The Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

By DREW PEARSON

Navy Background

TO UNDERSTAND WHY Secretary of the Navy Matthews had to discipline Adm. Louis Denfeld—whom this column has consistently praised—you have to understand what has gone on in the navy.

Over the 50-year period beginning with Teddy Roosevelt, the admirals have led almost a charmed life. They had behind them the personal glamour and publicity that radiated from those two dynamic presidents—Teddy and FDR—plus the secret but powerful support of Bethlehem steel, U.S. steel, Westinghouse electric and other big corporations whose business flourished from building battleships.

The only two Presidents who bucked the navy in that period—Coolidge and Hoover—faced an admirals' revolt not unlike that of today, aided and abetted by the big steel and ship-building companies.

Greatest heyday of the admirals came under Franklin Roosevelt. They had never got over this, and Secretary Matthews is now reaping the consequences.

FDR appointed as his secretary of the navy Claude Swanson, a delightful and aging ex-senator from Virginia who knew little about the navy. Swanson died in office after letting Roosevelt and the admirals run the show. His successor was Charles Edison, son of the late great inventor, Thomas A. Edison.

Edison Knew Navy

The new secretary had operated a big industrial firm, understood construction technicalities, and immediately got in the admirals hair.

By this time, FDR had diverted many hundreds of millions from public works administration funds to build warships. And, although Congress howled, this was probably a good thing—in view of impending war. Certainly it would have been a good thing if the admirals had not insisted on building so many battleships but had built a few more escort vessels and antisubmarine craft.

This was where Secretary Edison and the top navy brass had their first big clash. Edison went out to Pearl Harbor and dared to criticize. He told the admirals that duty at Pearl Harbor did not mean lounging all the time on the beach at Waikiki, and that the first thing they had to do was get their fuel-oil tanks underground.

Even more important, Edison told the admirals to clear off the superstructures of their battleships. The next war, he said, would be an air war; and battleships would have to fire straight up in the air, not broadside. Therefore, they couldn't be in the position of firing at their own crow's nests.

Top-Heavy Destroyer

About this time, Edison also caught the admirals lousing up the new destroyers built with PWA funds. He found that out of 28 new destroyers, 20 were so top-heavy that extra weight had to be added to the keels to keep them from turning turtle in the water. In addition, the deck plates on three destroyers buckled in only a "moderately rolling sea." Furthermore, because the navy still insisted on using rivets, millions of defective rivets had to be replaced.

Edison not only discovered these facts but also learned that three of the private shipyards building the destroyers feared the center of gravity was too high and warned the admirals in advance. They even offered to submit the center-of-gravity test to Gibbs and Cox.

Secretary Edison also discovered that these errors were chiefly due to the fact that the chief of naval construction, Adm. William G. DuBose, was at loggerheads with Adm. Harold G. Bowen, the chief of naval engineering. So he shifted them both.

Edison Eased Out

By this time the top brass who had been running the navy department in the past were really seething. And they took their complaint to their best friend—Franklin D. Roosevelt, who, ever since he had been assistant secretary of the navy, believed the admirals could do no wrong.

So FDR called in Charley Edison, told him the Democratic party needed a good man to run for governor of New Jersey and that he, Edison, was just the man. Furthermore, Roosevelt said he needed a Republican in the cabinet to further his bipartisan war policy.

Knox Liked Admirals

Frank Knox was an easygoing ex-newspaper publisher who loved the navy, enjoyed the polish and precision of things nautical.

At first Knox and the admirals got along beautifully. The new secretary didn't know too much about the navy, let the admirals have free rein. But gradually, as Knox began to learn what it was all about, he began to realize that it was Franklin D. Roosevelt and the admirals who really ran things.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

France, Canada Urge Atomic Pact; British Labor Gets Speedup Rule; G.M. Dividend Sets Industry Mark

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

NEW NAVAL OPERATIONS BOSS CONGRATULATED . . . U.S. Navy Secretary Francis Matthews (left) congratulates Adm. Forrest P. Sherman after the latter was named by President Truman as chief of naval operations to succeed Adm. Louis E. Denfeld. Denfeld was let out because of criticism of unification and defense policy in the armed services setup.

ATOMIC PACT:
Asked by Two

France and Canada joined at Lake Success in asking that all nations do everything in their power to ban use of atomic bombs and control atomic energy.

THE APPEAL was directed to all—and especially the Soviet union—to forget traditional ideas of the sovereignty of nations and join an atomic pact that would promote security and peace.

It was a sincere gesture, but about all that could be said of any results that might ensue was that it was a "nice try."

The proposal did have the support of the others in the majority group of the 59-nation political committee of the U.N. general assembly, but Soviet Russia was still to be heard from on the suggestion. The French-Canadian resolution actually meant the majority powers want the general assembly once more to endorse their proposal for atomic control and to order secret talks to continue between the Big Five and Canada.

FIRST BOMB WEIGHED TON

According to Stephen M. Alexis, Haiti, the first atomic bomb weighed a ton. He made the statement at a United Nations session. Statistics on the makeup of the bomb have not been officially disclosed, but Alexis said he had his information from a scientist, and that in three or four years there would be a smaller bomb for use by smaller countries.

SIR BENEGAL N. RAU, India's chief delegate, offered another idea in the debate outlining officially his plan for the international law commission to draw up a world declaration for prohibition of the bomb and for control of atomic energy.

But, it was said in official circles, that the French-Canadian proposal was as far as the majority powers wanted to go at this time.

DIVIDENDS:
New High

Was it a symbol, a portent of the future? Did it indicate the strength of the nation's economic situation, or was it as temporary signboard at the mercy of any real wind of economic recession?

WHATEVER its real significance, industrialists and economists took cheer for it. It was a vote by General Motors corporation of the largest cash-dividend total in the history of American industry. The company, which recently reported a record net profit of more than 502 million dollars from the first nine months of this year, would send checks totaling $190,436,055 to 436,005 holders of its common and preferred stock. The distribution would represent a year-end payment of $4.25 a share on the outstanding issue, raising to $8 a share the amount declared on the common stock this year.

GENERAL MOTORS was also expected to establish a record when it retired out of its own corporate funds its entire long-term debt of 125 million dollars—17 to 27 years before the notes are due.

Plane Record

Commercial planes were darting about the world faster and faster. Latest speed record for commercial planes was claimed by Pan American lines which reported its stratocruiser Westward Ho landed at London, in 9 hours and 12 minutes after leaving New York.

Cap. Robert D. Fordyce, Jackson Heights, N. Y., commander of the Westward Ho, did it with the aid of a tail wind which at times reached a speed of 75 miles an hour.

The plane traveled the Great Circle route and its average speed was about 385 miles an hour. The plane carried 21 passengers and a crew of 10.

Only a day before, a Pan American plane flew from New York to London in 9 hours, 21 minutes, which had bettered the existing mark by 20 minutes.

BRITISH LABOR:
More for More

It has been a fairly well established philosophy of trade unions to frown on the "eager beaver" who likes to demonstrate how fast he can work or how much he can produce in a given time. In fact, some unions prohibit members from engaging in any type of production speed contest.

The philosophy is understandable, if not popular. It is one which takes care of the union member who hasn't the ability, the skills or the physical stamina to keep up with the would-be speed demon. The philosophy has been applied often enough for critics to charge that it has amounted, in many instances, to an actual work "slow down."

ALL THIS being a matter of record, England's labor government's move to allocate higher rewards for greater labor productivity came as a surprise to many U. S. supporters of the Atlee regime. They began to speculate whether the prime minister was laying up trouble for himself among his labor adherents.

The British government's turning away from this traditional philosophy of labor was explained on the basis that it must be done to meet growing demands for higher wages to offset higher living costs. Therefore, the ministry is advocating a system of tying wages to the rate of production, rather than the price index.

GOLD HOARD:
Really There

Those skeptical, apprehensive citizens whose dreams had begun to be haunted by the awful spectre of doubt that Uncle Sam's purported gold store at Fort Knox wasn't there at all could all relax. The gold was there, all of it.

ASSURANCE came from a source certainly qualified to know, for that source was Leland Howard, assistant director of the U.S. bureau of the mint. It is his duty to examine personally the gold hoard at least once a year.

"There's more than 12,000 tons of it (gold) at the Ft. Knox depository," he reports. That's more than half of the 24 billion dollars worth of the stuff which the government keeps under lock and key.

OLDSTERS' ATTITUDE

Crankiness in Old Age Linked to Health

According to an Ohio state university professor, crankiness or a cantankerous state in old age is directly proportionate to poor health. In other words, the professor's situation holds basis for the adage that a man is "only as old as he feels."

The professor, Albert R. Chandler, said his conclusion was the result of 503 reports by college students and young professional people on the personal traits of older persons they knew well. The subjects of the study, the philosophy teacher said, ranged in age from 50 to over 80. Results were presented at the second annual meeting of the gerontological society, where Chandler said age itself was no cause for its wearers to be cranky or irritable, the tests showed.

RUSSIA:
Direct Warning

Soviet Russia was doing a bit of boasting and chest-thumping about the atomic bomb for her arms stockpile.

IN A SPEECH broadcast from Moscow, Georgi N. Malenkov, a member of the Soviet inner circle, warned that with the atomic bomb in Russian hands a third World War would "wipe out capitalism." His was the main speech in celebration of the 32nd anniversary of the Bolshevist revolution.

"If the imperialists unleash a third world war," he said, "this will not be the grave of individual capitalist countries, but of world capitalism as a whole."

He said that atomic energy in the hands of capitalism is the "means of bringing death."

Turning to a new note for the moment, he declared that "we do not want war and are doing everything to prevent it." Then, discussing atomic energy again, Malenkov asserted that atomic energy "in the hands of the Soviet people must and will serve as a mighty weapon of unprecedented technical progress and further speedy growth of the productive forces of our country."

FOLLOWING THE PARTY LINE right down to the final syllable, he charged that the United States has a plan to "enslave the entire world" and that this plan was "borrowed from the mad plans of Hitler and Tanaka (pre-war Japanese militarist) but different in that it exceeds both plans together."

Despite all the boasting and the bombast, there existed in many minds a doubt that Russia has the atomic bomb as we know it—a weapon ready to be dropped at will.

POLITICS:
Sound & Fury

The sound and fury of the 1950 congressional campaign was touched off rather prematurely by Minnesota's Harold E. Stassen in Minneapolis where he accused President Harry Truman of making "vicious and untrue" statements in his attacks on political enemies.

AND STASSEN is one of those enemies, for the former Minnesota governor and now president of the University of Pennsylvania, is a certain candidate for the GOP presidential nomination in 1952.

Stassen charged that Truman used historical references in his recent St. Paul speech to "wrap the cloak of Jefferson around himself," but that actually the President "long ago personally trampled on the cloak of Jefferson."

WITHOUT mentioning Truman by name, Stassen answered directly the President's address at St. Paul in which the chief executive assailed "reactionaries" who, he said, had impeded progress of his welfare program in congress.

Stassen praised congress for refusing to go along with Truman on the "dangerous" Brannan farm plan, on the President's request for postwar retention of OPA, and on his demands for pyramided centralized power over a wide renge of subjects."

BLARNEY:
A Sham Rock?

Most folks know better than to get into an argument with an Irishman—particularly about anything that is peculiarly Irish, such as the blarney stone.

BUT IN CALIFORNIA, as in Brooklyn, anything can happen, so it wasn't too surprising to find a row over Ireland's famed blarney stone breaking out there.

It all happened when a 15-pound stone, believed by San Franciscans to be a chunk of the real blarney stone, was stolen from a church bazaar. Jim Cummins, custodian of the San Francisco stone chunk, declared he had "documentary proof my stone is authentic."

On Trial Again

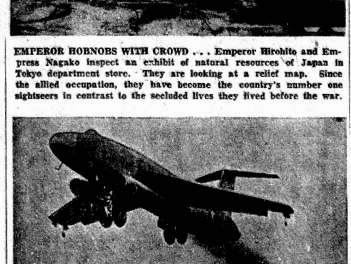
GEESE:
Farmer Burned

Near Allegan, Mich., nearly 13,000 Canadian geese were making themselves at home in the grain fields of farmer Andrew Degeus. The loud yackety-yak of the birds as they devoured the grain attracted about 5,000 sight-seers. At times, nearly 4,000 of the birds would rise into the air in a black cloud. Spectators thought it was great fun to watch the birds eating their dinner on the farm.

FIRST WOMAN AMBASSADOR . . . Mrs. Eugenie Anderson (right), Red Wing, Minn., newly-appointed ambassador to Denmark, is greeted at Washington's national airport by Mrs. India Edwards, director of the women's division of the Democratic national committee. Mrs. Anderson is the first woman ever to serve in the United States diplomatic service with the full rank of ambassador. She was sworn in shortly after her arrival in Washington. She succeeds Josiah Marvel, Jr., in Copenhagen.

TWO WHO WAIT AND HOPE . . . In New York from Czechoslovakia, 15-year-old Marina Tscherenschansy and her grandmother, Mrs. Olga Ovosilchev, 76, wait hopefully for the release of Marina's mother, who has been held on Ellis island for the past 10 months. There has been no official explanation of Mrs. Tscherenschansky's detention. Mother, grandmother and daughter are world-roving refugees.

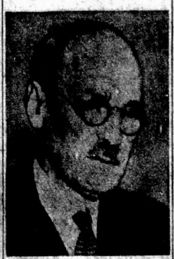
EMPEROR HOBNOBS WITH CROWD . . . Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako inspect an exhibit of natural resources of Japan in Tokyo department store. They are looking at a relief map. Since the allied occupation, they have become the country's number one sightseers in contrast to the secluded lives they lived before the war.



NEWEST JET BOMBER TESTED . . . The U. S. air force's newest jet bomber, the Martin XB-51, leaves a smoke trail as its three jet engines thrust it upward on its first flight at Patuxent, Md. The ship remained aloft for 34 minutes on initial flight. The plane has swept-back wings, horizontal stabilizer above its rudder and dual wheels mounted bicycle style. It carries crew of two in pressurized, air conditioned cockpit.

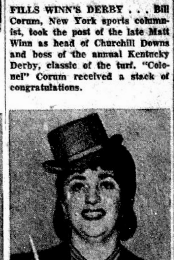
GOBS' NEW BOSS . . . Vice Adm. Forrest B. Sherman, commander of sixth task force, succeeded Adm. Louis Denfeld as chief of naval operations. The development followed chiefs of staff meeting since unification row.

SUCCESS STORY . . . Lou E. Holland, Kansas City, who started as 10-cent-per-day delivery boy, recently was elected president of the American Automobile Association at the A.A.A.'s annual meeting. He is a Kansas City businessman.



BAD NEWS . . . Austere is the word for British Prime Minister Clement Attlee as he broadcasts sad news of more austerity for Britain. Huge cuts must be made in nation's expenditures in order to win economic stability for Britain.

FILLS WINN'S DERBY . . . Bill Corum, New York sports columnist, took the post of the late Matt Winn as head of Churchill Downs and boss of the annual Kentucky Derby, classic of the turf. "Colonel" Corum received a stack of congratulations.



SOPRANO ACCUSED . . . Metropolitan opera soprano Zinka Kuntz Milanov, now appearing in Belgrade, was accused by the Russians of being an American spy and friend of Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito.

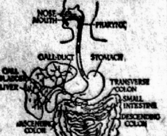
TAKE A LOOK AT YOUR INSIDES



Study the above drawing for a few minutes. Notice particularly how the bile flows from the liver into and out of the gall-bladder and thence into the small intestine where it mixes with the partly digested food just below the stomach. Bile is a necessary adjunct to proper digestion. Its absence from the intestines inevitably causes putrefaction and fermentation.

NATURE'S DANGER SIGNALS

When your stomach, liver, and gall bladder have been upset by improper eating or drinking, or when they are not working well because retained and putrefying food matter in your intestines is poisoning your entire body, your bile stops flowing freely and you, sooner or later, begin to feel some of the following symptoms:

Your breath may become unpleasant (halitosis), your tongue coated, a bad taste in your mouth, your coffee (and tobacco) lose their natural flavor, your food does not agree with you; you may have headache, heartburn, gas and dizzy spells, you may be troubled with belching; at night the gas in your bowels may press upon your bladder making you get up frequently, thus breaking into your sleep.

In the morning you are tired instead of refreshed. Gradually your health is impaired: you have constipation, gas, putrefaction and self-poisoning ("intestinal toxaemia" or "acute gastritis" as many doctors call it).

HOW TO GET RELIEF

You can relieve this condition, usually overnight, by taking Calotabs at bedtime and drinking water freely next day.

Calotabs are a thoroughly dependable laxative designed to effectively relieve symptoms of biliousness and acute gastritis due to constipation or faulty digestion, and to promote the flow of bile through the intestines.

Calotabs are pleasant to take (sugar coated), prompt and effective. Try them and see. Follow label directions. At your druggists'.

Demand the original Calotabs in the distinctive checker-board box. Accept no substitute.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

Name Calling Is Profitless

By Lawrence Gould

Does calling names get you anywhere?

Answer: Not often, if ever. It relieves your feelings (though it may make you feel guilty later) and perhaps wins you some sympathy from people who already feel as you do. But expressing your hatred of someone—which is all calling him names amounts to—neither changes him nor helps you to deal with him more effectually. It merely distracts you from the tasks of understanding why he does the things you fear or dislike and what can be done to counteract them. To a mature mind there are no "villains"—only grown-up "problem children."

Can you be sure a psychiatrist will help you?

Answer: I'm afraid not—in fact, I doubt whether any honorable man would guarantee to cure a given patient. But if you are mentally ill, remember that your very doubt of whether psychiatric treatment can "do any good" is part of your illness; it grows out of the resistance your unconscious mind sets up against a process which may weaken its hold on you. If you find a doctor whom you can trust "some of the time," take your doubts to him and discuss them along with your other symptoms. He won't mind, and probably can help you overcome them.

Does reading ability improve with practice?

Answer: Under normal circumstances, Yes. Up to your limits of fatigue, the oftener you do anything, the more it tends to become automatic, and therefore to be done faster and with less expenditure of effort. A competent book reviewer really can get the gist of a whole book in the time that it would take most people to read, say, two or three chapters. But if you've acquired bad reading habits—like just looking at words without stopping to think what they mean—the more reading you do, the less you will understand or remember.

Glutamic Acid Improves Intelligence

By Dr. James W. Barton

I HAVE WRITTEN a couple of times about the use of glutamic acid—an amino acid—in helping to brighten the mind. This discovery was first reported by Dr. C. C. Pfeiffer, professor of pharmacology, Illinois College of Medicine, who stated that glutamic acid brightened the wits in a series of 69 mentally defective children one and one-half to 17 years of age.

More recently an editorial in "The Journal of the American Medical Association" stated that glutamic acid had been found of great help in the mild form of epilepsy (petit mal). Still another group reported that they had observed a rise in mental age and intelligence quotient in adults.

Since the above favorable reports, some research workers have stated that they failed to obtain favorable results in treating "backward" children with glutamic acid.

In view of the above favorable and unfavorable reports, a not unusual occurrence when any new drug or method of treatment is child is born); that is, the lowest form of intelligence.

Generally speaking a moron has an intelligence quota of from 80 to 90, an imbecile is much below this, running from 50 to 60, but an idiot has little or no intelligence, although he is lively and imitates well.

It would naturally be expected that little or nothing can be done to increase the intelligence of a mongolian idiot, but in "The American Journal of Psychiatry," Drs. F. T. Zimmerman, Bessie B. Burgemeister and T. J. Putman report their study of the effects of glutamic acid in 30 definite cases of mongolism idiocy or mental backwardness and 30 non-mongoloid control cases.

announced, it is of interest to learn that glutamic acid has been found to improve the wits or intelligence in what is known as mongolian idiocy (which is present when the

While too much should not be expected in all cases of mental backwardness, parents of backward children would do well to discuss this method of treatment with their family physician.

Spokesman of God

Lesson for November 27, 1949

Dr. Foreman

GOD MAKES USE of strange characters. What shall we think of a preacher who tried to beg off from being a preacher? What can we make of a man who actually reproached God for forcing him into the ministry? How shall we rate a man who in time of war urged his own nation to surrender, who was believed by almost nobody, who was repudiated by his own class and even his own family? What can we say of a man who was often in hot water with the city authorities, who spent months of his time in jail, who was called subversive, and who never got along with the established religion of his time?

The prophet Jeremiah was that man; yet posterity honored him. His own generation thought him a liar. But some then knew, as we know today, that he was a teller of God's truth, a spokesman of God.

Was he a pessimist?

WE KNOW (Jer. 1) that Jeremiah did not wish to be a prophet in the first place, though unlike Isaiah he shrank back not from a sense of sin but because he thought of himself as a mere child.

We know (chap. 20) that at times he was thoroughly discouraged about himself, and even cursed the day he was born. It is also true that in the last war waged by his little country of Judah before it was smashed, his advice from beginning to end was "Surrender."

No wonder people thought him a pessimist, a calamity-howler. But before we call him such names we must remember two things. First is, that his unwillingness to be a prophet, and the fact that so to speak he hated the job, marks a vital fact: he, perhaps even more than other prophets, sensed the difference between his own ideas and what God was saying through him.

Even when what the Lord said was not what they themselves would have wished to say, they spoke for the Lord nevertheless. The other thing to remember is that when everybody wants to believe a pleasant lie, and a man comes along telling the unpleasant truth, he is not a pessimist, he is simply stating facts.

Jeremiah stood by the facts as God gave him insight to see them. If they jailed him for it, he could not help that; but they could not shut his mouth nor close his eyes.

Was he a patriot?

JEREMIAH was constantly accused of acts and attitudes which today might be called "subversive," though he dearly loved his country. This was because he dared to rebuke the ambitions of his country's leaders.

They said: Our country shall be free! But Jeremiah knew it would not be free. They said: Our king will conquer! Jeremiah knew he would end his days a prisoner. Jeremiah was unpopular, to put it mildly, because he advised his country to take the only place among the nations it could take—an humble one.

Then, as now, many persons think that patriotism means believing yours is the perfect country. If anyone points to injustice in our land, some one may yell, "Deport him!" But Jeremiah showed what is a true patriot. He is not necessarily the man who approves all the foreign policies of his nation (Jeremiah approved not one), nor the man who speaks only good of his country and his people.

The best patriot is the person who, seeing his country as God sees it, will dare to speak out against evil wherever he finds it.

A Way to Know God

JEREMIAH knew God well, and the trouble with his contemporaries was that they did not know God. But Jeremiah did not say: "Know God by becoming a prophet like me," for he knew that only a few are called to be prophets. Neither did he say, "Go to church oftener," for you can see in chap. 7 what he thought of the Temple of his time.

He pointed to the good king Josiah (chap. 13). That king had found God, not in a mystic vision like Jeremiah's, not in burnt offerings and sacrifices, but in the doing of justice, looking out for the exploited, caring for the helpless, seeing that justice was done.

Let Cranberries Grace the Turkey Stuffing

(See Recipe Below)

Thanksgiving Tips

IT WON'T BE LONG now before one of the biggest of the holiday meals will grace your table: golden brown, done to a turn turkey, chicken or other fowl, with the trimmings, topped off with a dessert of glistening pumpkin pie or spicy mincemeat.

The market list will be a long one, the preparations extensive and the planning careful. Start early and make an outline of all ingredients to have, and just what should be done when. Then even a Thanksgiving dinner will be well organized and efficiently executed.

FOR TURKEYS weighing 8 to 16 pounds, use an oven temperature of 325°. For turkeys over 18 pounds, use an over temperature of 300°. Plan to "rest" the turkey 15 to 30 minutes after roasting to make carving easier.

Sweet Potatoes with Oranges
(Serves 8)

- 8 boiled sweet potatoes, sliced thin
- 2 oranges, peeled, sliced thin
- 1 lemon, peeled, sliced thin
- ⅓ cup brown sugar
- ⅓ cup butter
- ¾ cup water

Arrange potatoes and fruit in layers in a buttered casserole. Sprinkle with sugar, dot with butter and add water. Cover. Bake in a moderate (350°) oven until tender.

Gingerale Fruit Salad
(Serves 8)

- 2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- ¾ cup boiling water
- ¼ cup lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup gingerale
- ½ cup red grapes, seeded and halved
- ½ cup celery, finely chopped
- ⅓ cup apple, cored and cubed
- ¼ cup pineapple cubes
- ½ cup cubed, canned pears

Dissolve gelatin in cold water; add hot water, lemon juice, sugar and gingerale. When mixture thickens, fold in fruit. Chill in one large or in individual molds. Serve with mayonnaise.

Chiffon Pumpkin Tarts
(Makes 8)

- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- ¼ cup cold water
- 1¼ teaspoons cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon ginger
- ½ teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¾ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- ¾ cup rich milk
- 2 cups canned or cooked pumpkin
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- ½ teaspoon vanilla
- 8 baked tart shells

Soften gelatin in water. Combine spices, salt, sugar in top of double boiler. Mix well. Stir in milk and pumpkin. Place over boiling water and heat to boiling point, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; add gelatin and stir until dissolved. When cool, fold in whipped cream and vanilla. Pour into baked and cooled tart shells or a nine-inch pastry shell, if one large pie is desired. Chill until firm. Garnish with toasted pecans. Serve with additional whipped cream, if desired.

How to Prepare Turkey

CLEAN TURKEY by removing all feathers. Singe and use tweezers on pin feathers, if necessary. Wash and drain well. Rub cavity with salt. Stuff neck and body cavities lightly as stuffing expands during roasting.

For a turkey over 12 pounds, wrap strips of clean cloth around end of each leg bone and tie with string. Cover cloth with shortening. This prevents lower leg from drying. Tie leg bones together and fasten string under the tail to hold legs against the body. Rub surface of the turkey with softened butter.

Roast turkey in a slow oven following the times given here:

Size	Roasting Time
8 pounds	3 hours
10 pounds	3½ hours
12 pounds	4 hours
14 pounds	4½ hours
18 pounds	5½ hours
25 pounds	6½ hours

JUST ONE more tip: plan small servings of everything except the turkey, because that's what folks will fill up on!

Oyster Soup
(Serves 8)

- 2 tablespoons onion, grated
- 1 tablespoon celery, minced
- 1 tablespoon parsley, minced
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 pint bouillon
- 1 pint oysters

Simmer vegetables lightly in butter. Add flour and brown. Gradually add oyster liquor and bouillon. Season and cook for five minutes.

Just before serving, add oysters, either cut or whole, and cook only until they curl.

Fresh Cranberry-Apple Bread Stuffing
(For 16-pound turkey)

- 1 quart fresh cranberries, chopped
- 1 quart peeled, chopped apples
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 2 cups sugar
- 1 cup finely chopped celery
- 1 gallon ½-inch bread crumbs
- 1 cup water or broth

Combine all ingredients in order given. Add water or broth and mix well.

LYNN SAYS:
Turkey Talk Will Guide you Helpfully

Bread for stuffing the holiday bird is best when a day or two old, and is much easier to use if broken or cut into small sized cubes.

Stuffings will have a more nutlike and appetizing flavor when the cubes of bread are toasted lightly before using.

Carve an equal amount of light and dark meat so that everyone may have his preference.

Dry the inside of the bird before

Turkey and stuffing will both keep better if the stuffing is removed from the bird before storing in the refrigerator, after the meal is over.

If you are depending upon a roast meat thermometer to guide you in testing the "doneness" of the turkey, it should register at 190°f.

When the turkey is done, the drumstick can be moved up and down readily. The meat feels soft when the thickest part of the drumstick is pressed between the fingers protected with cloth or paper.

All strings and skewers should be

The American visitor to London delighted in listening to the Cockneys talk. It was so novel to him that he would engage them in conversation just to hear the different accent.

He was riding on the "underground" one day when he heard the conductor shout, "'ighbridge next stop. 'ighbridge."

When the conductor passed him the American couldn't resist his little joke. "I beg your pardon," he said, "but didn't you drop something back there?"

"Hi see wot you mean," replied the conductor, "but don't be alarmed. Hi'll pick hit hup hagain when we reach Hoxford Street."

If You Are 85, 45 or 3, Hadacol Helps All Ages

HADACOL is good for all ages, bringing five of nature's B vitamins and important minerals to the young and old alike. Recently the HADACOL folks received the good news that among the countless thousands who had been benefited by HADACOL was a lady of 85, a man of 45 who felt like he was 18, and a beautiful little girl only three years old.

Mrs. Edmond Doucet, of Church Point, La., is 85 years old, having thousands of friends in the picturesque Evangeline section of Louisiana where she was born and has spent all of her life. These friends are happy to know that Mrs. Doucet feels better now than at any time in two years and gives the credit to HADACOL.

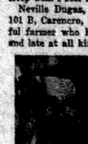
MRS. DOUCET

"I had been sick for almost two years and was suffering with gastric disturbances and bloating. I was run down, had lost weight and had to stay in bed most of the time. I lost courage and felt that there was no hope for me."

Mrs. Doucet had tried many preparations without apparent beneficial results when she heard the glorious news about HADACOL.

"After taking several bottles of HADACOL I felt like a new person," said Mrs. Doucet. "I eat anything I want without ill effects and sleep well. I feel much stronger."

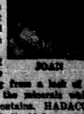
Neville Dugas, of Route 1, Box 101 B, Carencro, La., is a successful farmer who had worked early and late at all kinds of hard work and it wasn't so long ago that he wondered if he would ever be able to work that way again. He had tried many medicines, but felt no better.



MR. DUGAS

"I had all kinds of stomach disturbances," said Mr. Dugas. "My stomach was so bloated that it felt like it would swell up and burst. I suffered with gastric disturbances, heart burn and was run down and nervous. I had no appetite and suffered with headaches and I couldn't sleep at night. I was so drawn and pale that my friends had difficulty in recognizing me. After the third bottle of HADACOL I felt a real improvement and after the twelfth bottle of HADACOL I felt like I was 18 instead of 45. I am feeling perfectly well."

"My three year old daughter, Joan, had lost her appetite," said Mr. Dugas. "Her cheeks were pale and she cried often. I started giving Joan HADACOL and after three of the large economy size bottles she is now healthy, has an excellent appetite and her disposition is perfect."



JOAN

All three of these people were suffering from a lack of B vitamins and the minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away. It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

A lack of only a small amount of B vitamins and certain minerals will cause digestive disturbances. . . . Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heartburn, gas pains and your food will sour on your stomach and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of lack of B vitamins and minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a deficiency disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the vitamins and minerals which your system lacks.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

So it matters not how old you are or who you are . . . it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives because HADACOL supplied the vitamins and minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you. Give HADACOL a trial!—Adv.

AVON PARK SERMONETTE

THE FRUIT BEARING CHRISTIAN

Rev. E. D. Penton Pastor
Assembly Of God Church

St. John 15:1-8 John 15:1-2

I am the true vine, and my Father is the Husbandman. Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away, and every branch that beareth frvit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

Under the Mosiac law, a priest was required to wear upon his garments, both bells and pomegranites, when he went into the presence of God. The bells were a symbol of praise, and the pomegranites were a symbol of a fruitful life.

When a Christian comes into a relationship with God, he too is judged by the fruitfulness of his life. In order that we may have a fruitful life, we must be willing to undergo a purging, or a digging out of the self-life, and let it be replaced by a holy, useful life for God.

The testings that come in the form of disappointment, or trouble, does not mean that God is displeased with us he is only trying to purge our life that we may be able to enjoy more of his richness.

The branch of an orange tree does not have to perform good works, such as clearing weeds from around the tree, or watering the roots of the tree, in order to bear fruit. All that is required is that it stay anchored in the trunk of the tree. As long as it stays anchored in the tree, the sap from the tree flows through the branch, and it automatically bears fruit. The secret of bearing fruit for God is to stay anchored in the vine, Christ Jesus.

No man is naturally good. It is born within the nature of every individual a tendency to do that which is evil. If we do good, it is because we fight against the disire to sin. The fourth verse states that we can do nothing about being fruitful unless we abide in Christ. The word abide, in this case means to stay anchored in Christ so that the nature of Christ is made manifest in our life. In the seventh verse, the secret to answered prayer, is to stay anchored in Christ. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Last, but not least we find, according tothe 8th verse, that the best way to give praise unto God is to bear much fruit. In order to bear fruit, we must absorb the nature of Christ unto our life constantly. Not just once a week, or once a month, but always abide in the love of Christ.

The fruit of the spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and temperance. (Gal. 5-22) These attributes become a part of our nature as we absorb the nature of Christ.

Let us ever be fruit-bearers for God.

Winter Guests Club News

By Virginia C. Hill

Mrs. Elmer Curtis of Bradenton, Mrs. Atha Cox and Mrs. Lillian Gallager of Tavares spent Monday and Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Maxson at 401 E. Canfield. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Gallager attended the conference of Northern District of the Congregational Church at Lake Byrd Lodge on Tuesday afternoon and evening.

* * * *

The Guest Club is saddened to hear that Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wyman of 127 N. Forrest Ave. were called home to Waseca, Minn., last Wednesday because of the death of their son. They left immediately, but will return to Avon Park as soon as possible.

The sympathy of every one who knew Mr. and Mrs. Wyman is extended to them in their hour of bereavement.

* * * *

The Club was honored on Tuesday by a visit from the President of the Florida State Shuffle Board Ass'n, Mr. Flint and wife from Lakeland; also the President of the Central District Shuffleboard Ass'n, Mr. Parks and wife of Kissimmee.

Mrs. Robert Bovard and Mrs. H. J. Harper acted as committee in charge of a tea given in behalf of the guests. Tea, coffee and cookies were served. Mrs. Ernest Armstrong and Mrs. Matelda Johnson poured at an attractively arranged table. Excellent short talks by both Mr. Flint and Mr. Parks followed.

The hall was very tastefully decorated with flowers and greenery by Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Beckwith and members of the committee.

* * * *

Members who did not visit the Club Friday night missed a jolly impromptu party. It seems that the birthdays of three of our distinguished members clustered around this date. Mr. Walker's on the 19th and Messrs Beckwith and Lavis on the 18th. However, Mr. Lavis was among the abentees.

* * * *

After the usual game session, "Aunt Judy", Armstrong and Mrs. Hilda Taylor requested that tables be arranged in a row. While waiting for the outcome of kitchen activities, someone started a little round of singing, and birthday congratulations were exchanged. By this time the coffee and cookies appeared on the tables.

A perfunctory poll of members present was taken. It is to be hoped that no name is omitted from the following list: Mr. and Mrs. E. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Smith, Mrs. H. J. Harper, Mrs. Lena L. Kean, Mr. and Mrs. Orr Love, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beal, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Kelley, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Cosselman, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Street, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Forbes, Mrs. Rex Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Heath, Arthur S. Pickell, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, Mrs. Hilda Taylor, Mrs. V. C. Hill.

On Saturday evening the first in a series of movies, "East of Bombay", was presented at the club house. These films are furnished by the Modern Talking Picture Service from Atlanta, Ga. The projector is furnished by the Avon Park High School and Mr. Vaughn Driggers, assistant High School principal, kindly gave his time to operate the machine. The first one of the series was excellent. "Meet the Missus", of the Club President Mrs. Jane Beckwith. She was born in Boston some few years ago, and in course of time graduated from Wellesly College. From then on her life seemed to be filled with many and varied interesting experiences. These included three years in teaching High School mathmatics and travels in the West. When she met and married the man of her choice, he in some way persuaded her to leave New England and reside in Long Island. To this union was born one daughter, living in New Jersey. A little girl in that home calls her grandmother Later Florida beckoned, they came, they saw and bought a home here.

* * * *

At the end of their journey, back to Long Island in the Spring, they found their home there in smoking ruins. However enough was salvaged from the debris to give her Floridian home a decidedly New England atmosphere.

Jane Beckwith, is a friendly and gracious hostess ever. A perfect help-mate to her husband, the President.

New members registered this past week: From Minn., Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wyman, from Mass., Mrs. Mabel Deyle, Mr. and Mrs. Park F. McAdams, from Avon Park, Mr. H. Currie, Mr. E. D. Todd, from Illinois, Mrs. Estella A. Hicks, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Efting, Mr. J. J. Weaver, from New York, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Heath, from Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beall, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Altman, from Indiana, Mrs. A. T. Johnson, from Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn S. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. Rex A. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Love.

The number from Michigan predominated last week. This state may be cold in Winter, but it surely is delightful in Summer. Preface a motor trip through the state by a moonlight, excursion on Lake Erie, from Buffalo to Detroit. In that city Greenfield Village, Ford museum and the unique zoological gardens will furnish both pleasure and edification. Continue your journey, to and through the upper Peninsula on Michigan's excellent highways with their perfectly spaced way-side stations. This is something really worth doing and don't forget to visit Mackinac Island.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Wingard

Miss Gwendolyn Prevatt And Delmas Wingard Married Saturday

Miss Gwendolyn Prevatt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prevatt became the bride of Delmas Wingard, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wingard Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, among the presence of close friends and relatives, at the Southside Baptist Church, with the Rev. Lawrence Collins officiating.

The attractive bride chose to wear for the occasion a grey gabardine suit, with green accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations. After the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip to Callahan and Jacksonville. They are expected to return to Avon Park Sunday and will make their home here.

* * * *

Winston Prevatt of Jacksonville, brother of Gwendolyn surprised his relatives and friends Saturday when they received word of his marriage, which took place at 11:30 o'clock Saturday morning prior to Gwendolyn's at 2:00 o'clock. He, Gwendolyn and their parents were very much surprised when they discovered they had chosen the same wedding date without either of them knowing it.

Winston is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Prevatt and is an electrician, employed by the city of Jacksonville. Gwendolyn is the youngest girl in the family.

Neta LeBre And Harold Lang Married

The wedding of Neta LeBre, formally of Avon Park, and Harold Lang was solemnized Saturday night, November 12, at the Central Baptist Church in Miami. Dr. C. Ray Angell performed the ceremony.

The bride wore an afternoon dress of royal blue taffeta with navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. The bride's sister, Mrs. Florence Rouse was matron of honor and chose to wear for the occasion a teal blue afternoon dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. Delbert Fletcher of Miami attended the groom as best man, and Jack Combs of Combs Funeral Service lighted the candles.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Mindy's Restaurant. Mrs. Anna C. Collins served at the bride's table. Guests included: Mrs. Walter H. Combs Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Combs Jr., Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Combs, Mrs. Leona Combs Lund, Mrs. Lena Lewis, Mrs. Laura Cassidy, Alene R. Wilson, Ray R. Wilson, Robert W. Wilma Giddens Celebrates 16th Birthday

Miss Wilma Giddens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Giddens, celebrated her 16th birthday Saturday night at a party given at her home on 17 S. Central.

After the guests arrived they had an exciting "scavenger hunt", returning later to Wilma's home where refreshments of sandwiches, cake and soft drinks were served.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Harold Glisson, Wilma Giddens, Gerry Elder, Harold Worden, Betty Jo Elder, Marvin Kahn, Helen Wilson, Bobby Bolt, Ann Stewart, Jack Hagiemaster, Charlene Hart, Leslie Crews, Virginia Landress, Robert Palmer, Norma Thompson, Levon Landress, Roberta Harris, Mack Flowers, Lucion Stewart and Mickey Walker. The Junior Pal Gal Club assisted Mrs. Giddens with the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford and children, Karen and Lura Jane are leaving Thursday for Ft. Myers, to spend the Thanksgiving Holidays with Mrs. Crawford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Underhill.

Rev. And Mrs. Ashworth Honored At Warren Home

The Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Ashworth were honored at Open ouse at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Warren on East Canfield Street, from 3 'til 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, when the members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service entertained members and friends of the First Methodist Church. Rev. Ashworth, who has served as pastor of the Avon Park church for the past three and one-half years, has been assigned to a new pastorate at Key West, and Mrs. Ashworth was leaving Monday for their new home.

Guests were received at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Dr. I. W. Chandler, chairman of the board of stewards and Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. J. W. Cummins, president of the WSCS, and Rev. and Mrs. Ashworth.

Mrs. Hubert Bussard was in charge of the guest book, which was tied with lavender and rose ribbons. and later presented to the Ashworths.

Throughout the afternoon, an enjoyable musical program was given by Miss Dorothy Jones, soloist, and with Mrs. Earl Jackson and Mrs. Vaughn Driggers alternating in piano selections.

Beautiful arrangements of Fall flowers were placed at vantage points in the reception rooms, and the centerpiece for the dining table, overlaid with an exquisite Italian cutwork cloth, was a bowl of chrysanthemums intermingled with greenery. A bouquet of pink chrysanthemums graced the buffet. The table was handsomely appointed in silver, the tea and coffee services being placed at opposite ends, and with silver trays filled with dainty sandwiches and small cakes. Silver compotes held salted nuts and candies.

Mrs. M. B. Wingfield and Mrs. Ben T. Stewart poured the first hour, and Mrs. I. H. Ford, Mrs. Rosemary Cason and Mrs. Carl Cruse from four 'til five.

Others assisting in serving were Mrs. Carl Neusbaum, Mrs. W. P. O'Steen, Mrs. Virgil Still, Mrs. Charles Giddens, Miss Jaunita O'Steen, Mrs. C. L. Craft, and Mrs. Quimby Melton, Jr., of Athens, Georgia.

Over 100 guests called during the designated hours.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Whitaker, born Oct. 31, who has since been in a Lakeland Hospital and is now in an Atlanta Hospital is reported to be much improved and is expected that he will be brought to his home in Sebring within the next two weeks. Mrs. Whitaker will be remembered as the former Miss Wanda Ward of Avon Park.

Firemen Enjoy Family Dinner And Party

Last Thursday was family night at the Fire Station for members of the Avon Park Firemen. A turkey supper was served, with all the trimmings to the firemen and their families, approximately two hundred men, women and children were present.

"Hillbilly" music was furnished by the firemen's string band and a good time was enjoyed by all. Some danced, others stood by and watched but all agreed they had a wonderful time.

"It is not the policy of the Firemen to take any part of a Public dance", said Wilbur Giddens, President, "but some of the members wanted to do a bit of old time square dancing and none present could see any harm in it". There was no drinking of any kind, each married member was accompanied by his wife, and children if they had any, it was a family party and everyone seemed to have a good time.

As most citizens of Avon Park know, the Firemen are very instrumental in helping the poor or distressed in this city. They have proved this by purchasing a rescue outfit that cost more than $2500 and spend hours at a time dragging lakes for drowned bodies. They also have a valuable project known as the Walking Blood Bank which has proven not only helpful to the local Doctors and hospitals but also sick patients needing blood transfusions. The Firemen have now purchased a lot of toys to be given to underprivileged children at Christmas time.

As one member stated at a recent Firemen meeting "our policy is to help others who are in distress, lets help our families for a change and have a family supper and party". All agreed and the wives of the Firemen are very glad they did.

If the Brakes Don't Work Just Hit Something Cheap

By BILLY ROSE

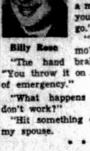
A fellow tried to sell me a helicopter the other day. He told me I could hop from the roof of my theatre to my place in Westchester in 20 minutes, and added that it was as easy to drive as a car. I told him I wasn't interested because I couldn't drive a car.

How come? Didn't I ever try and learn? Just once. And here's what happened. . . .

One day several summers ago, my wife said, "I wish you'd learn how to drive. Every time you want a paper or a pack of cigarettes, I've got to stop what I'm doing and chauffeur you into the village."

"Okay," I said, "if you'll play teacher."

Next morning I crawled into the car beside Eleanor. "Just turn this jigger over," she began, "push in this dingus, pull out this doohickey, step on this wingdoodle, press down on this thing—amabob, and you're all set to go."



Billy Rose

"What's this gizmo?" I asked.

"The hand brake," she said. "You throw it on quickly in case of emergency."

"What happens if the brakes don't work?"

"Hit something cheap," advised my spouse.

A MOMENT LATER the car went hiccuping down the road. Then for a mile it went smooth as you please. A feeling of confidence came over me, the same feeling all new drivers get just before the lights go out. I pressed down on the gas.

"The pistons seem to be knocking," I said professionally.

"Pistons nothing," said Eleanor. "Those are my knees."

Everything went fine until we got to the traffic light in the village. I forgot to press the hickeymadoodle on the gilhooley and the car stalled. The lights changed from green to red, and from red back to green. A cop came over.

"What's the matter?" he asked. "Haven't we got any colors you like?"

After switching the radio on and off, I suddenly pressed the right thing. In the order of the way it happened, I grazed the cop, skidded through the safety zone, clipped the fender on a bus, and came to rest with my bumper against a fire plug. The cop stalked over, took a handkerchief out of his pocket and dropped it in front of the car.

"Lookit, Gene Autry," he said. "I wana see you do that all over again, and this time pick up the handkerchief with your teeth."

Eleanor gave him the smile that used to make the front cover of "Life." "He's learning to drive," she said.

"No kidding!" said the cop. "How long is this class going to last? Some other drivers would like to use this road when Sonny Boy gets through with it."

"What did I do wrong?" I asked the officer.

"Didn't you hear my whistle? Didn't you see my signal?" he demanded.

I shook my head.

The cop sighed. "I'd better go home," he said. "I don't seem to be doing much good around here."

I THREW THE CAR into reverse and backed away from the fire plug.

"If you're going to drive much," yelled the cop, "I'd have the car painted red on one side and blue on the other, so the witnesses will contradict each other."

I had only one more mishap getting home. I scraped a guy's fender. He was pretty nice about it. "It's my fault," he said. "I saw you coming. I should have driven into the fields and avoided you."

There are two stone posts flanking the drive which leads up to our home. I got past them without a scratch—also without the rear bumper. That did it.

Since then, I've never been behind a wheel. When Eleanor and I go driving I sit in the back seat and read the Burma Shave signs. The only concession I've made to the Automotive Age is to learn how to fold a road map.

The Brave of Earth

STRONG with the shining shield of their high purpose,
Brave with the silver armor of their prayer,
We see them face the day, their unseen crosses
Almost too heavy for their hearts to bear.
Yet uncomplainingly they live the hours,
And patiently they face the lengthening years,
With none but God, himself, to know their heartbreak,
And none but God to mark their unshed tears.

The hurt of earth! How ably they dissemble!
They bear with courage grief they never tell:
Self-conquerors they go, the strong, the valiant,
The brave, who smile and say that all is well.
When all awards for courage have been given,
Surely the highest will be theirs in Heaven.

JUST JESTING

Just Wait

The widow probably would have been better off if she had stood over the stone-cutter as he chiseled the epitaph on her late husband's tombstone. But she was terribly grief-stricken and gave him a slip of paper with the wording she wanted on the stone.

Instead of making two separate lines he ran two sentences together with not even a comma separating the thoughts so that the epitaph read:

"Thou art at rest 'til we meet again."

Triple Return

An American comedian had just completed a tour of English theaters. The actor was asked how he liked playing before the English audiences.

"Splendid," he enthused. "I prefer them to American audiences."

"Why is that?"

"When the English audience hears an amusing story it laughs first to be polite, then it laughs again when it hears others laugh, then it laughs a third time when it gets the point of the story."

"Oh, I've bin in business," explained Abie. "I found a nice partner with lots of money and ve opened a grucery sturr."

"Naturally. You've had a lot of experience with grocery stores. Then what happened?"

"We dissolved a year later. I had the money and he had the experience."

THANKSGIVING TURKEY

By Richard H. Wilkinson

3-Minute Fiction

IMOGENE sat at the kitchen table and listened starry-eyed while Tony read the letter. "Dear Tony and Imogene: I was sorry to hear about Tony's ill luck down there in Carolina, and know you must be having rather a hard pull. But things are bound to straighten out. Under separate cover I am sending you a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner. Please don't acknowledge its receipt, as your Aunt Sara might read the letter. She doesn't know I'm doing this, and I doubt if she'd approve—you know how she felt when you two got married and started out on your wild venture. My love to you both. Uncle Rufus."

Tony pulled off the last wrapper and grinned happily. Within the cardboard box there nestled a handsome, fat turkey; a delicious, palatable turkey. Tony's mouth watered at sight of it.

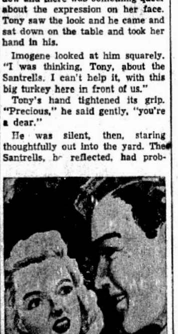
Accompanying the bird were vegetables galore, nuts and fruit and a real plum pudding ready for heating. It was a complete, old-fashioned Thanksgiving dinner.

At length Imogene stirred. She turned and looked through the window and there was something queer about the expression on her face. Tony saw the look and he came and sat down on the table and took her hand in his.

Imogene looked at him squarely. "I was thinking, Tony, about the Santrells. I can't help it, with this big turkey here in front of us."

Tony's hand tightened its grip. "Precious," he said gently, "you're a dear."

He was silent, then, staring thoughtfully out into the yard. The Santrells, he reflected, had probably never had a turkey for Thanksgiving. It was doubtful this Thanksgiving if they'd have anything to eat. They were poor, dirt poor, and there were eight children in the family. Mr. Santrell was sick half the time; he couldn't work, even if work were available. Their plight was pitiful. They had been too proud to ask for help; had reached a state of near destitution, when the town discovered their condition.



"Darling," she said, "I've been trying to figure out one good reason for marrying you since our wedding day."

PRESENTLY TONY turned. He said: "Listen, sweet, as far as I'm concerned, I'd like to live through one Thanksgiving without a turkey. I've had to eat one every Thanksgiving since I can remember. It will be a welcome relief. Besides, Thanksgiving down here doesn't seem to call for a turk. And we still have the smoked shoulder we'd planned on."

And Imogene smiled in prodigious happiness and began rewrapping Uncle Rufus's turkey. "Darling," she said, "I've been trying to figure out one good reason for marrying you since our wedding day. And now I've found it." Whereupon she kissed him and Tony held her tight in his arms.

And so they marched over to the Santrells and undid the package on Mrs. Santrell's kitchen table and watched with a curious tugging at their hearts as the eight Santrell children and the two grown-ups stared and stared at the great fat bird. They left very soon after that because Mr. and Mrs. Santrell seemed to have difficulty in finding adequate words to express themselves.

They raced up the walk of their little stucco bungalow—and stopped dead still on the veranda.

A great package reposed before the front door, and a letter lay atop the package.

Tony picked up the letter, stared at the package curiously and tore open the envelope. "Dear Imogene and Tony," he read. "Your Uncle Rufus wouldn't like it a bit if he knew I was doing this. You know how he disapproved when you two got married and went away down South. However, I know you must be lonesome and rather discouraged, and so, under separate cover, I'm sending you a turkey for your Thanksgiving dinner. Please don't acknowledge its receipt, as your Uncle Rufus might read the letter and I'd never hear the end of it. Love to you both, Aunt Sara."

JAN MINER admits that it is a rather odd distinction — she seems to have received more wedding cakes than anybody else, although she's not married. She has been wed eight times on the air, and each time fans have sent her wedding cakes. Currently starring as "Beth Lambert," alias "Carol Brent", in "Road of Life", Jan looks forward to the day when she can retire to her home in New Hampshire. The farm is on a strictly commercial basis, except for a few of her pet animals, one a horse, "Dr. Malone".

Rosalind Russell will be lured to the Broadway stage, if playwright George Kelly can do it. He wrote "Craig's Wife", one of her most successful movies and recently outlined his new play to her on the set of "Tell It to the Judge."

Randolph Scott credits the late William S. Hart with launching him on the road to screen success. Hart visited him when the star of Columbia's "The Nevadan" was working in "Roberta". "Randy," said he, "Why don't you get out of that monkey suit and into a western outfit? There's gold in them thar picture hills." Scott recently said he'll make nothing but Westerns now.

Joe DeBona, winner of the 1949 Bendix air race, has been signed by producer Lindsley Parsons for a leading role in "Smoke Hunters", the story of parachuting fire-fighters. The U. S. Forestry Service will cooperate on it.

Since a pre-view audience stood up and cheered him at a showing of "The Hasty Heart", young Richard Todd is being hailed around Warners' as the screen's newest star. An Englishman, he was one of the first British paratroop officers to jump into Normandy on D-Day. As a boy he was bedridden for three years with rheumatic fever, regained his health by playing football!

Unaccustomed as she is to roles in which she doesn't sing, Doris Day has been given a chance to branch out; Jack Warner has assigned her to a straight dramatic part as Ginger Rogers' married sister in "Storm Center".

PINK PERFECTION CAKE
Quick-method recipe

Sift together in mixing bowl:
2¼ cups sifted cake flour
3½ tsp. double-action baking powder (4½ tsp. single-action)
1 tsp. salt
1⅓ cups sugar

Add: ½ cup Snowdrift (Emulsorized—quick-blending)
⅔ cup milk

Mix enough to dampen flour. Beat 2 minutes. If by hand, count beating time only. With electric mixer, use "low speed"; scrape bowl often; scrape beaters after 2 minutes.

Add: 4 egg whites (unbeaten)
⅓ cup milk
few drops red coloring
1 tsp. almond flavoring

Beat 1 minute. Turn into 2 greased 8" layer pans lined with plain paper. Bake in moderate oven (375° F) about 25 minutes. Cool and frost with—

FILLING AND FROSTING
⅓ cup water
1 tbsp. light corn syrup
1 cup sugar
¼ tsp. cream of tartar
¼ tsp. salt
1 egg white (beaten)
1 tsp. almond flavoring
½ cup chopped figs
½ cup chopped nuts
¼ cup raisins

Combine first 5 ingredients; cook and stir until sugar dissolves. Pour syrup gradually over beaten egg white, beating until icing "peaks." Add almond flavoring. Remove ⅓ of icing; fold in fruit and nuts; use as filling. Frost cake with plain icing; decorate with chopped nuts.

Naturally your gifts have to compete with lots of others under the Christmas tree. So here's a tip. The smokers on your list will make a beeline for your gift first—the minute they see it's a gay Christmas carton of Camel cigarettes or a pound of Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco. These two popular products get a rousing welcome everytime. Mild, full-flavored Camels are sure to please cigarette smokers, and pipe lovers have made Prince Albert America's largest selling smoking tobacco. And you'll like those smart, colorful Christmas wrappings. Particularly when you spot that handy "built-in" card for your personal greetings. Camels and Prince Albert are so easy to order. Your local dealer is well supplied right now. —Adv.

STOPS LAXATIVES—FEELS BETTER!

"Have been eating KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN 8 years and it's wonderful! Now I don't ever need a laxative, feel so much better. I've told plenty of others too!" Mrs. Jerry Russell, Route 8, Maryville, Tenn. Many other grateful ALL-BRAN users write the same. You may be helped, too, if constipated due to lack of bulk in the diet; start eating an ounce of crisp, toasty ALL-BRAN daily, drink plenty of water. If not satisfied after 10 days, send empty box to Kellogg's, Battle Creek, Mich. DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK!

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at nights, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

"Checked" Enamel

QUESTION: Is there any way to smooth the enamel on our woodwork without completely removing it? It has several coats of various colors of enamel and varnish on it. There are fine cracks or checks in some of the enamel. Could we rub it with turpentine or something, then sand it before repainting? If we have to remove all the old paint, how should we do that? Use a paint and varnish remover? We want to repaint our woodwork, but those checks show through so that it doesn't look nice.

ANSWER: You have the right idea, but in reverse—that is, you should use the sandpaper first, and then clean off with turpentine before repainting. If you were going to varnish, you would have to take off all the old finish; but as long as you are going to use paint again, I do not believe it will be necessary to take off all the paint, which would be quite a job. But the cracks and checks should be sanded out smoothly so that they will not show through the new finish.

Another disease appearing lately here in yards inwhich brown dead patches have occurred. To remedy this W. F. Ward sent a soil sample to Gainesville and received the answer that it was iron deficiency. The remedy for this is the sprinkling of water with Semesan added is the best remedy if fungus is apparent. This Semsan can be had from the seed houses at Wauchula and Plant City. Semsan is also useful in curing sick plants in pots.

I also learned recently from the Federal government station at Orlando that the application of Borax to trees that are inclined to fail to bear fruit will help make them produce. Some of our citrus growers are now using it. The rate is ten pounds in each ton of fertilizer and one pound to each 100 gallons of spray. Borax can be obtained from any citrus packing house.

Sulphate of manganese can be bought from any fertilizer concern. The nearest ones are at Sebring, Frostproof and Lake Wales.

The Avon Park High School football team stomped on the Sebringites this past week and did a good job of it too. The boys showed some good training and credit should be given to their coach for the wonderful job he has done with the team. Most of the year they have been playing out of their class, competing with schools of more than double the enrollment here. The band put on one of their best performances as all of you who were privileged to see the game I am sure will agree.

The Florida Power Company have been busy this past week putting up lights on the Mall. Begins to look like Christmas here, and just a pleasant reminder, there are only nineteen more shopping days left.

* * * *

It won't be long now until the man with the big smile and the fat "tummy" will be coming around. One of the finest gifts we can think of for the whole family would be a year's subscription to the home town newspaper. That would please everyone in the family and they would have the pleasure of reading it for 52 weeks of the year.

Noted Baritone to Give Concert Here February 6th

Avon Park music lovers will be delighted to learn that Carlos Sherman, noted Columbia artist, will be presented to members of Community Concert at the Avon Park High School Auditorium on the evening of Feb. 6. Mr. Sherman, baritone artist, is also a member of the Columbia Operatic Trio whom some of you have had the pleasure of hearing. He is now on a personal concert tour and is being received enthusiastically everywhere.

In anticipation of this event, the local committee is planning a reception in honor of the guest star for members of the Association.

The local Chamber of Commerce, realizing the probable need of accomodating winter guests who would desire to attend the winter concerts, purchased a block of additional memberships. These are available now to the tourists who were not privileged to enjoy the fine artists who will appear here and in Sebring this season. The membership cards may be secured by contacting the secretary at the Chamber of Commerce.

Tickets will not be on sale at the individual performances and we will again remind you that only concert members are eligible for attendance to the concerts and the entertainment functions following the program.

Some 25,000,000 seedlings will be grown at Florida Forest Service nurseries for distribution to landowners at cost next winter.

"Gone With The Wind" Coming To PARK Theatre

Due to thousands of requests the all-time great of motion pictures, "GWTW" is again in release and is being brought back to the Park in respect to the author, Miss Margaret Mitchell, who was killed by a hit and run driver in Atlanta the 11th of August. Miss Mitchell was Atlanta's most celebrated and best loved citizen. Her novel is probably the most widely read Civil War story of all time.

Dec. 15-16 first showing in Avon Park with Adults being admitted for the regular admission of 35 cents. All children under 12 years of age must pay 25 cents.

Due to the length of "GWTW" the boxoffice will open at 2:30 o'clock for the Matinee with the feature starting at 3:00. Only one evening show will be shown with the boxoffice opening at 7:00 o'clock and the feature will start at 7:45.

The Management advises if you haven't seen this fine movie or are one of the many who wish to see it again that you do so on this engagement as it may be several years before it is shown locally again.

Day or Nite we'll treat you right. Phone 279 AAA.

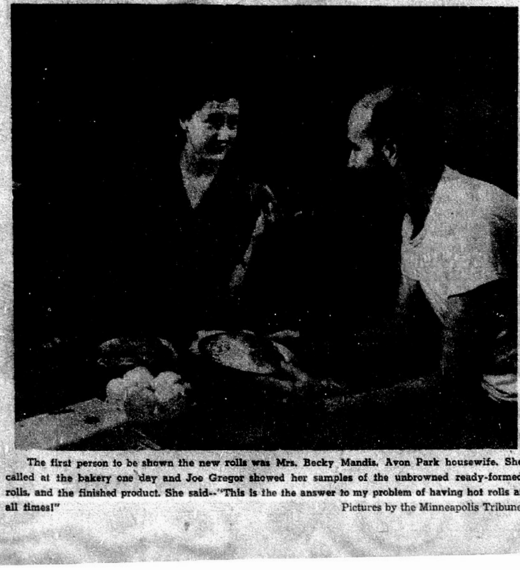
About To Blow His Top

After Joe Gregor perfected the roll-making process, he sampled a few packages to good customers of the Gregor Bakery. Among those he called upon was Mrs. W. S. Betts of Avon Park.



The first person to be shown the new rolls was Mrs. Becky Mandis, Avon Park housewife. She called at the bakery one day and Joe Gregor showed her samples of the unbrowned ready-formed rolls, and the finished product. She said--"This is the the answer to my problem of having hot rolls at all times!"

Patients At Veterans Hospital Select Xmas Gifts

The boxes of gifts for the Christmas Joy Shops, donated by members and friends of the American Legion Auxiliary have been mailed and have already reached their destination at the Veterans Hospitals.

These gifts, none worth less than $1.00, combined with other contributions of units all over the state of Florida will provide the opportunity for hospitalized men and women to choose what they want to send to their families, free of charge. The gifts are then mailed by the Auxiliary again at no cost to the veteran.

At the Lake City, Coral Gables and Bay Pines Shop which was opened on Tuesday of this week the patients unable to leave their beds were given first choice when loaded carts were taken by "Sunshine Ladies" to their wards. The Sunshine Ladies are volunteer workers of the various units who frequently visit the patients doing helpful deeds for them upon each visit. On Wednesday the Ambulatory patients were served in the Recreation Hall and the men from the Barracks had their turn on Thursday. The volunteer workers will return on Friday to clean up.

An added attraction at Bay Pines Wednesday was music by Andy Boyette and his drifting Pioneers who sang and played in the wards and in the recreation hall.

Mrs. Ben Stewart, Chairman and Mrs. L. P. Childers, assistant, express their gratitude to the members and to the following town friends, Mrs. Phillip Boardman, Mrs. S. C. Pardee Sr., Mrs. C. H. Pardee and Mrs .W. D. Dorminey who participated in helping to procure happiness into the hearts of ill veterans and their families by their donations to the Christmas Joy Shops.

TRIPLE LINK HELD REGULAR MEETING TUESDAY NIGHT

The Triple Link Club held their regular meeting Tuesday night, November 29th, with twenty-five members and guests present.

During the business session a committee was appointed to make the necessary plans for a cake walk which will be held sometime in December. After the business meeting a Christmas party was planned, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess—having birthdays during the month of Nov. who were: Lula Crawford, Gladys Hagen, Mary Fields and Kathleen Currier.

Others present were: Doris Shearer, Lena Kean, Tilly Yuster, Bertha Kelley, Virginia Carneglia, Bell Rosenberg, Margaretha Vogt, Agnes Cox, Amelia Dick, Lena Trobritz, Cora Wray, Yvonne Beall, Elizabeth Mizelle, Lillian Bridges, Trumie Hayes, Mary Reed, Helen Mann, Bell Martin, and Helen Harris.

Albert A. Demorest

Funeral services for Albert A. Demorest, 54, who passed away November 12, in a Tampa Hospital were held Tuesday, November, 15, 10:00 A. M. at the First Baptist Church with Rev. Bob Liner officiating.

Mr. Demorest was born August 20, 1895 at Warwick, N. Y. He attended Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y. and on January 31, 1922 was married to Miss Florence Sherman. To this union two daughters were born, Jean Elaine on May 17, 1924 who died at the age of two and Winifred Carol born June 13, 1926. Mr. and Mrs. Demorest and family moved to Avon Park in the year of 1928, from Castile, N. Y.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Florence Sherman Demorest, one daughter Miss Winifred Carol Demorest and one sister, Mrs. Clara Demorest Howell, of Warwick, N. Y.

Pallbearers were: E. Ray Welis, Paul McFarland, Ervin H. Ford and Bernie Johnson. With Stephenson's Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Special music was presented by Mrs. J. B. Coen and Mrs. T. J. Ward.

Boy Scout Court Of Honor Held At Lake Placid

The Boy Scouts of the Ridge Area held their Court of Honor at the Woman's Club in Lake Placid last Monday night. The Court of Honor is the Court where the boys receive recognition for achievement and advancement in Scout work.

Harold Worden acted as chairman for the evening in the absence of E. G. Todd. Attendance at this meeting was greater than at any other meeting this year. Scout field books, boys handbook, scout handbook and patrol leader handbook were presented by Maurice Paige, through the courtesy of the Florida Chain Store Council, to Ben Eastman, Institutional representative, who in turn gave them to the new scout master of the newly organized Scout Troop 142 of Sebring which is sponsored by the Sebring Rotary Club.

Tenderfoot pins were presented by W. R. Pearce, Scoutmaster of Troop 140, which is sponsored by Rose Villa, of DeSoto City. Attendance and advancement awards were presented to Troop 169 of Frostproof, as well as Star Rank badges to Dwight Morris, Robert Murray and Milton Woodley. Other awards to the Frostproof Troop were as follows: Earnest Keen, Woodwork, Charles Mathews, Carpentry, Woodwork and Public Health; Dwight Morris, Carpentry; Robert Murray, Carpentry, Woodwork and Public Health; Eddie Stephens, Swimming; Milton Woodley, Carpentry, Woodwork, Pathfinding and Citrus Culture; James Youngblood, swimming.

Promoted to Second Class [illegible] the Avon Park Troop were: [illegible]ard N. Sellars and William [illegible] Sellars. Merit badges were given to the following: Larry [illegible] Safety; R. E. Maysack, swim[illegible] Firemanship, Personal [illegible] Rowing Life Saving and [illegible]ing.

Speaker for the evening [illegible] Wayman Carver, who gave a [illegible] interesting talk on bees.

Woodruff Wins Trophy

The Fort Myers Fall [illegible] had speed boat jockeys [illegible] over the state. Avon Park [illegible] represented by Bobby [illegible] and J. Paxton Hill. Woodruff [illegible]ped two first places, winning [illegible] heats of the 22 H. P. [illegible] event and brought home a beautiful trophy. Hill wasn't as [illegible] because while he was [illegible] the meet, he tied his boat to the officials barge. Not until it was time for him to race did he discover that his boat had in it a gillion paper wads shot from the starting cannon. Just as he was passing the lead boat, a bunch of scrop paper entered the carburetor and he came in fourth.

Woodruff started for back in the field in both heats, but passed boat after boat until he was way out in front, winning by about a quarter lap.

HIGH SCHOOL POW-WOW

By PAT LAGONI

In case you haven't heard, those wonderful Avon Park "RED DEVILS" won another ball game Wednesday, the 23rd. The Sebring game was really a thriller, and the 27 to 12 (our favor, of course) really pleases the Devils' fans. Although Sebring scored first, the Devils came right back at them with a TD by Richard Landress. In the second quarter, Richard scored again on an 85 yard run and Jimmy Kelley scored the extra point. In the same period Gene Cruse snatched a pass from Ralph Hill and went over. Jeril Clenny scored the extra point. Sebring scored once more in the third quarter. The final Devil score came in the last period when Kelley went over and Hill drop-kicked successfully. Not only the offensive team, but also those one the defense made a fine showing for the old red and white.

At the half-time the Red and White band presented a very impressive performance in honor of Professor Gustat, Sebring's band director, who has been working in the musical profession for 24 years. The band marched on the field, formed a shamrock with the green lights on their hats and played "My Wild Irish Rose" while the majorettes were spotlighted in a spectacular ballet dance and while Lynn Longbottom, our own soprano, sang. Following this they formed the letters, "P R O F" and played "Auld Lang Syne", while Lynn sang again. As the crowd applauded, the band left the playing field, again playing, "Auld Lang Syne".

The Devils are hoping for a big turnout in Fort Meade this Friday night, when they'll wind up their '49 gridiron schedule against the Fighting Miners. The boys have made a fine showing this season, so let's show them we're with 'em 'til the last quarter of their season!!

The second six weeks of our school year ended last week and another set of report cards were given out Wednesday.

That's about all the news for this week, but look for more Pow-Wow in the next SUN.

Moose Start New Program At Original Location

Avon Park Lodge 1333, Loyal Order of Moose returned to their original quarters on Lake Lotela November 26th.

After negotiating with Mr. Teppert the owner for several weeks, a new set up has been agreed upon. The building will undergo extensive alterations and when completed will be the most modern and beautiful club in this section. The plans call for upper floor facilities to be open to the public with a big Bingo game on Thursday nights, the profit to be used to build the Christmas benefit fund for underpriviledged children, and dancing on Saturday nights, with an out of town orchestra.

The lower floor is to be open to members only and will be a glorified fun room with shuffleboards, billiard tables, etc. The Club anticipates spending several thousand dollars on equipment, fixtures, and furnishings which will be the most modern obtainable.

Governor of the Lodge, Alton Elder stated, "we are going foreward with plans to double our membership with the next year".

MARINES

The Marines' largest band will be featured throughout this year's Orange Bowl festivities at Miami, Fla. According to Commissioned Warrant Officer Fred E. Lock, its director, the 120-piece Second Marine Division Band will fly from Camp Lejeune on Dec. 28 to show Miami and its visitors just how well the Marines have the situation in hand.

From the "Kick-Off" Luncheon on Dec. 29 until its final appearance at the pageant on Jan. 3, the band will exhibit its intricate drills and precision marching in a series of spirited appearances.

On New Year's Eve, the bandsmen, in Marine Corps dress blues and led by Drum Major John McCloy, will be the first band in the colorful King Orange Jamboree parade. The following day they will play for the boat regatta, and will be featured at the pre-game ceremonies on Jan. 2 at the Orange Bowl.

Following its appearance in the pageantry of Jan. 3, the band will return to Camp Lejeune and less spectacular duties.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

Dear Editor:

I'm sending my renewal for another year with this. I hope you will continue the weather column in every issue, it is interesting especially to one who is interested in Avon Park but is living elsewhere at present.

Recently you had and article about Dr. Higginbottom of India. I have just read his book and found it interesting too. I feel something like a neighbor and kinsman to him as I was born and lived there till I was twelve, (in Burma, "across the bay").

Wishing you and all of Highlands County continued prosperity, I am yours truly,

Charles E. A. Hale,
LaRoche Ave.,

THE AVON PARK SUN
Dear Editor:

I am enclosing $2.00 for which please send me the Avon Park Sun for a period of one year. If this is not the correct amount of a subscription for one year kindly send me the paper until this amount expires and then bill me for a full year.

We let our subscription to the paper expire while we were stationed in the Panama Canal Zone (for the past three years) due to the fact that the mail situation was quite inefficient, and a majority of the time our paper never reached us at all. However, we came back to the States in April and are now settled at our new station (Lowry AFB, Denver, Colo.) and would like very much to be able to keep up with everything there thru the local paper. My husband is Assistant Base Operations Officer here at Lowry and we hope to be stationed here several years.

Would you please announce in the paper the arrival of our only child, a baby daughter, Nancy Allyson, who was born at Fitzsimmons General Hospital here in Denver. We have so many, many friends in Avon Park until I know it would be of much interest there. I am the former Odean Bishop of that city, lived there about 17 years and was employed in the Barnett Bank for several years.

Thank you very much for your attention.

Yours Truly,
Capt. and Mrs. Wm. A. Parish

Open Pit Mines

Open-pit iron mines such as those of Minnesota's long abundant Mesabi Range have been a great asset to the nation because output could be expanded by putting more shovels to work. The flow of ore from three Minnesota ranges reached a high of 75 million tons in 1942 in response to World War II demands.

60 Bottles of Hadacol Pay Big Dividends

Robert Meaux, Box 182, Airport Road, Lafayette, La., has taken more than 60 bottles of HADACOL in the past four years and he considers his HADACOL money brought rich dividends because today he is happy, healthy and able to do any kind of work while two years before taking HADACOL he was unable to do work of any kind.

"I was first taken with stomach sickness eight years ago," said Mr. Meaux. "I was so run down that my friends did not even know me. For two years I was unable to do work of any kind. My food did not agree with me. I suffered digestive disturbances. I had difficulty sleeping and my chest seemed to be stopped up most of the time.

"I thought I would never be able to work again and had just about given up hope when I was advised to take HADACOL. After the second bottle of HADACOL I began to feel better, sleep better and started gaining much needed weight.

"Today at 66 I am a healthy and happy man because I gave HADACOL a trial. I took about 30 bottles of HADACOL the first year, and in the past three years I have taken another 30 bottles of HADACOL to help me stay well."

Mr. Meaux and his son were both suffering from a lack of B Vitamins and Minerals which HADACOL contains. HADACOL comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away.

A lack of only a small amount of B Vitamins and certain Minerals will cause digestive disturbances... Your food will not agree with you... You will have an upset stomach.. You will suffer from heartburn, gas pains and your food will sour on your stomach and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of lack of B Vitamins and Minerals which HADACOL contains. And if you suffer from such a deficiency disorder, there is no known cure except the administration of the vitamins and minerals, which your system lacks.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL.

So it matters not how old you are or who you are . . . it matters not where you live or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation, HADACOL, a trial. Don't go on suffering. Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years or even longer, are able now to live happy, comfortable lives because HADACOL supplied the vitamins and minerals which their systems needed. Be fair to yourself. Temporary relief is not enough for you. Give HADACOL a trial!

Sold at all leading drug stores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money; buy the large family economy size. Only $3.50. If your druggist does not handle HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, La., and when the postman brings your package just pay the amount plus the c.o.d. and postage. If you remit with the order we will pay the postage.

Then, if you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.—Adv.
