By GEN HURD

By attending the musical variety extravaganza to be presented November 21 at the Avon Park Prison visiting pavilion, you will not only be helping two worthy causes, the Youth Center Development Association and the Sheriff's Boys Ranch, but also the inmates who are working so hard to repay a debt to society by assisting youth programs.

The inmates feel keenly the need in any community for youth projects and since several have worked in show business they feel sure the production will be outstanding entertainment-wise.

Mr. Gene Gorman will produce and direct the twenty-two act spectacular which will include talent from the high school student body as well as the band.

Tickets are now on sale. Your dollar will buy not only fine entertainment for you, but a large bank of "good for the community" stamps.

See Mary Durden, or this reporter for tickets.

The initial theatrical offering by the newly organized Ridge Theatre Guild will be a comedy called "My Three Angels." As parts of the play were read by various members of the organization at the Monday night meeting, the reader was accompanied by many diversified expressions of mirth, such as giggles, titters, snickers and chuckles and at one point an all-out belly laugh.

This comedy which has a Christmas theme will be presented on December 18, 19 and 20th.

There are several members of the Guild who have had quite a bit of theatrical experience in the field of lighting, setting, acting and directing. No doubt as productions get under way and interest becomes more prevalent there will be much talent to choose from.

With a tireless worker like Clayton Fields who "loves the theatre" directing, even amateurs should respond, with the result being a good show.

Clayton, who has had a lot of stock experience, says it was nothing to rehearse all night long on a new show with only a few hours of sleep. Evidently Clayton suffers from insomnia anyway. I can picture one bleary-eyed cowl worn with only two hours of sleep stage during these dramatic works. "To see or not to see, that is the question."

This Week Is Natl. Retarded Children's Week

The week of November 16-22 has been set aside nationally as Retarded Children's Week. Why is there such an observance and how important is the question of mental retardation? In the U. S. today there are over five million children and adults classified as mentally retarded. It is estimated that a mentally retarded baby is born every five minutes. In every 100,000 children born, on the average, 300 are blind, 300 crippled by polio, 350 afflicted by cerebral palsy, 100 by rheumatic heart - but 3,000 are mentally retarded. The problem is staggering.

What then is mental retardation if it is so important? It is a condition of impaired or incomplete mental development. The degree of retardation may vary from the child who is slightly below normal to the child who is severely retarded to a child who may have complete lack of mental ability.

New Meters To Revise Local Parking System

Work was begun early Monday morning on the new and modern parking system for the Avon Park Bright yellow lines were painted on the streets marking off parking spaces and narrowing roads.

The installation of the new parking meters will completely revise the local parking system. There will be one post for each two of the automatic meter heads, except on the corners where there will be a single unit.

There will be a maneuvering zone, making parking easier for the motorist between each double unit. Work on the parking system and the new meters will be done by the Dual Parking Meter Company.

The new meters should be in operation some time next week, and they are being installed without the City having to put a cent. As soon as they are in operation the City will receive sixty per cent of the revenue, and the balance, forty per cent, will go toward the maintenance of the meters. As soon as this amount is paid the City will get the complete revenue.

The old meters which are being taken away will be beyond repair. Many of them were repaired and within twenty-four hours they would become inoperative. It would be impossible to operate them. This is just another improvement which is being made in our City.

Tallahassee — Will the minimum foundation program for public schools bankrupt the state?

There are those who think it might. The minimum foundation program was passed in 1947 to provide a minimum education for every student in Florida. It has been hailed as one of the finest programs in the U.S. — justifiably so — but there are indications that tax sources are not keeping pace with the cost of the program.

As most folks know, the bread and butter tax of state government is the sales tax — as the sales tax goes so goes the state financial picture. Last year, of course, the sales tax went haywire, and state government found itself in trouble.

The factors that seem to indicate the minimum foundation program is outstripping the revenue sources are:

- Restonite Bedding
- Bradley Lamps
- Mohawk Carpet

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By Russell Kay

London is a busy, bustling city today and most of the destruction which occurred during the war is no longer in evidence. Buildings have been restored or replaced by new modern structures. The economic situation is steadily improving.

When we recall the dark days of the war and remember the terrific bombing those Britishers took in their stride we must admire them as a people for their faith, courage and bulldog tenacity.

It was thrilling for us, visitors for the first time such historic spots as Westminster Abbey, the Tower of London, the Parliament Building, Buckingham Palace, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, St. Paul's Cathedral and many others.

Our editorial group was warmly received by outstanding leaders. A highlight of our visit was a yacht trip down the Thames as guests of the Port of London Authority which gave us an opportunity to see this tremendous and active port.

The Port of London comprises the 69 miles of the River Thames from the Estuary to Teddington and has five great dock systems which have been built up over the past 150 years.

The United Kingdom is one of the most highly industrialized countries in the world. For every person employed in agriculture, nine are employed in the mining, manufacturing and building industries.

During our visit we were entertained at a reception given by the British press group. It was an interesting exchange of ideas with these alert newspapermen. One question that troubles them and on which they sought first hand information was segregation. They simply cannot understand how a nation that boasts of freedom and equal opportunity for all can harbor intolerance as exemplified by Little Rock.

Upon learning that I was from Florida they expressed keen interest in the rocket and missile program being carried on at Cape Canaveral, Britain learned about rockets the hard way when thousands of them came flying across the channel during World War II.

Britain is putting great emphasis on the space program. The development of nuclear power because of the growing burden on its balance of payments imposed by the additional imports of coal and oil.

Plans for the construction of 19 nuclear power stations are under way and by 1963 these plants are expected to produce electricity sufficient to save 18 million tons of coal or alternatively 10 million tons of imported oil.

Proud of his heritage, the average Briton enjoys the pomp and ceremony that attends such events as the Changing of the Guard, the Installation of the Lord Mayor, the Sixteenth Century uniforms of the Yeomen of the Guard.

Interesting side trips took us to Oxford and Stratford-on-Avon. Traveling by motor coach we had an opportunity to see the countryside which was beautiful. Our stay here as in the other countries we visited was all too short but was thoroughly enjoyed.

Plants indoors need only about a third as much water and plant food as when grown outdoors, says The Progressive Farmer.

Red Devils Battle Blue Streaks In Homecoming Tilt Nov. 26 at 8:30

By John Gambrell
The Avon Park Red Devils will play the Sebring Blue Streaks at their homecoming and final game of the season Wednesday Nov. 26 at 8:30 at Memorial Field here in Avon Park. The starting line-up has been set at 8:30 in order to avoid conflict with mid-week prayer service.

The Red Devils will go into the battle with a season record of six wins, two losses and one tie, while the Blue Streaks will go into the game undefeated and looking for their tenth win of their season.

Sebring will be favored to win because of their record, however, in this Annual Thanksgiving eve game records are thrown away. Fans, players and coaches have looked forward for this big game for nine long weeks. Spirit will run high and the team will pop up in its worst past.

The Red Devils have an edge in these past encounters in winning 13 while the Blue Streaks have won 6. Both teams will be out to add another page to the records in their favor.

Avon Park Lose To Bartow 21-7

By John Gambrell
Last Friday night the Avon Park Red Devils were beaten by the Bartow Yellow Jackets 21-7 in a game played in Bartow.

There were no serious threats in the first quarter but early in the second quarter Buddy Price jumped on a Yellow Jacket fumble on the opponents 32 yard line. With a first down on the 32 yard line, Bartow went around his own right end for 13 yards and put the ball on the 5 yard line and a first down. From the 5 yard line Bartow punched across for the score. Doublerly also kicked the extra point and the Red Devils went ahead 7-0.

The 7 point lead was quickly cut to a 1 point lead. On the first play from scrimmage after the Yellow Jacket's David Hiers riced 73 yards for a Yellow Jacket score. Bartow tried to kick the extra point but it went wide. Score - Red Devils 7, Yellow Jacket 7.

As the horn sounded to end the first half Warren Alwood intercepted a Bartow pass on the Yellow Jacket 33 yard line but had no time to advance the ball any farther.

Dalton McCullough kicked into the end zone to open the second half and the Yellow Jackets took over on their own 20 yard line and from there drove 50 yards for a score. David Hiers scoring his second touchdown of the night carried over from the 3 yard line. The extra point was good and Bartow went ahead 13-7.

Lain in the third period the Yellow Jackets threatened for their score of the night but the Red Devils came through with a timely tackle which stopped the Bartow team 1 yard short of the goal line.

After stopping the Yellow Jackets, the Red Devils took over on the 1 yard line and in the first play were tackled in the end zone for two points. Score - Bartow 21, Avon Park 7.

The ball was brought out to the 20 yard line where McCullough kicked. Bartow returned the kick to their own 43 yard line then drove the remaining distance for a touchdown. Don Alexander pushed over for the score. Score - Bartow 21, Avon Park 7.

With only 35 seconds left in the game Danny Vaughan converted a Bartow fumble in Red Devil territory. The game ended on a pass from Butler to Fielder that put the ball deep in Yellow Jacket land but time was no more and Bartow had won 21-7.

Girl Scout News

Troop 1 of the Girl Scouts enjoyed a tour of the Mall and a discussion of its flowers, trees and shrubs on Thursday, Nov. 12. Mr. Siket took the girls and their leaders and showed them many new things. Back at the Scout Hall in King Court the girls were entertained with a skit by JoAnn Kelly's patrol. The girls then adjourned. The Scouts of Troop 1 will meet on Tuesday, Nov. 25 next week instead of Thursday, because of the Thanksgiving holidays.

Troop 3 of the Girl Scouts were shown Bird Feeders of several types by their leader of Troop 3, Mrs. Jim Kunkle. The girls decided to make some bird feeders to be given to shut-ins - old friends - enjoy watching birds. They also made plans for a trip through the Mall at their next meeting. Then the girls were surprised

Public Clinics To Be Held By CDA Dec. 1, 2, 3

What progress or changes would you like to see in Avon Park? Are you completely satisfied with conditions as they are? You will have an opportunity to express yourself at a series of public clinics held in the Community Development Association, December 1, 2, and 3.

These clinics, sponsored by the Avon Park Community Development Association, will be conducted by members of the Community Development Department of the Florida Power Corporation.

If you are interested in the present or future of Avon Park, attend one of the meetings and let your ideas be known. Cards will be distributed on which you will be asked to list any and all of your ideas concerning the town's needs. You may be as candid as you like because the anonymity of the cards will remain anonymous.

After the cards are collected and analyzed by an outside agency, the results in the form of a written report are made public. From the analysis, a plan for improvement will be made.

"As in an election, opinions and suggestions of a large segment of the community are needed if valid conclusions are to be drawn as to what the people want," said Morris Adams, Chairman of C.D.A. "If any citizen feels that conditions exist that should be corrected, or improved, it is his civic duty to make his ideas known." Adams continued.

A similar set of clinics were held here five years ago. But since then many improvements, suggested by those taking part, have been completed. The Community Development Association feels that the time is now ripe for another assessment of our community with new goals in improvement and progress.

You can help. Your views are needed. Attend a clinic.

Pity the poor man who strives away while he's here to make enough money for his family can loaf and be no account when he's gone.

School Safety Patrols Should Not Direct Automobile Traffic

Tampa—School safety patrol boys and girls in too many Florida communities are being permitted to direct traffic at school crossings, Marvin L. Brown, Pennsylvania State School Manager, said, in pointing out that this practice is unsafe and the responsibility too heavy for the youngsters.

He declared it is dangerous for patrol members to stand in the street at any time, and the national standard is for them to remain on the curb holding back a group of children until traffic is clear and it is safe for them to cross.

"The intent of the school safety patrol is not to allow boys and girls to stand on the assigned posts to direct, halt or control the flow of traffic around the school," he said. "To control the movement of smaller children and not to stand on the street and act as a barrier to traffic."

A number of communities use a yellow safety flag fastened to the end of a cane, holding it as a reminder to motorists that they are driving within a school crossing. Brown said that if they are driving within a school crossing, they should use the yellow safety flag, should, however, remain standing on the curb and never step out into the driving lane adjacent to the school crossing.

Standard rules and regulations for operation of school safety patrols were adopted some 25 years ago by a committee representing the American Association of School Principals, the National Association of Chiefs of Police, National Citizens for the Safety Education of the Nation.

Avon Elem. PTA To Sell Candy

Over a hundred parents, teachers, and friends were present to enjoy the meeting of the Avon Elementary PTA on Thursday night, Nov. 12.

Mrs. Ames Bruch of Lake Placid, program chairman of the Lake Placid PTA and a former member of the Hardee County PTA, County Council, spoke to the group on the State Parent-Teacher Association and also gave a little history of the whole PTA movement. Then she also told of her experiences on the County Council and suggested some projects of value to the schools which could be carried out through such a council. Her information was timely and of interest to the members of the group.

Mrs. J. C. Murphy's third grade room won the attendance banner with the most parents and friends present but several other rooms gave a close race.

The group voted to sell cans of delicious candy for one dollar a piece. This money will be used for the projects of the group.

After the meeting and program the room mothers of the fourth grade served the members delicious pumpkin pie and coffee.

The next meeting of the Avon Elementary PTA will be a Christmas party on the regular meeting night. Make plans now to attend this special Christmas affair.

AG HEARINGS SET—A series of seven meetings have been scheduled in all parts of the state to present recommendations of the Agriculture.

Although the committee's initial report was met with a blast from Agriculture Commissioner Nathan Mayo there seem to be indications that the problems are being worked out.

The report would be far reaching, changing many of the functions of the Department to other agencies and adding functions that could be more properly handled under the Agriculture Department.

The hearings are scheduled as follows:

Jan. 20, 9 a. m., Capitol, Tallahassee.
Jan. 22, 9 a. m., Courthouse Annex, Pensacola.

Jan. 23, 9 a. m., Courthouse, Jacksonville.
Jan. 26, 9 a. m., Columbus Hotel, Miami.

Jan. 27, 9 a. m., Mounts Bldg., West Palm Beach.
Jan. 28, 9 a. m., Florida Fruit and Vegetable Assn., headquarters, Orlando.

Traffic Safety Up To Motorist And Pedestrian

Tallahassee—Traffic safety is responsibility of the pedestrian as much as it is of the motorist, declared the Florida Highway Patrol today.

Traffic crashes claimed almost 1100 lives in Florida last year and about one out of every five was a pedestrian. The latest total showed 217 pedestrians out of 1087 highway deaths.

"People who walk are in a dangerous situation," declared Highway Patrol Comdr. H. N. Kirkman. "They can become the victims of mistake the same as a driver — and the pedestrian doesn't stand much of a chance against an automobile or a big truck."

The biggest and most deadly mistake made by walkers last year was crossing where there was no intersection nor a traffic signal. Patrol records show that this action caused the death of 100.

The next largest number killed was 29 who crossed at intersections where there were no signals and 10 who crossed where signals were located, but disregarded them.

So heed these parting words from Comdr. Kirkman: "If you walk at night, wear or carry something white and walk facing traffic. It seems like a little order but it will pay big dividends."

SALES TAX—The sales tax is rocking along just about as expected when the Budget Commission slashed funds to meet the tight financial picture back in October.

It means that folks who had hoped the financial picture would brighten enough to allow more money to be released on delayed projects will be disappointed.

The state will have to watch its pennies to stay even.

It also means there probably won't be any big cash carry-over to set off put out the finances during the next two years.

NEW TAXES—If any new taxes are put on the books in the 1957 session, the most likely to be tapped is a sales tax on package alcoholic beverages.

There already is a sales tax on "the premise" consumption, but no tax on beer and liquor taken home.

It would bring in about $14,000,000 in additional revenue in two-year budget making period.

DEMO CHIEF IN STATE—Jan. 28, 9 a. m., Florida Fruit and Vegetable Assn., headquarters, Orlando.

Jan. 29, 9 a. m., Courthouse, Tampa.

BUDGET MEETINGS—Florida officials will begin wrestling with the money problems for the next two years in mid-December.

Miami is one of the sites being considered.

St. Lucie and Okeechobee Counties have formed the second Regional Library in Florida. By working together Rockledge and Boca Raton will be able to provide a library service to all outlying areas, a community library will be set up in the town of Okeechobee, and service to the entire area will be improved.

An addition to the library building in Ft. Pierce has just been completed. The new building will total $36,284 of which $22,000 is local funds and $14,284 from Rural Development Grants.

Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto Counties are large enough for a Regional Library which should be located in Highlands County because of its central location. Avon Park is very centrally located and this library would be an asset for the community.

The services of a Regional Library are many and it is felt that interest from Avon Park will be of value in securing such a library. Let's all work for it.

Area Day School now has ten students enrolled from Highlands County. Two children are from Avon Park, one from DeSoto City and seven from Sebring. A child may be placed in the school following individual psychological examination and with the consent of the child's parents. "All students now at Ridge Area are not greatly retarded mentally. They are there for a variety of needs: a visual or severe hearing handicap; a brain injury; susceptibility to seizures (Medically controlled); a spastic condition; or personal-social-emotional disturbances."

Mrs. Delahanty has as her helper, Mrs. Shibley, who is a practical nurse. The class is small and each child receives much individual attention. The progress that has been made by some of these children is remarkable.

More exceptional children can be so helped by Ridge Area Association For Retarded and The Child Guidance Fund.

In a beautiful double ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock on Saturday, Nov. 29, in the Brook Road Methodist Church of Rockford, Ill., Miss Phyllis Iler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Iler, of Rockford, Ill., became the bride of F. T. J. James R. Alexander, son of Mrs. Ruby Alexander of Avon Park. The Rev. Clark J. Moun, officiated at the ceremony which was read before a flower-banked altar in the presence of one hundred guests.

Miss Iler was escorted to the altar by her uncle, Mr. Edgar Imel, of Champaign, Ill. The lovely bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory brocade tulle featuring a fitted bodice. The neckline was outlined with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil fell from a pill box headpiece of matching beaded lace. She wore a white gold necklace with cultured pearls and earrings to match, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bridal shower of Italian rose.

Attending Miss Iler as bridesmaid was Mrs. Kenneth Frenkel, a close friend of the bride. She wore a raspberry crepe-de-chine gown over tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Kenneth Frenkel served as best man for the bridegroom. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Dale Rydholm of Monroe Center, Ill., played nuptial music at the organ. Mr. Helmer Moe of Waynesville, Mo., officiated at the ceremony.

James Alexander attended school in Avon Park and was graduated from Collins High School in Collins, Ga. in 1952. He enlisted in the U. S. Navy and served on the USS Los Angeles during the Korean War. From August 1957 until June 1958 he attended Electronics at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Fla. He is now employed at the Naval Air Station in Jacksonville, Fla.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Iler selected a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories. Mrs. Alexander, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in beige and brown brocade silk and wore brown accessories. Both mothers had corsages of golden chrysanthemums.

A reception was held in the Educational Building of the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Elmer Latzow of Monroe Center and Mrs. Donald Gach of Rockford poured. Mrs. Ernest Wedg served the fourth tiered heart shaped wedding cake to the guests. Miss Betty Newton of Milwaukee, Wis. was in charge of the guest book.

After the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip in the south. For her going away costume, Mrs. Alexander chose a two piece gray wool suit with black accessories.

Mrs. Alexander is a 1953 graduate of East High School in Rockford and was graduated from Rockford Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in 1956. Prior to her wedding she was employed at the Mt. Sinai Hospital in Milwaukee, Wis.

Steps To Take If Bitten By An Animal

What should you do in case of an animal bite? First you should contact your family doctor. He will advise you to notify your local health department. Give them all the information you can about the animal such as who the owner is, it is a pet or stray animal, can be trusted or not.

Rabies or hydrophobia is a virus disease found in warm blooded animals, including cats, dogs and foxes.

There are three types found in dogs. The furious rabies, the dumb rabies and the mixed type. The furious rabies is the most common. It causes the animal to become violent and attack everything it comes in contact with.

There is practically no curable rabies. In the later stages the pupils dilate, the eyes close, the dog will develop a staggering gait, then paralysis and death. The dumb rabies is characterized by depression and sleepiness. The mixed type is the same as in furious rabies, but the animal is not so violent.

Children HAVE GIFTS

Children in the elementary school who need extra help or further creative experience may be referred by the class teacher to the Comprehensive Exceptional Child Program. When they are referred by the psychologist and approved by the principal, they will be assigned to a special class. These classes are held several periods a week. While students are in these special classes other receive more individualized attention from the regular class teacher whose classes are thereby smaller for the period.

Linen Shower Monday Honors Miss Nader

Miss Janet Stinson was the hostess at a Linen Shower on Monday night for bride-elect, Miss Mary Ann Nader.

Arrangements of assorted flowers decorated the Stinson home and large wedding bells were used as a focal point over the mantle. Miss Nader's gifts were arranged under the wedding bells. She received lovely gifts for her new home.

The guests took part in several wedding games during the evening. Each guest was given a sack containing some household items and guesses were made as to the contents. Mrs. Daisy Nader won this clever game. Then the guests each drew a check of the bridegroom-elect with Mrs. Juddie Prevatt winning a prize for her very good likeness.

Dainty cookies and Cokes were served the guests on beautiful wedding plates. Enjoying the party with Miss Nader were Mrs. Daisy Nader, Miss Gloria Weston, Mrs. Pat Shepherd, Miss Betty Lou Baughn, Mrs. C. A. Stinson, and Mrs. Juddie Prevatt.

Miss Nader's wedding to Ronald Wilson will take place on December 30. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Daisy Nader.

Leigh Chapter Of OES Plans Several Events

The next meeting of Leigh Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will be on Tuesday, Dec. 2, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. Officers for the coming year are to be elected at the meeting and all members are asked to make their reservations to attend this important meeting.

The members of Leigh Chapter and winter guests are reminded that there will be a Memorial Service on Sunday, Nov. 30, at 2 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Freda McEwen, Worshipful Grand Matron, of Orlando, will make her official visit to the chapter on Friday, Dec. 5, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple. There will be a Buffet Supper in Mrs. McEwen's honor before the meeting in the Jacaranda Hotel at 8 o'clock. Members are asked to make their reservations early by calling Mrs. David Shuckey, Mrs. Carl McWilliams or Mrs. Grady Tomlinson, Wednesday, Dec. 3, at the reservation deadline. This will be a very important meeting since it is the Official Visit of the Grand Matron.

A large number of the members of Leigh Chapter attended the Tuesday night, Nov. 18, meeting where Mrs. Patricia Wilson of Frostproof, Grand Mistress of District 15, and Mrs. Florence Heath, of Waukegan, Grand Representative to Alberta, Canada, were the honored guests. The courtesy honoring the grand officials was very impressive.

The members and guests enjoyed a social hour with lovely refreshments served in the dining room after the meeting.

Avon Park Lakes News

The regular monthly meeting of the Avon Park Lakes Property Owners Association took the form of a turkey dinner this past Thursday evening, attended by 56 members. The dinner committee consisted of Mrs. O. A. Lee, Mrs. A. M. Lee, Mrs. J. J. Lynch, Mrs. R. W. Muddick and Mrs. C. G. Coburn.

Both the supply and the demand were fairly well balanced except in respect to the home made pies. Of these there were four pumpkin and mince which remained to be auctioned to increase the women's auxiliary treasury. Each one present was assigned a number, both to designate his or her place at the table and to serve in drawing door prizes. These latter were won by Mr. M. E. Sattler, Mr. Lee A. Westworth, Mrs. Stephen Steward and Mr. Paul Parker.

A short business meeting followed the dinner in which a report of progress in the improvement of the Lakes area was given.

The past week has seen a great improvement in the beach and park area at Lake Olivia. The beach to the south of the clubhouse has been sloped to make a gradual descent for the bathers, and the park area has been leveled and will be seeded soon. On the west shore another beach will be leveled and the convenience of families living on that side. It is also planned to beautify the entire shoreline by cleaning and trimming. Consideration will be given to further treatment of Lakes Chilton and Adelaide.

The Women's Auxiliary plan weekly meetings each Thursday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. for cards and entertainment. The only exception will be the third Thursday of each month which is reserved for the association's monthly meeting.

Seventeen women from here attended the garden party held at the home of Mrs. S. O. Norris at 17 East Church Street Monday afternoon, November 17th. The affair was sponsored by Group 3 of the Avon Park Woman's Club. Several of the Lakes women are members.

Mrs. and Mrs. Osgood A. Lee entertained Mrs. Enory D. Lee of Savannah, Ga., Mr. Lee's brother, and Mrs. Virginia Macovey of Daytona Beach Sunday, November 16th.

Mr. J. H. Johnson, owner of the Woodlawn Motel at Myrtle Beach, spent the weekend of November 15th and 16th with Mr. and Mrs. Lee A. Westworth on Nauticus Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tills of Leaville, Ohio spent November 18th and 20th with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Kirkpatrick. Mr. Tills, a former associate of Mr. Kirkpatrick, is foreman with the National Sheet and Tube Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Roles moved into their new home on Nauticus Drive November 21st. Mr. Roles comes from Hughesville, Pa. where he was a baker before retirement.

By THE REV. PETER F. WATTERSON

"But He answered and said: It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

The Lord and Master who used these words is the same who taught us to pray, saying, "Give us this day our daily bread." He is the same who, when a multitude followed Him into the wilderness, and had nothing to eat, provided for them, lest they should faint by the way. The solemn words of our text were spoken by the Son of man, who Himself came "eating and drinking." We can be quite sure, therefore, that there is no surer, impossible asceticism here. These are the words of One who knows our needs, because He has shared them fully. It was never Christ's way to speak scornfully of the normal, innocent necessities of life. He knew we need bread, and not live without it, and it is in His Name that we give God thanks tomorrow for the beautiful provision of Heaven.

Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. What did the Master mean by that?

Plainly, He meant at least this—that a man may surround himself with every material comfort, and yet not be really living, may have a prosperous business, good health, and not care or worry in the world, and yet not live. Christ's sense of the word "live" is not to be broad alone, but man truly lives, and these things are just bread, necessary, but not of themselves able to satisfy or support the highest kind of living.

If some such man were to protest that he feels particularly alive, and enjoying life to the full, we can imagine that Jesus, looking on him as He did on the rich young ruler, and loving him too, perhaps, would say, "But, alas, that is not life, for a man, to that there could be no answer. For if Christ does not know what true life is, as in one case, He speaks with authority, and to that word of His the words of us, in our best moments are compelled to say Amen.

Let us hear the words of Christ and heed them! His words are many. He has not said any one or people without some warning of Himself. Every noble thought or writing that any son of man has ever passed on to his fellows, has a syllable of His. The beauty of the world is one of His Words, and the beauty of a human character another. He speaks to us in the deeds that thrill us, in the sense that haunt us, in the books that help us, in the love that bears with us, and by its charity covers our sins.

These are all words of His, and it is by such things that men live. There are many of them, great and small, profound and simple, and the wise man keeps his ears open and his eyes open as he goes through the world. There is no reaching the full stature of manhood except it be by Him. He is God's last word said, through whom He makes Himself known. And the simple truth is that "Without Him we cannot live."

And without Him we do not die.

For God has other words for other worlds. But for this world, the Word of God is Christ.

It is not that a man cannot actually live without Christ, for a flower may live in a cell, and "plants in pots," that never see the sun—after a fashion. And after that fashion, men can and do live. But no such man can live fully and truly as he is meant to live, and leave that out. There is no reaching the full stature of manhood except it be by Him. He is God's last word said, through whom He makes Himself known. And the simple truth is that "Without Him we cannot live."

And without Him we do not die.

Rotary At Bermondsey, Eng.

By WALTER BETTS

During my recent trip I had the privilege of attending four Rotary Club meetings in foreign countries, namely England, Holland, Italy and France. These courses are "Foreign Countries" from where I write this in Florida but I was the "Foreigner" when I was visiting them and I consider these visits among the high spots of my trip. We American Rotarians can take a leaf from the books of our "foreign" friends when it comes to Hospitality and Fellowship. They really roll out the red carpet for the visiting Rotarian and show him that Rotary has a real meaning to them.

My first visit was to a club in England. In our International Directory are listed many clubs under London. On the day I was able to attend the club at Bermondsey was the most convenient. A taxi deposited my wife and me at the listed address, the Bridge House Hotel, on the south side of the Thames at the end of London Bridge. At this point I would like to dispel two rumors or perhaps misconceptions which I have been hearing all of my life and which I know now to be untrue.

The first rumor is particularly life among the younger members of our society to the effect that London Bridge is Falling Down. This is positively true. London Bridge is strong and stout and you can confidently assure your Fair Lady that London Bridge is not falling down. The other is a general misconception in this country that the British are cold, unfriendly and inhospitable. A visit to the Bermondsey Rotary club would dispel this latter misconception. I have never received a more cordial and friendly reception on any of my Rotary visits in the U.S.A. than I did at this club. The visiting Rotarians were myself, a Rotarian from California and a Rotarian from Buenos Aires. We were welcomed by Mr. Adrian K. Kirk, a past president of the club and the chairman of the fellowship committee, who presented us to other members of the club, took us to a private bar maintained by the club where we were pleasantly regaled, found us seats at the table and saw to it that we were treated as guests of the club. During the meal he sat with us and was a most delightful host.

The program was interesting. It was a scientific dissertation by a speaker well versed in his field and would be about like our average program, but the things which interested me more than the program were the spirit of the club and the caliber and attitude of the members. It was in this club that I first got the impression which was later repeated in each of the clubs I visited in Holland, Italy and France, that one of our Avon Park Rotarians to be suddenly transported to one of these clubs without knowing where he was, he would have great difficulty in determining whether he was in Fort Worth, Texas, Kingston, N. Y., Nice, France or Bermondsey, England. We were it given the difference in language and pronunciation to give him a clue.

Truly these visits have impressed me that Rotary Rotarians are the same people all over the world with the same motives, the same principles and the same ideals which they are in Holland, Bombay or the U.S.A. What a pity it is that our perigrinating State Department doesn't recognize the existence of this ready-made international amity and try to use it.

After the meeting was over the hospitality of the club did not end. Mr. Kirk took his valuable time to show Mrs. Betts and myself through the South-west (Pronounced "Southwick") Cathedral which is located a few hundred feet from the Bridge House Restaurant. This is an interesting structure, very ancient, part of which dates four hundred or more years before the battle of Hastings in 1066. When we talk about things old in the United States we brag about, let us say, Plymouth Rock about 230 years old but when these fellows in Europe mean old they start at about 700 years and go from there back. This little tour was extremely interesting but I mentally tried to extend to illustrate the warmth of welcome accorded me by this club and their effort to extend to us the British hospitality. As a matter of fact I received friendly and courteous treatment throughout England in all my contacts with the British people whether they were Rotarians, waiters, clerics, policemen or just people from whom I asked information on the street. The only borderline treatment I received was from the waiters in the Park Lane Hotel where we stayed, who seemed to begrudge serving us because we were not English at all but were all Italian. Perhaps they were all impetuous Italian nobles who had difficulty in debasing themselves to the low American level.

It is always profitable for Rotary Clubs to learn about the activities of other Rotary Clubs so next week I shall report some of the projects of the Bermondsey Rotary Club.

The Coca Cola Plant of Avon Park gave the Brownies of Troop 4 an afternoon to remember on Monday, Nov. 17, when Mr. Edwards took the girls through the plant. They saw the complete operation and were thoroughly interested in the story of how Coca Cola is made. At the end of the tour they were treated to a Coke and given darling little pencil and pad sets, and rolling pins. Mrs. Jack Hutchinson and Mrs. Clara Mac Bennett enjoyed the visit with the girls.

The residents of Hillcrest Home enjoyed a visit from twenty-seven Brownies of Troop 5 on Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 18. The girls took them gifts of the nut cups they made the week before, filled with mint and candies. Then they sang songs and visited with the guests there. Mrs. Ruth Polk, Mrs. Ben Stewart, Mrs. Edna Dixon, Mrs. Ollie Gentry and Mrs. Marsh Lomax went.

Promotional efforts this year are concentrated in several sales markets, including Miami, Tampa, Jacksonville, Philadelphia, Chicago, Washington, D. C., Fort Worth, Cleveland,

Scout Exploring Program Set For November Start

President Eisenhower has high hopes for the new Exploring program being launched this month (November) by the Gulf Ridge Council, Boy Scouts of America.

A message to Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive, President Eisenhower says he hopes Exploring "will strengthen the fitness and careers of our young citizens." Dr. Schuck sent a copy of the message to James E. Wall, Jr., President of the Gulf Ridge Council.

Mr. Eisenhower is Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America and has been a member of its National Executive Board since 1948.

His message reads: THE WHITE HOUSE
During the years that I have been associated with the Boy Scouts of America, I have been proud to learn of each new example of their progress in the field of youth.

Your plans for the new Exploring program sound particularly promising. This program, designed to meet the needs and desires of our high school age boys, should be most challenging and appealing to them. More important, it is securely based upon the traditional training in character and citizenship, provided by the Scouting movement.

I am delighted to join you in the hope that this Exploring program, with community support, will strengthen the fitness and careers of our young citizens.

(Signed)
Dwight D. Eisenhower
Exploring is for high school age boys whether or not they have been Scouts. It includes a personal fitness emphasis, social, vocational exploration, outdoor, citizenship and service experiences.

Health Is More Than A Word
Health is more than a word - it's an idea, a big idea. It means different things to different people. It covers many things - everything in your life is in some way tied up with your health or the health of those close to you.

Some people think health means cleanliness, or chewing raw carrots, or taking ice-cold showers. Others think health is physical perfection, or being athletic.

We speak of guarding our health and protecting ourselves against accident and disease and, of course, it's only sensible to avoid foreseeable accidents and take the precautions against illness and disease that science and Denver. A sharp increase in sales is expected during the coming weeks due to consumer buying for the holidays.

and the medical profession have found of value.
But health isn't only the "perfect specimen" bulging with muscles. As a matter of fact, you can have a faulty heart and be a well-functioning human being. Nor is health trial by ice water or push-ups or food fast. And health is not simply protecting yourself. Partly by using intelligently what you have - your abilities, your resources and stamina, your investment in life - so that the life you lead can be satisfying and happy.

Health, then, is a means to an end. And that end is successful and rewarding living - the kind of life you want at work, at rest and play. To make possible the kind of life you want - all three-thirds of it, you have to take responsibility for your own health. And no amount of attention to grooming and personal hygiene will take the place of health fundamentals which help you feel your best, plenty of sleep, regular exercise, meals which keep up your stamina and give you a supply of energy, attention to medical and dental needs. Health is paying attention to what you need to be at your best - to enjoy that feeling of well being.

Farm production costs are generally headed up, warns The Progressive Farmer, most major needs and equipment prices are expected to raise next year.

Building Of Famous Mackinac Bridge To Be Shown At Hilans

An unusual type of adventure story will be presented at the Hilans Theatre in Avon Park, Florida, December 2 through December 4.

Loyell Thomas, famed newsman and traveler who has brought back thrilling accounts of people and places from the farthest reaches of the earth, will tell an exciting story of man's conquest of geography right here at home.

In the short subject, "The Five Mile Dream," Mr. Thomas tells how the new Mackinac Bridge in Michigan, longest suspension bridge in the world, was built in defiance of riotous winds and treacherous water. Scenes made during the construction of the five-mile-long span will show how engineering know-how, imagination and ingenious building techniques finally made possible the joining of Michigan's upper and lower peninsulas.

The bridge, which was built by the American Bridge Division of United States Steel, was dedicated June 23 of this year. It is the culmination of many years of planning and engineering. Constructed at a cost of some $97 million, it spans the rough Straits of Mackinac, between Mackinac City and St. Ignace.

Into its building went 67,000 tons of steel and 41,000 miles of wire. The cables from which the main span is suspended are more than two feet in diameter, and each is composed of 12,500 individual wires. The two central towers which support the main span rise as high as a 46-story building above the water, and are set on huge steel and concrete caissons which extend 200 feet below the water to bedrock.

Mr. Thomas tells and shows how hundreds of men, using scores of different skills, converted steel and concrete into a bridge against tremendous odds.

The bridge, which was built by the American Bridge Divi-

Buy Stamps Now For Christmas Greeting Cards

Farsighted persons who buy their stamps now for use on Christmas greeting cards and packages will avoid waiting in line later. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today.

Furthermore, Mr. Summerfield observed, not only will early purchase of stamps minimize the Christmas rush, but those who buy early have the opportunity to give their Christmas mail an extra touch of interest by purchasing some of the newer commemorative postage stamps now on hand.

These include the recently issued 4c Forest Conservation stamp, featuring a forest scene in yellow, brown and green, and particularly appropriate for mailing Christmas cards, and the new 4c Fort Duquesne stamp in verdigris blue, available on November 26, 1958.

Postal authorities state that since so many people are regular stamp collectors the number is estimated at 20 million the use of commemorative postage stamps on Christmas mailings adds an extra touch of friendliness.

Pull Out Oven Featured In New Frigidaire Line

New Frigidaire home appliances for 1959, highlighted by electric ranges with a revolutionary oven that pulls out of the cabinet for easy cleaning, will be shown in this area for the first time Nov. 27, 1958, according to Turner Furn. Co. Frigidaire dealer here.

Mr. Turner said that new Frigidaire refrigerators and food freezers also will be presented in the showrooms of Turner Furn. Co. at 899 Main St.

In describing the new ranges with the pull-out oven, he emphasized that the unique design "marks a new concept in convenience for homemakers that not only minimizes drudgery but speeds up oven cleaning by as much as 50 per cent."

For cleaning, the homemaker simply pulls out the entire oven, just like a drawer, resting it on the sturdy drop-down door. The top lifts out, exposing the inside of the oven for easy cleaning. The back wall is completely accessible without kneeling or stretching. The sealed, self-cleaning oven door, at the bottom, like the one at the top, comes out, leaving the oven floor completely unobstructed for cleaning. Shelves can be removed for washing at the sink.

Revolutionary frost-free freezing, pioneered by Frigidaire earlier this year, has been coupled with a distinctive new styling concept to present what Mr. Turner described as "the most completely feminine household refrigerator ever designed for American homelives."

He pointed out that the new refrigerators have been designed not only to provide efficient, effortless food-keeping, but to look as though they actually belong in a woman's kitchen.

He said that a delicate lacquer styling tone on door and bottom panels provide a truly elegant feminine appearance without sacrificing the clean, functional sleek look design lines.

A 1956 graduate of Avon Park High School, he attended Florida State University.

Too Late To Classify

If the average television viewer feels the same way I do about the type of commercials being sold to us by the networks and local stations, I'm inclined to feel that unless the advertisers and agencies come to their senses they will find they have killed the proverbial goose.

Not only are most commercials too long and too frequent, but they insult our intelligence and tend to destroy our faith in advertising itself. I realize that competition is keen in the field of merchandising and that in order to hold an account an advertising agency has to out smart, out talk and out sell his client's competitor.

Maybe there is a "best" cigarette, a best detergent, a best toothpaste or a best headache remedy as the busy copy writers try to make you believe but as we listen to claim and counter claim we can't help but reason that somebody is lying. We don't know who, so we naturally assume that everybody is so we go about our business and pay little or no attention to all the stupid idiotic drivel blasted at us from morning till night.

Maybe there are new ingredients such as SL-60, XP-39 or IRO-1 with which products are fortified, but I'm not a bit impressed and personally think that the size, shape and styling of the 142-cubic-foot Frost-Proof refrigerator-freezer combination model.

This upright model will hold up to 325 pounds of frozen food. It has 12 to 20 cubic feet of storage space, including a "supermarket shopping convenience" right into the home. Bright star of upright models is a 15-cubic-foot Imperial model which matches the size, shape and styling of the 142-cubic-foot Frost-Proof refrigerator-freezer combination model.

I am well aware of the fact that a flock of doctors, dentists and had carriers have endorsed it, and I am not worried about it enough to be looking for an invisible shield. I hear that some remedies work twice as fast as others and I've heard I have watched the little bubbles on their way to the blood stream, but since I'm not anxious to burden it with additional duties.

I know all the washing machine manufacturers always include a package of Whitey or Clorox in their machines at the factory but when the wife bought one it was as empty as the head of the guy who wrote this commercial.

In view of the fact that just about everything from shoe polish and axle grease to a goodly gob of lanolin I am wondering how the poor sheep stand up under this tremendous production problem.

Looking back over the years before the copy writers and bright-eyed Madison Avenue boys went stark staring mad, I'm wondering how I managed to stay alive without the aid of all those absolutely imperative ingredients that the television screams at me about.

Rather I am disgustedly healthy and extremely rugged or the claims made for the various and sundry products are a lot of lanolin impregnated hot wash water.

Most of the big jobs are held by salesmen who have well-protected heads.

PAIS AGAIN!—After some behind closed-doors maneuvering, State Prison Director R. O. Culver and Railroad Prison Superintendent DeWitt Sinclair are pals again.
Gov. LeRoy Collins, long time advocate of "government in the sunshine" pulled the doors closed last week and engineered the plan to have Sinclair and Culver kiss and makeup.
Collins and three Cabinet members met secretly on the prison grounds and finally came out with a statement.
The result: Two guards were fired and Culver and Sinclair pledged to work cooperatively.
Just how long this will last, nobody knows.
Although, Collins and the Cabinet issued an order to keep prison hiring on a merit basis instead of "political favoritism and pressure," it apparently didn't put the policy into effect immediately.
About the only reason that anyone knows for Sinclair not being junked is that he has some powerful political friends.
NEAT PHRASEMAKING—Two of Florida's top phrase-makers are tossing some lulu around these days.

The phrasemakers are Gov. LeRoy Collins and Former Gov. Millard Caldwell.

No names have been mentioned by either man, but it is apparent the barbs are aimed at each other.

Caldwell says the state has been on a "Saturday night binge" of spending with appropriations from state government jumping from a two year total of $160,000,000 in 1957-59 to $200,000,000 for 1957-59.

In a pretty pointed reference to Caldwell's statewide speaking schedule, Collins said this is the "lightning bolt" season for political hopefuls.
Collins added that it was a "damned if you do and damned if you don't" proposition, "if we are not being criticized for co-sponsoring, we would probably be criticized for operating a 'do nothing administration'."

OUT OF THE DOG HOUSE—Pensacola Road Contractor Charles Smith, one-time South American travel companion of Gov. LeRoy Collins, is back on the eligible list to bid on state road projects after 19 months in

City Manager Of Coral Gables Joins Sottile Banking Group

Ira F. Willard, City Manager, City of Coral Gables, announced his resignation, effective December 1, 1958, at which time he will join the Sottile Banking Group, handling New Business Development.
Mr. Willard's rather substantial experience as a City Administrator since 1942 will aid immeasurably in his new vocation of banking.
He was City Manager, Hopewell, Virginia from 1948-1952; Alexandria, Virginia, 1952-1956; and Coral Gables, Florida, since 1956. He was chosen for the Coral Gables post from a field of 87 applicants.
He served in the Air Force as an administrative officer from 1947-1948, and was with the Armed Forces from 1941, with a one year leave of absence for the practice of law in Spaulding, S. C. He holds many decorations including the Legion of Merit, Army Commendation Ribbon, and retired as a Lt. Colonel.
He is a native of Union, S. C. He attended the University of South Carolina, Columbia, majoring in Engineering and Pre-law, and went from there to Southeastern University, Washington, D. C. to get his graduate degree in law. He was commissioned a 2d Lt. in 1940. He was the Post President of the League of the South.

Smith, who was at one time behind schedule on four north west Florida projects, finally got sprung and was low bidder on the Okaloosa County project at the last bid opening.
Smith never did catch up, but the road department gave him a 120 day extension on the last of the four projects—approaches to the Chattahoochee River Bridge, just west of Tallahassee. The contractor for the bridge, South Florida Construction Co., Tallahassee, Fla., was behind also and had gotten extensions and the road department said it felt it was fair to bring Smith up to date also.

PUPIL ASSIGNMENT LAW—Florida law experts are encouraged that the Alabama pupil assignment law has been upheld by the U. S. Supreme Court "on its face."
This simply means that as long as the law is not used to put students on the basis of race, it is constitutional.
The law calls for assigning pupils on the basis of ability and psychological factors.
However, in one Florida case—a suit against the Palm Beach County School Board, a U. S. Appeals court has already said: "Yes, the law is okay on its face, but the fact that there are no Negroes in schools indicates the pupil assignment law is being used to maintain segregation."

To be held valid, the pupil assignment law would require some integration. So far in Florida, no schools have been integrated under the law.
The question now seems to be: "How much integration would be necessary to uphold the law... token integration in one area, token integration in many areas, or even more than token integration?"
FIGHT TO FINISH—A group down on the Lower East Coast has formed a group to fight a showdown "over economic and political subjugation by the pink chop gang."
Among the leaders are Ted David, one-time political boss, and David, at one time, was given a chance to be governor.
This appears to be a move to give these hopes some artificial respiration.
It doesn't figure to get too far.

Rotary News

At Colonel Clifton A. McClelland was the guest speaker at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club on Wednesday, November 26, at the Jacaranda Hotel.
Colonel McClelland, who received his high school education in Avon Park, presented a thirty minute unclassified briefing on the Air Force Missile Test Center operations. His talk was illustrated with a color film showing the facilities and several missile launches.

Jim Whitte was the guest of his father, A. B. Whitte and Bill Parrish and Bryan Kempson were the guests of Joe Franza.

Visiting Rotarians last week included J. A. Noble, Lockport, N. Y.; E. F. Armstrong, Heksville, Ohio; Stan Skilling, Natick, Mass.; Oliver Maggard, Lake Wales and John A. Diaz, Tampa.

Upon accepting his resignation, the City Commission of Coral Gables, through Mayor Keith Phillips, said: "This resignation is accepted with extreme regret. All of us recognize the wonderful work Mr. Willard has performed for our City, his untiring efforts in our behalf and his willingness to do anything that would make our City one of the most respected residential-business communities of South Florida. We wish him every possible success in his new post with the Sottile Banking Group."

Mr. James Sottile, Jr., operating head of the Sottile Banking Group, consisting of: Pan American Bank of America; Coral Gables First National Bank; American National Bank of Fort Lauderdale; South Florida Farmers Bank; Home State Bank, Boynton Beach; Avon Park Bank, Avon Park; and Bank of Palmetto, Palmetto, Florida, said: "Mr. Willard's long and successful experience in the banking industry, his administrative training he gained through his tenure with the Armed Forces. This will further strengthen our Bank's administrative leadership and help us maintain our position among the leaders of the banking industry of the southeastern United States."

The career of Mr. Willard continues to show that of his new employer, Mr. James Sottile, Jr., in that he also started his business career as a newspaper carrier, with the Union Daily News, Union, S. C., where his mother, Mrs. Mae Willard, still resides.
Mr. and Mrs. Willard will continue their various activities in the church and civic organizations. Mr. Willard's activities and acceptance of civic responsibilities have gained him recognition in "Who's Who in the South and Southwest" as well as in other publications which recognize outstanding citizens of the community.

Now they should place meters in parking lot around club house and drive most of the tourists to other places possibly the merchants of Avon Park do not need this business.

Christmas Program Entertains Members Of Patriots Chapter

The lovely home of Mrs. James P. Drane, Mrs. B. H. Griffin, and Mrs. M. E. Stephens, Jr., were co-hostesses with Mrs. Drane at the festive holiday meeting.

Mrs. I. H. Ford, after being introduced by Mrs. P. W. Thiele, in her own inimitable way charmed the ladies with her reading of the touching beautiful "The One Who Didn't Go". Continuing the Christmas theme of the gathering, Miss Martha Lauderback of Sebring, violinist, accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Twitty played a series of six Christmas carols that were often used during the early colonial days of America. Plans were also made for a Christmas party for the Sunbeams sponsored by the group.

Mrs. R. H. Lawton taught the study lesson on Malaya and showed slides to illustrate her talk. Mrs. Futch served delicious refreshments during the following social hour.

On Sunday, Dec. 7, the church will have a Recognition Service which will be dedicated to the pioneers who settled Avon Park and built the Old Union Church. All friends are invited to attend this special service at 11 o'clock. The church is now celebrating its 63rd year of continuous operation—the oldest church in the lower ridge.

RED DEVILS DEFEAT RIDGE CHAMPIONS 14 to 13: Although the Sebring Blue Streaks won the Ridge Conference title for 1958, the first time in twenty-one years, they went down in defeat when they tangled with the Avon Park Red Devils in its annual Turkey Day eve game. Better than 4,000 fans jammed Memorial Stadium to witness the battle between the Red Devils and the Blue Streaks. In the top left hand picture Jerry McKenzie and Leroy Farless successfully stopped Hughie Williams attempt to put Sebring back into the game in the last few seconds with passes. In the top right picture Gene Tomlinson scores for Sebring in the second quarter to tie the score 7-7. In the left hand center picture Daniel Monoy was on hand to stop Gene Tomlinson who received a hand-off from Hughie Williams. Seth McCormick is shown in the right hand center shot, as he gains five yards for the Red Devils around Sebring's right end as Earl Lennie and David Higgins close in for the tackle. In the bottom left hand picture Tommy Douberty is shown after he had been tackled by Gene Tomlinson on an attempted end sweep. The last picture shows Tommy Douberty as he scores the winning extra point in the fourth quarter with Dalton McCullough doing a wonderful job of blocking.

Seventh-Day Adventist

On November 28, the ladies of the Dorcas Welfare Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church prepared 16 food baskets from food and money donated the previous week. The baskets brought Thanksgiving cheer to a total of 35 people in the Bahamas Islands.

On Saturday morning at the regular Sabbath School service, children's divisions presented the second investment program of the year in which the proceeds of their year long investment projects were turned in to help in the medical, welfare, gospel and educational work here and in 185 lands abroad.

Even the tiny tots enjoyed coming on the platform dressed in their costumes of other lands. After singing, "Jesus Loves The Little Children, All The Children Of The World," they put the pictures of the different nationalities of children on the flannelgraph, and dropped their offerings in the plate. An interesting skit was given by the Junior boys and girls of the "Mother Sabbath School" (Connie Arnold) trying to carry the load, when son "Investment" (Mark Laddington) came along and called his helpers, "Dollars, Quarters, Dimes, Nickels, and various things to raise the Investment," played by Richard Post, Kay Hartwell, Gail Moon, Betty Crawford, and Ricky Holland respectively, giving them each a part of the load that "Mother Sabbath School" was trying to carry.

The Primary division also contributed songs and poems and the sum of $35.00 was turned in by that division alone. The total amount turned in by both the adult and children's divisions was $450.00.

The members have been doing work, selling aprons, cutting hair, raising vegetables etc. A final program will occur at the end of the year in which the investment proceeds for the month of December will be turned in.

The social committee of the church presented an enjoyable home talent program Saturday night, November 29, with prizes going to the ones having the most votes. Miss Frances Ann Hartwell, age 15, a piano student of Mrs. Stanley Wilson, received first prize in the adult group for her fine rendition of the piano solo, Bachmanoff, prelude in C sharp minor by Chopin, and Solfegetto by Carl F. E. Bach. Bonnie Brown, age 16, a student of Mrs. Julia Holcomb, received first prize in the elementary school group for her rendition of the piano solo: The Beautiful Blue Danube waltz by Strauss, and Mr. Robert Werry in the miscellaneous group won first prize for his amusing rendition of a man doing jury duty.

The second and third prize winners were: Kathleen Hartwell, Roy Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Connell, Mrs. Munch, and Mr. A. R. Tompkins. Others participating in the evening's entertainment were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Foote, Carolyn Bischoff, Bonnie Brown, Gloria Connell, Connie Arnold, Mrs. Grace Larson, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Arnold, Mr. John Schmidt and Miss Louise Moore. Chaplain Herman C. Ray was master of ceremonies.

The proceeds, after prizes were taken out, went toward equipment for the school band.

State President Visits Local Rebekah Lodge

Mrs. Gladys Carpenter of Lakeland, President of the Rebekah Assembly of Florida, paid her official visit to Eleanor Seavers Rebekah Lodge Monday, November 24.

Mrs. Carpenter gave a very interesting talk of her visits to the lodges over the state and her aim for raising money for the 100P Home. She stressed the point that each lodge should heartily support the home fund.

Her visit to the Eleanor Seavers Lodge was her 59th visit to the lodges in the state this year.

Mrs. Fannie Spink, past president of the Rebekah Assembly and a friend of Mrs. Carpenter, was also present at the meeting.

A covered dish supper preceded the meeting.

lighted tall white tapers held by seven branched wrought-iron candelabra which flanked each side of the altar banked with white holly leaves and red and white poinsettias.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of Chantilly lace fashioned over tulle. The sweetheart neckline and tiny puff sleeves were accented with bands of scalloped lace as was the hemline of the ballerina length skirt. Her wedding veil of illusion fell from a cap embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white Cattle-ya and Dendrobium Phalaenopsis orchids.

The attendants wore waltz-length dresses of turquoise chiffon with matching halo hats and carried cascade bouquets of pink, fuschia, chrysanthemums. Miss Mary Lou Eason of Jacksonville was maid of honor and Mrs. Robert T. Dunkel of Daytona Beach was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Anne Fontaine Johnson, sister of the bride, and Miss Tirzah Ann Thayer of Orlando.

Richard Griswold of Daytona Beach was best man. Groomsman were Robert T. Dunkel, David Kemp, both of Daytona Beach, and Guy Adams, brother of the bridegroom, of Gainesville.

The bride's mother wore a gown of champagne empouire, edged cotton tulle trimmed with bands of linen lace. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. The bridegroom's mother's gown was of cornflower blue fashioned along Empire lines and her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the garden. The Bride's Table, covered with a cloth of linen and lace, was centered with a silver four branched candelabra adorned with a dainty bouquet of lacy white porcelain blossoms and companion chrysanthemums. The three tiered wedding cake was decorated with pumpkins and topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom. Lovely white porcelain blossoms and chrysanthemums encircled the cake.

Mrs. E. W. Hart and Mrs. C. E. Martin served the coffee service. Punch was served by Mrs. Stuart Ward from a table placed on the patio. Little Miss Ann Montedecora and Little Miss Janey Barben served mints from silver baskets.

Welcoming the guests into the garden were Mrs. W. J. Head, Mrs. Roscoe Bass, and Mrs. Phillip Van H. Slayden of Winter Park. Mrs. Frank Love was hostess in the sun-room where the lovely wedding gifts were displayed. Those assisting under the marquee, which was beautifully decorated with flowering vines and fern, were Mrs. Ernest R. Trueman of Ft. Pierce, an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Donald McDonald of Winter Haven; Mrs. Parke Anderson, Mrs. Charles Metcalfe and Mrs. M. C. Whitcomb.

In charge of the Bride's Book was Miss Mary Frank McDonald of Winter Haven, with the Misses Pat Touchton of Jacksonville, Pattie Slayden of Winter Park, Rida Love and Janey Wells assisting.

For a wedding trip to Nassau, Mrs. Adams wore a powder blue suit of Empire styling with matching hat. Her accessories were of navy blue and she wore a corsage of a rare yellow orchid tipped with blue.

The young couple will live in Daytona Beach at 2028 Blais Ave.

Pee Wee Football

Pee wee football for 1958 came to an end Tuesday night November 18 when the All Stars defeated the Red & Gray team by the score of 24 to 0.

The All Stars began rolling midway through the first quarter. A 45 yard drive was climaxed when Maddox plunged over from the 2 yard line. The Stars went ahead 7-0.

Both teams settled down and there were no more scores in the first half. The third quarter found the Stars adding another and making the score 12-0. The second T.D. came on a 35 yard pass caught by Bates.

In the fourth quarter Vaughn carried over from the 4 yard line making the score 16-0. In the same quarter, Bates again pulled in a pass, this time on the 25 yard line, and raced the remaining 25 yards for the Stars final score.

Thanks this year goes to Raymond Cook, Bud Edge, Ed Albritton, Jeff Barrow, Bill Acuff and John Gambrell for their help in making this first year of 5th, 6th and 7th grade football a success.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to take this opportunity to thank all my friends who called on me, sent lovely cards and beautiful flowers, during my stay at the hospital.
Mrs. Cora Wray

summary of the work of each of the science courses was given and some plans for future courses were mentioned.

Mr. Clark has very small groups of children to work with in each of his classes. Many of the parents were surprised when he stated that these small classes can cover subjects in less than half the time taken by normal class. The purpose is to stimulate these naturally gifted children to continue their research and Mr. Clark shows them how to go about it.

The next meeting of the PTA will be the Annual Christmas Program which will feature carols, other Christmas music and prose. This program is always an outstanding one and everyone is invited to attend. Remember the date, Thursday, Dec. 18.

Delicious refreshments were served the parents and teachers by the 12th grade room mothers in the Cafeteria and a social hour which followed the meeting.

Boy Scout News

Troop 3 of the Girl Scouts will hold its Inaugural Service on Thursday night, Dec. 4, at 8 o'clock in the Woodruff Heights Scout Building. At this time the girls of the troop, which was formerly a Boy Scout Troop, will fly up to Girl Scout status. All parents and friends are cordially invited to attend.

At their meeting on Tuesday the girls practiced the service. A clever puppet show was presented for their entertainment by Debbie Ward, Linda Holmberg, Arlene King, Sally Beth King and Judy Bunkle. Mrs. Franklyn Ward served refreshments to the troop.

Troop 1 met on Tuesday also because of the holidays. The girls brought fruit and fixed two beautiful, large fruit baskets that were taken to two friends of the troop for Thanksgiving. Plans were made to start working on the Christmas project. The troop needs small colored aluminum pie plates to be used for decorations. Anyone wishing to donate some of these please call Mrs. Bob Leavitt or Mrs. N. H. Booth. Cookies and Cakes were served and the Scouts practiced with their choir or played games.

Avon Park Store Named Hahn BB Rifle Dealer

Nearly every boy has had some time in his life, owned or shot a BB gun.

Many of the "aging" boys will recall during their youth the old fashion spring type BB gun. In place with the spring type there is now available a modern BB gun. It represents one of the greatest advances in BB gun shooting in years, and has as much appeal for the old time youngsters as it does for the day youth.

It is the all-new Hahn BB Rifle. BB Rifle powered by carbon dioxide gas. It is modern gun with authentic frontier styling, and has finger-tip lever action which permits the shooter, with one short easy stroke to feed load and cock the rifle without removing the gun from his shoulder. This intriguing gas-powered gun can be equally enjoyed by both father and son, as well as other members of the family.

Another innovation of the Hahn BB Rifle is the magnetic loading device which positions and holds the double loading.

Prices continue at $1.50 ringfall, $1.25 general admission, 75 cents general admission with use of Coca-Cola complimentary tickets, and 50 cents for children under 12. Reservations can be made in advance at the J. Caranda Hotel.

my Douberty with a pass that carried from the 34 yard line to the 20. Douberty piked up two yards; then an off side penalty moved the ball back to the 23 yard line. From the 23 yard line, McCormick took a pitch out and ran the Sebring secondary into the end zone and scored for a Red Devil score. Time out was called by the Devils. This was to be the deciding point of the game. Fans were anxiously awaiting this all important point. Sebring fans hoping for a failure and the Avon Park fans pleading for a two yard success. The Devils decided to go with halfback Douberty. The forward wall of the Devils hit with everything they had and Douberty dug in with his cleats and eleven red jerseys rushed over, with what was to be the winning point of the game.

The excitement wasn't over. The Blue Streaks took the kickoff and with one first down after another pushed them to the Avon Park 24 yard line but time was running out and they took the air. The Red Devil pass defense stiffened and only one pass for 12 yards was completed and Sebring lost the ball on a fourth down play. The Red Devils ran the clock out after taking over on the 12 yard line with fourteen seconds left in one of the most exciting games seen in these parts in many years.

A final accounting of the game found the Red Devils with 10 first downs against Sebring's 12. The Red Devils picked up 123 yards rushing and the Blue Streaks 150. Avon Park attempted 10 passes and completed 6 of them for 75 yards. Sebring attempted 9 passes and completed 1 for 12 yards. Total yardage for Avon Park was 190 and for Sebring 162. Avon Park was penalized 45 yards and Sebring 50.

Pre-game activities included the marching of the Avon Park and Sebring bands, the selection of the APHS Homecoming Queen for 1958 and the football Sponsors and their escorts.

Ten lovely young ladies and their escorts dressed in age evening clothes made their appearance at Memorial Stadium riding in convertibles driven by local car owners. Into a colorful setting with the Red Devil band at one end of the field and the Blue Streak band at the other, rode the homecoming candidates in procession. Avon Park High School. They were as follows: Miss Martha Elder escorted by Roger Wilke; Miss Mary Lois Roberts escorted by Joe Perez; Miss Eve Campbell escorted by Jimmy Singletary; Miss Gauda Gaster escorted by Freddy Sackheim; Miss Sylvia Foster escorted by Leroy Starling; Miss Sandy Cook escorted by Jerome Antley; Miss Margaret Hagan escorted by Robert Howard and Miss Carolyn Buggs escorted by Steve Love. Miss Betty Sams, sophomore, was crowned Homecoming Queen by former Queen, Miss Annette Weinzler. Runner up was Miss Sylvia Foster and second alternate was Miss Gauda Gaster.

Half-time activities included a performance by both bands present.

The Sebring band made appearances first and went through several routines ending with the playing of the Blue Streak Alma Mater.

The Majorettes dressed in Oriental costumes came through the door of the house and presented an Oriental dance. Featured was Miss Sammie Wright in a solo dance while Bill Hudson from the Avon Park Prison sang "Poor Butterfly". The band gave an excellent performance, climaxing the half time activities.
