Winter Guest Club News

The Tattler, having with ease and grace and full detail reported the doings of and at the Guest Club for the past three seasons, has gone on leave for a while. Meantime the Stroller will attempt to fill in the breach with a few notes now and then, with the expectation of course of receiving all the emoluments appertaining to the job including possibly a gentle kick occasionally for some sin of omission. All right, but it will help a lot if the divers committee heads, printed on the bulletin board next the front door, and all others in the know, having items of interest worth airing, should make a note of them and lay it on Mr. Ford's desk in the House. Otherwise your reporter must poke around blindly for juicy items and probably miss a lot of their cooperation is the word.

If the old adage is true that those laff best who laff last (Note simplified spelling), then Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gibson should be all smiles these days. For why? They won the final tournament of the season, and against heavy odds too. To play in any tournament is generally no laffing matter, but to play in and win the very last one entitles one to laff and laff. Puts one on the Honor Roll too.

At the weekly bridge contest, March 21, twenty-four jaunty lads and lasses shuffled the cards and played for fun, Mrs. June Talley scoring highest, Mrs. Henry Wesa next. The other twenty-two also ran a good race. Prizes offered by Ward's Store and the Caffie Gift Shoppe, fell to Mrs. Glenn Miller and Mrs. E. Rentschler, who drew the right numbers. Right here the Stroller pauses to scratch an ear. Is it more blessed to win a card game and get applause, or draw a lucky number and receive a real prize? Indeed it is a question worth pondering.

April 1st marked the end to the regular Club activities for the season. From now on until October only sporadic friendly games of shuffleboard will be seen on the courts during the days, with an off-season pot-luck tournament at week ends for a while, at 6:30 p.m. mind you; and occasional dances, and of course pot-luck suppers on Saturday eve.

Club membership this past season numbered 632, a goodly number that. But it began to dwindle in March, and now that April's here the call of the North and the West is fast lessening the population. By the middle of May only the stay-at-homers will be seen around the grounds or in the House, some shuffling on the one shady court, others dozing or chinning on the porch.

Mr. Glenn Miller, President for the past season, gave his valendictory message in a paragraph printed on the bulletin board: to wit and in short, his pleasure for having been chief executive through the year, and best wishes to the Club for a happy and successful season to come. Thanks a lot, Mr. Miller. You have had a good year, and with the high managerial talent evident in the list posted at the front door, showing who will manage what, those best wishes should be fulfilled, and no doubt will be. So saith The Stroller.

Girl Scouts To Improve Meeting Facilities

Mrs. Durrah Martin, recently elected Community Chairman for the Neighborhood Girl and Brownie Scout Council in Avon Park, announced Tuesday that the leaders and moters present at the Council's meeting on Monday night, April 6, felt that it would be financially impossible for the local Scout and Brownie troops to join the Ridge Area Girl Scout Council at the present time.

This conclusion was reached after much discussion at the meeting as well as upon hearing the feelings of leaders and mothers not able to be at the meeting. The group felt that work on the local facilities for the one hunderd and fifty girls engaged in Scouting activities was of prime importance at this time.

Several changed in the local organization were discussed and plans for improvement of the meeting places of the Scouts and Brownies were given priority over any other work. Mrs. Martin as been active in Scout work in Avon Park for a number of years and feels that work at home is the most important project at this time. She was heartily endorsed on these proposals by the leaders and mothers present. Mrs. Martin is always happy to talk with any interested workers and volunteers on the local Scout organization at anytime.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. Jim Runkle, Mrs. Walter Mandis, Mrs. N. H. Booth, Mrs. Bob Lee, Mrs. Tommy Hall, and Mrs. Sam King.

Next time you're talking "from the shoulder"—try a bit higher up.

Mrs. John Townsend, president, announced that Mrs. Paul Erickson would represent the club at the State Federation of Florida Woman's Club Convention in Jacksonville the latter part of April. Mr. Erickson will attend as an auxiliary member. Mrs. Mervin Rehrer was commended on her work on the March meeting with the Junior Club. Mrs. Cecil Ogden gave a report on the Public Library as chairman of the library committee.

Dr. Ruth Phillips stated in her International Relations discussion talk that the comparison in the standards of living in East and West Berlin was such that the Russians could not stand to let West Berlin remain free. She also warned members to watch the situations developing in Tibet and Formosa in the next few weeks and stated that our American defense system was mighty with wonderful radar protection. The Red Cross First Aid and Home Nursing Dr. Phillips investigated will be held off until next fall because of the large number of members leaving for the summer.

Mrs. Rehrer, program chairman for the day, introduced Mrs. G. M. Whetstone who read two very interesting papers on flowers in the western hemisphere. Richard Thayer then showed his colored slides of gardens in Mexico, Nassau, Central America and all over the United States. These pictures were enjoyed by all the members and added to the enjoyment of the interesting meeting and program.

All residents are urged to make it a point to hear Fred Wild, County Superintendent of School, speak tonight, Thursday night, April 9, at 8 o'clock in the Avon Elementary Auditorium on West Winthrop. BAPTISTS BELIEVE...

Complete Religious Freedom for Everyone

In the early eighteenth century Baptist ministers in Virginia were imprisoned for preaching without government permission. In prison they continued to preach. When Patrick Henry was asked to defend them for the crime "of preaching the gospel of the Son of God" he cried out indignantly as he waved the invitation above his head, "Great God! Great God! Great God!" His prayer and the prayers of Baptists were heard, and religious liberty was written into the Constitution. Religious freedom in America is largely a trophy of Baptist effort and influence and one of our most precious possessions.

Baptists believe in the loyalty of all citizens to the state. Jesus referred to the duty of people in his day when he said, "Render . . . unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's" (Matthew 22:21). The Roman Christians were told, "Let every soul be subject unto the the higher powers . . . rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil" (Romans 13:1,3). Paul wrote Titus to remind the Christians "To be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work" (Titus 3:1).

But none of this implies that the church is to be subject to the domination of the state. Baptists believe in the separation of church and state. The church is to co-operate in all that is high and decent, but in no way is it to be subject to the control of the state or used by it to do its will.

As many Baptist churches have declared in their articles of faith "We believe that civil government is of divine appointment, for the interests and good order of human society; and that magistrates are to be prayed for, conscientiously honored, and obeyed; except only in things opposed to the will of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the only Lord of the conscience, and the Prince of the kings of the earth."

The Bible is the guidebook for Baptists. Its best known verse for this appeal to the supremacy of the Lord Jesus Christ includes: "Render . . . unto God the things that are God's" (Matthew 22:21) and "One is your master, even Christ" (Matthew 23:10). The Virginia ministers in Patrick Henry's time were good citizens and willing to serve the state, but they were not willing to be silenced in matters of religion. In preaching the gospel they had "to obey God rather than men," as the Apostle Peter once declared when government leaders in early Christian days tried to silence his preaching (Acts 5: 29).

The imprisoned Virginia preachers could well have said what many other Baptist leaders have said, "We might not agree with what you say, but we would die for your right to say it."

...me Scout News

Approximately one hundred Avon Park girls from the ages of seven through nine are enjoying Brownie work in one of the five troops now organized. These troops are lead by a number of interested mothers and friends of the Brownie movement who each week give their time and energy to help the girls have a good Brownie life. Each Brownie is asked to bring five cents each week to help with the cost of materials purchased by the leaders for their troops work. Since the troops do not have a large budget the dues are important in the purchasing of the necessary equipment. If the Brownies do not remember their dues the leaders cheerfully buy the needed supplies but this is not a fair practice and a few dollars each week or month is an unnecessary burden on the faithful leaders. Mothers are asked to please remind their Brownies of their dues and see that they are paid up to help with the cost of their projects.

The Brownie leaders ask very little of the mothers of their troops but some cooperation is necessary if their troops are to function effectively. Mothers must see to the transportation of their daughters after the meeting and should not leave the girls waiting for the leaders to take home and stay with for long periods after the meeting. Because the girls go to their meetings after school some simple refreshments are necessary and these are supplied by the mothers. Each mother should make an effort to take a turn in taking these refreshments to their daughter's troop and are asked to volunteer if they have not done so. If your child enjoys the privilege of Brownie work check yourself to see if you are cooperating in this simple but important ways to make her troop more effective.

Troop 7 for the Second Grade Brownies will meet on Friday, April 10, even though it is a school holiday, at the home of their leader, Mrs. Walter Mandis, on Kendall Boulavard, at 2:30. Mrs. Mandis and Mrs. Hallam, assistant leader, will take the troop on a hike and have a picnic at their destination. Mothers may pick their daughters up at the Mandis home at 5 o'clock. At this meeting on Friday the girls practiced their trail signals with stones for use on the 'mystery hike' this friday. They also decorated their material boxes with bird stickers.

Troops 2 and 5 met on Tuesday before Easter with their leader, Mrs. Ruth Felknor, and enjoyed an egg decorating party. Mrs. Felknor gave the girls eggs and the coloring equipment and they all tried their hands at egg coloring. The results were more than pleasing to the Brownies and they hated to eat their eggs at the end of the meeting. Ritz crackers and Top Cola, donated by the Top Cola Agency, completed the treat that day. At the troops' meeting on Tuesday, March 31, Mrs. Ruth Felknor discussed the coming "Flying Up" Ceremony when the girls will become Scouts. Mrs. Sybil Peddleford served refreshments and then the girls enjoyed a playground visit to Donaldson Park.

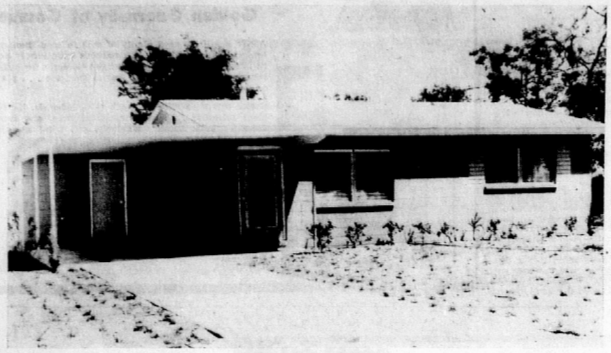

Troop 6 met on Wednesday afternoon with its four leaders, Mrs. Hazel Townsend, Mrs. Kylene Williams, Mrs. Joan Holmberg and Mrs. Audrey Bennett. After their regular ceremonies the girls were served refreshments and made plans for future meetings.

Troop 4 met on Monday afternoon with their leader, Mrs. Fred Davis, and the girls had the Brownie ceremonies. Mrs. Lee Maness served refreshments to the group and plans were made for several visits to interesting local industries. The girls also enjoyed a discussion of their Saturday trip to Lake Wales.

Three carloads of Brownies of Troop 4 went to Lake Wales for a very educational outing combined with fun on Saturday. The girls left from the Scout Building and went to the Passion Play theatre in Lake Wales where they were taken on a complete tour of the grounds by George Warner, the manager. He graciously explained the story of the Play and told the girls much about the background of the buildings and sets. A highpoint of the trip for the excited third graders was a look at the camels used in the play. The troop had their picture taken with the baby camels and many a Brownie came home desiring to own one.

After this enjoyable visit the girls went to Bok Tower where they were admitted without charge and given lovely souvenir books about the Tower. Then the group stepped at the wonderful Lake Wales play-

Garden Clubs Help Roadside Beautification

By Pearl Yeager

OUR CLEAN HIGHWAYS AND UNCLUTTERED ROADSIDES are due in great measure to the efforts of the Junior Gardeners, sponsored by the Garden Clubs throughout the State.

Mrs. Mabel Thompson, Chairman of the Sebring Junior Gardeners, reporting last week on the recent local Litterbug contest, spoke of the inspiration it gives to young and old alike to keep the highways beautiful.

The Litterbug contest was one of drawing posters, using the Litterbug theme. Children from the first, second and third grades of Sebring's Woodlawn Elementary School were classed as 1st Category; children from the fourth to the sixth grades as 2nd Category. Prizes went to the three best in each category, $3 for the best, $2, second, and $1, third. Winners were Linda Glass, Carol Douglass, and Marcia Clements, in the lower grades; Nancy Davis, Jackie Allen and Michael Jacke were the 2nd category winners. The posters done by Nancy Davis and Jackie Allen were entered in the State-wide contest, and will compete with others from all parts of Florida.

A "Keep Our City Clean" campaign was conducted at the same time as the contest, the City Street Department cooperating by placing trash cans at proper places. Superintendent Bob Burns had the cans painted and distributed at no expense to the Garden Clubbers.

Time To Qualify For Scholarships Seniors Told

Florida high school seniors have only a few more days to qualify for a four-year teaching scholarship being offered by the state Jaycees and the Florida Consumer Finance Association.

Al DeMarco of Miami, chairman of the scholarship committee, said entries are pouring in from all parts of the state in the merit scholarship program.

"High school seniors interested in getting a college education in teaching had better hurry up and turn in their application forms," advised DeMarco. "Time is fast running out—the deadline is April 15.

The award will be on the basis of statewide competition. The purpose is to interest high-type young people in teaching as a career.

The 112 Jaycee clubs throughout the state are supervising the program. They will select the best sudents in their areas and these will be narrowed down in statewide judging.

The Florida Consumer Finance Association, composed of a majority of the ethical small loan firms in the state, will pay $400 a year scholarship to the winner.

Governor Names April 12-18 As Realtor Week

Governor LeRoy Collins has proclaimed April 12-18 as Realtor Week in Florida, according to an announcement made today by William G. Haynie, Orlando, president of the Florida Association of Realtors.

"I urge the citizens of Florida to join with me in offering best wishes to the Realtors of this state," reads the governor's proclamation, which was recently signed in Tallahassee and presented by Governor Collins to Mr. Haynie.

More than 8,000 Realtors and their Associates in Florida will join other members of their profession throughout the nation in the celebration of Realtor Week, Haynie said. "The week of April 12-18 will focus attention upon Realtors and the roles they play in their local communities," he added.

This year there are 67 local Boards of Realtors in Florida communities, it was announced. "Realtors are pledged to conduct all transactions in accordance with a strict code of ethics," the Governor's proclamation states.

"The Florida Association of Realtors is in its 43rd year, and has more than doubled its membership in the last four years, Haynie explained. He quoted the Governor's proclamation to the effect that "Realtors bring to the service of the public proven professional competence which has played a large part in bringing individua home ownership in our country to heights unsurpassed elsewhere in the world."

Many local Boards of Realtors are planning special events in their home communities in observance of Realtor Week, the state president announced, and several mayors have already issued proclamations designating the week of April 12-18 as Realtor Week.

Cameron Vivian has returned to his home in Stratford, Canada after spending two months at the home of Mrs. Jim Luxton on Summit Avenue.

Patriots Chapter Hears Report On American And Seminole Indians

Patriots Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution heard Mrs. Maude Borda of Sebring deliver an outstanding report on the American and Seminole Indian at their monthly meeting Monday afternoon, in the home of Mrs. Guignard Maxcy in Sebring.

Patriots Chapter announced that it is giving a biography of George Rogers Clark to the high school libraries in Lake Placid, Sebring and Avon Park and to the public libraries of Avon Park and Sebring. This excellent new biography of the outstanding soldier of the Revolutionary War will be an appropriate and useful addition to the historical sections of the respective libraries.

Following the lesson featuring elementary portrait outlines and proportions seventeen members of the class set up a beautifully appointed buffet lunch table loaded with food.

The buffet was in honor of their teacher, Mrs. Nace, prior to her marriage to Mr. Carl Merchant of Denver, Colorado.

Passion Play To Close Season

The Black Hills Passion Play will close its seventh winter season in the Amphitheatre at Lake Wales, Sunday, April 19, with a performance at 6 p. m.

In spite of unusual - and at times untimely - rainfall, this has been one of the most successful of the Play's winters in Florida. Local interest has never been keener, which is emphasized by the fact that of the 200 local people who reported for the first rehearsal seven years ago, 144 are still active in the presentation of the Play.

Josef Meier who plays the role of the Christus stated that, "The success of the 1959 season assures the continuation of the Play in the Lake Wales Amphitheatre for years to come, and after our summer season in the Black Hills of South Dakota, we shall all look forward to returning to our Florida home."

Their trailer features two stand-up bedrooms with double beds in the 'upstairs'. ## Avon Trailer News

We at Avon Trailer Park have been bidding goodbye to our Winter guests from the North.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Foote have returned to their home in Esperance, New York. The Rogers have returned to Mississippi, the Reuben Storks and the Elmer J. Mertz to Michigan, the Harry L. Longneckers to New Carlisle, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bruner to Dayton, Ohio.

The Lee H. McClures and the George Odenbretts who met and became good friends here at the park are travelling together and plan to spend a week or so at Juniper Springs before returning to their homes in Port Orchard, Washington and Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The new guests we welcome include Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavaroni, from California, Mr. and Mrs. William Sulem from Ocala with their nice 52 ft long 10 ft. wide trailer plan to be permanent residents of the park. The other new permanents are Mr. and Mrs. William Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Violette and Mrs. M. B. Jarvie and her sister Mrs. M. B. McAllister with their 50 x 10 ft. trailer.

Easter Sunday we had our get together in the Recreation Hall and served ice cream and a very delicious cake baked by Mrs. Stork.

Arch Massey entertained with some slides of their trip taken last summer.

Victor U. and Adeline M. Fisher, lots 4497 and 4498, Unit 14, Avon Park Lakes. $600.

felt very bad . . . especially the guest who was scared out of a years growth.

We then adopted a huge yellow and red variegated varmint named "Beaugart", who built a colossal home in our carport and proceeded to multiply like mad. We were very fond of "Beaugart" but the spider family enjoyed the environment so much that the carport began to take on the appearance of a haunted house. So it was with reluctance that we evicted the whole family, this move came about after one of us walked into, and emerged wearing a spider apartment, complete with tennants.

There is a beautiful collie dog being held at the City Dog Pound. She is obviously someone's pride and joy. Will her master please come and take her home. She's waiting patiently, and if someone doesn't come and claim her soon the Pixlers will have an addition to their menagerie of dogs, ducks, birds and squirrels.

Everyone who took the boat trip up through the Chain of Lakes last week reported it one of the finest. Everything was well planned and went off as scheduled. It was a real family affair with pleasures for all ages from two to grandpa. No one even sheared a pin.

There will be a meeting, according to Willard Griffin, on Wednesday, April 15th, eight o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of planning another boat outing. So let's all don our admirals caps and join the jolly crew. The next one will be arranged so as not to interfere with church, if it is on Sunday.

Many FHA Week Activities For Local Chapter

The local chapter of the Future Homemakers of America is observing a busy schedule in week of special activities for National Future Homemakers of America week, April 5 through 11.

On Sunday, April 5, the members of the chapter attended the church of their choice and on Monday a regular FHA meeting was held at 7:30. Tuesday was designated as Publicity Day and a display of the girls' work was arranged in an eye-catching display in Ward's Department Store window. All residents of the community are reminded to take time out for a look at this exhibit during the week. Tuesday afternoon the delegates to the State Convention are interviewed by the radio station.

On Wednesday, Edith Wilson President, spoke to the members of the Rotary Club on the work and purposes of the FHA. The day was a special Family Day for each girl and special efforts were made to be a help at home and prevent family quarrels.

A very popular day was the Thursday "Be Kind to Teachers" event with some of the faculty saying at this minute that this day should be a permanent one. All those pretty girls you are seeing in red and white today are wearing the FHA colors and if you look closely you may see their pins and emblems.

Tomorrow is "Be Smart At Home" and each member will try some new homemaking idea at home with exciting results expected.

"Hobo Day" on Saturday will need the help of the community to be a success as the girls plan to do odd jobs in any home requesting them to do so and if anyone is interested in having the Future Homemakers take over their odd jobs please contact Mrs. Violet Moseley, their advisor. The girls are very eager for jobs as a chance to show their skill and each employer may make their own price. The hobo day will climax the week's activities.

Mrs. Ford then stressed the importance of their respective offices in the effective organization of the club. Mrs. Miracle was introduced by Mrs. Jim Turnbull, immediate past president. The new officers and the old officers who introduced them were Mrs. Robert Barben, First Vice President by Mrs. Jeff Barrow; Mrs. John Crittenden, Second Vice President by Mrs. Robert Barben; Mrs. T. C. Walker, Recording Secretary, by Mrs. Betsy Holden; Mrs. Bob Young, Corresponding Secretary, by Mrs. Harry Hood; Mrs. Guy Garrett, Treasurer, by Mrs. David Lanier; Mrs. Jim Turnbull, Parliamentarian, by Mrs. Mannin Kirkland; and Mrs. Leslie Crews, Historian, by Mrs. Bob Young.

The new officers were given a hearty welcome by the fifty-one club members present and the retiring members were commended for their outstanding work during the past year. Following the meeting the announcement of the coming Family Day Picnic on Wednesday, May 13, at Lake Byrd Lodge was heard.

Hostesses for the lovely banquet in the Dining Room of the Jacaranda Hotel were Mrs. Cecil Skipper, Mrs. David Lanier, Mrs. Donald Ford, and Mrs. Wayne Elder. After the installation the members enjoyed an evening of visiting and rehashing the past years work while making plans for an even better club year in 1959-60.
