TB Group Elect New Officers For 1957-58

At the annual dinner meeting of the Highlands County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. held last Thursday evening at the Placid Ridge Country Club, Rev. John D. Whidden was elected president.

G. L. Beaumont was elected First Vice President; Harvey T. Plety, second vice president; Mrs. Martha Shoffner, recording secretary; and Sam L. Longbottom, was re-elected treasurer; an office he has efficiently held for many years.

Rev. Whidden succeeds Rev. W. M. Mullen who had held the president's office for two years while Dr. G. L. Beaumont succeeds Mrs. Lucille Rankin.

It was announced that Mrs. Alexander Blair was elected director at large and Mrs. Lucille Rankin, representative director on the state board on April 5, at the Florida TB and Health Assn. annual meeting in Orlando.

President W. M. Mullen occupied the chair at the meeting which was preceded by a buffet dinner served to 82 members and guests.

Dr. Frank Clinic, medical director of the Florida Southwest Tuberculosis Hospital at Tampa was the principal speaker.

In his remarks he said TB is far from being licked, despite its lower death rate of recent years. The Tampa TB Hospital had more patients on Jan. 1, 1957 than on the same date the previous year. He stressed the hospital's objective, which is to feed and treat every patient as well as possible.

CDA Starts New Year With Biggs President

The Executive Committee of the Community Development Assn. will meet Tuesday night, April 23, at 8:30 p.m. in the Florida Power Corp. lounge. This meeting, which will be opened by the newly-elected chairman, Hubbard K. Biggs, marks the beginning of the fourth year of the C.D.A.'s existence in Avon Park.

The Community Development Assn. was founded at a Town Meeting in March, 1954, following series of clinics in which the residents of Avon Park were asked to give written statements concerning improvements needed by our community. The clinics were sponsored by the Junior and Senior Chambers of Commerce and were conducted by the Community Development Department of the Florida Power Corporation.

The C.D.A. was established as a planning and recommending body, which collects no dues and raises no funds, is considered a non-profit organization, and is an advisory committee to our city government. The C.D.A. Street Lighting Committee made surveys which resulted in the White Way lighting on Main Street. The C.D.A. Police and Safety Committee proposed that Walker Memorial Hospital facilities be expanded to include those who do not belong to the white race — this led to the Ridge Area Hospital Expansion.

Nearly sixty members attended the luncheon. The tables were decorated with an array of various colored hibiscus blossoms. Shell orchids and gardenias were used on the speakers' table.

During the Federation meeting, various committees gave their annual reports. One of the most interesting was the report of this year's Flower Show. The Civic committee reported what had been accomplished in regards to the two way parks.

The Founders Circle has succeeded in putting a table, benches and trash cans in the picnic area at Donaldson Park. The Circle has also planted some shrubs in the park.

The Hibiscus Circle contacted the City Council who decided the land on Highway 27 to State Road Department for the building of the wayside park on the highway. Prior to the Federation meeting each Circle held a short business meeting. Concentrators Get Oranges For Less Money Than Last Season

Lakeland — Concentrators have paid 13 cents less for the fruit used to make a dozen 6-ounce cans of their frozen product, this season than last, according to a chart appearing in the current issue of Florida Citrus Mutual's membership publication.

Concentrators have paid, on the average, 70 cents for the oranges needed to make 12 six-ounce cans up to the present time this season, compared with 83 cents last year.

The FOB price on a dozen six-ounce cans was reduced by concentrators from $1.35 to $1.25 per dozen in late December, 1956, and the quotation has been at that level since.

Not only have concentrators paid less per box for the oranges they have used this season, but they have been able to get more concentrate from each box. The chart shows concentrators paid and average of $1.85 per box of oranges delivered at their plants up to March 30, compared with $2.09 to the same date last season. They have obtained 149 gallons of concentrate from each box so far this season, compared with 141 gallons to the same date last season.

Mutual forecasts that concentrators will use fewer oranges from now on than they did during the same period last season—21,765,000 boxes this season compared with 21,580,000 boxes actually used last year. Because of the higher yield of concentrate from each box, however, Mutual estimates slightly more than a million gallons more concentrate will be produced from now until the end of the season. Mutual estimates 3,315,000 boxes will be used in chilled juice from now on, on top of 2,700,000 boxes already used, compared with 2,000,000 boxes used from this date forward last season.

These figures involve only oranges going directly into the chilled juice product and not oranges used to make concentrate which is reconstituted in chilled juice and retailed in that form.

Devils Beat Kissimmee For Tenth Straight

Tripples by Billy Rose and Dale Landress and a double by Winkie Williams paved the way to Avon Park's 3-1 victory over Kissimmee last Friday night at Head Field. It was the Red Devils' tenth straight win of the season. They have not lost a game this year.

Charlie Anderson took credit for the ninth although his dress came on in the seventh to face the last two batters and retire the Kowboys, Anderson gave up four hits to the Kissimmee team two doubles and two singles — in posting his third win of the season.

Avon Park scored first in the third inning. Cooper doubled and then scored when Landress slammed out his three-sacker. Landress stole home for the second run after Tom Bass had singled and was stealing second base. The Devils third and final run was scored by Billy Rose in the fourth frame. Rose was safe at first on fielder's choice, stole second and third, and came home on an error by the Kissimmee catcher.

Kissimmee's lone run was scored in the top of the seventh by Tim Fitzgerald who leaped off the inning with a double. Rudy Williams, the center fielder, and Jerry Osterberg, the shortstop, both followed with singles to score Fitzgerald. Landress then relieved Anderson (with one man out) and retired the Kowboys leaving the tying runs on base.

Johnny Stalling got Avon Park's fifth hit, a single, in the fifth inning to boost his batting average to .455. Johnny had consistently led the Red Devils at the plate this season but is closely followed by Winkie Williams who has a .393 average.

This game with Wauchula is the Devil's next to last game of the regular season and will only be a deflated Mulberry left on their schedule. The Mulberry game will be played here at Head Field on Friday April 20. However, Ridge Tournament pairings will be set before these two undefeated teams meet.

The Ridge Conference Tournament will be played here in Avon Park April 29 through 4, but no details are available yet.

Landress displayed exceptional control as he used a sizzling fast ball and a fast-breaking curve to retire 16 of the 22 Blue Streak batters with strike-outs. Sebring's lone run

Rev. Edmund H. Rice Retires

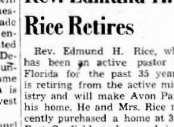

Rev. Edmund H. Rice, who has been an active pastor in Florida for the past 33 years, is retiring from the active ministry to devote his time to his home. He and Mrs. Rice recently purchased a home at 309 East Canfield and moved into it this week.

For the past three years, Rev. Rice has served the First Baptist Church of Homestead and prior to that he was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lakeland.

"I have lived in many sections of Florida," says Rev. Rice, "but when I looked for a place to spend the rest of my days in comfort and pleasure I decided on Avon Park."

of the Supreme Court and many other top legal minds have convinced him a vote for Interposition—in the form proposed by the House of Representatives—might well endanger the customs of this state.

State Senator Carlton to Oppose Resolution

State Senator Doyle E. Carlton, Jr., declared this week he will oppose an interposition resolution now before the Florida Senate because he believes it "would hinder integration."

Senator Carlton said conference with top legal authorities including two members of the Florida Supreme Court have led him to the conviction that any form of openly stated defiance of the U. S. Supreme Court might be dangerous to this state's segregated system.

He questioned the clamor by many citizens for interposition and said few people actually have an idea of what such a resolution entails.

Senator Carlton reminded that Florida's Fabian laws as passed overwhelmingly by the special of the legislature last summer are specifically designed to turn aside efforts for mass integration.

He pointed out that the laws nowhere prejudice themselves in the eyes of the federal government by reference to the negro race. But, he said, an interposition resolution, containing that defiance of the federal government might be construed to contain just such prejudice, and might damage the fabric of the Fabian laws.

The Wauchula Senator charged that many persons who are promoting passage of the interposition declaration are "misleading those persons they contact" to secure support.

Carlton said he would not oppose passage of a resolution "reaffirming that we have no more to do, but without the terms of defiance and belligerence obstructed by the presently proposed document."

Senator Carlton said he is convinced an overwhelming majority of the citizens of this state want to maintain segregation, and that disagreements over whether to vote for interposition are basic differences of opinion.

The Wauchula lawmaker said he returned to Tallahassee to start the session "with an open mind" on the subject, but he said that subsequent studies and conferences with members

Local Negro Charged With Ist Degree Arson

Abner Miller, colored, of Avon Park was arrested Sunday night and charged with first degree arson.

He is accused of setting the home of Homer Thornton, in the Georgia Quarters, on fire Sunday night. Thornton discovered the fire the first time about 8:30 Sunday night and put it out. He called Patrolman Joe Elder and colored Patrolman Jose Flemings and received the fire.

Shortly after midnight the dwelling was again set on fire. Patrolman Russell Scott and Deputy Robert Baringer joined Elder and Fleming in the investigation. Miller was arrested and County Judge Marvin Reber set bond at $2,000.

The Fire Department of Avon Park and the Sheriff's office is continuing the investigation of the fire.

New Pamphlet For Old Gamble Mansion

about historic old Gamble Mansion," states Emmet L. Hill, State Park Director.

The lead article is by Dr. Dorothy Dodd, Head of the Florida State Library.

A new photograph of the old mansion shows the enormous covered cistern alongside it which supplied it with water.

Commander John G. Gamble of Tallahassee operated by loaning the family portraits of his builder, Robert Gamble of Tallahassee and Manatee, and of his great-grandfather, John Gratton Gamble of Tallahassee, who owned it. Reproductions of the portraits are well portrayed in the pamphlet.

Also shown are pictures of the ruins of the Gamble sugar mill, which was destroyed by being burned up and blown up by a raider party. This party was from the Federal blockade, the U.S.S. James L. Davis, and a picture of the ship is displayed in the pamphlet.

However, the Gamble Mansion attained national and international fame because of Judah P. Benjamin. He served as Secretary of War, Attorney General and finally as Secretary of State for the Confederacy.

In his flight to escape capture by the Federals, he found refuge in the Gamble Mansion.

Major Leroy G. Lesley of Brooksville, his son, Major John T. Lesley of Tampa, Captain Archibald McNeill and many others of Manatee aided him. Captain Frederick Treska and a helper, transported him to the Bahamas group.

Make Your Laundry Better

PACKAGED STORAGE SPACE for the laundry. A steel kitchen wall cabinet that comes in a package to be attached to the wall provides extra storage space right where it comes in the handy. The Youngstown Kitchen Planning Institute suggests that one or more of these ready-made storage units above the automatic washer helps the homemaker keep her laundry neat and clean and detergent bottles and other cleaning supplies are kept out of sight, but are easily and quickly accessible. Cabinets like this match with laundry equipment, too.

you might name found in common every day use.

In Florida millions and millions of dollars worth of valuable timber is destroyed each year as a result of carelessness and incendiary activity. Records show that only about 5 per cent of our woods fires are caused by lightning, the other 95 per cent are man caused.

We have an excellent forestry department that is doing all it can to safeguard our valuable timber lands but we need more fire controlled areas and the department needs more funds for men and equipment.

But most important is educating the public to the need for greater care. It is easy to start a forest fire, a cigar or cigarette tossed from a car, a smoldering campfire, sparks from a locomotive are some of them. Don't throw a burning cigarette, cigar or match from your car. Use your ashtray or grind them out on the heel of your shoe. When camping be equally careful when smoking and be sure you put your campfire completely out before leaving it. This is what you can do to help as a good citizen. Urge your legislature to provide adequate forest protection, report incendiaries and back up your law enforcement officers and your courts in the prosecution of those who deliberately set wildfires.

Do You Have

A request has been made for pineapples, especially one for a Pineapple-Cheese Pie, so here it is.

PINEAPPLE-CHEESE PIE
Unbaked 9" pie shell
3 slices canned pineapple, diced
3 oz. pkg. cream cheese
1/2 cup granulated sugar

4 teaspoons flour
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
Dash powdered cloves
2 eggs, beaten
1/3 cup heavy cream
Make an unbaked 9" pie shell with fluted edge. Chill. Heat oven to 450 degrees. Let pineapple drain. Meanwhile, work cream cheese with spoon until fluffy and creamy. Add combined sugar and flour; stir until well blended. Add vanilla, grated lemon rind and cloves; then combine eggs and heavy cream, stirring to blend well. Bake chilled pie shell in 450 degree oven 10 minutes, or until it begins to brown. Remove from oven; quickly sprinkle bottom with well drained pineapple; pour in cheese mixture. Return to oven at once. Reduce heat to 350 degrees; bake 30 minutes or until silver knife inserted in center comes out clean. Makes one 9" pie.

"Too Late To Classify"

By RUSSELL KAY

One evening, while with a friend, we noticed a red sky that indicated a fire of some magnitude. As we journeyed along it appeared the fire was becoming more intense. As we knew the area housed several industrial establishments as well as homes we speeded up to learn if we could what was burning.

A few miles ahead we found that it was a roaring forest fire. Burning embers revealed its path where many acres of forest had been destroyed.

My friend and I were both unhappy, but for different reasons. In disgust, he exclaimed, "Aw, it's nothing but a forest fire, I thought it was a real fire."

Fortunately for Florida, the Judah P. Benjamin Chapter of the U.D.C. acquired the old mansion and with the aid of late Senator M. O. Harrison and the Florida Legislature, it was made available to the public.

It is at Ellenton on the Manatee and is a stately mansion of Greek revival architecture. This Florida Historic Memorial is open every day except Mondays.

"Copies of the pamphlet are obtainable at all State Parks and Historic Memorials or may be obtained from the Florida Park Service in Tallahassee at no charge," said Mr. Hill.

"The U.D.C. has selected the Gamble Mansion as one of its state-wide educational projects for school children for this year and this pamphlet will be of great assistance to the children."

From his viewpoint, a forest fire was of little consequence, certainly nothing to get excited about. His attitude reminded me of the old gag about the two fellows who were crossing the ocean on a liner, when a fire broke out on the ship. A warning to the passengers was sounding and all was confusion.

One fellow turned to the other and screamed, "The ship is on fire!" The other calmly replied, "What do we care, we don't own it."

Unfortunately, a fire that destroys a fine forest is more tragic and costly than most fires that destroy homes or buildings. A forest fire destroys hundreds of homes before they are built and while a home or building can be replaced in a short time it takes years to grow trees to replace those lost to a wildfire.

Like the chap who wasn't alarmed because "he didn't own the boat" the person who sees no personal concern over a forest fire has lost his sense of value and doesn't stop to think what that fire is doing to him and his interests.

It is destroying millions and millions of dollars worth of valuable resources and means that he and his children will pay more for forest products and the thousand and one things that depend upon the forest for raw material.

If all the things that could have been made from the burned trees could be stacked in a pile in the form of manufactured products it would be too staggering for the mind to conceive.

In the pile would be beautiful homes, buildings, boats, shipping and packing crates, paper products of every sort, plastics, chemicals, almost anything

Part-Time Jobs Available For Women

Women's chances of getting a part-time job nowadays are good, say the editors of Changing Times. The Kiplinger Magazine. Roughly 15,000,000 women, most of them housewives in their thirties or forties, do have such jobs.

What kind of a job would you like? There is a part-time position in just about any field you can think of. Here are some of them.

During holiday seasons, you'll find openings in retail stores for saleswomen, clerks, fitters, seamstresses, stock girls and food-service employees.

If your interest leans more towards schools, nurseries, libraries or museums, you'll find there is a need for house mothers, library aides, assistant curators, teachers, music accompanists and program directors.

Many movie houses and theaters need part-time help and no experience is necessary. You can find part-time positions as ticket and candy sellers, cashiers and waitresses. Younger women are usually employed as ushers.

A large field for women is in medicine. Here, lab technicians, therapists, social workers, practical nurses, nurse's aides, dining room and kitchen employees are needed. Most of the jobs are in hospitals and clinics, few in private offices. Professional training is required for many jobs, but there are very few age limits.

Charitable, social and religious organizations need plenty of part-time workers. Experience requirements vary with the job, but if you're qualified,

Florida Plant Celebrates World Safety Record

A new world's safety record was celebrated March 27 in ceremonies at the big Chemstrand Corporation nylon plant near Pensacola, Florida.

Well-known state and national figures joined Chemstrand President Edward A. O'Neal, Jr. in congratulating the more than 1,800 nylon plant employees who on March 12 passed the previous textile plant safety record by going more than 13,624,900 man-hours without a lost-time injury.

O'Neal praised the cooperative attitude of nylon plant employees and urged them to now break the all-industry safety record of 29 million man-hours. "Let's reduce all injuries to the vanishing point," he said, "and let's extend our safety efforts off the job to our homes and the highway."

J. T. Voele, chairman of the Florida Industrial Commission, presented the State of Florida Award. The National Safety Council's Award of Honor (their highest) was presented by a high ranking official of the Council.

Accepting the awards for the plant employees, Plant Manager Fred G. Greenmeyer voiced his personal appreciation of the part each person had played in making the safety record. "Through continued teamwork," he said, "we can now break that all-industry safety record too."

Collins Calls For Mental Health Week

Jacksonville — Urging the citizens of Florida to "cooperate with the Florida Assn. for Mental Health in the fight for the prevention, treatment and cure of mental illness," Governor LeRoy Collins has signed a proclamation declaring April 22 — May 4, 1957 as Mental Health Week.

These dates correspond with a similar resolution from the Congress of the United States, introduced by Florida's George Smathers, calling for the observance of National Mental Health Week between the same dates. Smathers, who has accepted the Honorary Chairmanship of the 1957 Florida Mental Health Campaign, introduced a similar resolution in the last session of Congress.

Mental Health Week will signify the beginning of the 1957 Florida Mental Health Campaign throughout the state. Under the auspices of the Florida Assn. for Mental Health, with Farris Bryant as the 1957 Chairman, numerous local mental health associations will use this period to solicit funds for the continuance of their important work and to seek new members for their associations. Funds received during this period will be used locally in the promotion of more mental health workers in the county health departments, more community services.
