PTA To Cooperate To Stop Obscene Literature In Mails

The Avon Park High School PTA in cooperation with the local post office and the United States Post Office Department wishes to bring this important message before the citizens of the community.

Arthur E. Summerfield, Postmaster General, gave the address from which the following statements are taken and Postmaster D. G. Perry of Avon Park brought this speech before the PTA and asked for cooperation in passing his message on the parents and other interested parties in the community.

The United States mails are being used today for the wholesale promotion and conduct of mail order business in obscene and pornographic materials. The sale of these materials through the mails is estimated to run over $50 million dollars a year. This filth is being aimed more and more at the nation's children, teen-age boys and girls, and even younger, and the homes of the nation are being violated with complete defiance of the Federal Government.

This racket is dumping pornographic sewage into the hands of hundreds of thousands of our children through the family mail box—most of its material that has not been ordered—material intended to solicit the sale of utterly obscene pictures, slides and related trash. The racketeers obtain the names of the children from legitimate ads in national publications, or buy prepared mailing lists and in one way or another secure millions of names and addresses.

This is big business and your child or the child next door may be on a list. Congress is concerned with this problem and urgent positive action is needed now to stop this stream of filth flooding to our young people with its only intent to addict them to publication, or buy prepared mailing lists and in one way or another secure millions of names and addresses.

The 8th Congress passed legislation making it a law that anyone mailing this obscene material could be prosecuted in the community where the mail is received and it is one of the most important pieces of legislative in recent years. The Post Office Department is determined to press the use of this law to the fullest possible extent.

To make full legal use of this new weapon the Post Office Department must have the cooperation of parents and decent-minded citizens everywhere. The department can legally identify and take action against violators of the mails only on the complaints of citizens who receive such material. Local residents who receive obscene mail and open that mail must forward it to the local postmaster as evidence before action can be taken.

You as a parent and citizen are urged to save all obscene materials received including the envelope and report the material immediately to D. G. Perry, local Postmaster, and turn the materials over to him either in person or by mail. Everyone is urged to help in this important drive to safeguard our children from these filth racketeers.

In the field of rehabilitation the local group sent girls and to babies to the three veteran hospitals valued at over $120; sponsored two parties for veterans at the C. Pearce Wood Memorial Hospital in Arcadia and members attended and took charge; collected $600 for the school hospital for use in handicrafts; donated to "Care"; donated to "The Crusade for Freedom"; and gave school medals to girls in the 6th, 8th, and 12th grades.

The above mentioned are only part of the work the Legion Auxiliary has accomplished in our community in the past year. They have earned the funds for these projects in a number of ways and all members have worked hard. The total membership of the group is 44 adult members, 18 junior members and 3 Gold Star mothers.

The Avon Park Sun and the community congratulates the American Legion Auxiliary on their fine work locally and throughout the state and nation. We realize that our community is a better place in which to live because of the work of groups such as the Legion Auxiliary and excellent year next year with the new officers.

Life is not truly life, but only misery.—Euripides.

Seniors Enjoy Class Party Monday Evening

Graduation seniors of the Avon Park High School held their final class party on Monday afternoon and evening, June 8, in the Florida Power Clubhouse on Lake Lotela.

Forty members of the class, their sponsors, Mrs. Violet Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Varney, and principals, Mr. A. B. Whitte and Mr. John Citterman, Mrs. W. H. Mrs. Citterman, and Charles Moseley attended the picnic and party.

Swimming, boating, and water skiing was enjoyed by all during the afternoon and delicious bar-b-que chicken, potato salad and chips, and cold drinks were eaten in great quantities by the hungry guests. The seniors held their banquet with funds remaining from the money they earned during their years in school.

The evening ended with visiting and dancing in the Clubhouse. The seniors enjoyed the party but an air of sadness was felt by all because it was the last time the boys and girls would be together as a group. From now on they will go to their separate ways into life and the happy carefree days at Avon Park high school will soon be past a memory.

The party was a happy affair to add to the senior's collection of pleasant high school memories.

Private Douglas A. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Keller Phillips of 426 West Pleasant Street, has been assigned to Company B, 18th Battalion, 1st Training Regiment at Fort Jackson, S. C., for eight weeks of basic combat training.

Upon arrival at Fort Jackson, he was issued clothing and given a complete physical examination and a comprehensive battery of aptitude tests.

As part of his basic training he will be taught rifle marksmanship under the Army's new Trainee program. In training, he will learn to use an M-1 rifle by firing at pop-up targets on terrain which duplicates combat areas.

He will also be taught drill, tactics, camouflage, military courtesy, first aid and other basic subjects. He will learn how to throw a grenade, fire in pitch darkness, crawl under barbed wire with machine gun fire overhead, and defend himself in simulated chemical, biological and radiological warfare situations.

During his seventh week of training, he will march 12 miles with full field pack to a live-fire area to spend a week living in the field and learning to integrate the skills he has been taught.

After completing basic training, he normally will receive a two-week leave before reporting for his next assignment.

20 Years Later... SAME STATION—DIFFERENT WAGON

The setting is the same as 20 years ago but, otherwise, these pictures tell a graphic story of two decades of station wagon development. The photograph at top was taken at the Wranglers' Club, New York City station in 1939 as Chevrolet introduced its first station wagon model with a body made of wood and steel. In contrast below is a 1959 all-steel Nomad with a rugged, wrap-around window, folding seats, electrically operated tailgate window, dual headlights, etc. A further note on station wagon history... In 1929, the first station wagon was a 1929 Chevrolet. Today, about every sixth car is a wagon. Five of Chevrolet's 15 passenger car models are station wagons.

Birds That Are Near Extinction—Or Are Extinct

By Bird Woman
We hope to conclude this series of birds that have become extinct or have been on the verge of extinction, with this article.
As far as it is known the wonderful Ivory Bill Woodpecker breeds in woodlands no longer, although a last minute effort was taken to set aside a Sanctuary for them, it seems that it was the same old story "too little too late".
A few years ago, when it was thought that they were extinct, a few were found deep in the forest in the Apalachicola region in north Florida as the timber was being removed, and the land owners co-operated with the Game and Fish Commission and set aside a 1300 acre Sanctuary and posted wardens to protect these beautiful birds. After nesting these birds disappeared, and as far as we can learn have never been seen again, there is a possibility that a few of them still are living in the deep recesses of some forest, but to all intents and purposes they are numbered among our extinct birds.

They were a very beautiful bird, a little larger than a Crow and with a red crest on the male and the female having a black crest, they had broad white markings, extending from under the eyes down the back to the end of the wings and broadening out making the secondary and primary feathers also white, which made a striking contrast to the black of the body and tail.

This Woodpecker ranged from 19 to 21 inches long and having a wing spread of from 29 to 33 inches. Can you imagine this beautiful and useful bird which was once abundant in some parts of our State, and scattered about in most of the swampy timber land, and also could be found as far north as Ill., and west into Texas, being killed out by man?
The Indians were said to have collected the red crests for wampum and prized the white bills as trinkets, and the white man, we are sorry to say, would kill them for the ivory bills as trinkets.
In this way it was possible, when and if the birds were returned, to know just where the Eagle traveled, and it was surprising to know that some of the birds were returned from as far north as Canada.
We understand that Alaska has the second largest number of Eagles in existence, recently they were trying to get many passed to protect them, we hope they succeeded, especially since it is their National Bird now also.
Then there is the Whooping Crane that is nearing extinction. Some people confuse it with the Florida Sand Hill Crane, which some call the whooper, but the Florida Crane is grayish with a red spot on top of its head, while the real Whooper is white and has black wings and a red top. This bird stands five feet high when it stands on tip toe to give its famous whoop which can be heard for miles, and from which it gets its name.

Ornithologists think that there were never more than 1400 of these birds at their peak, but when their number got down to the low thirties, it was time to do something to save them from extinction, so alarming was the situation that Canada and the U. S. have been on the alert for several years to see that none of these birds were killed as they migrated from their nesting place in western Canada to their refuge in Texas (Aransas Refuge).
Not till 1932 was it discovered where they migrated to for nesting, but an aerial search located their hide away. These birds do not migrate in flocks as many birds do, but struggle along singly or in families.
You no doubt have read often of the progress of trying to raise some in captivity at the Audubon Park Zoo in New Orleans, a few have been hatched and survive. So this year has been considered a banner year, for 32 Cranes, 6 more than last year have been counted, so the 38, still in captivity, is the most known Whoopers that have been counted in twenty years, so you see the progress is slow.
Now wading birds of all kinds are being threatened, the Wood seems to be the one needing help most, a new refuge has been opened for them near Lakeland and we hope this will be the beginning.
We have given the facts about the birds that have inhabited our Country and many of

New Catalog Of Green Stamps Is Circulated
J. B. Terry, Winter Haven, Florida, branch manager for the Sperry & Hutchinson Company, announced the distribution here of the new S&H Green Stamp Merchandise Catalog. The Company's 65th catalog, Mr. Terry said, lists twice the number of items as in previous years. More than 1,000 items of merchandise are shown, including an all-electric kitchen, six new patterns of sterling silver and fifty-nine decorative items, all new. The catalog has 94 pages, 50% more pages than in previous editions.
Shown in the catalog are products made by manufacturers in this State and available for redemption in 35 S&H Green Stamp Redemption Stores across the nation.
Mr. Terry said that the catalog is reported to be the largest single business publication printing order in the nation. "The current S&H Catalog," he added, "indicates the growth of our business. It is the most available to the 23 million families in the U.S.A.—who now save S&H Green Stamps, distributed

Let us, hear him, hear him, smile him, taste him, or touch him. And the same holds for the soul of man, for immortality, etc. I quote Professor Adler: "I repeat, the most important of all and by far, are positive, not negative. Furthermore, I say that the most important of all is the positive, which dominates every aspect of our life. The positive is the central core of our culture. The following was stated by Adolf Hitler as very momentous. Hitler was advocating us for our primitive Democracy in this country today. The Socialists, when we are in good health, are the most advanced of all. In a word, then, Positivism builds down to atheism, agnosticism and very often to Communism. When the great principles of Western Civilization are thrown overboard we are scattering the ruler of the ship. Everything can happen; all sense of power of direction is gone. People become panicky; they are ready for any sort of proposed panacea. Such is one of the effects of war, as the Holy Father some years ago pointed out: "In war all is lost."
Professor Mortimer J. Adler, then of the University of Chicago, himself of the Jewish tradition, says that, by and large, the majority of the professors, who are also the trainers of our teachers in the lower grades of education, are positivists, agnostics, and some of you may recall that Cardinal Newman says that there is no God and no heaven, and that this is the only of His existence or of His nature. And why, again, can we not believe that a God can be perceived? sense God, can not perceive Him.

It's A FACT
George Washington WAS NOT THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE U.S.A.
The first President of the U.S.A. was John Hanson, of Maryland, who was elected Nov. 1781 to the office of the First Congress of the Confederation. Although he was the 8th president of the Congress, he was the first to whom the above was applied. "Famous First Facts"
