Christmas Seal Contributions Ahead of '65

"We're holding our breath," said State Representative S. Chesterfield Smith, chairman of the Christmas Seal Campaign, "but if contributions continue to come in at the same rate, we will equal last year's figures. Or, knock on wood, we might even top them."

The returns thus far are $22,280.85, compared with $22,009.66 on the same date last year. Total returns last year were $50,981.93, and this year's goal is $52,500.00.

"This is very encouraging" Smith continued, "since Christmas Seal contributions are the sole support of the Association in is fight against tuberculosis and the other respiratory diseases."

"We fervently hope," he concluded, "that those who have not responded to their Christmas Seal letter will do so now, in order that we can achieve our goal before Christmas."

The campaign is conducted by the Mid-State Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association which includes the counties of Polk, Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto.

Elementary School Site For Bond Meet

The third and final session of the community conference on the proposed school bond issue will be held at Avon Park Elementary Cafetorium at 8 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 12.

George F. Douglass, School Superintendent, said the December 8 date, first announced for the conference was changed because of conflict with the Avon Park High School's junior class play.

Conferences have been held at Sebring and Lake Placid and the Superintendent said he "is encouraged by the people who have expressed an interest in the information about the bond program and the schools' building needs.

"Re-registration is expensive, but it cost less than an invalid election," Superintendent George F. Douglass is saying in response to the question of why freeholders must re-register for the school bond referendum on February 28.

In conferences at Sebring and Lake Placid this past week information about the proposed $3.15 million school bond issue has been presented, and a primary question has been why re-register all the county's freeholders.

Douglass said the county now has 8,180 freeholders registered to vote "but in all elections in recent years only about 50 percent of the eligible voters have gone to the polls," he said.

To be approved the bond question would have to receive an affirmative vote from a majority of the votes cast, but the election is not valid unless at least 50 percent plus one of all registered freeholders have cast ballots.

"This means," the Superintendent said, "that even if every single vote cast favored the bond issue, the election would be lost if half of the voters stayed away from the polls—a practice which half of them are now following."

At the Sebring conference, which kicked off the three community meetings on the bond issue, Douglass explained that re-registration of freeholders will begin as soon as the courthouse opens after the New Year's holiday. It will continue for 30 days and registration opportunities must be provided in Lake Placid and Avon Park as well as at the courthouse.

Cost To Build

The primary question in each of the community conferences has been the bond issue cost to the individual taxpayer.

Douglass said the present bond market would indicate that the school bonds (bond aling by exemption from federal income taxes) would sell for between 4 and 4.5 percent interest.

Without special permission from the State Department of Education, the maximum length of time for the bonds would be 20 years.

At the present time a one-mill tax levy yields $150,000. This indicates that the maximum tax levy needed would be 1.2418 mills, School Board Chairman Henry Bailey said.

In response to a statement from Kelsey Payne at the Sebring conference, Douglass said he is hopeful that citizens will volunteer to work on bond education committees and on building plans committees for the two new high schools and new elementary school which the State Department of Education recommends for immediate construction.

Payne said, "I think we should have school buildings we can be proud of, functional but not necessarily architects' dreams."

Douglass said citizens around the county are already sending him pictures and descriptions of new schools.

In response to a question about opposition to the bond issue because the schools are not now doing an adequate job the Superintendent observed, "We know some students are not achieving at their best level; this is always true and we are always seeking to upgrade our schools. Lack of facilities is unfavorable to the educational welfare of the young people."

Douglass raised a question of his own in asking whether the people opposing the bond issue really want to stand for "continued overcrowding facilities, eventual loss of accreditation and for deterioration of the learning situation in the classroom due to overcrowding."

Red Devils In Class B State Play-off Friday

Avon Park's flash Red Devils advanced to the finals of the Class B state play-offs with a convincing 27-0 win over the Eustis Panthers last Friday night here at Memorial Field. The Red Devils will meet the Monticello Tigers in Monticello tomorrow night (Friday) at 8 o'clock for the Class B championship.

Monticello, with a 9-1-1 record, moved into the finals with a 20-0 shut-out of previously undefeated Graceville. The Tigers offense is built around 185 pound quarterback Tommy Richter who is a running and passing threat according to scouting reports. Rick Davis, the 180 pound fullback, scored two of the Monticello touchdowns last Friday night in the win over Graceville. The halfbacks are 170 pound Johnny Rhymes and 161 pound Scott Baker. Rhymes is a favorite receiver and can throw the halfback pass. He scored the Tiger's third TD on a pass from Richter in the semi-final game.

The Tiger ends weigh 180 and 190 pounds; the tackles are 218, 190, and 205 pounders; the guards weigh in at 140 and 160 and the center is a 180 pound lad, so the Red Devils will be outweighed almost man to man in the championship game.

Avon Park put on quite an offensive show last Friday night as they rolled over the Eustis eleven racking up 360 yards of rushing and gaining 81 yards by passing.

Halfback Harold Callaway had his best rushing game of the season as he piled up 209 yards in 17 carries for a 12 yard average. Bobby Barben rushed for 72 yards in 15 runs and Lemler contributed 45 yards carrying 12 times.

The Red Devils reserves saw action on offense the entire fourth quarter moving the ball the 6-yard line one time before Eustis could stop them on downs.

The Red Devil defense came up with four big interceptions in the first half and held Eustis to 45 yards of rushing and 67 yards of passing during the game. Dean Lemler pulled in two interceptions, Bruce Bennett set up a score with a third one, and Earl Sims stopped Eustis's only serious threat with an interception on the Devil's 13-yard line.

EUSTIS GAME

Avon Park kicked-off to the Panthers to open the regional play-off game before a fair crowd of fans at Memorial Stadium. The kick went out-of-bounds so the Panthers took over at their own 40. On the first play from scrimmage, Stuart Cottrell, the Eustis quarterback dropped back to pass and Lemler slipped in front of the intended receiver, took the pass in, and returned it to the Avon Park 46-yard marker.

The Devils then moved to the Eustis 25-yard line but a fumble by a Devil back was recovered by Panther Dick Turner at the Panther 32 yard stripe to give Eustis possession again. The Panthers ran for a two yard loss, tried an incomplete pass, and then Lemler intercepted again.

After moving for one first down, the Devils were forced to punt and Money boomed out a 40-yarder putting Eustis back on their own 10-yard line. The Panthers couldn't move for a first down and punted. Then Avon Park was stopped inches short of a first down on four tries and Eustis took over at their own 36-yard line.

The Panthers tried two running plays gaining only three yards so went to the air again. This time Bruce Bennett made a beautiful interception and returned it 20 yards to the Panther 41-yard line to set up the first Avon Park score early in the second quarter.

Dean Lemler picked up a first down with an 11 yard advance and then added two more yards. A penalty against Eustis gave Avon Park five more and Bobby Barben made it first and 10 on the Panther 20-yard stripe. On the next play Money dropped back and fired down field and Bruce Bennett reached up and took it in as he crossed into the end zone for the TD. It was a beautiful pass play that caught the Panthers napping and put Avon Park out front 6-0. Barben added the seventh point as he slid off left tackle for the extra point.

Midway in the second quarter Eustis intercepted a Devil pass and generated a drive that moved to the Devil 13-yard line. A 30 yard pass play from Cottrell to end John Pope spearheaded the drive. Then Sims intercepted a pass as he went up with the intended receiver and just snatched the ball away from the Panther to get possession.

Lemler gained two through the middle, Money picked up five on an option play, and then with third down and three yards needed Callaway took a pitchout, turned the right corner, and ran 80 yards for the second Devil score. It was a typical Callaway romp as he slid by the corner defense aided by some beautiful blocks and then just turned on the speed and outran the Eustis secondary. Money's pass to John Wright for the PAT was dropped at the last minute as the spunky end had to turn to get the ball but the score stood 13-0 as the two teams went off the field at halftime.

Avon Park's third talley came on the first drive of the second half. Barben returned the kick-off 17 yards to the Devil 26-yard line. Then the Devils drove the 74 yards on the ground with two crowd pleasing runs by Callaway of 23 and 21 yards. On one run, the speedy halfback started around left end, found his way blocked by too many Panthers, reversed his field and ran all the way to the other side before turning downfield and picking up over 20 yards and

Dr. W. F. Hill, Jr. Resigns From Health Dept.

At the regular session of the Highlands County Commission on December 6, a letter of resignation from Doctor W. F. Hill, Jr., was read and accepted. Dr. Hill came to this department in September 1957 while the former director was on educational leave.

Dr. Hill has served Highlands, Glades and Hendry counties for the past nine years. During this time the department has grown in staff and in program. A mental health worker, dentist and nutritionist have been added to the staff to provide a more balanced community health program.

Some of the accomplishments which the health department has worked on are: the new health department facilities in the courthouse annex in Sebring, the new health facilities in Lake Placid (this is being constructed and will soon be ready for use), the new sewage treatment system for the City of Sebring, the soon to be constructed sewage treatment system for the City of Avon Park, Cottrell Nursing Home, home nursing service, Inter-agency Health Council for promoting better coordination and service to the citizens of the county, the mental health program, dental services, and nutrition services. These are added to the routine basic environmental and preventative services that are offered.

Dr. Hill has accepted the position of Director of the Polk County Health Department and will begin his duties on January 1, 1967.

Red Devils To Open Basketball Season In Fort Meade Tuesday

The Avon Park Red Devil basketball team will open a belated season next Tuesday night in Fort Meade against the Miners quintet, and will play at home next Friday, Dec. 16, with the Hardee High Wildcats offering the opposition.

The Devil squad has already cancelled or postponed three games because of the success of the football team in reaching the finals of the Class B state play-offs.

New head coach Dale Landress, who moves in the vacancy caused by the retirement of veteran basketball coach Lee Maness from the coaching staff, will have only one day's practice before taking on the Miners next Tuesday. Landress says, "We'll give out uniforms and practice lining up for the opening tip-off and then hope for the best.

Lettermen returning from last year's district championship team are: Emmitt Money, Dean Lemler, Earl Sims, Andrew Wells and Bill Knapp. Also expected to play varsity ball this year are Joe Strickler, Kenny Dixon, Carl Barnes, Bill Jackson and Leotis McNeil.

Coach Fred Sandlin will have the "B" squad and has been working out for several weeks with the boys who are not on the football squad.

Both new basketball coaches are working hard to expand the basketball program and have initiated a Saturday morning program for fifth, sixth and seventh graders and will have an eighth grade team and a ninth grade team this season.

Hoping to improve the attendance at home basketball games, Coach Landress has put season tickets on sale at a price of $2.50 for the home games of the varsity, "B" squad, and junior high teams. The season tickets will save fans almost half the price of regular admission for varsity games alone.

Tickets are on sale at Leon's Sporting Goods, Albritton's Barber Shop, and the high school gym office.

Avon Park will receive $4,355.08, $6,367.70 will go to Sebring and $1,621.64 to Lake Placid.

AP Stores Open On Wednesdays

Almost all of the stores in Avon Park that were formerly closed on Wednesday afternoons, will now remain open through the month of December.

Commissioners Stumped Over Liquor Store

"Highlands County has a liquor store where the commissioners don't want it, but no one knows what can be done about it," County Attorney sorrowfully reported at the county commission meeting on Tuesday.

Gene Crawford, president of the Fred Wild-DeSoto City Parent-Teacher Association, attended the commission meeting to receive the latest news in the PTA's struggles with a liquor store operator.

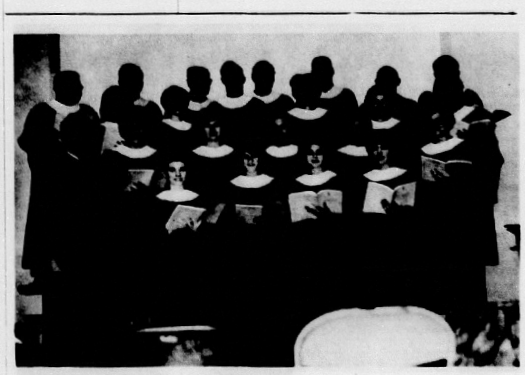

Nunnallee read a series of letters which the commissioners, school board and state Beverage Department have been exchanging. The latest letter, written to Nunnallee by Thomas K. Wood chief legal counsel for the Beverage Department, concludes, "I am not sure what action is necessary. . . ."

He went on to suggest that the next move would have to come from within this county, but Nunnallee observed that the county commissioners would be totally without power to revoke a state license—even though it had been granted in violation of a state law.

The PTA, joined by the county school board, have asked that the liquor store at the corner of Kenilworth Blvd. and Highlands Ave. be closed because it is only 1,500 feet from Fred Wild School instead of the 2,500 feet the state law specifies as the minimum distance between a school and liquor-selling establishment.

In reviewing the case Tuesday Nunnallee pointed out that since Highlands County has no zoning laws at all, it has always responded to inquiries from the state Beverage Department that grant-

Educators Plan On Head Start Program

Highlands County educators have been unofficially assured that a Head Start program of approximately the same scope as the 1966 project will be approved for the summer of 1967.

In a regional meeting at Orlando last week Mrs. Kathleen Downey and James Ferrel Smith of the county schools staff were told that it "would be safe to begin planning" for a Head Start grant which would provide a kindergarten-type program for low income families' five-year-olds.

Last summer Head Start programs were held in Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring. Toys, books and games were contributed last summer for use in each of these centers, and Saturday Don Thielke, Head Start director, distributed the smaller toys to the day care centers now operating in each of the towns.

Mrs. Tom Toge received the toys which were transferred to Sebring's Fairyland Day Care Center; Mrs. Leroy McGahee, Jr., received the toys for the Lake Placid center, and Rev. W. W. Wells, received the toys for Noah's Ark Center at Avon Park.

TALLAHASSEE (AFN) — Miami Mayor Robert King High's claim to the throne as "titular head" of the Democratic Party is impractical.

A twice defeated gubernatorial candidate — who has the dubious honor of being the first Democrat in 94 years to lose the governor's mansion to the opposition—can't command the political respect of professional Democrats.

Not only does he have this albatross, he never was liked politically by the majority of professional Democrats. Whoever is to be the spokesman for the Democratic Party, which now finds itself referred to as "the other party" will have to be an elected official.

The leading contenders at this stage are Secretary of State Tom Adams and Attorney General Earl Faircloth.

Neither is making a move. It's too early to tell which way the political wind is blowing and it probably will be the middle of 1967 before some form of Democratic leadership emerges.

There are those already in this state who are predicting "a disasterous year" for Democrats of Florida in 1968.

None of the cabinet has to run but there is the U. S. Senate seat held by George Smathers up for grabs and half the senate and all of the house must run.

It would appear that Lyndon Johnson's popularity in Florida is nil and in the event Johnson decides not to seek re election the alternatives of Hubert Humphrey and Bobby Kennedy would not enhance Florida Democrats' chances in this state.

Perhaps the man who has most at stake is former Governor LeRoy Collins who aspires to the U. S. Senate. Congressman Ed Gurney, Winter Park Republican, seems to have everything going for him.

Mrs. Lucille Rogers, private secretary for governors Farris Bryant and Haydon Burns, will stay on for Governor Claude Kirk.

Bryant and Burns administrative assistant Mal Odgen hasn't been invited yet to stay on by the incoming governor. Burns' legal aid Joe Chapman, already has been taken care of by his boss with the appointment as State Road Department attorney and a seat on the State Land Installment Board.

Frank Stockton, Burns' patronage aid, apparently will join the law firm of Greene and Kennelly of Jacksonville which under Burns specialized in doing legal work for enumerable state agencies.

The Constitutional Revision Commission Convention has placed some state political figures in unfamiliar positions.

Senator Jack Matthews, Jacksonville, a white knight of the minority urban solons in the past, now proclaims the virtues of the committee system and finds himself supporting a reapportionment theory which fits the one man one vote rule.

Former Senator Charlie Johns, a rural block ruler of the past, finds himself attacking the committee system and advocating subdistricting for the legislature which most nearly fits the one man one vote rule. In the past reapportionment session of the legislature Johns opposed the districting theory.

Also, Leon County Circuit Court Judge Hugh Taylor, a behind the scenes power of the rural block, also attacks the committee system and supports the sub districting movement.

Taxes And Politics

Partisan politics has raised its ugly head in Florida legislative debate, over an issue which had general bi-partisan agreement before the November elections — the need for property tax relief.

Senate President Verle Pope, who appointed a special committee on ad valorem taxation, urged that it determine the approximate share of the tax burden real estate should bear and write it into a state constitutional proposal for consideration by the legislature.

The committee also was asked to consider strengthening the power of the state comptroller to enforce 100 per cent cash value property tax assessments, or set up a separate state agency to do the job.

But a Republican member of the committee, Sen. C. W. (Bill) Young of Pinellas Park, had a different idea. He proposed a measure to curtail and limit spending by county commissions, school boards and other local agencies.

Counties are spending many hours studying how to spend and how to acquire, he said, instead of how to reduce and how to limit taxation.

Sen. Young has a point there, even though there may be insurmountable difficulties to regulating county activities at the state level. The various needs of the 67 counties and the various ability of the people of those counties to provide for such needs would seem to preclude blanket spending and taxing limitations. Such a proposal does not square with the trend toward more home rule for counties.

Even so, Sen. Pope's open speculation that he made a mistake in appointing Republicans to the committee, and that Young's proposal was an attempt at "making political hay," seem uncalled for.

There may be just as many practical difficulties in the way of putting finite limits on property taxation, as suggested by Pope. In fact, unless other sources of county revenue — or state revenue to assist counties — could be found, the effect would be the same.

Certainly real estate taxes are becoming unbearable, and enforcement of full cash value assessments has not lightened the burden. In some cases it has merely unleashed the forces which constantly press for more public spending. Percentage limitations on annual millage increases may slow down the process, but the end result is bound to be higher taxes.

Real estate's fair share of the tax burden already has been passed. Pope's special committee may come up with this startling conclusion. But if it is to accomplish anything constructive it will either have to point out how that burden may be shifted, or how to reduce the spending which generates the demand for higher taxes.

Floridians had the heaviest load of state and local taxes in the Southeast last year — a total of $1.4 billion, or $233 per resident. That ain't hay, political or otherwise.

Army National Guard Conducts Successful Test Alert Dec. 1

A state-wide test alert for all Florida Army National Guardsmen was called Thursday, Dec. 1 at 6:15 p.m. by Major General Henry W. McMillan, The Adjutant General of Florida.

Affected by the surprise test alert were some 8200 Florida civilian-soldiers in 92 units at armories in every section of the state.

The test alert, conducted to evaluate the emergency readiness of the Florida Army National Guard in its ability to assembly rapidly and prepare for movement, came absolutely without warning.

At the end of four hours all units had reported that their equipment was loaded and mission accomplished. At this time the test alert was terminated.

Gen. McMillan said that the test was generally successful. Some deficiencies were noted however, during the exercise, which will be analyzed and corrected.

All across the state, as the alert call reached them by telephone, radio or television, civilian-soldiers left their jobs, and families, loaded their personal items and uniforms kept ready in their homes, and reported to their armories within minutes of notification.

Upon arrival at the armories, guardsmen were quickly issued arms and combat equipment, participated in loading of unit vehicles with organizational equipment such as unit kitchens, and prepared to move to the field to assembly areas.

The speed with which personnel assembled and units were made ready to move out, was made possible by the carefully prepared and rehearsed alert plans which are developed by all units as part of their National Guard Mission to State and Federal Governments.

Members of the staff of the Adjutant General at St. Augustine, and of the 55th Command Headquarters, Divisional at Jacksonville, followed the progress of the alert closely by means of telephone and a state-wide radio emergency net. A master radio control station in the military department headquarters collected the progress reports from all sections of the state.

Military officials were elated by the results of the alert, and Major General McMillan expresses his appreciation to employers of guardsmen for their cooperation in releasing men from their jobs to participate in the alert, and to radio and television stations for their cooperation in announcing the alert in their sections of the state.

"Such practice alerts," Gen. McMillan said, "are an effective means of evaluating the ability of the Florida Army National Guard to mobilize quickly to cope with any emergency affecting our state and nation. From that experience gained in the conduct of these test alerts, commanders at all levels of command are assisted in their endeavor to improve their emergency planning to the highest degree possible."

Mack Flowers Appointed 2nd In Association

R. D. Blankenbecklor, president Florida State Firemen's Association announced this week the appointment of Mack Flowers, Avon Park, Assistant Fire Chief as Vice-President, district four.

Florida State Fireman's Association has approximately 30 fire departments and over 600 members in this district, which includes Highlands, Okeechobee, St Lucie, Indian River, Brevard and Osceola Counties.

Luncheon Report

Rotarian Herbert Graetz introduced Rotarian Ray Wells as guest speaker to the Avon Park Rotary Club at its regular meeting on November 30 held at Griffin's Restaurant. Past president Ray Wells is well known to all Rotarians for his outstanding implementation of service above self in all Rotary undertakings.

Rotarian Ray chose as his subject "Problems of the School Board." As he explained, he was speaking of the Board properly entitled "Board of Public Instruction of Highlands County," and of which he has been a member for the past 16 years.

In order that some new members of the Rotary Club and guests might better understand School Board problems of today, Ray gave a few facts and figures for the past 20 years. All additional facilities, remodeling of all facilities and the temporary classrooms, have been constructed with state and county monies, and without aid of federal monies. The only federal aid to the public schools of Highlands County have been in the lunchroom program. Despite refusal of federal assistance, Highlands County have met the growing needs of 1,600 additional students, has maintained a high standard of teacher qualification and has been able to increase salaries 250 per cent. The schools of Highlands County have qualified under the State of Florida Minimum Foundation Program entitling the county to approximately $400 per year per student. The county has also placed into operation a teacher evaluation and in-service training program.

In 1957 a special science laboratory on wheels was placed in operation to meet the growing needs for advance science education. This is used by all high schools in the county.

Rotarian Ray stated that over a year ago the school board recognized that federal legislation and court decisions made it necessary for the board to change its policy regarding Federal control and financial participation in schools. As a result, the board accepted federal aid offered to the School Board and this year has received over a half of million dollars in grants and assistance. Federal aid could be recognized in the 20 temporary classrooms which have been constructed throughout the county, four diesel tractors placed in the various schools under the agricultural program and 10 film projectors with sound as training aids.

Rotarian Ray spoke of the desegregation program which has been made compulsory by federal legislation and court decisions, stating that 104 colored students who previously attending segregated colored schools, had been integrated into the Avon Park High School and an additional 30 would be integrated during the coming year. He stated that upon the closing of the colored high school in Sebring that the Sebring High School would have approximately the same number of colored students integrating its high school next year.

Other county schools have been desegrated proportionately.

He recognized the many problems arising and to arise as a result of desegregation would have to be delt with as each arose. He pointed out, as an example, in the Avon Park school, three of the integrated students were reading on a first grade level and 30 students on a third grade level. This presented an additional problem within the school system as classes had to be reduced in numbers and additional teachers added in order to maintain the level of education previously existing in the public schools.

He also mentioned the lack of interest and negative attitude of parents of the integrating students.

Rotarian Ray touched briefly on the need of a new school building program in Highlands County. He stated that basically the county needed four new school facilities, requiring an expenditure of approximately five million dollars. He felt that while some two million dollars could be obtained from present sources that approximately three million would have to be raised through a bond issue. He pointed out that this need was established by the school survey team after a complete survey of existing facilities and projection of future needs.

From information available it appeared that a bond issue would cost tax payers approximately one mill per year for the life of the bond. He encouraged all interested persons, and particularly freeholders, to attend the public meeting throughout the county. The meeting in the Avon Park High School will be December 12.

A P Teacher Gives Experiences Of Pearl Harbor Attack

W. B. GANT

For the 25th Anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, we give you the personal experiences of W. B. Gant, teacher in Avon Park High School, who as a teenager was stationed at Pearl Harbor on that fateful day.

Quoting Mr. Gant: "I did not know it at that time (25 years ago), but approximately 3,000 American sailors, soldiers and marines, were being murdered in cold blood.

Teen-agers, like myself and others in their prime of life were being bombed and strafed. Some did not wake that Sunday morning, others were eating in their washrooms and some were on duty. I saw the Japanese attack Pearl Harbor that Sunday morning, Dec. 7, 1941.

Our Army unit - Company "L", 19th Infantry Regiment had been transferred from Schofield Barracks to guard the major ammunition repository or depot of the Hawaiian Department of the Army. The ammo, bombs, poisonous gasses and other explosives were stored in magazines in the rim of an extinct volcano which we called the Ammunu Crater.

The Crater was situated approximately five miles from Pearl Harbor and was perhaps 1500 feet above sea level.

I went on duty that morning at four, walking post as a sentry. I did not observe anything unusual until about 7:30 a.m. At that time a small civilian plane flew over the Crater. I telephoned the guard house and was assured that the unauthorized plane would "be taken care of."

About one half hour later several planes burst through the clouds toward Pearl Harbor. The leader broke formation and suddenly dived. I heard a distant "boom" and the other bombers followed suit, dropping their bombs and banking. Faint "booms" followed, then bright flashes and then thunderous explosions. Black smoke billowed and then lounder explosions. As the planes circled for additional bombing "runs", some burst in mid-air, exploding in orange and red. I saw three or four fall and explode, leaving smoke swirling behind. Our shore batteries and anti-craft guns had come to life.

I was too stupified to become frightened until I heard shrapnel swishing through the air, bullets singing and shell fragments "spatting" the road.

When I regained my composure, I flattened myself on the rocky ground, and not too soon either. As I hit the ground a shell fragment "swished" over my head and shattered the side of my telephone shack."

It remains a horrible memory to Mr. Gant and many more men, who had similar experiences and was lucky to survive the dreadful Pearl Harbor.

President F. D. Roosevelt called it "A day that will live in infamy."

Commissioners

ing of liquor licenses in any location at all "does not violate local zoning."

The county commissioners make these responses on a pre-printed form which provides for checking a box—that no local law is violated—or checking a box—that this license would violate local zoning laws.

The County Attorney said the county officials have always assumed that the state Beverage Department made an independent investigation to determine whether state laws were being violated.

As this case has unfolded, it has been learned that the state has assumed that all necessary investigation was being done at the local level.

All lawyers involved in the case point out that it is unique. Since this is the first time this problem has arisen, the County Attorney said Tuesday, it may be expected that if court action is initiated, it will wind up in the Florida Supreme Court.

"In all truthfulness, if this same case came up again today I am not sure what the commissioners could do," Nunnaliee said. "When there are no local zoning laws how could we say that a local law is being violated?"

Sidewalk Action

A somewhat discouraged Crawford asked whether any new action is forthcoming on uncovering the sidewalks at the liquor store.

When the store was built the sidewalks — which the Fred Wild-DeSoto City PTA had energetically lobbied for —were covered. When inquiries were made the State Road Department staff produced plans which showed an approved plan the builder had submitted for a gradually sloping walk to be placed above the store.

At Tuesday's meeting Commissioner J. A. Butler protested, "The dirt is still on the sidewalk Children walking or riding bikes to school go out into the street rather than climb the dirt bank. It is dangerous."

He expressed his hope and desire that all attending would come with an open mind and would raise good questions so that there would be a thorough understanding by the people of Highlands County as to the need for additional public educational facilities within the county.

almost breaking free for a TD. Bobby Barben finished out the last 10 yards of the drive picking up five yards and then going in for the TD from the five on a slant off left tackle. Callaway jumped over the middle for the point after putting Avon Park ahead 20-0.

Midway in the third quarter, Avon Park got a break with a short Eustis punt and drove from the Devil 46 to the Eustis 28-yard line in three plays. Then Money took the ball around right end on a quarterback sleeper and ran it in for an apparent touchdown but a clipping penalty against the Devils nullified the score and brought the ball back to the Panther 35-yard line.

On the next play Money hit Bennett with his second reception of the evening, a 19-yard pick-up. Then Callaway added 12 more yards setting the ball on the four and Money rolled out to pass to his right but found an opening and ran it in for the final Avon Park score. Barben went through the middle for the extra point giving Avon Park the 27-0 lead.

On the next kick-off, the ball went short and high and an Avon Park player fell on the free ball to give the Devils the ball at the Panther 42-yard line, but after one first down the Devil offense bogged down and they were forced to punt.

With the exception of the Avon Park drive to the Eustis 6-yard line early in the fourth quarter, the action all took place in the middle of the field between the 30's and the game ended with John Wright hauling in a 30 yard pass from Money moving the ball to the Eustis 25-yard line.

Plans Approved For Remodeling And Additions To County Jail

Plans for remodeling and additions to the Highlands County jail were approved and advertising for bids authorized at this week's meeting of the county commissioners. Bids will be opened at a special meeting of the commission at 2:30 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 22.

Cost of the project to be borne from the $1 million race track bond issue, has been estimated at $85,000 to $100,000. Plans—drawn by Rogers, Lovelock and Fritz, the Winter Park architects who designed the jail—provide for a small amount of space construction including a laundry and a large food storage area.

Much of the work will be in remodeling of existing space on the first floor to provide for more office and storage space. The present project was scaled down from Sheriff Broward Coker's original request for a third floor addition with cost estimated at $225,000.

In its Tuesday session the commission received several delegations asking about road maintenance and repairs. The representatives from Sun 'n Lakes were promised immediate help on repairs to the subdivision's main street. This street had been accepted for county maintenance sometime ago.

A group of residents from Sebring Country Estates made formal application for that subdivision's streets to be accepted for county maintenance.

The New Jersey Zinc Co. was given permission to drill holes along county road rights-of-way. The company representatives said the firm is prospecting for phosphate deposits. Commissioner-elect Jean Whitaker said the representatives had told him they are hopeful of finding phosphate in northern Highlands County and plan to build a plant in that area if the prospecting is successful. Monthly reports will be furnished to the commission on the research.

Commission Chairman Cecil Skipper asked the commission members to "prospect for possible recreation sites." He presented to the board a statement on possible grants from federal and state funds to assist in developing outdoor recreation areas.

Florida Outdoor Recreation Council will receive applications early in 1967, Skipper described the project as the possible site on Arbuckle Creek where some development has been done toward a ramp and picnic area.

Skipper said he had not studied the statement from Florida Outdoor Recreation Council carefully enough to determine whether funds might be available for development of the beach area along the West side of Lake Jackson.

The State Road Department has approved the plans for construction of deceleration lanes along Highway 27 at the bowling lanes North of Sebring and at the entrance to Lake Josephine Drive South of Sebring.

In other business the board voted to reimburse the Tax Assessor's office $2,439.03 for extra money spent in connection with the re-assessment program.

County Judge Mervin Rehrer's request to use excess office fees for purchase of microfilm reader and dictation machine was denied at this time with explanation that such expenditures will be considered after October 1, 1967.

ON READING THE BIBLE

"Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." Psalm 119:105.

This is Universal Bible week and so we turn our attention to God's Holy Word. The bible has meant so much in the lives of all of us.

You fondly handle an old bible and say: "This was my grandmother's bible, or my mother's bible, or my father's bible." The very touch of the volume induces a feeling of reverence, for this book meant so much to someone dearly beloved.

Now, turn from your reverie and ask yourself a straightforward question: "What does my bible mean to me?" Can you honestly say: "Thy word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path." It can be!

There is something at the heart of man that yearns for God. Jobs' great cry, "O that I knew where I might find him," is expressive of the ageless longing and the surging hope in the human heart.

When we turn to the bible we discover this yearning expressed as in no other book. Man reaches for God through prayer and supplication, in praise and thanksgiving, in pain and despair: "My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning." Psalm 130:6.

The bible resolves our longings. In it we are made to know that as the human hand reaches upward through the dark, a divine hand reaches down to man. God reaches for man through visions, revelations and communion and finally confronts him in Jesus Christ, the Word of God made flesh.

God looks up at you as you read the burning words of the prophets, the sons of the psalmist, the testimonies of the saints and the sinners, the cries of the penitents, the glad shouts of salvation and finally the revelation of His love in the teachings, the life, death and resurrection of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. God looks up in the words of promise: "If with all your heart ye truly seek me ye shall surely find me." Jeremiah 29:13.

The bible makes the power of God available for our day by day living. It provides life with a Gibraltar that juts out into a stormy sea and stands. It gives life a light that follows every advance into the surrounding darkness. It should be read!

One of the best ways to read the bible is to follow John Ruskins' advice: "try to be present, as if in the body, at each recorded event in the life of the Redeemer." In other words be one with those about Jesus. Watch as the Master calls Zaccheus down from the sycamore tree. Go home with them. Listen as Jesus says to the despised tax collector: "Today salvation has come to this house . . . . For the Son of man came to seek and to save the lost." St. Luke 19:9-10. And suddenly you are reading about Jesus and you, for you will be standing where his contemporaries stood. Jesus did not scorn Zaccheus, he loved him. You will discover that he loves you, when you cannot love yourself. He forgives you, when you can't forgive yourself. He believes in you, when you no longer believe in yourself. You begin to realize that through Christ God is involved with you in life as you live it, hurt by your hurts, and grieved by your sins.

Let's think back to childhood days. A child disobeys his mother and insists that he has done no wrong. She is hurt. The child wanders away and becomes increasingly miserable because he knows that he has hurt his mothers' feelings. Finally he can stand it no longer and runs to her. Throwing himself into her arms he cries out: "Mom, I am sorry. I was wrong." She forgives the child because her love is real and deep.

Now, that same boy is grownup. He does wrong. He rationalizes and tries to bluff his way through. As the moral pressure increases, he becomes more and more contrite of heart until at long last he cries out: "O God, I am sorry. I have been so wrong."

This can come to pass as we read the pages of the bible. For Christ cares for you. He isn't just saying to Zaccheus, "I am coming to live awhile in your house" but he is saying to you, "I am coming to live in your heart."

In reading the bible we go from one divine encounter to another and each opens a window in our lives.

Bible reading is not dull. It can be one of the most exciting experiences in your life. How exciting it would be, if you saw God. Well, sooner or later you will see God, the Father that Jesus revealed, and that will be the most wonderful moment in your life.

Maybe the light will come with some golden text of scripture. An old preacher once quoted the following text to a young, depressed man of the cloth. "And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things which please him." St. John 8:29. And then he told him how that text once lifted him out of the miry clay of despondency. For in it he found a sense of divine mission and the realization that he was never left alone. "You are not alone," he said, "the centuries fight for you, eternity is your ally; you are in the keeping of one who holds you with love that will not let you go."

Surely, when we take the Holy Bible down to read, which we ought to do day by day, we should do it with the prayer: "Reveal thyself, Oh God! Teach me to love thy sacred word and view my Saviour there."

Lutheran Minister Honored

Following the morning service Sunday, the Lutheran Women served a delicious dinner honoring their new minister and his wife. Rev. and Mrs. Rudolf Nilson who are now residing in the parsonage on E. Canfield St., and will serve both Resurrection Avon Park and Atonement Lutheran Church in Sebring.

Rev. Nilson delivered his initial service Sunday. Dec. 4 to a near capacity crowd.

The Lutherans are very happy to have a full time minister with them as they have been served by a supply minister each Sunday, in the past.

The dinner was in the form of a "Get Acquainted" affair and welcome

Mrs. Toni Elkhill was chairman for the dinner, assisted by the Lutheran Women, who had prepared the tables, centering each table with Christmas arrangements. A Christmas tree in all its splendor was placed in the Narthex.

Welcome to Rev. and Mrs. Nilson from Avon Park.

FARC Needs Used Clothing

Mel Thomas, psychologist at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, issues the following statement. "The information service section of the FARC has an annual campaign to collect clothing for patients who enter FARC for treatment."

Don Thieme information officer of FARC stated that each year at Christmas time the center finds more of the homeless and clothless alcoholics entering for treatment. Many of the patients have only the clothes they wear to receive treatment facilities.

Thomas said, "It is hard for a patient to work on his or her individual problems when bothered for basic needs of clothing."

Those wishing to donate clothing please contact the services at GL 3-3151 or deliver the clothing to FARC on Hwy. 27, Avon Park.

This call for clothing is important, the Center now has 64 patients and are badly in need of clothing.

Ronnie and Donnie Laye To Enter Two Calves In Highlands Fair

Laye and Laye incorporated — Ronnie and Donnie Laye are in the beef producing business with calves that are almost twins. Last April these brothers, both FFA members at Avon Park High, purchased their steers and have cared for them since then. Each calf has eaten over 2500 pounds of feed since April, in addition to hay and grass. These fine looking Shorthorn calves are to be entered in the Highlands County Fair in January.

Last January Ronnie Laye, a senior this year, entered another calf in the fair where he won a blue ribbon. The calf was bought by the Avon Citrus Bank. Donnie the younger brother has entered into the cattle business for the first time this year. Both FFA members are priming their steers for the show and hope to make a profit for their efforts.

Kiwanis Club Hear Drug Representative Tell Of Progress

Odis E. Wilkinson, a professional service representative for Smith Kline and French Laboratories, is a key source of drug information for the medical profession.

As a professional service representative, or "detailman" as he is sometimes known, Wilkinson regularly visits physicians and pharmacists to give them the latest technical information about SK&F drugs. These visits help inform busy practitioners quickly and accurately about pharmaceuticals which may be useful for their patients. The value of representatives is indicated by an American Medical Association survey which showed that most physicians consider them to be their most important source of information about new drugs.

There was a time when the dread sign "Quarantine" was a commonplace on the doorways of America's homes. Thanks to the "miracles" accomplished by modern drugs in the past 30 years, that sign has become obsolete.

Describing the role of the drug industry in achieving this and other dramatic gains in the struggle for better health, Wilkinson told the Avon Park Kiwanis Club, Tuesday, that some of the chief perils to the health of Americans three decades ago have become quite rare.

In the intervening years, infectious diseases have been put to full rout. As a result of the development of powerful new antibiotics in the 1940's, death rates from infective and parasitic diseases dropped 76 percent in 20 years.

"Many of today's routine treatments would have sounded miraculous not only 30 years ago, but as few as five or ten years ago," Wilkinson declared.

Today, he continued, the prescription drug industry has mounted a massive assault on disease.

"It has mobilized a force of more than 13,000 scientists and research workers whose skills cover every field of the medical, biological and physical sciences. It has provided extensive laboratory facilities equipped with apparatus ranging from simple test tubes and beakers to complex instruments like spectrophotometers.

In 1962 the drug industry budgeted more than $240 million for the search for new and better drugs, the speaker said, and 30 million man hours of work were involved in this massive effort.

In addition, the industry is carrying on a world-wide search for plants and soil samples containing substances that may cure or treat disease.

"The next 30 years holds great promise of benefits from drug research, he continued. People will live longer by 1993, and they will stay younger longer.

"Thanks to new drugs which will slow down the aging process, people won't reach middle age until their late 50's."

By 1993, the speaker declared, the Four Horsemen of Suffering and Death - cancer, mental illness, arthritis, and cardiovascular diseases - will have been fairly well ridden down.

These and other equally stirring gains mean that it's going to be great in 1993," Wilkinson emphasized.

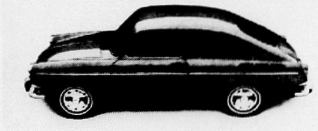

Noting that medical research is still in its infancy, the speaker asserted that, given the proper freedom, it will grow rapidly.

"We in the drug industry are confident that in our laboratories - there are, and will be, a host of MIRACLES IN THE MAKING."

Nobody made a mistake. That shapely car is the new Volkswagen Fastback.

It's in this VW ad because it's a VW.

We haven't made very many yet, so you probably haven't even seen one yet. That's why we're running this ad in the first place.)

The Fastback isn't a VW in name only; it's a Volkswagen through and through.

The engine is air-cooled so it has no use for water or antifreeze. And it's in the back to make the going easy when the weather isn't.

The Fastback is airtight, like all Volkswagens, because it's made in the same plant by the same people.

Naturally, there are differences, too.

The Fastback engine is a little more powerful (the car will cruise at better than 80). It holds 5 nicely. It has disc brakes in front. The upholstery is (for us) kind of jazzy. And it (the Fastback) costs $2,143.00.

If you've steered clear of a Volkswagen because it wasn't big enough or good-looking enough or expensive enough, you may be forced into thinking it all through again.

Sorry.

AP High School Basketball Team Defeat Highlands Girls School

Coach Margaret Collins' all-star girls' basketball team, Avon Park High School, won 37-22 over Coach Lil Hassfurder's basketball team from Highlands School for Girls, Friday, Dec. 2 at the high school gym.

The floating trophy, recently won by the volleyball team of the Girls School, was recovered by the all-star basketball team. The trophy was donated by Leon's Sporting Goods store.

A good crowd enjoyed the game.

Kenneth Dyer Promoted By Florida Power

The promotion of Kenneth L. Dyer to manager of the newly-created Lake Placid district office of Florida Power Corporation has been announced by John E. Gleason, the company's Ridge division manager.

A native of Atlanta, Dyer attended schools in Michigan and Florida and is a graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in business administration.

He joined Florida Power in 1957 as an intermediate clerk in the Orlando office and, two years later, moved to the Apopka district office as a senior clerk. In 1960, Dyer was transferred to the company's Winter Park office and named office manager, holding that position until his newest assignment as Lake Placid district manager.

He is president of the Civitan Club of Winter Park and an active member of the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce. Dyer is married, the father of one child, and will soon reside in Lake Placid.

The Lake Placid office formerly was under the jurisdiction of the company's Avon Park district operations, and Ridge Division Manager, Gleason said, "In order to better serve our 2,900 customers in the Lake Placid area, we have established it as a completely separate district. In addition, a new four-man line crew will also be based in Lake Placid for more efficient operations." The Lake Placid district is one of six districts which make up the company's Ridge division, headquartered in Lake Wales.

Tan Son Nhut, Vietnam (AHTNC) — Army Private First Class Joseph H. McCullough, son of Mrs. Mary Ada Planeta, 609 W. Pleasant St., Avon Park, was assigned to Headquarters for all post exchange operations in Vietnam, Nov. 10.

McCullough entered the Army in March 1966 and was last stationed at Ft. Polk, La.

The 20-year-old soldier was graduated from Avon Park High School in 1963.

Medicare Credit Available For Some Expenses

Medicare beneficiaries should pay close attention to their medical expenses in the last three months of this year, W. E. Arnold, manager of the Lakeland Social Security office said today.

Beneficiaries who have not had $50 in medical expenses since Medicare began can receive credit for any covered expenses they have or will incur in the last three months of the year.

In 1967, these expenses can be used to meet the $50 deductible for the whole year, Arnold explained. This could amount to as much as a $50 savings in 1967 for the beneficiary.

In some cases, the same medical expenses which were used to meet the $50 deductible in 1966 can also be used again in 1967. Page 21 of the Medicare handbook given several examples of how this "carryover" principle works, but Arnold urged anyone having questions about the carryover to contact his office for professional advice.

Although most of the provisions of Medicare are handled for the beneficiary by his hospital, Social Security or Blue Cross, the beneficiary must keep all receipts for covered medical services.

When the beneficiary has medical expenses of over $50 in the year, he should file a claim for reimbursement. Arnold pointed out that his office at 306 S. Florida Ave. in Lakeland will be happy to help beneficiaries complete the necessary forms and be of any assistance needed. Medicare handbooks are available at your Social Security office.

U.F. Ornamental Horticulturist In Sebring Dec. 8

Dr. E. W. McElwee, Ornamental Horticulturist, of the University of Florida will be in Highlands County, Thursday evening, Dec. 8, to speak on "Landscaping of Florida Homes." The session will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Courthouse Annex Assembly Room in Sebring.

Dr. McElwee will deal primarily with the use of native plants in landscaping your home. A portion of the topic will describe effective landscaping for the patio. After the presentation Dr. McElwee will be available to answer questions on landscaping and ornamental plants.

Dr. McElwee is a native of Mississippi and holds degrees from Mississippi State, Auburn and Ohio State Universities. He joined the Florida Agricultural Extension Service as Ornamental Horticulturist in 1953 and was appointed Head and Chairman of the Department of Ornamental Horticulture, University of Florida, in 1956. He has served in the above capacity since 1956, teaching, research and extension.

Dr. McElwee is a member of Sigma Xi, American Society of Horticultural Science, Alpha Zeta, Gamma Sigma Delta, and Pi Alpha Xi. He is listed in the American Men of Science (1949), Who's Who in America (1961) and Who's Who in the South and Southwest (1960).

One can easily see why Dr. McElwee is the most qualified person in Florida to talk on landscaping.

Any one residing in Highlands County is invited to attend this session. This will be an excellent opportunity to learn about Florida plants and landscaping.

Early Rennaissance Paintings Featured In Christmas Exhibit

A set of modern carvings and five paintings from the early Rennaissance period are featured in the Christmas art exhibit at First Christian Church, Sebring.

"We hope many people will take time in this busy holiday season to visit the exhibit which is located in the vestibule just off the Eucalyptus Street entrance to the church," said Mrs. William Sager, exhibit chairman.

The carvings come from a nativity set made of native olive wood and carved by the craftsmen in the Christian community in Bethlehem, Jordan.

Many of the craftsmen are refugees and sale of their art works through Church World Service helps them to become self-supporting.

The paintings are reproductions of masterpieces owned by the National Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. The ones chosen for display this month are all on the Christmas theme.

They are Jan Van Eyck's, "The Annunciation," Giorgione's "The Holy Family," Botticelli's painting of "The Holy Family," "The Presentation in the Temple," by Memling, and Raphael's, "The Alba Madonna."

An information and meditation guide, prepared by Mrs. Sager, is available in the vestibule with the exhibit. Visitors are requested, in the guide, to register in the guest book and indicate which painting is their favorite.

Mrs. Sager said the favorite of the mid-Autumn display was a nature study by Rosseau, "The Equatorial Jungle." It received almost twice as many favorite votes as the second-choice, "Madonna and Child in a Garden," by Cosmo Turo.

QUO VADIS

The exhilaration of the holidays is in the air following the Santa Claus parades to start the festivities. The shops are teeming with shoppers, and the restaurants and night clubs are filling up with visitors, tourists and the back home vacationers out for some fun and relaxation. May we suggest some of the following for excellent dining, dancing and entertainment offered in the surrounding areas.

First, there is a dance for the Teenagers sponsored by the Sebring Elks' Club in their beautiful new home on S. Lakeview Drive in Sebring. Kids, the band will be "Me and The Other Guys," which I understand is on the top of the list of favorites for the teenagers in Highlands County. This dance will be held on Saturday, December 17th and all proceeds will go to help purchase Band Uniforms. Come on kids, enjoy yourself while contributing to a worthy cause.

Did you know that Mike Morsillo, formerly of Clayton's is now the Chef at the Blue Room at the Elk's Club? Well, now his friends, who are Elk members and their guests, may once enjoy his delicious food again in regal atmosphere of the Blue Room. Stop in and see him soon.

Down Lake Placid way, we have THE TOWER VIEW RESTAURANT continuing their Lobster special because of the continuing great response. Should you not be a seafood lover, try one of Chef Carl's other specials like the Baked Rock Cornish Hen and dressing - you'll love it.

To the line a ways, we have George's COPPERTOP STEAK HOUSE in Lake Wales. Here you have two dining rooms, and the cocktail lounge decorated in subdued copper, smooth panelling and thick rugs for luxury dining. Johnny Kragon gives out on the keyboard for your dancing and listening pleasure. Say hello to Mr. George soon - it's fun there.

Also in Lake Wales, we have Mr. Hunt's Highlander Restaurant, which is the oldest dining spot I understand in Lake Wales. Their attractive horseshoe bar offers delicious beverages, and the menu can tempt any palate. Try their Sunday buffet soon.

A little farther north in Winter Haven, we have the well-known favorite haunt, Nick Christy's SUNDOWN RESTAURANT. Here many dining rooms to select from - don't know just how many, never counted them but will have to ask Mr. Nick on my next visit. Nick specializes in Kansas City Steaks and fresh seafood to please all ages - male and female alike. Travelers are always welcome at the CHASE LOUNGE, where you can always expect real good entertainment, which is changed frequently so you always come back and see a new show. You'll enjoy dancing here to music to fit the mood.

A short ways from here on U.S. 17 in Ft. Meade, there is the popular "EL CID LOUNGE" with your host Frank Wiesser continuing his fine feature entertainment the ever popular Go-Go Girls.

Sports fans, Pat O'Hara will start his wrestling matches again this month—the first one scheduled on Thursday, December 29th at the Avon Park Armory.

If fishing is a favorite sport of yours, stop by and see the Eaves at the Istokpoga Fish Camp in Lake Placid - they have some secret spots for good fishing, maybe you can land a real big one on your next trip here.

Looking for something really different for Christmas for the person that has everything - get a gift certificate at MARRS AIRCRAFT in Avon Park for a solo course - really different and something that will please for a long time to come.

On the local cinema, we have playing at the HILANS THEATRE in Avon Park, "The Ipcress File" with Michael Caine - a terrific film from all reports. This starts on Sunday and will play thru Tuesday.

At the SEVON DRIVE IN THEATRE, starting Thursday "The Liquidator" and on Sunday thru Wednesday that magnificent film of Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments."

FIX-IT TIP

- If a run or carpet must be walked on before it has dried from its liquid shampoo, spread wrapping paper on it. To avoid stains on slides and castors when shampooing a rug or carpet, slip waxed paper disks under the legs of chairs and tables.
- To make wallpaper easier to apply and also prevent the hardening that causes it to crack and peel, add a small amount of soap to the wallpaper paste bucket.

Frozen fish do not necessarily have to be thawed before cooking. Just allow a few extra minutes of cooking time, advise specialists of the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture. However, when fish are to be either breaded, fried or stuffed, you'll find it more convenient to thaw them first to make handling easier. Thaw frozen fish in the refrigerator in their original wrappings. Cook thawed fish immediately for best quality. Be sure you don't overcook it. Cook fish just until it flakes easily with a fork.

Fireworks Set For City Beach December 21

The Progressive Business Association of Avon Park has scheduled a Christmas fireworks display for 6:30 p.m., December 21 at City Beach on Lake Verona. Pyrotechnic specialists have been contracted for 30 minutes of fast action.

This will be followed at 7:30 by a drawing for $300 worth of prizes. The drawing will be held at the bandstand in the Mall and features a stereo record player, oven broiler, tires, electric can opener, deluxe chair, tensor lamp, radio, hair dryer, golden equipment and many others.

All PBA member stores will be open until 9 p.m. each night until Christmas starting Friday, Dec. 16.

Company Named To Market School Bond

At its Tuesday meeting the school board named Wainswright and Ramsey Inc. financial advisor for the marketing of the proposed $3.15 million bond issue. Four financial firms submitted proposals and the board chose Wainswright and Ramsey although its fee—of a little more than $6,000—was the highest.

The board based its decision on the fact that among the four companies only Wainswright Ramsey will not submit a company bid to buy bonds. Board members said they felt a "disinterested advisor" may obtain a wider marketing of the bonds and greater number of bids with the best possibilities of a favorable rate of interest.

Wainswright and Ramsey some months ago had been named the school board's financial advisor for the preparation and marketing of the $1 million race track bond issue. At Tuesday night's meeting the Wainswright and Ramsey representative advised the board to postpone sale of the $1 million until after the February 28 vote on the $3.15 million issue.

"All the money is to be for school construction, and it may be very confusing to the public to be selling bonds at the same time a vote is being taken on construction bonds," the financial advisor said.

Frank Watson, Jacksonville bond attorney, was named attorney to prepare the bonds on the $1 million race track issue.

School Board Member Ted Cason pushed the board and Superintendent George Douglass to make a decision on "what we'll do if the bond issue fails." Chairman Henry Bailey mentioned double sessions as a possible means of relieving overcrowded conditions, but the Superintendent refused to list possibilities.

"When we decided to ask for the bond issue it was because we said we had no other answer to our overcrowded classrooms. I can't see now what we'd do if the only answer fails," Douglass contended.

At the Tuesday night meeting the school board accepted resignations from two teachers: Dianna D. Martin of Lake Placid High and L. Sallathea Ashford of Hopewell. Appointment of three teachers was approved: Ann Reynolds for Lake Placid High, Helen Britt and Mary Rarig for E. O. Douglas.

Owen Jones was appointed jaintor for Avon Elementary.

Highlands County Board of Public Instruction will seek a court order which would result in cancelling of a liquor license for a package sales store near Fred Wild School.

More than two dozen members of the DeSoto City-Fred Wild Parent Teacher Association attended Tuesday night's school board meeting to request that action be taken against the store which Mitchell Prescott of Avon Park operates at the corner of Kenilworth Blvd. and Highlands Ave., in Sebring.

Charles Swank served as spokesman for the PTA. R. L. Padgett made the motion that the school board attorney be instructed "to bring a suit or suits to see that the law is enforced."

The Beverage Department and county officials are in conflict over who carries the responsibility for enforcement of the state zoning requirement that all liquor sales businesses outside the city limits be located at least 2500 feet from a school. The new store on Kenilworth Blvd. is 1500 feet from Fred Wild School.

In process of building the store, the new sidewalk—which serves the children attending Fred Wild School—was covered at the Kenilworth-Highlands corner. Swank told the school board Tuesday that the State Road Department had promised that the sidewalk will be restored by the end of January.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the school board approved the participation of the Sebring High School Band in the Gasparilla parade in Tampa on February 18 and the Avon Park High Band in the inaugural parade in Tallahassee on January 3.

Tom Horner, assistant county agent, was granted use of a school bus and driver to transport 4-H club members to the state fair in Tampa on February 18.

Application for the 1967 Head Start program for 160 underprivileged children, was approved.

Standard Oil won a two-year bid for petroleum products for Island Beach schools purchasing agent, estimated that the contract will involve an expenditure of approximately $80,900 "depending largely on how cold the winter is."

Avon Park Motor Company's bid of $3,845 plus trade-in, was accepted for a new dump truck.

Hathaway Building Supply of Lake Placid won the bid for materials for four portable classrooms—$9,966.

A long list of office education equipment was purchased from federal money to supply the high schools' business education classes.

City Council Approves $6,000 Street Program

By unanimous vote Monday night Avon Park City Council approved a $6,000 street improvement program. This, said Councilman Duggan, puts us out of the street business for the rest of the financial year.

It was generally agreed, however, that the balance of $3,500 in the budget would be adequate to cover the sidewalk program for the balance of the year. The original street budget was $13,000 and $3,500 had been spent to date.

In other action:

—Council agreed to eliminate left turns at Lake Ave. and Main, between the two Red Lights. This for a 30 day trial. Signs will be installed this week.

—Councilman Albright's motion for separate janitorial service for City Hall was defeated.

—Councilman Scott reported that bids had been called for a new police car and were expected in by December 26.

—Mayor DeLaney reported that any downtown Christmas decorations obstructing traffic lights would be removed Thursday.

—Voted to call bids for two new pickup trucks. These to replace 12-year old equipment in the street and water departments. This would be a transfer of funds and would not call for new appropriations.

—Gave unanimous approval to Councilman Duggan's motion to shut off delinquent water accounts after 30 days, beginning January 1. This complies with bond issues of 1950 and 1966.

—Authorized the Mayor, City Clerk and City Attorney to proceed with the sale of a parcel of land to Hood's Dairy at the appraised figure of $3,600.

—Agreed to call for bids for the removal of an old house across from the fire station.

—Approved a December 21 fire works display at city beach sponsored by Progressive Business Assn.

—Gave unanimous approval to Councilman Scott's motion for a $15.00 Christmas bonus to city employees.

—Mayor DeLaney said he had received a request from the Noah's Ark pre-school day nursery for $50.00 and 20 feet of fencing. This was approved over the dessenting vote of Councilman Scott.

Council President Clarence King noted that the Stray Dog Ordinance was not being complied with. He offered consideration for a plan to pay $1.00 for each stray delivered to the police station. This idea was discussed and tabled until the January 9 meeting.

Council agreed to cancel the next two meetings as they fall on December 26 and January 2. Any persons having Council business prior to the January 9 meeting should present it to city hall.

Red Devils Add Gold To Avon Park High Trophy Case

Three trophys were added to the Avon Park High School collection by the 1966 Red Devil football team this season as they marched to a 9-2 season finishing up as runners-up in state Class B competition.

The Red Devils, first of all this year, retired the Avon Park Sebring Junior Chamber of Commerce trophy by winning it for the third straight year. The trophy was a five year award with the team which won three of the five years winning it permanently so the Red Devils took possession this year without letting the Blue Streaks even get a good look at it. Avon Park defeated Sebring 19-6 in 1964, 20-7 in 1965, and 47-7 this year. In the past fifteen years, under Coach Joe Franza as head football coach, Avon Park has beaten Sebring 10 times while losing 5.

The Devils added the Class B Region 4 Championship trophy when they were awarded the title for the 8-1 regular season record. The Avon Park team ended up tied with Fort Meade but when the win-loss records of the two team's opponents were compared, Avon Park's opponents had more wins than Fort Meade so the Devils took the title.

The Red Devils win over Eustis on December 2 here at Memorial Field by a score of 27-0 assured them of at least a runners-up trophy for the state but the team hoped to bring home the state championship with a win over Jefferson County High of Monticello.

However, after the Devils lost to Monticello in a hard fought game last Friday night, they took possession of the runners-up trophy and each member of the team will receive a plaque naming them as Class B state runners-up in football for 1966.

Coach Joe Franze singled out several members of his team yesterday for special praise. The successful Red Devil mentor said that without the improved play of boys like Steve Weber, John Wright, Andrew Wells, Earl Sims, Roscoe Bass and Carl Barnes the team would never have made it to the finals. Franza also commented on how well Emmitt Money had come through as Devil quarterback this season. "Money really did the job done," said Franza. "He was cool and called good games. He also turned in an outstanding job punting."

Three Red Devil were chosen on the All-Region 4 all star team. Money made it as defensive end, Harold Callaway was chosen as an offensive halfback, and Joe Strickler was picked as an offensive tackle.

This year marked the second straight that Avon Park has reached the state playoffs and the 9-2 record zoomed Coach Franza's record to 100 wins over the past 14

Car Hits Train As Brakes Fail

Apparent brake failure caused a car-train collision near the Avon Park station at approximately 12:15 Tuesday afternoon.

Bill Singletary, Avon Park, was driving south on Main Street when his 1959 automobile collided with the 12:05 Seaboard passenger train which was standing in the station. Damage to the car was extensive.

Singletary was taken to Walker Memorial Hospital by Scott-Stevenson-Smith ambulance and confined there with undetermined injuries.

County Schools Receive $11,003 Federal Grant

Highlands County schools will receive an $11,003 federal grant for library materials in the coming year.

Mrs. DeRheta Lanier, coordinator of library services, said this county's grant for the coming year is on the same level as for the past year. The grant application was approved and funds appropriated last week.

Some funds go to all schools in the county with division being made along lines set up by the Florida Department of Education. This grant may be used only for books and audio-visual materials to upgrade the libraries.

In the coming year small appropriations will be designated to begin to build up a materials library to be circulated among all the schools and to establish a professional library for the teachers.

"We are very happy that our school libraries are improving each year," Mrs. Lanier said. "In spite of the accute shortage of librarians, we in this county have been able to provide professional library services in each of our schools and federal grants have enabled us to expand the materials available to assist students and teachers."

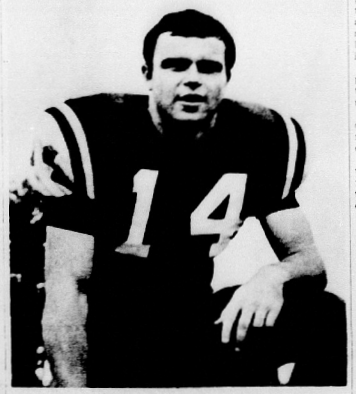

Courthouse To Close Dec. 23

Highlands County officials have voted to observe as holidays the same days designated by the state as holidays for state employees.

For Christmas the courthouse will be closed on Friday, Dec. 23, and Monday, Dec. 26. The New Year's holiday will be on Friday, Dec. 30, and Monday, Jan. 2.

C OF C DIRECTORS TO MEET DEC. 15

The Board of Directors of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce will meet Thursday, Dec. 15, in the Chamber office at 8 p.m.

Harold Callaway Signs Football Contract With Univ. of Georgia

Star APHS Red Devil halfback Harold Callaway signed a grid scholarship with the University of Georgia, Saturday with Coach Ken Cooper.

The 5 ft., 11 inch, 185 pound standout, received a four year grant.

Callaway was one of the main reasons for the successful Red Devils, who finished the season with a record of 9 wins and 2 losses. They had a 8-2 record in 1965.

Callaway averaged 7.6 yards a carry, rushing for 988 yards.

Coach Cooper stated that he was confident that Harold's speed will be a great asset to their team.

Head recruiter and assistant coach of Georgia, Sterling Dupree said, "We are delighted to have Harold become a Bulldog, and I'm sure he will be a great help to the team in the next four years."

Quoting Coach Joe Franza, "I sure hate to lose him; wish I could keep him a couple more years."

Boy Scouts Xmas Trees On Sale

Boy Scout Troop No. 156, sponsored by the Avon Park Union Congregational Church, is selling Christmas trees on the Mall at the bandstand. The sale started Saturday, Dec. 10 and will continue through December 24.

This annual project was inaugurated ten years ago, and in the past, through the Christmas tree sales, the troop has been able to help many scouts go to summer camps in Florida and to Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico, as well as the National Jamborees.

These trees are freshly cut and include native short-leaf pines as well as western cedars which they are growing and eventually hope will become their main source of supply.

These trees are priced reasonably, and the scouts will appreciate your support.

The project is under the chairmanship of Troop Committeeman Royce A. Henry.

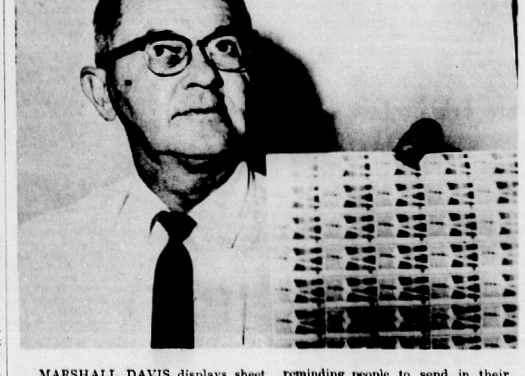

There will be Boy Scouts on duty from after school until 6 o'clock and during pre-Christmas school vacation.

Parents of the scouts will donate their time during the days and evenings.

If no one is on duty whenever you are shopping for a tree, please make your choice, the trees are price-tagged, and there is a can available in which you may deposit your money.

AP Stickers Go Great On Holiday Mail

Members of the Women's Division of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce would like to remind everyone to help advertise "their town" when mailing Christmas cards this year by purchasing the Avon Park stickers and using them during the holidays.

The stickers, although ordinarily for regular mail, are right in keeping with this season, as they are green with white lettering. The cost of these attractive and useful stickers is a mere 50c per hundred.

They help you proclaim to one and all that you want them to "Come to Avon Park, Florida the City of the Mile Long Mall"!

The Chamber of Commerce office on Main Street has the stickers for sale.

TALLAHASSEE (AFN) — While U. S. Senator George Smathers is denying rumors he has his eye of the control of the state Democratic Party, others interested in this leadership keep coming cross evidence to the contrary.

A cabinet officer interested in this posture — if everything points to be advantageous to be tied to the Democratic Party in the near future—finds some proposed backers apparently involved with Sen. Smathers in this new role.

For instance, Frank Smathers, Sen. Smather's brother and law partner, apparently can't get involved in politics with anyone else "at this time."

Neither can Herbert Wolf, president of the First National Bank in St. Augustine, who is a longtime Smathers backer. The First National Bank of St. Augustine is one of a chain controlled by the DuPont Estate which in turn is controlled by financier Ed Ball.

The Tampa law firm of Doyle Carlton Sr., former governor, also apparently is unable to become politically involved with anyone else at this time.

Smathers carefully has left the door open for any political move.

Both Attorney General Earl Faircloth and Secretary of State Tom Adams haven't shut the door with finality on seeking the senate seat to be vacated by Sen. Smathers.

Both feel they have a better chance to get the Democratic nomination than former Gov. Leroy Collins.

Both have good political organizations and strangely enough, both have the same key personnel in their organizations in some instances. (This could cause a bit of a problem if both should seek election for the same office.)

The reasoning further continues that neither has anything to lose since they could retain their present elective jobs and take the shot at the senate seat.

In fact, even if they lost it would be a good test of the political strength which would be advantageous for any future political tests. Neither has lost an election yet and in Florida a man often gets two chances before a black mark is registered against a candidate.

A provision in the present constitution which has caused considerable grief and volumes of judicial opinion in the past is being changed in the proposed constitution. To date, there has been no organized opposition to the change.

Heretofore a member of the legislature acting upon a measure while in the legislative body could be precluded from running for another office which the measure had affected.

Sen. Jack Mathews, Jacksonville, almost got caught in this box when he ran for governor in 1964. He had acted upon an appropriation measure which raised the gubernatorial salary.

Now this restriction will be removed from the constitution as proposed in the draft.

Gov. Elect Claude Kirk is attending many of the constitutional revision sessions. He has been extended floor privileges.

Begin Teaching United Statesism

The greatest beneficiaries of the United States free enterprise, free market economy are the young people, who have to get started in life. They do not realize that without private enterprise and property ownership there would be no real freedom of choice for the individual — he would depend on the state for employment.

Strange as it may seem, in a nation that takes pride in boasting of its academic freedom, little of the bread and butter principles of economics that spell freedom of opportunity, and the right to profit by ones own efforts, are taught in our efforts, are taught in our schools and colleges.

How many high school and college students, for example, realize that representative government cannot continue to exist in this country unless the individual retains the privilege of making his living without regard to political considerations?

How many can see that government ownership and domination of industry must be continuously resisted, not because industry is sacred, it can be controlled, but because the freedom of the individual is inseparable from the future of private enterprise?

How many realize that so long as representative government is the system desired by U. S. citizens, it is imperative that the people be constantly informed of the part private enterprise and private employment play in maintaining that system?

If the basic principles of economics on which our nation was founded were stressed more in our schools, young people would gain greater respect for, and appreciation of, the privileges and opportunities they enjoy under our representative form of government. They would acquire love for a country that gives them freedom.

Of the billions of dollars in federal tax funds that are being given our schools and colleges some should be earmarked to teach the principles of economics, which have assured unmatched personal liberty, religious freedom and material prosperity to United States citizens.

Have Medical Discoveries Ended?

If the United States falls prey to the plague of too much government interference in fields of science and medicine, it can never be said that we have had insufficient warning. Eminent scientists and men of medicine from other lands, who have seen the tragic consquences of mixing politics in the fields of science and medical care, mince no words in telling what is in store if the same pattern is followed in this country.

Dr. Ernest B. Chain, the English biochemist who won the Nobel prize for his work in developing penicillin, in dedicatory remarks at a new drug laboratory, expressed the opinion that the great age of medical discoveries may be coming to an end. "The dazzling success of recent decades cannot be maintained, 'unless a flow of new ideas based on the discovery of new biological phenomena occurs.' And this flow of new ideas cannot be obtained by state subsidies or by 'bulldozer organizational methods' . . . "

On the surface Dr. Chain's extreme skepticism appears justified, and yet, there are encouraging signs that our country will not succumb wholly to the frustration of state control as has happened in England. The future of scientific progress lies in basic research. In this field, the American Medical Association Research and Education Foundation's Institute for Biomedical Research promises to increase in importance to the American scientific community. As the AMA News points out: "The kind of basic laboratory studies under way at the Institute . . . are based on the inner-directed creativity of gifted scientists and are what bring advances in science."

Red Devils To Play Wauchula Here Friday; Lose First Game

The Avon Park Red Devil cagers, with one days practice, kept pace with the Fort Meade Miners for three quarters last Tuesday night before bowing 77-53 in the season opener for Avon Park under new coach Dale Landress.

The Miners, who are now 3-1, with the single loss coming from Zephyrhills by one point, took advantage of sharp outside shooting and control of the backboards to hand the Devils the loss.

After trailing all the way, the Red Devils edged within four points of the Miners in the third period as Emmitt Money got hot and hit several consecutive outside shots. Then, with four fouls on three of his starters, Coach Landress was forced to break up the combination that had drawn close to the hot Miner club. The Miners moved out to stay in front and racked up the 24 point margin as the game ended.

Money was high scorer for Avon Park with nine field goals and four free shots and a total of 22, and big Joe Strickler led the losers in rebounds and hit six field goals for 12 counters. Harold Callaway pumped in three outside shots for six points, Andrew Wells had four points, Leotis McNeil accounted for five points, and Dean Lemley added three for Avon Park.

McClellan, the Miner's hot shot, hit for 26 points to take high scoring honors for the game and Brinson had a total of 21.

Avon Park hit 54 percent of their free shots and managed a 62.9 percent on field goals in the first half and hit 42.8 percent of their field shots in the second half. The Miners hit 74 percent on free shots.

Coach Landress dressed out 11 boys on his varsity squad: Money, Sims, McNeil, Kenny Dixon, Bill Jackson, Strickler, Wells, Lemley, Carl Barnes, Bill Knapp, and Callaway. The boys did an exceptional job staying in the game with the Miners without having had any practice.

The junior varsity team came up against a real sharp Miner "B" squad and took a real beating from the smooth operating club. Coach Fred Sadlin's boys were outshot and out rebounded throughout the game by the taller boys, but the play of Charles Magenheimer and Donald Strange for the Red Devils was encouraging to Devil fans.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the Red Devils will be at home to Hardee High Wildcats and Satuday night they will travel to Arcadia for games with the DeSoto High Bulldogs to finish out the pre-Christmas schedule.

Only nine more shopping days until Christmas.

Luncheon Report

Bob Barben, December's program chairman, got us off to a fine start with our speaker, Frank D. Trouillon, assistant manager of Florida Citrus Mutual.

Getting his Master's degree in marketing from the University of Chicago, Mr. T. joined FCM some years ago. Rising to his present top position in the Lakeland office. In Lakeland he is active in civic affairs, holding positions of directors of Kiwanis, Red Cross, Methodist Church, etc.

Our topic was the present prospects for the marketing of the 1966-67 citrus crop and what the FCM is doing about it. Steps have been taken for several years back to anticipate such a record crop as we are harvesting now; some 140 million boxes of citrus in all.

Citrus is dear to the hearts and pocketbooks of Highlands County folk . . . where we are 57,000 acres of it on 2.7 million trees, with 290,000 new ones planted in the last year. We are number 5 in counties of Florida in citrus production — 8 million boxes last year.

For some years since 1963 money has been set aside (statewide) for dealing with a bumper crop as we now have . . . to use in aiding advertising, etc. This includes help for "brand names" as well as direct methods . . . involving 30 million dollars in campaigns nationwide.

Other ideas are working to swell the market for citrus. Improving the taste and quality of juice is brought about by lifting the mixture of concentrate to 45 degree brix. Various new sized containers with quick off tops help; 6, 8, and 12 oz. cans.

New fields of consumption in institutions as in the lunch program in public schools, is being pushed. By-products, such as citrus oils and vitamins relating to health, are being researched. Dr. Boris Sokoloff at South Florida College is doing work in this field . . . with some financial grant from FCM.

Frank Trouillion stressed the independant nature of the citrus industry in steering clear of government regulation or subsidy. Citrus tries to manage itself in a democratic and public-spirited way.

Jap Import Seen Threat To Florida Citrus

The Northern Citrus Import Commission of Seattle is presently trying to import Japanese citrus for distribution into the states of Washington, Montana and Idaho. Such permission would require a lowering of present quarantine barriers.

Florida Citrus Mutual says this would pose the threat of reintroduction of citrus canker—the most serious citrus disease known.

Mutual spokesman Rutledge says that in 1910 the importation of Japanese fruit introduced the disease with the results that 250,000 grove trees were killed, three million nursery trees were destroyed and over $6 million was spent in eradication.

The Seattle importers propose safeguards, but citrus canker still remains a serious problem with the Japanese Unshu orange.

Rutledge, executive vice president of Citrus Mutual says, "I have reported the dangers of these imports to Secretary of Agriculture Freeman and Sen. Spessard Holland. I hope we will have the backing of the entire industry."

years as head coach for the Red Devils. With records missing for 1952, Franzo's first year as head coach, the other 14 years show his teams winning 100, losing 38, and tying 6. That includes post season play that ended with 2 wins and four losses over the years. In the past three years the Red Devil team has lost only five games and lost only to Wauchula on Memorial Field in that period of time.

Much credit for this year's success must go to assistant coaches Ralph Hill and Dale Landress, both APHS graduates and both former players under Coach Franzo. Larry Pickett and Fred Sandlin, "B" squad coaches and scouts for the varsity, also contributed to the Red Devil's outstanding record.

Avon Park fans are justly proud of the Red Devils for the fine play and the fine sportsmanship they displayed throughout the season. The fifteen seniors who will graduate at the end of this school season will be missed by Devil fans in the future. Congratulations to all of the members of the team and the coaching staff from the Sun and all Devil fans everywhere.

52 Depositors Have $5,379 At Post Office

United States Postal Savings certificates totaling $5,379.00, which are on deposit at the Avon Park Post Office, are now earning little or no interest for 52 local depositors, Postmaster R. D. Young revealed today.

Nationwide, the post office department is holding more than $147 million in the obsolete program which was discontinued by Congress on March 28, 1966.

As of April 27, 1966, postal savings were discontinued, and no deposits were accepted by the post office department. Certificates whose anniversary dates have been reached since last April 26 have earned their final interest payment. Those whose anniversary dates fall between now and next April 26 will receive interest until their next anniversary dates, but they can be cashed at any time and a proportionate amount of interest will be paid. After April 26, 1967, no interest will be earned by any postal savings accounts, Postmaster Young said.

The postmaster suggests that all postal savings depositors close out their accounts as soon as convenient so they can put their funds to more productive use. He also reminded depositors that U. S. Savings Bonds paying a current rate of 4.15 percent interest, if held to maturity, are an excellent investment for both safety and income.

On July 1 of next year, remaining funds in the program will be turned over to the treasury department. There they will be deposited in a trust fund, where they will remain available for payment without time limitation whenever proper claims are received.

Final Performance Of 'Messiah' Given Sun., Dec. 11 In Sebring

The 40-voice Highlands Society Chorus under the direction of Don Meiser, rendered their interpretation of the "Messiah" at the Methodist Church in Sebring, Dec. 11, to a capacity audience. Members of the chorus are from Lake Placid, Sebring and Avon Park.

This 12th annual presentation of the Society, was accompanied by George Walper, organist, and Miss Salie Harrison at the piano.

The solos by Mrs. Vic Mickelas, soprano, Miss. Helen Cooper, contralto, Jack Smith, tenor and Buford Jasper, baritone, are surpassed by none. The blending of their melodious voices with the chorus and the well balanced sound pleased the audience during the 90 minute performance.

The portions of "The Messiah" which are most frequently associated with the birthday of the infant Jesus, will bless and enrich your holidays and the coming year.

The talents of the chorus and the exceptional voices of the soloists, combined for the final number the great "Hallelujah" chorus, which brought the audience to its feet, which is traditional, as it is awe inspiring.

The Society re-elected Dr. Lee Burley president when the Society held its annual business meeting Sunday.

Mrs. George Kelsey of Avon Park was named vice president and Mrs. Hubert Roberts of Lake Placid, secretary-treasurer.

Bamboo Queen

Pretty eyes and a charm all her own made Sunken Gardens model Hannah Taber, a natural choice for Miss Bamboo of 1967. The blonde beauty from St. Petersburg, Florida, is pictured standing behind a clump of the towering giant-grasses which grow to their maximum height of 150 feet in just sixty days.

Come in and drive a Pussycat wild.

Believe it or not, our Volkswagen Karmann Ghia (The Pussycat) has a lot in common with expensive sports cars.

Start with its stick shift. It has four forward gears, and to slow down you can down-shift, just like a race car driver.

Also (like on many racers), each wheel has its own torsion bar suspension system. So a bump bumps only one wheel while the rest of the car sticks to the road.

Of course, if you'd rather not stick to the road, you can drive off with less chance of getting stuck, because a VW engine is in the rear. It bears down on the rear wheels, giving them extra traction in mud and snow.

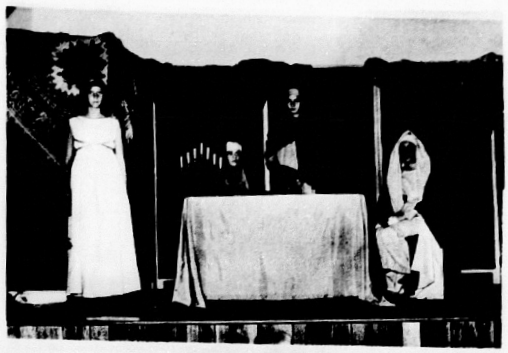

A lot of people buy our Pussycat strictly for its looks.

Later they find out that it's more car than they bargained for.

Private "In" - Formation

Twas the week before vacation

And all thru the school
Nothing was heard except a yule-type-yule.
The kiddies were happy
The creatures were gay
Everyone's looking forward
To the eventful day.
Packing has started,
Gifts are prepared.
Everyone loves everyone
Everyone cared.
People are laughing,
Shouts can be heard
Everything's clear
Nothing absurd.
Decorations all around,
The Spirit is here
Dear ole St. Nick,
Please have no fear.
Great anticipation mounts
In ones eyes.
All that is heard
Are joyous cries.
A twinkle appears
In every last smile,
A wonderful season,
Well worth your while.
The teachers prepare
For this joyous time.
Every word is a laugh
Every laugh is a rime.
A Christmas tree is bought,
Decorations are sought,
A great feast will be had,
Not old Scrooge can be sad!
No time to waste
People make haste—
Bustle, Bustle, Bustle—
Hear packages rustle.
Aren't you happy?
Aren't you gay?
We're all getting ready,
It's almost that day.
The bells are ringing
The people are singing
Joy to the King,
Such a marvelous thing,
Christmas draws near,
Oh, how we cheer,
With the old sayings might
And St. Nick is right
Merry Xmas to all,
And to all a Good-Night!

Motor Club Has 7-point Program For Shoppers

A seven-point safe driving program for Christmas shoppers was outlined today by the Peninsula Motor Club (AAA).

Emphasizing the fact that December is one of the most dangerous driving months of the year, the AAA issued the following suggestions to motorists on downtown Yule shopping excursions:

1. Avoid window shopping when you are behind the wheel. Wait until you have parked the car before you enjoy the festively decorated store windows. Driving a car is a full-time job.

2. Be especially alert for traffic lights. Many downtown areas at Christmas time are gaily festooned with holiday lights, and these (usually red and green) are easily confused with traffic signals.

3. Give shopping-weary pedestrians a break. Downtown areas are more crowded than usual at Christmas time, and pedestrians, tired from shopping, are often loaded down with packages that may obscure their vision when crossing the streets. Be alert for them, and wherever possible, give them the right-of-way. Another time the roles may be reversed.

4. Avoid piling Christmas bundles and packages in the backseat of the car in such a way as to block your vision through the rear-view mirror. Under no circumstances, should you place packages on the ledge in front of the back window.

5. Try to do your shopping during the daylight hours if possible. The earlier darkness hours of winter increase the danger of accidents.

6. Plan your shopping trip so that you can avoid last-minute rushing if possible. Hurry and carelessness go hand-in-hand.

7. Leave the holiday spirits at home. In the pandemonium of downtown Christmas traffic, you need all your wits for driving and walking.

Extention Homemakers Club Hold Christmas Luncheon December 8

The Senior Extention Homemakers Club of Avon Park held their monthly meeting December 8 at 11:30 a.m. in the Social Room of the Florida Power Club House in the form of a Christmas luncheon.

Mrs. Willie Jones and Mrs. Lorraine Acri, co-hostesses, decorated the room and tables in keeping with the holiday season.

Turkey and all the trimmings were enjoyed by 15 members and three guests. The club was honored by the presence of Mrs. Imogene Rittenbough, county extention agent.

Each member brought gifts for "Noah's Ark," instead of the usual exchange of gifts.

Mrs. Thorp presided over the business meeting with Mrs. Bridges giving the devotions.

The fair committee, headed by Mrs. Ruth Watkins and Mrs. Jose Heritage, reported on plans for the fair. Work teams were selected.

The Highlands County Fair will be held January 16 - 21. All club exhibits must be in the building by 11 p.m. January 14, except the baked goods, which must be in by 9 a.m. January 16.

The newly elected officers for 1967 were then installed by Mrs. Imogene Rittenbough. The officers are, Mrs. Mildred Thorp, president; Mrs. Alma Smoot, vice president; Mrs. Lorraine Acri, secretary, and Mrs. Roxi Enoch, treasurer. The chairman for the different committees remain the same until future notice.

The next meeting will be held on January 17 at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Thorp with Mrs. Johnson as co-host.

Southland Trailer Court

Robert Elethorp was pleasantly surprised last week when old acquaintances, Al and Mary Calzeda from Clayton, N. Y., dropped in, bringing with them a complete prepared dinner for all to enjoy. The Calzedas operate one of the finest restaurants on the St. Lawrence River through the summer, and this winter he is chief chef at one of Sarasota's large hotels.

Another shuffle match was enjoyed last Tuesday by 16 players, making it possible to have a complete afternoon schedule. The Cyrus Senger-Everett Paxton team were the finals winners. Everett substituted for Stewart Dilts for this game.

Another new couple, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wasu from West Virginia, have joined the ranks of Southland's residents. They are occupying the mobile home just recently placed on the former Beulah Bayley location. A hearty welcome is extended.

Carl and Lila Wertzbar were in Sebring Saturday to visit his cousin Elda Smith, who has been ill for some time and unable to walk without aid from others. Carl and Elda were raised as children in Plainfield, Ill., one of the oldest towns in Illinois.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 13, our folks were treated to a wonderful showing of "Holy Land" pictures by Rev. Roy Johnson - a very appropriate pre-Christmas theme. Hostess was Goldia Daun.

Henry Buckel of Tampa spent several days recently, visiting with the Everett Paxtons.

A complete roster of the new officers for 1967 was chosen at the Tuesday "coffee hour," to be under the leadership of the following: Sam Walton, chairman; Ed Comfort, co-chairman and Carolyn Morrison, secretary-treasurer. The social activities calendar with complete outline of the daily events will be in printed form for distribution to all park residents, courtesy of Cyrus Senger.

Surprise guests of the Waltons Sunday night were Sam's niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Royalty of Indianapolis, who are on their way for a fishing vacation in the Keys.

We are making an early announcement of our annual Christmas dinner, to be at one o'clock Sunday, Dec. 25, so that everyone in the park will make plans to attend. For details see either Winnie Lumpkin or Edna Senger, your hostesses.

Late word from Earl Murphy is the Carrie has been in the hospital for eight weeks following a nervous breakdown. She is slowly improving and both extend their holiday greetings to their friends at Southland. Let us reciprocate by sending "get well" and Christmas cards in return.

More guests for the Waltons - Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pestle of Dunedin were Sunday and Monday visitors, leaving Tuesday morning for Hallandale on the east coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Porter from Valparaiso, Ind., are visiting the Sengers. They like Avon Park the best of any place they have visited in Florida, and are looking forward to retirement in sunny Florida.

Plan To Be Married This Year?

County Judge Mervin Rehrer today issued a reminder that the deadline is near for couples who wish to obtain marriage licenses for holiday weddings.

Florida law requires a three-day waiting period between filing of an application and issuance of a license. To obtain a license before the courthouse closes for the Christmas holidays, an application would need to be filed by December 19 or 20.

The courthouse will re-open on December 27 but since it will be closed on December 30 for New Year's holiday, there would not be sufficient time to obtain a license between Christmas and New Year's.

The applications, which had been light recently, increased sharply last week.

GETTING MORE OUT OF LIFE

"That ye might be filled with all the fullness of God." Ephesians 3:19.

Most of us realize, if we stop to consider, that we are not getting the most out of life. This fact leads us to believe in the possibility of the further development of our personalities. There is always a more yet to be.

In the teachings of Jesus the complete life consists in being "perfect as your father in heaven is perfect." St. Matthew 5:48. When he speaks of the citizens of the Kingdom of God, he speaks of the person who does God's will on earth as it is done in heaven. What partakes of the life of God has the mark of immortality upon it.

Jesus taught in a marvelous way the qualities of life that we associate with God. Among these are: love, triumphant goodness, truth and self-giving grace. He demonstrated these values in his own life. He leads us to believe that our lives should be patterned after his. St. Paul insists that the believer should follow the example of his Lord: "Let Christ Jesus be your example as to what your attitude should be." Phillipians 2:5 (Phillips). So we may say that in Jesus we can see God's picture for us.

We are urged to become rich toward God in gathering to ourselves a new kind of wealth. This makes demands upon us. Jesus indicated as much, when he said: "Sell that ye have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth." St. Luke 12:37. In other words Christianity gives us the opportunity to become rich in the values which the world attributes to Christ.

The better life is there for us. Jesus said: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." St. John 10:10. To accept Christ and to become his follower is to walk in a new way. It is not always easy. But we can be sure that every advance that we make stores up moral gains and makes the next victory that much easier. The reward is in terms of an enriched and enlarged life. Little by little we gain what might be called the Christ-habit.

Prof. Huxley pointed out the fact that a disciplined life causes us to respond to situations according to learned reactions. "There is a story," he said, "which is credible enough, though it may not be true, of a practical joker who seeing a discharged veteran carrying home his dinner, suddenly called out, 'attention!' whereupon the man instantly brought his hands down and lost his mutton and potatoes in the gutter. The drill had been thorough, and its effects had become embodied in the man's nervous structure." Getting the Christ-habit may be said to be the schooling of ourselves in Christ until His ways of acting are embodied in our nervous structure. When we are called upon to act, we act after the pattern of his thought and do it quite naturally.

We say of a good man "He always does the right thing!" Such a person has formed moral habits through accepting certain ideals and acting accordingly. His response is usually natural and spontaneous.

Young people, of course, need to be taught the value of discipline in acquiring moral excellence. However, this is a lesson that all of us should learn. For the soul of man is timeless. This fact is illustrated in the story of the artist who laid aside his brushes at the age of eighty only to take them up again in his ninetieth year.

Bishop Lawrence once preached a sermon on the words of Jesus from the cross: "It is finished." In that sermon he insists that every life at every stage of its progress on earth should be a finished life. Youth so often makes a mess of life instead of offering up something that is well turned. Middle age is apt to put off until tomorrow, only to lose the opportunity forever. Older people ought never to get the idea that they have nothing more to offer, for they have the late-evening of life, rich with memories and experiences, to graciously bring to bear upon situations.

Great lives show us what lovely things can be made out of what is offered up to God. All such have refused to take life passively and let it shape them; they took life positively and made it "heroic and haunting."

As I listened to a talk by Paul Cason, who spoke of the sacrificial work he had been doing among migrant families in South Florida, I thought of the decision that was made by Albert Schweitzer to go to Africa. At the age of thirty he had become a recognized scholar and teacher of New Testament as well as the world's leading exponent of Bach on the organ. He was not satisfied. He wanted a task in which he could give direct service to humanity. One day he read an article on the needs of the Congo Mission. The conclusion of the article ran: "Men and women who can reply simply to the Mater's call, 'Lord, I am coming', these are the people whom the church needs!" Says Schweitzer, "My search was over."

May our response to the call of the good life in the service of Christ be as immediate and final as Schweitzers'. No matter our age the service we have to offer is important. Christ becomes powerful as he is lifted up in human personality. He will use us as a man uses his hand. And as we grow in grace and effectiveness, others will take knowledge that we have learned of Him how to live.

"Oh could I tell, ye surely would believe it!
Oh could I only say what I have seen!
How should I tell or how can ye receive it,
How, till He bringeth you where I have been?"

At public gatherings —

Walk, do not run, to the nearest exit. Call the fire department immediately. Keep calm.

Avon Park Christmas Seal Campaign Reaches 47% of Goal

The 1966 Christmas Seal Campaign in Avon Park has reached only 47 percent of its goal.

Through the fourth week of the campaign a total of $854.20 has been contributed. The goal is $1800. Area wide $31,124.62 has been contributed to date which is 59 percent of the $52,550 goal.

"To encourage our friends and neighbors to answer their Christmas Seal letter," Mack Flowers, Volunteer Fire Dept. Christmas Seal Chairman, said, "so as we can reach our goal before Christmas, we are setting aside Thursday and Friday, Dec. 15 and 16 as DO-IT-DAYS."

"If everyone will mail their Christmas Seal contribution on or before these dates," Flowers continued, "it will indeed be a Merry Christmas."

"And further," Flowers said, "if you have not received your Christmas Seals drop a postcard to Christmas Seals, Bartow, Fla. 33830, and they will be mailed immediately."

The Christmas Seal Campaign is conducted by the Mid-State Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association which includes the counties of Polk, Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto.

The highest price ever paid for a cow was $40,600, in 1873, for a Shorthorn, "8th Duchess of Geneva," at a New York Mills auction.

Christmas Trees: Care and Feeding

Christmas trees, like all Christmas items, should be purchased early. This, according to the University of Florida Extension Service.

Since trees are cut as early as October, this gives them more than enough time to dry out. So the shopper should chose a tree that has good needle retention, springy branches and healthy color.

At home give the tree a good shower to restore some moisture. Then make a diagonal cut above the present cut and set in water until ready to decorate. After the tree is set up for Christmas it should still be kept in water—either in a stand that holds water or in moist sand.

This will not only give you a prettier tree but might give you a merrier Christmas. Last year fires took 12,000 lives and caused $1.75 billion in property damage. Unfortunately many of these happened during the Christmas season.

Patricia Parrish, A. B. Alvarez Wed Sat., Dec. 3

Miss Patricia G. Parrish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winton Parrish of Avon Park, and Arthur Bobby Alvarez, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Alvarez of Starke, were united in marriage Saturday, Dec. 3 at 8 p.m. at the home of the groom's parents, with Rev. G. F. Prevatt performing the nuptials.

The wedding vows were repeated in the living room of the Alvarez home which was decorated with arrangements of mums and greenery.

Attending the couple were Robert Bowen as best man and Judy Parrish, the bride's sister, as maid of honor.

The bride was attired in a beige and brown suit complimented with a bronze mum cosuage. Her short veil was held in place with a beige bow in her hair.

The bride's mother wore a winter white dress with olive green trim with which she wore a white chrysanthemum corsage.

A reception at the Alvarez home followed the ceremony.

Centering the refreshment table was a bridal cake topped with a bride and groom.

The bride is a nursing student at the Duval Medical Center in Jacksonville and will graduate in February.

Alvarez is an inspector for the State Road Department.

The couple is residing on Alton Road.

Be Sure Sitter Knows What to Do In Case of Fire

If you expect to be out for an evening during the Christmas holiday season be sure to employ a baby sitter who is responsible and who knows what to do in case of fire, says the American Insurance Association.

She should be told that if fire occurs, she is to get the children out of the house immediately.

And she should be told that under no circumstances should anyone re-enter the burning building even though the fire appears to be a trivial one.

If she lives in a residential community of one-family houses, she should go to the closest neighbor's house, and ask the neighbor to call the fire department.

Red Devils Lose Bid For State Title To Monticello 28-12

The Red Devils football team lost out in its bid for the state Class B championship last Friday night in Monticello when the Jefferson County High Tigers came from behind in the second half to take a 28-12 win and the title.

A large following of Red Devil fans made the long trip to the North Florida town to watch the Avon Park club take a 12-0 halftime lead before falling before the strong Tiger team in the final period of play.

The Red Devils took the opening kick-off and moved for two first downs into Tiger territory before they were forced to punt from the Monticello 36-yard line. Money's punt went into the end zone and the Tigers took over on their own 20. Avon Park held the home team on four downs in spite of a five yard penalty against the Devils and the Monticello ace back, Tommy Richter's punt went out of bounds after traveling only eight yards giving Avon Park the ball on the Tiger 37-yard line.

The Devils were unable to take advantage of the break, however, taking a loss of one yard in the four downs after a 15 yard penalty had moved the Avon Park offense down to the Tiger 20. Monticello took over and from their own 21-yard stripe moved for four first downs in four plays. At the Avon Park 18-yard line the Devils held to stop the threat and took possession late in the first quarter.

After moving up to their own 40, the Devils punted and Money boomed one 42 yards to the Monticello 18. The Tigers started moving out but after a long gain by ace Tiger halfback John Rhymes, a fumble was recovered by Andrew Wells for the Devils. Again the Devils couldn't move the ball and Money punted out of bounds on the Tiger 6-yard line keeping them deep in their own territory. Three plays netted the Tigers only two yards and a 32-yard punt gave Avon Park the ball on the Monticello 38 and set up the first scoring situation for the Devils.

Dean Lemley pushed for three yards, Barben added one, and then Money hit Hoppy Rewis with a short pass over the middle for a seven yard gain and the first down. Money sneaked for seven more yards, Callaway and Barben added two yards, and Money sneaked for the first down at the 17. Barben inched to the 15 and then Callaway picked up six putting the ball on the nine. With third down and two needed, Money faked to a back and passed to Hoppy Rewis who was open in the end zone for the Devils first score. The try for the extra point was an end run that was stopped just short of the goal line.

With one minute and 50 seconds left in the fist half, Avon Park kicked off and Rhynes rambles 40 yards almost breaking loose for a score as he returned the ball to the Avon Park 48-yard line for Monticello. On the first Tiger play from scrimmage, a fumble occured and John Wright recovered for Avon Park.

The Devils drew a five yard penalty, gained ten yards in two runs by Callaway and Barben and then lost five when Money was smeared trying to pass. So with 11 seconds on the clock and ten yards needed for a first down, Money dropped back deep and lofted a screen pass to Barben who followed his wall of blocking through the Tiger defense and broke loose to go the 52 yards for the TD. Money sneaked through for the extra point but a pushing-the-ball-carrier penalty nullified the point and from the 17-yard line the Devils were not able to make the PAT. The score stood 12-0 as the two teams went to the dressing rooms at halftime.

The second half was a different story. Avon Park kicked deep but Richter brought it out to the 30. Then the Devils held for four downs forcing the Tigers to punt out. Barben took the punt in on the Avon Park 30-yard line but after a nine yard return and a slow whistle, a fumble was recovered by a Monticello lineman turning the tide of the game.

The Tigers scored in five plays including a 14 yard pass advance and a 17 yard run by Rhymes. The quarterback, Tommy Richter sneaked it over from one foot out for the TD and freshman Johnny Cone kicked the first of four extra points setting the score 12-7 early in the third period.

On the next series of plays Bobby Barben was injured and left the game for good. After the Devils were unable to move for a first down, Money booted a 40 yard punt to the Tiger 12 yard line. Dean Lemler intercepted a long pass to stop the next Monticello drive but again Avon Park was stopped cold offensively. When Money punted out a 36 yarder, Tiger T. B. Walker broke through for a 45 yard return almost going all the way with Joe Strickler bringing him down on the Devil 26-yard stripe.

Monticello, fired up and wearing down the Red Devils with substitutions, moved on to the Devil 8-yard line in three plays as the third quarter ended. On the first play of the fourth quarter, sophomore Scott Baker took the ball on a halfback reverse and went the eight yards around right end for the go-ahead TD.

With the score 14-12, Avon Park was put deep in their own territory when the Tiger kick-off went out of bounds on the Devil 15. After being touched by an Avon Park back. A fumble on a pass-lateral play was recovered by big end Bill Bassett on the Devil 18-yard line. Three plays later and Richter scooted around left end for Monticello's third touchdown from the six to ice down the game.

The Tiger's fourth score came on a 60 yard gain when they drove 60 yards. Richter went the last 20 yards for the TD around right end.

Avon Park's team just couldn't move through the big line around the two big ends and the smaller Red Devils met their match in the tough Monticello team. Coach Franza complimented his team on the fine play in the final game and said that the boys had nothing to be ashamed of in the defeat to the north Florida team.

The Red Devils finished with a 9-2 record as runners-up in the Class B state championship. Fifteen seniors played their last football game for Avon Park leaving a small squad of lettermen for next year's team.

Gary Griffin To Enter Steer In Fair

A change of pace? All of his life Gary Griffin has been accustomed to the food business. Now he is on the production side of the picture, and in business for himself.

Last spring Gary bought his steer from Dayton Aircraft Company in Sebring and started to build a champion show calf. Many hours of taming, feeding and care are put into a show calf project. Over a period of 180 days of care the calf is suppose to gain at least 400 pounds of new beef. He must do this without gaining an excessive amount of fat.

Gary's calf should produce approximately 410 pounds of beef, ready to cook, this means about 45 pounds of hamburger, and now we are back to where we started, in the food business.

APO's Have Covered Dish Dinner Dec. 12

A covered dish Christmas dinner was enjoyed Monday evening by the APO's and their guests at the beautifully decorated home of their senior leader, Mrs. Valrie Rhoads.

An invitation was extended to the military wives to have all their children attend the Christmas party to be given by the military personnel at the Avon Park Bombing Range on December 17. "Santa is to arrive by helicopter," Sargeant Bernardo says, "and since these youngsters will be without their fathers at this time, we men who are stationed here away from our own family would like to have the opportunity to provide Christmas for these children."

Mrs. Jo Ann Mansfield was appointed chairman to take charge of securing names and ages of all the children and to make contact with Sargent Bernardo.

It was announced that all members are to bring any children's clothes that could be sent to the Vietnamese children who are in need of everything, to the next meeting which will be held on Monday evening, Jan. 9 at 7 p.m. at the First National Bank's Board Room, Sebring.

A new member was added to the roster, Mrs. Bonnie DeBlander of Avon Park, whose husband David is now in Viet Nam.

Two lucky members, Barbara Woods and Linda Simmons, are leaving this area shortly as their husbands have completed their tour of duty in Viet Nam and will be located some place here in the United States.

A Christmas gift of a beautiful sterling silver charm bracelet with an engraved medallion "APO-1966-67" was presented to Mrs. Florence L. Peach, executive secretary of the Highlands County Chapter of the American Red Cross to show appreciation for all she has done for the organization.

One of the guest, Mrs. Rosemary Scruggs of Avon Park, mother of a member, presented a check to Mrs. Peach for purchasing a Polaroid Camera so that pictures can be taken of the families and sent to servicemen overseas. This was one project the Red Cross wanted to offer to this organization.

The next project they are striving for is a tape recorder so that messages can be taped for sending to servicemen all over the world.

First Baptist Church Choir To Sing Christmas Music Sunday

The 31 voice church choir of the First Baptist Church of Avon Park will give their annual music program Sunday, Dec. 18 at 7:45 p.m. The cantata is entitled "Night of Miracles" by John W. Peterson.

The cantata written by Mr. Peteson in 1958 has been one of his most popular work. He had this to say about the writing of this music:

MRS. DEVON REDDICK

"As I began work on the Christmas cantata, "Night of Miracles," the project presented a dual challenge. It was to be an original work and with a new and different theme. What then would that theme be? God's all-surpassing Love had been a perfect subject for "Love Transcending." What could I use this time to portray as miraculous truth of the Incarnation in an original way? "Miraculous!" Perhaps that was it. The night of our Saviour's birth was miraculous indeed for many reasons. I started to list them, using passages from Matthew and Luke, and soon the thread of an idea started to weave itself into the story of an unforgettable night . . . a night when centuries old prophecy came miraculously true, a night when shepherds were awe-strickened by a gloriously brilliant heavenly host that told of the birth of the Prince of Peace; a night when God sent His only begotten Son to be born of a virgin for the redemption of a world of sinners. This last fact was the most miraculous of all! Here, too, then was a story of Love, but not love as natural man knows it. This Love knows no bounds. It is limitless and always, and it was first manifested on that wonderful night so long ago . . . a Night of Miracles."

Soloists will be David Sechrist, Billy Martin, Virginia Henderson, Lou Baughan, Joe Strickler and Johnny Wright.

The program will be under the direction of Otis C. Strickler and he will be accompanied at the piano by Jerrold K. Perkins. Steve Maxwell will do the narrations.

The public is cordially invited to hear this inspiring music program.

Rev. Aden D. Childress is pastor of the church.

SFJC Community Chorus Presented Christmas Oratorio Monday, Dec. 12

About 200 people attended the Saint-Saens Christmas Oratorio, given by the South Florida Jr. College Community Chorus, in the Avon Park High School, Monday, Dec. 12.

This was the first time this Oratorio has been presented in this community. Mr. Buford Jasper, the Director, stated "It was the nicest Oratorio they have presented."

This Christmas Oratorio, which was composed in 1863, has become a favorite Christmas selection by musicians, because of its melodious solos, duets, trio, quartette, quintette and choruses.

Saint-Saens, whose major works include five symphonies, the opera Samson and Delilah and other orchestral and piano works, was born in Paris in 1835 and died in 1921.

His music is noted for its melody, elegance of style and colorful harmony.

The Community Chorus, meet every Monday night at 7 p.m. in the Choral room of the Avon Park High School.

Starting January 2 they will start their major work on "Faure Requiem."

Any new members wishing to join in the chorus, may meet with them at this time.

SS Questions And Answers

By Ed Perkowski
Social Security Representative

Question — I receive social security benefits for myself and my child. If I sell my home and get a down payment plus monthly payments, will this affect our social security checks?

Answer — No. In determining whether you meet the retirement test, only income earned in employment or self-employment is counted.

Question — What will my social security contribution rate be in 1967?

Answer—If you are an employee, you will pay 4.4 percent of your wages in 1967, and if you are self-employed, you will pay 6.4 percent. In 1966, your wages and self-employment earnings up to $6600 will count for social security.

Question—I had a heart attack in July 1964. I applied for social security disability benefits and was turned down. My disallowance notice said my illness could not be determined but indefinitely. Will the new law help me?

Answer—It may. The new law states that you can get benefits if you have an impairment severe enough to prevent you from doing any work, which has lasted or is expected to last 12 months.

Please send your questions to the Social Security Administration, P. O. Drawer E, Lakeland, Fla. 33802.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

When a boy or girl becomes a Scout, the name applied to this new venture is "tenderfoot."

Viewers of Western movies and readers of Western fiction know that the term tenderfoot is also applied to any newcomer to life on the range.

This term has been in our vernacular for well over a century. The whole thing began when Henry Clay introduced Hereford cattle to America from England in 1817.

Unlike the longhorns which were tough and could take rough treatment, the Herefords were delicate, and when marched to market would become lame. Walking over rough terrain wore their hoofs down and their feet became tender, hence the name "tenderfoot."

Teddy Roosevelt really put the word into our language when he wrote in "Hunting Trips": "Hunters . . . who bedizen themselves in all the traditional finery of the craft in the hope of getting a job at guiding some tenderfoot."

Antarctica is the world's roughest, highest, coldest and wildest continent—and is larger than all U.S. The icecap is from 1 to 5 miles deep, land and mountains are exposed in a few spots, and most exploration is done by airplane.

The star-spangled street where you live

You can't always see the stars and stripes on the homes and apartments in your neighborhood, but they're there just the same.

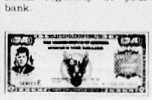

A big percentage of American families own U.S. Savings Bonds. Many of these star-spangled families have been buying Bonds since they were first issued 25 years ago.

Altogether, Uncle Sam has sold $150 billion in E and H Bonds. About $100 billion of these have been cashed in for college, retirement, new furniture, emergencies, and down payments for those homes.

Americans still own a nest egg of nearly $50 billion in Bonds for tomorrow's needs. And as the nest egg grows, Uncle Sam uses the dollars to help support our fighting men in Vietnam . . . and help keep our economy strong.

You can help make Uncle Sam's future, and your own, more secure by joining this star-spangled savings plan.

Why not start now? Sign up for Payroll Savings where you work, or buy Bonds regularly at your bank.

Two homey ideas about food, though harmless enough, run counter to sound nutrition. One is the emphatic conviction that a good hot meal is much more nourishing than a cold one. Nutritionists explain that the nutrients in the food, not the temperature at which it is served, determine how nourishing it may be. Another misconception is that hot biscuits and bread fresh from the oven are not as good for you nutritionally as those served cold. Whether food should be served hot or cold is strictly a matter of taste.

High Dunes

Crests of sand dunes stand 800 feet over the floor of southern Colorado's San Luis Valley. The dunes are the highest in the interior of the U. S.

Grass Sledding

Grass sledding is an unusual but popular sport in the Hawaiian Islands. For sliding down mountain slopes covered with thick slippery grass, the islanders use sleds made by tying together the long, slick leaves of the ti palm. These grass sleds are called holuas.

In the News

Popping up in the news with increasing regularity and sounding off on crucial matters of Republican policy is Michigan's Gov. George Romney, considered probably the most prime candidate for the GOP nomination for president in 1968. Headline catchers in past weeks have included the Goldwater-Romney letters of 1964, the Romney-Rockefeller "disagreement" on GOP governor consensus, and Romney's request that a GOP national committeeman not take a trip to gauge Romney support for the top office, because it might look like the Michigan governor had sent him.

FIX-IT TIP

That antique wooden rocker of yours may be attractive, but the creaks and groans it makes when someone sits down, or shifts their position, can be an annoyance. Try pouring hot paraffin into joints and corners of wooden furniture. When it hardens again it forms a lubricating silencer against squeaking.

Stray Dog Ordinance Adds $1.00 Reward

After January 1, Man's Best Friend had better be at home or the only friends he will find will be at the city dog pound.

Responding to what City Clerk Lucile A. Shockley called "terrific public pressure," city council added this week more teeth into Ordinance No. 466.

In effect, this latest amendment authorizes any citizen to pick up stray dogs within the city, turn them in to the police station, and collect a $1.00 reward.

Ordinance No. 466 — the Stray Dog Ordinance — was passed by council November 27 and published in full in the "SUN" December 1, 1966.

That ordinance states that any dog running at large within the city shall be picked up by police officers—or any other persons designated by the city—and the owner must surrender such dog to the agent of the city upon demand.

As amended, this "other persons" may now mean any citizen of Avon Park.

And if you have a dog running at large, your neighbor can demand that you confine the dog or the neighbor has the right to pick up the dog and carry it to the police station for impoundment.

As stated in the ordinance, it makes no difference whether strays are licensed or unlicensed.

The dogs will be impounded for five days. A notice, giving the dog's description will be posted at city hall. If a dog carries identification, all reasonable efforts will be made to contact the owner.

Any persons claiming these dogs must pay the $1.00 fee, plus 75 cents per day, and being licenses and inoculations up to date.

After five days any dog that has not been claimed, or has not found a suitable home, will be destroyed.

Citizens of Avon Park turning in dogs to the police station must indicate where they were picked up. Presumably, this will keep the city from being dog collector for Highlands County.

Highands Tax Collections Up

Highlands County sales tax collections were up 12.7 percent in November from $50,000 in 1965 to $56,000 in 1966.

This percent of increases puts Highlands County up among the leading counties showing increase.

Sales tax collections are in a good indicator of general business activity.

NOTICE

City Hall will be closed Friday at 1 p.m. and will open Tuesday at 8 a.m.

Wolfgang Halbig Signs Grant-In-Aid Scholarship With FSU

Wolfgang Halbig, winner of the Red Devil athlete-of-the-year award for 1964-65, signed a grant-in-aid football scholarship with Florida State University last Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Perez. Halbig is the son of Mrs. Gertrude Halbig of this city.

The 20 year old athlete was signed by Coach Al Conover, assistant offensive line coach for the Seminoles. Conover said that Halbig was a real fine athlete and FSU was very glad to get him. When asked where the Seminoles planned to use Wolfgang, Conover replied, "Well, Wolfgang is the kind of boy who can play most any position and we'll just have to see where he fits in best. He could be a running back or a defensive back."

The 200 pound, 6'1" German-born Halbig attended Avon Park schools from elementary school up and played football, basketball, and baseball for the Devils. He made All-Ridge Conference in football and was an All-State runner-up in baseball his senior year.

As a senior Wolfgang played guard and defensive linebacker and was switched to halfback after the first game of the season. In nine games Halbig scored 97 points and averaged 67 yards per carry. He won the best all around football player award that year for his efforts.

Last season Wolfgang attended Coffeyville Junior College in Kansas and played on both offense and defense for that school.

This trimester he has attended South Florida Junior College here in Avon Park and plans to transfer to Florida State for the next trimester in order to work out with the Seminoles in spring practice.

In a move to release congestion, "no left turn" signs were installed Thursday at the corners of Lake and Main in Avon Park.

Left turns are prohibited from both directions off Lake Avenue, and also from both directions off Main Street—on both sides of the Mall.

This action was taken by city council after councilmen had observed the conditions at the intersection and agreed that the signs were the best solution.

Avon Park Police Chief Claud Carroll said, "Its a good thing, and something that I have been trying to get for years."

Lee Waters, who leases a cab stand from the city at the Lake and Main intersection, agreed that the signs were a good improvement. Waters observed that during rush periods traffic would often be blocked from all four directions, due to people making left turns.

Al Yarborough, Eaton's department store, said, "I feel that the signs were simply unnecessary."

Yarborough, a former assistant traffic engineer from South Carolina, said he believed professional traffic people should have been consulted before the signs were installed.

The no-left signs are installed on a 30 day trial basis.

Second Car-Train Collision Reported In AP

Car-train collisions continued at the station crossing last Wednesday, Dec. 14, when James V. Bascom of South Highlands, Avon Park, hit a Seaboard local freight at 7:15 p.m.

Bascom was reported in good condition after being confined to Walker Memorial Hospital. His car was extensively damaged.

This followed an accident the day before when another Avon Park resident, Bill Singletary, had his car demolished in a collision with a Seaboard train when his brakes failed.

SFJC Building Program Begins

South Florida Junior College Advisory Committee has drawn up the first suggestions for phase one of the college's forthcoming construction program.

The committee has advised the Highlands County Board of Public Instruction that it would recommend that the initial construction, which will cost approximately $1.5 million, include a lecture hall, eight classrooms, music room, laboratories for chemistry, biology and physics courses, library, and some type of student union facilities.

The state Department of Education, which pays for the Junior College construction, has given its formal approval to the contract with Perkins and Will, architectural firm with offices in Chicago, New York and Washington, D. C.

Highlands County School Superintendent George Douglass said today Perkins and Will has already begun work on the campus master plan. In January representatives from the state's junior college division will meet the architects' representatives here to go over detailed planning.

Last week the state and county agreed to one of the initial recommendations of the architects, purchase of a two-acre pocket of land owned by H. N. Webster at the Southeastern edge of the junior college's site.

The 5,000-square-foot building now on the site, and adjacent to an existing road, will be used as a part of the permanent maintenance complex for the campus, Douglass said. The lakefront portion of the parcel will be used for a lakeside drive linking the road with other parts of the campus.

The $14,500 purchase price, advanced by the Highlands County School Board, will be refunded by the state over the next two years, Douglass said.

Delegation To Plan Agriculture Center

With official appointment of a 10-man committee, planning for the long-discussed Highlands County Agriculture Center may get down to business early in 1967.

County Commission Chairman Cecil Skipper said, at the county commission meeting on Tuesday, that four agricultural organizations had named official representatives to work with delegates from the county commission in mapping plans for the facility which may combine offices with exhibit areas for the county's agricultural products.

Skipper named Carl McIntyre and himself from the present commission and Earl Crutchfield from the incoming board to represent the county on the planning committee.

Other committeemen are Cole Danley, Jr., Ed Holcomb and L. C. Smith, Jr., of the Citrus Advisory Committee; C. Elton Crews, James G. Maxcy and Robert J. Barben, Highlands Soil Conservation District; L. L. Holmes, Joe Murphy and Ernest Kohler from Farm Bureau, and Marvin Kahn, Rick Dressel and B. J. Harris, Jr., the Cattlemen's Association.

Last Fall the county commissioners had requested farm organizations to nominate members for such a committee. At that time Skipper said one of the functions of an agricultural center would be to provide a single location for all the agricultural organizations, both governmental and private, to have their offices.

Most of the offices are in Sebring, but they are widely separated with no two groups located in a single neighborhood. Commissioner McIntyre had expressed hope that the center would provide exhibit areas, a "showcase for this county's products."

No meeting date has been announced for the committee.

Wary On License

Caution was the key to the county commission's handling to two matters dealing with liquor sales. The board had received the routine request from the State Beverage Department whether or not application for a beer sales license—from the Blue Apple in Lake Placid—complies with zoning requirements.

The old method of checking the printed form, since the county has no zoning requirements, does not appeal to the commissioners since the controversary over the Prescott liquor store near Fred Wild School in Sebring broke out.

Tuesday James Creel said, "I am not in favoring of approving any more of these requests. Just return the form with a letter that the county has no zoning requirements."

The board voted to check the form but submit it to the Beverage Department with a letter from the County Attorney stating that the county has no zoning laws "other than the state requirements" and by completion of the Beverage Department form the "county does not assume responsibility for checking to determine whether state requirements are fulfilled."

James McElroy asked the board to extend liquor sales time for New Year's Eve. McElroy, who operates Ray and Kelley's Tavern on Highway 27 South of Sebring, asked that closing be extended from midnight to 1 a.m. His request was rejected.

The board also took a cautious approach to extension of the Hensrcatch Road in southern Highlands County and decided to make an inspection of the proposed route before proceeding with purchases of fencing.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday, the commissioners set 9 a.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 28, for final inspection of the Creel Building in Lake Placid.

—Voted to hold a public hearing on proposed closing of Magnolia Street segment at Lake Pearl Drive in Lake Placid.

—Approved a Lake Placid request for $1496, from county recreation funds, for construction of shuffleboard courts.

—Authorized the Clerk to seek bids for time deposits—$250,000 for six months and $100,000 for 90 days.

—Received a letter from Rev. Joe Benson, minister of First Nazarene Church, expressing appreciation "for the work of our officials chosen to represent us."

Seims And Metcalfe Added To Chamber Of Commerce Board

Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, Thursday evening, elected six men to a three year term on the Board of Directors.

Two men are new members: Charles Metcalfe Sr., and Roy Seims.

Four are hold-overs, having served the past three years; R. J. Barben, C. V. Williams, W. R. Reck and T. J. Ward.

The Board is made up of 18 Directors. Each year six new Directors are elected to serve three years—and each year six men, who have served three years, retire.

In 1967 terms for the following Directors will expire; C. Elton Crews, David Lanier, James Heim, Donald Hassfurder, Robert E. Lee and Robert M. Gay.

Serving through 1968 are: Roy V. Kirby, President Jack DeLaney, Lou Hooper, Robert R. King, Ed Carter and George Border.

Officers will be elected at the first regular meeting to be held January 5, 1967. All members are requested to be present.

Xmas Seal Drive Nears Success

With receipts of $38,170 the area Christmas Seal Campaign is only $14,379 short of its goal, according to S. Chesterfield Smith, area chairman.

Area breakdown by counties is: Highlands $8,986, Polk $81,437, Hardee $1,475 and DeSoto $1,271.

"Contributions to Christmas Seals," said Smith, "are the only financial support received by the Mid-State Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association in fighting TB and the other respiratory diseases such as emphysema, bronchitis and asthma."

The Association urges that anyone who has not answered their Christmas Seal appeal letter would do so before Christmas.

Highlands Tax $2,235,477 In '66

Collection of 1966 county taxes has been underway for almost two months, and this week it was officially determined that the Highlands County 1966 tax roll is $2,235,-477, and the net collections of $1,573,341, comprise 73.49 percent of the roll.

Tax Assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin announced Tuesday that the assessed valuation of all non-exempt properties is now $197,613,152 — almost triple the valuation in 1965 when non-exempt properties were assessed at $50,709,398.

Bringing all properties to 100 percent of market value, as required by a Florida Supreme Court interpretation of state tax laws, pushed the valuations by $146,903,754. But the law also requires a rollback in the rate so the total tax roll is only $168,729 more than the 1965 roll.

The county's basic tax rate was dropped from 40.35 mills to 11.09.

The county school system is receiving 53.38 percent or $1,193,191 of the county's taxes for 1966. The county commissioners receives almost 40 percent or $889,481.

The hospital tax district, provides funds for Highlands General Hospital, receives 5.2 percent or $116,201, and the Central and Southern Flood Control District's 1.32 percent will yield $29,344.

A special road district in Avon Lakes collects .93 percent of the county's taxes or $6,868. The Avon Lakes and flood control levies do not apply county-wide but in limited areas.

Tax Collector W. H. Prescott said it appears many more individuals are paying taxes this year. By mid-December, 1965, approximately 75 percent of the taxes had been paid, and this year while the percentage is lower the number of receipts validated has already reached 27,058 or 1,301 more than a year ago.

First Reappraisal

The reappraisal program just now completed is the first in the county's history and has required more than a year of work by the Tax Assessor's staff and Howze and Associates, Inc., profes-

Signal Improvements Needed

Two accidents in as many days indicate that improvements need to be made in the signal system where the Seaboard and ACL lines cross Main Street at the Station.

Fortunately, neither accident was serious, but both drivers made trips to the hospital and their cars were torn up.

At this rate, any gambler worth his dice would bet that something serious will happen.

Station Master Ray Clark believes that the problem is compounded because there are actually two separate tracks in the area. Also, there is a fairly sharp grade on the street approach from the west that requires constant braking. And trains coming from the south swing around the curve into the crossing abruptly.

These things, plus our tradition of racing trains to a crossing, make for a bad situation. This is the mainline of the Seaboard/ACL, and Highway 27 is the main artery down the center of the state.

Ours is not a back-woods crossing.

The SUN believes that the city should ask the railroads for the feasibility of installing signals with swing-down barriers at the west track.

Heavy Holiday Toll Feared On State Highways

Col. H. N. Kirkman, Director of the Department of Public Safety predicted today that motorists on Florida's highways during the Christmas holidays will kill themselves at the rate of one every three hours.

Basing his prediction on a three year average killed during the Christmas holidays, Col. Kirkman said that 28 persons will lose their lives in the expected heavy traffic of the long 78-hour Yuletide period. A total of 50 have died in highway wrecks during the Christmas holidays from 1963 through 1965.

The 1966 holiday weekend begins at 6 p.m. Friday, December 23 and ends midnight Monday, December 26.

Kirkman listed four major seasonal killers of many holiday motorists as: unusually heavy traffic, drinking, fatigue and inattention while driving.

"Keep these potential killers in mind as you drive during the holidays," appealed Col. Kirkman, "as nothing can spoil the holidays spirit of love and good cheer as fast and completely as an accidental death of a loved one."

sional appraisers with offices in Tampa. Detailed appraisals were made on approximately 40 thousand parcels of real estate and personal property items.

Tax Assessor Martin said his staff members have reviewed "hundreds of assessments with individual property owners who felt their property was over-assessed." Special times for interviews were provided prior to the board of equalization hearings in mid-September.

Many taxpayers did not register complaints, however, until tax bills went out at the first of November. Adjustments have contributed to the delay in arriving at a final figure for the total tax roll.

Martin said today, "We expect to continue our review of all properties as the need arises, and I will continue to make any adjustments necessary to arrive at fair and equitable values as directed by law."

He said that personal interviews have, he feels, helped the taxpayers to understand the valuations. "The taxpayer feels much better satisfied after going over the details of his property assessment; or, at least, he is convinced his valuation is equitable with other properties of like value."

"The largest increase in taxes have been experienced by landowners, including owners of residential lots. This is due primarily to the low level of previous values and inflation of prices on lots and lands during recent years. The valuation of lakefront and highway properties took the largest jump, as recent sales show the market value to be higher on this type property," Martin said.

He chose as an example of tax bill change a home valued at $11,000. "In previous years," he said, "it would have been assessed at $5,000 and, with homestead exemption, the tax last year was little or nothing."

"Now, the same home is possibly valued at $11,000, homestead exemption is still $5,000, but the balance of $6,000 is fully taxable. There-

"It is generally agreed among all authorities on property taxation that ad valorem taxes are now reaching unbearable proportions. There is much talk about other forms of taxation, but no one seems to have any workable solution to the problem at present. We hope the remedy will be forthcoming in the near future," the Tax Assessor said.

Some Taxes Reduced

The revaluation program has been a boon to some of the large taxpayers of the county. Properties which had been placed on the rolls near their market value experienced little change in assessment and thus benefitted from the mill age rollback.

Florida Power Corp., with heavy personal property assessments in previous years, received a tax bill $50,000 under its 1965 bill.

CHIEF CARROLL

Chief Urges Off-Street Parking

In an interview Tuesday, Avon Park Police Chief Carroll urged all downtown merchants and employees to park off of Main Street and downtown intersections.

"Downtown merchants keep asking for more parking spaces," said Carroll, "yet they and their own employees are often the people parked in front of the store—or their neighbor's store."

Carroll said that during this shopping period, and with winter season in full swing, it seemed like good business to leave Main Street open for customers.

Signs limiting parking to two hours are on order and should be installed in a few weeks.

Chief Carroll notes to winter visitors that the parking meters are not in operation.

Citrus Prices Stabilized, Big Loss Averted

Secretary Orville L. Freeman announced Friday that the U. S. agriculture department will make substantial purchases of frozen concentrate in a move to help stabilize citrus prices.

This, combined with a marketing agreement reached in Lakeland Monday, should avert an anticipated loss of 35 cents a box on the anticipated 142 million box crop—approximately $50 million.

The juice bought by USDA will be used in the school lunch program.

The marketing agreement reached in Lakeland means that the concentrate processors will hold up marketing their pack until later in the year.

Concentrate has been the main target, according to Robert W. Rutledge, executive vice president of Citrus Mutual, because six out of every ten oranges goes into concentrate and because concentrate can be held in storage for long periods.

Freeman's announcement said that purchases would begin late in January on an offer and acceptance basis.

"The amount to be bought will depend," he said, "upon quantities and prices offered and supply and demand conditions as the season progresses."

This year's estimate of 142 million boxes is compared with 101 million boxes picked last year. Prices are down from last year's $1.25 to from 25 to 50 cents now.

"We are aware," Freeman said, "of the serious situation facing all of the citrus industry. Production in Florida alone has increased about 42 percent in one season."

"Therefore, it is our dual intention in making these purchases to assist the industry to stabilize the citrus economy as a means of preventing severe economic loss to growers—and to provide children with a healthful and nutritious product."

Rutledge points out that the agreement is for this year's crop only; that prices are not being set by government, that there is no federal subsidy involved, and that both or either of these plans leave the industry free to continue to run its own business.

The party was given in honor of the team to show appreciation for their clean sportsmanship and they were proud of them all the way through.

Republicans Urged To 'Come Across'

Republican state chairman Wm. F. Murfin of Hobe Sound is plugging for a statewide reorganization to get more people registered as Republicans.

To quote Murfin, "Come Across is designed to encourage Republican-thinking Democrats to "come across" and register as Republicans."

Also announced was the appointment of two full-time aids to the committee. Harold Strayman of Miami as public relations director, and Charles Nergard as office manager for the Tallahassee office.

Correction

As reported in last week's SUN, Bill Singletary, Avon Park, was involved in a certain collision. Singletary states that he was driving east on Main Street and that the train was moving at the time.

New Addition Under Construction At Highland Lakes Jr. Academy

Highland Lakes Junior Academy is watching the growth of its new baby, an auditorium-gymnasium.

The first block was laid by Cliff Myers and Don Halverson on December 4. By the end of February the outer shell of the building should be completed.

The building has been needed for a long time to supplement the educational program of the school.

The facility will give room for a clear 100 x 60 foot of area for gymnastics and will also serve as an auditorium, to seat about 800 people.

The north end of the building will have a home economics room, which will also be used for social functions of the Seventh-day Adventist Church which sponsors the school.

Bathroom area will include adequate space for showers and lockers. The remaining space will be used as an "all purpose" room - spare class room, committee room, hot lunchroom etc.

The south end of the building will be a stage large enough to house a full size band or choir.

The building is by Dixi Steel of Atlanta, Ga., constructed on foundations laid by local men. The lower eight feet of wall will be with 12 feet of steel siding above, making a 20 foot building rising to 24 feet in the center.

Dr. Walter Ost, chairman of the building committee, together with Cliff Myers, Keith Sauter and Paul Bonney, have put much thought into the construction and design of the building and feel that it will greatly benefit the school, the youth and the society.

Red Devil '5' Winless In First Three Games

Losses to Hardee High and DeSoto High last week left the late starting Avon Park varsity cagers winless in the three pre-holiday games, but the "B" squad took a 62-40 win from DeSoto to set a 1-2 mark before going into the new year's schedule.

Last Friday night the Red Devils bowed to Hardee High of Wauchula here at the high school gym by a score of 45-38 and on Saturday night the DeSoto High Bulldogs defeated the Devils in Arcadia 51-35.

Wauchula jumped of to a 17-11 first quarter lead and the Devils were never able to catch up. At halftime Hardee led 27-21 and Avon Park closed the margin to 36-31 at the end of the third quarter but the Wildcats held on to the lead and took the game 45-38.

Neither team could hit from the outside effectively and the man-to-man guarding of the Wauchula boys kept the Devils from hitting consistently from any spot on the court. Hardee hit 55 percent of its free shots while the Devils were cold at the foul line also and hit only 37 percent of their gift shots.

Ralph Starratt led the winners with 13 points and Wildcats Jim Zalicek and Burt Howard both hit for 12.

Joe Strickler was the leading Devil scorer with 10 counters.

The Hardee-Avon Park "B" game was a real thriller with the baby Wildcats finishing hot with 15 points in the final quarter to take a 40-36 victory after the junior varsity Devils led 20-17 at halftime and 29-25 at the end of the third quarter.

Charles Magenheimer had 13 and Donald Strange had 11 for Avon Park, but Wildcat Jim Bellflower led the game scoring with 20 points.

James Gilchrist led the DeSoto Bulldogs to their fifth win on Saturday night 51-35 over the Devils in Arcadia. Gilchrist scored 16 points as Arcadia hiked its record to 5-1 and left Avon Park 0-3 for the young season.

Dean Lemley led Avon Park with 10 points along with Bill Knapp who also hit for 10. The Devils played without center Emmitt Money who was out because of illness.

After the holidays Avon Park will host Frostproof January 3 and have an open date January 6.

Avon Park's "B" team took the 62-40 win from the Bulldog jayvee squad on the strength of Donald Strange's 16 points and Charles Magenheimer's 10 counters. The Devil "Bees" never trailed as they racked up their first win of the season.

Medical Group Christmas Party Held Dec. 18 at Walker Memorial

Dr. A. H. Foster and Dr. Donald Hartwell were hosts to the Avon Park professional men and their wives, who are members of the Seventh-day Adventist Conference of Florida, alumni of Loma Linda University, Calif.

Dr. Foster is president and Dr. Hartwell is secretary-treasurer of the group.

This is the first annual Christmas party to be given in this area. It has been held in different areas as membership covers the state of Florida.

The U shaped tables were beautifully laid with green clothes, red napkins. Lining the tables were crystal candelabra, red candles, surrounded with red hibiscus. The dinner was served at 6:30 after a social hour in the lobby of the hospital.

Mrs. Jerome Schiltz played background Christmas selections on the organ during the meal. After dinner she favored the 40 guests with selections on her musical bells and crystal goblets that were filled and tuned.

Albert Cushing, a winter visitor in Avon Park, favored the guests with violin selections. Mrs. Walper and Mrs. Foster sang solos and was later joined by Mrs. Marjorie Cook and as a trio led the guests in group singing.

Officers for 1967 were elected after the dinner. Dr. Harry C. Nelson of Miami, president, and Dr. Albert McCorkle of Miami, secretary-treasurer.

Men In Vietnam Tape Christmas Words Home

Christmas Day this year will be a happy one for members of the American Legion Auxiliary throughout this nation. As they enjoy their dinner they will have the pleasure of knowing that in each of the 15 hospitals in Vietnam our servicemen will be recording messages to their families back home.

This has been made possible though the gift of stere tape recorders sent to these hospitals by the national organization of the American Legion Auxiliary, explained Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, the National Security Chairman of the Highlands Unit 69.

Early in this administrative year the National President, Mrs. A. J. Ryan Sr., Dania, Fla., was in touch with Gen. Westmoreland as to what the Auxiliary could do for the fighting men in Vietnam and she was assured by the general that these recorders would be enthusiastically received by these patients.

Mrs. Lamb explained that the individual Units and Post would be purchasing the recording tape for these hospitals as their individual contributions.

South Florida Jr. College Continues Good Season Against Tech. 79-62

The young Panther basketball club hit the .500 mark against Florida Institute of Technology at Waterhouse Saturday, 79 to 62.

The Panthers had five players hitting double figures, were Gause 16, Gaw 14, Whitehead 13, Butler 12, Thweatt 9, Kitchens 11 and Cooper 4.

Monday night the team moved into Cocoa for the Brevard Invitational.

There, with Gaw directing the attack, Gause hitting for 20, Whitehead, Thweatt and Butler manhandling from the outside, the Panthers trounced Edison of Ft. Myers, 86 to 69.

This moved SFJC into the finals and avenged an earlier loss to Edison.

In the championship, the Panthers took second place in their host to Brevard, the top team in the 22 team circuit, 111 to 77.

Skip Gause continues to stay among the league leaders as he stood eighth in individual scoring as of last week's statistics.

Garden Club Has Christmas Tea Thursday, Dec. 15

The Christmas tea was held at the home of Mrs. L. D. McGiboney, Lake Lotela, Thursday, Dec. 15. It was sponsored by the Avon Park Garden Clubs, the Poinsettia and Hibiscus Circles.

Greeting the guests was Santa with gifts, and with his Elf helpers carrying candy canes. The driveway was arranged with potted poinsettias. Arriving at the home, three life-sized girl carolers in gay dresses flanked one side of the home.

Poor exhausted Santa met with an accident as his ladder fell, leaving him suspended on the ladder, spilling his gifts on the ground.

The hallway was decorated with white sprayed clusters of LowQuat leaves. A niche was arranged with the Virgin Mary surrounded with white mums against a blue background. The living room was decorated with roses and blue Hydrangea. The mantel was banked with evergreen and blue bulls surrounding the manger scene and five-step candelabras with blue candles.

The stairway was entwined with evergreen and blue Christmas balls, with a girl caroler on each step. In the Florida room was the white Christmas tree decorated all in red.

The tea table spread with a gold lame cloth and overlaid with green net. It was centered with an arrangement of Holly and red Camellia, surrounded by a golden rope.

Sandwiches, cookies, nuts and mints were served with the tea. A silver tea service was at each end of the table. Mrs. A. C. Wester, Founder and Mrs. Hubert Bussard, president of the Hibiscus Circle, poured from 3-4 o'clock. Mrs. C. W. Pabor and Mrs. Richard Reaves from 4-5 and Mrs. W. C. Touchton and Mrs. Alice Sherman from 5-6.

I hope you have a Merry Christmas. I hope you have plenty of toys for all boys and girls. I would like some that housekeepers use to clean the house. Of course that is a tea-set and ironing board and washing machine and clothes line. I want a doll that can blow bubbles and wet and drink. You know what kind of doll I want, I would like some books, the name of the books are the Nancy Drew series. You know the books I would like. That is all I want and I hope you will not give me more toys than I should have. Be sure to give the other boys and girls their share. Have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Good-by Santa until next year.

THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS

"And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." St. Luke 2:10-11.

The cynic might be tempted to say that there is another voice in the heavens, the roar of the ultimate weapon of destruction. He might go on to point out that the real world is rough, hard and brutal. No doubt he would call attention to the colossal power struggle that is going on today for interntaional supremacy. He would add that the word from heaven in St. Luke is beautiful but a little unreal. The idea being that in a world such as ours the birth story doesn't seem to quite fit.

How shall we answer the cynic? We suppose that we would have to admit man's inhumanity to man. It was so in the world into which Jesus was born. Here is the prayer of one aware of man's callousness: "Oh, gentle Son of God, do not come inso such a world. It will destroy you. This is no place for sacrificial love. This is no place for someone who cares nothing for money, prestige and power. This kind of world will break you, will destroy you!"

He came just the same! He came because he belongs. He belongs to everything in the heart of man that is still capable of contrition and mercy. He came to be the Saviour of men. He came because of God's love for man. "God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish but have everlasting life." St. John 3:16.

We know the story of his birth. How his father and mother, heavy with child, were shut out of the inn. As if men sought to thwart the will of God. He was born just the same in the stable. He grew up in Galilee in the home of the village carpenter. After his baptism by John, he went forth to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God. The leaders of Judaism, the formalized religion of his people, opposed him. And finally sought to shut him out of their world with finality through crucifixion. However, God's will would not be thwarted. God raised Jesus from the dead and he became the Eternal Saviour of mankind. Man recognizes the tremendous importance of Christ's coming and dates history by it. And yet, in spite of divine revelation, we are caught between Christianity and secularism in our celebration of Christmas.

In the real meaning of Christmas lost through commercialization and the glorification of Santa Claus? We might get our answer from the lips of children. A teacher in a New York City public school asked her pupils to mention things that pertain to Christmas. "Santa Claus" said one. The teacher wrote that on the blackboard. "Reindeers" — "Christmas trees" — "presents" the children said. Finally one little girl said: "The birthday of Jesus." "Oh, no," the teacher replied, "that's not what we mean." Perhaps, she thought, the recognition of Christmas as the birthday of Jesus would be an infringment of civil rights.

There is a modern parable that will help us to see the dilemma we are up against in our celebration of Christmas. Mr. Average man has been busy wrapping Christmas presents. The last package is wrapped and a card properly attached. He straightens up from his task and says to himself:

"There now, have I forgotten anyone?"

He is startled by a voice that breaks in upon the silence with the question:

"Hast thou forgotten me?"

"Who art thou?" he replies.

"I am he who was born in Bethlehem's manger. The folks at Bethlehem remembered their friends, paid their temple tax, gave freely to the synagogue, and prayed night and day, yet I was born in a manger. Yea, and every Christmas I am born in a manger. I hear the peal of Christmas bells, and the carols. I hear the music and the rejoicing of those who receive gifts, but I, I am forgotten."

"Say no more, Lord, say no more! Already I am rebuked. Well might I have forgotten all others, if only I had remembered thee. Forgive me, Dear Jesus, Forgive me and may I henceforth thoughtful be of thee who didst give thyself for me."

In Christ is God's picture for man. This is what man is meant to be. This is the reason for God's coming into man's world. St. Paul recognized this great truth, when he wrote to the Galatians: "I am in travail until Christ be formed in you. 4:19.

"If Christ a thousand times
In Bethlehem be born;
Until he's born in me
My soul is all forlorn."

What is Christmas? Perhaps we might best answer that question with a story. A beggar sat almost daily across from an artist's studio. The artist was attracted to the man and painted his picture and then asked him in to see it.

"Who is it?" the beggar asked. As he continued to look at the picture recognition began to dawn. "Is it me? Can it be me?"

"Well, that's the man I see in you," the artist said.

"If that's the man you see, that's the man I'll be." The beggar replied.

God is the artist. Man is the beggar. Now let us say that Christ is God's portrait of what God meant man to be.

To observe Christmas then is to see God's portrait of man in Christ and then to say: "If that's the man you see in me, Oh God, that's the man I'll strive to be."

Southland Trailer Court

We are happy to welcome the Sieman Kolks back for another winter, and thankful that Mrs. Kolk recovered from her illness so that they were able to make the trip. Their daughter drove them down from their Goshen, N. Y., home.

The Wertzbars were guests of the Walker Memorial Hospital at their annual Christmas party Tuesday evening, held for the Pink Ladies, Candy Stripers, doctors, nurses and aids, and all hospital personel. A beautiful Christmas program followed the serving of refreshments, and to close a wonderful evening Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus passed out gifts for children and adults.

Christmas Carols were the singing program Sunday evening at the Park Recreation Hall, with over 20 folks taking part. Ed Comfort also entertained with Christmas music on his Zither, and Golda Daun told a Christmas story "The Night the Stars Sang," about eight-year-old David whose teacher would not let him sing in the school Christmas program because he could not carry a tune.

Stewart Dilt's visitors last week were Mrs. Hattie Dilts, her daughter and husband, the Richard Ransbottoms of Roseville, Ohio, and the Will Ransbottoms.

The Harvey McClarys are expecting their daughter, Mrs. Towers and husband and granddaughter Karen, from Chicago for the holidays. The Towers are looking forward to "Sun and Fun" in Florida and hope to make the acquaintance of many at Southland.

Monday Christmas shoppers in Lakeland were Mrs. J. A. Peterson, Mrs. S. A. Shufelt, and Cap and Caroline Morrison.

Mrs. Marie Stroobant flys to Des Moines, Iowa, Thursday to spend the holidays with her sister, planning to return after New Years.

Mrs. Myrtle Pelletier, a former resident at Southland, was a recent visitor of the Ed Comforts, enroute to a California winter.

Mrs. Evelyn Fritz will be visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ed Wegerof and family, at Merrit Island through the holidays.

Last week's shuffle matches were well attended with 16 players active. Betty Peterson and Harold Arms were the finals team winners. We urge more of our players to take part.

Walter and Gladys Porter from Valparaiso, Ind., have been guests of the Sergers for the past week, and with the Ora Myers, enjoyed a picnic dinner at Highlands Hammock State Park.

The Morrisons were guests of Edward Gould and his mother, Mrs. Maude Gould, for lunch at the Highlander in Lake Wales, taking a brief tour of the area afterwards, including a visit to Spook Hill. Also made a conducted tour of the Donald Duck citrus processing plant. Cap says, "Don't miss this tour - it is really fascinating."

Stanley Shilling from Lebon, Ohio, now staying at Orangeville Estates, called on the Walter Meissels last week, along with others from Sarasota.

According to reports "500" was enjoyed by all Monday evening, with high scores registered by Russell Lumpkin for the men, and Myrtle Hoffeman for the ladies. The hosts, Luella Pinney and Loren Ames.

Mrs. Ellen Slayton, a former resident, now living at Bonnie Brae, called on Mary Strickland last Monday.

The Byron Jeremys drove to Miami last weekend to visit a Shrine Noble, Byron had drilled with for 15 years in the Shrine Patrol.

Holiday decorations at Southland were never more beautiful than this years, thanks to the McClarys and everyone who helped put them up.

Sunday visitors of the Waltons were Mr. and Mrs. L. Glover of Sun Ray. Also the Pestles stopped overnight on their way home from the east coast.

Many former residents and and friends of Southland have been generous with their Christmas greetings, reporting in most cases to be well and happy - namely: Will and Ida Drake, Corwin and Grace Coate, Lloyd and Nancy Dowell, John and Willa Breyer, Russell and Gwen Erickson, Fred and Hattie Hill, Earl and Carrie Murphy, Nola Powell, Bill and Cathy Prehn, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Saines.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Florida Power Employees Hold Christmas Dinner Party Dec. 17

Approximately 125 Florida Power employees and their wives held their annual Christmas dinner, Saturday, Dec. 17 at the Club House.

The tables were decorated in keeping with the Holiday theme of holly and berries, red candles in crystal holders. A Christmas tree, at one end of the club house was surrounded by gifts which were distributed after the dinner.

The basic part of the dinner, turkey, ham, dressing and gravy was prepared by Mr. B. D. Brown, who has charge of the APCI kitchen, with the approval of Mr. Hassfurder, was delivered hot and cut, ready for serving. The balance of the dinner was a carry in and served buffet style.

To Mr. Brown, goes a hearty thanks from the employees for preparing such delicious food. Mr. Brown stated "he has prepared food for many occasions, never knowing whether it met with approval." The employees want him to know that it was delicious and his efforts were appreciated

SATURDAY EVENING POT-LUCK

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Spring and Mr. and Mrs. Carl McWithey were the hosts for the regular Saturday evening supper at the club house. The room is very nicely decorated for Christmas with the usual tree, candy canes and bells on the awning on the stage. The mantle looks well with the cones, and Brazillian peppers centered with a church. Emery Mitchem returned thanks for the plentiful food.

Several Christmas stories were read by Mrs. Springs, Mrs. McWithey and Mrs. Dorothy Baxter.

New York was well represented with 33 out of the 66 there.

George's Coppertop sign at the entrance to his Steak House.

Nick Christy welcomes all travelers as they are at his Sun Down Restaurant.

On St. Nicholas Eve, Dutch children fill their wood shoes with straw for Old St. Nick's white horse, hoping to have them filled in turn with candy and toys. In Italy, children set out their shoes for the female Santa Claus, La Befana, to fill with gifts. Central American children enjoy the pinata game: an earthen ware jug is filled with candy and a child is allowed 3 tries to break the pinata with a bat — when he does, the candies are shared by all.

Candles have long been a part of Christmas. In medieval days, Yule candles, like Yule logs, were of tremendous size. Holes were chiseled in the stone floors to act as holders, and Christmas dinner lasted as long as the candles burned.

Queen Elizabeth I "pulled rank" at Christmas effectively: her courtiers were expected to replenish her wardrobe. In fact, ladies of the Court presented her with the first silk stockings worn in Europe.

QUO VADIS

Christmas is almost here and the pace is getting more and more hectic, but in this haste do not forget the true meaning of Christmas and take time out to celebrate the birth of the Saviour.

Christmas dinner will be served at the TOWER VIEW RESTAURANT in Lake Placid and at Nick Christy's SUNDOWN RESTAURANT in Winter Haven amid the beautiful Christmas decorations for travelers, natives and visitors. Relax and enjoy Christmas here.

The HIGHLANDER RESTAURANT and George's COPPERTOP STEAK HOUSE and the Blue Room at the SEBRING ELKS CLUB will be closed on Christmas but will open again on Monday at the regular hours for your dining pleasure.

On the entertainment agenda for the holidays, we have some excellent shows scheduled at the local cinemas. For all ages the comic favorite "Fred Flintsone in "The Man Called Flintstone" playing tonight thru Saturday at the HILANS THEATRE in Avon Park. Starting Sunday will be the terrific film "Return of the Seven" with Yul Brynner—one of the things you must put on the must list.

At the SEVON DRIVE-IN THEATRE, a triple feature is being played tonight thru Saturday - Sunday, will star Jerry Lewis in "Way ... Way Out- please note not a children's comedy. Tuesday and Wednesday, we have the teenager's favorite Nancy Sinatra in "The Last of the Secret Agents?" with Rock Hudson in the co-feature "Seconds." Good variety of programs, you will agree.

Dancing and entertainment can be enjoyed this holiday season at George's Coppertop with Johnny Kragon playing for your pleasure, the Hulls - direct from Las Vegas—have made a return engagement at Nick Christy's CHASE LOUNGE—real good show that Jean and Jerry put on; last but not least is Frank Wesser's EL CID LOUNGE entertainment featuring the Go Go Girls.

If you haven't been able to find something for the real hard to please and are in a quandary, why not get a certificate for bowling or some of those much desired bowling accessories—this type of gift can please now and also be enjoyed for some time to come. Bowling is such fun at the new GRAND PRIX LANES on U. S. 27, halfway between Avon Park and Sebring.

Another really delightful gift to be enjoyed is a gift certificate from MARRS AIRCRAFT in Avon Park for flying lessons. This will please and please and also be of excellent use for which you will get many thanks late. If you are in a hurry to get somewhere, call Shelley Marrs and make arrangements to fly there—avoid the traffic and be there post haste without the nervous frustration.

Wrestling is coming back to Avon Park next week, there are many, many fans waiting from all over in Highlands County and the fringe area for the season to start again. Right Lake Placid?

Chef Mike Morsillo at the Elks Club asked me to make a note that their Blue Room would also be closed on New Year's Day. Chef Carl at the TOWER VIEW RESTAURANT will be open for breakfast, lunch and dinner as usual during this hectic holiday schedule, drop in and enjoy his tasty food real soon.

A MERRY, MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU ALL AND MAY SANTA BRING YOU ALL, WHAT YOU ARE WISHING FOR.

We Will Open Christmas Day at 3 p.m.

STORY OF THE STOCKINGS

"The stockings were hung by the chimney with care, in hopes that St. Nicholas soon would be there . . ."

It's not known how this tradition got its start, but there is a lovely legend about the custom's beginning.

It seems that in the town where the "first" Saint Nicholas lived, there was a merchant who had three daughters who were not married. In those days, the 4th century, a maiden had to have a dowry before she could marry. And the merchant was bankrupt.

Nicholas, who was then a boy, heard of their plight. He went to the house late one night and dropped three bags of gold down the chimney. They fell into the girls' stockings which were hanging by the fireplace to dry.

The gold was enough for the girls' dowry so they were married and lived happily ever after taking care of their poor father as well.

How the Legend of the Christmas Bells Began

A delightful legend surrounds the custom of bell-ringing at Christmas. Many years ago, so the story goes, the little town of Locer, Holland, boasted two fine bells that gave forth clear, lovely tones. But one night they mysteriously disappeared. In vain the townspeople searched for them; then, on Christmas Eve, at the stroke of midnight, the familiar bell tones rang out. No one knew where the sound came from but each successive Christmas Eve the bells rang out over the little town and their fame spread far and wide.

Watershed Meet Set For Jan. 6

Plans for a new watershed project will be discussed in two meetings scheduled for Friday, Jan. 6. Landowners in the West Chain of Lakes area will meet in the courthouse annex assembly room at 10 a.m. to study proposals for the project which would include a group of lakes running from central to southern Highlands County.

At 1 p.m. on January 6 the landowners will report to the Highlands Soil Conservation District board and the county commissioners. These two bodies have served as sponsors of the county's other watershed projects.

Bulk of the financing comes from federal grants, and from planning stage to construction has usually taken two or more years.

Registration Dates Set For School Bond

Registration of freeholders for the special school bond election February 28 will begin on Tuesday, Jan. 3, and will continue through Saturday, Feb. 4.

Supervisor of Registration Roland X. Droit announced today a schedule which provides registration opportunities in seven different communities and some night hours.

To participate in the referendum on the $3.15 million school construction bond issue, a citizen must be at least 21 years of age, resident of Florida for one year, and of Highlands County for six months, and must own real estate within Highlands County.

Supervisor Droit pointed out that special registration is for the single election and will be void immediately after the bond vote is taken.

At present more than 8,000 freeholders are registered. Recent elections have produced approximately a 50 percent turnout, and in bond elections at least 50 percent plus one of the registered voters must go to the polls.

"Holding an election is expensive, and we feel we cannot afford to have the election declared invalid because we did not have enough freeholders at the polls," Superintendent of Schools George F. Douglass said.

Avon Park

In Avon Park the registration books will be open at the city hall each Wednesday and Saturday, January 4 through February 3, beginning the hours of 1 and 5 p.m. On Saturday, Feb. 4, the hours will be 9 a.m. to noon; 2 to 5 p.m.

Lake Placid

The county's new branch office building in Lake Placid, the Creel Building, will be used for registration on six different days. The hours on Thursday and Friday, Jan. 12 and 13, will be 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; 2 to 5 p.m. The same hours will prevail for January 26 and 27. Longer hours will be available on Saturdays—January 14 and 28, when the office will be open 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., 2 to 5 p.m., 6 to 9 p.m.

New Bids Called In Highlands Jail Remodeling Project

County Commission today rejected all bids for a proposed remodeling and expansion project for the Highlands County jail.

According to project architects Rogers, Lovelock and Fritz of Winter Park, the lack of local bidders was one reason for the high bids.

So bids are again being called for and they will be opened January 1, 1967.

The commissioners viewed the three bids for the jail additions and alterations with dismay. The project had been tentatively budgeted for $85,000 to $100,000 from the race track bond issue funds.

Sam-Mac Construction Co., Inc., of Ft. Meade was low with a bid of $138,000.

Henry Jacobson & Associates of Ft. Myers bid $164,000 and Cooper-Renton, Inc., of Orlando was high with a bid of $164,940.

Bids were opened at a special commissioners meeting on December 22. The representative of the project's architects — Rogers, Lovelock & Fritz of Winter Park — ventured some guesses about causes for the higher-than-expected bids.

The specifications are that the general contractor is responsible for prisoner security on holidays, weekends and other than regular working hours. Sheriff Broward Coker said his staff will assume security responsibility during the regular working day.

He said his department will be glad to work with the contractor, but to insure that a contractor does not "start something then leave it for several days we must make him responsible for security."

Another possible price-boosting feature of the contract is the provision that work on the jail building proper cannot be done during Race Week.

"We understand that the Sheriff needs maximum space available throughout the whole week," the architect said," so we have written that into the contract."

The contract has a 170-day limit for the construction which is primarily a remodeling job to provide more office and storage space in the jail.

Avon Park Shooters Win In National Guard Championships

Two Avon Park men have won State Championships in National Guard rifle and pistol competition.

In winning the pistol championship, Capt. Ira C. McKinzie also placed second in the Third Army Area and 14th in the nation. The Third Army covers Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi.

State rifle champion Mst. Sgt. Ollie Gentry is also former North Carolina state champ.

The National Guard competition is an annual affair. The shooting is held in local armorys—in this case, Avon Park. Shooting (small-bore, indoor) is under strict supervision and is graded by the National Rifle Association.

County Hospital Joins 800 Blood Banks

Highlands General Hospital Blood Bank, Sebring, is now a participant in the National Clearinghouse Program of the American Association of Blood Banks. This makes the hospital a link in 800 blood banks and drawing stations throughout the United States.

Dr. George J. Hummer, president of the AABB, stated this is one of the most important services a bank can render for the benefit of its donors and patients.

The purpose of the AABB program is to facilitate the borrowing and lending of blood to alleviate unavoidable shortages and surplus, and to enable the exchange of donor replacement credits between banks. This means that blood replacements can be made at any participating bank in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, and transferred through the clearinghouse program for patients receiving blood transfusion locally. Similarly, blood donations for transfer to patients in more than 2,800 hospitals in other parts of the country can be made at the Highlands General Hospital Blood Bank.

Mrs. Bernice M. Hemphill, chairman of the AABB National Clearinghouse Program, pointed out that blood is a perishable which must be utilized within 21 days. This program not only makes it convenient for individuals to make blood donations but it helps to conserve the nation's blood supply by arranging for inter-bank shipments. Last year, over 200,000 blood replacements were channeled through the system, and nearly 35,000 units of blood were shipped between banks to meet special needs, for the benefit of thousands of donors and patients throughout the nation.

Sheriff's Office Reports Quiet Christmas Holiday Weekend

The Christmas weekend was a "pretty good one" from Highlands County Sheriff Broward Coker's point of view. A number of arrests were made on criminal charges, "but we had no big problems and no serious accidents," the Sheriff said.

Three Sebring men were arrested on assault charges and their cases have been referred to the State Attorney for investigation.

Henry Failey, 33, is charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder. His bond is set at $1,000.

Lewis Cooper, 37, is accused of assaulting Failey with a deadly weapon, and his bond is set at $3,000.

William H. Morgan is charged with aggravated assault in connection with an attack on Orris L. Kelly with a pistol. He waived preliminary hearing and his case was referred to the State Attorney. His bond is $1,000.

George Blackman of Avon Park, 47, is charged with aggravated assault against Catherine Brown. He has waived preliminary hearing, and his bond is set at $2,000 pending disposition of the case by the State Attorney.

Two Lake Placid men are in jail charged with an armed robbery. Ernest William Day, 41, and Willie Sanders 23, have requested a preliminary hearing on the charge.

$25,000 Damage Suit Filed

Phoebe Rogers Cole of Lorida has filed suit for $25,000 for damages to her business and personal reputation and credit as a result of a criminal suit last year.

The Lorida woman charges that Elmer Waldron, also of Lorida, "maliciously and without probable cause" had caused her to be arrested and tried for larceny of a steer. She was tried on this charge on December 1, 1965, and acquitted by the jury.

In the suit filed December 21 she states that in addition to damages she has suffered she was forced to spend personal funds for bail bond charges and attorney fees.

In the action against Waldron she is being represented by Hayward H. Davis. The case has been assigned to Judge Clifton M. Kelly.

Game Warden's String Band In Inaugural Show

Music from 76 trombones, two guitars, one banjo and a fiddle will welcome Governor-elect Claude Kirk to Tallahassee on January 3. The trombones will probably be furnished by bands from throughout Florida. The guitars, banjo and fiddle will be provided by the Florida Wildlife Boys, a string quartet composed of officers of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The Florida Wildlife Boys, which includes the state's waterfowl biologist, two information education officers and a wildlife officer, is acclaimed to be the only Game Commission band in the nation.

According to O. E. Frye, Commission Director, Mr. Sousa and his marches might dominate the music of the day, but the sounds produced by the Florida Wildlife Boys is closer akin to the outdoors, the wilderness, and Florida's multitude of hunters and fishermen.

The string quartet will ride on the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission float which will present a visual report of a quarter century of wildlife conservation progress from 1942 to 1967.

Farmers Alerted On 1966 Crop Insurance

Farmers in 19 Florida counties who have Federal Crop Insurance policies were warned today they must cancel out in writing by December 31, 1966, or they will be liable for premiums payable on 1967 corps.

According to George Thiem, manager, Crop Insurance Bureau, Evanston, Ill., each year large numbers of newly signed policyholders in the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation learn the hard way that once they are in the only means of getting out is to cancel out in writing, usually by December 31, to escape liability for premium payments in the crop year ahead.

The fine print at the end of each contract or endorsement gives the final cancellation date for particular crops, Thiem said.

Letters to the farmer's local Federal Crop Insurance agent or office should be postmarked not later than December 31, 1966.

Florida counties currently under Federal Crop Insurance programs include: Highlands, Lake, Brevard, Hardee, Hillsborough, Indian River, Manatee, Marion, Martin, Orange, Pasco, Polk, St. Lucie, Jackson, Hamilton, Columbia, Madison, Suannee, and Alachua.

Dr. Workman New Health Director

County Health Director-elect, Dr. John Dillard Workman, has arrived in Highlands County and is now working with Dr. William F. Hill Jr., in a two weeks orientation. Dr. Hill is due to assume new duties as the 19th County Health Director on January 1, and at the same time Dr. Workman officially assumes that role for Highlands-Glades and Hendry counties.

Dr. and Mrs. Workman have taken up residence at 202 North Lakeview Drive in Sebring. They formerly resided in North Carolina.

The Workmans lived in Florida for more than two decades before moving to North Carolina. During the 17 years Dr. Workman was in private practice at Lake Worth he became very interested in flying and particularly in the activities of the Civil Air Patrol.

Both he and Mrs. Workman have been active in CAP. He has been serving as North Carolina CAP Wing medical officer and was a senior wing training officer. He is a member of the national advisory committee for CAP.

Dr. Workman is a Mason, formerly belonged to Rotary Club, and he and Mrs. Workman attend the Episcopal Church.

In addition to his interest in CAP, Dr. Workman is a model railroad buff. At present he has no plans to unpack the large amount of model equipment, including the many locomotives and railroad cars which he has built to scale.

KIRK AND HIS DEMOCRATS

By Rex Newman

Cabinet members feel they've been snubbed by the incoming governor and they aren't sure whether it's because they are of the opposite party or because Governor-elect Claude Kirk wants to show his independence.

At any rate they they aren't too happy with the fact that Kirk set down with them as a voting majority and had a little talk-to.

"This is the first time an incoming governor hasn't talked things over with the cabinet before taking office," one anxious cabinet member commented.

"If he intends this as evidence of his differences with the cabinet, then it ought to be an interesting four years," he cautioned.

What this cabinet member referred to is the obvious hostility which Republican Kirk has to an elected cabinet.

Kirk makes no bones about wanting a governor-lieutenant governor tandem slate with an appointive cabinet.

The battlelines now are being drawn for this fracas when the legislature meets in what undoubtedly will be a two-month special legislative session this summer to consider a new constitution for the state.

Kirk has some powerful and influential Democrats on his side on this score.

• • • •

Kirk has showed his independence. He appointed Don Meiklejohn, peppery newsman in the "hot spot" of state government, head of the state's beverage department. This inflamed Pinellas County Republicans, always fractionalized because of many viewpoints.

These people had been given rough treatment by Mieklejohn when he was a top political reporter for the St. Pete Times. Also, they wanted this to go to a Republican.

Kirk then places Jay Brown, state road department chief engineer, in the strategic post of chairman of the road board, another loss to Republican patronage.

To top it off he named Bill Beaufort, Jacksonville road board member for Democratic Gov. Haydon Burns, as chairman of the Florida Development Commission—another key political plum out of Republican hands.

"Did we elect a Republican governor?" some are asking.

• • • •

However, some of the more realistic Republicans know that the chief advantage of having a governor is the some 4,000 appointments made during a four year term at the local level.

Outgoing Development Commission boss, Charles Campbell, Jacksonville, has a novel idea.

He wants commission members to be full-time, salaried employes of the state.

Now they are political appointees who take the job as board members as an honor. A professional staff runs the show.

His proposal should't cost the state much more than 200,000.

Points To Consider

Everybody talks about the increase in traffic accidents, with its concomitant toll in deaths, injuries and property damage, but nobody does anything about it—at least nothing effective.

But Florida state officials are thinking about it, and they may have at least a partial answer.

State Sen. C. W. Young says the solution is suspending the licenses of drunk drivers and chronic law violators. The state Department of Public Safety, trial judges, and the Legislative Council's interim traffic safety committee agree. They will propose a new law aimed at doing just that.

It seems that driver license suspensions in Florida are only one-tenth of what they once were, before the point system instituted by the 1965 legislature. That law just isn't working.

The law gives judges discretionary power to assess traffic violator points against drivers: 12 points within 12 months leads to a 30-day license suspension; 18 in eight months to a three-months suspension; 24 within 36 months, a year's suspension.

But the judges generally were lenient, some didn't even bother to assess points—in which case the minimum allowable by law applied. And very few driver's licenses were suspended.

The proposed new law would make the maximum, instead of the new minimum number of violator points apply where no definite action is taken by a judge. This would leave the judges with discretionary power, but they would have to act affirmatively in favor of driver if a repeater's license were not to be endangered.

It would require the judge to think less, and the reckless driver more. And most drivers will think at least twice before risking their privilege of drrving Records show that only one of 28 drivers would have had their licenses suspended become repeaters.

By no stretch of the imagination will this become a cure-all for traffic violations and accidents, but if it helps just a little it will be worth while. Reversal of an alarming trend must start somewhere.

Clouded History

In spite of the fact that Cuban dictator Fidel Castro is a notorious liar, he may be suspected of telling some partial truths in a recent interview with a Playboy magazine writer.

Castro told author Lee Lockwood that the U. S. pledged it would not invade Cuba and made other agreements, still secret, during the 1962 missile crisis. These agreements, according to Castro, were made by letter through diplomatic channels.

There was, indeed, a great deal of wheeling and dealing going on at that time between President John F. Kennedy and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev; some of it made public, some of it not.

At one point it was made known that the U. S. would remove its naval quarantine and give assurances against invasion of Cuba, IF all offensive missiles were removed from the island, and IF such removal were verified by adequate inspections.

The inspections never came. We took Nikita's word for it that the missiles were removed. But there was never any official admission that a non-invasion agreement was finalized in spite of Castro's recalcitrance.

Since then, Americans generally have often wondered who "won" the Cuban crisis of 1962; most of them have had a suspicion it wasn't us. Even JFK's repeated assurances that "Cuba has not been abandoned" to communism failed to quiet the suspicion that in effect it had been.

Subsequently U. S. actions seemed to confirm that there was in fact some sort of agreement to allow Castro and Khrushchev to develop communism in Cuba without direct U. S. interference. We have followed that policy, even while strenuously combatting a Communist take-over in Southeast Asia.

So, while Castro probably would like us to believe that there were more and firmer agreements than the facts will support, the average American is in no position to say at this time that The Beard is just indulging again in his favorite pastime of lying.

Our own "managed news" policy puts us at a disadvantage.

Florida Antelope Roam The Range In Kissimmee

Florida's antelope are not at home on the range. At least they couldn't be located on the range in the Kissimmee Valley where they were released almost a year ago. Aerial observation trips during November did not reveal any of the animals and the opinion expressed by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission is that the antelope have dispersed from the general release site.

The thirty-eight antelope were trapped in Colorado and flown to Florida by Eastern Air Lines for release in the Kissimmee Valley on January 23. The flat prairie land of the Kissimmee Valley is similar to the antelope's native range and earlier observation flights found the animals feeding with cattle and deer.

According to O. E. Frye, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, weekly observation flights were made during the first one and one-half months after release to check on the general health of the animals and to observe any movement of the herd. Observation patrols were later reduced to monthly trips.

Since January only four dead animals have been found. Three of these were within a month of the release date. Some early mortality in the herd was expected due to shipment. Observation trips over the release area have not revealed any recent dead animals which indicates the antelope may have moved to a new range.

Frye said, "We have received a number of reports from individuals who work daily in the general vicinity that they have seen antelope. One report indicated observing a female with a fawn. We are presently attempting to verify these reports and have not resigned ourselves to believing that no sightings is an indication of no antelope."

CHILDREN AND MONEY

Just as you may borrow from a state-regulated consumer finance company, a child can learn about credit by borrowing a small amount from his parents for something special, then paying back weekly out of his allowance.

The star-spangled street where you live

You can't always see the stars and stripes on the homes and apartments in your neighborhood, but they're there just the same.

A big percentage of American families own U.S. Savings Bonds. Many of these star-spangled families have been buying Bonds since they were first issued 25 years ago.

Altogether, Uncle Sam has sold $150 billion in E and H Bonds. About $100 billion of these have been cashed in for college, retirement, new furniture, emergencies, and down payments for those homes.

Americans still own a nest egg of nearly $50 billion in Bonds for tomorrow's needs. And as the nest egg grows, Uncle Sam uses the dollars to help support our fighting men in Vietnam — and help keep our economy strong.

You can help make Uncle Sam's future, and your own, more secure by joining this star-spangled savings plan.

Why not start now? Sign up for Payroll Savings where you work, or buy Bonds regularly at your bank.

VA Notice

M. T. Dixon of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, announced today that VA Regulations have been changed to permit greater use of private physicians' statements in lieu of VA examinations. This change in certain types of cases eliminates the inconveniences and hardships previously imposed on veterans by requiring them to report for VA examinations when they have already submitted an adequate statement as to their physical condition from a private physician. Dixon said this change also produced a savings to the government by reducing the number of VA examinations required.

Dixon urges all veterans, in securing medical statements for submission to the VA, to be sure they are adequate, going into detail on findings of the physician and findings of the laboratory reports.

FFA Steer Ready For County Fair

Silver Gray, a steer owned by Charles Peebles, has shown unusual color characteristics. This sometimes happens when Shorthorn cattle are crossed. The silvery color is striking and attractive and should be a fine addition to the Highlands County Fair in January.

Charles, the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Peebles, Avon Park, is having his steer checked to enter the livestock show. Glen Murphy, rancher, and Dean Griffin, agriculture teacher, are responsible for inspecting all FFA steers in the Avon Park area to determine if they are show qualified.

The steers must weigh a minimum of 650 pounds and be graded "good" or better according to the U. S. Government grading system.

Charles raised his steer during the fall by the "light of the moon." Every day he practiced football with the Red Devils and didn't return home until night had fallen. This meant that "Smoky the Steer" had to be fed and trained after dark. Now during Christmas vacation Charles is putting the finishing touches on his show steer.

A record 100 million kilowatts of new generating capacity is on order and scheduled for operation in the U.S. during 1966 through 1970 and later. This is greater than all the electric utility capacity in service at the end of 1965.

Accent on Beauty

by Alicia Duval
Beauty Consultant to Cosmetically Yours

Most of us have been using brush on complexion powder as rouge. However, there are many more uses for it.

For sallow and olive complexions, use a pink or rose tone complexion powder to obtain an overall glow. Enhance color depth on cheeks by adding an extra dab of color on cheek bones.

Use brush on complexion powder for contouring — emphasizing good features, playing down poor ones. For example, to minimize a long nose, lightly brush on Cosmetically Yours Brush-on Beauty on its tip. Do same to shorten chin. To narrow bridge of nose, brush powder on sides of nose. A tawny shade should be used for this shadowing procedure.

Now containing its own mirror, Brush-on Beauty is wonderful as a pick up during the day. So carry it in your handbag, just as you do your compact. And when you want to add a little color to your face, simply brush it on.

Smart Tips For Fla. Gardeners

Time moves rapidly—and here is another new year for us to enjoy and to use as effectively as possible. Have you made your Gardening Resolutions yet? If not, you might consider some of these:

First, try something new and unusual this year. One of the most fascinating of the new annuals is a Sweetpea that grows about two feet tall in bush form, and blossoms profusely. It does not need staking at all, and it has very beautiful flowers. This beautiful new annual goes on sale this month. If you are one of those folks who love sweetpeas but always hated to have those stakes and strings, you are going to enjoy these! Watch for them.

Second, try to create a picture with any planting you make. Do not plant something just because you like it as an individual plant and don't have one. Remember, repetition is one way of creating loveliness—and a collection of plants never assures you of a beautiful garden. Too many people purchase plants because they like them, and then find a place to plant them. Actually, you should purchase the plant that should go into the making of an effective picture by its addition!

Third, remember that maintenance is most important. The feeding, watering and spraying of your garden assures you beauty. Plants need pruning at certain times to shape them—and sometimes they need thinning to open them up to assure better bloom. Your shrubs and trees and flowers in your garden should be as beautiful as God intended them to be.

Fourth, a green thumb is not a necessary requirement for a successful gardener. Knowledge about the plant, its requirements as to soil and fertilizer, as well as water, the insect pests that might bother it, and the sprays to control them—all these are of great importance. For example, it is better to water your shrubs deep twice a week than to sprinkle them lightly every day . . . because heavy watering causes the roots to go deeper and gives the plant more stamina.

Fifth, plants need "Tender loving care" and respond to it. You should enjoy your garden—and enjoy your plants. You will find they will bloom better and be more lovely. Plants are for your pleasure. Cut the flowers and use them indoors . . . they will bloom much better!

Major National Organizations Spur March of Dimes Prenatal Care Drive

When a congressional committee asked U.S. Surgeon General William H. Stewart in 1965 why the infant mortality rate in the United States is higher than in many other countries, he replied, "We need to do a better job in prenatal care and the care of premature infants."

About the same time, The National Foundation—March of Dimes, which has been fighting birth defects since the conquest of polio, was launching pilot efforts in an ambitious program to encourage every pregnant woman to seek prenatal care.

In just two years, with the help of the medical profession, public health agencies, and major religious and service groups, March of Dimes "PNC" (PreNatal Care) programs have mushroomed across the nation.

Prenatal care can lessen the risks of many birth defects, premature births and infant deaths. Yet each year an increasing number of mothers receive no medical attention until delivery of their babies. In many cities, one-third to one-half of the mothers delivered in tax-supported hospitals see a doctor for the first time only when they are in labor.

To combat this trend, March of Dimes PreNatal Care programs emphasize public education and community service. The educational aspects focus on informing prospective parents of the importance of medical supervision throughout pregnancy. Community service includes efforts to overcome obstacles which prevent many women from getting this care. Volunteers often solve the two most common needs—for baby-sitters and transportation. Other volunteers assist in local prenatal clinics.

PRENATAL CARE VOLUNTEERS assist in many public health clinics across the nation as part of March of Dimes effort to encourage expectant mothers to seek medical attention during pregnancy.

A number of the nation's major service organizations have entered into the effort providing manpower, national impetus and local action.

The National Congress of Parents and Teachers urges members to help "promote good prenatal care to reduce the incidence of birth defects and prematurity." PTA leaders also urge distribution of March of Dimes materials to inform young families and prospective parents about the need for prenatal care.

"Be Good to Your Baby Before It Is Born," a booklet prepared by The National Foundation—March of Dimes, is given to couples who attend Pre-Cana Conferences before marriage in at least a dozen Roman Catholic dioceses throughout the country. The booklet was brought to the attention of the National Catholic Welfare Conference's Family Life Bureau by the National Council of Catholic Women.

B'nai B'rith Women, after a successful pilot program—called "Operation Stork"—carried out in cooperation with the Metropolitan Chicago Chapter of the March of Dimes and the Chicago Board of Health, has expanded its activities in the PreNatal Care program to other large cities.

The Junior Division of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, now entering the third year of participation in the March of Dimes program, recently voted to place special emphasis on expanding prenatal care and birth defects education, with particular focus on young people.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT HEADACHES

An estimated 85% of the American people are victims of headaches at one time or another, yet the headache is one of mankind's most misunderstood ailments.

1. The major underlying cause of headaches is emotional strain, and the vascular headache, which constitutes about 90%, is the most common type of headache.

2. The pain of the vascular headache is caused when the blood vessels inside the head swell, because of emotional tension, and press on sensitive nerves.

3. In a severe vascular headache, a secondary muscle-contraction may cause pain to extend over the eyes, forehead, bridge of nose, and temples. Often called a tension headache, it's really an extension of the vascular type.

4. Many remedies relieve headache pain, but don't lessen the flow of blood in the head to ease vascular pressure, so the pain can recur. Vanquish, a new headache remedy, combines 5 ingredients to relieve both pain and vascular pressure.

5. Studies show a relation between the level of education and frequency of headaches. In one survey, 70% of a group of college graduates suffered from this complaint, compared to 31% in a non-graduate group.

6. The typical sufferer of vascular headaches is the nervous person who has trouble relaxing. Today, doctors help patients to understand the emotional causes of headaches in an effort to lessen their occurence.

New Year's Eve Ball To Feature Fun and Fashion

Not only will those who attend the Junior Woman's Club's second annual New Year's Eve Ball have fun, they will see a preview of a coming event—the club's fashion show!

It has been learned from Mrs. Lila Behal, the club's fine arts chairman, that several members are making their party dresses for the ball. These clever creations, along with those of other members of the club, will be judged at the January 3 meeting. Formal or evening wear, suitable to wear to a club social, will be modeled at that meeting. The local winner will go to the fine arts festival competition in Sebring in February.

Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson won honors for the Avon Park club at the festival in Bartow last year in the fashion show division.

Mrs. Behal reports that various other crafts, literature, etc. is also to be entered in the festival, and members are working to complete such projects before the February deadline. Since these items are not judged on the local level, they do not have to be presented at the January meeting.

Aside from finishing the above-mentioned projects, housekeeping, careers, and the many other things that club members are involved in, they are planning to "be where the fun is" for welcoming in the New Year. The place to be, beginning at 9:30 p.m., is the Jacaranda Hotel.

Why not get your ticket now (in case you haven't already done so!) for only $7.50 per couple, available at Ridge Florist or from any club member. Phone 471-3456 for reserved tables (if there are any left!). Music will be furnished by a popular local group, "The Intruders."

So don't forget, be where the fun and fashion is to welcome the New Year to Avon Park on Saturday night, Dec. 31, at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Photographers will be on hand to record the action.

Church Group To Hear Head Start Director

The annual combined meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the Wesylan Service Guild of the Methodist Church, will be held Monday, Jan. 2 at 7:30 p.m. in Wesley Hall. The officers of the Wesylan Service Guild are in charge of the program.

Guest speaker will be Donald Tielke, director the Highlands County Head Start program.

Tielke earned his B.A. and M.A. degrees at the University of Alabama. He is now a teacher in the Sebring High School.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. Robert "Tom" Woodruff has returned home from the J. Hillis Miller Hospital at the University of Florida, following a very successful open heart surgical operation. Gladys and Bob wish to thank Dr. King, who diagnosed her case correctly and took wonderful care of her until such time as the operation could be performed. Our many thanks to all the Florida Power people, police, firemen and all the other fine people of Avon Park, that donated and offered to donate blood to help see her through this operation.

The many gifts, flowers, cards, letters and visits [illegible] will always be remembered by the both of us.

Her surgeons at the hospital, many times following the operation, expressed their amazement at her complete confidence and absence of any fear of having this severe operation performed. They stated they feel that this attitude and peace of mind contributed greatly during this [illegible] to her exceptional recovery.

Gladys and Bob extend their heartfelt thanks to all that helped in the many ways they did, and Gladys says, "It's wonderful to be home alive among our many many friends in Avon Park and you all have helped to make for Bob and myself the finest Christmas we have ever known." Thank you all.

Gladys and Bob Woodruff

Santa Visits Brentwood Mobile Home Court

It was a very Merry Christmas for the 46 residents and guests of Brentwood Mobile Court. A 1 p.m. dinner party was served in the recreation hall at the Court on Christmas Day.

The festive board was crowned with huge platters of turkey and ham which Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett served to their tenants every holiday. A carry-in dinner provided the wide assortment of delicious food.

Following the bountiful dinner, a handsome and familiar Santa Claus attired in traditional red velvet suit made his appearance. He looked a lot like Mr. R. Williams. He had been seen with his well filled sack as he visited each mobile home on Christmas eve, being assisted by Mrs. Claus' Williams and daughter Dorothy, and leaving candy and gifts for everyone.

Santa made his way to the silver and blue Christmas tree in the hall and with the help of Gail Bennett and Dorothy Williams began the distribution of exchange gifts.

Santa insisted each person come to him for their gift, which proved both rewarding and dangerous. He was threatened by those who did not receive what they had asked for. Only True did not get his motor for his boat. Jim McClain told Santa to put him on his good-boy list as he had been on the bad-boy list long enough.

Since many of the women present sat on Santa's knee at his invitation, to thank him, Howard Fishbeck came to the conclusion that Santa's job was very rewarding and offered his services next year.

Everybody present had a most delightful day and were grateful to the Bennetts, Bill, Sue, Gary, and Gail, and all the Brentwood neighbors who together made the day a happy one for all.

KATHY BISHOP, 14-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bishop, receives a certificate award and $25 for the best essay, from President Clay Viles of the Lions Club. Kathy, presented her check to Highlands County Judge Mervin Rehrer for benefit of the new juvenile home, operated by Youth Care, Inc. She accompanied Judge Rehrer to the home and pinned her check on their tree, returning the next day to help entertain the children. She plans to become a nurse in the future. — (Sun Photo)

Luncheon Report

Last week's meeting Dr. I. W. Wander, general manager of Growers Fertilizer Cooperative of Lake Alfred, Fla., took us on his recent trip to Australia. After hearing him for a few minutes, one could well understand the scope of his background: B.S., Wooster College, (Ohio), Doctorate in Horticulture from Ohio State University, years of experience in the Ag. Dept. of State of Ohio and the State of Florida.

The slides were fascinating in their colors, especially the gardens of flowers and city scenes. To the citrus man, there were many pictures to go with the interesting tales of crops and groves, "down under." This side of Australia's agriculture is not generally known . . . at least beside the headliners of export - sheep, wool, cattle, and wheat. Methods of irrigation and grove upkeep were most interesting to us.

Dr. Wander visited a Rotary Club while on this trip, Mundelra - a small city. Rotary is quite strong in Australia, and not confined to the big cities. We thank Bob Barben for another fine program for December.

The December 24-25 kill for the Avon Park Management Area is as follows: 10 hogs, 6 deer, 9 turkey, 102 quail, 18 squirrels, 44 snipe, 38 doves, 14 ducks.

Three hundred and seventy-five (375) hunters checked in and seven regular permits were sold.

SUN publisher Ed Carter bagged a turkey at an "undisclosed" location in the swamp. Carter claims the turkey was wild.

HOW TO HAVE A GREAT NEW YEAR

"I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." St. John 8:12.

When we see Christ in his humanity, his love for all, the high, the low, the rich, the poor; his solicitude for the sick and the sinful; his grief over his fellowmen's loss and misfortune; his brotherliness; his spirit of forgiveness; his steadfast loyalty to truth even though it was to take him to the cross; his profound love for God that sustained him on the cross; when we have seen that, we have seen God. We are sure that God is like that!

Jesus said: "He that hath seen me hath seen God. St. John 14:9. The Spirit of God breaking into history and coming into being in human form. In Jesus we see the will of God being expressed. He made this plain when he said: "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work." St. John 4:34.

Man saw the Light in Jesus and breathed the name of God.

Jesus looked upon his disciples as those through whom the divine Light might shine. "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." St. Matthew 5:16. He warned them against allowing the light to be obscuredthrough evil. "The light of the body is the eye; if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness." St. Matthew 6:22-23.

A man stood looking through a window on a cold February day. He caught a glimpse of something red in a nearby evergreen. As he looked the red grew indistinct and pale. For a moment he was shaken by fear; he thought he was going blind. Then he realized what the trouble was; he had breathed on the window pane and suddenly the whole world was distorted.

The trouble with the world is often within ourselves. Regrets, fears, envy, jealousy and evil beclout our vision. That which makes for darkness is the inner condition of our lives. The light within us, however, need not be darkness.

Rufus Jones once put it this way: "Even when we stoop to muckrake, there is a shining crown and a beckoning hand above. This ever-advancing possible self, at war with our lower nature, is a divine revelation to us. It is an inward light, not shining from some foreign world, but springing up within, because the life of God is an inherent and elemental part of our being, and this Life is the inward light."

Increase the intensity of visible light, it passes into the ultra violet and becomes invisible. So it is in the life of a Christian. Jesus didn't say: "Let your light so shine before men that they might see it." A wise observer once said of a truly religious man: "He does not peek through his folded hands at himself at prayer; he looks into the face of God and gives thanks that his life is preserved."A Christian loses sight of himself as he comes near to God. He does not say, "I am now having a religious experience." He says "My Lord and my God."

Jesus intimates that a Christian's light shines in his good works: "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father which is in heaven." A profound insight into the nature and effect of a truly Christian life. Men see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father. We are to be channels through which the grace of God flows to others.

Sir Harry Lauder told of having watched a lamp lighter engaged in lighting the street lamps in a town in Scotland. Quietly he went from one lamppost to another, leaving on each corner a light to guide the travelers' feet. As he went down the street, one could trace his movements by the lamps he lighted and the long trail of light he left behind him. Your business and mine is so to live that, perhaps all unconsciously, we shall leave behind us a trail of lighted lamps to light the way for others. The lights that we light in other lives are the best evidence of the light within our own.

John Newton was instrumental in leading Dr. Buchanan to Christ. That was the beginning of a chain of events that blessed the lives of thousands of people. Buchanan wrote "The Star In The East" which influenced Adoniran Judson to accept Christ and made him one of the world's great missionaries; it led to the conversion of Dr. Scott, the commentator and helped to deepen the piety of Cowper, the poet. Through it Wilberforce gained the religious foresight that led to the abolition of slavery. He in turn wrote a book called "A Practical View of Christianity" which led to Leigh Richmonds' conversion. He in turn wrote the "Dairyman's Daughter" which has had a Christian influence upon untold numbers of people. And so it was that the influence of one man, John Newton, once a drunkard and then Christ's servant, widened into a great stream of light down the year.

"To each man is given a day and his work for the day;
And once, and no more, he is given to travel this way."

The New Year can be a great one for you. Follow Christ. Let your light shine before men to the glory of God. There is no limit to the good a man can do, if he takes no credit for himself.

Methodist Mission Study

Beginning Sunday evening, Jan. 8, the First Methodist Church will be studying "Affluence and Poverty: The Dilemma for Christians." This will continue for six consecutive Sunday evenings. There will be lectures, discussions, panel discussions, and classes for adults, youth, and children.

"Affluence and Poverty" is one of the most pertinent subjects not only for the church but for the nation and family of nations as they relate to each other. One weary old man tried to pierce the fog that clouded his mind when he said, I used to think I was poor. They told me I wasn't poor, I was needy. Then they told me that was self-defeating, that I was deprived. Then they told me I was a hard-core unemployed. I was disadvantaged."

It is not the goal of the study to develop a new vocabulary, but to acquire some new understandings of the Christian's responsibility in the face of two paradoxes: poverty in the midst of affluence in the United States and U. S. affluence in the midst of world poverty.

Retarded Children Program Set — Paid Help Needed

Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children this week launched plans for a summer recreation program for retarded children in the county.

Rev. Tom W. Jones, president of the association, said initial plans are for a two months program which could include a broad range of health and recreational activities.

"College students now home on vacation who may be interested in working with retarded persons may contact me or Mrs. G. Franklyn Waid about the job opportunities which may be available if we are able to complete these plans for a summer program," Rev. Jones said.

"We do know we should need some paid staff including at least one person who holds a senior life saving certificate," he said.

SS Questions And Answers

By Ed Perkowski
Social Security Representative

Question—I've been paying social security taxes for the past 20 years. I hear that payments are now being made to certain people age 72 and over who have never paid security tax. Does this come out of the taxes I've paid?

Answer—No, the cost of these payments for people who have no security coverage will met from the general funds of the government. It does not come from the social security trust funds.

Question—My wife and I are both 72. We don't get any kind of a monthly pension check. Will our special age 72 payments be $35 a month each?

Answer—No, since you both qualify for this special age 72 benefit, you will receive $35 a month and your wife will get $17.50.

Question—I am single and won't be 72 until 1968. I've never worked under social security and I don't get any type of benefit or pension. Will I be able to qualify for the special age 72 payments?

Answer—There is no work requirement where you reach 72 before 1968. Those people who are 72 in 1968 or later, must have 3 quarters of work credit for each year after 1966 and before the year they are age 72. Since you won't be 72 until 1968, you will need 3 quarters of work credit to qualify.

Please send your questions to the Social Security Administration, P. O. Drawer E, Lakeland, Fla.

Miss Olive Kerwin, president of our Ladies Club, introduced and conducted the evening Christmas party program on Tuesday, Dec. 20, which was our big day of pre-Christmas fun. Miss Elizabeth Ann (Howard) Bell was "head schoolmarm" of a school for "Underprivileged Boys of Piney Ridge." She and her boys performed excellently with a presentation of "Jingle Bells" by the school orchestra, consisting of Harold Wolcott, Paul Roth and John Blesse. A march followed with a practice drill by Henry Wittekindt, Ralph Crocker, Linville Myers, Frank Fisher and Welcome Miller was snappily presented to the tune of America and the singing of the anthem followed. The youth, Frank Fisher, a very bright boy, recited "The night before Christmas." Christmas carols, "Silent Night" and the song "Deck the Hall" was sung by the quarter preceding a play, let titled "Christmas Eve in Piney Ridge." Actors in this entertaining presentation, which Howard Bell wrote and directed, were: Ralph Crocker, Glenn Long, Linville Myers and Frank Fisher as sons of "Ma" Lawrence Robinson.

The theme song was "Silver Threads Among the Gold," a violin solo rendered by Paul Roth. The Grand Finale contained the whole cast, singing "Good Night, Santa." Mr. and Mrs. "Scotty" McPherson distributed gifts to each person who attended, assisted by Mrs. Olive Kerwin. The evening of fellowship and entertainment was enjoyed by 96 friendly people, followed by refreshments of punch and cookies, served by Mrs. Bess Raas, Mrs. Bernice Tingler, and Mrs. Ruth Robinson.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

BY REV. MICHAEL A. GUIDO

NEW YEAR'S DAY

New Year's Day, the first day of the calendar year, is celebrated throughout the world.

The ancient Romans honored Janus, the god of beginnings and endings, on the first day of the year. Janus had two faces, and looked both forward and backward. Let us look back and thank God for His goodness during the past year and look forward and trust Him for His graciousness during the coming year.

The Persians, in days of old, gave eggs to their friends on New Year's Day. Because the egg hatches into life, this signified much the same things as "turning over a new leaf" on the first day of the year. However it is not a new leaf that is needed, but a new life. The Bible says, "When someone becomes a Christian he becomes a brand new person inside. He is not the same any more. A new life has begun."

People in old England used to clean their chimneys on New Year's Day for good luck. But let us clean the slate for a good life. How? The Bible says, "If we confess our sins to Him, He can be depended on to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from every wrong."

In A.D. 487 New Year's Day became a holy day for the Christian Church, but to many it is a hollow day. Begin the New Year with God and it will be a happy new year!

Thursday evening over 200 members gathered at the club house for the annual Christmas party. Everyone enjoyed the Christmas songs played by Hallie Amstutz preceding the party.

Singing of carols by the Shuffle-Aires; two violin duets by Albert Cushing and his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Heidke of Berrien Springs, Mich., and Tannenbaum played by Paul Hoppe on his accordian put everyone in a holiday mood.

Dramatizing of "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was a fun provoking arrangement. Pa and Ma in their gowns designed by Lois Johnson, were a sight to behold. Santa took on the modern touch when the children thought he was Batman. But Santa was the same old generous St. Nick, giving out gifts to all those present (gift exchange). Refreshments were served by Flora Hoppe and her staff. All agreed it was a grand success.

Happy anniversary was sung to three couples: Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ayling, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoppe and Mr. and Mrs. Robinson, the latter were celebrating their 54th anniversary.

Many happy returns of the day were wished on the birthdays of Leonard and Gladys Warner whose birthdays fall on the same day, December 24, and to Mary Haviland and Scott DeGolyer. Scott's family 'back home arranged for a beautiful cake, lettered "Happy Birthday, Dad," which was shared with the group.

The Christmas spirit was carried out with remarks by Fern Haas and readings by Louise Prelipp, Arlene Lane and Pearl Smith. Hallie Amstutz played a medley of Christmas carols, and she accompanied Fern Beck, who whistled a favorite number. She also accompanied Josephine McWithey who sang "Silent Night." The program was closed by Paul Hoppe playing "Silent Night" and "Tannebaum" on his accordian. The delightful occasion came to an end by all wishing everyone a Merry Christmas.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!

This sounds out of season, but with the busy Holiday season we may forget our birthdays.

As a reminder, check your DRIVERS LICENSE; if you were born in December of an even numbered year, or January of an odd numbered year, you must renew in December or January as the case may be.

December 31st comes on a Saturday - the Courthouse will be closed until Tuesday, January 3rd. You may renew your December license as late as then.

RENEW YOUR DRIVERS LICENSES, when due, and HAVE A HAPPIER HOLIDAY SEASON.

I Know Something Good About You!

Wouldn't this old world be better,
If the folks we meet would say,
I know something good about you,
And then treat us just that way!

Wouldn't it be fine and dandy,
If each hand-clasp warm and true,
Carried with it this assurance,
"I know something good about you"!

Wouldn't things here be more pleasant
If the good that's in us all
Were the only thing about us
That folks bothered to recall!

Wouldn't life be lots more happy
If we'd praise the good we see,
For there's such a lot of goodness
In the worse of you and me!

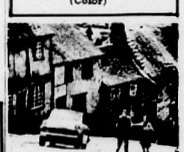

Wouldn't it be nice to practice
This fine way of thinking too—
"You know something good about me,
I know something good about you"!

DRIVE SAFELY

The following sponsors are asking you to Drive With Your Lights on—to remind other drivers to drive carefully this New Year's Holiday weekend.

PEOPLE STOPPERS

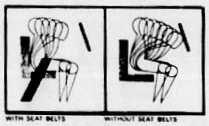

When your car stops suddenly in a collision or emergency, the people inside keep going with tremendous force. What stops them? The windshield. Steering wheel. Dash. Too often with tragic results.

Or, seat belts stop people. Safely.

With a seat belt, when your car stops suddenly, you "stay put." You maintain a vital Margin of Safety between your body and serious injury.

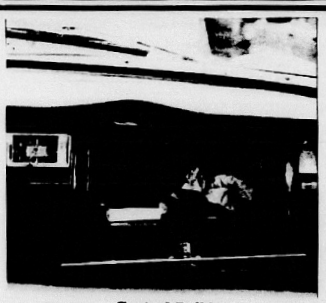

The National Safety Council says that if everybody used seat belts, at least 5,000 lives could be saved a year . . . serious injuries reduced by one third.

Protect your loved ones and yourself. Install seat belts throughout your car . . . and buckle up for safety!

Christmas Island was discovered on Christmas Day, 1777, and Easter Island, on Easter Sunday, 1722.

Saddest words of tongue or pen, modern style: The world is looking to America for leadership, and America is looking at television.

Arguing with wifey reminds us of a feller going into a shower with a raincoat on. Neither process will accomplish much.

Democratic government took root in North America during difficult times, and prospered, even though the idea had been tried various times and places before, and had failed each time. Reason? Generally, lack of an educated electorate.

FIX-IT TIP

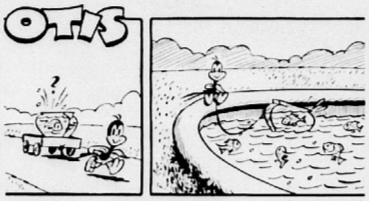

In laying asphalt tile, put them into a 200-degree oven four at a time, with the adhesive already applied to them. Adhesive side should face up, and the tiles should not be placed on top of each other. Leave them in the oven for a few minutes. They should then be pliable and should mold to the floor after you lay them. Be careful, however, that you don't leave them in the oven too long or you'll ruin them. You should have someone to help you so while you're laying one set of four tiles your partner can be watching the next set in the oven.

New Commissioners Hold First Meeting

Real estate subdivisions may be more strictly regulated if new County Commissioner Jean Whitaker has his way. At his first commission meeting Tuesday, Whitaker, who represents district 4, proposed that a study be launched into the ways other Florida counties have set up their road and street specifications.

"Let's get this underway before another plat comes up here," Whitaker urged.

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee pointed out, "Highlands County does have specifications and adequate specifications; they come into play when the subdivider or the subdivision residents request the county to assume maintenance of the streets and roads. What you are suggesting is that the county make the specifications apply at the time the plat is approved."

"I am for protecting the property owner," the new commissioner explained. "Too often a subdivider has staked out some lots, sold them and then cleared out without providing adequate streets and roads. Some places require the subdivider to post bond with the county to insure that he does provide some of the things he had promised."

The commission's other new member, Earl Crutchfield of district 2, launched a new program too. He reported that he is dismayed at the untidy conditions in and around the county barns. "I'd like to see them all cleaned up."

The other commissioners agreed with his suggestion that a clean-up campaign get underway immediately, and they also expressed interest in his request that the commission "do something as soon as possible" about the road leading to Sebring's Pinecrest Cemetery.

Commissioner Ben McGee joined Crutchfield in complaints about "eye sores" along the road. Commissioner Cecil Skipper suggested that Crutchfield meet with Road Superintendent Jim Pearce to work out a specific program for improvement of the road "and get this on the road priority list."

State Road Studies

Commissioner Skipper urged the board members to meet with State Senator Hayward Davis and Representative Chesterfield Smith to study changes which might be made in state laws pertaining to highway policies.

The Legislative Committee on Roads and Highways will have a meeting in Sarasota on January 12 when changes in the laws will be formally proposed. Skipper said he "hoped as many of this board as possible will attend that Sarasota meeting."

Commission Chairman Carl McIntyre also had a suggestion about roads. He reminded the board that the commissioners had promised to provide a new access road from Highway 27 to the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center. The present ARC access is to become a part of the South Florida Junior College campus.

"We should find out from the college architects where the new access road should be located and get it on a map so we can include this road on the secondary road priority list when it is presented to the State Road Department in a few weeks," McIntyre said.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the commissioners agreed to check into the possibility of giving some aid toward the preparation of the site where the new juvenile home is to be built.

The board authorized the clerk to obtain bids and make time deposits of county funds.

Plans were begun for fencing of the county yards at Lake Placid and Avon Park and erection of a light for the gasoline tank area at the Sebring yard.

Approved attendance at the county commission school and county commissioners association meeting in Gainesville the fourth week of this month.

Approved attendance at a supervisors of elections workshop in Tampa next week for Highlands County Supervisor Roland Droit and one of his staff.

MRS. PHIL WEBER

Mrs. Phil Weber Becomes New Avon Park Welcome Wagon Hostess

Mrs. Philip Weber has become the new Welcome Wagon Hostess for Avon Park, replacing Mrs. Kay Andress.

Due to full time employment, Kay resigned as of December 20. She enjoyed her duties as the Welcome Wagon hostess, greeting new families and presenting gifts from the various merchants and acquainting them with Avon Park. She was warmly received whenever a call was made. She introduced Mrs. Weber and assisted her in making her first call last Monday night.

Mrs. Weber, a very congenial person, will now greet, welcome and visit all new residents who make their permanent home in Avon Park, acquainting them with the city and merchants and presenting them with gifts. Anyone knowing of a new resident in the city, please contact Mrs. Weber, GL 3-3582, and assist her in locating new residents.

Mrs. Andress gratefully appreciates the cooperation given her from the merchants, while she was the hostess and extends her thanks to all who participated.

Two Avon Park Students Get USF Degrees

Two Avon Park students have been granted degrees in the December class of the University of South Florida.

Arthur Kelly Jr., Route 2, earned a bachelor degree in physics. He and his wife, Barbara, will make their home in New Jersey where Kelly will be employed by RCA.

Mrs. Ann Miekunas, 606 Cherokee Circle, was granted a bachelor degree in music-education. Mr. Miekunas is the band director at Avon Park High School. Ann is going to teach and plans to stay in the Highlands County area.

Road Work Listed By Commissioners

Work on three county roads was completed in December, according to the monthly work report submitted to the Highlands County Commissioners by Road Superintendent Jim Pearce.

Four emergencies were listed in the report, and at Tuesday's commission meeting Pearce asked permission to work on one of these. He was authorized to provide for movement of traffic over Josephine Creek Road where a bridge is out.

Other emergencies which arose last month necessitated repairs for a bridge at Venus, repairs for a bridge on the Polk Road and Hicks Road repairs in district 3.

Pearce reported that the scheduled grade and base work on Roberts Road in district 1 has been completed. Double surface treatment has been finished on Sand Beach Road in district 2, and LaGrow Road in district 4.

Limerocking of Shockley Road in district 1 is done, and the limerocking of Commerce Street in Sebring was almost finished by the end of December.

Culverts for turnouts on Arbuckle Creek Road in district 3 have been placed. Shell and marl were hauled for work on Skipper and Schlosser roads in district 5.

The Presbyterian Conference Road is district 4 has been limerocked, one course of rock completed, and two miles of asphalt installed.

The parking lot at the Creel Building in Lake Placid was rocked and asphalted.

Written monthly reports of road and bridge work is required as a part of a new county road policy adopted last Fall.

Bring Back The Books!

The Avon Park Library declares a moratorium during the next two weeks on all books due prior to January 1. They may be returned without penalties or fines. Books may be brought to the library or put in depository in the door.

Beginning January 4 the library will be open from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. on Wednesdays only. Regular hours on other days as schedule.

County Businesses Increase In 1966

M. L. Baldwin, area manager of the Tampa office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., announced statement requests were mailed to 394 businesses in Highlands County. He said figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1967, totaled 394 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers in this area as compared with 387 in January, 1966—an increase of 2 percent for the period.

Baldwin noted that each January business concerns in all parts of the United States are asked by Dun & Bradstreet for copies of their financial statements. This year requests are being sent to nearly three million business concerns—to the corner grocery store, worth a few thousand dollars, as well as to businesses worth millions.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists those manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit, but it does not include some of the service and professional businesses, such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for total businesses in the United States would be higher than the three million quoted above.

Back of each listing of a business in the Reference Book is a Dun & Bradstreet credit report. The report includes the following: a record of how the business is paying its bills; a history of the business (who owns it, who runs it, and how long it has been operating); a description of what the business does and how it does it; a financial section which usually includes the latest financial statement.

While credit reports are primarily used by business men who want to evaluate the credit risk of a business before shipping or selling, insurance underwriters, bankers, and other professionals also use reports.

Day School Children View Christmas Gifts

Children attending the Ridge Area Day School for Retarded Children returned from Christmas vacation to find many new toys, games and equipment awaiting them.

For the fifth consecutive year the day school had shared with other similar schools in Polk and Hardee counties in the receipt of gifts at Christmas totaling some $4500 during this time.

The "Santa Claus" furnishing this bonanza of gifts is the Tri-County Beer Wholesale Association. The gifts are in the name of retail dealers of Polk, Highlands and Hardee counties.

This year's Ridge Area Day School share of the gifts were valued at more than $250. The equipment will be shared with the new day school unit in Lake Placid.

Through the five year period this annual gift has included lawn and garden equipment, a tape recorder, playground equipment, books, table games, large scale building blocks, and a box-hockey game that has proved so popular the children wore out the first one which was replaced a year later by a new one.

The Tri-County Association makes its deliver of the gifts during the holiday season each year.

CARL McINTYRE HAYWARD DAVIS

McIntyre To Head Commission; Davis Prosecuting Attorney

Highlands County Commissioners elected Carl McIntyre chairman and appointed Hayward Davis prosecuting attorney as the board re-organized on Tuesday.

Ben McGee was named vice chairman of the board. County employees, including Hue Nunnallee, county attorney; Anna Dee Church, welfare director; Eugene Hamlin, purchasing agent, were all re-appointed.

The re-organization meeting on Tuesday included the swearing in of two new commissioners: Earl Crutchfield of district 2 and Jean Whitaker of district 4.

McIntyre, who represents district 5, is mid-way through his second term on the county commission. He has had one term as commission chairman, and in 1966 he was vice chairman when Cecil Skipper of district 1 was chairman.

McIntyre announced Tuesday that he is devolping a committee system which he plans to present to the board at its January 17 meeting. "This is becoming a big county with a lot of things to keep up with," he explained, "so I have been working on some plans for the board to have some committees which will assume the main responsibility in some parts of the county's programs."

He did not elaborate on this phase of his plans, but he did add that some streamlining of the road and bridge crew organization may be in order.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper moved that all employees be re-appointed with the exception of the prosecuting attorney and that Davis be appointed to that post. His motion was seconded by Whitaker and passed without discussion or dissent.

Davis succeeds Harry Lee as the county prosecutor.

Homestead Exemption Rush Begins March 31 Deadline

Tax Assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin's office was crowded this week with the first rush of residents applying for or renewing homestead exemption.

Residents who have had homestead exemption in the past year have received notices in the mail, and may make their renewal by filling in the card and mailing it back to the Tax Assessor's office in the courthouse.

Property owners who are seeking the exemption for the first time in this county must make application in person at the office between now and the end of March.

The Tax Assessor maintains office hours Mondays through Fridays, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Although the homestead exemption can be filed any time in January, February or March, to qualify for the exemption the applicant must have been residing in the home on January 1 of this year.

Under present Florida law owners of condominium apartments may qualify for a percentage of the $5,000 exemption which is permitted for the whole parcel, Martin said.

RIDGE AREA DAY SCHOOL FOR RETARDED CHILDREN received many new pieces of equipment for its housekeeping center as a gift from the Tri-County Beer Wholesale Association. The new toys, games and equipment to be used in teaching the children household skills were in place ready for use when the Christmas holiday ended this week, and the children are shown here admiring the new things. — (Sun Photo)

Devils Upset Frostproof, 37-31

Coach Dale Landress and his Red Devil basketball quintet racked up their first win of the season Tuesday night with a 37-31 upset victory over the Frostproof Bulldogs in the Frostproof gym.

The Frostproof team had just taken the Polk County Invitational Tournament with three straight wins to set it 7 - 2 mark before the Devils dropped them to 7 - 4 with a frustiating defense and some cool shooting.

The Red Devils, now 1 - 3 after dropping the first three pre-holiday games, will be idle tomorrow night (Friday) and travel to Okeechobee Saturday night for a bout with the Brahmans. Next Tuesday night the Devils will meet the Blue Streaks in Sebring.

Coach Fred Sandlin's junior varsity Red Devils took their second straight win from the Bullpups with a 62-34 score behind the red hot shooting of Donald Strange. The Avon Park "B" team led all the way as they set the 2 - 2 record.

An aggressive defense by the Devil varsity held Frostproof's Andy Riley to 22 points last Tuesday and gave up only one point to the Bulldogs during the entire third quarter to pave the way to the win. Big Joe Strickler and Andrew Wells kept the basket covered and capped shot after shot to keep the Devils in the game.

Emmitt Money hit the nets for five field goals and two free shots to lead the Devils with 12 points, but Bill Knapp got hot in the final quarter and pumped in 10 counters to aid the cause. Wells hit for four Field goals. Strickler had five points and Lemler, who harrassed the Frostproof boys all night, hit for two points. The Devils were cold at the foul line hitting only 29 percent.

School Bond Registration Set

Approximately 50 freeholders registered to vote in the special school bond referendum the opening day of the month-long registration.

Supervisor of Registrations Ronald X. Droit said many of the persons who came in during the opening hours Tuesday were properly owners who had come to the courthouse to register for homestead exemption.

Registration books will be open in many different locations in the county in the coming month, Droit issued the extensive schedule last week. This week he said plans had been completed for registration in Venus at the home of Mrs. J. W. Pierce each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, 9 a.m. to noon, 1 to 4 p.m., beginning this week and extending through February 2.

Persons holding real estate in this county and who are legal residents of Highlands County may participate in the February 28 referendum on the $3.15 million bond issue if they register in this coming 30 days.

Avon Park area citizens may register at the Avon Park City Hall 1 to 5 p.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

CITRUS

Whether we like it or not, everyone in Avon Park and Highlands County is bound to the citrus economy, in one way or another. Highlands ranks 5the in production for all counties and thats about the only dollars we have working for us.

We have talked to people; we have read all these bulletins from Florida Citrus Mutual, the Florida Citrus Commission, and the other citrus marketing groups. The question remains: What are we going to do with all these oranges?

The industry is doing the first and most obvious thing—try to sell them.

The citrus people are not sitting on their hands. There have been terrific advertising and promotional programs (about $30 million this year) that have been building over the years and Citrus Mutual says their figures show a resulting 12 percent increase in consumption this year. That's good.

This is a credit to the advertising and to everybody's efforts. But another 12% will not move out a crop-estimate increase of 42 percent.

So the marketing groups made a move. They asked the U. S. Department of Agriculture, "How about buying some frozen concentrate for use in the national school lunch program?" This would not seem unreasonable since the USDA buys milk and other commodities for the lunch program — and it would be good for the kids.

USDA agreed. Their purchases will account for 10-15 million of the 142 million box crop. The big push is on concentrate because it uses six out of ten oranges grown, and it can be stored for longer periods. Added to this is a marketing agreement among concentrate producers to sell through these "secondary markets" — such as the lunch program, state institutions, armed services, etc. These sales would be on a bid and offer basis and there would be no subsidy involved. But this marketing agreement would also depend on USDA approval.

Robert Rutledge of Citrus Mutual says there would be no government control involved. Frostproof grower Ben Hill Griffin disagrees and thinks it is a step in that direction. Avon Park grower Robert J. Barben points out that a type of marketing agreement has been in effect in the fresh fruit market for 26 years.

It is not the purpose here to discuss the issue of government controls. But many people feel that the less government involvement the better — in anything. And the Citrus Commission (a statutory body), Citrus Mutual and the other industry groups can be cited for coming down the road as far as they have without any federal government intervention.

Robert Barben, a Director of Citrus Mutual, says that the industry was geared to move about 120 million boxes with few problems this year. But a bountiful mother nature (and good fertilizer?) loaded the trees with 142 million boxes.

Even if you look to acreage controls as exist in the tobacco and cotton industries, it's doubtful if they would be workable in the citrus industry. Could you require a grower to chop down producing trees? Would he chop down 2-year old trees or 10-year old trees? And if you let groves lie fallow they will ruin in a short time.

The answer would seem to be simply do not plant any more groves for the next several years.

But here, acreage is limited only by the amount of money that you want to spend—or lose. Barben says that, in the present market, it costs about 1000 dollars per acre to turn unimproved land into groves. So get yourself five million dollars and you can develop a five thousand acre grove.

A 30 minute plane ride from Avon Park toward Indiantown and Ft. Pierce will show you literally thousands and thousands of acres of new citrus stock on land that three years ago was good for gators, bobcats, and bream (and its good that way).

Most of this development is being done by corporate investment capital. One 5000 acre grove is being developed by a Northern steel company. Another huge tract is by an oil company. The insurance companies, the largest single source of investment capitol in the world, will lend money for grove development. But these unlimited and optomistic dollars are not bearers of good tidings to the small grove owners—the Mom and Pop operators.

What can be done?

One move might be for the Florida Development Commission to let (Northern) coperate investment capital know for the time being, Florida citrus land development is a sorry investment. From a long-range view they can't count on population growth to take up the slack because the census bureau tells us that the population explosion, in the U. S., is leveling off.

It would seem that Northern investment capital believes that Florida land development is the greatest thing since sliced bread. But with tight money and raising taxes this may be questionable.

If land development must proceed — if our woodlands and swamps must be remodeled — why not change them into pasture lands? Florida produces only 20 percent of the beef that we consume!

And anybody will tell you that 18 degree weather will definitely not kill a brahama bull.

Shotgun solutions to citrus industry problems are old hat to people with the Commission and with Mutual who have been close to the situation for years. The organization in Florida has been looked to by all states as a model—Texas citrus and Michigan apples have followed their lead.

No one is heard crying. The industry has its problems now—but it has had its good years, too. And they are working at it.

Everyone knows that the only true ultimate answer is simply to get more people to drink more orange juice. If you equate orange juice with the soft-drink business, we look like pikers.

We think that a $30 million dollar advertising outlay puts Florida in the industry advertising big leagues but consider: the Coca Cola Company is going to spend $5 million alone this year just to introduce a new soft drink.

The answer to the present surplus, and depressed market, may lie right in our own back yard.

People of Highlands County, and all of Florida, for that matter, are about the country's worst citrus customers. And it means dollars in everybody's pocket.

Had any orange juice this week?

STATEMENT BY O. D. HUFF, JR.
Chairman Florida Citrus Commission
Meeting December 21, 1966

Gentlemen — When you elected me as your Chairman last June, I promised that we would have the beggest and best advertising program in our history.

The present program was conceived, developed and is now being executed on the basis of a crop increase, this season over last season, of 20% to 30%. We now have the expectation of a 42% increase.

In light of this increase and of the present and anticipated price situation, I recommend that we completely review our present advertising efforts with the sole purpose of embarking on a more vigorous, more intensive and more pointed sales program for February, March and April than we had previously planned.

I further believe believe that we should adopt as the main theme of this program an advertising line which would tell the American consumer that frozen concentrated orange juice from Florida, fresh Florida fruit and other Florida citrus products represent the best bargain in U. S. grocery stores today — better than milk, better than many soft drinks and other products as well as being healthful and nutritious.

We can cut out the pretty pictures and the fancy words and just sell our products as the best food bargain in the United States today.

I want to commend Florida Citrus Mutual for its intense activity in working to develop the School Lunch Program and in creating a Voluntary Marketing Agreement Program, and I offer Mutual every bit of support possible toward the furtherance and the success of these programs for the well-being of our citrus economy.

We must go forward, gentlemen, efficiently and with the conviction that we can succeed.

I would like to refer this to the Advertising and Merchandising Committee - which I understand will meet on January 5.

It's Big Business

Florida's fourth-biggest industry may be political campaigning.

Gov.-elect Claude Kirk has just revealed that it cost him and his backers $550,210 to win the $27,500-a-year job in Tallahassee. That sounds like big money, but it was really only peanuts compared to the spending of his less successful opponents.

Miami Mayor Robert King High, who lost to Kirk in the general election, had spent $838,627 as of early November. His final report isn't in yet, but it may be expected to run well over $1 million.

Former Sen. Scott Kelly, who was defeated by High in the first Democratic primary and later teamed with him in the second primary, spent $474,626. And Gov. Haydon Burns, seeking to extend his two-year term into six years, topped them all with an outlay of $1,429,084.

Altogether, the six candidates who hit the campaign trail early this year spent more than $3.3 million.

"Too Late To Classify"

By RUSSELL KAY

"Let's Make Government Work Better" suggests former President Eisenhower in a feature article appearing in the January Reader's Digest.

Pointing out the need for a number of changes in the terms and tenure of Senators, Congressmen and federal judges as well as Presidential procedures, based on his experience as Chief Executive, the former President's proposals are worthy of serious consideration of every American citizen.

Perhaps the most fundamental and surely one of the most beneficial of the changes proposed applies to the Congress. They provide that terms of the members of the House be changed from two to four year terms and the maximum period for a congressman to serve be limited to three four-year terms. Senators would still serve six year terms but be limited to two terms. Thus in a practical application, the maximum period of service of both houses of Congress would be 12 years.

If the members of the House were elected every four years at the same time as the President the chances are good that the Chief Executive would have a Congress of his own party throughout his four year term and make the machinery of government work more efficiently.

It is doubtful that the founders of our country visualized lifetime careers of office-holding such as we see today, but rather as an interlude in a man's career, time he took out from his business or profession to serve his country.

When a man makes a lifetime career of politics, too often he becomes more of a politician than a statesman. His actions are geared to the next election rather than the nation's welfare. Few persons retain their full health and mental vigor in their 70's and 80's. We have cases in both the House and Senate where heads of important committees grew senile or become too ill to carry on their duties yet they continued to retain their positions of power.

The seniority rules of Congress are such that members of long tenure usually are men who head the committees through which all legislation must be channeled and many become virtual czars to the end that vital legislation that the people want is long delayed or even stopped cold because it clashes with the members' personal views or wishes. It is argued, that government these days is a highly complex business and that men of long experience are necessary to guide its processes. Experience in manipulating Congressional machinery is, however, no guarantee of better legislation.

Eisenhower also feels that terms of the Federal Judiciary should be restricted including members of the Supreme Court. Judges should not be permitted to serve more than 20 years in the same court or beyond the age of 72.

Such changes worthy as they are can be counted upon to receive bitter opposition for they would upset the politicians playhouse but they make a lot of sense and are worthy of the careful consideration of every citizen.

Marketing Agreement Is Free Enterprise

The compatibility of the voluntary marketing agreement for frozen concentrated orange juice with the American free enterprise system was underscored by expert testimony at a special meeting of Florida Citrus Mutual's Board of Directors.

Former Congressman J. Hardin Peterson said, "This simply gives you a tool so you can work out your problems."

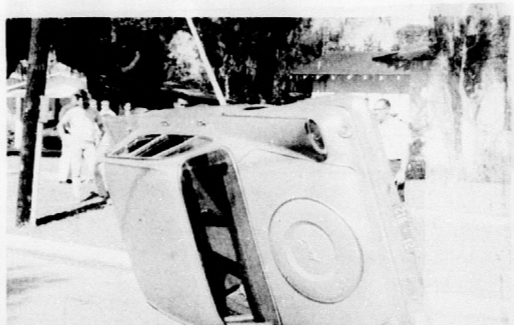

Tampa attorney Counts Johnson added, "This is a self-help too."

Peterson was instrumental in the passage of the Marketing Agreement of 1937 while Johnson is prominent in representing citrus interests.

Robert W. Rutledge, executive vice president of Florida Citrus Mutual, declared the agreement "is no subsidy" and added, "A sussidy is a gift and this is no give-away."

Rutledge said he expected action on the marketing agreement by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman before the middle of January.

In describing a series of meetings he had earlier this month with Freeman, Rutledge said, "I was amazed at his knowledge of our citrus industry and his grasp of our problems."

Gordon Baker Hurt As Car Flips Over

Gordon Baker, elderly citizen of Avon Park, had an unusual accident at the corner of Pleasant and N. Lake Ave., Monday morning, Jan. 2.

Coming from N. Lake Ave., driving at a reasonable speed, he made too wide a turn onto Pleasant St. striking the curb and telephone guide wire, causing his car to flip on its side. No other car was involved.

Attempting to jump out of the car, he caught his hand in the door as it slammed shut. He was removed to Walker Memorial Hospital where he underwent surgery.

The wrecker was called to right the car and relieve the traffic tie-up.

Medicare News

An estimated 2½ million older people will have received hospital treatment under medicare by the end of the year, Lakeland social security district manager W. E. Arnold announced. Some of these people, Arnold said, will be eligible for extended care benefits when the second step of the medicare program goes into effect January 1.

Starting January 1, Arnold said, persons 65 and over who have been hospitalized for at least three days since the hospital insurance part of medicare began operation on July 1, may be eligible for payment of the costs of continued treatment in a skilled nursing home or other institution that qualifies for participation in medicare. Medicare can pay all the basic costs of up to 20 days in an extended care facility certified to participate in medicare, and all but $5 a day for an additional 80 days.

To qualify, the person must have entered an extended care facility for continued treatment within 14 days of leaving the hospital, following his hospital stay.

This extended care benefit of medicare is a special kind of benefit that will be needed by only a limited number of those who are hospitalized, Arnold explained. It is designed to provide skilled nursing care at less cost than hospital care for those who no longer need the intensive care of a hospital. Only this skilled nursing care generally needed for a short period, will be paid for by medicare. Long-term custodial care in a nursing home is not covered.

Arnold also indicated that many existing nursing homes will not qualify to provide this special kind of benefit to medicare beneficiaries, because they provide mainly custodial services or residential care rather than skilled full-time nursing care. "We estimate that at any one time no more than 20 to 25 percent of the capacity of all types of skilled nursing homes in the country will be used by medicare beneficiaries," Arnold said.

About 4,600 nursing homes across the country had sent in applications to participate in medicare by the middle of November, according to Arnold. State agencies are now surveying these institutions to determine whether each institution meets the nondiscrimination requirements of the Civil Rights Act.

A leaflet with information for medicare beneficiaries and their families about the extended care benefits that become payable in January is now available free of charge from the social security office in Lakeland, Arnold said. The office is located at 206 S. Florida Avenue. The telephone number is 686-6195.

School Bond Vote Pushed

George Douglass, superintendent of public instruction, told the Avon Park Kiwanis Club Thursday the need for the proposed $3,150,000 school bond. The election is to be held February 28.

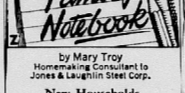

A new elementary and a new high school are included in the building program for Avon Park.

At present there are 52 portable and temporary buildings in use in Highlands County.

Of this number 20 are mobile units and there will be another 10 added to this number by October.

Freeholders must register for this election. In bond elections 50 percent, plus one, must vote for the election to become valid.

Registration in Avon Park is at city hall each Wednesday and Saturday, Jan. 4 through Feb. 4, hours 1 to 5 p.m.

New Households

Every 21 seconds there's one more new U.S. household. That's one more equipped kitchen. If you're puzzled about the bride's gift or what to buy that bride — here are a few thought-nudgers from Jones & Laughlin Steel Corporation.

1. An electric skillet has it's place among the basics. You can make menu magic with newer models which fry, boil, bake or roast — then turn into elegant serving pieces. When you buy a skillet get the best for long, safe service-stainless steel inside and out gives easy care and even cooking. To clean, just dunk your immersible skillet in soap and water, remove caked-on food with a stainless steel sponge, rinse and wipe dry.

2. An electric coffeemaker is a must item. Brewing time is fast, coffee stays hot and you'll make that good cup of coffee every time. But—make sure the coffee pot is really clean; always use cold water for making coffee; the pot should be filled to its capacity for the best coffee.

3. The toaster has become regal. One stainless steel toaster, for example, has nine different settings. Toasters now hold more, work faster and are easier to clean. Design is high style and the gleam lasts with stainless steel.

SFJC Panthers Now Six & Eight

DOCTOR TALK

By Rembert Benjamin, M.D.

A common and painful disorder is shingles or herpes zoster. The disease looks like the fever blisters seen so frequently on the lips. In shingles there is a breaking out on the skin which follows a nerve. Each nerve gives off many branches which supply the muscles, the skin, and every structure in the body.

When the trouble begins, the first symptom is pain. Then the skin turns red and the affected area soon becomes covered with little water blisters. Their favorite location is on the body over the ribs.

Pain often comes several days before the pants break out in little blisters that appear in small groups along the course of the nerves.

One of the most painful forms of shingles is herpes opthalmicus which attacks one eye, the nose, the forehead, and even the scalp.

The lips often suffer from blisters known as herpesi labialis. Sometimes they are very contageous, and are conveyed by handkerchiefs, towels and other articles.

Fortunately the disease is self limited, the acute stages lasting about a week when the vesicles begin to dry up leaving a scab which peels off in another week. The scars gradually fade away.

In the young, shingles is seldom very serious, but it is often dangerous as well as very painful to older patients, who sometimes suffer from neuralgia for weeks or months after the disappearance of the blisters. It is fortunate that the same individual seldom has shingles twice, one attack seemingly conferring immunity against its poison that causes it, just as smallpox and some other virus diseases. Shingles is far more apt to attack tired, run-down people than those who are in good physical condition.

Water To Everglades Resumed

Water began flowing again today into Everglades National Park from Conservation Area III of the Central and Southern Flood Control Project.

Army Engineers in Jacksonville said the release of 140 cubic feet per second (280 acre feet or 90,720,000 gallons per day) started with the New Year as a part of an agreed plan whereby the Park will be furnished a part of the Lake Okeechobee water each year.

During 1966, the park received approximately 1 million acre feet of water.

Currently, water level in Lake Okeechobee is 7/10th of a foot below desired stage of 15.5 feet above mean sea level. However, it is approximately the same stage as it was in January 1966. Likewise, each of the three water conservation areas are slightly below the planned regulation stage for this time of year, Army Engineer said.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

BY REV. MICHAEL A. GUIDO

Some folk were called "Quakers" because they quaked at the presence of sin and the preaching of the Scriptures. David must have wished for a congregation of "quakers." He said in Psalm 4:4, "Stand in awe, and sin not". It means, "Tremble, and sin not." But many have reversed the verse. They say, "Sin, and tremble not."

Perhaps the greatest mistake in the world today is that men and women have lost their fear of sin. But as long as it is caressed, it will kill. If you would play with something dangerous reach into the heavens and play with forked lightning, or reach into the furnace and play with fire, or reach into the forest and play with a rattler, but do not play with sin.

Two boys wanted to have some fun. They poked a piece of copper wire around a live rail. There was a flash and a cry as ten thousand volts passed through their bodies. Dangerous? Yes, but not as dangerous as playing with sin. So "tremble, and sin not." And remember, where sin is mighty the Saviour is almighty. He will not only curb sin, but He will cure our sinning.

FOR THE HOSTESS

by Joan Crawford

The Name's The Game

For a hostess, a good memory goes a long way. But sometimes it needs a little push. After I meet someone, I write down his name ten times with a little "key" word about his job, or hobby. Elementary? Yes, but also deliciously flattering. Next time I can say, "Why Mr. Block, how nice to see you again. And how did that charity drive finally work out?" Then, watch Mr. Block fairly glow with the recognition of his pet project.

The most infuriating thing is when someone sidles over to you and says, "Say, I bet you don't remember me." Sometimes I feel like retorting, "You're right, I don't remember you," and march off, but that would be almost as rude as his "testing" remark.

Former March of Dimes Poster Boy Is Part of Twin Medical Problem

Identical twins are supposed to be carbon copies of each other in every respect but twin brothers Joel and Jeffrey Kirker, 6, New Stanton, Pa., have been cruelly different from birth.

Joel, the older brother by five minutes, was born with an open spine (spina bifida), a birth defect that has paralyzed him from the waist down. At the same spot on his back, Jeff has only a birthmark.

"When Jeff doesn't feel well, he gets two blisters on his birthmark, otherwise he is a normal, very active little boy," says his mother, Mrs. Thomas Kirker.

Understandably, the young Kirkers pose a medical puzzle. As their mother puts it, specialists are "amazed that only one has the defect and not the other" or else are "quite lost for words" to explain the crippling differences in these identical twins.

Yet Mrs. Kirker says, "We feel we have a great deal to be thankful for because Joel is doing well and we can hope for even more improvement in the future."

Despite his physical handicap Joel gets around quite a bit. During January, 1966, he was Pennsylvania State Poster Boy for the March of Dimes campaign to fight birth defects. This means that Joel traveled through a number of counties in his area and even appeared on a telethon in Pittsburgh.

Now as they watch the twins pretending they're big leaguers or playing together on the backyard slide, Mr. and Mrs. Kirker can appreciate all the things Joel can do even though he wears braces and uses a cane. They are thankful for the skilled medical care Joel received from the day of birth. Without that care, Joel might not be alive today.

When Joel was only one day old, his open spine was operated upon to give his spinal cord some protection. While surgeons could not restore the function of nerves and muscles, they did prevent further complications, the most dangerous being infections such as meningitis.

Like many other victims of open spine, Joel also had hydrocephalus ("water on the brain"). Doctors performed several operations to drain off the dammed-up fluid within the brain and thus relieve pressure. Without relief, this pressure can lead to permanent mental damage, blindness or even death.

"That's OK, Joel, even astronauts need help with their gear sometimes," says Jeff Kirker, 6, of New Stanton, Pa., as he helps his identical twin Joel into his braces.

For Joel's parents, the past six years have been times of great emotional anguish, to say nothing of financial strain. Mr. Kirker has worked for the Bell Telephone Company since he graduated from McKeesport Technical High School in 1950.

In addition to caring for the twins and keeping house, Mrs. Kirker sells kitchenware to supplement her husband's income and help with medical expenses. The Kirkers are deeply grateful to the local chapter of the March of Dimes which helped pay Joel's hospital bills and covers the cost of braces which must be changed periodically.

Braces or not, Joel loves it when the family piles into their trailer and set out on a camping trip, something all the Kirkers enjoy. When they settle in a campsite, the whole family knows what to expect from Joel. He invariably takes off to visit all the other campers, one by one. He loves to meet and chat with other people, even if it means climbing hills and fighting the underbrush every step of the way.

The twins can take care of each other pretty well these days. Joel can put on his braces for himself but sometimes Jeff helps him. Active, outgoing Jeff helps his quieter, more thoughtful brother in other ways, too. A firm "I think you'll like this, Joel," from Jeff often helps Joel make a decision in favor of places or things. This sort of fraternal influence leads Mrs. Kirker to tell friends that Joel's "twin brother is his therapist."

By this time, the Kirkers know what Joel can do and they avoid overprotectiveness which could be harmful to both boys. His doctors hope that when Joel is about 14, surgery can be performed that will make the leg braces unnecessary.

Veterinary School For U. of Florida

A request for construction planning money for the new veterinary college at the University of Florida has been submitted under the recently enacted Veterinary Medical Education Act passed during the closing days of the last Congress.

Dr. George T. Edds, chairman of the UF veterinary science department, said this week that the act authorizes some $500,000 nationally for a loan fund next year.

Edds, who is a veterinarian with the Florida Agricultural Experiment Station, said the new bill is designed to help build more veterinary medical educational facilities such as the one to be built at Florida. "Money provided through this bill can also be used to aid students interested in veterinary medical careers," he said.

Besides the half-million allocated for 1967, Edds said another $1 million will be available in 1968 and $1.5 million in 1969.

"Student loans not to exceed $2,500 for any academic year are also available under the bill and are repayable over a 10-year period, beginning three years after the student stops pursuing a full-time course of study," Edds explained.

Under a present "regional plan" for veterinary training, he said a small number of Florida residents are admitted each fall to the School of Veterinary Medicine at Auburn University. "However, this does not begin to meet Florida's own needs for veterinary doctors," Edds said.

Dr. Harry E. Furgeson, president of the American Veterinary Medical Association (AMVA) said the bill makes possible a closing of the gap between the number of veterinarians needed in the country and the number that can be trained with the present educational facilities.

During hearings on the bill by subcommittee of both the Senate and House, testimony brought the need for approximately twice the number of veterinarians by 1980 as there are today in the U. S.

Dr. Edds said that from reports he has seen, at least four qualified applicants were turned away for each one accepted by colleges of veterinary medicine because of a shortage of facilities.

BATHTUB STOLEN

East Charlotte, Vt.—It's getting to be a usual thing for Willis Horsford to call police and report someone broke into his house and stole his bathtub. This is the second time thieves have taken his bathtub. This one was a lavender cast iron tub.

MISUNDERSTOOD

Greensboro, N.C.—An arresting officer was accused by a woman defendent in municipal-county court of rudeness. She told the judge the officer told her to "keep her mouth shut." The officer explained he told her she didn't have to talk until she saw her lawyer.

BAD HEART?

Brodhead, Wis.—Edward Brewer tells an amusing story on his 101st birthday anniversary. Brewer recalls that his doctor advised him to quit farming 61 years ago due to a bad heart, but he admits he farmed 21 more years before retiring.

BUFORD JASPER

Teacher - Spotlight

Our spotlight falls on Mr. Buford Jasper, teacher of Music and English at South Florida Junior College, this week.

Prior to this he taught in the Sebring High School five years.

Well-known in this area for his strong full bass or baritone voice, accented in a trio with Ann Mickunas and Jack Smith, is excelled by none.

Born in Kansas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Jasper, one of eleven children, he received his early schooling in New Mexico and attended Mexico State College, where he received his B.A. degree.

During World War II, he served in the South Pacific four years on a LST as a lieutenant in the navy.

He studied at the Juilliard School of Music in New York one year and at Columbia University, where he received his M.A. degree. When in New York he started on his professional singing career, while continuing private study.

His added training was extensive, training one summer at U.C.L.A. in Los Angeles, one year in Oklahoma City, Okla., one year at Tampa University. He spent three summers with a summer stock company and three seasons of community concert work, traveling throughout the United States.

In New York he appeared on television shows and also played the Roxie Theater in drama. While in Tampa he had charge of drama at the Hillsborough High School.

He is president of Hardee and Highlands National Council of English Teachers, president of the South Florida Junior College Community Concert Association, and belongs to all Teachers Associations and is affiliated with T.K.E. Fraternity in Mexico.

Mr. Jasper feels that his teaching has been very rewarding, to help young people appreciate and learn what it means to enter the Arts.

He appreciates the cooperation of Avon Park in making the Community Chorus and the wonderful community concerts possible, showing their awareness of cultural activities here. Avon Park supports these activities in a generous manner.

The Community Chorus under his leadership, will meet January 9 at 7 p.m. in the Choral Room of Avon Park High School, to continue their study in preparation for more concerts and future events.

All are welcome to join the chorus. Mr. Jasper welcomes you.

Contest For Citrus Recipe

LAKELAND—Entry blanks for the Florida Citrus Commission's Tourist Recipe Contest are being distributed to resort, travel and restaurant areas of the state by members of the Florida Jaycees.

The contest, which began this month, will continue thru March 4, with the 12 winners in preliminary competition being invited back to the state during June as guests of the Commission for two weeks of vacation and a final competition.

Hal Gardner, director of the contest and of the Commission's Sell Florida First Program, said plans are underway to place contest entry blanks inside the ticket envelopes of Florida-bound passengers aboard trains of the Atlantic Coast Line and Seaboard Air Line railroads.

Jaycees are delivering the blanks personally to resort hotels, motels and restaurants, Gardner said. Earlier deliveries of blanks were made to the welcome stations along the state line, and to terminals from which air flights to Florida originate.

Contest rules require original recipes that include citrus fruit or juices. Judging will be based upon taste appeal, originality and appearance.

In the decade from 1953 to 1963, U. S. Mint figures show, annual coinage of pennies was increased by 1.4 billion; of dimes by 316 million; of quarters by 121 million and of half dollars by 61 million.

The first vacation Bible school for youngsters was opened in 1901 in New York City by Dr. Robert Boville of the Baptist City Mission.

Huge 1967 Expansion Program At Goodwill Industries - Suncoast

Completion in early spring of three new buildings at Goodwill Industries-Suncoast, St. Petersburg, will make it possible to help more than 400 additional handicapped persons train for entry into private business this year, according to Dr. Robert C. Adair, Executive Director of this non-profit organization.

A residence for 32 trainees will enable handicapped persons from towns in all of Florida to live and work at the Gandy Blvd. headquarters and sheltered workshop. Three well balance meals daily will be served in the Goodwill cafeteria adjacent to the residence. Eventually the facility will be expanded to care for 128 persons.

A new workshop for the blind will provide space for 31 regularly employed men and women. They will manufacture bedding and mattresses, an activity most suited to their handicap.

The third structure is a contract workshop with room for 26 workers who will learn many new skills. The building will also house a pre-industrial evaluation and training facility. More than 70 persons will be taught at one time during the eight-week evaluation and training period. This will care for more than 300 handicapped persons each year, double the number in 1966.

Mary Morrison is Director of Rehabilitation, aided by Jim Jones, Rehabilitation Supervisor and Steve Stephens, Training Instructor. Additional Rehabilitation Booth has been assigned fulltime to the Gandy Blvd. headquarters. When the three buildings are occupied, additional personnel is planned for the Goodwill rehabilitation staff and the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation.

Goodwill's 516 regularly employed workers received more than a million dollars in wages during 1966. In addition, they enjoyed many fringe benefits, such as life insurance, low cost hospitalization, subsidized bus tickets, cafeteria, medical and nursing services.

Their wages came from the sale of repaired clothing and household articles through 21 retail outlets from Tallahassee to Fort Myers and West Palm Beach. These repairable materials were donated by generous citizens who placed their discarded items in more than 700 bright yellow and blue Goodwill deposit boxes located at leading supermarkets and church parking lots.

"Our Goodwillers proudly pay income taxes on their wages. If they did not receive donations of repairable items from generous residents, more than a million tax dollars might have to be spent for their relief," Dr. Adair declared. "Bequests and gifts of money are used for expansion of facilities," Dr. Adair added. "Despite the increased facilities to be activated in 1967, we still have a large backlog of handicapped persons who wish to become self-supporting. The faster we can grow the quicker we can help these handicapped persons change from tax users to prideful taxpayers."

THE GOOD NEIGHBOR

"Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." St. Matthew 19:19.

If we applied this teaching, it would make a tremendous difference in how we met and treated people. There is a parable that throws light on just what it means to be a good neighbor.

It is written that a lawyer came to Jesus and asked: "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus asked him: "What is written in the law? How readest thou?" The lawyer replied: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and thy neighbor as thyself." Jesus replied: "Thou has answered right; this do, and thou shalt live." Pressing his case still further the lawyer asked: "And who is my neighbor?" This question was responsible for the Parable of the Good Samaritan." St. Luke 10: 25-37.

One of the focal characters of the parable is "a certain man." Just a human being. He was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho, a distance of about twenty miles. The road led through a mountainous country that was infested with bands of robbers. The man was waylaid, stripped of his raiment, beaten and left bleeding by the roadside.

A priest came by. Now, the priest was a minister to the people. We could say that by birth and sacred calling he was a neighbor to the wounded man. However, he did nothing to help. The Scripture says that he passed by on the other side of the road.

A Levite also came by. He belonged to a family of priests. He, himself was a doorkeeper in the House of the Lord. When he came to where the wounded man was, he looked upon him. Was he a neighbor? No, he, too, passed by on the other side of the road.

A certain Samaritan happened to pass that way. The Samaritans were a mixed race. When the northern kingdom was overthrown, the people who were left mixed with the Assyrians. And even though their ancestory was part Jewish they only used the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament. They were anathama to the Jews who had no dealings with them. The Samaritan came to where the wounded man was and stopped.

If you had asked the Priest and the Levite why they had passed by in the face of human need, you could have received any number of answers, among them surely would have been the following: "I don't want to get involved." I have no time to spare," "I will report the matter to the proper authorities." These answers sound modern, don't they?

The Priest and the Levite were good people! But they were not good for much in the way of actual help in the time of human need.

"Who is my neighbor?" Not necessarily the man next door. Mere nearness does not make for neighborliness by itself. It takes concern to stop a man at another's need, a compassion that moves him to do something about it.

The Samaritan saw the wounded man's need with what might be called "the eyes of the heart." The stricken man was bruised and bleeding. He was a brother not because of his nationality but because he was human.

We say that a man is rich, he is poor, he is white, he is black, he is a Roman Catholic or he is a Protestant. We generally lose sight of the fact that he is a human being with similar senses, a like mind and a kindred capacity for emotions such as each of us has.

It is difficult for us to act on the fundamental fact of our common humanity. In I Kings 21, in Jezebel's eyes Naboth was simply a thing standing in the way that had to be disposed of. Elijah challenged that attitude with the insistence that Naboth was a person with rights.

The Samaritan rendered personal service to the stricken man. He dressed his wounds, pouring in his own oil and wine and setting him on his own beast.

Is there someone in need on your street? If there is, we are sure you will find it a whole lot easier not to notice. Or leave the poor fellow to the good offices of the federal government. The difficulty, of course, is to shake the realization that the unfortunate fellow is a human being.

We watch the Samaritan as he helps the stricken man into the inn. Then he provides for his keep with his own money. His concern was complete: "Whatsoever thou spendest more," he says to the Innkeeper, "I, when I come back, will repay thee."

The Samaritan brought hope to what looked like a hopeless situation. Thus he bound up wounds of the spirit as well as wounds of the body. In him we see a quality of spirit that has been called the bestowment of God. Jesus says to the lawyer that such a spirit of neighborliness is equivalent to what we normally call "eternal life."

Here is a brand of religion that the world needs! The simple art of recognizing oneself as a human being, looking on others as human beings and treating them as human beings.

Arnold Toynbee, the historian, says that here is the great hope for mankind - the recognition of the fact of our common humanity. Jesus says this is the way, the way of brotherhood. His word reaches to you and me, when he says: "Go thou and do likewise."

Arbor Day Trees Available For Schools

Arbor Day Seedlings are still available to any area school, according to Jack A. Brodhage, Information and Education Forester, Lakeland District of the Florida Forest Service.

Even though the normal supply of slash pine has been sold out for several weeks, the anticipated need for Arbor Day purposes were set aside in advance. Schools interested may still obtain 50 slash pine seedlings for Arbor Day planting by sending a request (post card will do) to the Florida Forest Service, Tallahassee, Fla.

This year's deadline has been extended, and any orders received on or before January 12 will be filled. Orders must be in by this date to allow for packaging and shipment time. Materials to help teachers plan and prepare for their Arbor Day program will be sent to all who order the free seedlings.

Arbor Day, purely American in origin, began on the wind-swept and treeless plains of Nebraska in 1872. Florida first observed Arbor Day in 1886 and in 1945 the Florida Legislature adopted the third Friday in January as Florida's official Arbor Day. This year Arbor Day falls on the 20th.

Young Women Of America

Mrs. Margaret Collins and Mrs. Eve Campbell Booth have been selected to appear in the 1966 edition of Outstanding Young Women of America.

These women have been honored because of their outstanding contributions and accomplishments in civic endeavors, religious, professional and political activities.

From the list of nominees submitted by local women's clubs, the Advisory Board of Editors chooses those women it thinks most exemplify the term of "Outstanding."

Outstanding Young Women of America, is an annual biographical compilation of 6000 outstanding young women between the ages of 21 and 35.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson who serves as honorary chairman of the Board of Advisory Editors for the publication, has said the book is especially meaningful to her because, the achievements and abilities of women is a subject close to her heart. Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is chairman.

The publication was conceived by the leaders of the nation's women's clubs. They felt that young women who give their time for community projects should be recognized.

The recognition of these outstanding women can serve to inspire others to give their time to additional civic responsibilities.

Veterans' Notice

M. T. Dixon, of the Fla. Dept. of Veterans Affairs, stated this week that the new Cold War GI Bill of 1966 authorized hospital care for a new category of veterans. These are veterans of Viet Nam service or any time after January 31, 1955, the end of the Korean Conflict.

Veterans of this period with a service connected disability, of course, were already entitled to medical benefits, Dixon said. Former servicemen of this period who do not have a service connected disability, and who are unable to pay for needed hospitalization are the beneficiaries of the new law. An eligible veteran may be admitted to an available bed, regardless of the length of his time of active duty, and also, becomes entitled to certain pre and post hospitalization benefits, including nursing home care. "Gold War" veterans have similar eligibility under this legislation for domiciliary care in their later years.

Dixon stated that all Veteran County Service Officers have hospital applications and should be contacted in the event this benefit is needed.

Smart Tips For Florida Gardeners

There are many beautiful legends about plants, but none pleases Floridians more than the legend that says Eve and Adam did not eat an apple in the Garden of Eden, but an orange! The Bible does not name the fruit—it merely mentions the fact that the fruit of the tree in the middle of the gaiden was not to be eaten!

Since the climate of the Holy Land is much like that of Florida, with palm trees and balmy weather, certainly it could be possible. However, there is one fact that is definitely true "no home grounds in Florida are complete without citrus trees to provide fresh fruit for family use." With a wise selection of varieties of citrus, you can have ripe fruit all year, according to the Florida Nurserymen and Growers Association. The number of trees will depend somewhat on the space you have available and the size of your family. We suggest that you check with your local FNGA nurseryman for his recommendations.

With container grown trees, no longer do you have to purchase a cut back tree and wait for it to put on top to produce. Many of the trees growing in cans have fruit on them. This enables you to enjoy your trees from the moment they are planted.

Citrus is not only useful in that it furnishes vitamin rich fruit for salads, ades, juices, etc. Citrus trees, on small properties, may be planted to provide some shade for the house. Being evergreen, the citrus are truly ornamental trees, and since it is almost a year between the time the trees bloom and the fruit is gathered, it provides a lovely changing picture from bloom to green fruit and then golden fruit.

Some varieties of citrus are used extensively for ornamental trees. This group includes the Kumquats and Calamondins with the fruit that is very ornamental and which remains on the trees over a long period of time. These are more slow growing trees, and make nice specimen for landscape use. The fruit (unless you like to eat it too well) will remain on all year.

From early October when Robinson Tangerines and Red Grapefruit begin to ripen, until late spring when the Valencias are ready, you can have citrus. There is a late Valencia which supplies fruit on thru the summer and you'll find Marsh Seedless Grapefruit left on the tree are good until late summer, too.

Poverty - Mission Study

Poverty is much more than just a financial condition. It's like a disease, a disease that saps a person's energy, that destroys his initiative, robs him of the basic rights of human dignity. A notion exists in the United States today that people can lift themselves from their poverty-stricken way of life. But, instead, the victims become dull, lifeless, resigned to their life of poverty.

The first part of the study will begin this Sunday, Jan. 8, at the First Methodist Church. At the 10:45 service, the Rev. Gerardo Martinez, director of the Hardee County Methodist Spanish Mission will introduce the study, "Affluence and Poverty - Dilemma for Christians."

At 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Stockton Swaney will present for the adults the question, "Who Are The Poor? What Is It Like To Be Poor?" Mrs. George Kelley will direct the devotional period for the combined group from 7:30 to 8 p.m. All interested persons are invited to attend.

6 Million Aided First 6 Months Of Medicare

Six million people have received hospital and medical help during the first six months of the medicare program. The cost was $1 billion.

An extended hospital care benefit went into effect January 1 and, according to Social Security Commissioner Robert Ball, results will be a shortage of beds in various parts of the country.

The new benefit is for persons who have an illness which requires continuing hospital care and skilled nursing. It does not include long-term care in nursing homes.

About 6700 hospitals now participate in medicare. Two hundred and fifty were eliminated for not meeting minimum standards and 75 were eliminated for racial discrimination.

Commissioner Ball wants the medical program, which covers persons over 65, to be extended to an additional 1.3 million persons who are disabled.

He also notes that President Johnson will plug for another 10 percent increase in all social security.

That's the report from the Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

Winter pears, grapefruit, broilers, dry beans and green split peas also are reported especially plentiful by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The 1966-67 orange crop, excluding California Valencias, was estimated on November 1 at 162.3 million boxes, up nearly one-third from last year and about 85 percent over the 1960-64 average.

Florida and Texas show the largest increase.

Winter pear production is also set at well above average, with D'Anjous making up 80 percent of the supply.

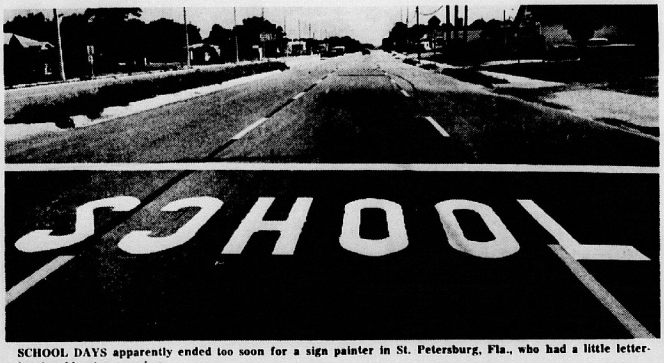

Grapefruit stocks are up about 10 percent over last season and 31 percent above the recent 5-year average. Florida, California and Texas show across-the-board increases.

Broiler production is expected to continue well above average throughout the winter. Marketings based on head slaughtered under federal inspection during October and early November ran 11 percent above the same 1965 period, according to USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Dry bean production is at a record high, or nearly one-third above last year. A large carryover and a large 1966 crop has pushed prices on green split peas to the lowest level in over six months.

THE LIVELY ARTS are well represented by a lively sculptured orchestral ensemble set up in front of San Francisco's city hall as part of the California city's Civic Center Art Show.

SCHOOL DAYS apparently ended too soon for a sign painter in St. Petersburg, Fla., who had a little lettering trouble at a crossing.

WHERE YOU GOIN'?

QUO VADIS

NEW YEAR 1967 is here and New Year's resolutions have already been broken — some are still going strong — one you should have made was to take time out to enjoy yourself and relax.

On the entertainment list this week, we have on the local cinema, Walt Disney's "The Ugly Dachshund" a real good show for the entire family. This will play thru Saturday at the HILANS THEATRE in Avon Park.

At the SEVON DRIVE-IN, there is a bargain in films this Thursday thru Saturday — three films for the regular price. Starting Sunday, we have "Adam & Eve" starring the former Miss Universe from France.

In a dancing mood? Why not try EL CID LOUNGE in Ft. Meade or the newly remodeled CHASE LOUNGE at Nick Christy's SUNDOWN RESTAURANT in Winter Haven, or the cozy spot called George's COPPERTOP in Lake Wales.

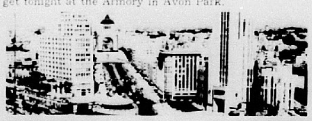

Dining is a pleasure when stopping for any of your meals at Carl's TOWER VIEW RESTAURANT in Lake Placid — real good coffee that makes you ask for another cup. At the HIGHLANDER RESTAURANT in Lake Wales, we have specialties to delight your palate in the citrus field. Award winning tastes!

GEORGE'S COPPERTOP delights in serving you gourmet styled charbroiled steaks and other favorite dishes that will satisfy male or female alike.

Nick Christy features savory Kansas City Steaks plus ocean fresh seafood in his plush dining rooms at the Sundown Restaurant in Winter Haven — one excellent house speciality is his Greek salad. Try it real soon for the tastiest salad ever.

Is your head still in a cloud from the past holidays? You can continue to have that wonderful feeling by flying in the clouds with Shelley Marrs at MARRS AIR-CRAFT in Avon Park — Call him soon for those flying lessons to keep you in that wonderful mood.

Wrestling is on at the Armory in Avon Park tonight with an excellent billing for you all to enjoy. Don't forget tonight at the Armory in Avon Park.

TRAVEL

STRICTLY FRESH

Latest European gowns are backless, sideless and frontless. Designers call the style a new creation, but American women saw the same thing years ago. They call it a belt.

If a woman says she wants to learn how to drive a car, don't stand in her way.

Palmer Ponders

Millionaire golfing star Arnold Palmer scratches his head while contemplating what he would do if this predicament should arise on the golf course. Lana Sloniger appeared to have the friendly toucan under control, but moments after this picture was taken, the big billed bird from Florida's Sunken Gardens in St. Petersburg, swallowed Palmer's golf ball apparently thinking it was a giant oso grape.

For Vacation Fun—Travel the Orange Blossom Trail

To really see and enjoy Florida we suggest you travel the ORANGE BLOSSOM TRAIL. As you drive along its lovely lakes, hills, groves, glades, keys and other scenic places, you will find hospitable communities and fine attractions. All along its route, from the Georgia line to Key West, stop whenever and wherever you like to enjoy the famous attractions, places of interest, fine services, delicious foods and excellent accommodations. While Florida's growing inter-state and toll road system offers speed to the individual who is "only in a hurry", the Orange Blossom Trail provides a TOLL FREE and versatile route to the vacationers and individuals who desire to find their own "place in the sun."

Latest Dance Craze—"The Cottage Cheese"

New York — (HK) — The incoming dance vogue already making teen-agers flip is also sure to please—of all people—the nutritionists.

They weren't too happy about the one called The Chicken. (Lots of fat.) And the later Mashed Potato left them in despair. (So starchy!)

The new one, now building in popularity, is right down their alley. It's The Cottage Cheese. (Jammed with proteins.)

The modern go-go dance sometimes, though not always, calls for physical motions that suggest its title (as in The Swim). Not so with The Cottage Cheese. It substitutes, instead, a sense of its own history.

Its originators were aware that cottage cheese, probably the oldest known form of cheese, can be traced back more than 2,000 years to an Arab desert trader named Kanani. When the milk in his leather bag curdled, he tried the curds which had formed—and loved 'em. That's how this dairy food was born (now much refined and far better packaged).

The dance innovators, unable to contrive any body motions that would suggest white milk curds, pinned the choreographic patter on Kanani's camel. The dancer therefore puts a leg forward with a rapid high-knee motion, touches down with the toe and slides the foot back in a sort of "camelish" shuffle.

The mod dance devotee need not rely for instruction upon anyone else's inaccurate demonstration, nor put up any money to learn it. The dance is described in detail in a new brochure especially designed for teen-agers and available to them for free.

The brochure is titled "Dips & Dunks" and has been prepared with a single purpose in view—to acquaint youngsters with the nutritional, taste and convenience merits of cottage cheese. Among other useful information, it contains 19 original recipes a girl can whip up—singly or in combinations — for visiting friends with about the speed she tidies up her hair when she sees them coming up the walk.

They are not all dips and dunks, though. There are also some items for more demanding appetites, known as "crunchy crumbles." These are remarkably zestful and unique forms of pizzas, hamburgers and frankfurters, all given nutritional worth by the use of cottage cheese as an ingredient.

The pamphlet also introduces a number of games that will really get the young-set party going.

It was the inclusion of The Cottage Cheese in the brochure that touched off more interest than its sponsor, the Lily-Tulip Cup Corporation, had counted upon. The brochures were sent routinely to some radio stations and promptly fell into the hands of disc jockeys who were running out of go-go-dance forms.

They asked for more information. The company thereupon prepared a recording of the instructions, providing it with a musical background best described as a far-out combination of ancient Oriental and rock 'n roll. Teen-agers called it "wild" and began to overwhelm local radio stations for copies of the pamphlet. Many more have now been printed and are ready for distribution to those asking for them. A copy is available free to anyone who writes to the Lily-Tulip Cup Corporation, Dept. D.M., 122 East 42nd Street, New York, N.Y. 10017.

The Cottage Cheese is actually self-sustaining. The dance takes a good deal of energy—and that's provided by the food of the same name. Its advocates are optimistic about the widening popularity of both.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

I often tell my 14-year-old son that he is a "thorn in my flesh." The moment I get busy writing or reading or really concentrating on something, he will want something to eat, or a button sewed on his shirt.

The phrase dates back to Biblical times. In the Holy Land, many plants grow which have spines or thorns seemingly made to prick one's flesh.

No doubt Paul of Tarsus had felt their sting when he said, "And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the relevations, there was given me a 'thorn in the flesh,' the messenger of Satan, to harass me." (II Corinthians 12:7.)

The phrase is used over and over by people who read the Bible, and by people who have no idea who said it first.

A real thorn in the flesh is a constant irritation just as the figurative thorn to which Paul referred.

Anyone who brings up an unpleasant matter at an opportune time is said to be a thorn in the flesh of the unsuspecting victim. Or something that is a constant irritant or impediment gives cause for use of the expression.

WE DON'T DARE TAKE YOU FOR GRANTED

We stay in business because people want us to.
If you get tired of us or bored or uninterested, you stop reading.

After all, there are plenty of other ways you can spend your time.
TV, radio, newsmagazines, paperbacks—all compete for your attention and time.
In most cities one has a choice of several TV stations, many radio stations plus hundreds of magazines and books.

Today there are more things to see, read and do than ever before.
And we know it.

The only way we know how to stay in business is to run a responsible, informative newspaper.
Our business is news and information.
We provide more of it than any other business . . .

We'd better.
Our competition won't allow us to take you for granted.
