Taxpayers Approve $4.5 Million School Construction Bond Tuesday

It was a landslide vote for school bonds here Tuesday as a sunny election day saw 3,665 taxpayers go to the polls and 63 per cent of them, 1,932, pull the "for" lever.

And tonight Highlands County school board goes to work making plans for the first county-wide school construction program which the bonds will make possible.

The bonds now available for schools construction totals about $4.5 million, to be provided by the Florida State Board of Education in the general obligation bonds which the voters approved Tuesday.

A total of 126 voters cast absentee ballots which were to be tabulated Wednesday. Opposition to the bond issue—1,133 against votes were registered—was concentrated in the rural areas of the county. The three precincts in the southern part of the county—Lorida, Lake Placid and Venus—were the only ones where the against votes carried the precinct. In Venus not one vote was for.

In Lorida only five votes were for and 29 against. The Lake Placid city precinct went against the bonds, but the margin was closer—172 for and 209 against. In two other precincts, both on the fringes of Sebring, the vote was close. At Triangle Drive in the vote was 24 for and 21 against the bonds. The DeSoto City vote was 50 for and 42 against.

In all other precincts the margins were wide with Sebring American Legion High precinct turning out the biggest for vote—429. The against vote in that precinct was 187. Avon Park's big Tourist Club precinct voted 327 for and 227 against.

On Agenda Tonight

A broadly smiling George F. Douglass said the county school board will begin tonight to make firm plans for school construction. The school superintendent said the agenda for the meeting, which begins at 7:30 o'clock (Thursday), calls for discussion of choosing a fiscal agent to assist the board in bringing the bond to sale.

The board will also need to make some decisions about marketing of up to $1.5 million in certificates of indebtedness backed by the state's race track taxes.

The Legislature, prior to its adjournment on June 6, had approved sale of an additional half-million in such certificates.

Earlier legislation had approved a $1 million sale, but the school board had delayed sale until a county-wide building program could be launched.

In addition to planning for the financing of the construction, the school board is to discuss tonight procedure for selecting an architect. Superintendent Douglass had indicated that the two largest pieces of the building program—new high schools in Avon Park and Sebring—would probably be built from almost identical plans.

Negotiations have been under way for almost a year for purchasing high school sites in Avon Park and Sebring, and tonight a decision may be reached on whether condemnation proceedings in Circuit Court will be necessary. Funds for buying these two sites are in the current budget and will not come from the new bond issue.

The over-all building program calls for additional classrooms and additional rooms placed at the big Woodlawn Elementary and Avon Elementary schools. Remodeling will be done at Lake Placid, Sebring and Avon Park High Schools, the last two being converted to middle schools for grades five through eight.

Tempers Flare Over Natural Gas Franchise

The first item of business, following the opening preliminaries at 7:30 p.m., was the question of granting a franchise for piping natural gas into Avon Park. A major battle has been building between local distributors of "bottled" gas and the Florida Gas Company which has proposed a franchise for consideration.

In recent months the Florida Gas Company has been doing considerable ground-work study and of recent meetings of the council has made concrete proposals toward a franchise to bring in natural-gas lines both for industrial development of the area and private consumers.

Aroused by the tentative competition and recognizing that a natural gas franchise was inevitable, an effort has been made by the Coker Fuel Company to enter the picture. At this meeting Coker Fuel offered what Mr. Selzer called a "direct copy" of the franchise they had drawn up. Lee Gurganus and Mr. Melaney, spokesmen for Coker Fuel, said they were offering "no more and no less" than proposed by the Florida Gas Company.

There has been some local concern that local businesses of long standing should be protected against inroads by large municipalities. However, Florida Gas contends that nine local families are already associated with their enterprise, leaving it more a battle between which families shall benefit than one between outsiders and insiders. The whole sale corporation furnishing the gas will be the same regardless of who wins the battle.

One vital factor for consideration is that a large industrial plant, located here by on October 15 of this year but must be sure of its gas supply before character. The Florida Gas Company is ready to meet their needs in time. Coker Fuel has asked two weeks to determine whether or not it can meet the deadline. City Attorney Hancock suggested that all competitors be given an opportunity to present facts on proposed location of lines, rates, etc. at the next meeting of the city council. A motion to this effect was presented by councilman Howard and seconded by Councilman Martin was unanimously approved.

Legislature Okays City Court Law

Florida Legislature has cleared the way for establishment of an Avon Park Municipal Court with a city judge. The court bill is one of the five new laws the state body approved at the request of Avon Park City Council.

Lane bill to fail was a request for the state to return to the city a parcel of land once owned by the city. The small parcel was to have been used for a Negro cemetery. In Tallahassee the local bill was transformed to general legislation and lost in a committee.

The approved bills included provisions for all regular city employees to be placed under a municipal civil service program.

Two tax bills were approved but may be superseded by the new general law which places, by 1977, all tax assessing and collecting functions under county offices.

The Avon Park bill provides that the city use the county tax assessor figures for property values within the city, and permits the city to use the same method of collecting delinquent taxes now given by the county. The city was given permission to make purchases of up to $500 without bids.

An old law limiting city revenue bond sales was repealed. City Attorney Jack Hancock had termed the old limitations "ineffective."

City Residents Can Use City Dump Without Charge If ID Card Is Acquired From City Hall

Action to restrict use of the city dump has greatly aroused public interest and considerable antagonism. In the meantime, since the installation of a gate, a caretaker and 50 cents admission fee, the dump is in better condition than it has ever been before.

However, several city residents and commercial payers of garbage collection fees have expressed a desire to carry their own trash to the dump rather than have it piled in front of their residence, or places of business until such time as the city is able to haul it away.

The "keeper of the gate" Buck Johnson was present at this meeting of the city council and without complaining did reveal the long hours and small remuneration of the present setup without making further inroads by granting free access to city taxpayers. Steve Roberts and others suggested various ways of granting rebates to city residents. Eventually a motion was made by Mr. Howard and seconded by Mr. Martin that ID cards be issued to city residents for free use of the dump and that Mr. Johnson be compensated by the city turning over to him the $30 monthly paid by the City Disposal Service for their dumping privileges. The salvage rights Mr. Johnson claims are of little value after the city employees and other users of the dump "get their pick."

Among other actions of the council, it was decided to award a $100 scholarship from First Federal to South Florida Junior College.

The A.B. Whitte award presented by Guy Garrett, supervising principal to salutarian Marcia Kay McDugald, and to valedictorian Patricia Lou Miller for the highest scholastic average for four years of high school.

Patricia Miller also received the senior honor student award, chosen by the faculty, based on dependability, scholarship, leadership, loyalty, sportsmanship. This is the highest senior award. Marshals for graduation were Holly Reddick and Sandra Dorsey.

A reception honoring the seniors was held at Avon Elementary Cafeteria.

Letter to councilmen states reasons Mayor Doerr vetoed ordinance.

City Council City of Avon Park Gentlemen:

Over the period of the past 18 months the majority of the City Council has been fit to spend money without regard to the budget; besides overrunning the budget for materials and supplies they have added personnel in several departments for which funds were not included in the budget.

Due to this fact I feel that the city use of water and sewer charges are an unnecessary imposition upon our citizens.

Even if these new charges are put into effect the income from them will not be enough to offset the present rate of spending of City funds and other new sources of taxation will be forced upon you unless the majority of the City Council can be persuaded to limit the city's expenditures.

Touchtons Sell Interest In Bank To Sebring Group

Control in the Avon Citrus Bank of South Florida was sold Tuesday by the Touchton family to the group of men who comprise the board of the First National Bank of Sebring.

Rex Bond, chairman of the board of First National, said the group plans to offer stock to the present stockholders of First National Bank and to the people in the Avon Park trade area.

He pointed out that with the people of Avon Park participating in the ownership, they will be able to demand more and better service for customers of Avon Citrus Bank.

"The First National Bank of Sebring and its personnel have enjoyed a splendid relationship with the people of Avon Park and by combining the basic ownership of both banks, it will enable them to better serve the needs of Highlands County," said Bond.

Bond will serve as chairman of the board of both banks. Alfred Roepstorff will move up from the vice presidency to the presidency of First National Bank. No immediate changes are contemplated in the personnel at Avon Citrus Bank, Bond said, and Charles W. Whitehead, Jr. will remain as president.

First National is a national bank and Avon Citrus a state bank and both will continue to operate as such. Both offer customers F.D.I.C. insured deposits.

Bond said he, as board chairman, will be active in the management of both institutions. The board of directors is composed of Bond, Attorney Frank Bryant, real estate man Henry Bailey, citrusman Elton Crews, contractor K. D. Grubb, citruscattlemen Marvin Kahn, retired businessman Lawrence Nichols, Attorney Hue Nunnally, Dr. B. C. Ostling, Emil Riley, owner of Sebring Welding and Tank Co., Fisher Sauls, retired restaurateur, E. G. Touchton, investments, citrusman Franklin Ward, Charles Whitehead, Jr., and Al Roepstorff.

Avon Citrus Bank was founded in 1930 and now has assets of $13,000,000. First National was founded in Sebring in 1963 and in the brief span of seven years has amassed assets of $13,500,000. Bond pointed with pride to First National as the "fastest growing bank in Highlands County."

E. G. Touchton, in announcing the sale, stated that he felt that the association of the two banks would be a major asset to the financial climate of Highlands County.

Red Cross Radiothon Nets $1,763.85

The Red Cross radiothon held Saturday from 9 A.M. to midnight over radio station WJBR resulted in $1,763.85 being contributed to keep the local chapter open. There were over 71 left of the 160 prizes that were donated by the merchants of Avon Park, Lake Placid and Sebring, plans now are in progress for an auction to be held later this month.

Mrs. Florence L. Peach, Executive Secretary of the Highlands County Chapter of the Red Cross, kicked off the start of the Telethon after the invocation by Rev. Joseph Benson of the Church of the Nazarene, by introducing Mayor Chuck Hall of metropolitan Miami, who flew into Sebring to help with the telethon.

Hall was met at the airport by mayors Jake Butler, Sebring, and Al Moretz of Lake Placid. Mayor James Doerr of Avon Park was unable to attend. Welcoming addresses were also given by Sheriff Joe Keene and Tilford Yeager, administrator of Highlands General Hospital and local ARC chapter chairman.

Many local citizens participated with their talents and kept the Mustang Mobile home "jumping." Excitement ran high all day long.

The Youth Care Center gained an additional member to their family through the courtesy of the Lake Placid J.C.'s who made a bid for a German Shepherd puppy donated by Mr. and Mrs. James Barber of Sebring. Many of the winners of plants donated by Happiness Farms of Lake Placid gave them to the Youth Care center for planting on their grounds.

"Without the sponsorship of the Mustang Mobile home, Bob Brooks, radio station, Dave Faust, and the many hundreds of volunteers, this event would never have been possible," said Mrs. Peach, "and my thanks to each and every one of them. I only wish more people would have participated in the contributing so that we could have given all the prizes away at this time."

Lillian Johnson's Tenth Annual Piano Recital at Church of God

The tenth annual piano recital by the pupils of Mrs. Lillian Johnson was held at the Church of God of Avon Park on Friday evening, June 6, at 8 o'clock with 41 students performing before a large audience of parents and friends.

The front of the church was decorated with palms accenting four baskets of gladioli and mums of assorted colors and the piano was adorned with a centerpiece of multi-colored roses.

Mrs. Joel Fletcher, an adult student of Mrs. Johnson, entertained the audience before the recital with several organ selections.

Mrs. Johnson introduced each student and each student was to play as the boys and girls and young men and women displayed their talent with a variety of types of musical numbers including several duets.

Drawing special recognition during the evening were three very talented young people who had won honors recently with their piano performances.

Ila and Sherwin Mackintosh played the duet with which they had won first place in the Avon Park High School cheerleader-sponsored talent show—Exodus by Ernest Gold.

Gail Metheny and Sherwin Mackintosh each played the solo for which they had received a superior rating at the state band contest this Spring.

Mrs. Johnson commented that only seven young people received this honor for piano solos at the state contest this year. Miss Metheny won her superior playing Sellegitte by C. P. E. Bach and Mr. Mackintosh took top honors for his rendition of Gipsy Rondo by F.

J. Haydn. The program was played with Phil McCullough playing Sweet Hour of Prayer and Reverend Alex Day, pastor of the Church of God, giving the benediction.

A reception was held following the recital in the church social hall under the direction of Mrs. Donald Ford. The hall was decorated with appropriately with keyboard streamers, across the windows, musical notes floating from the light fixtures, and miniature pianos placed around the room.

The center of attraction was a three-piece table which was covered with gold cloth overlaid with beige lace. Several floral arrangements and greenery completed the attractive decorations.

Guests were served punch and cake along with nuts and mints. The pieces of cake were appropriately decorated with musical notes and symbols.

Students performing for their parents and invited guests were:

Gail Metheny, Sherwin and Ila Mackintosh were honored for their musical talents with the high school band. Benediction was given by Rev. Alex Day, pastor of the Church of God.

Ushers for the evening, Janice Murphy and Sebrina Montecore. The reception was held in the Annex of the church with keynotes hanging from the ceiling, with a miniature Beethoven in the background.

The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory forever and ever." This verse from II Timothy is the Golden Text.

County Short Of Help

End of school and arrival of summer help has plugged some holes in the county road and bridge crew—but not helped the patch crew yet. County Administrator Charles Morgan recommended the hiring of four students for temporary help during the summer months. Two full-time employees were also approved by the commissioners at their June 3 meeting.

Morgan said this still leaves the road and bridge crew short of help—12 men less than were on the crew this time a year ago. They told the commissioners, "We are in critical shape on the patching crew. Right now our entire crew has one man and one truck. The vacationing students have been assigned to work as truck drivers, mow operators and in the highway spraying crew.

BAHA' U LLAH

(Sole Object of all previous Revelations) the Founder of the Baha' Faith says: "It is decreed that every father must educate his sons and daughters in learning and in writing and also in that which hath been ordained in the Tablet. He who neglects that which hath been commanded, if he is rich, it is incumbent on the trustees to recover from him the amount required for the education of the children; otherwise the matter shall devolve on the House of Justice. Verily We have made it an asylum for the poor and needy."

Registration Starts For Girls Camp

A day camp for Highlands County girls 7 to 17 years of age is scheduled for the week of June 22-27 at Highlands Hammock State Park. Mrs. Robert Smith is director for the camp which is sponsored by Girl Scouts but is not limited to Scouts.

The camp sessions are scheduled for 9 A.M. to 3 P.M. for each of the five days. Mrs. Smith said transportation to the Hammock will be responsibility of parents, although she expects that car pools will be worked out among the participants.

"Day camping is one of the finest experiences that Girl Scouting offers. Girls learn to appreciate the out-of-doors, learn to live together and learn many skills," Mrs. Smith said.

"All girls will have ample opportunity to participate in cook-outs, nature crafts, hikes, singing, acting. Older girls may elect to stay overnight at the site if the staff finds them ready for such an experience," the Director said.

The camp fee includes the noon meal each day, craft materials, insurance. A nurse or trained first-aid will be at the day camp, Mrs. Smith said.

Each Girl Scout troop in the county has been provided funds to award a campership to a troop member. Registrations from girls in the 7-17 age bracket will be accepted until the opening of camp on June 22.

Self-Diagnosis May Cut Trips To Doctor

As servicing specialists for the Whippany Refrigeration Service, Bill Maddison and Jim DeLade have no medical training, and yet, their invention, "Medi-Check" could well become an institutional reference in the home like Dr. Spock's Baby and Child Care.

Bill Maddison is the son of Mrs. Ruth Maddison of Avon Park.

"Medi-Check" offers private, home, self-diagnosis of illnesses, infections, diseases and the like. Maddison and DeLade observed that most illnesses and diseases show themselves on the skin of the victim. On one or more parts of the body there will appear growths, or erosions, or broken, open, perhaps festering sores. Now, our inventors from Bensville and Butler came up with the notion of having the blemishes associated with measles, poison oak, chicken pox, and such maladies, reproduced on small translucent plastic strips. If the natural blemish has cores or depressions, or risen edges, the plastic is similarly formed, and coloring faithfully reproduces the coloring of the naturally occurring blemish—even to peripheral, shaded rings to simulate the adjacent "red-dened skin."

One can find pictures of measles or pox blemishes in color, in medical encyclopedias, or other reference books. The trouble is that it is difficult to relate something printed on a page with a skin blemish. You cannot readily align the page color printing alongside a blemish on your forehead, on your elbow, or in the bend of your knee.

The "Medi-Check" strip, for being flexible and compliant, and translucent—except for where the blemish is simulated—can be placed anywhere on the skin. It is aligned alongside the naturally occurring blemish, and only the colored, simulated "sore" thereon will appear for comparison with the natural blemish. By checking different strips in turn, subsequently a match with the natural blemish will be found.

Each "Medi-Check" strip has an index in the corner—such as "B-5." The index corresponds to a page in an accompanying medical treatment manual. By turning to page B-5, the person finds that he has "Poison Oak."

The page describes the symptoms associated with the skin sores, as a further check on the diagnosis, and then prescribes the ointments to be applied, and the other treatments to be administered.

No, Maddison and DeLade don't propose to write the medical treatment manual. A physician is to be the author.

When Art Gorsuch reached home from the dance Friday night, he rubbed his wife to Walker Memorial Hospital. She suffers from emphysema.

Teachers Get Advance Study Grant

National Science Foundation has announced grants to 10 Highlands County teachers for advanced study in science and mathematics.

Floyd Clark, coordinator of math and science for Highlands County schools, and Frank Burns of the Avon Park High science faculty will attend a special course on engineering concepts in high school curriculum at University of South Florida.

Clark said a state education improvement grant has been asked to finance a pilot project in engineering concepts classes at Avon Park High in the coming school year.

He explained that high school science courses at the present are geared to theory and are aimed at the college-bound student. "These courses explain the 'why' but in the modern world many people need to know 'how' something operates."

The engineering concepts curriculum is the "how," and we hope to attract to these science classes many students who do not need or want the theory

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Bill Stallard spoke to the group on the merits of the proposed bond issue for the building program for Highlands County Schools. He pointed out the fact that citizens had been placed in a position in which the problems of the schools must be solved by one method or another. While most of us would prefer a pay-as-you-go program, this seems to be an entirely unsatisfactory approach in the light of present circumstances.

It was estimated the servicing of the bonds would cost the taxpayer approximately two-tenths of a mill, while the pay-as-you-go avenue would require an additional two mill levy. In an inflationary economy it is often cheaper in the long run to let the bond route since the contract price freezes construction costs for the building. With prices rising as they presently are, the cost of a stretched-out building program could far exceed the cost of building at the present time.

It was pointed out that as things developed, failure to pass the bond issue of 14 months ago was an unfortunate mistake. All indications are that it would compound this error if the bond issue fails this time.

Boyd Singletary Serving On USS Saratoga

Seaman Boyd C. Singletary, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Singletary of Rt. 1, Avon Park, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Saratoga, which was visited on Armed Forces Day by President Richard M. Nixon.

Accompanied by Chief of Naval Operations Admiral Thomas Moorer and other Navy officials, President Nixon flew by helicopter to the Saratoga, 45 miles off the Virginia coast. The President observed a strike exercise conducted by 14 ships, including cruisers, destroyers and a nuclear submarine and Navy aircraft of Air Wing Three.

The song America was sung publicly for the first time on July 4, 1822, by a group of children gathered for an Independence Day celebration in Boston's Park Street Church. The words were based on a collection of folk songs from Germany, and the tune was very similar to England's "God Save The King."

In 1828, a sword fish attacked a ship (wooden) and forced its yard-long sword 18 inches into the seasoned oak of the hull.

Keyette Club Formed At High School

A new service club was added to Avon Park High School within the past week. Twenty girls of the ninth, tenth, and 11th grades became charter members of the Keyette Club. During their first week, the girls helped in three service projects—cleaning desks, distributing school bond bumper stickers, and placing an attractive record of the cast of the Key Club play on the stage scenery.

Charter officers elected by the club were, president, Miss Susie Skipper; secretary, Miss Kay Carver; treasurer, Miss Candy Reddick. Serving as faculty sponsors for the new club are Mrs. Betty Burch and David L. Sechrist.

The club plans to hold a social function during the Summer in the form of a swimming and hot dog party.

Wilhite Says Cancer Crusade Laggging

The 1969 Educational and Fund Raising Crusade for the American Cancer Society is still in progress, yet lagging according to A. B. Wilhite, Cancer Crusade chairman for the Avon Park area.

Spearheading the crusade are co-chairmen Mrs. Bill Owens and Mrs. William Kittrell for the residential areas. Fred Jahua, chairman for special gifts and chairman for business, George Haynie.

According to the latest reports Avon Park is falling far behind its quota and much work and cooperation needs to be done.

About 40 volunteers have been distributing information to homes and businesses relative to the major killers of mankind today and with emphasis being centered on Cancer's Seven Warning Signals.

Furthermore, these volunteers have been soliciting funds to help fight this life-taking disease. If you were overlooked or not home when the crusaders called, you are urged to yet make your contribution to this great cause.

Today your contribution will be a gift of hope. Tomorrow it would be a gift of life. 1,500,000 Americans are cured of cancer. Let's try to find it on time, won't you. "Help yourself with a check-up and help others with a check in the American Cancer Society."

Scout Leaders Entertain Troop 305

Girl Scout Troop 305, under the leadership of Mrs. James Cravey and Mrs. Richard Hamm, entertained the girls at their final meeting recently with a small party. Meeting at the Episcopal Church each Thursday after school. The girls earned many badges this year, because of the varied opportunities offered.

Having perfect attendance throughout the year were Girl Scouts Patricia Cravey and Debbie Hamm.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

Mrs. Lucile McPherson, president of WWL Aux, and Mrs. Clara Tepper of Avon Park spent the weekend in the Park to a watermelon party. Twenty-two were present. We were so happy to have our new owners and son present. Plans for more get-togethers are in the air.

Mrs. Rosa Bennington received word that her sister, Mrs. George McAliese of Louisville was ill and a patient in the hospital. Mary is well known in the Park and we wish for her a speedy recovery.

SAME PLACE, new name — Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center at Avon Park has officially been renamed by the Legislature. The state facility will be known as Florida Alcoholic Treatment and Research Center, and a lighted sign bearing the new title will be erected at the main entrance on U.S. Highway 27.

Registration For Summer Recreation Starts Monday

The Avon Park area summer recreation program will start next Monday, June 22, and continue through August 1 according to director Joe Franz.

There will be three centers again this summer—Avon Park High School gym for junior high and high school boys and girls, Hopewell School for elementary and junior high students, and Avon Elementary for elementary children. Coach Franz said that the program will be in charge of the high school center, Mrs. Howard will be in charge at Hopewell, and Mr. Miracle will be in charge of the Avon Elementary program.

Registration for the activities will start Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the three centers. Beginning swimming is scheduled to start at the city beach on Lake Verona, June 30 (Monday) week from 10 to 12 each week-day.

July 4 will be a holiday with no activities scheduled in the program. A weekly schedule of events and activities will be printed each Thursday in the Avon Park Sun for specific times and dates.

For junior and senior high school students three trips to the beach and at least one overnight trip have been planned. Other activities offered for teenagers will be basketball, tennis, ping pong, weight lifting, badminton, and possibly skating in Sebring and bowling in Wausatcha weekly. The girls softball program will continue.

The elementary boys and girls will possibly have several trips during the six weeks of activities.

Instrumental music instruction will be offered again this summer with Vic Mickunas directing. Students interested in this program should contact Mr. Mickunas for scheduling.

Other instructors in the recreational program will be Ralph Hill, Ann Karkick, Bob Watts, Margaret Collins, Leon Garner and Edward Culbertson.

Avon Elementary will open its 1969 summer enrichment program next Monday, June 22, at 9 A.M. with a variety of scholastic and recreation activities offered to the boys and girls of Avon Park.

For incoming first graders the pre-school program will get underway in the afternoon. Last summer over 100 boys and girls participated in this part of the enrichment program and all parents of incoming first graders are urged to enroll their children in this program.

Arithmetic will be offered from 8 to 4 o'clock each week-day under the direction of Mrs. Griselda Murphy. Students who have already registered have been assigned a specific hour for instruction. Others who would like to join this program may register next Monday and be assigned an hour.

The reading program will be under the direction of Mrs. Murphy also with the teachers and aids of the pre-school program working in this program in the afternoon. As with the arithmetic program, some students are already signed up for instruction in reading but others may register this week.

Also the elementary library will be open each day from 8 to 4 o'clock with a program of fun reading, records, films, games, magazines, etc. Special library activities this year will be a story hour at 10 each morning.

Single County Health Unit Will Increase Taxes

According to preliminary figures it will cost Highlands County taxpayers a 66 mill tax increase for the county to have its own, single county health unit.

The state board of health has approved a single county unit for Highlands, and on Tuesday the county commissioners worked out proposals for a $89,369 budget. Details of the budget, which followed general lines suggested by state health officers, was formally laid before the state board in Jacksonville on Wednesday.

The proposed budget calls for state and federal sources to provide $20,100 in the coming year, the county, $60,100. The commissioners figure to meet the county share by raising the current health levy from 195 to 255 mill. Early Wednesday county officials learned the state has appropriated additional funds, but no exact figures were revealed.

The state board and county commissioners are seeking a physician to fill the $20,000-a-year job as county health director. The resignation of the present director of the Glades-Hendry-Highlands health unit, Dr. J. D. Workman, becomes effective on June 30.

Dr. Workman, who has often been at odds with the Highlands commissioners, got in a parting shot when he filed, as a part of his annual report to the state, a recommendation that funds for treatment be discontinued in this county.

County Administrator Charles Morgan told the commissioners Tuesday that he could not determine quickly exactly how much it cost the county to lose migrant medical funds "but I don't see how the county can do without them. So far this year over $12,000 has been paid for outpatients services to migrants and that does not include any payments for drugs or for the salaries paid by migrant funds."

Morgan said a board of health staff member had come to Highlands to work with Public Health Nurse Lucille Rankin in preparing a revised annual report, and the Administrator said the state Board of Health had indicated it would accept the revision with migrant funds included. The medical service funds for migrants come from federal sources.

Commissioners Optimistic
The commissioners said Tuesday they are optimistic that an increased health budget will save the county money in other appropriations, particularly in fees to private physicians. They said Tuesday that the new health department director can, without reducing time spent on public health administration, give indigent patients some services and jail inmates physical examinations.

Commissioners commented Tuesday that while the budget increase "looks like a lot we think we can save almost the entire salary of the director on other services to the county."

The total salary budget proposed by the county commissioners—following schedules approved by the state Personnel Board—is $74,800.

The travel budget, which the commissioners had cut last year, was put up to $7,000. Morgan said he had requested the sanitarians "ask for sufficient funds to make on-site inspections on septic tank permit

Plans For 4-Laning 27 From Avon Park To Lake Wales

The current five year plan of this district of the Florida State Road department includes the four-laning of Route 27 from Lake Wales to the four-laning at Avon Park.

C. M. Monts de Oca, district engineer said, "If the Legislature give us more money, it could be moved up. It has been pointed out that Route 27 could be a major artery from Disneyland to Miami if the route is four-laned."

He estimated construction would take about 18 months.

The single overburdened traffic lane on this portion of Route 27 could be a real bottleneck for Walt Disney World complex near Kissimmee, which is expected to open in October of 1971, it's agreed.

It has been pointed out that Route 27 could be a major artery from Disneyland to Miami if the route is four-laned.

"Our district extends to the Collier County line South of Clewiston," Monts de Oca pointed out, adding Route 27 should be completely four-laned through the district by the time the five year plan is completed.

He said he does not know what the plans are for four-laning beyond the Collier County line to Greater Miami. There is a long two-lane stretch of pavement between South Bay and Hialeah, which if not four-laned, could deter tourists from using this central Florida route.

An extensive, speed up road building and expansion program is being planned in central Florida prior to the opening of Walt Disney World.

Primarily it will involve state roads, but also will involve Interstate 4 and at least two toll facilities.

Disney officials have predicted eight million persons will visit the attraction during its first year of operation. The only way to get there is by motor vehicle. Road experts are agreed that the existing roads cannot handle the load.

The State Road Department will four-lane State Road 530 northeast of Disney World through a sparsely populated area connecting Kissimmee and US 27. The route will provide the entrance route to Disney World and an interchange will be built by the state to lead traffic off 530 and to the main entrance of the attraction.

That project also will involve construction of an additional overpass crossing I-4 to two lanes.

In addition to the SRD work, the Florida Turnpike Authority will extend a toll facility from the Beeline Highway near McCoy AFB, over to I-4 just North of 386.

The Orlando-Orange County expressway authority will construct a 13-mile toll facility located in the West, South of the business district, and then back to 50 East of Orlando near Henderson Airport. At the eastern terminus of the Beeline, the SRD will four-lane 50 the rest of the way into Indian River City on the coast, about 16 miles.

Board Names Agent To Assist In Marketing Bonds

Highlands County School Board, at its June meeting, named a fiscal agent to assist in the marketing of school bonds and adopted a salary schedule which provides a new fringe benefit for teachers and a pay raise for other school personnel.

Wainwright and Ramey, the firm marketing the bonds on the marketing of race track bonds, was named to handle sale of up to $45 million in general obligation bonds. Income from both bond sales will supply funds for a county-wide building program.

The new salary schedule provides a four per cent increase for the school non-instructional personnel. Lunchroom employees pay will be raised in September to meet all increases which federal minimum wage levels would require by February.
