Council Begins Year With Busy Session

Avon Park City Council held its first meeting of 1967 Monday and faced what is getting to be a sort of hairy dog story. Reluctant Mayor DeLaney can't keep irritants off the phone fusing at him about dogs—about half of them want him to get the dogs picked up and the other half says because they have lost their dog.

And yet, only six dogs have been turned in for the $1.00 bounty. They must have been the wrong six.

One small boy with a small dog came to City Hall late yesterday and demanded his dollar. The Mayor asked him if he knew who the dog belonged to and the boy said, "yes, he's mine." The Mayor asked the boy's mother and asked her if the boy could get rid of the dog and she said, "yes that she supposed so, because the boy had five other dogs at home."

So Council agreed to try at next Monday's meeting to try for another solution to the long-standing problem and City Hall pleads for patience. From the floor, Fire Chief Wilbur Giddens told Council that under the existing code the department was supposed to have six vacation days per year—those normal holidays like Labor Day, etc. And over the years the firemen have not gotten them.

The chief said that the department was not upset about this but that they would appreciate these days starting in 1967.

After discussion, Albright moved. Seconded, and Council gave unanimous approval for the department to add six days to their regular vacations and take them at that time.

In other action:—Awarded a bid to T. H. Ford, Avon Park, for two Chevy one-half ton pickup trucks, $1,635 each.

—Awarded a bid to Woodruff Equipment Co., Casselberry, for a trenching machine, $2,299.80.

—Agreed to install a sprinkling system in the ball park and clean up the field house; buying necessary materials and using city labor and equipment. (The trenching machine will be useful in jobs such as this).

—Install light at Walnut Street near First Christian Church.

—Install mercury lights No. 27 north from Pleasant St. to city limit.

—City Attorney Nunnallee read a letter from the Federal Aviation Agency stating that FAA was rejecting the city's request of $25,000 in matching funds for airport improvements.

—Granted to South Florida Junior College a deed for a small parcel of land that had been requested at the new building site.

—Granted a lease of 10 acres of pasture land on airport property south of the American Legion building; one year, $50.

—Council President Clarence King said that no proper bids had been received for the removal of the old house across from the fire station.

Fire Chief Giddens said the firemen's Benevolent Association would like to have the old building for the lumber in it. They would use it to build a concession stand at the Sebring Race. The lumber that was not usable could be burned.

President King told the Chief that, due to the location, he presumed that adequate fire protection would be available. . . . and Nunnallee added that the firemen would more than likely want to use their new-found six days of vacation to do the job real fast. The old building is on the way out.

Next meeting is Monday, Jan. 16, 7:30 p.m.

Others who have made donations:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hagan, Larry Albright, F. G. Todd, Margaret Dugan, Mrs. Morgan, Set Maj, Robert Jojner, Opelia Reiser, Philip Snodgrass, Annis M. King, The Gourmet Club.

Many others have pledged a uniform or a donation and these are being paid. The uniform fund will grow and the band has high hopes of having the needed $8,000 before the end of the year.

Anyone desiring to make a nice deductible contribution may contact any member of the band or the director, Vic McKunas.

Avon Park decided the need here was for $50,000.

So Avon Park came up with its $25,000 and asked FAA to match it.

The $25,000 is relatively peanuts—FAA's current contributions for the Southern region is $275 million.

Mayor DeLaney said that if we had the money, we wouldn't have spent flying FAA inspectors here from Atlanta, Miami and Tampa during the last few years, we wouldn't need the funds.

Funds Needed For APHS New Uniforms

As the time approaches for the Avon Park High School Band to put on their shiny new uniforms and make last minute preparations for the coming year to the Washington Cherry Blossom Festival, the need also approaches for them to buy the somewhat expensive uniform that accompanies them.

Though response has been generally very good, as in many fund raising projects, the last several thousand dollars is the hardest to raise.

The band would like to say a great big public "thank you" to the following friends who have purchased and paid for one complete uniform (H103):

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kitting, Highlands Coca Cola Bottling Co., Doretha Dairy and G. L. White, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Booth, W. S. Mandis, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Reading Classes Set For High Schools

Highlands County School Board Tuesday night voted its approval for Superintendent George F. Douglas' plan to launch a remedial reading program in each of the county's high schools.

The Superintendent said it will be necessary to begin seeking as quickly as possible the specialized personnel which would be needed.

Avon Park Supervising Principal Guy Garrett observed, "Our number one problem is difference in reading levels."

Dr. William Stallard, president of South Florida Junior College, told the board, "With out being acquainted with the high schools in the county I should still like to urge support for special reading programs."

He said virtually everyone could benefit from programs to improve reading speed. He added that inability to read and write English is "one of the most serious educational problems today. About 40 percent of the high school graduates everywhere have to go into remedial English classes on entering college."

Dr. Stallard, in the regular June college advisory committee reports, said 27 percent of South Florida Junior College students were placed on the conclusion of the school's first semester.

"This is not a bad record when you remember that we take every high school graduate who applies for admission. The percentage of students on probation is lower in the state universities because their admission standards are much stricter," he explained.

His enrollment of full-time students is down 8 percent for the second trimester but "most colleges experience a 10 to 14 percent drop in mid-year," he explained.

A total of 71 new students have enrolled, many transferring from other junior colleges. "The students we now have will be the core of our sophomore class next Fall and in that class that is why we are now projecting an enrollment of 500 to 600 for next Fall," the President said.

On March 21-23 SEJC will receive an official visit from Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. "We are one of the first schools in the Southeast to be considered for accreditation ahead of schedule," Dr. Stallard said.

Official visits so early in the school's first year of operation are extremely rare. At the accelerated level the accreditation process is now moving. SEJC could become fully accredited in 1968.

News from the junior college was a major part of the board's short January meeting.

Heavy Bailey, chairman of the board since late 1963, had been re-elected chairman of the board at a special organizational meeting last week.

E. Ray Wells of Avon Park was re-elected vice chairman. Wells, Bailey and John Wirtz of Lake Placid are beginning new four-year terms on the board.

The business session Tuesday was concluded with the Superintendent urging board members to be more vocal in explaining the school board referendum to voters. The vote on a proposed $2.75 million bond issue is scheduled for February 28.

In response to a question about a cash basis for construction programs, the Superintendent said state law does not permit the board to accumulate reserves for a large building program.

"We cannot levy taxes in anticipation of state aid. The income for each year must be equal to the expenditures with a reserve equal to a fraction of the total budget. Private individuals may carefully save to make cash purchases, but we cannot tax for the purpose of accumulating savings," Douglas said.

Other business Tuesday the board gave Standard Oil permission to withdraw its petroleum bid. An avco office had made an error in the two-year bid submitted to the board last month. The contract was awarded Tuesday to Sinclair Refinery Co. the second low bidder.

Mrs. Margaret Collins of Avon Park High School faculty was granted a sabbatical leave of Daniel J. Thorne to the Lake Placid High faculty and Ann McKunas to Hopewell faculty.

The appointment of Mrs. Helen Pook as secretary for the school was announced. Resignations from Warren Meland and Mrs. Linda White were accepted.

Bids were received for two-time deposits. A deposit of $100,000 for four months was received from First National Bank on a bid of $28 percent. The board voted to place $5,000 for 20 percent on First National Bank of Lake Placid. Both that bank and First National had bid 4 percent for the smaller deposit.

Teachers Push Bond Proposal

The Highlands County Board of Public Instruction may get a helping hand in its proposed school bond issue.

Last Thursday the executive board of the Highlands County Education Association, a group that has 100 percent membership of all teachers and administrators in the county, voted unanimously to raise funds for disseminating information to the public about the school bond issue.

The Association, since it does not have adequate funds in its annual budget, will ask all interested persons to donate to the bond issue.

By law, the school board is forbidden to spend tax money to promote the bond issue. Members of the HCEA, under the leadership of President Ann Karvick of the Avon Park Elementary School faculty, propose to present the case for the bond issue through newspaper articles and other means to the citizens of the county.

Teachers and administrators, as well as PTA's, will all be asked to contribute on a voluntary basis to a fund that will make this possible.

Any interested person may contribute by writing a check payable to the Highlands County Education Association and mailing it to Miss Martha Jones, treasurer, P. O. Box 143, Lake Placid.

Fifty-one percent of the freeholders must register for the special election and, of that number, 51 percent must vote for approval.

Panthers Face Stetson Hatters In Avon Park Monday Night

After two months of playing away the South Florida Junior College Panthers will return to the Avon Park High School Gym Monday night to do battle with the Stetson Hatter Freshman team.

This team, as decided by Coach Glen Wilkes, is the finest at Stetson in 10 years. They defeated the Panthers in a close game in Ireland before Christmas by 85 to 73.

The Panthers, living up to their motto, have met the top ranked one and two team in the state of Florida, along with other junior college teams and are now sporting an eight won and nine loss record overall with a two won and three loss conference record. The Panthers lost two conference games to Orlando 64 to 63 in Wauchula and 67 to 65 in Orlando. "We could just as easily have been four and one in the conference, said Coach Wilkes. However, we are not looking back, those games are over and we have too many fine games to go to worry about the past."

On Thursday of next week the Panthers will host the Polk County Junior College basketball conference game at Wauchula. The Polk team has a record of nine wins and two losses. The Panthers won an upset from Polk earlier this season.

The Panthers have played the last few games with seven boys, having lost two boys by grades and Dale Taylor returning to Louisiana.

Livestock Show To Be Highlight Of County Fair

The livestock show will be a highlight again this year at the Highlands County Fair.

The livestock show is where the boys and girls with 4-H and FFA livestock projects have an opportunity to show off their year's work and compete against each other to see who has the best steer.

This year there are 17 steers entered in the fat stock show and three Dairy Heifers. Only the 4-H and FFA boys in Highlands County will be eligible to compete in a livestock judging contest Tuesday, afternoon, Jan. 17, at the livestock barn at the fairgrounds. Ribbons and prize money will go to the winners.

On Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 18, the steers will compete in a fat steer show at 4 p.m. on the east side of the livestock barn. Ribbons will be awarded to the winners of each class and the first place winner of each class will compete for grand champion. Following the selection of grand champion will be a showmanship contest.

On Friday, Jan. 20 at 3:30 p.m. the steers will be sold at a steer sale. Buyers from around the county and state will be there to bid on this prize beef. The public is invited to come to the fair and see the show and sale.

If you cannot come to the show and sale, stop by the livestock barn and see what an outstanding job these boys and girls have done this year.

The livestock show and sale is sponsored by the Highlands County Youth Livestock Contest Committee made up of local cattlemen, representatives of the Highlands County Cattlemen's Association, Youth-Age Teachers, and Agricultural Extension Service Agents. Much work and effort is put forth throughout the year by these men to assure the success of this show.

Gross Postal Receipts Up

Gross postal receipts for the calendar year 1966 for the Avon Park Post Office were $120,831.91 as compared to 1965 gross postal receipts of $116,636.05. These receipts do not include the money order business conducted at this office, which was approximately $235,882.66.

Happy New Year

A new 1967 is with us. And in looking back at the old one with retrospect the old one doesn't seem to have been too hard on us. There have been tougher ones.

Avon Park has got itself a new college and a new girl school.

The state of Florida has itself a new governor and a Republican at that, for the first time since Reconstruction Days. Then add to that the fact the new governor was endorsed by the incumbent Democrat governor and you get a pretty good image of the vague political battles in Florida.

Governor Kirk has not gotten off to what can be called a smashing start. He antagonized his legislature in the first time at bat. And some of the press has been rough on him. And his martial situation, though normal for these times, don't fit ideally the image of a governor of a great Sovereign State.

We wish him and the new first lady well. After all, he has never been a Governor before.

And the prolonged silence from around Johnson City, Texas indicate that we may be having a new type President emerging from the plains, to wrestle with the 90th Congress. But he has his problems, too, in 1966, and will surely hope for better things in 1967.

The press was not too easy with him either. He was shot down a few times at the Credibility Gap and all those doves and hawks were flying around his head.

Which brings up the only really cloud on the immediate horizon. The war in Vietnam.

Ambassador Lodge, who works out there, said Sunday that he looks for at least another two years out there as things stand now.

A lot of other New Years have come and gone and they were pretty much alike, actually.

It is interesting to note that a lot of people living today with a little luck, will see the year 2000 roll by.

Former Representative Emmett Roberts of Belle Glade apparently will have no further trouble in being named head of the State Welfare Department.

Gov. Haydon Burns tried to spike this appointment by pushing former Jackson County Sen. Robert Williams for this $17,500 a year job. The welfare board balked at Gov. Burns interference but held off naming Roberts who had offered the job some months ago.

However, it appears that Gov. elect Claude Kirk, who now calls Palm Beach County "home away from the mansion," will be in agreement with Roberts' selection.

As governor, Kirk will rely considerably upon the advice of Palm Beach County Sen. Skip Bafalis and Rep. Don Reed, both staunch Republicans.

Both these men served as junior solons under tutelage of Democrat Roberts and have the utmost respect for him.

A lot is written about state agencies blowing the taxpayers money on questionable projects.

At least one state agency did its bit during the Christmas season to reverse this opinion.

The Florida Park Service office staff in Tallahassee decided to have an inexpensive luncheon as its celebration. A memo was sent to employees to be sure and not forget to bring their own knife, fork and spoon.

Plates, cups and saucers were furnished by the agency.

It appears the joint leadership of the Democratic Party is an accomplished fact.

Pat Thomas has agreed to switch his allegiance from Robert King High and Scott Kelly to the new poly-headed leadership of the congressional delegation, cabinet and Florida legislative leadership.

All three groups agree to it.

As to what will happen to Miami Mayor Robert King High's role is not known. Secretary of State Tom Adams says "We'll find something."

The Burns Record

On January 3 former Gov. Haydon Burns delivered a speech in Tallahassee noting the accomplishments of his short-lived administration when he turned over his reins to Governor-Elect Claude Kirk.

On reading it is a pretty formidable list. He started by thanking members of the Cabinet and the Legislature for their cooperation and assistance. He continued, "At the end of the current biennium, with obligations met in full, the treasury should be bulging with a surplus of over $82 million, the highest in the history of the state — and still added State services to our people."

And he claimed 50,000 new jobs during the last couple of years and a $335 million increase in personal income.

In education, he pointed out universities in the works for Pensacola and Orlando. Planning is started for colleges of dentistry, nursing, veterinary medicine which we were lacking. University systems funds were increased 20 percent and the Junior Colleges program was doubled.

He got rid of the university tri-mester system, which he did not cherish, and we now have the quarter system — theory with this system is that the university systems can be utilized year-round.

He points to purchases of land for water storage, waterway development (including the Cross Florida Barge Canal) and State money for beach erosion.

The Florida Exhibit in New York was financially bailed out and the overall advertising of the Development Commission should bring us 25 million tourists per year "before the end of the next five years."

A reapportionment was hammered out, though he conceded it did not make everybody happy.

So it would look like his administration is turning the reins over to Gov. Kirk in pretty good shape.

The pro politicians probably concede that these accomplishments for his hotlail 2-year term are good.

Other than being defeated in the primary for re-election, his other major setback would be when his road bond issue was turned down at the polls.

With this kind of legislative record, the voter switch from Burns, to King High, to Claude Kirk seems a little bizarre. And this is not to take anything away from Gov. Kirk's victory.

In his speech Burns equated his position as a Southern Democrat with Republican Kirk when he said, "Whether a conservative Southern Democrat, as I, or a Republican, as he, we are Floridians."

Maybe he made some tactical mistakes in the primary against High. But from observing him for about 16 years in Jacksonville he is a pro and the real pros don't drop the marbles too often.

Some think that our neighbor Scott Kelly carried enough of these Southern Democrats with him to give Florida its first Republican governor since the Civil war.

Post Office Thanks Patrons For Cooperation

The staff of the Avon Park Post Office wishes to thank the postal patrons of Avon Park for their wonderful cooperation regarding mailing habits and their extensive use of ZIP Codes, which enabled them to process the tremendous Christmas mail volume in an orderly and most efficient manner.

The new transportation system, implemented due to the advent of the Zip Code and the National Center Facilities, had advanced the Post Office Department's services to the public considerably. There is much to be said for this improved system and postal patrons should continue to receive improved mail service. They should continue to support this new system with the use of the Zip Code.

The postal employees at the Avon Park Post Office would also like to thank their patrons who sent cards and gifts to the post office during the Christmas period.

The 400-member Florida Public Relations Association will stage its annual spring meeting May 4-7 at the Balmoral Hotel in Miami Beach.

Letter To Editor

To The Editor:

My origin is of old, but not proud. Southern heritage every U. S. War, except the Civil War in which my grand-fathers fought under the stars and bars in gray uniforms and went down in honorable defeat by the U. S. Forces. We had been loyal and faithful Democrats since the Civil War and it took much heart tugging for us to break tradition by crossing over party lines in the November election to vote for what we thought was principal and not the party or man.

We like to think that we voted to hurry the end of the Viet Nam war, crime, high taxes, high prices, riots, strikes and poverty and not the man or the party.

We cannot help but admire Governor Lurline Wallace of Alabama, whom the press reported forsake, a sumptuous and dazzling, inauguration because she did not think such pomp was in good taste at a time when our boys are being mutilated and slaughter in Viet Nam.

Our chief executive's personal life should be his own affair, but his official duties involved in such as superlatives, constitutional review and etc.

As the press reported, antics of our new chief executive leads us to wonder if he is not misreading the intent of the 82,139 voters, mostly Democrats, that he received from our hands. To quote one of his action slogans, "Some-times the price of party loyalty is too high."

We must wait and judge, and in the future use our only weapon, our vote, with extreme caution.

With a hope and prayer for good, efficient and honest government.

Luncheon Report

Reported by Norman Todd

Last week's meeting, Jan. 4, Vernon Lanier introduced a group of high school students to the school auditorium following the dinner. A similar plan had been announced last year, but this year the change was made to the old scheduling which keeps the banquet and program in a single location.

Judging of the science fair exhibits will be done on Monday, and at that time the ribbons will be fixed on the exhibits showing first, second and third ratings within each category.

Ross said the top overall awards will not be revealed until the banquet on Tuesday.

Throughout this week and last the individual schools throughout the county have been holding fairs to select their county-wide competition.

The science fair will be open to the public after the judging is completed, at approximately 7 p.m. Monday, until fair closing time at 9 p.m. Saturday.

(Fred Wild) — $230,980

Item 5 — New construction (E. O. Douglas) — $26,960

Item 6 — New high school (Spring) — $1,475,740

Item 7 — New high school (Avon Park) — $1,260,450

Total — $4,227,114

Cost of site — $275,069

Total — $4,512,114

In addition to the bond issue, the balance of the money for the balance of the $1,000,000 Race Track Bond issue coupled with the available Capital Outlay and School Construction Fund money. The remaining projects (Phase II) on the school bond has to undertake at a later date on a pay-as-you-go plan from available state and local monies. Douglas stressed that the first seven items are essential for the future development of the school system. Another consideration is that the cost of construction has gone up at the rate of 5 percent per year since the last several years.

Douglas stated that a bond issue is the only way that the school board has to undertake such a program. This authorizes the board to enter into long term financing by the sale of the bonds. The freeholders are simply pledging payment of the bonds over a 20-year period. The millage rate would be around 1.20 to 1.25 mills (mills $1.00 per $100 assessed value) based on the new county assessment.

Freeholders must re-register to vote. Since a majority of the school board approved this issue, the school board has requested a re-registration to establish an up to date list. Voters can sign an affidavit at the poles but this is a slow process. The books are open now.

The Avon Park High School Diversified Cooperative Training program under the direction of W. B. Gant, and with the cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce, are conducting a survey to find out just what the people of Avon Park think about our city. Above, Mrs. Betty Spraggins is

Science Fair Events Changed To Tues., Jan. 17

A change in schedule for the Highlands County Science Fair events was announced today by fair director, M. W. Ross of Lake Placid.

The awards banquet and presentation of awards will be moved to Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 6:30 p.m. The awards ceremony will be held at the Sebring Hotel.

Last year the presentation of awards was a part of a program held at Sebring High School auditorium following the dinner. A similar plan had been announced last year, but this year the change was made to the old scheduling which keeps the banquet and program in a single location.

Judging of the science fair exhibits will be done on Monday, and at that time the ribbons will be fixed on the exhibits showing first, second and third ratings within each category.

ZIP Code Change

Use of ZIP Code will make it easier to mail packages after January 15, Postmaster R. D. Young of Avon Park said today.

New rates and a new system for identifying parcel post zones will go into effect on that date as provided in legislation signed into law by President Johnson on September 20, 1966, the Postmaster pointed out.

The rate increases will average about 10 cents a parcel, Young said. Starting July 1, the law provides for a series of size and weight increases on packages mailed by first class class mail. Avon Park is a first class office. The size and weight increases will be in five annual increments, the last coming on July 1, 1971.

Use of ZIP Code in the recipient's address will enable the sender or a mail clerk to quickly determine the proper zone, and thus the rate, for the package. The zones will be based on the distance a parcel travels between the 552 sectional centers in the country, Young said.

By consulting a simple chart, which is available at all post offices, the zone can be readily identified because the first three numbers of the ZIP Code represent the sectional center. This replaces a method in which a directory often had the proper zone for each of the nation's 33,000 post offices.

The new rates will range from 40 cents for a three-pound parcel destined for local delivery to 60 cents for the same parcel to zone 3 (150 to 300 miles) to $1.05 to zone 8 (over 1,800 miles). The new zoning method will also apply to air parcel post, catalogs and to publishers who pay zone rates on the advertising portion of their periodicals. Young noted that all parcels mailed between sectional centers within the Lakeland sectional center will be charged at the first zone rate. There are 40 post offices within the Lakeland sectional center.

The new rates are expected to provide an additional $74 million a year for the Post Office Department. The later size and weight increases will add another $32 million a year. The additional revenue is to help keep the Department within 4 percent of cost of a parcel post as the law requires. A zone chart is attached.

SS Questions And Answers

By ED PERKOWSKI
SOCIAL SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE

Question—Before I retired last year I worked as a claims adjuster for an insurance company. They have asked me several times to come back and I might lose some of my social security benefits if I earn over $1,000 in a year, won't

Answer—Yes, if you work throughout the year your benefits will be reduced $1 for every $2 you earned over $1,000 and up to $2,700. For every $1 you earn above $2,700 the benefit reduction would be a matching $1. But in your case, if you worked for only a month or two during the company's busy season, only the benefits for those months would be affected. You would be paid benefits for the other nine months as long as you didn't earn wages of over $125 a month.

Question—My wife and I have been receiving social security benefits since we retired a couple of years ago. She has been recently offered a job that will pay about $75 a week, and she says she'd like to take it. I told her it isn't worth it because we will lose most of our social security benefits. Am I right?

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Enoch are new members from Avon Park and will join the club on their next camp out.

Mrs. John Benge and Mrs. Dave Wolden were co-hostesses with Mrs. Bussard.

Teacher - Spotlight

This week Mrs. Patti Greer Hill (Mrs. J. Paxton Hill) steps into our spotlight.

The daughter of teachers, her father deceased, her mother, Mrs. Addie Greer, 94 years old, living in Paris, Tenn., remains active and is presently writing feature articles for magazines and newspapers, including poetry.

Born and reared in Paris, Tenn., where she finished high school at E. W. Grove, she received her B.S. degree from Memphis State University, Taught Language Arts in high school in Tennessee, Arkansas, Texas and Louisiana.

Coming to Avon Park in the fall of 1945, she joined the Avon Park High School faculty to teach Language Arts. In January 1955, Mrs. Hill received a Masters degree in the field of Guidance from Florida State University—being one of the first to qualify and to be certified in Guidance in the state of Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill chose to make Avon Park their permanent home after Mr. Hill was transferred here at a U. S. Engineer at the Avon Park Air Base. They have never regretted their decision.

She is a member of the Avon Park Methodist Church; D.A.R.; Eastern Star; American Personnel and Guidance Assn.; National Vocational Assn.; American School Counselors Assn.; Florida Personnel and Guidance Assn.; National Educational Assn.; Florida Educational Assn.; Highlands County Classroom Teachers: Delta Kappa Gamma, and is listed in the "Who's Who" of American Women.

Her family is listed in the National Social Directory which lists 17,000 names of foremost families in the United States.

Regarding Avon Park schools, Mrs. Hill is very enthusiastic, "I believe so thoroughly in the effectiveness of the Avon Park schools, that if I had a dozen children instead of one, I would insist they all graduate from Avon Park High School."

The one child mentioned is John P. Hill Jr., 1952 APHS graduate. He is an electrical engineer with North American on the Apollo Moon Shot, residing in Merritt Island with his wife and son.

Her most rewarding experience has been to have former students return to say "thank you so much" and to watch their progress as they enter the world of competition. The heights the students have reached, proves to me that someone has done a good job at APHS and I hope I have helped them."

She feels her luckiest break was for the opportunity to work with former Supervisor Principal A. B. Whitte for 21 years and this year with Supervising Principal Gray Garrett. Stating it has been a "happy experience that I shall recall quite often."

Guidance is a fairly recent addition to school programs but it has grown to a very important part of a student's life. Vocational education and social phases of Guidance touch each student in some manner. College acceptance has become very important and in this the Guidance Counselor plays a big role.

The Guidance Dept., under Mrs. Hill's supervision, received an excellent rating from the Southern Assn. Evaluating Committee.

This year Robert Watts has been designated as Junior High Counselor and Mrs. Joan Sandlin is secretary for the Guidance Department.

THE PLACE WHERE THOU STANDEST

"Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground." Exodus 3:3.

Moses was a Hebrew but because Pharaoh's daughter had taken him into her home as a son, he had become a member of the inner circle of the ruling house of Egypt. Yet he did not forget his antecedents. His face was turned toward his own people. When he saw an Egyptian taskmaster lashing a fellow Hebrew, in a flare of anger, he struck him a fatal blow. That blow destroyed his connection with a life of privilege.

The writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews explains Moses' action: "By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season." 11:24-25. He chose affliction. The decision was based on the free action of his own soul.

"The Lord said 'Say We'

And I shook my head
Clasped my hands behind my neck and said
'No Lord, I'

The Lord said 'Say We'

But I looked at all those people grimy
and all awry,

Myself in those twisted, dirty shapes,
'Never!'

I turned away, 'No Lord, They.'

The Lord said 'Say We' and I at last
Richer by a hoard of years and tears Looked in their eyes. And then like a shamed schoolboy

I bent my neck and bowed my head and said, 'Yes, Lord, We.'

Moses fled and became a shepherd. His life seemed rather mean and hopeless. A prince of the Royal House watching another man's sheep. Yet God thought differently. He reached out and laid hold on him in an unlikely place and under untoward conditions. God said: "Put off thy shoes from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest is holy ground."

We know the history of what happened. How God used Moses to lead the Hebrews out of Egypt, of whom He eventually made a nation. Surely God was in that place. The ground whereon Moses stood was holy and he knew it not.

A Buddhist priest told Ali Hafeed about the beauty and the great value of diamonds. Whereupon he sold his farm and went to search for them. His search was fruitless and in disappointment he committed suicide. The new owner of the farm was one day watering his camel. A stone in the stream seemed to have an eye that flashed light. He took the stone into his house and placed it where everybody could see. The priest returned. When he saw the stone, he was excited. He asked if Ali Hafeed had returned with the diamond, for it was a diamond. Thus it was that the famous diamond mines of Golconda were discovered in what had been Ali Hafeed's own backyard.

The ground on which you stand may be your place of opportunity. The gold that enriches life is often at the grass-roots beneath your feet.

Jesus was at Jacob's well. Across a little way, but separated by years of prejudice and hate, sat a woman of Samaria. She had a different conception of religion. She had lived a sinful life. Now, across from her was the Saviour. What would happen in that place. Jesus spoke to her: "I can give thee, poor thirsty woman, living water which shall be in thee a well of water springing up into life eternal." The response of the woman was immediate. She left her water jar in her haste to tell the people of Sychar about Jesus. She entreated them: "Come, see a man who told me all that I ever did. Can this be the Christ?" St. John 4:29. A well curb became a holy place, a place of salvation to the woman and many of her fellow townsmen.

Thomas Carlyle told a story that worked out somewhat differently. An impoverished widow appealed to her neighbors for help. They ignored her pleas. What happened to her was no concern of theirs. But it was. She became ill and died. She infected the whole neighborhood with typhus fever. Seventeen people died. "She proved her sisterhood. Her typhus fever killed them. They were brothers even though they denied it."

The word "Pontiff" is used for the head of the Roman Catholic Church. It means bridge-builder. It is our privilege to build bridges over the bog of human misfortune and sorrow to the highlands of Christian love and joy.

The story is told of Rupert Brooke, English poet, of how, when he was sailing from Liverpool to New York, and feeling very lonesome, he got someone to wave goodbye. He said to a boy on the dock: "What's your name?" The boy replied: "William." Do you want to earn a sixpence?" "Yes," the boy eagerly responded. "Then wave to me when the ship sails." With a dirty handkerchief the boy waved to his unknown friend until the ship was out of sight. A bridge had been built.

The great picture of the Last Judgment in St. Matthew 25 teaches us that the real test of our lives is whether or not we do our bit in the place where we stand by building bridges of love and kindness. "I was hungry and ye gave me meat. I was thirsty and ye gave me drink. I was naked and ye clothed me. I was sick and ye visited me."

CREATIVE CAREERS

by Ruth Wade Ray

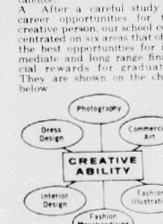

Ruth Wade Ray, Director of Ray-Vogue Schools, the oldest professional arts school in the U.S., now beginning its first year, answers high school seniors' questions about continuing their education in the creative arts.

Q. How can I tell whether I have creative talent?

A. You can test yourself or ask your high school counselor to give you a creativity test. Ask yourself: Do I like to do things in an unusual way, bringing my own personality to bear on the project at hand? And, "Do I like to think up new ideas?" If the answer to both is "yes," you will probably do well in this field. In other words, if you feel creative you probably are creative.

Q. Where can a creative person make the most of his talents?

A. After a careful study of career opportunities for the creative person, our school concentrated on six areas that offer the best opportunities for immediate and long range financial rewards for graduates. They are shown on the chart below.

Q. If I decide on a creative career, how much schooling will I need after high school?

A. For most careers, two years of full-time study. This is true in the fields of Interior Design, Dress Design, Commercial Art, or Fashion Illustration. Photography and Fashion Merchandising require only one year of full-time schooling.

Q. If I want more information on a professional arts career, where is the best place to find it?

A. Your high school counselor will be able to help you. And, you can get help by writing to Student Counselor, Ray-Vogue Schools, 700 N. Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611. Specify which area interests you; otherwise you'll receive general information.

A. You can test yourself or ask your high school counselor to give you a creativity test. Ask yourself: Do I like to do things in an unusual way, bringing my own personality to bear on the project at hand? And, "Do I like to think up new ideas?" If the answer to both is "yes," you will probably do well in this field. In other words, if you feel creative you probably are creative.

Q. Where can a creative person make the most of his talents?

A. After a careful study of career opportunities for the creative person, our school concentrated on six areas that offer the best opportunities for immediate and long range financial rewards for graduates. They are shown on the chart below.

Raincoats 1967 Style

Looking rumpled and wrinkled in the rain? No need to with 1967 style Koratrain raincoats that always look as crisp and fresh as the day purchased. Men's styles will be about the same length as in 1966 for men's raincoats seldom change much. It's mid-knee or lower for men, and mid-knee or top of knee for women generally, but some will move home higher, of course. The following chart shows the standard length for men's raincoats:

Height	Length of Raincoat
5'6"	39"
5'8"	41"
5'10"	42"
6'0"	44"
6'2"	45"

Stout or thin persons may vary this according to preference. Water-repellent Koratrain raincoats of any length always look neat and keep their shape. No dry-cleaning or pressing is necessary. Both the coat and zip-in fleece lining can go into the family washer and dryer. Koratrain raincoats and other Koratrain clothes are widely available in stores across the nation and are designed and made by many manufacturers. The key word for raincoats, shirts, dresses, slacks and many other family wardrobe items is Koratrain for clothes that never need ironing.

Curves in the front seat can run a car off a straight road.

A bachelor is a man who is crazy to marry, but realizes it in time.

Progress: Once men worshiped graven images. Now they worship Madison Avenue images.

It seems that every year it takes less time to fly across the ocean and more time to drive to work.

CINDERELLA

Beautiful Lesley Ann Warren was selected by Richard Rodgers to star as "Cinderella" in the colorful Rodgers and Hammerstein musical special to be seen on CBS-TV Wednesday, Jan. 18.

FROM SCREEN TO STAGE TO TV

Hollywood's Walter Pidgeon and Ginger Rogers, who are now appearing on Broadway in "Dinner at Eight" and "Hello, Dolly!" star as the King and Queen in the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical special "Cinderella," to be telecast in color on CBS-TV Wednesday, Jan. 18.

MALE MINISKIRT draws attention when David de St. Vena struts in New York. A skirt wearer for 12 years, he says he grew bored with the "unoriginality" of long pants.

The normal habitat has helped name several animals—such as—marsh rabbit, meadow lark, mountain goat, prairie dog.

Oh, John, cut out the melodrama and buy Mr. Foley.

That reminds me—gone bowl tonight!

If your husband is a compulsive eater and you want to cut calories for him painlessly, try these substitutions.

For a chocolate éclair, 316 calories, substitute one cup sliced bananas and a half-cup of milk, total 212 calories.

For iced coffee cake, 45 calories in diameter, 196 calories, substitute a whole five-inch diameter cantaloupe, 74 calories.

For one cup macaroni and mayonnaise salad, 335 calories, substitute three heaping tablespoons fresh fruit salad on lettuce, 174 calories.

For a sixth of a quart of chocolate ice cream with one tablespoon chocolate sauce, 245 calories, substitute one cup blueberries with one ounce cream, 141 calories.

When money talks nowadays, all it says is goodby.

Recipe for good speech: add shortening.

Council Studies City - Manager Type Govt.

Avon Park City Council moved through a quiet session Monday night after last week's jammed first session of the year.

The first order of business was a discussion and a new motion regarding water and sewer lines for the Housing Authority's Lake Tulane Development No. 1 and No. 2.

The motion as passed, and sent to the Atlanta Regional Office, calls for the Authority to do everything except install water meters. The city is to do this and charge the Authority $50 for the meters. The contract calls for "irrevocable rates" in this case $2.50 minimum for water and $1.50 for sewerage... less 10 percent for collection.

The architect believes that the Atlanta office should reply within about 30 days and then the $1.5 million dollar project can proceed.

Then, inevitably, those dirty dogs raised their money heads. Council unanimously agreed to advertise for a professional dog catcher.

The Mayor and City Attorney related out that any citizen with a complaint about dogs must sign a complaint before City Hall can take any firm action. Without that, all that can be done is simply ask that an offender correct a situation.

In other action:

Passed a motion stating that no water meters will be installed until an applicant has all building, electrical and plumbing permits. This is a move to prevent unauthorized cutting on water where a builder has not completed application for the other proper permits.

No purchases may be made by city employees without purchase order, except in the Mayor's office. It was agreed that all departments had become lax in this matter.

A City Manager form of government was discussed. City Attorney Nunnally gave the opinion that there is to that. Form of government would require a legislative act and/or a popular referendum. Several Council members are to study various city charters from other cities the size of Avon Park that do have the city manager-type government.

Sales Board To Hold Hearings On Developer

Florida Installment Land Sales Board will conduct a formal hearing on Monday, Jan. 23, into charges made against the developer of Orange Blossom Estates.

The hearing, set for 2 p.m. in the community clubhouse in Orange Blossom Estates, will be presided over by Carl A. Bestock, executive director of the Installment Land Sales Board.

In a letter of confirmation of the hearing date Director Bestock said inquiry will be made into charges on building and maintenance of roads and beaches, park and river in the subdivision. Testimony is to be received on the promises made to purchasers—promises made orally and in the subdivision's published literature.

R. E. Baines, president of the Orange Blossom Estates Civic Association, any interested person should feel free to attend the hearing but he urged attendance by "all property owners in Orange Blossom Estates."

"People who feel dissatisfied with the progress to date on the public works within the subdivision should make it a point to be present and to bring with them all documents and literature they have about the subdivision. This is our opportunity to air grievances at a time and place where action can be taken," Baines said.

He said the clubhouse is located at the southern end of Orange Blossom Estates about a quarter of a mile from State Road 66.

After the press had carried a story about an appeal the Orange Blossom Estates Civic Association had made to the Highlands County Commissioners, Baines began to receive letters from many property owners who live in other states.

"Interest is keen in the action we have taken here, and some owners from northern states have advised us they are planning to fly down for the formal hearing," Baines said.

In their appearance before the county commission the Association members said they are seeking to force a dissolution of a private corporation which is collecting dues for construction and maintenance of roads. They advised the commissioners they would prefer creation of a special tax district to provide funds for county maintenance of roads.

A civil suit which had been scheduled for trial in Circuit Court on Monday, Jan. 23, is not to be tried then. Clerk of Circuit Court Earl Rich said the men who had been called for jury duty have been notified not to come to court.

No Trial Monday

The January term of County Judge's Court has been cancelled and the five cases on the docket have been continued until the March term of court.

Arraignment was held Wednesday in a long list of defendants. Judge Mervin Rehner said he had not talked with the newly appointed prosecutor Hayward Davis, but since the work of the special session of the Legislature has been introduced to include reappointment, he assumes that Senator Davis will be busy in Tallahassee for a while and continuing of the five cases due for jury trials seemed wise.

Joe Strickler Signs Four Year Football Scholarship With F.S.U.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Strickler, 19 E. Kendall Blvd., honored their son at a buffet dinner Saturday, Jan. 14, when he signed a football scholarship with Florida State University.

The buffet table covered with white was centered with a miniature football field. Red and white candles represented the goal posts, decorated with red and white streamers. On the play field were three players on one end and three Red Devil players on the other. A miniature football was placed on the field.

Individual tables covered with white were decorated with a single white candle on which a miniature football and referee's whistle were fastened. Candle holders were covered with greenery. Miniature footballs were given as favors. Place cards were red footballs.

Guests were: assistant football coach Neil Schmidt from Tallahassee who signed Joe, Sharon Sue Childress, Rev.

Donald Hansen Resigns Civil Defense Post

Donald R. Hansen, Highlands County Civil Defense director since 1961, has resigned the post effective February 1.

Mounting demands of the job, plus increased responsibility in his position with the county schools, were given by Hansen as the reasons for his resignation.

Highlands County Commissioners, who accepted the resignation "with regret" at their Tuesday meeting, said the problem of locating a new civil defense director will be the first responsibility for the newly elected county personnel committee.

George Walper, who presently is the director of the county's surplus commodity distribution program, was mentioned informally Tuesday as a possible choice as Hansen's successor.

Hansen told the commissioners, "I do hope you can find someone who can put his nose to the grindstone and work on this job full time. Coming down here I thought it would be nice to quit today, but I'll stay with it the rest of this month and in so far as possible help the person chosen to succeed me in whatever ways I can."

Football Banquet To Be Held January 27

The annual Avon Park Athletic Association football banquet honoring the members of the Red Devil football team, cheerleaders and the coaches will be held at the Avon Elementary Cafeteria Friday, Jan. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

Awards will be made to the members of the Class B state football team. Red Devil squad trophies will be presented to the most improved, the best offensive, the best defensive and the best all-around players on this season's team.

A guest speaker will be on hand to entertain the Devils, their parents and fans at the annual event.

Tickets are now on sale for $2.25 each and may be purchased from the football players or at Leon's Sporting Goods Store or Abbot's Barber Shop. Tickets must be purchased in advance.

Judge's Court Postponed

The January term of County Judge's Court has been cancelled and the five cases on the docket have been continued until the March term of court.

Arraignment was held Wednesday in a long list of defendants. Judge Mervin Rehner said he had not talked with the newly appointed prosecutor Hayward Davis, but since the work of the special session of the Legislature has been introduced to include reappointment, he assumes that Senator Davis will be busy in Tallahassee for a while and continuing of the five cases due for jury trials seemed wise.

Commission In Row Over Prosecutor

Highlands County's freshman commissioners today's session to the board of commissioners meeting on Tuesday morning. Earl Crutchfield, new commissioner from District 2, picked the most explosive question when he asked whether Hayward Davis' service as state senator and county prosecutor attorney constitute a conflict of interest.

Davis was named county prosecutor on January 3, the same day the newly inaugurated Governor called an emergency session of the Legislature. Consequently, the new Prosecutor has yet to attend a session of County Judge's Court.

Crutchfield said Tuesday he had some reservations about naming the Legislature to the county post but he was loathe to wait and see. It was no definite; there is a conflict of interest, the new Commissioner said.

"We have one special session of the Legislature, reappointment and good news will go on. I have supported Senator Davis in every campaign, but I do not believe it is in the best interest of the county to have a prosecutor who cannot be present."

"We have had one term of court postponed. If he cannot be present next time we might have to appoint an attorney and that would cost $125 to $150 a day at a minimum," Crutchfield said.

Commissioner Jean Whitaker and Chairman Carl McIntyre quickly declared themselves opposed to any change. McIntyre frankly put the appointment on a "subsidiary" basis.

Other counties subsidize their Legislators," he said, "but we cannot afford that."

Many counties appoint Legislators members who happen to be lawyers to be county attorney or prosecutor. The McIntyre said that $100 a month the Legislature members get."

"We did look at it and consider carefully. The best interests of the county are served by having a prosecutor who has a reputation for winning cases. Defendants are more likely to plead guilty and save the expense of a court trial when they know they'll have to face a tough prosecutor," the Commission Chairman said.

After the meeting Tuesday McIntyre told reporters that the county "has some very fine lawyers who will not consider any type of criminal work at any price. The field is more limited when you begin to look for criminal lawyers."

The prosecutor post pays an average of $12,500 annually, with the salary derived from fees paid out of fines and forfeitures at the rate of $5 per conviction.

High School Faculty To Play Red Devil Basketball Team

Next Tuesday night an exceptional evening of excitement will be planned for sports fans in the Avon Park area. The Avon Park High School Faculty Basketball team will take on the Red Devil basketball varsity in a regular game at the high school gym starting at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Dale Landwehr, ex-head coach of the high school team, has scheduled the game to raise money for his team and to give the faculty players a chance to show Avon Park fans the skills that are hiding behind the dominant muscles of the men teachers.

Playing on the faculty team will be Joe Joseph Franz, former basketball player at Erskine College, Ralph Hill, with the same credentials, Larry Pickett, Fred Lewis, Larry Maness, Mr. Sechrist, Andrew Miracle, Mr. Gant, and any other of the men faculty who wish to take part in the great event.

When questioned concerning game strategy, Coach Hill commented, "We have several plays and they all consist of passing the ball around the key, forcing it on the front and yelling ' rebound men.' Confidence seemed high with the faculty team members as the big game approach.

Coaches for the faculty team were supervised by the game. Miss Joe Fraser, Miss Chloe Lockhoff, Miss Mary Lois Landwehr, Mrs. Fred Sandell and Mrs. Kiang will be among the former greats who will be cheering the men's victory.

Prices for the big "super game" will be 25 and 40 cents—regular admission prices. Fans are urged to come early to get a good seat.

During the last session of the Legislature, Highlands County attempted to make the county elective rather than an annual appointment one. The law was challenged and in a circuit court hearing and decided unconstitutional.

Jean Whitaker, commissioner from Davis' home, Lake Placid, gave some warning of the appointment of Davis as prosecutor. "I think we should wait until we know what happened in the months from now things are not working out, we can reconsider then but this is a court appointment and we should give it a chance."

A commission writer, who identified himself as Ben House of DeSoto, City asked for permission to voice "a small taxpayer's opinion."

"Everyone I have talked with believe the board has made a serious mistake by making an appointment. There is enough work and honor in these positions for two men. If we make what happened in the county to continue the present situation. It is evident there is some conflict of interest, and it quite likely the orderly processing of cases will be affected."

There might come a time when the Legislature will be voting on whether to make the county prosecutor an elective job. If we have a man there who is also a prosecutor I wonder whether he'll be empowered to vote to pull the rug from under himself.

To give law enforcement officers the help they need the prosecutor should be on the job, interview witnesses and prepare cases. I couldn't sit here today and let it be said to one object to the present situation," Brooks concluded.

Whitaker said he had talked with Davis over the weekend, and the Senator said the Legislature "isn't doing a good job of listening, and arguing," and he had added he might come home to try some cases.

Bond Issue Needs 4,000 Names by Jan. 27

Highlands County school board initiated Wednesday a crash drive to obtain nearly 4,000 signatures on petitions calling for a special election to vote on issuing of bonds to finance school construction.

Necessity of obtaining signatures from at least 25 percent of the county's registered voters was brought to light late Tuesday when the county's recently appointed bond attorney, Frank Watson of Jacksonville, pointed out a section of the school bond act providing for the petitions.

The law is limited to counties of less than 25,000 population and since Highlands County's population is above that now estimated at 47,000, both local and state school officials had not considered it in connection with the Highlands election.

Watson pointed out that the population figure, however, must be based on the sitting federal census, and Highlands County in 1960 had an official population of 31,243. Fearing to obtain the signatures could open the door for a taxpayer's challenge of the bond election when the bonds are submitted to Circuit Court for validation.

The board voted to proceed with the Feb. 28 election.

Stricter Regulations

Freshman Commissioner Whitaker lashed a few ex-prosecutors of his own into the four-hour meeting meeting. He continued his push for tighter regulation of subdivisions and Tuesday moved to block approval of the Holiday County Club section of Sun Lakes subdivision until the board could check the plat for the whole subdivision and the progress being made on street-building.

The subdivision readily agreed to supply the board a copy of the agreement and the subdivision has with the Florida Installment Land Sales Board and the schedule for street construction with a report on progress.

Cecil Skipper objected to delaying approval of the subdivision until Tuesday while the report is being prepared. "The developers who are trying to do a decent job should not be held up while we work out a program," he said.

The board agreed with his position and accepted the Holiday County Club's report.

Highlands Fair Opens With 19 Chilled Beauty Contestants

The Highlands County Fair opened Monday in Sebring. The annual event is sponsored by the Sebring Firemen's Association and is run with the cooperation of the Future Farmers of America, the 4-H Clubs and the County Agent's office.

The show opened with the swim suit division of the beauty contest. (Avon Park entrants were pictured in last Thursday's SUN). Finals of the contest will be Friday at 7:30 p.m. when the 19 contestants will appear in evening gowns.

Jack Mackey, president of the Fair Association, said that Monday's opening crowd was good despite chilly weather.

Negatives accounted for about 15.9 million, or approximately one-tenth of the nation's population as of the last census.

This, the 31st fair, had Avon Park and Lake Placid children's day on Tuesday.

Following events are fat sales, stock judging events, art show and the science show.

Look Out!! Parking Tickets

Police Chief Carroll serves notice that as of Tuesday, Jan. 17, the two-hour parking limit was enforced in downtown Avon Park.

The two-hour parking signs have now been installed in all affected areas.

Carroll imposed the two-hour limitation and it is intended to assist downtown shoppers and merchants.

Overtime fines are $1.00.

School Bond Must Pass

The SUN stands in favor of passage of the upcoming school bond election.

Highlands County has got to have the revenue. Its that simple.

Without the revenue many of the schools will lose their accreditation. Three high school have already been alerted. To lose accreditation means that a student moving to another school in another county or another state, will have to repeat the school work. To lose accreditation means that a high school graduate will not be able to get into college—or, at best, might be admitted to a junior college on probation.

How much will it cost to prevent this? Penalties. If you have a house with an assessed value of $85,000 it will cost you about $50 per month. If you have property assessed at $100,000 it will cost you $122 per year.

This is a good bargain. Not only is this a good bargain but this is a good investment. We will not play the fiddles about an investment in the future of the county and its future scholars, etc. By investment we mean dollars and cents. The money spent now, if this bond issue is passed now, is going to save the Highlands County taxpayer money in the future.

For example: A school that costs $100,000 today is going to cost $130,000 just ten years from now. This is based on an increase in construction costs of three percent per year. And this is a conservative figure. Architect Vickory, who is designing the South Florida Junior College sets this figure at five percent per year.

These are just increases in construction costs. The cost of the land is also going to go up proportionately.

We hear the argument from some of our good referee friends that they are opposed to any additional tax because they have already worked their children and have paid for their educations.

But this just begs the issue. If you extend this line of reasoning it follows, just as logically, that a 35-year old wage earner could refuse to pay any Social Security tax because he is not able to draw any Medicare.

Registrars tell us that registration is slow. And of those registering more than half are in the 60-and-over age group. We doubt that these people are going to the registrars for an opportunity to increase their taxes.

Yet, we find it hard to believe that these people who have come here to enjoy the free sunshine, the free shuffleboard courts, the free Medicare premiums, the Homestead exemption — we find it hard to believe that these people would be selfish enough to try to deny Highlands County the schools that it must have. Particularly we would find this attitude hard to justify in a freeholder who is only a part-time resident.

Because, any way you cut it, a vote against this bond issue is a vote against the students and schools of this county.

But if this be the unhappy fact then Highlands County may be forced to follow the Hillsborough County (St. Pete) lead and change the Homestead exemption to cover the second $5000 rather than the first $5000 of valuation.

Then what about the people who have children in school—or will have children in school? They have not yet begun to register in the numbers that is going to be necessary to pass this issue.

With a registration list as small as Highlands County it is essential that everyone get their names on the voter lists — or this issue will fail. —CLC

"We'll maintain the administrative aide gap," declared Secretary of State Tom Adams' aide when informed Gov. Claude Kirk was approaching a new record for helpers.

Adams has more aides running around than a sultan.

Gov. Kirk is rapidly easing up on him, however. He has an aide for nearly every agency in the state and there's somewhere between 150 and 180.

Speaking of Gov. Kirk, he certainly has a flair of the dramatic.

When he started his campaign way back in late May he beat opponent Robert King High to the punch by looking in on Gov. Haydon Burns and each of the cabinet members.

Made a big deal out of it and got a lot of publicity.

Then the hit the Democratic cabinet between the eyes by announcing to the Constitutional Revision Commission he favored an appointive cabinet.

Rocked 'em back on their heels, those cabinet members.

Then, like the Caped Crusader, he Whacked them with his private Krime Krusade.

In the same inaugural speech he flattened the Democratic leadership of the legislature by calling a special session to draft a constitution when the leadership had a neat, leisurely timetable set up for itself.

Then, Whamo, he brings a statuesque blonde to the inaugural ball without telling anyone who she is or where she comes from.

In fact, so little was known about her that spelling her last name went from Mattsfield, to Mattfield, to Mottfield, to Mottfield, to Mottfield, to Mottfield, to Mottfield, to who knows.

If he was so confusing that some newspapers carried three different spellings in the same story.

No one can complain that the new governor doesn't know how to hit a guy when he isn't looking.

Press aide John Smolko, who was lambasted by the traveling press during the campaign because of Gov. Kirk's refusal to say anything exciting for a story, got the last word in after the inaugural address.

"Claude never says a thing, does he?"

By the way, do you notice that Ronald Reagan is divorced and married a divorced woman? Nelson Rockefeller is divorced and married to a divorced woman. Claude Kirk is divorced and is considering a divorced woman. Who said these Republicans are stodgy and conservative and resist change?

Gov. Kirk's crime sleuths are being dubbed Kirk's Krime Krus, or by some, Kirk's Krime Krushers. Using bureaucratic gobbledegook, George Wackenhut's crime fighters comes out KKK.

Letter To Editor

Avon Park Sun:

The curtain is about to rise once again on the Winter concert series presented to the citizens and guests of the Avon Park area each Winter by the Avon Park High School Band. At 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 22, in the high school auditorium the bandmaster Vic Mickens will lift the baton for his 80 musicians.

Perhaps some explanation is in order. It is hard for people to write of their own accomplishments or blow their own horn as it might be. This fine group will go to the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, April 8—represent Avon Park and project the name of this town before thousands and more thousands on the television.

Already new and splendid uniforms have been ordered. The band cannot go in half old and half new uniforms. But only about one-fourth of the necessary money has been acquired.

Wouldn't it be fine if each person reading this column asked a neighbor, a friend or a relative to attend the concert with him. If each person reading this column decided to talk enthusiastically about the concert to everyone with whom he has a conversation between now and then. Great day—we would have a well-filled auditorium.

And then, with sacrificial giving, with thanksgiving for a fine group of young people doing their best—with real self-denial—If Each Person Attending The Concert gave generously to the free will offering—Well, anyone can dream and hope.

Each uniform costs $105.00—a what a great and generous to know one can dream and hope. Anyone can dream and every one in a while someone comes along who follows that dream.

Luncheon Report

Last week's meeting Vernon Lanier introduced Van Howell of Schweizer, campaign director for the Highlands County March of Dimes.

Van won our confidence and hearts at once by explaining that before he knew it he found himself in this volunteer job for the good cause and what could be done? He is doing plenty, stumping up and down our county, presenting the story and movie of this annual appeal for funds.

The March of Dimes began in the days of Franklin Roosevelt to help stunted polio... and it has succeeded so well that 20 years after founding, new targets are now in place of old polio.

Most of the money now goes in a program to treat Birth Defects; and like the attack on polio, the treatment is largely for children. This makes the program continually appealing and winsome. This was well illustrated in the short movie shown last week picturing several actual cases in families coping with children with Birth Defects.

Van explained that his purpose in addressing Rotary was to request funds from the organization, although any funds are never refused, the real object is to spread information to the population in general about the drives in communities of our county. So, Rotarians can spread the good word for the March of Dimes which takes place in February. Twenty-five percent of Highlands contributions is spent right here in the county.

"Whitaker continued to push toward countywide zoning regulations. When Crutchfield asked, 'Is this board in favor of zoning?' Whitaker responded, 'Boys, if we don't start, we'll never get anywhere. When I want to know now is where do we start?'

Chairman McIntyre volunteered his support for countywide zoning. 'I think agricultural people do favor it because they feel it will come and they want it done soon and right.'

The county commissioners are now receiving study materials on zoning, building regulations, road and street specifications from several Florida counties of different sizes. At Tuesday's meeting they promised 'to do some homework' before the next meeting.

Highway Park Improvements
Whitaker asked the commission for permission to make some trash containers from old oil drums and place them in the business section of Highway Park. This the board agreed to but balked at his request for a county truck to make weekly trash and garbage pick-ups.

Other commissioners protested that such action would violate the terms of the garbage franchise for the southern end of the county. County Attorney Hue Nunnallee said the franchise holder is obliged to supply service to the Highway Park area.

Whitaker and Leroy McGhee, Jr., of the Highway Park civic organization said they would open negotiations for regular garbage and trash pick-ups since they have pinpointed lack of disposal facilities as the Highway Park community's 'number one problem.'

McGhee appeared Tuesday to request commission help on

"I have had a number of things added to my job in the schools—which is my number one job and the way I earn a living. Civil defense has had to take a second place and that is not good. I can no longer give this the kind of time that is required," he concluded.

Hansen, who is coordinator of health, driver education, physical education and audiovisuals for Highlands County schools, has recently been made a member of the state's committee on school accreditation—a responsibility he is finding very demanding.

"The Negroes who live in Highway Park have absolutely no place to swim," McGhee said. "We voted on this Monday night and have not had a chance to discuss it with our commission."

Whitaker promised to work with the civic group to develop a report on this request.

Whitaker's move to have the asphalt topping for Commerce Street laid by a private asphalt company also went to committee—but not before he and Commissioner Skipper had exchanged some hot words about the relative costs and quality of the county's asphalt-ing.

Chairman McIntyre, who on Tuesday had announced the first committee assignments for the county commission, suggested that this difference of opinion would best be resolved in the new roads committee. The whole board burst into laughter when it was recalled that the two members of the committee are Skipper and Whitaker—who agreed to slug it out in private and bring in a report.

The board quickly and unanimously agreed to reject

Capacity Crowd at Whitmore And Lowe Concert, Tuesday

A capacity crowd filled the Sebring High School Auditorium Tuesday night for the first concert of the Community Concert Association, featuring Whitmore and Lowe, pianists.

Using their two new Baldwin pianos, they thrilled and delighted the audience with their artistic rendition of Baroque music by Bernardo Pasquini, Sonata in E-flat major by J. S. Bach and the Arrival of the Queen of Sheba, from Handel, followed with variations on a theme of Haydn, by Johannes Brahms.

During the course of their concert, the duo gave them a standing ovation of appreciation.

Whitmore and Jack Lowe have run up a record of achievement in all media open to pianists, an achievement that has brought them to the pinnacle of prestige and popularity. They are universally acknowledged as music's new movement two-piano team.

M. Whitmore is from Vermillion, S. D. M. Lowe comes from Denver. They average 68 concerts per season. Their joint careers are among the most successful and impressive in the annals of American music.

On Monday, Jan. 9, high score of 725 was set by Sam Kerr in pinocle. A. McAlexander came in second with a score of 689.

CRAFT CLASS

Hallie Wetmore announces that next Thursday's work in tile will start with a new pattern for four weeks. The next Thursday there will be pine needle work. There will be 27 tote bags and over a hundred "birds of paradise". The club room is a place every Thursday morning.

DANCES

Monday and Friday evening continue to be fun with the dancing. Guests introduced Friday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fowler to Louisville, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Huslock from Brighton, Maine, who are guests of Emily Kurek and Evelyn Wallace.

Cliff and Ina Seifert were quietly celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on Friday. All good wishes were extended to them.

Where can there be found another recreation that can do more for retired people than square dancing?

Of course, we are referring to that type of dancing that is done at fun level speed. All retired people, as they become older, found that they gradually had to give up such exercises as football, basketball, etc. When this occurred, it was very fortunate for them that they then took up square dancing.

Square dancing, when the music is played at proper tempo, not only gave them necessary, reasonable exercise but due to the fact that this type of dancing is done to calls that it also did much to help them keep their minds alert.

Make it a point to talk to your retired friends who are square dancing and verify the truth of the above statements. You may also learn that because it is so much fun, that it now is their main hobby. You try it and see how easy it is to "dance many of your troubles away". At the club we will round and square dances equal time. Your choice. Do come and enjoy yourself.

ENTERTAINMENT

One of the nicest events that we have had was the welcoming of the first time members of the club Thursday evening. There were over 50 and Paul Swearingen as master of ceremonies, introduced them from the stage, two by two.

After the program and during the refreshments, there was time for a general getting acquainted. While the folks were assembling, Hallie Amstutz entertained with her piano playing. The opening number of the program was the singing of popular songs by the "Shufflers". The officers of the club were introduced by the MC and Leo Wagner, president, gave an informal welcome to all the new members. Alva Peter, in her usual entertaining way, gave a reading "Something to Live By," while Ethel Swearingen lighted the seven candles to emphasize the seven points of something to live by. One of the new members displayed her talent by playing the piano for the group.

The refreshment committee were: Flora Hoppe, Cleo Land, Grace Romilly, Georgina Wernham, Mary Smith and Louise Freilipp.

Next Thursday evening entertainment will be the 50th wedding celebration.

POT-LUCK SUPPER

One hundred and fifteen were seated at the tables Saturday evening for the weekly pot-luck supper when Howard Kellogg gave thanks for the food, health and friends. This was the largest number at the supper this year. Roll call by H. J. Fenton, "Water" again with 54, followed by Michigan with 17 and Indiana with 19. A large number of the new members attended.

Happy anniversary was sung to Mr. and Mrs. L. B. McIntyre of Indiana, who were also Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meisel of New York. Happy birthday to Paul Hoppe and Russell Smith. It was reported that Charley Bush is home from the hospital. Harold Myrner and Gordon Baker is improving in the hospital.

Program was opened by Hallie Amstutz giving us a very interesting history of the writing of "America, The B. J. Fenton, "Water" was again with a reading "Poor Mountain Justice." Mabel Harper, a well known entertainer, and a new member of our club gave two numbers in dialect.

After so many good things, there was time for a pot-luck supper. One of our founding fathers, Benjamin Franklin, whose birthday was celebrated on Jan. 17, any words of wisdom from this wise old American patriot is fine for all of us to read. Fern Hase gave an interesting history of his life after which several "Words of Wisdom" were read. "Poor Richards Almanac." One interesting one is "Keep your eyes wide open before marriage, and half open afterwards." In closing, America was sung accompanied by Howard and Zoella Kellogg. Lillian Rodgers and Marie Howard were the hosts of the evening.

Recently returned: Walter and Gertrude Baxter of Minerva, Ohio; John and Agnes Dentler of Colon, Mich.; Edson and Margarette Pugh of Bowling Green, Ohio; Leslie Hildreth of Fairfield, Md.; Mayan and Ethel Howard of Milford, Mich.; Frank and Catherine Keil of Bowling Green, Ohio; Charles and Marjorie Part of Sherman, N.Y.; Arthur Polson of Terre Haute, Ind.; C. L. Smith of Oakton, N.Y.; Lawrence and Ethel Staley of Nettleton, N.Y.; Elita Campbell of Life Lake, Mich.; Hazel Davis of Clio, Mich.; Cyrus and Callie Fisher of Monterey, Tenn.; Carl and Bessie Johnson of Chicago, Ill.; and Alice Maxwell of Zelleno, Pa.

There are now 583 members of the club.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Housewives Reminded That Many Things Add to Cost of Food

By KENNEL KAY

Most of us have heard that chain stores or large housewives will have some effect in bringing lower prices but I doubt very much that it will do much to solve our overall problem.

Inflation is a something that is not a business or industry, it hits everything and everyone as the buying power of our dollar goes down.

While I do not doubt that some of the promotion practices of food stores do help increase the price of store operation there are many other factors that we should consider.

Modern packaging has sharply added to retail costs, handling, storage and transportation costs, as well as the cost of all along the line with printer, packagers, warehousemen, truck drivers and many others each adding costs through labor and handling to the overall price of products.

It is difficult for the retailer to go very far in lowering prices.

Another thing is the mounting loss retailers experience each year from the activity of crooks and thieves. It amounts to a great deal more than the cost of promotion and loss of business.

Some activities they might reduce this loss.

Not only are food costs high but all costs are high. No matter where you spend your dollar today you find it buys less than it used to.

The price of services as well as products is mounting and our government has contributed to these rising costs and has done little to try to reduce them.

This campaign to lower prices might accomplish much more if, instead of picketing one industry our housewives could be organized to picket the Administration in Washington and to their individual congressmen and senators.

If a few million housewives began nagging such public officials and put the same energy and effort in the campaign they put in picketing local stores they could accomplish far more than could result from local picketing.

In condemning gimmicks, trading stamps and other promotional efforts the customers share as much as to blame as the stores for if they did not accept and use them most stores would be glad to discontinue their use.

Competition among food stores is terrific and when one chain introduces a new gimmick others must follow suit. They would find customers flocking to the stores that employ them.

At one time this nation had huge reserves of grain, butter and other products and for years we have been paying our farmers NOT to raise food crops until now, thanks to our worldwide give away program, we have just about reached the point where the cupboard is bare.

As government controls, restrictions and regulations increase costs to the consumer, the price of food in this country is effective in this area and the price was locally on the rise. It could buy a gallon of milk at retail for 90 cents but now the price has jumped to a dollar and a dollar and a quarter.

Everything I buy today costs more, not just groceries. If I could solve anything I would have to picket the drugstore, the doctor, the plumber, the house maid, the yard man for they all cost more today.
