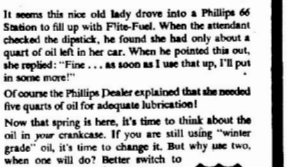
A Scientific Method For Safe Suntanning

A new scientific method for suntanning has been developed by the Aloe Creme Laboratories, Inc., Fort Lauderdale, Fla. with the introduction of the Alo-Creme Cabana Set. The set contains a bottle of Fashion Tan and After Tan, which are the essential elements of a new, scientific method of enjoying a healthy, beautiful tan and keeping it longer than you've ever enjoyed a tan before.

Science has learned the tan begins deep in the skin, every layer of the skin must be moisturized during and after the tanning process. Fashion Tan, rich in the pure "gel" of the Aloe Vera, rapidly promotes a healthy, moist, glowing tan, gives you that rich, lustrous tan that's always the height of fashion. After Tan is specially compounded to keep your tan by conditioning your skin for continued glowing beauty. The pure "gel" of Aloe Vera moisturizes each layer of skin, preventing the dry, parched, weather-beaten look.

So glorify your tan with After Tan, keep it luxuriously alive with the liquid cream that keeps your tan in a golden hue. The Cabana Set, sold at Touchton's Drug Store, combines these two necessities for a beautiful, lasting tan in a smart, convenient kit. It is ideal for beach or pool, and like all Alo-Creme products they are in non-breakable plastic bottles. This stunning set makes an outstanding gift.

If you can't be careful use Alo-Creme Ointment for burns, cuts, skin irritations or sunburn. Alo-Creme Ointment heals, as well as provides immediate and lasting relief from pain. It helps the burn to heal from the inside out, preventing the formation of unsightly scars and scabs. It is a safe, effective medication which contains no anesthetics, coolants or toxic ingredients. Alo-Creme is stainless and non-allergic.



Lykes Brothers, Inc., In Wage Hour Suit

Tampa, Florida.—An action filed here by the U. S. Labor Department names Lykes Brothers, Inc., as violator of the wage-hour law in case of "many employees" in its Ranch Division at Tampa.

A permanent restraining order is sought against the firm, which also operates ranches in Hendry, Highlands, and Glades Counties, as well as a meat packing plant in this city.

The complaint alleges many employees of the Ranch Division had not been paid minimum-wage or overtime-pay rates required by law.

Suit was based upon an investigation made by the Tampa office of the Labor Department's Wage and Hour Division.

Crankcase Crisis!

It seems this nice old lady drove into a Phillips 66 Station to fill up with Flite-Fuel. When the attendant checked the dipstick, he found she had only about a quart of oil left in her car. When he pointed this out, she replied: "Fine . . . as soon as I use that up, I'll put in some more!"

Of course the Phillips Dealer explained that she needed five quarts of oil for adequate lubrication!

Now that spring is here, it's time to think about the oil in your crankcase. If you are still using "winter grade" oil, it's time to change it. But why use two, when one will do? Better switch to Phillips 66 Trop-Artic* which gives you the effects of 10w, 20 and 30 grade oils. Compared to old-fashioned oils it can actually double engine life. Drive in today for your spring change-over.

Get More Out Of Life

April Is Open Season For Husband-Nagging

"I hereby declare April as open season for husband-nagging because April is Cancer Control Month, and because more men are dying of cancer than women."

This appeal was sounded today by Carl Prisoc, local chairman of the current Cancer Crusade. He urged the women of Avon Park to nag their husbands into any doctor's office for a checkup, as a matter of self-defense and as a direct protection against cancer.

The Cancer Society's annual educational and fund-raising drive, which began April 1, is using the slogan "Fight Cancer with a Checkup and a Check" for a third successive year. Highlands County must raise $2,500 of the $30,000,000 the ACS is seeking to carry on its threefold program of education, research and service.

"Surveys after our last checkup drive showed a definite increase in health examinations," Mr. Prisoc said. "And breakdown figures indicate that men as well as women are learning that investment in medical prevention can pay a high dividend in the saving of life. But men are still not as health conscious as women. Nor do they live as long.

"Women certainly don't seem to have the psychological block to seeing the doctor that many men seem to have. I suppose it is due to the fact that women are the natural guardians of family health.

"It is interesting that a New York clinic reported more men than women registrants for checkups, coincident with our last campaign. But according to the clinic, many of the men were 'nagged husbands.' What better reason for declaring an open season for nagging?

"Obviously, we want men to learn the facts of cancer for themselves. But most of them are so absorbed in economic survival they are apt to forget the basis of survival -- their health. So our womenfolk can do a life-saving job by studying the facts of cancer and passing them on to their menfolk.

"I mean life-saving literally. Techniques of treating this disease have been vastly improved in recent years, but they cannot be used to achieve a cure unless the cancer is discovered in time. And a regular checkup offers the best chance of detecting that cancer in time."

According to American Cancer Society statistics, 53 out of every 100 cancer deaths are men; 47 are women. This has been true since 1949. Two vital factors are responsibles for the changed ratio in deaths from cancer which used to be called "a woman's disease."

"The cancer death rate among women has declined because thousands are now being saved who would have died a decade ago," declared Mr. Prisoc. "At the same time the incidence of cancer among men has risen to an all-time high. I refer, of course, to the ever-increasing hazard of lung cancer which strikes ten men for every women.

"Last year some 24,500 men died of lung cancer. Twenty years ago lung cancer deaths among men numbered about 4,000. There is food for thought in these figures. And for action that regular checkups should include an annual chest x-ray. That goes for every adult man and woman."

Mr. Prisoc listed other common sites of cancer in men which should be checked regularly. They include stomach, bowels and rectum, skin, lip and mouth, larynx and prostate gland.

He concluded his appeal to the women of Avon Park with these words: "I have given you a few facts about cancer in men. Our leaflets are available at our information booths and our volunteers will come calling with them when they visit their friends and neighbors on Cancer Control Day. Learn all you can about this disease that killed 250,000 Americans last year. And then nag your husband -- it may save his life!"

Oriental Splendor Highlights Jr. - Sr. Banquet And Dance Saturday

The Avon Park High School Juniors entertained the Seniors in the Oriental Gardens of the Avon Elementary Cafetorium on Saturday, March 29.

The room was a fairyland of oriental splendor with a Japanese maid, Miss Claire Maxwell in costume, greeting the guests as they entered over a picturesque cotton bridge. Giant six foot butterflies covered the windows and the stage was a replica of a Japanese garden. Two lovely cherry trees and a grass covered floor accented the temple design on the curtain behind the giant paper mache buddha and a coolie, Mike Wells, struck a large gong as different events followed each other. Other decorations included Japanese lanterns, wisteria vines, glass chimes, a wishing well for punch, and a pagoda.

Miss Eve Campbell, president of the Junior Class welcomed the Seniors and Gene Bigbee, president of the Senior Class, responded to the welcome. A skit was given by the junior and one by the seniors for the entertainment of the guests.

A delicious meal was served to the 160 guests by Mrs. Sam Howell and her staff. Mrs. John Wright and Mrs. Murrell Prescott were in charge of the sophomore girls who did an excellent job of serving the dinner.

Dancing was enjoyed by the students and their guests after the meal. Mrs. Violet Mosely, assistant junior sponsor, was in charge of the banquet and dance, with the Junior Class and Earl Varner, Junior Sponsor, assisted. The bridge was built for the Juniors by the men of the Avon Park Prison camp who wished to show their appreciation for the band and glee club concerts.

The Forward Control 'Jeep' FC-170 Truck, 7,000-pounds GVW.

Do your "impossible" jobs with this bigger Forward Control 'Jeep' Truck!

Now you can deliver payloads to areas impossible for ordinary trucks to reach with the new 4-Wheel-Drive Forward Control 'Jeep' FC-170 Truck.

It has a huge 9-foot pickup box on a wheelbase only 103½ inches long. It's the only 4-wheel-drive truck with so much cargo space per inch of wheelbase—the only truck with 'Jeep' maneuverability that carries payloads of up to 3500-pounds almost anywhere!

The FC-170 has the extra traction of 4-wheel drive for tough going. It's engineered especially for off-the-road travel, yet it shifts easily into 4-wheel drive for economical highway performance. It's powered by the high-torque Hurricane 6-226 engine, time-tested and performance-proved the world over. And its spacious Safety-View cab puts the driver in a Forward Control position for greater command of any driving situation, on or off the road.

THE STATE OF CITRUS

By JOHN SIKES

Florida Citrus Mutual

Lakeland. — A query from a history-minded reader sent me delving into the beginnings of famous Indian River citrus. And I had no further to go than the files of M. R. Buckalew, executive secretary of the Indian River Citrus League with headquarters at Vero, Beach.

First, you should know there's officially just two citrus "regions" in Florida. There's the Indian River area. This extends northward to just a little south to the Palm Beaches and juts inland from three to 25 miles.

The other area is the "Interior", which covers the broad area of everything in the Citrus Belt that isn't Indian River.

First Indian River commercial grove was planted, according to data at hand, by a Capt. Dummitt on land between "The River" and Mosquito Lagoon near the present town of Shiloh. This was before the War Between the States; about 1840.

Another captain, Milla Olcott Burnham, who kept the lighthouse at Cape Canaveral (now famous for missiles, rockets, etc.), started groves in the hammocks along The River.

From the early work of the two captains stemmed today's rich Indian River segment of the Citrus Industry.

You might like the historical footnote. First shipments of Indian River fruit, packed in boxes made of driftwood picked up on the beaches, were in sailboats to the ports of New Smyrna and Jacksonville, and thence by larger ocean craft to New York.

What's The Price?—Current quotation bear out Florida Citrus Mutual General Manager Bob Rutledge's statement that "prices for citrus and citrus products must be commensurately higher this season to compensate for volume loss caused by freezes".

Frank Trovillion, director of Mutual's Marketing Information Division, says oranges, generally, are moving at about $1.00 per box, wholesale FOB, above last year. White and pink seedless grapefruit are up about 35 cents per box. Only Duncan grapefruit are priced about the same as last year.

Peelings—Answering an outlander's question: There're one and three-fifths bushels of citrus in a standard full box. . . . Most Florida grapefruit were developed from the Duncan variety. (And many a citrus old-timer insists the original Duncans—readily available everywhere—still have the best eating qualities, seeds and all.). . . It might interest some of you all who thought California was so important to know that Seattle and Salt Lake City are two of the best markets for florida citrus. . . . Recent illustrations of freeze-damaged fruit in The Triangle, Mutual publication, gave fruit stand operators ideas. They posted the illustrations and told prospective customers: "You see, our fruit's not like this". Neat, profitable use of contrast to make a sale.

* * * *

Lakeland. — The nearly 9,000 members of Florida Citrus Mutual, in General Manager Bob Rutledge's words, are "the best informed agricultural producers in the world".

Two reasons for this come so quickly to mind as to be obvious.

First, citrus growers are among the most actively inquisitive agriculturists in the world. They want to know, and usually find out, every little detail that has any bearing at all on their production, the quality of their products and the pricing and marketing situation.

Second, Mutual has a staff of field men who's job it is to go to the "grass roots", so to speak, and do their best to answer the questions that are always popping up in the minds of the growers.

These field men are in the groves every day helping to solve production and cultural problems, giving up-to-the-minute price and market information and, generally, doing their bit to eliminate as much vexation as possible from the growing, harvesting and selling of citrus.

Lewis S. Marshall, director of Mutual's Grower and Contract Dept., coordinates the efforts of these field men with Mutual's Lakeland headquarters and the grower members.

The field men, their headquarters and their territories are as follows:

Roy Morgan, Eustis—Lake, Citrus and Sumter Counties.

B. H. (Red) Phillips, Ocala—Marion, Volusia, Putnam and Alachua.

R. L. Pearson, Jr., Orlando—Orange, Osceola and Seminole.

Sebert Hall, Lake Placid—Indian River district and Highlands and DeSoto.

Venezuela Letter:—Note from Mrs. Thomas A. Beckwith, whose address is Orinoco Mining Co., Puerto Ordaz, Estado Bolivar, Venezuela, South America, about FCM's grapefruit spoons (those handy gadgets for taking the squirt and work out of grapefruit eating): "I am a mother of four children and believe me fixing grapefruit for six people in time for breakfast is no fun. With your new spoons there is nothing to it. If Venezuela only had better grapefruit!"

Peelings—The gift fruit business in Florida is reckoned to be a $30,000,000 industry, some 500 shippers annually selling that much fruit, juice, etc., to folks from all parts of the U. S.; plus several foreign countries. . . A national magazine tips that a citrus juice break every mid-morning helps relieve "High Blood". . . Those "golden apples" of Greek mythology in the legend about the Isle of Hesperidies colud have been oranges. Hesperidin, you know—are used in the treatment of colds. . . And if you think orange trees aren't a hardy lot, there's one in Rome reported to be seven hundred years old.

PTA To Serve Chicken Supper Before Circus

Once again the time is nearly here for the annual Red Devil Circus and of course that means the members of the PTA will again be busy with the concession booths. Last year the PTA didn't serve a supper in the High School Cafetorium, as they had done in past years, but this year plans have been made for the mothers to serve a delicious fried chicken supper.

Mrs. Ed Sharpe, chairman of the supper, is being assisted by Miss Faye Gordon, Home Service Advisor for Florida Power Corp., and other members of the PTA.

A complete fried chicken dinner with all the trimmings including a dessert and plenty of hot coffee will be served on April 19, between 5 and 7:00 p. m. for only $1.25 for adults and .75c for children under 12 meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gerald Wicker with nine members present.

Mrs. Virgil Hall discussed the lessons from the study book and Mrs. Harold Guernsey, president of the Women's Missionary Union, was a special visitor to the circle.

After a short business meeting the hostess served delicious refreshments.

Don't forget the Association Youth Night in the First Baptist Church of Bowling Green on Monday, April 7. Transportation will leave the church at 7 o'clock.

First Baptist Church News

An organization supper was served the members of the Young Women's Association at the church on Monday evening, March 24.

There were ten young women from the ages of 13-25 and the leader, Mrs. Elmer Fentress present at the meeting and they will meet on the 1st and 3rd Monday night of each month.

The Mary Evelyn Frenden-berg Circle held its monthly meeting on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Ralph Hall with 11 members present.

Mrs. Hall gave the devotional and Mrs. Elmer Fentress, circle chairman, presided over the business session.

Mrs. Hilda Taylor gave the lesson from the study book and Mrs. Leonard Pearl closed with prayer.

Students in the fifth and sixth grades will begin selling tickets soon, with Mrs. Jamie Lee Edge serving as chairman. Each child that sells ten tickets for the supper will receive a free ticket for his dinner, so help the children win a ticket, come and enjoy a fried chicken dinner then see the circus. Mrs. Ethel Harrison will also have tickets for sale at Touchton's Drug Store.

Jacaranda Hotel News

At the Buffet Supper held in the Dining Room on Friday night the guests were entertained with an outstanding musical program given by Mrs. Elmer Fentress, soloist, and Mrs. Julia Holcombe at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Coats and their son, Royal Jr., spent Saturday in Lakeland on a short trip.

Mrs. Hilda Taylor, Mr. Bill Young and Mr. Leonard Pearl attended the Dog Races at Derby Lane in St. Petersburg on Saturday.

Many of the guests of the hotel are starting to leave for their summer homes now. Mr. and Mrs. L. M. White have returned to Mexico City, Missouri, for the summer. Mrs. Ella Yakes of Bloomfield, Ill. left on Tuesday for her home after a winter here. Mr. Leonard Peal has left for his home in Exeter, N. H.

on DITHANE Z-78 (ZINEB) for rust mite control

J. H. BARNHART

Mount Dora, Florida

"DITHANE Z-78 has given me very good results . . ."

Last July, I included DITHANE Z-78 in with my regular summer scalecide for "greasy spot" and rust mite control, and it has given me very good results, in fact, I have not used any other material since applying this.

Use DITHANE Z-78 (zineb) in your dormant or post-bloom sprays for double-duty control of (1) rust mite and (2) "greasy spot." For high initial kill and long residual activity, thorough coverage at recommended dosages is essential. DITHANE Z-78 is available from your dealer. Ask him for more information on this double-duty zineb fungicide.

20 Jehovah's Delegates Attend Circuit Assembly

The Sebring congregation of Jehovah's witnesses sent 20 delegates to the regular semi-annual circuit assembly held at the Florida Citrus Building in Winter Haven this past weekend.

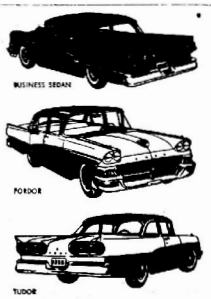
The three day Bible conference was scheduled to serve Florida Circuit 6 and the program included discussions and lectures directed toward Bible history, prophesy and improved methods of conducting ministerial service.

Mr. Donald L. Campbell, presiding minister of the Sebring congregation, said today that all the Sebring group in attendance throughly enjoyed the varied program. He said they found the seminar helpful and instructive and the circuit learned of their progress during the past six months and were given helpful counsel relative to ways of bettering their preaching work.

The highlight of the affair was the public lecture delivered by J. W. Filson, district director of the Southeast United States, during the final session Sunday. 1018 were in attendance for the climax of the convention.

"The future looks dark and distressing to many people," Filson said, "and it seems that they are perplexed over the conditions existing in the world today.

"The message that Jehovah's witnesses proclaim is one of hope. We are looking to God's Kingdom by Christ Jesus as the means by which lasting peace and security will come to this earth," he said.



Baptism services were held in Winter Haven as part of the Saturday program. 22 persons were immersed as a symbol of their dedication to God and intention to enter a life in the ministry.

The Sebring group was informed that the circuit is growing steadily and almost all congregations associated have had a good increase during the past six month period.

The Sebring congregation will join with Jehovah's witnesses earth-wide this Sunday in presenting a special public sermon entitled, "A New Song for All Men of Good Will." The public is cordially invited to attend.

...ed Eiland from behind. When Eiland turned around, Murdock had in his hand the deputy told him, if that his pistol and as he walked across the road with his .22 caliber revolver in his hand at Eiland, he pleaded with Eiland to shoot down his .45 caliber automatic pistol. The deputy stated he didn't want either of them to get hurt.

Murdock testified that Eiland appeared excited and angry, but not under the influence of intoxicants. According to the deputy Eiland fired at him from about 12 to 15 ft., and after he shot his and falling he returned the fire. Murdock said 4 shots were fired at him. Shells from Eiland's gun were found near the spot where the deputy fell.

The deputy denied that on his arrival Mrs. Eiland told him to go away as she and her husband would discuss things. He also denied he fired the first shot, and he said he didn't remember if Eiland had ordered him to leave his property.

Other witnesses who took the stand Monday were: Sheriff Broward Coker of Highlands County; Sheriff Hoyt Carlton of Hardee County; Patrolman E. G. Long, Sebring, Sheriff's deputy George Crist and R. E. Miller, county surveyor and Eiland's employer.

Coker said Eiland admitted that he held no grudge against him or Murdock and that he knew that his wife had called Murdock to his home.

Both sheriffs told of Eiland's surrender to Coker, and his tender of his loaded gun. Sheriff Carlton stated Eiland refused to answer when he suggested that Eiland intended to kill Murdock.

Long, the first officer to arrive, testified to finding Murdock laying in the blood stained sidewalk. Miller and Crist testified about photos and a survey of the shooting scene.

Tuesday Attorney Burton argued that the deputy was a trespasser, that he had no warrant for Eiland's arrest, and that as Murdock walked towards Eiland, gun in hand, Eiland had every right to resist arrest and to protect his life. Burton, also argued, state witnesses failed to prove pre meditated intent to kill.

Both Eiland and his wife testified that they had asked Murdock to leave. Mrs. Eiland admitted she requested the deputy be sent to her home, but she denied she told him her husband was in the house and that he had a gun and would kill him. She testified that she did not see her husband with a gun. Mrs. Eiland also claimed Murdock fired first although in a previous statement to Huffaker she said she didn't know who fired the first shot. The difference in statements she made the day after the shooting and Tuesday on the stand she attributed to fatigue pills she had taken and thus she didn't known what she was saying.

Eiland testified he had ordered the deputy to leave and admitted he had his gun in his belt. He repeated several times that he told Murdock if the deputy would put his gun down first he would do likewise. He admitted firing a warning shot then leaving and reappearing on the opposite side of the street. He then insisted Murdock fired first, and that the deputy had fired twice, one bullet just missing his head. He said that was when he pulled his gun and fired until his gun emptied and jammed. He then ran from the scene and reloaded his gun. He testified he did not know Murdock had been hit. He later called Sheriff Coker and surrendered.

In answer to the question by Burton if he had intended to kill Murdock Eiland replied, "I don't know. I intended to stop him from killing me."

Eiland admitted to serving time in a Midwestern State. According to reports received he was jailed for breaking and entering.

April 13 - 19 Designated As Realtor Week

A proclamation by Governor LeRoy Collins has designated April 13-19 as Realtor Week in Florida, according to an announcement made today by Sylvan M. Maxwell of Miami, president of the Florida Association of Realtors.

Signed at Tallahassee on April 1, the Governor's proclamation sets the week aside to urge the citizens of Florida to join with me in extending the warmest best wishes and offer congratulations to the Realtors of the State."

More than 7,000 members of the Florida Association of Realtors are joining their fellow members of the profession in a nation-wide observance of Realtor Week from April 13-19. The Association is in its forty-second year in Florida, and the national group is celebrating its Golden Anniversary this year.

"Realtor Week will help to acquaint the public with our profession," President Maxwell said, "and bring home the meaning of the word Realtor." Only those real estate brokers who are members of a local Board of Realtors and who adhere to the realtors' code of ethics can call themselves Realtors, Maxwell explained.

Observances of Realtor Week will be held in each of the 64 communities in Florida having local boards of Realtors, and many areas are planning special events for the week. The National Association of Real Estate Boards has prepared pamphlets on "House-Hunting Hints" and "How to Buy a Home" for distribution by local boards.

"Realtors have been successful in efforts to place property ownership within the reach of even more families," the Governor's proclamation states.

Local Residents Visit Mission Stations In Cuba And Naussau

Mr. and Mrs. Ted J. Ward and Jack Ward, Mr. W. W. Hill have just returned from a cruise to Cuba and Nassau on the S. S. Evangeline. The trip was sponsored by the Boca Raton Bible Conference as an annual visit to mission stations on both islands. Other friends on the cruise included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stiles, Mrs. Vera Cobb and Mrs. Lettie Allen of Sebring, also Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Scott of Decatur, Georgia. The latter are the parents of Mrs.

High points of interest in Cuba included visits to mission stations several miles from Havana, a conducted tour through the famous Hershey Sugar Mill and a Christian Business Men's Committee Rally in Havana where all speaking was through interpreters. A similar Evangelistic Rally was also held in Nassau, both preceded by a tremendous program of music by the professional talent that has been engaged at Boca Raton Bible Conference this season.

Mr. Ward reported that the cruise was very enjoyable, except for the 55 mile an hour gale that had nearly everyone scrambling about between Havana and Nassau. The storm lasted ten hours.

Mr. Ward concluded that Avon Park was a much better place to engage in a Real Estate business than any place he saw outside of the good old U.S.

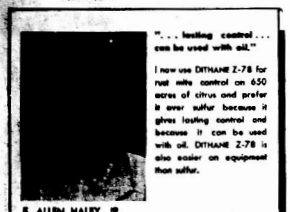
...a Honoring Newlyweds ...n Easter At Brown Home

...-in-law, Raeburn L. Brown, ...entertained with a ... honoring their daughter ...-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. ... Gurefski, on Easter Sunday afternoon, April 6, at their home.

Receiving the many guests who called to wish the young couple well were Miss Mildred Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Raeburn L. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gurefski.



A mass arrangement of colorful spring flowers adorned the table where the Bride Book was kept by Miss Frances Fisher, Miss Nancy Ginn, and Mrs. Pete Peterson. The mantlepiece was covered with lovely cherokee roses which added a feeling of spring to the room.

The bride's table on the porch was covered with a beautiful antique eschru lace cloth and crystal appointments were used. The guests were served delicious pink strawberry punch from two cut glass punch bowls. Green and white were used on the table with a mass arrangement of white flowers and white candles in crystal candelabra. The cake was decorated with a small white bell with a green sprig. Green and white mints and nuts were also served the guests from the lovely table.

Miss Millie Pearson served as floor hostess throughout the afternoon. Serving punch during the reception were Mrs. Ben Stewart, Miss Sara Sellers, and Mrs. John Hood. Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Raymond Gerrard and Mrs. Hayes Maxwell.

"... lasting control ... can be used with oil."

I now use DITHANE Z-78 for rust mite control on 650 acres of citrus and prefer it over sulfur because it gives lasting control and because it can be used with oil. DITHANE Z-78 is also easier on equipment than sulfur.

Congregational Church News

The successful School of Religion series of the church marked the ending of this series with a Covered Dish Supper in the Educational Building on Monday night, March 31. A large number of members who had participated in the various schools enjoyed the supper and evening of fellowship, Dr. Ruth Phillips, Col. M. D. Merchant and the Rev. Herbert Graetz were the teachers of these outstanding informative classes.

The Pilgrim Fellowship enjoyed an egg hunt, fishing contest, and picnic lunch on Saturday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend on the Bombing Range Road. About 15 boys and girls were presen. and Billy Miracle and Jimmie Simpson won the wishing contest; using candy Easter eggs as their bait. Mrs. Mervin Rehrer and Mrs. Lucia Luscomb assisted the Townsends with the group.

On Saturday afternoon the children of the Sunday School were entertained with an Egg Hunt and Picnic supper at the new Educational Building. About fifty children enjoyed themselves at the hunt and supper with Robert Barben, Sunday School Superintendent, and Mrs. Frank Langman in charge.

The Junior Deacons of the church served as ushers and served Communion at the early service on Easter Sunday morning. This was the first time the boys had served this service and the congregation was justly proud of them. Junior Deacons participating were Tom Bass, Mike Wells, Andy Miracle and Robert Carlson.

The Pilgrim Fellowship of the church, a group of the young people who meet on Sunday evenings, has been divided into the Jr. Pilgrim Fellowship and the Sr. Pilgrim Fellowship with both groups meeting at . o'clock on Sunday evening in the Educational Building.

New Officers Of Jr. Woman's Club Installed At Annual Banquet

The new officers of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club were installed in an impressive ceremony at the Annual Banquet in the Dining Room of the Hotel Jacaranda on Tuesday night, April 8.

Mrs. Joe McBeth of Sebring, Junior Director of District 9, was the installing officer and graciously instructed each new officer in the duties and privileges of their office. Officers installed for the 1958-59 Club year were Mrs. Jim Turnbull, president; Mrs. Jeff Barrow, 1st Vice Pres.; Mrs. Robert Barben, 2nd Vice Pres.; Mrs. Betsey Holden, Recording Secretary; Mrs. David Lanier, Treasurer; Mrs. Harry Hood, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Guy Garrett, Historian; and Mrs. Mannin Kirkland, parliamentarian.

It is with pride and pleasure that the Junior members welcome their new officers and thank the old officers for leading the club so well during the last year. The 1957-58 Club year was a very active and effective one of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club and the retiring officers can point with pride to the many accomplishments during their terms.

Over sixty members were present to enjoy the delicious turkey supper which was given by the Club for the members in appreciation for their unselfish work this year. The members feel that next year will be another good year and the Avon Park Junior Club will continue to grow in community service.

Mrs. Mannin Kirkland, immediate past president, listed some of the projects undertaken this year and personally thanked the members of the executive board, permanent committees, and other members who had worked especially hard. Mrs. Jim Turnbull, President, accepted her new post with a short gracious inspiring talk.

The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flowers and there were several mass arrangements to add to the beauty of the white banquet tables. Each member was given a clever May basket with jelly beans to take home.

An entertaining program was presented for the enjoyment of the members after dinner. Jimmie Shockley gave his own inimitable imitation of Elvis Pressley to an hysterical audience. Max Still sang "A White Sport Coat and a Pink Carnation" with marvelous stage presence and an excellent voice. The highpoint of the entertainment was a Television Skit presented by the Messey Productions and staring Harold Barker, Jim Turnbull, Betty Barker, and Anna Dee Church. This was an hilarious play with outstanding acting by the characters. Jim Logan of Radio Station WAVP was master of ceremonies.

Members of the committee making possible the banquet were Mrs. Carl Prisoc, chairman; Mrs. Art Turner, entertainment; Mrs. Wendall Smith, favors; and Mrs. Leslie Crews, Mrs. Vernon Tyson, Mrs. Harold Barker, Mrs. N. H. Booth, Mrs. Steve Samergedes, and Mrs. Harold Worden, Jr.

Fla. Freshmen Defeat Devils

The University of Florida Freshmen handed the Avon Park Red Devils a 13 - 3 licking last Thursday night at Head Field. The large crowd of spectators saw the visiting Gators take advantage of a total of 10 errors committed by the shaky Devils. It was evident from the beginning that the Avon Park boys were going to have trouble hitting the blazing fast ball of Big Jerry Nicholson from St. Cloud, but what dismayed the fans most was the defensive showing of the defending Ridge Conference Champs. Everyone knows the Devils are capable of better fielding than they showed.

It wasn't until the sixth inning that Winkie Williams rapped out a clean single to right field for the first hit for the Devils. However, the Devils didn't cross the plate until the seventh when they scored 3 runs on two bases on balls, a hit through the pitchers box by Tommy Douberley and an error.

The Baby Gators pounded out 10 hits off Charlie Anderson but did most of their scoring on errors. They scored in every frame except the first.

Leading the Gators in hitting were Bill Saba of Sarasota, Bob Shiver of Lakeland and Avon Park's own Dale Landress. Williams and Douberley's singles were all the Devils could muster.

Midgets To Team With Girls Here Thursday Night

Midgets again will team with girl partners for an Australian tag-team match when Promoter Cowboy Luttrall stages another star studded wrestling card at the Avon Park Armory Thursday night starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Tom Thumb, one of the roughest and rowdyest of the midget wrestlers, teams will equally tough Betty Hawkins of Kentucky.

Pee Wee James, who is always a favoriate of the fans, teams with Miss Betty Evans of Georgia. Evens, although one of the smallest of the girl wrestlers, makes up for her size with speed and science.

The tag-team event is scheduled for the best two of three falls, time limit one hour.

The feature heavyweight match finds a newcomer to the Armory, Jungle Man, going against popular Jerry Christy of California.

Jungle Man wrestles in a strange manner. He has long hair, which gives him the appearance of a savage. His history is vague, but in the short time he has been in Florida he has injured two opponents with his ripping, tearing style of wrestling.

Christy has met the top men in wrestling and defeated the toughest of them. He is rated as one of the top wrestlers in the South. He has wins over such great atheletes as Baron Leone, Leo Garibaldi, Dick the Bruiser and Gorgeous George.

The Christy-Jungle Man encounter will be for the best two out of three falls with a time limit of one hour.

Complimentary tickets for the matches may be obtained at any place where Coca Cola is sold.

TOUCHTON announces The Most Powerful, Yet Safe Reducing Drug Ever Released For Public Use!

Federal Health Authorities Approve P.P.A.® As Safe Without Prescription This Remarkable Drug For Reducing Is So Incredibly Effective It Limits The Ability Of Your Body To Produce Sensations Of Hunger! Helps You Lose Weight Fast Without Special Diets, "Plans," Exercise or Feeling Of Self-Denial Because It Appeases Your Appetite At The Same Time!

It's New — Entirely different! Revolutionary!

Not a bulk-filler, reducing candy or wafer. HUNGREX WITH P.P.A. is the first and only type of non-prescription product that includes these words on the label:

In the treatment of obesity obtainable now for first time without a doctor's prescription!

At Last! After many years of research comes the release—direct to the public—of the most powerful yet safe proprietary drug for reducing now known to medical science. This means that a revolutionary reducing aid has arrived that really works . . . that tends to limit the ability of your body to produce sensations of hunger! And thus you can now lose excess weight fast without special diets or "plans" formerly found in other types of reducing products!

The Name Of This Newly-Released Drug is P.P.A.®

It is so effective that it helps satisfy your appetite within minutes after you take it. It is so effective that once it starts to work in your body, you are as virtually protected against gnawing hunger sensations and a "runaway appetite" as it is reasonably possible to be. And because you won't normally feel hungry you will no longer be tempted to overeat! Thus for the first time you can really lose excess weight fast without special diets of any kind whatsoever!

How Could Anything Be Easier Than This?

You simply take a tablet that's much tinier than an aspirin tablet before each meal . . . and that's all you do.

P.P.A.'s Automatic Control Of The Appetite And Hunger-Producing Centers In Your Body Lets You Enjoy What You Eat — But You Simply Want To Eat Less!

Why? Because when federal health officials recently released P.P.A. to the public as safe, it marked the first time in medical history that a drug powerful and safe enough to help overcome the relentless craving of hunger could be released for your use without a doctor's prescription! The first time in history that any non-prescription weight-reducing product states on the label: IN THE TREATMENT OF OBESITY.

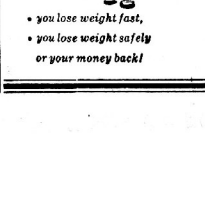
Thousands Now Lose Weight Who Never Thought They Could!

Imagine the thrill of overweight men and women who write day after day, some reporting remarkable weight losses up to 5 lbs. the very first week . . . 9¼ pounds in 2 weeks . . . up to 18¾ lbs. the very first month with P.P.A. . . . and even recording weight losses of 35 to 41 lbs. without doing anything difficult, dangerous or unpleasant!

Control Of Your Hunger And Appetite Is Automatic—So You Don't Even Have To Count Up Your Calorie Intake With A Pencil

Best of all, you'll still enjoy your food, still eat luscious steaks, chops, roasts, stews and other favorites, and still your weight will come down. Because P.P.A. drastically cuts down your craving for food and caloric intake, without affecting your enjoyment of food.

Unlike every other old-style reducing product you've ever tried or heard of, we give you no thinly-disguised "plans" or diets of any kind to follow, because the daily recommended dose of Hungrex with P.P.A. helps appease your appetite and is designed to protect you from overeating all through the day. If you're a normally healthy person, and you're like thousands upon thousands of other overweight folks who have successfully tried this new wonder product, you won't normally crave food between meals. You won't suffer the usual hunger pangs, or have that "empty" gnawing feeling. You'll enjoy what you eat, but you simply won't feel inclined to overeat, because you're just not hungry! And when this happens, when you cut down your caloric intake, off comes your excess fat. It's simply burned up by your body in the form of a glorious, new release of energy for you . . . while you grow slimmer and more attractive-looking each day!



Nothing Like It Ever Available Before For Quick Reducing Without A Prescription!

As plainly as we can state it, so that there is no possibility of confusion in your mind between Hungrex and any other product: You will not find a "plan" or diet of any kind when you open your Hungrex package, as you're used to finding in other types of non-prescription reducing products! Because only Hungrex with approved-strength P.P.A. has shown it is powerful enough to help overcome the most powerful craving a human being can long endure—HUNGER! And Hungrex with P.P.A. is the only such powerful type of reducing aid that your government has ever released as safe without prescription! No other kind of reducing product can make this statement to you.

Hungrex With P.P.A. Works As We Say — Or Your Money Back

Naturally, individuals vary. So we say try Hungrex for 1 day, 5 days, 10 days — the full 21 days if you like. Check your weight losses as you go along. See the wonderful change in your body that takes place almost daily. Then either we've fulfilled our promise to you—either you're delighted with the way you've lost weight—either you look and feel better—you've found the secret to a safe, pleasant way to get your weight down and help keep it that way—or merely return unused portion for your money back.

...r Guest Club ...al Season

...a total of 21. In doing so, we shall then be eligible for district and state tournaments. These affairs would be good business for the community as a bunch of 300 persons usually attend.

We feel that much of our progress is due to the excellent leadership and untiring efforts of the retiring president, Mr. Duke Christiansen. Duke continues to work for the interests of club and community as the Board of Directors has selected him to represent the club in the Chamber of Commerce.

At the Annual Meeting and election of board members in February the following were chosen: Messrs. Glenn Miller, Floyd Leonard, Clayton Kull, Tony Kerr, Ney Smith, and Burt Colmary. These, with Mr. Beck and Mesdames Warner, Ford, Williams and Krenerick, whose terms of office carry over another year, make up the Board of Directors for 1958-59.

On March 4 these members met to elect officers for the ensuing year, selecting Mr. Glenn Miller, of Indiana, for president; Mr. Bert Colmary of Avon Park, first vice; Mr. Floyd Leonard of Michigan, second vice; Mr. Tony Kerr of Michigan, secretary, and Mrs. H. C. Krenerick of Avon Park, treasurer.

Mr. Miller has been a very busy man this past month, lining up his committees for the coming season. On April 1, he recommended to the Board and received unanimous approval the following committee appointments:

Entertainment: Ney Smith, Mrs. Sylvia Book, Mrs. John Williams; Refreshments: Mrs. P. McAdams, Violet Lexa, Mrs. V. Grimshaw; Membership: John Williams, Mrs. W. B. Ford; Dance: Wil Kienzel, Worth Rodgers, Mrs. Ken Lewis; Dance Leader, H. C. Krenerich; Monthly Card Party, Mrs. Chas. Gruber; Weekly Bridge: Mrs. Wallace Wyman, Mrs. Morris Todd and Mrs. John Hayes; House: Roy Million; Shuffleboard: Fred Ifland, Henry Kidder, Chas. Fenstermaker, Dan Lindborg, Tony Kerr, Clay Kull; Sunday Sing: Jerome Shiltz; News: Mrs. H. C. Krenerick; Art Class: Mrs. H. Nace; Get Well: Mrs. W. F. Bervinkle; Hostess, clubhouse: Mrs. Clay Kull; Host, shuffleboard: Dan Keiter; Flag attendant: John Ramsey; Head shuffleboard referee, Tony Kerr.

By actual count there are over 60 couples in the club, retired or semi-retired, who have acquired homes here, several more have rented houses or apartments on a yearly basis, and become Florida citizens. For these folk the clubhouse is a place to meet for card games, potluck suppers, shuffleboard games and dances throughout most of the summer. From June to October this group fluctuates as they go north and return and/or as their families come south to see them.

Caring for the buildings and grounds during this period of reduced activity calls for the cooperation of the entire group as custodial care is too expensive to maintain for so few members for the entire five-month period. Mr. J. W. Richmond has been appointed by the Board to head up this group for the coming summer. Mr. Bert Colmary, first vice president, will assume the presidential duties until Mr. Miller's return, and Mrs. W. B. Ford is authorized to receive payment of membership dues during the secretary's absence.

Engagement Announced

The rate of industrial growth in the South during the past 20 years has led the nation.

The pulp and paper industry is a leader in this Southern progress.

Sixty-three primary pulp and paper mills are located in Dixie. They employ over 77,000 persons in the woods, mills and offices. Another 81,000 harvest pulpwood.

The pulp and paper industry annually contributes over one billion dollars to the South's economy at the rate of three million dollars a day. It also is giving new impetus to the region's agriculture because pulpwood has become a vitally important new cash crop to Southern farmers.

Farmers and other landowners are assured an expanding market for their trees since paper consumption is growing by leaps and bounds each year. It is predicted that 50 to 60 percent more pulpwood will be needed by 1967.

Growing trees—like growing any other crop—requires sound management. Forests that are cut properly go on producing trees generation after generation. Forests that are now non-productive can be converted into money-making areas.

PULP and PAPER DAY — April 15

Pulp and Paper Day will be celebrated throughout the South on April 15. This event will focus public attention on the economic importance to the region of the pulp and paper industry, its role in the South's modern agricultural development . . . and the tremendous economic opportunities more productive forests offer in the years ahead.

Rotary News

Miss Nell Richardson of Tampa, Field Representative for the American Cancer Society, presented a film, "The Other City", and spoke to members of the Avon Park Rotary Club on Wednesday, April 2, at their regular luncheon meeting at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Carl Prisoc, local Cancer Crusade chairman, introduced Miss Richardson, and Doug Perry, program chairman for April introduced Mrs. Willa Padgett.

Miss Richardson listed the following seven signs, cancer's danger signals, and told the members if your signal lasts longer than two weeks, go to your doctor to learn if it means cancer. The seven signals are: Unusual bleeding or discharge; a lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; a sore that does not heal; change in bowel or bladder habits; hoarseness or cough; indigestion or difficulty in swallowing and change in a wart or mole.

"The ways of their lives were various, but the way of their death was the same". What would a city look like if all Americans who died of cancer each year lived in the same community? The film, "The Other City", which Miss Richardson presented, transforms a statistic into a city. In a dramatic and touching way, this film, made in color, explains what cancer is, shows why 75,000 deaths a year are needless, and traces the case histories of seven people, each with one of cancer's danger signals.

Visiting Rotarians; Phil Terry, Boston, Mass.; Louis H. Nebel, Sturgeon Bay, Wis.; Roland Barrett, Ithaca, N. Y.; Oscar Nelson, Canton, Ill.; Phil Palmer, Hart, Mich. and E. F. Armstrong, Hicksville, Ohio.

Maule Industries of Ft. Lauderdale has developed a new type concrete block, "Shadowal," which has a sculptural effect made up of triangular recesses for shadowed designs.

High Winds And Rain Bring Havoc To This Section Of State

High winds and torrential rains battered the Avon Park Prison Tuesday morning just before lunch. The storm which hit at 11:40 a.m. with almost no warning was one of several disturbances of tornado or near tornado force that hit the state.

W. W. Wainwright, superintendent at the prison reports that no one was injured but winds estimated at 60 miles per hour partially de-roofed a number of warehouses. Several homes of the personnel at the prison had the roofs blown off and a huge tree was blown down on the back porch of one home. Although the area was completely flooded the actual damage was small.

One woman trying to remove her plants from the front porch was blown off the porch into the yard. She wasn't hurt, just scared to death. The wind was so strong she couldn't stand up so she had to crawl back into the house.

The inmates were all in either the dormitory or the dining room when the twister hit.

Just a few miles from the prison on the Kissimmee River two men had a terrifying experience. Earl Recou of Stuart and Arthur D. Roos of Eau Gallie were taking a week's trip on the river when the twister hit. They had an aluminum craft with pontoons on each side of the boat and had built a 7 x 12 cabin overhead.

When the wind and rain started they went to the cabin and were each sitting on a bunk when cabin, walls, roof, stove, clothes, fishing gear, and all their supplies were lifted and blown away. The only thing remaining in the cabin were the bunks they were sitting on and a few items they had stored under the bunks.

The two managed to get down stream to the EEEE Fishing Camp where the owner notified their families that the men were safe. Both report the amazing fact that neither had seen or been able to locate a single item blown from the cabin. Where it all landed nobody knows.

Sheriff Broward Coker's Rescue Squad, Civil Defense and the Red Cross were alerted and ready for any emergency shortly after the county was warned of the possibility of a tornado.

Supt. Fred Wild, as a precautionary measure, had all schools in the county dismissed at 2:25 Tuesday.

The section hit the hardest in this part of the state was Bereah. Eight homes near the Bill Shepherd Dairy were totally demolished by the tornado which hit there shortly after lunch.

The twister there was so strong it blew a horse 125 yards and a car several hundred feet. A tank containing 2500 gallons of water was found about a mile from its position.

Six men and a baby were treated for severe bruises

Jr. Women's Club To Sponsor Cancer Film At Hilans April 26

The film showing will Hill as Chairman.

Produced for the American Cancer Society and entitled "Time and Two Women", the film is part of a board ACS program to speed the attack on uterine cancer. The ACS launched the attack on this site of the disease in 1936.

Mortality from uterine cancer has dropped more than 40 per cent in the 25 year period of 1930-1955. But uterine cancer still claims the lives of some 16,000 women anually, the ACS reports.

Carl Prisoc, said the film would spearhead a community-wide drive to persuade all women over 21 to have annual check-ups that include the cell examination for uterine cancer. This examination involves miscroscopic study by a pathologist of cells cast off in body secretions.

The property which contains nearly 4 acres is located on U.S. Highway 27 near the Walker Memorial Hospital and Mr. Basel offered it to the Board for $65,000 with terms.

Vandalism

The following was published as an editorial in the Clewiston News under date of March 13. It points out steps taken in other Florida communities to quickly curb a trend of vandalism which might spread throughout the state if left unattended.

PARENTS MUST PAY . . . .

A new Florida law was invoked for the first time recently when a Miami couple was ordered to pay $300 for vadalism done to school property by their own sons.

Let's not be smug about it having happened in Miami. It could have been in Clewiston. Doc Koch, manager of the Dixie Crystal Theatre, reports that he has revoked student discount cards of 31 students this year because of their behavior in the theatre. He says vandalism is costing the movie house from $200 to $400 yearly. Every week two or three seats are cut, such repairs costing $2.50 each seat. Other damage is common.

Probably every theatre manager in the state and nation could tell of similar situations. The problem is not local in nature. It cannot be solved by one theatre manager, or one judge. However, each instance of penalty or punishment will serve as a deterrent to other vandalism.

Parents and youth leaders need to impose duties and responsibilities on youths to make them realize they must answer for their malicious mischief.

LOCAL VANDALISM REPORTED

It is to be regreted that Avon Park has not escaped a share of vandalism but Manager H. A. Albright of the Hilands Theatre reports a sizable amount of malicious destruction at that theatre. Mr. Albright also reports he is working closely with the Avon Park Police Department and is offering a standing reward of $25.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons responsible for theatre vandalism.

"The problem is now in the hands of the local police department", Albright reports, "and it is to that department the information must be made to qualify for the reward."

Considering the cordial beauty of the Hilans and the proud distinction it affords Avon Park, it is to be hoped a quick ending will come to any further destruction of property at that popular playhouse.

A Dole For The U. S.?

The Portland Oregonian says: "With the 'panic button' being pushed by many hands. . . for rush legislation to halt the recession, there is a clear and present danger of getting 'emergency' laws which will become a permanent burden to production, expansion and employment." This observation was prompted by proposed legislation which, in effect, would federalize unemployment insurance and supersede the state laws. Benefits would be increased, the period during which compensation is paid would be lengthened, and the tax (which is paid entirely by employers) would be raised. The experience rating provision, under which employers with stable employment get lower rates than those with big personel turnover, would be abandoned.

As the Oregonian sees it: "It is almost inconceivable that Congress, made up of representatives of the states, would submit even in panic to what would certainly end in all-out federalization of unemployment compensation. Employment and living conditions are greatly in variance over the country . . . . The ability of employers to sustain high benefits and a healthy economy is not the same in all states. Yet the drive for federalization. . . would deprive the states of discretion in the matter." The paper adds, with full justice, that the result would be ". . . not earned compensation', but the dole."

If the pushers of that "panic button" have their way, we're going to wind up with a centralized welfare state comparable to the British model—and, with it, we're going to have a degree of inflation that really will curl the national hair. It's becoming obvious that the current recession is providing a crucial test of the American character.

What Kind Of Tax Reduction?

More and more people are coming to believe that federal tax reduction is almost inevitable within the near future.

If that view proves correct, the problem before Congress and the Administration will be to blueprint a tax reduction that will produce maximum results.

So far, most of the discussion has been concerned with cuts in the individual income tax, and there is no doubt that this will be a major item in any program that has a hope of acceptance. However, it will be a woeful mistake if the government stops there.

In the long run, spending and capital investment by business will decide how many jobs will be available in this country and how good those jobs are. The present 52 per cent corporation tax is a big and obvious barrier to investment. A cut in that rate would provide a real and lasting shot in the arm to the whole economy.

Then, it's high time we got rid of special taxes, which, though they are small revenue producers, divert business from basic enterprises and add to inflationary pressures. Prime examples here are the World War II excise taxes on freight and passenger transportation service. They're still on the books all these years after that emergency ended.

Exports Bring $23.7 Million Yearly To Seventh Florida District, Study Shows World Trade Means Hundreds Of Jobs For Area Workers

Washington. -- The nation's export trade brings over $23.7 million into the Seventh Congressional District of Florida each year, providing jobs for nearly 1800 workers in the area.

These estimates of the impact of world trade on the Seventh District are made in a special report from the Committee for a National Trade Policy, a bi-partisan organization promoting public understanding of the country's foreign trade problems. The report is based on a study of the country's foreign trade problems. The report is based on a study by the Department of Commerce, using basic data from the Bureau of the Census, the Bureau of Foreign Commerce, and other sources.

Nationwide exports totaled $19 billion in 1956. The proportionate share of this market for the Seventh District was estimated at $23.7 million representing agricultural producers and five leading manufacturing groups -- food, chemicals, machinery, fabricated metals, and printing.

Agriculture, the related food products industry and the food machinery industry are of major importance to this District. All of these have a heavy stake in export trade. Well over 12,000 persons in the Seventh District work on farms, many of which produce crops for the export market. The Seventh District in 1956-57 exported $16 million worth of fruits and nuts (mainly oranges and grapefruit) and almost $1 million forth of vegetables.

Besides providing significant income and employment in the Seventh District, American export-import trade brings into Florida a wide variety of minerials, finished and semi-finished products, food-stuffs and flavorings required by both industry and consumers.

The local and national importance of two-way trade is now being debated in hearings on American trade policy before the House Ways and Means Committee. The Trade Agreements Act, which has been the basis for our reciprocal trade program since 1934, is due to expire on June 30 of this year. President Eisenhower has urged the Congress to extend the Trade Act for five years because the national interest plainly requires it. However, protectionists claiming injury because of import competition, are actively opposing the trade legislation by advocating weakening amendments or outright repeal of the present legislation.

Advocates of expanding world trade, representing industry, agriculture, labor and consumers, are urging the Congress to consider the national interest as paramount and to renew the Trade Agreement Act without weakening amendments. There is increasing support also for proposals to provide both federal technical and financial assistance to industries and individuals who may have to make a transition to new products or skills because their present activity is not efficient enough to meet import competition.

On a nationa:wide basis, the Department of Commerce estimates that 4.5 million American jobs depend on U. S. export-import trade. The proportionate share of the Seventh District is estimated at 1,780 jobs. This District's share of the 1956 national export of canned or fresh vegetables, juices, citrus meat, and citrus oils was $5.1 million, representing an estimated 720 jobs.

Makers of citrus and vegetable processing machinery had a proportionate share of the nation's total exports of these goods amounting to $726,948, accounting for some 596 jobs. This area's share of the export market for aluminum irrigation and industrial pipe amounted to $256,000 in 1956, providing an estimated 228 jobs. Another $580,432 in income comes to this District annually from it's share of the national export of chemicals, including phosphates in rock form, super-phosphates and mixed fertilizers. This category provides an estimated 173 jobs. Over 4,180 persons in the Seventh District benefit directly from the nation's large exports of phosphate rock.

Imports are of particular importance to this District because they are the base stock for many products in the food and canning industry, publishing and small manufacturing. Coconuts are a major import commodity. First the meat is processed by canning plants or candy manufacturers, and then the empty shells are used to manufacture novelties and souvenirs.

Nationally the United States sends one dollar's worth aboard each year for every ten dollar's worth of movable goods produced and sold at home. Without exports - our sales to foreigners - we would have to shut down many of our plants. Two-way trade contributes to higher living standards both in the United States and aboard.

Perhaps the best argument for contiuation of the Reciprocal Trade program is contained in the challenge of Nikita Khrushchev, who recently told American newspaper publisher William Randolph Hearst, Jr.:

"We declare war upon you - in the peaceful field of trade. We declare a war we will win over the United States. The threat to the United States is not the ICBM, but the field of peaceful production. We are relentless in this and it will prove the superiority of our system."

In the face of such Soviet threats, the Committee for a National Trade Policy and some 200 other national organizations representing industry, agriculture, labor and consumers are urging public support for President Eisenhower's proposal to renew the Trade Agreements Act.

By using DITHANE Z-78 this past summer for rust mites, we were able to compare its control with sulfur. DITHANE clearly demonstrated its ability to give superior rust mite control.

Use DITHANE Z-78 (zineb) in your dormant or post-bloom sprays for double-duty control of (1) rust mite and (2) "greasy spot." For high initial kill and long residual activity, thorough coverage at recommended dosages is essential. DITHANE Z-78 is available from your dealer. SEFUL BIRDS

By The Bird Woman

...e a great many people the ...ttraction to birds is their beauty, others are attracted by their beautiful singing, and others enjoy watching their habits of nesting, when they migrate or whether they are year around residents.

But more and more people besides being interested in these things have come to the realization that in more than one way, birds are a wonderful help to us.

We have discussed many times the wonderful help they are in eating insects, grubs, scales and larvae, but when our marvelous Creator gave us birds as helpers, he did not limit the species to just insect control alone, but gave us some to be scavangers and some to have other useful functions.

It is about one of these useful unsung birds that we wish to discuss now.

And especially as we are all clammering for something to help bring back our shrubbery to it's normal condition, we feel that a little discussion about ferterlizer produced by birds, that is the worlds richest natural ferterlizer, will be apropos.

Of course we must realize that these birds must be abundant, and their habitat undisturbed, and the weather and climatic conditions must be such that the excrement may be allowed to collect and not be washed away by rainfall, for any sizeable amount, however valueable, to accumulate.

In the first place the winds are favorable, for they normally come from the south east and discharge their rains on the eastern slope of the Andes, and that leaves the western slope and the narrow costal plain a vertiable desert, where rain fall is quite rare, but to suffice for this, mists and fogs are very common.

Now we have the weather and the habitat, lets think about the bird. It is known as the long necked cormorant, the Guanay, it is a black bird and has a white vest and walks erect as does the Penguin, and being gregarious by nature they congregate along the sides of the cliffs, and the nests are huddled so closely together that it is almost a miracle to see them returning from their sea foraging journeys and have no trouble in finding the proper home site.

There is a long nesting season from Oct. 1 to March 1 and as the parents are never both away from the nest at the same time, and the young remain in the nest until able to shift for themselves, there is quite an accummulation of excrement in the nests.

In fact the nest that was about eighteen by twenty four four inches in size will become filled to the depth of as much as eight inches, and will gradually harden until when the nests are abandoned after nesting, the men that go in to gather the fertilizer, known as guring have to use picks to dislodge it.

Naturally there are other other birds that add to this guano, as they build their nest among the Guanay, but they are so far outnumbered that we will not consider them at this time.

The potency of this guano as fertilizer was recognized by the Inca nation long before the Spanish conquered that territory, and although great quanities of it has accumulated through the centuries, it was not until the nineth century when some of it was exported to the United States and also to Europe, did it become apparent to the Peruvian goverment that they had a gold mine right under heir nose, both for their own use and for export.

Scientist have been unable to account for the ability of guano to increase plant production as it does, of course they are able to analize it and divide it into the component parts, but there is still something about it that baffles them.

Guano is used in its natural state by the local growers, but when it is imported into the United States it is processed before being put on the market.

The Humboldt Current or what is sometimes called an Ocean River flows along this territory and extends out about a hundred and fifty miles, the phenoma that causes this unusual current, brings the cold lower water to the surface, so that the temperature remains uniform through the year, and this uniform sixty degree temperature is an invitation to the fish, and they abound there in teeming thousands.

Fish is the predominent food of the Guanay, so they may choose the best there is to offer, and they do, they choose the anchovies, and being a fairly large bird and having the insatiable appetite of most they are presumed to eat from four to six pounds of fish daily.

These birds that stand erect on land are very dexterous in the air, and as their food is procured from the water, they are good divers and it is a marvelous sight to see a great number of them dive into the water at the same time and each come up with a fish in its mouth.

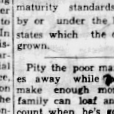
Report From Congressman "Jim Haley"

Washington, D. C.—Congressman James A. Haley announced today that hearings have been scheduled for 10:00 a. m., April 21, 1958, on a bill introduced by Haley on August 29, 1957, relative to chemical preservatives as used in or on raw agricultural commodities. The hearings will be conducted by the Health and Science Subcommittee of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.



The purpose of the bill is to afford relief to industry and to the consumer from the effects of a ruling of the Food and Drug Administration that fresh fruits and vegetables bearing harmless residues of certain pesticide chemicals must bear labeling stating that such harmless residues are present. Many of the chemicals affected by the Food and Drug Administration regulations have been in use for many years, but only recently has any effort been made to require labeling under the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act of 1938. As a result, the ruling will seriously disrupt the marketing of fresh fruits and vegetables, which will mean that the consumer will be adversely affected by the unavailability of fresh produce at a reasonable price.

Haley stated that his primary concern is to protect the consumer to the fullest extent possible, and that restrictions on the type of chemicals used on fresh fruits and vegetables will not be relaxed by his bill, but will simply exempt fresh fruits and vegetables from the rulings of the Food and Drug Administration which require labeling on such produce.

Washington, D. C.—The Congress is now in its annual Easter recess, and I am taking the opportunity to travel over the seventh district to talk to as many people as possible. In addition to this pleasant mission, I will be attending hearings conducted by a Special House Interior Subcommittee, of which I am a member, on two bills which would fix the boundary of Everglades National Park, Florida, and authorize the Secretary of the Interior to acquire additional land for the park, as well as provide for the transfer of certain land within the present boundary. The hearings are scheduled in Miami, Florida, to continue through April 12, 1958, and are being held for the principal purpose of enabling the subcommittee to obtain an over-all view of the problems which may be involved in the legislation.

I introduced a new bill, H. R. 11814, in the House of Representatives last week which would authorize the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to establish regulations for maximum concentrations of color additives for use in coloring oranges meeting minimum maturity standards established by or under the laws of the states which the oranges are grown.

Pity the poor man who strives away while he's here to make enough money so his family can load and be no account when he's gone.

Hardee High Lose To Devils By 7-4 Score

Avon Park's unbeaten Baseball Nine handed the Hardee High Wildcats of Wauchula a 7 to 4 licking last Saturday night at Head Field.

Avon Park went ahead by a six run margin in the second inning but yielded four runs to the visiting Wildcats in the third to keep many of the chilled fans in their seats. Avon Park added an insurance run in the sixth to end the scoring.

Ace left-hander Charlie Anderson went the distance for Avon Park and although he was shaky at times still had too much for the visitors. He scattered four hits and was never in real trouble.

The Avon Park hitters managed to collect six hits off two Wildcats' hurlers. Leading the Avon Park hitters was Tommy Douberley with two singles. Others hitting safely were Johnny Starling, Jimmy Cooper and Wayne and Bryan Kempton.

In a town of 1,000 population, according to the American Cancer Society, four persons will be under treatment for cancer this year.

Devils To Play Mulberry Here Friday Night

Red Devils baseball fans will be in for a treat Friday night when the unbeaten Mulberry Panthers come to Avon Park for a game with the also unbeaten Red Devils. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Opposition from the Panthers is expected to be much keener than what the Devils have been facing. This combined with the fact that both teams are unbeaten gives the game enough interest that the largest crowd of the season is expected.

The Devils will take the field with southpaw Charlie Anderson on the mound and the Panthers will be baking on the slants of ace right-hander Leland Hagan. Both of these boys have been very effective this season and a pitchers duel could very easily develop. Avon Park will depend on Billy Rouse, Tommy Douberley and John Starling among others to pound out the base hits.

The final out of town game is slated for Tuesday, April 22 when the Devils travel to Wauchula to play the Wildcats a return game.

The Devils, although victorious over the 'Cats in their first encounter must keep in mind that the Wildcats are always hard to beat on their home field.

Avon Park winds up the regular seasons play when they return home for a Ridge Conference battle against the Kathleen Red Devils.

Congregational Dinner At Washington

Washington.—An excess of Florida-grown fresh fruits and flowers will grace Mayflower hotel banquet tables when the Florida State Chamber of Commerce honors members of the state's congressional delegation, and the ambassadors of the neighboring Latin republics, and Canada, at a dinner here on the evening of Tuesday, April 29. The distinguished guests, which will inclue legislative attaches and many prominent Washingtonians, in and out of government, will be accompanied by their ladies.

Said Harold Colee, the State Chamber's executive vice president at Jacksonville, today:

"We hope to top last year's congressional dinner in both brilliance and attendance. At the same time other states' dinners will be held, all incident to the annual meeting of the U. S. Chamber. A lot of friendly interchange takes place, from hotel to hotel. We want other staters to see that winter's cold failed to upset our demeanor or ruin all of our fruits and flowers. We will serve a lot of other Florida products, as well."

Colee said reservations for the April 29 dinner had exceeded all previous ones, up to this time.

PTA Sponsors Dinner & Booths For Youth Center Improvements

The Parent Teachers Association has only one money making project each year and that is the concession booths and the dinner which they stage each year during the Red Devil Circus.

At the beginning of the term members of the P. T. A. selected for their project improvements at the Youth Center. Money raised at the fried chicken dinner on Saturday night, April 19, from 5 till 7 p. m. will be used on this worthy project, money raised from the booths will also go in the Youth Center improvement fund.

This is he only time during the year that the P. T. A. asks for donations, and the local merchants have always been most cooperative. Their donations are greatly appreciated by the Association.

Plan now to attend the fried chicken dinner in the high school cafetorium before seeing this year's big Red Devil Circus, and be sure and visit the concession booths sponsored by the P. T. A. at the football field.

Members of the P. T. A. or parents, who would like to assist in working on the booths or helping with the dinner please contact Mrs. James Johnson, president.

...man's Club Purchases New ...ks For their Library Project

The Avon Park Senior Woman's Club has purchased a set of World Book Encyclopedia for the Avon Park Library as their project, Mrs. H. G. Todd, Library Chairman, at the Friday, April 11, meeting of the club.

Mrs. Todd also stated arrangements had been made to increase the annual librarian's salary due in part to the efforts of the Senior Club. The Library is the major project of the club and it is with great pride that the members point to the many improvements made there this year. Miss Avis Slaughter, librarian, invites all residents to visit the library and look at the new books and equipment.

The regular business meeting was opened with a devotional message by Mrs. Henry Lexia and Mrs. Ralph Kelley, president, welcomed all members and guests. Several recommendations of the Executive Board were accepted by voice vote of the club. The Senior Club voted to purchase some more card tables for the Club Building with Mrs. Cecil Ogden in charge of the purchases aided by Mrs. Leo Duffey and Mrs. Mylon Merchant.

A letter from District Director Mrs. Mims was read and her check for the Avon Park groups favorite charity received and appreciated. Announcement of the State Convention of Florida's Federated Woman's Clubs in St. Petersburg was made for April 15, 16, 17, and 18. All members are invited to attend this convention.

Dr. Ruth Phillips gave an outstanding talk of great interest to all on "Atomic Radiation". She is a former teacher of biological science and was qualified to speak on the effects of atomic radiation. Dr. Phillips feels that much of the present 'scare' tactics concerning the effects of this radiation are unfounded in fact.

Thirty girls who are seniors at Avon Park High Scool were welcomed to the meeting by Mrs. Kelley and enjoyed hearing two solos by Mrs. William Bennett. Another interesting part of the program was a demonstrated lecture on "The Art of Make-up" by Miss Mary Chandler of Touchton's Drug Store. This was a fascinating talk for all the ladies present and the demonstration were very effective.

After the meeting the Tea in honor of the Senors gave everyone a chance for visiting and becoming acquainted with each other. Delicious homemade cookies and punch were served the sixty guests from a table prettily decorated with a lace cloth and spring flowers. Hostesses for the lovely meeting were Mrs. Ogden, Mrs. Merchant, and Mrs. Mabel Buckelew.

At the close of the business session the group enjoyed the remainder of the evening playing canasta games, bridge, and scrabble.

Door prizes were won by the following: Ladies, Miss Bertha Desautel; Gentlemen, Mr. Brewster; and miscellaneous, Mr. A. M. Luyben.

There were 52 members and guests present.

Southland Trailer Park News

Mr. Howard Arms was again winner of the Winter Guest Shuffleboard Tournament last week. He has lived in Southland for four years and has only been playing shuffleboard for two, but seems to have come along very well. At present Mr. Arms is visiting relatives in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Detrick of Ft. Meade have decided to make Avon Park their permanent home and are being welcomed by the residents of the park as newcomers.

Interesting visitors to the Park at present are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tams of London, England, who have a trailer and are on a grand tour of the United States and plan to go to the Canadian Rockies. They are touring Florida from Avon Park before continuing their trip which will be their fifth one.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dowell and Mr. Ben Henningham have returned from visiting their respective relatives in Miami. Mr. and Mrs. Fred MacDonald have left for a visit with their relatives in North Manchester, Indiana, and plan to return soon.

Fisherman of Southland are having a field day in the catching of bass and perch in the lakes around here at present. The good luck is really being enjoyed by all.

I watched a child die of cancer

SHE WAS too weak to speak . . . this child of eight. But the words she might have said were plain to see in her eyes: "Can't you make me well again, Doctor?"

It's terribly hard : : : even for a doctor who sees tragedy enough : : : to watch a child fade from the sunlight of life...a victim of leukemia.

We had succeeded in prolonging her life by many months. But that's not enough! Cancer ranks today as the Number 1 disease-killer of children. We can . . . we must . . . find ways to battle it, and win over it.

Research, supported by the American Cancer Society, is striving towards that goal.

Let's give generously to the American Cancer Society and help eliminate this enemy which will take the lives of more than 250,000 Americans in this year alone.

Send your gift—a generous one; if possible—to CANCER, c/o your local post office.

...also featured will be ...of the daring breathless ...ll. In this act ...will appear a 16-foot bar by putting ...and and then the other ...bar is held straps which are ...attached to the bar.

A number of last years acts having been so thrilling and fascinating will also be presented again this year.

The very epitome of all circus skill and daring will be displayed by Joy McLemore, Wendell Williams, and Seth McCormick on the sensational cradle.

A lovely duet on the spanish web will feature charming Sammie Wright and Betty Lou Bingham, appearing for their third season in the Red Devil Circus.

Versatile and skilled Kenny Long will thrill the audience with his routine of complicated maneuvers on the flying rings.

All acts will be colorful with new costumes, some of which were donated by Florida State University's Circus.

The students and directors have put a lot of time and effort into practice in order to perfect the acts, some of which has been done during class, but the majority after school. Four night practices have already been held.

The Red Devil Circus Band, directed by Mr. Gene Gorman will be on hand to provide the musical background, and add the finishing touch to the circus.

Tickets are now on sale and may be purchased at Stimpson's Service Station, Touchton Drug Company, Griffin's Restaurant, and The Star-Lite Drive In. All reserved seat tickets will be sold again for only $1.50 and can be purchased at the High School office. Folding chairs will be used in the reserved seat section situated in front of the football bleachers. General admission prices are adult - $1.00; Junior and Senior high students - $.50, elementary and pre-school children - $.25.

Plan now to attend the Red Devil Circus -- "the greatest little-high school circus in the world" -- for your greatest evening of entertainment this year. Don't miss it! ! !

erine cancer has evolved from the relatively new science of cytology, or study of cells.

"National medical spokesmen for the Society emphasizes that the cytologic approach to uterine cancer has all the potentialities of becoming one of the most effective programs the American Cancer Society has ever supported," Prisoc declared.

The ACS leader said that uterine cancer is believed nearly 100 per cent curable when it is detected in its earliest beginnings, although only 55 per cent of uterine cancers are now being cured.

"No cancer is more easily detected or more accessible for early and effective treatment," Prisoc said. "Yet many thousands of women are dying needlessly from uterine cancer."

"This needless loss of life is due in part to the fact that not enough women go to their doctors for annual checkups."

The cell examination for uterine cancer is described as making it possible to detect cancer cells months and often years before the cancer becomes invasive.

"With this film we may well be entering into one of the most dramatic eras in the history of cancer control," Prisoc said. "Time and Two Women' is a clear and direct explanation of what uterine cancer is and why the cell examination for uterine cancer is so vitually important to life and health. I urge every Avon Park woman over 21 to see this motion picture."

Commissioners—

purchase of a nursing home or site for one, if and when the Board complied with other legal requirements.

A delegation from the Lake Placid Chamber of Commerce also attended the special meeting. Hayward Davis, attorney, acting as spokesman for the group told the commissioners that a Lake Placid citizen would donate a site, up to 10 acres with a 500 foot lake frontage, for a county nursing home or hospital. The Lake Placid Chamber is also working on plans for a private hospital or clinic in that fast growing area if no county hospital is going to be established there.

A complete investigation of the need for a nursing home will be made prior to the time that the next budget is prepared.

At the regular meeting of the Board last week Mrs. Edna Lockett, former Highlands County representative, suggested to the commissioners the need for such a home as she and Mrs. Anna Lee Church, County Welfare Director, have been making a study of the needs of such a home.

Parade—

ing on North Verona, in the area just back of the Post Office and will line up in front of the Avon Park Motor Company at 4:30 p. m. it will get under way at 5 o'clock sharp.

The parade will travel west on Main Street to Butler, across the Mall, then east on Main to Verona Avenue and south on Verona to the school circus grounds.

The arrival of the parade at the fair grounds will officially begin the evening of festivities. The cooperation of the local merchants in helping to make this year's event a success has been excellent, and their aid is greatly appreciated by the PTA.

Members of the PTA, Mrs. Edward Sharpe as chairman, will serve a delicious fried chicken dinner in the high school cafetorium from 5 until 7 p. m. Tickets are only $1.25 for adults and 75c for children under 12.

For children who prefer hamBurgers and hot dogs the Coca Cola chuck wagon will be on hand. Cole slaw, coffee and cold drinks may also be purchased. Mrs. Roy Seims will be in charge of the cake and pie booth and Mrs. George Kelsey will serve the hot coffee.

Mrs. Margaret Duggan and Mrs. Andrew Miracle have made the arrangements and will supervise the shooting gallery. Try your skill and help the PTA.

The pony rides will be under the directions of Mrs. Robert Barben and other members of the PTA will sponsor booths and games for all. This is the one event that you don't want to miss, and is the only money making project that the PTA sponsors. Profits from the supper and the concession booths only (not the Circus) go towards the improvements at the Youth Center which the PTA adopted the first of the year as their project for this school year. What better way could money be spent than to help the teen-agers of Avon Park.

The PTA will also have two food booths at the west end of the football field Saturday night during the circus performance. Hamburgers, hot dogs, cake, pie, coffee and cold drinks will be sold.

Vernon Tyson, store manager, says that taking Super Plenamins is simply a matter of good business for they supply the individual with all the essential vitamins and minerals in amounts normally required daily thus eliminating all chances of a diet deficiency and assuring you of a savings on medical bills in the future.

Ruby Edlefson of the drug department, says Super Plenamins are superb to your child's health for they supply them with cod liver oil and vitamin C to fight colds plus the daily requirements of iron and liver, the perfect blood builders. Be sure of your child's health, give Super Plenamins special junior size for those under 12.

Philip Weber, pharmacist, says that one Super Plenamin supplies 11 vitamins and 12 minerals, including 10 times your requirement for iron and iodine, plus true liver concentrate. With Super Plenamins you are sure you are getting the vitamins you need daily. During times of physical or emotional strain, the body uses many vitamins producing this extra energy than at normal times.

Ethel Harrison, cosmetic department, says that beauty comes from within and Super Plenamins help to keep the skin younger looking and healthy by preventing adverse effects of vitamin deficiency. A balanced supply of vitamins will help correct a too oily or too dry skin condition. A person healthy from within can easily be made beautiful with modern day cosmetics.

Dick Peddicord, clerk, claims that Super Plenamins are the best "living insurance" with the most solid bed the money could steal. What other insurance gives the benefits as soon as the policy is paid instead of after the damage is done. The premium of your health is only a penny a day, the cost of a good breath.

The Board of Highlands County Commission once again discussed the possibility of a county nursing home at the regular meeting Tuesday morning. Tuesday the Commissioners voted to request information from the City of Avon Park in regards to the building which is located next to the Hillcrest Nursing Home in Avon Park for a possible location for a county nursing home.

The Board voted that the County Attorney write the City of Sebring in regards to South Lakeview Drive, stating that this project is in priority and that the City will have to move utilities before construction begins.

The Commissioners authorized that various cities be instructed to remove any portion of the old jail cells within thirty days, and the cities to please notify the Board immediately of their intentions.

The Board authorized payment for gas to Gulf Oil Co. that was purchased in error by an employee of District 3 and not according to contract.

Judge Kinsey Fines Murry Fulford $1000 On Moonshine Charge

Murry L. Fulford of Okeechobee, charged with the possession of distillery equipment and mash pleaded nolo contendere (no defense) before Circuit Judge Joe D. Kinsey on Monday, April 21.

Fulford paid the $1000 fine imposed by Judge Kinsey on the first charge and received a five-year deferred sentence on the second charge.

Agents of the State Beverage Department and Highlands County deputies arrested Fulford last December near Fort Basshger. At which time the equipment, mash and Fulford's truck were seized. State Attorney Robert B. Huffaker announced that confiscation proceedings against the truck are being prepared.

Fulford entered his pleas Monday shortly before he was to be tried by jury.

George Davis of Sebring was quickly acquitted by jury on the charge of aggravated assault on Bryant Lundy, Jr.

George R. Sutton, 62, of Avon Park, was convicted by another jury on the charge of fondling a 12-year old girl but was acquitted of a similar charge made by her 10-year old sister. Pending a pre-sentence investigation, sentence was deferred. Judge Kinsey ordered an investigation of Polk County records involving Sutton.

Skunk Makes Home In Washing Machine

The modern washing machine is certainly an all-purpose gadget but Mrs. R. G. Landress thinks that hers carried things about too far on Monday morning.

Mrs. Landress was busily washing clothes in her machine on her back porch when a peculiar noise was heard and the machine stopped. Lee Garganus of Metcalfe Hardware rushed out to see what the matter could be and went right to work on the machine.

Imagine their surprise when they were notified by the odor that the machine had become the temporary home of a SKUNK! ! Somehow the furry little black and white stripped animal had managed to crawl into the case of the washer and settle down. His own pecu

Alton Elder Acquitted Of Goof Ball Charge

Alton E. Elder was acquitted late Tuesday, April 22, of a charge of illegal possession of Barbituate of Central Nerous system Stimulates, better known as "goof balls".

The verdict was returned by a Highlands County Circuit Court Jury only 16 minutes after receiving the case from Judge Joe D. Kinsey.

Twice during the trial Tuesday Kinsey denied defense attorney Harry Lee's motion for a directed verdict of not guilty, after State Attorney Robert B. Huffaker argued there was sufficient evidence for the case to go to the jury.

Elder, the only defense witness, testified he had no knowledge of the contents of the unconcealed tin box which was seized by Sheriff Broward Coker under a search warrant, in the filling station section of the Star-Lite. He further denied ownership of the box which according to the sheriff contained 109 tablets.

Seventh Day Adventist News

"Walker Memorial Pathfinder Investiture services have a tradition of being unique and tonight's service is no exception", said Elder F. F. Wayne Foster, of Orlando as he began the service of granting awards, special honors and certificates to seventeen Missionary Volunteers on Sunday night in the Walker Memorial Chapel.

The programs Elder Foster referred to consisted of Bible Story-telling by four small boys in the Busy Bee, Sunbeam and Builders Classes, recitations by the whole group and a special solo sung by Ronnie Brown accompanied by Carol Schmidt.

Highlighting the program were skits of nature study, First Aid, Rope Work, and star study by small groups of the children with all gathered around a campfire for storytelling, devotions, and music furnished by Robert Werry and his guitar. With a back-drop of an evening sky the camp scenes were very effective and showed much work and planning by the group and its leaders.

Preceding the program parents and friends were shown an exhibit of Civil Defense supplies that should be in every home in case of disaster.

Children who were invested were Freddie Bischoff, Ronnie Brown, Donald Schmidt, Richard Post, Henry Post, Ray Hughes, Mark Ludington, Larry Payne, Paul Richardson, Curtis Carlson, Dennis Carlson, Vernon Lambeth, Aaron Lambeth, Gayle Moon, Kay Hartwell and Connie Arnold. Miss Marie McCall, Senior Master Guide, was an interesting visitor to the service. She is a nurse at Kirundee Mission in the Belgian Congo, Africa. Her mother is Mrs. Elizabeth Beckley, R. N., who also plans to go to Africa as soon as her visa comes through.

22 AP High School Students To Try For National Merit Scholarships

More than 22 students at the Avon Park High School plan to take the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Mr. A. B. Wilhite, Principal, announced today. The test will be administered, at the high school at 9:00 a. m. on Tuesday, April 29.

An estimated $5 million in Merit Scholarships and other awards are at stake in the national competition, now beginning its fourth year. Some $12 million in Merit Scholarships have been awarded in the first three years of the program.

Merit Scholarships are provided by some 80 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals, as well as by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, which conducts the competion.

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test is a three hour measure of educational growth and aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

A group of 10,000 students, composed of the highest scorers in each state, will advance to the Semi finals when the results are reported to all participating schools next fall. Semi-finals will then take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance on the second examination will become Finalists in the program and will indicate their choice of college and course of study. Further evaluation of their grades, citizenship, and extra-curricular achievements will follow, and the winners will be announced in the Spring of 1959.

The test results will be available at the beginning of the senior year, in time for use by seniors and their class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test, in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

Dr. John M. Stalnaker, President of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, recently cautioned that there are many reasons why test results cannot be used to evalute school performance. The distribution of the population throughout the state, the size of the school, the native intelligence of its top students, the percentage of students taking the test, the nature of the community where the school is located, the purpose of the school, and many other factors having nothing to do with the total effectiveness of the school can influence its number of finalists.

The test results will however, enable students as individuals, to compare their scores with other students across the nation.

The test has been constructed by Science Research Associates of Chicago, and will also be scored and reported by the testing agency.

Each Merit Scholarship carries a stipend based on the need of each individual winner, and is renewable annually without further competitive examination. The average stipend in past year has been $450 per year. The minimum award in the 1958-59 program will be $100 a year and the maximum will be $1500 a year.

The names of all program Finalists will be sent to colleges and universities and other scholarship organizations throughout the country. In this way many non-winning finalists are helped in winning scholarships, awarded directly by colleges and other organizations.

About 1,000 Merit Scholars, winners of the 1957-58 competition, will be named on May 1, 1958. They are winners in the third Merit Program which began last October.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation directs the annual competition. It was founded in 1955, on grants of $20 million by the Ford Foundation and $500 thousand by the Carnegie Corporation of New York.

on DITHANE Z-78 for rust mite control
(Zineb)

"One of the best sprays I've ever used..."

I have over 600 acres and have been in the citrus business for over 30 years. I have used two applications of Dithane Z-78 this season and find it one of the best sprays I've ever used to control rust mites, as it leaves oil well on fruit. There is no danger whatever in burning fruit in hot weather with Dithane as is often experienced with sulfur. I believe I am getting smoother work by with Dithane.

A. O. ROBERTS
Howey, Florida

Use Dithane Z-78 (zineb) in your dormant or post-bloom sprays for double-duty control of (1) rust mite and (2) "greasy spot." For high initial kill and long residual activity, thorough coverage at recommended dosages is essential. Dithane Z-78 is available from your dealer. Ask him for more information on this double-duty zineb fungicide.

Dithane is a trademark, Reg. U. S. Pat. Off. and in principal foreign countries.

Mrs. L. A. Renfro To Be Installed President Of Avon Park PTA

Officers for the 1958-59 year were elected during the business session of the Avon Park P T A at its regular meeting on Thursday night, April 17, in the High School Auditorium.

Mrs. L. A. Renfro will be president of the P T A and will be aided by the following capable officers. Mrs. John Crittenden, Vice President; Mrs. Sam King, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Jack Duggan, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. Jack De Laney, Treasurer; Mrs. Frank Love, Historian, and Mrs. James A. Johnson, Parliamentarian. These officers will be installed at the May meeting of the organization.

Mrs. King reported on plans for a P T A Study Group on Reading which will be open to all parents who wish to attend. The Rev. Aden Childress opened the meeting with a devotional message.

Dr. Samuel Hibbs of Tampa then addressed the group on "The Principles and Practices of Good Mental Health". Dr. Hibbs is one of the most prominent physicians in the field of psychiatry in the state of Florida. He is the founder and head psychiatrist at Anclote Manor in Tarpon Springs for emotionally distrubed and mentally ill patients.

The importance of approval when dealing with young people was stressed by Dr. Hibbs in his talk. By praise of good qualities more can be accomplished with people than constant harping on bad points he stated. His talk covered young children, teenagers, and parents. Discipline should be immediate and when punishment is given and over it should be quickly forgotten and not mentioned again and again. Love should not be withheld as a form of punishment, Dr. Hibbs insists.

All children, all people, need three things, affection, attention and approval, and these three should especially be remembered by parents who are in the best position for given them. Fathers should accept their part in raising their children and help them secure these important props to their mental health.

Dr. Hibbs said that emotional problems and conflicts are not inherited but have a tendency to brush off easily on children of emotionally distrubed parents. A channel of communication between parents and their children is a vital link for understanding and co-operation between the two age groups. If talk fails to reach the child, one time continue to try, in order to help and understand children, parents must be able to talk to them.

A question and answer period followed his talk with many interesting questions being asked Dr. Hibbs. A large number of interested parents attended the meeting.

Girl Scout News

Twenty-six of the Avon Park Girl Scouts enjoyed a trip to the City Library at their meeting on Thursday afternoon, April 17.

Miss Avis Slaughter, Librarian, took the Scouts on a thorough tour of all the facilities of the library and explained many interesting facets of work with books. She showed the girls how to bind books, as well as many other interesting things.

Linda Dobbins and Barbara Jean Bigbee were elected Flag Bearers for the Circus Parade with Tonista Gaster and Hilda Sasser serving as color guard. The troop matched together in the parade.

Susan Peterson was a visitor at the meeting and refreshments of homemade cookies and punch were served the girls by Scout Linda Dobbins and Mrs. Walter Mandis.

First national presidential nominating convention in the U.S. was held in Baltimore in 1831.

...County groups will re... the district with the Ridge... the completion of final... recommendations. Reports from these groups will be received at the Annual Meeting Monday evening.

Mr. Fred Wild, Highlands County Superintendent of Public Instruction, has assured the BAARC Board of Directors of the continuance of the Ridge Area Day School, regardless of the action of the Hardee and DeSoto County groups as long as the need exists. Mrs. Orpha Brown, Coordinator of Special Education for Highlands County told the Board at its March meeting that there are at least six pupils to be enrolled in the school from Highlands County next school term. These pupils are at present banned from the regular schools and the Ridge Area Day School offers their only hope for education and training.

At last report Mr. Garganus was still working to get the little beauty out and Mrs. Landress was still washing in perfect comfort except for the smell.

Devils To End Season Against Kathleen Here

The Red Devil Baseball nine will play the last regular game of the season next Tuesday night, April 29. The Devils will entertain the Kathleen Baseball Nine at Head Field at 6 o'clock.

Avon Park baseball fans will see a new pitcher in Lefty Glenn Bass as he starts on the mound against the Kathleen Devils. Glenn has pitched the Jayvees to two victories this season.

The Ridge Conference Tournament will be played in Sebring on Thursday, May 1 and Saturday, May 3.

Unofficial seedings place Avon Park first, Mulberry second, Sebring third, and Arcadia fourth. The games on Thursday are scheduled for 6 and 8 p. m.

Avon Park and Arcadia will meet in the opener at 6 o'clock and Sebring and Mulberry will clash in the nightcap. Arcadia, with an eight and two record are definitely an improved ball club and are expected to give the Devils a fight. After dropping the first two of the season to Avon Park and Mulberry, the Bulldogs have won eight straight and will play Sebring this week to finish their schedule.

The winners of the Thursday night games will meet at 3 o'clock Saturday night in the finals.

Anderson Blanks Mulberry 7 - 0

The Avon Park Red Devils bounced back from their Wednesday night loss to rack up a 7 to 0 Ridge Conference victory over the previously undefeated Mulberry Panthers Friday night at Head Field.

Charlie Anderson, ace Devil lefthander went the route for Avon Park and held the Panthers hitless until pinch-hitter Bob Frazier polled out a single in the sixth inning. Charlie struck out seven batters and issued five walks.

Leland Hagan pitched good ball for the visitors the four frames he worked but a series of bunts that were good for hits and four runs in the second inning seemed to take some of the starch out of him. He also struck out seven and gave up five walks.

The four run lead looked bigger all the time but the Devils were not satisfied and jumped on Relief pitcher Jerry Moore for three more in the fifth. Cooper was hit by a pitched ball, Leroy Starling walked, and T-Bob reached first on a hit. Billy Rouse's grounder forced Cooper at home but the next batter, Tommy Douberly, blasted a double to deep left-centerfield to score the three runs.

Porpoises at Marineland are supplied back scratchers. Large brushes are attached to the floor of their oceanarium home so that they will not rub against the sharp rocks and damage their sensitive skins.

Sebring Defeats Devils 4 to 3

A suicide play that scored a ...breaking run in the bot... of the seventh inning gave the Sebring Blue Streaks a 4 to 3 victory over the Avon Park Red Devils in a Ridge Conference baseball game played at Firestone Field last Wednesday night.

Last win was the first victory for Sebring over the Red Devils in about six years and judging from the post-game hooping and hollering will not be forgotten soon. The Blue Streaks were a mighty proud bunch of boys when it was all over.

The Blue Streaks got down to business early and scored one run in the second inning and two in the third to hold a three run margin. These runs were scored off starter Johnny Starling who gave the Streaks one hit in each of the three innings he worked.

The Devils were set down in order until Bryan Kempton rapped out a single in the third. However the Avon Park boys caught fire in the fourth and tied it up scoring three runs on two walks and two hits. Johnny Starling's booming triple scored Charlie Anderson who had walked and Catcher Leroy Starling's single scored his big brother and Bryan Kempton who also drew a walk.

Tension and suspense grew greater from this point and none of the wind-blows spectators budged from their seats. The climax came in the bottom of the seventh when right-fielder T. Wise led off with a single, advanced to second on a sacrifice and went to third on Jerry Sheffield's hit to right field. After two pitches to Lanier, Anderson turned and threw to third to catch Wise who had already broke for home. Third baseman Winkie Williams' relay to Leroy at home was not in time and the game was history.

Southpaw Charlie Anderson who came on in the fourth to relieve Starling was charged with the loss. He held the Streaks hitless until the seventh frame when they got two hits and the all important two runs.

Jerry Sheffield was the winning pitcher for Sebring and also led the Blue Streaks at bat collecting three of the five hits given up by the two Devil pitchers. Wise and Foster had the other blows.

Civil Defense Alert Set For Monday

A nationwide Civil Defense Alert will be conducted Monday and Tuesday, May 5 and 6, according to the warning received by Don Hanson, Highlands County Civil Defense director.

Four blasts on the sirens sounded by the local fire department will announce the one hour local Civil Defense Alert sometime Monday morning. After the siren signal is given motorists are requested to stay off the streets and highways. If at the time of the alert you are out on the streets please seek shelter at once.

Mayor E. A. Dellaney, head of the local Civil Defense Program, urgently requests that all citizens of the community abide by these simple rules. A report on the cooperation shown by the residents of Avon Park during the alert will be sent to the Federal Government. It is hoped that this report will show 100% cooperation for our community.

Members of the local Civil Defense Unit have been instructed in the duties they are to perform during the alert. But only through the cooperation of the people can this program be successful.

This alert will not pertain to the school children Monday. Classes will be conducted as usual and all students will remain at the schools.

The Sebring and Lake Placid Civil Defense Units will run the same alert program Monday morning as Avon Park. The knowledge that we learn through this and other alerts may help save life and possessions when natural or man-made disasters threaten. So do your part willingly and help make the local alert a success.

Dr. Beaumont Named Physician Of Cora Koser Cancer Foundation

Upon a petition of Sadie Kahn, John Conway and Howard Livingston, as trustees of the Cora L. Koser Cancer Foundation, Circuit Judge Joe D. Kinsey recently appointed Dr. G. L. Beaumont as successor physician of the foundation created by Mrs. Koser.

The trustees advise that they have some money on hand that is available for use by persons who are unable to furnish from their own funds medications for the treatment of cancer.

Persons of small means who are suffering from such disease should contact Dr. Beaumont with reference to the possibility of receiving financial aid for the medications. Mrs. Koser's husband was a very fine physician and had first hand knowledge of the dreaded disease. She had an abiding desire to assist people suffering from the killer and would like to see worthy residents of our county obtain relief.

The trustees wish to be of assistance to the individuals who can qualify in so far as their means will permit. They do not have a large amount of money and would be appreciative of any gifts of any individuals of the county desiring to give to the Foundation. They have been of assistance to a few of the residents of our county and are willing to consider recommendations of Dr. Beaumont for treatment.

Persons desiring to contribute to the cause should make their donation to the "Cora L. Koser Cancer Foundation" and forward to either Mrs. Kahn, Mr. Conway or Mr. Livingston.

Devils End Season With 12 And 1 Record

The Avon Park Red Devils ran their record to 12 and 1 when they traveled to Wauchula and beat the Hardee High Wildcats 5 to 4 in a game played last Wednesday afternoon. This was the second meeting for the two teams. The Devils won the first one 7 to 4 at Avon Park.

The Devils started slow but pushed across a total of five runs in the third and fourth innings that proved to be a little more than the Wildcats could overtake. Hits by Lenny Starling, Billy Rouse and Charlie Anderson combined with two Wildcat errors started the ball rolling for the Devils.

New Manager Of The Jim Walter Corporation In Avon Park

Walter Lee Burdette, formerly of Lakeland, is the new manager of the Jim Walter Corporation of Avon Park. He is a native of Atlanta, Ga., and was associated with the Corporation in Lakeland for about a year before he was transferred here.

The Jim Walter Corporation located 3 blocks south of Main Street on the West side of U. S. 27 offers custom built homes designed for southern living.

At the present time the public has seven beautiful models to choose from or the Jim Walter Corporation can build any size house from your floor plan, or their floor plans can be changed to suit the individual.

WALTER BURDETTE

These custom built homes built by experienced craftsmen on your lot are completely finished on the outside. The inside is unfinished except for ceiling joists, flooring and partition studs. They are not a prefab, portable or sectional house.

A brief summary of the first shell home in Tampa begins in 1946 when Jim Walter opened the door of a small office building just off Waters Avenue in Sulphur Springs. The office building was a likeness of their first shell home that in later years became one of the most sold homes in America. It began operations with only a modest amount of capital and a tremendous big idea. An idea that had a whopping big public appeal which was demonstrated by the hundreds who came to the first open house. The "Lake Shore"-one of the seven models on display, is one of the original Jim Walter Designs.

On August 22, 1955 the Walter Construction Company was recapitalized and incorporated under its present name of Jim Walter Corporation. And their motto is that only Jim Walter Corporation can offer you the recommendation from building for over 20,000 satisfied home owners and over 10 years experience in Southern Home construction.

Predicts End Of Recession By Fall

Predicting the end of the recession by Fall, K. S. Adams, board chairman and chief executive officer for the huge Phillips Petroleum Co., said here last week that the key is to permit industry accelerated depreciation tax relief.

"If industry got that," he said, "it is ready and willing to go ahead with expansion programs."

Adams was here for an award banquet to present T. K. Gilmore, district manager, the K.S. Adams Award for outstanding sales achievement.

The award is presented annually to the winner among Phillips 18 sales divisions throughout the nation, on the basis of the greatest percentage increase in product sales over the previous year.

The fact that Florida led 35 states in percentage of sales increase is indicative of this state's splendid economic condition.

Gilmore accepted the award on behalf of the 200 Phillips employees and jobbers and their wives who were present at a dinner at the Ft. Harrison Hotel.

Several Phillips officials from the company's general headquarters in Bartlesville, Okla. accon-

To add a bit of spice to the evening, that night, around the campfire one of the Scouts told a supposedly true story of an airplane pilot who cracked up nearby during the war and whose spirit stayed on to haunt the woods around the Bombing Range. This story helped keep the campfires burning brightly all night without any urging.

The next morning the boys cooked their breakfast and returned home.

Hostesses for the shower were Mrs. Jim Pearce, Mrs. Claudia Hettel, Miss Nell Pendarvis and Miss Betty Lou Dyal. About fifty friends of the bride-elect were present for the enjoyable evening.

Little Miss Gwen Sharpe, niece of the bridegroom-elect, presented the many beautiful and useful presents to Miss Hartsfield to open. Games with wedding themes were played during the evening and Mrs. R. F. DeLaney, Jr., and Mrs. Claudia Hettel won a small gift for their ability in the games.

Flowers of many spring colors were used to decorate the room and the guests were served punch, cake with tiny rosebuds, mints, nuts, and dip from a lovely table.

Brownie Scout Troop News

Troop 3's Brownies visited the Avon Park Library where Miss Avis Slaughter, librarian showed them around and explained many helpful ways of using the library and its books. Then the troop enjoyed Sno-Cones at the new stand on the highway.

Troop 3 will have a swimming party on Lake Lotela on Thursday afternoon, May 8, and the leaders would appreciate having as many mothers present as possible to help watch the girls in swimming. No Brownie will be allowed to swim without a note from her mother giving permission if the mother is not present. The girls will meet at the Brownie hut as usual before leaving for the lake.

Troop 4 enjoyed a weiner roast and picnic supper at the home of their leader, Mrs. Fred Davis, on Saturday evening, April 26. The Brownies ate tons of hot dogs, potato salad, chips, baked beans, cake, cold drinks and played badminton and other games in the yard. Perhaps the highlight of the evening for the girls was an Indian Trailing party through a vacant lot and around the house. Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Jim Runkle had laid trails with stones in the manner of Indian trails of long ago and they taught the girls how to follow them. The second grade Brownies were very thrilled with this.

On Saturday morning, May 11, the Brownies of Troop 4 will entertain their mothers with a Mother's Day Coke Party at the Brownie Building. All mothers are urged to make a special effort to attend this as the girls are working hard on the program and looking forward to entertaining their mothers.

Troop 5 Brownies were divided into two groups and one group with their leader, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, enjoyed cooking with Miss Faye Gordon at the Fla. Power Customer's Lounge on Tuesday, April 22, and another group made cookies on Thursday, April 29, with Mrs. Margie Barrow.

Miss Gordon was lovely to both groups and the girls enjoyed themselves immensely as well as learning a great deal.

Congregational Church News

The Women's Fellowship Council will hold its monthly meeting on Monday morning, May 5, at 9 o'clock in the pilgrim Bible Class Room in the upper part of the Educational Building.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Luscomb treated the members of the Intermediate Pilgrim Fellowship group to a delicious supper of real Italian spaghetti and a delightful afternoon and evening of fun on Sunday, April 27, at their home on the Bombing Range.

The twelve boys and girls went swimming, boating, and played games before supper. Mrs. Charles Kempton and Mrs. John Townsend were in charge of transportation. Then supper was served the hungergy young people and they made the most of the delicious spaghetti. Mrs. Lucia Luscombs assisted Mr. and Mrs. Luscomb with the party. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Whetstone, sponsors for the group, also joined in the merrymaking.

The Senior and Intermediate Pilgrim Group will go to St. Petersburg on Sunday, May 4 to attend the District Meeting of this group at the Indian Rocks Congregational Church. They will leave from the church and be accompanied by their sponsors.

Rotary News

Dr. William S. Hill, Jr. Highlands County Health Officer, was guests speaker at the luncheon meeting of the Avon Park Rotary Club on Wednesday, April 23. The Rotary luncheon meetings are held at the Jacaranda Hotel at 12:15 each Wednesday.

Drf. Hill explained the County Health Program to the members and also told what the Health Department was doing in carrying out the program. He referred to the clinics which are held in different parts of the county, and spoke briefly on the health program which was being conducted in the schools throughout Highlands County.

More than 2000 members and their guests are expected to attend the third annual meeting of the Indian Lake Club at Florida's newest city, Indian Lake Estates, on Saturday, May 3, it was announced today by Admiral J. E. Arnold, President of the Club.

Appearing for the first time on the new 1958 maps, following the establishment of a United States Post Office, last year, Indian Lake Estates, Admiral Arnold declared will be one of Florida's most cosmopolitan cities.

Indian Lake Estates is the Leon Ackerman development in the highland section of south central Florida.

"Members of the club, all property owners at Indian Lake Estates," he said, "hail from forty-seven states and Canada." While reservations indicate more than thirty states will be represented at the meeting, the largest delegation will be from Florida, of whose citizens, more than 600 are members.

"A gala program of entertainment extending through Sunday will follow the business meeting to be held in the auditorium of Florida's largest country club," he said.

The club house and grounds, as well as the beach and lakes, will house a wide variety of exhibits from local and national concerns. These will include boats, sporting and fishing equipment, automobiles, furniture, and a wide variety of home and garden equipment.

A golf clinic and an exhibition golf match by Betsy Rawls, current national women's champion, fly casting, and water skiing by other champions will feature the entertainment program.

In addition to national and state notables, celebrities among the club's own members will be on hand to greet their fellow members. Among the latter will be Harold "Red" Grange, the immortal "Galloping Ghost" of football fame, who heads the club's Recreation Committee.

Walker Memorial Hospital News

In keeping with its tradition of desiring to render the best possible service to the community, some months ago the board of directors of Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital approved the plan to modernize the institutional telephone system.

The new unit is a Model 30 C PBX and is being installed by the Inter-County Telephone Company. Technicians have been busy running the necessary lines and replacing old telephones with new modern dialing units.

Prompter service will be possible to doctors, patients and all using the hospital facilities when the new system is put into operation. Although the automatic switchboard will not eliminate the need of an operator, the greater part of the operator's former work will be taken over by the new equipment thus making the operator's service available for other duties.

More details concerning the new telephone system will be made public when the system is put into operation in the near future.

Work is progressing on four new apartment units in the annex building north of the main hospital unit. Plans have been finalized to complete four more apartments in the near future. These apartments will greatly relieve the housing shortage for employees as there are very few rental units in the Highland Lakes area.

Modern tables have been delivered for the dining room and are already in use. This was a long-felt need and another step in the modernization planned for the dining room. Completion of the dining room plans are expected during the summer months.

Since the opening of the rooms for colored patients on the south end of third floor, the need of a nursing station on his home.

During the Rally held at the Band Shell Pavilion outstanding speakers presented an interesting program on Veteran Affairs. Florida ranks fifth in the fast growing World War I Veterans organization.

All World War I Veterans are urged to join the organization for their benefit and so that a Charter may be secured.

Meetings are held the second Monday of each month. All World War I veterans are welcome to attend. Those desiring transportation are to meet in front of Touchton Drug Store.

Salvation Army Prison Sunday

Across the country last Sunday, April 27, Salvation Army officers were conducting services in prisons and other correctional institutions in observance of National Correctional Institutions Sunday.

In this area arrangements were made by Lt. Harry S. Foden to hold services at the Avon Park Florida Prison by The Salvation Army of this area at 3:00 p. m. Music was provided by members of the Lakeland Salvation Army Band, and the speaker was Brigadier Wm. Powell, principal of The Salvation Army Training School for Officers in Atlanta, Georgia.

The Salvation Army recognizes that when an offender receives a sentence from a court, the family of that man automatically receives a sentence also. This results, many times, in a broken home, a divorce, or other social problems. The Salvation Army officer works with the man and his family to preserve family ties.

While this day was set aside to bring spiritual uplift to as many persons confined in correctional institutions as possible, the Salvation Army officer, throughout the year, regularly visits those institutions to conduct religious services, and to interview and counsel inmates.

The year-round program includes free Bible courses, assistance in securing jobs when sentences have been completed, rehabilitation assistance, and aid to families of the offenders.

A voluntary organization, The Salvation Army today is cooperating with prison, probation and parole officials and with judges in many courts to aid in crime prevention.

Through this comprehensive program of service to prisoners and their families, The Salvation Army visits each year an estimated 125,000 persons in correctional institutions in this country. About 3,000 men and women are paroled annually to the Salvation Army.

Notice To All Boat Owners Having Boats In Highlands County

AN OPEN LETTER

To All Taxpayers Having Above Mentioned Personal Property:

Since my advertisements of March in the local papers, calling attention to responsibility of taxpayers in declaring as personal property their pleasure boats and equipment, many persons have inquired about the law providing for taxing of this property. I herewith quote some of the laws covering same.

Section 193.12 Laws of Florida:

Who Is Required To Make Tax Returns

"Every person owning or having control, management, custody, direction, supervision or agency of property of whatsoever character that is subject to taxation under the laws of this State shall return the same for taxation to the Assessor of Taxes on or before the 1st day of April of each and every year."

Section 193.10 Laws of Florida:

Owners of Boats To List For Taxation

"All persons owning steamboats, dredge boats, sailing vessels, wharf boats, barges and other craft shall be required to list same for assessment in the County in which same belong, etc."

Section 200.01 Laws of Florida:

Definition of Tangible Personal Property

"Tangible Personal Property shall include all goods, chattels, boats, vessels, vehicles (except motor vehicles), animals and other articles of value capable of manual possession and whose chief value shall consist of the thing itself and not what it represents. The words 'Personal Property' as used in this chapter shall be synonymous with 'Tangible Personal Property.'"

There are several other laws covering the subject which I will be glad to point out to any interested persons at their request.

I do wish to point out that I HAD NOTHING WHATEVER TO DO WITH THE ENACTMENT OF THE ABOVE LAWS. I am, however, sworn to uphold them to the best of my ability, and that is what I am doing in this instance.

I also wish to thank the several hundreds of Highlands Countians who have come in and declared their boats. Their cooperation (and discussions) are greatly appreciated.

P. G. GEARING

(Your Tax Assessor)

ALL PERSONS OWNING PERSONAL PROPERTY OF THE ABOVE CATEGORY, WHO HAVE NOT COMPLIED WITH THE LAW, ARE URGED TO DO SO UPON READING THIS NOTICE.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE OF MARY ELLEN: Touchton's Drug Store was jammed all afternoon Saturday when Mary Ellen and her sea-worthy parrot was on hand to greet the children of Avon Park. A large number of adults were seen enjoying the clever cartoons which she drew for the children. After meeting her it is easy to see why she has been chosen as the favorite kid's TV personality. Her love for children was shown in the manner and patiences which she displayed Saturday. Mary Ellen, her husband and three children, spent several hours at Touchton's Drug Store where she entertained the children and explained the rules of Touchton's big Pomatex Pony Contest which runs until the 28th of May. Mary Ellen was over-whelmed with the reception she received at Touchton's and had only praise for our friendly city. But praise is due her, for after spending two long hours drawing and amusing the children at Touchton's she accepted an invitation to appear on Teen-Time on WAVF. Mary Ellen is a natural for she is the same on and off TV. She is presented to the television audiences each Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons from 5:30 till 6 p.m. by Touchton Drug Company and if Saturday could be used as a gauge it is a sure thing that more TV's in Avon Park will be turned to Channel 13, WTVT, each afternoon in time for her program.

The Avon Park State Prison is Florida's first minimum security prison and here an all out effort is being made to rehabilitate criminals with good treatment instead of punishment. For here the goal is to return a man to society better prepared to be a law abiding citizen than when he was committed.

Today there are 513 inmates housed at the prison which is located about 10 miles east of Avon Park on the grounds of the Air Force Bombing Range. The grounds are surrounded by a wire fence, but no closed gate greets the visitors for the men are free to come and go all the reservation. The gate is closed at night to guard against prowlers. For a minimum security prison is a correctional institution rather than one for confirmed only.

A staff of sixty-two employees, many whom families live in Avon Park, are employed in the institution. Many of the staff in adding the inmates is learning a trade for approximately 90 per c nt of all prisoners who completed the eighth grade of life. Here they are taught, to

Richard McClelland, Wild Life Officer, has suggested to the County Commission that they give his supervisor a priority list of locations that are available for boat landings on the river and lakes in Highlands County.

Mr. Dial spoke of the suggestions from Governor Collins that the Department extend its program for construction of boat ramps and make a larger provision in the 1958-59 budget for this expansion. Mr. Dial also stated at the meeting on April 17, that a state-wide committee was being formed, of which he was to be chairman, to serve in an advisory capacity. They after reviewing the present facilities, cost of construction, the committee will work with the department in the location of new facilities and other pertinent matters to aid the Department to efficiently gear this project to its overall road program.

We Can Count On The Weeklies

The American Press states that: ". . . the continuation of country weeklies is one of the few things we can count upon in this troubled world." Here are some of the reasons why.

People who read metropolitan dailies do so as a matter of duty in order to get the "big news". But, if they live in a suburban town or rural area, they read their country weekly because they want to. It gives the local stories that mean something in their lives.

Respected weeklies have survived every crisis which ever hit this country because merchants in small towns will continue to advertise in their local weekly come depression or prosperity. It is a sure way of bringing in customers.

Circulation of weeklies is going up because there are more people living in the suburbs and in the country. Big city papers are doing well to keep even.

More and more weeklies are being published successfully right in the heart of metropolitan cities to fill the insatiable demand of people for local and neighborhood news and advertisements of neighborhood stores.

The nation's thousands of hometown newspapers are heading for their biggest period of growth, influence and responsibility.

Three Years Of Salk Vaccine

Just three years ago this April the Salk vaccine was officially pronounced safe and effective and licensed for use by the U.S. Government.

Since then, the polio picture in this country has undergone a radical change. Before the Salk vaccine we struggled with an erratic but mounting series of polio epidemics that reached their peak in 1952 with 57,879 cases. Last year, owing to widespread vaccination, the number dropped to 5,894. By this time it is clear that the Salk vaccine, developed on grants from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, is one of the triumphant milestones in the history of modern medical science.

What, in the meantime, has happened to vaccination?

The first year it was given mainly to grade children — some 10 million of them. The second year it was made available to young persons up to 20 and expectant mothers, and some 35 million were injected. Last year a crash vaccination program directed at all persons under 40 added 20 million more, making a total of 65 million.

A big job done in a remarkable short time.

But not good enough. For Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, warns us that, with 46 million Americans still unvaccinated, we may still have polio epidemics next summer.

The answer? There is enough vaccine for everybody now, regardless of age. It's painless. It's inexpensive. It's effective protection against a lifetime of paralysis.

Meikrowave .....

Gov. LeRoy Collins, a staunch advocate of government in the sunshine, says he thinks there are some public matters that should be thrashed out in a little dimmer light.

The observation came after a request was made by members of the Capitol Press Corps for a list of official visitors he sees at his offices at the Capitol and at the Mansion.

Collins said he was willing to give serious consideration to the request, but added that there were somethings that can be better handled in the public interest without members of the press on hand.

The request follows up an "informal conference" at the Mansion recently between Collins, Cabinet members, and the Tallahassee City Commission.

At the meeting ground work was laid for a plan that will involve expenditures of several hundred thousand dollars in public funds city and state - to develop a park across from the Mansion and rid approaches to the Capitol Center of slum areas.

This meeting came to light only after Collins was questioned about the meeting at a news conference. Collins tried to supply most of the details, but still the full picture has not been made public.

Capitol newsmen have found it increasingly difficult to keep up with visitors since an office was installed at the Mansion.

This all boils down to what appears to be a simple situation.

The public is entitled to know who its governor is talking with - and where possible - to know what they were talking about.

Although Collins has been highly cooperative with the press and the public in most instances, a blackout on activities at his Mansion-office could lead to some dangerous practices by future governors - or by Collins himself if he felt the matter would be handled "easier" with out public knowledge.

P. S. About 20 minutes after the request was made, Collins' Executive Assistant Joe Grotegut reported the Governor would dine with the Cabinet next Monday night at the Mansion.

22-Cent milk? A fellow named Harvey W. Currin, Belle Glade, had some of the milk boys scrambling for the cow pasture the other day.

Currin said he had an idea that could make the muck grass lands of the Glades area in South and Central Florida into first class milk producing areas.

At present, sanitation limitations prohibit using such areas.

The part that shook some of the milk boys was that Currin said by utilizing such areas, Florida's milk production could be doubled, and the price at the store could be reduced to 22 cents instead of the usual 28 cents for a quart of milk.

His idea is to use a mobile milk parlor, and a new system of milking, which would do away with much of the filth now connected with milking barns.

Currin has offered to build the machine at his own expense and let the University of Florida test the idea to see if high quality milk can be produced in this manner.

Miss Shirley Waters And Robert Whitcomb Exchange Vows In Candlelight Service May 3, In Sebring

MRS. ROBERT C. WHITCOMB

Miss Shirley Ann Waters became the bride of Robert Cleckley Whitcomb in a candlelight double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. E. Merle Weyant in the Church of the Brethren at 8 o'clock on Saturday, May 3, in Sebring.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Waters of Sebring and the bridegroom is the son om Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Whitcomb, Sr., of Avon Park.

The wedding vows were exchanged under an arch of lighted candles entwined with white mums and fern. Baskets of white gladioli and cathedral tapers against a background of palms further enhanced the beauty of the candlelight service. Donald Whitcomb, brother of the bridegroom, and Ronald Purvis, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Miss Nancy Longbottom, organist, played a program of nuptial music before the ceremony and Wayne Graham, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". The bridal party entered to the strains of the Wedding March from "Lohengrin" by Wagner. The Lord's Prayer was rendered as a benediction and the bridal party left the church to Mendelsohn's Wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The fitted bodice featured a portrait neckline of illusion with traditional sleeves and tiny lace buttons down the back. The front panel of the full skirt, from the waist line to the hem consisted of rows of dainty ruffles of nylon tulle and the graceful skirt had an extended sweep in the back. The imported veil of pure silk bridal illusion fell from a scalloped cap with seed pearls and the bride's only ornament was a strand of seed pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with a small bouquet of sweetheart roses centered around a white orchid from which fell graceful streamers.

Mrs. James C. Strole, sister of the bride and matron of honor, wore a ballerina length dress of blue crystanza with a lighter shade of blue chiffon crossed cumberbund which extended the full length of the dress in the back. A lighter shade of blue was used in the circlet headpiece which was outline in seed pearls from which fell illusion veils of pale blue tulle accented with pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with tulle and ribbons in two shades of blue were used and her dainty slippers were of a matching hue.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Entz, Miss Betty Ann Kuhn, Rena Westberly and Mrs. Glenn Whitcomb, Jr. The bridesmaids were attired in dresses identical to the matron of honor with reversed shade of blue. They also wore white gloves and carried carnation bouquets with tulle and blue ribbons. They and the matron of honor wore pearls which were a gift of the bride.

Miss Joan Hartsfield And Kelton Hill Are United In Marriage May 2

MR. AND MRS. KELTON HILL

Miss Joan Hartsfield and Kelton Hill of Avon Park were united in marriage in a beautiful double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Kline Williams in the Lake Placid Baptist Church at 7 o'clock on Friday, May 2.

A program of nuptial music was presented before the service with Mrs. Charles Stadham at the organ and Mrs. David Hadwin who sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly". The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of white gladioli, lilies, and Queen Ann's lace which banked an arch of lighted tapers entwined with fern.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Silas Hartsfield, wore a traditional bridal gown of Chantilly lace with a fitted bodice, Queen Ann's collar and wrist length sleeves. The ballerina length skirt with Chantilly lace inserts matching the bodice was of net over taffeta and she carried a prayer book topped with a white orchid and streamers.

Miss Nell Pendarvis, maid of honor, wore a crisp sheer pink dress of nylon net with a fitted bodice and square neck. Small tucks formed the short sleeves and the long waist line ended with a full pleated skirt. She carried a nosegay of pastel spring flowers.

Benny Hill of Avon Park, served his brother as best man.

The bride's mother wore a powder blue lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Audrey Hill of Avon Park, wore a lavender lace dress over taffeta with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held in the Woman's Club Building. The Bride's Table was lovely with a four tired wedding cake and the cut glass punch bowl was surrounded by pink carnations and baby's breath. Floral arrangements of lilies, gardenias, Queen Ann's lace, and lilies were used at vantage points in the room serving punch and cake to the guests were Mrs. Grady Smoak, Mrs. Vennie Durrance, Mrs. Jack Lennon and Miss Pat Lennon, presided at the Bride's Book. Mrs. Hubert Roberts greeted guests upon their arrival.

During the reception the young couple left for a wedding trip to the gulf beaches. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harper of Brooksville and Mimmie Pearce of Cocoa were out-of-town guests at the wedding.

Sans Souci Entertained At Brown Home

The Sans Souci Bridge Club was entertained on Tuesday night, April 29, at the home of Mrs. Raeburn L. Brown.

Three lovely arrangements of spring flowers were placed at vantage points to give the room an air of spring. The members and guests of the club were served delicious cooling fruit gelatin topped with ice cream, cake, and coffee with mints and nuts.

Members and guests enjoying the bridge party were Miss Millie Pearson, Mrs. Art Willits, Mrs. Raymond Dilley, Miss Sara Sellers, Mrs. Alice Sherman, Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine, Mrs. Ed Hodgdon, Mrs. Hubert Bussard, Mrs. J. L. Wells, Mrs. Floyd Johnston, Mrs. John Hood, and Mrs. Henry Lexia.

There were fourteen members and one new member, Mrs. Fred James, present at the meeting. The Rev. Herbert Graetz was also a guest at the meeting. Mrs George Langman, Circle Advisor, was also present at the meeting.

Mrs. Orpha Brown, of the Highlands County School System, gave a very interesting talk on the special teachers in our county. The members asked questions after her talk and secured a great deal of information about our school system.

The hostesses served an angel food cake mold with fruit gelatin and seven-up.

The Ladies Aid will meet on Wednesday, May 14, at 12 o'clock in the Educational Building for a Covered Dish Luncheon. This will be the last meeting of the group until October.

All ladies of the church are invited to attend the luncheon and are reminded to bring their own table service.

Girl Scout News

The Girl Scouts were taken on a tour of the Mandis Dairy Farm at their meeting, Tuesday, April 29 by Demos Mandis, who founded the dairy many years ago. The girls particularly enjoyed seeing the fine herd of dairy cows and the spic-and-span milk parlors where all the most modern equipment is used to keep our milk safe and free from harmful bacteria.

The Scouts who stayed in the Scout Hall worked on their Dabler's Badges by doing work with paints and water colors. Mrs. John Townsend served refreshments to the Scouts. Mrs. G. D. Godwin assisted the troop by providing emergency transportation to the dairy.

A Shadow Of Things To Come

[illegible] 1945 that Avon [illegible] and disc[illegible] was first unfurled, [illegible] to help fight the war [illegible] wore. The history of [illegible] here ranges in an [illegible] vein, and on the ground [illegible] in far away places [illegible] from those whose feet once [illegible] soil, and who died that [illegible] might be a better world to [illegible].

With advent of the atom bomb [illegible] the end of active parti[illegible]. The Range was gradu[illegible]ally to become a ghost range, with only a skeleton crew to hold [illegible]it in abeyance against the time when the world might go mad again. The ravages of time took its toll, and the once proud build[illegible]ings began to mold and rot, and crumble back to the dust from [illegible]whence they sprang. The vast [illegible]stretches of runway and aprons were silent, and they no longer [illegible]served the man made birds that [illegible]Dante forcast five thousands years ago in his "Inferno". Peace had come and there was no long[illegible]er need for the machines of war.

With the passing of the Four [illegible]Horsemen of the Apocolypse, the [illegible]future years twern. Florida, the [illegible]Sunshine State held open house [illegible]to the people of the world. She [illegible]opened and she grew. She also [illegible]found one of the sad com[illegible]edies of life is that into each [illegible]life some must fall some rain, [illegible]with the good she received [illegible]her share. Consequently [illegible]institutions grew. Out [illegible]institutions became crowd[illegible]ed. Crime was rearing its [illegible]head in Durance Vile.

One year ago, a far seeing Governor, his Cabinet and understanding Legislature heeded the wisdom of the newly created Department of Corrections, at whose helm they had placed Mr. R. O. Culver. Avon Park Prison, an integral part of the Florida State Penal System, was born, and became in fact part and partial of Avon Park Bombing and Gunnery Range. It was new concept in Prisons, and one that might well make or break the youthful Department of Corrections.

Mr. L. L. Wainwright, a young man with several years of experience in penal work was selected as the head of this new project—A Prison Without Bars. A carefully screened and selected few prisoners made the initial trip to Avon Park with Mr. Wainwright and those selected as his supervisory personnel. Here they sat up shop in these hallowed halls, among the weeds, the brush, small animals and other things that the viscitudes of time had wrought since the end of the war.

Quietly, without fanfare, and the times without the necessary supplies Mr. Wainwright and his crew inaugurated this system, that is yet to cast a shadow of importance over the fields of Penal Institutions as has no other single thing in the history of the State. With firmness, compassion, understanding and dignity he guided this first contingent along a way that would lead to the things invisioned by those who first held the dream that was to be Avon Park Prison. To the supervisory it represented a challenge such as few men have faced in this type work.

It matters not what the project is, nor to what goal you may strive, when a number of humans are involved in an effort there must invariably be a leader. Otherwise you soon have chaos and no control. This writer is in agreement with the age old axiom that leaders are born and not made. Mr. Wainwright was the man for the job. Certainly after one short year the evidence is here that he has cast his shadow as a leader over the field of Penology. However, I am sure that he will be the first to maintain that without the cooperation of every individual involved in the beginning of this project, there would have been no Avon Park Prison, as we know it today.

It is not my purpose to laud the Superintendent nor the Director, nor any single person in this endeavor, but to place credit where credit is due. To give an unbiased picture by an inmate who was one of the advance guard, and feels himself to be a part of this dream. The crux of this article is to attempt to show the substance of the shadow.

In the final analysis, the body that casts the shadow of things to come, is not the fact that we came here and made a habital place of a virtual wilderness but, the gradual changing of the attitude, the bearing and the manner of everyone who has come here, and that includes the supervisory personnel also. To the prisoner Avon Park represented the most radical change possible for his conception of TV ROOMS! Four such rooms as these at the Avon Park Prison, two in the white area and two in the colored area, allow the inmates to enjoy TV during some of their leisure time and allows them to keep up with what is happening in the outside world. These rooms will be open for inspection during Open House at the Prison Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11.

GARDEN AT THE AVON PARK PRISON: All fresh vegetables served at the institution are raised in the prison garden. At the present time they have fifty acres under cultivation. This is one of many work projects which the inmates handle, they also raise all the broilers used at the prison (figures 65 per day. Be sure to see this beautiful garden they have made out of range land when you attend the Open House this week end.

open distrust by your supervisory when you approached him. You were on your own in your behavior and desire to cooperate. The only threat visible was the fact that the Bus that brought you from Raiford could certainly carry you back if you were a misfit. The hand that took you in charge was firm, yet gentle and understanding. In profusion their were grass blades, brooms, axes, hammers, saws—a job for every man. In payment for this veritable Utopia you were expected to give in return a decent days work and conduct yourself as a gentleman.

It is to the everlasting credit of those who first came that they did not need a second telling. They pitched in with a will to make of this a place such as was first invisioned. There were no complaints for long and extra hours when needed, nor at the crudeness of the beginning effort. In each man was a vision, a heart felt thanks for the opportunity to be a part of this dream.

It is seldom you see a prisoner laugh with genuine laughter. Rarely will you see the light of a smile creep to his eyes. Usually the windows of his soul are dead. lifeless things that see only what is needed to be seen. The face is hardly ever relaxed and composed, but usually twisted with some inner thought of defeatism. And yet before you were two months old here the place reverberated with healthy and spontaneous laughter. Only here and there did you see a face with the strained look, and that was perhaps because of something that came through the mail, a situation at home, or an old memory stirred a healing wound.

Hands that long had been idle, used only to do as much as would keep them from the "treatment" squad, began to assume new life. Old skills were awakened, new skills were learned. Here and there a wagon, a boat or some other handicraft would appear, and upon the face of the creator would be the look that comes only with the good life and the will to do.

Because a man has appeared before the bar of Justice and convicted for an offense does not mean that his mind and his skills are taken from him. It does not mean that his usefullness is ended for the period of his time. That is the old concept of the Law - sentence at "hard labor". Give a man something to do, something to reach for and appreciate, a show of confidence and the majority will reward you with an unfailing effort.

Last Christmas the people of the vincinity gathered up all the old and broken toys that they could find and hauled them to Avon Park Prison in trucks. If possible they wished them repaired that the less fortunate kids might have some sort of Christmas. My friend if you could have walked with me into the machine shop, the hobby shop, the barracks, anywhere a man might find space and time to do this work, and seen the loving care that was being given to what seemed an impossible task, you would have known that beneath the cloak of Durance Vile there beat a heart of gold. There was no curfew and far into the night Santa's helpers worked at their task to make ready these things for the Big Night. It was a volunteer duty, and yet one that was fought for. I am pretty sure that on Christmas Morning the Gods that Be smiled in joy at the effort expended by these men claimed unfit. I know that many children faces was wreathed in pleasure for the unexpected gifts.

Six month after Avon Park became a fact, every man who had a skill and for whom there was a job to do, was placed on that job. Mr. Wainwright in his faith in his crew found electricians, plumbers, carpenters, steam fitters, engineers and draftsmen. He utilized their skills and from the rubble that was this Range there began to rise what is now Avon Park Prison.

After a year, and looking out over these broad acres of wildly beautiful rangeland; seeing men employed at their skills and actually enjoying their work; hearing the genuineness of their laughter at work and play; noting the seriousness with which they approach the future, I am humbly proud to have been a part of this Dream. I am grateful for the opportunity afforded me to find myself and the things I now stand for both pro and con. I haven't been coodled. I certainly haven't been resting. I have worked, I have studied, I have learned, I have lived in peace an harmony with my fellow man. Trust and confidence in a man are invaluable properties indeed.

Avon Park is not just another place to house a few hundred men. It is a dream become a reality. A rehabilitation center in the finest sense of the meaning. Rehabilitation is up to the individual and here he is aware of it immediately. There have been a few failures that is true, but in the overall picture, places such as Avon Park will do more to restore such as we to the good life than any other single element.

Here and there are the remains of a few of the buildings that once housed those who fought for our way of life. Looking at them and thinking of those who lie "In Flanders Field, where poppies grow"—I like to think that they did not live and die in vain, but brought about a new way of thinking that lead to the Dream that is us. I like to feel that we "misguided ones" who came here, have found the spirit and the faith that will show us the way back home.

It is regretable that the inconsistencies of life and human nature will not allow all who have passed before the bar of judgement, to become a member of this type inmate body. But the Shadow of Things to Come shows that if we keep our eyes upon the hills, believe in our future and ourselves, and build and even better and stronger Avon Park, those who have been denied this priviledge will fight for the chance to join us. In so doing the shadows will fade and the substance will be more discernable. This cannot and must not be the Light That Failed. It must be a beacon that will guide all those who by circumstance or otherwise will follow us here, to the good and fruitful life once again.

It takes a firm hand and an understanding heart to guide the destiny of we of Durance Vile. Therein lies the absolute solution to the problem. Men who dedicate themselves to this kind of work and this type of rehabilitation, must in turn be rehabilitated. I have seen it happen in Avon Park. I have seen open faced doubt in new supervisory personnel become one of joy and approval. A man who would in a manner play God and guide others into the channels that end in a harbour of safety, must know what lies within himself. In that respect, we of Avon Park are batting close to the thousand mark. They have ceased to become keepers, but more apt shepherds.

Within the shadow cast there are the shape of many things. Improved living conditions, vocational activities, social guidance, and above all the instilling of self-confidence into men who had all but lost the will to live. Improved and carefully selected supervisory personnel with a firm and understanding viewpoint. A dream? Utopia? In a way—Yes. Already here in Avon Park it has become almost a complete reality. The shadows are receding and the shape is becoming evident.

As an Inmate I am proud to have been among those who first came to Avon Park. As a human being, who at best is in the afternoon of a life that has been all but wasted, I am grateful that I was afforded a chance to see myself from an objective viewpoint. As a member of Society, I have hopes that our tomorrows will find more places like this, that those who stumble along the way may right themselves and become useful citizens. As a person I am pleased that I could know some of those who have been my keeper and can look back at the shadows not with fear, but with confidence and pride. Regardless of your station, if the job is well done, there is bound to be a feeling of satisfaction.

The Shadow of Things To Come, Avon Park has ceased to be a prison. It is a waystation along the road that will lead every man here back to a better and more secure future, if he will but avail himself of the opportunities given. I have every hope and confidence that the next year will see Avon Park grow in size and stature; that its shadow will envelop the field of penal institutions and prove that rehabilitation is not just a word, but a concrete fact.

My hat is off to the wisdom of Mr. Culver; the faith and confidence of Wainwright in his men; the courage and forsight of the Governor, his Cabinet and the Legislature. The inmate personnel of Avon Park will not let you down.

SPOTLESS KITCHEN: Inmates of the Avon Park Prison are taught the art of baking and cooking in this spotless kitchen. The food served is not only wholesome and skillfully prepared but sparkles with variety. The men are allowed seconds as long as the food lasts, but they must eat all they take. Unlike other prisons where it is impossible to wash before dinner due to locked cells, the inmates are allowed to wash before meals, and the tables are set with knives, forks, spoons and napkins. At times even fresh flowers on some of the tables greet the men. Be sure to visit the kitchen during Open House at the Avon Park Prison this coming Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11.

INFIRMY: At the Avon Park Prison infirmary the men receive thorough medical attention. Inmates also get dental examination and treatment from prison dentist. The infirmary is equipped with 6 beds.

Jane Barben gave a very interesting and amusing report of the convention in St. Petersburg which she, Vera Kirkland, Margaret Turnbull and Sulette Lanier attended.

The club voted to buy a weatherproof net for the new tennis court the city is to put in soon in Donaldson Park. It was also voted to further investigate an offer made by the local radio station, WAVF, for the club to sponsor a program and authorize a committee to take action on this. Club members decided to save coupons found in various grocery products along with the Senior Club. These coupons will be turned in for money which will go toward buying new books for the library.

The Girl Scout Committee Chairman reported they had taken many interesting field trips lately and plan to go to Cypress Gardens May 17th. She also reported that since there were enough Brownies coming up to form a second troop, the WSCS of the Methodist Church has offered to sponsor this troop.

The Library Committee reported that the World Book Encyclopedia, which the club purchased, had been presented to the library and asked that all interested club members join the library.

A very interesting program was presented by Mrs. Maxine Delahunty, teacher for the Ridge Area School for Retarded Children. She explained that the school at present takes the trainable child with an IQ of 20-50 and that the main goal is to get the children ready to be accepted in society. She uses units of study that correspond to kindergarden and teaches health habits, rest habits and manners. She said there will be some children ready to go into the first grade this year and that they are a happy group who has learned to work and play well together.

Mrs. Gardner Brooks was introduced as a guest and hostesses for the evening were: Gladys Young, Vera Kirkland and Pat Lagoni.

Coach Guy Garratt called on Lefty Glen Bass to start for the Devils and the ninth grade control artist went all five innings scattering five singles in posting the shutout. He walked only one. The Devils gave their young pitcher excellent backing playing errorless ball and pulling two double plays.

Catcher Leroy Starling led the Avon Park hitters with two singles in three at bat. Other hitters were Billy Rouse, Jimmy Cooper, Wayne Kempton and Tom Bass all with singles.

Immediately following the game Ridge Conference president Joe Barton of Lake Placid congratulated the Devils and presented Captain Johnny Starling and pitcher Glen Bass with the big trophy emblematic of the 1958 RIDGE CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS.

Mr. Dial said he was deeply interested in a program that will encourage pleasure boating in the many lakes and streams throughout Florida. He mentioned the revenue to be received from the gasoline consumed by these boats and said he felt that owners were entitled to good facilities for launching and landing at numerous locations in all sections of our state, to meet the needs of our residents and tourists.

To date the Commissioners have taken no action on the suggestion.

Honor! that one word explains the theory of the prison, it is the barrier between inmates and escape. For there are no menacing shot guns, and the custodial officers, for they are not referred to as guards, are unarmed as they accompany the inmates on work details outside the area during the day. In fact there are no weapons of any description.

The inmates are not being coddled for each gives a full days work for the trust that is bestowed in him. Many pastime activities, including construction work, printing, baseball, carpentry work, gardening, baking and others help the inmates learn a trade and supply the prison with many needed items. The inmates have also come to the aid of the community on a number of occasions. They gave up many free hours of their time last Christmas repairing broken toys for the Lions Club, and this spring they created and built an oriental bridge and two gondolas for the Junior-Senior banquet.

To present to the public a complete picture of the activities at the prison Supt. Wainwright has planned a sort of a fair for Open House. Here one of the buildings will be divided into booths, each booth will represent a department of the prison and will display a part or phase of the activities of the inmates. Visitors are cordially invited to attend the Open House, either Saturday or Sunday, and to inspect the Avon Park State Prison.

County Cancer Drive $500 Short Of Goal

Roland X. Driot, County Crusade Chairman of the American Cancer Society, reports the total collected to date of $1775.00, which is approximately $500 short of our County goal. Although the Crusade was set for the month of April, there probably are a number of people who have not been contacted and who would like to make a contribution to the Cancer Fund. Please get in touch with Mr. Driot or Carl Prisoc or mail it to them.

Highlands County has never fallen short of our goal on the Cancer drive and we feel certain that we shall meet it this year; however, we do not want to drag it along and hope to wind up the crusade within the next week or ten days.

Devils Defeat Kathleen 6-1

The Avon Park Red Devils completed their regular schedule for the 1958 season beating the Kathleen Red Devils 6 to 1 last Tuesday night at Head Field. This win gives the Avon Park boys a season record of thirteen wins and one loss. Two of the wins were against Wauchula, a non-conference foe.

Kathleen scored their lone run in the first inning but were unable to threaten again. Avon Park tied it up in the first and went ahead in the second inning when the popular Leroy Starling slapped one over the leftfield wall for a home run. Avon Park added two more runs in the third and two more in the sixth wheir Bill Rouse hit a homer also over the leftfield wall. This was his second of the season. Winkie Williams and Charlie Anderson each had two hits, a double and single and Bryan Kempton and Jimmy Cooper hit singles.

Billy Rouse was the starting pitcher but ran into trouble and was relieved by Charlie Anderson with two out in the first. Glen Bass relieved Anderson in the third and hurled four innings giving up two of the three Kathleen hits. He struck out three and walked none. Rouse came back and pitched the final inning giving up the third hit and striking out two.

The visitors aided the Avon Park cause committing four costly errors.

RESUME OF FLORIDA'S MOST UNIQUE PRISON: R. O. Culver, Director of Division Correctional Institutions of Florida, gave a brief history of the prison without bars Saturday during the Open House Program. The Avon Park High School Band furnished the music for the afternoon's program. Open House, celebrating the first anniversary of the Avon Park State Prison, was held Saturday and Sunday with nearly one thousand persons inspecting Florida's first minimum security prison.

Nearly one thousand persons inspected the Avon Park State Prison during Open House which was held Saturday and Sunday to celebrate the first anniversary of Florida's first minimum security prison.

R. O. Culver, Director of Division Correctional Institutions of Florida gave a brief history of this unique prison, without bars or fire arms, during a special program Saturday afternoon. A musical program was also presented by the Avon Park High School Band.

The Educational Building housed booths prepared by each department of the institution. Here the many items made in the various departments received many compliments from the throng of visitors. Refreshments prepared in the prison's spotless kitchen were served to all those visiting the institution on Saturday and Sunday.

At the end of the first year of the institution there are 513 inmates and a staff of 62 employees, most of whom are making their home in Avon Park.

The Avon Park Prison is Florida's first minimum security prison and here an all out effort is being made to rehabilitate criminals with good treatment instead of punishment. For here the goal is to return a man to society better prepared to be a law abiding citizen than when he was committed. Approximately 93 per cent of all prisoners are eventually returned to civilian life. At the local institution they are taught to think for themselves, and their self-respect is restored for they are treated as humans and they are paying their debt to society.

One word explains the theory of the prison, honor, it is the barrier between inmates and escape. For there are no menacing shot guns and the guards are referred to as custodial officers.

It was interesting to learn that although guards at the prison here do not carry arms or equalizers of any kind there have been very few escapes. Only inmates who have had just a few months to go made the attempt—none of the lifers.

Incidently, the food out there is said to be out of this world—at least for outsiders.

The Farless family has a lot of fine neighbors who organized immediately following the fire to help. They saw to it that the children had plenty of clothing and other necessities until theirs could be cleaned and washed.

Girl Scout Organizational Meeting At Griffin's, May 22

A special organizational dinner meeting for Girl and Brownie Scout Leaders, sponsors, and committee members to make preparations for the ensuring year has been set for Thursday night, May 22, at Griffin's Restaurant at 7 o'clock.

Each leader, sponsor, committee member, and any parents of girl scouts interested in seeing the scouting program continued for another year in Avon Park is requested to make their reservations with Mrs. Roy Ladwin, phone Gl. 2-2794. Chicken dinners will be served by Griffin's at $1.25 per plate.

An urgent appeal for people who have had experience in scouting to assist this worthy organization is being made. Representatives from the scouting organization in Sebring, who have been so successful with their group, have offered to attend the meeting and add the local group in any way possible.

The Avon Park Parent Teachers Association, Elementary Parent Teachers Association and the Junior Woman's Club have been sponsors and will continue to be sponsors of the scouting groups, but due to the rapid growth in the enrollment new sponsors are needed. Thursday night sponsors for these additional groups will be voted on and selected.

Among the leaders there is the feeling of wonderful co-operation from the sponsors and Committee members but there is a complete lack of organization which keeps the leaders from full-filling their obligations to the girls.

It is hoped that this meeting will be well attended by interested persons. Anyone having questions in regards to the meeting may contact any of the leaders.

Red Devils Win Sub-District Tournament

The Avon Park Red Devils swept through the sub-district baseball tournament held at Head Field last week posting wins over the Lake Placid Green Dragons on Thursday night and the Sebring Blue Streaks in the finals Friday night. The Blue Streaks gained the finals by virtue of their win over the Arcadia Bulldogs in the other semi-final game also played Thursday night.

In last week's sub-district playoffs the Devils beat the Lake Placid team in five innings with Johnny Starling and Glenn Bass sharing the pitching honors. Starling worked the first three innings striking out six and walking one while giving up no hits. Bass relieved him in the fourth and struck out two batters while issueing no walks and two singles.

The Avon Park batters started early rounding the bases although it was walks and errors by the Dragons that got them started. They scored three runs in the first inning and four more in the second when Winkie Williams clouted a grand slam homer over the leftfield wall. The Devils

County Cattlemen's Association To Have Tour And Dance

On Wednesday, May 21, the Highlands County Cattlemen's Association have plans for a full afternoon and evening entertainment and Bar-B-Q. The tour will start in the afternoon at 2:00 o'clock when all members interested in seeing good cattle, good clover and grass pastures will assemble on highway 27 where the Skipper road intersects. From this point, we will spend about three hours visiting three very good ranches on which we will be able to observe a good purebred herd, and steers on pasture. We will also have the privilege of observing a comparison of straight grasses and grass clover pastures, with information on the cost of the maintenance of these two pastures. On our final stop, we will be able to see seepage type irrigation and a good breeding program, along with a good herd management.

After the tour, we will have time for the members to pick up their wives and go to the Lake Placid Clubhouse on Lake June by 6:30 p. m., for meal prepared by the Highlands County Cattlemen's Association. After this meal, there will be a square dance for the membership. With this complete program, some phase of it should appeal to all ages and all likes of cattlemen, because in it will be included looking at good cattle and good pastures, eating good steak and dancing. All members and associate members are urged to be with us on May 21, 1958.

Officers Named For County Polio Chapter

Hayward H. A Story About Hot Dogs

A man lived by the side of the road and sold hot dogs.

He was hard of hearing so he had no radio.

He had trouble with his eyes so he read no newspapers.

But he sold hot dogs.

He put up a sign on the highway telling how good they were.

He stood by the side of the road and cried: "Buy a hot dog, Mister."

And people bought.

He increased his meat and roll orders.

He bought a bigger stove to take care of his trade.

He got his son home from college to help him.

But then something happened. . . .

His son said, "Father, haven't you been listening to the radio?"

If money stays 'tight,' we are bound to have bad business.

There may be a big recession coming on.

You had better prepare for poor trade."

Whereupon the father thought, "Well, my son has been to college.

He reads the papers and he listens to the radio, and he ought to know."

So the father cut down on his meat and roll orders.

Took down his advertising signs.

And no longer bothered to stand on the highway to sell hot dogs.

And his hot dog sales fell almost overnight.

"You're right, son," the father said to the boy.

"We are certainly headed for a recession." Author unknown, but copied from the Greater Miami Manufacturers Assn. "Story of the Month".

It Can Happen Again

Have you forgotten what a polio epidemic is like? Let this description of what happened in a single state, from a recent speech by Raymond H. Barrows, executive director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, refresh your memory: "People were cleaning their houses, raking up their lawns, discussing summer vacations on that warm spring day when four hospitals admitted patients suffering from high fevers and paralysis.

"Still that wasn't enough to alarm anybody. Four cases don't make an epidemic. But as May passed, the dread word 'polio' began creeping into backyard conversations. By June polio had made its presence known with smashing effect. Hospitals began frantically checking their equipment and facilities.

"July became a nightmare as the weekly number of cases passed well over a hundred. By early August the word 'polio' blazed daily in newspaper headlines. That week 211 new cases were reported. Public gatherings were banned. Summer camps closed. Vacations were cancelled. Patients were bedded in hospital corridors. New words crept into the daily vocabulary: 'hot pack machines', 'Toronto splints, 'isolation gowns', iron lungs'. The National Foundation recruited 718 nurses and 81 physical therapists from other areas and rushed them into epidemic centers. Polio chapters spent $431,000 and the National Foundation's New York office advanced more than a million and a half.

"Volunteers gave their time and energy until the bitter end—and the end came all too slowly. Not till late September did the weekly case load drop below 100. The last case of the year was reported just before Christmas. Health authorities then totaled up the damage: 2,516 persons stricken, 143 of them dead."

That was in the state of North Carolina in 1948.

Last year, in contrast, the U. S. had no polio epidemics. To the Salk vaccine and the 65 million Americans who have been vaccinated goes the credit.

But with three out of seven Americans still unvaccinated, polio epidemics can happen again. For the National Foundation warns that paralytic polio cannot be really wiped out until every person under 40 has had his full series of Salk vaccine shots.

If you are one of those who haven't don't take a chance. Get your vaccination now.

Vice President Of Aloe Creme Laboratories Visits Touchton's

George D. Crittenton, of Chicago, recognized as one of the country's leading cosmetic sales and merchandising experts, and vice president of the Aloe Creme Laboratories of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida is visiting with Ed Touchton and the Touchton Drug Stores.

The Aloe Vera plant the gel from the leaves of which, provide the basis for all products of the Aloe Creme Laboratories, may be unfamiliar to the average man and woman on the street, but the plant and its medicinal properties has been known since biblical times. It was used by the Pharaohs and by royalty over the centuries as a remenly for cuts and burns. White men coming to Florida discovered that the Seminole Indians knew of its curative powers.

Many Florida acres have been put into Aloe Vera cultivation to provide for the future needs of this rapidly growing enterprise at Fort Lauderdale. Originally distribution was limited to Florida and a few test areas, but as a result of these tests and the enthusiastic response from the public to these products, a wide-spread distribution was put into operation.

All Al-Creme products have undergone extensive clinical tests before being released to the public. As a result of the finding in the early clinical studies the United States Government has become interested in the product, and today exhaustive laboratory tests are being executed to ascertain the possibilities of the gel for use in the treatment of Atomic Burns.

HOW LUCKY CAN SOME PEOPLE GET: Luck was certainly with Mrs. Emma Northrup last Thursday afternoon when she caught this beautiful 11 pound big mouth bass at Lake Olivia (better known as Scrub Lake) in the Avon Park Development. Mrs. Cecil Ogden Elected As Chairman Of Library Committee

At the annual meeting of the Avon Park Library Committee Mrs. Cecil Ogden was elected as chairman, Mrs. Clinton Hardin as Secretary and Mrs. C. G. Metcalfe as Treasurer for the ensuing year. Other members are Mrs. Alice O. Sherman, Mrs. Pearl Ford, Mrs. Jane Baiden, Miss Susan Tiffany and another member from the Junior Woman's Club will be named at a later date.

Both Junior and Senior Women's Club members are co-operating in collecting coupons from various food products which will be turned into cash by the clubs and the proceeds will be used for purchasing books for the library.

The Committee asks that anyone wishing to help the library in this way to save these coupons and give them to any member of either club or to the Library Committee.

Donations of any good books will be greatfully received at the Library. It has been suggested that persons having books which they are through with that they give them to the library as soon as possible rather than lending them around and later giving them. In this way it might save the library from purchasing the book and later getting a duplicate.

Memorial donation of money to be used for purchase of new books may be sent to the library or treasurer. All books so purchased will be marked with the name of the donor and the person in whose memory it is given.

The Committee greatfully acknowledges the valuable service rendered by the retiring members, Mrs. E. G. Todd, Mrs. A. C. Wester, Sr., Mrs. Walter Betts and Mrs. Robert Porterfield.

Impressive Ceremony In North Carolina Unites Miss Bambalis and Harry Carratt

MRS. HARRY CARRATT

Miss Mary George Bambalis and Harry G. Carratt of Ft. Lauderdale, were united in marriage on Sunday, April 20 in the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation in Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Mrs. Carratt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bambalis of Winston- Salem and Harry Carratt is the son of Mrs. Gus H. Carratt of Avon Park and the late Mr. Carratt.

The Rev. George Thaffassinos and the Rev. Chrys Papalambrou performed the impressive ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory peau de soie fashioned with an oval lace scalloped neckline and tucked front floor-length panel edged with alencon lace. The princess skirt ended in a court train. Her veil of matching lace and illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls.

Miss Dena Bambalis was her cousin's maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of sea green nylon tulle and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Bridesmaids were Misses Lillian Bambalis of Welch, W. Virginia; Florence Bobotsaris of Winston-Salem, both of whom are the bride's cousins; Cleo Carratt of Charlottesville, Va. cousin of the groom; and Miss Gloria Simos of Winston-Salem. Christine Garden of Charlotte, cousin of the groom, was a junior bridesmaid. They wore dresses similar to that of the honor attendant. Their bouquets were ... carnation.

Helen and Emily Bambalis were flower girls. Johnny Pappas was the ring bearer and Gus Chamis was crown bearer. The children were cousins of the bride.

John V. Pappas was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Pete and John Bambalis, brothers of the bride; Chris Carratt of Lakeland and Gregory Peters of St. Petersburg, cousins of the bridegroom, Pete Chimos of Raleigh, junior usher, and Kenneth Myers of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Carratt was graduated from Salem Academy and College and has been employed with the Forsyth County Welfare Department in the Child Welfare Division for two years.

Mr. Carratt was graduated from the University of Florida Law School and is associated with the law firm of Anderson Gundlach and Hull at Ft. Lauderdale.

The bride's mother wore a cameo pink chiffon dress with matching accessories and a lilac orchid. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy lace dress with matching accessories and her corsage was a lilac orchid.

The parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the ballroom of the Hotel Robert E. Lee.

The young couple are now making their home in Fort Lauderdale.

Dinner was enjoyed on a sandbar, where the scouts also gathered fossils and cypress knees.

First Christian Church News

An unique Mother's Day program was presented at the church Sunday by Mrs. J. A. Sikes and Mrs. Paul Lacy. A beautiful song about Mother was sung while one little girl portrayed the part of a mother in a rocking chair.

Boy Scout News

Members of Boy Scout Troop 157, sponsored by the Avon Park Rotary Club, enjoyed a camp out and boat-acade at Zolfo Springs last weekend. Scoutmaster, Fred Davis, and the scouts wish to thank John Thompson for making the trip with them and the following who supplied the boats: William L. Bennett of Bennett's Motel, Willard Johnson, G. Franklyn Ward, assistant scoutmaster, and Jim Runkle.

The boys left Avon Park late Friday afternoon and went to Zolfo Springs where they set up camp behind the springs on Peace River. They were joined by three other troops from the area. Supper was cooked by the Patrol Method and was followed by a Council Fire.

Maurice Paige, Executive Director of the Gulf Ridge Council was also present.

Early Saturday morning the group went up Peace River as far as possible with considerable trouble due to the shallow water.

"ON THE ORANGE BLOSSOM TRAIL"

TODAY'S BEST BUY-TOMORROW'S BEST TRADE

You get more wagon for your money today... more wagon tomorrow!

By way you look at it, you can't find a better wagon buy than Plymouth! So big—it carries more, does more, provides more room for family fun. So beautiful—just look at those long, years-ahead lines. So economical—Plymouth is priced right in the low-price "3", yet you can't buy a bigger wagon at any price. And further proof: Plymouth beat every car in the low-price class in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run; Plymouth's second consecutive victory!

Get the biggest wagonload of value at a price far lower than you would expect. See your Plymouth dealer today.

FIVE BIG REASONS WHY YOUR NEXT WAGON SHOULD BE A PLYMOUTH

1. Biggest of the low-price "3". Big as wagons costing thousands of dollars more. You can't buy a bigger wagon at any price!
2. Holds so much more than the "other two". Over 7 cu. ft. extra passenger and cargo space. Optional "secret" luggage compartment available in 6-passenger models.
3. Rear-facing 3rd seat. Folds flush into floor. You don't store it outside when it's not in use. Easy to enter, has convenient back step.
4. Disappearing rear window. Rolls down into the one-piece tailgate. Doesn't jut out. Only on Plymouth wagons in the low-price "3".
5. Torsion-Aire Ride at no extra cost. Only Plymouth has it in the low-price "3". No sideway on turns ... no nose-dive on stops.

They don't come any bigger than Plymouth station wagons

BOB-WHITE

By The Bird Woman

...is no more than there is not ... that is so universally ... and admired as the Bob-White. ... how proud we are when we can say that covey of quail has adopted us and comes to eat feeders for food? We have a good feeling when we think that these beautiful, independent little creatures rely on us as a source of food.

Even if we chance to see a covey when we are driving through the country or some of our groves, we repeat it to every one we see and every one seems interested, for as progress continues, and the fields and woodlands are cleared the places for quail to hide from so many of their enemies become more scarce.

We believe that the quail has more enemies and is one of the most defenceless birds that we have, some birds are equipped with sharp claws and bill, others are swift in flight, but the most defence that the quail possesses, is its ability to conceal itself, and our marvelous Creator has given him the spots and stripes so that among the dead grasses and leaves on the ground he is practically invisible.

But the quail must go about the business of hunting a living, and nesting just the same as any other bird, and as the areas where they can exist become smaller, it is a question of moving from one area to another, both for food and for protection.

The quail does not migrate as do so many other birds, but rarely wander more than two or three miles from the place where they were born, many of them, if conditions are favorable, will remain within a quarter of a mile of their nesting place.

Bob-Whites like open weedy areas which give them an opportunity to run rapidly, for most of their traveling is done on foot.

In case of fright or danger they take off in flight, so their wings must be kept exercized and ready, so if you are able to observe a covey without their knowledge, as they are shy and do not welcome intruders, you will see them stand on tip toe and whirr their wings to keep them ready for flight, but as their wings are short and rounded, their flight is slower than most birds and they remain closer to the ground.

Most of the nesting of the quail is done from April to October, the male seem to do most of the nest making, such as it is, and amid the dead grasses on the ground.

The eggs are white and usually about sixteen are laid, some times less but it is quite rare to find a nest with only as few as seven or eight.

All eggs are laid before incubation begins, and all hatch within an hour of each other, at the end of twenty two or twenty three days.

When the young emerge from the egg they are pitiful sights to behold, being only about the size of the thumb and with their feathers wet and clammy.

Among the things contributing to the number of eggs laid by a given specie is whether the father helps with the feeding of the young, or if that chore is left up to the little woman exclusively, and the number of enemies that are apt to prey on the specie, both when in the egg and even while it is in the nest, or in the different stages of development.

So with the quail we can see, with a nest built on the ground, and no means of defense except to put on the wounded act, and lead enemies away from the nest, that cats, snakes, and various rodents on the ground, and the sharp shinned hawk and Coopers hawk, and other birds of prey ready to swoop down and destroy the young, or even the mature, has to be able to start out with a nest full of eggs in order to bring even a few to maturity.

These birds must of necessity develope rapidly and like most birds that nest on the ground, and are covered with down when hatched, they are ready to leave the nest almost at once, one thing the parents seem to know that there is a definite 'quaily' odor about the nest with young, and this is a sure guide to the sensative noses of so many enemies on the prowl for food.

Another reason for the rapid leaving of the nest is that the young, like all other young birds, are crying for food, and about one seventh of the food of the quail is insect matter and the other six sevenths is vegetable matter, seeds of weeds and leguminous plants and sedges, so it is plain to see what a chore the parents have before them.

Of course there is a closed season on hunting quail during their nesting season, but as scarce as they are, and with the natural enemies they have, it would make a lot of people very happy if they could not be hunted at all.

The main thing quails need to be attracted to a location is, plenty of cover for hiding and proper food supply of weed seeds and other grain.

Owing to the fact that cover is getting so scarce sportsmen are experimenting with a new specie of quail, the quail is a Japanese quail which has been domesticated in Japan for centuries and their eggs used as chicken eggs.

While this bird is known by many names, such as Asiatic Quail, and the Japanese King Quail, proper name seems to be Coturnix, at the Kissimmee preserve where the experiments are taking place, sportsmen and also those interested in transplanting species from their native habitat are watching with great interest.

At last report they were being able to propogate this quail with out much trouble and then poults were given to bantam hens to rear, but what the big question seems to be, as these birds are migratory by nature, will they stay put, or will they migrate and be lost to the vicinity where they were hatched?

4-H Members To Compete For National Awards

Chicago.—The 4-H Forestry program now under way in 48 states will provide specialized training for an estimated 270,000 members of 4-H Clubs. Nearly 65,000 boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 21 years enrolled in the 4-H Forestry program last year according to the USDA.

Members who satisfactorily complete their 1958 projects will be eligible for national, state, and county awards provided by the American Forest Products Industries, Inc., Washington, D. C. The winners will be announced next fall. Twelve national winners will be selected by the Cooperative Extension Service. Each receives an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

The Forestry program is set up to show 4-H'ers how and why trees can be included as a regular farm crop. It also emphasizes the importance of conservation and forest fire prevention. Club members are urged to demonstrate what they learn about modern forest practices to their parents and neighbors.

In addition to the Forestry award program, four $1600 national forestry scholarships will be available. They are provided again this year by Homelite, a Division of Textron Inc., Port Chester, N. Y. Either present or former 4-H Club members planning to study forestry are eligible for these scholarships. Students must be enrolled in their college freshman year at the beginning of the 1958 fall term.

Candidates will be chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service and the scholarships will be administered by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Chicago.

Complete information on both the forestry project and the forestry scholarships may be obtained from local 4-H leaders or County Extension agents.

Floridians Stop And Think!

Last weekend on Florida's highways, there were ten people killed in traffic accidents, many of them innocent children riding with their parents.

Recently the Miami Herald came out with a story "I Heard A Bump. Little Joe's Dead." Little Joe was killed by a 17 year old girl without a drivers license who was learning to drive. It's driving recklessly that's killing and maiming Floridians at the rate of five a day. No one section of the state is immune from these accidents.

"Drivers must wake up and realize their responsibilities to themselves and others. Age, nor the condition of the car makes no difference, as most cars involved in accidents are in good condition, and usually on a clear day on a good road. The road toll is unnecessarily too much. It shows that drivers are not thinking and do not have their cars under control," stated Asher Frank, Director of The Florida Safety Council.

George Slept Here...

He pulled off the highway and asked if he could take a little snooze.

We pride ourselves that Phillips 66 Stations are first-rate service stations. We're even glad to to make them sleeping stations in an emergency. So George took his snooze.

Good thing he did because, dog-tired and drowsy, he might have fallen asleep at the wheel while driving.

This little incident suggests, in a small way, the hospitable attitude of Phillips 66 Service men generally. Ask any regular patron of Phillips 66 Stations and he'll tell you that Phillips Dealers go out of their way to treat you and your car right—perform many a service you wouldn't expect to get elsewhere.

Better yet, drive in and see for yourself what "Hospitality on the Highway" means.

Avon Park Country Club Golf News

After three weeks of play the leaders of the Club Ringer Tournament are; Men's Division, first place, Manin Kirkland with a 32; second, Wally Kirkland with a 33; in the Ladies Division, first place is Margaret Maddox with a 49 and second Linky Dawson with a 50. First place in the Junior's division is held by David Collier with a 39 and second place by Steve Love with a 46.

The first group lesson class for children between the ages of 10 through 16 years of age was held Saturday, May 10. The first lesson covered golf etiquette from tee to green; basic rules of the game. The last part of the hour was spent on how to grip the club. The group then had refreshments and some played a round of golf. Due to a typeographical error in last weeks paper the age group eligible to attend the class was incorrectly printed. Members between the ages of 10 through 16 are eligible.

The next class will be held Friday afternoon, May 16, at 4 o'clock. There will be a repeat of the first lesson at a later date. The next lesson will cover the grip, stance and swing.

Bob Young would like to inform the members that George Temple will assist him in the operation of the Pro Shop. Mr. Temple is now a resident of Avon Park and the father of Mrs. Shirley Franza.

Any person interested in joining the Avon Park County Club is asked to call Bob Young, at GI 2-6871.

scored two more in the fourth on two errors and a double by Johnny Starling and pushed across the tenth run on a pair of singles by Billy Rouse and Tommy Doverly in the fifth. This automatically ended the melee since they were playing under the ten-run-lead-in-the-fifth-inning rule. The hitting honors were shared by Winkie Williams and Johnny Starling who had three for three.

On the following night in the finals the Devils found the going a little tougher against the Sebring boys and caused some of their faithful backers a certain amount of discomfort before coming from behind to trounce their staunchest rivals 10 to 2.

The Streaks jumped to a two to one lead in the first inning and threatened to increased it when they loaded the sacks in the fourth with no one out. Pitcher Charlie Anderson cooly struck out one man and caused another to hit into a double play to come out of the hole safely. The Devils had already pulled one double play against the Streaks when Charlie walked two batters and faced only one other in the second frame. The Avon Park boys started rallying in their half of the fourth and scored five big runs to overcome the Sebring lead by a four run margin. Sebring ace Julius Foster retired the side with three straight strikeouts in the fifth but the Devils jumped on him for four more tallies in the sixth to really saw it up.

Charlie Anderson pitched outstanding ball for six innings but tired in the seventh and loaded the bases with no outs. Coach Garrett called in Johnny Starling who set the next three batters down in order on strikeouts to end the contest.

Calendar For The 1958-59 School Term

The Calendar for the 1958-59 School Term was adopted by the School Board Tuesday morning. The calendar lists 10 pre-school days; 180 teaching days; 1 F. E. A. District Meeting; 2 Parent-Teachers Conferences; 1 Teacher workday, holiday for students, and 4 post school days, giving a total of 198 working days.

All new teachers in the Highlands County will report in Sebring for a special meeting on August 18 and the regular county-wide teachers meeting will be held in Sebring August 19-20. Pre-school days for the teachers will be August 21 to 29.

The first day of school will be September 2, and the first holiday for the students will be October 6, which is F. E. A. District meeting for teachers.

Two Parent Teacher Conferences days will be held, the first November 14 and the second on April 10, 1959. These will be holidays for the students but workdays for the teachers.

November 27 and 28 has been allotted for Thanksgiving Holidays for both teachers and students. And Christmas vacation begins December 20 with the first day of school in 1959 falling on January 5.

Easter Holidays will be March 26, 27 and 28 for teachers and students.

An extra holiday will be granted the students on May 11 since the teachers feel that they need an extra week day to complete reports during the last school month. By granting this extra holiday for the students it means that the last day of school has been extended to June 5 instead of June 4, and last day for teachers will be June 11.

Hurd on the Mall

BY GEN HURD

Wouldn't it be fun if we adults could amuse ourselves as easily as children do? This thought struck me as I passed the barber shop and saw a small lad whirling around at breakneck speed on one of the chairs. In the background, seemingly unaware of this diminutive dynamo, was the barber, proceeding calmly with the careful clipping of the father's hair, while junior was having himself a ball.

Youth Center Needs 4 More Jalousie Doors

The Avon Park Youth Association is making a plea to the citizens of the community. If anyone would like to contribute a jalousie door or donations towards such doors it would be greatly appreciated. The cost of these doors are $25. These doors are badly needed at the Youth Center for cooling the rooms.

This past week the Avon Park Parent Teachers Association donated $300 to purchase twelve of the sixteen doors which are needed. These doors are so built that they can be locked by a key on both the inside and outside.

The Avon Park High School donated a water cooler to the Center and Captain McCormick has donated a nice big sink. The City will make the installation of these improvements.

New Ruling Made On Directional Signals For Boat Trailers

Instructions were sent to all Highway Patrol Troopers Tuesday that directional signals will not be required on boat trailers where the boat and trailer do not obstruct the view of an arm signal. This new ruling was announced in Tallahassee Tuesday following a conference between the Attorney General's office and members of the Florida Highway Patrol.

Lt. Col. Reid Clifton, deputy director of the department, said that troopers had stopped anglers around the state to warn them of the law requiring signals, but that no arrests had been made by the Highway Patrol for failure to install directional signals on boat trailers. So if you haven't already installed a set of direction signal lights for your boat trailer see if your trailer falls into the category that requires them.

Atty. Gen. Richard Ervin issued an opinion to Col. H. N. Kirkman, Patrol Commander, in which he held that a mechanical directional signal could be required for boat trailers of a certain size where the view of an arm signal was obstructed.

Ervin said that the use of the term "view" meant a clear unobstructed view, and that he did not believe a partial view would serve to negate the requirement. He also added that the requirement for a turn signal was applicable to oncoming motor vehicles as well as following motor vehicles. So if a trailer is subject to the directional signal requirement, the arm signal may still be necessary in conjuction with such mechanical device. This will hold true unless the towing vehicle is equipped with directionals on the front or forward end.

Hubbard Biggs Attends State Convention

An Avon Park businessman will play a key role in the 54th annual convention of the Florida Association of Insurance Agents May 22-24 at the Fontainebleau Hotel in Miami Beach. He is Hubbard Biggs, of the Education committee.

More than 1,000 delegates from virtually every county in the state are expected to attend the annual meeting, which will feature addresses by J. Edwin Larson, Florida treasurer and insurance commissioner, nationally known insurance company officials and other industry leaders.

149 Youth Work Permits Issued In Highlands County During 1957

A total of 149 Highlands County children under 18 obtained work permits in 1957, reports James T. Vocelle, State Industrial Commission chairman.

Statewide, 35,031 youth work permits were issued, a gain of 2,315 over 1956. Of the total, 78% were issued to youth in school and 22% to those not attending school.

In Highlands County permits were issued to 103 boys and 46 girls.

The work permits are issued in each county by the superintendent of public instruction. All children under 18 who work must have work permits except those in domestic service, farm work, and street trades.

Vocelle stressed the importance of schooling.

"Every year more employers are demanding a high school education as one of the qualifications for a job," Vocelle said, "For that reason we try in every way to encourage young people to complete high school."

He said the Child Labor Law is designed so that youths who do work while in school can do so without detracting from their studies or endangering their health.

Vocelle said, "This law was not intended to deprive youth of job opportunities for valuable work experience or income need. In fact, the Industrial Commission urges employers to consider young people for part-time jobs after school or in vacation periods. They are potentially good workers and working is frequently the most valuable and effective use of their free time."

J. Douglas Hopkins, Jr., Chief of Field Services of the Workmen's Compensation Division, who administers the Child Labor Law, said a major emphasis is on the education of young people and employers on the requirements of the law.

Hopkins said minors under 16 can work between 6:30 a. m. and 8 p. m. for a total of three hours a day when school is scheduled for the following day and, eight hours on days when there is no school. They can work six days or 40 hours a week. Minors 14 and 15 can work until 10 p.m., if there is no school the following day.

Minors 16 and 17 can work between 5 a.m. and 10 p.m. Under the law, all minors under 18 are entitled to a rest period of at least 30 minutes after five consecutive hours of work.

Four Local Delegates Attend Fla. Council For Retarded Children

Four delegates from the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children attended the 5th Annual Convention of the Florida Council For Retarded Children in Miami Beach May 16-18. De egates were: Mrs. Ophra Brown, Coordinator of Special Education for Highlands County, Sebring; Mrs. Maxine Delahunty, Principal of Ridge Area Day School; Mr. G. F. Ward, President of the R.A.A.R.C. and Mrs. Mary Ellen Ward, Avon Park.

Highlights of the convention included demonstrations by pupils of Dade County special School of speech improvement through choral speaking, language development, and music for the mentally retarded. Of special interest was the report by Mr. Arthur Dozier, Director of Division of Child Training Schools, State of Florida, on the plans for new state institutions for the retarded. Mr. Dozier stated that contracts for the new Sunland Training School in Lee County would be let next month with planned operation beginning in 1959. Findings Of County Juvenile Court On Little Michael Sickle

Maternal grandmother, Mrs. Edward L. Dodd, and her husband, and Mrs. Dodd's sister, Mrs. Helen Adams who took little Michael Sickle III from the front lawn of his father's home in Middlesex, N. J. and headed towards Miami have been charged with kidnaping in N. J.

When the alledged kidnapers were picked up in Highlands County the child became a subject of the Juvenile Court of Highlands County, and remained a subject of the court until he was delivered to the authorized agent for his father to be returned to the father in N. J.

Following is the order issued by Highlands County Juvenile Judge Mervin Rehrer.

The Juvenile Court
In And For
Highlands County, Florida
No. 343
In Re: Michael Sickle, III.
A Child

ORDER

The Juvenile Court, Highlands County, Florida, assumed jurisdiction of Michael Sickle, III on Saturday, May 3rd, 1958, when those persons with whom he was, to wit his maternal grandmother, Sus Dodd, and step-grandfather, Edward L. Dodd, and his aunt, Helen Joan Adams, were apprehended as alledged kidnapping of the subject Michael Sickle, III, from the home of his natural father in New Jersey and transported to Florida.

This Court has no jurisdiction over the question of the alledged kidnapping and does not propose to exercise any authority in that regard.

This cause comes on for hearing to determine at this time whether or not this Court has jurisdiction and if so, what orders to enter with regard to the custody and control of the said child, and there being present at the hearing Attorney R. L. Knoppel, Miami, Florida, attorney for the child's father, Michael Sickle, Jr.; Attorney M. R. MacDonald, Sebring, Florida, attorney for the Dodds; Attorney Joseph Macbeth, assistant States Attorney for the Tenth Judicial Circuit; Mr. E. A. DeLaney, Sr., Juvenile Court Counselor for the Juvenile Court of Highlands County, and Honorable Broward Coker, unto whom temporary custody of the child has been ordered by this Court, and after argument had been made by the respective counsel and the Court being advised in the premises.

The child is properly a subject of the Juvenile Court; this position apparently is not controverted since the Circuit Court, in its Order dated May 7, 1958, acknowledged that he was properly held at the time he was found and then Ordered his transfer to the Juvenile Court Authorities of Dade County.

This child is held by this Court to be subject to the further order of this Court. Section 39.02 of the Florida Statutes, subsection (1) reads : "Jurisdiction. - (1) The juvenile court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of dependent and delinquent children domiciled, living or found within the county or district in which the court is established. The juvenile court of the county or district in which the child is found shall assume jurisdiction of the child, which jurisdiction shall be exclusive unless the judge thereof, upon approval of the judge of the juvenile court of the county or district in which is located the domicile or usual residence of the child, shall transfer the case and child to the latter court, before or after hearing, in which event the latter court shall thereafter exercise exclusive jurisdiction."

This statute specifically states that the jurisdiction shall be and remain exclusive throughout the proceedings unless the Judge thereof shall transfer the case.

This Court considers the welfare of this child to be the question of prime importance in these juvenile proceedings and any disposition made herein is made so that end will be served. This child though only five years of age, has been in the custody of numerous persons already; to transfer him to another Court in another jurisdiction would require placing him in an entirely strange environment with new faces again. To transfer him to another Juvenile Court within the State would not serve any useful purpose, it would tend to merely confuse this child even more than he is confused today; it is this Court's opinion that a determination should be made at this time by this court, as to whom custody should be granted and see that the child be delivered to such person or persons; that the proper authority for such determination is the records which have been entered pertaining to his custody at the time of the divorce; that further thought be given to subsequent orders entered concerning his custody; and of course bearing in mind that a natural parent should have precedence over any other if some doubt exists.

The official records of Dade County, Florida, indicate that the parents of the subject child were divorced in the fall of 1953; that the final decree of divorce, in keeping with the terms of the Property Settlement Agreement, gave the custody and control of the said child, Michael Sickle, III, to the father, Michael Sickle, Jr., who was the defendant in the divorce proceeding.

Subsequent to this divorce proceeding, to-wit: September, 1956, the Circuit Court of Dade County, by the Honorable Stanley Milledge, Circuit Judge, entered in Order denying petition for adoption as filed by Edward L. Dodd, step-grandfather and Sue Dodd, maternal grandmother. In the Order the Court states: "Ordered that the petition for adoption be denied, costs to be taxed against the petitioners. For the reasons already stated the petitioners are not required to relinquish custody of the child." It is this Courts interpretation of that order that is denying the petition for adoption the Court does not require return of the child to the father but at the same time does not purport to transfer legal custody to the petitioners for adoption, and all things considered, it is Ordered that the Juvenile Court of Highlands County has exclusive jurisdiction over the child, Michael Sickle, III; that for the reasons stated above it is to the best interests of the child that a complete and final determination of the custody be made at this time and that in light of the records introduced, that the father Michael Sickle, Jr., be and he is hereby granted the custody and control of the said minor child, his son, and the present temporary custodian, Broward Coker, deliver this child to the father, Michael Sickle, Jr., or his duly authorized agent, for delivery to the father in New Jersey; that upon execution of this Order, this Court relinquishes all other and further jurisdiction over the said child, Michael Sickle, III.

Done and Ordered this 8th day of May, 1958.

She told of the many projects which the Chamber has worked on with the City and County and referred to the monthly bulletin which has been improved greatly in appearence and contents by printing. Well over one thousand of these are sent out each month.

get the Swept-Wing feel!

You spend a lot of time in your car—driving to work, shopping, taking trips. How your car rates on the road is important to you. So all we ask before you invest in a new car is this: Come in and take a "road rate" drive in a Swept-Wing 58 Dodge. Really compare it thoroughly on every count. We honestly believe it rides better, handles easier, responds quicker than any other car you've ever driven. But we'll leave the verdict entirely up to you. You be the judge.

YOU BE THE JUDGE! THINGS TO NOTICE IN THE SWEPT-WING 58:

The feel behind the wheel—You feel different because you sit differently. Low and snug and secure, completely in control, almost a part of the car.

The view around you—The glass area is tremendous. The visibility is outstanding in every direction—front, sides, rear.

The ease of push-button driving—Once you try Dodge Push-Button Torqueflite you'll never be happy with outmoded lever types. Ladies love it.

A ride that's a glide—There's no sway on curves, no dip at stops. Torsion-Aire is standard equipment, too.

This power steering is different—No power steering is like Dodge power steering. It works full time, yet leaves you the feel of the road.

Horsepower and stopping power—You get up to 320 hp. You get new-design Total-Contact Brakes.

Report Covers Successful Year For American Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Jim Heim, retiring president of the American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 69, Avon Park, submitted her annual report at the Constitutional Conference at Venice on April 13 and to the local Auxiliary last week. The report covers a very successful year for the Auxiliary.

In her report Mrs. Heim stated that all meetings were opened properly, flag displayed, prayer and pledge given, with patriotic singing at each meeting.

On Memorial Day last year flags and a cross centered with a poppy were placed on all Veterans and Auxiliary members graves. All Auxiliary members graves have been marked.

Under Child Welfare $272.85 was donated by the Auxiliary to needy families and hospitals. $95.00 was donated to Community Service along with services rendered by the members for different drives, Sunday School teaching, church choir, and visits to those in distress. A donation of $20 was given toward scholarships.

The Auxiliary has two nurses ready for Civil Defense work at anytime and one qualified Home Nursing Instructor.

They earned $83.13 selling Chritmas cards, dolly duzits, drinks and donations from Birthday coin cards distributed to members.

Miss Jan Saylor was sponsored by the Auxiliary last year at Girl's State, and she gave a report of her trip to the Auxiliary, Junior Woman's Club and at the School.

At the close of the year there were sixty-two members. They had completed writing their history and had subscribed to Legislative bulletin and Star Magazine.

Fifteen hundred poppies were ordered last year, with $140 being received from the poppy sale, and $35.44 (35%) was sent to the Department. Poppies were used to decorate the Legion Home for installation and also poppy corsages were given to 8th Dist. Pres. and 8th Dist. Secy., and members being installed. A poppy adorned a white cross for all Legion and Auxiliary members graves on Memorial Day.

Mrs. Heim reports that the Auxiliary received 200 inches of publicity with every meeting being published prior to the meeting and then a write up on activities of meeting.

Donations of money and gifts were sent to rehabilitation hospitals. And the group sponsors the Cub Scouts.

Social meetings were held in conjunction with regular meetings and covered dish suppers and installation were held jointly with the American Legion.

Hargrove, Venus; George Waggaman, Lorida; and R. J. Harris, Lake Placid who is also County Agent. Mr. Howard in making the presentations said "the soil is somewhat like a checking account at the bank--you can check some out this week and put some in next week and maintain a uniform balance over a long period of time. The same applies to the soil, if you return as much as you take out you can maintain production from now on. But if you mine the soil it is like closing out an account at the bank--that is the end". "These people have proven that they are stewards of the land and through their leadership have influenced others to do likewise".

Mr. C. M. Payne of Sebring received the Conservation Award presented by the Goodyear Rubber Company. Mr. L. O. Clark of Orlando representing Goodyear presented the plaque to Mr. Payne. He said it was the first such award presented to a Highlands Soil Conservation District Cooperator for carrying out a planned soil and water conservation program on his land.

Mr. Kahn announced that the Cattlemens Association is planning a tour May 21st to see some of these conservation practices on the land in the way of improved pastures and water control measures and the end product which is the Cattle grazing the pastures. The tour will end with a Barbeque at Lake Placid.

HUMMING BIRD

By The Bird Woman

We are intrigued when we see the tiny Hummingbird which seems so fragile, flying about and caring for its self and its family, just as proficiently as any of the larger birds, and never seeming to pause or be confused by any thing that occurs.

The Hummer is our smallest bird, and although we see mainly the Ruby-Throated in this locality, there are in reality as many as five hundred species in the Americas, being a bird of the tropics we do not have as many in North America as there are in South America, even the west has a great many more species than we do in the east.

There are so many things to be said about this unusual bird but we think of its most outstanding feats is the fact that when migration time comes they fly non stop across the Gulf of Mexico to winter in a warmer climate, but when time comes to return they hop off of the Honduras Hills and again fly non stop to Florida.

Their flight is rapid and their wing beat so fast, it could not be counted until the high-speed camera came along, and slow motion pictures at the rate of a thousand pictures per second have been able to show us exactly what is happening when this tiny bird shoots off like a rocket, or suspends its self in mid-air while collecting the nectar from the flowers in our garden, or flying backward away from the flower it has just drained of honey and aiming its rapier like bill at the next tubular shaped flower.

When we see the Hummer it is usually on the go, but as all other birds it has its moments of rest, and will sit perfectly contented, on a high limb or twig of a tree and seem quite unconcerned about what is happening around it. But when it takes off its wing beat is fifty times per second, and when it really starts to go some place, the wing beat is seventy five times per second, but when it is putting on a courtship display it beats the air two hundred times per second.

It is not necessary to give field marks for this bird which at first glance looks more like a large insect than it does like a bird, and is in fact often mistaken for an insect, for once having seen a Hummer feeding in our gardens it would be impossible to confuse it with any other bird.

The Ruby Throated Hummingbird which we find in this vicinity really has a ruby colored throat, the body is an irridescent metalic green above which shows off the ruby throat of the male and the white throat of the female, and being our smallest bird is but three to three and and three quarters inches in length.

But small though they are, they are the most fearless of all birds and have been known to attack hawks and even eagles, personally we have watched them chase a ground dove from tree to tree and from branch to branch.

Not only do they attack other birds but at nesting time there are fierce battles waged between their own number, and an observer can hear bill strike against bill and the thud of one body against the other.

The nest of this exotic bird is a work of art in itself, it saddles the tiny nest to a branch or twig and so camoulages it that it looks like a small knot on the branch, and is fastened securely with cobwebs, the nest itself is about an inch in diameter and is lined with plant down.

The young are about the size of bumble bees when they first hatch and do not even look like they would ever be birds, but our marvelous Creator had a reason for all the exotic things about nature that we do not understand.

We would look at them and wonder about a formula, or what means could be used to feed these little creatures, but the parents do not even seem to give it a thought but proceed to collect nectar from the flowers, catch small spiders and insects from the foliage and in the air and then regurgitate the food into the throats of the young, imagine what a feat it would be to try to feed one of these little squirming babies and using the long sharp bill of the Hummingbird.

As the number of eggs in a nest depends on the number of enemies that specific bird has, and also whether the male is a helpful father, we find that the Hummer lays but two eggs, and we know that the young are able to care for themselves when they leave the nest, and are not at the mercy of stray cats for several days, until they can be taught by their parents to fly.

And the father we find is an independent fellow, and after the eggs are laid, he resumes his happy go lucky ways and the mother has all the care of the brood.

We read stories about attracting Hummers with little bottles of sweet water, but so far our efforts in that direction have failed, naturally they are attracted by bright colors that look like flowers, but even using bright yellows and reds as a "come on" has failed for us.

The Hummer is indeed an exotic bird, both in appearance and habits, and this Ruby Throated member of the family weighs the same as a penny, and when just cruising about flies at the rate of forty five to fifty miles per hour.

Safe Driving Means Money In Your Pocket

Pretty tough making ends meet these days, isn't it? And just about everybody's in the same boat.

A lot of folks, though, have learned how to stretch their dollars -- and their years of living. The system involves tthe family auto.

"Take good care of your car and drive it safely. You'll save money!" says National Safety Council says.

How? Well, money-savers have found that keeping their cars in good shape costs less in the end.

The most frequent problems on trips, for example, involve steering, wheel alignment, tires, lights and brakes. A minor defect on the road may cause a costly accident or become major under the stress and strain of turnpike driving.

The Council reports that at least 8 out of 100 cars in accidents are unsafe. Other sources say that 9 out of 10 cars on the road today are in need of repairs.

Okay, you say -- so taking care of repairs when they're needed saves on major repair bills later. But how can safe driving mean money in my pocket?

1. By avoiding sudden starts and stops and excessive braking, you save on gas and wear and tear on your brakes -- and your nervous system.

2. If you exceed the speed limit you take a chance to being ticketed. And that's at least $10 out of your pocket right there. Besides, you'll have fewer red lights to stop for -- and fewer gas-draining starts to make -- if you observe the limit.

3. Short cuts to avoid heavy traffic can cost more in the end in increased travel and more stops and starts Shift traffic lanes because you have an itchy foot on the accelerator and there's more gas down the drain.

"Take it easy behind the wheel," the Council suggests. "Even if you're not concerned with the high cost of drive-like-mad motoring, wear and tear on yourself is certainly a consideration.

"Slow down -- you'll save money and live longer."

AVON PARK SUN

From new Safety-Twain headlights to new sculptured rear deck, every gleaming line of this Fairlane Club Victoria says "fine car!"

Look what you've been missing if you haven't driven a 58 FORD

You just can't appreciate all the wonderful things that have been done to make driving more fun . . . until you've checked out in a shiny 58 Ford!

The fun begins with the simple act of getting into the car. Only "yesterday" it was stoop down or knock off your hat. Now that has been changed. There's room for you and your hat inside the 58 Ford.

Even before you start the engine, notice how much more you can see. Full-Circle visibility lets you see where you're going . . . see what's coming . . . see to park!

Now touch the starter. Observe how smoothly your engine idles. That's because each Ford engine is built with painstaking care. Each V-8 is electronically balanced while operating under its own power. No other car in Ford's field goes to such lengths to bring you an engine that will operate smoothly . . . dependably . . . efficiently. (If your pick is a thrifty Six, you can't buy a more powerful, more modern 6-cylinder passenger-car engine than Ford's 145-horsepower Mileage Maker Six.)

Ease down one on the throttle and you'll take off with all the dash and verve of a Thunderbird! For after all, the 58 Ford offers you the Thunderbird's own transmission and engine! Team Ford's Cruise-O-Matic Drive with a Thunderbird-powered V-8 engine, and save up to 15% on gasoline. It's like getting back 15¢ on every gas dollar!

Want heat up the roughest roads you can find. Notice how bumps lose their bounce with Ford's softer-riding suspension system. Notice how Ford's exclusive Automatic Ride Control combines Angle-Poised Ball-Joint front suspension with long, tailored-to-weight rear springs so that you ride level . . . corner level . . . enjoy a "big car feel."

And Ford gives you more—much more in the way of riding comfort. Ford seats are wide—sofa-wide. You sit in a relaxed, natural position with Ford's Automatic Posture Control.

Always a leader in safety, Ford again has pioneered new features to protect you. New Safety-Twin taillights, for example, keep you safer because they give better warning to cars behind you. And only Ford offers you famous Lifeguard Design—the whole family of safety features designed to protect you should an accident occur.

Then there are the hidden extras that are yours when you choose Ford. The car is put together with finer precision. The finish is durable enamel—baked enamel that helps Fords keep that new-car shine. On the inside, too, Ford cars give you more insulation than any other cars in Ford's field.

Why not discover all you've been missing if you haven't driven a 58 Ford? See your Ford Dealer and find out firsthand all the wonderful things that have happened to Fords. And remember: a comparison of manufacturers' suggested retail delivered prices shows that Ford is lowest priced of the "low-price three" in 17 out of 19 comparable models!

So why not make tomorrow your day to drive a Ford? The keys are waiting for you at your Ford Dealer's. See him and discover all the fun a Ford can be!

Three Important Recommendations Approved At Final PTA Meeting

The new officers of the Avon Park P T A were installed at the regular meeting on Thursday afternoon, May 15, in the High School Auditorium.

The Rev. John E. Pickens gave the devotional message with an appropriate thought for parents and teachers.

During the business session of the meeting three important recommendations from the Executive Board of the P T A were read and approved by the members present. The first recommendation was from the Library and Reading Committee concerning their findings; 1.) The local schools have excellent library facilities, 2.) There are students who have time to use these facilities, 3.) Parents and students need help with the selection of valuable books for the development of the students, 4.) As parents the committee feels a reference list of these books for the use of parents would be valuable and students should be required to read a given amount from this list each year with reports given on their reading, further that at least half of these reports be written. The committee would like to see this request incorporated into the school program for the coming school year.

The second recommendation read as follows: the P T A will donate $300 to the Youth Center for the purchase of jalousie doors for the building. The P T A assumed the improvement of the Youth Center as one of their projects this year and the doors are a necessity for the coming hot weather.

The third recommendation stated that a letter is to be written to Carl Floyd, owner of the Floyd Theatre chain, thanking him for continuing service in the Hilaus Theatre and for the faithful service of Mr. Wayne Albright, manager, and requesting that the moral quality of pictures shown be considered at all times for the good of the community and the group requests that only those pictures approved for children by "Parent's" or other similar publications be shown on Saturday and Sunday.

The yearly report of the activities of the P T A was given by Mrs. James Johnson, President, and other committee reports were heard.

Mr. A. B. Wilhite installed the new officers and Mrs. E. A. Martin assisted with the ceremony. The meeting was then adjourned and Mrs. Alice O. Sherman presented the excellent program.

There are eight Florida salt water fish which have minimum legal lengths for fishermen: blue fish and pompano, 10 inches; mackerel, trout, mullet and red fish, 12 inches; flounder, 11 inches; and snook, 18 inches.

Avon Park Prison,
Avon Park, Fla.,
May 18, 1958

The Avon Park Sun,
Avon Park, Fla.,
Thru: Mr. L. L. Wainwright, Supt.,

Gentlemen:-

I wish to take the liberty to thank you for the kindness with which you treated my article, Shawdow Of Things To Come, as well as the generosity you exhibited in allowing us the amount of space that you did in your paper of last week with reference to our Open House here at the Prison.

In my knowledge there has never been anything like that attempted before in Prison Annals. Heretofore it has been unheard of to allow the public at large to mingle with prisoners and become acquainted with their way of life. It goes without saying that all of us here were on needles and pins at the first. The door had been opened--the reaction was yet to come.

To the people of Avon Park and Vicinity who came to see us, I have no words with which to adequately express my and all of our gratitude and appreciation. It was unbelievable the way everyone accepted us and our small effort to prove that we want to stay and be a part of this community. For it is "from people like you that we find the inspiration and the courage with which to fight the battles that are ours.

It is unfortunate that throughout the years the attitude that has been created towards such as we could not be brought to light and treated with objectiveness and an open mindedness. I do not condone us or anything that we represent in so far as the cause of our being here is concerned. I hope only for people to see us as we really are and to lend us the helping hand that is so sadly needed to really realize true rehabilitation. We do not ask pity. We do not ask charity. We ask only that we be treated as you people sought to treat us during our Open House, and to understand that we want to be a part of Society as much as anyone else.

Florida, by its very nature, is the home of peoples from all over the world. Our visitors were a cross section of these people. That alone causes me to believe that there is hope that what has been started here can be made a project as worthwhile as anything could be. We were not inspected by natives to the area, but by people from every section of the Country and way of life. It was more than gratifying to see the approval upon their face of most of our exhibits.

I just hope that you enjoyed coming to visit with us as much as we did in having you. I sincerely trust that Mr. Culver and Mr. L. Wainwright, will be able to find the opportunity to have you with us again and again, and all of you will make it possible to come and see us. And when you chance to see one of us walk down the street with a firm step and head held high, sure of the future and ourselves, you may rest assured that your interest and good feeling had a great part in making that future possible.

As an inmate I was very proud of Mr. Wainwright, his crew and what has been accomplished here. As an individual I hope that it will continue to exist and to grow, and to assure you that our faith in you the people is and always will be complete. As I said before, I do not have the necessary vocabulary to tell you just how much we thank you, but I might use the words of Tiny Tim—God Bless You One and All.

Sincerely yours,

Mince Meat Makes Fruit Salad Sparkle

MINCE MEAT is used for so many things that it's a year-around pantry staff item. And now it comes in convenient 9-ounce condensed packages as well as the 28-ounce jars. Use it for muffin mix, cooky batter, fruit-flavored gelatins, prepared pudding mixes and spooned over ice cream... and gives real sparkle to fruit salad.

For a taste-tempting salad, arrange halved peaches or pears, fresh or canned, on beds of crisp lettuce. Fill with mince meat. Garnish with frosty berries and grapes, lightly moistened with water, dipped in confectioners' sugar. Add French dressing.

To prepare the 9-ounce condensed package of mince meat, break it in small pieces in saucepan. Add ¾ cup water and stir over heat until pieces are broken up. Boil briskly for one minute and cool.

Shower Honors Bride - Elect

Miss Winifred Roe, bride elect of Jerome Shiltz, was honored with a shower by the J. O. Y. Sunday School Class and her many friends in the Methodist Church on Wednesday night, May 15, in Wesley Hall.

Tips to Improve Your Handwriting

The race to keep ahead of the Russians has resulted in a greater emphasis on college education for Americans than ever before.

Several million Americans will be graduating from colleges this June and hundreds of thousands will be starting their college educations in the fall. Thousands of scholarships will help many young men to fill the need for scientists and professionals.

Yet, paradoxically, an overwhelming number of these students, and other adults, cannot write their own name legibly!

Mrs. Claire Slote, author of a new McGraw-Hill book titled, "Improve Your Handwriting," says, "The handwritten word is a precious, practical craft passed down through the ages. More than any other skill, it distinguishes civilized man from the barbarian."

What has happened to the second "R" today? "Poor handwriting annually is costing us tens of millions of dollars in lost business, and undeliverable mail is heavy enough to sink a battleship," says the Handwriting Foundation of Washington, D. C. "We are a nation of illegible scribblers. Education has not taught many of us how to write legibly."

Americans who can recite everything from "Casey at the Bat" to Shakespeare, and who demonstrate on quiz shows what knowledge they have acquired, never could write down all the facts legibly.

The Foundation, a non-profit group of educators and businessmen, is helping schools evaluate their methods, so that the present trend toward specialization does not neglect the cultivation of legible handwriting. But even adults long out of school can improve their own writing. Here are four steps that will bring immediate improvement:

1. Watch out for tricky letters. Close the loop in letters like "a", "g", "d". Don't close up looped letters like "e", "l", "f". Don't loop non-looped strokes like "r", "i", "t".

2. Be careful of "twin" numbers. Don't make a "7" look like a "1", or your "3" look like a "5".

3. Sit properly when writing. Keep erect with shoulders slightly forward, hips back in seat, facing desk squarely. Keep both forearms on the desk, feet flat on the floor, and place paper directly in front of you at a slant.

4. Score yourself. Check your letter formation, slant, space between words, alignment, margins and arrangements, and overall neatness.

Estimated 2 Million Dollars Worth Of Freeze Damaged Fruit Destroyed

The Florida Citrus Commission today estimated citrus growers voluntarily destroyed more than two million dollars worth of freeze-damaged fruit to keep it from falling into hands of consumers and thus damaging the quality reputation of Florida citrus.

General Manager Homer E. Hooks praised grower "initiative and foresight" in eliminating bad fruit resulting from last Winter's severe freezes, and "keeping it out of commercial channels." He also lauded the work of the Citrus and Vegetable Inspection Division of the State Department of Agriculture whose inspectors, during the period of February 11 through April 30, made approximately 5,000 checks for questionable fruit at groves and regrade stations.

"The industry owes a big vote of thanks to George Copeland, director of the Inspection Division and his men," Hooks declared. "During the trying period following the freezes, they worked long hours in issuing 669 destruction reports and 518 regrade clearance authorizations, many of which were issued directly at groves or roadside loading points."

But more important than the police powers of seizure invested in the Agriculture Department, Hooks said, was the strong determination shown by Florida citrus growers themselves in cooperating to keep questionable fruit off the market.

"Under the law, the Commission is charged with the responsibility of establishing regulations and the State Department of Agriculture of enforcing them," Hooks stated. "However, without the initiative and foresight of the growers in recognizing the gravity of allowing bad fruit to get into commercial channels, and without their complete cooperation, our program would be a complete failure."

Moonlight Glamor

WHEN YOUR HOLIDAY dance is likely to last into the wee sma' hours, it's a good idea to mind your make-up manners. For a radiant glow the evening long, select a pinky powder that will accent the rosy tones of your complexion. Then, try this powdering trick to keep your powder-glow "anchored on" all evening . . . dip a span-white cotton ball into powder and press it onto your skin; repeat several times until the whole face is coated generously. Let it "set" while you apply lipstick; then, take another fresh white cotton ball and ever so lightly using gentle downward strokes, wipe off the excess powder. The absorbent cotton will banish that coated powdered look and even out skin tones, allowing your skin's natural glow to come through.

With this careful preparation before the dance, you'll find that make-up lasts longer, looks prettier. If you should have to repowder that pert nose tip once during the evening, a light fluff with a cotton ball will do the trick.

Bus Driver Decision Expected To Be Reached By Board Today

The Highlands County School Board is completing its investigation and it is intended that a decision on the reinstatement or discharge of W. F. Parry, local school bus driver, can be reached at a special called meeting of the Board this afternoon.

Last Thursday night a public hearing was held on several charges made against Parry by some local parents. The charges included the deliberate killing of several dogs with the school bus, swearing and smoking on the bus and leaving children behind.

One of the dogs was killed recently the others two years ago. The accusers admitted they had not seen the dogs killed. Parry told the Board the dogs ran under the rear wheels of the bus.

He further stated that he would rather kill a dog than endanger the lives of the children on his bus. The State Law forbids a bus driver to endanger the children by making sharp swerves to dodge a dog or cat.

Parry admitted that he smoked on the bus but not when the children were aboard. As to the charge of leaving a child behind a teacher stated that the child had failed to appear until after the bus had departed. Parry denied the swearing charge.

When Parry's physical condition was brought out the parents were reminded that he had been approved by the State Department of Education and an Avon Park physician.

Highland Lakes Community News

Citizens of the Highland Lakes community met Monday evening, May 12, to consider the matter of health and safety as it effects the entire area. Speeding by motorists using the roads bordering Lake Lillian has long been recognized as a safety hazard especially for the children who use the road in going to and from school at Highland Lakes Junior Academy. Sheriff Broward Coker assured the group that the sheriff's office would lend its support to see that speed limits are properly respected and violaters apprehended.

Highland Lakes residents voted to institute a garbage-trash collecting plan which will insure the community against possible health hazards. This was to be on an elective basis and since the meeting a canvass of the community has been made. Ninety percent of the residents have already signed for this service.

A decided stand was taken by the group against the practice of dumping trash and garbage on vacant lots in or near the Highland Lakes section, and if it isn't stopped voluntarily by those guilty of the practice, measures will be taken to see that it is discontinued.

Soil Conservation District News

By SAM POLSTON
U.S. Soil Conservation Service

Construction work got under way last week on the Lake Placid East Chain of Lakes Watershed Project. This marked the beganning for this type of work in Florida under the Small Watershed Act, Public Law 566 of 1954. Mr. Ivey Futch said that presently pipe is being placed to connect Lake Grassey with Lake Huntly, also another Dragline is working on a new channel between Lake Clay and Aptorpe. Futch is (Non-salaried) Contracting Officer for the Highlands Soil Conservation District.

Mrs. R. P. Dunty Jr. says that all the legal details will be cleared up this week to Advertise for Bids on the Fisheating Creek Watershed Project. This will set in motion, for Highlands County and for Florida, the second such project.

Dunty is serving as Legal Advisor to both the Highlands Soil Conservation District Supervisors and the County Commissioners on the two above mentioned Projects. It is recognized that only through complete cooperation, of these organizations with the Soil Conservation Service and Individuals, has made it possible for this County to set the pace in receiving this type of Public Benefits.

Hardee County Hit By Polio: Have You Had Your 3 Salk Shots?

With Polio having reached the epidemic stages in Hardee County it is vitally important that every man, women and child receive all three Salk vaccine shots.

The Highlands County Health Department Officials are urging that all persons who have not received the full three shots be vaccinated at once. The Department made this appeal to the residents of the county several months ago with the beginning of what is known as the Polio season.

Health Officials have recommended that persons secure the shots from their family doctors if possible, if not the County Health Clinic is open every Wednesday morning, 9:30 till 11; at the Avon Park City Hall.

Of the five cases reported in Hardee County within three weeks one was bulbar polio and the other four cases were paralytic. There has been no pattern to the cases across Hardee County. Two of the children were from different sections of Wauchula, one from Zolfo Springs and the others from rural areas.

Remember it is just as important for the adults to have these shots as it is for the children, polio plays no favorites.

Let's Get Together . . .

PREFACE

This article is an appeal to the good people, primarily to the church-going population of Avon Park to forget technicalities and second any differences of doctrine and creed and instead to concentrate on the common bonds of loving service. Unless we can see first things first, we may be unable to put first things first in the inevitable crises soon to confront us. If, in the course of reading it, and reader is disturbed or offended, I beg your forgiveness in advance and ask that you concentrate your thought on the purpose for which it is written. Lets get together in mutual faith and service.

During World War II a ship was sinking, taking with it hundreds of lives. Three Chaplains, A Roman Catholic Priest, a Protestant Minister, and a Jewish Rabbi, handed over their life belts to three enlisted men and went down with the ship, arm in arm, as they sang together in common expression of their faith in the Eternal Goodness.

When crisis arise people of good will (or "Goodwill") forget their technical differences and work together. Why can't we do likewise before emergencies arise? Why can't we put first things first and recognize that we cannot love God with all our heart and soul and mind, strength without loving our neighbor as much as we love ourselves?

Communism has taken over country after country by the simple policy of divide and rule and it can do it here. Can we as a nation expect to survive as long as we are so easily divided. Are not our religious and political leaders emphasizing secondary things which hold their own little groups together at the expense of larger activities in a united service of love?

In many ways Avon Park already stands out as a community with a heart. Some of our citizens are now expressing the Eternal Goodness of God in our school for the handicapped children. Others have established our excellent home for the aged. Still others are active in work with scouts and youth groups. There are many other people whose tireless efforts keep benefiting all, thru various open-to-all service organizations such as the Red Cross, the PTA the CDA, the GOC, etc., etc.

Beyond all this the state of Florida itself, has honored our community in the establishment of two great pioneering social institutions, the Alcoholics Hospital and the Honor Prison. They have thus given evidence of a new and vital trend in the expression of brotherly love and honored our community by starting here.

Our Alcoholic Hospital is pioneering in a tremendous work of rehabilitation a work, I'm sure would have won the commendation of the "Eternal Friend" of those in need. The great work being done here by the prison extension service wou'd have been equally commended by the "Friend of Sinners". These two great services of love and of faith are already making thousands of hearts beat faster in a feeling of warm affection for the very name of "Avon Park."

What a heritage we have! What an opportunity to blaze new trails! But must all this be done in spite of demands made upon our time by self-centered religious denominationalism or should it come first? Somewhere amid the noise and turmoil of all our specialized "soul saving" activities, I hear a voice ringing down thru the ages saying, "Do you love me? Feed my sheep." Amid all our emphases on secondary things, I hear that same voice saying, "What is this or that to thee?" "Follow thou me!" Get away from your technical perfection of doctrine and beautifully-expanded buildings of worship and follow me into the highways and byways where the need is great and the laborers few. "When you have done it onto one of the least of these, you have done it unto Me."

In this article we'll not go into any discussion of political differences. Politics always did make strange bedfellows but religion is supposed to be a uniting power.

What are some of the secondary technicalities which keep our churches from working as One? Are we not all serving one Creator? Are we not all reading the same inspired Bible?

How many there are who claim allegience to the "absolute authority of the Bible" and yet cannot agree amoung themselves as to what the Bible says or what it means. Church leaders and "Bible students" often go thru the Bible with a fine-tooth comb to pick out some new detail, emphasizing differences and in their eye-straining search, go blind to the Spirit of the Whole Truth. Jesus himself (Matt. 12:30) says; "He who is not with me is against me, but He also says (Mark 9:40) "He who is not against us is for us." Without catching the Spirit and purpose behind each circumstance the words become meaningless contradictions.

Here for example is one strong religious group which places heavy emphases upon the technical "Sabbath." They are right in saying that Saturday is the Sabbath of the Ten Commandments, for we know the Jews still gather in their synagogues on Saturdays unto this very day. They are right in the recognition that, Jesus himself, entered the synagogue, "as his custom was," and worshipped every Saturday. Still we can readily see how Gentile Christians, as they increased in proportion, put the emphases on worshiping on the Lord's Day. We can readily see how a later decree from the established church on the day recognized that Gentile Christians now far outnumbered Jewish Christians and to avoid confusion and duplication called for Sunday, the resurrection day to be the day of worship. However, we of today may wonder, how anyone can travel around a round world without recognizing that somewhere along the line there must be a man made agreement as to which day is Saturday and which day is Sunday. But above all this noise and strife somehow, we still hear the voice saying: "What is all that to thee, follow thou me, "not just in high sounding words, but in Spirit and in Truth."

—o—

Other religious groups work themselves up into a frenzy of emotions over the penticostal, "Holy Spirit." Emotional fervor is a wonderful blessing. Food also is a great blessing but we can eat too much. When we get worn out with an excess emotion over the weekend, we start the work-week depressed and we forget that the "Holy Spirit" best expresses itself in God-guided common sense for our daily problems and needs. We must recognize the final authority of the Inner Voice but it speaks to us thru reason as well as thru emotion. We may long to "stay in the Garden" of thrilling experiences but "He bids us go to the voice of woe, saying: "If you love me; feed my lambs, feed my sheep". Nothing is really ours until it is shared.

Many churches are placing much emphases on the "Second Coming of Christ" and get sidetracked in all sort of discussion as to how it is to take place. If we start out with the recognition that God is a Spirit and they that worship Him must worship Him in Spirit, we will see how relatively unimportant any matter manifestation is, either the "resurrection of the body" or the material "second coming." Spirit is greater than matter and Spirit creates matter so these things can be. There must always be the Idea in the mind of the Inventor before it can materialize. Yes, God's Kingdom will come (will materialize), when his will is done on earth. When there is enough of His Spirit manifested thru us, all error ("evil") will be overwhelmed by the torrent of goodness (of "Godness.") But if you are already worshiping him in Spirit, "What is that to thee?-what does it matter to you personally? Why wait for something outside to happen. "Follow thou me" now. "Feed my sheep" now. "When you have done it unto one of these, you have done it unto Me", and you are in the "Kingdom."

Other churches go to another extreme, emphasizing the "nothingness of matter". They are right. Matter is nothing in itself. It is a figment of imagination for it is only the expression of an Idea. The Power is in the Idea. But as long as we remain in the flesh our very goodness (Godness) must find a material expression, "that men may see your good works and glorify your Father in Heaven." Why be so technical when there is so much need of a material evidence of how love? Do you love me?-Feed my sheep-feed my lambs,"- feel those little ones hungering in the Spirit to be "professional students" of the Word.

Baptism is another great bone of contention among the churches. At one extreme, we have the emphasis on the fact that Jesus "went down into the water and was baptised of John the Baptist." But, was this essential to the salvation of Jesus? Did he not say "Suffer it to be so now." in the same Spirit that Paul in a later occasion said, "I am all things to all men that I might by all means win some." Jesus and Paul accepted well-understood outward expressions to draw others to a consciousness of an inward change. At the other extreme we find "realistic" people claiming that being "born both of water and of the Spirit" refers only to the water-enveloped physical birth-the essential forerunner for an individual Spiritual identity. Do not we all agree that it is the Spiritual Baptism, not the physical batism, whatever its nature which is the transforming one thru which we find Oneness with the Eternal. Can we not again hear Jesus saying: What's all that to thee? Follow thou me-in Love. "If you love me, do something. Feed my sheep." People are hungry for the "Bread of Life" and we are giving them" stones of doctrine, saying "Swallow this first."

The most sensitive subject of controversy in the Christian religion revolves around the question of the "Virgin birth of Jesus." Can we rise above this controversy and find unity in common bonds of love and service? Was Jesus conceived of the Holy Spirit, what accusation Mary must have suffered at the hands of the unbelieving! What Spiritual growth must have been hers as a result of this torment! Furthermore for the benefit of "scientific-minded" people, isn't it scientifically conceivable that among the millions of conceptions in the human race there could be one miraculous or self-impregnating conception! But, on the other hand is the male human a moral outcast? Couldn't two people share in a child being conceived of the Holy Spirit? Does it take only a woman to make a Christ-like home. Would we not have more Christian homes today if we had better teamwork between fathers and mothers? Is moral snobishness or the superiority of one sex over the answer to our family problems today? What has all this argument to do with the problem of Christlike living? The still small voice continues to say "I was an hungered and you give me no meat, I was thirsty and ye gave me no drink, naked and ye clothed me not, sick and imprisoned and ye visited me not." A simple anonymous verse so well expresses our need today.

"Who seeks heaven alone to save his soul,
May keep the path but will not reach the goal
While he who walks in love may wander far
But, God will bring him where the blessed are"

Whether we church-going people realize it or not, we are already in the midst of a WAR FOR SURVIVAL. It will not be won by fear. Neither will it be won by sitting on our hands, waiting for something outside to happen. It is interesting to note that the segerest criticism of Jesus was always directed against religious leadership. He recognized their goodness (their Godness) but he denounced their narrowness of vision, their detailed perfection ("straining at gnats and swallowing camels"), and their being "cumbered with much serving at the expense of first things first. The first and great commandment, he told us, is LOVE - love of God and love of neighbor. All else is secondary.

Now is the great hour of preparation. Now is the hour for action. Tomorrow may be too late. Right now there is some form of public service (without a pay-check attached) which needs YOU. Hdrs with the needs the aged, the physically handicapped, the underprivileded; work thru the Red Cross, the PTA the CDA or all these and many other activities of good will need YOU. A strife-torn world is calling for you to be a "tie that binds our hearts" in one. Are you doing what you can to make Avon Park a Beacon Light of Love in a darkened world? Can we unite and work together beforehand, or must a crisis such as Communism bring us to our knees? LET'S GET TOGETHER! LET'S GO.

This article has been made heroic as a result of this torment! POSTSCRIPT: No reference division. To the Negro readers of Avon Park may I add just this: Lets each get our own house in order. An hour is coming when we will need all the faith in each other we can muster. With such faith no one can ever "divide and rule" us for selfish gain.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS . . .
MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s

Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torsion-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension system!

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

Highlands County School System Complimented By Visiting Teachers

The Schools of Highlands County were hosts on May 1st to two visiting teams of teachers from Hillsborough and Marion Counties.

Hillsborough, Highlands and Marion Counties hold membership in the Associated Public School Systems. A.P.S.S. is a group of 100 school systems across the nation. Its purpose is to identify and share better educational practices throughout its members schools.

Among other studies the Associated Public School System is sponsoring the application of "The Growing Edge" to the educational practices currently going on in its member schools. This instrument attempts to establish the cost-quality relationship of educational programs.

The procedure follows a plan of sampling school programs at the fifth, eight and eleventh grades by checking against specific similar practices included in the Growing Edge. The process attempts to measure the adaptability of school systems which are judge in terms of two sets of principles.

1. The meanings for educators that may be found in comparatively recent discoveries in the field of psychology.

2. The implication for education which derive from fairly recent concepts of the importance of schools as an institution in our society. Specific practices are organized around four major areas of educational purpose which can be related to the two principles above:

1. (a) The teaching of basic skill in life-like situations.
   (b) Variety of basic skills taught.
2. (a) Teaching facts in relation to their meaning and usefulness.
   (b) Breadth of knowledge areas taught, including variety of resources for knowledge.

3. Discovery and development of special antitudes of individuals through test and tryout.

4. Development of gross behavior patterns like citizenship, character and thinking.

Twelve Highlands County teachers and principals have recently visited in Hillsborough and Marion Counties too apply the Growing Edge in their schools.

It is quite evident that this attempt to bring about further improvement in our instructional program holds many gains both for the persons visiting and the school system visited.

Mrs. F. Beckley Leaves For New York And Africa

Mrs. Frank Beckley of the nursing department at Walker Memorial Sanitarium and Hospital left Avon Park Sunday, May 18, on the first part of a trip that will take her to Africa.

Mrs. Beckley's term of service at the hospital dates from September, 1948. "Ma" Beckley, as she was affectionately known by many, spent more than half of her time with the institution on night duty and her quiet, reassuring way will be missed by those who find their night to be long and restless.

She will accompany her daughter, Miss Marie McCall, R. N., to her post at the Kirundu Mission in the Belgium Congo. Miss McCall went to Africa four years ago, two of which were spent among the tall Watusi people of Rwanda-Urundi, a small state bordering on the Congo.

At Kirundu Miss McCall operates a dispensary (with the help of four native boys) which cares for an average of one hundred patients per day. There is also a fourteen-bed hospital on the mission compound. The nearest other hospital is one hundred and twenty miles distant. Critical cases are referred to this institution as there is no resident physician and the government doctor visits only about once per month.

Miss McCall is taking a stathly meeting in Wesley Hall on Tuesday morning, April 13, with Mrs. J. W. Richmond and Mrs. Allen Kindel serving as hostesses. Ten members and Mrs. Hubert Bussard, acting president of the Women's Society, were present to enjoy the coffee hour before the meeting.

Mrs. Claude Chamberlain taught the study lesson to the members.

During the business meeting Mrs. Guy Decker was elected Chairman of Circle 3 for the coming year. Other newly elected officers are Mrs. T. O. Martin, co-chairman; Mrs. Floyd Oldham, secretary; and Mrsfl Helen Harris, Treasurer.

Circle 4 met at the home of Mrs. Colin DeShong on Lake Avenue on Monday night, May 12, for its monthly meeting which was opened with a moment of silent prayer.

Mrs. George Kelsey, a visitor to the meeting, taught the study the lesson for the members and Mrs. Wiley Cothran gave the devotional message to the twenty-one members and four visitors present. Mrs. Maryland Bahar and Mrs. Mary Brassell were welcomed into Circle 4 as new members.

During the business meeting elected the following officers for Circle 4 in the coming year: Mrs. Roberta Flowers, Chairman; Mrs. Joy O'Steen, co-chairman; Mrs. Vivian Rich, recording secretary; Mrs. Lucille Cothran, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Kay Giddens, Treasurer.

The final June meeting of the circle will be at the home of Mrs. John Giddens on Canfield with Mrs. Ellis Watson serving as co-hostess.

Mrs. Howard V. Weems, State President of the Women's Society for Christian Service, of the Methodist Churches, will install the new officers of the local Society and the Chairman of the four circles in a special service on Sunday evening, May 25, at the regular evening service hour in the Sanctuary.

Several visitors were welcomed. Miss Marjorie Hess spoke of the pleasure she and other guests of the new Nursing Home received by having the various churches give services at the home and especially stressed the joy of having them bring song books so that all could join in singing.

Mrs. Norris accepted a set of silver given by Dr. Ruth Phillips to the church.

The Ladies Aid will assist in the supper to be given by the Fellowship Council on June 2 at 6:30.

Date for the Annual Pie and Apron Social was set for October 21 from 2 till 7 p.m.

From The Office Of Congressman Jim Haley

Washington, D. C.—The so-called Mutual Security authorization bill was the major topic of debate in the House last week. I voted against the bill as I have consistently voted against the foreign aid program, for I do not believe it is the answer to our present struggle with the Soviet Union.

The foreign aid program began as a humane and sympathetic, good neighborly deed to help those people who had suffered so much during World II, and whose countries were devastated by war.

In the beginning of the program, assistance was given to 14 countries. The Mutual Security Act of 1958 would extend aid to 63 countries and 10 territories. I strongly favor a program which will effectively contain further expansion of Soviet communism, but I do not believe the foreign aid program meets this test. Our objective in the aid program has shifted from one of aiding people to one of economically fighting Soviet expansion. Therefore it would seem that it is time to reevaluate the program. In the present battle for the hearts and minds of men, and in our zeal to contain communism, we must ask ourselves, which is the most logical approach that is most likely to succeed. I cannot agree that the Mutual Security program as it is being administered, and will continue to be administered, is the answer. We must embark on a program which will create the desire on the part of people everywhere to be free, freedom

Fish Bites -- A Good Catch

GO FISHING IN THE FROZEN FOOD CABINETS of your local food store if you want to make a good catch for a Lenten meal. Birds Eye Fish Bites, plump morsels made from ocean-fresh fish, potatoes and seasonings, are delectable for lunch or supper. Because they are quick-frozen and pre-cooked, they need only a brief heating in a hot oven to be ready for the table. Add a vegetable, a salad, a tangy tomato sauce and you have a meal ready in minutes.

TO HEAT QUICK-FROZEN FISH BITES:

Preheat oven to 425°F. (hot). Spread fish bites in a shallow pan or on a baking sheet. Heat throughly in hot oven until well-browned, 10 to 12 minutes. Each 8-ounce package contains 20 fish bites, makes 2 to 3 servings.

Civil Defense For Adult Americans

Civil Defense for Adult Americans is the title of a pamphlet written for every adult American. It contains the sort of knowledge every individual should have the knowledge that may help save life and possessions when natural or man-made disasters threaten. We as Americans are usually willing to do things if we understand why they must be done and what to do. Time spent in civil defense preparation is time spent in our own best interest. This cold fact is sufficient reason for mature Americans to undertake self-directed learning and self-imposed organization.

Each week the Avon Park Sun will print a section of the pamphlet, "Civil Defense for Adult Americans" in the hope that the residents of the community can better understand the Civil Defense Program which Avon Park has undertaken.

THE MODERN MEANING OF CIVIL DEFENCE

For most of us, civil defense summons up the idea of American at war and suggests something to be organized when war occurs. For some of us it should therefore be left entirely to "official" governors, commissioners, or military personnel. Actually, our civil way of life is threatened by many other disasters which, because they destroy life, property, communications, light, heat, power and places of trade, constitute disturbances against which we should be prepared to defend ourselves. For civilians the essential difference between a natural and a wartime disaster is mainly a matter of degree; disaster during war is likely to be more extensive and to involve fire, flood and bomb damage simultaneously. In a peacetime disaster we may expect some help from nearby military personnel whereas in war we must rely on ourselves entirely, for the military will be engaged in fighting the enemy, preferably over enemy territory.

The community organization that can successfully control a dangerous flood or minimize the human suffering resulting from any natural danger may well be the sort of organization best fitted to cope with man-made disasters. The Federal Civil Defense Administration (FCDA) wisely interprets civil defense to include defense against natural disaster. Such disasters not only cost the community and the nation life, assets and money, they also afford practice training against the man-made disasters which good will and diplomatic skill cannot guarantee to keep from us. Civil defense, then is to be thought of as defense against all disasters threatening even temporarily our community life.

To create such organization requires many varieties of knowledge and skill, executive capacity and purpose, an element of discipline, of leading and following. Some of the required knowledge will be held only by key persons. But the remainder must be very widely dispersed, for panic is almost always started by the anonymous person who is ignorant of what to do.

United Farm Agency Opens Local Office

William F. Reid, Jr., has been appointed exclusive local representative for United Farm Agency at Avon Park and surrounding territory, C. A. Peterson, United General Sales Manager, announced today from the company's Florida offices at Orlando. United Farm Agency, one of the nation's largest sellers of rural real estate, has other administrative offices in St. Louis, Springfield, Chicago, Detroit, Kansas City, San Francisco and Los Angeles. The company also maintains nearly 300 local offices throughout the nation from coast to coast.

Reid is a native of Florida and has lived in and around Lakeland, where he has been in business for all his life.

"We're happy indeed to bring United's dependable service to this favorite area", stated Mr. Peterson in announcing the appointment, "and to have secured the services of a man with Mr. Reid's qualifications to open our new office here. Such an association will, we feel, be a most beneficial one for himself, for the community in which he operates for our company".

Summerfield Receives Safety Council Award

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today he has been advised that the Post Office Department has again — for the fourth consecutive year — been given the National Safety Council's citation award "for outstanding contributions" to the nation's traffic safety in 1957.

The Safety Council, in a telegram from Mr. G. C. Stewart, its Executive Vice President, has just notified the Department that it is one of twelve organizations over the nation winning the coveted safety honor in 1957.

The Department was informed that this is the first time any organization has won the award four times in a row. Formal presentation ceremonies for the award have not yet been scheduled, and will be announced later.

The Post Office Department's comprehensive safety and traffic accident program was initiated in 1954. Some of the achievements in 1957 which won recognition of the Safety Council, in making this newest presentation, were as follows:

1. An excellent accident and casualty rate in 884,069,485 miles driven in 1957 by postal vehicles, with a total of 18,813 accidents, or 2.13 accidents for every 100,000 miles driven, with a casualty rate of .06 for each 100,000 miles.

2. Traffic safety promotion in 37,000 postal field installations in every major community in the nation.

3. During 1957, 37,500 postal drivers earned individual National Safety Council Safe Drivers Awards for 1 to 27 years of safe driving.

In addition, Mr. Summerfield pointed out, the Council's award recognizes the outstanding leadership of postal employees and postmasters "not only in practicing safety themselves, but in

Last Rites Held Wednesday For Ralph Kelley

Ralph R. Kelley, 72, passed away at Walker Memorial Hospital Sunday night after a long illness. Mr. Kelley was a native of Greencastle, Ind., and came to Avon Park from Mount Sinai, Long Island, N. Y. seven years ago. He was a retired electrician.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Emma M. Kelley, Avon Park; two sisters, Mrs. Winona Smith, Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Grace Kelley, Los Angeles, Calif.; a brother, Russell R. Kelley, Los Angeles, California.

Funeral services were held at the Mizelle Funeral Home Chapel Wednesday afternoon with The Rev. Herbert D. Graetz officiating, followed by cremation.

helping others to do so, with important savings in lives and property all over America."

Postal personnel in 1957, as in previous years, served as community leaders in special-heading community safety efforts and helping correlate and promote safety programs through local press, radio, television, safety council, traffic police and other groups.

Prior to 1954, when the present large scale safety program was first undertaken under the Post Office Department's Bureau of Personnel, the Post Office Department possessed one of the worst traffic safety records in government, Mr. Summerfield noted.

As a result of this, the Postmaster General in 1954 instituted the Department's present intensive program, which includes safe driving instruction, driver examination and licensing, rules for safe operation, awards and other incentives for safe driving and increased responsibilities delegated to-postal officials at local levels to maintain effective safety programs for postal vehicles in their own areas.

"This program has now paid off in 1957 with the lowest accident rate and casualty rate in history for postal vehicles," Mr. Summerfield commented. "When one considers that postal vehicles must operate in peak traffic at peak hours of traffic activity in communities in every center of population in the nation, the importance of a vigorous safety effort by the Post Office Department is easily understood."

Over $141 million in road and bridge construction projects were underway in the state during January, according to a monthly progress report issued recently by Wilbur E. Jones, Chairman of the State Road Department.

Wear A Red Poppy Saturday As A Gesture Of Tribute To Veterans

Poppies worn on Poppy Day in tribute to the war dead bring aid to disabled veterans of three wars, explained Mrs. Margaret Allen, Rehabilitation Chairman of Highlands 69 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, who is helping complete preparations for observance of Poppy Day in Avon Park on Saturday, May 24.

The Auxiliary volunteers who will distribute the little red memorial flowers up and down Main Street beginning at 8:30 a.m., will carry contribution boxes, and all contributions received will go into Auxiliary rehabilitation and child welfare funds. These contributions constitute the largest source of financial support for the Auxiliary's year-around work for disabled veterans and needy children of veterans.

Mrs. Fraefa Welch, Poppy Chairman, announces that more than twenty million memorial poppies have been made for Auxiliary this year by disabled veterans. The work has been done in veterans hospitals and Auxiliary workrooms throughout the country, giving beneficial employment to thousands of veterans.

The memorial poppy is a crepe paper replica of the wild European poppy which bloomed in profusion on the world war battlefields and cemeteries in France and Belgium. The World War I poem "In Flanders Fields", told the world about these poppies, and soon after that war the poppy became the memorial flower for the war dead throughout the English speaking world.

"Making the flowers provides interesting and beneficial employment for thousands of veterans in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the country," Mrs. Jim Heim, local president explained. "The Auxiliary provides the materials and pays them for the poppies they make. The work is considered valuable as occupational therapy and also gives the long-time patients the encouraging experience of earning money again."

"Disabled veterans of three wars, the two world wars, and the Korean conflict, made poppies for the Auxiliary this year."

Be sure and wear a poppy on Poppy Day Saturday as an individual gesture of tribute to those who gave their lives for America.

Death On The Highway Takes Strange Shapes

Death on the highway takes strange shapes - a dropped cigarette, a back-seat tussle among the kids, a drippy ice cream cone.

Unrelated, you say? Not so, the National Safety Council points out. They're all potential accident causes. How?

Well, the Council says that while no official figures are available, many auto accidents are caused by just such otherwise harmless objects as cigarettes, children and ice cream cones.

"Distractions contribute to a great percentage of the nation's motor vehicle mishaps," the Council says.

Let's suppose you're cruising down the highway at 60 m.p.h. and drop your cigarette. Take only four seconds to pick it up and you've gone the length of a football field - and then some!

Same thing with a back-seat squabble. Turn around to break it up and you may find yourself welded to the rear of another car that stopped suddenly in front of you.

Same thing with ice cream cones. Drop one in your lap, and then watch the fun start.

"The tales of woe of persons who've been victims of distractions," the Council says, "are usually good for a laugh . until an accident occurs. Then it's not so funny.

Molasses Bunny Cookies Fun for Easter

The whole bunny tribe is set to make your youngsters' Easter party extra fun this year. First there's white bunny—just a marshmallow squeezed into a bunny face—who will leap into Junior's milk jug and make happy dunking. Then there's Brer Rabbit himself, a molasses cookie delight mounted with icing on a gingersnap base.

4 EASTER BUNNY MOLASSES COOKIES

- 1 tablespoon mixed pickling spice
- ⅔ cup unsweetened pineapple juice
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 cup real New Orleans molasses
- ½ cup vegetable shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 3¼ cups flour
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- 1½ teaspoons cinnamon

Boil pickling spices in juice until it is reduced to about ¼ cup. Strain out spices, add vanilla to juice. Stir soda into real New Orleans molasses, then combine juice and molasses mixtures. Cream shortening and sugar until light. Sift dry ingredients together. Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with molasses mixture. Mix thoroughly. Chill dough several hours, or overnight. On a floured cloth or board, roll dough about ¼-inch thick, cut in bunny shapes. Use a broad spatula to transfer cutouts to greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderately hot oven (350° F.) about 12 minutes. Makes approximately 4½ to 5 dozen cookies, depending on size.

Local Girl A Runner-Up In Touchton Contest

GAIL BENNETT

The Touchton Pomatex Pony Contest came to a close last week and the beautiful pony was presented to six-year-old Billie Verelle of Sarasota on the Touchton Program on WTVT Saturday afternoon.

When the contest started the plans called for only one first prize, the Pomatex Pony, but due to the number of outstanding entries Touchton Drug also presented eight Brownie Starflash Camera outfits.

Although a local child did not win the pony Gail Bennett of Avon Park was one of the runner-ups and Vernon Tyson, Manager of the local store made the presentation.

Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bennett, will receive a lot of enjoyment taking pictures with her Camera in black and white or full color, both day and night.

Touchton Drug Presents The Honeymooners

For the entertainment of their thousands of friends Touchton Drug Company is now sponsoring "The Honeymooners" on Station WTVT, Channel 13, each Saturday afternoon at 6:30 o'clock.

The series, starring Jackie Gleason, "live-on-film", is based on antics of Ralph Kramden, bus driver, and features Audrey Meadows as his wife, Alice. Art Carney as his pal, Ed Norton, sewer worker, and Joyce Randolph as Ed's wife, Trixie.

On "The Honeymooners" Saturday afternoon, June 7, "Stop and Think" and "Look Before You Leap" are strictly foreign slogans to Ralph Kramden as he discovers that "easy money" comes hard. Each of the shows leads to laugh-provoking results, and have been arranged for family enjoyment.

County Reduces Pay Of Pauper Funerals And Some Welfare Aid

The Highlands County Commission decided at the regular meeting Tuesday morning that due to the county's financial condition, they would reduce the amount they pay morticians for county cases, and because the welfare fund is about depleted, aid to indigents for food and medicines will also be reduced.

The new pay rate for morticians, in effect from now until October 1, 1958, is $150 for adults; $75 for children from four to twelve years of age; and children under four $50. The old rates were $250, $125 and $75 respectively.

Taxes As A Gag

The Internal Revenue Service has ruled that certain institutional advertising conducted by electric utility companies cannot be considered a legitimate business expense in making out income tax returns. This advertising, for the most part, presents the private enterprise side of the public-vs-private power controversy. One affected company has taken the matter to court.

Newspapers and publishers' organizations throughout the country have protested the ruling in forthright terms. Most of these protests make the significant point that the position of the Internal Revenue Service goes far beyond whether government or private enterprise is to produce and sell us electricity. The very foundation of freedom is at issue.

The Moline, Illinois, Daily Dispatch, sees the matter this way: "The dangers inherent in the Internal Revenue ruling are obvious and multiple. The ruling robs private enterprise of one of its principal forums, or at the very least, limits that forum in effectiveness. The ruling also attempts to draw a very fine line between 'allowable' and 'disallowable' advertising expenditures which would be hard to discern and easy to violate. The ruling can penalize any industry or profession which so attempts to get its story across to the public. But, even worse than all these possible effects, the ruling can deprive the public itself of one of its major sources of information and impair its ability to judge for itself both sides of a controversy involving private businesses.

"U. S. taxes must never be used as a gag."

Freedom of speech and freedom of communication will lose most of their meaning if, in exercising them, any group is forced to pay a tax penalty. And, if this can be done to one group, it can be done to any other. That is the true significance of the Internal Revenue ruling.

Race Between Education And Catastrophe

Nothing breeds suspicion and misunderstanding more surely than ignorance. The man who lives in isolation from the world around him is the man who is the first to believe the worst of others. For instance, it has been a cornerstone of Soviet policy to keep communism's captives people almost totally isolated from the non-communist world. This is necessary if ceaseless communist propaganda, predicated on the "big lie" principle, is to be effective.

Some time ago the International Air Transport Association met in New York. In an address of welcome, Juan T. Trippe, president of Pan American World Airways, said this: "Mass travel by air may prove to be more significant to world destiny than the atom bomb. For there can be no atom bomb potentially more powerful than the air tourist, charged with curiosity, enthusiasm and good will, who can roam the four corners of the world, meeting in friendship and understanding the people of other nations and races.

"The tourist plane and the bomber for years have been racing each other toward a photo finish. In my opinion, however, the tourist plane, if allowed to move forward unshackled by political boundaries and economic restrictions, will win this 'race between education and catastrophe'."

Millions of individuals now go to other lands by air—swiftly and economically. The volume of traffic soars each year. This amounts to mass education on a scale unprecedented in the history of the world. Never have people had such an opportunity to know each other and to learn and profit from each other. Out of this, one may hope, will come an age when the bomber, the missile, and the nuclear rocket will be found only in museums.

"From the Federal Government's viewpoint, the 10 per cent excise tax on all telephone service is a fine thing. . . . But from most any other angle, it's an exceedingly bad tax. In the first place, it's discriminatory. There's no excise tax on water, gas or electricity. In fact, the telephone is the only essential household utility that is so taxed."—Pine Bluff, Ark, Commercial.

Messrs. Bert Albright and Stanley Butler, Managers
Avon Park, Florida

Gentlemen:

As Mayor of the City of Avon Park, I would like to express my cordial congratulations and good wishes to Mr. Carl Floyd, of the Floyd Theatres Circuit, and to you two gentlemen as managers of the Hilans and Sevon Theatres on the eighteenth anniversary of the Floyd group of showplaces.

It gives me great pleasure to state here that this community is proud of its two fine theatres, their facilities, and the outstanding and wholesome entertainment they provide for the citizens of this locality.

The Hilans and Sevon have filled an important need in our community as the chief entertainment medium. They have also been leading backers of civic organizations and the worthwhile drives conducted throughout the years.

I understand through the months of June and July, as you celebrate your eighteenth anniversary, that many special motion picture attractions will be offered. I feel sure that the citizens of this area will take advantage of their showings during this time as well as freely patronizing your theatres throughout the entire year.

Yours very truly,
E. A. DeLANEY, SR.

Sharing Risks And Rewards

Who owns the corporations of this country?

The butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker own them! In other words, modern American capitalists come from all walks of life.

Take, for instance, a report concerning the stockholders of one of our leading manufacturing corporations. About half a million people own shares in it. One is a schoolteacher. Another is a grocery boy. Another is a girl newspaper reporter. Another is a welder. Another is an infant. Another is a company employe. Another is a college professor. Another is a clergyman. Another is a pensioner. So it goes--down a list of just about every craft, profession and calling.

This company is not unique. It is, instead, typical. Some 10 million Americans have invested directly in our corporations, by buying stock. And two-thirds of all the shareowners are in the under-$7500 income bracket--which certainly disposes of the idea that shareownership is the province of bloated plutocrats.

That doesn't end the story. Another 100 million people own shares indirectly, through insurance policies, savings accounts, pension plans, and so on.

What has happened is that American capitalism has become a "people's capitalism". This is the only country on earth where the average family has the means and can become a partner in great enterprises, and profit when and if these enterprises profit. The many--not just a few--share the risks and rewards of ownership.

What Goes Up Comes Down

Retailing is an enterprise which is highly sensitive to economic change. Ups and downs in the cycle are quickly felt in the stores.

Some views expressed by the head of one of the biggest American department stores are of particular interest now. He sees the situation this way: "In the world of economics, as in the natural world, what goes up, comes down. . .Somewhere along the line business must level off, must pause to consolidate its gain, must even fall back a bit in order to correct any excesses.

"And while it is naive to think that prosperity is never ending, it is equally foolish to despair at the sightest setback. Because, just as good times cannot last forever, harder times are always temporary, too.

"And perhaps even sulier than faith in good times forever, is the belief that the economic life of a nation can be managed. . .that the peaks and valleys can be completely leveled off.

"Those who believe that government can 'outlaw' fundamental economic laws and can legislate 'corrective measures' are deluding themselves. The idea of legislating the economic law of supply and demand is hogwash."

In modern times we have seen all manner of governmental efforts to apply such "corrective measures", including price controls and other economic strait jackets--and these efforts have almost invariably produced worse problems than those they were designed to cure. The hope is that we will profit from this experience, and not push the "panic button" again.

—o—

"We have reached the verge of socialism by allowing ourselves to be conditioned. It is time—past the time— for the people to be regaining their lost freedoms here at home as well as in Washington."—Ashtabula, Ohio, The Star-Beacon.

NEW SHRIMP RECIPES

You can add variety and good taste to your meals with easy to prepare nutritious shrimp. Many cooks have requested instructions on boiling shrimp so here it is:

BOILED SHRIMP

1 Quart water, 1 Tablespoon vinegar or lemon sliced, 1 Teaspoon salt, 1 Pound Shrimp, ½ teaspoon redpepper or pepper sauce.

Put water in saucepan and add all ingredients except shrimp. Bring to boil then add shrimp and cover. When water boils again reduce heat to simmer. Cook 12 minutes if shrimp is in shell (5minutes if shrimp is out of shell). Drain and cool shrimp quickly. Shrimp may be shucked before or after boiling. To clean shrimp, hold tail end in right hand, slip thumb under shell between feelers; lift off 2 or 3 segments in one motion - then still holding firmly to tail, pull out shrimp from remaining section. Cut along the back and lift out black sand vein. Vein is harmless but objectionable because of the black line.

SHRIMP WITH LEMON GARLIC SAUCE

1 Pound of Large Green Shrimp, ¼ cup margarine, 1 clove garlic, 1 tbsp. lemon juice.

Shell shrimp and remove sand vein. Melt butter with crushed clove or garlic or use one tablespoon garlic juice. Dip shrimp in sauce and place in pre-heated broiler pan. Broil 7 minutes on both sides. Before serving pour lemon juice over shrimp.

SHRIMP SALAD

1 Pound Cooked Cleaned Shrimp, Juice of ½ lemon, ¼ cup French dressing, ½ cup Mayonnaise 1 cup chopped celery, Salt and Pepper.

Combine all ingredients and serve on crisp lettuce. Makes four (4) Servings.

FLORIDA FRIED SHRIMP

2 Pounds Shrimp, Lemon juice, Salt and Pepper, Celery Salt, Flour, 2 eggs, ½ cup milk or water, Fine dry bread crumbs.

Wash shrimp and remove shells, leaving on tails. Cut part way through outside curve almost to either end. Lift out sand vein and flatten out shrimp. Sprinkle with lemon juice, salt and pepper.

Dip shrimp first in flour, then in egg mixture and finally in crumbs. Fry in deep fat at 375 Deg. F. about 5 min. or until golden brown. Drain. Serve with tartar sauce or cocktail sauce.

STUFFED RED SNAPPER FILLETS

2 lbs. snapper fillets, 2 carrots, 2 green onions, ¼ cup chopped pimento, 1 cup chopped pitted ripe olives, 2 cups bread-cubes, ½ cup melted margarine, Salt and Pepper.

Shred carrots and mix with other ingredients, except fish.

Spread fillets with mixture, roll up beginning at small end.

Fasten with toothpicks.

Put in shallow baking pan and brush with melted margarine, sprinkle with salt. Bake 30 minutes at 375 Deg. F. or until done. Serves 6.

SHRIMP IN BUN

1 can condensed celery soup, ½ cup chili sauce, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon chopped onion seasoning salt, 1 lb. cooked, cleaned and chopped shrimp.

Heat soup throughly and add next four (4) ingredients. Split buns and cover one side with shrimp. Spread on sauce and sprinkle with grated American process cheese. Broil until cheese bubbles. 8 Sandwiches.

SCALLOPS PARMESAN

Rinse and Dry thoroughly scallops. Coat lightly with flour, salt and pepper. Dip scallops in beaten egg with two (2) tablespoons lemon juice added. Then dip in mixture of cracker crumbs and parmesan cheese. Fry in salad oil at 375 Deg. F. for five (5) minutes. Drain on absorbent paper and serve with parsley and lemon.

PICKLED SHRIMP

Peel and wash green shrimp, remove black sand vein if you wish. Make a brine of:

1 gallon water, ½ cup salt, 1 pint distilled vinegar, 1 tablespoon red peppers, 1 tablespoon white pepper, ½ tablespoon allspice, ½ tablespoon mustard seed, 6 bay leaves.

Simmer slowly for ½ hour, then bring to boiling point and add shrimp. Count five (5) minutes from time brine begins to boil after shrimp are added, then remove and allow to cool.

Pack in sterilized jars with fresh spices and a slice of lemon in each jar. Fill the jars with a solution made in proportion of two (2) pints water, one (1) pint of 6-percent acid, white distilled vinegar, and 1 tablespoon sugar. Seal jars tightly and keep in a cool, dark place.

Farm Tractors Take Hillary To South Pole

NEARING THE END of the historic breakthrough to the South Pole is one of the three Ferguson tractors which Sir Edmund Hillary used to transport personnel and supplies. Leaving his dog teams behind at the base, Hillary relied entirely on these 35 h.p. farm machines to cover the final 400-mile trek through sub-zero temperatures, deep snow and crevasse-ridden terrain. Each tractor hauled a sled carrying more than a ton of fuel and supplies. Nicknamed "Fergies" by the expedition, these TE-20's are the same type of tractor used by American farmers for plowing, cultivating and other farm work. They are smaller predecessors of the newly introduced M-F 65's, which head-up the Massey-Harris-Ferguson tractor line for '58. Except for the addition of cab and full tracks over the rear wheels, only modifications made were in the cooling and electrical systems. Two other TE-20's were used by Dr. Vivian A. Fuchs' expedition to the South Pole by a different overland route. Hillary radioed from the Pole that the tractors had "performed magnificently."

MEIKROWAVES . .

By DON MEIKLEJOHN

Football teams have scouts that probe into the inner most secrets of the opposition trying to develop strategy that will win football games, and how, Florida may have a companion job—"jury appraising."

It's a fact that juries tend to show sympathy to widows or folks who have some physical ailment when it comes to awarding money in land condemnation cases.

The Governor's right-of-way committee, headed by Rep. John Mathews, Duval County, discussed this benevolent tendancy the other day. It came up with some interesting suggestions. They may not get too far, but is was refreshing to see someone getting down to brass tacks.

Basically, the "jury appraiser" idea is this:

If the attorney handling a condemnation suit for road right-of-way sees some "human elements" that may boost the price the jury is willing to set on the land, he could offer an out-of-court settlement for more than the appraised price. The settlement would have to be approved by three county commissioners to provide a safeguard.

As it now stands, there is a policy against paying more than the appraised price—without going to court—even if the attorney thinks it will save money in the long run.

The policy against settlements above the appraised price stems from criticism by State Auditors, who point accusing fingers at such practices.

State Buys Land
For Upteen Dollars
Over Appraisal

What the auditor roesn't point out is that the land was purchased from a widow with 10 children, whose husband was a war hero and was killed rescuing children from a fire in the local school house.

J. Lewis Hall, who is a member of the committee and Leon County attorney, said attorneys should have authority to settle out of court for above the appraised price in cases where "human elements" could sway the jury to award an even higher figure.

"Appraisers figure land value on a square foot basis, and don't care whether the owner is a widow or millionaire . . . but the juries do," Hall said.

Hall reached back into his experience to illustrate his point.

He told of a case in Leon County where the appraiser set the price of the property at $12,500.

In looking into the case, Hall found that the man involved had just had a heart attack and that he had built the house involved in the condemnation with his own hands—or as usually presented to the jury, "by his own toil and sweat."

This is where the jury appraising comes in.

Hall said he immediately saw that his client—in this case the County—was going to take a licking by the jury.

He says he could have gotten a settlement for $20,000 . . . but this would have been frowned on by the auditors, who say all that should be paid is the appraised price.

To make a long story short, the case went to jury, and they awarded the man $25,000 . . . or $15,000 more than what Hall could have settled the case for out of court.

The dangers of such a procedure were readily admitted by members of the right-of-way committee. One danger is that an attorney who had power to settle such cases might start favoring his friends.

To counter-balance this, Hall suggested that such settlements would have to be ratified by three county commissioners.

It was suggested that the auditors might not think much of this safeguard . . . since is would just be substituting the opinion of four men for the opinion of one man.

On this point, Hall said "They take the appraiser's word for it now . . . Besides there comes a point in government where you have to trust someone."

The committee agreed to study the proposal and make a report to Gov. Collins, who appointed the study group.

The "jury appraiser" idea was one of two short-range steps that the committee will investigate.

The other step also has a little bit of jury psychology involved in it.

At present, condemnation suits are filed in the name of the State and the County.

The argument is that when such cases come before juries they see it as a plot by "them folks in Tallahasee" to take away "good ole Joe's" property.

The jury often thinks, according to members of the right-of-way committee, that there are two sources of revenue to pay "Ole Joe" off—State and County. This leads to higher awards.

In truth, the county is paying for the right-of-way from its secondary road money.

The idea is to file the suits in the name of the county, which would give the attorneys a chance to say to the jury, "Our county will have to pay so much for this property" . . . instead of getting the "Tallahassee" mixed up in the arguments.

These psychological suggestions aren't the only fields the committee is going to study.

It will also delve into jury procedures, administrative procedures, and probably most important of all financing of right-of-way acquisitions.

At present, the counties pay for all road right-of-way except under the federal interstate highway program.

This gets to be a burden in some of the more heavily populated—or fast growing-areas-of the state where right-of-way costs are zooming, and in many cases has resulted in cut-backs on county secondary road programs.

Again using an illustration from Hall: Leon County paid $750,000 for right-of-way for the Aplachee Parkway project in front of the State Capitol in Tallahassee. Hall estimates the project delayed the Leon County secondary road program by three years.

"Instead of having roads to travel on we have this magnificent deadend street," Hall said pointing in the direction of the parkway, which has been under construction for some three years but still isn't finished.

Formal Glitter

FULL DRESS affairs are on the comeback, but the male uniform is quite a departure from the "soup to fish" of old. After Six, for example, has taken the "penguin look" out of formal wear by using brilliant Lurex metallic yarns. The traditional white jacket is spruced up by a matching multi-colored set of cummerbund, tie, cufflinks and handkerchief. And for the bolder male there is a textured silk and shimmering blue Lurex dinner jacket with a full set of accessories to match.

ACL Supports Legislation Program

Mr. Frank Weathersbee, Commercial Agent, of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad at Lake Wales said that the "Your Blueprint For Survival" program recently inaugurated by Mr. W. Thomas Rice, President of the Railroad, is well under way.

This program is designated to formulate Coast Line support for railroad legislation now pending in the Senate and House of Representatives as a result of the Smathers Senate Committee Report.

Mr. Weathersbee stated that the need for all citizens in this area to support the legislation is urgent to avoid disaster for the American railroad industry.

Many of the country's largest railroads have as little as 20 days working capital on hand. In 1946, the railroad ads serving the Southeast had a net working capital of $269,000,000. In 1957, the yearend working capital was $79,000,000. As it requires $127,000,000 to meet monthly payrolls, the seriousness of the situation is apparent.

In calling for the support of all railroad employees and their friends, Mr. Weathersbee pointed out that it is extremely important that the pressing need of the railroads for immediate emergency legislative assistance receive rapid action in behalf of a stabilized national transportation policy.

Red Devils Even Series With Pirates

The Avon Park Red Devils won over the Boca Ciega Pirates last Friday night at Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg with a 7 - 5 win to even the series with the Class AA team in warm-up games prior to entering the state meet at Fort Pierce.

The Devils lost the first game of the series played at Head Field last Tuesday night 7 - 0. The Devils couldn't seem to master the slants of Pirate ace Butch Lieby and managed to collect only three singles off the swift left-hander.

Pity the poor man who strives away while he's here to make enough money so his family can loaf and be no account when he's gone.

CRACKER POLITICS

By Allen Morris

Tallahassee — The count-down has passed another stage on a political missile called LeRoy Collins and indications mounted there may be a successful launching at the 1960 Democratic national convention.

Since 1955, the Governor has been receiving increasing national attention as a possible 1960 Democratic nominee for president or for vice president. But as the Collins boom has gathered momentum, his friends recognized that his role as host to the National Governors' Conference in Miami Beach would provide the stiffest test yet.

And Collins passed the test swimmingly to this observer's eyes. He was much in the spotlight, not only as host governor but also because a steady flow of national publicity has put his name very definitely on the list of possible Democratic nominees. Super-critical national political reporters watched his every move and weighed his every statement.

These reporters came away from Miami Beach, if not all completely sold on Collins, at least in general agreement that he likely will be a major contender for a place on the national ticket. Discussing the Governor's chances in a journalistic bull session, one veteran writer said he rated Collins as no worse than a one in 20 shot to win a place on the ticket.

"If anybody thinks the odds are worse than that, let him try to sit down and name 20 Democrats who would be more acceptable convention choices than Collins," he observed. "I tried it and I couldn't name anywhere near 20. So I put the outside figure at 20 to allow for a few inevitable dark horses that may emerge between now and 1960."

This same writer noted also that some people are prone to forget that among the candidates receiving the most publicity right now, several have major elements working against them. One, for instance, might be unacceptable to Big Labor, while another could be personally obnoxious to some other large group of voters.

The Governor gained added stature with the press by his proposal to set up civil rights commissions. Even some writers who were not in full agreement with the plan were inclined to praise Collins for making a genuine affirmative attempt to solve the problem instead of, as one put it, "trying to make the problem go away by simply ignoring it."

The reporters also listed some of the same obvious Collins political assets mentioned in this column during August of 1955 and again in May of 1956.

These included Collins' proven ability as a vote-getter, the fact that his whole family exudes political glamour, Florida's big population growth with a corresponding increase in electoral votes, and his general acceptability to virtually all voting groups.

Winter Guest Club News

Over sixty members and friends of the Winter Guest Club, who have made Avon Park their retirement home, gathered at the clubhouse on Friday, Memorial Day, for a covered-dish dinner at 5:30. The committee (all volunteers) had planned carefully so there was plenty of delicious fried chicken and all the "trimmings" one could wish for. With the strong right arms of Messrs. Hanford, Seifert, Dixon, Reitzner, and Marsh the ice cream was served speedily and efficiently on the Fourth of July.

A short program followed by the flag salute, the members and their guests enjoyed the cool breeze blowing from Lake Verona as they played shuffleboard, card games, and visited. A delightful way to celebrate the holiday, everyone agreed. In fact, there was unanimous approval for a "repeat" performance.

The shuffleboard enthusiasts got to the day, followed. Mrs. Dorrit Wolverton presented a piano reading, "A Eulogy to the Flag," the words of which were composed by Mr. Ira McLaren. After a short community sing, followed by the Flag Salute, the members and their guests enjoyed the cool breeze blowing from Lake Verona as they played shuffleboard, card games, and visited. A delightful way to celebrate the holiday, everyone agreed. In fact, there was unanimous approval for a "repeat" performance.

As long as we have the cooling breezes from the lake each evening the dancers will enjoy their weekly get-togethers, even though their numbers are growing steadily fewer. Last week there were enough for three sets, but judging by the number who are leaving right after the long holiday weekend, we'll be down to two sets soon. Now that the temperature hits the high spots daily, our dance leader adds interest by presenting a new dance each week. This new number is practiced by one set, the members of which are different each week, and they practice in comfort in our leader's air-conditioned home.

These warm days are especially enjoyable to many of our number who choose Avon Park as their home for the many beautiful lakes in and surrounding it; "C'mon in, the water's fine", is their motto.

SPECIAL FROM MICHIGAN: Word has been received from Dorothy Gruber concerning the Michigan-Florida picnic at Blissfield. This was scheduled for August 10, but has now been changed to the seventeenth. Remember that, all you wolverines, The Sportsmen's Club, Blissfield, Michigan, August 17 is the day for the big get-together. We'll just hope you pass this word along all through southern Michigan, northern Indiana, Illinois, and northwestern Ohio so everyone will be informed.

That seems to be the gist of the news for now; you'll hear from us again after the Fourth, says THE TATTLER.

Miss Kempton Weds Faran Snedeker In Double Ring Ceremony On May 29

MRS. FARAN SNEDEKER, JR.

Miss Mikel Lynn Kempton became the bride of Faran Snedeker, Jr., in an impressive double ring ceremony in the Union Congregational Church on Friday, May 29, at 6:30 with the Rev. Herbert A. Graetz reading the marriage service.

Palms, ferns, and numbers of white gladioli were used to give the church an air of spring loveliness. The altar was banked with a lattice of palms with baskets of gladioli highlighted in front of the greenery. Wedding tapers came to a point behind the altar and were continued to each side of the altar. The green palms and the white flowers were used to compliment each other very effectively throughout the church.

Mrs. Edna Jackson presented a program of nupital organ music before the ceremony and Mrs. Samuel Norris sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride entered on the arm of her uncle, Walter Sheretz, Jr. Her gown was the traditional bridal satin highlighted with lace. The satin skirt featured a lace bustle down to the lovely train. The bodice was lace over satin with length sleeves. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a cap of lace and she carried a white Bible adorned with white roses.

Miss Patsy Strassberger, her sister and only attendant, wore a blue gown with a satin bodice and nylon net skirt with a net stole and net halo cap. She carried yellow roses.

Roy Turner, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man. The ushers were Wayne and Bryan Kempton, brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a pearl gray acetate dress with a full skirt and long sleeves with ruffles at the wrist and neckline. Her accessories were black and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

The mother of the bridegroom wore a pink gown with a free-swinging panel and short sleeves. Her corsage was also of roses.

A reception followed the ceremony. The Social Hall of the Educational Building was lovely with palms and baskets of white gladioli. The bride's table was covered with a white cloth and the three tiered wedding cake was surrounded with a white nylon frill and white flowers. A crystal punch bowl was used at one end of the table.

Mrs. J. R. Lawson and Miss Diane Lawson served cake to the guests and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer and Miss Marcia Bilbee poured the punch. Mrs. Roy Turner, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the Bride's Book.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Snedeker chose a blue sheath dress with white accessories. The young couple will make their home in Orlando.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Faran Snedeker, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Turner and Mrs. Blanche Reynolds all of Jacksonville; and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lawson and their daughters, Diane and Maryland of Miami.

WHAT IS PATRIOTISM?

By The Bird Woman

So many people are confused about the meaning of patriotism, many think they are patriotic if they stand and wave the Flag, others feel that if they take off their hats when Old Glory passes in a Parade or if they stand when the National Anthem is being played, that they are patriotic.

But there is something more fundamental than these things, Websters New Collegiate Dictionary defines patriotism as, Love of country, or devotion to the welfare of one's country.

We are all aware that we cannot be devoted to our parents and then disregard their instructions and teachings, so let us apply the same reasoning to being devoted to our country.

It has been established that more than eighty percent of what we retain in our minds come through the eye, so we as parents must realize that day by day eyes are upon us and sooner or later the things that we do today will be repeated by our children, and some times we wonder where they got the idea for doing certain things, but if we are really serious enough to give it a second thought we will recall setting the example.

If a child sees it's father run through a red light and laugh because he got away with it, what does that put into the mind of the child?

What we are trying to say is that patriotism means strict obedience to the laws of our country that we profess to love, and it does not mean just to select the laws that we like and disregard the rest for in so doing each would be a law unto himself, and confusion runs rampant through the land and the country we profess to love becomes something of which we are ashamed.

We have a number of patriotic organizations in our midst and even the Scouts and some Lodges and fraternal organizations display the flag and pledge allegiance to it, but we wonder if the fact of obeying all the laws of our country are being stressed as much as they should be.

School will soon be out and a great many children will be turned loose with scarcely any parental supervision, and full of energy to do so something and with out the training to occupy themselves constructively. What have we been training them to do since T.V. became so common? As a rule they have been allowed to watch all the gun fights between officers and gangsters, and if they are as bright as we think they are it has given them some good suggestions to try out.

Before most children can walk the parents deck them out with a holster and a couple of guns and think they look cute. But when some neighborhood boy accidently injures some of our family we make a squack and wonder how the child could do such a thing. And what his parents were thinking to give him a gun.

We all though it cute when the little ones were decked out in Davey Crocket suits and could sing about him killing a bear when he was three. And some of us encourage our children to imitate the wild men of the early west such as Dan'l Boone with out thought of consequence.

So with these cold thoughts before us, we wish again to call the attention of parents and those with children under their supervision that we have some very strict State laws and also city laws as a protection for the boy with his finger on the trigger, as well as for his target, or what he might hit should he miss the target.

These laws were not passed to legislate against children, but it is the parent or guardian that is considered guilty of misdemeanor if the child has in his possession or uses an air Rifle, B.B. Gun, or 22 caliber Rifle without the presence and supervision of an Adult.

We have had the full text of these laws printed in this column within the last few months, and would be glad to show them to anyone interested.

And along this line we wish to call attention to the protection of all birds in Florida, of course excepting game birds at the specified seasons.

Birds have had a very hard winter as we all can attest, and now there are many young birds which have enough enemies in snakes and stray cats, without those who should be protecting them to turn on them just for the fun of it.

If you have children under your influence whether as a parent, teacher, or leader, we hope you will be able to impress upon them the necessity of being a good patriotic citizen by obeying all the laws.

"Outstanding state and national figures in the real estate profession have been selected to counsel Realtors and Associates who attend the Educational Caravan," according to Sylvan Maxwell, Miami, President of the Florida Association of Realtors.

C. D. Delphey, Jr., a Realtor of Pittsburg, Pa., will address each general session of the Caravan. Delphey has been active in real estate and insurance for 18 years, and holds memberships in national brokers and appraisers organizations. In addition, nine Florida Realtors will serve as moderators of the Caravan workshops groups.

Topics for workshop discussions will be "Successful Office Operation and Policy, "Increasing Sales Through Better Listings," "Today's Money for Tomorrow's Sales," and "How to Increase Your Selling Power".

Beginning at 8:00 in the morning with registration and a general session, the Caravan delegates will divide into four separate groups before and after lunch. Members of the Caravan "faculty" will rotate from group to group, so that each Realtor will have an opportunity to discuss every topic.

Real estate brokers and salesmen who are not members of the Florida Association of Realtors may attend the sessions as guests of members, according to Max well. This is our seventh annual educational program bringing real estate knowledge to all corners of the state," he added, "and each year the service has been highly successful."

Beginning in Jacksonville on June 2, the Caravan will end ten days later in Pensacola. Other stops include Daytona Beach, Winter Park, West Palm Beach, Miami, Fort Lauderdale, Sarasota, Lakeland, and St. Petersburg.

Heavenly Dessert In An Instant

AMBROSIA WAS A FAVORITE DESSERT of the gods, as we all know. And now, here's an Ambrosia Pudding with the same delightful combination of flavors. This heavenly dessert is simply made with instant pudding mix, diced orange sections and flaked coconut.

AMBROSIA PUDDING

1¾ cups cold milk
1 package vanilla or lemon instant pudding mix
½ cup diced orange sections
¼ cup tender-thin flaked coconut

Pour milk into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and beat slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat; mixture will be thin. Quickly fold in orange sections and coconut. Pour at once into serving dishes and let stand to set—takes about 5 minutes. Garnish with extra orange sections and fresh mint, if available. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Hurd on the Mall

BY GEN HURD

Get Estelle Fann to tell you about the snorting, bellowing bull that took offense at a new boat which her husband was trying desperately to get off-shore and afloat on Arbuckle Creek.

As he pawed and snorted dangerously close to the prow, (the bull, not Joe, although he was probably doing some huffing and puffing himself) others in the group were bogging down in the muck and scanning, with an eye to climbing, the nearest trees.

Meanwhile, back on the ranch and on the other side of the creek stood another candidate for the bullfighting arena. These two got so interested in insulting each other that they lost interest in the fishing party, each of whom took off in devious directions to safety.

We still think it's a lot funnier when Estelle tells it.

Philip E. Boardman, rural mail carrier, who was recently awarded the National Safety Council's honor for eleven years of no-accident driving in this area, has many friends on his route, some of whom look forward to his daily visits much as a child waits for Santa.

Phil is a convenient person who has helped numerous needy souls on his rounds particularly the handicapped elderly ones . . . and he will no doubt be upset to see a report of his good deeds in print. He's like that.

Stop the press! We have just received the world shaking news that a relative's new-born child can talk! The proud parents of this first-child have announced that Denise, at age two months can say two words "Goo" and Ah, Goo".

That's okay Cuz, we understand how you and all new parents thrill to every sound the little ones utter. Wait until you try to keep them quiet.

Jim Heim and lost trailers are somehow synonymous. This time his boat and trailer did a solo tour down about Lakemont and never left the highway. Which recalls the story of last fall during duck-hunting season, when trailer and boat left the highway landing in a canal with boat upright and all hunting equipment dry. We'll all have to agree that Jim's trailer is quite a nonconformist and bent on striking out on its own.

Electric Timer Demonstrated Friday Night

The electric timer purchased by the City of Avon Park has arrived and a trail demonstration was given last Friday night on Highway 27, North. Signs notifying the public that the City's streets are electrically controlled have been installed on all main roads entering the city.

The timer is guaranteed accurate within one mile per hour either way, and the speed of the cars passing over the small cables in the streets is automatically clocked. The accuracy of the timer was proven Friday night when a motorist was clocked at 55 miles per hours. He was stopped by a city patrolman and given a warning. He told the policeman that he had been traveling 55 miles per hour for he checked his speedometer when he crossed the cables in the road.

The timer can and will be moved from place to place within the city, and it requires only four minutes to set the machine up for operation. The timer can be operated from either the bat-

Red Devils Advance To Finals At Fort Pierce

Anderson Shuts Out Live Oak With No-Hitter; Starling Wins Over Gainesville To Reach Finals; Plays Key West Tonight At 9 O'clock

Avon Park's Red Devils reached the finals of the Class A Baseball Tournament at Fort Pierce last night by shutting out Gainesville 10-0 in a 5 inning affair.

Johnny and Leroy Starling teamed up to blast 3 Gainesville pitchers for 6 hits. Johnny also took credit for the win, holding the Gainesville boys to 2 hits, while striking out 6.

The Red Devils opened up the first inning with a bang, scoring 8 runs on 4 hits and 4 Gainesville errors. Gainesville tightened down after the disasterous first inning and held the Devils scoreless until the bottom of the fifth when Wayne Kempton and Billy Rouse both scored after reaching first on walks.

For the second straight time the Red Devils won the game in only 5 innings because of the Tournament rule, which ends the contest when either team has a 10 run lead after 5 innings of play.

The Red Devils allowed only 4 Gainesville players to get on base and only one to get as far as second.

Avon Park reached the semi-finals by defeating Live Oak 10-0 Monday night on Charles Anderson's no-hitter. Anderson, a southpaw, held Live Oak hitless, while his teammates pushed across 10 runs. Anderson was forced to strike out four batters in the third, after catcher Leroy Starling dropped the third strike on Bill Carmichael.

Leroy Starling led the Devil's 9 hit attack with 2 singles and a double, while Wendell Williams blasted out a triple to aid the

Barbara Perez And Kay Mizelle Sr. Co-Treasurers

In the story on the Graduating Class for 1958 in last week's issue of the Sun, it listed Kay Mizelle as treasurer of the Senior Class. The list of officers was taken from the Pitchfork. Credit should also have gone to Barbara Perez who was elected as treasurer by her class the first part of the year when Kay married. Our apologies.

Barbara served as treasurer and performed her duties well in the handling of the Senior trip, banquet and cap and gowns, along with her other duties.

Barbara has accepted the position of bookkeeper with Bagwell Lumber Company in Frostproof, she will assume her new duties next Monday.

More and more cities under 25,000 are applying for federal financial assistance to develop their municipal planning programs, the Florida Development Commission reports.

Two applications covering requests from 15 cities already have been forwarded to federal authorities and a third will be sent soon, the Commission's

Elementary PTA Chooses Theme For Next Year

"Education for Family Life" has been chosen as the focal point for the Avon Elementary P T A for the 1958-59 school year and a series of very interesting and enlightning programs are being arranged around this idea.

At a recent meeting of the Program Committee, with Mrs. Arlin King, chairman, these plans for next year's meeting were laid and a discussion of various types of programs was held.

Mrs. King announced that the opening meeting on Thursday, Sept. 11, will be a reception for the teachers. This will be in the form of a supper in the Cafetorium of the Elementary School. A "get-acquainted" program for teachers and parents with Ralph Hill in charge of the entertainment will follow the supper.

Tallahassee—An old sore spot with some legislators is lurking beneath the surface in Gov. LeRoy Collins drive against bolita operations.

It is a state police force.

Collins didn't have much to the imagination the other day in a conference with Sheriffs Bureau officers.

He said in easily understandable terms that if the Sheriffs, working through the Sheriff's Bureau, couldn't wipe out bolita, he would be leading the way to find a better solution to coordinate law enforcement.

Before he made the statement, he had mentioned that many people thought a state police force was the only way to get coordinate law enforcement.

Then, he in effect, said the sheriffs and the Sheriffs Bureau, were going to have to put up or shut up in the bolita campaign.

Collins said the drive against bolita would afford the sheriffs a chance to prove that they can be effective, acting cooperatively with the Sheriffs Bureau, which has only advisory capacity and can only help out when requested to do so.

"It will answer once and for all the question of whether we are on the right track," Collins said.

If the sheriffs and the Sheriffs Bureau can't stamp out bolita, Collins said he would probably lead the way in finding a better way to provide coordinated law enforcement for the state.

The Sheriffs Bureau has already been under fire by some legislators as an opening wedge to a state police force. On the other hand, its backers say that it is probably the best way to prevent the formation of a state-controlled police force with broad investigative powers.

Should the bolita drive flop, Collins might push for an agency with broader power, and the fur will probably fly.

At least it might provide a fitting final show for the proposed network TV film about the "Man From Tallahassee," which will feature the Florida Sheriffs Bureau.

WHAT IS BOLITA?—For folks who don't know what bolita is, the simplest explanation seems to be that it is just a fancy name for the old numbers racket.

Chances are sold on numbers from 1 to 100.

The name stems from an old practice in which 100 balls were put into a sack. Each ball had a number. At a designated time, a ball was cut out of the sack.

People who held tickets on the winning number were paid off—minus an appropriate slice for the operators of the game.

Nowadays, the racket generally goes by the name of Cuba in Florida. The difference in names is based on a difference in determing the winning number.

For the most part, the winning number is determined by the Cuban lottery. The last two numbers of the Cuban lottery are generally the winning numbers in Florida's illegal lotteries.

For example, if the last two numbers were 00, the winning number would be 100.

One of the biggest stumbling blocks in wiping out bolita is the difficulty in obtaining evidence. Tickets are no longer printed, and could look like anything from a laundry ticket to a paper with numbers scratched on it.

Evidence generally amounts to some assorted scraps of paper, plus some money, and some adding machines. Prosecutors generally spend a good bit of the trial explaining through "expert witnesses" how bolita works.

Defense attorneys on the other hand spend equal time explaining that their clients were just toting up their income tax.

The other main point is the historic defense of "illegal search and seizure." Courts have always been though—rightly so—in making the police officials prove that they had a good reason for making a search.

Lately, the Supreme Court has modified its stand on requiring that "confidential informers" be named. The informers are used in getting the initial evidence on which to base a search warrant.

Law enforcement officers say if they have to be named, the informers won't inform.

The court modification may help, but coordination or no coordination the job is still going to be tough, unless as Gov. Collins suggests, the sheriffs can come up with a plan to get the big boys instead of the small fry.

Collins suggested aiming at the folks who provide the financing.

"It may be that by attacking it at this one point, you could eliminate bolita without having the tremendous burden of trying to catch each little peddler and some of the small fry operators," Collins told the sheriffs.

Such an attack might provide the way to "get this thing by the throat and kill it without feeling like you've got to tackle every finger and every toe," he added.

SATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE—For sheriffs who wonder what the governor would consider a satisfactory performance on stamping out bolita, this yard stick has been suggested:

Match Gov. Collins efforts to get fair apportionment and "full cash" value property assessments.

CRACKER POLITICS

By ALLEN MORRIS

Tallahassee—The countrywide spread of stock ownership in Florida companies seems to have given the state a special lift of national public confidence through the rigors of a disastrous winter.

As June began, these companies were enjoying, to judge from stock exchange quotations, as great investor confidence as ever before.

These security holders helped get the state over the hump, in some measure, by maintaining a belief—perhaps shared by them with friends and neighbors—that Florida's long-range future was sound.

And they did so, possibly without thinking this through, for one of the strongest of human motivations: their own money stake in Florida.

Take, for example, the public utilities. They are a particularly good example for they operate entirely within the state. Florida Power & Light had 39,249 holders of its 6,300,000 shares of common stock, while Florida Power Corporation had 19,037 holders of 2,813,940 shares at latest analysis.

Not only does the geographical distribution of this ownership cover the United States, American possessions and many foreign countries, but the stock remains to a large degree in individual hands despite heavy investments by insurance companies, by educational, religious and similar institutions, and by trustees.

This breakdown of individual ownership in the two Florida companies discloses a fact that seems remarkable: that almost the identical number of men and women bought virtually the same number of shares. Since these figures do not include shares jointly held by husbands and wives, the fact is all the more amazing.

Of Florida Power & Light's stock, 11,832 men owned 1,508,670 shares while 11,152 women possessed 1,309,251 shares. In the case of Florida Power, 7,819 men had 571,837 shares and 7,172 women owned 490,328.

The special point of this heavy feminine ownership is that every housewife in America knew from shopping in January and February that the terrible weather had wiped out much of Florida's vegetables and some of its citrus.

Unless they were convinced of the long-range stability of Florida, they might have been inclined to rush through sell orders and taken a loss to unload. But today's quotations seem to show that just didn't happen.

During a small dinner party at Southwood Farm on the outskirts of Tallahassee the evening following formal abandonment by the Atlantic Coast Line of its efforts to obtain the Florida East Coast Railway, the wife of Supreme Court Justice B. K. Roberts recited a couplet she first heard from an egyptian dragoman:

"Patience is a virtue, catch it if you can; always found in woman, but never found in man."

From the head of the table, Edward Ball smiled beningly on comely, lively Mary Roberts. He could appear to assent, for in the 17-year struggle of the Alfred I. duPont Estate to control the FEC—as in a thousand-and-one other matters—Ball's career had been a refutation of the couplet's truth, if patience may be used as another word for tenacity.

On Ball's tenacity, brother-in-law Alfred duPont once said he could cling like a bulldog on a tramp's pants.

Ball, co-trustee of Florida's duPont Estate (the St. Joe Paper Company and the Florida National Group of Banks being among its properties), was musing the other evening on the importance in life of what Ecclesiastes calls "time and chance".

Usually a man to talk about the future rather than his own past, Ball illustrated his observations on destiny being shaped by "time and chance" by relating an incident of fifty years ago when he was prospecting in the West for gold and gems.

With sledge hammer, he had been driving drills into the Southern California granite in search of tourmaline, beryl, hyacinth and aquamarine. His diet consisted largely of the quail then plentiful, varied once each week with the passing some distance away of a meat wagon from whose drivers he routinely purchased a three-pound steak.

Once, on impulse, Ball got two such steaks and invited to dinner his nearest neighbor, a 75-year-old prospector. Walking him home afterwards, Ball found the prospector's two burrors had invaded his tent, scattering personal possessions and ruining foodstuffs.

Right then, Ball decided any life so unrewarding as to be disrupted by a donkey was not worth the effort. He abandoned the claim the next morning. "Time and chance," in the shape of two burrors, had changed the course of Ball's life.

Ball found his career in salesmanship. To this day, he wears a pair of gold cuff links, inscribed "Perfect Score Club", which recall his skill in selling law books. And at the core of salesmanship is the patient persistence which helped him wait out the ACL-FEC litigation.

Let me tell you what I saved when I drove a new Plymouth...then bought one!

Just like a lot of other people, I was putting off buying a new car . . . even though we sure needed one. Then I found out what my Plymouth dealer was offering in the way of low prices and really big trades.

Mister, when I saw what I saved I knew there was no use putting off any longer! Got more for my old car than I believed possible. (Plymouth dealers need used cars and can sell all they get!) Got a terrifically low price on the new Plymouth . . . and choice of models besides . . . hardtops, sedans, convertibles, wagons.

And I saved a cool $140 on the ride alone! Plymouth's top-luxury ride, Torsion-Aire Ride, is standard at no extra cost, while you have to pay up to $140 for the top ride of competing "low-price 3" cars.

What's more, I got the car that proved it can save me gasoline, by winning the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. A car with Silver Dart Styling that is so far ahead right now it will still be worth more when I trade. With the kind of easy handling that makes every minute of driving a downright thrill! The stamina to stand up without nagging adjustments and big repairs . . . a car as much better built as it is better looking!

Any wonder I quit waiting? Take my tip . . . get your Plymouth bargain right now.

Miss Sarah Jane Griffin Becomes Bride Of John Robert Alexander

MRS. JOHN ROBERT ALEXANDER

The marriage of Miss Sarah Jane Griffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hill Griffin, Jr., to John Robert Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bothwell Alexander of Lake Wales, Florida was solemnized June 7 at 4 o'clock in the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Robert B. Russell performed the double ring ceremony before an Altar decorated with Chrysantmums and Daisies and tapers which were lighted by Pearce Glisson and Al Milton of Frostproof, cousins of the bride. A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Corine Butler organist, and Mrs. Howard Reynon, vocalist. Miss Lucy Ann Griffin sang "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of pure silk summer taffeta. The basque bodice featured a deep yolk of hand pearled and sequin trimmed alencon lace that fashioned a sculptured neckline and formed short shirred sleeves. She wore matching gauntlets of taffeta. The bouffant skirt was enhanced with scattered medallions of the hand pearled alencon lace and terminated into a chapel train. Her cap of alencon lace matching that of her dress was attached to an heirloom Belgian lace veil that extended to the length of her train. She carried a white Bible showered with stephanotis and carnations centered with a white orchid.

Miss Lucy Ann Griffin attended her sister as maid of honor. Her gown was a floor length dress of white-flowered nylon organdie over bridal blue summer taffeta. A scoop neckline formed tiny puffed sleeves, and a wide bridal blue taffeta cumberbund terminated into a big bow at the back. She carried a white Swiss braid cartwheel hat folded into a basket shape and filled with dainty white flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. George Walter Harris, Jr., another sister of the bride, Miss Judy Clair Milton, cousin of the bride, Miss Phyllis Jo Langford, of Frostproof, and Miss Gloria Johnson of Tallahassee, Florida. Each wore dresses identical to the maid of honor and carried cartwheel hats trimmed with dainty white flowers.

Miss Francie Griffin, small sister of the bride, dressed identical to the bridesmaids attended as junior bridesmaid.

Drake of Winter Haven, Florida, cousin of the bride, George W. Harris, Jr., brother-in-law of the bride, and Charles Sheets of Lenoir, North Carolina.

Little Julie Enzor dressed in blue as her cousin's flower girl, scattered the traditional rose petals. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Enzor, Jr. of Winter Haven, Florida.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The white frosted tiered wedding cake ornamented with stephanotis and white carnations and topped with an orchid which was an exact replica of the bride's bouquet was centered on the table overlaid with an imported Belgian linen lace table cloth. The bride and groom cut the cake with the groom's saber according to Marine wedding tradition.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. James Alexander, sister-in-law of the groom, Miss Eleanor Sweatt of Orlando, Florida, Mrs. Richard Little of Miami, Miss Nancy Saunders of Atlanta, Ga. and Miss Carol Cole of Jacksonville.

Beth and Susan Stephens gave out rice which was gaily colored from small baskets ornamented with blue ribbons.

Boy Scout News

The Scouts of Troop 156 were fortunate to have Sgt. W. Jenson of the Bombing Range Survival School to speak at their meeting on Monday night, June 2, in the Woodruff Heights Scout Building.

Sgt. Jenson is a former Eagle Scout and gave the boys much interesting and important information about survival training. The boys of Troop 156 will leave on a Survival Camp-out with Sgt. Jenson and three of his men on Thursday afternoon, June 12, and stay until Saturday afternoon.

The Scouts will take only their knives, fishhooks, and cooking utensils. There will be no food and on the trip they will live on what they can find or catch. This will be similiar to the training given the Air Force men. The boys will spend the time somewhere on the base and have more to tell about this exciting adventure afterwards.

Troop 157 discussed their coming camping trip at their meeting on Monday night, June 2, in the Kings Court Scout Hall. They are planning to camp out near the end of June.

Sarah Catherine Turnbull Given Birthday Party

Sarah Catherine Turnbull and a group of her kindergarten friends enjoyed a birthday party in honor of her sixth birthday on Tuesday afternoon, June 3.

The boys and girls went fishing in a pond for surprises and played games in the yard. Ron Starkey won the prize for shooting darts at a chicken target and Joan Young won the prize in the musical passing game.

The birthday cake was pink and white and decorated with "Happy Birthday, Sajah Catherine." The little guests were served cake, ice cream and cold drinks by Mrs. James Turnbull and Mrs. Gerald Wicker.

After helping Sarah Catherine open her gifts the children were given pin wheels and candy for favors. Enjoying the afternoon with the birthday girl were Quentin Atkins, Stephen Anderson, Wesley Turner, Ron Starkey, Mike Ribner, Bill McDaniel, Nancy Todd, Ann Montsdeoca, Janey Barben, Beverly Pollard, Diane Murphy, Debbie and Joan Young, Susan Hall, Nancie Tyson, and Beverly and Carol Wicker.

First Baptist Church News

Refreshments were served by the hostess and the members enjoyed a social hour.

The Women's Missionary Union held its monthly business and program meeting in the Social Hall on Tuesday morning, June 3 and the fourteen members present enjoyed a Covered Dish Luncheon at noon.

During the business session a nominating committee was appointed to secure new officers. Mrs. Harold Guendt, president, presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Bertha Pabor presented the very interesting program on "Youth Looks Forward".

Preparation Day for the Vacation Bible School will be held Friday, June 13, from 9 until 11 o'clock. After the program at the church there will be a picnic in Highlands Hammock and all children are asked to bring a lunch.

Importance Of Flag Day Observance Stressed By Patriot's Chapter Of DAR

In observance of Flag Day, Saturday, June 14, Patriots Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution offers this selection to remind all Americans of their rights and responsibilities.

I am the Flag of the United States of America.

I was born on June 14, 1777 in Philadelphia.

My thirteen stripes, alternating red and white, with a union of thirteen white stars in a field of blue represented a new constellation—a new nation dedicated to the personal and religious liberty of mankind.

Today forty-eight stars signal from my union, one for each of the forty-eight sovereign states in the greatest constitutional republic the world has ever known.

I represent these eternal principles: Liberty, Equality, Justice and Humanity.

I am as old as my nation.

I am a living symbol of my Nation's Laws: The Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights.

I voice Abraham Lincoln's philosophy, "A government of the people, by the people, for the people.

I am displayed in every schoolroom through-out my nation; every school yard has a flag pole for my display.

I have my own special day, Flag Day; June 14 is set aside to honor my birth.

I am your Title Deed to Freedom, which is yours to enjoy and hold in trust for posterity.

If you fail to keep this sacred trust inviolate, if I am nullified and destroyed, you and your children will become slaves to dictators and despots.

Eternal vigilance is your price of freedom.

As you see me silhouetted against the peaceful skies of my country, remind yourself that I am the Flag of your country—that I stand for what you are—no more, no less.

Guard me well, lest your freedom perish from the earth.

Dedicate your lives to those principles for which I stand, "One Nation under God, Indivisible with Liberty and Justice for All."

God grant that I may spend eternity in my "land of the free and the home of the brave", and that I shall ever be known as "Old Glory," the Flag of the United States of America.

Kurtz, District President of the Women's Society, spoke to the group on the recent National Assembly of the organization in St. Louis. The children were served cake and cool aid after they helped Stephen open his gifts. Before they left for home the boys received bags of marbles as favors and the girls were given gay plastic bracelets.

Helping Stephen's mother with the children were Mrs. Walter Mandis, Mrs. Fred Reddick, Mrs. Carson Murphy, Mrs. Bill Hood, and Mrs. Thevenow DeLaney.

Stork Shower Richard Derkman Honors Mrs.

Admiring looks and comments from all the guests and Mrs. Derkman greeted the lovely gifts she received at the party in the home of Mrs. Donald Ford with Miss Pat Lagoni, Mrs. John Gambrell, Mrs. Joe Franza, Mrs. Devon Reddick, Mrs. Alfred Edge, Miss Anna Vilkaitis and Mrs. Ford, hostesses.

Delicious refreshments of iced punch and homemade cookies were served the guests from a table decorated with pink hibiscus and blue hydrangeas to carry out the "baby" theme.

About thirty friends of Mrs. Derkman enjoyed the delightful shower.

When prices on some items of food seem to have gone "sky high" it is wise for the housewife on a budget to give thought to the economy values of fish in her daily purchases of food.

Minutes Of Regular Meeting Of City Council Held Monday, June 9th

Members Present: P. A. McFarland, Roland Dilley, Clarence King, Manin Kirkland, also Mayor, City Attorney and City Clerk: Mr. Lee is on vacation at this time.

The invocation was given by Mr. McFarland.

The minutes were read and approved as read.

It was moved by Mr. Dilley, seconded by Mr. Kirkland that Claude Weich and Hubert Kiker's pay be raised to $210.00 per month which is the City's standard rate of pay. Upon roll call all members present voted AYE.

Motion by Mr. Kirkland, seconded by Mr. King that the City's bills be paid. Upon roll call all members present unanimously voted AYE.

A letter addressed to the City Council was read by their Clerk signed by Ernest E. Sims, Principal of the Hopewell Elementary School, of Avon Park: He requests with thoughtful appreciation the following:

1. That Charlie Jones be appointed life-guard at the Negro Bathing Beach beginning June 23, 1958 . for Summer Recreation Program.

2. Provide two loads of clay to fill in gullies in an attempt to help further erosion.

3. To re-level the shore line with the road machine.

It was moved by Mr. Dilley, seconded by Mr. King that Charlie Jones be hired for life-guard and the other requests of Ernest Sims be granted. Upon roll call all members present unanimously voted AYE.

A bid from Long Bay Ranch, Inc., of Avon Park was submitted to the Council which is hereby recorded in its entirety:

Avon Park, Florida
Gentlemen:

In response to your AD in the Avon Park Sun, we would like to submit the following bid, for the use of the hay field on the Airport property:

For the use of the hay field for one year, we agree to pay on demand to the City of Avon Park, the sum of $500.00.

We would like for you to also consider that inasmuch as the preparation of the ground for a good hay field requires a minimum of a ton of lime per acre, plus 500 pounds per acre of a high quality fertiliser, and inasmuch as the benfits from such fertilizing and liming are not returned in the hay in one growing season, we feel that it would be only fair and equitable to us or whatever bid you accept, to offer an annual renewal option for a period of the to five years. It has been our experience on this particular piece of ground that it requires a minimum of seventy tons of lime and fourteen tons of fertilizer to produce an adequate crop of hay. Therefore, we would like for you to consider this proposition:

We agree to pay the sum of $500.00 for the lease of the hay field for one year, with an option for renewal for a period of five years, at the same annual rental, and also, with the provisions that the City may cancel the option no later than May 1st of any calander year, during the term of lease or any of its renewals, when the City has a use for the land other than agricultural. In other words, we feel that we or whoever is awarded the lease on this property should have a degree of protection for the investment they have in lime, fertilizer and seed in the property.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

(SIGNED)
Long Bay Ranch, Inc.,
H. R. Todd, Vice-President

It was moved by Mr. King, seconded by Mr. Kirkland that the City accept the bid of Long Bay Ranch, Inc. with change of Hay Rights. Upon roll call all members present unanimously voted AYE.

It was moved by Mr. King, seconded by Mr. Dilley that Ordinance Number 394, an Ordinance entitled,

Announces Candidacy For State Attorney

R. B. HUFFAKER

R. B. Huffaker, of Bartow, today announced he will be a candidate for state attorney for the Tenth Judicial Circuit, comprising Polk, Highlands and Hardee counties.

"In addition to experience gained during the past 18 months in the position for which I am a candidate, I was for one year an assistant county solicitor, and served as city attorney of Bartow for four years."

He was a member of the Florida National Guard when it was mobilized in the Fall of 1940 and served continuously in the Army until released from active duty as a sergeant, he was discharged as a major of ordance, serving two years overseas in Africa and Italy.

His civic and professional affiliations include Kiwanis, of which he is a past president, American Legion, Bartow Volunteer Fire Department, the Tenth Circuit, Florida and American Bar Associations, and Bartow Chamber of Commerce, which he is a director. He was one of the original trustees of and was instrumental in the creation of the Polk County Law Library which serves the courts and lawyers of the county and circuit.

In announcing his candidacy, Huffaker stated that he would continue to make all investigations and prosecutions without fear or favor. He also said that the office of state attorney should be ready to serve the people of the Tenth Judicial Circuit at all times and to help the Courts render fair and impartial justice to all.

4-H Boys At Camp This Week

Approximately 55 boys from Highlands County are attending camp at 4-H Camp Cloverleaf near Lake Placid this week. They left Monday, and will return Saturday morning. The mornings at camp are devoted mostly to improvement through classes in leather and wood craft, safety, wild life, and swimming. Sports take up most of the afternoon and include softball, horseshoes, shuffleboard, volly ball, and swimming. If there is any thing the boys enjoy doing more than playing, it is eating, which they get plenty of in the new cafeteria style dining hall. Singing and movies are the main events of the evening assemblies.

Other 4-H boys from St. Lucie, Charlotte, Indian River, and Osceola counties are camping this week with the boys from Highlands County.

Family Picnic At Florida Power Clubhouse Sat.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Florida Power Employees Club planned another Family Picnic for June 14, at their monthly meeting on Thursday night, June 5, in the Florida Power Clubhouse.

The last family picnic was such a success the members felt encouraged to arranged another one for Saturday. Each family is to bring whatever they want to eat to the picnic and drinks will be furnished. Five o'clock will be when supper is eaten. All members and their families are encouraged to come early and swim and boat, as well as play games, before supper.

Mrs. Durrah Martin gave the devotional message. Mrs. Robert Harden asked that members wishing to order aluminium trays to make for next Christmas please let her know as early as possible.

The hostesses, Mrs. Arlin King and Mrs. Ray Ruthterford, served delicious refreshments to Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Walter Sheverts, Jr., Mrs. Robert Harden, Mrs. Earl Sharpe, Mrs. Richard Birt, and Mrs. Lamarr Wild. Mrs. Wild will be hostess for the July meeting.

It's spring and once again Mama and Papa sparrow have taken up residence in the corner stop-light in the center of town. No doubt the heat from the lights helps with the hatching, leaving Mama more time for flitting. This is the only case where modern conveniences are for the birds!

Dick Von Burske made a hole-in-one after playing golf forty-four years. It happened on the Sebring course 16th hole Sunday afternoon which happened to be National Golf Day. Dick used a six iron to send the ball 150 yards and into the cup. Floyd Bowman, Bob Twitty and J. G. Cook were others in the foursome.

What a thrill that must have been. The closest we ever came to a hole-in-one was six.

BY GEN HURD

Ordinary run-of-the-mill incidents can suddenly become exciting dramas. Bill Nissen once learned, when he picked up a hitch-hiker who turned out to be an escaped asylum inmate, and one intent on murdering those responsible for his commitment to the institution.

What started out to be just another short trip into town became a long terrifying experience for Bill and it was with a huge sigh of relief that he delivered his passenger to an address where he was sure the fugitive would not find any of his intended victims.

When the Nissen's leave for their summer home in Green Bay, Wisconsin this week there will be no room for hitch-hikers. "Petey" the newest member of the family, a very intelligent talking parakeet will go along. He is presently engaged in learning the phrase, "Petey Nissen is going to take a trip in the car", which is a mouthful for any of our little feathered friends to say.

Mrs. Nissen will undoubtedly have a complete log of the trip in her diary which she started about thirty years ago and which must be some sort of a record for journal keeping.

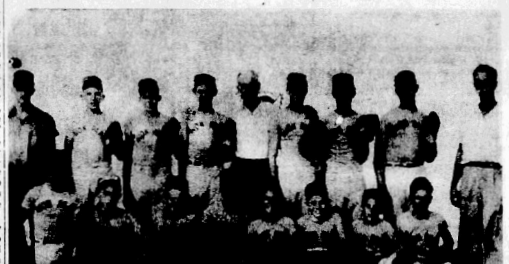
Parents are problems sometimes, and very puzzling to the small fry. This was especially true in the case of the little girl who was simply charmed by the electric hand drier in the ladies rest room and couldn't understand why her father didn't share her enthusiasm by going in with her to watch it operate.

—o—



Whenever there is an opportunity it's wonderful to visit a large city, to enjoy the man-made wonders there, to bask in the luxury and sparkle of the plush edifices, to get a little gaga over the glamorous glitter of the shops and their attractions. But getting back to the natural beauty of our little town with its lakes, trees and particularly the Mall is the sight that prompts the realization that while man-made beauty is great, it fights a losing battle in its competition with nature . . . And besides who can afford it?

It's time to renew that fishing license. July 1 is the deadline.

AVON PARK BABE RUTH LEAGUE—The newly organized league makes it possible for boys thirteen through fifteen to play baseball against other league teams in the surrounding area. The local team has played four games and won all four. The next game will be against Sebring JC's on June 26 and will be played on the home field at 5:30 p.m. They will also meet Frostproof at home on July 3 at 5:30; Sebring V.F.W. in Sebring at 7:30 p.m. on July 8 and Lake Placid on July 10, 4:00 p.m. in Lake Placid. Coaches of the team will meet and pick an All-Star team to play in district tournament at Ft. Myers July 20. Pictured are left to right, standing: Coach John Gambrell, Lehman Money, Jackie Seims, Bobby Bates, Rev. H. D. Graetz, Dale Batson, Phil Landress, Jimmy Bates and Jeff Barrow. Archie Morrison is also a member of the team but not shown in the picture.

Tennis Court To Be Ready For Use In Couple Weeks

Within the next couple of weeks the new tennis court constructed by the City of Avon Park will be ready for players to use. The new court has been poured in Donaldson Park, just north of the back door of the Post Office on Verona Avenue.

A steel mesh net for the court will be furnished by the Avon Park Junior Women's Club.

The City Council voted $1200 to build one court this year and another court will be built next year. Tennis classes will be conducted on the new court this year during the summer recreation program, and the public is welcome to use the court at all times.

Red Devils Set Record For High School Teams

During the past six years the Red Devils, under the coaching of Guy Garrett, have set some amazing records. For example only twice during those six years have the Devils failed to score in a game. Both of those shut-outs were handed the Devils this year. They have won 132 games while losing only 13. Just three Ridge Conference teams have ever beaten a Garrett-coached Red Devil nine - Kissimmee, Ft. Meade, and Sebring, once each!

This year Avon Park scored 235 runs in 28 games while their opponents scored only 77.

Chuck Anderson and John Starling carried the load on the mound this season. Chuck racked up 4-3 record and John had all the Devils to nine wins and lost only 2. Jim Cooper won three games on the mound while Bill Rouse and Gene (Lefty) Bass took credit for one win each.

Tommy Douberley, right fielder, proved to be one of the most improved players on the 1958 squad. Tommy hit well over .300 for the season and made only one error during the 28 games.

Five other Devils clouted the ball for better than .300 averages for the season - Bill Rouse, Wendell Williams, Chuck Anderson, Leroy Starling and Ryan Kempton.

The Red Devils lose six veterans from their 1958 squad.

Congratulations to the 1958 Red Devil baseball team - State Class A runners-up.

Hunting And Fishing Regulations To Be Discussed Tuesday Night

The first of three public meetings to be held this month on the proposed hunting and fishing regulations will be conducted Tuesday night, June 24, at 7:30 o'clock at the Jacaranda Hotel; the second will be held in the main auditorium of the Hillsborough County Courthouse, Tampa on June 25, and the third at 7:30 p. m. on June 26 in the main auditorium of the Fort Myers Civic Center.

All interested persons and organizations are invited to submit recommendations at these meetings to help formulate a set of final rules and regulations for the 1958-59 seasons.

Staff members of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will be present at each meeting to record ideas and suggestions, according to South Florida Reginal Manager Ed Timmons.

Timmons stated that proposals will include a move to change the regulation requiring Florida hunters to tag their deer and turkey. Another proposal by certain sportsmen, to allow hunters to harvest doe deer in some sections of the State, will be considered.

Youth Center Still Needs $50 Toward Doors

So near and yet so far, would be a good motto for the Avon Park Youth Association's drive for money for new doors and locks at the Youth Center, for they are still in need of a little better than fifty dollars.

Donations which have been made towards the replacement of wornout doors at the Youth Center were greatly appreciated by the Association. They still need money for another door and locks for all sixteen doors.

If you haven't written that check, won't you please do so now and mail it to Andrew Miracle, Youth Center Director, 64 N. Highlands Avenue, Avon Park.

Plat of Section O, of Highlands Park Subdivision was approved by the Board subject to the approval of the County Attorney, Clerk and Roger Miller.

Red Devils Bow To Key West 1-0 In State Finals At Fort Pierce

The Avon Park Red Devils bowed to Key West in the finals of the State Class A Baseball Tournament at Ft. Pierce last week by a score of 1-0 to wind up their 1958 season with a record of 23 wins and 5 losses and a State Class A runner-up trophy.

Avon Park gave up only one run in 16½ innings of play at Ft. Pierce dufing the three games they played in the state tournament, but that one run was enough to lose the State Championship for them.

Key West scored its winning run in the second inning when Sam Holland singled, stole second, went to third on a past ball, and scored when Young laid down a perfect bunt.

The Devils left a man on third three different innings as the Key West boys tightened up each time to prevent the Avon Park boys from pushing across the necessary run.

Lefty Chuck Anderson was credited with the loss. He gave up 5 hits and walked none. George Mira, Key West relief hurler, came on in the second inning with runners on second and third and only one out and struck out the next two Devil batters. Mira then proceeded to hold the Avon Park boys hitless as his team held on to their one run lead to take the championship.

This year marked Avon Park's eight appearance in the State Baseball meet during the past ten years. They last won the State Championship in 1955.

Electric Timer In Operation; Watch Your Speed

A number of motorists were stopped last Saturday night when the City Police Department set the new electric timer in operation on South Highlands Avenue.

The timer has been in use several times since it was purchased by the city and prior to Saturday night warnings had been issued. But those exceeding the speed limit Saturday night by more than 10 miles per hour received a fine.

The City was forced to purchase the electric timer due to the numerous complaints made by citizens relative to the speed rate of speed which motorists were traveling on a number of the streets within the city limits. Prior to the purchase of the timer had only been operated during the evening but from now on it will be set in operation at all time. Officers only vary a few minutes to set the electric timer up for use. It will be advised hereafter to please within the city limits at some time or other during every street within the city limits will be subject to the use.

Farm Safety Week

There's one coming event which every farm family in this country should welcome with enthusiasm. It's Farm Safety Week, to be observed during the July 20-26 period.

Farmers face all the common hazards of modern living. In addition, in the pursuit of their calling, they encounter special accident hazards all their own.

For example, take tractors and other mechanized farm equipment. These machines are absolutely essential to successful modern farming. The machinery engineers never lose sight of the safety factor. New safety devices are incorporated in the designs as soon as they are proven. Careful instructions concerning safe operation are issued. But all the precautions on earth will do no good if the users violate common-sense rules.

Youngsters are permitted to operate machines—and every so often a tragic and totally unnecessary death or maiming results. Farmers drive unlighted or inadequately lighted equipment on public roads at night—and the immutable law of averages says that this practice must end in disaster at frequent intervals.

Mechanically minded farmers sometimes get ideas for making changes in their equipment, or in adding accessories of their own design and construction. More often than not, this creates new dangers to the operator. It's a rare farmer indeed who has the engineering knowledge, the skill, and the facilities to improve on what the factory has done.

During Farm Safety Week, authorities will deal with all manner of farm hazards and show how they can be eliminated or minimized. It's an opportunity that agricultural American can't afford to miss.

The Biggest Flaw

How do Russian and U. S. Medicine compare? That question is a provocative one. And an answer has been supplied by Dr. Gunnar Gundersen, newly-elected president of the American Medical Association, who recently toured the Soviet Union.

His views appear in an extended interview in the May issue of Today's Health. All in all, what he has to say is highly reassuring. The Russians are not beating us in the race of medical progress. In some important fields, such as antibiotics and hormones, they've done little or nothing. For the most part, their hospitals and other facilities are crowded and the physical plants are below U. S. standards. Their medical schools seem to be about on a par with ours, and graduate work is also comparable. Doctors, if they have any instinct of self-preservation, must pretty well follow the Soviet political line, as must everyone else. To quote Dr. Gundersen directly, "Human life is not very precious in Russia. I believe medical care doesn't enjoy too high a priority."

Most significant of all, to many minds, is the last question asked of Dr. Gundersen: "What would you say would be the basic weakness of the Russian medical system as compared to ours?" He answered: "We place a great deal of emphasis on freedom in this country. I'm convinced this freedom just doesn't exist in that kind of economy. It doesn't exist under their system. That's the biggest flaw."

Freedom is our greatest resource.

A Vacation Hazard

Preparing for vacations takes work. Luggage must be checked, clothes bought, reservations booked, milk and newspaper deliveries stopped, electricity and telephone shut off, house plants, gardens, lawns and pets provided for.

If you are going abroad you need passports, visas, guide books and a whole series of vaccinations. This year there should be a new vaccine on your required list—the Salk vaccine.

But even if you are not leaving the country, vacation time is still a dangerous time for polio infection. One reason lies in the nature of the virus.

There are actually three types of polio virus that cause paralysis. They are known as Type 1, or the Brunhilde type, named after a chimpanzee from whom it was first recovered; Type 2, or the Lansing type, from Lansing, Mich., where it was first identified; and Type 3, or the Leon type, named after a Los Angeles boy who died of it.

In different parts of the country one type may, at any given time, be more prevalent than the others. If, for instance, you are going from California, where the Leon type may be most prevalent, to New York, where the Brunhilde type may be most prevalent, your natural immunity may no longer protect you. Or, even if you stay home, an influx of vacationers may bring in other virus types heretofore less prevalent in your area.

The virtue of the Salk vaccine is that it protects you against all three types. But unless you have been vaccinated yourself, you cannot be sure of immunity. Play safe and make vaccination a part of your vacation preparations.

Today's Forgotten Man

A spokesman for an association of some 800,000 retailers throughout the country, recently appeared before the Senate Subcommittee on Labor. He had formerly been connected with the National Labor Relations Board for many years. He told of grossly unfair union activities—including organizational picketing and secondary boycotts—which are being used against stores as well as other enterprises. He pointed to gross weaknesses in the existing law, which put employers at the absolute mercy of union chiefs. Then he said: "Unions today possess great economic power. They also possess legal immunities from the laws, possessed by no other citizen.

"I hardly need emphasize to this Committee the almost absolute control which unions have over our economy. A single man by whim or caprice can disrupt a vital segment of our business. A small business can be destroyed overnight—The shocking disclosures of the McClellan Committee, the theft and fraud on union members, cannot be imputed to personalities alone—They are, rather, a manifestation of laws which permit unbridled power to run rampant unshackled." These laws, he added, " . . . look with favor, not on the individual worker who is the forgotten man, but on increasing the monopoly controls of unions with no regard to the rights of other citizens."

These are strong words. But the evidence supports them to the last period.

Attendance at the convention was about 350, with AA members voting to hold next year's meeting in Jacksonville. The program at Orlando consisted largely of inspirational talks and personal experiences of those who had rehabilitated themselves through AA.

Dr. Lorant Foriza was scheduled to attend the Orange County Medical Society meeting at Orlando this Wednesday where he will be the principal speaker. Dr. Foriza was absent from the Center last week for a brief vacation.

Alroy and Juanita Waters are driving their grandmother, Mrs. Rest of Frostproof, to Texas. They will return from their two weeks' vacation June 30.

Rev. and Mrs. L. E. McRae, former residents here and now of Umatilla, visited here the past weekend with their daughters at the home of Mrs. Alvin Tottle on Lake Brentwood. Joanne Tootle returned with her grandparents for a two weeks' stay.

Center employees are looking forward to the completion of the air-conditioning project, which is still under way. About $83,000 worth of work is being done by Bennett & Mosley, Avon Park contractors, including four new offices, a patients' day room, and additional storage space added onto existing buildings.

A 30-minute color movie, depicting operations at the Center, is scheduled for release by late summer. The film is being made for the Program by the University of Florida's extension division, with George Crutcher in charge. It will follow the progress of a hypothetical patient from his referral by his family physician through the out-patient clinic and into the Center hospital.

Senior Reception Attended By Four Hundred

Four hundred parents and friends of the Avon Park Senior Class attended the Senior Reception on Tuesday night, June 10, following the graduation exercises.

The Senior Class officers greeted the guests and the whole class enjoyed serving the guests in the lovely Palm Room of the Jacaranda Hotel. Lovely flower arrangements, donated by friends of the Seniors, and placed at vantage points about the room added to the beauty of the scene.

The refreshment table was lovely with red gladioli and carnissa. Punch and cookies were served the guests.

There was dancing in the Dining Room of the Jacaranda to hi-fi music for the group. It was a very memorable evening for the graduates and the reception added to the enjoyment.

Miss Myrle Green And Robert Cook Married In Wauchula On June 5th

Miss Myrle Green, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Green of Wauchula, and Robert J. Cook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cook of Avon Park, were married at seven o'clock Thursday evening, June 5, in the Southside Baptist Church of Wauchula. The Rev. Eugene D. Baxley of Day read the marriage vows at the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, and green plants. The service was conducted by candelight.

A program of nupital music was presented by Mrs. Sam Southerland on the organ. Mrs. Virginia Patterson, soloist, sang "One Alone" and "Because".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and nylon tulle over bridal taffeta with a scalloped square neckline. She wore a single strand of Deltah pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her long lace sleeves came to points at her wrists and the fingertip veil of nylon net fell from a Juliet cap of lace outlined with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a lavender orchid.

Miss Marlette Exum, of Marianna, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a street length dress of pink taffeta with a full pleated skirt and a fitted bodice which draped in folds to formed shoulder sleeves and featured a v-neckline in front and back. Her headpiece was a pearl decked tiara and she carried a crescent bouquet of lavender pompons.

Upon arrival at the party each guest was given a piece of ribbon. This started a clever game in which no one was allowed to mention the young couples' names. If a guest slipped her ribbon was taken by the one who hear the slip. This gave everyone a lot of fun and was eventually won by Mrs. Jack Masters of Sebring. Mrs. L. D. Community Development—If I Were Planning My Home Town's Future, This Is What I Would Do

By BONNIE SUE ELDER

(Editor's Note: Bobbie Sue's essay won for her a U. S. Savings Bond in the annual Florida Power Corporation's "Scholarships for Leadership" essay contest. Senior classes of high schools in the 47 communities which have FPC-assisted improvement programs in effect were eligible to participate this year.)

I am the architect for planning the future of my home town—Avon Park. I have chosen this for my duty as a future citizen—a citizen who wishes to enter into a more important role in a more important Avon Park—an improved community.

Someday, perhaps, a wife, mother, teacher or possibly civic leader shall be my role and I should like to star in these vital parts, right here in my home town. So many times, the community isn't what it should be, and the young people, once they are old enough, move away to a more desirable community which offers a greater variety of opportunities in which to practice their talents. This results in a great loss to this community—especially in a small town, such as mine.

I, as everyone else, wish the best for my children. They need an amiable background—the community. Therefore, this is my reason for being concerned with its future, and mine.

To be a good citizen ones' environment means everything. In community development the citizens themselves are foremost. Often times in this type of project, one thinks only of material possessions. One of the main points in this essay will be the importance of the living, human resources of a community—its people. "A community can only be as good as its people." Therefore we must educate the people and encourage them to participate in civic affairs.

Once the light is ignited there is no telling how bright our community will shine for others to see and take notice. It will be the future inhabitants that will shape the destiny of this community.

For my children, their friends and play mates—the future citizens, for whom it is my concern to lay the foundation for more opportunities in a cognizant community—I shall plan for a good basic background—education.

For improvements and additions to our present educational system I shall strive to introduce the following plans:

(1) A modern kindergarten large enough, with adequate equipment to accomodate all children who wish to attend, be introduced in Avon Park. This would operate best if it were affiliated or consolidated with the elementary school. The children would become acquainted with the primary program, and become familiar with their future surroundings. Such a plan would enable them to make a favorable start in this most important phase in their young lives.

(2) In my estimation, Avon Park has a good educational program—but we must remember that it can always be better. It is my belief that special clubs organized in the high school could aid in developing future civic leaders. I suggest the following:

(a) A Garden Club to open the way for future members of the adult club. The students would gain added experience and knowledge, and thus, be apt to produce better programs in the community. They should create more worth-while projects for and around the school while they are students. This same type of plan could be used for all other civic organizations. If they can secure the students' interest at an early age, and then educate them in their work, the future citizens will accept community responsibilities.

(b) A key Club formed by one of the civic organizations would enable the students and adults to work more closely together.

(3) There is a need for a more practical type of education. This could be brought about by the following:

(a) An industrial school to train people for better jobs and wages.

(b) Hobby Clubs—especially for the tourist—and older adults.

(c) More extensive manual training instruction.

True, Avon Park is a small town, but one must remember no community is too small to profit from a plan for its future development. We are located in a state that is rapidly increasing in population, and thus we can expect a sudden growth in our small town, which is quickly rising in prestige. But we need something to fit us—we need to grow gradually. People are unhappy when they cannot take care of troubles created by growth or a boom. A small town can become too crowded, by bringing in an undesirable class of people. This presents another point; we should think of quality as well as quantity of our population.

It is through the quality of the people that our legislation is decided, our social problems handled, and all economic activities are carried out. We want our children to grow up in respectable surroundings. We want to attract the best to Avon Park.

In the planning of my home town's future I would like to see a small junior college founded here. A junior college would draw a large number of residents, who wish to enjoy the cultural atmosphere created by such a college. This would benefit the entire community—the residents, faculty, and students. Lectures, forums, concerts by glee clubs, orchestra, band, and opera workshops, faculty and student recitals, art exhibits and festivals, and dramatic presentations would be offered to them.

From this cultural background, little theater groups in the community could present Shakespearean drama. We would become a trademark! A theme as, "Avon Park—A Replica of Stratford-On-Avon", should certainly be established and broadened. A small replica of Shakespeare's birth place could be built by the side of one of our beautiful lakes just as Stratford is built on the Avon River. Just visualize a memorial theater surrounded by green grass and colorful formal gardens! Imagine the lake with white swans and families of ducks, and people in row boats, pausing to refresh their souls as do the people and visitors of the sedate yet happy England. Any number of "Shakespearean interests" (museums—relics) could eventually be erected through out the town—particularly around the lakes.

Florida is fast becoming an industrial state, and the tourist do not like the crowded conditions—nor the confusions. They find the people are not as friendly in such sitations. Thus, it would be better for us to take small industries, to make us a happy community. If we will remember that when the Grand Prix races begin in Sebring, our neighboring city, people from all over the world will be passing through our town. They will rent, eat, purchase and visit here. If they are impressed, they will return to their countries, and states, telling of "the beautiful little Stratford-On-Avon". That is our best advertisement.

I would also like to see a modeling or charm school begun in my community. Our girls have a need for such a school. It would produce a refined, self-poised young lady. It would make them career wise—something we need! I have thought of these projects because I do not wish for individual gain to come before civic beauty and welfare.

Recreation should play a large part in the life of each citizen. I am particularly interest in allotting the younger set with vacant lots in the neighborhoods. Other recreation plans are

(1) Clean up play grounds—add new equipment.

(2) Use school-gyms more frequently for function of the city—as it is public property.

(3) Build a miniature golf course, on one of our lovely lakes.

(4) Secure a bowling alley.

Much of our social life is centered around our good churches. Thus, more activities sponsoring clean fun, such as youth rallies, could be planned for young people, as well as for adults.

I would clean up the housing—especially Woodruff Heights and King's Court. I suggest a Committee of Citizens be appointed to investigate the conditions there, and report findings to the Council, and Council in turn to take action. Sufficient power must be given to a housing authority, and the entire neighborhood be included in the proposal. The buildings should be razed, and public or private agencies should be allowed to build new housing projects. Co-operative action by all home owners and residents in a neighborhood would improve conditions. A sewerage system offered to all residents of Avon Park, is sorely needed.

God favored the world with lovely make-up, for it was his wish to make it a beautiful place in which to live. Looking around Avon Park, we notice many assets that we have been blessed with. We can not, of course, have a duplicate of the Garden of Eden, but we can, however, improve on what has been graciously provided for our enjoyment of living. We can add to our community's basic beauty. As an artist carefully chooses the vivid blending of color schemes for his work, to make his art more beautiful, so we too may imprint our own designs using lovely color schemes. We possess a famous mall, of which we are all proud. But we must make it more attractive by adding a greater variety of colorful flowers. I would develop a "Mile-of-Flowers". We need attractions to entice people to wander through the mall and drink of its beauty. Everyone needs something lovely to brighten his life.

We have a gem, Lake Verona, in the midst of our community, which with aid could be made one of the high lights of Avon Park—the city of beautiful lakes. Walks, embedded with beautiful flowers and the grace and elegance of swaying palms, is what I would suggest should surround the towns' side of the lake. If possible, a colored fountain would be built in the center of the lake or at some focal point. Also, for night beautiful, colored lights should be placed in or under the palms. All lake side drives should be improved.

Through God's grace we have received, and now we must do our part, as citizens, to show our gratitude by doing all we can to make this a better community in which to live—for beauty, comfort, enjoyment, health, education, and for just plain happiness!

I, as designer of my home town's future, predict this title—"Avon Park, the City Beautiful" a community in which each individual wishes to be a part.

Love story

It seems this girl was so cr-r-azy about the service she got from her Phillips 66 Dealer that she'd buy only one gallon of Flite-Fuel at a time . . . just so she'd have an excuse to come back oftener.

It was rather trying for this Phillips 66 Dealer, considering all the free services he provides for every customer on every visit. Brushing out inside the car, for example. Cleaning the windows all around. Checking the tires, battery, and radiator.

It turned out just about as you'd expect. Such an obliging fellow, she decided, would be a handy man around the house. So she hooked him.

Trouble is that Phillips 66 Dealers are so dedicated to their jobs that household chores get short shrift. No moral here for wives. Obvious moral for motorists.

Swimming Pool Manufacturer Woos The Marriage Market

Demonstrating the theorem of politicians and economists alike that now is the time to buy, one manufacturer is taking the unprecedented step of offering a "special" on, of all things, a swimming pool.

For the month of June only, International Swimming Pool Corporation of White Plains, N. Y., has announced price cuts ranging from ten to twenty per cent on its Suburban pool, the smallest of the three standard Esther Williams Swimming Pools manufactured exclusively by the firm.

To spotlight the promotion, four of these pools will be given away on network television quiz shows whose combined viewership adds up to approximately 110,000,000 people. The shows are: The Price Is Right (appropriately!), Beat the Clock, Do You Trust Your Wife, and Dotto.

"We got to thinking about June," says Don Prusess, International's Chairman, in explaining the origin of the promotion, "and June led to noon and to orange blossoms and to Mendelssohn. And it struck us that a swimming pool was the ideal wedding present for the young couple who has everything, including a new home to move into."

The Suburban, he points out, is the perfect size (16 x 30 feet) for young couples in their first home, or for suburanites with a limited amount of backyard space.

In case a swimming pool however much reduced in price seems to be a little too rich for some benefactors' blood, there is the alternate suggestion of making a down payment as the gift and letting the newlyweds pay the deficit in monthly installments.

With the rapidly crescendoing popularity of home swimming pools (in 1958, it is estimated some 53,000 will be installed, compared with 44,000 during 1957), financing is available to most people of average means almost everywhere.

The sharp rise in swimming pool sales, even in the teeth of a recession, reflects in part a reorientation in attitude among middle-class Americans. No longer is a pool considered a luxury, but a practical investment. Time and again it has been demonstrated that a pool markedly increases the resale appeal and value of the property. Also it improves family relationships and physical fitness, blessings beyond evaluation in terms of dollars and cents.

Esther Williams Swimming Pools enjoy the distinction of being the only national brand name in the field and the only completely equipped pools on the market. The starting price is the final price, and purchase of an EWSP includes both installation and all the accoutrements that the "well-dressed pool" is wearing these days.

The Esther Williams representative in this area is Hollenberg and Wolfe in Sebring.

Thomas Maxwell Receives Diploma At Georgia Tech

Thomas H. Maxwell, Jr. was one of the 1197 graduates of Georgia Tech receiving diplomas on Saturday, June 7th, in Atlanta, Georgia. Edwin D. Harrison, president of Tech, presented the diplomas at the graduation ceremonies held in the Fox Theatre.

Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell, and a graduate of the Avon Park High School class of 1952. He has received from Georgia Tech a Co-op degree of Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering. During his co-op work plan, he was employed with Food Machinery Company in Lakeland, Florida. As a Senior at Tech, Thomas was Cadet Captain in the ROTC Corp of Engineers. He was an active member and held offices in The Methodist Wesley Foundation, and his fraternity Tau Kappa Epsilan, and in Sigma Phaanx of the Georgia Tech YMCA. Honorary Post Commander Forrest Johnson will be in charge of the Armory and grounds during the unit's absence.

Six year old Gene Landress, son of J. T. was overjoyed with his huge catch of pan fish. Now he can join some of the older anglers' bragging sessions.

A family of three monkeys live close by. They are owned by the Bob Silver family on Route 17 south.

On first sight the trio could be taken for a mother, father and baby, but on closer inspection they become three different species. The two larger monkeys are real friendly, the little one is more reserved. The reason there are three is because Mrs. Silver happens to like monkeys.

Since your reporter had never come in direct contact with one of these comical beasts, except to enjoy their antics through the bars of a zoo cage, she experienced mixed emotions. She experienced affection when kissed, pain when pinched, chagrin at having her hair inspected, uneasiness on having her ear inspected, complacency on being hugged, annoyance at finding a monkey tail wrapped around her head, surprise when he went in search of petticoat lace and relief when he lost interest and went back to Mrs. Silver.

Commission Vetoes School Board's Request For Race Track Money

A state survey team working with the Highlands County School Board has recommended a $1,400,000 building program to handle the anticipated classroom needs of the county for the next five years. It has been estimated that an additional 1,698 students will be enrolled in the county schools within this five year period.

To try and meet this need the School Board met with the County Commission in a special meeting on Monday night and requested the Commission to grant them the full amount of the county's share of the state race track money instead of only half which they have been receiving.

If the County Commission had granted this request it would have had to raise the millage approximately 3¼ mills to equal the amount that the School Board would be receiving. In a special called meeting Tuesday night the Commission voted unanimously to reject the proposal of the School Board. The Commissioners felt that if they granted the balance of the Race Track money to the School Board they would be unable to carry on their duties and to fulfill their obligations to the residents of Highlands County with out a huge increase in the millage rate. In view of these facts they could not go along with the School Boards request.

In the School Board's proposal it was stated that under the present set up the total amount of revenue for the School Board, from all sources for capital outlay (new buildings), for the next five years would amount to only $525,000 and an additional $875,000 is needed.

In the School Board's request, prepared and presented by Fred Wild, Superintendent, this need could be met with the race track money at a saving to the taxpayers of $200,000. If the race track money is not granted to the School Board a bond issue of one-half million dollars will have to be made. The $200,000 savings would be the cost of selling the bonds, interest on the bonds and the cost of collecting said bonds for a period of twenty years.

Mr. Wild also said that the granting of the race track money to the Board would allow the new school building program to be completed on a pay as you go basis and save the taxpayers what the bond issue would cost.

The state survey team recommended construction of a new elementary school in Sebring, but the School Board has suggested adding nine classrooms to the Woodlawn Elementary School as an alternate move. The Board is awaiting a decision from the state before taking any action on the addition.

By adding the nine rooms instead of building a new school the Board can save $115,000 of the recommended $1,400,000 needed by the schools in the next five years. $200,000 of the recommended amount is already arranged for in the construction of the seven new rooms at the Avon Elementary School and in the addition at the Hopewell School. The School Board feels that over the next five years they can further trim the recommended $1,400,000 by another $60,000 this way they can meet the recommendations made by the state in improving and enlarging schools in Highlands County to take care of the estimated 1,698 students which will be enrolled in the next five years.

Haley Announces His Candidacy For Re-Election

Congressman James A. Haley, Sarasota, Florida, today announced his candidacy for re-election as Representative in Congress for the Seventh Congressional District of Florida. The seventh district is composed of DeSota, Hardee, Manatee, Highlands, Polk, and Sarasota Counties.

In announcing his candidacy, Haley stated, "In the past six years of service in the Congress, I have gained a firm understanding of the problems facing this nation as well as an appreciation of the 'know-how' necessary to more effectively represent the people of Florida and the seventh district. The seniority I have accumulated will place me in a better position to serve in the next Congress. If re-elected, I will continue to work for more efficient operation of the Federal Government and the reduction of non-essential expenditures. I will continue to oppose all attempts made by the Federal Government to encroach upon those matters which are more properly within the domestic affairs of the states."

Haley has an extensive background as a successful businessman, devoted civic leader, and dedicated public servant. Haley, an accountant by profession, was connected with an accounting firm in Sarasota, Florida, from 1925 to 1933. His ability attracted the attention of John Ringling, and in 1935, Haley withdrew from his accounting firm to become associated with Ringling. Upon the death of Ringling, Jim Haley was placed in charge of the vast holdings of the circus magnate, and subsequently served as president and director of the famed Ringling Brothers Barnum & Bailey Circus, from which position he resigned in 1948. Clean - Up, Don't Burn Up

The following article has been released from the office of Fire Chief W. W. Giddens in the interest of Fire Prevention and Fire Safety.

Each year rubbish and litter cause thousands of fires resulting in untold damage and loss of life. A thorough clean-up of your home and premises, as well as your business or commercial establishment, your manufacturing plant or workshop, can help prevent such fires.

Get rid of old newspapers and magazines that may have accumulated in the attics, closets, and garages.

Clean up after painting jobs. Throw out paint and oil-soaked rags or keep them in a metal closed container. Hang up paint-soiled clothing so air can circulate around it.

Avoid using flammable liquids. Remove them from your home.

Check electrical appliances. See that they are in good repair and that cords are not worn or frayed. Any needed repair work should be done by a qualified electrician.

Clean up your yard. Keep grass cut low around building.

The Avon Park Fire Department solicits your continued support in the never-ending Fire Prevention Campaign for this community. The fire loss and number of alarms answered are at a low figure for the first half of 1958 as compared to recent years. We appreciate the support and cooperation we have received from the general public and the residents of Avon Park and sincerely hope that we will continue to have your support and cooperation in the interest of Fire Prevention for your community.

A beautiful white sandy beach will greet the swimming classes and bathers at the City Beach on Lake Tulane. Work was begun Tuesday by the City to enlarge the City Beach. They are having white sand pumped up from the lake and a lot of the grass in the water cleared away. When completed the beach will be between 20 and 25 feet wide and 200 feet long.

The City has also had posts driven into the ground every four feet to prevent cars from rolling into the lake. There will still be plenty of room for parking between the posts and the street.

The City is installing these posts for the protection of the swimmers and those playing on the beach are requested to stay on the lake side of the posts.

It is hard to believe but three cars have rolled into Lake Tulane in the past year. The last one was Friday afternoon. Pat Copeland had driven a car owned by her mother, Mrs. Mildred Alsabrook, down to the lake and parked. After awhile for some unknown reason the car began to roll and ended up in the lake near the spot where the bathers were in swimming. What started the car to rolling is unknown for no one was near it at the time.

The City is making a request that the bathers do not use the old vacant church building for a dressing room. The Council has received a number of complaints about teen-age boys dressing in the old building. Action will be taken by the City for any misconduct carried on down there.

Need For Investment Education

The investment picture has undergone a tremendous change in this country in recent times. Not so many years ago only a handful of people, relatively speaking, bought stocks and other obligations of corporations. Now the number of such shareowners runs far into the millions, and the bulk of them are men and women of moderate means.

Yet there is a serious deficiency in the general public's knowledge of the investment process. As an example, an independent public opinion survey revealed that fewer than one adult out of four could define a common stock, or describe the functions of a stock exchange.

Consequently, it has long been believed that investment education in the nation's schools and colleges should be broadened. An important step in that direction has now been taken. Early in May the first of a series of conferences was held at the New York Stock Exchange. In attendance were 17 education leaders from 15 states, representing state departments of education, colleges and city school systems. The purpose of this meeting, and of others which will be scheduled in the future, is to generate some practical ideas that will lead to a new awareness of the importance of investment education. One of the areas for discussion was the "when and how" of incorporating such courses in school curricula.

This program has enormous potentialities. The American economic system of the present has been aptly described as a "people's" capitalism". The need is to show more people—and especially young people—just how that kind of capitalism works.

Into Thin Air

The American motorist still drives on a fuel which has risen only 6 per cent in price since 1925, where other every-day commodities have soared by well over 200 per cent in that same period of time.

How is this possible? One big reason is found in scientific progress. An interesting example of this lies in evaporation control.

Crude oil and gasoline stored above ground evaporate. The loss is absolute—fuel literally goes away into thin air. So oil scientists have long studied and applied various ways and means to curb evaporation. In one method, hollow plastic spheres can be floated on the surface of the stored fuel, forming a floating roof which cuts crude evaporation by as much as 95 per cent in some cases. Another method, pressure vacuum vents are used as evaporation-reducing mechanism. In a third, central gathering tanks are installed and in one instance these have saved a daily loss by evaporation of 10,000 gallons of raw gasoline, butane and propane.

This simply illustrates the fact that research, science and experimentation are among the oil industry's most vital tools. They have produced outstanding achievements in a long list of fields—in better gasoline and lubricants; in techniques for getting more oil and gas out of wells and thus conserving this vital resource; in making possible the creation of valuable new articles through the miracle called petrochemistry. And last, but certainly not least from the consumer point of view, they have made it possible to hold prices far below what would have been the case otherwise.

Consumers Vote With Dollars

"Consumers, the people who vote with their dollars every time they enter a store, have been voting strongly in favor of livestock producers," says Farm Journal editorially "Steers and hogs have been selling at higher prices than for several years."

And this, the magazine goes on, raises a potent question: "Will farmers make more money by dealing with people when they vote as consumers, or by dealing with them when they vote through their politicians and Government? It is as simple as this: should prices—or politicians—guide farmers?

The livestock people have always fought against government supports. They have had their troubles, including seriously depressed prices. But they have operated, with full willingness, in the free market. And now, as the Journal points out, they are receiving their reward in the form of higher values.

Then the magazine turns to the supported crops, taking corn as an example. This feed has been "running out of our ears and selling cheaper than it has for years." Moreover, the agricultural area that has prospered least this spring has been the Southeast. Weather was a factor in that. But weather to one side, the Southeast is also the region with the most price supports and controls, its principal crops being cotton, peanuts and tobacco.

The moral is summed up succinctly: "The farmers who are raising crops to attract the dollar votes of consumers in the market are doing much better than those who are raising crops for the Government to store.

"The evidence, don't you think, is pretty convincing?"

Dorothy Thompson looks at the present: "Ours is the age of 'adjustment' and 'togetherness'—and to hell with it!"

Beyond Price

The people can hardly be blamed for taking with a grain of salt some of the government's indictments of industry. For example, five years ago it sued a group of oil companies, claiming they had overcharged the Economic Co-Operation Administration and the Mutual Security Agency. Five years later the suit was dropped—a Federal judge found that the oil prices charged were the lowest competitive market prices.

The suit of the government against a group of firms that manufacture Salk vaccine is reminiscent of the oil case. It accuses them of fixing the price charged the government.

A point of public interest in these cases is that when the government needed oil it got it. When it needed vaccine it got it. In two short years paralytic polio has been reduced more than 80 per cent. That is beyond price.

Many agencies cooperated to perfect Salk vaccine and then the manufacturers made it available to millions of persons virtually overnight. Never in the history of medicine was such a remarkable job done, or such headway made in eradicating one of our most dreaded diseases, in such a short time.

Regardless of what the courts may eventually decide the public is thankful that the vaccine resulting from Dr. Salk's history making discovery is ready and waiting for it.

New Insignia And Titles Of Rank Given In Military Pay Revision

Non-commissioned officers and specialists of the United States Army have been given new insignia and titles of rank in accordance with the recent revision of the military pay structures, the Department of the Army announced.

New enlisted grades E-8 and E-9 were created by the military pay leadership positions of the Army such as First Sergeants, Sergeant Majors and positions occupied by technically qualified non-commissioned officers in the critical areas and to accommodate selected highly critical specialist personnel. Promotions into the newly authorized grades will be phased over four years, with initial promotions being limited to personnel selected to occupy First Sergeant and Sergeant Major positions. The phasing of subsequent promotions into other key leadership and critical specialists positions will be initiated during the Second Quarter of Fiscal Year 1959.

The Army said the titles for non-commissioned officers of these two grades have been designated as Master Sergeant or First Sergeant, as appropriate, and Sergeant Major, respectively.

The Army emphasized that specifications and standards for the new insignia are being developed and will be made available to manufacturers. New insignia required by Army personnel as a result of the realignment of enlisted titles and insignia will be issued without cost to the individual concerned.

Today, quotas for 400 promotions, Army-wide, to enlisted grade E-8, were authorized by the Army Department Headquarters.

With the institution of the two new top grades, changes in insignia and titles among some of the lower grades of non-commissioned officers have also become necessary. The present title of Master Sergeant for enlisted grade E-7 will be changed to Platoon Sergeant or Sergeant First Class, according to assignment. Enlisted grade E-6, now carrying the title of Sergeant First Class, will be known as Staff Sergeant. In the enlisted grade E-5, Sergeant, the grade insignia will no longer include an arc below the chevrons. Thus the insignia of "Buck Sergeant" will be reintroduced in the Army ranks.

The change-over to new insignia will be permitted on an evolutionary basis as replacement of uniforms and insignia are required.

A Voice From Avon Park Prison

For the first time in the history of Florida Penology, an inmate of one of Florida's penal institutions is being invited to express himself regularly in a free-world newspaper. For this opportunity we are all grateful. We have the Officials of the Division of Corrections and the Avon Park Prison, as well as the type institution in the State of Florida was not only possible, but practical. Mr. L. L. Wainwright, Superintendent of APP and a confirmed believer in Mr. Culver's convictions, has skillfully brought APP's first year of existence to a successful conclusion.

The basic idea behind treatment and training at APP has been to give the inmate confidence in himself and to thrust upon him the responsibility of guarding himself, rather than having prison guards do the job for him . . . there are no guards at APP. The Staff is made up of correctional officers who serve as counselors and guides for the population. Honor has been placed at the top of the list of values acquired by new arrivals here.

For years it has been the goal of forward thinking psychologists and sociologists to develop a workable system of rehabilitation in the nation's penal institutions. Over a period of time, many of these ideas have been adopted with excellent effect. With each new development, however, people like Pegler and Ruark must stick in their two-cents worth in an effort to pan the advancement as a radical idea that will never work. What are their opinions??? It has always been known that a convict is slightly less than human and as such should be treated as a sub-human animal . . . the only way to insure a convict will walk the straight and narrow, is to make it so rough on him that he won't dare come back to prison . . . so some "kick off" in the process . . . no loss!"

Pegler and Ruark aren't the only doubting Thomases. There were doubters at Kitty Hawk, too. There were unbelivers present at the first major surgery performed under anesthesia. These psychologists and sociologists have made the study of penology a life time job. They are firmly convinced that each case must be treated individually and treatment applied accordingly. A man serving time for murder cannot be put in the same class with a man that has been convicted of manslaughter; a person found guilty of crimes against nature could not be successfully treated in the same way as an armed robber.

Avon Park Prison was instituted as an experiment that is proving itself successful. Mr. Richard O. Culver, Director of Florida's Division of Corrections, was convinced that such an honor

The basic idea behind treatment and training at APP has been to give the inmate confidence in himself and to thrust upon him the responsibility of guarding himself, rather than having prison guards do the job for him . . . there are no guards at APP. The Staff is made up of correctional officers who serve as counselors and guides for the population. Honor has been placed at the top of the list of values acquired by new arrivals here.

Life at APP has its interesting, humorous, and sometimes sad aspects. It will be this writer's aim in future articles to cover some of these happenings with the hope that through reading about us, you the readers, may come to know and understand us and some of our problems.

ACL President Urges Inauguration Of "Your Blueprint For Survival"

W. T. Rice, President of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, signified his gratitude today at the response of Coast Line employees and their friends to the inauguration of the "Your Blueprint For Survival" program.

The program, designed to urge all interested in the railroads' "survival" as private enterprise, is receiving support from every section Coast Line territory, said Rice. He pointed out that the seriousness of the situation that now exists in the railroad industry and particularly in the area served by Coast Line will require positive legislative action to avoid disaster for an industry that is basic to our American way of life.

The program was inaugurated by Rice at Jacksonville, Fla., May 29, at a meeting of 200 officers and supervisory officials. Plans were formulated at that time to enlist the aid and support of all active and retired railroad employees, friends, suppliers and shippers in pending transportation legislation. A speakers bureau was formed to aid in spreading effectively the story brought out in testimony before the Smathers Committee.

Quoting Senator George Smathers of Florida, Chairman of the Committee, "The railroad industry is a sick one" and "under present conditions railroads cannot survive," President Rice urged positive support for the forming of a stabilized national transportation system.

A special issue of the "Atlantic Coast Line NEWS", with the title "Your Blueprint for Survival", tells the story of the industry's plight and the importance of pending railroad bills in Congress to the economy of the nation. It asks that all employees, after learning the facts, contact their Congressmen and ask them to support transportation legislation in this time of desperate national crisis.

"I have, have you?" - This phrase is being heard all over the Coast Line, said Rice. In every office over company telephones this slogan has replaced the customary form of greeting. Large buttons bearing this phase are much in evidence, signifying that the individual has written to his Congressman asking that he support the Smathers Bill.

"All of the nation's railroads have joined in this fight for survival", said President Rice. Caught in the web of recession, with falling revenues, and less than half a month's operating capital on hand, he stated, the transportation industry is in urgent need of legislative assistance or our way of life as we know it today could be lost.

Boy Scout News

Five Scouts from Troop 156 of the Avon Park Scouts proved that they could get along very well in the woods without the comforts of civilization on Thursday and Friday of last week. Scoutmaster Elton Lawrence paid them a visit on Friday morning with pork and beans 'just in case' and found that they had been eating very well from the land and scorned his offering.

The boys were on a Survival Camp in a swamp north of Highlands Hammock and each one took only a knife, a hatchet, and one fish hook. With these simple tools they had caught a large number of fish, frogs, and cut swamp cabbage and made out more than well. They took no water but boiled the swamp water for safety and practiced the rules of the survival camp.

Norman Cook, a former Scout, was the leader and the Scouts were Jimmie Lyles, Jimmie, Bobby and Billy Bates.

At their Monday night meeting Troop 156 held a Board of Review with three boys going up for second class Scouts and one for first Class Scout.

In calling for support of the program, Weathersbee said, "All communities are being asked to give consideration to this and similar programs that could mean the survival of our way of life."

What Makes A Volunteer Fireman

What makes an otherwise ave age man give his time, his money, his efforts and sometimes his life to help other people?

There are many kinds of volunteers, but none can match the fireman for complete generosity. He donates time he could be spending on pleasures or projects to benefit himself.

He gives money to buy equipment because sometimes it is the only way to get it.

He offers whatever skills he has to build and improve his fire department.

He is ready to drop everything and run whenever one of his neighbors is in trouble.

Then, because he believes so strongly in his cause, he spends more time trying to get others to support it.

The fact that he seeks this support from those whom he is dedicated to help should make his easiest task.

But it isn't always so. Sometimes he has to prove the need.

Sometimes the proof lies in the smouldering ashes of a home he hasn't been able to save. Sometimes he becomes discouraged, resentful, bitter at the apparent lack of interest in his cause.

But his own belief is not shaken. He is a fireman - a volunteer fireman.

Civil Defense For Adult Americans

Two classes of Specialists:

Certain types of civil defense work, especially those concerned with war disasters, may require the training of specialized personnel. Radiological monitors, auxiliary firement and police, decontamination squads, and the like are the specialists that we most readily think of. But there is an even greater need for specialists whose work is not necessarily directly concerned with recovery from a disaster but rather with organizing for its prevention or disseminating necessary knowledge. We are very short of the part-time teachers who are needed to teach us what to know, what to do and how to behave in the event of civil disaster. This sort of specialist is primary; the teaching force trains the work force and conditions the public.

Uncoordinated Effort Spells Frustration:

The shortage of volunteer teachers, either professional or lay, who know what to do and teach does not imply that nothing has been done. A great number of training programs have been put on by educational institutions without any governmental prompting because there are always a few people who look into the future and feel a responsibility for preparing the public for what may come. Except in certain states, these programs have often been sporadic, isolated, uncoordinated, unrelated to other activities and for this reason not always productive of good results. Complaints are heard from conscientious people who have organized such courses that training a number of persons was futile as there was nothing for these persons to do. They went back to communities after a training course and found either no place to report for duty or a place to report but no duties to carry out. Many of them had been trained in radiological monitoring or some such specialty but were given no training in how to begin an organization in their local community. Eventually they ceased to try - and a laudable voluntary effor was ultimately waster.

It is obvious that if people are to be trained, the training must lead to action; this is one of the most elementary principles of education. Action in and for a community, as distinct from action in our personal lives, requires at least a minimum organization and a plan. Civil defense, ttherefore, includes two main types of organizations, one concerned with training people for special functions, including that of teaching others, and one concerned with organizing and providing the activities which these trained people will carry out.

Report From Congressman Jim Haley

Washington, D. C.—On Thursday of last week, the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee favorably reported to the Floor of the House a bill which I introduced known as H. R. 9521. The purpose of the bill is to afford relief to industry and consumers from the effects of a ruling of the Food and Drug Administration that fresh fruits and vegetables bearing harmless residues are present. There has been some opposition to this bill due principally to the fact that many in the larger cities do not understand the difficulties presented to the farmer and processor of fresh fruits and vegetables as well as the retail store in making available marketable produce in an eatable condition to the consumer. I want to emphasize that the question of safety or health is not involved in this legislation, inasmuch as these factors are effectively covered by the so-called Miller Amendment to the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act. In fact, Mr. John L. Harvey, Deputy Commissioner, Food and Drug Administration, during hearings on H. R. 9521, agreed that these factors were not involved in the bill.

One of the reasons this bill is necessary is due to the interpretation given to the Food and Drug Act by the Food and Drug Administration. For example, they take the position that if an orange or other fresh fruit has been treated with a preservative, such treatment makes the fruit a fabricated or manufactured article. I am afraid our farmers will find it rather difficult to understand how an orange or other fresh fruit or vegetable can be classified a manufactured article. Another reason for the bill is that if a farmer sprayed his vegetables one night with some insect killer, and harvested those vegetables the next day, the vegetable would not have to be labeled. However, if he treated his vegetables after he harvested them, even though the treatment was certified as completely safe, the vegetable or fresh fruit would have to be labeled under the interpretation of the Federal Food and Drug Administration. Another reason for this bill is that it is simply not practical to label each potato, orange, cucumber, or other raw agricultural commodity. This fact seems to be difficult for some of the "city folks" to understand.

I will continue to make every effort to secure enactment of this legislation which is so very important to the fresh fruit and vegetable industry, as well as to the consumer. If it were not for the use of these harmless preservatives to protect fresh fruits and vegetables from insect infestation, the consumers in the metropolitan areas would be unable to secure such produce in an eatable condition and at a price they could afford.

FOREIGN CARS

Many Have Asked Me Why I Am Not Selling Foreign Cars.

HERE IS MY HONEST ANSWER.

Americans are quite FAD HAPPY. Sack dresses are a good example. The foreign car fad will soon pass away. Then thousands and thousands of Fad Happy Americans will be trying to trade off a worn and used foreign car that there will be very little market for. Do you think you could sell Sack Dresses two years from now? I hope not.

If American car manufacturers tried to sell the American public such discomfort—inefficiency—and lack of progress, as do foreign car makers, our American public would laugh them to scorn.

11 million or 1 out of every 6 workers hold jobs in Automotive and related industry.

One out of every 6 businesses in the U. S. A. is automotive or a related business.

8 Billion dollars a year is collected in direct taxes on Autos, gasoline, Highway, bridge and tunnel tolls.

The Auto Industry buys one fifth of all steel used in the U. S. A. Three fifths of all rubber used in U. S. A., two fifths of all lead, seven tenths of all upholstry leather, and large amounts of other products, copper, nickel, aluminum, glass, cotton, paint etc. (U. S. News and world report for June 13, 1958)

There are 320 man hours or 8 weeks work put in each American car manufactured including all componant parts. Each foreign car sold costs our American economy that much time loss.

We send millions of dollars to foreign countries to help them make cars to send over here to put our men out of work, and cost our factories the profit they would have made on the cars they would have sold.

I need and like to make a profit, but I do not believe a profit to me on a few foreign cars is worth the cost to our great nation that the sale of foreign car costs.

Some people are of the opinion that foreign cars are all that sell any more. I would like to state that for every Foreign car sold in the U. S. A. there are 19 American cars sold here. But they should be all American made.

My Tour To The Holy Land

By Mrs. M. E. Wild

Editor's Note: The report of Mrs. Wild's tour of the Holy Land will be published in three installments, watch for it each week in the Avon Park Sun.

Beirut, Lebanon, Monday, December 23, 1957.

12:00 noon: I went with my daughter Caroline, in a Army attache car to the Union National Building, where we met a group of people from the Community Church of Beirut, who were going on a Christmas Tour of "The Holy Land", cars of the "American Colony Tours" took us to the International airport.

1:15 P. M. I left Beirut, Lebanon, in the airplane called "Middle East" with my daughter, Caroline and some of the people of the Tour Group to go to Jerusalem, Jordon. The other people of the Tour Group went in the airplane called "Air Liban".

The weather was sunny, fair and mild. In the airplane we went over the Mediterranean Sea, and over the mountains, and over the clouds. The stewardess served us a nice lunch in the airplane. We had a good flight and at 3:40 p.m. we landed at Jerusalem.

When we got off the airplane at Jerusalem an officer took our passports and we got them back later.

We went in the Jerusalem Airport waiting room and waited there for awhile, then the Tour Group of forty-five people went outside by the airport and had their pictures taken, then we went to the passport office and got our passports, then we went in cars to the American Colony Hotel.

Rev. Dewey Eder, Pastor of the Community Church of Beirut, and Mrs. Eder, were on the tour and they were efficient leaders of the Group.

4:30 P. M. We met in a large sitting room on the second floor of the American Colony Hotel, which they called the "Upper Room", where they served us tea and Rev. Eder gave us a talk about the program of the Tour of "The Holy Land".

5:00 to 7:00 P. M. We went to visit Miss Halaby's Refugee Handiwork Shop, where they sell embroidered articles that are made by the refugees.

7:00 P. M. We went to the American Colony Hotel and had dinner.

9:00 P. M. The Tour Group met in the "Upper Room" and had a Evening Worship Service, then we went to our rooms for the night. Some of the people of the Tour Group had rooms at the American Colony Hotel. My daughter and I had rooms at the "American School of Oriental Research".

Tuesday, December 24, 1957. Jerusalem, Jordon. The weather is sunny, fair and cold. This is the second day of my Tour of "The Holy Land" with my daughter and a Group of people from the Community Church of Beirut.

8:00 A. M. We had breakfast at the American Colony Hotel.

8:30 A. M. The people who were on the Tour of "The Holy Land" met in the "Upper Room" for morning worship and a talk about plans for the day.

9:00 A. M. We left the Hotel in cars for a visit to the "Old City of Jerusalem". We walked on the street called "Via Dolorosa," or the "Way of the Cross", which marks the route that Jesus walked carrying His cross.

We went in the "Church of the Holy Sepulchre", which is on the traditional site of the Crucifixion, Burial and Resurrection of Jesus. This site of "The Church of the Holy Sepulchre" stood outside the city walls at the time of Jesus and included Calvary, where Jesus was crucified and the Garden of Joseph Arimathea, where in Jesus was buried. The early Christians worshipped secretly in these places.

We went to the "Temple Area", where Jesus, "Cast out all them that sold and bought in the Temple and overthrew the tables of the money changers".

We went to the "Dome of the Rock", also called "The Mosque of Omar", which is a mosque that is built over the "Sacred Rock", on the summit of Mount Moriah. We had to take off our shoes to go in this mosque. Some of the people put on slippers that were provided at the Door of the Mosque, and some walked in their stocking feet. There were carpets on the floor. I walked in my stocking feet. The "Sacred Rock" is said to be the place where Abraham prepared to sacrifice his son, Isaac, and where the "Thresing Floor" was that David bought from Ornon the Jebusite, and "Solomon's Temple" was built here, and later "King Herod the Great" built a Temple which was here at the time of Jesus.

We went to "The Mosque of Al-Aqsa", which is near "The Dome of the Rock". We had to take off our shoes to go in this mosque. Some of the people put on slippers and some walked in their stocking feet.

We went to the "Wailing Wall", which is believed to be a part of the wall of "Herod's Temple". The Temple and the City of Jerusalem was destroyed about forty years after the death of Jesus.

The Jews went to the "Wailing Wall" to wail and mourn, because the Temple and the City of Jerusalem was destroyed.

The "Wailing Wall" was also used by the Jews as a place of prayer.

12:30 P. M. We went to the American Colony Hotel where we had lunch.

2:00 P. M. The Community Church Tour Group left Jerusalem in cars to go to Bethlehem, the "Little Town" where Jesus was born, eleven miles from Jerusalem.

We had a Guide and a Police officer go along with us. The road was very winding among the mountains and hills and valleys. When we arrived in Bethlehem we went in the "Church of the Nativity", which is built on the traditional place where Jesus was born in the "Little Town of Bethlehem" on that "First Christmas Night".

4:00 P. M. We went to a "Christmas Eve" Service at "Shepherd's Field", where the angels brought the "Good Tidings" of the birth of Jesus to the shepherds as they sat on the ground watching their flocks by night. When we got to the "Shepherd's Field" it was raining and they had the service in a cave called a "Grotto". They sang Christmas Carols, and they served us a "Shepherd's Supper" of Arab bread and roast lamb sandwiches, which was like a large pancake folded over with meat inside. After the service in the "Grotto" we went back to Jerusalem.

7:30 P. M. We had dinner at the American Colony Hotel. Some of the people went back to Bethlehem for the nine o'clock Christmas Carols and the Mid-night services.

Board To Equip Old School Bus As Science Demonstration Center

The Highlands County School Board has decided to convert one of the old school busses into a Science Demonstration Center. The bus, equipped with the latest scientific equipment, will be for use for all the schools in the county. The cost to equip the bus will be approximately $1500 which is much less than what it would take to furnish the same equipment to each of the schools. The Board also voted to increase the regular school budget for supplies to cover the Science funds.

Resignations were accepted by the Board from Michael Whetstone, Jr., teacher at Avon Park High School; Ruth W. Johnston, teacher at the Woodlawn school; Estele J. Vereen, teacher in the E. O. Douglas School and Louise Henley, Secretary at the Woodlawn School. Mrs. Charles F. Hall was appointed secretary at the Woodlawn School and Mrs. Lois Hunt as secretary-bookkeeper at the Sebring School.

Dr. S. A. King of Avon Park and Dr. Johnson of Sebring were designated as physicians to examine school bus drivers for the 1958-59 school term.

The deficits in the county lunchroom accounts for the closing school term amounted to $19,289.65, of this amount $16,151.80 was for the milk account. The Board voted to pay these bills out of the school budget.

Bids were opened from those desiring to furnish five (5) sixty passenger school busses, the bid for bus bodies was awarded to Carpenter and for the International chasis to South Florida Motor Co.

Bill's Air Conditioning of Avon Park was awarded the bid for five window type air-conditioning units for county instructional offices.

The Board received bids from those desiring to furnish gym floor finish and floor cleaner. DeLaney Hardware of Avon Park got the order for the Johnson Wax; the bid for 100 gallons Super Gym Finish went to Hilliard, and a 100 gallon bid for Gym finish to Dealer Sales. The balance of the order was divided fifty-fifty between Hilliard and Dealer Sales Co.

A. P. Bell of Fort Meade was awarded the bid for repairing typewriters for a three year period beginning July 1, 1958. His bid was for $7 per year per machine which includes the cost of parts and service.

The Board rejected all bids from those desiring to furnish typewriters and authorized the secretary to purchase at less money a new bid ten new demonstrators from the Highlands Office Supply in Sebring at $153 per machine. Beaford Stationary, Lakeland received the bid for new adding machine, at $198.50.

The Board awarded the bid for miscellaneous lumber to be used for window repair at the Lake Placid School to Bill Mackay of Sebring.

The resignation of Leonard J. Sheltine as principal-teacher of the DeSoto City School was accepted by the Board and Billy C. Cason was appointed as principal-teacher.

The use of a school bus to be used to transport a group of students from place to place in the county where the summer program will be operating was approved. The Board also granted the request from the American Legion Post from Avon Park and Sebring for use of a school bus to transport Junior American Legion Ball Team to their games, also for a bus to transport 4-H Club Girls to 4-H Camp at Lake Placid. The request from Camp Director of Camp Sparta for use of school bus to transport campers on educational tours was rejected.

Highlands County will furnish the school bus this year to take boys to Boys State at Tallahassee. Expenses will be paid by the Association which sponsors Boys State.

An extension was granted to the Rives Construction Company of the completion date for the Library building at Lake Placid until July 15, 1958.

Jim Heim presented the preliminary plans for the classrooms to be constructed at the Hopewell School, these plans were approved by the Board after inspection.

Congregational Church News

The Vacation Bible School pupils entertained their parents and friends with an Open House in the Educational Building on Friday night, June 20. At this time the boys and girls exhibited their work and one group gave an example of their day's program.

After the parents had visited in the rooms refreshments of cake and punch were served in the Social Hall. Mrs. John Hood, Mrs. P. C. Boney, Mrs. Ralph Kelley and Mrs. Charles Baker were in charge.

About forty of the Bible School children had a delightful picnic and swimming party on Friday morning, June 20, at the home of Mrs. Robert Haiden on Lake Denton. After swimming in the lovely lake and playing on the sandy beach the boys and girls ate hot dogs, slaw, chips, pickles, cake and cold drinks on the lawn. A number of mothers attended and helped the teachers with the children.

A Pot Luck Supper under the direction of the Ladies Aid was held in the Social Hall on Tuesday night with a number present. After the delicious supper Miss Carolyn Wild spoke on her recent two years in Lebanon.

Miss Wild worked in the American Embassy in Beruit, Lebanon, and her talk was especially interesting and timely due to the present world situation. She told a good deal of the history of the people there and some of their customs. Mrs. Max Wild and Miss Wild toured the Holy Land before returning home and she also spoke about their trip.

Miss Wild has many interesting souvenirs which she displayed to the group. Questions were asked by those present.

First Christian Church News

The members of the church held a Reception in the church on Saturday night, June 21, for William Turner, the new minister, with members of the Wauchula and Lake Wales churches in attendance.

Kenneth Bane, minister of the Wauchula Christian Church, welcomed him in behalf of his new congregation. Misses Paulette and Karen Sikes, and Charlene Burrescia served refreshments to the members.

A Covered Dish Dinner for the minister and the church members was held on Sunday after the morning church service with a large number present.

Mr. Charles Anderson of Bowling Green presented the church with a new pulpit.

Prayer Services will be conducted by Mr. Turner each Wednesday evening in the church at 7:30.

A Question Box has been placed at the back of the church for all to drop questions and suggestions in in order to help the new minister become acquainted with his church and its needs.

The Junior Sunday School class will have a party at the home of Paulette Sikes on Winthrop Street this Thursday afternoon, June 26.

First Baptist Church News

Wanta Swap?

If you had a surplus of something, and I had a surplus of something else, and I wanted what you had, and I didn't know that you had a surplus of what I wanted and you didn't know that I had a surplus of what you wanted, and some mutual friend would act as go between and you could exchange your surplus that you didn't need for my surplus which I didn't need, wouldn't we both be happy?

The Avon Park Federation of Garden Clubs annually acts as that mutual friend and makes it possible for everyone whether a member of the Garden Club or not, to bring all their surplus plants, cuttings, trees, bulbs or what have you and then select what is wanted from the vast assortment that other have considered surplus.

Each year the assortment is larger and it is amazing to see such a large array not only of common varieties but a great many unusual and rare varieties.

So if you are planning to trim your hedges or cut back your shrubs, just wait for the Plant Exchange and let's do a little "swappin".

The date will be Wednesday, July 9, at the shelter at the Water Guest Club. Hours 8 till 11 a. m.

Haley—

Legion Junior Baseball program, and was a member of the Sunnyland Boy Scout Council for a number of years. Haley has served as Commander of the Sarasota Post of the American Legion, as District Commander, and as a member of the District Executive Committee of the American Legion. In addition, he is a member of the Methodist Church, the Masons, the Elks Club, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the 40 & 8. Haley, a life-long democrate, served as chairman of the Sarasota County Democratic Executive Committee from 1935 to 1952.

The people of Sarasota County elected Jim Haley to the Florida House of Representatives in 1948 and endorsed his service in that body by re-electing him in 1950. While a member of the Florida Legislature, Haley distinguished himself as a strong and able leader, and in 1951, his colleagues designated him as one of the most outstanding members. His most significant assignments as a Florida legislator included service as Chairman of the Public Welfare Committee; Vice-Chairman of the Appropriations Committee; Chairman of the Crime Investigating Committee, the so-called "Haley Committee"; and member of the Veterans Committee. During the four years of service in the Florida Legislature, Haley became known for his untiring efforts in the promotion of more efficient operation of the State Government. He led the fight to reduce unnecessary and wasteful spending in the State Government, and, as a result, he was known as "Mr. Economy".

Congressman Haley was elected to the United States House of Representatives on November 4, 1952, as the Representative of the then newly created Seventh District, and was re-elected in 1954 and in 1956. In Congress, Haley has consistently abided by the principles to which he so strongly adherred while in the Florida Legislature; and he has become known as an able, conscientious, and devoted representatives of the people. Those who have sought to change his position have found Jim Haley to be a man of personal integrity who cannot be "duped" into reversing himself after he has weighed the facts.

Because of his wide experience, maturity of judgement, proven honesty, and his strong belief in the principles upon which this nation was founded, his colleagues often seek his counsel. They know Haley is a strong advocate of the traditional rights of the states, the private enterprise system and the individual initiative of the American people. They also know he will carefully weigh the evidence and give them sound and dependable advice.

Congressman Haley is one of the few members of Congress assigned to two standing Committees of the House. As a member of the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, Haley has worked for the development and preservation of our natural resources in this country and in our territories and possessions. At the present time, he is the fourth ranking member of this very important committee, and serves as Chairman of the Indian Affairs Subcommittee.

As a member of the Veterans Affairs Committee, Haley has effectively worked for more adequate facilities at veterans hospitals as well as other veterans benefits.

Bobbie F. Arnold Attends Special Stetson Course

Bobbie Faye Arnold, daughter of Mrs. Mozelle Arnold, was one of the one hundred students who were invited to jump their senior year of high school and go directly into the first year of college.

The 100 hand-picked students from the Southeast entered Stetson University June 15 for an intensive eight-week program under a faculty of 24 teachers and advisers. Partial to full scholarships were granted to them.

After completing the eight-week course the students have a choice of either entering college or returning and finishing high school. Bobbie Faye, an honor student at the Avon Park High School, will return to complete her senior year.

At the end of the Summer program, Stetson hopes to have the answers to these questions:

Are superior high school juniors ready for college?

Are superior high school seniors ready for advanced college work?

How can schools intensify the learning of superior students and how can colleges and high schools work together to insure the most rapid progress for exceptional students?

Hurd on the Mall

BY GEN HURD

Mrs. O. L. Young, formerly Gladys Rush didn't mind so much being fined by an out-of-state patrolman for going sixty in a fifty mile an hour zone, but what really upset her was that he kept switching a big cud of tobacco around in his mouth as he wrote the ticket and emphasizing his punctuation by spitting.

Bobby, Gladys' young son is intrigued by the power window adjustors on her new Cadillac to the extent that his mother fears for the durability of the gadget. He confided that it was only after taking a bath that he was allowed in the new car, a present to Gladys from Commander Young. The Commander jokingly remarked that he was not allowed to ride in it, period.

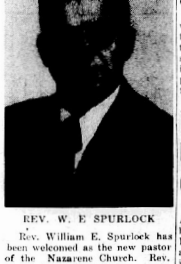
Ants in the pantry are a common catastrophe to conscientious housewives, but ants don't just inhabit the kitchen, they even crawl into the works of wrist watches and play havoc with the time-teller.

Mr. Jordan, the jeweler released a live ant recently but says its not uncommon to find dead ones gumming up the works, along with overdoses of castor oil administered by some overindulgent do-it-yourself fan.

Mr. Jordan can also judge a man's occupation in some cases, by cleaning his watch. For instance a barber's timepiece may be hairy and a farmer's mucky.



—o—

Don't forget to do a little stoppin' for swapping' at the Winter Guest Club shelter, Wednesday from 8 till 11. The gracious and friendly ladies of the Garden Clubs will be on hand with valuable information on the plants and shrubs for distribution.

Spessard Holland Announces For Re-Election To United States Senate

I announce as a candidate in the Democratic Primaries in September for renomination to the United States Senate. I have served in the Senate since September, 1946 when I succeeded the late revered Senator Andrews.

I have chosen Committee assignments here in which, because of my long service to my native State and familiarity with the processes of democratic government, I could best serve Florida and the nation. For years I was active as a member of the Public Works Committee and was a leader in getting many important Florida projects, such as the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Program, improvements to the harbors at Jacksonville and Tampa, and many others.

I had to wait, 8 years, until I was in the upper third of the Senate, before I could win assignment to the Appropriations Committee, as its first Florida member in about 40 years. I have been a member of the Committee on Agriculture and Forestry for nearly 10 years. My aggressive service on these two Committees has enabled me to serve every important agricultural industry in Florida, as well as forestry and the forest products industries, including naval stores, and also to help to secure needed Federal public works in every coastal area from Pensacola to Pensacola and on most navigable rivers of the State. My support of the Everglades National Park has been particularly successful as have my efforts in behalf of civil aviation and the Federal Aid Highway program.

My membership on these two Committees and my seniority in the Senate as 15th among the 49 Democratic Senators is an asset of the people of Florida. Any new Senator must start at the bottom and would require many years of service to reach my present Committee standing or my proven capacity to serve Florida and the nation. Incidentally, in party affairs, I am a member of the Senate Democratic Steering Committee.

On the national level I have worked mostly in these same fields. One of our most important tasks is to make the nation stronger by the development of its natural resources and the improvement of its agriculture and forestry. Such added strength will count greatly in the struggle for freedom against those forces in the world which seek to destroy us. I have participated actively in helping to relieve every National disaster, agricultural or otherwise, during my service here.

In the international field my principal service has been in our programs with neighboring Latin-American nations. My spearheading of the Inter-American Highway from Texas to the Panama Canal has added to hemispheric good will, as well as to our own strength and that of our friendly neighbors. I have twice represented our nation in Pan American Highway Congresses and have handled other similar assignments such as the Rama Road in Nicaragua, the high level bridge across the Panama Canal and the successful campaign to eradicate the foot and mouth disease in Mexico. We must enlarge our cooperative Latin-American Activities in such helpful fields.

The announced candidacy of my opponent gives the people of Florida a clear choice between his brand of thinking and mine. In my opinion the main reason why he was retired from Florida's other seat in the Senate was his failure to follow the thinking and convictions of Florida people. I do not believe that, having retired him from one of our two Senate seats, Floridians will now make Sim a present of their second seat with the prospect of again receiving the same kind of treatment.

I look forward to the opportunity to discuss, during the campaign, all the issues which now confront us, though Congress has so much to do here before we can adjourn that I cannot be in Florida as yet on a full-time basis. Meantime, I warmly invite and will deeply appreciate the support of all my fellow citizens.

Spessard L. Holland

JERRY W. CARTER ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR RAILROAD AND PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION, GROUP 2

Jerry W. Carter announced that he will be a candidate for re-election to the Florida Railroad and Public Utilities Commission in the coming September Democratic primaries, in Group 2.

The veteran Commissioner and National Democratic committeeman for Florida, said he will qualify in the near future. He plans his usual campaign.

Mr. Democrat, as Jerry is familiarly known throughout Florida, has served on the Railroad Commission since his election in 1934 when he defeated five other candidates, and in the 5 elections since then has been re-elected by increasingly large majorities in the first primary.

Carter was one of the instigators and leaders in the famous Southern Governors Rate Case, which resulted in doing away with the 15% Florida Arbitrary and Pittsburgh Plus rate making formula, and in addition reduced class rates 10% in all Southern States, giving all Florida shippers and receivers of freight a 25% reduction which enabled Florida producers and manufacturers to ship their products to the northern consumers market on the same level as northern manufacturers could ship into southern states . . . thus making it possible for northern industry to move to Florida. This and other freight and utility rate reductions have saved the people of Florida more than $97,992,951 during Jerry's tenure in office.

Jerry and Mrs. Carter, the former Mary Frances Holifield, of Pensacola, are the parents of seven sons, all of whom attended the University of Florida.

He was appointed State Hotel Commissioner by Governors Cathe Hardee and Martin. The only man to hold this position under three Governors. Jerry began many of the prime aids to promoting the tourist industry, such as the State Tourist Bureau and advertising programs. He wrote Florida's first state-wide building, electrical, plumbing and sanitary codes, and established its first modern system of hotel and restaurant inspection.

Sebring, Fla.—"Open house" at the new mass production sterile fly facilities of the State-Federal Screwworm Eradication Program here, will be held Thursday afternoon, July 10.

This will be the only opportunity for public inspection of the plant which is starting operations to turn out 50 million sterile screwworm flies per week for aerial dispersal over 50,000 square miles of Florida in coming months.

Preceding the inspection will be an official opening ceremony starting at 2 p. m. Speakers will include J. B. Starkey, Chairman, Florida Livestock Board; W. R. Hancock, President, Florida Agricultural Council; Dr. R. J. Anderson, Director, Animal Disease Eradication Division, Agricultural Research Service, U. S. Department of Agricultural; and Florida's Senator Spessard L. Holland. Dr. Clarence L. Campbell, State Veterinarian and Secretary of Florida Livestock Board, will be master of ceremonies.

Invited to attend the opening are several hundred legislative, agricultural, educational and governmental department representatives in Florida, in nearby states co-operating in the program and in Washington, D. C.

After July 10, fly security restrictions and regulations governing use of radiation equipment, which sterilizes the plant's output of flies, will bar anyone but authorized personnel from entering the plant, officials explained.

A P Legion Team Defeats Arcadia

EVERYONE IS CORDIALLY invited to a musical presentation to be given by the Christian Couriers Quartet on Monday, July 7, 7:30 p.m. at the Methodist Church.

These popular singers are from Asbury College, Wilmore Kentucky and promise an evening of fine entertainment. No tickets will be sold, however, a collection will be taken.

Vernon D. Tyson Announces For Commissioner

Vernon D. Tyson has announced his intention to qualify as a candidate for the Board of County Commissioners for District 4. He has been a resident of Lake Placid for the past twenty-five years and was graduated from the Lake Placid High School in 1935. He is married and the father of one son, six years old.

During World War II Tyson served as a sergeant with the 283rd Combat Engineers in the European theater where he was awarded the Bronze Star medal and three battle stars. He is employed by the Ware Furniture Company in Lake Placid. He is a member of the Masons and American Legion.

Tyson says he is acquainted with the needs of the county and is interested in its future growth and prosperity. He states that when elected he will make his decisions based on what is best for the county as a whole. He will act as his own campaign treasurer.

Swim Lessons Begin For Grade School Children

The first two week Assembly-line Swimming Course for the children of the Avon Park Elementary Schools started on Monday, June 30, at the city pier of Lake Tulane.

At the end of the training the children will receive a Red Cross Beginner's Certificate and will be able to apply certain rules of water safety. All children, even those who do not swim at the beginning of the course, will be able to swim thirty yards if they attend each day and complete the requirements.

This is an opportunity for all children to learn to swim for their own safety in later life. Mrs. Alfred Edge and John Crittenden are in charge of the instruction.

A number of mothers have generously contributed their time to help in making the assembly-line method a success. Helping with the children are Miss Mary King, Miss Ann Rowland, and the Mesdames Herbert Todd, Jack Hutchinson, Donald Ford, Bob Barben, Sam King, Bob King, Arlin King, Stuart Ward, Franklyn Ward, Jerald Wicker, John Garber, Tony Mitchell, Bill Hood and Charles Moseley.

Judge Joe Kinsey Withdraws His Candidacy In September Primaries

Circuit Judge Joe D. Kinsey in a surprise announcement Friday said that he would not seek a full term as Judge of the Tenth Judicial Circuit in the September primaries. In his statement he said, "I cannot with justice to the public conduct a political campaign and at the same time conduct the office of the Circuit Judge".

Judge Kinsey further stated, "I sincerely trust that when the term for which I was appointed expires on December 31 of this year that some good to the judiciary of this state will have resulted therefrom.

"I also sincerely hope that the members of the bar of this circuit will see that some competent attorney is qualified and elected to take my place on the bench."

Gov. LeRoy Collins appointed Judge Kinsey the Tenth Judicial Circuit's resident judge in Highlands County last July. Judge Kinsey gave up a lucrative practice to take the vacancy on the bench occasioned by the elevation of Judge William P. Allen to the Second District Court of Appeals.

"I'm just a country lawyer", Judge Kinsey said, and when his term expires he will return to his private practice.

County Judge Cayce Maddox of Hardee announced last week that he would seek the judgeship. Others have been mentioned as possible candidates but Judge Maddox is the only one who has announced his candidacy.

Former County Tax Collector's Records Perfect

The records and accounts of J. Colin DeShong, resigned Highlands County Tax Collector, were in perfect order according to the report from the State Auditor.

DeShong resigned as Tax Collector after nearly ten years to devote his full time to his real estate business. Mrs. Helen Peck was appointed to fill DeShong's unexpired term.

According to the report by Assistant State Auditor A. H. Cash, all collections of record were accounted for by remittances to the agencies entitled to receive them and high collection percentages were attained by the former tax collector on the rolls closed during the audit period.

Personal property taxes, intangible roll taxes, and occupational licenses were diligently collected through the use of office records, field inspections and follow-ups.

Figures reported were accurate, and remittances of excess income were promptly and correctly made. Collateral pledged by the depository bank was sufficient at all times to secure the tax collector's fund on deposit.

250 Children Are Taking Part In Summer Program

The summer recreation program is in full swing this week with over two hundred and fifty boys and girls of Avon Park enrolled to take part in some of the various interesting and entertaining activities that are being offered.

Thursday afternoon, July 3, there will be a special Fourth of July treat for the children. First everyone present will enjoy a swim at the delightful City Beach on Lake Tulane. Then they will go to the high school gymnasium for a Watermelon Party. A number of delicious watermelons will be cut so that every one may enjoy them. The melons will be donated by the Avon Park Prison for the enjoyment of the children.

Tennis is being offered this year with John Crittenden giving instruction at the Airport tennis courts. Ten boys and girls participated on Monday and others are encouraged to enroll in this phase of activity.

Vic McKunas has enrolled ten children in Instrumental Music thus far. This valuable instruction is free and open to all elementary and high school students. The hours are Monday and Wednesday from 8 until 4 o'clock and on Thursday from 8 until 12 o'clock. It is hoped that many children will take advantage of this wonderful opportunity.

The Driver Education Classes still have some vacancies for adults and high school students who wish to learn to drive. Mr. Robinson is in charge of the instruction.

Mrs. Frank Morgan, County Music Supervisor, is presenting the Pre-Schoolers Program on Monday and Wednesday mornings from 9 until 11 o'clock in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium on W. Winthrop Street. All children who will attend school for the first time next year are invited to attend and enjoy this program.

County Judge Will Not Seek Circuit Bench

Now that Judge Kinsey has withdrawn his candidacy for the Judicial office, which he now holds, I have been asked by numerous people, including the press, if I would now seek the office of Circuit Judge.

I suppose every member of the Bar aspires to a judicial office, and probably every member of the Judiciary aspires to elevation within the Judicial field. I am no exception to the rule. However, I am not and will not be a candidate for the office of Circuit Judge at this time.

Two years ago the people of Highlands County elected me to the office of County Judge for a four year term. This is my first experience as an "elected" public official and I feel that I owe them at least four years in this office to prove my worthiness in an office of public trust.

Twenty students of the summer recreation program enjoyed an all day trip to Vero Beach on Friday, June 27.

The boys and girls were accompanied by Coach Joe Frantz, John Crittenden and Mrs. Alfred Edge on their trip. They swam in the ocean and then ate heartily at a picnic on the beach. After games and a rest period the students had another chance for swimming in the wonderful breakers.

They were favored with lovely weather and all enjoyed a wonderful day. The next trip planned will be to Hillsborough State Park on Friday, July 11, and another exceptionally good time is anticipated.

The State Park is a scenic spot of great natural beauty and the students will be able to swim, picnic, fish, and explore the nature trails. Several more trips to Florida attractions are planned for later during the summer program.

TVA'S Free Hand

A great deal of national notice is being paid to an Internal Revenue Service ruling holding that certain institutional advertising carried on by the taxpaying, business-managed electric utilities of this country cannot be considered a legimate business expense for income tax purposes. For the most part, this advertising presents the utilities' side of the private-versus-public power controversy. The great bulk of the comment on the IRS ruling has denounced it as being a serious blow at the right of free speech and free expression.

There is still another interesting and significant side to the matter. This year marks the Tennessee Valley Authority's 25th anniversary. TVA has issued a publicity kit consisting of a series of mimeographed releases running to a total of 25,000 words or more. All manner of TVA activities and ideas are thus publicized—agricultural research, flood control, forestry, employe relations, navigation, power production, power rates, and so on. Needless to say, all the material is designed to create the best possible impression of TVA in the mind of the reader.

Now, TVA, of course, does not deduct the cost of its kit from income tax returns—for the simple reason that TVA pays no income tax. In fact, TVA is a tax-supported which means tax-subsidized—agency. Therefore, the taxpayers of the whole country, are in effect, ponying up the money that pays for the kit.

So there's the situation. The IRS is attempting to muzzle opponents of socialized power. Yet advocates of socialized power have a free hand, and the taxpayers keep it full of cash.

Public Interest VS. Special Interest

Railroad freight rates should be regulated in the interest of the public and not for the special protection of motor or water carriers. Yet the fact is that, in late years, rate regulation has simply not followed that reasonable principle.

Actually, it is also the principle that Congress approved when the Transportation Act of 1940 was passed. The Interstate Commerce Commission itself provides authority for that statement. In a 1945 decision, the ICC said: "As Congress ennacted separately stated rate-making rules for each transport agency, it obviously intended that the rates of each such agency should be determined by us in each case according to the facts and circumstances attending the movement of the traffic by that agency. In other words, there appears no warrant for believing that rail rates, for example, should be held up to a particular level to preserve a motor-rate structure, or vice versa."

In the years since this decision was handed down, many deviations from the announced principle have appeared. The cure is found in a new rate-making rule proposed by the Senate Surface Transportation Subcommittee after exhaustive hearings. Under the rule, the ICC, in acting on rate charges, would be instructed to consider "the facts and circumstances attending the movement of the traffic by railroad" and not by some other mode of transportation. Regulation in the public interest, instead of a special interest, would be achieved.

Dollars And Cents

"Why should the taxpayers, already burdened with huge government expenditures, be asked to pay for a project which isn't even necessary?"

The San Francisco Call Bulletin, speaking editorially, presents that question. And it has to do with a situation which has parallels in every section of the country.

A big water storage project is needed in California, and it will be built. The only question is how and by whom.

The project will provide a huge amount of falling water which will be used for generating power. The public-power groups are fighting hard to have the Federal government undertake the whole job, using money contributed by taxpayers everywhere for the purpose.

However, a California utility company has offered to build the needed power facilities and to pay well for the use of the water. In endorsing the proposal, Secretary of the Interior Seaton has described it as a simple matter of dollars and cents. Partnership, in this instance, would save the taxpayers tens of millions of dollars. It would give maximum benefits to all concerned. And, of no small importance, it would create new taxable resources for all levels of government.

The issue is that simple. All that remains to be seen is whether, in the face of all reason, the socialists will chalk up another triumph.

Meikrowaves

By DON MEIKLEJOHN

Ever since the politicians found out about an electronic gadget called television, there has been talk about government being overrun by pretty boy politicians.

The theory is that if a fellow doesn't have curly hair and a dimple, he just won't hit it off with the lady voters.

After several campaigns in which TV has been a factor, the trend doesn't seem to have materialized. With all due respect to the good looks of our Florida politicians, I haven't detected an over abundance of curly hair and dimples.

Just to see if the trend would start developing this year, I stationed myself in the Secretary of State's office on the first day of candidate qualification.

Same thing. Again, with all due respects to the politicans, I still didn't see any evidence that curly hair or dimples were on the upswing among the candidates.

I talked it over with some of the candidates, and most of them didn't think curly hair and dimples—or the lack of same—would be too much of a factor in their campaigns.

One thing lead to another, and the discussion drifted around to other aspects of TV campaigning.

Some of the political experts said they doubted the effectiveness of TV appearences, pointing out that political talk doesn't always make the viewer happy.

For instance, what happens when the viewer dials his favorite station and expects to see his favorite gun slinging marshal cut down the bad men and rescue the pretty girl—only to see the mug of a politician—dimples or no dimples—talking about taxes.

One expert said the fact that the campaign will be waged during the summer months will help some. After all the politician will be up against the second string summer replacement in most cases.

In the midst of the discussion of such important campaign strategy, a fellow who won't have to campaign this summer came down the hall.

He was State Sen. Verle Pope of St. Augustine. Pope, who has been dubbed the most valuable senator a couple of times in the St. Petersburg Times poll, was asked what he thought about the situation.

Although he doesn't have to campaign this year, Pope has been making noises like a candidate in the 1960 governorship derby, and just might have been thinking about such problems.

"Would you try to back an adult western on TV during a campaign?" he was asked.

"Sure," said Pope. "I'd give the folks what they want. I'd get me a western outfit and guns, and tell the folks I was on the prowl against bad government."

It was funny at the time, but after a little thought, it occurred to me that I hadn't done too good a job of looking over the new crop of candidates.

Did they have long sideburns? Did they have 10-gallon hats? Were they carrying guns and practicing a fast draw?

It was a little frightening.

I can imagine sitting down this summer and flipping on the TV set only to see a lone horseman riding into town.

DHG (Dance Hall Girl): Howdy stranger.

LH (Lone Horseman): Howdy.

DHG: What bring you to town?

LH: I'm looking for the polecat that killed my friend.

DHG: Who was you're friend, stranger?

LH: Good government, that's who, Mam, and there's the polecat that killed him.

At that point, the camera switches to a life sized mock up of LH's political opponent, and LH fills him full of lead and rides off into the sunset.

If that isn't enough to frighten you into storing the TV in the garage until after the campaigns are over consider this possibility:

A politician decides he has to cover other facets of the TV entertainment world, just in case there are a few folks who don't like adult westerns.

He dresses up like Steve Allen, and calls out the men on the street.

To the guy that can never remember his name, he says, "Ruddy, do you know that guy that's running against me?"

The answer, of course, is a dumbfounded look, but finally our friends face brightens, and he answers, "No, but I don't need to, I'm voting for you—the little man's friend, Joe Blow."

The shaky-little fellow would be asked, "Are you voting for . . . (name of opponent), and the little guy answers, as usual, "Nuuuuuh!"

At that point, the campaigner would call out the "coming attraction girl." Instead of one, a whole lineup comes out. When they open up the books they are carrying, it spells out, "Vote for Joe Blow."

Oh, well, it will be a good summer to spend at the beach . . . "What's that? Can't be!"

Sorry to lose the train of thought, but I just saw a politican going out on the Capitol lawn for a sun bath. He has tape pasted on his back, spelling out, "Vote for Me."

Avon Park . . .

By Mrs. Louis Winterberger

I have learned that Avon Park is called the Jacaranda City and that it is the oldest city on the Ridge Route. It has the distinction of having a mile long Mall through the heart of it. If you will get out of your car and take time to walk through it, you will find some of the choicest and finest trees and vines here.

I was able to get some information about these trees from the Chamber of Commerce. The Jacarandas are prevalent. You will see the spanish jasmine and surinam cherry, also the eucalyptus, the latter surprising me very much as I have always associated this tree with Calif. Here may be found the unusual sausage and Brazillian pepper trees. The fruit of the Pineapple guava makes delicious preserves and jellies and the flame vine adds its brilliance to this spot.

Avon Park can rightfully be called "the city of beautiful sunsets". Not long ago I viewed one over one of the many lakes here. The sky was in large patches of blue and pink. This, of course, was reflected in the lake. As I gazed on all this beauty, the sky took on a deeper hue and the orange trees across, made a perfect background for this sunset. A climax to this beautiful and peaceful scene was a white heron on flight over the lake, finally lighting on the beach at the water's edge, object of course, little minnows for his supper.

Another evening at sunset, I saw three clouds, Alpen-glow in color. Now I have seen this glow many times in the mountains quite frequently in the evenings, but never before had I seen clouds of this color.

A few days before Christmas, I stopped at a hotel where I have been many times before. When the door of this home like hotel opened, a warmth enveloped me, giving a tone of welcome. The great open fire-place with its cherry glow, decorations on the mantle in keeping with the season, the lighted tree and especially happy faces everywhere, created an atmosphere that will linger in my memory.

My room overlooked two large live oak trees and nestling in the branches many air-plants, tree orchids and cactus of all kinds.

This article would not be complete without mentioning the orange blossoms with their delicate fragrance and the oranges that come on later. This too, is part of friendly Avon Park, located on the Orange Blossom Trail.

Screwworm In Mass Production

Sebring, Florida—Operations here in the new mass production Sterile fly facilities of the combined State-Federal Screwworm Eradication Program got underway today with receipt of the first batch of "Seed Stock" from the Orlando Pilot Plant.

Sufficient screwworm pupae to raise more than 100,000 fertile flies were flown to the Sebring plant in a sealed truck. These flies are the first of about 2,700,000 to be in constant process of rearing to produce screwworm eggs for supplying full scale operations of the main plant.

In coming weeks operations will be stepped up gradually until the entire plant is in full production on a minimum quota basis of about 50,000,000 sterile flies per week to be dispersed by planes over 50,000 square miles of Florida and adjoining states which are co-operating in the program.

Installation of the first of six Cobalt-60 radiation casks for sterilizing the plant's fly output began this week under supervision of technologists from the USDA Radiological Center at Beltsville, Maryland. Formal opening of the new plant will take place at 2 p. m. Thursday, July 10, in a brief ceremony sponsored by the State and Federal participating agencies, Florida Livestock Board and Agricultural Research Service of the United States Department of Agriculture. The plant will be open for inspection that afternoon. This will be the last opportunity for public inspection, State and Federal Directors of the Eradication Program expained today, as fly security and radiation safety regulations will bar all but authorized personnel from entering the plant for the duration of fly-rearing operations.

An Employment Service is among the many services conducted by The Salvation Army. In this country last year The Salvation Army secured jobs for nearly 94,000 persons.

Clapp has been a member of the Florida Development Commission since its inception, and has been a leader in the industrial development of Florida.

He became president of Florida Power Corporation in January, 1952, after 27 years of service with the company. Under his leadership, the company has experienced more than six years of tremendous growth. Customers have increased from 135,000 to 222,000; employees from 1,400 to 1,950; and company investment in plants and property from $88 million to $226 million.

Confederate Veterans Widows Are Entitled To Receive Pensions

James A. Haley, Congressman, Seventh District of Florida said today the Veterans Administration has requested his assistance in trying to locate an estimated 1,500 widows of Confederate veterans believed to be entitled to federal pensions. It is probable that most of the widows still reside in the South, and many may live in Florida.

The request was made by Sumner G. Whittier, Administrator of Veterans Affairs, who told Congressman Haley of VA's problem in trying to identify the widows, who for the first time are eligible for VA pensions under recently signed Public Law 85-245.

The new law also provides pensions for the two living confederate veterans, Walter W. Williams of Franklin, Texas, and John Salling of Slant, Virginia. Both men have been contacted by VA field representatives and assisted in filing their claims.

The widows, however, present another problem, Congressman Haley explained. Only those southern states which pay similar benefits have partial rolls of Confederate beneficiaries. The United States has no official records of these beneficiaries and, since the benefits are not automatic, the widows will have to fill out application forms which may be obtained in person or by letter from any VA office.

The two Confederate veterans are eligible for the same pension benefits as would any living Union counterparts, $101.59 a month, or $135.45 if physically helpless or blind. Widows under 70 are entitled to $40.64 and over 70 to $65 a month. If the widow was married to the veteran during the Civil War service, she is entitled to $75 a month.

Civil Defense For Adult Americans

A Minimal Organization.

Let us look at the skeletor shape of the organization. It begins with certain officials who may be voluntary and unpaid but nonetheless official. At the local level is the town civil defense director. He is the local link to civil defense organization beyond the town. He is or should be in contact with the county director, and through him the state director, the regional director and FCDA national headquarters.

Returning to the local community, we have a number of obvious subsidiary organizations that have a part in civil defense such as the police force, the fire department, the local Red Cross Chapter, the public schools, the college or other educational agencies if any, the local unit of the National Guard if any, the communications centers, the hospital, the local construction companies whose men are skilled in removing damaged property or erecting temporary structures. Many of these local subsidiary organizations have state or regional organizations, either voluntry or mandatory. In coordinating plans, these form horizontal (neighborhood) and vertical (local to state) organizational chains similar to that in the official civil defense organization.

The third element in our minimal structure is an advisory council, there should be advisory councils at all levels, but a local advisory council is an absolute necessity. It is not created simply to make civil defense activity "democratic" or "respectable," though it is true that civil defense gains stature when local leaders and organizations approve of and work with it. The council, however, can offer concrete help to the administrator in ways such as the following:

Helping recruit persons for special training; Helping staff a speaker's bureau or information center; Serving as a "community sounding board" for plans of action; Evaluating community reaction to trials and tests; Arbitrating disputes if such occur; Providing voluntary liason with other local councils.

Such a council should involve people of differing skills, knowledge, and personality. Obviously it cannot consist only of the most popular people. Some of its members are research people who know how to get data, some represent agencies with adult education roles, some have creative imagination and can "cook up ideas", some have managerial and personnel skill, some are straight action men. The council should operate through functional subcommittees, each of which should have power to enlarge itself and seek its own consultants. It should not be rigid, but should be able to expand and change itself as plans develop and circumstances change. Above all, it must not merely represent a community, but must also know how to search its community for the skills and people needed in civil defense. Some of these people are now unknown, some of them have skills unknown except to neighbors who see them at work in their basements. Those of us who have thought deeply about community problems are sometimes trapped by our own habits of thought and are unable to see solutions that a fresh person might suggest spontaneously. An advisory council should keep in mind the fact that virgin soil may be highly productive of useful ideas. It should also remember that local thinking should be stimulated and given direction through the consultation services provided by FCDA.

The fourth need is office space. The size of the community will govern the nature of this space. In a village it may be just a file in the business office of the volunteer director. As we shall see, there will be many things to file.

MISS PHYLIS JO LANGFORD

Miss Phyllis Jo Langford of Frostproof became the bride of Mr. John Colin English, Jr. of Tallahassee Saturday, June the 28 at six o'clock in the garden of her home, 28 C Street, Frostproof. The Reverend Milton Carruthers of Salisbury, North Carolina, who is a childhood friend of the groom, performed the double-ring ceremony before a large crowd of relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Borda and the late Philip James Langford, prominent pioneer Polk Countian. Mr. English is the son of the former Florida Superintendent of Public Instruction, John Colin English and Mrs. English of Tallahassee.

The wedding was performed in a semi-circle of verbena, star jasmine, white caladiums and cocos plumosus palms, which formed an outdoor chapel. The aisle leading to the altar was formed of white wrought iron markers topped with miniature white fans, satin ribbons and clusters of small white flowers.

Wedding music was presented by Mrs. James D. Nichells of Lakeland at the organ. Miss Thalia Whitehurst of Lake Wales, a sorority sister of the bride, sang "Because", "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", and "I Love You Truly". Mr. Lou B. Carlton of Winter Haven, a cousin of both the bride and groof sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride entered with Mr. Borda, who gave her in marriage. She wore an original gown of peau de sote which featured a fitted bodice and bouffant, wind-swept skirt which ended in a cathedral length train. The sweetheart neck-line was outlined in motifs of re-embroidered chantilly lace and seed pearls, as were also the short cap sleeves. The skirt was scattered with appliques, and garlands of the motifs circled the skirt and the cathedral length train. Mrs. English wore a three-quartered length Brussels lace veil which she purchased on a recent trip to Europe. The bride carried a white prayer-book, topped with white orchids and showered with streamers and lillies-of-the-valley. Miss Love Scarborough, of Chattahochee was the bride's Maid of Honor. The bride's matrons and maids were Ron Wetherington of Valdosta, Georgia, Mrs. George Harris of Frostproof, Miss Nancy Saunders of Lake Wales and Atlanta, Miss Jan Davis of Tallahassee and Atlanta. Junior bridesmaids were Misses Beverly and Barbara Bradshaw, twin cousins of the bride from Orlando. The bridesmaids wore floor length silk taffeta gowns in shades of maize and sun-glow, the gowns were fashioned on princess lines with panels of the deeper shade, and full length streamers falling from a back bow attached to the low V Neck-line. They wore large garden hats of maize horse-hair braid, the crowns were circlets of matching flowers. Their handles of the fans held cascades of satin ribbons and blending flowers. The maid of honor carried a similiar bouquet in deeper tones to match the sun-glow shade in the dresses.

Mr. English served his son as best man. Usher groomsmen were Messrs. Ralph David McWilliams of Ft. Myers, Vincent Thomas Hall of Coral Gables, Miami, James Hamilton Dowling of Tallahassee, William D. Reeves of St. Petersburg, Alston Allen Wallace of Gainesville, John Calvin Currey of Quincy and Hugh M. English of Alva.

Mrs. Borda wore, for her daughter's wedding, a full length sheath dress of dusty rose French lace, over matching taffeta with a cross pleated detail featuring the back panel. She wore matching headdress and shoes. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. English wore a gown of blue lace and chiffon with a tier of lace making the back panel.

Mr. and Mrs. Borda entertained wedding guests at a reception in their home. The house was decorated throughout with white flowers in the fan motif. Facing the entrance doorway and upon the antique sideboard in the dining room were very large fan shaped arrangements of chrysanthemums, gladioli and stock and carnations. Smaller matching arrangements were used on the spacious porch, in the living room, dining room, gift room and library. An unusual point of interest was a long white flowered arrangement on the piano that extended to the portrait above it.

The brides table, centered with a tiered cake was overlaid with an heirloom cloth and enhanced with five branched candlelabra which held handmade tapers ornamented with brides roses and lillies-of-the-valley.

Miss "P. J." Varn, the goddaughter of Mrs. Borda and a cousin of the groom assisted by her mother, Mrs. D. H. Varn, Jr., of Fort Meade presented guests with ribbon tied boxes of the groom's cake.

In the library, two tables covered with Brussel's lace cloths held the reception dainties. Three tables placed in the side yard were overlaid with Madeira cloths and held silver punch bowls from which orange punch was served. Assisting with the hospitalities were the hostesses who had pre-nuptial parties for the popular bride and out-of-state relatives. They included Mesdames John Maxcy, L. Maxcy, E. N. Davis, Jr., Bert Brackin, John Wardlaw, J. H. Dickinson, Jr., T. J. Taylor, M. G. A Word Of Advice To High School Students

Dear Students,

Many of you are thinking of continuing your education after graduation from high school, and you are probably making an examination of the facilities of institutions of higher learning with a view to making your selection of a college or trade school to attend.

The Beta Club encourages those high-school graduates with sufficient capacity and means to continue their education after high school graduation in order to equip themselves better to fill positions of responsibility.

We would like to advise all the seniors who are planning to go to college that it is not necessary to pay tuition fees in advance to enroll at institutions of higher learning. Some colleges require a room deposit or a small registration deposit prior to registation. This is all right and is accepted practice among some of our best institutions.

However, it is not to your best interest to pay tuition charges in advance in order to get a "discount" or qualify for "scholarship" benefits.

It has come to our attention that certain institutions are making such representations to high-school seniors. We want to advise you against making payment-in-advance to get reduced rates. If you are approached by any college representative soliciting your enrollment and advance payment, we urgently suggest that you take the matter up with your high-school principal, and if possible get him and the college representative together for a discussion of the matter. If, after a satisfactory investigation, you and your principal deem it advisable to agree to make payment-in-advance on a college tuition charge, then you will be on safe grounds to do so.

But we want to insist that, as matters now stand, it is not necessary for high-school graduates to make any sizeable deposit in order to be sure of admission to any reputable institution of higher learning.

Another bit of advice: if you are planning to go to business school in order to prepare yourself for office work, we strongly suggest that you attend a business school near your home or near the place where you intend to apply for a job. It is always easier to get work in the vicinity of the school you attend than it is to get work at a distance from the school you attend—even if that school is better than one near you. This holds true of many of the professions and your training therefor; for example, it is well for one who intends to practice law in a certain State to get his law training in that State; he becomes acquainted—during his law-school training—with many of the future lawyers with whom he may come in contact in his practice of law.

We encourage high-school seniors too try to go on with their education. Our country is blessed with many and efficient general-arts colleges—both private and State-supported—which are doing good work in equipping young people for the professions and for positions of leadership.

There are equally important jobs of clerical nature to be filled in the business world. Our present-day free-enterprise system of life could not go on without competent stenographers, clerical assistants, filing and recording clerks, and other office personnel. There are many fine business colleges in nearly every sizeable city which are doing a fine service in equipping young people for these clerical positions. But just be sure that you are not duped into excessive before-hand payments in order to prepare yourselves for professional or office positions.

Rickie Rich Has Five Candles On Birthday Cake

Rickie Rich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rich, celebrated his fifth birthday with a party for some of his friends at his home on Friday afternoon, June 27.

The boys and girls played with Rickie's toys in the yard and also played a number of party games. Bill McDaniel and Barbara Flowers were the best 'pinners' of the donkey's tail and won prizes for their skill.

After the play the guests enjoyed helping Rickie open his lovely gifts and blow out five candles from his cowboy birthday cake which was decorated with a corral, horses and cowboys. Then they all ate heartily of the cake, ice cream, and drank cold punch.

Each guest took home balloons and suckers as favors. Helping Rickie enjoy this important day were Robbie Watson, Susan Lee, Paula Jean Allen, Barbara and Dee Flowers, Johnny and Brad Giddens, Jimmy Dilley, Bobby Stokes, Bill McDaniel, Beverly Pollard, Jan DeShong, and Holly and Candy Reddick.

My Tour To The Holy Land

By Mrs. M. E. Wild

Wednesday, December 25, 1957 Jerusalem, Jordan.

The weather is sunny, fair and mild.

This is the third day of my tour of "The Holy Land" with my daughter and a group of people from the Community Church of Beirut.

8:00 a.m. We had breakfast at the American Colony Hotel.

Today is Christmas Day. There is a large Christmas tree decorated and lighted outside in the yard of the hotel, and flowers are blooming in the flower beds around the Christmas Tree. The people are saying to one another "Merry Christmas".

9:00 a.m. The Tour Group went to the "Upper Room" where we had morning worship and a talk about plans for the day.

9:30 a.m. We left Jerusalem in cars for Jericho and stopped at Bethany on the way, about one and a fourth miles south-east of Jerusalem. At Bethany we saw the place of the "Tomb of Lazareth" and the Church that is built on the place where Mary and Lazareth lived. They were called the "Friends of Jesus". Their pictures and names are painted on the Church that is dedicated to them.

On the way to Jericho we saw the "Inn of the Good Smaraitan", which is an old stone building on the traditional site of the good deed of the "Good Samaritan", which Jesus spoke about in His Parable of "The Good Samaritan".

We saw the "Mount of of Temptation", which is said to be the place of the temptation of Jesus, where Jesus spend forty days and forty nights.

We went to "Elisha's Fountain", which the prophet Elisha sweetened by casting in a handful of salt. We saw the Women of Jericho carrying water from "Elisha's Fountain" in water jars on top of their heads.

We went to the place of the "Excavations of Ancient Jericho", and we saw the Refugee Camps not far from Jericho.

We went to the "Ruins of Hisham Palace", which is about three miles from Jericho, and it is noted for its artistic mosaics and its stucco ornaments of the 7th century.

We went to the River Jordan to the traditional "Baptismal Site" where Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist. The River Jordan is a pretty river with green trees and bushes on both sides of the river. The water looks muddy with a yellowish color. There is a shelter then by the River Jordan, where they sell post cards and small bottles of "Holy Water". The water looks very clear in the bottles. From the River Jordan we went in cars on a winding road among the hills and valleys to the "Dead Sea".

About 2:00 p.m. we arrived at the "Dead Sea", we stopped at a place called "Lido Cafe", where we ate a picnic lunch which the Tour brought along. We stayed at the "Dead Sea" two hours. Some of the people of the Tour Group went in wading and some of the people went in bathing in the warm water of the "Dead Sea".

The "Dead Sea" is the lowest spot on the earth. It is 1300 feet below sea level. The water is very salty and very clear. I put my hands in the water and picked up some of the pebbles that cover the shore of the "Dead Sea" by "Lido Cafe". There are mountains on the other side of the "Dead Sea". The scenery is beautiful and the weather was sunny and warm.

About 4:00 p.m. we went to visit the "Arab Development Society", which they called "Boy's Town", where there are one hundred and two Arab refugee boys who are in training there. They raise chickens and vegetables and they weave cloth and make their own clothes and do other kinds of handiwork.

We walked around at "Boy's Town, and looked at the chickens and other things, then we went into a large room where they served us tea and cookies, and the founder of this place, Musa Bey Alami gave us a talk, and told about how he got water there to irrigate the place to grow things, and he told about the training of the Arab Refugee Boys. We stayed at "Boy's Town" about two hours, then we went back to Jerusalem.

On the way to Jerusalem I saw sheep and shepherds on the hills of Jordan. The shepherds wore the Arab headress.

When we arrived in Jerusalem we saw Christmas Trees decorated and lighted, in the windows of many of the houses in Jerusalem. The large Christmas Tree in the yard at the American Colony Hotel was shining brightly.

7:30 p.m. We had Christmas dinner at the American Colony Hotel. They had Christmas decorations and candles on the tables in the dining room.

9:00 p.m. We met in the "Upper Room" and sang Christmas carols and we listened to a reading about Christmas by Mrs. Paterson.

After the meeting in the "Upper Room" we went to our rooms for the night.

TOUCHTON Rexall DRUG

By James E. Hess

Webster says that 'rehabilitate' means to "restore to a former capacity; reinstate; return to good repute; vindicate; to restore to solvency; etc." This is the job that faces the officials of Avon Park Prison upon receipt of a new arrival. The individual crime matters not: murder, armed robbery, forgery, or a host of others. Each man requires individual treatment and training . . . this is the practice at APP. The theory that confinement's main purpose is to punish, is outdated as many other impossible ideas which must step aside for progress. The present day buzzwords are treatment and training, rather than punitive application.

It is mistakenly thought by many trouble ceases for an individual when the judge passes sentence committing him to prison. True, his physical requirements; food, clothing and personel necessities are adequately provided, but the sudden loss of liberty induces a mental imbalance which at times results in shock. He is precipitated into a strange situation which demands immediate readjustment, and some are incapable of adapting themselves to new surroundings so quickly. Therein lies the necessity for trained, intelligent supervisors, sympathetic with the purpose of this institution and capable of a quick, humane understanding of the new inmate and his problems. The newly incarcerated is usually in a severe state of mental turmoil which at times amounts to outright fear. This is particularly true of the first offender. He has no idea of what is expected of him . . . the sight of a heavy fence or wall with gun towers is enough to [illegible] one. The knowledge that he will be forced to live in an environment of maximum restraint for a seemingly interminable time is almost unbearable. Thus, we have some of his initial problems outlined when he first steps off the bus at the maximum security prison, at Raiford, Florida.

When the new arrival at APP steps of the bus here from the State Prison at Raiford, he still feels that he is faced with the same problems as outlined above. He is distrustful, and the missing gun towers immediately throws a suspicion into his mind as to "what's the catch?" It has been the writer's practice to watch these new arrivals disembark from the bus and the expressions on their faces are truly revealing. These same men will wear different expressions when they discover that at this honor prison advanced thinking has been implemented with action and APP is really a factory for the making of men rather than the breaking of them. More than a year has passed since this scribe stepped off the bus here, and during the inspection of hundreds of new faces not one has failed to conform with the expected transformation.

Though an interview with the institution's classification committee, the new arrival is situated where he will be of most benefit to himself and the institution. The first move is to place him on a work assignment in the prison factory to him, since at this stage his mental stress is such that any problem he felt he couldn't handle might easily result in a bush parole,' or escape. Minimum custody is exercised at APP for the very specific purpose of bringing maximum pressure to bear on a man's honor and self-respect. For this reason, guards and gun-towers will never be a part of this institution, nor will they ever be necessary.

Each man is carefully interviewed by the classification officer of the institution for the biannual reclassification report. This report is studied by the classfication center at Raiford, and the parole Commission. It reflects the inmates progress as determined by monthly progress reports submitted by the inmate's immediate supervisor, and the skillfully informal questions asked by the classification officer. The parole commission can pretty well determine from these reports whether a man has progressed to the point where he would be a good parole risk.

When fishing was introduced as a form of recreation, it drew a deal of criticism from all sides, because the rehabilitative value was overlooked. Being in a position to know first hand, this writer can honestly say that the effect of such action was startling . . . even on those who don't care to fish. The fishing privilege is not to be taken lightly; it must be earned! Almost any minor rule infraction, or evidence of poorly kept personel quarters will result in the immediate withdrawal of that privilege. The boys almost break their necks to insure the privilege will not be endangered.

Another action which raised some eyebrows and pursed the lips was the scheduling of an inmate team in the Avon Park City Softball League. Again, the value of morale and increasing self respect escaped the critics. This writer had the opportunity of traveling to town with the team on a couple of occasions . . . to say the experience was simply grand, would be an understatement. There are some pretty tough monkeys on the ball club and they were all as nervous as high school boys going to their first dance. Their reception by those wonderful people in Avon Park brought a real glow to the boys yes, including yours truly. Friendly smiles did more in five minutes than years behind walls could ever accomplish.

The problems of the inmate here at Avon Park Prison are still present and they won't vanish overnight . . . not by a long shot. But they are being worked on in a sincere attempt to solve them and if advances continue to be made in that direction, the penologists will have reached the goal of all law makers and enforcers; they'll be out of work!

You Can't Stop A Car On A Dime

Everyone knows you can't stop a car on a dime.

But do you realize just exactly how far your car does travel before it can be stopped?

"It's a lot further than you may think," "the National Safety Council says.

Tests show it takes the average driver, under most conditions, about three-fourths of a second to react to an emergency and hit his brakes.

At 15 m.p.h., in the time it takes to react, you've already traveled at least 17 feet—theoretically, over three six-feet-tall men. It takes another 14 feet—about two more six-footers—to bring your car to a halt. That's a total of five six-footers you've run over—and at only 15 m.p.h.!

Most motorists, though, don't drive quite that slow. Let's assume you usually whiz along at say, 60 m.p.h. A pretty reasonable speed, you'd say.

Keep your eyes on the road and reach for a cigarette lighter. Put the cigarette in your mouth, glance down and flick the lighter. That flick and initial puff on the cigarette took about two seconds. During that time, you traveled at least 176 feet—more than half the distance of a football field.

If you saw an accident situation ahead after looking up and hit the brakes immediately, before you could stop your car would have traveled 366 feet further—equal to another football field, and then some.

Your trouble may not be lighting cigarettes. But everyone's distracted sometime or other by something in the car. Best protection is to be alert, and to hold down your speed so if you do face a situation, you'll have time to stop safely.

If you do find yourself facing an emergency, you'll be better able to stop in time if your tires and brakes are in good condition. An emergency is no time for added problems.

240-Room Hotel Started At Miami Beach

Miami Beach.—The first new beachfront luxury resort to be built in 1958—the 240-room Singapore has been officially launched, ending a standstill in the start of new hotels here which lasted more than a year.

The seven-story Singapore is the first Miami Beach resort to be started since early 1957. The Singapore, which will feature a plush cabana colony alongside its private beachfront, will open by Christmas of this year.

The Singapore is being located at 99th Street and Collins Avenue, at the southern boundary of Bal Harbour, and will utilize 325 feet of ocean frontage for its private beach and cabana colony.

Designed to offer American-plan service, the hotel will have two swimming pools, a seaside garden area, night club, dining rooms both indoors and outdoors, a shopping plaza, TV and card rooms, two children's game rooms and a unique "Teenager's Room."

"In most hotels, the teenage guests are the forgotten ones," William Praver, one of the owner-builders, said. "We're making sure guests of all ages have a special place for their social activities."

One of the special features of the Singapore will be an underground parking area to service cars for every guest. In addition, every room will have a private balcony and many of the rooms will have kitchenette units.

L. L. Wainwright, Superintendent of the Avon Park Correctional Institute and program chairman for July of the Avon Park Rotary Club invited James E. Hess, an inmate at the local institution, to be the guest speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon meeting yesterday.

Howard Livingston Seeks Reelection As Rep. Of Highlands County

HOWARD LIVINGSTON

In announcing my candidacy for State Representative of Highlands County, I have but one thought or ambition in mind; that is to render to the residents of our county a valuable service, stated Howard Livingston.

The position of Representative is of importance to each of our citizens, for the legislature has the task of passing laws that apply to one's daily life, your property rights and the administration of government on a state and a local level.

Experience enables the holder of this office to perform the problems of the office in an efficient and prompt manner. Being a legislator is an exact science, and having served as your Representative for two terms, the knowledge I have gained there will be of benefit to each of you.

My record as your Representative is my platform; it has been open and above board and you will find that I have worked for the benefit of Highlands County and the State at all times. As your legislator, I have stood for good government economically administered. Prior to attending the legislature, the Senator and I held public hearings and invited discussions of your problems.

During the 1957 session I served as Chairman of the important Taxation, Judiciary, Personnel and Public Health Committees.

I deem it a privilege and honor to be your Representative and will be grateful for your support and vote in the September Primary. You will find me willing to discuss and review with you our County and State problems at any time.

Seeks Re-Election To School Board

E. RAY WELLS

E. Ray Wells, one of Avon Park's outstanding civic leaders and owner of Wells Motor Company, has announced that he will seek re-election as a member of the Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County in the September Primaries.

Mr. Wells, a native of Florida, has been a resident of Avon Park since 1930. He is completing his second term as a member of the School Board and was elected as a School Trustee for two terms prior to serving on the School Board.

He is a member of the First Baptist Church, a deacon, financial secretary and teacher of a men's class. He has been a director of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce for many years and also a director of the Avon Citrus Bank and the former Barnett Bank. He has been a active member of the Avon Park Rotary since 1942 and has taken a leading role in the Community Development Association.

AP Registration Will Open On Tuesday, July 15

Registration books for the City of Avon Park will open on Tuesday, July 15, and will remain open until Thursday, August 28. The books, located at the City Hall, will be open Monday through Friday, from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m., during these dates.

All residents of Avon Park who have not voted in the last two years are urged to check the books to make sure that their names are accounted for, and those who haven't registered and want to vote in the September 9th City Election may do so by going to the City Hall.

Candidates for the forth coming City Election may qualify at the City Hall during the period that the registration books are open.

An appeal is being made to the residents of Avon Park not to confuse the City Election on September 9 with the County and State primaries. You must be registered at the City Hall to vote in the City Election. The County uses different books so one must be registered in County books to vote in the September primaries. Make sure that you arg registered in both set of books.

Help For Premature Infants

The science of dietetics, like many other sciences, has made great strides in a comparatively short period of time. A vast literature of new knowledge and information has been gained.

The attitude toward meat in the diet has undergone particularly significant change. It used to be believed, for instance, that meat was not needed by the elderly, and might actually prove harmful to them. Now the dieticians know that meat—with its high protein content and other values—is essential to the mental and physical well-being of practically all people of all ages. And meat—properly prepared in proper quanity and of the proper kind—has proven to be of outstanding value in promoting recovery from many illnesses.

A fresh testimonial to meat's worth in dealing with specific health problems appears in the June edition of the Journal of Diseases of Children, an American Medical Association publication. Written by two doctors, its point is that anemia and iron deficiencies in pre-mature infants can be partially overcome with the early addition of meat to their diet. This dietary supplement, given within two to four weeks after birth, has particular value in increasing red cell volume and circulating hemoglobin mass and building iron reserves. The study is based on a year-long test, and the authors say that "strained meats were well tolerated by all infants, and frequent gastric distress associated with the administration of medicinal iron was avoided."

Fire On The Farm

Various problems concerning agriculture are widely and continuously discussed. But there's one major problem that we don't hear enough about—and its name is fire.

The Department of Agriculture tells us that fire losses on the nation's farms have shown an almost steady increase over the past 18 years. In that span of time, the loss has gone up about two-and-a-half times—from $64 million in 1940 to $162 million last year.

Fire is a menace anywhere. It is particularly so on farms. Fire protective facilities are often of limited value, at best, and in many instances are non-existent or virtually so. When fire strikes, especially in the hot dry season, the chance of a total loss is high.

Inflation has brought with it another and related problem. The house or barn or other structure a farmer built 20 years ago will cost twice as much today if it has to be replaced, and perhaps more. That goes for equipment and possessions of practically every kind, large and small. The consequence is that farmers—like most of the rest of us—are under-insured. The average property owner—in and out of agriculture—will be in for a shock if he carefully inventories his possessions, totals their value at today's prices, and compares that with his insurance coverage.

The wise farmer will periodically re-appraise his holdings in the light of changing prices and values. And he will continually practice fire prevention. A little thought, a little common-sense, will greatly reduce the hazards.

Transforming Wants Into Production

The American system of mass production has been the subject of an untold number of books, articles and speeches. But mass production's partner, without which it could not work, has been given much less attention than it deserves. That partner is mass distribution.

A booklet issued by the Committee for Economic Development, gives full credit to mass production. Then it says: "But, of course, 'mass production' is impossible without a 'mass market'. Consumers have to be relied upon to take the goods as they stream away from the producing machinery. Before that happens, the ceaseless flow of goods must be made available—conveniently, attractively, and economically—so that potential buyers can obtain them instantly. The American economy is outstanding in the degree to which it has developed these two basic economic processes—distribution and consumption."

What is perhaps the most important economic provision embodied in the Constitution, the booklet observes, is that prohibiting obstruction of free movement of goods over the land—that is, preventing what would amount to state or local tariffs. With this legal base, it goes on, "our system of consumer-distribution has developed into a vast blanketing net, with capillary delivery, that reaches every tiny group of habitations on the land. This system . . . also serves to transform latent wants into actual sales, and therefore into production."

Demand, in other words, is established at the retail level, and from there moves back along the chain that ends on the farm and in the factory. Neither mass production nor mass distribution could exist without the other—and the one is as important as the other.

An Ad In The Paper

One of the most valuable tools that has been used for combatting the current recession is the advertising power of home town and neighborhood newspapers. At the end of every production line stands the consumer and national prosperity is but the sum total of local prosperity. In thousands of communities all across the country because of editorial comment encouraging people to buy in their own neighborhood or in their own home town and as a result of newspaper advertising programs undertaken by local merchants, local retail sales, the pulsebeat of national prosperity, have been much encouraged.

An ad in the local paper has always been the mark of a successful business and the experience of recent months has only served to prove the point.

A Man-Made Miracle

The Salk vaccine is a modern miracle—for those who use it.

But for the Salk vaccine, thousands of men, women and children now walking, running, playing and working would be in hospitals and treatment centers trying desperately to regain the use of ruined arms and legs. These people are still sound, whole human beings because they protected themselves against polio paralysis by three shots of vaccine.

Actually, there is nothing miraculous about the miracle of the Salk vaccine. The vaccine introduces into the blood stream tiny doses of polio virus so weakened that it can no longer cause paralysis. But this "killed" virus still has enough pep to produce the antibodies that fight back against the polio virus.

Then, when the polio virus enters the body, the antibodies go to work. The result might be at worst a slight fever or a slight sore throat and, after a day or two, the system is back to normal. The antibodies have won the fight against the deadly little virus.

The miracle of the Salk vaccine is a man-made miracle. It was made by men who delved deeply into nature's mysteries to find out what caused polio, and then used nature's own protective forces to combat the crippling so often caused by the disease in the past. The vaccine merely triggers the body's own defensive mechanisms. Once started, these mechanisms can win the fight almost every time.

Take advantage of this modern miracle. Get your polio shots now.

This year the Tennessee Valley Authority celebrates its 25th birthday. Writing in Newsweek, Raymond Moley reviews TVA's activities and purposes, and concludes: ". . . if this is not Socialism, then Socialists at home and abroad who have hailed it as a great first step to the abundant life are badly fooled. Certainly to call the TVA 'democracy in action,' as its adherents hail it, is a misnomer because the directorate responsible only to the President and Congress has plenary power—a power that has grown with the years."

Some reports said that the attacks made on Vice President Nixon in South America came from students. However, according to J. Edgar Hoover, many of the participants were persons in their late thirties and forties. Mr. Hoover also says that the attacks were definitely communist-inspired.

Editor's Mail Bag

Editor of the Avon Park Sun

Dear Sir;

What has happened to our Fair City? Imagine my shock, not surprise, when I drove down our lovely Mall yesterday, July 4, and saw one lonely flag flying in the breeze. One business place remembered it was the anniversary of our glorious heritage of freedom won by the blood shed, prayers and tears of our forebears - won at such a cost. Only a few years ago every place of business along our Mall unfurled our beautiful flag in front of their establishments and it was a heart stirring sight. It made our hearts thrill as we gazed upon our avenue of red, white and blue. What has happened to us, Mr. Editor, Can you tell Me?

Signed,
An Old Settler

To The Voters Of Highlands County

Having qualified as a candidate to succeed myself as Tax Collector in the September Primaries, I, Helen S. Peck, wish to express my sincere appreciation for the interest which the voters have shown since I announced my candidacy.

"I have already been around the county extensively, and have found no dissatisfaction whatever with the services rendered by the Tax Collector's office. On the contrary, the feeling has been one of appreciation for the friendly and courteous treatment from the office personnel. I have been told that there is some feeling against 'women in politics', but have not run into it personally, and it is my belief that most people agree with the leaders of our state who recently publicly expressed their approval of women in government and the outstanding job they are doing. The two deputies working with me in the office are Miss Nell Oshton of Lorida, and Mrs. Lucille Shockley of Avon Park."

"Of prime interest to most of the people is the job to be done and that it be done with the greatest efficiency. As one business man put it, "In my business I wouldn't think of training a man to do a job well, and paying him while he learned, then fire him just so I might give another man a job. If I did, I'm afraid I wouldn't be in business long."

"With the largest tax roll in the history of our county coming up this fall, it is my firm belief that the people of Highlands County will not want to make a change, but want the assurance that their office is going to be run with the utmost efficiency and service available. I can promise them such a program if I am elected to fill the unexpired term, and it is my sincere hope that the voters will approve my qualifications, based upon experience and past performance as Deputy Collector for 9 years and as appointed Collector since November, 1957.

Joseph Skipper Takes Part In Blue Bolt Attack

San Francisco, Calif. (FHTNC)—Joseph K. Skipper, aviation electronics technician third class, USN, of 109 E. Walnut St., Avon Park, Fla., with Attack Squadron 192, is scheduled to take part in the First Fleet Striking Force Exercise "Blue Bolt", July 7 to 11.

The operation involves a force of some 36 ships, 26 squadrons of Naval aircraft, and over 22,000 personnel, making it the largest Eastern Pacific training exercise this year.

Ships and aircraft at sea will form fast-moving "blue" attack carrier teams which will strike out against simulated mainland targets. "Orange" defensive forces, consisting of Naval planes and submarines, will try to outwit the invaders. This will mark the first use of an angled-deck anti-submarine carrier in Pacific Fleet exercises.

Striking Force Exercises are designed to give advanced training to personnel preparing to deploy to the U. S. Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

A Voice From Avon Park Prison

By James E. Hess

What would your normal reaction be as an employer if an ex-convict came to you for a job? What would your reaction be if you suddenly discovered that your next door neighbor were an "ex-con"?

Most people like to think they are pretty much on the liberal side and open minded about most things. The fact of the matter is that they probably are until personally faced with a particular situation. The convict brings to mind a picture of unsavory characters and who wants to be associated with unsavory characters—the "ex-" usually makes no impression at all.

It is not this writer's intention to chastise the readers for something that is as natural as getting out of bed in the morning. My purpose is to emphasize the problems that are facing a man when he is released from prison after having served his sentence. His punishment, unfortunately, usually doesn't end with his release. His record accompanies him wherever he goes and the label of "ex-con" is his for life.
