Babson Financial Report For This Coming Year

Wellesley Hills, Mass. President Nixon will take over in January in a continuing national and international "state of siege." His major legacy from the outgoing administration will be Vietnam, a military posture toward Russia, inflation, and a dollar that is not yet out of the woods.

War And Peace — Much of the difficulty in which the United States finds itself today, both at home and abroad, can be laid squarely on the doorstep of a terrible error in national policy. The great mistake was the belief that we could fight a war in Southeast Asia and conduct business as usual elsewhere. The result was an immensely unpopular conflict and the setting in motion of a massive military machine. The effects of both tragedies will continue to scourge our people with social discontents and economic inequalities for an untold length of time.

Recession Pockets — Peace will not come in Vietnam like the dropping of a curtain. The cessation of hostilities will not lead to surrender. Hence, the path to peace will be long and at times, seem difficult. But, even though fighting may flare now and then, the consumption of the hardware of death will be considerably less in 1969 than in 1968. This will apply particularly to standard items that are hurried up rapidly during heavy and widespread attack and counterattack. As a result, Babson's Reports looks for a recession in 1969. The recession will be a sharp one, but it will not be as deep as the one in 1968. It will be a "hard line" for the Kremlin throughout the coming year, and the Nixon Administration will be forced to balance many a difficult situation. Most ominous is the possible strengthening of the Soviet position in the Middle East. There it is in direct contact with American and other NATO war ships. Once more, it will be a case of urgent defense needs taking precedence over pressing social demands. The issue of "arms or butter" will persist throughout 1969. Two much attention to either or both could well lead to a price-wage spiral in our economy. The latter threat of a deflationary plunge.

Inflation Still Incubating — 1968 will go down in economic history as the year of the great boom. Early it was recognized that the economy was overheating, that a cooling off was necessary to prevent runaway price boosts and the inevitable aftermath of recession. The government opted for a fiscal "wet blanket" to smother the inflationary fires, and belatedly the surtax on personal and corporate income was enacted, effective mid-1968. But the boom rolled on.

Cost of Living Rises in Highlands County As in Rest of Country

In Highlands County, as in most other sections of the country, the cost of living is considerably higher than it was a few years ago. The Bureau of Labor Statistics, the average local family needed approximately $780 more in 1968 than in 1964 to buy the same "market basket" of goods and services. That is the size of the increase for a family with a net income of $6,036, which was the local average in the past year. Families in the $10,000-per-

Freeze Damage To Highlands Estimated at 15%

Last week's cold spell may have taken as much as 15 to 20 per cent of Highlands County's citrus fruit off the market. That is a rough guess, says Tim Turner, assistant county agent and citrus specialist said Monday. "I do not think it is any more severe than that," said Turner, who said he has not been through the entire county yet. He has checked between Sebring, Lake Placid and Isthokop and Sebring and Avon Park, and most of the damage seemed to be in the southwest portion of the county. West of the ridge, the cold seemed to come from the northwest. Most of the high ground areas do not show much damage at all. The grapes that showed the most damage, he said, are unprotected, with no heating or wind machines and are in low ground areas. The fruit damage was primarily to young, tender leaves which had not hardened up. This will not affect this year's crop, but above 25 per cent defoliation can reduce fruit which matures in 1969, he said. In some areas there has been up to 50 per cent fruit damage—"on the West side of the ridge, with fruit falling on the ground or beginning to dry up."

In some of the higher areas, he said, there is no damage to either fruit or tree. "I have seen no trees killed," he said. "There is some frost damage where leaves have dropped. Most of the young trees have been barked and this protects them from freezing." Highlands County by no means had it the best of the state, although it is southerly. "We had some colder temperatures here than on the West coast," he said. "The Gulf tends to warm it some in those areas."

Highlands County Fair To Open One Week Earlier, January 13

Activity to prepare booths and exhibits was accelerating to a fast tempo this week as the Highlands County Fair date of January 13 loomed just two and one half weeks away. As announced previously, contestants for the title of Miss Highlands County will appear both Monday and Friday nights of the Fair. The dress revue is scheduled for Tuesday night. Easter Set For Completion Of Juvenile Home

The county's new juvenile home should be completed by Easter, announced contractor James Graham and Tom Jones, chairman of the building committee, to the Board of Trustees of Youth Care, Inc., at Avon Park, Tuesday. Howard Jones' Restaurant, Mrs. S. A. King of Avon Park was announced as the newest member of the Board. Juvenile Judge Mervin Rehner announced that he was holding up quite well with his new duties. The Judge must check the personnel each day in and out after months and months of struggling for the volunteer labor to complete the home. Judge Rehner obtained the help of the men from AFCL in Avon Park. The rest is now being laid.

Judge Mervin Rehner got considerably more than he bargained for when he agreed to "oversee" help from Avon Park Correctional Institution doing construction work on the new juvenile home. He has been there at 8 A.M. when his office usually is not open until 9:30. He has been there at noon when he should be at the group or place for lunch. Ladies groups from different churches are taking turns feeding them, and he has been there at 4 P.M. when they depart. "They're doing a great job," he declared. The six prisoners from Avon Park Correctional Institution who have been putting out such hard work on the new juvenile home got a "thank you" from one of the folks interested in the home — Virginia Rehman, and Annette Redwine and Jan Holcomb of her office who took polaroid pictures of the men. They gave them to the men to send to their families for Christmas.

Marva Lea Taylor of Broken Bow, Neb., age 25, died three hours after the fatal accident on Highway 27
near Lake Isle, at 7:30
Sunday evening, Dec. 22.

Her lady companion, driver of the car and the two back seat riders were taken to Walker Memorial Hospital and later released after examination.

ED RECK who is a member of the Avon Park
Chapter Future Farmers of America is shown with his Brangus steer which he purchased in June. This calf has shown an excellent daily gain.
Ed has raised a steer for the past two years as part of his supervised farming program. We have high hopes that Ed's steer will show well at the Highlands County Fair this year and increase our Chapter's chances for having a Grand Champion entry.

Public Cooperation With Post Office Helped Speed Mail Delivery

Postmaster Bob Young and his employees expressed their thanks to the public today.

We couldn't have done the job alone, the postmaster said.

Everyone cooperated beautifully and we were able to deliver all the holiday mail reaching the Avon Park Post Office in time for the last delivery and postal employees were able to spend Christmas with their families, the postal official said.

If people had waited for the last minute to mail their gifts and greetings we would have been working throughout the holiday, he said.

No backlogs were noted in post offices throughout the area.

Shuffling

The courts on the two days after Christmas will be a very busy place. A District "B" Tournament will be held here in Avon Park at that time, with people here from all over the Central District.

Seventy holes lined up for the "A" tournament on Wednesday. Point winners were Ralph Wernham and Edith Long in the Main with Art Reinhardt and Ross Stewart the runners-up. Hazel Higgs and Andy Clarke were consolation winners over Everett Paxton and Kellie Larrea.

In the "B" tournament on Wednesday thirty-six were in line-up. Francis McEneaney and Art Jordan won in the main with Edith Stevens and Leonard Warner the runners-up. Consolation winners were Estelle Swayers and Harold Wucott over Martha McEneaney and Barlette Howard.

Winners on Saturday with no points involved were Kate McAlexander and George Foster over Alva Thompson and Harmon Bettner. Henry Retter and George White won in consolation over Art Reinhardt and Tony Kerr.

"B" winners were Steve Brown and Alvin Howard over John Krichbaum and Helen Smith. Consolation winners were Leslie Hordt and Bill Fropg over William Neer and Gladys Warner.

Entertainment

Thursday evening was given over to Santa Claus, and his proclamation of "Peace on Earth and Good Will Toward Men." His huge bag contained gifts of candy canes for all 150 guests.

The Shufflers sang several carols, led by Mildred Long.

As in the olden days when we were young and all gave recitations of the Christmas Program, Kent Debo gave a recitation about the little boy, "Just before Christmas I'm as good as I can be."

After the gift exchange the program ended by all singing carols.

Christmas decorations occupied the ladies time this past Thursday at the Craft class. Among the various items were the making of tiny monkeys from Australian pine cones and pipe cleaners, and corsages from the cones. There will be no class on Dec. 29th, but on Jan. 2 the usual class will be held.

Cards Games

On Monday top scoring was done by Juanita Carr in Pinochle. Here score was 794, and Susan Kerr came in a close second with 791. Six tables were in play.

"Every motorist who stays out from behind the wheel when he's impaired by alcohol may be giving others the biggest holiday gift of all—their lives."

Dr. J. Dillard Workman, Director of the Highlands County Health Department said today.

The Bible Speaks To You On Radio

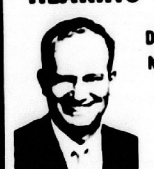

Have you ever felt you wouldn't be missed if you vanished from the face of the earth? But the Bible states that even the sparrows are not forgotten by God, and that man is of much greater worth. Listen Sunday December 29, 9:00 A.M. WJCM to "Meeting the Challenge of Loneliness."

Cadettes No. 117 Hold Party After Sing

Cadette Troop No. 117 held a party for those who participated in the Christmas sing on the Mall Friday evening.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home News

Our Christmas Party which was held on Friday, December 26th at 5:30 P.M. was a huge success. I thank you a great deal for the many gifts which were given to the committee. All places were set, but due to illness of the last moment I was unable to attend.

The tables, which had been covered and carved by the committee, were divided equally on each table. Having such a crowd of people from different parts of the country gave us a grand selection of vegetables, meats and desserts.

There are certainly a grand group of people at Bonnie Brae. The committee is the committee to Bonnie Brae. During the interval between dinner and dessert, the women of the committee by hand gave out the Christmas gifts to the residents of the park.

The committee, after the dinner, presented the Christmas gifts to the residents of the park. The committee, after the dinner, presented the Christmas gifts to the residents of the park.
