Tree Native To
East Africa
Blooms In Mall

Across from the Post Office in the famous Mall, Avon Park can boast of a rare tree by the name of Colvillea. This is a leguminous tree, native to East Africa and only one half dozen or so have bloomed in the State of Florida, according to the April official publication of the Chamber of Commerce bulletin.

This past Winter season delicate spray like blossoms of gold were seen in bloom on the Colvillea tree in the Mall. The leaves are lacy and fern shaped. They have so few beans that the start of seed still comes out of Madagascar.

Colvillea gloriosa was named for Governor Madagascari, Lord Colville.

$3.75 Collected Locally Toward Cancer Crusade

Col. D. M. Ellis, chairman of the Avon Park Cancer Drive, reported that a total of $347 had been collected locally as of Monday morning.

Col. Ellis states that some of the workers have not completed their rounds but that progress in the American Cancer Society Crusade was satisfactory.

The Crusade opened here April 1 with a total of $1800 to be raised in Highlands County and the drive will continue until April 30.

If you have not mailed your contribution yet, won't you please do so today. Contributions may be mailed to Cancer fund, care of Col. D. M. Ellis, Avon Park.

Estimated Cancer Hospital Bill For Avon Park This Year Is $14,850.00

Col. D. M. Ellis, local American Cancer Society chairman, said today the hospital bill for cancer this year in Avon Park would amount to about $14,850 as compared with the $1000 the Unit is currently striving to raise for its total cancer control program in Highlands County.

Col. Ellis pointed out that hospital costs represented only a base line for the cancer bill. He said the total cost of cancer was many times greater. Nationally, the annual hospital bill for cancer is estimated at $300,000,000, or ten times more than $30,000,000 the ACS is seeking for programs of research, education and service this year, he added.

Col. Ellis declared that the economic impact of cancer was overwhelmingly greater than the Society's own resources.

"As in the case with other diseases, providing help for needy cancer patients is the final responsibility of our state and local authorities," the ACS leader said.

"However, the Society is active in the fight against cancer," he said. (Continued on page 8)

Fire Department Answers 2 Calls Over Weekend

Avon Park had two small fires during the holidays, the first one was Friday night, when the Fire Department was called to the Smith Apartment, on East Pine, to put out a mattress fire. The fire was the result of smoking in bed and the damage was estimated at $50.

Sunday morning at 8:15 an over heated stove caught the wall on fire and caused about $25 worth of damage to the wall of apartment 202 in the Brickell Building.

Avon Park Lakes Purchasers Can Join Chamber

Cancer Society Need Sheets And Pillow Cases

The American Cancer Society is making an appeal for clean sheets and pillow cases that can be used in making disposal cancer pads. These sheets and cases can be left at the Chamber of Commerce office or if it is impossible for you to deliver them there please call Mrs. H. C. Krenkerich at 24741 and she will be glad to call for them.

The Covenant Circle of the United Congregational Church has been making these pads for the past three years under the direction of Mrs. Rankin, County Nurse, and have exhausted their supply of old sheets. The County is now running short of pads so the Cancer Society is making this appeal to the residents of Avon Park.

Central And Southern Florida Flood Control District Has Five Pumping Stations Now For Flood Protection

West Palm Beach — The Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District is better prepared than ever before to protect human life and property in the coming rainy season, according to announcement from that headquarters.

In the face of the May to October wet season when 70 per cent of the rainfall occurs in central Florida, the FCD has a total of

Do You Have

This week we have a different pie shell and filling and it is fit for a king. Just the thing to top off that special meal. Try these:

MERINGUE PIE SHELL
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar
2 egg whites

Heat oven to 275 degrees. Sift sugar and cream of tartar together. Beat egg whites with hand or electric beater until stiff, not dry. Add sifted ingredients slowly, beating continuously until smooth and glossy. Use to line bottom and sides of well greased 9" pie plate, keeping center hollowed out to 1/2" thickness; do not spread meringue on rim.

Bake at 275 degree about 1 hour, or until lightly browned, and crisp to touch. Cool. When thoroughly cool, fill with chocolate nut angle pie filling.

CHOCOLATE NUT ANGEL PIE
1/2 cup chopped filberts, walnuts or pecans
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces
3 tablespoons hot water
1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Prepare meringue pie shell. After lining 9" pie plate with meringue sprinkle with nuts; bake in 275 degree oven about 1 hour, or until delicately browned and crisp to touch. Cool thoroughly. Melt chocolate in double boiler. Stir in water; cook until thickened. Cool slightly; add vanilla; fold in whipped cream. Turn into meringue shell. Chill 2 to 3 hours, or until set.

Clinic To Vaccinate Dogs

A rabies clinic has been arranged by the Highlands County Health Department to vaccinate all dogs at the Sebring Air Terminal. Dogs at the Air Terminal that have not been vaccinated since March 22, must be vaccinated at or before this clinic which will be held in front of the grocery store at the Sebring Air Terminal on Thursday, April 25th at 6:30 a.m. All dogs at the Terminal must be vaccinated or destroyed.

Facts About Florida Rehabilitation Center As Written By A Patient

(This article was written by a woman journalist who is undergoing treatment at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Avon Park. ARC is the most recent public health facility the state has put into operation, and was built under the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program created by the 1953 state Legislature.)

Avon Park — The initials are A.R.C. — harmless enough initials which stand for Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center. But to the average uninitiated alcoholic they stand for anything from "All Ready for Captivity" to "Aches, Latches and Coppers."

To most inebriates, the voluntary decision to come to the Center for help with their alcoholic problems is a step into the unknown — as fearful and distorted as a lone journey through dark and unfamiliar forests.

One patient has even compared it with the feeling a deeply religious person might have about death in his service one anticipates a better life, but in actuality there is a deep-seated but often unacknowledged fear of things to come.

As a person and a patient it is this writer's privilege to explain some of the aims and activities of and within the Clinic.

First of all, there are no hot and cold bath treatments, electric shock treatments, locked doors or barred windows. Surprised that these should be mentioned? Well, readers would be surprised at the number of patients who dreaded just such treatments and fear, so they voluntarily submitted themselves in their earnest and sincere desire to overcome the crimping illness of alcoholism. The Center is — NOT — a drying out hospital.

Inebriates who have been recommended through the proper channels, however, are not released admission.

Consequently, there are numerous who enter ARC after days, weeks and even months of sobriety, and others who suffer the horrors of delirium tremens within the hospital here.

Oh, of course, have the same purpose. And ALL are human beings who are treated with an understanding and kindness that most thought they could never again experience in this life because of their illness.

Following a short period in the hospital for ascertaining the physical condition of the patient, he or she is admitted to the residential unit for 30 days of dormitory life.

There the "Golden Rule" atmosphere, as one patient describes it, prevails with both staff and patients.

Oh, of course, there are numbers of embittered individuals who expect to be mistreated — why not, that's all they've had for the past several years of their drinking? — and they sometimes look around for a couple of days waiting for some body to knock the chip off their shoulder. But take it from this writer, a patient needing discharge date, those chips turn into sawdust in short order.

Gripes? Sure. Where are two or more persons gathered without some? But all are given the same consideration and settled on their merits as legitimate grippers — by the patients and staff in weekly community meetings called, naturally, "gripe sessions."

Accents is always on group therapy, with two-hour morning sessions daily through Friday and one-hour afternoon sessions twice weekly, monitored by specialized personnel. The rest is free time, excepting daily expected chores of keeping beds and rooms clean, etc., and the range of activities is unlimited.

Fishing, swimming, group games, card games, group singing, and movies others, a weekly Alcoholics Anonymous meeting, shuffleboard, table tennis, and on and on. Besides the many projects offered in occupational therapy — woodworking, leather tooling, all types of handicraft, art and such. A common complaint, repeated dozens of times a day, believe it or not, is "I just haven't time to do all I wanted to do."

Sounds easy? Pleasant is a better word, because learning such reasons for using alcohol as a defense is not easy on the emotions. But in these 30 days the emotions are allowed expression without fear of censure, condemnation or punishment.

Best of all, one learns that life can not only be lived but can be fun without alcohol.

Wednesday morning at 10 a.m. will cover the broad implications of industrialization in Florida. He will discuss the ways in which public and private agencies, community government and organizations, and industries already located in the state can help make sure that industrial immigration plays a consistently positive role in Florida's development.

C. Wickham Skinner is director of administration for the Minneapolis-Honeywell Regulator Company's aeronautical plant in Clearwater. He has had major responsibility in all phases leading up to locating this new plant in Florida, from the selection of a site through the current final stages of construction.

Skinner joined the Aeronautical Division six years ago after serving for two years as a production coordinator for the main Honeywell plant in Minneapolis. He holds degrees in engineering and business administration, and during World War II served with the Army Corps of Engineers at Los Alamos, N.M., on the atomic bomb project.

Following Clapp to the speaker's podium, Skinner will speak on the subject: "What a manufacturer looks for in a community." His talk will analyze the standards that businessmen apply as they make their decisions to locate in a specific area or community, with particular emphasis on those factors that can be influenced by area or community action.

J. L. Shoemaker, sales development agent for Florida Tire & Rubber, came to this state in 1933, bringing with him more than 20 years experience in the field of economic research and sales promotion with two of America's largest corporations.

From 1936 to 1942 he was associated with a business subsidiary of the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company as a staff member in the general sales department, and later as manager of the accessories and repair materials division. From 1942 till 1955, he was with Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., New York, as supervisor of the general sales department and of the market services division.

Shoemaker will be the final speaker of the opening Wednesday morning conference meeting. His topic will be "How to show a manufacturer what he's looking for in a community." He will discuss the facts which should be on hand and the factors which should be stressed when a business representative surveys a community for possible plant location.

Gustav E. Larson is deputy director of the Office of Area Development, U. S. Department of Commerce, Washington, D.C. Long a specialist in area and community development, he has gained a nationwide reputation as author of such publications as "Locating Industrial Prospects for Your Community," "Trade Association Industrial Research," "Selling the U. S. Market," and "Developing and Selling New Products." Starting off the Wednesday afternoon session, Larson's talk will be on the subject: "Federal Government Services for Community Industrial Development." He will outline services available from the Commerce Department and other federal agencies, and will also review the steps essential for successful area development.

Howard A. Smith is field executive for the Industrial Services Division of the Florida Development Commission in Tallahassee. In the past year he has visited more than 90 communities to provide services on problems of community development.

A native of Alaska County, Smith has a background of educational and public relations experience in China, Hawaii and various parts of the United States. He returned to Florida in 1946, serving for seven years as executive secretary of the East Coast Highway Assn., and subsequently worked with the RCA Service Corporation at the Guided Missile Base at Cocoa.

He will address the conference on "State government services for community industrial development," emphasizing the stepped-up program of the Development Commission.

Another Wednesday afternoon speaker will be David O. Nihart, manager of the Dale City chamber of commerce. He came to Florida in 1951, bringing with him some 20 years of experience as a locating and landscape engineer, and as a New York advertising executive and founder of the Nihart Advertising Agency.

Working through the Dale City chamber, Nihart has been largely responsible for the implementation of the long-range planning program for that community. He was also instrumental in setting up the East Passaic Industrial Commission last year.

Nihart will discuss the topic: "What the chamber of commerce can provide in getting ready for industry." He will review the chamber's leadership responsibilities in providing organized action for development, making of wide estimates of employment, and promoting good will within the community after industrial location has taken place.

Closing out the afternoon session will be John A. Hart, Miami realtor and publisher of the Florida Realty Review. He provides a state-wide coverage of matters pertaining to real estate, and has been extensively involved with the Florida Development Commission and Florida chambers of commerce in mapping out an effective approach to the problems of industrial reality.

Hart is a member of the National Institute of Real Estate Agents, the National Institute of Real Estate Brokers, the Miami and state chambers of commerce; is an associate member of the Society of Residential Appraisers, and a candidate for the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers.

His talk, "The realtor's role in development," will deal with the mechanics of handling industrial prospects, particularly with regard to such site selection problems as topography, water supply, transportation facilities and so forth.

Featured speaker at the conference banquet on Wednesday evening will be H. McKinley Conway, of Atlanta, the nation's leading publisher of industrial materials. His regular publications include Industrial Development, national magazine of area and community development; The Site Selection Handbook, an annual supplement to the magazine; Manufacturers Record, the South's oldest business magazine; and the Blue Book of Southern Progress and the Southern Industrial Directory, both annual reference publications.

Conway is a consultant and research director for the Southern Assn. of Science and Industry. He is a member of the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, American Industrial Development Council, American Society of Planning Officials, the National Industrial Dispersal Committee, and Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic fraternity. He is also president of the Atlanta Press Club, and was selected by Time Magazine as one of 100 leaders in Atlanta.

The final conference speaker will be Robert H. Giedt, director of the Florida Power's community development program. His service with the corporation dates to 1928 when he joined the staff as commercial manager. He later became residential development director until 1951 when he organized the community development service which has helped organize improvement activities in some 43 Florida communities.

Giedt gained a measure of fame for his pioneer research in electric heating for homes. At the conference, he will speak on the topic: "What industry can do to and for a community." He will also summarize the conference and close the proceedings.

Coordinator for the conference is W. W. Young, head of the General Extension Division of Florida's community services and community development department. A veteran of 14 years service as a U. S. government industrial economist and administrator, Young came to Florida in 1955 and since has organized a continuing state-wide service for Florida communities.

He is a member of the board of directors of the Florida Planning and Zoning Assn., American Economic Assn., American Industrial Assn., and American Men of Science.

Beasley's responsibilities include the preparation of state-wide estimates of employment, unemployment, labor force, average earnings of production workers, as well as research in unemployment insurance problems.

Beasley will speak on "Labor force development for recruitment for industry." He will review the labor force problems involved in industrial growth, and comment on steps which may be taken by local communities to insure adequate labor supply.

The afternoon session will open with a talk by Mrs. Mary Ellen Ward, Avon Park planning consultant. Mrs. Ward, who holds an M.P.A. degree in planning and public administration from Michigan State University, has served as a planning specialist with the Michigan Highway Department, the Tennessee Valley Authority, and the Hillsborough County public instruction and engineering departments. She came to Avon Park in 1948.

She will speak on the subject: "Planning and Community Development—What is it?"

Following Mrs. Ward will be Frederick H. Bair, Auburn, Maine planning consultant and executive secretary of the Florida Planning and Zoning Assn. One of Florida's leading specialists for economic, industrial and community planning, Bair came to Florida in 1950 as supervisor of the State Improvement Commission. He previously was a federal economist, senior planning technician for the New York State Department of Commerce, and director of the Casper, Wyo., Long Range Planning and the Southern Industrial Development of the Southeastern Planning and Zoning Assn., a member of the editorial council of Municipal South magazine, a past vice president of the Southern Assn. of Planning and Development Agencies, and vice president of the Southeast Chapter, American Institute of Planners.

His Avon Park address will be on the subject: "Planning and Community Development—How to go about it." He will outline the practical steps a community should take to prepare itself for industrialization.

The final conference speaker will be Robert H. Giedt, director of the Florida Power's community development program. His service with the corporation dates to 1928 when he joined the staff as commercial manager. He later became residential development director until 1951 when he organized the community development service which has helped organize improvement activities in some 43 Florida communities.

Local Rotarians Attended District Assembly in Clearwater April 14-15

A. B. Whittle, 1957-58 Rotary president, E. Ray Wells, vice president and David Lanier, secretary, attended the 1957 Rotary District Assembly on April 14 and 15 at the Fort Harrison Hotel, Clearwater, Fla. There were 380 at the banquet on the night of the 14th and our speaker was nationally known David D. Guyton, who is a past District Governor of Rotary International from Mississippi. He owns a bank and is president of a girls college in Mississippi, his talk was thrilling to all and full of good humor and sound philosophy. One of the amazing things about this great man is that he has been blind since age 12.

There were 13 past district governors present and they all did a grand job of instructing all the new presidents and nearly all new secretaries and other committee chairmen on their duties for the coming year. Our District 244 Governor, Frank A. McDonald, did a grand job of presiding over our district assembly. We met our new district Governor James B. Keith who will be our Governor beginning July 1st and our district will be changed from No. 244 to No. 698.

One of the outstanding features of the assembly was the weekly club meeting of the Clearwater Rotary Club. The Clearwater Beach Club attended this meeting with 100% attendance, this was the 35th meeting that the Clearwater Beach had since July 1st at which they had 100% attendance. Large Club also attended on mass. The speaker at this meeting was Cliff McKay, age 22, who was selected as Rotary Foundation Fellow from our district. Rotary will spend $250 helping him get one year post graduate study in Ceylon, a small island south of India.

He is preparing to be a Presbyterian minister. His talk was most inspirational.

A New Deadly Disease Has You In Its Grip

A new deadly disease has the American people in its grip and no miracle drug is in sight to stop its frightful toll of human lives.

Headless horsepower is the chronic disease of the Age of the Automobile. Its symptoms are many and various. The heavy foot on the accelerator; the eye fixed on the climbing speedometer; the hand on the horn; the mind sliding while the car is in high.

In its 23rd annual highway safety publication, "Headless Horsepower", The Travelers Insurance Companies of Hartford, Conn., point to the fact that 40,000 Americans were killed and 2,368,000 injured in 1956 on U. S. highways. That's an increase of six per cent in fatalities and nearly ten per cent in injuries over 1955's toll.

"The disease of headless horsepower is highly contagious," the booklet states. It can be spread by an irresponsible word, an inflated claim, a careless example. And every one who is in a position to influence drivers should learn that horsepower, in the hands of the headless, is the fundamental cause of our ever-mounting toll of disaster.

In recent years, engineers have made many attempts to feature safety equipment in the new cars. Probably many lives have been spared by safety glass, seat belts, padded instrument panels, all-steel bodies, etc. But these safety devices can be nullified by any combination of speed plus carelessness, thoughtlessness or lack of judgment by the driver behind the wheel.

However, it is the driver, not the manufacturer, the advertiser or the salesman who must bear the greatest weight of blame. For it is the driver who can control the horsepower and use it safely for his greater ease and convenience. It is the driver who is lectured to, legislated at, prayed for, preached to—in every medium of public expressions known to man. And it is the driver who nods sagely, promises readily, and forgets everything but his sense of overwhelming power when he steps on the gas.

Casualty lists on U. S. highways have mounted steadily until in 1956 all records of headless haste and needless waste were shamefully broken. The facts of human suffering and death speak for themselves.

Human error is by far the biggest single cause of accidents. Figures compiled by The Travelers show that in 1964 per cent of the fatal crashes last year, the automobile was in apparently good condition. Clear, dry weather prevailed in more than 85 per cent of these instances!

If this year's record is equal to that of 1956, one in 70 American survivors, or a name in the obituary column.

Migrant Workers Headed North Told Of Child Labor Laws

Tampa — Preparations being made here for the annual northward trek of agricultural workers brought a reminder of Federal child labor laws from Federal T. Haynes, investigation supervisor of the U.S. Labor Department's Wage-Hour field office in Tampa.

The same federal rules apply in other states as exist here," Haynes said, "and although some children may be

The first million dollars is the goal for this year's convention, which will be held at the business manager that $1,864,140 had been received for world missions through the convention's Cooperative Program for the current year.

Receipt of the first million was announced when posting was completed for money received through April 9 this year. Last year this record was not achieved until May 7, or 28 days later. The budget for this year is $1,864,140 and the goal is $1,864,140.

Maguire admits that the second million will probably not be given this year, but states that if the present percentage increase continues a two million dollar year is not far away. The first year the convention

Traffic Deaths Show Increase

Death on U.S. highways continues to climb and the finger of blame is pointed directly at the Motorist himself by the Travelers Insurance Companies in their 23rd annual highway safety book entitled "Headless Horsepower."

More than 40,000 Americans were killed and 2,300,000 injured on our highways last year, according to the report and an analysis of these casualties show that human error was the biggest factor in a big majority of the cases.

Tragic equipment was blamed for less than four per cent of the fatalities. Bad weather prevailed in only 15 per cent of the instances.

Some statisticians have attempted to prove that the danger on our highways are decreasing, because the rate of death per miles traveled and vehicles registered has decreased sharply in recent years.

But the issue is the same now as it was 51 years ago when the keeping of accident records began. It can not be stated in terms of numbers of miles or numbers of automobiles. At best these give us cold comfort. The issue is one of human life, of men, women and children killed or injured regardless of how many cars they traveled or how many cars they passed on their way to their accident.

"Headless Horsepower: It is a chronic disease of the Age of the Automobile," the report states. "The disease of the horsepower is highly contagious. It can be spread by an irresponsible word, an irresponsible claim, a careless example... everyone who is in a position to influence drivers should learn that horsepower is the fundamental cause of our ever-mounting toll of disaster."

Color and Shadow Lines Enhance Ranch Home

This appealing, moderately priced ranch-style home gains added luxury and charm from its modern exterior finishing. Here the choice has been asbestos-cement siding in pastel green, for a house that invites outdoor living. The main living room features a white tile and a large, irregularly patterned flagstone floor to provide a perfect framing for the fireplace. The asbestos siding, applied over shingle barker, accentuates the horizontal shadow between courses, adds stature and beauty. A light colored asbestos-shingle roof complements the siding and further emphasizes the home's long, low lines. This treatment blends the house into its surroundings. Rock siding and roofing are permanent, fire-safe and inexpensive to maintain.

One-fourth of these would be on vacation at all times. One-fourth less buses would be needed. One fourth less additional structures and the saving would run into millions, thus releasing funds for operation and increased teachers salaries.

Mr. Jennings admits that adoption of the plan would call for considerable study and research, he believes the details could be perfected if school authorities would make a sincere effort and put out of their minds the stubborn contention that "it can't be done."

Jennings points out that the present system of nine months school term dates back to the days when our colleges were founded, when we were primarily an agricultural country. The nine months term permitted students to return to work on the farms in the summer. He calls attention to the fact that West Point, Annapolis, Culver and most business schools and colleges operate on a year-round basis most successfully.

He suggests that a committee made up of four representatives of the Florida Assn. of Real Estate Boards, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, the Florida Bankers Assn. and the State Assn. of School Superintendents be appointed to make a thorough, unbiased study of the proposition, giving particular attention to the saving in interest, the tax saving, the question of necessary legislation and the feasibility of a modified plan for small schools using grades instead of classes.

Most school authorities are very much opposed to the year-round school plan. They say it would not work and is impractical for many reasons. They point out that school buildings are now used during the vacation months for adult education, recreational and enrichment programs.

They point out that a similar plan has been tried in other parts of the country and discontinued as impractical. Many laymen and business men who have given the matter consideration feel that the idea is certainly worth serious study and the legislature may be asked to provide for such a study during the present session.

Four U.S. Navy ships have been named the Florida, the last being a battleship of the Utah class.

At the meeting of the American Heart Assn., October 1955 in New Orleans, he shared the speakers' panel with Dr. Paul D. White, President Eisenhower's heart specialist, on a program of Rehabilitation in Heart Disease.

U Of F Receives Cobalt-60 Shipment

Gainesville — A shipment of cobalt-60, one of the new radioactive isotopes made possible by nuclear science, has been received at the University of Florida.

A dozen pieces of the metal, each the size of a man's finger, were delivered by the Oak Ridge National Laboratory early this month. One of the major advantages of the cobalt source is that it can supply radiations very similar to X-rays without any of the costly and power-consuming equipment needed to produce X-rays.

The half-pound of metal has a disintegration rate of 1,020 curies, and the largest cobalt "source" in the state, commercial or state-owned. This amount cost $4,100 as compared to a $10 cost for a half-pound of ordinary cobalt.

Because of potential hazards in using this powerful source of gamma rays, a special installation was designed and built by university personnel. It consists of a special laboratory adjoining the heating plant. The floor of the laboratory is 10 feet below the ground and the cobalt has been placed in a steel and concrete-lined wall full of water, 12 feet below that.

The first Kraft-paper mill in Florida was built in 1931 at Panama City.

U Of F Receives Inter-American Scholarship

Gainesville — An inter-American scholarship in reverse has been established with the University of Florida to provide an educational opportunity for an outstanding Cuban student to study agricultural methods in Florida.

The scholarship has been established by Dr. H. D. Dyer, Jr., of Havana, Cuba, and is named to honor the memory of Diego Rodriguez, a leading tobacco farmer from San Luis, Cuba.

In accepting the scholarship for the University, Dr. J. Wayne Reitz stated that it evidences a growing interest in cultural exchanges such as the University has sponsored over the years.

WELCOME! FLORIDA INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT CONFERENCE Eaton's

There's more to be proud of in this one!

You'll be proud of Chevy's sweet, smooth and sassy way of going. And you'll take extra pride in Chevy's look of substance and character, its careful construction, its fine finishing touches you don't find in other low-priced cars. For one thing, the others don't have Body by Fisher. For another, they can't hold a candle to Chevy when it comes to performance. Chevrolet, you know, won the Pure Oil Performance Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile." Automotive experts decided that. But you agree with them once you stop by your dealer's and drive a new Chevrolet yourself! Soon maybe?

Senator Spessard Holland

A bill of great importance, particularly to those vast areas of the country which have suffered severe drought over the last five years, is the measure to establish a deferred grazing program in the drought-stricken regions. I conducted hearings on the several bills which dealt with this subject and handled on the Senate floor the amended measure which we work out. Our bill passed the Senate and the House accepted it without change. I hope this program will be valuable to the stricken regions and to the nation.

CALIFORNIA VISIT — Saturday, April 23, I spoke before the Convention of the California Grape and Tree Fruit League in San Francisco, which includes the groups producing all fruits, grapes and nuts in that state.

As member of the Senate Committee on Agriculture and Forestry, it is my responsibility, while looking out for the interest of Florida, to also help the California fruit and vegetable people along with those from Oregon, Washington, Arizona, Texas and several other large fruit producing States, since none of them has a member of our Committee. Of course, it is important that all fruit and vegetable growing States shall pull together in legislative matters.

One most pleasant aspect of my visit to California was seeing two old college friends, Dick Cornelison and Vick Wong, whom I knew at the University of Florida. Dick, from Lakeland, moved to California following World War I and is now retired, living at Placerville. Vick Wong, who took A.G. from the University of Florida, is a highly respected member of the large Chinese.

American colony in San Francisco.

Seriousness of the screw worm plague to the livestock industry in the Southeastern States was emphasized upon officials of the USDA here last week by representatives of the Florida Cattlemen's Association, including President J. O. Pearce, Jr., Oklawaha; Lattimer Turner, Dallas, Fort Worth; and Cushman Radebaugh, Orlando. After a conference in my office the group with USDA officials for further discussion of the problem. Of course all members of the Florida delegation will do their utmost to bring about Federal participation in a speedy screw worm eradication program.

SPREADING DECLINE DISCUSSED

Member of the Florida citrus industry committee on spreading decline were here April 11 for conferences on a Federal-State cooperative plan for eradicating the destructive pest from Florida citrus groves. After a morning meeting in my office, the group conferred with officials of the U.S. Department of Agriculture where an understanding was reached on future procedure. While the Federal government is not participating in compensating for trees necessarily destroyed in the control program, since it takes no part in the "pull and treat" elimination of trees, nevertheless, an item of $500,000 is the USDA budget this year for continuing surveys, mapping and other necessary technical work included in the industry group were Frank Alexander, Bartow; Wilbur Charles and J. T. Griffiths, Winter Haven; and Clayton Logan, Lakeland.

ANNUAL MASONIC COMMUNICATION

The annual communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Florida, was held in Jacksonville Wednesday, April 17, under the leadership of Grand Master Charles R. Lucas, of Winter Haven. It was my pleasant responsibility to deliver what is termed the grand oration before this splendid group of Florida Masons.

STETSON SINGERS

The Stetson University Glee Club, under the direction of Professor Harold M. Giffin, included Washington on their tour this year and staged two fine performances in this area. Both concerts were warmly received by large audiences. The young singers were audited around the Capitol on a sight-seeing tour and visit to my office by Legation Assistant J. G. Golden, of Leesburg, an alumnus of Stetson and former member of the glee club.

PLANT HIGH WINS HONORS

Young High School, Gainesville; Miami Beach High School, Seniors and Bands; Lake Wales High School Seniors; and Kalamazoo High School, St. Joseph, Mo.

Pinellas Bay Way, Causeways And Bridges Approved By Army Engin.

Colonel E. K. Kirkpatrick, known as "Bridge D", is being developed by the State Road Department for later approval. As proposed there would be three bascule and three fixed bridges with about 4.5 miles of connecting causeways. The channels crossed by the proposed bridges are navigable for small to medium size commercial and recreational fishing boats, yachts, and tugs with tows. The solid fill causeway sections in general cross areas of quite shallow water, in some instances less than one foot in depth.

Citrus Queen Embarks On Good Will Tour

Winter Haven — Beautiful, brunette Frances Layton of Winter Haven, reigning Florida Citrus Queen, has embarked on a 10,000-mile good will tour which will take her to several important European citrus markets, culminating with a whirlwind round of American markets.

Since her selection as the 1957 Citrus Queen, out of a field of 21 girls, she has made many appearances under the sponsorship of the Florida Citrus Commission. On the current international trip the queen will visit Paris via Lufthansa German Air Lines on the Azores-Lisbon route.

In the French capital she was greeted by Alfred LaRoque, bilingual European representative of the citrus commission who has scheduled her visits to include many of the bigger cities which are prime customers for fresh and processed Florida citrus fruits.

In commenting on Queen Frances' trip to Europe on behalf of the citrus industry, Winston Lawless of Winter Haven, president of the Exposition, said "this might be coincidence, but this the fourth year we have sent our Queen to the European markets and during those years our exports of fresh and processed citrus have quadrupled."

Recognizing the importance of European markets for Florida citrus, the citrus commission has established two offices abroad, one under LaRoque headquartered at Frankfurt, Germany, and the other in Stockholm, Sweden.

Queen Frances is being accompanied by Mrs. Barbara Davis of Winter Haven, representing the Exposition, and her schedule includes the big fruit auctions in Hamburg and Rotterdam, with Copenhagen, Denmark, tentatively scheduled. She will spend several days in London and will visit the famous Covent Garden, the oldest and largest fruit and vegetable market in Europe. Her return trip will start at famous Shannon airport in Ireland.

Immediately on her return to the U.S. she will go to Washington to participate in a meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce — her visit to the national capital timed to coincide with a three-day citrus commission sales promotional event. Visits to Detroit and Philadelphia will follow the Washington date while her visit to midwestern markets is now being planned.

Florida license plates have the prefix numbers 1-87 to indicate each county, while the number 88 is reserved for state offices and 90 for duplicates.
