Count Discloses 206,064 Acres Citrus Planted

Data developed from the aerial tree census of the state has been released by Florida Citrus Mutual.

A special edition of Mutual's weekly publication, Triangle reveals that as the industry moved into 1966, there were 490,106 bearing acres of citrus with another 206,064 acres planted but not yet in the bearing category.

Mutual estimates that as many as 100,000 acres may have been planted since the survey was made.

In the southern part of the citrus belt, total acreage has increased 31 percent in the past three years while in the central and northern sectors the increase is 4 percent.

However, the greatest acreage of bearing trees is still in Polk County, with 90,450 and Lake County with 88,139.

Too Late To Classify

By Russell Kay

Truth they say is stranger than fiction, and if you read Frank Edwards' "Strange World and Stranger than Science" you will be inclined to agree.

Over the years Frank has made a hobby of collecting accounts of strange, weird, mysterious and unexplained happenings that have been reported all over the world.

Many of these he has personally investigated, checked and rechecked and found to be factual and authentic. All are fantastic and inscrutable but are true although nobody seems to have the answer.

You may scoff and contend that such things just couldn't happen. But they did happen in Florida, and are documented evidence to prove it.

Among the strange occurrences he reports is the mystery of David Lang, a well-to-do farmer, who lived with his wife and two children a few miles from Gallatin. Then Lang disappeared. Just seemed to vanish into thin air in full view of his wife, children and two neighbors who had called to see him. One minute he was there walking toward them, the next he was gone. There was not a tree, not a bush nor a hole to mar the surface of the open field he had been crossing. No trace of him has ever been found.

Then there was the case of the lost flight squadron out of Fort Lauderdale. Five planes on a training flight, one carrying two men the four others three men each. All were experienced fliers. Their planes were equipped with the best navigational and communication equipment. The weather was good. About the time they should have been requesting landing instructions the base radio got an urgent radio message from the flight commander ... "We can't see land ... Can't be sure where we are. We are not sure of our position."

It just didn't make sense. Their flight course was a triangle and only a short distance for such planes. How could five trained navigators all be come lost at the same time within a few hundred miles of the base? It didn't make sense.

A Martin flying boat with a crew of thirteen was immediately sent in search of the missing planes only to itself vanish five minutes later without trace.

Twenty one Naval vessels searched the area for days and never found anything that might indicate what happened to the planes or their crews. Three hundred planes joined in the search with no better success. Not a single trace of men or machines was ever found. Not a scrap of clothing, equipment or debris, nothing.

Then there was the case of the missing Navy bomber. Last seen over the Florida Keys. Then it vanished. Not a trace was ever found.

Then there was the case of the Navy Avenger torpedo bomber that vanished in the Bermuda Triangle

Recovery, Inc. Being Organized

A group known as Recovery Inc. is being organized in the Avon Park and Sebring area. This will also include anyone from the surrounding areas that would like to attend.

Recovery Inc., was founded by Dr. Abraham A. Low for the purpose of preventing relapses in former mental patients and chronically ill nervous patients. Recovery is a self help organization. For further information write: Recovery, P. O. Box 366, Avon Park, Florida. There will be an announcement soon as to date and place of the first meeting.

Today Observed As Doctor's Day

Thursday, Mar. 30, 1967, will be observed as Doctors Day in many cities and communities throughout the nation. Doctors Day is a tradition in the south and is a day set aside to pay tribute to all physicians living and dead. It was founded in 1933 in Atlanta, Ga., to honor Dr. Crawford W. Long, American pioneer in the use of ether as an anesthetic.

Members of the Auxiliary to the Highlands County Medical Society, composed of wives of the doctors of this county, will present to their husbands a red carnation which he can wear as a boutonniere or place in a vase on his office desk. This is the official flower for the observance.

According to Mrs. Donald C. Hartwell, of Avon Park, and Mrs. Kenneth S. Johnston of Sebring, co-chairmen in charge of arrangements for this observance, many church on this weekend will make special mention of these men and women who daily donate service to humanity and minister to our health and welfare in this area. Red carnations will also be placed in churches in their honor.

Mrs. A. S. Turner Attends Drapery Sales Clinic

Mrs. A. S. Turner of Turner Furniture Company recently attended the 20th Drapery Sales Clinic and Decorating School sponsored by the R. W. Norman Company, manufacturer of custom draperies, bedspreads and distributor of cut-order fabric. This was a decorator-oriented, home furnishings merchandising program offered to Norman's dealers all over the United States. 163 furniture retailers from 20 states attended the second session. This is the third year Norman's has been compelled, due to heavy registration, to hold two sessions in order to accommodate interested dealers.

About the Clinic, Ervin E. Lampert, president of Norman's, said, "Recognizing the increased need for sophisticated selling, we have planned this school to help prepare dealers for today's informed and taste conscious consumer. Norman's considers it both a responsibility and a privilege to help our dealers keep pace with the ever changing tastes and habits of the American public."

Subjects taught were fabrics, their uses and limitations, specialty treatments, drapery hardware and window treatments, color, selling techniques, bedspread and fabric collections, promotional and sales aids, backgrounds for living, ordering, measuring and pricing.

Among the outstanding guests was keynote speaker, George Etheridge, owner of George Etheridge Furniture, Lake City. He stressed the growing need for professionalism in interior design and cited the importance of the Norman's drapery and bedspread line to the total sales picture of his store.

Dr. Clara Ridder, professor of home economics at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, gave a comprehensive talk on color and its relation to the home.

James Collins, fabric consultant to Norman's from Charlotte, N.C., spoke on fabrics, their uses and limitations. He said, "It's amazing today with all the different fibers and finishes the consumer can find the fabric and color to do exactly the job she wants. If she wants an extremely sheer to withstand the sun, there are fibers to do this. If she wants to buy it and wash it herself—with no ironing problems, she can have this today. If she wants a fabric to totally black out the daylight without the bulkiness, the excessive cost, or the perishability of the old black-out lining, she can also have this. There's a fabric, fiber, and finish to meet her every need."

Scout Troop 156 On Camping Trip

Boy Scout troop 156 and their sponsor Charles Warrington, Sr. left from the Union Congregational Church Thursday, Mar. 23, 9 A.M. on a three day camping trip. Campsite destination, Ft. Kissimmee.

Mr. Royce Henry assisted in transporting the boys.

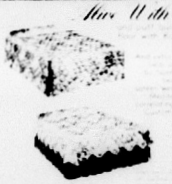

Under the guidance of their leaders, Jim Bates (student Bartow Junior College), Paul D. Sheffield (Scoutmaster), Larry Bond (Asst. Scoutmaster), Charles S. Warrington (troop committeeman) they worked on pioneering, hiking and nature study. They also listed as one of their activities Willie Williams and B. J. Carter took the boys on a coon hunt. Their evenings were spent around the campfire.

They returned home Saturday afternoon, Mar. 25.

Scouts attending were Jim Warrington, Mike Sloop, Mike King, Ralph Henry, Mike Caron, Jake Allen, Steve Hancock, Charles Snelgrove, Jack Brown, Douglas Sever and Ted Long.

MISS AMY ELIZABETH (BETSY) CASON

Couple Plans Wedding For April In Sebring First Presbyterian Church

Mr. and Mrs. Ted R. Cason announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Amy Elizabeth (Betsy) to Thomas Leroy Drake, of Avon Park, presently with the United States Navy.

Mr. Drake is the son of Mrs. Paul Anthony Drake, of Orlando, Calif., and Paul Drake of Avon Park. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. L.M. Reeves of Avon Park, with whom he has made his home.

Miss Cason is the grand daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cason, pioneers, and granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Hendrickson of Moorefield, W. Va., and Sebring.

The wedding is planned for the latter part of April, and will be held at First Presbyterian Church in Sebring at 8 p.m. in the presence of members of both families.

Public Speaking Contest Set

Chairman of the Highlands Soil Conservation District, Bob Barben, announced that the Annual Public Speaking Contest will be held at 8 P.M. Apr. 18, at the City Pier in Sebring. All students in the county high schools are eligible and urged to participate. The Avon Citrus Bank of Avon Park, is making it worth their while with $60 in cash prizes.

The subject is "Why Must the Urban Population be Involved in My Soil & Water Conservation District?" There are two divisions for the local competition—the Junior Division, 7-8-9th grades, and the Senior Division, 10-11-12th grades.

Mr. Barben said he feels that this is a very worthwhile project for the District to co-sponsor with the Bank, because it gives the students a chance not only to learn about our valuable natural resources of soil and water, but also an opportunity to learn to express themselves, which is very essential to anyone these days.

The rules and reference materials for the contest are available in the High Schools and at the Highlands Soil Conservation District office in the Court House Annex.

Each school may have as many contestants as they wish at the school level, but will only be allowed two contestants at the county wide elimination Apr. 18. The county winner will then be eligible to compete in an area contest in Moore Haven on May 3rd and the State final in Palm Beach in August. Last years county winner was Miss Wendy Bowers of Sebring High School.

The Library Corner

Do you know that the number 1 book in the early files of the Avon Park City Library is still in the library and available for reading. The Conqueror was undoubtedly donated to the library as were most of the early books. Gertrude Atherton wrote The Conqueror in 1904 and it was presented to us in September of 1924. The fly leaf says of th book, "Being the true and romantic story of Alexander Hamilton". Miss Atherton says, "It was my intention originally to write a biography of Alexander Hamilton — but after a visit to the British and Danish West Indies in search of the truth regarding his birth and ancestry, I no sooner had pen in hand than I found myself working in the familiar medium (novel), although preserving the historical sequence." Although the book is browning with age and well-sustained, it's 535 pages are very readable.

Rex Stout, the author of mystery stories, is almost as well known as are two of his characters, Nero Wolfe and Archie Goodwin, whom he has created. His latest full-length novel is entitled The Death of a Doxy. This presents one more of the seemingly insoluble problems to his famous pair.

Orrie Cather, one of Nero Wolfe's occasional employees, is in jail, suspected of murdering a lovely young thing who is the well-kept possession of a certain wealthy and influential man. The wealthy man offers to share his wealth with Nero — providing Nero will keep his name from ever being connected with the murder. Nero, at the same time, must get Orrie out of jail. He could easily do this by using his client's name.

Problem: How does Nero get Orrie out of jail? How does he keep his client's name out of th press? And how does he find the true murderer? Has Rex Stout finally created the insoluble situation which Nero cannot solve?

BALLOT

Southland Trailer Park

Thirty-eight were at coffee hour Tuesday morning. A letter was read from Mr. Drake, who formerly lived in the park, saying he is feeling well and will not have his eyes operated just now. Also Nancy Doss has written friends in the park they have had much sickness this winter and Lloyd is still not very good.

Russell and Edna Lockhead of Tecumseh, Mich., cousins of Mary Strickland were overnight guests. They were on their way to visit relatives at Ft. Myers.

Byron Jeremy is in the hospital at Miami.

Eight ladies were at chat Thursday afternoon when Bessie Paxton demonstrated making braided rugs.

Trees, flowers, wild life, green grass, sunshine and balmy air greeted thirty-seven park folks for a picnic at Highlands Hammock Wednesday at noon. The food was never better and everyone enjoyed the companionship of those present. Rev. Hutchens gave thanks for all these good things. Some took the jitney to visit the alligators and percharro see a deer; some took the cat walk and others just sat. Let's have a picnic again next year.

We regret to have The Comforts leave the park. They are locating at Bonnie Brae but promise to return to visit us. We hope they will enjoy their home at Bonnie Brae.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Carlson of Bellefountaine, Ohio called on the Detroits Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sweany called at Sam Walton's Monday. Mrs. Sweany is a niece. They were enroute to Crothersville, Ind., from Clewiston, where they winter each year.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Mitten and three daughters, of Hesperia, Calif., are visiting their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Dinniwell for Easter vacation.

Mrs. Peggy Hromek, of San Diego, Calif., is here visiting Bea Jeremy for a few days. They will be in Miami over Easter to be with Byron Jeremy, who has undergone surgery at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital there.

Only two tables of cards Friday night. Shuffling and sitting in the park seems to be more attractive.

Also two tables of bridge Monday night. If folks don't play bridge at more than two tables one can guess that outdoors is very attractive.

Saturday visitors from Mich. Mr. Wertzbarger were Mr. and Mrs. George Zelker from Charlevoix and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Price of Detroit. Mrs. Zelker (Marybelle Hall) was an old schoolmate of La la's in Charlevoix County and Mrs. Price (Irene Gregory) was a neighbor over fifty years ago.

Friday afternoon shuffle matches were not too well attended, only twelve players taking part. George Hewitt-Twylla Wurster team were west court winners. Ernie Thomas—Myrtle Hefferman team east court winners in the opening game. Herman Wurster and Winnie Lumpkin won their game over Everett Paxton and Sheila Wurster. The playoff was won by Herman Wurster and Winnie Lumpkin over Ernie Thomas and Myrtle Hefferman, with close score of 78 to 69.

Barbar Lumpkin is in the hospital at Sebring. Winnie reports she will be out of traction in a day or two, having had a back injury.

The Pinneys left today for their home in Ithaca, and Betty Peterson and S. A. Shufelt are leaving soon for their home in Michigan. We wish them a pleasant and safe trip home and hope they will return to Southland next fall.

We continue to see beautification in the park, one of the latest additions are the very attractive fancy block approaches. Next spring we will be able to see the two hundred azaleas recently set out in full bloom.

Mrs. Bernice Garrison of Youngstown, Ohio was a recent overnight guest of Louise Garrison.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Mason and daughters, Joyce and JoAnn and son, Lee, of Pittsford, N. Y., were here for Easter Vacation with their parents, Ann and Harry Barth.

Mr. Omar Oler of Bourbon, Ind., called on The Hutchens Saturday. Mr. Oler is wintering in Clearwater.

Alike?...Not by a long shot!

To the casual observer, identical twins are almost impossible to tell apart. Once you know them well, however, you can see the individual characteristics that set them apart. And so it is with your bank. Another financial institution may look the same on the outside, but there the similarity stops. Think a minute and then ask yourself a few questions about this other financial institution. "Does it guarantee in advance, to pay a specified rate of interest on savings? Can it provide trust services? Does it offer checking services? Does it provide depositor protection up to $15,000 under The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation?". The answers to these questions can be "YES", only if its a bank. If you don't know the difference between a bank and this other financial institution may be you should ask a few more questions.

First Grade Class Guest Of Hospital Get Acquainted Party

Mrs. Ellis' first grade class of Avon Park Elementary School were guests at the "Lets Get Acquainted" party held in the Walker Memorial Hospital 7 P.M. Mar. 21, to help children get better acquainted with hospital personnel and equipment and to alleviate their fears of being hospitalized.

Mrs. Ruth Bonney, R. N. Director of Inservice Education was organizer for this party. Five pink ladies assisted by welcoming the group and registering them as they arrived, also acted as guides for the tours through the hospital for the thirty-one children and twenty-one adults who attended.

After the tour a program was given, welcoming the children and telling them the purpose of the tour. A story "I believe I'll go to the hospital." was given by Mrs. Marjorie Cook. The Children were given rides in wheelchairs and upon stretchers. They visited the admitting office and the nurses station where Mrs. Elinor Davis, R. N. Director of Nurses greeted all the children.

The pink ladies showed the puppet they give to the children when hospitalized.

After the tour the guests were served refreshments in the dining room which was decorated in Easter style by Mrs. Hudson, Director of Food Service.

Russell Percy Graduates From Recruit Training

Marine Private Russell E. Percy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Percy of Route 1, Avon Park, was graduated from eight weeks of recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

He will now undergo about three weeks of individual combat training and then, after leave at home, will report to his first Marine Corps assignment.

The intensified Marine recruit training emphasizes rigid physical conditioning and survival techniques, both at sea and ashore, to develop self confidence and endurance. Marksmanship with the M-14 rifle and .45-calibre pistol are equally stressed, and close order drill instills the traditions of Marine Corps teamwork.

A thorough study of basic military subjects, hygiene, first aid and sanitation, and the customs, courtesies, history and mission of the Marine Corps serve to polish the new Marine's recruit education and prepare him to join Marine combat forces.

I always feel disappointed when people compliment me; I always think they have not made it strong enough.

Bowling Kings And Queens

by Ernie Andress

M. Watters certainly had the line in his middle game in the Orange Belt League, March 20. Watters rolled a Dutch 299 middle game after starting with a 197, he finished with a 261 for a good 558 set.

Looking over the score sheets, it is great to see so many good scores. Grand Prix Prix looks the same, so it must be that the bowlers are improving as we enter the "home stretch".

The two bowlers of the week were Virginia Merritt with a 241 game and 578 series. Bill White came up with three good games, 556, 599 and 562.

I would like all team captains to fill out the bowling league record sheet with the bowlers full name or both names. No Butch or Slim, Greasy Thumb or any other nickname or first name alone. I know quite a few of you people but cannot give you credit due you without a little help.

Your humble writer has had a very hard problem that he hasn't been able to solve. Said problem: Why has there been such a lack of interest in the bowling tournaments in relation to the number of league bowlers. It certainly can't be the entry fee, which is reasonable, the time element is practical, so it must be a lack of confidence. All of our tournaments favor the average bowler or even below average. I overheard that the prizes were too small, if that is the case, the banks should do even more business with a 4¼ percent return, but without any fun.

THE NEW YORK SEXTET, featuring Edmond Karlsrud, bass baritone, will appear at 3 P.M. April 2 at the Lake Placid High School gymnasium in a presentation of the Highlands Community Concert Association. The sextet above, includes Carol Joplin, soprano, Paul Solem and David Griffith, tenors, Guy Waid, baritone and Liz Lamkin, mezzo-soprano. The Sextet will present solos, duets, trios, quartets, or a program of operatic selections, folk songs, spirituals and hits of the Broadway stage. Each season they tour from coast to coast and border to border.

Community Concert To Feature The New York Sextet Sunday

The Community Concert Association will present the third in their series of concerts in the Lake Placid High School Auditorium, Sunday, Apr. 2 at 3 P.M.

The New York Sextet features Edmond Karlsrud, bass-baritone with Carol Joplin, Soprano, Liz Lamkin, Mezzo-soprano, Paul Solem, Tenor, David Griffith, Tenor, Guy Waid, Baritone, and Stanford Carter, accompanist will present the concert.

Headed by Edmond Karlsrud, these outstanding young performers bring the Sextet the benefit of their extensive professional backgrounds and musical training. The combination of these talents plus attractive staging and very special arrangements by Charles Touchette creates a program which is acknowledged to be one of the strongest concert presentations available today.

The Sextet presents one of the most varied and popular programs in the realm of group singing. They present solos, duets, trios, quartets and the entire ensemble in a program of great art songs, operatic selections, folk songs, spirituals and hits of the Broadway stage.

Each season the New York Sextet tours from coast-to-coast and border-to-border. Wherever these artists go they are hailed by the critics for their imaginative programing and for their excellence as individual artists.

With great pride the Community Concert association will present these artists for our listening pleasure.

Members of the Concert Association are reminded that on saturday, Apr. 8, at 8 P.M. Helen Vanni, Mezzo Soprano with the Metropolitan Opera will appear at the Avon Park High School Auditorium. This will be the last concert of the season.

Airman Visiting

Robert Kern, Airman 1st Class from Detroit, Mich. returned three days ago from Guam where he served 6 months in the Air Force, is now stationed in Orlando.

He is in Avon Park visiting his grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. Roy T. Johnson.

He has been in the service 3½ years and expects to be in Orlando approximately 2 months when he will receive his discharge and will resume his studies at Michigan State University in E.S.T.I. Leflang.

HOW TO DEAL WITH TEMPTATION

"Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. St. Matthew 6:13.

When we consider this petition of the Lord's Prayer, we ought to keep in mind the fact that God has made man a free moral agent. In other words, man has the right to make choices for himself. He can choose to keep or break, to support or denounce what is right, what is honorable and what is true.

There are some natural defenses in mans' struggle with temptation. For instance, a man has his self respect. He knows that he must live with what the says and what he does, for he cannot blot out his memories.

When President Garfield was urged to do something that would have been personally profitable but certainly not honorable, he was told: "No one will ever know." His answer was: "President Garfield will know and I've got to sleep with him." It is impossible for anyone to run away from his conscience.

Then there is the defense of tradition. The students at an American College were a little surprised to see this sign on their campus: "It is a tradition here not to walk on the grass. This tradition is effective at noon today." Whenever a man is tempted, tradition becomes effective and reminds him that "the Adams just don't do such things."

Then there are those who love us. The trust of those who care has kept many a man from falling. Laura Richards tells the story of a man who was tempted by his neighbor, "You are poor" said the neighbor, "and you are out of work and here is a way of bettering yourself. It will be an easy job and it will bring in money, and it is no more dishonest than things that are done every day by respectable people. You will be a fool to throw away such a chance as this. Come with me and we will settle the matter at once." The man was impressed, and, after all, he did need money. But just at that point his wife appeared with their baby in her arms. "Will you hold the baby," she asked, "I must hang out the wash." The man took the baby who looked up into his face. He realized he could not betray the trust of his child and wife. He said to his neighbor: "Go and come no more."

Then, of course, we know that there is the defense of the very presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. We do well to bear this always in mind and to ask ourselves the question: "What would the Master think or say?" God sent Jesus into the world to be our Saviour, surely in just such situations.

The attack of temptation comes to all of us, and from many sources. It very often comes from our friends and associates. For that reason we should consider the kind of friendship that is desirable. There are friendships and associations that are bad. Parents ought to keep this fact in mind in the oversight of their children.

Temptation can come, of course, from those who love us and wish us well. Many young people have trouble, here. They are attracted to a career that promises much in the way of satisfaction and service but very little monetary return. Parents seek to dissuade and try to steer them into something that is both more practical and certainly more profitable. This parental interference occurred in the ministry of Jesus; his mother and brethren came to take him home, thinking that he was beside himself. St. Mark 3:21-35. Sometimes it is hard to fight against this particular form of temptation.

Temptation may come from within ourselves. They say that a chain is as strong as its weakest link; we suppose that a man caves in at the point where he is the most vulnerable. It may be in the area of temperament, instinct or passion. When a man realizes his weak point, he should be on guard.

I think we can very well say that giving in to temptation leads to sin. A business man asked his pastor the following question: "What would happen to me, if I should undertake to carry on my business as Christ would want me to?" His pastor answered him by asking another question: "And what will happen, if you don't?" He probably would land just where the doctor did in A. J. Cronin's novel "The Citadel." You thought you were getting away with it," the doctor says, as he sits staring at the ruin his greed had made. "You thought you were getting away with it. And you weren't." Nobody does."

Certainly there is no sin in being tempted; we sin, when we fail. We do well to complete the prayer: "But deliver us from evil." There is Strength beyond our strength to help us in the struggle.

Dr. Thomas Chalmers of Scotland was riding in a pony cart. He noticed the driver suddenly hit the pony a pretty good clip with the whip. When he scolded him for doing so, the driver replied, "Do you see that white post? This pony has a way of shying at it, so when we approach it, I always give him a touch of the whip to let him have something else to think about." The good minister turned that answer over in his mind and finally used it as the theme of one of his greatest sermons, "The Expulsive Power of a New Affection," in which he called attention to the truth that we can depend on God giving us something better both to think about and to do, when we come under the influence of temptation. Thus we can overcome temptation through the help of God. We can emerge from the experience much stronger and finer, much more able to play a good role both in the home and the community.

ROY TAYLOR of the Southernaire Motel, a neighbor and three guests, were deep sea fishing in the Gulf on Friday of last week. They returned with 120 pounds of black and red grouper. The largest fish weighed 21 pounds. They fished from the "Flying Fisherman" off Hubbard's pier, St. Petersburg Beach. Avon Mobile Home Park

After a beautiful wee- weatherwise and a wonderful Easter Holiday, folks are now looking forward to returning to their homes in the north. Weather permitting that is. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell are leaving on Thursday for home and others are packing.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoard have been showing Florida to their son, James Hoard, who will be entering the Navy when he returns home. They will all be leaving for Milford, Mich., on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spigler from Hagerstown, Md., spent the past week with Mrs. Spigler's brother, Harry Longanecker and his wife Lanie. Easter Sunday was spent in Dover with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Longanecker.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Linville Myers were Mr. and Mrs. E. Bly of Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hile of Albion, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. R. Chiddester of Wolcottville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Edd Moore of Lagrange, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Linker of Colombia City, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Dick Babcock of Punta Gorda, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall of Garrett, Ind., and Mrs. Fern Lewallen of Sebring. Mr. and Mrs. Linville spent 3 days over at Sarasota with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clem and the men did some fishing while they were there.

Guests of the Arthur Foutys last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Thane E. Jobe, daughter Margaret, and Jon Lee, of Newton, Ill.

Last Saturday evening was a memorable experience for the night before Easter, as Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brandt presented slides of the Holy Land among their other interesting pictures of Lebanon and London, England. Next Saturday, Mr. Harry Longanecker will show more of his travel slides. We had 66 attend the Singspiration and travelogue last week, you all come again, you won't be sorry.

The shuffle tournament with Ft. Meade on last Thursday again ended in a tie. Pinochle scores last week were 167 for E-6th Stevens and 192 for Floyd Stevens. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher were the hosts for this week and the high scores were 194 for C. McPherson and 1155 for Mrs. Olive Burnett. Hostesses next Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Basil Krentz. Mrs. Olive Kerwin and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kull took a trip to Clewiston Inn on last Thursday, to meet four friends from Detroit, Mich.

Episcopal To Hold United Thank Offering

Sunday, Apr. 2, has been designated throughout the Episcopal Church as the date for the Spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Churchwomen. All members of the Church of the Redeemer in Avon Park ECW are asked to bring the contents of the Blue Boxes to any of the three services and by Sunday, Apr. 9, at the latest. The UTO raises over a million dollars a year to do farflung Missionary work throughout the world. The ECW Board will meet as usual next Wednesday, Apr. 5, after the Eucharist at 9:45 A.M. in the Parish House.

The men of the church who are delegates or alternates to the coming Diocesan Convention in Tampa, Apr. 13-15, are invited to a pre-convention Seminar in All Saints' Lakeland this Sunday, Apr. 2, at 3:30 P.M. The group will leave Avon Park at 2 P.M. with the Rector for the trip. This meeting will enable our delegates, meeting all over South Florida, to see the coming issues and questions at Convention more clearly and broadly.

Kit Available For Medicare Beneficiaries

Medicare beneficiaries who signed up for medical insurance protection can now obtain an information kit to help them keep a record of their doctor bills so they will know when they reach their yearly $50 deductible, W. E. Arnold, Lakeland, Social Security District Manager announced today.

The kit includes a record-keeping folder and two leaflets which explain the two methods of payment for medical insurance claims, and what medical expenses count for the $50 deductible. The folder has pockets on the inside for holding doctor bills and space to write in the date and amount of each bill so that the beneficiary will know immediately when he reaches the $50 each year. After that, the medical insurance plan pays 80 percent of the reasonable charges for covered expenses for the remainder of the year.

Arnold said that all new medicare beneficiaries will receive the kit when they sign up for medical insurance. Those who already have medical insurance coverage should write, telephone, or visit the social security office to obtain this free kit. The office is located at 309 S. Florida Avenue, telephone 686-6191.

Also, people who need help in completing a medical insurance claim are urged to get in touch with the social security office. We know that these claims especially the first claim—can be confusing to people," said Arnold, "and we will be glad to help in every way possible.

Lake Letta Mobile Home Ct.

Mr. and Mrs. McManus recent visitors from Madison, Wis., were so thrilled with our court and neighbors after one month stay have purchased adjoining property from the Percy's who will be moving to Sebring. Good luck to both the Percy's and the McManus' in their new homes.

Our Canadian friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Rollins visited Mrs. Scheepers and Mr. Fontaine this past week. Glad to have you folks visit again.

Major and Mrs. Philip Hicks and children were recent guests of Charles and Anna Barnes. Major Hicks has been transferred to Goldsborough, N. C. Wish all of you good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoehne of Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoehne and sister Mabel will soon be here for their summer homes. We have so enjoyed the Hoehnes while here and have marvelled at his garden and its results along with Mr. Barnes who seemed to grow watermelons overnight. As it turned out the two gardeners have had lots of fun and shared with all the court.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller of Minn., were week guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carpenter. While here they visited the Shell Factory at Ft. Myers, the Passion Play, Busch Gardens and various drives through our own area.

Mrs. Lauran Brock from Hollywood, sister of Mrs. Arthur Roberts spent the week with the Roberts'. Mr. and Mrs. Hollaway of New York and Leona Stoner of Sebring were all guests in the Robert's home. The Roberts' celebrated their second anniversary this past week. May the entire court take this opportunity to wish many more to this fine couple.

The court enjoyed sandwiches and other delicious foods prepared by the ladies in a farewell luncheon. This is the time of year old friends return to their summer homes and those of us who remain wish all a safe return and God willing we will meet again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes have their daughter and family with them this easter weekend. Welcome folks, hope you enjoy your visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Rettinger of Penn., were guests of Mrs. Helen Sleau and family. Mr. and Mrs. Rettinger had just returned from European visit to Spain, Germany and Holland. From Avon they would go to Ft. Myers before returning to Pa.

HOW TO DEAL WITH TEMPTATION

"Lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. St. Matthew 6:13.

When we consider this petition of the Lord's Prayer, we ought to keep in mind the fact that God has made man a free moral agent. In other words, man has the right to make choices for himself. He can choose to keep or break, to support or denounce what is right, what is honorable and what is true.

There are some natural defenses in mans' struggle with temptation. For instance, a man has his self respect. He knows that he must live with what the says and what he does, for he cannot blot out his memories.

When President Garfield was urged to do something that would have been personally profitable but certainly not honorable, he was told: "No one will ever know." His answer was: "President Garfield will know and I've got to sleep with him." It is impossible for anyone to run away from his conscience.

Then there is the defense of tradition. The students at an American College were a little surprised to see this sign on their campus: "It is a tradition here not to walk on the grass. This tradition is effective at noon today." Whenever a man is tempted, tradition becomes effective and reminds him that "the Adams just don't do such things."

Then there are those who love us. The trust of those who care has kept many a man from falling. Laura Richards tells the story of a man who was tempted by his neighbor, "You are poor" said the neighbor, "and you are out of work and here is a way of bettering yourself. It will be an easy job and it will bring in money, and it is no more dishonest than things that are done every day by respectable people. You will be a fool to throw away such a chance as this. Come with me and we will settle the matter at once." The man was impressed, and, after all, he did need money. But just at that point his wife appeared with their baby in her arms. "Will you hold the baby," she asked, "I must hang out the wash." The man took the baby who looked up into his face. He realized he could not betray the trust of his child and wife. He said to his neighbor: "Go and come no more."

Then, of course, we know that there is the defense of the very presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. We do well to bear this always in mind and to ask ourselves the question: "What would the Master think or say?" God sent Jesus into the world to be our Saviour, surely in just such situations.

The attack of temptation comes to all of us, and from many sources. It very often comes from our friends and associates. For that reason we should consider the kind of friendship that is desirable. There are friendships and associations that are bad. Parents ought to keep this fact in mind in the oversight of their children.

Temptation can come, of course, from those who love us and wish us well. Many young people have trouble, here. They are attracted to a career that promises much in the way of satisfaction and service but very little monetary return. Parents seek to dissuade and try to steer them into something that is both more practical and certainly more profitable. This parental interference occurred in the ministry of Jesus; his mother and brethren came to take him home, thinking that he was beside himself. St. Mark 3:31-35. Sometimes it is hard to fight against this particular form of temptation.

Temptation may come from within ourselves. They say that a chain is as strong as its weakest link; we suppose that a man caves in at the point where he is the most vulnerable. It may be in the area of temperament, instinct or passion. When a man realizes his weak point, he should be on guard.

I think we can very well say that giving in to temptation leads to sin. A business man asked his pastor the following question: "What would happen to me, if I should undertake to carry on my business as Christ would want me to?" His pastor answered him by asking another question: "And what will happen, if you don't?" He probably would land just where the doctor did in A. J. Cronin's novel "The Citadel." You thought you were getting away with it," the doctor says, as he sits staring at the ruin his greed had made, "You thought you were getting away with it. And you weren't." Nobody does!

Certainly there is no sin in being tempted; we sin, when we fall. We do well to complete the prayer: "But deliver us from evil." There is Strength beyond our strength to help us in the struggle.

Dr. Thomas Chalmers of Scotland was riding in a pony cart. He noticed the driver suddenly hit the pony a pretty good clip with the whip. When he scolded him for doing so, the driver replied, "Do you see that white post? This pony has a way of shying at it, so when we approach it, I always give him a touch of the whip to let him have something else to think about." The good minister turned that answer over in his mind and finally used it as the theme of one of his greatest sermons, "The Expulsive Power of a New Affection," in which he called attention to the truth that we can depend on God giving us something better both to think about and to do, when we come under the influence of temptation. Thus we can overcome temptation through the help of God. We can emerge from the experience much stronger and finer, much more able to play a good role both in the home and the community.

ROY TAYLOR of the Southernaire Motel, a neighbor and three guests, were deep sea fishing in the Gulf on Friday of last week. They returned with 120 pounds of black and red grouper. The largest fish weighed 21 pounds. They fished from the "Flying Fisherman" off Hubbard's pier, St. Petersburg Beach. After a beautiful wet weatherwise and a wonderful Easter Holiday, folks are now looking forward to returning to their homes in the north, weather permitting that is Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bell are leaving on Thursday for home, and others are packing.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hoard have been showing Florida to their son, James Hoard, who will be entering the Navy when he returns home. They will all be leaving for Milford, Mich., on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spigler from Hagerstown, Md., spent the past week with Mrs. Spigler's brother, Harry Longanecker and his wife Lariue. Easter Sunday was spent in Ocoee with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Longanecker.

Recent callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Linville Myers were Mr. and Mrs. E. Bly of Sebring, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hile of Albion, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. R. Chiddester of Wolcottville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Edd Moore of Lagrange, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Linker of Columbia City, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Dick Babcock of Punta Gorda, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall of Garrett, Ind., and Mrs. Fern Lewallen of Sebring. Mr. and Mrs. Linville spent 3 days over at Sarasota with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clem and the men did some fishing while they were there.

Guests of the Arthur Foutys last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Thane E. Jobe, daughter, Margaret, and Jon Lee, of Newton, Ill.

Last Saturday evening was a memorable experience for the night before Easter, as Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Brandt presented slides of the Holy Land among their other interesting pictures of Lebanon and London, England. Next Saturday, Mr. Harry Longanecker will show more of his travel slides. We had 60 attend the Singspiration and travelogue last week, you all come again, you won't be sorry.

The shuffle tournament with Ft. Meade on last Thursday again ended in a tie. Pinochle scores last week were 161 for Edith Stevens and 192 for Floyd Stevens. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher were the hosts for this week and the high scores were 1184 for Mrs. McPherson and 1158 for Mrs. Olive Burnett. Hostesses next Monday will be Mr. and Mrs. Basil Krentz. Mrs. Olive Kerwin and Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kull took a trip to Clewiston Inn on last Thursday, to meet four friends from Detroit, Mich.

Episcopal To Hold United Thank Offering

Sunday, Apr. 2, has been designated throughout the Episcopal Church as the date for the Spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering of the Churchwomen. All members of the Church of the Redeemer in Avon Park ECW are asked to bring the contents of the Blue Boxes to any of the three services . . . and by Sunday, Apr. 9, at the latest. The UTO raises over a million dollars a year to do farflung Missionary work throughout the world. The ECW Board will meet as usual next Wednesday, Apr. 5, after the Eucharist at 9:45 A.M. in the Parish House.

The men of the church who are delegates or alternates to the coming Diocesan Convention in Tampa, Apr. 13-15, are invited to a pre-convention Seminar in All Saints Lake-land this Sunday, Apr. 2, at 3:30 P.M. The group will leave Avon Park at 2 P.M. with the Rector for the trip. This meeting will enable our delegates, meeting all over South Florida, to see the coming issues and questions at Convention more clearly and broadly.

Kit Available For Medicare Beneficiaries

Medicare beneficiaries who signed up for medical insurance protection can now obtain an information kit to help them keep a record of their doctor bills so they will know when they reach their yearly $50 deductible, W. E. Arnold, Lakeland, Social Security District Manager announced today.

The kit includes a record-keeping folder and two leaflets which explain the two methods of payment for medical insurance claims, and what medical expenses count for the $50 deductible. The folder has pockets on the inside for holding doctor bills and space to write in the date and amount of each bill so that the beneficiary will know immediately when he reaches the $50 each year. After that, the medical insurance plan pays 80 percent of the reasonable charges for covered expenses for the remainder of the year.

Arnold said that all new medicare beneficiaries will receive the kit when they sign up for medical insurance. Those who already have medical insurance coverage should write, telephone, or visit the social security office to obtain this free kit. The office is located at 306 S. Florida Avenue, telephone 686-6193.

Also, people who need help in completing a medical insurance claim are urged to get in touch with the social security office. We know that these claims—especially the first claim—can be confusing to people," said Arnold, "and we will be glad to help in every way possible."

Mr. and Mrs. McManus recent visitors from Madison, Wis., were so thrilled with our court and neighbors after one month stay have purchased adjoining property from the Percy's and will be moving to Sebring. Good luck to both the Percy's and the McManus' in their new homes.

Our Canadian friends, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Rollins visited Mrs. Scheepers and Mr. Fontaine this past week. Glad to have you folks visit again.

Major and Mrs. Phillip Hicks and children were recent guests of Charles and Anna Barnes. Major Hicks has been transferred to Goldsborough, N. C. Wish all of you good luck.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoehne of Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hoehne and sister Mabel will soon leave for their summer homes. We have so enjoyed the Hoehnes while here and have marvelled at his garden and its results along with Mr. Barnes who seemed to grow watermelons overnight. As it turned out the two gardeners have had lots of fun and shared with all the court.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller of Minn., were week guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Carpenter. While here they visited the Shell Factory at Ft. Myers, the Passion Play, Busch Gardens and various drives through our own area.

Mrs. Lillian Brock from Hollywood, sister of Mrs. Arthur Roberts spent the week with the Roberts'. Mr. and Mrs. Hollaway of New York and Lorna Stoner of Sebring were all guests in the Robert's home. The Roberts' celebrated their second anniversary this past week. May the entire court take this opportunity to wish many more to this fine couple.

The court enjoyed sandwiches and other delicious foods prepared by the ladies in a farewell luncheon. This is the time of year old friends return to their summer homes and those of us who remain wish all a safe return and God willing we will meet again next year.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes have their daughter and family with them this easter weekend. Welcome folks, hope you enjoy your visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Rettinger of Penn., were guests of Mrs. Helen Sieau and family. Mr. and Mrs. Rettinger had just returned from European visit to Spain, Germany and Holland. From Avon they would go to Ft. Myers before returning to Pa.

Fast Feathers

The ostrich is flightless, but can run at a speed of 40 miles per hour.

First Crash

According to records, the first auto accident occurred May 30, 1896, in New York City, when Henry Wells' auto collided with Lady cyclist Evelyn Thomas.

Potent Pointers

An arrow poison so potent that one drop can kill a man if it enters his bloodstream is used by bushmen of the Kalahari wasteland of southern Africa. The poison is obtained from the pupa of a beetle by the primitive tribes men.

SPEEDY "COKER FUEL" Says...

"LP-Gas is economical . . .
Cooking costs, with LP-Gas, average as much as 53% less than with electricity. Your LP-Gas water heater will operate at half the cost of the same size electric water heater, and home heating with gas is far cheaper.
The low initial cost of installing your LP-Gas unit is rapidly paid off in fuel savings, and most gas appliances not only cost less, but their simplicity means fewer problems and fewer repair bills!

"LP-Gas is comfortable . . .
Comfortable! Your LP-Gas water heater that operates at less than half the cost heats your water twice as fast. Moreover, you have a continuous supply of hot water, even during maximum use periods.
Thermostatically controlled LP-Gas heat will maintain the temperature of your home at the level you desire while fresh air ducts insure that the air in your home is never polluted or stale.

"LP-Gas is dependable . . .
You'll never have power failure, surge, or sag in your LP-Gas home. Your LP-Gas installation is all yours, and your LP-Gas man will keep a constant check to insure that the supply is always ready at the turn of a knob.

"LP-Gas cooks better . . .
Ask most any housewife and she will tell you that the steady, even, blue gas flame brings out that food flavor that her family appreciates most. That same blue flame allows you to set the heat at exactly the temperature level you desire.

"LP-Gas is safe and clean . . .
Fire underwriters have proven that there is less danger of fire in the use of gas than electricity.
Food particles and air impurities that come in contact with the blue flame burn rather than smoulder as they do when they come in contact with electric elements. Positive control of the heat level in gas produces less possibility of spillage and boiling over than with pre set electric heat levels.

Compare the cost of LP Gas vs. Electricity

—One gallon propane (LP-Gas) at top efficiency equals 91,300* BTU's.
—One kilowatt hour of electricity at top efficiency equals 3,416 BTU's.
This means it takes 26.7 kilowatt hours of electricity to equal one gallon of propane (LP-Gas)!!

FOR EXAMPLE:

An electric rate of:	Is the same as if you used Propane at a cost of:
2.0¢ per Kwh	40¢ per gal.
2.1¢ per Kwh	42¢ per gal.
2.2¢ per Kwh	44¢ per gal.
2.3¢ per Kwh	46¢ per gal.
2.4¢ per Kwh	48¢ per gal.
2.5¢ per Kwh	50¢ per gal.
2.6¢ per Kwh	52¢ per gal.
2.7¢ per Kwh	54¢ per gal.
2.8¢ per Kwh	56¢ per gal.
2.9¢ per Kwh	58¢ per gal.
3.0¢ per Kwh	60¢ per gal.

This figure based on LP-Gas at 75% efficiency.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

My father celebrated his 86th birthday and someone congratulated him and said, "Well, I see you have reached another milestone."

The term milestone means a thousand paces. It dates back to the time of the Roman emperor, Augustus.

It seems that thoughtful man decided to measure all distances from a stone he erected in the Roman Forum which he called a milliarium. Considering a pace to be five feet, 1,000 paces from the stone was supposed to represent one mile.

In building roads, other stones were erected at particular locations with the emperor's name, and also the date and place from which a distance was measured.

It was only natural, then, to apply the term milestone to other courses in life, such as the date of graduation from school or the time when a young man obtained his first job.

Today, the term is loosely used to mean most anything from a first kiss to the anniversary of one's birth.

PLENTY TO WATCH, and who knows where the Viet Cong may be hiding. Surveying open swampland near Quan Binh Son is a member of Korea's Second Marine Brigade in South Vietnam.

Pictorial INTELLIGRAM

How are you on recent events? Complete the following six statements, checking your answers with those below, to find out:

1—Rumors of marital troubles swirled recently around pictured British royalty (Earl of Highs) (Lord Snowden).
2—United States lowers flag in (France) (Somalia) after being ordered out by that nation's chief of state.
3—Moscow officials snub (Richard Nixon) (Llewellyn Thompson) by refusing to grant him an interview.
4—Widespread opposition forces President Johnson to postpone efforts to merge two cabinet-level departments, (Interior and Transportation) (Labor and Commerce).
5—New constitution drawn up for South Vietnam calls for (two-house) (one-house) assembly.

Count 10 for each correct choice. A score of 60 is excellent, 50, good, 40, fair; less than 40, poor.

Decoded Intelligram

1—Lord Snowden. 2—France. 3—Nixon. 4—Labor and Commerce. 5—two-house. 6—Perry Russo.

In the News

NEW AMBASSADOR to South Vietnam from the United States will be Ellsworth Bunker, succeeding Henry Cabot Lodge, who has held that post since 1963. Bunker has been serving as a roving ambassador in recent years and has been in the news at various other times as ambassador to Argentina, Italy and India, and as a troubleshooter for President Johnson during the Dominican crisis in 1965.

Here's the Answer

Life With The Rimples By Les Carroll

Come spring, the birds will be calling for their mates and the back yard will be calling for the mower. . . .

Favorite game of children is ring around the bathtub.

Boy, she's got everything, Dad. Four on the floor, three deuces, slicks, duals, traction masters, big swinger tach, spinners, metal flake flames, lake plugs, and the sweetest California rake in sixteen counties.

This is a language called "teenage." Automobile dealers know how to speak it. Because 18.1% of all used-car purchases in 1965 were made by the under-25 set. And economists predict that the teenage market will influence the spending of $30 billion in 1966—and buy more cars than ever.

If you want to reach this rich teenage market—how do you get your message across? Easy.

Just about three-fourths of all adults under thirty read the daily newspaper. 90% of all people who will buy a car this year read the daily newspaper.

So if you want to sell cars (or anything else) to the teenage market (or to anybody) turn to the newspaper reading public first. Dollar for dollar, newspapers are your best advertising buy. Newspapers speak everybody's language.

WHERE DID YOU GET THAT SILVERWARE?

Next time you take up a knife and fork give a thought to the monk of 1480 who wrote, "It is wrong to grab your food with both hands; meat should be taken with three fingers."

And fingers it was, until a gold fork for eating mulberries was given to Charles VII of France in the 15th century. Before then, few people had even heard of forks! Diners picked up food with the sharp point of their knives, and at first forks were only used to steady the dish while the diner carved the meat.

When he traveled to Italy in 1611, an Englishman, Coryat, saw people there using forks to eat meat. Upon his return home, he introduced the practice in his own country. At first, forks were scorned as effeminate, and men went on eating with their fingers.

While no one knows for sure when knives were introduced, historians believe that primitive man may have used a crude knife of shell or flint to saw off bits of meat.

The first spoons appeared on ancient Egyptian tables 4,000 years ago. The teaspoon was introduced in 1650, for exactly that purpose. The first ones were only about one-third the size of those we use today. Often they had perforated bowls. After stirring tea, these "strainer bowls" were used to lift stray leaves from the cup.

Today's homemaker prefers the gleam of silver—even to start off the day, when she has guests in for a special breakfast. Silver, such as Reed & Barton's new sterling flatware pattern, "Spanish Baroque," with each handle richly and deeply carved in a design of enfolding acanthus leaves, plays an important part in the table's decoration.

But a modern hostess who owns silverware of which she's proud, wouldn't think of emulating the lady of not too many years ago who, when she invited guests to dine, also requested that they bring their own eating utensils!

Big Cars Favored at Sebring

Sixty Cars Roar Off in Sebring Start

Could Be Chaparral, Ford Or Ferrari to Beat Smalls

This could be a Chaparral year, or a Ford or a Ferrari year.

Earlier this year, when the Ferrari factory decided to send its factory racing team to Sebring, the choice was between the Ferrari and Chaparrals for the 12 Hour race.

Some racing people point out the efficiency of the small cars, and give them an outside chance to beat out the large cars. But if doesn't seem like it.

Still, there are the Ferrari 330s, completely new, and the new Alfa Romeo, which have not been seen in competition. Nobody knows exactly what these cars can do, except the people driving and working with them.

A Ford prototype is entered which never has been seen in competition. It is a two-litre Porsche, always tough to beat.

The 12 Hours of Sebring will be run Saturday, April 1, preceded by the 4 Hour Sedan race Friday, Mar. 31.

FASTEST RACE

Sebring's 12 Hour this year should be the fastest race ever run here.

Drivers who have seen the revamped course, eliminating the death dealing Webster Turn and replacing it with the Green Acres Chicane, say the change will take seconds off the record, although the distance is the same.

Drivers Jim Hall, millionaire Hap Sharp and Joakim Bonnier, president of the Grand Prix drivers association on safety have seen the course and concur in this according to Ted Wehbe, press officer for the races.

A total of 60 cars, the limit, have been entered this year, with Porsche sending 12 private owners and the North American Racing Team of Ferrari sending nine Ferraris, and Ford sending six entries. There is a sizable list of reserve entries.

Ford, which swept the first three places last year, has two factory entries, two from England, one from New York and one from Italy. One Ford Cobra is entered.

FORD AFTER WIN

Ford is sending its greatest drivers to bring home the kumquats — and anything else in sight. Mario Andretti, current United States Automobile Club champion and Bruce McClaren of Australia are paired in one of the factory entries. A.J. Foyt, four time national champion of U.S.A.C. is paired with Lloyd Ruby, last year's Sebring winner, in the other.

Andretti is racing's biggest and busiest star after only two years in USAC, and two years of winning the USAC National Championship. Foyt won the Indianapolis race in 1961 and 1964.

Porsche will go for the win with Swiss, German and American driving teams, including Hans Herrmann of Germany, a former Sebring winner. Herrmann is teamed with Jo Siffert of Switzerland.

Among the Ferrari drivers are Count Lorenzo Lessona of Rome, Italy; David Piper, of England, and an all-girl team of Denise McCluggage of Vermont and Pinky Rolin, of Virginia, representing the North-ern Vermont Racing Team and driving a Ferarri Berlinetta 275 GTB.

CHAPARRAL IS THREAT

Chaparral, the big winner in 1965, has three entries with Bob Johnson, Brian Jennings and Jim Hall in a 2D. Phil Hill, Jim Hall and Mike Spence in a 2F. Gary Jackson and Vernon Halverston will be in a Special prototype owned by Jack Dindoff of Vancouver, B.C. Hall, Sharp, and Hill all are past Sebring winners.

Among other drivers who are well known at the Sebring event are a former winner Joakim Bonnier of Sweden, who will be in a Lola Sp. Prototype; Buck Fulp, of Greenwood, S.C. in a Lola T70 Mk. 3; Umberto Maglioli, of Brescia, Italy, a former owner, in a Ford GT40; Mil Vega of Tampa in a Triumph TR4A; Paddy Hopkirk of Ireland, in an MG prototype.

Ed Hugus of Pennsylvania in a Porsche Carr. 6; George Wallman of New York in an OSCA Maserati Berlinetta; Timo Makinen of Finland and John Rhodes of England in an Austin Healey Sprite and Anita Taylor of England and Smokey Drolet of Miami in an Alpine KLG.

Among cars entered are two Volvos, two Shelby Americans, three Triumphs, two Corvette Stingrays, a Howmet Sprint, a Jaguar XKE, four MGs, a Diva, a Beach, three Alfa Romeos, a Lancia, and ASA prototype and a Matra French Le Mans jet 58.

4-Hr. Entries Set Record

Sixty five cars have entered the Four Hour Trans American sedan championship race to be run March 31, starting at noon, nearly doubling last year's entries. And these are "one or two" reserves.

This will be the first time that the race counts towards the coveted Sports Car Club of American championship points.

three of last year's winners in their class will be back to defend, including Bob Tullius, Falls Church, Va., second over all winner in his Dodge Dart.

Ray Cuomo, New York City, who won in Class Five (850-1300cc) in a Fiat Abarth will team with Frank Dominian to drive a Fiat Abarth again.

John Trembly, who won in Classes 6-7 (1300-1600cc) in a B.M.C. Mini-Cooper will team with Dr. J. Peter Martinelli of Madeira Beach in Martinelli's Austin Mini Cooper S.

Camaro will be really trying this year with 11 entries and there are eight Mustangs entered. Other cars include Dodge Dart (2), Mercury Cougar (3), Porsche 911 (3), Alfa Romeo GTA (4), Ford Cortina (4).

There will be one each of B.M.C. Cooper, Morris Cooper, Austin Cooper S, Morris Minor, Ford Anglia, NSU 1000, Sunbeam Imp, Lotus Cortina, Ford Falcon Sprint and GMW 1800.

Among the better known drivers are Joey Chitwood, Jr., who will be in a Camaro; Hud Sherk, of Tampa in a Dodge Dart; Dan Gurney, of California, in a Mercury Cougar; Bob Grossman, of New York, in a Mustang.

Howard Hanna, of Pennsylvania, and Howard Brown, of New York, teamed in an Alfa Romeo GTA; Paddy Hopkirk, of Ireland, and John Rhodes, in a B.M.C. Cooper S; Claudio Maglioli, in a Lancia Fulvia HG and Parnelli Jones, of California, in a Mercury Cougar.

Cortina will be remembered as the little Ford 4 cylinder sedan whose manufacturers thought it would make a fine family car — and then it proceeded to win races and endurance competitions all over the world, including the famed and rugged African safari.

Last Year's Winners Savor Victory Champagne

Winners Try For Repeat

Six past overall winners in the 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance will be seeking repeat wins here this year.

They are Lloyd Ruby, of Wichita Falls, Texas, who won last year in a Ford with Ken Miles, who later was killed in a California crash; Umberto Maglioli of Italy, Joakim Bonnier, the goateed driver from Sweden; Jim Hall, of Texas, Phil Hill of California and Hans Herrmann of Germany.

Ruby this year will be teamed with four times national champion A. J. Foyt of Texas in a Ford GT Prototype.

Maglioli who was co-driver with Mike Parks in the winning Ferrari in 1964, will pair with Mario Cassoni of Italy. They will be in a Ford GT40.

Bonnier, who with Lucian Bianchi won in a Ferrari in 1963, will team with Charles Vogele of Switzerland in a Lola Sp. Prototype.

Hall, who won with Hap Sharp in Chaparral in 1965, will team with Bob Johnson and Bruce Jennings in a Chaparral 2D and with Phil Hill and Mike Spence in a Chaparral 2F.

Hill, who with Oliver Gendebien is the only three-time winner of the Grand Prix, always in Ferraris, will be in a Chaparral, as already noted.

Hermann, who won in 1960 with Gendebien in a Porsche, will be trying again in a Porsche with Jo Siffert of Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. Grand Prix

THE ULMANNS, Alec and Mary, are the people who brought the race to Sebring and who are the moving force behind it. Ulmann began the race as a hobby and it grew and it grew. He gives his charming blonde wife Mary credit as the financial genius who keeps things moving these days.

Taxes Influence Size Of Cars

Race Secretary Reginald Smith points out the differences in the European and American cars again this year — the smaller, European cars which can outperform larger cars, the larger, more powerful American cars.

"The reason for the difference," he pointed out, "as anyone in automobiles knows, taxes in Europe are based on engine size and gas is expensive, so they try for smaller engines with higher performance and less consumption of gas. In America, gas is cheaper and the tax is not based on engine size."

GOATEED JOAKIM BONNIER, winner in 1962 with Lucian Bianchi, will race in the 12-hour this year in a Lola Sp. Prototype with Charles Vogele of Switzerland, owner of the car, as his partner.

PHIL HILL, one of two three-time winners of the 12-hour, will be trying for the big one again this year in a Chaparral 2F with Mike Spence of England and Jim Hall of Texas.

UMBERTO MAGLIOLI, of Italy, winner in 1966 in a Ferrari with Mike Parkes of England, will race this year in a Ford GT 40 with Mario Cassoni of Brescia Italy. Maglioli is a Sebring favorite.

HANS HERRMANN of Germany, winner in 1960 in a Porsche with three-time winner Oliver Gendebien of France, will be riding a Porsche with Jo Siffert of Switzerland as his partner.

JIM HALL with his partner Hap Sharp won in a Chaparral in 1965. The tall Texan will be back again this year racing in the 12-hour with Bob Johnson of Ohio and Bruce Jennings of Maryland

LLOYD RUBY, a winner of both Daytona and Sebring, will be teamed this year in a Ford GT prototype with A. J. Foyt a fellow Texan, an Indianapolis winner and four times national champion.

16-Year History of Sebring Race

It was just 16 years ago that high-powered racing cars first roared onto the Sebring scene, crowding out the odor of orange blossoms with the heady smell of the raceway.

Sebring did not know at the time – nobody did – but history would be forever changed . . .

Sebring would become an international word . . . and the world of racing would touch almost every family in one way or another.

Today the Sebring Race Course is one of four tracks around the way of where Grand Prix is held for the World Challenge Cup.

Once a year, some 80,000 people converge on this city of 10,000 people and it becomes world headquarters for race buffs. It has developed a degree of sophistication not found in most Central Florida cities – although it probably is the only road race in the world which cannot begin before an invocation by a resident minister.

Press, radio and TV people sending out their information to all parts of the world, come to see the spectacle and write about it; as the cars and drivers fight it out for supremacy, and accessory people are busy with the car manufacturers, gnaw their nails waiting for the winners.

It is big business. The winners and the products that win them – tires, gas and oil – provide gifts for the winning pilots for many months, even years to come. And against this background, the roar of the airwaves and the warm words from sports writers and announcers to whom the event has become a must.

The first race in Sebring was held on New Year's Eve, 1950, and the man behind it was a chamber [illegible] Ulmann, who had been fascinated by automobiles since he was a small child in Russia.

At 5 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 31, 1950, the flag dropped, and 28 drivers sprinted across the track to the 28 cars lined up for the Le Mans type start.

Most racing in the United States in 1950 took place on small clubs where only the members raced. The first Sebring race was sponsored by Sports Car Club of America and Ulmann was the activities chairman. He had discovered the site, the former Hendricks Air Base, when he flew over it to deliver a plane.

What started as that first race as a hobby with Ulmann became a compulsive drive to make this a real international race. The rules for international racing are drawn up in Paris and are standard around the world.

The next year, Alec, a master of the art of how to get what he wanted, was chairman and his wife, Mary, was secretary. Ulmann and his wife have been the mainstay of the 12 Hour Race from the first. The 12 Hour Race was held on March 31, 1951.

There was no race in 1952 . . . there was no money . . . there was no race.

Ulmann and his wife, Mary, were the mainstay of the race. Ulmann was the chairman and Mary was the secretary.

Local Concessions

Would you believe that it ranges everyone in Sebring to feed the Race fans? Sebring organization members can believe it — easily.

As for one of the general food concessions and some of the specialty concessions are operated by 15 different civic and religious groups, working under the supervision of the Sebring Enterprises committee. Miles Baker, long time chairman of this committee, announced this week some changes in the concession assignments for 1967 Race.

Lake Placid Jaycees have taken over several food and concession stand near the new dirt over bridge. They are replacing the Salvation Army which is dropping out after many years as Race workers.

The changes made in the track has led to some shifts in locations. A new concession row is being opened to serve the camping area.

We believe there is going to be great spectator interest in the area where the cars come off the warehouse straight and swing into the new double turn," Baker said. "To serve this area we are moving three concessions from other areas.

A commercial concession unit is being moved along with the Knights of Columbus and Avon Park Firemen booths.

Baker's committee has made arrangements with Florida Power for installation of a new power line to serve the camping area — a move Baker believes will be a popular improvement.

Sebring Jaycees are handling the ice concession again this year and have promised to make delivery of not less than 75 tons of ice for the food concessions. "We hope to have much more than that available," Baker said.

Sebring Lions Club, which operates the Paddock area food stand, is usually one of the first to open. Jim Crawford, chairman, said the Lions booth will open on Wednesday. A few more stands are added on the succeeding days, with everyone planning to be of top strength for the Saturday lunch rush.

A commercial food handler operating from trucks and a tent near the ramp by the first hairpin, is the only place within the race area which provides a full meal.

Baker readily admits that running concessions with volunteer organizations is "doing things the hard way," but believes that local residents and race fans alike enjoy the unique Sebring approach.

Alfa Romeo Has New Cars

Three brand new prototype sports racing cars have been entered in the Grand Prix of Endurance by the Alfa Romeo factory at Milan, Italy.

These cars are the 2-liter 8-cylinder engine Alfa Romeo. Four have had previous experience over the demanding Sebring course. There are seven with the new 1½ liter.

Giacomo Russo driver for the factory race team and will be joined with Pedro Rodriguez, Lorenzo De Adamich, will team with Teodoro Zeccoli, both experienced Sebring drivers, and Ludovico Scarfiotti. Each car will comprise the third entry.

The addition of the three Alfa Prototypes (Tipo 33) to the GT class into a three-way race with Porsche and Ferrari Dino of the other two big competitors.

Prizes amounting to over $7,000 in Sebring Grand Prize are to be awarded for the Speed and Endurance Awards Challenge. Criteria for classification in the competition governed first and foremost by the rules governing the Sebring event. There are seven awards in all.

The following Four Hour International Trans-American champion will count towards the S.C.C.A. Trans-American championship.

Auto Hall Of Fame Is In Making

The one and only Automobile Hall of Fame in the world is located in Sebring.

Of course it now is contained in a room at Sebring Shores Country Club, but its backers have great hopes for it—million dollar hopes.

Until last year — and the setting up of the Hall of Fame here — the greats of the automobile world had no place of honor and recognition.

To fill this void, the leading business men of Highlands county, encouraged by Chambers of Commerce and the mayors of Sebring, Lake Placid and Avon Park met. Attorney Frank Bryant drew up articles of incorporation for a non-profit corporation, which has been granted by the State of Florida. More than 1,000 citizens signed the application for the charter.

According to plans, the Automobile Hall of Fame will house actual or working models of every great automotive advance — the earliest cars and engines — designs which show the evolution of the automobile from the "horseless carriages" of Elwood Haynes and Louis Chevrolet, through the fleeting starbursts of the Stanley Steamer, the Mercer, the Locomobile, the Franklin and the Cord, down to the present and on to the future Buck Rogers concepts of the space age.

Won in Dart

BOB TULLIUS, winner here last year of his class in the Four-Hour and winner this year at Daytona, will be back to repeat his win in the Four-Hour. He hails from Falls Church, Va.

PEDRO RODRIGUEZ, famed Mexican racing driver, will be driving a Ferrari as part of the Ferrari North American Racing Team out of New York. Pedro and his late brother, Richardo, raced here as a team.

The Mercedes-Benz 250S— the $6400 car that doesn't wallow, waddle, sway, sag or butter up your ego

This new Mercedes-Benz sedan gives you all the roominess of other $6400 cars—without an ounce of fat. You ride on a fully independent suspension, stop with 4-wheel disc brakes. Result: the 250S outpaces the $6400 fat cats as an athlete outpaces a gang of fat men. Read more about this superbly engineered machine, built for driving.

EXCESS size and weight in a car may tickle your vanity, but they sabotage performance.

The practical-minded men who designed the Mercedes-Benz 250S refused to pad this machine with needless bulk. It weighs a ton less than its overweight rivals. It's two feet shorter overall.

Yet inside, five adults find plentiful seating room. More rear seat hiproom than the newest Rolls-Royce. More headroom than a Lincoln Continental. More shoulder room than an Oldsmobile Toronado.

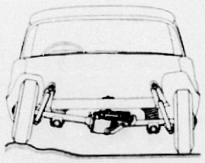

Four secrets: thin-profile doors, side windows that curve into the roof, recessed floor pan—and a ban on styling tricks that cut passenger space.

Designed around its occupants and not a "styling theme," the new Mercedes-Benz 250S sedan provides plentiful room for five—and 87% unobstructed visibility for the driver. A refreshingly sane car.

Fundamentals, not gimmicks

You invest in superior engineering with the 250S, not trivial doodads.

For example, you ride on a suspension that makes most other $6400 sedans seem like museum pieces. It's fully independent; the rear axle is split into two halves to blot up bumps and grip the road as no conventional "solid rear axle" can.

Mercedes-Benz swing axle pivots in center, lets rear wheels flex separately over bumps.

Tenacious road holding and taut, wallow-free ride are musts for European driving. As you'll find on curves, country lanes and in city traffic, they translate beautifully to American conditions.

Note: An ingenious hydropneumatic compensating spring automatically pumps up to keep the 250S riding level, regardless of loads. Even if you add 600 pounds to the trunk, the stern won't sink.

Stopping made easy

It doesn't take a technical whiz to know why the 250S out-stops virtually every car in its class. Its brakes are 4-wheel disc brakes, the most advanced system available. Baffling, how no domestic "luxury" car has adapted 4-wheel disc brakes.

"The car has enormous stopping power," says Car and Driver Magazine. And it stays enormous—even after repeated panic stops. A small valve in the 250S brake system balances front and rear braking forces to prevent rear wheel lockup in sudden hard stops.

Not a blunderbuss

Since the 250S isn't an oversized behemoth, it doesn't need an oversized behemoth of an engine to propel it.

At that, the overhead camshaft 6-cylinder engine up front is hardly puny; you can purr along at over 100 mph as long as it's legal.

"There is as little inside noise at 100 mph as at a standstill," comments New York Herald Tribune columnist, Leo Levine.

This engine is one of the most exquisitely well built machines of its kind in the world. After hours of patient hand assembly, it undergoes a patient hour of all-out testing on a special stand—with oil changed 62 times to flush away debris.

Built to last

You can reasonably expect years of uncomplaining service from the 250S.

Rattles are squelched by a body welded at 10,000 points. Rust is thwarted with 24 lbs. of primer paint and 24 lbs. of a thick, plasticized permanent undercoat. And every 250S body spends 3 hours being hammered, filed, sanded and buffed before painting.

"One is automatically impressed with the obvious high quality of every single switch, gauge, control, carpet, and piece of upholstery," comments Car and Driver on the 250S interior. "The seats are as good as any in the world." A three-way adjustment raises, lowers or tilts the driver's seat to any desired position—even horizontal, for catnaps.

Comfortable note: Rear-seat passengers aren't afterthoughts in the 250S. They sit high enough for a clear view of the road ahead, on a divan-type seat as relaxing on long trips as those up front.

A word on safety

Mercedes-Benz has received widespread publicity about its safety engineering achievements over the past several years.

Work continues to make Mercedes-Benz cars even safer, both in avoiding trouble, and in protecting you if trouble should occur.

For sane drivers, Mercedes-Benz cars can help reduce the hazards of driving—without dulling its pleasures.

But however well engineered it may be, no car can entirely defend against the show-off, the drunkard, or the neurotic bent on self-destruction. Safety depends on you, too.

Race Secretary

REGINALD N. SMITH has been with the Sebring races since the very beginning. First on a part time basis and now full time as race secretary doing promotion public relations and acting as general manager of operations. A Britisher, he came to this country with the British Purchasing Commission and in 1945 met Alec Ulmann. Their love of racing brought them together.

Band Plays Part In Race Ceremonies

An appearance by the Sebring High School band is as much a part of the Race Day ceremonies as the LeMans start. The Blue Streak band weathers the traffic and dust to get to the track early to be ready for the pre-race ceremonies which begin a half hour ahead of the race's opening flag.

The Sebring band has been specializing in making noteworthy appearances ever since the band was founded in 1927. The city's Rotary Club sparked the organization of the band and persuaded Peter J. Gustat to come from El Paso, Tex. to become director.

The band has been under Gustat direction ever since — until 1956 under Peter J. Gustat and since that time under his son Paul.

Before the band was 10 years old Director Gustat had moved the Sebring band from competition among the Class C schools into competition in Class A (the schools with much larger enrollments than Sebring).

Although the Class A schools are larger, Sebring has consistently won top ratings in marching and concert competition. The adults of the town are just as proud of the Blue Streak Band as the SHS students.

Press Officer

TED WEBBE, internationally known radio personality will, a show on NBC's national hookup each Saturday and Sunday, is press officer for the Sebring Grand Prix of Endurance. He is Motor sports editor of NBC Monitor network, holding this position since 1958. Another job is that of anchor man for coast-to-coast broadcasting from the Daytona Speedway in February and July for the 500 in May and National 500 in October. He is Chief announcer at Nassau Bahamas speed Week each December. Mrs. Webbe, Helen and Ted are a team, she going along as coordinator.

Sebring Prettied For Race

Sebring this year promises to be the prettiest for Race Week in their history.

In addition to a multimillion dollar face-lifting — with paving of the Sebring Circuit completed — the entire airport has been rejuvenated as the down town utility poles a bright six tenths of a mile to the banked curve being hung from the poles.

Pots of flowering plants have been placed along downtown streets and banners are everywhere.

Sebring, already one of the fastest growing beautiful cities, is ready for company!

All cars in the 12 hour must be equipped with a fire extinguisher securely mounted within the car and within reach of the driver, but the passenger seat must not be obstructed.

Law Enforcement Help Coming for Race

Prevention of serious trouble in a very large crowd in Sebring is the task assigned to Highway Patrol Captain Sheriff Broward Coker, and Florida Highway Patrol Capt. Lake Rasmussen during Race Week.

Extra equipment—traffic batteries, lights, etc.—began arriving in the Sheriff's office early on March 1. Extra help began to arrive as early as Monday of this week with an extra man hired Friday.

Professional law enforcement people have been given the Sheriff Department and by the Sheriff himself.

Florida Highway Patrol has assigned 40 troopers for Race duty. Two will be assigned to the Highway Patrol Assistant Director.

Trained lawmen who make up the auxiliary police group, a hundred or so, have been given special commissions with the beginning of the school weekend. Throughout the week members of the Sheriff's Reserve will have been available for all sorts of special tasks — including operation of two helicopters for police runs to the race.

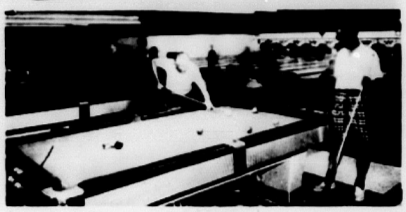

For special emergency service the Sheriff has at his disposal four National Guard units that can be on duty here in a matter of hours. This is a precautionary measure. The Sheriff explained, but we do have the best Sheriff units available in every special emergency service.

Sheriff Coker said he was expecting some help from city police in Lake Placid, Avon Park and Sebring, but that traffic control would be enough to keep all these men busy for the whole week.

"We own regular staff has been on special duty all week. There is no time off during Race Week, everyone is on 12 hour call," he said. "They will be on hand to assist the public in any way possible, but we do have the responsibility to catch up on anything that had to slide while we were busy with the Race.

"Our entire concern is not with the cars you could find by examining the records for several years, and comparing them with Race time. Prevention is the idea—try to head off any real trouble before it starts. We want the crowd to be a friendly crowd, we hope for a good time for all, we try to go along with them as much as possible."

Welcome RACE FANS to HIGHLANDS COUNTY!

It is with pleasure that we welcome the many race fans to this part of Florida this week.

While here for the races, we invite you to take a breather and relax by bowling at our modern lanes. You will discover modern facilities for the bowler and if you prefer to play billiards, we have that too!

See the many advantages offered the newcomer to Highlands County. It's really fun living here. Enjoy your stay and come back again soon — and often!

By ANN McAULAY

As the Sebring Grand Prix has got its start, the social side of the race has become more important each year, and bigger.

Kicking off a busy week of social events was the Alec Ulmann ARCF party on Thursday, March 4, at the Sebring Shores Country Club. Be sure to be there next week. The event, held at the Sebring Shores Country Club on the terrace overlooking the golf course, is an annual affair for the invitation list comprised of famous drivers and personalities attends a smattering of Sebring area society and a whole potpourri of celebrities from all over the world.

The first party of the week was the Sebring Shores Reception, hosted by Sebring Shores Golf Club, in honor of Alec and Mary Ulmann, at the Club House on March 5. Many Appointments are guests representing Highlands county, Sebring and Avon Park made up the invitation list for the event, highlighted with a style show of the latest fashions.

Kenilworth Lodge was the setting of the Wednesday, March 3rd Pre-Race Cocktail Party, hosted by Pratap Singh, famous honoring drivers and visiting dignitaries.

Highlighting the busy week is the gala gathering of all other social affairs, the annual Grand Prix Ball and Queen's Coronation, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club of Sebring on Thursday, March 11, at Pinecrest Lodge. During the coronation ceremony, performed in regal elegance, the queen will be named and created by the reigning queen, Mrs. Wallace Strait. The new queen's entry will be escorted around the ballroom to a grand waltz, and will be presented with the roses and orchids of her court.

The candidates are: Mrs. James Price, Rotary; Mrs. E. G. Barton, Exes Club; Mrs. Ray DeLoney, Jaycees; Mrs. George Richardson, Sebring Woman's Club; Mrs. Bill Cliff, Southgate Merchants Association, and Mrs. Ken Wilkinson, Kiwanis Club.

Governors and dignitaries attending a carpeted spiral staircase, a large dazzling ballroom, are treated to an evening complete with all the flair and splendor of a Cinderella Ball.

Also an event of Thursday night is the annual Grand Prix Party, honoring drivers, race officials, marshals and stewards. This event follows the annual night practice for drivers of the race.

Bringing to a close the busy social week are the significant affairs on Friday, March 12. At Sebring's Kenilworth Lodge, hosts the annual Grand Prix Eve Dance and Variety Show, which is attended by the Ace Ulmanns and other racing stars and notables.

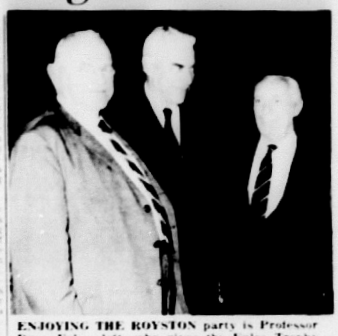

Special entertainment has included many top Miami Beach entertainers such as guitarist Ira Sabatino, Bobby Rydell, Latin exotic dancer, Abby Rico, and others.

Also on Friday night, the Sebring Woman's Club will present its annual Pre-Race Party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Francesco Royale, American motor racing enthusiasts from Philadelphia, at the Sebring Country Club. Mrs. Royale is a member of the Sebring Woman's Club. The affair is intended to bring together all of the friends and racing enthusiasts from all over Europe, plus a number from the local society set. This party is the last of the pre-race festivities, with the big race itself on Saturday, March 13. Trophies will be awarded before an attendance of race entrants and senior officials. Officials dignitaries of the Auto Club of Florida will be present during the week of social activities.

Improvements at the Sebring race track are now complete, and Sebring and Sebring fans are including safety rails, pits and sanitary facilities.

Mrs. Mary Ulmann, treasurer of the Automobile Racing Club of Florida, has a budget of around $250,000 to work with each year, with which to stage the races.

Cars competing in the 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance, that will start their car lights on at 6:30 P.M.

Flags Play Big Part In Racing

Even a casual fan knows that a checkered flag signals the end of the race, but flags are special means of communication throughout the race — not just the beginning and end.

Jesse Coleman of Chamblee, Ga., as chief starter, will drop the green flag Saturday which says to the drivers: "The course is clear, you may begin" — the signal which in Sebring sets the drivers to sprinting for their cars.

Then the chief flag and communication marshal, Kirk Fousher, takes over and begins the work of the 30-odd flagmen who are manning 14 flag stations around the course. Fousher has been a station flagman many Sebring races, but his is his first race as chief. This will be Coleman's 12th year to start the 12 Hours of Sebring.

From his station in flag tower he is linked by radio and telephone lines to the flagging points. The signal he would be most reluctant to order is a red flag — which means that all drivers are to come to a complete and immediate halt and given only when a final accidents condition makes continuation of the race too hazardous.

More common would be a black flag which tells a driver to stop in the pits, or a blue flag, which means you are being overtaken; give the other fellow room to get around.

A yellow flag means be careful and usually is the one which comes out after a spin-out or accident has created a problem on the track. A track hazard, such as an oil slick, is signaled by use of a yellow flag with red strip.

A white flag indicates an emergency vehicle — such as a fire truck or ambulance — is on the course.

Each of the flag stations has six or more licensed flagmen in its crew.

The Starter

JESSE COLEMAN of Chamblee, Ga., has been the starter of the races for many years. He will drop the flag for the 12th straight year on Saturday.

This is the Famed LeMans Start

Ferrari at Sebring

Will Ferrari, with nine of their fabulous new factory cars competing, move back into first place in the 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance this year?

It has been three years since these sports cars have won first place.

Ferrari has been the winner at the Sebring race more times than any other international in 1962 and won the 12-Hour Grand Prix in 1960.

Last year Ferrari finished one of the first six cars to cross the finish line, but the drivers who had the toughest wreaths of first place overall flung around their necks seven out of the first eight times the race has been run.

Their biggest year was 1960, when they made a grand sweep, capturing the first six places. They came back the next year and took the first three places.

Then came 1963. And a car named Chaparral. And the wizardry of Hap Sharp and Jim Hall. This team took the first place spot as Ferrari sank to third, fourth and fifth place. Ferrari took the seats of the late Ken Miles and Bruce McLaren of New Zealand driving.

Came 1966 and the Fords. They took the first three places, with Ken Miles and Lloyd Ruby driving, while Ferrari could manage only a fifth place. Ford set a new record of 95.51 mph in the win.

Winners Get More This Year

Cash prizes are up this year. From first place to fourth the winners will receive more cash, double in some instances, than paid for the same and similar traditional for Sebring.

The first overall car will rate a prize of $5,000—double that awarded in earlier years. The first, second and third placing cars in the World Speed and Endurance Challenge — leading successful finishing at Sebring—will win prizes of approximately $5,000, $2,000, and $1,000 plus a replica of the Challenge Trophy. This prize money is awarded in French francs!

The best known trophy of the race is the Alfalfa Cup which is the award for the winner of first overall laurels.

If the winning car is equipped with KLG (for Kenneth Lee Guiness) plugs the entrant reaps an additional $1,000 award presented by Earl Nissinger, president of Nissinger Corp.

Special cash awards are offered for the fastest timed qualifying laps in the practice periods today (Thursday), 1 to 4 P.M. and Friday, 10:11:45 A.M. Prizes of $200 each are awarded for the fastest qualifying in three classes—sports prototype, sports and grand touring.

But the most sought after prize at Sebring is neither cash nor trophies — its POINTS — points toward the world championship.

The green racing flag is dropped at the beginning of the race, a yellow flag for emergency stops, a black and white checkered flag for the finish. The red flag signals that the race has to be temporarily halted.

Winners From '66 Seek Wins

Among winners in last year's 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance, who will be seeking repeat wins, are Lloyd Ruby, of Wichita Falls, Tex., Hans Herrmann, Mainhingen, Germany, and Richard Robson of Titusville.

Ruby was the overall winner with Ken Miles in a Ford Roadster. Mr. Miles was killed last Fall in a crash in California. They also won for sports prototypes over 5000 CC.

Herrmann was teamed with Joe Buzzetta of Smithtown, N.Y., in a Porsche Carrera to win the 2001-5000 CC class. Robson was teamed with W. Backman of Sarasota in Robson's Jaguar XKE. To win the 2001-5000 CC class, grand touring.

Other winners in production sports class last year were Bob Grossman, Morristown, Pa., and Ed Lowther, McMurray, Pa., in a Ford Cobra; Peter Revson of New York and Skip Scott of Devon, Pa., in a GTO; 3001-5000 CC; George Follmer of Pasadena, Cal., and Peter Gregg, of Jacksonville, in a Porsche 904, 1601-2000 CC; Gaston Andrew, Framingham, Mass., and Giacomo Russo, of Milton Dam, in an Alfa Romeo, 1300-1600 CC; and Fred Baker of Mound, Minn., and Bill Kirby, Minneapolis, in a Renault Alpine, 1001-1300.

In the grand touring class, winners were Ben Moore of Bethlehem, Pa., and George Wintersteen, Philadelphia, in a Chevrolet Stingray, over 5000 CC; Bill Pendleton, Eugene, Ore., and Steve Frohnes, San Francisco, in a Triumph TR4A, 2001-2500 CC; and Roger Mac Pherson and Jim Emmett Brown of England in an M.G. M.G.B. 1601-2000 CC.

The winning speed of Miles and Ruby was 95.51 mph. In second place overall was a Ford Coupe MKII driven by Walt Hansgen of Bedminster, N.J. and Mark Donohue of Murray Hill, N.J. In third place were Peter Revson of New York and Skip Scott of Devon, Pa., in a Ford GT40.

The winning speed of Miles and Ruby was 95.51 mph. In second place overall was a Ford Coupe MKII driven by Walt Hansgen of Bedminster, N.J. and Mark Donohue of Murray Hill, N.J. In third place were Peter Revson of New York and Skip Scott of Devon, Pa., in a Ford GT40.

The winner's average speed was 86.3 mph.

Tullius Back for Four Hour

Bob Tullius of Falls Church, Va., will be back seeking a win in the 4 Hour in his Dodge Dart, the car in which he placed second overall last year, and first in the 3001-5000 CC class.

Jochen Hindt of Austria, who placed first overall in his Alfa Romeo and in the 1301-1600 CC class has not entered this year. Nor have Andrea de Adamich and Teodoro Zeccoli of Italy, who placed third overall in their Alfa Romeo and second to Hindt in class.

Other winners last year were Kermit Tarley of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, in a S.A.A.B., 701-850 CC; Ray Cuomo, Flat Abarth, 850-1000 CC; John Treen Riley, Mini Cooper, 1001-1300 CC; Ryan Griffin, Cal., B.M.W. 1600, 1601-2000 CC; and Spurgeon May of Jackson, Miss., Chevrolet Corvair, 2001-3000 CC.

Miss Grand Prix

KAROL KELLY, the current Miss Dixie U.S.A. and Miss Florida International Beauty and a former Miss Florida, will be Miss Grand Prix. The green-eyed blonde, 22, of Zephyrhills, holds some 20 other titles, including Florida Citrus queen, has been seen on several TV shows such as Johnny Carson's Tonight, the Queen for a Day, and the Merv Griffin show. She currently does the weather daily over WLCY-TV in St. Petersburg.

HAYDEN WILLIAMS

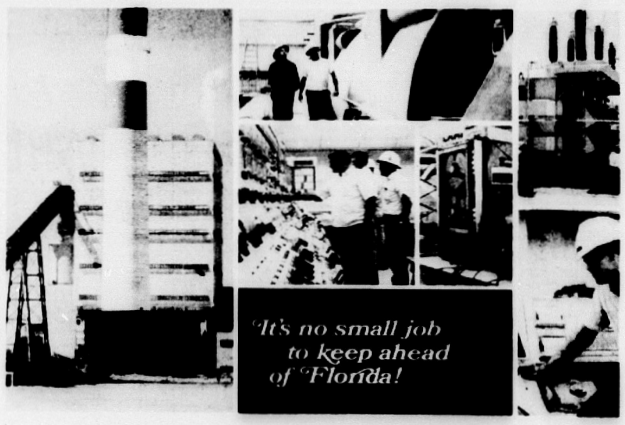

Trophy Honors Newspaperman

The 1966 Race's "hard luck driver", Dan Gurney, missed winning the first overall prize by a whisker, but he did win the Trophy for outstanding sportsmanship in the 1966 Race.

The trophy provided by Al Sweeney, president of National Speedways, Inc., is named in honor of the late Hayden Williams, for many years a Sebring newspaperman.

Sweeney instituted the award after Williams' death in 1961. Other winners besides Gurney, have been Jocko Maggiocomo, George Wallman, and Hap Sharp and Jim Hall.

The Sebring Grand Prix of Endurance counts for manufacturer's championship points towards: The F.I.A. International Championship of Makes for Sports cars, and the F.I.A. International Trophies for manufacturers for grand touring, sports and prototype sports cars also the challenge Mondial de Vitesse et d'Endurance.

It isn't even easy to keep up with the facts. In just 10 years, Florida's population bounced up more than 47% — and is now estimated at six million. At the same time, demand for electric power soared 256%.

By 1975, we anticipate that people in the 32 counties we serve will be using about twice the electricity they now use. To begin to supply it, we've built Unit No. 1 of our Crystal River Plant — soon to be the largest of our eight power stations.

NEW GIANT

This 18-story giant, with its great 275-ton generator, has a capability of 421,000 kilowatts. It's fueled by coal — 850,000 tons a year — a thrifty fuel because the plantsite is close to the Gulf, allowing low-cost barge transportation from Kentucky coal fields.

POWER TO GROW ON

The new Crystal River Plant is interconnected with all other Florida Power plants and with neighboring electric utilities for reliable service throughout the State. With all this new electric capability for industries, businesses and homes, the flourishing Mid-Florida area can keep on growing at a fast clip.

To keep ahead of demand, we've already started Unit No. 2 at the Crystal River Plant. As we said, it's no small job to keep ahead of Florida. Our new Crystal River Plant is one way "we say it with service."

What is the fascination which draws some 60,000 people to Sebring to watch the races?

The noise, the crowd, the excitement, thrills and the blood lust. But, say the people who pack the races, a surprising number come to admire the cars.

Many Lemans, the fantastic vision behind the race, is the reason, to admit that the long rows of the race itself, with cars roaring by, can be crashing bore, particularly lagging in the last hour.

Then there is a spine-tingling Le Mans start as the drivers race their machines to their cars, they finish under the lights at night, with chance-passing the big silver cup and, also, crashes, spins and [illegible] in between.

Last year, four spectators and a driver were killed, bringing to nine the number killed in the years since the race began. Until then, no spectator ever had been injured.

A great percentage of those who come to the race are young, swinging and agency. This makes for excitement. The raceway is filled with contests, visits — food, souvenirs — and worthy, Sebring organizations, including the famed prize-winning Sebring high school band, get on their big fund-raising efforts of the year in the months.

It is the time of year when all the relatives you ever had decide this is the time to come pay you a visit and use your spare room.

And AWAY we GO!

Three Time Winners

Band Leads Off in Pre-Race Ceremonies

SEBRING'S HIGHLY RATED High School Band again this year will play and march just before the flag is dropped for the start of the 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance.

THE FAMED JUAN MANUEL FANGIO, of Brazil, left, teamed with Eugenio Castellotti in 1956 in a Ferrari, to win. Manuel Fangio teamed with Jean Behra in 1957 and won again, to become a two-time winner. The second time it was in a Maserati 4.5 liter.

Founding Of City Result Fishing Trip

A fishing trip to Lake Jackson led to the establishment of Sebring on the shores of the lake. Water sports and lakes remain an important part of life.

George E. Sebring was looking for a possible town site when he came to Lake Jackson on a fishing trip in 1911. He was so impressed with the area that he immediately bought nine to 10 thousand acres of land and wired his son H. Orval Sebring to come at once to begin building a town.

Lake Jackson is one of the largest of the 115 lakes within Highlands County. It covers 6 square miles and lies entirely within the city limits. This spring fed lake has a white sand bottom that gradually slopes away from sand beaches and makes it ideal for swimming.

The great abundance of free swimming areas is one of the delights residents like to boast about. In the past two years state funds have been made available for boat ramps and work is underway developing new ramps on several of the county's lakes.

The United States Geological Survey maintains an office in Sebring and makes exhaustive studies of the lakes of the region. Survey officials report that many of the Highlands County lakes are relatively shallow, "but deep enough to run a boat."

Black bass, bream, catfish and speckled perch are the principal fish in the county's waters. A day's limit for bass would be 10 black bass, 35 bream and or perch.

The bass is an especially desirable fish for it often attains weights up to 12 and 16 pounds. Anglers consider the black bass a wily fish which presents a definite challenge to the sportsman. Fisherman use a variety of baits and techniques to catch bass.

Through the schools' physical education classes and Summer recreation program almost every school child receives swimming instruction.

The Red Cross annually conducts adults swimming classes and reports a high attendance among persons over 60 years of age. For the non-swimmers Highlands County offers an abundance of clear, shallow water for wading.

The lakes might be divided into two groups — the "red" water lakes and the "white" water. Actually all the lakes are clear, but in some — the red water ones — the vegetation in and surrounding the lake deposits tanic acid in the water which gives it the color of strong tea.

Some of the lakes, however, have water clear as crystal.

Depth of the lake varies as much as 10 feet during the year. High point often comes in September, and many of the lakes are at their lowest in March.

The Town of Lake Placid extends a cordial welcome to the many people in Highlands County this week.
It is our hope that while you are in the Ridge area you will come and see for yourself what has made Lake Placid the friendly place it is. You will like the beautiful scenery, the lakes and opportunities the Town has to offer.
Write or call our Chamber of Commerce for further information about the beautiful Lake Placid Ridge Section of Florida.
Alfred C. Moretz
Mayor
The Town Of Lake Placid

The sponsors of this page extend an invitation to you to come to Highlands County—any part of it—and visit around and see for yourselves the many advantages offered for business, for investment or just plain living in the sun in your retirement years.

Most of our residents derive their livelihood from citrus, cattle, vegetable and flower growing, tourism, or service suppying the needs of these and other industries. If you are still on the make, you are not too late to buy land for ranching, or to set an orange grove. The record shows that citrus groves of Highlands County suffer less cold damage than any other in the state. Result has been Highlands gets the top dollar for its fruit, and for the last several years has had more to sell than any other producing area of the state of comparable size.

But, if you are not interested in money, read on, anyway. For here in this favored lake and hill country of Central Florida you will find a mecca for those lucky enough to play for a living. You can fish, golf, swim, boat—or just play lazy and do nothing more strenuous than to snooze in the hammock.

In any event, come and see us.

Avon Park Residents To Decide Future Of Bandstand

Many individuals and groups are concerned about the future of the Bandshell on the Mall. Some believe that the old building has already served its purpose and should be removed from its present site. Others claim that the Bandshell is a historic landmark and should be repaired and left on the Mall.

Regardless of the action to be taken, the City Council is attempting to do the impossible — please everybody. All interested parties have been invited to voice their opinions at the next Council meeting, Monday night, April 10 at 7:30. The Council also agreed to withhold further action until the local High School DCT Club had completed a survey to voice local opinions.

As of this writing the DCT Club has questioned and tabulated the answers of 100 people, and the results are as follows. Repair the bandstand and leave it on the Mall yes 40, no 30. Remove and transfer to Donaldson Park 18. Demolish 12.

The survey is scheduled to be completed and submitted to the City Clerk Friday, April 7.

Examination For Post Office Jobs Re-opened

The Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners has announced that the examination for postal Clerk and City Carrier has been reopened for Avon Park. The examination is also opened for the other following cities in this area: Auburndale, Babson Park, Bartow, Bowling Green, Bradley, Davenport, Eagle Lake, Eaton Park, Fort Meade, Frostproof, Haines City, Highlands, Lake Alfred, Lakeland, Lake Placid, Lake Wales, Mulberry, Polk City, Sebring, Wauchula, and Winter Haven.

The register established as a result of this examination will be used for filling vacancies at the above post offices in the State of Florida. The register established as a result of this examination will supersede all previous registers established for Substitute clerk and Substitute Carrier for all post offices under this announcement. Persons who received eligible ratings dated on or after July 1, 1966, will be carried forward to the new register when it is established.

The written test will be held in Avon Park and Lakeland, Florida. Starting salary is $2.64 per hour.

To apply, submit Card Form 2000 AB, showing the title of examination and the number of the announcement. Forms may be obtained from any post office, or from the board of U. S. Civil service Examiners, Main Post Office Building, Atlanta, Ga. 30304.

County Road Dept. To Be Reorganized

Plans for a complete overhauling of the administration of the county road system were disclosed Tuesday at the meeting of Highlands County board of commissioners.

Jim Pearce will continue as road superintendent under the plan which is to go into operation on May 1. A few details are still being threshed out, but these can easily be settled before the first of May, Commissioner Earl Crutchfield said in opening the presentation at Tuesday's board meeting.

Principal feature of the reorganization is the division of the entire county into three work units.

Unit 1, which includes commission districts 1 and 5, will be based in Avon Park with Virgil Mills as foreman.

Unit 2, which includes commission districts 2 and 3, will be based in Sebring and Junior Waldron will be foreman.

Unit 3, based in Lake Placid, will have all of district 4 in it. The foreman will be Hatchell Edgemon.

Al White is to become assistant superintendent and Don McGee is moving into the shop.

For several years the board of commissioners has been moving toward a unified county road program. In arranging the establishment of the three units Crutchfield said this will enable better utilization of personnel and equipment.

The board is to receive monthly reports on materials used in road work and running cost estimates will be maintained on all road and bridge projects.

The monthly financial statements will not be limited to the road and bridge fund. Beginning May 1, the board members are to receive brief monthly reviews of the condition of each of the county's major funds. At the present the board is receiving quarterly reviews.

The board set 8 A.M. Friday for an informal session to complete details of the new work units and monthly reports.

Zoning Act

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee was authorized by the commissioners to advertise intention of this county to seek special legislation providing for county-wide zoning.

Nunnallee said he had been in contact with Dade County Representative Jess Yarborough, who is a zoning consultant and recognized as a specialist in the field. Yarborough has drafted a zoning law which he plans to introduce as a general bill (state-wide application) in the current session of the Legislature.

The commissioners, led by Jean Whitaker, quickly voiced desire to proceed with a special act—which they pointed out is far more easily passed than general legislation.

Nunnallee said the Yarborough act is an "excellent bill" and he would favor submitting it as the special Highlands County bill, but he urged the commissioners to give it careful study. "You are going to have considerable opposition," he warned.

Whitaker responded, "This is enabling legislation. We don't intend to put this on the people, bam. But we can't do anything with the bill. I'd say let's get this act so we can do something."

Bond Issue Endorsed

Clerk Earl Rich told the board that State Road Board Member D. R. Crane had sent a letter to the State Road Department endorsing a plan to market a bond issue to finance the four-laning of Highway 27.

The bond issue would pledge Highlands County's share of secondary road funds to assist in completing the four-laning of the 35 miles of 27 in Highlands County that now is two-laned. A sale of $4 million worth of bonds would re-finance an early 1960's bond issue and leave a little over $3 million for the Highway 27 project.

One of the Highway 27 safety problems will receive special attention, Commissioner Whitaker reported. He has invited the state road safety engineer to inspect the intersection of State 17 and 27. He said it is difficult to see the road at this intersection at night and had wondered whether installation of mercury vapor lights might not be a good safety measure.

Commissioner Ben McGee complained that panhandlers are turning road signs around. "A stop sign facing the wrong direction is not much help," he observed. He received the board's permission to try new ways of fixing the signs in place.

Miss Lelia Langford, who owns lands along the Kissimmee River and the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control canal, asked the board's assistance in obtaining a bridge to 100 acres of her land now accessible only by water. Attorney Nunnallee told her the commissioners have no jurisdiction at all in a dispute between the flood control district and a private land owner.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the board gave tentative approval to a re-plat of a portion of Sun 'N Lake Estates and promised to accept a deed for an extension of Sun 'n Lake Boulevard if the deed is accompanied by a letter stating the developer's intention to build the road from private funds.

Tentative approval was granted a plat of a new subdivision which is to be known as Sebring Hills Addition.

Cooperation was promised in a hyacinth and floating grass extermination program in the Lake Josephine-Jackson Watershed area. Jim Alderman and Sam Polston appeared to request help.

Approval was granted a Health Department request for installation of new telephones in the newly constructed Mental Retardation and Mental Health offices in the annex.

The board authorized sending sharp letters to suppliers of some faculty equipment. Chairman McIntyre said he had been promised immediate help when steering arms began breaking on the county's new dump trucks, but the factory representative has not appeared and the commissioners expressed concern about the county truck drivers' safety.

The new broom purchased for use on a county tractor has torn on each use, the commissioners complained.

The report of the canvassing board for the March 28 election was accepted.

The two banks which serve as depositories for the race track bond funds—St. Petersburg Bank and Trust and First Park Bank of Pinellas Park—were re-named in a formal resolution.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post of Sgt. Ray Homes returned unsigned a lease to the county-owned building it had sought to lease for a home. The lease provides that the Avon Park Ladies sign now on the building is to remain there, and the VFW post objects to this portion of the agreement.

The board agreed to exchange right-of ways for a road in River Ridge Ranches. Glenn Murphy, who recently purchased 40 acres in the area, offereed to give land for a road at one side of his property if the county would release claim to a strip which bisects his property.

The board promised to investigate charges that a garbage franchise is being violated. Commissioner Crutchfield said he had received complaints about increases in prices and decreases in service.

Harold Callaway Sets New School Record In 100-Yard Dash Thursday

Harold Callaway set a new school record and beat the best time in the state in the 100-yard dash here at a five team track meet last Thursday afternoon sprinting the distance in 9.6 seconds to best his own record of 9.8 set last year. The lied Devil speedster also took a first place in the 220-yard run and the 440-yard run events with times of 22.8 seconds and 53.1 seconds.

This afternoon (Thursday) the Red Devils will compete in th Highlands County track meet in Sebring against the Blue Streaks and Lake Placid. The Devils are favored to take the tri-school meet which is set to start at 3:30.

The Mulberry Panthrs won the meet, however, with a total of 85 2-3 points and Fort Meade came in second with 76 1-6 points. The Red Devils placed third with 64 2-3 points. Hardee was fourth with 19 points, and Sebring came in last with 13½ points.

Other firsts for Avon Park were Kenny Dixon's 2 minute, 7 second running of the half mile event and the mile relay team composed of Earl Sims, Jim Williams, Robert Wallace, and Kenny Dixon winning with a time of 3 minutes, 45.5-10 seconds.

The Red Devils didn't take any second place points. The 8 80-yard relay team of Leotis McNeil, Jim Burrescia, Jim Williams and Earl Sims took third place with a time of one minute, 41 1-10 seconds. The sprint medley relay team also took third place. Running that event for Avon Park was Shon Smutty Callaway, Burrescia, and McNeil with a time of 2 minutes, 13 5-10 seconds.

Bobby Barben took third place in th 440-yard run and tied for third place in the 220-yard dash. Barben also took fifth place in the discus throw. Earl Sims and Charles Magenheimer came in third in the broad jump and high jump respectively and Ulysses Brown tied for third place in the pole vaulting.

Earl Cothran took fourth place in the mile run and Harold Callaway tossed the shot good enough for fourth place for a total of 17 points for the afternoon.

Brown also had a three-way tie for fifth place in the 120-yard high hurdles and fifth place in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Containers for contributions have been established in various places throughout the city.

Devils Meet Wauchula Here Saturday Night

The Red Devils took a 4-2 win from Winter Haven here at Head Field last Tuesday night behind the 2-hit pitching of Emmitt Money who struck out 16 of the Blue Devil batters as he posted his fifth mound win of the season.

The hard-throwing right-hander held the Winter Haven team hitless until the fifth inning when the visitors put together two singles to push over two runs.

Avon Park collected four hits off losing hurler David Garrett. Robert Sizemore singled and scored in the bottom of the fourth frame. Money singled in the third inning and scored along with Lemler who was safe on an error. Carl Barnes singled in the fourth inning and Joe Strickler drove in Money with a single in the last of the fifth.

The Winter Haven team made 6 errors as the Red Devils forced the infield to throw the ball around to keep the Avon Park runners from stealing their way around the bases.

The Red Devils came up with four miscues themselves. Three errors were made in the third frame but no runs scored. The fourth error came in the fifth when the Devil catcher dropped the third strike to allow the batter to reach first.

Avon Park will be home to Wauchula Saturday night starting at 7:30 and will travel to Sebring next Tuesday night to try and take a second win from the Streaks.

Red Devil hurler Hoppy Rewis pitched seven innings of no-hit ball last Thursday night as the Avon Park baseball team racked up its seventh win of the season with a 4-0 shut-out of the Lake Placid nine.

The righthanded senior struck out fifteen batters while posting his third mound win against only one loss since Lake Placid batter drew a walk and only one other batter got on base as the Red Devils played errorless ball.

The Avon Park batters only got two hits off losing hurler Ronnie Eckles. Rewis doubled in two runs in the bottom of the sixth and Dean Lemler singled in that same inning.

The Red Devils scored their first run in the last of the second. Rewis walked, went to second on an an error, took third on another throwing error, and stole home.

The other three Avon Park runs came in the sixth. Billy Richards walked and was followed by Lemler's single. Money bunted them both down and Carl Barnes was safe on a fielder's choice. Then Rewis drove in his two runs before th side was retired.

The Devils will host Wauchula here at Head Field Saturday night and will travel to Sebring for a second match with the Streaks next Tuesday night.

work and preparation of the MAC Couch Room in the PIB to accommodate Dr. Kelley's needs to carry out his investigation of the Astronauts space suits.

He did an outstanding job in designing and directing the fabrication of two Z Couches and a plexiglass floor for use on S/C012. The Z couches accommodated ease of technician personnel movement in removing the spacecraft couches without danger of destroying spacecraft configuration evidence needed by the investigating panels.

Mr. Hill is married and resides with his wife and son on Merritt Island.

Thieme To Direct Information Services at FARP

Don Thieme has been promoted to Director of Information Services for the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program.

Thieme joined the FARP in January 1966 as Information Officer. He succeeds Wade H. Edwards who has become the new Public Relations Director of the Florida Hospital Association.

Under Thieme's leadership, Information Services will continue to educate Floridians on the many aspects of alcoholism and what the state has to offer an estimated 180,000 problem drinkers.

Thieme and his wife Carole live in avon Park where both have taken an active part in the community. Thieme is choir director of the Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church and a member of the Highlands County Messiah Society. He also participated in last falls "Red stocking Revue" variety show.

Carole is a local art teacher who has assited various organizations in artistic endeavors. She also teaches catechism at Our Lady of Grace.

Both Thiemes were graduated from Auburn University, Auburn, Ala. They have one child, Donald, II.

Panthers To Host Lake Sumter In Avon Park

Thursday night in Avon Park, South Florida junior college will attempt to break in to the win column as they host Lake Sumter junior college of Leesburg. Lake Sumter won a close 5-3 ball game in Leesburg earlier Saturday night, the Panthers will tangle with St. Petersburg junior college at 7:30 at Firemen's Field in Sebring. The Panthers lost a double header to St. Pete in St. Pete by 6-2 and 10-3 scores.

The Panthers, using inexperienced boys with a few experienced ones have shown steady improvement. Pitching, which was the number one problem has improved with Ronnie Jackson, Fred McCall, and Roy McMillan showing much improvement after fighting sore arms earlier. Ted Butler did a good job of relief holding Brevard to 2 runs in 6 innings.

Validation Suit File In Circuit Court

Suit for validation of the $1 million race track bond issue has been filed in Circuit Court on behalf of Highlands County Board of Public Instruction.

Hearing on the suit is set for 2 P.M. on Thursday, Apr. 20.

In the 1965 session of the Legislature the Highlands school board obtained a special act enabling it to sell up to $1 million worth of certificates of indebtedness pledging income from the state racing tax for repayment.

The legislation specified that the bond proceeds would be used for school construction. The suit filed last week states that the bond money would be part of the funds needed for the multi-project building program recommended by the State Department of Education.

The suit enumerates the projects—new high schools and new elementary schools and additions and remodeling on older schools—and estimates the cost for the whole as $4,312,114.

The race track bonds are to be issued in denominations of $5,000, to run for 20 years and interest is not to exceed 6 per cent.

At its March meeting the school board authorized its fiscal consultant, Wainwright & Ramsey, to proceed to sale. Presumpably the sale will be held later this spring.

Letter To Editor

Office of Highlands County Commissioners
Sebring, Florida
Avon Park Sun
Gentlemen:

The February 22nd edition of the Avon Park Sun provided this writer with some interesting "fictional" reading. I am referring to the article concerning the Highlands County Humane Society.

I would like to preface my remarks by saying that I am certain that the founders and supporters of this agency are most sincere in their work, but some investigating should be done.

This past November 14th my husband brought a pup home from the shelter, a little black and brown female of the "Heinz" variety, about four months old. Although the newspaper article stated, "We make no charge for adoption" my husband paid $8.00. The original price asked by the attendant had been $25.00, this was refused. Then the attendant thought my husband looked like a kind man and would give the dog a good home, he let my husband have her for $8.00. He explained that the difference of $20.00 was for spaying the dog. He would give a receipt that could be taken to either of the Vets connected with the shelter and they would spay the dog. This in itself seems highly irregular, when you pay for a dog you should be able to take it to the vet of your choice.

Later the same evening we got the dog, while playing with her I felt lumps under fur, upon closer inspection we found her to be infested with ticks. I pulled seven ticks the size of split peas from her plus six more of a smaller size. She also had a strip down her back that felt like sand varying from ¼" to almost an inch wide from the base of her neck to her tail, this was solid ticks.

The following Wednesday we took her to the Vet to have her spayed, dipped for ticks and wormed, which was also very necessary. We got her home on Friday and Saturday she was back to the hospital only to learn that she had distemper.

As the shelter attendant had said, "we would give the dog a good home", we tried to cure her which consisted of numerous visits to the Vets and medication twice a day every day since, which has totalled $103.25 to this moment.

I firmly feel that there has been gross neglect in the operation of the shelter. It would seem that every animal should be dipped, or at least dusted for ticks before you would permit an animal to be released. Furthermore, I feel that every animal should have a physical check by one of your two vets before released and at the time of the examination the rabies shot be administered and the purchaser could pay the shelter for the price of the shot. Our dog never had rabies shot because neither of the two vets we took her to thought she could stand the reaction of the shot.

This is not our first experience with a dog from a shelter, we have had dogs from shelters in other parts of the country and never had such an experience. We wanted just a pet, not a dog for breeding purposes, so we have always felt we could give a rejected dog the love and care needed by any warm blooded animal and it need not be a pure blooded animal. After all, how many of us are pure blooded?

Our dog's hind quarters have become weak and at times she needs help to get to her feet. My husband took her with him this morning, she will be left at the Vet's and he will put her to sleep. This will cost only $5.00 more. So here we are, right back where we were before November 14th, no dog.

Sincerely,
Mrs. John J. McCosker

Mrs. Renfro New Assistant C of C Secretary

James Rehrer Home After Cruise In Mediterranean Sea With Navy

JAMES REHRER

STG-3 James Rehrer, Sonar Technician with the U.S. Navy, son of Judge and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer is home on furlough after a five month deployment in the Mediterranean Sea.

On board the USS Johnston DD 821 they left port Sept. 29, 1966 for a five month cruise in the Mediterranean Sea.

After a week at sea, the ship arrived in Gibralter, Spain to relieve the ships on their return to the United States. Upon completion on turnover the Johnston then spent two weeks operating off the coast of Northern Italy before tieing up at Naples, Italy for the weekend.

The time spent in Naples was enjoyed by the entire crew due to the fact it was the first liberty they had had in three weeks.

Leaving Naples they then set sail for the warmer climates of the Red Sea, making a short fuel stop in Sudda Bay, Crete. The Johnston made her transit through the Suez Canal on Nov. 2 which took approximately thirty-six hours.

The next port was the small British owned country of Aden. After receiving fuel they steamed for the far shores of the Persian Gulf, bordered by the countries of Iran and Saudia Arabia.

The ship then spent two weeks operating with two ships from Iran, a British Destroyer and a British submarine in Anti-submarine exercises. They received liberty in Kharg Island which was the first land the crew had seen in twenty five days. Jim said, "It sure felt good to put your foot on solid ground again." Kharg Island is mostly used by ships as a refueling stop, although they have somewhat of a naval base which offered limited entertainment.

Their Thanksgiving was shared with the HMS Mohawk in Bahrein, in the land of camels and Arabs. This port turned out to be more than they expected. Many people read from books describing the people of the far eastern countries but one would hardly expect to see a nation still in the image that existed some three hundred years ago. The people of Arabia still use the camel as the most trusted mode of transportation.

On Nov. 25, they pulled out and headed for Aden once again. While at sea, Jim joined a four piece band which went by the name of the "Jolly J Four." Upon arrival in Aden they played for an officers party which everyone enjoyed.

After Aden they sailed south to Assab, Ethiopia for a four day stay. The "Jolly J Four" played at the American Embassy and they were advised this is the first time that modern music of America had ever been played there.

Their next port was Jiddah, Saudia Arabia midway up the Red Sea. The crew was welcomed with open arms by the people of the America Embassy, TWA and families of American people living within the compounds of different U.S. Corporations set up there.

The entire crew was invited into homes for Christmas dinner and good hospitality. By far, this was one of the most favorite ports. One of the most sought after article of the crew, was gold. The price was quite reasonable and the weight ranged from ten to twenty-two carats.

On Dec. 30 and 31, they once again made the transit northward through the Suez Canal, toward Beirut, Lebanon. Once again the band performed and appeared to be gratefully received.

They departed Beirut on the 2nd and steamed into Naples. They spent one week in Naples before going to Gibralter where they thought they were to be relieved.

Upon arrival, they learned the relief ship would be one week late and they were delayed a week in the Mediterrean. Although they were detained from going home and were quite upset they made the best of it and pulled into Palma, Mallorca, which is a small Spanish owned island off the mainland off Spain. One week later they were relieved by another destroyer in Rota, Spain and from there began the trip home. Home is port in Charleston, S. C. where they arrived the 9th of February and were most happy to see familiar people of America.

By the end of the cruise the following statistics were noted: Miles steamed, 21,789; fuel used, 1,406,968 gal; meals served, 64,811; coffee, 1,365 lbs; sugar, 2,146 lbs; milk, 6,531 gals; potatoes, 21,941 lbs. (10 ton); meat used, 10,824 lbs.; candy bars sold, 943; value of postage stamps sold, $1,119; number of cigarettes sold, 26,000 packs.

Parents Urged To Register First Term Children

Pre-School Round-Up
Avon Elementary School
April 3, 1967
Dear Parents:

You are urged to bring your child who will be a beginner in our school next year to the Avon Elementary School office on Wednesday, April 12 for registration for the 1967-68 school term. Pupils with names beginning with letters "A" through "L" inclusive please come at 9:00 A.M. and pupils with names beginning with letters "M" through "Z" at 10:30 A.M. If it is impossible to register the child that morning it is permissable to come in the afternoon.

The Highlands County Health Department will not be here this year to give physical check-ups to the children. This will have to be taken care of by a private physician. If any parent finds he is unable to have this done by a private physician he may take the child to the health department in the city hall basement on Wednesday mornings. Forms will be provided for this purpose on the day of registration.

Be sure to bring with you to the school office on April 12 a copy of the child's birth certificate or accurate evidence of age. No child will be allowed to enter the first grade without evidence or proof of age. All children entering school this fall must be six years old on or before January 1, 1968.

Respectfully,
Geo. A. Kelsey,
Principal, Avon Elementary school.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Program Chairman Roy Scriven introduced Dr. Robert G. Dean, Chairman, Department of Coastal Engineering of the University of Florida. Doctor Dean is an expert in the field of Oceanography, holding degrees from the University of California, M. I. T., and, more importantly, according to Hue Nomalley, Texas A & M College.

Doctor Dean explained that one of the greatest problems facing mankind is the inability of food production to keep pace with the population explosion. While this problem is not so obvious in this country, two-thirds of the present population of the world is inadequately fed, and in several countries in Asia Starvation of large numbers is the rule rather than the exception. In 1800 there were about one billion people in the world; by 1900 this figure had doubled, and in 1967 there are approximately three billion people living. Food production has increased about one per cent each year while population increases about two per cent. An example of what is happening is that 30 years ago Latin America was a big exporter of grain, but with a population growth higher than the world average, has now become an importer.

With these facts in mind, it is necessary that we more and more turn to the oceans as a source of food. The present utilization of these resources is incomplete and inadequate, and the U. S. is lagging in development of this type. Russian fishing techniques are much more sophisticated than ours. They fish in well-organized fleets, and even have a submarine designed for fisheries research.

Though the photosynthetic process by means of which plants grow and produce food is essentially the same on land and in water, plant life is far less dominant in water than on land. Most of the ocean flora is microscopic in size, the most important plants being the diatoms which are about 1/100 of an inch in diameter but are the beginning of the food chain of the sea. The diatoms serve as food for very small animals which in turn feed larger animals, and so on until the large sea animals utilized by man are developed.

Doctor Dean suggested that artificial agitation of the waters to produce an "upwelling" characteristic of the ocean off the coast of Peru could serve as a means to increase the productivity of the sea. Also, it would be wise to promote the utilization of smaller organisms for human food than now are eaten, and to greatly increase the use of fish meal which is a high protein concentrate and can be utilized in much the same way as flour or corn meal. A number of slides depicting experimental vessels and oceanographic methods were shown.

Junior Woman's Fashion Show Will Feature Hawaii Theme On April 15

Mention Hawaii to most Americans, and you conjure up visions of lazy days on palm fringed beaches, swimming, surfing, sunning, and bikini-clad beauties, along with leonine hula dancers.

Well, the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club members are busy finalizing plans whereby the guests will see some of these fabulous scenes right here in our city—in the tropics of the U.S. mainland. The place to be on Saturday evening, April 15th, at 8 P.M. is the Avon Elementary Cafeteria in order to Relax Awhile in Hawaiian Style.

Tickets for your trip are $1.00 for adults, and 50 cents for children, considerably less than the real McCoy! Plans for this annual fashion show are gaining momentum as they progress.

Fifteen lovelys will model fashions from Eaton's, Stephanie's, and Tatum & Johnson's, as Mrs. Anna Belle Worden describes each outfit. Mrs. Nell Roberts is the final model to be named.

Mrs. Grace Smith, of Sebring, has generously supplied Holiday Magic Cosmetics for these models who will be on the showing. Mrs. Smith and her helpers will apply or assist models with the cosmetics if they choose to wear the Holiday Magic brand. Aside from being eligible for door prizes from the Junior Woman's Club, those attending the fashion show may also sign up to win a prize of Holiday Magic Informative Cosmetics from Mrs Smith.

Clad in mu mus and other Hawaiian type dress, the following club members will serve refreshments for the affair: Betty Heckard, Barbara Cribb, Cheryl Guerrill, Bobbie Maddox, Betty Ivey, Carolyn Ross, Harriet King, Sandy Mattox, Wilma Strange, Dorothy Fry, and Dorothy Overlaw.

Why not round up a mu mu or a bright "island" shirt for yourself, and be there for the fun and relaxation — only a little over a week now til show time!

SEE ANY ERRORS???—Can you find any mistakes on the poster being held up by Mrs. Nell Roberts, member of the Junior Woman's Club? Well, it just so happens that this poster does not have any intentional errors on it, but there are four (4) around Avon Park in the stores that do. The first person to find the 4 errors on four different posters and to call GL 3-1937 by Thursday, April 13, will win a prize. The winner will be announced at the Junior Woman's Fashion Show on Saturday, April 15, at the Avon Elementary Cafetorium. — (Sun Photo)

Sun Ray News

Well another week, plenty of clouds and very little rain for our area. Everyone is really spending a lot of time watering their lawns and flowers.

I would like to thank so many for their concern and inquiries as to the hospitalization of my father. He is now home and will soon be up and around again. I am sorry I did not get the article in the paper last week and hope it will be the last time I have to miss.

Pinewood Derby

On Mar 30, the annual "Pinewood Derby" race was held by Cub Pack 156 of Avon Park at the Congregational Church in Fellowship Hall.

Each year every member of the cub pack is given a "kit" consisting of a block of wood, 4 wheels, 4 nails and two wooden axels. The cub and his father, this being a father and son project, design and carve a model racing car using these materials and compete with others in a pinewood derby race ran on a track provided by the Avon Park Lions Club.

There are four dens of cubs in the pack and each den first competes to determine a den winner then the den winners compete for the overall champion. Trophys are provided for each den winner, the overall winner and the "best design."

The winners in this race were Den 1, Randy Rich; Den 2, Ricky Spurlock; den 3, Jamie Tomlinson; Den 4, Frankie Worden.

The overall champion was Frankie Worden.

Highlands School Students Visit Ringling Museum Of Art

A group of 34 students accompanied by Mrs. Raymond Stokes from Highland High School in Avon Park, Florida, recently visited the Ringling Museuem of Art in Sarasota as a class project.

They are studying art history and were especially interested in the Renaissance masters.

The students were taken on a tour of the Ringling Art Museum to view the works which range from 4th century B. C. to the 20th century. Docents from the Ringling Museums Members Council gave gallery talks about the masterworks in the collection.

In addition, the young people visited the Asolo Theatre and the John Ringling Residence.

The Ringling Museum of Art maintains an education department to serve the educational system of the State of Florida. Thousands of students are brought to the Museum annually in school groups. Specially prepared art programs are provided to meet the needs and interests of the various groups.

In addition to the services offered at the Museum, circulating materials are shipped directly to the classrooms for study before or after a Museum visit. These include color filmstrips with written texts, slide talks with tape recorded text, art books, prints, and exhibitions covering such various subjects as graphic arts, Eskimo prints, creative photography, theaters and stages, and works by Matisse, Chagall, Miro, Picasso, Van Gogh and Winslow Homer.

There is no charge other than transportation on exhibitions and circulating materials, and students and teachers are admitted free at all times to the Ringling Museumn of Art.

Junior College Chorus To Sing For Play School

The South Florida Junior College Chorus under the direction of Buford Jasper will be one of the attractions at the benefit to be given Monday evening April 10th at the Hopewell School Auditorium at 8:00 P.M. The Hopewell School Glee Club and the Faculty Chorus will also participate.

This is open to the general public and there will be no admission charge. A Free Will Offering will be taken to help defray expenses at the Day Care Centers which have been in operation for almost a year. Pre school children of working mothers are cared for from 6:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. Monday thru Friday. This has brought an improvement in school attendance since pupils no longer are needed at home to care for younger brothers and sisters.

There are two Day Care Centers now in operation. Noah's Ark No. 1 is located in the annex of the Mount Olive M. E. Church, at Green and DeLaney Streets and is under the direction of Mrs. Rosa Lee. Noah's Ark No. 2 is in the annex of Saint Marks Baptist church on Pinedand Ave and is under the direction of Mrs. Shellie Mae Adams. About sixty-five children are now registered at the two centers.

A Board of Directors is the governing body and meets once a month. This Board consists of Rev. W. W. Wells, chairman, Robert Hanford, vice chairman, Donald V. Eastman, sec'y treas., Mrs. Donald Eastman, Mrs. Rex Farr, Mrs. Chas. Shepherd, Mrs. Jessie Jenkins, Mr. Frank Lyons, Mr. Johnnie Nelson, Mr. Sam Rainey, Mr. M. J. Robinson.

Members of the City Council and the Bi Racial Committee of Avon Park honorary members of the board.

Lions Club Concession Stand At Races

One of the money making projects of the Avon Park Lions Club is operating a concession at the Sebring Races. Several members said ham burgers, hot dogs, coffee and cokes. Earnings were estimated to be approximately Eight hundred dollars. Proceeds will be spent for local needs.

In the picture are Richard Enoch, Mrs. Harmon Aldrich, Dick Thayer and Rodney Lane, who helped to get the stand ready for business.

We earned about 900.00 said Clay Yates, the Lions President. And all members as well as their wives and others who helped really worked.

Next year we hope to have a permanent building instead of the bus which we have been using.

Shuffling

At an extra, unscheduled Central District Tournament, held at Sebring, Mar. 29 and 30, six Winter Guest Club members brought home trophies. Alton Wetmore and Milton Higgs came in first in the A class in Consolation. The runners up were David Dickerson and Fred Bolton. In the B Consolation Walter Sawyers and Everett Paxton came in first.

The last of the 100 point trophy tournaments was held this past Wednesday. There were 3½ courts in the A class and 6½ courts in the B class in play. Winners in the A class in the Main Event were Alta Robinson and Walter Sawyers over Earnest Rouget and Leo Wagner. Consolation winners were Cleo Lathe and Clay Krall over Ruth Jordan and Milton Higgs.

In the B class Fern Haas and Art Jordan won over Mildred Long and Mary Smith. Consolation winners were George Coombs and Henry Berlew over Ellen Coombs and Maynard McKinnon.

On Saturday at the trophy presentation, Mayor DeLaney was a guest of the Club. He talked to the members wishing them a pleasant trip home, and a speedy return to Avon Park. Fred Bolton, Earnest Rouget, Everett Paxton and Walter Sawyers were presented their 100 point trophies. Thirty-seven trophies were given out this year.

Sixty folks played in the tournament on Saturday Apr. 1. This is the beginning of no-point tournaments, when, according to Eldred Gruber, Tournament Manager, your reward is to get your name in the paper.

All the A Class and the B Class play together. Winners were Earl Werner and Alton Wetmore over Earnest Rouget and Helen Floyd. Consolation winners were Elizabeth Clarke and Ellen Coombs over Helen Berlew and Joseph Coombs.

Crafts

Thursday Apr. 6 will be the last Craft Class of this season. Projects Thursday will be shell work and jewelry. Also the class will be given the opportunity to vote on what projects will be given next year. Hallie Wetmore, Crafts Director, has some new ideas.

Dances

There was a large group of 8 0 folks at the dance on Friday evening. Half Squares and half round, and everybody seemed to have such a good time. Guests introduced were Mr. and Mrs. Dartt Hoobler of Holland, Mich., guests of the Ira Shaders, George Taylor of Rochester, N. Y. and Mr. and Mrs. George Dewey, of N. Clymer, N. Y.

Games

There were seven tables of players in Pinochle on Monday, Mar. 27. High score went to Frank Goodwin with 793. Second high was Ota Gibson with 776.

Saturday Supper

Sixty-four folks enjoyed the fellowship of eating together on Saturday evening, and, as usual New York led in numbers. And Twenty of the folks there will be leaving for the north this week. Howard Kellogg returned thanks. It was announced that John Dentler and George Mills are both in Walker Hospital. Irene Ayling is home from the hospital, and getting along fine with the help of the good nurse she has (her husband). She fell some time ago and broke both her knee and wrist. Simeon and Marion Kolk of the Southland Trailer Park have been ill, but are home.

Paul Hoppe told several of his good jokes. Arthur Poling sang a solo, without accompaniment. Robert Wallace likes to read the road signs as they drive along, and one that amused him was an ad by an undertaker. "Don't hurry, we will wait on you." Hulda Goldren read a poem written by her husband, "Back North." Grace Wallace accompanied the group in singing a few songs in closing. The Elmer Thiebertis and the Everett Paxtons were the hosts for the evening. The Howard Kelloggs will have charge of the suppers for the summer.

Entertainment

Albert Cushing showed pictures at the Club Thursday evening to an appreciative audience. These pictures were of various points of interest around the United States. It was a commercial film set up View-Master. The pictures were taken by professional photographers. The narration was taped and very descriptive. This was the last of the seasons entertainment.

Hymn Sing

A happy crowd sang out at the season's last Hymn Sing. All joined in singing the hymns with an air of real enjoyment. Albert Cushing gave several solos on his violin. Hallie Amstutz played selections relating to Mothers Day. Everybody wished everybody a safe journey home, with a hurry back to Avon Park this coming fall.

BEAT THE HEAT WITH FLAMELESS COOLING!

ENJOY WINTER IN FLORIDA THIS SUMMER...

YOU gain many advantages right now by up-dating your home with central electric cooling—or both cooling and heating with a flameless heat-pump. You'll increase the value of your home . . . and be all set, before the seasonal rush, for a cool summer. Keeping cool is being kind to your heart, too.

And as an extra incentive for our residential customers, we'll give those who install central ducted flameless cooling between April 1 and August 31, the choice of a selection of attractive gifts—such as a Hi-Intensity Lamp, an eight-volume Encyclopedia, or a Blinker Lantern. Details at your dealer or contractor.

The Power to Please!
FPC FLORIDA POWER CORPORATION

SAVE $50. TOO!

We'll give an installation allowance of $50, PLUS the choice of a selection of attractive gifts, to any of our residential customers who removes—between April 1 and August 31—flame-type heating and replaces it with whole-house electric cooling and heating. Ask your dealer or contractor for details on both offers.

Southland Trailer Park

Thirty-three were at "coffee Hour" Tuesday morning. Blanche Kiracofe and Myrtle Heffernan had birthdays this week, also the Four Seasons celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary. Congratulations to all these good people.

Harriett Meissel had some friends were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Clore of Zephyr Hills on Wednesday. Mrs. Clore is a sister of the late Walter Meissel.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe Gordin, sojourning in Targon Springs and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wiles and daughter, Patty, of Holly, Michigan, while enroute from a trip to The Keys, called on The Waltons Tuesday.

Seven ladies helped Mary Strickland sew for the home across the street Thursday afternoon.

O. C. STEPHENS bowling in the Orange Belt League, March 27, rolled an all spare game of 184. JOHN GRAY bowling in the Hylands League came this close to a 700 set. He needed a mark in either of the last two frames of the last game, but the ball must have weighed heavy for Gray, for up came identical splits in both frames.

BILL WHITE rolling on the opposite team made the 4-7-9-10 split. Watching Bill from the next lane, I know he had at least one eye open. GREASE BELT bowlers rolled a total of twenty 200 games.

Female bowler of the week: Anna Dee Harden 561-546.

Male bowler of the week: John Gray 691-572 and a 570 as a sub.

Law Corrected On Burial Expense of Vets

Public Law 89-360 corrected a situation where neither the Service Department nor the Veterans Administration had authority to pay for expenses of burial. The circumstances arose where a serviceman just discharged from service was killed while proceeding directly from place of discharge to his home, explained M. T. Dixon, of the Fla. Dept. of Veterans Affairs. The Service Dept. held that the deceased was not on active duty, and therefore, not eligible for Service Department burial benefits.

The VA was similarly bound by law stating that from the time the serviceman left camp until he arrived home he was in a deemed active duty status and thus not eligible for VA burial benefits. Dixon said this new public law recognized this as inequitable in authorizing VA to pay the $250 burial allowance for any person who died during a period deemed to be active service.

7 Performances Of Black Hills Passion Play

Seven more performances of the Black Hills Passion Play are scheduled for the 1967 season at the Lake Wales Amphitheatre.

These performances will be presented on Sundays at 6 P.M. and Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays at 7:30 P.M.

The final presentation will be Sunday, April 16, at 6 P.M.

The Black Hills Passion Play which is now in its 15th season at Lake Wales, has been seen by more than 25,000 this year and by more than 500,000 in Florida.

The outdoor drama tells the story of Christ's last days on earth.

Christmas Seal Campaign Said Success

"This year's Christmas Seal Campaign was an outstanding success," S. Chesterfield Smith, Area Campaign Chairman, stated. The final tabulations for the 1966 Campaign show a total of $33,160.39. This is the "best ever" of any previous year and $553.39 over the quota of $32,500.00.

"I want to personally thank all the citizens of the area served by the Mid-State Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association — Polk, Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto counties — for their efforts both in volunteering their time and energy to get the Christmas Seal Campaign underway and in their support through contributions to Christmas Seals."

Thanks to this generosity we can renew our efforts to wipe out TB and to control other respiratory diseases as emphysema, bronchitis and asthma."

The amounts contributed, from Highlands County are: Avon Park (1,800.00); Lake Placid Area (900.00); Sebring Area (3,100.00).

The Library Corner

Do you know that the Avon Park City Library is the recipient of a much needed magazine rack given by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Duggan. Each gift of this sort shows the increasing interest and appreciation of the citizens of the city for the fine service of the library.

William Brinkley wrote a story of World War II Island in the Pacific, Don't Go Near the Water, which was a best seller and made into a very popular movie. Once again Mr. Brinkley has written a novel, The Ninety and Nine, which takes the reader into the realities of war and into the hearts of the men who fight it. The LST 1826 ran from Naples to Anzio. There were mines and submarines to get by and when they got there the big guns in the hills were waiting and the Messerschmitts came in low over the land and sea at first light in the morning.

Humor and tragedy live side by side in this story. Interwoven with some of the most vivid sea action are two gentle and moving love stories.

As before William Brinkley is represented in the environment he loves best, the sea and the Navy in World War II.

Lake Bonnet Listed In 'Sports Afield'

Sports Afield, one of the worlds leading outdoor magazines has announced the appointment of Lake Bonnet Village and Campground as an official State Fishing Awards Station. Lake Bonnet is located between Sebring and Avon Park, one-half mile east of Alternate US 27 Hwy.

The eligible species of fish and their qualifying weights have been chosen by the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. Those will be posted at Lake Bonnet Village on a large chart, showing the top catches in each species, qualifying weights and who caught them.

Top award winners will be listed each year in Sports Afield.

WHEN LIFE HURTS

"I thirst." St. John 19:28.

The meaning of Jesus' cry on the cross is so human that we all understand it. Man experiences the agony of thirst especially on the battle field.

In the last World War a soldier was wounded in battle. At first there was blinding pain, then numbness as shock set in and, finally, as the bleeding continued, the agony of thirst. When, at long last, the medical corpsman came, the wounded man mustered up all the strength he had left and asked for water. He said, later, that the only thing he could remember clearly was his raging thirst.

The unnatural position of Jesus body on the cross made his every movement exceedingly painful. The broken veins and crushed tendons throbbed with anguish. Each misery kept increasing. There was added the intolerable suffering of a burning thirst. He hung on the cross for six hours in indescribable agony, finally suffering the most trying torment the human frame can bear, the torment of thirst. And so it was that he uttered the human cry: "I thirst."

Near the cross there was a large earthen vessel containing posca, the sour wine that the Roman soldiers drank. Someone, touched by Jesus' cry, took a sponge and dipped it in the posca and attaching it to a reed held it up to his parched lips. Thus it was that an unknown person, perhaps a Roman soldier, was kind to Jesus and did something to help him through the waters of the river of death.

In the account of the crucifixion in St. Mark, when the sponge was held to Jesus lips, a bystander cried out: "Let alone; let us see whether Elias will come." 15:36. This seems to be an example of morbid curiosity. Elias, of course did not come. It was the will of God that Jesus' ministry should be perfected through suffering and that, for our example, he should endure unto the end.

I would say that this most human cry, "I thirst," demonstrates once and for all that Jesus was man of very man. One commentator has put it this way: "When we think of Him in divine terms, we must always remember that God became a man, a particular man whose footsteps shook the floor, a man who knew the pangs of loneliness, and the joy of human friendship, a man who endured all the weakness and temptation that go with mortal flesh, a man who could develop a hideous thirst while bleeding to death." This great fact is important to you and me.

It is wonderful to know that we have no sorrows that Christ cannot understand, no pain with which he is not acquainted, no temptation he has not experienced, no joys that we cannot share with him. The eternal Christ, "being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God, but made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of man; and being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross." Philippians 2:5-8.

The pains that he was called upon to bear may not give us a theory of pain but, it has been truly said, they help us to bear our pain. Then, again, we cannot help but feel that he who overcame the pain of the cross is with us in all of our suffering and helps us to bear our pain. Take up your cross, says the Master. Be not afraid, take it up and follow me into life. John Bunyan has a great picture of what this means.

Christian saw the door of the Palace; at the door stood a group of men desirous of entering but hanging back. A man sat a short way from the door with a Book and an inkhorn before him. He was ready to take down the names of any who might wish to enter. Christian saw in the doorway a company of men in armour, determined to do harm to any who wished to enter. The crowd hung back. They didn't dare to go in. At long last there came one who fearlessly said to the man with the inkhorn: "Set down my name, Sir." In spite of the wounds he received, he fought his way in.

Bunyan's story teaches us that it is possible for a man to enter into life but not without struggle. It was so with Jesus; it is so with us. We are called to great and brave living in the light of the cross. We must learn to walk up to the hard and demanding experiences of life and say: "Set down my name, Sir."

God has not promised us freedom from suffering. he has promised to be with us in our suffering.

I had the privilege of seeing the wonderful picture of the crucifixion that hangs in the National Gallery in London, England. As I looked at it there seemed to be the blending of shadows. I saw the cross and back of the cross the dim outlines of a figure, the agony on the figures' face was much more terrible than that on the face of Christ. The artist was trying to say that God suffered at Calvary, too; that the meaning of the cross was first in the heart of God. "Calvary did not make the love of God, but the love of God made Calvary." Divine love reaches down from the cross through the pain and suffering of Christ.

Browning has a phrase in one of his poems that clarifies many of our experiences in suffering: "The worst turns to the best to the brave." A friend of mine who had suffered a very great misfortune later said to me: "Poof! It will only help me to sympathize with others who have similar experiences."

On Tuesday evening the Lasse's (John and Hazel) were pleasantly surprised by nearly the entire park in celebration of their wedding anniversary. Altho the recreation hall wasn't due to be completed for a few days, Mr. Stansberry, the builder, cooperated with the committee and finished it on Tuesday and also installed the lights temporarily. The Lasses were invited out to dinner at the Al Robinsons of Avon Trailer Park and returned to find 50 residents and friends in the club house, with all the tables prettily decorated. Hazel was presented a corsage by Thelma Chalmers and a gift from all the park members to Hazel and John. The potlewels taped much of the doings of the evening and before and after the refreshments cards and games were played. Ice Cream, cake and coffee was served by the committee of the Potlewels. Lucilles, Jordans and Chalmers. We hope now for many more such visits in the club house which we all appreciate. The Jordans and Chalmers have been appointed to take charge of the building. Please notify either couple for use of the building.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Simonson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clausie from Richland Center, Wis. visited with John Lasse and Hazel Lasse on Saturday. They are also friends of the Milo Flamme's former residents of the park.

Letters and cards have been received during the week from the Vernbergs, Pakes, Chocks and Mr. and Mrs. McClure. They all wish to be remembered to all at the park.

We have received word that Mr. and Mrs. Kormash, owners of the park, are coming for a week to visit us, they plan to be here on April 8th.

Mrs. Kormash Sr. of Sebring called on Lasse's on Easter Sunday.

The Hahns (Doris and Delbert) of Three Rivers, Mich. and the Heegards (Peg and George) of Paoli, Pennsylvania left this past week for their homes up north. We understand that the Heegards had an accident with their trailer the first day out, but hope that they weren't injured.

The Holbrooks (Bess and Earl) of Marysville, Ohio are in the over night section on their way home. They have been in the park twice before this year. They have been wintering in Marathon on the Keys.

We are pleased to have Mary Heslin teaching us painting with Artex. She will have classes at the clubhouse. The first class was held on Monday.

Coffee Hour was held on Thursday morning in the club house with Marge Jordan, marie Lizotte and Thelma Chalmers in charge. This week the Rogers and Townsends will have charge of the coffee hour.

Callers of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Foote this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beresh of Cotin, Mr. and Mrs. Lyndville Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Byrer.

Mr. and Mrs. V. Borsche and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maidens of Rockford, Ill., visited Mr. and Mrs. George Curry during the week — Mr. Borsche is Mrs. Curry's brother.

The Esposito's (Nick and Mariam) of Orange, Calif. are here in the overnight section for a week. They have been visiting at Eglin A.F.B. and from here will go down to the Keys. They will visit in New Jersey later and then are hopeful of attending EXPO '67 in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howen of Wisconsin Rapids, Wis., and Mrs. Palma Johnson of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mr. Art Kruger of Bradenton, Fla., called on Vernon Martin Monday at Walker Memorial Hospital in Avon Park. Vernon returned home from the hospital on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nelson of Tampa, Fla., & Mr. and Mrs. Karl Nelson of Jefferson, Wis., called on Vernon and Selma at their trailer on Tuesday.

20 Bourbon, Indiana people enjoyed dinner at the new club house on Bonnie Brae on Friday as guests of the Harry and Roy Lemler's. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Weideman, Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Miller, Mr. and Mrs. John Barrett, Steve and Susan, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gerrard, Mr. and Mrs. Alva Thompson, Dean Lemler and Sue Ayerst. All enjoyed the fellowship and last visit before returning back north to their homes.

The Curry's (Catherine and George) and the Chalmers (Thelma and George) spent Sunday afternoon enjoying Highlands Hammock State Park.

Avon Park High School Band Repairing To Leave For Trip To Washington This Week

Avon Park High School marching band has been very busy this past week, preparing for the Cherry Blossom Festival parade Washington D. C., in which they will participate, Sat. Apr. 8.

They left Wednesday, Apr. 5, aboard the Silver Meteor in special cars that carried them direct to Washington, D. C. A Seaboard representative accompanied the group on the entire trip. They left Avon Park at 12:05 P.M. for five glorious days at the festival.

Sightseeing tours have been arranged for the group. Meals will be served at the Harrington Hotel where they will stay.

The festival began Apr. 4 and officially opened with the lighting of the Japanese Stone Lantern at the Tidal Basin. It will continue through Apr. 9, with parades, parties, concerts and fashion shows.

Arriving in Washington at 6:30 A.M., Apr. 6, buses will be waiting to transport them to the hotel. At 8 A.M. they will leave on chartered sight seeing buses for tours of the Bureau of Printig and Engraving, U. S. Capital, White House and Lincoln Memorial. At 12:30 P.M. they will tour the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, see change of guards Kennedy grave, Iwo Jima, Pentagon Bldg., Washington National Airport, famous old city of Alexandria and Mount Vernon.

Friday, Apr. 7, more sight seeing at the Smithsonian Institute, Museum of history and Technology, National History Museum, National Gallery of Art and Freer Gallery of Art. AT 4:30 P.M. the entire band in uniform with instruments will walk to grounds of Washington Monument for massed band concert, retreat formation. At 7:30 P.M. buses will take them to the pier where they will go by boat for a Moonlight Cruise Dance. Back to the hotel at 11:30 P.M.

Saturday, Apr. 8, Day of the parade. Chartered buses will take band to the parade and their position in the parade. After the parade, pictures will be taken of band on steps of the Capital.

They will leave Washington for home, Saturday at 6:45 P.M. and a tired group will arrive in Avon Park at 12:30 P.M. on Sunday, Apr. 9.

A most educational trip, many of the interesting places they visited will be helpful in their studies when returning to school.

Former Avon Park Librarian Died Monday

Miss Avis Slaughter, former librarian of the City, died last week on Easter Monday at Bishopscourt in Lakeland.

Miss Slaughter was well known here and was a communicant of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer before moving to Bishop Gray Inn in Davenport, nearly one and a half years ago.

Funeral arrangements were not finalized until last Tuesday so it was difficult to get word to the local newspapers of the service held Wednesday Mar. 29 in the Chapel of Bishop Gray Inn for older people. She was buried in Davenport.

Spring Rally Scheduled For Sunday, April 9

The Annual Spring rally of the child Evangelism Fellowship in Highlands County will be held at the Sebring High School Auditorium at 3 P.M. Sunday, April 9. The main feature of the entertainment will be the showing of a film called "The Haunted Church Bell". This will be the first time this unique film has been shown in this area.

An exciting story for both adults and children has been woven around an old church, abandoned to a haunted tradition, once again becomes God's voice to a needy community. A rare treat is in store for all who come out to see this Church in action.

Miss Myra Laird, acting Director for C. E. F. in Highlands and Hardee Counties in the Counties in the absence of Mrs. Marguerite Fiandt, will have charge of the meeting. She extends a cordial invitation to all young people as well as adults to attend. Mrs. Fiandt is in the Fiji Islands conducting a training institute for the Fijians, Samoans, and New Zealanders word concerning her progress will be given at the meeting.

GAIN PROSPERITY, and what do you get? Traffic jams, discovers the world's largest city. According to this view in Tokyo, half of the city's 10 million residents own cars.

STRICTLY FRESH

Tip to young male drivers: forget the girl and hug the road.

A judge says it's no crime to loaf, but a lot of people are in jail for taking things easy.

The guy who claims he's the master in his home probably means paymaster.

Many a gal who starts married life as a clinging vine turns into a rambler.

When it comes to youngsters, Dad takes care of the overhead, and Mom the underfoot.

Light is not needed to produce good red coloring in under-ripe tomatoes, so you may be making a mistake when you place slightly green ones on the window sill in the hot sun. According to food specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture, "Too much sunlight prevents development of normal, even color. Immature green tomatoes won't ripen in the sun and are likely to rot if kept there too long. The best way to ripen picked tomatoes is in the cellar or garage — someplace where the temperature is from 60 to 70 degrees."

FIX-IT TIP

- Several cures are suggested for squeaking floors. One is to sprinkle powdered soapstone (available from most auto tire dealers) onto the joints, then vibrate the strips by striking with a hard-rubber leather mallet. Powder works down into tongue and groove and gives a lubricating quality to the joints.
- Window glass is graded in the following manner: glass graded as "AA" is the finest glass. "A" quality is free of distortions and commonly used in homes, and "B" quality glass contains minor imperfections.

NOT NOW,
NOT TONIGHT,
NOT FRIDAY, NOT NEVER.

Then there are those people who like to keep an open mind. The people who say, well, it just might happen here. Wilbur, it just might fly.

These are the people who aren't satisfied with things the way they are — who want a little more out of life than they've been getting.

95 million of these people read the newspaper every day to find out what's new in the world and what's better.

If you've got something to sell that's a little better than it has to be, a little better than what your competition offers — turn to the people who read the daily newspaper. They want to know about you. After all, most people invest good money and thirty minutes of their time in the newspaper every day of the week, 52 weeks a year.

ROMANS MASSACRED by Nazis in World War II are the subject of this statue, and a new book, "Death in Rome," blaming Pope Pius XII for not intervening.

"PHONY" EYES they named them, or is it just a way for young ladies on the beach to tell a gentleman of their choice to come calling sometime.

The U.S. Government met in 8 cities prior to 1800—Philadelphia, Baltimore, Lancaster, Pa., Princeton, N. J., Annapolis, Trenton, and New York City.

FIX-IT TIP

• When making plumbing repairs, wrap a strip of rubber electrician's tape around the fixture before you attempt the repairs. The tape keeps the wrench from marring the chrome and avoids slippage.

• Soiled plaster-of-paris statuettes will take on a new look if they are dipped in a solution of starch and water, then buffed with a soft brush when thoroughly dry.

The oldest court house in U. S. in continuous use is the one at New Castle, Delaware, which was used during the days of William Penn.

Six Named To Head AP Golf Association

The Avon Park Golf Association was formed Tuesday when 70 persons met in Chamber of Commerce offices and elected their board of directors.

$10,000 is needed to clinch a deal with the Highlands School for Girls to lease their 18-hole championship course —formerly known as Pine Crest, which was a well known resort a few years ago.

Chamber president Lou Hooper said that a charter membership of 100 persons paying 100 dollars each is all that is needed to go ahead with course plans. The 70 persons in attendance Tuesday night pledged 100 dollars each. Hooper said that persons wishing to pledge as charter members can call the Chamber offices.

Elected to the board were Cecil Skipper, W. S. Betts, Bob Young, Aaron Cravens, Robert King and Bill Reck.

A recent community survey in Avon Park indicated that a golf course was considered by citizens to be high on the list of needed civic improvements.

National Guard Announces New Armory For AP

Adjutant General for the state of Florida, Henry W. McMillan, has announced plans for a proposed new National Guard Armory for Avon Park.

The $215,000 building will be located just south of the hosiery mill on US Hwy. 27.

The city owns ten acres adjoining Hwy. 27 and plans are in progress to make this land available, according to Avon Park Mayor DeLaney.

A bill will be introduced in this session of the state legislature to appropriate the state's share of the cost. Then with matching funds from the federal government the work will begin.

The old Armory on Verona Avenue will then be turned over to the city.

Rhiner and Hassfurder Receive Outstanding Citizens Award

The theme for decorating the banquet room at Griffin's Restaurant Thursday, Apr. 6, was "April Showers Bring May Flowers." for the Annual Chamber of Commerce Banquet.

Committee in charge were, Mrs. Ann Johnson, Mrs. Betty Peebles, Mrs. Ophelia Rhiner, Miss Helen Tuten and Mrs. Bobbie Renfro. The speakers table was centered with an arrangement of spring flowers, covered with a miniature lace umbella, compliments of Ridge Floriste. The background was adorned with many umbrellas, Spring flowers and greenery was used throughout the long tables which served 114 members and guests.

Bob Barben, MC for the occasion, entroduced the speakers. Former President Jack DeLaney gave the invocation. After introducting the guests at the speakers table, Mayor and Mrs. E. A. DeLaney, City and County Attorney and Mrs. Hue Nuffnalle, he called upon Lou Hooper, president to welcome the guests, who was also seated with his wife at this table.

The guest speaker Woodrow Todd next to be presented used as his topic "The Power of People, to build rather than destroy" Mr. Todd represented the Chamber of Commerce from Clearwater. He lauded the people in this community, establishing needs of the community and most important arriving at the needs of the community. Walter Betts, Charles Ginn (absent) and Chas. Lanier were presented as the 7 original members of the Chamber dating back to 1939.

George Haynie, a former president, presented awards to Mrs. Ophelia Rhiner and Don Hassfurder as the outstanding citizens of the year, polled from all civic organizations vote for their civic and religious endeavors.

A grapefruit spoon was given to each guest representing the citrus industry.

DCT Club To Hold Banquet For Employers

Avon Park High School, Diversified Cooperative Training Club will hold their first annual Employer's Banquet Thursday, April 20, 7 p.m. at the Lion's Club, west end of Bell St.

This event is being sponsored by the Club and will feature tributes to their most important boosters—their employer-trainers.

Guest speakers will be Mr. George Douglass, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Highland County School, and Mr. I. Maurice Miller. Mr. Miller is a graduate of Stetson University with an AB Degree and Stetson Law School LLB Degree and admitted to the Bar and U. S. Supreme Court. He also taught at the FBI Academy and was an FBI agent for 18½ years.

Kiwanis Club To Have Bar-Be-Que

Proceeds will go for the Kiwanis Youth and Community Projects.

Tickets are available from Kiwanis members. $2.00 for adults $1.25 for children.

Bring your children, hay rides will be provided and a chance to see the dairy in operation.

Next Tuesday, Apr. 18, the Kiwanis Club of Avon Park will honor the members of the South Florida Junior College basketball and baseball teams with a luncheon at Griffins restaurant. Guest speaker will be Doyle Carlson, Jr., of Wauchula.

This is to demonstrate the communities appreciation for the fine showing the basketball team made against a very tough schedule. Their first year record was 19 wins and 14 losses.

The baseball team, in spite of a player shortage, is making good progress. They have one win over Lake Sumter and one loss to Brevard Junior College.

Panther Coach Dunaday Terrell expressed his appreciation for the support that the teams have enjoyed.

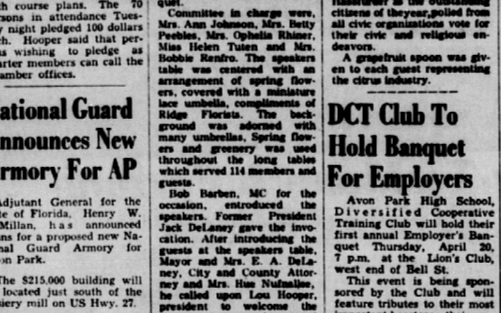

County Gets $44,000 From Tax Collections

Director of the Florida Revenue Commission, Ed Price, has announced the latest breakdown of tax collections for the 67 Florida counties, compiled through March.

Of the seven cent tax on gasoline, two cents is returned to the respective counties. For Highlands County, this amounted to $44,000.37.

Then of the seven cent on gasoline, 20 percent of that county's is returned to the county and the other 80 percent goes to the state road department. The 20 percent amounted to $6,573.46 for Highlands County.

Sales tax collections for Highlands County amounted to $70,315.63. This is a decrease of 8.51 percent from March 1966.

3,318 Registered For Bond Election

A total of 3,318 out of 8,168 Highlands County freeholders have re-registered for the special $3,150,000 bond election April 25 which would provide relief for the county's overcrowded schools.

Overcrowding, for instance, which has forced one elementary school principal to establish his office in a broom closet.

And unless tardy voters appear at the polls armed with their tax receipts or the deed to their property, it will take exactly 1,660 voters to make this a valid election.

Half of those voting, plus one, could decide the issue.

Roland X. Droit, supervisor of elections, expects a good portion of the 3,318 to vote, since they were interested enough to re-register.

Droit and his crew worked on Saturday, providing interested freeholders a final chance and an extra day to register.

If the issue is passed — and chances appear very tight — it will raise yearly real estate taxes from $1 or less for small property owners to more than $10,000 for Lykes brothers, the county's biggest property holders. Their 1966 tax bill according to records in the collector's office, is $84,000.

Figures issued by school people indicate the extra tax per year would amount to $1.22 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, less the $5,000 Homestead Exemption.

Since two-thirds of Highlands County property owners have assessments in the less than $10,000 bracket, the tax hike for them would be $8.10 per year or less, using this yardstick.

But for the big holders of cattle and grove lands, the extra tax looks painful and punitive. The hike would be big on Consolidated Financial Corp., second largest holder of lands in the county with an assessed valuation of $5,300,000 and $50,000 tax assumed for 1966. Their extra bill for the school tax would be about $6,466.

Among the other large holders of real estate in the county, judging from their tax bills, are: Ben Hill Griffin, $52,000; Minute Maid, $40,000 and Florida Power Co., $46,000.

Although the small property owner, the little homeowner, retired, with no children and living on a fixed income, would be the least hard hit, it is their vote which may be the key one, since they have numbers — and votes.

Some of these claim the wording of the ballot is not reassuring. It states: "the principal of and interest on such bonds to be paid from a special ad valorem tax levied on all taxable property in such district without limitation as to rate or amount." The wording "without limitation" has some voters concerned, although school officials have pointed out they are restrained by law from exceeding 20 mills.

Meanwhile the Highlands County Education Association and Parent-Teacher Associations were embarked on a campaign of educating the voters on why the issue should be passed now. State school officials have outlined the needs and local school officials concurred in this in recommending new buildings and improvements. The educators and students have been making do with some 30 temporary classrooms. The DeSoto City elementary school leaks badly. Classes are overcrowded. And the biggest bugaboo of all — accreditation — is at stake.

Most private colleges — such as the University of Miami and University of Tampa —seldom accept students from non-accredited schools. Schools which do, waste little time in tossing out students who drop below a C average.

Classrooms built to accommodate a maximum of 30 pupils, now serve up to 45. Ellis Watson, principal at Fred Wild-DeSoto City School, has his office in a broom closet.

One of the side-effects of the crowding is that it may be harder to attract good teachers, something Sebring has avoided up to now.

Special clinics such as Career Day, have had to be conducted at First Baptist Church, since the High School auditorium cannot accommodate them. All children from 7th and 8th elementary school have to be bussed to lunch each day at Sebring High School.

All available Avon Park firemen and volunteers fought a stubborn fire from 1 p.m. Tuesday until early Wednesday morning at the Ben Hill Griffin citrus warehouse.

The smouldering fire involved 12 carloads — over 300,000 pounds—of bulk dairy feed that was in storage for the V & W Dairy farm west of Avon Park.

Though the fire never reached high blaze intensity the firemen were hampered by dense smoke. Eventually, bulldozers were called in to push the entire mass out of the warehouse so it could be doused with water.

Fire Chief Wilbur Giddens estimated that the loss would be $18,000 to $20,000. He said that the major damage to the warehouse itself was caused by water.

While they were battling the fire at the Ben Hill Griffin warehouse, several grass fires broke out and the Forrest Dept. was called in to help with these.

Panthers Down Lake Sumter 13-2 Thursday

Last Thursday night at Head Field in Avon Park, South Florida Jr. Collegge's Panthers baseball team won its first game even as they downed Lake Sumter 13-2.

Ronnie Jackson started on the mound for the Panthers and for a while it looked the same as any other game. Sumter scored single runs in the first two innings to grab a 2-0 lead. In the third frame the Panthers scored 3 runs on two walks and two singles by Ron Jackson and Ray McMillian. Holding this lead the Panthers unleashed the heavy timber in the 7th frame to score 7 big runs on a three run blast by Ted Butler over the left field wall, and a grand slam blast by Jim Boatenhammer. In the next inning the Panthers needed two runs to sew up vis 10 runs lead rule after 7 innings. Ronnie Jackson, first man up lined a double to the center field wall. Ted Butler, followed with his second homer of the night, a two run blast over the center field wall to end the ball game.

The Panthers garnered 10 hits and 13 runs while Jackson was limiting Sumter to two runs and three hits.

Saturday night in Sebring, SFJC Panthers lost a 10-3 ball game to St. Petersburg. Junior Gale with 3 hits and Charlie Moomyhan with 2, led the batting for the Panthers. McMillian started and pitched very creditable ball giving up 9 runs on 11 hits. Errors kept the Panthers in hot water most f the night. Freddie McCall relieved McMillian in the 8th inning and allowed one run

BREVARD 6 SFJC 0

Monday night at Head Field, Ronnie Jackson and Gill, Brevard Ace, hooked up in a pitcher's duel for 7 innings. Brevard managed one run and two hits until the 7th inning while the Panthers had two hits and no runs. However in the 7th inning the Panthers ship sprung a couple of leaks to allow Brevard five runs on two hits and gave the Cocoa School a 6-0 win. Brevard scored all five runs after two were out.

Monday night the Panthers meet Indian River Junior College at Firemen's Field in Sebring at 7:30.

General Feeling On School Bond Issue

Should the $3,150,000 school bond issue which comes up before the freeholders April 25, be passed?

Generally, opinions agree that it should be passed. But will it, when it means extra taxes? How many are really for it? Is here's how it is:

Ed Holcomb, secretary-treasurer of Highlands County Property Owners Association, Inc. — The Property Owners Association has hired Charles Wicks, CPA, to work on an evaluation of the bond issue financing. We hope to have a factual report on whether the bond issue is needed at this time. The directors of the association have taken the stand of not doing anything until Mr. Wicks gives us the facts. Under present tax structure, there are inequities and this taxation is one of them. We will put out a newsletter to our 135 members on Mr. Wicks' findings.

Mayor E. A. DeLaney, Sr., of Avon Park — I just do not feel I am qualified to discuss the bond issue. None of 'em in the know have been around up my way to talk to me about it, so I just can't answer.

Unidentified —

Mayor J. A. Butler of Sebring — I think we need more and better schools. They are the backbone of our nation and I am for it. I think there should be a different method of financing but at the present time they have no alternative but the real estate tax.

Mayor Al Moretz of Lake Placid — I feel there could be a more equitable way of taxing for schools. Just for the freeholders to foot the bill is not right, it seems to me, and I have been a lot of people say the same thing. They feel there should be a more equitable way of taxation. A sales tax has been mentioned.

Ben Bond, president of First National Bank of Sebring — The bond issue is needed at this time. I feel that if it is voted on favorably, they are hitting the bond market at the most favorable time in the past two years. If the voters don't pass the bond issue, chances is the next two years are that the bond issue could

THE TWO MAN air crew on a practice bombing mission lost control of the Jet F-4C fighter-bomber at the Bombing Range last Friday, April 7, which crashed at the range, both pilots safely ejected, but were rushed to Walker Memorial Hospital, one pilot received a back injury. One hour later a helicopter from MacDill Air Force Base flew a doctor to the hospital, landing on the highway in front of the hospital. Traffic was stopped both ways on 27, to permit the helicopter to land.

General Feeling On School Bond

be less favorable. We are going to have to do something for our schools and the more we delay the more it will cost.

Stanley Davis, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association — There is a very definite need for the bond issue to pass. It is about the only feasible method today. If they vote down the bonds our schools will be overcrowded and there is a possibility of having double sessions in a few years. I believe it would mean giving our children second rate educations.

Ricky Dressel, president of Highlands County Cattlemen's Assn. — I think there is a need for improved facilities for education. I think they need to find, possibly, a new source of revenue rather than to overburden present sources, such as the real estate tax. I am sure most people realize that it is a burden on everybody paying ad valorem taxes and I do not think a bond issue is the complete answer.

Aubrey Morris, supervising principal of Lake Placid School — We have some opposition down here, but it is my opinion that we have too much to gain to vote against this bond issue. We would not be getting a new high school like Avon Park and Sebring, but we would be getting a new elementary school and vastly improved high school facilities. I feel that the recommendations for increased facilities in Lake Placid are adequate to care for our needs at this time and will provide for growth.

George Douglass, superintendent of Highlands County Schools — I recommend a favorable vote in the bond election, because of the extreme conditions existing in our schools. Over-crowded schools, and limited facilities can only result in an inadequate education for our children. The 30 portable classrooms that will be in operation this Fall serve as a reminder of the emergency measures that have been taken. The "temporary" classrooms in World War II barracks, and those converted from storage areas, stress that corrective measures must be taken. The school board studied all of the factors before recommending the bond issue to the citizens of the county.

Miss Ann Karrick, president of Highlands County Education Association — I feel now is the time to pass the Bond issue. Conditions in our schools will get nothing but worse. We have 35-40 students in classrooms now geared for 30. I do not think we can keep this up. Eventually there will be a problem getting good teachers, who would rather work elsewhere for the same money where classes are smaller.

Jack Ingle, president elect of Highlands County Education Assn. and vice president Sebring Chamber of Commerce — We have raised money among our members and in Parent-Teacher Associations to inform the voters on how necessary it is to vote favorably on this bond issue. If our schools are not improved, we could lose our accreditation in three years. Many private schools such as University of Miami, Stetson and Rollins accept only students who have graduated from accredited schools.

Guy Garrett, principal of Avon Park high school — The primary issue is that our crowded conditions are getting worse and the longer we wait to start improvements, the fewer opportunities our young people will have for quality education.

Billy Cason, supervising principal of Sebring Schools — Our present facilities are overcrowded, inadequate, or in some cases, non-existent. Overcrowding is cutting down curriculum. We can't put in new courses when we have no classrooms for them. When all the classrooms are in use, the only way out is to schedule more students per class. Competition for teachers being as keen as it is, it's difficult to induce teachers to come into a place that is overcrowded."

Letter To Editor

Editor Sun:

Those of you who are fairly observant have noticed the increasing numbers of temporary classrooms being built as emergency measures on all our school campuses in Highlands County—but the real emergency is yet to come.

In order to offset the problems of overcrowding created by normal population growth and the desegregation of our schools, which is to be completed this fall, our School Board has found it necessary to take action. After much deliberation, they are asking for permission to borrow up to 3.2 million dollars for capital improvement—new sites, new buildings, and major additions—throughout the county, according to the need for the next five years.

There is no doubt that need in our schools has reached emergency proportions now, and the next few years will be critical ones at best. There is also no doubt that our School Board is acting in good faith. They've evaluated the recommendations of the State Board of Education and after adopting their minimum recommendations for new school buildings, our School Board has investigated every possible avenue of financing this long-term building program. There is no doubt that the issuing of bonds is the most economically feasible means of paying for this capital expansion of our schools and will provide a basis upon which future growth can be financed. This will also provide a means by which those who will move to Highlands County in the future may help to pay for the schools their children attend.

Let's not be short-sighted and most of all, let's not be spiteful. It's our children and our grandchildren who will be using these schools. Vote on Apr. 25 FOR school bonds. Never again will we have the opportunity to receive so much with such a small investment.

Mrs. Ruth M. Davis

Patti Hill awarded a singular honor by Alpha Gamma Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma on April 8 for outstanding service in teaching.

Mrs. Patti Hill Honored By Fraternities

Mrs. J. Paxton Hill, Sr., Patti to her co-workers and friends, was awarded a singular honor by Alpha Gamma Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma on Apr. 8. Membership in this organization is based upon success in teaching, powers of leadership, service to school and community and other desirable personal qualities.

The personal Growth and Service committee of the Alpha Gamma chapter chose as a project for the current school year, selection of a member outstanding in service and success as a teacher in her county. These selections were revealed Saturday, Apr. 8 in Wauchula and Mrs. Patti Hill was the choice for Highlands County.

A tribute was made to her in which the various honors she has received and the outstanding contributions she has made personally and professionally were cited. She was awarded a "Loving Cup."

Patti has been active in professional organizations in the state and county and has held numerous offices. She is esteemed throughout the state.

Mrs. Hill is in her twenty-second year of teaching at Avon Park High School. She was the first guidance counselor in the County, having received her Master's Degree in guidance in 1955.

She holds membership in the American Personnel and Guidance Association which is considered the climax to a guidance counselor's career. Membership is by invitation only and an outstanding record is the criteria for selection. She is also a member of the Florida Personnel and Guidance Association and American School Counselor.

Patti has been an influence for good on the lives of many students in the community. She has been influential in making it possible for numbers of students to further their education.

The meeting at which the tribute to her was made, was held at the spacious home of Mrs. Cathryn McDonald in Wauchula. After the committee meetings in the morning, a buffet luncheon was served on the large screened patio. "April Showers Bring May Flowers" was the theme for table appointments, decorations and favors. Each guest received a raincape and bonnet in a pastel gift package at her place at the table.

The business meeting and program followed the luncheon. Avon Park members attending were Mrs. Jamie Edge, Mrs. Violet Moseley, Mrs. Maryanne Reddick, Mrs. Alice Sherman and Miss Sarah Sellers, Mrs. G. Franklin Ward was a special guest.

H. L. Willeford Dies After Long Illness

Herman Leslie Willeford, age 78, died Tuesday morning Apr. 4 after a long illness.

Born in Hazel Ky., he moved to Avon Park from Puryear, Tenn. in 1920.

He was a mechanic on heavy machinery until his retirement. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors are, one son, J. T. Willeford of Frostproof; two daughters, Mrs. M. E. Jordon, Sebring and Mrs. J. L. Singletary of Bartow. Four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Funeral services was held at Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home Wednesday May 5 with J. Leo Patten and H. W. Larkin officiating.

Air Force Needs Women Officers

As a result of a new Defense Department ruling, the Air Force can offer commissions to nearly twice as many women as usual next year, according to Sergeant Paul Smith, local Air Force recruiter.

The new ruling raises by 100 the authorized number of officers in the WAF—Women in the Air Force. Air Force expects spirited competition for the openings, and appointments will go to those applicants who are judged best qualified by a central selection board.

Women who wish more information on the WAF may contact Sergeant Smith at his office, 124 S. Tennessee Ave., in Lakeland, or telephone him at 682-8857.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Program chairman Art Willhite introduced James Smith who is curriculum and Elementary Supervisor of the Highlands County schools. Mr. Smith also spends a good portion of his time recruiting teachers for the county and this was the subject of his talk today.

In some past years, teacher turnover has been very high—up to 25 percent. A total of 50 to 60 teachers are needed annually for replacements or additions. These include retirements, resignations, deaths or what have you. Twelve to fifteen new teachers are needed each year just to keep up with Highlands County growth. Private as well as Federal jobs are luring teachers away. Math instructors are a prime example of this.

The state of Florida does not produce enough teachers to satisfy its own needs, so much recruiting must be done outside of the state. Mr. Smith said he had just returned from a 4,000 mile trip to fifteen universities and interviews with some seventy prospects. These prospect lists give the local principals much aid and help them supplement their own talent searches. Out of state recruiting is getting more difficult however, as other states are now paying salaries equal to if not higher than ours. Another difficulty is recruiting of teacher talent by private enterprise (insurance companies etc.)

Mr. Smith said that the chief questions and concerns of these new teachers are as follows:

1. basic salary ($4,700 now in Highlands County); 2 salary advancement schedule (ours good after 10 years of service only 8 transferrable); 3 living conditions (rent average, entertainment facilities, closeness of universities); 4 reputation of county education system (ours good); 5 school facilities (ours are crowded—temporary buildings); 6 education equipment (ours good).

Mr. Smith said word of mouth is a good way to help in recruiting. If anyone knows of any dissatisfied teachers who might be interested in Highlands County, let them know. He said another good way would be to vote for the school bond issue.

How I made one more $50,000 and more • Why a music education is not necessary for success in songwriting • How to get songwriting • Advice from top writers • How to make a demo record • Where to send your demo • Song copyrights • Pop, rhythm and blues, country and western • Royalties • Taxes • Contracts • "The Nashville System" — Why it is not necessary to go to Nashville to get your song sold • Where to find a publisher • Getting the songs you need to a publisher • Getting the songs you need to a producer • Protecting your copyrights • Songwriting • How to Avoid the Pitfalls • Collaboration • How to write a lyric • Writing the melody • How to write the publication • Advertising • How, when, and where to publish • Should you join BMI, ASCAP, or SESAC • Publishing • Record producing • Record distributing • Recording • The tape recorder • Using your tape recorder • Tape recorders • Electronic writers • . . . and much more!

USING YOUR NATURAL TALENT

"How To Make A Fortune In Writing Songs" is a book that could change your life and show you the road to financial success and happiness. In the next 60 seconds I will tell you the most important step — the step you must take — to open the door to songwriting success.

Every day, hundreds of people from all walks of life are making thousands of dollars by writing songs. Only a few years ago, a young man with practically no musical background was literally just barely making a living in Nashville, Tennessee. Today, that former bellhop is a wealthy young man because he used his natural talent to succeed as a songwriter.

Housewives, truck drivers, lawyers, factory workers, students, businessmen, teachers, secretaries, clerks and people from virtually every imaginable situation have reaped fantastic rewards for their songwriting efforts. They had no special training and most had no musical knowledge. They simply used their natural talent. Here, at last, is a highly valuable book that reveals simple, proven secrets of success in this unusual field.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKING

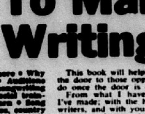

Just about everyone at one time or another has written a song. Maybe you were while singing in the shower, or while washing the dishes, or driving the car. Perhaps after you sang it, or just made up a song of our own we said to ourselves, "Hey, that's pretty good . . . I could write a song for a living." Probably then you did nothing more about it.

Strangely enough, that song might have been worth a fortune to you in money, in fame, and in contentment knowing you are doing the work you always dreamed of doing. That "special" was for other "special" people. The "special" people, however, are not special at all. They are just people like you and your neighbor, me and my neighbor. The only thing special about the songs that they write. They applied their ability, and learned how to write a song that sells. Even some of the top professional songwriters got their ideas for songs while singing in the shower, washing the dishes, or driving the car. Professional songwriters then are not special other than the fact that they do not let opportunities go by. They say that "Opportunity knocks only once." This is not true in songwriting. It knocks many times. Every time we think of a title, a melody, a catchphrase, an idea . . . this is opportunity knocking.

UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE
"How To Make A Fortune Writing Songs" is sold to you on a TEN-DAY, NO-RISK Trial basis! If you are not completely satisfied in every way, simply return it any time within 10 days and every cent of your purchase price will be refunded without question!
HARPETH PRESS

This book will help and encourage you to open the door to those opportunities and learn what to do once the door is open.

It tells you what I have learned, and the mistakes I've made; with the helpful advice of other songwriters, and with your own pitfalls ironed out, the contentment that others just like you have discovered in writing songs. You will find as I have found, that the rewards of writing for you if you make an attempt to reach them.

This book is not a long, boring waste of precious time. Because it is printed on lightweight, readable bond it seems to the point of being fun to peruse. It is printed in black and white with no illustrations in this book alone are worth the price.

THE SECRETS TO SUCCESS

This book shares with you the knowledge and experiences of some of America's leading songwriters. Their secrets are yours. I tell you the qualifications for success and outline in detail the 5 principles to songwriting. You choose the approach you like best. I show you how to start with your idea and build to a big line-by-line construction. This explanation alone will eliminate the beginner's greatest problem right from the start. Another vital feature tells you how to handle lyrics and melody for "Nashville Way" songs. Learn how you the natural method which has made fortunes for others and can do the same for you. This information will prepare you to write all kinds of songs . . . Pop, Country and Western, Rock and Blues, Rhythm and Blues, Gospel . . . whatever you prefer. The opportunity awaits you . . . you make the first step!

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR SONGS

Many songwriters never have a chance because they do not know how to submit their work to a music publisher. I show you exactly what to do! Your songs must be typed, neat, and clean, and recorded quickly and without red tape. You learn the proper way for making contact with the people who really make the decisions . . . the publishers, the producers and the artists.

You are told how to recognize a trend in music and how to take advantage of the public's changing tastes. Remember when Elvis Presley bootleg records suddenly became the rage with the beat of rock and roll? Writers who recognized this trend in its early stages became vastly wealthy almost overnight.

I tell you the secrets to collaboration . . . that is, writing with a partner. Many of the great songs were written by teams.

You learn what not to write with a partner too. I tell you how it's done saving you potentially costly errors and headache; and pointing the way to profits and personal satisfaction. Whether you write alone or with a partner, the information I offer you will greatly increase your opportunity for success.

LEGAL QUESTIONS: COPYRIGHT, CONTRACTS

Many songwriters, especially beginners, take tremendous risks with their songs simply because they don't know how to protect their legal rights. You learn the easy way to protect your work and how to copyright your songs. Copyright forms are actually reproduced in this book and I show you the simple way to obtain copyrights without costly legal fees.

Another vital feature covers songwriter contracts. You learn what to look for in the contract. As a bonus we actually reproduce standard songwriter contract forms to guide you in the right direction.

We spell out the publisher's responsibilities to you so that you clearly understand what to expect for your songs. Also, you learn of your responsibilities to the publisher, the record companies and the artists.

These and many other legal questions such as exclusive writer's agreements and retrieval clauses are discussed in detail offering you a wealth of vital information that could mean big bucks and unnecessary delays. You need never leave your home if you know how to submit a demo tape properly by mail.

Latins Visit Avon Park During Inter-American Relations Trip

Head-to-head confrontation was the aim of a group of Latin American students that visited Avon Park Thursday to discuss ways and means to maintain and improve our mutual relations with their countries.

This goodwill tour of the United States is an interfaith church program that is specifically sponsored in their Florida visit by the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ and the Florida Synod of the Presbyterian Church.

Rev. T. Albert Lawrence said that the group of students, all of high school age, would be in Florida for one week with visits to Maderia Beach and Miami.

Their tour of the United States will be for eight weeks.

Donald B. Corey A 30 Year Resident Dies

Donald B. Corey, aged 71, passed away Sunday, April 9 after a long illness. He resided at 1104 S. Lake Sebring Drive.

He was a resident of Avon Park for 30 years.

Sole survivor is his widow, Emily Corey.

Interment will be held at a later date in Canada.

FARP To Have Patient Reunion

Over 200 former patients from the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program are expected in Avon Park this Saturday for the Sixth Annual Open House and Patient Reunion.

The event will be held between 1 and 4 P.M. on the grounds of the 64 bed psychiatric treatment center.

Coordinator of the homecoming event for the fourth straight year is Harve E. Olsen, Community Field Representative.

FARP staff members plan to be present to greet former patients and their families.

Refreshments will be served in the Center cafeteria.

"There is present need for 4,400 additional classrooms in the State of Florida just to take care of the 65,000 pupils in excess of normal classroom capacity."—Governor Claude Kirk's "White Papers."

Highlands 4-H's Take First Place In District Events

Three Highlands County 4-H'ers took top placings at the District IX 4-H Events Program held last weekend at 4-H Camp Cloverleaf near Lake Placid. District IX consists of 4-H Clubs from eight counties surrounding Highlands County. Winner from each County Club Events, competed against the other Counties in each Event.

Bert Harris, III from Lake Placid placed second iin he Lamp Contest and will be an alternate for the State 4-H Club Congress at Gainesville this summer. He entered a cypress knee lamp he had made in his Electric Project.

Bettye Lipham from Sebring placed first in the Foods-Nutrition Demonstration and will represent Highlands County and District IX at 4-H Club Congress. She has made some refreshing summer drinks for her demostration.

Ann Walker from Sebring placed first in the Public Speaking Contest with her speech on "Courage." She will also go to Congress.

Bettye Lipham and Bert Harris, III were delegates from the Highlands County 4-H Council to the District IX 4-H Council Meeting. They will also attend 4-H Congress as Delegates. Bettye also was selected as an alternate Delegate to represent District IX on the State 4-H Council this year.

TOLL FREE TRAVEL SERVICE

Highlands County residents can obtain airline and ship information and tickets—without expensive phone calls—or without using out of town—by dialing O—Operator and asking for Lake Wales WX 2911. They will be connected with experienced agents at the Lake Wales Travel Bureau of the Sebring Travel Service in the Wahnish Hotel, Lake Wales. This office has a leased line so that calls can be made to carriers without toll charges. Arrangements can be made for tickets to be mailed.

WWI Veterans Meet Tonight

On Thursday Apr. 13, at 7:30 P.M., the Veterans of World War One and their Auxiliary, will hold their regular meeting, at the Civic Center Hall. All veterans are requested to attend this meeting, whether you are a member of Barracks 1156 or not, as visitors are always welcome.

The Ladies auxiliary always have a nice social activity provided, with coffee and cake for those attending.

It is expected at this meeting that Commander Eastman will produce some new members for Barracks 1156, and every member is urged to attend this meeting.

APO Wives Hold Meeting

A group of eight military wives met on Apr. 3 at 7 P.M. for a pleasant evening of conversation and business. The meeting was held at the First National Bank of Sebring. Mrs. Betty Porter of Avon Park was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Dee Dee Martin of Lake Placid attended the meeting accompanied by her husband, Capt. William Martin who has just returned from Viet Nam. He was able to tell some of the ladies about the areas where their husbands are now serving.

The "Health Mate" program was discussed. A list of items was submitted to the club and from this list we will send three packages of recording tape and three dozen packages of razor blades to the 71st Evacuation Hospital in Viet Nam.

Our toy collection project will be continued til our next meeting. Many more small toys and games are needed to send to orphans overseas.

The next meeting will be held at the First National Bank of Sebring, May 1, 1967 at 7 P.M. All military wives are invited to attend.

Avon Mobile Home Park

By Ruth E. Robinson

The April Women's Club meeting had 22 ladies present for a business meeting, was sharpened at contests, refreshments were served. Winners of the contests were: Iva Fisher, Martha MacBeth, Lulu Maddrell and Bea Tingler. Lady residents of "Fifth Ave." furnished the delicious food, and industrious volunteers have made 113 cancer pads so far this season. Meetings will be resumed next fall when all our guests have returned.

Remember the April Pot Luck dinner at the club house on Thursday, Apr. 13, at 12 noon. LaRue Longanecker and Rosie Krutz will be serving as hostesses, so come, for, possibly, the last one of the season.

Best wishes to Doris Johnston for a speedy recovery from her recent injury of her ribs, either sprained muscles, or cracked rib; this happened during a recent fishing trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Marshal have settled their accident suit; and have safely arrived at their home in Ind.

More of our good friends and neighbors are leaving this week. A safe and pleasant journey is wished to Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Miller, (who visited with friends in Ocala, on the way home); Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roth, (I think I saw them leave at 3 A.M. one morning); Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sutherland, who are moving to Orlando, to be near their daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Amick, Mr. and Mrs. Fero, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Madison, and Mr. and Mrs. Dal Kalb.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Madison have been with us for two months, are returning to their home in Schenetady, N.Y. and may return here next fall. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter are going to visit with their daughter in Richmond, Va., for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Suther from Spooner, Wis. were visitors to the home of Mrs. Arthur Massey last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Gerrard of South Bend, Ind., were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wiedeman and on Tuesday evening, they were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hurst of New Paris, Ind.

Mrs. Frank Nester of Detroit, Mich., came to spend a few days with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wiedeman, arriving last Friday after being detained one day at Detroit Airport, due to heavy fog.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long spent last Wednesday with friends in Plant City. On Tuesday, Apr. 11th, the Longs, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott visited former neighbors and friends, in Vero Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Gaarl Gundrum, who previously lived here in Avon Mobile Home Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Converse, Miss Margaret Converse and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson spent last Friday at Bahia Beach, for lunch and a swim in the Bay across from St. Petersburg. This is a beautiful spot for that leisurely south sea island experience, loafing and getting a tan, then return home at sunset.

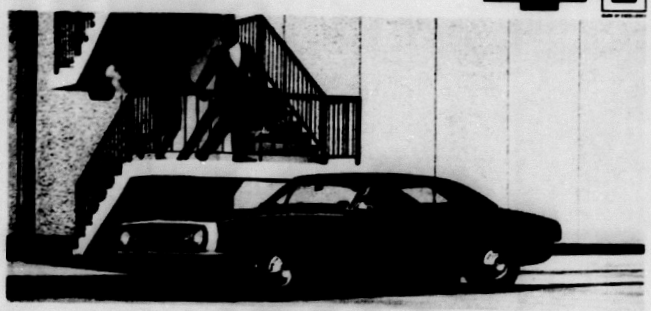

We are glad to see Mrs. Walter Douglas walking around and looking so well.

Received word today, that Mrs. Roland Hire (Ada) has been ill this past winter, but is now feeling better. She may return to Avon Park next winter for awhile.

Bland Nieukirk and Maude have been busy with their hobbies all winter, as you can see, by the colorful array of windmills at the rear of their lot.

Warren and Nita Byrer have also arrived home safely, and now are contemplating the land for cultivation, hoping for weather cooperation. We miss them on the shuffleboard court, as this activity continues in the cool of the morning and evening hours.

DAR Is Oldest Patriotic Society In Nation

The DAR is one of the leading patriotic societies of the nation. It was organized in Washington, D. C. in 1890. It is open to all women, one or more of whose ancestors aided in the revolutionary cause.

The Florida State Society Daughters of the American Revolution have just held their 60th annual state conference in St. Petersburg.

Four members of Patriots Chapter Highlands County attended the conference. Mrs. Wm. F. Lockett of Fort Basinger, State program chairman gave her report. Mrs. T. H. Ford of Avon Park and Regent of Patriots Chapter summerized the work accomplished this year. Mrs. Joseph Vasek of Sebring, District VI director attended as did Mrs. Ralph Koerber of Lake Placid, vice regent of Patriots Chapter.

Patriots Chapter had its regular meeting on Monday, Apr. 3 at 2 P.M. at the home of Mrs. T. H. Ford, Lotela Rd. Avon Park. Reports were made of the State meeting of Mar. 30-31 and Apr. 1. The program subject was "The Flag of the United States," and Mrs. Al Schutt was chairman. Hostesses aiding Mrs. Ford were Mesdames Lane, Kaufman, Nickerson, Terrell.

Boland - Barnes Marriage April 8 In Nazarene Church

The Nazarene Church was the scene of the wedding Saturday Apr. 8, at 7:30 P.M. uniting in holy wedlock Miss Diane Marie Boland and Charles Randall Barnes, both from Avon Park. The brides parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Boland, the grooms parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Barnes, Sr.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. James Lighty in the presence of fifty relatives and friends. The bride was given in marriage by her father before an alter banked with palms and two large standards of pink carnations and white snap dragons, green and pink satin bows, the color theme for the wedding.

Two seven branched candlebra gave the effect of a cradle light ceremony. The kneeling bench was covered with white satin, trimmed with lily-of-the valley and satin streamers.

Mrs. James Lighty, organist for the church provided appropriate nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied the soloist, Miss Brenda Brown who sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Because."

Mrs. Bonnie Jacobs, sister of the bride, served as Matron of Honor. Maid of Honor, Miss Mary Lou Cramer and Miss Virginia Barnes, sister of the groom as bridesmaid.

James Barnes, Jr., served his brother as best man. Ushers were, Ralph Barnes, brother of the groom and Milton Jacobs of Lakeland.

Relative pews were marked with white tulle and satin bows.

The bride chose a gown fashioned of French hand-clipped Chantilly lace and tulle over satin with a fitted bodice, jeweled Queen Anne collar, long sleeves pointed over the hands. Her chapel length train feil from the waist in rows of ruffles. Her finger tip illusion veil fell from a plateau of seeed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascade of red rose buds and white carnations, arranged in tulle and lace, long streamers ending with red rose buds.

The men were attired in afternoon formal wear.

The bride's attendants wore identical street length dresses, fashioned of Alencon lace over taffeta, flowing Wateau back, sleeveless, long white gloves and white accessories. Carrying out the color theme, the Matron of Honor wore pale green with the brides-maids in pale pink. Their matching head pieces of tulle was held in place by a Tiara Crown of seed pearls. They carried Colonial bouquests of carnations.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece street length brocaded dress in beige with matching accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. The groom's mother wore an aqua colored street length linen dress with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the new church annex. It was decorated in pink and white crepe streamers and white wedding bells. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom circled in white tulle and roses, centered a table covered with a white lace cloth, from which mints, nuts and punch were served. Mrs. Wanda Strenth, Miss Linda Sizemore and Mrs. Joyce Simmons served the refreshments.

Miss Polly Ann Barnes presided at the guest book.

After a short wedding trip to the west coast, they will make their home in Tacoma Park, Maryland where the groom will be stationed for the next 17 months in the Army with a rating of Sp-4.

The bride was a telephone operator with Inter-County Telephone System.

Fashion Show Saturday

Included in the entertainment to be presented at the Junior Woman's Club Fashion Show on Saturday, Apr. 15, will be a hula number performed by Miss Miriam Limcangco and Miss Lanny Newton. The dance is in keeping with the theme "Relax Awhile, Hawaiian Style."

Wedding Held In Lake Placid Tower Monday

The most unique wedding of the year was performed Monday, April 10, by Highlands County Judge Mecvin Rehrer, uniting in holy wedlock, Pearl Mary Chaisson and Leonard Jacob Rubin, from Douchersville, Quebec, Canada, in the Eagles Nest at the top of Lake Placid Tower.

Coming to Florida by plane with approximately 30 relatives and friends, the Tower was the scene of the first ceremony every performed in the Tower. Amplifiers carried the ceremony to guests on the ground level.

Recorded wedding music was played preceding the ceremony, followed with Adrienne Potter of Lake Placid playing the wedding march, on the accordion.

The bride dressed in a pink sheath crepe street length dress carried a crescent of gardenias. The attendants, also from Canada carried crescent shaped pink carnation arrangements.

Mrs. Roy Peebles and Mrs. Hubert Roberts served the punch and huge wedding cake.

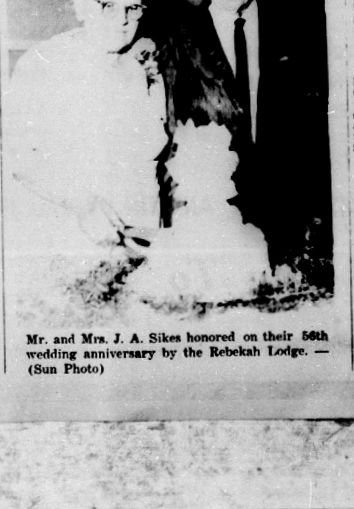

After the reception, Mr. Whitaker was host to the wedding party at a buffet dinner.

The newly weds and guests returned to Canada by plane on Tuesday, April 11.

Bretta Gibbs Returns From Florence, Italy

Miss Bretta Gibbs daughteer of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gibbs returned Mar. 31 to Avon Park after spending seven months in Florence, Italy, where she studied Art, Language and Literature at the Florida State University Study Center.

She plans to return to the University of Florida in Tampa for her senior year this fall.

During her stay overseas she visited 10 different countries and was in Florence during the worst flood ever experienced in Italy. She worked in the library during the flood helping to save the books.

In Bretta's own words she relates her trip.

"Italy is only 15 hours from Avon Park, but I had to change my whole way of living. I switched from hamburgers and cokes to spaghetti and wine; from "How's it going?" to "Come va?" and from modern homes with all their conveniences to cold water, cold rooms and poor lighting."

"My place landed in Pisa, so the first thing I saw was the famous Leaning Tower with souvenier and ice cream stands cluttered around emiting liars of "Yellow Submarines" and men yelling "can I help you miss?" it reminded me of a small fair at home."

"We left Pisa by bus and wound around narrow curvey roads lined with dark green olive and fig trees and I began to realize—I was in Italy! There was no orange groves or miles of flat lands as in big American cars. The regular highways are winding, bumpy and narrow."

"When we arrived in Florence I saw swarms of tiny "Fiats" darting through the narrow streets, tooting their horns constantly. They drove like maniacs—ripping and snorting, passing and seemed to drive right on top of each other."

"Unlike America the modern American towns, most European towns have a maze of narrow back streets, shadowed by tall brick or stone structures, built side by side and very close to the street, leaving only a foot for the sidewalk. On either side the streets are dotted with small shops of every kind, protected by green awnings and usualy there is laundry hanging out from most of the windows above."

"I lived in an area like this at my back door for months. But two blocks in any direction was some well known attraction—Michelangelo's "David," the flea market of San Lorenzo, the Medici Chapel and an old fort with its large park and "swan pond." I became familiar with the green parks, gardens and court yards and their happy sounds. I began to listen for the bells of the churches and to understand the Italian way of life.

"I soon left my explorations of Florence and began to make trips to other Italian cities and eventually to other countries. I visited Venice, the city of canals, in late September. Venice was completely unique. It had no cars, they were not allowed inside the city limits. All transportation was accomplished by gondolas, vaporetto's or small row boats.

Memorial Fund Set For Miss Avis Slaughter

The woman's Club and the Library Committee of the Avon Park Library have set up a Memorial Fund for Miss Avis Slaughter, who passed away on Mar. 27. Miss Slaughter served as the Librarian for about 25 years before her retirement in 1965.

Several gifts have already been received for the purchase of books for the library. Each book will be appropriately marked in her memory. Anyone wishing to add to this Memorial may do so by stopping in the library to sign the Memory Book or by giving the necessary information.

Mrs. Louie Reisner, Library Chairman, has suggested that Avon Park observe the National library Week which is April 16-22 as The Avis Slaughter Memorial Library Week. The Woman's Club approved this action at their regular monthly meeting Friday afternoon, and will promote this observance.

"Next I went to Naples and was disappointed. This is the only city to which I don't want to return. The people I met there changed my whole picture of the city. But I had just arrived in Italy and didn't understand the way of the people. Later I learned to overlook things or accept them when I understood the people better. From Naples I took a side trip to Pompeii. This was a most impressive place, so much of this ancient city has been preserved and what we saw, tells us of an extremely advanced civilization. They were many centuries before their time with paved streets, hot and cold running water and sliding glass doors.

"I spent a week in the "Eternal City"—Roma. I visited the Christian and Pagan temples, the Roman Forum the Colosseum, the Christian Catacombs, the Vatican and St. Peters Cathedral. I had an audience with the Pope and was blessed. Of course I went to Treni Fountain and threw in my coins, wishing for a return to Rome.

"One of my most memorable experiences in Italy was the few days I visited with Riccardo Biana and his family. Riccardo was an American Field Service exchange student to Avon Park in 61-62 and lived with the H. E. Bell family. The Biana family took me in as one of their own and I felt right at home. They took me snow skiing at Lake Como and to the small mountain village where they were born. We spent most of the night visiting with his parents. was sorry to leave them.

Switzerland had always been my ideal country. The people were as friendly an hospitable and the country side as beautiful as I had imagined. I made two trips to Switzerland, Lucerne and Kanteistag. I got lost on mountain at night. Almost didn't find my way down but it only added to the awe and excitement of a wonderful trip to Switzerland.

"Germany had never held much attraction for me, but its charm soon won my heart. I went to Monich for the annual Oktoberfest (October) and it is one of the Jewish concentration camps—Dachau. I had learned of the horrors of the period in history but hadn't realized it was that recent as recently or the people could be so cruel. It was an eye opener for me.

"I also visited with another AFS student to Florida, Heda Wolf. She lives in Heidelberg Germany. It was a quaint little town and is now centered around a University. These students were very outgoing and even honored us at a party on our last night.

"One of my favorite countries was England. The people were not cold and stiff as had been told. I found them to be very friendly and anxious to help. I visited London Oxford, Stratford-on-Avon Warwich and Banberry.

"On Thanksgiving I spent the entire day in the Louvre Paris studying famous paintings. Paris was just as wonderful and gay as I had expected. We stayed in the Sorbonne area, where we met many interesting beat students.

"During Christmas vacation I visited the Saintle Countrie and Russia. I spent about five days in Prada, Czech, Warsaw Poland, Moscow, Lenningrad and Kieu, Russia and Budapest, Hungary. This was one of my most educational trips."

Although the trip was exciting Bretta was glad to return to Avon Park, her own people her own country.

The painting class which is held each Monday was well attended this past week. Mary Heslin who demonstrates the art of liquid embroidery is teaching. Anyone who is interested should be at the club house on Mondays at 1:30 P.M.

The Lasses spent Friday visiting Hazel's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schoonover of Philips Shores in Sarasota.

The Currys (Catherine and George) of Jackson, Mich., and the Hills (Margaret and Norman) of Andover, N.J., left during the week to return to their homes in the north. We will be looking forward to seeing them again in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barrett of East Weymouth, Mass., paid a surprise visit on Thelma and George Chalmers during the week.

Coffee Hour was held Thursday morning at the new club house and was well attended. Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Townsend had charge of the coffee hour. This week Mrs. Vernon Martin and Mrs. Larry Johnson will serve the coffee.

Friday evening many attended the showing of slides at the club house. Waverly Porter showed pictures of Wisconsin and several different parks. Thelma Chalmers showed pictures of New England and a trip to the Canadian Rockies. Anyone having pictures to show should notify us so a date can be made to show them.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Follett who have their winter home in St. Petersburg entertained the Chalmers at dinner on Wednesday. Both families formerly lived in Weymouth, Mass.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Foote this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Rivenburg of Hiradenton, Mrs. Lewis Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Huise of N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lang of Amsterdam, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Philester Tiffany of Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Esposito of Orange California left on Monday to continue their tour which will eventually take them to Montreal and Expo 67. Nick wishes it known that in all the parks they have visited, on their trip, that the residents and management of Bonnie Brae were the friendliest. Thanks Nick!

The Lizottes (Marie and Paddy) enjoyed the weekend at Ft. Lauderdale where they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Zappa and Mr. C. Pendleton. Mr. Pendleton stayed at Bonnie Brae this past fall with Marie and Paddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Farrell of Winter Haven visited with the Johnson's (Fran and Larry) last week and enjoyed a trip to Highlands Hammock State Park during the day. On Sunday the, entertained Fran and Larry at their home where an oyster dinner was enjoyed by all. In the afternoon they all took a boat ride, in the Farrells boat, through the Chain of Lakes and stopped at Lake Eloise and watched the Cypress Gardens Ski Show from the boat.

The Porters (Mary and Waverly) visited with friends in Bradenton on Sunday.

We are glad to see Vernon Martin out around after being at Walker Memorial Hospital where he underwent surgery last month. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Weibrinski of Mosinee, Wis., called on the Martins on Tuesday of last week, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Felch of Reddington Shores on Sunday during the day and Mr. and Mrs. Paden visited during Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Halverson of Ellenton, visited the Burkes (Katherine and Harold) on Friday. Mrs. Halverson is Katherines' sister. Mr. Halverson is slowly recovering from his illness and able to drive his car again. They enjoyed a sightseeing trip while here around Sebring and Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Catherine Hager spent Sunday at Ocala National Forest visiting Mr. and Mrs. Cadow and Mr. P.S. Shaw of Cocoa at their home in the forest.

The Library Corner

Do you know that the Avon Park City Library was given a check of $100.00 recently to purchase some extra new children's books to help celebrate the National Library Week. Do you also know that the Junior Woman's Club has just given $10.00 to our library? Avon Park has many "Friends of the Library."

Dame Rebecca West's long and absorbing new novel is quite different from any of her others. The Birds Fall Down, set at the turn of the century, has the ingredients of an international spy thriller. The story was suggested by actual events, telling us something about how modern history is made. It is told by a half English girl of eighteen, Laura Rowan, whose father is a member of Parliament and whose grandfather, Count Nikolai, is an exiled Russian aristocrat living in Paris.

When Laura is on a train journey with her grandfather in northern France, the count is confronted by the Tsar's arch enemy, a terrorist, searching for the truth about an apparent double spy. The dramatic events deeply involve Laura. The cold-blooded murder toward which it all leads is a master stroke of irony. Young Laura holds our sympathy to the end. If Count Nikolai, a wonderful, tall figure of an old aristocrat, is a double spy—if he really is one—he stills wins our complete sympathy also.

Dame West has brought her characters to life not only in their speech but in her excellent period detail.

Hazel Lee rolling in the Grand Prix Classic scored a sizzling 601 set, with consistent games of 181, 204 and 216. It is a good thing Hazel didn't know that you can't bowl anything high on the outside lanes.

In the current A B C tournament, the lanes 11 and 12 have had more good scores than any other pair, but 1 and 2 are on the next best pair, score wise that it A B C officials have checked 11 and 12 but have found nothing different than on the other 30 lanes. They admit that their instruments show no difference but for some unexplained reasons certain lanes will give a ball better pin action or make it a working ball.

While on the A B C subject, Lou Madragona of Miami went into the lead in the Classic singles division with a 736 followed by Lou Scalia of Hollywood with a 721. Scalia with Dan Freeman went into the Classic doubles lead with a 1348 total, Scalia with a 671 and Freeman a 672. Scalia, if you have forgotten has rolled Florida's high 3 game total of 808, had games of 235, 209, 227, 237, 238 and 226.

At the half way point of the A B C tourney, low scores in the money are booster team - 2676, regular team - 2690, doubles - 1046, singles - 525 and all events - 1696, naturally, low scores in the money will continue to climb.

Need A Book? Check at Library

Mrs. Natt Divoll of Bellows Falls, Vt., was recently in Avon Park and she and her mother, Mrs. Louie Reisner, were planning a vacation trip to Merida, Yucatan, Mexico. They wanted some information about the country before leaving the states, so Mrs. Reisner suggested a check at the Avon Park Library, hardly expecting to find anything on the subject. They were delighted to find books about the country of Yucatan, and were well prepared for their trip before they left Avon Park.

Mrs. Reisner says the trip was most interesting. They visited the primitive villages in the jungle reported to be more than 3,000 years old, as well as several old temples and other ancient sights on the guided tour of the country.

Mrs Reisner and her daughter, Mrs. Divoll, flew from Miami and spent a week on the sight-seeing tour of Yucatan.

As of July 1, 1966, Florida ranked ninth (9th) among the states in school age population (5-17) with 1,460,000. Florida ranked 26th in per capita state expenditures for all education in 1967-66.

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION OF HIGHLANDS COUNTY, FLORIDA DETERMINING THE PURPOSE AND THE AMOUNT OF BONDS NECESSARY AND REQUESTING APPROVAL OF BOND ISSUE BY ELECTORATE OF SPECIAL TAX SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1 WHICH IS COTERMINOUS WITH THE BOUNDARIES OF THE COUNTY OF HIGHLANDS, STATE OF FLORIDA.

WHEREAS, on February 1, 1967, The Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, received a Petition signed by more than two-thirds (2/3rds) of the qualified electors of Special Tax School District No. 1, which is coterminous with the boundaries of the County of Highlands County, Florida, requesting that an election be held for the issuance of bonds and setting forth the purposes for which the bonds desired to be issued, the purposes thereof and that the proceeds derived from the sale of such bonds shall be used for the purposes expressed in the petition as follows:

Acquisition of site and construction of complete new Elementary School in the Sebring area.

Construction of Cafetorium at Harder Hall School in Avon Park area.

WHEREAS, The Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, has proposed the issuance of bonds by Special Tax School District No. 1 of Highlands County, Florida, in the amount of $3,150,000 for the purpose of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing or otherwise improving buildings or school grounds or for any other expenditure for the public schools within such district, including therein the purposes hereinafter set forth, and provided further, that to the extent the actual cost may be greater or less than the estimated cost of any project as set forth, such deficiency may be supplied from other funds available therefor and any surplus may be applied to any other part of said proposed building program and subject to the approval of the Board, it is found at the time of the construction of the said improvements and facilities that the amounts allocated to certain projects are inadequate for the completion of the projects, to allocate additional amounts to said projects from other projects herein listed, and it is further found at the time of the construction of the school improvements and facilities that less than the amounts hereinabove allocated to certain projects are needed for the completion of such projects, to allocate the amount so saved to other projects, or if through unforeseen circumstances it is deemed necessary and advisable to change any of the school sites or to modify any of the projects described above to make such modifications in sites or projects on the basis of a survey of school plant facilities under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, such projects being listed as follows:

Acquisition of site and construction of complete new Senior High Schools in both Sebring and Avon Park areas.

Acquisition of site and construction of complete new Elementary School in the Avon Park and Lake Placid areas.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by The Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, as follows, that:

SECTION 1. It is hereby found and determined that bonds in the principal amount of not exceeding $3,150,000, bearing interest payable semi-annually at such rate or rates not exceeding the legal rate as shall be determined at the time of the sale thereof, and to mature serially in annual installments over a period not to exceed twenty (20) years from the date of said bonds, are required for the purposes hereinbefore set forth. Such bonds and the interest thereon will be general obligations of the district for the full faith and credit of which the district shall be pledged.

SECTION 2. An election be and is hereby ordered to be held in Special Tax School District No. 1, Highlands County, Florida, on April 25th, 1967, to determine whether or not said bonds shall be issued.

SECTION 3. The places of voting in such bond election and the places in said district where the last general election was held throughout said district, except as otherwise ordered herein, be and is hereby ordered used in said bond election, in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Statutes. The polls will be open on the day of said bond election from 7 A.M. until 7 P.M. on the same day, all as provided in a resolution adopted on the 14th, 1967, and published in full as a part of this resolution.

All qualified electors residing within said Special Tax School District No. 1 who are freeholders on the date of such election and who have been duly registered for participation therein as required by law shall be entitled, qualified and permitted to vote at such election; provided, however, that any qualified elector residing in said district who is a freeholder on said date may vote at such bond election in accordance with the requirements of Florida Statutes Section 100.241 (4).

RESOLUTION ORDERING AND PROVIDING FOR THE HOLDING OF AN ELECTION IN SPECIAL TAX SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 1 OF HIGHLANDS COUNTY, FLORIDA ON THE QUESTION OF ISSUING NOT EXCEEDING $1,150,000 SCHOOL BONDS OF SAID DISTRICT.

WHEREAS, The Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, has proposed the issuance of bonds by Special Tax School District No. 1 of Highlands County, Florida, in the amount of $1,150,000 for the purpose of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing or otherwise improving buildings or school grounds or for any other expenditure for the public schools within such district, including therein the purposes hereinafter set forth, and provided further, that to the extent the actual cost may be greater or less than the estimated cost of any project as set forth, such deficiency may be supplied from other funds available therefor and any surplus may be applied to any other part of said proposed building program and subject to the approval of the Board, it is found at the time of the construction of the said improvements and facilities that the amounts allocated to certain projects are inadequate for the completion of the projects, to allocate additional amounts to said projects from other projects herein listed, and it is further found at the time of the construction of the school improvements and facilities that less than the amounts hereinabove allocated to certain projects are needed for the completion of such projects, to allocate the amount so saved to other projects, or if through unforeseen circumstances it is deemed necessary and advisable to change any of the school sites or to modify any of the projects described above to make such modifications in sites or projects on the basis of a survey of school plant facilities under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, such projects being listed as follows:

Acquisition of site and construction of complete new Elementary School in the Avon Park and Lake Placid areas.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by The Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, as follows, that:

SECTION 1. It is found and determined that bonds in the principal amount of not exceeding $1,150,000, bearing interest payable semi-annually at such rate or rates not exceeding the legal rate as shall be determined at the time of the sale thereof, and to mature serially in annual installments over a period not to exceed twenty (20) years from the date of said bonds, are required for the purposes hereinbefore set forth. Such bonds and the interest thereon will be general obligations of the district for the full faith and credit of which the district shall be pledged.

SECTION 2. An election be and is hereby ordered to be held in Special Tax School District No. 1, Highlands County, Florida, on April 25th, 1967, to determine whether or not said bonds shall be issued.

SECTION 3. The places of voting in such bond election and the places in said district where the last general election was held throughout said district, except as otherwise ordered herein, be and is hereby ordered used in said bond election, in accordance with the provisions of the Florida Statutes. The polls will be open on the day of said bond election from 7:00 A.M. until 7:00 P.M. on the same day. Only the duly qualified electors residing within said Special Tax School District No. 1 who are freeholders on the date of such election and who have been registered for such bond election, or registered for participation therein as required by law, shall be entitled, qualified and permitted to vote at such election; provided, however, that any qualified elector, residing in said district who is a freeholder on said date may vote at such bond election upon compliance with the requirements of Section 100.241 (4), Florida Statutes.

SECTION 4. A Special registration of qualified electors residing in such district who are freeholders has been ordered and shall be held in the manner provided by the resolution ordering such registration and as adopted by the Board of County Commissioners of Highlands County, Florida.

SECTION 5. The ballot to be used in said election shall be that portion of cardboard or paper within the ballot frames of the voting machines, which shall contain a statement of the description of the proposed issuance of bonds, and which will provide facilities for qualified electors who are freeholders and who have re-registered for participation therein to vote for or against the issuance of said bonds as they may choose, and said ballot as it shall appear within the ballot frames of the voting machines shall be in substantially the following form:

BALLOT

Bond Election April 25, 1967

Shall Special Tax School District No. 1 of Highlands County, Florida, issue bonds in the principal amount of $1,150,000 bearing interest, payable semi-annually at such rate or rates, not exceeding the legal rate, as shall be determined at the time of the sale thereof, and maturing serially in annual installments over a period not to exceed twenty (20) years from the date of said bonds, for the purpose of financing that part of the cost of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing or otherwise improving buildings or school grounds as more specifically described and provided in the resolution of the Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida, adopted on the 14th day of February, 1967, and the principal of and interest on such bonds to be paid from a special ad valorem tax to be levied on all taxable property in such district without limitation as to rate or amount?

Subject, however, to the right of the Board, if it be found at the time of construction of the improvements and facilities, that the amounts hereinabove allocated to certain projects are inadequate for the completion of such projects to allocate additional amounts to said projects from projects herein listed, and if it be found at the time of construction of the school improvements and facilities that less than the amounts hereinabove allocated to certain projects are needed for the completion of such projects, to allocate the amount so saved to other projects, or if through unforeseen circumstances it is deemed necessary and advisable to change any of the school sites or to modify any of the projects described above to make such modifications in sites or projects on the basis of a survey of school plant facilities under the supervision of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction in each such case.

A survey team sent to Highlands County by the State Department of Education pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Public Institution of said county, has recommended the present school facilities, have been inadequate to meet the needs of the educational program as set forth above, its report was received on May 15th, 1966 and a copy is on file in the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of Highlands County, Florida.

A survey team of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges, inspected and examined the schools of Highlands County and found many inadequacies of present school facilities and recommended numerous improvements to be made.

The Superintendent of Public Instruction of Highlands County, having recommended the foregoing projects required and the passage of this resolution for an election to authorize the issuance of bonds for Special Tax School District No. 1 of Highlands County, Florida.

WHEREAS, on February 14, 1967 the said Board of Trustees considered the said proposed bond issue and reached the conclusion that the projects for which the bonds are proposed to be issued are essential for the school program of said district, and

WHEREAS, the said County Board of Public Instruction has heretofore attempted to prepare a plan for carrying out the program of school projects which might be set aside for the purpose, and the Florida Statutes and Florida Statutes and has found that no other funds are available, and it can not meet part of the costs of said projects except from the proceeds of the proposed bonds, and

WHEREAS, the County Board finds that it is necessary to issue bonds in the amount of $3,150,000.00 to defray said projects proposed for said district, and that no action has been taken by or election held on a proposal for such bonds within two years next to the date of this resolution, and

WHEREAS, the assessed value of the taxable property in said Special Tax School District, according to the last assessment for state purposes, was $197,413,152.00 (estimated), and the total bonded indebtedness, including the bonds proposed, together with existing indebtedness of said District, will not exceed 10% of the assessed valuation of taxable property therein, according to the last assessment for state purposes, and

WHEREAS, there are no outstanding bonds against said Special Tax School District or any other Special School District, and a tax levy will be required at the present time to pay the principal of and interest on the proposed bonds would not exceed 10 mills on the dollar of assessed valuation, and no millage will be required to retire principal or interest on the proposed bonds for the year 1967, as the first payment of principal and interest on said bonds will be $242,150.85 per year.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED:

1. From special district tax voted for the project ..... None
2. From bonds $3,150,000.00
3. From loans as provided in Chapter 237, Florida Statutes ..... None
4. From the proceeds of sale of anticipated race track revenue certificates $1,000,000.00
5. From county capital outlay and debt service funds now on hand or reasonably expected to be available upon completion of the projects $3,382,114.00
6. From the proceeds of sale of bonds now proposed to be issued $3,150,000.00

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that said bonds, as voted, shall be issued according to a schedule which will permit the bonds to be retired over a period of the succeeding twenty years, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, with the request that he approve the issuance of the bonds, and (2) the plan for meeting the total cost of said projects as set out above, including the issuance of said proposed bonds, and (3) the calling of an election for the purpose of determining whether or not bonds shall be issued in an amount not to exceed $3,150,000 to be used to meet the cost of completing said projects.

Voting for adoption of the foregoing resolution were members:

Men Urged To Attend Softball Meeting Tues.

M. I. Spurlock, president of the men's softball association, has issued a call to all men who are interested in getting into the swing for the summer slow pitch softball action.

An organizational meeting will be held at 8 P.M. Tuesday, the 18th, at the softball field south of Head's Field.

Six teams made up the league last year.

Everybody is invited to get into the act. President Spurlock says they need players, coaches, managers and (for the brave) umpires.

Frostproof Fisherman Wins First Prize In Fishing Contest

Wilbur Glover, Frostproof, topped 400 other fresh water bass entries in a month-long contest sponsored by Avoon Pajk sporting goods store owner Leon DeLaney. Wilbur's bass weighed 10 pounds and 13 ounces and was caught in Lake Reedy on a live shiner.

Shiners figured in the strategy of several of the prize winners. And although artificial-lure salesman DeLaney is not clapping his hands in glee about this, he considers the 1967 annual event a big success.

The complete list of winners and prizes are listtd below:

1—Wilbur Glover, Pflueger Supreme reel and rod, 10lb-13 oz, Lake Reedy, shiner; 2—Roland Terrell, Shakespeare President reel and rod, 10 lb. Clay Lake, shiner; 3—Paul McAfee,Shakespeare spin reel and rod, 91b-4 oz., Kissimmee, bream; 4—Carlos Young, Mitchell spin reel and rod, 81b-12 oz, Gator Lake, shiner; 5—Otho Crawford, Shakespeare fly reel and rod, 81b-9 oz, Arbuckle Lake, purple worm.

AP Grange 203 Meet

A special election was held.

Mrs. S. F. Elkhill explained how to secure First Day Covers of the Centennial Grange stamp. Ceremonies marking this event will be held Apr. 17 at the U. S. Department of Agriculture Building in Washington, D.C. A member of the Post Office Department will give the address citing the contributions of the Grange which led to the selection of the stamp. We feel especially honored that the Grange will be recognized, since there are only 15 commerative stamps issued this year.

Earl Nicherson, chairman of the State Grange Agriculture Committee, told how he and Barney Reas recently secured sixty new members, mostly citurs growers. They are aiming for the 100 mark.

B. Parker announced the regular meeting of Pomona Grange at Zolfo Springs Civic Center, 8 P.M. Apr. 15. He also stated that Hardee Grange is holding an open meeting in the Civic Building on Apr. 18 at 8 P.M. The public is invited.

After the close of the meeting, a Penny Auction was held. Funds collected go toward the purchase of new sashes for Pomona Grange Officers.

Redeemer To Honor Seniors

The annual Parish Breakfast, honoring the high school seniors of the Episcopal Parish of the Redeemer, Avon Park, will be held this Sunday, Apr. 16 at 10:30 in the Parish house. All of our Seniors are expected with their families, including those of the Highlands school for Girls. Mrs. Fred Kinyon heads the committee on arrangements. Those people attending either the 9:30 or the 11 A.M. services are urged to be present.

Track Team Wins Meet With 93 Points

The Avon Park Red Devil track team won the Highlands County track meet held in Sebring last Thursday afternoon with a score of 93 points almost doubling the points scored by second place Lake Placid who finished with 48½. Sebring came in last with 38½ points.

The Red Devils took first place in ten of the fifteen events with Harold Callaway winning the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, the 440-yard run, and the broad jump. The versatile track star also took second place in the shot put throw for a total of 25 points for Avon Park.

Earl Cothran ran the mile in five minutes flat for another Devil first, Earl Sims took first place in the broad jump with a 19 foot, ¼ inch jump, and Kenny Dixon continued to dominate the 880-yard run by winning with a time of 2 minutes, 4 and 1-10 seconds.

The three Avon Park relay teams all came in first with the Devil 880-yard relay team handing Lake Placid its first loss of the season in that event. Running for Avon Park were Leotus McNeil, Jim Williams, Jim Burrescia, and Earl Sims with a time of 1 minute, 37 and 2-10 seconds. The sprint-medley relay was run by Sims, Zeigler, S. Callaway, and Burrescia in 2 minutes, 11 and 4-10 seconds and the mile relay team of Sims, Williams, Walton, and Dixon took first place with a time of 3 minutes, 40 and 2-10 seconds.

Bobby Barben contributed 9 points with a second place in the discus toss, and third place in the 180-yard dash, the 440-yard run, and the 220-yard dash.

Other Red Devils scoring were smitty Callaway with a third place in the 120-yard hurles, Charles Mayhenheimer with a third in the high jump and McNeil with a third in the 180-yard hurdless. Wayne Farrell took fourth place in the mile run, Jim Williams had a fourth in the broad jump event, and Chuck Long added a point with fourth place in the shot put toss.

It was the second win for the Avon Park team which has been steadily improving as they eye the up-coming district meet in hopes of qualifying enough team members to get a good shot at the Class B state championship. The Tampa Catholic track team is currently expected to give the most competition to other teams in Class B with Clermont also in contention.

Today the Devils are running again in Ft. Meade.

Avon Park Red Devils Lose Game To Sebring For A Record of 9-2

Last Saturday night the Red Devils chalked up their ninth victory with a 5-1 win over the Hardee High Wildcats here at Head Field.

Hoppy Rewis was the winning pitcher going five innings for the Red Devils before being relieved by Emmitt Money in the sixth frame. Rewis gave up four hits, walked four batters, and struck out seven during his stint on the mound. The win gave Rewis a 4-1 mound record for the season.

Money held the Wauchula batters hitless as he fanned five of the six men he faced. The other batter grounded out to the Devil righthander.

Hardee's lone run came in the first inning when Grant Carmichael reached first with a walk, went to third from first on an error by the Devil catcher attempting to catch him stealing second, and was singled home by Ralph Starratt.

Avon Park tied the game in the bottom of the first as Dean Lemler singled, stole second and third and was driven in by a single by Hoppy Rewis.

In the bottom of the third the Red Devils scored two more runs on Bill Knapp's homerun over the left field fence with Denny Montsdeoca on base. Knapp's homer was the first of the season for Avon Park and boomed over the fence against a strong wind blowing in from the outfield.

The Devils connected for 5 hits off two Hardee hurlers. Besides Lemler's single and Knapp's homer, Montsdeoca had a single and Rewis and Billy Richards both singled.

This Saturday night the Red Devils will be at home to Frostproof for the last regularly scheduled home game of the season. Tourney sites and pairings for the sub-group meets will be set this coming weekend with records of the participating teams against all but Class AA schools determining the seedings. The two top teams of the group will host the sub-group meets. At present Tampa Catholic, Sebring, Frostproof and Avon Park are all in the running for top spots.

SEBRING GAME

The Sebring Blue Streaks eeked out a 1-0 win over the Avon Park baseball team at Fireman's Field in Sebring last Tuesday night in an extra inning game. The loss gave Avon Park a 9-2 record and set the Blue Streaks mark at 10-4.

Sebring scored the game winning run in the bottom of the eighth inning when, with two men down, Grady Curl tripled over the head of the Devil centerfielder and came home on Graham's single to short left field.

Marty Gillilan was the winning pitcher going the full eight innings for Sebring. He struck out 8 Red Devil batters, walked four, and gave up four hits.

Emmitt Money took the mound loss for Avon Park working the full eight innings. It was Money's first loss against five wins. The righthanded Red Devil struck out 14 Sebring batters, walked only one, and gave up three hits.

Sloppy baserunning on Avon Park's part was costly for the Red Devils. Four Devil runners were picked off base by the Blue Streaks and five other Avon Park runners were left on base during the eight inning affair.

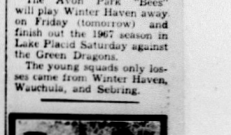

Johnny Elder, Joe Strickler, Bill Jackson, and Bill Knapp all singled for Avon Park but to no avail. The Red Devils had men on base in every inning except two but couldn't get a run home.

The Red Devils will play in Sarasota tomorrow (Friday) afternoon and will be at home to Frostproof here at Head Field Saturday night for the regular season finale.

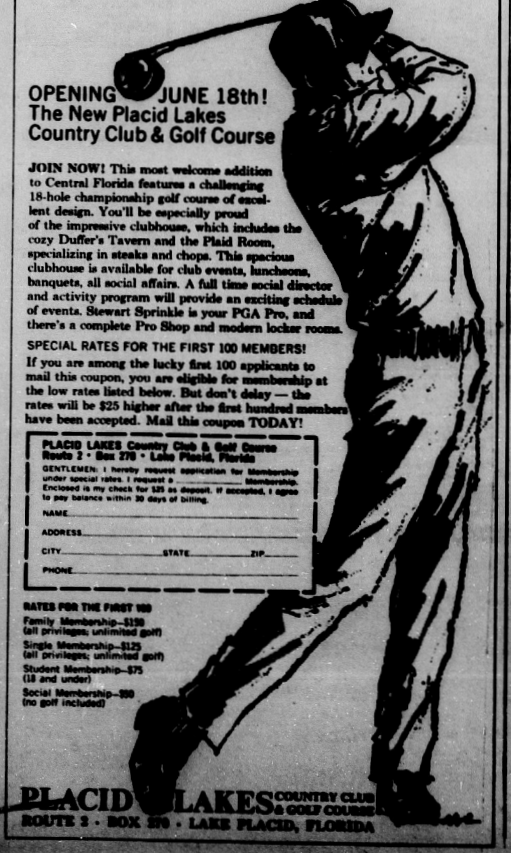

Coach Larry Pickett's Red Devil "B" squad lost to Sebring 4-2 last Tuesday afternoon after winning over Wauchula 7-2 and 16-6 last week to set an 8-3 record.

The Avon Park "Bees" will play Winter Haven away on Friday (tomorrow) and finish out the 1967 season in Lake Placid Saturday against the Green Dragons.

The young squads only losses came from Winter Haven, Wauchula, and Sebring.

Sermonette

REV. HERBERT D. GRAETZ
Union Congregational Church

THE DARK SIDE OF LIFE

"My God, my God, why . . . ?" St. Mark 15:34.

These words, of course, are from the Cross. They came out of the darkness, the pain and the anguish of Calvary. The mocking, jeering crowd, the loneliness of desertion, the excruciating pain added up to what must have seemed total rejection.

"Why?"

"My God, my God, why?" This cry is most difficult to explain and yet we feel that Jesus was very close to the suffering hearts of people, when he uttered it.

One stands aghast at the great amount of evil in the world both in nature and in man himself.

If we turn to nature, we see all kinds of major disasters,—earthquakes, tornados, hurricanes, volcanos and floods reeking havoc, causing great loss of property and life.

We think of the fearful struggle in the development of animate life on the earth. We get the picture of parasites, insects, beasts with claws and beaks preying on each other. Then there are the deadly enemies of the human organisms, virus and cancer cells. It all adds up to a dark picture.

When we turn to man himself, we are well aware of man's inhumanity to man. The terror, brutality and horror of war. The wickedness that fills our newspapers with stories of crimes of varying magnitudes.

All of these things convince us that there is a dark side to this world.

The question that quickly comes to mind is this: how can one account for the evil in the world if, as St. John says, "God is love"? 4:8. We don't know the complete answer to that question so we shall be satisfied if we can throw only a little light upon the problem.

First let us make a simple statement to the effect that we believe that there is more of goodness in the world than evil.

"Now at 60 what I see
Although the world is worse by far,
Stops my heart with ecstasy,
God, the wonders that there are!"

Zoroastrianism, an Oriental religion, seeks the explanation of our problem in two deities, a God of light and a God of darkness. Judaism and Christianity both teach that we find the power of evil in Satan who is the adversary of both God and man. However understood, we must admit that there is a power of evil in this world. This power of evil was not simply speculative in the thinking of Jesus, it was real. He confronted it. He won victory after victory over it. And, finally, in the upper room at Jerusalem, he said: "In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." St. John 16:33.

How shall we confront evil? First let us see it in the light of what we know of God and man.

We recognize the fact that the world is one of order, We don't break natural laws, those who try it usually end up being broken by them. Early man trembled in face of the fury of earthquakes, storms and floods. Over the centuries man has learned to cope with these natural disasters. He knows now that they come about through the operation of the laws of nature. He builds his structures to withstand their force and guards his life against them. He also uses the same laws to bring off magnificent scientific achievements both in the air and on the ground. One of the most spectacular of these being the flinging of a capsule through space to photograph, at close range, the surface of the moon and send the pictures back.

Man is also waging a magnificent fight against disease. He has found some answers and will find more. The era of his greatest discoveries is in the future.

The resistance he has experienced has sharpened his faculties and enabled him, through courageous struggle to become more and more the master of his environment. Some have said that "this is the best of all possible worlds for the development of the mental and spiritual powers of man."

Man can control nature far better than he can control himself. It has been a long and costly struggle since the first man-like creature appeared on the earth to man as he is today. In this struggle the key word has been FREEDOM. Freedom to choose. God endowed him with infinite possibilities. So often his choices have been wrong and he has had to start over again. Gibbon said: "the crimes, follies and misfortunes of mankind" have come from ignorant and wicked abuse of free will and yet "no life of reason or affection of moral and religious attainment would have developed without freedom."

In the long history of man, Jesus finally comes on the scene. We can say with assurance: "There stands Jesus, God's picture for us of what a man can and ought to be!" And there is no doubt but that his will operative in man's freedom is the world's best hope. Here is the Light for our darkness. "I am come," he said, "a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness." St. John 12:46.

Jesus' coming was indeed the dawn of a new day for man, with light to dissipate his darkness. We shall treat this great truth in our sermonette for next week.

Devils In Sub-regional Tournament Tonight

Avon Park Red Devils baseball team meet Turkey Creek, here Thursday night in the start of the sub-regional tournament. The first game starting at 7 P.M. has Frostproof going against Sarasota Cardinal Mooney.

Winners of these games then meet here Friday night.

The Avon Park Red Devils finished out their regular season of baseball last Saturday here at Reed Field with an 11-1 win in five innings over Frostproof after going 11 innings in Sarasota Friday afternoon and evening before stopping with the score tied 2-2.

Coach Hill says the 2-2 tie will stand in the records due to the fact that since the available time and the game date not count in Class B Group 7 competition for or against the Red Devils. The game was halted at 7:20 P.M. because other teams were waiting to use the field.

The tie and the win gave the Red Devils a final season record of 16-3-1 in over-all play and a 9-2 mark in group play.

Happy Rewis went the full eleven innings against Sarasota giving up only four hits to the Class AA school. The Red Devils scored in the top of the first inning when Denny Montsdeoca walked, was sacrificed to second by John Elder, and was driven home by Dean Lemler's single.

In the bottom of the third Sarasota tied it up when Schlenker tripled and Choquette singled him home.

The Red Devils went ahead again 3-1 in the top of the fourth. Joe Strickler singled and moved around on Happy Rewis's single followed. The big Devil firstsacker came home on a passed ball to score.

Sarasota came back in the bottom of the sixth and scored when relief pitcher D. Bowley walked, stole second, went to third on a Devil throwing error, and came home on a passed ball.

Neither team could get another run over and the game was called at the end of 11 full innings.

Last Saturday night Emmitt Money held the Frostproof Buildogs to one run and four hits as the Red Devils teed off on pitcher Larry Eyrd for ten hits and eleven runs in five innings.

The Ace Devil hurler struck out 12 batters in the five innings he pooled his sixth win of the season against two defeat.

Second baseman Denny Montsdeoca and catcher Dean Lemler each had two singles for Avon Park and Larry LaFlam, Steve Walker, Bill Jackson, Happy Rewis, Billy Richards, and Robert Blazmyer had a single each for the winning Devils.

Frostproof scored its run on three consecutive singles off Money in the first inning before the Avon Park righthander struck down the next three batters to end the threat.

Frostproof's only two runs off the Buildogs who were fighting for second money in the group tourney. The Buildogs left only two games on the season—both to Avon Park—and are seeded third in the sub-group meet which starts tonight here at Reed Field.

Avon Park's "B" squad baseball team fared not the best of luck last Saturday night with a 7-0 shut-out over Lake Placid on the Dragons home field. Last Friday they won Winter Haven handed the Devil "bees" a 2-0 loss in Winter Haven so the local squad set a 9-4 record for the season with losses to Wauchula, Sebring, and two to Winter Haven.

In the 2-0 loss to Winter Haven, Clark Jackson pitched a two hitter while the Avon Park batters got three singles.

Donald Sizemore struck out 16 batters and gave up only one hit as the Avon Park team took the 7-0 final win of the season. Clark

April 30 Sees End of Seaboard Streamliners Into Avon Park

Beginning April 30 Avon Park will no longer be a scheduled stop for the Seaboard Airlines Railroad streamliners Silver Meteor and Silver Star.

Protest has been filed with the Florida Public Utilities Commission by Avon Park City officials and the Chamber of Commerce.

Officials here say that the railroad's move was arbitrary and that the FPUC action was contrary to an agreement of 1962.

William T. Mayo, Chairman, Florida Public Utilities Commission, Tallahassee

We hereby enter a protest of recent action of Seaboard Airline Rail Road and Florida Public Service Commission in permitting Avon Park Seaboard passenger stops of Silver Meteor and Silver Star. This action is not satisfactory to local businesses and industry, state institutions; church camps, boarding prep schools and surrounding towns of Wauchula, Frostproof, Babson Park and others. The action of SAL is also contrary to commitment made by SAL to Avon Park Chamber of Commerce by letter dated December 10, 1962, stating that we would be advised before any future changes were made with respect to stoping these trains. The commission order was not in accordance with Regulation 310-3.52 which requires 30 days posted notice in advance of an application for authority to discontinue or reduce service.

Other South Florida stops that will be discontinued are at Lake Wales, Indiantown and Lake worth.

After that date passengers wishing to board these through passenger trains can board at Sebring, Winter Haven or West Palm Beach.

Local travelers will continue to be served by conditional stops of the daytime Seaboard's Sunland and the evening Palmdale — both with connections to the North from Jacksonville.

These schedule changes follow close on the heels of last week's court approved merger of the Seaboard Air line Railroad and the Atlantic Coast Line. ACL had discontinued passenger service into Avon Park in 1958 but has continued to make regular freight runs.

Seaboard's announced changes have been approved by the Florida Public Service Commission.

Seaboard said that these local stops have been eliminated because of the "through service" characteristics of the two streamliners. Seaboard, who has been a promoter of north-south passenger service, said that the long distance traveler expects a minimum of interval stops. Seaboard also said that the Silver Star and the Silver Meteor have been making more stops in Florida than in any other city from Washington to Florida.

The two New York-Miami streamliners are 21-car trains that have a capacity of 850 passengers.

NATHAN PEACOCK

Nathan Peacock Killed In Vietnam

Staff Sgt. Nathan E. Peacock Jr., 25, a seven-year service veteran, was killed in action April 8 in Vietnam, according to word received by his parents.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan E. Peacock Sr., 320 E. Cornell. Sgt. Peacock's widow, Paulette lives in Highlands City.

Born in Elba, Ala., Sgt. Peacock was a graduate of Lakeview High School in Winter Garden. His family moved to Avon Park in 1958.

Besides his parents and his widow, survivors include two children, Carl and Jean in Sarasota; two sisters, Mrs. Lucille Floyd Odell, Highlands City, Mrs. Sara Frances Minton and Mary Jean Peacock, Avon Park.

Funeral services were held Apr. 15, 2:30 P.M. in the First Assembly of God Church, with Rev. E. B. Bayles officiating.

Full military honors were provided at the graveside.

Chamber Notice

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors will have a breakfast meeting Apr. 25, Thursday at 7 A.M.

The meeting is set for Goldie's Restaurant.

Clean-Up Campaign Set For May

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, along with the Ministerial Interdenominational Alliance, are sponsoring a Clean-up Campaign, beginning May 1, 1967, in the City of Avon Park, Florida, and vicinity.

All citizens, landlords, and property owners are asked to clean up cans, bottles and trash on property and clean off vacant lots, junk cars, refrigerators, stoves, and any other unsightly objects. We ask your help in this undertaking.

Mayor DeLaney has promised 100% cooperation and will send trucks for scheduled pick-up.

Republicans Call Caucus Aimed At Legislative Acts

Col. W. J. Atkinson, chairman of the Highlands County Republican Executive Committee, has announced a legislative hearing for Saturday morning at 9:30 in the courthouse assembly room.

Representative Jim K. Tillman will be present to hear recommendations for local legislation.

Atkinson expects city officials from Avon Park, Sebring, and Lake Placid, and county commissioners to be present.

Among other things expected to be discussed will be the number of Republicans serving on the election board.

Edward Cannon Memorial Fund Total $100

Donations to the Edward Cannon memorial fund totaled $100. This figure was announced Tuesday by High School principal Guy Garrett.

U. S. Marine PFC Cannon was the first Avon Park resident killed in Viet Nam.

The money will be held in trust for Cannon's younger brother, Mickey Pisanta, for the furtherance of his education.

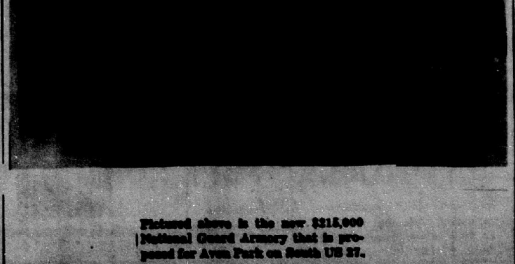

Persons wishing to add to the memorial fund may address contributions to the Edward Cannon Memorial Fund, in care of Avon Citrus Bank, Avon Park.

Highands County Property Owners' Association Oppose School Bond

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Highlands County Property Owners' Association on Apr. 17, 1967, the findings of an independent study, by a Certified Public Accountant, of the Florida Department of Education's Survey were examined. This survey is the basis for the school board's recommendation for the sale of $3,100,000. bond issue to help finance school construction in Highlands County.

After careful consideration of the findings, the Association went on record as opposing the passage of the bond issue on Apr. 25. It was felt that the county's economy cannot at the present time support the added burden of financing the proposed facilities based entirely on an additional ad valorem tax which represents an increase in the portion of each property owner's taxes used for school purposes of 20.3 percent.

The association pledged to help to the school board to find other means than the ad valorem tax to raise the necessary funds.

Pictured above is the new $215,000 National Guard Armory that is proposed for Avon Park on South US 27.

GOP Ask Board For More Poll Workers

Republican control of election personnel will have to await a shift in party registration, the Highlands County commissioners ruled Tuesday. Hot words flew at the commission meeting when Col. W. J. Atkinson, chairman of the Highlands County Republican Executive Committee, presented the request "that henceforth, in the appointment of members to election boards (poll workers) that the majority of such members appointed be regularly registered Republicans . . ."

The written request pointed out that "between 40 and 50 percent of the voters registered as Democrats actually vote the Republican ticket consistently." In support of this contention the request cites Republican majorities in each Presidential election since 1952, in the 1966 gubernatorial election and in the recent Legislative contests.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper challenged the appropriateness of use of figures from Presidential elections. "If you are going to do this," Skipper said, "take the whole picture. You have taken only the head of the ticket. It is no more important than the bottom."

Commission Chairman Carl McIntyre sought to delay action by suggesting that the Republican request "would be considered," but Col. Atkinson pressed for a decision immediately.

Skipper responded by saying that in the next election, "We have the same percentage of Democratic and Republican workers as there are registered voters for each party in Highlands County."

Republicans in the audience demurred that is discriminatory. Col. Atkinson said, "I can't help how the people of the county have registered—they have a right to register as they wish."

Commissioners Earl Crutchfield and Jesse Whitaker attempted to calm the angry Atkinson. Crutchfield said, "If people have been refused the right to register as they wish, they have of course been wronged, but you have plenty of time before the next election to get all the Republicans re-registered."

"It would really be better for you," Whitaker claimed. "Then you would know who the Republicans are."

The Republicans present did not agree with such ideas and re-heated the argument when Col. Atkinson said, "I think all of you commissioners are Republican at heart but you're Democrats because your pappies before you were."

This brought a swift and angry denial from Skipper who declared, "My father was a registered Republican. Don't tell me what my politics are, and I call for a vote on this question."

The commissioners voted unanimously to adopt the resolution tieing the poll workers politics to registration.

McIntyre observed, "We had 23 Republicans and 53 Democrats working at the last election. That's a percentage and that's good enough for me."

Supports County Sale

When a group of residents of the Avon Park Lakes area presented a request that they be allowed to lease a county-owned building, Commissioner Whitaker suggested that the county investigate the possibility of selling some of its holdings.

The Avon Park Lakes residents propose to operate an information center at the county-owned building on Highway 27, north of Walker Memorial Hospital.

County Attorney Hoe Nunnaleo had drawn lease which calls for $1 per year rent and the leasing group would assume responsibility for maintenance and insurance on the building.

"We have some little pieces of property scattered around the county, and if we could sell them and get these parcels back on the tax roll we could get in more money to pay the county's bills," Whitaker pointed out.

The board voted to lease to the Avon Park Lakes Association but with the understanding that the county is studying the possibilities of sale.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the commissioners voted to approve vacation of the Lake Francis Estates plat. No lots had been sold in this subdivision owned by GTR Corp.

Agreed to meet with the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Board to discuss repairs to an access road and levee which the flood control group alleges were damaged by county road and bridge crews.

Received a letter from Broward R. Williams, state treasurer and insurance commissioner, requesting that the county cooperate in Operation Safe Shoulder, a state-wide program to improve condition of highway shoulders.

Supplied to the Highlands County Farm Bureau a copy of the proposed county zoning law. The law, authored by Senator Jess Yarborough, has been introduced as proposed general legislation and, according to County Attorney Nunnaliee "its chances for approval appear favorable." Nunnaliee suggested the county delay introduction of a zoning law as special legislation pending the outcome on the general law.

WAYNE BASS | EARL GORDON

Bass and Gordon Attends Law Enforcement Academy

Two Avon Park policemen, Wayne Bass and Earl Gordon, pictured above, returned Saturday from Tallahassee where they graduated from the Florida Law Enforcement Academy course in "Crime Scene Investigation."

The course ran for five days, Apr. 9 to 14. Its objective was to provide training in the most recent developments in crime investigation. Both men said that they gained much new knowledge from the course and hoped that all of the Avon Park Police Department would eventually be able to take advantage of the instruction.

A highlight of the program was a series of simulated crime scenes which were investigated by Gordon and Bass. These were followed by moot trials, with investigating students being examined under courtroom tests as to procedures in collecting, preserving and identifying evidence found in the course of their investigation.

Instructors were included from Florida State College of Law and the Florida Sheriff's Bureau.

Both Patrolmen Bass and Gordon were wounded recently in a gun battle. A man and woman had been apprehended in San Diego and will be returned here for trial in that crime. Bass is not yet on full duty.

Patrolman Earl Gordon has been with the Department since Aug. of 1962. He lives at 726 W. Interlaken with his wife, Jeanette, and five children.

Patrolman Wayne Bass lives on W. Palmetto with his wife, Gail, and two children.

Future of Scho Program To Be Decided at Polls

Eight hundred and thirty one (831) voters could decide Tuesday whether Highlands County is going to get some new school buildings.

To be decided is the fate of a $3.15 million bond issue which, according to the County School Board, is "desperately needed" to build new facilities. Included in the plans would be a new high school for Avon Park.

The 831 voter figure is determined as follows: there are 8,188 freeholders in Highlands County. Of this number 3,338 re-registered for the special bond election. Of this number one-half (1669) must vote to make the election valid. Then of this number one-half (835 plus 1) can vote either yes or no.

The bonds would be paid for on a property assessment of $1.25 per $1,000 assessed valuation after the $5,000 Homestead Exemption. That is, if a person owns a house assessed at $10,000 he would be taxed only on $5,000. Or, 5 times $1.25 would be the amount the school board could cost him—a total of $6.25 per year.

Two-thirds of Highlands County property owners are taxed at less than $10,000 evaluation.

Big property owners such as Consolidated Financial Corp., Hinson Hold, Ben Hill Griffin and Florida Power Co., would be hit much harder.

Some freeholders feel that the County should look elsewhere for money, but George Doughan, County School Superintendent, says that, outside of sales taxes, there are no other sources of revenue available at this time.

President of the First National Bank of Sebring, Ben Bond, feels that this would be a favorable time to market the bonds. Says he can see that they would sell for close to three percent. The bonds are tax exempt and are very attractive to the large investor.

The PTA and the Highlands County Education Association say that'a even the existing temporary class rooms are now overcrowded and some schools face disaccreditation.

Opposing opponents say that the County could get more for their dollar now before the cost of building goes up at the rate of about six percent per year.

Voting will be at the usual precinct locations.

Ministerial Association Supports County School Bond Issue

The Avon Park Ministerial Association voted unanimously to support the Highlands County school bond issue for the sake of the children. The children should be everyone's first consideration. This is true in the case of our present children as well as the future and members of the present generation. Child life for the greatest value of anything in the world today. Surely a nation is losing honor to the loving heart of God.

The present school facilities in Avon Park are so overcrowded that the Board of Directors feels that made a study of our school plans last March for the State Board of Education, recommended that a Junior High School and a new Elementary School be built. We are convinced this recommendation is fair of the citizens of Avon Park and the county as a whole. We urge all of our citizens to vote for the passing of this bond issue. We feel that the future of our children depends on it.

large increase in enrollment which makes new facilities imperative. At the present time portable class rooms are being forced into use. There is no doubt that if we continue this patch work method of forcing our children into inadequate facilities our children will lose their confidence. That would be a terrible thing to our youth.

The Rev. Bishop Robert Dunn for the ministers of the children of Avon Park are certainly busy looking for ways to solve their own problems with children from moving in.

For the sake of our children, the future of our schools and the progress of our city, we urge you to vote "yes" on the bond issue.

Red Devils To Play

Jackson's double was the only extra base hit of the 10 that the Avon Park batters got.

Leading batters for the season for the Devil "B" squad were Donald Sizemore with a .375 average, Gene Landress at .372, Sizemore with a .343, and Ricky Dick who hit at a .333 clip.

Donald Sizemore had a 6-2 mound record striking out 60 batters during the season. Jackson was 1-2 on the mound, Glen Sizemore was 1-0, and Mike Bagwell was also 1-0 as a pitcher.

The Avon Park Red Devils, with a 10-2-1 over-all regular season record, will host a sub-group baseball tourney here at Head Field starting tonight (Thursday) at 7 o'clock.

The Red Devils, seeded second in the Class B Group 6 tourney, will play Turkey Creek in the second game tonight which will start thirty minutes after the first game set to begin at 7 P.M. between Frostproof (seeded third) and Cardinal Mooney of Sarasota.

In the other sub-group first seeded Tampa Catholic will host at its school with Sebring (fourth seeded) taking on Zephyrhills in the opening game tonight and Tampa Catholic playing Clearwater Central Catholic in the night-cap.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the finals of both sub-groups will be played starting at 7:30 P.M. and the sub-group winners will meet each other starting next Thursday, Apr. 27, in a best-of-three game play-off for the group 6 title.

The Red Devils finished in group competition with a 9-2 record behind Tampa Catholic which had a 10-3 record. Frostproof had an 8-2 mark and Sebring had a 7-2 record against all competition except Class AA schools which was set as the pre-season method of determining the tourney seeding.

Coach Ralph Hill's Red Devils are the defending Class B state champions and will go into the sub-group meet as definite favorites since they have defeated third-seeded Frostproof twice in regular season play.

Although the Devils have not been strong at the plate this season, young Denny Montsdeoca and Dean Lemler have been hitting at a .357 and a .333 clip. Montsdeoca has moved into the line-up as starting second baseman and has five hits for fourteen times at bat for his .357 average. He has played errorless ball on defense and has scored five runs. The sophomore infielder has struck out only once and has walked once from his lead-off batting position. He has two stolen bases to his credit.

Junior catcher Dean Lemler has 13 hits for .39 at bat and has scored 11 runs for the Devils. The big catcher has 7 stolen bases and has struck out only three times this year.

The Red Devils have been stingy this year in giving up runs. Their thirteen opponents have scored only 15 runs off the three Devil hurlers. Only two teams scored three runs on the Red Devils and they shut out five of the teams they played.

Emmitt Money and Hoppy Rewis, both seniors, have shared the pitching duties this year. Money has a 6-1 record and Rewis is 4-1-1 for the season. Money has hurled 56 1-3 innings giving up 5 runs, 15 hits and walking 21 batters while striking out 117. Rewis has tossed 34 1-3 frames allowing 9 runs, 16 hits, and walking 19 batters. He has fanned 48 at the plate. Bill Knapp has pitched 3 innings in relief. He gave up 1 run, 3 hits and walked 2 men while fanning 4.

Other seniors on the team are firstsacker Joe Strickler, reserve catcher Gary Neal, rightfielder Johnny Elder, and utility infielder Carl Barnes. Juniors on the squad along with Lemler and Knapp are Robert Sizemore who has moved in as a starter in left field and Sam Jones, a reserve centerfielder behind Bill Knapp.

Coach Hill has given all sixteen members of his team a chance to play this season as he shuffled them around trying to find some hitters. In spite of some mistakes while running the bases, the Devils have managed to come out on the winning side of every game except the 2-1 loss to Okeechobee, the 1-0 loss to Sebring at Firemans Field in an eight inning affair, and the 2-2 tie of the 11 inning game with Sarasota last Friday afternoon.

Red Devil fans are expected to turn out tonight to start the Devils off on a possible all-the-way trip to the state championship again this season.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Art Wilhite presented Louis L. Wainwright, Director of the Florida Division of Corrections, a former member of our Club when he started the APCU some three years ago. Then, this type of minimum security institution was quite a new idea, and has since been copied in many states. Louie, his wife, and three children are well remembered and regarded in Avon Park. The Wainwrights were not only active in Rotary affairs but also in PTA, and other civic interests.

The general picture of penology and public responsibility was well covered by our guest speaker. He not only directs the Florida correctional system of seven Prisons and thirty four road camps, but also inspects County Jails. He heads the National Assn of Correctional Administrators, as well, and as a member of the Tallahassee Rotary Club. Florida's population growth has been reflected in the growing Penal population: 1955, 5800; 1959, 7600; 1962, 8 000 . .then the Gideon decision and Supreme Court's rollback for rights of criminals, dropped the figure in late 1962 to 6700. The figure today is 7900. Florida's position as 4th State in population is reflected in same place in penal population in the nation. 25 per-cent are 25 and under. Chief of the Division are; 1. Protection of persons and property; and 2. Change inmates into useful citizens.

Crime is worse these days, nationally, and under Florida's Governor too. A revolution is needed in the concept of crime in the minds of our people. Two million people a year run afoul of the law. New respect for law needs to be instilled in our youngsters. Correction methods are changing too. Money is being spent on new methods. A forestry education center with technical facilities in Florida; training courses for the unskilled in mass; religious instruction is deemed valuable; reliable inmates who can get local jobs be allowed to work by day and stay in institution nights under supervision; opportunities to attend college classes by day on the same basis theory available; and Community Cottage care for small groups of inmates is considered to advance. Big savings can be saved by inmates taking jobs on the outside by day under this system. Fine program, well presented.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Estates

The Kormans's (Eleanor and Frank) of Chicago, Ill., owners of Bonnie Brae arrive on Monday last week and stayed until Thursday noon. It was much too short a visit. While here the residents of the park had a covered dish pot luck supper to honor them. Even though so many have returned north 48 attended with many different kinds of food served. The Jordans and Chalmers comprised the committee. Before Eleanor and Frank left they attended the Thursday morning Coffee Hour with Selma Martin and Fran Johnson as hostesses.

The Fridays (Mildred and Edward) who have purchased the Ellen Slayton Trailer, returned on Saturday from Ft. Lauderdale where they have been managing the Surf Spray Motel. They were accompanied by her sister Mrs. Anna McNett of Mt. Morris, Ill. Welcome back Fridays!

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings anyone wishing to play cards or games are cordially invited to use the club house. Friday evenings are usually reserved for those wishing to show slides or movies. This past week Frank Foote showed slides of New York State and many other places of interest. Harold Hurle showed slides of Wisconsin in winter. They were beautiful but none of us cared to change from Florida. He also showed pictures of many Western places that he had visited.

Letters To The Editor

Editor Sun:

We have the largest collection of black and blue pennies west of the Mississippi River. The truth is, we pinch them. Just ask our children. But we are voting YES for the School Bond Issue. True we have four school age children and we are very much concerned about their welfare. We want a good education for them in an air conditioned school for them. But we don't see any dedicated effort on the part of the School Board to give them the tools they need with which to work with? The answer is we cannot, anymore than we could ask our Doctor to perform a tonsillectomy on our child and then limit him to what instruments he may use.

But forgetting our children and thinking only of ourselves, one of us still remembers having A. B. Watt telling his Board chairman that with each added privilege comes an added responsibility. At our house we enjoy TV, radio, phonograph, hi-fi, stereo; our TV, stereo, air conditioner, and blower time, all of which add to the comfort of about without the education of this generation. So we cannot close our eyes to the other fellow's needs. We can see the ability of seeing that the next generation has the educational foundation to cope with its problems and still get privileges and responsibilities.

Furthermore, when the day comes that we have our very own private jet ready to whisk us to the Winter Guest Club are "shuffling" our way through the golden years, we want to be sure that we have no "whisper-snappers" running our town-our county-our state and our government at heart and that we have a good sound education. (Although undoubtedly they won't be half as clever as we long folks were in the good old days.)

TO the Readers of the Avon Park Sun:

Having had the happy experience of being one of the chaperones for the Avon Park High School band trip to Washington, D. C. for the parade of the Cherry Blossom Festival I feel I must express to all of you my congratulations.

Such a fine group of young people is representing your fine city and did a pretty commendable job of marching in the parade in their handsome new uniforms. The official photographer took the color picture of the band in full uniform on the Capitol steps. It genuinely stopped traffic to have their colorful colorful dress and many took pictures.

Without exception the tours, the arrangements made for the band, the plans and schedules were carried out to the letter by all the students. The accommodations in Washington during their busiest tourist week are never top drawer but the band members were good sports and adjusted to all inconveniences.

All the chaperones were happy and full of admiration and pastest will all the necessary walking and on and off buses, boats and trains necessary to transport this large student group for four busy days.

While no Florida bands were in any competitive judging in the parade onlookers recognized a really superior, proud and well-trained band. Mr. and Mrs. Mickmanus feel justly proud of their students.

Florida was the only state with 5 towns represented. Brandon, Key West, Lakeland, Miami Springs and Avon Park and all of them gave spectators a real treat.

Father Knapp and I are grateful we could have the experience of chaperoning such a fine group of young people incidentally from the border of Florida on south these young people were all eager to get home and back to Avon Park of which they are all glad to be a part.

Avon Park High School's Principal, Mr. Garret, should stand nine feet tall and the entire town should be full of gratitude that such fine upstanding young people can represent this town in such a grand manner.

Mrs. John L. Knapp

Editor Sun:

I am writing this letter as a teacher of physical education in the Avon Elementary School for the past five years. The space provided for physical education at Avon Elementary School is inadequate for these students attending this school. The space provided for the other 177 elementary students is located in the old building on Lake Avenue is for them adequate. These students are bussed to a closed street and a little space is used for any parent or interested person should ride by this area in the afternoon and observe the conditions existing.

Another elementary school in Avon Park is a necessity and I am committing to them to relieve the overcrowded conditions the situation will continue to get worse.

You owe it to the children of this County to vote FOR the School Bonds.

Ann Kerrick

Letter to the Editor.

A few years ago the Seaboard decided not to stop at Avon Park but to speed through here as fast and blowing the whistle the City Council got after them and made them stop all the way up. So Seaboard decided if they had to slow up, they might as well stop.

Avon Park is deteriorating instead of advancing when the train don't stop.

A subscriber.

Editor Sun:

Now that Seaboard has ruled it will pass Avon Park, the city fathers should make some rulings to make them stop all the unnecessary whistle blowing by the engineers of their trains. I understand Sebring has got after them. Also they must have a lot of money when they can have a diesel sitting at the depot all night with the motor running, annoying people in that area who would like to get some sleep.

One man's opinion on the Highland School Board issue:

Good Schools predispose to good citizens, wholesome community growth and progress, and less juvenile delinquency.

It is not without some cost, but I believe it to be a real bargain and a good deal. I am for it and hope you are too.

H. W. Coleman, M.D.

THE AVON PARK SUN HAS RECEIVED NO LETTERS TO THE EDITOR IN OPPOSITION TO THE SCHOOL BOND ISSUE. HAD THEY BEEN RECEIVED THEY WOULD HAVE BEEN PRINTED.

THE EDITOR

Editor Sun:

I am surprised and sorry that out of the over 6,000 eligible voters only 3,295 registered for the bond election. I asked one many, and many did not know about it and others said they wouldn't bother.

I feel its very important we put it (the bond issue) through right now.

I can remember when my oldest son was in high school, in 1951, when students had to pay $5 a month for several months and many had to drop out. And in elementary it was $4, and we all paid for our books then.

(Two-thirds of Highlands property owners would pay less than 50 cents per month in additional taxes if the school bond issue is approved—Editor)

I probably have voted more times than any other woman in Avon Park as I came here in 1923. Our very first school house was on West Main Street, where the Nazarine Church is now. The next was on South Forrest Av., where the Christian Church is now.

I am afraid there will come a time when we can not exercise our privilege of voting.

Mrs. Cora Wray
21 W. Charles

Editor Sun:

My wife and I are new to Avon Park and the Highlands County School system this school year and we are impressed with what we have seen. The teachers are dedicated to doing the best job possible and are interested in the best educational opportunities for the boys and girls of this county.

The Avon Elementary School was constructed in 1955 and is an excellent school plant in good repair. It was constructed to house approximately 550 students in the 19 regular size classrooms. Approximately 700 students are now housed in this school by the addition of four portable classrooms and the use of two small rooms that were constructed for other purposes. One fifth grade and five six grade classes are housed across town in the Lasha Avenue School. This of course causes a physical separation of students and faculty and exposes the elementary students to Junior and High School students. There are 177 students in this school.

With 189 first grade students this school year and the possibility of that many more first graders next school year, the problem of finding a place to house them is going to be worse than ever.

Please examine the issues and make a decision on April 25 that will benefit the boys and girls of this county as well as everyone else. The addition of new schools will result in new industry and additional businesses for the entire county.

It comes in three economy sizes.

These are just some of the sizes Volkswagens come in. Regular, large and giant economy size.

The one on the right, our big bus-like box, and the one in the center, our medium sized Squareback sedan, are only about 7 inches longer than the beetle.

But don't let their size on the outside fool you about their size in the inside.

Then there's the familiar bug.

While it's not as big as the other two Volkswagens, it has plenty of room for 4 people and a small dog. Plus a suitcase for everybody but the dog.

All three Volkswagens do everything you expect from a Volkswagen. Except look silly. One of them (the Squareback) looks exactly like a car. They have air-cooled engines in the rear that won't freeze up in the winter or boil over in the summer.

They won't use any anti-freeze and are very easy on gasoline. (The bug and the Squareback average about 27 miles on a gallon of gas. The box about 23 miles.)

And they all go about 35 to 40,000 miles on a set of tires.

So you see, no matter what size we make VWs, they're all pretty economical.

Why not come in and size one up?

Widow Gets a Break Under a New Public Law

Legislation now has been passed which will be a break for widows of some veterans, M. T. Dixon, of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, has announced.

The law eliminates the requirement that the highest rank of the deceased within the 120 day period prior to death be used in computing benefits.

Now, for example, if a man served in the rank of Major for six months during a period of war, but later reverted to the lower rank of Master Sergeant, his widow, under this law, would be eligible for a widow's compensation computed at the rate of pay for a major.

Sp 4 Joseph H. McCullough, brother of Edward Cannon who was killed in action in Viet Nam Mar. 30, writes his letter of thanks, Mar. 27. "Quote"

Avon Park Junior Womans Club:

I wish to thank all the members of the Junior Womans Club for sending me the nice books that I have received. It is good to know that people in your home town remembers the boys who are fighting and serving their country in a place like Viet Nam.

I have been here for seven months and since I have been here, I've wondered many times how people in Avon Park know there are boys from Avon Park serving in Viet Nam? Not many know that. My services was needed here and I have extended my tour of duty for an extra six months. I love my country and I am proud to serve my country in Viet Nam.

Again I thank everyone of the members of your wonderful Club. I shall share my books with my fellow G.I.'s I hope that all the people in Avon Park will remember their boys in Viet Nam, cause we think of hometown folks all the time and it makes me feel proud that we're not only fighting for peace here in Viet Nam, but also to make the world a safe place to live in. My many thanks for the books. If you wish to publish this in the Avon Park "SUN", you have my permission.

Sincerely yours,
SP 4 Joseph H. McCullough

Women Express Sympathy To War Victims

We, the members of the Avon Park Business Women's Club express to you our deepest sympathy and join with you in your sorrow of your son's giving his life to the glory of his country so that other lands may enjoy the freedom that our beloved nation has.

Thoughtlessly we use our freedom so selfishly that we neglect the personal feelings of those so near us. May you receive comfort from knowing your son gave up all for the concern of others and we would that you could take the glory that he earned and deserves.

May God Bless you and keep you, make his face to shine upon you and give you peace.

Thoughtfully yours,

Glee Club 'Spring Festival' April 27

The Avon Park High School Glee Club is presenting their "Spring Festival" Thursday, Apr. 27, at 8 P.M. in the high school auditorium. The theme of this year's program is "Younger Than Springtime."

As the audience looks upon the stage they will see a rainbow of colors. Through the arch and decending onto a slope of green will come the girls dressed in beautiful formals, boys dressed in dinner jackets, surrounded by a white picket fence and growing plants.

The Glee Club will be singing selections from the "Sound of Music" and "My Fair Lady." Other numbers will include "When Have All the Flowers Gone," "Where or When", "Michael Row the Boat Ashore," "Together Wherever We Go", and "The Girl From Ipanema."

Soloes will be given by: Lucky Dixon, Melodie; Nita Howze, More; Sheila Jackson, He; Nancy Lighty, Love is a Many Splendered Thing; Beverly Pollard, Three Coins In a Fountain; Barbara Rewis, Sand and Sea; Delores Reynolds, Summertime; Randy Brandenburg, I Left My Heart in San Francisco.

Duets will be given by: Nita Howze and Patty Blackwelder, Autumn Leaves; Beverly Pollard and Barbara Rewis, Summer Place; Lucky Dixon and Alan Dixon, Unchained Melody.

Quintet given by: Nicki Runner, Beverly Pollard, Becky Tomek, Barbara Rewis and Ruhh Blackwelder, singing Hello Young Lovers and I Enjoy Being A girl.

The 60 boys and girls in the Glee Club will be directed by Kenneth Eberle, Chorus Director for the Avon Park High School. Tickets may be purchased from glee club members or at the door. Donations will be 60 cents for adults and students and 35 cents for children under 12. This promises to be a memorable event.

Benita Kazen and John Eklund Wed In Double Ring Ceremony Friday

Mrs. Benita Lorain Kazan became the bride of John Eugene Eklund on Good Friday at the First Christian Church in Wauchula with the Rev. Jim Cox, pastor of the church, officiating.

The groom's mother and step-father are Mr. and Mrs. William G. Benson of Avon Park.

The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of twenty relatives and many friends.

Miss Sherill Knight, ogranist for the church, provided nuptial music preceding the ceremony and accompanied the soloist Mrs. Doris Lambert, who sang "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Fern Ritchey served as Matron of Honor and Mr. Mathew Ritchey served as best man. The ushers were Charles Anderson and Billy Smith.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the social hall of the church. The three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom centered the table from which candy, nuts and punch were served.

Mrs. Dot Jarvis presided at the guest book. Music during the reception was furnished by Miss Juliane Kazen, daughter of the bride.

Following the reception the couple started on their wedding trip to the Smokhey Mountains. After a week of delightful sight seeing in the mountains and vicinity, the couple returned to Wauchula, where they now reside.

Anne Johnson Named Most Valuable Member of Jr. Women

The Awards Committee of the Junior Woman's Club announced at the recent installation that club members had voted that Mrs. J. E. (Anne) Johnson receive the "Most Valuable Member" award for the current year. The decision was based on work for club projects.

Mrs. Johnson, newly elected first vice-president of the club, is just completing her second year aas a member. The Johnsons moved to Avon Park from Conyers, Ga., in Sept. of 1965. Mr. Johnson is plant manager of Kerns Furniture Mfg. of Florida. Mrs. Johnson recently resigned her job with the local Chamber of Commerce.

Anne Johnson was chairman of one of the first club projects for the year, —the annual Halloween Carnival. She was chairman of Programs — Adds for the follies, "Red Stocking Revue," which the club presented Dec. 2 and 3.

Publicity chairman for the New Year's Eve Ball, the bake sale, and the recent fashion show was Anne Johnson, who enjoys this type work very much.

As Conservation chairman, Anne has led the club members to many very worthwhile projects in that field. To name a few: the club presented a conservation book to the local public library; members are rooting plants to be used in landscaping the permanent grounds of South Florida Junior College; members purchased a set of 52 "America the Beautiful" pictures and after a public display, gave them to the elementary, school; litterbags were sold as a project and with the profits, the club donated materials to APCI's nursery, for Arbor Day, trees were planted on the Mall; The club conservation committee undertook the task of creating the Avon Park community booth at the Highlands County Fair, with Anne Johnson and Alma Hooper even doing the painting of the booth (which involved two days work); Other members "manned" the booth, and the club was given the $25 prize for the best-manned booth by the Chamber, which had officially won it.

ANNE JOHNSON

Anne has attended several out-of-town meetings pertaining to club work. She has also done her part, as have each of the other members, in collecting for the "Mother's March for SFJC," "Mother's March for Polio," and the many other club projects performed throughout the year.

The entire membership of the Junior Woman's Club is to be commended for the community projects they carry out, with the help and cooperation of local citizens. Any young woman would find the work demanding, but the rewards satisfying in serving as a member of this civic organization.

21 Students Take Field Trip To St. Augustine

At the crack of dawn on Monday, April 10, approximately twenty one pupils from Mr. Wittenberg's class at the Highland Lakes Junior Academy met at the school to go on a class field trip to St. Augustine for the day.

Their first stop was the Information Center in St. Augustine, where they enjoyed a very interesting and educational movie about the old Florida City. The old school house was next on the agenda and the students had to admit it was very interesting but they were grateful for their nice new facilities. Then on to Ripley's "Believe it of Not" museum, the old Fort and the old Jail. The class then rested and had a lovely picnic lunch, after which they visited Potter's Wax Museum. Last but not least was Marineland and of course this left a splashing impression on each one.

The student's thoroughly enjoyed their outing and wish to thank Mr. Wittenberg and the five parents that went along for a very entertaining and educational time.

By Ruth E. Robinson

We were sorry to hear of Welcome Miller's recent illness and do hope that he has a speedy recovery from this ailment.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wiedeman took Mrs. Wiedemann's sister, Mrs. Nester of Detroit, Mich., south to Bonita Springs, Monday, to spend a week with their sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gordon. The Wiedemans also called on Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stockman of Ft. Myers on the return trip, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Irwin of Robinson, Ill., and Ft. Myers, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fouty, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Longanecker of Ocoee visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longanecker, for the week-end. They all enjoyed a ride, in Don's new air-conditioned Buick, to friends, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bennett, at Royal Palms, in Sarasota.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott were dinner guests of Mrs. Wolcott's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith at Auburndale, Sunday. The Wolcotts entertained guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolcott of St. Petersburg, Monday. Mr. Wolcott is Harold's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Valentine visited their granddaughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor in Hickory, N. C. last week. They left here Tuesday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kirback for the special reason of seeing their brand new great-grandson, and returned on Friday. Congratulations, great-grandparents Grace and Milton!

We wish a safe, pleasant trip to many more of our friends and neighbors who are leaving during the next week including Mr. and Mrs. Kellie Larew, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wiedeman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaut, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, who are visiting their daughter in Norfolk, Va., on the way up), Mrs. Beatrice Tingler (a wedding of a grandson is coming up), Mrs. Bess Raas Mrs. Lulu Maddrell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crocker with Mrs. Jesse Bennington, and more the following week, to be in later.

MISS FLORIDA, Christine Torgeson, will make her first visit to Sebring this week-end, and will crown the girl chosen Saturday night at Sebring High School auditorium as Miss Sebring. The winner will compete in the Miss Florida pageant and the winner of that contest will go to Atlantic City for the Miss America finals. The contest locally is sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

ANNOUNCEMENT

SEABOARD RAILROAD throughout the years has enthusiastically promoted Florida's travel, resort and tourist business. Its Streamliners SILVER METEOR and SILVER STAR, which provide double daily service between New York, Washington and Tampa—St. Petersburg, and Miami, have brought millions of persons to the State for both pleasure and business.

Fine, modern, through passenger train service between northern cities and Florida continues to be the heart of Seaboard's promotional activities. Experience clearly demonstrates that long-distance travelers demand through service to their destinations with a minimum of intermediate stops to slow the journey. Understandably, Streamliners cannot perform as through trains and locals at the same time.

In order to assist in retaining and improving the service for through train patrons residing in Florida and those using the Streamliners to and from Florida, regular or conditional stops of the SILVER METEOR and SILVER STAR will continue to be made at Winter Haven, Sebring and West Palm Beach, which are centrally located and convenient for the majority of train users in these areas. The conditional stops of these trains which formerly have been made at West Lake Wales, Avon Park, Indiantown and Lake Worth will be discontinued effective April 30, pursuant to authority obtained from the Florida Public Service Commission.

The SUNLAND and PALMLAND will continue to provide daytime and nighttime service at the conditional stops. The SUNLAND makes direct connections at Jacksonville to and from points in the Southeast and the North, and the PALMLAND provides through reclining seat coach and sleeping car service to and from New York.

Seaboard appreciates your patronage and hopes you will have many occasions to use its service.

Please contact your Seaboard Ticket Agent or Travel Agent for reservations.

Lanigan, Mazac Honored At Sales Banquet

A. L. Lanigan and Joe Mazac of Avon Park Motor Co., Avon Park, were honored for an outstanding sales performance during 1966 at a banquet at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood on Saturday, Apr. 8.

S. J. Obringer, manager of Ford Division's Jacksonville Sales District, said a select number of Ford dealership salesmen were presented a 300-500 Club membership award for excellent retail sales performance." The Ford 300-500 Club was founded in 1950 to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country.

Mr. Obringer said the average 300-500 Club member sold nearly $500,000 worth of automotive merchandise in 1966 to qualify for the national honor.

The Library Corner

Does your library in Avon Park measure up to the Florida standards for Public Library Service? "Every Florida citizen should have the opportunity to foster his own education and cultural development through the use of the public library in his own community." In 1965 only 15 Florida libraries had one book per capita; 3 had 2½ books per capita which is the minimum standard. The Avon Park library has 2 plus books per capita. We are not quite up to the minimum standard but we are growing.

Sir Henry Yelverton said "Innocency hath it's present answers. Wisdom requires time." England is the setting for Nina Bowden's new novel, A Little Love, a Little Learning. This story is about a doctor's family living in the slum centers on this strange world of children and their dangerous attempts to manipulate reality. Through the eyes of twelve year old Kate Boyd, the author reveals the catastrophies that can result from a child's secret thoughtlessly confided, or from a self-protecting lie. In the case of Dr. Boyd his daughter's inevitable ignorance proved almost fatal.

Perhaps as Miss Bowden suggests so brilliantly, the only safeguards against disaster are "a little love, a little learning." Her novel marvelously dissects family relationships, containing equal measures of wit and compassion. As Punch says, "It is a work of such radiance vitality that the people walk off the page and the book becomes part of our being.

AARP Holds Meeting Tuesday

The Highlands County Chapter 222 of the AARP met Apr. 11 at the Sebring Hotel with 130 in attendance.

Alfred R. Lang, president called the meeting to order and Rev. Wesley Smith led in prayer. Bertha Cooper, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted. W. B. Dehn gave a report from the legislative committee, in the absence of chairman Bob Zeigler.

Mr. Dehn called on all members to write their legislators protesting proposed taxing of Social Security also asking for an increase of a minimum of $2,000 in earnings before losing any benefits.

Winifield Sink, program chairman expressed his appreciation for the good attendance and interest then called on Mrs. Harter who introduced a male quartet comprised of Nathan Fahnestock, Dale Stoner, Paul Briedenstine and S. O. Arey. Mrs. Harter was at the piano. They sang "Twilight is Failing" and "Wandering Child Oh Come Home," these were well received.

E. C. Ludington gave a very interesting and informative talk oninsurance, stating that the rolls are open now until June 1 for AARP members to enrol regardless of age of health. This is personal indemnity payable to the insured and no one else. He does not recommend the Plus 55 Driver auto insurance because of the high rate unless one is unable to get coverage elsewhere. This is guaranteed acceptable to age 87.

No further business and a call for move to adjourn was accepted.

BEAT THE HEAT WITH FLAMELESS COOLING!

ENJOY WINTER IN FLORIDA THIS SUMMER...

NOW is the time to air-condition your home for a cool summer—or for year-round comfort with an electric heat-pump. And keeping cool is being kind to your heart . . . one reason more than half the homes we serve enjoy electric cooling. Join the happy half now and you avoid the seasonal rush.

And as an extra incentive for our residential customers, we'll give those who install central ducted flameless cooling between April 1 and August 31, the choice of a selection of attractive gifts—such as a Hi-Intensity Lamp, an eight-volume Encyclopedia, or a Blinker Lantern. Details at your dealer or contractor.

The Power to Prosper!
FPC FLORIDA POWER CORPORATION

SAVE $50, TOO!

We'll give an installation allowance of $50, PLUS the choice of a selection of attractive gifts, to any of our residential customers who removes—between April 1 and August 31—flame-type heating and replaces it with whole-house electric cooling and heating. Ask your dealer or contractor for details on both offers.

THE HIGHLANDS COUNTY PROPERTY OWNERS' ASSOCIATION'S Position on the Bond Issue

The Board of Directors of the Highlands County Property Owners' Association, at their meeting Monday night, April 17, 1967, examined the findings of an independent study, by a Certified Public Accountant, of the Florida State Department of Education Survey. This survey is the basis for the school board's recommendation for the sale of $3,150,000.00 worth of bonds to finance school construction in Highlands County. After due consideration of the study it was noted as follows:

1. The Florida State Department of Education's survey is basically correct and sound, and, based on the projected student increase in Highlands County over the next five year period, the additional educational facilities are desirable.

2. If the school bond is passed, there will be an increase in taxes of $1.22 per $1,000.00 valuation on real and personal non-exempt property — which represents an increase in the portion of each property owner's taxes used for school purposes of 20.3%.

RESOLUTION

BE IT RESOLVED that the association recognizes the need to furnish additional facilities to adequately provide for Highlands County's increasing school population; HOWEVER, the association also recognizes that the economy of Highlands County cannot support the added burden of financing these proposed facilities based entirely on an additional ad valorem tax.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the association opposes the passage of the school bond issue on April 25, 1967.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The association recommends that the needed facilities be built on a priority basis utilizing presently available funds and that future necessary construction be financed on a pay-as-you-go basis.

The association is cognizant of the fact that the school board had no alternative but to request the bond issue supported by an ad valorem tax, and it pledges its support to help the school board provide the required educational facilities, provided that it is financed through sources other than the presently over-burdened ad valorem tax.

This is a state-wide problem and the association is of the opinion that relief will be forthcoming from state sources through legislative action.

Bowling Kings And Queens

by Ernie Andress

I would like to start this week with a request, or shall I say a plea. Due to illness in the family I neglected to sign up for the State tournament and the extended deadline came and went. I am desiring to bowl very much, so if there is anything available, please leave word at the Grand Prix desk or let me know.

In the past several days, two leagues have finished their season of bowling. In the Tri-City league, First Bank of Lake Placid took first place. The team was composed of Harold Rider, Bill Ebrite, Tom and Clendell Holt. Rider won awards for league series and also most improved bowler. In the Friday nite Ridge Mixed, the Yankees took the title. The team was composed of Larry and Leena Violette, Marge Kauffman, and Bill Shumaker.

Rogers 'toot' Horne got back in the groove, after slacking off for a couple of weeks with a large 682 series of 233, 235 and 214, which certainly should give him the 'Bowler of the Week' title. Horne bowls in only two leagues a week which makes his average and ability for the big series more creditable. With a sure nine lines or maybe 12, he would be pushing a 200 average as in the old days in Kansas City. Female Bowler of the Week: Barbara Simmons 556-540.

William Scott In Vietnam

Constructionman William J. Scott, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary L. Scott of Route 1, Avon Park, is at Camp Hoover in Da Nang, Viet Nam, with Naval Mobile Construction Battalion (MCB)-4.

The battalion, serving its second tour of duty in Viet Nam, has undertaken several major construction projects. These include the construction of aircraft parking areas at the Da Nang air base, recreation facilities, and troop cantonments for various combat units.

In addition to its Da Nang projects, the battalion has detachments throughout South Viet Nam, keeping strategic airfields from which ammunition and rations are airlifted to the combat units in the field, operational at all times.

Pvt. Ludington In Marine Recruit Training

Marine Private Mark E. Ludington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett C. Ludington, Avon Park, is going through recruit training at this Marine Corps Recruit Depot.

His first stop when he arrived here was the Depot's receiving barracks where all new recruits are processed. Here he received his first issue of Marine uniforms, the equipment he will use in training, and his first military haircut.

After being placed in a training platoon with other new recruits, he left the receiving barracks and began his formal Marine training under the close guidance of his Drill Instructors, or "D.I.'s". Until he graduates, eight weeks after he entered "boot camp," these seasoned Non-Commissioned Marines will guide and supervise his progress in physical conditioning and development, rifle marksmanship, and other skills which he must master to be a Marine.

Winter Guest Club News

BY ELIZABETH CLARKE
Phone GL. 3-6720

By Elizabeth Clarke Shuffling

Every evening quite a group gather on the courts for friendly games of shuffling. There the good-byes are said for those going home. On Wednesday evening of six there were fifty-two in the line-up for the tournament. Doc McAlexander and Mabel Crocker won in the main event, with Tom Hance and Helen Berlew the runners-up. Consolation winners were Ethel Brewer and Alton Wetmore over Gertrude Fensterman and Lura Pickell.

Saturday evening winners were Henry Retter and Clay Kull over Tilly Retter and Charles Romilly. Sarah and Toney Kerr won in consolation, with Allene Howard and Georgina Wernham the runners-up.

Games

In Monday's Pinochle high score went to Allene Howard with a score of 698. James Vannuell came in second with 624. Six tables were in play. At the Tuesday afternoon bridge Apr. 11, the high scorer was Clara Rentchler with a score of 4030. Lillian Rodgers came in second with 4000. Hostesses for the past month have been Ella Gruber and Juanita Height.

Dances

About forty to fifty folks attend the dances on Monday and Friday evening for an evening of fun many guests come to watch. This past week they were Bob and Mary Bordenpercher of Akron, Ohio; James and Germaine Shondel, also of Akron. The two couples were visiting at the George Kloha home. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Buehrer of Blissfield, Mich. they came to drive his mother, Viola Buehrer, home. Other guests were Matt and Fern Richey of Wauchula and Marion Buck of Erie, Penn.

Saturday Night Pot-Luck

At 5:30 on Saturday evening a group gather together at the Club House to have fellowship with one another in eating together.

Memorial services for Fred Iffland were held in the Club house on Sunday afternoon. Mr. Iffland died April 10 in Blissfield, Mich. The memorial services were a fitting tribute to our friend, with the music that he so much enjoyed. Albert Cushing played a violin solo with Mildred Long at the piano. Rev. Stanley Johnson sang "How Great Thou Art" accompanied by his wife. Leo Wagner, president of the Club, led in prayer. Rev. Hardee of the Methodist Church read several fitting passages of scripture.

Mr. Iffland and his wife have been coming to Avon Park for the past fifteen years, attended the Methodist Church and was a member of the Bible Class. He was a member of the Winter Guest club, a past president, and past manager of the Shuffleboard courts. But he was best known as the leader of the Sunday afternoon Hymn Sings.

Mr. Iffland was a retired farmer, member of the E.U.B. Church in Blissfield, a member of the Gideons, International, and a past president of his Gideon Camp.

Funeral services were held in Blissfield at the E.U.B. Church on Apr. 12. He is survived by his wife, Lillian, two sons and a daughter.

● U. S. homeowners lose over $335,000,000 from fire, National Fire Protection Association figures show. The headaches and heartaches of fire destruction in the home are incalculable.

Hospital Pioneers Plan Reminisce Party

A group of the original founders and workers at Walker Memorial Hospital plan a program of discussion about the history of our hospital here in Avon Park. I'm sure everyone would be interested in hearing about the ups and downs in the very beginning of Walker Memorial Hospital.

This program is scheduled for Friday Apr. 21 at 7:30 P.M. in Walker Memorial Seventh-Day Adventist church.

TOLL FREE TRAVEL SERVICE
Highlands County residents can obtain airline and ship information and schedules regarding plans calls, without going out of town—by dialing O—Operator and asking for Lake Wales WX 2911. They will be connected with experienced agents of the Lake Wales Travel Bureau of the Highlands Travel Service in the Wahdala Hotel, Lake Wales. This office has a leased line so that calls can be made to carriers without toll charges. Arrangements can be made for tickets to be mailed.

America the Beautiful...
Is Everybody's Job

It's the job of every family that spreads a picnic on a roadside table.

It's the job of every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways.

Every driver, every walker, every flier.

That's why our Association throws its wholehearted support each year into the Keep America Beautiful campaign.

Lovely country we have here. Let's keep it that way.

Sermonette

REV. HERBERT D. GRAETZ
Union Congregational Church

THE DARK SIDE OF LIFE

"My God, my God, why . . . . ? St. Mark 15-34.

We continue this week our study of the dark side of this world, thinking in terms of nature and of man. In last weeks' sermonette we closed on the thought that in the coming of Christ new hope dawned. His coming was indeed the dawn of a new day for man, with light to dissipate his darkness.

We know enough and have the resources to wipe out poverty and bring a decent standard of living to all men. Man can erradicate the scourges of plagues and war. The things that stand between him and a better world are within himself. Let us name but a few, • indifference, pride, greed, selfishness and lust for power.

In order to have a better world it is necessary to change what motivates men. Jesus put it this way: "A good man out of the good treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil." St. Matthew 12:35.

The last area of human suffering to which we will give attention comes into reality because "we are woven together by loyalty, love, mutual need and interdependence, into homes, friendships and communities." It is in this area that we very often hear it said: "I'd rather it had happened to me rather than to my child." Much of our agony of spirit comes through experiences that elevate life and make it worthwhile. Here we find what can be called the main contribution of Christianity to the problem of evil, vicarious or redemptive suffering. This thought came to its fullest flowering, in the Old Testament, in the suffering servant passages in Isaiah. This great propnecy was fulfilled by Jesus' suffering at Calvary.

Thornton Wilder's "The angel that troubled the waters," tells the story of a man who stood one day at the pool of Bethesda praying that God would touch him and give him health. An angel comes and whispers in his ear: "Stand back; healing is not for you. Without your wound where would your power be? Not the angels themselves in heaven can persuade the wretched and blundering children of earth as one human being broken on the wheels of living. In love's service only the wounded soldiers can serve." We discover the truth of that statement through living.

The angel steps into the waters of the pool and troubles them. As the lone sufferer draws back, a lame, old neighbor smiling his thanks made his painful way in the pool and is healed. He comes out of the water with joy, approaches the man who befriended him by stepping back, and says: "Perhaps it will be your turn next. But meanwhile come with me to my home. My son is lost in dark thoughts; I do not understand him. And my daughter, since her child died, sits in the shadow. She will not listen to us. Come with me but for one hour."

"In loves' service only the wounded soldiers can serve."

General MacArthur said to Joe E. Brown: "There isn't a man, in uniform and out, who has done more for our boys than you have." This commendation came because of his service to the troops as an entertainer after he had lost his own son in combat. When he had first heard of Capt. Don Browns' death, all meaning seemed to drain from his life. Yet when his friends' son was also killed he wrote these words to him: "You know Mike and Don would want us to carry on for better things and a better world for other mens' sons." And so he went forth to entertain our fighting men on many fronts.

"In loves' service only the wounded soldiers can serve."

It was true in the career of George Matheson. When he was threatened with blindness, he became the victim of unrequited love, as well as blindness. In writing about his great hymn, "O love that will not let me go" he said: "I was suffering from extreme mental distress, and the hymn was the fruit of that pain." Helen Keller was blind and deaf since infancy and yet she could write: "I thank God for my handicaps, for through them I have found myself, my work and my God."

A small boy looked at a picture of Christs' crucifixion. Perturbed by its cruelty he turned the page and said: "If God had been there, he would not have let them do it." What he failed to realize is the tremendous fact that the Cross reveals God's love and has become the throne from which Jesus rules the hearts of men.

God was at the cross transmuting evil into good. That can also happen to us, if we bear our cross in faith. And through our faithfulness something of the goodness of God can spill over into the lives of others. Christ bore the burden of humanity on the cross. As our sensitiveness to the evil all about us increases we too bear a burden for we enter into his suffering.

Actually, the power of evil is not our main problem. Our main problem is the weakness of goodness within ourselves. For Christian goodness can be more powerful than evil. That is why the Apostle Paul can say: "Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good." Romans • 12; 21.

Coach Graves To Speak At Alumni Banquet

The Highlands County University of Florida Alumni Association will hold its Annual Meeting and banquet Friday, Apr. 28, 1967.

The guest speaker will be Coach Ray Graves, head football coach and director of athletics at the University of Florida. Coach Graves is an enthusiastic speaker and is an outstanding coach at the University. Graves has guided the "Florida Gators" to record breaking heights since his coming there in 1960.

The annual meeting and banquet will be held at the new Elks Lodge in Sebring. Preceeding the banquet will be a "Meet Ray Graves" Social hour at 7 P.M. The banquet will begin at 8 P.M. featuring a roast prime rib of beef dinner which the Sebring Elks Club is fast becoming famous for.

The purpose of the banquet and meeting is two-fold. First the Highlands County University of Florida Alumni recognizes the 11th grade honor students in the County having them as their guests. Second is to present the University of Florida Scholarship to an outstanding senior in the County. In addition to this, it is an opportunity for Florida Alumni to get together and listen to a noted speaker.

The annual meeting and banquet is open to all University of Florida Alumni and their guests. Any alumnus desiring to make reservations for himself and his guests should contact Russ Albritton, 1110 Pasadena, Sebring.

Private "In" Formation

The weekend of Apr. 21-23 has been announced as the Parents' Weekend at Highlands School. The majority of parents will arrive in Avon Park on Friday, 21, and will be honored by a long line of activities. Our Saturday events will begin at 10:30 with coffee in the dining room. A water show, which has been practicing for the last two months, will be presented by our physical education students. The acrobatics class, under the direction of Mrs. Linda Culbreth, is putting on a circus. This will be Saturday afternoon. That night, a buffet, specially prepared by Mrs. Bond, will be given in the dining room. The excitement of Parents Weekend has already begun, as the girls have been industriously cleaning up their rooms for that all-important inspection.

Because of their good citizenship attitudes and diligent studying, a group of Highlands girls were honored on Saturday, the 15th, with a trip to Cape Kennedy. The girls were taken on an extensive tour of the base and shown the various launching pads. Everyone was awed and impressed by the multitude and complexity of the instruments used in these launchings. All in all, it was a very educational and thoroughly entertaining day.

On Apr. 4, Mr. Stokes' Civics class, as a class project went to court where Judge Rehrer presided. There they viewed court proceedings and learned the techniques of court behavior.

On Friday, Apr. 28, the Highlands School Chorus will present their spring concert. The concert will consist off various songs the chorus has learned during the year. It will also help them get ready for their big North Carolina tour in May. The public is invited to attend. It will be at 8 P.M. There will be a reception following the concert.

Audubon Society Meets April 26

The Highlands County Audubon Society will meet Wednesday, Apr. 26, at 7:15 P.M. at the recreation building, Highlands Hammock State Park.

There will be a special program of slides by Ranger Carl Parks of the State Parks system.

Audubon meetings are open to visitors.

Lynn Hardin On Dean's List

Miss Lynn Hardin, 30 E. Thomas Street, Avon Park, has been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Saint Francis College according to an announcement by the Rev. Brian Miller, T. O. R., Dean of the College.

Miss Hardin, a freshman French major, has achieved a 3.5 quality point average. 4.0 is considered a perfect average.

Card of Thanks

We want to thank all of our many friends for their thoughtfulness and prayers during the illness of our son, Waylon.

He is still improving and steadily gaining headway.

It is wonderful to know that we live in a community where everyone has been so kind and concerned. We appreciate all of you.

Mrs. R. Nielson Speaks To Lutheran Women

The Women of Resurrection Church were welcomed by their president, Mrs. S. F. Ekhill, to their April 12 meeting.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Mervin Rehrer. She chose Galatians, Chapter 6, verse 2 as her inspiration for the service.

Minutes of the March meeting was read by Mrs. David Roche. Mrs. J. A. Terp gave the financial report. The lesson "Why Christiana Grieve" was given by Mrs. Rehrer.

Mrs. Rudolf Nielson gave an instructive talk on the significance of Alter Colors. Rev. Nielson talked on "The Women of the Church".

Mrs. S. F. Ekhill, hostess for the day, served refreshments during the social hour.

Mrs. Elmer Hurst was named hostess for the May meeting.

Dorcas Society To Meet Sunday

Mrs. Schmell, leader of the Dorcas Society at the Walker Memorial Seventh-Day-Adventist church announced Dorcas Federation meeting in Tampa on Sunday, Apr. 23. This Federation meeting includes the Ridge and the Gulf areas.

All members of our Dorcas Society are constantly working for the uplift of humanity. Both Elder Kerr, the minister and Mrs. Schmell are anticipating a large representation from the church.

About 550,000 U. S. homes are hit by fire each year, and over 6,000 persons — 35% of them children — die in these fires, National Fire Protection Association records show.

Mrs. Tondee Hosts Circle 8

Circle No. 8 of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Pauline Tondee, Tuesday April 11 for their regular meeting.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Solveig Gerrard and the lesson was given by Mrs. Velma Lee.

Refreshments was served by the hostess.

The first auto fatality in U.S. occurred in September of 1899.

The population of the world at the time of Christ was about 250 million. It took some 1,600 years to double that amount. Now the world excess of births over deaths averages about 50 mill' yearly.

San Marino, a quarter-pint country in central Italy, has been independent since 302 A.D.

The level of the streets of Damascus, one of the oldest cities on earth, has risen some 30 feet since Biblical times, so often has it been destroyed, and rebuilt on the old ruins.

Pictorial INTELLIGRAM

How are you on recent events? Complete the following six statements, checking your answers with those below, to find out.

1—Pictured mayor of Chicago, (Richard S. Daley) (Paul T. Bishop), wins fourth four-year term.

2—Local police in (Berlin) (Stockholm) charge plot to kill Vice President Hubert Humphrey.

3—Former senatorial aide Bobby Baker is sentenced to (8-12) (1-3) years in prison on charges of income tax evasion, theft, fraud and conspiracy.

4—Kidnaped boy of multimillionaire is released unharmed at Beverly Hills, Calif., after payment of ($75,000) ($250,000) in ransom.

Count 10 for each correct choice. A score of 60 is excellent; 50, good; 40, fair; less than 40, poor.

Antique

Most ancient home of man found so far in the southeastern United States is Russell Cave in Jackson County, Ala. Primitive Americans worked by firelight in the cavern some 8,000 years ago.

Weddings and ancient warfare still have something in common—the playing of music as the participants march into battle.

A visit by the latest teen singers reminds us that we are in an era of long-haired music and clamor girls.

The weather report is for sunny skies the next day. The optimist buys a new bathing suit and the pessimist buys sunburn ointment.

Scored Pitchers

Ghost Written?

No one knows who wrote the epistle to the Hebrews in the Bible. It has been credited to Apollos, Barnabas and others, while some scholars believe it was written by the Apostle Paul.

In buses and commuter trains today, old-fashioned chivalry is a standing joke.

"Perfect Host" Outdoor Gas-Fired

Barbeque by Charmglow

Want to build some memories on your cookouts this summer? Install a Charmglow Perfect Host Barbeque and you'll be in for a delightful surprise! Because it's gas-fired, the Perfect Host lets you cook anything outdoors without the fuss and bother of dirty charcoal. And the heat control you have with gas gives your cooking the variety that means your cookouts will be a more frequent family event . . . the kind that builds memories.

They tell the story in Alabama about the old Ex-Confederate who grinned broadly every time he had to mail a letter with Lincoln's picture on the stamp. When asked about it, he said, "Why me and Bobby Lee tried for four years to lick that guy Lincoln, and now I can do it by myself without half trying."

Highlands GOP Legislative Aims Set Saturnday

Highlands County, with all its legislative representatives now on the West Coast, may not be as forgotten as many have anticipated.

In a precedent shattering meeting here, Saturday, to which the public was invited, Reps. J. K. Tillman and Granville Crabtree of Sarasota County discussed issues and problems brought up by some of the 80 persons attending and disclosed their thinking on some. The meeting was held in the courthouse annex.

"We cannot take a stand here today," said Rep. Crabtree, because there are four men representing this county."

Tillman added that "we need help in getting the pulse of this area. We hope to come back—any Saturday. We are going to have a lot of meetings like this."

The legislators, both Republicans, were introduced by Col. W. J. Atkinson, county Republican chairman, who declared that the Republicans "are going to give you good government."

In addition to discussing problems, the legislators took back with them several local bills to be introduced, bills presented through County Attorney Hue Nunnaliee and City Attorney Joseph Macbeth.

Here is the way they feel on some of the current problems facing residents of this county:

Crabtree, replying to request of Mrs. Andrew Jackson of Lake Placid, a former teacher, for a more equitable way of taxing to support the schools: "I am almost positive there will be legislation that will relieve property owners of some of the increasing burdens on their backs. This means there must be an alternate. The one knocked around the most is the possibility of a one cent additional sales tax. I won't say I'm for this. As to a lottery, we have had about 800 letters and a petition with 2,100 signers, presenting pro and con views.

Tillman, replying to a question posed by Mrs. Virginia Hohman as to whether private clubs in the county operating bars must close May 1 as ordered by the State Beverage Department: "This is state law. In Highlands County, beverages can be sold by the package only. The bars operating in private clubs are doing so illegally. What the county could do is hold a local election. Crabtree added that "If the people in the county wish, they could place it on a referendum." Currently three clubs, the Elks club, VFW and Sebring Golf club have been so notified by the beverage department.

Crabtree, replying to question of Carl McIntyre, chairman of the county commission: "We will work to try to get the 4-laning of Route 27 finished. We made this as one of our objectives when we were running for office and we know it is so badly needed. How do we feel about a bill dividing road monies on a basis of ⅔ for population, ⅓ for land area? This bill is in committee and we don't want it because every county in our district would suffer.

Crabtree, replying to questioning by County Superintendent of Schools George Douglass: "The present distribution of racetrack funds to the counties is approximately $270,000 per county, regardless of population. Some counties have pledged monies from these funds for up to 30 years. It is proposed to freeze these funds at the present level so these counties can meet their obligations. After the freeze, money coming in over this amount goes to a general racetrack fund to be distributed as warranted, which seems the most equitable agreement which can be reached with these larger counties."

Tillman, replying to question by a director of Highlands Hammock State Park: "We are going to do what we can to get funds taken in at state parks returned to the parks."

A local bill providing that Circuit Court Clerk Earl Rich be permitted to deposit court funds in time deposits so that they can earn interest instead of being allowed to accumulate without earning interest.

Special legislation authorizing deputy coroners to receive $20 instead of $5. Sheriff Brown and Coker pointed out Judge Marvin Rehrer, county coroner, is embarrassed to call a doctor out in the middle of the night for a $5 fee.

A bill asked by County Judge Marvin Rehrer providing mandatory treatment of alcoholics.

Freeholders Veto School Bond Issue

Highlands County freeholders turned down the $3,150,000 school bond issue Tuesday in a trouncing at the polls which saw only four of the 14 precincts favor it.

The unofficial count was 1,762-1,471, with the heaviest opposition coming from the South end of the county where there are many large holders of land. It is these people whose taxes would have taken the sharpest rise.

Other heavy margins of voters opposed were registered at Precinct 1, located at Avon Park Tourist Club, 293-247 and at No. 5, located at Hart's, where the retirement area people of Sebring Hills vote, 203-170.

A total of 3,287 freeholders had registered for the vote. Most of these showed up and in addition, there was heavy voting by persons who had not registered but appeared with tax deeds or receipts and signed affadavits, a total of 774. There were 55 absentee ballots. Ordinarily only a handful of people vote by affidavit.

Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Drost said this is the first bond issue to be turned down in the county that he can remember.

Superintendent of Schools George Douglass declared: "We are going to face our problems realistically and will make a recommendation to the Board of Public Instruction in a short period of time."

Ed Holcomb, treasurer of the Highlands County Property Owners Association which opposed the issue, said "We plan to ask Elton Crews, our president, to call a meeting of the association for the purpose of taking a look at the issue and determining what our next steps are toward obtaining a more equitable tax basis to further the Highlands County School Program."

President of the School Board, Henry Bailey, declared "We will do what we always have done, the best we can with what we've got."

One of the first things to be done, apparently, is for the board to revise the priority list and pick out the most badly needed items. The bond issue would have provided for seven major school buildings and repairs and additions. Meanwhile, a bill is before the Legislature, which might enable the school people to bring the issue to the voters again in six months.

The only precincts in favor of the issue were No. 2, Negro, Avon Park, 60-6; Triangle Drive-in, 35-34; No. 7, Highlands Home near Fred Wild School, 115-70, and No. 9, USO quarters, 52-6.

The South end of the county was pretty well opposed with Precinct 11, DeSoto City voting 66-34; No. 12, Lorida, 29-10; No. 13, Lake Placid, 311-167 and No. 15, Venus, 29-1.

The vote by precincts:

Ambulance Story Told To Council Monday

Chairman Clarence King brought the Avon Park City Council into session Monday night with a standing moment of silence to observe the death of a longtime Avon Park tax accessor, Charles Guerndt.

In opening business, ambulance service for Highlands County came under discussion.

Avon Park will continue to have ambulance service from the Mizelle Funeral Home but after Sunday, Apr. 30, the Scott-Stephens-Smith Funeral Service will discontinue ambulance service.

Dixie Scott said that his firm has been forced out of the business economically, by the new Federal wage and hour regulations.

Adequate ambulance service has become a problem not only for Highlands County and the State of Florida, but for the entire country. The facts are that most firms in the ambulance business have been losing money.

As a consequence, federal funds have been made available, on a matching basis, to those states who want to get into the business. And presently pending in Tallahassee is a bill that would enable Florida counties to subsidize adequate ambulance service. . . and thus be able to participate in those Federal-State funds.

At Council meeting Monday was Charles Futch, representating an ambulance service with offices in Cocoa. Futch said that the enabling law might come to a vote in Tallahassee Thursday. Governor Kirk is pushing for this legislation under his Florida Highway Safety Program and if it should pass then the individual counties and municipalities of Florida would be able to negotiate with private firms for subsidized ambulance service.

Mr. Futch said that it costs approximately $27,000 per year to operate one ambulance.

In other Council business, Councilman Albright said that he had another applicant for dog catcher. Mr. Albright also commended the Volunteer Firemen for their efforts at their recent meeting.

Councilman Scott moved that the City buy a tranquilizer gun for use in the stray dog program. The gun will be used by trained members of the Police Department only. Cost will be about $350. Move was seconded by Mr. Martin and passed over the abstention of Mr. Albright.

Mayor DeLaney was authorized to proceed with installation of an 18-inch water line to the Northwest section.

Residents Warned of Live Ammo Danger — Report to Police

Avon Park Patrolman Earl Gordon had the dubious distinction of being presented Friday with two 30 mm cannon shells, one 2-star artillery flair and the explosive head from another cannon shell.

These were found in a trash container by Leroy Ross who turned them over to Officer Gordon who, in turn (quickly) turned them over to National Guard Sgt. Ollie Gentry.

Sgt. Gentry deactivated the weapons.

It these had been accidentally burned in trash they could have killed or maimed several persons. Several area residents have been badly wounded by armaments found about the Bombing Range.

These should be reported to police or the National Guard, immediately, and they will dispose of them.

Senator Boyd Pushes Money For New Armory

Senator Wilbur Boyd, D-Palmetto today announced he has introduced a bill for construction of a National Guard Armory in the city of Avon Park, Highlands County. The state will provide $90,000.00 for planning, construction and equipping. Similar matching funds from the Federal Government will be available.

Senator Boyd commented, "I hope construction can be started as soon as possible."

Senator Boyd concluded by expressing great confidence in the future development of Highlands County and pledged to continue his effort on behalf of Highlands County.

Has 60 Days To Get Things Tidy

Mrs. Flora L. Thomas, an Avon Park widow, has been given 60 days to clean up her place or come back and tell Judge Mervin Rehrer why she didn't.

Mrs. Thomas, of Don Carlos Ave., in Lake Letta subdivision, was arrested recently under a seldom used public health law charged with failure to make proper disposal of garbage and failure to have toilet facilities at her home.

South Florida Junior College Will Graduate First Two Students

South Florida Junior College, which has been in operation for two trimesters, with an enrollment basically limited to freshman students, has, in an effort to best serve the community admitted several transfer students during its first year of operation. Two of these transfers, Mrs. Ann Hunt Kahn of Sebring and Bobby Miles Terrell of Wauchula, have completed the graduation requirements of this institution. There will be no formal graduation program this year; however, these candidates for graduation will be honored at a reception in the lobby of the classroom complex, second floor of the Brichell Building, from 3 to 5 P.M. on Apr. 30.

The College is particularly pleased that the first two graduates represent both Hardee and Highlands Counties, which comprise the junior college district. The Public is cordially invited to attend this reception.

Glee Club Date Changed to May 2

Because of the conflicting dates with the Championship-bound baseball team, the Avon Park Glee Club has changed the date of their next concert to Thursday, May 2, 8 P.M. DST.

The original date was set for April 27 as announced in last week's item.

Two Children Sustain Injuries In Accidents

Two Avon Park grade school students were injured in separate accidents Thursday morning. The accidents occured fifteen minutes apart.

The first occured at 7:20 A.M. at Highlands Av., and 4th Street when Arnold Roger Wilson, 6 years old, ran across Highlands Ave., into the path of a 1959 Rambler driven by Avon Park student Claude Reide, Jr., 20, of Rt. 1, box 8 62.

The Wilson child was confined to Walker Memorial Hospital in satisfactory condition. No charges were preferred.

In the second accident the driver James Preston Lipscomb, 19, was charged with leaving the scene of an accident when his Ford sedan struck Theresa L. Cobb at North Florida and Oak Lane Street.

The Cobb child, 6 years old, lives at 702 W. Winifred and the driver Lipscomb lives at 710 W. Winifred. Theresa was treated and released from the hospital.

Law Day To Be Observed May 1

Mayor DeLaney issued the following Proclamation urging the citizens of Avon Park to join in the observance of Law Day U.S.A. on May 1, 1967.

(PROCLAMATION)

Andrew B. Jackson, Chairman of the Law Day Committee for the Highlands County Bar Association, stated that the Highlands County Bar Association will be happy to furnish speakers for any organization during the month of May, to enlist the organization in their observance of "Law Day U.S.A." Any organization interested in having a local attorney present a program to them may do so by contacting Mr. Jathson at his office in Lake Placid.

Emmitt Money and Hoppy Rewis will pitch for the Avon Park Red Devils against Sebring in the tournament starting tonight.

Red Devils To Meet Blue Streaks In District Playoffs Tonight

Coach Ralph Hill's Red Devil baseball team moved into a best-of three games play-off with the Sebring Blue Streaks for the Class B Group 6 championship by defeating Turkey Creek 12-0 and Frostproof 7-1 last week here at Head Field in a sub-group meet.

The Red Devils and Blue Streaks will square off in the first game here at Head Field tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 and will continue the meet in Sebring, tomorrow night (Friday) at Firemen's Field in a second game. If a third game is necessary the site will be decided by the toss of a coin and it will be played Saturday night also at 7:30.

Coach Hill would like to remind all baseball fans that these groups, regional and state tournament games are sponsored by the state high school activities association and that local passes to high school athletic events cannot be honored at the gate. Admission prices for the play-off games will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

In the opening round of the sub-group tourney held here last week, Frostproof defeated Cardinal Mooney of Sarasota 4-3 and the Red Devils jumped on Turkey Creek for a 12-0 shut-out on Thursday night.

The Red Devils got fifteen hits off two Turkey Creek pitchers with Johnny Elder slamming out two doubles and a single and Donny Montsdeoca rapping out three singles along with Dean Lemler's double and single and Bill Jackson's two singles.

Emmitt Money started for Avon Park and went two full innings before Hoppy Rewis came in relief. Money took the win from the mound fanning five batters in the two innings and allowing not hits. Rewis gave up oone hit during his four innings of hurling.

In the sub-group finale Friday night the Frostproof Bulldogs took a one run lead in the top of the third inning as Devil pitcher Emmitt Money walked two batters and then shortstop Larry Byrd boomed out a double to drive in John Stephenson before the side could be retired.

In the bottom of the fifth the Red Devils took over the lead for the first time. Bill Knapp walked and stole second. Denny Montsdeoca was save on a fielder's choice when the shortstop tried to catch Knapp going to third and overthrew to let Knapp score. Then Montsdeoca scored on a wild pitch to put the Devils ahead 2-1.

In the bottom of the sixth the Frostproof team fell apart defensively and made 4 errors as the Devils got four singles to score five runs and ice the game away. Robert Sizemore completely demoralized the Bulldogs when he was safe after striking out, stole second and took third and came home as the Bulldogs made three throwing errors as he continued to run the bases.

Money went the distance for Avon Park striking out fifteen batters. He gave up only two hits and walked five batters. Young Muaray Wilson was the losing hurler. He held the Devils hitless and scoreless for three innings giving up only six hits during the entire game.

Coach Hill is expected to start Money on the mound in the first game with Sebring tonight and ace Streak hurler Marty Gillilian will probably get the nod from Sebring coach John Freeland.

The Devils and the Streaks each have a win iin two regular season games against each other with the score of both games being 1-0.

Leaving Town?

Avon Park Chief of Police Carroll requests that all residents living within the city limits notify the Department in writing if they plan to leave the city for any extended length of time.

Write the Avon Park Police Department giving your name, address, length of time you will be out of town, and an address where you can be reached in case of emergency.

Residents Receive UF and USF Degrees

The following area college students are candidates for degrees in upcoming commencement ceremonies from the University of Florida and from the University of South Florida.

From University of Florida: Ann Hudson King, BA; Jack Roy Seims, BSA, both from Avon Park.

Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert King, Jr., of Lotela Road and Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Seims of Lotela Ave.

From the University of South Florida: Arthur L. Kelly, Jr., physics; Lawrence Lynch, accounting; D. Ann Mickunas, music-education, all of Avon Park.

A total of 4,200 candidates will be recognized at the UF ceremonies.

The group graduating from USF will bring to 3,400 the total who have graduated in the brief seven-year span of the university.

Commissioners Will Be Going To Tallahassee

Highlands County commissioners will go to Tallahassee to discuss legislative matters with members of the Legislature.

The decision to go to the Capital was made at a special meeting. Members will not travel as a group but will go as they can fit the trip into their respective schedules.

One of the matters before the Legislature is for a county zoning bill, which also provides for setting up building, electrical and plumbing codes for the unincorporated areas of the county.

In other business at the special meeting, the board voted that a replat of Sun 'n Lake Estates subdivision at Lake Placid, which had been given tentative approval, be not approved. County Surveyor Roger Miller reported that some of the lots are 50 feet wide, which is below county specifications for subdivision lots.

The board gave tentative approval on an offer from Sebring Lakes subdivision for two public boat ramp sites and access to the canals for maintenance purposes.

Sheriff Reports 174 Arrested on Race Weekend

Law enforcement officers had their usual busy week-end in Highlands county the race week-end of March 30 through April 1. Sheriff Brown and Coker reported a total of 174 arrests during the period.

Of the arrests, 87 were by his deputies, 52 by Florida Highway Patrolmen and 35 by agents of the State Beverage Department. The offenses were: traffic, 47; drunk, 38; possession of alcohol, 34; disturbing the peace, 18; disorderly conduct, 18; resisting arrest, 4; destroying property, 4; juveniles, 14; miscellaneous, 4.

Too Late to Classify

By Russell Kay

I always appreciate reaction to my columns from readers or publishers and I am very glad to have the following letter from Jo Summerhill on the staff of the Halifax Reporter.

Dear Mr. Kay: "In a recent column you note that fifty percent of the shoplifters in the U.S. are teenagers, but you failed to mention what is well known, that most shoplifting is traced to the housewife, usually from a middle income or upper income household.

As for teenagers, your last paragraph leaves little hope for the youth of this nation. Some of us have given it a lot of thought and are reaching the solution. It isn't too hard to figure out that teenagers by and large are very hostile. Most of what they do is an act of hostility.

They are tired of do as I say and not as I do parents. They are tired of hearing dad brag about how he had been able to cheat the government on his income tax or he hears his mother tell a neighbor about not returning the dollar a store clerk gave her by mistake at the check out counter.

They are also tired of reading about politicians like Bobby Baker cheating the government and getting a ridiculously inadequate sentence or how society is decaying at a rapid rate, but it is starting with the older generation and working its way down, not vice versa.

"Obviously it is not religion that is helping to keep our society straight, because more families are attending church now than ever before. It is the lack of moral fiber within us and the importance the American is placing on material things."

Space does not permit publication of the entire letter, but it continues in the same vein with intelligent and constructive arguments that point out the basic reason for youth's revolt today.

When parents place more importance on material things and make their children feel that a costly rug, a special piece of furniture or another material possession is more important than their child, that it is smarter to lie, cheat and pull an underhanded deal than to be honest and sincere, it is only natural the teenager becomes confused and feels resentment. He feels unwanted, unappreciated and finds the example his parents set, contrary to all he may have learned of justice and fairplay.

I agree wholeheartedly with Jo Summerhill. The amazing thing is that so many of our youngsters today exhibit such high moral character in face of the example their elders set for them.

In an earlier column dealing with housewives campaigning against high prices I pointed out that housewives themselves were largely responsible for these high prices because of their shoplifting tendencies which were making high prices imperative.

Our Man in Tallahassee

By Rex Newman

The new urban Legislature will be one of the longest suffering and most expensive in many a year, in appearance from the press booth.

Not only does the Legislature have to get a ton of business through the regular 60-day session but it then has to tackle constitutional revision.

Conservative estimates are another 45 days to two months.

Somewhere congression reapportionment must be squeezed in as well as the thorny battle of which 24 of the 48 senators will be running for the bobtailed two-year terms and which for the full four-year terms.

Self-interest will make this latter problem sticky.

There, regardless of whether the people ratify a new constitution or reject it, the Legislature will be back following this election, probably in November.

If the constitution passes, there will be loose ends to tie up with implementing laws.

If it doesn't, then constitutional amendments which would normally be proposed during this regular session will be proposed.

These newcomers may be short-timers in office by the year's end, but they'll be old hands at legislative maneuvering by the time the year's out.

The most pointed bit of partisan politics occurred last week when Senate and House minority leaders, Sen. William Young, Pinellas Park, and Rep. Don Reed, Boca Raton, started weekly Monday morning "Bill and Don shows."

The first announcement was the formation of what was billed as a "non-political task force to study long range implications in state revenue and taxes."

The fact that only Republicans were to be on the task force and that the Legislative Reference Bureau and a two-year tax reform study just completed were bypassed belied the non-political pronouncement.

While the "Bill and Don Show" was a flop from the newsman's standpoint in that nothing "new" came out of it, to the average reader who doesn't have the time to devote to political happenings, it will be a winner.

After all, what really came out of the of "Ev and Charlie" shows which the former Republican congressional leadership started a few years back?

Not much hard news with anything newsy, but it was a big boxoffice seller.

Bill and Don did find themselves somewhat embarrassed by repeated questions concerning the Tax Reform Commission report. Who headed it? None other than former state senator, B.C. Pearce, whom Gov. Claude Kirk tapped as his financial expert adviser. It recommended certain tax increases if more money was needed and it spent $50,000 in doing it. Don and Bill both were in the Legislature last session and voted for the commission and the money it spent.

Senate President Verle Pope, D-St. Augustine, appointed six committees to carry out new Senate rules regarding executive sessions.

There were six recommendations for suspensions of public officials and a committee is to investigate each and then recommend whether or not there should be an executive session.

All six were four-senator committees, two Republicans and two Democrats.

"Gentlemen, we're going to be bipartisan if it kills us."

It might.

WISPS FROM WAGS: A pari-mutual bill was introduced into the house last week and was billed as "just another California bill." An earlier one, involving insurance, ran into trouble. A newsman suggested that the Florida legislature "just adopt all of the laws of California, repealing all of the Florida laws, and we all could go home and save a lot of money."

Republican Women Name Three Delegates

By Ada S. Mayberry

At the Highlands County Women's Republican Club on Thursday three delegates were appointed to attend the Spring Conference at Miami Beach, May 10-12. Those appointed were Miss Bertha M. Oyer, president; Mrs. W. J. Atkinson, secretary, and Mrs. Mayberry, state committee woman.

Mrs. Hazel Schutt of Avon park, who spoke on pending legislation mentioned firearms Control bill. Write to your senators and urge passage of H.R. 360 and H.R. 4137, which would set up a mandatory 10-year federal sentence for the use of firearms in committing major crimes of violence, with a mandatory 25-year sentence for subsequent offense.

A dessert card party will be held at city pier, May 3, at 1:30 P.M., by Women's Republican Club. Mrs. Clarence Kraft is chairman of the event.

Time to Burn Flags, Bibles?

This seems to be the season for the burning of American flags and Bibles. Why this sort of madness should affect people especially at this time, in different parts of the country, is not altogether satisfactorily explained.

Burning of flags is, of course, connected with protests against the war in Vietnam. Some people seem to be determined that there shall be no doubt about their disloyalty to the nation which we hail as the "land of the free and the home of the brave."

Burn Bible?

As a dramatic demonstration of his disrespect for the Bible and his disbelief in God, a student at the University of Houston announced that he would set fire to a Bible in the university's student center. Just before the appointed time, he changed his mind about the wisdom of the planned action, but declared that he did not believe in God and that burning of the Bible would be burning "an institution and not a book."

Another sudent—a girl—offered her Bible to be burned, as a replacement. There was controversy among the students, as some favored and others opposed the Bible-burning.

Not a New Idea

Some, who have studied history, may remember that the burning of Bibles is not, by any means, a new idea.

When William Tyndale, in 1526, published the first New Testament printed in English, those who wished to keep the English people from reading God's Word in their own tongue bought as many copies as they could and burned them publicly. However, many of the people managed to get copies of the Tyndale New Testament and read them.

Finally, in 1536, Tyndale was himself burned at the stake for the crime of publishing the New Testament in English.

But that is not the end of the story. Seventy-five years later, the Bible was published under the authorization and protection of the king of England. This is the version known as the King James version, known and loved by millions.

Those who would burn the Book might do better to learn the lesson which history teaches—that the Bible cannot be destroyed.

Those who scorn its teachings only destroy themselves.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

Taxpayers Our Weakest Lobby

WASHINGTON, D.C.—What probably is the country's weakest pressure bloc (or lobby, as we call it in Washington) should be the strongest. It is made up of the 70 million persons who have just paid something approaching $70 billion into the federal treasury in income taxes.

Although most of these taxpayers groan under the weight of their taxes and call for ending waste and extravagance in the Government, their voices have (unfortunately) been weak and ineffective individually and as a bloc.

In fact, those who make up this pressure bloc have been so ineffective in the application of their power that they are required not only to pay and pay, but they must work and work for the Government in order to pay.

The Government franks its tax bills, forms, and challenges of taxpayers' returns. But the taxpayer is even required to pay postage on the money he sends with his returns and on his replies to whatever challenges he may receive.

The taxpayer must keep records on his own time and at his own expense to justify deductions. If challenged he must give of his time and pay the expenses of justification of his return.

But despite these burdens, the taxpayers of the nation are generally more than honest. Most of them waive any questions in favor of the Government although the Government, quick to pounce on any error made against it by the taxpayer, frequently forgets those made by the taxpayer against himself.

But the taxpayers, collectively, have the power to become the most potent "lobby" in the history of government.

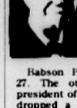

Many members of The Congress—and presidents and state and local officials as well—get elected on promises to cut spending at national, state and local levels. But unfortunately many of these officials, once elected, take another view. They begin to see spending as the way to win votes and go so far frequently as to look for new ways to spend or ways to increase spending which might win them votes.

As things now stand, it appears that this trend will continue at least a while longer because the taxpayer so far has only griped and has not yet revolted.

But it seems to me that the time must come when the tax burden on the individual will be so great that there will be a great public awakening to the fact that nothing is free—that all of the great benefits to the people Uncle Sam supposedly is giving to the people must be and are being paid for—by the public which has been deluded by the politicians into believing it is getting something for nothing.

When that day comes, it can be predicted that there will be a great scurrying for political storm shelters.

ROGER W. BABSON

Might Divorce Dollar From Gold

Babson Park, Mass., April 27. The other day a vice-president of a huge N.Y. bank dropped a "bombshell" into international banking circles. He suggested that if foreign governments holding deposits here should insist on turning them into gold, the U.S. just might refuse to honor their requests. That we would simply sit on our $13-billion hoard. The fixed price of $35 per ounce, at which the U.S. agreed to redeem the dollar for foreign holders ever since the end of World War II, would be no more. In a word, we would divorce our dollar from gold!

Furor In Finance

Some immediately said that "the banker's "trial balloon" had been handed to him for release by none other than the Secretary of the U.S. Treasury. It has long been known that official Washington has been "all steamed up" because foreign nations—whom we rescued from the brink of economic disaster a few years ago—are continually exchanging their dollar holdings for gold. Such resentment has applied especially to France. Others, however, held that the startling statement was only the opening gun in the battle to give greater liquidity to all Free World currencies. This financial Armageddon is slated for Rio de Janeiro in September at the meeting of the International Monetary Fund.

Whatever the intent, whoever the instigator, the effect was electric. The price of gold shot up in London. Long dormant and bumping bottom, gold shares in New York were sparked to life. Economists great and small were eagerly sought for pens interviews. The central bankers of Europe shuddered. And we can guess that the "Gnomes of Zurich" laughed.

Behind The Smoke

It is said that you can count on the fingers of one hand the men in this country who really understand international money and its ramifications. Even this may be an overstatement. However, the smoke now belching from the banking and political capitals of the Free World does have a source in some serious financial fires. The two major ones are: (1) The now accelerating plunge of the U.S. into debt to the leading nations of Europe; (2) the failure of gold supplies to climb rapidly enough to accommodate a global credit-expansion sufficiently large to finance ever higher levels of world trade.

On count number one we stand at least partially guilty. For years, the U.S. has spent, lent, invested—and just given away—more to other nations than they have spent, lent, etc., in this country. It has been our dollars that our allies have been glad to amass. Why not? For Uncle Sam has said, ever since Bretton Woods in 1944, that he would redeem them for foreigners any time at $35 an ounce. And there's the rub! When we had over $20 billion in gold, the bottom of the barrel looked far away. But now that our gold stock is down to $13 billion—and foreigners hold nearly 30 billion of our dollars—they ask us ever more insistently: "How Long?"

Solution Lies in Co-Operation

Surely, we cannot go on forever flooding the world with dollars. The law of supply and demand would steadily force the dollar's value down. But the huge outflow of dollars has enabled our allies to finance their economic expansion and to support a world trade boom. It is only recently that doubts about the dollar have threatened world prosperity.

The real job for the U.S. is two fold: (1) Restore confidence by slowing down our dollar hemorrhage, (2) work co-operatively with the other nations at Rio in September to establish a broader base than just the dollar for greater international liquidity. Our Allies must help us to achieve the first, and we must sacrifice some prestige to attain the second objective.

Devaluation No answer

Admittedly it will be hard for us to "give ground" at Rio. When the International Monetary Fund was formed, we were king. That is not so now. As creditor we could call the tune. As debtor we must find a solution fair to all. And we shall have to learn to limit our world commitments... or slip deeper toward bankruptcy. Surely we must shun the suggestion of the N. Y. banker with regard to dishonoring our commitments. For the result would be devaluation and a train of financial and economic events with consequences that no man can foresee and that few would care to contemplate.

They're Finally Going to Get All That Wording OK

A few little words can make a lot of difference, particularly when they are in a bill destined for action by the State Legislature. And they can take up a lot of time of some of the city's busiest and most important men.

When Sebring City Council deleted a paragraph from the proposed local bill to create a Sebring Airport Authority, they thought they had things all set up okay. But they inadvertently failed to provide for transfer of title to the land at the air terminal.

The sharp-eyed Sebring Development Council, which has the airport under its wing, noticed the error and requested a meeting with councilmen. This was accomplished. Declared Development Council chairman Reis Bond: "We felt that title will have to be vested in the authority."

As things now stand corrected, the airport authority will have power to arrange sales and leases, but the city council will have to approve any direct sales of land.

Which is what the city dads intended to do all along when they went to work on the troublesome paragraph.

County Judge Has Busy Week With 195 Cases

County Judge Mervin Rehrer had one of his busiest days on record Tuesday, Apr. 18 with a record of 195 cases for the biggest docket in the court's history. Court convenes at 2 P.M. but was delayed while Judge Rehrer, acting coroner, was called to Avon Park in the drowning of Robert Minard.

Fines totaling $5,150 for the following cases for the day.

Preliminary Hearings, (felonies) 2; Arguments or Motions on pending charges, 1; guilty or nolo contendere pleas and disposition, 47 fines $1,690.

Bond Estreitures, 115, fines $3,400, not guilty pleas, set for trial, 9, continuances to later date (mostly failure to appear on summons), 16; nolle prosque (by prosecutor after talking to witnesses), 3; dismissed by court (warrent could not be served), 2.

Total 195 Cases. After a busy day, Judge Rehrer flew to Miami early Thursday morning where he attended the Juvenile Court Administrators Conference Banquet at the Lido Hotel, where he spoke on his plans for the coming year as President of Judges during his term of office which he will assume July 1, 1967.

He also attended the Florida Mental Health Conference, Thursday morning at Pine Ridge at Fort Lauderdale in which he serves as chairman of the Mental Health Committee for Florida County Judge Association. He returned to Avon Park Saturday morning.

Post Office Seeks Revenue To Improve Service, Says Young

The Avon Park Post Office and virtually every other post office in the country is operating at a deficit, the National Association of Postmasters of the United States reported today.

However, the Association reported, proposed postage rate increases, including substantial hikes for advertising (third-classmail), will place all post offices in a sounder financial position. By reducing the deficit it will be more feasible to finance postal mechanization and plant improvement as well as provide funds for door-to-door delivery services for city residential areas and restoration of six-day a-week parcel post service, the organization said.

R. D. Young, Postmaster of Avon Park issued the Association's findings today in his capacity as local representative of the nation-wide organization which is supporting $8.25 million postal rate increases recommended to Congress by President Johnson.

Association President James O'Toole pointed out that advertising mail—now paying only 61 percent of cost—will be raised much closer to a break-even point for the Avon Park Post Office and the postal service generally under the proposed rate increases.

The $825 million will help offset additional costs of extending door-to-door delivery, he noted. At the rate of one million homes a year for five years, for city residences which would normally be entitled to door delivery but have been given only curbline delivery.

Cost of restoration of six-day-a-week service on parcel post routes, which had been cut to five-day service, also are affected by the rate measure, he added.

Mr. O'Toole said he was particularly concerned by the fact that the Communities are often have a misconception that their office has a favorable financial picture or may even appear to be "making money."

"However," he explains, "local postal expenditures do not reflect mail transportation costs, services provided by the Postal Inspection Service and the Postal Region, losses on rural routes, cost of procurement and operation of vehicles, and other significant cost items such as equipment."

"As a result of the misconception, though," he stated, "the urgent need for postal rate adjustments, in line with the times, is hard for the residents of many communities to understand," President James O'Toole pointed out.

"The believe their post office is not the one responsible for the deficit. Naturally, they find it hard to understand why other post offices cannot do the same as their own post office."

The Association's report also made these points.

1. Contrary to a prevailing public impression, first-class mail today barely meets its own costs and does not "pay" for losses on other classes of mail.

2. Since the last rate increases in letters in 1963, service improvements at post offices have greatly increased. Locally, for example:

A. The population served has increased from 8,000 to 11,000 year-round.

B. Manpower needs have increased from 15 man years to 18 man years.

C. Payroll costs have gone up from $80,944 to $97,700.

D. The number of delivery stops has increased from 2531 to 3357.

Association President O'Toole also commented in his statement that increases on first-class mail would only restore first-class mail rates to "a position they should occupy as prescribed by law."

The new budget of $6.665 billion as submitted to Congress provides for further substantial improvement in plant, with $201.9 million requested, or a 45.9 percent increase. "Of course," Mr. O'Toole said, "the primary purpose of plant improvement is to maintain and improve the Department's preferred service first-class mail."

"Under the Postal Policy Act, first-class mail is subject to rates that provide more than the actual day-to-day operating costs in recognition of the priority of service and special consideration it receives."

A related area of improvement, he pointed out, is in research and engineering. More than $23 million is proposed for this purpose in the year starting July 1, an increase of 40.2 percent over current annual expenditures.

Without postal rate increases, Mr. O'Toole emphasized, the total postal deficit for the next fiscal year will be a staggering $1.2 billion. Even after allowances for public services, such as services provided for other agencies, the deficit would still be nearly $600 million.

"Even at 6 cents, the stamp will remain the greatest bargain on earth, placing at everyone's disposal a vast communications network of 33,000 post offices, 700,000 employees and delivery anywhere to anyone of nearly 200 million Americans," he said. "But more importantly the increase will place more of the cost of third-class advertising mail on the users."

June 1 Deadline Set on Insurance For Older Folks

Highlands County chapter members of the American Association of Retired People have until June 1 to enroll for a personal indemnity policy now available to them, regardless of age or health, the group was informed at a recent meeting in the Hotel Sebring.

Announcement of the availability was made by E. C. Ludington, insurance coordinator for AARP, who named the company as Continental Casualty Co. of Chicago. Ludington went on to say that personal indemnity is payable to the insured regardless of any hospitalization they may have.

He said he does not recommend the Driver 55 plus auto insurance because of the high rate unless one is unable to get coverage elsewhere.

W. B. Dehn gave a report from the legislative committee and called on all members to write their legislators protesting proposed taxing of Social Security benefits and also asking for an increase of a minimum of $2,000 in earnings before losing any benefits.

A male quartet of Nathan Fahnestock, Dale Stoner, Paul Briedenstine and S. O. Arey, sang with Mrs. Harter at the piano. The Rev. Wesley Smith led in prayer and secretary Bertha Cooper read the minutes.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Thomas C. Underwood, Vice President of the First National Bank of Wauchula and Chairman of the Historical Committee for Pioneer Days, in Hardee County, also Chairman of the Peace River Valley Historical Society, was our guest speaker at last week's meeting. He was introduced by program committeeman Art Wilhite.

Speaker Underwood referred to himself as an amateur historian and archeologist, who pursues these activites as a hobby.

He told about the history and development of Pioneer Park which was started five or six years ago, when the late Wilbur King was the prime mover, how two hundred acre was acquired by the County, along a bend of the Peace River, with the old Zolfo Springs pool as the nucleus, how the Hardee County Boat Club developed a boat basin and club house with outdoor fire place, how the development of a natural lake and the creation of an artificial lake on the property both stocked with fish by the Florida Fresh Water Fish Commission, about the development of camping and picnic grounds, etc.

Speaker Underwood said that a zoo for the exhibit of wild life native to Hardee County is being built and stocked. He told about the museum in the making to preserve momentos from the past. Exhibits he mentioned in passing were an ox yoke and old maps, maps of old town long extinct, and the long series of historous events resulting from the donation of an antique steam engine and the problems encountered in moving it to the Park site.

Dedication of the Park facility is scheduled for June 17th.

Most entertainging was historian Underwood's unfolding of the humorous details of an episode in the life of a colorful Hardee County pioneer character, long deceased, by the name of "Bones" Mizelle, of Arcadia, who as the nickname reveals so eloquently, was part time grave digger.

Bob Lee, Manager of Eaton's Department Store and Donald Correll, Executive Director of the local Federal Housing Authority, were initiated into the Club. President Lanier, conducting the induction service, had for his theme "The Ideal of Service."

Art Turner gave the invocation and Ed Johnson introduced the visiting Rotarians and guests.

The Library Corner

Near approaches of unidentified flying objects can be harmful to human beings. Do not stand under an unidentified flying object that is hovering at a low altitude. Do not touch or attempt to touch an unidentified flying object that has landed. In either case the safe thing to do is to get away from there quickly and let the military take over. There is a possibility of radiation danger and there are known cases where persons have been burned by rays emanating from unidentified flying objects. Details of these cases are included in this book.

Veteran newsman, Frank Edwards has made an intensive study of these mysterious objects for over 20 years. He has sifted through hoax and report, myth and mystery, eye-witness report, and official denials. Included here are accounts of unidentified flying object sightings by customs officers, ranchers, astronauts, aborigines, airport traffic control officers, school teachers, meteorologists, airline pilots, ministers, police officers. Eyewitnesses include couples, groups, and crowds who confirm each other's stories.

Did you know that the women were not the first in Avon Park to start a library system? George E. Wray and G. W. Crosby, city founders, began to loan books at 2 cents a copy in 1893. They had about 20 books located at the community clubhouse. This "library" was continued by their families, who upped the number to 150, until the Woman's Club took over in 1923.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

There is an old wheeze that a rose under any other name smells just as sweet as it does when it's called by its right name. A depression does not fall to act that way, too. A "depression" is always called a "leveling-off period" by the political party managers who happen to be in power at the time one creeps into the business ring. To the gang wanting to get in power a "depression" is just what the doctor ordered, and they call it exactly what it is, in fact. This writer reads all sides of these movements and he doesn't know whether the present stage of business activity is going up or down, until he gets in the grocery store on Friday and looks at his pay check and the price tags on the "eats." Then, he is pretty blamed sure he doesn't know "which is what." Somphin' is funny, though. —O.S.

Sen. William Boyd Pushes For Highlands Hammock Improvement

Sen. Wilbur H. Boyd, D-Palmetto, representing this three-county district at the 1967 Legislative session, is pressing for approval of a $43,500 appropriation for improvement of Highlands Hammock State Park.

Sen. Boyd said, "The appropriation would bring much needed additions to the 3,900 acre state park near Sebring," including a new picnic area and museum exhibits interpreting the famous plant and wildlife of the area.

The appropriation is requested by the Florida Park Board for Highlands Hammock for the 1967-69 biennium. Some $10,500 has been requested for a restroom building in the camping area; $3,000 for complete remodeling of the Youth Building; $7,300 for museum exhibits; $500 for a sewage disposal station for camping trailers; and the bulk of the funds $22,000, for picnic area expansion complete with restroom, paved parking area and picnic tables and grills.

Sen. Boyd pointed out that the sewage disposal station for travel trailers has been recommended by the State Board of Health.

Highlands Hammock State Park is a lush, jungle area located off U.S. 27. It is noted for abundant, easily observed wildlife seen from "catwalks" through the hammock.

Ray Graves To Speak At Banquet

former Opal Richardson of Tarwell, Tennessee, and they have three lovely daughters, Becky (22), Kathy (19), and Beth (16).

The Highlands County University of Florida Alumni Association will hold its Annual meeting and banquet, Friday, Apr. 28, 1967. The banquet will begin at 8 P.M. at the Elks Club in Sebring featuring a Roast prime rib of beef dinner. Preceeding the banquet will be a "Meet Ray Graves" social hour at 7 P.M.

The purpose of the annual meeting will be to present a University of Florida Scholarship to an outstanding high school Senior and to recognize a group of 11th grade honor students in Highlands County. Also the meeting provides an opportunity for University of Florida Alumni around Highlands County to get together to reminisce old times and find out what is going on up at the Alma Mater.

The guest speaker will be coach Ray Graves, head football coach and director of athletics at the University of Florida. Coach Graves has made a significant mark on Florida's football history since coming there in 1960.

Little needs to be said of Ray Graves' football ability other than his record. He played football for Knoxville Central High School, the University of Tennessee, where he graduated from in 1943, and later played pro-football for the Philadelphia Eagles.

He was Captain of every team he played on.

Ray Graves came to Florida in 1960 after 13 years as assistant Football Coach at Georgia Tech where he was assistant head coach from 1957-60.

Florida's Fightin' Gators under the direction of "Gator Ray" have gone to four bowls; wound up in the SEC First divison six times; produced fine wins over teams finishing in the top ten; finished two 9-1 seasons, the best in Florida history, all in only seven years. The seven year record is 49-23-1.

As Athletic Director, Graves, has seen the Gators competing in eight intercollegiate sports, total a winning percentage above 69 percent, winning the SEC all-sports crown the past three years.

Ray Graves is married to the Girl Scouts To Hold Drive

The Girl Scout Fund Drive will hold their kick-off coffee at the home of Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, Camphor St., Tuesday May 2 at 10 A.M.

The workers will receive their supplies and instuction at this time, for the one day fund drive.

AMERICAN LEGION

American Legion Post 69 will have a covered dish supper Thursday night Apr. 27 at 7 P.M.

After dinner a social meeting will be held with Commander Rodney Lane and President Rene Smith, in charge.

Bowling Kings And Queens

by Ernie Andress

Th bowling season has almost come to a close, with the usual awards, i.e., high average, most improved bowler. This writer came in contact with the award to top all awards; this is the one where we all vote for the best sportsman of the league. In my estimation this boils down to a popularity award. You can put figures down on paper and add, divide, subtract and come up with high average, most improved or low average. There is no rule of thumb where a group of people have the identical concept of good sportsmanship. A bowler doesn't have to kick the ball rack or even cuss to be a poor sport. By the same token that same bowler can sit and pout like a child, and not make a scene. A good example of this is Mickey Mantle who this is Mickey Mantle who fist when he strikes out three or four times, yet most people think of him as an even tempered star. This quality that makes a person stand out is called color!

Now that we are balloting, let us vote for the most disliked bowler or even team. If that sounds good we can do as the Miss America contestants; we'll vote for Miss or Mr. Congenially, Miss or Mr. Talent, best looking bowler with the yellow shirt or best looking bowler uang a gold ball with a green glove.

Male Bowler of the Week: Bill White 656-573.

Female Bowler of the Week: Barbara Simmons 582-523.

Little League Meet Set For Monday, May 1

The Little League, Inc., will hold a meeting Monday night, May 1 at 7:30 P.M. at the Avon Park Elementary School cafetorium.

Uniforms will be issued and a short business meeting will be conducted. Don Hassfurder urges all officials of the Little League, managers, coaches and parents to attend.

Leon's, an Avon Park sporting goods store, has been named an official state fishing awards station.

This program is not intended to see who catches the biggest fish but, rather, to commemorate notable catches in all classes of sport fishing. There are two types of certificates. One, an award to qualifying fishermen of a parchment certificate and, two, sterling silverpins to the "best in State" for each species.

Catches will be recorded in Leon's and must be registered within 30 days of the catch.

Marilyn Graetz and Jack Clark Exchange Wedding Vows Sunday

A most impressive wedding ceremony was performed Sunday afternoon at 3 P.M. April 23, when Rev. Herbert D. Graetz united in holy wedlock his daughter Marilyn Sue Graetz to Jack Corban Clark, at the Union Congregational Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Graetz of Avon Park. Mrs. Emma C. Clark of Baton Rouge, La., is the grooms mother.

The bride entered on the arm of her great uncle, Frank S. Gilmore who gave the bride in marriage for her father and mother in a double ring ceremony.

The bridal couple were then seated for the order of service. Mrs. Edna Jackson organist accompanied the robed choir in the anthem for the occasion "With The Voice of Singing." Rev. Graetz gave the call to worship followed by the invocation and Lord's Prayer. After the scripture lesson, Rev. Graetz based his theme on "Love." The choir sang the Hymn of Blessing "O Perfect Love."

The couple then approached the alter for the Ordinance of Matrimony. The altar was decorated with baskets of ferns in front of the pulpit with a pair of candles and two stands of white gladiolus on the lectern altar table. Relative pews were marked with white satin and tulle bows.

Mrs. Richard L. Fortner III from Cocoa, sister of the bride, served as Matron of Honor. Her husband Richard L. Fortner III served the groom as best man with their daughter, Sherry Ann Fortner as flower girl. Ushers were the deacons of the church who seated the guests, filling the church to capacity.

The bride chose a floor length gown of white bridal satin. A line skirt, chapel train on which motifs of Chantilly Lace matching the bodice were appliqued. The waist length bodice was fashioned of Chantilly Lace, wrist length sleeves, high neck line, buttoned down the back. She wore a single pearl pendant a gift from the groom. She carried a white wedding bible covered with net and white roses, trailing white streamers on which white roses were attached. Her waist length double silk illusion veil was held in place by a tiara crown of pearl, sequins and crystal.

Her maid-of-honor was attractive in a floor length dress of white lace bonded on turquoise taffeta, satin cummerbund ending in a bow. Fashioned long sheath style with low rounded neck line, sleeveless she wore long white gloves and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

The little flower girl who so carefully threw rose pedals in the bridal path was gowned in a yellow dacron off-shoulder dress, ruffles at neckline, sleeves and skirt edge. She wore a matching hat and carried her rose pedals in a bridal basket.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise linen sheath dress, flecked with brown, white accessories and wore a pink carnation corsage.

Mother of the groom wore a deep aqua boatnecked dacron dress, elbow length sleeves and wore a pink carnation corsage.

The men were attired in summer formal.

After a short wedding trip, they will be at home at 153 Bliss Drive, Apt. 15, Tallahassee.

Reception

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Mrs. William Furrow, Jr., and Mrs. Lucia Luscomb presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Samuel Norris presented the guests to the receiving line.

The hall was beautifully decorated with arrangemens of magnolia, white shasta daisies ivy, roses, and lillies. The three long tables on which their gifts were displayed, was covered with white, edged with nosegays of floral arrangements and streamers. Two tall baskets of white mums and baby mums flanked with palms were arranged back of the receiving line.

The refreshment table covered with an embroidered floor length cloth of white, held the four tiered cake, decorated with pink roses and green leaves. A four branched silver epergne graced the opposite end of the table filled with white and pink roses, gardenia and pink carnations from which ivy trailed across the table. Punch was served from a large silver punch bowl, mints and nuts were served in silver compotes.

Miss Pamela Mason, Miss Barbara Day, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Doug Perry, Mrs. Raymond Dilley and Mrs. M. G. Whitcomb assisted in serving.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Whetstone and son, Michael, from Miami; Mr. and Mrs. William Furrow, Tallahassee; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Day and daughter, Barbara, Merritt Island; Miss Sharon Airhood, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Seibert Fairman, Clearwater; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gilmore, Kansas City, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fortner III and daughter, Sherry, of Cocoa and Mrs. N. W. Clark, Baton Rouge, La.

Leigh Chapter 85 To Honor Worthy Grand Patron

Leigh Chapter 85, Order of Eastern Star will meet in the Masonic Temple May 2, at 8 P.M.

Past Matrons and Patrons will be honored.

On Apr 29, there will be a dinner and program in Ft. Meade at the Fort Meade High School honoring Mrs. Ione Keen, newly installed Worthy Grand Matron, as a homecoming.

A buffet supper will be served at 5 P.M. with a program to follow at 7:30 P.M. in the school.

Marilyn Graetz Honored With Shower

The Congregation of Union Congregational Church honored Miss Marilyn Graetz, bride-elect of Jack C. Clark, with a Reception Shower Thursday evening Apr. 20. Approximately seventy-five friends attended the reception, which was given in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

The hall was beautifully decorated with arrangements of roses and magnolias. The refreshment table covered with a white embroidered cloth was centered with a silver four-branch candelebra epergne filled with roses from which ivy trailed over the table.

Mrs. Norman Clark, mother of the groom, Miss Marilyn Graetz bride-elect and Mrs. W. S. Clemans formed the receiving line. Mrs. Arlin King was in charge of the brides' book which was placed on a table covered with white linen on which one single orchid rested.

Pale green carnation corsages were presented to the bride-elect Miss Graetz and Mrs. Clark. A white carnation boutonniere was presented to Rev. Graetz.

Refreshments of party sandwiches, cookies, mints, nuts tea and coffee were served. Mrs. Lucia Luscomb, Mrs. Edna Jackson, Mrs. Kathleen Whitcomb and Mrs. Samuel Norris poured.

Hostesses were Mrs. Samuel Norris, Mrs. Andy Miracle, Mrs. Marvin Pearl, Mrs. Cecil Skipper, Mrs. Wm. Luscomb, Mrs. Hue Nunnellee, Mrs. Phil Weber, Mrs. Bob Barben, Mrs. John Townsend, Mrs. W. S. Clemans, Mrs. Arlin King, Mrs. Kathleen Whitcomb and Mrs. Maz O'Neal.

The bride-elect received many useful and beautiful gifts. The hostess gift was a chrome electric mixer. Gifts were displayed on three long tables for viewing.

Patti Hills' Mother Visits Here

Guy McMasters, Jackson, Tenn., brother-in-law of Mrs. Patti Hill, drove to Paris, Tenn., where he met Mrs. Addie Greer, 90 year-old mother of Mrs. Patti Hill and Mrs. Charles Pucket, cousin to Patti, who is a retired nurse and drove them to Avon Park where they visited with Patti for five days.

Mrs. Greer is still very active in spite of her advanced years, mentally alert and contributing articles published in magazines.

Patti and Paxton's son J. Paxton Hill Jr., and family from Merritt Island where he is employed at the Kennedy Space Center, and is directly associated with the Apollo Program, spent one week with his parents and now spends his weekends with them.

A former student of Patti's, Eugene Savage from Orlando, made a special trip to Avon Park to see Patti so she could meet his wife and little son. He left Avon Park in 1949 while he was a 9th grader, this was his first return trip. He said "Patti made him learn to read, even if he didn't want to." He is now a Technician with Bendix at the Cape. He wanted to thank Patti for helping to guide his future.

Duplicate Bridge Report

By Harrison Kosove

The last paster point game of the current duplicate bridge season was held last Monday night and the directors and the players are looking forward to the closing dinner and card party to be held Monday at the Sebring Golf Association Club House.

Social hour will be at 5:30 P.M. Dinner and the presentation of funds to the benefiting charities, plus award to the winner of the most points for the bridge trophy will be at 6:30, which will be followed by a bridge tournament for the bridge players — and other card games for those who would prefer same.

A few more reservations for the dinner are available at $3 per person. Tickets are at the club house or can be secured by calling the directors at EV 5-0778.

The increasingly keen competition of games was evident in last Monday night's contest:

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS LEON DRAKE

First Presbyterian Church Scene Of Double-Ring Rites Saturday

In a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night at First Presbyterian Church, Miss Amy Elizabeth (Betsy) Cason became the bride of Thomas Leon Drake, Avon Park, United States Navy.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted R. Cason, Sebring, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Paul Anthony, Oroville, Calif., and Paul Drake, Avon Park.

Rev. George C. Stulting officiated at the double-ring ceremony, in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. J. M. McAdams, organist, and Miss Nancy Bird, soloist. Miss Bird's numbers were "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me."

The ceremony was performed before a background of palms, and baskets of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and gardenias, to accent a color theme of white and Kelly green. White tapers burning in candelabra cast a soft glow over the wedding party.

Bride Wears Lace

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned by her mother, of white lace over satin. The gown featured a molded bodice, hoop skirt, long fitted lace sleeves, closing at the wrists and back with tiny buttons. Her illusion veil, elbow length, fell from a bridal crown of pearls and crystals. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white feathered carnations and chrysanthemums, centered with a white orchid.

Miss Mary Anne Cason attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing a Kelly green metallic brocade floor-length formal gown, with matching shoes and white gloves. She carried a nosegay of white pompons.

Miss Laura Rose Cason, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a Kelly green brocade gown, made on lines similar in style to the one worn by the maid of honor, with shoes to match, and white gloves. Her white bouquet was identical to the one carried by the honor attendant.

Miss Colleen Loomis, cousin of the bride, Winter Park, served as flower girl. Her floor length dress, empire style, was made of white pique and eyelet. She carried a basket of blossoms and rose petals.

Michael Drake, Avon Park, attended his brother as best man, and groomsmen were Allen Ball and Rainey Prevatt, both of Avon Park.

Mrs. Cason chose for her daughter's wedding, a sky blue crepe, with which she wore silver accessories, and a corsage of Frenched pink carnations.

Wedding Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Cason were hosts at a reception in Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony. A green and white motif was observed in the decorations. The bride's table, covered with a white satin striped cloth, was draped with white tulle with poufs of the tulle at the corners. The sides of the table were festooned with small pouts of white net, orange blossoms and white satin. Floral decoration was the bride's bouquet, and white candles burned in silver candelabra.

The punch table was centered with a silver bowl, and had as decoration, bouquets of the bridal attendants.

An embroidered circular linen cloth overlaid the bride's book table, which held a small bouquet of white gardenias in a family keepsake cream pitcher of antique silver.

Mrs. Donald R. Loomis, cousin of the bride, Winter Park, was at the guest book, and those assisting in serving were Mrs. Clark Cason, Mrs. Milton Cason, Mrs. Felton Ratliff and Mrs. Sally Dalrymple, all aunts of the bride, and Mrs. J. F. Spooner.

For a wedding trip to the gulf beaches, the bride wore a light blue flowered suit, with blue and white accessories, and the orchid corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The bride will make her home with her parents temporarily, until she joins her husband, who is in the United States Navy. He is presently assigned to sea duty with aircraft carrier USS Coral Sea, based at Alameda, Calif.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Loomis and children, Ted, Fred, Colleen and Robbie, Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Hendrickson, Winter Park; Mrs. Pat Cason and Miss Genie Durham, Delray Beach; Mr. and Mrs. W. Glenn Swank, Lorida, grandparents of the bridegroom; Don G. Antley, Jones College, Jacksonville.

Mrs. L. M. Reaves, Mike Drake, Rainey Prevatt, Allen Ball, Miss Debbie Ward, Jimmie Rogers, Miss Cheryl Hamilton, all from Avon Park, and Miss Jane O'Donnell, Dallas, Texas and Avon Park.

Dorcas Society Meet In Tampa

Approximately twelve members of our local Dorcas Society attended the Dorcas Federation meeting in Tampa on Sunday April 23. Our group from Walker Memorial Seventh-Day Adventist Church presented more awards than any of the other Societies. These are to be used in the new Disaster Van. We wish to thank the community for their generous contributions for this health and Welfare work, and to each member for their tireless work.

Characterized by simplicity was the double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Ann Hudson King and Joseph Payne Milton, Apr. 22.

The wedding was solemnized in Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, Saturday afternoon at 6 P.M. by Rev. Armand Gregoire. Nephews of the bride, Will Long and John Bush, assisted as altar boys.

Vases of white spring flowers, shasta daisies and English ivy and seven branched candelabra holding lighted tapers were used to decorate the church. Mrs. Glen Fry organist, played appropriate nuptial music.

Grady Colson of Gulfport, served the groom as best man. Ushers were Ross Jeffrey and Raymond Hall, Gainesville; Larry Gore, Bartow; Robert King III, Edward G. Touchton, Jr., Avon Park and Milton Stokey, Auburn, Ala.

Miss Elizabeth King was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant.

The bride entered on the arm of her father, Robert Rutledge King, Jr., who gave her in marriage. Her full length gown was made of cotton pique and re-embroidered lace with a becoming Bateau neckline outlined in a daisy motif. The chapel length train hung from the natural waistline. Her short veil of silk illusion was attached to an attractive Dior Bau bandeau. The bride carried an unusual spray of English ivy and garden daisies.

The maid of honor wore a modified cape street length cotton voile dress of frost aqua, trimmed with a floral motif of the same shade. She carried a spray of daisies similiar to the brides.

The mother of the bride wore a blue linen, short sleeved dress, embroidered in shades of blue and green. Her accessories were in the same shade of blue.

The groom's mother chose a dress of mauve lace, cage style, fashioned over a matching crepe sheath. Her accessories were in the same shade, wearing a small hat of pink and mauve flowers.

After a short trip within the state, Mr. and Mrs. Milton, will make their home in Gainesville, where Mr. Milton will attend Law School at the University.

The Bride chose a three-piece summer suit iin black and white with black accessories for her traveling outfit.

Reception

Immediately after the ceremony the reception was held at the home of the bride. Flowers throughout the house followed the daisy and ivy motif. The brides table was overlaid with a cut work and Maderia Lace cloth, a family heirloom, decorated with an antique five branch candelabra, holding sprays of ivy and daisies. The four tiered cake decorated with daisies and grape trim centered the table.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. King, Sr., Anderson S.C.; Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Long and sons, Hugh and Will, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene M. Long Jr., and daughter Jane DeLaties, Mr. and Mrs. William G. Brosh and children John and Virginia, all from Augusta, Ga.; Mrs. Martha Ward of Lincolnton, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. Q. R. Moreland, Okeechobee; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Ghin, Lake City; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gary Sullivan and children, Robert, Mimi, and John of Mooresville, N.C.

Last Wednesday, the 19th, the Highlands School faculty and students participated in a luau, which was held in the courtyard. Everyone decked themselves out in their wildest attire, including the faculty, who arrived in what must have been very original creations. There were table settings of coconuts and multi-colored leis arranged by Mrs. Bond and her helpers. Everyone sat Indian style on the grass and was served an exotic Hawaiian feast. Robyn Spagins, Sue Ottenheimer, Lindsey Linker, and Allison Alexander entertained us with a floor show of hula dancing. The colorful atmosphere, the Hawaiian food, and dance all contributed to making that night one that will be hard to forget.

Saturday, Apr. 22, the Miss Sebring Pageant was held in the Sebring High School auditorium. We are very proud of two of our girls: Becky Walker, who was second runner-up, and Catherine Rucker, who was crownd Miss Sebring. Clergy Wives To Meet At Camp Wingmann

A new idea in Retreats will be introduced this weekend at Camp Wingmann. In answer to suggestions from different sources, a Clergy wives Retreat is scheduled, led by Dr. Charles Winters, of St. Luke's School of Theology at Sewannee, Tenn. Some fifty are expected.

Meanwhile, in the cabin section of Camp Holy Trinity, West Palm Beach, has a Youth Retreat planned, with some fifty more people. The Diocesan Youth Commission meets here this weekend as well.

Among the groups coming to Camp Wingmann in the next few weeks are: The Leadership Training Conference of the Episcopal Churchwomen of the Diocese of South Florida; the Avon Park Area Ministerial Association; The Girls' Friendly Society of the Deiocese Spring Rally; Board of Christian Education of the Presbyterian Church US; Annual Assembly of the Daughters of the king of the Diocese; the Annual Conference of the Episcopal Churchmen of the Diocese; the clerikus of the Lakeland Deanery of the Diocese; the Annual Conference of the Diocesan Altar Guild; the Avon Park Red Devil Band banquet; Family Camp for Redeemer, Lake Worth, ; Young people of All Angels, Miami Springs; and the Family Camp for Gloria Dei of Merritt Island. Outside of this, all is peace and quiet.

We will take a tour through this beautiful Church, center of the Diocese of South Florida, and then be guests of the Young Churchmen of the Cathedral. The present Dean is the grandson of the first Bishop of South Florida, Francis Campbell Gray.

DCT Club Holds Banquet

Diversified Cooperative Training (DCT) is a cooperative plan in which local business and industry provide on-the-job training for high school juniors and seniors in occupations of their choice.

The club sponsored a banquet Thursday, Apr. 20, held at the Lions Club House showing their appreciation to their employers and employers.

The DCT students of Avon Park High School have worked 13,435 hours from September to Apr. 1. They have learned job responsibilities and individual tasks. They have earned $16,965.37 which their employers paid. Without the splendid cooperation of their employer-trainers, DCT could not function. Employers are Food Fair, Highlands Hammock State Park, Highlands Poultry Farm, Kwik Chek, Dr. C. J. Larsen, Walker Memorial Hosppital and Wells Motor Co. All have students on the job with them.

After the dinner, Mr. Gant asked for Self Introduction of guests, welcoming them and presenting the awards. Bobby Rutner told of the Club Accomplishments. Mr. Gant then introduced the guest speakers, Maurice Miller, F.B.I. Agent and George Douglass, Highlands County Superintendent of Schools. Miss Linda Simmons, a student in training at Walker Memorial Hospital, gave the General Announcements and Adjournment.

Ambulance Service Terminated

We wish to thank the citizens of Avon Park for the support they've given us for the many years that we have been priviledged to serve them. We sincerely regret having to terminate ambulance service due to the high cost of operation effective April 30, 1967 at 12 Midnight E.D.T. With this termination we feel that we will now be able to provide a more proficient and reasonable funeral service in your hour of need.

CHRIST'S BREAD

"Give us this day our daily bread." St. Matthew 6:11.

Some scholars say that in asking for our daily bread we are actually expressing a desire for the Bread of Heaven, Jesus Christ Himself. This, of course, is the thought back of Matthew Arnold's poem:

"'Twas August, and the fierce sun overhead
Smote on the squalid streets of Bethnal Green
And the pale weaver, through his windows seen,
In Spitalfields, looked thrice dispirited.
I met a preacher there I knew and said:
'Ill and o'er worked, how fare you in this scene?'
'Bravely!' said he; 'for I of late have been Much cheered with thoughts of Christ the living bread.'"

In an old Irish manuscript this petition reads: "Give us today for bread the word of God from heaven." In this instance bread is identified with the spiritual food of the Word of God. The Word of God becomes food for man's mind and heart. The mind needs to be fed as well as the body.

It is interesting to note that many scholars insist that what we pray for in this petition is the kind of bread that feeds physical hunger. However, before we develop our thought on this basis, let us call especial attention to the fact that Jesus says "our" not "me," "my" or "mine."

We ordinarily think that we have bread as a providential gift from God. However, it doesn't fall into ones' lap as he prays; it comes through God's cooperation with men at work. It is the product of the labour of many. To make it seem more costly we might say that there is blood and sweat on it. Jesus handled bread with reverence and we believe that it was because of the toil that went into it as well as the sunshine and shower and the fertility of the soil.

One of the most beautiful stories in the New Testament is found in St. John 21. The incident recorded happened after the resurrection of Jesus. - a group of disciples were standing by the Sea of Tiberius. Simon Peter was among them and he said "I am going fishing." The others responded: "We will go with you." They fished all during the night and caught nothing. They were dejected in spirit and physically tired when they turned the prow of the boat toward the shore. As they approached the shore they saw a figure standing near a fire of coals on which fish were cooking. "Come and dine," said Jesus, for it was the Master. He "took the bread and gave it to them, and so with the fish." "All things were made by him, and without him was not anything made that was made," yet, here the Living, Loving Christ prepared food to satisfy the hunger of a handful of fishermen.

We read the resurrection story in St. Luke 24 that tells of the experience of the disciples, with whom Jesus walked to Emmaus. They recognized him at the evening meal when he "took bread and blessed, and broke it, and gave it to them." He was concerned with the physical hunger of people. "Give ye them to eat," he said to the disciples, as he looked in the faces of the hungry people who surrounded him. St. Mark 6:37.

If we pray in Christs' spirit, "Give us this day our daily bread," we must do so with the hungry people around us in mind. If we fail to respond to the need of those who hunger we shall be brought to judgment. St. Matthew 25:35.

The story is told by Zelia M. Walters about a man named Donley who had lost his job and had been reduced to begging. He approached a couple who were going into a restaurant and asked for the price of a meal. The man brushed him off by saying that the didn't have any change. He explained to his wife that the beggar wanted the price of a meal that he had said that the was hungry. She remonstrated with her husband saying that they couldn't go in and eat a meal they didn't need and leave a hungry man outside. She went back and spoke to the hungry man: "Here's a dollar. Buy yourself food. And don't lose courage. There's a job for you somewhere. . . . You'll be eating Christ's bread. Pass it on."

The hungry man found a cheap eating place. He paid fifty cents for stew. He planned to hold on to the money he had left for the morrow. As he ate he thought of what the woman had said. "Christ's bread." He seemed to hear the echo of an old hymn he had sung in Sunday School as a boy. When he had finished and was on the street again he met an old man who was hungry. He took him back to the eating place. After the old man had half finished his meal, he wrapped the rest of it in a paper napkin. When asked if he were saving it for the next day, he said: "No, there's a kid down my way. He has had tough luck and was crying when I left. I am aiming to give it to him."

"Christ's bread"" thought Donley.

The two of them took the food to the boy who ate greedily. He suddenly stopped eating, called a frightened lost dog to him and said: "Here you can have half of it." Donley reached over to pat the dog and noticed the tag on its collar. On it was address of a house uptown. He took the dog home. The owner came to the door. He was glad to see the dog and said, "I advertised in last nights' paper. Ten dollars reward." When Donley refused the money, the man was so impressed by his honesty that the asked him to come to his office the next morning saying "I need a man like you."

Happily the man who had been a beggar went off down the street with the words of the old hymn on his lips, "Break Thou the Bread of Life."

Postal Savings Interest Stops, Says Bob Young

United States Postal Savings Certificates totaling $3,679, which are on deposit at the Avon Park Post Office, will cease earning interest for 48 local depositors on Apr. 27, 1967, Postmaster R. D. Young said today.

Nationwide, the Post Office Department is holding more than $90 million in the now obsolete program which was discontinued by the Congress on Mar. 28, 1966.

As of Apr. 27, a year ago, Postal Savings were discontinued, and no deposits were accepted by the Post Office Department. Certificates whose anniversary dates have been reached since last Apr. 26 have earned their final interest payment, Postmaster Young said.

On June 30, he said, all remaining funds in the program will be turned over to the Treasury Department to be held in a trust fund until liquidated. There they will remain available for payment without time limitation when ever proper claims are received.

Postmaster Young urged that all Postal Savings depositors close out their accounts and invest their funds into United States Savings Bonds or the new Freedom Shares, which on May 1, will pay 4.74 percent interest.

Holders of Postal Savings certificates can arrange to redeem them simply by applying at the post office where the certificates were issued. The postmaster there, he said, will provide guidance and necessary forms to assist in cashing certificates.

John Walter King Passed Away Tuesday, April 25

John Walter King, age 75, passed away Tuesday morning, Apr. 25, after a long illness.

Born in Ohio, he had been a resident of Avon Park for six years, moving here from Detroit. He was retired from a Marble Works Co., and a member of the Catholic Church.

Rosary will be recited at the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home, Thursday evening.

Survivors include two brothers, Joseph Koelbl, Avon Park, and William Lenz, Miami. Two sisters; Mrs. Therisa Graff, Avon Park, and Mrs. George Schaefer, St. Petersburg.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church.

Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Charles Guerndt Succumbs

Charles Guerndt, 82, died after a short illness in Walker Memorial Hospital, Monday, Apr. 24.

He was a native of Hartford, Wisc., and came from there to Avon Park in 1926. He was a retired building constructor and a Methodist. He was a former tax assessor and was a staunch booster for school program athletics, in former years.

Survivors include his daughter, Mrs. Durrah Martin of Avon Park and a son, Harold F. Guerndt also of Avon Park, three sisters, five grandchildren and seven great-grand children.

Funeral services were held Wednesday Apr. 26, 3 P.M. at the Mizelle Funeral Home, with Rev. H. D. Graetz officiating, assisted by Rev. Aden Childress.

Interment in Bougainvillea Cenetery.

Pall bearers were Clare Stimpson, Wendell Smith, Leamon Kelly, Jack DeLaney, Bob Stevens and Harmon Atkins.

James Scott Died Wednesday

James W. (Jim) Scott, age 93, passed away Wednesday at his home in Frostproof. Mr. Scott came to this area some ten years ago from Iowa.

He was a retired farmer. He was a member of the Central Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Orlando. There are no immediate survivors.

Funeral services were held Sunday morning Apr. 23 at 10 A.M. at the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home in Avon Park, with Elder Robert H. Kerr officiating. He was laid to rest in Bougainvillea Cemetery.

First Federal Party Honor College Athletes

The athletes of South Florida Junior College were honored at a dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Handley on Dinner Lake.

Cheerleaders and the first 16 basketball and baseball players to earn athletics letters from South Florida were the guests of honor.

Faculty members, their wives, dates of the honored students brought the guest list to 40 for the Friday night dinner.

Swimming and water skiing were the entertainment before the dinner which was provided by First Federal Savings & Loan Association.

Formal presentation of the athletic letters was highlight of a special luncheon sponsored last week by Avon Park Kiwanis Club.

South Florida Junior College Athletic Director D. B. Terrell was principal speaker for the luncheon. He reported that of the 16 letter winners he expects to return to return for inter-scholastic play next season.

In its first season of play the Panther cage team ran up a 19 win-14 loss record.

The inexperienced baseball team won only one game but fought down to the wire with some of the top junior college nines in the state. In the final play of the season the district championship Manatee Junior College baseball team rallied late in the game (the nightcap of a doubleheader) to pull a 4 to 1 win out of the fire.

Coach Terrell reported that baseball scholarships have been offered to three Highlands County high school seniors. Sebring Blue Streak star pitcher Marty Gillilan, Avon Park Red Devil star hurler Emmett Money and Red Devil hurler and shortstop Hoppy Rewis are considering scholarships.

The Panther nine played the entire baseball season without a regular pitcher so the addition of any of these three would bolster baseball team at its weakest spot, Terrell said.

Get Vaccinations Now and Enjoy a Carefree Holiday

Dr. J. Dillard Workman of the Highlands County Health Department advised today that people planning foreign travel this summer contact their doctor now about required immunizations.

"Some vaccines must be given over a period of a month or more and travelers usually like to have these out of the way early," he said.

The U.S. Public Health Service recommends that all overseas travelers be immunized against poliomyelitis, diphtheria and tetanus whether these are required by the country being entered or not.

Those taking vacations here in the U.S. can benefit from seeing their doctors now about immunizations also. Many adults have not had polio immunizations or may need booster doses, and booster shots to protect against tetanus are recommended as often as once every five years for both children and adults.

In the News

TROUBLESHOOTING vice president Hubert Humphrey has escaped some of the obscurity often relegated to men of his office by appearing in the news in missions for the President. Recent assignments included a diplomatic fence-mending tour of NATO countries and presumably confidence talks with Latin American officials.

Turnover is important—one causes industry and school principals a lot of worry, and the other rolls the covers on to the floor.

Human nature is what makes that scratch on your new car seem far more of a catastrophe than an earthquake levelling a city, 10,000 miles away.

Our Men In Service

ARCHIE BOWEN

Pictured above is A2c Archie Bowen, USAF, who was wounded in Viet Nam Aug. 18, 1965 and died Aug. 30, 1965.

The SUN erroneously reported last week that Edward E. Cannon and Nathan E. Peacock, Jr., were the first two Avon Park residents killed in Vietnam action.

Bowen attended Avon Park high school and married Sara Futch Bowen of Avon Park.

Bowen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Bowen presently live in Wauchula.

Seaman Recruit Thomas L. Drake, USN, son of P. A. Drake of Avon Park, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

CPL. JOE WEEKS

Marine Corporal Joseph W. Weeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Weeks, 322 Tulane Circle, Avon Park, is in the Caribbean taking part in joint service amphibious training exercises named "Clove Hitch III," as a member of Marine Medium Helicopter Squadron 264.

His unit, a part of the Eighth Marine Expeditionary Brigade (MEB), comprises a segment of the more than 21,000 men of the Army, navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Puerto Rican National Guard who will be participating.

The two-week exercise began Apr. 15, and is designed to provide training in joint over-the-beach landing operations. In addition to exacting close cooperation between the services it will refine the capabilities of the Atlantic Command to respond quickly in any emergency.

Once ashore, the amphibious forces will be conducting counter-guerrilla operations, with the Marines in the role of "aggressors."

The Eighth MEB is a temporarily organized force of Marines from East Coast installations, with units already in the Caribbean.

REDEEMER YOUTH

A pilgrimage to the Cathedral of the Diocese of South Florida will be made by the young people of the Episcopal Parish of the Redeemer, Avon Park, this Sunday. The car will leave our Parish House at 6 P.M. and be back by 10 P.M.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ward Make Sixteen Day Tour of Europe

The Ted Wards returned home Thursday evening from an exciting and interesting sixteen days in Europe where they visited six Continental Countries and England. Transportation was by Jet planes, 12 in all. Touring the countryside in England, Netherlands, Denmark, West and East Germany, France and Switzerland was by scenic bus and electric trains.

Perhaps the greatest thrill was their visit to Mt. Pilatus, 7960 feet up in the famous Swiss Alps. One day was spent on a bus trip to Luzerne where the climb was resumed by transfer to four passenger teleferiques. This is an enclosed car which hangs from a cable while being pulled by another cable to high altitudes. The view of and from that snow capped Mountain was beyond vocabulary to describe. It was breath-taking on that clear day although there are many days when fog and clouds prevent and hide the 25 to 50 mile views. As they spent four nights in Zurich, they used another full day to travel by the famous Swiss electric trains, bus and two more teleferiques to a very lofty little town called Murren in the Jungfrau Region above the town of Interlachen towards Schilhorn. This is the launching base for weather balloons in that area, and quite a tourist attraction. The town has narrow paved streets but no cars or trucks can get to them. Swiss trains are always on time schedule and their people are as proud of that distinction as they are about their watches and clocks. Even Church steeple clocks are kept running on time regardless of their old age. It is a national tradition.

As soon as they arrived in London, the Wards took the all-day bus tour to Shakespeare country, visiting Stratford on Avon as anyone from Avon Park would do. There they seemed never to have heard of either Avon Park or the William Kings who named it. In fact their only interest seemed to be restricted to the time of Shakespeare. There are no real antiques around Europe less than a few hundred years old with a full history credited to each, and the antiquity of the Shakespeare era was no exception. The Warwick Castle was also visited on this tour. As in most of the old Castles, decendants are living in a small area of the Castle. Other areas have been restored to the original appearance and the rest just closed off. How such huge structures could have been used in the Medieval days is hard to comprehend. They were surely built to last a very long time. Of course, Paris is still a focal point of every American tourist. It is a very dangerous City, as dodging fast moving little cars, motor bikes and taxi-cabs takes much more practice than one can get in three days. So the newcomer preserves life by waiting well back on the curb until the "coast is clear" or until enough nerve is built up to take a chance as Parisian pedestrians do in crossing the streets. It is a thrilling experience and has led to building many subways for pedestrians to go under the streets. Tulips in Holland are a tradition but this Spring were late blooming in the farms and public parks. Plenty were seen however on a conducted bus tour from Amsterdam to Rotterdam and the Hague where thousands of acres were covered with glass greenhouses. At one of the many flower markets, rosebuds, glorious lilies, Fresia, Gerbora, tulips, etc. were being auctioned to wholesale buyers. The bidding room was much more modern than those used in our cattle markets as computer speed is necessary in handling so many lots of flowers. Each of the rooms used for receiving and dispatching the flowers were larger than a football playing field. Germany, twice our conquered enemy, proved to be rather frightening, beginning with the detour on the flight from Copenhagen to Berlin due to Russian control of East Germany. It was necessary to use the west approach through corridor into West Berlin which is certainly not a direct route. There was still much evidence of damage from bombing in Berlin but new construction has been extensive in East Berlin except along the border wall where bombed apartments were not rebuilt, probably because they don't want them lived in. The East Germans to live so close to the "Wall". It isn't difficult to be admitted through check point Charley but you must show your passport, fill out a long questionnaire, declare exact amount of money you carry and check maps and newspapers which you can't take inside. Of course the entire bus and all compartments were searched going in and coming out by courteous Russian guards. They showed their largest museum containing mostly sculpture from the old Roman Empire and Grecian mythology they had excavated and brought to East Berlin. Another stopping point was their modern Hotel where visitors could buy cold drinks, post cards and Russian books and magazines. Much of their literature was free and it looked quite attractive.

This was the first trip abroad for the Wards. They discovered what it is like to be the foreigners in a strange land. The language barrier caused them to feel rather "humble and uneducated" when many "humble and uneducated" servants of each country could speak English "a little", but enough for the foreigners to get by. They were surprised that in all large restaurants and stores you had only to ask for someone who spoke English to serve you. Failure to do this led to great and needless anxiety. Likewise, American money had to be changed at each airport when entering another country. Branch banks operated from early morning until about 10:00 P.M. Learning the value of coins and bills proved easy for Ted, and Thelma let him enjoy himself with her calculations also. He found no instance where anyone even tried to short change them although the first task ride in each country was the toughest test as the drivers seldom spoke even little English. The destination was always pointed clearly and handed to them.

Everywhere they found beautiful flowers called blumen by natives. Inside the climax to their trip was a visit to the churches of two of three greatest preachers who were leaders in the Reformation Period of 1636. The Grosse Muenster Church of Zurich, the church of Zwingli, and the St Peters Church of Geneva where Calvin preached.

Sixteen days passed all too fast but they were used so well that the memories of each country will continue to flow into conversation for months to come.

The trip was planned on quite short notice when their son Dr. Ted W. Ward of Michigan State University suggested that they go along with him as he had research business in nine cities in six countries. While in Geneva they chatted with Dr. Coleman's daughter, Nancy.

Would they go again? Yes, but not until they have toured other parts of the world like from Alaska to Australia! That is a trip they have planned from some time. Just now they are happy to be home and thankful for good times and good health abroad.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Floy Kerr who was dismissed from Walker Memorial Hospital, Apr. 14, is now recuperating at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Horner of 1434 S. Betty Lane, Clearwater.

She wishes to thank Dr. King and the nurses for their part in helping her improve, also the entire hospital staff for making her hospital stay so pleasant. She thanks her friends for their visits, flowers and cards.

She would be pleased to hear from her friends at the above address.

Baptist Revival Set April 30

The Fellowship Baptist Church, located in the temporary quarters of the 100 block of the Old Woodruff Heights on Pleasant St., will begin Revival Services Sunday night, April 30.

Rev. R. T. (Bob) Liner of the McGregor Baptist Church in Fort Myers will be the Evangelist. He has many friends in this area as he was the former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Avon Park. He has held pastorates in Tennessee, N. C. and Florida. He will bless your hearts with his sincere Gospel messages. You are cordially invited to attend these services beginning each night at 7:45 P.M.

If you are a Baptist living in the city without a home Church, you are especially invited to attend. If you have friends without any Church affiliation, we ask you to bring them to these services. We also encourage Christian people of this town to pray for the revival that Avon Park will become evangelized in these days and months ahead.

Come early and meet your friends. Good Gospel singing begins at 7:45 each evening.

This Is No Fish Story; 4 Plead Guilty in Case

Caught with 760 speckled perch in one car and 730 in another, four St. Petersburg Negroes pleaded guilty to possession of over the bag limit on fish and unlawful transportation of fish before Judge Mervin Rehrer.

Thelma Hawkins, Samuel Johnson and Charles Nibbs paid fines totaling $270 on these charges and Johnson an additional $80 for resisting arrest. James Wilson failed to come up with his fine and started serving 15 days in jail.

Officers said there has been a considerable amount of trapping of fish in the lake and then selling them commercially.

Nobody's got a family plan like Chevrolet.

And in the spirit of all family plans, you get more for your money.

Plan I—Impala Sport Sedan (foreground)—First off, Chevrolet is the roomiest car in America (source: Automotive News 12/26/66). Second, it's got exclusives like acrylic lacquer finish and Body by Fisher. Third, you get Chevrolet's traditional high resale value. Three reasons why Chevrolet is selected by more families than any other car.
Plan II—Camaro Sport Coupe (rear left)—The widest, lowest, heaviest adventure car at its price. Comes with bucket seats, carpeting, a fully synchronized 3-speed transmission, and a big Six competition can't match.
Plan III—Chevy II Nova Sport Coupe (rear right)—Nobody's been able to copy the six-cylinder efficiency or protective features like flush-and-dry rocker panels you get in our stylish economy car.
Plans IV, V and VI—Chevelle, Corvair, Corvette (not pictured)—You can see them all at your Chevrolet dealer's. Stop in soon. Bring the family.

Chevrolet's outstanding worth is another reason you get that sure feeling

Shuffling

Fifty-two folks participated in the tournamament on Wednesday evening, and thirty-four on Saturday evening. Time on Wednesday will be 6 P.M. while on Saturday it will be 6:30 P.M. to accomodate the supper group.

Winners in the main event on Wednesday were Doc and Kate McAlexander over Caroline Webber and Charles Bromilly. Consolation winners were Charles and Gertrude Fensterman over Mildred Long and Grace Warner. On Saturday the winners were Elizabeth Clarke and Doc McAlexander against Chris Cabezas and Herb Shauger. In consolation the winners were Kate McAlexander and Mildred Long over Charles Fensterman and George Ormiston.

Card Games

With five tables playing Pinochle on Monday, the high score went to C. Lawrence with a score of 745. Jim Brown came in second with 666.

Dances

Dances are still very well attended with four and five squares on the floor. Many more are there, who like to round dance. The Frank Thierolfs had as their guest their daughter, Mrs. Virginia Hayes of Edgewood, Rhode Island. For the several couples going home this week, the group sang Auld Lang Syne.

Supper

A good group of twenty-one had their suppertogether on Saturday evening. Arlene Lane brought a treat for all, strawberry shortcake. After the supper, several stayed to play cards or shuffle.

Via the grapevine

Welcome Miller had a rough trip home, and is now in the hospital in Bourbon, Ind. Floyd Stevens became ill after his return home to Allegan, Mich. Several from the north have written that they are having quite a bit of rain. Well we here in Florida need the rain. This reporter's mailing address is P.O. Box 1265. Folks would like to know what you are doing up north this summer.

Ridge Fuel Co. Represented At Convention

At the recent annual convention of the Southe... LP-Gas Association, held ... the Marriott Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia, leading propane dealers throughout the South enjoyed an evening's entertainment, hosted by Union Texas Petroleum, Houston, Texas, a division of Allied Chemical Corporation and a major producer and supplier of liquefied petroleum gas.

Included in the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welch, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Welch, Ridge Fuel Company, Avon Park.

Grange No. 203 Install New Officers

The secretary, Allen Howard lighted the Centennial Candle on the alter, in honor of Grange Youth, April being Youth Month. The Juvenile Grange is America's first and finest Youth Movement since 1888. It is a training school for boys and girls, where they learn concern for others and respect for God and Country. It developes responsibility, self-confidence and leadership. A search into the records shows no member of the Juvenile Grange ever became a juvenile delinquent.

Mrs. S. F. Elkhill said the Avon Park Post Office has received 5,000 of the new Grange Commemorative 5 cent stamps.

Mrs. B. Parker of Wauchula announced the judging of the State Grange sewing contest entries for Highlands, Hardee and Avon Park Grange will be held at her home May 4, at 1 P.M.

Avon Park Grange will hold the next meeting at the Youth Center May 4, at 8 P.M. Immediately following the meeting there will be "house warming" party at the new home of Fullmers at 404 Oak St., Avon Park.

AP Extention Homemakers

The regular monthly meeting of the Extention Homemakers Club of Avon Park was held on Tuesday Apr. 18 at the Southernaire Motel Barbecue Room and Patio, in the form of a picnic.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Thorp, devotionals by Mrs. Bridges.

More specific plans were made for "Camp" and applications for attendance were given out by Mrs. Imogene Rittenburgh, to be filled out and returned to the County Extention Office by Apr. 26, if member plans to attend.

A "Citrus Tour" of the Donald Duck Plant at Lake Wales is being planned for Apr. 27, by the combined Avon Park and Sebring Clubs, any member wishing to go may contact Mrs. Heritage or Mrs. Thorp.

Mrs. Thorp gave a very interesting report on a meeting she attended in Bartow on the "Forward Look in Clothes," new Spring and Fall colors and styles.

The meeting was adjourned and a "Silent Auction" was held which netted $23 to be applied toward the budget of the County Council.

Then for the food.

All members of the club were present, except Mrs. Ruth Watkins, who is a patient at Walker Memorial Hospital with a broken hip. Many of the husbands attended for the picnic lunch as well as out of town guests.

Wilbur Watkins volunteered to cook and serve the hamburgers while Mrs. Josie Heritage and Mrs. Mildred Thorp, who were hostesses for the day, prepared and served the rest of the delicious lunch.

The Extention Homemakers wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Taylor for their generous hospitality and their thanks go to Mr. Watkins for his services as "Chef."

W. Rutherford AP Resident Passed Away

Mr. Walter E. Rutherford, age 70, passed away early Tuesday morning, April 25, at Walker Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

A native of Florida, he had lived in Avon Park for the past 47 years, moving here from Arcadia.

He retired from Florida Power Corp. with 26 years of service as a Master Mechanic. He was a member of the Poinciana Masonic Lodge 227 and the BPOE 1529.

He and his wife are fondly known as "Uncle Walter and Aunt Fannie" by their many friends. They celebrated their Golden Wedding last Feb. 11, at the Florida Power Club and were hosted by a large group of friends and relatives.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Fannie M. Rutherford, one brother, J. Arthur Rutherford, Wildwood; three sisters, Mrs. Mabel Lester, Miami; Mrs. Annie Knight, Homestead; Mrs. Nonie Tucker, Mount Dora.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Chapel of Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home, with Rev. M. J. McCullough and Rev. H. D. Graetz officiating.

Interment will be in Bougainvillea Cemetery with Masonic services at the graveside.

Avon Mobile Home Park

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kirback were visited by his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Kirback who are wintering at Boynton Beach, Florida. While here they visited Busch Gardens and Cape Kennedy as well as St. Petersburg and Tampa for shopping. They are from Fort Wayne, Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. McBeth had as their guests this past week, her sisters, Edith and Murchie Castanien of Upper Sandusky, Ohio and Her brother with his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Castanien of East Sparta, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Converse made a trip to Long Boat Key last week to visit friends. Mr. and Mrs. Claire Metcalfe of Mentor, Oho. Mr. and Mrs. Metcalfe returned the visit on last Sunday, to attend church with the Converses and spend the rest of the day with them and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, who are also friends of theirs. It is always good to see folks from back home.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Wiedeman arrived home safely after a pleasant trip. Gladie said that Mr. Welcome Miller is improving nicely — may he continue to do so.

Mr. Floyd Stevens has been ill since he has arrived home in Allegan, Michigan. We wish him a quick recovery.

The Shufflers have been getting a workout on the courts about three times or more a week, in the cool of the evenings and morning, but soon only a couple of courts will be playing, as more of our folks leave for home, including: Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBeth, Mr. and Mrs. Scott McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Linville Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Dager and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wagner, Mr. Herman Young, Mrs. Shearer (who was called home early due to her daughter's illness) and Mr. and Mrs. John Hieser, if the weather is right. The Jesse Yates left early. Mr. and Mrs. Len Messersmith who winter in Clearwater were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longanecker on Monday. The Longaneckers spent last Friday in Stuart, Fla. visiting the Elmer Pond's who live in South Bend, Indiana during the summer months.

Church Bulletin

Sabbath services at the Walker Memorial Seventh-Day-Adventist church for April 29 will be as follows:
9:30 A.M.——Sabath School
10:55 A.M.—Church Service
6:15 P.M.——Vesper hour.

Elder Kerr states they will be favored by a guest speaker this week, Elder Norman Middag, Youth director for the Florida Conference of Seventh-Day-Adventist's.

Number of Marrieds In County Is 5% Above National Average

(Special to the News)

NEW YORK, Apr. 17—In Highlands County, the institution of marriage has been growing in popularity over the years. That is what the latest figures show.

As a result, a greater proportion of the local population is married today than was the case a generation or two ago. This is true despite the rise in the divorce rate.

The trend disproves the widely-held belief that this is an age in which the divorce rate is increasing much faster than the marital rate.

In Highlands County, according to the latest government figures, no less than 72.5 percent of the local population, above age 14, are married.

Some 71.0 percent of the men in that age group and 71.0 percent of the women are listed as married.

The ratio compares favorably with the average elsewhere in the United States, where the married portion of the population amounts to 67.5 percent of the total. In the State of Florida, it is 70.1 percent.

As elsewhere in the country, Highlands County's divorce rate is higher than it once was. With a total of 142 men and 183 women who are divorced, according to the statistics, approximately 2.1 percent of the local area's adult population are divorced.

This compares with an average of 2.2 percent in the South Atlantic States and 3.2 percent in Florida.

FIX-IT TIP
• If you have a long and narrow room and wish it looked more square, paint one end, or two opposite ends, in a deeper color than the other walls. Deep colors when used in contrast to light colors have the ability to make the end walls seem to come toward the center of the room.
• If a pinhole develops in your tent while on a camping trip, cut a piece from the end of a waterproof plastic finger bandage and stick it over the hole. This patch will last until a permanent one is made.

In the News

TROUBLESHOOTING vice president Hubert Humphrey has escaped some of the obscurity often relegated to men of his office by appearing in the news in missions for the President. Recent assignments included a diplomatic fence-mending tour of NATO countries and presummit conference talks with Latin American officials.

First Porters

Women were the first porters. Later use of animals for transportation, such as the dog, ox, horse, camel and elephant, marked a great advance. • • •

Horsing around is responsible for many a "woe."

FIX-IT TIP

One cause of wet basements is that surface water seeps down around the basement walls. When the space between a foundation wall and the earth is filled in, it sometimes happens that a loose fill is dumped in. This allows surface water to get down along the wall and find an entrance. One way to correct this is to place additional fill (dirt) against the basement walls and then grade it down, planting away from the house so water will run off and away from the foundation.

Never at a loss for conservation is the gal who has just had an operation, or a guy who has new tri-focals.

Charter Received For Golf Association

Lou Hooper, president of Avon Park Chamber of Commerce announced today that the charter for the Avon Park Golf Association has been received from Secretary of State Tom Adams and as soon as 100 charter members can be secured the Municipal Golf Course of Avon Park at Pinecrest will become a reality.

Hooper urged all interested persons to get their applications in as soon as possible to Bill Reck at the Avon Citrus Bank.

"All monies will be held in escrow until details are worked out and we get possession of the golf course, said Hooper.

"Thanks again for your fine cooperation in this venture."

Avon Park Golf Association, Inc. NP 12,629 % Aaron W. Stevens, 61 East Wolfe, Avon Park, Florida 33825 (Highlands County). Filed April 20, 1967 by Mr. W. R. Reck, Post Office Box 1067, Avon Park, Florida. Purpose: To promote and encourage Golfing and other kindred sports and social activities for the people of Avon Park area. Subscribers: Walter S. Betts, 205 E. LaGrande; Robert R. King, Jr. Lake Lotela; Willam R. Reck, Golfview Drive, Lake Lotela; all of Avon Park, Florida.

Board Acts To Halt Crippling Of SFJC

In a bid to halt crippling budget cuts for South Florida Junior College, Highlands County commissioners Tuesday adopted a resolution asking that legislators from this district introduce legislation exempting new junior colleges from formulas which Governor Claude Kirk has recommended for reducing junior college appropriations

In an appeal to the Highlands County commission Tuesday, Dr. William Stallard, president of South Florida Junior College, said the Governor's recommendations would cut 25 percent from the budget of the one-year-old school.

"This amounts to a $50,000 cut out of a budget of $225,000. We cannot absorb this kind of shock." Dr. Stallard said. "We have two alternatives: close or come back to the local taxpayer, already overburdened by ad valorem taxes, to make up the difference.

"Let me make it abundantly clear that I am referring to South Florida Junior College. I do not know the situation in any other school well enough to guess what they may be facing. Perhaps larger schools can withstand some cuts.

"It is not in the interest of quality education to increase class size greatly, but maybe a large school can do this. If South Florida Junior College has to cut off one instructor, we have eliminated the only person teaching in that field," Dr. Stallard explained.

At present the state allots 19 teaching units to SFJC. To accommodate a projected enrollment of 800 next year, Dr. Stallard has requested approximately 25 units. The teaching units in Florida are based on two and pupil services personnel as well as classroom instructors.

Superintendent of Schools George Doughton said, "We entered into the junior college program in good faith, and we cannot believe that this will be left to ravage on its communities."

Commissioner Earl Crutchfield angrily suggested that this county should ask special legislation to protect the new junior college.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper agreeing with him suggested that Crutchfield's idea be placed in a formal resolution and forwarded immediately to the legislators from this district, to the State Department of Education and the Governor.

In this first year of operation virtually all the students at SFJC were freshmen. The drop-out rate has been unusually low and school administrators had estimated that more than two-thirds of the freshmen would return for the sophomore year. The additional 70 to 400 freshmen was expected to send enrollment to a minimum of 500.

Dr. Stallard had told the school board in January that in view of the need to add classes for second year students, he was confident that the state would "deal with us fairly" and appropriate additional funds for the 1967-68 year.

If the present level of support is continued, SFJC must "severely limit enrollment next year," Superintendent Douglass said Tuesday.

The Sebring Chamber of Commerce board of directors has unanimously approved a motion that letters be sent to Representatives Kent S. McKinley, J. K. Tillman, Granville H. Crabtree, Senator Wilbur Boyd, Governor Claude Kirk and State superintendent of Public Instruction Floyd T. Christian.

The letters are "stating the impact of this proposed budget cut-back; requesting an investigation and advice in order to avoid consequences."

Road Improvements

At the request of Crutchfield immediate action on two popular Sebring street projects was approved.

Work on the resurfacing of Highlands Avenue from Commerce to Cemetary Road was okayed. As soon as this work is done, widening and resurfacing of Cemetary Road, from Edgewood to the dump, is to be undertaken.

The commissioners agreed to write to property owners who have junk yards along Cemetery Road requesting them to install wooden, shiplap fences facing the road.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business Tuesday the commissioners agreed to accept right-of-way for a road in the Martha Pearce subdivision to join 9-Mile Grade. The road was requested by E. C. and Mrs. Mary B. Lowry who were told by the commissioners that actual construction of the road may be some time in the future.

At the request of County Home Demonstration Agent Mrs. Imogene Rittenberg, the week of May 21-27 was officially proclaimed Extension Home Economics Week.

An old road from old Venus Station to the county line was added to the county road policy list.

A travel allowance of $60 per month was approved for the county purchasing agent.

Dr. H. W. Coleman To Head Cancer Crusade In Avon Park

H. W. Coleman, M. D., a prominent Avon Park physician, has been named Chairman of the 1967 Cancer Crusade in Avon Park by Mrs. Marvin Kahn, president of the Highlands County unit of the American Cancer Society.

The Society's annual educational and fund-raising drive will begin May 8 in Avon Park, when the Avon Park Fire Department, under the leadership of H. M. Flowers, will begin the Independent Business Crusade.

Dr. Coleman listed the following community leaders who will serve as chairmen of various Crusade committees: Mrs. Roscoe Bass, special gifts chairman; Mrs. Donald Ford, residential chairman, and Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, residential co-chairman.

"With this team," Dr. Coleman said, "I am confident that we can look ahead to a very successful 1967 Crusade. All members are aware of the urgency of the problem and that more must be done now to meet the critical problem of cancer."

"The urgency of the fight can be stated simply: Statistically, it is estimated that one out of every four persons in Highlands County will be found with cancer personally if the present rates continue. One out of three of these stricken will die of the disease. Over 150,000 persons in the United States will die in 1967 from cancer unless we can reverse present trends and bring these patients to physicians in time for earlier diagnosis and treatment."

In the period January-December, 1966, there were 318 deaths reported in Highlands

County. These deaths were caused from all types of disease, by accidents and miscellaneous causes.

Of this total number of deaths, cancer was the cause of more than 14 per cent of them—taking the lives of 45 citizens of Highlands County.

This special report was made by the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society, Inc. It was compiled from vital statistics reports of the Florida State Board of Health.

State-wide during 1966, an estimated 16,857 Floridians died of cancer. In the six-year period 1961-66, cancer took the lives of 97,854 citizens of the state—an equivalent to the populations of such Florida cities as Tallahassee and Gainesville.

A spokesman for the American Cancer Society, commenting on the release of the information, has this to say:

"We do not cite these number statistics to frighten people, Rather," he explained, "we are placing the facts and figures squarely before the general public so that everyone will be more aware of the serious threat of cancer. It is our purpose to do everything possible to motivate people to learn and to recognize Cancer's Seven Warning Signals and to realize the importance of early detection and prompt, proper treatment of the disease—to help save more lives."

Red Devils Track Team To Compete In District Meet Friday

The Avon Park Red Devil track team will compete in the district track meet in Fort Meade Friday night with the finals taking place at 7 o'clock.

Winners of the first three places in each of the 15 events will be eligible to compete in the state meet to be held in Gainesville next Friday, May 12.

Red Devils expected to qualify for state competition are Harold Calloway in the 100-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the 440-yard run if he recovers from a muscle injury: Kenny Dixon in the 880-yard run; Bobby Barben in the 440-yard run; Earl Cothran in the mile run; and the mile relay team of Barben, Earl Sims, Dixon, and Robert Walton.

Kenny Dixon has run the half mile (880-yard run) in 2:01.2 this year to set the best Class B time in that event so far. The Red Devil mile relay team has set a 3:35.0 time for third best in the state to date.

Coach Fred Sandlin will attempt to qualify the most boys possible in the meet in Fort Meade Friday in order to take as many team members to Gainesville as he can in hopes of getting a crack at the state track Class B title.

Fans are urged to attend the group meet and see these area track stars in action.

Contract For Four Laning Of 27 Nearer

By lopping three miles from its request, Highlands County board of commissioners hopes to obtain four-laning of US 27 from Avon Park almost to Lake Placid within a year.

In a resolution approved Tuesday, the commissioners reserved the offer of $1 million to assist in costs of four-laning Southward from US 98, but in the new resolution the southern end of the project is listed as Lake Henry Drive rather than State Road 70.

In a hearing with the State Road Department in Bartow on Monday, the Highlands commissioners were told that the road from Lake Henry Drive south will encounter some special engineering problems and including it in the next contract will delay the whole project.

With the southern three miles excluded, the project will be ready for a contract to be let "within four or five months." The state road men added that a contract for four-lanning from Fairmont Drive north to Avon Park will be

Durrah Martin Retires From Florida Power

Durrah Martin retired from Florida Power Corporation after completing 32 years of employment. Mr. Martin was employed on the line department in 1935, and later became serviceman in Avon Park. He held this job until his injury in 1963, after which time he was associated with the Engineering Department for Florida Power.

The Florida Power Corporation and employees honored Mr. Martin with a Covered Dish Supper, Tuesday night, May 2, 1967 at the Florida Power Employees Club house in Avon Park.

Company employees, fellow workers of Mr. Martin from out of town also attended the outing. John Gleason, Division Manager from Lake Wales, Tommy Ricketts, Division Engineer, and Sam Gray also from Lake Wales were on hand to wish him many years of retirement and to thank him for his services he has performed over the years. Mr. Gleason on behalf of W. J. Clapp, Florida Power Corp., President, read a letter thanking him for a job well done. Mr. Martin at this time was presented with a plaque for his services.

The Ridge Division employees also had Roy Kirby to present Mr. Martin with a gift to help him in his world during the years of retirement.

Scholarship Recognition Banquet To Be Held This Saturday Night

Invitations were sent to 44 Highlands County seniors this week, all of whom will be guests of honor at the fifth annual banquet of Scholarship Recognition, Inc. on May 6. The banquet will be held in the Sebring Hotel.

Students invited have been tabbed a "B" or better average during their four years in high school. The honorees are from Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring High Schools.

The banquet will be hosted by the membership of Scholarship Recognition, Inc., numbering about one hundred, all either civic or business leaders of Highlands County.

Aden D. Childress, Avon Park, is this year's chairman of the organization. He said that Floyd T. Christian, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, had been secured as guest speaker for the occasion.

A long time resident of Florida, Floyd Christian is a graduate of the local schools of St. Petersburg and of the University of Florida, where he received his bachelor's and master's degrees. His early experience in teaching was at Clearwater and Ft. Myers High Schools, serving as teacher, coach, and athletic director until World War II, when he went into service in 1941 as a First Lieutenant.

As Battalion Commander of a Field Artillery unit, he served in five major battles in Southern Italy, earned five decorations, and was discharged in 1946 as a full Colonel. He received the Legion of Merit, French Croix de Guerre, the Bronze Star, the Silver Star, and the Italian Medal of Honor.

After returning from service, he was elected County Superintendent of Schools in Pinellas County in 1946 and was re-elected in 1954 and 1958, when he was one of only three Democratic candidates to be elected in the county. In 1957, when the position was made appointive, he was appointed by an all-Republican school board and was given a sizeable increase in salary. He was reappointed by the School Board in 1959 and '63. During his service there, many new educational programs were initiated in Pinellas County, and it is considered to be one of the best school systems in the State of Florida because of his leadership in these innovations.

In 1965 he was appointed by the Governor to serve as a member of the Board of Regents, and in October, 1965, the Governor appointed him to fill the unexpired term of the Honorable Thomas D. Bailey, Stone Mountain, who resigned. Superintendent Christian obviously had the respect of his colleagues in the profession because he was the only appointed member of the Cabinet to run for office in 1966 without any opposition.

He has received many honors, in both civic and professional life, including the St. Petersburg Junior Chamber of Commerce Good Government Award, the American Legion Outstanding Service Award, the American Legion Citation for Meritorious Service, the Florida Athletic Coaches Association Award for Meritorious Service, the City of St. Petersburg Award for Outstanding Service, and designation as Boss of the Year by the American Business Women's Association. He has served as President of the Florida Education Association and also of the FEA Department of County Superintendents.

Commenting on the banquet, Mr. Childress said that the last four year's banquets have been huge successes and he expects this year's to be equally so. We sincerely want to honor and recognize the students who possess good scholastic excellence in scholarship, which is the most basic of school activities.

The purpose of Scholarship Recognition, Inc. is as follows:

"It is our fondest wish and sincerest desire that the small way in which we have chosen to recognize your scholastic excellence during your high school career will find a warm place in your heart and be a constant source of comfort as you continue to grow in knowledge, faith, stature and love."

Those students attending from Avon Park are:

From Lake Placid High School: Michael Ridge, Robert J. Yates, Lotis Sue Rohrer, Rosemary Pickett, Diane Frelich, Lenice LaGrow, Joan Molesworth, Sharon Griffin.

E. Ray Wells Attends School Convention

Ray Wells, vice-chairman of the Highlands County School Board, was among the 9,000 school board members, school administrators, and other participants in the 27th annual convention of the National School Boards Association in Portland, Oregon.

The 1967 convention theme—school boards: a creative force—spotlighted the role of local boards in the national education scene. There are over 100,000 local school board members serving on the nation's 21,000 boards of education.

Speakers included Congresswoman Edith Green, chairman of a special house subcommittee on education; Senator Wayne L. Morse, chairman of the Senate Subcommittee on education; and Dr. Fred Mitchell, assistant secretary to Health, Education and Welfare.

A NEW TANDEM transport is the newest bit of requipment for Forest Service Rangers in Highlands County. Standing beside the transport which has the job of carrying around the service's fire tractor are right, county ranger Ray Williams, and left, Lewis Taylor. Taylor is the ranger who was burned when burning much cured in under him last week.

Law Day Every Day

By act of Congress and by presidential proclamation, May 1 is Law Day in the United States.

By tradition, by inheritance, by constitutional guarantee, every day is Law Day in the United States.

For law and the American way of life are almost synonymous. The United States of America came into being as "a government of laws and not of men," and it will live or die as it adheres to or departs from the legal concept.

Today, Americans in many places and many ways will rededicate themselves to the principles of law. It is fitting, and vitally important, that they do so if our way of life is to be preserved.

Superficially, and quite correctly, law may be regarded as restraint on human conduct. But it is far more than that.

The rule of law is restraint on the ultimate political power of the state, and recognition of the intrinsic worth and freedom of the individual in society.

The essence of freedom-giving law is limitation.

But even the best of laws are no better, and no more effective, than their acceptance by the people they are designed to govern—and to serve.

Respect for the law is the key to preserving our American heritage of freedom and human dignity—a heritage that has endowed us with more blessings than any other system of government in world history.

Flouting the law, even in small ways, can lead to moral decay. If we would preserve those freedoms, we must preser e our pride in being a law-abiding people, and we must install a respect for law in our children—by example.

The laws of man, being the product of man, are imperfect. But, together with the laws of God, they constitute our hope for a free society.

Move The Capital?

Legislative advocates of moving Florida's capital from Tallahassee to a more central location —such as Orlando—doesn't appear to have much hope of success in the 1967 session, but the big push could pay off at some time in the future.

Defense strategy of the North Floridians, led by Sen. Mallory Horne of Tallahassee, is to push for immediate construction of a $10 million legislative building next to the present capitol and to increase the state investment in Tallahassee wherever and whenever possible.

Miami and Orlando legislators have countered by urging delay on new construction pending a feasibility study of moving the capital to Orlando.

Printed brochures have been put into the mail calling attention to the fact that 17 other states of the union have moved their capitals to more central locations when their population center shifted.

"Why didn't Florida's capital follow our population shift?" they ask.

And they answer: "Because 'Pork Chop' control of the legislature froze it at the old location. Now the people are in control again!"

Not too surprising, perhaps, is the reported lack of citizen interest in Orlando, although the city itself has offered free land for a capitol complex. But the Orange County metropolis already has a Naval training base, soon will have Disneyworld, and doesn't really need the seat of state government for economic health.

Except for Northwest Florida, most areas of the state are even more indifferent. Since the jet has replaced the horse and buggy, transportation to and from the capital is not a critical problem.

Still, there would be certain savings and conveniences with a centralized state capital, so the idea cannot be summarily brushed off. Not with a legislature elected on a population basis.

PRESS BULLS GET WORSER AND WORSER

The Nashville, Tenn., lumberman wants to know. "A lot of critics of our churches say they are dominated by a lot of 'old hens.' Don't they mean the lay brethren?"

From what I read about the UFO's they seem to be the real thing. I guess they are wanting to be friendly chaps. From the way they can flit and scoot around, making monkeys out of our childish means of getting around in space, if they were hostile, we wouldn't have a chance in a war with them. If I see one, I'm not going to shoot at it!

PRESS BLUNDERS

The Brownsville, Texas, pulled this one on a Democrat quite likely: "The first event today was the administration of the oats of office to County Judge Milton Richardson." The Donkey missed a meal, evidently.

New York Journal-American relates wonders in Texas: "He came to Sherman, Texas, when a boy and had liver at Mineral Wells for fourteen years," he didn't need Geritol after that, I'll betcha!

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Consequences of Evil Deeds Sure

An internationally famous labor leader, a congressman from Harlem, and a senator from Connecticut might all find a certain verse of Scripture instructive—though it is perhaps a little late for it to be of much benefit to them.

The three men, dissimilar in many ways, are alike in that they have all recently learned that punishment for misdeeds is certain, though it be long delayed.

Did Not Escape

The labor leader, who seemed for many years to be beyond the reach of the law, is now behind bars.

The congressman, who openly advocated "salacious power," does not appear to be so audacious, as he sits powerless at the End of the World bar, not even daring to go to the church of which he is surprisingly still the pastor.

The senator seems a rather pitiable figure, his financial manipulations having been laid bare to the gaze of the world.

Warning

"Be sure your sin will find you out," the Bible warns. The warning should be heeded by those who are continuing to do those things which they know to be wrong, in the hope that they can "get away with it."

There are those who consider God's commands to be of no importance and there are those who sneer at the moral code calling it old-fashioned. They boast of their "enlightened" viewpoint and encourage others to follow in their steps.

Years ago, a brilliant young English poet, Lord Byron, was noted for his practice of flouting the accepted moral code, gratifying every desire of the flesh without regard for the opinions of others and in defiance of the standards set forth in the Bible.

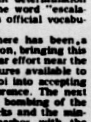

While still a young man, Byron wrote bitterly, "My days are in the yellow leaf. The flowers and fruits of life are gone. The worm, the canker, and the grief are mine alone."

Too Late

He had learned, too late, that the consequences of sin are inescapable. There is no way out except to turn to God in genuine repentance. Only as we forsake the wickedness of our ways can we have hope of receiving the gift of God—eternal life—instead of the wages of sin.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

General's Visit Sign of War Escalation?

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Certainly Gen. William Westmoreland in a series of public appearances in the United States in the past few days—including his address Friday before a joint meeting of The Congress—was an exponent of Administration policy in the Vietnamese war. It would be unthinkable that the President and Commander-in-Chief would call a war theater commander off the battlefield to publicly criticize the official policies for the conduct of the war.

But the South Carolina-born Westmoreland, who has commanded our forces in Vietnam for three years, helped his own cause as well as the cause of the Administration by his blunt and grim report on the "war of attrition" his men are fighting, the war in which there is no end in sight, and in which the objective now has become to grind the enemy down.

While the ruggedly handsome and youthful general (he was the youngest man in Army history to win general officer rank) did not take issue directly with any of the policies of the Commander-in-Chief, he did manage to make it plain that while the road to ultimate victory iin Vietnam still is years-long, there are additional operations he could conduct if given more troops. Behind the scenes he long has pleaded for assignment to the war—a period in which it will have to be decided whether the air war over North Vietnam can be increased in tempo without the grave risk of setting off World War III and whether the war on the ground in South Vietnam can be won without the commitment of significantly more men than planned.

It comes, in fact, when there already are indications in what is happening in Vietnam that Administration policy in conduct of the war actually is undergoing significant change. Less than a month ago Secretary McNamara had withholding of attacks on MIG airfields in North Vietnam was a matter of policy aimed at avoiding enlarging the war. Four months ago the President imposed a ban on further bombings near the center of Hanoi.

Now the MIG arifields have been attacked, the ban on Hanoi bombings has been altered, and a similar ban applied to a 10-mile radius from the center of Haiphong suddenly vanished a few days ago. We thus have, in fact, a distinctly widened war—"widened" being a word used in deference to the Administration's apparent determination to expunge the word "escalation" from its official vocabulary.

Actually, there has been a major escalation, bringing this nation's air war effort near the limit of measures available to pressure Hanoi into accepting a peace conference. The next step could be bombing of the Haiphong docks and the mining of the harbor with the lively possibility of a confrontation with Russian over the threat to Soviet ships.

Westmoreland's visit home, as a proponent of heavier pressures, may well be a sign that further escalation actually is what the Administration now reluctantly considers necessary if this distressing war is ever to end. Like every other step taken to protect South Vhonam's integrity, increased risk will be involved; but it further escalation does occur, it is safe to assume that the nation's leaders have decided the increased risks were worth taking.

Bad News – Prices Will Rise

Babson Park, Mass., May 4 You'll be paying 2.5 per cent more for consumer goods and services by the end of this year than you were at the beginning. That's what the government economists predict, and it looks as though they may be right on the button. Or very, very close to it. Here are some of the reasons the forecast seems to be logical, even if a trifle discouraging to the householder.

Recent Living-Cost Slowdowns Temporary

Since last fall consumer prices have been comparatively stable, enough so to make the Pollyannas hope that the buying power of their pocketbooks might grow stronger. But most of the slowdown has been due to lower prices in certain foods—such as eggs, fruits, vegetables, and pork. This has tended to offset to a fair degree the basic increase in most other prime goods and services. But the cost of beef, milk, cheese, etc., is on the way up, and it won't be long before other foods follow.

Then the climb in over all living costs will be resumed. It won't be a mad inflationary runaway, but the advances will be persistent and will involve just about every item in the consumer price index. The value of your dollar is going to be nicked away during the rest of 1967, and probably well beyond that. Some "mods" among the Administration will console you with the claim that this gradual price inflation will help to keep business strong. But you will feel it in the pocketbook, that they can't deny.

Items Heading Upward

Along with foods, there will be upward pressure on the price of apparel, shoes, gasoline, many household goods, and entertainment. It will become steadily more expensive to eat out, even at restaurants that have thus far sustained the "bargain" image. It is going to cost more for housing, whether you rent or buy. The promise of some softening mortgage interest rates will not be able to balance out the continuing hike in building costs, insurance rates, and property taxes.

While medical expenses are not a regular family outlay, they are bound to show up when least expected and must be considered as a part of every budget. Over the past twelve months medical costs have skyrocketed over 8 percent, and this may well be only a beginning. Doctors will keep raising their pay sights, while nurses are organizing to ensure steady gains as well as shorter hours. Naturally, all this is going to be passed along to the patients needing hospital treatment.

Appliances, Autos, Down Then Up

Cutbacks in residential building have slowed sales of color TV and other household appliances, with resultant weakening of prices. It should be noted, however, that housing starts are once again on the rise, and gentler mortgage interest rates are making for more optimism. As this trend intensifies, prices of appliances will be nudged upward again in an effort to lessen the profits squeeze that has tormented many companies.

Lagging turnover in autos has also placed downward pressure on prices for both used and new models. Dealers are frantic to reduce their inventories, even if it means a sharp loss on the time being. Until fall this price sag will prevail, but then will come the 1968 models that will be approximately $100 more expensive than those of 1967. Hence, autos will add their strength to the general climb in costs of all retail goods and services.

Raises Will Push Prices Up

So far, many concerns have been covering their increases in labor costs from their earlier healthy profits. But outlays for labor are still soaring toward new highs, and many major industries will have to give wage boosts this year and next. The result will be more and more "passing of the buck" to the consumer in the form of higher prices. So there is as yet no end in sight for the rise in living costs.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

The Club was privileged to hear Mr. Herb Allen, Outdoor Editor of the Tampa Tribune. Herb's message was not one of joy, however. In this state of sunshine and good climate, erosion of our natural game and fishing is continuing at an excellerating rate. The sportsman himself is caught in the middle of the battle between the likes of flood cotrol districts, Land fills and Real Estate Developments on one hand and audobon Societies and Law Enforcement on the other.

Breeding and spawning grounds in the Everglades, around Lake Okeechobee and the Kissimmee River are rapidly being destroyed by ditches and dikes. Coastal dredging has already ruined the East Coast trout fishing and the West coast is going fast. The great influx of people into Florida is fine for the tourist business but outdoor hunting and fishing is suffering.

If present rate of activities continues, Florida will become a State of canals barren of wild life. Government agencies try to prolong their own life. For example, The South Florida Flood Control District was set up for the purpose of building the dike around Lake Okeechobee. It now has an Empire that extends throughout South Florida.

Sportsmen can help by working with legislators to obtain better laws to cover abusers. The grouping of Government agencies will tend to cut empire building. Local control of zones is always more desirable.

OUR MAN IN TALLAHASSEE

By Ben Newman
Tallahassee Bureau

Tallahassee—Evidence continues to mount which points to strong organization in the Republican minority and a lack of it in the Democratic majority of the Florida legislature.

At least a portion of the vacillation which is clearly in evidence in this 1967 session is attributable to the lack of strong direction by the Democratic leadership.

Part of this is a conscious attempt on the part of the Democratic leadership, however, to be "democratic" in the running of the two chambers.

This is, of course, in sharp contrast to the days of rural domination of the legislature when a handful of the ruling clique "spoke" and it was done.

Many of the freshmen members don't appreciate the "liberal" attitude which both Senate President Verle A. Pope, D—St. Augustine, and Speaker Ralph Turlington, D-Gainesville, have brought into the Florida legislative process.

One freshman senator, who only became a senator March 28, complained to reporters on Roubin Ashew, D-Pensacola, that he was tired of getting a raw deal.

Sen. Ashew, who served both in the house and the Senate under the tyrannical leadership of old, explained to the frosh that he had never been asked before about what committees he wanted to be on and even if he had, he would have been assigned to those which the leadership wanted him on.

The frosh was amazed.

On the other hand, the Republicans have stuck together for the most part and even though the Bill and Don show, isn't the most informative, it at least put the Republicans on the offensive and Democrats on the defensive.

It also brought the name of the game, politics, which presupposes partisanship on many measures, to the front.

The Republicans keep greasing the attack and the Democrats keep watching and retorting.

There is increased speculation, however, that this attitude of the Democrats may change before the session is out.

There is increased pressure from influential Democrats to pass an appropriations bill with an open end and placing it in Gov. Claude Kirk's lap to come up with the funds.

This is a calculated risk which would primarily be designed to embarrass the governor, hoping he couldn't come up with the funds.

However, if he should, he would win the entire basket of eggs. The elections for legislators next fall would seem to haunt the Democrats. Gov. Kirk could look mighty good between now and then. The real financial problem would arise at the end of the fiscal period not the beginning.

Sen. Bill Young, R-Pinellas Park, confided to a close friend at a cocktail party last week that the rift between himself and Kirk forces continued to grow.

He denied there would be any attempt on his part to embarrass the Kirk faction in Republican Pinellas County. Sen. Young is identified as part of the (Congressman William) Cramer faction of the Republican party, and particularly in Pinellas County which is Congressman Cramer's home base.

In a way, the Young-Kirk split puts Rep. Don Reed, R-Boca Raton in between a rock and a hard place. Reed is House minority leader and a Kirk follower. Reed and Young must coordinate for a united front when the Republiflex their muscles to let the Democratic leadership know they are to be reckoned with.

Too Late to Classify

With some areas of Florida now considering the idea of county-wide units of local government in favor of the old municipality system, and with a new state constitution under consideration, it has become the duty of every taxpayer to give careful consideration to those proposals.

Our present governmental subdivisions were set up hundreds of years ago under an economy regulated by agriculture when the requirements of local communities were few and simple. Today, these municipalities are faced with a multiplicity of crises, and old-fashioned methods of taxing, crime prevention, traffic control and the provision of governmental services no longer suffice.

James Nathan Miller, in his article "Can Local Government Be Saved?" in the May issue of Reader's Digest, brings out some mighty important points concerning the need to redo our local government units and put them on a more efficient basis.

It surprised me when Mr. Miller stated that there are 61,- 000 local governments in America today and many of us are not even aware of all the governments to which we pay taxes—such as cemetery districts, street lighting districts, mosquito control districts, and so on.

While experts regard a population base of 50,000 as the minimum needed to support efficient services, over half our governmental units contain fewer than 1,000 people. The result is that municipal officials are amateurs working part time at a job that should be done by professionals who know how to make the most of every tax dollar.

What is the cure? Planning for the future on an area basis with the elimination of all the small units of governments making up our counties today. Do away with fire control and mosquito control districts and tax anyone on an equal basis. And this will mean we voters will have to agree to give up some of the luxuries of running our Tom Thumb municipalities.

To take this step we must adopt a modern state constitution which will give local governments the flexibility they need to handle their own affairs. And this will mean we voters will have to agree to give up some of the luxuries of running our Tom Thumb municipalities.

To take this step we must adopt a modern state constitution which will give local governments the flexibility they need to handle their own affairs. And this will mean we voters will have to agree to give up some of the luxuries of running our Tom Thumb municipalities.

If we fail to modernize local government, our officials will be forced to turn to Washington for help and Congress will be forced to appropriate even more funds for local use. And today, there are so many federal-aid programs in force that it has become big business just to inform the localities as to what's available in the way of federal help.

Staff Sought For Head Start

Applications are now being received for the Head Start program in Highlands County this summer.

J. Ferrel Smith, curriculum coordinator for Highlands County schools, said a project director is to be named, and 25 other paid staff members are being sought.

Applications may be obtained in the county school offices on the third floor of the county courthouse, and deadline for applying will be Friday, May 5.

Smith said a federal grant of $27,532 has been approved to operate the Head Start program in three centers in the county. This grant is for 100 children to be enrolled from June 19-July 28.

Staff will include at least eight certified teachers. Non professional staff to be hired will be eight teacher aids, six lunchroom workers and three social service aids.

Federal regulations require that at least half the non-professional staff be from low income families, preferably parents of the children enrolled in Head Start.

Smith said that while he could not at this time quote salary scheduled for the summer, all paid staff must receive at least the federal minimum wage of $1.40 per hour.

The Library Corner

Did you know that the women who worked in the library were volunteers until 1956? At that time the volumes were moved to a room in City Hall and a librarian was paid $30 a month to keep up the inventory of donated books. In 1959 the Woman's Club at the corner of East Pine and South Verona was the library.

That Quail, Robert—Margaret Stanger.

It has been some time since such a delicate and refreshing "real-life story" has appeared on our bookshelves. The story, biography of a unique bird personality was written by Robert's closest human friend outside his wife—Margaret.

It was July 1952 when Robert started life as a rather unpromising egg on the kitchen counter in Cape Cod home of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Kienzle. Rescued from an abandoned nest and mothered by the warmth of a boudoir lamp, the tiny baby quail hatched from the smaller and wrong end of the egg with the same single-mindedness which was to show in all of the bird's subsequent years as a cherished member of the Kienzle household.

Robert had the run of the house and the grounds. He disdained with panic any offer of freedom and resisted the mating calls of other quail. Rather, Robert chose to entertain guests, monitor telephone calls, ride in the car, and take meals at the family table.

There is an interesting condensation of That Quail, Robert, in the April 1967 issue of Reader's Digest. The book, itself, has charming charcoal drawings. The hard cover of this biography is alive with all the differently patterned feathers which Robert shed while molting. This is that different, delightful book that would make a satisfying gift. We are proud to have That Quail, Robert, in our library.

Bowling Kings And Queens

by Ernie Andreas

The topic for the column this week is sponsors. Now that the bowling season is drawing to a close with many banquets I noticed how little thought is given to partonizing sponsors. In the month of August we start the task of getting a backer to put up the league fee and buy the team shirts or blouses, but then how many bowlers have anymore to do with their backer. Now the proper thing to do is get the sponsor to the lanes every now and then even if you have to drag him in. Show him what he is paying for and how important he is. When we decide to hold the banquet, let's go to the dining spot that sponsors a team. That week my team captain held a poll for a banquet site. Shucks, two of the three places should not have been considered at all. True, some backers can't accomodate us at all times, but for heavens sake, find out first.

Male bowler of the week: Ed Tomek - 644, 618 and 549.

Female bowler of the week: Betty Denk - 551.

Eighth Grade Boys Win Track Meet

The eighth grade boys won the junior high track meet held by the physical education department of Avon Park High School last Friday afternoon with a score of 75½ points over the seventh grade which scored 33⅓ points.

In the running events Walter Nunnallee won the 120-yard low hurdles with a time of 18.5 seconds with Kim Shaw and Randy Jordan coming in second and third. Steve Hartt came in first in the 50-yard dash in 6.2 seconds followed by Eddie Ezell and Joe Franza tied with Howard Sizemore for third.

Dennis Hart won the 100-yd. dash in 11.5 seconds with Wayne Veasey second and Jimmy Murphy third. The 880-yard run was won by Wesley Turner in 2 minutes, 34.2 seconds and Fred Jahns and Mike Rihner came in second and third.

Jimmy Jackson won the 660-yard run with a time of 2 minutes, 3.5 seconds followed by David Mosser and Wally Pierce. The 440-yard dash was won by Walter Nunnallee in 63.5 seconds and Billy Adkins and Johnny Carrol were second and third.

The 220-yard dash was won by Eddie Ezell in 27.9 seconds and Bobby Stoops took second with Steve Hancock coming in third.

The eighth grade 440-yard relay team of Steve Hartt, Tim Williams, Jim Magenheimer, and Joe Franza took first with a time of 1 minute, 55.8 seconds and the 880-yard relay team of Tim Williams, Dennis Hart, Bobby Whaley, and Danny Hensley won with a time of 1 minute, 51.1 seconds.

In the field events David Scott took the shotput event with a toss of 32 feet and Earnest Stack and Danny Albritton tied for second. Eddie Ezell won the broad jump with 16 feet and 5 inches followed by Steve Hartt and Danny Hensley.

Walter Nunnallee high jumped 5 feet to win that event with Tim Williams and Jim Magenheimer also placing. The pole vault event was won by Winkie Hall with a jump of 9 feet, three inches and Wesley Turner and Billy Adkins were second and third.

The eighth grade girls outscored the seventh grade girls as Joyce Strickler won the 50-yard dash and the 100-yard-dash and seventh grader Mary Ann Stevens took the high jump event with a 4 foot, 4 inch jump. Joyce ran the fifty in 6.6 seconds and the 100 in 12.8 seconds. The girls participated in only these three events.

Red Devils Drop Play-off To Blue Streaks

The Sebring Blue Streaks won the Class B Group 6 championship from the Avon Park Red Devils last week with 7 — 4 and 12 — 6 consecutive wins in the best-of-three game play-offs between the two Highlands County schools. The Streaks will meet Brooksville in a regional game tomorrow (Friday) night in Brooksville as they try to move in to state tournament competition.

Last Thursday night the Streaks and the Red Devils met here at Head Field in the first game of the series and it took ten full innings for Sebring to win 7 — 4 over the Avon Park team.

Sebring scored one run in the first, second, and third innings to take a 3 run lead before Avon Park could scratch. Then the Devils pushed over two runs in the bottom of the fifth but Sebring scored another in the top of the sixth to take a 4 — 2 lead.

In the bottom of the seventh Avon Park came back to tie the game up 4 — 4 by scoring two more runs and flubbing an opportunity to score a fifth and win the game. Neither team could score until the top of the tenth when Sebring scored three runs on two singles, a hit batter, and a walk.

Emmitt Money took the loss for Avon Park as he started and went four innings before being relieved by Hoppy Rewis who finished out the ten inning game on the mound. Ronnie Purvis took the win but needed help from Marty Gilliian in the sixth inning.

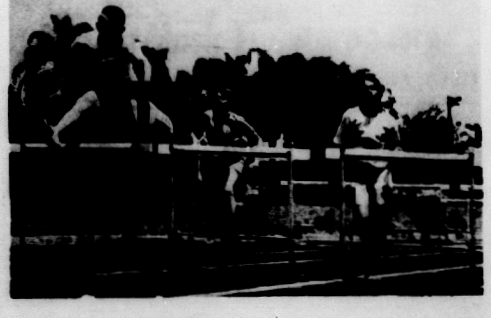

Last Friday night the action moved to Sebring's Fireman's Field and again it was a loosely played game which saw the Streaks come out on top 12-6 in seven innings.

The Streaks scored 3 runs in the first inning and then Avon Park came right back to score five in the second frame. In the bottom of the third Sebring went ahead again by pushing over four runs and were never topped again as Ronnie Purvis struck out 14 Red Devils and held them to 4 hits while the Streaks went on to slam out 11 hits off Avon Park's Emmitt Money and Hoppy Rewis scoring 12 runs. Avon Park's final run came in the top of the seventh for a final score of 12 — 6. Avon Park finished the season with a 12 — 4 — 1 record.

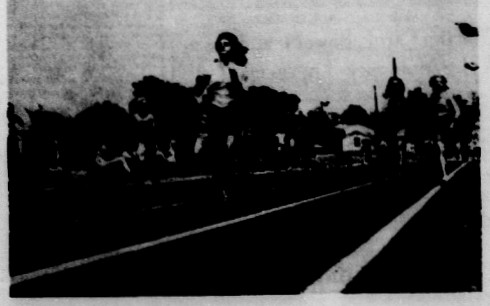

Doris Ackerman, Avon Park, won the 1st place for ladies in the recent Cancer Crusade tournament held at Sebring Shores Golf Club. Doris is said to be the spittin' image of Dot Rupp, formerly of Sebring Municipal Golf Course — and why not? They are identical twins.

Patti Hill Scholarship Fund Started

The students of Avon Park High School have voted unanimously to begin a Patti Hill Scholarship Fund and are inviting all of Patti Hill's friends and associates to participate by contributing to this fund. The scholarship committee will consist of five Avon Park High School faculty members and one student representative from the Senior Class.

The recipient of this scholarship will receive a two hundred dollar loan annually as long as he is a student in good standing at the South Florida Junior College and the loan may be continued at the Senior College level. The recipient of this award must be a graduate of Avon Park High School who plans to attend South Florida Junior College. The choice of student will be based on personal qualities and financial need rather than academic achievement.

Anyone who is interested in participating in the Patti Hill Scholarship Fund is encouraged to send contributions to the Guidance Department of Avon Park High School, P. O. Box 1957, Avon Park. Checks should be made payable to the Patti Hill Scholarship Fund.

All contributions will be duly recorded and acknowledged if requested.

County Agent Gives Tips On Furniture

When house furnishings are well designed, well constructed and well finished, they are pleasant to live with through the years, says Mrs. Imogene D. Riteenburgh, County Extention Home Economics Agent.

To have such furnishings, a family must begin with a plan which fits their house and their way of life.

Since good design and workmanship are found at all price levels, the family should shop around. It pays to compare merchandise and check prices at various stores.

Learn to read labels and understand facts about materials and construction. Look for the manufacturer's name on the label. A reputable manufacturer "stands behind" his furniture should anything go wrong.

Study woods and other materials used in makmg furniture. A single piece of furniture may be made of several different woods chosen for very good reasons.

Learn to recognize good construction features. Look behind, inside, and under to see how the piece is made and what materials are used. Examine drawers, doors, and all visible joints, then test rigidly.

A good finish is a definite indication of quality. The back and underside of high quality furniture are sanded smooth, sealed, and finished to reduce the chance of wood swelling and shrinking. Inspect the finish in a good light.

A chair, table, or any other piece must perform the job for which it was designed. If you're buying a desk or table, sit down and see if it is a comfortable height. A similar test will help determine the comfort and usability of other pieces.

Reminders to Pay Taxes Go Out This Week

Highlands County taxpayers, who have not paid their 1966 taxes, will get a final reminder this week from county tax collector W. H. Prescott and his staff.

On April 1, the deadline date, a total of $197,. 995.97 had not been paid, but since that date nearly $35,000 in delinquent taxes has come in.

The parcels which haven't been paid up will be sold on the courthouse steps June 1, and the taxpayer has until then to redeem his property, Prescott suggests, however, that if they intend to pay, they try to do so by May 25 in order to make sure they won't have to pay the costs of redemption.

It may be the fact that Prescott's office sends out a final reminder of taxes owed—which many counties do not—that accounts for Highlands County's good record of taxes paid.

Many counties this size and even less have much more in certificates than Highlands to go on sale each June because taxes were unpaid.

We have found that it is a good idea to send this final reminder," said Prescott. "Many have forgotten or lost their tax bills and it cuts down on the last minute rush the few days before the sale."

John Barnes Dies April 27

Mr. John W. Barnes, age 73, passed aw y last Thursday after a long illness. Born in Alabama he had been a resident of Avon Park for the past 11 years. He was retired from the citrus industry, and a member of the Presbyterian Church in Alabama. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Dewey Barnes, 4 sons, John, Ariton, Ala.; Jim Wyatt, Ft. Myers; Willie Joe, Lakeland; Jerry Dean, Mulberry. Two daughters, Mrs. Harold Carrol, Lakeland; Mrs. James Kirkland, Ariton, Ala. One sister, Miss Anne Barnes, Ozark, Ala. 22 grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Chapel of the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home (111 E. Circle St.) with Rev. Lester Miller officiating.

He was said to rest in Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Fires Blamed To Railroads As 48 Found Along Tracks

A sharp increase in railroad caused forest fires has prompted an urgent telegram to railroad officials in Florida, State Forester C. H. Coulter said.

A wire was sent today to the presidents of five railroad companies operating in Florida pleading for their cooperation.

"Continued drought and numerous railroad fires within the past week have caused serious damage. I urge your personal attention to this problem," Coulter said in the telegram.

Fifteen sets were discovered along one railroad in Citrus County last Thursday and 12 sets Sunday in Polk County. A second railroad caused 12 to 15 sets Thursday in Polk County and a third railroad caused five to six sets in Hamilton County last Thursday.

All outdoor fires have been banned in Polk County by Governor Claude Kirk until the current drought eases.

"Railroad fires are caused principally by defective spark arrestors and sparking brake shoes," Coulter said. "Misplaced signal flares and dead weeds and other combustible vegetation in railroad rights-of-way also have contributed to the problem."

As the drought continues, forest fire occurrence rises in Florida. In the past four days, 155 forest fires have burned 6,319 acres.

Citizens Eating Better And It Is Costing Less

Under official proclamation of Gov. Claude Kirk, "Florida Products Week" May 1-6 is being observed to emphasize the fact that the state's 6,000,000 citizens are eating better today than at any time in history—and at lower actual cost.

Hundreds of Winn-Dixie and Kwik-Chek supermarkets throughout the South are observing the seventh annual Dixie Products event with full displays of home-grown products.

The broad scope of "Florida Products Week" is found in the amount of food sold by all Winn-Dixie stores during a single year: 1,877,100,000 pounds of groceries and 1,336,300,000 pounds of perishables.

"Economists tell us that food is today one of a bargain today than ever before, G. H. Deriso Tampa division manager said. "Not many people realize just how low the profits of a supermarket really are.

"Locally-grown products, which cut down on transportation costs, help this low profit margin possible and permit us to pass on our savings to our customers."

Game Commission and Mobile Chemical at Odds on River Damage

The second in a series of meetings on pollution problems in the Peace River has not provided complete answers to the present dilemma. The second meeting was held Wednesday, April 26, at Tallahassee and attended by officials of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, State Board of Health and representatives of Mobil Chemical Company.

W. T. McBroom, Commission Chairman, said, "In reply to a great number of inquiries regarding our progress on the restoration of the Peace River we can only say that a settlement or agreement between the Commission and Mobil Chemical Company has not been reached; however, we are going ahead with our studies and development of plans for bringing the river back as rapidly as possible."

A Florida law passed in 1951 provides that whoever pollutes the Peace River and destroys fish or fish food will be liable for payment of costs and expenses in restoring the river as a suitable habitat for fish and restocking with fish. The costs for restoring the river includes the cost of surveying and determining damages to the river and fish life.

Peace River was polluted when a dam at thee phosphate processing plant of Mobil Chemical Company broke on March 11 and released an estimated 1080 acre-feet of phosphate slime into the river. The pollution virtually wiped out a large portion of the river and killed fish for 76 miles.

McIlroons said, "One of the problems in returning the river to its former condition will be the removal of slime from the river bottom. One method under consideration for accomplishing this is a series of current speeding devices using stone deflector dams."

He added, "We hope to construct one or two of these dams immediately on an experimental basis to determine their effectiveness in assisting with the restoration of the river."

The deflector dams will be constructed with rock and extend at least three quarters of the width of the river with an opening of ten or fifteen feet to allow for water flow and boat passage. In addition to their primary function of speeding the flow of currents by restricting the area through which the water must flow to remove the phosphate slime, the deflectors are expected to increase spawning areas, improve food supply, provide aeration, and serve as fish atractors.

820 County Persons Receive Food For Needy, Says USDA

The U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service reports that 125,912 needy Floridians received food aid during March through its commodity distribution program.

This was 4,571 persons more than the number that participated in the program during February. The foods were distributed to needy families in 25 counties, including Seminole Indians and Cuban refugees.

The commodity distribution program in Florida is administered by the Florida Department of Public Welfare in cooperation with the Consumer and Marketing Service.

The Consumer and Marketing Service offers available foods to any state that has a commodity distribution program. USDA pays for processing, packaging and transporting the foods to receiving points chosen by the state agency. These donated foods, which change in variety from time to time, are intended to supplement and improve the diets of children and needy persons.

The counties taking part in the food program during March and the number of persons receiving foods were: Baker, 871; Bay, 2,161; Bradford, 1,178; Brevard, 8,247; Dade, 20,361; Dixie, 362; Duval, 12,826; Escambia, 11,484; Gadsden, 9,389; Hardee, 435; Highlands, 820; and Hillsborough, 12,198.

Lafayette, 280; Lake, 1,784; Lee, 940; Leon, 4,140; Monroe, 744; Okeechobee, 242; Palm Beach, 7,577; Pasco, 2,838; Pinellas, 7,106; Polk, 3,172; Santa Rosa, 2,607 Taylor, 1,570; and Union, 488. In addition, USDA foods were distributed to 10,370 Cuban refugees and 212 Seminole Indians.

The foods distributed to the Florida families during March included dried beans, margarine, cornmeal, flour, lard or shortening, chopped meat, dried milk, peanut butter, rice, grits, raisins and rolled oats.

Shuffling

With thirty-two playing in the tournament Wednesday the winners were Caroline Webber and Harold Patton over Aliene Howard and James Chamberlain. Ethel Brewer and Tom Clarke won in consolation against Sarah Kerr and Gertrude Fensterman.

Saturday was a chilly evening so only twenty-six played. James Brown and Charles Fensterman won over Kate McAlexander and Tom Clarke. Consolation winners were Jennie Baker and Toney Kerr over Chris Cabezas and Alta Robinson.

Card Games

In Pinochle on Monday high score went to Jim Brown at 703. Sarah Kerr came in second with 688. Five tables were in play.

No Bridge on Tuesday due to the School Bond Election.

Dances

With the daylight time in effect the dances will begin at 8 p.m. for the summer. Every week we bid a few good-bys for the summer with singing "Auld Lang Syne." Kay Lochen is going early this year for her 'family' is preparing for a big reunion in Minneapolis this summer. Guests Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wedekemper of Hollywood. They were looking Avon Park over, maybe they will stay here. We hope they like us well enough to stay. Other guests were Mrs. Irene Whipple and Mrs. Conarty both of Sebring. George and Orpha Mills also came to watch the dancers, they are both taking it easy.

Supper

A fine group of sixteen had supper together Saturday evening. All stayed for either cards or shuffling.

Bertha Brush was called home this past week. Her mother is quite ill in Springfield, Ohio. Ruth and Art Jordan write they are home now in Ridgeway, Ohio. Their disposal had to be repaired. John Dewber, who is still in the hospital, is slowly improving.

Church Views On Abortion Laws

The Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ, with offices in Avon Park, at its 94th annual meeting in Key West passed the following resolution regarding revision of abortion laws now pending in the legislature.

"The resolution as passed is printed below:

"We urge the ammendment of the current statue on abortion to permit wider latitude on the part of licensed physicians to terminate pregnancies under the following conditions:

(1) If there is substantial risk that continuance of the pregnancy would gravely impair the physical or mental health of the mother;

(2) If there is substantial risk that the child would be born with grave physical or mental defects;

(3) If the pregnancy results from rape or incest.

We understand that usfilisable abortions shall be performed only in a hospital licensed by the State Board of Health of Flovida and performed by a licensed physician acting in good faith and in accordance with his best medical judgement and that two other physicians, in addition to the one performing the abortion, must certify in writing that they believe the circumstances in each case are such that the abortion is justified."

Our Men In Service

A 1-c J. Deering

Aviation Storekeeper First Class James E. Deering, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Deering of Route 2, Avon Park, took part in the underway Naval training exercise "Blue Coral" off the southern California coast, as a crew member of the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation.

Blue Coral, the second major fleet exercise conducted this year by the U. S. First Fleet, refined the techniques of surface-to-surface and surface-to-air warfare, as well as detection and destruction of subsurface craft. Some 21 air units and 25 ships participated in the week-long exercise.

Pilots flew their carrier-based planes on bombing runs over a range on San Clemente Island. "Drone" aircraft were used as targets for the pilots in air-to-air rocket firing.

Participating ships trained extensively under simulated battle conditions using "hit and run" tactics to engage and evade the "enemy." Once again, drone aircraft were targets for ship-to-air missile exercises.

Cpt. W. Kline, Jr.

Army Captain Wordley J. Kline Jr., son of Mrs. Laura E. Niemann, 800 N. Verona, Avon Park, assumed command of the 308th Transportation Company at Ft. Riley, Kan., March 19.

Capt. Kline entered the Army in 1953.

The captain is the son of Wordley J. Kline Sr., 57 Powdermill Road, Southwick, Mass. He graduated in 1947 from Berlin (N.Y.) Central High School. His wife, Elizabeth, is with him at Ft. Riley.

SGT. BILLY R. SMITH

Army Sgt. Billy R. Smith of the 246 Aviation Company will leave Saturday to join up with his unit at Gray Army Air Field in Ft. Hood, Tex., before going to Viet Nam for a 13 months tour of duty.

Sgt. Smith an Aircraft maintenance Supervisor has been in the army for the last 2½ years and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Smith of Avon Park.

While home on his 30-day leave has established residence for his wife Nancy, daughter Denise age 6 and son Kyle age 4 at 800 N. Anoka. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Giddens of Avon Park.

Reuther is one of the cultured gentlemen in labor circles, who took the TV mike on numerous occasions and blackguarded and cursed Goldwater when LBJ made such a marvelous race. I heard him do it more than once, so it's not "somebody told me" stuff.

PRESS BLUNDERS

The Brownsville, Texas, pulled this one on a Democrat, quite likely: "The first event today was the administration of the oath of office to County Judge Milton Richardson." The Dunbry missed a meal, evidently.

Home Loans To Some Vets End July 25

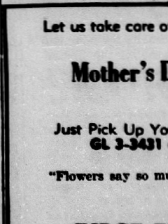

Although veterans of Viet Nam and most veterans of the Korean conflict can still take their time about applying for those generous 30 year 6 per cent home loans, veterans of World War II have only until July 25, Harvey Roberts, Veterans Service Officer in Highlands county warned today.

"Applications from Veterans of World War II must be in my office or in Jacksonville by that date," Roberts said.

The direct loans, offered only in rural areas such as Highlands county, will be granted up to an amount of $17,500 on a home to be built or an existing dwelling. The direct loan avoids the extra expenses of discounting.

About 100 veterans in this county have taken advantage of the direct loan, Roberts said. For some World War II veterans, discharged early, time already has run out.

More than 25 applications for GI home loans have been received from Viet Nam veterans in Highlands county under the 1966 GI bill.

Sgt. E. Harrison

Staff Sergeant Elgie F. Harrison, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leland F. Harrison of 607 N. Delaware, is stationed at Hurlbut Field, Fla. He is assigned to the Military Airlift Command which operates a global airlift system for U.S. forces employing more than 1,000 modern aircraft.

CHANGING OUR WAYS

"Ye have heard that it was said by men of old time . . . but I say unto you." St. Matthew 5:21-22.

Men do change; they change their way of thinking and their way of living. It was so with the disciples of Jesus, it is so with us today. But change usually comes hard and for good reasons.

Jephthah and the men of Gilead were at war with the Ephraimites. He and his army controlled the passages of the Jordan river. When any of the Ephraimites sought to escape across the Jordan, they were first asked if they were Ephraimites, if they said, "nay," they were then asked to say, "Shibboleth." If they could not say the word right but said "Sibboleth," they gave themselves away as enemies and were slain. Their speech betrayed them. There is a passage recorded in the New Testament of the same character.

After Jesus' arrest, Peter followed him to the courtyard of the house of Caiaphas, the high priest. Peter denied being a disciple and stood off his accusers until they said to him: "Surely thou art one of them; for thy speech betrayeth thee." St. Matt. 26:73.

No matter where we live we are a part of a larger whole, an organic part of a social group. What we are, the turn of our thoughts, our religious beliefs and practices, our social ideas and customs grow out of the culture in which we are reared. We get our ideas and build our loyalties out of the experiences we have had as members of families and communities as well as geographical areas.

I think it is fair to say that a way of living has been objectified before us as far back as we can remember; our acceptance of it has been normal, and that acceptance has created loyalties that stand up.

You remember the story of the Hebrew children as told in the Book of Daniel. Nebuchednezzar had made an image of gold and had set it up in the plain of Dura. He then ordered his subjects to fall down and worship it. Three Jews, who had been appointed to handle the affairs of the province of Babylon, refused. He commanded that they be brought before him. When they were accused, they answered: "Be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up." Daniel 3:18. They refused to do some thing that was contrary to the religion in which they had been reared. For this refusal, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were cast into the fiery furnace.

The Jews felt that they were the chosen people of Jehovah. This feeling was strong in Jesus' day. That is the reason why the woman of Samaria was surprised when Jesus spoke to her. She expressed that surprise by saying: "How is it that thou, being a Jew, asketh drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria" for the Jews have no dealing with the Samaritans." St. John 4:9. You remember that when the disciples, who had gone to the village for supplies, returned, they "marveled that the talked with the woman." Jesus had broken through the prejudice that had been created by his upbringing. He did this in another instance also.

When Jesus set his face to go to Jerusalem to make his last challenge to his nation, a Samaritan village, through which he and his little band traveled, showed rank discourtesy. James and John flared up and said: "Lord(wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven and consume them, even as Elias did?" Jesus rebuked them and said: "Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of." St. Luke 9:54-55.

I think that it can be pretty well established, that it is hard for a man to change the way of life he has come by through his upbringing. Man just doesn't change his way of living as he does his suit.

Former president James Conant of Harvard University told the story of a motorist who turned off of the main road onto a rural detour. He had not traveled far when he noticed a sign that read: "Choose your rut carefully, for you will be in it for a long time." We get into grooves, into habits of thinking and we go on, and on, and on.

What we have said will help us to better understand people who stubbornly cling to ways of thinking in which they have been reared. However, such people often change their minds. New and better ways of looking at things, of living with others, make their impress on the mind and heart and bring about a change for the better. The spirit and the love of Christ and his teaching, have slowly varied man's thinking, his attitudes toward others and his culture. We remember that Jesus never lost faith in his disciples though they were slow to understand him and alter ways.

If others seem slow to catch up with what seems to be the best in our culture, we must exercise understanding and be patient. Dr. Howe likened himself to a fisherman in his work with Laura Bridgman, whose condition was like that of Helen Keller. He said that he let down his line with patience until at long last he felt a tug on it and brought up Laura Bridgman's soul to the light. We must strive in the same manner.

We must remember that people do change. They change when new ways of looking at things, new interests and new desires are created. Whatever the problem, the solution comes through understanding, and understanding comes through the long, hard road of education. This is the way that lifts horizons and opens up new avenues into a new world.

Episcopal Women

The annual Spring Luncheon of the Episcopal Church women will be Wed. May 10th in the Parish House.

There will be communion services at 10 A.M. followed by meeting at 11 A.M. The covered dish luncheon will begin at 12 noon with Miss Lida Brandt and Mrs. Art Irwin as hostesses.

Mrs. Sherman Francisco, president says delegates will make repots on the recent Diocesan Convention in Tampa.

Band Association To Hold Final Meeting Monday

The Avon Park Band Association will hold its final meeting of the school year Monday, May 8, 7:30 P.M. in the band room at the high school. All members are urged to attend. Parents of students expecting to enter the band next year are invited.

Band Director Vic Mickunas, who also doubles as Treasurer of the Association, will present a year-end financial picture of the organization and will make recommendations for financing activities next school year. He will also reveal plans for summer activities in music.

New officers elected at the April meeting of the Band Association are: President, Franklyn Ward, vice-president, Billy Martin, secretary, Mrs. N. H. (Dot) Booth, Jr. The officers and executive committee will meet this week to make committee assignments and lay plans for next school year.

Membership in the Band Association is open to all persons interested in promoting the Avon Park High School Band. Membership fee is only $1.00 per year. Parents of band members hold the classification of Active Member; all others that of sustaining members. Memberships for the 1967-68 school year will be available at the Monday night meeting.

Patrol Urges Motorists To Volunteer For Safety Check

The Florida Highway Patrol urges motorists to volunteer for the vehicle safety check program being conducted in many Florida communities this Spring by local civic and service organizations.

"Today's inspection is tomorrow's protection," said Colonel H. N. Kirkman, patrol commander. Drivers should join the circle of safety with a check of their cars and their driving.

Periodic checks are needed for all vehicles, and an inspection now will prepare your car for heavy Spring and Summer driving.

The National Vehicle Safety Check for Communities has a 10-point list brakes, all lights including tires, exhaust, glass, wipers and washers, mirrors, horn and seat belts.

"In a tight traffic situation your life may depend upon the efficiency of your car" Kirkman said, "and repairs in a garage today will be cheaper than repairs in a hospital tomorrow."

Ag. Department Studies Florida Meat Imports

The Florida Department of Agriculture is greatly concerned about adulterated processed meat and meat products which are being shipped into Florida from other states.

During recent weeks, Florida Department of Agriculture inspectors have stopped the sale of thousands of pounds of adulterated meat and pork raw materials, all of which were found to have been adulterated with mutton.

This clearly is an act of mislabeling on the part of the processor.

In view of the recurrence of shipments of adulterated meat and meat products from other states into Florida, I have requested U. S. Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to take corrective action.

The Florida Firms which purchased these raw materials did so in good faith. They had no reason to suspect the products were not what they were labeled. Consequently, these Florida firms are being penalized for the wrong doings of someone else.

Each package of the adulterated meat products were stamped with the words, "The meat or meat product contained herein has been U. S. inspected and passed by the Department of Agriculture."

The unsuspecting Florida firms bought these products in good faith, based on prior Federal inspection.

The Florida Department of Agriculture, in order to protect the legitimate meat-handling companies in this state, will take whatever action necessary to bar further shipments from out-of-state meat packers who fail to meet our meat consumer protection regulations.

Legitimate businesses need not fear that they will be restricted or harrassed in their activities. However, the Department will not tolerate continued violation of this state's regulations pertaining to meat products.

The inspection of meat and meat products on the wholesale and retail levels, while most vital for the protection of Florida's consuming public, is only one of the many consumer services offered by the Florida Department of Agriculture.

Other programs, which are just as important, are the Department's pesticide residue and spreading decling programs.

The state Budget Commission has allowed only $368,241 for the Pesticide Residue Program for the coming biennium, but the Department will need at least $385,000 to effectively carry out the program during the next two years.

The Department faces a similar situation in the operation of its Spreading Decline and Imported Fire Ant Programs, both of which also underwent severe budget cuts.

In order to expand these activities, it will be necessary to have the $385,237 cut from the requested budget for the Spreading Decline Program restored.

We are now maintaining 1,341,139 linear feet of buffers to protect 1,116 "negative" commercial groves.

A total of 8,247 acres of grovelands has been pushed and treated since the program was launched in 1955, but the Division of Plant Industry estimates an additional 6,597 acres remain to be pushed and treated.

The $451,000 recommended by the Budget Commission to operate the Imported Fire Ant Program during the coming biennium allows only for funds for control purposes; it is not sufficient for the needed eradication program.

We originally requested $1,400,184 to maintain the program for the next two years.

Restoration of the full requested budget would allow for treatment of 6.5 million acres of land. There are indications that, if these funds are not forthcoming, the fire infestation in a 3.5 million-acre area around Tampa Bay will have increased by one million acres during the next biennium.

In addition, infestation of the fire ant on a 1.5 million-acre area around Jacksonville is expected to spread to an additional 750,000 acres, while 300,000 additional acres in West Florida will become infested.

Revival At Fellowship Baptist Church

The revival at Fellowship Baptist Church in the old Woodruff Heights building continues this week with services nightly at 7:45 p.m.

Spirited song services are led by Doyle Dawes, from Lake Buffum Church in Fort Meade. His daughter, Della, is the pianist.

This is an enjoyable time that prepares the congregation for the timely messages by the Evangelist, R. T. (Bob) Later. If you haven't heard this wonderful spirit-filled preacher, you are invited to do so the remaining days of this week.

May we extend to you a most cordial welcome to attend and bring someone with you. The good gospel singing begins at 7:45 p.m.

Mail Rates Up On International Air Deliveries

An increase in international surface and airmail rates will go into effect Monday, May 1, Postmaster R. D. Young announced today.

The new international rates, he said, will not apply to mailings for members of the Armed Forces overseas. Domestic postage rates are applicable to mail addressed through APO's and FPO's.

The rate increases for both surface and airmail—averaging 13 percent—were first proposed on January 14 and publicly confirmed on March 1. The Department explained at that time that they were needed to help offset a deficit of about $16 million in international mail operations.

Specific information on the new international rates can be obtained from the service window at the post office, Postmaster Young said.

This was the first general increase in international rates since July, 1961.

The increases are:

1. Airmail letters to Central America and Caribbean area from 13 cents a half ounce to 15 cents.

2. Airmail to the rest of the Western Hemisphere remains 15 cents a half ounce, except for Canada and Mexico.

3. Airmail to Europe and Mediterranean Africa from 15 cents a half ounce to 20 cents.

4. Airmail letter rates to the rest of the world remain unchanged at 25 cents a half ounce.

5. Aerogrammes and air post cards increased 2 cents each from 11 cents to 13 cents.

6. Items sent by air, other than letters and parcels, such as small packages, books, periodicals and other printed matter increased 10 cents per piece to all countries except Canada.

7. Most letters going by surface transportation to all nations (excluding Canda and Mexico) increased from 11 cents to 13 cents. Post cards raised from 7 cents to 8 cents.

8. Most printed matter, including publications, increased one cent a piece. For 2nd class publications to Canada only, the one cent increase will be deferred for six months to become effective November 1, 1967. Also, the present bunding rate which permits postage to be computed on the bulk weight of packages of publications addressed to Canadian post offices will remain in effect until November 1, 1968, at which time it will be discontinued.

9. Surface parcel post rates to all nations increased 20 cents a parcel, an average of 7 percent.

"Postage rates for surface first class letters and air letters and surface 3rd class type printed matter to Canada and Mexico encompased to U.S. domestic rates, which are set by the Congress, and are not being changed at this time," Postmaster Young said.

CONTRACT FOR

For the two projects on 27 the Highlands County board offered $1.3 million from its share of secondary road funds and the Legislature appropriation for the sale of bonds pledging additional secondary money for use on primary roads.

The State Road Board has pledged $1.5 million "or whatever is necessary" to complete the next two projects on 27. Finishing the four-laning between Lake Henry Drive to the county line is on the calendar in the new five-year plan with $1.5 million pledged for that project.

As a part of its five-year program, Polk County has scheduled completing the four-laning of US 27 from Haines City to 14.

At the road hearing in Bartow on Monday, representatives of other counties were told that state officials are impressed with Highlands County's willingness to seek ways to help the State Road Board meet primary road problems.

A delegation from Highlands Park Estates visiting the county commission on the day said the board that they are delighted with the plans for four-laning of more of 27 but added, "If the same contractor gets the job that is working here now, it'll be five years before the four-laning is finished."

Commission Chairman Carl McIntyre agreed and added, "We said the same thing to the state road board Monday. The contractor on this project, Job Lee, officially began in January, 1965, and when we last all that heavy rain last summer a six months extension was granted the contractor."

THE STORY OF FATHER'S DAY

While more than 50,000,000 Dads in the U.S. will be honored by their families on Father's Day, June 18, 1967, with a wide variety of gifts ranging from a box of fine cigars to a bottle of aftershave lotion—many might be surprised to learn how far back the custom of paying special respects to fathers goes, and how our own custom of observing Father's Day began.

The first "father of his country" was not George Washington, surprisingly, but Julius Caesar. And Roman senators were called patres or "fathers."

The first Father's Day in the U.S. was celebrated in Spokane, Washington, in 1910. Mrs. John B. Dodd wished to honor her father, William B. Smart, a Civil War Veteran, for his love and sacrifices in raising six motherless children.

Mrs. Dodd saw the observance of Father's Day as a good way to call attention to the father's place in the home . . . training the children . . . safeguarding the marriage tie . . . and the profection of womanhood and childhood.

She went to her minister, and through him to the Spokane Ministerial Association, and also wrote a letter to the Spokane Ministers Alliance which received her suggestion favorably. It was the Spokane YMCA which put the idea into active motion.

A Father's Day button was pressed in the White House by President Wilson in 1916, and it was President Coolidge who recommended national observance of the day in 1924.

Today, U.S. fathers receive more than $1 billion in gifts each Father's Day. Among the most popular are those items which contribute to Dad's pleasure and relaxation. Many Pops receive their favorite brand of fine cigars on Father's Day—an especially fitting gift, since it was Pop who gave out the cigars when Junior was born!

Seaboard - Coastline Merger Becomes Effective July 1

In a statement today, John W. Smith, Seaboard President, and W. Thomas Rice, Coast Line President, said the new Seaboard Coast Line Company is expected to begin consolidated operations on that date.

They said, any petitions which may be filed seeking reconsideration of the Supreme Court's decision of last Monday (April 10) are expected to be finally disposed of in ample time to permit the merger to become effective July 1.

Smith and Rice said merging of the operations and physical properties of the two roads will be progressed as rapidly as possible, although it is anticipated that 5 years will be required to complete all phases of the merging process.

The new company will maintain general offices, both in Richmond, Va. where the Seaboard has its general offices, and in Jacksonville, where Coast Line has its general offices, they said.

The Seaboard Coast Line Railroad Company will be chartered in Virginia. Smith will be Chairman of the Board of the new Company, and Rice will be President. Predicting a bright future for the new railroad, Smith and Rice said: "Many months of planning and study have gone into this merger. We believe that work will pay off handsomely in assuring a smooth transition as the two properties are brought into a single consolidated unit.

They said that the merger will not cause any loss of jobs among the approximately 25,000 persons employed by the two roads. The two companies reached agreement last November with unions representing the majority of the workers which established job protection for those who may be affected by the merger.

The agreement, in general, includes normal attrition and reasonable protection, employment for all individuals em-

VFW To Light Bikes For Free At Schools May 9 and May 16

Free reflective tape will be applied to youngsters' bike in a "Lite-A-Bike" program to be conducted here by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4319 and the Avon Park Police Department.

Tape will be applied to bicycles at Avon Elementary School and Hopewell School on May 9, from 12 noon to 2 P.M., and Avon Park High School, 12 Noon to 2 P.M., May 16. Strips of reflective tape will be put on the rear fender, handlebars and front forks of the bicycles, making each bike visible after dark from all angles. The highly reflective tape—the same material used in reflective traffic signs and license plates—is visible at distances up to 1,500 feet in the headlights of an automobile.

"Youngsters shouldn't be out bike riding after dark, but if they are, their bikes ought to have reflective tape" said Commander Stanley Croft director of the local "Lite-A-Bike" program.

He pointed out that some 600 persons are killed each year in bike accidents, 65 per cent of them children aged 5-14. Another 30,000 persons are injured each year in such accidents. Four out of five fatal bike accidents occur at dusk or after dark.

"The extra warning provided by reflective tape can save a child's life," the VFW official said.

More than 10 million bikes across the nation have been marked with reflective tape in the VFW program. Supported by the National Safety Council, the "Lite-A-Bike" Program depends on reflective tape donated by 3M Company, which has given more than $1.6 million worth of the material to date.

GI Home Loans To Vietnam Vets Total 123,000

More than 123,000 applications for GI Home Loans have been received from Vietnam veterans under the 1966 GI Bill, M. T. Dixon, of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, reported today.

The reports from the various field stations of the Veterans Administration across the nation, covered the period from March 1966, when the new law went into effect, to February 28, 1967.

During the first full year of operation, 312,300 Post-Korean Conflict veterans were declared eligible for GI Home Loans. More than 123,000 loans were made during the first year.

Under the three GI Home Loan programs—World War II, Korean Conflict and the new Vietnam GI Bill, about seven million GI home loans have been made with a face value of more than $94-billion.

The deadline for GI Home Loans for veterans of World War II, Dixon said, is July 25, 1967.

Drive the cost of living down, without giving up all this.

Chevrolet's room, ride and price. When Automotive News made its annual roominess study, Chevrolet got the most points. It's roomier inside, they reported, than any other American car. The ride is Full Coil suspension smooth. And Chevrolet hardtops and convertibles are still the lowest priced full-size cars of this kind you can buy. Chevelle's quick also. It's quick to climb, quick to turn. Other mid-size cars might be like Chevelle, true. But they're not as low priced. And they're not made by Chevrolet with Body by Fisher, GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column, inner fenders and Full Coil suspension. Camaro's road-hugging stance. At its price, Camaro is the only sportster to give you wide-stance design. It rides steadier, clings to curves better, hugs the road closer. It's the roomiest car you can buy. Plus, you get a bigger standard engine.

Ann Karrick Attends Governors Conference On Education

Ann Karrick, physical education teacher at Avon Elementary School attended the Governor's Conference on Education for Teachers at Florida State University, Tallahassee April 26.

The FEA staff had a 3 hour briefing session and according to them the picture looks pretty dark.

The FEA staff stated that the Delegate assembly did not tell them to comprise. If the legislature does not come through then the teachers of Florida can decide what to do. (In other words — Sanctions or not.)

State Superintendent of Public Instruction Floyd Christian warned of a teacher shortage so vast as to create chaos if the governor's staggered pay raise plan is put into law. He said that Kirk's so-called phased out minimum $5,000 salary program could create chaos and turmoil throughout the entire educational system by September. Christian charged Kirk with going back on a campaign promise in persisting with a phased otu minimum $5,000 salary program to stagger pay raises over a 2 year period. He said the governor, in his campaign white papers, promised teacher salaries from $5,000 to $8,000—and not a word about staggering or delays. Supt. Christian said that he hoped he would not be accused of using bad manners in taking issue with the Governor at his conference but said, "I want to tell Governor Kirk now that any program which does not provide a minimum increase of $1,050 in the instructional unit and guarantee that no teacher position is supported by less than $5,000 on the state level, will not do the job." He charged Gov. Kirk with mis-reading the publics mind if he thinks there is no support for new taxes for education. The Governor followed Supt. Christian and made no comments on the charges.

Governor Kirk's address was in generalities, largely about jet planes and quality education. He invited us to join him in an adventure in boldiness in education, for nothing less will provide satisfactory solutions to the problem we face. He also added that a fresh new look must be taken at the job the teacher does in the classroom. The practice of awarding salary increases on the basis of length of service alone seems to miss the point of real professionalism. He said he is aware that educational degrees are a factor but what is missing is the quality of service.

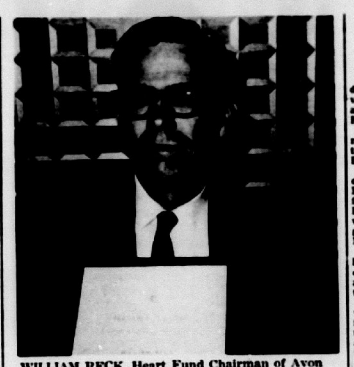

Kirk's Funds To Fires Questioned

Governor Claude Kirk's proposal to cut drastically state funds for forest fire control was questioned today by the president of the Florida Board of Forestry.

"I hope the Governor has been misquoted," said Board President Marcus Rawls, of Jacksonville. "But according to this morning's paper, he is proposing that $3.5 million in the Florida Forest Service budget be financed by increasing the county's share of the costs."

Rawls said that present methods of financing have been in effect for many years. The Federal government, Florida counties, and the state's general revenue fund now jointly contribute to the cost of forest fire protection.

"Forest fire control to cut down on wildfire damage, air pollution, and smoke hazards on our highways is of vital importance," Rawls said. "Forest products are our second largest source of income, and are heavily dependent upon protection from wildfire. And equally important to all Floridians is the protection of our forests for camping, picnicking, fishing, hunting, and other recreational uses."

WILLIAM RECK, Heart Fund Chairman of Avon Park, was presented with the Heart Fund Certificate of Appreciation by the Florida Heart Association. Campaign totals as of this date, exceed $180.00.

GOVERNOR CLAUD R. KIRK, JR., who spends a lot of time signing official documents, takes a brief respite while O. D. Huff, Jr. (right), chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission, signs a resolution thanking the Governor for his efforts in promoting Florida citrus. The resolution pointed out that Kirk has assumed a role of leadership in promoting Florida citrus, and that he has set a precedent for Florida governors in supporting the state's leading agricultural industry.

Orange Juice For Schools To Move In Lunchroom Program

Florida orange juice is expected to become a familiar item on the menus of Florida school lunchrooms during May, which has been declared "Orange Alert Month" for all pubic schools in the state.

In proclaiming May as "Orange Alert Month," Florida Governor Claude R. Kirk, Jr., pointed out that orange juice is available in quantities through the School Lunchroom Program.

"I call upon all young Floridians and all personnel in the School Lunchroom Program to drink and encourage others to drink orange juice daily," Governor Kirk stated. He alluded to the nutritious goodness and delicious qualities of oranges and explained that the consumption of orange juice is beneficial to to the student.

A copy of the proclamation has been dispatched to every school lunch supervisor, along with a letter from Francis J. Mulkeen, director of institutional and school marketing for the Florida Citrus Commission.

Mulkeen expressed appreciation for the cooperation of school lunch supervisors in distributing the orange juice, which was purchased this season by the United States Department of Agriculture for utilization in the nation's school lunch programs. He urged continued cooperation and special assistance in making "Orange Alert Month" a success.

"This effort should do much to popularize the use of Florida orange juice in school lunch programs," Mulkeen said. "Actually, we hope to make orange juice a feature item on school lunch menus the year around, because few other food commodities can equal the nutritional values and the good taste present in orange juice."

Additional information may be obtained from the Sergeant at 124 S. Tennessee Ave (Federal Building) in Lakeland or call him at 682-8857.

Medicare News

Q. How can I tell if the nursing home my mother recently entered is an approved extended care facility under medicare?

A. Your local social security office has a list of approved nursing homes. Also, the operator of the home should be able to tell you whether or not their services are covered under medicare.

Q. My father was discharged from the hospital last week fully recovered from accident injuries. He has since suffered a stroke and needs nursing home care. Will the cost of the nursing home be covered under medicare?

A. No, medicare will not cover care in an extended care facility unless he is hospitalized for 3 days or more because of his stroke. One of the requirements for coverage in an extended care facility is that a person be admitted to the nursing home for treatment of the same condition for which he was hospitalized.

Q. I am enrolled in both the hospital and medical insurance plans under medicare. I have used up almost all of my 100 home health visits under hospital insurance and still need more visits. What happens when I've exhausted the 100 visits?

A. You will be entitled to an additional 100 home health visits under the medical insurance plan. However, under the medical insurance plan, medicare pays 80 percent of the reasonable charges and you pay the rest. You are also responsible for the first $60 of covered medical expenses in a calendar year which would include doctor bills as well as the home health services.

Please mail your questions to the Social Security Administration, P.O. Drawer E, Lakeland, Florida, 33802.

BEAT THE HEAT WITH FLAMELESS COOLING!

ENJOY WINTER IN FLORIDA THIS SUMMER...

YOU gain many advantages right now by up-dating your home with central electric cooling—or both cooling and heating with a flameless heat-pump. You'll increase the value of your home . . . and be all set, before the seasonal rush, for a cool summer. Keeping cool is being kind to your heart, too.

And as an extra incentive for our residential customers, we'll give those who install central ducted flameless cooling between April 1 and August 31, the choice of a selection of attractive gifts—such as a Hi-Intensity Lamp, an eight-volume Encyclopedia, or a Blinker Lantern. Details at your dealer or contractor.

The Power to Please!
FPC FLORIDA POWER CORPORATION

SAVE $50. TOO!

We'll give an installation allowance of $50, PLUS the choice of a selection of attractive gifts, to any of our residential customers who removes—between April 1 and August 31—flame-type heating and replaces it with whole-house electric cooling and heating. Ask your dealer or contractor for details on both offers.

In the DRIVER'S SEAT

The government's "Discover America" travel program is setting the theme for many vacationers planning their holiday this summer.

"Fly-drive" is the method many use to make the most of their U.S. vacations, Hertz Rent A Car reports.

By flying to the scene with a rented car waiting in their destination airport, travelers save precious time and get maximum mobility to enjoy such Hertz "Discover America Fly-Drive" vacations as:

Fly to San Francisco and drive to colorful Golden Gate Park, Chinatown, Nob Hill, nearby Napa Valley and Yosemite National Park.

Fly to Seattle and drive through Puget Sound to Mt. Rainier National Park and Grand Coulee Dam.

Fly to Las Vegas and drive north, Hertz suggests, to fascinating Zion and Bryce Canyon National Parks.

Fly to St. Louis and drive around the amazing Ozark country, with its lakes, fishing and historical locales.

Fly to Dallas and drive through Old West country to see the Alamo and NASA Space Center.

Fly to Knoxville and drive the scenic expanse of Great Smoky Mountains National Park, Hertz says.

Fly to Jacksonville and drive up the coast through Myrtle Beach, Cape Hatteras and Kitty Hawk.

Fly to Milwaukee and drive the magnificent northern lake area, the unique Wisconsin Dells and Mackinac Straits.

Fly to Boston and drive through the cool historic greenery of New England, Hertz reports.

Orange Alert Month

Yea Theme!

Recently a famous author gave a masked ball in New York's Grand Plaza Hotel and asked everyone to wear either black or white. This kind of theme was the added spark that turned his party from just plain fun to a really memorable event. Next time you are doing the hosting honors, consider having a theme run through your affair.

Why not give a "It's a Mod, Mod, Mod, Mod World" party! Send your invites out on zing pink paper with orange crayon lettering. Ask everyone to dress in their most Mod-ish—the more exaggerated the better! Decorate the room with "pop" photos of old movie stars and suspend record jackets of Rock and Roll songsters from doorways and ceilings. For a buffet snack, stay with the Mod theme. Serve little fried tuna balls with huge helpings of crunchy Wise Potato Chips for a cockney-like "Fish 'N Chips" dish; little fudge cakes and cookies are perfect "Carnaby Sweets" and serve a thick "London Grog" fruit punch.

For a patio party, you can use an Oriental theme. String up inexpensive lanterns; have a little incense going and buy one of those tinkly Japanese recordings for the background music. Arrange for your local Chinese restaurant to deliver a big batch of chow mein. Then for an unusual twist, sprinkle crushed Wise Potato Chips on top of each bowl. Their crispness and flavor will be a delicious contrast to the soft vegetables of the chow mein. Have any kind of tea punch and serve it in little white cups. Ah so good.

Next time it's your turn to plan a party, remember that a little ingenuity goes a long way. Choose a good idea and the party's success will almost follow naturally. Yea Theme . . . the wise thing to do!

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Rev. Richard A. Gudgo

Wherever you come to the word "Selah" in the Psalms, say, "Think of that," and then, "Think of this." It is illuminating and inspiring.

David was driven from his palace and people by Absalom, his rebellious son. When he saw his advisers and army follow his son he wrote in the third Psalm, "Lord, how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me. Many there be which say of my soul, "There is no help for him in God'." Then he exclaimed, "Selah." Which is to say, "Think of that." But he did not stop there. He said "Think of this." Of what? "But, Thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head."

The Psalmist ran away from Absalom, but he ran into the arms of the Almighty. He found in Him his protection in peril, his splendor in shame, and his lifter up in lowliness.

Misery is always in the majority. Trouble always comes in troops. What do you do when Absaloms of affliction, within and without, rise up against you? Run to the Almighty! There is none like Him—comfort for the comfortless, defense for the defenseless and hope for the hopeless. He will be with you always and in all your ways.

Look, George, I didn't trade the best years  of my life for a bunch of army brats and a quonset hut in Valley Forge.

That's the way newspaper readers are: they want more out of life. And if you have something to sell, try newspaper readers first.

Just about every family with an income over $5000 a year reads the newspaper every day. And as income and education go up, newspaper readership climbs to 95%.

Also: the newspaper isn't just something people read on their way to work. In fact, 90% of newspaper reading is done at home — where the husband and wife can put their heads together on big-ticket purchases.

Reach is the thing with newspapers. Whatever you sell, big-ticket or small, your best prospects are the 95 million adults who turn to the daily newspaper for all the things that can brighten their lives.

Spice CABINET

PINEAPPLE-CHEESE BREAD

1 egg (beaten)
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup crushed pineapple (drained)
½ cup nuts (chopped)
2 cups flour (sifted)
¾ cup sugar
1 tablespoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup sharp Cheddar cheese (grated)

Sift dry ingredients. Add cheese and nuts and toss together. Stir pineapple and butter into beaten egg. Add to dry ingredients. Pour into well-greased loaf pan. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Wrap cooked loaf, as flavor improves overnight.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

When a braggart has to take back what he boasted about, figuratively speaking, he is said to "eat crow."

Several years ago, soon after the November election, the politicians of Arkansas used to congregate in Mena for a crow supper.

Bob Shafer, sports editor of the Santa Monica (Calif.) Outlook ate crow ... a seven-course, five-wine luncheon no less ... when he lost a bet to UCLA psychology professor Donald B. Lindsley that Michigan State would beat UCLA in the Rose Bowl game.

Some politicians have been compelled to eat considerable crow after an unsuccessful campaign. Another related idiomatic phrase is "I have a crow to pick with you." When two friends pick this crow, they usually "make a clean breast of it," by confessing all their sins.

No one seems to know just how "eating crow" came to mean taking back a statement, but that is its figurative meaning today.

The Mediterranean, near Sicily, is about the same width as most of the English Channel — about 90 miles. This bridge of water has been followed by armies and commerce for centuries.

California and New York each account for about 10 percent of our nation's population.

The eyes of a baby are two thirds the size they will be at 10 years of age.

silence

. . . is black and white and read all over. Every day, in 85% of the homes in the United States. And when you advertise in the daily newspaper, there are two things you can be sure of. (1) Just about everybody in your trading area will see your ad. (2) They won't be knitting or driving to work or holding a conversation or sleeping when your ad comes on.

People have to concentrate in order to read. And your ad in the newspaper gets the undivided attention of your best prospects. So if you have something to sell, think of newspaper readers. Silence is golden.

100 Ladies To March For Cancer Crusade

On May 16, more than 100 ladies in Avon Park will start their march to wage war on cancer to help control and eventually defeat the vicious disease.

The announcement was made this week by Mrs. Donald Ford, Residential Crusade Chairman of the Avon Park 1967 Cancer Crusade as final arrangements for the campaign were being completed. Assisting Mrs. Ford in working out details was Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, co-chairman.

"So that our loyal volunteers will be readily recognized," Mrs. Ford said, "they will be provided with official identification badges which state, American Cancer Society Volunteer!

They will also be armed with educational pamphlets which highlight ways by which families can help guard themselves against cancer. Accompanying each pamphlet is an additional feature—a gummed sticker which lists "Cancer's Seven Warning Signals."

"When placed in medicine chests," Mrs. Ford said, "these stickers will serve as a constant reminder to every member of the family to be on the alert for cancer symptoms—and see the family doctor if any signal should last for more than two weeks."

"We must continue to support the year-round fight against cancer with expanded cancer control programs," Mrs. Ford commented and pointed out that although cure rates are showing an encouraging increase, death rates, unfortunately, are continuing to increase. She also noted that last year more than 10,250 citizens of Florida died of cancer and in the year ahead an estimated 21,000 new cases will develop among Floridians.

"This year," Mrs. Ford said, "to continue to fight against cancer and steadily cancer control programs to help save more lives, the need for contributions is even greater. Because it is everybody's health problem, we again urge our citizens, when their neighbor, an American Cancer Society Volunteer, comes by to—'Give More—To Help Cure More'."

Residents Urged To Attend Hearing

Representatives of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, Roy Selms and President L. C. Hooper appeared before the Avon Park City Council Monday evening and stated that the Florida Public Service Commission has set a Public hearing for June 2, 1967 at 10 A.M. at the City Council Chamber. They urged all the Council Members and Mayor E. A. Delaney to be present at the hearing. The Chamber and Council formally protested to the Florida Public Service Commission the termination of the Seaboard line Silver Star and Silver Meteor Trains from making regular stops at Avon Park as of Apr. 30. Council president Clarence King urged that all interested parties be at the meeting.

Dr. William Stallard, president of South Florida Junior College, told the Council in line with the recent proposal by Governor Claude Kirk to slash the Budget of the College by 25 percent. This would amount to $50,000 and would have to be made up from other sources if the college were to function normally. The council fathers adopted a resolution to be sent to Tallahassee to the three members of the House and one Senator. The Sebring and Avon Park Chambers of Commerce and Civic Clubs from Bowling Green and Wauchula also have sent Resolutions protesting the proposed slash according to Dr. Stallard.

Councilman Wayne Albright asked Chamber of Commerce President L. C. Hooper how the progress of the drive to obtain enough members to have an 18 hole Golf course in Avon Park was coming. Mr. Hooper stated that there is more than $3,000 in an escrow account at Avon Citrus Bank. He also told the Council members that negotions would start within a week on a lease for the Golf Course. Councilman Albright raised his objections to the obtaining of the golf course. Council President Clarence King asked for a new vote of confidence on the Golf Course and by a vote of four to one the councilman reaffirmed their earlier pledge to the chamber of commerce that when 100 members or $10,000 was obtained that the City would negotiate a lease with Col. Leslie Blankenship owner of the old Pinecrest Golf Course.

In other business the Council Instructed City Attorney Hue Nunnalee to draw up an ordinance prohibiting planting of trees and shubbery without council permission between the sidewalk and curb.

The council voted to write the State Road Department asking them to take down the Australian pines on the West side of South Highlands Ave., as they interfere with a six inch water line.

Approved the request of athletic director Dunning Terrell of South Florida Junior College to use the city tennis courts from now until June 15, between the hours of 9:40 A.M. and 10:45 A.M. and between 1 P.M. AND 2:15 P.M. for tennis classes.

Reappointed Dr. John Kruse to a four year term on the civil service board pending Dr. Krusee's acceptance of the appointment.

The next Council meeting will be at 7:30 P.M., Monday May 22, at the council chamber in City Hall.

John J. Sweet Charged In Maxey Murder After Long Investigation

After seven months and four days of extensive investigation by the Highlands County Sheriffs Department and the Florida Sheriffs bureau, John J. Sweet of Foxboro, Mass., and Sebring, Fla., was arrested in St. Petersburg by the St. Petersburg city police on Sunday on a charge of murder, at the request of Highlands County Sheriff Broward Coker. The murder involved the death of prominent millionaire businessman, Charles Von Maxcy at his Sparta Road, Sebring home last October 3. Maxcy was a member of the well known Maxcy family of Central Florida and a nephew of State Senator Ben Hill Griffin of Frostproof.

Sweet was a close family friend and was a pallbearer at the Maxcy funeral. He was arraigned before County Judge Mervin Rehrer on Monday morning and requested that he be allowed to consult with his attorney before asking for or waiving a preliminary hearing. Judge Rehrer granted the request.

Sheriff Broward Coker revealed that a Grand Jury would be called to hear the evidence in the case and Sweet appeared before the Grand Jury on Wednesday afternoon. Circuit Court Judge William K. Love of Lakeland presided at the Grand Jury session.

Sweet came to Highlands County five years ago and has been associated with various real estate projects and was connected with the establishment of Sebring Hills, a subdivision north of Sebring on Highway 27. United Press International wire service reported that he was a resident of Foxboro, Mass., and was married and had three children. They reported that authorities there stated that he was charged with registering bets in 1952 and was fined.

Maxcy was found stabbed and shot to death on the floor of his living room by his wife, Irene, and a family friend, Mrs. Catherine Higgins. He was supposed to have met them that evening and when he did not appear the women went to the Maxcy home and discovered the body.

Earlier that evening Sebring Police Chief Lonnie Curl said that his men found Maxcy's car in a shopping center not too far from the Maxcy home parked with the keys in the car. Investigators have not stated positively whether the car had anything to do with the case.

The Maxcy family at the time of the murder announced rewards for the arrest and conviction of the murderer which started at $5000 and zoomed to $26,750 within a few days after the slaying.

State Attorney Glen Darty whose job it will be to prosecute Sweet stated the arrest of Sweet was the result of continuous investigation and hard work by the Highlands County Sheriff's office under the direction of Broward Coker and the Florida Sheriff's Bureau under the direction of Ed Yarborough. Mr. Darty did not believe the reward entered into the case. He further stated that the large reward did not produce any leads and the case was solved as the result of hard continuous and professional police work and shows the value of assistance given to the sheriffs of Florida by the Florida Sheriff's Bureau.

Sheriff Coker emphasized that the investigation was still being pursued vigorously and that Sweet was being held in county jail without bond.

Two Plead Innocent For Shooting Police

Two of three people charged in the February 27 shooting of Avon Park police officers Wayne Bass and Earl Gordon were arraigned on Tuesday before Circuit Court Judge Clifton M. Kelly and pleaded not guilty. Jane Verla Frye, 22, and James Cohen, 26, were charged with two counts each of assault with intent to murder.

The two defendants were recently captured in San Diego, Calif., and were recently returned to Highlands County to await trial along with Kenneth Steinhauser, 22, who was captured near the site of the shooting and has been held without bond in Highlands County jail.

Steinhauser is also wanted in Missouri on a parole violation and also has previously entered a plea of not guilty and is awaiting trial.

Miss Frye and Cohen told Judge Kelly that they had no funds and the Judge appointed public defenders to handle their case.

Officers Bass and Gordon surprised Steinhauser at a filling station south of town on Highway 27 and while they were arresting him and placing him in the police cruiser, they were fired upon from a shadowed area. Both policemen were severly injured and Officer Gordon somehow managed to drive the police car to Walker Memorial Hospital and radioed for help where a sheriffs deputy met them and Steinhauser was turned over to the deputy.

Both policemen have since recovered from their injuries and have returned to work with the police department.

Six Qualify For State Track Meet

Six members of the Avon Park Red Devil track team qualified for competition in the Class B State track meet to be held in Gainesville tomorrow, May 12, as the Devil thinclads placed fourth in the Class B District meet held in Ft. Meade last Friday afternoon and evening.

Kenny Dixon, in the 880-yard run, and the Devil mile relay team took first place in the group meet. Dixon set a new group time in the 880 running the half mile in 2 minutes, 2.6 seconds and the mile relay team also broke the group record with a time of 3 minutes, 33.7 seconds. Neither of the times were new records for Avon Park.

Earl Cothern's third place in the mile run did set a new school record for Avon Park, however, breaking Tom Lee Miller Park's 1965 record of 21.6 seconds. McNeil did not qualify for state, however, as he finished fourth in the final run of the lows.

Other Avon Park boys finishing in the top three at the group meet were Bobby Barben third in the 440-yard run with a time of 55.2 seconds, Earl Sims with a third place in the broad jump with a 19' 10" leap, Harold Calloway's third in the 180-yard dash with a time of 10 seconds.

The Devil mile relay team is made up of Earl Sims, Robert Watkins, Earl Cothern, and Kenny Dixon. The six boys going to the state meet from Avon Park will be Kenny Dixon, Harold Calloway, Earl Cothren, Kenny Dixon, Earl Sims, and Robert Watkins. The boys will be accompanied by Coaches Fred Hamilton and Joe Franza.

Ft. Meade won the B-7 meet with a total of 79½ points, Hathaway was second with 66, Tampa Catholic came in third with 53 points, Avon Park was fourth with 50½, Sebring and Zephyrhills tied for fifth with 11 points, Turkey Creek and Clearwater Central Catholic tied for seventh with 7 points, and Frostproof came in last with 3 points.

Avon Park To Receive Tax From Cigarettes

Don D. Meiklejohn, director of the state Beverage department, reports that net cigarette tax collections for the month of March 1967 amounted to $5,751,286.11 of this amount $1,845,865.31 will go to the state general revenue fund and the remaining $3,905,200.80 will be distributed to qualified municipalities.

Avon Park will receive $7,349.40, Sebring $9,942.86 and Lake Placid $2,262.12.

Mail Box Improvement Week May 15-20

The Post Office Department has designated the week of May 15-20 when residents on rural, city motorized, and box delivery star routes are encouraged to examine, and improve where necessary, the appearance of their mailboxes.

During the week of May 15-20 the Rural Carriers in Avon Park will inspect their patrons boxes and leave notices of any repair that needs to be done.

The purpose of Mailbox Improvement Week is to call attention to the need for providing mail receptacles which are designed to protect the mail from the weather, and which are neat in appearance, conveniently located, and safe to use. Neat, attractive mailboxes will make a significant contribution to the objectives and success of President Johnson's natural beauty program.

Mailboxes that meet the above four important requirements contribute to a more efficient delivery operation, and the result is an improved service to the entire route.

Mailboxes of the approved traditional or contemporary design are required, whenever a mailbox is newly installed or a present receptacle is replaced. Persons still using obsolete, top-opening boxes may continue to use them at the same location, provided they are kept in serviceable condition.

Where box numbers are assigned, the name of the owner and the box number must be shown on the side of the box visible to the carrier as he approaches, or on the door where boxes are grouped. Residents are encouraged to group boxes wherever this is practicable, near crossroads or service turnouts, or at other places where a considerable number of boxes are located. Where the use of street names and house numbers has been authorized, the house number will be shown on the box.

Highlands County Taxes Lowest InState

Property taxes in Highlands County are almost the lowest in the state, according to figures just released.

In fact, only six smaller counties have a lower millage than Highlands, which is 11.69 up $11.50 or $1.69 over the present valuation. Actually Highlands has the lowest tax rate of any comparable county in the state.

The figures were received here by Tax Assessor Billy Harris in a report prepared by the Assessment Standards Department of the Florida Comptroller's office. This is the first such report issued since the state-wide 100 percent of valuation went into effect.

For the landowners as well as the homeowners, it's a lot cheaper to own property here than almost anywhere in the state. The same low millage yardstick applies to groves, whose values according to existing figures are just about those in, say, Polk county—$2,000 an acre.

In Highlands county for instance, a $10,000 home, after Homestead exemption, will cost its owner $85.45 in taxes and an acre of grove would cost $22.75 in taxes per year.

In neighboring Polk County, millage 17.05, the homeowner would pay $85.30, the grove owner $22.60.

One of our neighbors Glades County, has the lowest millage in the state —5.20. Here the homeowner would pay $26.45, the grove owner, $13.22. Our other neighbors and their millages are Hardee, 13.25; DeSoto 12.1; Okeechobee, 11.47 and Charlotte 14.06.

Duval County has the highest millage in the state—28. and here the $10,000 homeowner would pay $140, the grove owner, $70. Indian River County, has the average or median millage in the state and here the homeowner would pay $92.56, the grove owner, $46.28. The counties with lower millage than Highlands are Flagler and Lafayette in North Florida, Jefferson, Liberty and Franklin in the panhandle, and Glades.

With the big changeover in assessments from approximately a fraction of valuation here to 100 percent has meant very little in the taxes levied—the taxes are just distributed a little differently and hopefully, more fairly.

"Actually, we are paying collectively what we would have if they had never reappraised," said Martin.

Taxes levied in 1966 on the 100 percent of valuation yardstick were $2,288,194.77 as compared to 1965's $2,088,479.49 under the old valuation.

The increase of $147,724.28 is "just about the normal increase in tax rolls from year to year," said Martin.

Howze and Associates, professional property appraisers, of Tampa, put the valuation on last year.

The Highlands County School Board, Board of County Commissioners and Highlands General Hospital set the millage.

In the report released to Martin by the comptroller's office, four counties were noted as being still in the 4-year grower period—Hillsborough, Bay, Lee and Marion.

In our geographic area, Highlands is repeatedly pegulated "when you get right down to it," said Martin who pointed out that 75 percent of our taxes come from non-exempt real estate land and buildings. Only 11 per cent of the total value of property in the county is Homestead exempt property. Other taxes come from: 9 percent personal property; 2 per cent railroad and telegraph, with 3 per cent in wholly exempt properties, such as churches, schools and government.

The reassessment, in a nutshell, said Martin has meant this: We were paying $60 per thousand on non-exempt property before reassessment. We now are paying $11.09 per thousand on non exempt property after reassessment and the people who were paying full taxes before reassessment are much better off, generally speaking. For instance, a homeowner not receiving exemption on a $10,000 home which was on the tax rolls at $4,500 before reassessment, was paying $180 a year. After 100 per cent of valuation, the same property with the lower millage only pays $110.98.

Some of the people who were hurt by the reassessment were the owners of completely tax exempt homesteads who were just barely getting by on meager fixed incomes, such as pensions and social security.

Said Martin: "After the reassessment I had dozens of people who came in and told me they did not know how they were going to pay their taxes because they were not prepared for an increase and were worried hhow they were going to continue to hold on to their homes. I am sympathetic with them, but I can not offer them much help because the law requires 100 per cent valuation. I am hopeful the legislature will give these people some relief."

600 Signers Are Already On Petitions

More than 600 signatures have been obtained on petitions now circulating to force an election on the wet or dry issue in Highlands County.

Actually, said Walt Davis, district supervisor for the State Beverage Department in Lakeland, voters will have to answer two questions on the ballot. The first is, do you want the county wet or dry. The second, if you want it

'Noble Experiment'

The 1967 Florida Legislature's first major action — adoption of a California-type insurance rating system — may fall in the category of "noble experiment."

It abolishes the present plan of having the state insurance commissioner approve every change, up or down, in insurance rates. He can only accept or reject rates proposed by the companies.

Under the California plan — so called because it has been in use in that state for 20 years — insurance companies will set their own rates on the basis of "free competition."

There are certain safeguards. The rates cannot be inadequate. They cannot be excessive. They cannot be discriminatory. The insurance commissioner can still act on complaints, and will have authority to examine an insurance firm's books every three years.

Pressure for the change, as explained by State Treasurer and Insurance Commissioner Broward Williams, resulted from a virtual strike by some insurance companies. Due to excess losses, they began pulling out of the state or refusing to write certain kinds of coverage.

It was becoming a question, said one legislator, not of how much insurance costs, but whether you can get it at all.

The question now is: Will rates go up under the new plan?

The general answer to that probably is: Yes. But Commissioner Williams said rates — particularly automobile insurance rates — would go up anyhow. He said some insurance companies in the state would go broke without rate increase. But he has an "understanding" that rates will not go up for 12 months.

Sure, said opponents, the citizens will be lulled for the next year and then get hit by high rates. They also contended that the new law will invite collusion between companies to increase rates.

Majority of the legislature however, decided that there were sufficient safeguards to prevent collusion and agreed with Rep. William Chappell (D-Ocala) House floor leader for the bill that, while no panacea, it is "the best possible answer to the insurance problems in Florida today."

Only time and experience can verify or refute that claim. If the new plan works as it has in California, Floridians will be happy with it. That will require enforcement of the law on the premise that "fair treatment of the individual policyholder" is an essential element of insurance rate regulation."

In any event, Florida probably will be having annual sessions of the legislature and the new insurance law can be quickly repealed if deemed necessary.

Disloyal Dissent

At least 99.44 per cent of the Rep. Paul Rogers' Florida constituents will agree with his stand that flag-burning cannot be an expression of "loyal dissent."

The 9th District congressman sent a telegram to United Nations Ambassador Arthur Goldberg asking an explanation of remarks credited to him suggesting that Secretary of State Dean Rusk was too critical of the recent flag-burning demonstration in New York.

"Loyal dissent" is another of those high-sounding phrases that have been distorted beyond bearing. Some people without an ounce of loyalty in their makeup have latched onto it as a mask for disloyal activities.

One such activity, certainly, is burning the American flag in public as a demonstration of disagreement with government policy. No real, patriotic American would do this regardless of how much his views differed with those of the administration.

We can tolerate such pseudo-Americans in our midst. Their shriveled souls will not make much of an impression on the pages of history, or even on their contemporaries.

But we cannot condone their depravity, nor can we afford to confuse them with the honest dissenters who actually are an integral part of our democratic system.

Poppy Day Saturday, May 13

The will be the message of the American Legion Auxiliary to the people of Avon Park on Poppy Day Sat., May 13. Members of the Auxiliary and cooperating groups of young women will be stationed at numerous places all day offering baskets of Memorial Poppies and urging all citizens to wear one of the little red blossoms in honor of our Nation's war dead.

"We know that everyone in Avon Park will wish to express remembrance and gratitude by wearing a poppy on that day," Mrs. Rena K. Smith President of Unit No. 69 of the Auxiliary.

National Maritime Day May 22

May 22nd of each year is designated National Maritime Day to focus public attention on the American Merchant Marine and the part it plays in the Nation's peacetime economy and its support of our defense.

The first 1967 National Maritime Day posted was placed today on the Avon Park Mail truck. The poster shows a merchant ship and carries this year's slogan, "American Ships Bridge The Seas."

It will be displayed in post offices and on all mail trucks throughout the country for the entire month of May.

The President annually proclaims May 22nd as "National Maritime Day" to publicly recognize the important role of the American Merchant Marine, its ships and men who sail them. The date commemorates the sailing of the first transoceanic steamship the SS Savannah, in 1819. In his proclamation, the president has requested that all citizens observe National Maritime Day by displaying the flag and through appropriate ceremonies. American ships through out the world are asked to "dress ship."

In placing the poster on the mail truck, the Postmaster noted the fact that "the American Merchant Marine today, as in the past, plays a major role in maintaining the Nation's trade, aiding in our balance of payments, and supporting our efforts in vietnam. Our merchant ships carry the products of farm and factory to the world's markets, deliver our surplus agricultural commodities to friends in need, bring back to the Nation the raw materials required for our basic industries, and satisfy our consumer demands for a variety of imported food stuffs and for the goods of the Free World.

"The contribution of the American Merchant Marine to our global military commitments is vital to the Nation, while our operations in South-east Asia today receive the full support of American merchant shipping for the transport of military cargoes.

These are but some of the reasons it is especially appropriate that americans pay tribute to our merchant marine—to its ships and the men who man them—for its continued contribution to the American economy and to the security not only of all Americans, but of the Free World."

Howard Todd Dies In Ft. Pierce Tuesday, May 9

Howard Douglas Todd, age 39, of 1028 Trinidad Avenue, Ft. Pierce, Fla., died at his residence May 9, 1967.

Mr. Todd was a native of Avon Park, and went to Lake Wales in 1959. He was a member of St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Ft. Pierce. He attended Avon Park Elementary School, graduated from Bolles School in Jacksonville, 1945 and from Cornell University, 1949, with a BS degree. He was a member of the National Canners Assn., serving on the Laboratory Committee, chairman of the Florida Canners Quality Advisory Committee, State Chairman of the Institute of Food Technology, State Chairman of the Horticultural Society.

After graduating from Cornell University, he was connected with the Florida Citrus Coop. in Lake Wales, until 1959. When he went to Ft. Pierce with Treesweet Products as chemist in charge of Quality Control.

Surviving are his wife Joan Kingsbury Todd, one son, Kenneth Douglas Todd, both of Ft. Pierce, his parents, Edward G. and Winifred Reck Todd, both of Avon Park, 3 brothers, E. Donald Todd of Tuscaloosa, Ala. Herbert R. Todd of Lakeland, and Norman Todd of Avon Park.

wet, do you want sales over the bar and package stores or do you just want package stores. And the voters who fail to answer the first question have voided their ballots.

As the private clubs in the county kept their bars closed in accordance with a May 1 order of the beverage department, some way of a compromise operation was being studied.

Attorney Hayward Davis said the Elks club, with a fat mortgage to pay hanging over their beautiful new home, are exploring what they can do and can't do. They are checking into the provisions and rules for bottle clubs — where the customer keeps his bottle on a shelf at the bar and buys setups. And they also have talked about getting a license to sell beer. They can't have both as the laws don't permit bottle clubs to have a beer license.

The gorgeous new club is a somewhat sad place these days, with a handful of customers in the dining room and the bar closed and dark. The VFW is open only for meetings. Sebring Golf Club has closed its bar.

Should the county go all-the-way wet, it would be entitled to have five private clubs with bars and a commercial bar for each 2,500 of population or fraction thereof. As to hotels and motels, there is a special provision for those with 100 or more rental units. They could have a bar, which would not be affected by any quota restriction. Should more than five private clubs in a county seek bars, a special act from the legislature would be necessary.

One of the questions people have been asking — in the unzoned portion of the county, should the county commission refuse to grant licenses could the beverage department step in? In unzoned areas, said Davis "we will try to work out problems, but we will meet the question when there is a need to solve it."

Efficiency is just another name for doing the right thing, at the right time, in the right way.

Over 20 photographs depicting the crowded condition existing at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program's inpatient facility in Avon Park have been sent to Rep. W. H. "Bill" Reed.

Representative of Lake and Seminole Counties, Reedy requested the snapshots after touring the 84-bed center with the Appropriations Committee.

In a letter to Joseph C. Ziesenhenn, FARP Administrator, the legislator said, "Your staff is doing a tremendous job and I want to be able to serve in every way possible so that more people in need of your service can receive it."

FARP's budget for the next biennium includes a request for $185,000 to construct an additional building designed to meet the expanding needs of the state alcoholism program.

The proposed structure would provide larger quarters to conduct group therapy and needed professional offices.

Car Accident Claims Two Lives Thursday

A two car accident on "Bloody" Highway 27, 2.3 miles North of Lake Placid at 10:15 A.M. last Thursday in front of Cavenders Fruit Stand claimed two lives. Cpl. C. A. Humphries and Homicide investigator A. J. Hobbs of the Florida Highway Patrol conducted the investigation in the accident.

Cpl. Humphries stated to the "Sun" that a car operated by Jimmie Vest Ward of Belle Glade was proceeding North when a car operated by Willard E. Ackley, 75, of Ft. Lauderdale turned into the path of the Ward car.

Mr. Ackley's wife Katherine, 76, was injured fatally in the accident and died 30 minutes after being brought by ambulance to Highlands General Hospital. Her husband passed away at 10:20 P.M. Thursday night.

Three passengers in the Ward vehicle were also injured in the accident and taken by ambulance to Highlands General Hospital. Linda Gale Sides of Belle Glade, Tony Allen Penney, Lake Harbor and Kevin Patrick Walsh, Belle Glade. All have subsequently been treated and released from the hospital.

The second fatal accident occured at 5 A.M. Monday morning, 8 miles West of Lorida on U.S. Highway 98. Cpl. C. A. Humphries and trooper O. L. Raulerson of the Florida Highway Patrol investigated the accident and stated that a tractor-trailer operated by Kenneth Harrison Beaver, 51, of Tampa was killed instantly when the vehicle hit a cow and overturned.

These three deaths bring the number for 1967 in Highlands County to 14.

Joe Marquart Ends 7-Week Course at FSU

Joe G. Marquart of this area completed a 7-week course in vocational rehabilitation of the handicapped at Florida State University in Tallahassee April 14.

Mr. Marquart is employed by the Bartow District office of the State Department of Education's Division of Vocational Rehabilitation and assigned permanently to the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center.

Counselors of the Division are trained in the evaluation, counseling, vocational guidance and placement techniques necessary to assist persons with mental or physical handicaps with work-related problems.

According to Carlos P. Mullin, District Director of the division's Bartow Office, which is located in the Polk County Court House, Bartow, the local counselor is serving 1,100 handicapped clients at this time. Last year more than 48,000 were assisted state-wide by the department.

The Library Corner

Do you know that Mrs. Sam King gave a sizeable number of junior books to the Avon Park Library very recently? Do you know that 46 new books were purchased with money from gifts of Friends of the Library? The results of these gifts of the Children and Junior books updates the reading department for the summer program.

Rebecca Caudell is a distinguished author of books for children. A Pocketful of Cricket (1964) and A Certain Small Shepherd (1965) are both widely acclaimed.

My Appalachia is Miss Caudell's moving, personal account of this remarkable region in the United States. There are no statistics, no cataloguing of misery in this book. She narrates the story simply of how it was when she grew up, when the snow was still clean before the mines came, and when the poor didn't know they were poor. Pride and dignity filled the half-empty stomachs. Miss Caudell's father rode off once a year to bring back books to teach her to read. She crossed a swaying foot-bridge over the river to go to school. She learned why her father never owned a gun for self defense (although every one else did). She watched her mother quilt and sew, and paper the walls with pictures cut out from McCall's magazine.

Something died in Appalachia. Miss Caudell returned years later to desolation. The book, My Appalachia, is full of remarkable pictures photographed by Edward Wallawitch who has captured not only the landscape defiantly beautiful in spite of being scarred and piled with refuse, but of the people, their miseries and their joys.

Letter To The Editor

Eye Sores

It is a deplorable sight to see when you are driving on our splendid Highways, the number of beer cans that are strewn alongside the roadway. This unsightly collection does nothing toward encouraging a fondness for our two very nice little cities of Avon Park and Sebring.

It does seem that the "swiggers" could at least decorate some other place rather than scatter these cans all along the highways.

This county is our home, and we should regard the roadways as a part of our beautification program, not as a trash pile to expose to all travelers, what just a few careless people insist on doing. Probably a law forbidding this indecency would help to keep our highways attractive to the public, and create a better picture of our progress and citizenship.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Charles Whitehead began his May series with a wonderful travel adventure that had to be seen and heard, rather than reported, to be appreciated. It was a real thriller, especially to a lover of the sport of fishing, or of any adventure in the out of doors. His guest was an old fishing pal Bob Harwell of the St. Petersburg District office of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. He's in charge, that is! And what a guy! With the aid of color slides he took us on his recent fishing trip to Panama. . . and waters off the coast.

He kept a running narrative going like a machine gun. . . every minute filled with surprise, danger, and strange adventure while on a six day cruise in a chartered boat. It was really great all the way! Marlin, Dolphin, Tuna, shark. . . and many other varieties were sought, battled and caught. . . and pictured with vividness. Our young guests, the retiring members of the Rotary "Little League" baseball team, introduced by Bill Thompson, must have been thrilled indeed. . . as were the rest of us.

What's the catch?
There isn't any.

$1,639 is the suggested retail price at the port of entry for the VW sedan.

The price includes Federal excise tax and import duty. It also includes: built-in heater, defroster, windshield washer, 2-speed windshield wipers, front seat belts, adjustable bucket seats, back-up lights, 4-way emergency flasher, and sideview mirror.

It's the price of the real thing, not a stripped-down economy model.

What else do you have to pay?

The charge for transporting the car from the port of entry. The dealer delivery charge. And local sales tax.

There is one optional that makes a lot of sense: the matching leatherette upholstery, for $30.00 extra. (Nearly everyone orders it because it eliminates the need for slip covers.) And that's it.

Unless, of course, you count the cost of gas and oil it takes you to get here in your present car.

Shuffling

Twenty-eight folks competed in the shuffling tournament on Wednesday evening. Kate McAlexander and Lara Pickell won in the main event over Gertrude Fensterman and Helen Floyd. Consolation winners were Grace Warner and Ray Johnson over Harold Patton and Toney Kerr. On Saturday there were thirty-two players. Winners were Herb Woolscroft and Charles Romilly over Sarah Kerr and Tom Clarke. Consolation winners were Elizabeth Clarke and Ray Johnson over Chris Cabezas and Betsy Flora.

Card Games

Five tables were in play on Monday's Pinochle game. High score went to Lara Pickell with 792. Sadie Benson came in second with 739.

Dances

Three squares were on the floor at the dances on both Monday and Friday evenings. Auld Lang Syne was sung to two couples who are returning north this week, the Glen Longs to their home in Plantiville, Conn., and the Harold Wolcotts to their home in Rolling Prairie, Ind. The Wolcotts are leaving now because their granddaughter, Ruth Russell is graduating from MacMurray College in Jacksonville, Ill. A grandson, Floyd Garrett is graduating from high school in Battleground, Ind. And another grandson, James Russell will be ordained as a minister at the Northwest Indiana Methodist Conference. He will be serving as third minister at Methodist City Church in Gary, Indiana.

Supper

The tables Saturday evening were decorated with a beautiful bouquet of red and yellow roses from the gardens of Howard Kellogg. Twelve folks enjoyed them and the bountiful supper.

Via the Grapevine

Word has been received of the death of Glen Miller in Dunkirk, Ind. He died at 78 on Apr. 28. He is a past president of the club, having served during the years of 1958 to 60.

The Leo Wagners and the Paul Hoppes both report safe arrival at their homes. The Wagners in Adrian, Mich., and the Hoppes in Eden, N. Y. The Hoppes had a good rhubarb pie from their garden. Floyd Stevens reports his leg is much improved, but still preventing him from doing all the work that he wants to do.

When you look for the most room and the smoothest ride and the best value, you'll end up with a Chevrolet wagon everytime.

Chevrolet Impala, roomiest in its class. While extra roominess is perhaps the best reason for buying a Chevrolet wagon, consider, also, these bonuses: Body by Fisher, Chevrolet dependability, flush-and-dry rocker panels and Magic-Mirror finish. Chevelle Malibu, smoother, quieter ride. A Malibu not only gives you a Full Coil suspension ride, but the body mountings are double-cushioned. And Chevelle carries plenty. It opens wide, 54.6 inches, to be exact, 28.5 inches high. Flip the second seat down and you've got 86 cubic feet of cargo space for all your gear. Chevelle was built to take a lot. Chevy II Nova, best equipped for the money. All-vinyl upholstery is standard. Flush-and-dry rocker panels that clean themselves are standard. Separate panels beneath each fender to inhibit rust are standard. Mono-Plate rear suspension to smooth the ride is standard. Price? Below standard.

Woman's Club Close Year With Breakfast

The Woman's Club closed the year's activities with a May Day breakfast meeting at the club house Friday morning. Upon arrival the ladies were seated at long tables and served coffee, organge juice with dainty pastries and open faced sandwiches while they enjoyed conversation. The tables were unusually pretty with a "touch of Spring" predominating in the decorations. May poles centered each table, entwined with the vari-colored ribbons streamers. Graceful ivy trailed down the long tables interspersed with blossoms of morning glories, pansies, roses and other Spring flowers.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Thomas R. Clarke, chairman of the Home Life Department; co-chairman, Mrs. Paul J. Calvert; Mrs. James B. Wainwright, Mrs. Tracy B. Mallory and Mrs. Wilford J. Beumel.

During the social hour Mrs. Edna Jackson, music chairman for the club, presented a program of music. Mrs. T. H. Maxwell and Mrs. George Kelsey sang a number of popular songs and led in some group singing. They dedicated one song to the newest bride in the club, Mrs. W. B. Dick, formerly Marian Peterson.

The business session was opened by the president, Mrs. Maxwell and the devotional was given by Mrs. D. C. Hartwell. Guests were introduced and three new members welcomed into the club. Mrs. E. H. Reisner, chairman of the Library Committee gave the annual library report and announced the summer reading program which will be conducted for children's groups. It was revealed that Mrs. H. Otto Kreiger writes the Library Notes which is a weekly column in The Avon Park Sun.

Mrs. Tracy B. Mallory was appointed to the Library board to fill a vacancy.

Mrs. Charles Sargent, Historian for the club, read the history which she had composed from other committee chairmen's reports of club activities during the past year. She announced that her committee is working to preserve records, pictures and the history of Avon Park as well as Club records.

The club voted to send a letter of protest to the Public Utilities Commissioner protesting the discontinuing stops of the Seaboard Silver Meteor and the Silver Star trains in Avon Park. Individual members were also urged to write letters on this matter.

Mrs. Maxwell, who is retiring after three years as president of the club, paid tribute to each club member and the elected officers who have served so faithfully with her. Officers continuing through the coming year will be Mrs. Samuel O. Norris, first vice president; Mrs. H. Otto Krieger, second vice president; Mrs. N. H. Booth, Jr., recording secretary and Mrs. John E. Hayes, corroding secretary; Mrs. E. G. Todd, parliamentation and Mrs. Charles Sargent, historian. Newly elected was Mrs. Talmage Sparks to fill the vacancy in the office of Registrar, created when Mrs. Edgar P. Smoot, former Registrar, was elected to fill the unexpired term of the office of president.

Following the brief installation ceremony for the two new officers, Mrs. Maxwell was presented with the past-president's pin and she turned the chair to the new club president, Mrs. Edgar P. Smoot.

Mrs. Smoot outlined her plans to continue the work as planned for the two year term of office by her predecessor.

She asked for the members to assemble as Departments for a brief meeting at which time, Mrs. Krieger, as program chairman, and Mrs. Norris, as budget and finance chairman, could talk with the groups about programs and projects for the coming year. The new president stated that the only major change in programs would be an evening banquet meeting next Spring with the Senior and Junior clubs participating. This idea was well received by the ladies.

Friday's meeting was well attended and according to the reports by those in attendance, it was a most enjoyable affair.

The session was adjourned by the new president, who wished everyone a pleasant summer and a reminder that the club will meet again on the first Friday in October.

MISS LINDA DIANE CRAVEY

It is a happy moment in the day, when we hear from our friends who have arrived home safely, including: the Leo Wagners, Forrest Wiedemans, Earl Amicks, Floyd Stevens, Linville Myers, (who extend "hello" to all their neighbors), and Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Miller. Welcome is much improved, and appreciated all the kind thoughts of their Fla. neighbors, during his recent illness. The Converses have also returned to their home in Ohio, safely.

Mrs. George DePoy returned here for a week to take care of business, and visited with all her friends. It was a pleasure to see her again and we hope she will return next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bland Nieukirk visited with the Gibbs in Miami for a few days, where they were entertained graciously, and enjoyed seeing the beautiful flower gardens raised by Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs. We trust her health will improve steadily, and soon they will be able to move into their new Mobile Home here in our community.

Departures for northern homes during the past two weeks were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Winterkind, Mr. and Mrs. John Blesser, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Copverse, Mrs. Ella Roenneberg, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coady, to whom we wish a safe trip and a pleasant summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longanecker were pleasantly surprised on Sunday by a visit from friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, from South Bend, Ind.

Though our many friends are absent in body, they are ever present in mind, as we anticipate reunion this winter, with its play, work, and meaningful association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora myers had friends, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Perkins from Vero Beach visit with them on Sunday and also Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Senger from Leisure Acres Mobile Home Park in Sebring.

SIMPLICITY IN CHRIST

"The simplicity that is in Christ." II Corinthians 11:3.

The business of living in this modern world has become increasingly complex and bewildering. We have heard men say that as soon as they could retire, they planned to buy a farm, move to the country and get away from it all. Actually what they are seeking is a more simple way of living.

The desire for a simple life is known to most of us. You will remember that St. Anthony, sickened by the worldliness and vice of great pagan cities, fled to the desert. St. Francis of Assisi left the life of wealth and led a little band of men into a kind of living that closely approximated that which Jesus had with his disciples. He became a friend to the poor and the afflicted. He loved all of God's creatures and referred to them as his "brothers." He would have loved the following lines.

"London's streets are gold-oh, give me leaves a-glinting
Midst gray dykes and hedges in the sun!
London's waters' wine, poured out for all unstinting -
God! For the little brooks that tumble as they run."

The Reformers sought for a more simple expression of Christianity. They sought to make plain the way of salvation by faith. In this they followed the lead of St. Paul. He thought that the essential thing in Christianity to be very simple: the surrender of the soul to Christ. For him the heart of Christianity centered in Christ and Him crucified. Being a Christian meant to put one's trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. Under his preaching many people had committed themselves in simple faith to the Redeeming Lord. Into the church at Corinth had come teachers stressing a different doctrine. They taught that Christians saved under Paul's preaching were only half-saved unless they submitted to the Jewish practice of circumcision and observed the obligations of the Mosaic Law. These teachers of strange doctrine were known in church history as Judaizers. Paul was greatly disturbed lest his converts be drawn from that simple trust in Christ which alone makes a person a Christian. He emphasizes again and again "the simplicity that is in Christ."

The simplicity that was in Christ becomes realized in the life of his follower. Paul meant of course: "The simplicity that ought to be in the hearts of those who love and trust and follow the Lord Jesus Christ, the constancy of an undivided loyalty to the Lord of all good life.

Think of the simplicity of the earthly life of Jesus. There was no luxury in his home in Nazareth. Yet into the simple home of a Galilean carpenter God's Son chose to come. Into a home where life had to be simply lived because of necessity. Tradition tells us that the garment he wore was a seamless robe made by his mother.

"Love had he found in huts where poor men lie,
His daily teachers had been woods and rills,
The silence that is in the starry sky,
The deep that is among the lonely hills."

Think of the simplicity of his speech. He talked the language of the people and they heard him gladly. He struck home to the deepest things in life in literary forms that were understandable.

The simplicity of Christ comes out in the men he called to be his disciples. They were not eminent Rabbis from Jerusalem nor honorable Counsellors. To the contrary, they were just ordinary men. One was a despised tax collector. At least six of them were fishermen.

There was only one personal question that Jesus asked of his disciples: "Lovest thou me?" There was only one command: "Follow thou me!" Ever since, all who have truly loved and followed him have made up his church. Simplicity and single-hearted devotion to the Master have been a paramount consideration in Christian discipleship from the beginning.

Let's go back to Galilee. In your imagination, walk along the shores of the lake that Jesus loved. As you walk, imagine that the overtakes you and slips his hand under your arm as he walks along with you. You fall silent for you know that he is reading your innermost thoughts. Somehow you gain the feeling that even though you have failed the highest, yet he believes in you. He makes you feel a confidence in yourself. He who heals the broken in spirit and draws them unto himself.

"Lovest thou me?"
"Follow me!"

Surely we can say with St. Paul: "Grace be to all them that love the Lord Jesus in sincerity." Ephesians 6:24. A heart that has found its rest in Christ. That is what you and I and the world want. And then to so live day by day that the world may take knowledge of us that we have been with him.

"To love somebody more dearly every day.
To help a wandering child to find his way.
To ponder o'er a noble thought, and pray.
And smile when evening comes.

To follow truth as blind men long for light.
To do my best from dawn of day till night.
To keep my heart fit for His holy sight.
And answer when he calls.

This is my task."

C. R. Hamm Speaks to Church Group Wed.

The Commission on Christian Social Concerns of the First Methodist Church sponsored a family night dinner May 3rd in Wesley Hall.

C. R. Hamm was the guest speaker. Mr. Hamm explained the work of Rehabilitation at the Avon Park Correctional Institution. The men are taught useful trades such as carpentry, plumbing, garage mechanics, gardening and many other valuable industries.

A factory is on the grounds at A.P.C.I. in which uniforms are made for all the penal institutions in the State of Florida.

The men work on hobbies and crafts and make many useful articles, which are for sale to the public in the gift shop.

Mr. Hamm also showed slides of the various buildings and views of the grounds.

Approximately fifty people were in attendance to hear his talk.

Ronald Runner Participates In USN Exercise

Fireman Ronald P. Runner, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Runner, of 204 E. Pine St., Avon Park, took part in the underway Naval training exercise "Blue Coral" off the southern California coast, as a crewmember of the guided missile cruiser USS Chicago.

Blue Coral, the second major fleet exercise conducted this year by the U.S. First Fleet, refined the techniques of surface-to-surface and surface-to-air warfare, as well as detection and destruction of subsurface craft. Some 21 air units and 25 ships participated in the week long exercise.

Pilots flew their carrier-based craft on bombing runs over a range on San Clemente Island. "Drone" aircraft were used as targets for the pilots in air-to-air rocket firing.

Participating ships trained extensively under simulated battle conditions using "hit and run" tactics to engage and evade the enemy. Once again, drone aircraft were targets for ship-to-air missile exercises.

Coffee League Banquet Held

The annual banquet of the Coffee League was held, noon Tuesday, May 2, at the Elks Club in Sebring.

New officers elected for the coming 67-68 season were: President, Gert Ford; vice president, Louise Grove; secretary and treasurer, Ruth Tomek; and seargeant at Arms Betty Heston.

The winning team for this season was the Hi-Lo's: Vernell Cravey, Louise Grove, Aris Albritton and Helen Slear.

The runner-ups were the Highland Hoppers: Gert Ford, Betty Heston, Delores Hurst, and Linda Koehler.

Scratch series trophy was won by Gert Ford. Scratch game trophy went to Louise Grove.

Handicap series trophy was won by Ruth Sechrist.

Handicap game trophy to Betty Heckard.

Louise Grove won the Hi-average trophy.

Mary Gans was the most improved bowler.

Ruth Tomek was awarded the best sportmanship award which was presented by Ridge Lanes.

Future Students To Meet With Teachers May 17

Next year's first graders will be given an opportunity to visit with the first grade teachers on Wednesday, May 17, at 1:30 P.M. On that day the parents of first graders for 1967-68 school term are asked to bring their children to the cafetorium to meet the first grade teachers and make a tour of the school facilities.

After the tour the pre-school children and parents will meet again in the cafetorium to be served refreshments by the school lunch staff.

It is hoped that all pre-school children can take part in this get acquainted tour.

Bowling Kings And Queens

by Ernie Andress

With the close of the regular bowling season it gives me a good deal of pleasure to look back on the four or five months of writing and listing scores. At times it was a little of a chore, like when league results couldn't be found, when it took three trips to somebody to give me the results of the Captain's tournament, when a few bowlers were annoyed when scores were left out, when the few times I scored well but didn't dare record them, but I enjoyed every blessed minute of it, even though there isn't any pay of any kind except the warm comments of so many.

As I stated in the March 16th column, I would not slight anyone on purpose and in the March 23rd paper I welcomed your criticisms and comments. This I think gave me the right to a little constructive criticism as I did in the column of April 27 concerning the Sportsmanship award. One person has taken me to the woodshed for my comments, but a true sportsman would define my right to give my views, though not in agreement with them. I am happy to drop the matter since comments and occurrences the past two weeks have borne out my opinions.

Two more leagues have completed their seasons.

Sandy's Market of the Frostproof Ladies League defeated Lee's Stanley Home Products in a roll off after the finish. Members of Sandy's Market were: Pam Rybinski, Kathy Ellis, Kay Andress and Louise Grove.

The Hi Lo's of the Coffee League finished 4 points out in front. Members were: Vernelle Cravey, Helen Slear, Louise Grove and Aris Albritton.

Avon Park and Sebring High Schools Placed In District 7, Class B

The Florida High School Activities Association tournament committee has completed a tentative listing of member schools in various districts for state high school football playoffs next fall.

The state has been divided into classes AA, A and B. Sebring and Avon Park High Schools have been placed in District Seven Class Class B. Other schools in the district include Fort Meade, Frostproof, Pinecrest, Mulberry, Okeechobee, Turkey Creek, Tampa Catholic, Arcadia, and Clearwater Central Catholic.

Floyd Lay executive secretary of the Florida High School Activities Association stated that there are likely to be additions or deletions or other changes before school begins in September.

The placing of teams in eight districts in each classification was made necessary when FHSAA member schools, through votes of principals, approved a proposal to extend football playoffs one game. This will help establish clearcut state champions in that top teams in districts will have to playoff for the right to gain a regional berth. The extra game also will tend to minimize the danger of ties for regional honors which existed in the past.

Lay declared that the tournament committee also added as a requirement for participation in the state playoffs that teams must play at least six FHSAA member schools to be eligible.

Avon Park High School commenced two weeks of spring football practice this week. A large turnout of candidates reported to coach Joe Franza.

Former Board Chairman To Head Scouts

Former State Road Board Chairman Floyd Bowen was elected president of the Gulf Ridge Council, Boy Scouts of America, during the council's annual meeting at Cypress Gardens.

Other officers named at the meeting were Fred D. Leavy, president of General Telphone Company of Florida, vice president; William C. Maclinnes, chairman of the board of Tampa Electric Co., vice president; Alfred Estes, of Winter Haven and Earl Newton, Lake Wales, also were elected vice presidents. Outgoing council president Parke Wright also becomes a vice president.

Retired Air Force colonel and former MacDill AFB base commander Joseph Martin, Brandon, was named Council Commissioner for the 1967-68 fiscal year.

Bowen has long been active in the Gulf Ridge Council and is the father of an Eagle Scout. He is former general manager of the IMC phosphate plant in Bartow. Bowen is also past president of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce.

Presently Bowen is serving as Director of Governmental Affairs, International Mineral and Chemical Corp.

Leavy is Chairman of the Florida Council of 100 and president of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce.

Re-elected treasurer of the council was Lewis Hill III of Tampa.

Four Girl Scouts To Receive Awards Sunday

At the 11:00 worship service, Sunday, May 14th, at the Union Congregational Church, four Girl Scouts will receive their "God and Community" award. This is the highest religious award that can be conferred on a Protestant Girl Scout for knowledge of and service to her church.

This Award will climax over 14 months hard work. There are 28 requirements for attaining this Award. A few of these requirements are:

Attend Church and Church School regularly

Daily "quiet hour" with Bible readin zongnorayer.

Know the religious background of America and the history of their denomination and the local church.

Understand the significance of Baptism and Holy Communion.

Be able to lead in prayer.

These will be the first girls in Avon Park to receive this Award.

Girls receiving this Award are:

Melinda Barben, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Robert J. Barben.

Roberta Newton, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. J. Welch Fisher.

Liliuokalani Newton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Welch Fisher.

Mrs. Wadell Presented Pin

The Eleanor Sevrons Rebekah Lodge held their regular monthly meeting Monday, May 1, at the Youth Center. Eighteen members and two guests attended.

Mrs. Mildred Wadell was presented with a 35-year pin by her Mother, Mrs. Cora Wray, who is a charter member.

Mrs. Wadell has filled every office in the Lodge and is past district deputy president.

The Lodge meets the first and third Monday night at the Youth center on the Wauchula road.

Veterans Plan

The Veterans of World War I Barracks 1150 of Avon Park, will hold their regular monthly meeting on Thursday, May 11, at 7:30 P.M., at the Civic Center.

The Ladies Auxiliary will also hold their regular meeting, at the same place and date.

All members are especially requested to be present so that plans may be promoted for 4th of July celebration.

All Veterans of World War I, even if you are not a member of Barracks 1150, are invited to attend our meetings. A social hour will be enjoyed after the business session.

THESE EIGHT GIRLS will be the "B" squad cheerleaders for the 1967-68 Red Devil sports season. Captain of the group is Joyce Strickler and assistant captain is Kathy Kirkland. Nazarenes To Attend Florida District Meet

The pastor and a delegation of members of the Church of the Nazarene in this area will take part in the annual Florida district assembly to be held at the Curtis Hixon Hall in Tampa on Monday and Tuesday, May 22-23.

Annual reports will be made by pastors of 113 churches on the district. These churches have a total of about 9,600 members and a combined Sunday school enrollment of 20,600 persons.

Dr. John L. Knight, Orlando, will give his annual message as district superintendent. He will outline plans for the 1967-68 year. District officers will be elected including district delegates to the 17th General Assembly to be held at Kansas City in 1968.

The presiding general superintendent will be Dr. Hardy C. Powers of Dallas, Texas, who has served continuously since 1944 in this highest elective office in the denomination.

The Church of the Nazarene has a world membership total of 432,000 persons, including a domestic membership of 363,000 persons. It is the largest Protestant denomination that stands for scriptural holiness in the Wesleyan tradition.

It maintains 620 missionaries overseas in 47 world areas.

International offices are in Kansas City, Mo.

Those representing Avon Park to the Annual District Assembly are as follows: Rev. James Lighty, pastor of the Nazarene Church, Avon Park, and Mrs. James Lighty, May 19-23rd as Church delegates.

Young Peoples Delegates, Mary Frances Kelley and Miriam Filppula. Missionary Delegates, Mabel Corwin and Mrs. Elliott, Sunday School delegates, Noel Scott, Manuel Smith, Joyce Simmons, Jackie Scott, and Ken Filppula.

The longest railroad tunnel in North America is in Washington's Cascade Mountains, in King and Chelan counties, and is about 8 miles long.

Columbus, Ohio, is the world's largest city named for Christopher.

About 10 million square miles of the earth's surface is covered by deserts.

Adults To Have Training School

A district training program for adults working with Boy Scouts is underway in Sebring. Sessions are being held each Tuesday, 7:30 to 9 P.M., at First Christian Church.

James Affuso of Sebring and Norman Cook of Avon Park are in charge of the seven weeks training. They are being assisted by Robert Hubbell.

The intensive study of new troop leadership techniques is for Scouters in any part of the Highlands district of Boy Scouts. Affuso said make-up work will be offered for men who begin the course late.

The class will not meet, Tuesday, May 23, because of a district Scout dinner program.

Listen, Chris, if they give you the boats and you go and you fall off the edge, don't come crying to me.

People who play it cautious seldom discover new worlds.

On the other hand, the 95 million adults who read the newspaper every day suffer from burning curiosity. They want to know what's new, what's better, what's going to change their lives.

If you're selling something that's new or better or can bring a little more pleasure into people's lives, turn to the newspaper reading public first. These are the people who've got their eye on the horizon.

HATE TO TELL YOU THIS, BOSSY, but you have bad breath. It's not that kitty minds the extra attention, but spring is in the air around Vincennes, Ind., and the aroma of wild onions can kill a romance in short order.

Largest Bell

Russia can claim the largest bell in the world. The "Tsar Kolokol," cast in 1734, has never been rung because in 1737 a fire destroyed its supports and, in falling, an 11-ton piece fell from its side.

IF THE DOOR ISN'T OPEN to the jungle, the next best thing is to come down the chimney. This soldier from the 25th Infantry Division rappels from a helicopter north of Cu Chi, South Vietnam, to seek out the enemy.

Net Debt

Tennis was introduced into the United States by May E. Outerbridge, who spent the winter of 1874 in Bermuda and saw the game played by British officers there.

Made By Revere

The bolts which fastened the timbers and copper sheathing on the bottom of the early American ship, the Constitution, were made by Paul Revere.

True, money can't buy happiness, but it can sure finance the search for it.

Shock is what you get when you see a summer resort and remember its ads.

INSTALL AIR CONDITIONING NOW!

The Modern Way With bryant

THERE IS A SIMPLE APPLICATION TO FIT YOUR BUSINESS . . .

Restaurants, apartments, banks, motels, churches, entire shopping centers and many more commercial and industrial establishments are being comfort conditioned with Bryant GAS Air Conditioning. More and more business owners realize the many advantages of providing summer comfort for their customers and employees.

The Bryant Gas Air Conditioner is reliable, simple to install, practically maintenance-free, economical to operate and the ideal answer to any commercial and industrial application whether it's for modernizing of existing buildings or for installation in new facilities. It is an air-cooled, remote water chiller which can be matched with Bryant furnaces, duct heaters, boilers or all-weather rooftop units for a quality, year 'round heating and air conditioning system. Or, it can be installed as an attractive package unit operating as a cooling only system.

These owners have selected Bryant Gas Air Conditioning knowing that they will enjoy the benefits of a quality system engineered for long life and peak efficiency year after year. Whether you're planning to replace old equipment, add air conditioning or build new facilities, don't make your comfort system decision until you have investigated the advantages Bryant GAS Air Conditioning offers you. Regardless of your heating and air conditioning requirements, from the smallest to the largest, there is a Bryant system, powered by gas, the low-cost, dependable fuel, to meet your specific needs . . . backed by factory-trained sales and service personnel.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

Abraham Lincoln and I share one thing in common: we were both born in a log cabin.

Of course, Lincoln's cabin was preserved and has been made into a kind of tourist shrine. My cabin crumbled into dust and has gone with the wind.

"Log cabin" was not mentioned in the English language until about 1750 when Swedish colonists came to America and built this type of shelter. The architecture caught on quickly, and log cabins sprang up all over these United States in varying sizes and descriptions.

Sometimes the logs were split with the round side turned outside, and sometimes the logs were left round. Often the cracks between the logs were chinked or filled with mud and grass daubing to make the cabin warm in winter. In summer, the chinking could be removed for ventilation.

The chimney to the log cabin in which I was born was made from clay and grass. After a heavy rain, it had to be repaired and sometimes practically rebuilt.

Modern tourist cabins are made from logs today, but they are quite different from those made by our ancestors. Practically all the cabins in Yellowstone National Park are made from logs, but they have indoor plumbing and they are made modern with electric outlets.

FIX-IT TIP

• To repair leaking lines temporarily, cut out the leaky section with a hacksaw. Join pipe ends with a piece of auto radiator hose and fasten securely with hose clamps.

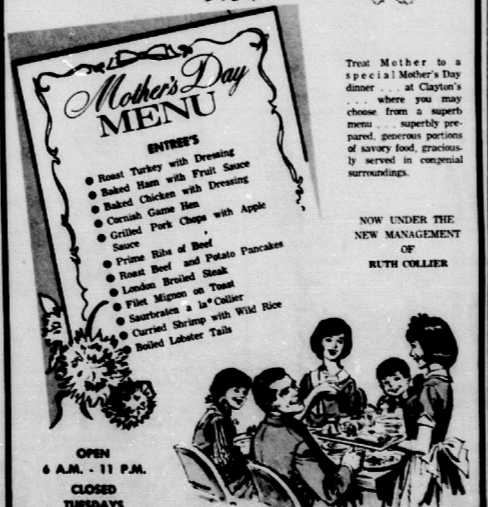

• Knife blades that won't become sharpened may have lost their temper. To restore temper, heat the blade over a gas flame until it is a dull red. Immediately plunge the blade into a large potato and let it cool. The knife can then be sharpened.

The recently formed Avon Park Golf Association drive to obtain 100 paid members entered into the homestretch this week as over $8000 has been deposited in an escrow account at the Avon Citrus Bank. President W. R. Reck of the association stated that by the end of this week it may be possible to reach the goal of 100 members and $10,000.

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce in a special meeting with the city council formulated plans to have the city lease the old Pinecrest Hotel Golf course from Col. Leslie Blankenship of the Highlands School. The council passed a second motion on May 8 giving the project a vote of confidence.

When the goal is reached the council will be in a position to lease the 18 hole golf course. After the lease is signed it will take six to eight weeks to renovate the 18 greens and get the course into shape for play. President Reck stated to the "Sun" that it is hoped that the course will be in operation by August 1. Mr. Reck further stated this is a project for local golfers but will serve as an attraction to bring people and business to Avon Park. It will attract new visitors, new residents, and possibly new industries to our midst according to Mr. Reck.

The other officers of the Association include Bob Young, vice president, and Aaron Cravens, secretary-treasurer. Other members of the board include Roy Kirby, Cecil Skipper, and Bob King.

It's Final Week To Buy Auto Tag

This is the final week for Highlands County motorists—and the rest of the driving public in Florida—to buy their 1967 license plates.

And for some reason this year, Highlands County drivers have been putting off getting tags. Which could mean there are going to be a lot of people rushing into the tag office at the last minute.

"Judging from last year's sales of tags in the county, we have close to 3,000 tags to sell before midnight Saturday," said Roland X. Droit, tag official for the county.

His office will be open Saturday until 5 P.M. this week, which gives the tardy ones an extra day to buy their licenses. Any Florida motorist without a 1967 tag will be driving illegally after midnight Saturday.

Anyone interested in joining may get further information from Bill Reck at the Avon Citrus Bank. As membership will not be limited to 100 members. They hope to have the 100 members signed up so that they can get the city council to take proper action at next Monday nights city council meeting.

South Florida Junior College Signs First Baseball Player

Beginning at home in an effort to rebuild its baseball team, South Florida Junior College signed Avon Park's Hoppie Rewis. Hoppie was a standout pitcher - shortstop on Avon Park's fine high school baseball team. Coach Terrell indicated he was wanting to sign Emmitt Money of Avon Park and Marty Gillian of Sebring. These boys are working through other offers and will decide soon as to their intentions.

We are delighted to have Hoppy and I know he will contribute a lot toward making SFJC one of the top Jr. Colleges in the state. We hope we will not have another disaster like last year when we lost three pitchers, a catcher and a shortstop on grades before the season began. We have a good nucleus from last year's team but we are looking for pitchers to bolster our depleated staff.

Also expected to sign is Ralph Starratt of Hardee High School, Wauchula.

Kindergarten To Present Program

The children of the Kay Whitcomb Kindergarten will present MISTRESS MARY QUITE CONTRARY at the Avon Elementary School tonight, May 18, at 7:30 P.M.

Special guests will be the 1967 APHS graduates who were members of the seventh Kindergarten Class of 1954-1955.

George Kelsey will present the Bachelor of Rhymes diplomas to thirty-one children.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Mayor DeLaney At John Hopkins

Mayor E. A. DeLaney Sr., received surgery Tuesday, May 16 at John Hopkins Hospital. Mrs. DeLaney and their daughter, Helen, from Sarasota are with him.

Cards may be sent to him at Halstad 3, Room 324, John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Md.

5154 Hunt At Avon Park in '66

A total of 5,154 hunters banged away at deer, turkeys, quail and assorted other wild game during the 11 days Avon Park bombing range was open to them last November, according to figures just released.

Which even on 107,000 wide open Highlands county acres is something of a crowd. Even with this mass assault, there was not something for everybody, as only 3,263 kills were reported.

But according to state figures, the "quail harvest" state wide was considerably better than last year. The seven state management areas, the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission reported 10,402 quail were "harvested," or shot this year, an increase of 4,350 over the previous year.

David Austin, of Sebring, who is in charge of the turkey and hog program for the commission, said hunters at the range a management area bagged 1,878 quail, 321 doves, 343 snipe (a migratory bird which darts and is hard to bag), 90 hogs, 49 deer, 121 wild turkeys, 310 squarrels and 89 ducks in the 11 day season.

Austin said these figures are accurate, because all hunters had to go through two checking stations of the fenced-in bombing range.

Highlands county hunters also go in numbers to the Fisheating Creek game management area in Glades county, a fenced-in 100,000 acres. The season there this year lasted from Nov. 13 to Jan. 1 and there were 6,136 estimated kills. Bagged were 1,604 quail, 275 turkeys, 36 deer, 1,200

County Teachers Approve FEA Stand

Highlands County teachers are backing Florida Education Association's move to invoke sanctions. A vote on the five-point sanction proposal was taken by secret ballot in a meeting of Highlands, Glades, DeSoto, Hardee and Charlotte teachers here Saturday.

Approximately 500 teachers attended the meeting which was presided over by Joe Ward of Avon Park, district director of the Classroom Teachers Department of FEA.

Results of the vote taken here—and in 25 similar meetings across the state—are being studied at the FEA headquarters in Tallahassee and an announcement on the outcome will be made when the FEA board meets Friday and Saturday.

Jack Ingle, who was installed last Thursday as president of Highlands County Education Association, said, "My personal opinion is that the teachers of Highlands County are realistically concerned with the lack of constructive progress in educational legislation and will overwhelmingly support their state professional association in whatever program is designed to better education in Florida."

Ingle said emphatically that the sanctions poll "did not include any action to indicate that teachers would not report for work or take unauthorized leave or in any way not fulfill their contracts."

Proposed Sanctions

The five proposed sanctions are as follows:

1. Public censure of governmental officials who are not supporting "appropriate" educational legislation — namely the FEA priority program.

2. Notification through national press and colleges that conditions in Florida are not suitable for prospective teachers.

3. Notification of out-of-state business and industries of the situation and encourage them not to locate in Florida.

4. National circulation to the teaching profession of conditions in the state.

5. Make it professionally "unethical" for any teacher not already employed in the state to accept a position in Florida.

FEA has drawn up a priority program which bears a price tag of $500 million. It includes funds to provide for a reduced pupil-teacher ration, increased salaries (Kindergarten through grade 12, $277 million and for junior college $25.8 million), released time for teachers for lunch and planning, textbooks and materials, and growth under existing law.

FEA is critical of both the $300 million program proposed by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Floyd Christian and the $250 million bill the Legislature is considering, but is even more fearful that Governor Claude Kirk will veto any legislation more generous than his own $186 million proposal.

Ingle said, HCEA had asked FEA to conduct a state-wide secret ballot before invoking any sanctions. No special meeting of HCEA is on the calendar at this time, Ingle said, but a meeting "probably will be called after FEA board has had its session this weekend."

Cancer Society Intensify Program To Save Lives

With its 1967 educational and fund-raising Crusade, the American Cancer Society is in the second year of a five-year intensified educational program to "save more lives from cancer now."

The program focuses on the detection and control of six of the most common sites of cancer—uterine, breasts, colon and rectum, oral, lung and skin—which account for over 60 percent of all cancer cases diagnosed and more than 48 percent of all cancer deaths.

H. W. Coleman, M.D., Avon Park Cancer Crusade Chairman, believes that "by marshaling the concern and intelligence of volunteers and the public during the Crusade, many lives can be saved from cancer."

"Emphasis on control of cancer at these six sites, now under intensified and broadened attack," he said, "Offers great opportunities for the saving of lives now—through prevention of early diagnosis and treatments."

Dustee Coleman estimated that about 97,000 cancer patients in the United States will probably die of the disease this year who might have been saved by earlier diagnosis and treatment."

By 1970 the Society hopes to:

. . . Persuade at least 75 percent of all women over 21 to have Pap tests, which could drastically reduce deaths from uterine cancer which now number about 14,000 a year. Uterine cancer can usually be detected at a stage when it is almost 100 percent curable, and it can often be prevented by correcting conditions that might lead to cancer.

. . . Have proctoscopic examinations included in the annual health checkups of 30 percent of the general public over 40 years of age. In 1967, cancer of the colon and rectum will strike about 73,000, and about 44,000 will die. Yet, a proctoscopic examination can enable the physician to detect this disease in an early stage when nearly three out of four patients could be saved.

. . . Persuade 50 percent of all women to practice breast self-examination and see a doctor once a year. This would save many of the 27,000 women who now die each year of breast cancer.

. . Reduce cigarette smoking among teen-agers by 50 percent, and among the general public by 25 percent, thus bringing about a marked decrease in the 82,000 deaths from lung cancer each year. Most lung cancers are caused by cigarette smoking.

. . . Disseminate wider information about skin cancer which now takes the lives of about 5,000 persons each year. Most skin cancers are caused by over-exposure to direct sunlight.

. . . Initiate oral cancer detection programs by 50 percent of the medical and dental profession, thus greatly reducing the estimated 7,000 deaths caused by from this disease. Oral cancer is usually easily detected and treated in its very early stage. Some oral cancer could be prevented by correcting conditions which might develop into cancer.

Dustee Coleman said that these are "realistic, realistic, achievable goals." Achieving them would mean a vast reduction in deaths from cancer each year, he said.

"We have to be realistic," he said. "Much to our regret, we have learned it is very difficult to motivate and persuade people to protect their own health. Long-established habits are not always easily overcome. You can give people the facts; persuading people to act is something else."

Rev. Dean Martin To Assume National Evangelistic Assignment

The Rev. O. Dean Martin, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Pinellas Park for the past six years, during a time when the church has grown into the largest Protestant congregation in Pinellas Park, will leave next month to assume a national evangelistic assignment.

Rev. Martin, 33 year old native Floridian will be one of 11 ministers traveling throughout the country in behalf of the General Board of Evangelism of the Methodist Church in the United States.

He will speak at city, county and statewide programs on evangelism while teaching "meaning and contemporary methods of evangelism" to ministers and will conduct youth evaluation courses for laymen.

His headquarters will be Nashville, Tenn., although his duties will require more than 100,000 miles per year and he expects to be home only eight days per month.

The appointment announced to the congregation last Sunday, was made by Bishop Henley at the request of Bishop Gerald Kennedy and Dr. Kermit Long, president and executive secretary of the general board.

His last service in the church will be June 4. His successor, scheduled to be in the pulpit the following Sunday will be announced by Bishop Henley during the annual meeting of the Florida conference in Lakeland, the last week in May.

"Leaving Pinellas Park was one of the most difficult decisions I have ever made" Rev. Martin said.

In 1961, Rev. Martin took a small newly organized congregation, meeting in temporary facilities and led to its present size of more than 900 members, with attractive buildings and grounds valued at $300,000.

Born in Allentown, Fla., in 1934, Oliver Dean Martin the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Martin, 205 S. Lake St., was educated in Avon Park High School, Asbury College in Wilmore, Ky., and Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta. He served in ministerial and youth evangelism roles in Kentucky and Georgia, before coming to pastorate in Pinellas Park.

He has held an associate status with the General Board of Evangelism along with his pastorial duties and also taken an active part in Pinellas Park civic affairs. He has also been instrumental in eliminating obscene literature from newsstands.

He and his wife Sandra have two sons, David and Jimmy. They were in Nashville this past week looking for a new home.

His religious background was rooted in his home life with his parents who are staunch workers in The First Methodist Church of Avon Park. His mother (Belle) can be found assisting or leading in all activities of the church.

Fifteen years ago, his mother started a rummage sale of articles donated by clubs, churches, schools and civic organizations, in a carport back of their home. She now has expanded this to six carports. From the sale of this rummage, 80 percent of the money collected is returned to the various organizations to help meet their budgets or used for charity. The commissions retained by "Belle" as she states, are for the "Lord and Myself." From her commissions she has created a scholarship fund, which she has recently named her Patti Hill fund, from which she has given four, two year scholarship funds of $150.00 each to South Florida Junior College. She recently donated $100 to the Library Fund for children's books and $100 to the Ridge Area Day School. In times of disaster by fire, illness, Belle is always supplying the necessary items needed, especially at Christmas time, she plans to help those in need. In her 15 years of selling rummage she has donated over $10,000 to charity.

Bare Backs Required

Advertising, which makes it possible for this newspaper to come to you for pennies instead of dollars a copy, is under attack in Washington. Assistant Attorney General Donald Turner has suggested that the government limit the amount of money a company may spend for advertising of any kind. The outdoor advertising industry in particular is facing a virtual death sentence imposed without court trial by a Federal agency, the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads.

The roads bureaucrats have threatened to cut off 10 per cent of the billions of dollars they give the states for highway construction unless the states enact billboard regulations that please the Federal agency. And it has become apparent that the only kind of "regulations" which will please these gentlemen are those which, by the Bureau's own figures, would prohibit 90 per cent of today's highway signs.

Both Republicans and Democrats on the House Public Roads Committee which wrote the 1965 highway beautification legislation are saying during current hearings that the Bureau's regulations are directly contrary to what Congress intended. The 1965 act specifically provided that the states should develop standards for controls in commercial areas, but the Federal agency is disregarding this and using its dollar power to impose its own will on the states.

The absurdity of men in Washington, D.C. trying to decide what is best for localities thousands of miles away is demonstrated by their proposed rule prohibiting billboards back to back. Instead, they would require the unattractive bare back of the billboard to be exposed. But come to think of it, Washington frequently doesn't seem to know the back from the front. We hope our representatives in Congress will set the bureaucrats straight. — Gadsden County Times

Our Senior Citizens

The month of May is being observed as Senior Citizens month by proclamation of President Johnson. The United States now has more than 21,000,000 men and women 65 years or older and their comfort and care in the Golden Days of their lives should be the concern of all. The day is long since past when "Grandpa and Grandma" could live with their children and grandchildren and be assured of food and clothing and shelter as in the olden days. The economic problem that faces most families of the younger generation should not permit this nor should the oldsters be subjected or penalized into living in surroundings foreign to their geriatric natures. But they are entitled to a decent living during their remaining years. Millions of them have only Social Security to help them and few of them have a total income that places them above the "poverty line" as defined by the federal government. We trust that the Congress will keep this in mind when it comes to consider the bill which the President is advocating for the betterment of conditions among our aged ones. — Winter Haven Herald

Old Problems

Troubles ignored, unfortunately, do not go away. An investment in apathy draws interest, compounded more frequently than semi-annually.

A case in point is the educational situation, not just in Florida but throughout the country. We are more interested in the Florida application because we are closer to it. We can be encouraged that we have a large number of persons concerned over our share in it, a large number of persons working to solve it.

As citizens, as parents, as educators we are seeking the complicated answers—there is no simple, single one. We are already part of the national problem; now we are trying to become part of the answer. — Kissimmee Gazzette

Monorail Proposed For Florida

State Treasurer Broward Williams hailed as essential and farsighted today a legislator's proposal for a monorail system paralleling Florida's interstate highways.

The Treasurer, long an advocate of this single-rail means of safe, rapid transportation, said something like this had to be done to "relieve the increasing congestion on our streets and highways."

Earlier this week, Rep. Vernon Holloway, D-Miami, chairman of a House subcommittee on mass transportation, said his group was studying the idea of using the median strip of the interstate system for high-speed transit such as monorail trains.

Treasurer Williams suggested that such a monorail system could link Florida's major tourist cities such as St. Augustine, Daytona Beach, Orlando, Cypress Gardens, Sarasota, Fort Myers and Miami.

This way, he said, visitors to Miami, for instance, could use the monorail system to visit other tourist attractions and leave their automobiles in Miami.

"We must do something," he said. "Florida is one of the fastest growing states in the nation. We have an average of nearly three cars per family now and the number is growing.

"Tourists are flocking to Florida by the millions. And the railroads are shipping private cars by rail so the tourists will have their own transportation once they arrive in Florida.

"We welcome these visitors; but we ought to make our thoroughfares safe for them as well as for our own people."

He suggested the Legislature establish a State Monorail Authority to pursue the suggestion.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Should Parents Never Spank?

Young people today are growing up in a world of confusion.

Contempt for authority is widespread.

On every hand, they are faced with new challenges to the accepted standards of conduct. They are urged to experiment with drugs, to abandon morality, to demonstrate for various causes.

What is demonstrated is, in many cases, that the demonstrators are immature and have not had the benefit of being well brought up.

Peculiar Advice

Now, a British educator, writing in an American magazine, gives his advice on how to treat children.

If you child taunts you by calling you names, he says, the thing to do is "join in the fun and call him all the names you can think of."

Is this designed to increase his respect for you?

The educator denounced parents who spank their children as "little people, hating people, cowardly people."

Spanking, he said, "is an outlet for adult rage and frustration and hate."

This man must have known parents who were quite different from those whom I have known. The parents I know love their children and do not like to punish them, even when they deserve it and need it.

What the Bible Says

But the Bible says, "Train up a child in the way he should go and, when he is old, he will not depart from it." Parents are responsible for the training of their children.

In these days, especially, children need the benefits of being reared by loving parents with a firm hand. And they need to be brought up "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord."

The British educator—whose views, by the way, are considered controversial in England—expressed the opinion that children should not be required to attend Sunday School and church.

Blow Against Delinquency

But J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, has said, "The parents of America can strike a telling blow against the forces which contribute to our juvenile delinquency, if our mothers and fathers will take their children to Sunday School and church regularly."

Parents who love their children and who are wise enough to know how to give them the right start in life will train them up in the way they should go, with confidence that, when they are old, they will not depart from it.

Offshore Water Pollution Costly Clean-up

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Although water pollution problems have received increasing attention in this country in recent years, most remedial programs have been directed at rivers and lakes and other inland waters.

Anti-pollution efforts along the seashore have concentrated largely on preventing contamination of beaches and bathing areas by sewage or industrial wastes discharged directly into the ocean or in streams flowing into the ocean.

Now, belatedly, the peril of offshore water pollution is beginning to get the national and international recognition it should have had years ago. This is pollution originating in passing ships, sometimes close to shore but often so far away they cannot be seen from land.

Discharges of oil are a principal source of pollution from ocean-going vessels, especially tankers, but there are additional forms of contamination, as when ships dump garbage and other refuse.

The recent wreck of an oil tanker off the English coast, resulting in the giant oil slicks that invaded beaches of Britain and France, focused world attention on the hazards of accidental pollution and this was underlined in this country by the oil discharge which menaced the beaches and wild life in the Cape Cod area.

But most pollution emanating from ships day in and day out, is not accidental. It is relentless fouling of the seas through the negligence, carelessness or indifference of ship owners, captains and crews.

This is a problem of particular importance to our state, because the Florida peninsula has the longest salt-water coastline of any of the states on the continent and because this coastline is invaluable both to ourselves and to our visitors, who make up a major asset in our whole economy.

The oil slicks that have hit beaches in New England and New Jersey in recent days, endangering wildlife and creating costly cleanup chores, are substantially more serious than usual, but can hardly qualify as anything new. Inhabitants and vacationers up and down the Atlantic coast have been aware of the problem for years, but complaints have not so far caused much stir in Washington.

But if the oil slicks on Cape Cod, including the National Seashore there, can arouse The Congress and the Administration sufficiently to take constructive action, then the present misfortune of Cape Codders may serve a worthwhile purpose for all of us.

Maritime shipping lanes are handling growing volumes of traffic. Effective controls of resulting offshore pollution are urgently essential, and the Government should demonstrate initiative and leadership in facing up to the problem.

Florida Parks Geared For Record Season This Summer

Tallahassee, May 2—Florida State Parks are gearing up for what promises to be a record tourist season this summer.

State Parks Director Bill Miller said a continuing improvement program underway throughout the park system will enable Florida's 50 parks and historic memorials to offer more recreational facilities than ever before.

Tourists in state parks this summer can expect new and additional camping, swimming, boating, picnicking, hiking and historical attractions.

This year's traveler will find three new parks to visit: Cape Florida on Key Biscayne, Gannon Rocky Bayou near Niceville, and Koreshan at Estero. The latter two of these parks offer camping areas.

Six other new parks are presently under development and scheduled to be open to the public during the summer. They are the Forest Capital Center south of Perry, Grayton Beach at Grayton Beach, Jack Island at Ft. Pierce, Ochlockonee River near Sopchoppy, Pahokee on Lake Okeechobee at Pahokee, and St. Joseph near Port St. Joe.

Forest Capital Center State Park will initially offer only picnicking facilities, but is planned to have a forestry museum.

Grayton Beach is a 356-acre park that will, when complete, offer swimming, family and youth camping, picnicking, fishing, and a boat ramp. The area includes pinewoodlands, fresh water lakes, sloping sand dunes and a mile of white, sandy beach on the Gulf of Mexico.

The 968-acre park at Jack Island is a tropical area surrounded by the St. Lucie River. This will be a preserve where huge flocks of birds and schools of fish can be observed in their natural habitat.

Ochlockonee River State Park covers 374 acres of a heavily-wooded land area, a honeycombed with small ponds, and bound on the north by the Sopchoppy River and on the south by the Ochlockonee River. When complete, it will offer camping, picnicking, and boat ramp and dock.

Pahokee State Park tops the Hoover Dike on huge Lake Okeechobee in an unusual recreational location. This 30-acre park will offer camping, swimming, picnicking, boating and fishing.

St. Joseph State Park, located on St. Joseph's Peninsula, covers 2,516 acres bordered by the Gulf of Mexico on one side and St. Joseph's Bay on the other. This is one of the most beautiful beaches in Florida. When complete, the park will offer camping, swimming, picnicking, a boat dock and marina.

Suwannee River State Park near Live Oak will offer swimming for the first time this summer, in a branch of the river made famous by Stephen Foster's melody.

Tomoka State Park near Ormond Beach has a new and unique museum featuring Indian artifacts from the area, as well as the art works of Fred Dana Marsh, who designed the statue of the Indian Chief Tomoke that is now the focal point of the park.

St. Andrews State Park at Panama City Beach boasts a restored "cracker" turpentine still, a vanished part of Florida's past.

There are night tours featuring the animals at Myakka River State Park near Sarasota, charter fishing boats for sea fishing at Bahia Honda State Park on Bahia Honda Key, golfing on a 9-hole golf course at Florida Caverns State Park near Marianna, scenic railroad tours on a miniature train at Hugh Taylor Birch State Park in Ft. Lauderdale—almost any type of recreation you can think of.

In other parks there are paddle boats, bicycles, fishing camps, snack bars, shuffleboard, tennis courts, souvenir shops, gorcery stores, boat tours, and a multitude of other offerings.

The state parks director pointed out that past records show the peak tourist season for the Florida park system to be from May through August each year.

Miller attributed the heavy tourist influx in these months to the fact that schools are not in session during the summer, resulting in "more travelers seeking fun in the sun in Florida."

With this in mind, Miller said more than 2,000 camp sites will be available in 24 state parks for campers this summer.

He noted that each camping area provides picnic tables and grills, as well as restrooms equipped with hot and cold water, showers, lavatories and laundry tubs. Most of them offer electrical hookups, as well as automatic washing machines and driers.

Additional information on state park facilities may be obtained by writing the Florida Park Board, 101 W. Gaines Street, Tallahassee, Fla.

squirrels, 50 ducks, 1,265 doves, 52 hogs and 1,985 snipe.

These figures are estimates, Austin explained, since all checking stations except one had been removed there this year.

"These stations were not effective law enforcement tools," Austin said. "Hunters rigged up gasoline cans with false bottoms and carried game out, things like that."

The one station in operation provided information, sold permits and weighted game. Seven commission men rode on horseback and jeep through the area doing random checks.

"The stations had been set up chiefly for biological data," Austin explained. "Turkey wing feathers, for instance, show age, and the breast feathers the sex."

Austin said the commisson has just finished restocking, with about 100 hogs added to Avon Park. No turkeys were put in, "since there is a good turkey population." No quail were added since "we did not feel it necessary to stock quail there. You could not hurt a population of quail by shooting them during the legal hunting season. There has been very little re-stocking of quail. Favorable weather conditions and a concentrated effort to improve quail habitat and hunting have contributed to a fast-growing quail population.

"It seems to us the game situation was a little better this year," said Austin. "We had a good hatch and it seems like the game population is up."

The commission men are working on turkey and hog research.

"We are trapping birds and other animals with drugs, which is easier on the birds than the old ways of drop door traps and cannon nets. The birds eat the drugged corn and go to sleep and we pick them up and hand them. Three turkeys now have little radios and we keep track of them through the radio signals. These turkeys are in Fisheating Creek."

John J. Sweet Indicted For 1st Degree Murder

A Highlands County Grand Jury comprised of 17 men and one woman returned a true-bill (indictment) of first degree murder against John J. Sweet of Foxboro, Mass., and Sebring in the brutal slaying last October of Charles Von Maxcy at his Sparta Road Sebring home. They deliberated two hours and 15 minutes before reaching its decision.

Sweet was represented at the selection of the Grand Jury by prominent Central Florida trial lawyer Charles Manley of Lakeland. It marked the first time in the memory of veteran courthouse officials that a defendant was represented by his lawyer at the selection of the grand jury.

Manley stated to the press outside the courthouse while the Grand Jury was in session that the was in no hurry to have Sweet arraigned before Judge William K. Love which is the next step in the case.

The Grand Jury docket revealed that Mrs. Irene Maxcy the widow of the murdered man and Charles Trulock, investigator for the Florida Sheriffs Bureau were the only two witnesses to appear before the jury. Mrs. Maxcy agreed to testify only if she was granted immunity by the court. Judge Love granted that request.

Judge Love appointed Haywood G. Taylor of Sebring foreman of the jury and Fred Davis of Avon Park as vice-foreman. Mr. Taylor appointed Joseph H. Stevenson of Sebring as clerk of the jury. The jurors selected will serve for five months.

From Avon Park those selected include, besides Davis, William Gene Selph, Stanley Mercer, Charles W. Marshall, and Henry Roland.

Those selected from Sebring include besides Taylor, Wendell S. Connick, John W. Bradley, F. D. Holton, Joseph W. Stevenson, and Denver Albritton.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor

I have recently been asked to act as Emergency Coordinator for Highlands County. I hope to contact every amateur in our county, so it becomes necessary to compile a list, from call books and the Florida Ham Directory. This Florida Ham Directory has most of us listed as being in another county.

The AARL through through the Section Emergency Coordinator, W4IYT Andy Clark, Miami Springs, hopes to see Highlands County represented in the Amateur Radio Public Service Corps (ARPSC), the Amateur Radio Emergency Corps (AREC) and the National Traffic System (NTS). This letter is an effort to determine if this is possible, and to explore the attitude and feelings of Highlands County Amateurs.

If the reaction is favorable a date will be set and I will arrange to secure the meeting room in the Court House Annex, and will notify all of you by mail of the date.

TALLAHASSEE DATELINE

By Rex Newman
Tallahassee Bureau

Tallahassee. There's a contagious disease which has hit the Florida legislature, one which normally hits it to a lesser degree.

This term is called the "Pratt Syndrome."

Some call it the "Myers Malady."

It affects the knee muscles and causes rapid jerking twitches which force the sufferer to his feet at regular intervals.

Then the hand, normally the right hand, grasps spontaneously for the microphone at the desk of each house member.

The lower jaw starts to flap convulsively and the tongue starts to wag, sometimes almost incoherently.

The result is a vast amount of verbiage about every subject, much wasted time, and very little illumination.

Many times the babbling nearly resembles wit.

Pratt is Rep. Jerome Pratt, D-Palmetto, Manatee County.

He has surprised most former members of the House in the severity of the attack. Myers is Ken Myers, D-Miami. He is running a close second.

The Florida legislature is farther behind at this stage of the game than any which old timers can recall.

Major legislation passed can be added up on the fingers of a single hand.

Democratic leadership is still floundering at least to the naked eye, and direction seems to many-faceted, rather than single-purposed.

The senate appropriations bill is coming out sooner than usual, but it leaves some major issues undecided.

It now appears that whether or not new taxes or sources of revenue are to be requested won't be decided until the waning days.

If the Florida legislature is finding there is a lot in California which it likes, apparently, There was the California plan for insurance. Then the California plan for handling state crime was heard from.

Then there was talk about the California campaign filing system for candidates.

Perhaps the Democratic leadership should seriously study how California Democrats handle Republican governors. They don't seem to know how now.

It was interesting to follow the Senate last week as it labored two days on the controversial bingo bill. It was bantered back and forth about the grandmothers playing it, the innocent, nothing wrong with gambling, etc.

A real motherhood problem.

The significance of the wasted time is that Attorney General Earl Faircloth has stated in more than one opinion that bingo is a form of lottery.

Lottery is prohibited, unqualifiedly, by the Florida Constitution.

Faircloth says you can't put bingo in until you take lottery out.

Consequently, all the argument is no no avail until the attorney general changes his mind, the courts rule it isn't a lottery or, it's taken out of the constitution.

That's where your money goes.

Gov. Claude Kirk in his first weekly news conference once again demonstrated his penchant for the word "total." It was used 12 times. In one sentence he outdid himself and worked it in three times.

Gov. Kirk also said he hoped legislators left their party labels at home when they came to Tallahassee.

He said his actions were "non-political." He pointed to the budget message which stepped on a lot of sacred cows as evidence of his "non-political" actions.

WISPS FROM WAGS: "Can you take politics out of politicians?

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Last week Charles Whitehead, introduced Tom Sheridan of Lakeland, an investment broker from allen and Company.

Tom has been with his firm for nine years, and has known Charlie since college days. He generously refused to divulge any scandal on Charlie, but presented the problems and opportunities of financing Florida.

In 1940, from a population standpoint, Flodida was the smallest state in the Southeast—today, population-wise, it is the largest in the Southeast, caused primarily by people investing in state located industries, specifically, our phosphate industry produces 25 percent of the world's supply, our electric, telephone and insurance programs have grown like wild fire.

Tom stressed (to the pleasure of the writer) Inter-County Telephone Company and the future from a growth standpoint and the risks involved in the independent telephone industry, and mentioned Florida Telephone Company, whose operating territory includes the 29,000 acres of Disneyland.

Tom pointed out that the most popular electric companies in the land compete all Florida operations, specifically, Florida Power and Light, Florida Power Corporation and Tampa Electric.

Stating further figures, which were far from boring, the Florida Chamber of Commerce reports that from 1960 through 1966 the telephone industry increased 70 percent, which compared to the nation wide increase of 30 percent, is outstanding.

Investments is a 20 billion dollar industry that invested money primarily in utilities and financial institutions.

One other investment possibility is the land companies, which do present more risk than utilities or banks.

In answer to the question, "What would happen if utilities had to comply with the law?", Tom answered, "In my opinion they are complying with the law." Further, and this was enlightening, Tom referred to the brokerage as the smallest portion of any money transfer.

In the writers opinion we could stand more programs of this nature as it developed that "Tom is extremely well versed in his business and consequently knows much about other businesses operating in our state.

Military Wives Meet; Pack Toys

Members of the APO Military Wives Club met at First National Bank to pack toys which members had collected. These toys were sent to three of the members' husbands for distribution: Capt. Richard Cassady for children at a Leprosy Hospital in Viet Nam, Capt. Victor Binkley for children at Kin Dong Village at An Khe, Viet Nam, and Lt. Col. Bernard Rhoades for an orphanage in Thailand.

The APO's also sent recording tapes and razor blades to Capt. Cassady for the 67th Evacuation Hospital in Viet Nam.

Plans were made for a covered dish supper on May 29. Members will bring favorite recipes to compile a recipe book.

District Boy Scout Dinner Tuesday, May 23

The Annual Highlands District Boy Scout Dinner will be held at Firemen's Field, Sebring, Tuesday, May 23, at 6:30 P.M. with a covered dish supper. Bring table service. Cold drinks and coffee furnished.

All boy scout troops and cub scout packs from this district will attend. The families of the scouts and the scout leaders are urged to be present.

The program of the evening will include introduction and installation of newly-elected district officers. The Order of the Arrow will conduct a tap-out ceremony. The various units will put on skits. The speaker of the evening will be a scout executive from the Gulf Ridge Council office in Tampa.

A special recognition will be given to the persons chosen as "Scoutmaster of the Year" and "Den Mother of the Year" from this district. Avon Park, Sebring, Lake Placid, Frostproof, Bowling Green and Wauchula comprise the Highlands District.

The Library Corner

Do you know what hydroponic gardening is? Or anything at all about it? The dictionary says "Hydroponics is the cultivation of plants by placing the roots in liquid nutrient solutions rather than in soil." Someone in Avon Park came looking for material on this subject and found it in our city library.

Captain of Honor is Allen Drury's third major novel. Mr. Drury, a Washington correspondent for 20 years, writes with skill and insight. He carries forward the characters of his Pulizer Prize-winning novel, Advise and Consent, and its sequel, A Shade of Difference. In Capable of Honor he adds a major character in Walter Dubius, a famous Washington columnist, whose views and prejudices have great influence on his colleagues in the communications media. He describes the way that men like Walter Dubius gain international fame and use it in attempts to sway both domestic and foreign policies of the United States.

In Advise and Consent (1959) we found the story of the nomination of Robert Leffingwell to be Secretary of State, the accession of the vice president Harley M. Hudson to the presidency, the successful Soviet manned landing on the moon among many of the important events.

In A Shade of Difference (1963) we read of the visit of the ruler of Gerotaland, Africa, with its explosive effects upon the racial problems in the U.S. and the U.N., and of the beginnings of the rebellion in Gerotaland which produces vital events in this novel.

Controversial and fiercely sateric are the fundamental questions facing America today. How justifiably or irresponsibly do the American press, the television, and the radio attempt to interfere with and control the political process, and the foreign policy of this nation? What is their right to do so?

Florida Invests $20 Million Of Work Capital

Fred O. Dickinson, Jr., Comptroller of Florida, today announced the investment of $20,920,000 of the Working Capital Fund.

"This investment, when it matures in November of this year, will boost the total earnings in interest of the Working Capital Fund to $2,120,788," said Dickinson.

The investment stems from Dickinson's authorization of the purchase of over $21 million in United States Treasury Bills which will bring a profit at maturity of $486,977 into the state's purse.

The Comptroller explained that $12,920,000 of the investment came from a recently matured previous investment. An additional $8 million was made available for investment with its return to the Working Capital Fund from the County School Fund to which it had been temporarily transferred, Dickinson added.

Similar transfers are frequently made in accord with constitutional and statutory provisions. As these loans are returned, unless there appears a need for further transfers, they are made available for re-investment.

Such amounts due to be paid back on or before June 30, 1967, will hike the total assets of the Working Capital Fund to $41,746,000 noted Dickinson.

Avon Park Relay Team Take Top Honors In State Meet

Avon Park's Red Devil mile relay team took top honors at the Class B State track meet in Gainesville last week winning with a time of 3 minutes, 30.1 seconds. Kenny Dixon finished second in the 880-yard run with a time of 2 minutes, 3 seconds, and Bobby Barben came in fifth in state competition in the 440-yard run with a time of 53 seconds to give Avon Park a total of 15 points.

The Devil mile relay was run by Earl Sims who sprinted the first leg, Bobby Barben on the second lap, Kenny Dixon on the third lap, and Harold Callaway who pulled the win out of the fire by coming from some 20 yards behind to over take two boys and win by five feet or so. Callaway, who had earlier been disqualified in the 100-yard dash by jumping the gun twice, took the baton from Dixon for the final lap and ran the 440-yards in an unofficial 49.9 seconds passing the Tampa Catholic and Clermont anchor men to win the final event of the meet for Avon Park.

The top four teams in the Class B — Tampa Catholic, Fort Meade, Clermont, and Mulberry—are the only four teams which have beaten the Red Devils this season and Avon Park defeated Fort Meade in a duel meet early in the track season.

Coach Fred Sandlin in his first year as head coach of the Devil cindermen had nothing but praise for his team. He complimented the six boys who won an opportunity to participate in the state meet and praised the other members of the team who worked hard this season to give the Devils a successful track record.

Three school records were broken this year. Callaway broke his own 100-yard dash mark of 9.8 seconds set last season by running a 9.6 second hundred this spring. Earl Cothran broke Tom LaFlam's mile run record of 4 minutes, 51.5 seconds with a 4 minute, 47.6 second time in the 1967 group meet. Leotis McNeil set a new 180-yard low hurdle record cancelling out Mike Furr's time of 21.6 seconds set in 1965 with a time of 21.3 in the qualifying round at the group meet this year.

Avon Park's Tom LaFlam holds the Class B state record time in the 880-yard run — 2 minutes, four tenths seconds — and Harold Callaway has run the fastest time in the state in the 100-yard dash — 9.6 seconds.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Tuttle Honored On 50th Wedding Anniversary

On Tuesday evening, May 16th, the family and the associates of Dr. Tuttle in the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ honored Dr. and Mrs. William N. Tuttle at a dinner party at Lake Byrd Lodge in recognition of the 50th anniversary of Dr. Tuttle's graduation from Union Theological Seminary, the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the ministry and the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

Dr. Tuttle was ordained to the ministry in New York City, on May 9th, 1917, and he and Winifred Mary Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Randall, were married on May 17, 1917, in Brooklyn, N. Y. Dr. Tuttle's father, Rev. Henry W. Tuttle officiated at their marriage.

Since 1951, Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle have lived here in the home which they built on the east shore of Lake Byrd in the spring of 1950. From 1944 to 1957 Dr. Tuttle was superintendent of the Florida Conference of Congregational Churches, now the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ. Since 1957, when he became Superintendent Emeritus, Dr. Tuttle has continued with the Conference as Registrar and Editor of the monthly Florida United Church News, which is printed by the Avon Park Sun press.

Prior to completing his seminary course, in the winter of 1914, Dr. Tuttle went to Fenchin, China, where he taught for two years in a private school for Chinese boys. Among his pupils was a young lad named Chou En lai who was then notable for taking the feminine parts in school plays.

Following their marriage in May, 1917, Rev. and Mrs. Tuttle went to Nashua, Iowa, where he became pastor of the Congregational Church, and had as a Sunday afternoon task the conducting of services in the "Little Brown Church."

During World War I, Dr. Tuttle was Y.M.C.A. Chaplain at Selfridge Field, Michigan. Thereafter he was pastor of Congregational churches in Lombard, Illinois, Walton, New York, and Lockport, New York, before coming to Jacksonville, Florida in 1944, to be Superintendent of the Florida Conference of Congregational churches, whose offices were in Jacksonville until they were moved to their present location on Lake Byrd in 1951.

Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle have two sons, Curtis R. Tuttle is a senior staff member of the Boston, Massachusetts, office of the U. S. Geological Survey. Henry W. Tuttle is pastor of Pilgrim Congregational Church, in St. Petersburg, Florida. Both sons and the wife and family of the younger son were here with them for this happy event. The older son, with his wife and daughter were here together in February visiting the Tuttles and the wife's father, Jay A. Noble, who also resides on Lake Byrd. Mr. Noble and also Dr. Tuttle's sister, Mrs. Herman L. Ellsworth, who lives next door to the Tuttles on Lake Byrd, were among the family present for the event, as was also Mrs. Harold Bosman, of Jacksonville, Florida, sister of the wife of Rev. Henry W. Tuttle. Other out of town guests included Dr. Wiley Scott and his wife. Dr. Scott who is pastor of Miami Beach Community Church had a part in bringing Dr. Tuttle to Florida.

Dr. and Mrs. Tuttle are members of Union Congregational Church in Avon Park, and Mrs. Tuttle was for many years active in the work of this church and of the women's association of the state conference. In Lockport, N. Y., with two young sons, and an aged mother living in her home, Mrs. Tuttle was active in the religious day school work of the church. The Tuttles have a host of friends in this state and across the country who wish them the best at this time.

Census Queries On Employment Now Being Asked

Questions about overtime work and earnings as well as about under employment are being asked of local households by Bureau of the Census interviewers this week, Director Thomas W. McWhirter of the Census Regional Office in Atlanta announced.

The information obtained through this supplement will provide data on the underemployed in addition to the usual monthly figures on total employment and unemployment. This information is collected through the Bureau's regular monthly Current Population Survey for the US. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The identity of the households questioned will be kept completely confidential, and the facts obtained will be used only for statistical purposes. The same questions will be asked of all households in the survey throughout the United States.

Census Bureau interviewers who will visit local households are Mrs. Christine Oates, 1104 Pasadena Ave., and Mrs. Marguerite S. Skipper, 3716 Highway 27, South.

Health Tips

Are the bugs eating up your garden?

Most insects can be knocked out with sprays, powders and other poisons, but the unwary gardener sometimes can suffer from the effects of bug sprays too.

Some tips on use of insecticides are offered in Today's Health, the magazine of the American Medical Association.

Read the directions on the container carefully and follow them. The manufacturer spells out the proper usage and safety precautions.

If the directions call for rubber gloves, protective clothing or goggles, leave this alone, unless you are an expert.

Store the insecticide in its original container, with original label, in a safe, locked comaartment, away from children and pets.

Destroy empty containers immediately.

Extension Home Economics Week Is May 21-27

It will be Extension Home Economics Week in Highlands County next week, and as County Commission Chairman Carl McIntyre proclaimed the week, Mrs. Imogene Ritenburgh, issued an invitation for interested persons to call at her office.

Mrs. Ritenburgh is the local Extension Home Economics Agent of the University of Florida and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

"Today extension home economics agents in 55 Florida counties work with homemakers and families, teaching them to manage finances, to lose weight, to make clothing for their families, to get the most from their time and energy, just to mention a few things," said Mrs. Ritenburgh.

She covers every field of home economics. She plans and conducts training sessions for volunteer leaders to help with home-related problems. She extends her teaching through meetings, special interest groups, home visits, radio, television and the newspapers. Those who need help and information with homemaking are invited to contact her.

Health Tips

If chemicals are spilled on skin, wash immediately and thoroughly.

Cover bird baths, dog dishes and fish pools before spraying. Pour left over spray down a drain or into the soil. Don't leave it around in pans or pails.

In case of accident, follow the directions on the container. If in doubt, call your physician.

Retired Persons Meet Tuesday

Highlands County Chapter 222 of AARP met May 9 at the Sebring Hotel with approximately 70 members and guests present. A. R. Lang president called the meeting to order. Rev. Wesley Smith led the devotions. Mr. Lang paid tribute to Winfield Sink who passed away suddenly last Saturday after returning home from the hospital on Friday. Mr. Sink was chairman of the program committee and was very active and interested in the local chapter and will be greatly missed.

John Roman, chairman of Sunshine Committee reported on visiting members who are ill and taking flowers to some who are in hospital, he asked that anyone knowing of any member who is ill to please phone either Mr. Lang or himself.

Clem Bowers reported that he had a note enclosed with the prescription from the AARP Pharmacy at St. Petersburg the past week in regards to a House bill No. 186 which would prohibit sending medicines by mail, this affects most of the AARP members. This bill was held back for study, but will quite likely be presented again under another number. A group of members from Chapter 222 attended a meeting in Tampa recently of The Sun Coast Council where this bill was discussed and the entire group went on record as protesting the bill. The highlight of the evening was a talk on Highway Safety by Sgt. G. W. Knutson of the State Highway Patrol which made the hearers more aware of the hazards of driving. He said that 52,512 were killed in highway accidents last year, 143 killed per day in Florida alone. Fifty percent of the accidents are caused by drunk drivers with Florida's staggering share, 67 percent.

Sgt. Knutson is a very effective speaker and a standing ovation was given him, with an invitation for a return visit next fall, which he accepted.

There will be no further greetings until Sept. 9, when an afternoon meeting is scheduled plus a picnic at the Highlands Shrine Club.

Sermonette

REV. HERBERT D. GRAETZ
Union Congregational Church

THE HEART OF THE FAMILY

"Honor thy father and thy mother." Exodus 20:12.

It is interesting to note that the Ten Commandments were inscribed on two tablets of stone of five commandments each. The first five set forth our duties to God, the second five listed our duties to man. "Honor thy father and thy mother" interestingly enough is in the first five. In other words, a mother and father are more than parents, they are co-workers with God. We find this idea expressed in Ben Hur in the observation: "God could not be everywhere, so He made mothers."

"When the biographer of Thomas Carlyle went over his papers, he found one of them endorsed: "My last letter to my mother." "My dear mother," it began. "Let it ever be a comfort to you, however weak you are, that you did your part honorably and well while in strength, and were a noble mother to me and to us all. I am myself grown old, and have had various things to do and suffer for so many years; but there is nothing I ever had to be so much thankful for as the mother I had. That is the truth which I know well, and perhaps this day again it may be some comfort to you. Yes, surely, for if there have been good things I have uttered in the worlds' hearing, it was your voice essentially that was speaking through me; essentially what you and my brave father meant and taught me to mean, this was the purport of all that I spoke and wrote."

We all are what our parents taught us to mean. Their words and deeds have influenced both our thoughts and lives. Such is the influence that the mothers of today are having on their growing boys and girls.

The early Christians were said to have held the world together. A mother in much the same manner holds the home together.

She is the childs' first teacher. Most of us learned our a.b.c's from mothers. She taught us to pray. She began our understanding of religion by reading us Bible stories. Eugene Field captured the tenderness and love of the mother teacher in the poem:

"As the shadows round me creep
A childish treble breaks the gloom,
And softly from the farther room
Comes 'Now I lay me down to sleep!'
And somehow with that little prayer,
And that sweet treble in my ears,
My thoughts go back to distant years
And linger with the loved ones there.
And as I hear my childs' 'Amen,'
My mothers' faith comes back to me,
Crouched at her side I seem to be
And mother holds my hands again."

It is said that a womans' work is never done. To an observer a great deal of it may seem to be drudgery. And yet there is a satisfaction in it and joy besides. Coblentz put the following words into a housewifes' mouth:

"Jesus teach me how to be Proud of my simplicity,
Sweep the floors, wash the clothes,
Gather for each vase a rose,
Iron and tend a tiny frock,
Keeping one eye on the clock,
Always having time kept free
For childish questions asked of me,
Grant me wisdom Mary had
When she taught her little lad."

I remember the day when the doctor told my mother that my sick brother would have to have constant attention, night and day, for some time. When he asked her who would nurse him, she replied: "I will." The doctor was about to remonstrate but was stopped short, when mother reminded him that the sick child was her son. Mothers have always been like that, ready to sacrifice themselves, if need be, for their children.

Charles W. Eliot, for many years the president of Harvard University, was born with a disfiguring birth-mark. At first it was difficult for his mother to accept. She schooled herself always to say: "He is my son."

Once young Charles was booted from Boston Common by a gang of boys. He had a strong fortress of love and refuge to which to turn, his his mother. He grew up, maturing physically and intellectually. Honor after honor was heaped upon him, finally he was elected to the presidency of one of Americas' great universities. His mother had every right to be proud to say, "He is my son!" Love and consideration had made the difference.

Edgar Guest said that it takes a heap of living to make a home. How true that is! This living, of course, includes you and me. We must work at it. It would be well if we determined to be joyous in spirit, patient, loving and strive to understand the wishes of other members of the family. We should pray God's blessing upon our home and ask Him to keep us Christ-like through each day. There is truth in the saying, "Families that pray together stay together."

In the family, no matter how things go as far as our opinions are concerned, we still can love. We suppose the three words "I love you" are by all odds the most important words in ones' vocabulary. The family holds, for all of us, the one value that has lasting meaning. It is truly our everlasting anchorage.

We should take to heart whatever our fathers and mothers have meant to us and caused us to mean to the world, especially our mothers.

Commandry Will Meet May 22

Harve Olsens Guest Of Bahamian Govt.

Mr. and Mrs. Harve E. Olsen expect to return to Avon Park this weekend after having spent the week in Nassau as guests of the Bahamian government and Nassau health agency heads.

Mr. Olsen, community field representative with the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program, had been invited to Nassau by Sir Ralph Campbell, chief justice, Supreme Court of the Bahamas, to spend several days on the islands as a special consultant on alcoholism.

A series of meetings was held during the week, beginning Sunday night with members of the Bahamas Mental Health Association of which the Lord Bishop of Nassau is chairman.

Other conferences were held with Dr. H. Podlewski of Sandilands Hospital where treatment for alcoholics is being practised; J. H. Bamforth, Esq., honorable secretary of the Alcoholism Committee of the Bahamas Mental Health Association, and others interested in the problem in the islands.

The visit of the Olsens in Nassau was arranged by Col. William Paul Youngs (U.S. Army ret.) who is a member of the Bahamas Mental Health Association.

Per Capita Income Increase Six Per Cent

The per capita personal income of Floridians stood at $2,756 last year, 6 per cent over 1965, but slightly below the comparable national average gain, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce reported in its Weekly Business Review released yesterday.

"Personal income is the sum of wages, salaries, income from rents, royalties and dividends, business proprietors' income and payments made to retirees. The per capita figure is derived by dividing total personal income by the number of residents of the state.

Per capita income is one measure of the wealth of the people of an area. The national average figure was $2,940 last year.

"During the 15 years, 1951 through 1965, Florida's per capita income increased about 90 per cent and the national average moved up about 80 per cent.

"Though Florida's gain was impressive, United States Department of Commerce studies show that other states have not been standing still. It a fact, but hard to believe that in 30 out of the 50 states the per capita income was higher last year than in Florida. Fifteen years ago Florida ranked not much worse for it was in 34th position then.

"One, but not the only, reason for Florida's low rank is the presence of a relatively large number of low-income retirees in the state. To overcome this and to improve the state's position, Floridians are going to have to work much harder."

Ministers To Discuss Inter Church Work

The supper meeting sponsored by the Avon Park Ministerial Association to discuss inter church work among underprivileged children has been postponed from May 23, to May 25 at the Methodist Church. 7 p.m., $1, 25 each.

The clergy of the area are asked to bring one or two lay people to discuss this problem.

The health department and other social agencies are expected to be presented too.

Judge Hunt from Polk County will speak.

Highlands County Education Assn. Pay Tribute To Retiring Members

The Highlands County Education Association, in moving and impressive moments, paid tribute to 2 retiring members of the profession last Thursday. Miss Esther Ridder of Sebring Woodlawn Elementary and Mrs. Patti Hill of Avon Park High School were honored in the associations last meeting of the year.

Miss Ridder, who has completed 30 years of service—44 in Highlands County, received letters of commendation from Harold Howell, Commissioner of Education; a resolution from the Highlands County School Board; Braulio Alonzo, president-elect of the National Education Association; a proclamation from Sebring Mayor J. A. Butler, and from Governor Claude Kirk.

Certificates of appreciation from devoted service to education were presented to Mrs. Patti Hill and Miss Ridder. A check to the Patti Hill Scholarship Fund of Avon Park was presented by co-chairmen Doris Everett and Marie Anderson from the association. A gift certificate was also presented to Miss Ridder.

John Arnold, President-elect of the Fla. Education Association brought greetings from the FEA and stated that Miss Ridder was one of only 34 teachers in the state who had completed 30 years of service to education and that her influence had reached far and wide through the children she had taught.

Mrs. June Pittenger of the Florida Education Association staff installed the officers of the HCEA for 1967-68.

President, Jack Ingle; vice president, Jimmie Moore; second vice president, Ann Karrick; treasurer, Norris T. Brooks; Sec., David Sechrist; chairman classroom teachers, Carl Harner; chairman principals group, Billy Cason.

The many friends of Mr. Howard Kellogg extend their sympathy to his wife, Mrs. Howard Kellogg in her sorrow, due to his death last week and to his family. The interment was in his northern home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglas are the latest ones to depart for the wet north. We do hope they have a safe trip and find the perfect weather when they arrive in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Longaneckes enjoyed a week-end visit with their son Donald and his wife, Martha in Ocoee. They also attended the wedding of a friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hulse took a trip to West Palm Beach for a visit to a doctor and pleasure, weather permitting. They are not yet fully recuperated from the effects of their accident, so will remain here for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cook enjoyed a weekend camping and fishing at Ocala national Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coulson are having a much needed vacation at St. Petersburg this week, relaxing and enjoying the company of Kay's brother, Gerrald and his wife, Kay, who visited here with them, last week.

We are sorry that our friends in the north are having such unpleasant weather, as their correspondence indicates, and hope that it levels off to a normal status, soon. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McBeth are safely home, but no fishing enjoyed by Bob, so far. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott are back home in Indiana after a visit with their grandson in Nashville, Tenn.

Robert Hasson Takes Third Place In Contest

Robert J. Hasson, 805 North Delaney Ave., Avon Park, has been notified that he is third place winner in the international contest for original poetry submited by blind and visually handicapped individuals.

"My Dad" appeared in the Christian Record Talking Magazine, first quarter, 1967, which has the largest circulation of talking magazines in the world.

The award is known as the Madelyn Arrington Memorial Award and is given by Ways and Means for the Blind, Inc., of Augusta, Ga., and administered by the Christian Record Braille Foundation, Inc., which provides all free publications for blind and visually handicapped persons throughout the world, including a great many individuals in our own state.

Headquarters of the Christian Record Braille Foundation, Inc., are at 4444 South 52nd Street, Lincoln, Nebraska, 68506. Since 1899 this organizatin has produced more free services for blind people than has any other nongovernment supported institution in the world. Its tangible services now are in the form of Braille, records, tapes and very large print.

The Foundation prepares and distributes nine magazines, thousands of books, many correspondence courses and several special items and is a leader in research, bringing out many new types of services.

The Foundation operates lending libraries; makes thousands of personal visits in the homes of blind and visually handicapped people each year; provides scholarships to blind youth; brings "story time" into the homes of blind parents who choose to rear their sighted young children; and performs many personal services, such as reading to blind persons their mail which has accumulated and then writing letters for them; taking blind people for walks or shopping or for rides in the country; getting them busy with jobs, hobbies, social contacts and recreation—in general, motivating them to activity, helping them to feel that they are loved and wanted in their communities.

Support for this large nonsectarian work is provided by contributions of individuals and organizations and by thankful people who name the Foundation in their wills, trusts or insurance policies.

Mr. Hasson moved to Avon Park, two years ago from Salem, Ohio. He lost his sight as the result of a stroke. He keeps active by working in his yard and planting flowers and caring for them.

He is now undertaking a new business of making white canes for the blind. With the help of the Florida Council for the Blind, he has started on this new venture and has received his first order for 5 dozen.

He has many interests beside his poetry, he loves music and spends much time listening to records. he learned to type after he lost his sight, 2½ years ago, which was no easy task since his right hand was affected by the stroke, this is the way he keeps up with his correspondence.

He is married has 5 wonderful children, a daughter and four sons—two of them in the navy. He is active in the Avon Park Band Association and a member of the Union Congregational Church of Avon Park.

Gus Bennett Post Install New Officers

The Gus Bennett Post No. 4319 Veterans of Foreign Wars installed new officers the evening of May 15 at Sun Ray Community Hall.

Past Department Commander, Phil Holt of Lake Wales, installed the officers elect and he gave a short constructive speech on Veterans programs.

The other dignitaries present were: Past District 4 Commander, Don McCann; District 4 Sr. Vice Commander Elect, Lester Cone; and District 4 Chaplain, Charles Stegall, all of Lake Wales.

The newly installed officers were: Stanley Croft, Commander; Ed Verville, Sr. Vice Commander; Wm. Baxter, Jr. Vice Commander; Harry Toops, Chaplain; Wm. H. Caswen, Quartermaster; Wm. Schumacher, Adjutant; Tom Scanlon, Trustee; Waldo Tennant, Trustee; Wayne Albright, Trustee; Jack Troici, Judge Advocate.

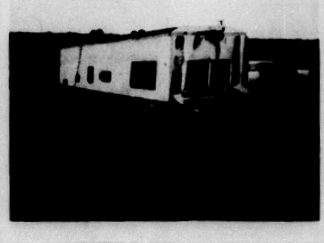

After the installation Commander Croft made an inspiring speech. After the installation an enjoyable party was held. Bill Cleaven was chairman of the refreshments.

Henry L. Rich Receives Army Promotion

Henry L. Rich, 19, son of Mr and Mrs. John D Rich, Route 1, Avon Park, was promoted to Army private pay grade E-2 upon completion of basic combat training at Ft. Dix, N. J., Apr. 13.

The promotion was awarded two months earlier than is customary under an Army policy providing incentive for outstanding trainees.

As many as half the trainees in each training cycle are eligible for the early promotion, based on scores attained during range firing, high score on the physical combat proficiency test, military bearing and leadership potential.

During advanced individual training, also of eight weeks duration, those who received early advancement to E-2 may be eligible for another "accelerated" promotion, to E-3 (private first class).

More Citrus Harvested Than '66 Crop

As an indication of the size of the current Florida citrus crop, more oranges and grapefruit have been harvested to date than were utilized in all of last season.

The Florida Citrus Commission reported today that totals compiled through Monday show 98,500,000 boxes of oranges and 36,500,000 boxes of grapefruit have been processed or shipped as fresh fruit. These figures represent 99 per cent of the crop estimate for oranges and 94 per cent of the expected grapefruit harvest.

Last season, the final figures were 95,500,000 boxes of oranges and 33,140,000 boxes of grapefruit.

A breakdown of this season's harvest shows 67,000,000 boxes of oranges used in processing and 10,000,000 boxes moved as fresh fruit. For grapefruit, 23,000,000 boxes have been processed and 13,500,000 boxes shipped into fresh fruit channels.

Survivors include his wife, Zeola, two sons, Carl E., Portsmouth; Arnold E. Tampa; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth K. Bailey, Baltimore; four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services and interment will be in Wheelersburg, Ohio.

Local arrangements were handled by Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home.

Margaret Barr Of Sun Ray Died Sunday

Miss Margaret Barr of Sun Ray Homes, Frostproof passed away Sunday after a long illness. Born in Motherwell, Scotland, Miss Barr had been a resident of Polk County for three years, coming from Newark, N. J.

She was a retired dress maker, a member of the Presbyterian Church and Eastern Star in Toronto, Canada.

Survivors include two brothers, James Barr, Frostproof, Thomas Barr, Motherwell, Scotland; two sisters Mrs. Fred Brock, Hensall, Canada, Mrs. William Bedford, Sebringville, Ontario, Canada.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 3 p.m. in the Chapel of the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Walter Cross officiating. The remains will be cremated at a later date.

William Scott Serving In Vietnam

Constructionman William J. Scott, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cary L. Scott of Route 1, Avon Park, is a "Navy Seabee" in Vietnam, building bridges, paving airstrips, and even rebuilding enemy-destroyed villages.

As a member of Naval Mobile Construction Battalion Four, a based near Da Nang, his jobs are many and varied. At any time, he may have to drop his tools, and pick up weapons to defend what he is building, or protect a friendly Vietnamese village.

The enemy is active, often destroying in short order what the Seabees have recently constructed. Thus, he rebuilds and rebuilds, as well as erects new structures and accommodations.

When not deployed overseas, Mobile Construction Battalion Four is homebased at Port Hueneme, Calif.

CAPT. ROBERT JONES, Marine Reserve Center Tampa, presented Mrs. Stanley Planeta, mother of Edward Cannon recently killed in Vietnam, with the Purple Heart, National Defense Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal and Service Ribbon, and Gold Star Button, for Cannons Service to the United States. Shown left to right: Sp/4 Joseph McCullough, Mrs. Planeta and Capt. Jones.

Everett Dahm Died Sunday

Mr. Everett S. Dahm, age 79, passed away Sunday after a long illness. Born in Albany, N. Y. he had been a resident of Avon Park for seven years.

He was a retired contractor. Survivors include, one son, Everett Dahm, Jr. Albany; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Shea, Avon Park and Mrs. Elnare Schoats, Albany; three brothers, Frank, George and Joe, all of Albany; one sister, Agnes E. O'Brian, Albany, N. Y.

Funeral services will be held today at 2 p.m. in the Chapel of the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home with Rev. Lester Miller officiating. He will be laid to rest in Bougainvillea Cemetery.

Mr. L. Sundgren Died Friday

Sgt. Alvin Farless Receives Award In Iceland

Technical Sergeant Alvin Farless, son of Mrs. H.M. Farless of 20 E. Thomas St., Avon Park, has earned the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award at Keflavik Airport, Iceland.

Sergeant Farless, an air armament techinician, received the award as a permanent decoration for helping the 57th Fighter Interceptor Squadron achieve an exceptionally meritorious rating during the period April 1, 1964, through April 1, 1966.

The 57th and its personnel were specifically cited for overcoming the handicaps of isolation and severe weather to record their third consecutive year of accident-free flying. Their long flights over Arctic waters also helped provide vital data for the USAF.

The sergeant, a graduate of Savannah (Ga.) High School, served during the Korean War.

His wife is the former Elizabeth F. Davidson from Scotland.

Women Needed For Aerospace Technical Jobs

Sergeant Paul Smith, local U.S. Air Force recruiter, this week announced that more Women in the Air Force (WAF) are needed to fill highly technical jobs on the aerospace team.

"The role of war in our country's defense is becoming more vital than ever before," said Sergeant Smith. "They now perform in more than 100 different specialityis."

Young women between the ages of 18 and 27 who are high school graduates are eligible. Then they must qualify on a mental test and physical examination before their application is forwarded to a selection board.

WAF are assigned to 28 Air Force bases in the United States and they serve overseas in England, Germany, Hawaii and Italy.

For more information without obligation, on the WAF program, contact Sergeant Smith at 124 S. Tennessee Ave., Lakeland, or telephone 682-8857.

TOLL FREE TRAVEL SERVICE

Try Camaro—"The Hugger"

Camaro hugs a road closer, straightens a curve easier because it's the widest stance sportster at its price. It's lower, heavier, too...big-car solid and steady. You get a better ride, more precise handling for your money. Ask any Camaro owner, he'll tell you.

Now, during the Camaro Pacesetter Sale, you also get special savings on specially equipped sport coupes and convertibles. Save on all this: the 250-cu.-in. Six, whitewalls, wheel covers, bumper guards, wheel opening moldings, body striping, deluxe steering wheel, extra brightwork inside. And, at no extra cost during the Sale, get a floor shift for the 3-speed transmission and the sporty hood stripe! Compare Camaro. See your Chevrolet dealer now. (Sale savings, too, on specially equipped Fleetside pickups, Model CS10934.)

FIX-IT TIP

● It is generally not necessary to thin paint any more, but when it is needed, be sure to carefully follow thinning directions on the label. Use a large mixing pot and thin down only the amount of material which is to be used at once. Most paints have the required amount of thinner in the paint formula, according to the National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, so you should never try to overthin or "stretch" your paint.

● Dry yellow ocher mixed with boiled linseed oil forms a durable putty for patching eaves' troughs and metal roofs.

Look, George, I didn't trade the best years  of my life for a bunch of army brats and a quonset hut in Valley Forge.

That's the way newspaper readers are: they want more out of life. And if you have something to sell, try newspaper readers first.

Just about every family with an income over $5000 a year reads the newspaper every day. And as income and education go up, newspaper readership climbs to 95%.

Also: the newspaper isn't just something people read on their way to work. In fact, 90% of newspaper reading is done at home — where the husband and wife can put their heads together on big-ticket purchases.

Reach is the thing with newspapers. Whatever you sell, big-ticket or small, your best prospects are the 95 million adults who turn to the daily newspaper for all the things that can brighten their lives.

Bone Fire

"Bonfire" actually was derived from the words "bone-fire," so-named in 16th-century England because martyrs' bones were burned in large fires.

Free of Bugs

Iron beds first appeared during the 18th century. Early advertisements recommended them as being free from insects which sometimes infested wooden bedsteads.

Early Bowlers

Stone age artifacts indicate that early men and boys played some sort of bowling game in which large pebbles and rocks were rolled at pointed stones or sheep joints which served as pins.

INSTALL AIR CONDITIONING NOW!
The Modern Way With bryant

THERE IS A SIMPLE APPLICATION TO FIT YOUR BUSINESS . . .

Restaurants, apartments, banks, motels, churches, entire shopping centers and many more commercial and industrial establishments are being comfort conditioned with Bryant GAS Air Conditioning. More and more business owners realize the many advantages of providing summer comfort for their customers and employees.

The Bryant Gas Air Conditioner is reliable, simple to install, practically maintenance-free, economical to operate and the ideal answer to any commercial and industrial application whether it's for modernizing of existing buildings or for installation in new facilities. It is an air-cooled, remote water chiller which can be matched with Bryant furnaces, duct heaters, boilers or all-weather rooftop units for a quality, year 'round heating and air conditioning system. Or, it can be installed as an attractive package unit operating as a cooling only system.

These owners have selected Bryant Gas Air Conditioning knowing that they will enjoy the benefits of a quality system engineered for long life and peak efficiency year after year. Whether you're planning to replace old equipment, add air conditioning or build new facilities, don't make your comfort system decision until you have investigated the advantages Bryant GAS Air Conditioning offers you. Regardless of your heating and air conditioning requirements, from the smallest to the largest, there is a Bryant system, powered by gas, the low-cost, dependable fuel, to meet your specific needs . . . backed by factory-trained sales and service personnel.

In the News

PHILOSOPHER Bertrand Russell, an opponent of war since the days of World War I, voiced his disapproval of U.S. action in Vietnam with a war crimes tribunal in Stockholm, Sweden, accusing the United States of war crimes in the Asian conflict. The British lord has been in the news frequently in recent years as an outspoken critic of U.S. nuclear policies as well.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

If you have ever observed wild ducks in flight, you know that they follow the leader at the vertex of their V-shaped formation. Seldom is a bird out of formation. If it is, you can be sure that it has been wounded in some way, and is lame.

Observing this fact, "lame duck" was a term applied at the stock exchange in England to a jobber who could not, or would not, pay his losses and thus stay in the flight of speculation. When the jobber failed to pay up, he was said to "waddle out of the alley like a lame duck."

In America, "lame duck" is an expression used in politics to refer to the holder of public office who has not been re-elected.

The 20th Amendment to our Constitution was passed in 1933 to eliminate "lame ducks" from sitting in the new Congress. Prior to the amendment's passage, our president was inaugurated on March 4, following his election in November, but congressmen elected in November had to wait 13 months, or until December of the following year, before they could be seated.

Chamber Urges Residents To Attend Meeting

There will be a public hearing scheduled by the Florida Public Service Commission for Friday June 2, 1967 9 A M in Avon Park for the purpose of receiving testimony which will enable the Commission to determine whether or not it should revoke the authority grantee to SALRR to discontinue conditional stops for its streamliners, Silver Meteor and Silver Star.

This hearing will be held in the Council Chamber in the City Hall, Avon Park.

All interest parties will be given the opportunity to be fully heard.

The Chamber feels this is of great importance to Avon Park and the surrounding area. They urge all interested citizens to make every effort to be present at this hearing.

Council to Negotiate For Golf Course

In one of the most heated City Council sessions in the history of Avon Park, Councilmen on a motion by Durrah Martin and seconded by Andrew R. Scott, voted by a 3 to 1 margin to go ahead with plans to lease the old Pinecrest Country Club golf course from the Highlands School for Girls, current owners of the course. Councilman Wayne Albright cast the only dissenting vote.

Avon Park Golf Association President William R. Reck in his report to the Council stated that currently there are 108 paid up members of the Association. The Council at a previous meeting had made a deal with the local Chamber of Commerce and the Avon Park Golf Association that when 100 members had subscribed or that $10,000 was in the local bank that the Council would then upon being notified would start negotiations between the Council and Col. Leslie Blankenship owner of the school. Also Mr. Reck reminded the Council that a contract would be drawn up with the Avon Park Golf Association to operate the course and for maintenance of it.

Mr. Reck pointed out that many of the pro golfers who played the Pinecrest course several years ago during the Haig and Haig Golf Tournament consider it a top notch championship golf course and it will not take much effort to bring it back to championship standards. Mr. Reck further commented that a golf course will help the city of Avon Park because with no golf course transients have gone to other nearby areas and a golf course adds to the economy of the area by helping to bring new business ventures and new visitors.

Mrs. Richard Ward, secretary to Councilman Wayne Albright stated that people both for and against the golf course had contacted her boss regarding the subject. She stated that several people had contacted Mr. Albright about starting a petition to place the subject on a referendum ballot. Mrs. Ward commented that Councilman Albright did everything possible to discourage such a petition.

Mrs. Ward stated to the "Sun" that Mr. Jack Keppes paid her $4 to type up the petition that is currently being circulated to petition the Council to have a referendum election on the subject. She further stated that Mr. Keppes owns a local caretaking grove firm and owns extensive real estate property in the city of Avon Park.

Councilman Albright as Chairman of the Finance Committee stated that when he was given a budget, he was told the city couldn't live with it. He stated that he spent $40 out of his own pocket on phone calls to various other cities checking on how cities such as Mulberry, Bartow, DeLand, Sanford, Kissimmee and Arcadia. He indicated that Sebring, Arcadia and now Avon Park are the only ones with municipal golf courses.

Mr. Albright pointed out that last year the City lost $16,000 on garbage pickup and would lose a similar amount this year. He went on to say that the city has run out of funds for street projects in the current fiscal budget. Last month several youngsters were injured in automobile accidents near the elementary school. He stated that several people inquired about the possibility of caution signs being put up near the school, but were informed by another councilman according to Mr. Albright that there were no funds in the current budget for the erection of the signs. But that they would be put up by the time school reopens in the fall. These are some of the arguments put up before the Council and the large crowd by Councilman Albright.

Jack Duggan who was President Pro-Tem of the meeting because Council President Clarence King was at the meeting in the capacity of Acting Mayor. As Mayor E. A. DeLaney is hospitalized at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore. Councilman Duggan stated that he checked with Sebring City Clerk Jack R. Stroup and that Mr. Stroup revealed to him that the Sebring Municipal Golf course had estimated expenses to the present time of $39,159. Of this figure $23,000 went for salaries of a greenskeeper and five regular employees. Revenues from greens fees amounted to $13,465 and membership fees were $24,571. A grand total taken in of $38,036, leaving a deficit of less than $1000. Mr. Duggan stated further that Sebring still has plenty of time to make up the deficit.

Other comments voiced at the meeting include:

County Commissioner Cecil Skipper pointed out that many people who considered living in Avon Park built or purchased homes in Sebring because of the proximity to the Sebring Golf courses. He pointed out that the Sebring City Council two years ago had faith in their course to invest $40,000 in an irrigations system for the course.

Richard Ward stated that the City cannot afford to pay money for the course simply because they cannot afford to pay City Police and Firemen decent wages. Councilman Jack Duggan told Mr. Ward that last year the police and firemen were given 5% across the board raises and possibly they will be granted another raise in the next fiscal year.

Councilman King asked Ward if he owned any property in the city of Avon Park and Ward answered no. Roland Droit said Ward was a registered voter, registering April 3, 1967, but has not voted.

Bob Lee a former councilman stated to the board that they are five duly elected public servants and should be able to make decisions on important subjects. Especially on a fair golf course and the golf course or any other important issue.

Acting Mayor Clarence King asked for a show of hands in the audience. The large crowd that overflowed into the hall stood up and registered their overwhelming support of the Municipal Golf Course. A handful of people stood up against the golf course.

After this vote in the audience the Council passed Councilman Martin's motion by a vote of 3 to 1. This motion instructed City Attorney Hue Nunnallee to draw up a lease which will be a ten year lease. The first five years the city will pay Highlands School $200 a month and the second five years of the lease $500 a month. Col. Leslie Blankenship owner of the Highlands School has offered a stipulation that when the time comes for a pro shop to be built that the city will receive two years rent free. At the end of 10 years the lease will be renegotiated.

In other business the Council granted Charles Howze two weeks vacation pay. He has resigned from the fire department and Dan Barefield has been hired in his place.

The Council granted the request of police officers Wayne Bass and Earl Gordon to work straight through without taking a vacation as they were recently out of work due to injuries in line of duty. The Council approved their being paid double time for two weeks while they work in lieu of vacation time off.

The Council passed an ordinance prohibiting planting of trees and shrubbery on street right-of-way unless granted by the council.

Another ordinance was passed closing portions of Summit, Church and Prospect Streets around the property of the new $250,000 Hillcrest Nursing Home that will be built on those streets.

Agreed to a request by Steve Roberts to make an alley from South Butler Ave. through to Lake Ave. one way with traffic going East.

The next regularly scheduled Council Meeting will be on Monday evening, June 5, at 7:30 p.m. in the Council Chamber at City Hall.

Educators Travel To Capitol For Meeting

Highlands County school teachers will be on the job tomorrow — and every other school day until the end of their 1966-67 contracts on June 9, according to Highlands County Education Association President Jack Ingle.

Rumors of a teacher strike continued to mount this week, strengthened apparently by a write-in vote on the Florida Education Association's sanctions ballot, but HCEA officers and school administrators unanimously denied that there is any strike fever in this county.

"There is, at this time, no consideration of a walkout or professional day among Highlands County teachers," Ingle said. "Teachers of Highlands County will abide by terms of their contracts," he stated.

The printed ballot distributed by FEA listed five proposed sanctions — public censure of government officials of Florida, blacklisting of Florida with industrial and educational groups — which HCEA members do support, Ingle said.

There was no ballot on a walkout, but when the votes were tabulated in Tallahassee, strike talk rose sharply leading to speculation that teachers had written-in such a proposal.

Highlands County teachers who attended the legislative information day were Ingle, Carl Harner and Charlotte Smith.

State Superintendent of Schools Floyd Christian called county superintendents to Tallahassee for a meeting on Monday to explain legislation on education now under consideration by both the House and Senate and to review actions proposed by FEA.

Attorney General Earl Faircloth had told the educators that a walkout or "professional day" by the teachers would be in violation of the law and would be grounds for termination of all teaching contracts.

The imposition of sanctions would not be a violation of the law and voting for them and participation in the sanctions proposed on the FEA ballot would not be grounds for canceling a contract.

After the meeting in Tallahassee Monday Douglass com-

Post Office Establishes 3rd Rural Route

On May 20, 1967 the Avon Park Post Office will begin running the 3rd Rural Route from this office. Some of the area on the route has been taken from the two overburden heavy duty routes operating from this office. This will provide better mail service for the patrons on all three routes by providing them with quicker mail delivery.

Firms in the area are requested to submit a list of their patrons on Rural Route 1 and Rural Route 2 to the Postmaster for free corection by the Post Office Department, of all changes in address due to re-routing of these routes.

Morris Suggs Receives Doctorate From University of North Carolina

MORRIS SUGGS

Morris Suggs, an alumnus of Avon Park High School, will receive his Phd. from the school of Public Health, University of North Carolina on June 5. His research and dissertation were done on a comparative antigenic study of Toxoplasmic Gondii and certain other unclassified Protozoa. Toxoplasma Gondii is the causative agent of the disease, Toxoplasmosis. A part of the research was presented to the second joint meeting of the Commissioned Officers' Association and of the Clinical Society.

Dr. Suggs has just returned from the convention of Microbiologists in New York City. He is spending this week in Hartford, Conn., and Baltimore as a consultant in the science laboratories there.

His newly-appointed position is chief of the Serology Training Unit Laboratory Consultation and Development Section, Laboratory Program, National Communicable Diseas Center, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, in Atlanta.

Morris has the following degrees: B.S. from Wake Forrest College 1950, M.S. FSU, 1957 and M.P.H. from the University of N.C. 1965.

Morris is an active member of the Research Society of America, of America Society of Microbiology and the American Public Health Association.

He is the son of Mrs. Lena Suggs, who has taught in the Avon Park schools for the past 25 years.

Communications Unit Exercises At Bombing Range

A Communications Support Element Headquarters at MacDill AFB, under the command of Lt. Col. George T. Burns, is presently on a field exercise at the Avon Park Bombing Range. The support element known as CSE consists of approximately 400 men with 29 authorized officers.

The unit arrived at the Range Monday and set up a tent city for a week of exercises. Its mission is to provide, operate and maintain communications and electronic facilities required for simultaneous support of two joint Task Forces employed anywhere in the world on contingency operations or joint exercises.

CSE is completely self contained and self sufficient with 245 vehicles and power generators. Last year the unit made 500,000 vehicle miles and used 40,000 gallons of gas, generators included.

Avon Park High School Band Banquet Held At Camp Wingmann

Last Thursday night was the big event in the lives of the Avon Park High School Band students. Pat Miller and Anne Graham had decorated the dining hall at Camp Wingmann in the Hawaiian theme. Pat Miller had made leis for each guest. At the honored guests table were Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Cravens and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Garrett, and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Mickunas.

Following a fine banquet Mr. Garrett and Mr. Cravens expressed their admiration and joy in a band which was completing such a splendid year representing the school and town in everything from local parades and football games to the Cherry Blossom Parade in Washington. They both admired the senior members and were sorry to have them leaving the school.

Then came the moment of excitement for the awards to be presented. Mr. Mickunas spoke so fondly of the Senior band members many of whom he had worked with since the 5th grade. As each Senior came forward Mr. his award Mr. Mickunas made warm and praiseworthy remarks of admiration for each one. The following Seniors received awards: Sharon Sneigrove, John Mason, Anne Graham, Debbi White, Tom Sharpe, Rickey Brooks, Steve Webber, John Wright, Alice Feliknor, Jane Nunnallee, Susan Johnson, Mary Lou Stewart and Jack Brown, Captain.

District Contest soloists rating superior were Marcia Ward, John Hasson, Mike Bradberry, Jim Williams and Steve Webber, student conductor.

The State Band Contest soloists rating superior were Marcia Ward, John Hasson and Mike Bradberry. Jim Williams rated excellent.

The Drum Majorette Trophy was won by Debbi White. An announcement which drew a big round of applause was Mr. Mickunas naming Donald Strength as the '67-'68 Drum Major.

The Arion Award for tops in band work is the highest award the band has to offer. The name of the recipient is engraved upon a plaque carrying the names of former honored people and this year's Arion Award Winner, Jack Brown, Capt. of the Band rated a tremendous ovation from all present.

120 parents, students and guests then retired to the recreation building to enjoy an evening of dancing to an orchestra with a real beat, "The Cellu Doors."

Brooks Attends Economics Institute

Norris T. Brooks, Assistant Principal, Avon Park Elementary School, has been selected to attend an NDEA Summer Institute on Developing an Articulated Introductory Program in Economics for Teachers and Supervisors in grades four through nine at Florida State University in Tallahassee this summer.

Mr. Brooks was one of thirty participants selected from 15 states to attend the institute. The Institute begins June 19 and end August 11.

Holiday Service Memorial Day

Tuesday, May 30, 1967, shall be observed as a national legal holiday at all postal installations. No window service will be provided, there will be no deliveries by city or rural carriers. Normal holiday lockbox service will be maintained in all post office and stations and branches.

Special delivery service will be provided. Holiday schedules for the collection, receipt, and dispatch of mail shall be observed.

3 To Be Tried In Shooting

Two men and a woman accused of assault to murder in the first degree in the shooting of two Avon Park policemen will be brought to trial here July 13 before Circuit Court Judge Clifton Kelly.

They are Kenneth J. Steinhauser, Jr., who was locked in the police car when Wayne Bass and Earl Gordon were shot several weeks ago; James Cohen, 20, and Verla Jane Frye, 22, who were apprehended in San Diego.

Also coming up at this term of court which begins July 10 will be the cases of two Negroes who had spent time on death row in Raiford, awaiting execution, until a Supreme Court ruling returned them here for new trials.

They are William Merrett Rollins, convicted of the 1959 shooting of an aged Avon Park service station attendant, and Sammie Lee Poole, convicted of the rape of a middle-aged Sebring woman near the Tourist Club.

Another case to be tried during this term will be that of Carl Stanley Butler, 1138 Pasadena Ave., Sebring, a salesman, accused of unlawfully possessing and transporting untaxed liquor. Paul Rogers, Armond Love and Earline Lowe will be tried for burglary.

Big Fire Burning In County

Highlands County's biggest fire in five years was still burning on Ray Raulerson's Ranch south of Route 70 today as Gov. Claude Kirk included Highlands County in a "no burning" order.

Raulerson has estimated about 2,000 acres are burned. The last big fire until this was five years ago when properties owned by Stewart Ranch, Edna Pearce Lockett's P-4 and Lykes Bros. totaling several thousand acres, burned.

Forest Service Ranger Roy Williams said that with a fire emergency proclaimed and a "no burning" order in force, that penalties of up to $1,000 and three years in jail can be thrown at willful violators, $200 and three months for "careless" violators of the ban.

"We now have to investigate every smoke in the county," Williams said. "This means there will be no more burning of trash allowed until the order is lifted."

About 2,000 acres of land currently are burning in Highlands county on seven properties. They include the acres

Drought Hurts and Helps

Once again, Mother Nature has come to the rescue of the citrus industry. Not to all individual growers, naturally. Some of them are badly hurt by the drought. But industry-wise the price of fruit is beginning to rise, and before the end of the season those who still have fruit should get a good price for it.

The fortunate ones are not necessarily lucky. They had the foresight to install watering systems when they were making big money a few years ago, and now are reaping the benefits.

It so happens that a lot of Highlands County growers provided irrigation systems when they were in the money, and they should be among the fortunate ones.

Some rains have come in the last few days to break the drought, but in some cases came too late for the unirrigated groves, which suffered severe loss by dropping of this year's crop, and will have a small crop for next year due to excessive droppage of the young fruit.

This will make for a short crop next season, and again, the fortunate ones will make a good thing out of citrus. It seems like Nature has a way of leveling off production no matter how many acres are planted.

This season and next season were scheduled to have bumper crops, and over production. But the drought, as did the freeze of 1962-63, may have bailed out the industry for another year at least.

Home Economics Week Observed

Extension Home Economics Week is being observed in Highlands County this week.

It might be a good time to pause and consider the program, which is financed by your tax dollar through the board of county commissioners, the University of Florida, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Mrs. Imogene D. Ritenburgh as extension home economics agent, works out the program and brings the latest information from the University to help solve problems that arise.

The extension service is for everyone in the county, and covers programs from consumer information to the latest in nutrition.

Extension Homemakers Clubs and 4-H work directly with the agent. A president and delegate from each club make up the County Extension Homemakers Council. The council cooperates with health, safety, conservation, and public affairs groups to promote both individual and community development.

The work is operating smoothly in Highlands County, with cooperative groups in every community of the county, and is apparently well received.

$5,071,692 Federal Contract For River

A $5,071,692 contract has been let for widening, deepening and straightening the Kissimmee River from the Route 98 crossing at Edna Pearce Lockett's P-4 ranch to the city of Kissimmee.

Announcement was made by Cong. James A. Haley in Washington that the contract for the construction work on Canal 38 (Kissimmee River) went to Gregg Contractors of Leesburg. Work is expected to be complete in two and one half years.

Canal 38 is part of a project of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, which, before they are finished, will open the river all the way from Lake Okeechobee to Lake Tohopekaliga, on which the city of Kissimmee is located. The work north from Lake Okeechobee to the P-4 bridge has virtually been completed.

"We estimate that in the area of Highlands and the other four counties affected, for every dollar of the $5,071,692 contract spent, $2 will be returned in area flood damage averted and in increased value of the land," a spokesman for the flood control district stated.

This is the largest single excavation contract ever awarded by the corps of engineers in Florida. It is aimed at preventing over-drainage and flooding, and will be a wide main line canal.

A total of 26,500,000 cubic yards of earth and rock will have to be moved, outranking the excavation for the vehicle assembly building at Cape Kennedy. The project will cut almost in half, the length of the river channel from Lake Kissimmee to Lake Okeechobee, now making it 58 miles. From there the channel continues another 39 miles to the city of Kissimmee, going through a chain of lakes and ending in Lake Tohopekaliga.

The Kissimmee River is the boundary line between Okeechobee and Highlands counties and when the canal is completed, will have plenty of depth for boats all year round.

In dry spells, the river has been known to dwindle down to ankle depth in some places as it meandered in huge ox bows through the South Florida landscape.

"You won't get lost any more," the flood control office spokesman said. "In times past, people got lost for days on the old Kissimmee River, mistakenly wandering in the wrong channels. There will be no mistaking the new channel."

The way the canal — which will be basically the river — is set up, boaters can leave the main channel and go back into the old ox bows if they yearn for something more scenic. However, as part of the program, trees will be planted along the new channel to beautify it.

There are three dams along the river in Highlands county. Just above these there will be impoundment areas for the benefit of fish and wild life. The district has acquired about 10,000 acres for these areas, recognizable chiefly as marshes. There are some ideal willow marshes for fish breeding and water fowl.

The canal, the spokesman pointed out, has a great recreational potential. In years gone by, the famous Kissimmee Boatacade has on more than one occasion spent more time dragging boats over mud bars and shoals than in boating on the river.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is This Greatest Problem Today?

Gov. George Romney, Michigan's chief executive, recently declared that the moral decline in the nation is a greater problem than the war in Viet Nam.

He called attention to a weakening of religious and moral convictions.

That the entertainment media are contributing to this decline in morals has been noted by many observers. Is this altogether unintentional or is it partly, at least, deliberate?

Testimony before the Senate Subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency has been quoted to the effect that the president of a television network, on one occasion, insisted that "sex and violence" must be included in the format of a specific series of television shows or the series would not be shown on that network.

"Filthy, Smutty" Songs

However, the president of a chain of radio stations, reacting against the flood of filthy and smutty popular songs, has announced that the stations in that chain will refuse to play records that "offend public morals, dignity, or taste."

He denounced a segment of the record industry which he described as flooding our market with records that deal with sex, sin, and drugs."

There is, of course, still the option on the part of the listener or viewer to turn off the radio or television receiver when the material is objectionable.

No doubt, the demoralizing, degrading radio, television, and motion picture shows would be greatly reduced or even eliminated if people would refuse to allow themselves to be ensnared by them.

Garbage in the Salad

A mother was peeling and scraping vegetables for a salad when her teen-age daughter asked her for permission to go to see a motion picture. The girl said that it was a questionable film but all of the other girls were going and they didn't think it would hurt them.

As she was talking, the girl saw her mother pick up some of the scraps and peelings and put them into the salad.

"Why, Mother," she exclaimed, "you're putting garbage into the salad!"

"Yes, I know," her mother replied, "but I thought that if you didn't mind garbage in your mind and heart you certainly wouldn't mind a little in your stomach."

The Bible tells what it is that defiles a man: "evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, thefts, covetousness, wickedness."

Is your family being fed with this kind of entertainment fare?

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

Bigger and Better Riots

WASHINGTON, D.C. — As riots and other manifestations of violent dissent spread across the country, protected by the fiction that they are legitimate exercise of the constitutional right to freedom of speech, I am more than a little sickened by the attitude of some of our officials and others in responsible positions.

As these demonstrations become more widespread and more violent, to the accompaniments of threats of "bigger and better" riots as the year grows older, the people of our country are being forced to listen to a torrent of warnings about what lies ahead "in a long, hot summer."

The pitiable thing about this, the sickening thing, is that this talk about the prospects of a "long, hot summer," with the implication that it may also be a bloody summer in our cities, is coming from members of the United States Senate, members of the House of Representatives, members of the Administration, and from prominent syndicated columnists and commentators who mold public opinion.

In my own opinion, these persons in positions of responsibility would do well to change their thinking and begin to talk about the need in this country for respect and obedience to established law, the need for the kind of law enforcement not hampered by fear of criticism from those who violate the law in the name of minority rights, and the need for fair but stern and sure justice in the courts in accord with the law rather than in accord with sociological thinking.

It is an American tragedy, in my book, that while this country's soldiers are fighting, and being killed or maimed, in Viet Nam for the freedoms guaranteed to us by The Constitution that there should be on our streets and college campuses those who abuse, without official hindrance, those very rights for their own ends.

It is a tragedy to me that the likes of Stokely Carmichael can incite rioting and publicly announce they will "take over, lock, stock and barrel" our National Capital city this summer and that the Justice Department can blandly assert that Carmichael's activities violate no law and he can do or say what he pleases without prosecution.

It is a tragedy to me that George Wallace of Alabama was mobbed at Dartmouth College, Selective Service Director Lewis B. Hershey at Howard University, Vice President Humphrey at Stanford University, Defense Secretary McNamara at Harvard University. This is not because I necessarily agree or disagree in whole or in part with what these gentlemen had to say, but because they were invited guests of those institutions and were exercising the greatest of American rights—the right to freedom of speech and opinion—and because they were mobbed by hoodlum-students, pseudo liberals who apparently believe in free speech only when it expressed their own views.

And it is a tragedy to me when Ralph McGill, a syndicated molder of public opinion, goes to Kansas to warn of a "long, hot summer" of riots in "all of the cities of the nation" and then seeks to blame it all on his own South by saying that the region's "segregation system" has made it impossible for Negroes and many white people to know anything about citizenship.

Tallahassee Date Line

By Rex Newman

Tallahassee—The appropriations bill in the Florida legislature is bringing forth partisan colors and with few exceptions the vote in the Senate confirmed it.

A Republican rewrite of the Senate appropriations bill brought a strict party line vote.

Attempts to amend the Senate bill with the same line items in the rewrite, but one at a time, brought the same Democratic party line vote with Sen. John Fisher, R-Jacksonville, switching on textbooks and Sen. Bill Young, R-Pinellas Park, switching on kindergartens.

Sen. young espoused the strategy of the Republicans when he stated it was a matter of philosophy. A balanced budget within existing income.

Sen. Tom Slade, R-Jacksonville, echoed this line with his stand on making the Board of Regents scholarship fund (designed as a reward for outstanding students) into a loan scholarship fund.

Gov. Claude Kirk implied there was "political strategy" in the appropriations committee's tactics of bringing out a general appropriations bill without a capital outlay proviso or teachers' pay raise.

A newspaper doesn't approach a budget by bringing out a piece now, a piece then. They look at the total picture," he said.

"These are state senators and should take up the needs of the state," he declared.

Asked if one should assume he was charging the Democratic majority with playing politics, Gov. Kirk backed off, saying, "I wouldn't assume anyone is playing politics."

In the fact of the Democrats are trying to make it difficult for the Republicans to vote against a capital outlay program which is to follow.

As Sen. Slade put it, "It's going to be hard on us good guys."

It will be a large "pork barrel" bill with a little bit for the Tampa medical school, universities in Dade and Duval counties, Fourth District Court of Appeals money, day care centers for mentally retarded children in Pinellas and Duval counties, etc.

Sen. Reuben Askew, D-Pensacola, who heads up the appropriations committee, estimates a $100 million capital outlay program.

In addition, it would take approximately another $250 million for teachers.

The budget passed by the Senate appropriates sufficient funds to implement a uniform pay raise for state employes. It will be difficult for the Senate to ignore teachers after this.

The Parker Henderson, who quit Gov. Claude Kirk's employment in a huff over the way he brought home guests unexpectedly now have assumed chef duties at the Roosevelt Hotel in Jacksonville.

The Hendersons were brought to Tallahassee by former Gov. Haydon Burns.

Gov. Kirk's chief aide, Tom Ferguson, last week ousted out receptionist Ann Ridaught, who served in this capacity under two Democratic governors.

He stated it was because some of her friendships conflicted duties in the governor's office. Presumably, Democratic friends and Republican governors don't mix.

Incidentally, Mrs. Lucille Rogers, secretary under two Democratic governors, is about the last of the Burns' holdovers surrounding the governor.

Gov. Kirk uses a chauffer-driven limousine when he makes his numerous out-of-state trips. Others used to use a taxi.

mented that some of the bills now under consideration do

"present a definite step forward."

These bills do not give everything some groups want and need, but they do have a realistic approach to some of our problems," Douglass commented.

FEA officials "seemed a little more favorably inclined to Senate Bills 404 and 307 than they were to the House Bill 1235," Douglass said. The Senate bills call for education appropriations of $236,000,000. The House Bill has a $249,000,000 price tag, but includes some money which would not be available for two years.

The FEA proposals total $500,000,000, but some officials have indicated that this is "long range."

Ingle had said the teachers "want some sign of hope; we are not unreasonable people."

The scenic beauty of the old ox bows, however, will be preserved and those interested can wander along them to their hearts content. They have historically snaked their way winding and twisting more than 100 miles across the prairie and cattle lands of Glades, Okeechobee, Highlands, Osceola and Polk counties.

Already being constructed under previous contracts are navigation locks 30x90 feet, on the new Kissimmee river. They not only will help provide flood protection but are improved navigational channels. Depth of the channel will be at least 5½ feet at the locks. The river is deeper than the locks.

Ranger Williams said there was a "pretty bad breakout" from the fire that came out of Tropical Farms and burned to U. S. 70 Sunday and Monday. It burned a good deal of scrub land, 500 or 600 acres, just east of the Bair's Den and south of U. S. 70.

Light sprinkles fell in some places in Highlands county on Monday but did nothing to help.

Americanism vs. Communism

By Kenny Dixon

Communism, in its early sense, meant simply any system or social organization in which property is held in common.

Communism, in its historical sense, refers to all doctrines that propose a new social order in which everyone will hold property in common and there will be no private property.

In recent years, Communism has come to mean only the doctrine and practice of the Communist party in Russia and other countries. This third meaning is the one which we shall take up and study in this paper.

Communism in Russia today has more or less become a way of living. It has a tremendous influence in all of Russia's functions such as the government; (of course), in the schools, it controls transportation and communication, and in some way, either directly or indirectly, everything else in Russia Russia is actually controlled by two parties but separate groups; the government and the Communist party. Although two separate groups, the government is only a tool of the Communist party. Under Communism and dictatorship the people are solely responsible to the state. The people of Russia study, work and play under Communism. Under Communism, religion is tolerated, however hardly anyone dares to proclaim his faith. The people only receive pay by can change jobs, but the redtape one goes through makes it very difficult.

Communism is based on three elements. These are: dialectical materialism, economic determinism and atheism.

Dialectical materialism states that material surroundings and the way he adapts himself to them determine everything in man's life. This is contradictible to the theory of heredity which we as Americans believe.

Economic determinism arises from the concept of surplus value along with the other theories. It says basically that the success and value of a nation as well as an individual is determined by the skill, labor, and wealth of the nation.

Atheism is used in this case to mean that under Communism there should be no belief in God or a creator.

There is no real freedom of speech, press or religion under Communism. The party controls all, and any that think different are usually liquidated.

Education under Communism is of very high quality, surprisingly enough. However, this education is completely controlled by the Party, therefore, the system teaches the ideals of Communism as the only means of successful government.

We have a great fear of Communism. With its deceitful tactics, it is a major threat to freedom. The goal of Communism is world domination stated in their statement: world triumph of Communism. It is making rapid progress. Its imperialism has spread all over the world, now, even as close as 90 miles away from us.

Our fear of Communism is very understandable. Often, Communism is spreading very near us but we cannot recognize it. Communism's deceit has become a problem that is continuing to grow. Already, one-third of the world's three billion people live under Communism.

Along with Communism's powerful armed forces, it employs the power of ideas in its struggle for world triumph. This power of ideas is where the teachers' berths. The breeding grounds of Communism are found anywhere in the world today. Communism's favorite breeding grounds are nations or countries with loose governments in which civil war and chaos can be found. This gives Communism a giant step toward world triumph. To Karl Marx, the steps leading to Communism are slavery, feudalism, Capitalism and then Communism. Notice that the step before Communism is Capitalism. This is a real threat if Marx's theory is true and the theory has held true so far. True, Communism has many things in their favor, the threatening one being history which is well on their side.

Communism respects no morals what so-ever except for the fact that they will use any means, murder, lie, destroy all other systems to make their system triumph.

In order to defend ourselves against Communism we must try to extend and protect the freedoms which we have now. We must learn to recognize and not be confused by Communism. Everyone shouuld be well informed on the real goal and the real life of Communism.

We must ensure free speech. This is a freedom which is denied in Russia. We must never let go of that treasured freedom.

To fight Communism, we must perfect the Christian freedoms which Communism denies. These are in general: uphold our own laws, maintain free speech, maintain free worship, maintain a free press, preserve free elections, defend the right to dissent and last but surely one of the most essential, we must raise our educational sights.

The fight against Communism must start now and not let up.

The fight will no doubt be a long, drawn out project. It is, for us, a never-ending struggle for we are fighting history. Life under Communism is not so far away that we cannot delay our defenses. We should try to encourage and show the world that liberty and freedom can prevail throughout all the world and that the only way is the free, democratic, American way.

COMMUNISM

By Judy Newby

Communism What It Is

The dictionary meaning of communism is the theory that property, and especially the means of production and distribution should be under community control. To me, communism is the loss of complete freedom, and it surely is not something that a person should want. Communism has no interest in helping to create world order or in lessening the tensions of the world. A true communist will use any means, including murder to destroy all other systems. Communist people are willing to go to prison or even give their own life to preserve communism.

How It Operates (Within and Without)

In Russia, no point of view opposing the government is allowed expression. Radio and television are state controlled and blare forth only what the party dictates. Unions have no power to strike. Religion is tolerated in the Soviet Union, but no youth who wants to rise in the Soviet hierarchy of management dares openly to proclaim his faith. Elections are held, but there are only candidates from one party. Until recently workers were not even allowed to change their jobs without permission. Now they may do so, but regulations make it extremely difficult in practice. Even though their education sets standards of excellence, it is saturated through and through with propaganda and brainwashing. Under communism the state places a higher value on property than on human life. Everyone works for the state. The Communist Party is the worker's boss.

In Red China, the people work endlessly under the supervision of soldiers. Peasants are crowded into inadequate quarters. The people are driven to the factories or fields before dawn to work like convicts. Millions of families have to melt down scrap metal in their back yards. They barely get enough rice to last three days per month. They have to supplement it by adding grass picked from the river banks.

Poland is the freest of all satellites. It is the only satellite which has been able to fulfill its planned production in agriculture. The people live relatively well, partly through the help of millions of dollars worth of money orders and packages sent by American relatives.

In Hungary the people are trying to make the best that they can out of life under Communism. The Communists erected the Berlin Wall in East Germany and police guard it with machine guns.

What we have to Fear

We have much to fear from the Communists. We have to fear the loss of all of our freedom. We have to fear losing our religion. If Communism takes over, we would not get to worship God as we please. We would have to read the Communist Bible instead of reading our own true Bible. We would lose all of our property. We would have to do just what the Communist leaders told us to do. They would tell us when to go to work, where we would go, and everything else. They would control our education. We have the fear of losing our children to them. Our children would be doing what the Communist told them to do instead of listening to their own parents. We have much to fear and we should take every possible step to prevent it.

What Must We Do

I think it is the duty and responsibility of every citizen to defeat Communism. We should start teaching our children about Communism while they are young, and teach them to fear it in every way. We must make our democracy stronger in every possible way. In making our democracy stronger, we must extend, perfect, and defend the rights and freedoms which Communism denies. We must ensure free speech. No matter how much we disagree with a person, we should take into consideration their point of views too. We must maintain a free press. We must not join the suppression of newspapers whose views we do not agree with. We must preserve free elections. If a person is old enough to vote, he should do it. We must uphold our laws. We must raise our educational rights. We should lift our system of education to the high level that our country can afford and must have.

To defeat Communism, America must encourage local governments to effect genuine reforms. To counter terror, the United States must continue to provide specialized military assistance to oust the Communist guerrillas.

We can never defeat Communism by fear or trembling or by attacking our own political institutions. But, we can defeat it by demonstrating our faith and confidence in our way of life and by providing the world that liberty and justice for all can become a reality for all mankind.

These two compositions were written by two students of L. R. Manoso, American History teacher at Avon Park High School.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Charlie Whitehead introduced Al Clayton of the Avon Citrus Bank who most ably pinch hit for Reggie Smith of the Sebring Race Mr. Smith had been called to Tallahassee to testify before a committee investigating whether or not to place auto racing under State Control.

Mr. Clayton explained that racing in Fla. is not scheduled thus the Sheriff's Bureau with the rules being set by professional racing organizations, (similar to golf and the PGA) State control along with rule changes such as concrete fences completely around the track for example, would give tracks such as daytona a great advantage over Sebring. Al stated that continued strong public support was the only way that the race could be continued in successfully in Sebring.

Both these remarks precluded a movie produced in 1965 by the Goodyear Tire Co. highlights the Daytona Continental and the Twelve Hour Sebring race were shown. This was the first year that the American made cars made their foreign made competitors by a healthy margin in both races. The film was in color, well done, and enjoyed by all.

Citrus Institute Wednesday

The dates for the 14th Annual South Florida Citrus Growers Institute are Tuesday and Wednesday, May 30th and 31st, 1967. The Institute will be held at 4-H Camp Cloverleaf north of Lake Placid on Lake Francis.

Speakers for the Institute come from the University of Florida, in Gainesville, The U of F Citrus Experiment Station in Lake Alfred, and the United States Department of Agriculture in Orlando. The range of topics will be from the production of citrus all the way to the marketing of the citrus product.

The institute is directed by the Florida Agricultural Extension Service, M. O. Watkins, Director and Prud Lawrence, Citriculturist. The Citrus Advisory Committees of Highlands, Hardee, Polk, Hendry, Glades, Manatee, Sarasota and Polk Counties are the joint sponsorship of the Institute.

All citrus growers and other interested persons are invited to attend the Institute. There is no charge but tickets for meals which will be served at the Camp during the Institute.

400 Handicapped Are Expected at Camp Challenge

Applications are now being accepted for Camp Challenge, Florida's Easter Seal camp located in Lake County 25miles North of Orlando.

Camp, which is owned and operated by the Florida Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 903 Lee Road, Orlando, will open its seventh season June 4 with counselor training week.

This summer enrollment is expected to soar to nearly 400 handicapped children and young adults who will come from every area of Florida.

"This will undoubtedly be our biggest season," said L. Paul Murray, deputy state director of the Florida Society. "Camp has become more and more popular each year and already we're being flooded with calls and letters from interested campers."

Murray explained complete camping facilities geared to the needs of the handicapped are offered. The season is divided into five two-week sessions according to age groups. Schedule is: June 11-23, adults ages 18 up; June 25 to July 7, teens ages 14-17; July 9-21, juniors ages 8-9; July 23 to August 4, intermediates ages 10-12; and August 6-18, young teens ages 12-14.

Camperships are available for those who are unable to pay, through the Florida Society or local Easter Seal Societies.

$687.17 Collected For Cancer Crusade

Mrs. Donald K. Ford, Residential Cancer Crusade Chairman for Avon Park, reported today that $687.17 had been collected by Cancer Crusade Volunteers in their door-to-door campaign.

The Residential Chairman called for continued action by volunteers and the public. She urged volunteers to make every effort to reach families they were unable to reach this past week during the concentrated drive. She also urged all individuals who have not yet contributed to the fight against cancer to send a contribution directly to American Cancer Society, Highlands County Unit, P. O. Box 1233, Avon Park, Florida, 33825.

"Broadly viewed," Mrs. Ford said, "the Crusade has advanced the society's five-year attack on the six most common sites of cancer—uterus, colon and rectum, lung, breast, skin and oral cavity. It has also made people much more conscious of the importance of heeding cancer's warning signals.

"Yet we know," she said, "much can be done to reverse cancer's tragic toll of life and suffering.

"Every gain we have made against cancer in this Crusade," Mrs. Ford added, "is due to the hard work of our volunteers and the public's growing knowledge of the urgency of the problem." She said, "the volunteers did a wonderful job and did it out of compassion for human life."

Private "In" Formation

Friday ended the final grading period, and the "zombies" of midterm exams are paying another visit before commencement ceremonies and those final "Goodbyes."

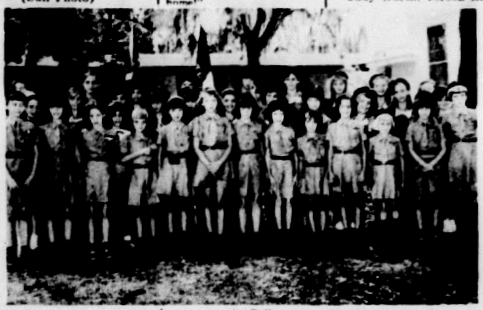

The first annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held Saturday night at the Sebring Elks Club. It was a pleasant surprise for the seniors. For entertainment, individual baby pictures were projected on the wall, and a junior imitated the particular senior. It was.

It was fun deciding "Who's who" in the Senior Classs, and quite embarassing for some seniors. But we all did enjoy it. Among other surprises from the juniors to the seniors, was a Jr.-Sr. slumber party in the student lounge and a free church cut. Needless to say, we all spent Sunday napping. On behalf of the Senior Class, sincere thanks to the juniors. They were really great.

The really big news for the day is, however. "Only two more weeks, and we'll all be home!"

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

She stopped at the corner, looked both ways, and started to cross the street.

"Hold it!" shouted a policeman. "Don't you see that sign?"

"Which one, officer?"

"The one in front of you on the signal. It says—DON'T WALK."

"Oh, I saw it," she smiled. "I thought it was an ad for the bus company."

Cattlemen Hold Spring Roundup, Contest May 27

Highlands County Cattlemen's Association is holding their 1967 Spring Roundup, Sweetheart contest, dinner and barn dance May 27.

Activities will begin at 4:30 P.M. at Dressel's Dairy east of Avon Park located on the Bombing Range Road. After a tour the association will meet at the V & W Dairy Farm west of Avon Park on the Wauchula Road. There will be a social hour at 6 P.M., followed by the contest, dinner and dance.

Your Auto Tag — Did You Get It In Plenty Time?

Auto tag offices in Highlands county did a brisk business Friday and Saturday, as tardy buyers sought to beat the May 30 deadline.

Tag supervisor Roland X. Droit said Monday was a very busy day, too. The busiest office was Avon Park, Saturday, and in fact the lines were so long many of the people there drove on down to Sebring to get their tags Saturday afternoon.

COMMON HEARING PROBLEMS

DO THEY APPLY TO YOU?

1. I can hear but I can't understand the words.
2. Folks don't speak as clearly as they used to.
3. I'd just as soon stay home.
4. It's embarrassing to give the wrong answers.

Auxiliary Holds Annual Conference

The thirteenth annual conference of the West Central District of the Florida Hospital Auxiliary was held at Florida Southern College in Lakeland Thursday May 18 from 9 A.M. to 3 P.M.

The theme was "Back to School," the three R's for the Auxiliary, Relations, Responsibility and Resources.

Starting with coffee the morning meeting was opened by the District Director, Mrs. W. Steinberg. Following this the District Chairman, Mrs. J. Howard Carlson gave the welcome and introduced the President of the twenty-two auxiliaries in the district, also the members present.

The conference opened with a speech by Robert Bruce, executive Director of the Medical Center of Punta Gorda. Mrs. Joseph Olson president of South Florida Hospital Auxiliary spoke on "Renaissance of the Volunteer."

Mr. Arthur O. Gibbons of Tampa showed a film and led the discussion on "Health Careers."

Luncheon was in the form of a "Pink" Picnic. The afternoon session was in three study groups.

The ten women from Walker Memorial Hospital who attended were: Mrs. Mae Langman, Mrs. Bertha Barker, Mrs. Pauline Chance, Mrs. Thelma Merrill, Mrs. Emma Coburn, Mrs. Lucy Bue, Mrs. Katie Rehrer, Mrs. Pauline Tondee, Mrs. Grace Armstrong and Mrs. Ann Robbins.

The meeting was adjourned with the repeating of the auxiliary prayer.

Card of Thanks

My grateful thanks to my many friends for the cards, gifts, flowers, visits and prayers I received during my recent illness and hospitalization at Walker Memorial Hospital. My thanks also to the hospital staff, who were so considerate of me and Dr. King who attended me.

Thanks to the Chaplain of the Hospital and the various ministers of Avon Park for their visits and encouraging words and prayers.

Happy Strom.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD STILES

Benny Harris and Richard Stiles Wed In Double Ceremony Saturday

Benny Loraine Harris and Richard L. Stiles were wed in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening May 20, 7:30 P.M. in the Florida Avenue Baptist Church. Rev. Robert Miller, officiated. Given in marriage by her grandfather Mr. H. N. Bowler of Avon Park, she is the daughter of Mrs. J. H. Wells of Avon Park. Mr. Stiles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stiles Vinita, Okla.

The alter was decorated with Tall Twin baskets of white gladiolus centerd with large rose colored satin bows. Seven branched twin candelabra and potted palms flanked the white lace kneeling bench.

Mrs. Laverne Hill played appropriate nuptial music preceeding the ceremony. Rev. Miller sang the Wedding Prayer.

The bride chose a floor length gown of bridal satin, fashioned with Alencon lace basque waistline, long sleeves portrait neckline and dome skirt for her wedding. Her triple layered veil was held in place with a plateau of sequins and pearls from which a tiny teardrop pearl centered her forehead. She carried a cascade of deep rose colored roses formed with tulle and satin streamers, for her bouquet.

Miss Linda Durrance of Avon Park served the bride as Maid of Honor. She carried a smaller matching arrangement of roses. Her floor length gown was similar to the brides in rose colored taffeta. Her matching head piece was of tulle.

Karen Hill and Eddie Hill, cousins of the bride served as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively. Karen's dress, floor length in pink was fashioned with a tiny bodice, empire waistline, dome skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals. Eddie dressed in a white jacket and black trousers carried the wedding rings on a white satin pillow.

Donald Batts and Bill Greene from Avon Park served as ushers for the fifty guests.

The brides mother chose a street length yellow voil dress, embroidered sleeves and matching accessories for her daughters wedding.

Mrs. Stiles, mother of the groom wore a beige street length ensemble of chiffon over taffeta, with matching accessories. Both mothers wore white orchid corsages.

Reception

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in Fellowship Hall of the church. The three tiered wedding cake was centered on a table covered with a white cloth, edged with drawn work. A miniatrue bride and groom standing amidst white tulle topped the cake. Mints and nuts were served with the cake. The alternate table covered with a white spread, held the crystal bowl of punch. Miniature nosegays surrounded the punch bowl.

Mrs. Grady Thompson of Tampa served the cake assisted by Mrs. Laverne Hill and Mrs. Audrey Renner. Linda and Gail Marshall served the punch.

After a short wedding trip to the west coast, the bridal couple will reside in Tampa, where the groom is stationed at MacDill Base serving in the air force as a Airman third class. The bride formerly a nurses aide at Walker Memorial Hospital, will serve in the same capacity at Tampa General Hospital.

Guests were present from Tampa, Oklahoma, Bowling Green and Ft. Meade.

Brown - Carter Nuptials June 1

All friends and relatives of Miss Brenda Brown and Roy Carter are cordially invited to attend their wedding June 1, at 7 P.M. at the Church of God.

Rev. Thomas B. Sleepe will officiate.

Patti Hill Gets Cakes For Birthday

Pattie Hill who celebrated her sixtieth birthday as a patient in Walker Memorial Hospital May 19, received two cakes. After receiving a birthday cake from Mrs. Pearl Ford, which was shared with friends, she is presented with another cake, prepared and decorated "Happy Birthday, A.P.H.S." by Arlene Talley, who holds the cake. With her are Peggy Snelgrove on the left and Linda Batson, with Patti shown reclining in her bed with her ever present smile.

Many beautiful arrangements of flowers were received from Patti's many friends, which banked her room. A great number of Birthday cards containing contributions to the Scholarship Fund created in her honor were also received.

Friends and students called to see her, during the day. Many were disappointed as only a few were permitted to see her during her waking hours.

Recently, Patti was presented with a Retired Teachers Award for twenty-three years of service from Highlands County Educational Association. Mrs. Doris Everett presented her with a pin showing the 23 years of service.

Audubons To Meet June 5

The Highlands County Audubon Society will meet June 5 at 6 P.M. at the Club House in Highlands Park Estates, Lake Placid.

As this will probably be the last meeting until fall, all membeis are urged to attend.

Bring a covered dish and table service for supper, after which there will be a business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Swank will show pictures taken on a recent Audubon Conducted Caribbean Cruise.

Visitors are always welcome.

Missionaries To Speak at Church

Rev. and Mrs. Paul Say, Nasarene Missionaries from Argentina, will speak at the Avon Park Church of the Nasarene, Saturday evening, May 27, at 7:30 P.M. The Thursday evening monthly Missionary meeting and Saturday evening youth recreation will combine for this special service.

The Says are on a one year furlough and will show slides Saturday evening. They also will be in the Sunday morning services starting at 9:45 A.M.

No packages can be mailed into Argentina, so Missionaries must take clothing, games, and all items to last for five years or until their next furlough. They especially have problems at Christmastime, for giving their children something new. Any one wishing to help them, can either bring gifts to the services, or leave them at the church. The three Say children are: Joy, age 15, Ronnie 12, and Ricky 6.

The Says are originally from Florida and will return to Argentina later this summer.

Several Large Parcels of Land Will Go on Tax Sale Block June 1

Nearly 800 items of property will go on the block June 1 in the annual sale of tax delinquency certificates.

Collector W. H. Prescott and J. T. Landress again this year will conduct the sale on the courthouse steps.

And in addition to small items, ranging as low as delinquencies of a few dollars, there are a couple of big ones this year.

Highlands Park Inc., Lake Placid development, has a total of 307 items totaling about $9,000 in delinquent taxes. These are lots and groups of lots, and purchasers of certificates can buy a certificate

In this group for as little as $3.81 or as much as $20.54.

Mohawk Groves at Avon Park had not paid their taxes as this paper went to press. Purchasers of certification would have to pay anywhere from $141.34 to $4,108.54 on the six parcels listed.

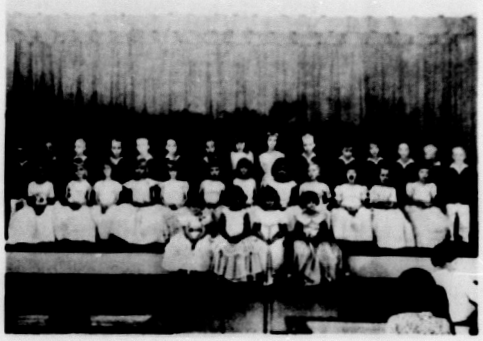

Most of the delinquent properties are lots or groups of lots and there are a few homesteads. Commercial properties are scarce, but one with unpaid taxes is the Lake Josephine Motel, owned by Charles and Helen Mihalocky in the amount of $497.52.

Tax Collector Prescott began a good crowd attends the annual sale "which usually takes about three hours." It's a simple thing to purchase the certificates — if you have cash in hand and "bid the lowest interest rate," "and if the certificates are not redeemed (most are) the owner may end up with some bargain property.

Florida Audubon Society Urges Saving Of Florida Waters

At the spring meeting of the Board of Directors of the Florida Audubon Society at Highlands Hammock State Park, officers and chapter president went on record as favoring the preserving of the wild characte and values of the habitates of the Kissimmee River, that are part of the plans for development of water resources of the Central and South Florida Flood Control Districts. Copies of this resolution have been sent to Governor Kirk and to the State agencies concerned, as well as to the U.S. Army Engineers office in Jacksonville.

The Society is also concerned about the future of the Ichetucknee Spring system and its surrounding wood lands which have long provided attractive picnic grounds and camping sites for the people of north central Florida, including skin divers, scout troops, and church organizations.

Stating that the area is rich in rock formations and fossils, and that the Society has repeatedly recommended to the Florida Recreation Council that it be preserved for use by the citizens of the State, the Society's Board deplored the fact that the recently published list of ten priority projects under the Recreation Act does not include the Ichetucknee Springs or River. A strong recommendation is then made that the Recreation Council give renewed consideration to assigning a higher priority to the acquisition and development of Ichetucknee to preserve its recreational value and scientific potential. The Ichetucknee resolution has been forwarded to Governor Kirk and other members of the Recreation Council.

Gary Neal To Receive Patti Hill Scholarship

Gary Neal has been chosen as the recipient of the Patti Hill scholarship. Wayne Douberley has been chosen as alternate. A committee of five teachers and one representative of the senior class made the above selection on the following points: character honesty, dependability, responsibility, thoughtfulness, and conscientiousness. The recipient of the scholarship received th good news on Mrs. Hill's birthday, May 19, 1967, and seemed very happy, humble and grateful that he had been chosen for this honor. Congratulations!

This scholarship is for the student to attend South Florida Junior College and is to be continued through the final two years to a college of his choice. In order for this to be a perpetual scholarship it is to be in the fo m of a loan to be re-paid after he becomes established.

Avon Park's Summer Program Set To Run June 19 Through July 28

Avon Park's summer program, sponsored by the Highlands County Board of Public Instruction, is set to run from June 19 though July 28 with Joe Franza directing the local program.

Included in this summer's plans are six weeks of scheduled recreational activities, four weeks of music instruction under the direction of Vic MicKunas, three weeks of Arts and Crafts with Ernest Doty in cl arge, five weeks of Elementary Reading instruction with Griselda Murphy and Charlotte Smith teaching, six weeks of high school reading with Doris Everett and Wilda Knapp directing, and a six week academic program under the direction of Lee Maness with World History and American History being offered for credit to high school students.

Working during the six weeks on the recreation staff will be Franza, Ralph Hill, Andrew Miracle, Dale Landress, Larry Pickett, Fred Sandlin, and Jim Martindale. Plans for recreation activities will be announced later with swimming instruction hours included.

The two academic courses offered this summer will have a tuition fee of twenty dollars. World History will be offered to students who have a "B" or better average in all previous social studies courses or those who have scheduling difficulties. Special permission from the office will be necessary for the latter students.

American History will be a make-up course or for those who have a scheduling problem in this subject. Office permission will also be necessary in this case.

The courses will be guided independent study with use of TV and a consultant. The major respo sibility will rest with the student.

If enough students sign up before the dead-line of June 15, the instructional part of the program will be offered here at Avon Park High School. Otherwise it may be necessary for students to go to Sebring for this part of the courses.

There will be a called meeting Friday of those students who anticipate participating in these courses and then there will be an organizational meeting at a later date.

Sparkling Bride's Punch

2 cans (6 oz. each) frozen lemonade concentrate
1 bottle (1 qt.) your favorite whiskey
1 orange, sliced thin w/ peel
1 cup orange juice, strained
1 jar (8 oz.) red maraschino cherries
2 large bottles (28 oz. each) ginger ale

Extension Home Economics Can Help You

Extension Home Economics are for everyone in Highlands County—for men and women, adults and youth through its programs covering all home economics subjects from consumer informaton to the latest in nutrition.

Extension Home Economics is financed by you: tax dollar through your local Board of County Commissioners, the University of Florida, and the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Mrs. Imogene D. Ritenbugh is you Extension Home Economics Agent.

You Extension Home Economics Agent analyze existing trends and problems, working out a program and bringing the latest information from the University to help solve these problems.

Extension Home Economics programs are geared to serve all the county and developed to fit all age groups at all income levels.

Extension Homemakers Clubs and 4-H work directly with the agent. A president and delegate from each club make up the County Extension Homemakers Council. The Council cooperates with health, safety, conservation, and public affairs groups to promote both individual and community development.

Volunteer club leaders are trained by the agent. The leaders carry information back to their respective clubs.

Extension Home Economics Week is being observed this week in Highlands County.

Avon Mobile Home Park

By Ruth E. Robinson

This week, we are thankful for a little more rain, which is bringing the green back to all our lawns and gardens, even tho this means more mowing of lawns.

Harry Longanecker and Kate McAlexander won the Winter Guest Club Tournament, last Saturday night—main event, which was a happy event, especially for Harry. We are all glad to hear of Harry's activity.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Myers are leaving for the north this Thursday, and the wedding of their daughter, Eleanor Ann in August. We do wish them a safe trip and pleasant summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibbs (Lillian) will be spending this weekend here in their new home. Welcome to them and may they find their stay enjoyable and relaxing.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coulson have returned from a short vacation at Treasure Island.

IN GOD WE TRUST

"For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God." I Timothy 4:10.

It is because Paul knew in Whom he put his trust that he was able to carry on his great work in spite of all difficulties. We, too, should put our trust in God. The God whom Paul says "is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe." I Timothy 4:10 b.

Mens' conceptions of God vary. Someone once said to Leslie Weatherhead: "God has never been any use to me." To which Weatherhead replied: "Your God would not be of any use to anyone." What did he mean by that answer? He means, of course, that that persons' God was not the God of the Lord Jesus Christ but rather was a bogy that was formed in his mind through certain unfortunate experiences in his past.

We can get the wrong conception of deity through mis-guided friends and even parents who use the idea of God as a threat to win obedience. A parent may say, "If you are not a good boy, God won't love you," or use such words as "God will punish you." Thus the boy gets a twisted conception of deity.

Then there are those who plant the idea in growing minds that God is tyrannical rather than a loving Father who sends his rain on the just and the unjust, who deals kindly and lovingly with even his erring children.

If someone would ask you the question: "In whom do you put your trust?", how would you answer it? You will do well to pause and think. Pascal has said: "All the evils of life have fallen upon us because men will not sit quietly in a room." Take your Bible down and turn to the 23rd Psalm and read slowly and thoughtfully. As you read the psalm, the idea may form in your mind that God cares for you like a faithful and tender shepherd cares for a sheep. You may begin to undrstand the reality of the love of God that enabled the psalmist to say: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me." St. Paul urges Timothy to put his trust "in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe."

A doctor was once talking to a scared boy and he said: "The thing to do, my lad, is to hold your own end up, and to do it like a gentleman, and please remember the biggest troubles you have to face are those that never happen." This advice was sound, most of the time we borrow trouble when we worry about the future. And yet there was something lacking in what the good doctor said. In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus also urges his disciples not to be anxious about what will happen on the morrow but he adds these significant words: "Set your mind on God's Kingdom and his justice before everything else, and all the rest will come to you as well. So do not be anxious about tomorrow, tomorrow will look after itself." St. Matthew 6:33-34.

Anxiety does not come from outward circumstances as threatening as they might be. We know that this is true because under the same conditions one man becomes terribly upset while another remains serene. It is said that John Wesley met the howling mob in Walsall, England, "with calmness and absence of resentment." The ring-leader of the mob was so imprssed by Wesley's composure, that he rescued him. When he was later asked what he thought of John Wesley, he answered: "He is a man of God; and God was on his side when so many of us could not kill one man."

The experience of generations of people has been that "one with God makes a majority." I suppose that it is right to say: "Just give your best to every situation and leave the rest to God."

It is important for us to reassure ourselves of what God has done for us in the past, it can help us to have confidence and trust in God for the present and the future. When the psalmists' soul was cast down, he remembered God: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance. O my God, my soul is cast down within me; therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar." Psalm 42: 5-6. The psalmist might have wavered momentarily, but in the final testing he knew in Whom to put his trust.

This same trust in God motivated the men who founded our country. We see the evidence of it in these words from the Declaration of Independence: "And for support of this declaration, with a firm reliance on the Protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor." It is hard for us to realize the dangers to which these men were subjecting themselves. The Revolution was in progress. Their troops were outnumbered 4 to 1. The prospect was anything but bright. And, yet, they exercised their faith in God, that He would see them through to victory because their cause was right.

As individuals and as a nation we need, to put our trust in God. We need to commit ourselves to do the right as God gives us to see the right, and to do it without flinching. We are called upon to put our trust in the living God, that he will see us through.

Shuffling:

On Wednesday evening at 6:30 with a cool breeze blowing, twenty-six folks came to play in the tournament. Winners were James Brown and Herb Woodscroft over Jennie Baker and Sonci Kerr. Consolation winners were Ray Johnson and George Ormiston. On Saturday evening there were twenty-eight players. Winners were Kate McAlexander and Harry Longanecker over Aileene Howard and Doc Mc Alexander. Consolation winners were James Brown and Herb Shauger over Charles Romilly and William Benson.

Card Games

High score in Pinochle on Monday went to Annie Janke. James Brown came in second. There were five tables in play.

Dances

Friday was a delightful evening to dance, and there were three squares on the floor. Dancing is a fine recreation.

Via the Grapevine

Mr. and Mrs. William Kienzel have returned from their trip north.

Mrs. Kienzel went to the funeral of her only brother, Theodore Sundberg, on Apr. 21. She also visited many friends in Lansing, Mich., and Chicago, Ill. She joined Mr. Kienzel in Columbus, Ohio for their visit with son Harry Kienzel and family.

Gertrude Fensterman is recovering nicely from her surgery this past week. She will probably be home this week.

Sun Ray News

Isn't it wonderful that we finally have had some rain. Today as I am working on the column, the wind has taken over. There is hope now for rain all along unless conditions change.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sheppard of Bradenton spent the day Tuesday with the William Hamiltons. The Hamiltons and Sheppards are first cousins.

The Fred Weimers spent a long weekend visiting with their friends Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Gollner of Youngstown, Ohio. They are now making their home in Daytona Beach.

Visiting with his mother and step-father Mr. and Mrs. Frank Troici is Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schiller and children Carol and Michael. The Schillers are from Flushing, N. Y. Last week the paper stated that Joan and Frank Schiller were of Alva, N. Y. Their home is in Long Island, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rose of Arlington Heights, Ill., are spending a week in Florida. They are visiting with his father Frank Rose and Mrs. Rose. Harold is also making some business contacts in other sections of the state.

Guests of Miss Ruth Burnore over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stillwell of Miami.

Spending three days with Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wullens is Mr. and Mrs. O. Zimmerman of Glendale, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Mauldin and son Gerald spent Monday evening with her parents and family Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Goff of Lake Wales. While there they also spent some time at the Goff's cabin on North Lake Pierce.

Dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judy Mauldin last Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lee of Frostproof and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Rhoden of Babson Park. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Lee's birthday. On Sunday evening Mrs. Lee had the Mauldins and Rhodens over for dinner to celebrate Mr. Lee's birthday. Mrs. Mauldins has three kittens she is wanting to give away. She will have them at her home 'till the middle of next week.

Visiting the Earl Ames on Sunday evening were their cousins Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ames of Sebring.

Highlands County Residents Receive $4.5 Million of SS

$30,873,384 in social security benefits was paid to residents of Polk, Highlands and Hardee Counties last year, up 9.6 percent from the year before.

Breakdown by counties is as follows:

Polk County—29,647 beneficiaries receiving $2,988,548 monthly and $29,994,902 per year.

Highlands County—5,125 beneficiaries receiving $372,999 monthly and $4,471,928 per year.

Hardee County—1,822 beneficiaries receiving $111,376 monthly and $1,336,512 per year.

At the end of 1966, 36,594 men, women and children in Polk, Highlands and Hardee counties were receiving benefits at a monthly rate of $2,572,782, W. E. Arnold, social security district manager, reported today. 27,995 were older people, he said, receiving benefits as retired workers, the wives and husbands of retired workers and as the surviving children of aged dependent parents of workers who have died.

"But social security is not just for older people," Arnold pointed out. 4050 young widows and children in the tri-county area were receiving benefits amounting to $240,564 at the end of December. 3715 disabled workers and dependents were receiving benefits at a monthly rate of $241,277.

"Practically every young family in Polk, Hardee and Highlands Counties has survivors protection under social security that can be worth $75,000 or more, and equally valuable disability insurance protection.

The average worker, he said, can expect to collect more than the value of his social security tax contributions just in the benefits payable to him and his wife in retirement. If he does not live to retirement, his family stands to collect far more than the contributions he has paid; and the same will be true if he should become totally disabled for work before 65.

Monthly payments to the family of a worker who dies, leaving 2 or more children can range from $85 to $368 a month, depending on the worker's average earnings under social security.

Social security survivors benefits, Arnold said, can be paid to the family of a young man who has worked and paid social security contributions for as little as a year and a half during the three years before his death.

Benefits to the mother and children continue until the youngest child reaches 18, or indefinitely, if the child has a disability which began before his 18th birthday and makes it impossible for him to work and become self-supporting. Under a change in the law enacted in 1965, a child's benefits can be continued up until age 22 if he or she continues in school.

Under the schedule of taxes in the present social security law even the group of young workers who will start work in 1974, after the maximum tax rates for old-age, survivors, and disability insurance go into effect, will pay only about 80 to 85 percent of the value of their potential benefits. The matching contributions paid by their employers will account for the other 15 to 20 percent.

Over a working lifetime of 45 years, ending with his retirement at 65 in the year 2019, a young worker who earned the top amount covered by social security in every year would contribute a total of $10,318 toward his retirement protection. Adding interest, compounded at 3% percent, the value of the worker's contributions at age 65 would be $26,412. The value of the benefits payable to him and his wife in retirement, assuming average life expectancy, would be $52,853, 20 percent more than the value of his total social security contributions.

"These calculations," Arnold said, "are based on an assumption that the law will not be changed at all during the young worker's lifetime. It can be expected that there will continue to be changes in the law to improve benefits—as there have in the past."

"As pointed out in testimony before the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives in hearings on changes in the law now being considered, the financing of the social security system allows for increases in the benefit level as earnings rise in the future without any change in the contributions rates."

Kiwanis Supports Golf Course

On May 16, 1967, at the regular meeting of the Avon Park Kiwanis Club, a resolution passed by a unanimous vote in support of the action being taken by the Chamber of Commerce and the Avon Park City Council, in their efforts to povide a municipal golf course for the City of Avon Park.

Rev. Aden Childress, President

Paxton Hill Retires Again

Soon after coming to Avon Park and while Chief Engineer at the Avon Park Army Airfield, as it was known way back then, Paxton Hill looked around for something that would be an interesting and lucrative retirement hobby. He decided on outboard motors and being an engineer, he explored the mechanical features, overall quality, performance, economy and inventive potential of all motors and manufacturers. It didn't take long to determine which motor was the best and had the most options in the massive, futuring organization which would develop over 150 "FIRSTS" now used by others. His choice was MERCURY and as soon as a dealership could be obtained after the war, he got one—that was in 1945. Now, 22 years later, he is retiring as a Marine Dealer.

Paxton Hill has held several important positions in his career as an Engineer. When he first started to work for the Corps of Engineers in 1933, they put him on a dam being constructed on the Cumberland River in Tenn. as Assistant Engineer. On his next job, he was made EIC Engineer - in - charge) and worked all over the country in this capacity. Such jobs as the Donelson Dam in Tenn., Dover Dam in Ohio, Great Salt Plains Dam in Okla., and the Blue Mountain Dam in Ark. During the war, he had the McArthur Lock at the Soo (Sault Sainte Marie) Locks in Mich. But the weather up there was to bad, and he applied for transfer to a better climate. After serving as Chief Engineer at Harding Field in Baton Rouge, he was transferred to Avon Park AAF as Chief Engineer, which position he held till the field closed. He was transferred to MacDill Field and from there to Cape Canaveral (to open the area for something called "Guided Missiles." He was Chief Construction Engineer at the Cape and retired in 1961, after 28 years with the Corps of Engineers.

Capable of more than one thing at a time, Paxton was very active in boat racing as a driver and when he stopped driving, was elected to be President of the Florida Federation of Outboard Clubs for 10 years. The US Coast Guard Auxiliary interested him because of its function of helping other people and he joined in. In 2 years he was elected Commander of the West Palm Beach Flotilla, which position he was re-elected to twice. He was also Commander of the Kissimmee Flotilla.

After his retirement from the Corps, he joined the Masons and served as Secretary of Poinciana Lodge for a few years. He decided to go a little further on this road and soon became High Priest of the Royal Arch Masons and Eminent Commander of the Knights Templar, the highest offices of these bodies.

During his 22 years as a Marine Dealer, he has sold many hundreds of motors and compete rigs. He is the oldest dealer in the Southeastern part of the US and the only man that has sold and personally serviced Mercury Motors for as long as 22 years in the US.

In looking for someone to carry on the fine service that has been the policy of Paxton Hill's MERCURY MARINE, he decided that Don Conroy, of Don's Mower Service, would be the best one to carry the Mercury banner. So, he has transferred all of his valuable franchises to Mr. Conroy, who just finished a term at the Mercury Service School in Sarasota and is a Factory Certified Mercury Mechanic.

Paxton Hill's retirement from the marine business was necessitated by the condition of his wife, Patti. She is a patient in Walker Memorial Hospital with incurable intestinal cancer. Patti is the Guidance Counselor of Avon Park High School, where she has helped to shape the destinies of the students for 23 years. The Students and people of Avon Park have instituted the Patti Hill Perpetual Scholarship Fund, which will perpetuate the memory of a truly remarkable and wonderful woman, the woman that Paxton Hill is so fortunate to have for his wife during 34 wonderful years.

Clara Oliver's Mother Died In Frostproof

Mrs. Sallie E. Hammill, 92, died Friday May 19 in Frostproof. She was a native of Baron County, Ky., and came to Frostproof from Lake Harbor in 1951.

She was a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Survivors include three daughter, Mrs. Lavern Hessner of Frostproof, Mrs. Lillie B. Smith of Sebring and Mrs. Clara Oliver of Avon Park; six grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren.

Viewing was held at the Missile Funeral Home, Sunday May 21. The remains was forwarded to Greenville, Ala., on Monday May 22 for services and interment there.

Recovery Inc. Meets Thursday

Recovery, Inc. is a non-profit organization offering a proven method of self-help, after-care for nervous and former mental patients. The group is non-sectarian, even though a meeting place may be in a church or synagogue. The newly organized Avon Park group, meet every Thursday, 8 P.M. in the Religious Educational Building of the Union Congregational Church.

At all Recovery meetings, members associate on an informal friendly basis. They are introduced to each other by their first names and it is up to the individual whether or not his or her last name is disclosed. Recovery meetings are open to the public. There is no charge for attendance.

Mrs. Lila Schenck one of the leaders who donate their services, explained that through the Recovery method, the brain is retrained from negative to positive habits of thinking. All leaders are patients or former patients who have had thorough training in the self-help method. The leaders are all lay-people. Physicians, psychologists and clergymen may not become a Recovery leader. However, often they do participate, as regular members in meetings if they suffer from a nervous or former mental ailment. Any one may attend and observe a meeting but not participate. Annual memberships are $5, $10, $15 or more, but on an entirely voluntary basis, as is the free-will offering taken at each meeting. Meetings are open to all interested persons, but membership is usually limited to 30. One of the greatest benefits an individual derives from group membership is the realization that he or she is not alone—that his symptoms are common to many.

Dr. Abraham A. Low, a Chicago psychiatrist founded Recovery, Inc., in 1937 and developed the self care system, based on will power as a means of overcoming disturbing thoughts, sensations and emotions.

Meetings are devoted to individual participation in reading from Dr. Low's book "Mental Health through Will Training" and discussion of "trivialities" which have caused upsets and discomforts. Complaining is taboo. Meetings encourage everyday practice of the late psychiatrists teachings.

For further information, attend any of the Tuesday night meetings in the Educational Building of the Union Congregational Church or you may write to Recovery Inc., Address Box 337, Indian Rocks Beach, Fla.

Recovery, Inc., is more than eager to share with others their experiences and to understand their problems.

Sue Ayerst Elected Pres. Of Homemakers

The Future Homemakers of America held a Mother-Daughter Tea on Saturday, May 20 for the installation of new officers.

The new officers of the Avon Park Chapter of FHA are: president, Sue Ayerst; Pres. elect, Nina Clni; secretary, Melanie McClure; treasurer, Patricia Miller; parliamentarian, Celia Albritton, historian, Susie Biggs; projects, Fran Thompson; program of work, Becky Tomek; recreation, Pat Pait; public relations, Mary Bates.

The tea was held at the Florida Power & Light Co. from 3 to 5 P.M. The color theme was red and white with red roses decorating the table bearing the FHA emblem.

Delicious refreshments were made and served by the ninth grade Home Economics class. The recipes for the refreshments were tested by the Home Economics class for the entire week before the tea and the results met with overwhelming approval.

The co-chairman for the tea were Janie Barben and Becky Tomek, both did an excellent job.

Chapter degrees were awarded the following: Becky Tomek, Janie Barben, Diane Murphy, Bonnie Rowland, Ruth Ann Blackwelder, Barbara Rewis, Sharon Moseley, Debby Young, and Beverly Pollard.

The FHA is under the direction of the two Home Economics teachers, Mrs. Moseley and Miss Joy Criner.

Private James Stationed In Vietnam

Army Private Jesse E. James, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. James, Route 1, Avon Park, arrived at the Pleiku, Vietnam, base camp of the 4th Infantry Division, May 11.

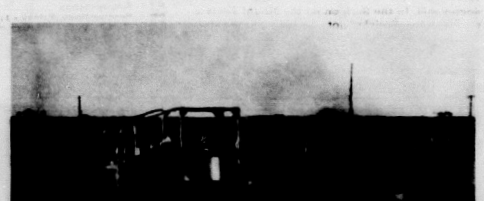

Before being assigned to a specific unit, Pvt. James received 30 hours of training with the 4th Replacement Detachment.

Training included field sanitation, civil affairs, mine and booby trap familiarization, reconnaissance, and ambush patrolling.

Pvt. James, an artilleryman, entered the Army in November 1966 and was last stationed at Ft. Sill, Okla.

DEN MOTHER OF THE YEAR Award went to Mrs. Tim Fisher of Avon Park, Pack 157. Here she receives her award from the new District Chairman J. O. Macbeth.

It's Confusing, Not Amusing, If A Certain Street Hasn't a Name

A murder is spurring the county's long-planned road naming project. When sign-making equipment was purchased by the county commission about two years ago the board members and staff began to work out a master list of county road name, and plans for erection of markers were begun.

But this is one of those jobs that gets shoved to the back of the desk when more urgent matters arise—so even with the aid of newly drawn county maps (a by-product of the county tax reassessment program)—the road-naming has not been completed.

A citizen appeared at the commission meeting to demand, "Can't we get some road signs?"

Clarence Cooper, who lives on Sparta Road, explained, "A lot of people are stopping in our neighborhood to ask where the Maxcy house is. They want to know, 'where did Von Maxcy live?'

"Well Maxcy never did live on Sparta Road. I know that's the way the address is given, and that's part of the trouble; the road names out our way are awfully mixed-up," Cooper said.

Commission chairman Carl McIntyre agreed with Cooper and explained the commission has had several methods of road naming under study is inclined to a number system which would include all county roads. Where names are well established, these would be used for the roads too.

Now about the Maxcy house—it is "off Sparta Road" actually facing another road which may have several other names or none at all.

Highway Park To Start Fund Drive With $3,500 Goal

The board of directors of the Highway Park Child Care Center has voted to begin a fund-raising drive for the Child Care Center which has been operating for the past year and a half in the basement of the Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church in Hivhway Park.

According to Mrs. Martha Robinson, president of the Center, the goal of the drive is to raise $3500 for the Center by March of 1968. $2000 of this amount is scheduled for a building fund.

The remainder will be used to meet operating deficits which the center will incur in an expansion of its program planned for the 1967-68 school term. Presently the center is financing its instructional program for 30 children primarily from daily charges to parents of 50 cents per child.

The center has also received generous donations of toys and supplies from churches, schools and individuals throughout Highlands County, and will continue to seek support from these sources.

If the drive is successful, the Center hopes to begin construction of a new preschool facility in the spring of 1968 on land leased from the Consolidated Financial Corporation of Sebring.

Congregational Youth Sponsor Sweet Shoppe

The Senior Youth Fellowship of Union Congregational Church are planning to earn money for their Work Day for Christ by having a "sweet shoppe" at the family night supper, May 28.

They will serve fancy and delicious sundaes.

The families are asked not to bring desserts. Instead a dessert can be purchased at the "sweet shoppe."

All proceeds will go to Work Day for Christ.

Terry Oberle Receives Award

Terry Oberle of Avon Park, a member of the May graduating class at Florida Southern College, Lakeland, received the annual achievement award of Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity.

Oberle, who was graduated with the A.B. degree, was editor of the Southern, campus weekly newspaper, his senior year and served previously as managing editor and sports editor. The paper has won numerous national awards for college publications.

He was a member of Theta Chi social fraternity, active in the Men's Student Government Association, a member of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity for college men, and played on the junior varsity basketball and baseball teams.

A 1963 graduate of Avon Park High School, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Oberle.

DISHPAN HANDS in close-up? Parched land seen from the air? Neither. It's the south end of a north-bound elephant at the San Francisco Zoo.

Perhaps the fellow who coined the phrase "Thank God it's Friday" was Robinson Crusoe.

Casserole is often just a fancy name for stewed leftovers.

High Living

Greatest altitude at which men are known to live permanently is 17,500 feet, in a mining settlement at Aconquilcha in the Andes.

Born in Boat

First white child born in New England was Peregrine White, who was born on the Mayflower while it was in Cape Cod harbor.

During his political heyday, someone asked Stevenson the definition of "egg-head" and this was his intellectual reply: "One who calls Marilyn Monroe Mrs. Arthur Miller."

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

When jolly good fellows get together to drink a toast, an expression often heard goes like this: "Here's mud in your eye!"

Oddly enough, this is not a toast to a jolly good fellow, but a toast to oneself, for it means, "I hope I beat you."

The expression goes back to the days when horse racing was legalized in more places than it is today and betting was done in the open.

Quite often the race track would be muddy and the horse in front (or the winner, to be exact) would kick up mud into the eyes and faces of the horses and jockeys who rode behind.

"Here's to mud in your eye" meant: "I hope I beat you and that my horse will run so fast that he will kick mud into the eyes of your horse and your jockey."

When someone proposes this toast at a modern cocktail party, horse racing is perhaps the furthest thing from his mind.

FADING RAPIDLY from the American scene are the one-room schoolhouses in which millions of Americans received part or all of their education. This one is near Ainsworth, Neb.

PUBLICITY is nothing new to Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra, a veteran of previous Mercury and Gemini flights, back in the headlines as commander of the first Apollo space flight. Schirra, 44, will be accompanied on the flight early in 1968 by Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele, 36, and Walter Cunningham, 33, a civilian.

The Modern Way With bryant

THERE IS A SIMPLE APPLICATION TO FIT YOUR BUSINESS . . .

Restaurants, apartments, banks, motels, churches, entire shopping centers and many more commercial and industrial establishments are being comfort conditioned with Bryant GAS Air Conditioning. More and more business owners realize the many advantages of providing summer comfort for their customers and employees.

The Bryant Gas Air Conditioner is reliable, simple to install, practically maintenance-free, economical to operate and the ideal answer to any commercial and industrial application whether it's for modernizing of existing buildings or for installation in new facilities. It is an air-cooled, remote water chiller which can be matched with Bryant furnaces, duct heaters, boilers or all-weather rooftop units for a quality, year 'round heating and air conditioning system. Or, it can be installed as an attractive package unit operating as a cooling only system.

These owners have selected Bryant Gas Air Conditioning knowing that they will enjoy the benefits of a quality system engineered for long life and peak efficiency year after year. Whether you're planning to replace old equipment, add air conditioning or build new facilities, don't make your comfort system decision until you have investigated the advantages Bryant GAS Air Conditioning offers you. Regardless of your heating and air conditioning requirements, from the smallest to the largest, there is a Bryant system, powered by gas, the low-cost, dependable fuel, to meet your specific needs . . . backed by factory-trained sales and service personnel.

84 Seniors to Graduate From APHS Tuesday

Baccalaureate service for the Avon Park graduating class of 1967 will be held Sunday, June 4, 8 P.M. at the High School Auditorium.

The eighty four seniors will take their places during the Processional, "Pomp and Circumstance." Invocation by Rev. Lester Miller followed by two numbers by the High School Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Eberle, Director.

Rev. Herbert D. Graetz will read the scripture and offer prayer. The sermon "Freedom" will be delivered by Father John L. Knapp. Benediction by Rev. James Lighty.

Graduation will take place Tues., June 6, 8 p.m. in the High School Auditorium. Special music "Americans We" by Fillmore and "Music For A Ceremony" by Morrissey will be played by the band under the direction of Victor McKusa, Director.

Steven Philip Weber will give the Salutatory Address. Class vice president's address by Mary Anne Graham, with Joe T. Strickler giving the Valedictory Address. Dr. Charles W. LaPradd, President of St. Johns River Junior College will deliver the Commencement address.

Awards will be presented by R. Guy Garrett, Supervising Principal and Aaron W. Cravens, Assistant Principal.

Superintendent of Schools, George F. Douglass will present the diplomas, followed by the Recessional "Ceremony" by Morrissey.

Alky Treatment Bill Gets Good Tally Reception

The bill for involuntary treatment of alcoholics now before the Florida Legislature, which was prepared by Judge Mervin Rehrer, appears to have a good chance of passage, the Judge said today.

"I conferred with the senate committees with individuals and prepared a substitute bill for them which they seemed to consider favorably," the judge said.

The substitute bill changes the original bill in that it authorizes and directs state institutions to get with the director of the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program to work up a program of probable costs.

This is the third year the bill has been before the legislature. Highland County's legislator, James S. Tillman, has expressed great interest in it and as a result of an article regarding this in the Sarasota papers he received 15 letters, Rehrer said, all of them favoring the involuntary treatment.

As things are now, alcoholics can only be given treatment on a voluntary basis.

Report Cards Wednesday

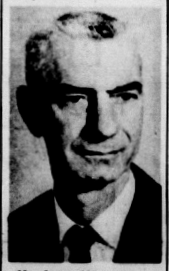

Report cards will be given out Wednesday morning from 8:30 to 12:00 (June 7, 1967). Students, please see each teacher in his regular room for each report card. If you will be unable to pick up your cards, bring a self-addressed stamped envelope to the office before school closes session on June 2, 1967.

Awards and Scholarships Presented At Avon Park High School Monday

Awards and Scholarships were presented to the outstanding students and graduates of the 1967 class, in the High School Auditorium, during Awards Day, May 29, 1967.

For highest achievement in Mr. Loveless' American History Class, Bill Knapp; for World History, Patricia Miller.

Mrs. Ford presented the DAR (Daughters of American Revolution) Award to Sharon Sneigrove and $10 to Gail Metheny, winner of the DAR Essay Contest.

Mr. James Martindale was awarded the "Teacher of the Year" trophy by Steve Weber, president of the Key Club.

Mr. Martindale, a teacher of Physical Science, Chemistry Study and one Physics Class received the unanimous vote of the senior class as the "Teacher of the Year."

Mr. David Lanier presented the Rotary Leadership Award to a Senior boy, Joe Strickler. This award is based on a point system for school activities and is given only to a senior boy.

Mr. Jim Heim presented the American Legion Awards: American Legion Award (Based on Courage, Leadership Honor, Scholarship and Service) 9th Grade—James Williams; 12th Grade—Joe Strickler. American Legion Auxiliary Award (Based on Courage, Scholarship, Consciousness, Character and Service). 9th Grade—Becky Tomek; 12th Grade—Sandra Dixon.

Coach Joe Franza and Staff (Dale Landress, Basketball Coach; Ralph Hill, Baseball Coach, and Fred Sandlin, Track Coach) presented the Athletic Awards for the outstanding players in the various sports.

Emmitt Money won the coveted outstanding senior athlete trophy for the 1966-1967 season at Avon Park High School and was presented his award at an awards assembly for the APHS student body Monday morning by athletic director Joe Franza.

Money was chosen for the top Red Devil award on five points—ability, training, leadership, dependability, and sportsmanship. The lanky senior was quarterback and defensive end on the football team, was the top scorer on the basketball squad, and pitched and played shortstop on the Red Devil baseball team.

The Gough Memorial baseball trophy, given annually to the most valuable baseball player, also went to Money for his contribution to the Red Devils success in going to the finals of the group tournament.

Joe Strickler and Harold Callaway also won athletic awards with Strickler getting the best all round basketball player trophy from Coach Dale Landress and Callaway winning the most valuable track man trophy which was presented by Coach Fred Sandlin.

Andrew Wells was presented a trophy for being chosen the most improved basketball player on this year's squad and Denny Montsdeoca received the most improved baseball player trophy. Kenny Dixon, who placed second in the half mile in state competition this year, was awarded the most improved track trophy.

Coach Franza presented all members of the 1966 football team a gold football from the Avon Park Athletic Association for their efforts which took them to the finals of the Class B football play-off.

In other action at the awards program, the four football captains - Emmitt Money, Harold Callaway, Bobby Barben, and Joe Strickler - presented the hugh football trophy won by the team to the school.

Letters were presented to team members in basketball, track and baseball. Ten boys lettered in basketball—Money, Strickler, Wells, Carl Barnes, John Wright, Earl Sims, Kenny Dixon, Bill Knapp, Dean Lemler, and

Public Hearing To Be Held Friday

An important hearing will be held Friday morning at 9 a.m. at the Council Chamber in City Hall, Avon Park. The meeting will be conducted by the Florida Public Service Commission for the purpose of receiving testimony which will enable the commission to determine whether or not it should revoke the authority granted to SALRR to discontinue conditional stops for its crack trains, Silver Meteor and Silver Star.

All interested parties will be given the opportunity to be fully heard.

The Chamber of Commerce has publically stated that this matter is of great importance to Avon Park and the surrounding area. They urge all interested citizens to make every effort to attend this hearing.

All Councilmen and important city officials will be at the hearing to help bolster the case for restoring conditional stops train service to Avon Park. Currently only one train in each direction stops at Avon Park with the other trains stopping on a conditional basis in Sebring.

Drivers Get License Suspension

Juveniles in Highlands county, that is, boys and girls below age 17, who are caught in traffic offenses, can just about predict they are going to get a license suspension.

Such suspensions, handed out by County Judge Mervin Rehrer, can extend anywhere from 10 to 90 days, usually. In one instance, where the defendant was 16 years old and driving while drinking, the judge lifted the license until the boy became 18 years old.

"Unless there are very alleviating circumstances, an offender can count on a license suspension," said Judge Rehrer. There were a total of 62 juvenile traffic offenders last year and it's running along at the same rate this year.

"The license loss is more important to these young drivers than paying a $50 fine," commented juvenile counselor Robert Lindsay.

One of the reasons the judge suspends a license, rather than hands out a fine is that "normally the mother or father pays it." He added that usually parents step in and help to keep a child from further traffic offenses, and in some instances, "the parents want the help of the court" in curbing their offspring.

The majority of the charges are speeding and reckless driving. And girls are "more cautious," says Lindsay.

Judge Rehrer has no particular policy in sentencing on first, second or third offenders — "I just judge each case on its merit."

Central Purchasing To Save County 10

Highlands County has gone to complete central purchasing—and the expected saving probably will run about 10 per cent over last year—no small saving, considering the year's expenditure of $543,000.

The county has had a purchasing agent, Eugene Hamlin, for two and one half years, but his office has not done all purchasing for all offices.

"The increased volume buying power will probably save the county an additional 10 per cent," estimated Hamlin, who has been buying everything from pencils to equipment.

The purchasing office, consisting of Hamlin and a secretary, has been making all purchases for the Welfare Department, Board of County Commissioners, Supervisor of Elections, Road Department, Service officer, small claims court, and juvenile department.

From now on, they will continue buying for these, with the additional chore of buying for the law library, circuit judge, clerk of circuit court, county judge, tag agency, tax assessor and tax collector.

The purchasing office spent $543,000 for the county during the 1965-66 budget year, the funds coming from the county's general fund, road and bridge fund and construction trust fund.

As an example of how savings can be obtained, Hamlin cited the purchase of desks. "For instance," he said, "we save about 30 per cent over what we were paying three years ago—same desk, same supplier." He added that "we are trying to keep everything we can at home. We can get just as good a price here as anywhere else."

Anything totaling over $1,000 in any one year has to be bid.

The purchasing agent's office in addition to saving money has been able to keep a much more accurate inventory. The way it is operated now, a continuing inventory is kept and a visual inventory made of all county property not disposable within a year. Inventory is kept on all gas, oils and road materials.

The offices which now will be completely under the purchasing agent for the first time, operate under the fee system. The taxpayer will feel the saving when money saved goes back to the county as the offices turn over their excess fees.

Corporal Kenneth Cook Is Serving With Marine Security Guard

Marine Corporal Kenneth Cook is presently serving with the Marine SecurityGuards at the American Embassy, Khartoum, Sudan. He is one of five Marines assigned to protect classified matter at the State Department establishment in Sudan.

Corporal Cook has been at his present station since Nov. 1966, when he arrived following a trip half way round the world in connection in President Johnson's trip to the far east. His travels took him to San Francisco, Calif.; Manilla, Philippines; Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; Bangkok, Thailand; Bombay, and Aden, Saudi Arabia.

He will serve two years as a Marine Security Guard overseas and will then reeturn to a regular Marine Corps in the United States. He received his training for this duty at the Marine Security Guard School in Arlington, Va., where he graduated on Aug. 12, 1966.

Corporal Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Cook, Lake Isis. He is a graduate of Avon Park High School and entered service Aug. 12, 1965.

Wayne Albright Charged With Assault Monday

Avon Park City Councilman Wayne W. Albright late Monday was formally charged with assault on a warrant sworn out by James Kermit Cobb of Avon Park.

The warrant was served on Mr. Albright by Highlands County Deputy Sheriff Charles Snelgrove. Mr. Cobb went to the Highlands County Court House Monday morning to apply for the warrant at the office of County Judge Mervin Rehrer, who signed it Monday afternoon.

The action resulted after the two men according to witnesses had a heated argument Sunday night over a roofing job that Mr. Cobb worked on at Councilman Albright's home.

Mr. Albright posted a $100 bond and hearing before County Judge Mervin Rehrer will be set at a later date.

Capt. D. E. Long Wounded In Vietnam

Capt. Donald E. Long, helicopter pilot with the U.S. Air Force in Vietnam, has been wounded in action, but his parents have received word that he is not in serious condition.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max E. Long, 107 Seventh St., Sebring, have received word that their son's wounds were caused from metal fragments from small arms fire while he was on a combat mission.

Capt. Long's wife and five children are residents of Avon Park. He is a graduate of Sebring High School.

TAX SALE JUNE 7

About 800 items of Highlands County property will go on sale on the courthouse steps at 1 P.M. Thursday in the annual delinquent tax certificate sale. This sale will be conducted by County Tax Collector W. H. Prescott and J. T. Landress.

County Teacher Salary Group Looks to State

Highlands County Education Association's salary committee met Wednesday, but it didn't have much to talk about.

"We are stymied until we know what — if anything — is going to happen to the school legislation in Tallahassee," said Jack Ingle, president of HCEA.

Ingle, who was one of the HCEA representatives at the state-wide "legislative information day" in Tallahassee last week, said he came away from that session "more pessimistic than ever."

He pointed out that Senate President Verle A. Pope had failed to muster the two-thirds vote needed to bring the school appropriations bill to the Senate floor for consideration on the legislative information day.

Senator Pope himself told the Florida Education Association representatives that if he couldn't find the votes to get the bill to the floor he is almost certain he could not find the two-third majority to override a veto.

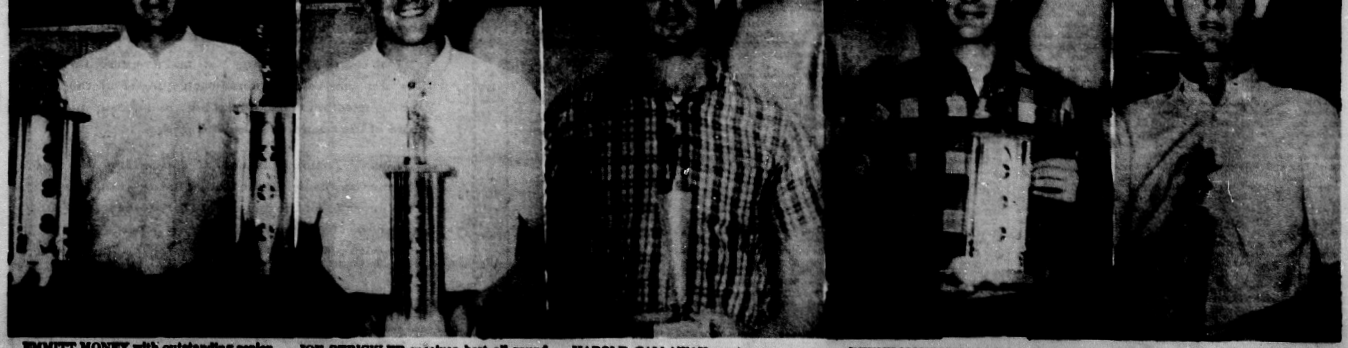

Ingle said teachers feel a "pessimistic certainty" that bills ow before the Legislature — with appropriations of approximately $280 million — will be vetoed. He pointed out that the state's fiscal year ends on June 30 and unless some sort of education appropriation has gone on the books before then, the State Department of Education will have to stop writing checks until a bill is passed.

"This would be real chaos," Ingle commented.

There will be another meeting of the FEA board in Tallahassee on June 10 and almost certainly the agenda at that meeting will include consideration of additional sanctions.

To date FEA has proceeded with only two of the five approved in the FEA poll — public censure of Governor Claude Kirk and listing of Florida as a state professionally undesirable for teachers. FEA has not, as yet, blacklisted the state with industrial organizations which might move businessup into the state.

Highlands County teachers do not have any special meetings planned at this time, Ingle said. "We have no argument with the local administration. The school board and the Superintendent have made every effort to understand educational problems and find solutions for them. We feel we have relatively good moral support in the community. Our argument is at the state level — the help must come from Tallahassee," Ingle said.

EMMITT MONEY with outstanding senior Athlete Trophy and The Gough Memorial Trophy.

JOE STRICKLER receives best all round Baseball Trophy.

HAROLD CALLAWAY receives most valuable Track Man Trophy.

DENNY MONTSDEOCA received the most improved Baseball Trophy.

KENNY DIXON received the most improved Track Trophy.

Tallahassee—The Florida legislature displayed some rather contrasting and confusing logic during its first two months of operation.

For instance, in the early days of the session the American flag was brought forth from its casements and waved vigorously by members of both chambers when free enterprise and insurance were merged into a single proposal.

The oratory was long and convincing as proponents, including many Republicans extolled the virtues of private enterprise and how it has made this country great.

The proposition was to let insurance giants compete on premiums and the state's premium controls were a hindrance to this competition.

The upshot was that state regulations were lifted and insurance now will compete.

But then the cow which to some is sacred hit the floor of the legislature. This is the citrus indstry.

Private enterprise and free competition, the legislature was told, was causing some problems in the citrus industry. It should be "stabilized."

Now stabilization, said Rep. Ray Mattox, D-Winter Haven, does not mean price fixing. It merely means helping the little grower, sort of the "mom and dad store" argument which the 1965 session heard when it was hoped the liquor industry could be "stabilized" by fixing prices.

Consequently, an amendment was tacked onto the citrus measure in the House which said it wouldn't fix prices.

Sen. Ben Hill Griffin, millionaire citrus grower, processor and cattleman from Frostproof, however, called a spade a spade.

He said "I basically am opposed to price fixing or controls for the citrus industry by federal, state or any other government.

"Under the free enterprise system, the citrus industry has enjoyed wonderful prosperity and development.

Usually, governors are fearful to leave Tallahassee for any length of time when the legislature is in town, in fact, the executive branch normally likes to see the legislature in session as little as possible.

But Gov. Claude Kirk, true to his campaign statements, continues to practice the art of willing—the state and him self-throughout the state and nation.

Perhaps being the first Republican governor in a century, with the first substantial following of a governor in the legislature in years, gives him a feeling of security in knowing his programs will receive due consideration in legislative chambers.

Rep. Henry Land, D-Tangerine, chairman of the House appropriations committee, noted last week that Gov. Kirk "seems to be more interested in Miami, Chicago, New York and Houston than in the problems of the state."

Gov. Kirk didn't fail to show interest in branch banking legislation in the legislature which incidentally would be an aid to Ed Ball, executor of the duPont estate, which has been ordered to do something about 31 banks in the state which it controls.

He personally induced Dr. Clifford Kreps, University of North Carolina, branch banking proponent; Joel T. Lee, vice president of the Planters National Bank and Trust Co., at Rocky Mount, N. C.; and Dr. C. Arnold Mathews, University of Florida branch banking expert, to appear before a subcommittee.

Fred Kent, legislative aide to Gov. Kirk, said, "We're not urging any a fight between little and big bankers. You just can't have big business and little banks."

Democrats and Republicans continued last week to jockey for voting position, using the appropriations bill as the nag which they beat unmercifully. It is expected that a compromise between the House and Senate version of the Democratically drafted measure will be ironed out the first of this week.

There is little doubt in anyone's mind that major portions of the bill—if not all of it—will be vetoes by Gov. Kirk.

Then back to the drawing boards.

WISPS FROM WAGS: With the verbiage coming out of the regular session, the 1885 constitution looks more modern every day.

Too Late to Classify

By Russell Kay

Are you alarmed and disturbed by the direction in which the world seems to be moving? Do you deplore the riots, the demonstrations, the kookie beatniks, the miniskirts, the free love, the student uprisings, the flag and draft card burnings, the incessant screaming of agitators, the sit-ins, the bare breasts, the nude models and bathers, the LSD advocates and the God is Dead contenders?

Are you concerned that the veneral disease reports indicate that they are approaching an epidemic stage, that the crime rate steadily increases, the lawbreakers are protected and the rights and welfare of law abiding citizens are ignored?

Have you been blaming our political leaders, the President, the Congress, the State Legislature, the Governor for these short comings? Do you demand that the police and other law enforcers do something about it?

Maybe you had better stop and count your change. The American press, radio and television are largely responsible for the situation.

I know this statement will bring a wild scream from the so-called news media. But just stop a minute and ask yourself who put the leaders of all these obnoxious movements on a pinnacle, who gave them the nation and world wide publicity that enabled them to continue and expand their efforts and their profits.

Suppose such names as Martin Luther King, Stokley Carmichael, and countless other agitators had been denied the publicity afforded by present day press and radio.

Recently Paul Harvey suggested that while we continue to report the news as it happens throughout the world we make it a point NOT to build up agitators and screw balls by the use of their names.

Instead of saying that Martin Luther King led a protest march why can't we simply state that a Negro led a protest march or in the case of Carmichael, a Negro denounced the war and urged defience of the draft? In the case of screw balls seeking publicity must we publish their names, show them on television or herald them on radio. Why must we publicize them by publishing their pictures and their names? If we still consider such items as NEWS why not simply state that a girl went swimming in the nude at Miami Beach, or another youngster displayed her breasts in public?

As long as we continue to publicize our agitators and wild youths we can expect to see them placed on pedestals and offered jobs in nightclubs or granted interviews in the White House.

While newspaper editors denounce publicity and pride themselves on keeping it out of their columns they go all out and overboard to publicize any movement or person that is set on destroying the nation and advancing their own interests.

I don't know about you but it makes me sick at my stomach.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Should Colleges Train for Life?

Colleges are springing up across the nation at the rate of one a week, in an effort to keep pace with the rapid and continuing increase in the number of students.

These new schools, according to John W. Gardner, secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, have a priceless chance to create new patterns. They are not hampered by conforming to outmoded traditions.

Meeting Students' Needs?

But are the colleges today meeting the needs of the students? Is present-day education giving our young people what they need and want in order to live satisfying lives in our 20th-century society?

A group of college students recently queried by United Press International gave illuminating replies to the question, "What is the most important problem facing college students today?"

In the multitude of books with which the college student is surrounded, one book which is frequently ignored is the Bible.

Yet this is the book to which the late great Yale university professor, Dr. William Lyon Phelps, referred when he said, "A knowledge of the Bible without a college education is of greater value than a college education without a knowledge of the Bible."

And this is the book which says, "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

Most Important Book

For college students—and for all other people—the Bible holds the key to the basic issues of life.

Patrick Henry said of the Bible, "Here is a book worth more than all the others ever printed."

It is the one book which we dare not ignore or neglect.

The students did not indicate any serious problem in the area of academic instruction, but they did note a great lack in the area of preparation for life.

Searching for Purpose

Specifically, some said that the most important problem facing college students was the search for identity, for individuality, for purpose—for a philosophy which puts life into the proper perspective and provides an answer to the question, "Who am I and what should I do with my life?"

Is it possible that colleges, in their quest for the latest and best in scientific education, have neglected the most basic need of students—the need to find themselves, to relate themselves to society and to life in a satisfying way?

If this need is not met, isn't there a failure somewhere?

ROGER W. BABSON

Big Business; Juvenile Delinquency

Babson Park, Mass., June 1. Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen like to think that juvenile delinquency comes as a result of broken homes, poverty, urban overcrowding, ignorance, and a lot of other bad situations. Granted, these causes stand high among these creating the "bad image" of many of our young people. But Mr. and Mrs. Average Citizen would be quite surprised if it were suggested that they themselves may be just as guilty.

Competition in Business a Factor

"But how are we contributing to juvenile delinquency?" they might ask in amazement. How, indeed? The husband has a good job, the wife is active in social and community affairs, the children have fine educational opportunities, the family has a comfortable home. But there is an enemy frequently creeping into this blissful scene, and that is the competition which forces us so often to place our loyalty to business before loyalty to family. This may well be in fact one of the most serious dangers implicit within the "American Way" of free enterprise.

An almost hysterical pursuit of company business regardless of the damaging effects on family life is evidence of the deterioration of moral values that has hit too many businessmen. When a father should be spending time with his wife and children, he is entertaining customers or trying to catch up with his office paper work. His position makes more and more inroads on evenings and weekends. He becomes a stranger in his own home.

Parental Guidance is Forgotten

Fathers often seem proud of the prep schools they find for their teenagers. There the kids will learn to ski, skate, and play tennis, and father will be saved a lot of time and trouble. But school and college guidance offices have mountains of files on young people whose dads take this attitude. The youngsters are emotionally unstable for the simple reason that their parents never played with them enough, never gave them the guidance and parental understanding that they needed in the growing-up process.

Too many fathers wake up with a start one day and find that their sons are already young men . . . and they have'n't taken the time to love them every day, to enjoy them, or to discipline them. Many a son has fallen into serious difficulties because he never received the kind of guidance he needed from a father. And how many mothers are "corporation wives" spending an enormous amount of time entertaining hubby's business associates? It isn't difficult to see that many a company is so demanding in terms of time that little is left for either parent to spend with the children.

Where is Normal Companionship

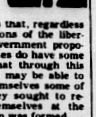

What a lot of dads have is a conscious—or subconscious—sense of guilt. They are at least dimly aware that they are not giving much time to family picnics, boating, ball games in the back lot, church and school affairs. And how do they try to compensate for this? By giving their youngsters "everything they want." This often means fat allowance, automobiles, costly education, summer-camp vacations away from home, and even marriage subsidies. Father doesn't want his kids to work as hard as he has. So he gives them everything—everything material, that is, everything but the all-valuable normal parental companionship and the discipline of love.

It is astonishing how many companies refuse to allow many types of employees, such as sales managers—to stay in one place long enough to become not only part of the family but part of the community. They are forced to move every two or three years. The wives become irritable, the children have trouble moving from one school to another and being torn away from their friends, and the fathers are likely to end up with ulcers.

Little wonder that so many young ones are inconsiderate, emotionally insecure, and ready to think the world owes them a living. The competitive pace that business sets may have more to do with juvenile delinquency in these strange, indirect ways than most people realize, even among the highly educated and the well-to-do.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

States Do Have Some Rights

WASHINGTON, D.C.—History may mark July of 1964, when the Supreme Court imposed its one man-one vote ruling upon the nation, as the pivotal date when public opinion turned back toward reaffirmation of the sovereignity of the states.

For background, Illinois Senator Dirksen (a part-time Floridian) has championed states' rights with a proposed constitutional amendment which would restore in part the individual states' right to apportion their legislative representation system on the basis of reasons other than population—geographical, for instance.

His proposed amendment, while supported by a senate majority, has not found the necessary two-thirds majority for approval, with House concurrence, of its submission to the states for ratification.

In consequence, there has been a movement to direct Congress under a never-used constitutional provision to assembel a convention to amend the constitution. Resolutions urging such a convention have been passed by 32 state legislatures. Only two more are approvals are needed to make the calling of such a convention mandatory upon The Congress.

Voices have been raised among members of the liberal bloc in both the Senate and the House, in the press, and elsewhere decrying such a convention as perilous to our system of government. There are those in the Senate particularly who insist that The Congress would be under no obligation of any kind to order a convention to amend the Constitution just because the legislatures of 34 states requested it to do so. These objections seemingly are based on the fear of these liberal elements that such a convention would amend the Constitution in a manner inconsistent with their own views, and that some way therefore should be found to avoid calling a constitutional convention.

Those who express this point of view are, strangely, among those who most loudly express the point of view that the Constitution, as interpreted by the Warren Supreme Court, is the law of the land and that no one has the right to question such interpretation.

This is strange to me, because neither the so-called Warren Court, nor any earlier combination of jurists making up our Supreme Court, has ever questioned the validity of the quite specific provision of the Constitution which provides for state initiative in ordersembel a convention to amend the Constitution.

That provision (Article 5) states simply:

"The Congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this Constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, SHALL call a convention for proposing amendments, which in either case SHALL be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this Constitution, when ratified" by three-fourths of the states.

This is plain enough, I think. It says SHALL, not may. It means that, regardless of the objections of the liberal, central government proponents, the states do have some rights—and that through this provision still may be able to restore to themselves some of the rights they sought to reserve for themselves at the time the Union was formed.

News Columnist Gets Reply From Gov. Claude Kirk

Dear Mr. Shobe:

This is in response to your letter of May 20 regarding legislation concerning the Sebring Grand Prix.

Your comments will be kept in mind in the event this office can be of assistance in this matter. In the meantime, it is suggested that you enlighten the members of your legislative delegation on this subject.

Thank you for your continued support as well as your interest in this matter.

Judge Rehrer Testifies On Alcohol Bill

County Judge Mervin Rehrer is in Tallahassee this week to testify on a bill he has proposed which would provide involuntary treatment for alcoholics.

This is the third time Judge Rehrer, chairman of the mental health committee for the Florida County Judge's Association has attempted to get such a bill passed. During his absence, court was conducted yesterday (Wednesday) and today by Judge G. E. Bryant of Okeechobee.

The bill was introduced last week by Sen. Wilbur Boyd of Palmetto, into the senate and by Rep. Jim Tillman of Mylo, into the House. Rep. Tillman expressed affirmative interest in the bill at the legislative meeting here several weeks ago with civic leaders.

Judge Rehrer declared: "The present laws in the state do not permit the courts to deal with the alcoholic in any manner other than as a criminal. Past experience has shown that jail confinement does not help the alcoholic, neither does it tend to alleviate the problem."

Florida law prohibits a county judge from committing an alcoholic to one of the Florida State Hospitals and also prohibits the Florida State Hospitals from accepting an alcoholic as a mentally ill person for confinement.

Recent studies have shown, Rehrer said, that involuntary treatment has been as effective as the voluntary programs.

One of the provisions of the bill would provide that a person adjudged alcoholic would have his driving privilege suspended until he was adjudged not an alcoholic.

$920.50 Raised In County

The 1967 Easter Seal appeal is over the top.

Preliminary tabulations from throughout the state total $200,000, according to M. Lisle Reese, state director for the Florida Society for Crippled Children and Adults, 983 Lee Rd., Orlando.

Reese predicted when final returns are counted the total would reach an all-time high of $275,000.

Rex E. Bond, president First National Bank of Sebring, reports the local drive went down about two hundred with $920.50 raised in Highlands County.

Funds raised here support Camp Challenge, Florida's Easter Seal Camp located in Lake County eight miles east of Mt. Dora on State Rd. 46. Camp's seventh season gets underway June 4 with counselor training week. Enrollment this summer is expected to soar to nearly 400 handicapped children and adults, said L. Paul Murray, camp director.

How Camp Areas Ready at Tampa And in Panhandle

Geared for the biggest recreation season yet, two of Florida's State Forests are putting a special accent this summer on family camping.

New camp facilities have been completed at Blackwater River State Forest, northeast of Milton in the Florida panhandle, and at Withlacoochee State Forest, northeast of Tampa.

At Blackwater, picnic tables are provided for campers, along with an excellent swimming area. Outdoor grills have been installed, along with fresh water faucets, dressing rooms, and trash disposal. At nearby swimming sites, at both Blackwater and Withlacoochee, lifeguards are on duty, but during weekends only.

Two separate camping areas are ready at Withlacoochee State Forest, with 60 campsites each—one near I-75 and the other at Cypress Glen. Both face scenic Silver Lake. Facilities are similar to those at Blackwater.

At Silver Lake, on Withlacoochee State Forest, there is fishing, boating, picnicking, and water-skiing.

Church Men May Oppose Wet County

With three months left to get the approximately 4,000 signers needed to force a vote on the wet or dry issue in the county, the committee has 3,600 signers—and possible opposition from the ministerial associations of Highlands County.

A planning committee of the ministerial group has been appointed. What their decision will be — to fight or not to fight package sales or over the counter sales of liquor or both, will be decided when they meet next week, a spokesman said today.

Meanwhile the Elks club has gone to the bottle club policy and according to Hy Green, club manager, "this is turning out to be popular and people are enjoying themselves."

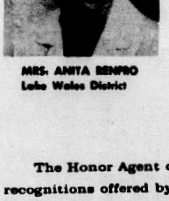

The club is keeping busy on other fronts.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

R. Guy Garrett
Supervising Principal

I hope that this Graduation Day, if not before, each of you will ask the age old questions: Who am I? Where am I going? What am I living for? So often we do spend a lifetime without asking these questions. As a writer of Old once said:

"For yesterday is but a dream,
And tomorrow is only a vision,
But today - well lived
Makes every yesterday a dream of happiness,
And every tomorrow a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to this Day."
We have had a good year at Avon Park High School.

Thanks for a job well done. You have made your Yesterday a dream of Happiness.

Local Fishermen Get Big Haul Of Bass

Marty Kelly, Quentin Atkins and Lawler wells spent Saturday fishing Arbuckle Creek.

Using spinning outfits and artificial eels, they started at 7 A.M. from Horse Hammock wading the creek to the Hartt Ranch, where they landed at 7 P.M. covering approximately 12 miles.

They were well rewarded with a catch of 67 bass, releasing all but 13 that were badly hooked and couldn't survive. The bass ranged in size the largest weighing 3 pounds.

Along their route they saw wild hogs, turkeys, alligators, quail, duck and otters.

Quick sand was a hazard at times. The boys were taught how to roll themselves out of the quick sand to safety, resulting in two very muddy boys returning to their homes.

If you are buying a piece of furniture with drawers, open the drawers and pull them out to see how they are made. Drawers tell much about the quality of construction of the piece of furniture.

Before buying a chest or other piece of furniture with drawers you should check the joints on the four corners of each drawer to see if they are dovetailed. If they are, the boards are joined at the end by interlocking tenons cut in the shape of a dovetail.

Examine the inside of the drawer to see if it has been smoothly sanded and coated with finish. Turn the drawer over and examine the drawer bottom. Look for the center guide built into the drawer bottom. This guide makes the drawer glide smoothly. Drawers in the medium-priced range move on noiseless nylon glides. You will also see warp-proof plastic drawers with wooden fronts.

Mrs. Roberta Hall, Extension Home Furnishing Specialist says, be sure to look to see if the bottom of the drawer is fitted into grooves, not nailed onto the sides. Glue blocks or triangular wooden wedges should hold the bottom firmly to the sides. These add extra support and strength to the drawer.

dust panels used between the drawers to create individual storage compartments are another indication of quality.

You can judge these construction features on the same basis on unfinished or ready-to-finish furniture as on finished types.

Two Burglars Are Sentenced

Robert Dowling, 20 of Washington, D. C., who pleaded guilty to burgling the Lake Placid Motor Co. and Shackelford's Service Station at Lake Placid in April was sentenced to from six months to five years in jail by Circuit Judge Clifton Kelly Monday.

[illegible] sentenced to six months to two years was Charles Green, Jr., 21, Avon Park Negro, in the burglary of the apartment of Shirley Newsom, Sebring.

Enrollment Open For Day Camp For Retardees

Enrollment has now opened in the "Summer Fun camp — 1967", according to the camp advisory chairman, Rev. Tom W. Jones.

The camp is designed for children of limited ability and is sponsored by the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children.

Games, swimming lessons, hikes, handcrafts and numerous enrichment opportunities will be among the activities of the youngsters enrolled. By special arrangement with the Sebring Woman's Club, the club facilities on West Lakeview Drive will be the camp center of activities.

According to Mr. Jones, the camp director will be Andy Miracle, Jr., who begins camp preparations this week. Camp will open for the children on June 15 and close August 9. It will be operated from 8:30 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. each day, Monday through Friday.

Through a special grant made by the state Division of Mental Retardation the local Association will be able to operate the camp without registration fees or any cost to the youngsters except 10 cents a day for snacks. The Association will share in underwriting the anticipated $3000 cost.

Transportation is being arranged from both Avon Park and Lake Placid for those needing it. Many of the enrollees will be students at either of the Ridge Area Day Schools.

For further information or for application forms, may be obtained at 208 Poinsettia, Sebring, or EV 5-6852, Mr. Jones said.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Hardly a more timely topic could have been presented than the subject of golf in the light of recent community interest in reactivating the old Pinecrest Course in our community. Charlie Whitehead introduced Bill Reck who discussed this local question. He reported that the newly formed Avon Park Golf Ass'n has 110 members at $120 each; enough to interest our City Commission in going into this project. The Pinecrest course would be leased from the Highlands School for Girls, the owner, for a number of years.

The course needs some attention that would cost a considerable amount of cash. It is widely felt that the operation of this famous Course, home of the old "Haig and Haig" would be a large asset in the upbuilding of our community as the years come on us. Many people have moved from Avon Park as Winter residents to Sebring, because of their interest in golf. More members are needed for the Avon Park Golf Assn.

A sound color film was shown of the "Masters" Tournament at Augusta, Ga. 1966, rounding out a most interesting program to Rotarians, who will, no doubt, be a vital force in the success of our effort to get a Golf course for our community.

Patti Hill Story Appears In Newspapers Around The World

Several weeks ago, the remarkable story of Patti Hill appeared on the front page of the Sunday Tribune, by Ash Wing. This article was compiled by other papers and has made the round the world. It was read in Tokyo to a congregation; the result was five conversions to Christianity. it has been read in Saigon, New York, Los Angeles, Puerto Rico, Michigan, Seattle, Miami, Philadelphia and Tampa. Al Pazo, who teaches the sixth grade in the Sulphur Springs Elementary School, was touched by the article, read it to his class as an example of faith and courage. Then he wrote a nice letter to Mrs. Hill; several of the students wrote letters of encouragement to her saying that they would pray for her.

A subsequent article in the Tribune told of the PATTI HILL SCHOLARSHIP FUND, which was started by the faculty and students of the Avon Park High School—this article was read to his class by Mr. Pazo. After many weeks of hospital care, Mrs. Hill regained enough strength to write a note to Mr. Pazo and his sixth grade pupils telling them how much she appreciated the thoughtfulness, the prayers and letters. Today Mrs. Hill received a letter from Mr. Pazo telling how this wonderful group of boys and girls had voted to clear the class treasury and donate to the Patti Hill Scholarship Fund. Enclosed in the letter was an American Express check for $15.25. What a wonderful gesture by America's future leaders!!

Most scholarships are awarded to those who are fast runners, long passers, good speakers, horn tooters, good cooks, quick figurers and the like, but the Patti Hill Scholarship is truly different. The recipient of this great scholarship may not excel in any of the conventional requirements of a conventional scholarship—this one is different.

Patti Hill, in her long and dedicated career as an Educator has counseled and guided many a child to a successful life and in doing so she demonstrated her abundance of honesty, character, dependability, thoughtfulness of other people, responsibility and conscientiousness—these are the attributes of Patti Hill. Therefore, the student who receives the Patti hill Scholarship must have high ideals like Patti and must excel in the qualities which Patti has. The recipient must be superior in character, responsibility, honesty, dependability, thoughtfulness, and conscientiousness and the award will be made annually on Patti's birthday, which is May 19th. The first award was made on May 18th, 1967 to Gary Neal. This will enable Gary, and all future recipients, to attend the South Florida Junior College for two years and will be continued through the final two years to a college of the student's choice.

In order for this scholarship to be a perpetual, non-ending thing, THE PATTI HILL SCHOLARSHIP FUND was incorporated as a non-profit organization, with appropriate officers in charge thereof. One of the qualities upon which the award is made is Responsibility. Any student who qualifies for this scholarship is not out looking for a handout but is seeking a way to get a better education which will enable him (or her) to be a valuable American citizen, and that quality of Responsibility. As this scholarship endeavors to bring out the best in a student, it is awarded in the form of a loan, which must be repaid after the student graduates with a degree and becomes established.

Editor's Note—We, the editing personnel of the Avon Park Sun, think that there could be no better place for your dollars than a contribution to the Patti Hill Scholarship Fund. Just think of the good it will do to some worthy student, maybe your very own child. By having the high ideals of Patti Hill, some fine youngster will be assisted along the road to success by this truly unique and different scholarship. Those of you who wish to contribute to this heart-satisfying gesture, just make your check payable to the PATTI HILL SCHOLARSHIP FUND and send it to either the Avon Park Sun or the Avon Park High School. You will be happier after you have helped some youngster. Contributions to a non-profit organization are tax-deductible.

Rev. R. Ralph To Receive Hon. Degree

ELON COLLEGE.—Four outstanding men in the fields of industry, higher education and religion will be granted honorary degrees at the 1967 commencement exercises at Elon College, with the degrees to be awarded at the Elon graduation ceremonies on Monday, June 5th.

Those to receive the honorary degrees are S. C. Donnelly, director of the Greensboro and Burlington Shops of the Western Electric Company's North Carolina works; Prof. Alexander R. Burkot, longtime dean of Campbell College at Buies Creek; the Rev. Robbins Ralph, of Avon Park, superintendent of the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ; and the Rev. Kenneth D. Register, pastor of the Beverly Hills United Church of Christ in Burlington.

The honorary degree of Doctor of Science will go to Mr. Donnelly, a native Toluca, Ill., who has been with the Western Electric Company since 11923. After long service with the company in the Middle West, he was transferred to North Carolina in 1956 as superintendent of the Burlington Shops and advanced to his present post in charge of both the Greensboro and Burlington Shops in 1956. He has been a leader in his company's work with ordnance supplies, and since being in North Carolina he has been active in many phases of public life at both the local and state levels.

The degree of Doctor of Humanities will be awarded to Prof. Burkot, a native of Pennsylvania, who graduated from Dickinsin College and later taught and coached in Pennsylvania public schools and worked with an adult education program in South Carolina before going to Campbell College in 1936 as Dean of men and teacher of foreign languages. He became dean of Campbell College in 1944 and at the same time served as head of the Modern Language Department There. He has been active in civic and religious life in North Carolina and worked closely with both the state and southern associations in advancement of higher education.

The Rev. Robbins Ralph, a native of Iowa, is a Phi Betta Kappa graduate of Beloit College and holds the B.D. degree from the Yale Divinity School. He served pastorates in Congregational Churches in both New Hampshire and Massachusetts and in Florida prior to becoming minister for church extension of the Florida Conference of the Congregational Church in 1964. He later became superintendent of that Florida group of what is now the United Church of Christ in 1967. He is to receive the Doctor of Divinity degree.

Also receiving the Doctor of Divinity Degree is the Rev. Kenneth D. Register, of Burlington, who has been pastor of the Beverly Hills United Church of Christ in Burlington for the past nine years. A native of Sanford, he graduated from Elon College and later earned the B.D. degree at the Duke University Divinity School before entering upon pastorates at a number of North Carolina churches prior to accepting his present post. He has also served in numerous official and committee capacities in the Southern Convention of the Congregational Christian Church in the present Southern Conference of the United Church of Christ.

APO Wives Host Get Acquainted Dinner

The APO Military Wives' Club was hostess to several military wives and mothers at a "Get Acquainted" dinner on Monday evening at the Florida Power Lounge in Avon Park. Each member bought her favorite covered dish and the recipe which will be compiled into a cook book as a momento for each member.

The event was held for the purpose of getting prospective members acquainted with our group and its activities. This is an opportunity to make new friends and renew old acquaintances. Aside from many social activities the program provides information regarding Military and Red Cross services available to all military families. Mrs. Florence Peach, director of the Highlands County Red Cross chapter, is always on hand to give her personal attenion to any problem a member might have.

All wives and mothers with husbands or sons overseas are invited to join us for our regular meetings. The next meeting will be held July 10 at 7 o'clock at the Florida Power Lounge in Avon Park.

Veterans' Insurance May Be Expensive

Veterans still carrying their World War II GI Term insurance may discover in a few years that they cannot afford it, just when they may need it most, M. T. Dixon, Director of the Dept. of Veterans Affairs warns.

Some 2.4 million World War II veterans still have their term policies, and the Veterans Administration is urging them to consider switching to permanent plans of insurance. The VA offers several types of permanent insurance.

At present, the average premium for a World War II veteran on $10,000 in insurance is $9.80 per month. In 20 years, it will jump to $39.70 per month.

Dixon stated after a veteran converts to a permanent policy, the premium remains the same through the years. Dixon advises that for information on your GI Insurance, to either write him at P.O. Box 1437, St. Petersburg, or visit your local Veteran County Service Officer.

Avon Mobile Home Park

By Ruth E. Robinson

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Timberg and Mr. and Mrs. Riand Niewkirk spent a day at Lake Wales, shopping last week. We are sorry to see Riand and Maude preparing to leave us for points North, including, North Carolina, Indiana, Illinois and Nebraska. This weekend, perhaps Monday will see them on their way. Before going, they are taking a trip to St. Petersburg and Brandon for a day. Last week Mrs. Margrita Dailey and Harry Snell from Chicago, Ill. were unexpected visitor, at the Nieukirks, surprising them, pleasantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Amick write that they are still waiting for a buyer for their beautiful home on Lake Wawassee, Ind., and keeping busy and well.

Floyd Stevens is fine again and working in his red raspberry patch. They visited Charles and Hazel Belden last week, finding Charles feeling fairly good. They also appreciate hearing from his friends.

The Warren Byrers have almost caught up after much hard work in garden made, crops all in the ground, just waiting to pop up, and waiting for the rain (just as we still are). They also planted more sweet corn (the raccoons like it so well, last year) Plans for the Indiana summer picnic are in the making. You will hear more about it from Nita Byrer by postcard.

We are hoping that Harry Longacre's broken toe bout with an infection doesn't last long. At first he thought that it was just insect bite on his finger, but made his whole hand swell. Now the Doctor isn't sure. He is coming along just fine, otherwise, with his blood count up, and well tanned.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibbs have returned to their Miami home to wait until Swan Industries finish their cabana on their new Mobile Home. They were very disappointed that it wasn't finished. It was nice to visit with them and get better acquainted.

The Shuffleboard courts are now neat, and new looking, once more, since the courts are relined washed and waxed, and the score boards repainted and clean. The new lights are up, too, for better vision at both ends. We are glad the work is done.

Breaks Golf Course Record

Sebring Municipal Golf professional Pete Murray has broke the course record on Sunday by shooting a fabulous 10 under par 62. This broke the record set several years by former Sebring golf pro Al Frank. Murray chopped two strokes off the previous record.

Jack Hughes, Jim Henderson and Walt Miller comprised the foursome that played with Murray on Sunday afternoon. In his round Murray had 8 Birdies and one Eagle on the tough fourth hole. Murray has been the Pro at the Sebring course since April 1966.

Season on Coot And Scaup May Be Lengthened

TALLAHASSEE—There is a possibility that Florida duck hunters may have an extended scaup and coot hunting season in certain areas of the state.

At a meeting of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission in DeFuniak Springs on May 19, the Commission agreed to request the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service to extend the season for scaup and coot hunting in certain delineated areas.

According to W. T. McBroom, Commission Chairman, the scaup has been designated as a bonus bird within the season during the past seasons. However, a survey conducted during the season indicated that hunters were not harvesting the bonus birds. And extended season would provide additional hunting without damage to the scaup and coot population.

Winter Visitor Dies In Penn.

Friends of Bob Clark will be saddened to learn of his sudden death in Greensburg, Pa.

Eighty-eight years old he had been a Winter visitor at the Jacaranda Hotel for the past thirty-five years. He had made many friends in Avon Park and well loved by all.

Mr. Clark died of a heart attack after attending church and was enroute to visit his wife's grave and passed away in his car.

Burial was made in Pa.

Judge Hunt Speaks To Ministers

An outgrowth of many months of consideration by the Avon Park area Ministerial Association, last Thursday's supper at the Methodist Church saw the beginning of an inter-church community group concerned with youth betterment. The supper was hosted by the Methodist Men's Club and the Rev. Addison Hardee, pastor. After supper, the Rev. Hardee introduced everyone around the table from many of the community churches, clergy and laymen alike. Charles McCaslin, Methodist Lay Leader, introduced the speaker of the evening, the Hon. Bowden Hunt, Juvenile Judge of Polk County.

Judge Hunt stressed th importance of youth work in our modern age. The changing conditions under which families now live bring new opportunities for service to our young people beyond the school and the church.

Discussion of the subject was led by the Rev. John Knapp, who, with the Rev. Herbert Grantz and Rev. W. B. Johnson, form a committee of the local Ministerial Association to form a local group to carry on some suitable program of youth work. Beside the clergy and laity from our Churches, the country was represented by Mrs. Anna Dec Church of the welfare and Robert Lindsey of the Juvenile Court of Highlands County. A smaller group called out of this meeting will meet in the next two weeks to explore the possibility of a planned program.

Local Realtors Invited To Meeting June 8-10

Local Realtors and their Associates have been invited to attend the mid-year meeting of the Florida Association of Realtors in Hollywood June 8-10, it was announced today by Hubbard K. Biggs, president of the Avon Park Area Board of Realtors.

James G. Richardson, Ocala, president of the Florida Bankers Association, will address a Realtors mid-year dinner at the Diplomat Hotel in Hollywood. He will speak on "A Country Banker Looks at Florida's Future."

More than 50 educational, social, and business events are scheduled for the Realtors 3-day meeting, according to David C. Jones, Jr., Naples, president of the 11,300-member organization.

Realtors, their salesmen, and their wives will relax at a "Dixieland party" Friday night, June 9, sponsored by the host Hollywood-South Broward Board of Realtors.

Saturday will be given over to educational sessions of real estate exchangors, farm brokers, industrial Realtors, salesmen, property managers, multiple listing services, and other specialized groups. A public relations forum will stress effective use of radio and TV.

No registration fee is charged for the mid-summer meeting in Hollywood, according to Jones. "Most sessions are open to Realtors and their Associates," the state president advised. He added that all members of the Florida Real Estate Commission will be on hand to address a Womens Council luncheon.

Health Department To Conduct Inspections For Mosquitoes

Dr. Workman, Director of the Highlands County Health Department wishes to announce that beginning 75 early June 1967, the Florida State Board of Health in cooperation with the Highlands County Health Department will begin a concentrated inspection of every premises in the county to determine the extent of breeding of the mosquito that transmits yellow fever and dengue fever. This survey is to determine the exact extent of breeding within the county so that future plans can be made to eradicate Aedes aegypti in Highlands County.

This mosquito is known as Aeded aegypti and the adult is a small black mosquito with white bands on its legs and a distinctive white lyre-shaped marking on the back.

Aedes aegypti is a domestic mosquito that breeds in water containers around and in the home. It can breed in bird baths, tin cans, tires, flower vases, boats, or any other water containers. This mosquito has become so domesticated that it feeds principally on man alone. Its breeding habits are such that if one dug a ditch in ones front yard and it held water continually, the Aedes aegypti mosquito larvae (wrigglers) would not be found breeding in the ditch. It breeds in man-made artificial containers.

The Aedes aegypti Program began in Manatee and Sarasota Counties in 1964 and 1965 respectively and it is expected that eradication of this dangerous mosquito could be accomplished within these two (2) counties by the end of this coming breeding season.

The Aedes aegypti inspector will soon request permission to inspect your premises. He will wear a yellow hat with a mosquito decal printed on the front. He likewise wears a kaki uniform with his name printed over the left pocket of the shirt. For further identification purposes, he has a round white patch with a yellow border over the right pocket of the shirt. The patch contains a print of the yellow fever mosquito and the words in red letters "Florida State Board of Health Eradication Project." All inquiries about the program should be addressed to the Highlands County Health Department. Your cooperation in this inspection will be greatly appreciated. Mr. S. E. Crosthwait is the are Supervisor of Manatee, Sarasota, Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto Counties. Mr. William Davis is his local representative and will be in charge of the survey in Highlands County.

Library Corner

Do you know that air-conditioning is a boon to the reading public in the Avon Park City Library in its third year of use? Many people come here to see the morning paper and to read the magazines, in its comfort. There is a rather large table on which are many current magazines ranging widely in content; Woman's magazines, technical, vocational, travel, religious, and general interest magazines. The current issues may be read in the Library. Any magazine but the current one may be taken out on loan on the same basis as a library book.

Is there anyone, especially a man, who has not at some time dreamed of living on an island, far away from time clocks and pressures? Such a man was Tom Neale who spent years as a shopkeeper dreaming of the time when he would go to live on his own island. After several frustrating failures he reached this island and happily began an existence that was to last for more than five years. He recounts this experience in An Island to Myself.

Tom Neale was in his fifties when he went to his lonely retreat on a small South Pacific atoll named Suvarov. He was not Lonely disillusioned about society. For him Suvarov was his dream. This uninhabited coral atoll, half a mile long and 300 feet wide, is 200 miles from the nearest inhabited island. With him he took nothing but a couple of cats and some bric-a-brac to tie and bolt his meager dwelling in case of hurricanes.

The miracle of the story is in the telling. There are dramatic moments in battling the elements, but the real power of the book comes from the calm, ordinary things Neale does. It becomes as compelling as a good suspense story.

Herbert Post Speaker At Highlands Extension Homemakers Meeting

Mrs. Herbert B. Post, St. Petersburg President of Florida Extension Homemakers Council was guest speaker for the Highlands County Council at the luncheon held Wednesday May 24 at Florida Power Corporation Home Service room. The luncheon was held in observance of Extension Home Economics Week. Mrs. Paul Heritage Council president welcomed the guests after which the invocation was given by Rev. Frank Beard of Lake Placid. Rev. R. Marshall Wilson of Avon Park returned thanks. The guests were recognized.

Betty Lipham 4-H member from Sebring presented a reward winning foods demonstration on "Summer Coolers". Those refreshing drinks were made using milk and citrus products.

Ann Walker also of the 4-H Greenleaves club in Sebring gave a most inspiring speech on "Courage". Both of these girls are 15 years of age, District winners and will compete in the state contest to be held during State 4-H Club Congress at the University of Florida June 12-15.

Mrs. Heritage gave a brief history of Extension Home Economics in Florida since its beginning to the present time. She also gave the highlights of the past years work of the Highlands County Council. She urges all attending to help in spreading the word about Extension Home Economics to friends and neighbors. The program is designed to help everyone in the county through organizations, workshop, newsletters, news articles, radio, and home calls, to have a happier, better home life. Extension Homemakers theme this year is "Better Living Through Greater Knowledge".

Mrs. Post spoke on the relationship of the local club, county council, state council, national and enternational organization. She pointed out the relationship of the Extension Homemakers organization to the Associated County Women of the World. She illustrated her talk by using flip charts. Mrs. Post announced Highlands County Council is one of the two counties in the State selected to give a highlight report at the state council meeting in July 10-13. Mrs. Paul Heritage was asked to give this report.

Attention was called to a number of exhibits on display, canned products, clothing, household articles and handcrafts.

Brochures telling about Extension Home Economics were given to those attending.

Guests attending the luncheon were Carl McIntyre, Chairman Board of County Commissioners; Earl Rich, Clerk of Court; Brochures telling about Extension Home Economics were given to those attending.

THERE'S A USE for that antique bedstead you were thinking of junking. Loren Amend of St. Petersburg, Fla., turned his into a tricycle.

ORDINARILY, politicians like being mentioned in the news media, to keep their image before constituents back home. Not so in the case of Missouri's Senator Edward V. Long, who recently said a Life magazine accusation that he used a Senate investigating subcommittee in an attempt to keep former Teamster Union President James Hoffa out of prison was a deliberate "smear" on him. Sen. Long said cash he had received from a Hoffa attorney was for legal work he had done, not for concentrating investigation on methods used in obtaining Hoffa's conviction.

Spice CABINET

- To keep macaroni and spaghetti products fresh, store in a tightly closed glass jar containing a bay leaf.
- Eliminate waste when measuring molasses by greasing cup lightly before measuring.
- You can store an unopened canned ham in the refrigerator up to six months, according to nutrition specialists at the University of Wisconsin. If it's more than you can use at one time, serve part of it and freeze the rest. But you shouldn't keep an opened canned ham more than five days refrigerated.

Charming Snakes

Snakes have no external ears or eardrums and cannot hear sound waves in the air. The snake charmer's music has nothing to do with charming snakes.

Native Energy

In a single second, a hurricane discharges more power than several atomic bombs, scientists say; in an hour it expends more energy than 50 years' production of electricity in the United States.

The Modern Way With bryant

THERE IS A SIMPLE APPLICATION TO FIT YOUR BUSINESS . . .

Restaurants, apartments, banks, motels, churches, entire shopping centers and many more commercial and industrial establishments are being comfort conditioned with Bryant GAS Air Conditioning. More and more business owners realize the many advantages of providing summer comfort for their customers and employees.

The Bryant Gas Air Conditioner is reliable, simple to install, practically maintenance-free, economical to operate and the ideal answer to any commercial and industrial application whether it's for modernizing of existing buildings or for installation in new facilities. It is an air-cooled, remote water chiller which can be matched with Bryant furnaces, duct heaters, boilers or all-weather rooftop units for a quality, year 'round heating and air conditioning system. Or, it can be installed as an attractive package unit operating as a cooling only system.

These owners have selected Bryant Gas Air Conditioning knowing that they will enjoy the benefits of a quality system engineered for long life and peak efficiency year after year. Whether you're planning to replace old equipment, add air conditioning or build new facilities, don't make your comfort system decision until you have investigated the advantages Bryant GAS Air Conditioning offers you. Regardless of your heating and air conditioning requirements, from the smallest to the largest, there is a Bryant system, powered by gas, the low-cost, dependable fuel, to meet your specific needs . . . backed by factory-trained sales and service personnel.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

When I was a child growing up in Arkansas, I can remember friends of my parents leaving after a visit saying "Well, you folks come to see us sometime. The latchstring is always out."

I doubt that many of their doors were actually fastened with a latchstring. These people were speaking figuratively, meaning that they were always happy to welcome visitors.

In colonial days, doors were fastened with a wooden latch that was lifted by a string that was attached to it. A hole was bored in the door just above the latch to permit the latchstring to hang outside. When the string was placed outside, it permitted visitors to enter without knocking. Placed inside, the door could not be opened except from within, and this of course prevented intrusion.

The position of the latchstring when the folk within were or were not at home came to symbolize the degree of their hospitality.

When the owner of a house advised that he would leave out the latchstring, it was an open invitation for visitors to come and go as they pleased.

A forest fire near Peshtigo, Wisconsin, on October 8, 1871, the same day as the Chicago Fire, took 1,200 lives, and destroyed millions of board feet of lumber.

You may be able to tell a woman's age, but only at your own risk.

Dad never believed much in heredity until Junior became a straight-A student.

BIKE CHAIN, SPOON, and old iron salvaged from a junkyard make up this creation called "Potbellied Defense" by Sergio Lanzavecchia of Italy.

WAR PARTY

RARE ENOUGH is the albino wallaroo, but when one has twin bobbies like this one near Sydney, Australia, it's cause for real amazement.

FIX-IT TIP

A few simple tricks can give you a satisfactory, tight screen on your door or window when you replace the old screen. First, fasten the screen to the top of the frame. A simple way to stretch it tight is to rest the frame on planks placed between two sawhorses. Put a couple of shorter planks under each end of the screen, then clamp the middle of each side frame to the long clamps. This bows the screen slightly. After you've tacked the screening at the bottom, remove the clamps and the frame will straighten out, pulling the wires taut.

Many a gal will offer a match to a guy with money to burn.

With all the numbers a feller has now, how can he be expected to know when HIS is up?

Man learned early to protect his heart area—thus, he did his aggressive fighting with his right arm, and used his left for a shield. Thus—most people are still right-handed, even though the original need has long passed.

Several very old, very rusty, flint-lock rifles were recently found in a 100 foot deep cave in Pennsylvania. Unanswered—When, By Whom, and why?
