Improvement In Economy Seen By Sales Jump

TAI LHASSEE - State controller Ray E. Green reported today that the improvement in the economy of the state, which began in January, continued through June, with July sales collections totaling $1,057,081.

The controller said that while the increase was only 33 percent over the collections for June, it topped the estimate for July by $29,710.

Green pointed out that the collections also were $1,053,228 over July of last year, when collections fell two per cent under 1960.

"This is a much happier situation than last year," Green said. "To start the year with such a bright spot in the economic picture, gives us further hope that business is definitely on the upswing in the state."

Recent reports indicate improvement, but the situation no doubt has changed somewhat because of the blow the tourist industry has suffered and is suffering due to the strike against Eastern Airlines. The announcement that two of Miami Beach's hotels were forced to close for the remainder of the summer season due to the strike is regrettable. I know that everyone hopes that Senator George Smathers and other interested parties will be able to resolve the problem without undue delay.

The controller said P. W. Lodge Corp. reported that May contracts for future construction in Florida totaled $180,000,000, an increase of 36 per cent over last year. Residential construction was reported up 11 per cent, non-residential 46 per cent, and heavy engineering 254 per cent.

"Private construction in Florida for the first four months of this year was reported by the University of Florida Bureau of Economic and Business Research to have totaled $392.5 million, an increase of 63 per cent over the same period last year. Public construction for the four-month period also was reported up 10.7 per cent over last year."

Personal income in Florida was reported at $967.9 million in April, an increase of 9.2 per cent over the same month last year, and also an increase over March of this year.

"These are healthy signs, but we must continue to operate with the same conservative attitude, affecting the same economies that we did during the fiscal year 1961-62, when the cost of general government was cut 4.3 per cent or $97,998 under 1960-61, and governmental operating expenses were reduced $13 million under 1960-61."

The controller also reported that July gasoline tax collections totaled $166,262, up 6.42 per cent over the same month last year. Collections also topped those of June by $5,000.

PAINTABLE

Here are some suggestions from the Southern Pine Association on how to assure maximum retention of paint on exterior walls.

Planning should begin in the first stages of construction. All masonry should be "pre-shrunk" by proper seasoning as well as the surface siding. This assures a snug, tight assembly and surface smoothness. All are essential to sound paint performance.

The dry condition of "pre-shrunk" lumber is a further advantage. A deep overhang helps protect paint from rain and sun.

Two remedies that always do the job expected of them are castor oil and alcohol.

Don't forget to renew your driver's license during the month of your birthday.

SOIL NEWS

The Itzopoka Marsh Watershed group headed by Mrs. Edna F. Lockett met with Eary and other Soil Conservation Service officials on August 2 and reviewed the tentative watershed work plan. The next step according to Eary for the various agencies to review the plan before it goes before Congress for approval, which is expected to be in February. This plan ties all the land owners to the West of Harmony Pond canal into ditches that lead into this canal. Harmony Pond was recently completed by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District between lakes Itzopoka and Okechobee. All these improvements are designed to protect from flooding the rich muck land south of Lake Itzopoka.

This same group of land owners held a meeting earlier in the week at the clubhouse with Bob Taylor and Zed Grant of the Flood Control District. At this meeting the control level of Lake Itzopoka was discussed. Taylor pointed out that the District would attempt to regulate the level between a high elevation of 40 feet at the beginning of dry season and a low of 37.5 feet at the beginning of rainy season.

It was pointed out that the mean level of the lake over the past 20 years had been 38.6 feet, which was now considered to be the most desirable for the majority of property owners.

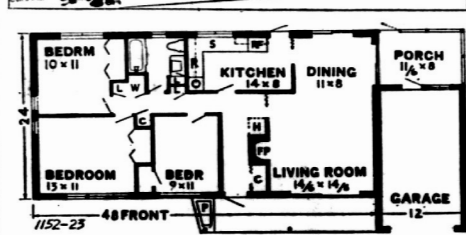

The problem of irrigation water was discussed in detail. It is now recognized that there will be a shortage of water for the vast areas presently being developed. It was brought out by the group that a dike around the south and east shore could be built in to create more storage capacity in the lake for irrigation purposes. Taylor agreed that such a plan was feasible and could possibly be justified in the Flood Control program at a future date.

C. L. Reynolds who is a landowner in the area as well as vice-chairman of the Highlands Soil Conservation District told the group "It is hard to believe that we are finally getting what most of us have dreamed about for the past 25 years."

L. Reynolds commented "I certainly will be a revelation to go to bed at night and feel that I won't have to get up tomorrow and see the lake four feet deep over my fields."

An office girl said her boss was mean but fair, implying that he was mean to everybody.

Ideal For Florida Living Foyer Design Gives Home More Privacy

PLANS FOR THIS HOME are available from Jan Reiser, Box 11567, St. Petersburg 33, Fla. Each set of plans consists of 1/4-inch-scale floor plan, four exterior elevations, large-scale cross-section, kitchen and bathroom interiors and structural and framing details; basic specifications are written right on the plans. "FLORIDA HOMES" magazine by Jan Reiser is available on local newsstands.

One of the popular features of this 1152-square foot three-bedroom masonry house is the entrance foyer completely separated from the living room by a wall containing the fireplace (FP), a four-foot closet (C) and the heater (H) effects this separation, making it possible to go from the front door to the kitchen or bedroom without crossing the living-dining area. Furthermore, folding doors can give complete privacy to the living-dining area when desired.

The living-dining space (22 1/2 feet deep) has sliding glass doors at both ends as well as between.

The living-dining space (22 1/2 feet deep) has sliding glass doors at both ends as well as between.

The 14' x 8' kitchen has an L-shaped work counter with sink, range and built-in oven (O) and counter top range (R) at the other end. Wall cabinets are shown dotted on plan. In the opposite corner is room for table and chairs for meals or informal breakfasting. A door leads directly to the service yard. Kitchen plumbing is back-to-back with bathroom fixtures.

The centrally located heater (H) uses the chimney stack of the fireplace. Dust work to the bedrooms is located above the ceiling of the bedroom hall which is lowered.

The five-foot-deep front porch with built-in planter (P) could be made larger and screened or enclosed, if so desired.

The construction of Home 1152-23 is as follows: the four inch thick and reinforced floor slab is poured over solidly compacted fill and vapor membrane. All exterior walls are of eight-inch-thick concrete blocks with furring strips for insulation (boards) with plaster on the inside and stucco on the outside. All interior partitions are of regular wood frame and plastered on both sides. The ceiling, also plastered, could follow the lines of the roof and heavy insulation is called for between the rafters.

Banker "9" Takes Babe Ruth League Season Championship

The Avon Park Bankers of the Highlands County Babe Ruth League took a 12-0 decision from the Sebring VFW team to cup the league title for the season.

An agreement between the two coaches, Tom Jenkins of the Bankers and Curtis Nix of the VFW, set this final game of the season as a play-off for the championship and the Bankers came through to take the honors.

The Bankers' nine is sponsored by the Avon Citrus Bank and finished last in the league last summer. Coach Tom Jenkins brought the team up this season and the boys finished with a record of four wins and one loss.

The championship game took place last Thursday night in Sebring and the Bankers jumped off to a three-run lead in the first half of the first frame as Eddie Delaney and Bobby Coleman singled and Carl Holden doubled sending Spencer Oberle home to give the Bankers a 3-0 lead.

Sebring pushed two runs over in their half of the first and tied the game up in the second with another run as Avon hurler, Oberle, gave up five walks in the first two innings.

In the top of the third Coleman singled again and scored and Danny Butler and Carl Holden added two more runs on VFW miscues. A run by Sebring's Wheeler set the score at 4-1 at the end of the third. Sebring added their fifth run in the bottom of the fourth and there was no scoring in the fifth inning.

The Bankers exploded in the top of the sixth for four runs taking advantage of six walks.

By losing hurler, Jim Kelley, and a passed ball and an error. The sixth frame was also Sebring's big inning as the VFW team went ahead by scoring three runs. Oberle was relieved by Ronnie Jackson during the inning and Chuck Warrington took over from Jackson before the inning was over. Warrington went on to put out the fire and take credit for the win for the Bankers. The VFW team scored their seven runs on only one hit as six batters were walked by the Bankers pitchers.

Trailing 12-0, the Bankers came up in the top of the seventh and Warrington led off and drew a walk. John Rodgers also walked and Eddie Delaney went down with a strike out. Bobby Coleman slammed out a double to send Warrington and Rodgers over the top of the game and Spencer Oberle's squeeze bunt scored Coleman with the winning run.

Warrington held the VFW scoreless in the bottom of the seventh to chalk up the win for the Bankers.

Ticker Talk

With earnings this year expected to rise to around $2.50 a common share level, up from $2.30 in 1961, aided by the first full-year benefits of a modest increase in the electric rates, anticipations are that the Niagara Mohawk Power Corporation directors may seek to increase the company's long-standing 3 1/2 percent annual dividend rate over the not-too-distant future. In 1961, approximately 35 percent of the company's dividend payment was "tax-free" (return of capital and not current income), and a portion of the 1962 disbursements will continue non-taxable as income, it is believed.

Five years ago only 450,000 homes in the U.S. had central air conditioning. At the end of 1961 nearly 1.4 million—or more than three times that many—were cooled. Assuming a continuation of this rate of growth, the air conditioning industry will be installing homes more than 350,000 central systems annually by 1966.

total bookings have been greater than shipments. Management looks forward to a steady improvement in earnings through the balance of the year, with final results better than the depressed $1.75 a share of 1961, when profit equaled $2 a share. The glass container industry has been growing by nearly 5 percent annually. In 1961 shipments exceeded 165 million gross for the first time, up 5.5 percent over the previous year. Sales of non-returnable beer bottles equaled 40 percent. Of equal future importance is the remarkable growth in non-pressurized soft drink bottles. Their sales rose 65 percent over the previous year.

Crop Insurance Deadline Near

Due to the approaching hurricane season, August 31 has been set as the last day citrus growers in Highlands County can sign applications for Federal Crop Insurance, W. R. Huey, Florida FCIC District Director, announced today.

Like all insurance, FCIC cannot accept applications for protection when heavy risk conditions exist in the area. Weather records show that the hurricane danger is the heaviest in September, and means that FCIC must close the protection sign-up period in August.

"However," warned Director Huey, "early hurricane warnings may require the Corporation to stop application sign-up prior to August 31 without advance notice to the growers. Thus, citrus growers interested in Federal Crop Insurance should apply for protection at once."

The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture, guarantees a grower the return of his cash and labor cost of growing citrus should hurricane, tornado, freeze, or hail destroy all or part of his crop.

Highlands County growers interested in additional information should contact the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, P. O. Box 1094, Ft. Pierce, Florida, or the Florida Citrus Mutual Building in Lakeland.

Nonemployment Down In State

TALLAHASSEE — Florida nonfarm employment showed only a slight drop in June from May despite the start of the summer and the seasonal decline in citrus and tourist activity.

At the same time, the number of nonfarm employed in the State in June continued at high level over a year ago.

Nonfarm employment this June, at 1,372,000, was 29,200 higher than in June 1961, Brown said.

Brown said the slight decline in June was expected for this time of year.

Total unemployment at 106,500 in June showed an over-the-month rise of 13,400, but it was one fourth, or 21,700, lower than June a year ago, Brown reported.

The increase in the number of the unemployed was caused by students and graduates entering the labor market, and the seasonal decline in citrus and tourist activity.

Construction was the only industrial category that showed an increase in June over May.

But all industrial categories except mining were well above a year ago, Brown said.

Construction at 114,100 in June, was 3,000 above May and 7,100 above June 1961.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, and two aunts, Mrs. W. J. Board and Mrs. K. J. McStravie, all of Ft. Myers.

When the happy couple left for a short wedding trip, Mrs. Casey was accompanied by her brother, Mr. Casey.

Applications Taken For Bear Hunting Trips

TALLAHASSEE — Applications are now being received from Florida hunters who wish to participate in the managed bear hunts in the Ocala and Apalachicola National Forests, according to A. J. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

Florida black bear are rated as the largest in the nation, and because of their early retreat to impassable swamps, they are extremely difficult to hunt, even with excellent dogs. The Ocala National Forest, in Columbia and Baker counties in November, Florida, and the Apalachicola National Forest, in Liberty County in Northwest Florida, provides some of the best bear hunting in the South.

Applications for the Apalachicola Bear Hunts should be filed with the Regional Manager, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, P. O. Box 578, Panama City, Florida, prior to 11:00 a.m. August 30.

Hunters who wish to participate in the Ocala Bear Hunts should file applications with the Regional Manager, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, P. O. Box 578, Panama City, Florida, prior to 11:00 a.m. August 31. All applications must be accompanied by a check to cover personal expenses for the hunt. Regulations for the special bear hunts provide a total of 14 managed three-day hunts in the Apalachicola National Forest from September 24 through November 10. The 3 managed hunts in the Ocala National Forest will be held October 1 through October 27.

Each three-day hunt will be limited to not more than 17 people, except upon approval of the hunt supervisor. Each group must obtain a $30.00 party hunt permit, and each person in the party must also possess a regular hunting license.

Hunters will be allowed to take bear, fox, skunk, opossum, bobcat, raccoon and rabbit. Shooting will be one-half hour before sunrise to one-half hour after sunset, with no Sunday hunting allowed.

Additional information concerning the special hunt regulations and procedures governing the drawing may be obtained by contacting either regional office.

Final approval for a new bus pickup which is near the library, administration suite and audio visual room for Hopewell Elementary School here, was given by the Highlands County School Board, meeting in regular session Tuesday night.

The board also approved two additional classrooms for Fred Wild Elementary School, Sebring.

King, Farless At Odds Over Fire Dept.

Councilman H. M. (Chief) Farless, a husband member of the board and commissioner of the Fire Department, went to bat for the firemen and defended the use of the truck. The truck in question is a pickup, owned and used by the local Civil Defense Unit which is directly associated with the operations of the fire department.

Finally, after a heated exchange of words, George Borden, another incumbent councilman seeking reelection, assumed the role of peacemaker and suggested that Farless be given a chance to check into the situation and take steps necessary to correct it.

The call was only momentary, however, as Farless took the offensive and questioned King about the alleged hauling of "90 loads of fill dirt to his property by city trucks." King replied that in a recent street paving program he had offered the Board Department a place to dump dirt taken from the streets. Board president Martin Kirkland soon put a stop to the argument however, and council moved on to other matters.

Ernest Bredt, a Sebring attorney, appeared before the council and asked for a franchise on behalf of New England Industries. He has plans for installing a TV antenna system in this area, which would be free-ranger of pay television. Bredt told the council that the city has a franchise on this area, which would be free-ranger of pay television. Bredt told the council that the city has a franchise on this area, which would be free-ranger of pay television.

Several questions by those in the audience regarding the up coming budget and the present financial condition of the city prompted Bredt to motion for publishing a recent auditor's report. The motion was taken after O. K. McClure had appealed to the board to consider cutting the salaries for next year. He based his thinking on the increased valuations and what he termed as "no increase of services" by the city during the past year.

(See budget on page three) McClure was taken to task by Kirkland, also seeking reelection, who gave a short resume of some of the services undertaken by the city during the past year and noted principally to Kirkland's project. According to Kirkland, the recent paving was three times that of any previous year.

E. O. Blanford, council candidate in the upcoming election, questioned the board regarding election laws. He made specific reference to the ordinance involving a candidate or his workers. He was told by Kirkland that the ordinance was a former member of the board, he would know those laws. City Attorney H. M. Vinnall cleared up the situation by reading the ordinance regarding election laws, which took effect during the past year and noted principally to Kirkland's project. According to Kirkland, the recent paving was three times that of any previous year.
