JOE D. KEENE Qualifies for Sheriff

Joe D. Keene made it official by qualifying on March 19th to be a candidate on the democratic ticket for the May 17th primary for Sheriff of Highlands County.

Keene, who is 39 years of age said, "I have the energy, experience, a wide knowledge of the County and its people, as well as a desire to serve my County."

"I have served my country in the U.S. Army, where I was assigned as a criminal investigator for the Provost Marshal. I have completed courses in and served as an instructor in riot control course with the U.S. Western University."

"With 13 years of active duty as a law enforcement officer with the Florida Highway Patrol, I feel I am qualified to supervise the sheriff's department and have it run as an efficient and workable law enforcement agency."

Sgt. Keene's resignation from the PHP became effective December 31. The 39-year old trooper served in Hillsborough, Polk, Hardee and DeSoto Areas for the past several years.

In a letter from Capt. Jake Nauertman, PHP to Col. H. N. Kirtland, State Director of the PHP, he declared Keene "has performed every task given to him willingly and efficiently. I consider him one of the best supervisors that I have ever had the pleasure of associating and working with and it is with much regret that I accept his resignation."

Joe has also served the people of Highlands County by giving freely of his time, experience and energy as a conscientious worker in many civic projects. He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Sebring, Maunula Lodge (past master), Kiwanis, Jaycees, Citizens' Association, Farm Bureau, Lake Placid Riding Club, Florida Sheriff's Boys' Ranch, and Florida Peace Officers Association.

Rotary Report

Reported By George Walper

Editor: Boards, director of advertising, promotion and market research at Ben Hill Griffin Inc., Fort Pierce, spoke to us about his experiences as a veteran newspaperman and correspondent during the Cuban Revolution. He was introduced by co-worker John Giddens, Jr. Boards detailed how he flew into Cuba at night, secured the Castro rebels in the hills and traveled across the island nation with Castro and an armed column of 2,000 men.

He discussed "How We Got into Cuba" during the transition of government from the ousted Batista regime to the Castro rebels. Boards said it appeared that American policy toward Cuba during this critical time was based on misinformation, lack of information and had the U. S. State Department been well-informed, Cuba probably could have been saved from Communist domination.

The American ambassador to Cuba at the time was openly hostile to the Castros and told to newsmen who tried to successfully bring the diplomats of the two nations together when it appeared that there was some hope of cultivating friendship with the Castro regime.

Realtors See Danger In Open Housing

Dangers of the forced housing bill passed by the Senate and its diffusion with the voters throughout the nation must be emphasized, Ted J. Ward, president of the Avon Park Area Board of Realtors, declared today in calling on all citizens to join in a nationwide campaign to gain defeat of the legislation in the House of Representatives.

Basically, the bill forces the home seller, who insists on his traditional freedom of choice in contracting for the sale or rental of his property to whom ever he chooses, the use of the professional help he needs from a broker to get the best possible price in the quickest possible time," he explained.

Obviously the bill excludes the home owner of a single-family house from the provisions of the legislation, permitting him to continue to decide without governmental coercion to whom he will sell or rent, or not sell or rent, his personal property. But after December 31, 1969, this right is drastically curtailed and the government can force an unwilling owner to dispose of the house to someone not of his choice if he uses the facilities of any real estate broker or salesman, or on his own, he indicates in an advertisement a preference on the basis of race, religion, color or national origin," Mr. Ward added.

A complainant may appeal for pressure by the Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, or may bring suit in federal court which may award punitive damages against the owner up to $1,000 and court costs.

The Realtors of Florida are joining with thousands of other members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards throughout the nation in pointing out the threat of this tricky bill and urging all citizens to contact their Congressmen to vote against the legislation which will not only set back race relations but strip owners of professional aid in the largest and most complicated transaction in the lives of most of them.

Even the most ardent supporters of the bill in the Senate had misgivings about their action as evidenced by the words of Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., floor manager who admitted, "There was no great groundswell of influential support for 'fair' housing."

What we passed today is not going to bring unblemished political advantage to anyone who voted for or worked for it. For some the advantage will be marginal at best, for others the tally might even be negative.

His analysis was seconded by a number of noted columnists, one of whom predicted that "open housing" may become a major issue in the national campaign this Fall since it affects directly more voters than many other questions. Mr. Ward added. In fact, this columnist flatly predicted that voting in favor of this onerous bill could cause the defeat of some Republicans and Democrats, the board president said.

Only a comparatively few voters were raised for maintaining the basic and traditional rights of all Americans, Mr. Ward said. Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D., Ohio, although he eventually voted for the bill, was one of those who raised a selling point so often overlooked. During the debate, he declared, "Much has been said about the bill of the seller, who has thrilledly accumulated enough money to buy a home. It is his home. He has labored for it. And the government tells him: 'We are going to direct and control you in how you may dispose of what you have earned through thrift and labor.'"

The Avon Park Area Board of Realtors predicts that if the House concurs with the Senate and interprets the private lives and transactions of its citizens, the voters will mark well those guilty of the deed and act accordingly. Every referendum, except one, in which the citizens have had an opportunity to vote directly on the question of forced housing has rejected it, most of them by resounding totals," Mr. Ward declared.

Mr. Crane Will Be Presented April 6-8

Under the direction of Ernest Dohy, his art students have made 184 most artistic posters for the musical comedy, "Mr. Crane," to be presented in the Avon Park High School auditorium, April 6 and 8. The posters are made by a silk-screen process in black, red and white, with silhouette comic figures making a striking effect. These posters are to be distributed in the Avon Park Schooling and Wausau area. One huge poster will be put up near the Avon Park High School.

Rickie Green and Gerald Walker, senior students, will be in charge of distribution of tickets but all seniors and juniors will make advance ticket sales.

The souvenir booklet design made by Mr. Dohy is in the hands of the printer but there is still time to have a donor's name placed on the pattern page. In order to be a patron one must send Mr. Dohy $2 or more. This is a nice gesture to show interest in this fine production.

Tickets will be sold at the door starting at 7 P.M. Saturday, April 6, and Monday, April 8. A baby-sitting service is being provided by the Picture Housemakers under the direction of Mrs. Moseley and Miss Criner.

The entire production is being rehearsed under the direction of Mr. Dohy. Mr. Dohy is majoring in public relations at the University of Florida. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Order. The wedding is set for June 8 at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church in Tampa.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fies for the birth of a new granddaughter, born on March 22 to their son David and his wife of Pattersonville, N. J.

We are still wishing the very best of health to Frank Fisher, who is at Walker Memorial Hospital and Mrs. Lillian Gibb is still in our thoughts and prayers.

The list of neighborhood neighbors is getting longer as we say "no more" and "hope you have a pleasant summer—come back next fall, a little sooner." These are Mr. and Mrs. Mahon Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Byer, Mr. and Mrs. John Dees, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fero and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reynolds. We will be missing all of you.

May our able glee club leader, Mrs. Raymond Fies, recuperate from her bout with the flu speedily with no ill effects. We missed her last Saturday evening at the farewell party for those guests who are leaving.

There was group singing under the leadership of Mahon Boyd. Mr. Harold Wolcott playing the piano and a few jokes rendered. Following the singing, Lawrence Robinson reported on the Federated Mobile Home Owners Convention. It was held at the Jack Tar Harrison Hotel in St. Petersburg on March 21, and 22, with about 164 delegates attending. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Osa Myers and Mrs. Evelyn Board consisting of punch and cookies made by various ladies of our group.

A "joyous time" was presented to the ladies by the Red Sox. The Black team won our winter softball tournament held each Monday morning throughout the season. Trophies were presented to first place winner Edith Stevens, of the Blacks and Mildred Long of the Reds. Runners-up were Edith Stevens of the Blacks and Ella Rhoadsberg of the Reds. The trophies were purchased by chairman, Mabel Crocker and Hazel Thompson for the first place and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Halfpenny presented the trophies to the runners-up. Many thanks to them from the winners, and also appreciation to the Red team for a delicious luncheon.

John Ruskin said it . . .

It is unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. When you pay too much, you lose a little money -- that is all. When you pay too little, you sometimes lose everything because the thing you bought was incapable of doing the thing it was bought to do. The common law of business balance prohibits paying a little and getting a lot -- it can't be done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to add something for the risk you run, and if you do that you will have enough to pay for something better.

Crafts
The ladies on Thursday were busy making new beds from shells and also little shell animals. Jewelry making was also on the agenda. Evelyn Rouget was teaching the new making and had charge of the animal making.

Dances
The dances on Monday and Friday continue to be fun nights with the round and square dancing. There were three squares on Monday and five on Friday. On Monday night, new badges were given to the folks who have attended the class in learning the new dances.

Supper
The friendliness at the Saturday evening supper was outstanding. Sixty-one people enjoyed the well balanced meal. Fern Haas returned thanks. Again New York led with 22, followed by Michigan with seven and Indiana six.

Cliff Seibert brought his recorder, so the group enjoyed the soft relaxing music while they ate. Harry Gibson, the club's new president, was given recognition. We hope he will have a most successful year in his new office.

The group sang Happy Birthday to Jim Higgins.

Bud Hawkins told a funny kitchen story and Arthur Poling came up with a sequence about kittens. George Loomis closed the act with an impromptu joke.

More on the serious side, Earl Maxwell reminded us of the many advantages we have as Senior Citizens in 1968. He gave our thanks to the governing body of Avon Park for the efforts it has made and is still making for the place, equipment and opportunity for us to enjoy our leisure.

Belle McDaniel, her sister Bertha Poe and Mary Armstrong were reported in Walker Memorial Hospital. They were in a car accident last Tuesday. Supper
A certain party from Western New York made a hurried departure recently. They thought that no one knew why they left so hurriedly, but from the grapevine it was learned he is very much concerned about the election coming up.

He wanted to get his political machine oiled up and thrown into high gear for his reelection as mayor of that prominent community. Good luck to you, Mayor.

The Library Corner

A Key to Many Doors is written by Enid B. Lanning who is the author of many suspense-romantic novels. This one proves especially delightful due to the elaborate plot and explosive climax.

Peter Gerard, a handsome, very rich young man—might have been eligible to be a playboy. Instead he has his first appointment in the field of diplomacy and is expected to have a brilliant career. Peter is very much in love; anticipates being married the next day. Cynthia Barber, his beautiful blonde fiancée is more enamored with Peter's career and wealth.

The story opens when Peter is informed that the diplomatic appointment will have to be postponed. The government is sending him back to his home town, Simonton, Conn. It has been discovered that a plot against the government is being carried out in this small isolated, complacent New England village. It is so secret that he cannot even tell Cynthia why their plans have been changed. Cynthia showing her real self refuses to cooperate or even to marry him. She tells him that he is so deeply in love with her that he'll come crawling back.

Profoundly hurt Peter says he'll never come to her but "will marry the first girl he meets." After Cynthia stalks away, Nancy Jones, a lovely but lonely girl sitting nearby, asks Peter if he means it. If he does, will he marry her? The results are daring, astonishing, and very fast moving.

SACRIFICE SALE
TO SETTLE ESTATE

Avoid unnecessary sacrifice and hardship PLAN AHEAD NOW

Your executor will need cash to pay estate taxes, debts and expenses.
If cash is not readily available assets may have to be sold.

Careful estate planning can reduce the need for large amounts of cash and provide the cash needed without sacrifice or loss.

This would mean a forced sale, possibly at a loss sacrificing the control of a family grove or ranch, parting with choice family assets or creating hardships for those you wish to protect.

Our trust officer together with your attorney will welcome an opportunity to help you develop a sound financial plan for your estate.
