and the peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

In this world of confusion, we need to know there is peace to be found. After we have found it, our task is to share the good news with others. Our text has some great truths. First, as witnesses, we must realize our dependance upon God, our pardoner, to confide to him and in him, always remembering the price of our redemption.

In Rom. 5:1 we find these words, "therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Even as Christ has peace by walking and talking with the Father, we can we, by heeding this text.

No matter how small the job seems that we have to do, we need the guidance of the Holy Spirit. Prayer changes things. Many a defeat could have been a glorious victory through faith and prayer. In the fifteenth chapter of St. John, in the seventh verse, are these words, "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will; and it shall be done unto you." Knowing then that he will not fail us, why should we fear? We read in 2 Tim. 1:7 "For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." As watchmen over men's souls, we need so much to wait on the Lord's promises, knowing he will never fail us. Paul said "I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day." John's heart was made to rejoice over Christ's words of comfort in Rev. 1:18 "I am he that liveth, and was dead, and behold, I am alive for evermore, amen, and have the keys of hell and of death."

So we rejoice as we go to Christ as our intercessor, knowing that he ever lives to make intercession for us.

Churches of Christ, Scientist

"LOVE" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world on Sunday, January 30.

The Golden Text is: "How excellent is thy loving Kindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings" (Psalms 36:7).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The starting point of divine Science is that God, Spirit, is All-in-all, and that there is no other might nor Mind,—that God is Love, and therefore He is divine Principle . . . All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love" (273:6, 14-17).

Baptist In Campaign To Increase Sunday School Enrollment

The Baptist churches of The Orange Blossom Association are uniting with other Baptist churches of the twenty-one states comprising the Southern Baptist Convention in an effort to increase their Sunday School enrollment by 800,000 during 1949. Rev. George W. Dunn, Superintendent of Baptist Sunday school work for this area, said today.

It is estimated that there are more than forty million white people living in these twenty-one states that are not enrolled in any Sunday school. President Truman during his recent campaign was quoted as saying: "There is no problem on this earth tough enough to withstand the flame of a genuine renewal of Christian faith. And some of the problems of today will yield to nothing less than that kind of revival."

The 800,000 increase goal for 1949 is approximately a 15 per cent increase. Many churches have adopted goals ranging from 20 per cent to 50 per cent increase over their present enrollment.

Methods to be used in the campaign will include the taking of a religious census by communities, the starting of new classes, the enlargement and improvement of church buildings, and an intensive program of visitation in the interest of Sunday school attendance.

The campaign in the local Baptist churches will be under the general direction of Rev. George W. Dunn, who announces the following goals and plans: First—Increased enrollment of 650 in the Sunday Schools of the Association. Second—A census taken in each Church community. (Some have already completed theirs.) Third—A stronger program of visitation that makes a personal contact. This matter will be the central topic of discussion in our Association Group meetings, February 15th, Group No. 1 meeting with Frostproof First, and Group No. 2 meeting with New Zion Church. Fourth — Provide adequate space. (Avon Park First and Sebring First Church and others, have made great strides this year already in this matter.)

Dr. Wiley Blount Glass, missionary of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board, now living in Fort Worth, Texas, will be at The Florida Avenue Baptist Church Monday, February 7.

Tuesday, February 8, Miss Bertha Wallis, Field Worker, under the Home Mission Board will visit the First Baptist Church.

Classroom Teachers Ass'n. Meeting

The Highlands County Classroom Teachers Association met at the Sebring School Wednesday afternoon, January 12. The meeting was conducted by Vice-president Emory O'Neal of Lake Placid. An executive board recommendation accepted by the group, was to ask that the County Board of Public Instruction to reconsider its recent ruling in which it refused professional leave to teachers to attend their professional meetings.

Mrs. Suggs of Avon Park, chairman of the legislative committee, discussed the coming bill in Congress for federal aid to schools. She mentioned that 3,000,000 children attend poverty-level schools and that 2,000,000 do not even go to school because of the overcrowded conditions. The present bill is supported by the National Education Association and all of Florida's representatives to the national Congress.

The C. T. A. banquet in honor of Mrs. Caldwell, the National President of C. T. A., was announced for February 9 at the Sebring Hotel. Tickets must be purchased by Jan. 24 from representatives in the various schools. Teachers were reminded that this function is to be the highlight of the local C. T. A. program this year and all were urged to attend.

Results of a thorough survey of the county rating system were submitted by the C. T. A. committee. A motion was unanimously passed requesting the school board to make proper adjustment in the numerical scores.

WHITEHURST AND LEE TO DEFEND GAME WARDEN

Attorney Otis Whitehurst and H. A. Lee have been engaged to assist Fish and Game Commission Attorney Hays Lewis, Jr., of Marianna, in the defense of Game Warden W. P. Cooper, admitted slayer of Hiram Ralph Ford, of Lake Placid.

A preliminary hearing for Cooper may be held next week, the associate counsel said today after a conference with County Judge Livingston. Investigators from the Fish and Game Commission are expected to wind up their probe of Ford's death this week.

Trapp Family Concert Huge Success

The first attraction of the Highlands County Community Concert Series was the appearance at the Sebring School Auditorium of the celebrated Trapp Family. It can surely be ranked as one of the richest and most beautifully disciplined vocal ensembles ever to have appeared in our community. The mellowness and translucence of their tone was a privilege to hear and their final numbers were indeed a thing of great joy to carry home for long remembrance. A very large and appreciative audience was in attendance.

Probably to a great number of the delighted audience, their six encores were the cream of the program, especially Brahm's "Lullaby", "Old Black Joe", by Foster and "Evening Song" from Hansel and Gretal. The Baroness firmly established herself with her audience by her exquisite charm and apt remarks. Father Wasner, who directs this choral group, has been with them for many years as musical director and spiritual advisor.

The members of the group picturesquely attired in Tyrolean costumes changing from the more sober raiments worn in the initial groups to more colorful ones in the latter.

In addition to their a cappella singing, the members of the group also played upon such long-neglected instruments as the blockflute, spinet and viol da gamba. Also in addition to their folk songs of middle Europe, the Trapps offered their unmatched skill at yodeling, which is fast becoming a long art.

The next attraction of the Concert Series will be the appearance March 2, of the young and beautiful Chloe Owen, Lyric soprano.

A MAGIC WORLD

A magic world where pop corn pops on radio waves, pans with sizzling steaks or frying eggs float around in mid air, model trains that obey spoken commands, walking-talking robots and ice boxes give sales arguments, will be improvised at the Florida Electric Exposition at the Florida State Fair, Feb. 8, W. A. Gluesing, scichtist in charge for General Electric has announced here.

It is all a demonstration of what Mrs. Housewife or Mr. Chef may expect in the near future from electronic and atomic energies in the home. Not least will be a modern sink into which flows water from an apparently unattached spigot to automatically wash huge stacks of dishes and dispose of all kinds of garbage.

STETSON SCHOOL OF MUSIC PRESENTS RECITAL

James Perdue was one of seven students presented in a voice and instrumental recital January 12 at 8 p. m. in Elizabeth Hall. His numbers on the baritone horn were "Largo" by Handel and "Castles in the Air" by Smith.

Jim is a sophomore and hails from Avon Park. He is a music major, member of the University Band, Stetson Symphony, Wood Wind Quintet and is President of Kappa Psi.—Stetson Reporter.

SCHOOL of CRIME

Crime in America has long since passed the stage where its most dangerous aspects were those relating to the individual criminal or to small groups of criminal associates. It has become an organized business—big business—grossing many millions of dollars annually and covering a wide range of lawlessness from petty theft to kidnapping, murder, and treason.

Criminal organizations, like other businesses, require working personnel—trained operatives—and it draws these from the ranks of shiftless youths, neglected boys and girls, street loafers, and the moral derelicts found in every community. Under the tutelage of older criminals, they are trained in the techniques of crime and soon become experts in some particular line.

Last year 734,041 youths of both sexes — many of them from supposedly good homes —were drawn into this great American school of crime and started on criminal careers. Of this number, 6,571 were involved in killings; 21,509 in robberies; 58,094 in assaults; 38,128 in burglaries; 64,213 in larceny; 18,294 in automobile thefts; 37,332 in sex offenses —and so on to the dismal total quoted above.

There is no single answer to the juvenile delinquency problem, because there are so many contributing factors to be reckoned with. Its worst phases could be wiped out, however, through an aroused parenthood, better home conditions, better training in religion and spiritual living, more stress on morals in the public schools, and more adequate community recreational facilities for boys and girls.

The churches of America are striving to stem this tide of disaster and save boys and girls from the pitfalls of delinquency. They stand ready to cooperate with parents, civic groups, and communities in combatting those influences which lead young people astray. Relatively few youthful criminals come from homes where the influence of the Church is dominant.

Talk to the leaders of your Church. Enlist today in the battle to save American childhood and youth from the perils that beset them in these dark times.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
