Devils Beat Brahmans Take On Sebring Next

The Avon Park Red Devils corraled the Okeechobee Brahmans with a 45-0 shut-out last Friday night to spoil the game portion of an otherwise super-successful homecoming celebration in Okeechobee. The homecoming floats were undoubtedly the best the Avon Park fans have seen this year and the local football followers have witnessed four homecomings already with Sebring's festivities still ahead.

The win over the Brahmans gives the Red Devils a 5-3-1 record to take into the big Thanksgiving battle at Fireman's Field against the high-flying Blue Streaks who have been defeated only once in eight games. The Sebring team apparently had the district title in its grasp until last Friday night when the Kathleen Red Devils took an 18-15 victory on the Streaks home field. Now Sebring is tied with Fort Meade in the district race and still must face North Fort Myers and Avon Park. Fort Meade has only Turkey Creek left on its ten game schedule. They meet this Friday night. The Red Devils will rest up this week with an open date.

The odds favor Sebring to take this year's battle between the two Highlands County schools, but the Red Devils can't be counted out for several reasons. First the game is always an emotional battle as well as a test of strength and skill for the boys. Next, the Avon Park boys would like nothing better than to spoil the Streak's chances for a district title and the pressure will be on Sebring and Coach Odham while Avon Park has not title hopes on the line. The game is always a natural thriller with the rivalry so hot this year's battle is shaping up as the game of the year for both teams.

Last week the Red Devils showed their offensive ground power as they ground out 390 yards against the 'Chobee defense and had over 100 yards in intercepted pass returns. Avon Park didn't throw a single pass in the 45-0 win. The Devil defense was outstanding against holding the Brahmans to 38 wards net rushing and allowing only 15 yards through the air. The defensive eleven intercepted four passes and recovered two fumbles to aid the winning effort.

The Devils first score came midway in the first period. From the Avon Park 40 yard line, the Devils marched sixty yards in five plays for the touchdown. Lemler carried through the middle three times for 23 yards and Seigler picked up two to put the ball on the 35-yard line. Then Willie Joe Seigler scooted through off left tackle and cut back to his right for the thirty-five yard scoring jaunt. Lemler slanted off right between the tackle and the end for the point after.

Avon Park's second touchdown came early in the second quarter after John Alwood recovered a Brahman fumble on the Okeechobee 20-yard line. Seigler picked up nine yards, Lemler added three, and

1000 Hunters Register In At Bombing Range Last Sunday

More big game was taken at the Avon Park bombing range Sunday than in two days of hunting at the Fisheating Creek wildlife management area.

And there were fewer hunters at Avon Park.

Oliver Hill Ivey, game manager at Avon Park, said a total of exactly 1,000 hunters checked in at the range Sunday. This compares to 1,400 last year. The hunters bagged a total of 17 deer, 19 turkeys, 396 quail, 90 squirrel, 144 hogs and 11 snipe.

Hunting is allowed on Sundays only unless not otherwise notified by the Air Force.

At the Fisheating Creek area for Saturday and Sunday, an estimated 1,500 to 1,600 hunters banged away. They got 2 hogs, 7 deer, 192 turkeys, 819 quail, 326 squirrel and 959 snipe.

Waterfowl season, ducks, geese, and coots, will open one-half hour before sunrise November 23, with hunting allowed from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset.

The second phase of the dove hunting season opens statewide November 18, with hunting allowed from noon until sunset. Hunting of the migratory snipe opened November 11. Woodcock hunting begins November 18. Hunting hours for snipe and woodcock are from one-half hour before sunrise to sunset. The season for rail and gallinule closes November 24.

Hunters between the ages of 15 and 65 must obtain a hunting license, and all hunters over the age of 16 must obtain a duck stamp before hunting ducks.

Hunters on the Avon Park Wildlife Management Area in Polk and Highlands Counties are urged to exercise extreme caution during the 1967-68 hunting season.

The Avon Park area, in addition to providing some outstanding hunting opportunities, serves as a bombing range for the Air Force. Accelerated bombing maneuvers have resulted in an excessive amount of unexploded bombs and rockets scattered throughout the area.

"Do not touch or disturb" is the key warning for sportsmen on the Avon Park area. According to Air Force officials, the unexploded ordnances are not duds and each is armed and may be set off by a minor disturbance.

According to O. E. Frye, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, one sportsman was involved in a serious accident last year when he picked up an unexploded bomb and a similar incident this season may result in the closing of the Avon Park Wildlife Management Area to public hunting. The target areas are closed to hunting and travel and sportsmen should observe the closed signs for their own safety.

About 2,000 acres have been excluded from the southwest corner of the Fisheating Creek Wildlife Management Area, located in Glades County, according to Major J. O. Brown, regional manager, South Florida Region, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

"The loss of this portion of land for public hunting was because we were unable to obtain a lease renewal from the landowners, said Major Brown.

RR Gates Sought By Avon Park Council

Councilman Wayne Albright requested that the council take a stand at Monday nights regular meeting on the subject of additional gates be requested at all railroad crossings in the city limits of Avon Park. Councilman Durrah Martin made the motion after a lengthy discussion on the subject. Albright seconded the motion and it passed unanimously instructing City Clerk Malcolm Crews to write the State Road Department, the County Commissioners, and the state of Florida on the subject. Clerk Crews reported that Dr. William Stallard of South Florida Junior College had also requested that this be done. This action was the result of the train-car accident which took the lives of two Hardee County girls last week just south of the railroad station on Main Street in downtown Avon Park. The council also held a brief discussion on the speed of trains through town, but no action was taken on that score. They are also looking into the possibility of additional blinker lights in the city limits.

Emory Dawkins of Dawkins and Associates, engineering firm in Orlando, who are consulting engineers for the sewerage treatment plant appeared before the council and explained some recent difficulties that resulted in some of the flow of the treatment plant being backed up. Dawkins stated that by the time he and John McManus of the firm arrived in Avon Park Monday afternoon personnel at the plant had solved the probelm.

The council accepted the recommendation of Police Chief Earl Gordon to hire J. D. Townsel as a patrolman subject to Townsel meeting requirements of the laws.

The council approved Ronald Watson as a fireman upon recommendation of the civil service board. Also the council approved the hiring of a fifth fireman to be recommended by the civil service board.

Mary Durden secretary to the zoning board reported that the zoning board had recommended that the area for the Federal Housing Authority project for the elderly near the elementary school be rezoned from R-1 to an R-3 area. Councilmen approved the motion to advertise for changing the zoning from R-1 to R-3 on lots 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, block 11, section 22.

Chief Earl Gordon reported that A. P. Cooper had quit as dog catcher and recommended that Earl Hunt be approved as dog catcher but no action was taken by the council.

On a motion by councilman Rodney Lane and seconded by councilman Albright and carried unanimously that the City Attorney prepare the City Tax Certificate issue and civil service for all city employees to be included in the ballot at the next regular city election next September.

A financial report was presented to the council on the golf course by Clerk Malcolm Crews who reported that a total of $28,07.64 had been spent on the golf course to date with approximately $3000 of unpaid bills for October.

The council will hold a special meeting with auditor Robert Kennedy this afternoon at 4:30 p.m. to go over the audit for the past year.

This committee will work together with the committee named recently by the city council to obtain necessary improvements at the airport, and to make the airport serve an important part in the city's future growth and success.

Sweet Trial Ends with Hung Jury; New Trial Not Scheduled As Yet

John J. Sweet was "relaxing" in his tiny apartment in Sebring today after a grueling three-week trial ended Saturday in Bartow with a hung jury.

"I do not know if I will stay in Sebring," he said. "If I do stay, it would not be because I want to," he added.

There was no indication today when a new trial will be called.

"I would like to give both defense and prosecution a chance to think it over," said Circuit Court Judge William K. Love. "It will be difficult getting a non-biased jury after all this publicity."

Reports of the trial have gone out nation-wide. The judge said he will set a new trial date only after motion by the state and defense attorneys. Likewise, a change of venue motion would have to originate with them, he pointed out.

Should a second trial also end in a mistrial, that would not end the case either, he pointed out. It could be brought again, unless the prosecutor decides against further prosecution.

Back to Boston

Sweet said he put his son, John and his daughter, Patricia Gallagher and her three children on a plane to return them to Boston Monday. Mrs. Sweet, who has sat apparently impassive through the trial is here with him and she will stay "as long as I can keep her," he said.

What does his future hold? "Maybe next week I will feel more like what my future will be," he said.

He can go to work any time he wants, he explained. "In my business, you don't get a job offer. You just open a subdivision."

Tommy Baddock, the bartender hired by the Sheriff's department to protect Mrs. Maxcy, apparently is still being retained, and was seen with Mrs. Maxcy and Marivon in downtown Sebring on Monday.

Sheriff Broward Coker, upon questioning, said "I believe that the judge has a court order about discussing this case and I do not want to get you or me in trouble."

A check of the sheriff's report, turned in recently to county commissioners, showed that expenses of his office are not itemized to the extent to disclose what Baddock's salary would be.

Judge Love declared a mistrial at 5:15 P.M. Saturday when the jury foreman, Robert Wilson, Lakeland produce buyer, told the judge: "We are unable to reach a verdict. It is an insurmountable deadlock." They had deliberated just four hours.

Not to the Chair

It had been obvious to courtroom spectators since an hour after the jurors began deliberating at 1:16 P.M. Saturday that the nine men and three women were not going to send Sweet to the electric chair, if they were going to send him anywhere.

They trooped back into the jury box an hour and 12 minutes after they first went out to ask the judge for advice.

"Can the jury find the defendant guilty of some other crime than first degree murder?" asked Wilson.

The judge explained that the jury could find Sweet guilty of second or third degree murder or of manslaughter.

The Vanishing Statesman

The day of the statesman is fast disappearing along with the $25,000,000 yacht and ten cent beer.

We have just read that Richard Nixon with Gov. Claude Kirk (or Gov. Ronald Reagon) as his running mate is just about a shoo-in for the Republican nomination for president.

What a horrible choice it will be if LBJ gets the Democratic nomination, and that's how it looks with the convention just a few months away.

Shall we vote for tricky Dick or spendthrift Lyndon? And both of them will probably be too smart to go out on a limb and say, "I pledge to continue the Viet Nam War" or "I pledge to stop the Viet Nam War" and we won't know what we are voting for except more of same or just a change.

The doggonedest people are becoming politicians these days—and we say "politicians" because how, by any stretch of the imagination, is song and dance man George Murphy a statesman? Or Shirley Temple Black, the dimpled darling of the movies? Granted they mean well, but how could these people possibly have the backgrounds to fit them for statesmanlike jobs such as a senator should have.

But then a lot of odd people have been going to Congress lately—people who play guitars and strum their way into office from some of our Southern states, for instance.

One of the things that distresses us most is the carelessness with which we pick our vice presidents. Remembering that the vice president is only a heartbeat away from the presidency, how would we like to see the first lady of our land a former German waitress? We rather like Hubert Horatio Humphrey and his salt of the earth wife Muriel.

It is with anything but anticipation that we are looking forward to voting for President of the United States a year from now. If it's Lyndon and Dick, bring on the smelling salts and a third party.

We keep remembering when Nixon first got onto the national scene, how he scooted in on a wishy-washy Ike Eisenhower's coattails after an appearance on TV with his dog Checkers and an explanation of a campaign fund which many felt never really was a good explanation at all.

And Lyndon. Who has tried to fill Jack Kennedy's shoes and still comes across as a wheeling dealing politician.

We have a hopeless feeling that it will be a long, long time before a really right guy makes it back to the Presidency again, what with all the shenanigans you have to go through to get there—playing footsie with this politician, footsie with that one for a vote, promise this, promise that.

It looks like the wonderful system our country's fathers devised is sure taking a shellacking.

Will It Be Beauty and Love That These Teen-Agers Find?

Teen-age girls, seeking "beauty and love," have been leaving their parents' homes and going to hippie hang-outs, sometimes in far-away cities. Their search for beauty and love may be sincere, but some of them, at least, have found something quite different.

One such girl, whose disappearance has become perhaps the most widely publicized case in recent weeks, is the daughter of a man prominent in New York State politics. Her parents have been searching for her since she left home.

Another girl, an 18-year-old from an upper middle class family in Greenwich, Conn., has been found, raped and murdered after an LSD party.

Love? Beauty? What these young people are finding is, instead, vileness and degradation. It is the sad old story of the unwary and naive being lured into sin by deception.

What Is Love?

One mother, who traced and followed her 14-year-old daughter from her New Jersey home to Cincinnati, asked, "How can these kids call themselves love children and in the same breath do this to their mother?"

Perhaps the answer lies in the various meanings which we give to the word "love." To some, this word means self-sacrificing devotion. To others, it means the selfish gratification of a purely physical lust.

We have an expression, heard occasionally, "The Greeks had a word for it." In this case, the Greeks had three words for it.

There was a clear distinction, in the Greek language used when the New Testament was written, between "eros," the love which is primarily a physical attraction between a man and a woman, and two other kinds of love.

Of the other two words, one referred to the love of friend for friend or of one member of a family for another. This word is "phile," pronounced "fillay," with the accent on the second syllable. From this word we get "philanthropy" and numerous other words.

Deeper Feeling

The third word for love was used to express a stronger emotion—one involving the deepest feelings of which we are capable.

It is this word which is used in the Bible when it declares, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

The Greek word for this kind of love is "agape," pronounced "agawpay," with the accent on the second syllable.

Isn't there bound to be misunderstanding when we use the same word to express the nature and character of God—"God is love"—and to describe the adulterous relationship between a wicked man and an evil woman, to whom we refer as "lovers"?

The teen-age girls who enter the hippie underworld in order to find love and beauty are to be pitied, for they will not find there that which they seek.

In reality, the place to find love and beauty is in the service of the Master, Who came "to seek and to save that which was lost." He gave us the truest picture of love in action that the world has ever seen.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

We Should Be Worrying About Soviet Orbiting Bomb

WASHINGTON, D. C.—While I do not think there is reason for panic or paralyzing fright over Communist Russia's development of a device for putting nuclear bombs in low orbit, I think it would be strange if we, individually and collectively, were not concerned about it. Our concern, in fact, is both proper and necessary.

Actually, I am more frightened by Defense Secretary McNamara's apparent indifference to the existence of this potentially hideous weapon than I am by the weapon itself. In making the first public announcement of the development, Mr. McNamara said "I am not concerned" by it.

If the Secretary of Defense means what he says, then he is by his own admission guilty of irresponsibility. And if, in stating lack of concern over this development, he is speaking for the Administration, the executive branch of the government, then irresponsibility is compounded to the point where those of us interested in the Nation's future security may well gather in prayer.

I am glad to be able to report, however, that there is indeed concern in the Defense establishment—deeply serious and active concern—about the Russian development. It has been known in intelligence circles for some time that the Soviets were nearing success in their development of an orbiting bomb, and this has resulted in a great amount of worried activity in both military and civilian technical circles as the search for an effective counter-weapon gets into high gear.

From these facts it may be concluded that Mr. McNamara's unfortunate "not concerned" statement was but another of the long list of misleading statements which the Secretary has made to the American people over the years about the progress of the war in Viet Nam, about the missiles gap, about the state of military weapons and equipment, and about the readiness of our military forces.

I will not list all these. But to show how misleading the Pentagon's boss is, I will remind you that had he been right in a 1963 statement, we would have won the war in 1964. But had he been right in a 1962 statement, we would not even have been in a war, because he assured the nation that no American troops would ever be committed to combat in Viet Nam.

It is to me tragic that a man with a mind as great as Mr. McNamara's is generally acknowledged to be is unable to grasp the simple fact that the American people want and need the truth, and can face up to it, no matter how grim may be the facts. I cannot understand why Mr. McNamara has so little faith in a people of proven courage and determination that he thinks it necessary to mislead them, to hide the truth from them about matters which are of vital importance to them.

The Secretary, if technical experts know what they are talking about, also sought to mislead the public by pooh-poohing the accuracy of bombs delivered from orbit and by calling their payloads small. The technical experts say they can be made more accurate than intercontinental ballistic missiles, and note that Mr. McNamara neglected to mention that their "small" payloads are larger—three times larger than the payloads of our own Minuteman or Polaris missiles.

It is good to know that there are those in the Pentagon who do not listen to the bland assurances made by the Secretary but instead go about the effort to find counter measures.

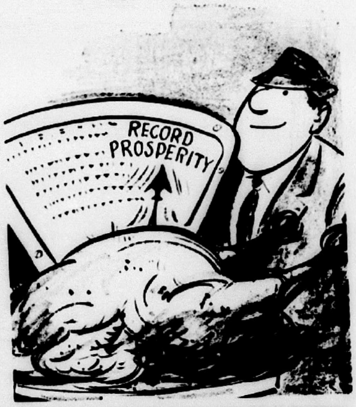
A Real Heavyweight



BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Babson Park, Mass., November 16. Next Monday the U. S. population—as measured by the Census Bureau's electronic computers—will reach the 200-million mark,—a goal attained by the Chinese some 13 years before the start of the American Revolution. But truly we have come a long way from the 3,929,214 heads counted in our first census back in 1790.

Stimulus of Growth

It took our nation until 1915 to grow to 100 million, but only 52 years to reach from there to 200 million. Despite a fall-off in birth rates and a downturn in the fertility rate (births per 1,000 women of reproductive age, 15-44), we have chalked up a population gain of almost 50 million—or 25 per cent of the present total—since 1950.

We have been able to achieve this because—even though birth and fertility rates declined during the latter half of this 17-year period—the number of women of reproductive age has increased rapidly as rising numbers of our large postwar baby crop have reached maturity. The important point is not that we are now 200 million strong, but that our population has gained by one-third in the past 17 years, thus providing a most significant boost to total markets.

Age Composition

With this sharp upturn in population came large increases in the number of people over 65 and under 25. To this challenge, the housing industry responded with unprecedented gains in the number of single-family units erected plus a broad upswing in multi-family and apartment units. Markets for infants' and children's clothing, toys, and furniture expanded rapidly, and state and local governments were forced to borrow heavily to try to keep up with soaring demand for education and recreational facilities and programs.

Age composition of the population will plan at least an equally important part in determining which markets will thrive and flourish during the next decade or so. Look for growth in the over-65 and under-18 age brackets to slow, and for the next big population bulge to occur in the 25-30 group as the postwar babies move on toward middle life.

Economic Consequences

As this 25-35 group becomes better established economically, wider markets for single-family homes will open up; but the bulk of this new stimulus will come in the 1970's rather than in the remaining years of this decade. Meanwhile, despite the scarcity of mortgage money and its continued high cost, demand for apartments should be active and on a scale up from present levels.

Apartment demand will be heightened by the still strong tendency of people to marry young, compared with 20 or 30 years ago. Hence, in the decade ahead more and more parents still in their 40's will be faced with "empty nests" and perhaps a resultant economic need to exchange their now too large single-family homes for apartments. Another economic consequence of our expanding population will be a further escalation in government costs, especially at state and local levels. Spending by these latter units will top that by he federal government on an annual basis within the next few years.

Potentials and Problems

Any way you look at it, we are a nation with potentials of extraordinary dimensions. Reaching the 200-million mark is merely another milestone in a success story that has no equal in world history. The future beckons, and it can be a very bright future indeed for the nation and for us individually.

But there are problems, too. One of them is Viet Nam and the whole tangled skein of our foreign relations and the challenges they present. Another is productivity—one of the secrets of our success to date. In order to provide for our expanding population and further increase our standard of living, we must have growth of total output in terms of constant dollars. Reasonable cost and price stability is a must that can be assured only through efficiency and discipline.

Football—

Montsdeoca moved down to the two on an option to the right. Then Lemler powered through the middle for the TD and also called straight ahead for the extra point.

Penalties kept the Devils bottled up in their own territory the rest of the first half but the Avon Park defense was tough on the Brahmans allowing only three first downs during the entire first half.

In the third period Avon Park exploded for 19 points. After the second half kick-off the Brahmans couldn't gain but one yard and were forced to punt. The punter missed the ball from the center and after a mad scramble, Devil Curtis Hulen picked the ball up and ran to the Brahman 7-yard line. Dean Lemler pushed it on into the end zone with a six yard gain to the one and then the one-yard scoring plunge. Robert Crews came on to try to kick the point after but it was no good.

The Devils scored again after only one offensive play by the Okeechobee team when Willie Joe Seigler intercepted a pass on the Brahman 40-yard line and streaked into the end zone for his second TD of the evening. This time Crew's kick was good giving Avon Park a 27-0 lead.

Billy Richards got into the scoring act next. Okeechobee punted short after being held without a first down giving Avon Park possession on its own 35-yard line. Lemler picked up two yards and then Richards sliced through the left side of the line and cut back to the left behind beautiful blocking to go 63 yards for the score. The kick for the PAT was no good.

Leading 33-0 as the fourth period began, Devil coach Joe Franza sent his reserves to finish out the game. The fired up Devils were too hot to stop by this time and as the desperate Brahmans gambled to get on the score board, Avon Park kept scoring.

Okeechobee lost possession on their own 27-yard line early in the final quarter as they tried to go for a first down with long yardage needed and failed. From that point Seigler picked up gains of eleven and nine yards to the Brahman 7-yard marker. Ulysses Brown took care of the rest of the yardage needed flashing into the end zone for Avon Park's sixth TD. The kick was no good but who cared at that point.

The Red Devils final score came minutes later when the Devil's hustling outside linebacker, Jim Williams, picked off a swing pass behind the 'Chobee line of scrimmage and high-footed it into the end zone untouched for his first touchdown of the season.

Avon Park reserve quarterback Gene Landress and Brown both picked off passes to stop two other Okeechobee scoring attempts and the Devils were moving goalward again as the final whistle blew with the ball on the Brahman forty.

Franza emptied his bench for the final quarter of play giving all the Devils plenty of action in this next to last game of the season. Lemler was the leading ground gainer last week picking up 103 yards in 21 carries. Richards, McNeil, and Seigler had the best averages. McNeil carried once on an end-around play gaining 36 yards. Richards carried five times for 84 yards and a 16.8 yard average and Seigler gained 93 yards with 8 carries for a 10.6 average.

The simplest way to t
is to stay away fro

The not-as-simple way to tune one is to walk up to it, pull the on switch, push the channel selector, push the automatic fine-tuning bar, find a good seat and sit down.

Hardly what we'd call a challenge to one's endurance. Except for the steps from seat to set that need to be taken.

Which brings us to our simpler, less strenuous method. Sylvania Ultramatic remote control.

It puts remarkable powers into the palm of your hand (on-off control, color control, volume, channel changing, everything).

With the mere flick of a finger you can instantly rid yourself of a Western marshal, a knight in armor, a bird in a cupboard. Without ever coming close to your set.

Some Sylvania color sets come with a remote unit at no extra charge. With many others, you can have it for about $50extra.

So you see, color TV needn't be exhausting. You simply need a set you can stay away from.

Ann Karrick and Devon Reddick Initiated Into Alpha Gamma

About 50 members of the Alpha Gamma Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society, an international organization of women educators met on Saturday, Nov. 11 at the Elks Club in Sebring. Members were from Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto Counties.

Alpha Gamma Chapter initiated Miss Ann Karrick and Mrs. Devon Reddick of Avon Park and Mrs. Jean Moore of Lake Placid as active members.

Mrs. Pansee Keene Justice, Miss Esther Ridder and Miss Norma Swanson, all retired Sebring teachers, were initiated as honorary members of the society.

Sebring members were hostesses at the luncheon served at 12:30. The tables were decorated with flags and arrangements of flowers. As a favor each person found a small potted plant marking her place at the table.

After a short business meeting called to order by the president, Mrs. Jack Ingle, the society heard a talk by Mrs. Eloise Driskell of Wauchula who summarized planned programs through 1971.

In her talk which centered about "The Value of Values," members were reminded of today's changing world. She said values of yesterday are no longer the behavior patterns of today. They are being questioned and challenged by the growing generation.

During the next few years Delta Kappa Gamma will attempt to place emphasis on the value of important behavior patterns which are so necessary in the complex life with which we are now confronted, the speaker said.

A Time To Remember Who We Are

Is it not fitting that in this Thanksgiving season—so reminiscent of our origins—we should be mindful of our heritage and the trust it imposes on us?

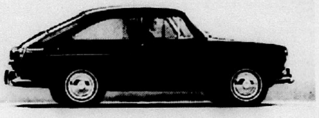
A fast enough fastback.



Put a Volkswagen fastback in a race with the rest of the fastbacks around today and it would lose hands down.

Even at top speed it wouldn't stand a chance against a 350 h.p. job. (Our fastback cruises at about 84.)

Today a lot of people spend a lot of money on a car because it's big and fast.

But the strange thing is, when they buy a car with so much speed and power, they seldom stop to think where they'll be able to use it.

Do you need a 350 h.p. engine to take you downtown?

Or for a ride in the country?

Or for that once-a-year vacation trip? (Even on the highway you can't use a hundred-mile-an-hour car. Remember, the fastest you can go on most highways is only 70.)

This is exactly why we made the VW Fastback the way we did. Its 65 horsepower engine gets you out on the thruway quickly. And with that many horses in a Volkswagen, there's plenty of power for highway passing.

Our fastback has its engine in the rear and it's air-cooled. (That means no water or anti-freeze.) And since it doesn't have a lot of idle horses to feed, you'll still be able to get up to 27 miles on a gallon of gas.

You can buy a sensible fastback like this for the sensible price of $XXXX.*

And never miss the power you didn't pay for.

Sweet Was Stupid Says Attorney

John Sweet is a good businessman but he was "stupid" to get himself involved with a woman as ruthless as Irene Maxcy, his attorney, James McEwen declared in his final arguments before the jury at Sweet's murder trial in Bartow.

And testimony in the trial makes famed Peyton Place a tame book, McEwen added.

"I doubt that any one of you has ever been exposed to people such as these or ever believed such as these existed," he said. "It's almost like looking at a crime drama."

Witnesses in the three-week trial of Sweet for the murder of Mrs. Maxcy's millionaire husband, Von, have hinted of unnatural sex inclinations, illicit love affairs, lives of crime and vicious family squabbling.

McEwen described Mrs. Maxcy as a woman who fought her way from packing house worker to wife of a millionaire. Sweet, who testimony has shown made up to $70,000 a year in real estate, was "stupid," said McEwen for entangling himself in her business and sexual affairs. Sweet, balding, 51, has previously testified he was in love with Mrs. Maxcy, a thin-lipped, sharp jawed woman of 44. He said from the stand he still had "feelings" for her.

Mrs. Maxcy, the state's star witness, has immunity from prosecution in the case in return for her testimony.

McEwen hinted a falling out of the lovers may have triggered the widow's decision to tell all.

Even while Irene was "pulling the switch" on Sweet, said McEwen, Sweet put a sign on her window saying "I love you."

"How silly can you get?" demanded McEwen.

Both McEwen and Defense Counsel Walter Manley contend that immunity for Mrs. Maxcy originated with investigator Roma Trulock. McEwen said he doubted that Darty was aware, until he walked into the courtroom, that Mrs. Maxcy had given her statement to Trulock before immunity was ever mentioned. It did not have to be given, he said, and her statement could have been used against her.

His and Hers League

Mike Taylor again rolled a beautiful 258 game and a 584 series scratch. He was also high with handicap 281-653. Billy Ellis was second with handicap scores of 234-637 and Gordon Wooliscroft a 223-589.

Hazel Lee led the girls with 238-588 followed by Katherin Waggaman's 207-578 and Shirley Pollard's 205-565.

Classic League

Nov. 8 was a lucky day for the gals. Six girls came up with a 500 or better series and four more in the 490's, although no 200 games were bowled. The following show the results:

Hazel Lee	548-195
Mary Warren	533-188
Ann Karrick	527-180
Nadine Smith	521-177
Betty Denk	503-179
Mary Hofer	501-174
Laura Rider	499-170
Zel Gifford	496-178
Gail Messick	495-187
Anna Dee Harden	491-197

The Free Loaders still hold first place followed closely by The Dragliner's and Tar Babies who are tied for second.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Veterans Day, 1967 finds the sons of many World War II and Korean Conflict veterans at grips with the same kind of enemy their fathers faced in the early 40's and again in 1950.

Aggressors mask their real nature. Communists trumpet such disarming identities as "Liberation Forces" and "People's Republic" to disarm world opinion. Yet the pattern of their intent is crystal clear: to impose their will against freedom-loving people by insurgency from within and aggression from without.

Young Americans are fighting in the hills and valleys and in the skies of Viet-Nam today for two reasons. Our nation chooses to fulfill its world leadership responsibilities to those who want to have a voice in the kind of government under which they live. Also, we are meeting our commitments to resist aggression.

Three American Presidents have taken the course of aiding South Viet-Nam. In increasing numbers and quantities, we have consigned fighting men, aircraft, ships, munitions and supplies to a small nation, half way around the world, which asked for our help. This our national leaders have done so that the aggressors who now threaten one small nation posing a threat to free people everywhere—shall not succeed.

Let us on November 11 take stock of a simple truth. Enemies of the democratic way of life respect only our military strength and determination. Only through these elements can their resolve be deterred. Their hope is that in a nation like the United States, where men and many minds are free to speak up, division from within will weaken us in Viet-Nam. They look forward to the belief that inaction and appeasement on our part — the kind of blunders that history proves only whetted aggressors' appetites in Manchuria Ethiopia, and Czechoslovakia—will bring them victory.

In Viet-Nam today, we are safeguarding not only the future of this little nation but of our own.

On the sidelines, many nations only recently emerged from colonial empires, watch closely. They are weighing and determining the validity of solemn, official American commitments, such as we made to South Viet-Nam. Their future conduct on the international stage, as well as that of hostile nations, will be determined by what we do — or what we fail to do — in our support of people whose greatest desire is to be able to choose their own leaders.

'Outlaws' Plead Guilty To Charges

All but three members of a motorcycle group of 20 arrested here last September 4 have pleaded guilty to destroying personal property and paid their fines. Many were members of the famed Outlaws gang.

One of the three cases still unsettled is that of John Philmon Luke of Lake Worth, against whom a charge is pending in the murder of a migrant worker's child in Pompano. The others are Barrian McGlamory of Ft. Lauderdale and Carolyn Theatham, West Palm Beach.

Donald Tanner, of West Palm Beach, a leader of the group, had agreed to bring in fines and guilty pleas on the charge of destroying personal property and to pay repairs to a car belonging to Jeff Griffette of Avon Park. Somebody had thrown a chain through the windshield, and also shot through it.

The $300 bonds of the three who did not appear were ordered estreated by Judge Rehrer. Tanner has promised to bring the three motor cyclists here.

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma initiated them into active membership in the Society along with three honorary members from Sebring. In an impressive candlelight service in the dining room of the new Elks Club in Sebring last Saturday, Miss Ann Karrick and Mrs. Reddick were initiated by the chapter president Mrs. Anne Ingle, and the vice-presidents Mrs. Georgia Rayborn and Mrs. Eloise Driskell. Three honorary members from Sebring were also initiated: Miss Esther Ridder who recently retired after 50 years in the classroom, Mrs. Pansy Justiss Keene and Miss Norma Swanson.

TIMOTHY AND SNEAKIE are looking for homes. Born at the Highlands School for Girls, nine weeks ago, pampered and loved by 130 girls, they are now ready for adoption. Sylvia Wunderli who heads the project "Kittens" is hoping for good homes for both the kittens.

This Project Is 'Kittens'

This is Sneakie and Timothy, left and right respectively and that is Sylvia Wunderli in the background, a student at the Highlands School for Girls. Sneakie and Timothy are looking for good homes. Sylvia has a home with which she is well pleased in one of the dormitories at the Highlands School for Girls but that leaves Sneakie and Timothy and their Mama Stray Allie, out in the cold. Their mentality has been judged not exactly attuned to life in a dorm, even when loved and chaperoned by its 130 young lady inhabitants.

So as we said in the beginning, Sneakie and Timothy are hoping that some kind generous person will adopt them, one or both, and keep them well fed and happy forever after.

Sylvia who heads the operation "Kittens" has collected enough nickles, dimes and pennies to deflea and fatten them into bright little prospects for adoption.

After a visit to the veterinarian, whose services will be paid by the Highland's girls, Mama Allie will be welcomed as a permanent addition to the student body.

Sylvia may be contacted at the school GL 3-3181 room 117, 4 to 6, 9:30 to 10:00 p.m.

Girls School To Have Services

The Highlands School for girls will present their 37-member chorus in a Vesper Service, Thanksgiving Day evening at 7:30 p.m. in their Assembly room at the School.

The program will include the traditional Thanksgiving Day Choral numbers. Other members of the student group will participate in the program.

The program is open to the public.

Last Thursday morning, a Veterans' Day assembly program, arranged by the Key Club, was presented to the Avon Park High School student body.

The high school mixed chorus, directed by Mr. Kenneth Eberle, and the high school band, directed by Mr. Victor Mickunas, provided very effective musical numbers. David Woodard, a member of the Key Club, gave an excellent talk on the history and significance of Veterans' Day. The guest speaker, Chaplain C. J. Danforth of Walker Memorial Hospital, gave an outstanding address, challenging the audience to honor and love our country, and to revere our flag and live by the principles of which it is a symbol.

Other Key Club members taking part were: Flag-bearers, Dean Lemler and Douglas Ayerst; Program Coordinator, William Knapp; and Key Club President, Kenneth Dixon, who conducted the Pledge of Allegiance and Lord's Prayer, and introduced the speaker.

Parent-Teacher Conference Day

Friday, Nov. 10, 1967, over 700 individual conferences were held at Avon Park High School between parents and teachers. This was a real success, and the students will be benefited in the future as a result of these discussions.

The conferences were more meaningful than usual because they took place one day after report cards were given out for the first nine weeks grading period. Many parents were able to meet teachers for the first time and discuss ways in which their children could gain more benefits each year.

Even though there are two regularly scheduled Parent-Conference Days (The next one is January 26, 1968), the school would like to remind all parents that we encourage individual teacher conferences throughout the year. The student receives benefits to the degree that the school and home works together in developing a better understanding of the students, teachers, and over-all school programs.

Girl Scout Leaders Have Training

An outdoor day of Campcraft training was attended by the Girl Scout leaders of the Jacaranda Neighborhood on Wednesday November 8. This training held at the boy scout camp at the bombing range had as their instructors Mrs. H. E. Maughan, Field Advisor of the Heart of Florida Girl Scout Council and Mrs. Welch Fisher, Troop Consultant of the Jacaranda Neighborhood.

The leaders were instructed in the Girl Scout method of Campcraft so that our local girl scouts can be trained correctly. In order for a girl to qualify for the wider opportunities that are open to girl scouts, she must be competent in all phases of camping. The leaders learned how to gather tinder, kindling and fuel for a campfire. In addition they pitched tent after tent until they had perfected the technique. Organization of a camp was discussed. Caper Charts were explained.

The group was divided into patrols and each patrol cooked its dinner over the open campfire they had made. Sanitary dishwashing was demonstrated. It was felt that this "out door" day was well worthwhile in spite of the tired backs, dirty clothes and red bug bites.

This is an example of the training your girl scout leaders are voluntarily taking, so they may do the best job possible for the girl scouts in their troop.

'B' Squad Ends Season Tonight

The Avon Park "B" squad football team will close out its season and the home gridiron season here at Memorial Field tonight (Thursday) when it meets the Wauchula junior varsity at 7:30 in a return game.

The Red Devil jayvees won their first two games taking a 14-0 victory from Fort Meade in the season opener and then winning 26-0 over Arcadia in the second game. They lost the next two when Wauchula won 21-7 on the junior Wildcats home field and Haines City outscored them 20-7 here at Memorial Field. The second meeting with Fort Meade on the Miner's home field finished a scoreless tie and Haines City eeked out a 7-6 win in the Devils last outing in Haines City.

Coaches Larry Pickett and Dewayne Lemler and the junior varsity boys would like nothing better than a win over Wauchula this week to finish out the season with a 3-3-1 record and show the Hardee High jayvees they can play without making the miscues which cost them over 100 yards in penalties in the earlier game.

Fans are urged to come out tonight to watch the "B" squad closee the 1967 home football season.

Rotary Report

LAST WEEK

Rotary members had a real treat as November program chairman Bob Gay introduced Mr. L. E. Travis, president of United Telephone Co., of Florida. Mr. Travis is a native of Iowa and headed a phone subsidiary of United there before moving to Florida to take charge of the merged Intercounty Telephone and Telegraph Co. Mr. Travis explained that he was very up to date with all complaints that had been expressed at the recent telephone rate hearings and thought they had been sufficiently discussed. It was explained that Intercounty had problems because its supervisors lacked authority to carry out their responsibilities. The organization was likened to a seven-headed monster with none responsible to the other—all wanting to be good but not being able to get together. United has taken immediate steps to straighten this out. Responsibilities with authority have been given out and performance is expected. Several new people have been added to the organization but mostly the old employees will still be serving the public. Good service starts at the bottom and radiates up. Items such as office neatness and clean, working pay phones are being stressed.

Mr. Travis also mentioned some of the local improvements which will amount to one half million dollars in the next two years. Included are more underground cables, limits of four on a party line, more lines, improved equipment and additional operator training. It all sounds good, Mr. Travis, except for the one statement about things starting at the bottom. We feel that they may, in this case anyhow, start at the top.

Lower Long Distance Rates

New long distance rate schedules are now in effect for station to station and person to person calls, to and from the state of Florida. There are no changes on present rates for calls within the state.

B. T. Young, General Traffic Manger for the United Telephone Co. of Florida, noted that the rates went into effect on Nov. 1, 1967. "In addition to the lower rates," he said, "the 'low rate' calling hours have been lengthened and there is now a special discount time for calls placed over the Direct Distance Dialing network as well."

Young cited some examples which show that a station to station call from Fort Myers to Chicago, between 7 p.m. and 7 a.m. the next day, is now 75c for the first three minutes. The old rate was 80c. A person to person call, during this same period, dropped from $2.15 to $2.05. "The same rates would be applicable to a call from Naples to New York," he said.

New Direct Distance Dialing rates will be in effect every day from midnight to 7 a.m. "A person can call Los Angeles during these hours for only 75c for three minutes, which makes this the lowest rates ever for the coast to coast call. As a matter of interest," Young pointed out, "back in 1916 it cost $25 a minute for this same type of call."

Support Farm-City Week

NOVEMBER 17-23

Paul Antonori, Jr. Will Speak At Farm-City Meeting Tuesday

Paul Antonori, Jr., State Attorney of Tampa will address Highlands County farmers, cattlemen and citrus growers in a joint meeting with representatives of the business, professional and industrial interests of Sebring, Avon Park and Lake Placid next Tuesday, November 21, 6 p.m. at a ladies' night dinner meeting to be held at the Sebring Elks Club building.

Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs of the three communities joined this year with Highlands County Farm Bureau and Highlands County Cattlemens Assn. to observe National Farm-City Week, in recognition of the inter-dependence of farm and city people; also to stress to all citizens the need for close cooperation between residents of urban and rural sections.

Today's industrialized society requires cooperative relationships. City people depend upon farmers for food, raw materials for clothing and shelter and in many cases — their jobs depend upon agriculture.

In turn, farmers look to urban and city population for a market for farm products, production of their equipment, consumer goods and many other services. An affinity exists between farm interests and city interests that is inseparable. Millions of city jobs depend on farming. Ten million people alone work at transporting, storing, processing and selling farm products.

Maintenance of the high standard of living enjoyed in Florida and throughout the nation depends upon cooperation between farm and city dwellers. Cooperation is essential to the progress of our economy.

Mr. Antonori was born and raised in Tampa. While he has gained marked recognition in the legal profession, he knows the importance of agriculture to the growth and development of central Florida. He was elected to the office of State Attorney for Hillsborough County in 1964.

Presently he is chairman of the Better Business Advisory Committee of the Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Board of Directors of Florida Prosecuting Attorneys Assn.

Marvin Kahn, chairman of Agribusiness Committee of the Sebring Chamber of Commerce and Jimmie Downing and Walter K. McGrath of the Sebring Kiwanis Club are instrumental in organizing the Highlands County Farm-City observance.

Other members of Kahn's committee are Harold Moreland, Emil Riles, Smith Rudasill, Jr., A. C. Wolfe, James Alderman, James Maxcy, Carey Carlton and Woodrow Harshman.

Others who are assisting in promoting the observance in Highlands County are Bert Harris, Jr., County Agent, Sam Polston, Farm Bureau, Orman Todd, Andrew Jackson, Tim Harner, Leon Tolar, Charles Williams, Howard Livingston and Claude Howerton.

Members of Highlands County Cattlemen's Assn., Highlands County Farm Bureau or any other agricultural organization and the Kiwanis, Rotary and Lions Clubs of Sebring, Avon Park or Lake Placid or any other civic group who have not already made reservations through the channels of their own organizations are requested to contact Jimmie Downing, EV 5-6161 at once.

his own defense witnesses during the trial, took the result without display of emotion. "I am not an emotional person," he explained later.

His attorneys forbade him to discuss the trial, and Judge Love banned interviews with members of the jury. Love said he would treat any violation as contempt of court.

Should a new trial be scheduled, it will be in Polk County, unless a change of venue is asked for and granted.

Sweet sat quietly through the final minutes of the trial, with his hands folded and looked intently at the foreman. Love said he could remain at liberty on bond. The bond is $25,000.

Prosecutor Glen Darty expressed surprise at the outcome and said he had expected some kind of verdict. Defense Attorney James McEwen said he was not surprised.

Wife in Courtroom

When the jury returned, Sweet's son, John, daughter, Patrica and his wife, Margaret, were in the courtroom.

Although the state had pressed for the death penalty, Judge Love, in his instructions to the jury, outlined lesser charges on which the defendant might be convicted. He instructed the jury it could find Sweet innocent or guilty of first, second or third degree murder, or of manslaughter.

First degree murder is considered murder by premeditated design, or one committed while a felony is being carried out. Second degree murder is considered the act of a person with a depraved mind, and an offense that is not planned. The rare charge of third degree murder is one that takes place when a person is committing a crime other than a felony. Manslaughter is defined as homicide due to culpable negligence.

Jury Needs Clarification

After going into deliberation, the jury returned to ask for clarification of the lesser charges they might invoke. They also asked for reading of testimony concerning $700 in $100 bills linked to Sweet and said to have come from a $25,000 bank withdrawal by Irene Maxcy.

In Darty's final arguments to the jury he urged them to recall, when they got to thinking about mercy, the photo of the bloody death scene, the bullet and knife wounds in Maxcy's body. Pointing to Sweet, he said the defendant is as responsible for those wounds as if he had inflicted them himself.

Darty had been criticized by the defense for granting immunity to Mrs. Maxcy while charging Sweet. He frankly told the jury that the state might never have broken the case had it not been for her testimony.

As for criticism for not bringing an often-mentioned Boston figure to testify, Darty said that would have given the man automatic immunity and he expected to bring him to trial.

The man is one of two placed by witnesses in Florida at the time of Maxcy's death, both connected with a third and now-missing bookie and gambling friend of Sweet's, Walter Bennett.

The trial is estimated to have cost the state and county between $50,000 and $75,000. In addition, Sweet had the expense of his attorneys, plus the expense of bond.

Youth Care News

When nice people meet nice people nice things happen. This has been true with Youth Care, Inc. during its drive to raise funds, by private donation, to build the Juvenile Home so badly needed for the children of Highlands County. Arthur Schofield, manager of station WJCM, is still playing an hour of the music from the Telk-a-thon each Sunday which was held for the "Kick-off" event. We regret that Miss Cindy Grubbs name was missed in the list of performers printed in the newspapers. Not only that but her beautiful and well rendered piano solos were accidentally erased from the tape. Our sincere apology to both Miss Grubb and Mrs. Pat Noble, her teacher.

Other nice things that have happened is the Ruth Sunday School Class of Avon Park called and asked if they could make Youth Care their project for this year. Ridge Florist (Steve and Nell Roberts) are donating all of their "walk-in" sales on Monday, Nov. 20 to Youth Care.

Dale Pearl Gets Letter Of Commendation

Dale Pearl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Pearl of 911 Alt. 27 South, and who was a survivor of the terrible fire aboard the U.S. Carrier Forrestal, was recently awarded a letter of commendation from his commanding officer and the U. S. Navy for heroic action during the holocaust. The letter of commendation, addressed to AQFAN Dale A. Pearl, reads as follows:

"It is with great pleasure that I commend you for your meritorious performance on 29 July 1967 while attached to Attack Squadron Forty-Six on board USS Forrestal (CVA 59) located in the Gulf of Tonkin. At approximately 1050 a fire broke out on the flight deck which was spotted with aircraft loaded with heavy ordnance, preparing to launch at 1100 for a strike against targets in North Vietnam. Fire swept through the parked aircraft causing bombs to detonate and fuel cells to explode, turning the after one-third of the flight deck and several below deck areas into a roaring inferno, causing severe damage to the ship and aircraft and inflicting heavy personnel casualties.

Your courageous actions in the face of great personal danger in voluntarily fighting fires on the flight deck and in assisting in unloading the steady stream of supporting helicopters were in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service.

A copy of this letter will be made a permanent part of your service record.

J. K. Beling,
Commanding Officer,
CVA-59

Dale was able to get home for a short visit with his parents this past week-end, but had to return to duty Monday, Nov. 13.

BOB LINDSAY representative for "Youth Care, Inc.", made a presentation of a beautiful plaque to the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club at their regular meeting, Tuesday, Nov 7. Southland Court News

Except for a few, old timers have returned to Southland. We hope you had a pleasant summer. Several newcomers have joined our park family. You are most welcome and the park activities are for your enjoyment.

We miss Cy Senger, who passed away this summer while at home in Indiana. We miss the Comforts and the Wertzbars who are now living at Bonnie Brae and hope they are happy in their new location. And to Edna Senger at Sebring we send our love and sympathy.

Stewart Diltz, Wallace and Mable Grant, and Luella and Russell Pinney have returned to the park for the winter season. All report a good trip from their homes in the north.

Mrs. Hetta Cook, friend of Harriett Meisel left Sunday for New York on account of the death of her sister.

Peoples' hobbies are very interesting and can lead them into satisfying and helpful trends. Everyone will remember Bob Elthorpe's carvings. One of his latest joys was accomplished last summer when he sawed out the letters which we now see on our new signs at the entrances and Recreational Hall. These signs were much needed and are very attractive with the bright color and are placed in a good position to be readily seen.

Our lastest newcomers are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Mallernee of Ohio. They are living in the Ted Gould Travel trailer.

Barbara Lumpkin is in the hospital at Miami and will undergo surgery Tuesday to correct a back injury.

We extend our sympathy to Bess Jeremy who received word of a fatal heart attack to her brother who lived in Virginia.

Mrs. Olds of Battle Creek, Mich. is located in the apartment recently purchased by the McClarys.

The Moynehans' new 12 by 50 trailer, with the lovely screen enclosure is nearing completion. The landscaping is all planned and well underway and it is a very attractive setting. We are happy for them.

The Wursters were in Sebring and Lake Placid Monday shopping and making calls.

Hilda McClary and Everett Paxton won over Ernie Thomas and Russell Lumpkin in Friday afternoon's shuffling.

Youths Paddle Canoe 85 mi.

Bill Knapp, 17, a senior in high school and Doug Ayerst, 16, a junior in high school enjoyed a canoe trip last weekend covering a distance of 85 miles through five counties, Polk, Highlands, Glades, Okeechobee and Osceola.

They put their canoe in at River Ranch Acres after school on Thursday and paddled upstream to S. Kissimmee where they camped Thursday night. Setting out at 5:30 Friday morning they paddled down stream to the lock above Highway 98 which was two-thirds of the trip, taking their canoe out at 1 p.m. camping over night. Saturday morning they took off for Lake Okeechobee completing their trip about 5:30 p.m. where they were met and returned to Avon Park.

Thursday night out, they camped along the shore, cooking their meals over a campfire, sleeping under the canoe. The rest of the trip, meals were cooked in the boat on a portable stove, where they prepared hamburgers, potatoes, eggs, sausage, etc., while they kept on paddling. They estimated the trip to be 85 miles.

They report it was quite cool at night, but dry and they enjoyed the trip, though tiresome.

The Library Corner

The Heir of Starvelings written by Evelyn Berckman is a most unusual book. This novel of innocence and evil is dedicated to Rupert Gunnis who first told the story to the author. Mr. Gunnis was given access to archives unknown to the average researcher. This family is all gone and the names have been changed except the geographic ones.

In 1855 Starvelings a crumbling mansion far out in the English countryside, was a legend in London where even Queen Victoria knew of the wicked Lord Stanyon who had squandered his fortune in dissipation. He was reported to have married a village publican's daughter who had begotten a son by him. But all this was surmise. Perhaps Lord Stanyon had died and it was his ghost which haunted the untended woods.

The child, the future tenth baron, strange, ill-treated, filthy, illiterate, and wild is the center around the whole mystery revolves.

The epilogue in 1922 might have been just some added facts and happenings. Instead it produces the finesse which gives the quality touch to the whole tale.

John Sweet Gives Testimony at Murder Trial

Declaring "I already had her," John Sweet denied he ever had told Irene Maxcy he would have her "one way or another."

Sweet, testifying Friday in his own defense, was led point by point through accusations made by Mrs. Maxcy, widow of the slain Von Maxcy, and emphatically denied them all, including the charge he hired the killers of her husband.

And he testified his calls to Walter Bennett in Boston were in connection with placing gambling bets, not to hire killers.

Seven Hour Session

It was a grueling seven hour session for Sweet, to be followed by more hours of cross examination the next morning. There were sharp black circles under his eyes at the beginning of the morning and his family seemed tired and at the breaking point. The seemingly placid Mrs. Sweet had on dark glasses. The courtroom was stifling hot.

As his testimony wore on, he became completely calm, perhaps from sheer exhaustion at this climax to the three weeks of trial and tension.

The sex life of Mrs. Maxcy, his admitted mistress, featured strongly in Sweet's testimony.

He was introduced to her on a Saturday night, he said, and she called him the following Wednesday and asked him to meet her at the South Lake Wales Yacht Club.

They sat at a table there, he said, had a few drinks, and she brought out nude photographs of herself, which he said she apparently had taken. She produced the photographs, he said, while he was eating steak and salad. They later adjourned to a room at the motel operated in connection with the yacht club, and there he made love to her, he said.

Meet at Motels

From then on, he said, they met at motels and various places in the state and at her recommendation, he moved from the Nancesowee Hotel to an apartment, where there was more privacy.

The night before the murder, there was a party, he related and Von and Irene left early. There was an argument over Von's attentions to Doris Foster, Sweet related.

Sweet was a calm witness, seemingly relieved to be at last on the stand, telling his story. He spoke and looked directly at the jury. He lost his composure only once, when he dropped his voice and chokingly told of finding Mrs. Maxcy on the floor of his apartment with a collie dog which had just been purchased as a watch dog for Mrs. Maxcy at the Humane Society. He said he threw the dog out of the house, right through the screen door.

"From then on, I no longer wanted to be with her," he said. Mrs. Maxcy had insisted on a male dog, he said, although the Humane Society people had said female dogs were "better watchdogs, three to one."

At this portion in the testimony, the courtroom became intensely quiet as his listeners hung on his every word. You could have heard the proverbial pin drop.

Didn't Even Know Doris

Sweet was asked if he suggested to Irene that Von was running around with Doris Foster and he declared "I never saw no accident. I never took her out to see them. I did not even know Doris."

Sweet firmly denied he had called Irene Maxcy at any time October 3, 1966, the day of her husband's death. He denied receiving a call at the Elks Club.

Four months previously, on June 3, Sweet testified, he had accompanied Mrs. Maxcy to the Lake Wales airport. She said Von had flown off in his airplane and she thought he and Betty Benschoter were together, he said. After calling several airports, he said, a man at the Lake Wales airport told her a man had picked up a lady there and the lady's car was still there. It turned out to be Betty Benschoter's car, Sweet said. They went there and waited. Maxcy's plane started to land, Sweet said, then took off. "They spotted me," Irene was quoted as saying. Von told him later, Sweet said, he saw Irene's yellow shoes as she stood behind a gas truck.

Later Irene dropped off Sweet at the Lake Wales Yacht Club and she and Von had an argument outside, he said.

He said he did not see Maxcy strike his wife, but that the next day, Irene had a bruise on her temple and shoulder and raised her skirt to show "real bruises" on her legs.

Money in Car Trunk

Sweet described himself as a gambler, said he usually carried a heavy roll of bills or money in a tin box in the trunk of his car. He was thrown into the pool at the Maxcys' several times fully dressed, he said, and one time had the wet bills lying on a bed to dry.

Contrary to Mrs. Maxcy's testimony that he had free groceries at her home for six months, Sweet said he bought groceries, paid for telephone calls, cleaning and many other items and was never reimbursed, that all the records of such expenditures were taken out of his briefcase at the time of his arrest. He said he was hired for $25,000 to run the Maxcy estate, but never saw any money for this.

Sweet said that immediately after Maxcy's death, Irene had no money. She had been getting along on $50 a week to run the house. Sweet said he lent her $10,000, which she repaid.

At conferences with lawyers and bankers, Sweet said, Mrs. Maxcy said little, but "when we got home she would be on me for two hours to explain what was said."

Sweet said he advised Irene to have Jimmy Maxcy "take care of the groves." She made statements, after Maxcy's death, Sweet said, that "she would not know what to do without Johnny."

Denies She Was Afraid

Sweet denied Irene was afraid of him and said he took Marivon and Lance VonInwagen to school every morning.

Did she ever pay you $60,000? "No sir." $40,000? "No sir."

Sweet said he submitted a bill for bills he had paid and for his services in late April and early May. He denied he had told Irene he had spent $75,000 to get her husband killed and said "I didn't have $75,000."

The evening before the races March 31, Mrs. Maxcy had a group of teenagers at her home, staying overnight to get to the races early the next day. One was the babysitter.

Sweet said he walked into her bedroom about breakfast time. Irene still had on pajamas and a 16-year-old boy was taking a shower. She asked me to take the baby sitter home. The other teenagers, with the exception of the boy, accompanied him. When he returned he went to Mrs. Maxcy's bedroom. She was in bed and the boy was dressing. Did you have a quarrel, Sweet was asked. "You could call it that," he replied.

Sell Her Body? No!

On the night before the races, he and Mrs. Maxcy were at the Nancesowee Hotel, he said, and they had a drink with three brothers staying there and down for the races from Carolina. She asked one of the men to go to Sweet's apartment he said. He dropped them off and he said she told him to come back in an hour.

"I did not try to sell her body for $100," he declared. He said he called the apartment in about 25 minutes and the man answered. Sweet said within five minutes he was back in the apartment and "they were both in bed." He said the man had been introduced to Irene only that night at the hotel.

Mrs. Maxcy did not give him $5,000 to buy his new Cadillac, he said. He presented documents showing he had traded in his Oldsmobile '98, plus the money set aside for its repair, plus $2,000 in cash and a $2,200 check on a Mansfield, Mass., bank.

Sweet told in detail of the trip to Palmetto the day he was arrested, May 7, made wih Ernie Higgins, Irene's son-in-law, and Herman Pettus, her brother-in-law, and of his arrest outside a St. Petersburg steak house. Taken to Sebring by two sheriff's deputies, he said he was allowed a phone call. He said he called Irene Maxcy and asked her to call his lawyer, Walter Manley. He said Manley never received a call.

66 Days in Jail

Sweet spent 66 days in jail before he was released on $25,000 bond. He said he was never in jail before, but 15 or 20 years ago was arrested in Massachusetts for registering bets and paid a $200 fine. How long had he been a gambler? "As long as I can remember."

Asked if he ever lost at gambling, he said "I end up losing always," but he got lucky gambling on football through a Miami contact, he said. They stopped dealing with him, he said, and that is when he turned back to Walter Bennett in Boston—"about four or five years ago."

He told of seeing three men at Mrs. Maxcy's house "some time in March, sitting at her bar." There was a man named Jim, he said, and "Irene took me aside and said he wants some money." Sweet said he gave him $100. He said Jim was talking with Mrs. Maxcy about "people in Massachusetts he knew that I knew."

The night Sweet was with Irene and bodyguard, Tommy Baddock, at South Lakes Wales Yacht Club, after his arrest, Sweet said, she had called and said "see me" at the club. His wife begged him not to go, he said, but he went. They sat side by side at the bar and he asked her "Irene, what have you done to put me in this position." She replied, he said: "Johnny, they've brainwashed me."

"I said I've heard otherwise, that you told them a story." She requested we dance. We were at the table until 10 of one—five hours of talk."

Affair With Investigator

Irene, he said, told him she had an affair with the sheriff's investigator, Trulock. (Trulock has denied this.) Irene told him, Sweet said, that at 2:30 A.M. they went to Trulock's room in the Sandcastle Hotel at Sarasota, had sexual relations and at 6:30 A.M. she was back in her own room. At 8 A.M. she got up and drove him back to pick up his car in Zolfo Springs.

After Sweet was released on bond, he said, he and Mrs. Maxcy "had a few secret meetings around town. She would drive by my apartment slowly and I would get in my car and follow." She said they parked once by her maid's house and "she had tears in her eyes and was mumbling."

At another time, Sweet met with Mrs. Maxcy and Trulock at the Miller Motel.

Mrs. Maxcy asked Sweet to put water in the gas tank of Von Maxcy's airplane, he said. He said that Irene was scared of the Maxcy family.

Mrs. Maxcy's main reason for withdrawing money from the trust account Sweet said, "was to get it in cash so the Maxcys could not get hold of it."

Asked if Irene had ever given Harry Lee $25,000 to give to him, he noted that all she would have had to do was "put it under my pillow."

"I can tell you now," he said, "I never got the proceeds of anything."

Asked if he had ever told Harry Lee "It's all over now" he said he had not.

He never knew Andrew Von Etter, the Boston figure slain gang style last February, but placed by witnesses in Daytona Beach the day Maxcy was killed, he said. Nor does he know William Kelly of Boston, he testified, also placed in Daytona that day in company with Von Etter.

He said it is true he has a 30 per cent trust in the Maxcy ranch land, but said that is his usual fee for developing subdivisions. He cited other similar trusts under which he worked.

Sweet's testimony pictured him as a substantial businessman accustomed to large sums of money. All his phone calls were on a credit card, he said, and Mrs. Maxcy frequently used it.

He testified she had little business acumen.

Convict Called Liar by Brother At Sweet Trial

William Geraway, a convict serving time in the Lewisburg, Pa., federal prison for passing bad checks, "is a liar," his brother, Frank of Abington, Mass., testified in the trial of John J. Sweet.

Geraway had appeared to testify he was offered the contract to murder Charles Von Maxcy by Walter Bennett, a Boston underworld figure, who now is missing. The price was $5,000.

Frank Geraway appeared as a surprise witness in the defense of Sweet. He testified last Wednesday. On Thursday, he was arrested in the downstairs lobby of the Polk County Courthouse, Bartow, where the trial is being held, and charged with drunkenness. Frank Geraway has been treated as an alcoholic.

William, said Frank, has wanted to testify at other trials. One was the Lee Harvey Oswald case, in which President Kennedy was assassinated. Frank testified that in a letter William had written, he said that if he could not help the case, at least he would get a change in environment.

Also testifying that day was Robert Kroker, whose father developed Sebring Hills. He testified Sweet made from $50,000 to $70,000 a year as a salesman in Florida and in Massachusetts.

According to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, 435,852 Florida residents purchased fishing licenses between July 1, 1966 and June 30, 1967.

Hood's Dairies Announce New Expansions

Hood Industries, Inc., St. Petersburg, has announced a $1.1 million two-year expansion program for its two milk subsidiaries.

John Hood, company president, said the capital investment program will include a new plant, expansion and new equipment for existing plants and new branch office facilities.

"Both Hood's Milk in St. Petersburg and Hood's Dairy in Bradenton, have been experiencing a very rapid growth in market areas and product demand. By increasing our capabilities we can keep pace with this current demand as well as take advantage of West Central Florida's continuing growth," he added.

The largest single project in the program, Hood noted, will be a new cottage cheese manufacturing plant. It will be built adjacent to the St. Petersburg plant of Hood's Milk. The new 20,000 square foot cheese plant will have a weekly capacity of 500,000 pounds, "Making Hood's the largest cottage cheese producer in the Southeast."

Two bottling machines capable of doubling capacity in half-gallon and quart size containers are scheduled for the St. Petersburg plant.

The Bradenton plan will undergo expansion of cold storage facilities and loading areas and increase the number of delivery vehicles.

The company's branch in Avon Park has under construction a new two acre distribution facikty that will include an office building, cold storage, loading and maintenance building, cold storage, loading and maintenance areas. A branch in Auburndale was put in operation recently and will undergo a gradual expansion program, Hood said.

Hood's in addition to plants in St. Petersburg and Bradenton and branches in Avon Park and Auburndale, also, has branch operations in Tampa, Clearwater and Venice. The companies now service 10 counties in West Central Florida.

Ridge Area Day School Mail 2000 Letters For Their Fund Drive

The 22 children at the Ridge Area Day School didn't quite understand what the fuss and bother was all about but they pitched in eagerly this week to prepare over 2,000 letters for mailing from the Ridge Area Assn. for Retarded Children. The teachers at RADS, Mrs. Mildred Webber and Mrs. Sally Putnam, explained to them that the letter was being mailed to interested citizens of Highlands County asking for their continued help to keep the Day School in operation. Now, this the kids could understand because their School has brought the joy of learning to their lives.

It was just 10 years ago that the Ridge Area Day School first opened its doors in a refurbished old building at King's Court, a World War II housing development on a hill overlooking Avon Park. Dr. Santford R. Boley, President of the Highlands County Medical Assn. points out in his letter that originally the Day School served 13 children from Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto Counties. Children from Wauchula and Arcadia were bussed daily from those towns.

As time passed, Hardee and DeSoto counties inaugurated programs for the retarded within their own communities, but the Ridge Area Day School remained crowded as more Highlands County parents of the retarded learned of the Day School and enrolled their children. In 1962 a new day school was erected at Byrd and Winthrop streets across from the Avon Elementary School, and enrollment jumped. The Highlands County Board of Public Instruction realizing their responsibility for the education and training of these children increased their financial support of the Day School. A new class for the younger retardees was started by the RAARC, financed by funds provided by an appreciative public.

The Board of Directors of RAARC, comprised of parents and non-parent members of the Junior Women's Club, Jaycees, Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis and other civic organizations, realized that although the RADS was doing a creditable job in training the retarded children in the north end of the county, children in the south end were being neglected. Thus last year the Lake Placid Day School was opened under sponsorship of the RAARC with the teacher paid by the Board of Public Instruction. Today eight children with ages ranging from 9 to 16 are enrolled there.

During the past summer the RAARC operated a day camp in Sebring for the mentally retarded children of the entire county and sent 2 children to a summer residential camp.

Dr. Boley states that future plans call for a scouting program at the Day School developmental training for preschool children, counseling for parents, and activities and work experience for the young retarded adults. These plans can become an actuality only through the continued support of the community. Contributions, which are tax deductible, should be made to the Ridge Area Assn. for Retarded Children and mailed to P.O. Box [illegible] Avon Park.

LICK 'EM, STICK 'EM. And that's how you succeed in beating TB—if what you're licking and sticking is Christmas Seals. So says Movie Star Robert Morse, who is the 1967 National Honorary Christmas Seal Campaign Chairman. Morse, who rose to fame in both the Broadway and film versions of "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying," is echoed in his sentiments by his two daughters, Robin, left, and Andrea, right. The girls' mother, the former Carole D'Andrea, came down with tuberculosis last year. She is well on the road to recovery now, but the whole Morse family knows the value of Christmas Seals—they fight tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

A Thanksgiving Message

How can anyone put his heart into "Thanksgiving" when there's so much violence and grief in the world?

It's not a new question. The Bible tells of good men who struggled hard for an answer.

But this is what they found:

The times of greatest trouble are the times when men need the spirit of Thanksgiving most of all.

Gratitude in the midst of "good times" and material prosperity comes all to easily, and is apt to be superficial.

When forced to look more deeply into life—to find a more unselfish love and other riches of Spirit—only then do we begin to discover the real meaning of Thanksgiving, to see more clearly man's debt to God for everything that is truly good.

This kind of thanksgiving, when challenged by adversity, only grows stronger.

Treachery and tyranny were closing in on him, the Bible says, but Daniel "prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did aforetime."

In the middle of a raging storm at sea, with the ship he was on about to be smashed on the rocks, Paul "took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all."

Whether faced by hungry multitudes or standing before the tomb of Lazarus, Jesus first gave thanks.

In the sublimest example of all, on the night before his crucifixion, during the darkest hours the world has known, Jesus "took the cup, and gave thanks"—and then invited those who were with him to share in his life.

The basis of his thanksgiving, as he indicated often, was a deep and constant acknowledgement of his imperishable unity with God—something that filled his being and governed everything he did.

He expected that we too would feel it—would say "our Father" because we really had to, because we saw it was so.

Isn't this the only basis for thanksgiving? Material blessings just don't go around. Tables are empty, and sometimes a chair is empty.

But there is always a reason for thanksgiving. It's built into the structure of things, and it never changes. We catch clear glimpses of it when we're moved by compassion, reaching out in totally unselfish love. Then we know ourselves better—and our neighbor. And thanks flows out.

Perhaps what it comes down to is this:

To give thanks to God really means to give ourselves, our hearts and minds. This is only giving back what we owe to Him in the first place. But we must consciously give ourselves to God in order to know the blessing of what it means to be His sons.

"Simply asking that we may love God will never make us love Him," wrote Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of Christian Science; "but the longing to be better and holier, expressed in daily watchfulness and in striving to assimilate more of the divine character, will mould and fashion us anew, until we awake in His likeness."

The prophet Malachi summed it up:

"Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

Personality disorders are the well-spring of alcoholism, according to Florida Alcoholic Renabilitation Program. For more information on alcoholism, write Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla. 33825.

Chinchillas . . . Poor Investment!

Boyd Bennett of Young-Bennett Chinchilla Ranches says that many people who are interested in entering the Chinchilla Fur Farming Industry must have certified animals; certified and graded by the Empress Chinchilla Breeders Association to meet the Breeder's Association marketing standards. Entering the Chinchilla Fur Farming Industry without certified animals is very risky.

Young-Bennett Chinchilla Ranches have been chinchilla farming for 13 years and they have a limited supply of Empress Certified Chinchilla Brood Stock.

It is possible for a new Rancher to make a $3000.00 mistake if he does not get certified animals.

Americans have more labor saving devices, and less time, than any other people on earth.

The main trouble, in trying times, seems to be that people stop trying.

John Was "Stupid" His Lawyer Says

John Sweet is a good businessman but he was "stupid" to get himself involved with a woman as ruthless as Irene Maxcy, his attorney, James McEwen declared in his final arguments before the jury at Sweet's murder trial in Bartow.

And testimony in the trial makes famed Peyton Place a tame book, McEwen added.

"I doubt that any one of you has ever been exposed to people such as these or ever believed such as these existed," he said. "It's almost like looking at a crime drama."

Witnesses in the three-week trial of Sweet for the murder of Mrs. Maxcy's millionaire husband, Von, have hinted of unnatural sex inclinations, illicit love affairs, lives of crime and vicious family squabbling.

McEwen described Mrs. Maxcy as a woman who fought her way from packing house worker to wife of a millionaire. Sweet, who testimony has shown made up to $70,000 a year in real estate, was "stupid," said McEwen for entangling himself in her business and sexual affairs. Sweet, balding, 51, has previously testified he was in love with Mrs. Maxcy, a thin-lipped, sharp jawed woman of 44. He said from the stand he still had "feelings" for her.

Mrs. Maxcy, the state's star witness, has immunity from prosecution in the case in return for her testimony.

McEwen hinted a falling out of the lovers may have triggered the widow's decision to tell all.

Even while Irene was "pulling the switch" on Sweet, said McEwen, Sweet put a sign on her window saying "I love you."

"How silly can you get?" demanded McEwen.

Both McEwen and Defense Counsel Walter Manley contend that immunity for Mrs. Maxcy originated with investigator Roma Trulock. McEwen said he doubted that Darty was aware, until he walked into the courtroom, that Mrs. Maxcy had given her statement to Trulock before immunity was ever mentioned. It did not have to be given, he said, and her statement could have been used against her.

Convict Who Testified Is Liar—Brother

William Geraway, a convict serving time in the Lewisburg, Pa., federal prison for passing bad checks, "is a liar," his brother, Frank of Abington, Mass., testified in the trial of John J. Sweet.

Geraway had appeared to testify he was offered the contract to murder Charles Von Maxcy by Walter Bennett, a Boston underworld figure, who now is missing. The price was $5,000.

Frank Geraway appeared as a surprise witness in the defense of Sweet. He testified last Wednesday. On Thursday, he was arrested in the downstairs lobby of the Polk County Courthouse, Bartow, where the trial is being held, and charged with drunkenness. Frank Geraway has been treated as an alcoholic.

William, said Frank, has wanted to testify at other trials. One was the Lee Harvey Oswald case, in which President Kennedy was assassinated. Frank testified that in a letter William had written, he said that if he could not help the case, at least he would get a change in environment.

Also testifying that day was Robert Kroker, whose father developed Sebring Hills. He testified Sweet made from $50,000 to $70,000 a year as a salesman in Florida and in Massachusetts.

Some people are bent with work, and others become crooked trying to avoid it.

It is also a conference game as both teams are members of the Division III of the Florida Junior College Conference.

However the 5th starter, Bill Whitehead, who had a good night both nights against Florida College is gone. The four returning boys are Junior Gale, Skipper Gause, Rocky Kitchens and Ted Butler. Pushing for the 5th slot are Alonzo Whitehead, John Battillo, Thomas Williams, and John Polk. Tim Gillis and Ralph Starratt round out the other unit.

Pre-game ceremonies will include a welcome by Dr. Wm. Stallard, president SFJC; introduction of players, Will Beaumel, dean SFJC; invocation, Rev. Knapp, Episcopal Church and toss for center jump, Mayor Jimmy Doerr.

Saturday night the Panthers journey to Leesburg for their second Conference game against Lake Sumter. Tuesday of next week the Panthers play host to the top ranked Edison Junior College in a game at the Lake Placid High School gym. All home games begin at 8 P.M.

If found acceptable, and most of the young men from this area are, according to Selective Service officer Samuel Oates, they will be sent to Ft. Jackson, S. C., or to Fort Benning, Ga., for training. Leaving Monday were Isaiah Kendel, Sebring; Joseph W. Johnson, Avon Park and Hazel R. Hinson, Lake Placid.

Panthers Win Two In Conference: Meet Edison at Lake Placid Tues.

The game opened with Florida College almost running the Panthers out of the gym, running up an impressive 59-44 half time score. The Falcons sporting two 6'6" and one 6'7" men in their lineup controlled the backboard and managed the fast break against the shorter Panthers. However, after talking things over in the dressing room and making a couple of adjustments, the Panthers roared back to ram 79 points through the net to win 121 to 94.

The Panthers caught the Falcons with 9 minutes to go in the game and went ahead 76 to 75. From there on in it was all Panther. The Panthers used a balanced attack with 6 boys hitting in double figures. The aggressive play of Junior Gale, Ted Butler, Alonzo Whitehead, and Rocky Kitchens accounted for many of the Falcons floor mistakes in the second half. Skipper Gause and John Battillo controlled the boards the second half to keep the Falcons from getting more than one shot at the basket.

Battillo 27, Gause 25, Gale 18, Whitehead 15, Butler 15, Kitchens 13, Polk 6, and Williams 2 did the scoring for the Panthers. Steve Neimer with 27 led the Falcons.

Panthers 86 Lake Sumter 65

Saturday night at the Lake Sumter Gym in Leesburg, S.F.J.C. Panthers won their second conference game of the year with an 86 to 65 win over Lake Sumter Jr. College.

The Panthers now own a 2-0 season record.

The Panthers started slowly and semed to have difficulty in getting together the first half as Sumter kept the score close and at one time led 23 to 22.

Butler 24, Gause 15, Whitehead 15, Gale 9, Gillis 6, Kitchens 5, Williams 4, Polk 2, Battillo 6, led the scoring for the Panthers.

Thomas and Bilton with 16 each led Sumter.

Tonight (Tuesday) at 8:00 in the Lake Placid Gym, the Panthers will meet one of the top rated teams in the state in Edison Jr. College. Lake Placid and Sebring fans will remember Luther Adams of Labell, who is playing for Edison. The Tuesday after Thanksgiving the Panthers will meet Miami Dade Jr. College in a game at Avon Park High School Gym.

Vets Can Now Pick Doctors

St. Petersburg—M. T. Dixon, of the Florida Department of Veterans Affairs, announced today that the VA has implemented a simplified procedure for authorizing each eligible veteran to obtain outpatient treatment from the private physician of his choice.

The Veterans Administration will issue to certain selected veterans an outpatient medical treatment idenification card, which will serve as authority to obtain medical care. This procedure will substantially reduce paper work associated with the reporting and billing by the doctor.

The outpatient medical treatment identification card entitles a veteran to select any licensed physician or osteopath within a reasonable distance from his permanent or temporary residence to obtain outpatient treatment when necessary for service connected disability or disabilities which are listed on the card.

Dixon said the authority for the issuance of the card is vested with the chief of the outpatient clinic in whose jurisdiction the veteran resides. An example of circumstances under which outpatient identification cards may be issued would be cases where treatment in a VA facility would involve a long trip or other hardship.

Under the old rule, the VA estimates how much care each veteran would need during the coming year and issued an authorization to a specific doctor to give the treatment at governmen expense. Under the new program, Dixon says the VA will issue the card to veterans who require continued medical care and the veteran will be permitted to select a doctor of his choice for treatment of the service connected disabilities that are listed on the card.

Devil Team Meets Streaks Wednesday

The big game for the Avon Park Red Devils and the Sebring Blue Streaks is all set for Wednesday night (Thanksgiving Eve) in Sebring with the Class B District 7 championship waiting for the Streaks if they can defeat their arch rivals.

It will be homecoming for Sebring with all the frills that go with such a celebration but for the football fans the real moment of the fall season will come when the kick-off starts the battle beween the Devils and the Streaks.

Sebring, heavily favored with a record of 8 wins and 1 loss, has a hard-running offense led by backs Steve Young and Ronnie Purvis and a deadly passing game directed by quarterback Ralph McGill. End George Howze is McGill's favorite receiver along with Charles Eubanks. Last week the Streaks swamped North Fort Myers 60-0 with McGill tossing six touchdown passes. The only team to beat Sebring thus far has been Kathleen who took an 18-15 win week before last. The Streaks have defeated Bartow (20-13), Lake Wales (13-6), Arcadia (6-3), Okeechobee (26-7), Naples (38-7), Haines City (26-12), New Smyrna Beach (38-0), and N. Fort Myers.

Avon Park has a less impressive record with 3 losses, 5 wins, and 1 tie. The Devils lost to Lake Wales 7-6, Wauchula 12-0, and Arcadia 19-0 and tied Fort Meade 13-13. The Devils wins were over over Mulberry 14-6, Haines City 20-7, Clearwater Central Catholic 64-7, Naples 19-13, and Okeechobee 45-0.

The Red Devils defense has been impressive all season with the 19 points given up to Arcadia the most allowed to any team and two of those touchdowns came as a result of the Devils gambling to catch up. Whether the Devil defense can hold the powerful Streak offense is a big question to Avon Park fans. The biggest question mark for Devil followers however is whether the off-and-on Devil offense can move the ball through, around or over the big Sebring defensive team.

Senior fullback Dean Lemler will be the workhorse for Avon Park's offense with sophomore Willie Joe Seigler and junior Billy Richards available for surprises around and through the Sebring line. Lemler has played on Devil teams that have defeated the Streaks the past two seasons. Last year the popular senior had a big night against Sebring as he scored 18 points while rushing for 227 yards in 13 carries.

Avon Park seniors who will be playing their last game for the Red Devils on the gridiron are ends Chuck Long, Leotus McNeil, and Sam Jones; tackle John Alwood; guards Stanley Spurlock and Frank Sherertz; center and kick-off specialist Robert Crews; and backs Jim Williams, Lucius Taylor, and Lemler.

Grand Opening Of Golf Course Rescheduled

The Board of Directors of the Avon Park Golf Course have rescheduled the grand opening of the course to Saturday January 6, 1968. This was done to allow more people to attend and give the committee more time to prepare for the gala event of the winter season.

Ed Touchton, Jr. and Al Poole tied with 82's for the regular Saturday blind bogey event. Only six participated in the event.

W. R. Reck President of the Avon Park Golf Assn., Inc. revealed that there are now 138 full fledged members of the Association. A total of 175 players played the 18-hole par 72 course over this past weekend.

Reck also announced that the 20-cart sheds will be completed by this weekend and will be ready for occupancy by that time. Anyone interested in obtaining a cart shed may do so by contacting Reck at the Avon Citrus Bank.

Pete Murray the Golf Pro at the Sebring Course played the course last Friday as a guest of the Club.

Pfc. Terry Dowd Wounded In Vietnam: Transferring to U. S.

Pfc. Terry Dowd, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dowd of APCI at the Bombing Range, was seriously wounded November 6 in a battle which took place in the vicinity of Quang Nai, and at present is resting in a hospital in Japan, awaiting transfer to the States.

After receiving the initial notification that their son had been wounded, Mr. and Mrs. Dowd received the following telegram from Marine Corps Headquarters in Washington, D.C.: "This is to confirm that your son, Private First Class Terry Dowd, USMC, was injured 6 November 1967 in the vicinity of Quang Nai, Republic of Vietnam. He sustained a gunshot wound to the jaw and to the left arm with a fracture of the humerus and a fracture of the mandible from hostile rifle fire while on an operation. He is presently receiving treatment at the first medical battalion. His condition and prognosis were good. Your anxiety is realized and you are assured that he is receiving the best of care. His mailing address remains the same". Signed — Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant, USMC.

This telegram eased the anxiety of the parents to some degree, and they soon received another telegram stating that Terry had been sent to the U.S. Naval Hospital at Yokosuka, Japan, for further treatment. The telegram read: "A report received this headquarters reveals that your son, Private First Class Terry Dowd USMC has been evacuated to the U.S. Naval Hospital, Yokosuka, Japan for further treatment. Mail may be addressed to him at the U.S. Naval Hospital FPO San Francisco 96662." Signed Wallace M. Greene, Jr., Commandant, USMC.

The Dowds then received a letter dated November 13 from Terry himself, part of which follows: "Dear Family, I know you've been worrying your head off about me, but this is really the first time I've had a chance to write. Hope all of you are doing real great, and of course taking care of yourselves. I know you're all wondering what condition I am in, and all, so I'll give you a briefing on it and let you see for yourself in about two weeks.

Well, we were on Operation Essex, and it first started when we ran upon a V. C. hospital with a perimeter set up with machine guns.

Myself and the Lieutenant were calling artillery in, about fifty meters from us, so while waiting on it to come in, I was helping the corpsman take care of the wounded and dead. I crawled up on a paddy dike to pull a man down, and as I lowered him, I guest I got a little careless and got up too high. Anyway, I caught a round from a machine gun in the left shoulder all the way through and another hit the top of it (my shoulder), just a graze and hit my jaw bone, coming out my mouth, left side, and knocking out a tooth and breaking it. Then another hit, just a graze you might say, my right jaw bone. Oh yes, it broke my left shoulder. I have been in the operating room twice. Just came out about four hours ago. Now, I am all sewed up, and have my jaws wired together. It's not as bad as it sounds, really, so don't worry any more. I'm alright, God took care of me. Now for the good news. I'm in Japan at the time, just outside of Tokyo, for about another week. Then guess where I'm going. Would you believe Jacksonville Naval Hospital? The doctor said it would take months for my jaw to get right, and also where I'll be able to use my arm like I did before."

Terry is 19 years old, and joined the Marine Corps the 1st of December, 1966. He took his initial training at Parris Island, South Carolina, and went to Vietnam in June, where he was assigned as a Forward Observer.

Terry's letter continues: "I'm in no pain, just can't eat anything but liquids, but it's not bad. If that round had been a fraction of an inch higher I'd probably be dead now. We had 27 killed and 50 something wounded that day. It was a continuous fight for twenty-four hours. I consider myself lucky."

Mr. and Mrs. Dowd and Terry's many friends are anxiously awaiting news of Terry's transfer from Japan to Jacksonville, Fla. He has been awarded the Purple Heart.

Charles Arnold Finishes Basic Training

Seaman Recruit Charles P. Arnold, USN, 19, son of Mrs. Mozelle Arnold of 112 E. La Grande, Avon Park, has been graduated from nine weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station.

In making the transition from civilian life to Naval service, he received instruction under veteran Navy petty officers. He studied seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other subjects.

County Has Lots of Money As Year Ends

Highlands County commissioners closed out the 1966-67 fiscal year with a balance of more than $100,000. The annual financial statement for the year which ended September 30 was formally accepted at Tuesday's meeting of the commission.

The general fund, which had a budget of $626,891, actually spent $574,882, leaving a balance of $52,008. The fine and forfeiture budget of $293,710 was underspent by $23,601, and the road and bridge came up with a balance of $24,753 out of its $270,000 budget.

Two parts of last year's general fund budget were very different from the original budget. The $10,000 set aside for legal fees in event court action reseulted from the county-wide tax revaluation program was not needed.

On the other hand, the rash of elections pushed expenditures in that area from the budgeted $8,550 to $15,250.

Railroad Crossings

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee was instructed to contact the State Road Department to learn whether primary road maintenance funds may be used for safety devices at the railroad crossing on Main Street in Avon Park.

Gates for the crossing—on either side of the Mall—would cost between $10,000 and $15,000. No action was taken on the Avon Park City Council request for county aid in marking all the railroad crossings within the city limits—Commissioner Cecil Skipper said at least five crossings within the city are not marked at all now.

Other Business

In other business the commission on Tuesday awarded a bid for a new truck to Avon Park Motors on a bid of $3333.

Willard Durrance was promised board action in obtaining a road to an old cemetery a quarter of a mile off State 66, South of Sebring. When 66 was improved, an old road was closed.

The board voted to take out fire insurance on the county's motor vehicles and to investigate costs of vandalism insurance on the heavy road equipment. The fire insurance costs a little more than $800 annually.

George Crist and "one other qualified person" were given permission to attend an advanced course on emergency care for sick and injured which University of Miami medical school will conduct the first three days of December.

Civil Defense Director Jim Lawson was authorized to order emergency food stock as soon as he has worked out storage plans.

The Tax Collector was instructed to collect a 10-cent per acre assessment as requested by the Fisheating Creek Watershed Project land owners association.

Let's Get To The Facts About The National Guard

There has beena great deal of criticism of the National Guard in the months since the rioting in Detroit and Newark. We do not propose that the Guard should be, by any means, above criticism. It is not a perfect military force, any more than the Active Army or Air Force, or even the Marines, are perfect. But too much of the criticism of the Guard has been a replay of old records.

Although in recent years the Regular Army and Air Force have gained almost complete control over the training of the National Guard and have the final say on who may be appointed or promoted in the officer ranks, there is still too much editorial comment about "political" appointments and promotions. The fact is that to be appointed a second lieutenant in the National Guard you must meet standards set by the Army or Air Force. Few, if any, young men are given commissions these day s without having completed officer candidate school.

Promotion to colonel in the Guard, except for chaplains and doctors, requires successful completion of the Army's Command and General Staff College course. Promotion to lower ranks requires successful completion of appropriate lower level schooling. You may be the Governor's buddy, but you still have to pass the test.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara several years ago, when it was decided not to mobilize the reserves for Viet Nam, directed the formation of a Selected Reserve Force made up of Army National Guard and Army Reserve units. These units were required to substantially increase their training time and were given priorities on Army school spaces and equipment. They were made "early ready" and as such are part of the Army's strategic reserve force. Eighty per cent of this Selected Reserve Force is made up of Army National Guard units. Many of these are reported to be in a higher state of combat readiness than some Active Army units.

Transport squadrons of the Army National Guard are flying military personnel and equipment to bases all over the world, including South Viet Nam. An ANG jet fighter squadron recently took pare in NATO maneuvers in Turkey.

The National Guard is a critical part of the nation's defense team. As such it deserves in-depth, objective reporting of its accomplishments and of its failures, when there are such. Nearly a billion tax dollars a year are spent to maintain the Guard. This being so, the public deserves to read sound and objective reporting of Guard activities, not the emotional, unreasoned kind of editorializing that has appeared in too many publications recently.

Take a Look at Beauty

One of the most intriguing features of Florida to the visitors who come in the Winter is the fact that Florida always is colorful with flowering shrubs and trees, as well as annuals and perennials.

To leave snow, ice, and barren branches behind and find green trees and lawns and gay flowers, singing birds, warm sun and blue skies is an exciting change. Even when Florida has a few cold nights to damage some of the tropicals, there are still sufficient hardy trees, shrubs and flowers to keep Florida beautiful.

If you are a new resident of Florida, no doubt you are finding gardening much different than "back home." Primarily this is due to the fact that in Florida plants grow almost all year . . . and because in planning gardens designers use professional skill and 'know-how' to combine hardy, semi-tropical and tropical plants in a beautiful combination planting so that if we do have cold sufficiently to damage some of the tender tropicals, we still have the basic planting of hardy materials.

Outlaws Go Home

When the Outlaws, those leather-jacketed motorcyclists and their frowzy-haired gals, were guested overnight in Highlands County jail, they complained of various things—heat, cockroaches, slow service.

And that's just great!

Guests like this we can do without. We are delighted they were unhappy in Highlands County and we hope the accommodations in the local bastille were so distasteful to their delicate (?) sensibilities they do not come back.

We understand their tastes run more to the erotic—marijuana parties, nailing of offending members' hands to trees, beer bottle beatings. They must have found our jailhouse cockroaches tame indeed, if indeed they found cockroaches in the jail as they complained.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Why Should We Be Thankful In This Troubled Time?

At this Thanksgiving season, when our nation is engaged in a seemingly endless conflict with Communism in Southeast Asia, with no way out which is not itself beset with danger or dishonor, many may ask themselves, "What is there to be thankful for?"

Should Thanksgiving be celebrated each year, regardless of our national situation? Or should we skip it sometimes?

Thanksgiving, on the fourth Thursday in November each year, is an American institution, having been proclaimed by President Abraham Lincoln in 1863 and annually since then by every succeeding president.

Thanksgiving Proclaimed

The first American Thanksgiving, as everyone knows, was celebrated in 1633 in Massachusetts. Other days of thanksgiving were proclaimed during the Revolutionary War, at the end of that war, and in 1789. But the custom of observing a national Thanksgiving Day each year actually began with Lincoln's proclamation.

One thing for which we should be thankful is our prosperity—since we are now in the longest period of unbroken prosperity in the history of our nation.

Dr Maltbie D. Babcock, some time ago, observed that it would be more appropriate to set aside one day each year for complaining, leaving all the other days of the year for giving thanks to God for the blessings that He bestows on us.

Call Upon God

The Bible says, "Offer unto God thanksgiving, and pay thy vows unto the Most High. And call upon Me in the day of trouble. I will deliver thee and thou shalt glorify Me."

Is this, perhaps, the pattern that we should follow?

If we would sincerely thank God for the blessings which we have enjoyed, turn to Him whole-heartedly and do the things that we have promised Him we would do, would we not then be in a better position to ask Him to help us get out of the intolerable situation in which we find ourselves?

A genuine turning to God in reverent thanksgiving might become the turning point in our national fortunes—in this time of crisis.

A mere mockery of the true intent of the day—spending it in feasting and revelry, with no thought of God—may prove to be like the final feast of Belshazzar.

Real Gratitude

This Thanksgiving, will you turn your heart to God in real gratitude to Him for His care for you? Will you renew your promises to serve Him faithfully?

If you do—and if you keep your promise—this can be the greatest Thanksgiving ever for you.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Adjusting to the Skilled Labor Shortage

Babson Park, Mass., November 23. For quite a while manpower shortages have been a way of life for employers in many parts of the country. Some of the smartest labor relations men looked early in the game for ways around the problem. But too many simply let things slide, thinking the picture would change if they waited. Demand for men and women of high skills, however, continues to increase, and managements both large and small are having to face up to the dilemma.

Strategies For Finding Good Workers

Industrial executives have plenty of difficult questions to answer, perhaps more than ever before. But when top businessmen get together today, the talk almost always settles down to the best methods of finding employees to man the production lines. Most localities have plenty of jobless people, but these are usually entirely without training,—and too often without ambition. That is why business schools and colleges are being besieged by job "prospectors" offering contracts and big pay to boys and girls even before they have completed their education.

There are only limited numbers of such potentially top-drawer job aspirants. The most successful personnel officials are those who uncover manpower sources where there don't seem to be any, who have the ingenuity and drive to learn from others how they have managed to staff their plants and offices. This is an excellent time to note how some of the more forward-looking firms are maintaining adequate crews in areas where others are searching in vain.

Training Programs on Most Lists

Upgrading already established workers from within has proved an effective way of strengthening the quality of a company's position. Then comes, of course, the necessity of filling in again at the bottom. Most establishments have what is known as an "open door" policy, with the unskilled encouraged to come to work and enroll immediately in a company training program. The percentage of successful breakthroughs may be small, but they are worthwhile where skilled job aspirants are virtually non-existent.

One large concern has 10 plants in critical labor shortage cities. It has recently designed a new policy that is said to work well: All of its employee-testing procedures have been revaluated, making it easier for an inexperienced applicant to be hired and directed to the type of on-job training best suited to his abilities. Regular recruitment systems—using newspapers (still considered most rewarding), TV, radio, billboards, and brochures—are being steadily augmented by what might be termed "desperation" techniques.

Invitations Back into the Labor Force

In practically all of the most heavily industrialized centers, employers are trying to get those not currently seeking employment to come into the manpower force. Many firms are making recruiting agents out of their workers by offering them a $50 bond for each new employee they bring in. Other executives are giving trading stamps in substantial numbers, expensive appliances, paid vacation trips, and other unusual incentives to those unearthing job applicants who actually join the personnel rolls.

Attempts are being made to lure mothers back, at least on a part-time basis. One Eastern company has placed in operation a "Mother Shift," which is said to be flourishing. It runs from 8:30 A.M. to 2:30 P.M., permitting the mothers to work while the children are at school and get home in time to greet them and have dinner ready on time. More efficient organizational planning is being emphasized in some cases to meet manpower deficiencies. One leading manufacturer stresses a perfect attendance record, granting those who achieve this mark a $50 bond each year; still others spur attendance perfection via gifts and trading stamps. As it looks now, it could be a long time before skilled labor is again easy to come by. Executives who realize this and grapple successfully with the problem will hold the best competitive position.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

Those Receiving Our Aid Turn and Give Us a Kick

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Should there be those of you who still have faith in your Uncle Sam's theory that by lavish dispensation of your hard-earned tax dollars he can buy the friendship and loyalty of foreign nations, take a look at this example of how this theory works out in actual practices.

The United States, in past years, has poured $3.4 billion dollars into Brazil in the form of direct foreign aid, plus vast amounts in indirect foreign aid through artifically supporting the price for Brazilian coffee.

So now the Brazilian government is engaged in showing just how grateful it is for this largesse by making an agreement with Scandinavian steamship companies under which those carriers will obtain heavy increases in Brazilian cargoes, particularly coffee, while United States flag ships will be heavily cut.

One United States shipline alone will suffer a loss of $1 million the first year and increasing amounts every year thereafter. And remember, this line—Delta Steamship Company of New Orleans—is but one of the United States flag lines affected.

But this is not all. To add insult to injury, the Brazilian government's agreement with the Scandinavian lines provides a guarantee of participation by those lines in the transportation of government-sponsored cargoes from the United States to Brazil—a guarantee backed, if you can believe it, by a threat to exclude entirely from Brazilian commerce any United States flag line which refuses to accept the terms of the Brizilian-European arrangement.

The fact that this part of the Brazilian agreement is a violation of United States law providing preferential treatment for United States carriers in the shipment of cargoes from this country apparently made no difference at all to this neighboring nation whose friendship we have sought to buy with our billions.

Even sadder than this fact, however, is the fact that the United States government, through the State Department or the Agency for International Development, has as this is written given no evidence that it cares either about this nose-thumbing at our laws. Certainly nothing has been said to indicate that the United States government has any plan underway to put the pressure on Brazil where it counts—in the pocketbook—by cutting off the steady flow of our aid dollars as an answer to this viciously discriminatory agreement.

It would, of course, be surprising if either our State Department or AID officials take action to discipline this example of a dog biting the hand that feeds it. It is well said that there are none so blind as those who will not see, and over the years our foreign policy officials have carefully closed their eyes to example after example of not just the ingratitude, but the active hostility, of nations which have been the beneficiaries of our "check-book foreign policy" or "dollar diplomacy."

And even where these officials have been forced to learn about some of these cases—usually because of an uproar on Capitol Hill, they almost invariably have invoked what might be called a subsidiary of "dollar diplomacy"—the "turn-the-other-cheek" policy. Application of this doctrine prevents us from so badly offending any of our long list of subsidized nations that they will refuse to accept our generous dollar allocations to them.

I am aware that this doctrine was laid down by the Master as a guide for relationships between people. I am not aware that He extended it to international relationships, but in any event I am certain that He never said a person or a nation must turn the other cheek forever, no matter how many times slapped.

Florida First

Florida's ranking of tenth in the nation in personal income and first in percentage growth over 1966 reflects the state's continuing over-all economic advance, C. Shelby Dale, chairman of the Florida Development Commission, said recently.

Statistics for July show Florida leads the Southeast in monthly per capita income and in income for the seven months period. The $1,373 income in July was almost double that of ten years ago. The percentage growth over the same month last year is 10.4, second in the nation only to California's 11.7.

For the seven months through July, Florida had a per capita of $9,774, up 9.7 per cent from the $8,908 in 1966.

"We have had continued great growth this year, especially in the industrial sector," Dale said. "Tourism also is moving ahead and our statisticians predict around 19,000,000 by the end of this year."

Dale said industrial growth is ahead of last year approximately 12 per cent and this is expected to continue into the forseeable future.

Here's How To Carve Turkey

GAINESVILLE—The time is near again for the annual battle of carving the Thanksgiving turkey.

Here are a few carving tips from Julian Moore, poultry specialist, Florida Agricultural Extension Service.

Let the turkey cool for about 20 minutes before you start to carve. This allows the meat to become firm and keeps the turkey from falling apart during the carving process.

Get a good hold on the bird with a meat fork and use a sharp knife with a broad blade.

Be sure that your knife is of good quality. You can't win with a poor knife.

Now carve. Start by removing the legs. Cut between the body and thigh and break the joints as you pull the legs off. Do the same thing to remove the wings. Slice the white meat by cutting parallel to the back and working forward. Make even slices. Remember to put any leftovers in the refrigerator as soon as possible to prevent spoiling.

Too Late to Classify

By RUSSELL KAY

While we gleefully bounce along the rugged road to inflation and continue to throw our money to the four winds like it really grew on trees and our national debt seems to be shooting for the moon and will probably reach it before we ever get a man there, we might stop and count our change.

Uncle Sam can claim the Oscar as the "King of Suckers." In two world wars we bailed out our so-called allies and loaned them billions, plus additional billions we gave them outright.

If we could find a good collection agency to turn our bad debts over to and they were successful in collecting what is owed us and took a juicy commission for their work, we still could go a long way toward paying off the national debt and might even balance the budget if somebody put handcuffs on LBJ and Congress until they came to their senses.

We scream about honor and national obligations. We must keep our sacred word, so we fight in Viet Nam and try to fulfill the unlimited promises of the Great Society. How about asking some of our noble, upstanding allies like Great Britain, France and Russia to pay us what they owe us instead of insulting and kicking us around?

In my book, modern diplomacy doesn't make much sense. The more we help our friends and neighbors the more they curse and abuse us. Finland alone among all our debtors has made an effort to pay off.

The American dollar that used to be "King of the Road" is now snubbed and discounted. The whole world is sitting back waiting for Uncle Sam to go broke.

They joyously watch him pay 13 billion dollars in interest on borrowed money and enjoy watching taxpayers squirm as they try to make an honest living and still meet the demands of their political leaders for more and more and more money.

In the meantime business, industry and labor claw at each other's throats for more profits and more pay and benefits, and to hell with the country. What's the use, we are more prosperous than at anytime in our history, why can't everybody be a millionaire? Why worry about tomorrow if you can get yours today.

Medicare brought us double and triple hospital and doctor bills. Industrial growth brought us strikes and violence. National production soars but it has a hard time keeping pace with the slipping dollar.

About 1/5 of all Americans have one leg shorter than the other.

Often, after a visit to the doctor, you can feel no change.

Medical records show that cancer was recognized some 1,500 years ago.

It's amazing what the politicians can do with our grandchildren's money!

When doctors can't discover what ails you, maybe he should meet the wife.

Ridge Area Students Bowl Again!!

Not every day is all work at the Ridge Area Day School-Avon Park for on Wednesdays following lunch, all students ride the "yellow-yellow" bus and cars of volunteers to Grand Prix Lanes where they are guests for a bowling session. The students are given regular instruction under the sponsorship of Gray and Clair Hammond and play one or two games before returning to their school. "The bowlers have been sanctioned by the American Junior Bowling Congress and each can participate from Avon Park in the annual state contest sponsored by the Florida Assn. for Retarded Children" said Miss Ann Karrick, vice-president of the Ridge Area Assn. for Retarded Children and Recreation Chairman of the Florida Assn for Retarded Children.

This is the second year the Ridge Area students of Avon Park have had the opportunity to bowl regularly, to expand their skills of coordination and to develop social abilities beyond the school setting. Probably no other group of bowlers reflects the enthusiasm and excitement in the pleasures of the game as do these young handicapped bowlers. All enjoy a strike when made by one of their members and their appreciation of another's success is unlimited and uninhibited.

Miss Karrick said "The bowling experience offers many kinds of training to these children. Anyone who has watched these children bowl will grow in his understanding of what the retarded can do. These young people are a credit to the community and the establishment which are making this experience possible."

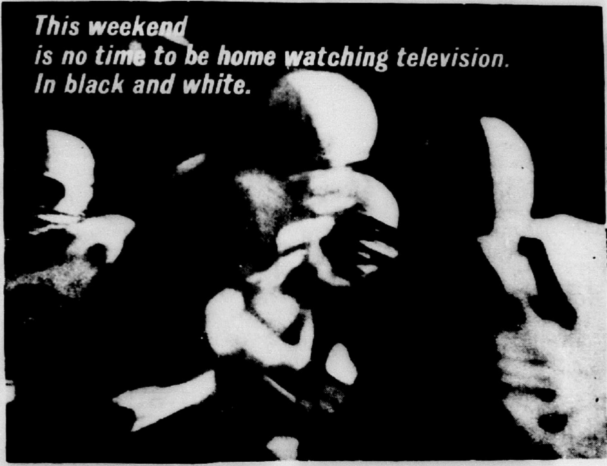
Lane's — Lane's — Lane's — Lane's — Lane's — Lane's — Lane's

This weekend is no time to be home watching television. In black and white.



There'll be a lot of football on TV this weekend. And most of it'll be on in color. So what are you doing sitting home with a black and white set? Not enjoying the games as much as you could. That's one thing for sure.

But, you say, you're waiting for someone to perfect color TV?

Someone has. Take a look at Sylvania's 1968 color TV. With Sylvania's Colorbright 85* picture. It's the brightest picture of them all.

You're waiting for color prices to come down?

Now Sylvania color TV starts as low as $329.95.

And the low price doesn't mean you sacrifice performance. Even the lowest-priced Sylvania set has an automatic degaussing circuit to purify the color. In fact, today the only hard part about buying a color set is choosing the model you like best. There are so many.

Sylvania has over 50 models. In portables and consoles. From Early American to Contemporary. In maples, walnuts, butternuts, cherries, and pecans.

Whichever Sylvania color set you choose, if you act now we'll have it in your home this weekend. All warmed up for the pre-game warmup.

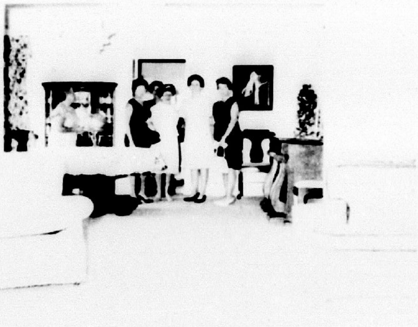
SECOND ANNUAL

CHRISTMAS PARADE
Sponsored By Progressive Business Assn. of Avon Park
7:30 P.M. DECEMBER 4, 1967

MRS. CLARENCE WINDSOR, Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell and Mrs. Otto Kreiger are looking over literature pertaining to the Jacaranda retirement rooms at the hotel. All outside rooms, where a couple may furnish their own room or suite or rent furnished. An ideal place for people who do not want the responsibility of a house or apartment. Rooms will be painted to suit the individual taste of the couple.



THE RAY WELLS home on Lake Lillian shows guests on the tour viewing part of the spacious living and dining room. The beautiful felt table covering and the paper Christmas tree on the buffet made by Mrs. Wells was the subject of conversation. Huge patio areas surround the home for leisure entertaining. The well kept home of Spanish design radiates the warm feeling of "home."

THE BEAUTIFULLY most recently built home on the tour was the Robert Young's on E. Canfield. The "Contempra" three-bedroom home with its spacious rooms for gracious living, music system inside and outside, providing music for the pool area and entertaining. Mrs. Walter Betts is shown admiring the beautiful pool and patio, flowers floating in the pool, surrounded with tropical settings, a place for leisure hours. Bedrooms and dining area overlooking the pool.

THE MAGNIFICENT HOME of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Ost of Mediterranean architecture overlooking Lake Lillian, a large formal home, beautifully decorated throughout, would take the observer several days to see and really appreciate the art objects, color schemes, imported furniture and beautiful pictures that adorn the home. The right foreground shows the hand-carved teakwood table and stools, the top inlaid with painted soap stone designs, purchased in Hong Kong.

Woman's Club Tour of Homes Big Success

The Tour of Homes sponsored by the Woman's Club Thursday Nov. 16 proved a big success, attended by many residents and winter guests in the community. Tea was served at the Woman's Club following the tour.

Six beautiful and unusual homes were on the tour and the Jacaranda Hotel "permanent homes" for retired couples.

The Jacaranda Hotel provides one and two rooms for permanent residents and winter guests along with their overnight guests. These are ideal for those who do not want the responsibility of a house or apartment. Three meals per day are furnished amid pleasant surroundings, and game activities for a very nominal fee.

The Thomas Bagwell home, two-story brick Early American home, ultra-modern family home with large fire-place four bedroom, was featured as House-of-the-Month in McCall's Magazine. Spacious living at its best with large kitchen and breakfast room leading into the family room overlooking Lake Damon.

The Ray Wells home, one of the first houses built in this area during the "Boom Days" of Spanish design beautifully modernized with General Electric kitchen and breakfast area customed for this house. Large patio area and grills suitable for entertaining large groups. A conversation piece was the beautiful white felt table cover in the dining room, designed and made by Mrs. Wells, featuring gold lace edging and gold bows amid sequins and tiny ever-flashing electric varicolored bulbs.

Mediterranean architecture marked the Dr. Walter Ost home overlooking Lake Lillian. A large formal home filled with unusual and magnificent collection of furniture, and art objects from foreign countries, gathered by Dr. and Mrs. Ost on their many trips abroad. Mrs. Ost featured an exquisite handmade table cloth for the viewers, purchased overseas. Mrs. Grace Larsen furnished beautiful organ music throughout the tour.

Robert Gays new ranch-type home featuring antiqued white wood in front. Front patio, gray shutters and white picket fence. Two bedroom modest family home, furnishings included hand made antique reproductions of highly polished furniture in natural colored cherry wood, made by Mr. Gay.

The guests were immediately attracted to the dining room set of cherry wood, made by Mr. Gay, with its Jackson Press (credenza) patterned after an original. The table was centered with a cake stand which was won by Mrs. Gay's mother as the most beautiful girl at a cake walk. The buyer paying $50.00 for the cake and stand.

The most recently built home on the tour was the "Contempra" three-bedroom home of the Robert Young's. Built for gracious and convenient family living. Large screened patio with swimming pool on which flowers were floating. Inter-communication monitoring and music system inside and outside the house. The bedrooms and dining room all facing the pool and patio area.

Many "Ohs and Ahs" were expressed as the guests toured from home to home viewing the beautiful homes on the tour. Guests were graciously received by each hostess and her co-hostesses at each resident.

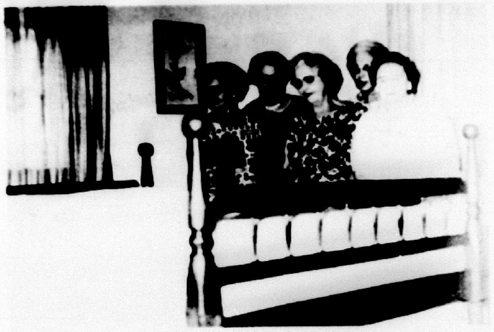
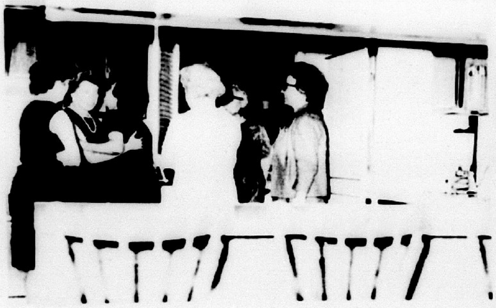
Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.



UNUSUAL HANDMADE, highly polished, natural cherry wood furniture was predominant in the lovely Robert Gay home on W. Bell St. Pictured are Mrs. Ann Reha, Mrs. Mac O'Neal, Mrs. Janette Alley, Mrs. Wesley Porter and George Couch, guests on the tour admiring the antique cannonball bed, made by Mr. Gay. The high bed with long dust ruffle and hand crocheted bedspread are only a few features of this ranch type home. Many antiques were used throughout the home blending in with the cherry wood furniture, all reproductions of real valuable antiques, all made by Mr. Gay.



BRICK EARLY AMERICAN, two story home, built especially for the convenience of the Thomas Bagwell family, with ample room throughout for the boys, family room, patio and grill for easy entertaining on the shore of Lake Damon, provided great interest for the guests on the tour. The large kitchen and breakfast area leading into the family room, seemed to be filled with guests during the tour, admiring the all electric unit system, storage space and color scheme. A group of guests on the tour are shown in the kitchen area. The picture fails to show the real beauty and the spaciousness.

'B' Squad Beats Wauchula

Avon Park's "B" squad football team turned the tables on the Wauchula jayvee eleven last Thursday night as they defeated the Hardee County team 20-7, avenging an earlier 21-7 defeat by the junior Wildcats.

The win finished out Avon Park's season with a 3-3-1 record under coaches Larry Pickett and Dewayne Lemler.

Avon Park's offense controlled the ball all but four plays in the first quarter but the junior Devils were unable to score. Then in the second period Avon Park marched 76 yards for its first score. With the exception of a 12-yard pass from quarterback Don Sisemore to Johnny Hamilton, the TD march was on the ground with Steve Hartt, Harvey Jones, Walter Nunnallee, and Sisemore grinding out the yardage. Hartt went over for the touchdown from less than one yard out and then added the extra point with a plunge through the middle.

The Devil "Bees" second touchdown came with less than a minute left in the first half. The Wauchula team had punted to Avon Park's 25-yard line and on the first play from scrimmage, Johnny Hamilton took the ball from Sisemore on an end-around play and zig-zagged through the Wauchula secondary for a 75-yard scoring run. Again Hartt added the point after to give Avon Park a 14-0 halftime lead.

Early in the third quarter the Avon Park offense took over the Hardee 43-yard line after the junior Wildcats passed four times with no completions to set up the next Devil score. Hart and Jones moved the ball to the 32-yard marker and then Sisemore picked up ten around right end on a quarterback option play and then added 17 more yards to the 5-yard line around his left end. Hartt finished out the drive with two carries going in for the TD from about a yard out. Jones' run for the point after failed.

Wauchula dominated the 4th quarter as Pickett sent in his reserves. The baby Wildcats finally scored on a 51-yard drive late in the game with Bo Gibson hauling in a pass that was good for 22 yards and the TD. Another pass to Dennis Wingate was good for the extra point.

Accidents To Increase With Time Change

TALLAHASSEE — Accidents are expected to increase with the change back to Standard Time from Daylight Saving Time the Florida Highway Patrol said today.

Colonel H. N. Kirkman, Director of the Department of Public Safety, said, "The time change together with the reduced number of hours of daylight will substantially increase the percentage of night driving done by most motorists, and the accident rate is higher during the hours of darkness."

Safe driving depends a great deal upon good vision and "seeing habits," according to Kirkman who also pointed out that driver vision is reduced greatly at night when artificial light must be used to illuminate the highway.

"The old slogan 'slowdown at sundown' is still good advice," concluded Kirkman, "and drivers should allow a little extra time for travel after dark."

Lake Letta Mobile Court

We wish to welcome the return of the Edwin Hoehne family and sister Mabel and George Hoehne's. These good folks visited us from Yeman, Ind. and Kalamazoo, Michigan last year. George had lots of fun with Florida gardening and is already in process of getting ahead of Jack Frost. Good luck George.

In fast competition with George Hoehne is Charles Barnes of Osceola, Ind. Now Charles has had a month's head start and I understand the call is out to get your order in for peas.

We are sorry that Mrs. Tiedgen had to be in Highlands General this past week but see her home again and wish her a speedy complete recovery.

Mrs. Scheepers has been on the sick list and hope she is much better.

Mr. John Hunt and family visited Mrs. Blanche Hunt. John is a son living in Miami.

Rene Crocker was a visitor in the Slear home, a guest of daughter Janet.

The court is rapidly taking its winter color and will be even more so as we see varieties of flowers being planted daily by many of the home folks.

New executive director of Florida's Turnpike Authority is Harold W. Stayman, Jr., a former Miami advertising man. He succeeds Jay McGlon who is now State Personnel Director.

Rotary Report

Last Week - Nov. 15

Father Knapp evidently was and actually should have been very proud of his son, Bill, at our Rotary Meeting. Bill presented his story in an expert and professional manner, and all members present listened attentively. He described his visit with over 300 Boy Scouts from all parts of the world in the first International Boy Scout Jamboree in Farragut State Park, Idaho.

It must have been a most unusual experience. There were all types of nationalities represented, and various tongues spoken, though most could speak English. Bill indicated that one of his most pleasant experiences was to make a pal and companion of a boy from another nation. No communist nations were represented, but many wore their native costumes.

Samples of cooking from distant countries were shown, and on Sundays different religions were practiced. Bill expressed surprise at the variation in degrees of temperature from 90 degrees during day to 40 degrees at night. A boy could be sunburned and frostbitten in the same day.

The camp was visited by many celebrities, and Bill's only problem seemed to be the great amount of dust. We are grateful to Bill for a fine talk and for the many fine slides he illustrated with. The many questions asked by his listeners indicated their interest and appreciation.

Avon Park - Sebring Unite To Promote Scholarship Fish Fry

The Sebring Firemen sponsored Fish Fry which will precede the Homecoming football game between the Red Devils and Blue Streaks received a boost last week when several Avon Park organizations joined at promoting the event.

SFJC and athletic director, Dunning Terrell are making an all out effort to have a good turn out from Avon Park. Also the Avon Park Fire Department and some business stores are supporting the event as outlets for ticket sales.

The first $400 will be used to offer two athletic scholarships to deserving student-athletes to attend the local Jr. College.

Deputy Sheriff George Crist who is the "Chef" in charge of food preparations says that fish with all the trimmings will be ready for serving beginning at 4:00 p.m., Wednesday, November 22.

A large staff of the Sebring Firemen will be on hand to serve the expected large crowd at the County Fairgrounds which adjoins the stadium parking lot.

Sebring Fire Chief, Thurmond Haywood stated that tickets are on sale in Sebring at the Fire Station or from any member, however, persons who have not purchased tickets may buy them at the time of the Fish Fry.

Sebring Firemen President, Haywood Taylor, says that he is gratified with the united effort of Sebring and Avon Park in supporting this mutually beneficial project. Coach Terrell is doing a fine job in his athletic program and deserves the support of the entire County.

New Members Inducted Into National Honor Society in Impressive Ceremonies Last Thurs.

Seven new members were inducted into the National Honor Society last Thursday at the Avon Park High School in a very impressive tapping ceremony.

The four objectives in the National Honor Society are character, service, scholarship and leadership. Each new member must have a B grade in every subject or higher the 9 weeks prior to induction and must maintain this grade. They are also screened by a faculty committee.

The theme for the ceremonies "As the Twig is Bent so is the tree inclined," was explained in detail by Harvey Jackson from the South Florida Junior College.

New members Pat Miller, Kenny Dikon, David Woodard, Sue Ayerst, Marsha McDougald, Emily Rowland and Donna Buettel, were each presented with the Keystone and Torch, symbols of the Society.

Bill Knapp is president of the Avon Park Chapter and Ernest Doty is the sponsor.

After the close of the ceremonies a luncheon was held at Griffin's Restaurant for the members and their parents.

Christmas Stamp Went On Sale Monday

The 1967 5-cent Christmas Stamp has gone on sale in Bethlehem, Ga. with a governor, congressman and assistant postmaster general participating in the ceremony.

The new Christmas stamp, sixth in a series, duplicates last year's design but will be nearly twice as large as it becomes the first Christmas stamp to be printed commemorative size.

The stamp reproduces a portion of Hans Memling's "Madonna and Child with Angels," a 15th Century Flemish oil painting not in the National Gallery of Art.

Because the stamp is larger this year, more of the Madonnas blue gown and more of the orange, blue and green tapestry in the background appears in this year's stamp version.

A repeat of the design this year was recommended by Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien's Stamp advisory committee because of the flood of praise for last year's stamp.

Postmaster R. D. Young suggests that you start preparing now a list of correct addresses, including the ZIP Code number of friends and relatives to whom you plan to mail greeting cards and gifts. It is also recommended that patrons use the new 5c Christmas Stamp, prepaying at the first-class rate gives you the privilege of handwritten messages, and the cards may be forwarded or returned if undeliverable.

Over 200 Enjoy Turkey Dinner

The Turkey Dinner sponsored by the Episcopal Church Women of the Church of the Redeemer, was an outstanding success. Over 200 partook of the delicious roast turkey, whipped sweet potatoes, green peas, apple crisp dessert and usual side dishes. It was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Wester was very sorry she had to restrict the ticket sales due to lack of space to seat more. She is planning for a larger attendance next time.

Mrs. Wester and Mrs. Betts thank their committees and helpers for their support in planning the dinner and their wonderful help in the preparation and serving on the day of the dinner. Their cooperation went a long way towards making the dinner the success it was.

The next E.C.W. meeting will be on Wednesday Dec. 13 and will feature a covered dish lunch and the Christmas program.

Address Letters Correctly

Postmaster R. D. Young today urged the citizens of Avon Park to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Postmaster Young reported that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems have been the failure of persons to include the very important 5 digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.

He said that last year more than 9 million pieces of mail were delayed in delivery. Of this number eight and one-half million pieces failed to include the complete 5 digit APO or FPO number in the address. This improperly addressed mail had to be sent to military locator directory where time-consuming searches were made to determine the proper addresses.

"As the Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 per cent over 4 million pounds above last year, every precaution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination," Postmaster Young said.

There are four essential elements to an overseas military address. They are:

1. The serviceman's identity — grade, full name, and service number.
2. His military unit — complete.
3. Gateway post office — New York, San Francisco or Seattle.
4. APO or FPO — a 5 digit number.

When any of these elements is missing, the letter or package will be delayed in delivery.

The Christmas Mail Deadline for Surface mail to servicemen overseas has passed, the deadline was November 11. The Deadline for Space Available Mail (SAM) is October 21 through December 1, and the Deadline for Air Mail is December 1 through December 11.

Health Dept. Warns Against Glass Chillers

The State Board of Health today warned against the misuse of a group of products generally called "glass chillers" which have taken at least seven lives across the country. No fatalities have been reported in Florida.

Dr. Wilson T. Sowder, state health officer, said the chillers are designed to frost cocktail glasses and are sold in pressurized containers under a number of brand names.

He said the U.S. Department of Health, Education and welfare had advised him that misuse of the product has been widespread among teen-agers.

In one case, the spray was released directly into an individual's mouth freezing the larnyx and causing death. HEW said that in the cases involving plastic bags or balloons an individual breathing the contents long enough would suffocate.

The compound was identified as fluorocarbon 12 universally used as a refrigerant and aerosol propellant.

HEW said the following is a partial list of known brands: Kan-O-Frost, Heddy Instant Glass Chill, Chill Master Jr., Chiller Diller, Invento Freeze, Sheffield's Frost-o-Glass, and Instant Icer NT-2.
