5 Complete Circus Performances Scheduled For Florida State Fair

Tampa.—Two hundred tons of elephants is nothing to make light of! That's the estimated weight of the big herd of "per-forming pachyderms" in the annual cast of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey three-ring circus.

And who do you suppose thinks he's boss of that bunch? It's Rajah, an infant of only several hundred pounds whose pal, or patroness, is the huge 5-ton "Ringling Jewel."

Along with a huge cast of 600 performers, the herd of trained elephants will have important roles in the big 27-part circus performances showing for the first time, at the Florida State Fair, Feb. 4 through Feb. 15.

Five complete circus performances before the grandstand are scheduled during the Fair's first week as follows; evening, Wednesday, Feb. 5, and matinee and evening on Thursday, Feb. 6 and Friday, Feb. 7.

Pint-size (compared with his fellow elephants) little Rajah manages to show off in two of the four dazzling super-spectacles and musical extravaganzas, on the trappings and costumes for which the circus reveals it has spent some $750,000.

But, big or little, the elephants are gentle and friendly. Not so the big tigers featured in the "tiger tableau" which opens the circus performances. A tiger is no one's friend and in a group they're liable to do most anything. So, the huge cats with the stripes have to be put through their paces in a large cage and, because it takes time to set up the cage, that's the first act on the bill.

Horses, chimpanzees and even a trained pig used by clown star Felix Adler are included in the trained animal acts. All of these vie with the serialists tight wire performers, acrobats, bareback riders and the funny clowns that go to make up the sparkling program of the "greatest show on earth."

Growing With Central Florida

The First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Hardee County, located in Wauchula, statement shows this association to be one of the strongest ones in the state, with total assets of $2,789,976.95 as of December 31, 1957.

Since the beginning of this association steady growth has been maintained and depositors of this association who number in the thousands are assured of the best service obtainable anywhere. At the present time the current dividend is 4%, payable semi-annually, and only the best of management and investments make this dividend possible.

At the present time this association has first mortgages of $2,355,841.48 on the best properties in South Central Florida.

The association does banking by mail which is used extensively by patrons who are unable to pay them frequent visits. The association numbers among its depositors, people from nearly every State in the Union, as well as many service men in foreign countries.

Mr. V. M. Hewey, Secretary-Treasurer and Manager, was formerly in the real estate business in Avon Park, moving to Wauchula in 1946, and he opened the Savings and Loan Association in 1951.

Doyle Spears, Assistant Secretary-Treasurer, returned to his home in Wauchula in June 1956 from Stetson University in Deland where he majored in accounting.

Rotary News

Senator Doyle Carlton, Jr., presented a very interesting and informative address to the Avon Park Rotary Club at the regular luncheon meeting held Wednesday, January 22, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Senator Carlton in pointing out the growth of Florida he compared figures of the state in 1950 with those of 1957. He stated that in 1950 there were one million cars registered while in 1957 there were two million. Student enrollment jumped from 400,000 in 1950 to 750,000 in 1957 and the population from 2½ million to over four million.

He stated that the state gets most of its income for financing state affairs from the gas, sales and cigarette taxes, that these taxes have increased with the growth of Florida. While the county must depend upon property tax for money to finance its growth, these have not kept up with the increased population, and the large enrollment in the schools. Therefore something must be done so that the state and schools could keep up with the rapid growth of the students.

A. L. Lynd was the guest of Dr. Larsen last week, and Jim Turnbull was the guest of W. A. Meyer. E. W. Johnson was the guest of visiting Rotarian R. M. Gay of Arcadia.

Other visiting Rotarians included Jim Massey, Waynesville, N. C.; Oscar Nelson, Canton, Ill.; Bruce C. Kline and E. F. Armstrong, Hicksville, Ohio; Bob Kinch, Umdilla, N. Y.; Nate Steinberg, Canada; Frank Furman, Port Jervis, N. Y.; Hugh E. Jones, Fairmont, W. Va.; Claude Binkley, Branson, Mo.; Bill Gearing, Bill Dutton, Richard Dutton and Jack Stephenson, all of Sebring.

List Rooms For Grand Prix At Local Chamber

The Chamber of Commerce has already received inquiries about rooms for rent during the International Grand Prix Sports Car Endurance Race this year.

The Chamber would like to prepare a list as soon as possible of the rooms that will be available for the races so that they might furnish those desiring information with a complete list at an early date.

Call the Chamber office and list the number of rooms you will have for rent or mail a post card, be sure to include the number of beds, name and address.

Garden Lighting Display Is Planned In Feb.

A display of garden lighting will be presented by the Florida Power Corporation in the garden of the Jacaranda Hotel on the 12th, 13th, and 14th of February each evening from 7:30 until 9 o'clock.

The public is cordially invited to attend this display and see what is being done in modern outdoor lighting. Miss Faye Gordon and Fred Davis of Florida Power will be in charge of the exhibit.

Two Basketball Games Here Next Week

Basketball games at the Avon Park High School Gymnasium will feature two home games during the next week of play.

On Friday, January 31 the "A" and "B" boys teams will play host to the Arcadia Bulldogs in a 'boys only' doubleheader that will begin with the "B" teams play at 7:00 o'clock. This game is a one a year encounter.

On Tuesday, February 4, the Red Devils will meet the Frostproof Bullpups in a return engagement played on the local court. This will be a boys and girls "A" doubleheader that will begin at 7:30 p. m. The Devils will be seeking another victory over the Pups and the Devilettes will try to upset the Frostproof Sextette after losing to them on the road last week.

Both of the "A" teams have 4 - 2 conference records thus far this season.

Red Devils On Winning Streak

The Avon Park Red Devil Five was victorious in both outings last week, setting down the Frostproof Bullpups 51 - 36 on Tuesday night and rocking the Lake Placid Green Dragons with a 55 - 43 final tally.

Scoring for the Bullpups was low and scattered as the Red Devils racked up seven baskets and one free shot to Frostproof's two and one in the first quarter. Avon Park ended the first scoring spree 15 to 5. During the second quarter the Devils dropped back two points and the inspired "Pups" outscored them 11 to 9. At halftime Avon Park led 24 to 16.

In the last half Avon Park used their swift attack and free throw to advantage to outscore Frostproof 12 - 9 in the third and 14 - 11 in the fourth.

Charlie Anderson scored 23 points to lead the victors, Billy Rouse came up with 10 and Tall Tom Bass scored 9. Ben Bennett tallied for 6 and Leroy Farless and Gail Hovey made 3 each. They made 12 out of 26 free throw attempts for 47 per cent.

Cotton led the losers with 9 and Isom was second with 8.

On Friday night the Red Devils broke Lake Placid's 'eleven straight' winning streak when they set them back with a 55 - 43 victory. Lake Placid was reluctant to lose after such a long winning streak and there were plenty of long desperation shots that found the mark many times but not enough to take the game or even tie it up.

The Devils were unusually alert to stealing the ball and getting the rebounds from the wily Dragons. The Dragons were eager during the first quarter and outscored the Devils 14 to 12. Avon Park rallied in the second period to hold them to a meager 5 while Earnest, Rouse and Kempton teamed up for a total of 16 points. At the half, Avon Park led 28 to 19.

The Green Dragons made a desperate attempt to even up the score in the third, outscoring Avon Park 15 - 13. Anderson, Kempton and Earnest racked up 14 in the fourth to Lake Placid's 9 to win the game with a twelve point margin, 55 to 43.

Charlie led again with 23 points, Ben made 12, Rouse 8, Little Bryan Kempton tallied for 6 and Leroy Farless made 4.

The Devils were hitting Friday night and improved their per centage by making nine out of fifteen for sixty per cent.

Larry Sapp led the Dragons with 15 and Earl Hendry was second with 10.

This win give the Devils a 4 and 2 conference record, the two losses being Lake Placid at the beginning of the season and Mulberry. They have wins over Sebring, Ft. Meade, Frostproof and Lake Placid.

Visits Furniture Market In N. C.

R. L. McHargue of the McHargue Furniture Company of Sebring attended the Furniture Market in High Point, North Carolina last week for the showing of the new lines for 1958. The showing was well attended by furniture men from all over the South and complete lines of home furnishings were on display.

Mr. McHargue made many purchases and is expecting the arrival of the new furniture soon in the store in Sebring. He extends a cordial invitation to everyone to visit McHargues Furniture Store and see the new lines of furniture.

The store carries a wide price range of furniture for the home owners and prospective home markers. Convenient terms may be arranged and delivery is made anywhere in Highlands County without extra charge.

Made In Florida, A Symbol Of Value For 7,500 Fla. Products

Floridans have come to learn that the label "made in Florida" on any item produced in the Sunshine State is a symbol of value.

Though Florida is primarily known as a popular tourist and citrus growing state, Floridians are learning of the myriad products, 7,500 of them produced by industry and agriculture, through the efforts of a statewide business promotion campaign, the Festival of Florida Products, February 27 - March 8, 1958.

For ten days the publicity limelight will focus sharply on industry, agriculture and their manufactured, processed and produced output. That same limelight will give Florida citizens cause to reflect of the many uses Florida articles are put to in everyday living.

From construction materials, large and small, for the home you are living in, to materials for industry, and the diversified list goes on and on.

The variety, excellence and the numerous items produced in the state makes us almost self-sufficient and economically sound. The days of a few giant industries in the state shoring up state economy is gone. Today, no one industry depends fully on another. Temporary adverse conditions that effect the citrus business can't upset phosphate mining. Material shortages that would hit manufacturers won't slow the growth of pine trees. The underpinnings are sounder and sturdier.

Florida is a top agricultural state. Though she serves the nation, the state also depends on its home-grown production.

Many firsts or near firsts are attributed to the state that is warmer than any other in the nation. Subsequently our agricultural output is enormous and rightly so called the "nation's market basket."

At the top of the list in the field of agricultural green beans rate first nationally, honey is third and beef cattle production ranks third east of the Mississippi and fast rising.

Florida's golden triple combination of warm sunshine, soil and showers produced a bonanza in vegetable, fruit and livestock crop worth $688,591,000 at farm level during 1956, and that worth rose still higher when these products reached processors.

On the industrial side of things, the state's fabulous electronics industry, the so-called baby of Florida's growing industrial family, now number 100 plants and businesses. The firms, scattered throughout the state, busily supply Florida and the nation with upwards of $10,000,000 worth of electronic components, ranging from missile control systems with hundreds of transistors to sub-miniature, close tolerance parts.

The world of chemicals and their makers are centering in Florida. So fast is this industry growing that Florida is now second only to that of Texas. The state was in fourth place as recent as 1956 and seventh in 1955. Numbered in this burgeoning industry are organics, fibers, plastics, resins, fertilizers, metal and petroleum products.

The foregoing examples show the fantastic growth within the past five years but industrial growth was also seen by the state's older, basic industries.

The forest products industry is now worth $400,000,000 annually, the flower industry leads the nation in gladiolus with an annual worth of $40,000,000 for a variety of flowers, and over $30,000,000 is the annual price tag put on the output of the seafood industry.

Florida's rich earth produced $821,770,000 in minerals during the past ten years, and more than $6,806,596,000 was spent by the state during the past ten years in building construction.

These and other equally important industries have shown large increases in their fields of endeavor. The vast and growing Florida economy has been tapped, but it is only the beginning.

The Florida product list is long but the rate of growth the state has seen the past ten years will lengthen it and keep pace, industrially and agriculturally, with Florida's mushrooming population.

Operation Helping Hand Delivers Supplies To Migrant Workers

"Operation Helping Hand" has been declared a wonderful success after only one short week. Sgt. Leonard C. Pitts in charge of the operation with headquarters in the old county jail in Sebring reports that nearly everyone in the county has sided in the drive for food and clothing for the migrant workers left destitute by the December freezes and flooded conditions in the Immokalee area.

Sgt. Pitts reported that before Tuesday six loads of clothing and supplies had been delivered to Immokalee, and that Tuesday afternoon he had three more loads ready to go from donors in Highlands County. Five truck loads from the Orlando-Leesburg area were expected to arrive in Sebring Tuesday afternoon to be added to the operation Helping Hand collection.

Red Cross workers have been busy sorting the clothing and

Negro Youth Runs Into Fla. Power Pole

Saturday night the service on the Avon Park-Sebring line of the Florida Power Corporation was disrupted when a 15 year old Avon Park Negro boy drove his brother's car into a 45 foot pole carrying 12,000 volts.

The top section of the pole landed on the car, but the young driver and one of his older brothers and a girl, who were riding in the car were uninjured.

The colored youth was turned over to juvenile counsellor E. A. DeLaney.

$522 Collected In Local Polio Drive

A total of $522.88 collected in the local polio drive was reported the first of this week by Hue Nunnalle, Avon Park chairman. The drive will not be completed until after this week when all reports are turned in to the chairman.

The present total includes $210.94 collected by members of the Junior Woman's Club in the Mother's March last Friday night; High School students raised $102.11 and Elementary pupils $112.01; checks received amounted to $15 and the Girl Scouts $82.82.

Highlands County Sweetheart Will Be Chosen Mar. 1

"Highlands County Sweetheat" will be the theme of the Beauty Contest sponsored by the Sebring Firemen's Auxiliary at the Highlands County Fair February 24 through March 1.

Committees of the Beauty Contest in Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring report that they have had wonderful cooperation from the merchants and the girls in all three areas.

The first judging will be held on Monday night, February 24, at 8 o'clock and the queen or "Highlands County Sweetheart" will be crown Saturday night. The contestants will appear in evening dresses on both occasions, Monday and Saturday nights.

Andy Cucchiaro New Manager At Inter-County

The Inter-County Telephone System announced today that effective February 1, 1958, Mr. Andy Cucchiaro has been appointed Group Manager at Avon Park, succeeding Mr. Joseph Simpson who has been transferred to its General Headquarters at Fort Myers as a Commercial Engineer.

Mr. Cucchiaro has had over 18 years experience with the Inter-County Telephone System, having been located at its Fort Myers and Sebring exchanges during that time.

Mr. R. M. Gay, District Manager for the Inter-County Telephone System in this area stated that the Telephone Company is fortunate to have such a capable manager as Mr. Cucchiaro located at Avon Park to help supervise the ever growing telephone operations in this area.

The Inter County Telephone System has just finished a record year, Mr. Gay stated, having gained over 6,400 telephones in its 13 county South Central and Southwest Florida area. This increase represents a 21.3% gain over 1956 and is the highest percentage gain for all telephone companies in Florida. The Inter-County Telephone System, Mr. Gay said, has also reached the 37,000 telephone installation mark on January 31, 1958. With a manager like Mr. Cucchiaro at Avon Park, Mr. Gay concluded, we look forward to another record year in this area.

Smiley Burnette Was A Visitor Here Monday

You can imagine the surprise of C. E. Spraggins and Charlie Rowland when they arrived at work eary Monday morning at the airport and found the one and only Smiley Burnette parked there with his trailer.

Smiley, of movie, radio and TV fame, visited with them and then was taken to Sottile Packing Plant for coffee and a visit with the ones in the office there. He was on his way to Okeechobee for swgral personal appearances.

He left his trailer at the airport while he went to Okeechobee and returned for it Monday night on his way to Ocala to join his wife.

Chamber Keeps Fair Booth Theme A Mystery

The Chamber of Commerce Fair Committee held a special meeting last Wednesday morning to make plans for a booth on Avon Park at the Highlands County Fair February 24 through March 1.

The theme of the booth will be announced at this time for it is being kept a secret but it is centered around a completely new idea. The committee however is confident that it will be the best display ever exhibited by Avon Park in the history of the fair. They are disclosing that the booth will be very colorful as well as educational.

Miss Helen Tuten, Mrs. Ophelia Rihner and Miss Fay Gordon will be in charge of the artistic display. George Woodham and Ted Ward are making arrangements to have someone on duty in the booth every day of the fair to furnish information and to see that the booth is kept in perfect order.

The Chamber of Commerce has appointed Jeff Barrow to serve on the booth committee.

HELP NEEDED!

Help is desperately needed for Mrs. Ray Smith and her two very small children. She is the wife of the oldest of the two Smith brothers arrested last month in the theft of outboard motors.

Mrs. Smith, a young Japanese girl, needs baby food, canned milk and warm clothing for her seven months old daughter and 18 months old son. She is also trying to care for her father-in-law, Elzie Smith, who is an invalid.

Donations of canned food, milk and clothing can be left at the Avon Park Sun office and they will be delivered to her. Those desiring to make cash donations to apply towards rent, lights, and fuel may also leave or send it to the Sun office.

Arrangements have been made for the two children, who are sick, to receive medical care.

City To Have New Code Of Ordinances

The City Council accepted the proposal of the Municipal Code Corporation of Tallahassee to codify all City ordinances. The Corporation is to revise, edit and codify the ordinances and publish a new code of ordinances for the City of Avon Park, at a cost of $3,600.

Other business transacted at the Council meeting on Monday night, January 27, included a motion made by Mr. Dilley and seconded by Mr. Kirkland, that the City advertise for bids on two Tennis court constructions in Donaldson Park Subdivision, Tourist Center. Upon roll call all members unanimously voted Aye.

The City Council instructed the clerk to proceed with plans for opening all City street leading from U.S. 27, and all streets in the Avon Park Camp, plus making plans for paving Pine Street from Fairfield to Highlands and Pine Street from U.S. 27 to City limit line.

Mr. Marion Grice, County Commissioner of District 1, is cooperating with the City in opening the streets at the Avon Park camp by furnishing dragline and dump trucks.

Dranes Office Supply of Sebring presented the best bid and received the order for eight desk chairs at $115 each, f.o.b. Avon Park. The chairs are to be used in the Council room.

Ceremonies At New Religious Ed. Building

Impressive ceremonies marked the setting of a granite tablet in the walls of the new Religious Education Building of the Union Congregational Church on Sunday morning, Jan. 26. The tablet bore the legend: "For Christian Education and Fellowship Erected A. D. 1957." Behind the tablet was an especially made canister containing historical items of the church history that will be of interest to some future generations.

The Rev. John E. Pickens opened the ceremonies with a prayer of Invocation. The Children's Choir sang. Robert Barben, Superintendent of Sunday Schools called for the special articles to be placed in the canister which when full was placed in the niche in the wall. Mrs. Robert E. Maysack, teacher of the Adult Bible Class, placed the first trowel of motar. Superintendent Barben followed with the second trowel and directed that the tablet be presented. Raymond Dilley, chairman of the arrangement committee, presented the tablet and Mrs. Lois Droit has announced that she will be at the Wells Motor Company on Saturdays, February 8 and 15, from 9 a.m. till 5 p.m. for the sale of 1958 Florida license tags. Mrs. Droit has been at Wells Motor Company from Monday through Friday each week since the tags went on sale, but she will remain open the last two Saturdays before the deadline, February 20.

All automobiles must have new tags by February 20, and at the present time less than half the number sold last year have been purchased. According to Roland X. Droit, only 4,000 tags have been sold in Highlands County this year.

Donald Hansen Elected 1959 President

Donald R. Hansen, Driver Education Instructor for Highlands County, was elected President of the Florida Driver Education and Safety Association for the year 1959 at the State Driver Education Conference held in Daytona Beach January 23, 24 and 25.

Mr. Hansen will represent Florida at the National Safety meeting at Purdue University, LaFayette, Indiana in June.

Commissioners Meet In Regular Session Tuesday

The Board of Highlands County Commissioners met Tuesday morning and agreed to issue checks to Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid for their portion of the Road and Bridge milliage, based on the valuations within the city limits. Checks will be issued up to the amount of last year's totals. Avon Park will receive $6,800; Sebring $5,800 and Lake Placid $450.

The Commissioners voted to give the Highlands County Fair Association $900 to be

All Florida Magazine Names Fashion And Retail Director

GRACE McELLIGOTT

The John H. Perry Newspapers have appointed fashion authority, Grace McElligott, to the editorial staff of the All Florida Magazine.

Miss McElligott will serve as Fashion Director for the publication, which is distributed each weekend by 21 Florida newspapers.

Stuart L. Patten, publisher of the magazine, stated: "We are indeed pleased to have Miss McElligott join us because her timely analysis of the national and international fashion scene will provide our 400,000 readers with the latest news and trends which are of such vital importance to the distaff readership of any publication."

Miss McElligott, formerly Executive Director of the Miami-Florida Fashion Council and special representative with Conde Nast publications will also act as Retail Merchandising Co-ordinator for All Florida at both the state and national level. She resigned four years ago as vice president of the I. J. Moritz Corporation in New York City to make her home in Florida.

Mrs. Norman Carlisle, wife of P. T. Carlisle, died at Walker Memorial Hospital Monday night, several hours after she and four other Avon Park women were injured in a two-car collision on U. S. Highway 27, just north of Howard Johnson's Restaurant on the outskirts of Sebring. She is the first fatality on the Highlands County highways for 1958.

The other women injured in the accident are reported in fair condition at Walker Memorial Hospital. They are Mrs. Vera Bass, Mrs. Perry Rouse, Mrs. Mildred Lindsay, Mrs. Sue Helms and Mrs. Clarence Kebb of South Bend, Ind., who was riding in the other car involved in the accident.

Mrs. Carlisle was a native of Portertown, Wis., and came to Avon Park 38 years ago from Bartow. She was a member of the Florida Avenue Baptist

Medicine In The Years Ahead

As usual, all manner of prognostications have appeared with the new year. A significant one is found in the January 4 issue of the Journal of the American Medical Association. Written by Dr. Julian P. Price, a practicing physician and an AMA trustee, it forecasts some of the changes that will take place in medicine in the next 30 years.

The trend toward specialization will continue, in Dr. Price's view. There will be an increase in group practice in clinics which are staffed and equipped to furnish complete care for the ambulatory patient. At the same time, a new type of general practitioner will emerge to care for those who want individual physicians for themselves and their families. His work will consist of internal medicine, pediatrics and psychiatry, with office procedures in orthopedics, gynecology and surgery.

The hospital building program will continue, with the emphasis on more hospitals in suburban areas and the smaller communities of the country. The large metropolitan hospitals will add sepcial wings for the care of the convalescent, the chronically ill, and the patient who needs rehabilitation.

On the scientific side of medicine, there will also be many changes. Due to the increasing number of older people, degeneratice diseases will become of greater and greater concern to the physician. Most of the communicable diseases, tuberculosis included, will probably be eradicated. Lukemia and certain types of cancer will be curable. Diabetes will be treated without injections. Various mental diseases will be controlled through drugs. There will be better understanding of all manner of physical plagues—arteriosclerosis, coronary disease, hypertension, and so on. And electronics and atomic energy will be used extensively in the diagnosis and treatment of disease.

It is a bright prospect that Dr. Price presents. And there can be small doubt that independent private medicine will achieve these and many other great goals.

Rivalling The Missiles

We're used to soaring things these days—jet planes, missiles, satellites. But on a more prosaic and personal level, the gasoline tax rivals them.

For instance, gasoline taxes collected in Arizona in just two days equal the total paid in the whole first year of the tax's enactment, which was 1921 in this state's case. And Arizona is not a special, isolated example. The same thing happens in Nevada in five days; in Oregon in three days; in Washington in five days; in California in eleven days, and so on. In more Easterly states the jump has been somewhat less. However, the taxes paid in most of the 48 states during January will equal the total taxes collected in the first year of their existence.

It's true, of course, that there are many more vehicles in use now than there were in the early 20's, when most states imposed gas taxes. But this only partially explains why gas tax collections from the driving public now run as much as 183 times the former figure. In the beginning, the tax was usually one cent a gallon or, as the most, two cents. There was no federal tax. Now the states impose taxes of five cents, six cents and more and a three cent federal tax goes on top of that.

One moral to be drawn from this record is that once government starts taxing a service or a commodity, there's virtually no limit to which it ultimately will not go. Another is that taxes are a far more important factor in setting the cost of many items than we generally realize. The price of gasoline, excluding taxes, is actually lower today than it was in the 20's, and quality is far better. But, in typical states, the taxes add a third or more to the cost.

Cart Before Horse

Once again, talk is going the rounds about the possibility of placing direct price controls on the U. S. economy. It is motivated by the fact that defense spending will be materially increased in the coming fiscal year—and that a new "emergency" may result.

One of the many troubles with this view is that it is based on a serious misapprehension—on the idea that direct control prices will stop inflation. The key to inflation is not price, but cost. As Rowland Jones, Jr. of the American Retail Federation puts it: "Unless all factors which make up cost including raw materials, fabrication and labor, are controlled at each phase, the control of price is but an empty gesture. The control of price without the control of cost will retain prices for goods which are not produced—and this shortage increases further black marketing operations engaged in by profiteers."

He also observes: "If increased defense spending is required, the place for control lies within the federal budget." In other words, unbridled government spending is in itself the most potent of inflationary forces. The cure lies in the most rigid possible curtailment of non-essential spending.

The only sound price for anything is the price which is established in a free and competitive market—the kind of market we now enjoy. And that is the only kind of market which will assure us of a dynamic economy, geared to meet all our needs. To talk about direct price controls as a bulwark against further inflation is to put the card before the horse with a vengeance.

SIKES MOVES IN - Two weeks ago we told how Congressman Bob Sikes had called a meeting of the Florida Delegation to urge a unified stand on military construction in Florida. And now, to further strengthen his hand, and protect vital building projects, Sikes has managed to have himself named vice-chairman of a special newly created subcommittee that will deal with all military construction. All appropriations dealing with military construction. All appropriations dealing with military construction will be in the hands of this small group. Sikes has been trying to strengthen our military year after year (he's a colonel in the reserves), and certainly his new position will give him opportunities to move in that direction.

CUTTING RED TAPE—Thanks to a bit of persuasive talking on the part of Senator Holland, thousands of starving cattle in Central Florida will be fed this week—without the necessity of their owners signing the usual "pauper's oath" for the grain.

Up until now, when a disaster area is set up and feed is distributed, a farmer hasn't been able to secure emergency feed unless he signd a paper saying he was broke. If he had any assets, he was expected to sell them. After that, the government might help if the man needed it. The principle was one which said that if you have three starving animals you should sell one to feed the other two.

In other cases, the processing of loans took so much time that the cattle could starve while waiting for the papers to clear through normal governmental channels. But Senator Holland this week prevailed on the Department of Agriculture to release food at once, without the oath and without the long drawn out red tape. Until February 5th, when the program will be reviewed, cattle feed in Central Florida will be handed out regardless of a farmer's ability to pay. Holland said, "Save the cattle first, then let's get the payments straightened out. This is an emergency." All of this feed is oats or corn from the Commodity Credit Corporation's vast stock of farm surplus.

HO HUM—There is a story going around Capitol Hill about the Congressman who told his friend about a dream he had the night before. He said, "I dreamed I was making a speech on the floor of the House, and when I woke up, I was." That is as bad as a speech I made not long ago in Pennsylvania. As I was about half way through my speech (had been talking about an hour), a fellow in the audience went to sleep. His wife tried to wake him up. She thumped him on the head with her thimble. He sat up and said, "Honey, you'll have to hit me harder than that. I can still hear him."

ROSY OUTLOOK?—Sooner or later, everything gets into politics. Now it is roses. Congressman Jim Davis, of Georgia, has introduced a bill to make the rose our national flower. That's all right with Georgia. Their state flower is the Cherokee Rose. But what about everybody else? What about the orange blossom? you'll never get 531 politicians to agree on one flower. Each will be under pressure from the folks back home to push for their favorite flower. And any way you look at it, the bill will never even get to a vote until somebody finds out whether a rose is Republican or Democratic. How can you vote until you know which side you are on?

WASHINGTON SCENE—Here for the annual meeting of the National Agricultural Limestone Institute was R. M. "Whit" Palmer, Jr., of Dolomite Products, Inc., Ocala. Seen in the Statler chatting with Florida Congressmen Bob Sikes, Jim Haley, and Syd Herlong.

The State Board of Conservation has a marine laboratory in St. Petersburg where constant research is conducted into the habits and life cycles of marine fishes.

Avon Park Campmeeting

The 18th session of the Avon Park Campmeeting which is in session in the northend of town had their annual missionary day yesterday with the afternoon service being in charge of the World Gospel Mission of Marion Indiana. Dr. George Warner was the main speaker. Miss Mildred Newman of the work in Africa was also on the program.

Although the weather this year has been very unseasonable yet folks have been to the camp from twelve states and a large group from Canada. The camp is interdenominational and some of the denominations have been: - Methodist, Baptist, Lutheran, Nazarene, Christian Missionary Alliance.

DR. QUINTON J. EVEREST

Prof. and Mrs. M. V. Lewis who have been workers at this camp in the past and he is on the board of control, this year they have charge of the morning praise service. Then at the ring meeting Mr. J. C. Burgher of Coatsville, Missouri has charge of this service before the evening preaching.

DR. T. M. ANDERSON

On Tuesday the annual board meeting was held with Dr. S. H. Turbeville the president in charge.

The campmeeting that is held here in our community is one of many such camps which are held in the summer time across America where people gather from different denominations. The purpose of these camps is to spread scriptural holiness. The evangelists this year are outstanding men in this field.

In the past year 56 lots have been sold to 26 different people. The camp is located on a forty acre plot of ground. There are now fourteen houses on the grounds with more to be built this season.

Girl Scout News

The Avon Park Girl Scouts had 38 girls present at their last meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Scout Hall in King's Court.

Sherry Wells, Song Leader, led the group in the singing of "Girl Scouts Together" and some other songs with Miss Sally Nute accompanying them on the piano.

Mrs. L. D. McGiboney presented a program of great interest to the girls when she explained how to care for the leaves and foliage used in flower arranging. She showed the girls how to make several arrangements and then gave them some principles of arranging. The Girl Scouts asked questions after the talk and a free discussion followed.

Mrs. Bob Lee and Mrs. H. N. Booth thanked the girls for their work on the March of Dime orange juice project. They especially thanked Miss Nute who worked with them all day long.

Refreshments were served of cokes and cookies by Mrs. Silkes mother of Scout Paulette Silkes. Miss Connie Booth assisted with the Scouts.

Mackeral are one of the most plentiful salt water game fishes, says the State Board of Conservation; and they are most readily caught on high tides along reefs off shore during winter and spring.

BALANCE IN NATURE

By The Bird Woman

Transplanting has also caused a problem in keeping nature in its original balance. The English Sparrow which has become such a pest in the north, was transplanted to this country because man thought he knew more about how to keep the balance of nature than the one who created all things perfect.

Also the starling which has been so distructive in the north, and is now coming our way, multiplies so rapidly and is so ruthless, that it drives away the wood peckers and a great many other useful birds in any area they decide to take over.

Then the domestic cat, which is listed as the greatest menace to birdlife was brought over from the dark recesses among the rocks and forests of the old world, where the Creator placed it to keep the rodents in check in their area, and they were tamed and made pets, and being very prolific and unfortunately neglected by so many of their owners, they follow their natural instinct to skulk and hunt, mostly at night.

Having been given eyes for night hunting, for that is the time when the rodents they intended to keep in check, hunted their food, and being on the lazy side, they find it easier to climb a tree and eat all the birds in a nest than to forage for rodents.

So with so many uncared for cats at large it is no wonder that we are constantly asked, what has become of so many of our birds.

There are many more instances we could mention of transplanting, but they all fall short of serving any useful purpose.

There are different schools of thought on what to do with predators, after realizing that most of the unbalance has been brought about by ourselves.

I recently read an article on spraying for mosquitoes around Tampa by Herbert Mills of the National Audubon Society, who was in that area to observe, and it gave some very revealing statistics of the harm done to wild life as the result of spraying with D.D.T.

He says "Although the toll of wild life has been incalculable, mosquitoes have increased to mock the wantonness and bigotry of man".

Fiddle crabs died by the thousands as did also the blue crabs, and thousands of fiddle crabs a half mile to the leeward of the nearest spraying area were also killed. After several sprayings, thousands of killifish were found dead in one area, five hundred were picked up in an area of two hundred square feet, and many dead water snakes were also found.

He says if snakes were killed suddenly by such a small dosage of D.D.T. what chronic or cumulative effects also less sudden and dramatic may be assumed to occur in higher vertebrate life such as birds and mammals?

These also suffer indirectly because of the effect on their food supply.

Naturally the Audubon and Fish and wild life service have made suggestions that would let the natural enemies of the mosquito take care of the situation in the normal way.

The formidable opposition for other methods of mosquito control comes from the vested interests-the insecticide business, job holders, and related commerce.

It is known that some insects, and this includes mosquitoes, set up an immunity to D.D.T. and we cannot assume that these sprayings kill only harmful insects, for we have many friendly insects which prey on scale and harmful insects and their larvae, which are also killed by this spray.

And one, who has a fish pond containing gold fish, knows that mosquitoes do not breed in such a pool, for if and when the mosquito eggs are deposited in the water of the pool, the gold fish immediately eat them.

Neither do mosquitoes breed in the shallow water of a lake if the minnows and other small fish have access to the area.

The common sense theory seems to be to make shallow ditches in the infested areas large enough for killifish and any small fish or minnows to be admitted, and protect the dragonflies and birds, and let the natural enemies of the mosquito take care of the situation, and not disturb the whole balance of nature in those areas.

It reminds us of the simple minded boy, who burned down his mothers chicken house to get rid of the chicken mites!

We hear so many people say that they kill every hawk they see, there are really two species of hawks that are really destructive, and they are the sharp shinned and Cooper's hawk, for they eat our small birds, as well as the farmers poultry, but many other hawks feed on ground squirrels, field mice and similar rodents which are very harmful to field and pastures, so if you are determined to kill hawks, be sure of the identify of the hawk, before you start to hunt, and as so many hawks are similar, it really takes some one who is quite familiar with them to distinguish between them.

And if it were possible to remove all the hawks we would soon find that we were faced with a greater dilemma than we had before.

Maas Bros. Of Lakeland To Present Jr. Womans' Club Fashion Show

At the monthly meeting of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club February 4th a delightful skit, written and introduced by Mrs. Fred Mondadeocs and starring Mrs. Burton Ostling, Mrs. David Lanier, Mrs. Robert Barben, Mrs. Robert Young and Mrs. Jeff Barrow, preceded the report by Mrs. Donald Ford of the final plans for the annual Junior Woman's Club Fashion Show which is to be put on by Maas Brothers of Lakeland at Pinecrest February 19th. The skit portrayed Mrs. Ostling as the doctor and the other four as patients bemoaning the fact that they weren't asked to bake cookies, arrange flowers, model or press clothes for the Fashion Show. Dr. Ostling was able to prescribe the selling of tickets as a solution to their problems and tickets were distributed to each member. In her report, Mrs. Ford announced that table reservations for parties who wish to sit together at the Fashion Show can be made through calling her or Mrs. Montsdeocs before Monday, February 17th. She also told the club that Mrs. Priscilla Parker, Fashion Consultant from New York City, who has done shows from New York to Miami, will be the commentator and Mr. Berger of Maas is in charge of staging the show. There will be exceptional fashions to delight the eye and taste of everyone as well as a wonderful show and a big turnout is expected to be at Pinecrest February 19th from 3 till 5 o'clock. This is the only show done by Maas in the Central Florida area.

Mrs. Andrew Miracle gave the devotional and called for help in sending to the migrant workers in the Immokalee area. The President, Mrs. Kirkland, announced that Mrs. Jeff Barrow has been appointed as Emergency Relief Chairman and she urged club members to take clothes and food to the Fire Station where they will be transported by truck to Immokalee. The proceeds from rummage sales last month by Mrs. T. O. Martin were donated by the club to the migrant workers.

An announcement was made by the Playground Committee that equipment in Donaldson Park is being cleaned and repaired and construction of tennis courts will be started soon.

The Girl Scout Committee announced that average attendance at meetings is 36 out of 40 and urged interested persons to meet at the Florida Power Customers Room Thursday, February 6th, for a meeting of the Ridge Area Girl Scout Committee to form a council to buy equipment and train leaders.

Mrs. David Lanier thanked the club members who worked on the Mothers March of Dimes and announced $210.94 was collected.

It was mentioned that the club will again have a booth at the Grand Prix races in Sebring in March and a good location is assuerd.

Mrs. Steven Samergedes announced that club members have been asked to help man the Avon Park booth at the Highlands County Fair and requested that interested persons get in touch with her or Mrs. Kirkland.

An interesting program was presented with Miss Jan Saylor, who attended Girls State in Tallahassee, as speaker. Miss Saylor gave highlights of her trip and everyone enjoyed her speech very much.

Guest of the evening was Mrs. Vernon Lanier.

The Executive Board submitted for vote the recommendation that the club sponsor a Follies in co-operation with Cargill Productions of New York next Fall or Winter which was passed with much enthusiasm. Mrs. Kirkland thanked the participants from Avon Park who were in the Avon Park Number of the Sebring Follies.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Jeff Barrow, Mrs. J. C. Walker and Mrs. Guy Garrett.

Patriots Chapter Gives Libraries The Golden Book Of America

Patriots Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution announced Monday at their regular February meeting that their gift this year to the Public Libaries of Sebring and Avon Park, also the High School Libraries of Lake Placid, Avon Park and Sebring would be "The Golden Book of America", adapted from the American Heritage series.

The February third meeting of Patriots Chapter was held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Enzor of Sebring with the Regent, Mrs. Walter H. Mather presiding.

The President General's message for this month was read by Mrs. J. H. Hahn and Mrs. Maude Borda, chairman of Community affairs gave an up to the minute report on her committee's work, also on Indiana affairs.

Mrs. C. R. Disher and Mrs. Clyde C. Swihart were elected as delegates to the Florida State Conference to be held in Clearwater, April 1-3 with Mrs. C. E. Lanier, Mrs. Wm. Schaeffer, Mrs. Guignard Maxcy and Mrs. Maude Borda as alternates. Also attending this meeting will be the Regent, Mrs. Mather and Mrs. G. H. Burnette, past regent and a member of the State Resolutions Committee.

Judges for this year's "History Essay Contest" are Mrs. T. T. Flanders, Mrs. Maude Borda and Mrs. G. H. Burnette. Patriots Chapter each year promotes "better government through education" by giving a bond to the winner of this contest, which is open to the 8th grade students of Highlands County, receiving an "A" in their first semester's work in history.

Mrs. G. H. Burnette in the absence of Mrs. W. H. Arenson, chairman on National Defense, gave an enlighten talk on Income Taxes, reading excerpts from the Congressional records on the proposed 23rd. amendment to the Constitution and the joint house bill 355.

The book "The Scotch Irish of Colonial Pennsylania" by Wayland F. Dunaway was the choice of Mrs. Howard L. Livingston review for the afternoon. Mrs. Livingston very ably traced the history and trials of these early settlers through from the 17th century, enlivening facts with many antidotes.

Mrs. H. O. Jones was welcome as a new member and Mrs. Hugh Turner, Mrs. W. R. Dow, Mrs. McCullen and Miss Maxcy introduced as guests.

During the social hour that followed Mrs. Enzor was assisted by Mrs. E. T. Flanders, Mrs. Guignard Maxcy, Mrs. F. H. Nickeson and Miss Margaret Crowe with Mrs. Mather presiding at the beautifully appointed tea table.

The next meeting will be held March third at the Jacaranda Hotel in Avon Park, with a guest luncheon commemorating the organization of Patriots Chapter in 1954.

Miss Jane Maxwell Honored With Linen Shower

A linen shower for Miss Jane Maxwell who will become the bride of Walter R. Day on Feb. 22, was held at the home of Mrs. John Hutchinson on Lake Lotela on Monday night, Feb. 3.

Mrs. Fred Reddick and Mrs. Hutchinson were hostesses to a number of Jane's friends and their mothers. Upon their arrival the guests played several original games with each prize winner winning a small gift for the bride-elect. Mrs. Hayes Maxwell won the prize for a word scramble game in which the unscrambled words were the names of articles found in the kitchen. A Bride's Bingo with appropriate words instead of numbers was played and several other games were also used during the evening.

White camellias were used for decoration and the guests were served unusual and delicious refreshments. Whole fresh strawberries were used to make Sundaes of the guest's choice and the coffee was served in dainty demmitassee cups from Mrs. Reddick's large collection.

Miss Maxwell received many lovely and useful gifts for her new home from her friends. A highlight of the shower for the bride-elect and the guests was the gift of some linen napkins belonging to Miss Maxwell's paternal great-great grandmother which are more than seventy-five years old by Mrs. Hayes Maxwell to her daughter. Another interesting gift was received by the bridegroom-elect from the hostesses, a dish scraper.

Invited guests were Miss Arlene Sargent, Mrs. Charles Sargent, Miss Susan Jane Brown, Mrs. R. L. Brown, Mrs. Richard Derkman, Mrs. Roland Dilley, Mrs. John Crittenden, Miss Frances Fisher, Miss Nancy Ginn, Mrs. Virgil Hall, Jr., Miss Sandra Williams, Miss Faye Gordon, Mrs. Guy Bolt, Mrs. Jack White, Miss Delores Stokey, Miss Nancy Matylas, Mrs. M. J. Peterson, Mrs. Harold Carrin, Mrs. Jack Ingle, Miss Edris Durrance, Miss Lolia Johnson, Mrs. H. M. Flowers, Mrs. J. F. Sellers, Mrs. Harold Greenway, Mrs. Fred Montsdeoca, Mrs. Roy Seims, Mrs. William Canon and Miss Donna Sue Pounds.

Sr. Woman's Club To Serve Lunch

The public is cordially invited to have lunch at the Woman's Club Building on Friday, Feb. 7, at noon for $.60 per person.

The meal will be prepared and served by the members of the Avon Park Senior Woman's Club.

The regular February meeting of the club will follow the luncheon.

Dr. Ruth Phillips will give an illustrated talk on "Historical Virginia" which will cover both Jamestown and Williamsburg.

Come in and be "Whisked"

Does the interior of your car sometimes look like a sand-trap combined with a rat's nest—with just a little touch of children's playground? Most cars get that way at one time or another... especially where there are kids and pets. If so, come in and be "whisked."

Whiskbrooming your car's interior so it is spick and span is just one of the little "extras" you can expect when you drive in to a Phillips 66 Station.

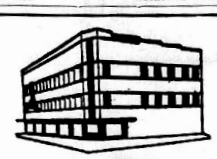

Another service your Phillips 66 Dealer will gladly perform is to clean your windows all the way around!

"Teen-Town Talk"

Teen-Towners met 95 strong Saturday night, February 1st. Among that number were several out-of-town college students. Sorry, didn't get the names! But keep coming. If membership keeps increasing, we'll expand the walls.

The Finalists in the Ping Pong Tournament were Wendell Williams and Phil Landress. Championship game to be played off next Saturday night, the prize to be donated by Eaton's Department Store.

Many thanks to the volunteer chaperones for the evening. They included Judge Rehrer, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wells and Mrs. Aileen Parnell. Anyone willing to help out this coming Saturday, call Mrs. Coats at 2-7501, or just come on out.

Congregational Church News

The Council of Women's Fellowship of the Church met Monday morning, Feb. 3, in the Union Congregational Church.

The Women's Fellowship Council is a coordinating organization for the Ladies Aid, Covenant Circle, and Evening Circle, and includes all the women of the church. The Council is an executive group made up of representatives from all these groups.

Officers of the council are: Mrs. John P. Jockinsen, Pres.; Mrs. C. E. Tish, Sec-Trea.; Mrs. J. L. Townsend, Membership Chairman; Mrs. A. W. Miracle, Devotional Life Chairman; Mrs. J. E. Pickens, Stewardship Chairman; Mrs. M. F. Parry, Family Life Chairman; Mrs. Charles Shepherd and Mrs. Ralph Kelley, Friendly Service Chairmen; Mrs. P. A. Erickson, Missionary Education Chairman; Mrs. John Garber, Social Action; Mrs. S. O. Norris and Mrs. Cecil Ogden, Ladies Aid; Mrs. H. C. Krenerick and Mrs. George Langman, Coventant Circle; and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer and Mrs. Arlin King, Evening Circle.

The council is at present calling on all members of the church.

On next Tuesday, Feb. 11, Mrs. J. J. Jockinsen will entertain the Council and the Council of the Board of Directors of the State Women's Fellowship with a tea at her home from 2 until 5 o'clock. The state group will be present for a meeting at Lake Byrd Lodge also.

The council will meet once a month and plans to hold a meeting of some sort for all the women of the church about four times a year. There will be a luncheon on March 3 given by the Council for all the women in the new Educational Building.

Forty-four members and guests of the Men's Fellowship enjoyed a baked ham supper prepared by John and Howard Clark in the Parish House on Monday, Feb. 3.

After the meal Robert Barben, Program chairman for the evening, introduced Lester Benson of the Weather Bureau in Lakeland. Mr. Benson gave a very interesting and timely talk on the Frost Warning Service and the weather in general. The Frost Warning Office in Lakeland is one of two maintained by the Weather Bureau and their service has been invaluable to all forms of agriculture in this area.

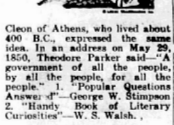

The Ladies Aid will hold their regular monthly meeting with a covered dish luncheon at noon on Wednesday, Feb. 12, in the Parish House.

At this time each member is asked to bring some canned food or articles of clothing for the migrant farmers in Immokalee.

Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. P. C. Boney and Mrs. Ray Rutherford.

The first Marine Helicopter Squadron was commissioned at Quantico, Va., in December 1947.

Eulora Kelley Celebrates With Weiner Roast

Many friends gathered for a weiner roast and birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelley on Saturday night, Feb. 1, in order to help Eulora Kelley celebrate her sixteenth birthday.

The boys and girls played games and then roasted weiners in the yard. For dessert they enjoyed some beautifully decorated birthday cake and ice cream.

Bridal Shower Honors Kay Mizelle

Miss Kay Mizelle, bride-elect of Haakon Jonasen, was honored with a lovely Bridal Shower on Thursday evening, Jan. 30, in Wesley Hall of the First Methodist Church.

Upon arrival each guest was given a paper and pencil so she could write some advice to the bride and give her her favorite receipe. This gave everyone a lot of fun and Miss Mizelle received some excellent advice and receips.

An old fashion umbrella adorned the bride-elect's chair and streamers were attached to the chair and ran to the gifts that were hidden about the room. Helping Miss Mizelle open her many lovely and useful gifs were Misses Pat Basemore and Long.

The guests were served delicious homemade cakes, coffee, hot Chocolate, mints, and nuts from a table decorated with blue and white streamers. Miss Mizelle was given a corsage of white camellias to wear.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Hubert Bussard, Mrs. T. O. Martin and Mrs. Hayes Maxwell.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Church Leadership Conference of the Orange Blossom Association of Baptist Churches was held at the Florida Avenue Baptist Church on Monday, Jan. 27, beginning at 3:30 in the afternoon.

The Rev. Phil Maxwell of Tampa and Dr. J. W. Storer of Oklahoma were the principal speakers at the conference. Supper was served to the 104 persons present by the host church after which conferences on each age group in the Sunday school plant were held.

A large number of young people attended the Revival at Saturday night as it was associational youth night.

The Donna McClelland Circle held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. D. Fletcher on Monday afternoon, Jan. 27, with six members and one visitor present.

During the business meeting the group decided to sponsor a child at the Baptist Children's Home in Lakeland by sending a donation each month to help the child get necessary items.

The Bible Study was on the 1st and 2nd Chapters of Acts.

Red Devils Lose Two Games Last Week

The Avon Park Red Devil Varsity lost in both outings on home court last week, suffering a colossal 76-43 loss to a superior Highlander Five from Lake Wales last Tuesday night and then losing a heartbreaker by one point to Arcadia on Friday night with a score of 48-47.

The fast and furious Highlanders tossed into the buckets at will outscoring the Devils in every quarter during the stomping.

The Highlanders persistent penetration was deep as they went on for thirty-seven points during the second half to Avon Park's twenty-seven.

The Friday night encounter with the Arcadia Bulldogs was a closer tilt, but again the Devils made a feeble attempt to unseat the Bulldogs. They outscored the Devils 10 to 4 in the first period with only Tom Bass and Ben Earnest finding the mark. The Bulldogs again outscored the Devils in the second period 10 to 9 with Hovey, Bass and Rouse making the talleys. At the end of the half Arcadia led 20 to 13.

The fourth period saw improved marksmanship on the part of the Devils and the two teams paced one another for the talleys with one team ahead by one point and then the other. In the final minutes Buddy Yarbrough flipped in the winning basket and Arcadia won 48 to 47.

Paul M. Jordan Leads Revival At Christian Church

Paul M. Jordan of the Central Christian Church of Tampa will be the evangelistic speaker at the Revival in the new First Christion Church which begins on Monday, Feb. 10 and will continue each evening at 7:30 through Friday, Feb. 21.

Mr. Jordan is an outstanding minister and speaker and will bring messages of interest to all. The public is cordially invited to attend all or any of these meetings.

Ralph Fisher, Minister of the Lake Wales First Christian Church, will be in charge of the music during the first week of the revival. Accompanying him will be Don McCaulley, Choir Director and his Choir from the Lake Wales Church. Mrs. Don McCaulley will be the pianist and special music is planned for the meetings.

A nursery will be open each evening for the young children at the church, John A. Scott, Minister of the Christian Church, extends a cordail invitation to all to attend the services. A membership roll will be started the first night of the revival and all those who join the church during this two week period will be considered charter members of the church.

The First Christian Church is located on Highway 27 North in the old Pilgrim Holiness Church Building.

Blues Win Benefit Game

The Girls "A" and "B" Teams of Avon Park High Shool played a benefit game for the March of Dimes last Friday afternoon in the High School Gymnasium.

All high school students attended and donations were taken up for the March of Dimes Fund.

The girls were divided into two teams, the Blues and the Whites. The Blues were victorious over the Whites in the four (short) quarters game, winning by a score of 20 to 7.

Teams Travel This Week

The Avon Park Varsity and the Girls "A" team will go on the road Friday night to take on the Kathleen Red Devils in Kathleen. Game time is 7:30 p.m., and both teams will be after a win, especially the boys who have lost in the last two outings.

The teams will be at home next Tuesday night when they play a return engagement as hosts to the Fort Meade Miners and Minerettes.

They will try to repeat the previous contests, both teams having over the luckless Fort Meade teams earlier in the season. It could be a battle with the girls since word has been received that the Minerettes have improved tremendously since the first of the season. The floor play will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Haley Opens Bartow Office

Congressman James A. Haley announced today that his district office will be located in the Professional Building, 113 East Main Street, Bartow, across the street from the Polk County Courthouse.

The office will be in charge of R. Elmo Hood of Winter Haven, recently appointed by Mr. Haley as his administrative assistant, and will be open each morning, Mondays through Friday and during the afternoons by appointment.

Congressman Haley stated that the office is being opened and maintained to better serve the people of Polk, Highlands, Hardee, Desoto, Manatee and Sarasota Counties which comprise his 7th Congressional District.

Jayvees Defeat Arcadia 36-31

The Avon Park Jayvees entertained the Arcadia Jayvees last Friday afternoon and sent them home winless as the Little Devils capped the game 36-31.

Arcadia, however, outscored the Avon Park Jayvees in both the first and second quarters, to take a 17-12 half time lead. The inspired Avon Five came back during the third period to score nine points to Arcadia's four and tie the game 21-21 at the end of the timed spiree.

The Avon Park quintet, led by Phil Landress in the fourth, and aided by Bryan Kempton, racked up 15 points to the Bulldogs 10.

Elem. P. T. A. Will Not Meet

The Avon Elementary P.T.A. will not meet in February because of the coming operetta, "Fairies Are Really Truly", the operetta, will be presented on Thursday, Feb. 20 in the afternoon and on Friday, Feb. 21, in the evening. All parents and friends are asked to remember this date and attend.

Brownie Scout Troop News

Troop 3 of the Brownies held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon in the Brownie Building in Woodruff Heights. At this time the girls sewed and played games. During the next month Mrs. Roy Ladwig will be in charge of the program and the Brownies will have as one of their projects the making of clever Easter purses for themselves.

In Troop 3 in order to get their Friendship Pins each Brownie is asked to serve refreshments to the group of 24 for not more than $1.00. Two girls must work together and decide on, prepare and serve these refreshments. At the last meeting Arlene King and Nancy Wright received their pins for the delicious brownies and cool aid they served the girls.

Troop 4 made Valentine's at their regular meeting on Saturday morning in the Brownie Building and they also discussed their exciting trip to the fire station the week before.

Futher discussion disclosed that the girls would like to visit Sand Mountain, the phone office, and the Avon Park Sun for side trips. At their next meeting they will finish the valentines and have a Valentine Patry the following week.

Delicious refreshments were served the Brownies by Mrs. Betsy Holden.

Troop 5 of the Brownies did liquid embroidery on their aprons and hemmed them at their meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the Brownie Building.

During the part of the meeting the Brownies were instructed about their coming cooking session with Miss Faye Gordon in the Florida Power Service Room next week.

The girls had their flag ceremony and played games, and hot chocolate and cookies were served by Mrs. Aden Childress.

Cub Scout News

The Cub Scout Pack Meeting for January on Thursday, Jan. 30, in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium was attended by a large number of Cub Scouts, families and friends.

Den 3 won the attendance banner with the most persons present.

The Cub Scout theme for the month of January was the producing of plays, shows, and movies and each of the four four dens presented a clever skit along this line. Den 1 had a short skit showing Steve Allen on the Ed Sullivan T. V. Show. Den 2 presented a skit on the movies and Den 3 used movie actors as the theme for their skit. Den 4 had a shadow screen with the Cubs performing medical operation behind it.

Mrs. Philip Weber is the new den mother for Den 4.

A large number of Cub Scouts received awards for their achievements from Cubmaster Jack DeLaney. Receiving awards in Den 1 were Gary Bennett, 1 year pin; Chuck Warrington, 1 year pin; Robert King, 1 year pin and Bear Badge; Steve Seims, 1 year pin; Mike Noland, 1 year pin; Jay DeShong, 1 year pin and Bear Badge; Eddie DeLaney, 2 year pin; Jim Chestnutt, Bobcat pin. Awards in Den 2: Bobby Coleman, 1 years pin and Wolf Badge; Billy Miracle, 2 year pin; Keith Albritton, 2 year pin and Silver Arrow; Mike Duggan, 2 year pin; Bobby Border, 1 year pin, Gold and Silver arrow; and Jimmie Renfro, Bear Badge. Awards in Den 3: David Ward, 2 Gold Arrows, 1 Silver Arrow, and 2 year pin; Lance Padgett, 3 year pin; Pep Hutchinson, 3 year pin; Tommy Sharpe, Wolfe Badge; Jim Ward, Bear Badge; and Jeffrey Stokey, Bobcat Pin. In Den 4 Bill Wild received his 1 year pin.

Aux. To Meet

The Women's Auxiliary of the American Legion will hold its regular meeting on Monday, Feb. 10, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ben Stewart on Lake Avenue North.

Important business will be carried on during the meeting and all members are urged to attend this meeting. Mrs. Stewart will be hostess for the evening.

Nurses To Meet

District No. 27 of the Florida Nurses Association will meet at Walker Memorial Hospital on Monday night, Feb. 10, at 7:30 o'clock.

Don Hansen, Director of Civil Defense for Highlands County, will be the speaker and he will explain and discuss the civil defense program for this area.

All registered nurses are invited and urged to attend this important meeting.

Nancy Wright Entertains At Picnic Supper

Nancy Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, entertained a group of her friends from the fourth and fifth grades with a weiner roast and party at her home at Pinecrest on Friday evening, Jan. 31.

About twenty boys and birls were Nancy's guests for the picnic supper and games afterward. After supper the group roasted marshmellows over the fire. Mrs. Wright helped her daughter with the guests.

Fiirst Methodist Church News

Eighty five families of the First Methodist Church enjoyed a Fellowship Supper on Wednesday evening, Jan. 29, in Wesley Hall.

Dr. Hutchins introducted the Missionary Church Study Book "Lands of Decision" which is being used by all Methodist Churches in the United States to the group, Miss Peggy Bussard then led the group in the singing of some gospel songs.

The delicious supper was prepared by the ladies of the Women's Society for Christian Service.

The various circles of the church will hold their regular monthly meeting next week. Circle 2 will gather at the home of Mrs. I. H. Ford on Lake Lotela for their meeting at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11. Circle 3 meets at the home of Mrs. Robert Duthie, 148 N. Forrest Ave., at 9:30 on Tuesday morning. Son-In-Law Of Local Resident Honored

Fred Jones, son-in-law of Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine of Avon Park, has received high praise from the seven judges of the Experimental Opera Theatre of America in New Orleans where he auditioned recently.

An article by Sim Myers in the New Orleans Times Picayune says:

"When he finished singing the seven judges got together and proclaimed as a unit that the 30-year-old Jones could become the greatest dramatic tenor the world has even known.

"Jones, who auditioned as a bass-baritone, told members of the judging panel: I know I'm really a tenor, but I haven't the money to study.

"He will be one of the finalists Saturday and between now and then each of the judges determined to see if there is some way to make a scholarship available for the young man's vocal studies.

"Jones who lives in New York with his wife and child, appears frequently in Broadway musicals and takes what other singing engagements he can."

Frank Earl Marsh, head of the Fine Arts Department of Mississippi Southern where Mr. Jones graduated said that Jones is going places. He graduated from college in 1949 and and was awarded a full scholarship to the Julliard School of Music in New York where he studied with Bernard Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones and daughter are planning a visit to Avon Park in the near future. Mrs. Jones and her daughter will stay for a visit of a month with her mother, Mrs. McKelvaines.

Surprise House Warming For Grubers

Mr. and Mrs. Eldred Gruber and their daughter, Jean, were surprised with a housewarming given by their friends and relatives on Saturday night, Feb. 1.

The Grubers have recently moved into their newly built home on Walnut Street and were completely surprised when some of their friends dropped in for the surprise party on Saturday night. The group gave the family a gift for their new home.

During the evening bridge, canasta, and pinochle were played with prizes for each table. Mrs. Clay Kull and Mrs. Duke Christensen, hostesses for the surprise, served the guests and the Grubers pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

Everyone enjoyed the delightful evening. About thirty guests were present.

The Remora is the "hitch-hiker" of the Gulf Stream. This fish attaches himself to the sailfish, shark and marlin. The suction cup atop his head fastens securely to his host.

Do You Have

POT ROAST

A rich brown roast barbecued in a kettle on the kitchen range a real western treat.

2 tablespoons flour
1 (4 pound) beef pot roast
1 cup canned tomatoes
1 cup water
2 cloves garlic
1 tablespoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 cup sliced onions
¼ cup vinegar
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup catsup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon Worchestershire sauce
1 teaspoon mustard
¼ teaspoon paprika

Rub flour on meat; brown well on all sides in heavy kettle. Slip rack under meat. Add tomatoes, water, garlic, salt and pepper. Cover, simmer 2 hours.

Combine remaining ingredients. Pour over meat; cover and simmer until tender, 1 to 1½ hours.

To serve, remove meat to warm platter, and keep warm while dumplings steam.

DUMPLINGS

¾ cup sifted flour
½ cup cornmeal
1½ teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
2 tablespoon melted shortening or salad oil

While meat is cooking, sift together flour, cornmeal, baking powder and salt. Set Aside.

Shortly before serving time, stir in milk and shortening just until dry ingredients are moistened. Drop by large spoonfuls into boiling pot roast sauce. Cook uncovered over low heat 10 minutes, then tightly covered 10 minutes.

Serve at once with sliced pot roast and sauce. Makes 6 servings. Serve pronto for dumplings never wait.

Recent news from Lt. (j. g.) David J. Thigpen who is a jet pilot aboard the aircraft carrier S. S. Ticonderoga in the South Pacific gives some interesting pictures of Japan and the Philippine Islands. He says Japan is clean, modern, and lovely with very courteous and friendly people. Transportation and food are very cheap there and he rode with another officer for six hours on many trolleys and back home for 30 cents. In the Philippines the roads are bad conditions unsanitary, and a heavy guard must be maintained around the naval base at all time to protect them from the guerialias. Still farther back in the mountains there are still several tribes of head hunters. Due to the many typhoons this year the carrier has had to remain at sea a large part of the time. They expect to be between Hong Kong, Japan, Okinawa, and other islands in these groups until May. Lt. Thigpen likes the service and is very happy in his chosen career. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Thigpen of Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Luybem former residents of Penna. arrived Tuesday to make their home at Avon Park Lakes.

DID YOU KNOW?

By DALE I. ROYAL, Evangelist
Avon Park Church of Christ

Did you know that Christians can be one even as the Father and the son are one? Just before Christ was crucified He poured out his heart to the Father in these words, "Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one; as thou, Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be on in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." John 17:20, 21. If it is impossible for Christians to be one, then would it not follow that our Lord asked for something he knew could not come to pass?

The sad part of this prayer of Christ is that so few of his professing followers (regardless of church affiliation) are willing to work earnestly and sincerely to see that this prayer is answered. When Christians pray for their daily bread, do they just sit back and wait for it to drop from the heavens Then how can we expect the prayer of Jesus to be answered unless we, as those interested in being one as our Lord wants us to be, strive to answer this wonderful prayer?

Dale I. Royal, Evangelist

SE Regional Conference At Lake Byrd Lodge

Lake Byrd Lodge will be the meeting place on Feb. 11-13 for lay people and ministers from Congregational Christian and Evangelical and Reformed Churches at the Southeastern Regional Meeting which meets every two years and traditionally here in Avon Park at Lake Bryd Lodge.

Laymen and ministers from churches from Louisianna to Virginia and from Kentucky to Florida will share in the program. Outside speakers include the Rev. Stanley U. North, of the Board of Home Missions; Miss Fern Babcock and the Rev. Herman F. Reisig of the Council for Christian Social Action of the United Church of Christ, and Dr. Ernest A. Shepherd, Director of the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program.

Among the themes to be discussed are the following: alcoholism, social welfare, creative use of leisure and retirement time, politics and international relations, Southern problems as seen by Southern Christians.

Seventh Day Adventist News

The Missionary Volunteers Officers of the Walker Memorial Sanitorium Church and the Sebring Adventist Church held the Lightbearer's Dedication Service at the Chapel at Highlands Lakes on Friday evening, Jan. 31, as the 1957 officers, Miss Frances Ann Hartwell and Mrs. Dorothy Arnold, passed the lighted tapers to this year's officers, Robert Werry and Mrs. Hilda Carlson.

The Missionary Volunteers are a group in the Adventist Churches for the ages of sixteen through thirty. Other new officers of the group are Ann Tompkins, Sec.; Ruth Trawick, Ass. Sec., Carol Schmidt, Pianist; Billie Jean Hudson, Ast. Pianist; and Nobel Carlson, chorister.

Pastor William C. Arnold gave a charge to the new officers and Robert Werry responded, after which Mrs. Carlson sang "I Will Follow Thee My Lord". The congregation then joined in the service with a response and went forward for the lighting of their candles and the remainder of the impressive service was conducted by candlelight.

The Bible's imperative for social action will also be presented and get social action started in the local church will be studied.

Winter Guest Club News

We have received so many requests for the clever parody Mrs. Tom Johnston wrote for our 50-anniversary couples that we decided to print it so you could have a copy:

On the Avon Guest Club veranda
There sat Silas and Miranda
Watching license plates go by.
Said he, "Dearie, let's be cheery,
For our life is far from dreary
Since we shuffle, dance, and eat pie."
Said she, "I like the gladness, Silas, not a life of sadness
But it's fifty years today since we were wed."
Then the old man's eyes were brightened
And his young old tanned face lightened
As he turned to her and said.
Chorus:
Put on your southern bonnet
With the white azaleas on it
While I bring our old bus cross the way
And through the groves of citrus
We will let our new car whisk us
On our golden wedding day.
On the same Guest Club veranda
The same Silas and Miranda
Just forgot the days gone by.
Said he, "Dearie, don't be weary
Let's keep our life bright and cherry
Don't let tear drops dim your eye."
Said she, "They're not tears of sadness
Silas, they are tears of gladness
It is Fifty years today since we were wed."
Then the old man's flush was heightened
And his face was young and brightened
As he looked at her and said.
Chorus:
Put on your southern bonnet
With the white azaleas on it
While I buy a Mercury cross the way
And through the groves of citrus
We will let our new car whisk us
On our golden wedding day."

Marie Robertson Johnston.

In spite of, or maybe because of, the continued cold weather interest in shuffleboard games remains at a high pitch. The January men's trophy was won by E. Gruber. Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Grimshaw tied for the ladies' trophy and on the play-off Mrs. Warner emerged the winner. Congratulations to these new entrants to the hall of fame. Wednesday's pick-your-partner tournament was won by Messrs. Goodwin and Leonard when they edged out H. Gibson and J. Hayes. On Saturday's potluck event the men had things their way again; Messrs. Keiter and Shauger finally edged out Dorothy Collins and Mr. Fenstermann.

Tuesday's bridge game on January 28 saw the biggest number of players ever in attendance; ten tables there were. Mrs. Hickey and Mrs. Fenstermaker were the lucky ones who won the door prizes while E. Hawkins and M. Todd had high and second-high scores respectively.

On Thursday evening another record crowd gathered for the home-talent program; we don't have a copy of it to print but, from all accounts, it was another smash hit. Leave it to Mrs. Book and Mrs. Williams to plan interesting, excellend entertainment.

For the serious-minded member there are three classes each week: Tuesday, dancing; Thursday, art; Friday, bridge. These classes have much to offer for the experienced person as well as the beginner. These chilly mornings it's hard to get out, we know, but you will be well rewarded for your efforts.

Next Tuesday, February 11, the shuffleboard club from Arcadia will be here for a tournament, beginning at 1:30. Let's hope the weatherman cooperates so we can be comfortably warm while playing and spectating.

Friday evenings' dance crowd is getting almost out of hand, not because of any delinquents, you understand, but because of numbers. We will very likely have to build a few shelves to accomodate everyone; however, our motto has always been, "The more the merrier." It wouldn't be Florida if we weren't having record-breaking crowds at this time of the year. Add to this the fact that over 30 beginners have received square-dance instruction since November and you can readily see why we are a trifle pinched for space.

Nearly one hundred folk attended last Saturday's potluck supper; needless to say, none went away hungry. These suppers provide an excellent way for you to meet fellow club members and get better acquainted.

Mrs. Bennett Civic Garden Leader Dies

Mrs. David Richard Bennett of 1934 Westminister Way, NE died Thursday a. m. at the Ga. Baptist Hospital) in Atlanta.

Mrs. Bennett, the former Juliette Todd, was a native of Rome, Ga. She attended the Rome public schools, Shorter College and was a graduate of the University of Georgia.

She was a member of the Emory Baptist Church, the Baron DeKalb Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a former member of the National Association of Accountants, a former Brownie leader and had been active in civic and garden club activities in her community.

Funeral services were held at 3:30 p. m. Friday, Jan. 31 at the chapel of the Daniel Funeral Home of Rome. Dr. Bunyan Stephens and the Rev. W. Forrest Lanier officiated. Burial was in the family plot at Myrtle Hill Cemetery in Rome.

Surviving are her Husband, Richard Bennett, Miss Ann Bennett, Atlanta; two brothers, Junius L. Todd, Lon M. Todd, Rome; four sisters, Mrs. Wright Bagby and Miss Florence Todd, Rome; Mrs. Howard Lipke, Tallahassee; and Mrs. William Glosier, Fresno, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bennett attended the funeral services of Mrs. Richard Bennett in Rome, Ga. last weekend. They then returned to Atlanta with his brother, Richard to spend some time with him and and his daughter.

Hyacinth Div. Clears 130 Bodies Of Water

A total of 17,033 acres of hyacinths was spray-killed in 130 bodies of water in 44 Florida counties which included Highlands and Polk during the past six months by the Fisheries Division Hyacinth Control Section of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Arbuckle Creek is open all the way through. Few under water longs, but clear of hyacinths.

In order to control hyacinths and other noxious vegetation, 8,529 gallons of liquid herbicides and 720 pounds of dry chemicals were used in various spray mixtures.

The work was done by six airboat crews, one kicker-boat crew, one full-time airplane and one part-time airplane, according to John W. Woods, head of the hyacinth control section.

Herbicides and poisons used included 3,789 gallons of 2,4-D Amine; 4,266 gallons of 2,4-D Ester; 161 gallons of 2,4-5T; 263 gallons of Aquaherb; 50 gallons of sodium aresenite, 250 pounds of DowPon and 470 pounds of Radapon.

The work was financed with money appropriated from the general revenue fund by the Florida State Legislature, with additional funds provided by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission from the State Game Fund.

Florida's salt water fishing industry ranks fourth in the U. S. and gives employment to over 12,000 persons directly.

packing them and the canned foods in cartons to be hauled to Immokalee.

The drive will continue as long as food, clothing and medical care are so desperately needed.

"Operation Helping Hand" county-wide project is being sponsored by the joint efforts of the County Civil Defense, Highlands Chapter of the American Red Cross and the 427-4th Ground Observers Squadron.

The supplies are sent to the Immokalee Migrant Committee, of which The Rev. David Newell, a Methodist minister, is chairman, and the committee will see that the supplies get proper distribution.

T/Sgt. Pitts, S/Sgt. Clark and S/Sgt. Burkhardt are gathering donations throughout Highlands County. Thirty cartons were picked up in Avon Park, collected by the Junior Woman's Club, and one and a half truck loads were donated by the Avon Park Air Force Base.

Mrs. Dorothy Wooten, of the Red Cross, and Don Hansen, Civil Defense Director, have worked hard to make the operation a success also.

Cash donations are sent to Mrs. Wooten to take care of the Medical supplies needed by the workers and their families.

Clothing, canned meats, vegetables and fruits are still needed and can be left at the Avon Park Fire Station and Sgt. Pitts will see that they are picked up and sent to Immokalee.

Fisherman's Service At Cong. Church

The Annual Fisherman's Service will be held at both the 9:00 o'clock and the 11:00 o'clock services on Sunday morning, Feb. 9, in the Union Congregational Church.

This unique service has attracted wide attention and this year movies will be made of the whole program. It heralds a period of personal witness in the local church and the whole program is brought to a climax early in March by an old-fashioned fish fry at Lake Byrd Lodge.

Pictures will be taken of winter visitors who attend either of these services and sent together with a personal note from the minister, to their pastor back home.

The public is cordially invited to attend either at 9 or 11 o'clock.

The Children's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. John P. Garber, Jr. will sing at the 9 o'clock service.

School Lunches To Be Increased Five Cents Beginning Next Monday

Beginning Monday, February 17, the price of school lunches in Highlands County will be increased five cents a day, thus students will be charged $1.50 per week instead of $1.25. The increase in the cost of school lunches was decided by the Highlands County School Board at the regular meeting Tuesday morning.

The increase in lunches was necessary due to nearly every lunch room in the county going in debt each month. The lunchrooms increased their debt by $3,523.62 during January, and a $13,581 milk bill for the year is past due.

The Board approved the request for an additional lunchroom worker at Woodlawn School because of the increase in lunchroom participation at the school.

Bids were received from those desiring to furnish 200 gallons, in 5 gallon containers, mildew resistant, outside white paint. The contract was awarded to Sunkark Paint Company in Sebring, the lowest bidder that met the requirements.

J. M. Whitaker and Son was granted the bid for clearing land at Lake Placid and Avon Park School. The bid included the furnishing of clay, leveling and packing to five inch depth.

Mrs. Orpha Brown, Psychological Services, and Julian Markham, General Supervisor of Instruction, appeared before the Board and explained the new method that is being used in aiding the exceptional child (the slow learner and gifted child).

The request from the Avon Park High School Glee Club for permission to sell candy as a club project was approved.

The preliminary plans for additional classrooms at Avon Elementary School by Architect, Heim and Heim, was presented. After review and recommendations by the Board they were approved.

Charles Metcalfe has accepted the offer by the Board to purchase his property and pay expenses involved in moving the 18 houses for $32,200; $20,000 to be paid now and $12,200 within one year at 5% interest on unpaid balance. The Board is to prepare all papers, pay stamp and other cost of closing. The Board agreed to Metcalfe's request that a road be left open on all sides of the property so that he will have access to his property.

The request from Assistant County Agent, J. C. Hayman, for use of a school bus to transport 4-H Club boys to the Florida State Fair in Tampa on Saturday, February 15, was granted.

The request received which was approved by A. B. Wilhite, Supervising Principal of Avon Park Area Schools, from Charles A. Woodbury to use a room in the school for giving private voice lessons was approved. These lessons will be given to students at the request of their parents with the parents paying the cost of the lesson.

Swedish Welfare Board Inspector Visits FARP

Mr. Daniel Wiklund, Chief Inspector of the Swedish Welfare Board, spent February 10th and 11th at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program's Avon Park headquarters and treatment center talking with staff members and observing the daily routine.

Mr. Wiklund, traveling on a grant from the Royal Swedish Academy of Science, is spending three months in the United States studying various phases of alcoholic rehabilitation. The Florida Program was one of the agencies included in his travel agenda which the Department of State through its Special Projects Division helped arrange.

Officially in Sweden, Mr. Wiklund heads the Welfare Board's activities in the areas of alcoholism education and treatment.

Grand Jury Hands Up Two True Bills

Two true bills, one an indictment for rape the other an indictment for assault to rape, were handed up to Judge Joe D. Kinsey by the Grand Jury on Monday.

The indictment for rape charges Donald B. Weathers, an 18-year old Avon Park Negro, with raping a 73-year old local white woman in her home last May. Weathers was arrested last month after an intensive investigation by Sheriff's Deputy R. H. (Bob) Barringer and Jesse Fleming, Jr., Negro, deputy. The defendant is being held without bond.

James Miller, New York Negro who recently arrived in Sebring, is charged with assault to rape a young Negro woman in Sebring on January 27.

State Attorney Robert B. Huffaker announced that the grand jury would recess until March 10.

Elijah Presley, 17-year old Avon Park Negro, plead guilty to the charge of breaking and entering and was ordered by the Court to be committed to the Florida Industrial School for Boys until he shall reach his majority or unless discharged earlier by the Board of Commissioners of the State Institutions as reformed.

If he is not received or kept there for the term of sentence, or, unless sooner discharged by the Board, it was ordered and adjudged that he be sentenced to imprisonment in the State Prison for 2 years.

Band Concert Sunday, 3:30 P.M. At High School

The Avon Park High School Band under the direction of Gene Gorman will present the second in the series of Winter Band Concerts on Sunday afternoon, February 15, at 3:30 p.m. in the High School Auditorium.

Many special numbers will be presented in the hour long program. Mike Harrison will be featured as cornet soloist and a saxophone quartet composed of Robert Hall, Edith Wilson, Sandra Kelsey and Elizabeth Howell will be featured in the "Poor Butterfly", from the Big Show by Hubbell.

True Blue March by Karl King will be conducted by Miss Eve Campbell, student conductor, and the Ringling Brothers March will be conducted by student conductor, Robert Hall.

Judge Rehrer Cracks Down On Juveniles

Juvenile Judge Mervin Rehrer issued the order last Friday to commit a local 15 year old colored girl to the Industrial School for girls at Ocala.

The girl is being committed as a delinquent child.

Three Sebring boys charged in a series of petty larceny had their licenses taken away and were put on probation for a year in the custody of their parents.

Judge Rehrer also put them under a 7 o'clock curfew for six months unless they are accompanied by parent or parents except on Saturday night when they can stay out until 11 p.m.

One of the boys was driving in violation of a restricted license.

Chamber To Issue New Avon Park Folders

The Board of Directors of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce voted to have new folders advertising Avon Park printed at their dinner meeting Thursday night.

Mrs. Anna Belle Worden, Franklyn Ward and Robert King were appointed to serve with E. Ray Wells, publicity chairman, on the folder committee. Final proofs on the new folders will be presented to the Board of Directors in the near future. The committee is also working on plans for a pictorial letter to present to the Board for their approval.

Roy Selms, member of the Chamber of Commerce, met with the Board of Directors to discuss the one hundred per cent tax assessment law.

Barney Howard, Industrial chairman, gave a report on a recent contact, pertaining to industry, which had been made by the Chamber.

The Directors were informed of the progress the Fair committee were making on the booth for the Highlands County Fair. The theme of the booth was announced and detailed plans were reported.

Highlands County Fair Opens February 24

The 1958 Highlands County Fair opening Monday night, February 24, at 6 p.m. and running through Saturday, March 1 will be bigger and better than ever before.

On opening night, Monday, at 8 o'clock a beauty contest will be held with more than 35 of the prettiest girls in the county competing for the title of "Highlands County's Sweetheart". The Queen will be announced and crowned Saturday night at 8 p.m.

Featured among the exhibits at the fair this year will be displays by the Girl Scouts, Schools, communities, livestock, art and also commercial firms.

The midway has been planned to please the old and young alike, for there will be 16 rides, 12 shows and 35 concessions furnished by the Glades Amusement Company.

Local Citizens Respond To Appeal For Help

The appeal for help made by the Avon Park Sun last week on behalf of Mrs. Ray Smith and her children was very successful. The clothing, groceries and cash donations which were turned in at the Sun office were greatly appreciated.

A number of the organizations and churches in Avon Park had already helped Mrs. Smith prior to the appeal in the paper. The State Welfare Board is working on the case but it will take time before adequate living arrangements can be made. In the mean time additional aid will be needed.

Mrs. Smith is very grateful to the Churches, organizations and citizens of the community who were so kind to help her and her children. Mrs. Smith and the Sun wish to express their thanks to the wonderful people of the community.

A. B. Wilhite To Attend National Meet In Indiana

A. B. Wilhite, Supervising Principal of the Avon Park Area Schools, will attend the forty-second Annual Convention of the National Association of Secondary School Principals, which is a department of the National Education Association.

The five day meeting, which will begin Saturday, February 15, will be held at Indianapolis, Indiana. Mr. Wilhite will represent the Secondary School Administrators of Highlands County.

2 Weeks Remaining In Leon's Fishing Contest; Leaders Named

Leon's Sporting Goods has proof that the fish are biting even in this un-Florida like weather. If you want to win one of the wonderful prizes which are being given away during the fishing contest you better hurry for the contest closes February 28, at 6p.m. The following fish were brought to Leon's to be weighed and entered.

Lamar Thompson leads in the contest with a Black Bass weighing 6 ¾ lbs. This fish was caught in Lake Angelo this week around 3:00 p.m. on Spinning tackle using red worms for bait.

Archie Morrison is second with a Black Bass caught in Lake Okeechobee the first of the month and it weighed 2 lbs. and 13 ounces. He was fishing from the edge of the Lake with Spinning Tackle and using a live chub for bait.

Mrs. Garland Kelly takes first place for the largest Speckled Perch with one weighing 1 lb. and 4 oz. Mrs. Kelly caught this Speck around 3:30 p.m. on the afternoon of January 28th while fishing in Little Red Water Lake, she was drifting, using a cane pole with a Mo. Minnow for bait.

H. C. Garrett is in second place with a Speckled Perch weighing 1 lb. and 8 ounces. He was fishing in Lake Lotela late in the afternoon with a cane pole using Mo. Minnows for bait.

Sam Elder holds third place with a Speckled Perch he caught weighing 1 lb. and 6 ounces in Little Bonnet Lake. Sam caught this Perch around dark fishing from a boat with a cane pole and using Mo. Minnows for bait.

Many other Speckled Perch have been entered but we have not seen any in the two pound class which you hear so much about.

H. C. Garrett takes first place for the largest Blue Gill with one weighing 10 ounces which he caught while fishing late one afternoon in Lake Lotela. He used a Reel and Rod with live worms for bait.

T. H. Sasseo is second with a Blue Gill weighing 9 ounces. This bream was caught in Lake Arbuckle in the middle of the afternoon on a cane pole using live worms for bait.

Mrs. Lucille Childs is in third place with a Blue Gill weighing 8 ounces which she caught in Lake Lotela. She caught this fish while fishing with spinning tackle using red worms for bait.

Harry H. Sherer takes the lead in the Children's contest with a Bass weighing 1 lb. and 12 ounces which he caught in Lake Okeechobee while fishing with his dad and Red Murphy. He was using a reel and rod with a No-Alibi for bait.

This is the only fish entered in the Children's Contest so Kids you better get busy.

The contest closes February 28, and is open to anyone. For further information call GL 2-7261.

Narrator For Jr. Woman's Club Fashion Show At Pinecrest Feb. 19

MISS PRISCILLA PARKER

Miss Priscilla Parker, Fashion Coordinator of the three Maas Brother Stores in Lakeland, Tampa, and St. Petersburg, will be the Narrator of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club Fashion Show at the Pinecrest Lakes Club Hotel on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 19, from 3 o'clock until 5.

Miss Parker has done fashion shows for many years and is considered an outstanding fashion expert in this state. Programs of the showings will be presented to each guest by Maas Brothers, and with Miss Parker's comments the show will be even more enjoyable.

Tickets for the Show will be on sale in front of the Avon Citrus Bank on Saturday, Feb. 15, from 10 o'clock until 12 noon. Members of the Junior Woman's Club will take tickets to the Tourist Club and to the Jacaranda Hotel on a day next week. All members of the club have tickets to sell also. Transportation to Pinecrest Hotel will be furnished from the Jacaranda Hotel on Wednesday, Feb. 19, at ten minutes before 3 o'clock for all those who wish to attend the show.

So don't forget to attend this fabulous Fashion Show on Wednesday, Feb. 19, from 3 until 5 o'clock at the Pinecrest Lakes Club. Maas Brothers of Lakeland will furnish the lovely fashions that will be worn by the models from the Junior Woman's Club and other Avon Park residents. Mrs. Francee Holobar, Maas Fashion Director of the Lakeland Store, has arranged the show.

Pinecrest will serve the guests one of their famous tea and coffee menus and there will be entertainments of a musical nature. It is possible to reserve tables for the Show and if purchasers of tickets wish to do so please get in touch with Mrs. Fred Montedeoca and Mrs. Donald Ford before Monday, Feb. 17.

The models are having their final appointments with Mrs. Holobar this week in Lakeland so that everything will be in readiness for the best fashion show that the Avon Park Junior Club has ever sponsored. There will be 44 showings and an outstanding and different grouping will be a bridal party complete in the latest fashion modes.

The Annual Fashion Show is a benefit project by the club to help in the support of their civic projects which include the sponsoring of the Ridge Area Day School.

Landscaping Course Starts Next Month

Dr. Tom Mack of Southern College will be the instructor for the course, "How to plan the home landscape", which will begin next month. The course was arranged by officials of the public school and The General Extension Division.

The class will meet once each week for ten weeks beginning with the organizational meeting at the Avon Park High School on Tuesday night, March 11, at 7:30 p. m. During the first meeting, a regular time and day for future meetings will be decided.

Those who are interested in attending the course please notify the Supervising Principal of your school area or Julian E. Markham, Courthouse, Sebring.

Grass Fires Cause 10 Alarms

The Avon Park Fire Department has been kept busy during the past week answering alarms on grass fires. Ten such calls have been answered by the department.

Defective wiring was responsible for the minor damages done to the roof at Meeker's Hitching Post last Wednesday morning, February 5.

Chamber Needs Unusual Fruits And Plants

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce is making an appeal for unusual fruits or plants which could be used for display purposes in advertising Avon Park. Very large or odd shaped fruits and rare plants can be used in the display.

Anyone that can contribute such oddities in the plant or fruit family are requested to please leave them at the Chamber of Commerce office anytime prior to 4 p. m. on Friday, February 21. If you have such a plant or fruit and are not sure that it is just what the Chamber is looking for please call the Chamber office and talk to Mrs. Anna Belle Worden.

Lighting Display Postponed

Due to the extremely cold weather and the difficulty in securing outdoor lighting at this time the Garden Lighting Display which was planned for February 12, 13, and 14 will be postponed until a later date.

Miss Faye Gordon and Fred Davis of Florida Power have stated that the Kin Display of what is being done in gardens and outdoors will be presented in the garden of the Jacaranda Hotel at a later date which will be announced.

A Congressman Changes His Mind

Representative Frank T. Bow of Ohio first came to Congress in 1950. At that time, he says, he was " . . . not convinced that the dollars our government spends to help support a Merchant Marine were necessary."

Then Mr. Bow became a member of the House Appropriations Committee—one of the most important committees in Congress. As a member, he goes on, he " . . . made a careful study of the reasons that Congress, in 1936, passed legislation to help maintain a strong and active Merchant Marine, equipped to carry a substantial portion of our foreign commerce in time of peace and prepared to transport troops and equipment in a military emergency."

As a result of this study Mr. Bow came to a conclusion diametrically opposed to his view when he took office: "Government support of our Merchant Marine is one of the soundest investments we are making in the prosperity and security of the nation."

Mr. Bow is certainly not alone in this. All manner of other people, in and out of government, who have studied the Merchant Marine situation, and objectively evalued its importance to our economic and military welfare, have reached the same conclusion. Some 300 merchant ships now operate under government contracts—and the contracts are strict indeed. The steamship companies must provide regular service on 33 essential world trade routes. They must replace their ships with vessels built in U. S. shipyards and manned with American crews. For meeting these and other requirements, the lines receive payments from the government to help equalize high U. S. shipbuilding and operating costs with low costs of foreign competitors. Thus the nation pays a small price for not being at the mercy of a foreign merchant marine.

Teachers Of Tomorrow

The Chicago Daily News says that " . . . we got high school graduates who don't know democratic capitalism from communist dictatorship." That sad observation was prompted by and astonishing report from a professor of economics at a well-known university which specalizes in teacher training. He asked 80 freshmen who are preparing to become teachers to define "capitalism". Almost all of them, he found, "not only called capitalism a form of government, but they also thought it an evil and dangerous form of government."

One student, for instance, said: "Capitalism is more on the dictator type of government." Another said: "Capitalism is the extreme measures that are taken by a group, country, or even a single person . . . It can be dangerous if allowed to spread into the wrong hands." Another said: "I am sure there are many places where capitalism is going on at the present time, and if this practice should ever become nation-wide, the country is in for a lot of trouble." Still another said: "Capitalism. . . is on the order of communism. . . ."

It would be hard to find more horrible examples of sheer ignorance combined with semi-literacy. And they came, don't forget, from college students who want to become teachers and guide the minds of this country's most important asset—its children. Something is indeed wrong with American education—and it's something that can't be cured by multi-million dollar school plants, 50,000-seat football stadia, and curriculums that stress social adjustment, home economics, and other such furbelows.

Time To Follow Suit

It is said that the need for increased military spending has eliminated any chance for general tax reduction at this time. But that should not close the door against the correction of inequalities and injustices in our tax system—or against the repeal of special taxes which are damaging to the economic strength of the country and unprofitable to the government.

The federal excise taxes on for-hire transportation are very much in point. These were passed as a World War II emergency measure, and were designed to discourage unnecessary travel and shipping at that time as well as to produce war revenue. Yet they are still on the books. The National Conference for Repeal of Taxes on Transportation—which speaks on behalf of more than 100 organizations representing shippers, travelers, all forms of transport, agriculture und labor—recently told a House Committee this: "These transportation taxes should have early consideration because they are a severe drag on for-hire transportation and on those who must rely on such transport; because they are the most discriminatory of excise taxes; because they affect the cost of living, and because repeal would be offset in considerable measure by more revenue from income taxes."

That last point is of great practical importance. A large part of these taxes are paid by business concerns and so are a deductible expense against income tax. If the excise taxes were repealed, therefore, income tax collections would rise.

In any event, World War II ended long ago. It's certainly high time that these World War II emergency taxes followed suit.

What Happened To Schoolroom Crisis?

The proposal that the federal government underwrite scientific education is running into strong opposition—and some of it comes from top educators. They see federal aid as an open sesame to ultimate federal control of education. They want to get the needed money from industry, foundations and individuals.

The situation caused the Wall Street Journal to make an apt observation: "This year we are told that unless Washington spends $1 billion more on science education we will never catch up to the Russian Sputniks and education is doomed.

"Last year we were told that unless the Federal Government came across with billions of dollars to build schoolrooms across the country education was doomed. But hardly anybody mentions that these days.

"Is it fair to ask the Federal aiders what happened to the schoolroom crisis?"

Those who want the federal government to become a dictator of education will use any excuse to get their foot in the door. That is happening now. It amounts to arguing that we must ape the Russians in order to keep pace with the Russians. If that is true, free and representative government is dead. One of the great paradoxes of this age is that we could destroy ourselves from within even as we gird mightily to guard against attack from without.

This Week's Seafood Recipes

Sarah D. Alberson
Home Economist
Florida State Board of Conservation
Tallahassee, Florida

The recipes given here have been tested and are recommended as Florida's best buys of the week. Use seafoods often to relieve your strained budget, and at the same time give your family nutritious dishes they will truly enjoy.

COASTLINE FRITTERS
30-35 fritters

Mix 2 cups cooked flaked fish or seafood, 1tsp. vinegar, 1 tsp. mayonnaise, 1 egg beaten.

Mix 1 cup flour, 1½ tsp. baking powder, 1¼ tsp. salt, ⅔ cup milk.

Mix all together and drop by teaspoon into hot fat. Serve with caper sauce, egg sauce, Florida sauce or syrup.

STUFFED POTATO
3 servings

3 Baked Potatoes-Scoop out potatoes, mash and add:

1/6 cup hot milk, 1 egg beaten, 1 tsp. salt, 2 tsp. lemon juice, 1 cup flaked fish or seafood, 1/6 cup finely minced onion.

Beat until light. Put back into potato shells. Top with:

1 Tablespoon butter and crumbs.

If desired add grated cheese to topping. Put back in oven and bake at 350 Deg. F. until bread crumbs have browned.

For an extra special dish, leave out the onion and serve the stuffed potato with a cream sauce with chives.

CREAM SAUCE WITH CHIVES
3 cups

6 tablespoons butter, 6 tablespoons flour, 1½ cup milk, ½ cup canned milk, ½ tsp. salt, chives chopped fine.

SCALLOPED OYSTERS

The main object in scalloping is to reach a finished produce that is moist enough to not be dry and yet not runny. If you like additional flavor add nutmeg or 1 teaspoon grated onion to each layer. Do not put more than 2 layers of oysters in the baking dish.

No. 1 (serves 4)
1 pint drained oysters (save liquor)

Mix 2 cups cracker crumbs, 1 stick butter melted, ½ teaspoon salt, pepper.

Put ⅜ cup of these crumbs in bottom of oiled casserole. Put 1 cup of oysters on top of crumbs. Put ⅜ cup of crumbs on these oysters and in turn cover the crumbs with the remaining oysters.

Mix ¼ cup oyster liquor, ⅜ cup cream, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.

Pour over oysters.

Add the remaining crums on top and bake 350 deg. for about 40 minutes.

No. 2 (serves 4)
1 pint drained oysters (save liquor)

Mix ½ cup bread crumbs, 1 cup cracker crumbs, ½ cup melted butter. Put thin layer in bottom of oiled baking dish. Cover with 1 cup oysters and sprinkle with salt and pepper.

Add 2 tablespoons oyster liquid, 1 tablespoon milk or cream.

Repeat for another layer. Cover top with remaining crumbs. Bake 30 minutes at 450 Deg. F.

1 pint drained oysters save liquor)

Mix 2 tablespoons melted butter, 2 cups bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon salt.

Put thin layer of crumbs in bottom of oiled baking dish. dAd 1 cup of oysters. Sprinkle pepper on top. Cover with bread crumbs. Pour ¼ cup oyster liquid over. Put 1 cup of oysters. Sprinkle pepped on top. Pour ½ cup oysters liquid over. Add remaining crumbs on top. Bake 20 min. at 450 deg. F.

BARBECUED SHRIMP AND MUSHROOMS

3 lbs. shrimp, 2 lbs. fresh mushrooms or 4 oz. canned.

Boil and clean shrimp. Wipe mushrooms with damp cloth and slice. Arrange shrimp and mushrooms in rows in baking dish so they stand up.

BARBECUED SAUCE

6 oz. tomato paste, 6 tablespoons dry milk, 1 cup water, 4 tablespoons finely chopped onion or juice, 4 tablespoons vinegar, 3 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon hot pepper sauce, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon sugar.

Mix, cover and simmer ½ hour.

Spoon sauce over shrimp, cover with lid or aluminum foil and bake 400 Deg. F. for ½ hour.

The barbecue sauce can also be served poured over the boiled shrimp (without mushrooms) or used cold as a dip.

The sauce can be prepared and kept until needed in the refrigerator.

FALCONS

By The Bird Woman

When we think of falcons we naturally think of the trained birds used in ancient Egypt to catch game for their masters, then as now it was considered quite a feat to train the falcon to take the great "burden" of hunting from the shoulders of the master, and do his hunting for him.

Genghis Khan was reported to own ten thousand falcons which to our way of thinking would keep him well supplied with food even though his household was as large as many in his position.

Today we would imagine that this sport has died out, but there is estimated to be a thousand people in the United States and Canada who follow the sport and train their own falcons.

If this sport does nothing greater, it teaches the trainer patience, for patience and persistence are the two requisites most necessary for falcon training. The training must be intense and gradual, and like the training of any animal, they must first be taught to have confidence in their trainer before they can be taught to obey commands.

Strings are fastened to the falcon so it cannot escape, and weights are fastened to the lure, which consists of pigeon wings fastened to leather covered weights, meat is also fastened to the lure so the falcon is rewarded each time it makes a plung for the lure.

The weights keep the falcon from flying away with the prize and in so doing keeps it with the game it captures for it's trainer.

Bells are also attached to the falcon so that when it can really hunt the master can tell where it is by the gingling of the bells even though it is out of his sight.

In the western United States we have the prairie falcon and the apomado falcon but the peregrine falcon, better known by it's common name, the duck hawk, is the best known. It has always been esteemed quite highly for hawking. The beak is short and toothed and curved from the base with one or two strong indentations on the margin of each.

In the eastern part of our country, when it was first being settled the new comers were not familiar with the new birds they found here and gave them names of the birds that they resembled in their homelands, hence the name hawk was applied to many birds that were really falcons.

Our own beloved bald eagle is a true falcon, but few if any, ever consider it to be a falcon.

The hawk family can roughly be differentiated between, by a few general characteristics. The buteos, are a large chunky bird, their tails are rounded and broad, and their wings are also broad. The red tailed hawk and the red shouldered hawk belong in this class and may be seen soaring in wide circles high in the air.

The harriers are a slim bodied hawk, their wings are long and rounded, and they also have a long tail, in flight their wings are dihedral like the buzzard.

The accipiters do not soar so high in circles in the air for they have short rounded wings. The sharp-shinned and cooper's hawk belong to this class, and although they may eat many rodents, they are considered the villains of the hawk family.

The falcons have both long tails and long pointed wings and their wing beat is strong and rapid. The duck hawk and sparrow hawk are both in this class, they are very alert and may be seen in the air hovering over their prey until it is sufficiently exposed for them to snare it.

In this country the long winged true falcon are the ones usually trained to hunt, but the short winged accipiters are also trained.

Technically in falconry, the female only is termed falcon, the male being smaller and less courageous, is known as a tersel or tiercel.

In the bird world most females are plain colored quaint little creature and stay at home and tend to the nesting and incubation, so it is with some pride that we can find a specie where the female is recognized as being of more importance than the male.

And in this case especially, can we apply the familiar saying that the female of the specie is more deadly than the male.

So if you have time on your hands and mountains of patience, and are fond of game but lazy to procure it yourself, become a falconer.

Report From Congressman "Jim Haley"

Washington, D. C.—Inasmuch as congress is now in full "swing", I am re-instituting my weekly newsletter for the purpose of informing the people of my district concerning the issues confronting congress.

The second session of the 85th Congress is in the midst of considering serious problems which affect every citizen of this great nation. Pressure is increasing to spend, spend and spend, an opinion which apparently is based on the false idea that money alone can buy security. In this connection, it is gratifying to note that the many letters I have received from the people of the 7th District reject that idea. While we are fully aware of the urgent need for adequate national defense, we submit that we may have depended too much upon our wealth, upon our ability to purchase strength and even to buy the alliance and friendship of other nations. We would rather depend upon American ingenuity and sound reasoning of the American people when they are kept fully informed on the facts. Thus our position is that funds for defense must be justified and we oppose any attempt to become involved in an emotional, wild spending spree. While we are in a period of crisis, we must never forget that our nation has become great because of the ability of the American people to cope with each new crisis by God given powers of sound reasoning rather than by immature emotional responses.

The committees on which I serve have been busily engaged in important matters directly affecting a large segment of our population. Those committees are the veterans' affairs, of which I am chairman.

During the past week, the National Commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the National Commander of the Disabled American Veterans appeared before the Veterans' Affairs Committee and made fine presentations of their respective programs and legislative proposals. In connection with the Veterans' Affairs Committee, Congressman Olin E. Teague, who is the chairman of that committee, and I am going to Florida on February 12, 1958, for the purpose of looking into the serious situation which appears to be developing in the matters of pensions of our disabled veterans. This situation apparently has been the result of a so-called re-evaluation being made on the part of the veterans' administration of all claims of the disabled veterans. As a result of such action, entitlements of the Disabled Veterans seem to be decreasing. While it may be that there may be instances where claims are unjustified, we want to be assured that valid claims and entitlements will not be decreased.

The Indian Affairs Subcommittee, of which I am chairman, met two days last week to consider various bills affecting various Indian tribes through-out the nation.

The Interior and Insular Committee met in full session last week at which time further action on the highly controversial proposed legislation concerning The Hell's Canyon Dam was postponed until June 2, 1958.

In recognition of Boy Scout Week, Ricky Herndon, Cub Scout of Coral Hills, Maryland, presented me with a Scout Pin last week. It has given me a great deal of pleasure to wear this pin which is symbolic of a fine organization. We commend the Boy Scouts of American for the splendid work they do in developing and promoting good citizenship. I have never heard of a Boy Scout who has become a delinquent. The Boy Scouts rightfully deserve our respect and support.

The American Political Science association has announced that Nine-month Fellowship in Congress are available, beginning in November 1958, and continuing through the end of the first session of the 86th Congress. The fellowships, which carry a stipend of $4500.00, are available to political scientists and political journalists between the ages of 25 and 32 who have had advanced training combined with experience. Application blanks and further information can be obtained by writing the American Political Science Association, 1726 Massachusetts Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

Girls Go To Frostproof For Playoffs

The Avon Park Girls Varsity will participate in the Ridge Conference Playoff to be held in Frostproof Friday and Saturday nights.

Floor play will begin at 6:00 p. m. on Friday night and at approximately 8:30 on Saturday night.

The regularly scheduled game with the Mulberry girls has been called off but the boys will travel to Mulberry Friday night for their varsity contest.

The seeding for the Playoff are Frostproof, first place, Mulberry second place, Kathleen third place, and Avon Park and Ft. Meade tied for fourth place. The Avon Park Girls have 4 - 4 record out of 8 and the Ft. Meade girls have a 4 - 6 record out of 10.

Next Tuesday night Avon Park will play host to Kissimmee in a double header at the local gymnasium at 7:30.

...y Receives Donation From ... For New Encyclopedia

...n of $44 was made ... Avon Park Library for the ... of new encyclopedia ... by Avon Park Senior ... Club at their regular ... meeting on Friday, ... in the Woman's Club ...

Preceding the meeting a delicious luncheon was served to the members and public by the juniors of Group IV under the direction of Mrs. Charles Shepherd. Group IV realized over $65 from this project and the funds were gratefully accepted by the club.

Mrs. Ralph Kelley, president, welcomed the members and guests and Mrs. Samuel Norris sang a selection accompanied by Mrs. Fred Flagg. The group then recited the club collect and gave the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Glenn Easton was in charge of the devotional period. The treasurer's report showed the club to be in excellent financial shape for the new year of 1958.

Mrs. Alice O. Sherman, Library Committee, read a report from the committee concerning the Annual Silver Tea. The report showed that $321.12 had been taken in at the tea for the library fund and that more than 15 people attended this lovely affair at the home of Mrs. E. G. Todd. The members of the committee thanked all the club women for their work and cooperation.

A committee was appointed by the president to look into the purchasing of window shades for the clubhouse. The members were Dr. Ruth Phillips, Mrs. William Reitzner, and Mrs. Clinton Harden.

A request from the Florida Optometrists Association was read to the members but was tabled until the next meeting that more information would be available. The request asked the club to support a program of testing of all the drivers of cars over eyes at least every two years.

Kelley greeted Mrs. W. Maddox and Mrs. Elsie Marsh as new members of the club.

Several recommendations of the executive board were passed upon favorably by the club. The first one was that the $44 turned in by Group I from their project be used to purchase encyclopedia by the librarian. The second recommendation was for an Evening Card Party that is to be held in the Woman's Club Building on March 17 with tickets 75 cents each and prizes for each table as well as refreshments. The public is invited.

Mrs. Sylvia Book informed the members of an Adult Education Course in Psychology that is to be given in the form of a lecture series in the Sebring High School once a week. Dr. William B. Berg, PhD, will give the lectures and there will be no charge for these. Those desiring to attend should register at the Sebring High School.

Mrs. Fred Stevens, the oldest past president of the Club, who is 88 years old was given a welcome by the members. There were also a large number of visitors at the meeting.

Mrs. Helen Harris, Mrs. Charles Shepherd and Mrs. Samuel O. Norris were appointed to the nominating committee. A donation of $3 was sent to the migrant workers in Immokalee from some rummage sold by one of the members.

Dr. Ruth Phillips was presented by Mrs. Sylvia Book who is Entertainment Chairman for the month. Dr. Phillips showed slides and spoke on her recent trip to Jamestown, Williamburg and Virginia. After a very interesting talk on this old state Dr. Phillips reported on the world situation today stressing the significance of the union of Egypt and Syria.

Mrs. Kelley reminded the members of the antique show to be sponsored by the Lake Land Club on Feb. 25, 26, and 27 and said she had tickets available for those wishing to attend. She also graciously thanked all those who had helped make the meeting so memorable.

Group IV announced that they will hold a Final Coffee Bridge in the Clubhouse on Friday, Feb. 14, at 9:30 in the morning. Tickets will be 50 cents and the public is invited. Mrs. Helen Baker and Mrs. Edna Jackson are chairman for this event.

The meeting was then adjourned by Mrs. Kelley the president.

60 Members Attend Zeta Chapter Meeting

The Zeta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary women teacher's organization, held their regular meeting on Saturday, February 8, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

A luncheon was served in the main dining room at noon. Miss Millie Pearson, chairman for the day, welcomed the sixty guests and introduced Mrs. Harold Worden, Sr., executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, who brought greetings from the Chamber and the City of Avon Park.

She then presented a camelia corsage to Mrs. Ruth Hall, the president. The program feature of the luncheon was a talk by Mrs. Raeburn L. Brown on her experiences as the "Pioneer Teacher of Highlands County". Her witty remarks brought many laughs from the members present.

At each place at the luncheon table were several favors presented by the business firms of Avon Park and two door prizes were given in a drawing.

After the luncheon a business session was held in the Palm Room. A special feature was the initiation of 12 new members from the nine counties in Zeta Chapter. In the business session it was decided to divide the large chapter into three smaller chapters, and this change will be in effect during the new year.

After adjournment, birthday cake and coffee were served at this meeting celebrated the 17th birthday of Zeta Chapter.

This meeting was planned and arranged for by the Highlands County members, Mrs. Julia Titus, Mrs. Juanita Goodbread, Mrs. Mary Roberts, Mrs. Inez Morgan, Mrs. Jamie Lee Edge, Miss Floride Hendrix and Miss Millie Pearson.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

130 Guests Attend Annual Library Silver Tea Wednesday, Feb. 5

Approximately 130 guests enjoyed the beauty of the grounds and the lake view at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Todd on Lake Lotela on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 5.

The occasion was the Annual Library Silver Tea of the Avon Park Community Library and there were a large number of guests from Avon Park and Sebring present at this affair sponsored by the Avon Park Senior Women's Club.

Mrs. E. G. Todd, Mrs. Ralph Kelly, Mrs. Earl Hartt, and various members of the Library Committee received the guests during the tea hour from three until six. Camellias, azaleas and chrysanthemums were beautifully arranged throughout the home to add to the festivities.

The tea table was centered with an eye-catching arrangement of pink camellias in a silver container and the appointments were of silver and crystal. Two handsome silver services also graced the beautiful white cloth. Dainty sandwiches, cookies, and pink mints were served with the tea. A fruit arrangement on the buffet completed the scene.

The committee members responsible for the arrangements were Mrs. Jack Head, Mrs. W. C. Touchton, Mrs. Earl Hartt, Mrs. R. R. Porterfield, Mrs. James A. Johnson, and Mrs. C. E. Lanier.

Members of the Junior Woman's Club of Avon Park assisted with the tea by receiving, keeping the guest book, and helping with the serving. Mrs. David Lanier arranged the schedules for the Juniors, and Mrs. Herbert Todd was in charge of Junior Hospitality. Members helping from 3 until 4 were Mrs. Robert Barben, Mrs. N. H. Booth, Mrs. Bob Lee, Mrs. Fred Montsdeoca, Mrs. Lorant Forizs, Mrs. B. C. Ostling, Mrs. Leslie Crews, Mrs. Bill Hood, Mrs. Dick Hedrick, Mrs. David Lanier, Mrs. Anna Dee Church; from 4 until 5 Mrs. Walter Mandis, Mrs. Jeff Barrow, Mrs. Mannin Kirkland, Mrs. Cecil Skipper, Mrs. Donald Ford, Mrs. Harry Hood, Mrs. Kenny Wayne Elder, Mrs. Fred Jahna, Mrs. Andrew Miracle, Mrs. Bob Young, Mrs. Arlin King; from 5 until 6, Mrs. Jim Turnbull, Mrs. Wendall Smith, Miss Pat Pickett, Mrs. Emil Lahr, Mrs. John Crittenden, Mrs. Art Turner, Mrs. Vernon Tyson, Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mrs. Harold Barker, Miss Pat Lagoni, and Mrs. Guy Garrett.

Mrs Irving Ford was in charge of transportation and Mrs. A. Morris Todd escorted the guests from the Jacaranda Hotel to the tea in her car. Mrs. Robert Barben and Mrs. Charles Metcalfe were publicity chairman, Mrs. A. C. Wester, Sr., was the head of the refreshment committee and members of the Senior Club contributed the delicious food. Mrs. J. Paul Garber secured the mints for the tea table.

Mrs. Samuel O. Norris and Mrs. Hayes Maxwell poured tea between the hours of 3 and 4. Between 4 and 5 Mrs. W. C. Touchton and Mrs. John Dawson were at the tea table and Mrs. R. R. Porterfield and Mrs. E. W. Hartt presided from 5 until 6.

The Senior Woman's Club helps to support the library as one of it projects. The Library Committee of the Club consists of Mrs. Walter S. Betts, Mrs. R. R. Porterfield, Mrs. Alice O. Sherman, Miss Avis Slaughter, Mrs. A. C. Wester, Sr., Mrs. I. H. Ford, Mrs. Charles Metcalfe, Mrs. Robert Barben, and Mrs. E. G. Todd.

Mrs. John Garber, Jr., helped with the flowers.

The members of the Library Committee would like to thank all those persons who helped with the work and all the guests who aided the library by attending the tea.

Boy Scout News

Due to the illness of Scoutmaster Elton Lawrence the Scouts of Troop 156 sponsored by the American Legion has not met for the past week.

They hope to begin their regular meeting again on Monday night, Feb. 17, in their meeting hall in Woodruff Heights. In the meantime the Scouts have been working on their achievement badges and have been planning for their camp-out this summer on the Thousand Islands.

The Scouts of Troop 157 sponsored by the Rotary Club held their meeting on Monday afternoon, Feb. 10, and distributed some church notices as their good deed.

In observance of National Boy Scout Week the Scouts of Troop 157 will camp-out on the Mall on Friday night, Feb. 14. They will cook their supper, attend church with their leader, Fred Davis, return for the night and cook their breakfast the next day.

The Boy Scout Organization was founded on Feb. 8, 1910 and this week is National Boy Scout Week in honor of the 47th birthday of the fine group.

Rotary News

L. H. Terry, resident manager for the A. M. Mr. And Mrs. L. D. Roberts Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie D. Roberts celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on Sunday, Feb. 6, at the home of Mrs. Robert's nephew, N. H. Booth, Jr., at Highlands Lake.

Mrs. Roberts was the former Edna Booth of Plant City and she and her husband were married at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Booth, in Plant City on Feb. 8, 1908. During World War I the Roberts were both engaged in war work in Cleveland, Ohio. Upon returning to Florida Mr. Roberts served as postmaster in Zolfo Springs and Ft. Meade. In 1919 they moved to Avon Park and have made their home here ever since. Mr. Roberts served for many years as post master in Avon Park. They have one daughter, Mrs. Harold M. Bowers of Ft. Meade and three grandchildren, Martha Ann, Buddy and Joe Bowers.

The Roberts and eighteen of their relatives and friends enjoyed a delicious dinner and buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Booth, Jr., for the celebration of their 50th wedding anniversary. They received some lovely gifts to help them remember this memorable day.

A large beautifully decorated gold wedding cake with the numerals 50 written in stand-up white letters graced the table upon which yellow chrysanthemums and white decorations were used.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bowers and their children, Martha Ann, Buddy, and Joe Bowers, of Ft. Meade, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rutherford of Tampa, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Grizzard and their children, Carol Ann and Bobby, of Lakeland, and Mrs. N. H. Booth Sr. of Lakeland. Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Booth, Jr. and their children, Steve and Susan were also present.

Mrs. Grizzard is a niece; Mrs. Booth, Sr., a sister-in-law; N. H. Booth, Jr. a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Roberts.

Another celebration took place for Steve Booth's ninth birthday which was also Feb. 8. An "Out of This World" cake decorated with space men and ice cream were served for Steve. He also received many gifts for his birthday.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and enjoying family and friendly fellowship.

Congregational Church News

The Pilgrim Fellowship for the young people of the church had a party for its members and their guests on Friday evening, Feb. 7, in the New Educational Building.

The 25 boys and girls attending played games and square danced in the hall decorated with balloons and a Valentine motif. The delicious refreshments also were able to carry out the valentine motif.

Donnie Whitcomb entertained the group with a "Country Boy" Monologue, Bonnie Sue Townsend showed off her powers as a ventriloquist, and David Bondfield brought the house down with his interpertation of Elvis Pressley.

Mike Whetstone, Leader of the Group, and Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ginn were chaperones and a number of other mothers helped in the kitchen.

Sherry Wells, Andy Miracle, Jimmie Simpson, and Bonnie Townsend were responsible for the decorations under the supervision of Miss Patsy Strassberger. Kathy King and Judy Walker were the members of the refreshment committee.

The Annual Fisherman's Service was held to overflowing crowds and pictures were taken of the winter visitors. Each Sunday until March pictures will be made of the winter visitors and these will be sent with a personal note from the Rev. Herbert Graetz to their pastors in their home towns.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Women's Missionary Society held their regular monthly business meeting on Monday evening, Feb. 3, in the church.

There were twelve members and one visitor present at the meeting. The group set a Study Course from the book "Look, Look!" for Thursday evening, Feb. 13.

During the evening it was also decided to hold a number of cottage prayer meetings before the revival in March.

The Donna McClelland Circle then presented the program entitled "Door, Post, and Gate." The very interesting program was enjoyed by all present.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Shower For Jane Maxwell

Mrs. Virgil Tondee and her daughter Pat were hostesses Saturday evening, Feb. 8, at a kitchen towel shower for Miss Jane Maxwell.

For this unique party, each guest brought a dish towel, and during the course of the evening, embroidered on it names or some message to the bride-elect. The guests also wrote a letter to the honoree, in which each offered some choice bit of advice as to the ways and means of getting a husband's assistance in dish washing.

When all towels were finished they were collected in a bright yellow plastic laundry basket and presented to the bride-elect. The laundry basket was a gift from the hostesses.

Glasses of ice cream sodas topped with cherries were served with a variety of cookies to the guests, who included the Misses Salie Harrison, Peggy Bussard, Lynelle and Linda Griffin, Eve Campbell, Martha O'Steen, Faye and Nancy Watford, Alice Hollingsworth, Clytee and Nancy Coleman, Carolyn Biggs, Annie Laura Scott, Sandra Kelsey, Judy Hooper,

First Methodist Church News

The Woman's Society for Christian Service held their monthly meeting in Wesley Hall on Monday, Feb. 3, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Colin DeShong announced the subject of the program to be presented by Circle 4 which was "Those Who Serve". The Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. DeShong. Mrs. Cecil Ferguson spoke on "The Brotherhood of Man" after which several minutes of silent mediation followed.

Circle 4 then presented a panel discussion on "Where Christian Citizenship Starts" with Miss Millie Pearson acting as moderator. Members answering questions and discussing problems on the panel where Mrs. Ruby Johns, Mrs. J. C. DeShong, Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine, Mrs. Ellis Watson, Mrs. W. P. O'Steen, Mrs. Langston, Mrs. Earl Rich and Mrs. Hubert Bussard. The stimulating discussion was enjoyed by all the members present.

During the business meeting that followed with Mrs. Bussard presiding in the absence of Mrs. Fred Simcox, president and several important announcements were made.

The District Women's Society Meeting and Conference will be held in the First Methodist Church in Sebring on March 14. All members of the Avon Park group are urged to attend.

The Annual World Day of Prayer on Friday, Feb. 21, will be held in the First Baptist Church of Avon Park this year.

The local Women's Society will hold a promotion workshop in Wesley Hall on Feb. 27.

A social hour followed the business meeting with the members of Circle 4 serving delicious refreshments to the twenty-five members present.

Episcopal Church News

Plans are now complete for the Annual Pancake Day on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 18.

This is sponsored by the St. Margaret's Auxiliary of the Church of the Redeemer in the Parrish House. Delicious pancakes will be served from 8 in the morning until 2 in the afternoon. For one dollar each customer may be served all the delightful pancakes that he can eat.

The public is cordially invited.

Sally Nute, and Barbara and Patsy Perez.

Birthday Party Is Surprise To Honoree

A birthday cake decorated in pink and green with "Happy Birthday, Velma, Sweet Sixteen," written on it completed the surprise to Velma Whitehurst on her sixteenth birthday.

Velma was honored with a surprise birthday party at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rich on Saturday night, Feb. 8.

The boys and girls played games and Miss Pat Anderson won a prize of a giant lollipop for pinning the errings on the girl when blindfolded. Besides the delicious birthday cake they were served cokes, candy and nuts to eat during the enjoyable evening.

Helping Velma celebrate her surprise birthday were Mary Sue Rewis, Diane and Claire Penny, James Strength, Hilda Jones, Charles Whitehurst, Ray Granthum, Hazel and Pat Sasser, Daniel Money, David Johnson, Pat Anderson, Les Northup, Gloria Mallard, Jim Powers, and Jan Ellis. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rich helped serve the guests. Velma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Whitehurst.

Brownie Scout News

Troop 5 of the Avon Park Brownies met at their regular time on Tuesday afternoon and opened the meeting with their regular Brownie services.

The cooking trip to Florida Power was postponed due to the illness of Miss Faye Gordon.

The girls painted their aprons, played games, and made Valentines.

Mrs. Betty Graham served refreshments to the group.

Brownie Troop 3 met with their leader for the month, Mrs. Roy Ladwig and started work on their purses after the Brownie ritual.

The Brownies of Troop 3 hopes to have some of the purses ready for display in the fair.

Brownies Debbie Ward served refreshments to the troop.

Troop 4 met on Saturday morning and finished making valentines to take home to their parents after the usual Brownie opening exercises.

The Brownies of this troop will have a valentine party at their next meeting on Saturday, Feb. 15, and each Brownie is asked to bring valentines for

Auxiliary To Sponsor 2 At Girl's State

The Auxiliary of the American Legion has paid their dues to sponsor two Avon Park girls as representatives to Girl's State in Tallahassee this summer. The Auxiliary will pay the expenses of one girl and the Business Women's Club will pay the expenses of the other. This will be the first time that Avon Park has had two girls at this outstanding event.

That was some of the important business presented at the regular monthly meeting of the Legion Auxiliary on Monday night, Feb. 10, in the home of Mrs. P. C. Boney with Mrs. Boney serving as hostess to the members.

The members have sent a large box of clothing to the Crippled Children's Home in St. Petersburg. The Auxiliary is proud of the fact that they were the first group to come to the aid of Mrs. Ray Smith and her family after they were in such desperate straits last week. The members quickly rounded up donations of food and clothing and feel the family is in much better shape now. Other groups quickly joined the Legion Auxiliary in coming to their aid.

Mrs. Ruby Heim, president, announced that poppies had been ordered for the Annual Poppy Day Sale which will be held on May 25 this year. Mrs. Heim also told the Auxiliary what a good speech and impression their representative to Girl's State last year, Miss Jan Saylor had given to the Junior Woman's Club when she spoke there last week.

The Auxiliary has sent more get well cards to Legionaire Will Bennett who is ill in Bay Pines.

The Yearly Important Day Cards for each member's personal donation on these outstanding days were passed around and will be collected in December of next year.

Th next meeting place of the Auxiliary will be announced later and Mrs. Ben Stewart

MISS MARY SALLY SAYERS

Mr. and Mrs. Lester David Sayers of Opp, Alabama, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their niece, Mary Sally Sayers, of Avon Park, Fla., to James Donald Langford of East Tallassee and Washington, D. C.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sayers of Tallassee, Alabama. She is a student at Avon Park High School, Avon Park, Florida.

The groom-elect is the son of Mrs. Margaret Langford and the former Mr. Langford of East Tallassee. He is a graduate of Tallassee High School and attended AFI at Auburn for two years. He completed two years with the U. S. Army where he received a diploma from the Southeastern Signal School for training in Field Radio repair work. He is now employed with the Bureau of Standards, Washington, D. C., and is attending the George Washington University. The wedding will take place in the First Methodist Church in Tallassee, Monday, Feb. 17, 1958. No cards will be sent. All friends of the couple are invited to the wedding.

Howard Godwin Has Sixth Birthday Party

Howard Godwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Godwin, Jr., celebrated his sixth birthday on Saturday morning, Feb. 8, with a birthday party for some of his friends at the Florida Power Clubhouse.

The boys and girls played a number of games in the clubhouse and helped Howard open his presents with great gusto.

The birthday cake was decorated with a large football with "Happy Birthday, Howard" written on it and was a great hit with the guests especially the little boys. The children ate cake, ice cream, and fruit punch. Favors were valentine candy.

Friends helping Howard celebrate were Quentin Atkins, Stephen Anderson, Bill McDaniels, Mike Rhiner, Wesley Turner, Rion Starkey, Mike Lahr, Janey Barben, Ann Montsdeposon, Debbie Young, Nancie Tyson, Sarah Catherine Turnbull, Diane Murphy, Ronnie and Janice Fletcher, Deborah Perry, Jimmie Warrington, Marty Kelly, Candy and Holly Reddick, Lark Adams, Nancy Foxworth, and Sally Laughan Georgianne Godwin and Chuck Warrington helped with the games.

Assisting Mrs. Godwin were Mrs. Charles S. Warrington, Mrs. Thurmond Perry, and Mrs. Fred Reddick.

First Baptist Church News

The pastor and congregation of the First Baptist Church are deeply gratful for the success and blessings of Spiritual Emphasis Week. Dr. Chester Swor's message meant a great deal to everyone in the large crowds he reached and The Rev. Fagan did an excellent job with the singing.

The Sunday of Feb. 23 will be the Tourist Day-Dinner and all are asked to keep this date in mind.

During the week of Feb. 17-21 two very important Sunday School books will be taught. They are "Soul Winning Doctrines" and "Church Using Its Sunday School". The first named book will help some workers secure their Worker's Diploma.

All members of the church are cordially invited to attend the Open House for the new pastorium at 3 East Walnut Street which will be held on Friday night, Feb. 14. Calling hours are from 7 until 9 o'clock and all who attend the church are invited.

Elem. Operetta To Be Held On Feb. 20, 21

More than one hundred children of the Avon Elementary School with a number of teachers and mothers are practicing faithfully each day on the coming operetta, "Fairies Are Really Truly".

The colorful costumes that add so much to the finished product have been chosen and are in the process of being made. The enthusiastic young cast is rapidly learning its lines, songs, and dances. The adult helpers are learning a great number of things.

So, for a really truly delightful evening remember to attend the Avon Elementary operetta, "Fairies Are Really Truly," on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 20, or Friday evening, Feb. 21, in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium.

Tickets will be on sale at the school and other places at very reasonable prices by Friday, Feb. 14.

Fla. Power Aux. Holds Meeting

The Women's Auxiliary of the Florida Power Employees Club held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday night, Feb. 6, in the Florida Power Clubhouse.

The members worked on their aluminum trays and met again Monday morning, Feb. 10 to finish the enjoyable work or to make more different objects. The project was a great hit with the members participating.

Mrs. Lamarr Wilde, Chairman, announced the date for the March Quarterly Party and stated that it would be held at 7 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. Arlin King and Mrs. Richard Birt, Hostesses, served cherry pie and coffee to the members present. Mrs. Robert Harden won the door prize. Members present were Mrs. Ed Sharpe, Mrs. R. L. Burlingame, Mrs. W. W. Sherertz, Jr., Mrs. W. E. Albritton, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. L. Y. DuBose, Mrs. Calvin Fletcher, Mrs. Wendall Smith, Mrs. H. R. Dourberly, Mrs. Lamarr Wilde and Mrs. Durrah Martin, Mrs. Ray Rutherford and her guest, Mrs. H. J. Rutherford, her sister-in-law, of Higley, Arizona.

The next meeting of the organization will be held on Thursday, March 6, in the Clubhouse with Mrs. Calvin Fletcher acting as hostess.

Maxwell - Day Wedding Plans Announced

Plans are being announced for the wedding of Miss Jane Maxwell to Walter R. Day, Jr., which will be an event of February 22. The ceremony will be performed at 7:30 o'clock in the First Methodist Church of Avon Park.

The Rev. W. O. Luttrell will officiate at the double-ring ceremony, following a program of nuptial music presented by Mrs. Edna L. Jackson, organist, and Richard D. Reddick, Jr., soloist.

The bride's sister, Miss claire Maxwell, will attend her as maid of honor; bridesmaids will be Miss Eleanor Simmons of Gainesville, Miss Arlene Sargent of Avon Park, and Miss Carol Pike of Chattanooga, Tenn., fiancee of the bride's brother, Thomas Maxwell.

The bridegroom's father, Walter R. Day of Fairfield, Alabama, will serve his son as best man. Ushers will be Herman Tillman of Gainesville, Gene Matthieu of Fairfield, Ala., Thomas Maxwell of Avon Park, brother of the bride, and Thomas B. Elfe of Gainesville.

No invitations have been issued locally. All friends of the couple are invited to attend both the wedding and the reception, which will be held in Wesley Hall immediately following the ceremony.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, will hold open house throughout the day and evening, Thursday, Feb. 20, at their home on East Pleasant Street in Avon Park, and all friends are invited to call and view the wedding gifts.

Florida's salt water fishing industry ranks fourth in the U. S. and gives employment to over 12,000 persons directly.

Supper Celebrates S. Y. Moseley's Tenth Birthday

S. Y. Moseley, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Moseley, entertained his sister and four of his friends at his home with a chicken supper on Wednesday, Feb. 5, to celebrate his tenth birthday.

The boys and girls enjoyed a delicious supper of fried chicken, and all the trimmings. For dessert they had birthday cake and ice cream.

Guests helping S. Y. celebrate were Vaunda Bennett, Dot Grove, Charles Cothran, Billy Shelton and Martha Ann Moseley.

Old Bill opines: The motorist with a chip on his shoulder orter keep his blockhead outa traffic.

Make your plans now to attend a Fashion Show and Tea sponsored by the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club on Wednesday, February 19, from three until five o'clock in the afternoon.

Winter Guest Club News

There were eleven tables for bridge on Tuesday, Feb. 4 at which time Clara Rentschler had high score, and E. Ludington a close second; no door prizes this day. Mr. Miller's class on Friday mornings, say the game's addicts, is proving interesting and helpful. There are about 30 in attendance each session, in spite of the cold mornings.

The shuffleboard devotees had a full week, just past, with tournament play four times. In Wednesday's choose-your-partner event Frank Lane and John Williams were the winners. The Sebring club walked home with the trophy on Thursday, having won the necessary three out of five games. Duke Christiansen and V. Slater won the potluck tournament on Saturday. In Friday's tussle with Michigan vs. Ohio, Michigan victorious. This was a most interesting, well played match; the score was anybody's guess until the last shot, ending in 25-23.

Over 200 people jammed (we use this word advisedly) the clubhouse Thursday evening for the program by the quartet, "The Four Sons", of St. Petersburg. Mel Ogden is their manager and emcee, and does an excellent job. Mr. Russell Bayley is the pianist for the group; Mr. George Nadis sings tenor; Mr. Emil Mueller, bass; Mr. Nick Hollis, baritone and Mr. Mel Ogden, second tenor. All of us wish to thank our Program Committee for scheduling this outstanding group of entertainers; for music of that quality we can endure crowding, hard chairs, and the attendant irritations.

Did we say the house was packed on Thursday? You should have been there on Friday--the walls really bulged. It was not unforeseen, however, and by repeating the squares, everyone who wanted to dance had an opportunity to do so.

There are so many beginners now that a special class has been scheduled for them on Mondays at 9:30 a. m. This will be for only a few weeks, just long enough to help these folk learn the dance routine. Regular practice is on Tuesday at 9:00 a. m., as usual.

The sing on Sunday was in charge of Mr. Fred Ifland who very ably directed the singing in Mr. Shiltz' absence. There were over one hunderd in attendance on this very beautiful Sunday afternoon. Special numbers included a vocal solo by Mr. Ifland, a piano solo by Miss Sally Harrison, a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith, and a number by the men's chorus in Mrs. Wolverton's absence Mrs. Perry Smith of North Carolina, was pianist for the day.

The potluck suppers on Saturday night continue to be popular, with approximately one hundred in attendance. A word to the wise is in order here; if you're a calorie counter you would do well to fast all day. The tables fairly groan with an abundance of tempting viands; believe me, 'tis no place for a dieter, says

"On the strength of God's word Russia with ten times her present atomic power will never rule the world" said Pastor W. C. Arnold at Walker Memorial Chapel on Sunday evening, Feb. 9.

That the divine prediction of Daniel 2:43 "they shall not cleave one to another" has hindered every aspiring would leader down through the ages and will continue until the God of Heaven shall set up his kindom was avowed by Pastor Arnold. He also declared that this is the way out, the Christian hope and none should doubt that God's plan for the universe will succeed.

Sunday night's lecture was the first in a series of talks on specific problems mentioned by the Bible. The topic for Wednesday night was "Modern Wonders Foretold in the Bible". Friday night, Feb. 14, the subject will be "The Devil on the Dole"; on Sunday night, Feb. 16 Pastor Arnold will explain "Why A God of Love Allowed 6,000 Years of Sorrow, Suffering and Sin"; and on next Wednesday night, Feb. 19 the topic will be "Prophetic Symbols--God's Cartoons".

A special Youth feature will be held at 7:30 o'clock each evening before the regular sermon. There will be songs very night and various other things of interest to the young people. Mrs. Grace Shultz, of Denver, Colo., an outstanding artist, will do chalk drawings before some of the lectures. Mrs. Odyssea Boyd is pianist and Mrs. Hildur Carlson was soloist on Sunday evening. Mrs. Grace Larsen is organist.

According to the State of Conservation, the mullet is the Florida saltwater fish caught in greatest numbers. Now being canned, it compares favorably with salmon in favor and quality.

The making of a good North Florida-South Florida fight are involved in the Educational Television situation.

The Florida Educational Television Commission has gotten approval on three out of four links that it might be possible to build with its $500,000.

On the fourth link, it recommended a link to Pensacola from Tallahassee, which could link junior colleges in Marianna, Panama City, and two in Pensacola.

After looking over the plans, Gov. LeRoy Collins asked that the proposed Tallahassee-Pensacola link be delayed, pending a study of something for the Miami, Fort Lauderdale, West Palm Beach area.

Collins said the plans seemed to be top heavy in favor of the northern part of the state, ignoring the big population areas of south Florida.

The links approved were: Tampa to St. Petersburg, Gainesville to Jacksonville, and Gainesville to Tallahassee. All the links involve broadcasting channels and programs could be picked up on regular sets.

Whatever the final decision is, it will be right on the line—north against south—and should be interesting.

CHANGE IN EMPHASIS—From the proposals made by the E-TV commission, there seems to be a shift in emphasis.

During the legislature, the big talk was about TV linking the state universities with the junior colleges on a "closed circuit" basis.

Instead, the present proposed network links only broadcast channels (two of them, Tampa and Jacksonville, not state owned or operated.)

The big reason seems to be that frequencies for microwave links are easier to get between broadcasting channels. These are classified as studio-transmitter links and the FCC has established procedures in allocating such links.

In dealing with microwave frequencies to link closed circuit operations, the procedure is fuzzy. The FCC has recently completed hearings on the subject, and may come up with a policy.

As it stands, the telephone companies want first shot at the frequencies. Other groups, such as educational television commissions, and companies with far-flung operations, also want some reserved for them.

This is why the areas with established E-TV channels will probably get the breaks in the early stages of Florida's development.

DANGER POINT—One danger in linking up non-state channels seems to be this question:

What happens if the private ventures don't have enough money to operate?

It looks like the legislature would be confronted with this kind of an argument:

"You already have spent all this money to hook us up with your education TV network, why don't you take over our station and pay all the operating costs too. . .or at least pay a little bit of our operating costs, if only to protect your investment."

Having the state operate such channels may or may not be desirable in the future, but the state should avoid as many intangling alliances as possible until it is satisfied that operational costs of these stations can and will be provided by the local governments—or through private organizations.

JUNION COLLEGES—As it stands, the junior colleges, unless they are within broadcast range of educational television stations will have to wait to take advantage of educational television.

Looking at the money available and other restrictions—the only junior colleges that will be benfitted to any large extent are the two in St. Petersburg.

These will be served over Channel 3 in Tampa. When constructed, the new junior college in Manatee will be able to pick up the signal from the same station.

The proposed junior college at Ocala also will be able to pick up the signal from the Gainsville station (channel 5).

Others aren't close enough to the broadcast channels, although some arrangements might possible to beam a signal into the proposed new junior colleges at Palatka and Daytona Beach, from the Gainesville stattion—but this will require some study.

Other junior colleges that would be benefitted depends largely on whether the fourth link goes north or south. Of course, eventually, all will probably be tied in.

If it goes south, it might be possible to link Palm Beach with Miami.

If it goes out through northwest Florida, the Tallahassee link could be extended to Madison, Pensacola, Marianna, and Panama City—all of which either have or will have junior colleges. Madison is the only place that does not now have a junior college, and Pensacola has two.

CRACKER POLITICS

BY ALLEN MORRIS

Tallahassee—Development of the Apalachee Parkway likely means the inauguration of Florida governors will be returned to the traditional scene at the Capitol's front steps.

The inaugural site was changed, amid mutterings by traditionalists, to the plain back door of the Capitol in 1953. Three ceremonies have been held there, for Governor Dan McCarty that year and for Governor LeRoy Collins in 1955 and 1957.

The change was made to take advantage of the elbow-room afforded by the creation of Block-square Waller Park between the Capitol and the Supreme Court building.

The actual oath-taking was off the property of the Capitol itself, the platform was laid across Adams street from the statehouse to the edge of the park. The official ceremonies took place on the overhang within the park.

Now, with expansion in the area in front of the Capitol, there will be room aplenty for the inauguration ceremony in the traditional place. And there will not only space but the atmosphere so lacking at the back door.

The front steps furnish a natural seating arrangement so that members of the official families of the incoming and outgoing governors and other dignitaries may be banked up behind the main participants in the quadrennial pageant, with all occuring in front of the great white columns of the Capitol.

Because the Waller park ceremonies were conducted on a flat platform, many spectators were unable to see satisfactorily. Too, it was difficult to hear in some areas since the buildings on the four sides of the park produced an acoustical problem the sound engineers could never lick.

The congestion at the front of the Capitol has been eliminated through the widening of Monroe street, which runs past the statehouse, and the building of the Apalachee Parkway. The parkway has a width of 106 feet where it deadends at the Capitol steps after an undulating, scenic approach of a mile and three quarters.

With a single exception, the stately East portico was the scene of Florida gubernatorial inaugurations from 1885 until 1953. The exception occurred in 1909, when heavy rainfall drove the inauguration of Governor Albert W. Gilchrist into the chamber of the House of Representatives.

Waller park has gained a symbol of American freedom even if it loses its distinction as the inaugural scene. The park is named for the late Judge Curtis L. Waller of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, a Tallahassee lawyer, raconteur and delightful person.

An arch in the shape of a double wishbone has been raised in Waller park to suspend the replica of the Philadelphia Liberty Bell which the French gave Florida in token of gratitude for help after World War II.

The replica of the Liberty Bell was stored away until the thought occurred rather recently to hang it in the park. Its placement there was not entirely without criticism, but this was directed mainly against the bell as another encroachment upon the grounds about the Capitol Center.

Governor Collins likes the idea of having a ceremonial bell which can be sounded on memorable occasions. He views the bell as a community shrine for such occasions as Veterans' Day, Memorial Day and the Fourth of July and also a place where individuals could renew patriotic dedications by pausing for a few moments in the park.

The Governor says the bell could be heard for a considerable distance. Unprotected, the bell could be a spine-chilling tocsin if struck by a midnight prankster.

In the passing the other day of Albert L. (Tubby) Spear, the Governor lost a most loyal hometown supporter who had counselled him wisely at a turning point in the Collins governmental career.

Collins, then a Leon county Representative, was edged out by a handful of votes when the House met in caucus at Moon Lake to designate its Speaker for the 1939 session. After making the loser's traditional motion to have the vote for his opponent declared unanimous, Collins was of a mind to leave the ensuing festivities and return home.

Spear, whose political instincts were quite keen, insisted that Collins remain. He said it might otherwise appear that Collins was quitting the field in despair and dejection and perhaps as something less than a good sport.

Collins stayed at Moon Lake and at dinner had an opportunity to tell a story which has become rather familiar. He said he was not like the man who was bitten by a mad dog, had a physician confirm his plight, and then set about frantically writing. When asked if he were writing his will, the dog victim replied, "No, I'm putting down a list of the people I want to bite so I won't overlook anyone."

Collins never forgot how well that story received and the obvious moral that people like good losers. And he mingled with his House colleagues until the last had gone off to bed. Then he and Tubby Spear drove back to Tallahassee. At the time of his death, Spear operated a rug cleaning firm here.

Another event in the Capital is a resurgence of talk about a new wet-dry election. Tallahassee and Leon county remained legally dry when the wets lost an election in December, 1951, by 406 votes out of a total cast of 7,676.

Some hotel and restaurant interests have endeavored to delay the circulation of petitions for a new election until the 1959 Legislature can consider adding a third alternative to the two which now may be presented to voters who favor liquor sale. Presently, such voters may decide only between (1) package stores and (2) package stores and bars. The third alternative would permit sales by the drink in hotels and restaurants.

Of those who voted wet in the 1951 referendum, 519 favore sale both by the package and by the drink and 3,219 would have limited sale to package stores.

Girl Scouts

Thirty-four members of the Avon Park Girl Scouts met at their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon and practiced some new Scout songs with their new leaders, Mrs. Bob Lee and Mrs. N. H. Booth.

The Scouts took home entry blanks for their entries in the Highlands County Fair which must be turned in to the leaders by Friday, Feb. 14. No entries will be accepted without these entry blanks for each one. The actual exhibits will be taken to the Fair Grounds on Feb. 23 between 2 to 4. The leaders wish each girl to bring her exhibit to the Scout Building so that they may be readied for the fair.

The girls did some painting on their plagues and other things. Mrs. Garland Kelly served refreshments of cokes and cup-cakes.

DAR Observes American History Month

The month of February is being observed by Patriot's Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution as American History Month.

Mrs. Frederic A. Groves, President General, of the National Organization, declared in a letter to the local chapter, "Our present interest in the development of science in the United States should not blind us to the need for continuing the study of American History. Scientists, like other citizens, should be motivated by love of our country under God, and that love is best developed through a study of the history of this country."

Evidence of an increasing interest in American History in the public schools is constantly reaching the office of the Historian General of the Society who is Mrs. Lowell E. Burnelle of Glouster, Ohio. She says that there is more and more demand for history certificates and history medals to be awarded to pupils from the fourth grade through high school and that this increase reflects a more intensive study of American History by school children.

18th Session Of Campmeeting Closed Sunday

The 18th session of the Avon Park Campmeeting closed Sunday night after a session that was filled with great preaching, wonderful singing and fellowship of the saints. Dr. S. H. Tuberville of Winter Park the president was in charge. Folks attended this camp from twenty-three of the forty-eight states. At the camp last year there were also twenty-three states represented. This year from the State of Washington to Massachussetts from Canada to Florida. Cuba, Haiti and Urundi, Africa were represented. This year this part of the country had a lot of unseasonable weather for during the camp and so the attendence would have been better if the weather conditions had been different. There were many more trailers at the campground this year than ever before. There are more houses on the campground also. All of the streets will soon be clayed and so the future of this forty acre plot is still taking on new life.

Those at the camp gave liberally for the support of the camp and also gave a nice offering for the advancement of foreign missions. The Cooper Music Company of Orlando donated for the use of the campmeeting a fine piano and also an electric organ.

The workers for this year were very acceptable and all three of them have been invited back for the 1959 camp along with Prof. Clay Milby song leader of Valdosta, Ga. Milby started leading the singing at the Methodist Campmeeting at Epworth by the Sea near Brunswick, Ga. this past Monday. Miss Winifred Roe of Avon Park will be at the organ next year. Prof. and Mrs. M. V. Lewis of Tampa were just the folks for carrying on the morning praise service as was Mr. J. C. Burgher the evening circle of prayer meeting.

Over 2,300 meals were served in the fine dining hall that is located on the grounds. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watts of Weaverville, N. C. had charge of this end of the camp with a fine crew of ladies and men assisting them. The meals were served family style and the fellowship was enjoyed.

A special room is provided for the recording of the messages on tape recorders and a goodly number of these machines were in use. There were hearing aides for those that were hard of hearing on the west side of the building.

In the front of the tabernacle in matched frames are the pictures of Dr. Henry Clay Morrison and John Taylor with the picture of the Sallman's Christ. During the camp a spot light was put up to shine on the framed picture of the Christ.

The new members of the board of control are: - Rev. L. Chester Lewis who has a home on the campgrounds, Mr. L. E. Dietz a real estate agent of Rossville, Georgia and Mrs. C. W. Hughes of Bradenton, Fla. A new home is being started on the campground for her and her sister this week on Lake Isis Ave. This camp is interdenominational and so the board is made up of more than one denomination.

The next campmeeting on the grounds will be in June when there will be two youth camps. This part of the camp program is growing. A large group from Asbury College, Wilmore, Ky. will be here for that encampment as leaders.

Revival To Continue At Christian Church

Paul M. Jordan, Minister of the Central Christian Church in Tampa, will continue to preach the sermon at the Revival in the First Christian Church on Highway 27 North each evening at 7:30 the rest of this week and next week.

Mr. Jordan graduated from the Ozark Bible College in Joplin, Mo., and has done some very outstanding work along this line. He will have the morning devotional time on the local radio station next week each day at 8:45 until 9:00 o'clock.

An outstanding program of music will be presented by the Wauchula Christian Church each evening next week under the direction of Miss Virginia Patterson, supervisor. Miss Patterson and Mrs. Jack Melendy will relieve each other at the piano. On Monday night three women and their three daughters will provide the music. Mrs. Doris Lambert will sing a solo on Tuesday night. The Wauchula church's full choir will be present on Wednesday night. Thursday night Kenneth R. Rane, Minister of the Church, will sing a solo and Friday night the Children's Choir will sing.

Scout Leaders Attend Meeting

A large group of Scout leaders, mothers, and interested people attended the Girl Scout meeting on Thursday, Feb. 6, in the Fla. Power Customers Room.

Mrs. Robert Medlock, Regional Committee from Atlanta, Miss Bonnie Beth, Executive Administrator of Atlanta, and Mrs. George Costello, Winter Haven, Regional Advisor, were present to answer questions of the local leaders and to present a very interesting program.

There were representatives from Avon Park, Sebring, Lake Placid, Winter Haven, and Bartow present at the meeting. The Avon Park group served the ladies coffee with their sack lunches at noon.

The value of a county council to be affiliated with the National Girl Scout Organization was discussed. A film strip "Girl Scouting in the Neighborhood was shown and some practical ways for improving the local scouting programs given.

Miss Bonnie Beth will speak to the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club at their meeting in March and will spend some time in the various communities becoming acquainted with the Girl Scouting facilities and problems.

The next meeting of the group will be on Thursday, March 6 from ten until 2 o'clock. More will be announced about this meeting later.

Former Highlands Tax Collector Died Sunday

Frank Armistead, 57, of West Palm Beach passed away Sunday in the Veterans Hospital at Coral Gables. He was a native of Bartow and had resided in Avon Park for 30 years.

Mr. Armistead was a veteran of World War No. I Navy and World War No. II CB's for four years. He was tax collector of Highlands County for a number of years, a salesman for the Ford Motor Co., Avon Park and was employed by the State Road Department, Palm Beach County. He was a member of the Episcopal Church.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Mayme Lister Armistead of West Palm Beach and two uncles, Keith and James Armistead of Tampa.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the Stephenson Funeral Home Chapel with The Rev. Peter F. Watterson of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer officiating. American Legion funeral services were held at the graveside. Interment in the Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were J. N. Tomson, J. C. DeShong, Roscoe Bass, Ross Bigbie, Sherty Long and Roland Droit.

Honorary pallbearers were Charlie Lanier, Ed Welch, Gus Carrel, G. T. Bigbie, Will A Roberts, Ed DeLaney, Dr. A. R Clark, D. G. Perry, Broward Coker, Sol McClelland, Harvey Piety, Demos Mandis, Rudy Ashton, and Eddie Montalbocca.

Stephenson Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Air Lines Ticket Agency Opens In Sebring

The Highlands Travel Service, located in the Hotel Sebring Building, Sebring, has been appointed an authorized sales agency by Eastern Air Lines and National Airlines. The appointments, under the regulations of the Air Traffic Conference, enables the agency to issue tickets on any scheduled air line.

Under normal circumstances, a travel agency must be in operation more than a year to obtain the airline appointments. Because there is no other travel agency in Highlands County, Eastern Air Lines was able to sponsor the agency for an ATC appointment January 6. National Airlines joined in the ATC action and is sponsoring the Highlands Travel Service for an International Air Transport Association appointment, covering foreign airlines.

Formerly Highlands County residents were required to write or phone airline offices in Tampa or other cities to make reservations and then purchase tickets by mail. Now they can obtain reservations by phoning EVergreen 5-1031 and they can purchase tickets at the agency office at the regular airline prices.

The Highlands Travel Service is also the county agency for Tropical Airlines, serving Sebring, Lake Wales and Tampa. The agency also represents Steamship lines, tours and hotels. Earle Stanton is the manager.

Girls Lose To Frostproof And Kathleen

The Girls Varsity of Avon Park High School lost in both outings last week as they bowed to Frostproof 51 - 43 for the second time this season last Tuesday night and then on Friday night they lost to Kathleen 51 - 41 in a close contest in Kathleen.

Frostproof outscored Avon Park in the first three quarters of the steady defeat, hopping off to a 12 - 9 lead in the first quarter and stepping on to a 25 - lead at halftime.

In the third period, Lillian Cotton stared for the Pupettes and they scored 15 to Avons 10. The fourth quarter saw an improved Avon Park Sextette with Ann Rowland hitting the bucket to lead in outscoring Frostproof 13 to 11.

Again the long, high shots of the Frostproof SexShots fascinated the fans and Lillian Cotton led with 22 points with Eudene Jenkins, also a long shot artist, piling in 19.

Ann Rowland led the losers with 30, and Frankie Thorpe made 11. Avon Park made 7 out of 10 free throws for 70 per cent.

On Friday Avon Park went on the road only to lose the game to a Sophomore Kathleen Sextette 51 to 41.

The Devilettes outscored Kathleen in the first quarter

Wrestling matches are presented at the Armory every Thursday night at 8:15 by Cowboy Luttrall.

WWI Veterans Met Monday

World War I Veterans of Highlands County Barracks 587 met for the regular monthly meeting Monday night, February 10, at the City Pier in Sebring. Best wishes for a quick recovery were extended to the four Buddys who were sick and unable to attend the meeting.

The Veterans of Avon Park wish to thank the citizens and business firms for their donations which will be used for a good cause.

All World War I Veterans are welcome to attend the meetings which are held on the second Monday of the month. Buddys meet at Touchton's Drug Store at 7:30 on meeting nights and there is always plenty of transportation to Sebring.

Mid-State Title Co. Opens Office

Another new business firm opened an office in Avon Park last week. The new firm, Mid-State Title Company, is located at 15 South Lake Avenue, and will handle real estate title insurance.

James P. Walsh, president of by one point but in the second quarter they dropped back 14 - 9 in the close contest and at halftime Kathleen led 22 - 18.

The Kahleen Sextette romped all over Avon Park in the third quarter, outscoring them 17 to 6.

Avon Park recovered a little in the fourth to outscore Kathleen 17 to 12. Robbins made 19 for Kahleen and Hawley had 17.

Wedding Plans Announced

Plans for the wedding of Miss Jeanette Tadlock and William Lee have been announced.

The wedding will be February 18 at 6:30 o'clock in the First Baptist Church in Sebring with the Rev. A. R. Fagan officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Frank Morgan, organist, and Mrs. Cecil Heston, soloist, will present a program of nuptial music before the ceremony.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, Mr. H. D. Tadlock.

Mrs. Robert D. Ortt will serve as matron of honor and Mrs. James Strole as bridesmaid.

The bridegroom will have as best man, James Lee Pierce, his nephew. Ushers will be Kelton Hill, James Strole, and Billy Lee, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception will be held at Tomae immediately following the ceremony.

No invitations are being sent but all friends and relatives of the young couple are invited to attend.

$293 Collected For Center By Youth Association In 57 Drive

The Avon Park Youth Association reports that $293 was donated by personal and business contributors during the 1957 drive. The Association is very grateful to all who contributed to this worthy cause. The money collected will be used to continue the wonderful work which is being done for the teenagers at the Youth Center.

Here the youths of the community find clean, wholesome entertainment under the direction of Andrew Miracle and parents who serve as chaperones. The Youth Center is open nearly every Friday and Saturday evening for the teenagers to enjoy ping pong, music, dancing, games and other forms of entertainment including hamburger frys.

The Youth Association wishes to thank the following persons and firms for their contributions, and if you would like to contribute to the drive mail your donation to Mrs. Robert R. King, Jr., for all donations will be greatly appreciated.

Personal contributions of $2.00 each were received from Mrs. Gladys Rush, Mrs. Loy H. Brodie, Mrs. E. G. Todd, Mrs. Frank Truan, Mrs. Lula Gough, Mrs. Mildred Ford, Mrs. Keith E. Collyer, Miss Mildred C. Myers, Harold Klemm, Frank Gerlock, Harry Carpenter, Mrs. C. W. Hood, Mrs. John Duggan, Mrs. C. R. Durden, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Cases Arraigned In Circuit Court Tuesday

Ray Smith plead guilty to the charge of receiving stolen property in Circuit Court the first of this week. Circuit Judge Gunter Stephenson deferred sentence until Friday pending an investigation.

Harold Smith charged with grand larceny was arraigned Tuesday and sentence was deferred until the Court could notify his father.

The Smith brothers were taken into custody several weeks ago when the Avon Park police found eight outboard motors at their home. Also charged in the connection with the theft of the motors was Peter Polesky, 23, who was returned from Schenectady, N. Y. by Sheriff's Deputy Jack Hancock Sunday night. Polesky charged with grand larceny was arraigned Tuesday morning and entered a plea of

Bobbie Sue Elder Receives Good Citizen Award

Miss Bobbie Sue Elder has been chosen as the senior at the Avon Park High School to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Award this year. The winner is chosen each year by a vote of class mates and faculty. This entitles Miss Elder to enter the DAR essay contest. The award is given on the basis of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism.

As a reward for good citizenship, the National Society, DAR, provides that one Senior girl in each accredited public High School is entitled to receive a Certificate of Award and a Good Citizens pin from the Chapter sponsoring the high school. The local high school is sponsored by the Patriots Chapter.

The National Society will give to one girl chosen as the Florida State Good Citizen a U. S. Savings Bond, Series E, of $100 maturity value. In addition the Florida State Good Citizen will be a guest of the annual State Conference in March. From among the school Good Citizens, the State Good Citizen will be selected. The winner will be the girl who has answered the best questionnaire and written the best essay on "What Is Good Citizenship". The choice shall be made under the supervision of the State Regent and the State Chairman of the Good Citizens Committee.

Miss Elder has a high scho-

Directors of the drive wish to express their thanks to all those who worked on various committees and Mothers for their March and the citizens of Highlands County for their contributions in making this years drive a succes.

Local Citizens Win Ribbons At State Fair

Citizens of Avon Park and Highlands County will be pleased and proud to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Ira Stropes of 616 W. Walnut Street in Avon Park brought home a number of blue and red ribbons for their entries in the Florida State Fair in Tampa this year.

Mrs. Stropes won a blue ribbon for first prize for a crocheted afghan and a blue ribbon for crocheted pillow cases. Her crocheted doll won a red ribbon or second prize. Also winning red ribbons were her cut work doily, cut work pillow cases, and cut work guest towel.

Not to be outdone by his wife, Mr. Ira Stropes won a red second prize ribbon with a rug that he had hooked. He has taken up the hooking of rugs as a hobby in the last few years because of severe eye trouble. This rug was the first one that he had completed alone.

There were over six thousand entries in the hand work division of the State Fair.

Mystery Tree To Be Shown At County Fair

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce urges everyone to see the mystery tree which will be the high-light of the Avon Park booth at the Highlands County Fair beginning Monday, February 24, and running through Saturday, March 1.

This fantastic tree has been created by Miss Helen Tuten who is well known throughout the county for her elaborate and unusual displays.

The tree will be of great interest to young and old alike

Public Health Is Involved

There are certain activities of the government which are of great importance, yet are little publicized. And these activities must be adequately financed if the public interest is to be served.

A prime illustration is federal meat inspection. This is mandatory—the law requires that all meats shipped in interstate and foreign commerce be inspected. From the dollars and cents point of view, it is a comparatively minor matter—the budget request for inspection for the coming fiscal year is but $17,326,000. Yet there is always a danger that appropriations of this kind may be whittled away to the point of serious inadequacy. In the current fiscal year, for instance, it was necessary to transfer money from other funds to the inspection service in order to make up the needed total.

The House Subcommittee on Agricultural Appropriations soon will consider the amount to be allowed for meat inspection in 1959. The meat industry is concerned with what may happen. There are indications that there is an insufficient force of meat inspectors to service the industry. It is anticipated that the flow of livestock to market in the coming months will increase. If the appropriation made proves inadequate serious disruption could result.

The interest of all consumers in the matter is obvious. They want orderly and uninterrupted supplies of meat. On top of that, a public health question is involved. Here is a government service which we can't afford to allow to deteriorate.

Conservation Through Free Enterprise

"The successful operation by farmers of a nation wide soil and water conservation program through their Soil Conservation District has proved that a free enterprise operation can do the job effectively and that a free people can govern themselves as in contrast to 'conservation by government edict'—and expensive, tax-supported administrative agency operation."

That was said by Nolan J. Fuqua, president of the National Association of Soil Conservation Districts, at a speech before the last annual convention of the Farm Equipment Institute. And that was certainly a logical place to talk about conservation—for modern agricultural machinery has done more than any other force to make it possible, practical and profitable.

Mr. Fuqua said that there are more than 2,700 of these districts now in operation—all administered by locally elected farmers and ranchers. Nearly 2 million farmers are participating in carrying out soil and water conservation plans throughout the country. And here is a work with a real cash value—for it has been proven that conservation farming increases the annual net farm income by $6 to $15 per acre.

More important, it is the means whereby our limited farm acreage will be preserved and improved for coming generations. In this age of soaring populations, that is an urgent and continuing need.

No Cause For Complaint

Most of us complain when the prices of things in common use go up. That's simply human nature. And most of us give small thought to the factors which make price increases inevitable.

Oil is a good example.

Over a recently-ended 10 year period, all of the major operating costs borne by the oil industry soared. Production wages went up 62 per cent; oil field machinery prices 47 per cent; finished steel prices 67 per cent; and pipe line prices 94 per cent.

Yet, in that same period, the price of gasoline to the motorist rose by only 21 per cent. This price increase, in other words, was much less than the increases in the industry's basic costs of carrying on the business. Such factors as competition and greater operating efficiency keep the price of gas and the other oil products to the lowest feasible level.

That level, as we all know, is sufficient to give the concerns which produce and process and sell oil a profit. If it didn't, this country would face a bleak future. By 1966, say the forecasters, the oil industry must be able to increase its output of products by 59 per cent—nearly two-thirds. That means there must be billions of new investment in facilities of every kind. And only a financially healthy industry is capable of carrying out such obligations.

American Medicine Around The World

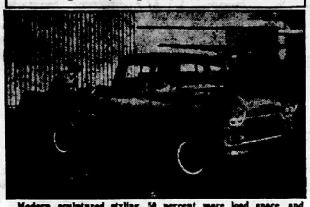

In the latter part of January a special, hour-long report on the services American doctors perform in the far corners of the world was nationally televised. It was sponsored by a pharmaceutical manufacturer in cooperation with the American Medical Association, and was inspired by President Eisenhower's appeal for "People-to-People" activities in all professions and walks of life as a key way to further international understanding.

To make the film, the crew traveled 34,000 miles — to Korea, Hong Kong, Burma, Lebanon, Nepal, Ethiopa and India. Months of research preceded this travel. The result was heart-warming reports on American doctors who serve the sick on alien shores. In one case an island for lepers has been established, after a battle against native superstition and fear. In another a medical missionary works to stamp out malaria and TB. In still another a woman doctor with only a pocket set of instruments established a child and maternal care center. In another a doctor travels from primitive village to primitive village to perform cataract operations, sometimes as many as 100 a day.

So it goes, in remote corners of the world which are not only exotic names to most of us. American doctors teach and practice, fighting disease and, equally important, lifting veils of ignorance. Their contribution to human happiness and well-being are literally immeasurable. Their work casts a bright light across this dark and troubled planet.

Winter Guest Club News

Activities of the dance group got off to a good start with four sets coming for beginner's practice on Monday morning. Tuesday morning saw their return, plus many of the more experienced, and Friday night all the squares were repeated so all could take part. At their present rate of progress the Monday special class can soon be discontinued.

The rain spoiled the tournament with Arcadia on Tuesday, but did not dampen anyone's enthusiasm; some 83 arcadians made the trip and all enjoyed the covered-dish dinner. Mrs. Martin Lindborg and her committee were in charge of the affair and served coffee to the diners. Wednesday's tournament was won by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson; Saturday's event was rained out. Friday the Orange Blossom Tournament, a state meet, was played at Sebring and several of our players attended. H. Gibson and H. Shauger progressed to the third round and E. Gruber and Duke Christiansen to the fourth round. It's encouraging to see some of our players taking an active interest in the state meets; it takes several years competition to produce winners in this kind of competition.

A new microphone and stand has been installed in the club house; let's hope this will eliminate some of the unpleasant squeaks and shrill whistling we have endured lately. Also, there has been installed new loud speakers and amplifier for the courts. This outfit can be operated either from the porch or the courts—hope we don't annoy the neighbors!

Close to one hundred people attended the card party on Thursday evening, there being several different games played. This is a good place to meet your friends for a friendly foursome, with coffee and doughnuts served by Mrs. Z. Warner and her committee. Mrs. Charles Gruber is chairman in charge of the evening card parties, ably assisted by Mrs. Charles Baker.

Mrs. Wyman reports that E. Ludington and Clara Rentschler tied for high score at the Tuesday bridge games on Feb. 4. Mrs. E. Parry had second-high, with Mrs. Fenstermann a very close runnerup, in third place. Mr. Miller reports attendance at the Friday morning bridge lessons remains the same—about 30 each session.

The Art Class meets on Tuesday mornings, remember, with Mrs. Nace in charge.

In Mr. Shiltz' absence Mr. Ney Smith will have charge of the sing next Sunday, the twenty-third.

The Saturday-evening covered-dish suppers continue to be very popular as a pleasant finale to the week's activities.

Festival Of Fla. Products Salutes Cigar Industry

Florida cigar production, in 1957, is expected to exceed the 731,000,000 cigars made in 1956, The Festival of Florida Products, February 27 - March 8 salutes this famous and historical Florida industry.

Key West was the site of the first Florida cigar factory. Founded in 1831, a serious fire razed the city in 1886 and several of the larger plants moved to Tampa's Ybor City. In a few years they were followed from Key West by the majority of the plants.

Mechanization has spread in the cigar industry. Cigar making machines are pumping out cigars faster than ever before, but as intricate and speedy as these mechanical marvels are, hand-rolling still makes up about 35 per cent of total production. The hand-rolling method is used mainly in making the higher priced cigars.

There was a time when the cigar industry employed over 13,000 persons, but the figure has decreased to about less than half with an annual payroll of about $16,000,000, making up one of Tampa's largest payrolls.

Where once there were some 180 cigar factories in operation in the state there are now but 86. Large plants may employ some 1,300 to 1,400 workers and smaller plants, in most instances are manned by older cigar makers, employing two or three cigar makers.

Florida cigars, known the world over, retail from the small "cigarillos" selling at five cents to larger sizes retailing at $1 each.

Meikrowave .....

On a clear and quiet night, you can hear an anguished wail floating through the pineywood trees.

Freely translated, it means something like this:

"What will a boy's in property assessments do to my "homestead exemption"

A r ting here Monday between ...v. LeRoy Collins, the tax assessors and others mixed up in property assessments . . . one way or the other . . . will give an indication.

But until some answers are provided on four basic points, it is difficult to pinpoint the effect on the individual property owner.

In Florida politics, the $5,000 homestead exemption is a sacred cow. You don't fiddle with it . . . or at least you don't fiddle with it much for fear the wrath of the voters will get you boosted out of office.

You also don't do anything—however right it might be—that would indicate that you are fiddling with the homestead exemption. During campaigns, a blanket charge of "that fellow wants to take away your homestead exemption" is often times enough to beat a candidate. While he's trying to explain his stand, the voters are checking his name as a fellow that can't be trusted.

To determine the impact on the homestead exemption property owner, the main question that has to be answered is "What is full cash value?"

Obviously, if full cash value is market price—or the price you could sell the property for—there are few pieces of real estate in Florida which wouldn't be valued at over $5,000.

This means that if the assessment level were raised to "market price"—something that hasn't been seriously suggested as yet—just about everything but shacks would be subject to property taxes. some wouldn't be paying much, but they would be paying.

If "full cash" value were set at something under "market value", the number of homes that would be assessed above the $5,000 homestead exemption would go down in direct proportion.

Of course, this would result in a broader base—or higher total valuation for the country property—and a lower amount of millage (one mill brings in $1 for every $1,000 valuation on property not under homestead exemption) would be required to bring in the same amount of taxes.

For those properties boosted over the $5,000 mark, it would mean more taxes since they aren't paying anything now.

For homestead property already assessed at more than $5,000—or property that does not qualify for homestead exemption—it could, in some invading millage goes down in stances, mean less taxes—proportion and all property within a county is assessed at about the same level.

To get the answers on what will happen to individual property, you have to take a look at the broad picture. At Monday's meeting here in Tallahassee, the four basic points are;

1. A procedure to be used in assessing property will have to be established. This is a detailed and point-by-point method to be used in assessing property.

Until a definite procedure is set-down there is always a chance for favoritism. In other words, one piece of property might be assessed at a higher percentage than another . . . resulting in one person paying more taxes than he should . . and the other person paying less.

2. Gov. Collins and the tax assessors will have to come to some understanding on what "acceptable job" of assessing is. In other words, a definition of "full cash value" has to be found.

There are a multitude of possibilities on this point, but basically the answer finally hinges on "market value"—the price property would sell for on the market—or some acceptable percentage of sale "market value."

3. A plan will have to be unveiled to give the governor a fair way to determine if a county is doing an "acceptable" job of tax assessing.

On this point there seem to be two possibilities . . . both of which involve the Railroad Assessment Board.

Since the Railroad Assessment Board has the power to reduce or raise the railroad valuations of a county in proportion to its overall assessment percentage, the double check must be directly related to this method.

At present, the Board is working up preliminary figures on a sales price ration basis. These figures, in effect, show what the county's assessment level is in comparison with market value—or sales price. It is accomplished by comparing sales price figures (after throwing out speculative ones) with assessment figures on property.

Another method—a sample appraisal method—also could be used. This would involve taking a cross-section of property . . . and then comparing it with assessment figures.

As an alternative, both methods could be used to provide a double check on cases where it is needed, or some question exists. For example the sample appraisal would be better where there are not enough sales price ratio method.

It question number two has been answered, the figures arrived at by either of these method can be related to the official interpretation of "full cash value".

Looking at the broad picture, the overall effect on counties as the result of tighter assessment proceedures seem s to be thin.

If "full cash value" is set at anything from 50 to 100 per cent of "sales or market value" —the percentage drop or gain on railroad assesments will be the same regardless of the percentage.

Roughly, it works out this way:

A county with an assessment level of 50 per cent to "market value" will get the same amount of value of its railroad property as it has in the past.

A county with an assessment level of 25 per cent of "market value" will get 50 per cent less. Most are under 50 per cent and stand to lose.

In some counties, this is an important item. In others, it is not.

But, if a county, wants to maintain at least the same railroad valuation it will have to boost its assessment level to at least 50 per cent of "sales price" or "market value".

Interwoven into all of these questions is another basic point.

How can the taxpayer be assured that the millage rate will go down in proportion to the amount assessments are raised?

The practical answer to this one seems to be political pressure. Few county commissioners would be willing to keep millage rates high if assessments have been raised . . . it just wouldn't be the popular thing to do.

Visual Problems In Children Sometimes Cause Bad Behavior

By Frances L. ILG, M.D., and Louise Bates Ames, Ph.D.
(in collaboration with Richard J. Apell, O. D.)

"Oh, he's just lazy!"

"He could do the work all right if he would only concentrate!"

"He's obviously a reading problem. He needs special help with his reading!"

Or — "that boy is a real behavior problem. He's obviously upset because of all the trouble he has been having at home. he needs to see a psychologist."

All of these things, and more, are often said, by different people, about some one poor little boy or girl who "isn't doing very well in school." The reason given for this child's poor school work often depend more on who is making the diagnosis than on what is really wrong with the child.

Any of these diagnoses can, of course, be a correct one. But any of all of them can and often are given incorrectly when what is actually wrong with the child in question is that he has a visual problem.

Visual problems are all too common in our school children of today and they all too often remain undiagnosed, while teacher and parent continue to explain the unsatisfactory behavior as decribed above.

In view of the commonness of visual problems it would be wise, whenever there is consistent trouble with school behavior, to have the child's vision carefully checked. We should always ask, for instance, is this 5-year-old visually mature enough for kindergarten? Is this 6year-old visually ready for first grade? Does this 7-year-old have the visual sustaining power demanded of a second-grader? Our clinical experience indicates that far too many children are not ready visually for the demands of the grade in which they have been placed.

One reason for the widespread overlooking of the visual problems of school children has been lack of understanding by some educators, and even by some eye specialists as to what constitutes a visual problem and how it may differ from an eye problem. Many children have a visual problem, but not an eye problem.

That is, they may actually have had an eye examination and it may have shown their eyes to be all right. The interior and exterior parts of their eyes were healthy, they had the ability to see small letters clearly at 20 feet, (20/20 vision), and their were no significent errors in the optical systems of either eye. Therefore they received the diagnosis — healthy eyes and no eye problem.

But there is much more to it than that. When we test the child's vision we must be sure that he can get the meaning and understanding from what he sees by the skillful and efficient use of both eyes. He should be able to focus and point both eyes togeiher as a team. He needs to be able to look accurately from one object to another. He needs to be able to follow objects moved in different directions. He needs to be able to sustain focus at a reading distance. These and many other skills need to be checked in a proper and thorough visual examination.

If any of them are lacking, the child may have a visual problem, even though he does not have an eye problem.

Next week we'll suggest some things which you can do if it turns out that your boy or girl does have a visual problam.

Civil Service Examinations Announced

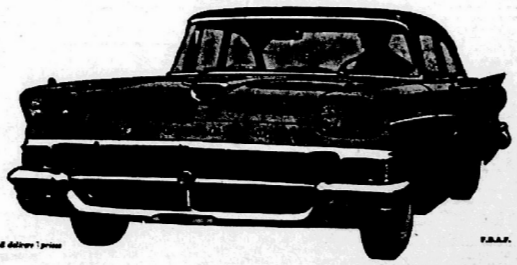

Examinations are now open for the following positions, the United States Civil Service Commission announces: Field Representative (Telephone Operations and Loans), paying entrance salaries of $5,440 to $6,390 a year, for duty with the Rural Electrification Administration of the Department of Agriculture located throughout the United States; and for Engineer (various branches), Chemist, Electronic Scientist, Mathematician, Metallurgist, and Physicist, paying $4,480 to $12,690 a year, located at the Redstone Arsenal and the Army Ballistic Missile Agency, Huntsville, Alabama.

To qualify for the Field Representative positions, applications should be filed with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. For the Engineer and Scientist positions, Applications must be filed with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama. Applications for both examinations will be accepted until further notice.

Premium List, Highlands County Fair February 24 — March 1, 1958

This 1958 Premium Book is dedicated to A. L. Butler, who was actively associated with the Highlands County Fair Association for a period of twenty-five years.

HIGHLANDS COUNTY SCHOOLS

Theme: EDUCATION—THE DOOR TO THE FUTURE

The 1958 Highlands County School's exhibit is a result of the cooperative effort of all the public schools of Highlands County.

The greatest test of an effective school is the quality of learning and skills developed within that school while promoting stability of personality in the learner.

With this in mind, the schools have prepared their 1958 exhibit to show Highlands County evidences of the effectiveness of its educational program.

The display, Education—The Door To The Future, shows representative samples of pupil achievements at both elementary and high school levels in: language arts, science, arithmetic and mathematics, social studies, fine arts, health, physical education, exceptional children, homemaking, industrial arts, and vocational agriculture. The guidance display attempts to show our effort to identify interpret, and to serve the individual differences of children.

Through this exhibit we hope you will become more familiar with your schools.

Red Devils End Season With Three Wins

The Avon Park Red Devils have improved their playing record in Basketball with wins over Kathleen, Ft. Meade and Mulberry in the weeks play.

The Varsity defeated Kathleen 53-41 in a home game that saw the Devils outscore the Polk County Devils in all but the third quarter when both teams hit evenly for 12 points.

Last Tuesday night the Red Devils entertained the Fort Meade Miners and rocked up another win over the luckless Miners Five, defeating them 66-43. Earlier in the season they beat them 64-35.

On Friday night the Devils traveled to Mulberry for their conference game and defeated the Panthers 48 to 45 in a close contest.

Avon Park has [illegible] wins in [illegible] games with 3 losses to [illegible] conference foes. [illegible] Two games [illegible] before [illegible] ground. [illegible] the title with [illegible] night.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Miss Jeanette Tadlock And W. K. Lee

MRS. WILLIAM K. LEE

In a candlelight setting at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday night, February 18, at the First Baptist Church in Sebring, Miss Jeanette Tadlock became the bride of William Kenneth Lee. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Tadlock of Tallahassee and the bridegroom is the son Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lee of Avon Park.

The Rev. A. R. Fagan officiated at the double ring ceremony, following a program of nuptial music presented by Mrs. Frank Morgan, organist, and Mrs. Cecil Heston, soloist. The altar was banked with palms as a background for pedestal baskets of gladiolas and chrysanthmums and tall white tapers burned in candlelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of magnolia silk satin and chantilly lace. A moulded bodice ascending to high collar neckline accepted the long fitted sleeves. The bouffant full length skirt overlaid with scalloped chantilly lace extended to a chapel train. A pearl tiara held in place her fingertip veil and she carried a white satin covered Bible topped with a white orchid and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Robert D. Ortt attended the bride as matron of honor and bridesmaid was Mrs. James Strole. They wore identical waltz length gowns of ice blue taffeta and organza over mist. An off-shoulder portrait neckline enchanced the sculptured bodice and full princess panel skirt. They wore a halo circle of Velvaray encircled by eyeveil. Both carried a cascade of white and blue tinted chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Tadlock chose for her daughter's wedding, a rose lace gown and she wore a corsage of pink carnations.

James Lee Pierce attended his uncle as best man. Ushers were james Strole, Kelton Hill and Billy Lee, cousin of the bridegroom.

A reception was held at Tomae immediately following the ceremony. A decorated tiered wedding cake formed the center piece for the bride's table. White flowers and greenery interspersed with lighted candles were used elsewhere about the room to accent a bridal motif.

Those assisting at the reception were Miss Nell Ashton at the bride's book; Mrs. C. C. Searcy, Mrs. Cate Keller of Wauchula and Mrs. Helen Peck at the Brides table, Mrs. Virginia Rebman, Mrs. Bobbie Campbell and Mrs. Margarite Sapp were at the punch bowl.

When the couple left on a wedding trip, the bride wore a turquoise linen suit. Her accessories were white hat and gloves with cobra purse and shoes. Her outfit was complimented with a white orchid corsage.

Important Girl Scout Meeting To Be Held

Are you interested in the fate of the Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts in Avon Park?

There will be a meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Hutchinson on Lake Lotela on Wednesday, Feb. 26, at 10 o'clock to decide what should be done about the coming year for the Scouts and Brownies. All leaders and troop committees are asked to attend this meeting.

Girl Scouting in Avon Park is at the crossroads now. This year has seen a large increase in the number of girls to be reached by this worthy organization. 104 girls are now in the Scouts or Brownie groups and more would like to become members. At the present time there are nine leaders and there should be twice that many. More qualified leaders are necessary before more girls can join.

Mothers or other interested parties, please volunteer if you are interested in helping with any age group in any capacity. Get in touch with the leaders so that they may bring your name to this very important meeting. Call Mrs. Fred Davis or Mrs. Jim Runkle for 2 grade Brownies; Mrs. Roy Felknor or Mrs. Jeff Barrow for 3 grade Brownies; Mrs. Roy Ladwig, Mrs. E. B. Poff, or Mrs. Jack Hutchinson for 4 grade Brownies; Mrs. Bob Lee or Mrs. N. H. Booth for Girl Scouts. It is up to the mothers to call and help with the support of these organizations. This will be the only meeting of this type so get in touch with your age group leader before then. If your child is too young this year but will be eligible next year call now.

Now is the time to make plans for Scouting for the coming year. Help with the leadership is a dire necessity. Obtaining sponsors for more troops would be no problem as many groups have expressed desires to help. Remember this meeting and get in touch with your leader now so that you may have a hand in the continuiance of scouting in Avon Park.

Lighting Expert To Speak At Garden Meeting

Wade Wilfong of St. Petersburg who is a lighting engineer for the Florida Power Corporation will speak at the Federation of Avon Park Garden Clubs meeting on Thursday, Feb. 27, at 2:30 o'clock in the Woman's Club Building.

The subject for Mr. Wilfong's talk will be the use of outdoor lighting. Dim Lighting will be used exclusively in his discussions and exhibits. This subject will be one of great interest to all members of the garden clubs who are trying to improve their yards. Outdoor living is so much a part of Florida and outdoor lighting follows close behind it. All members of both circles are urged to attend and hear the speaker.

Friday Morning Coffee Club

"Too bad we only see our neighbors at the supermarket or the Ground Observer Corps post" was the remark that led to the founding, three years ago, of the Friday Morning Coffee Club.

The charter members were four housewives on Lake Isis but it has long since expanded to a city-wide membership. The most recent gathering of the group was at the home of Mrs. Bob Lee on W. Oak Street.

Those present to enjoy conversation and friendship, coffee and doughnuts, were Mary King, Katie Rehrer, Shirley Franza, Frances Hooper, Vi Townsend, Frances Martin, Mikey Whetstone, Elizabeth Kempton, Josie McDaniel, and visitor, Mary Davis.

Members not attending were Winnie Tish, Lorena Hummon and Theda Miracle. Too bad they missed a happy morning but next Friday this pleasant group will gather again at another home for a leisurely morning's conversation.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Donna McClelland Circle held their regular meeting on Monday, Feb. 10, in the Church at 2 o'clock.

The Bible Study Lesson was taken from the 2nd Chapter of Acts and Mrs. W. D. Fletcher taught the lesson to the nine members present.

A social hour followed the meeting.

The Fellowship Men's Class of the Church and their wives enjoyed a supper in the Social Hall on Friday night, Feb. 14.

After the delicious supper a short business meeting was held. There were twenty members and their wives present at the meeting. The remainder of the evening was spent in fellowship.

The Jr. Girl's Auxiliary for nine and ten year old girls was entertained by their teacher, Mrs. W. C. Giddens, with a valentine party on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 15.

The group enjoyed watching "The Yearling" on television and exchanged valentines among the group. Mrs. Giddens served the girls cake and ice cream. Mrs. Barney Johnson was also a guest at the party.

The Young People's Department held a hamburger fry in the Social Hall on Saturday, Feb. 15.

This is a group for young people between the ages of 17 and 24.

The tables were beautifully decorated in the valentine motif with the games of the evening carried out this theme.

The evening was a large success and those present to enjoy the fry were Mary Lois Roberts, Betty Shepherd, Bobbie Elder, Virginia McKenzie, Sue Ann and Sandra Porter, Mary Sue Rewis, Janet Shelton, Jewellene Newsome, Claudia Handley, Jerry Giddens, Chester Andrews, Bobby O'Hern, Terry Talley, Kenneth Grice, Bobby Greenway, Royce and Larry Sanders, and Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath.

Mrs. Gilbreath assisted the young people, but they did all the cooking and planing for themselves.

Famous Pianist To Appear In Sebring

Miss Jeaneane Dowis, outstanding young pianist who has given concerts throughout the south, will be presented by the Allegro Music Club on Thursday night, Feb. 20., in the Sebring High School Auditorium at 7:45.

The Allegro Music Club is a group of teenage advanced students who have formed a group this year that meets once a month for the study of music and fellowship. Miss Marcia Bilbee of Avon Park is president of the club and members may come from all parts of Highlands County. This is the first artist the group has sponsored in the interest of music and in order to use the proceeds for their club.

Tickets will be $1.20 for adults and 60c for children.

See "Fairies Are Really Truly" Friday Night

Don't forget to attend "Fairies Are Really Truly" for an evening in fairyland on Friday night, Feb. 21, at 7:30 in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium on W. Winthrop.

Over a hundred boys and girls of the first four grades have been working on this gay operetta and are planning to give everyone a delightful picture of the lives and times of the 'little fairy folk'.

The costumes are colorful, dainty, and gay and with the adorable children of Avon Park in them will make for a most enjoyable evening. Forget your trouble and cares when you enjoy "Fairies Are Really Truly".

Tickets will be on sale at the door at the reasonable price of 75c for adults and 35c for children. Where else could you spend the evening with fairies for so little? Do come and bring your friends!

Open House At Pastorium

The Rev. and Mrs. Aden Childress entertained with an Open House at their new home on Walnut Street on Friday night, Feb. 14.

Ray Wells and S. F. Longbottom joined the Rev. and Mrs. Childress in greeting the many guests who called during the evening. Mrs. E. A. Martin [illegible] home and directed them to the dining room.

Tea, coffee, danity sandwiches, and cookies were served from a white-cloth table graced with red carnation, red candles and hearts in a lovely valentine motif. Pouring the coffee and tea were Mrs. W. C. Touchton and Mrs. Ray Wells.

The rooms of the lovely new home were colorful with graceful arrangements of beautiful flowers. Over one hundred friends called during the evening to wish the Childress family well in their new home.

Others assisting with the serving were Mrs. Malcom Crews, Mrs. Robert Henderson, Mrs. Jack DeLaney, Mrs. Marshall Davis, Mrs. P. A. Davis, Mrs. S. F. Longbottom, Mrs. Earl Haynsworth, and Mrs. Dan Antley. Mrs. C. R. Wingfield was at the guest book.

Valentine Shower Honors Jane Maxwell

The valentine theme was beautifully carried out in a shower honoring Miss Jane Maxwell at Wesley Hall on Friday night, Feb. 14.

A large heart decorated the bride-elect's chair before a table covered with a white lace cloth upon which two red heart shaped candles were burning. In the center of the table were two red and white double heart containers filled with white double heart con mums. Red camellias and chrysanthemums were used throughout the room at vantage points.

Miss Maxwell was given a corsage with six red heart streamers and each heart contained a verse hint as to where she would find her gifts. Mrs. Sam Blalock assisted her with this amusing Treasure Hunt. When the gifts were located, Miss Maxwell opened them at the lovely table. She received many beautiful gifts from her many friends for her new home.

A music program was presented before the gift opening by Miss Sally Nute on the piano and Miss Winifred Roe on her beautiful bells.

The guests were served party plates with ice cream, heart shaped cookies, and heart candy with coffee to drink. Serving the guests were the Misses Barbara Perez, Carolyn Biggs, Faye Watford, and Sally Nute.

Miss Claire Maxwell, sister of the bride-elect, presided over the guest book and Miss Sandra Kelsey pinned a heart favor with white ribbons on each person upon arrival. About forty friends were present for the delightful evening.

Hostesses were Mrs. Hubert Bussard, Mrs. Fred Simcox, Mrs. Allen Kindel, Mrs. T. O. Martin, Mrs. Helen Harris, Mrs. Devon Reddick and Mrs. I. H. Ford.

Valentine Birthday For Gale Meyer

Gale Meyer treated the members of her second grade class to valentines and a valentine cake to celebrate her eight birthday at their valentine party on Friday afternoon.

Their teacher supplied ice cream and candy and some other children gave valentine favors to the group. With Gale's lovely cake the boys and girls had a delightful party and helped Gale celebrate her birthday.

Mrs. Bill Meyer helped serve her daughter's classmates.

PTA Meets Tonight At 7:30

The Avon Park P. T. A. will meet tonight in the auditorium of the High School at 7:30.

An interesting program on safety and health is planned by the Home Department and their teacher, Mrs. Charles Moseley. Important business will also be discussed at this meeting.

All parents, teachers, and interested parties are urged to attend. Refreshments will be served after the meeting by the ninth grade room mothers.

Jacaranda Hotel News

The Jacaranda Hotel has been rapidly filling up with winter guests during the last few weeks. Some of the new arrivals are spending their first winter here while other are returning for still another visit in lovely Avon Park, the Jacaranda City.

Some recent guests are Mrs. L. N. Hunnicutt of Newport News, Va.; Mr. Walter Bogley, Jr. and son of Hyattsville, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Gee and Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Colored Slides Shown By Winter Guests

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wharton of Roanoke, Virginia, who are winter guests at the Velvet Shores Apartments on Lake Lotela, showed their beautiful colored picture slides at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Thigpen on two evenings last week.

On Tuesday evening the guests who enjoyed these slides were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hilton, Mr. and Mrs. John Oselin, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carver, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Creighton and Mr. Charles Campbell.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. E. McCleary of Birmingham, Mich. Mrs. James G. Morrill and their house guests, Mrs. Wendall Ford, Mr. and Mrs. James Morrill and their small daughter, Roxanne. Miss Geraldine Shepherd, all of Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Tubbs of Wisconsin.

The pictures included lovely scenes of Key West, the Florida East Coast, the Atlantic Coast through the Magnolia Gardens of Charleston, S. C., the Skyline Parkway, historical points in Virginia, and the beautiful gardens surrounding the Whartons mountain home near Roanoke. The pictures were truly a vision of loveliness. Mr. Wharton also showed some outstanding views of Alaska taken by Mrs. Ford during her stay there last summer.

Light refreshments of home-made cookies and juice were served the guests on these evenings by the host and hostess.

Citrus Grower Reports on DITHANE Z-78 for rust mite control
(ZINEB)

A. O. ROBERTS
Howey, Florida

"One of the best sprays I've ever used..."

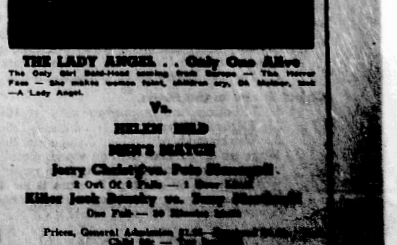

I have over 600 acres and have been in the citrus business for over 38 years. I have used two applications of DITHANE Z-78 this season and find it one of the best sprays I've ever used to control rust mites, on leaves as well as fruit. There is no danger whatever in burning fruit to be kept either with DITHANE as is often experienced with ziram. I believe I am getting smoother quality with DITHANE.

Use DITHANE Z-78 (zineb) in your dormant or post-bloom sprays for double-duty control of (1) rust mite and (2) "greasy spot." For high initial kill and long residual activity, thorough coverage at recommended dosages is essential. DITHANE Z-78 is available from your dealer. Ask him for more information on this double-duty zineb fungicide.

William Blaine Passed Away At Walker Memorial

William A. Blaine, 78, passed away at Walker Memorial Hospital on Friday, February 14. Mr. Blaine was a native and resident of Millerstown, Pa., and had been coming to Avon Park for the past 12 winters. He was a member of the Methodist Church, the Winter Guest Club of Avon Park and a Spanish-American War Veteran. He was a retired mail carrier.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Frances Blaine; three daughters, Mrs. H. E. Lankgrammer, Drexel Hill, Pa., Mrs. James Cole, Canadiagua, N. Y., and Mrs. Marvin Zinn, Chambersburg, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. George McDowell, Spokane, Wash., and five grandchildren.

A brief funeral service was held at the Mizelle Funeral Home Chapel Saturday night with The Rev. Wilmer O. Luttrell officiating, after which the remains were forwarded to Millerstown, Pa. for services and interment there.

Mizelle Funeral Home was in charge of the local arrangements.

Garden Club News

Founder's Circle

Founder's Circle of the Avon Park Federated Garden Clubs held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 13, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Shepherd on Lake Lotela with Mrs. C. C. Sieffert serving as co-hostess.

A very interesting program was presented by Richard Thayer. Mr. Thayer talked on his recent trip to the West Indies and showed beautiful color slides of the things that he had seen there.

During the business meeting Mrs. Shepherd, president, appointed Mrs. H. C. Wright, Mrs. Albert Sircom, and Mrs. Dan Ellis to the nominating committee.

Delicious refreshments were served the members during the social hour by the hostesses, Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs. Sieffert.

Hibiscus Circle

Hibiscus Circle of the Avon Park Federated Garden Clubs held their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Johnston on Lake Viola with Mrs. Mabel Staggers serving a co-hostess.

General business was conducted by the president, Mrs. I. H. Ford, who then turned the program over to Mrs. Mervin Rehrer. Hospital Chairman. Mrs. Rehrer gave a comprehensive report on all phases of garden therapy.

This report was the basis for an interesting discussing by the members on opportunities for the practice of garden therapy in our community. All members asked questions and voiced opinions on this subject. After much discussion the club voted to assume the landscaping of the Hillcrest Nursing Home as a continuing project. Hibiscus Circle has the approval of the management of the home and is hopeful of receiving the interest and enthusiastic approval of the residents of the home. The project is not being undertaken for beauty alone but with the hope of helping the residents of the home become interested in garden work as a worthwhile hobby.

Mrs. Charles Kempton and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer are co-chairman of the project. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

Mrs. Ed Gardner was introduced as a guest and became a member of Hibiscus Circle at the meeting.

Refreshments of delicious dainty valentine cookies and speiced tea were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Staggers, during the social hour which followed.

Porpoises at Marineland are supplied back scratchers. Large brushes are attached to the floor of their oceanarium home so that they will not rub against the sharp rocks and damage their sensitive skins.

Do You Have

Fish fillets are so delicious when cooked this easy way and they add a welcome change to the menu. Try "Baked Fillets with Cream" or fillets served with "Hot Mayonnaise Sauce".

BAKED FILLETS WITH CREAM

2 pounds fish fillets
1 cup thin cream or rich milk
¼ cup chopped onion
¼ cup grated cheese
Salt and pepper

Wipe fillets with a clean wet cloth and cut into serving pieces or leave small ones whole. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place in a shallow baking dish or oven-proof platter.

Pour cream or milk over top and sprinkle with chopped onion. Sprinkle also with ¼ cup grated cheese if desired.

Bake in a 400 degree oven for 15 to 25 minutes or until tender.

HOT MAYONNAISE SAUCE FOR FISH

¾ cup mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
A few grains of red pepper
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon chopped chives or parsley

Combine mayonnaise, salt, pepper, red pepper and lemon juice in the top of a double boiler and stir ingredients over hot water until smooth and hot (about five minutes)

Remove from heat and add chives or parsley. The sauce may be reheated over hot water. Makes about one cupful.

Brownie Scout Troop News

Troop 3 for girls in the fourth grade is open for the addition of more Brownie Scouts.

The Troop has a more than sufficent number but the leaders feel that each girl who is interested should have this opportunity to do some Brownie work before joining the Girl Scouts at the age of ten. This way they can work off some of the scouting requirements as Brownies. Girls and their mothers who are interested should contact the leaders, Mrs. Jack Hutchinson, Mrs. E. B. Poff, or Mrs. Roy Ladwig.

At their regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 13, Dorothy Grove and Eloise Montsalvtge were invested into the Brownie Organization. Mrs. Ivan Grove and Mrs. Bill Montsalvtge served refreshments for the group which were beautiful homemade cookies and a drink.

Troop 5 of the Brownie Scouts made valentines and fixed a valentine box of cookies, candy, and chewing gum and took these to the Hillcrest Home at their meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 11.

The Brownies sang songs and gave he residents the box and some white flowers. The visit was enjoyed a great deal by the Hillcrestites and by the girls.

Upon returning to their meeting hall the girls enjoyed a valentine party of their own. Mrs. Roy Felknor, Leader, gave the troop a beautiful valentine cake she made and Mrs. Mitchell served drinks to all the Brownies.

Troop 4 postponed its Saturday morning meeting because of the rain and cold.

Birthday Party For Dennis Crews

Dennis Crews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Crews, and eleven of his little friends had a gay afternoon together on Wednesday, Feb. 12, at the home of the Crews family.

The ocassion was a birthday party celebrating Dennis's second birthday and the boys and girls really enjoyed the afternoon. For favors the little guests received valentine boats with lollipops and during the afternoon they played happily with the toys.

Mrs. Crews served the group pieces of a birthday cake with a large chocolate football with "Happy Birthday, Dennis" on it, ice cream and drinks.

Guests were Buster Birt, Debbie Robinson, Ginni Beth Henderson, Holly William, Donna Marie Ford, Carolyn Joy Wicker, Jimmie Turnbull, Sylvia and Patricia Bowers, Delores Lanier, and Mike Spears. Mothers who assisted Mrs. Crews were Mrs. Willis Robinson, Mrs. Bob Henderson, Mrs. Donald Ford, and Mrs. Gerald Wicker. Mrs. G. A. Stebbins of Avon Park and Mrs. Arch Lanier of Wauchula, Dennis's grandmothers, were also present as well as his aunts, Mrs. George Bowers and her children of Lake Placid, and Mrs. Ray Spears and her son, of Wauchula.

Nancy Todd Celebrates Sixth Birthday

Nancy Todd celebrated her sixth birthday with a party for some of her kindergarten classmates on Tuesday, Feb. 11, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Todd.

The boys and girls played several games and Marty Kelly won a prize. After the playtime they were served refreshments at two tables covered with valentine birthday cloths. Each child had a cup cake with a lighted candle, much to their delight, as well as ice cream and punch to eat. Nancy's cake was a valentine cake with a large red heart and rested on lace doiles.

After everyone had enjoyed helping Nancy open her lovely gifts, favors of paper blowouts and clown marble games were given to the boys and girls.

Nancy's grandmothers, Mrs. W. C. Touchton and Mrs. E. G. Todd, helped Mrs. Herbert Todd serve the happy little guests.

Girl Scout News

The girls of the Avon Park Girl Scout Troop will display a good number of exhibits in the Scout Booth at the Highlands County Fair in Sebring and hope that the citizens of the community will observe them.

At their regular meeting on Thursday, Feb. 13, the 28 scouts present worked on these exhibits and Mrs. Lee, The leader, announced that the individual inhibits should be brought to the next regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 20.

After the usual Scout program and songs refreshments were served the girls by Mrs. Sasser.

What Shall We feed The Birds?

By The Bird Woman

At the meeting of the Founder's Circle this past week, Mrs. Shepard called the attention of the club to the fact that a great many of our insect eating birds were dying for lack of food, especially was this noticeable at Highlands Hammock where so many of our birds congregate this season of the year.

You are interested in their and in saving our birds, and migratory, we give a few suggest many insect also add a little et, so as there is to do to provide ht see what we ide some fruit long the lives of til the weather enough for the tion.

and that if we cut oranges and grapefruit in halves and nail them to trees and posts near where the other birds come to feed, the mockers and the warblers will come and eat very gladly, also we run heavy wire through large pieces of suet (which may be had at the meat markets for the asking), and hang the suet near the fruit, the birds will have as nearly a balanced diet as we are able to provide.

Peanut butter is relished by birds but they can handle it better if it is spread on stale bread and anchored to a feeder so that it will not be pulled to the ground by the first bird that attempts to eat it.

Cornbread, with "crackline" in it, is not only welcome but nourishing. Another good food is to melt suet and add peanut butter while it is still hot, and as it cools, add bird seed, oatmeal, raisins or what have you, and pour it into a mold to harden, or pour it in a large pan where it will not be too thick, and break it in large pieces when it hardens, and fasten it securely to a feeder or a limb, but of course this must be placed high enough so that stray cats or dogs cannot get to it, or knock over he feeder in an attempt to get it.

Hulled peanuts and raisins are also acceptable to the mockers and some other kinds of birds as well, and if you are fortunate enough to have some sunflower seed in your possession or can get some at your seed house, you will be adding another treat to many bird's diet.

It is a well known fact that in cold weather we need more food to help keep us warm, and birds have the same need, so if you have been feeding the regular scratch feed once daily, double the amount and feed more than once, it is amazing to see how soon the feeders are emptied.

As we know, different species of birds feed at different levels, when food is procurable, and the birds that are suffering most during this cold weather, are the birds that catch insects on he wing, as he various fly-catchers, warblers (many of which are migratory) and the purple martins.

This being the season for martins to come to us and build their nests, some have arrived and seem much perplexed as we are at this unusual weather, as is the custom of the martin they come to their boxes in the evening but depart in the early morning and sail high in the air to catch their food, but they have found out what we already knew, that insects cannot live in this cold air, so we see them skimming very low over the lake, back and forth, where there are evidently some insects close to the warmer air.

We have contacted Miss Carol Beck at the hammock and suggested that the workmen from the hammock get cull fruit from the packing houses and have it cut and dumped at different parts of the park, and that suet be placed in the trees. If there are piles of fruit, insect work up under it and the birds that scratch on the ground for insects will find these insects and it doesn't take many warm days for insects to find this fruit.

If you don't think that feeding birds pays off just watch your feeders some day and count the number of birds that come to share your hospitality, many days according to actual record, we have as many as twenty species that are visible without leaving the yard, just now at 2:30 o'clock we have two turtle doves, two jays, four ground doves, four black birds, one mocker (eating grapefruit), one cardinal, one thrasher and a number of martins skimming the lake, and about twenty five sparrows, one heron and one

Washington, D. C.--The congress was in a "slow" period last week. It seems that each year, some of the people of the other party deem it advisable to engage in spreading the word relative to the virtues of the man called Abraham Lincoln in addition to possibly performing the artful task of fence-mending.

The highlight of business coming before the house last week concerned the budget request for an appropriation of $750,000 for the operation of the Civil Rights Commission, which request had been disapproved by a subcommittee of The House Committee on appropriations. The committee, in disapproving the request, took the position that inasmuch as appointees to the commission have not been confirmed by the senate, the staff director has not been appointed, and in fact, since the Civil Rights Commission is not in operation, there was nothing to justify an appropriation for its operation at this time. Therefore, the committee deferred action on that porion of the budget request until the committee had received evidence which would justify approval of such funds. It will be recalled that the Commission on Civil Rights was established by public law approved September 9, 1957. In the deliberations before the house, it was noted that out of the $200,000 which had been allocated for the operation of the Civil Rights Commission, only approximately $5,000 had been spent in connection with that commission. The house did not pass a resolution on the appropriation request and action was postponed thereon until a later date.

The Veterans' Committee, of which I am a member, spent two days last week taking testimony from veterans' organizations. These hearings are the result of complaints the committee has received that there have been abuses of such fund drives. The committee is interested in hearing the views of the veterans' organizations relative to action which could be taken to protect the public as well as the veterans' groups. Further consideration will be red wing.

Of course the number and varities differ at different times of day, now they are star boarders but when spring comes they will repay us a hundred fold, in eating insects.

We hope every one will enter into this "Operation, Bird saving", and see if you do not derive the joy that thousands have experienced from helping with these wonders of creation that are so beneficial to us.

Congregational Church News

Mrs. John Jockinsen, President of the Women's Council, entertained the members of local council and the mmbers of the State Board of the Women's Fellowship at tea in her home on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11.

About thirty ladies of the local and state counsils became better acquainted at this lovely affair. Mrs. Mary Reed poured tea from a beautiful table of delicious refreshments with graceful arrangement of azaleas.

The Women's Council will sponsor a luncheon in the Social building on Monday, March cial Hall of the New Education-3, at noon. All women of the church are invited to attend this luncheon. Mrs. John Pickens will be in charge of the program which will be centered around recognition of the new council officers and the Women's Gift to the Church.

The Ladies Aid of the church held their regular meeting and covered dish luncheon in the Parish House on Wednesday, Feb. 12, with Mrs. Ray Rutherford and Mrs. P. C. Boney hostesses.

Mrs. Boney presided at the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. Samuel O. Norris, the president. The Ladies Aid voted to again sponsor the Annual Fish Fry in early March. Mrs. Ralph Kelley reported to the group on the Women's Fellowship Council and the Sunshine Committee reported that it had been very active in the past few weeks of bad weather.

The Young Adult Group of the church will hold a covered dish supper in the Parish House on Saturday night, Feb. 22, at 7 o'clock. All members are urged to attend this meeting. There will be an outstanding program following the supper and fun for all.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Whetstone and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Poling will be hosts for the meeting.

The Evening Circle of the church will meet at the home of Mrs. Maldwyn Parry on Lake Byrd on Monday evening, Feb. 24, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. John Jockinsen will speak on "What Lent Means To Me". Mrs. Cecil Skipper will assist Mrs. Parry as co-hostess.

The Deacon and Deaconess Organization of the church enjoyed a supper in the Parish House on Tuesday evening, Feb. 11. Deaconesses furnished the delicious food for the sixteen members who were present. After the supper a business meeting was held.

Episcopal Church News

St. Margaret's Auxiliary of the Church of the Redeemer held their regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 12, in the Parish House.

Mrs. John Hutchinson led the worship service. The Rev. Edward H. Manning, Rector of the St. Thomas Church at Eustis, gave a very interesting and enlighting talk on "Understanding the Aims of the United Church Women". His talk dealt mostly with the timely subject of the work being done among the migrant workers of Florida.

During the business meeting plans for Pancake Day were discussed. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostLivingstone and Mrs. G. A. eases, Mrs. J. T. Kuhn, Mrs. Woodward.

At this meeting it was announced that St. Mary's Altar Guild would have a luncheon on March 5 in the Parish House to raise money. Tickets will be sold to this luncheon and more plans will be announced later.

First Baptist Church News

The Women's Missionary Union held their regular monthly business and program meeting and luncheon at the Social Hall of the church on Tuesday, Feb. 11.

Business was conducted during the morning followed by a delicious covered dish luncheon at noon. The program "Our Jewish Neighbors" by Mrs. Earl Futch was enjoyed by the twenty-six members present during the afternoon.

The next Brotherhood meeting will be on March 6. All men of the church are cordially invited to attend this meeting of the men's fellowship group of the church.

The Sunday School Study Course will meet each evening this week for workers in the Sunday School at 7:45. The nursery will be open each night for these meetings.

Walter Cook was licensed by the vote of those present last Wednesday evening to Gospel Ministry. Walter is a freshman in Carson-Newman College this year.

The Annual Tourist Day Dinner will be held Sunday, Feb. 23, and many people are expected for these special services.

The Remora is the "hitch-hiker" of the Gulf Stream. This fish attaches himself to the sailfish, shark and martin. The suction cup atop his head fastens securely to his host.

Lady Angel, World's Ugliest Girl Wrestler To Meet Helen Hild

The Lady Angel, known all over the world as the ugliest girl wrestler will scare the bejeepers out of the wrestling fans here with her horror face. Is she just a freak? Can she really wrestle? Is she as strong as a 200 lb. man? These and many more questions that have stimulated wrestling followers will be answered Thursday night at the Avon Park Armory when the incredible bald-headed Lady Angel from Europe comes to grips with Miss Helen Hild in Avon Park's greatest wrestling attraction ever presented.

Helen Hild is in exact contrast to the Angel. When you at first get a glimpse of the 135 pound girl wrestler, you hold your breath. She has perfect height, figure, looks and poise. The 26 year old, blue-eyed blonde is the type you'd expect to see in the movie- which she has been in-or in a bathing beauty contest-in which she was an entrant-or a model, which she was. The match will be 2 out of 3 falls, with a 1 hour time limit.

In the men's match, Jerry Christy, who gave Dick the Bruiser one of the toughest matches of his career two weeks ago at the Armory, meets another tough opponent, in the person of Pete Managoff.

Managoff is a bearded giant who wrestles on the rough side. He and Christy wrestled recently on Television and neither man was able to win in the 15 minute time limit.

They will be matched in a two out of three fall, one hour time limit contest this time, so a decision should be rendered in the Thursday night bout.

Killer Jack Vansey, who has the reputation of being the meanest man in wrestling, meets New Jersey star, Tony Martinelli, in the one fall, thirty minute time limit opening event.

Although the Guard recognizes Washington's Birthday as "Muster Day", it actually traces its foundings back long before Washington. The first regiment of Militia was organized in 1636. The National Guard—the 20th Century descendants of the Militia—is still withstanding the test of time, Having fought in every major military conflict in which our nation has been engaged, today numbers some 27 combat divisions and is more than 4000 units strong with a membership of nearly 470,000. General Washington once said of the Militia — "The Citizen-Militia — Guardian of our Liberties, The Bulwark of Democracy" — our present-day National Guard is proving the validity of those words. Only last fall the Army National Guard was assigned an active role in the NIKE defense system of the Continental United States, and thereby became the first reserve component in U. S. history to be given operational use of guided missiles. 101 National Guard batteries are now training to take over NIKE installations and man them 24 hours a day against a possible enemy air attack. These selected units are some of the nations crack AAA organizations such as our local Battery C which chalked up 9 Superior ratings during a recent inspection conducted by Third Army IG personnel.

Today, as well as in Washington's time, the National Guard helps to preserve the happiness, dignity and Independance of our Country.

Local "Muster Day" activities are coordinated with Major General Mark W. Lance, a former resident and native of Avon Park, who is the Adjutant General for the Florida National.

provements in Avon Park. Mrs. Sam King, a director, was a prime mover in the extension of the Walker Memorial Hospital facilities to include colored patients; Miss Mattie Tompkins and the Mall Committee have offered the City many helpful suggestions in the care of the Mall and are now having plans drawn for the re-landscaping of the entire Mall; a history of Avon Park is ready for the printers after having been completed by its author, Mr. Horace Fenton; and these are but a few of the projects with which the organization has been working this year.

Mr. Wallace Weyman and Mrs. Sam King worked with the city in the establishments of the Hillcrest Nursing Home; Mr. Weyman also worked with the city in making a survey of the sidewalk needs of Avon Park; the Industrial committee is proud that Avon Park was one of the five final choice spots in the relocation of the Budweiser Breweries; and C.D.A. sponsored the outstanding Two Day Forum last year on "Getting Ready for Industry in the Community". A project which is currently being started by local need is a survey of the drainage and sewerage facilities of Avon Park with suggestions for their improvement by Harry Little and his committee.

The C.D.A. is your organization and needs the help of every citizen of Avon Park to be a complete success. So plan to attend this Town Meeting and bring your suggestions for making Avon Park a better place to live.

Proclamation

World Day of Prayer
February 21, 1958

WHEREAS, World Day of Prayer will be observed this year in many places throughout the world where humble peoples, living against a background of universal tension and uncertainty, will bow their heads and lift up their hearts to Almighty God in prayer, and

WHEREAS, The Church Women of Avon Park will join on this occasion with church women in communities throughout the nation and the world to form an articulate and inspiring chain of human prayer and

WHEREAS, the troubled peoples in less fortunate nations than ours, and indeed, even in our own beloved country, need Divine Guidance as never before, especially as this is stimulated through prayerful communion.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, E. A. DeLaney, Mayor of Avon Park, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 21, 1958 as WORLD DAY OF PRAYER in Avon Park, and I urge our citizens to observe this day by attending on February 21, 1958 wherever possible, World Day of Prayer Services, or pausing for a minute of prayer at high noon to ask God to give us, in all our humility, the wisdom and courage to meet and successfully solve the profound problems of our times.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of Avon Park to be affixed at Avon Park, this the 19 day of February, 1958.

Washington's Birthday Theme Used For Decorations At BWC

George Washington's birthday was the theme for the clever decoration used at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club on Monday night, February 17, in the Florida Power Customer's Room.

The hostesses served cherry pie with hatchet favors and featured a picture of Washington in their red, white and blue decorations. They served the members coffee, mints and nuts. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Mildred Logan, Mrs. Ruby Johns, Mrs. Helen Harris and Mrs. Mannin Kirkland.

During the business meeting of the club an apron was passed from member to member. Each member will put an original design on the apron and under this design they will make their donation for the club's worthy projects. At the annual May picnic the apron will be finished and the designs removed in order to see how much money has been realized from the club. This clever idea is one of the ways the group will raise money to

A donation to the Heart Fund was voted by members of the group.

During the social hour which followed the meeting bridge and canasta were played. Mrs. L. A. Renfro and Miss Ethel Williamson won the canasta prizes and Miss Millie Pearson won the bridge prize. A special prize was won by Miss Sarah Sellers who had a small flag placed under her mat when each member turned over their place mats.

Emergency Fertilizing Program

Due to adverse weather conditions, the A. S. C. office has obtained additional funds to assist ranchers in a fertilizing program and lime where needed. The A. C. P. program is now open for taking requests for this practice. The dead-line for making these requests is March 4, 1958. Mr. Carroll wants it understood that this can be additional to prior request, or a change of original practice to this fertilizer practice. If you haven't made a prior request, you may make one for fertilizer now.

Be sure to come by your A. S. C. office in Sebring on or before March 4, 1958.

Beverly Pollard Celebrates Sixth Birthday

Beverly Polard and a number of her friends enjoed a birthday party in honor of Beverly's sixth birthday at the Pollard home on Tuesday afternoon, February 18.

A birthday cake topped with a beautiful hoop-skirted doll delighted the hearts of the little girls and boys. Mrs. Pollard served the children ice cream and punch to go with the delicious birthday cake.

During the afternoon the children played games in the house and when they left each child took home adorable favors of plastic banjoes or guitars with lollipops and Easter eggs attached.

Seventh Day Adventist News

"God is not author of the evils and sadness caused on this earth but rather it is his adversary, the devil, who is spreading confusion sorrow," declared Pastor W. C. Arnold at the Walker Memorial Chapel on Sunday night, Feb. 16.

He pointed to the experiences of Job in spite of his severe trial and added that we would do well to seek comfort in the wonderful words of St. Paul in I Corinthins 10 to 13.

Wednesday night Pastor Arnold discussed the prophetic symbols and Friday night his topic will be " The Anti-Christ Unmasked".

The meetings will continue with special features for youth on Sunday nights and outstanding chalk drawings by Mrs. Grace Shultz on Friday evening. There will be special song and musical services before each meeting.

Festival Queen To Speak Mar. 4 At Lion's Club

Miss Patricia Colleen Dunn, 1958 Festival of Florida Products Queen, will appear at the Lions Club meeting at Griffin's Restaurant Tuesday, March 4. All Lions will want to be present when this charming young Miss presents her program to the Club.

Miss Dunn has been chosen Queen of an event that is tremendously important to every citizen, every business man and every industry within the boundaries of this great state. being Queen of this festival has a special meaning to Pat that goes far beyond cheese-cake photographs in newspapers, or being known as just another beautiful girl.

The new Queen was born January 3, 1937 in Alva, Oklahoma, but has lived in Florida most of her young life. Her family is presently and permanently located in Dunedin. Pat is 5' 4½" tall and weighs

Bandit That Held Up Doc's Tavern Receives 2 Life Terms

Francis Beadles, 37, who admitted holding up E. J. (Doc) Motler, tavern operator, at gunpoint in December and obtaining around $60 was sentenced to the State Penitentiary for life by Circuit Judge Gunter Stephenson last Wednesday, February 19. And on February 20 he pleaded guilty in Polk County Criminal Court to robbery and was sentenced by Judge R. H. Amidon to life imprisonment.

Beadles, a native of Kansas City, was recently convicted of armed robbery in Union County and was given a ten year term. He is still wanted in Citrus County.

Mrs. Sue Godwin of Fort Meade charged with being Beadles' accomplice in the series of holdups, pleaded nolo contendere before Judge Stephenson. She was adjudged guilty and will be sentenced later.

Mrs. Godwin, operator of a beauty shop, formerly was a member of the State Board of Beauty Culture. She is the ex-wife of Constable Harry Godwin.

Officers have said that it was her car and her gun which Beadles used in the holdups. She was with Beadles when Union County officers caught them in a high-speed chase after an appliance store was robbed.

Florida National Guard Prestige High Nationwide

St. Augustine, Fla. - Nationwide prestige that the Florida National Guard units enjoy is attributed to the excellent relationship existing between the guard and the people of their respective communities, Major General Mark W. Lance, The Adjutant General of Florida, said here this week.

Most of the National Guard units in the State are housed in adequate armories; a few are overcrowded and plans for expansion or replacement have been made. The armories are a visible confirmation of the cooperation of City, County, State and Federal Governments in furnishing sites and funds for their construction.

The Senior National Guard Commanders are happy over the ratings received on the Third United States Army training and administrative inspection for the year 1957. Of the 95 units inspected, 16 were rated Superior; 77 Excellent; 2 Satisfactory and none unsatisfactory.

"These state-wide ratings are outstanding and may be the best in the Nation," General Lance said.

One of the 16 top rated units in the state of Florida is Battery C, 712th Anti-Air Craft Battalion, of Avon Park, Florida.

Red Cross Drive Starts Saturday

Jim Turnbull, chairman of the 1958 Red Cross Campaign in Avon Park announced plans Tuesday for the beginning of the drive on Saturday, March 1. The drive will continue through the month of March.

Turnbull reports that solicitation of funds for the drive from the business firms and residents will begin on Monday, March 3. Co-workers and area chairmen will be announced next week for each district of the residential section in Avon Park.

The Annual Boy Scout Drive of the Gulf Ridge Council, Highlands District, began on Tuesday, Feb. 25, with a Kick-Off Breakfast at the Jacaranda Hotel.

This Drive is the annual fund raising project for the Scout Troops for the entire Gulf Ridge Council of which Avon Park is a member. The funds thus raised will be used to support the Boy Scout troops in the Highlands District with their scouting program. Avon Park has $1750 as its goal.

At present time there are two Boy Scout troops, four Cub Scout Dens, and an Explorer Post in our community. The money to support the worthy work done by these organizations for boys will be raised by solicitation only and the drive will close on Friday, March 7.

The twenty-five men who will work on fund drive have been divided into seven teams and will seek donations from the citizens of the community. Anyone wishing to volunteer funds may contact one of the team captains. They are Royal Coates, George Woodham, Carl Prisco, Dick Hedrick, Herbert Todd, Hue Nunnallee, John Giddens, Jr., and Franklyn Ward.

The Kick-off Breakfast was a Dutch affair with a number of Work Begun On Parking Lot At High School

Work was begun last week on the parking lot on South Verona Ave. for teachers and students at the Avon Park High School. The parking lot is expected to be completed in the next couple weeks.

The property was purchased by the Highlands County School Board last year from P. A. Rumpus and the bid for clearing and claying the land was awarded to J. M. Whitaker, of Sebring at the Board meeting on February 11.

Whitaker's bid was for five and a half cents per square foot and the project calls for clearing and claying 20,000 square feet.

Fire Department Answers 2 Calls Over Week End

The Avon Park Fire Department answered two alarms, both in the colored quarters, over the weekend. The first fire caused only minor damages while the other destroyed the house and all contents.

The fire Saturday at the home of Tommy Lee Hall, Negro, caused by a heater resulted in only minor damages.

Sunday morning at 3:48 a. m. the home of Benny Jones, Negro, in the Lacey Hill section was totally destroyed by fire including all contents. The Lacey Hill quarters, being just outside of the city limits, has no available water. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Band Concert Postponed

The Band Concert scheduled for Sunday afternoon, March 2, has been postponed until Sunday afternoon, March 9, according to Gene Gorman, director of the Avon Park High School Band.

Widman Convicted

Shade Widman, Avon Park Negro, was found guilty of manslaughter, by a Highlands County Circuit Court Jury on Monday, February 24.

Widman was tried on a second-degree murder charge for the shotgun death of Luther Wise, Negro, in Avon Park.

Judge Gunter Stephenson gave Widman an indeterminate sentence of from six months to twenty years for the shooting of Wise.

ALL DAY DRILL—Members of Battery C 712th AAA Bn of the Florida National Guard celebrated their "Muster Day" and open house on Sunday, February 23, with an all day drill and ceremonies for the public. Pictured here in front of the Bn. are Charles Cummins, and 1st Lt. for the local unit, and in back of them are Lt. Landress and Lt. Lambert. Charles Cummins, a qualified missile expert from Cape Canaveral, gave a talk on the subject of missiles, sattalites and orbits. He also explained how a sattalite is orbited and the three stages of the rocket that fired the first U. S. sattalite.

Flu Strikes Inmates At Avon Park Prison

The inmates at the Avon Park Prison have more than their share of the flu that is going around, According to a report from Supt, L. L. Wainwright the flu was first detected at the prison on Sunday, Feb. 16, when 27 men were hospitalized.

The next day, Monday, there were 40 cases reported and on Tuesday of last week it jumped to 70 cases. Hospital cases stayed at about 70 for last Wednesday and Thursday and upon the recommendation of Dr. B. C. Ostling, Contact Physician, the institution was quarantined and all inmate visiting for the weekend was cancelled.

Supt. Wainwright reports that the number of cases in the hospital the first of this week had dropped to 46 and they hope that it will continue to drop each day.

Work Begun On Avon Park's New Modern Jail

The construction of Avon Park's new and modern jail is progressing nicely. The new jail which will be joined to the old jail and fire station by a carporte is expected to be completed about May 4th.

Plans for the new jail were drawn by Heim and Heim, and Bennett and Moseley are the contractors. The new jail will cost $12,238 and has been so designed and constructed to allow additional units to be added later at minimum cost.

The new jail will contain a drunk-meter room, dining room, kitchen, 2 cells for men with four bunks in each, a dressing and shower room for men and 2 cells, two bunks each for women, with a dressing and shower room also.

The kitchen was planned because the City had to spend better than $4,000 last year for meals for the prisoners, with a kitchen at the jail a large per cent of this total can be saved.

The old concrete block building used for colored prisoners will be removed and the cells in the old jail will be used for maximum security prisoners.

Governor Assigns Judge For Trial Of Harry Lee

Gov. LeRoy Collins has assigned Judge Gordon Hayes of DeSoto County to preside over the forthcoming trial of Harry Lee, Sebring attorney and former County Judge, on a charge of following too closely.

The assignment of Judge Hayes to hear the case was made by the Governor after Circuit Court Judge Joe D. Kinsey ruled that County Judge Mervin Rehrer was disqualified to try the case.

Lee was cited for contempt by Judge Rehrer for failure to appear for trial. Lee obtained his release on a habeas corpus writ issued by Judge Kinsey then filed proceedings to disqualify Judge Rehrer.

No trial date has been set.

Promoted At Avon Park Prison

WILLIAM E. BOOTH

William E. Booth of Avon Park has been promoted from Correctional Officer to the post of Supervisor of Records at the Avon Park Prison. Upon completion of the educational requirements, Booth will be in line for the position of Classification and Assignment Supervisor.

Originally from East Liverpool, Ohio, Booth, enlisted in the Air Force after attending Kent State University for two years. After four years, with service in Japan and at the Gunnery and Bombing Range in Avon Park, he took his discharge and decided to settle here.

In September of last year, Booth applied for employment at Avon Park Prison and in short time realized that penology was the career for him. After serving as Correctional Officer for four months he was selected to go to the Florida

PRESENTATION OF THE COLORS—Muster Day and open house activities at the Avon Park Armory got under way Sunday morning with the presenting of the colors with an eight-man firing squad in a rifle salute. Mike Harrison played "To The Colors" on the cornet as the flag was being raised. Pictured here, taking part in the rifle salute are, left to right: Pvt. 1st Class Williams, Sgt. Gaffney, SP 3 Gillian, Cpl. Bryant, Cpl. Johnson, Sgt. McKenin, Sgt. Pippin and Sgt. Johnson, and Sgt. Gentry in the background. Members of Battery C 712th AAA Bn. of the Florida National Guard attended services in the various churches in the community before meeting at the Armory again for a chicken and rice dinner. The Armory was open to the public all day Sunday and citizens were escorted through the unit's installation, and given a chance to observe demonstrations performed by the various sections of the unit's personnel. Demonstrations included the actual tracking of aircraft that can be viewed on a radar screen.

Healthy two-way foreign trade is as vital to our economic process as inhaling and exhaling to our physical process. That vivid little verbal picture comes from a talk made by the head of one of our American steamship companies, before a world trade conference at New Orleans. He added: "Just as surely as the Reciprocal Trade Program is the key to expanding world prosperity, so, too, is the U. S. Merchant Marine the key to expanding American commerce. We cannot have reciprocity without active participation in both production and distribution."

Millions of Americans, in agriculture and industry, depend in one way or another on foreign trade for a livelihood. Twenty-five to 40 per cent of cotton, wheat and other basic crops ultimately end up in the hands of foreign customers, as do great quantities of manufactured products of a thousand and one kinds. Significantly, 99 ½ per cent of these vast cargos move by ship — and it's certainly obvious that, in this chaotic world, the only merchant marine we can depend upon completely is our own.

Imports are as important to us as exports. With only 9.5 per cent of the free world's population and 8 per cent of its land area, we're using more than half of all the materials produced in the world. Raw materials from abroad, brought to us by ship, keep our production lines running.

It is an established government policy to encourage and support an adequate U. S. Merchant Marine, and there is no question as to the wisdom of that policy. We and the other free nations need more trade, not less. For, as Cordell Hull, father of the reciprocal trade program once said: "Either goods will cross borders or soldiers will."

The Reason For The "Spread"

Dr. Karl D. Butler, a well known authority on agricultural matters, writes that in the last 10 years the farmer's share of each dollar the consumer spends for food has dropped from 52 to about 40 cents.

This development has stirred much discussion and ill-feeling. The charge has been made, for instance, that processors and retailers have been taking an unjustified share of the food dollar, at agriculture's expense.

Dr. Butler, however, shows that there is no case to be made here. The Department of Agriculture is authority for the statement that the food chains earn a profit of only 1.1 cents on that dollar. And the processor's profit dropped from 4 per cent in 1946 to 2.9 per cent in 1956.

Where, then, has the money gone?

Dr. Butler traces various factors that help to account for the widened spread between what the farmer gets and the consumer pays. And, he finds, the biggest one, by a wide margin," . . . can be found in what has been happening in the kitchen of America." He goes on: "Apparently most of the farmer's missing share of the consumer's food dollars goes into processing hundreds of ready-to-serve and ready-to-cook items. It would appear Mrs. Housewife and Mr. America are willing to pay someone else to do the housewife's work and have it done before reaching the home."

This increasing emphasis on "built-in convenience" is true of many other goods sold at retail. It requires much labor and costs money. It is done because the consumer demands it. So there's the big reason for today's spread—not profits.

Too Much Government

Senator George Smathers of Florida is chairman of a Senate Subcommittee which has been inquiring into the problems of the railroads. The seriousness of the situation is expressed by him in these words: "The railroad industry is a sick one. Passenger volume has slumped sharply; freight carloadings have dropped off; operating costs rise; and revenue continues to decline."

In a recent television appearance, Senator Smathers has shown why this is an urgent national problem, of direct importance to all of us. The railroads continue to play a major role in the nation's development. They constitute our second largest industry, employing more than 900,000 people and making huge tax payments to all units of government. They buy billions of dollars worth of steel, lumber, manufactured goods and services of all kinds. They are a vital element in the national defense. And "a strong economy without a healthy railroad system is almost impossible to visualize."

So much for the situation and its significance. What can be done about it?

Here is what Senator Smather says as to that: "The answer does not lie in government subsidy or government operation. The railroads don't want that and neither do we.

"An important avenue of relief seems to me to be just the reverse. Less government regulation. Today railroads are overregulated —They are not even permitted to stop an uneconomical operation, if the state body or the Federal group fails to give permission."

In other words, the dire railroad situation stems from too much government in the transportation picture. And Congress alone can take care of that.

"Seeds Of Discontent"

A good many people were disappointed because the President did not strongly urge much greater cuts in non-essential, non-defense spending in his budget message. But there's at least one powerful group which takes an opposite view. It consists of numerous members of Congress—and among its leaders are men prominent in the President's own party.

Newsweek tells the story, under the heading "Seeds of Discontent". Two features in the proposed budget especially disturb and anger them. One is the President's ban against new reclamation and water projects—a Western Senator is quoted as saying: "We've been building reclamation projects for 55 years. No one is going to pay a damn bit of attention to the budget. We're going to continue to build the projects."

The other feature that seems to be sending some tempers to the boiling point is the plan for reducing agricultural price supports. It certainly should be obvious to everyone by now that the high support policy that has been tested over 20 years has been an incredibly expensive failure. But, says Newsweek, there is bipartisan agreement that the plan doesn't have "a ghost of a chance."

If this attitude prevails, we will have non-defense "spending as usual" piled on top of defense spending on a scale so vast as to be beyond human understanding. Then we will have more taxes, higher taxes, or a big new wave of inflation—or all three at once. Then we will move toward national bankruptcy and economic chaos. What more could the Communists want? And you can put the blame where it belongs—on Congress.

Freedom Of Speech Attacked

"The battle has been joined between electric utility companies and the Internal Revenue Service on whether institutional advertising is a legimate business expense for tax purposes," writes Robert U. Brown in Editor & Publisher.

The major part of this institutional advertising is directed against the further entry of the government into the commercial electric power business—in other words, against government encroachment that ultimately could destroy the taxpaying private utility companies. A test case is now in the courts, in the form of a suit filed by one of these companies protesting the disallowance by the Internal Revenue Service of certain funds spent for advertising.

The utility position has been expressed by a spokesman in these words: "Like the advertising of a grocery store the electric companies of America advertise to stay in business . . . We tell the people of our communities what's going on in our business. We tell them that government is grasping more and more of the electric business. We tell them why this is bad for them; how it affects their taxes, their freedom of choice, their electric service and their rights as American citizens."

The utilities, in other words, are seeking to survive—and to do what, in their view, is in the public interest. They are exercising the right of freedom of speech and press—precisely as public power groups can exercise that right. If they can legally be hampered in that, a precedent of the gravest kind will be established. Mr. Brown, in his Editor & Publisher article, said this: "Suppose some crackpot decided all American radio and television broadcasting should be nationalized under one government owned and operated company. Under the present ruling of Internal Revenue . . . independent broadcasters would be precluded from using every means at their disposal—especially advertising in other media—to explain the issues and carry the fight to the public."

That analogy can be applied to any enterprise or profession threatened with government encroachment now or in the future.

Former Sebring Florist Dies In Orlando Hospital

Mrs. Hildred Taylor Coe, 45, former Sebring florist and sister of Mrs. Jack Stephenson, and her unborn infant passed away Monday morning, February 17, in an Orlando hospital. Mrs. Coe was born in Plant City and in recent months she had resided at Merritt Island.

Her father, the late C. H. Taylor, was a former Hillsborough County representative in the state legislature and a former county commissioner from the Plant City District.

Mrs. Coe is survived by her husband, James H. Coe; a daughter, Dianne Coe; her mother, Mrs. Effie Taylor, Sebring; three sisters, Mrs. Cleveland Goddard of Plant City, Mrs. Burton Schoepf of Tampa and Mrs. Jack Stephenson of Sebring; also two brothers, C. H. Taylor and Powers Taylor, Waucbula.

Funeral services were held at the Stephenson Funeral Home Chapel in Sebring Wednesday afternoon with The Rev. A. R. Fagan officiating. Interment was in Mount Enon Cemetery in rural Plant City.

Don Eagle On Wrestling Card

Don Eagle, rated the greatest Indian wrestler of all time, takes on "Killer" Jack Vanskey, rugged Lithuanian, in a two out of three fall, one hour time limit match which promises to be one of the hardest fought matches yet presented at the Armory in Avon Park.

Using holds which require the finesse that only the greatest of wrestlers achieve, Don Eagle is rated among the best wrestlers of all time. His speed and cleverness never fails to amaze fans.

Jack Vanskey relies a great deal on rough tactics. He has frequently been disqualified for kicking and punching his opponents.

"Jr. Mr. America" Harry Smith, muscular Georgia mat ace, meets one of the roughest of the wrestling Dusek family, Ernie Dusek. Dusek uses the same tactics which have won his brother more titles than any other wrestling clan.

Smith usually tries to combat rough wrestling with scientific maneuvers, and is one of the greatest exponents of the scientific style in the nation.

This match is also scheduled for the best two out of three falls, with a time limit of one hour.

Dear Mr. Meyer:

We received today a letter from an Avon Park resident who signed himself "Joe Citizen" and left no return address. Inasmuch as we cannot reply to him direct, we'd appreciate your inclusion of this open letter in your public thought columns. Thank you very much.

"AN OPEN LETTER TO JOE CITIZEN

You wrote us today, Joe complaining that the temperatures we give out over W-GTO are inaccurate. You state that we show higher than any point in the state and infer that we either get our readings from Dick Pope or are lying.

If you can prove either point, we'll gladly hand you our check for $100.00.

We have no interest in reporting readings either higher or lower than those currently prevalent at our studio site. This reading we always give as an "average W-GTO Land" temperature inasmuch as these readings may vary as much as 20 degrees over our 250 mile coverage area.

Our thermometers and procedures have been checked and found satisfactory by the weather bureau.

Be sure you're not confusing our "current" readings with the morning lows or highs that are given out elsewhere. Our current readings are taken hours after the earlier figures are compiled.

Drop us a note, signing your name next time, and we'll happily go into our entire procedure with you, and if you find it inaccurate, you'll come out one hundred bucks to the good."

Sincerely
Radio Station W-GTO

Chamber Donates Additional $25 To Fair Booth

At the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce Thursday night, the Directors unanimously voted to contribute an additional $25 to the Fair Committee towards the booth for the Highlands County Fair which opened Monday.

The Board expressed their confidence and their appreciation to the Committee for the wonderful work they have done on the booth and display.

The major part of the $125, which has been contributed to the Fair Committee, has been spent toward making the booth a permanent constructed affair. The booth has been painted, walled in and counters built so that it may be kept from year to year and can be ready for display purposes at all times.

A wonderful job has been done in preparing the booth this year. The Chamber hopes that every citizen in the community will visit the Highlands County Fair and the Avon Park booth.

Elementary Operetta Attended By Large Audience Last Friday

A large audience was treated to a glimpse of fairyland on Friday night, Feb. 21, in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium when the children presented the operetta "Fairies Are Really Truly".

The colorful costumes, lilting songs, and happy children made the program a memorable one. A prize for selling the most tickets was given to Jim Ward, 1st prize, and Bill Strength, 2nd prize. The proceeds from the operetta were slightly over $250.00 which will be used by the P. T. A. to purchase something for the new school. Many people present noticed the lovely new curtains which were purchased for the stage by the P. T. A. with funds received from the other operettas. The operetta was also presented on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 20.

The operetta was a project of the children, teachers, and parents and everyone worked very hard and are to be thanked for their efforts. The attractive staging for the fairyland scenes was commented on by many of those present and the effective use of the lights aided greatly to the beauty of the original costumes.

The three act operetta told the story of two children who spent the night in a daisy field and, because they really believe in fairies, are called upon to help the Fairy Queen. The fairies are in distress because there is a village of children who do not believe in them and make the two children their ambassadors to the village after showing them the beauties of the fairy people. The children go to the village and return telling the Fairy Queen that the children ask forgiveness and now believe in fairies.

The principals of the cast were Dotty, Sharon Sue Childress at the afternoon performance and Ann Graham at the evening performance; Teddy, Merlin Osepchook in the afternoon and Steven Weber in the evening; Fairy Queen, Debbie Ward in the afternoon and Sally Beth King in the evening; Runaway fairy, Betty Hutchinson in the afternoon and Becky Todd in the evening. The Queen's attendant were Kathy Teeter, Susan Booth, Patty Goof, and Sybil Boyd; The Star and the Moon were Jim Ward and Robert King. The Chariot Attendants were S. Y. Mosely, Jr. and Robert Singletary.

The Daisies, dressed in yellow and white costumes with flower hats, were Delores Reynolds, Sharon Bennett, Linda Johnson, Gale Meyer, Kim Wells, Sybil Anderson, Lark Adams, Linda Simmons, Jimmy Burrescia, Billy Strenth, Bill Green, Robert Sizemore, and Robert Crews.

The Evening Breezes, attired in white blue steamers, were Sherry Smith, Buddy Lahr, Louise Bennett, Sandra Whitlock, Frank Thompson, Marilyn Smith, Marion Turner, Jim Locken, Celia Albritton, Gene Landress, Joe Martin, Patricia Hallam, John Garber and Ann Mandi's.

The Sunbeams, dressed in gold costumes with rays on their hands, were Deborah Gurganus, Kathy Candler, Belinda Whitaker, Nevana Prevatt, Mike Ward, Kris DeLaney, Linda Mansfield, Sherry Reid, Susan Biggs, Linda Farrell, Jane Childs, Jeannine DuBose, Steve Williams, Fred Annon, Melanie McClure and Marcia McDouglas.

The Dreams, who were in pink and blue costumes were Katy Baucom, Pamela Maness, Sherry Wainwright, Robin Williams, John Alwood, Terry Burner, Robert Barnwell, Ricky Green, Nancy Mitchell, Sharmon Atkins, Gwen Garber, Patricia Holden, Tim McCausland, Dean Lemler, Ronnie Reid and Gerald Wicker.

The Rainbow faries wore the colors of the rainbow and danced under a colorful bow made of crepe paper. They were Ruth Fentress, Susan Gentry, Delores Hall, Bruce Bennett, Johnny Elder, Robert Barben, Brenda Johns, Vikki Harris, Janie Clark, Roscoe Bass, Kenneth Lee, and Tim DeLaney.

The Dewdrops, dressed in pink net costumes, were Nancy Johnson, Judy Cothran, Elouise Monsalvatge, Jackie Hall, Melba Mitchell, Mary Lou Stewart, Beverly Simpson, Beverly Turner, Charlene Ladwig, Linda Holmburg, Cynthia Dobbins and Linda Baucom.

Brownie Scout News

All the Brownies of Troop 3 are asked by one of their leaders, Mrs. Jack Hutchinson, to learn the Girl Scouts laws during the next two weeks.

These laws are necessary before the girls can pass their Tenderfoot tests and become Girl Scouts. They are: 1 - A Girl Scout's honor is to be trusted, 2 - A Girl Scout is loyal, 3 A Girl Scout's duty is to be useful and to help others, 4 - A Girl Scout is a friend to all and a sister to every other Girl Scout, 5 - A Girl Scout is courteous, 6 - A Girl Scout is a friend to animals, 7 - A Girl Scout obeys orders, 8 - A Girl Scout is cheerful, 9 - A Girl Scout is thrifty, and 10 - A Girl Scout is clean in thought, word and deed.

The Brownies of Troop 3 will have several exhibits of their handwork in the Highlands County Fair and remind all of their friends to look for them.

Brownie Troop 4 held their regular meeting on Saturday morning, Feb. 22, and had a Valentine exchange and party which had been postponed due to the cold weather.

Plans were made at the meeting for a trip to the Telephone Office at their next meeting on Saturday, March 1.

Mrs. Fred Davis and Mrs. Jim Runkel meet with the mothers before the Brownie meeting. After the meeting refreshments were served the Brownies by Mrs. Floyd Wells. Each girl had cupcakes and a cold drink.

Brownies of Troop 5 enjoyed a visit to station WAVP and the Fire House at their meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 18.

The girls were thrilled at the Radio Station when they were allowed to say "hello" on the air while in the control room. During their visit at the Fire Station the method of getting calls to fires, as well as many other interesting things, was explained to them. They were able to inspect all the equipment and examine the fire trucks.

After their informative meeting the girls had refreshments at Kirkland's Market with their leaders, Mrs. Roy Felknor and Mrs. Jeff Barrow.

Miss Mary Sally Sayers Becomes Bride In Alabama

The wedding of Miss Mary Sally Sayers and Donald Langford took place Monday afternoon, Feb. 17, at four o'clock. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Fred Davis in the First Methodist Church of Tallassee, Alabama, with the double ring ceremony by candlelight.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sayers of Tallassee and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Margaret Langford and the late Mr. Langford of Tallassee.

Two standards of white gladioli and Easter lilies against a background of plams were flanked on each side with branched candelabra holding white tapers.

The program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Sallie Harrison, organist and Miss Peggy Bussard, vocalist, both of Avon Park. Preceding the ceremony Miss Harrison played "O Promise Me" and "Because" while Misses Amy Bowen and Wanda Pelequin lit the candles.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Lester D. Sayers of Opp, Ala. She wore a sculptured magnolia velvet dress with an overskirt of nylon tulle. It was fashioned with a scopped neckline and cummerbund of satin. She also wore long lace gloves. Her small satin hat had a finger-tip veil of illusion and she carried a white Bible topped with split carnation and centered with a white orchid.

Miss Martha O'Steen of Avon Park, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a yellow taffeta sheath with net overskirt and a matching headband of flowers. Her bouquet was of yellow carnations and she wore long lace gloves.

Miss Sue O'Steen, of Avon Park and cousin of the birde, was flower girl and strewed petals in the path of the bridal party. She wore a short yellow taffeta dress with a net overskirt and a head band with yellow roses. Her white basket was decorated with yellow streamers.

Ushers were Mike Woodall and Edwin Elder, both of Tallassee.

At the close of the ceremony Miss Peggy Bussard sang the impressive wedding prayer as a conclusion to the ceremonial prayer.

Mrs. Lester D. Sayers, aunt of the bride, of Opp, wore a blue crepre dress with beaded neckline and a two-toned blue velvet hat. Mrs. W. P. O'Steen of Avon Park, aunt of the bride chose a navy linen suit with navy accessories. They both wore corsage of purple orchids. Mrs. Margaret Langford, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pink taffeta dress with matching pink stole and a small pink velvet hat. Her corsage was a purple orchid also.

Mrs. Langford chose a blue knit suit to travel in with brown accessories with her white orchid for a corsage. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip to Florida and up the coast to Washington, D. C.

They will live in Washington where the bridegroom is employed in the Bureau of Standards and attends George Washington University.

Guests from Avon Park at the wedding were Mrs. W. P. O'Steen and her daughters, Martha and Sue, Mrs. Hubert Bussard and her daughter, Peggy, and Miss Sallie Harrison.

Maxwell-Day Wedding Party Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Day entertained the Maxwell-Day wedding party with a rehersal dinner at noon Saturday, Feb. 22, in the Jacaranda Hotel Dining Room.

The place cards were decorated with a tiny silver wedding ring and a bouquet of flowers. A low arrangement of pink carnations in a tall white urn was made by Mrs. J. A. Johnson at the lovely centerpiece for the dinner table.

The blessing was given by the Rev. J. W. Cummins, D. D. The Rev. W. O. Luttrell, the officiating minister and Mrs. Luttrell were unable to attend the dinner.

Those in the wedding party and other guests who enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Day were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, Miss Jane Maxwell, Walter R. Day, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Finley, Mr. Herman L. Tillman, Miss Carol Pike, Thomas Maxwell, Miss Claire Maxwell, Miss Elanor Simmons, Miss Arlene Sargent, Miss Christine Strickland, Richard D. Reddick, III., Mrs. Edna L. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Elfe, Mrs. J. R. Hunter, Mrs. Clyde W. Shahan, Miss Susanne Shahan and Dr. J. W. Cummins.

Pity the poor man who strives away while he's here to make enough money so his family can loaf and be no account when he's gone.

Miss Jane Maxwell And Walter Day Exchange Vows At Methodist Church

MRS. WALTER R. DAY, JR.

Miss Jane Maxwell became the bride of Walter Ranson Day, Jr., in a candlelight ceremony on Saturday night, Feb. 22, in the First Methodist Church of Avon Park.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Maxwell of Avon Park and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Day of Fairfield, Alabama.

A background of three fan-shaped pieces of greenery studded with white chrysanthemums in a fleur-de-lis design formed an unusual setting for the double-ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Wilmer O. Luttrell. The vows were spoken before a kneeling bench covered with white satin and flanked on either side by graceful bows of satin ribbon. Floor baskets of white chrysanthemums and fern were used with branched candle holders around the altar. The candles were lighted by the ushers.

Mrs. Edna L. Jackson, organist, and Richard D. Reddick, III, soloist presented a pre-nuptial musical program. The vocal numbers included "I Love You Truly" and "Because". At the end of the ceremony "The Lord's Prayer" was sung.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin. Her gown was created especially for her by her mother, of imported alencon lace and satin. The satin skirt fell in a wealth of unpressed pleats from the long-waisted lace bodice, into a sweep train. The bodice closed at the back with lace covered buttons. The portrait neckline was outlined in lace scallops, and the long lace sleeves, fastened with tiny lace-covered buttons, ended in calla points. A scalloped bustle of lace over satin lay in petal-like folds from the long waistline in back down to the train. Her finger-tip veil of French silk illusion was caught up by a Mary Queen of Scots cap of alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet with a white orchid nested in white carnations and roses with bows of net and ribbon streamers.

Miss Claire Maxwell, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a brillant blue gown of peau de soie and chiffon and a plateau cap of pink satin to match the pink carnations in her arm bouquet. Her formal gown was designed on straight lines with back fullness in the skirt which swept the floor and panels of chiffon crossed in front were shirred to cover the shoulders and then floated down the back.

Bridesmaids were Miss Eleanor Simmons of Gainesville, Miss Arlene Sargent of Avon Park, and Miss Carol Pike of Chattanooga, Tennessee fiancee of the bride's brother, Thomas Maxwell. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor with plateau caps of blue peau de sois. Their cascade bouquets were of yellow carnations.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Thomas B. Elfe of Gainesville, Fla., Thomas Maxwell of Avon Park, and Herman Tillman of Gainesville, Ga.

The bride's mother chose steel blue lace over taffeta for her formal gown. She wore rose-colored accessories and a corsage of deep pink roses. The bridegroom's mother selected a formal mauve gown of chiffon and taffeta with which she wore 16-button length white gloves. Her small hat was a creation of mauve feathers, sequined, and she wore a corsage of pink roses in a blue background.

A reception was held in Wesley Hall immediately following the ceremony where guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Hubert Bussard, Mrs. George A. Kelsey, Mrs. W. O. Luttrell, Mrs. Addie Lee Best and Miss Millie Pearson. Mrs. Thomas B. Elfe assisted with the receiving line.

A program of background music was rendered throughout the evening by Miss Wynn Rowe. The bride's book was kept by Miss Suzanne Shahan, a cousin of the bride, and assisting her were Mrs. S. E. Blalock and Miss Christine Strickland. The maid of honor placed her bouquet on this table for decoration.

Mrs. Clyde Shahan, an aunt of the bride, presided at the bride's table which was overlaid with a beautiful linen cloth that was embroidered with cut-work and inserts of lace and bordered with a wide lace scallop. Assisting Mrs. Shahan in serving the cake were Mrs. I. H. Ford, Mrs. S. E. Booth, and Mrs. J. R. Hunter.

The four-tiered cake was decorated with doves, wedding bells, flowers, and topped with a miniature bouquet of carnations and lillies of the valley. The plate was encircled with a ruffle of illusion and lace, and on either side were two silver candlesticks holding tall white tapers. A crystal compote held mints. The bride's bouquet was placed in front of the cake to complete the table arrangement.

The refreshment table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth and the centerpiece was a three stick crystal candelabra with the bridesmaids bouquets placed around the base. A silver dish held salted nuts. Raspberry frappe was served from a punch bowl at one end of the table and coffee was served at the other end.

Presiding at the silver service were Mrs. Ben T. Stewart, Mrs. Hubert Bussard, and Mrs. George A. Kelsey. Serving punch were Mrs. H. K. Biggs, Mrs. J. R. Duggan, and Mrs. Wiley Cothran. Others assisting at the table were Mrs. T. O. Martin, Mrs. W. P. O'Steen, Mrs. J. C. DeShong, Mrs. R. E. Lee, Mrs. N. H. Booth and Mrs. Devon Reddick.

Others who helped during the evening were Mrs. R. A. Gerrard, Mrs. Fred Reddick, Mrs. M. J. Peterson, Mrs. James Sellers, Mrs. M. H. Flowers, Mrs. G. L. Harrison, Mrs. W. P. McDanien, and Miss Clytee Coleman.

At vantage points throughout the social hall were large baskets of white chrysanthemums and rows of candles or the window ledges. A low arrangement of pink carnations was on the piano.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Arlene Sargent, and the happy couple left under a shower of rice and good wishes from their friends.

For traveling the bride wore a dark brown wool sheath dress with avocado green and brown accessories and her gloves were of bright orange which matched the orange and green feather in her hat. She wore the white orchid lifted from her bouquet. The couple will go to Nassau for their wedding trip and after the first of March will be at home at 910 N. W. 40th Drive, Gainesville, Florida.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Maxwell of Rydal, Georgia; Miss Christine Strickland, High Springs, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil C. Finley and Mr. Herman Tillman of Gainesville, Ga.; Mrs. J. R. Hunter, Ft. Lauderdale; Mrs. Clyde W. Shahan and her daughter, Suzanne of Rome, Ga.; Miss Carol Pike, Agnes Scott College of Decatur, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Elfe and Miss Eleanor Simmons, Gainesville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rhodes of Tallahassee; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Blalock, Jr., Orlando; Mrs. Jack White of Clearwater, Fla. and Mrs. Guy Bolt of Zolfo Springs.

First Methodist Church News

Circle 1 of the church held their regular meeting in Wesley Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 11, and sixty guests were served a delicious luncheon by the members of the circle before their meeting.

During the program which followed Mrs. E. L. Hutchins reviewed the first two chapters of the current study on the disciple, Mark. Mrs. George Kelsey read the scripture lesson from Mark and lead in prayer.

Mrs. D. B. Graham gave the prologue. The theme of the program was the meaning of the cross and Mark's reasons for believing Jesus was the Christ.

There were 18 members present at the meeting. Mrs. Willmer O. Luttrell and Mrs. Hubert Bussard were the organizers of the luncheon plans and all the members assisted.

Circle 2 gathered at the home of Mrs. I. H. Ford on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 11, for their regular monthly meeting with twenty-three members present.

Mrs. George Mills reviewed the current study book on Mark for the group and Mrs. Charles Harris gave the devotional message. Several members gave Bible readings.

During the business meeting announcements were read to the members. Mrs. Zeno Warner, Chairman, read a poem "The Pilot" to close the meeting.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cookies and spiced tea were served the members by the hostesses, Mrs. Ford, Mrs. Ben Stewart and Mrs. Virgil Tondee. Three guests were present at the meeting.

Circle 3 held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. R. M. Duthie on Tuesday morning, Feb. 11, with thirty-two members and guests present.

Coffee, blueberry muffins, doughnuts, and other delicious buns were served the members before the meeting by the hostesses, Mrs. Duthie, Mrs. Leatherman and Mrs. Ira McClaren.

Mrs. Hayes Maxwell gave the Bible Reading and the "Gospel of St. Mark, Disciples to such a Lord" by Albert E. Barnett was discussed. Mrs. C. R. Chamberlain gave the devotional message after the lesson.

Circle 4 held their regular monthly meeting on Monday night, Feb. 10, at the home of Mrs. Bob Lee and there were seventeen members present.

Mrs. Ruby Johns gave the devotional message and Mrs. George Harrison taught the first lesson of the new study on Mark "Disciples to Such a Lord". The meeting was opened and closed with a prayer.

During the business meeting which followed several important announcements were made. The District Conference Day will be March 14 in Sebring for all Women's Society for Christian Service members. The State Conference of this group will be held in Winter Haven on April 22-24.

After the meeting a social hour followed with refreshments served by the hostesses.

Visual Therapy Used To Help Children With Behavior Problems

By Frances L. Ilg, M.D. and Louise Bates Ames, Ph.D.
(In Collaboration with Richard J. Apell, O.D.)

Parents and teachers will want to know what can be done for the child who is visually immature and/or lacking in some of the necessary visual skills which we discussed yesterday. If it seems to be a question of overall immaturity, then the question of correction grade placement should be seriously considered, as a first step. For many children, visual therapy, that is, being taught how to move, focus, and fixate the two eyes so that they coordinate properly, is essential for efficient visual development.

One seven-year-old boy was brought to us because he was failing in second grade and was unhappy in school. The boy had complained to his mother for several months that he kept getting the words wrong that the teacher wrote on the chalkboard. A routine eye examination indicated no eye problem. However our visual examination showed that he had very poor ability in moving his eyes from one point in space to another, and in keeping his eyes on a moving target. After this boy had been taught, through visual training, how to use his eyes efficiently, he began to improve in his schoolwork, took real interest in school for the first time, and was no longer unhappy in school.

Sometimes when visual therapy is not available it is possible to rearrange the school environment to get around the problem. For example, one very intelligent eight-year-old girl was forever disturbing the class with her child-like antics which necessitated her being sent home from school, until it was discovered that she couldn't copy her daily assignments from the blackboard. When she couldn't succeed in this, she just blew off steam. The problem was solved in her case by having her copy the assignments at her desk rather than from the board -- something that was beyond her visual ability.

Sometimes glasses that allow the child to focus his eyes farther away while he reads or works at his desk are used as an aid to visual development, and to prevent certain types of eye problems. Many visually immature children in first and second grade have not developed their focusing ability to a degree where they can read or do deskwork for any length of time. This kind of glasses makes it easier for them to work without fatigue. Without such glasses, some of these children avoid reading and other near work as much as possible.

Some children, particularly seven-year-olds, may force themselves in order to achieve perfection and to finish their work to such a point that they are no longer able to focus their eyes at a distance. The result is the development of myopia (near sightedness). Such children have visual problem and an eye problem too.

One way of avoiding or lessening the chances of a visual school behavior problem or an eye problem developing is to have your child given a thorough visual examination not later than the Kindergarten year, to learn how his visual development compares with that of others of his own age. By insuring good visual development early in life, you can avoid many difficulties which often occur later on.

Avon Park

by: Robert M. Cooper

There is a town of which I boast—A little place, a perfect host.
Friendly people gather there—underneath the sun.
Where Sunday's still a day of prayer—and God's the cherished one.
I like to fish in its many lakes
—and sail across the blue, rippling waters of its face—as many tourists do.
Or walk along its one main street—where many feet have trod
And gaze upon the natural beauty—that grew up from the sod.
A friendly jesture welcomes you —though you're just a passer
by.
It does not have the buildings new—that stretch out to the sky;
But this small friendly peaceful town—will linger in your heart,
For you have found my old home town—they call it
Avon Park.

Winter Guest Club News

The Art Class is back in full swing for this year with Mrs. Nace in control. The first Thursday in January the group had their first meeting at which time a course of study lasting to the end of March was laid out. Necessary materials, color mixing, water color, perspective, enlarging, drawing head, eyes, ears, nose and mouth, portrait painting, quick figure sketching, still life, and out-door trips are the highlights.

One of the features of this year's class is a series of art exhibits by present and former members df this group. Mr. Pipher and Mr. Mills have already presented theirs. Mr. Warwick will present this week, Feb. 20. Following later Mrs. Fries will demonstrate portrait painting. Each week members bring in their finished pictures which are exhibited. A period of constructive criticism is then conducted by Mrs. Nace; this is most valuable to all. One of the goals for which the group works is the exhibit held toward the end of the course. This year it will be in March, held in conjunction with the Hobby Show.

A report on this work would not be complete without a hearty vote of thanks to the gentlemen who gather, on these cold mornings, by the fireplace, for their cooperative spirit of quietness. They give one glance at the sign reading, "Art Class, Quiet, Please", and mum's the word!

Mrs. Coulter, of Philadelphia, Pa. gave an interesting and informative illustrated travelogue on Thursday evening; the locale being Guatamala. Mr. Casler, a retired food chemist, has made a hobby of touring and photographing South and Central America. His pictures are beautiful, his subject matter well chosen, and his narrative most interestingly presented. We thank another of our public-spirited club members for a most enjoyable, as well as instructive, evening.

The shufflers had an interesting week just past. For the first time, at least in this reporter's memory, four ladies made it to the finals. Mrs. Pickell and Mrs. Warner, in a suspension-packed finale edged out Mrs. Ifland and Mrs. Grimshaw to win Wednesday's event.

Representing our local club in the Central District Amateur Tournament at Lakeland last week were Fred Ifland and Martin Lindberg, who won all their games and will go to Lake Worth to receive their trophies. Sixteen teams from each district entered this meet at Lakeland and we feel justifiably proud of our winning team. Keep it up, Boys; we'll put Avon Park on the map yet!

Arcadia returned on Thursday to play the tournament the rain spoiled the previous week; about fifty players taking part from their club. Mrs. Warner and her committee served coffee for the picnic dinner our visitors enjoyed at our clubhouse. Avon Park won this event; watch the bulletin board for the date when we go there for a return engagement.

Mrs. McGonnel and John Glen won the potluck tournament on Saturday. This was one of those rare days when it was good just to be alive; the sun shone brightly, every court was filled and the bench-warmers were out in full force to enjoy the play and soak up the most welcome, warm sunshine.

The current wave of respiratory ailments has hit our club attendance a severe blow, especially on Friday and Saturday; there was little better than half the usual attendance at the dance and the covered-dish supper. We hope the current warm weather will have a salutary effect on the ailing and that they will be back in force by the end of the week.

We are happy to tell that the Sunday Sing also very well attended, 135 being the count, according to Mr. Ford. In Mr. Shiltz' absence Mr. Ney Smith conducted the program, very capably, we might add. Our faithful pianist, Mrs. Wolverton, being on the sick list the past week, Mrs. Harry Gibson substituted for her. We feel our club is fortunate in having so many able and willing people to carry on the many and varied activities.

Michigan again led in the number present at the Saturday supper, with Indiana running a real close second and New York only one behind them. In all, there were representatives from eleven different states present. Mr. Martin Lindborg took charge in his usual informal, friendly way and the session concluded by singing, "Happy Birthday" to those who had passed another milestone during the week.

IT'S UP TO YOU

By
Howard E. Kershner, L.H.D.

Dr. Kershner

AT the last meeting of the American Municipal Association the mayors and their representatives were insistent on more Federal Aid. They know the people of the cities they rule must pay the greater parts of this expense, but still they clamor for more and more of it.

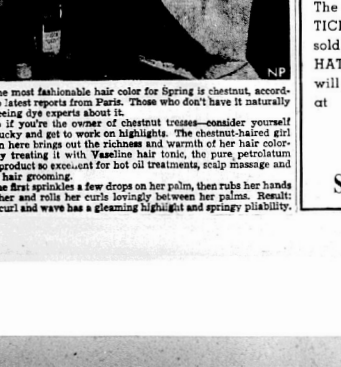

The Socialist knows that the Welfare State Program is not his money, but he fondly believes that he gets more from it, than he must pay. With a few exceptions the reverse is true. He pays much more than he gets, for a huge percentage of the dollars he pays in taxes go to support the swollen bureaucracy that spends his money for him. Much more is wasted and lost in the devious process of collecting money from all over America to subsidize a Coliseum in New York and in return collecting money from all over America, including New Yorkers, to subsidize projects in New Orleans, San Francisco, and elsewhere. All the people in our country pay part of the electric bills of the people residing in the Tennessee Valley. Industries located other places pay part of the electric bills of industries served by the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Socialism or welfare statism are essentially based on covetousness — the expectation of getting from others more than one must pay to others. Once that Genni is well out of the bottle there is little hope of stopping it until it consumes those who removed the cork.

Why not spend our own money locally for what we want and stop deluding ourselves by thinking that we shall have more if we buy for the other fellow and he buys for us.

Fashionable Chestnut Hair Needs Highlights

The most fashionable hair color for Spring is chestnut, according to latest reports from Paris. Those who don't have it naturally are seeing dye experts about it.

So if you're the owner of chestnut tresses—consider yourself just lucky and get to work on highlights. The chestnut-haired girl shown here brings out the richness and warmth of her hair coloring by treating it with Vaseline hair tonic, the pure, petrolatum base product so excellent for hot oil treatments, scalp massage and daily hair grooming.

She first sprinkles a few drops on her palm, then rubs her hands together and rolls her curls lovingly between her palms. Result: each curl and wave has a gleaming highlight and springy pliability.

Local Resident Died Feb. 18 At Bay Pines

Will Bennett, 65, passed away Tuesday night, February 18, in the Veterans Hospital at Bay Pines. He was born in Pineapple, Ala., and had lived in Avon Park for the past 32 years. He was a retired dealer in hardware and building supplies and a veteran of World War I.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Bennett; three sons, Williams Bennett of Pensacola; Robert Carey Bennett and James E. Bennett of Avon Park; and one sister, Mrs. O. C. Farmer of Montgomery, Alabama.

Funeral services were held at the chapel of the Stephenson Funeral Home in Avon Park Friday afternoon with The Rev. A. D. Childress officiating. Interment in Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were L. C. Hooper, Jack DeLaney, John Brown, Howard Maddox, A. B. Wilhite and J. C. DeShong.

Honorary pallbearers were Demos Mandis, Ed Welch, Cal Ellis, Will Ward, Dave Stuckey and Charles Straubel.

Stephenson Funeral Home of Avon Park was in charge of the arrangements.

Devilettes End Season With A 5 - 4 Record

The Avon Park Girls Varsity ended last weeks play with a 5 - 4 record then they defeated Fort Meade for the second time this season and took fourth place in the Ridge Playoffs on Friday night only to lose to a superior Frostproof Six.

On Tuesday night the Devilettes won by a two point margin over Fort Meade, 50 - 48 in a closely fought contest.

This win over Ft. Meade put Avon Park in the Ridge Conference Playoff Friday night at Frostproof. Avon Park played in the nightcap against Frostproof only to suffer a crushing defeat 65 to 34 at the hands of a team that had beaten them twice during the regular season of play.

"Teen-Town Talk"

There were 75 in attendance at the Saturday night session at the Youth Recreation Center the 22nd. Many of these were the younger teensters, as the ball game claimed its quota. Chaperones were Mrs. Julia Holcombe, Mrs. Royal Coats, and Mr. Andy Miracle.

Last week, Phil Landress won the Ping Pong Tournament, defeating Wendell Williams in a best two out of three match. The winner received as prize a sport shirt of his choosing from Eaton's Department Stores' wide selection.

Monday night Youth Association met at Mr. Miracles house. Plans were discussed for many future activities of the Center. Details of this discussion will be given out next week.

$7100 FOR EVERY FAMILY BY 1975 IS CED's PREDICTION OF U.S. GROWTH

High Incomes Can Be Achieved Only by Wise Handling of Major Economic Issues, Committee Warns

WASHINGTON—By 1975, the average income of American families, after payment of all taxes, should be at least $7,100, as compared with a present average disposable income of $5,300 per family, the Committee for Economic Development predicted.

"Achievement of this high average income is not an imagined utopia, it is a practical goal for practical men," CED's Research and Policy Committee declared in releasing the results of a study by a subcommittee of businessmen and economists headed by Harry Scherman, chairman of the board of the Book-of-the-Month Club, Inc., of New York.

Entitled "Economic Growth in the United States—Its Past and Future," the statement called for "unending vigilance" by both individuals and government to assure that the most is made of the nation's growth-producing potentials. It stressed improvement of public education, continuous investment in enterprise, increased private savings, mobility of both labor and capital, efficient management of business and government, and rising foreign trade as among the essentials for growth.

"Only if we manage our economic affairs with intelligence can we expect such a 'good life' on the material side, shared among the entire population," the statement asserted. Our growth will depend mainly, it stressed, "on millions of daily private decisions."

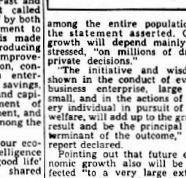

"The initiative and wisdom shown in the conduct of every business enterprise, large or small, and in the actions of every individual in pursuit of his welfare, will add up to the grand result and be the principal determinant of the outcome," the report declared.

Pointing out that future economic growth also will be affected "to a very large extent by the policies and activities of government," the Committee declared "we must be more concerned than ever about two controlling matters: first, the need of attracting competent individuals into government service; and second, to broaden and clarify public understanding of governmental matters."

Continued growth is the more important today, the statement said, because of competition by the Communist bloc.

CED is composed of 150 business executives and scholars who conduct research and develop recommendations for promoting national economic development. Its Research and Policy Committee is headed by Frazar B. Wilde, president of the Connecticut General Life Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn. W

Mary Lois Dunn takes first place with the largest Speckled Perch weighing 1 lb and 9 ounces. She caught the Speck in Lake Lotela on a cane pole using Mo. Minnows for bait.

Jeffrey Stokey is in second place with a Speck which weighed in at 1 lb and 8 ounces, caught in Lake Lotela with Spinning Tackle and using Mo. Minnows for bait.

Cassandra Dunn is in third place with a Speck caught in Lake Lotela and it weighed 1 lb and 7 ounces and was caught on cane pole with Mo. Minnows for bait.

Last Rites Held Tuesday For A. W. Hannmann

Albert William Hannmann, 67, passed away at Walker Memorila Hospital Sunday after being stricken with a heart attack Saturday. He was born in Danzig, Germany, and came to Avon Park from White Plains, N. Y. about two years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Louise B. Hannmann; a daughter, Mrs. William H. Monsalvatge, Jr., of Avon Park; two sons, Ralph A. Hannmann of Bowling Green, Ohio, and Albert W. Hannmann, Jr., of Zurich, Switzerland; six grandchildren and a sister, Mrs. Addelheid Welm of New York City.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning in the chapel at Stephenson Funeral Home of Avon Park with The Rev. Fr. Peter P. Watterson officiating. Interment was held in the Bougainvilles Cemetery.

Pallbearers were W. I. Grove, G. F. Ward, George Border, R. N. Sellars, Herbert Todd and Joe Kuhn.

Stephenson Funeral Home of Avon Park was in charge of the arrangements.

Lawler M. Wells Taking Basic Training In S. C.

Fort Jackson, S. C. -- Private Lawler M. Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Wells, Box 818 Avon Park, Fla. has been assigned to Co. D 2d Bn 1st Tng Regt Inf at Fort Jackson for his basic infantry training.

Upon his arrival at Fort Jackson, he was initially assigned to the U. S. Army Personnel Center where he was issued his clothing, given a complete physical examination and a comprehensive battery of aptitude tests to determine the Army duty assignment for which he will be best fitted.

Upon completion of his basic training, he will receive further advanced infantry training or will be assigned to an Army school. Fort Jackson offers schooling in several specialties associated with an Army division.

Fort Jackson is one of the country's largest Infrantry Training Centers and also conducts a program of training for men under the provisions of the Reserve Forces Act of 1955.

Red Devils End Season With 9 Wins 4 Losses

The Avon Park Red Devils ended the regular season of basketball play last Friday night when they were defeated by the Sebring Blue Streaks. This gave the Devils a season's record of 9 wins and 4 losses for a better than average Conference record. They lost to Lake Placid, Arcadia, Mulberry and Sebring.

This loss did not affect the Dickinson standing of the Avon Park team and they were thrown into a three-way tie for second place for the Ridge Conference Play-off. Avon Park tied with Mulberry and Kissimmee for coveted place. On Saturday night Avon Park met Mulberry in the first elimination at Ft. Meade and defeated the Panthers 58 - 50 in a well-played game. Little Bryan Kempton was a real star as he heckled and harrased the players until they were completely rattled. Charlie Anderson, the top scorer on the Red Devil Five, was up to his usual playing ability. Charlie has averaged 27 points per game this season. That will be a hard record for anyone to beat.

As the paper goes to press the Devils will be in the second elimination floor play against Kissimmee. The winner of that game will be the second place team of the Conference and they will have to play Lake Placid in the final two team play-off to decide the Ridge Conference Basketball Championship. Lake Placid is currently the top team in the Conference.

The Title game will be played the week of March 3 on a neutral court, the date to be decided after the district tournament.

On Thursday night the District Tournament will begin at Wauchula at the Joel Evers Gymnasium. Avon Park is seeded fourth in the District play-off and they will meet the third place team in the opener. Bartow and Haines City will meet in the night-cap. The winners of these two contests will meet Friday night to decide the District Championship.

Avon Park has had a better season this year than last and they have the priviledge of participating in these two tournaments. Who knows, they may win a title this season.

The Avon Park High School Girls team also ended the season's play with a good record and were in the Conference Play-offs where they lost out to Frostproof. The girls had a total of 5 wins and 6 losses for the season.

Rotary News

Weyman Carvey, Sales Manager for the Wallace Aircraft Company, State Distributors for the Piper Aircraft Company, was guest speaker at the Avon Park Rotary Club luncheon meeting last Wednesday, February 19, at the Jacaranda Hotel. He spoke on America's Business Aviation Fleet.

"There are 66,000 companies and professional men utilizing private aircraft in the U. S.," he said. "This fleet flies four times more hours per year than all the U. S. airlines combined and we have some 2,000 of these companies and professional owners in Florida."

"However," he said, "Statistics do not furnish the complete picture. They indicate the trend, in this case, the trend of transportation into the air. Transportation is the key to the spread of civilization."

Weyman briefly outlined the history of the development of transportation from the stone age to our air age. He pointed out how civilization had spread as transportation improved, how civilization had moved westward, the settling of America and the developing of its resources.

He described the development of the air age with the birth of the aircraft at the turn of the century, its early stages, its use in World Wars one and two, and its eventual widespread utilization by American Business following the Korean War.

"The airplane, as it is utilized by U. S. businessmen is the safest, most economical, and efficient means of mechanical transportation known to man," he said. "It is inevitable that aerial transportation will replace surface transportation as the automobile replaced the horse."

Weyman, who now lives in Orlando with his wife and two children, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Carver of Avon Park. He was reared in Avon Park, and was a member of the Board of Directors of the Avon Park Rotary Club when he was recalled to active duty during the Korean War.

Three guests attended the meeting last week, they were; A. L. Lynd as the guest of Dr. Larsen; R. A. Carver as the guest of Barney Howard and P. G. Gearing was the guest of Jack Head.

Visiting Rotarians from thirteen different states were present last week, they are; Joe Moore, New Market, Va.; S. John Stover, Corning, N. Y. and his guest, Carl Flaws; H. B. As Seen By The Stroller

Spelling seems to be perhaps not a lost art but a difficult and elusive art. It is a lost art with some people who have been able to spell ordinary English words correctly, but who can't be sure of doing it any more. There are such people, and I confess to be one of them. I have to keep a dictionary handy when setting down to write a letter, and I use it very often. It is an elusive art since there are few trules for guidance that haven't some exceptions, and those of course are hard to learn and easy to forget. It is hard to remember which words have the e before the i, or the i before the e, which words double the consonants and which do not. It is all rather confusing. If you can see the word in question with the mind's eye, you probably can spell it correctly. If you can not, then you had better run to the dictionary unless you just don't care a whoop.

I was led into this little disquition on spelling by what I saw on upper Main street as I strolled down it from the west end. A sign board at a certain corner said that here was "De Sota" avenue. Now if I have read my history correctly the explorer spelled his name with an o at the end and not an a. But the sign reads, and all the signs on the avenue likewise, DeSota. Mr. Hernando De Soto, among the first to explore Florida, would probably grin if he could see that signboard. A short distance below that, coming towards the center, I was confronted by another street sign announcing an avenue "Sumit". That was quite a jolt in the slats. I was brought up to spell that word with two m's, not just one. Of course, if "Sumit" was a man's name, it is altogether right to name a street that way. But if so named because it is as the top of a hill, then it should certainly be "Summit" and not "Sumit".

To be sure, oddly spelled street names may lead a certain charm to a city. But on the other hand they may suggest to any stranger that school teaching in that city is none too good. Lest that impression gets abroad may be the town fathers in time will get round to correcting badly spelled street names. A consummation devoutly to be wished. So said Hamlet; likewise to says Roderick Stroller.

There are eight Florida salt water fish which have minimum legal lengths for fishermen: blue fish and pompano, 10 inches; mackerel, trout, mullet and red fish, 12 inches; flounder, 11 inches; and snook, 18 inches.

DID YOU KNOW?

By DALE I. ROYAL, Evangelist
Avon Park Church of Christ

Did you know that the kingdom of God and the Church of Christ are one and the same? Although almost everyone recognizes that the purpose of Christ's coming was to establish the kingdom of heaven many good people feel that when the Jews rejected Jesus God "postponed" the establishment of the kingdom until the second coming of Christ. This idea that the kingdom was not established in the days of the Apostles forced an unnecessary distinction between the kingdom and the church.

The parables of Christ are probably the best illustration of this forced distinction. If the parables are read with the idea of the kingdom being synonymous with the church those that are otherwise difficult are in many cases understandable. Try it and see.

Another difficulty rises if we consider the kingdom being the subject of prophecy. If a prophecy fails to come to pass when God said it would it could easily leave the idea that failed prophecy is not prophecy. If a man claimed to be a prophet and prophecied rain next Wednesday we would not listen to him if he kept postponing each time rain failed to materalize. God's prophecy never fails but too often men have the wrong understanding of the nature and purpose of the prophecy.

Most important of all the Bible indicates that those that lived in the first century understood the kingdom (or church) to be established. At Thessalonica (Acts 17) Paul and his coworkers were accused of saying, "There is another king, one the Hebrew Writer (Heb. 12:28), that God "hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son." How could this be if the kingdom had not been established? Let us, then, say with the Hebrew Writer (Her. 12:38), "Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear for our God is a consuming fire."

Jr. Woman's Club Fashion Show At Pinecrest Has Record Attendance

Over 252 ladies of Avon Park and the surrounding communities had a preview of the lovely spring fashions as presented by Maas of Lakeland in the dining room of the Pinecrest Lakes Club at the Annual Junior Woman's Club Fashion Show on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 19.

Coffee and dainty pastries were served the ladies as they waited for the show to begin in the spacious dining room overlooking lovely Lake Lotela.

Miss Priscilla Parker, Fashion Co-ordinator of the Maas Stores, gave the commentary, which with the clear program furnished by the store, made the show very easy to follow.

The local models did justice to the lovely creations and in spite of the weather made spring and spring fashions seem closer. Mrs. Carl Prisoc and Mrs. Donald Ford saved the day by taking the places of Mrs. Fred Jahna and Mrs. Clint Tish at the very last minute when the two models were overcome by the flu.

A simple but delicious luncheon was served the Maas representatives at noon before the show by the members of the Junior Club in the Clubhouse Building. Attending were Mr. Charles Berger, assistant manager of the store, and his assistant who were in charge of staging, Mr. Charles Mummy, manager of Lakeland Maas, Mrs. Carlotta High, who was in charge of models, and her assistant, and Mrs. Hubert Pete who was in charge of the jewelry. Mrs. Earl Futch, Mrs. N. H. Booth and Mrs. Arlin King were the members in charge of the luncheon.

Another added attraction at the Fashion Show was the drawing for door prizes which were given by Maas Brothers. The prizes were large boxes of John Robert Powers Cosmetics and they were won by Mrs. Robert Harden and Mrs. Ed Gardner of Avon Park.

During the intermission Mrs. Virgil Hall accompanied Mrs. John Garber as she sang, "One Alone" and "Romance". Mrs. Hall also secured the records which were used over the hi-fi during the show.

The Junior Woman's Club would like to thank all those attended and took part in the show. Mr. H. R. Currie of Avon Gardens Florist furnished the lovely flowers for the Bridal party. Mrs. J. T. Landress furnished transportation for those who needed it. And the Club would especially like to thank the Avon Park Sun for their help, personnel of the Maas Brothers of Lakeland were helpful and very cooperative.

Safety In Schools PTA Program

The theme was safety at the R. T. A. meeting on Thursday night, February 20, in the High School Auditorium.

Guy Garrett, Highlands County Safety Officer for the Schools, gave a clear and concise talk of the work that is being done for the promotion of pupil safety. This was a very valuable report and should be of vital interest to all parents who send children to school in this county.

The girls of the Home Department under the direction of Mrs. Charles Moseley gave a very clever and interesting skit on safety. This skit was tape-recorded by Radio Station WAVP and broadcast to the citizens of Avon Park on Friday afternoon, February 21. Girls taking part in the skit were Carolyn Biggs, Hattie Layton, Faye Watford, Pat Hart, Carolyn Ellis, Lani Fries, Marylyn Zinn, Martha O'Steen, Margaret Hagen, Betty Sue Mills and Bonnie Sue Pounds.

Mrs. Frank Love, Program Chairman, gave a few interesting facts on Founder's Day of the Parent Teacher Association which is in February and some valuable purposes of the organization.

Through the efforts of the local P. T. A. group there is a policeman helping the patrol boys stationed around the Elementary School and High School on Lake and Verona in the afternoon when school is dismissed. The P. T. A. would like to thank the city for their cooperation. It was also announced that a parking lot to the north of the High School would soon be completed and upon its lots completion there will be no parking on Lake Avenue except for parents letting out and picking up students.

At the next meeting of the PTA in March, Mrs. E. A. Martin will head a Panel Discussion on Character and Spiritual Education. This program will be one that all parents will find interesting and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, president, urges all parents to show that they are interested in their children by attending.

Congregational Church News

The Young Adult Class of the church enjoyed a covered dish supper followed by a square dance on Saturday night, Feb. 22.

The delicious supper was served in the Parish House with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Poling and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whetstone serving as hosts. After the supper a business meeting was held with a dicussion of the furnishing purchased for the new building and a suggestion for more.

The program was an evening of Square Dancing with Pat Cleveland, Caller Extra-ordinary during the calling. This dance was held in the New Educational Building in the Y. A. C. room.

About twenty-five member of the group were present to enjoy the evening.

All women of the church, members and friends, are urged to attend the first luncheon of the Women's Fellowship on Monday, March 3, at 12:00 noon in the Recreational Hall of the New Educational Building.

For reservations see Mrs. John Townsend, Mrs. P. C. Boney, Mrs. Frank Adams, or Mrs. John Jockinson.

This will be the first function of the new Women's Fellowship for the entire body of church women and a wonderful chance of the woman to become acquainted. Mrs. John Piekens will be in charge of the interesting program.

The Congregational Church continues to offer outstanding study courses to all those who are interested on Tuesday morning and Wednesday nights.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Miss Kay Mizelle And Haakon Jonasen

MR. AND MRS. HAAKON JONASEN

Our Lady of Grace, Catholic Church, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Kay Mizelle and Haakon Jonasen on Saturday, Feb. 15, at 1030 in the morning.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. C. Hart of Winter Garden and Walter Mizelle of Avon Park. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Agnes Jonasen of Chicago, Ill.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a street length dress of white satin with a dainty lace cap from which fell a veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet centered with a white orchid.

Miss Penny Prescott was the only attendent to the bride. She wore a light blue tafetta and net street length dress with a net and satin hat. Her nosegay was of pink carnations.

Bill Webb of Sebring served the bridegroom as best man.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Father Emil Heiring of Sebring.

A program of nuptial music was presented before the ceremony by Miss Marcia Bibee. "Ave Maria" was among the selections played.

The young couple left immediately following the ceremony on a short wedding trip. Mrs. Jonasen wore a white dress with the white orchid from her bridal bouquet for traveling.

Mrs. Jonasen will live at home until June when she will graduate from Avon Park High School and join her husband in Orlando where he is employed with the Glenn Martin Aircraft Corporation.

First Baptist Church News

The Jean Dickman Circle met at the home of Mrs. E. A. Martin on Lake Lotela on Tuesday, Feb. 18 with a very interesting program and business session.

Mrs. R. H. Lawhon, Chairman, taught two chapters in the mission study book "Look To The Cities" which tells of the mission work being done in the cities in the Southern Baptist Territory. Mrs. C. R. Wing then reported on the mission work being done in Atlanta, Mrs. Sam Pendelton reported on Los Angles, and Mrs. N. W. Kinney told of the mission work in Kansas City, Kansas.

After the business session Mrs. Martin served delicious refreshments to these ladies and Mrs. Otto Skipper.

A beautiful Sunday with lovely spring weather brought out a large number of members and tourists for the Annual Tourist Day Dinner on Sunday 23.

A lunch of everything imagineable was prepared on the grounds of the church and everyone enjoyed a noon meal of fellowship and plenty.

The Church is proud of its Men's Brotherhood group which has in the past four months participated in the following activities, 1 - observed Laymamn's Day in the church, 2 - sponsored a Junior Royal Ambassador chapter, 3 - taken a Census of King's Court and Woodruff Heights, 4 - donated food baskets at Thanksgiving and Christmas, 5 - helped The Rev. Childress and his family move into their new home, 6 - held regular monthly meeting including one joint meeting with the R. A. S., and 7 - attended the Associational Brotherhood meeting.

The Rev. and Mrs. Sam Longbottom, Jr. showed pictures of their work in Hawaii on Sunday evening in the church. The pictures and the story of their duties they were of great interest to all present. The members of our church will hate to see them leave when they return to Honolulu next week.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Roxie Jacobs Circle held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Haywood Williams on Thursday, Feb. 20.

Since the month of February has Valentines Day which is the symbol of love the lesson and program of the circle was centered on love. Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath read the devotional message following this theme and the program given by Mrs. Eileen Hall and Mrs. Lucille Sadler further illustrated it.

Delicious refreshments of ice cream sodas and heart-shaped cookies were served to the ten members and three new members by the hostess, Mrs. Williams. The new members were Mrs. Walter Marshall, Mrs. Claude Cole and Mrs. Elmo Hopkins.

The 15 and 16 Year Old Intermediate Union enjoyed a Bar-b-que in the Social Hall of the Church on Saturday night, Feb. 22.

The twelve boys and girls present enjoyed a delicious supper of bar-b-qued ribs, french fries, slaw, and pie. The Rev. J. M. Gilbreath and J. M. Murray, leaders of the group, helped the group plan and prepare the meal.

Christian Church News

The Revival at the church has just finished its second week and all the members feel that it was an outstanding success. Paul Jordan was enjoyed by all who heard him and the Lake Wales and the Wauchula churches presented outstanding musical program each week.

John Scott, Minister, who has been ill was able to return to the pulpit on Sunday for the morning and evening service. The minister and the members fell that the new church is doing well in its first organizational months. Several new classes will be organized at the beginning of the new quarter.

Charter members of the First Christian Church in Avon Park are Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Davis, Mrs. Ruth Burrescia, Mes. J. A. Sikes, Mr. Stanley Skillin, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis.

Members of the Church cordially invite the citizens to visit them and see the church at any time.

Episcopal Church News

The ladies of St. Margaret's served over two hundred people at their Annual Pancake Day on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 18, in the Parish House.

Mrs. Frank Kinner, Chairman, wishes to thank all who helped with the work, made donations of the ingredients for the delicious pancakes, or food for the Food Sale, in behalf of the Auxiliary. And also everyone who came and enjoyed the pancakes. The amount received from the sale of pancakes and food sale was $253.

St. Margaret's Guild will have a Lenten Luncheon in the Parish House on Wednesday, March 5 at 12:30. Tickets will be available from the members and reservations should be made early.

Sans Souci Eentertained

Members of the Sans Souci Bridge Club enjoyed an evening of bridge at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wilhite on Tuesday, February 18.

After a evening of bridge delicious refreshments were served the guests and members by the hostess, Mrs. Wilhite. High score prize was won by Miss Mildred Myers and second by Mrs. Raymond Dilley.

Members playing were Mrs. Paxton Hill, Mrs. Alice Sherman, Miss Sara Sellers, Miss Millie Pearson, and Miss Mildred Myers. Guests were Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine and Mrs. R. L. Brown.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

Walker Memorial Hospital News

Dr. D. C. Hartwell, staff physician of Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital, was invited last week to the monthly meeting of the combined Women's Clubs of Sebring to make the appeal for the American Heart Association.

In his brief remarks, Dr. Hartwell said that in the year 1956 alone more than 800,000 deaths in the United States were from diseases of the heart and circulation.

"In spite of the almost miraculous advances that have been made in some phases of the care of heart disease," he said, "it is still the nation's number one killer, and infinitely more needs to be done to improve methods of control."

The current flu epidemic has greatly increased the number of those needing hospital service. However, no one has been turned away and additional beds and necessary room equipment is on order so that any one needing hospitalization may have the best possible accomodations.

The management again expresses appreciation for the help everyone gave in making beds available to care for all the citizens of our community. This new section is now being used extensively.

Word has come through from H. M. Baldwin, former manager of Walker Memorial, that he and Mrs. Baldwin will arrive in Bangkok, Thailand by plane on Friday, February 28th. Their plane journey began from San Francisco Sunday morning, February 23d.

OES Honor Winter Guests

The Winter Guests who are Eastern Stars were entertained by the members of Leigh Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star on Tuesday night, February 18, at the Masonic Temple.

There were forty-two guests present to enjoy the evening and a small gift was given each guest by the chapter. Mrs. Gladys Hagen, Courtesy Chairman, and some of the members gave a clever skit on George Washington for the program. A number of the guests told of the work their own chapters were doing and how much they enjoyed the evening. Many states were represented by the visitors.

Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served in the dining room after the meeting.

The members of Leigh Chapter served over a hundred people at their Fried Chicken Supper on Thursday night, February 20. Mrs. W. G. Tomlinson, Worthy Matron, wishes to thank all members who helped and all those who attended the supper.

The next meeting of Leigh Chapter will be on Tuesday night March 4, at 8 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

DINNER

Florida Strawberries and Grapefruit sections
Baked Florida Red Snapper, Buttered Cauliflour, Tomato & Lettuce Salad, Maple Glazed Carrots, Florida Citrus Tarts.

Baked Florida Red Snapper - 4 to 6 pound Red Snapper (not split), 4 strips of bacon, 3/8 tsp. black pepper, ¾ tsp. salt, 2 Cups Canned Tomatoes, 4 tsp. finely chopped onion, 1 tps. finely chopped green pepper, ½ cup small green peas, A little garlic if desired.

Clean, wash, and dry fish. Rub with salt and slit skin in several places. Brush with cooking oil. Lay two strips bacon in greased baking pan. Place fish on bacon and lay two strips bacon on fish. Mix other ingredients and pour over fish. Bake for 10 minutes in a very hot oven. Lower temperature and bake 20 to 40 minutes longer. Baste with sauce from time to time. Serve on large platter garnished with parsley. 6 to 8 servings.

Florida Citrus Tarts - 2 Cups canned or fresh Florida tangerine, orange, blended or grapefruit juice, 1 Package prepared vanilla pudding, 6 baked tart shells, Whipped cream, Citrus Sections.

Use any of the canned or fresh Florida citrus juices as the liquid in preparing vanilla pudding. Chill; fill tart shells. Garnish with whipped cream and citrus sections. Makes 6 tarts.

BAKED STUFFED FISH

3 or 4 lbs. fish, dressed, 1½ tsp. salt, Bread stuffing, 4 tbsp. melted butter or other fat, 3 slices bacon (optional).

Clean, wash and dry the fish. Sprinkle inside and out with salt. Stuff fish loosely, and sew the opening with needle and string, or close with skewers. Place fish in a greased baking pan. Brush with melted fat. Bake in a moderate oven for 40 to 60 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. If fish seems dry while baking, baste occasionally with drippings or melted fat. Remove string or skewers and serve hot. Serves 6.

SAUTEED KING MACKERAL

2 lbs. kinkfish, sliced, Milk, Flour or cornmeal, Cooking oil or fat, Salt and Pepper, Lemon.

Dip slices of fish in salted milk. Roll in seasoned flour or cornmeal. Heat a liberal amount of oil or fat in heavy skillet. Brown the steaks on one side, turn, brown on the other side. Serve with a quarter of lemon.

Serves 6.

Picture yourself behind the wheel of this Plymouth Savoy—it's

THE LOWEST PRICED HARDTOP IN THE LOW-PRICE "3"!

*Car "C" costs $104 more—Car "F" $49 more than Plymouth

You wouldn't think it possible to find so much difference in the prices of similar models in the low-price "3"! But it's a fact that the long, low, graceful Plymouth Savoy costs far, far less than any hardtop made by the "other two"! Just ask your Plymouth dealer to show you the facts and figures.

And in the Plymouth Savoy, you get features—important engineering advances—that the others can't offer you at any price.

You get a revolutionary new suspension system as standard equipment in the Plymouth Savoy at not one penny extra cost to you! Torsion-Aire gives you the world's smoothest ride—level at all times, with no nose-dive, no sway, no roll.

You get Total-Contact Brakes—safer, surer, smoother—exactly the same design as those used on America's costliest car!

You get crowd-stopping Silver Dart Styling that a leading auto magazine calls ". . . the newest, cleanest design"!

You get the biggest windshield, the greatest total glass area, the best visibility, and more over-all roominess and comfort!

But just words can't describe the Plymouth Savoy Hardtop. You've got to see it—sit inside it—drive it to appreciate all the advantages it offers at savings of from $49 to $104!*

*Based on factory retail prices, Detroit, Mich.

Reptured Men Get $3.50 Gift for Trying This

Kansas City, Mo.—Here is an improved means of holding rupture that has benefited thousands of ruptured men and women in the last year.

Inconspicuous, without leg straps, elastic belts, body encircling springs or harsh pads, it has caused many to say, "I don't see how it holds so easy. I would not have believed, had I not tried it."

So comfortable — so easy to wear—it could show you the way to joyous Freedom from your rupture trouble.

You can't lose by trying. It is sent to you on 60 days trial. You receive a $3.50 special truss as a gift for making this trial.

Write for descriptive circular. It's free. Just address Physician's Appliance Company, 9801 Koch Bldg., 2906 Main, Kansas City 8, Missouri.

But do it today before you lose the address.

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF HIGHLANDS COUNTY, FLORIDA
WHEREAS, George H. Phillips and Iva Phillips his wife, Edmond E. Phillips and Mary Phillips his wife, Aubrey Smith and Grace Smith his wife, Albert Smith and Minnie Smith his wife, and Dewey Lee Tew on the 4th day of February, 1958 presented a Petition to the Board seeking the vacation, abandonment, discontinuance and closing of that certain portion of a road or street in Highlands County, Florida, and more particularly described hereinafter; and
WHEREAS the Board did, on the 4th day of February, 1958, pass a Resolution providing that it would, on the 18th day of February, 1958 at 10 o'clock a.m. at the Courthouse in Sebring, Florida, consider and determine whether or not the County would vacate, abandon, discontinue and close, renounce and disclaim any right of the County and the public in and to any land or interest therein acquired for road or street purposes, the said road or street; and
WHEREAS the Chairman of this Board has heretofore given due and proper notice of this hearing, as provided by Section 336.10 of Florida Statutes, as amended, proof of publication of said notice having been duly inspected and found regular in all respects; and
WHEREAS the Board, after hearing all interested parties has determined that the proposed action in the closing of said road or street will not materially interfere with the County road system and will not deprive any person of reasonable means of ingress and egress to his premises from at least one County, State or Federal Highway.
NOW, THEREFORE be it resolved by the Board of County Commissioners of Highlands County, Florida, in regular session, that the following portion of road or street located in Highlands County, Florida, described as follows:
That portion of Atlantic Avenue as shown on plat of Glenada Hills Subdivision, recorded in Flat Book 2 page 101, public records of Highlands County, Florida, bounded on the east by Lots 47 to 76, both inclusive, Block 10, said subdivision, and the land owned by a triangular tract of land marked 'Park' as shown on said plat, extending from the southern tip of said 'park' to the northern tip thereof where it intersects with Scenic Highlands Avenue, extended as shown on the attached photostatic copy of said subdivision. The same is hereby vacated, abandoned, discontinued and closed.
IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED that the County of Highlands and State of Florida does hereby renounce and disclaim any interest of the County and the public in and to the land embraced in the above described portion of road or street and to the extent that the County and the public may have had therein, and declares the right of the County and the public to use the same.
IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED that the County of Highlands and State of Florida does hereby renounce and disclaim any right of the County and the public in and to any land delineated on any recorded map or plat embraced in the above described premises, said especially that plat described as Glenada Hills Subdivision recorded in Plat Book 2 page 101 public records of Highlands County, Florida.
ADOPTED at Sebring, Highlands County, Florida, this the 18th day of February, A.D. 1958.

The Charter Day Luncheon, observing the fourth anniversary of the chartering of Patriots Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held on Monday, March 3, in the Dining Room of the Jacaranda Hotel at 12:30 o'clock.

Two outstanding members of the Society will be the guest speakers at this meeting of Patriots Chapter. They are Miss Vora M. Smith of St. Petersburg, who is District Director of No. 7 of the Florida State Society and a member of the State Resolutions Committee; and Mrs. Willard Lisler of Morgantown, W. Va., a past National Chairman and a Reporter General to the Smithsonian Institute of the National D.A.R. Society.

It was in 1954 that the thirteen charter members met wih Mrs. R. A. Johnson, Organizing Regent, and organized Patriots Chapter for the women of Highlands County. The Chapter now has fifty members from Avon Park, Sebring, DeSoto City, Ft. Meade, and Ft. Bassinger. Mrs. G. H. Burnette of Sebring was Regent following Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Walter H. Mather is the present Regent.

Patriots Chapter feels pride in their accomplishments during these past four years. They have actively supported the policies of the State Society and the National Society. On a local level the Chapter has given D.A.R. medals in the school of the county, sponsored a history essay contest in the local high schools, and encouraged the study of American History as a means of education for better government. Each year Patriots Chapter has donated some outstanding work in American History to each library, public and school, in Highlands County.

Reservations for members and their guests to the luncheon should be made to Mrs. Clyde Swihart at Highlands Lakes in Avon Park before Thursday, Feb. 27.

Girl Scout News

The Avon Park Girl Scouts have entered a model of a Girl Scout Camp complete with tiny scouts and leaders in the Scout display at the Highlands County Fair and wish to remind all their friends to be sure and see it.

Individual scouts from the troop have also entered a number of displays. The leaders are very proud of the hard work the girls have done and of the entries which are the first from an Avon Park Girl Scout troop.

At their meeting on Thursday, Feb. 20, nineteen Scouts made cookies with Miss Faye Gordon in the Florida Power Customer's Room. After this informative afternoon Miss Gordon served hot chocolate to go with the cookies. Mrs. Durrah Martin accompanied the girls and Sally Nute and Connie Booth assisted also.

The remaining sixteen Scouts and their leaders, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Booth, helped finished the and cookie containers the girls were making. They also mounted the displays for the fair on cardboard and covered them with cellephane.

SCHOOLS REPRESENTED AT THE FAIR—Splendid exhibits of all Highlands County schools, white and Negro, fill almost one-half of one of the buildings at the Fair this year. There are exhibits placed by students and their teachers in such varied fields as vocational education, fine arts, industrial studies, the language arts, the work of future farmers and future homemakers, physical education and health, science and mathematics of the "atomic age". It is one exhibit at the Fair that all parents should see.

Touchton Drug Presents The New Fabulous Alo-Creme Cosmetics

The Aloe Creme Laboratories Inc. of Fort Lauderdale are introducing the most important cosmetic discovery in twenty years, the new Alo-creme. The complete line of Alo-creme products are being presented for the first time in this section by Touchton Drug Company.

Alo-Creme products are manufactured in Florida from the Aloe Vera plant which is a tropical plant related to the lily family and one of the oldest healing and beautifying plants known to man. The Aloe Vera plant is grown only in the tropics. In this country the Aloe Vera plant is cultivated only in Florida. Aloe Creme Laboratories, Inc. control large plantations of the Aloe Vera plant.

The Aloe Vera gel is found exclusively in all Alo-Creme cosmetics, and is a gelatin-like substance extracted from the heart of the Aloe Vera leaf. Aloe Vera gel in its raw state has been used since Biblical times as a healer of tissue and as a beautifier of the skin. In fact Aloe Vera is praised some 14 times in the Bible. In Biblical days it was so expensive it was used exclusively by royalty. But today, after years of research by Aloe Creme Laboratories, Inc. to stabilize and formulate it into preparations suited to the needs of modern woman, it is within the reach of all those who desire to restore nature's beauty balance.

Alo-Creme products are specially formulated for the particular skin textures of the various parts of the body for which the products are intended. Each product contains a rich concentrate of the priceless Aloe Vera gel and is recommended for both dry and oily skin.

Visit Touchton's Drug Store and let them explain to you what the Alo-Creme preparations will do for your skin.

Rebekahs Hold Regular Meeting

The Eleanor Seavern Rebekah Lodge 65 had their regular meeting in the Brickall Hall on Monday night, Feb. 17, at 8 o'clock with Mary Field, Noble Grand, presiding.

The members were saddened by the sudden death of one of their sisters, Mrs. Norma Carlisle, who was Rebekah Flag Bearer. In her memory the Charter will be draped for thirty days and a resolution will be read at the next meeting.

District Deputy President Martha Fitzsimmons and Effie Foster of Sebring were present at the meeting.

Delicious cookies and coffee were served during the social hour.

Cancer Program At Jr. Woman's Club

Miss Nell Richardson, Cancer Society Representative for this District, will be the guest speaker at the meeting of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club on Tuesday, March 4, at 8 o'clock, in the Women's Club Building.

Dr. H. W. Coleman will also be present for the program to help in the discussion and answer questions that may arise. Miss Richardson will show the new film "Time and Two Women" which is new in this filed and should be seen by everyone.

Plans for the Club booth at the Grand Prix Races in Sebring will be discussed during the meeting as well as other important business. Miss Bonnie Beth Wimpee, Girl Scout National Committeewoman, will also speak to the Club about Scout Work. A report from the Nominating Committee will be given.

Refreshments will be served by the hostesses.

Luncheon Honors Texas Visitor

Mrs. Clara W. Rodehaver of El Paso, Texas, was honored with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Charles Shepherd on Lake Byrd on Monday, Feb. 24.

Mrs. Rodehaver is the sister of Miss Myrtle Wilson and Dr. Ruth Phillips and have been visiting them for the past several weeks. She plans to return to her home in El Paso next week.

Enjoying the lovely luncheon were Josephine Stearns, Miss Mattie Wilkinson, Mrs. Henriette Nebel, Dr. Ruth Phillips, Miss Myrtle Wilson and Mrs. Louise Butler.

Lenten Luncheon

The ladies of St. Margaret's Altar Guild will serve a Lenten Luncheon in the Parish House of the Church of the Redeemer on North Verona Avenue on Wednesday, March 5, at 12:30.

Tickets for the luncheon will be available to the public. The members of the guild will have tickets. Make your reservations early for the Lenten Luncheon.

Farewell Party For Rose Adams

Rose Adams was honored with a farewell party at the home of Karen Kirkland on Saturday night, Feb. 22.

A number of Rose's friends gathered at the Kirkland home to wish her well before she left for stanford, Conn. The boys and girls presented Rose with a bracelet with her name engraved on the front and their names upon the links to remember Avon Park by.

Karen served the guests sandwiches, cookies and cokes during an evening of games and fun.

Guests were Margaret Wendt, Donna Faye Wiggins, Pat Sasser, Lois Ann Thompson, Jimmie Miller, David Johnson, Toni Phillips, Lucky Wells, Bill Johnson, Danny Vaughn, Mackey Jenkins and Wallace Kirkland.

Senior Women To Hold 3 Meetings

There will be an Executive Board meeting of the Senior Woman's Club in the Clubhouse on Thursday morning, March 6, at 10 o'clock and all members of the Board are urged to be present.

Immediately following this meeting there will be a meeting of the Committee for the Card Party which is to be held on March 17 in the evening by the Senior Club.

The March meeting of the Avon Park Senior Woman's Club will be held in the Clubhouse on Friday, March 7, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Shepherd, Program Chairman for the Meeting, will present Miss Carol Beck, of Highlands Hammock State Park, who will speak on Conservation.

All members are asked to bring wrapped gifts to this meeting. The gifts are to be used as prizes at the Card Party on March 17.

SPEEDY SPICE CAKE

Freshly baked cake and glasses of cold milk are a time-honored snack for after-school appetites. Speedy Spice Cake will be a welcome treat.

"What can we eat, Mom?" is a phrase that's been heard as long as children have been coming home from school. When you have several youngsters, it's no small job keeping up with their appetites.

Try them out on Speedy Spice Cake. It's a very compatible partner for milk. Spread it with frosting flavored with brown sugar, and decorate each piece simply but invitingly with a whole pecan.

The cake goes together by the quick-mix method, so it is easy to make. Self-rising flour is a special ingredient in Speedy Spice Cake. Baking powder and salt are already in the flour, and provide the "self-rising" quality. This saves time, so learn to use self-rising flour in all your recipes that call for baking powder. Just omit the baking powder and salt when you're measuring ingredients.

SPEEDY SPICE CAKE

1¾ cups sifted enriched self-rising flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon allspice
½ cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup milk
2 eggs
Frosting

Sift together flour, cinnamon and allspice. Add shortening, brown sugar and ¾ cup milk. Mix to blend, then beat 2 minutes at medium speed on electric mixer or 300 strokes by hand. Add remaining milk and eggs and beat 2 more minutes or 300 strokes by hand. Turn into greased 9-inch square pan. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) about 50 minutes. Cool and frost. Makes 1 9-inch cake.

Frosting

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
⅓ cup brown sugar
¼ cup milk
2½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar (about)

Combine butter or margarine, brown sugar and milk in saucepan. Bring to boiling and cook 1 minute, stirring several times. Cool slightly. Add confectioners' sugar gradually, beating until smooth and of spreading consistency.

CRANES

By The Bird Woman

The question is often asked why so much ado about the whooping crane, and the lamenting about it becoming extinct, when so many of them can be found in various locations in Florida!

This statement is erroneous, for like the hawks and numerous other birds there are different species, and the real white whooper that is refered to, is not the one that may be seen in Florida, but even belongs to a different order.

Cranes, Rails and allies belong to the order guieformes, the crane family is family gruidae, the sand hill cranes which are in Florida and down the eastern side of the country to Cuba, belong to the family, Crus Canadenses while the rapidly vanishing specie, the Whooper, belongs to family Grus Americanan.

So we see that although they are related as cranes, they belong to different families. The fact that we are a human being does not necessarily mean that we belong to the family next door. So we have two cranes that are separate and distinct.

We will first consider the one nearest home, the sand hill crane. In the first place it is not white as the whooper, but is gray with touches of brown and has the red crown, it is not as large as the whooper it's average length being forty five inches.

This crane formerly abounded from Alaska to Florida, but it has fallen victim to the encroachment of civilization and greed, in the same way as so many of our birds and wild life.

The sand hill crane does not migrate as does the whooper, and the seeming last stand of this unusual bird seems to be in parts of Florida, and even though it is protected by law, does not increase in numbers as bird lovers would like to have it do.

Some times we think it is amazing that birds hold their own as well as they do, when we consider how many enemies that are standing by to devour the eggs, or the young as soon as they are hached, and if by chance the full nest is reared, along comes a man or boy with a gun in one second does away with what it has taken the parents months to rear and bring to maturity.

We know that there are stringent laws on our statute books, but the problem is to get enforcement. We know that there is a state law that a youth under sixteen must not have a gun even a B. B. in his possession without an adult with him and the parents are responsible for any infringment. But we find boys roaming about the premises of people who feed and care for birds, and trying to shoot them and very often succeeding.

The whole problem comes back to the home training of children, when the parents buy guns and put them into the hands of their children and allow them to go out and hunt birds what else can one expect We are heartily in favor of putting more teeth into these laws so that one offense would not only be a lesson to the child but to the thoughtless parent.

We are quite sure that there are no parents in this city that cannot read, and the "use of gun law," has been printed a number of times in the local paper and in this column and has been discused on various occassions, to we cannot think that it is through ignorance that these things are taking place, yet we stand back in horror when this same child that we have encouraged to committee an infringement on one law, decides he can get away with most any other crime, and tries something more daring.

Lets start on law enforcement where it should begin-in the home.

We are told that these sand hill cranes make excellent pets and will keep the place free of snakes and rodents, and will act as a watch dog to locate rattle snakes, and will make their presence known by their whooping call.

These large birds nest near a stream of hammock, and the nest is of rushes, reeds, grass and other waste material, in some areas where "flags" are abundant they will pull up almost an entire colony of flags and pile them up into a nest.

A nest usually contains two eggs and the young are a brindled color for safety reasons.

CRANES 2

they usually nest from the middle of February to the middle of March.

This crane is a very helpful bird as it's food consists of, beetles, spiders, grubs, grasshoppers, flies, small snakes, lizards, ants, frogs and many other small insects.

It has been reported that there is quite a colony of these cranes west of Davenport in a swampy area that seems suited to their needs. Then there are still colonies north and west of Okeechobee and along the east coast.

Although in times past these birds have been killed for food, now they are protected by federal law as well as our state laws so we may hope that one of their worst enemies, man, will be eliminated from their danger list.

Next week we hope to write about the White Whooper Crane.

State Prison at Raiford for a familiarization course in classification proceedure. Upon his return he took over the duties of Supervisor of Records. He is presently undertaking correspondence courses from the Unipersity of Florida in order to obtain his degree in "Corrections".

Booth is presently gaining experience in classification and reclassification work and will be ready for the title of Classification and Assignment Supervisor when he gets his B. S. The position of Classification Supervisor calls for a varied knowledge in that in addition to playing a major part in determining how the inmate will spent his time during the incarceration period the Supervisor must also make our reclassification reports giving a complete rundown on the inmate's progress, attitudes, rate of rehabilitation, family status, etc. These reports are one of the basic factors in deciding when and if an individual will make parole.

When asked how he felt about his new assignment, Booth proclaimed that he was extremely pleased with the promotion and that he is content in the knowledge that he is being of help to many individual in their efforts to rectify mis takes and make of themselves, useful citizens of society.

IT IS UNLAWFUL FOR ANY PERSON OR

PERSONS TO ENGAGE IN BUSINESS

UNDER A FICTITIOUS NAME UNLESS THE

NAME IS REGISTERED

The fictitious name statute was recently changed by the 1951 Legislature and the Sun has the necessary forms for proper registration and advertising.

The charge for advertising the notice the necessary four times is $7.

As amended by the 1951 session, the law reads as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, as defined herein, to engage in business as herein defined, under a fictitious name as herein defined, without and unless said fictitious name shall be registered with the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the principal place of business is, which registration shall consist of filing with the clerk aforesaid an affidavit signed by all interested persons, stating under oath the names of all those interested in the business enterprise, the extent of the interest of each, and the fictitious name under which said business is carried on. Said registration may not be made until the person or persons desiring to engage in business under a fictitious name shall have advertised his or their intention to register said fictitious name at least once a week for four (4) consecutive weeks in some newspaper as defined by law in the county where said registration is to be made, and said registration shall not be accepted by the clerk of the circuit court except upon receiving proof of such publication."

Fla. Power's Annual Reports Show States Growth And Progress

The continued growth and progress of Florida and this area are reflected in the 1957 annual report of Florida Power Corporation, according to G. F. Woodham manager here for the utility.

The report, which was released to stockholders this week, states that the utility has been adding customers at the rate of 1,800 per month during 1957 to bring the total to 226,524 in the 31-county area served by the FPC.

To better serve this growing State, the utility last year spent $34,626,654 on new construction and expansion and this year plans to spend an additional $33,000,000. New construction includes a new 121,000 kilowatt plant in St. Petersburg already under construction and scheduled for completion in September, 1958, and a 75,000 kilowatt addition to the-George E. Turner plant at Enterprise in Central Florida, planned for a 1959 completion date. At present the total Florida Power Corporation generating capability is 572,000 kilowatts.

Spotlighting the growth of the company and the state, the report gives comparison figures for "Ten Years of Progress." Average number of customers increased 151 per cent over ten years ago. Sales to these customers totaled 2,204,718,664 kilowatt hours, an increase of 229 percent over 1947. Annaul average kilowatt hour use per residential customer rose to 3,471 kwh for a 104 per cent increase over the 1,700 used in 1947.

Biggest 10-year increase of all items in the report was in federal, state and local taxes. Last year the company paid a $11,510,454 tax bill, a 720 per cent increase over 1947 when the utility's taxes were $1,403,624.

Operating revenue in 1957 was $51,794,769, an increase of 325 per cent over the 1947 revenue of $12,188,997. Earnings on common stock for the year were $2.93 per share.

acterization, an interesting and suspenseful plot, and intelligent dialog. The humor, so expertly supplied by Newt Cooper (played to perfection by Tom Bass) and by the saucy Amelia will delight the audience. At the same time the unusual characters of Celeste and Jules (an octroon with super natural powers and a Haitian Negro, an ignorant, murderous animal, who is abjectly loyal to "Massa Hah'ly) will hold the spectators like a magnetic force. Finding out "who done it" will challenge the keenest analytical mind.

The well chosen cast seems destined to present a play that will come alive for the audience, a production that will achieve that intangible quality of believability which will carry the audience along on the tide of drama.

Bobbie Sue Elder is playing the part of Celeste; Linda Kinyon, the housekeeper who seems ready to break under the terror; Sandra Kelsey and Sandra Porter, Paula and Amelia, who are attractive girls of contrasting types; Hazel O'Connor, the determined Mrs. Gillette; Herman Fentress, the surly and menacing Haitian Negro; Chuck Metcalfe, Dr. Cameron, a famous nerve specialist; Tom Bass, the sheriff who unintentionally provides the play with plenty of laughs; Jewellene Newsome, the gushing Eugenia; and Marvin Willis will do a super job as Mr. Harley, the leading character.

The audience, alternately roaring and scared breathless will get more than its money's worth from seeing this play, which will be presented in the High School Auditorium Friday Night, March 7, at 8 o'clock.

Applications For License Being Mailed Now

Applications for license renewal of all Highlands County public lodging and food serving businesses are now being mailed, according to State Hotel and Restaurant Commissioner Richard Edgerton.

Expiration date of existing licenses is February 28. Edgerton said that all hotels, motels, apartment houses, restaurants, lunch counters, etc. are subject to licensing by the Hotel and Restaurant Commission.

Businesses of this nature are supposed to be licensed yearly by the Commission and owners and operators should apply for the 1958 license whether they receive an application for renewal or not. Lodging and food establishments cannot legally operate in Florida without a license from the Commission.

Edgerton stressed that this license should not be confused with the city or county occupational license.

Persons having any questions concerning their 1958 licenses are asked to contact Mr. Michael J. O'Brien, area supervisor, 609 Times Bldg., St. Petersburg.

Last Rites Held Thursday For Earl W. Thomas

Earl W. Thomas, 75, passed away at Walker Memorial Hospital on Tuesday, February 18, after a long illness. Mr. Thomas was a native of Glen Caren, Ontario, Canada. He came to Avon Park from Midland, Michigan six years ago.

He was a member of the Baptist Church and the Winter Guest Club of Avon Park.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Flora Thomas, Avon Park; and one son, Morris A. Thomas of Saginaw, Mich.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, February 20, at the First Baptist Church with The Rev. Aden Childress officiating. Interment in the Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Charles Fentzermaker, Tony Kerr, Fred Ford, Jack Richmond, Art Jordan and John Ramsey.

Mizelle Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Charles C. Heath New Associate For Cove Realty

The Cove Realty, developer of River Ridge Ranches, is happy to announce that Charles C. Heath of Wauchula has joined their firm as an associate.

Mr. Heath was born in Fort Meade, and attended schools there. Upon graduating, Mr. Heath volunteered his services and served in the United States Navy until 1946. In 1949 he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Florida Southern College in Lakeland.

Mr. Heath will be available to handle general real estate but will specialize in groves and acreage.

The first Marine Helicopter Squadron was commissioned at Quantico, Va., in December 1947.

HIGHLANDS COUNTY SWEETHEART: Colleen Hey was crowned Queen of the Highlands County Fair in a ceremony Saturday night preceding the closing of the fair. Miss Hey, 16, is the daughter of Postmaster and Mrs. John Hey of Lake Placid, and is a junior at the Lake Placid High School. She was one of the five finalists picked from the 41 beautifully gowned contestants on the opening night of the annual fair. Her attendants, the other finalists, were Peggy Derrance of Lake Placid, Sammie Wright of Avon Park, Carolyn McGee of Sebring and Barbara Cooper of Sebring. The crowning rite was performed by Mrs. Robert Hendrick, the former Virginia Foster of Sebring, last year's queen. Judges who selected the five finalists on Monday night were Doon Casanova, New York City; Charles Maxwell, Philadelphia, and Lou Carter, Boston.

Highlands County Fair Closes After Week Of Special Events

The 32nd Highlands County Fair came to a close Saturday night after a week of special events.

On Tuesday the judges made their rounds to select the Fair Queen. This is the seventh year in a row that Lake Placid has taken this honor, and first prize money of $25, for the queen's throne, went to Lake Placid. Second prize went to the Avon Park booth. A white ribbon and $15 was awarded the Lorida booth.

The educational exhibits were one of the main attractions of the fair-goers and housed many fine displays. Splendid exhibits of all Highlands crafts, white and Negro, filled almost one-half of the buildings. Sheriff Broward Culpepper's exhibit showing photographs of accidents emphasized the highway traffic toll and was one of the most expensive exhibits of the

Cub Scouts Receive Awards At Annual Blue And Gold Banquet

Blue and gold were the colors used for the attractive decorations at the Annual Cub Scout Blue and Gold Banquet on Thursday evening, Feb. 27, in the Avon Elementary Cafeteria, with a large number of Cubs, parents, and their friends present.

Each Den did a wonderful and original job of decorating the table lead by their Den Mother guests. Den 1 used blue and gold paper along the table with a centerpiece of the American and Scout flags. The boys had made favors for each person out of matchboxes covered in blue with pop-up Cub symbols inside. Den 2 used a centerpiece showing the steps of building a fire with the use of a match. Favors were Smokey Cubs holding matches. Den 3 had a clowns at play. Favors were

Commissioners Request Right-Away Deeds On Palmetto And Central

The Board of County Commissioners voted at their regular meeting Tuesday morning to instruct the County Attorney to obtain deeds for right-away on Palmetto Street and Central Avenue in Avon Park from the State Road Department. As soon as these deeds are received they are to be turned over to Mayor E. A. DeLaney for execution.

All cities in Highlands County will be notified that the Board agreed that all streets in future subdivisions even within city limits must be a minimum of 50 feet, this to be effective immediately.

Units 38, 39 and 40 of the Avon Park Lakes Developpond were approved by the Commissioners subject to the approval of the Clerk, County Attorney and R. E. Miller. The Better Home Sub. was approved by the Board subject to the same conditions.

The Lake Placid Clearing and Construction Company was the only one that submitted a bid on the moving of the earth south of Lake Jackson. The Board tabled the bid for further study.

Deane's bid on a duplicating machine was accepted by the Commissioners as the lowest bidder that filled all specifications.

Audit reports on the Tax Assessor, Sheriff and former County Judge were accepted and filed by the Board.

A petition for a road in sections 21 and 27, township 33, range 28, (east of Avon Park) was accepted and a resolution was adopted establishing said road.

The Board voted to table Dr. Hill's request for additional money for dental care in connection with State Board of Health.

Winners In Dress Revue At HC Fair

The second annual Dress Revue to be held in the Highlands County Fair on Thursday night, February 27, was quite a success. The Home Economic and 4-H Club girls throughout the County modeled skirts and blouses, school dresses, best dresses, suits, pants and evening dresses. The girls are certainly to be commended on the 46 entries of outstanding garments which showed much time, effort and ability of fine workmanship.

Besides the $4.00 cash prize blue ribbon winners were also presented a pair of plastic aprons from Peak's Department Store in Sebring and the Singer Sewing Center of Lakeland.

2 Appointed To 4 Yr. Terms On ARPA Council

Hugh Lalor and Dr. Paul Jarrett, Miami businessman and physician respectively, have been appointed by Gov. Leroy Collins to four-year terms on the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program's Advisory Council.

Lalor's appointment continues him in the chairmanship of the Council, a position he has occupied since the Program's inception in 1953.

Dr. Jarrett assumes the place of M. R. Clements, M. D., Tallahassee, whose term had expired.

Florida's alcoholic rehabilitation provides for the appointment by the Governor of a five member council to work with the Cabinet and the Program's administrator in helping develop policies and procedures designed to combat alcoholism in the state.

The statute states, further, that one council member must be a hospital administrator, another, a medical doctor, and three shall be representatives

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE—$4.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Not Logical

The postal deficit will continue to run into many hundreds of millions of dollars a year unless postive corrective steps are taken. Two solutions are commonly proposed. One is for increase in letter postage. The other is a revolution in the mechanics and techniques of mail and package handling, through automation. This has been done in some European countries, with notable success in improving service and reducing costs.

It may well be that the final solution will require both these steps—more automation and higher rates. But it is an unfortunate fact that practically all of the attention seems to be given to the mail categories—first, second and third class. Little attention is being given to the fourth class category, which is parcel post.

This is simply not logical, and for two reasons. One, parcel post does not pay its own way, and so makes a substantial contribution to the postoffice's taxpayer-borne annual deficits. Second, parcel post is not a basic postoffice function. It does not contribute to public entertainment, education or enlightenment, as does the carrying of mail, newspapers and magazines. It is, instead, a purely commercial function, operating in direct competition with private, taxpaying carriers of packages and freight. Long before parcel post was heard of these carriers did the job in efficient fashion. If parcel post was abolished tomorrow they'd pick up the load.

So, in considering postal reforms, every activity of the department should be considered and evalued—parcel post included.

Medical Education Week

It's often said that this country has gone overboard on "weeks" and "days" designed to call public attention to some institution or cause.

There are 86 approved medical schools in this country, and they constitute the foundation of our entire health and medical structure. Their primary job is to train able new doctors in increasing numbers. But, in addition, these schools carry on a wide range of other activities in the fields of teaching, research, service and leadership. Our fund of medical knowledge constantly grows, as does the complexity of our civilization. The work of the medical schools is all-important in pushing back the horizons of the medical sciences.

The financial phase of medical education is an important one. During the 1956-57 school year, there were slightly more than 29,000 students enrolled in the 85 schools. The cost of operating the schools in that same year was more than $300 million. Only a small part of the schools' operating budgets come from student tuition, which simply means they must look elsewhere for needed funds. Much support has come from two organizations—the American Medical Education Foundation, which is supported by physicians and medical organizations, and the National Fund for Medical Education, which draws its funds from industry and the Ford Foundation.

This is but a small part of the medical school story. We will have an opportunity to learn the whole story when April 20 rolls around, and the Medical Education Week begins.

Bertha Kelley Installed As Vice Noble Grand

The Eleanor Seaverns Lodge Number 65 of the Rebekahs held their regular meeting on Monday night, March 3.

Mrs. Martha Fitzsimmons, District Deputy President, of Sebring installed Bertha Kelley, as vice Noble Grand. Mary Fields, Noble Grand, presided over the meeting and announced that Mary Smedley and Helen Mann would be representatives to the Assembly in Clearwater in May.

Effie Foster of Sebring, Ortha Oldham of Indianapolis, and Corrines Barnes of Pullman, Mich., were out of town guests at the meeting. Refreshments were served to the members by Orhpa Oldman.

Brownie Scout Troop News

The Brownie Scouts of Troop 3 and their leader, Mrs. Roy Felknor and Mrs. Jeff Barrow, hiked from their meeting place in Woodruff heights on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 25, to Donaldson Park.

There the girls enjoyed a playtime in the sun on the playground. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Simpson at Phillips Store.

The Brownie Scouts of Troop 4 were taken on a complete tour of the New Telephone Office by Andrew Cushari, Service Manager. He very graciously and understandably explained how calls were treated from the time the receiver was picked up in the home until it was completed.

The Brownies were fascinated by the numerous lights flowing on the switchboards and the millions of wires used in the work. Mrs. Fred Davis and Mrs. J. M. Anderson who accompanied the girls wish to thank Mr. Cuchari for his time and patience in showing the troop the office.

Then the Brownies went to Donaldson Park where Mrs. John Hutchinson served popsicles after they played for a while. Mrs. J. M. Anderson, Mrs. James Chestnutt and Mrs. Franklyn Ward drove the girls to the telephone office.

The Brownies of Troop 4 will elect new patrol leaders at their next meeting on Saturday morning, March 8, and Mrs. Davis, their leaders, asks all girls to be present if possible.

Girl Scout Week

The Girl Scout week starts on Sunday before the Girl Scout birthday March 12. The Birthday of the first Girl Scout Troop is so important that we celebrate the whole week the the birthday comes instead of just the one day the birthday comes.

Brownie Scouts go to church or synagogue in uniform with their family or with the Troop of Girl Scouts Sunday.

The celebration for the Girl Scout Birthday is held at the Troop meeting that week. Scouts try especially hard every day that week to help their family at home.

Walker Memorial Hospital News

Mr. Charles Thomas, instructor in techniques at the School of Physical Therapy of the College of Medical Evangelists, Loma Linda California, spoke to the members of the staff and friends at Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital, Thursday evening, February 28.

Mr. Thomas, accompanied by Mr. William Price, a member of the physical therapy staff of the White Memorial Hospital, Los Angeles, California, is making a 13,000 mile tour of the United States in the interest of directing young people toward a profession in physical therapy. He will visit the 72 senior academies and some of the junior academies, 14 senior and junior colleges, 14 sanitariums and hospitals operated by Seventh-day Adventists in the United States. While in the east arrangements have been made for him to lecture at the Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

The tour is sponsored by a prominent business man and manufacturer of Los Angeles who has personally seen the great benefit to be received from the physical therapy branch of medicine in treatments he had from Mr. Thomas. Another business man has approached him concerning the possibility of his making a world tour in the interest of physical therapy.

The College of Medical Evangelists, a medical center operated by Adventists, has a strong department of physical medicine, Mr. Thomas has been with the college for the past six years. In addition to the school of physical therapy, the college operates a medical school, dental school, a school of tropical medicine, nursing, x-ray, clinical laboratory, and dental hygiene. In the near future a school for the training of occupational therapists will be added, thus making the college a complete rehabilitation center.

Mr. Thomas told his listeners of the hundreds of openings and the urgent need of physical therapy technicians both in our own country and abroad.

Realizing the benefits of physical medicine in the treatment and prevention of disease, Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital has from its founding made provision for this branch of medicine. More recently, two solaria (for ladies and men) have been constructed and equipped. These units make provision for sunbathing, swimming and general purpose exercises.

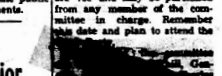

Rehabilitation equipment includes an exerow for general, active, progressive muscle exercise and building, a treadmill for walking exercises and strengthning of lower extremities, a bicycle exerciser for lower extremity joints and muscles (having controlled resistance and milage indicator), chest pully weights, shoulder wheel and medicine balls for special treatments.

These facilities are under the supervision of Martin E. Bischoff, R. N., RPPT, head of the physical therapy department, and are available to the public with proper arrangements.

Fifty Attend Patriot Chapters Charter Day Luncheon At Hotel

Fifty members and their guests of Patriot's Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution enjoyed a luncheon at the Sebring Hotel observing the 67th anniversary of the chartering of the chapter on Monday, March 3.

The tables were decorated with white chrysanthemums and small American flags were placed at each plate. The meeting was opened with the pledge of allegiance to the flag and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

Miss Vera M. Smith of St. Petersburg who is District Director of District 7 and a member of the State Resolutions Board gave the main address. Her topic was "My Country and Christianity". The importance of the Christian religion to our country and the values of the Christian teachings were stressed in her talk.

Orchids were presented by the chapter to Miss Smith and another visitor, Mrs. Crittchton of Frostproof who is District 9 Director. Guests who are members of other D. A. R. Chapters were Mrs. Hunnicut of Newport News, Va., and Mrs. E. C. Dillion of Champaign, Ill.

Mrs. Walter Mather, Regent, announced the names of the winners of the History Awards which will be presented in the schools of Lake Placid, Sebring, and Avon Park in June.

The next meeting of Patriots Chapter will be at Manwood the home of Mrs. D. S. Mandis on Monday, April 7.

The Pearl Todd Circle held its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, Feb. 27, at the home of Mrs. George Lewis with nine members and one visitor present.

At this gathering the Secret Pals exchange gifts. The Secret Pals draw names once a year and then the members send cards, etc., to the members whose name they have without letting the person find out who they are.

The Bible Study Lesson was John 16 which was taught by Mrs. H. L. McCully.

After the business meeting and the Bible Study the group enjoyed a social hour with refreshments served by the hostess.

The Adult Department of the Sunday School enjoyed a Covered Dish Supper in the Social Hall on Friday night, Feb. 28.

After the supper each class conducted its monthly business meeting. Mrs. W. D. Fletcher is Department Superintendent of the Sunday School. A pleasant evening of fellowship followed the business meeting.

The 13 and 14 Years Intermediate Union attended the Highlands County Fair on Saturday afternoon, March 1, with their teachers, Mrs. Lawrence Johns. A good trip was had by all and the afternoon a large success.

The Women's Mission Society has been observing a Week of Prayer for Home Missions during the week of March 3 thru March 7. There is a program and prayer each morning at 9:30 until 10:30 in the church.

Revival Services are in progress at the Florida Avenue Church and will continue each evening at 7:30 through March 9. The Rev. J. M. Gilbreath is the Evangelist and J. W. Porter is the Song Leader.

Congregational Church News

The Evening Circle met Monday, Feb. 24, at the home of Mrs. Maidwyn Parry on Lake Byrd with Mrs. Cecil Skipper serving a co-hostess.

Mrs. Artin King presided at the business meeting during which the policies for the nursery during the morning church service were discussed. Saturday morning, March 1, was decided upon as a work day in the nursery in the Parish House with a number of members participating.

There were fourteen members and Mrs. Leona Fuller was welcomed as a new member at the meeting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses during the social hour.

Sixty-three winter guests at the Church have had their pictures taken and the Rev. Herbert Greaves has sent these and a letter to their home churches in the north since this idea was adopted.

The Ladies Aid will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 12, with a Covered Dish Luncheon in the Parish House at noon. All women of the church and winter guests are invited to attend this meeting.

The Annual Fish Fry will be held on the evening of Thursday, March 27, at Lake Byrd Lodge. All the fishermen of the church are contributing fish generously for this delicious supper.

First Christian Church News

A new Youth Sunday School Class for high school ages were started on Sunday, March 2, during the Sunday School Hour with Mrs. B. M. Davis teaching the class.

In several weeks a contest start between all the Christian Churches in Florida that are now to see which church has the better Sunday School attendance.

On Easter Sunday the church will start a Sunday School Class for the Young Married Age Group. Plans are in the making for this unit now.

Menus Featuring Florida Seafoods

Breakfast

Florida Orange Juice, Florida Smoked Fish with Scrambled Eggs, Wholewheat Toast, Florida Guava Jelly, Beverage.

Florida Smoked Fish with Scrambled Eggs - 4 Eggs, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter, Pepper, ⅛ cup milk (heated), ¾ cup Smoked flaked Florida Fish.

Beat eggs, pour hot milk over them and cook slowly stirring constantly. Add seasoning and fish and finish cooking.

Lunch

Florida Clam Juice Cocktail, Tomato aspic with Florida Shrimp and Cottage Cheese, Crisp Florida celery and Carrot sticks, Assorted Crackers, Vanilla Ice Cream, Cookies, Beverage.

Tomato Aspic with Florida Shrimp - 1 pkg. lemon dessert gelatine, 1 tsp. salt, 1/8 tsp. ground cloves, ¼ tsp. paprika, 12/3 cup strained tomato juice, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, ¾ tsp. onion juice, ¼ cup vinegar.

1. Heat tomato juice to boiling point.
2. Pour over gelatine and stir until entirely dissolved.
3. Add seasonings and vinegar.
4. Pour into a mould and chill until firm.

Shrimp is added when aspic has congealed slightly and then pour into mould. When ready to serve turn Aspic out of mould and fill ring with Cottage Cheese and Chopped Chives - decorated with baked grunot and rosettes of boiled shrimp, Mayonnaise.

Dinner

½ Florida Grapefruit Broiled Fried Florida Mullet, Peas and Carrots, Hush Puppies, Florida Heart of Palm Salad, Jellied Fruit Compote, Coffee.

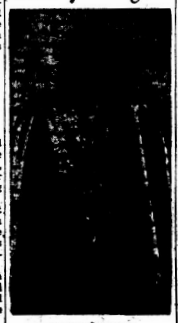

2 lbs. mullet fillets, 1 tablespoon salt, Dash pepper, 1 egg, 1 tbsp. milk or water, 1 cup cornmeal.

Cut fish into serving-size portions. Sprinkle both sides with salt and pepper. Beat egg slightly and blend in the milk. Dip the fish in the egg and roll in cornmeal. Use a deep kettle with a frying basket with enough fat to cover the fish, but do not have the kettle more than half full of fat. Heat the fat to 370 deg. F. Place a layer of fish in the frying basket and cook to an even golden brown, about 3 to 5 minutes. Raise basket, remove fish, and drain on absorbent paper. Serve 8. Hushpuppies may be placed in basket and fried in same fat.

Florida Heart of Palm Salad - The choice Heart of Palm is really only the best or heart of a Sabal (cabbage) palm and has long been a favorite food of Florida natives who call it Swamp Cabbage. Some small town stores and markets in the cities offer it for sale. If you are energetic, you may cut your own. This way you will be sure of fresh, crisp heart. Select a palm (with owner's permission) about 12 to 15 feet high. Chop below the last green fronds, pull off the boots as you chop and if you are lucky, you'll hit the heart at the right spot. Cut through three or four layers of "boots" then, with experience, you will find the tender, delicious, nutty heart. To prepare for the table, cut into serving pieces, sprinkle with lime juice (to prevent darkening), chill and serve with mayonnaise. Decorate with pimento and green pepper. Man, that's good with fish and hushpuppies. Take along a Florida Cracker (human kind) when you go out on your first swamp cabbage expedition. He'll show you how to find this delicacy and if you invite him to dinner, he'll show you how to eat Florida fare with a native flourish.

Sunday morning during the month of March will be broadcast by Radio Station WAVP.

Midgets Share Billing At Armory Tonight

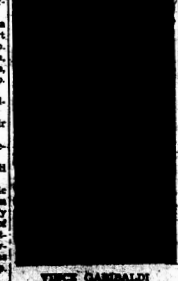

LORD HANDLE

A heavyweight match and a midget's match share billing on Cowboy Luttrall's weekly wrestling card at the Avon Park National Guard Armory Thursday night.

Ernie Dusek, a member of the famous Dusek Riot Squad, meets Ray Villmer, undefeated Southern heavyweight champion, and number one contender for the World's Heavyweight wrestling crown, in a two out of three falls, one hour time limit bout.

The Dusek brothers have a reputation of being the roughest brothers in wrestling, and Ernie is no exception. He has a powerful punch, and frequently kicks his opponent if the referee is not watching closely. He is considered to be one of the toughest wrestlers Villmer has come up against this season.

Villmer usually wrestles clean, but is capable of becoming tough if his opponent does, if the occasion calls for it.

In the midget's match, two of the sportiest of the diminutive grapplers will go over the ring. Shorty Powers, the English man, takes on a rough Italian, Vince Garibaldi of Naples, Italy.

Handle weighs 90 pounds and is 41 inches tall. Although Garibaldi is slightly smaller, weighing 84 pounds and 39 inches in height, he makes up for it in experience. He amazes fans with his puppet and tricky maneuvers.

This bout is also slated for two out of three falls, with a time limit of one hour.

Action gets under way at 9:15 o'clock.

Marine pilots landed on Guam March 17, 1521, marking the first time Orient aviation was displayed outside the continental limits of the U. S.

Schools For Sheriffs Set

W. R. England, special consultant for the Florida Sheriffs Association announced plans for a state-wide series of schools he will hold to acquaint sheriffs and their staffs with proper operational procedures.

The March schools will be held in Cross City on Thursday and Friday, March 6 and 7, and in Panama City on Monday and Tuesday, March 10 and 11.

The following subjects will be covered: duties of sheriff and deputies; retirement; arrest, with and without warrant; appearance bonds; extradition; search warrants; serving witnesses; court attendance; fines and jail sentences; fine and cost bonds; escapes; handling prisoners; miscellaneous court orders; coroners' inquests; civil process; executions and financial records.

England, a former state auditor, has held over 200 schools for sheriffs. He said additional 1958 sessions will be scheduled and announced as far in advance as possible. - The Sheriff's Star.

The Whooper can be easily recognized even in flight for it is our largest bird, it stands five feet high in its stocking feet and rises to the height of six feet when it gives one of the whoops that gives it its name.

It is pure white except black ... on the wings, and the crown and face are covered with a rough grainy skin of crimson, while the forehead and chunks bristle with black stiff feathers.

And according to best authorities there are only thirty one of these noble birds still in existance.

So popular are these birds that we now have a postage stamp depicting a pair of them with two of their brindly colored young.

Miss [redacted] graduated from Avon Park High School in 1956 [redacted] graduation of her class. An honor student throughout [redacted] also took part in many other activities [redacted] year. At present she is in her third year [redacted] versity and will finish the requirements [redacted] a major in math and science this June and [redacted] teaching before graduating. During her years at [redacted] has taken part in many activities and been on the Dean's List every semester. She has had the privilege of taking a number of honor classes in her fields of study.

Mr. Quick is a native of New York State and was graduated from the Corning Academy in 1951. He then attended the University of Cincinnati for one year and Indiana Tech for one and half years as an electrical engineer student. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Fraternity. At present he is serving with the United States Air Force at Moody Field in Valdosta, Ga.

Complete wedding plans will be announced at a later date.

11 Red Devil Lettermen Return For Baseball

The 1958 edition of the Avon Park Red Devil Baseball team begins with an impressive roster of 11 returning lettermen as the Red Devils began full scale preparations Monday for defense of the Ridge Conference Crown led by five year letterman John Starling.

'Such well-known' names as Billy Rouse, Winky Williams, Leroy Starling, Jim Cooper, Bryan Kempton, Charles Anderson, Wayne Kempton, Tommy Douberley, Leroy Farless and Tom Bass round out the list of returning lettermen.

Some of the new candidates who have shown up exceptionally well in practice session during the past week are: Mike Wells, Seth McCormick, Gene Bigbie, Jerome Antley, Glenn Bass, Norman Willis, Gail Ho-yay, Joe Perez and Kenneth Fenton.

Most of the practice time in the coming week will be spent in an effort to find a replacement for Dale Landress, both on the mound and at second base. Wayne Kempton leads in the race for the second base spot closely followed by Gene Bigbie, Gail Hovey, Leroy Farless and Jerome Antley.

Johnny Starling, Jim Cooper and Tom Douberley appear to be the most likely candidates to join Anderson in the pitching department.

On the basis of early season performance, Cooper, Leroy Starling and Douberley are expected to join Rouse, Starling and Winky Williams as the .300 hitters.

The first home game will be Tuesday night at Head Field with Arcadia.

Lighting Expert Speaks To Garden Clubs

Miss Faye Gordon, Home Service Advisor for Florida Power, introduced Mr. Wade Wilfong, Lighting Specialist for the 32 counties served by Florida Power, to the members of the Avon Park Federation of Garden Clubs at their meeting in the Woman's Clubhouse on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27.

"Light for Living Outdoors" was the topic of Mr. Wilfong's very interesting talk. He demonstrated equipment used in gardens for lovely night time scenes. The highlight of his talk was the showing of colored slides of a garden in Georgia that he had lighted for night use. Mr. Wilfong pointed out that over fifty companies are now making garden lighting equipment and that this is a coming field in outdoor living.

Mrs. Ed Gardner won the door prize which was a special bulb given by Mr. Wilfong.

During the business session of the meeting the group decided to send the incoming presidents and vice-presidents of both Founder's and Hibiscus Circles to the Convention of the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs which will be held in Tampa on April 17, 18, and 19.

The John P. Holland torpedo boat company on Mar. 13, 1895, received the first contract in U. S. history to build a submarine for the Navy. The sum of $150,000 was granted for the construction of a submarine 85 feet long with an 11 foot beam.

Matyias - Hanke

The engagement of Mrs. Eva Lois Matyias of Avon Park, and William John Hanke of Lake Placid has been announced.

Mrs. Matyias received her early education in the Public Schools of Olean, New York and later received her degree in Graphic Analytical Psychology from the International Institute of Graphic Analysis in Springfield, Mo. Mr. Hanke was educated in the Public Schools and the Lewis Institute of Engineering in Chicago, Ill. He is a retired Contractor.

The wedding will take place on April 7th. It will be a quiet ceremony.

Rouse Picked To Play On All-Star Football Team

Red Devil Football Co-Captain Billy Rouse, outstanding Avon Park Halfback, has been selected by the Florida High School Coaches Association to play on the South All-Star Football Team in August at the University of Florida.

Billy, an outstanding athlete in all three sports, is seventeen years old, stands 6'1" and weighs 185 pounds. He is a three year letterman in basketball and will begin his fourth year in baseball this season.

During the past season Rouse was one of the most experienced backs on the Avon Park eleven and the explosive runner was the backfield threat of the Ridge Conference. He won the Ridge scoring title with 79 points after tallying four touchdowns in the last game of the season. This speedy back ran 548 yards in 69 carries, a 9.3 average. He does the hundred yard dash in 10 seconds and also runs it in full uniform after practice in 11.6 seconds.

An ankle injury in the middle of the season held him out of offensive action in two games.

Biffy was the outstanding choice of the Coaches at their annual meeting and he will represent Avon Park in the all important All-Star game between the North and the South teams in Gainsville.

Prizes Awarded Winners In Fishing Contest

Leon's Sporting Goods Big Fishing Contest came to a close Friday night and even with this un-Florida like weather we have been having the contest was a huge success. All winners have been notified by mail and most of the prizes have been presented.

Girl Scout News

Twenty-six Girl Scouts met for their regular weekly meeting on Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27, and then took a "Walk Out" with their leaders to the home of Mrs. Bob Lee.

At the Lee home the Scouts divided into patrols and each patrol presented its own original skit to the enjoyment of the other girls. The skits were written, acted, and produced by the Scouts and were very humorous.

Those members were Linda Porter and Kathleen Fields. Susan Lawrence served the Scouts candy bars at the Lee home. The meeting ended with the Friendship Circle and the Scout pledge after which the Scouts walked back to the meeting room in Kings Court.

Fla. Power Clubs To Have Meetings

The Florida Power Employees Club Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting in the Florida Power Clubhouse at 8 o'clock on Thursday, March 6.

The Employees Club Quarterly Get-Together will be held on Saturday night, March 8, in the Clubhouse at 7 o'clock.

This supper will be a covered dish supper and all members and their wives are invited to attend.

A Surprise Birthday Supper For Mrs. Nebel

Mrs. Louis Nebel was surprised with a birthday supper by her husband and some of their friends at the home of Mrs. Charles Shepherd on Lake Byrd on Sunday evening, March 2.

Mrs. Nebel and her friends enjoyed a turkey supper with all the trimmings and a large birthday cake to celebrate the occasion.

After the delicious supper the guests spent an enjoyable evening visiting and singing. Dr. William Tuttle played the piano and answered the guests' requests for their favorite song. About twenty-five friends and neighbors helped Mr. Nebel celebrate.

The Avon Park Scout troop won a third prize ribbon for their large model Scout Camp in the Highlands County Fair. Georgianne Godwin, Scout, won a first prize ribbon for her shell collection and Sharon Lee won a third prize ribbons for her Tin Can Stove.

Women's Golf Assn. To Continue Monthly Meetings

Dessert will be served by the hostesses who are Mrs. Keith Collyer, Mrs. J. F. Ward, Mrs. Frank Love, and Mrs. Demos Mandis. Mrs. Love will also be in charge of the worship service.

First Methodist Church News

The Women's Society for Christian Service members held a very valuable workshop on Thursday, Feb. 27, in Wesley Hall.

The purpose of the workshop was to help the members become better acquainted with the Women's Society program and so find material and methods which would help them in their church work. Mrs. Hubert Bussard, vice president, led the business meeting and Mrs. W. D. Perkins, Devotional Life Chairman, led in prayer. Mrs. Samuel Elkhill, Promotions Secretary, was in charge of some of the workshop topics. The circles then divided into groups for study on various topics. During the day there were periods of Bible Study, song periods, information of the work of the Women's Society, and evaluation periods.

The twenty-five members present enjoyed a sandwich lunch together and then continue work.

In the afternoon session the members, led by Mrs. W. D. Perkins, held a dedication service to repledge themselves to the goals of the Society which are love, prayer, service and gifts, and a candle was lit for each goal.

The Rev. Wilmer O. Luttrell is occupying the pulpit in Mulberry this week for revival services there. This is for the Methodist Conference Inter-District Evangelistic Movement and all the ministers in the Sarasota District are leading revival meetings in the churches of the Lakeland District.

Boy Scout News

Troop 156

The Scouts of Troop 156 sponsored by the American Legion held a Board of Review at their meeting on Monday, Feb. 24.

Troop 156 has a Board of Review every third meeting so that its Scouts may go up for Merit Badges and Advancement. Andy Miracle went before the board for three Merit Badges Andy is working on his Eagle Scout rating and has not too many more badges and advancements to go.

During the meeting the Scouts made fresh drinking water from salt water. This was done by boiling the salt water and condensing the steam in another vessel Scoutmaster Lawrence reports that the water was quite drinkable. The boys are preparing for their camping trip this summer in learning various methods of survival.

Troop 157

The Scouts of Troop 157 sponsored by the Rotary Club reported on the work that they were doing individually on their merit badges and advancement ratings.

They also planned a camping trip when the weather permits.

WE SELL MUTUAL FUNDS!
WHAT ARE MUTUAL FUNDS?
There are more than 700 "Mutual Fund Companies" registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission in Washington. Members of the National Association of Securities Dealers, and companies listed in Standard And Poors Investing Companies.

MUTUAL FUNDS offer a method of investing — in a package of securities. Portfolios of the companies in the "package" could be General Motors, U.S. Steel, Sears & Roebuck, American Telephone, Standard Oil, DuPont, Aluminum Co. of America, and perhaps a hundred or more other industries in the same "package". INVESTING may be done either in a "Lump Sum Plan" or a "Systematic Payment Plan" with investments as small as $2.50 per week, or $10.00 a month.

THIS method of investing is an ownership of "American Industry" is the fastest growing method of investing in America today. SINCE 1940, Mutual Funds have grown from a half billion dollar business to a dynamic industry with assets today of over 12 billion dollars. In spite of this spectacular growth, the industry is on the threshold of a period of enormous expansion. We need men and women to help us meet the evergrowing demand.

Winter Guest Club News

The shuffle-board enthusiasts have had quite a time, this past week, trying to maintain their schedule in competition with the unseasonal rains. "Sloppy" said, "Sunny Florida". Wednesday's tournament, rained out and played on Thursday, saw John Williams and Jim Brown defeat Dan Lindborg and S. Storeypetz to win the meet. On Saturday the rains came again and the usual meet was postponed to Monday. This was a wise, sunny day which everyone greatly enjoyed. Martin Lindborg and Delbert Peter stayed with it right to the last but Leslie Goodwin and D. T. Williams edge ahead to win the day's tournament. Two more names now added to our local "Hall of Fame".

About forty hardy souls braved the downpour Saturday evening to enjoy the weekly potluck. What was lacking in quantity was surely present in quality. Mrs. Tom Johnston played for an impromptu "sing" which was followed by a social hour of chatting and getting better acquainted, not always possible in a larger group. Altogether ten states were represented, plus the "state of satiety", according to one wit.

Coming events include the card party on March 13 and the annual hobby show. March 20 is the date tentatively set for the show. You, who have hobbies to show, should be thinking now about your entry. It is planned to conclude this affair with a showing of Mr. Amich's "Rogues' Gallery" and pictures of his Nassau trip; you'd be wise to save this date.

The Art Class has been spending more time, this year, on the use of water colors. This is a new medium for some in the class and all have found the work interesting and profitable. One of the most enjoyed aspects of this year's work is the showing presented by former members of the Class. There are about fifteen members of the class this year, four of whom are beginners.

Last Friday about fifty of our shuffleboard players packed their picnic lunches and cues and journeyed to Arcadia for a return bout. We don't know if the lunches were too ample, the Arcadian coffee spiked or just what occurred but-are lost the match 28-20. Maybe it's just as well; now the score is even with our friendly club down on the pampas.

A feature of the Friday night dance was a new square put on solely by the folk who have learned to square dance this year. Now all the old-timers want to learn it, too.

Remember the "sing" on Sunday; Mr. Stoltz will be back with us so let's turn out to give him a welcome back, says the TATTLER.

Rotary News

Frank D. Newbury, retired vice president of the Westinghouse Company and a former Assistant Secretary of Defense was the guest speaker at the Avon Park Rotary Club luncheon meeting on Wednesday, February 26, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Mr. Newbury gave a very interesting and a powerful thought producting talk on the Defense Department. He explained that the success of the Government couldn't be measured by the same standards as those used in the business world. In the business firms a man was trained for years to head a company and knew how to make it show a profit, but he said that in the defense department the average life of the heads of the different departments was two years. The men holding these titles have all proved themselves to be business men of outstanding companies. He further stated that the defense department was larger than any private in-5, 1913.

dustry in the country, in fact either one of the three branches, the Army, the Navy or the Air Force, is larger than any industry. Thus to protect our democratic form of government, the government is not in business just to make a profit.

Mr. Newbury stated that he thought a mistake had been made when the Army was divided into the Air Force and the Army, and he felt that someday when the missiles had been perfected that these two branches would once again be just the Army. Members were all given a better insight into the ways and operations of our government by Mr. Newbury.

J. Samuel Garrison of Hollywood, Fla. was the guest of Barney Howard.

Booth Committee, Dee Jahns, Pat Paterson, Betsy Holden, Norma Jean Hill, Ann Prisoe, and Eloise Walker; Personnel Committee, Winnie Skipper, Sujetie Lanier; Utensil Committee, Dot Booth, Vivian Rich and Marvia Turner. All the other members will be contacted for jobs and work during this time.

The Junior Woman's Club of Sebring extended an invitation to the members to attend their Bible Exhibit on March 9, 10, and 11 in the Federated Clubs Building in Sebring. At this time they will have old Bibles and other interesting religious exhibits on display. All Avon Park persons who are interested are cordially invited to attend this outstanding exhibit.

September 12, 1966 was voted upon as the date of the First Avon Park Junior Woman's Club Follies. Work will begin on the plans for the follies in the near future.

Miss Bonnie Beth Wingay, Regional Director of the Girl Scouts, of Atlanta gave an interesting talk on the purpose and benefits of National Girl Scouts Council Coverage to the Club. The Junior Club sponsors the Girl Scout troop in Avon Park. Miss Wimpey stated that there are now over three million girls between the ages of 7 and 17 who are engaged in some form of Girl Scouting in the United States. A National Council insures local scouts of better administration, more leadership training, and more facilities.

The next meeting of the Juniors in April will be an Installation Banquet with Mrs. Carl Prisoc chairman. Members will be notified of exact plans at a later date.

Miss Nell Richardson of Tampa and Dr. Hubert Coleman of Avon Park presented an outstanding program on Cancer to the club. The important of periodic checks for this dread disease was stressed in two movies and Dr. Coleman lead in the discussion of questions of interest to all.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses who were Mrs. Jim Turnbull, Mrs. Betsy Holden and Mrs. Lorant Foriza.

Sheriffs—

ruby-studded sheriff's badge to W. R. England, of Avon Park, as a token of appreciation for his long and faithful service to the Sheriffs of this state.

A former state auditor, England is a special consultant for the Association and has been helping Sheriffs with their fiscal and operational problems for over a quarter century. They call him "The Answer Man."

In accepting the badge, England expressed his gratitude and stated that he has not missed any of the regularly scheduled conferences of the Association in the past 25 years. Two such meetings are held each year.

He said Clay County Sheriff John P. Hall is the only sheriff in office now who was in office when he (England) attended his first Association conference 25 years ago.

Hall, he explained, will equal the all-time record for service in the sheriff's office on July 24. At that time, he said, Hall will have served 25 years, seven months and 20 days, the same period of time served by former Leon County Sheriff Frank Stoutamire, who set the previous record.

England, during his term as sheriffs, has held [illegible] schools to acquaint sheriffs and their staffs with correct operational procedures. And he has traveled untold thousands of miles to hold individual conferences [illegible] another matter.

He [illegible] a key role in [illegible] the operational procedures and forms of the sheriffs years ago; and more recently he helped to formulate the 1967 law which took all sheriffs off the antiquated fee system and put them under a budget-salary system.

"The purpose of this contest is to help people in our town and every other community to see for themselves the real condition of their homes as well as the great need for home improvements to protect themselves and their property," Jeff Barrow declared.

This first contest will be followed by another, running from July 1 through December 31, which will also have 1000 cash prizes totaling another $125,000. In it the homeowner will be required to complete an actual home improvement.

Official HIC contest entry blanks, as well as helpful ideas and decisions may be obtained from Townsend Sash, Door & Lumber Co. who are members of the Home Improvement Council.

One Released Two Held In Motor Thefts

The three men charged in the theft of outboard motors appeared before Circuit Judge Gunter Stephenson, Friday, March 7, in the Fall Term of the Circuit Court.

Ray Ellis Smith was previously arranged and plead guilty to the charge of receiving stolen property and the Court had ordered the defendent to be guilty as charged and ordered sentence deferred. Judge Stephenson ordered a pre-sentence investigation by the Parole Commissioner, and further ordered the defendent be released on his recognizance.

Harold Smith and Peter Polesky, have both plead guilty to the charge of Grand Larceny, and the Court has ordered a pre-sentence investigation by the Parole Commissioner on both.

Chamber To Display Welcome To Racing Fans

The Board of Directors of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce decided at their regular meeting Tuesday night that some form of welcome should be displayed for visitors attending the Grand Prix.

The advertising committee is to decide and purchase some form of a sign or banner to decorate the town for the visitors in order to identify Avon Park with the races and to invite the fans to spend some time in Avon Park.

E. Ray Wells is chairman of the advertising committee and other members include Mrs. Anne Belle Worden, Barney Howard and Jim Helm.

Charles Metcalfe, chairman of the Membership committee, gave a detail report on the membership drive which is being conducted and stated he was very well pleased with the way the pledge sheets were being returned so rapidly to the Chamber. A complete report on the drive will be released at a later date.

Building Permits Total $12,300 For February

Only seven permits totaling $12,300 were issued by K. L. Adams, Building Inspector for the City of Avon Park, during the month of February.

Five of the permits issued were for additions and alterations and amounted to $5,300; one for $2,000 for business and one for a $5,000 new residence.

Chief Harrison Issues Warning

A warning is being issued to all motorists by Police Chief Leland Harrison that starting the first of April a safety check will be made on cars in Avon Park.

Chief Harrison reports that beginning the first of the month each policeman will stop a certain number of cars during his shift.

Cars will be checked for head lights, tail lights, brakes, mufflers, windshield wipers, and each driver will be asked to present his drivers license.

Tax Assessor P. G. Gearing Warns Homestead Exemption Deadline Near

As the April 1st deadline for making homestead exemption applications and filing of personal property tax returns approaches, many taxpayers are waiting until the last days as usual. This will cause much inconvenience to them, for even with a present staff of four clerks to wait on them long lines form in the assessor's office each year due to this delay. It will be appreciated by the assessor if you will attend to your tax business with his office just as soon as possible, so the last minute rush can be reduced.

Mr. Gearing stated that hundreds of new homes have been built during the past year and while many of those will enjoy homestead exemption, the tax roll will still be greatly increased. Commercial buildings and new subdivisions will likewise add to the roll, he said.

"The present full cash value controversy has presented the toughest problem in my 21 years of assessing" the assessor told this reporter. "I know it is obvious that assessments are not at a present sales value level and I am certainly aware that some revision is necessary, but to raise values substantially without definite legal assurance of millage adjustments in proportion to such a raise would be disastrous to the economy of Highlands County."

"I intend to make up the 1958 tax roll to the very best of my ability, making such revisions as are necessary and still conforming to my interpretation of full cash value as required by the Constitution", said Gearing.

Gearing calls attention to his notice regarding tax returns, applications, etc., in another section of this paper.

Red Smith, Noted Sportswriter Visits Here

Red Smith, noted sports columnist for the New York Tribune, and Frank Graham, another outstanding sports writer, were visitors in Avon Park on Thursday, March 6.

The sport writers have been covering sporting events in Florida and Cuba for several weeks and hope to have another day off for fishing in Avon Park before they return to New York. Red Smith is one of the outstanding sports writers of our day and was referred to recently by Time Magazine as "the sport's writer's sports writer". Frank Graham is also a name well known to sports fans.

Mrs. Smith accompanied her husband and they were visiting Red's father, Walter Smith, and his uncle, Herbert, and wife, Daisy Smith on North Highlands Avenue.

Garber Attends Eastman Training Course In N. Y.

John P. Garber, Jr., of Touchton Drug Co., P. O. Box 907, Avon Park, is in Rochester, New York, from March 2 through 12 to attend a retail photographic salesman's training conference at the Eastman Kodak Company's sales training center.

The group is comprised of 28 men and women from 12 states and Canada.

Conferees will tour the company's Rochester plants and attend daily lectures designed to acquaint them with the latest Kodak products and services. Among the topics to be covered are Kodak cameras and accessories, color photography, Kodak films, papers and chemicals, planning store advertising, home movies, and photography's basic selling principles.

On Saturday, March 8, the group will visit Niagara Falls where each person will have an opportunity to take Kodak snapshots and color slides of the falls.

Red Devils Meet Frostproof Here Friday Night

The Red Devil Baseball Nine will play their second game of the 1957 season Friday night March 14, against the Frostproof Bullpups at Head Field.

The game will begin at eight o'clock as will all the Devils' home games this season. Next Tuesday the Red Devils will be idle having an open date that has not been filled.

The Friday night contest against Frostproof should prove to be an interesting one due to the fact that the Frostproof Nine will be playing for a new coach—Coach Tom Perrin. Frostproof opened the season Tuesday night against Sebring.

Coach Garrett has picked Jimmy Cooper as his starting pitcher for the Frostproof game.

Masons To Honor District Deputy Grand Master

Right Worshipful A. B. Quinter, District Deputy Grand Master of the 22nd Masonic District will be honored at the regular communication of the Poinciana Lodge No. 227 at 7 o'clock on Monday, March 17, in the Masonic Hall.

Supper will be served promptly at seven by the ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star.

All Masons are cordially invited to attend this meeting and supper.

National Library Week To Be Held March 16-22

Wake up and read! This is the theme of National Library Week to be held March 16-22. Only 17 out of 100 Americans were currently reading a book when the latest Gallup poll was taken. Sixty-one per cent of all Americans had not read a book during the previous year—except the Bible.

Englishmen read more than three times as many books as we do. The Finns read nearly four times as many.

A better read, better informed America is needed for intelligent responsible citizenship, better home living, and individual development. Books and family reading are important in the home. A school library is more than a nice addition, it is a necessary adjunct, to the school programs. A public library of some size and with skilled personnel provides the accumulated wisdom of the ages for its patrons young and old.

Periodicals, radio and TV will observe National Library Week with appropriate programs. Even Santa Rhodesia's popular lion, "VICTORIA" LIBRARY WEEK provides a free opportunity for the theatre goer acquainted with the pomp and ceremony of the British court, to find out how its

Minutes Of A Regular Meeting Of City Council Held March 10, 1958

Members Present: R. E. Lee, C. F. King, P. A. McFarland, R. L. Dilley, Manis Kirkland, also Mayor, City Attorney, City Clerk.

The invocation was given by Mr. McFarland.

The minutes were read and approved as read.

The following Departmental Reports were reviewed:

1. Park Department
2. Fire Department
3. Street Department
4. Housing Department

Mr. J. F. Wester appeared before the Council to be informed of the Council's interpretation of Zoning Requirements relating to his property located on the corner of Highlands and Clinfield. The City Attorney gave the Council's interpretation of Ordinance Number 502, Section 13, which does relate to Mr. Wester's problem.

Mr. Wester complained that a building is discontinued environing period of not less than 90 days, that was of such character with the provisions of the Zoning Ordinance and Subdivision "D" of Section 13, provides that the above shall not prevent the restoration of a building destroyed to the extent of not more than 50% by fire, explosion, flood, act of public enemy or Act of God; the matter under consideration does not

City To Receive $3,426 Of Jan. Cigarette Tax

The City of Avon Park will receive $3,426.34 as its share of the Cigarette Tax collected by the State of Florida for the month of January.

H. G. Cochran, Jr., Director of the State Beverage Department made this report to the Legislature recently. In his report he announced that $3,000,000 is available for distribution among the cities and counties of the state. Of this amount $2,625,272.50 will go to the County Boards of County Commissioners and $374,727.50 will be distributed to municipalities according to

Douglass And Ingle Reappointed; Day Added To Offset Flu-Losses In Highlands County Schools

The Highlands County School Board Tuesday morning accepted the recommendation of the school trustees and reappointed George F. Douglas as Supervising Principal of the Sebring Area Schools and Jack L. Ingle as principal of the Woodlawn School for the 1958-59 school term. All other supervising principals and principals in the county are under continuing contract.

The Board decided to lengthen the school term by one day due to the considerable absences in the school this term, 1957-58. All Highlands County Schools will end June 6 instead of Thursday, June 5, as originally scheduled.

The extra day was added on the recommendation of Fred Wild, Superintendent, to secure additional funds from the state, which is based on average daily attendance since the school attendance was reduced heavily by flu last Fall and again this Spring. The daily average attendance on this added day, June 6, will be used instead of one of the poorer days of attendance to secure additional funds.

The School Board after receiv-

Peace Ridge Scottish Rite Club Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Peace Ridge Scottish Rite Club was held at Griffins Restaurant on Wednesday night, March 5.

After a delightful dinner two visiting Brothers were introduced. An excellent after dinner talk was enjoyed by all local members and visiting Scottish Rite Masons.

All visiting Scottish Rite Masons are invited to attend these monthly meetings, the next one will be held on Wednesday night, April 2, at 7:30 p. m. at Griffin's Restaurant.

City Clerk To Attend MFOA Short Course

City Clerk Jim Turnbull will attend the Municipality Finance Officers Association's short course in Gainesville beginning Sunday and ending Wednesday. The meetings will be held at the University of Florida with headquarters at the Hotel Thomas.

The short course will be attended by most Municipality Finance Officers and City Clerks of the State, and will be taught by outstanding men from both universities of Florida and the National Organization.

The purpose of the short course is to discuss the problems of the Officers and City Clerks and to acquaint them with the latest methods. Study sessions have been planned so that each officer or clerk attending the course will get the most out of it.

One of the principal speakers will be George Shaw, Finance Director of the City of Miami and past president of the MFOA.

Minor Accident Monday Morning

The drivers involved in a minor accident Monday morning were not injured but damage amounted to more than $250.

Mrs. Frances Cooke traveling west on Second Street failed to yield the right away and ran into a car driven by Lee Bertha Peterson, Negro, who was going north on Carolina Avenue.

Mrs. Cooke's Ford went damaged to about $250 and the damage to the Pontiac which was owned by Cohen C. Hicks had

County-Wide Parent-Teachers Conference Day Friday, March 21

The second County-Wide Parent Teachers Conference Day will be held on Friday, March 21. This will be a holiday for the students but teachers will be in the classrooms during the regular school hours.

Since there will be no classes for the children, the teachers will be free to see the parents during the entire day. All parents are cordially invited and urged to visit the schools on Friday, March 21.

The parent-teacher conference should help the parent to understand the type of work his child is doing as well as the rate of progress he is making. The parent should be able to assist the teachers on a better understanding of the child and his needs.

All parents are asked to please register in the office before conferring with the teachers. Teachers also handed cards to all parents having the schedule for the school in their room.

The schedule for the Avon Park High School as announced by A. B. Wilhite, principal, is as follows;

All parents whose last name begins with the letter A through M please come to the school between 8:30 a. m. and 12:00 noon.

All parents whose last name begins with the letters N through Z please come to the school from 1:30 p. m. until 3:30 p. m.

The scheduled for both Elementary Schools as announced by George A. Kelsey, principal, is as follows;

Parents whose names begin with X, Y, Z, from 8:30 till 9:30 a. m.; names beginning with A through D, 9:30 till 10:30 a. m.; names beginning with E through H, 10:30 till 11:30 a. m.; parents names beginning with I through L, 11:30 till 12:15; In the afternoon through P from 1:15 till 2:15; Q through Y from 2:15 till 3:15 and U, V, and W from 3:15 till 4:00 p. m.

Progress In Slaughtering

The American Humane Association and the American Meat Institute have issued a joint progress report on improved methods of slaughtering. It is a significant document, in the light of the fact that existing methods have often been critised by legislators, humane groups and others.

The report describes changes that have taken place or are in prospect. New instruments, mechanical and electrical, have been devised and tested. Inevitable, "bugs" and problems have arisen, but these are being eliminated and solved. In less than 12 months, enough packing companies have placed enough new instruments in operation so that now almost 50 per cent of cattle are being stunned by improved humane methods.

Another indicator of progress is important. The American Humane Association has established a policy of granting "Seals of Approval" on a yearly basis to meat packers who meet rigid standards in handling, stunning and slaughtering meat animals. As of the fall of last year, plants handling some 11 million animals had qualified for these seals. And it is hoped and expected that the number will swiftly increase.

Here is the answer to those who mistakenly believe that the meat industry is not interested in improving its methods. The fact is that it is intensely interested, and is acting accordingly. Very great progress has been made, in the face of many difficulties. The humane people and the meat people deserve praise and recognition for what they have done and will do.

Key To Our Fortunes

Some time ago, Malcolm McNair, the famous Harvard University economist said: "The consumer holds the key not only to the fortunes of retail business in 1958, but in a larger sense to the fortunes of the total economy."

The general decline in business activity, which is now touching just about all lines of enterprise, points up the significance of that statement. Everything depends upon the ability and willingness of people to buy goods. The volume of retail sales will be the major element in determining whether a business upturn will come soon, or whether the recession will deepen.

Retailing is as competitive a field as exists, and retailers of all kinds can be depended upon to do all in their power to keep sales at the highest possible level. At the same time, anything which would force up retail costs and prices could be of very great damage to the country now. A prime example is the effort to extend the federal wage-hour law to the larger retailers of the country, such as the chain systems. As authority after authority has testified, these retailers simply could not absorb the higher costs—their profits just aren't big enough. They would be forced to raise prices—and consumer resistance would increase and in all probability purchasing would sag some more. Then there would be another jump in the unemployment rolls—particularly among inexperienced and marginal workers.

Political tinkering with the workings of the economy is dangerous at any time. It would be unusually dangerous now.

How Government Can Help

We hear much talk these days about possible government action to help business. In many instances, the proposals would result in new political controls, and would further undermine the free enterprise system.

There are, however, sound ways in which government can be of service to industry—ways which would not put more power into the hands of government and would not expand our swollen bureaucracy. Reasonable changes in the tax system constitutes one of those ways.

Coal is a good example here. The industry has been operating on a profitless or near-profitless basis for years. Like all the extractive industries it has a depletion allowance, which amounts to a credit against income taxes. In coal's case the allowance is 10 per cent. However, due to present day costs of opening up new mines to replace those which are depleted, this allowance is completely inadequate. It is proposed that the allowance be raised to at least 15 per cent.

This action would give coal a better opportunity to prepare for the heavy increases in demand that will come in the future. It would stimulate new development and employment. The good effects would be felt throughout the country.

CRACKER POLITICS

BY ALLEN MORRIS

Tallahassee. — Senate dropouts, Florida's disastrous winter, the national business atmosphere - all these likely will put the brake on the broadening next year of the State sales tax.

Knocking out some of the remaining exemptions at the 1959 session of the Legislature was the next step in the gradual shifting of revenue responsibility which began in the 1930's.

Unless there is a drastic change in the state's prosperity by then, it now appears the legislators nominated next September and elected in November will be more tax conscious than they have in nearly 20 years.

While any one could influence the situation, it is the combination of the three which seems to throw up a rather high barricade against substantial change in existing tax rates.

Taking up the least obvious of the three, the Senate dropouts, the retirement of President W. A. Shands of Gainesville means the tax revisionists have lost their most skillful and patient strategist.

Time will produce a successor to Shands in this field, but is unlikely he will achieve during the '59 session the Shands gift of producing cause and effect appropriations plus taxes to finance these.

While Shands is the best known, there will be other present Senators absent from the '59 session who believe a growing state needs the nourishment of taxes to finance its institutions. And these Senators will be replaced at a time when the electorate may be in the mood for no-tax talk by candidates.

The huge losses to Floridians by reason of the winter's bitter cold hardly could be forgotten by the time the legislative candidates are seeking votes and other support next supper. There will be every temptation for aspirants to pledge themselves against additional levies.

Today's sun might otherwise dispel some of the memory of the nightmarish winter for those in the tourist, agricultural and related industries if it were not that the whole country seems - economically speaking - to be walking a tight rope now.

The immediate reaction among politicos here as to Florida ramifications of the Channel 10 inquiry at Washington may be summed in these points:

1 - That Florida's prestige has suffered and Governor LeRoy Collins' chances for achieving national political recognition have been adversely affected through his being identified with the state although not directly with the Washington revelations. Until now, Florida's government has been well regarded nationally and Collins naturally has benefited personally from this acceptance.

2 - That Alan S. Boyd, the young Miamian who has been receiving considerable attention as a possible contender for the governorship in 1960, may be deprived to some degree of the political advantage which otherwise might have been gained from serving as a member (and, presently, as chairman) of the Railroad and Public Utilities Commission.

3 - That Jerry W. Carter, longtime member of the Railroad and Public Utilities Commission, perhaps has invited by his Cracker candor at Washington the public attention which campaigns for election to the commission always have lacked. Carter's own seat on the commission will be up for election this year.

Building on the experience of three past shows, the Tallahassee Press Club seems ready to move into the statewide realm on March 17 with its Florida equivalent of Washington's annual Gridiron Club roasting of political personages.

For the first time at Tallahassee, there will be many prominent politicos in attendance from outside the Capital. Among these may be former Speaker Farris Bryant of Ocala, Speaker-designate Thomas D. Beasley of DeFuniak Springs, Speaker aspirant William V. Chappell of Ocala, Rep. John E. Mathews, Jr., of Jacksonville and Senator Verle A. Pope of St. Augustine.

The newsmen are working up a series of topical skits, including one about the difficulties of Charles Smith, Pensacola road contractor and campaign financial backer of Adlai Stevenson, in completing the Apalachee Parkway to the Capitol's front entrance. This skit includes a parody which starts, "Standing on the Corner, Watching Charlie Smith's mud pie."

Report From Congressman "Jim Haley"

Washington, D. C.—The House Subcommittee on Domestic Marketing action hearings last week on the bill on which we have been urging favorable action relative to the extension of restrictions upon citrus fruits imported into the United States. Witnesses, representing various importers, appeared before the committee protesting the extension of restrictions on dates, date products, figs and shelled walnuts, but there were no protests against the extension of such restrictions on citrus products. Therefore, we are hopeful that this bill will be given a favorable report by the subcommittee. The bill simply requires all citrus imports to meet the same standards as are imposed on domestic produce. As of the date of this writing, the committee has not acted on the bill, but we are expecting action in the near future. I will continue to follow this legislation which is so important for the citrus industry as well as the public.

The Veterans' Affairs Committee, of which I am a member, continued hearings last week on fund raising campaigns by or in behalf of veterans' organizations. While we cannot disclose any "startling news" arising from the hearings, we do believe that as a result of our investigation, legislation will be formulated which will be beneficial in protecting the interests of the public as well as the interests of the veterans' organizations.

One of the most important bills considered by the House last week was one which was introduced by Paul G. Rogers, Congressman, 6th District of Florida. This bill if enacted by Congress, would put into operation one of the recommendations of the Hoover Commission. It provides for improved methods of stating budget estimates and estimates for deficiency and supplemental appropriations, and reportedly would save the taxpayers several million dollars each year. One of the primary objectives of the Hoover Commission was the establishing of a procedure which would (1) provide for an annual congressional review of appropriations granted in prior years, and (3) give the Congress a positive control over annual expenditures from both current and prior year appropriations. This bill was designed to meet this objective. I am happy to report that the bill passed by the House even though there was strong opposition. Two Florida Congressmen very ably handled the bill on the floor of the House and deserve much of the credit for its success. Those Congressmen are Paul G. Rogers, and Dante B. Fascell, of the 4th District. I supported this bill as I will continue to support any reasonable legislation which will provide more economy and efficiency in the operation of the Federal Government.

Winter Guest Club News

Well, the shufflers finally did it—beat Sebring! And what a thrilling meet that was. There were 28 teams competing on Thursday, March 6, and the score stood at 39-39 when the rains came. After a short shower, however, it was decided to finish to meet by selecting one team from each side and have these four play a 100-point match. For thrills, suspense, and excitement this beat all records; the score seesawed all the way and no one could tell which way the game would go. Finally our stalwarts had the last shot, made it good, and thereby brought home the bacon.

Wednesday's choose-your-partner meet was taken by Ota Gibson and Shauger when they edged out John Williams and Jim Brown.

Saturday's potluck meet Ed Paton and Delbert Peter were taken by Harry Gibson and Ralph Miller.

Interest continues high at our favorite indoor sport—bridge, as witnessed by the 32 players on Tuesday. Ethyl Harden had high score for the afternoon's play and Genevieve Keiser was second.

Thursday was another of those nights when the walls bulged and for good reason. Our visitors from St. Petersburg, playing the piano, violin, and Hawaiian guitar, with the tenor soloist, brought us a memorable evening of music. They played a fine program of popular classics and well known Operatic arias.

Thursday, March 20, has been set for the annual hobby show. If you enjoyed these affairs in the past, we know you won't miss this one; if you haven't attended one, better plan now to do so. Mrs. Duke Christiansen and Mrs. Clay Kull are in charge of the show so we know it's in good hands. The show opens at 10:00 a. m. and closes at 5:00 p. m. At 7:30, to conclude the day's activities, there will be pictures; Mr. Amich's way of showing his hobby.

The weekly potluck suppers on Saturday continue to be fitting finale to the week's activities; last week there were 62 attending, representing nine different states. The diners begin gathering shortly after 4:30 for a time of reminissing and getting acquainting, with supper at 5:30 prompt. The evening then is spent at shuffling (weather permitting), cards, or just visiting.

On Saturday night we just about ran out of concrete; every court was taken and by seven o'clock there were some waiting their turn. Even the two new courts were being used, though how they could see to play is a mystery to us. Looks as though we would have to get those lights installed right soon.

The dance Friday evening was well attended; looks as though we have all survived visitations of the "bug" and are rarin' to go. This is the time of year we don't like to see; each week some folk are bidding us farewell for another season.

Our friend, John Glen, who has been with us as an all-year member, leaves this week for Milwaukee, Wisconsin, where he and Mrs. Glen will be with their son. John has been one, if not the most of our active members, taking part in many phases of the club work. To him the club was not just a place to come to be entertained but to help others find enjoyment. He gave of himself unstintingly whether shuffling, dancing, cutting grass, laying blocks, or for the past years, as the Club's Treasurer. His going will leave a place for someone to fill who has the genuine interest of his fellowmen at heart. Step right up, men. We can use some of his calibre.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout week is celebrated each year during the week of March 12 by all the Girl Scouts in the United States. March 12 is the birthday of Scouting in this country and March 12 is Juliette Gordon Lowe Day, who founded the Girl Scouts.

The days of the week are called the Seven Service Days and the girls and the troops try to do something special for each day. The week includes Girl Scout Sunday, Homecoming Day (Monday), Citizenship Day (Tuesday), Health and Safety (Wednesday), International Friendship Day (Thursday), Arts and Crafts Day (Friday) and Out-of-Doors Day (Saturday).

The Girl Scouts of Avon Park attended church on Sunday with their leaders, Mrs. Bob Lee and Mrs. N. H. Booth, at the First Methodist Church or their own church in uniform to start this special week.

On Thursday they will have a special program on International Friendship during their regular meeting. Each girl will bring a penny for each year of her age for the International Friendship Fund. On Saturday, March 15, the Scouts will enjoy an out-of-doors day with a picnic at Highlands Hammock. All during the week the handwork of the troop will be displayed in Eaton's Department Store's window. All residents are reminded to make a special point of noticing this work.

At their regular meeting on Thursday, March 6, the Scouts gave their pledge and were led in song by Sherry Wells with Miss Sally Nute playing the piano.

The leaders lead in a discussion of Girl Scout week and plans were made for the various activities. Betty Pierce was welcombed as a new member and Linda Dobbins, another new member, received her pin and became a Scout. Visitors were Ann Wilson and Linda Simpson. Scout Christine Albritton's mother served the girls refreshments.

First Christian Church News

The First Christian Church was proud to announced that the attandance record was broken for the third Sunday in a row on March 9.

The members feel that the church is growing rapidly and welcome new members or visitors to any or all of their services.

On Sunday afternoon, March 9, John A. Scott, Minister and Mrs. J. A. Sikes and three of her granddaughters, took a special program of music to the residents of the Lemon Grove Rest Haven. They spent the afternoon visiting and entertaining the residents.

Mrs. Beatrice Hughes of Lakeland spent last weekend as the guests of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Tyson.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kempton and their children, Kerry and Walter, left Avon Park at 3 a. m. Sunday morning in order to arrive in Umatilla in time to see the horses go out on the trail at 7 a. m. This was the last day in the competitive trial rides held annually by the Horseman's Association Club and the Kemptons enjoyed lunch on the Association Grounds in Umatilla and stayed for the presentation of awards in the afternoon. Miss Mikel Kempton joined her parents in Orlando and attended the festivities also.

Mrs. Gladys Lindsey and her mother, Mrs. Mabel Shaw of Miami were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whetstone on Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Lindsey is president of the Congregational Church State Women's Council and was attending a gathering at Lake Byrd Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morgan of Miami were the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Riggins, last weekend.

Friends will be happy to know that Mr. M. L. Rogers has returned to his home after a few days in Walker Memorial Hospital and is doing very well.

Mrs. Ruby Alexander and her sisters, Mrs. Cliff Powell and Mrs. Georgie Sapp, went to Claxton, Ga. the first of the week to attend the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Lelia Rogers, of West Palm Beach who was buried in Claxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kull enjoyed a short delightful trip to Naples and Sannibee Islands for several days this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hedrick spent Sunday in Wauchula with Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Druggers, former residents. Classmates and friends will be pleased to know that their son, Wendall, is now an officer in the Coast Guard in Virginia, married, and has a daughter. He was a graduate of Avon Park High School and an outstanding student.

Mr. and Mrs. Hagen Rogers of Lake Worth and Miss Bessie Rogers of Miami were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lee of Pensacola, arrived this week for a few days visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hedrick, and their granddaughter, Kristi. The The Lees are former residents of Avon Park and have many friends here.

Mrs. Lois Hines of Tallahassee was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heim from Friday until Sunday. The Heims took Mrs. Hines fishing in a number of lakes in this area and she was favorably impressed at the number of fish they caught.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, who have lived in Avon Park for the past ten years, are sorry to see them return to their former home in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. David Jones of Utica, N. Y., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wester last week. Mr. and Mrs. Cornell of Key West were also guests of the Westers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reddick and their children, Holly and Candy, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davidson, at their home in Ft Lauderdale. They report the beaches packed with swimmers all day long everyday.

St. Patrick's Day Card Party On March 17

Remember whether you are Irish or not to celebrate St. Patrick's Day by attending the Evening Card Party at the Woman's Club Building on S. Verona Avenue on Monday, March 17, at 8:00 o'clock.

The delightful evening is being sponsored by the members of the Senior Woman's Club and the public is cordially invited to attend. Tickets are 75c per person. There will be prizes for each table and door prizes. Delicious refreshments will be served by the women of the club to all tables.

Any type of card game may be played at the different tables.

Really the City Market has the finest meats in town—lowest prices too.

Brownie Scout Troop News

The calendar for Brownie Scout Troop 3 for the next few weeks will be full of varied activities.

On Thursday afternoon, March 13, the Troop and Den 3 of the Cub Scouts will be taken on a tour of the Telephone Office through the courtesy of Andrew Cuchari, Manager. The next week, March 20, the girls will have a visit to the Fire Station. Mr. Ed Gardner will show the Brownies Radio Station WAVP and Postmaster Doug Perry will escort them through the Post Office on Thursday, March 27.

On Maundy Thursday, April 3, the day before Good Friday, the troop will visit the churches of each of the members and the Brownies belonging to the various churches will show the group through their own church. April 10 will be spent at the Avon Park Library with Miss Avis Slaughter, librarian, who will open the library for the Brownies and give them a talk on the Dewey Decimal System for National Library Week. On April 17 Wayne Albright will show slides of the Western States to the troop. All girls of Troop 3 are urged to keep these interesting meetings in mind and plan to attend each one.

New patrol leaders and assistants were elected at the Saturday, March 8, meeting of the Brownies of Troop 4.

They were Rose Patrol, Gail Chestnutt and Sheryl Runkle; Bluebirds, Patricia Holden and Gwen Garber; Redbirds, Gail Meyer and Reggie Starkey.

One patrol painted liquid soap cans for use as piggy banks at the meeting and the other patrols will do the same at he next meeting. The Brownies who have not painted should wear old clothes to the next meeting so they may do their painting.

Coffee cans were given each Brownie in which they are to put plang and return it to the Brownie Hall to keep and watch its growth. It is urged by the leaders that all persons using the Brownie Hall please do not bother supplies that do not belong to them.

Refreshments were served the group by Mrs. Floyd Wells.

Troop 5 Brownies had the flag ceremony, sang Brownie Songs, and had the Brownie circle at their meeting on Tuesday afternoon, March 4.

The girls played active indoor games and were served refreshments by Mrs. John A. Turner.

A large number of Brownies attended church in their uniforms for National Scout Sunday on March 9.

First Baptist Church News

The Sunday School Class for Boys of Seventeen was entertained with a Buffet Supper at the home of their teacher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Turnbull, on Saturday night, March 8.

The boys and their dates enjoyed a delicious supper and then were entertained with a Treasure Hunt that took them all through Avon Park. The clues were cleverly written and kept the young people very much on their toes trying to followed them. The winning group was Gene Bigbee, Thurston Martin, Guelda Gaster and Mary King.

Other young people present were Preston Strenth, Robert Hall, Wallace Kirkland, Lois Gardner, and Donna Sue Pounds.

Judy Martin, winner in the elimination Sword Drill Contest, in the Church on Sunday night, March 2, represented the local church in the Associational Contest on Monday, March 10. Frankie Smith and Joyce Antley tied for second place in the local contest. Others who took part were Linda McClure and Neal Fentress.

A Training Union Vocational Guidance Week will be held each evening in the church building on March 17 through March 21. This will be an outstanding week and a class and teacher will be provided for every age group. The Rev. D. C. Spillman, Pastor of the First Baptist Church in Lake Placid, will teach the Adult Study Course. The Rev. Aden Childress will teach the Young People and Mrs. E. A. Martin will be the teacher of the Juniors.

Panel On Moral Values At Next PTA Meeting

Character Building and Spiritual Education will be the theme of the meeting of the Avon Park P. T. A. on Thursday, March 20, in the High School Cafetorium.

This all important topic will be discussed by a panel representative of a cross section of the community. Some of the members of the panel will be Robert Barben, Judge Mervin Rehrer, and Mrs. Lena Suggs. Mrs. E. A. Martin will be in charge of the program. The group will discuss the importance of character building and spiritual education in the making of responsible adults.

All parents are interested in their children and it is urged that they show their interest by attending and supporting the P. T. A. This organization is solely to help parents and teachers help children and its programs are designed on this line. The P. T. A. cannot accomplish its purpose without support of the parents and they are urged to make the necessary effort to help the children of the community.

Refreshments will be served by the room mothers of the 8th grade after the meeting.

Employees Club Enjoys Party Sat. Night

The Quarterly Party of Florida Power Employees Club was begun with a delicious covered dish supper in the Clubhouse on Saturday night, March 8.

After the supper the group enjoyed games with clever prizes and an enjoyable evening of fellowship. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sharpe and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harden were hosts for the supper with about fifteen members present.

The door prize was won by Mrs. C. I. Wells. The prize was a lovely vacuum pitcher with glasses to match.

Elem. PTA Meets Tonight

The Avon Elementary PTA meets tonight, March 13, in the Cafetorium on W. Winthrop Street at 8 o'clock.

An outstanding program on the building plans for the new building will be presented. All parents, teachers, and friends are urged to attend. During the business meeting some matters concerning the safety of the children that are vital concern to all parents will be discussed.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting by the teachers and the fourth grade room mothers.

Visitors At Velvet Shores Enjoy Party

The guests at the Velvet Shores Apartments on Lake Lotela enjoyed at Pot Luck Supper on Monday, March 3, to celebrate the return of beautiful weather to sunny Florida.

After a delicious supper an evening of fellowship was enjoyed by the group many of whom have been guests at Velvet Shores for several years.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bridges of Slater, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wharton of Salem, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Willhard Blockson of Terre Haute, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace of Plum Island, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Burgis of Winter Haven who are Mrs. Wharton's brother and sister-in-law, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Dick.

Jacaranda Hotel News

The Palm Room of the hotel has been busy nearly every afternoon lately with a series of delightful card parties. Many hostesses are finding that having dessert served in the lovely dining room and then playing cards in the Palm Room is a good innovation.

The supper for the First Baptist Church Brotherhood and Royal Ambassadors Banquet was prepared by the hotel and served in the Social Hall of the Church on last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Wunder of Chicago were guests at the hotel for a week and have now returned to their home.

Mr. & D. Moffatt of Green Bay, Wis., has arrived to spend the remaining winter months at the Jacaranda.

The Friday Buffet Supper will be served as usual in the Dining Room from 6 until 8 o'clock and the public is invited.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY.

...ture rule and Statesmanship, ...ature has been violated. ...ature pledge will be ...violated.

...ts behalf of the nation, ...ature will be overcome, ...ted remarks. "We want ...it."

...the name think, members of the Florida legislature will ...shouting "The Legislative ...ature has been violated." ...reply translated, this means, "We were robbed."

This alleged legislative larceny comes about in actions of the Budget Commission—the State Cabinet—in deciding what projects will get top billing under the strained financial situation the state finds itself in this year.

Since all the House members and half of the Senate face election in the September primaries, they will want some concrete proof of their accomplishments before that date.

One of the better ways to prove their effectiveness is to point to building projects or other appropriations for their constituents.

Under the present financial situation, it is apparent that something is going to be lopped off the work schedule to bring appropriations in line with income.

That simply means that some legislators are going to be facing the voters trying to explain why it was the project for "Good Ole Podunk County."

The logical answer, of course, is that the Budget Commission—or better still for campaign purposes—That bunch up in Tallahassee—violated "legislative intent."

Of course, the bad weather and business slump in recent months also will serve as a handy out. "Cut down on the money available—so we couldn't get around to it this year."

In many cases, these will be valid arguments. There certainly are cases where "legislative intent" has been and will be violated, and, of course, there is little argument that bad weather and economic conditions will cause delay on some projects.

But . . . and it's a big one . . . the Legislature can't shift all the blame to "that bunch up in Tallahassee."

When it called it quits in June, the Legislature had appropriated some $707,000,000. It had provided taxes to bring in an estimated $680,000,000—or $26,000,000 less than appropriations.

This is something like the fellow that drives the car 95 miles an hour: "Lots of folks get killed doing this, but not me," he mumbles.

The legislators, although apparently aware of the danger, went home thinking, "Something's going to get chopped, but not the project for 'Good Ole Podunk County.'"

This brings us to a pretty good definition of "legislative intent." To wit:

"I want the folks to get this project, but I don't want to make them mad by raising taxes any more than we already have."

With the slump in sales taxes, the cutbacks by the Budget Commission will probably be more severe than originally anticipated . . . and the wails of anguish will probably be heard more frequently.

But, the voter has to assume some responsibility. After all, unless he was willing to share the additional tax load to take care of the extra services, he should not beef too much at his representatives who had to gamble on putting projects in the appropriation bill without sufficient money to cover the cost.

In past years, this gamble has paid off as Florida's booming economy jumped ahead at a rate faster than anticipated, and provided the extra money.

but this year, the gamble apparently will not pay off . . . and the "legislative intent" will be violated.

Jim Walter Corp. Now Located On Highway 27 South

The Jim Walter Corporation, the world's largest builder of shell homes, have moved into their new office on U. S. Highway 27, South, just three blocks south of the Mall. They were formerly located on Highway 27 north. The firm invites the public to visit them in their new location, where model homes are on display.

Manager Yates of the Avon Park office will be glad to discuss with those who contemplate building a home the advantage and the low cost of building a home.

Homes of one, two and three bedrooms are being built and this firm can save the home owners hundreds of dollars in finance charges. Designs for homes built by Jim Walter are complete in every detail except the interiors which you can easily finish yourself at a savings of approximately 70 per cent. Before you build, see the designs of the Jim Walter Homes, and check the cost of same against any figures offered by other builders.

Service Held Sunday For Mrs. Alice Cornell

Mrs. Alice J. Cornell passed away at Walker Memorial Hospital early Thursday morning, March 6. She was a native of Allegan, Mich. and came to Avon Park eight years ago from Huntington, W. Va.

Mrs. Cornell was a retired nurse, and a member of the Congregational Church. She is survived by her brother, C. H. Jeffers, Avon Park.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Congregational Church with The Rev. Herbert D. Graetz officiating. Interment in the Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Pallbearers were R. J. Rutherford, P. C. Boney, Bobby Harden, Neal Sellars, L. D. Roberts and William Bennett.

Mizelle Funeral Home of Avon Park was in charge of the arrangements.

Highway Philosophy

By Trooper Bill

If you can't take a curve on the street while walking without getting shook up, you'd certainly better watch trying to round one fast in a car.

Cheer up, friend motorist! Sunshine and warm weather are bound to return. It's income tax return time again, and folks getting hot under the collar to help some.

Until an accident happens to you, it means little or nothing. Sorta like old age. We never appreciate youth until the hammer falls.

It's funny that way. Any woman can put a piece of number 8 thread right through the eye of a rusty needle. But watch that girl when she points an automobile at a garage door 15 feet wide.

He took a curve
dangerously sharp;
Look, Gabriel's handing him a harp!

Lifesaving advice from Florida Highway Patrol Comdr. H. N. Kirkland: You've got no place on the highway unless you're a good driver. There's only one of you . . . but think of the others you might maim or kill.

Mercury Outboards Set New World Endurance Record!

The most grueling endurance test in outboard history! A distance equal to twice around the world in 68¾ days of 24-hour-a-day driving, with routine service such as changes of spark plugs and ignition points! The run was continuous except for pit stops designated in official records, and for complete tear-down inspection and reassembly under United States Auto Club direction at the 25,000-mile mark.

That's the amazing feat recorded by two 60 h.p. Mercury Mark 75 outboards, each powering a family runabout in the equivalent of 20 years and more of average outboarding! The run was timed and supervised by the USAC, around a certified surveyed course on a Florida lake.

It was farther than any marine power plant of any type had ever gone in history in this short a time.

Carl Kiekhaefer, president of Kiekhaefer Corporation, says this endurance test was made for one purpose: "To prove Mercury safe and dependable for long distance family cruising. We never ask the public to experiment when they buy a Mercury. Nor do we make claims of performance and dependability for any model or new engineering feature without facts to back them up—facts gained through thousands of test hours.

Here's convincing proof that Mercury in-line design—in twins, fours, and sizes—is your most dependable, biggest outboarding value. You owe yourself a demonstration.

Florida's Sign Of Spring

One of nature's signs of spring in Florida is the show put on by the red maple in the hammocks, in the lowlands and along the water courses.

This abundant maple which may be seen in many of Florida's State parks is bearing its fruit now. The red or scarlet fruit is commonly called a winged fruit by the layman and a samara by the botanist.

This tree has also been called the "Confederate maple" because the smooth bark is the gray colour of the Confederate uniform and the flaming fruit corresponds to the colour of the officer's sash and the battle flag

Wrestle Royal To Feature Five Girls At Armory

Wrestling fans were so very pleased with the five girl wrestle royal held by Promoter "Cowboy" Luttrall at the Avon Park National Guard Armory a few weeks ago that Cowboy has matched another five girl royal to headline his all-star wrestling card for Thursday, March 13th. Girls competing in the royal will be Miss Barbara Baker, Miss Ella Waldek, Miss Frankie Moore, Miss Corine Cordero, and Miss China Mira. All five girls will start out in the ring at one time. The first girl pinned will be eliminated from action for the rest of the evening. The second and third girls pinned will return to wrestle in a single match. The last two girls will return to wrestle to determine who is the winner of the battle royal. Cowboy Luttrall will present the winner of the Royal with a bonus of $50.00.

A match between two top heavy weights will complete this all-star wrestling card. Billy Parks, a speedy Canadian grappler, will tangle with former Junior Mr. of the Confederacy.

It is a contrary tree inasmuch as most trees, including all other maples, flower in the spring and bear fruit in the fall. However, this maple flowers in the fall and bears its fiery fruit in the spring.

"All of Florida's State parks have beautiful woodlands and from now on throughout the next few months they will be well worth visiting", said Director Emmett L. Hill.

"The nature trails in them will be particularly delightful not merely because of the trees, flowers and shrubs, but because of the birds and other forms of wildlife", said Mr. Hill. "The red-bud is starting to bloom and the dogwood will soon open. At Killearn Gardens at Tallahassee the azaleas are now starting to bloom".

Glee Club Enters District Contest Mar. 15

Members of the Avon Park Glee Club will attend the District Contest in Bradenton on Saturday, March 15. Students will be accompanied by Mrs. Virgil Hall, music teacher, and will make the trip by bus.

The thirty-five members of the Glee Club will be entered in the music chorus contest and Bob Ed Church will sing "The Horn" by Flegier in the solo contest.

Approximately ten to fifteen high schools will be represented in the District Contest and those taking first place will be eligible for the State Contest in Tampa in April.

Last Saturday, March 8, Mrs. Hall and twenty-five members of the Glee Club and music students attended the Bach Festival in Winter Park at Rollins College.

One hundred singers made up the chorus and four soloists from New York were featured. The orchestra were players from the Florida Symphony. The major work given was "Mass" in B Minor.

The local students were guests of the college for dinner and were conducted on a tour of the college after the program.

Owners like to give their race horses fancy names, but stable hands take equal delight in thinking up easy-to-pronounce nicknames. One of the top handicap horse at Hialeah is St. Amour 2nd, but around the barn he's known as "Say No More the second."

Rotary News

Marcelino Huerta, Coach at the University of Tampa, gave a very interesting talk to members and guests of the Avon Park Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon meeting held Wednesday, March 5, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Fred Montadeoca introduced Coach Huerta, who referred to the times, he and Fred had while playing on the Gator team at the University of Florida under Coach Wolfe.

Coach Huerta spoke of the importance of athletics, not only in the schools and universities but over the country as a whole and he pointed out that aheletics was a billion dollar industry. He demonstrated this with his own facts and figures, as to the money spent by high schools, universities and sporting good companies.

He stressed the importance of athletics in developing the children, mentally and physically, and how sports create higher interest in all school activities even scholastic. From surveys made in a number of high schools it appeared that attendance and even grades were better during certain sport seasons, football in particular.

Denver Farmer of Lakeland was the guest of Charlie Lanier.

Visiting Rotarians last week included, Hugh E. Jones, Fairmont, W. Va.; Oscar Nelson, Canton, Ill.; Bruce C. Kline, and E. F. Armstrong, Hicksville, Ohio; John P. Cassily, Dover, N. H.; Charles E. Pierce, Westfield, N. Y.; John Blosser, Hicksville, Ohio; Chester Young, Oak Harbor, Ohio; Ross Richardson, Gananoque, Ont.; Glenn Finney, Ithaca, N. Y.; Stan Skillin, Natick, Mass.; Harold Spears, Winter Garden, Fla.; L. M. White, Mexico, Mo.; Clifford C. Ball, Falconer, N. Y. and Jack Stephenson, Sebring.

Pass Tractor Co. Announces 1958 Showing

The Pass Tractor Company in Wauchula announces that a showing of the new 1958 line of Ford Tractors will be on display at their location on U. S. Highway 17 South in Wauchula on Friday and Saturday, March 14-15.

Everyone interested in seeing the new 1958 line of Ford Tractors are invited to see this display.

iliary will be on Monday, April 13, at the home of Mrs. Florence Dunn with Mrs. Heim serving as co-hostess.

Housewarming For Coffee Club Member

The members of the Friday morning Coffee Club gave Mrs. John Townsend a pleasant surprise when they gathered for coffee at her new home in the Avon Vista Development on the Bombing Range Road last Friday morning, March 7.

The guests came laden with gifts for the Townsend's new home and a plesant time was had while the surprised hostess opened them. A conducted tour of the lovely new home was the highlight of the morning.

Mrs. Townsend served her guests coffee and cake and a pleasant morning of conversation followed. Guests were Frances Martin, Shirley Franza, Frances Hooper, Josie McDaniels, Mikey Whetstone, Mary King, Winnie Tish, Theda Miracle, Elizabeth Kempton, Velma Lee and Katie Rehrer.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Meeting At Stewart Home

The American Legion Auxiliary held their regular monthly meeting on Monday night, March 10, at the home of Mrs. Ben Stewart.

The Auxiliary held an open discussion on community service with all members taking part and giving their views about this subject. No definite plans were formulated at the meeting.

Mrs. P. C. Boney, Welfare Chairman, reported on the work the group has been doing for child welfare and various other worthy persons.

Three cards were sent during the month to members who were ill.

Mrs. Ruby Heim, president, appointed Mrs. Alice Sherman Chairman of the Nominating Committee for new officers. Mrs. Margaret Stewart and Mrs. Florence Dunn will assist her on this committee.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Stewart, to the members present.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be on Monday, April 13, at the home of Mrs. Florence Dunn with Mrs. Heim serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. John Townsend Elected President Of Sr. Woman's Club

Mrs. Samuel Norris lead the members of the Avon Park Senior Woman's Club in a minute of reverence and devotional inspiration at their meeting on Friday afternoon, March 6, in the Women's Club Building.

Mrs. E. A. Teppert and Mrs. A. M. Luyben were welcomed as new members into the club by Mrs Ralph Kelley, the president.

During the reading of reports from the various groups the Library Committee reported that $223.12 has been realized by the recent Library Silver Tea. Another report showed that the five groups of the club had contributed $284.02 to the general fund. Mrs. Kelley commented on the wonderful work of these women and thanked them graciously for their untiring efforts in the club's behalf.

Two important recommendations from the Executive Board were read to the members and passed by their votes. They were 1 - The increase of the yearly donation to the Avon Park Library Committee Fund from $50 to $100; and 2 - The empowering of the Library Committee to take whatever steps necessary and possible to obtain an increase in the salary of the librarian. The club feels that the work of the librarian has been of such great value to Avon Park.

New shades have been purchased for the clubhouse by the committee consisting of Dr. Ruth Phillips, Mrs. Paul Reitzner and Mrs. Ethel Harden. The members were very pleased with the result of their work.

Further plans were made for the St. Patrick's Day Card Party on Monday, March 17, in the Clubhouse at 7:30. Mrs. Samuel Elkhill said that any card games may be played and their will be door and table prizes. Mrs. Cecil Ogden, Ticket Chairman, announced that the price of the tickets will be 75c.

Mrs. Charles Shepherd read the members a timely article on the possibility of setting up a Child Welfare Division in Lake County. The main purpose of this move would be to eliminate the overlapping of state committees and facilitate a better and more efficient child welfare program. Mrs. Shepherd asked members to bear in mind the usefullness of such a division and to be forming their opinions on this subject.

Dr. Ruth Phillips spoke on the local situation in Avon Park instead of her usual report on National News. She urged all members to attend the C. D. A. meetings and help in making plans for a better community. The short talk on community affairs was eagerly received by the members and each individuals responsibility to their community was stressed.

Mrs. Samuel Norris of the Nominating Committee presented a worthy slate of officers for the coming year and they were unanimously elected by the club. The new officers are Mrs. John Townsend, President; Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, 1st Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Samuel Elkhill, 2nd Vice-Pres.; Mrs. Ralph Kelley, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Paul Erickson, Treasurer; Mrs. E. A. Teppert, Corresponding Sec.; and Mrs. Charles Kink El-Day, Registar.

Miss Carol Beck of Highlands Hammock State Park was presented by Mrs. Charles Shepherd, the program chairman. Miss Beck showed slides of the various state parks and gave an interesting talk on the beauty spots of Florida.

The next meeting of the Senior Club will be on Friday, April 11, at 2 o'clock instead of April 3 which is Good Friday.

Mrs. Kelley adjourned the meeting with thanks to the outstanding speaker.

Seventh Day Adventist News

On Thursday night, March 6, the Pathfinders, a group of children from the age of 9 to 15, of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, met with their leader Mrs. Helen Richardson, in the Recreation Room of Walker Memorial Hospital.

They are enthusiastically starting work on a booth on Civil Defense to be exhibited at the Annual Camp Meeting this year.

The Missionary Volunteers were the guests at a supper party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Carlson on Saturday night, March 8.

Twenty young people and their leader, Robert Werry, enjoyed the delicious supper and the indoor and outdoor games that followed.

The topics which W. C. Arnold, Pastor, will discuss at his next meeting of the lecture series are "Why Are There So Many Denominations" on Wednesday; "What is the Unpardonable Sin" on Friday; and on Saturday morning "Is Church Membership Necessary For Salvation?" These lectures are covering a variety of subjects and the public is cordially invited to attend any or all of them. The lectures are covering a variety of subjects and the public is cordially invited to attend any or all of them. The lectures are held in the Capel at Walker Memorial Hospital.

Pastor Arnold's topic on Sunday evening, March 9, was "Who Changed the Sabbath"? "Many of the worlds ills are the result of forgetting the first four words of the Holy Scriptures and when folks are not willing to accept God's truth He sends strange delusions, according to Thes. 10-12. Pastor Arnold traced the original Sabbath and told of the gradual change to Sunday during the early Christian years.

Elder W. L. Mazart and his family of Orlando will be guests at the W. C. Arnold home next weekend. Elder Mazart will speak in the Sebring Adventist Church at 11 o'clock on Saturday, March 15. He is the Home Missionary and Sabbath School Secretary of the Florida Conference of Adventist Churches.

Over $141 million in road and bridge construction projects were underway in the state during January, according to a monthly progress report issued recently by Wilbur E. Jones, Chairman of the State Road Department.

Congregational Church News

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the church had a picnic supper in Highlands Hammock on Sunday evening, March 2 with their leader, G. M. Whetstone.

About twenty young people and their guests enjoyed the weiner supper and explored the Hammock. After supper the group played games in the recreation hall to complete a delightful evening. The Rev. Herbert Graetz also accompanied the group.

The Pilgrim Fellowship meets each Sunday night at 7 o'clock in the Educational Building and is open to all young from the church.

The first meeting of the Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church was held on Monday, March 3, with over 100 women present in the new Educational Building.

A delicious luncheon was prepared by the Ladies Aid for the women, and the women of the Evening Circle served the meal. After the meeting the women to the Covenant Circle washed the dishes as their effort toward the successful first gathering.

Mrs. John Jockinsen, President of the Women's Fellowship Council, welcomed the ladies and introduced Mrs. Grace Lindsay, President of the State Women's Group. Mrs. Lindsay welcomed the officers of the group and explained their duties.

Mrs. John A. Pickens spoke on the relationship of the local women to the national and work, church and the purpose of the Woman's Gift which was given at that time.

The meeting was closed with a prayer and plans will be made for another meeting in several months.

The Covenant Circle will hold its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 19, in Fellowship Hall. Coffee hour at 1:30, business meeting at 2 o'clock for annual election of officers.

All ladies of the church and winter visitors are invited to attend this meeting.

Episcopal Church News

The Lenten Luncheon of the St. Mary's Altar Guild of the Church of the Redeemer served over one hundred people in the Parish House on Wednesday March 5.

The members of the Guild wish to thank all those who attended and who helped with the luncheon. They are happy to announce it was a success and will help the Altar Guild carry on its work.

"Whispering Pines"

Mile North of SEBRING

IN HEART OF ACTIVITY

Large Frontage on West Side of U.S. Highway 27, Main North-South Route and Central Florida—Maine to Miami

Due to an unusually cold and windy day, February 19, when an auction was scheduled for this property, it was postponed to this new date by request of the large crowd that attended the auction and were enthusiastic in securing lots. The new date is in the same week of the Florida International Grand Prix of Endurance Sports Car Races in Sebring—so plan accordingly. Also, due to the extra expense incurred in conducting the additional sale, this auction will be held regardless of weather on the property on this date.

These are all good size lots including large frontage on the highway which is one of the most heavily travelled highways in the State of Florida. Highway 27-98 is the main North-South route through Central Florida and U.S. 27 runs all the way from Maine to Miami.

There are many beautiful pines on the lots and the lay of ground is high and dry, with gentle slope, perfect and ready for building homes, and commercial buildings with income potential. Many choice pieces of business including a Howard Johnson's Restaurant and fine modern motels and other businesses are between Sebring and "WHISPERING PINES." The section of Highway 27 between the "Pines" and Avon Park, a scant 7 miles away, is building up rapidly. You have transportation, and school bus service on highway to serve this property—also electricity. This is a wonderful opportunity for those investors who desire choice business locations. Also beautiful homesites are also desirable for builders—in modern attractive subdivision. Do not confuse this with cheaper properties. BUY ONE OR MORE OF THESE VALUABLE LOTS FOR YOUR PRESENT OR FUTURE NEEDS. The subdivision enjoys new surface streets, approved by the County.

Auction conducted regardless of weather on the premises. Come early and inspect the property closely—buy the lots of your choice.

Representatives will be on grounds Sunday and Monday, March 16 and 17, from 1:00 to 5:00 P.M.—on Tuesday, March 18, day of Auction, after 10:00 A.M.

New-home buyers in 1958 will be the most careful shoppers since the end of World War II, on the lookout for signs of quality construction. Use of such quality materials as quarry and ceramic tile in bathrooms and kitchens will play an increasingly important role in convincing the prospective home buyer to buy.

Senior Class Honored With Buffet Supper

The Senior Class of the Avon Park High School was honored with a Buffet Supper in the Dining Room of the Jacaranda Hotel on Friday, March 7, after the last presentation of the Senior Play.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Metcalfe and Chuck Metcalfe were hosts to all the seniors for the delicious supper. The main table was decorated with red and white carnations and individual tables were fixed for the guests around the Dining Room. Mr. and Mrs. Royal Coates graciously assisted the hosts with the serving and arrangements. Also helping with the party were Mrs. Vernon Lanier, Mrs. Julia Holcombe, and Miss Cindy Metcalfe.

After supper the guests enjoyed dancing to the music of a hi-fi recorder. There were about seventy-five boys and girls at the buffet. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilhite, Mr. and Mrs. John Crittenden, Mr. and Mrs. Devon Reddick, Mrs. Annabelle Worden, Mrs. Lena Suggs, and Mrs. Jane Hall were also present for the supper.

resources may enrich your life—to learn how you may help to expand and improve its many valuable services." Each organization, alone or working with others and with community libraries, may observe the occasion with appropriate ceremonies. Talks on books and reading; films, group discussions, displays, local news articles and radio and TV programs will help make communities more aware of the value of books and ideas.

Adequate library service for the citizens of Florida is plank number 1 of the action program of the PTA. Would this be a good time for the Reading and Library committee to study community assets and consider means for improvement? School administrators are eager to work for better school libraries. Where no public libraries exist the extension department of the State Library at Tallahassee will provide information and personnel for assistance in public library development. By working with public library personnel and library boards means of community service may often be worked out. Sometimes volunteer assistance for story hours, adult discussion groups, filing, typing, displays, etc. is of more value to a library than a gift of money.

A library means service to its people. Encouragement of reading and better use of books is appropriate any time but, National Library Week, March 16-22 is a special time for added emphasis. What can you do?

Walter Mandis Completes Cattle Breeding Course

Walter Mandis, of Mandis Stock Farm has returned from a two week school for the American Breeder's Association in Indianapolis, Indiana.

During this time he attended classes taught by outstanding professors in the field of Animal Husbandry from Purdue University and did practice work with a large herd. The most modern and satisfactory methods of artificial breeding for beef and dairy herds were studied at the school.

Mr. Mandis has been working several years in the field of artificial breeding and doing extensive study for the last six months. The school training was another step in his work to efficiently produce better dairy and beef cattle.

Upon completion of the course for the American Breeder's Association Mr. Mandis is a qualified technician and will use these modern methods of artificial breeding on his dairy and beef herds and later may work with other herds.

Chamber Extends Cordial Welcome To Racing Fans

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce is displaying a cordial welcome to racing fans with a very colorful overhead highway sign at the entrance to the Mall. In the Mall a cut out of a racing car and driver in color greets the visitors and extends to them an invitation to call on the Chamber for any assistance they may need. Flags and sports cars have also been displayed in the store windows of the business firms who are a member of the Chamber and who voiced their desire to have their windows decorated.

WAVP, local Radio station as a public service, is giving spot announcements, calling all cars to Avon Park for a "pleasant stay. And asking the fans to contact the Chamber of Commerce for aid or assistance during the Grand Prix.

The work on the first displays sponsored by the Chamber is being done by Bud Worden and Bill Hood., and it is hoped that the racing fans will make use of the lists and other information which the Chamber has collected for them.

Commission Is Checking Rates This Week

Florida Hotel and Restaurant Commission personnel will be in force in the Sebring area this week checking public lodging businesses for excessive rate charging, according to Michael O'Brien, area supervisor.

Maximum rates each of the businesses can charge have been supplied O'Brien by the Tallahassee office of the Commission. Inspectors will circulate throughout the Sebring area during the Grand Prix racing event to ascertain none of the businesses are charging in excess of the lawful amount.

Each business, according to law, can charge any rate it so desires. This rate, however, must be on file in the Commission's Tallahassee office a minimum of five days before the said rate is put into practice. The maximum rates must also be posted in each room of the establishment.

If any lodging concern is found asking more than the legal amount, charges can be filed resulting in a fine or even the revocation of the business's license.

The action of the Commission is a result of reported incidents occurring during the last Grand

12-Hour Grand Prix Of Endurance For The Amoco Trophy, Saturday

French driving ace Jean Behra looms as the man to beat in the Florida International 12-hour sports car race at Sebring, Saturday, March 22.

Behra won the race in a Maserati last year, co-driving with world road racing champion Juan Manuel Fargio.

Berha will be driving a smaller Porsche, only 1600 cubic centimeter displacement, with Edgar Barth as co-driver.

Last year, Behra and Fangio chalked up a new record of 85.4 miles an hour traveling 1,024.4 miles in the 12-hour span, 197 times around the 5.2-mile winding, twisting, flat course.

However, it was Behra alone who established the new course speed record, a mark many drivers will be shooting at Saturday, 91.54 miles an hour.

The Frenchman, just to prove it was more than luck, did it twice, amazingly turning the course in the identical time of three minutes and 24.5 seconds on laps number 20 and 27, at the 104 and 148-mile posts.

APHS Glee Club Receives Superior Rating In District Contest

The Avon Park High School Glee Club received Superior Ratings in all phases of the District Contest which was held in Bradenton on Saturday, March 15. This is the first time that Avon Park has received such honors and the first time that they had entered a mixed chorus in the District Contest.

Mrs. Jane Hall, Glee Club Director, reports that this first division rating received for sight reading and concert numbers now qualifies the Glee Club to enter the State Contest which will be held in Tampa April 18 and 19.

In the District contest Saturday Bob Ed Church received an Excellent Rating for his solo "The Horn".

The judges who were from the University of Florida and Florida State each gave the local Glee Club a Superior Rating. They were very impressed with the fact that this was the first year the local school had entered a mixed chorus and that such a young organization could walk away from the District Contest with such honors. It is hoped that this will mark the beginning of an outstanding Glee Club for our school.

Avon Park High School was one of the four schools to receive this top rating, and it is hoped that they can return from the State Contest with the same honors.

E. M. Ladrie Is Scheduled To Visit Spain

U. S. Sixth Fleet (FHTNC)—Elliott M. Ladrie, electrician's mate second class, USN, son of Mrs. Elisabeth M. Ladrie of 63 E. Wolf St., Avon Park, Fla., is taking part in two weeks of flight operations with NATO's Southern Europe Naval Striking and Support Forces in the Mediterranean aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Saratoga.

Association For Retarded To Meet Monday

The Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children will meet Monday, March 24 at 7:30 p. m. at the Ridge Area Day School, King's Court, Avon Park. All members and persons interested in the problems of the retarded are invited to attend the meeting. Plans for the next school year, including the possibility of the transfer of the school to Sebring, will be formulated.

At present the Ridge Area Day School has an enrollment of 12; five from Highlands County, six from Hardee, and one from DeSoto. Applications for 2 other children from Hardee County are being processed for entry this month. Most of these children have never attended school before, and are showing remarkable progress. It is hoped that a few of the children will be able to enter regular school next year.

The Ridge Area Day School is sponsored jointly by the Highlands and Hardee Boards of Public Instruction and the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children. The Boards pay the salary of the teacher and supplement the funds raised privately by the RAARC. The fund drive for the RAARC will be held in April and May to insure operation of the school next year. It is expected that support from Hardee County will be withdrawn since the Board of Public Instruction there anticipates inaugurating a school of its own in either Wauchula or Zolfo Springs next year.

Chamber Receives Extra $25 Award On Fair Booth

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce received an extra $25.00 award from the Highlands County Fair Association for keeping the community booth attractive and clean throughout the duration of the fair.

This award is in addition to the $75 scooped prize the Chamber won previously in the community booth division.

The Lake Placid booth, first place winner, also received an additional $25 for montages of their booth. The judges decided to award these prizes to the two booths as both were kept in perfect condition throughout the fair.

A motion by Commissioner Tubbs that the sale of all alcoholic beverages on Sunday be stopped as suggested by the Grand Jury died at the regular meeting of the Board Tuesday morning for the want of a second.

Other business conducted by the Board of County Commissioners included the approval of Units 41, 42 and 43 of the Avon Park Lakes Development, subject to the approval of the County Clerk, Attorney and R. E. Miller's. The following subdivisions were also approved by the Board subject to the approvals, Wallace Stevens Sub.; Sylva Shores, Sub., Section C.; Lake View Village Sub.; plat of Lake June Vista Sub.

The Board voted to accept the bid of Lake Placid Cleaning and Construction Inc., for moving of fill dirt at Sleepy Hollow Road, at 35c per cu. yd., not to exceed $3,000. Payment in full to be made upon completion and acceptance as per contract.

The Commissioners instructed the Clerk to advertise the used stove, hot water heater from the old jail for sale and other kitchen equipment from the old jail for sale and also to advertise for the removal of steel from the old jail. The Board also ordered that a typewriter desk be purchased for the use of the assistant registration in the addressograph room.

The board accepted a petition and adopted a resolution declaring a road in Section 9, township 36, range 28.

A petition was accepted and the Board adopted a resolution declaring a portion of Sylvan Lake Drive and authorized publishing of notice.

A resolution to the following effect was passed, naming a street of Sun Trail, Youth Lake Subdivision.

The Commissioners agreed to carry over the 1957-58 priority list to 59-60 and to request the Florida Development Commission and Highlands County to complete the orders not during the 1958-59 year.

The Board agreed to write the radio frequency assignment, so that radio equipment could be installed in county school cars, trucks, etc.

Straw In An Ill Wind

If a bill now proposed in the Congress becomes law, the present system of unemployment compensation will be almost completely federalized.

The mechanics and mathematics involved are somewhat complicated. But the principle at stake is simple enough. Arbitrary federal standards would be imposed on the state unemployment compensation laws. And the states would be forced to pay far greater unemployment benefits, and for a longer period of time.

One result of that would be to add more fuel to the fires of inflation—at a time when the cost-of-living index has been steadily going up despite a decline in general business activity. For example, under the existing system, retailers and certain other businesses commonly enjoy low unemployment tax rates, for the reason that they stabilize their own employment. The heavy drain the proposed new law would impose on state unemployment compensation funds would mean the end of such favorable experience ratings. Inevitably, the higher cost would be paid by consumers.

In the view of a spokesman for the American Retail Federation, this "represents a deliberate attempt to increase the power of the Federal Government over the state unemployment compensation laws." Dollars-and-cents considerations to one side, the growth of federal power at the expense of the rights and obligations of the states has become one of the most critical problems the nation faces. The proposed new law is one more straw in an ill wind.

"The Most Over-Regulated Industry"

The hearings held by the Senate Subcommittee on Surface Transportation, in which expert witness after expert witness told of the deteriorating railroad situation and the reasons for it, attracted an unusual amount of national attention. And that attention was thoroughly deserved—for the railroads are a basic industry, absolutely essential to the life of this country, and their economic health is of direct importance to us all.

Senator Smathers of Florida is chairman of the subcommittee. In a television appearance he came to the crux of the railroads' trouble in a single sentence: "It's not an exaggeration to say that the railroad industry is undoubtedly the most over-regulated industry that there is in the United States today."

Excessive regulation, which is a hangover from old times when railroads had a near-monopoly of the commercial transportation business, has become a strait-jacket. A railroad, for instance, is often denied the right to reduce charges in order to meet competition from other carriers and to attract more business. Thus it can't make the most of its inherent advantages. Then, to make a bad matter worse, railroads are forced to operate passenger trains for which there is virtually no need or demand, at enormous losses.

This isn't a question of giving the railroads special rights and privileges of any kind. It is a question of allowing the railroads —and all the other carriers—to compete on a fair and equitable basis for the business. If that becomes the rule, the business will go to whatever carrier can do the job most efficiently and economically—and every shipper will benefit.

Garden Club News

FOUNDER'S CIRCLE

Numerous arrangements of beautiful spring flowers filled the rooms of Mrs. H. C. Wright's gracious home at Pinecrest for the meeting of Founder's Circle of the Avon Park Federated Garden Clubs on Thursday afternoon, March 13.

A report by the Civic Committee concerning the Picnic Table on Lake Verona was given during the business meeting. The Committee has planted thirty-six beautiful azaleas bushes on either side of a path leading to the table. These plants add greatly to the beauty of the spot and the lakeside. Mrs. W. C. Touchton gave the plants.

Mrs. Shepherd, president, announced that the Annual Short Course of the Garden Clubs will be held in Gainesville on June 24, 25, and 26. The club voted to honor Mrs. M. C. Kayton of Wauchula, District Director, with a donation towards a life membership in the State Federation of Garden Clubs.

Important dates for members to remember are April 17, 18, 19, as they are the days of the State Convention in Tampa. Founder's Circle will be represented by the incoming president and program chairman at this convention. These officers will also represent the circle at the President Conference in Haines City in May.

Mrs. D. M. Ellis read the report of the nominating committee and it was accepted by the club. Mrs. Ernest A. Shepherd, President; Mrs. Frank Love, Vice-president and program chairman with Mrs. C. C. Seiffert as Co-chairman of the Program committee; Mrs. C. F. Lanier, Secretary; Mrs. B. C. Ostling, Treasurer; and C. R. Pixler, historian.

Mrs. W. W. Hendrickson, of Jacksonville, State Bird Chairman, was introduced by Mrs. Earl Hartt, Conservation Chairman. She gave a very interesting informative talk on our native birds and their habits. She also stated that the Everglades will again be flooded to save wildlife and that Governor Collins has accepted the Conservation Committee's report on the boundaries of the Everglades. This will be gratifying to all bird and nature lovers of the state.

Delicious refreshments were served the members by the hostess, Mrs. Wright and co-hostess, Mrs. James A. Johnson.

HIBISCUS CIRCLE

Plans for the landscaping of the Hillcrest Nursing home were discussed with much accomplishment during the meeting of Hibiscus Circle of the Avon Park Federated Gardens Clubs at the home of Mrs. P. C. Boney on Thursday afternoon, March 13.

A tea will be given for the members of Hibiscus Circle and the residents of Hillcrest on Monday, March 31, from 3:30 until 4:30 at the home. At this time the first shade tree for the proposed landscaping project will be planted. Also on that day each circle member will bring some plants, shrubs, blubs, etc. for planting in a varied flower bed by the patio of the home. It is planned to start the project in this fashion and build from there with the residents of Hillcrest and members of Hibiscus Circle working together. Mrs. Mervin Rehrer is chairman of the tea and Mrs. P. C. Boney is Chairman of the planting committee.

Mrs. George Kelsey read the report of the nominating committee. It was as follows: Mrs. T. J. Ward, president; Mrs. Charles Kempton, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Kelley, Secretary; Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, treasurer; and Mrs. Richard Thayer, Historian. The members of the circle accepted this slate for their new officers.

Richard Thayer showed the colored slides of their recent trip to the West Indies. The colored slides were very lovely and the highpoint for the members was the many beautiful pictures of gardens and homes on the islands. The gardens were symphonies of magnificient color and a joy to behold.

Mrs. Robert Pries won a dainty dwarf azalea in the plant drawing.

The hostess, Mrs. Boney, and co-hostess, Mrs. Richard Thayer, served ice cream and cake with of ver Easter Biddy favors for each member. A large group was present for the meeting and there were four visitors to the circle.

Retired Teachers Hear Dr. Eyman, Pres. Of Fla. Assn.

Nine retired school teachers of Highlands County were privileged to hear Dr. Ralph L. Eyman of Tallahassee president of the State Association of Retired Teachers, in the Sebring High School Library on Friday afternoon, March 14.

Dr. Eyman is making a "good-will" tour of the state so he can become better acquainted with the retired teachers and thus be even better qualified to help them with their problems. He is making an effort to contact all retired teachers in the state.

During his interesting speech Dr. Eyman outlined the history of the legislation in behalf of retired teachers and mentioned some furture plans that would benefit this group. The possibility of having some sort of housing facilities for retired teachers was discussed to see what need there might be for this type of project. Then the group discussed their Health Insurance Policies.

There are sixteen retired teachers in Highlands County at the present time. The State Association is their only group organization. This organization is for the teachers who retired while teaching in the schools of Florida only.

Congregational Church News

The Ladies Aid of the church held its regular monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 12, with a Covered Dish Luncheon in the Educational Building.

Mrs. John Erickson gave the devotional message to the forty ladies present.

Mrs. Samuel Norris, President, presided over the business meeting and the group voted a donation to the Women's Fellowship Council for their use. The two stoves that the Ladies Aid has bought for the Educational Building were also discussed.

The group voted to continue selling the scrubbing utensils and to add collapsible shopping bags to the sale. Mrs. Helen Baker is in charge of this project. Anyone wishing to get these articles should contact Mrs. Baker.

Plans for the Annual Fish Fry on March 27 at Lake Byrd Lodge were completed. The ladies of the group will cook and serve for this large gathering.

The last session of the current School of Religion will be held at the church on Tuesday morning, March 25. These worthwhile lectures have been held each Tuesday morning for a number of weeks and have reached many people.

The Rev. Herbert Graetz will complete his study on "The Gospel According to St. Mark" and Dr. Ruth Phillips will concluded her lectures on Civilization in the Mediterranean World.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

After the Sunday, March 23, 9 and 11 o'clock services in the church cards will be issued to all those planning to attend the Annual Fry at Lake Byrd Lodge on Thursday, March 27. There will be two servings at the fish fry, one at 5:30 and one at 6:30.

It will help the Ladies Aid, who will cook and serve the meal, if those who are planning to attend will get a card and designate the time they will eat.

Please remember to do this and be sure and attend this outstanding annual event.

Mr. Gene Gorman will speak to the Men's Fellowship Group on "Life With A Circus During the Heyday of the Big Top" at its next meeting in the Educational Building on Tuesday, March 25.

All men of the church are invited to enjoy the supper meeting and the interesting program.

The Evening Circle will hold its regular monthly meeting on Monday night, March 24, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. John Jockinsen on Tulane Circle with Mrs. Andrew Miracle serving as cohostess.

All members of the circle are urged to attend this meeting.

First Baptist Church News

The Fidelis Sunday School Class members and their husbands enjoyed a Covered Dish Supper and Party in the Social Hall on Tuesday evening, March 11.

As the couples entered the men were given a word and the women were given a meaning. Each person had to match his word with the meaning and the resulting couples were partners for the evening's activities. They ate together and were partners in the games later.

During the delicious supper the guests and members were given mystery problems to solve by certain clues that were shown them. After supper the men left and the members held their business meeting.

The group made plans for another party to be held soon honoring the associate members and all husbands.

Mrs. Elmer Fentress gave the devotional message "The Master Comes and Calleth For Thee".

After a very pleasant evening the group adjourned.

Three excellent courses are being taught during Vocational Guidance Week from March 17-21. Mrs. E. A. Martin is teaching "When I Grow Up" for the Juniors", The Intermediates and Young People will have "Christ is My Career" by the Rev. A. D. Childress, and Rev. D. C. Spillman will teach the Adults "God Calls Me." These will meet each evening at 7:15.

The Vocational Guidance Program on Friday night will be followed by a Social Hour in the Social Hall.

Training Union meets each Sunday evening at 6:15 in the Church. There are classes for everyone and all members and friends are invited to enjoy this time.

A Detective Party delighted the boys and girls of the Junior Training Union on Saturday night, March 15, in the Social Hall.

The room was set up as a detective school and lab and the group had enjoyable instruction in "How to be a Detective in Ten Easy Lessons." About fifty members and guests received this instruction and are now full-fledged sleuths.

Refreshments were ice cream sundaes of each guests choice and desire.

Mrs. Aden Childress, Junior Director, was assisted by the sponsors and leaders of the various unions. They were Mrs. Sam King, Mrs. E. A. DeLaney, Jr., Mrs. Bud Fisher, Mrs. Bob Henderson, Mrs. Antley, Mrs. Marshall Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook, and Mrs. Julia Holcombe.

Surprise 'Bon Voyage' Supper For Miss Felton

A surprise Supper Party at Griffin's Restaurant for Miss Anne Felton was held on Wednesday evening, March 12.

This party was held on Miss Felton's last evening in Avon Park and gave some of her friends a chance to wish her well. A delicious supper was enjoyed by the group with visiting afterwards.

Those who helped wish Miss Felton "God Speed" were Miss Millie Pearson, Miss Mildred Myers, Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine, Mrs. Alice Sherman, Mrs. Ann Hodgdon, Mrs. Pattie Hill, Miss Clara Gilmore, Miss Sara Sellars, and Mrs. Violet Clark.

First Christian Church News

The newly organized Adult Sunday School Class will have a party on Friday night, March 21, at 7:30 in the Florida Power Lounge.

An interesting program is planned for the members by the hostesses, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. Fred Davis and Mrs. Stanley Shiller.

Coodies was a nickname applied to those members of the Federalist Party in New York who favored the War of 1812.

If Your Hair Has Turned To Silver Try Florida's Newest Product

Another Florida made product has received national attention and from all reports is making both men and women throughout the nation happy by restoring their natural hair color and doing away with gray hair. The new product is called Scott's Anti-Gray Hair Tone and is made in Coral Gables, Fla and has been introduced locally by Touchton Drug Company. The three-ounce size costs $2.75 and is probably the most popular size, although there's a smaller jar, one-ounce, for $1.50.

Scott's Anti-Gray Hair Tone represents a new development in modern cosmetic science, and is a pure greaseless white pomade that imparts your natural color and lustre to gray, streaked and faded hair in three to four weeks. This marvelous pomade is for men and women and is safe. It is not a coal-tar dye, nor a tint. Shampoo your hair as usual it will not remove the color.

Miss Marie Fanell, trained cosmetologist, from Miami and New York, who represents the firm claims that the pomade had restored the white hair she had since she was 19 to the coal black shade it is now. The man who heads the company and who worked out the formula for this fabulous product is said to have a fine head of brown hair although he is 75 years old.

Scott's pomade is guaranteed to impart color to gray hair if instructions are followed closely. The directions are easy to follow all you do is place a small amount on finger tips and rub into hair and scalp and comb through. use daily for three to four weeks until desired natural color of your hair has been restored, then only use once or twice a week. It will not stain pillows or cloths and being pure white there is no color selection to make.

The Company requests that you do not use if there are any

Engagement Announced

MISS MARGARET WINIFRED ROE

Rev. and Mrs. Claude Roe of the Avon Park Campground are happy to announce the engagement of their daughter Miss Margaret Winifred Roe to Mr. Jerome Shiltz.

Miss Roe moved to Avon Park last summer from Cleveland, Ohio. She is a graduate of Chicago Evangelistic Institute. She is an accomplished musician having served in the evangelistic field. Since coming to Avon Park she has appeared on different programs. At the Winter Guest Club Sunday she rendered two numbers on her musical bells.

Mr. Shiltz is the son of Rev. E. E. Shiltz. He is employed at the Ward's Department Store. He is active at the First Methodist Church and is the head of the Sunday afternoon sings at the tourist club. Mr. Shiltz attended Asbury College and has also served in the field of evangelism besides assisting his father in his ministry for a number of years in the north.

The date of the wedding will be set at a later date.

Winter Guest Club News

Mr. Kidder, in charge of local tournaments, announces that the February men's trophy has been won by John Williams, and Mrs. C. V. Grimshaw is winner of the ladies' award. We welcome these two excellent players to the "Hall of Fame".

Last Wdnesday's meet was won by Dorothy Gruber and Ray Million when they beated Lillian Hayes and Grace Warner in the final play. On Saturday it was Fern Haas and Chas. Fensternmann who won the final round over Chas Gruber and Jack Richmond.

On Thursday Avon Park evened the score with the Arcadians, winning all along the line. There were 13 teams from Arcadia, they brought their picnic lunch, our ladies served coffee, and a pleasant time was had by all.

Friday evening was a perfect night for dancing and an enthusiastic crowd made the most of the opportunity. Sad to relate, we had to bid adieu to several of our friends for another season. The special Monday morning class has been discontinued but the Tuesday dance practice sessions go on as usual.

Seventy-six happy, hungry folk gathered for the Saturday-night covered dish supper, with fourteen states represented. Just when we are saying "farewell" to some folk others are just now coming. There were five present Saturday night for the first time this season. This time was New York state which lead the others, with 16 in attendance; Michigan and Indiana tied for second place with 13 each. After the tables were cleared a pleasant evening was spent at cards, visiting, and a few hardy souls braved the chill winds to play a few rounds at shuffleboard. Maybe they ate so much they had to work it off. There were four tables at bridge, three at canasta and four playing pinochle.

There were 148 present at the sing on Sunday; Mrs. Wolverton was in her regular place at the piano, Mr. Shiltz back in his place as leader so everything was normal again. Special treats included piano solos by Mrs. John Williams, bells by Miss Winifred Roe, and choral music by the Senior choir of the First Methodist Church. After their singing, one of the members of the choir made public announcement of the engagement of Mr. Jerome Shiltz to Miss Winifred Roe. Mr. R. Maxson and Rev. John Ayers lead in prayers.

One of the recent lessons in The Art Class was a demonstration of Portrait Painting. Mrs. Maxine Fries, of Avon Park, chose Mr. Paul Naus of the Art group as a model. Mrs. Fries first sketched the model with charcoal. From the charcoal sketch the painting was done in oils. The completed portrait will be on exhibition in the Clubhouse on Hobby Day, March 20.

Rotary News

Fred Montedeoca presented a film showing the highlights of the Gator Team for the 1957 season to members of the Avon Park Rotary Club at the regular luncheon meeting on Wednesday, March 12, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

During the business meeting election was held for the Board of Directors with each member voting for five persons. The ones receiving the largest number of votes were, Hue Nunnallee, Hubbard Biggs, Barney Howard, Franklyn Ward, J. M. Adams, David Lanier, Bob Barben, Ernest Shepherd, Roy Seims, Donald Ford, Jim Heim and Charlie Metcalfe. On March 19th five of these will be elected as the Board of Directors.

Ed Tomak was the guest of Jack Head; Mr. Barnhill was the guest of George Woodham and Walter Koryciński was the guest of Lee Wilbur, a visiting Rotarian.

Visiting Rotarians last week were Lee Wilbur, Dearborn, Mich.; E. F. Armstrong and Bruce C. Kline, Hicksville, Ohio; L. M. White, Mexico, Mo.; Jim Hastie, Waynesville, N. C.; W. W. Owens, Frostproof, Milt Blanck, Orlando and L. Crim, Kilgore, Texas.

Cowboy Birthday Party Honors Chris Parry

Christopher Parry, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Maldwyn V. Parry of Lake Byrd, was honored with a party on his seventh birthday, Tuesday, March 11.

After the birthday gifts were opened Christopher and his friends enjoyed a series of games which featured a "treasure hunt" and "pin the candle on the cake".

"Happy Birthday, Cowboy," was the theme of the birthday table where the guests were seated. Helping celebrate were Mary Lou Bates, Susan Booth, Judy McClung, Sherry Smith, Paul Church, John Garber, David Hill, Emil Lahr, Jr., Jim Nunnallee, Kenneth Still and Steve Walker.

His parents, his teacher, Mrs. Roland Dilley, her son, Jim, and Mrs. Nunnallee also enjoyed refreshments with the group.

Supper Party At Jacaranda Honors Leonard Pearl

Mrs. Clifford Taylor and Mr. William Young were hosts at a Dinner Party in the Dining Room of the Jacaranda Hotel on Thursday evening, March 13, honoring Mr. Leonard Pearl.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with gladioli and white chrysanthemums and the delicious supper was served by candlelight. After supper the guests played cards in the Palm Room.

Thirty-six friends were present to enjoy the lovely evening honoring Mr. Pearl who will leave soon for his home in the north.

Miss Susan Brown Is Honored With Shower

Miss Susan Jane Brown, whose wedding was Saturday, March 15, was honored at a surprise bridal shower the preceding Wednesday, March 12, given by her classmates at Florida State University at the University's Florida Hall.

Hostesses were Misses Frances E. Fisher, Audrey Flohe, and Barbara McMillan.

A bride's book and other attractive gifts were presented to Miss Brown.

Refreshments were iced tea and a cake decorated with wedding bells.

Nina Cini Celebrates Seventh Birthday

Nina Cini, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cini of Cocoa, celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday, March 15, with a birthday party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith on Lake Lotela.

The boys and girls played games on the lovely lawn and helped Nina open her lovely gifts. They were served ice cream and cake and each child was given a color book favor and a party blow-out whistle.

The lovely birthday cake was topped with a doll and decorated with three large roses to delight Nina and the girls. About twenty friends helped Nina celebrate.

Assisting Mrs. Smith with the party were Nina's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cini, Mrs. Donald Ford, Mrs. Harold Henderson of Wauchula, and Mrs. Wendall Smith.

Nina is attending school in Avon Park this term and living with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith.

Miss Susan Jane Brown Becomes Bride Of Bernard Gusefski

MRS. BERNARD J. GUSEFSKI

The marriage of Miss Susan Jane Brown and Bernard Joseph Gusefski was solemnized at a Nuptial Mass in the Blessed Sacrament Church, Tallahassee, at ten o'clock Saturday morning, March 15. The Rev. Edward Condren was the celebrant. White gladioli were used at the altar.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn L. Brown of Avon Park. Mr. Gusefski is the son of Mrs. Marie DePietro of Corning, N. Y.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in a waltz-length gown of white lace over white bridal satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and full, scalloped skirt. The long, fitted sleeves terminated in points over the hand and the rounded neckline was enhanced by an embroidery of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bride's finger-tip veil of white illusion was held by a white crown also ornamented with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations around a central orchid.

Miss Frances E. Fisher of Avon Park was the maid of honor. Her sleeveless street-length dress of pale yellow crystallette was princess style, flaring into a full skirt. She wore a brimmed hat of matching hue and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mr. Joe Oliveto of Lumberport, West Virginia, and Moody AFB, Valdosta, Ga., was the best man.

The organist was Mr. Frank Carney of Tallahassee.

Mrs. Brown, mother of the bride, wore a lace dress of soft rose with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations.

A wedding breakfast at the Tallahassee Dining Room followed the double-ring ceremony.

In addition to the wedding party, guests at the breakfast included Miss Mildred Myers of Avon Park and Mrs. Lester Moody of Augusta, Ga., both aunts of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. Welch Fisher, Avon Park; Audrey Flohe and Dian Hadfield, Clearwater; Anne Nicholson, Lake Worth; Barbara McMillan, Dahlgren, Va.; and Jan Janes, Wauchula.

The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with white icing roses and surmounted by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride at the conclusion of the breakfast.

When the bridal couple left for a brief honeymoon trip, Mrs. Gusefski wore a dark brown dress with matching accessories, brightened by a white frill at the throat and her white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Gusefski, now a senior at Florida State University, will remain at the university until the end of this semester. She will then join her husband at Valdosta, Ga., where he is stationed as a member of the U. S. Air Force, and the couple will make a trip to Corning, N. Y., to visit Mr. Gusefski's family.

Mrs. Gusefski will receive her degree from Florida State University next year after she has completed her teaching internship. Mr. Gusefski will receive his discharge from the Air Force next September and will then re-enter college to complete his studies for a degree in electrical engineering.

Mr. and Mrs. Gusefski also plan to visit the bride's parents in Avon Park over the Easter holiday.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Miss Mildred Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Welch Fisher of Avon Park, and Mrs. Lester Moody of Augusta, Ga.

Dessert Card Party Honors Mr. And Mrs. J. Glenn

Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Warner were hosts at a Farwell Party honoring their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Glenn, on Sunday evening, March 9.

A number of friends were present to wish the Glenns 'good luck' in their new home in Chicago and to urge them to return for a visit very soon. The guests were served a delicious dessert by the hostesses and all enjoyed an evening of card games.

A going away gift was given to the Glenns during the evening by their friends and came as a happy surprise to them.

Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. William Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Duke Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. Art Pickell, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Krenerick, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rodgers, Mrs. Slyvia Book, Mrs. Alta Robinson, Mrs. Bertha Kelley, Mrs. Gertrude DeCourcey, Mrs. Marion Meyers, Charles Bush, Frank LaFallette, Ed Patten, Henry Camp and Mrs. Jessie Harper.

5 Candles Top Cake For Walter Nunnallee

Walter Nunnallee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hue Nunnallee, celebrated his fifth birthday with a party at his home on Thursday afternoon, March 13.

Walter's guests enjoyed an egg hunt and games in the yard. The swings and sandpile enjoyed a busy afternoon filled with happy youngsters. Each boy and girl took home an Easter favor and everyone entered into helping Walter open his gifts.

The five candles on the birthday cake were blown out easily by five-year-old Walter and then the children ate cake and ice cream and drank lemonade.

Steve Hart, Janie Barben, Suzy Skipper, Rickie Lanier, Sammy Garber, Elizabeth King, Claire Lanier, Joany Seims, Hoagie Ostling, and Tom, Jane, Jim and Sarah Nunnallee, helped Walter celebrate this most important day.

Assisting Mrs. Nunnallee with her son's guests were Mrs. David Lanier and Mrs. Roy Seims.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath entertained the deacons and associate deacons and their families with Fish Supper in the Social Hall of the church on Friday night, March 14.

The evening was also a celebration of the Gilbreaths 32nd Wedding Anniversary and their members surprised them with many lovely and useful gifts to remember this important occasion.

After the delicious supper the thirty five guests enjoyed an evening of games and fellowship.

The Avon Elementary P.T.A. should be of practical interest to all Florida homeowners.

...ould be of practical interest ...regular meeting on ...day night, March 13, with ...ty-five parents and teachers present.

During the business meeting reports were given concerning the operetta and Mrs. J. M. Anderson, president, thanked all the teachers, parents, and others who worked so hard to make it such a success. Mrs. M. W. Parry reported that the club had about 70 Avon Park Elementary T-shirts for sale and would re-order for special orders. Mrs. Arlin King, Membership Chairman, informed the group that there were now 93 paid members in the organization.

Mr. George Kelsey, principal, announced that the Parent-Teacher's conference day for this term will be on Friday, March 21, and all parents are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to consult with their child's teacher. He also mention that the Landscaping Course from the University Extension Division would meet in the Avon Elementary Library each Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock for the next ten weeks. This course will give 3 hours college credit and the fee is $27. Mrs. Vernon Lanier read the list of topics to be studied during the course and they ...

After discussion by the group on possible measures for better protection of the school children at the Pleasant Street crossing, Mayor E. A. DeLaney assured the parents that the city would cooperate in promptly securing a patrolman for this dangerous crossing in the mornings and afternoons.

Mrs. Walter Mandis gave the devotional thought on the training of children. The attendance banner was won by Mrs. Everett's second grade. The meeting was adjourned and Mr. Herbert Tood took charge of the program.

Mr. Ray Wells, Mr. S. F. Longbottom and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Heim, were the members of a panel discussion on the building program for the new Elementary School. They answered questions that had been submitted by parents and gave a great deal of insight into the building methods of Highlands County.

Some of the subjects they touched are of interest to all residents as well as P. T. A. members. The selection of the site of the new school was made after a carefully survey of the location of the number of children in the community and the site was then purchased by a realtor engaged by the school board. Nineteen acres of land were required and purchased for the new buildings. The floor plan was decided upon after much research, visiting of other new schools in Florida, and examining suggestions made by teachers. The building materials used were the result of careful research into the maintence problems and figured on the basis of the best materials over a period of at least twenty years. Jim Heim, architect, stated that the rooms were approximately 1000 feet gross and designed for a maximum pupil capacity of 30 pupils to classroom. He also stated that the State Department offered suggestions made some recommendations and worked with each local school in solving their building problems. The panel also discussed other questions that were of interest to the parents and left the audience feeling very much better informed on the process of building for our school needs in Highlands County.

Music Recital Given March 7

A music recital was presented Friday afternoon, March 7, at the home of Mrs. J. C. Lawhon, music teacher, for friends and parents of the students. The program included piano, accordian and guitar numbers.

Performers in the recital were S. Y. Moseley, Hazel Brown, Patricia Jones, Betty Hutchinson, Debbie Ward, Sue O'Steen, Beverly Giddens, Dale Pearl, Dorothy Grove, Frankie Smith, Lathan Smith, Billy Miracle, Andy Miracle, Michael Duggan, Claire Maxwell, Clyde Coleman, Martha O'Steen, Sally Nute, Margaret Wendt, Robert King, Lanse Padgett, Coye Kay Nutt, Eddie DeLaney, Gail Bennett and Gary Bennett.

Farewell Coke Party Honors Miss Anne Felton

Miss Anne Felton was honored with a Farewell Coke Party on Wednesday afternoon, March 12, at the home of Mrs. J. Paxton Hill with Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Ellis Watson hostesses.

About thirty friends called during the afternoon to wish Miss Felton well. She has been the librarian in the Avon Park High School for a number of years but retired recently and plans to return to her home in South Carolina.

The coke table was decorated with a large arrangement of cokes in ice and fern was used for accents of color on the floral handpainted cloth. The guests were served cake and nuts with their cokes.

Miss Felton's friends are sorry to see her go but wish her well and are hoping she will return soon for a long visit.

Episcopal Church News

St. Margaret's Auxiliary of the Church of the Redeemer met for its monthly meeting on Wednesday, March 12, at 1:30 in the Parish House.

Mrs. Frank Love opened the meeting with a devotional message. The Rev. Russell Carleton, Rector of the Holy Trinity Church in Bartow, spoke very informatively on "Cooperating with Diocesan Projects". He traced the history of the Women's Auxiliaries in the church and stressed the importance of what the women do to aid in all projects.

During the business meeting, Miss Florence Baker reported on the recent Deanery Meeting in Lakeland at which she was present. A report on Pancake Day was given to the group. Father Waterson announced plans for the Tri-Annual National Espiscopal Convention to be held in Miami this fall.

Delicious refreshments were served the members by Mrs. Keith Collyer, Mrs. Franklyn Ward, Mrs. Walter Mandis, and Mrs. Frank Love.

Florida's salt water fishing industry ranks fourth in the U. S. and gives employment to over 12,000 persons directly.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Catalino, Boise, Idaho are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Meeker.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilhite attended Rotary Ladies Night at the Lakeland Yatch Club Tuesday night. Mr. Wilhite as president of the local club represented Avon Park and Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] McIlrath of Sebring were also present as he is president of the Sebring Club. The Lakeland Club organized the Avon Park Club and Sebring Club in 1924.

Col. Lee Oldham of Ft. Monmouth, N. J., was the weekend guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Oldham of N. Lake Avenue. Due to a tour of duty in Heidelburg, Germany, this was the first time in more than five years he had visited his parents. At present Col. Oldham is connected with the Signal Headquarters at Monmouth and has been representing his group at Ft. Bragg, N. C. for two weeks. His wife and four children live near Eatontown, N. J.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Fentress on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Gray Acree and Mrs. Acree, his mother, of Tennessee and Sarasota. Mr. and Mrs. Gaither Boyd of Lake Placid and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Llwyellen of Sebring joined the group during the afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Hutchinson of Winter Haven spent Tuesday visiting her son and daughter-in law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hutchinson and their family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Prisoc and their sons, Steve and Gregg, drove to Hernando on Sunday to visit Mrs. Prisoc's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spooner.

Col. and Mrs. H. N. Kirkman of Tallahassee entertained Mrs. Lester Moody, Miss Mildred Myers, and Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn Brown at dinner on Saturday night while the group was in Tallahassee for Miss Susan Jane Brown's wedding. Mrs. Moody and Miss Myers were overnight guests at the Kirkman's home. Col. Kirkman organized and is now head of the Florida Highway Patrol. On Sunday Mrs. Moody entertained the same group with a shore dinner at St. Marks.

Gerald Meeker is a patient at Walker Memorial Hospital and is recuperating from a recent heart attack. His friends will be happy to know that he may now have visitors but will not be discharged from the hospital for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cini of Cocoa spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Smith on Lake Lotela.

Miss Nancy Ginn of Stetson University in Deland spent the weekend at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ginn.

Miss Anne Felton and Miss Millie Pearson left last Thursday for Goldsboro, N. C. by car. Miss Felton is spending some time with her friend, Miss Louise Edgelon. Miss Pearson visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Jones, and other friends there. She returned early Monday morning by train.

Mrs. A. L. Freiberger of Scarsdale, N. Y. is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Philip L. Weber at the home on Lake Viola. Mrs. Freiberger and the Webers celebrated her birthday on Sunday and were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Phillips for supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Chamberlain, and his mother, Mrs. S. G. Chamberlain, spent Wednesday in Lakeland shopping and visiting The Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Neimann who were former residents of Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Wells went to Jacksonville over the weekend for a visit with their daughter and son-n-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Watts, and their four grandchildren.

Mrs. James Sizemore and her children, Susan and Donald of Montreal, Canada, are spending several months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durrah Martin.

Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Come and urge your friends to do so too.

Get long-lasting protection with

DITHANE Z-78

(zineb)

Use DITHANE Z-78 instead of sulfur in post-bloom sprays to control rust mites. Important advantages of DITHANE Z-78 are:

- DITHANE Z-78 gives protection that can last until summer scalicide is needed. There is no need to apply extra sulfur dusts or sprays before summer to keep rust mites in check.
- DITHANE Z-78 is more persistent during rainy weather.
- DITHANE Z-78 is easy and mild on tender growth. It is the ideal warm weather fungicide.
- DITHANE Z-78 does not alter soil pH.
- DITHANE Z-78 controls greasy spot.

The long-lasting protection possible with DITHANE gives you more time between rust mite applications and greater flexibility in your entire program.

Gorgeous George Wrestles At Armory Tonight

Wrestling fans are in for a real treat at the Avon Park Armory Thursday night when Gorgeous George swings into action in the main event of Promoter Cowboy Luttrall's weekly wrestling card which will start at 8:15 o'clock.

George will show up for his match with a neat permafient on his blonde head but he may have the curls straightened out when he takes on Billy Parks, young Canadian star, in a two out of three falls, one-hour time limit match.

Parks has met highly rated wrestlers from all over the world and defeated the best of them. He hopes to do the same against George, however, that is a tough job, for George is considered one of the best wrestlers in the sport, as well as being one of the most famous.

Before the two heavyweights square away for the match, George will make sure the ring is gems free by shaving his beautiful wallet, Cherie, use a big spray gun filled with a perfumed disinfectant. Pre-match ceremonies also will find Gorgeous tossing bows of gold-plated "Georgie Pins" to the ladies.

In the preceding match, Jerry Christy, youthful Californian mat star, meets Chris Zaharias, "the Crying Greek", in a two out of three fall, one hour time limit contest.

Christy has been successful at the Armory against the toughest of competition. He will have his hands full, though, when he clashes with Zaharis, as the wily Greek is one of the trickiest wrestlers he has met, and has years of experience to back him up. This is expected to be a close action packed bout.

Promoter Luttrall announced that he expected a record turnout to watch the "Gorgeous One" in action.

FOR SALE
The Board of County Commissioners of Highlands County will receive SEALED BIDS UNTIL 10:00 A.M., April 8, 1958, on the following: One used hot water heater, one stove and other kitchen equipment from the old jail. Bidder to purchase this equipment "as is". Bids will be accepted on each item or on the entire lot. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Methodist Church News

Circle 1 held its regular monthly meeting with a sandwich lunch in Wesley Hall on Monday, March 10, with over twenty members present.

Mrs. W. L. Hutchins taught the lesson on Mark, the sixth chapter. Mrs. George Kelsey led the group in prayer and a silent mediation.

After a short business meeting the members enjoyed lunch together.

Circle 2 gathered in Wesley Hall for its regular meeting on Monday afternoon, March 10, with Mrs. Hubert Bussard, Mrs. Wilmer O. Luttrell and Mrs. Zeno Warner serving as hostesses.

Mrs. Charles Harris gave the devotional message and Mrs. Nye Smith taught two chapters from the study of Mark.

After the business meeting the hostesses served punch and cookies to the twenty-three members present.

Circle 3 met on Monday morning, March 10, for its regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Allen Kindel, Chairman, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. C. R. Chamberlain gave the devotional message and the group continued their study on Mark.

Mrs. Hayes Maxwell and Mrs. Louis Hooper, hostesses, served coffee and rolls to the twenty-two members present.

Circle 4 met at the home of Mrs. Ruby Johns on Monday night, March 10, for its regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Cecil Ferguson opened the meeting with a prayer and Mrs. W. L. Hutchins taught the lesson on Mark.

Mrs. Bob Lee, Chairman, made several announcements during the business meeting.

The hostess then served refreshments to the group during the social hour which followed.

The J. O. Y. Sunday School Class members enjoyed a fish fry on Monday night, March 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Johnston on Lake Viola.

After a delicious supper with fish and all the trimmings the twenty members present enjoyed an evening of fellowship and visiting.

Mrs. Virgil Tondee, Mrs. George Kelsey, and Miss Winnie Rae assisted Mrs. Johnston, the hostess, with this special get-together.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the church attended the Annual Florida Convention Youth Enlistment Rally in Arcadia in the First Methodist Church on Wednesday evening, March 12.

Dr. Ewing of Nashville, Tenn., gave the main address of the evening and the group enjoyed hearing from a returned missionary from Japan.

Supper was served the entire group at 6:30 by the host church.

The boys and girls were accompanied by Mrs. Wiley Corbran and the Rev. and Mrs. Wilmer O. Luttrell.

On Friday, March 14, seven members of the Womens Society of Christian Service of the church attended the Sarasota District Annual Meeting in Sebring in the First Methodist Church.

There were members of the Society from forty churches represented at this important gathering. Dr. H. H. Waller, District Superintendent, opened the meeting with a prayer. The theme of the meeting was "The Master Calls For You".

Miss Louise Nichols, Field Worker for the Women's Division, gave the main address of the morning and kept the attention of all present with her graphic description of her work.

Mrs. Howard V. Weems of Sebring, Conference President, spoke to the group in the afternoon about the work of the Society.

The Sebring Society served coffee and dessert to the ladies at lunch to go with their sandwiches.

The Intermediate Group of the M. Y. F. enjoyed themselves on Friday night with a picnic supper in Highlands Hammock.

The boys and girls walked and explored the park and then cooked their own weiners in the picnic area. The group rode to the park and back in a large truck and enjoyed the ride also. Games were played after supper before returning home.

Accompanying the Intermediates were Mrs. Wiley Cothran and Mr. and Mrs. George Kelsey.

Like a Housewife Hates Dust on the Furniture

Phillips 66 Dealers take a lot of pride in being good housekeepers. They have a housewifely hatred of untidiness. They keep their stations clean, including those all-important rest rooms.

They'll go all out to keep your car clean, too. "Whiskbrooming" the interior of your car is one of those extra little services your Phillips 66 Dealer is glad to perform. And he'll clean the windows for you . . . all the way around.

This obsession with cleanliness is part and parcel of our policy of "Hospitality on the Highway." You benefit from it at any station which displays the orange and black Phillips 66 Shield.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout Cindy Metcalfe told the girls of the Scout Troop the purpose of the World Friendship Fund on International Friendship Day, Thursday, March 13, and each Scout made a donation to this fund.

Scout Ann Barben is leading Beth Church's patrol in her absence. The Scouts had their regular meeting on Thursday in the Scout Hall with 28 present. Mrs. H. N. Booth served the Scouts refreshments after their meeting. Mrs. John Townsend assisted at the meeting.

Scouts Patsy Martin and Jo-Anne Kelly assisted Mrs. E. G. Todd, Chairman of the Senior Women's Club Library Committee, in placing cards containing lists of the book in the Library in all the eating places of Avon Park.

The troop had a picnic at Highlands Hammock on Saturday, March 15 with twenty-nine girls present.

Miss Carol Beck took the Scouts on the tour of the Hammock and they were thrilled to see 38 alligators, three snakes, and ten turtles, besides the wonderful trees and flowers of the park. The girls took pictures of the many things they saw.

After the tour they walked the Cat Walk and all the trails of the park. Then the group enjoyed playing baseball in the picnic area. Each Scout brought their own noonday lunch and the leaders furnished drinks.

Accompanying the girls were the leaders, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Bob Lee, and mothers, Mrs. Mattie Mae Bigbee, Mrs. Pauline Hall, and Mrs. David McDaniel.

The troop returned home in the afternoon after a very enjoyable day for all. Saturday was Scout Outdoor Day in National Scout Week.

Mrs. David McDaniel is calling mothers for Mrs. John Townsend while she is without a telephone.

Seventh Day Adventist News

Miss Serpouhi Touvakdjian, R. N., more informerly called Miss T. by her many friends in this area, Dietician at Walker Memoral Hospital, has been named leader of the Dorcas Society of the Walker Memorial Church.

Miss T. presided at the first meeting of the new year of this group on Thursday evening, March 13, in the Walker Dining Room when she outlined the plans for the year and named the different leaders of the seven bands who will participate in the welfare work of the church for the needy in the community. The Dorcas Society does only welfare work and some of their projects are visitations for shut-ins, washing and mending for those unable to do it, training for Civil Defense, and gathering clothing, medical supplies and bedding for the needy. The Clothing supply at present is depleted because of the extremely cold weather and any donations would be appreciated.

The group leaders are the Mesdames C. F. Boyd, Martin Bischoff, John Schmidt, Jr., William Rankin, A. L. Lynd, and Frank Beckly.

A First Aid Class is being organized and will be taught by Mr. Paul Richardson who will be assisted by Mrs. L. W. Payne and Mrs. D. C. Hartwell. Also the group is making a study to locate a room suitable for use for welfare purposes in Avon Park.

Elder W. C. Arnold will conclude his series of Evangelistic lectures this week. On Friday night his topic will be "Fulfilling All Righteousness" and Saturday morning he will take up "Why I Am Glad I Am A Seventh Day Adventist."

Pediatric Unit Planned At Walker Memorial

The thoughtfulness of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Bryant of Sebring in requesting donations to Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital instead of floral remembrances for their daughter Carol Bryant who recently passed away at the hospital, is sincerely appreciated by the institution.

This request already has been honored by several gifts. There may be others interested in making the memory of Carol a permanent blessing to other children of this area. Plans are being made by the management to set aside a room for use as a pediatric unit. All donations from this request, as well as others that may be given, will be used in connection with this project.

Passion Play Amphitheatre Joins In Campaign To Spread Our Sunshine

The Passion Play season which was originally scheduled to end with the Easter Sunday performance, has been extended through April 20th.

"The directors of the Passion Play Amphitheatre realize," said Sam Gray, President, in a statement issued today, "that there are thousands of people in our State who want to see the Play, but have not done so on account of the inclement weather that Florida has suffered along with all other parts of the nation, and we have prevailed upon Josef Meier, producer, director and star of the Play, to extend the present season through Sunday, April 20th."

Mr. Meier, a Floridian by adoption, has presented his Black Hills Passion Play at Lake Wales for the past six winter seasons. He said that he still has confidence in Florida's climate, and that he wishes to cooperate in every way possible with the "Spread-Our-Sunshine" campaign currently being waged by the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

The Passion Play will continue to be presented every Sunday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday at 6:00 p. m. and every Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday at 7:30 p. m. Final performance will be on Sunday, April 20th.

Attention!! Girl Scouts

There will be no Girl Scout meeting on Thursday, April 3.

The Scouts will have an Easter Egg Hunt and Party on Tuesday, April 2, instead of this meeting. They will meet at the Scout Building in Kings Court after school and go to the home of Mrs. Bob Lee for their party.

Red Devils To Play Four Games Here Next Week

Avon Park Baseball fans will enjoy another round of ball games as the Devils play four night contests at home and one afternoon game away during the next week.

Friday night the Devils will entertain the Fort Meade Miners in a Ridge contest at Head Field at 7:30. Game time has been changed until weather conditions improve.

Jimmy Cooper and Wendell Williams will share the mound duties for the contest as the Devils seek their fifth win of the season.

Next Tuesday night the Devils will play host to their old county rivals-the Sebring Blue Streaks in a game that should be one of the hottest contests in the Ridge. Sebring is undefeated in season's play this year and they will try to upset the Devil's apple cart as they defend the conference championship.

Jerry Sheffield will hurl for the Streaks. His relief will be Julius Foster with Errol Lanier behind the plate.

Next Wednesday afternoon as (Continued on page 12)

Devils Defeat Kissimmee 15-0

A small, cold crowd of Devil Baseball Fans saw Charlie Anderson set the Kissimmee Kowboys down on one hit last Friday night as the Avon Park team racked up their third straight win of the 1958 Baseball season.

Only a long flyball hit by Kowboy shortstop Jerry Osterburg that fell almost on the right field line kept Southpaw Anderson from shutlining up a no-hitter. This hit came with two out in the last inning. Anderson issued 6 free passes to first, and one batter was hurled back to the dugout via the strike out route in posting the 15 to 0 shutout.

The Devil hitters backed Avon's pitching ace well slapping two Kowboy hurlers for 8 safeties in the four innings they were at bat. John Starling, having only one hit in the first two games, found the range with a single in the first inning and a homer over the left field wall in the fourth. Right fielder Bennie Jones, who had failed to get to the football field and got them up. 3-20-58.

Prevatt and one prisoner swept Lake Avenue and also around the Churches in the afternoon they hauled trash. Rewis and one prisoner did the same duty. Newsome graded all day. Todd and Batts worked at the barn all day. 3-21-58.

April Is Cancer Control Month Crusade Begins Tuesday

The annual Crusade for the American Cancer Society will get underway on Tuesday, April 1, with Carl Pinkston serving as chairman for Avon Park. Roland X. Dreidt, County Chairman of the Crusade, has announced that the goal for the county this year is $2500 and the drive to raise this amount will continue throughout the month of April.

The common goal, the goal of the American Cancer Society, is to bring cancer under control, to save thousands of lives from cancer this year, millions in the future. The annual campaign provides you with an opportunity to do something concrete about cancer this year. your donation helps to strike back at a disease that threatens us all.

It is estimated that if present rates continue, cancer will strike one in four Americans for cancer is the number two killer of men, women, and children. More children from 3 to 15 years of age die of cancer than from any other disease.

The American Cancer Society formed in 1913 is the only voluntary agency of laymen, doctors and scientists which supports a comprehensive program of education, service to the cancer patient, and research for the control of cancer. The Society is composed of 48 chartered Divisions covering the entire United States and Alaska.

Financial support of the American Cancer Society is obtained from the public through the annual campaign in April which has been set aside by Congress and Proclaimed by the President of the United States. Free The Farmer

The March issue of The Readers's Digest features a challenging article entitled, "Let's Set the Farmer Free". Its author is Earl M. Hughes—a successful Illinois grain and livestock farmer, an agricultural economist of note, and a former vice-president of the Commodity Credit Corporation, which handles the government's $8 billion farm surplus board.

Mr. Hughes' solution to the farm problem is based on abandonment of "the impossible job of trying to legislate farm income through 'fixed price supports.'" The government's main job, he believes, should be to help find new uses and markets for farm products, and then to turn farmers loose to produce in response to free market prices. And he cites an actual and outstanding example of how, in a free market, food consumption can be increased and diet upgraded.

Keep in mind, he says: "At the sharp break in the price of beef in 1953 there were howls that Congress should fix prices on beef cattle. But most cattlemen figured that the real answer was to sell more beef to the housewife, not to the government lander. They joined with packers, retailers, farm groups and government in an intensive promotion effort. The housewife got a bargain, and we ate our way out of the beef glut. In the past five years beef consumption has jumped from 62 to 85 pounds per person per year. If the government had stepped in to fix prices and control production, we would have had a beef scandal to dwarf the 500-million-dollar potato fiasco of 1947-51, when millions of bushels were given away or destroyed with kerosene. And we'd have a sick beef industry today."

This isn't theory—it's hard fact. The meat industry has provided us with a blueprint for getting agriculture back on a free enterprise basis of operation—which is the only sound and secure basis.

"Free Medicine Can Make You Sick"

Efforts to inject government into medicine on an all-inclusive scale continue. It is argued that this is the only way that the best and most extensive medical care can be provided for all the people.

Many people sincerely believe this. But all the evidence indicates that their faith is misplaced—as Dr. Charles G. Jones, a Pennsylvania surgeon, points out in an article appearing in the February issue of The Freeman.

Dr. Jones' compelling article has a vivid and dramatic title—"Free Medicine Can Make You Sick." He bases it on the experience in [illegible] "free" socialized medicine has [illegible] years. The cost to the [illegible] been enormous. Still more important has been the cost in terms of the public health.

Dr. Jones says this: "The deleterious effects of the system are to be noted everywhere. There are so many free dental patients that dentists no longer have time for their customary work with school children . . . Waiting lists for admission to hospitals become staggering. The increased volume of patients invites a second-rate care for many instead of first-rate care for the truly ill. The burdensome cost of caring for those who are ill, plus those who pretend, leaves no funds for research or preventive medicine."

Compulsory government health insurance, which is and has been advocated in this country, would produce identical results. There is small doubt that it would ultimately end in socialization, on something resembling the British pattern. We'd pay an exhorbitant price for it—in money, and in inferior medical service.

The Atom In Politics

Atomic power, as a source of electricity, has become a full-scale political issue.

That issue, basically, is simple. It is whether there shall be a government monopoly or near-monopoly of atomic power development, at a huge and unknown cost to the taxpayers, or whether private enterprise, working in cooperation with the interested government agencies, will be invited and allowed to make its full contributions to ultimate success.

The layman has every reason to be confused. Various members of Congress have charged that we are woefully lagging in this field, and that only a government crash program can save us. A bill to authorize such a program is on the Congressional agenda.

The layman, however, does not have to take these charges at face value. A man whose knowledge of what is being done is second to none—Admiral Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission—tells a very different story. In his words: "Today the United States leads the world in the scope of its program for the development of safe, efficient and competitive nuclear power."

Admiral Strauss went on to detail some facts. The partnership of AEC with private industry has so far created a half-billion dollar atomic power industry. To quote him again: "We have already built and operated 23 reactors in the U.S. for production of power, civilian and military. Another 44 are under construction and 21 are under development or in the planning stage.

"This total of 88 power reactors represents a program which, to our knowledge, is not approached by any other country either in performance or planning."

Why, in the light of this, should there be all the turmoil over atomic power? Here's one logical answer: those who seek a socialized federal power monopoly have seized eagerly on the atom in their search for new political controls over the people.

The Value Of Music

The report that playing a musical instrument has definite and considerable value in academic work, personality training and other important fields is interesting. The report, released recently by the assistant superintendent of Chicago's public schools, shows that learning to play a musical instrument is something owhich is of value even in the training of scientists the nation needs so badly.

One of the satisfying aspects to the report is that it establishes musical training in a position it too often does not reach. In the constant dine from coaches, athletic directors and the like about what a wonderful thing it is for boys to develop their personalities, wisdom, physical strength and moral fibre by breaking each other up on the football field, the hockey rink or basketball court, it sometimes is difficult to remember that there are some things in the lives of young Americans besides sports which have real and lasting values.

Music is one of these. Few would call development of scientific minds a goal of musical training, but studies quoted by the Chicago school administrator show this development. They also show that 90 percent of all high school honor pupils play musical instruments.

In this light music becomes something far more important to youths than something to amuse themselves with during hours of leisure. It takes on a significance and proven value that cannot be denied nor overlooked.

Parents would do well to understand the values of musical training, especially that of instrumental music participation. Playing in a band or orchestra has values too often unrecognized and young people who would benefit greatly from such activities lose a great deal when they are not given a chance at them.

The studies proving the values of musica training should help parents put music in the proper perspective for their growing children. —The Wakefield Daily Item, Wakefield, Mass

Florida Division To Share In Cancer Society's Research Grants

The Florida Division will share in the American Cancer Society's first research grants to be made in 1958.

The Society announced today award of 38 research grants totaling $968,105 for projects this year and committing an additional $562,871 for long term grants.

One grant totaling $16,945 was made to a Florida Laboratory, George Bradshaw, Chmn. of the Division Research Committee, said.

The grant announced today, Mr. Bradshaw said, brings the Society's total dollar support for research of active grants to more than $12,165,000.

In making today's announcement, Mr. Bradshaw said, "This record sum is in sharp contrast to the research picture ten years ago when the Society was able to supply less than $3,000,000 for research.

"The ten year growth signifies two important facts: The public is showing growing willingness to support the broadening research attack on cancer. It also demonstrates scientists' intense concern with the cancer problem.

"Despite this growth, however, still more funds are needed. Grants made today were carefully selected by the Society's Research Advisory Council and its advisory committees from a large number of applications. Greater funds would make possible the support of many additional worth-while projects."

The current grants will include support of research in many areas of the cancer problem. The Society allocated $326,648 for research on the etiology of cancer, which is the study of the causative agents and the chain of events that ultimately leads to cancer; $132,311 to study the pathogenesis of cancer -- the study of the difference between normal and cancer cells; $142, 320 for research in the therapy of cancer which is the diagnosis, treatment and cure of cancer; $109,104 for lung cancer research, and $257,722 for personnel for research.

The Florida Research grant goes to Murco Research, Inc., of Jacksonville, which will study the construction of an already developed and described automatic scanning device for use in detection of uterine cancer in women. The broad introduction of such a device in connection with the reading of slides obtained during a uterine cancer cell examination could possibly solve the problem of a serious shortage of trained technicians now required to read the slides. Uterine cancer is virtually 100 per cent curable in its earliest stage, and the uterine cancer cell examination makes possible such early detection of the disease. The laboratory will attempt to develop a criterion of malignancy which would give the instrument optimum scanning accuracy. This involves selection of a characteristic of malignant cells which the device is then adjusted to note electronically.

WOOD IBIS

By The Bird Watcher

We have often spoken of the Wood Ibis, but we feel that more should be said about this beautiful bird, if you have ever seen a number of these birds rise and fly you will agree that it is a most spectacular sight.

While Florida was in a more or less undeveloped state, these birds, along with many other species of wading birds, were very numerous and food was plentiful, but with the progress the state has made, many of these waders have become decimated, as swamps and bay heads have been drained, and canals dug to drain the water off into streams or other canals and then finally on to the Ocean or Gulf, we see that although the result has been a great deal more land being made available for use, it has deprived so many of our wading birds a place to feed and rear their young.

Our attention was called to this condition recently by Russ Mason of the State Audubon Society, who has been working with the Mass. Audubon Society and under his leadership has developed the nation's most intensive program of conservation and conservation education.

Mr. Mason has come back to Florida and is associated with the State Audubon Society and we hee he will do for this organization what he was able to do for the Mass. organization.

When Mr. Mason was here twenty years ago there were estimated to be a hundred thousands Wood Ibis in this state, now it is estimated there are one thousand, so we see something must be done if we are to save these beautiful birds from extinction.

If you are interested and do not know what to do, we would suggest that you write the State Audubon Society at Winter Park and ask what you can do or better still send three dollars for years subscription, to their publication The Naturalist, which is published each month by the Society.

So important has this condition become that the Governor has commissioned the Fla. Audubon Society to make a study of the wild life situation and give him recommendations to improve this condition.

While all the waders are effected, we wish to write about the Wood Ibis, they belong to the group of birds that do not sing and by the time they are fully grown are practically voiceless, they have sometimes been called the Silent Ghost of the Fla. Marshes.

They are quite different from another wader that may be found in the same vicinity, the Limpkin, which seems to haunt the wilds with it's wierd call and, which has led to all kinds of superstition, and has been likened to the sound made by someone having a tooth pulled.

The wood Ibis is considered to be the only member of the Stork family that we have in this country, and is a very useful bird along the road sides and shallow water, for they consume fish, snails small snakes, crawfish, lizards, frogs and any insects that chance to be in the way.

This large bird builds it's nest, which is just a large bulky platform, twenty to forty feet above the ground, and as with so many of the larger birds lay just two or three eggs.

Before these birds were protected by law they were eaten quite extensively both by the Indians, that lived in the Everglades where they were then abundant, and by white people also, especially by hunters.

Wood Ibis do not spear their prey as do the Heron but seize it between their large beaks. A bill may be sometimes as much as nine inches long and decurved, and measures seven and a half inches around the base.

Like some other waders these birds know how to scratch with their feet on the bottom of the water and in so doing will muddy the water so that fish are forced to come to the top of the water for air, and are easy prey for the long bill of the Ibis.

This lovely bird from a distance would be considered just another white wader, such as the Heron, but it's head is without feathers and for this reason it has been called, Flint head.

But when this bird rises in fly it displays what seems to be a black border underneath its wings, and as the Heron flies with it's neck pulled back against it's shoulders, this bird flies with fully extended neck and it's legs trailing out behind which makes it one of the most impressive sights in the bird world.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

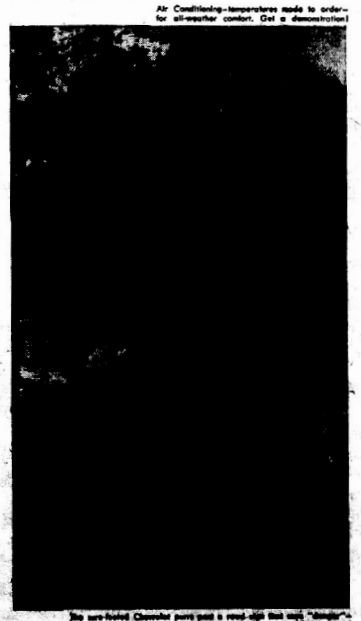

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust, V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2½ miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,572 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

The grant announced today, Mr. Bradshaw said, brings the Society's total dollar support for research of active grants to more than $12,165,000.

In making today's announcement, Mr. Bradshaw said, "This record sum is in sharp contrast to the research picture ten years ago when the Society was able to supply less than $3,000,000 for research.

"The ten year growth signifies two important facts: The public is showing growing willingness to support the broadening research attack on cancer. It also demonstrates scientists' intense concern with the cancer problem.

"Despite this growth, however, still more funds are needed. Grants made today were carefully selected by the Society's Research Advisory Council and its advisory committees from a large number of applications. Greater funds would make possible the support of many additional worth-while projects."

The current grants will include support of research in many areas of the cancer problem. The Society allocated $326,648 for research on the etiology of cancer, which is the study of the causative agents and the chain of events that ultimately leads to cancer; $132,311 to study the pathogenesis of cancer -- the study of the difference between normal and cancer cells; $142, 320 for research in the therapy of cancer which is the diagnosis, treatment and cure of cancer; $108,104 for lung cancer research, and $257,722 for personnel for research.

The Florida Research grant goes to Murco Research, Inc., of Jacksonville, which will study the construction of an already developed and described automatic scanning device for use in detection of uterine cancer in women. The broad introduction of such a device in connection with the reading of slides obtained during a uterine cancer cell examination could possibly solve the problem of a serious shortage of trained technicians now required to read the slides. Uterine cancer is virtually 100 per cent curable in its earliest stage, and the uterine cancer cell examination makes possible such early detection of the disease. The laboratory will attempt to develop a criterion of malignancy which would give the instrument optimum scanning accuracy. This involves selection of a characteristic of malignant cells which the device is then adjusted to note electronically

By The Bird Tour

We have often spoken of the Wood Ibis, but we feel that more should be said about this beautiful bird, if you have ever seen a number of these birds rise and fly you will agree that it is a most spectacular sight.

While Florida was in a more or less undeveloped state, these birds, along with many other species of wading birds, were very numerous and food was plentiful, but with the progress the state has made, many of these waders have become decimated, as swamps and bay heads have been drained, and canals dug to drain the water off into streams or other canals and then finally on to the Ocean or Gulf, we see that although the result has been in a great deal more land being made available for use, it has deprived so many of our wading birds a place to feed and rear their young.

Our attention was called to this condition recently by Russ Mason of the State Audubon Society, who has been working with the Mass Audubon Society and under his leadership has developed the nation's most intensive program of conservation and conservation education.

Mr. Mason has come back to Florida and is associated with the State Audubon Society and we hope he will do for this organization what he was able to do for the Mass. organization.

When Mr. Mason was here twenty years ago there were estimated to be a hundred thousands Wood Ibis in this state, now it is estimated there are one thousand, so we see something must be done if we are to save these beautiful birds from extinction.

If you are interested and do not know what to do, we would suggest that you write the State Audubon Society at Winter Park and ask what you can do or better still send three dollars for years subscription, to their publication The Naturalist, which is published each month by the Society.

So important has this condition become that the Governor has commissioned the Fla. Audubon Society to make a study of the wild life situation and give him recommendations to improve this condition.

While all the waders are effected, we wish to write about the Wood Ibis, they belong to the group of birds that do not sing and by the time they are fully grown are practically voiceless, they have sometimes been called the Silent Ghost of the Fla. Marshes.

They are quite different from another wader that may be found in the same vicinity, the Limpkin, which seems to haunt the wilds with it's wierd call and, which has led to all kinds of superstition, and has been likened to the sound made by someone having a tooth pulled.

The wood Ibis is considered to be the only member of the Stork family that we have in this country, and is a very useful bird along the road sides and shallow water, for they consume fish, snails small snakes, crawfish, lizards, frogs and any insects that chance to be in the way.

This large bird builds it's nest, which is just a large bulky platform, twenty to forty feet above the ground, and as with so many of the larger birds lay just two or three eggs.

Before these birds were protected by law they were eaten quite extensively both by the Indians, that lived in the Everglades where they were then abundant, and by white people also, especially by hunters.

Wood Ibis do not spear their prey as do the Heron but seize it between their large beaks. A bill may be sometimes as much as nine inches long and decurved, and measures seven and a half inches around the base.

Like some other waders these birds know how to scratch with their feet on the bottom of the water and in so doing will muddy the water so that fish are forced to come to the top of the water for air, and are easy prey for the long bill of the Ibis.

This lovely bird from a distance would be considered just another white wader, such as the Heron, but it's head is without feathers and for this reason it has been called, Flint head.

But when this bird rises to fly it displays what seems to be a black border underneath its wings, and as the Heron flies with it's neck pulled back against it's shoulders, this bird flies with fully extended neck and it's legs trailing out behind which makes it one of the most impressive sights in the bird world.

OCEAN TO OCEAN ACROSS SOUTH AMERICA—AND BACK—IN 41 HOURS!

CHEVY'S NEW V8 LEVELS THE HIGHEST, HARDEST HIGHWAY OVER THE ANDES!

To prove the durability of Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust, V8,* the tremendous flexibility of the new Turboglide transmission,* the incredible smoothness of Full Coil suspension, we tackled the most challenging transcontinental road in the world — the 1,000-mile General San Martin Highway. To make it harder, the Automobile Club of Argentina sealed the hood shut at Buenos Aires — no chance to add oil or water or adjust carburetors for high altitude.

So the run began — across the blazing Argentine pampas, into the ramparts of the forbidding Andes. Up and up the road climbed, almost 2½ miles in the sky! Drivers gasped for oxygen at 12,872 feet — but the Turbo-Thrust V8 never slackened its torrent of power, the Full Coil springs smothered every bump, the Turboglide transmission made play of grades up to 30 percent. Then a plunge to the Pacific at Valparaiso, Chile, a quick turn-around and back again. Time for the round trip: 41 hours 14 minutes — and the engine was never turned off!

...ed the P.T.A. Board conducted the panel and some of the questions asked were: How, specifically can the home carry out its responsibility for character education and the development of the child's moral and spiritual values? Which is more effective, the direct or the indirect method of developing character education in the schools? What does our community need in order to give its young citizens a sound spiritual education?

Mrs. Martin spoke on the spiritual and ethical growth of the child, the parental-child and teacher-child relationships and how the home, church, school and community shared the responsibility for this spiritual growth.

Mrs. Sam King and Mr. Robert J. Barben discussed the influence of the home upon children and of how important it was for the home to set Christian standards. Mrs. King told of how a Chicago P.T.A. ...ed and should be encouraged.

7. There should be no drinking.
8. Profanity may be discouraged and its discouragement may be helped by its absence from the home.
9. Church attendance should be encouraged by parents.
10. As to radio and TV there is general agreement that if concentrated study is required, the human mind is incapable of concentrating on two trends of thought at the same time.
11. Skills and hobbies should be encouraged whenever possible.
12. Always keep the line of communication open between parent and child regardless of rules.

Mr. Barben stressed making family church attendance a habit and the good training young people receive when they take part in all the activities of church life. He also spoke of the wholesomeness of families doing things together.

Mrs. Lena Suggs discussed both the direct and indirect approach of the school personel teaching high ethical standards. Her talk showed how the teacher can enrich the teachings of the home in fostering good character and how through literature many spiritual values are explored.

County Judge Mervin Rehrer concluded the panel discussion ...problem of the school and community can be conducive to good character building. He stated that boys and girls should be encouraged to join the Boy Scout and Girl Scout organizations, take part in athletic activities and hobbies. Judge Rehrer in commenting on his experience with juvenile delinquency in the county said that the majority of the young people brought into the court for offences did not belong to any character-building organizations, did not take part in school activities such as athletics, band or the school recreation program, nor were they regular attendants at Sunday School or Church.

Students Present Talent Show For Jacaranda Guests

The winter guests of the Jacaranda Hotel and a few of their friends were entertained Tuesday evening, March 18, in the Palm Room of the hotel with a delightful program followed by delicious refreshments.

Manager and Mrs. Royal Coats were host and hostess, and their son, Royal, Jr., was Master of Ceremonies. The program consisted of talent from the Avon Park High School with Mrs. Julia Holcombe of the faculty at the ...Easter Parade" in a most original presentation. Jan Saylor gave a monologue "Scarecrow Romance" with Marcia Bilbee and Ken Fentress doing a pantomine. Jimmie Dixon sang "Love Me Tender" and between acts Herman and Ken Fentress kept the guests in stitches with humorous sketches. Salie Harrison, vocalist, Sammie Wright and Leroy Starling, dancers, could not participate because of illness.

Mrs. Knight of Maine, played a number of enjoyable selections on the piano. Glenn Miller of Dunkirk, Ind., was crowned Easter Bunny and Mrs. A. W. Russel of Babylon, Long Island, was Easter Queen. Mrs. Eleanor Wilson of Philadelphia won the door-prize which was a plastic handbag filled as an Easter Basket.

After the program the group joined in singing a number of old favorite songs. Delicious refreshments of sandwiches, cakes, and punch were then served the gathering.

The new $10 million, 300 room Beau Rivage Motel in Bal Harbour has included a commissary in its over-all design. This is a unique feature for motels in the Miami area.

A Midgets And Girls Australian Tag-Team Match At Armory Tonight

One of the outstanding wrestling events of the season takes place at the Avon Park Armory Thursday night when Promoter Cowboy Luttrall presents one of the most unusual and popular types of wrestling matches — a midgets' and girls' Australian tag-team match. Action for the evening gets underway at the new starting time of 8:30 o'clock.

Betty Evans, the Mae West of wrestling, teams with Lord Littlebrook, 38 inch tall, 80 pound midget English wrestler for the two out of three falls, one hour time limit event.

BETTY EVANS

acrobatic ability outshines that of Argentina Rocca.

The opposing team consist of rough and rowdy Dot Dotson, and another midget who is a newcomer to Florida, Bull Rummel, 41 inch tall, 92 pound mat-man.

Rummel has the dubious distinction of having the reputation of being the most heartless and vicious pint size grappler to ever enter the squared circle. He will be in like company when he teams with Stewart, who is one of the toughest girls in the sport.

In the heavyweight feature, rough mountaineer Man Mana-goff, who uses a backwoods style of wrestling, meets the number one contender for the World's heavyweight championship, Ray Villmer.

Villmer is a gentleman wrestler who usually wrestles in a scientific manner, but when necessary is capable of getting as rough as the roughest of wrestlers, and he may have to with Managoff, as the mountaineer invaribly uses anything he can get away with.

Free Complimentary tickets can be obtained any place in town where Cocca-Cola's are sold.

Littlebrook, who recently arrived in this country, will be making his first appearance in Avon Park. In England he toured as an acrobat with the circus before becoming a wrestler. According to experts, his Lordship's

(zineb)

Use DITHANE Z-78 instead of sulfur in post-bloom sprays to control rust mites. Important advantages of DITHANE Z-78 are:

- DITHANE Z-78 gives protection that can last until summer scalicide is needed. There is no need to apply extra sulfur dusts or sprays before summer to keep rust mites in check.
- DITHANE Z-78 is more persistent during rainy weather.
- DITHANE Z-78 is easy and mild on tender growth. It is the ideal warm weather fungicide.
- DITHANE Z-78 does not alter soil pH.
- DITHANE Z-78 controls greasy spot.

The long-lasting protection possible with DITHANE gives you more time between rust mite applications and greater flexibility in your entire program.

Burial For The Rev. C. H. Roe To Be Held In Ohio

The Rev. Claude H. Roe, 67, passed away at Walker Memorial Hospital Monday night, March 24, after a long illness. He was a native of Losantville, Ind. and came to Avon Park from Cleveland, Ohio six months ago.

Rev. Roe was a retired Methodist minister of the North Eastern Ohio Conference, teacher of the Men's Bible Class at the First Methodist Church of Avon Park and also assisted the pastor in the Worship services. He was also a Mason.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret L. Roe, Avon Park; two daughters, Miss Winifred Roe, Avon Park and Mrs. Luella Botz, Brunswick, Ohio; four sons, Emmette L. Roe, Youngstown, Ohio, The Rev. Claude L. Roe, Upper Montclair, N. J., John S. Roe and James R. Roe, Cleveland, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Madge Skipper, Columbus, Ohio and Mrs. Grace Young, Indore, W. Va., one brother, Ralph L. Roe, Columbus, Ohio and 20 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

A brief funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon at the Mizelle Funeral Home Chapel with The Rev. Wilmer O. Luttrell of the First Methodist Church of Avon Park and The Rev. L. Chester Lewis, The Rev. John L. Ayers, The Rev. C. D. Marston of the North Eastern Ohio Conference officiating, after which the remains were forwarded to Cleveland, Ohio for services and interment there.

Mizelle Funeral Home of Avon Park was in charge of the local arrangements.

Red Devils Defeat Bullpups

The Avon Park Red Devils continued on the winning road last Friday night when they handed the Frostproof Bullpups a 12 to 2 licking before a cold weather crowd at Head Field. This was win number 2 for the defending champs who are now 2 - 0 in conference and in overall standings.

The brave fans (it was cold) saw the Devils collect nine hits off three Frostproof hurlers in five innings. Billy Rouse and Charlie Anderson had two singles each, Winkie Williams had a triple and single, Bryan Kempton a double and Johnny Starling and Wayne Kempton each had singles.

Mound duties were shared by Jimmy Cooper who started and by Chuck Anderson who came on in the fifth to relieve him. Cooper gave up one hit while fanning 6 and walking four. Anderson gave up two hits and the two runs and walked two. He struck out 5 in the two innings he worked.

...Enjoy Evening Of ...Senior Women's Club

...ers of the Senior Women's Club enjoyed a social evening at the Avon Park Country Club on Monday, March 17.

Mrs. Ernest Kinkel and Mrs. Creighton Crews were chairman and co-chairman of the ... Party and Mrs. Ethel ... was in charge of the ... which were played in the Jacaranda Hotel during the evening in connection with the Senior Club.

Mrs. Ralph Kelley, president, and Mrs. Charles Kink-El-Day welcomed the guests as they arrived on Monday evening. The clubhouse was festive with an air of Springtime because of the numerous beautiful flowers given by Mrs. Walter Martin and Mrs. Kink-El-Day.

During the evening chances were sold on a beautiful hand-made tablecloth donated by Mrs. Ralph Kelley and this was won by Mr. Charles Creighton. Mrs. Walter Martin donated a large azalea plant which was won by Mr. Charles Kink-El-Day. There were attractive prizes for the high score at each table also. The generous buying of chances helped make the evening even more of a financial success for the club.

Prior to the serving of refreshments at 9:30 Mrs. Kelley welcomed all guests and expressed appreciation to all who made the party such a success by their attendance and hard work. Mrs. Mary Livingstone received Birthday Greetings and the guests enjoyed singing "Happy Birthday" to her with great gusto.

Refreshments were dainty sandwiches and cookies which were all made by the members of the Senior Club and coffee and orange juice to drink. The refreshments were also served to the tables playing at the Jacaranda Hotel. Several door prizes were also given, one of which was a lovely homemade cake by Mrs. Elkhill and Mrs. Kink-El-Day.

Other members of the Senior Club who worked on the committee were Mrs. Ann Duffey, Mrs. Mabel Buckelew, Mrs. A. W. Rodgers, Mrs. Cecil Ogden, Mrs. Clyde Swihart, Mrs. Ethel Harden, Mrs. Philip L. Weber, Mrs. Paul Erickson, Mrs. Walter Martin, Mrs. Frank Kinner, Mrs. Charles Kink-El-Day, and Mrs. Ed Gardner.

The next meeting of the Senior Woman's Club will be on April 11 instead of April 4. The Executive Board meeting has been postponed to April 10 also.

First Methodist Church News

The Seminary Singers of the Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Ky. sang to a large group at the church on Thursday night, March 21.

They presented an outstanding program of beautiful music with several exceptional soloists.

Before the program the ladies of the Women's Society for Christian Service served the group a delicious supper of ham with orange juice prior to the meal. The orange juice was the hit of the evening for the boys as they said they had very little this year due to the freezes.

The members of the choir were cared for by the families of the church on Thursday night and left by bus on Friday morning.

Mrs. Collyer New President Of Women's Golf Assn.

Mrs. Keith Collyer was elected president of the Women's Golf Association of the Avon Park Country Club at their monthly luncheon meeting on Wednesday, March 19.

Other officers serving with Mrs. Collyer for the next year are Mrs. David Lanier, vice president, and Mrs. Stuart Ward, Secretary-Treasurer.

The members enjoyed a delicious covered dish luncheon in the home of Mrs. C. E. Lanier on Lake Lotela with Mrs. David Lanier serving as co-hostess. Easter lilies and snap dragons were used in graceful arrangements in the home. Thirty members of the group were present and Mrs. Hue Nunnallee and Mrs. William Lockett of Bassinger were guests at the meeting.

Bridge was played during the afternoon with Mrs. Phillip Cox wining high score and Mrs. Charles Metcalfe receiving the second prize.

Fla. Ave. Baptist Church News

The Women's Missionary Society held its regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday, March 11, in the Social Hall with seventeen members present.

During the offering of reports it was noted that 24 ladies took part in the last week of Prayer and the work of the G. A. S. sponsored by this group was reported on. A going away party for the Haywood Williams family was planned at this meeting.

Mrs. J. W. Porter taught the Bible Study Lesson after which the meeting was adjourned.

The Roxie Jacobs Circle held its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath on Thursday night, March 20.

During the business meeting Mrs. Elmo Hopkins was elected to the office of Program Chairman and Mrs. Ruth Cole was made Secretary. A Bible Study program was then held for those present.

The hostess then served soft drinks, coffee, and custard pie to the fourteen members present. Mrs. Joanne Archie was welcomed to the group as a new member.

The Zura Martin Circle met at the home of Mrs. H. L. Bryant on Thursday night for its regular meeting and eleven members were present.

A work project of the Women's Missionary Society was discussed and plans were made to start making bandages for use by the Missions. Mrs. J. G. Harrell gave the Circle an interesting and inspiring Bible Study lesson on John.

The hostess served refreshments during the social hour that followed.

The Pearl Todd Circle enjoyed hearing Mrs. Margie McCully teach their Bible Study on John at the regular monthly meeting on Thursday night.

Mrs. McCully was hostess at her home to the nine members of the circle and Mrs. J. W. Porter, a visitor. During the business meeting the group decided to make bandages to send to the African missions. Mrs. Estelle Reynolds opened the meeting with a prayer and it was closed with another prayer.

Mrs. McCully served refreshments and the group enjoyed a time of good fellowship.

Mr. and Mrs. Haywood Williams were the honor guests at a Farwell Party given by their friends of the church on Friday night, March 21, in the Social Hall.

About forty friends were present to play games, say 'good-bye' and wish the Williams a 'Bon voyage'. During the evening they were surprised by a gift of a lovely piece of luggage for their coming trip.

Haywood Williams is being transferred from the Air Base and will leave very soon for his new post. His many friends wish him and his family well and hope they will return to Avon Park before too long.

Vocational Guidance Week is now being held in the Church with study courses each evening at 7:30.

Mrs. H. L. McCully is teaching the Junior book "When I Grow Up"; The Rev. J. M. Gilbreath is teaching "Is This My Life" for the intermediates; "Christ is My Career" is being taught by Mrs. J. M. Gilbreath for juniors, and Mrs. J. M. Murray is teaching the adults "God Calls Me". All members and friends are invited to attend this study.

Seventh Day Adventists News

Walker Memorial Seventh-day Adventists this Saturday will help to set saws singing and hammers ringing in Nazareth of Galilee, the boyhood home of Jesus, who in His early years practiced carpentry there.

The church will dedicate its special quarterly offering to help provide a Christian center in the town of the Saviour's youth.

"Nazareth today is a large city. It as modern apartment buildings and an up-to-date business section. Yet within its borders deep poverty reigns," said Pastor M. V. Campbell, president of the Adventists' Southern European Division, writing to Adventist churches of the need for Christian work in Nazareth.

The church official indicated that both Jews and Arabs live in the city, which stands on an elevation overlooking the fertile valley of Jezreel, so often mentioned in the Bible. The city is the intersection of the main east-west and north-south highways of Palestine.

Mrs. T. D. Strickland, Sabbath school leader of the Walker Memorial church, said in announcing the special offering, "It is a privilege to offer funds to provide a center intended to honor Jesus in the city in which he was so long without honor.

Part of the funds received at the special missions-emphasis service will also provide facilities to begin mission activity in two countries previously unentered by Adventists. These countries are French Guinea, in West Africa, and the Central country of Ubangi-Shari. Adventures currently conduct missions activity in 185 of the world's 205 officially recognized major countries.

The funds will provide mission stations for pygmies of the vast Equatorial forest, who still live in a jungle twilight of the primitive past, and for shepherd peoples of French Guinea, Mrs. Strickland said.

Pastor W. C. Arnold announced Saturday that the lectures on Bible prophecy will continue on Wednesday evenings only at the Walker Memorial Chapel.

"The Greatest Time Prophecy of the Bible" will be the topic of his sermon on Wednesday, April 2.

Pastor Arnold is resuming the Tuesday Evening Prayer meetings in the First Christian Church in Sebring each Tuesday at 7:45.

Elder Don Martin, pastor of the Ft. Meade and Winter Haven Adventist Churches, is the speaker in a week long series of meetings for youth at the Walker Memorial Chapel and the Sebring church this week. Three of the meetings are being held in private homes for the senior youth. Monday the W. C. Arnold home was host to the group, Tuesday they met in the home of John Schmidt, Jr. and Thursday they will meet in the W. W. Webster home. All these homes are on Lake Lillian. The Wednesday and Friday night meetings are to be held in the usual time of 7:30.

Elder Martin will also conduct morning devotional period at the Highlands Lakes Academy this week. The Missionary Volunteer Group is observing a special week of prayers and their annual week of religious emphasis this week. This is for all the Seventh Day Adventist Youth and Neighborhood Friends Around the World. The theme for 1958 is "Present Christ to Your Community."

The production of can for carbonated beverage rose 16.2 per cent in 1957. The American Can Co., largest producer, reported an industry-wide rise from 314 million cans in 1956 to 365 million last year.

Boy Scout News

The Alligator Patrol of Scout Troop 156 of the Avon Park Boy Scouts sponsored by the American Legion camped out Friday night, March 14, on Lake Letta.

The purpose of the camp out was the study of Conservation by the patrol. They did some work on water and soil conservation while out. Accompanying the boys were Andrew Miracle and Norman Cook. Scouts attending were Roy Coates, Roger Stimson, Andy Miracle and Steve Maxwell. Cub Scout Billy Miracle was a guest and Jimmie Liles came and stayed for the work but returned that night.

The next morning the boys hiked the five miles home with a full five pound pack. This was their required test hike.

Troop 3, enjoyed a delightful afternoon at their last meeting on Thursday afternoon by seeing a number of very interesting sights all within walking distance of downtown Avon Park.

This meeting may serve as an example of those of us who often complain of nothing interesting to do in Avon Park. For no cost these girls and their leader had an enjoyable afternoon and learned a good deal.

They first had a tour of the Fire Station and were thrilled by the equipment and awed by the new City Jail. Then they went over to Johns Ready Mix where they were able to watch the men making the concrete blocks used in so many local homes.

From here the Brownies walked to Al Roger's Television Store to see his new line of Tropical Fish. Mr. Rogers showed them all his tanks and gave a very interesting talk on the habits of the fish. In one tank there were over 2,000 four day old fish which were so small they looked like black pepper.

After the very successful afternoon the girls had refreshments at the drugstore.

Brownies of Troop 4 enjoyed the lovely weather with games outside of the Clubhouse on Saturday and had refreshments of popcorn and cakes served in picnic fashion by Mrs. Jack Hutchinson.

Mrs. Jim Runkle, leader, helped the girls finish painting their banks.

Brownie Troop 5 went to the playground on Tuesday afternoon for their meeting and session of outdoor play. Refreshments were served by Karen Pearl.

Rotary News

Five members were elected to the Board of Directors at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club last Wednesday, March 19. Newly elected Board members are Morris Adams, Hubbard Biggs, David Lanier, Hue Numallee and Roy Seims. These members will meet and elect the president from among themselves. The new president will in turn appoint a secretary-treasurer and sargent-at-arms. A. B. Wilhite will serve as vice president and member of the Board during 1958-59.

P. G. Gearing, Highland County Tax Assessor, was the guest speaker last week and he spoke on the County's budget and tax rolls. He explained how the commissioners set up a budget for money that would be needed for themselves and the school board, then enough taxes had to be collected to cover a certain portion of the budge which amounts to over two million dollars for the county. The commissioners spend about 40% of the budget and the school board about 60%. He stated that the county was in good shape as far as taxes covering the expenditures were concerned. He also said that the county has made much progress in the last year, the increase in revenue in taxes has more than covered the additional cost of the county's expenditures. He also spoke briefly on the actual cash tax evaluation.

Two guests attended the luncheon meeting last week they were Harry Little as guest of Roy Seims and Dick Thayer as the guest of Bill Young.

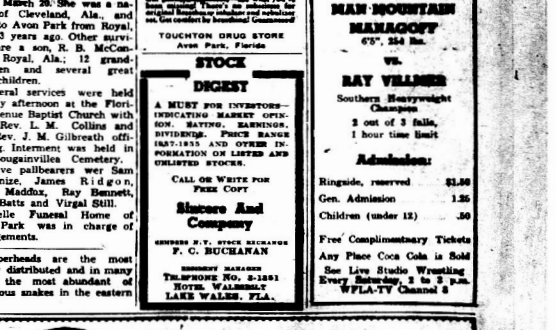

Visiting Rotarians included Louis Cull, Cleveland, Ohio; Bill Parker, Bartow; Robert Barrett, Ithaca, N. Y.; Roger Wood, Chester, Pa.; Fred Lintz, Dallas Texas; John Sanders, Cleveland, Ohio; Bob Disher, Sebring; W. W. Owens, Frostproof; Pete Aldrich and A. P. Baldwin, Port Jervis, N. Matylas-Hanke Wedding Vows Read Saturday

The Faith Lutheran Church of Sebring was the scene for the marriage of Mrs. Eva L. Matylas, Avon Park, and Wil-liam J. Hanke of Lake Placid, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock. The ceremony was per-formed by the Rev. William Bischoff before an altar banked with white gladiolias, white pom-poms, and baby's breath. Appropriate music was furnish-ed by the organist, Mrs. Ruth McCausland.

The bride was gowned in a street length dress of orchid lace over taffeta with white accessories. She wore a pearl necklace gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white satin cov-ered Bible, adorned with a white orchid and baby's breath.

The bride's attendant, Mrs. Ruby Gest, chose a light blue tucked georgette, over taffeta, with white accessories. Her cor-sage was of white carnations. Earl D. Pierce of Ft. Myers brother of the birde, was Mr. Hanke's attendant.

Dinner was served at Witt-man's in Lake Placid, for the wedding party. The table was centered with yellow snap dra-gons and pink gerberas. A beautiful three tiered cake, top-ped with three minaure bells, graced the table.

After a wedding trip to Day-tona Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Hanke will be at home at "Ev-La-Will", on Lake June, in Lake Placid.

Assembly Of Jehovah's Witnesses Meets In Winter Haven, Mar. 28-30

The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, Brooklyn, New York, will sponsor a three-day circuit assembly of Jehovah's witnesses, March 28-30th, at the Florida Citrus Building in Winter Haven.

The Bible conference, arranged for Florida Circuit 6, will draw an estimated 600 delegates from 19 different congregations in Southeast and Central Florida. The program will consist of Bible lectures, demonstrations and general circuit discussions.

Mr. Donald L. Campbell of Avon Park, presiding minister of the Sebring congregation, said today that approximately 20 delegates are planning to attend the seminar from the Sebring, Avon Park and surrounding area.

"The object of the program," Campbell said, "is to equip every one of the preaching fellowship of Jehovah's witnesses in the practical use of the Bible and better appreciation of it's message for today. It will certainly help in fortifying the spiritual morals of the people in our community," he said.

Mr. Campbell continued, "that if a religion is worth believing, it is worth bringing to the favorable attention of others. We sincerely hope that the Winter Haven Bible conference will enable us to live closer to the Bible and it's teachings. That is why our theme is relative to fulfilling the ministry," he said.

Campbell will address the assembly Saturday on the subject, "Fulfilling Our Ministry," based upon the scripture text at Colossians 4:17.

The climax of the three-day meeting will be the public lecture, "Facing the future Without Fear," to be delivered by

Mrs. Saran Shaw Roux Graduates In Miami

Mrs. Sarah Roux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Arthur Davis Institute of Technology Shaw, was graduated from Davis Institute of Technology of Miami recently.

Mrs. Roux was granted a diploma in medical technology and x-ray technology. During her attendance at Davis Institute she was secretary of the student body.

She is a graduate of Avon Park High School and became the bride of Charles Roux of Tampa at the First Baptist Church here in December.

Mrs. Roux will join her husband at the University of Florida where he is studying and do six months of intern work in her fields at the Gainesville Hospital.

United Lutheran Church News

The monthly meeting of the United Lutheran Church women was held last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George C. Herbert, Fairmont Drive, Sebring. The subject for study, "Women of the Bible", was led by Mrs. Paul Cooksey and Mrs. Harry Burkhardt. After the study and business session a social hour was enjoyed.

Wednesday evening Lenten services are being held and the attendance has been very encouraging. The Rev. William P. Cline, D.D., the pastor in charge, is giving a series of talks based on the Lord's Prayer. All who attend these services feel it is a great privilege to hear Dr. Cline, who has fall retired from the active ministry after 43 years. He came here from Clarksburg, W. Va. where he had been serving St. Mark's Lutheran Church for many years.

Dr. Cline will take a European trip this summer, sailing in May and returning in August. Another minister will supply the congregation during this period. Services of the congregation are being held temporarily in the American Legion Hall, Sebring. The Hall is located on North Pine St. just at the rear of the Sebring Post Office. All who are inerested

J. W. Filson, district director of the Southeast United States and a special traveling representative of Jehovah's witnesses, serving all of Highlands County, are urged to attend the regular services each Sunday at 11:00 a. m., each Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., and on Good Friday at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles H. Swartz, organist from Avon Park, is supplying music appropriate for the church season at each service. The public is most cordially invited to all services.

Brownie Scout Troop News

Brownie Scout Troop 3 enjoyed a trip to the local telephone office during their regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, March 13.

The girls and their leaders were interested in the varied equipment and wires necessary to keep our phones working. The Brownies wish to thank Mr. Andrew Cuschari for his cooperation and time in graciously showing them the facilities.

After the trip Brownie Terry Albritton's grandmother served the girls ice cream to go with Terry's birthday cake. The girls enjoyed singing "Happy Birthday" to her and wished her well for the coming year.

Troop 4 Brownies started research for the miniature village which each patrol will work on for the rest of the year.

One patrol will make an Indian village, one an Eskimo village, and one will make a pirate scene. When these are completed they will be given to the children's ward of a hospital for the sick children to use and enjoy. Each Brownie will contribute material to her village as well as her work.

The Bluebird Patrol painted their Piggy Banks during the Saturday meeting. The group also had the flag ceremony and sang Brownie Songs.

Refreshments were served the girls by Mrs. Floyd Wells.

Troop 5 made Easter Bunnies out of marshmellows at their regular meeting on Tuesday afternoon and the brownie Scouts were delighted with the results.

These Easter surprises were taken home for their parents to see. The troop also held their flag ceremony and sang Brownie Songs during the meeting.

Mrs. Herbert Todd served refreshments to the girls at the close of the meeting.

Trans-World, Northwest, Capital, National and Northeast Airlines have all been threatened by a nationalwide strike of airline mechanics and ground crews.

Mrs. Warren Plan Sending Girl To Girl's State

Spring flowers from the home of Miss Millie Pearson in North Carolina made the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club on Monday night, March 17, in the Florida Power Lounge especially festive.

During the business session the fifteen members present discussed the club's plans for sending a girl to Girl's State in Tallahassee this summer. The girl to represent Avon Park will be chosen by the High School Faculty and the club will provide the expense money.

The theme in the decoration for the evening was the green and white of St. Patrick's Day combined with the dainty flowers from North Carolina. The delicious dessert served by the hostesses, Mrs. Russell Mizelle, Mrs. Elizabeth Nellis, Miss Millie Pearson, and Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine, also carried out the same motif.

After the meeting bridge and canasta were played by the members with Mrs. L. A. Renfro and Mrs. Violet Hollingsworth winning the canasta prizes and Mrs. Pat Lookhoff the bridge prize.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts of the Avon Park Troop are attempting to learn a number of new games and sports as part of their program this year and at their meeting on Thursday, March 20, they were introduced to Charades.

Mrs. N. H. Booth and Mrs. John Townsend helped the 33 Scouts present with the Charades and everyone had a merry time guessing the answers. Karen Sykes and Beverly Giffens were visitors at the meeting.

During the business meeting each patrol separated and took care of its business. Plans for an Easter Party were discussed and a time set.

Mrs. Charles Metcalfe served the Scouts refreshments at the close of the meeting.

Jack Seims Is Honored At 14th Birthday Party

Jack Seims celebrated his fourteenth birthday on Friday, March 14, with a party at his home on Lake Lotela for a few of his friends.

The boys and girls danced and played games during the evening. They were served refreshments of birthday cake, cokes, peanuts, and potato chips by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seims, Jack's parents.

AMERICA'S FAVORITE FAMILY WAGON...PLYMOUTH

Plymouth carries more . . . does more . . . provides more family fun than any other wagon in the low-price 3 because it's BIGGEST IN THE LOW-PRICE 3. You can't buy bigger at any price!

Maybe you're a station wagon family right now. More Americans are each day! But do you know all the really astonishing facts about the Plymouth wagon . . . how much more it gives you than other wagons, at a low budget price?

Size alone is only part of it! The Plymouth wagon is big as wagons in the high-price field that cost $5500 and more . . . but, in addition to extra size, this glamorous beauty offers a wagonload of other features that are exclusively Plymouth in the low-price 3!

You simply can't get 'em anywhere else in the field. And once you try them . . . learn how little the years ahead Plymouth wagon costs . . . you'll never settle for less! Why should you? Your Plymouth dealer has the money-saving story, and he's waiting for your visit.

5 big reasons why your wagon should be a Plymouth:

1. MONEY OF THE LOW-PRICE THREE. Big, as wagons costing thousands of dollars more. You can't buy bigger at any price! 122" wheelbase.
2. HOLDS SO MUCH MORE THAN THE "OTHER TWO". Over 7 cu. ft. more passenger and cargo space. Extra "secret luggage" compartment in 6-passenger models.
3. REAR-FACING 3rd SEAT! Folds flush into the floor; you don't have to store it outside when it's not in use. Easy to enter.
4. DISAPPEARING REAR WINDOW. Rolls down into tailgate. Doesn't get in the way. Only Plymouth has it in the low-price field.
5. VERSION-ARE SIDE—AT NO EXTRA COST: Only on Plymouth in the low-price 3. Big-car luxury. No sideway on-turns or nose-dive on stops.

They don't come any bigger... Plymouth station wagons

Mrs. John Slater is in Walker Memorial Hospital and all her many friends at the park wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Otta Kulstad of Renie Falls, Wisconsin, are staying at Southland for four weeks. They are good friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilmot.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dowell are visiting her brother, Louis Schindling, at Magnolia Springs, Ala. and expect to return home around March 28.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Drakes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gater of Troy, Pa., have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Oldfield have arrived from Lake Worth and plan to stay a few months in the park before returning to their home in Addyston, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hirsch of Louisville, Ky., are new arrivals in the park. They were friends of the Oldfields in Lake Worth and like them plan to spend several weeks in the park before returning to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bittel of Danville, Ill., are recent new arrivals at the Park and they expect to make Avon Park their permanent hometown.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kulstad are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilmot. The Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Hutchins are entertaining as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack McLaughlin of Terre Haute, Ind.

Mr. and Miss Collins had as their guest Mrs. Ross Wyeth of Houston, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gerdes had as their guests last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Tobo of Roaring Branch, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Dowell returned on Saturday from a visit with relatives, in Alabama.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Comfort of Miami were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Smith during the week.

A very nice Turkey and Ham Dinner was served buffet style on the Park lawn for the many residents by the management of Southland on Saturday, March 22. The beautiful afternoon helped make the day a memorable and enjoyable one for all present.

After the meal some of the group engaged in a keen shuffleboard match and the others played cards in the Recreation Hall. About 88 guests were present for the meal.

Congregational Church News

There will be a Communion Service on Thursday, April 3, at 7:30 in the church to which all members and friends are cordially invited.

The Chancel Choir will sing at this service.

The Pilgrim Fellowship will have a Hayride for its members and friends on Friday, April 4, and reservations must be in for this outing at the meeting on Sunday, March 30, at 7 o'clock in the Educational Building.

The Hayride will go to Sand Mountain on an open truck. There they will have supper served by the food committee with Mrs. Floyd Wells, Chairman, and later return home. All members are urged to make their reservations and join the fun.

The Covenant Circle held its regular monthly meeting in the Educational Building on Wednesday, March 19, with a large number of ladies present.

Officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting. They are Mrs. Henry Lexis, president; Mrs. George Langman, vice-pres.; Mrs. Ralph Kelley, secretary; and Mrs. H. J. Hahn, treasurer.

The circle spent the remainder of the afternoon in working on White Cross sewing.

Refreshments were served the group by Mrs. William Bonner and Mrs. Betty McDonald.

Initial Meeting Of All Owners Of A. P. Lakes

There will be an initial meeting of all residents in the new Avon Park Lakes Development on Friday evening, March 28, at 8 o'clock in the Community Club House at the Development.

All property owners in the Development are requested to be present. There will be a covered dish supper followed by a short business meeting and games and cards.

Scottish Rite Meets Wednesday

The Peace Ridge Scottish Rite Club will hold their regular monthly dinner meeting Wednesday night, April 2, at 7:30 o'clock at Griffin's Restaurant.

The dinner will be followed by a short business meeting after which guests of the Club will be honored. All visiting Scottish Rite Masons are cordially invited to attend the dinner.

Winter Guest Club News

Mrs. O. Kelser had high score at the bridge games on Tuesday, March 18, and Mrs. C. S. Gallagher, second. Lucky winners of door prizes were Mr. Earl Tibbett, Mrs. Fred Thomson, Mr. R. Ludington and Mrs. E. Hagen.

Judging from the number of exhibitors and the interest shown in their offerings, the annual Hobby Show was a huge success. The co-chairmen, Mrs. Duke Christiansen and Mrs. Clay Kull, had planned well the available space for the various activities and were untiring in their duties as hostesses throughout the day. It would be a most difficult task for anyone to select an outstanding exhibit so we won't even try.

Worthy of note, however, are some who exhibited hobbies different from any we have had in past events. Mr. O. A. Lee showed many samples which are by-products of the lumber industry; pine stump products, to be exact. These included chemicals used in making synthetic fibers, protective coatings, paper, printing inks, plastics, insecticides and deterrents. The Hercules Company, manufacturers of these products, has prepared a movie showing the various processes used and Mr. Lee, upon invitation, has promised to see if he can secure this picture for our viewing at some later date. We look forward to this with pleasure.

The Art Class might be said to have "stolen the show" if anyone or any group did. Their offerings showed a versatility of talent ranging from hand-painted china to shell jewelry, from landscapes in water color to portraits in oil. Mrs. Fries, doing a portrait of Mr. Warwick, created a focal point of interest during most of the afternoon. Water colors were exhibited by Mrs. Will Kienzel, Mr. Paul Naus, Mrs. Ney Smith, Mrs. P. Weber and Mrs. E. Hayes, this being the first year the Art Class has done any work in this medium.

Mr. Geo. Mills' pictures demonstrated a new medium, a particularly fast-drying paint with an exceptionally high gloss. Among his many hobbies Mr. Horace Fenton includes bird watching; quite naturally this has led to the painting of his feathered friends.

Mr. Nebel, one of our winter visitors, has spent his life at Two Rivers, Wisconsin where he has had an opportunity to observe Great Lakes traffic. His exhibit showed many hand-carved ships' models, especially of the historic sailing vessels.

Hooked rugs were displayed by Mrs. Nebel, Mrs. Rodgers and Mrs. West. Mrs. West's rugs were unique in that she utilized "worn-out" household clothing, blankets, etc. cut into one-eighth inch strips and dyed by the maker, herself. Mrs. West also showed several parakeets; the breeding and selling of which provides her with a profitable hobby, as well as a most interesting one.

Utilizing native Florida products as no other person did, Mr. Ken Lewis showed many useful and decorative articles made of bamboo; table markers (for bridge), planters, ear-ring rack, and tie holder being a few he displayed.

Several ladies displayed different kinds of needlecraft, among them were Mrs. W. Heal, Mrs. Stuckey, Mrs. Kinner, Mrs. Rankey, Mrs. Kass, Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Weber.

Shellcraft was perhaps best exemplified by Mrs. H. Davis' collection of jewelry, while Mrs. Kull showed a collection of shells, most of them obtained on a recent trip to Sanibel Island.

The stage was the locale for an exhibit of games, devised by Mr. H. C. Krenerick. These included table games as well as lawn or patio games; in some the element of chance largely determines the player's success and in other skill is the predominant factor.

Anticues were displayed by Mr. H. Davis, Mr. W. Burvinkle, Mrs. Warwick, and Mrs. Ratcliffe.

All in all, we would say this provide an interesting, informative, and most pleasant day in the season's activities.

All day Monday and nigh to noon on Tuesday the courts were ringed with excited, interested spectators, come out to watch the "tournament of champions". At this time all those who have won in tournament play during the season staged a play-off meet to pick a winner. When the last disk was shot D. Gruber emerged ladies' champion and J. Keiter the men's champion player.

Wednesday's tournament saw Jim Brown and Herb Shauger beat out H. Arms and Dan Lindborg; on Saturday it was Duke Christiansen and Herb Shauger who took honors over runners-up Chas. Brush and Chas. Fenstermann. Also on Wednesday ten of our stalwarts went to Lakeland to do battle but, sad to relate, that tournament was rained out.

'Twas a raw, chill wind blowing Friday night but the clubhouse was warm and bright with the peppy dance enthusiasts again crowding the place to capacity, making it necessary to repeat some of the most popular squares.

Remember the covered-dish supper on Saturday and another excellent song session on Sunday.

ing only one hit previously, shared hitting honors with Johnny rapping out 3 hits in his 4 times at bat. Two of his blows were doubles. Other Devils who hit safties were Wayne Kempton, Bill Rouse, Tom Bass and Leroy Starling.

The Devils got to Kowboy starter Dave Putnam for two runs in each of the first two innings but it was in the fourth when they really broke loose with everyone scoring at least one run. The Devils collected 6 of their 9 hits and drew 7 bases on balls in the big inning while scoring 11 runs. A couple Kissimmee errors didn't help any either.
