THIS WEEK IN TALLAHASSEE

By KENNETH BALLINGER

Smoke clouds around the beverage department incident settled quickly. Julio Pelaez is roosting comfortably on the state industrial commission payroll, after leaving that of the state beverage department, and denying vigorously he had ever told C. V. Griffin he quit because he "wouldn't play ball in selling privileges for bootleggers and slot machine operators." Griffin, one-time friend of Governor Warren, retired again into silence after making the charge that Pelaez had quit because he didn't want to permit illicit operations. Pelaez advised reporters, in the company of Ted Smiley of the beverage commission that this wasn't so. He just likes the work better at the industrial commission he said.

Tallahassee — A long trail ended for the Florida State Bar Association when the supreme court of Florida finally issued its order for the bar members to integrate, or in other words, join up. The court's rule requires every lawyer to join the state association, or stop practice. Some 3,000 lawyers are expected to comply. The new integration rule follows procedure in many other states. Incidentally, University of Miami law school students surveyed Fla. for possible shingle-hanging, found more lawyers per capita in Tallahassee (106), or one per 399 laymen) and fewest in Okaloosa county (Crestview) with one to each 4,167 persons.

Tallahassee — Jerry W. Carter, four-term member of the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, will run to succeed himself in the June primaries. Carter also is Democratic national committeeman for Florida. He is a former state hotel commissioner, having served under Governor Catts, Hardee and Martin. He was elected to the railroad commission in 1934, defeating four opponents, including the incumbent. Carter was re-elected three times since, with increasingly large majorities. In between times he made unsuccessful campaigns for governor and for the United States senate.

Tallahassee—Welfare checks for the aged an dependent children are just now arriving in many West Florida sections, nearly two weeks late. State Comptroller C. M. Gay said his office did not receive lists of certified recipients until later than usual from the state welfare board, which in turn blamed a breakdown in machinery for the delay.

Tallahassee—As calls for another special session of the Florida legislature came from school leaders and some lawmakers, Comptroller Gay warned Florida merchants they will be penalized this month if they are late in filing sales tax returns. RESOLUTIONS ON THE PASSING OF SISTER MARY MARSH:

WHEREAS: On the 20th day of February, 1950, Almighty God in His divine Wisdom, called to it's reward the soul of Sister Mary Marsh; and

WHEREAS: She was a Charter, Life and Faithful member of Leigh No. 85, O.E.S., Avon Park. THEREFORE: Be it resolved, that in her passing, Leigh No. 85, O. E. S. has lost a loyal, true and much beloved member, who exemplified all the virtues of the Order and upon her passing leaves a vacant place in our hearts.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That our tenderest sympathy be extended to the bereaved family of our Sister and a copy of these resolutions be sent them and a copy spread upon the minutes of our Chapter.

Although it is hard to part
From those we love,
We should not grieve,
For we shall meet in climes above
By the River's golden strand,
Those we lost and those we love
In a better land.

Accidental Deaths Of Children On Increase

In 1948, there were 168 accidental deaths of children 0 to 4 years of age and 127 accidental deaths from the ages of 5 to 14, a total of 305 accidental deaths to children that should not have happened, the 1949 record is worse.

Yes! motor vehicles accounted for more than 25 percent of these deaths, 56 of these youngsters were drowned, 15 were burned, 17 were poisoned and 31 by suffocation.

It is certainly not the children's fault that they are dead, the responsibility for the lives of these children should be in the keeping of their parents and it is a sad commentary when little ones get out in the street and hide under a box and get run over and the driver of the vehicle has to carry the thought the rest of his life that he has killed some one's child, which could have been his own. It is the duty of the parents to watch over their own children.

Accidental deaths are worse than war because so many little ones are not thinking of accidents, their minds are full of play and medical science has extended life today so if a child grows normally he can reach the age of 67 or more, advises Asher Frank, Director of Florida Safety Council.

The solution of the children's increased death rate should be on the parents, especially when you think of the drowning, burning and suffocation of these children —parents are directly responsible for the children.

Know where your children are—teach them safe habits-help them live a life as God intended them to live and stop this useless waste of HUMAN LIFE.

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By Russell Kay

The divinely inspired framers of our Country's Constitution began its preamble with three words that reveal the purpose uppermost in their minds. Since it was their solemn intent that this should be truly a people's government, they began their declaration: "We The People—".

They did not say "We The Politicians" or We The Minority,". they said "WE THE PEOPLE." And they meant all the people, rich and poor, old and young of every color and creed.

Not only was this government established by "the People" but into their hands was placed the power to control and change and even dissolve it by majority action.

Having won their liberty and independence by force of arms and having experienced distress and danger because of an imperfect union, the people finally succeeded in forming the more perfect Union which is ordained and established in the Constitution.

The keystone of our system of government is based upon a majority dicision on public issues and election of the best available public officials by a majority in free elections.

When we study the record of recent elections, it appears that "We The People" not only fail to recognize and appreciate the blessings our forefathers bestowed upon us, but have so neglected our duties as citizens as to jeopradize that liberty and freedom established at so dear a cost.

If this or any other nation is to remain free, its people must express their will through the free exercise of the vote. When a majority of the people fail to exercise the privilege and duty of voting we degenerate to a government by minority.

You hear good Christian men and women who pride themselves on being responsible citizens and good Americans laugh off politics and say, "No, I don't vote, what difference does my one litbusy or to indifferent to act. They tle ballot make?" They are too neglect to register, or having registered fail to vote if they find it in the least bit inconvenient.

Florida has approximately 1,500,000 citizens of voting age. Of these 1,003,503 registered and were qualified to vote in the 1948 elections. Only 581,735 voted in the first primary and only 576, 066 voted in the second primary. The showing in the general election was no better.

Following the election the state's chief executive took office by what he termed " a mandate of the people." But did he? The Governor received 299,841 votes, although there were a million and a half people of voting age. He actually received only 19.8. percent of the total number of votes of citizens of voting age and only 29.8 percent of the total qualified vote.

Is it a government "Of the People" when only 19.9 percent of the potential voting strength of the state expresses its will?

How concerned were the people of Florida over the election of a president of the United States? Analysis of the 1948 election shows that the winning candidate for this high office received only 281,988 votes or 18.- percent of the total number of citizens of voting age and only 28.1 percent of the total qualified vote.

To any thinking citizen with the welfare of his state and nation at heart, these are alarming and distressing figures. It reveals that we have already reached a state in which control of both our state and federal government rests in the hands of but a small majority of the people. It is an unhealthy and dangerous situation.

The existence of such a shameful voting record makes it an easy matter for designing candidates seeking public office to appeal to minority groups who demand special consideration from government and vote regularly as a bloc, ignoring the more important general interests of the state and nation since vast numbers of sound citizens, who ask no special favors from government, do not trouble themselves to register and vote.

Your choice of candidates is your own. It makes no difference how you vote but it is imperative that you VOTE. "We The People" are to blame for this situation and "We The People" alone can rectify it.

A&P Makes Penny Per Pound On Coffee

Washington, March 15—The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company has made only slightly more than a penny a pound profit before taxes on its coffee sales the past two years, a senate subcommittee investigating coffee prices was told.

Francis M. Kurtz, President of A&P's coffee division and its affiliated American Coffee Corporation, informed the committee that in the two-year period ended February 25, the food store chain had an identical net profit in each year of 1.05 cents per pound before taxes.

The period covered included the last few months of 1949 and the early part of this year when sharp rises in coffee prices caused the committee to undertake the current investigation.

Kurtz told the committee what A&P has done to keep the prices of its coffee at relatively low levels, often 20 cents or more per pound lower than the retail price of other coffees."

The coffee official, a veteran of 28 years in the industry, said the company's one cent margin "is the total profit A&P receives for procuring and processing the green coffee, importing, roasting, packing, transporting, grinding and retailing it to the American consumer who buys it in our stores."

"To my knowledge," he said, "This is the first time A&P has ever divulged its profit per pound of coffee, and I am personally sorry that it has not been done before as it is an accomplishment of which any company in any country can be rightfully proud." A&P's coffee is "priced much lower than other brands" for two reasons, Kurtz said.

"The first lies in A&P's business philosophy—that we should sell the best possible food at the lowest possible prices," he said. "The second is found in our method of buying, processing and retailing coffee."

By distributing its own coffee in its own stores which have built up a steady day-to-day demand, he said, A&P is able to schedule its buying and processing operations in an orderly, efficient manner.

"We do not take a speculative position at any time," he said. "Nor do we do any hedging, or have any transactions on any coffee exchange. We simply buy green coffee, import it, roast and pack it, and supply our stores with enough to take care of the demands of our customers."

When prices began to soar, he said, A&P had two alternatives.

One was to sell its coffee without increases until stocks were exausted and then boost prices as much as 25 cents a pound over night on the basis of the higher replacement costs.

"The second alternative was to move up in price to a level still well below replacement cost," he said, " and hold that price until any abnormal pickup on our inventory was entirely handed back to the consumer."

Kurtz said A&P chose the second method and thus was able to keep increases on its three brands to a minimum. He said today's A&P prices on its Bokar, Red Circle and Eight O'Clock brands at 72, 70 and 67 cents per pound respectively "are still below replacement costs."

There is little immediate prospect of a tumble in coffee prices, Kurtz said, adding "if demand continues at or near the 1949 rate, prices will remain at or near the present level."

Game And Fish Commission To Meet March 20

The State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will meet here Monday (March 20) to establish fishing regulations for the coming license year. The new season begins July 1.

Commission Director Coleman Newman said he anticipated a few minor changes, "but nothing drastic."

He said the agency would consider a proposal to impose a minimum length limit on commercially taken catfish. The suggestion was made at a January meeting by fishermen from Lake Okeechobee and the St. Johns River. At present there is no minimum size limit on any species of fresh water fish.

The commission, Newman said, would also take action on a request to permit the use of basket traps in several West Florida streams. The traps would be used for the taking of catfish only.

PTA Study Class Held Monday Night

The second session of the Study Department, of the PTA was held Monday night with Father Butler leading the discussion on Discipline of Children.

After a general survey of the topic the group was divided into three sections to discuss and arrive at conclusions on certain problems and later report their findings to the whole group. Such questions as: What do we mean by Discipline? Is it a method of punishment or a degree of organization in our lives? What methods are most desirable and when do we discipline ourselves?

It proved to be a very interesting evening for those who attended.

Discipline in the sense of restraint, control and direction by external force, constructive in every possible way is an integral part of the educational experience of the child.

The last meeting in this group of studies on Discipline will be on the topic "What is normal behavior for children at certain age levels," and the time and place will be announced at the PTA meeting Thursday afternoon of this week.

All parents are urged to attend.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

British Laborites on Rocky Road; Scientists Warn of H-Bomb Threat; Senate Spy Hunt to Be 'Witchless'

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

REPORT ON MASS-DESTRUCTION WEAPONS . . . Sen. Brien McMahon (left) chairman of the joint congressional atomic energy committee, confers with Gen. Omar N. Bradley shortly before Bradley, who is chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, reported to the senate-house group on possible types of mass-destruction weapons an enemy might use against the U.S.

BRITAIN:
Close Call

British Prime Minister Clement Attlee and his Labor party were still holding the reins of British government—but it had been a mighty close call. There was a serious question of how long the Labor government could stand as a result of its meager majority in parliament.

Added to that was the peril of an intra-party strife in which it was reported left-wingers in the party were planning a test of strength with more moderate leaders of Attlee's government.

THE PROBLEM was an easily obvious one: Should the Labor party walk easily in the face of its hairbreadth escape from defeat in the elections, or should it strike out boldly for continuation and expansion of socialism?

The primary interest in the election for Americans was, of course, whether or not the British people were committed to more socialism and resultant nationalism of industry and their way of life, or had they grown apprehensive enough concerning the direction of government to change it?

The answer was clear to the extent that a bare majority of the people are satisfied with conditions—enough at least to return the Labor government to power. But, significantly enough, the balance of that power had waned so much in the past five years that it was almost nonexistent.

WHAT DID IT MEAN? It was much too early to gauge the election's effect on the American economy or on Europe's overall recovery program, but disappointment in the U.S. was widespread and there was some concern lest the uncertainty of the Labor government's position interfere seriously with American recovery plans abroad.

One American newspaper woman was able to put into print concisely and graphically the divergent British viewpoints when she reported a Conservative as saying that England would never recover until the Laborites were completely thrown out, and a poorer-class workwoman declaring that she didn't care how much she had to do without, just as long as the rich didn't have any more.

H-BOMB:
More Warnings

More and more came the warnings from experts of the dread potentialities of the hydrogen bomb. True, there was some disagreement, but a poll would show at this stage that a majority of scientists who should know what they are talking about believe the bomb could kill everyone in the world.

Four top scientists have issued that warning. They have declared that the bomb, if it works, could be a suicide bomb. Why? How?

Here's what they say:

IF THE BOMB is ever made and used, it would kill slowly by poisoning everything and everyone with radioactive dusts.

The dusts would be carried around the world by the winds.

The dust would be in the air people breathed.

It would settle on and poison plants and trees, everything humans eat or use.

THE H-BOMB, they add, could be intentionally rigged to do just that—and it would be relatively simple to do it. Makers of the bomb would have only to put harmless chemical elements around the H-bomb. The bomb itself would turn these chemicals into the fantastic killing dust. Dust of that sort could be made so that it would remain active a few days, a few months or as long as 5,000 years.

That is a frightening, appalling possibility.

But there is a ray of hope. These same scientists say it will be another three years before anyone will know if the bomb can be produced.

That gives mankind a little time in which to make up his mind. The decision had better be right.

SPY HUNT:
No 'Witches'

There was to be "no witches—no whitewash" in the senate foreign relations subcommittee's probe of alleged infiltration of Communists into the U.S. state department.

That's what Sen. Millard Tydings (D., Md.) said of the investigation when he was named chairman of the committee which was to conduct it.

THE NAMING of the committee stemmed from charges by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R., Wis.) that an un-named group of Communists hold— or have held—high state department posts.

But, McCarthy rather put the committee on the spot at the start when he said that if President Truman persists in his refusal to make state department employee loyalty files available, "an investigation would be useless." Mr. Truman has so persisted and declared he would ignore the senate's action in granting subpoena rights to the committee.

Indications were that a court test of the President's position was in the making if the committee chose to use its subpoena rights and called upon the President to deliver the wanted records.

TYDINGS DECLINED to pass on this issue at the outset, and said, instead, that he expected a "full, fair and complete investigation" of McCarthy's charges.

"We will let the chips fall where they may," he said, "and this will be neither a witch-hunt nor a whitewash."

The senator's intentions no doubt were good—but there might be little to worry about where the chips would fall, so long as Mr. Truman declined to pass the committee the axe they needed.

Answer Still 'No'

President Truman persisted in his refusal to give congress confidential loyalty files on federal employees.

However, he said he had promised the senate foreign relations committee he otherwise would cooperate in disproving what he called false charges made by Senator McCarthy (R., Wis.) that a Communist ring exists in the state department.

He told newsmen that subpoena powers voted by the senate for committee investigators would "make no difference" to him, pointing out that it would be difficult to serve a subpoena on the President of the United States, since the government affords him protection from such services.

And, indeed it would. But, it doesn't say anywhere that the President may not give information—if he chooses—to those seeking to ascertain the degree of this nation's security against subversive elements.

EDUCATION
Military Effort at School Rule Charged

According to scores of educators and other prominent people in the United States, there is a "systematic and well-financed effort" by the national military establishment to "penetrate and influence the civilian educational life of America."

This charge was contained in a booklet of 80 pages of fine print, put out through the national council against conscription. Among the signers were famed scientist Albert Einstein, author Louis Bromfield and a number of prominent church leaders.

The report centered on the activities of the reserve officers training units, military science teaching, research contracts with universities, and what it sees as a trend toward putting military men in high educational places.

FIRST AID TO THE AILING HOUSE

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

QUESTION: How would you remove a spot on an office floor about 2x4 feet, caused by dragging feet when spinning in chair from desk to typewriter, without sanding the whole floor? The floor has had a coat of stain and two coats of shellac.

ANSWER: Take off the remains of the shellac by quick wiping with denatured alcohol. Then apply one or two coats of fresh shellac, thinning them down with denatured alcohol, about one-half. Feather out the strokes. Do not expect perfect results. If you intend to do over the whole floor at some time, you might consider a penetrating floor wax or penetrating floor seal. These finishes are not apt to show scratches.

The Living Faith

Lesson for March 19, 1950

MANY a funeral sermon has been preached over the Christian church, but somehow the corpse never stays put. What keeps it going? All sorts of explanations have been given by unsympathetic outsiders. The church (we are told) is an upper-class hobby, or a lower-class opiate; it is a social club, it is a burial society; it panders to pride, or it is a perverse form of self-torture; it is kept alive by a well-run organization. Such explanations do not explain. The truth is at least quite simple: The church is kept alive by faith. What is Christian faith, the faith of the church? A study of the Scripture for this week, or a broader search through the New Testament from end to end, will convince any impartial reader of the falsehood of some of the notions about what Christian faith is.

Dr. Foreman

Some have claimed that it is nothing but faith in the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man. Let the reader try to find this in the New Testament if he can.

If you had said this to an early Christian, he would have replied along this line: That is just the problem—how can we become sons of God? How can men achieve brotherhood? Others tell us that faith is belief in a series of doctrines.

Let the reader search the New Testament and see if he can find there anything about faith in a creed. Sometimes this notion takes another form —that faith originally was a belief that Jesus' beliefs were true; in other words, that faith is accepting the "religion of Jesus."

Now the church from the beginning believed that Jesus' thoughts were true thoughts; but faith was never a simple second-hand acceptance of any one's creed, not even that of Jesus. The faith we find in the New Testament is none of these things. Still less is it faith in the saints, in Mary, or in an "infallible" church.

Faith: Not About, But In . . .

THE FAITH that broke out in glorious light in those early days of the church, and has continued shining down through the centuries, was not belief about anything or anybody, it was belief IN Some One; and that Some One was Jesus Christ.

There is a simply astonishing variety of ways in which he is spoken of in the New Testament. He is Son of Man, is teacher and healer, he is the first-born of many brothers; he is Priest and Sacrifice, he is the Propitiation, the Reconciler of men to God; he is Master and Lord, he is the Word—that is, what God has to say to us; he is the Son of God, he sits on the throne of the universe, he will judge every man.

To put it quite bluntly, the church believed (and still believes) in a supernatural Christ and not only in a human Jesus. They believed in him as a teacher, as the Teacher indeed; but not merely as one whose teachings had been interrupted by an untimely death. They did not "play down" his death, on the contrary they played it up.

Christ crucified for us is always strongly in their minds. But they were far from leaving him as it were on a crucifix.

Any form of Christianity that thinks of Jesus chiefly as a Christmas baby; or a starry-eyed idealist; or as a pathetic figure hanging on a crucifix is a perversion of New Testament ways of thought. Everywhere in the center is the Christ who "was dead and is alive forevermore."

There Is No Other

A YOUNG MOSLEM who became a Christian and is very happy about it, was asked what it was that changed him, for Moslems are hard to change. It was not an argument, he said, it was the lives of some missionaries in Iran whom he knew.

He wanted what they had—It was as simple as that. And he went on to say this: "Christianity doesn't have much in theology that Mohammedanism doesn't have. There is just one thing Christianity has that we didn't have, nor anything like it: Jesus Christ."

That is what—that is who wins men today, and that was the secret of the early church, and that is the secret today of the living church everywhere: Christ alive by faith in the lives of those who love him.

Sense of Values

Crying as if her heart would break, Mrs. Brown poured out the entire story on her mother's shoulder.

"Yes," she repeated, "he ran off with my very best friend."

"Never mind, darling," her mother consoled her. "I never thought much of him as a husband, anyway. You won't miss him."

"I don't," she assured her mother, "it's my friend I miss."

Persuasive

A lawyer, whose sparkling eloquence had won an acquittal for his client, was anxious to learn the truth.

"Now, Sam," he said, "you can confide in me. Did you really steal that horse you were accused of stealing?"

"No, sir," replied the man, "I thought I had, but your speech to the jury convinced even me."

Couldn't Lose

"The dam must have burst," thought the judge as the talkative lawyer spoke on and on and on. He listened for a few minutes.

"Well, now," he informed the lawyer when he was able to get a word in, "I do believe you have stated your case fully and completely. I therefore award the decision to your client."

The lawyer thanked him very much but seemed to have a few points he didn't want to waste. He continued to talk and it was fully five minutes before the judge could interrupt him again.

"Despite your arguments," he said firmly, "I am fully convinced that your client should win the case."

Hadacol Is Praised At Famous Spa

HADACOL HAS SPECIAL OFFICE IN HOT SPRINGS TO HELP SUFFERERS

Hot Springs National Park, Ark.—(Special)—Health is a major topic of conversation in this world famous Spa and more and more conversation turns to the marvelous, health-giving blessings being brought to so many by HADACOL.

Realizing the importance of Hot Springs as a health center, Dudley J. LeBlanc, Founder and President of LeBlanc Corporation, makers of HADACOL, established an office in Hot Springs to advise suffering folks on how HADACOL can benefit their systems with its wealth of B Vitamins and Important Minerals.

In this HADACOL office in Hot Springs are records of folks who have found improved health in a bottle of HADACOL. That is one reason why per capita sales of HADACOL in Hot Springs are among the highest in the country.

Look at the record of Mrs. Joan Waers, of Hot Springs, who started taking HADACOL only two months ago but now has her husband and other relatives and friends taking HADACOL with the same wonderful results. Here is her statement:

"I started taking HADACOL about two months ago with wonderful results. I was run down and suffered with indigestion and gastric disturbances. Food didn't agree with me. I was nervous. After taking HADACOL I feel stronger, eat what I want to without indigestion. I just feel better all the time. I have tried many remedies before taking HADACOL, but HADACOL has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken. My husband also took HADACOL because he was run down and suffered with nervous indigestion and headaches. He is a well man today due to HADACOL. I have several relatives and friends taking HADACOL with fine results."

Mrs. Waers was suffering a deficiency of B Vitamins and important Minerals, which HADACOL contains.

A lack of only a small amount of the B Vitamins and certain Minerals will cause digestive disturbances. . . . Your food will not agree with you. . . . You will have an upset stomach. . . . You will suffer from heart burns, gas pains, and your food will sour on your stomach, and you will not be able to eat the things you like for fear of being in misery afterwards. Many people also suffer from constipation. And while these symptoms may be the results of other causes, they are surely and certainly the symptoms and signs of the lack of the B Vitamins and Minerals contained in HADACOL. And if you suffer from such a disorder, there is no medicine, drug or treatment that will ever accept the administration of the Vitamins and Minerals which your system lacks.

HADACOL contains not only one, but five of the B Vitamins. HADACOL contains not only one, but four of the necessary Minerals. It comes to you in liquid form, easily assimilated in the blood stream so that it can go to work right away. You cannot be satisfied with just temporary relief. HADACOL attacks and cures the source of such deficiency diseases.

It is easy to understand, therefore, why countless thousands have already been benefited by this amazing tonic, HADACOL. Accept no substitute—insist on the genuine HADACOL!

So, it matters not who you are . . . it matters not where you live . . . or if you have tried all the medicines under the sun, give this wonderful preparation a trial. Don't go on suffering! Don't continue to lead a miserable life. Many persons who have suffered and waited for 10 to 20 years, or even longer, are now to live happy, comfortable lives again because HADACOL supplied the Vitamins and Minerals which their systems needed. So, try it yourself. Give HADACOL a trial.

We are so firm in our belief that HADACOL will help you that we sell HADACOL on a money-back guarantee. If you don't feel perfectly satisfied after using HADACOL as directed, just return the empty carton and your money will be cheerfully refunded. Nothing could be fairer.

Sold at all the leading drug stores. Trial size only $1.25, but save money—buy the large family and hospital size—only $3.50.

If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. Send no money. Just your name and address on a penny postcard. Pay postman. State whether you want the $2.50 hospital economy size or the $1.25 trial size. Remember, money cheerfully refunded unless you are 100% satisfied.—Adv.

State Road Dept.

that during the Regular Session of the Legislature, the legislative delegations of Highlands and Okeechobee Counties had sat down with him and agreed that Road No. 66 was the first thing both counties wanted. He stated that upon a gentlemen's agreement between both counties, they asked that the Road be built. Mr. McKethan then added, "I agreed to build the bridge".

Chairman McKethan asked the delegation if the desire to build Road No. 66 still existed. The reply was, "Yes"!

At this point, Attorney Collyer pointed out that the Board of County Commissioners had no intentions of going back on their original agreement with the Road Deuartment, although there had been a rumor that they changed their minds. Chairman McKethan said he was under the impression they had changed the terms of the original resolution passed at the Tallahassee meeting. After an examination of the resolutions on file, it was agreed that the impression was the result of a misinterpretation of certain supplementary resolutions filed at the same time.

Attorney Collyer explained that the additional resolutions passed were requests supplemental to the original agreement and not to change the original agreement. This explanation was accepted by the Road Board.

Attorney Collyer then asked about the construction of the 4-H Club Road. Chairman McKethan stated that the Road Department had not agreed to build the 4-H Club Road, but had agreed to build a parking area within the grounds at a cost of approximately $3,000.00. He stated that State funds could not be used on a road of this kind. He advised that the Road Department would be glad to build the road if the County wanted to pay for it out of their 20 percent of the seventh cent tax money. No Commitments were made.

The question of right of way for Road No. 64 from the Hardee County line to Road No. 25 at Avon Park was discussed. Attorney Collyer explained that the taxpayers of Highlands County forced the Board of County Commissioners to cut the budget to the point that only $5,000.00 remained in the right of way fund.

Chairman McKethan made it clear that the contract for construction of Road No. 64 would be let tomorrow, March 14, whether the County had obtained the right of way or not. He further stated that Highlands County had known about this road since the early part of 1949. He suggested that the Commissioners go home and work the thing out among themselves.

It was pointed out that the County wanted the help of the Road Board in working out the problem if acquiring this right-of-way.

Chairman McKethan called in the Road Board Auditor and asked him whether or not there would be any surplus money not needed this year to retire P.S.I.C. Bonds on the recently completed portion of Rd. No. 66. It was reported that a $20,000.00 surplus would exist at the end of this year. Chairman McKethan suggested using this surplus to purchase right-of-way for Road No. 64.

When asked about construction of the Highlands Hammock Road, Chairman McKethan stated that it would be built by the State Park Service. The contract will be let in April if possible.

Division Engineer Lewis stated that he believed the contract on Road No. 66 could be let by the end of June of this year.

It was suggested, and met the approval of the delegation, that the grade for the Lorida Road be built to the river this year. It was brought out that only 5 or 6 miles of compleased road could be constructed under the current budget, and a stabilized grade would serve the needs temporarily, if built all the way to the river.

The construction of thebridge across Kissimmee River could not be started until next year. It will cost approximately $500,000.00.

It was explained that the cost of building Road No. 66 will be between forty and fifty thousand dollars per mile.

There being no further questions, the conference ended.

Hugh Booth Opens New Gas Station On State Road 17

H. N. Booth has opened a new service station on State Road 17, a half mile north of the mall. He has recently completed a new station, with 300-foot drive-in, and has installed two storage tanks with a combined capacity of 12,000 gallons. 7,000 gallons for regular and 5,000 gallons for Ethyl gas. Booth is operating under the name of the Universal Oil Company, an independent company.

Many Fail To File Homestead Claim

P. G. Gearing, County Tax Assessor, reported that Highlands County taxpayers have signed up fairly well for Homestead Exemption, but there are still several hundred who have failed to return the Homestead Exemption cards which were mailed from his office early in January. Gearing warned that April 1st is the dead-line in getting in these applications.

Mr. Gearing advised that there will be many new homesteads on the county records this year and he suggested that all persons who are eligible for this exemption and who are applying for the first time this year should take with them their property deeds and, also, in the case of new homes the record of their building costs. There is a great deal of misunderstanding, he stated, in connection with who is and who is not eligible for Homestead Exemption. Three simple facts should be remust have title to the property, secondly, he must have been living in the property prior to Jan. 1 of the tax year and third, he must be a legal resident of the State of Florida in order to make affidavit that said residence is his permanent and principle home.

The Assessor also advises that all merchants and owners of tangible personal or intangible personal property must have their returns in his office by April 1st as after that date he is required to assess a mandatory 10 percent penalty.

State Insurance Dept. Adopts New Rate

State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner J. Edwin Larson stated this week, that due to the adoption of the recommendations of the National Automobile Underwriters Association by the State Insurance Department, the revision of automobile Chart Values will become effective on Tuesday March 14, will produce insurance premium savings to all 1950 automobile owners in Florida exceeding $200,000 this year.

As explained by Commissioner Larson, the savings will effect most popular makes of 1950 private passenger automobiles. Premium reductions varying from 8⅓ to 13 percent on automobile fire, theft, comprehensive, collision and miscellaneous insurance policies have resulted by the revision of automobile insurance values.

"It has been, and shall continue to be, the policy of the State Insurance Department" stated Commissioner Larson, "to exert every possible effort toward providing Florida automobile owners every opportunity of obtaining the maximum of automobile insurance protection, at a minimum of expense. I believe the freezing of the 1949 automobile value symbols and the revision of NAUA value chart, is a true indication of the constant aims and purposes of the State Insurance Department of Florida."

HABIT-ITIS

Centuries have not been able to erase the condition of habit thinkirig, known in modern parlance as "Habit-itis".

We are very grateful to the public for "Habit-itis", a matter of good will of our clients, who think of their income tax and of our service in that line since 1919.

We thank our patrons of many states and many points in Florida, distant from Avon Park.

We have abundant facilities for tax work and public bookkeeping. We use no "chisel", God and the Bureau of Internal Revenue are our inspectors, and no returns are signed by us except for the collctor of Internal Revenue—none for simple curiosity.

We live to serve.
