Myron Kendrick Receives Silver Star For Bravery In Vietnam

Specialist Four Myron Kendrick, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Kendrick of Avon Park, was recently awarded the Silver Star for gallantry while engaged in military operations against a hostile enemy force in the Republic of Vietnam.

Specialist Kendrick, who is assigned to Company "A," 4th Battalion, 12th Infantry, 199th Light Infantry Brigade, was participating in a company size search and destroy mission near Tuy Duc last February, when the point squad came under intense hostile fire from an estimated company of Viet Cong.

With enemy fire coming from all sides, the squad suffered heavy casualties, including five U.S. soldiers who were killed in the opening minutes of the battle. Without hesitation, Specialist Kendrick moved forward through a hail of enemy fire to administer first aid to the seriously wounded. Disregarding his own safety, he then assisted in carrying the wounded to the rear where they could be evacuated.

During the ensuing three-hour firefight he repeatedly crawled through fields of enemy lead to help evacuate the wounded and retrieve their field equipment.

Specialist Kendrick, who graduated from Avon Park High School in 1965, has also been awarded the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

Highlands County Will Be In Ninth District

Highlands County will go into the new Congressional district next year as a result of a decision by a three-judge federal court panel upholding the present 12 districts.

Highlands has been in District Seven—Charlotte, DeBolt, Harding, Manatee, Okechobee, Polk and Sarasota counties, with an estimated population of 46,812.

After the elections in the Fall of 1968, they will be in the Ninth District with Palm Beach, Okechobee, St. Lucie, Martin, Glades, Hendry, and Collier counties. It will be the top of the northern boundary of Broward County.

The Congressman for most of the counties in this district is Paul Rogers, (D) who has held the seat 14 years. He resides in West Palm Beach.

Many in Highlands County feel that the new boundaries are similar with the West Coast of Florida than with the East Coast. Instead of being on the far east edge of a West Coast district, Highlands now is on the far northwest edge of a predominantly population west East Coast district.

With Highlands taken away from District Seven, they lose long time U. S. Congressmen James A. Haley, (D) of Sarasota.

"I am just as upset I don't know what to do," declared Haley in Washington. "Why should a bunch of judges at the down there do a thing like this which really malaproposities the districts more than it is they were, basing figures on the 1960 census which you and I know is completely out of date."

Haley added that "You get a good and able man in Congressman Rogers, who will give you fine representation." Looking Highlands County, said Haley, "is kind of like losing a member of my family. There have been so many times I've said, 'I'm a little dead.'"

Although the redistricting order placed the district with the largest population to contain 415,794 persons, and the area with the least at 407,777, Haley estimated he will be representing about 379,000 people because of the population increase in Florida since the last census, 1960.

Col. W. J. Atkinson, head of the Republican central committee in Highlands County, declared he likes the re-districting because the "East coast is Republican."

Harvey Roberts, chairman of the Democratic Central committee in the county, declared he was "disappointed" Mr. Haley is a very fine and able man, but I understand Paul Rogers is a very able also.

The court's decision was handed down because the state legislature failed to act. With the 1960 census as a yardstick, the ideal population figure for each district was estimated at 415,794 persons.

Under the existing apportionment the largest district in the state is in order to come closer to the "one-man, one-vote" doctrine of the U. S. Supreme Court. The plan did not make new elections, letting the present boundaries stand until the 1990.

Highlands has been in District Seven—Charlotte, DeBolt, Harding, Manatee, Okechobee, Polk and Sarasota counties, with an estimated population of 46,812.

After the elections in the Fall of 1968, they will be in the Ninth District with Palm Beach, Okechobee, St. Lucie, Martin, Glades, Hendry, and Collier counties. It will be the top of the northern boundary of Broward County.

The Congressman for most of the counties in this district is Paul Rogers, (D) who has held the seat 14 years. He resides in West Palm Beach.

Many in Highlands County feel that the new boundaries are similar with the West Coast of Florida than with the East Coast. Instead of being on the far east edge of a West Coast district, Highlands now is on the far northwest edge of a predominantly population west East Coast district.

With Highlands taken away from District Seven, they lose long time U. S. Congressmen James A. Haley, (D) of Sarasota.

"I am just as upset I don't know what to do," declared Haley in Washington. "Why should a bunch of judges at the down there do a thing like this which really malaproposities the districts more than it is they were, basing figures on the 1960 census which you and I know is completely out of date."

Haley added that "You get a good and able man in Congressman Rogers, who will give you fine representation." Looking Highlands County, said Haley, "is kind of like losing a member of my family. There have been so many times I've said, 'I'm a little dead.'"

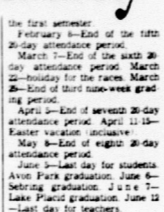

Although the redistricting order placed the district with the largest population to contain 415,794 persons, and the area with the least at 407,777, Haley estimated he will be representing about 379,000 people because of the population increase in Florida since the last census, 1960.

Col. W. J. Atkinson, head of the Republican central committee in Highlands County, declared he likes the re-districting because the "East coast is Republican."

Harvey Roberts, chairman of the Democratic Central committee in the county, declared he was "disappointed" Mr. Haley is a very fine and able man, but I understand Paul Rogers is a

Buy Best Mattress You Can Afford

Buying a new mattress? Then take time to sleep carefully and select the mattress that most nearly meets your particular needs for the money you have to spend, advises Mrs. Margaret E. Rittenburgh, County Ext. Home Economics Agent. Since you spend about a third of your life sleeping, it is important to have a comfortable bed to help restore your physical well-being.

Before you go shopping for a mattress, learn the indications of mattress quality. Price is not the single evidence of quality in a mattress. Standard one double bed mattresses vary in price from $20 for a low-quality product to $100 for a high-quality mattress. When spread over 10 to 15 years, the cost per day for good sleep equipment averages only a few cents; hence it is wise to buy the best mattress you can afford.

Most mattresses on sale are specially constructed and bought in as sales promotion. The quality of a $20 special sale mattress, therefore, will not be the same as that of a regularly priced mattress.

The three types of mattresses on the market today are innerspring, foam, and solid. Foam mattresses are dust and light free, nonallergenic and lighter than innerspring constructions. They do not collect or retain odors.

Innerspring mattresses furnish more firm, medium firm to extra firm. The best mattress for you is the one that meets your ideal of comfort. Hence the only way to test a mattress for desired firmness is to lie on it. But whatever firmness you prefer, firm, no-sag support is vital for comfort. Children whose bodies are still developing should have very firm mattresses. Heavy adults also need firm bedding.

When you buy a mattress, you should buy the box spring made to accompany it. The spring made to go with a mattress will usually be the same price as the mattress. Bedding manufacturers stress that a foam mattress be used with an excellent quality box spring because a foam mattress will conform readily to any imperfections in old springs.

Owners of Cars Under 2,000 Pounds Can File For Refunds From State

The State Comptroller's office in Tallahassee is busy processing 12,000 checks to be mailed to small car owners due license tag payment refunds—and some of them are destined for Florida.

We have had several small car owners ask about getting the 1966 refund. Grandfathered in the tag law. About 100,000 have obtained the applications from his office, most of them some time ago.

The payments vary from $2.50 to $10.00 to individual car owners, and represent the first state refund made following a state Supreme Court ruling on a 1963 automobile license fee statute.

Owners of the small cars—under 2,000 pounds—can file if they bought tags on their cars since the 1963 statute went into effect. This includes such cars as the Volkswagen beetle. David said they can also collect if they bought license tags and have since sold the cars.

There still is time to apply for refunds on tags purchased in other years. David's office has some applications here and he has sent for more.

Although Dickinson's office is currently preparing 12,000 warrants for mailing, there may be as many as 30,000 more out there eligible for the court order rebate.

Dickinson noted that in addition to the 12,000 warrants being drawn another 5,000 applications now are undergoing preliminary processing.

State laws require that these applications be filed with the Comptroller's Office before the state refunds can be disbursed.

The forms may be obtained from David or by writing directly to the County Finance Department of the Comptroller's office, Capitol Building 355A, Tallahassee.

The Comptroller's Office has been delayed by refund requests since August 1966, when Mrs. Mary Mahoney of Tallahassee filed suit on the grounds that the state's license tag law did not cover cars weighing less than 2,000 pounds.

In a ruling this month, the Florida Supreme Court upheld the earlier ruling of a lower court that refunds were in order.

Another favorite of many guides is the 50-hp outboard that can drive a large, heavily laden skiff with ease. It's a good choice on small family runabouts which serve in dual roles for both water skiing and fishing.

The 65- to 110-hp outboards are common on the Great Lakes and in saltwater where the installations of these units are familiar.

On Friday, Aug. 18, will be a one hour co-televised program on starting at 9:00 p.m. from park, narrated by Jimmy wart.

Rotary District Governor Ed A. St. Phillip Speaks To Local Club

District Governor Ed A. St. Phillip of Sacramento, Calif., spoke to the local club on how a District Governor can and should assist the local clubs. Unlike some of his predecessors, he, in his enthusiastic way, filled out members with his contagious enthusiasm, stating "We came as friends and we want to be friends."

District Governor St. Phillip referred to "The Rotarian" as a source of a wealth of information regarding our theme, "Service above Self," pointing to recent articles such as "Latter Days" and "We make your Rotary Membership effective and better."

St. Phillip personally involved in Rotary. He visited Rotary clubs in California, Hawaii, and Alaska. He said, "I have a mission to perform. We will be measured by accomplishments of Rotary clubs, but mostly by accomplishments of individual Rotarians. Rotary must continue to grow, but show numbers alone will not perpetuate Rotary," he stated.

Commenting on the more than 60,000 Rotarians who meet weekly around the world, he launched into an analysis of some of the clubs. To answer the question "Who Needs Rotary?" he cited Asia, where a program for artificial insemination of cattle, developed in Australia, has been implemented. This has raised the level of the beef herd, making more protein available for the people. Again, he referred to Burma, where nurses, trained in Rotary sponsored hospitals in Australia, are staffing the hospitals and expanding their training to the local level. In case after case he pointed out individual Rotarians as individuals as a group working together for

Kirk Appoints Boesen Jury Commissioner

Governor Claude B. Kirk Jr. announced the appointment of Lawrence T. Boesen of Lake Placid as Jury Commissioner, Highlands County, effective 3 August 1967.

Commissioner Boesen has been active in the Republican Party in Highlands County during the past several years. He was a candidate on the Republican ticket in the primaries for the nomination for the House of Representatives in the special election during the last primary.

Ronald Runner Takes Part In Celebration

Fireman Ronald P. Runner, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Runner of 204 E. Pine St., took part in the 18th annual "Sea Fair" celebration in Seattle as a co-member of the guided missile cruiser USS Chicago.

"Sea Fair" provided an opportunity for the citizens of Seattle to better understand the nature and mission of the U. S. Navy.

For four days, November of last year, the USS Chicago, a guided missile cruiser, was in Seattle, complete with guided tours.

Other events which highlighted "Sea Fair" included a reception and ball for the visiting Navyman, hydroplane races on Lake Washington, and an evening Seattle Torchlight parade.

The "Sea Fair" provided an opportunity for the citizens of Seattle to better understand the nature and mission of the U. S. Navy.

THE ATTRACTION of a child to an animal is graphically portrayed in this appealing photograph of Toni English and her very own Palomino, Sassy. Both Toni and Sassy are the same age - 2½. Toni is the daughter of David and Lee English of Green Lake Farms, Hernando, and the grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis English.

Maxey Case Turned This Week As Accused Dines with State's Witness

The Von Maxey murder case took a bizarre turn this week when rumors were confirmed that the state's key witness, John J. Sweet, had dined with the accused killer, John J. Sweet.

The unexpected socializing between Mrs. Maxey and Sweet came to light as an accident. Sweet, who was in a minor auto accident March 21 near Winter Haven, Fla., was ordered a jury trial of the case to begin October 22 in the Highlands County Courthouse.

The hearing, 31 year old Sweet, a palmer at the funeral of the millionaire business man last October, died the night of July 26 with Mrs. Maxey and another man described as her bodyguard.

He left an estate totaling over $120,000. His life insurance policy, naming his widow as beneficiary, totaled over $100,000.

Sweet and Mrs. Maxey were seen frequently together in recent months. Sweet was in a minor auto accident March 21 near Winter Haven, Fla., was ordered a jury trial of the case to begin October 22 in the Highlands County Courthouse.

The hearing, 31 year old Sweet, a palmer at the funeral of the millionaire business man last October, died the night of July 26 with Mrs. Maxey and another man described as her bodyguard.

The copy dining room of the Lake Wales yacht club, about 30 miles north of Sebring, was the setting for the get-together. It was a busy night at the lakeside club, which attracts diners from many miles away. The place began to buzz as word was passed as to the identity of the pair, bystanders said. Some of the diners were from Highlands County and recognized them.

Since Circuit Court Judge William K. Love has forbidden law enforcement agencies or attorneys connected with the case to communicate with the press, it could not be confirmed whether Mr. Hadcock is in the employ of the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, of the Highlands County sheriff's office, or of Mrs. Maxey.

At more rumors began to fly, the News confirmed from friends of Mrs. Maxey that she left last week on a trip. One family friend said she will visit Betty Pettus, Mrs. Norman Edwards, a niece, in Houston, and others said she had told them she planned to go to Las Vegas. Friends of Hadcock reported that he had told them he would accompany her.

Mrs. Maxey's twin sister, Lorene, and her husband, Herman Pettus, of Winter Garden, a check revealed, also are traveling in Texas. Maxey, the 39-year-old daughter of Irene and Von Maxey, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Guinevere Maxey in Banner Elk, N. C.

A further check disclosed that John Sweet was still in Sebring Tuesday. Mrs. Sweet has been in Foxboro, Mass., called there by the illness of her son, Robert. 22 Robert now is getting along fine, but Mrs. Sweet probably will not return here for another month. Her husband, who is a judge in Foxboro, should be able to do so, since his bond permits him to travel outside the state.

She left for Massachusetts the morning after her husband and Mrs. Maxey were seen dining at Lake Wales. The implications of the three-cornered tale at the yacht club are moot. Here, chatting and dining were the last, expensive, gowned and coiffured woman who had been granted immunity for her testimony, and the man indicted for murder by the grand jury which heard that testimony. State Atty. Gen. Darty has said that without her testimony, he would not have had a case.

Sweet was indicted May 11 following his arrest May 7 in St. Petersburg, where he had stopped for dinner with Mrs. Maxey's brother-in-law, Herman Pettus, and her son in law, Ernest Higgins.

Only two witnesses appeared before the grand jury, Mrs. Maxey and Roma Trulock, special investigator assigned to the case by the Florida Sheriff's Bureau.

Sweet was indicted for murder in the third degree under the Florida statutes, although two alleged hired killers from Boston were suspected of doing the actual killing. He is at liberty in $25,000 bond.

Florida Alumni To Attend LSU-Florida Game

The Highlands County University of Florida Alumni Club is again planning an annual bus trip to the LSU-Florida Football Game.

This year's trip will be to the Florida game on the LSU "Bengal Tigers" at Gainesville, Fla., on October 21, 1967. In the past years the trip will be made in air-conditioned buses. The buses will leave from the parking lot across from Griffin's Restaurant in Avon Park at approximately 8:30 a.m.

The cost per couple will be $12.00 including the bus fare, set-up, lunch, and game tickets. If one has season tickets the cost will be $20.00 per couple. Single persons will be at half the above price. A "Dutch Treat" supper has been scheduled for the return trip.

Any alumni desiring reservations should send a check and the number of reservations to Norman Todd, P.O. Box 832, Avon Park, Fla. 32822, immediately to insure good seats.

For further information contact: Norman Todd (Sebring), or Bert Harris (Lake Placid).

Box Score On Avon Park Political Scene

By BILL LUSCOMB

The political scene has been very quiet this week, with new qualifications for mayor, and only one new qualification for city council.

Mr. Jean Ward, secretary for councilman Wayne Albright, has qualified for city council. Councilman Albright is out of town this week, and could not be reached to determine what his future plans would be.

Wilson W. Smith, local federal director, was contacted by the Sun and has definitely decided not to enter the race for mayor at this time. He stated that he might consider running at some future date, but not this year.

Clarence King qualified for reelection to the city council, also Jack Dugan qualified for councilman last Thursday.

Councilman Jimmy Doerr was the only incumbent to qualify for the Mayor's race. At the time the Sun went to press.

There is a possibility that Joe Sparks who was a member of the city council in 1951-52, may run against Doerr for the Mayor's office.

County Has Deed To New Road Right Of Way

With one of their year's most important activities out of the way, the county commissioners took care of a variety of pending matters.

They accepted a deed to county road right of way for a new road of about a half mile in length, bearing of Road 9 near the Kiamistee River. The acceptance was contingent upon approval of the county attorney.

The right of way came from Lykes Brothers, Rubie Bass, E. F. Swan, Byron B. Wheeler and E. G. Low.

A petition from property owners and residents of Lake Bonnet was received, which said that the lake be placed on the restricted list—that commercial fishing be not allowed. The petitioners claimed that lines are restricting the use of the lake and are navigational hazards in that they tangle in the motors of boats. "We believe commercial fishing eventually will ruin Lake Bonnet," they declared.

It was decided to enter into a lease with Seaboard Coastline Railroad for $25 per year on some property in the county barn area to be used for storage.

Again this year, the county health department on possible and to the indignity. The $12,000 program probably will start in mid-October.

Baylor predicted picknickers will be happier with the park in the future. Rangers have just finished grading all the parking lot in the picnic area.

Rep. Ray Mattox Compiles Report On Agriculture Legislation Passed

Rep. Ray Mattox of Winter Haven has compiled a report on the agricultural legislation passed during this session of the Legislature.

A total of 20 bills were passed of direct benefit to the citrus industry. Mattox stated. Additionally, millions were spent in advertising and public relations work by the industry in Northern markets.

Eighteen of the bills were largely of a regulatory nature and will enable the Florida Citrus Commission to improve industrial marketing techniques and more expeditiously administer to the many other activities of the citrus industry.

The Legislature also passed the Orange Stabilization Act which enables the citrus growers, by vote, to establish a cooperative marketing plan to effectively correlate the supply of oranges with market demand.

The leaders of the industry view this legislation as the single most important and far reaching action taken for their benefit in many years.

Spreading decline in a disease which constitutes a serious threat to the entire citrus industry. Thus far, the State and Federal Government have spent a total of ten million dollars over the past ten years in the eradication of the burrowing nematode which causes the disease. House Bill 1361 provides for a special assessment and provides a special appropriation of almost a million dollars in State funds to commence this program. With the Federal matching funds this provides a total of $1.5 million and should contain this disease in the next three to four years.

The following legislation which was passed by this session of the Legislature affecting agriculture:

House Bill 300 created mandatory agricultural zoning boards in the county of the State, comprised of the board of county commissioners, with the county agent and tax assessor serving in an advisory capacity. This bill places a duty upon the agricultural operations which are not partially or wholly within an urban community. The bill further provides that such classification may be changed only when the surrounding land becomes predominantly of urban growth, thus the primary effect of the bill provides a means for locally elected officials may correct abuses which have taken place under the existing agricultural zoning law by "down town farmer or speculator."

House Bill 1361 gave Florida the power to regulate the processing and sale of citrus products and sold in Florida is of the highest quality available and that it has been produced and processed and packaged under the highest sanitary standards.

House Bill 136 provides for one million dollars for a fire eradication program. This program, which is authorized by this country from South America, does not only a threat to citrus but to human beings as well. The bill would enable the Department of Agriculture to participate in a joint Federal-State program which would completely eradicate the fire ant from Florida within three years.

House Bill 347 provides for the labeling and classification of poultry by A, B, C grades. No longer will consumers be in doubt as to the quality of chicken which is purchased in the State of Florida. This bill makes it mandatory that every bird be labeled according to its quality established by USDA standards. This bill also enables a series of bills sponsored by the Florida Department of Agriculture which are designed to protect Florida consumers from fraud and deception in the marketplace.

House Bill 1941 creates an Office of Consumer Services within the Department of Agriculture. This office is designed to coordinate consumer protection among all state agencies, to investigate consumer complaints and to make recommendations to the Legislature of legislation designed to protect the consumer from false and misleading trade practices. From unwholesome food products, from dishonest weights and to promote truth in packaging and labeling of all products.

House Bill 721 provides authority for the Commissioner of Agriculture to control and regulate pesticides in agricultural fields in order that pesticide residues shall never reach a level harmful or toxic to animals or humans who consume the meat of animals which have been fed on feeds containing pesticides.

House Bill 368 transferred the responsibility for mastitis problems in dairy cattle from the Animal Industry Division to the Dairy Division, thus permitting the dairy veterinarian from the Dairy Division to do all necessary work including mastitis detection, treatment, and eliminating the need for separate visits for the sole purpose of detecting mastitis. This should result in increased efficiency in the use of professional personnel within the Department of Agriculture.

Don Strenth Attends Drum Major Camp

Don Strenth, new drum major for the Avon Park High School Band, attended drum major camp this past week in Leeburg under the direction of Vic Larsen, a Bachelor of Music graduate of the University of Miami and for four years drum major of the famous "Band of the Hour."

Don was among the twenty-five drum majors and five majorettes at the camp. His cabin took first place at skit night.

His one week of training covered fundamentals, philosophy of drum major, selection and whistle techniques and band leadership.

Avon Park High School Band will be the first Major for the band has ever had.

Avon Park High School will be at the first football game in September.

Rangers Spruce Up State Park

Park service rangers are busy sprucing up Highlands Hammock State Park for the Fall-Winter season.

"We've finished all the catwalks, the new drinking fountain and outlets in the playground area," said Capt. Robert Baylor, who heads the park staff.

"We have also completed new rest rooms in the camping area and added 50 new electric sites in the area. We have filled, graded and trimmed 10 miles of trail in the park."

There will be a new place at the park this Fall and Winter—Ranger Charles Hutchinson, formerly with Audubon Society at Corkscrew Swamp. He will have charge of the interpretive program, nature walks, wildlife talks, and evening programs. The Fall-Winter season's program probably will start in mid-October.

Baylor predicted picknickers will be happier with the park in the future. Rangers have just finished grading all the parking lot in the picnic area.

Mayor E. A. DeLaney Will Retire
From Public Office September 30

Mayor E. A. DeLaney will retire from public life on September 30 after a long and illustrious career of public service to Avon Park. He started out as a City Councilman in 1927, serving as Council President until 1932. He also served on the council through 1936. During his time as Council President he twice served as Acting Mayor for periods of 60 days.

"He first was elected Mayor in 1942 and was re-elected in 1944 and 1946. The Mayor left Avon Park in 1947 moving to Georgia for a period of six years and upon his return in 1953 was elected again to the post of Mayor and has been re-elected every two years since that time.

Highlands County Commission Approves '67-'68
Yearly Budget In The Amount of $1,946,573.03

Highlands County Commissioners put final approval on their 1967-68 yearly budget in the amount of $1,946,573.03 Tuesday after listening for an hour while tempers flared loudly over the charges of "let it be" in the budget.

The three commissioners present, Chairman Carl McIntyre, Ben McVie and Gene Whitaker, voted unanimously to approve it despite efforts of Col. W. J. Atkinson to get it reduced. The millage will be 4.50, the same as last year.

County Attorney Hue Nunnally plugged into the fray and drove home a major point, when he calmly but firmly pointed out that "Highlands County taxpayers are paying a relatively light load. The millage here is less than 50 per cent of the maximum the commissioners can levy."

Colonel Atkinson, in shirt sleeves, with hair clinging to his bald pate and holding a sheaf of papers, took the floor the minute the commission went into the budget hearing. It followed a regular meeting.

"I am sincere in believing this budget and millage can be reduced," declared Atkinson, chairman of Highlands County central Republican committee and a certified public accountant. He was flushed beneath his sunburn and obviously smarting from the charge that he is politically motivated. "Let's have at least a reduction of one-half mill in this year's levy," he pleaded.

"This is pure and simply a political campaign," he interjected. "I have been here a long time and have seen people like the Colonel. They do the same thing he is doing and you wake up one morning and find he has sold out and gone. We have a number of these colonels here."

The commission chambers were well filled and from the audience rose Art Becker of Avon Park with a plea to "work with us and don't fight us." He added that "I belong to the Republican party, but we come with a clean heart."

The Sheriff came back with more. "The Colonel is critical of my law enforcement and he says I can do it for less. The first six months of this year we had an 18.9 per cent increase in case load over the same period of last year. Every time I spend money I eventually check and if I have not spent it correctly I am in trouble."

His deputy, he said, "works nine hours a day, six days a week. They are subject to call for four hours more in case of emergency, for 12 hours after that. I do not know of other men working like that."

Alfred Chase of Sebring Hills chimed in with "these people are politically motivated and trying to take this county over." Larry Boesen, a Republican standard bearer and president of Leisure Lakes Property Owners Association declared "We are here to find out how to hold the line on this levy."

"On one of the funds my budget is paid from, the millage went down," asserted Coker, still doing battle.

The maximum salary for clerical help in Sebring is $5,200. Few people who work for the county draw less," interposed Atkinson.

The colonel also attacked the commission action of pledging race track funds accruing annually to the county for redemption and payment of interest on certificates of indebtedness, pointing out that interest charges on $1,000,000 borrowed will amount to $74,758.30, he declared.

While it is true the repayment of the principal and the incidental interest charges do not reflect in the millage level, the county does lose approximately one-half of the race track funds. Loss of this revenue is reflected in an increase in millage rate each year to replace revenue that would have been received if the certificates had not been issued."

Whitaker declared "we discussed the budget and cut it down. No budget was presented that we did not go through and cut and hold the line. All the year we have never had anybody come up here and raise so much as a cent."

"I feel the budget is right." The budget covers the fiscal year beginning October 1.

In other business the Council agreed to refund the $25 filing fee of Mrs. Jean Ward who withdrew as a candidate for the City Council.

They approved the request to put a street light on E. Lagrange midway between Verona and Lake Avenue.

Councilman Jack Duggan reported that he had been visited by a man who was questioned by the business firms on Main Street between Lake and Verona to cut the allowed time for parking from two to one hour. At the suggestion of President Clarence King the matter was tabled pending a cross section of opinion from the downtown merchants on whether to cut all downtown parking from two to one hour. The press was instructed by the Council to inquire from the public that if they have an opinion on the matter to contact any of all councilmen before the next Council Meeting on August 28th.

The Council agreed to remove trees on the 600 block of South Verona.

Police Chief C. S. Carroll reported to the council that in July his department had 39 arrests, issued 9 warning tickets, handled 144 complaints and investigations, rendered 97 service calls. They investigated 7 traffic accidents. Police cars during the month travelled 6731 miles and prisoners worked a total of 359 hours.

Fire Chief Wilbur Giddens in his July Fire Report to the Council stated that his department was called to extinguish 4 construction fires, had 1 false alarm. Fire loss for the month totaled $1150 and damage for year thru July 31st amounted to $19,575.

House committee: Fred Johns, chairman, Larry Ford, Robert Palmer and Tommy Bagwell. This committee will help get the club house in shape which will be adjacent to the first tee.

City Council President Clarence King has appointed Councilmen Durrah Martin and Andrew Russell Scott to a committee to jointly work with the Board of Directors of the new golf association.

At a meeting of the school board last week, Superintendent of Schools George Douglas, who says he had no prior knowledge of the August 24 walkout, and who denies that he carries a rabbit's foot, asked and received approval from the school board for August 24 as the annual teacher conference work day in which Highlands and Hardee counties join.

Clubhouse grounds committee: Bob Barber, chairman, Steve Roberts, Jack Duggan, J. A. Johnson, and Roy Seims. This group will help clean up the grounds around the clubhouse.

Cart Shed committee: Jim Turnbull, chairman, Dan Bennett, Harold Kiem, Lonan "Bill" Wild and Roy Kirby. This committee will setup the area that will house the various carts used at the course.

Pro Selection committee: Bob King, chairman, John Giddens, A. G. Yarbrough, and Bob Young. This group has contacted the Florida P.G.A. to help them in a search to get the best available pro to work at the new 18 hole golf course.

President Reck stated to the "Sun" that anyone interested in joining the Association may do so by contacting any one of the board of directors for further information. The board besides Reck includes Cecil Skipper, Aaron Cravens, Bob King, Bob Young, and Roy Kirby.

Former Councilman J. B. Sparks entered the Mayor's race becoming a candidate shortly before the 5:00 p.m. deadline last Friday. Sparks formerly served on the City Council and is an owner and operator of a local grocery store. He will be opposed by James M. (Jimmy) Duggan.

Incumbent Councilman Jack Duggan and Clarence King will be opposed by three new opponents in the September 12th City Election.

The newly formed Avon Park Golf Association presented the City of Avon Park with a check for $10,000 at a special ceremony held at City Hall last week. Association President W. R. Reck and Treasurer Aaron Cravens made the presentation to Mayor E. A. DeLaney and Council President Clarence King.

This was done provided 100 members or $10,000 was gotten by the end of the year. The local Chamber of Commerce, during this time the Avon Park Golf Association, Inc. was born and over 100 members were obtained. Work was started on the course about a month ago and the association is aiming for the October 1st opening of the course.

President W. R. Reck made the following appointments to committees to help with the golf course. Greens committee is composed of Cecil Skipper, chairman, Bob King, E. G. Todd, and Ruckie Dressell.

House committee: Fred Johns, chairman, Larry Ford, Robert Palmer and Tommy Bagwell. This committee will help get the club house in shape which will be adjacent to the first tee.

Stamp Tax

Comptroller Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, Jr. today announced that the state pocketed $1,807,265 from the sale of documentary stamps during July.

The sum, which amounts to an increase of $158,900 over collections made for July, 1966, represents a dollar value of $1,641,071 on the 10,737,602 stamps sold. Dickinson noted.

Early 1967 indications of a tight money market, as shown by slumping documentary stamp tax collections, have gradually reversed the Comptroller said. The present upsurge of stamp tax revenue can be attributed to general easing of the financial market.

Dickinson pointed out that in state sales during July accounted for $1,839,945, while a total of $17,320 was collected from sales outside the state. The tax, which is assessed on deeds, stocks and bonds, and written payment obligations, is deposited in the General Revenue Fund.

Highlands County received $5,695.

Highlands
Teachers
Join Walkout

The date of August 24 may be a tough time of decision for teachers and school officials in other parts of Florida, but in Highlands County it looks like luck was with everybody.

A one-day walkout on that day has been ordered by the Florida Education Association in its fight to get more money for education. And top state education officials have warned that those who participate could lose their jobs.

Actually, what the FEA board did was a vote a "preliminary day" mass teacher walkout in a move to escalate sanctions against Florida schools. The teachers observe FEA will "walkout" to meetings which the FEA calls a "professional information day" in the state.

John Seay, deputy state school superintendent, said that unless teachers get permission from their local school board, it will be considered a violation of their contract.

At a meeting of the school board last week, Superintendent of Schools George Douglas, who says he had no prior knowledge of the August 24 walkout, and who denies that he carries a rabbit's foot, asked and received approval from the school board for August 24 as the annual teacher conference work day in which Highlands and Hardee counties join.

Milton Howard an employee of the Seaboard Coast Line Railroad for 25 years and resident of Avon Park for 19 years qualified last week for the race.

Wayne C. Knowles a life long resident of Avon Park and insurance representative was the next to file for the race. He served six years in the U.S. Navy and is a 1957 graduate of Avon Park High School.

Rodney Lane, partner in a record and TV sales store was the last to qualify shortly before the deadline last Friday.

Mrs. Jean Ward Secretary to Councilman Wayne Albright a previous entrant in the Council race filed a letter with City Clerk Lucille A. Shockley withdrawing from the council derby. Mrs. Ward stated in her letter that the reason for her qualifying was to give the incumbents opposition. "Now that there are several good men that have qualified as candidates, I am hereby withdrawing as a candidate."

According to Roland X. Drost, Highlands County Registration Supervisor there are 3231 registered voters eligible to vote in the September 12 City Election. There will be two polling places one at the Highlands County Courthouse and a Sheriff and the other district for the negro voters on South Delaney Ave. with 4 poll workers and a sheriff.

Protect Against Measles With A Vaccination

Jacksonville — Florida can be as much as 100 percent free if parents will take the small trouble to have their children vaccinated.

Dr. Wilton T. Sowder, state health officer, said there are an estimated 150,000 preschool and 40,000 other children of the age of 12 needing the new vaccine for Red measles and some of those who are not immunized will surely be or become ill. Behavioral changes due to brain damage, suffer eye defects, have a serious respiratory disease such as pneumonia or become mentally retarded. It should be of the utmost concern to every parent to arrange with the family physician for the child to be protected.

Dade, Polk, Clay and Volusia counties plan mass immunization programs in September or October. So far this year, such campaigns have been conducted in Levy, Citrus, Columbia, Collier, Seminole, Duval, Madison, Leon, Wakulla and Jefferson. Alachua put on a program last November.

Some 35,000 children were immunized in clinics, and another 11,000 in mass programs mostly sponsored by local physicians and county health departments between January and July this year. Although board records do not show the number of children immunized in offices of private physicians, it is believed to be a very large number.

There have been approximately 1,700 cases reported so far this year. Board officials estimate that only about one in 10 cases is reported. Cases are running about half the year compared with last year because the new vaccine is being used.

Only about 21 percent of all children up to 18 months of age have been immunized this year and Dr. Sowder said this is very low. Almost a third of the state's total cases this year has been reported in Dade, probably because of the high reporting. Hillsborough and Orange have reported a high number of cases also.

Unless protected by vaccination, virtually all children will at some time have clinically evident measles. The disease occurs most frequently in children under 15 with the highest incidence in the 2-5 year group.

Dr. Sowder said there is little excuse for a parent not to have the child vaccinated. County health departments send parents a letter when a child is three months old under a plan developed by the Palm Beach CHD. A card is included for the doctor to sign when the vaccine is given. A second letter, phone call or home visit follows if the parent does not respond. Palm Beach immunized about 75 percent of its children the first two years of the operation.

"Measles is the Number One childhood disease today," Dr. Sowder said. "We hope parents will ease enough for their children to help wipe it out in Florida."

Scientists are field-testing German measles vaccine and hope to have it perfected in a year or so.

Postmasters Attend Seminar

Florida postmasters attended a seminar last week to move the mail faster.

The training seminar on Monday at the University of South Florida in Tampa with more than 250 postmasters attending at their own expense.

Main speaker at the opening general session on Monday at 9 a.m. was C. Banks Gladden, regional director of the Atlanta Region that includes Florida, Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

The postmasters spent the remainder of the time attending classes at the University Center on various problems encountered in the mail of the day.

Among those attending the annual seminar was Postmaster of Avon Park Robert D. Young.

Mr. Gladden said the seminar, which is held in each of the regions, is designed to inform postmasters of modern concepts of mail handling and allow them to seek answers to their problems through a discussion with their fellow postmasters.

"The United States Post Office Department is now handling more than 80 billion pieces of mail a year—about as much as the rest of the world combined," Mr. Gladden pointed out. "This involves more than 200 million pieces a day. And this total is growing daily. Training seminars are one way to get postmasters educated so they can do a better job of serving the public."

General classes are scheduled on management and motivation.

Renovation and alteration of structures made up 60 percent of the permits with only $6,000 altering done in July.
