Councilmen Sworn In At Meeting Saturday

One former councilman, Durrah Martin, and two new councilmen, Wayne Albright and Russell Scott, were sworn in Saturday, Oct. 1, at the organizational meeting of the Avon Park City Council by Edna Leighton, assistant city clerk.

All members of the 1965-66 council were present including Mayor E. A. Delaney and Hue Nunnallee except George Herder.

President Jimmy Doerr asked for any old business to this had been only a custom but did not necessarily follow that he was not yet qualified to hold this position, perhaps next year he would accept and that he felt King was the qualified person to hold this office as of now.

Scott and Albright registered a "No" to King's nomination for president. King abstained from voting. The result was a tie of two and two.

King, stated that he was sorry there was a split in the vote and that if there was any reason to speak out, he further stated that he wanted no discussion and that he wanted everyone working together. The town would be

Red Devils Will Drive For Third Win Against Haines City

The Avon Park Red Devil varsity football team will go after its third consecutive win Friday night when it travels to Haines City to take on the Hornets of the Southwest Florida Conference in a renewed rivalry. Game time is 7 p.m.

Haines City is winless to date having lost 6-0 to Kissimmee, 19-7 to Bartow, and 40-0 to a real tough Auburndale team last week. Devil coach Joe Franzia scouted the Hornets last week and says that the big squad will definitely not be a push over for the Avon Park team. "The Haines City boys are big and there are a lot of them," says Franzia. "They've lost three games but all to good clubs and they'll be gunning for a win over us. I'll take all we've got to beat them."

The Red Devils, with two wins on the record sheet, haven't let up on the practice in spite of an open date last Friday night. The Devil defense has been the outstanding feature of the two wins. Fumble recoveries and pass interceptions have set up four of the Devils six touchdowns and although the Avon Park defense has given up a total of 274 yards of rushing from scrimmage, it has allowed only 18 points to be scored by the two opponents—both with formidable offenses.

Another interesting fact to Red Devil fans is that the penalties have been held to a minimum by the boys. They drew 45 yards of penalties in the Lake Wales game and only 30 yards in the Mulberry game. The timing on offense is good holding down off-sides and in motion penalties and on defense, the Devil defense has drawn few big penalties.

All four of the Devil offensive backs play tough defensive positions and have a fine job both ways. The Devil coaches hope to find a couple of good replacements for the running backs for this week in order to give the boys some rest to make them more effective on offense.

Avon Park fans are optimistic about the outcome of the Haines City game, but it's been many years since the Devils have beaten the Hornets and a victory would be especially nice for old time Devil fans.

Next week Avon Park plays in Wauchula and then has another open date on the following Friday before returning home October 28.

School Board Set 6 Mill Tax Levy

Highlands County Board of Public Instruction, in a special meeting Tuesday night, set school tax levy for the year at 6 mills, but the board was unable to agree on a plan for financing the more than $4 million construction program recommended by the State Department of Education.

The millage for the county is the legal minimum of 3 mills, and 3 mills levied for the districts, will bring in just a little less than needed to finance the school's projected budget.

George Douglas, Superintendent, said $3,770 will be taken from the reserve fund to balance the budget for 1966-67.

To repay the school bonds outstanding in District 1, the board will levy 125 mills this year. A similar levy next year should easily produce enough income to liquidate the bonds within two years.

The new construction includes new elementary schools, one each for Avon Park and Lake Placid, a new high school in Avon Park and a new high school for Sebring.

News of the school bond deficit in Polk County Tuesday further discouraged the Highlands board members who were already skeptical about chances that a bond issue would pass in the near future.

Board Member Ray Wells said, "We may have to see more pressure in enrollment in order for people to vote to tax themselves."

Chairman Henry Bailey countered, "We'd be devoted in our duty as a school board if we didn't ask for money to build the schools we need."

In response to Wells' fear that "with all the confusion about reassessment voters will not approve a bond issue," Bailey's response was "the voters ought to be told the need and given a chance to decide."

School Architect Jim Heim had been asked to attend the meeting Tuesday and advise the board about the time lag between a decision to build and actual use of a high school building. For a high school Heim set the minimum time as "20 to 24 months for planning and construction, that time could be shaved a little but don't kid yourself on making it much shorter."

Two new elementary schools—which would cost roughly a half million each—are items two and three on the priority list as presented to the board Tuesday by the Superintendent. Bailey protested, "We are in worse condition at the high schools than at the elementary schools. We are critical, but we schools are critical, but we

Tax Levy Set At 4.5 Mills By County

A petition for a sidewalk along Highway 57 in the Avon Park vicinity was presented to Highlands County commissioners Tuesday, but no formal action was taken on the request.

Commissioner Chairman Cecil Skipper said he had not counted the number of signatures, but the petition included several pages.

The board Tuesday adopted a formal policy statement on the duties of the county road superintendent and the county purchasing agent.

The board Tuesday also made official several actions anticipated in the tax reassessment program for the year. The commissioners officially rolled the county road superintendent and the county purchasing agent.

The delay in tax roll completion which had been anticipated was made official when the board approved Tax Assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin's request for an extension of time.

In a letter to the board Martin estimated that the roll which the county road superintendent is to present to the commissioners the first week in October—would be completed this year at the end of the first week in November.

The commissioners set Friday to meet with the Tax Assessor for final review of cases presented to the Board of Equalization. Commission Chairman Cecil Skipper said 26 cases are to be reviewed.

Tax Collector W. H. Prescott said Tuesday he cannot yet predict when tax bills will be ready for mailing, but he is still hopeful that bills can go out in November.

Road Priority List
The three-page statement on road and purchasing policies read to the commission Tuesday by Clerk Earl Rich incorporates Rich said suggestions made to the board by the State Auditor's office.

The policies "are effective October 1, 1966 and compliance is mandatory."

The commissioners, before

September 30 of each year, are to establish a priority list of county roads to be constructed or reconstructed during the ensuing fiscal year, and the list must be approved at a regular meeting of the board.

The county road superintendent is responsible for seeing that all construction or reconstruction is in accordance with the priority list and for preparing authority to designate any road and bridge employee to work on any priority at any time and any employee not working on priority shall work on maintenance.

The policy statement spells out the superintendent's responsibility for preparing written reports to the board and planning "preventive maintenance" for the road equipment and vehicles.

Chairman Skipper observed that the new policy will put a lot more responsibility on the local foremen.

The purchasing agent policy provides that all road materials are to be purchased on a competitive bid basis, and all bids shall be for not more than a two-year period.

"Everyone must obtain a purchase order before making a purchase—no matter how small—if this item is not be brought up before he turned the gavel over to Mayor Delaney.

A request for the purchase of some airport property by Hood's Dairy was tabled for future measurements.

Before turning the gavel over, Doerr read the following letter to the citizens of Avon Park.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

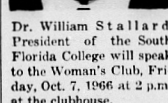

As most of you know, I am very seldom at a loss for words, but I am certainly at a loss for words to express my appreciation to the citizens of this community for the privilege of serving them these past four years as their city councilman.

It must be great to be great, that I will never know, but there is one thing I do know, I would rather have the friendship of all the people of this community than to attain any personal goal to which I may aspire.

I would like to express my appreciation to the mayor, all the city councilmen with whom I have served, the city clerk, city attorney, fire chief, chief of police, superintendent of public works, and all the city employees for the fine cooperation I have received these past four years.

I wish to assure all the citizens of Avon Park that I will always be interested in the welfare and betterment of this city.

I thank you, from the bottom of my heart, I thank you. The mayor asked for nominations for a president. Motion by Martin, seconded by Duggan that Clarence King be nominated for chairman.

Dr. William Stallard, President of the South Florida College will speak to the Woman's Club, Friday, Oct. 7, 1966 at 2 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Delegation To Visit College

A delegation of school board members, administrators and South Florida Junior College Advisory Board members will visit Edison Junior College at Fort Myers next Tuesday.

The architect who designed the Edison campus and buildings is to meet with the Highlands-Hardee delegation. The design of Edison Junior College has been praised as one of the best in the state in recent years.

Another architect for South Florida Junior College has been under discussion for several weeks and several trips to visit other junior colleges are planned.

International Concert Pianist Comes To AP Sunday, October 9

Robert MacDonald, young concert pianist who is a new-comer to Florida, will be presented in concert at Avon Park in the First Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 9 at 7:30 p.m.

A free-will offering will be received.

"He is a young philosopher of the piano," wrote the critic of a Vienna, Austria, newspaper. "He invests music with a spirit of youthfulness and freshness," commented the New York Herald-Tribune.

Both reviewers referred to Robert MacDonald, concert pianist, who has been artist-in-residence and a member of the U. S. State Department, and four American tours for the Arts Program of the Association of American Colleges.

It was in Vienna that MacDonald met his wife, the former Ingrid Walenta, an Austrian actress. They have a young daughter, Sona.

Mr. MacDonald was heard this spring on the CBS National Network TV show, "Hollywood Talent Scouts" with Art Linkletter. This summer (1966) he went to Europe, where he participated in an international piano Master-course in Vienna and tape a concerto performance with orchestra for the West German television network in Stuttgart.

He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, where he studied under Vienna-born Jan Schunhan and won the Percy Craven Weeks Award for the "Most Outstanding Pianist." He has a master's degree in music from Indiana University, where he held a graduate assistantship in music and studied with Maria Zorn.

Later, he pursued his studies at the State Academy of Music in Vienna under the noted Walter Kerschbaum, earning a graduate artist's diploma. He also holds the "Pro Musica" award of the Belgian Ministry of Education.

MacDonald has played in New York's famed Carnegie Hall, and has made three European concert tours for the U. S. State Department, and four American tours for the Arts Program of the Association of American Colleges.

Von Maxey Found Dead In Home

Highlands law enforcement officers continued today the sifting release of information surrounding the death of Von Maxey.

The prominent rancher and businessman was found dead at his home on State Road, outside Sebring, Monday night.

Sheriff Broward Coker said the death was "an apparent homicide." He added that the "cause of death is undetermined." The coroner's report stated that the business leader's body had been found "lying face down in a pool of blood."

The coroner reported there was "what appeared to be a bullet in the back of the head and four knife wounds in the back." An autopsy was ordered.

Sheriff Coker said the body was found about 9 or 9:30 p.m. Monday. Driver's license found at the house showed that Maxey had celebrated on September 15, his 42nd birthday.

Maxey, member of a pioneer Ridge area family, had extensive agribusiness holdings in central Florida and was a member of the board of directors for an insurance company.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Maxey, who is reported in seclusion. Maxey also leaves a son and a daughter. No funeral arrangements have been announced.

Federal Aid For School Lunch Program Cut

Highlands County school lunch program is feeling the bite of the federal spending ax. Superintendent George Douglas said his office has been notified that federal funds will be cut about $600 per month.

"Fortunately, we had anticipated some cut might be made and raised the price of lunches—five cents per lunch to six cents—before the school year," Douglas said.

"This is a bigger cut than was feared, so we are faced with the problem of more participation in the school lunch program and less money to operate it.

Federal grants are based on average cost per child in the school for the previous year. In 1965-66 the federal grant to the school was $20,900. The announced grant for this current year is $14,880. On a per plate basis the federal grant last year was $6.875 and this year will be $6.880.

The monthly grant last year was $3,040 and this year is down to $2,410.

Congressman James A. Haley Reports From Washington

WASHINGTON, D. C.—I have, as all of you who read these reports know, been deeply concerned all year about the impact of inflation on our national economy, but concerned more specifically about the effect of the rising cost of living on the wage earner, the people of moderate, low, and fixed incomes.

In practical terms my concern translates into worry about the housewife and the cost of her market basket, of the food and other essentials which must be purchased for the very maintenance of life itself. It is in the grocery store, the supermarket, the clothing store, and the department store that the first ravages of rising costs are felt; and it is there that they are felt most keenly by the bulk of our population—the family of average or sub-average income.

Thus, as prices for everything, but particularly for essentials, continue their relentless rise (and the latest figures and forecasts show not only that the rise is continuing but is accelerating without signs of abatement), my worry on this score increases.

I know of my own experience in Washington grocery stores what is happening to the prices of essential foodstuffs. Eggs in Washington are selling for 75 cents a dozen, bacon for $1.09 a pound, butter for 99 cents a pound, and milk for 61 cents per half-gallon in stores, 62 cents delivered, 64 cents with vitamin D added. Bread is 31c per pound-loaf. Having been held in Washington by an overlong session of the Congress, I am not as conversant with the degree of increase in grocery prices in Florida, but I am sure that they have risen substantially and painfully, for the impact of inflation is not a thing which affects this area or that area; it is nationwide. It is not a problem which can be dealt with successfully by the Representative of one district, or the Senators and all Representatives of one state or one group of states. It is something which can be dealt with successfully only by the whole structure and force of government, backed by the will of the people.

But while I know, and am sure that you will agree, that one voice in the Congress crying out against the economic oppression of inflation cannot reverse the sweeping tide of rising prices, the people whom we represent are certainly entitled to the benefit of our best efforts in trying to do something no matter how little in the whole scheme.

I am, of course, more interested in trying to do something to remedy the troubles of the people of the Seventh Congressional District and of the State of Florida than in anything else. And to this end, I am at the moment trying to persuade the central government powers—that is to take a step which could result in a reduction in the price of retail milk in our Sunshine State.

Milk prices, like others for food, have risen elsewhere. But I am expertly told that retail milk prices in Florida are on the upward trend not because of anything happening in Florida, but because the federal order controlling bottling milk pricing in our State is tied into a pricing formula based on cost of manufacturing milk in Minnesota and Wisconsin. I have just asked Agriculture Secretary Freeman to do something to end this remote spur to rising milk prices in our State.

in stock in the warehouse," the policy states.

The purchasing agent is to be responsible for marking county equipment, keeping inventory and cost records on equipment.

Clark Rich observed that some of the things covered in the policy were already being done "as a matter of good business practice, but we had no written policy."

At Tuesday's meeting the commission approved bringing of two truck drivers and action prompted a discussion of road and bridge crew salaries. Commissioner Carl McIntyre complained that he is having difficulty maintaining a full crew because industries in the area are raising wages.

Commissioner J. A. Bittler pointed out that the county should be careful "that it does not 'raid' other crews." Chairman Skipper suggested that a complete review and revision of the salary scale be made immediately.

Survey For Jail Aided
Earl Crutchfield, commissioner-elect from district 2, attended Tuesday's meeting and requested that the board make a survey of the place and "publish the survey."

At its last meeting the board had authorized a Winter Garden architect to prepare preliminary plans for a third floor addition to the present jail. Cost of the addition, now being estimated at $200,000, to be borne out of the race track tax bond issue fund.

"Since this is not to be voted on the public should be fully informed about the need or lack of it," Crutchfield said.

"Since this is not to be voted on the public should be fully informed about the need or lack of it," Crutchfield said.

Chairman Skipper said a survey had been requested and the commissioners agreed to report by the time the preliminary plans come back.

At the meeting Tuesday the commissioners approved placing two roads on the list of projects to be paid for by the race track fund—Scholmer Road and Catfish Creek Road.

Improvements to the latter road, near Lake Florida, requires removal of 26 citrus trees, and at Tuesday's meeting the commissioners agreed to pay for the owner, Cole Danley, Jr., $25 per tree for these 30-year-old trees.

Other Business
In other business Tuesday the commission approved granting an easement for Florida Power Company to pass power lines over 10 acres devoted to the county for a park at DeSoto City.

Purchased a tractor-caterpillar from Roter Machinery Co. of Tampa and Orlando.

The bid was for $34,296 a trade-in of $9,500 for a net bid of $24,796. No bids were received for a grader-scraper so the commission voted to re-advertise.

Agreed to investigate erection of the blinker light at the intersection of highways 27 and 46 where the funding is completed. A letter from the State Road Department, advising the county to assume this responsibility since the state department "is slow on such installations." Cost of the project was estimated at less than $700.

Approved the list of poll workers for the November general election.

Approved an amended contract for the Edison-McCaw Watershed Project. The law laid by Clemmons Construction Co. of Okeechobee, was $440,934.33. This was more than estimated, but the landowners who are picking up the money, the commissioners were informed. As sponsoring agency, the county board must approve the request contract.

Received a letter from Avon Park City Council expressing appreciation for the commission's assistance, especially in preparation of a park and swimming area.

Approved employment of Mrs. Alice Fordham as secretary in the surplus commodities program at the rate of $150 per hour for approximately 100 hours per month.

Approved deputy sheriff's bond for Carl W. Sprick.

Agreed to make a title search to determine how much right-of-way may be available for possible widening of Commerce Street South to Kentucky Blvd. in Sebring.

Received a letter from the Florida Avenue Baptist Church, Sebring, holding a covered dish dinner in their Social Hall, Sunday, Oct. 9, at 12:30 following the service.

The Florida Avenue Baptist Church is a welcome and a good crowd is desired.

better off without this disamen-son and better if he did not work the chairmanship if they could not work together.

The mayor requested any other roll call. Martin voted "yes," Scott "no," Albright "no," Duggan "yes." The result, another tie.

King said that he felt it would not be fair to vote for himself, thereby electing himself chairman, not fair to him or the town. Albright asked the city attorney if the mayor could carry on as chairman until a later date. The attorney said that the city attorney and stated that a chairman had to be elected before business could be conducted. Albright stated that ordinance had been broken before and perhaps this one could be bent a little.

The mayor stated that he was unaware of this condition and that if it continued, it would be the same next year. He implied the councilmen not to be petty and not to put themselves ahead of their community. He asked them to be better than this. He then called a three-minute roll call and said they would come back and elect a chairman.

At the close of the recess, the mayor expressed his appreciation to the outgoing councilmen and his congratulations to the new ones. He then called for another roll call. It was the same, Martin and Duggan voting "yes" and Scott and Albright "no."

King then said that this was deplorable, that he had always worked for the best interest of the city. Further, that at a caucus meeting he would not adhere to petty politics and this was the result. King voted for himself, and the matter and work for the city. He then received the gavel from the mayor as president of the city council.

Albright then asked the city attorney if caucus meetings were legal. The attorney replied that there was no prohibition against such meetings, that they were held even in Washington, D. C., and they had nothing to do with the city charter.

Scott said that he was here to better the city, that the city hall was run like a country club. Everybody would come and go as they pleased, and if continued as in the past it was time to better everything.

The city called for nominations for a vice president. Motion was made by Scott, seconded by Albright, that Douglass be elected vice president of the council. Duggan was unanimously elected vice president. The council also reappointed Hue Nunnallee city attorney.

Motion made by Martin, seconded by Albright, that Shockey be appointed city clerk. The vote was unanimous. Albright abstaining from voting.

Motion by Albright, seconded by Duggan and unanimously carried that Willie Williams be given a vote of confidence. The chief of police was next.

He suggested that something should be done because of the complaints and that he wished the chief was carried that Willie Williams be given a vote of confidence. The chief of police was next.

don't have money to build more than one."

Funds Available
A combination of accumulated reserves in construction funds from the state, current state and local funds, and proceeds of the forthcoming sale of $1 million in the race track tax bonds could yield $14,000,000 for immediate use, Douglass said.

This would be enough to fund about half the last two elementary schools, a cafeteria at Howell (the new one), and the new high school. He also mentioned major additions to Fried Will including classrooms, library, cafeteria, and a major renovation at E. O. Douglas.

In response to a direct question from School Board Member Jack Wick, Wells said he "would not be against a bond issue, I don't think it will pass now but will in about 18 months when the over-crowding becomes bad." Douglass said the State Department of Education had suggested a bond issue of $14 million to finance the entire priority list.

At the board meeting ended Tuesday the board members postponed business a decision on the bond issue at the regular school board on Tuesday, Oct. 11.

Policy Review
A major portion of the time at Tuesday's meeting was spent into an uncheduled review of the county school program. School Board Member R. L. Pugh quizzed the board on virtually every phase of educational policy but with special emphasis on the quality of classroom education.

Douglass told the board he "welcomes every opportunity to continue our study of the quality of education. If I recommend a program I should be able to defend it; if I don't, I should be able to prove the quality of our education."

In response to a question about the number of visitors now on the county staff, Douglass said there are seven persons on the county staff. He said the county has a number of supervisors who can teach the teachers as the year goes along.

Palgett said he is "eager to do anything and everything we can to improve the level of education in our county. I think it is important to have a room; things I do not understand or questions I am bringing to the board."

Future Farmer's Trip
The board Tuesday approved plans for five members of Future Farmers of America and one teacher to attend the annual FFA convention in Kansas City in mid-October.

The four Highlands FFA chapters will pay all expenses for the students and transportation for Dean Griffin, teacher-advisor for FFA at Avon Park. The board also approved expenses for Griffin to accompany the students.

The board also authorized purchase of a truck for use by South Florida Junior College. The truck would be used by the county auto agency supplies one of the driver education cars used in the county and would be a standard model that the car used at Avon Park be available to the junior college in off-hours.

U.S. Food Costs Lowest In World

If you're in a stew over rising food prices, things may not be as bad as they seem. University of Florida Pro- vost for Agriculture Dr. E. T. Smith, said this week, "The average consumer is actually spending a smaller percentage of his income on food this year than last."

Although retail food prices have increased sharply in the past year, Smith said, the real cost of food in relation to income is lower than ever before. The typical family today spends about 18 percent of its income on food—the lowest average in the world. In 1947 this same family spent 26 percent of its take-home pay for food.

From 1940 to 1966, the price of milk doubled. In 1940 the average family spent 15 minutes of labor to buy one quart of milk. It now takes about eight minutes. Even though the price of milk has doubled in 26 years, average hourly earnings will now pay almost twice as much milk.

Similarly, one hour of factory labor will now buy 13 percent more bread, or 14 percent more meat, than it would five years ago.

These statistics simply mean that even with the higher cost of food, personal income has risen faster, and the consumer now spends a smaller portion of his total income for food.

The food price spiral is really part of a much broader inflationary pattern that has affected almost every segment of the economy.

According to the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, one-half of the increase in the cost of living index over the last year is due to higher expenditures for services and only one-fourth is due to higher food costs.

Goods and services that cost $100 last year now cost $102.80. Of this extra $2.80, 71 cents represents higher prices for food, 62 cents for non-durable goods such as clothing, and 12 cents for durable goods such as automobiles. The remaining $1.35 represents increased costs for services.

Therefore, the services rather than food appear to be the main culprit.

All segments of the food industry—the farmer, the processor, the distributor, and the retailer—are faced with increasing expenses. The inevitable result is higher prices.

Florida's phosphate industry has been challenged by Idaho which is selling its phosphate at a lower price than the Sunshine State as the nation's number one phosphate producer.

Wilbur Boyd Speaks To Kiwanis Club

Wilbur Boyd, Democratic nominee for Senate, was guest speaker at the Avon Park Kiwanis Club Tuesday. Boyd, who is principal of the Avon Park High School, introduced Boyd to the club.

Boyd explained the 13 amendments that will be on the election ballot in November. He said some of the amendments would not effect this county at all such as the one for Hillsborough County to consolidate its county and city governments.

Another was one on appointment of superintendent of schools in counties. They are appointed now for four year terms by the school boards. The amendment will enable boards to appoint a superintendent from one to four year terms.

Since expectation, Boyd said some people are confused as to how many senators they are to elect for this district which is composed of Highlands, Hardee, DeSoto and Sarasota counties. There are two Democrats and two Republicans. The Democrats are he (Boyd) and Haywood Davis and the people are to vote for two.

AP Residents To Zip Code Mailing Lists

Residents in the Avon Park area will be offered an opportunity to ZIP Code their mailing lists during October, Postmaster B. D. Young, announced today.

Letter carriers will deliver "no postage needed" cards to each of the city's 1,882 residential delivery stops beginning October 10. The postmaster said. The cards will have blanks for addresses used most often, but for which individuals do not know the proper ZIP Codes.

Throughout the nation 95,000,000 of the cards will be delivered. In cities with more than one ZIP Code, there will be two cards for each household, one for each local address, the other card for out-of-town.

Avon Park has only one ZIP Code assigned, which is 33822. Only out-of-town cards will be delivered since all local addresses have the same ZIP Code.

"This is a good time to get the ZIP Codes missing from your lists," Postmaster Young noted. "This Christmas, ZIP Code will be as important as shopping and mailing early for the efficient and on-time delivery of the record-breaking instance of mail expected in the pre-holiday weeks."

After filling in the street number, city and state, the cards are to be mailed back to the postmaster. Post office personnel will add the proper ZIP Codes and return the cards to the sender.

President Johnson has proclaimed October 10-15 as "ZIP Code Week" to promote greater usage of ZIP Code.

Postmaster General O'Brien announced May 19 that steps were being taken to make ZIP Codes more accessible to the mailing public. The present program resulted from a search for the most effective method to get the codes in the hands of private mailers. A poll conducted by Elmo Roper and Associates earlier this year found that about half the population is using ZIP Code. Of the remaining half, who are 90 percent, said the reason was that they did not know the ZIP Codes for the people to whom they write.

Previously, the Post Office Department has embarked upon an extensive effort to help volume mailers convert their lists to ZIP Code.

"The Roper poll strengthened our conviction that the public generally is ready and willing to use ZIP Code," he said. "The Roper poll strengthened our conviction that the public generally is ready and willing to use ZIP Code."

THE FELLOWSHIP OF LOVING HEARTS

"God is faithful, by whom ye were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." I Corinthians 1:9.

Jesus was like the proverbial man who never met a stranger. To him every individual was of great worth. And why not? Life is the most interesting thing in the world and each man lives it differently. Jesus touched lives as varied as those of Zaccheus and John, Mary Magdalene and Martha, Simon the Pharisee and Simon Peter. His love was for the world of men to the exclusion of none, even his most hostile antagonists came within the range of his concern. This interest of his made the sinful desire salvation; it gave power of spirit to defeated lives.

Paul wrote the Corinthians that they had been called to the fellowship of Jesus Christ. His contemporaries experienced that blessed fellowship. We can imagine how wonderful it was. "You are called to it," Paul said to the Corinthians. And it is a foregone conclusion that the church at Corinth prospered just so long as they practiced that kind of fellowship. In such fellowship, encouragement is more than a word; it is a word backed by action. Forgiveness is a rule of conduct, rather than an empty creed. It is not what we give but what we share, the sharing of oneself with his neighbor.

Our hearts should be opened toward God and others. We may have to suffer because there is a very close relationship between love and suffering. You will recall that when Jesus came to the grave of Lazarus, he wept. Bystanders said: "Behold how he loved him." St. John 11:36. If we love much, we are bound to suffer some.

There is an old legend that illustrates what we mean. An angel drew near to the throne of grace. God said: "What wouldst thou?" The angel replied: "I would fain be a saviour of men; the cry of their misery and pain and sin has sounded even to heaven. Suffer me to fly down from heaven and rescue them." The host of heaven drew near to listen. God said: "Thou wouldst be a saviour of men, yet thine eye is bright and happy, and thy heart beats with a joy that has never been dimmed, and thy hands are white and clean. Hast thou not beheld my Son?" The angel did not answer because he did not understand these things. God said: "Go for a season and dwell with men, and see what thou shalt see upon the earth." After a long time one appeared before the throne full of sorrow yet with a presence that radiated hope and great joy. God said: "Who art thou?" The one replied: "I am thine angel who thou didst send to dwell awhile with men." And God said: "But thine eye is dim with pain and thy heart is broken, and thy hands are stained with blood." And the angel answered: "I have seen sorrow, pain and sin. The sons of men grind one another for wealth, and spill their brothers' blood for power, and trample their sisters that they might have pleasure. And when I saw, my eyes were dim; and when I loved, my heart was broken; and when I strove to lift the fallen, my hands were stained with blood." And God said: "And hast thou returned that thy wounds may be healed?" The angel replied: "No, Lord, for man's sake I would cling to my pain. How else would I save him? Did he return to the place of man's anguish. I can save him only as I stand and suffer by his side."

Some might say, you would expect an angel to act like that. Yet it is not true that we have seen such active love and concern in the fellowship of a home. Let us take the case of a young boy who fell ill and had to be taken to the hospital for an operation. He asked his father to stand by him and hold his hand during the operation. For reassurance, he said: "You'll go all the way with me, won't you Dad?" "I sure will, son," the father replied through tears of understanding.

This close family relationship reminds us of the fellowship that came into the world through Christ. By its power Jews, Greeks, Romans and barbarians, bond and free were enabled to overcome their differences and become one people. They were motivated by a common concern and were prompted to bear one another's burdens. The world saw in them something of the love and goodness of God. They became what St. Paul described as "a colony of heaven."

That fellowship in Christ has persisted through the centuries. We can recognize it when Christian men and women reach out and lay hold on the hurt of their neighbors. Leslie Weatherhead tells a story that gives us an example of how God works through this fellowship of loving concern.

A young woman who had recently lost her husband, was sitting on the floor at the feet of an older woman who had her arm about the young woman's shoulder. The young woman was utterly crushed in spirit. She turned to Dr. Weatherhead and asked: "Where is God? I've prayed to Him. I've asked Him to come and be near me in my sorrow. Where is He? You preached on 'The Everlasting Arms.' Where are they?" The preacher gently drew his finger tips down the older woman's arm, that was about the questioner's shoulder, and answered: "They are here. They are round you even now. These are the arms of God — Where is He? Why doesn't he come near? Hush, I pray you! What if this friend happens to be God?"

And how do you explain such a phenomenon? That God can be so nigh to us through others?

We believe that the answer can be found in Jesus Prayer: "I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me." St. John 17:23.

The ancient yoke was made for a pair of oxen. Thus when Jesus said: "Take my yoke upon you," he was extending an invitation to us to be yoked with him. To be yoked with Jesus is to share in his spirit and in the things that were nearest his heart. It is to enter into a working fellowship with him.

"God is faithful, by whom ye were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord." What a fellowship that is. A home for the weary, a haven for the distressed of heart. The bread of life is broken in love, and with brotherly feeling.

Such a fellowship may be likened to that of the Angel whose heart was touched by the weariness, distress, heartache, sinfulness and grief of men.

In goodness of heart it reaches out and brings relief and comfort, it sustains, encourages, aids and assists. Great indeed is the fellowship of loving hearts.

"B" Squad Will Host Lake Wales Here Thursday Night

Avon Park's "B" squad will host the Lake Wales junior varsity here at Memorial Field tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 in its second game of the season.

Last Thursday night the junior Devils lost 1-0 to an experienced Wauchula squad in Wauchula. The Hawks' High team scored first in the second quarter on a pass play and then covered the extra point to take a 7-0 lead.

In the same period the Wauchula "Bees" were awarded a two-point safety when an Avon Park back intercepted a pass in the end zone.

The second Avon Park back handler was tackled in the end zone giving Wauchula the safety and a 9-0 halftime lead.

The second half was a stalemate until the final minutes of the game when a Wauchula defensive back wrestled the ball from the hands of the Devil pass receiver and scored 65 yards for the final score. The extra point attempt was no good.

Avon Park had offense problems during the game and although they racked up six first downs and rushed for 33 yards plus 48 yards gained through the air, they only moved as deep as the Wauchula 30-yard line.

Don center Ralph Barnes was injured during the game and will be out of action for the remainder of the season. Jim Nunnallee has been moved to center.

Three new boys have reported out for action with the "B" squad. Kerry Dixon is working out at end, Jim Buirella has been practicing at halfback and Robert Sizemore has looked good at line-backer according to Coach Larry Pickett.

Several changes will be made in the starting line-up for the Lake Wales game and a new offense is expected to produce some scoring action.

APHIS Students Graded For On-The-Job Work

Nineteen students at Avon Park High School, from the 11th and 12th grades, have been receiving grades for a different type of schooling than most and had reports back from the Avon Park Agricultural High School.

The students are employed at various business places in town, and are graded by an evaluation sheet. You may be asked by any one of the students at any of the following places of business: Highlands Hammock, Wauchula Hospital, Kwik-Chek, Wells Motors, Food Fair, Dr. Palsgrove, Ridge Florist, Highlands Postery and Green-Peckes Tractor.

They are checked at the end of four different nine-week periods in the following areas: overall progress, initiative, punctuality, appearance, attitude, reliability, interests, job skills, quality of work and industry.

In each of the ten categories listed above, the student is rated on three levels, such as: average, above average and excellent. In addition to that, there is a place on the evaluation sheet for remarks, and suggestions for improvement.

Since its inception, on August 29, the students have earned $2,015.01 with a total of 136 hours worked, which averages $15.00 per hour. They have saved approximately $600.00 of their earnings.

It makes some of us as grown-ups put out a little extra effort to come up with a passing score if we were graded accordingly.

APCI Host To Ministers

The Avon Park Ministerial Association met at Avon Park Correctional Institution for their regular monthly meeting Monday evening, Oct. 3, 6 p.m.

The ministers and their wives enjoyed a delicious dinner in the officers dining room before going to the chapel for their program and business meeting.

The program was presented by three ministers, wives, Mrs. Paul Gentry, Mrs. Allen Childress and Mrs. James Lighty. The program was humorous, informative and inspiring.

Business followed with Rev. Addison Hardee, president of the association, presiding. Business at hand was discussed and cared for, after which Elder Ross Spivey invited the association for their next monthly meeting at the Walker Memorial Hospital for lunch at 11:30 a.m. November 7.

Attending were: Rev. and Mrs. Addison Hardee, Rev. and Mrs. John L. Knapp, Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Wilson, Rev. and Mrs. Robert R. Kerr, Rev. and Mrs. Lester Miller, Rev. and Mrs. Paul Gentry, Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Ray, Rev. and Mrs. Aden Childress, Rev. and Mrs. James Lighty, Rev. and Mrs. Ross J. Dinner Planned By Episcopal

Sunday, Oct. 9, families of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer will meet in their Parish Hall on N. Verona Ave. at 4 p.m. to share a covered dish dinner, enjoy good fellowship, view some interesting and informative slides, and hear a few words regarding the ongoing trials, and needs of their church in 1967.

Those attending will not be asked to make their pledge that evening, as it is felt they may want time to think about what they are doing and how they may make their decision accordingly.

Each family or group attending is asked to bring table service for each member of their group, in addition to a covered dish or other item of food. Beverages and bread and butter will be furnished by the chairman, Mrs. Eugene Hise, (GL 3-6044) and Mrs. Edith Young (GL 3-6066).

The following Wednesday, Oct. 12, the Episcopal Churchwomen will gather in the Parish Hall at 9:45 a.m. for the monthly business meeting which will be presented by a short social period and will include an interesting program. The program will be presented by a church magazine not known by all but which holds to become a most welcome caller each month in the home. The ladies hear some of the interesting items contained in just one issue.

Important items of business will be discussed.

Earl B. Dunckel Dies In N. Y.

Word has been received of the sudden death of Mr. Earl B. Dunckel, 74, of 292 N. Verona Ave., Avon Park.

He and Mrs. Dunckel had been in their northern home, 173 Cliff St., Canajoharie, N. Y., for one week.

A native of New York, he was prominent in the Methodist Church and the Masonic Circles.

He had planned to live in Avon Park the greater part of each year, but kept their home in Canajoharie as a summer residence. Illness caused their visit north to be postponed this year, until recently.

He was prominent in theatrical circle and in former years had his own traveling show troupe, and taking part in many home town plays. He was also a lock operator on the huge canal of the Mohawk River.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Dunckel; two sons, Earl Dunckel, Jr., of New York City, and Bruce Dunckel of Atlanta, Ga.; one daughter, Mrs. Richard Whitney of Lakeland; and one great-grandchild and one great-granddaughter.

Interment, Wednesday, Oct. 9, in Fort Plain, N. Y.

Southland Trailer Court

Bill Zangable returned to Southland last Tuesday, after a visit with his son in Detroit and taking a 23 day "Business" holiday through the Eastern Canada Province. Welcome back.

Bernadine Amos entertained the pack ladies last Thursday, in home of her mother's (Mrs. Mae Potter) birthday. Refreshments were ice cream and cake.

The Guy Dietrichs entertained Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Mills a week ago Sunday, old friends from Ohio, but now living at Orlando.

A farewell dinner was held last Friday evening for Will and Ida Drake, who left at midnight via rail for their new home in Pennsylvania. Thirty-two guests were served, including old friends, the Frank Thayers of Avon Park.

The Singers presented their first Color Tour of the new season last Friday night, titled "Selected Subjects," at the Baptist Orange Blossom Camp on Lake Denton.

Healed By Touching

The Psalmist's assurance of God's healing power is included in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon titled, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

The account of the woman who was healed simply by touching the hem of Jesus' garment is also among the Scriptural readings.

A correlative passage to be read from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, declares: "Divine Truth, Life, and Love gave Jesus authority over sin, sickness, and death."

A remarkable collection of rare Bibles and books, including a 1581 Geneva Bible, and a 1641 copy of the King James version.

130 Boys Took Part In Punt, Pass And Kick Contest Thursday Night

The fourth annual Punt, Pass, and Kick Football Contest sponsored by the Avon Park Motor Company was held Thursday, Sept. 29, at Memorial Field.

Joe Mazze, director of the contest, reported that 130 boys took part in the competition.

Winners of first, second and third place in each of the six age groups (8 through 13) received blue, red, or white medals. The medals were awarded this year rather than the previous years in order to preserve the boys' amateur status and in order for IFPAK to work more closely with the state athletic associations.

The scores of the winners will be sent in to compete with scores of other boys in each age group throughout the country.

The winners were: Eight year olds—first, Johnny Pipkin (145 points); second, Tony Underwood (140); and third, Tim Massey (128).

Nine year olds—first, Dan Davis (125); second, Wayne Todd (120); and third, David Singletary (120).

VD Remains Problematic Says Dr. Hill

Despite the fact that VD can be treated and cured easily, the number of cases seen each year appears to be increasing, and it remains a serious problem, stated Dr. William F. Hill, Jr., of the Highlands County Health Department.

He cited lack of understanding about venereal diseases and apathetic attitudes as main reasons for the increase.

Dr. Hill said that there were two important types of VD. Both of these, syphilis and gonorrhea, are caused by microscopic organisms and are transmitted by sexual contact with a person who has the disease. Contrary to some beliefs, contact with toilet seats, doorknobs, eating utensils or other items in public use, is not thought to spread the disease.

Syphilis is recognized by one or more small sores which eventually disappear whether treated or not. The organisms which cause the disease, however, can remain in the body for many years and damage the brain, heart and other body organs and tissues later in life. An expectant mother infected with syphilis can pass on the disease to her child, who may be born dead or deformed.

The symptoms of gonorrhea include pain on urination and a pus discharge, usually appearing shortly after infection. Gonorrhea can cause sterility, painful joints and blindness.

Laboratory tests will reveal the presence of the organisms responsible for these diseases. Treatment usually consists of administration of penicillin or other antibiotics under the direction of a physician.

The doctor added that VD can be contracted again and again.

"A physician is the only person qualified to diagnose and treat VD," said Dr. Hill, "and individuals who suspect they have syphilis or gonorrhea should visit a private doctor or a VD Clinic immediately."

In this area, VD Clinics for confidential consultation are located at the County Health Department in the Courthouse Annex in Sebring.

State Warning To Hog Hunters

A clarification of the Florida wild hog as a game animal was issued recently by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in reply to a resolution by the Citrus County Cattlemen's Association and a number of inquiries from sportsmen.

The Citrus County resolution pointed out that no wild hogs existed in Citrus County and that all hogs in the county are privately owned.

Commission Director, O. E. Frye, stated, "A free-roaming hog is not necessarily a wild hog or a game animal and hunters should use caution when hunting wild hogs. Wild hogs may be taken as game animals only during the open season designated for wild hog hunting in 14 wildlife management areas and in Palm Beach, Levy and Alachua counties."

Before going hog hunting on lands other than the designated areas or counties, the hunter should always obtain the permission of the landowner. It is also helpful to verify with the County Sheriff's office to determine whether hog claims are in effect in the area selected for hunting and to determine the fact of ownership.

9-Pound Bass Caught By Hand

Al Yarbrough, while riding on a surfboard, caught a nine-pound bass by hand at Trout Lake, near his home. He spotted the bass ahead, guided the surfboard to the fish which was stunned by a glancing blow of the surfboard. Then before the fish fully recovered, Al dove into the water and caught it.

The bass regained consciousness after it was taken to the beach.
