Bass Shines In 3-1 Win Over County Rivals

The undefeated Avon Park Red Devils wrapped up the Ridge Conference Southern Division championship last Tuesday night with a 3-1 victory over the Sebring Blue Streaks at Head Field. It was Avon Park's 11th straight win of the season.

Mulberry was busy at the same time clinching the Ridge Northern Division title so the Devils will meet the Panthers on Friday, May 5, for the Ridge Championship play-off game. The play-off site will be chosen by the two coaches of the division champions.

Devil hurlers Norman Willis and Glenn Bass teamed up to limit Blue Streaks to two singles with Bass taking the win for his fifth straight. He relieved Willis in the third with the bases loaded and one man out. The Streaks scored their lone run in the third frame when Bass walked losing hurler Jackie Newcomer to give Rodney Walker a free trip home. Willis had walked Walker and Annett and Irving Fordham had singled to load the bases before Bass came on in relief.

Avon Park scored their first run in the bottom of the third to tie the game up 1-1. Dale Batson was hit by a pitched ball, moved to second when Bobby Bates was safe on an error by the pitcher, and came home on a throwing error by the Streak second baseman, Jack Pugh. Pugh fielded a grounder by Dick Nagel and tagged out Bates running to second but errored on his throw to first attempting the double play so Batson scampered home.

The Red Devils threatened again in the fourth when they had a man on third and second and only one out but the alert Streak catcher picked Milton off at third and the next man popped up to the catcher to end the inning.

Dick Nugel led off in the sixth with a walk and scored the winning run when shortstop Lamon Money blasted a triple over the centerfielder's head deep in left center. Money then added the insurance run by scoring on a pasted ball.

Sebring pulled off one double play and caught three Red Devils off base in a fine display of defensive ball but Money's triple and four costly errors by the Streaks were the difference between the two Highlands County rivals.

Jack Newcomer went the distance for Sebring. He gave up four hits, walked two, fanned three and hit one Red Devil with a pitched ball. Glenn Bass struck out 11 batters during his four and two-thirds innings on the mound. He also walked four and gave up one hit.

Devils Thump Wildcats

Hardee High's Wildcats became the Red Devils tenth victim last Saturday night when the Devils handed them a 12-0 thrashing behind the two-hit pitching of southpaw Glenn Bass. The game, which was played in Wauchula, was called after five full innings due to the ten-run-lead ruling.

Bass faced only 19 batters and struck out nine of them while walking two and giving up two

Educational Television Undergoes Tests In Highlands County Schools

Television made its debut as part of the Highlands County School curriculum this week, as a testing project got underway at Sebring Woodlawn Elementary School.

Julian Markham, county supervisor, told The Sun the program was strictly in the testing stage at the present. WEDU, Channel 3, Tampa, is being used in the tests. Emphasis is being placed on the quality of reception, Markham said. He pointed out that Highlands County is on the fringe area of reception for the educational channel.

The daytime program of the educational television station closely relates to that taught in the county schools, with arts, reading, language, social studies and science featured.

As to the extent TV will be used in the classroom, Markham said, "it will have little effect on the present teacher shortage, but will supplement certain types of study which heretofore have not been available." It has not been determined what grade levels the video lessons will cover.

Markham strongly urged parents in the area to visit the school and see first hand the TV educational system in practice.

Three Avon Men Sentenced On DWI Charges

Three Avon Park men pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated charges in county court Monday. Each of the drivers—Ray Harold Palmer, Spirgon Cherry Conrad and James David Evans, all white—also pleaded guilty to driving without a valid license.

Judge Mervin Rehrer set penalties of $200 or 90 days in jail for each of the drivers on the driving while intoxicated charges and $30 or 20 days in jail for driving without a license.

In addition, Palmer lost his right to a driver's licensne for three months. Conrad's license was revoked for a year.

Milton Mixon of Frostproof pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated. He was fined $200 or 90 days in jail and his license was revoked for six months.

In other cases in county court Monday, Thomas Griffin and Bobby Maxey each entered pleas of not guilty to charges of taking alligators out of season.

Flowers Freed By Jury In Trial This Week

In Circuit Court this week a jury freed Dan Flowers on two counts of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon.

The week's only jury trial was held Monday. Judge Ganter Stephenson, presided. State Attorneys Glen Darty and Assistant State Attorney J. O. Macbeth prosecuted. Richard Hyatt was counsel for the defendant.

Members of the jury were Harold A. Barker of Avon Park; William R. Negus and William Cole Osborne of Lake Placid; Milton R. Ramer, James G. Maxey, and Foreman Clarence G. Thorpe, Sebring.

In other cases R. C. Bass waived jury trial and requested that he be tried by the court. He was found guilty of withholding support. The court deferred sentence on the condition that he provide support for his children.

Tuesday, Bobby Bateman entered a plea of guilty to a charge of attempt to commit statutory rape. He had previously pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault to rape. A presentence investigation was ordered by Judge Stephenson.

William Smith, who had previously pleaded not guilty to resisting arrest, changed his plea to guilty. The case was dismissed. Smith was represented by Attorney Keith Collyer.

City Beach To Get Facelifting

Many Avon Park citizens are watching with interest the progress being made at the City Beach on Lake Verona. With the swimming season upon us, the Beach will be a popular spot for young and old alike.

Located so conveniently near the highway, and picnic area, and according to many who have been pushing the project this City Beach will be an added attraction to the City of Avon Park.

The Chamber of Commerce committee composed of George Boyder, Roy Selms and Capt. E. A. Flint investigated the possibilities and with interest from all of the Civic Clubs of the City, the Council voted to provide a 300 foot beach off Donaldson Park.

Named for the late Mayor C. S. Donaldson, who created Avon Park's famous mile-long mall with its tropical and sub-tropical plants, the city beach will add to this well-landscaped park, when it is completed.

County Commissioners Back Proposed Law Library Bill

Two Sebring Men, Miamian Charged In Fruit Theft

A trio of alleged fruit thieves posted bonds of $2000 each this week following their arrest by Sheriff Broward Coker on charges of grand larceny of citrus fruit from the Sebring Packing Company.

Charges were placed against Patsy Testa, 53, Miami; Grady Pate, 38 and J. H. Maynard, 57, both of Sebring. The arrests were made after a week's investigation by Sheriff Coker and Woodrow Harshman and Floyd Schumacher, owners of the packing company. Pate was house foreman and Maynard, shipping foreman.

Testa, Pate and Maynard are alleged to have collaborated in the theft of approximately 2700 boxes of fruit during the season.

According to Sheriff Coker, Testa made 45 trips to Sebring with his truck and loaded with 120 field crates of fruit, but was only billed for 60 crates. Payments for the remaining 60 crates are alleged to have been made to Pate and Maynard.

Red Devils Begin Long Home Stand

Thursday night (tonight) the Hardee High Wildcats will be at Head Field for a return game with the Devils and Friday night (tomorrow) the Kissimmee Kowboys will come seeking revenge for the 8-5 defeat the Avon Park boys handed them last week.

Then next Monday, April 24, the postponed Frostproof game will be played at Head Field and the following Friday night, April 28, the northern division leader, Mulberry, will be the Devils opponent here.

All home games start at 7:30 p. m.

The Red Devils have lost young Louis Hunter for the season. He moved out of the state last week-end. Louis was batting .350 for the Devils and had credit for a home run against Arcadia.

APPLY FINISHING TOUCHES—Seminole Indian women applied the finishing touches to the newly widened Highway 27-98 here last week, as they seeded the road shoulders with grass. The women, part of a delegation from the Brighton Reservation, worked under the direction of Armmon McClelland, Okeechobee, (background center), grassing contractor for the project.

Court Clerk To Serve As Unit Librarian

Highlands County Commissioners, Tuesday, went on record favoring establishment of a county law library. Representative Howard Livingston had requested an expression of opinion from the Board before introducing the library bill to the state legislature.

The Highlands County Bar Association had previously endorsed the proposal. At the Commissioners meeting Tuesday, Sebring Attorney Harry Lee requested the Commissioners endorsement.

County Attorney R. P. Dunty, Jr., said the legislation would require the Commissioners provide housing for the library. Clerk Earl Rich pointed out that one provision of the bill was for a Deputy Clerk to serve as librarian for such a unit. He said his present staff is overworked and the budget does not provide for hiring an additional deputy.

The library will be financed from an added $10 fee for occupational licenses issued to attorneys in the county and from additional $2.50 fee for each litigation filed in the county clerk's office. The commission will also kick in additional funds.

If approved, the library will be supervised by a committee composed of the resident circuit judge, county judge, circuit court clerk, one member of the county commission and three members of the county bar association.

Commissioner Ben Hagan was designated by the board to serve as its representative before the state legislature. McGee will go to Tallahassee, Thursday, to work on behalf of the County Code now under consideration by the legislature.

Prior to the opening of the present legislature, Highlands County Representative Livingston had told the commissioners that he favored adoption of the Code.

Attorney Dunty reported to the Board that he had received a letter from Sebring City Attorney J. O. Macbeth requesting a delay on secondary road projects within Sebring.

Contracts have been let for secondary road improvements within Avon Park, and the time schedule for Lake Placid improvements has been approved.

Sebring city officials have indicated a desire to wait until the Legislature has acted. A bill currently under consideration would permit use of secondary road money to pay the cost of moving utility poles along the roads to be improved.

In other business the Board voted a gift of $980 to the Lake Placid band for a trip to Miami. The band is to participate in the state music festival there. Earlier this year the Commissioners had made similar gifts to the Avon Park and Sebring bands.

Avon Park resident Clifford Kraft was hired by the Board to bring county property lists up to date.

The Board accepted the $4,179 bid of Florida Equipment Co. of Orlando for lease-purchase of a used maintenance grader for District 5.

Conditional approval was given for plats for the following subdivisions: Sebring Shores, Seavon Acres, Lotela Heights, Sebring Ridge and Highlands Park. The board also voted to advertise a hearing on a request to close a street in Lake Jackson Heights sub-division near Sebring.

Avon Park Little League Meets; Joe Perez To Head Group Again

Charles Allwood was chosen to act as player agent and Mrs. John L. Townsend will be chairman of the donation and concession department. Archie Jordon has volunteered to be on hand at all games to assist with donations and other necessary jobs.

Last Monday all boys who played in little league competition last season met for practice and last Tuesday all new eleven and twelve year olds reported for practice. Wednesday and Thursday new nine and ten year olds were to be at practice so that bidding for players could take place on Friday (tomorrow).

Managers for the four teams will be the same as last season with J. C. Walker and Melvin Green handling the Florida Power Employees' team, J. T. Landress in charge of the Lions entry, Raymond Cook and Ab Wester managing the First Baptist boys, and Grover Bates and Virgil Sizemore coaching the Rotary nine.

The season will open on Tuesday, May 2, and finish up the first week of July. There will be no games scheduled the week of June 12-16 due to the State High School Baseball Tournament being held here. Games will be played at 6 and 7:30 p. m. every Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Most of the evening was spent in completing their project of making sun glass cases, which are to be given as favors when the Auxiliary meets with the Florida State Medical Convention to be held in Miami, May 25-28.

The Highlands County Group undertook this project at an all-day session held at the home of Mrs. S. A. King last month, as a means of becoming better acquainted. THE HIDDEN TAX OF INFLATION

The cruelest tax in the United States falls most heavily upon Americans in the lower income tax brackets. It is a hidden tax — a tax called inflation. Ironically, excessive spending by the federal government, put forward by the big spenders under the guise of helping people of limited means, actually makes daily living much harder for these citizens.

For these Americans, inflation represents a kind of creeping paralysis. They are not able to juggle investments to make up for the higher cost of living, for they mostly have no investments except their homes and insurance policies. And inflation makes maintenance of a home increasingly difficult and steadily hacks away at the value of life insurance.

The high cost of living affects entire communities as well as individuals. Real estate taxes rise as cities seek funds to carry on municipal housekeeping. The pressure of inflation boosts the price of everything purchased by the municipalities. Home owners find it more and more expensive to maintain their homes and more and more difficult to pay off what they owe.

Let us consider what has happened to savers in six major groups represented by U. S. savings bonds, time deposits in all banks, savings capital of savings and loan associations, life insurance in force, annuities in force, and social security trust and employment funds. It has been estimated that during the last 20 years the depreciated buying power of our money has cost these savers the equivalent of about $4,600 for every family in the United States today.

A loss of $4,600 per family!

FACT AND OPINION

From The Wall Street Journal: " . . . . we wonder what a vista would open up for the American economy if, every single year, the Government let the people keep a few more billions of dollars to spend on their homes, their cars, their clothes and their pleasures. Might we not find that this enlargement of the private-income stream would not only speed up the factories but keep them humming?"

Once a child has indicated he is left-handed he should be encouraged to develop his left-handedness. He should not be prodded into becoming right-handed or ambidextrous. That is the consensus of a number of experts quoted in an article in the April issue of Today's Health, the American Medical Association's magazine of general circulation. Forcing a left-handed child to use his right hand may lead to serious emotional disturbances.

The Tax Foundation tells us that we Americans paid twice as much in taxes in 1960 as in 1950—and will pay something like $8 billion more this year than last.

The State of Citrus

By John Sikes — Florida Citrus Mutual

LAKELAND, April 18—Florida citrus is recruiting a Youth Corps, too.

This one might ease no international tensions, such as uncomplicating the Congo complex, soothing the Laotians, or bringing Nikita to heel. But this Corps would make a more delicious world, brimming with licking goodness and tasty amity.

A representative percentage of adult America already knows that Florida citrus, eaten and/or drunk in adequate quality every day, will provide the body with the most of natural vitamin C plus a medical dictionary full of other essential vitamins and minerals, help svelte the figure and, in general, accomplish as much, or more, as any apple, or apples, in keeping the doctor away.

This summer, and perhaps from now on, Florida citrus is going to give the young folks an especial go at realizing how just plain good-to-eat our Florida oranges, grapefruit, etc., are.

The young folks will learn of the confectionary delights they may easily concoct from a can of frozen orange concentrate, for instance. For no more effort than it takes to come by a coupon, to be featured with Florida citrus advertising, the youngsters can acquire frozen orange juice stick kits. With the kit is a mold, a plastic gadget with four compartments, in which they can make for themselves frozen orange juice sticks with little more bother than shucking the wrapper off a lollipop.

All they have to do is mix a few spoons of water with the contents of a six-ounce can of orange concentrate and pour the mixture into the mold. Put the mold into the freezing unit of the family refrigerator and in no time at all there'll be frozen goodies that'll tame the craving of any hungry and thirsty Little Leaguer.

While this goodie will please both man and boy—Papa will probably keep snitching Junior's supply from the icebox—Sister, who craves confections as much as Brother, may deem herself too grown-up to go around licking orange juice from a stick.

So Sister's confectionary needs will also be taken care of by Florida citrus. In the industry's advertising this Summer the delights of "Sunny Sundae" and citrus shortcake, among other drooleers, will be nationally depicted.

This approach—recruiting millions of American youths to lick Florida frozen orange juice sticks and to devour "Sunny Sundaes" and citrus shortcakes—could tap a huge additional market for Florida oranges, grapefruit and tangerines.

Another angle: Some enterprising future tycoon among the youngsters just might go into the business of making frozen orange juice sticks in his Mom's refrigerator and selling his handiwork to the neighborhood kids who didn't want to bother with freezing their own sticks. This would be the modern counterpart of the neighborhood home-made lemonade stands that have apparently passed from the boyhood American scene.

Jim Haley Reports

WASHINGTON, D. C. — By way of a change of pace, instead of reporting to you this week about your Congress and your representative in it, I am going to try to report on you. This is a brief summary of impressions I gained about your thinking, as a group, while I was in the district during the Easter recess.

In the first place, I found that in general the people of the seventh district approve of the somewhat cautious approach of The Congress to the New Frontier. As I do, you see many good things in President Kennedy's legislative program, and you too want these proposals approved.

But you also see the dangers that could result from too hasty action, and do not seem to want The Congress to approve any legislation without the full and mature consideration that is an absolute necessity if we are to avoid taking some steps we might regret later.

Also impressive to me was the change in the general attitude toward Mr. Kennedy in the less than three months that he has been in office. I do not by any means imply that all of you who were opposed to Mr. Kennedy in November now are for him. But a surprising number of those who did oppose him told me that so far they have been favorably impressed by his performance to date—his appointments, the relative moderation of his proposals, and above all his alert grasp of his job's complexities. There was much comment on the President's attitude that the people have a right to know about what's going on in their government, what the problems are, and what are the dangers that we face as a nation. I found almost everyone to whom I talked happy about the President's willingness to give a quick, straightforward answer to questions about public policy, rather than resorting to the vaguely-worded, ambiguous statements which all too often come from ranking government officials.

I found concern among you about taxes and government spending, and about the dangers we face in Laos and elsewhere. Such concern is of course quite natural, and you may be certain it is shared by your representative and your Congress.

I also found many of you more disturbed about the much-publicized Peace Corps than about anything else. I was asked many questions about it, and I am sorry that I had few solid answers. This is a sample of where Congress could make some horrible mistakes by rushing in and creating a new government agency on the basis of glamorized publicity, rather than on the basis of solid information.

If there is to be a Peace Corps, it inevitably will have far-reaching effects on our young people and quite probably on our foreign relations. We thus cannot afford to authorize such an instrumentality solely because publicity men make it sound good. We must know that it is good; we must lay down ground rules for its operation that will prevent it from damaging either our own youth, or the future of the Free World.

The Avon Park Sun
Avon Park, Florida

Dear Mr. Baslee:

We think the article carried in your March 9 issue under the headline "School Superintendent Clarifies Child Labor Law" gives in simple and understandable language a summary of a very complicated and involved piece of legislation.

We asked one of our field agents to thank you, Juvenile Judge Rehrer and Superintendent Andy Miracle for this fine coverage when he was in Avon Park on other business. The possibility that Mr. Greene did not make the purpose of his visit clear to you occurs to us after reading your letter.

Again let me express our appreciation and our hope that you will continue to carry this informative type of material in the public interest. If we can ever supply you with information regarding the administration of the Child Labor Law, you have but to call upon us.

We hope that Mr. Miracle and Judge Rehrer will let us know if at any time they feel we can assist in keeping the children of your county in school when they should be there and in seeing that their employment is not to their detriment.

Very truly yours,
Wm. T. Bodiford

A weekly report on the 1961 Legislature From Senator G. W. (Dick) Williams

April 14—This has been a busy week for the Senate as local bills began coming in from the House of Representatives and the pace of general legislation started to increase.

During the past week, several local bills for Highlands county passed the Senate after approval by the House. These included two bills creating a county hospital district, one with the whole county as a district and the other excluding Avon Park. Both carry referendums.

In the field of general legislation, this was a very important week. After six years of hard infighting, a reapportionment plan for the Senate was approved in the form of a constitutional amendment and an implementing bill; an escheatment bill was passed by the Senate; and a fine package of citrus legislation was readied for presentation.

The reapportionment amendment, which will be submitted to the state's voters in November, 1962, provides that the top 23 counties each will receive a senator and the other 44 will have 22 senators among them, for a total Senate membership of 45 instead of the present 38. Of the seven additional senators, five will come from the South Florida area. The amendment also provides that a county will automatically receive a senator of its own when it reaches a population of 50,000.

As far as the 27th district is concerned, the implementing bill provides that Hardee, DeSoto and Glades will remain as the 27th with Highlands joining Charlotte to form a new 44th district. I shall remain as 27th district senator until my term expires in 1964, but there will be a special election in Highlands and Charlotte, if the amendment passes, to chose a new senator for that district.

I feel that, after careful study, the people in the district will agree with me that any time the number of counties in a district is reduced, the people benefit through more direct representation. This fight has continued for a long time and it is my understanding that if it is not settled now, the federal government will step in and reapportion the state in a manner perhaps not as acceptable or beneficial, with a possible loss of benefits for a number of counties.

I am very pleased with the citrus legislation program. I am glad that I was able to get representatives of Florida Citrus Mutual, the Citrus Commission and others to agree to an amendment to the stabilization act. It provides that any new citrus taxes be voted for by at least 51 per cent of the state's growers, who also must produce at least 51 per cent of the variety involved, instead of the original proposal which called for approval of only the growers producing 51 per cent of the volume. This amendment should be of help to the small grower.

Other bills in the package increase the bond for fruit purchasers for greater grower protection and strengthen the law curbing fruit thefts.

I feel the escheatment bill was long overdue. It provides that some $10,000,000 lying idle in banks, bonding companies, utility companies, etc., will be returned to the state if unclaimed after 15 years. After that time the owner may reclaim it by furnishing sufficient evidence of ownership.

An obscene literature bill also passed the Senate this week and goes as far as a state law can in curbing the flow of this material.

True Bravery

If every person felt as I
about things that I abhor
They'd never have the courage(?) or cowardly
greed to start a war
I'll get rid of those invaders

But even then I do it while the inner me protests!
I try to be so nonchalant,
my queasiness to quell
But something stronger than my will,
inside of me rebels!
Though I could aid
a wounded friend,
and ne'er betray a squirm,
I'll never be a fisherman . . .
for I cannot spear the worm!

MEIKROWAVES

By Don Meiklejohn

TALLAHASSEE. — It was a pretty awesome thing—the combination of powerhouse politics, cagey finesse and precise timing—that Gov. Farris Bryant bridled to push his reapportionment plan through the Senate.

Perhaps, it is just because there hasn't been that kind of power play originating in the governor's office for a long time that is was impressive—but stacked up with almost any political manuever, it would shape up as at least an "A plus" effort.

Actually you don't have to like the plan to be somewhat awed by the techniques used to push it through.

Probably most significant is that the techniques provide the best possible example of the differences between former Gov. LeRoy Collins and Bryant.

In two words, it is "follow through."

Bryant did what Collins never would do—he got in and rough housed a bit with the boys . . . an arm twist here, a pat on the head there, a promise here, a threat there.

He called on every known technique of ramming the measure through—all built around one new gimmick . . . "hopscotch" Senate districts, if needed, "a provision allowing counties to be in the same district even if they did not touch.

This was balanced off with another gimmick—automatic senators, after 1970 for counties with more than 50,000 population . . . "a delayed-action, 67 Senator plan."

It, of course, was welded together with concessions to the politically powerful.

Of course the long-long bickering between Collins and the Senate helped set the stage for Bryant, but it is still doubtful that Collins, given the same circumstances, would have displayed the political mastery of Bryant. The only apparent obstacle seems to be whether Bryant can devise a technique to sell it to the voters . . . the outlook seems to be that he can.

There are, of course, plenty of "hooks" in the plan for the reapportionment purist . . . hooks that can't be justified in thory.

But just about everything in the plan . . . from the "hopscotch" provision to leaving Senate Dean Dil Clarke's tiny Jefferson county seat alone makes practical political sense.

The plan is just good enough to make it mighty tempting to many diverse elements.

For the really big counties it doesn't offer too much except a little peace and quiet, and the hope that it will juggle the membership in the Senate enough to help out in the long haul.

For the fairly big counties, it offers the same hope.

For the frustrated middle-sized counties, many of which have been seeking senators of their own, it ends this quest, and holds out the promise that the next reapportionment battle won't make them the middle men . . . instead, the next fight will probably be between the really little and the little counties.

For the "pork chop" senator, who has been fighting to keep a mathematically unjustified seat, it delays the funeral for at least 10 years.

For Bryant, it could prove, if the voters buy the plan, that he did something LeRoy Collins talked about, but didn't accomplish—a mighty satisfying thing for Bryant who tends to have a long political memory.

For the "pork chop" leaders, it provides a chance, rightly or wrongly, to brag that they really ain't as obstinate as some pople have pictured them.

This, of course, may be disproved when some of the fine print is closely examined.

For the half-hearted "pork chopper"—the Senator who has been voting with the majority bloc because he was afraid of what the boys might do on reapportionment, it provides an opportunity to do a little "scatter-gun voting.

Now, whether all this adds up to something that is good or bad for the state, is something else again.

But, the merits of the plan "notwithstanding" as they say in the Legislature, it was a mighty fine political show.

Finesse, power . . . timing—that was the story. . . .

True to their promises the legislators are not going to impose any new taxes. Because, as I said before, there ain't no such thing. But they're sure going to get a lot more millage with old levies.

Usually legislators start out by soaking the smoker, the drinker and the driver. It started that way in Tallahassee. Then it went on until nobody could think of anything else to tax.

By the time the gentlemen adjourn and head home to here it comes there ain't gonna be nothing you can buy without putting something in the capital kitty. I hear they're even considering a three per cent tax on items you window shop for.

It may not be long before items are advertised for so much—price included.

Oldsmobile Unveils New Sports Coupe; To Burn Regular Grade Gas

Oldsmobile started production Monday, on its new high-performance Sports Coupe—the F-85 Cutlass, Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and a vice president of General Motors announced today.

Production will also start on the F-85 Club Coupe—a new two-door economy model, he stated.

"These two new F-85 models are in addition to Oldsmobile's present four-door sedans and station wagons," Wolfram said. They will become available at Oldsmobile dealers in May.

"The Cutlass is equipped with a more powerful, 185 h.p. Oldsmobile Rockette aluminum V-8 engine and has many of the interior appointments found in the finest sports cars, including stylized bucket seats as standard equipment," he added.

The exterior of the new F-85 Cutlass sports coupe is characterized by its own sharply styled roof line, and a rectangular rear window that emphasizes its sports car flair. An even more distinctive roof treatment—available as an extra-cost option on this model only—is offered in the form of a textured white all-vinyl roof covering. On both sides of the car, identifying Cutlass emblems appear on the upper rear quarter panels.

Shown here is the handsome new Oldsmobile F-85 Cutlass, a high-performance sports coupe powered by a 185-horsepower Rockette aluminum V-8 engine and featuring, as standard equipment, bucket front seats and other luxurious interior appointments. The Cutlass has its own distinctive roof line with a more nearly rectangular back window that emphasizes its sports car flair. In addition to the new Cutlass, Oldsmobile is now shipping to its dealers throughout the country a new club coupe economy model to further expand the Division's representation in the low-price field.

"Beneath the hood of the F-85 Cutlass," Wolfram said, "Oldsmobile engineers have packed the kind of punch that will provide its owners a new excitement in driving—a new adventure in motoring and maneuverability."

The specially-designed deeper-breathing lightweight Rockette aluminum engine has a 215-cubic-inch displacement and an ultra-high compression ratio of 10.25:1.

Use of premium-grade gasoline, a four-barrel carburetor, high capacity intake manifold and other design features combine to produce 185 h.p. at 4,800 r.p.m. and 220 lb. ft. of torque at 3,200 r.p.m.

Special high compression cylinder heads are used, as is a heavy-duty air cleaner. Further improving the engine's breathing ability are the dual exhaust outlets, leading from a single, aluminized muffler.

A high-torque rear axle gear ratio of 3.36:1 is standard on the Cutlass, and is used with both the synchromesh transmission and the optional (extra cost) new lightweight Hydra-Matic transmission featuring Oldsmobile's exclusive Accel-A-Rotor action.

Avon Park Man To Serve On Bryant Committee

Lt. Colonel Clifton A. McClelland, Avon Park native, was named to the Governor's Committee on Community Growth this week. McClelland is presently research and development administrator at the Air Force Missile Test Center at Patrick AFB.

Personally acquainted with Governor Farris Bryant, McClelland is the first military member of the missile operations group to be appointed to the Governor's committee.

Prime problems facing the committee in the next few years include the housing situation in the state during the next 20 years; The private and public financial aspects of meeting housing needs, and what role will the state and county governments play in providing community facilities and guiding private development consistent with our ideals of free enterprize.

McClelland was recently awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal for outstanding work in community growth problems. He is also one of the civic leaders of the area in which he resides.

Sebring Man Elected Head Of Fire Committee

Carroll Payne of Sebring was elected chairman of the Highlands County Fire Prevention Committee at the annual election of officers meeting held at the Florida Forest Service Headquarters, DeSoto City.

Along with Payne, C. R. Disher of Sebring, and Jack Clark, III, of Lake Placid, were elected to serve on the executive committee.

The Committee, one of 60 organized so far in the state, was authorized by the 1957 Legislature for the purpose of assisting and advising the Florida Forest Service on matters of a local nature relating to forestry.

Major accomplishments of the Fire Prevention Committees in the South Florida area have included the establishment of a number of slash pine planting demonstration sites, activation of fireline plowing and control burning procedures, stimulation of reforestation by landowners and other work with civic and service organizations.

One of the major projects that the Highlands County committee has worked on during the past year was the establishment of a control burning program in certain perimeter areas of the Highlands-Hammock State Park. This carefully planned burning, under the direction of the local park superintendent, L. C. Saladin, and the Highlands County Fire Control Unit of the Florida Forest Service will help to insure the safety of the Highlands-Hammock Park and prevent the possible recurrence of the disasterous 1956 fire when hundreds of acres of park land was devastated by wildfire.

Serving on the Fire Prevention Committee in addition to Chairman Payne and Executive Committee Members Clark and Disher, are Alex Blair, Lake Placid; Hubbard Biggs, Avon Park; George Waggaman, Lorida; and Elgin Bayless, Sebring.

Off The First Tee

Saturday night, May 22, is the night for all the members to come out and really enjoy themselves, for that is the night of the big Spring dance. Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Coleman and Mr. and Mrs. William Briscoe are the committee, and I hear they are doing a great deal of work to make this one of the nicest parties of the year.

They have engaged Vic Mickunas and his orchestra for the occasion. Everyone tells me that Vic has a real smooth band, and has a number of specialities to entertain the dancers. Maybe some of you don't dance, come out anyway, and the committee tells me you will have a good time just hearing the music of Vic and his band.

I am told that we can bring guests to this party, and so all of you make up a party and bring some friends with you. A good time will be had by all.

Several weeks ago I told you of the new families that have moved into the Country Club area, building new homes or leasing one or more of the beautiful homes surrounding the golf course. I failed to mention the new and beautiful home of Don and Elaine Williamson. Their new home on Lake Damon is most attractive, and is a grand addition to this fast growing community.

Those of you who have been playing the course in the past several weeks, must appreciate how much the course is improved with all the work that has been done out there, and if we can only get a little rain now and then the fairways and greens will be perfect.

Don't forget the dance Saturday night, you'll have fun.

Your marriage and your home loan are long-time deals. You get the right girl, and then get your home loan from us, and you'll live happily ever after.

Cub Scouts Visit Avon Airport

Den 4, Pack One, Troop 156 enjoyed a profitable Field Trip last week to the local airport. They were taken on a guided tour of the plant by Shelley Marrs, manager of the Hanger.

Among the interesting things the Cubs learned was that the Federal Government controls all aircraft, and all mechanics must be approved by the Federal Aviation Agency to work on any aircraft. Any vandalism to planes is a federal offense.

They saw the planes that were damaged by Hurricane Donna and saw how the Marrs' engineers are repairing and converting the planes. One is being readied for agriculture spray use.

The Cubs were especially interested to find that Flight Instructions are being given by Frank Marrs.

Den mothers, Mrs. C. Brooks Henderson and Mrs. G. D. Godwin accompanied the Cubs.

The Tampa Ski Bees will launch a seven-week ski tournament April 30. Called the "Bahia Beach Ski Fiesta," entries are expected from all over the Southeast.

Writers will do well to avoid the intoxication of adjectives.

Hilans Theatre To Give Complete Star Wardrobe

For the first time in her screen career, Shirley MacLaine took a real interest in her film wardrobe when discussing details for the outfits she would wear in "All In a Night's Work", playing at the Hilans Theatre April 23-25.

Just what that wardrobe consisted of remains to be seen, but Will Long, manager of the Hilans has announced he will present a complete replica of Shirley's wardrobe to the first 10 ladies admitted at each performance of the feature attraction.

In addition to the shapely Shirley, "All In a Night's Work" stars Dean Martin and Cliff Robertson. Others in the laugh-and-love film are Charlie Ruggles, Norman Crane and Jerome Cowan.

MRS. JAMES VIRGIL RICE

Miss Francisco Weds Jimmie Rice In Episcopal Church Saturday Morning

Morning Nuptials were solemnized Saturday in the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer for Miss Miriam Louise Francisco, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Francisco, and Jimmy Virgil Rice, son of Mrs. Charles Klien of Wharton, New Jersey and Mr. Eulie Rice of Fort Meade, Fla.

Father Dunstan assisted by Monty Maxwell, as acolyte performed the double ring ceremony at 10 a. m. White pom poms and candles formed a background for the Mass. Mrs. Rondney Field presented the music.

The bride wore a formal gown of white embroidered chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta, fashioned with sequins and seed pearls and long traditional sleeves. The bouffant skirt of lace forms an apron effect in front by shirring in the center and caught with roses of lace and falling gracefully over a flounce of tulle. Two tiers of lace in back flowed into a chapel train. Her bubble veil of French illusion was caught into a coronet of sequins and seed pearls. She carried a white satin and lace prayer book adorned with pink sweetheart roses and a cascade of carnations.

The bride's sister, Miss Shirley Francisco was her only attendant. She wore a dress of pink chiffon over taffeta and tull with a matching lace jacket. Her hat was fashioned of pink sweetheart roses and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridegroom's brother, Harold Loftes, attended him as best man. Virgil Tondee and Kenneth Grice served as ushers.

Mrs. Francisco chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of Alice-blue chiffon and taffeta, with accessories of blue and white. Her corsage was of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Eulie Rice wore a dress of Navy blue, fashioned with a bolero jacket and white accessories. Her corsage was of garnet-red rosebuds.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the Church Parrish Hall immediately following the service. Miss Elouria Kelley kept the bride's book.

The brides table was overlaid with a linen cloth and centered with the four-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Dainty pink and white rosebuds and silver tear drops decorated each tier that rested on four posted pedestals. Clusters of large pink hibiscus blossoms were laid at the base of the cake.

Crystal punch bowls set at either end of the long table and were encircled with white gardenias and greenery. Crystal candlesticks and cut glass dishes for the nuts and mints completed the table appointments.

Mrs. Edward Hall cut and served the cake and Mrs. W. Stoddard and Miss Alice Adams presided at the punch bowls.

Numerous arrangements of gardenias set around the reception room and a very beautiful line arrangement of gardenias and white glads was used on the mantel, behind the receiving line. From the center of the room a large wedding bell was suspended with white satin streamers.

Mr. and Mrs. Rice were entertained with a dinner at noon at the Griffin's Restaurant. Close friends and relatives of the couple were guests for the affair.

For their wedding trip, Mrs. Rice wore a dress suit of pink linen. Her corsage was the pink sweetheart roses from her bouquet. When they return from their trip, they will make their home in Fort Meade.

Evers-Tealy Rites Held Saturday

Mrs. Annie M. Evers and Loren A. Tealy of Mineral City, Ohio, were married Saturday afternoon in the Nazarene Church. The Rev. Earl Spurlock officiated in the presence of a few close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Bussard attended the couple for the ceremony.

Mrs. Jerome Shiltz presented a program of music. Mrs. K. R. Filippula sang "The Wedding Hymn".

Following a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Tealy will be at their home on State Street for a few weeks before going to their home in Mineral City, Ohio.

Mr. Tealy is a retired railroad employee and has spent several winters here. Mrs. Tealy has spent most of her life in Avon Park. They plan to divide the time between their Ohio and Florida homes.

Family Reunion At Rodgers Home

Mills of Miami; her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wright and a niece, Mrs. Karl Ponder also of Miami; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Mannie Lou Mills, of Mt. Airy, N. C. who arrived Tuesday by bus and another sister-in-law, Mrs. Rilla Langford of Birmingham, Ala. who came by plane Friday.

Migratory Ducks Show Population Increase in '61

Migratory ducks and geese along the Atlantic Flyway show a slight increase in population over the previous year, according to A. D. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The winter waterfowl survey indicated that while some species of ducks were down, the overall population of both ducks and geese is slightly increased over that of a year ago.

Of the puddle ducks, mallards showed a one per cent decrease, the black duck a 14 per cent decrease, and the pintail a nine per cent increase. The population of gadwall is reported down by 45 per cent. All other puddle ducks showed some increase over last year.

Diving ducks showed an overall increase, with redhead and canvasback showing a substantial increase. The ringneck, which contributes much to Florida's waterfowl hunting, showed a ten per cent decrease.

The survey indicated that while Florida wintered more diving ducks than any other state on the Atlantic flyway, it was surpassed by South Carolina in wintering puddle ducks.

According to the survey, Florida had a Canada goose population of 8,200 during the past winter, while Maryland wintered 241,300, and North Carolina wintered 189,100. The Florida count of geese was probably low because of conditions durieg the survey period. A later survey showed 12,000 geese wintering in Florida.

The overall population of coot showed an increase of five per cent, with Florida wintering an estimated total of 153,900.

Aldrich pointed out that the slight increase in both ducks and geese does not indicate that next season will be greatly improved. Conditions on the northern waterfowl breeding grounds will play a very important role in next years waterfowl hunting. Present breeding ground outlook is "not very good", it was stated.

Methodist Circles Hold Meetings

Six circles of the Methodist Church met last week with Circle One holding a luncheon at noon in Wesley Hall Tuesday. Circle Two met at the home of Mrs. R. A. Gerrard Tuesday afternoon.

Circle Six met with Mrs. Allen Kindel on N. Lake Ave., Tuesday morning. Mrs. Martha Richmond was co-hostess. Mrs. S. M. Swaney presented the program, after the ladies were served hot coffee and breakfast rolls from the dining room.

Mrs. Charles Watson and Mrs. J. L. Carrier were hostesses to Circle Five at the Watson Home, Wednesday morning. A variety of breakfast dainties were attractively served with hot coffee. Mrs. John L. Bridges conducted the business. Mrs. T. H. Maxwell had charge of the program which was a discussion on the topic "Young Mothers and Christianity".

The evening Circle number Four met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Ruby Johns with Mrs. Ethel McKelvaine and Miss Millie Pearson as the co-hostesses.

Winter Guest Club News

At last we are able to tell the world who are the principal officers of the Guest Club. We have not seen the names posted anywhere as has usually been done hitherto, but by a little snooping round we have discovered them. They are: Mrs. Louie Reisner, President; Mr. Jack Flaggert, Secretary; and Mr. Reed Simpson Treasurer. We do not envy any of them for their respective jobs, but we think the trio is a fine selection. Mrs. Reisner, by way of readying herself for the onerous position of president, will be leaving in May for a European trip to inspect the capital cities over there to see how they are run. Bon Voyage, Madam.

The pinochle players play no more. They have folded up, gone out the door, for the rest of the winter season. But the players of bridge, here on the Ridge, play on for some good reason. Mrs. Parry last Tuesday was high, she handled her cards right nifty; Mrs. Lexa was next, she was nigh, the difference betwixt 'em, three fifty.

If penochle has surrendered to the lessening numbers here, dancing has not. At last Monday night practice dance there were more present than needed for three sets. This practice dance, with its regular printed program, has become more and more like what we like to call the regular dance. However, Monday night is primarily instruction night, and the instructor retains the privilege of changing couples from one set to another whenever it seems best for instruction purposes.

Sixty-four were present on Friday night. Seven sets are usually necessary for the repeat numbers, but from all the "goodbyes" we heard on this night this might be the last time when it might be necessary to repeat numbers. The new dance, "The Royal", was very well done. It proved to be interesting rather than amusing. The audience gave it close attention and applauded it vigorously.

As for the great game of shuffleboard there is not too much to report. On Wednesday evening the lightning flashed, the thunder roared, and put kibosh on the shuffleboard. You simply can't run a tournament in the rain. On Saturday evening the fates were better disposed towards the aspirants for shuffleboar fame. It was a fine night, and the top winners were Messrs Flaggert and Askew. Our good friend J. F. is certainly doing well,-secretary of the Guest Club and now co-winner of a tournament. Whoop-la. Messrs Kull and Peters walked off with the consolation prize, and that's doing pretty well too.

The usual Saturday night potluck supper drew 18 hungry souls to the festive board. And, believe it or not, they had a square meal. Which reminds us to ask if anybody ever heard of a round meal? The said eighteen represented ten States, five of which hailed from New York. The supper opened with the Lord's Prayer, and closed with singing "God be with you till we meet again". And when they do meet to sup again there will be two less, for a couple are shoving off for home this week. The hostess for this supper was Mrs. Lawrence, her able assistant Mrs. Kargas.

We close this spiel with a bit of apology, which should have been in a previous issue. In a recent paper we named Mrs. Alton as the very able instructor of the art class this past winter. It should have been Mrs. Alton Welmore. We regret the mistake. How it happened, we don't know, since the full name was before us as we wrote. It was just "one of those things," as the fellow said when he had no other explanation, and so says

.The Stroller

There is no use to get mad with those who haven't got as much sense as you have and therefore seem unable to see things as you see them.

Welcome Wagon Hostess Named For Avon Park

Mrs. J. L. Wells has been appointed Welcome Wagon Hostess for the Avon Park area, Mrs. Margaret Cann supervisor, announced this week.

Mrs. Wells was appointed after Mrs. Cann had interviewed a number of applicants. She left Friday for Miami where she will receive special training in the Welcome Wagon International before beginning work.

The Welcome Wagon program represents many local merchants and businesses, with the hostess calling on newcomers to the city making them welcome and helping them to become better acquainted with the community and its functions. The new hostess will work closely with the Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Wells has been a resident of Avon Park for many years. With her late husband, J. Lawler Wells, she was in business here.

Soil Conservation News

By Sam Polston — U.S. Soil Conservation Service

WATERSHED PROJECT TO END THIS—The above photo shows the county road and bridge on Josephine Creek near Josephine Heights as the heavy rains of Hurricane Donna forced the stream to leave its normal boundaries. Repairing the bridge and road cost the county $1000. When the Josephine-Jackson Creek Watershed program is completed, a repeat performance of this type is unlikely.

The Upper Josephine-Jackson Creek landowners applied for Technical and Financial assistance under the Small Watershed Act in 1957. The Highlands Soil Conservation District and Board of County Commissioners, cosponsored their request to the Soil Conservation Service.

The application included 32,700 acres starting with Lake Jackson and going south through Lake Josephine down to the point where Josephine Creek crosses Highway 27. The problems presented by the landowners included flooded truck crops, flower crops, pasture lands, roads, homes, etc.

In 1959, State Conservationist, Mr. J. W. Hannett of Gainesville, recommended the application for planning by the Soil Conservation Service Engineers, Geologist, Hydrologist and Economist. The work plan was completed in December 1959. It provided for 8.5 miles of channel improvement and nine grade stabilization and water control structures. The estimated cost of installing the structural measures is $858,500 of which $700,750 will be provided from P.L. 566 funds through the Soil Conservation Service. The local people will provide the balance and all the cost of operation and maintenance which is estimated to be $12,560 annually.

The estimated average annual primary flood prevention benefits from structural measures amount to $77,030. All of these benefits accrue from the reduction of flood water damages to crops and pasture lands and residential areas. Drainage benefits amount to $2,410 and are from expected increase in yields of specialty crops. The ratio of the average annual benefits $79,440 to average cost of structural measures $54,510 is 1.5 to 1 or $1.50 returned for every dollar spent.

The landowners group is headed up by Mr. C. M. Payne with Mr. Von Maxcy, secretary. They have held several meetings and actively assisted in developing the work plan.

This is the third such watershed project sponsored by the Highlands Soil Conservation District. Construction is complete on both of these projects. Lake Placid East Chain of Lakes was completed in 1957 and Fisheating Creek, December 1960. These are the only two projects in Florida with any construction completed. The Highlands County Board of Commissioners cooperating with the Highlands Soil Conservation District have been instrumental in Highlands County leading in Florida with watershed construction.

Mrs. Katherine M. Waggaman, Chairman of the Highlands District says they will handle the contracting. The other board members are C. L. Reynolds, Vice Chairman; Bob Barben, J. C. Durrance and R. F. Dortch, Secretary-Treasurer. The Soil Conservation Service will start detailed plans for construction after a meeting with landowners on easements, maintenance, etc.

An Announcement Of Major Importance To The People Of Avon Park

Election to membership in the Guild of Ethical Funeral Practice—a non-profit organization—is far from easy...and only a very few can meet its exacting Professional Standards and its uncompromising requirements toward Accreditation.

That's why the Guild's Board of Governors—respected members of the funeral directing profession—takes special pleasure in publicly announcing the Accreditation of

Stephenson Funeral Home
Jack Stephenson

...on the basis of thorough investigation, favorable written endorsement by a cross section of local residents, as well as by unanimous vote of the active membership; proof of which is laid up in the Archives of the Guild.

Provided, however, that any breach of the Guild's strict Code of Honor—or any action which may bring discredit upon the Guild or the funeral directing profession—may cause the Board to suspend or withdraw Accreditation.

THE Guild OF ETHICAL FUNERAL PRACTICE
BONDS - SERVICE

If any person shall have just cause for complaint in any aspect of funeral service performed by any member of this guild, such person is requested to notify the executive director of the guild, at Springfield, Illinois, U. S. A.

This announcement should have appeared some time ago, but because of a then applicable ruling by an agency that governs all members of the profession in Florida, we were unable to communicate this good news to you, the people of Avon Park.

Stephenson Funeral Home Named To Guild

The Board of Governors of the Guild of Ethical Funeral Practice has just confirmed the election to membership of the Stephenson Funeral Home of Avon Park, it was announced today by the Guild's Executive Director.

The Guild, a non-profit organization controlled by its membership of respected funeral directors from many countries, may grant Accreditation to outstanding members of the funeral directing profession able to meet the Guild's exacting professional standards and its other uncompromising requirements.

Prior to the granting of Accreditation, J. M. (Jack) Stephenson had to demonstrate that his practice has always been guided by the Guild's unusually strict "Code of Honor." Then, leaders of the community, as well as other members of the funeral directing profession, were asked to attest to Stephenson's high moral and professional principles. And, even more important, a random sampling of Avon Park area families—families served by Stephenson within the last year—were approached in confidence for an expression of unqualified approval.

Public announcement of Accreditation by the Guild becomes an even greater distinction when it is realized, as Stephenson understands, that the slightest deviation from the Guild's high standards—any personal or professional conduct which might bring discredit upon the Guild or the funeral directing profession as a whole—may cause the Board of Governors to recommend suspension or complete withdrawal of Accreditation.

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By Russell Kay

I had occasion to visit West Florida recently and was impressed with the progress and development found in a number of areas. I had not been in this section of the state for several years and thoroughly enjoyed my trip.

West Florida is truly a beautiful section especially at this season of the year when woods and fields reflect the glory of spring, new leaves, buds and blossoms breaking out in profusion while the dogwood and azaleas turn the area into a blaze of color.

Tallahassee, glistening in the afternoon sun as we approached it on highway 19 gave evidence of growth in all directions. New state office buildings, new motels and new subdivisions spotted with attractive homes and splendid landscaping added much to the old familiar landmarks.

Payola or no, for the most part we found state highways excellent, roads well marked and traffic control efficient. Taking 90 west to Pensacola we found it in fairly good condition most of the way. The communities of Havana, Quincy, Chipley, Bonifay and De-Funiak Springs while showing some growth, had not changed in appearance enough to cause any exclamations of wonder. Creating view presented a few changes with many new homes and a few new buildings; Milton, clean and attractive, was much the same as I remembered it but with many attractive new homes and a few changes in the business section.

Pensacola with its glorious waterfront and harbor, its fine bridges and wonderful beach area was as delightful as ever. It is a most attractive city and one of which Florida may well be proud. Evidence of growth was visible in all directions, new subdivisions with hundreds of attractive new homes, new highways and many new business buildings were impressive.

Our destination was Mobile where friends had invited us to witness the azalea show. Traveling the famed Azelea Trail that extends for miles around the city we encountered floral beauty beyond belief. Every home from the $100,000 mansions to the humblest Negro shack contributed its share to Mobile's azalea picture and it is an impressive one indeed. The entire city was one great glorious garden, a riot of color that one could never forget.

The pity is that this picture remains for so short a time, but Nature seems to have a way of painting a picture for mankind to enjoy and then moving on to others as the seasons change, but if you ever have the opportunity to visit Mobile at the height of the azalea season I urge you to do so, no matter how far you may journey you will be well repaid.

We returned to Tampa via the coastal route which took us through Panama City, Port St. Joe, Apalachicola and Perry, the next highway to Perry. This is one of the most scenic routs to be found in the state and well worth taking. If you enjoy good seafood as I do you will have a ball in this area for these good folks know how to prepare it and you will find fresh caught crabs, oysters, flounder, sea trout, pompano, and a variety of other seafoods available all along the route, cooked to perfection and at prices to suit any purse.

Some growth was evidenced along this route mostly in subdivisions and new homes but when we reached Perry we were really impressed. For mile after mile new motels greet the traveler interspersed with splendid restaurants, lounges and cafes. We put up for the night at the Kingswood Motel and found the accommodations excellent. Visit West Florida soon, you will enjoy the experience.

singles. It was the fourth win for Bass against no losses.

The Red Devils scored their 12 runs on five hits, 11 walks and five Wauchula miscues. Norman Willis led the Avon Park team at bat with two singles, but Joe Milton and Ed Touchton provided the power with a double each. Jim Bates got the Devils other hit—a single in the first inning.

Bobby Bates, Joe Milton and Jim Bates scored a run each in the first frame and Dick Nagel added the fourth counter in the second. Four more runs were scored by the Devils in the fourth when Bobby Bates, Milton, Jim Bates, and Batson all crossed the plate safely after Wauchula's hurler, Dillard, had walked four and given up two hits.

The fifth inning was another big scoring one for Avon Park. Touchton led off with a double, Seims struck out but made first safely when the catcher dropped the ball on the third strike. Bobby Bates and Dick Nagel were walked and all four boys scored runs as Milton and Batson were safe on infield errors.

Rally For Win

The Red Devils came from behind three times last Friday night and finally edged out the Osceola Kowboys 8-5 in the seventh inning of a Ridge Conference game played at Kissimmee.

The Kowboys took a three run lead in the bottom of the first on two hits, an error, and a wild pitch. The Red Devils were able to push over two runs in the second frame on a single and two errors and tied up the score 3-3 in the fourth when they squeezed in another run.

Kissimmee went ahead in the fifth again 4-3 on a run scored by first baseman Dean Putnam. He reached first on a single and was driven home by leftfielder Barney Parker with another single. But once again Avon Park tied up the score by adding a run in the top of the sixth. Bass scored after he singled and was sent home by Hunter's single. However, the Kowboys came right back in the bottom of the sixth and scored one more run on a single and two costly Devil errors to go ahead 5-4.

Trailing by one run as they went into the seventh, Avon Park took advantage of four Kissimmee errors and one single to score four runs and take a lead that Kissimmee couldn't overcome. Jim Bates, pinch hitting for Touchton, drew a walk to open up the inning. Raymond Hall went in to run for Bates and Batson sacrificed him to second. Then Glenn Rase drove one deep to left center field and the leftfielder dropped the ball. The centerfielder picked the ball up and threw it past the catcher so Hall scored and Rase ended up on second. Then Norman Willis beat out a bunt and Bass scored when the pitcher threw wild to first. Louis Hunter hit deep to center field and moved to second when the Kissimmee boy dropped the ball. Willis had scored on a wild pitch. Hunter also scored on a wild pitch before Bates and Nagel made the Devils' last two outs.

Norman Willis took the win for Avon Park. He relieved freshman Leonard Sullivan after two batters had been retired in the first inning. Sullivan struck out two, gave up two hits, and walked one batter before he was relieved. Willis gave up four hits, struck out 15, and walked only one during his six and two-thirds innings on the mound. It was Willis' fourth win of the season.

Eddy Harrell, a ninth grader, went the distance for Kissimmee. He gave up only six hits to Avon Park—all singles, fanned four and walked six, but his teammates made 12 errors to aid the Devils' cause.
