C Of C Conducting Auburndale's McCall Runs Wild As Survey In Regard Bloodhounds Win 19 to 6 Over Devils To Holidays

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce Merchant's Committee, headed by Jack DeLaney as chairman, is conducting a survey of the business firms with the hopes of creating better co-operation and co-ordination of efforts between the business and the Chamber in regards to established National Holidays.

Business firms are being asked to fill out forms listing National Holidays that they observe, and the Chamber in return will observe by closing their business on that designated date, provided the majority of the town business district in Avon Park agrees to do likewise.

So far the survey has been met with a good response as the firms which have been contacted have welcomed this idea. When the survey is completed the Chamber office will be able to announce which holidays will be observed by the local merchants.

An unprincipled, flu-ridden Devil Eleven went down to defeat last Friday night 19 to 6 in the hands of an old foe, non-conference Auburndale. The game played on the streets of the town.

The Avon Park boys have suffered intermittently with flu and colds for the past two or three weeks and were not in top physical condition when game time rolled around. The team members' absence from practice hampered the Devils to such an extent that several practices were mere calisthenics drills or skill sessions. Some of the players missed as much as five practice sessions at a stretch.

The loss was the first for the Red Devils this season and the second in two years. They had to lose to the Bloodhounds after rolling over them last year 21 to 6 in what was then a Ridge Conference tilt.

Auburndale showed an astonishing amount of power from the opening kick of the game down to the third period when their steam sputtered and the Devils were able to make their lone touchdown of the game.

Commissioners Meet In Regular Session Tuesday

The Board of County Commissioners at their regular meeting Tuesday morning granted the Highway Patrol permission to use the old jail kitchen for a room to give drivers tags with the understanding that they release the space when requested to do so by the Board.

Bids for paving streets at the Shering Air Terminal were opened and the bid was awarded to Superior Paving, Inc. $100,000 of asphalt at $16.00 a ton, total $1,600,000.

The Board approved the Avon Park Camp Addition, Replat of Lake Blue, Estates, Wilson's Lake Josephine Subj. subject to the approval of the County Clerk and County Attorney.

The Board agreed to a five-way split of the $27,000 Tax money for operation, thus giving each district $45,400. After district bills were approved Tuesday for payment the following balances for operations through September 30 remained: for district one, $41,784; district two, $46,181; district three, $36,551; district four, $37,294 and district five, $25,336.

The ghosts and goblins are about to come out of hiding and invade the streets of Avon Park at five o'clock Saturday, Oct. 26, the annual Halloween Parade will begin at the Post Office, march to Turner's Furniture Store and then march back to Donaldson Park All who plan to march in the parade will meet at the Post Office at 4:30 for the lineup.

There will be twenty judges, selected by Mrs. Guy Garrett and Mrs. Fred Monteleone, to judge the costumes that are the Most Like Halloween and the Most Original in each marching division. Ribbons will be awarded the winners.

Favors in gaily decorated Trick or Treat bags will be given to each costume child who marches in the parade. There will be around 400 children marching.

The parade is planned as follows: Fire Truck, Deputy Sheriff's Car, Mayor E. A. DeLaney, Most Outstanding Citizens for 1957 (voted by the high school students), Senior High Mr. and Miss Avon Park High School; Junior High Mr. and Miss Avon Park High School; The American Legion Color Guard, the High School Band; Boy Scouts; Girl Scouts; (Continued on page 12)

Devils Travel To Arcadia For Game Friday Night

After a week of playing non-conference football the Ridge Conference football race got back down to business in the battle for the championship crown. The league leading Avon Park Red Devils, after a round with the flu, went down to defeat at the hands of the non-conference Auburndale Bloodhounds. However, the Devils are expected to be back at full strength this Friday Night when they travel to Arcadia to play with the Devils High School.

The Bulldogs have had their trouble with the flu bug also and consequently have met only one conference foe. They beat the Fort Meade Miners (who lost to the Devils) in their complete record shows, besides Ft. Meade win a win over the Punta Gorda Tarpons of the Tamiami Conference and a loss to the tough Fort Myers Greys.

For the past few years, a comparatively weak team has about gotten to the point that they are ready to bid for the first place position. The Bulldogs under their new coach, have good team spirit and the fans that follow the team are of the opinion that the future looks bright for the Bulldogs.

The team itself is made up of a backfield that is exceptional. (Continued on Page 12)

2 Year Old Child Injured Saturday

Kenneth David Fuller, 2 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fuller, received only minor injuries when he darted into the path of a car on East Main Street Saturday morning.

The child ran from in front of Metcalfe's Hardware and between two parked cars into the path of a car being driven by Mrs. Herman E. Bareford. According to eye witnesses Mrs. Bareford was traveling approximately 8 to 10 miles per hour and immediately applied her brakes and the car barely hit the child.

Dr. Samuel King examined the child and he was sent to Walker Memorial Hospital for X-Rays and reported to have only minor injuries. Assistant Chief Blankford was the investigating officer.

Old Settlers Enjoys Reunion

Ninety-one members of the Old Settlers Club gathered for the 13th Annual Reunion on Wednesday, Oct. 16, in Donaldson Park. This was the largest number ever registered for a reunion of the Old Settlers Club.

A delicious covered dish dinner was enjoyed by all the members at 12:30 and pictures of the group were taken by Mrs. Gladys Rugh. Copies may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Rugh.

Many delightful memories of old Avon Park were exchanged by the longtime friends and residents.

Some old timers remembered the days when steak could be purchased for 15 cents a pound, milk for 4 cents a quart, eggs for 25 cents a dozen, at the only local store. Others who came in the early 1900's could still see the old streets and sidewalks paved with pine needles. During the day many interesting incidents of early Avon Park were remembered.

The meeting was opened at 1:30 in the Tourist Club House with the singing of "America".

The business meeting saw the election of the following officers to serve the Old Settlers for the coming year: Mayor E. DeLaney, President; Paul Jordan, First Vice President; Clifford Craft, Second Vice President; Mrs. Mary Reed, Secretary; Mrs. Florence Hilton, Assistant Secretary; and Mrs. Cora Wray, Treasurer. Mrs. Wray reported receiving letters of regret from the following members who were unable to attend the reunion: Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Farwell of Tampa, Mrs. Blum of Oakbeech, Mrs. L. D. Baker of Miami, Mrs. James Bowman of Ocala, Mrs. Frank Waddell of Puerto Rico, and Mrs. Anita Whitman of Avon Park. Mrs. Whitman was not well enough to attend.

A memorial Service was held for those members and friends who had passed on during the year. The Secretary read a list of the 34 names and a moment of silent prayer was held closing with an appropriate prayer by the Rev. Walter Hilton.

There were 19 out of town visitors, Myrtle Hart of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. Lynn Boatwright of Orlando, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Smith of Orlando, Mrs. Cecil Durran of Wauchula, Mr. and Mrs. George Gould of Brooksville, Mrs. Thomas Chasane and son, Ricky, of Ft. Meade, The Rev. and Mrs. Ernest Wood of Deland, Mr. and Mrs. K. Baker (Continued on Page 12)

Prepare For Asian Flu

All too often epidemics have struck without warning in the United States, finding us unprepared. The same cannot be said of Asian flu. We know that this highly infectious disease is imminent and is expected to become critical this winter. The Red Cross tells us there are certain things we can do to be ready for it.

Asian flu is a much less lethal type of respiratory ailment than the Spanish influenza which swept the country in the closing months of World War I and claimed an estimated 625,000 lives. But the time to prepare for it is growing short.

Red Cross has already set in motion its contributions to an effective nationwide community preparedness plan. The national organization has asked those Red Cross chapters that include the 14-hour Care of the Sick and Injured course in their chapter program to increase the number of classes available, to incorporate special information concerning the care of Asian flu victims in the home, and to recommend to community residents that at least one member of each household take the training course. All Red Cross chapters have been supplied with fact sheets containing pertinent information about the Asian flu. Women already trained as volunteer Red Cross nurse's aides are being alerted, and other women urged to enroll in the 40-hour nurse's aide training course qualifying them to assist professional nurses in hospitals and clinics during outbreaks of the disease. There will be need also for many other trained Red Cross volunteers to transport patients to and from hospitals and clinics, to assist in preparing and serving meals, etc.

Onset of Asian flu is rapid, with fever up to 103 or 104 degrees. But there is no reason for panic. The need is for preparedness.

Don't wait until the fever strikes.

IN HARMONY

The house lights dimmed, the director raised his baton, and the music of Brahms flooded the auditorium. Suddenly I was lifted into a world of sheer beauty and harmony. When the last notes of the symphony died away spontaneous applause greeted the director and the musicians.

What a thrill it would be to play in a great orchestra, I thought. Each instrument must be perfectly in tune, but until they play together there can never be the harmony or the volume of a symphony.

That's the way it is with life. We may strive to find joy and beauty alone. But only when we tune our lives with our Creator do we discover the abundant life.

Then united with fellow Christians in the Church, with Jesus Christ the Leader, we discover beauty and harmony, not only in this life but for all eternity.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Winter Guest Club News

Now that our president has returned things are really humming. He has organized a crew and the work of conditioning the courts is well under way. Any of you men who like to play shuffleboard and would like to help in this task will find your services much appreciated. Saturday was an ideal night for play and many took advantage of the opportunity. The evening's tournament was won by Laura Pickell and Duke Christensen, runners-up were L. Hayes and John Richmond.

Friday was a grand night for dancing; a most enthusiastic crowd was on hand to enjoy the fun. For the most popular numbers four sets were in action; that's a record for this early in the season.

If you haven't been in the clubhouse recently, you're in for a pleasant surprise; a complete painting job has just been finished. Our capable custodians, Mr. and Mrs. Ford have replaced the furnishings, making a few changes which, to our way of thinking, are improvements. Noteworthy among these improvements are the lights at the east end of the hall, the location of the bulletin board at eye-level, and the firm anchoring of the fan.

You who missed the "bang" on Sunday afternoon are the losers. Some fifty happy folk were on hand for this first sing and Mr. Shiltz had a fine, interesting, and inspiring program planned.

The Saturday evening covered-dish dinners have resumed, now that the weather has cooled off a bit; so get busy, you good cooks, and let's sample each other's specialties, as well as enjoying the fun and fellowship of meeting to gether.

Our Social Director, Mrs. Book, announces there will be a Halloween party on Thursday, Oct. 31, at 7:30. Find your

Boy Drivers Just Don't Make Grade

The facts are in, boys and you just don't make the grade. You, as a group between the ages of 16 and 25, think you're the world's best drivers; but the lowdown is that you're the country's worst. The facts are in, and your insurance rate has gone up anywhere from 20 to 50 per cent.

Think it over, lads—and date. The insurance people are no dopes. They don't care whether you're handsome and have the females in a dither; they don't care if you can name every part of every motor ever built or that you can rebuild one with your own hands. All they care about is poor performance on the road. Frankly, sons, your performance stinks. You as a group are a menace to society—and to yourselves. Who says so? Not us. The insurance companies say so and they know. They don't know your name and address. They don't know if you own a Ferrari or a Ford. All they care about are facts, and the facts are you have the worst road record of any group in the country—and getting worse!

And getting worse! Think that over, fathers and mothers. Proof? Car insurance costs.

Card Of Thanks

The family of Henry Burford wishes to extend thanks to all friends for their many words of sympathy, and the flowers sent, on death and burial of my wife Mrs. Theresa Burford, who recently passed away and was buried here in Avon Park, on Monday, October 14, 1957.

Our Gal Sal Removes Spots

Once the youngsters have been marched off to school, you start your traditional Fall march on grime. It's everything out of closets and dressers for a wall-to-wall and drawer-to-drawer cleaning. Down come Summer dresses and up go Winter models. Off come Summer slipcovers and on go their Winter counterparts. To do a thorough job in your clean-sweep campaign you need the proper tools, and you'll find that one of your most versatile and economical aids is sal soda concentrated. It gets rid of mildew and musty mildew odors in closets, deodorizes and cleans drawers, removes greasy film from kitchen cabinets and makes hard water soft and shine water in your tub or washing machine clean better, faster. Use it in solution... two to three tablespoons of the tiny, easy-pouring crystals per quart of water for routine grime and grease; two tablespoons per washing machine load for the laundry. Apply it dry as a scourer with a moist sponge or brush for banishing sticky spills.

Dodge Offers Five Station Wagons

Reflecting an unprecedented and still increasing demand for the station wagon as a family car, Dodge will offer five separate station wagon models for 1958. The four-door Sierra, shown here, will be offered in standard and custom models, while the two-door Suburban will be offered in the standard line. Also available are two models of the Sierra Specator with its rear-facing third seat.

the kids around you who don't know any better. And don't think your girl is impressed by your hotshot antics the next time you take her out. She, and most of your buddies have you tabbed for just what you are, a chump. They're just too polite or too scared, or disgusted to tell you.

Nobody else will tell you, so we're telling you. We'll take it back when the insurance rates go back down.

So you as a group are experts, eh? Your suckers are your own build up. That wouldn't matter so much if only you took the rap. It isn't on by you who gets killed or hurt, it's the girl with you, it's the guy down the street, or the lady in the next county who trusted you to act like a man or even like a boy who still knows he's a boy and doesn't pretend any different. Sure you never meant that accident, and won't mean the one you're going to have—and of course it never is your fault. You have a heart of gold and are kind to your mother—you go out on the highway and act like a damn fool. A real fool!

That's the truth and the insurance figures bear it out. Maybe fifty extra bucks this year will give you pause. Of course you may be the exception that proves the rule. Certainly everyone of you isn't that bad—but as a group you are, and what are you going to do about it? Are you going to be one of the gang that pays homage to the hotrod artist who ought to be in jail and will be soon, or do you want to go along for the ride so as not to appear chicken and let some bragging twerp at the wheel gamble with your future. Are you going to encourage these "buddies" of yours to keep on boosting your own cost of driving a car? What's the percentage in acting like that? You wouldn't let this guy hit you over the head with a hammer; why let him drive you into a post? You wouldn't let him steal fifty bucks out of your pocket—yet he's already done that this year.

Rates For Girls Down And you, the worst offenders—you spoiled brats thinking you can handle 120 horse power when you can't handle one boy power, what are you going to do about it? Brothers, get the lowdown—the girls in your age group have it all over you. Not only in looks, but in intelligence, in self-control, in fair play, and in their ability to handle those 120 horsepower you can't handle.

That's not our opinion; it's the considered opinion of the insurance companies. The rates for girls in your age group have gone down, not up. They are getting to be better drivers, not worse. How does that make you feel? For all your boasting and all your showing off, and your douting of the rules of the road, and all your wreckless bravado, and all your skill (Oh, yes, we know you are skillful) you just haven't got what it takes—and that is judgment.

You haven't learned yet that the champs aren't champs. And if you don't believe the insurance companies about what lousy drivers you are, ask a champ someday—if you can face it. Don't fool yourself about the cheap adulation of

THE WREN—

By The Bird Woman

This week as we went on if you wish to get close enough to a bird to study its markings, you should not chase after it for that will frighten it and drive it further away, but get seated comfortably in a partially secluded place and the chances are that before long it will come close enough for you to see its field marks.

Birds are curious about what is going on in their world, some much more so than others, and if something is going on a little out of the ordinary they will soon investigate. This wren can hear and nearer and finally perched on a palm not far from where I sat, and I immediately recognized it as our own native Florida wren.

We have written before about the wren family but the subject is inexhaustible, as their food consists mostly of insects.

There is an interesting old fable that is quite interesting if not true, it seems that the birds all got together in the very dawn of time and decided that they would choose one of their number to be ruler and it was decided that the bird with the strongest pinions, the one that could fly the highest would be chosen King.

The birds all had their chance and as might be expected the Eagle outdistanced them all in height, but as they were preparing to proclaim the Eagle King a musical sound was heard and off of the eagle's back flew a wren, which having gained this height without any exertion quickly mounted above the tired eagle and was proclaimed King of Birds, so while we humans consider the eagle to be King, the birds themselves according to legend still acknowledge the wren.

When Europeans first came to this country they found many unfamiliar birds, but one that seemed to resemble one of their own they called "jenny wren", and every one knows it even today by that name.

The Cherokee Indians were not so friendly with our little friends, they considered them busybodies who snooped and scolded and picked up all the gossip in the neighborhood and carried it to the bird council.

They also presumed that it carried the news of a birth in the tribe and if the child were a girl the birds would all look happy for they knew they would get crumbs from her food grinder, but if the child were a boy they would all look sad for they knew that he would grow up to be a hunter and kill many of their number.

Here again is another species of birds that are remarkable for their different habits in which they were placed and the peculiarities of bill and feet procure the food for them. There, one group the marsh wren were placed in the marshy growth and grass sedges, from Canada through North America to the highlands of the Andes in S. America, Central America and Mexico are especially blessed with this species as they have so much dense vegetation for their feeding and nesting.

Another species enjoys rocky exposures and cliffs and seems to prefer stony ground and nests and finds food in the crevices of the rocks, these are called the Canyon wrens.

Then we have the Cactus wren which inhabits arid regions and finds their food among the thorny cacti that abound in that location. So we see that nothing was left in chance when the wonderful Creator was placing things on our planet for our use and enjoyment.

Wrens are listed high among song birds and although they do not have the fluid notes of the Mockers, Thrashers or Cardinals yet in their own peculiar way they are good singers.

Travelers are often surprised to hear sweet music coming from some desolate or arid vicinity where the sound of a bird is least expected.

The Marsh wren has a chattering song, bubbling would be the word to describe the song of the house wren, while the Carolina wren has a clear ringing song, the least pleasant of all is the musical staccato notes of the rock wren but it is none the less welcome to the weary traveler anxious for some sound to break the stillness of the rocky canyon.

Although wrens are small they are good insect eaters and with their tiny bills can reach insects in cracks and crevices that the larger birds can not reach ants, grubs, spiders also larvae and eggs constitute their diet.
