Surprise Shower Features Pink And White Motif

Pink and white were the lovely bridal colors that were featured in the delightful surprise bridal shower for Miss Jewelene Newsome on Monday night, July 6, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reddick.

The bride-elect was completely surprised when she arrived for dinner and her many friends greeted her. Mrs. Reddick and Miss Patty Albright were hostesses for the lovely evening and Mrs. Reddick helped in tricking Miss Newsome by calling for her for the bogus dinner invitation.

Pink and white flowers were used throughout the rooms for decoration. The attractive table was centered with a dainty arrangement of pink flowers and pink and white cake squares, nuts and mints were served the guests.

During the evening several games were played with prizes for the most skilled. Mrs. Harold Barker won a contest which took the letters of the bride-elect's name and fitted them to words describing her. Mrs. Delores Newsome, another guest, also-in opening her many lovely gifts for her new home at the magnificent shower.

About fifteen friends of the bride-elect enjoyed the evening together.

Rotarian Tells Of Installation And Ladies Night

Last Tuesday night the Elementary School cafeteria was the scene of one of the most enjoyable Ladies Night in our club history. Over ninety Rotarian and Rotary women were present for an unusually fine buffet supper and officer installation.

Royal C. C. always puts on a fine buffet, but on this occasion he outdid himself. We have never heard more universal approval of any meal.

The actual installation was done by Charlie Lanier one of the original charter members of this club. Charlie has a very dry and subtle sense of humor and he used to the fullest in this regard. He did a splendid job and it is to be commended.

Hub Riggs who was the "unofficial" president kept his remarks brief because he has had his go at it for a whole year. Jim Hein the installed president gave a very good talk. Jim is very articulate and is surprising many by his excellent ability as a speaker. We should look forward to a very successful year under his leadership.

The actual entertainment was in the truly skilled hands of Professor Russell Danburg of the University of Florida. He started with an excellent rendition of "Chère de Lune" by Debussy which made some of our Rock 'n' Rollers squirm in their seats but he soon lapsed into a humorous musical program in the Victor Borge manner but with a unique and entirely original slant of his own. It was a program long to be remembered and one which would stand repeating again here in Avon Park.

The Chairman whose indefatigable work made this fine program possible was Roy Seims. Whenever a project is put in Roy's hands you may be assured that it will be carried out faithfully and efficiently. We owe him a debt of gratitude for an outstanding evening. All in all, it was a fine program and one of the best Ladies Nights we have ever had. Maybe it would be a good idea to have more of these than do.

banking methods to our bank for the better servicing of the community. It is only by keeping abreast of better and more modern methods that our bank can render the best possible service to the community. We are interested not only in building a bigger bank, but in serving the community and our customers better. This is why the Board of Directors and Mr. James Stottle, Jr. have insisted upon qualified personnel who are capable of giving sound, friendly financial advice in addition to service to our depositors.

"It is our feeling," Mr. Briscoe further stated, "that the bank must and will continue to be an integral part of our area's everyday life. Our Officers, Directors and personnel are part of the community, members of its churches and clubs, and are anxious to work in the best interests of the community. We anticipate that our continued growth will necessitate substantial increases in our banking quarters in the not too distant future."

Parents Urged To Join Retarded Children Group

Involving parents of children at the Florida Training Center for the Subnormal in Gainesville is local activities of The Florida Council For Retarded Children was set as a goal of the council's institution committee at a joint meeting with Superintendent R. C. Phillips and his professional advisory committee Monday.

The possibility of a separate organization for parents of children at the center had been suggested at a meeting of the council. Members of the committee decided, however, that parents could do more for the institution at Gainesville and the one under construction in Lee County by working through their local units of The Florida Council For Retarded Children. They made plans for reaching these parents with information about the council through The Social Services Department at the center.

The meeting Monday was called a "pilot" step toward close cooperation between the council committee and the institution. Attending from the institutions committee were Dr. John Brown of Ft. Pierce, committee chairman; Mrs. Browning G. Franklin Ward of Avon Park, president of The Florida Council; Mrs. Marshall Nelson of Pensacola; and A. J. Mortimer of Miami. Superintendent Phillips and heads of departments represented the center.

"Whether we have a child here or not," Mrs. Nelson noted, "we are all interested in the state training center. For retarded children, all roads lead to Gainesville."

To get more information from the center to members of the council, the group decided to publish a new article from the center each month in the council publication, "The Connection." Sunland representatives agreed to supply the information.

Thanked for donating their time and talent so that all participants of the circus might profit next year.

Faithful prep boys who have worked so hard at each performance of the circus this year and were on hand Saturday, were Tommy Sanders, Bobby Alwood, Steve Love and Jimmy Scott. Quenton Varnes and Thurston Martin, graduates and ex-members of the circus team, also extended a helping hand with the work Saturday.

Performers displaying their usual skill and talent were Seth McCormick, Kenny Kravich, Emmett Andrews, Nelson Butler, another graduate and former performer; Wallace Kirkland, Sarah and Loretta Futch, Pat Sanner, Donna Sue Wiggins, Donna Sue Pounds, Martha O'Steen, Rita Love, Mary Lois Roberts, Joy McLemore, Ann Rowland, and Faye Wattford.

Coach Franz and the other citizens of Avon Park attending were very proud of their group and had every right to be.

The two organizations tentatively agreed to cooperate in sponsoring a state-wide open house at Sunland in November. Parents, particularly, will be encouraged to visit the center at that time.

The institutions committee decided that its functions should include visiting out needs of the institutions to the Legislature and supporting continued improvement in facilities.

Discussions continued during lunch, which was served to the two committees in the meeting room of the center dining hall and closed in time for the visitors to return home that afternoon.

Go To Church On Sundays

From The Office Of Jim Hal

WASHINGTON, D. C. — We began a new fiscal year and celebrated Independence Day last week. It seems to me, therefore, that we should pause to take stock of our fiscal affairs and fix firmly in our view the direction in which we want to go.

For the past several years, we have been so concerned with solving some emergency, some crisis, that we have often completely overlooked the more serious issues. To add to the seriousness of the total problem, there have been a few persons who have sought personal gain by proclaiming some quick, sure solution. As a result of all this confusion, at times we have become much like a boat without a rudder. We have been under full power but because of a lack of sound, constructive policies and level-headed leaders who are statesmen first and politicians second, we have been prone to shift the most powerful nation in history all too frequently with the wind.

We have become the greatest, the most prosperous, and the most powerful nation in history. But unless we reinstate the old principles, we are in danger of decay.

To briefly explain, I want to point out that because of some of the quick, sure remedies that have been adopted during the past "emergencies," the individual has lost some of his freedom. The freedom of the individual citizen has become subservient to the needs of government. I think this loss of freedom is a danger signal that should alert every American citizen.

Another example is the farm problem with which we have been concerned since the 1920's. As a result of our mismanagement in the farm area, we have piled up in excess of $9 billion worth of government-owned farm surplus. The Federal government has paid industrial corporations for not raising farm products on farm land the corporation owned. Mind you, this has happened even though the owner of the farm land was not actively engaged in farming.

Of course, the government subsidies to the government control the price of the individual of the farm, and freedom that is the life of America.

One of the ill effects of the emergency and the "quick sure solution" is the increased income taxes that purport to be temporary, such as the excise taxes on telephones and transportation. But, we know you know it, another emergency has been created. It makes it necessary to make a "temporary" tax a permanent one.

The prime example of the point I want to make is the foreign aid farce. This was to be a temporary plan, but we have a situation that has become almost a permanent one. In fact, the President has recommended that military aid be increased to our regular defense. The results of this program have been our exports decreased and our imports increased. This, of course, means fewer jobs for American labor and loss of bargaining power.

Certainly it is time for the American people to demand sound fiscal policies and a re-evaluation of the basic principles upon which this nation was founded.

Should a child with rheumatic or congenital heart disease be allowed to go to summer camp?

In most cases, yes—providing that reasonable precautions are taken to insure the youngster's health, and that he is not experiencing active sickness.

Unnecessarily subjecting a child to a life of near-invalidism in the name of caution is not doing him a favor. Sunshine, fresh air and moderate exercise in company with other youngsters are excellent tonics for most children with heart disease.

How can the parents of a child with heart disease decide whether their youngster can safely and beneficially attend a summer camp? They can't—this is a matter for the family doctor's decision. He will be well acquainted with the medical facts on which the decision must be based.

It is important, however, that the child—if he is allowed to go to camp—attend one where his interests will be protected and where his own medical restrictions will not place him too far out of step with the rest of the youngsters.

In general, it is believed that the child whose heart disease is not severe can attend camp safely provided that, if he has had rheumatic fever, or rheumatic heart disease, he is guarded against any outbreak of "strep throat" by steady penicillin prophylaxis.

A large number of boys and their fathers will make this campout at Morgan's Hole in the heart of the Avon Park State Forest on Saturday, July 11, and Sunday, July 12, at Morgan's Hole on the Avon Park State Forest.

Each Scout must be accompanied by his father in order to be able to go on the overnight campout. Special arrangements will be made in the case of death or sickness but the purpose of the camp is to acquaint all fathers with the Scout program and they are urged to make this effort to accompany their son.

The group will meet at 2 o'clock on Saturday at Morgan's Hole and return home after breakfast on Sunday in time for church and Sunday School. Each father and son will be expected to supply their own food and camping equipment and several Scouts and their fathers may get together and make their plans if they wish.

An interesting program is being planned for the Campfire Ceremony and this will be announced later. All fathers who have boys in Boy Scout work in the Highlands District are asked to please take this opportunity to camp with their sons and become acquainted with the scouting program.

Hostesses for the miscellaneous bridal shower were Mrs. Edna Mae Leighton, Miss Jewellene Newsome, Mrs. Robert Harden, and Mrs. Seaborn. The hostesses pinned a key corsage on the bride-elect when she arrived.

The lovely table-dressed out the shower motif with a tiny blue and pink parasol spinning top miniature gifts serving as the original centerpiece. A lace cloth over pink covered the table and pink roses and greenery encircled the punch bowl. Held in the center of the table were several of the guests with their Cokes and dairy mint cups in an umbrella shape were filled with mints and nuts.

The guests were tested in their powers of observation when the bride-elect left the room and each one was asked to write down all they remembered about her appearance. This was one of the clever shower games enjoyed by all and Mrs. Cabrin Fletcher, Mrs. Lillie Mae Branning and Miss Patricia Jones were the lucky winners.

About twenty-five friends of the young couple enjoyed the evening with Miss Jones and her charming hostesses.

Miss Shirley Welch became the bride of Clayton Mitchell on Saturday evening, June 28, at 6 o'clock in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Sikes.

The Rev. Sikes performed the ceremony before an arch of greenery and white gardenias. Mrs. Sikes played wedding selections and Miss Karen Sikes sang several nuptial pieces.

A reception for the young couple, their families and friends was held in the Sikes home following the wedding. Cake and punch were served the twenty-five guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home in Avon Park. Mrs. Mitchell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Welch and the bridegroom is formerly of Alabama.

Shower Honors

Miss Antionette Jones of Mauchula, bride-elect of Benny Keith Hill, was literally showered with lovely gifts on Thursday night, July 8, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, Illinois.

A large pink and blue umbrella topped a clothing with gifts hanging from it by pink and blue plastic clothepegs to carry out the shower motif and feature the color Miss Jones will use in her wedding to Mr. Hill on Friday. This novel decorative idea held many lovely gifts for the young couple new home.

Attend FHA July 13 Convention

Miss Edith Nell Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wilson, will be among the 2,000 delegates to the 1959 National Convention of Future Homemakers of America, July 13-17, at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, Illinois.

Edith and 46 other FHA delegates were chosen by the State FHA Association to represent Florida at the National Convention. They will be accompanied by Miss Virginia Leslie, Area Supervisor, who is a member of the State home economics education advisory staff.

The five day Convention, plans themselves, will give the 40 FHA delegates to exchange ideas with FHAers from all states, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. The theme of the Convention "Blueprint for Action" is planned to help delegates find ways to use their new National Program of Work for 1959-62 in which they will emphasize developing their potential abilities, understanding family members, knowing the needs of some economic education, and promoting work at home and abroad.

A Junior at Avon Park High School, Edith Wilson has been an FHA member since 1956 and has served the local chapter as vice president in charge of program of work, president-elect, and president. She will be a senior next fall.

In addition to her FHA activities Edith is active in the following school and community organizations: the high school band, junior class projects, and the Future Teachers of America youth work. She will leave Saturday for Chicago and the convention.

Commendations of America is the national organization of students studying homemaking in junior and senior high schools. National membership totals nearly 500,000. The Florida Association has 9,362 members in 204 chapters.

Florida's steady recovery from the effects of poor weather and the national economic sag two years ago is revealed by income from sales and gasoline taxes during the two-year fiscal period ending June 30.

Comptroller Ray E. Green said today income from the sales tax for the past 12 months reached $148,147,234.80, for an increase of 10.99 per cent over collections of $133,461,950.17 in the preceding 12 months.

Total gasoline tax collections for the same period reached $112,424,243.28, for an increase of 7.25 per cent over the $105,191,666.67 collected during the 1957-58 fiscal year.

Collections from the sales tax for the past year fell only $2,275 short of the comptroller's revised estimate of $148,200,000 for the 12-month period. "As brought out during the recent legislative session, the state's income from these two main sources is maintaining a healthy growth," said Green. "Bartering some unforeseen drop or slowdown in the national upsurge, Florida can reasonably expect at least an increase of 10 per cent from the sales tax in each of the next two years, with a minimum 7 per cent gain from the gasoline tax."

The local tax recently added a estimated $28,000,000 in the next two years by amendments to the sales tax law. This extra income added to the amount from existing sources should result in total collections of $370,142,000 from the sales tax in the forthcoming two years," said the comptroller.

Green added that the immediate problem is to hold down expenditures during the next six months to get past a poor cash position until the first heavy-income months of 1960.

"The legislature gave us a sound and balanced spending program for the two years," commented Green. "There does not appear to be much prospect of any sizeable surplus, but we can meet the authorized demands by strictly following the budget approved by the legislature. It is probable that collections in the first year may fall in to delay certain programs."

Sales tax collections for the month of June based on May sales, amounted to $12,249,412.28 an increase of $1,765,755.61 or 16.82 per cent over the $10,483,656.67 collected during the same month last year; and a decrease of $453,595.11 or 3.62 per cent, under the $10,937,251.78 collected during the month of May.

Gasoline tax collections during the month of June based on May sales, amounted to $9,582,665.06 an increase of 7.42 per cent over the $8,929,221.42 collected during the same month last year; and a decrease of $453,595.11 or 4.62 per cent, under the $10,082,816.57 collected during the month of May.

Kathy Kirkland Birthday Party Enjoyed Tuesday

Kathy Kirkland and several of her friends celebrated Kathy's sixth birthday with a happy party on Tuesday morning, June 30, at her home.

The boys and girls played games in the yard with Sissy Skipper and Terry Barrow winning prizes for their skill. A high point for all the guests occurred when each one was able to shoot a "real rocket" onto space.

After playing the children enjoyed helping Kathy open her many lovely gifts and were delighted with favors of Bubble Gum and candy. Kathy and her hosts, a birthday cake decorated with cowboys and Indians pleased both boys and girls.

Then the hungry children were served the birthday cake, ice cream, and cold drinks. About thirty friends helped Kathy celebrate her sixth birthday. Mrs. Jeff Barrow, Miss Pat Lamb and Karen Kirkland helped Mrs. Mannin Kirkland with her daughter's party.

Mrs. James Newsome and her four children of Statesboro, Ga. were the guests of her sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Fletcher, and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lucie Newsome, recently. Miss Jean Newsome stayed for a visit in Avon Park and will return home around Labor Day.

Scouts Return From Week At Snively Ranch

A week of camping at the John Snively, Jr., ranch on the Vero Beach Road has given the Boy Scouts of Troop 156 something for many weeks to come.

The Scouts left June 27 and set up their camps on the ranch for a full week of outdoor living. During this time they fished, swam, hiked, cooked, and practiced a great deal of the other camp skills they have been studying all year.

A large number of the boys passed their 10 mile hike requirements with a number of other badges being earned for their camping skills. Norman Cook, assistant scout master, stayed with the troop the entire time they were camped with a number of fathers, committeemen, and Scoutmaster Elton Lawrence spending time with the boys on various days.

A small tornado blew over the campsite Friday though it didn't come to earth near the Scouts but did manage to give the boys quite a thrill. That night the Troop enjoyed a fish fry with fish they had caught. The week of camping was enjoyed by all the boys taking part and the many who visited them.

Scouts of Troop 156 who went on the trip were Andrew Miracle, Robert Dugan, Billy Rater, Danny Powers, Jimmie Rohrer, Bill Miracle, Mike Duggan, Johnny Conliffe, Tommy Hallam, Mike Allison, G. L. Townsend and Keith Abritton.

Troop 156 is planning to have an Order of the Arrow Ceremony in the near future to award their honors to eligible boys of the troop.

Plans are now being made for the Highlands District Boy Scouts to have a Last-Dad Campout at Morgan's Hole on the Bombing Range on July 26 and 27th.

Shower Honors

Miss Jewellene Newsome, bride-elect of Lowell Liskey of Sebring, was complimented with a miscellaneous bridal shower in the Social Hall of the Florida Avenue Baptist Church on Thursday evening, July 2.

A number of friends enjoyed the evening with the bride-elect and enjoyed helping her open her many lovely gifts for her new home. Miss Sandra Porter assisted Mrs. Newsome with her gifts.

Mrs. Johnson, the bride-elect's Sunday School teacher, sat behind her and listed her remarks on the bride's gifts. When these remarks were read aloud later the group and Miss Newsome had a good laugh.

Summer flowers were used to decorate the room and the lovely refreshment table was covered with a linen cloth and centered with a punch bowl encircled with fern and pink flowers. During the evening the guests were served of punch and cake from the lovely table.

Several games were played and an evening of visiting and fun was enjoyed by all. The lovely shower was given by the women of the church to honor Miss Newsome.

Plans are now being made for the Highlands District Boy Scouts to have a Last-Dad Campout at Morgan's Hole on the Bombing Range on July 26 and 27th.

Rickie Rich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rich, celebrated his important sixth birthday with a party at his home on Friday afternoon, June 26.

The little guests played games in the yard, gave the playground equipment a real work up and helped Rickie open his many lovely gifts. Brightly colored balloons were used for gay decorations on the car port.

A lovely cake with flowers, cherries, and a real coral delighted the boys and girls. Mrs. Rich served the children cake, served his friends with a favor of Maceo Bubble Blowers and all enjoyed making bubbles.

Report Progress In Control Of Obscene Mail

Postmaster D. G. Perry reports that good progress is being made in the Post Office Department's intensified campaign against obscene mail. "But the problem is so large and complex," says Postmaster Perry, "that significant and lasting relief will require full cooperation from the public."
A million American boys and girls of high school and junior high school age may receive obscene literature and pictures in the mail this year even though they neither wanted nor solicited them. "Reports which have come to my office from angry parents make it quite plain," says Postmaster Perry, "that many children in the Avon Park area are unwittingly being carried on lists used by mail order pornographic houses to select sales of their filthy materials."

The stout postmen, heavy users of first-class mail which is not subject to inspection by postal authorities, have developed clever means of adding teenagers to their mailing lists. They clip names from high school yearbooks and they buy them from legitimate mail-order houses dealing in items of interest to its. They even advertise acceptable children's merchandise at bargain prices to build up their lists. It is easy to get on a list, but nearly impossible to get off one.
In 1955 Congress made it a federal offense to mail obscene matter. The Post Office Department has lost its fullest support to such legislation, but commercialized pornography has continued to grow. It has developed considerably in just the past years, and the Post Office Department predicts that unless a concerted national effort is waged against it, it will increase substantially again over the next 10 years.

Until recently the Post Office Department encountered great difficulty in bringing these racketeers to bay because the Federal laws permitted prosecution only in the courts at the place of mailing. In response to urging by the Post Office Department and pleas from aroused church, civic, and other groups across the country, the 85th Congress passed legislation which permits prosecution not only at the point of mailing, but in communities where the material are received. Postmaster General Summerfield is determined to use this new legal weapon to the fullest extent possible.

Floridians May Lose Rights To Some Lakes

Within a few years the Florida public may have lost its rights to a vast majority of navigable lakes, according to Noy C. Lendrum, specialist in natural resources administration. The bare handful remaining under state control may be all but valueless from increasing abuses, Lendrum said in writing a pamphlet published by the University of Florida's Public Administration Clearing Service.
Before implementing a successful management program of the required scope, the State must adopt a sound fresh water lakes policy, Lendrum says. A sound statutory basis for lake management already exists, he added, stating that the vital need at this time is for an aggressive exercise of initiative by the agencies now charged with responsibility.
Fresh water lakes in Florida cover an area almost twice the size of Rhode Island comprising about 7 percent of the state's total surface, and this new brochure presents pertinent data on many facets of these natural assets to the state.
Entitled "Florida's Fresh Water Lakes" the pamphlet discusses physical facts and stresses the significance of lakes for water storage, fish and wildlife habitats, boating, navigation, and swimming, scenic and aesthetic values, weather moderation and property value enhancement. It also is concerned with water control, quality, and use; lake bottom use and ownership; and lake access.

The Public Administration Clearing Service is a research agency of the University of Florida's Public Administration Department under the direction of Dr. Gladys M. Kammerer. Single copies of the pamphlet are available free on request to Dr. Kammerer.

Nazarene Church Revival Opened Wednesday Night
The Nazarene Church revival opened Wednesday night with a service at 7:30 p.m. The service was held in the church sanctuary and was attended by a large number of people. The service was led by Rev. Grady T. King On USS Bonner
Grady T. King, machinist's mate and U.S. Navy, is scheduled to visit Milwaukee, Wis., July 8-13 as part of Operation "Inland Sea," a vast naval exercise to celebrate the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway this summer.
Ship of this group, forming Amphibious Unit One, are also scheduled to visit Cleveland, Ohio, July 14-15; Erie, Pa., July 20-21; and Rochester, N. Y., July 24-25. These visits will be made by the ship as a complete unit or in pairs.
Not since 1813 have American Navy ships sailed in such large numbers. This operation, involving 28 ships and over 5,000 Sailors and Marines, will introduce the Midwest to the sea-going U. S. Navy, its destroyers, amphibious force ships and the heavy cruiser USS Maine.

REV. RODGERS
Rev. Clyde B. Rodgers will be conducting Revival Services at 7:30 each evening, July 8 through 19, at the Nazarene Church, 707 W. Main.
Rev. Clyde B. Rodgers is widely known as a successful evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene. Having entered the field of evangelism in 1933, he has conducted revival campaigns, and "old camp meetings" across the nation and in Canada.
His message is plain, logical and convincing. An ardent student of prophecy, he is well able to soundly present this very important teaching of the Scriptures.
Before his call to the ministry, Mr. Rodgers was a commercial artist and is devoting his talent very effectively to his ministry. Each night he draws a beautiful picture illustrating some gospel song. The effectiveness of his work is even more impressive because he sings the song himself as he draws the picture completing both of them simultaneously. Because of his unusual speed, he has been called "America's Lightning Chalk Artist."
Everyone is welcome.
