Tuesday evening nearly everyone received a shock with the terrible accident which occurred on U. S. 27 here in Avon Park.

Accident figures are rather meaningless until the time that they strike close to home with the death of persons we know and see every day.

The Florida Highway patrol daily sends out reports to newspapers and radio and TV stations around the state pointing out the fact that the state's fatality rate is increasing daily. They are hitting safe driving as hard as they can right now during the holiday season. It is our hope that some of these statistics can rub off on just a few... maybe it will save just one life.

It is certainly up to all of us to use extreme caution during these coming holidays and try to keep ourselves as well as the other fellow alive.

Tuesday's unfortunate mishap further shows that with the completion of the new 4-lane highway through Avon Park speed will probably increase and this new stretch of road will present a tempting "race-way."

Even when the new highway is brilliantly lighted it will present a problem for drivers... the best road in the world is no better than the worst driver on it.

TAKE UP THE CRY — ON HARVEST —

Many papers in the state have really taken up the cry against the CBS television "spectacular" Harvest of Shame which was presented by Edward R. Murrow two weeks ago... Weekly papers in this area started the protestations last week and some of the dailies followed suit... a cry that was heard on Madison Avenue.

Phillip Morris Cigarettes no doubt heard of a boycott of their products in the Glades area... they have well enough to send two of their top public relations men to the area for a first hand look.

It would seem to me that if they were buying as expensive a production as this sort of thing they should have taken a first hand look FIRST.

The company issued a statement to the effect that they knew nothing of what CBS was going to present for them... This editor has some TV and Radio time behind him and certainly after having to deal with agencies and other Madison Ave. outlets it is almost impossible to swallow this statement.

The outcome is yet to be seen but at least they are taking a close look at their big "goof."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

WASHINGTON, IOWA, JOURNAL: "American Farm Bureau Federation's secretary, Roger Fleming says: 'The trouble with all this profit, and the putting off of the day of payment is that we may get to be like the drunk who didn't like his hang-over, so he solved his problem by staying drunk all the time.'"

HIGHEST RESALE VALUE

Dart is a full-size Dodge priced model for model with Ford and Chevrolet. Yet, according to the November report of the National Automobile Dealers Association, you get lots more when you trade it in.

DART

The automobile shown above is a 1961 Dodge Dart! It's a full-size Dodge priced nose-to-nose with Ford and Chevy. This is genuine value. Now consider this. According to the November report of the National Automobile Dealers Association, Dart is bringing considerably more trade-in dollars than comparable models of Ford and Chevrolet. This is plus value. Here's still more. Dart has Dodge room, comfort and quality throughout. It has an excellent ride called Torson-Aire. It has a unitized, rust-proofed body. It has a new device called an alternator generator that will make the battery last far longer than usual. Dart gives you more for your money when you buy it. Returns more of your investment when you sell it. See your nearby Dodge Dealer soon.

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By Russell Kay

Reviewing the results of the recent election it seems that Florida elections have finally come into their own. Even our Democratic leaders frankly admit that we now have a two-party system. Florida is definitely a two-party state.

A large number of the Republican voters cast in Florida this year were cast by persons who were registered Democrats. This was the case in the two previous national elections when Florida went for Eisenhower in 1952 and 1956.

It indicates that the average voter is not as much concerned about a party label as he is in the past. The candidates and regardless of how he may be registered will not hesitate to split the ticket or even go down the line if he feels that a "horse of a different color" is the better choice.

The fantastic vote piled up by the G.O.P. in Florida this year indicates the growing strength of the opposition and as Florida continues to grow and attract new settlers all indications point to a steady increase in Republican support.

This year many folks who have registered as Democrats for years but consistently voted the Republican ticket in general elections have turned honest and are registering under their true colors as Republicans.

No longer may our candidates for either state or local office consider that nomination in a Democratic primary is tantamount to election. The outstanding success achieved by G.O.P. candidates against entrenched old timers will encourage much greater Republican effort in the future.

At our present rate of growth, Republicans will be much stronger four years from now and unless our Democratic leadership takes cognizance of this and begins now making plans for the competition in the years ahead we can look for more and more Republicans in our state legislature and possibly in the cabinet or even the Governor's chair. The national parties didn't take Florida for granted this time. Both presidential candidates campaigned in the state as well as supporters. Four years from now you may expect Florida to be a battleground for both parties. In my opinion this will be a good thing for the state in many ways.

No less an attorney politician than Governor LeRoy Collins, recognizes the importance of the Florida Democratic Party. If the Republicans put up qualified and well known candidates in the future the people of this state taking many state and local offices against strong Democratic candidates is a possibility. Democrats must close ranks, quit fighting among themselves and face this growing opposition with a united front.

Motion by Mr. McKenzie, seconded by Mr. Kirkland and carried that the Mayor and City Clerk be authorized to convey 20 square feet to the State of Florida from Lot 4, Block G, Price & Gorham, Section 26 for right-of-way purposes.

The City Attorney stated that he seldom made public statements, but that he wanted to commend the Mayor and State Department for the proposed pumping Lake Verona and clearing the water pipe in the drainage of Lake Verona. With the help of this could not have been accomplished.

Court House May Get Entire Renovation Job

County Commissioners moved Tuesday toward a program which may include a complete reworking of the county office space. Results of a court house renovation study were presented at the commissioners regular meeting.

The study—made by Reynolds, Smith and Hill, a Tampa architectural and engineering firm—recommended court house renovation at a cost estimated, "on the high side," at $205,967. The commissioners first approved a resolution to lay the study before the public in a hearing on Jan. 17.

Later this action was rescinded, and the commissioners voted to authorize the Tampa architectural firm to continue its studies. The new studies will include surveys of the present office space now being used by all county agencies.

The commissioners said they wish to determine the amount, type and best location for each county office before proceeding with specific building plans.

Harold Scott, a member of the firm making the renovation study, attended Tuesday's meeting and presented the results. He said his firm had found the present court house to be "in excellent condition."

Weak spots in the building are in the electrical system—which the Tampa firm termed "dangerously overloaded"—and the roof of the structure where "all the roofing materials and the skylight need replacing."

Major renovations recommended are the installation of air conditioning and an elevator to serve all floors. Mr. Scott said that the changes proposed could be completed within a four to six month period of time.

The study also recommends that the building be painted on the inside where required upon completion of improvements.

Mr. Scott said the $205,967 includes project construction, contractor's overhead and profit, architects and engineers fees, and contingencies. All figures "submitted in the study, Mr. Scott said, are considered by his firm to be near the "maximum cost," and it is anticipated that as final plans are prepared revisions will be made downward.

Commissioner Chairman James G. Creel said even at the high tons.

Mrs. Reinsner Entertains With Bridge

Mrs. E. H. Reinsner was hostess to five tables of bridge Monday afternoon at the Jacaranda Hotel. Following a dessert course the guests played bridge in the Palm Room. A court house renovation study were presented at the commissioners regular meeting.

The table prizes were silver dollars wrapped in gift packages.

figure the renovation project can be carried out within the present framework. The commissioners were unanimous in the opinion that "no millage increase will be necessary."

It is expected, Mr. Creel said, that the study now being used to pay off indebtedness on the new building could be applied to court house renovation costs.

The commissioners said additional office space for county offices is becoming imperative. Some commissioners voiced the hope that by adding an elevator additional offices might be opened on the third floor of the court house.

Earlier this fall the commissioners had been informed that his firm had found the present court house to be "in excellent condition."

Mrs. Bettie Knowles was hostess at the regular meeting of the Ladies Club Thursday afternoon. Twentyone members were present. Reports were read of the Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. Luyke submitted a letter of thanks to the club which assisted her in making the dinner a success and suggested that the club donate $50.00 of the proceeds therefrom to the Association Building Fund. For the proposed addition to the clubhouse. Action on this suggestion was deferred. Among the subjects brought up for informal discussion was that of the maintenance to an incident which had been mentioned in last week's column. To a student of human nature, it was interesting to observe the varied sentiment as expressed by the different members on the subject.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac J. Vanaartsdalen arrived at their home on Nautilus Drive late Monday evening after some delay in account of grounded flights in the East caused by the bad weather. Meanwhile Grey Knowles was patiently waiting at Orlando Airport to drive them home. They were accompanied by Mr. C. H. Danenhower of Doylestown, Pa. and Mrs. Frank Harp.

Goodwill Truck Due Here Dec. 11

All those interested in helping handicapped people help themselves will have the opportunity when the Goodwill Industries truck visits this area on Wednesday, Dec. 11. The truck will be through here every three months from now on.

Goodwill provides jobs for handicapped men and women, by training them to repair and re-upholster clothing and household items no longer needed in the home. The sale of these reconditioned articles in the Goodwill Stores pays the wages of the handicapped workers.

Articles needed are clothing, shoes and hats for men, women and children; dishes and china; kitchen utensils and tableware; rugs and carpets; sheets and bedding; curtains and drapes; small electric appliances and radios; dolls and toys. The more material collected, the more handicapped men and women can be employed. This is not charity, but a chance for the handicapped to earn a living.

Bundles should be left outside the front door before 9 o'clock, marked "Goodwill", in the following cities where the Goodwill truck will make a house-to-house pickup.

Avon Park - south of Main Street on Monday, and north of Main Street on Tuesday; Frostproof on Wednesday; and Lake Wales - west of Seale Highway (U.S. Alt. 27) on Thursday, and east of Seale Highway on Friday. Annual Christmas Program Heard Christmas Season

Friday, December 2, the first observance of Christmas was held in the Congregational Church when the Woman's Club had their annual Christmas program. Mrs. S. F. Elkhill, president, welcomed the members and guests. Mrs. E. G. Todd was program chairman. Mrs. S. O. Norris narrated the Christmas Story as it was told in verse and song. Mrs. Edna Jackson was at the organ and Mrs. John Williams at the piano, with Mrs. V. Mickunas as the soloist.

Following this delightful program the ladies were invited to the Church Social Hall where they enjoyed a social hour. The refreshment table was covered with a hand crocheted lace cloth, a gift to the club from Dr. Ruth Phillips. A large silver centerpiece held red poinsettias and red candles glowing from the circular edge of the arrangement. The table was done by Mrs. Jack Head. Mrs. Elkhill and Mrs. Todd presided at the silver service at either end of the table. Mrs. J. A. Terp, Mrs. Sherman Jacobson, Mrs. Mabel Bucklew, Mrs. M. E. Jackson, Mrs. W. F. Luscomb, and Mrs. J. Brown assisted with the hospitalities.

Ralph Ellis served the groom as best man. Raymond Newman, cousin of the bride, and B. A. Bruner were the ushers.

Mrs. Young chose for her daughter's wedding a two piece dress of silk shadow printed purple with a small purple feather held in black accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Avon Lakes Country Club. Mrs. J. J. Brown, the bride's grandmother, greeted the guests as they were presented to the receiving line.

Miss Mickie Newman, cousin of the bride, kept the bride's train. An exquisite lace cloth covered the table and a design of red and white poinsettias was used as the centerpiece. Red and white poinsettias and mixed chrysanthemums were used on other tables throughout the club house.

The bride's cake stood three tiers high, being decorated with

Ready-Hunt Vows Are Repeated

Miss Judy Hunt became the bride of Melvin H. Ready in an impressive double ring ceremony Thursday, December 1, at 5 o'clock in the Redeemer Episcopal Church with the Rev. Peter F. Watterson, Jr. officiating.

Miss Hunt is the daughter of Commander and Mrs. O. J. Young. Mr. Ready is the son of H. E. Ready and the late Mrs. Ready of Leary, Ga.

A program of organ music was rendered by Miss Joyce Antley. The bride entered on the arm of her father, wearing a dress of white organza over satin. The full skirt was ballerina length. An empire waist was accentuated with bands of embroidered silk material. The high front neckline dipped to a V in the back and was also outlined with the embroidery. She carried a white prayer book topped with a bouquet of white carnations streamered with white satin ribbon. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls which she slipped from her groom. Her shoulder-length veil was gathered to a headpiece that was decorated with seed pearls.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Mrs. J. E. Elder, who wore a street length dress of royal blue double jersey with a navy blue hat and gloves. Her flowers were yellow carnations.

Winter Guest Club News

It was a "nipping and snapping" that whistled round the Guest Club House on Friday morning last week as we barged into that area scolding for something to write about. The courts were almost empty, only a half dozen hardy spirits were pushing blocks around while backed up against the sunny side of the clubhouse. It was too chilly outside for comfort. In the house it was different. There was warmth in the air, and a considerable group of hunkies were enjoying it while engaged in the genial game of poker, or may be it was penicillin, instead of practicing shuffleboard out on the windy courts. It was a peculiar way, we thought, of preparing for the big tournament scheduled for the afternoon, with Sebring, just shuffling cards in a warm room. But then we learned that the scheduled tournament was all off. Postponed indefinitely by Sebring. Why not? Well, nobody seemed to know. Someone suggested that may be they were a little short of cards after the disastrous game a week ago. But no, we think not. They are drearily down there, shuffling and nothin'. May be they needed a bit more practice. So the tournament will come off later, and so it was quite all right for the shuffleboard players to play poker or penicillin in the warm house on a chilly day.

And while on the subject of the weather, has anybody noticed how a 40-50 degree temperature affects people in different localities? Down here when it is forty or fifty outside it is decidedly cold, but up in Maine or Michigan such a temperature seems quite genial, making you think of changing your woolens and moth-balling the overcoat. Now that's fact, believe it or not.

The weekly tournament went off as usual, and in bright sunny weather too. On Wednesday last Mrs. E. Gruber picked the right partner with the result that he and Mr. C. Byrner swept the courts to win first place, while another pair of the "grats" came along close behind to win the consolation: to wit, Mr. Brush and Mr. Shager. Saturday afternoon was mild and sunny, and it brought out a fine big crowd of car pushers. This was the weekly pot-luck affair, and the pot-luck went to Mrs. Simpson and Mr. Brummer who led the large field. Mrs. Brush and Mr. Simpson ran off with the consolation. It seems the Simpson family did right well on that day. Congrats to both.

On last Monday and Tuesday five tables of pousseur, and six tables of bridge batters spent sunny afternoons respectively hunched over the cards and tables. The penicillin tournament was taken handily by Mrs. Grimsch, score kept a secret, with Mrs. Pickell, who is deft with cards as with cues, next in line. The winners at bridge were Mr. Nickerson 530 and Mrs. Nuber 4720. And that is now water over the dam.

The dancers danced as usual last week, and oh, the weather being fine they had a real rip-roaring time. They were forty present at the practice dance on Monday night, when special attention was given to a new square to be danced on Friday, December 9. There was a bumper crowd at the Friday dance, Dec. 2. We acquired two notes about that. One said there were 114 present, the other counted slightly more, 120, probably including operators. The music was furnished by the "Ambassadors Band" of A.P.C.I. and it was demonstrated what oldsters could do with the aid of

Here and There—

Mrs. Davis Visits Her Daughter Here

Mrs. Vida Davis of Tampa visited her daughter and family, the Jack Hutchinsons, at their home on Lake Lotela, and her granddaughter, Miss Judy Founds was also home from West Palm Beach for the weekend with her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kepnes of Boston, Mass. spent a few days in Avon Park, taking care of grave and property interests, while they were on tour of Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Olson of Milford, Del. are enjoying a visit with his brother and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. H. Folkstad.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman G. Jacobson of Jamestown, N. Y. have arrived for the winter at their home on West Hill Street.

Mrs. Wesley Williams of St. Petersburg was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. She was accompanied by quite all right for the shuffleboard players to play poker or penicillin in the warm house on a chilly day.

Mrs. Helen Becker has returned from a visit with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Becker, at Manassas, Va. Mrs. Castello Lorne of Chicago was the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kerr last week.

A modern jazz orchestra and vocalists, such a delightful time was had by all that plans are now in the making for having special dances about four times each season.

One hundred and twenty-nine were present at the Sunday sing, representing 16 states and 3 foreign countries. And how they did sing! The men's chorus of 41 sang "The Way of the Cross Leads Home". Mrs. Fern Beck rendered two whistling solos, and Mrs. Jerome Shiltz two numbers in her musical glasses. It was a splendid service of song and music. The next singing hour will be a 3 p. m. on December 18.

We have a note stating that on Thursday, Dec. 8, there will be a motion picture show in the house with voice, the time being 7:30 p. m. This is by the Nabisco Company, and the hint is that there will be crackers for all. Whoop-la!

We have been given to understand that the fine parking lot between the Guest Club House and the Post Office is soon to be occupied by the offices of a well known local physician. That may be fine in one respect. If you have a heart attack after winning a tournament help will be handy. But on the other hand where shall we park our cars hereafter. A good question says The Stroller.

CD Warning Attack Signals Given For AP

The first warning in case of attack will probably come by radio, television, or local warning devices. Be on the alert for such a warning, particularly during periods of acute international tension. Learn warning signals and what they mean.

The signals are — an "ALERT" signal will be a three to five minute steady blast on the fire whistle. This means to go home or stay home if you are already there. Prepare to stay in your own emergency shelter area as soon as the "TAKE COVER" signal is sounded. Tune your radio to a Comrad frequency (540 or 1240) for official directions. Do not report to a public emergency shelter unless you are asked there for duty. Do not use the telephone.

The "TAKE COVER" signal is a three minute series of short blasts meaning take cover immediately in the best available shelter. If you are in a building where there is no prepared shelter, go to an interior room or hall and lie face down on the floor. Stop indoors until you get word that you can leave safely. If outdoors or in a car and cannot reach a building, lie flat on ground face down, or open car windows and crouch on the floor.

The "ALL CLEAR" signal is a one minute steady blast. Stay in shelter area until All Clear is sounded.

Florida pulp and paper mills used nearly 4,000,000 cords of wood last year.

Red Devils Are Ridge Loop Champions

The Avon Park Red Devils captured the Ridge Conference football championship last Friday night by defeating the Ft. Meade Miners 14-0 in the first annual Ridge Division Playoff game played at Memorial Field in Avon Park.

A fair sized crowd of chilled fans watched the two teams battle on even terms the first quarter and most of the second quarter. Then late in the second quarter, with less than two minutes remaining in the first half, Devil halfback Raymond Hall broke loose at the Ft. Meade 46 and rammed his way to the 19 yard stripe. Lamont Money took over from there. He slanted off tackle on the next play and streaked into the end zone to put Avon Park ahead 6-0. Hall bulldozed through the line for the seventh point.

The Red Devils had one long drive in the first period when they marched 67 yards only to stall on the Ft. Meade fifteen—four yards short of a first down.

After the Red Devils score, Ft. Meade tried to get on the scoreboard before the half with a long pass, but Jackie Seims intercepted the pass and returned it twenty-eight yards before he was brought down. Time ran out before the Devils could advance the ball.

Ft. Meade came back from their half time rest and roared from their own nineteen to the Devil's twenty-one in just six plays only to fumble on the seventh play. Alert end Joe Jackson covered the loose ball for the Devils. However, two plays later a Devil back lost the ball and this time Ft. Meade pounced on the pignip to regain possession on the Devil thirty-three. They then moved on down to Avon's twenty, but there they received a fifteen yard penalty which proved too much for the Miners to overcome and they were forced to kick. It was the only serious threat made by the Miners during the game.

Avon Park's next score was set up by Jackie Seims when he grabbed a Ft. Meade fumble out of the air and scampered 35 yards to the Miners thirty yard line. The Devils couldn't make a first down however and Ft. Meade took over on their twenty-six. The big Red line refused to give up yardage to the Miners and even drove them back until they were forced to punt. Then the Devils got a big break. On fourth down the Ft. Meade center made a bad pass to punter Sonny Burchett and the big Red line was on him at the sixteen yard line before he could get his kick away. From there senior halfback Raymond Hall raced around his left end to the Miners' two and then the powerful driving Hall blasted over the center for the touchdown. Lamont Money slipped through the line for the extra point to put Avon Park out front 14-0.

Ft. Meade moved from their thirty-four to Avon Park's twenty-seven in the remaining minutes of the ball game, but the Devils defense proved too much for the Polk County boys and the Devils took the Ridge Crown after beating every other team in the conference.

Junior end Joe Jackson was the sparkplug of the Red Devil defense. He threw Ft. Meade back for loose time after time as he charged in on the play. Seniors Joe Milton, Raymond Hall and Dick Nagel all played outstanding ball for Avon Park as they appeared along with Clayton Jenkins, Don Guy, Dale Batson, Jim Porter and Milton Stokely in their last football game for the Red Devils.

Ft. Meade had to play almost three quarters without the services of their starting sophomore halfback Johnny Russell who broke his leg early in the second period.

The Ft. Meade defense held Avon Park's leading ground runner, Lamont Money, down 78 yards gained from scrimmage although they couldn't keep him from scoring. Raymond Hall led the Devil defense with an average of 6.2 yards for thirteen carries.

The game was a triumph finish to a great season by the Red Devils who were rated only second best in the conference in pre-season polls. The Devils posted a record of 9 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie this year with their only loss coming from non-conference foe Wauchula. The 1960 team's outstanding record is largely due to the efforts of Coach Joe Franz and Guy Garrett and a group of spirited boys who refused to be beaten by their conference foe.

The Red Devils scored a total of 233 points in their eleven games and gave up only 121 points to opposing teams. Avon Park is proud of their 1960 Ridge Conference Champion Red Devils.

He plays right tackle on both offense and defense and his two years of varsity experience, plus his weight advantage over most of his opponents, have made it possible for him to do a terrific job for the Devils this season.

Bill Scott is a fifteen year old sophomore who won the starting left tackle job on the team this year. He is one of the youngest regulars on the team, but he also is one of the largest. He weighs in at 201 and stands 6'3" tall.

Bill has come up through the Avon Park schools from the first grade. Last year as a freshman, he went out for the varsity team but broke his wrist before the season opened so missed the whole year. This year he has worked hard to make the team and to make the left side of the big Red line as tough as the right side. He has improved each week and now promises to be quite good at his tackle duties.

In the Kathleen game, Bill recovered a fumble for his team and in the Arcadia game he blocked a Bulfinch punt to set up a Red Devil touchdown. Like the other Devil linemen, he is an aggressive player. He likes to hit first and hit hard and it has paid off evidently since this year's line seems stronger than in the past few years.

Both of these boys say football is their favorite sport. It is the only sport that either of them participate in but they certainly do a bang-up job on the gridiron for Avon Park and the Red Devil fans can well be proud of these fine, hard-hitting tackles.

There is no doubt that Reese is one of the big reasons why Avon Park has a good record this season. Not many opposing ball carriers have been able to gain through the right side of the Devil line where Reese plays.

Reese is a very competitive athlete who does a good job blocking and can bring an opponent down hard when in on a tackle. Occasionally he pulls out mergers. No cantaback or redhead has taken, due to a nationwide closed season on the two species. In addition to the bag limit on other ducks, the daily bag limit on American and red-breasted mergansers is five, with a possession limit of 10, singly or in the aggregate of both kinds.

A Federal duck stamp, purchased from any U.S. Post Office, is required, in addition to the regular hunting license, for taking ducks and geese. Duck stamps are not required for taking geese.

Red Devils Win Openers From Kissimmee Kowboys Here Tuesday

Avon Park's Red Devil basketball team won its opener from Kissimmee last Tuesday by a score of 48 to 46. The Devils trailed the Kowboys most of the game but surged forward into the lead in the last few minutes of the game and held on to take the close one. In the preliminary game the Avon Park "B" squad won 27 to 21 over the Kissimmee "B" team.

The Red Devils, who had four of their five starters playing with only one day's practice, were hampered by poor passing and inaccurate shooting but understandably so. Captain Glenn Bass led the Devils scoring with 19 points and was followed by Larry Money with 11. Kissimmee's captain Tom Wells, flipped 18 points to lead their scoring, but a last named Gary Messer was the outstanding player on their team. Joe Jackson, Joe Milton, Dick Nagel, Bobby Bates, Ed Touchton, and DuWayne Lemley all saw action for the Red Devils during the game.

Mike Giddens and Terry Oberle led the "B" squad scoring for Avon Park. Giddens counted for 12 and Oberle tallied 10 of the 27 total points. Jim Wilson was high for Kissimmee with eight points.

The Red Devils are idle this Friday night, but will take on Arcadia here at the Avon Park gym next Tuesday, Dec. 13. The Devils other game before the Christmas holidays will be Friday afternoon, Dec. 16, at 2 p. m. here against Ft. Meade.

Fred Wild Is Speaker At Assembly

Fred Wild, who will be retiring December 30, after 16 successful years as the head of the county school system, was the guest speaker at the general assembly of the high school, Friday afternoon.

Bryan Williams, student council president, opened the meeting and Carolyn Kreigh lead the devotional and pledge to the flag. Mr. Whitte presented Mr. Wild with comments of their association as teachers in the Sebring school in 1954-55.

Mr. Wild's opening remarks very fittingly fell on football since Friday night was to be the deciding game for the Ridge Champs. He recalled that in 1924 the Avon Park coach had introduced his team of boys to football by taking them to Haines City to witness a football game, which was the first for most of them.

The following Friday night they had played a game. He also remembered the time Avon Park beat Sebring 66 to 6. During his Avon Park high school days he played almost every position on the team. He was also the coach for the Sebring team while teaching.

Mr. Wild recalled that as a small boy his first recollection of Avon Park was standing with his mother for a long hot dedication ceremony of the first elementary school building in 1914, and also the old tram cars that hauled logs over the track that went past the school building on their way from the swamps to the big Indian Lumber Company.

As a lad of twelve, he worked for 25 cents per hour with the crew building the high school and auditorium, carrying buckets of mud for the plasterers. He pointed out to the students how times had changed, and also that students today had many more opportunities and better quality teaching than when he attended school.

At the close of his speaking, Mr. J. F. Crittenden presented Mr. Wild with a gift from the school body.

The University of Florida School of Forestry marked its 25th anniversary in 1960.

Fred Wild Honored For Service

Fred Wild, Retiring School Superintendent, looks over his gift.

For a "grading period" of 16 years Fred Wild has received honor marks.

A "report card" was presented to Wild at a dinner held in his honor Dec. 3 at the Sebring Hotel. Wild, at the close of 1960, retires as supervisor of public instruction in Highlands County. He assumed this office in 1945. The program honoring him was staged in connection with the meeting of Highlands County Education Association.

A. B. White, supervising principal of Avon Park schools, presented Wild's "report card" to him. The card was patterned after the record cards now being used for the fourth, fifth and six graders in Highlands County schools.

It was introduced with this explanation: "OUR SCHOOL BELIEVES: that each superintendent is different in many ways and should be expected to work successfully at his own level of vision and ability. This is the basis on which teachers, board members and others attempt to grade his work. His correct interpretation of this report of grades is important to our expression of faith and confidence in him. For more complete expression of esteem, he should confer with each of his associates."

The report had three main divisions: administrative arts, instructional arts and fine arts (which included such sub-heads as personnel management and teacher evaluation).

White also delivered a short address on the theme, "I Know Him". Mrs. Sadie Brown of

Thigpens Have Returned To Avon Park

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Thigpen, former residents of Avon Park, who have spent several years in Bradenton, have returned to their home 218 E. Cornell Street.

Their daughter, Mrs. B. L. Heath of Greensboro, N. C., is spending a few days with her parents, and will take them home with her when she returns to Greensboro. They will go to attend the wedding of their grand-daughter, Mary White Heath, who will be married December 30 to David L. Foster of Greensboro. Mary attended the first and second grade of school in Avon Park, and will be remembered by some of her friends here.

Al-Anon Group Is Formed Here

An Al-Anon family group has been formed here. It was announced this week.

The primary purpose of Al-Anon is not to try and stop compulsive drinking but rather to help the families of alcoholics solve their common problems through a deeper understanding of the disease of alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is the drinking problem of a relative or friend.

The group meets at different times each Monday at 9:30 a. m.

"Outside our county," Markham said, "you have afforded leadership toward the improvement of Florida's educational program and what is equally important you have encouraged other school personnel to be equally effective."

George F. Douglas, supervising principal of Sebring schools, was master of ceremonies for the dinner. Group singing, led by Mrs. Mary Lou Moore of Sebring's Woodlawn school, included parodies of well known songs.

Make This A Bright Christmas

Whether you're "going over the wall" to visit grandmother or spending a quiet holiday at home, a cheery yard light will brighten your festive season.

This year's weather gives plenty of time for a Saturday do-it-yourself lighting project before Christmas. The light, especially a colonial nest light, if it fits the decor of your home, creates a seasonal atmosphere and gives winter-bug safety when quick from the sheet of ice.

An excellent lighting job can be easily done with one-touch timing. Polyethylene pipe as the gentle, weather-resistant support, the pipe, and stainless steel, through the basement wall to the cement base of the light fixture. The one-piece construction is a simple matter of sliding wiring or the added protection of insulated outdoor wiring.

After the first snowfall, your light will be a friendly beacon, welcoming guests and neighbors alike, and wishing all a happy holiday.

OPERATION NORTH POLE

Why not take a cue from Santa's helper this year when tackling your own Christmas gift list? These sparkling stainless steel and glowing copper kitchen and dining accessories are a thoughtful gesture to acknowledge the hospitality of your very favorite hostess, or someone in your own family.

Crafted for a lifetime of beauty, these Revere utensils are meant to be used and seen. Their tasteful styling eliminates the usual hasty snatching up of a coffee maker or skillet, for example, once serving is completed. And the gleaming stainless steel cookware has efficient copper bottoms that are both decorative and functional, providing fast, even heat. A set of skillets, sauce pans, or a Dutch oven, would be a happy choice for someone on your list.

Looking as festive as Christmas eve, the gay little copper tea set, and burnished copper canister set add a look of warmth and charm to a kitchen. And, an elegant stainless steel casserole with cordless warmer travels from kitchen to table with the utmost of ease.

of Driving—

Yule Season Good Time To Take Stock

TALLAHASSEE—Every time a driver gets behind the wheel, he takes his own life and the lives of others in his hands.

"It is a moral obligation on your part to be a good driver and accept the responsibility you owe to others," said Comdr. H. N. Kirkman of the Florida Highway Patrol.

"The Yule season is a good time to take stock of yourself to see how you add up as a driver as well as a citizen."

"It is our Christian duty to be our own policeman and if we are, I am confident that death, injury, and human suffering can be slashed materially on our highways," he said.

The Florida Highway Patrol is joining with other safety organizations to appeal for "moral responsibility" in traffic accident prevention in an effort to minimize highway death and injury during this Christmas season.

As a parting reminder, Kirkman added:

"With a gentleman at the wheel, we need not fear the monster under the hood."

Mail Early Campaign In High Gear

Postmaster Singleton put his "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign into high gear today. The Postmaster said, "We're heading into an all time record for Christmas mail this year. Every facility of the Post Office has been expanded to render maximum service. We've added extra trucks and personnel. Special mailing schedules have been set up to insure prompt handling of the tremendous flood of both incoming and outgoing Christmas mail."

"The vast volume of Christmas mail is only part of our problem," the Postmaster continued. "Carelessly written names and addresses, poorly wrapped packages, insufficient postage, and other oversights are bound to result in delays and disappointments."

You can be sure of delivery of your Christmas cards and gifts before Christmas Eve if you will follow these simple requirements: Be sure your Christmas card and gift mailing lists are up-to-date.

Wrap your Christmas gifts securely.

Use complete addresses - including street number, rural route or post office box number. Be sure name of street is complete with avenue, parkway or drive included. Do not abbreviate street and state names. Use zone numbers, and be sure to include your own zone number in your return address.

Most important of all - mail your Christmas cards and gifts within the next few days!

President of the Florida Restaurant Association is James J. Marks of Pensacola.

"Super" Waiting For Santa

THE TREE IS TRIMMED: "Super" has snow underfoot and even a sprinkling of it on his back. Now all he needs are his presents and these will be forthcoming at the proper time from his boss and pal, Jack Wilkinson, outfitter and fishing guide in Algonquin Park in northern Ontario. "Super" has lived around Wilkinson's Kink Kaddak lodge since he was a tiny fawn and each Christmas Jack decorates a tree for his pet deer and several other little wild animals, including a shy fox and an aggressive raccoon, with whom Wilkinson has made friends.

Water Control

System Lay-out Finished By SCD

By Sam Polston

U. S. Soil Conservation Service

The Highlands Soil Conservation District assisted Mr. August

Tobler of Lake Placid this week in the layout of a water control system on 100 acres of open soil. This area was planted to improve pasture about 2 years ago. Mr. Tobler said he has been flooded out each of the past two years during the heavy rains.

The Highlands District decided at its last meeting to sell the Adams Motor Grader. Bids will be opened December 20 at the office in Sebring. Mr. George Cross has had the grader under contract for the past two years.

The County Commissioners and the district are now advertising for bids for a drainage tile maintenance job on Fish-eating Creek Watershed project. Plans and specifications can be obtained through the Soil Conservation Service office in Sebring.

According to Mr. H. L. Clark final inspection of the third and final phase of construction on Fish-eating Creek Watershed project is scheduled for Thursday, December 1st. Mr. Clark is contracting officer representing the Highlands H. S. C. D.

Mr. L. L. Yariett, SCS Range Conservationist, has made arrangements with Dove Chemical Co. to cooperate in spraying a 30 acres plot of Picher Weed (Pig) on the T. J. Scarborough Ranch. This is a maiden cane fresh marsh Range site in the Fish-eating Creek Watershed. Mr. Yariett says that the control of this weed will give up to 50% more grazing with the proper rotation grazing program.

Mr. Yariett was Range Conservationist with the SCS in Texas for 15 years prior to coming to Sebring early this year. He says that with proper Range management Florida Range land offers a much higher potential than the western Range. This is due primarily because of our high rainfall and long growing seasons. This causes Florida Range to recover much faster from grazing than in the West.

Today, the girls have modern appliances, but here are some tips to make the job still easier. Insert a plywood plank in the center of your hamper to form a divider for white and colored clothes. This avoids sorting time on washday.

Use a dry bleach that is pre-measured and safe for all fabrics. A packet of Lestare, with water-soluble cover, dissolves in seconds. It'll brighten wool and silk, and is excellent for wash-and-wear fabrics. There's no pouring, danger of broken glass or spillage. Unlike chlorine bleaches, Lestare can be used on both white and color-fast fabric. To prevent staining enacts from clothespins, insert wax paper under the pin.

Plastic Doylies Brighten Snack

One of the newest, smartest ways to glamorize the serving table and protect the floor is to use lace-patterned, solid-backed Plastic Doylies.

Particularly during these summer months for casual evening gatherings with friends these attractive, durable doilies can make your snack tray very attractive.

The attractive, durable doilies come in assorted sizes, from the smallest round ones which make perfect coasters, to the largest placemat size which is suitable for most tables and matchless.

Doylies are especially appealing to today's busy housewives since they can be hand or machine washed with ease, time and again.

Plastic doilies (by Royline) come in a variety of colors to blend with the decorating scheme of the table, making the food look even more appetizing.

NOTE TO EDITORS: Plastic Doylies by Royline can be bought nationally in supermarkets and variety stores.

NHS Is Now Collecting Gifts - Toys

The NHS of APHS will be collecting toys for Christmas gifts to needy children.

They will have boxes in each homeroom at the school and ask that every student bring any kind of toys. These will be turned over to the Firmen who will repair them and get them ready for the Christmas gift.

The room collecting the most toys will be a given a Coke party by the National Honor Society.

The Woman's World by Lady Pepperell

Bridal Theme In Lenses

This month I am writing to you from my Boston home which overlooks the Charles River. On my drawing board are sketches I made of famous boudoirs which overlook other famous rivers: The Seine, the Danube, the Thames, the Tiber. There is much beauty in Europe. Yet I feel something should be said in praise of our "homegrown" boudoirs.

I am thinking, especially of this summer's brides who are settling into their new homes... filling their linen closets with all their luscious wedding gifts.

We are apt to think of these things as luxuries which we must forgo while our children are growing up. But did you know that the greatest joys in home furnishings today are the colorful bed fashions you see in stores from Maine to California.

European women quite frankly envy us these beautiful boudoirs. And I found European men just as frank in admitting a liking for pastel and flowered sheets!

Let's make the most of our advantages. This week why not make up your bed with gay, all-lin sheets and pillowcases?

For brides and all the women who still want to feel like brides I have designed a new sheet, inspired by all the enchanting bridal veils I saw in Brussels. It is a delicate lacey design in white on pastel backgrounds and I call it Chantilly Lace.

Next month, for new inspiration I'll travel to the land of the Northern Lights, and write you about the wonderful ideas in home furnishings which are coming from these countries.

Theatre Guild Production Of 'Kind Lady' To Make Debut Dec. 9

Tension mounts and excitement runs high as final preparations are made for the Ridge Theater Guild production of Kind Lady, an English melodrama, making its debut Friday and Saturday, December 9 and 10, at the Wood-lawn Cafeteria, Sebring, at 8:30 p. m., starring Myrl Nell Simpson and Jerry Ervine, supported by:

Jack Tow, Helene McGinty, John Watson, Bob Arvhart, Charlotte Belcher, Steve Heffner, Alice Ernst, Virginia Hendrix, Dolly Flisk, George E. Schring III, Avis Askeland, and Jean Anderson.

The opening sentence, "Don't you want to know why no one ever sees me, why I have never left this house, why everyone thinks I've been abroad for several years?" arouses your curiosity from beginning to end.

The purpose of Little Theater is to provide an opportunity for the creative talent of the community to find expression under the direction of those who have had training and experience in dramatic arts.

"Kind Lady" is under the able direction of Betty Holcomb, who is well known in the community through her excellent production of the last two Lake Placid variety shows. Arts and Dramatics major of Florida State University, she has had considerable practical experience in directing and in radio.

Ray Clark has frequently demonstrated his ability and enormous talent by giving to himself of his time and talent. Mr. Clark has had wide experience in New York theatrical productions and is designing and constructing the stage setting. Giving a helping hand are Steve Heffner and Danny Poole.

The creative talents of Beverly Smith are very evident in the fine reproductions of the objects d'art that play an important role in "Kind Lady".

In charge of gathering and returning all the assorted properties is Production manager Ann Ingie, assisted by Del Bartos.

Effectiveness of characterization is greatly enhanced by make-up technicians Johnny Hubbell and Jean Anderson, and the special lighting effects are created by Bob Hubbell.

Location of the varied costumes required the collective talents of Juanita Raulerson, Alma Wilson, and Ted Eastman.

The Ridge Theater Guild in its third season has brought to Highlands County an increasing level of cultural development in filling the needs of creative expression in our community. Membership is open to all those interested for a fee of $5.00 which entitles two persons to attend these performances and active participation in any of the phases of production that might appeal.

Chairman of Membership Jack Mitchell and Peck Pond, who will be selling tickets at the door for $1.25 per person, or membership cards. Sheryl Simpson will then usher you to your seat for curtain time. CURTAIN GOING UP!

Wintering Of Beef Cattle Told

The big question with beef producers these fall days is "How can I winter my beef cattle successfully?"

The answer to this question depends largely on the quality and reproductive efficiency of the cows to be wintered. The basis for building all winter feeding programs is home-grown roughage—either reserved grass, baled hay, silage, clover or temporary grazing.

On the large acreage of Florida where clover is not being grown, this roughage base needs reinforcement with a supplemental feed. This is especially so on well-managed ranches where the cows are expected to calve every year, produce enough milk to wean a heavy calf and rebreed during lactation.

Dr. J. F. Hentges of the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, says that in the winter of 1959-60, four groups of first-calf heifers out of production-tested dams were given all the Coastal bermudagrass hay they would eat. Also, they had free access to mineral boxes containing defluorinated phosphate and trace-mineralized salt. Their hay was the best that could be produced with 600 pounds of ammonium nitrate per acre on fine sand land. It analyzed 12 to 15 per cent crude protein which a digestion trial showed was 60 per cent digestible. During gestation, the cows fared well but after calving, during lactation, they did not consume enough hay to maintain their body weight and produce milk too.

In addition, bulls were placed with them during the breeding season when they are expected to show heat and breed. Of course, none of the lactating Brahmanas and few Herefords showed heat and none were bled because they were losing weight trying to produce milk for their calves.

Dr. Hentges says, that the factor in limited supply was energy, even though the cows had free access to all the top quality grass hay they would eat. They simply didn't get the 16.8 pounds of T. D. N. (total digestible nutrients) that the N. R. C. requirement tables show are needed daily by 900 to 1,000 pound lactating beef cows. They consumed about 18 pounds of 55 to 60 per cent T. D. N. hay daily; hence, they were getting not more than 11 pounds of T. D. N. This was 7 pounds less than they needed to maintain their weight and show heat for breeding during lactation. Energy can be supplied to lactating beef cows most economically by inducing the cow to eat more roughage. For some reason, cows will consume over three per cent of their body weight (air-dry matter basis) of White Dutch clover which may contain nearly 90 per cent water, yet they seldom consume more than two per cent of their body weight in stored grasses.

In the study above, two groups of cows were fed ground hay but very little increase in hay consumption was noted. The hay was utilized better, for heavier milk production, as evidenced by faster calves. But the cows still lost too much weight to show heat and breed. Research has shown that supplementation of roughage diets with molasses which is high in sugar content, grains high in starch content,

Citrus Mutual Working Against Fruit Thefts

LAKELAND, Dec. 1—Florida Citrus Mutual, in continuing its efforts to curtail fruit thefts, is distributing a new reward sign and other feed ingredients will stimulate the rumen microbial population to increase rapidly and break roughage faster.

The quality of cattle today is better and the efficiency of production expected of them is greater than formerly. Consequently, pelleted supplements containing energy as well as protein and other nutrients is necessary for high producing lactating beef cows fed non-legume roughage.

for its grower-members, Robert W. Rutledge, Mutual executive vice president, said today. The new triangle-shaped sign states that a $200 reward will be paid by Mutual for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone caught stealing fruit from a member's grove. The sign also has room at the bottom for the grower's name.

Mutual's board of directors voted to increase the reward from $100 to $200 at the beginning of last season.

Dale Carlton, Mutual grower relations division head, said many growers have asked for new signs that made provisions for them to add their names. He said the sign Mutual previously used had still offered the $100 reward instead of the $200 reward.

Fundamental Belief in God

Dreamed of by millions, searched for by many, discovered by a few. Established, built, maintained, and governed by a Fundamental Belief in God. That is America—these United States. That is our home... that is you and me. How else could the heritage we hold come into being? A System? ... Not so! But a dedicated, consecrated way of life as set forth in the Sermon on the Mount. Through the grief and misery suffered at Valley Forge, shines the same light which has illuminated men's minds since time began. That same light—the Word of God—is now lighting and showing the way—the way of truth—to us as a nation and as individuals. Just so long as each of us, each day, rededicate our lives to a Fundamental Belief in God—we shall we endure.

Biggest Fishing Contest Ever For Entire State Sponsored By Schlitz Brewing Company

The biggest fishing contest ever conducted in Florida and perhaps anywhere—a half million dollar competition tied to the state's fish research program—has been announced by the Schlitz Brewing Company.

The combined contest and research project will be sponsored by Schlitz in cooperation with the Florida State Board of Conservation and the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The $500,000 will be swimming with 12,004 fresh and salt water fish which will be tagged by the two agencies and released in inland waters throughout Florida and in certain coastal waters. Schlitz will pay cash awards ranging from $25 to $10,000 for every tagged fish caught during the contest period, depending upon the tag number. Pertinent information on the tagged fish then will be furnished to the two state agencies for their research purposes.

Florida will be divided into four "zones" for the contest, with the competition running for a three-month period in each zone. The contest begins January 1, 1961, in the initial zone and closes June 30, 1961, in the final zone. Opening and closing dates will be staggered in the remaining zones because of the physical problems involved in tagging and releasing the great number of fish involved and also to suit optimum fishing conditions in each area.

Details of the statewide Florida fishing event were announced by Schlitz Executive Vice President Robert A. Uihlein Jr. at the company's Milwaukee headquarters.

"As a resident of the state, with a brewery at Tampa, we are anxious to further the interests of Florida," said Uihlein. "We hope this huge fishing contest will add fun and excitement to this wonderful Florida sport among residents and vacationers alike. By tagging it upon the state's fish research program we hope to be able to benefit the important scientific studies which advance Florida fishing as both a recreation and an industry," Uihlein said.

Following the close of the contest in each zone, Schlitz will pay $2.00 for every one of the tagged fish caught up until December 31, 1962.

Ernest Mitts, director of the Florida State Board of Conservation, which governs salt water fishing, said at Tallahassee that the Schlitz project "would bring welcomed new scope to the state's fish research program, in both fresh and salt waters."

"The substantial cash awards being offered by the company will result in increased fishing activity and a far greater return of tagged specimens for us to study," said Mitts. "Even after the period of competition, the $2.00 bounty will assure greater public interest and participation in our research efforts."

"We are pleased to cooperate with Schlitz in this worthwhile undertaking," Mitts declared.

A. D. Aldrich, director of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, commented at Tallahassee that "Schlitz is to be highly commended for this two-pronged promotion of fish research and fishing fun. Fishing is its own reward but the chance of hooking a good cash prize will enhance the enjoyment."

"We'll definitely be able to measure significant research benefits in this Schlitz project but the great recreational impact probably can never be fully counted," said Aldrich.

The competition will be opened to everyone, except employees of the Florida Conservation Board and the state Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, and employees of Schlitz, its wholesalers and advertising agencies. All Florida fishing regulations must be complied with.

Of the 12,004 fish to be tagged and released, said Uihlein, four will carry $10,000 tags—one in each zone; 100 fish will have $1,000 tags; 400 fish will be worth $100 each; 1,300 fish will carry $50 awards, and the remaining 10,200 fish each will be worth $25—a total of half a million dollars.

In addition, he said, the first tagged fish caught and turned in after the contest opening in each of the four zones will be worth a $1,000 bonus.

Uihlein explained that specific tag values will be predetermined in drawings in each of the four contest zones.

The tag number of the $10,000 fish will be drawn first by a chosen public official or personality, then the number of the $1,000 tags, and so on. A master list of tag number values in each zone will be kept under strict security and no one but a designated company official will know those values.

A fisherman catching one of the Schlitz tagged fish will receive his cash award through the nearest Schlitz wholesaler. The name and location of that wholesaler can be obtained from any beer retailer. The fisherman will not know the value of the tag number until it can be checked on the master list.

Of the total fish tagged, 10,000 will be released in inland waters. These fresh water fish will be apportioned among the four zones according to population within the zone and the popularity of the individual waters. The remaining 2,000 fish will be salt water fish released in Gulf and Atlantic Coast waters—from Hernando county southward on the Gulf Coast and from Indian River county southward on the Atlantic Coast. These areas are in Zones 1 and 2, respectively.

The species of fish will be chosen by the two state agencies to best serve their research aims. The fresh water will include Black Bass, Crappie and Bream (Blue gill, Shiner, and Mullet), and other pan fish. The salt water fish will include Trout (Speckled and Silver), Red fish, salt water Catfish, Drum, Flounder, Reef Fish (including Red Snapper and Groupers), Mangrove Snapper, Snook, Baracuda and Mullet.

All fish must be caught by hook and line, except Mullet, which is netted. Mullet were included so that commercial fishermen and sportsmen would not be overlooked in the competition.

Uihlein said the zones, the number of fish to be released in each and the contest dates would be as follows:

Zone 1—comprised of Hernando, Pasco, Pinellas, Hillsborough, Polk, Manatee, Hardee, Sarasota, De Soto, Highlands, Charlotte, Glades, Lee, Hendry and Collier counties; 1,000 salt water fish and 1,701 fresh water fish to be tagged and released; contest begins January 1, 1961, and ends March 31, 1961.
Zone 2—comprised of Indian River, Okeechobee, St. Lucie, Martin, Palm Beach, Broward, Dade and Monroe counties and the Keys; 1,000 salt water fish and 3,061 fresh water fish to be tagged and released; contest begins February 1, 1961, and ends April 30, 1961.
Zone 3—comprised of Flagler, Volusia, Marion, Citrus, Sumter, Lake, Seminole, Orange, Osceola and Brevard counties; 1,681 fresh water fish to be tagged and released; contest begins March 1, 1961, and ends May 31, 1961.
Zone 4—comprised of Escambia, Santa Rosa, Oklawaha, Walton, Holmes, Jackson, Washington, Bay, Calhoun, Gulf, Liberty, Franklin, Wakulla, Gadsden, Leon, Jefferson, Madison, Tyler, Hamilton, Suwannee, Lafayette, Dixie, Levy, Gilchrist, Columbia, Baker, Union, Bradford, Alachua, Putnam, St. Johns, Clay, Duval and Nassau counties; 3,061 fresh water fish to be tagged and released; contest begins April 1, 1961, and ends June 30, 1961.

The fish research on which the competition will be based is the same as that regularly carried on by the Conservation Board and the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. The two agencies will supervise the tagging and releasing of the fish but all costs will be borne by Schlitz. These costs are expected to exceed $12,000. The tags used will be small metal or plastic devices bearing the word "Schlitz" and a number from 1 to 10,000 preceded by "B" for fresh water or a number from 1 to 2,000 preceded by "A" for salt water.

The type and size of each fish and the water in which it is planted will be recorded by the two state agencies.

A Plea For Beth

A story came to the attention of the Sun this week which points up the love of our fellow man during this Yuletide season.

One of the survivors of a dreadful wreck which occurred here last week, little Beth Sasser, has been taken in by the family of another custodial officer at the Correctional Institute. The family that is taking care of Beth has six children of their own but still made the offer while Mrs. Sasser who was badly injured in the mishap starts the long slow trip toward recovery.

The thought was advanced that possibly some of the community would like to add to Beth's Christmas happiness... a Christmas when she will not understand why her two sisters and daddy will not be there to share in childish merriment on the biggest day of the year to a two year old.

The Sun will be most happy to act in the behalf of this little girl to add what we can to her Christmas... just send anything you would like to give in an envelope to Beth in care of the Avon Park Sun and we will make sure that it goes to this little girl.

Allergic To Holiday In Jail He Bailed Out - The Window That Is

George Glen Stalvey did not want to spend Christmas in jail, but he will—and New Year's and maybe Easter and Fourth of July.

Stalvey, a 28-year-old white resident of Tampa, escaped from custody of Highlands County authorities Monday after a half-day of freedom was apprehended in Moore Haven.

Stalvey made his escape by jumping out of a window in the county court house. Monday morning he, with a score of other prisoners, was brought from the jail, across the street, to the court house where they were to be arraigned before County Judge, Mervin Rehner.

As the prisoners were being brought into the court room, Stalvey moved to the front of the court room, opened a window and jumped from the first story level to the ground. Later in the afternoon Stalvey made a telephone call which was traced to Moore Haven. The sheriff there was notified and within minutes had apprehended the fugitive.

Sheriff Broward Coker, who returned the prisoner to the jail at Sebring, said that Stalvey reported that he made his flight by foot and auto. He told the sheriff that he had "walked through orange groves, along the railroad and then caught a ride to Okeechobee and from there another ride to Moore Haven."

Stalvey had, originally, been charged with driving while intoxicated and driving without a license. Sheriff's deputies explained that if Stalvey had previously been convicted of a driving while intoxicated charge he is facing a mandatory jail sentence which could be as high as a year.

"I guess he just didn't want to spend Christmas in jail," one deputy speculated. To the other charges the charge of escape now is added.

Booze Puts Two In Jail For Holidays

Drinking spree has sent two men to jail for the holidays. Jessie Lee Monds, 23, of Lake Placid is charged with being drunk, resisting arrest with violence and aggravated assault, and battery.

He entered a plea of guilty to the drunk charge and Judge Mervin Rehner fined him $25 or 30 days in jail on that count. A preliminary hearing on the other two charges is set for Dec. 19. Bond was placed at $1,000.

Jesse L. Dwyer, 41, of Wauchula, charged with driving while intoxicated, pleaded guilty and was fined $250 or three months in jail, and his driver's license was revoked for six months.

James Lionel Hines, 48, Haines City, drew the stiffest sentence meted out Monday on a driving while intoxicated charge. Hines, who admitted that this was his second offense, is serving five years, entered a guilty plea. He was sentenced to 60 days in jail plus a $150 fine or an additional 60 days in jail. His driver's license was revoked for a year.

David Hercules Howard, 32, of Fort Meade, pleaded guilty to a driving while intoxicated charge. He drew a $125 fine or 90 days in jail and lost his driver's license for 90 days.

Walter Bissell and Robert Richardson, 18-year-olds, from Lake County, entered guilty pleas to petit larceny. They are accused of stealing telephone wires. Sentencing was postponed until Dec. 29, and bond for each was set at $1,000.

William James Roberts, 40, Sebring, entered a not guilty plea on a petit larceny charge. His bond was set at $200.

William Albert Baldwin, 67-year-old resident of Maryland, and Robert Mason, 31, of Wauchula, both pleaded guilty to worthless check charges. Baldwin was fined $15 or 10 days in jail. Mason was sentenced to 15 days in jail and instructed to make restitution or spend another 15 days in jail.

The officials also said the warning system to be used in case of enemy attack needs improving. "We cannot," one official said, "continue with 1961 missiles with 1941 surplus radio equipment."

State law requires that each county establish a Civil Defense organization. SOFA officials at Stuart complained that many counties have been slow to comply with the law. They urged all counties to organize and completely study all departments.

Highlands County Director Hanes said, "Cuba, a potential enemy base, is only 90 miles away. It is hard to understand why Florida would be slow in organizing her Civil Defense."

The County Civil Defense Committee, which is to meet in the county commissioners' room at the court house next week, is made up of the five county commissioners, County Civil Defense director, sheriff, representatives of public instruction, county judge, and the clerk of circuit court is an ex-officio member.

Juvenile Case Load Shows Jump In 1960

By Alberta Jones Staff Writer

Highlands County Juvenile Court will handle more cases in 1960 than in the preceding year. In a report made to the Highlands County Juvenile Court Board on Thursday (Dec. 9), Commissioner E. A. Delaney said that up through Dec. 7, the court had disposed of 160 cases. The total for 1959 was 158 cases.

Delaney's report was a part of the first Board meeting of the fall. The board is made up of two divisions—the Children's Committee and the Board of Visitors. At the meeting Thursday, Mrs. Robert Habbel, the Rev. Tom W. Jones of Sebring and Marshall S. P. Pollard of Lake Placid were sworn in as new members of the Board of Visitors.

Mrs. Harriet Coon and Mrs. Dorothy Wooten of Sebring, Mrs. Thelma Ward and C. E. Ginn of Avon Park are the other members of this board.

Avon Park residents who are members of the Children's Committee are Mrs. Charles Shepherd, G. Franklin Ward and Mrs. Harold C. Wooten; Judge Mervin Rehner and Charles Metcalfe of Avon Park are ex-officio members. D. D. Cunningham of Lake Wales is chairman.

A special committee was appointed to investigate the future of the post of juvenile counselor. Highlands County is currently being served by one part-time counselor, Delaney. His current term of service will expire early in 1961. Prior to that date the special committee, headed by Jones, is to make a report which will include recommendations as to whether a full-time counselor is needed.

Other members of the committee are Ward, Pollard, Cunningham and Rehner.

A detailed report of the children's cases through the month of October showed that Highlands County boys got into trouble more often than girls and white boys more often than Negro boys. A total of 82 delinquency cases, 43 white boys and 11 girls were involved. 18 Negro boys and four Negro girls.

Traffic violations and acts of violence were the most common offenses. The principal avenue into juvenile court for boys. The latter charge was cited in 17 cases. A total of 20 white boys and seven white girls were involved in traffic cases. 18 Negro youths were cited in traffic violations.

More than 60 per cent of the traffic cases were related to operators' licenses. Seven youths were cited for driving without a license. 15 youths were charged with violating or exceeding speed.

The youngest traffic offenders—three of them—were 13 years old (one boy and two girls). Nineteen of the offenders were 16 years old.

Eleven per cent of the delinquency cases (exclusive of traffic cases) involved persons 10 years of age or younger. The youngest was one six-year-old. Fifteen and 16 years old accounted for 41 of the cases.

One-third of the girls accused of delinquency were charged with being truant. Truancy was involved in only nine per cent of the boys cases.

We were fortunate this week in hearing a gentleman from the firm which is at the present time doing the preliminary survey work for Sebring on their proposed Sanitary Sewer system.

It is certainly pointed out that the city of Avon Park should well take a close look at its sewer facilities and evaluate them.

If Sebring passes the issue they will be set for a projected 50 years or a population growth of 13,000 people under the proposal which has been submitted.

Sebring has been faced with much the same problem which is now facing us here . . . that of inadequate sewer facilities except in a very concentrated area, almost just the business district one might say.

A growing city such as Avon Park should lay plans right now to start something into motion for the future. Everything within the city limits could probably be serviced more easily than Sebring since they must worry about circumventing Lake Jackson, which in itself is no small chore.

We are in an apparently more fortunate position in the case with which the laterals could be run in town, being situated on more of a "grid system."

Sebring is also applying under public law 660 to obtain Federal aid in the form of an outright grant of 30% toward construction of the facility.

All boiled down it is going to cost Sebring $1,864,000 to modernize its sanitary system under one of the plans which has been submitted . . . this is small cost really to rid the city of a sanitary problem of lake and well pollution.

After all the septic tank and cesspool system is designed as a temporary measure or for use in rural areas for the confined residential areas of cities . . . especially small cities which are plagued with high water tables as we are in Florida.

When in operation it is estimated that the cost will be about $3.50 per month for the service . . . again cheap enough to be able to offer this type of facility to a prospective firm or resident contemplating settling in the area.

LEESBURG, FLA., COMMERCIAL: "... Some 14 million children will be added to the elementary and high school population by 1980 . . .

"The final outcome between freedom and totalitarianism will most likely be decided by the quality of education these children receive, not how many rockets and nuclear warheads they inherit."

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "Excluding taxes, the price of a gallon of gasoline is less than a third as much as the price of a gallon of distilled water (75 cents), less than one-ninth as much as the price of a gallon of ginger ale ($1.83), and less than a tenth as much as the price of a gallon of beer (about $2, excluding taxes)."

OJAL, CALIF., NEWS: "When most of us think of a Texan we're inclined to think of a man with a big hat, a bigger roll of greenbacks, and well-to-do carpeting. This business of drilling for oil, however, is not all peaches and cream."

"During a period of 15 years, a Texan drilled 188 dry holes at a cost of $2-1/2 million."

VERSAILLES, OHIO, POLICY: "Feel sorry for top men in the nation and in business for the many decisions they must make?"

"Then keep a little of that sympathy for yourself if you are a motorist," advises Jack Tutwiler of the Darke County Automobile Club.

"The local AAA official points to a recent study of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, showing that a motorist in typical city traffic must make a decision and take some action in an average of three times a minute."

"And many of these are life-saving decisions," the automobile club leader points out.

Probably one of the easiest things in the world for most of us to do is to find reasons for criticizing other folks . . . and while making no personal claims to being a paragon of virtue, whenever we find ourselves becoming too critical of others, we try to remember the biblical admonition about extracting the beam from our own eye before worrying too much about the mote in the other fellow's optic.

We've often wondered whatever became of a high school classmate of ours, who was the most positive-thinking individual we've ever known . . . remember once when, as a youth, he questioned the accuracy of a detail of parliamentary procedure, and even after the parliamentarian of the Senate had been written for his opinion and had declared the boy's position inaccurate, the kid claimed the professional didn't know what he was talking about.

"TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY"

By Russell Kay

Thirty three years ago, in the corner of a Tampa filling station, a young man sat at a typewriter, laboriously filling in the first copy to be issued by the American Fire & Casualty Company. The young man's name is Walter Hays, the concern's only employee.

From a one-man organization in 1927, his personal charm, astute business judgement and managerial ability ramrodded this company into a $14 million-a-year (gross premium income) empire today.

You won't find the story of Walter Hays among the famed Alger books. But it is a story that might well have been found between the covers of such books as "Sink or Swim," "Strike and Succeed," or "Do and Dare."

Stories that our modern youth scoff at as "square stuff" and some of our so-called educators would ban as unrealistic and fantastic.

Personally, I was brought up on Alger books and I credit them with inspiration to rely upon myself, appreciate the importance of freethinking, and develop worthwhile character habits that have stood me in good stead my life.

But getting back to Walter Hays. He was born in a little town with the unbelievable name of Leogansville in Indiana. Was brought up a typical American farm boy. His family established itself in the colonies before the revolution, true pioneers in the American experiment, that laid the foundation of what was great nation that is ours today.

Walter stumbled into the insurance business, you might say, in his search for a more rewarding life than farming that of that day. Success at first came slowly. He learned to ring doorbells and to keep everlastingly at it.

When World War I came along he volunteered and at its close knocked around from one job to another until he landed in Florida at the time the Dixie Auto Underwriters failed. Securing their charter he organized his own company. The first claim he was called on to meet nearly broke him but he retained his faith in courage and went on to the success he has achieved.

Operations of the American Fire & Casualty Company were confined to Florida at first but now it covers many states and continues to expand. The company helped initiate the trend toward fewer policies and broader coverage, and wrote $25 and $50 deductible when no other would. American invented the pooling of preferred risks and explored early insurance protection tailor-made to conform to policy holders needs. It was among the first to loan money for home construction in Central Florida and was constantly leading the way in the insurance field.

Hays takes pride in the fact that his top executives today joined the organization when they were school boys and grew up with the American. This inspired him to found the American Institute of Insurance and a Relations with the American's "Little Red School House" in downtown Orlando. Here hand-picked agents and employees are instructed in insurance, salesmanship, public speaking and civic responsibility, and the venture has paid off handsomely.

Other Florida activities headed by Walter Hays are The American Federal Savings and Loan Association, also of Orlando (assets over $25-million), American Independent Reinsurance Company (operating throughout America and Europe) but he still has time for local, state and national civic effort. He is a director of the First National Bank of Orlando, corporate secretary and past president of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce and is a director of the American Cancer Society, president of the Stetson University Council, director of the National War Fund, and past president of the Central Florida Council of Boy Scouts.

He believes in free enterprise and has worked tirelessly in its defense. Florida needs more men like Walter Hays.

Will you, I think the expression is, give if that Kennedy kid doesn't show promise of being a real cabinet maker.

I don't get it mind the pickin' of Abbie Ribicoff as secretary of health they gonna make everybody healthy, education (integrated, of course) and welfare (the taxi) from us * and giving to them."

I have in mind the naming of Soapy Williams as assistant secretary for Africa. It was a perfect pick. A dangerous post sent on request.

For most since the Congress was like white meat for a diet change. But even they couldn't stomach Soapy.

I understand the only other NAACP person considered for the post was a Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. But that she will be ambassador to Harlem, a post created especially for her as a reward for work done during the war and if you'll pardon the adjective—colorful career.

FLORIDA'S THREE SUNS

CRACKER POLITICS

By Allen Morris

Tallahassee, Secretary of State-elect Tom Adams speaks of the Democratic party in Florida as being in "a trying period of adolescence."

This language suggests a rebuilding of the campaign machinery which many regard as having rusted into uselessness through some 75 years of elections being settled within the Party.

Looking for lessons in the '39 general election, when Republican nominees made their last showing in a Reconstruction decade, Adams opined, somewhat grimly:

"Fortunately, we Democrats have four years in which to achieve political maturity by developing a sound and responsible party activity in the state."

In some areas, with Broward county as a prime example, Adams says the Democrats have responded to Republican opposition by building "a wonderful effective organization," but this is lacking in many other areas.

"Just to be frank about it," continued Adams, "in too many places, the members of the State Democratic Committee have held their points by default. Their greatest party activity, I'm afraid, has been to attend meetings and support candidates."

Some of the lessons seen by Adams in the results of the general election:

1. A party's nominees for state office cannot separate themselves from its national nominees, as the Florida Democratic candidates did at the beginning of the '60 campaign for a number of practical reasons, he said.

2. The traditional sources of campaign contributions were supporting Nixon-Lodge.

"Hindright's a whole lot clearer than foreright," agreed Adams, "but it's fairly certain now that the calculated reluctance of state Democratic nominees to endorse the national ticket from the start resulted in a heavy protest vote being cast by Democrats against Democratic nominees."

"It appears those Democrats who opposed Kennedy would have forgiven the Democratic nominees for supporting the whole ticket more readily than they ultimately were willing to forgive them for inflicting a national ticket. Secondly, the loyal, dedicated Democrats were deeply offended by some of their party's nominees seeming to be unwilling to accept their own national nominees."

"Actually, I guess no one would up happy for the 'court-house to White House' theme of the final days of the campaign resulted in alienating many who contemplated voting for the Democratic nominees for state office and the Republican for national. At the same time, the Democrats already offended by the early separation of state and national campaigns remained agitated."

Adams believes the psychology of the general election is entirely different from that of the primaries. In these, he explains, the emphasis is upon individuals. Not so in the general election, with voters thinking then in terms of parties, "although the vigorous, determined campaigner—the man who knows the most people, knows them well, and is deserving of their support—still can win, regardless of party."

2. There must be a separate organization to carry on the general election campaign for the party. This will be the opportunity of a revitalized party committee.

For most since the Congress was like white meat for a diet change. But even they couldn't stomach Soapy.

I understand the only other NAACP person considered for the post was a Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. But that she will be ambassador to Harlem, a post created especially for her as a reward for work done during the war and if you'll pardon the adjective—colorful career.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Dec. 16, 1960

Editor of Avon Park Sun, Avon Park, Florida

Dear Sir:

I am enclosing a poem which I thought you might like to publish. Christmas is the south of Florida is not to us here. That is why we liked the poem. We have managed to get a short visit to Avon Park once a year, in the spring, and look forward to the time we may be able to stay longer.

We are subscribers to your paper and look it all over every week—almost like a letter from home.

Wishing you a Merry Christmas and the best in the New Year.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Stanley Rice
418 Maplewood Ave.
East Liverpool, Ohio

P.S. I don't know the author of the poem.

CHRISTMAS EVE
IN AVON PARK

'Twas the night before Christmas and all through the town,
No noise was heard, no snow fluttered down,
No children in flannels were excited in bed.

They all wore their short pajamas instead!
To find wreaths of holly was not very hard,
For holly trees sprouted right in the back yard.

In front of the houses were daddies and moms,
Admiring the bushes and coconut palms.

The slumbering kiddies were dreaming in gloom,
And hoped they'd find water skis under the tree!

They all knew that Santa was well on his way
In a Mercedes-Benz instead of a sleigh!

And soon he arrived and started to work
He hadn't a second to linger or shirk!

He whizzed up the highways and zoned up the roads
In an S and L 300 delivering his loads.

The tropical moon gave the city a glow,
And lighted the way for Santa below.

As he jumped from the auto he gave a chuckle . . .
He was dressed in Bermuda and an ivy league buckle.

There weren't any chimneys but that caused no gloom,
For Santa came in through the Florida room!

For Santa came in through the Florida room!
He stopped at each house, stayed only a minute,
And emptied his sack of the stuff that was in it.

Before he departed he treated himself
To a glass of papaya juice left on the shelf!

Then he turned with a jerk and bounced back to the car,
Remembering he still had to go very far!

He shifted the gears and stepped on the gas
And up the highway he went in a flash.

And I heard him exclaim as he went on his way,
"Merry Christmas, Avon Park . . . I WISH I COULD STAY!"

Encourage courtesy and car-pooling on the highways by setting a good example yourself.

48 REASONS WHY IT CAN'T BE DONE

1. We tried it before.
2. Our place is different.
3. Probably costs too much.
4. That's beyond our responsibility.
5. That's not my job.
6. We're all too busy.
7. It's too radical a change.
8. We don't have the time.
9. Not enough help.
10. Let's make a market research test first.
11. We are too small for it.
12. The men will never buy it.
13. The union will scream.
14. We've never done it before.
15. It's against company policy.
16. Run up our overhead.
17. We don't have the authority.
18. Let's get back to reality.
19. Why change, it's still working o. k.
20. You're right—but . . .
21. We need two years ahead of your time.
22. We don't have the money or the personnel.
23. It isn't in the budget.
24. Can't teach an old dog new tricks.
25. Good thought, but impractical.
26. Let's hold it in abeyance.
27. Top Management would never go for it.
28. Put it in memo form.
29. It will be the laughing stock.
30. Not that again.
31. I'd lose money in the long run.
32. We did all right without it.
33. It's never been tried before.
34. Let's shelve it for the time being.
35. Let's form a committee.
36. Has anyone else ever tried it?
37. Customers won't like it.
38. It won't work in our company.
39. The Executive Committee will thumbs down.
40. What does competition do about it?
41. Let's all sleep on it.
42. It can't be done.
43. It won't pay for itself.
44. It's impractical.
45. We've always done it this way.
46. I'm not going to stick my neck out.
47. The Legal Department will never pass it.
48. I'm just too lazy.

Bass Hits 30 Points For Devil Win

Glenn Bass tossed in thirty points to lead the Red Devils to their second straight Ridge Conference basketball victory last Tuesday night when Avon Park outscored Arcadia 72-52 on the Devils home court. The Arcadia "B" squad took a close 38-30 decision from the Avon Park Junior varsity in the first game of the evening.

Bobby Bates collected 14 points to aid the Red Devil varsity's winning effort. Avon Park led at the end of each period although they held only a five point advantage at halftime with the score 37-32. The Devil quarter got hot in the final quarter and flipped 25 points through the hoop to surge into an unassailable lead.

Edwards, Whitlock and Parkyn shared the scoring honors for Arcadia with 17, 14, and 13 points to their credit.

Terry Oberle was high scorer for the local "B" team with 12 points and Jimmy Tarborough led the winning visitors with 11 points.

Friday-afternoon the Avon Park varsity team will play Ft. Meade at the local high school gym at 2 o'clock. This will be the Red Devils last game until after the Christmas holidays. They will open the new year schedule against Frostproof here Jan. 3.

Association Honors Red Devil Athletes - Coaches

The Avon Park Athletic Association honored the 1960 Red Devil football team and their coaches last Monday night when some fifty members of the association attended a dinner at the Jacaranda Hotel. Four outstanding players were presented trophies and the two coaches were given gifts of appreciation by the community.

Joe Jackson was named the "best football player of 1960" and awarded a trophy by the Avon Citrus Bank. Mr. Bill Briscoe made the presentation. Lamont Money won the trophy for the "best offensive player of 1960." This trophy was given by W. W. Mac Company and Mr. Angus Wicker made the presentation. Joe Milton was selected as the "best defensive player of the year" and was given a trophy which Eakin's Department Store presented. Mr. Bob Lee made the award to Milton. A trophy for the "most improved player of 1960" was presented to Jim Porter by Jack Flaggart representing the Avon Park Sun. Next year a fifth award will be made. Morris Adams will present a trophy to the letterman who has the highest scholastic average for the 1960-1961 year.

Christmas Tea Features Yule Theme

The traditional Christmas Tea, sponsored by the Garden Club, celebration was held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Lawhon on East 7th Street, Thursday, December 8. Mrs. E. A. Shepherd headed the committee that decorated lavishly Christmas decorations in every room of the home, ranging from the earliest customs to the very modern artistic arrangements.

In the entrance hall guests were greeted by Mrs. Lawhon, Mrs. Guy Decker, Mrs. Paul L. Lunsjens and Mrs. A. C. Shepherd. Mrs. Art Turner and Mrs. B. J. Camp, Jr., kept the guest register. The conversation piece was a fan-shaped design of blue and gold magnolia leaves at the side of a tall silver container holding a pink and blue candle and arranged around this design were pink callias nestled in white angel hair.

The mantle in the living room featured a brass bowl holding white callias at one end of the mantle and a five-branched andalabra holding white tapers standing at the other end, with a large mirror reflecting angels floating downward over the scene. Ivory metallic trees decorated with gay colored balls stood on end tables. A dainty angel figurine graced another table and a white Christmas tree made from styrofoam balls that were sprayed with glitter and strung with blue lights, stood on another table in the corner. Red candles burned in black wrought-iron stands and a Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus stood on a desk by the front window.

Mrs. Gerald Wicker, Mrs. Jim Turnbull and Mrs. George Kelsay were the hostesses for the living room and dining room. The dining table was overlaid with a delicate blue damask linen cloth. A silver andalabra entwined with holly leaves and red berries, formed the table centerpiece. The holly leaves were tipped with silver and clusters of gold balls and red satin ribbon completed this attractive design. All table appointments were in silver. Presiding at the silver service during the afternoon were Mrs. C. C. Scharf, Mrs. J. D. Coston, Jr., Mrs. Alice Sherman and Mrs. E. W. Hart. Dainty open-faced sandwiches and cookies were served with the hot coffee and tea. Silver-compote held mints. Those assisting with the serving were the Misses Pat Touchton, Carol Beckham, Anne Johnson and Ann Harben. A red Christmas tree candle, decorated with gold and red, flanked by red and white figurines representing a choir, graced the sideboard. A large silver bowl filled with snowy white popcorn sat on a table in the breakfast nook. Standing beside this was an unusual looking Christmas tree made from long leaf pine placed around a tall footed silver dish. The pine branches were sprayed with snow and decorated with red satin apples. Many of the guests sat around to visit here and also in the TV Room where a large brass container held red poinsettias from which three red candles stood very tall. On the wall behind this arrangement was a gold Christmas tree, topped with a star, and decorated with balls and garland of tiny gold chains.

The guests also enjoyed the bedroom decorations. In the front room a pink note was explained with large pink hibiscus and pink gerbers in a footed pink compote. Pycnantha berries and pine branches were placed in an oriental container under a window where red fireball poinsettias gracefully formed a natural scene outside the window. Mrs. W. J. Head, Mrs. Richard Thayer and Mrs. George Walters were the committee on publicity. Among those assisting with the hospitalities were Mrs. C. E. Lanier, Mrs. John Dawson, Mrs. Fred Jahna, Mrs. C. Brooks Henderson and Mrs. Marvin Rehner.

Date Is Set For Library Silver Tea

The Library Board set the following date, Thursday, February 2, 1961, for the annual Silver Tea for the Avon Park Library. The tea will be held at the spacious home of Mrs. Ed Touchton on Lake Lotela.

Increased pedestrian and traffic volume during the Christmas season requires extra driving care.

THE AVON PARK SUN, AVON PARK, FLORIDA

Alkolines

By J. W. McAllister

If you're an average person, you're probably pretty well informed about the devastating effects of cancer, mental illness and heart disease. These are our three major public health problems.

But chances are you know little about our fourth-ranking health problem—alcoholism.

Alcoholism isn't discussed as much as other health problems. It has certain social and cultural barriers that it must overcome to command a prominent place in conversation. For many years drunkenness has been a topic unfit for "parlor talk," and only in recent years has it become known that drunkenness and alcoholism are not the same.

Actually, an alcoholic is a person suffering from a disease. More than 6 million Americans, including 100 thousand Floridians, are afflicted with this malady.

The alcoholic is not simply a person who likes to get drunk. He is a slave to a liquid, an addict. He has no control over his consumption of beverage alcohol. He will often forsake his family, his job, and his security in a futile attempt to satisfy an unsatisfiable, never-ending urge to consume beverage alcohol.

Alcoholism has fast come to the forefront as a problem needing public attention. The National Institute of Mental Health has just appropriated one million dollars for an exhaustive study of alcoholism and all of the agencies and organizations dealing with it. An international commission called the cooperative commission on alcoholism - has been appointed. The committee is composed of 20 authorities on alcoholism from various parts of the U.S. and Canada.

Ernest A. Shepherd, administrator of the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, has been named to the commission. This week - November 28 through December 2 - has been proclaimed National Alcoholism Information Week by President Eisenhower. The observance is being sponsored in Florida by the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, an official State agency for the treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics. This is the first national observance also observed in the history of our nation.

The purpose of Alcoholism Information Week is to focus attention on the severity and scope of alcoholism in the nation, to point out that alcoholism is a disease, not a disgrace, and to tell citizens where they may find treatment for alcoholism.

If you're in the dark about alcoholism, this would be a good time to learn more about it. Your library has numerous books on the subject. The Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program at Avon Park will be glad to send you information including a lengthy bibliography. The Outpatient Clinics of the Florida AR Program in Miami, Tampa, Jacksonville or Pensacola will be glad to answer your questions and provide you with literature on the subject.

Or, you may want to contact one of your local Alcoholics Anonymous groups or your church for information.

Find out what is being done about alcoholism in your community. We can't afford to allow 100,000 alcoholics within our state boundaries to go unobserved. It's only by understanding alcoholism, and all its ramifications that we as community members can help men and women afflicted by this disease to recovery.

$50,000 Fund For Student Nurses Set Up

Leighton T. Hall, Director of Hospital Affairs in the Southern Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists (comprising the 8 Southern States) with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., today announced a gift of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00), to establish a Loan Fund for Student Nurses of Southern Missionary College (Chattanooga, Tenn.), with which the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital in Orlando, Fla., is affiliated in operating a School for Professional Nurses.

Donor is Mrs. Rosamond Lee Chadwick of Ft. Myers, Fla., and the gift will be known as the Rosamond Lee Chadwick Loan Fund For Student Nurses.

Hall, who has worked with Mrs. Chadwick for some time in arranging the transaction, said Mrs. Chadwick was impressed to make this contribution because of the critical need over the nation in the nursing field today.

Seventh-day Adventists operate some thirty Schools of Nursing and graduate over five hundred (500) nurses annually.

Fast kill and long-lasting residual activity against all citrus mites is yours with KELTHANE. Use this non-phosphate miticide during fall and winter for a thorough clean-up of mites in your groves.

Slow-killing miticides let mites migrate, after spraying, to other trees or to rapidly developing new growth. This allows them to build up and injure tender, new foliage. Don't give mites this chance. Stop them with KELTHANE.

See for yourself how quickly KELTHANE kills all citrus mites. KELTHANE is compatible with most citrus pesticides and does not harm beneficial insects. See your dealer for KELTHANE.

Brownie Troop 21 Holds Service On Monday Evening At School

Institute ceremony for Brownie Troop 21 was held Monday night, December 5, at the Avon Elementary Cafeteria.

For the entertainment of their parents and friends, the girls opened the service by singing Jingle Bells in Spanish. The audience was then asked to join them in singing it in English. The girls were seated on the stage and each one stood and recited some of the duties of a Brownie Scout. This was followed by the flag ceremony with Gail McHenry, Barbara

Miller, and Debra Sutton acting as color guard and color bearers. Following the reciting of the Brownie Promise, the girls were invited by their troop leaders, Mrs. Gerald Wicker and Mrs. Ray Selms.

Patty Turnbull then invited those attending the service to join them for refreshments. They were served from a table beautifully done in a Christmas theme. Refreshments consisted of fancy Christmas cookies and punch served from a bowl encircled with pine branches and red and green balls.

The stage for the ceremony was decorated with pine branches and Brazilian pepper berry.

Troop 21 is sponsored by the Avon Park Jaycees.

Al-Anon Group Is Formed Here

An Al-Anon family group has been formed here it was announced this week.

The primary purpose of Al-Anon is not to try and stop compulsive drinking, but rather to help the families of alcoholics solve their common problems through a deeper understanding of the disease of alcoholism.

The only requirement for membership is the drinking problem of a relative or friend.

The group meets at different homes each Monday at 9:30 a. m.

Interested persons can learn more details by calling GL 3-5318 or GL 3-5373.

Christmas Mail Load To Hit Peak

With the Christmas mail load hitting its peak within the next few days, Postmaster Singleton expressed his appreciation today for your cooperation on his annual "Mail Early For Christmas Campaign."

"While it's too late to talk about early mailing of Christmas gifts and cards," the Postmaster said, "you can avoid disappointing your friends and loved ones on Christmas Day by using Air Mail. There's still time for last deliveries, but be sure to send all Christmas cards by First Class mail, and do include your return address on all Christmas card envelopes and package labels."

Postal employees are digging in for the final drive to get everything delivered by Christmas Eve. The Post Office will remain open from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

"Now that the end of the big rush is in sight," the Postmaster said, "I want to express my appreciation for the fine cooperation from our patrons. The 1960 'Mail Early For Christmas' Campaign will be a rousing success. You'll just keep up the good work. On Christmas Eve this year, I'd like to see every mail bag empty and every Post Office employee relaxing at home."

WCS Honors New Members At Program

The Woman's Society of Christian Church honored all of the members who have joined the Society during the past year with an annual Christmas program on Tuesday evening, Wednesday evening at the church. This was also the twentieth anniversary of the WCS.

Mrs. T. O. Martin, president, and Mrs. J. R. Kent, program chairman, conducted the program. Mrs. Kent gave an interesting account of the observances of Christmas down through the ages. The traditional Christmas tree was decorated by a group of children and many Christmas cards were sung during the program.

Mrs. Jerome Shultz played her musical bells and also rendered the organ music. Mrs. F. D. Henderson, Billy Dixon and Leona Maxwell rendered special vocal numbers.

The new members stood together with lighted candles, which symbolized the light of Christianity as sent into the world through missionaries, as they took the pledge of Prayers, Service and Giving to the missionary work.

During the social hour the members of Circle Four served refreshments. A long table overlaid with a white cloth, of eylet embroidered linen was centered with an unusual design of yellow chrysanthemums in a blue and gold container with figurines of matching pheasants standing on

Butler's Dairy Assisted By Conservationists

By Sam Polston

U.S. Soil Conservation Service Last week the Highlands Soil Conservation District assisted Butler's Dairy in the layout of ditches for 320 acres of improved pasture established this summer.

This Dairy is being developed on 2600 acres along nine mile grade and Kissimmee River. Mr. Bob Butler purchased this acreage in 1951. He hopes to get his barn and houses built in time to get into production in early 1961.

The Soil Conservation Service engineers assisted Mr. Butler earlier this summer in the design and layout of about two miles of drainage ditch totaling 50,000 cubic yards. This ditch serves as an outlet into Kissimmee River for the entire 2600 acres. Bob says "I could not have even planned my pasture this summer without the drainage from this ditch."

Mr. Eddie Montadoca was assisted this week in preliminary plans for water control on about 440 acres of improved pasture at Highlands. Eddie plans to construct this water control system during the coming spring dry season.

Marvin Kahn started irrigating 400 acres of clover pasture this week. He put down some perforated pipe to check the water level between ditches. The ditches are spaced 200 feet apart. In the seepage irrigation the water table is built up to within about one foot of the surface. The water is then directed to another field. Marvin plans to graze his clover about the first of December. He says this is the second time that he has had clover this early.

At one end of the table a large cake, decorated in blue and gold icing with the lettering "20th Anniversary," was cut and served by Mrs. Marvin A. Thompson. Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell presided at the silver service which was placed at the opposite end of the table. Crystal compotes held mints. Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums were used in blue containers on side tables around the room.

Others assisting with the evening's activities were Mrs. Harold Note, Mrs. Wiley Cochran, Mrs. David McDaniel, Mrs. R. E. Lee, Mrs. John Giddens, Mrs. W. A. Kinzel and Mrs. William Dixon.

Florida will soon close the book on another year. Many people have died so far in traffic accidents. Make plans to be with us next year.
