Thanksgiving Community Services

Community Thanksgiving services will be held at the First United Methodist Church, Thursday, Nov. 28 at 9 A.M. sponsored by the Avon Park Ministerial Association. This service will be held from 9 till 10 to enable people to return home early for their Thanksgiving dinner.

Preacher for the day will be Rev. Marshall Wilson, minister of the First Presbyterian Church, who will use for his topic, "Thanksgiving 1968."

The service is under the direction of Rev. Clifton Danner, president of the association and minister of the First Christian Church.

The special Thanksgiving ofering will be used to enable the ministerial association to send underprivileged young people to a Christian summer camp and also to help the association to provide meals for transients and aid for other unfortunate folk.

Reserve Seat Tickets For Sebring On Sale

Avon Park athletic director Joe Frantz announced that reserve seat tickets for Sebring fans will go on sale today at $1 per ticket in the North stands at Memorial Stadium for the homecoming game between the Red Devils and the Blue Stripes next Wednesday night. There will be 300 seats reserved between the 45-yard lines in the North stands and tickets will be on sale in Sebring and here in Avon Park. The two schools divide the profits from the reserved seat sale. Kick-off time is slated for 8:30 P.M. but pregame ceremonies will start earlier.

Church of God Has New Minister

Rev. Alex Day, new pastor of the Church of God on N. Florida Ave., is now established in the parsonage and preached his first sermon on October 20.

He and his wife, Juanita are the parents of three daughters, Alexis, (Gayle) and Annmarie and one son, Paul, all at home. Gayle is married to Donald Linkous and lives in Bedford, Va.

Rev. Day came to Avon Park from Fair View Shores Church of God in Orlando, which he served for one and one half years. He exchanged pulpits with the former minister, Rev. Thomas B. Sleeps.

He was born and raised in West Virginia, where he was ordained and filled a pulpit for 17 years.

The Church of God annex was the scene of a buffet ham supper Saturday evening, given by the new minister, his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Alex Day, to become better acquainted with Sunday School teachers and of friends.

An arrangement of mixed flowers overflowing from a large horn-of-plenty onto a table overlaid with a white cloth was used in decorating the dining hall. The dining table was covered with a lace cloth and individual place mats were used.

Guest speaker Rev. D. I. Phillips, district overseer, pastor of the Frostdrop Church of God, was seated at a table with Rev. Day and Gene Floyd Gilliland, Sunday School superintendent. Approximately 25 people attended the supper.

AVON PARK CITY POLICE plan to get tough with motorists who have been ignoring the school zone speed limits. Speed limit is 15 miles per hour and Chief Earl Gordon said ignorance of the law is no excuse and violators will be given tickets hereafter.

Payrolls In County Increase $2 Million Since 1965

According to data just released by the government, the number of business establishments in operation in Highlands County is at a high level.

In proportion to population, there are more of them flourishing in the local area than in many other sections of the county.

The facts and figures are contained in a report, issued by the Census Bureau, covering every county in the United States. It provides information on the number of people employed in each community, on their distribution by industries and on the size of local payrolls.

It is based upon tax reports that were submitted by employers to the Social Security Administration, relative to last year's operations.

Listed in Highlands County are a total of 94 business firms that employ one or more persons.

Of this number, 327 have three employees or less, 86 have from four to seven employees and 37 have eight to 19. The rest are larger.

The figures show that moderate-size enterprises predominate in the local area, as is the case generally throughout the country, and that they are able to operate successfully despite the competition of big business.

Approximately 94 per cent of the total businesses have fewer than 20 employees each.

Elsewhere in the United States, there are 86 per cent in this category. In the State of Florida, there are 90 per cent.

As to the amount of employment provided by local business firms—small, medium and large—the report shows a total of 3,350 people on their payrolls in jobs covered under social security.

Those not taken into account are farm workers, government employees, self-employed persons and domestic workers, in the main.

The employment ratio in the local area has been above average in the last few years but, even more pronounced, has been the increase in the size of payrolls.

Taxable payrolls subject to social security have climbed from $11,300,000 in 1965, when a similar survey was made, to the current total of $13,260,000. It was an increase of approximately 17 per cent.

New Way of Receiving Bids Will Save County Expenses

Highlands County commissioners are confident that a new way of receiving bids for heavy machinery will reduce long-term cost to the county. At Tuesday's meeting the board awarded a bid for a new Caterpillar bulldozer to Rizer Machinery Company on a total cost bid of $31,500.

County Engineer Charles Morgan explained that a "total cost" bid includes a guaranteed trade-in price at the end of five years, a guarantee for both parts and labor for five years or 100,000 hours of operation. Taking all these items into consideration reduced the cost of the new machine to $20,500, Morgan said.

At Tuesday's meeting the commissioners also awarded a bid for a used scraper to Roizer on a net bid of $13,100.

Highlands Land and Title Company won the bid on two used pieces of equipment—$3,450 for a Caterpillar and $12,150 for a grader. The commission-

4-Laning Hwy. 27 May Have A Delayed Action On Constitution

The financial consequences of Florida's new constitution may have a delayed action in Highlands County because of the bond program for the four-laning project.

Taken at face value the new construction could pave the way for a redistribution of state funds and cost Highlands County approximately $400,000 per year. But the county commissioners, with the cooperation of the State Road Department had worked out a plan for using major chunks of this county's share of gasoline taxes for the four-laning project.

The SRD marketed $4 million in bonds and this money is already being used in the work now being done on 27. These bonds extend over a 25-year period and could delay some of the cuts in road funds now anticipated for the smaller counties.

In a special work session this week, the Highlands commissioners began planning for the next session of the Legislature, assessing possible consequences of re-arrangement of state monies.

Invitations are being extended to the legislative delegation from this area to meet with the commissioners. "They are in a bind," Commissioner J. E. Whitaker observed. "They all have to represent larger counties as well as us, and it will take a lot of time for the Representatives to work for the best interests of us all."

Postmaster Urges Shop And Mail Early

Postmaster R. D. Young urged Avon Park residents to start their Christmas shopping and mailing now. A check of your calendar will show that in 1967 Thanksgiving Day fell on November 23. This year it comes on November 28, which actually means that if you have waited until Thanksgiving to begin your Christmas buying and mailing you are five days late this year.

"After December 1st the Post Office will be hard pressed to handle the tremendous volume of Christmas mail expected," he said. He noted that selections are better early in the season, shopping is more enjoyable, and one can be assured that his mail will be delivered before Christmas.

"Literally billions of pieces of mail will be delivered between now and Christmas. If everyone were to wait until the last week to mail their gifts and greetings, postal facilities would be severely overloaded," he said.

"More important, special greetings would not be delivered on time. Public cooperation is the key to fast and on-time delivery at this time of the year."

He asked citizens to purchase and mail gifts as soon as possible and to mail them with ZIP Codes. Postmaster Young also encouraged all persons receiving mail to make a special effort this year to update mailing lists by recording the ZIP Codes in return addresses of incoming mail.

Rotary Official Visits Avon Park

Rotarians welcomed Wednesday the governor of this Rotary district, L. B. Anderson, Jr., of Winter Haven.

He addressed the Rotary Club of Avon Park, one of 65 in his district, and conferred with Father John L. Knapp, president of the local Rotary Club, and with other club officials to obtain information on the group's plans for its service activities and to offer suggestions on Rotary administrative matters.

Mr. Anderson is one of 288 Rotary governors in all parts of the world who are serving as representatives of Rotary International in districts composed of member clubs. Each district leader is responsible for supervising the clubs in his area. Rotary, an international men's service organization has more than 600,000 members in some 12,300 clubs in 143 countries.

Red Devils Meet Lake Placid Friday; Prepare For Sebring

The Avon Park Red Devils will take on the two Highlands County football teams in the next six days, meeting the Lake Placid Green Dragons tomorrow night, Friday, and then hosting the Sebring Blue Stripes next Wednesday night in the big Thanksgiving eve homecoming game. Both games will be played here at Memorial Stadium.

The Devils romped over the Okeechobee Brahmins 49-7 for their second win of the season last Friday night here at Memorial Field before a slim crowd of loyal Devil and Brahmin fans. The big win set the stage for the first meeting of the varsity football teams of Avon Park and Lake Placid. The fast-growing Lake Placid school has tied a team which has set an 8-1 record this season and feels it is ready to take on the Red Devils on the gridiron.

The Placid Green Dragons have ruled up fantastic scores against eight of their opponents. The Dragons opened the season with a 43-0 shutout of Sanford. Then, blanketed Okeechobee 55-0. Ava scored a one-touchdown on the Dragons before losing 19-0 and Temple Heights fell by a score of over 40-0.

Then, immediately broke the win streak by taking a hard-fought 12-0 win but the Dragons have won the last four games—34-12 over Moore Haven, 41-6 over Ft. Pierce John Carroll, 40-0 over Jaffee and 24-0 over Frostproof and over the Lake Placid defense has given up only six touchdowns in the nine games. The Devils are averaging over 40 points per game.

Avon Park on the other hand has managed only a 2-4 record, winning its last two games. The only comparative score in the two Highlands County teams this season is the Okeechobee game. Lake Placid beat the Brahmins early in the season 35-0 while the Red Devils scored a 40-7 victory just last week.

The Red Devils took advantage of three Okeechobee fumble recoveries and one intercepted pass to score seven touchdowns and seven extra points last week in the 40-7 win over the high-scoring Brahmins. On the opening kickoff a Brahmin fumble the ball was returned to the Okeechobee 25 and Devin Tim Braxwell fell on it to set up Avon Park's first quick score.

From the 25, Billy Richards scooted eight yards. Neil Caswell picked up two more, and then Willie Joe Seigler, playing his best offensive game of the season, put the ball on the Brahmin one foot line with a 14-yard burst. Richards powered over the middle for the TD and Don Sisemore booted the first of six consecutive extra points to give Avon Park a 7-0 lead with only minutes used up in the game.

The Brahmins charged right back on the following kickoff however and trampled through the Red Devils 71 yards on a drive that climaxed with full-back Bill Ford crashing through the middle from a yard out for the TD. Ford also ran the point after to tie things up 7-7.

That was the last time the Okeechobee team was even close, however, as Devil Curtis Hulen gathered in the ensuing kickoff on his own 30-yard line and ran the 70 yards for another Avon Park score. Again Sisemore's left-footed soccer style kick for the PAT was good.

Three plays later, Avon Park's senior defensive halfback Gene Landress intercepted a Brahmin pass to give the Devils possession on the Okeechobee 48-yard line. This time it took the Avon Park offense seven plays to score with Seigler's 25 yard gain to the 18 highlighting the drive.

Again it was fullback Billy Richards who took the ball into the end zone for the score slicing off right tackle from less than a yard out. The score came just at the beginning of the second quarter and Sisemore booted the extra point right through the uprights, putting Avon Park ahead 21-7.

Three fumble recoveries set up the next Avon Park score. The Devils kicked off short but Billy Richards recovered a Brahmin fumble on the first play from scrimmage at the Okeechobee 45 yard line. Then after Caswell had moved the ball to the Brahmin 30 a Devil fumble was recovered by Okeechobee at the 35.

Two plays later the Devil line charged in on the Brahman quarterback causing him to fumble. Ed Reck picked the ball up and moved it to the 22-yard line before he was brought down. From that point, Seigler skirted right end and beat the Okeechobee secondary into the end zone for another six points. Sisemore booted the point after to give Avon Park the 29-7 half-time lead.

The Brahmins drove all the way to the Avon Park one yard line before losing the ball on downs just before the half ended.

In the third period both teams were forced to punt after unsuccessful attempts to move the ball, but then Avon Park put together a 43 yard scoring effort which included the only completed pass the Devils threw all evening—a 13 yard advance from Sisemore to Hulen. Seigler burst through off right tackle for the last five yards and the TD and again Sisemore's extra point kick was good.

Okeechobee went to the air on the following drive and moved quickly to the Avon Park four yard line. The Red Devil line, however, held the drive on the four and then the offense took over and marched 96 yards on the ground for another TD. Billy Richards went in for the 25 yard touchdown and Seigler's third TD of the evening from Ground-breaking was handled by 12 representatives of the student body, faculty, school boards, board of trustees and high schools in the three counties.

Rex Bond, chairman of the board of trustees introduced the guests which included state, city and county officials.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco- topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER

Editor, Information Services

More than five percent of all workers in the United States—that's three million of em—now suffer from alcoholism.

This number compares with two million workers in five years ago who were alcoholics, meaning the number has increased 50% in just half a decade.

Putting it in terms of long green, one job per alcoholic now costs industry four billion dollars each year—up 100% from the two billion per year cost just five years ago.

We've said to hearing about "bullies" these days whenever reference is made to the national debt that we're prone to forget how much a billion is. Well, if an individual spent a dollar a minute about the time Christ was born and he had a billion dollars to spend, he'd just now be running out of cash.

On the job, alcoholism costs industry four times this amount every year! That figures out at $16 million per day.

The four-billion dollar figure covers absenteeism, tardiness, sick leave, other fringe benefits, wasted time, other forms of inefficiency, accidents, wasted material, and the loss of trained man-power.

Absenteeism rate for alcoholics is three times as great as for the non-alcoholic worker with the typical alcoholic worker losing a full month of working days each year.

Out of every 20 top corporation executives, one may be alcoholic. Considering today's executive pay scales, the cost of the loss in executive time is beyond calculation.

Most alcoholic employees in the United States today are between the ages of 35 and 45 and those, of course, are the most productive years for most people.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program is extremely interested in helping business and industry see the dire need of instituting programs to help their alcoholic employees. To date, this is still a neglected area in the majority of business and industrial concerns.

A recent article in the Miami Herald stated that nationwide, fewer than half a million alcoholics have been reached with any kind of help in the past 25 years by the companies with which they were employed.

Refusing to face the need for alcoholic rehabilitation programs for their workers is a costly mistake for American business and industry, because the concerns which have gone ahead and pioneered in this field have been well repaid. In some cases, companies with special programs for alcoholic workers report rehabilitation rates up to 75%.

More information on industrial alcoholism is available free of charge by merely writing FAMP's Information Service, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla. 32825.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Who Has Right To Break Law?

Who can remember clear back to the time when all school teachers, college professors, and ministers were united behind the principle that laws should be obeyed by all the people?

Now we have the unprecedented situation—unprecedented in this country, at least—that schools have been closed because of teachers' striking in defiance of a state law in New York; a college has been shut down because of violent protests by students, supported by some faculty members in California; and a member of Congress feels that it has become necessary for him to say, "When a church states that rioters should not be condemned, we face a cultural security problem."

When, in all our history, has there been a comparable breakdown in respect for the law?

Unsafe to Go to Church?
In Washington, D. C., a church has announced that it is considering moving from its present location because of the hazards faced by its members in attending services.

Break Some Laws?
But when a man states that it is all right to break some laws, of which he does not approve, isn't it obvious that another man may prefer to break other laws, which he considers inconvenient or undesirable?

The Bible says, "Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake." As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as the servants of God—

In his syndicated column, David Lawrence asked, some time ago, "Will churchmen in America have to be armed in order to defend themselves as they go to and from places of worship?"

This may have been necessary in the days of the early settlers of the country, when marauding Indians could be expected to attack a party of colonists going to or from church, but surely it is not so now.

Let us all stand where the Bible stands on law enforcement—and the land will be safe for law-abiding citizens.

Where do you stand?

When members of the church have been attacked, near the church building, one was beaten and had her purse snatched from her as she was about to enter the building.

Chairs have been stolen from the church and windows have been broken.

Where do this church located? On Capitol Hill, not far from the place where the U. S. Congress meets.

Remembering that some clergymen have been willing to "sneak rioting and other misdeeds" in certain cases, one might be tempted to say that "chickens have come home to roost." But there is no indication that the pastor of this church was engaged in any such loose interpretation of rights and wrongs.

In fact, it is doubtful that any clergymen would approve of the kind of behavior which some of the residents of the area have engaged in.

Break Some Laws? But when a man states that it is all right to break some laws, of which he does not

BABSON'S

POINT OF VIEW

The Nixon Presidency

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Nov. 21. Past performance—especially during the recent campaign—indicates that President-elect Nixon will be a strong executive in the sense that he will reserve to himself the big policy decisions.

Delegating the routine, administrative duties of his office.

Units His Goal
Nixon's pre-election stance was meticulously planned. He knew the difficulty of toppling the Democratic candidate in the East, especially in the populous cities. Hence he set out to win the Southern conservatives, the basically Republican Midwest, and the disenchanted middle-of-the-road and liberals in the Far West.

But this pre-election stance should not be interpreted to mean that the President-elect is unaware of, or unsympathetic to, the needs of minorities, the plight of the cities, or the legitimate aspirations of the nation's youth. The Nixon campaign posture of modesty and pose, of some aloofness from certain of the problems facing the country, was intended to be a vehicle for victory—nothing more or less.

Even had Mr. Nixon's margin of the popular vote not been so razor-thin, national unity would still have been his primary goal. The hope he will actually achieve will depend in large measure on his approach to the problems of our deeply fragmented society. We may expect that approach to be reasoned and calculated. It will also have to be swift if—as he certainly aims to do—he is to take full advantage of the traditional "honeymoon" which Congress awards new Presidents.

Vietnam: Conciliation But No Softness
While Mr. Nixon is usually considered to be more "hawkish" on Vietnam than Vice President Humphrey, he is fully as eager as they to bring the conflict to an honorable conclusion—and one which will preserve the integrity and right of self-determination of South Vietnam.

If the war is not soon ended, look for Nixon, as President, to be a hard bargainer vis-a-vis the North Vietnamese and the Viet Cong.

Should the Paris talks collapse because of bad faith on Hanoi's part, Nixon would feel justified in ordering resumption of the bombing of North Vietnam. In such event, however, he would allocate training and equipping of South Vietnam troops to permit alert and increasing withdrawal of American personnel.

The Dollar and Foreign Affairs
As Chief Executive, Nixon will strongly favor measures to strengthen the dollar as a world currency, realizing that sound, conservative fiscal policy will do more than continued prodigal spending to bind the nation's wounds. He will also favor some further cutbacks in foreign aid, and will urge upon Congress some protection for industries hard hit by cheap imports.

But, as he enters the White House the fires of inflation will still be burning brightly; a thousand-and-one special interests will be clamoring for increased, not decreased, federal spending; and the states, while giving lip service to states' rights, will step up their demands upon Uncle Sam.

The Urban Crisis
The new occupant of the White House must also come to terms with the gathering urban crisis if he is to achieve the type of national unity that he will need to govern effectively. Racial tensions, economic deprivation, educational deficiencies, chronic unemployment, disorder, lawlessness, and voter apathy—all are part and parcel of this festering sore termed "urban crisis."

Nixon's prescription for these ills will not be higher federal programs. He has already indicated he will take a hard look at federal programs with the idea of making them more efficient and less costly. His big assault will be an all-out effort toward greater involvement of the private sector of the economy in the financing of badly needed big-city development.

Baptist Boys Compete In Football

The Pioneer Royal Ambassador Chapter of the First Baptist Church and Fellowship Baptist Church were engaged last Saturday morning in a "rag-tag" football game on Memorial Field. The teams played four 15-minute quarters. The First Baptist Church team defeated the Fellowship Baptist Church team 13-0 in a hard fought game. This was the second game between the two teams and each team now stands 1-1.

Wally Pierce made both touchdowns but he had excellent blocking from all his teammates.

Boys participating in this event were: First Baptist Church — Hayward Batts, Donald Batts, Wally Pierce, Tommy Reynolds, Charles Johns, Jim Wood, Mike Elberie, Dennis Crews, Tommy Beane, Warren Hason, Mike Rihner, Reid Wall, Hal Worden, Buddy Gordon, Dennis Johns, and Billy Sauls. This team is coached by Lawler Wells.

Fellowship Baptist Church: Greg Sapp, David Moske, Gary Cobb, Roy Sims, Larry Bennett, Philip Cloud, John Pruitt, Danny Sims, Edward Bennett, Eugene Flowers, Dennis Avery, Jack Moore, and Jack Flowers. This team is coached by Paul Foraker.

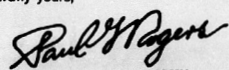

DeWayne Lemier was referee.
