COMEDY CORNER

"Go away—can't you see I want to be alone?"

PIPED UNDER 35 feet of fill is this country road near Buick, Mo. The road was routed through an 18-foot corrugated steel pipe, 132 feet long, when relocation was made necessary by a new rail line to serve mining facilities in a number of Missouri towns.

GET THE POINT? Not many argue with this fellow who's considered one of the toughest of Africa's wild life. The photo was caught by the camera in New York's Bronx Zoo.

"CAPRIOLE" they call it when all four feet leave the ground. A difficult feat, it's accomplished with ease by a prized Lippizaner stallion at Myakka City, Fla.
