Dog Clinic Rescheduled For Saturday, June 24

The city of Avon Park has rescheduled its Dog Clinic for Saturday, June 24 from 2-5 p.m. at the Fire Station. Dr. William Jennings will conduct the clinic. A fee of $3.00 will be charged.

The Rabies Clinic was held Friday and Saturday, June 2 and 3, but only approximately 40 dogs were inoculated.

Quite from the city charter section 5-16 Inoculation prerequisite to issuance of license, tag and collar to be worn. No license shall be issued for any dog in any year unless the dog shall have been inoculated against rabies by a veterinarian. Such veterinarian shall furnish to the owner or keeper of each dog inoculated by him a metal tag evidencing such inoculation and the date thereof which the owner or keeper of such dog shall securely fasten to the collar which he shall cause the dog to wear around its neck.

September 18 Set For Sweet's Murder Trial

Two Boston men are suspected of being the actual killers of Charles Vernon Sweet, Jr., a news journalist, at the murder trial of John J. Sweet, 31, accused of the slaying, was set tentatively for Sept. 18.

One of the men, Andrew W. Sweet, 27, was found stuffed in the trunk of his own late model car last February. He had been beaten to death, informed sources said he probably had been faced with a knife and a gun.

The night of the murder, the killers are believed to have left the murder scene in a 1965 Ford, abandoned at 1400 N. Washington St. and made their way to a motel.

Although Sweet reportedly was having dinner in a suburban private club when he was murdered, he was indicted under a portion of Florida law that holds a confederate to a murder equally as responsible as the principals who commit the crime.

A report that Herman Pettus had filed a claim for reward money was denied by the widow, Irene May, and by Pettus' attorney, Ben Griffin, in Orlando. Pettus is married to Lorenne May, who was with him when they lived in Water Garden.

With a tentative date of Sept. 18 for the trial, chances are it will be changed. State Attorney Glen Dury, for one, who will prosecute, has a conflict on that date.

Charles Judge William K. Love presided at the arraignment Thursday of Sweet, a stocky, middle-aged man, and his attorney, Walter H. Love, Jr., through his attorney, Walter H. Love, Jr., the arraignment was held in a room of Highlands County court.

Judge Love gave May only July 18 for the motions and set a tentative date of July 30 for hearing on the motions. He (Continued on Page Five)

Summer Recreation Set For Monday

All phases of the Avon Park Summer Recreation Program for students from grades one through 12 will get underway Monday morning, June 19, except the assembly line beginning swimming 10 day program which will start the following Monday, June 26, from 10 to 12 A.M.

Joe Franz, director of the program, says the first day will be used mainly for registration. All students participating in the recreation portion of the program must have permission slips signed by parents before they may enroll in the activities. Parents are urged to bring their children to the gym for registration Monday morning.

The arts and crafts program will run from June 19 through July 7 with Ernest L. Duty presiding. The activities which will be offered for the three week session will be ceramics, copper tooling, leathercraft, mosaics (seed and gravel), sculpture, textile painting, woodburning, plaster modeling, loop weaving, and paper mache. Those students wishing to participate in the arts and crafts program should report to the art room in the junior high building.

Anna Belle Worden Resigns From Chamber of Commerce After 13 Yrs.

Anna Belle Worden executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, serving 13 years, has tendered her resignation, effective July 1.

In a letter to the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce she writes the following letter:

It is with mixed emotions that I write this letter to each member of the Board of Directors. In view of the fact that I plan to get married and move to Orlando in July I wish to resign from the employment of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce effective July 1.

You must realize this has been one of the hardest decisions I can ever remember making. I know you are aware of how very much I love Avon Park and how proud I have been to be of service to the wonderful people here.

I am confident that you will be able to find someone who can help you challenge the business community and the important things, the program of vision and imagination that will make our city attractive for new business.

You have been a member of the Board of Directors that has had the courage of their convictions and were willing to stand up and be counted. I will hold my head high when I say I worked for the Chamber of Commerce and Avon Park.

Anna Belle will be married early in July to John Rupp of Orlando. He is a partner in the Orlando Citizens National Bank serving as Executive Personnel Director.

Albright Relieved Of Finance Duties

Several Negro residents of Avon Park went to the council meeting last Monday night led by Rev. W. W. Wells and Rev. Collis M. Fogle inquired of the Council the status of the municipal golf course for Avon Park. There were several other negro residents along with the two ministers.

Council President Clarence King in a statement to the people stated that no Bond Estate taxes will be increased in order to pay for the building of the golf course. President King stated that the County Commissioners will provide $15,000 to be used for recreation purposes for the city of Avon Park and that all of this money will be used to get the course in top flight shape. Mr. King further stated that the Golf Association has over $10,000 available to the city for getting Old Pinesrest Golf Course in shape for play.

A lease with the Highlands School for Girls owners of the old Pinesrest Golf course has been drawn up. President King stated to the "Sun" that the lease has been signed by both sides but because of a petition that is being circulated to allow the residents to vote on whether the city should have a golf course. Under the City Charter a contract of this type does not go into effect until 60 days after the final passage of the agreement. July 1st is the deadline for the "Sun" to be presented to the Council.

Negro representatives asked the council about fees for the course and whether the $100 yearly green fees and $20 association membership would have to be paid all at once. The "Sun" checked with W. R. Reck, president of the Avon Park Golf Association and he stated that an applicant could pay $30 down with the application for membership and $30 on the first of each succeeding month until the membership is completely paid for. Anyone interested in joining the golf Association may still enroll by contacting Mr. Reck at the Avon Citrus Bank.

The lease calls for the City to pay Highlands School for Girls $200 a month for five years and $500 a month for the additional five years of the ten year contract. There is a provision in the contract that when it comes time to build a pro shop, under terms of the agreement, no monthly rental would be required for two years.

In other business the Council heard a report from Emory Dawkins of the firm of Dawkins and Associates of Orlando, who has been hired by the city to act as consulting engineer for the new sewage treatment plant that is being built on highway 27 south of Avon Park.

Mr. Dawkins stated that representatives from the Federal Water and Pollution Agency and the State Board of Health will be in Avon Park to inspect the new plant and pumping station on Monday.

September 18 Set For Sweet's Murder Trial

Two Boston men are suspected of being the actual killers of Charles Vernon Sweet, Jr., a news journalist, at the murder trial of John J. Sweet, 31, accused of the slaying, was set tentatively for Sept. 18.

One of the men, Andrew W. Sweet, 27, was found stuffed in the trunk of his own late model car last February. He had been beaten to death, informed sources said he probably had been faced with a knife and a gun.

The night of the murder, the killers are believed to have left the murder scene in a 1965 Ford, abandoned at 1400 N. Washington St. and made their way to a motel.

Although Sweet reportedly was having dinner in a suburban private club when he was murdered, he was indicted under a portion of Florida law that holds a confederate to a murder equally as responsible as the principals who commit the crime.

A report that Herman Pettus had filed a claim for reward money was denied by the widow, Irene May, and by Pettus' attorney, Ben Griffin, in Orlando. Pettus is married to Lorenne May, who was with him when they lived in Water Garden.

With a tentative date of Sept. 18 for the trial, chances are it will be changed. State Attorney Glen Dury, for one, who will prosecute, has a conflict on that date.

Charles Judge William K. Love presided at the arraignment Thursday of Sweet, a stocky, middle-aged man, and his attorney, Walter H. Love, Jr., through his attorney, Walter H. Love, Jr., the arraignment was held in a room of Highlands County court.

Judge Love gave May only July 18 for the motions and set a tentative date of July 30 for hearing on the motions. He (Continued on Page Five)

Preliminary Hearing Granted Councilman

County Judge Mervin Rehner granted the request of city councilman Wayne W. Colbright to have a Preliminary Hearing on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Colbright was indicted on Tuesday with his attorney Joe Kinsey of Avon Park. Mr. Kinsey represented Mr. Albright in the absence of his regular attorney J. Harlan Peterson, Jr., of Lakeland.

Mr. Albright was involved in a dispute with J. K. Cobb a roofer over some work that Mr. Cobb did at the councilman's home. Cobb swore out a warrant for assault several weeks ago, but last week obtained another one charging Albright with assault with a deadly weapon.

Judge Rehner dismissed the simple assault charge, when the new warrant was obtained. The preliminary hearing will be held sometime next week at the convenience of Albright's attorney and the State Attorney.

This case was one of 60 cases that Judge Rehner heard at the regular Tuesday afternoon appearance docket session of County Court. Most of the cases are traffic violation cases.

FATHER'S DAY JUNE 18

Tribute To Dad

Only a Dad with a tired face,
Coming home from the daily race,
Bringing little of gold or fame,
To show how well he has played the game.
To be glad in his heart that his own rejoice to see him come and to hear his voice.

Only a Dad with a broad of four,
One of ten million men or more,
Plodding along in the daily strife,
Bearing the whips and the scorns of life,
With never a whimper of pain or hate,
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a Dad, neither rich or proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Striving from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way,
Silent whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a Dad, but he gives his all,
To smooth the way for his children small,
Doing with courage stern and grim,
The deeds that his father did for him,
This is the line for him I pen,
Only a Dad, but the best of men.

Lo! The Rich Indian

Ruling by the U.S. Court of Claims that the Seminoles Indians held title to most of Florida in 1823 when the United States took it over, and that their descendants, heirs, assigns and what-not are entitled to remuneration even at this late date opens some fantastic possibilities.

What the federal government actually owes to the Seminoles will be determined by the Indian Claims Commission. Semi-official estimates set the figure for the 32 million acres involved at from $40 to $50 million.

But this is based on 1823 prices, when land was selling at about $1.25 an acre. If today's Seminoles are entitled to what the Seminoles of 145 years ago were cheated out of, they also are entitled to be paid on the basis of today's prices. They went "way out" in land, declaring the parcel would be worth today, and probably no one else does either, but just the city of Miami alone would come to a tidy figure—probably enough to keep the whole tribe in mahogany chieftains for the rest of their natural lives.

But if they actually own the land, they should be paid what it's worth. We don't want another court to come along in, say, 150 years and rule that the Seminoles were cheated again in 1967.

And, by the way, it occurs to us that the Indians who sold Manhattan Island got a pretty shabby deal too. Wonder what that's worth at current real estate prices—and how soon we'll be hearing some whoops from that part of the reservation?

How Wrong Can You Be?

The editors of a nationally circulated business news letter should be blushing a fiery red these days as the result of the June 2 letter. They went "way out" in land, declaring the odds favor a settlement in the Midwest short of war. We had war.

They declared the Israelis would have to swallow some restrictions on their freedom to use the Gulf of Aqaba, which would be a victory for Egypt's Nasser and a defeat for the Jews.

What happened? Israel captured control to the gulf and handed Nasser a severe defeat.

They declared the U.S. stood to lose prestige by taking a middle position and that Russia would gain influence by its overt backing of the Arabs.

As it happened, the U.S. lost no prestige and the Russians lost a lot when the boys they backed, Nasser and his Arab friends, got the tar licked out of them, and fast.

POOD FOR SALE CHEAP
Last Saturday evening I spent $1.25 for dinner (supper to me) and I asked for fried ham. I got two pieces of something that looked (and tasted) like shoe leather. I finally got half of it down the hatch. I also got eighteen (18) green beans, by actual count, and they were just under two inches long. I also received two cold cuts, watermelon and a box of butter to go on them. I got a tablespoonful of mashed potatoes, with gravy on them.

Has Our Society Left God Out?

The society in which we live has been variously described. Some, referring to the long continued prosperity which we have enjoyed, have dubbed it the "affluent society." Others, thinking more of a goal than of an achievement, have described it as a "great society."

But, on a recent nationwide television program one of the panel members, an eminent columnist, said: "We live in a corrupt society."

His statement went unchallenged, other members of the panel apparently accepting his appraisal of the society in which we live.

Is It True?

Do you agree with this? Are we living in a corrupt society? If so, why—and what should be done about it?

Hello, Muckery?

Is the motto which appears on our coins—"In God We Trust"—now only a hollow mockery?

Many educators have interpreted the Supreme Court's decisions as, in effect, ruling out of our schools. Is this a good thing?

Yet at the same time, we have more crime, more immorality, more fears, more tensions, more uneasiness about the future. Why?

Is it because we are increasingly leaving God out of the picture?

Full Yearly Pay For All

With this combination a man may get up to 62 percent of his basic salary in the form of a wage, and an extra $1.50 a week for each dependent up to a total of $10.00.

But Now Full Yearly Pay For Everybody

This is fine for the worker, up to a point. But now, Mr. Reuther thinks the time is ripe to plump for a yearly pay guarantee for everybody. In short, all the production employees would be on an annual salary just like the executives and the department heads. The management are being told that it means only a slight extension of the supplemental unemployment program, that changeovers can be smoothed out so that the men are busy about all the time.

Reuther is going to have plenty of support for his proposal, not only among the hourly workers but even among the management men. He is planning to ask for big wage and fringe benefits, as though they could be "brought around" on his guaranteed annual pay proposal.

How Employers Look At It

The companies are not going to be a pushover for this concept. They don't like it. Even the labor unions are willing to admit that it may cost the firms as much as 10 percent more in labor costs if a full yearly income is assured that all the time.

Reuther is going to have plenty of support for his proposal, not only among the hourly workers but even among the management men. He is planning to ask for big wage and fringe benefits, as though they could be "brought around" on his guaranteed annual pay proposal.

Tallahassee Bureau

Tallahassee—It's quite true the 1967 Legislature is a slow-poke, it lacks lustre and leadership, it flounders, but there are some bills still have life which would have been laid to rest long ago in legislative limbo.

Take the "government in the sunshine" bill which Sen. Henry (Red) Cross, D-Gainesville, has introduced biennially for the last 12 years.

Even though Rep. William V. Chappell, D-DeFuniak, rural bloc leader of the past, and present, tried to substantiate after the intent by allowing governmental agencies to meet in secret for all but policy decisions, the bill sailed through both chambers.

In the past it never got out of committee. "Creation of a strong purchasing commission would have died an early death in the past."

The stiffest opponents would have been the agencies themselves and the politicians running them. Legislators of the past scratched the agencies' back and the agencies in turn could scratch a fine message for the rural bloc-controlled Legislature.

Public utilities in the past have managed to avoid the strictures of the rural bloc by killing proposals to allow rate-of-service and rate-of-return hearings.

Now, this measure has passed the Senate and the House should pass it.

Even a simple thing like going to daylight saving time would never have passed the rural bloc Legislature. The agricultural interests probably have vetoed it.

Letter To Editor

Mr. Carter:
How much longer is the city of Avon Park maintenance going to leave that "A" off the Avon Park sign on US 27 approaching the city?

City Council—

Friday morning, Mr. Dawkins further pointed out that the city will not be the final inspection but that there will be more inspections in the modern facility in the next few months.

The consulting engineer told councilmen that "you need a multiple duty man, one who is a 'jack of all trades' at the new plant." He suggested that the Council seriously consider the possibility of combining the sewer and water departments so that the personnel of the inter-departmental, thereby keeping the cost of an operation within the limits of a budget that the City of Avon Park could afford. He recommended that if these departments were combined that only one additional man would need to be employed for the project.

Council President Clarence King asked Mr. Dawkins if it would be necessary to have a man at the new plant 24 hours a day. Dawkins stated that they could get by with signing a policeman or fireman to do certain critical items during the night so that it would not be necessary to employ a police officer to cover an all night shift. This would keep the limited budget within reason. Dawkins stated that he would like to see the City Council agree to put a mercury vapor light on East Center Street in the middle of the block from the East corner of Center Street and South Florida intersection.

Council agreed to remove the raft from Lake Verona and will store it in the city barn.

Councilmen hired Keith Albritton as a fulltime guard and set his hours Monday through Saturday as 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. They hired Chuck Long as a part-time lifeguard on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday and his hours will be from 12 noon to 6 p.m. on these days. These lifeguards will be on duty at the beach on Lake Verona.

Council President Clarence King announced that for the "best interests of the city" he was relieving Councilman Wayne W. Albright as Chairman of the Finance Committee and would appoint a new chairman at a later date.

Fire Chief William Giddens reported to the Council the following fire report for the month of May: Construction fires, 7; grass and wood fires, 17; rescue, 1; false alarms, 2; total alarms, 27. Total fire loss $123. Total fire loss first five months of 1967, $18,425.

Police Chief C. S. Carroll in his May report to the Council revealed that there were 76 arrests, complaints and investigations, 172. Service rendered, 99; traffic accidents, 99. Total mileage for the month was listed by the Chief as 3,297. Total hours worked by prisoners, 1251.

The next regular semi-monthly meeting of the Council will be held at 7:30 p.m. on June 19th at the City Council Chamber in City Hall.

The new Claude Kirk, advised by his new press aide, William Safire of New York, are setting it on for the press.

The past month he has been much more friendly with the press, which in the past Gov. Kirk considered antagonistic.

The most recent bit of good P-R work was a barbecue for press, wives and little children at the mansion.

Industry Is At New High In Expansion

Industrial development in Florida during the first four months of 1967 has set a record pace last year, according to the Florida Development Commission.

A total of 61 new plants and expansion announcements were made during the first four months of 1967, compared with 53 for the same period last year.

The Commission said that a significant trend has appeared in industrial development. Expansion of existing plants is already outnumbering new plants, but the new plants are larger than last year.

There were only 25 new plants reported for the first four months of 1966, compared with 29 in 1967. But employment is only 25 less. There were 28 new jobs added in 1966, and only 25 last year, employing 4,000, and only 25 last year, employing 3,000.

The double-barreled revelation by Governor Claude R. Kildee that the new Westinghouse plant at Tampa and the International Building at Sebring are already under way, is a sign of the times.

The largest single new plant announcement was by Anheuser-Busch, which announced a $10 million expansion of its brewery in Jacksonville.

The Westinghouse facility will cost an estimated $10 million and will employ 200 men. It has been put on the 1967 plan, it is reported to be in the final stages of construction.

Westinghouse will produce steam generators for nuclear power plants and will employ 200 or more. IBM also has made an announcement of anticipated employment, but has not yet announced a plant. IBM said it will produce computer components. IBM now is housed in a building at Sebring, 75,000 feet of temporary facilities.

The second largest new plant announcement was also in March by the Florida Power Corporation. The new 1,000 MW plant at Sebring is being constructed at a cost of $10 million.

Florida Power revealed that FPC was beginning construction of a 600 million watt nuclear power plant at its generating facility at Crystal River.

The largest expansion announcement was by Salomon Brothers, Inc., in Riviera Beach. The company will add 60,000 square feet at a cost of more than $1 million and employment will increase by 100.

Also included in the expansion announcement was that of the Chemical Division of the Hercules Chemical Company in Jacksonville, Fla., which makes organic chemicals. The plant will be completed in April for a $1.5 million expansion.

Too Late to Classify

By Russell Kay

A friend of mine has a sign in his office which pictures a grinning, happy faced man and under it the single admission, "Down With All Dicks."

If you ask me it makes a lot of sense. In this crazy, mixed up age most of us are running around in circles in search of health and happiness.

Never in the history of the world have we been given such a wide variety of advice as to what is the matter with us and what to do about it. No matter what your ailment someone or your acquaintance can tell you just what the trouble is and what to do about it. You are told that milk is the only natural food and if you don't eat it all your troubles will vanish. Those from another school, who read something in a newspaper or a book, are quick to tell you that milk is poison and it will kill you.

Salt and pepper you are told is extremely dangerous. Sugar is worse. Natural fruits and vegetables are the only things you can eat with safety. On the other hand if you don't eat meat, you will lose your strength and waste away in no time.

I have a friend who swears by peanuts. He says you should eat them religiously every day if you want to stay well. Another tells me that nuts are the worst thing in the world. Then I am told that if I eat three or four almonds every day I will never have cancer.

Another friend of mine is a grape happy. He claims he has retained his health by eating no less than a pound of grapes a day. Cheese is good, he says, but you must eat it with your arms raised. You really want to stay well you will eat wheat germ, egg yolks, sunflower seeds, sugar, fresh sea water, go all out on sea food and steer clear of rice and potatoes.

Among my acquaintances I have an old-fashioned country doctor who doesn't agree with the experts. He says you are more likely to die of a disease with most folk today is their gullibility. They are continually scaring themselves to death. They believe anything they hear.

They keep feeding fear to their subconscious mind. They tell you over and over that they can't eat this or can't eat that so that their subconscious mind accepts it and proceeds to carry out the instructions it is given. If they just had sense enough to tell their subconscious mind that they are well and happy and doing okay they would find themselves in perfect health.

If you go around all day crying about your pains and ails and feeling sorry for yourself you can wind up in a wheelchair before you know it. On the other hand if you resist the inclination to talk about your troubles and direct your mind to stay on an even keel your troubles will diminish to the extent that your subconscious mind determines you mean what you say for it is guided by what you tell it and works diligently to bring the desired situation about.

Maxcy Assets Huge But So Are The Claims

Assets of the late Charles VonMaxcy, Maxcy, found murdered in his home here Oct. 12, total $1,724,673.30, according to an inventory taken by court appointed appraisers, but enormous claims will whittle this down.

And it is alleged in some of the claims that the deceased gave preference to creditors of his corporation, Von Maxcy, Inc., after knowledge of its insolvency.

The inventory, filed May 4 in the county judge's court, was made by the firm of Brass and Schneider, Orlando, and signed by them and by Mrs. Irene Maxcy, widow of the slain man and Citrus National Bank of Orlando as co-executors of the estate.

A large number of claims has been filed since the will was offered for probate last Oct. 12, and the file now is bulging almost four inches thick with claims and other legal papers.

The net assets should be reduced considerably from the large number of claims among the fastest of which are two for $200,000 each by Florida Citrus Production Credit Association.

Many of the thousands of dollars in claims are owed to the larger claims is that of the deceased's family. One of $115,334 is claimed by Mrs. Maxcy, his sister, who claims $115,334 for her share of the estate.

One of the claims, for $200,000, is owed to the deceased's mother, Mrs. Maxcy, for proceeds of fruit sold by Von Maxcy or Von Maxcy, Inc., Laura Elizabeth Maxcy, his sister, has a claim for $200,000.

According to the will, the widow, Irene, through a marital trust, is to receive the estate outright. The other half is to be paid to the widow in a residue trust, in which the income is to be paid for life with the children—Charles, Johnnie Ruth, Martin and Marvin. On her death, the trust would go to the children, portions to be paid when they are 25, 30, 35 and the remainder at age 40.

According to the inventory, Von Maxcy had cash on hand and in banks of $1,411 at the time of his death, $20,367.12 in stocks, $791,450.61 in personal property, $102,822 miscellaneous (fruit, equipment, etc.) and $200,540 in real estate.

The stocks held were as follows: $332,394, representing 15,132 shares of National Standard Life Insurance Co.; $128,881.81, 4 1/4 shares of Maxcy, Inc.; capital stock; $113,386.85, Sunco Ltd.; $110,040, 40 shares Vacation, Inc.; capital stock; $62,533, 1/2 interest in Triangle Utilities Inc.; $400,750, nine shares in First National Bank of Atlanta; $300, 100 shares in National Life Insurance Co.; $85, one share in Sebring Golf Association; and $2,500, 10 shares in Tropical Bank and Trust Co.

The partnerships are: partnership in CV and JG Maxcy, $121,872.80; 60 percent interest in Maxcy, Arcadia, $110,040 and 1/2 interest in Maxcy Groves, $279,808.12.

There again, the seven factors prevail. Martin pointed out that any taxpayer can

The miscellaneous included: VonMaxcy, $113,386.85, equipment, $113,386.85, and cattle roundup, $79,440.

Other items included: Hardee ranch, $271,560, young 20 Groves, $10,518; Old 20 Groves, $25,000; 20 Groves, $12,810; CVM 26 Groves, $60,220; Frontpoint 3 Groves, $2,750; Frontpoint 10 Groves, $11,250.

AVON PARK Fire Department and the National Guard came to the rescue of Walker Memorial Hospital last week when the hospital's water pump broke. Sgt. Assessment Runs High For a Few

About five per cent of Highlands County taxpayers are paying taxes on an assessed valuation higher than what they paid for their property.

This is how it works under the new law: If a property owner's assessed valuation is higher than what he paid for it, he is assessed for the difference.

Some people get a good buy and some people do not, explained Martin. "The law says we must have seven factors in order to be fair with our property owners. I will use the law to the best of my ability to be fair to everyone, but we have to pay by the law."

The factors are: (1) present cash value; (2) highest and best use of the property; (3) location of the property; (4) quantity or size of said property; (5) cost of said property; and present replacement value of any improvements thereon; (6) condition of said property; (7) income from said property; and (8) condition of the property.

Assessor Martin and Henry Streeter of his office now are in the field valuing new properties. Highlands County taxpayers have until some time in July, date yet to be set, to protest their 1967 assessments.

Real Estate appraisers mean one and the same thing: a fair market value, according to a Florida Supreme Court Decision, Martin declared.

While new construction has more chance of getting a top valuation, land appears to be one thing which may not be on a recent large sale of land, the assessment was $250 an acre. The new owner paid over $200 an acre.

If this occurs often enough, we will have to revalue, as at the going market," said Martin.

Martin cited the case of the landowner who each year writes bitter letters over the assessment of his "poor, worthless scrub land" for which he paid $2.50 per acre 30 years ago. Now it is assessed for $200 per acre, and was assessed as agricultural land for a much lower value.

Avon Park's Golden Age Villas, former wartime housing now completely renovated and selling for $4,500 to $5,500, do not qualify for full Homestead Exemption since there are many units to be sold.

Some get only $610 exemption which is their property share in their building. Judge Love then declared court in recess and asked Sheriff Broward Coker to clear the courtroom. Love remarked outside the courtroom Coker had done a "wonderful job" of handling the court.

Within a matter of a few minutes, Coker had cleared the courtroom, leaving King and Rhodes on duty inside. Murdock outside.

The whole proceedings took only 15 minutes and an obviously disappointed crowd filed out. Among those in attendance, were James Maxcy, brother of the slain man, and Mrs. James Maxcy, living in the back row.

Judge Love, apparently anticipating a short session, began a dark business suit. He does not use his official robes here. Here from Lakeland for the brief session was Love's court reporter Mrs. Bonnie Scifano.

After the courtroom cleared, Darty was seen with Jimmy Maxcy, and mentioned "They told me not to leave." As the afternoon wore on, Judge Love finally left and Darty followed.

SFJC President Speaks To Rotary

Bill Stallard reported to the club on the development of the South Florida Junior College over the past year and gave an

of the current problems faced by the institution due to the uncertainty of legislative appropriations. He stated that the College expected approximately five hundred students which would tax the facilities to the limit and then mentioned the very real problems of recruiting able instructors, as well as retaining those presently on the staff, where he had no idea concerning the specific salaries which the school could offer.

We were brought up to date on the effort to obtain an adult vocational-technical school at the College, and sketches were shown of the proposed new buildings to be located on the site south of Avon Park. While funds are available for the construction of the vocational-technical school, provided it is approved, the construction of the College proper is also dependent upon capital outlay appropriations by the current legislature.

Next week we will hear from Mr. Harvey Jackson of the South Florida Junior College with his armed forces unit at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

When the court cleared, Manley and Sweet retired to the jury room behind the bench and conferred there until 5 P.M. when Sweet was returned to jail.

The three deputies stayed and guard, two in the courtroom, Murdock just outside. Several friends of Sweet stayed the long afternoon outside the courtroom to say "hello" and wish "good luck" to Sweet as he left to return to jail.

Sweet's wife, Peggy, of Foxboro, Mass., is due here June 22, but by the side of her husband. Their son, Robert, will come with her, and their older son, John will arrive later.

Maxcy, 42, wealthy business man, was slain in the bedroom of his spacious ranch home off Sparta Road last Oct. 3. His body was found shot and stabbed by his wife, Irene, 44, lying in a pool of blood on the bedroom carpet. Sweet was a palmer at the funeral.

The widow, second wife of the slain man was seen frequently in groups with the personable Sweet after her husband's death. She was one of two witnesses who testified before the grand jury which on May 10 indicted Sweet for first degree murder. He had been arrested May 7 in St. Petersburg.

Maxcy was survived by his widow; three children, Charles, the son by his first wife, the former Peggy Bingham; Marvin, his daughter by Irene, and Johnnie Ruth Higgins, the daughter of his wife, Irene, by one of her two previous marriages.

Among those in the crowd were uncles of the slain man, the powerful and wealthy Left and John Maxcy of Ft. Pierce. They sat in the second row behind the grand jury.

Maxcy explained the business of the court was carried on in such low voices he could not hear. This was echoed by others of the audience.

However, when Judge Love called court to order, Sweet sitting with his attorney inside the courtroom, got to his feet and loudly and clearly stated: "Let me clarify the record. Mr. Manley will represent me."

Darty then read the charge. Manley, red faced, 6'8", towering over his short, stocky client, said clearly "We will waive reading of the indictment and enter a plea of not guilty."

Judge Love then asked "Are there any motions?" Manley replied that "He has discussed some of these with you and with the state's attorney." He added there were none at that moment and asked to be alone with his client.

Judge Love, then declared court in recess and asked Sheriff Broward Coker to clear the courtroom. Love remarked outside the courtroom Coker had done a "wonderful job" of handling the court.

Within a matter of a few minutes, Coker had cleared the courtroom, leaving King and Rhodes on duty inside. Murdock outside.

Talking to reporters outside the courtroom after recess, Darty mentioned he had a conflict on the Sept. 18 date, but he would be in court to give us all a chance to check our calendars.

Darty said he, Darty, had expected a motion for bail to be made.

Army Offers Jobs

The United States Army as an employer of young men has more to offer its employees in the way of job opportunities than any commercial or business firm in the world.

Many of these Army jobs are civilian related and more than 200,000 young men coming out of the Army after a three-year tour of duty is qualified for well paying jobs in civilian industry whereas before his enlistment, he was not really employable.

As a qualified high school graduate an enlistee can get Army training, Army housing and the Army guarantees in writing that he will get it.

The jobs and courses of study that a young man can get in the Army are so many and so diversified that a volunteer is sure to be able to find something for which he has a natural talent.

Altogether, there are 300 different jobs from which the enlistee may choose. These include electronics, photography, mechanics, finance, public relations, IBM operator or repair and many, many more.

Helps Direct Beach Landing

Navy Lieutenant Commander John W. Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Hughes, Avon Park, helped direct the landing of a 10,000-man force of Marines on the beaches of Camp Pendleton Marine Corps Base in southern California, during a simulated wartime amphibious training exercise.

He is a staff member attached to the Commander Landing Ship Flotilla One, Code named "Aligator Hide," the exercise dealt with the tactical situation of the "hostile" country, "Macao," being overrun by the nearby country of "Hornum." Under treaty agreements, "Macao" requested U. S. assistance to prevent further seizure of territory, and to regain what was lost.

With this objective, the Leathernecks went ashore, established their beachhead positions, and then moved into the "hostile" area, sweeping them clear of the enemy.

Completing their mission, the forces moved back to the beaches and out to the transport ships standing offshore.

School Teachers Given Some Fringe Benefits

Highlands County school board has approved two parts of a fringe benefit program requested by the Highlands County Education Association but has delayed action on four, more costly, parts.

The package of benefits was presented to the board at its June meeting Tuesday night. Chairman Henry Bailey told a teacher delegation, "We can't do all of these things until we have to wait until we know what money we are going to have from the state and local level our hands are tied."

The requests approved Tuesday are for payment, up to $5 each, for the annual medical examination required of all teachers. Substitute teacher pay scale was raised from $13 to $14 per day.

Superintendent George F. Douglas said the medical examination payments will cost about $100 per year and the pay scale on the number of substitute teachers used in recent years, about $1,000.

Action was deferred on a request for school board participation in group health insurance premiums, cost about $10,000. Superintendent Douglas said the program for retiring teachers, cost about $200 to $300 per year, was not estimated; revision of the salary schedule was not estimated.

The salary revision, Superintendent Douglas said, would be a shift in when the present schedule is given more money to the younger teachers. Gordon R. Hume, the representative of the HCEA salary committee Tuesday said that Highlands County ranks 14th in the state in the salary schedule for teachers with 10 or more years of experience but 16th in the state in beginning salaries.

He said the county's teachers have concluded that it will be necessary to offer higher starting salaries and reduce the increments for experience. Board member E. Ray Wells objected that older teachers will not accept such revision.

The school board could not agree on a solution to another problem, Douglas said, to put the money it does have. For three and a half years the board has followed a policy of annual revision of accounts against the county's four banks.

OTTO FORTNER, president of the board, said the state audit of school board accounts, completed this spring, is very critical of the board and charged the law that at all times each bank within the county must have a per cent of the county's total bank representatives.

The board refused to make a distribution of funds without first having a conference with bank representatives.

"These accounts are in-and-out affairs," Douglas said, "since we are required to place every possible dollar on time."

In the News

TOP BRASS of the Israeli military forces is Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, hero of the 1966 victory over Egyptian forces in the Sinai Peninsula. The appointment of Dayan as defense minister was reportedly a boost to Jewish morale at the outset of the crisis over the Gulf of Aqaba.

MINIZOO EARRINGS are fashionable with young ladies in Switzerland. The baubles house live fish, spiders, bugs, anything that will fit.

Nicaragua is Central America's largest and most thinly populated nation. It is about the same size as Iowa, and has about a million people.

There is only one motor highway in the entire world crossing the 180th Meridian - and it is located on the island of Taveuni, in the Fiji Islands.

Professional cowboys from throughout the nation will be competing at the 1967 Silver Spurs Independence Day Rodeo at Kalamazoo, July 24.

It's no trick at all for a married woman who knows nothing of politics to become speaker of the house.

The good Lord created all kinds of people but some of them make us wonder why.

KEEP THE GAS PILOT ON THIS SUMMER!

CHECK THE BENEFITS

For Big Returns At Little Cost Your Gas Pilot Gives:

1. Longer Life For Your Heating Equipment

Experience has proven that the small amount of heat from the gas pilot keeps heating equipment dry during the summer. This protects the heating system from corrosion and prolongs the life of your equipment.

2. Instant Heat On Cool Summer Days

You can take the edge off chilly summer days with a touch of the finger. By using your heating system for just a few hours, you rid your house of dampness and summer chills and you also have instant command of your heating system for cool days in early fall.

3. Autumn Convenience-No Delay

If your pilot is on, you avoid the inconvenience of having to wait to have your pilot lighted in the fall. Because of the great number of gas heating customers, it is impossible to light everyone's pilot immediately. To bring your heating system into instant operation all you need to do is reset your thermostat to heating position.

4. Cost Is Small-Benefits Large

At a little cost you can prolong the life of your equipment and get greater comfort in your home-by keeping the gas pilot on this summer.

5. Users Find The Lighted Pilot Pays

Each year more of our space heating customers decide to leave the gas pilot on in their heating systems during the summer months. They appreciate the many benefits this small pilot brings between the heating seasons. We recommend that you try it this summer.

PROPER CARE PAYS

Your Gas Heating Equipment will last longer and give you better service if you give it better care. An annual check by your heating dealer will assure satisfactory year 'round operation. We suggest that during the summer months, before we become busy with fall installations, call and let us check your equipment.

I don't know. I don't want to know.

Don't tell me.

People who read the daily newspaper don't feel this way. In fact, the average reader spends more than half an hour with his paper every day. He starts from page one and reads right through to the back cover. He opens just about every single page. And surveys prove that after hard news and the sports or women's page, most people enjoy reading the ads best.

Why the curiosity? Because people believe that their daily newspaper is filled with things they ought to know — things that are important and immediate. Things that are the truth. Last year, advertisers invested over $4 billion in newspapers to get the attention of the people in this country who want to know. That was a pretty good investment, wouldn't you say?

PROOF OF THE "BIG DIFFERENCE" — SAVINGS UP TO $4.80
 On a $40.58 average grocery bill
 The latest Shopping Test was made on May 27, 1967 by a trained consumer shopper in Winn-Dixie/Kwik Chek and five other top local food stores of this area. The prices of 50 different items, produce, and grocery items were compared on identical brands and quality. In this five-store survey, none of the other four stores had the same brand of an item, a brand of comparable quality was used for an accurate and fair comparison.
 All 50 items used in this comparison were carefully selected to be items which would normally appear on the average weekend food bill. Many of these items have not been used in any other test for the weekend.
 Here is a "BIG DIFFERENCE" — the cost of this typical food bill ranged from a low of $36.31 at Winn-Dixie/Kwik Chek to a high of $41.11 at chain "C." A savings of up to $4.80 for Winn-Dixie/Kwik Chek customers.
WHAT MAKES THE "BIG DIFFERENCE" ON YOUR TOTAL FOOD SHOP?
 It's really very simple. At Winn-Dixie/Kwik Chek you get:
 (1) Real savings on popular items every day.
 (2) Same savings on Deep-Cut Specials every day of the week.
 There are other "BIG DIFFERENCES" — like the fact that Winn-Dixie/Kwik Chek is a U.S.A. Chain Store, serving fresh produce, beautiful modern stores and courteous service.

County Retard

Highlands County commissioners moved Tuesday to expansion of educational facilities for retarded children. At the request of the Johnson, Jr. president of the Area Association for Retarded Children, the commissioners voted to release to the Association the $5,000 the county had set aside for mental health, mental retardation work in 1966-67 year.

Johnson told the commissioners that anticipated enrollment for the existing day facilities exceeds class space. "When school opens in September we will have 22 students in Ridge Area Day School, Avon Park and 10 in Placid. These students' enrollments for these units we already have 14 referrals from the county board of the Avon Park school and will be made within the few weeks. You can see the needs are ahead of the facilities," Johnson said.

A $5,000 grant from the state in the 1965-66 year, Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children and the Highlands County school board and open a single Ridge Area Day School at the Lake Placid grounds.

Commissioner Cecil Seel moved that the already budget grant be released to Ridge and the board passed the motion without debate. Later Johnson said a decision has not been made whether the funds will be

County Seeks To Make Buy System Work

"Who bought it?" is a query heard at almost every county commission since the county institute purchasing department and mail buying methods. Every purchase, no matter how small, must have a purchase order. Bills without such an order are reviewed by the purchasing mission, and each month there are some unauthor bills, always entered by the buyer.

Letters have been sent the firms doing business the county requesting cooperation in requiring purchase orders, and employees have been informed of policy. Tuesday Earl Crutcher moved to put teeth into policy by introducing a bill that all county employees given written notice that in the future, the employees a bill will be held partly responsible for payment materials bought without purchase order. "This is a county requirement," Clark Earl Crutcher said, "and we really expect the businessmen county to enforce it. It's a problem and we have some way to make it work."

THE COMMITTEE for the individual business cancer crusade is shown here looking at the brochures that are being passed out to local business for the Cancer Crusade. The drive will continue through Friday. Anyone wishing to donate may call

County To Enlarge Retarded Facilities

Highlands County commissioners moved Tuesday to insure expansion of educational facilities for retarded children.

At the request of Thomas Johnson, Jr., president of Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children, the commissioners voted to release to the Association the $5,000 the county had budgeted for mental health and mental retardation work in the 1966-67 year.

Johnson told the commissioners that anticipated enrollment for the existing day school facilities exceeds classroom space.

"When school opens in September we will have 22 students in Ridge Area Day School in Avon Park and 10 in Lake Placid. These are maximum enrollments for these units, but we already have 14 referrals for the Avon Park school and more will be made within the next few weeks. You can see that the needs are ahead of the facilities," Johnson said.

A $5,000 grant from the county in the 1965-66 year enabled Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children and the Highlands County school board to build and open a single-story Ridge Area Day School adjacent to the Lake Placid school grounds.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper moved that the already budgeted grant be released to Ridge Area, and the board passed the motion without debate.

Later Johnson said a final decision has not been made whether the funds will be used to add to the Ridge Area Day School across the street from the elementary school in Avon Park or the money used to build or lease a classroom near a boarding school. "We are still evaluating our needs," Johnson said. "But now we are certain of having a classroom someplace for these handicapped children."

The Highlands County commission had earned state-wide recognition for leadership in mental retardation work and the state Division of Mental Retardation has chosen this county for some pilot programs.

Legislature's action "is looking good—if we don't get a veto," Dr. Stallard told the Highlands school board Tuesday night.

He said the bill passed by the Legislature provides "even more money than we had hoped for" for the junior college program, but a veto is expected and chances for override are considered slim.

Governor Claude Kirk's negative vote did not block the appointment of three members for South Florida Junior College's advisory committee.

The Highlands County school board had recommended that C. L. Reynolds of Lake Placid, Dr. E. M. Hodges of Hardee County and Norman Horton of Sebring be reappointed to the junior college's advisory committee.

When the recommendations went before the cabinet, sitting as the state board of education, the vote on the appointments was 4-1, with the Governor casting the no vote.

SHERIFF AT STATE MEET
Sheriff Howard Coker has returned from Panama City where he attended the 35th annual conference of the Florida Sheriffs Association. He was accompanied by E. Odell Carfiori, assistant superintendent of the state prison at Raiford. Sheriff Coker is a past president of the state association.

Every purchase, no matter how small, must have a purchase order, Bills submitted without such an order must be reviewed by the county commission, and each meeting there are some unauthorized bills, always greeted by "Who bought it?"

Letters have been sent to the firms doing business with the county requesting their cooperation in requiring purchase orders, and employees have been informed of the policy.

Tuesday Earl Crutchfield moved to put teeth into the policy by introducing a motion that all county employees be given written notice that, in the future, the employee signing a bill will be held personally responsible for paying for materials bought without a purchase order.

"This is a county requirement," Clerk Earl R. observed, "and we really cannot expect the businessmen of the county to enforce it. It is our problem and we have to find some way to make it work."

Swimming Classes Will Highlight Summer Recreation Program Mon.

Almost 200 Avon Park boys and girls registered to participate in the summer recreation program on the opening day last Monday at the high school gym.

Included in the large number of registrants were 65 students in the band program and 67 boys and girls signed up to take part in the three week arts and crafts course.

This first week of recreation will be climaxed tomorrow (Friday) with a trail ride for boys and girls with horses. The group will assemble at the day pit on the curve of the truck route northeast of town between 8:00 and 8:30 A.M. and will proceed out the bounding range road toward the creek. The riders are asked to bring lunch and a raincoat or poncho in case of rain.

Summer Recreation Program will not sponsor any dances this summer. Other organizations will be sponsoring them.

Coach Franza and Coach Hill will accompany the group and will be taken along in case of an emergency. The riders will return by 4 P.M. Activities will also be allowed at the gym while the ride is taking place.

The highlights of next week will be the start of the beginning swimming program on Monday from 10:00 to 11:30 A.M. and a trip to Vero Beach scheduled for Saturday.

Senior high students next Thursday, June 29. The students going on the beach trip will leave from the gym by bus at 8:30 A.M. and return at 4:00 P.M. Students must provide their own lunch or take money to buy something to eat while over there.

The assembly line beginning swimming program will be for children five years of age and older. Children under school age must be accompanied by their parents according to Franza. The program will run for ten days from next Monday, June 26, through Tuesday, July 4.

And Tuesday, July 4, the program will just be extended to finish the course. There will be only one beginning swimming course this summer so all parents interested in having their children participate should register them before next Monday or take them to avoid the rush and start the course. Any parents interested in helping with the teaching should contact Joe Franza at the gym before Monday.

Children's children must be accompanied by a parent. A girls trip composed of Cheryl Guendert, Diane Landress and Patsy Bare

L. B. J. Has Grandson

Announcement was made in Austin, Tex. of the birth of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Pat Nugent at 7:59 a.m., Wed., June 21st.

She was driven to the hospital at 2 a.m., a distance of 2 miles by her husband.

The arts and crafts classes are held in the junior high building art room from 8:30 to 10:00, 10:00 to 12:00, and 1:00 to 3:00 each week-day. Sign up with Mr. Doty for interesting work in many different areas. This course will last only two more weeks so those interested should join up immediately.

There are thirteen boys and girls signed up to golf each morning from 8 — 10 and meeting to get at 10:15. The only problem is that Avon Park hasn't acted on giving permission to give a local golf course started and the boys and girls will either have to go to Sebring to play or not take part in this program at all. If facilities were here in Avon Park, the staff feels sure that this activity would be one of the most popular in the program. Golf is a growing sport and the students need to be learning this game now while the time is available to teach them.

The recreation program will also include tennis on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 8 — 10 each week-day morning except Fridays.

laid in his capacity as school board secretary to advertise for bids for the sale of $1 million in certificates of indebtedness to finance the purchase of new school buildings.

If the board's fiscal advisors—Wannacotte and Ramsey of Miami—advised preparing for sale as quickly as possible, the certificates of indebtedness could be sold in a month, Board Attorney Frank Bryant said Tuesday.

Bond interest rates have been climbing rather sharply for the past three weeks, and the Highlands board members indicated they would consider immediate sale only if convinced that the Florida Legislature would drastically reduce or eliminate this county's share of race track income before the bond market would improve.

Proceeds realized from the sale—when and if it takes place—are pledged to school construction. Tuesday night the Highlands board voiced concern about the uncertain state of Florida school finances at this time and wondered aloud whether some of the race track money may be needed for current budget in the coming biennium.

Superintendent Worried
Dougherty, who spent three days last week at a conference of Florida school superintendents, told the Highlands board he had come home with deeper apprehensions about the immediate future of Florida schools.

"Actions have hurt and are going to hurt more. Somehow the Governor and FEA must get together and begin every citizen to contact legislators and stress to them the need to hunt for a solution which will put the children of Florida first," Dougherty said.

Former Claude Kirk has held the appropriations bill before him for several days and must have acted on it by midnight Wednesday or it will become law without his signature.

If no appropriations law is on the books by July 1, state law beaches (on the east side of the road). The commissioners had obtained plans and cost estimates for a walk-over bridge to link the parking lot and beach areas.

The cost estimate of $65,000 ended the commission's problem at the meeting this week. Commissioner Jean Whitaker suggested that the city try to obtain property adjacent to the bridge over the canal linking Lake Jackson and Little Lake Jackson.

"I believe a walkway under the bridge can be built more practically than a walkway over it," Whitaker said.

A long resolution, from the Sebring Chamber of Commerce and Sebring Junior Chamber of Commerce, requested our Beaches Committee, read Tuesday by Walter K. McGrath, points out that the beaches destroyed by the four-lane provided the only water sports available to the "more than 100,000 people annually using the facilities of Highlands Hammock."

Commissioner Cecil Skipper and Chairman Carl McIntyre moved Tuesday to go to the State Road Department district office at Bartow to participate in a conference with the department's planning division. The State will require that some local governmental agency serve as sponsor of a beach project, but no decision was made Tuesday morning whether the Sebring City Council or Highlands County Commission will be the sponsor.
