Little Loop Ends Regular Season

Baptists Win Title For 2nd Straight Year

Tuesday night's Little League games will close out action for the 1962 season until after the District 4 Tournament to be held at International Little League Field in Bartow starting July 20. Avon Park's All-Star nine will start practice for the tourney July 5 under the management of J. T. Landress. Avon Park's entry in the meet will be coached by Virgil Sizemore.

The Florida Power Employees Little League baseball team won their third straight game last Thursday night by squeezing by the Lions 4-3 in the opening game of the evening and the 1962 champions, First Baptists, shut out the Rotary nine by a score of 6-0 in the nightcap.

Allan Moore pitched the FPE boys to the win and slammed out a double and a single to lead the winners at the plate also. Johnny Alwood rapped out two singles and Danny Woodham and Carroll Pollard added a single each for the six hit total for FPE. Billy Richards scored the winning run in the top of the seventh for FPE after walking. He scored on an error on the shortstop. The Lions scored their three runs on three hits—two singles by Walter Sims and a double by Gary Neal. Larry LaFlam was the losing pitcher for the Lions.

Rance Rewis and Billy Jackson teamed up to pitch another no-hitter for the First Baptists as both boys hurled three innings. Rewis fanned five and Jackson set down eight of the nine batters he faced with strike outs.

The Sizemore brothers, Glen and Robert, gave up only two hits to the winning First Baptists and struck out a total of 10 batters, but 10 walks and nine passed balls aided the Baptists in scoring six runs. Dean Lemler and Gary Griffin both singled for the winners.

Bankers Top Sebring JCs In Babe Ruth

In a seven inning contest played on a rain-soaked field, the ACB Babe Ruther's defeated the Sebring JC's, with the aid of some timely hitting, 15-8.

John Rodgers had the big blow for the Bankers, a leadoff triple in the first inning. He was promptly driven in by a single off the bat of teammate Eddie DeLaney.

The Bankers spotted the Sebring boys two runs in the first inning, but came back in their half to score five runs.

Spencer Oberle started for the ACB and was relieved in the third inning by Ronnie Jackson. Jackson was the winning pitcher.

The JC's previously defeated the Bankers 10-6.

Bob Purvis started for the JC's, but was plagued by wildness. He gave up six hits during his stint on the mound. He was relieved in the fifth inning by Dave Ring. Purvis took the loss.

Purvis was the JC's big gun at the plate, rapping out his team's only extra base hit, a double.

Legion Team Loses; Weather Upsets Schedule

A 5-1 loss to Sebring Monday night, and an 8-4 beating by the Charlotte-McQueen nine last Thursday set Avon Park's Post 69 Legion team's record at two wins and three losses. Rained out games last week have forced the local Legion nine into a full schedule this week with games every night this week.

Wednesday night Avon Park travels to Ft. Myers, and then the Post 69 team starts a home stand of four games. Thursday night Ft. Myers will be here at Head Field, Friday night Arcadia comes over, Saturday Sebring will be here for a return game, and next Monday night Wauchula will be at Head Field. All games start at 8 p. m.

Leonard Sullivan let a no-hitter get away from him Monday night at Sebring when a disastrous sixth inning saw the Sebring boys score five runs on a double, two singles, and a base clearing triple by catcher Irving Fordham. Until the sixth, Sullivan had blanked the Sebring boys and Avon Park was leading 1-0.

Avon Park got only four hits off winning hurler, Barry Turner. Sullivan punched out two singles, David Ward got a single and John Rhoades, who relieved Sullivan on the mound in the sixth, rapped out a single in the fourth.

Last Thursday Avon Park took a two run lead in the third against the Charlotte-McQueen nine only to have the home town boys come back to tie it up in the fourth and go ahead in the fifth when they scored two more runs to make it 4-2. Avon Park allowed four more runs to the winners in the sixth when they slammed out a home run, a double, and a single. The Avon Park team pushed across two runs in the top of the seventh, but couldn't catch up and took an 8-4 loss. Terry Oberle was the losing pitcher. He gave up eight hits including the homer, a triple, and two doubles.

Avon Park's six hits were collected by Bobby Bates who had two singles and DeWayne Lemler, George Kuhn, John Rhoades, and David Ward who all hit one single each.

Former Judge To Assume New Role Thursday

Widely known Highlands County Attorney Harry Lee will be in court in a different capacity this week. Beginning Thursday afternoon Circuit Court will hear the case of Lee vs. Jim Blanton.

Avon Park Attorney Keith Collyer will represent Lee in the action. The Sebring lawyer is asking $3500 for legal services to Blanton.

Blanton, who is a resident of Orlando, is not the man whose name appeared on the Florida ballot a few weeks ago as a candidate for state Railroad and Public Utilities Commission.

Lee is former Highlands County Judge.

Municipal "9" In Frostproof

The Avon Park Municipal baseball team will travel to Frostproof for their fourth encounter with the Packers Thursday night at 8 o'clock according to Tom Jenkins.

Equipment To Be Installed Here For Use of Ed. TV

Plans are underway to install special equipment at Avon Park High School to assure good reception of Channel 3, Tampa's Educational TV station. The Highlands County Board of Public Instruction okayed plans to include educational TV classes in the program at the local high school after a survey team stated that it was possible to set up equipment to make reception of that channel possible.

A. B. Wilhite stated that the special reception equipment will be purchased by the school, but two additional TV sets will be needed to provide proper distribution of viewing in the program. The school has one TV set at present. Wilhite has hopes that some organization might be interested in donating two more sets to the school for this important part of the education program.

Plans at present are to integrate with Channel 3's program when possible by adapting different classes to the TV set up. Not all classes will use the program, but the possibilities of enriching the classroom course in many areas is anticipated.

"Learn To Swim" Program Begins Tuesday; 150 Youngsters Attend

The eight day assembly line beginning swimming program was started Tuesday morning at Lake Tulane with approximately 150 youngsters from age five on up participating in the classes, under the supervision of John Crittenden and 15 mothers and other interested helpers. The beginning swimming program is a part of Avon Park's school summer program, and this year marks the eighth year such a program has been in operation.

Other swimming instruction also began Tuesday with students taking part in intermediate and swimmer classes, and older boys and girls enrolled in junior and senior life saving classes.

John Crittenden stated that the program is rolling along fine with good participation from the youth of Avon Park. Monday 38 boys and girls from grades seven through 12 took a trip to Vero Beach along with five adult supervisors. The group swam and lunched at the beach.

Crittenden also commented that the bowling program on Thursdays was well received last week and that a group of 50 or 60 are anticipated to make the trip to the lanes this Thursday for bowling and instruction.

Guy Garrett's golf instruction classes from 8 to 10 on Wednesday, Thursday, and Fridays have 11 students and will welcome more. Joe Franza has ten boys working out each morning from 8 to 10 in a weight lifting program at the gym. Other boys interested in such a program may contact Franza to enroll.

Keith Albritton Hurls No Hitter In Babe Ruth

Keith Albritton tossed a no-hitter against Frostproof in a Babe Ruth encounter last Saturday as the APCI nine took an 8-1 win over Frostproof.

The Avon Park team scored all eight runs on only one hit—a single by Jimmy Powell while the Frostproof team scored one run without getting any hits.

Albritton struck out seven batters while posting his no-hitter. Frostproof's only run came in the bottom of the seventh when Ogburn walked and came home on a passed ball after taking second and third on a passed ball also.

The APCI tem scored one run in the third, another in the fourth and pushed six big runs over in the sixth on six walks and Powell's single.

Gearing Says Valuations Hit New High

[illegible] lands County [illegible] receive $98,000 [illegible] increase.

This would leave the county commissioners with about $88,000 more than the income for the current year. At the Tuesday morning session of the commission no one would predict whether the commissioners could "hold the line on millage" for another year.

The tax rate in Avon Park is 38.5 mills. There are variations across the county. One subdivision, for example, recently voted itself a boost of about eight mills to pay for needed street improvements in that area.

On Monday afternoon the county commissioners sat as an equalization board to receive complaints from taxpayers. Citizens seldom lay official complaints about assessments; and this year's meeting, like most across the years, was without business.

By the commission meeting time on Tuesday budget requests had been received from the Juvenile Court Merit Board, the Sheriff's Department, and the County Health Department. The commissioners released no figures from any of these requests.

Whether the commission can "hold the line on millage" may hinge on the outcome of discussions held Tuesday afternoon. Architects held an informal "discussion" meeting with the commissioners on the court house renovation project.

For well over a year the commissioners have had under consideration court house building problems. Architects have indicated, in official reports, that electrical wiring and the roof must have major replacements very soon.

Complete remodeling and construction of an annex have been mentioned. Estimates, presented last year, were over $600,000. On Tuesday, however, both commissioners and architects refused to be specific about extent of the work to be done and possible costs.

Dr. William F. Hill, Jr., county health doctor, appeared at the commission meeting Tuesday to renew his plea for construction of a public health center.

For several years the health department has been accumulating a building fund, and at the close of the current year that fund will total about $52,000. Dr. Hill told the commissioners that the fund is on deposit with the State Health Department and is on call.

County Attorney R. P. Dunty, Jr., at the Tuesday meeting presented a report on anticipated cost of lighting for the inter-section of Routes 98 and 27.

The Sheriff and Florida Highway Patrolmen have told the commissioners that this intersection, just south of Sebring, is potentially very dangerous. One fatality has been recorded there this year.

[illegible] BIGGER THAN YOU THINK

[illegible] Avon Park area cast a [illegible] Correctional Institute [illegible] Bombing Range and shrug [illegible] a state prison." [illegible] a more informed view of the [illegible] sometimes often glances at [illegible] well being depends on the institution.

The Sun has long been aware that the operation of APCI had a great impact on the economical situation of Avon Park and the merchants in the area. This fact was emphasized even more last week when The Sun was invited to share a Fifth Anniversary Dinner at the Institution.

This institution employs 106 persons—as many as a good size factory—both male and female. These 106 persons receive upwards of $488,000 annually, which according to a recent survey ranks as the second largest payroll in the area.

The majority of this $488,000 is pumped back into the economy of Highlands County and principally Avon Park.

When one stops to think, $488,000 will buy a lot of groceries, automobiles, clothing, boats, motors and pay for much medical, and professional service.

Not only does APCI pour dollars into the economy, its employees take a keen interest in civic, religious and educational problems of the area, all of which serves to make the area advance.

Yes sir, APCI is bigger than you think!

Orange Production Up 239% In 20 Years; 30% More Expected

Production of oranges in Florida has increased 239 per cent in the past 20 years and a further production increase of approximately 30 per cent is expected over the next three seasons, according to a study of the Florida orange industry recently released.

In the 1960-61 season the Florida orange supply reached an estimated 86.7 million boxes as compared with 25.6 million boxes in the 1939-40 season. By 1963-64 the supply is expected to reach 112 million boxes. Much of this increase will be in Valencia oranges which are particularly suited to frozen juice concentrating.

The growth in consumer demand for frozen orange concentrate has readily absorbed this increased supply of Florida oranges and the study predicts that continued growth of demand for this product will take up most of the substantial increase in total orange production expected in the next three years.

Can requirements for Florida orange concentrate should reach a total of 2.1 billion units (6 ounce equivalent) by 1963-64. This compares with shipments of less than 1.6 billion units during the 1960-61 season. Between 75 per cent and 80 per cent of actual can units in 1963-64 will be the six-ounce size.

The Florida citrus industry is roughly 150 years old. By 1932-33 Florida topped all other states with 265,400 acres accounting for 46 per cent of the total U. S. acreage of bearing citrus groves. By 1959-60 this figure had risen to 542,400 acres or 66 per cent of the total U. S. acreage of bearing groves. By far the bulk of the acreage is devoted to oranges.

At the close of the 1959-60 season, the study estimates that there were almost 34 million orange trees in commercial groves in the state of Florida. Over 50 per cent of the trees, both bearing and non-bearing, are within three centrally located counties—Polk, Lake and Orange.

Polk County leads in total orange tree population with about 20 per cent of the state's trees. Lake County is second with almost 17 per cent while Orange ranks third with 15 per cent. Another 25 per cent of the trees are situated in the nearby counties of Hillsborough, Pasco, Highlands, Hardee, and St. Lucie.

For the last 15 years Florida has been the leading orange producing state in the United States. In 1959-60, Florida's production represented 72 per cent of the total U. S. orange crop.

Florida's swine industry should benefit from plans of the state's Swine Producers' Association to promote the production and marketing of more feeder pigs in our state.

At the same time, more farmers in [illegible] corn and peanut growing [illegible] should find it profitable to increase pig production [illegible] they are assured [illegible] market outlets.

The association's recently formed Feeder Pig Committee is working on a double-barreled project: First, to stimulate interest among farmers to raise more pigs to be sold at feeder weights 40 to 100 pounds. Second, to provide an outlet at established market centers where buyers can be assured of finding a reliable volume of the pigs they need.

On the basis of a national average per capita pork consumption around 60 pounds annually, it is estimated Florida is producing only 20 to 25 per cent of the pork consumed in the state. The balance is shipped in from other states.

We have some large commercial hog feeders in Florida. Unable to get all the feeder pigs they need at home, they purchase a large number at markets in other states where a steady supply is available. Feeder pig imports into Florida from other Southeastern states have been running in the neighborhood of 15,000 a year.

That's a volume that should stimulate considerable interest among our swine raisers, especially 4-H and FFA members who could take on additional swine growing projects. We still have surplus corn in some counties where hog production is important. More of it could be profitably fed in operations planned to produce pigs that can be sold at feeder weights.

Packer buyers are inclined to avoid peanut-fed hogs, or to buy them at a discount. The reason given is that "soft" pork isn't wanted by consumers. Pigs fed on peanuts to light feeder weights, however, can be used by commercial feeders. Their flesh is "hardened" considerably by the time they reach finished market weights of 200 to 240 pounds in the commercial feeders' operations.

As everyone in the hog business knows, the big, fat, heavy "lard hog" went out of style some time ago and emphasis now is on production of "meat type" hogs. A lot of research and experimental work is going on all the time to increase the number of pigs per litter and bring them through to market weights.

Out in California agricultural engineers have been trying out a new method for developing longer loins and better hams on hogs. Their idea is to raise the feed trough so the animals have to stand on tiptoes to eat. That's what I'd call stretching it a bit—but who knows, it may work.

Many readers will recall the time when about the only Nestle product on the American market was chocolate—candy bars, the cooking variety and the kind from which a cup of delicious hot chocolate was made.

This Swiss firm now is one of the biggest operators in the world's food business. Reported by Time magazine to have sales of 1½ billion dollars a year, it is the fifth largest corporation outside the U. S., though only two-thirds as large as our biggest food processor, Chicago's Swift & Co.

Nowadays, according to Time, Nestle markets everything "from soup to nuts," has 75,000 employees and 180 factories in 34 countries. They also must have some mighty competent salesmen—as good, in fact, as the fellow you've heard about who could sell anything anyplace, even refrigerators to Eskimos or fur coats in the Sahara. Nestle, if you please, has been peddling canned milk in dairy-rich Denmark and instant coffee in Brazil.

People like the Nestle outfit are going to be giving our American business firms some pretty hot competition in Europe and many other markets throughout the world. We've been rather inclined in the past to discount the aggressiveness of the average European businessmen because their idea of a successful big operation was that of cartels—dividing up a market so everyone could have a slice of it.

The Common Market has tossed that idea out the window and, somewhat to the surprise of the European businessmen themselves, resulting wideopen competition, instead of hurting them, has boomed their sales, increased employment and expanded their operations.

It could be that we in America will be pleasantly surprised when freer world trade becomes a fact and, instead of being hurt, we shall benefit from opportunities to do business in greatly expanded world markets.

Carbon dixoide, the gas in sparkling beverages, speeds the passage of alcohol from the stomach to the intestine, and thereby speeds absorption into the bloodstream. According to the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, this explains why Champagne and other effervescent wines produce intoxicating effects quicker than some other alcoholic beverages.

Anne Johnson, Valorie Hopson Win Honors At Fla. Girls' State

Anne Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson, and Valorie Hopson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hopson, are back at home from representing Avon Park at the annual Girls' State, held in Tallahassee last week.

High School Juniors from throughout the state attended the American Legion Auxiliary-sponsored practice session of the state government held at Florida State University.

Each girl represented their home town well by being elected to important posts in the mock government. Anne won a seat in the Senate and Valorie became a member of the House of Representatives. Anne was also Tax Collector from St. Johns County and was the nominee for treasurer of her party, the Federalist.

Both girls were also city officials in their mythical cities during the week-long session of governmental practice at FSU.

The girls report a wonderful time and are expressing thanks to their sponsors, The American Legion Auxiliary of Highlands Post No. 69, and the Business Woman's Club that assists the Auxiliary in the project.

Washington Report

By Congressman Jim Haley

Washington, D. C.—One of the big arguments for proponents of big foreign aid spending is that the program is essential to the domestic economy. We are told over and over that if the foreign aid program was abolished, the outcry by domestic business would be overwhelming, for business would be ruined by withdrawal of the funds spent in this country for foreign aid purposes.

Now in an apparent (but somewhat naive) attempt to "lobby" me in behalf of the foreign aid bill, now scheduled to come before us next week, the Agency for International Development has let me know how many dollars have been "poured" into Florida, and the seventh congressional district, in the last full eight years of this program.

They tell me that firms in 22 Florida communities have received $4,198,810 for providing goods and services for foreign aid in those eight years, or an average of $524,850. Now granting that half a million dollars is not peanuts (except to federal budget makers), it nevertheless is obvious that this foreign aid "rebate" is not doing much to help Florida's booming economy, nor to offset the millions of dollars of Florida taxes which go into foreign aid.

For the seventh district, I am told, the eight-year outlay totalled $837,841, or an average of $104,730. The eight-year total was shared in to the tune of $63,811 by firms in Auburndale, $168,580 in Davenport, $42,585 in Lakeland, $471,077 in Lake Wales, and in Winter Haven $91,788.

Now the loss of this business might cause the loud outcry predicted by the foreign aid lobby if the program were abolished. But, I would bet better than even money that the outcry could not be heard among the cheers which would come from businesses and people relieved of the huge foreign aid tax load.

On another matter, I want to go on record with a strong objection to the Supreme Court's ruling against prayers in public schools. This is a bewildering thing to come from the highest Court of a nation whose motto, "In God We Trust," is printed on every dollar paid the Justices; a nation whose Declaration of Independence states belief in a "Divine Providence" and a "Supreme Creator," and a country whose people in pledging allegiance to the flag say, "one nation, indivisible, under God."

I shall certainly support a proposed constitutional amendment to protect for children all over the nation their freedom to express a belief in God, to thank Him, and to turn to Him in time of need. I may add that I think the time may come when we need a constitutional amendment empowering The Congress to override the Supreme Court, as it now can reverse the President.

While in Tampa, they also visited the newest member of the Martin family, the great grandson of the B. F. Martins, Randy Reddick, son of Dick and Sandra Reddick.

Nute Family Vacations In N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nute and son, Dale, drove to Lexington, Ky. where they picked up their daughter, Sally, who is attending the University of Kentucky Nursing School. The family spent a week enjoying some camp life in the mountains of North Carolina and also visited Mrs. Nute's sister and family, the Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Aughenbaugh, at Waynesville.

Enroute home, Dale stopped off in Tallahassee where he is to intern for the summer months in the laboratory of the Sheriff's Department of the state. Dale will graduate from Florida State University in December, where he is majoring in chemical criminology.

MANDIS FAMILY TOGETHER

Mrs. John Caraberis and children, Peggy, John, Priscilla, and Elizabeth, of Trumbull, Conn., are enjoying a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Demos Mandis, and other relatives. The children look forward to their annual summer vacation at the home of their grandparents on Lake Letta.

King Speed

He was just nineteen,
long life ahead,
As gaily along the road
he sped,
Some seventy mph,
they said.
Alas, upon a right-hand curve
Across the road he had to swerve,
To stop at last with squattering shock
Against a wall of solid rock.
They lifted him tenderly,
gory red,
And carried him homeward.
He was dead.

Dead at nineteen.
Alas and alack!
But death is such a solid fact
Nor tears nor prayers could call him back.
Had his mph been forty-five,
Doubtless today he would be alive,
Alive to sing, to shout, to play,
Alive to drive another day,
Alive to work, to woo,
to wed.
They laid him in his grave instead.

We have made Speed king of the broad highway,
And now we are under his vicious sway.
If we keep him there,
we shall have to pay
In the coin of sickening
sighs and groans.
We'll pay in the coin
of broken bones,
We'll pay in the coin
of blood and tears,
We'll pay the price
while the Devil jeers.
It's high speed that makes the heart to sing.
Oh yes, and funeral bells to ring and ring.

H. J. Fenton

Free Inspection Offered During Safe Boating Week, July 1 - July 7

The week of July 1 thru July 7, 1962 has been designated as Safe Boating Week by the President. Among the sponsors of this activity is the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, whose representative in this area is Commander J. Paxon Hill of Avon Park.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary is vitally interested in teaching the general public how to operate boats in a safe manner; what safety equipment is essential to comply with the minimum legal requirements and what safety equipment is necessary to win the coveted Coast Guard Auxiliary decal. All during Safe Boating Week, and at any other time, Commander Hill will be glad to inspect all craft, at no charge, which are brought to his establishment, Mercury Marine, at State and Highlands in Avon Park.

All boats passing the inspection will be awarded the decal. This shows the Coast Guard boarding parties that the boat has been inspected and is a safe craft. The boarding party will wave this boat on, but will stop and board all boats not having the decal.

All boats found deficient in safety equipment will be given a citation, or ticket, and if convicted of the violation shall be penalized by imposing a fine of not less than $25.00 or more than $500.00, or imprisonment of not more than six months or both. These penalties are to be imposed under Florida's Motorboat and Water Safety Law, the enforcement of which is the responsibility of the Sheriff's Department.

In order to avoid receiving a citation and to enjoy safe boating, one must be familiar with the characteristics and limitations of the boat being operated, avoid high speed sharp turns and areas where people are in the water. Learn and obey the nautical Rules of the Road as they apply to small and large boats.

Like highway signals, you must understand them and know when to apply them. Get the weather forecast before you cast off, learn the weather signs in local waters, clouds and wind movement foretell changes in the weather. Equip your boat with a Coast Guard approved life-saving device for every person aboard, put Coast Guard approved life-vests on all children in the boat.

Have an anchor or sufficient holding power with the anchor line seven times as long as the water you usually cruise. If you have a cabin boat or a boat decked over for more than 25 per cent of its length, a Coast Guard approved fire extinguisher is required, which must be either dry chemical, carbon dioxide or foam of the capacity specified for that boat.

If you operate at night, navigation lights are required. Minimum lights consist of a combination light, visible one mile, mounted near the bow, showing red to port and green to starboard and a bright white light, visible two miles in all directions mounted high on the boat. Always carry more than enough fuel for your trip and have a good compass aboard, the purpose of which is not for formal navigation, but to maintain the operator's sense of direction and find land when visibility is poor. There is Cruise Courtesy and Marine Etiquette, on which subjects a big volume could be written. Several of the most thoughtful negatives are:

Do not anchor too close to an adjoining boat; when in a slip, do not hold an all night party, keep noise to a minimum; never throw garbage overboard in a harbor; never throw cans overboard unless they are punctured at both ends; do not play a searchlight upon another boat except in an emergency; watch your wake and do not speed thru anchorages—Be Considerate!!

The State Of Citrus

LAKELAND — It would be unsurprising if a certain gentleman in Torino, Italy, were to start Italy Citrus Mutual, except that he's obviously bent on coming back to Florida and growing oranges in Hardee County.

Besides, he's already a member of Florida Citrus Mutual and he probably doesn't care to switch his loyalties to another citrus growers organization.

The gentleman is Frank W. Tayntor and FCM Statistician Bill Connor who's the keeper of Mutual's citrus library, among other things, has just received a letter from him that reads in part as follows:

"Dear Citrus Library:

"I would sure like to know if it is male or female (Ed. Note: Whether he wants to know if Statistician Connor, the Citrus Library or Mutual is male or female is not quite clear), will you please send me the following material:

"1. Information to consider in the use of Flatwoods and Marshes for Citrus.

"2. Malnutrition symptoms of Citrus.

"3. Citrus Rootstocks.

"4. Torpedograss and Citrus Groves.

"5. Control of Minor Pests of Commercial Citrus in Florida.

"6. Recommended Fertilizers and Nutritional Sprays for Citrus."

He also asked how to grow oranges from the seed of the fruit and "how the Valencia orange is produced on the lemon root".

"I am a member of Florida Citrus Mutual and in a few more years will be at . . . groves in Hardee County and therefore my interest in Florida Oranges."

In closing the main body of his letter, Mr. Tayntor avers that "I remain one of your best salesmen" and then appends this cryptic footnote: "P.S. Which is it?"

Statistician Connor, who says he took care of Mr. Tayntor's requests for information, apparently was somewhat puzzled by the "male or female" reference and if the P.S. had to do with the gender of what.

At any rate, Connor's comment, "perhaps we can arrange it either way for him", was equally cryptic.

Regardless of the gender of what, this man in Italy will soon have the citrus info he seems to think he needs for when he begins growing oranges and grapefruit in Hardee County.

And, of a certainty, Mutual has scored again as an international organization.

State Inspection Valuable Point To Housewife

State meat inspection, administered by the Florida Department of Agriculture through the Division of Animal Industry, provides vital protection for consumers of meats produced in Florida.

This service assures that Florida-inspected meats are Clean, Wholesome, Disease-Free and Unadulterated. It provides the same protection for Florida meats offered for sale within the state as Federal meat inspection provides for meats that move in interstate commerce.

State veterinary inspectors and their assistants examine, every working day, thousands of animals before and after slaughter, and hundreds of thousands of pounds of processed meats (sausages, wieners, bologna, hams, bacon, etc.) during various stages of preparation.

Nearly three-quarters of a million meat animals annually are subjected to State Meat Inspection. A small percentage have conditions that require only partial condemnation after slaughter. However, more than 2,000 animals annually are condemned as unfit for human consumption due to various diseases. Additional condemnations include more than 1¼ million pounds of meat products because of spoilage or contamination.

Constant reinspection is given to meat foods during processing because, even though meat may have met original inspection requirements, it can deteriorate or become contaminated during processing. Meat inspectors condemn such foods before they reach the market.

Many pounds of additives, such as spices and other products used in preparing meat foods, are rejected each year by State meat inspectors because they showed evidence of previous contamination by insects or rodents, or because they were otherwise unwholesome or unsafe for human consumption.

Before an establishment is accepted for State Meat Inspection service, its construction and equipment must meet rigid requirements. Anyone planning to build or remodel a slaughtering or processing plant in Florida may save considerable time and expense by having plans approved by inspection specialists prior to start of construction. Plans are checked to make sure efficient sanitary and inspection facilities are provided.

Granddaughter of Avon Woman Is Wed In North Carolina Rites

MRS. J. K. BOYKIN, JR.

Wearing a bridal gown of her own design, Miss Jacquelyn Perry became the bride of John King Boykin, Jr., Saturday, June 16 at 4 p.m. in the Oakland Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin James Perry, of Wendover Court and the granddaughter of Mrs. J. M. O'Hern of Avon Park. She has visited in Avon Park on numerous occasions. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John King Boykin, of Sedgewood Drive, Rock Hill, South Carolina.

The Rev. Coit Troutman performed the double ring ceremony before an altar setting of fern, white flowers and cathedral candles. Nuptial music was presented by W. B. White, organist and Mrs. Edward Mobley, soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown of off-white organzine, styled with a fitted bodice and a full skirt that was accented with appliques of imported lace, and extended to a chapel train. A pill box crown of seed pearls and sequins held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids showered with tuberoses.

Miss Patricia Detweiler of Jacksonville, a cousin of the bride, was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids, were her sister, Miss Phoebe Boykin, of Jacksonville, Miss Mary Jo Bracewell of Valdosta, Ga., Miss Carol Gantt, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Mary Epps, Miss Jane Shillinglaw and Miss Jean Rose, all of Rock Hill. Each of the attendants wore sheath dresses of turquoise taffeta and carried yellow roses.

Wanda Perry, sister of the bride and Lillian Pitts, cousin of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids. Rebecca Myers was flower girl. Chuck Livingston of Ocala, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

Mr. Boykin served as best man for his son. Ushers were Bill Lynn, Wayne Munn, Hugh Rock, Lawrence Pitts, Bill Chelf and Joe Boykin, brother of the bridegroom.

Parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony. Guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Steve Moore. Mrs. Frank Bracewell of Valdosta, Ga. and Mr. and Mrs. William A. Tipping assisted with hospitalities.

The five-tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Edwin Salley of Columbia, S. C., Mrs. R. J. Livingston of Ocala and Mrs. Gordon Lynn of Dillon, S. C. presided at the two silver punch bowls. Other table appointments were in silver. A handsome turquoise cloth covered the refreshment table.

When the newlyweds left for a wedding trip, Mrs. Boykin, Jr. wore a brown and white striped suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Boykin are both graduates of Winthrop Training School in Rock Hill. She attended Winthrop College and he is a graduate of Clemson College.

Mrs. J. M. O'Hern was among the dozens of out of town guests attending the wedding.

Dunty said the Florida Light and Power Company has suggested installation of 15 mercury vapor lights at the cost of six dollars per month each light, or a total cost of $90 per month for lighting the intersection.

Dunty said this is a rental fee. The power company would install and maintain the lights. The report was forwarded to the State Road Department. If the state department approves the plan the lights will be installed and the county will pay for them out of secondary road funds.

County Surveyor Roger Miller was asked to provide to the road department, immediately, information requested on morrow pits needed for the work along road 731, the Fisheating Creek Grade.

In presenting the valuations statement, Tax Assessor Gearing said increases in the real estate roll resulted from "new construction of homes and commercial buildings, continued subdivision activities especially lakefront properties and an increase on some citrus land and groves."

The increase on the real estate was $4,449,770. The railroad assessment, which is set in Tallahassee, was $2,032 under last year's valuation.

Methodist Church Circle

Mrs. John L. Bridges, new president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service conducted the business at the regular meeting of that group Tuesday morning in Wesley Hall.

Mrs. Virgil Tondee, secretary of student work, presented a program on "What Youth has to say to the Church, and What the Church Says to Youth". The Misses Carolyn Biggs, Sara Leslie Harrison and Bonnie Oberle participated as students and Mrs. Georgia Dinnison also assisted with the program.

HOUSE GUESTS

County Judge and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer have as their house guests the Judge's sister and brother-in-law from New Jersey. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dietz of New Milford, N. J. are to arrive Wednesday and plan to remain through July 11. Dietz is a teacher in the public schools of Berfenfield, N. J.

A group of men continue to meet at the shuffleboard courts each morning for their favorite exercise. However, there are not sufficient numbers for the tournaments, even if there were no daily afternoon showers [illegible] mosquitoes.

Formal card games have been discontinued but 'most any time from morning to late afternoon finds a group enjoying a card game; we understand pinochle is the favorite.

We were all glad to see the red dirt road hard surfaced with crushed rock; now when shuffle play resumes each disc won't have its cloud of red-colored dust tagging in down the court. The new concrete porches replacing the rotted wood ones are coming along in good order, promising many hours of pleasant relaxation, as well improving the appearance of the club house, for which we give thanks, says

Avon Park Lakes News

By Thelma L. Merrill
Phone GL 3-6146

On Wednesday a "caravan" of 24 fun seekers motored to Anna Maria Island for a glorious day of swimming and picnicing—everyone enjoyed the beautiful shady beach and warm gulf waters. Those from the Lakes were Mr. and Mrs. Don Jameson and granddaughter, Toni, Mr. and Mrs. Harold LeChien, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Constantine, Mr. and Mrs. John Bengel, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Liggiero, Mr. and Mrs. Riha, Mrs. Al Diebold, Mrs. Paul K. Moore, and Thelma Merrill. Couples from Avon Park were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Krenerick and Mr. and Mrs. Elzo Cornue, and those from Sebring were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. Gill.

The card party on Tuesday night at the club house was enjoyed by 26 members of the Avon Park Lakes Association. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Jane Jameson, Mrs. Ann Robbins, and Mrs. Pansy Diebold—and such an abundance of delicious refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Johnson had six dinner guests on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul K. Moore entertained 11 guests at a very lovely dinner and card party in their home on Lake Adelaide on Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Liggiero spent last week in Oklanawawa Pines with Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Bostic and family. Enroute home they stopped in Claremont for a days visit with friends.

We are so grateful for the much needed rains -

"Dashing in big drops
on the narrow pane,
And making mournful music
for the mind,
While plays his interlude
The wizard wind,
I hear the singing of the frequent rain."
(Burleigh)

Miss Toni Jameson, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Jameson has returned to her home in Ohio. She has enjoyed her daily swims in Lake Olivia and the picnics at Anna Marin Island beach. We shall miss Toni—such a refreshing and sweet girl. Come again soon, Toni.

The next monthly dinner for the members of the Avon Park Lakes Association will be Thursday, July 19 at the club house. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Lucy Bue, Mrs. Libby Moore, and Thelma Merrill. We hope all will come and share a pleasant evening.

The ladies of the Women's Group of the Association met at the club house Tuesday morning and made items for the Cancer Society.

July Fourth is truly a joyous day in celebration of a significant event—Independence Day. We are so blessed to be Americans and we acknowledge our tremendous responsibility in being good citizens. Have you read the Declaration of Independence lately?—You should, for it is an impressive and important document which established principles for our freedom and our right as individuals to happiness. Sincerely hope everyone has a glorious Fourth!!

Question—Are the mornings too warm or are the "walkers-around-the-Lake" shirking????

Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Bostic and family were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Liggiero.

A "Praiseworthy" Committee of the Avon Park Lakes Association is the Fire and General Safety Committee. The Chairman is Mr. Clarence Bue, and Committee consists of Messrs. Al Schutt, Rex Beach, R. P. Sandidge, and Wm. Robbins. The Committee Chairman was assigned an additional function which was ably accomplished by Mssrs. Clarence Bue, Harold LeChien, and Paul K. Moore—this extra activity was the responsibility of having necessary new signs made and erected around the Lakes area. Again we thank you!!

Twenty friends and neighbors shared in the "welcoming home" party for Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurst on Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Johns on Nautilus Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bue motored to Eustis on Sunday to visit Mrs. Bue's nephew, Mr. Robert Poor. Enroute home they had dinner in Leesburg.

The mosquitoes have definitely taken over—literally millions swarming and buzzing around, gnawing everyone—causing such intense inclination-to-scratch to relieve the "itching sensation". It is quite amusing to notice everyone in rhythmic motion—not performing the Twist—but scratching our "irritated bumps."

"A fault which humbles a man is of more use to him than a virtue which puffs him up."

Crop Insurance For Citrus Growers Raised

The Federal Crop Insurance Corporation - an agency of the United States Department of Agriculture - has increased the amount of insurance protection available for citrus growers from $250 to $300 per acre, Harry K. Highnam, FCIC District Supervisor, announced today. The coverage for this season was raised to adequately protect the grower's cost of raising citrus.

Also, four new counties have been added for the 1962-63 growing season bringing the total counties under the program to ten. The new counties are Hardee, Highlands, Pasco, and Hillsborough. Old counties with citrus crop insurance plans are Polk, Orange, and Lake plus the east coast counties of Brevard, Indian River, and St. Lucie.

FCIC representatives are answering inquiries and taking applications for insurance protection. However, warned Supervisor Highnam, hurricane danger could force the Corporation to stop application signup without notice. Thus, interested growers should not wait to start their insurance protection.

The citrus crop insurance program has operated in Florida since 1951 protecting the cost of growing citrus from loss due to freeze, hurricane, tornado, and hail.

FARP Official Attends Study On Alcoholism

Ernest A. Shepherd, Administrator of the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, recently returned from participating in two nationally important out-of-state meetings.

In Lexington, Kentucky, he attended a meeting of the Cooperative Commission on the Study of Alcoholism, created last year to conduct an extensive survey of alcoholism and agencies and organizations dealing with it in the United States and Canada. Shepherd was appointed to the Commission at its inception. The study is being financed by an unprecedented million-dollar grant from the U. S. Public Health Service's National Institute of Mental Health.

In Bethesda, Maryland, Shepherd participated in a conference called by the U. S. Public Health Service to consider more effective ways to provide community services for the rehabilitation of alcoholics. Selected representatives from the National Institute of Mental Health, the National Council on Alcoholism, Inc., and the North American Association of Alcoholism Programs, attended.

Shepherd, a past president of the North American Association of Alcoholism Programs, is currently member-at-large of the organization's executive board.

Boy Staters Return Home From Capitol

Robert Duggan and Andy Miracle, Jr., are back home after attending the Boys' State in Tallahassee two weeks ago. They were among the 533 delegates from over Florida who attended the practice government session held at Florida State University and sponsored annually by the American Legion. Boys' State is a national project of the American Legion and delegates from each state are chosen to go to Boys' Nation, which is held each year in Washington, D. C.

Both Robert and Andy represented Avon Park and their sponsors in a commendable way. The Avon Rotary Club assists the Highlands Post No. 69 with sending the two delegates to Boys' State each summer.

Both boys were elected to the House of Representatives and Robert had the surprise to find that he occupied the seat of his uncle, Frank Fee, of Ft. Pierce, who represents St. Lucie County. Andy was elected as one of the seven Supreme Court Justices, which was a distinct honor. Both boys held city offices and Andy was also a city attorney, in the imaginary governmental body.

Two Peruvian boys were delegates to Boys' State for the first time this year.

Tomorrow is the greatest labor-saving device of today.

Baseball Team Also Adept At Softball Play

Avon Park's Municipal baseball nine switched to softball last Saturday night when they traveled to Eagle Lake for a baseball game with Winter Haven only to find that Crane Plumbing of Winter Haven wanted to play softball instead.

The Avon Park team made the transition nicely and took an 8-3 win over Crane Plumbing in a five inning affair and then took on the Eagle Lake softball team and defeated them 2-1 in another five inning game.

Tommy Douberley pitched the first game for Avon Park and the Starling brothers, Leroy and Johnny, led the team at the plate with four hits between them. Avon Park turned in two double plays as they put on an outstanding defensive show.

In the second game of the double-header, Johnny Starling pitched a two-hitter against the Eagle Lake Team. Avon Park scored first, but Eagle Lake tied it up in the fourth.

Tommy Douberley scored the winning run in the top of the fifth. He singled and then raced all the way home when Jim Pearce rapped one into right-center field. Douberley had taken off for second on the pitche and never slowed down while Pearce rounded first and started for second. The throw came in to second and Pearce slid in head first and knocked the ball from the secondbasemans hands to prevent the third out and let Douberley score what proved to be the winning run.

Starling put the losers down in order in the last of the fifth as the Avon Park baseball nine showed the Polk County softball boys how to play ball. The Avon Park nine also had a double play in the second game.

The local team wishes it known that they are through with softball however and are looking for baseball opponents.

Summer is a wonderful time for having fun, but an awful season of the year to kick off from a traffic crash.
