Citrus Acreage Survey Starts

Field work to develop accurate acreage information on citrus began in Highlands and Hardee Counties April 13, according to the Florida Crop and Livestock Reporting Service.

Field crews of this agency, part of the Florida Department of Agriculture are using aerial photographs to identify groves which have been planted or altered since they were last surveyed. These groves are being inspected to determine type of fruit and year set.

Four men are assigned to each county and all are driving vehicles carrying the Department seal.

This is part of the state-wide survey directed by the 1965 Legislature at the request of the citrus industry. The purpose of the work is to provide an up-to-date inventory which will improve current and long range fruit production forecasts. Heavy planting in recent years and extensive freeze damage in northern areas has made existing records obsolete.

No attempt is being made to identify citrus acreage by ownership. The inventory is being developed soley for statistical purposes by the Department.

Published results will present acreage data for types of fruit by years in which set. Reports will be released on a county basis later in 1966.

Further details can be obtained at the Farm Labor Office on Hwy. 27, Dundee.

First Perfect Game Is Rolled At Ridge Lanes

Greatest thrill to come to a bowler, few of which are enjoyed during a lifetime of pin tumbling, came recently to Roger (Toot) Horne.

Strike after strike rolled down the alley for him the other night. Pins tumbled when they did not fly, or gently fell at the last moment as he pleaded for just another one and 10—one ball and 10 pins.

When the game was o'er Horne had done it—a perfect 300 game.

It marked his first; that of the Ridge Lanes, too.

And, did he toot his horn after 10 years of average ball tossing once a week for an overall 182 per game. His best game had been a 279.

Previous high game for Ridge Lanes was 299, and that was recorded April 3 by Walt Jackson.

Horne, rolling in competition when he got his coveted 300, knocked down 918 pins. His games were 178,225,215 and then the big fourth of 300.

His previous high series was 714.

In the News

Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare John W. Gardner was in the news recently when he assured Southern political and educational leaders that his department was not trying to impose a formula of "instantaneous desegregation" of every teaching staff. The move was seen as an attempt to head off a full-scale revolt by Southern school districts. Part of the new opposition in the South is said to stem from a belief that the Office of Education is about to press for more integration in the South than exists in other regions.

REV. HERBERT D. GRAETZ

WHAT DO YE MORE THAN OTHERS?

"If ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others, do not even the publicans the same?" St. Matthew 5:46-47.

God made you. He made you different. Your very appearance as well as your soul are distinctive. Jesus' appeal is to what is distinctive in you. That you go beyond the ordinary; through the grace of God that you see more to believe and to love than ordinarily occurs to others. This is his personal appeal to you. Of course, any such effort at excellence demands more than is conventionally expected.

A young man in a business office attracted the attention of the executives of his company, when he placed this motto on his desk: "If you do only what you set out to do, you didn't do enough."

Dr. Merton Rice used to illustrate the overflow of ones' life and work with the story of the jug of sorghum molasses. He said that he took his jug to the grocery and the clerk counted the number of cranks to fill it. "So I paid him the money and walked home with my clean jug. But I never liked the sorghum very well. Whenever I go and set a little jug under a great sorghum barrel, I confess I like to see at least a few drops of molasses around the outside of the jug. I tried to lick the jug all the way home and I know the flavor of the overflow."

Do you do just what is expected of you or do you do a little besides? The run-over in life is of importance, for it is there that one's real influence begins. The worlds' great leaders always do more than is required in any particular situation.

Jesus was pleased, when men met life with a generous response. This feeling on the Master's part is no more beautifully expressed in the gospels than in the Parable of the Good Samaritan. The Samaritan not only stopped and dressed the wounds of the traveler, who had been beaten and robbed, but he also put him on his heart of burden, took him to an inn and paid for his keep. This certainly reveals the spirit of going the second mile, when circumstances warrant it.

Gamaliel Bradford in his "Life and I" said concerning the teachings of Jesus: "These things have never been carried out, never will be. The most devoted Christians do not attempt it, but instead reason the simple principle away, with exhaustless ingenuity." We believe that that observation is not altogether true. Let us look for a moment at a statement of one ofAmerica's early religious leaders.

This is an avowal made by Jonathan Edwards, one of America's most profound philosophers, and a great preacher of his day: "On January 12, 1723, I made a solemn dedication of myself to God, to be for the future in no respect my own; to act as one that had no right to himself in any respect: and solemnly vowed to take God for my whole portion and felicity, looking on nothing else as any part of my happiness nor acting as if it were; and his law for the constant rule of my obedience engaging to fight with all my might against the world, the flesh, and the devil, to the end of my life." We believe that there are many who take their profession of religion just as seriously as Dr. Edwards did, though their faithfulness might be expressed differently.

If we are determined to be really Christian, than we must broaden the base of our living. Let's take, for example, the case of Paul and Barnabas. Paul said: "For me to live is Christ." Suppose we ask him: "But, Paul, what do ye more than others?" Paul answers: "I go to Macedonia." Barnabus didn't go. Dr. Robinson suggests that Paul's plans were too ambitious for Barnabas. We have no way of proving that statement but we do know that Barnabas chose the lesser part and went to Cypress, while Paul broadened the base of his work by going to the continent of Europe. He became the Apostle to the Gentiles. His life spilled over a larger area.

Our Lord has an interest in the overflow of your life. You have no right not to run over, for you have such wonderful privileges. You have no right to be satisfied to live a small existence.

Don't stand back and say, "I am not big enough." God did not make your cup too small. He just made so much to put into it that it cannot possibly hold it all. The blessed thing about a consecrated life is its running over.

Open your heart to the inflow of God's love. Pray for His guidance. There will be a change in the nature of the service you render. As the income of Gods' love and blessings increase there will be a corresponding outgo of Christian spirit and service.

We believe that it can be truly said: "Whenever you set your life before the flood of God, your cup runs over. If you will but consent, you can be made abundant in your usefulness among men."

It will be a good thing to pause at the end of the day and look back across the experiences we have had. We might ask ourselves a few questions. "Have I added anything extra today? Have I done anything that was not required of me? Have I been a little more kindly? Have I been more loving, more generous? Have I said a good word for Jesus, for the church? Have I lived a full life today?"

"Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again."

Dr. Nelson To Preach Sunday

At the close, Dr. Nelson will moderate the call to Rev. Marshall Wilson to become the minister of the Church.

We invite all who will to worship with us and to observe the Lord's Supper.

Above is the handsome edifice of the Presbyterian faith in Avon Park. Situated atop the low sloping hill on the north side of Lake Verona it presents an especially attractive picture. At night, it is enhanced by its large glowing cross. The church and grounds await the appointment of a permanent pastor before its dedication. The First Presbyterian Church has enjoyed the privilege of having a number of visiting ministers in its pulpit to bring the Sunday message to its parishioners.

VFW Chapter Planned For Sun Ray Homes

A new Veterans of Foreign Wars Post is being organized in Sun Ray Homes, Frostproof and Avon Park, according to Jack Troici and Bill Caswen.

Oldest of all major veterans organizations in the country, the VFW has 1 million, 300 thousand members made up of veterans who have served in the Armed Forces overseas during a war.

Today, the VFW carries on a program of assisting veterans, their dependents and widows and orphans of deceased veterans. They also sponsor various programs for the youth as well as patriotic and educational programs. Service to the community is another major program.

Veterans of overseas service interested in joining charter members should call Jack Troici - 635-2133 or Bill Caswen - 635-3785, Frostproof.

The perspective of the services rendered by the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program was broaden recently with the appointment of five regional field representatives. This new concept will allow FARP to encourage more community action on alcoholism.

Proven experience in a job it takes a lifetime to learn

Back in the days when automation was something you only read about in science fiction, Broward Williams worked with the State Treasurer's office to convert Florida's pen and ink bookkeeping to a data processing system. That's how Florida became one of the first states to use automation to keep track of revenues and statistics. As the state grew, so did the state's capability in record keeping. Today it enables your State Treasurer to keep up with traffic accident records, insurance statistics and state bookkeeping. In voting to keep Broward Williams State Treasurer you will be voting to keep in office a man who has also kept pace with Florida's growth. His many years in the fields of insurance and State finance qualify him to continue to represent you completely. Light Vote Predicted For May 3 Primary In Highlands County

A light vote is being predicted for the May 3 primary by Highlands County Supervisor of Registration Roland X. Droit.

He said he believes that less than 60 percent of the county's registered voters will participate in the primary.

Registration is down from the 13,225 qualified for the general election last November, as voter lists were purged after that election. New registrations were not enough to return it to previous levels, Droit added.

A total of 12,134 are qualified for the May primaries. This includes 10,724 Democrats, 1,342 Republicans and 68 Independents. Following the purged there were 11,722 Democrats, 1,402 Republicans and 100 Independents.

One party suffered a 100 percent loss that of a Socialist. "I don't know what happened to him," Droit said.

"Voters who have not voted in two years and not responded to mail from this office are dropped. Of course, we lose voters by death."

The largest registration is in Precinct 1 at the northern edge of the county, where there are 2,301 Democrats, 191 Republicans and 19 Independents a total of 2,511. The smallest is at the southern end of the county where only 132 voters—125 Democrats and 7 Republicans—vote in Precinct 14.

The greatest concentration of Republicans is in Precinct 5 where there are 235. Democratic registration in this precinct is 811 for a total of 1,046.

Precinct-by-precinct registration:

Precinct 1: Democrats 2301, Republicans 191, Independents 19; total 2511.

Precinct 2: Democrats 550, Republicans 23; total 573.

Precinct 3: Democrats 737, Republicans 146, Independents 8; total 891.

Precinct 4: Democrats 258, Republicans 45, Independents 3; total 306.

Precinct 5: Democrats 811, Republicans 235; total 1046.

Precinct 6: Democrats 256, Republicans 38, Independents 1; total 295.

Precinct 7: Democrats 489, Republicans 46, Independents 5; total 540.

Precinct 8: Democrats 1082, Republicans 228, Independents 11; total 1321.

Precinct 9: Democrats 478, Republicans 11; total 489.

Precinct 10: Democrats 1313, Republicans 183, Independents 18; total 1514.

Precinct 11: Democrats 355, Republicans 39, Independents 3; total 397.

Precinct 12: Democrats 199, Republicans 8; total 207.

Precinct 13: Democrats 1770, Republicans 142; total 1912.

Precinct 14: Democrats 125, Republicans 7; total 132.

Reunion Is Held Here Saturday

A reunion for recovered alcoholics would seem trite to some who normally associate the word, "reunion", with high school and college classmates. But, for those attending the fifth annual patient reunion at Florida's Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program in Avon Park, Saturday, April 16, it was quite significant.

The 200 persons attending were a portion of those Floridians who have entered "class" at Avon Park sometime during its 11 years of operation and started on a degree — in sobriety.

The guest list included the names of former patients of the rehabilitation center, members of Alcoholics Anonymous who spent the weekend at Lake Byrd Conference Center for their second annual AA Get-Together, and relatives and friends of patients and AA members.

During the three hour open house, seven employees of FARP who have been with the program for 10 years or more were honored for their tenure with FARP. They were: Jens C. Ruskjer, Jean G. Mosier, Louise H. Taft, Margaret D. Kinsey, Stephen R. Frazier, Justina E. Wilson, and Doris S. Benson. All except Frazier, who is administrator of the Miami Out-patient Clinic, work at the Avon Park hospital and reside in Highlands County.

Former Center patients were also presented special momentos during an informal program.

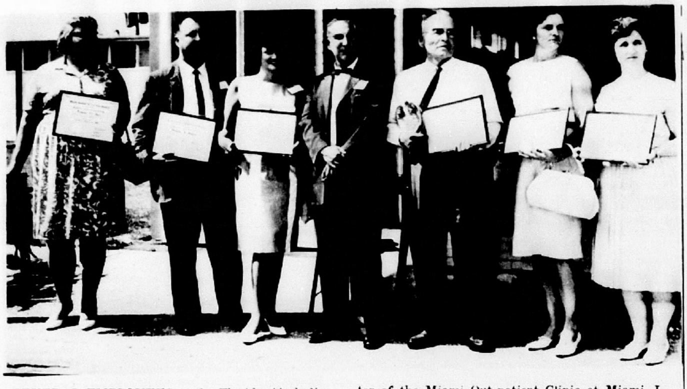
The Florida Canners Association is celebrating its 35th anniversary. The association was organized in Tampa in 1931 and moved to Winter Haven in 1955.



SEVERAL EMPLOYEES at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center last Saturday, during the annual reunion of former patients, received 10-year certificates for their work with patients. Those honored are residents of Highlands County with exception of Stephen R. Frazier, administrator of the Miami Out-patient Clinic at Miami. L. W. Norsworthy, acting chairman of the Advisory Council, (fourth from left) presented the certificates to Louise H. Taft, Frazier, Jean G. Mosier, Jens C. Ruskjer, Margaret Kinsey, and Justina E. Wilson.—SUN PHOTO.

...by matching winning horse numbers in TV show races with winning horse numbers on FREE cards given now at PUBLIX!

HERE'S ALL YOU DO...

Simply pick up a "Let's Go To The Races" card given free at your nearby friendly PUBLIX. You hold your card until the "Let's Go To The Races" color TV Show each Saturday. The first show is next Saturday, April 23rd and the first cards are available now at PUBLIX.

There are five complete horse races run during each show. Famous sportscaster, Jack Drees, calls the races. After each race you watch the TV screen for number of the horse that WINS only. You compare the number on your card under WIN. If the number on your card matches the number of the horse finishing first to WIN, then the number on the card is circled and this is the winning card. You do this for each of the five races during each 30 minute show. A first race winner pays $5, second race winner $10, third race winner $25, fourth race winner $100, and fifth race winner pays $1,000.

In the event you do not watch the TV show, you can check your card for winning numbers at your PUBLIX on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday after each weekly TV Show.

Winning cards are to be presented to PUBLIX managers for verification no later than the Wednesday after the show. Winners will receive their award promptly after verification.

New cards are given weekly only at PUBLIX starting a week before each show. Every weekly card has a separate color and is clearly numbered with the number of the week of the TV Show. No purchase is necessary to receive a card.

Employees of PUBLIX Markets, their advertising agency, and their immediate families are ineligible to participate.
