Agreement Near On Leasing Of Airport

The battle over leasing airport land to Shelley Marrs continued this week when the Avon Park City Council met in a special session Monday to consider the sixth lease that has been drawn up for Marrs.

The latest lease is for Marrs Aircraft to lease approximately six acres of land at the airport to rebuild airplanes, but Monday night, Mayor Jimmy Doerr and some members said they thought the city should rent the new hangar which the city has already spent $28,000 on before leasing any other part of the airport for aircraft purposes.

The lease that was presented Monday was acceptable all but a couple of changes which Mayor Doerr thought should be in but said legal action could be taken because the city attorney was not at the meeting. The council did agree to either give Marrs a lease at the next council meeting or give him one months lease on the new hangar at $100.

The airport committee agreed to study the proposed lease and bring their recommendations to the next meeting.

Michael Hynes, of Lakeland Flying Service, who is interested in leasing the new hangar attended the meeting Monday. He said as far as another operator on the airport went, an industry such as rebuilding aircraft would be welcomed but that any other activities would have to be regarded as competition and this airport could not support two base operators.

HAPPY FACES—Everybody was happy when Fred A. Jones (left) visited Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center last week with a check for $50—an incentive award presented to the ARC for lighting improvements made in its administrative offices. The incentive award is a special Florida Power Corporation promotion, based on number of kilowatt hours installed and the intensity of light that has been updated. Jones is senior commercial sales representative for Florida Power. John Church (center), ARC maintenance supervisor, received the check on behalf of the Center, while Business Manager Steve Vosburgh (right) witnessed the occasion.

Upgrading County Schools Estimated Over $5 Million

"Maximum flexibility" is School Superintendent George F. Douglass' description of the updated school plant survey he will recommend for approval at the school board's November 12 meeting. The survey was made by State Department of Education.

Principal changes in the new survey over the 1966 one under which Highlands County schools are now operating are for establishment of a 4-4-4 grade division in Sebring and Avon Park, elimination of the controversial Carver and Hopewell schools and conversion of E. O. Douglas to the county school administration headquarters.

Estimated cost for new construction and major alterations recommended is $5,681,988 with another $110,000 for site expansion and acquisition. Superintendent Douglass is quick to point out that he does not anticipate an "all-at-once" building program.

The new 4-4-4 approach to grouping of grades will enable the school board to avoid building one elementary school completely. Douglass terms as the "immediate needs" the new high schools for Avon Park and Sebring, enlarging of the first phase of construction for the new elementary school in Lake Placid, completion of Fred Wild School.

With these as a first phase building program, the cost will be over $4 million. Sale of the race track certificates of $3.5 million for the county taxpayers.

The new survey includes recommendation for two kindergarten rooms at Avon Elementary, Fred Wild, Woodlawn, the new Lake Placid Elementary. New legislation directs that each county will provide public kindergartens by the early 1970's.

The survey recommends space for 7,562 students. It found 4,972 "desirable pupil stations" in the present schools, but school records at the close of September showed 5,815 students enrolled.

Although the survey recommends elimination of the present all-Negro schools, Superintendent Douglass said if the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare will permit, Carver, Hopewell and E. O. Douglas would continue, at least for a few years, as neighborhood schools serving grades kindergarten through 4 only. Limiting enrollment would, Douglass said, make possible elimination of inadequate facilities now in use at these schools.

The plant survey does suggest that the newer, more sturdy buildings at Carver, Hopewell and Douglas might be moved to other school sites as needed to fit into the new 4-4-4 arrangement.

The survey suggestion that Douglas' grounds and buildings could be the county administration location may be a welcome one for the Highlands County commissioners who are feeling pressure for more space within the county courthouse.

When the courthouse was renovated in the mid-60's, the third floor was reserved for the county school offices, but now the county zoning director is sharing a remodeled closet with two school clerks and school materials in transit to schools or storage are often stacked in hallways.

The survey recommendation is that Avon Park High and Sebring High would be remodeled and made into middle schools—for grades 5, 6, 7, 8. Recommended pupil capacity at the Sebring site would be 978 and at Avon Park, 924.

Capacity for each of the two new high schools would be 1,200. Initial construction at each would be for 675 at Sebring and 641 at Avon Park—in grades 9, 10, 11 and 12. By the time each of these schools is completed the cost will be $1,768,000 each.

Lake Placid new elementary school—which will be started this year—will have an initial capacity of 855 and will be for grades 1-6. The present school buildings will be limited to grades 7-12, recommended capacity will be 635.

Douglass has said he could foresee conversion of these buildings into a middle school and construction of new high school at Lake Placid—possibly within a decade.

If the school board does adopt the new plant survey at the November meeting, the next step will be to set-up a building priority list, dividing recommendations into first and second phase projects.

Girl-Boy Staters Report To Legion & Aux.

A covered dish dinner preceded the Girl-Boy State meeting of Highlands Post 69 American Legion and Auxiliary Tuesday, Oct. 15.

Marcia McDugald, representing the Unit described her first impression of Girl State, as finding it difficult to locate her room. She explained that the girls from the lower east coast had arrived a few hours earlier and that during their short stay at Girl State they had woven millions of feet of string throughout the building until you could scarsely get into the hallway. From these strings, Marla said, appeared posters of candidates from both the Federalist and Nationalist Parties.

Marcia admitted that their first decision at Girl State was made within a few minutes after she arrived. That decision was, that she would not try to compete for an office by making posters, rather that she would meet all buses as they arrived. She would shake hands with the girls, serve as a guide in assisting them to locate their rooms. She admitted that

Avon Park Red Devils Will Travel To Clearwater Friday; Hopeful for First Win

The Avon Park Red Devils will travel to Clearwater to play the Clearwater Central Catholic Marauders who have chalked up only one victory in four games this season. Kick-off is slated for 8 P.M.

The Marauders, beaten by Avon Park 64-7 last year here at Memorial Stadium, opened this season with a 28-0 win over Gulf High but then lost the next three games 27-7 to Pinecrest, 33-16 to Palmetto, and week before last to a strong Jesuit team. Last week the Central Catholic team had an open date.

The Red Devils of course are still looking for their first win of the season after dropping the first five outings to Lake Wales 25-13, Mulberry 13-0, Fort Meade 12-7, Haines City 32-12, and Wauchula 34-6.

This week the Devils will be playing without the services of starter Curtis Hulen who is ineligible because of grades. Moving into the offensive end slot vacated by Hulen will be Tim Braswell. Don Sisemore, reserve quarterback and defensive halfback, is expected to be back in action for this week's game after sitting out the Wauchula game due to an injured leg.

The Hardee Wildcats of Wauchula found themselves in the closing minutes of the first quarter last Friday night and scored two touchdowns in both the second and third periods and a fifth TD in the final quarter to defeat the Devils by a score of 34-6. It was only the second win for the Wildcats who have had problems all season after winning 20-0 over Fort Meade in the first game and then losing by one point to Plant City in the final seconds of the second game of the season.

Hardee's first score came after an 88-yard drive on the ground with big back Tom (Newsome) Pace bulling in from the one yard line for the actual TD. Tackle Joe Davis kicked the extra point—the first of four consecutive extra points for the big senior.

After Avon Park was unable to move for a first down on the following series of plays, Hardee took Landress's punt on their own 25-yard line and returned it to the 35-yard marker. From that point the Wildcat offense marched for another score with the aid of a 15 yard penalty against the Devils. The 65-yard drive was climaxed with a one yard run by halfback Ronnie Maye for the score.

Avon Park was unable to move for a first down until the final two plays of the first half when Billy Richards broke loose for a 16 yard romp and then Neal Caswell followed with a 14 yard gain as the whistle blew ending the half.

At the start of the second half Avon Park kicked off to Wauchula and the ball was an on-side roller that was recovered by Alvin Hollinger on the Hardee 39-yard line. From that point the Devil offense moved into the end zone in eight plays. A halfback pass from Willie Joe Seigler to John Hamilton was good for 10 yards and Bill Richards picked up another ten moving it to the 11-yard line. Then Caswell broke through and almost scored around right end but was pulled down on the one. Richards powered the ball in for the TD but the run for the point after was short leaving the score 14-6.

Hardee marched twice more for touchdown in the third period going 64 yards on the ground on the first drive with Moye taking it the last five yards for the TD and Davis kicking his third PAT. The second drive was set up on Avon Park's 40-yard line when Tom Pace recovered a Devil fumble. Only three plays were needed to add six points to Wauchula's score. Hard running John Polk dashed 23 yards and then added three more setting the ball on the Devil fifteen. Quarterback Mike Tew tossed a pass into the end zone that was hauled in by Joe Davis for the TD.

In the final period Avon Park was confused (or the officials were) on a penalty call and didn't realize it was fourth down so lost possession on the Devil 20-yard line. Hardee needed a fourth down pass completion to keep that short drive alive but finally, with the aid of a penalty against the Devils, moved to the one yard line and then into the end zone for the final score. Devils' kick was no good on his final attempt.

Daylight Time Ends Sunday

Daylight savings time ends at 2 A.M. Sunday—which means that when you retire Saturday night you can set the clocks back an hour. And if you forget to set the clocks Saturday night, you'll probably be an hour early for church services!

Reelect Rogers

Whatever the outcome of the presidential election next month, citizens of Florida's 9th Congressional District can assure themselves of effective representation in Washington for the next two years by reelecting Rep. Paul G. Rogers.

Congressman Rogers has a well-deserved reputation as a political conservative. As such he has been able to work well with Republican administrations.

And as a Democrat, he has been able to secure appointment to important congressional committees and steer important legislation through a Democratically-controlled House during Democratic administrations.

Now a ranking member of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee and of the Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee, Rep. Rogers is in a position to continue speaking with an authoritative voice on legislation vitally affecting South Florida—particularly in the field of oceanography.

Rogers contends, and substantial Floridians generally agree, that the future economic health of this state is tied to unlocking the secrets and exploiting the treasures of the seas; that the ocean —although perhaps less glamorous—is of greater and more immediate importance to us than space. And Rogers is the ranking member of the House Oceanography subcommittee.

Many specific bills could be cited to substantiate Rep. Rogers' interest, knowledge and influence in Florida-oriented legislation; many others establish his eminence in national and international affairs.

He is a sincere and persistent advocate of economy in government; he is a steadfast defender against the encroachment of communism, either as a foreign import to Cuba or as a domestic product; he is a battler for law and order and against those criminal activities and products which debauch our youth.

But perhaps even more important to the people of this congressional district is the fact that he is—and has always been—truly their representative in Washington.

Keeping in close contact with his constituents through an annual questionnaire, Rogers has kept intact the original intent of the Founding Fathers that through their congressman the people ARE the government, within the framework of the Constitution. There are times, naturally, when a congressman must use his own judgment on specific bills; but the will of the people is strongly reflected in Rogers' legislative record.

Rep. Rogers is a full-time congressman, as his House attendance record will show. But he also has found time to give his personal attention to the letters, telegrams and problems of the people of the district who turn to him.

Rogers is, in short, a man of the people, and this newspaper feels that he deserves reelection on November 5.

Post Office Announces New Rates

Postmaster R. D. Young reminded postal customers today that higher parcel post and catalog rates went into effect October 19.

The rate increase will average 10.5 per cent and in most cases will mean an additional 10 cents postage per parcel.

The higher rates were approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in July.

Under the new rates the minimum charge for local parcel delivery will go from 40 to 50 cents. The minimum charge for parcels destined outside the local delivery area will be raised from 50 cents to 60 cents.

Almost all parcels that are charged up to $1.10 under present rates will go up 10 cents. This accounts for more than 80 per cent of all parcel post, Postmaster Young pointed out.

There will be a 15 cent hike on most parcels now charged between $1.10 and $4, and a 20 cent increase on parcels now charged over $4.

Parcel post rates are based on the weight of the package and the distance it is mailed.

Higher rates for the delivery of packages and catalogs are required to bring revenue from this type of mail within four per cent of operating costs, as required by law, Postmaster Young explained. The higher rates are designed to put parcels and catalogs, which are fourth-class mail, on a break-even basis.

Additional revenue is needed from parcel post and catalog to off-set higher costs resulting from pay increases approved last year for postal employees.

Tons of gifts will be going to members of the Armed Forces in Vietnam by a special ship this year, thanks to a joint Pentagon-Post Office venture. A fast US Cargo ship will be designated the "1968 Santa Claus Special" sailing from Oakland, Calif. To meet the sailing deadline and assure pre-holiday delivery of gifts with surface postage "Santa Claus Special" items should be mailed during the October 14-November 9 period.

It is important to keep an inventory of your possessions. Record serial and model number of firearms, appliances and tools. In case of theft, the police will need this information.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Will This Make The Book Better?

A few years ago, an English bishop—Dr. John A. T. Robinson—wrote a book entitled, "Honest to God."

Irreverent as the title is, the contents of the book disturbed some people even more. Bishop Robinson said that Christianity must be made "relevant to modern secular man."

His theory seems to be that, since many people are not keeping the Ten Commandments, they should not be considered as being applicable.

Now—perhaps in an attempt to make the Bible "relevant to modern secular man"—the Oxford University Press has published a new edition of the Bible.

Startling Illustrations

The illustrations in the newly published Bible include Moses in a business suit, a couple in close embrace, and Job's daughters pictured as front-view nudes.

Nudity and near-nudity are, of course, becoming typical of certain segments of our culture. Recently at the University of Kansas there was a scene in the play "Peter Pan" in which two coeds danced nude.

But nude illustrations in the Bible—is this the way to make God's message "relevant to modern secular man"?

Webster's New International Dictionary defines "relevant" as "Bearing upon, or properly applying to, the case in hand . . . pertinent."

God's Word has always been pertinent to the problems of secular man — whether it is the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal" the commandment, "Thou shalt not commit adultery," or the less-well-known admonition, "That women adorn themselves in modest apparel."

What the bishop seems to mean is that he wants Christianity to be made acceptable or even attractive to modern secular man—to be understood as meaning modern sinful man.

The truth, is that, if the principles of the Bible are compromised to make them acceptable to modern unconverted man, Christianity is doomed—for it will have nothing to offer that the world cannot do better.

Transformation Required

The basic essential of Christianity was expressed by Christ Himself in these words, "Ye must be born again."

He made no attempt to conform His religion to what the people could accept without changes in their lives. He said clearly, "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself . . . and follow Me."

He calls us not to be conformed to this world but to be transformed by His power. He calls us to leave a life of lust and license and to partake with Him in the "more abundant life" which is available only to true followers of the Master.

Girl-Boy Staters

she did carry some of their luggage.

You soon become aware of the fact that politics at Girl State does not compare with that of your school. At home, continued Marcia, there is always a friend who will nominate you for office, telling everyone what a wonderful person you are. At Girl State you are on your own. It is up to you to nominate yourself and then try and convince the citizens of Girl State that you are qualified for the office that you seek.

Marcia stated that she made her decision as to the office she would seek in city and county early after she arrived. She was successful in both endeavors.

Marcia said, I thought about the state office and realizing that only one person would be elected as Governor, or to any of the Cabinet Offices, but that if I ran for a member of the Supreme Court that I would have a better chance to be elected. She was elected to the Supreme Court. Marcia admitted that she thought that her successful bid for each of the offices that she ran for was because she received the votes of friends that she made when she met the buses.

Charles Magenheimer, described Boy State as a week that changes your entire life. He explained the lectures, and pointed out that these boys, when chosen to speak on Americanism would assemble and present outstanding speeches.

Charles stated that participation of the running of city, county and state government enabled you to comprehend and appreciate the American way of life. He concluded by stating that he doubted that there would ever be any event in life which would prove as outstanding as was the week at Boys State.

David Woodard, explained his surprise but delight to note that the staff at Boy's State recognized that they need God's assistance.

David said, the word Americanism takes on a different meaning when you have been a part of a week at Boy's State. These boys love their country, they love the United States flag. Explaining what it was like to see more than 500 boys with bowed heads as they listened to the chorus sing the "Lord's Prayer." David stated, I was not the only one that had a lump in his throat, yes he continued many of the boys left the assembly with tears streaming down their faces.

David concluded by saying, "this is a wonderful country and these boys arae capable of carrying on."

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

COMMUNISM'S OPPORTUNITY HAS COME

The long awaited chance to make their conquest of the world complete is just around the corner, and Communists know it. Under our so-called democracy, we have a lame-duck President, but little concerned over the management of the country longer since it has repudiated his administration in no uncertain tones and actions. After a new president gets elected, the reins of rule are still in the hands of those who have been ejected by the people if they vote for a change. Under the caption, "Dangerous Transition," David Lawrence, that brilliant editor of U. S. News & World Report," says in part:

"Members of Congress are talking about the possibility of a 'Constitutional Crisis' as election day approaches.

"First, if no presidential candidate gets a majority of the electorial votes, the House of Representatives, which will not be assembling before January 3, will have the task of choosing the next president.

"Second, the interval between November 5 and inauguration day, January 10, could, in the troubled world today require far reaching decision and commitments by an out-going administration whose party may have been repudiated by the vote of the people.

"Just 36 years ago, the period of transition between the defeat of a Republican administration and the inauguration of a President-elect from the Democratic party, produced an economic crisis. The damage and consequences of the clumsy changeover from one party to another were felt for many years after."

Lawrence goes on, in his masterful way, to show many features of our antiquated style of government which do not mesh into gear without dangerous lapses of control by some legally-placed head and hand, and, by all the signs and omens, Communist Russia knows all about it, and without doubt, is getting all set to take a long awaited advantage of it.

Suppose Moscow, head of the new Russian Bolshevik Empire, decides to invade West Germany, and reap some revenge for the horrible massacres, indescribable ravages and other Hun-like outrages Hitler's Germany perperated on Russia? With every wheel and bearing in our wierd government running a hot-box, and squeaking loud enough to be heard on the moon; with a lame-duck President, a Congress half the time on the loose hunting votes and not knowing what its constituents want; the people themselves split into every which way, fighting crime, riots and general Helen Carnation from shore to shore and from Canada to the Gulf, our condition nationally is just what the Doctor ordered for a warming-up of World War II I say No. II, because, as far as Communists are concerned, World War No. II never has ended. The next holocaust may be CALLED World War III, but it is no such thing, and it will never stop until Russia wins or is beaten to its knees by a united world, tired of being kicked around by the benighted followers of Karl Marx.

GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE, BY THE PEOPLE, ETC.

In the hour of stress and the outlook's blue
And the nation's in a box,
There is always a statesman, strong and true,
Who comes to the front and talks.

If wind would banish the ills we see
And drive all our troubles hence,
Then the talksmith's tongue would our bulwark be
And his larynx our chief defense.

We groan and sweat at the forge and mill,
To see that our tax is paid,
And the money all goes to pay the bill
For his noise in Congress made.

Wherever you the talksmith stands,
With his winning smile and smirk,
And busts the welkin and waves his hands—
But he never gets down to work!

Ah, well, my friends, we shall scrape and peck
Along till the Judgment Day,
When he will cilmb on the old world's wreck

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW — Tax Relief Elusive

Wellesley Hills, Mass., October 24 We are in the final stretch of the quadrennial presidential policies of our federal government. Crime on the streets, Vietnam, the plight of our cities, and foreign aid are among the top campaign issues. Strangely enough, high taxes—though explored—just aren't getting very much pre-election attention.

High Incomes Can be Deceiving

To be sure, there is still considerable grumbling over the 10 per cent federal income tax surcharge which now seems likely to be extended beyond the June 30, 1969 deadline. But on the whole, high federal taxes are not really rankling. Many people lump taxes in with other living costs and blame inflation for the higher trend of these costs. Some just don't realize how high taxes actually are because larger total personal incomes have sold them on the idea that they "never had it so good."

Over-all income statistics indicate that we are better off than ever. However, gross figures on income do not necessarily give a true picture of how well off individuals are. In the first place, such statistics should be reduced to disposable (i.e., after-tax) income. Then they should be adjusted to a constant purchasing dollar. Finally, they should be expressed on a per-capita basis.

Middle Class Squeezed

When this is done, it will be found that the middle-income taxpayers is being unconscionably squeezed—locked in between the high and the low levels. he has too much income to obtain advantage from the low family exemption and from such government-sponsored programs as Medicaid. On the other hand, he does not make enough to permit him to take advantage of the numerous loopholes available to high-income people.

At the state and local levels the problems of the middle-income taxpayers are compounded. Counties, school districts, as well as states and an increasing number of cities, are taking a bigger income tax bite.

All along the line, sales taxes, property taxes, fees, and licenses are being boosted. In quite a number of instances, increases in a single year have run to 20 per cent or higher.

Tax Overhaul Desperately Needed

Taxpayer revolts in the United States have been rare and pretty much restricted to local areas . . . although heavy taxation was one of the key factors which cost Great Britain much popular support in the American colonies and finally led to the Revolutionary War. But during the past year or two, citizens have been more eager to vote down, or pare, school budgets, bond issues, and outlays for municipal betterments.

Perhaps one reason why taxpayers are not yet more numerous and more vocal in their demands for federal tax reform is lack of real understanding of the primary role government spending plays in the inflationary spiral. In any event, a federal tax overhaul is desperately needed and broad restructuring of federal, state, and local tax policies and programs would make for more efficient government and a stronger economy.

Public Must Curb Appetites

Whatever the political persuasion of the next Administration in Washington, probability is that the new Congress will be more conservative than for some years past. Chances are good that meaningful studies looking toward broad and constructive tax changes will be instituted. But the overhaul that is needed will take at least two years—possibly more—to hammer out. In that interval, the temptation to water down initial reform proposals and come up with a piecemeal, hodgepodge omnibus tax bill will be very great.

Unfortunately, the worst enemies of tax reform are not the proponents of big government at high cost, but the public which demands more services, all of them expensive and many by their very nature not capable of being administered efficiently by government. Hence tax reform must have broad and strong public support to prevail.

REP. JAMES A. HALEY

90th Congress Showed 'Significant' Shift Towards Conservative Position

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Ninetieth Congress has, at long last, come to an end (barring the possibility which I hope is unlikely that an extra session might for some reason be ordered after the elections), as you know, and I am happy to have the opportunity to be at home to see and to talk to all of you whom I have the privilege of representing in our national legislature.

Looking back at the two years of the Ninetieth, and particularly the second year which has just come to a close, it is apparent to me that while it has its shortcomings, this Congress has done much to commend it to the people of the Nation.

It has been marked by a significant shift toward the conservative position and away from the liberal and sometimes leftist positions which have been the rule in the several Congresses which preceded it. It has, after years of undue submissiveness to the will of the incumbent Administration, moved to recapture for itself (and therefore for the people) some of the functions and prerogatives assigned to it by the Constitution. It has refused to rubber stamp the current Administration's demands for huge appropriations and for authorization of new and expanded programs costing billions of dollars.

At the same time, however, this Congress has not been neglectful of the people. It has expanded Social Security benefits and benefits for veterans, for instance, to meet at least to some extent the rising cost of living and the burdens of inflation. It has taken prudent action to continue programs in the fields of education, conservation of natural resources, air and water pollution control, and highway construction. It has taken steps to control crime in the streets and to deal with those who incite riots in the cities—and, miracle of miracles, it has cracked down severely on the ceaseless wastefulness of foreign aid, that instrument of our abortive "dollar diplomacy" foreign policy program.

It has, of course, done things which it should not have, in my opinion, done and it similarly has left undone some things which perhaps it should have done. But this is true of every Congress. It seems to me that it is less true of this Congress than of those which have immediately preceded it in the past two decades. And, for this reason, the existence and the actions of the Ninetieth Congress may well prove to be the signal light for a movement to return the government to the people and to return government policy to one of sound fiscal policy and economic sanity. If we are to survive as the Nation our forefathers intended us to be, and which I believe every real American wants us to be, these are necessary steps which must be taken.

This will be the last of my weekly reports to you this year, assuming that we are not called back to Washington, but they will be resumed in January at the outset of the Ninety-first Congress, in which I hope to continue to have the privilege of being your spokesman in Washington.

You will, however, hear from me once again in the weeks ahead. As you will recall, at the end of the period allowed at the end of the session for the President to sign into law those bills which he approves and to reject any which he may disapprove.

During the period of adjournment, our office in Washington will remain open and in operation, prepared to handle any problems with which you may need help. And our offices in Bartow and Sarasota also will be in operation, and you will be able to reach me through either of them.

TURN IT SIDEWAYS! Thunderbirds are really 100 feet from ground, flying horizontally. They appear at Kissimmee's Air Fair, Sat., Nov. 2.

AUTHOR OF FLORIDA'S TOUGH ANTI-RIOT LAWS

BOB RUST

THE RIGHT MAN FOR RIGHT NOW!

REP. RUST, Republican

RIGHT NOW, even as you read this, new crimes of assault and robbery and rape are being committed in our state. The national crime rate is at an all-time high. Yet we continue to pamper criminals under the guise of protecting their rights—letting them go free to endanger the safety of law-abiding citizens. RUST IS THE RIGHT MAN to deal with this problem. He's spent his entire career fighting crime. Last year he introduced the most significant package of anti-crime bills ever to pass the Florida legislature. Rust believes criminals should be treated like criminals —and that our law enforcement agencies should receive whatever they need to protect the lives and property of our citizens.

RIGHT NOW new and more terrible riots are being plotted. Men of violence, whose creed is to destroy what they can't have—who preach burning and looting and shooting as means to their ends—are allowed to stir up hate, foment revolt against our institutions and our way of life. RUST IS THE RIGHT MAN to deal with this problem. He authored the tough new anti-riot bills that were voted into law by the Florida legislature. He believes we've been too permissive for too long, that it's time to crack down.

RIGHT NOW Americans are dying in Vietnam, and thousands more prepare to take their place. For four years we've been bogged down in this endless, divisive war—afraid to move ahead, afraid to pull out, getting nowhere in our peace negotiations. RUST IS THE RIGHT MAN to deal with this problem. A lieutenant-colonel in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, with 20 years service, he is uniquely qualified to speak out on military matters. In Washington he will push hard for a new Vietnam policy that will bring the war to a quick and honorable end.

RIGHT NOW prices are moving up, adding even more to the high cost of running your home and business. Inflation silently picks your pocket, reduces the value of your savings, lowers your standard of living. RUST IS THE RIGHT MAN to deal with this problem. He recognizes that the major cause of inflation is excessive government spending. In the state legislature he has consistently voted to cut unnecessary expenditures—and he'll continue to support economy measures in Washington.

RIGHT NOW, the Prayer Amendment is shelved by a "liberal" Committee Chairman in the Congress. RUST IS THE RIGHT MAN to change the control of Congress. He will vote for conservative Committee Chairmen.

We need new men and new leadership... BOB RUST is willing to "stand up and be counted"

FOR A CHANGE IN WASHINGTON... VOTE RUST!

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

A Michigan psychiatrist says the chronic alcoholic is a real menace on the highway even more so than the "social drinker."

Dr. Melvin Selzer, who has made a three-year study of fatal accidents for the University of Michigan's Highway Research Institute, says, "The unrecognized danger is the driver who drinks to excess and who usually has emotional or mental problems." This, of course, fits the alcoholic to a "T".

Of course, the risk of accidents rises the more drinks any individual has. But the greater peril seems to be the addict to alcohol who may have an ordinary traffic record right up to his first—and last—major accident.

Selzer studied the personal history of 90 drivers responsible for fatal accidents, and found 26 to be known alcoholics.

"The presence of a large number of alcohol-addicted drivers in this group suggests why the problem of the drinking driver has not been resolved," he says.

Selzer adds that alcoholics tend to have overwhelming emotional and personal problems, and that this may be as important as intoxication in causing accidents.

The common recognition factor for the drinking driver is simply out-of-the ordinary driving. California lists the following 14 deviations from normal driving in a manual issued by the state:

1. Unreasonable speed (high).
2. Driving in spurts—slow, then fast, then slow, etc.
3. Frequent lane changing with excessive speed.
4. Improper passing with insufficient clearance; also taking too long or swerving too much in overtaking and passing.
5. Overshooting or disregarding traffic control signals.
6. Approaching signals unreasonably fast or slow, and stopping or attempting to stop with uneven motion.
7. Driving at night without lights; delay in turning lights on when starting from a parked position.
8. Failure to dim lights to oncoming traffic.
9. Driving in lower gears without apparent reason, or repeatedly clashing gears.
10. Jerky starting or stopping.
11. Driving unreasonably slow.
12. Driving too close to shoulders or curbs, or appearing to hug the edge of the road or continually straddling the center line.
13. Driving with windows down in cold weather.
14. Driving or riding with head partly or completely out of the window.

CORRECT TIRE INFLATION is determined by these two factors:

The specification set forth by the manufacturer under normal driving conditions and the additional load factor you may add to your car. With today's wide tread design, UNDER INFLATION will result in excessive wear to the outside areas of the tread. The center area tends to flex upwards reducing it's contact with the road. OVER INFLATION "rounds out" the tire. The center area will have a more pronounced contact with the road resulting in excessive area wear. Proper inflation and tire rotation every 6,000 miles may add as much as 20% to the life of your tire.

John Sweet To Go On Trial Monday For Maxey Murder

"He hated Von's guts," she said. . . . "He phoned and told me 'It's all over dear'. . . I pleaded for him not to do it but he said he was going to have me one way or the other".

Will this be widow Irene Maxcy's testimony again when the re-trial of her former lover John J. Sweet 52, for the two-year-old murder-for-hire of Charles VonCanon Maxcy, 42, gets under way Monday morning in Bartow?

There is considerable thinking it will not. State's Attorney Glen Darty, who will prosecute the case again, has told the court he expects Mrs. Maxcy to be a hostile witness.

And the sordid love affair between gambler-land salesman Sweet and the buxom three-married widow, which preceded the murder October 3, 1966, of the handsome young Sebring millionaire citrus and cattle baron, may have flamed up again.

The short, stocky, baldine Sweet and Irene were seen having lunch together in Tampa last February. Sebringites saw them late one night in May at Maxcy's Truck Stop North of town.

In Riveria Beach

Irene now is reported living in Riviera Beach in an apartment with her daughter, Marivon Maxcy, 8. There have been reports that Sweet was with her there, but a friend of Sweet said he has been in Massachusetts, his former home. Could he have been both places? Friends think so.

The trial, which ended last November 11 in Bartow's dingy second floor courtroom A, after a jury of nine men and three women found themselves hopelessly deadlocked, originally was scheduled to be retried in mid-May.

This proved impossible, when two Massachusetts women slated to testify were unavailable. They were Mrs. William (Jeanne) Kelly, who could not be found, and Mrs. Annette Etter Abrams, who was pregnant. She since has had her child.

Attorney Darty has called most of the nearly 80 witnesses who testified before and "all those called from Massachusetts will be here."

Body Stuffed in Trunk

Darty was in Boston October 10 for a hearing on the Kelly woman, who was fighting extradition on the basis of hardship. The testimony of the women had placed their husbands in Florida at the time of the murder. Andrew Von Etter was found murdered just four months after Maxcy's murder, his body stuffed in the trunk of his own car.

Kelly, who was a service station attendant, is walking around free in Boston and his lawyer has put up a successful fight to keep Darty from talking to him.

The Boston judge ruled last week that Mrs. Kelly will have to come to Florida to testify.

At the first trial, in an unusual defense move, Sweet took the stand to declare he was "just an errand boy" for the attractive and now very wealthy widow, a former cannery worker in the Maxcy plant.

Pallbearer

Sweet, who was one of Maxcy's pallbearers, denied having a part in the murder. It was testified that Sweet was having dinner in the Sebring Elks Club at the time of the murder. Maxcy was found shot and stabbed to death in the master bedroom of his luxurious Sparta Road home West of Sebring.

Defense Attorneys James McEwen and Walter Manley fought unsuccessfully to get depositions from the widow Maxcy before the first trial in order to get an idea of her testimony. They now will have an enormous amount of material, gleaned at the first trial, from which to assemble their defense—including Irene's testimony in detail.

Unconfirmed rumors say that state's investigator Roma Trubick who was successful in talking to Mrs. Maxcy before Sweet's arrest and indictment, may play a larger part in the trial this go-round. Sweet's testimony linked Trubick and Irene romantically, but Trubick has denied this.

Apparently there will be few changes in the cast of characters for the sensational case. Attorney James McEwen of Tampa, the red-haired soft-spoken big gun for the defense, again plans to put Sweet on the stand in his own defense and they plan to call a few additional witnesses.

He has said "we are going to have a different trial than we had before." Irene Maxcy, of course, still will retain her immunity. It was testified at the trial that Irene had told Hy Grees, a friend of Sweet, that "I know Von wants a divorce, but I'll see him dead before any woman winds up with his money."

12 Days of Trial

The first trial took 12 days and is expected to take about that long again. Sweet took the stand at his first trial. The first few days are expected to be taken up by selection of a jury and if Darty follows the same course as last time, his first witness will be Irene Maxcy. On opening day, trial time is 9:30 A.M. and on succeeding days, 9 A.M.

Since Maxcy's death, proceeds of a $300,000 insurance policy have been turned over to Mrs. Maxcy and she has sold several valuable items of property she held jointly with her late husband. She elected to take dower which gives her most of the estate after bills are paid.

Mrs. Sweet, the couple's two sons and daughter, Patricia Gallagher, wife of a Boston policeman, are again expected to stand by Sweet.

Sebring's assistant state attorney Joe Macbeth will assist Darty in the prosecution. Darty has stated in court:

"It is my opinion that Irene Maxcy may testify falsely to certain material facts and may attempt to conceal certain facts bearing upon the question of the guilt of the defendant."

Sweet, in his testimony to the jury during the last go-round, testified he "still has feelings" for the sexy widow.

Social Security Questions And Answers

By JACK CARTER

Q. I have been unable to do any work at all since I was 36 years old. I filed one application with Social Security and was turned down because I had not worked long enough. Do I need to file another application now to have my claim considered under the 1967 amendments to Social Security?

A. Yes, the changes for insured requirements of disabled workers is effective for applications filed after December, 1967.

Q. I am going to be 65 years old in November and my company will not allow me to work any more after my 65th birthday. I will have earned $7,800 before I retire. Can I get my Social Security check for December?

A. Yes, you may get your Social Security check for any month in which you neither earn wages of $140 or render substantial service in self-employment.

Q. My doctor wrote a prescription for me while I was in the hospital. I am to get it filled when I go home. Will my Medicare pay for the medicine?

A. No, Medicare does not pay for prescription drugs that are not furnished by the hospital or extended care facility.

Q. When I tried to get a check cashed and showed my Social Security card for identification, I was told that the Social Security office would not tell him if that was my number or not. Is this true?

A. Yes, your Social Security number is confidential.

Q. I am now receiving Social Security benefits as a full-time student. I will not go back to school after this semester is over until next September. I know that my checks will stop, but can I again draw next September?

A. Student benefits can be reinstated when a student is under 22, unmarried and enrolled in an accredited school as a full-time student. You will need to get in touch with the Social Security office to reinstate your benefits.

Q. Because I work full time in my business, I haven't applied for retirement benefits. I'll be 65 in November. Can I sign up for Medicare even though I'm not drawing social security checks?

A. Right. You do not need to draw in order to apply for Medicare. Come to the social security office one to three months before you're 65. Bring whatever proof of age you have available and your last year's federal income tax return with all schedules and attachments and cancelled check or other receipt showing the return was filed with Internal Revenue. Even though you're not retired you may qualify for Medicare insurance. To avoid losing protection do this before the month you reach 65.

Barbara Spires and James Baucom Married In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Barbara Jean Spires and James Houston Baucom were united in marriage in a double-ring ceremony at the Church of God in Sebring. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Spires of State Road 17 North, and Mr. and Mrs. James V. Baucom of Avon Park.

Rev. Don Statin of Avon Park, officiated at the ceremony, following a program of nuptial music presented by Mrs. Lillian Johnson, organist, and Richard Dixson, vocalist.

Lighted candelabra shaped to a high arch and baskets of white mums were arranged against a background of palms and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of beaded re-embroidered Alencon lace and white satin, designed on empire lines. The long sleeves tapered at the wrists, and her train was fashioned of the satin. A crown of seed pearls held her shoulder-length veil, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and mums.

Miss Terry Moore attended as maid of honor, wearing a floor-length gown of blue satin and lace with chiffon overskirt. Her short blue veil fell from a matching headpiece, and she carried a nosegay of white mums.

Miss Margie Cannon, sister of the bride, Miss Mary Hill and Miss Marva Spires, cousin of the bride, served as bridesmaids. They wore identical long gowns of yellow satin and lace, with chiffon overskirts. Matching headpieces held their short veils, and their flowers were nosegays of white mums.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress and the bridegroom's mother chose a green dress trimmed in tan. Both were street-length, and they each wore a corsage of white mums.

Ron Maury, brother-in-law of the bride, attended as best man. Ushers were Marvin Spires and Andrew Spires, uncles of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room of the church. White and yellow chrysanthemums, entwined with fern, decorated the bride's table. A three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple centered the table, overlaid with a satin and lace cloth.

Mrs. Mary Ann Yates was at the bride's book. Punch was served by Miss Connie Moore and Miss Imogene Spires, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Betty Ann Maury, sister of the bride, and Miss Faye Spires, the bride's aunt, cut and served the wedding cake.

The bride wore for the wedding trip, a white suit trimmed in green, with matching accessories, and the white rose corsage, lifted from her wedding bouquet.

Upon their return from Atlanta, and various parts of the state the couple will reside at 309 North Lakeview Drive in Sebring.

Kwik Chek Team Beats Sebring Jaycees 17-15

The Avon Park Kwik Chek softball team made a splendid come back Monday evening by defeating the same team that they lost to last week. It was another close game, but Kwik Chek was ahead the whole game, beating Sebring Jaycees by a score of 17-15.

They will play one more game in Avon Park, Thursday night at 8 o'clock. The public is urged to attend and see a good game. If Avon Park wins this game and the Sebring Kwik Chek wins their game, they will be tied for first place. If one team wins, the other loses their game, the winner will be in first place. In the event of a tie, there will be a play-off.

FACULTY and faculty wives at salad bar Thursday. Left to right, Mrs. Ronald Cowart, Mrs. Lou Miller, Mrs. Larry Hooper, Mrs. Frank Handley, Mrs. Daniel Walsh, Mrs. Alex Huey, Mrs. J. L. Ingle and Mrs. Ellis Watson. THE GIRLS from grades seven, eight, and nine at Hopewell met to discuss way of improving their bathroom facilities. They understood that the old building would be part of the "phase out" program, so it was not practical to expect any major renovations. However, it was agreed that general cleaning and a paint job would surely help. With the cooperation of their homeroom sponsors, and the delighted approval of Mr. Sims, the principal, paint and brushes were secured. Volunteers quickly signed up in crews, to work after school and on Saturdays. Also a committee was formed to make curtains to add a touch of privacy and lend a decorative effect. The girls seem pleased with their efforts, and the school is proud of its endeavor. The boys are now sending out the message, loud and clear, that they too would like a "painting project."

Air Force Bands Seek Musicians

Men and women in the Highlands County area who play musical instruments may be able to join the Air Force with guaranteed assignment to the Air Force band of their choice, Sergeant John Contorno, Air Force recruiter in Lakeland, announced.

To qualify, a musician must be auditioned by the director of the Air Force band nearest his home—the MacDill Air Force Base Band at Tampa in the case of men and women in the area.

In most cases, a bandsman can pick his assignment from a list of bands which have vacancies for the instrument he plays.

Sergeant Contorno said that while Air Force bands play for music and ceremonies, each band has a marching unit, a concert band, a glee club, combos, a dance band and various ensembles. Air Force bandsmen get a chance to improve their musical education, too, through instruction in conducting, ear-training, sight-singing, and vocal and instrumental techniques.

Baptist Girls Attend Meeting In Miami

Sixteen Girl Auxiliaries and four councellors from the First Baptist Church spent the week-end in Miami Beach where they attended the Girl Auxiliary House Party held at Miami Shore. First Baptist Church in Miami. They stayed at the Holiday Motel in Miami Beach and attended all four sessions of the house party where they listened to the inspirational testimony of five missionaries, as they told of their work and presented the need on the mission fields.

Theme was to "Make Christ Known." Missionaries who spoke were: Mrs. Genus Crenshaw, worker among Indians, from Dania, Fla.; Mrs. Rafael De Armas, worker with migrants, from Perrine, Fla. Miss Lucille Kerrigan, worker in Freedom House in Miami with refugees. Mrs. Carlos Owens, Tanzania, Africa and Miss Peggy Pemble from Brazil.

On Saturday evening the church presented the procession of Queens. The girls also met seven Baptist convention officers in addition to the State director and executive secretary.

Spare time was given for shopping and sightseeing so they could tour the hotels and shops. Highlight of the free time was the trip to the famous Jewish restaurant, "Wolfies" where they were graciously received and were given souvenirs.

A worn and weary group returned Sunday afternoon but spiritually renewed by the inspiring testimony given and a broader vision of "God's will for all People".

They are grateful to the church members for making this trip possible. Among the girls who attended were two queens —with a scepter, nine queens and three princesses, one lady-in-waiting and one maid.

Science Church Sunday Service

"Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him."

This verse from James is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled "Probation After Death," to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

One of the related passages to be read from the denominational textbook is the following: "During the sensual ages, absolute Christian Science may not be achieved prior to the change called death, for we have not the power to demonstrate what we cannot understand. But the human self must be evangelized. This task God demands us to accept lovingly today, and to abandon so fast as practical the material, and to work out the spiritual which determines the outward and actual." (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

AN AMERICAN ALERT!

To you who are voting November 5th. Please remember, you are for the good of your country, and not considering party wise, your selection of a presidential candidate. Remember also your country is in dire trouble as a soverign nation with cities burning—inflation—high taxes—lawlessness, etc.

Your duty is to Vote for a real grass roots man — GEORGE C. WALLACE.

With him carry into office, two conservatives namely: Edward Gurney, for the Senate and Robert Rust, for the House of Representatives.

Make Avon Park More Beautiful Progress

Public spirited representation from civic clubs met to organize plans for a beautification committee. City Council urged civic clubs to participate in this planning and work to continue the clean up, paint up, fix up campaign that kicked off October 1.

Some delapidated buildings have been removed, fewer garbage cans remain on the street throughout the week, weeded lots have been mowed, some junk cars have been moved. This isn't enough. Mr. Homeowner must stay with these problems in order to make our city beautiful and attractive to our neighbor and the visitors coming our way.

The Mile Long Mall, with all the work of the pioneers and spirited citizens such as Mr. Charles S. Donaldson, a former mayor and exemplary citizen, made our mall beautiful and distinct. Rare trees and shrubbery in it now nearly extinct need our tender loving care. Under the supervision of the Garden Club, the remaining rare specimens will be named and tagged. During the 30's, at the East end of the mall in front of city hall was one of the largest collections of cactus in the United States housed outdoors in a small but attractive hut.

Other than making publicity about future plans, lets make news of completed projects—restoration of old beauty plus replacement of decadent spots with installation of typical Florida landscaping together with required installation of irrigation equipment for maintenance with authorative care.

If you are not a member of a local civic group, you might like to join this campaign. Call GL 3-3350 and offer your services.

Bankers Awards Go To Outstanding Farmers

The annual Bankers Awards to outstanding conservation farmers and ranchers highlighted the 28th annual meeting of Highlands County Farm Bureau.

The awards went to Ben Hill Griffin, citrus grower, and his production staff, R. L. Padgett and Norman Todd of Avon Park. Leonard Godwin, manager of the Westby Corporation Ranch, Lake Placid, and Chester Sullivan, farmer-rancher, of Venus.

State Comptroller C. Bud Dickinson of Tallahassee was the speaker at the meeting held Monday night at Camp Cloverleaf, Lake Placid. Awards were presented by Rex Bond, president of First National Bank of Sebring, acting for the Florida Bankers Association and the Highlands Soil and Water Conservation district.

Dickinson declared he feels that through proper farming methods agriculture can keep abreast of a growing state which now is nearing six million in population and requires an annual public expenditure of two billion dollars to finance roads and other business of state government.

He brought cheers from the crowd when he stressed that the state is not borrowing money but is operating "pay as you go."

Bond pointed out that farming and ranching is big business in Florida and that the word "agribusiness" has become an acceptable expression for the complex job of managing a farm. He said the people chosen for the awards had done an outstanding job in developing and carrying out a complete soil and water conservation plan.

About 300 bureau members and guests enjoyed barbecued chicken and swamp cabbage prepared under supervision of a committee headed by L. L. Holmes.

Elected as new directors were Mr. Holmes, Ed Touchton, Jr., Leon Tubbs, Charles Reynolds, Jr. Holdover directors are Norman Todd, Marvin Kahn, C. Elton Crews, Billy Waggaman, Felix Uzzell, Ricky Dressel, C. M. Payne and R. B. Oxer.

America needs your help.

There is a new plan for Americans who want to help their country as they help themselves. Now, when you buy U.S. Savings Bonds through Payroll Savings where you work or the Bond-a-Month Plan where you bank, you are also entitled to purchase the new higher-paying Freedom Shares. They are available on a one-for-one basis with Savings Bonds in four denominations and are redeemable after one year. Sign up soon.

Questions and answers about Freedom Shares.

Q. What are Freedom Shares?

A. They are the new U.S. Savings Notes . . . a companion product to the Series E Savings Bond.

Q. Who may buy Freedom Shares?

A. Any individual who purchases Series E Bonds regularly through a formal plan—either Payroll Savings where he works or Bond-a-Month where he banks.

Q. What is the interest rate on Freedom Shares?

A. 4.74% compounded semiannually, when held to maturity of 4½ years. The rate is less if redeemed prior to maturity; and they may not be redeemed for at least one year.

Q. Does this same rate now apply to E Bonds?

A. No. E Bonds continue to return an average of 4.15% when held to their seven-year maturity.

Q. What do Freedom Shares cost?

A. They are issued in face amounts of $25, $50, $75, and $100. Purchase prices are $20.25, $40.50, $60.75, and $81.00.

Q. Can Freedom Shares be bought by themselves?

A. No. They must be bought in conjunction with E Bonds of the same or larger face amounts. For example, a $25 Freedom Share may be bought with a $25 E Bond, when on a regular plan. The total price would be $39 ($20.25 for the Freedom Share and $18.75 for the Bond).

Q. Can I buy as many Freedom Shares as I want, as long as I buy E Bonds of the same or larger amounts?

A. No. On Payroll Savings, Freedom Share deductions are limited to $20.25 per weekly pay period, $40.50 per bi-weekly or semimonthly pay period, $81.00 per monthly pay period. On Bond-a-Month, the limit on Freedom Share deductions is $81.00 per month.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

Recently arrived here in time to experience the suspense of waiting for hurricane "Gladys" and grateful that she passed us by with only rain are, Mr. and Mrs. Kellie Larrew, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson.

Word of Rosa Bennington has been received stating that she will be remaining in Louisville, Ky. with her sister, Mrs. George McAleesee of Belknap Beach for an indefinite period due to Mrs. McAleesee suffering from a broken arm. We wish her a speedy recovery. Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Geib visited with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rue of Bonita Springs on Sunday, reliving hummer experiences.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson this past week were, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Converse who are now residing at Fedhaven in East Lake Wales. They are very pleased with the new location and thier garden apartment, although they are missing the many friends which they made while residing here in our Park.

Comments of new arrivals and visitors are very favorable for the "new look" of Avon Mobile Home Park. It is a pleasure to stroll along the new avenues and enjoy the many beautiful flowers and green lawns. Lucille and Franklin have put in many hours of labor this summer to make it this way, and it was worth it.

Winter Guest Club News

Shuffling

Hurricane Gladys did not prevent the tournament on Wednesday evening, although many stayed home thinking it would probably rain. And we did have plenty of rain for several days.

Only five and a half courts, with Ruth Jordan and Chris Cabezas taking the honors, Harry Gibson and Grace Warner were the runners-up. Herb Shauger and Ralph Crocker won in consolation over Allene Howard and Gertrude Fensterman.

Nine courts in play on Saturday evening, most we have had yet this season. Main winners were Kate McAlexander and Charles Fensterman over Allene Howard and A. McAlexander. Jim Brown and Reed Simpson were consolation winners. Grace Warner and Harry Wilde were the runners-up.

Card Games

Julius Jacoby and Juanita Carr were almost tie winners in Pinochle on Monday afternoon. Their scores were 792 and 789. Three tables were in play.

In bridge on Tuesday high score went to La Rue Longanecker with 4640. Charles Brush came in second with 4210. There were 12 players.

Dances

Two birthdays were celebrated at the dances this past week. On Monday evening refreshments were served to honor Ota Gibson on her birthday. Seventeen were present, it being such a rainy night.

Illeon Kull served the refreshments on Friday in honor of her sister, Olive Kerwin. Twenty-eight were there that evening.

Supper

There is a certain fellowship when folks eat together, and that is the way club members find it, for there were 12 at the supper on Saturday evening. Many are now returning from the North to spend the Winter months here. Among them at the supper were three couples from Sun Ray.

Anna Spring returned thanks for all the good food. Arlene Lane was the hostess.

Recently returned seen on the courts Saturday evening were: Glenn and Mildred Long from Plantsville, Conn. Lewis and Anna Spring from Warsaw, N. Y. and Alton and Elizabeth Bartlett also from Warsaw, N.Y.

Troop 305 Elects Officers Oct. 3

Girl Scout Troop No. 305 are off to a good start for the coming year, completing activity plans and electing officers.

Officers elected are: scribe, Candis Jahga; treasurer, Kathy Greene; scrap book chairman, Lou Ann Tatum; patrol leaders, Kelly Griffin, Annie Allen, Lou Ann Tatum, and Patricia Cravey.

Patricia Cravey was elected as the Juliette Low chairman for the year.

A group of the girls and their leaders Mrs. James Cravey, visited Walker Memorial Hospital, October 10, and took toys they had made to the children's sick room. This finished their requirement for the Toy Maker badge.

This year they are working on needle craft and sewing, working on My Community, Active Citizen and Hospitality badges.

Leaders for the troop are Mrs. Evelyn Klien, Mrs. Louise Hamm and Mrs. Vernelle Cravey.

So he can justify $28,000.00 paid him by Claude Kirk's Turnpike Authority. There was never a violation of the public trust by Leroy Collins during his term as a public official.

Leroy will work as a team with U. S. Senator Spessard Holland and not as a political foe.

Civil Defense Director Told Not To Build An Empire

"Let's not build too big an empire," was the comment from the Highlands County Commission Tuesday when Civil Defense Director Jim Lawson presented some equipment requests.

Lawson had asked County Attorney Hue Nunnallee to investigate the legality of placing civil defense-owned radios in the personal automobiles of key volunteer workers.

He said the radio units cost $400 to $500 each new, but he believes reconditioned units may be purchased for $40 to $50 each. He estimated seven units would be needed.

The board promised Lawson they would study his request, but Commissioner Earl Crutchfield commented, "Let's not build too big an empire. We need to have someone to save."

Commissioner Cecil P. Skipper added, "If we save everyone who has a job in civil defense we'll have saved a lot of people."

Lawson told the commissioners he needs to keep in touch with key workers, but these workers do not use publicly owned cars. The county commissioners had to obtain special legislation to permit placement of county-owned radios in their personal cars.

The commissioners were more agreeable on Lawson's other requests Tuesday. They agreed to allow placement of several small radio antennas on the roof of the courthouse, to allow the department secretary to go to west Palm Beach for training in the state civil defense bookkeeping methods, and to approve George Crist and Thurman Haywood's attendance at the annual emergency medical training school in Miami.

The board also adopted a "continuity in government" resolution. By this resolution each elected county official is directed to name not less than three no more than seven persons who could be called on to fill that official's job if, in time of nuclear attack, the official who has been elected is not available.

Social Security Questions And Answers

By JACK CARTER
Social Security Representative

Q. I am 62 years old and receive social security benefits as a widow. If I remarry will my social security checks stop?

A. No, social security benefits will continue to be paid to you on your late husband's earning account. Anyone receiving widow's benefits or widower's benefits who remarried at age 60 or later continues to receive the benefit but the amount of the check will be reduced to one-half of the deceased spouses' benefit amount.

Q. I receive social security benefits because my husband is deceased and I have minor children in the home. If I take a job that pays $60 a week, will my children's social security checks be affected?

A. No, the only change made by your work and earnings will be in your social security benefit. Your work will not cause any change in your children's checks.

Q. I will be 72 years old next month. I am enrolled in Medicare and I continue to work. Is it possible that I might soon receive social security benefits even though I continue to work?

A. Yes, regardless of the amount of your earnings, social security benefits can be paid to you for any month you are age 72 or over.

Q. I am receiving social security benefits but I am working part-time. My employer deducts FICA taxes from my check. Is this proper?

A. Yes, FICA tax is to be paid on your wages even though you do receive social security benefits. The FICA tax is deducted because you have earnings, and is in no way determined by your age or by whether or not you receive social security benefits.

Q. I'm a 64 year old retired worker drawing social security benefits. I've heard you should apply for Medicare in advance. How soon should I do this?

A. All you need do is wait for the little card that will be mailed to you three months before you're 65. When it comes indicate your decision about Medicare by checking "Yes" or "No", signing the card and returning it in the mail.

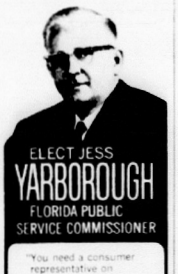

Q. I'm a housewife who has never done any kind of work outside the home. I'm five years older than my husband who is still working. I'll be 65 in September. How do I go about signing up for Medicare?

A. Since you do not have any work credits under social security you are not eligible for Part A hospital benefits (minimum work required is $50 in wages in three calendar quarters). However, you can sign up for Part B medical insurance only, two or three months before you're 65. If you wait until the month you're 65 or later you may lose valuable protection.

Q. I haven't signed up for retirement benefits because I'm doing steady work. I've heard that you can save time by applying for Medicare before you're 65. I'll be 65 in six months. Can I put in for Medicare now?

A. No. The law says you cannot file an effective application more than three months before your 65th birthday.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported By DAVID LANIER

Last week our guest speaker was George Douglass, Highlands County School Superintendent. Mr. Douglass spoke to the club in regard to the current problems facing the Highlands County school system in complying with the desegregation demands required by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Douglass said that after the 1964 Civil Rights laws were established, the HEW established certain "guidelines" in 1965 which were to be followed by school systems in desegregating schools in the South.

On June 30, 1965, the Highlands County school board submitted its plan based on geographical attendance zones combined with "freedom of choice." Since then the board has had to submit a new plan or implement its plan each year as the HEW changed the guidelines from a policy of "desegregation" to a policy of "integration."

Highlands County schools have been operating under the plan adopted by the board which has resulted in a 20 per cent to 40 per cent integration of negro and white students throughout the county. There are, for example, 40 per cent of the negro students attending predominately white schools and 25 white teachers are teaching in predominately negro schools and 10 negro teachers in predominately white schools.

Some of the schools in the county are predominately negro or white depending upon the neighborhood in which they are located. On September 13, 1968, the Highlands County school board found that its plan was no longer acceptable to the HEW and that the HEW now demanded integration of all schools to the extent 50 per cent would be negro and 50 per cent white, regardless of the location of the schools or choice of the students and families and that this should be accomplished by September of 1969.

This, of course, would be impossible to do, he said, without a greatly increased and accelerated building program which could not be completed by that time even if funds were available, which they are not, or by "busing," transporting students from their neighborhood to a distant school in order that the correct balance of color may be achieved.

The school board has now been cited by the HEW for not desegregation faculty assignments and operating some small and inadequate schools. A statement of intent was submitted by the board expressing what the board intended to do however, this was not acceptable to HEW and further that the board was not complying with the law in that this statement of intent did not state that the board would remove all vestige of dual school systems by 1969. As already explained this would be impossible without "busing" students, yet the HEW insists that they do not require "busing!"

The method for enforcing the HEW "guidelines" is to withhold federal funds from the school system. These funds were already included in the current budget and the threat of withholding did not come until after the budget was established.

The federal funds which would be withheld would amount to about $125,000 of which approximately $54,000 would be for teacher salaries which would have to be paid according to the contracts whether the federal funds were available or not.

In answer to the question "Why not raise the money locally and let the federal government keep their money," Douglass said that this would not really solve the problem as in that event, the HEW would then resort to the courts to force compliance. As it stands now, the only possible way to retain the federal funds is by delaying final action as long as possible.

The board has now requested a supplemental survey to reorganize the school system to use the buildings they now have and at the same time comply with the HEW mandates. The survey has been completed and submitted to the board but not accepted by the board. The plan now under consideration is a grouping of school grades into three groups, four elementary grades, four intermediate grades and four high school grades.

Wallace Sends Christian To Iowa

Raymond Christian, national coordinator with the Wallace-LeMay campaign, after two nights at home from Baltimore, Md., is being sent to Davenport, Iowa. He reported that Governor Wallace spoke to a capacity crowd at the 12,198 seat Baltimore Civic Center auditorium. Christian who is on the advance coordinating team will make the arrangements for Governor Wallace's national campaign appearance in Davenport, October 21.

Christian, a retired automobile dealer now in the cattle business has been asked how he, from a small county in South Florida, became so involved in the Wallace campaign.

His reply is that the campaign officials realized he was not afraid to assume responsibilities nor of long hard hours of work.

When asked to comment on the election Christian said, "After seeing the complete disregard for law and order and the disrespect for the property and rights of all citizens in and around Baltimore and Washington, D. C., and seeing the large crowds and the support that Governor Wallace has received from all over the United States in the past three months, I predict the election on November 5 will be the biggest upset in our history."

TERMITE DAMAGE

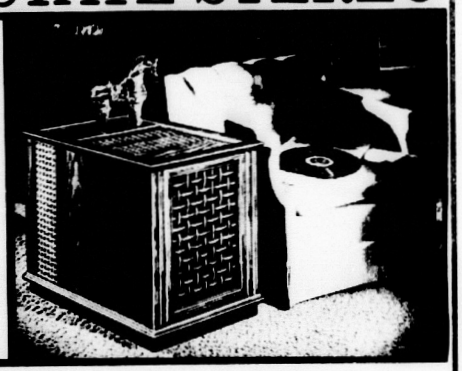

Termites do millions of dollars worth of damage to residential and commercial construction every year. No building is safe, in areas in which termites occur. From colonies in the soil, termite workers forage for wood. They also construct mud tubes over concrete or masonry, to reach wood. Their damage is seldom apparent until it reaches a serious stage, because they work within wood, and do not break the surface. Badly infested buildings may suddenly sag, because termite feeding has weakened main timbers. By the time that termite damage becomes apparent, costly repairs may be needed.

No Hog Cholera Reported In County

Florida's outbreak of hog cholera has not yet touched Highlands County, Bert Harris, county agent, said this week.

There are about 10 herds in the county, the biggest numbering 100 swine on a farm South of Lake Placid.

Hog cholera, Harris said, is a deadly contagious disease that attacks swine only. Man cannot contact it. However, it can be easily spread. It can be spread from an infected area on one's shoes, from contaminated barns and stockyards; from improperly cooked garbage containing pork trimmings from infected hogs.

Harris advised swine owners to stay away from other farms, among many other precautions, and to keep other people's vehicles, such as rendering plant trucks and feed company trucks away from hog lots and pastures.

Weary of weather watching?

Step up to total comfort electrically and forget Florida's fast temperature changes.

In a Florida winter, you may want heating at breakfast and cooling at lunch—and neither in between. That's why it seems that a flameless heat pump was invented with Florida in mind. You just set it at your comfort level—and forget it. It nimbly adjusts to the most sudden temperature switch . . . heats, cools, or turns off. You can discard barometer and thermometer.

Why wait? Update your home now.

Any residential customer who replaces flame-type heating with whole-house electric heating and cooling between now and Dec. 1, 1968, will receive a $50 installation allowance from us. Get details from your heating or air conditioning contractor.

FIX-IT TIP

When building a patio right outside large windows or sliding glass doors, make it a weathered fir or cedar deck to prevent the problem of sun glare. Wood decks also can be more easily patched than concrete decks.

Fishing Grounds

The name Grand Banks is given to the 500-mile stretch of shallow water off the southeast coast of Newfoundland. It is one of the finest fishing grounds in the world.

Vote 'No' Tuesday On The New Proposed Florida Constitution

We have been had.

In the most sneaking kind of way.

As a culmination of the 50-year-old big county-little county fight which has been going on in the Legislature the little county bloc has been wiped out and the big counties have taken over.

Definitely, ruthlessly, permanently.

Because they have prepared a new constitution which they are asking us to adopt that will fix our clock for all time. Once adopted, there will be no chance of change or emendment.

There are a number of provisions which are not acceptable to the citizens of Highlands County and our voters must vote a resounding "no" on election day, next Tuesday.

At this late date, a few people have come to the conclusion that we have been brain-washed by the urban press, which has been telling us that the new constitution may not be perfect, but it is better than the old one.

It is not better for the small counties.

The Sebring City Council and the Highlands Board of County Commissioners have gone on record as opposing the proposed constitution mainly because of loss of state funds.

And well they may be disturbed.

For getting down to the fine print, we find that one of the major changes—and we suspect the chief inspiration for re-writing the basic document—was to take away a large slice of gas tax money from the smalls and give to the bigs.

The new formula will cost Highlands County a loss of $115,000, it is estimated. Hardee County will lose an estimated $180,000 — or over 40% —and DeSoto County will also lose over 40%. The cold figures show that Highlands' portion of the constitutional two cent gas tax allocation under the 1885 constitution was $605,897. Under the new proposed constitution it would be $490,847.

If Homestead Exemption is amended to allow a $10,000 exemption for all property owners over 65, this will cause a loss of revenue of about $10,500 to Sebring per year, $200 to Lake Placid and $39,000 to Avon Park.

This loss of state monies will mean an increase of local taxes to replace that loss. Look for an estimated increase of about $200,000 in the local tax take.

A source of worry to the Highlands County school board, the County Commission is the ceiling which has been put on millage they can levy for operational expenses—10 mills in each instance. With the rising costs of everything and state money cut down, this could be a problem in the not too distant future, they feel. The city operational millage currently is at the highest in its history —5.245; the schools, 8, and the county 4.795.

There may be some changes for the better in the new instrument, but it is not that good. Not $200,000 a year better—to Highlands County.

As it has been aptly pointed out, rewriting the constitution because it has been around a long time is poor reasoning. So has the constitution of the United States; so has the Bible. Both instruments seem to muddle through reasonably well, in spite of their age.

Another disadvantage of a new constitution would be the mass of litigation that would be necessary to test every phase of the new instrument. The old one has been tested in the courts for many years and we know where we stand. With a new one, we would have to start all over again. This would be painfully expensive, and much of the litigation would need to be brought by state, county and city agencies at taxpayers' expense.

Never was a voter more unprepared to pass judgment through referendum than he is in this election. And the results are vital, and lasting.

It is safe to say that not 1% of those voting have read the text of the new constitution. Instead, they are taking it for granted. They have been told it is better than the old, and without specific knowledge of its content, voters are apt to default in their responsibility and either acquiesce or pass it up entirely.

Small counties whose cause we sponsor will be the losers if it passes. The large counties will gain, not only financially, but in power to manipulate and rule future Legislatures.

Referring back to the re-apportionment of the gas tax, there may be cases where the smalls get a larger share than the bigs approve. But it must be remembered gas tax builds roads, and if it were not for state help, small counties in the early days would have never been able to piece the Florida road system together, and there would have been many a gap between the Georgia line and Miami.

Even to this date, Highlands County is putting a million dollars of its gas tax money into four-laning US 27, thus pledging its anticipated funds for years to come.

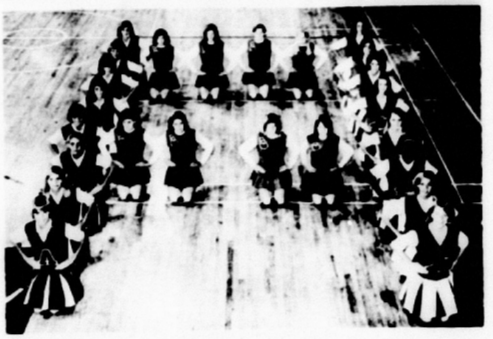

Loss of a few thousand dollars in gas tax is but a drop in the bucket to counties like Dade, Duval and Hillsborough. They have tremendous tax resources from which to draw.

Small counties—already taxed to the limit—cannot afford the loss and replacement taxes would prove a hardship on their taxpayers.

To cap the disadvantages of the constitution, itself, the manner in which the ballot is arranged leaves the voter in utter confusion as to what he is voting for.

Form of the ballot is prepared in Tallahassee, so local officials are not to

Irene Maxcy To Take Stand Friday In Murder Trial

The state's star witness, widow Irene Maxcy, is expected to take the stand tomorrow, (Friday) in the murder re-trial of her former lover John J. Sweet.

The 52-year-old gambler and land salesman, is accused of the for hire murder of her late husband, Charles VonCanon Maxcy, 42, found shot and stabbed to death two years ago.

Mrs. Maxcy, who this go-round may very well be a hostile witness, made a brief and unexpected courtroom appearance Tuesday at the Polk County courthouse in Bartow where Sweet is being re-tried. Accompanied by an unidentified man, she appeared briefly before the entrance of the presiding judge, William K. Love. She stood for a moment in the spectators' area, hurriedly looking over those in the courtroom.

State's Attorney Glen Darty has declared she may be a hostile witness. She has been seen socially with Sweet since the first trial. Should her testimony change, could she be accused and subsequently tried for perjury?

Darty and other officers of the court have been forbidden to discuss the case with news media, but informed sources say that perjury charges are not out of the realm of possibility if the testimony is substantially changed.

The same holds true for other witnesses who contradict previous testimony on vital points.

The selection of jurors to hear the case moved with surprising speed Monday and Tuesday. And Tuesday night, Judge Love told 17 prospective jurors, tentatively approved by lawyers for both sides, to show up with their bags packed.

They were to undergo questioning and face possible peremptory challenges as the process of finding a jury moved into another stage.

Darty, Joseph Macbeth of Sebring, his assistant, James M. McEwen of Tampa and Walter Manley of Lakeland, Sweet's lawyers, and Judge Love Monday and Tuesday questioned 47 men and women as prospective jurors.

Physical disabilities, personal problems and announced prejudices gave the judge cause to excuse 13. The lawyers' peremptory challenges, 10 each for the regular jury, plus two for the alternate jurors, chopped 14 more prospects from the list by the time Love recessed court at 5:25 P.M. Tuesday.

Fifty-member venires were summoned by deputy sheriffs to report on each of the first three days of the trial. Some were not located, others were excused before they had to report and still others went home or back to their jobs after presenting their reasons for not serving to Judge Love or to Circuit Court Judge J. H. Willson. Willson qualified and heard excuses of the prospective jurors who reported in Tuesday's venire as Love and the attorneys completed examination of the Monday venire.

Both the state attorneys and defense counsels have outlined to prospective jurors the immunity granted Mrs. Maxcy, 45, when she testified in May, 1967, before a Highlands County grand jury which indicted Sweet on the capital charge.

Love cautioned veniremen that neither the indictment nor Sweet's not-guilty plea are to be considered as evidence in the case. Sweet has been free under $25,000 bond since his arraignment.

The question of capital punishment has threatened to disqualify some jurors. Love explained to them their first obligation is to decide Sweet's guilt or innocence on the first-degree count. That verdict must be unanimous. He then pointed out that simple majority of the jury may then recommend mercy to the court, reducing a mandatory death sentence to life imprisonment. The judge also has said that lesser offenses than first degree murder may be considered, each of them carrying a capital penalty.

Last year's trial took two weeks of testimony and resulted in a hung jury, which on November 11 announced itself hopelessly deadlocked.

A jury of six men and six women were selected for the murder trial of John J. Sweet shortly after noon Wednesday.

The jurors are: Willie F. Tillis, Lakeland, laboratory technician; Marilyn B. Sersey, Lakeland, telephone operator; Lewis E. Morgan, boilermaker, Mulberry; David Allan Eschrich, Bartow, department head for Publix; Robert K. Lamb, Bartow, insurance underwriter; Lola Bush, Winter Haven, real estate.

Mary Butler, Lake Wales, business office, hospital; Lola Scouten, Lakeland; Vernon Peterson, Lakeland; Virginia Servis, Auburndale, housewife; John Kilpatrick, Lakeland, salesman; Eloise Scott, domestic, Lake Wales. Alternates are Little Jackson, Lakeland beautician and William Barry, Winter Haven, building materials.

Devils Downed by Clearwater; Meet Arcadia Here Friday

The hard-luck Red Devils will be at home tomorrow night for the first of a four game home stand with the high scoring DeSoto High Bulldogs offering the opposition. It will be the first home game for the Devils since September 27 when they hosted the Mulberry Panthers.

Next week will be an open date for Avon Park before finishing the season against Okeechobee, Lake Placid and Sebring all here at Memorial Stadium.

The DeSoto Bulldogs of Arcadia are riding high after dropping their opening game to Naples by a score of 15-7. Since that time the Bulldogs have defeated Charlotte High 33-6, Sebring 51-18, Cypress Lake 71-0, and North Fort Myers 42-0. Avon Park fans got a look at the Arcadia team in the pre-season jamboree. The Bulldogs combine a potent passing attack with receivers Jeff Varnadore and Charles Washington with a devastating running game and a strong defense.

The Red Devils, on the other hand, are still winless in six trys but have hopes of hitting the win column. Last week the Devils lost a heartbreaker to Clearwater Central Catholic 26-21 after leading at halftime 21-0. The Marauders went to the air in the second half and penetrated the Devil secondary for the four touchdowns.

Avon Park scored twice in the first quarter last week with Neal Caswell putting the first score on the board with a 40-yard run on an off-tackle quickie and Don Sisemore boated the extra point soccer style.

Willie Joe Seigler, who has been playing with a weak back all season, broke loose around right end for the Devils second TD on a 33-yard scamper. Again Sisemore's boot for the extra point was good.

Then in the second period, the Devils drove to the one yard line and Caswell slid through the line for the touchdown. The Devils drew a penalty on the extra point kick attempt but tossed a one-point pass to Seigler for the PAT from seven yards out.

Thats all there was for the Devils as the Marauders came back from the half-time rest fired up and took over. The Devil's offense bogged down and the Clearwater Catholic boys rifled the Avon Park defense with passes to score the four touchdowns and two extra points and take the win 26-21.

Special Guns Must Be Registered

The Gun Control Act of 1968, just passed by Congress and signed into law by the President, grants possessors of machine guns, sawed-off shotguns, sawed-off rifles, silencers, bazookas, rockets, mortars, bombs, mines, grenades, and similar destructive devices, 30 days to register these weapons.

To avoid criminal prosecution for unlawful possession, owners must register them during the period November 2 through December 1. Failure to comply could result in criminal prosecution.

Registration forms (Form 4467) and information are available at all internal revenue taxpayer contact office and offices of the alcohol and tobacco tax division. Nearest to Avon Park is at Room 310, Courthouse, Orlando. Rifles, regular shotguns or pistols and antique weapons do not have to be registered.

Record Turn - Out Expected Tuesday

About 70 per cent of Highlands County's registered 13,477 voters are expected to go to the polls Tuesday in a record turnout.

They will vote for president and vice president of the United States, Senator and Representative to the U. S. Congress, state and county officials. And they'll approve or disapprove the proposed revision of Florida's 93 year old state Constitution.

Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Droit based his "record turnout" prediction on the number of absentee ballots his office already has processed.

Through Friday, we had mailed out 520 absentee ballots," he said. These ballots must be returned to his office by 5 P.M. Monday night, Nov. 4.

This county has gone Republican in past national elections, and possibly will this year, Droit said, but he emphasized there will be a big turnout for third party presidential candidate George Wallace.

"A large percentage of new people who had lived here for years but never registered and voted told us they were registering just in order to vote for Wallace," said Droit.

Three Foot Ballot

When voters walk into the voting machines in any of the county's fourteen precincts, they will be faced with a three foot wide ballot. At the top is the proposed revision of the constitution to be voted on in three parts. The voter can pull one, two or three levers.

The first square lists "Number 1, basic document," and it is in this basic document the voter will find proposed changes in distribution of gas tax funds so vital to this county. Here also is the provision to permit the Legislature to increase Homestead Exemption to $10,000 to persons over 65 years of age. The Number 2 square is a revision pertaining to suffrage and elections and has only minor changes from the present Constitution. The Number 3 revision concerns local government, provides for creation of counties by law, and provides for consolidation of county and muncipal governments subject to approval of voters.

Griffin's on Ballot

On the second line of the ballot the Republican party candidates are listed. Droit said their names appear first since the current governor is Republican. Next comes the list of Democratic nominees, and last, the George Wallace party. Those who pull the lever for Wallace also vote for Mervin Griffin for vice president. Wallace announced Gen. Curtis LeMay as his running mate too late to change the Florida ballot.

Voters for the presidency will choose between Richard M. Nixon for president of the United States and Spiro T. Agnew for vice president; Republicans; Hubert H. Humphrey for president, Edmund S. Muskie for vice president, Democrats, and the Wallace-Griffin ticket.

Collins-Gurney

They will choose between Rep. Edward J. Gurney (R) and former governor LeRoy Collins, for the U. S. senate post vacated by Sen. George Smathers.

Next on the ballot is representative in Congress from the Ninth Congressional district, and the choice is between Rep. Paul Rogers and former State Rep. Robert W. Rust. In last year's redistricting, Highlands County was put into the U. S. district served by Rogers.

For justice of the Supreme Court of Florida, voters will choose between Joe Boyd (D) opposing C. Richard Leavengood (R); James C. Adkins, Jr. (D) opposing David L. McCain (R) and Vassar B. Carlton (D) opposing Wade Hopping (R).

Carl C. Durrance (D) opposes Joseph P. McNulty (R) for judge of the district court of appeals. Jess Yarborough (D) opposes Dave C. Osborne (R) for a seat on the public service commission.

Russell C. Jordon, Jr., (D) opposes incumbent Granville Crabtree, Jr., (R) for state senate representatives, 119th district.

On the county front, there is only one contest—that of Herb Harmon, (R) who opposes Robert Skipper for the district 5 county commission seat.

There are 19 other levers to pull, but the men for whom they will be pulled are already assured of election, since they have no opposition.

They are T. Frank Hodson, Jr., judge of the district court of appeals; State Attorney Glen Darty; Public Defender Lee Horton, Jr.; State Senator Wilbur H. Boyd; all Democrats; State Rep. 117th district, Jim K. Tillman, and State Rep. 118th district, Donald E. Heath, both Republicans.

No Opposition

The remainder of the 19 who go in without opposition are: County Judge Mervin Rehrer; Judge of the small claims court, David Lanier. Clerk of Circuit Court, Earl Rich; Sheriff, Joe D. Keene. Tax Assessor, J. W. "Billy" Martin. Tax Collector, W. H. Prescott. Superintendent of Public Instruction, George Douglass. Supervisor of Elections, Roland X. Droit; County Commission, District No. 1, Cecil P. Skipper. County Commission District No. 3, Ben H. McGee, member board of public instruction, District No. 2, Ted R. Cason, member board of public instruction, District No. 4, G. Franklyn Ward, county surveyor, Roger Miller.

Registered voters in Highlands County include: 9,593 white Democrats, 1,575 Negro Democrats, 2,068 white Republicans, 53 Negro Republicans and 158 independents. The total number of Democrats registered is 11,168 and Republicans, 2,151.

City Will Operate On A City Manager Basis for Coming Year

The Avon Park City Council ran aground again Monday on leasing six acres of land at the airport to Marrs Aircraft, when Shelley Marrs, who has been leasing the airport for the last eight years turned down the sixth lease that has been drawn up for him to either lease the new airport hangar or the land.

Marrs said he could not get financing on his building if the council left the clause in the lease that restricts him to aviation activities on his own land.

The lease is for 15 years with one five year option at $30 per month and $10 per month for use of the runways.

The purpose of limiting the aviation activities on another part of the airport is the city has $25,000 tied up in a new hangar and must rent it. Michael Hynes, of Lakeland Flying Service, who is interested in leasing the hangar, told the council that he doubted if other base operators would be as lenient as he is in his offer to let Marrs Aircraft build planes in the airport if he (Hynes) leased the new hangar.

Waymen Carver and Don Serdynski of the airport committee said they thought all the things in the lease were agreed upon last week at a meeting with Marrs, Hynes and members of the council and the clause that Marrs objects to is what the lease is intended for in the first place and without that there would be no lease.

A motion passed with Scott and Howard abstaining from voting to table the lease until November 11 when the council will hear the 12 applicants who are interested in leasing the hangar. At that time all applicants will be screened to determine which will benefit the airport and the city more.

In Other Action

Council voted to buy all firemen and policemen one pair of boots per year and the money to come out of their budget. The action came after Mayor Jimmy Doerr said he had been given a check to sign for boots for the firemen, before the boots had been furnished and billed under uniforms Mayor Doerr said he thought the policemen should also be furnished boots.

City Attorney, Jack Hancock advised on the proposed new Florida Constitution. He stated that the Florida League of Municipalities has recommended that all sections be rejected.

Council agreed to install 300 feet of eight inch sewer pipe on North Butler Ave. and build one manhole. L. C. Hooper has agreed to purchase the pipe.

Accepted the low bid of $781 from Frank's garage for a new Allis Chalmers Tractor.

Duggan requested the opinion of the City Attorney on Council Committees. Hancock said committees were an integral part of the Mayor-Commission form of government. However, they were not an integral part of the Mayor and City Council form of government such

Vanire Drawn For 2 Cases In Circuit Court

A petit jury has been drawn to hear two cases next week in Highlands County Circuit Court. Judge J. H. Willson will preside.

Set for trial Monday is a $50,000 damage suit filed by Lee Tanner against Jack Ingle as the result of an argument and alleged name-calling September 6, 1966, at the A & B raceway formerly owned by Tanner.

Lake Placid Holding Co. seeks to collect $33,014.31 from Dolplex, Inc., Public Service Mutual Insurance Co. and Cosmopolitan Mutual because of alleged damage done to their Placid Lakes golf course. Liberal Wallace

The myth that independent presidential candidate George Wallace is a conservative, exposed as a myth over recent weeks of the campaign, is completely exploded in an examination of his views on right-to-work laws.

Wallace is hard to pin down on this subject, as evidenced by an interview with the New York Times in which he firmly straddled the fence with both feet in the clouds. According to the TIMES of September 26, 1968:

"He (Wallace) believes the states should have the right to outlaw closed shop practices by labor unions, as they now do under Section 14(b) of the Tfat-Hartley Act, but also that state legislatures should not exercise this right by adopting so-called right-to-work laws, which he said he opposed."

In other words, the "right to work" is fine—so long as nobody tries to exercise it.

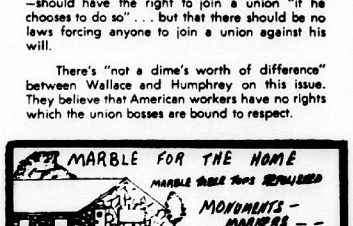

What this self-contradictory statement actually does is to advocate compulsory unionism while giving lip service to the principle of freedom and self-determination. And it puts Wallace firmly in the camp of Hubert Humphrey, who unequivocally supports repeal of Section 14(b).

The Wallace-LeMay "platform" makes no specific mention of 14(b) or the right to work. But it makes quite plain that the American Independent party (Wallace) leans toward expansion of organized labor's power to force workers to join unions, and to give the unions a free hand in employment issues. The platform pledges "adequate representation" of labor in "all deliberations of this party and its administration of the affairs of government."

This is another practical denial of the "change" which Wallace insists is so necessary in federal government. The professional labor leaders have had virtual veto power over the Johnson-Humphrey administration in matters affecting unions: It is apparent that they would retain this power in a Wallace administration.

Only Richard M. Nixon is committed to the principle of voluntarism in labor organization. He helped write Section 14(b) into law and is pledged to use his influence to retain it. He believes that any worker—including federal employes—should have the right to join a union "if he chooses to do so" . . . but that there should be no laws forcing anyone to join a union against his will.

There's "not a dime's worth of difference" between Wallace and Humphrey on this issue. They believe that American workers have no rights which the union bosses are bound to respect.

Many Young Folks Deserve Praise

This is a time when a pitiful few of our young people—the hippies and dropouts—apparently wish that they could resign from the human race. Some of us would be quite willing to accept their resignation.

There is another group—the Yippies, particularly—who openly flaunt their disrespect for the nation's flag and for all properly constituted authority.

While a few young people demonstrate their inadequacy to deal with the problems of life, others cover themselves—and their country—with glory . . . as they compete in clean, fair contests to determine who is the champion in each of the categories of sports.

Winners Fairly Chosen

Olympic stop-watches are color-blind. Winners are determined on an absolutely impartial basis—whether it be 16-year-old Debbie Meyer, the swimming marvel, or Willie Davenport, winner of the 110-meter high hurdles event.

On the football field, too, many young men are showing that they are willing to compete on an equal basis to determine who will be the winner.

One who seems sure to be a winner, not only in football, but in the game of life, is Dale McCullers, Florida State linebacker who seems headed for All-American honors.

McCullers, who is a spectacular star on the gridiron, is also a Christian—not ashamed to bear witness of what Christ means in his life, on and off the football field.

Sports writer Jim Selman says of him, "Dale McCullers is no phony. He is an All-American football player and an All-American man."

Teaching his Sunday School class of 11-year-old boys, McCullers draws on his knowledge of sports and of athletes for illustrations, telling the boys, as he says, "about some of the athletes who have found Christ, that He was their strength as He has been to me."

"Let Us Run the Race"

The Apostle Paul also drew on sports for illustrations of Christian truth.

"Seeing we are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses," he said, "let us lay aside every weight . . . and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith."

Let's not over-rate the frantic few who get the headlines because of their erratic behavior.

Let us thank God for the young people who are taking life seriously—and let us be especially grateful that some of them have found the answer to the problems of 20th century life in the Lord Jesus Christ.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

The Nation's Fate Rides on Your Vote

Wellesley Hills, Mass., October 31. Five days from now, the popular balloting for President of the United States will take place in every corner of the nation. But, conceivably, we may not know until some time in January who the next Chief Executive will be. It could be that close!

Forming a Consensus

Following the party conventions this Summer, disaffection and dis-satisfaction with the nominees was widespread among Republicans, Democrats, and others not normally hard-and-fast adherents of either party. Differences of opinion within the ranks of Democrats were more noticeable than among Republicans, though many staunch Republicans were dismayed at the choice of Governor Agnew for second spot on that ticket. And literally millions of Americans, of differing political persuasions, have been groping because they could detect little distinction in what they regarded as the "hawkish" views of Messrs. Humphrey, Nixon, and Wallace on the Vietnam issue.

Many citizens are reportedly so wrought up that they may not vote at all. But as each day passes, more and more undecided voters are reaching a decision. The spread between the two leading candidates has apparently narrowed and there is some reason to believe the third candidate reached a popularity peak some time ago. Right now, additional millions of voters are swinging toward a choice.

Is a Deadlock Likely?

At this writing, no man knows how close this election will actually turn out to be. But we do know that the cleavages over law and order, Vietnam, foreign aid, civil rights, and the war on poverty will cause more cross-switching by voters than normally occurs. We also know that ex-Gov. Wallace has attracted more voter interest and support than any third-party candidate within memory.

The Wallace strength and these cross-trends within the major parties could make for a deadlock in the electoral college, even if one of the three candidates should attain a majority of the popular vote. For it is in the electoral college that the final decision will be made.

General Electoral Procedure

When we make our ballot choice for President and Vice President, we are actually selecting a slate of electors who will presumably favor our chosen candidates. The electors from each state equal in number the Senators and Representatives from that state. Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, the Canal Zone, and Guam have no electoral vote; but the District of Columbia does have three votes. Hence, the full complement of the electoral college is 538, with 270 votes needed to elect.

The electors cast their votes in their respective states on the Monday following the second Wednesday in December (Dec. 16 this year). If no presidential candidate receives 270 votes when the ballots are opened by the President of the Senate on January 6, 1969 and tallied . . . in the presence of the Senate and the House of Representatives . . . the House then chooses a President from among the three candidates having the greatest number of electoral votes, with each state having but one vote and with 26 needed to elect. The Senate picks the Vice President from among the two candidates having the greatest number of electoral votes, with each Senator having one vote and with 51 needed to elect.

Importance of One Vote

Voter disagreement with this year's presidential candidates on particular issues is loud and sharp. Hence, it is feared that many voters may stay away from the polls to avoid having to make a decision. Such a course, however, would be hypocritical and cowardly. We contribute to the welfare of the nation by our vote. We do not deserve our rights and privileges—our freedoms—as American citizens unless we are willing to use that franchise. The importance of our vote, in fact, cannot be overstressed. The life of our Republic depends upon it.

CONGRESSMAN PAUL ROGERS
FLORIDA
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

A majority of Florida's Congressional Delegation opposed Federal gun registration and licensing during the 90th Congress, including Congressman Paul Rogers.

The most important roll call vote came on the long gun bill after the Senate had changed an earlier version passed by the House. Four Florida members voted no: Cramer, Fuqua, Rogers and Sikes. Three voted yes: Bennett, Gibbons and Pepper. Five members were absent but Haley, Herlong, Gurney and Burke indicated their opposition in the Record, and Fascell indicated support.

The House had earlier passed a bill banning the mail order sale of long guns, and providing for strict manditory jail sentences for criminals using guns, after defeating an attempt to include Federal registration of gun owners. This was supported by nine Florida members:

Rogers, Bennett, Burke, Cramer, Fascell, Fuqua, Gibbons, Gurney and Pepper; and opposed by Haley and Sikes. Herlong was absent. But the Senate changed the bill by reducing the jail sentences and giving judges more discretion for criminals using guns, and adding a new requirement for manufacturers to register guns and keep records of sales, which was considered to be a first step toward registration of gun owners. It was this Senate version which drew opposition from Cramer, Fuqua, Rogers and Sikes.

An earlier bill, the Federal anti-riot act, contained a mail order ban for handguns. Attempts to include registration in that bill were also beaten back, and supported by the entire delegation, which was present and voted yes.

Former Cabinet Members Oppose New Constitution

Five former members of the State Cabinet have issued a joint statement on the proposed new Constitutiton which should be read by all voters. They are all retired and have no political axes to grind. The five are R. A. Gray, former Secretary of State; Ray Green and Clarence Gay, both of whom served as State Comptroller; and Tom Bailey and Colin English, both of whom served as state Superintendent of Public Instruction. Below is full text of their joint statement:

"As former members of the Cabinet having served in several administrations and having intimately observed the Government of Florida, we feel it our duty to express our views touching the proposed new constitution. We have endeavored earnestly to appraise fairly its advantages and disadvantages and it is our conclusion, without reservation, that the best interests of Florida will be served by its defeat in the general election.

"We strongly disagree with the proponents who say, because the present Constitution is old and in some resepcts vague, it is outmoded and should be rewritten. It should be remembered the passage of time does not change principles nor the pattern of right and wrong. The Ten Commandments, the Sermon on the Mount, the Magna Charta, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States are all old but they need no rewriting.

The Government of Florida has in nowise been impeded by the present Constitution. The Executive, Legislative and Judicial branches of government has functioned well and with no undue restraint. Under that Charter, Florida has grown to become one of the large states of the Union, has met the demands of a burgeoning population for highways, education, sound banking, appropriate regulation of utilities and insurance companies, preservation of our natural resources and all the many services so necessary to a good life under a stable government.

"Because, under the old Constitution, our government has been stable, we have attracted new home owners, new industries and investment capital. A New Constitution, with its uncertainties and its inevitably to-be-litigated controversies would for some years handicap our continued growth.

"As changed conditions have required additional authority the State has easily and promptly met the needs by amendment. And that is the manner in which changes in basic government should be accomplished. Many and radical changes should not be made wholesale, especially in a period of political and social unrest.

Vote 'No'

blame fo rits inadequate instructions to voters.

If the voter votes for No. 1, he votes to approve practically everything in the "Basic Document." This includes the new gas tax distribution, homestead exemption, four year terms for legislators, the governor to succeed himself, establishing the office of Lieutenant Governor and a raft of other proposals. No. 2, dealing with elections, is almost like our present constitution. It does not lower the voting age. No. 3 allows for city-county consolidation of governments.

This newspaper believes, for your best interests, you should vote "no."

The general feeling is that the new Constitution puts more limits on local government than the old Constitution. They feel that the millage should be a matter to be decided by local people who are aware of the needs of their community, and a ceiling on millage should never be put into the constitution, due to changing needs for tax money. This should be a flexible figure, and subject to change by local taxing agencies.

Dugan restated his belief that the operation of the city would be smoother if department heads were responsible for the operation of their departments and if they had problems to bring them to the City Clerk. The City Clerk could then bring them before the City Council if necessary. This would save a great deal of time for the Councilmen who needed to devote most of their time to their own businesses and would be a step towards the future adoption of a City Manager type of operation in the city.

A discussion was held on Christmas decorations and lighting. A check is to be made with the Chamber of Commerce to see how much the merchants are willing to put into it. Also with the Athletic Association on funds which might be available from the city budget for this purpose.

A word this week about oil filters. Engine oil must be kept clean! If impurities such as dust, grit and dirt accumulate, excessive frictional engine wear will result in the oil circulation. In addition to the oil strainer through which your engine oil passes, most of today's cars are equipped with an oil filter. These filters in most cars, are a separate unit with a disposal cartridge which may be conveniently replaced at your service center when they become clogged with sludge, usually around 5,000 miles. Their efficiency does postpone oil changes but because of oil dilution, small amounts of gasoline and water which accumulate in the oil), oil changes are still recommended every 2,000 miles.

The George Wallace Pledge

When he becomes President of the United States, George Wallace pledges he:

1---Use his position as President to assist in restoring law and order and to give his moral support to the policemen and firemen of this nation.

2---Work toward bringing the American servicemen home following an honorable conclusion to the war in Vietnam.

3---Evaluate all foreign aid to nations not supporting the United States.

4---Return schools, hospitals and other domestic institutions to local control.

5---Ask Congress to repeal the so-called "Open Housing" law.

6---Remove shackles from free enterprise system thereby helping alleviate poverty by providing more and better jobs for all.

7---Provide strong agricultural and industrial programs.

8---Use common sense approaches to solve problems of the large cities.

9---Fire every Communist working in every defense plant in the United States.

10---Seek an indictment against every person in this country calling for a victory for the Viet Cong.

11---Re-examine tax exempt status of multi-billion dollar foundations and use money to give average wage earner additional income tax exemptions.

13---Eliminate wasteful federal spending.

GEORGE C. WALLACE

Where George Wallace and General LeMay Stand On Vietnam

- ★ We should give the talks in Paris every chance necessary to move out of the propaganda stage and into meaningful peace talks. But if as in the past the Communist show they are not really willing to talk peace unless they are being beaten on the battle field, then we should strive for a military victory (with conventional weapons) and bring our servicemen home.
- ★ Regardless of how we have backed into this war, we must now recognize, unequivocally, that we are in it and our only exit with honor and world respect is TO WIN IT.
- ★ First, we must destroy the ability of the North Vietnamese to wage war . . . We can pinpoint the targets we will hit and warn the citizens in advance to evacuate.
- ★ The sanctuary we have granted to the port of Haiphong is one of the strangest anomalies in the history of warfare. During the past two years, 829 ships have brought munitions and supplies to North Vietnam. Of these ships, 267 were Russian, 258 were Red Chinese, 94 were from Eastern European countries, and 210 WERE SHIPS OF OUR ALLEGED ALLIES AND FOREIGN AID RECIPIENTS.
- ★ There are so many ways that we could close that port. We could blockade it. We could bomb it. We could mine it. We could sink a ship in the entrance channel. The port of Haiphong is the Achilles heel of North Vietnam. Seventy percent of her war supplies enter here.
- ★ The way to fight the war in North Vietnam is to fight it. Pussyfooting with bombing pauses and exempting the vital targets is the way to lose it.
- ★ I believe that the course I suggest will end the war much sooner than will the policies we now pursue, with less loss of life on both sides. I am sure it will cost fewer lives. And it will decisively check Communist expansion in Southeast Asia.

UNICEF Drive To Be Saturday Evening

The UNICEF drive for 1968 will be made by young people from our local churches this Saturday evening. They will be identified by the official collection box: an orange and black box with a small symbol of a mother and child. All young people going on this drive are asked to meet at the First Methodist Church at 7 P.M.

UNICEF, United Nations Children's Fund, aids children in the underdeveloped nations of the world. Over 254 million children have been vaccinated against tuberculosis, a disease havin, 15 million infectious cases in the world. In 1967 the organization hand 850,000 children under treatment for leprosy. Over 37 million children have been treated for trachoma, a vicious eye disease. In 1967 over 30 million children were protected against malaria, a disease which effects half of the world's population.

President Lyndon B. Johnson issued this statement in praise of the work of UNICEF.

"Millions of people all over the world were pleased to learn that UNICEF has been selected for the 1965 Nobel Peace Prize. Never was an award more aptly made."

"Your great humanitarian program aids innocent children who are the victims of mankinds' oldest enemies—disease, hunger and ignorance. I want to express to you, your staff and the hundreds of thousands of young Americans who are participating in this annual event my deep appreciation for your unselfish work on behalf of children everywhere."

It is hoped that the citizens of Avon Park will receive with kindness our own young Americans who are making calls at their homes for UNICEF this Saturday. Make a gift to help bring food and medicine to the world's needy children.

Televisions Seen As Future Teachers

Television tape is "the" coming thing in elementary and secondary education, Florida teachers heard at the joint workshop of Florida Association of School Librarians, Florida Audio-Visual Association and Florida Education Television Association.

Highlands County had 10 representatives at the three-day workshop in Miami Beach. The educators heard that cost of closed circuit television and television tape is not prohibitive any longer and use is spreading rapidly.

Representatives from Highlands County school libraries who attended were Mrs. Jamie Edge and Mrs. Virginia Crews from Avon Elementary, Mrs. Addie Lee Best from Avon Park High, Mrs. Sarah Williams from Hopewell; Mrs. Angeline Boyd from Sebring High, Mrs. Eleanor Trescott from E. O. Douglas, Mrs. Helen Todd from Fred Wild-DeSoto City; Mrs. Ione Kinney from Lake Placid High; Miss Mary Ellen Jones from Carver, Mrs. DeRheta Lanier, coordinator of media materials.

Mrs. Lanier said all Highlands County school libraries had planned to have representatives at the workshop but illness prevented attendance of the personnel from Woodlawn and Lake Placid Elementary.

Santa Claus Special Will Leave For Vietnam In November

Tons of St. Nick's gifts will be going to members of the Armed Forces in Vietnam by special ship this year, thanks to a joint Pentagon-Post Office venture.

A fast US cargo ship will be designated the "1968 Santa Claus Special" sailing from Oakland, Calif. next month with Christmas parcels.

To meet the sailing deadline and aassure pre-holiday delivery of gifts sent with surface postage, items should be mailed during the October 14-Novembber 9 period.

The "Santa Claus Special" will sail during the latter half of November and stop at Da Nang, Qui Nhon, Cam Rahn Bay and Saigon, Vietnam.

The Commander of the Avon Park Bombing Range, Major Thomas P. Weeks stated today that it takes approximately three weeks for a fast ship to cross the ocean and persons planning to mail to servicemen in Vietnam should be extra careful to pack gifts in strong containers with adequate cushioning and see to it that they are correctly addressed.

Major Weeks continued, "One of the most vexing and recurring complaints of servicemen serving in Vietnam (and their families) is the uncertainty of the time a parcel post package will arrive after it is placed in the mails."

"Families and friends of servicemen serving in Vietnam are urged to mail during the October 14- November 9 period in order for gifts to arrive in time for Christmas, On The Santa Claus Special."

THE GIRLS from grades seven, eight, and nine at Hopewell met to discuss way of improving their bathroom facilities They understood that the old building would be part of the "phase out" program, so it was not practical to expect any major renovations. However, it was agreed that general cleaning and a paint job would surely help. With the cooperation of their homeroom sponsors, and the delighted approval of Mr. Sims, the principal, paint and brushes were secured. Volunteers quickly signed up in crews to work after school and on Saturdays. Also a committee was formed to make curtains to add a touch of privacy and lend a decorative effect. The girls seem pleased with their efforts, and the school is proud of its endeavor. The boys are now sending out the message, loud and clear, that they too would like a "painting project."

Actually, the barber got his name from trimming beards, since "barba" is Latin for beard. When men began to get their hair cut instead of their beards, the barber shifted to this job without changing his name.

Union Congregational Church To Celebrate Diamond Jubilee

The Union Congregational Church begins on this Sunday the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of its organization and the completion of its church edifice. Founded in 1890 and organized in 1893 the Congregational Church is the oldest church in continuous service in the lower ridge area of Florida.

The celebration will start with a special service of Recognition this Sunday morning, Nov. 3, at 11 o'clock. The labors of those who began and faithfully carried on the work of the church through the years will be marked with gratitude. Special recognition will be given to present members whose membership cover a period of 40 to 50 years. Couples whose marriages were solemnized in the church, or by the Congregational minister, at an early date, will also be recognized.

The Congregational Womens' Fellowship will have a special program at their luncheon meeting at 12:30 P.M. on Wednesday, Nov. 6. A panel discussion on historic church events across the years, as remembered by older members, will be led by Rev. John E. Pickens.

Superintendent Robbins Ralph will join Rev. Herbert D. Graetz, the pastor, in conducting the Anniversary Communion Service at 11 A.M. on Sunday, Nov. 10. This service will be high-lighted by the renewal of the Covenant. This will be an unforgettable experience for the worshippers.

The Anniversary Supper will be held at 6 o'clock Sunday evening, Nov. 10. A large birthday cake will be cut by the woman having been a member the longest. An historical address, setting forth some of the most interesting episodes across the 75 years of the church's history, will be given by Rev. John E. Pickens. Rev. Mr. Pickens is the church historian of the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ.

The picture that heads this article shows the church, known then as the Union Evangelical Church, as it was in 1912. The churchyard was fenced to keep the roaming livestock out. The belfry was built in 1911 to accomodate a bell, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Butler, a civic-minded couple who built several of the homes on North Forest and North Butler Avenues.

Science Church Sunday Service

A well-loved verse from Psalm 130—"Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption"—is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled, "Everlasting Punishment" to be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

Selections to be read from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: "Divine Love corrects and governs man. Men may pardon, but this divine Principle alone reforms the sinner. God is not separate from the wisdom he bestows.

The talents He gives we must improve. Calling on him to forgive our work badly done or left undone, implies the vain supposition that we have nothing to do but ask pardon, and that afterwards we shall be free to repeat the offense.

Redeem Your As Series E Bonds

V. H. Northcutt, Tampa, State Chairman for U. S. Savings Bonds, reports that recent legislation permits the redemption of Saving Notes-Freedom Shares in the same manner as Series E Bonds.

Formerly, Freedom Shares had to be forwarded to a Federal Reserve Bank or the Treasurer of the United States for redemption. Chairman Northcutt points out that this new legislation makes Freedom Shares an even more cheerful companion to Series E Bonds. Freedom Shares, issued on and after June 1, 1968, now pay 5 per cent, compounded semi-annually, if held to maturity of 4½ years.

Spectators Line Mall To View Best Halloween Parade Yet

Spectators lined the mall Saturday afternoon to watch the biggest and best Halloween parade in Avon Park and attend the carnival in Donaldson Park, sponsored by the Junior Woman's Club.

The bright Florida sun, in all its splendor, dazzled the costumes of the majorettes, the high school bands, the color guard and Miss Flame seated on the brilliant red fire truck, which headed the parade.

A hugh mock horse, headed by Cheryl Guerndt and tailed by Diane Lemler, provided much laughter as it pranced back of the band. Civic clubs were represented, Scouts with their leader, David Lanier and Brownies, Cadettes and their leaders all marched.

School children, all in costume formed a major portion of the parade in original outfits which were judged and ribbons awarded the winners after the parade in Donaldson Park. Plaques were awarded for the best floats.

First prize to the business float, GE Appliance Center and first to club float went to the Jaycees. One outstanding feature of the parade was the 45-year-old Rumely tractor from Wauchula entered by the Nickerson Dairy.

The carnival attracted the crowd where the ten pin proved most outstanding. Attractions were the spook house, fish pond, pick my pocket for a dime clown, cake walk, bingo, ring toss, bean bag toss, horseback rides and concessions headed by the Lions and Girl Scouts.

Ribbon winners for best costumes awarded by Mrs. Wayne Cribb of the Junior Woman's Club; three-year-olds, first, Jerikay Clenney, second, Lori Griffin, honorable mention, Dana Clifton.

Four and five-years-olds, first, Darlene Starr, second, David Jackson, honorable mention, Patricia Bennett.

First grade, first, Tammy Bass, second, Shellie Maxwell, honorable mention, Gigi Swearingen.

Second grade, first, Gary Worden, second, Joey Crews, honorable mention, Chuck Smith.

Third grade, first, Phyllis Johnson, second, Allen Reed, honorable mention, Jeff Jackson.

Fourth grade, first, Steve Arnold, second, Mort Jackson, honorable mention, Audrey Graham.

Fifth and sixth grades, first, Kathy Turner, second, Lee Anderson, honorable mention, Holly Green.

Seventh to 12th grade, first, Larry Culpepper, second, Dennis and Terry Kelly, honorable mention, Claudia and Gregory Cook.

Judges for three-year-olds, Mrs. Powell Waite, Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell and Mrs. Samuel O. Norris. Four and five-year-olds, Mrs. C. Pabor, Mrs. Harold Barker and Mrs. Arthur Wilhite.

Efforts Being Made To Lift Cattle Embargo

The Florida Department of Agriculture has taken action in an effort to have the embargo of Florida cattle lifted by seven states.

Commissioner of Agriculture Doyle Connor reinstated the brucellosis Bangs disease testing program throughout the state. Testing in Highlands County was halted several weeks ago. Testing is expected to start again by November 1.

Conner said, "I am confident that the embargoes by the seven states will be lifted within a week, and I have been assured by the U. S. Department of Agriculture that they will exert every effort with these states to lift the embargoes. The only way for the embargoes to be put back on the state would be for some one to go to court and try and stop the program," he said.

The action was agreed on by industry leaders who are members of the Department's advisory committee on animal industry, the executive board of the Florida Cattleman's Association, and officials of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Federal testing funds will be reinstated.

Along with reinstating the testing program, the committee, without a dissenting vote, agreed on a compulsory back tagging program. Under the program, all cattle over 24 months of age going through livestock markets and sold to packing houses will be identified in order to trace the disease back to the farm. Anyone found guilty of removing a tag will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Under the testing program, any herd in which cattle are found to have brucellosis will be quarantined until all animals in the herd have passed one negative brucellosis test.

U. S. May Buy Frozen Orange Juice

Reports that the U. S. Department of Agriculture will not make any substantial purchases of frozen orange concentrate—if any at all—as stated by O. D. Huff, chairman of the Florida Citrus Commission, have been denied by Rodney Leonard, Administrator, Consumers and Marketing Administration, USDA.

As in the past, no immediate decision has been made on the basis of the first crop report which was issued October 10.

Changed Ships

During the Battle of Lake Erie in 1813, Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry's flagship, the Lawrence, was shot to pieces. Perry transferred his flag to the Niagara when the Lawrence was put out of action.

Special Service Unit Added To AP High School Program

The new Special Service unit at Avon Park High School is but one of several additions to the school programs of Highlands County. Other new school programs for the school year of 1968-69 include art and music teachers for the elementary schools, special education teachers for students who need additional classroom work, and science laboratories for the secondary schools. Special Service units are presently located in three of the county schools.

The Special Service unit at Avon Park High is located across from the principal's office in the high school building. Staff members in this unit include: Mrs. Cook, Mr. Maness, and Mrs. McRay. The staff members and their student interns work as a team to fulfill the responsibilities designated to them by the county administration.

The goal of the Special Service program is to encourage better daily attendance by all students. Basically, good school attendance is a matter of importance to both the school and to the individual student. Schools exist to provide an education for every young person. Good attendance at school provides students with a greater opportunity to be successful in their school achievement and in their adult years.

The average daily attendance of our school determines the amount of money allocated from the state of Florida for instructional supplies, school bus transportation and even the number of teachers allowed to teach within our school. When this daily attendance drops, the school is in danger of losing funds that will provide these essential educational needs. This means fewer books, larger classes, and more crowded school buses.

When a student is ill or has a special problem, the Special Service staff and the school administration will do everything possible to be helpful to both the students and the parents. The staff gives full attendance to the reasons behind a student's absence from school. Parents are encouraged to keep students home when they are ill or when there is an emergency in the family. Parents are asked to not keep students out of school for reasons that are inexcusable, such as shopping trips, taking vacations, special visits with friends or relatives or general laziness.

In the event of an unexcused absence, the student and parents will be notified by the principal's office that this is unacceptable behavior. If the student continues to be absent frequently for unacceptable reasons, the school then has the authority to refer the student to the Juvenile Court. If the student is beyond the legal school attendance age, he may be asked to withdraw from school.

Attendance records are kept on every student in the school. In the case of an absence, the student or parents are contacted by telephone or by a home visit. The student is expected to bring a note from parents or guardians upon his or her return to school, even though they may have been contacted by a member of the service staff or other officials.

Although this new program is still in the organizational stage, much progress has been made. The majority of parents have been very receptive to the school contact regarding an absent student and have expressed appreciation for the school's interest in their children. On occasion, a parent misunderstands the purpose of the program and feels that a call or visit from a school official reflects upon their abilities as parents. It is hoped that eventually all parents and students will understand that this Special Service program is a progressive step forward for the schools of this county.

New Teacher At APHS

The new English teacher for the tenth grade this year is J. D. Howard.

Mr. Howard was born in Sebring, where he attended school until his junior year. He then moved to Ocala, where he finished his last two years and graduated.

An English major, Howard received the BA degree from Florida State University at Tallahassee.

This is his first year teaching, so let's try to make a good impression on him. Let him know, and everyone else, that Avon Park High School is a great school, and the students are what makes it so great.

MEMBERS OF THE National Honor Society are shown as they participated in the Halloween parade Saturday.

Council Plans Active Year

The Student Council is planning a very active year. The new officers for this year are president, David Woodward; vice president, Charlie Magenheimer, secretary; Jennie DuBose, treasurer, Doug Ayerst.

Among the projects planned are patios for the school lawn, and some new amendments to the Constitution.

The Student Council is also in charge of Homecoming. Plans are being made for activities for the students during Homecoming week.

Band Boosters

Avon Park High School Band Boosters will meet November 11, at 7:30 P.M. sharp in the band room.

Mrs. David McDaniels is eager to take memberships at $1 each parent.

Ann Karrick's Outstanding Cheerleaders at APHS

Avon Park High School has three outstanding squads of cheerleaders this year under the direction of Miss Ann Karrick. The varsity squad is limited to members of the junior and senior classes, the "B" squad is chosen from ninth and tenth grade girls, and the junior high or "skeeter" squad is picked from the seventh and eighth grade students.

The varsity and "B" squad cheerleaders are chosen each Spring for the following year. Girls who are eligible to try-out (those who have a high enough scholastic average) practice for a set period of time when the current cheerleaders helping the new comers with the actions and yells. Then a faculty committee cuts the candidates to a group which then tries out in front of the student body. The eight members of the two squads are then elected by popular student body vote for the coming year.

During the Summer members of the squads attend cheerleading camp or clinics to learn new techniques and yells.

The "skeeter" squad is selected in the Fall of each current year. Members of the seventh grade choose four girls and eighth graders choose four girls from those who try out for the squad. These eight girls practice and then lead the cheers at the football and basketball games of the junior high teams.

Varsity cheerleaders are responsible for pep assembly programs on Fridays before each of the ten football games and for occasional basketball pep assemblies.

The 24 girls who represent Avon Park at the athletic events are required to meet certain scholastic marks, attend all practices, and participate at all games.

THE D C T CLUB of Avon Park High School is sponsoring a Spook Show, Friday, Nov. 1, at Highlands Theatre. Doors will open at 11:30 o'clock, the thriller picture will start promptly at 12 o'clock. There will be door prizes and surprises. The club is selling tickets, $1 each and they may be purchased at the door. This is a money making project for the club to help provide funds to attend the state D C T contest and convention. Pictured viewing the skelton in the casket are Edith Dorsey, Gary Boykin, Larry Green and Brenda Grey.

FHA Chapter To Hold Fashion Show

This year's FHA Chapter will prove to be one of the busiest chapters Avon Park has ever known.

Plans for the month of October include a program—Individuality Counts. Mrs. Virginia McKown from Virginia's Beauty Salon, demonstrated, on one of the FHA members, the correct way to apply make-up for school wear. She then proceeded to demonstrate on Miss Pat Perez, the make-up that should be worn for date-time.

Membership drive and aiffliation of the chapter are being pushed greatly this month. During the month of October, the old members try to round up new members to join the club. The FHA usually has 70 to 80 members. Then when all members pay their dues, the chapter can be affiliated.

One of the biggest event's the FHA will sponsor, along with Florida Power will be the Fashion Show, presented by the Maytag Company. This event will take place in the Avon Park auditorium, November 5, 7:30 P.M.

One weakness of our comulsory educational system is that people can be taught only what and when they want to learn. It is apalling how early in life children acquire the idea that they need to learn nothing more, and thus, don't.

Foresters claim that pine trees grow faster in southwestern Arkansas than in any other location in U. S.

APHS Band Performs In Clearwater

Shortly after 4 P.M., Friday, Oct. 25, approximately 87 members of the Avon Park High School Band traveled to Clearwater for the football game between Avon Park and Clearwater Catholic. The band was in charge of putting on the entire half-time show.

The show consisted of a routine in which the 87 members marched into a diagonal, stretching from one end of the field to the other while playing the march, "Under the Double Eagle."

From the diagonal, the band marched into a "V" and turned towards the Avon Park side to salute the supporters with the song "Sunny."

Following this, the two sides of the "V" meshed together to form one rank facing the Clearwater side and saluted them with the song "American Flag Parade," while the majorettes performed a flag routine.

This was the second away game at which the band has featured its new flag corp and herold trumpets.

For centuries, Corinth (Greece) was the wealthiest city in the world. Now it is just a pile of rubbish, with a few lone column rising from debris.

Safety Patrol Boys Protect Students at School Crossings

The safety partol boys are there to help you! Have you ever heaard that one before? Kind of old and worn out, huh? Well, if you feel that it is just a lot of propaganda that teachers have handed you, maybe you should think twice.

Here at Avon Park High we have ten young boys on the patrol force, getting up a little early to be here at 7:30 and staying on duty after school until 3:15.

Their duties include such things as raising the flag in the morning and working at football games, plus their usual job of helping students arrive to school safely, and leave safely.

Really, now, think about it, as many cars are around, before and after school, and those bright flags allow students to cross safely. Otherwise students may have to wait five or more minutes to cross and then have to run for their lives! A block away a driver will see the flags and this reminds him to be extra careful.

Some students feel that they have "out-grown" the need for the patrols, that they don't have to wait for the patrol to tell them when to cross, and that they don't have to cross at the corners. These people should be reminded that the patrols can report anyone breaking a rule, and Mr. Cravens has the power to discipline them.

Mr. Lemler, sponsor of the patrol boys is very proud of his group, as we all should be. The only thing they receive for their labor is the satisfaction of a worthy job well done.

Future Teachers Hold Fourth Meeting

Wednesday, Oct. 23, the Future Teachers of America held its fourth meeting of the year. It was a social meeting so that the new members could get acquainted with the old members.

It was decided, at the meeting, that the FTA would send three representatives to the FTA State Convention, which will be held in Clearwater in November.

The representatives are: Mary Bates, Kathy Dick, and Janet James.

The members are, also, selling cookbooks to help pay for the expenses of the year. There are four kinds: Casseroles, Cakes, Ground Beef, and Florida Meats. They sell for $1 each and they are well worth it. Please support your FTA and buy one.

Drama Club Organized At APHS

A new club has been formed at Avon Park High School. The Drama Club is for all students interested in drama and play production.

There is a tenth grade drama club and senior drama club for eleventh and twelfth grade students.

The senior high officers are: president, Debbie Gurganus; vice president, Jerry Kendrick; secretary, Julie Jordon; treasurer, Bill McDaniel; and reporter, Susie Biggs.

The tenth grade officers are: president, Dean Ferguson; vice president, Nancy Cini; secretary, Suzi Franza; treasurer, Joe Franza.

Miss Price is the sponsor of the senior club and Mr. Howard is sponsor of the tenth grade.

The club is planning several activities for the year. These include attending plays, selling sweatshirts (the main money making project) and organizing a powder-puff football team.

Schrist Sponsors Key Club

Yes, it's that time of year again for the Avon Park Key Club!

The Key Club is primarily a service group. Members perform many services to the school as well as pitching in at a moments notice to help out in an emergency.

This year will be devoted mainly to a busy schedule of activities directed by the sponsor, Mr. Sechrist. Some of the activities are a booth at the Woman's Club carnival, selling certain items for Christmas, and a clean up project in front of the school and in the parking lot.

The key Club has elected Sherry Smith as Key Club "Sweetheart."

For those of you who don't know who the Key Club officers are, keep reading: president, Doug Ayerst; vice presidents, Joey Martin and Jim Nunnallee; secretary, Mike Slear, and treasurer, Charles Magenheimer.

Any boy who has a 2.5 average of above may be elected into this club by a majority vote of the membership and the approval of the sponsor.

Panthers Prepair For Opener With St. Joseph College Nov. 19

South Florida Junior College Panthers are busy preparing for their opener with St. Joseph College of Jensen Beach, Tuesday, Nov. 19, at the Avon Park gym.

The Panthers have shown much improvement since they began practice but are still a long way from being sharp enough for the tough schedule before them. Several practice games are on tap for the Panthers. Last Thursday night the Panthers met MacDill Air Force in a nip and tuck practice game with the game ending in a draw, 91 to 91.

Monday night a game with the Sebring independents. Tuesday Central Florida Junior College at Florida Southern College in Lakeland and Wednesday a return bout with MacDill in Tampa. All members of the Panthers squad are being given plenty of playing time to prove themselves.

John Battillo 6'6" Chuck Smith 6'3" Jeff Asher 6' Ken Dixon 6'2" and Larry Allen 6' have been starting but the team of Ed McAllister 6'7", Ronnie Combs 6'7" Willie Cope 6'3" Bobby Johnson 6'2" and Ronnie White 6' have been pushing these boys for the starting nod. Willie Marowich 6'4" and Mick Turner 5'10" have alternated with both units.

"How well we do will be determined by these boys to learn to shoot, make their grades and that tough assignment of playing man to man defense. These practice games will help in this evaluation," said Coach Terrell.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported by George Walper

Jim Turnbull, resident of Avon Park and former city clerk, spoke at the October 23 meeting of the Avon Park Rotary. Turnbull is currently employed in the field service department of the Farm Bureau in Gainesville.

The Farm Bureau continues to show quite a rapid growth in membership, and offers many varied services to its more than 37,000 members. The chief goal of the bureau is to help farmers in obtaining greater net return from their labor. Realizing that the seat of power of the Farm Bureau rests in its membership, it endeavors to transmit its power into activity for members that they may be better able to help themselves. The department also serves as a liaison between the state and local area, and has been most active in its revision of the new Florida constitution as relates to the farm programs.

An important portion of the Farm Bureau is the field service organization. Here through varied activities the farmer is able to receive numerous benefits. Training programs are also developed as a service of this department.

History records no government as having lasted very long unless it evidenced some interest in the common people or their problems.

435 Stockholders Attend Meeting Wednesday

The Federal Land Bank Association of Wauchula held its annual stockholders meeting last Wednesday at Pioneer Park, Zaffo Springs. Attending the meeting were 435 stockholders and guests.

One of the highlights of the meeting was the speech by Mr. Lorin T. Bice, chairman of the Farm Credit Board, Washington, D.C., in which he advised that new legislation was needed by the Federal Land Banks in order to better serve the farmers. He also advised the stockholders and guests that even though the money market was critical this past year, the Land Bank was able to secure funds to properly finance the farmer's needs.

The annual report of the association was presented by W. R. May, manager and he advised that the association had had a very successful year and gave credit to the board of directors, the staff and membership for making this one of the best years for the association. He further advised that the association had loans outstanding as of June 30, 1968, of $27,862,000 to 456 farmers, citrus growers and ranchers, which was an all time high. He further stated that the association was the biggest of the 46 associations in the Third Land Bank District, which comprises North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

The terms of Mr. Herman Burnett, Bradenton, and Mr. Irven Locklar, Bowling Green, expired and they were elected to succeed themselves for a term of three years. Other directors are Jack Cliett, Wauchula, R. H. Prine, Bradenton and R. H. Morgan, Fort Ogden. Several nice door prizes were given and the meeting adjourned to enjoy a barbecue steak dinner.

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE

I SAY IT'S TIME

for a new policy in Viet Nam that will end the war. We're the strongest nation in the world — yet we've been bogged down for years because we have not backed up our men with effective use of our air and sea power. 28,000 American boys have lost their lives, the cost through this year is $95 billion. Let's get it over with!

I SAY IT'S TIME

to stop being soft on law-breakers. This terrible increase in crime and violence must stop. We must have order. We must treat criminals and rioters like the criminals they are. Let's make our streets and homes safe again!

I SAY IT'S TIME

to balance the budget. That's your tax money the Administration is spending so recklessly, $80 billion of red ink deficits.

I SAY IT'S TIME

for a new team in Washington. The old welfare giveaway programs just aren't working. My opponent was a key member of the Johnson-Humphrey team. He offers a carbon copy, rubber stamp of more of the same. This Johnson-Humphrey Administration has run up a total deficit of $80 billion. Result, serious inflation and higher prices that hurt everyone. Let's stop this reckless spending.

I pledge to fight for change — for new solutions. But I need your help. I need your vote. Together we can make America great again.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Like it or not, many Americans drink liquor.

As to why, no one can be sure. The reasons for drinking vary from person to person, and they're the subject of much debate and discussion between psychologists, psychiatrists, sociologists, pastors, and the like.

But our subject today is not why people drink, but when.

First, statistics show that the average drinker consumes about 14 quarts of liquor in a year. Taking into account that most drinkers "celebrate" occasionally and that they may splurge a little at these times, this leaves something like an average of four drinks a week to temporarily numb the pain of living and paying taxes.

How does that average balance out, year after year, since Prohibition ended in the early 30's?

In the first two years after Prohibition, the average adult intake was rather low. But from 1936 through 1940, the average adult held very close to the afore-mentioned average of 14 quarts per year. The same was true during the period from 1948 to 1961. The average held firm, and there was a pattern which may be considered "normal" consumption.

The years of World War Two were very different, however. In those years the average amount consumed per adult rose far out of line with any previous experience.

The war separated families, dislocated lives, brought about serious problems of readjustment in jobs, put women to work, and made the futures of all Americans uncertain. The tensions brought about uprooting, separation and uncertainty were painful.

Thus those years brought a marked turn toward the bottle as many sought to use that means as a remedy for their problems.

By this time most readers are asking, what about 1962 to the present time? Well, our figures wind up with the close of 1966, and they show that there was a rise in the rate of liquor consumption from 1962 through 1966 which was comparable only, since repeal of Prohibition, to the years of World War Two.

Apparently something is driving many Americans to drink in this decade, and couldn't the various political candidates make hay from this!

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home Park News

We are deeply appreciative of the Hi-Fi and records that has been given to the recreation hall. Carl Wertzbar presented it at our Wednesday morning coffee hour in memory of his wife, Lila, who passed away during the summer.

The Lasses (Hazel and John) left Saturday morning for Janesville, Wis., where they will visit with their children. In their absence, Mrs. Thelma Chalmers will have the office at her trailer, No. 14.

We are all very pleased to welcome, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Detrick to Bonnie Brae. They formerly lived at Southland and have purchased the Joseph Babcock trailer at No. 56. The Babcocks (Gail and Joe) have moved to 412 W. Grace St., Punta Gorda. Best wishes are extended to both couples.

With the coming of the winter season the shuffleboard courts are being put into good condition. Joe Moreno has scrubbed them all down, and assisted by Mark Brown and Thelma Chalmers, is in the process of re-painting them. We hope by another week that we will see many using them. With the installation of the lights there should be a lot of good playing during the evenings.

We are happy to have back in our fold again, the Footes (Maude and Frank) who have returned from their home in Esperance, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Chockley who have returned from a short stay at Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Marie and Paddy Lizotte who have been visiting their daughter and husband, Pat and George Roy in Ottawa, Canada.

Coffee Hour was held on Wednesday with Bonnie Sherman and Marge Duquenne as co-hostesses. This week Marge Duquenne will have Lorraine Robertson as her co-hostess. Every one is invited, just bring your own cup and spoon and enjoy the sociability.

Mrs. Robert Cook of Frostproof called on Catherine Hager Saturday afternoon. Catherine Hager and her cousin Bertha Devaux who has been visiting Catherine spent Monday sightseeing and shopping at St. Petersburg and Tampa. On Wednesday they were accompanied by Louise Shengle and Bertha Lee and spent the day at Lake Wales and Bartow. Thursday evening they had as a guest Bertha Lee and all enjoyed a shrimp and hush-puppy dinner. Bertha returned by bus to Canton, Ohio on Friday. Word has been received that she really enjoyed the moutains in the Carolinas as they were already capped with snow. She arrived home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Sappa of Fort Lauderdale, who are friends of Marie and Paddy Lizotte have been on the overnight section for the past week.

Mrs. Mary Puddy and Miss Ruth Peck of Toronto, Canada, who have been tourlng through the South, surprised Marie and Paddy Lizotte on Sunday. It was a coincidence that this was the first Mobile Park that they stopped in looking for their friends.

The Moreno's (Henny and Joe) celebrated Mrs. Margaret Van Buskirk's birthday, Tuesday evening, with a lovely birthday cake and served coffee. Those attending the party were the Gressmans, Van Buskirks and Morenos. Later in the evening they played pinnochle. The evening was enjoyed by all.

REMEMBER TO VOTE

Expecting the biggest voting turnout in Highlands County history, Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Droit warned that voters should read the sample ballot before going into the voting booth, because time in the booth will be limited. The same 14 polling places used in the primary election will be open from 7 A.M. until 7 P.M.

Sam Houston written by Noel B. Gerson is a biographical novel. One of his previous outstanding historical novels was The Yankee From Tennessee, the little known and misunderstood life of Andrew Johnson.

Traitor to the South is what one Dallas newspaper said of the old Sam Houston. His name was sullied and jeered by friends and foe alike because he believed as neither of them did on the questions of slavery and secession.

That hadn't always been true. He was one of the most popular heroes of the country, victor on many battlefields, especially San Jacinto, governor of Texas, and U. S. Senator.

He had an ability to foresee events and to influence people. He was a renouned orator and a fashioner of history. He had a passionate devotion to duty, was above all, even his own personal needs, a devout American.

This is a true story of a man whose life can only be measured in epic proportions. "Sam Houston is a vivid portrait of a great American whose life was, indeed," as President John F. Kennedy observed, "a profile in courage."

TERMITE DAMAGE

Termites do millions of dollars worth of damage to residential and commercial construction every year. No building is safe, in areas in which termites occur. From colonies in the soil, termite workers forage for wood. They also construct mud tubes over concrete or masonry, to reach wood. Their damage is seldom apparent until it reaches a serious stage, because they work within wood, and do not break the surface. Badly infested buildings may suddenly sag, because termite feeding has weakened main timbers. By the time that termite damage becomes apparent, costly repairs may be needed.

Shuffling

Monday and Tuesday evenings were just right to shuffle, and the courts were full of players. Then Wednesday and Thursday evenings it rained so postponing playing. Then Saturday evening the air was right chilly, but in spite of the chill there were 10 courts in play in the tournament.

Ota Gibson and Kate McAlexander won in the main over Charles Romilly and Clay Kall. Consolation winners were Duke Christenson and Kellie Larue over Ely Merchant and Mildred Long.

Card Games

In pinochle on Monday afternoon the high score went to Allene Howard. Juanita Carr came in second with 657.

Tuesday afternoon was bridge day with three tables in play. High scores went to Vi Lexa and Chris Cabezas 5140 and 5090.

Duplicate bridge started nicely with three tables of players. Louise Reisner and Lillian Hayes came out high in North-South. High in East-West went to Vi Lexa and Sheila Wurster. There was only one point between the high and low in the east-West.

Dances

Monday evening lessons in square dancing will be starting soon. Regular dancing prevails for the present. Friday they had a very nice turn-out, three squares and many who like to round dance. One of the round dances was a broom dance, and everyone enjoyed that, even the spectators.

Twenty-four members and guests answered to roll call Saturday evening. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson were their son and wife from Tampa. Ira West was the oldest member present, having passed his 93rd birthday this past summer. Miss McDaniel from Virginia gave a very interesting reading. Dolores Cook, Alta Robinson and Harriet Meissel were the hostesses.

Membership

Social Security Questions And Answers

Question—I had well over $50 in doctor bills last year. How can I collect medical insurance benefits under Medicare?

Answer—There are two ways you can collect benefits under Medicare. One is for you to let the doctor collect the Medicare payment directly from Medicare. The other way is for you to apply for payment yourself. All you need to do is obtain an itemized bill and send it with the proper form, SSA-1496 Request for Payment, to Blue Cross Blue Shield Insurance Company in Jacksonville.

Question—If my doctor will not collect from Medicare, will I have to pay him before I can apply for the payment?

Answer—No. Under the 1967 amendments it is now possible for you to collect medical insurance benefits even if you have not yet paid the bill. You will need to obtain an itemized bill and send it with a completed claims form, SSA-1490, to Blue Cross Blue Shield Insurance Company in Jacksonville.

Question—How can I get benefits from medical insurance under Medicare?

Answer—If you have doctor bills totaling more than $50 you may apply for medical insurance benefits whether or not the bills have been paid. All you need to do is obtain itemized bills from your doctors and send in with your request for Payment Form. If you need assistance, or if you have any questions about filing for payment, let us help you.

Question—I have some doctor bills which date back to 1966. Will Medicare pay me for these bills?

Answer — Under the 1967 amendments, if you incurred doctor bills in October, November, or December 1966, you may file a claim for benefits under Medicare but the deadline is December 31, 1968.

Origin of Name

Charles Keys Take 65-Day Trip Around The World

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D Keys, Avon Park Lakes, have returned from a NRTA-AARP 65-day trip around the world.

Mrs. Ruth Wendel, Swiss tour director for the entire tour, who has been around the world eight times, met the group of 23 persons in San Francisco.

A couple of days was spent sight-seeing in San Francisco before flying JAL Airlines to Honolulu for a few days, then on to Japan for 10 days where they visited the largest cities and places of interest. Tokyo has a population of over 10 million people and is the largest city in the world.

A trip was made on the JNR Super Express "Bullet Train" to Kyoto, which is the fastest train in the world. A spectacular four hour all girl performance at the Takarazuka Theater near Osaka was attended.

A visit was made to the world-famous Mikimoto Pearl Island to watch pearl divers and to see how cultured pearls are grown.

From Japan the group went to Taiwan (Formosa), Chiang Kai-Shek's Island. An excursion was made to the Wulai Aborigines Village where tribal dances were watched.

In Manila two typical middle class homes were visited. One was a doctor's home built on stilts with slat floors no screens and surrounded with tropical trees and shrubs. One of the things to be remembered is the decorative Jeepneys that serve as taxi busses and dart around Manila like brightly colored bugs.

They actually are jeeps left behind at the end of World War II. A trip was made through the gorge to see the Pagsanjam Falls.

In Hong Kong a trip was made to the village that borders Red China, a tour to the famous Tiger Balm Gardens, a sampan ride to a floating restaurant and a harbor tour on a Chinese Junk. One day was at leisure for shopping for Hong Kong is the bargain mart of the world.

Singapore is noted for its important harbor and it has one of the finest jade collections in the world. A trip was made to the mainland of Johore.

In Bangkok, Thailand, the group traveled by motor launch through the famous "Klongs" (canals) to see the bustling Thai market life. The palaces, temples and buddhas in Thailand were some of the most beautiful of the countries visited.

Nine days were spent in India. In Benares, a trip was made by boat on the Ganges River, the Taj Mahal was seen in Agra, and interesting places were visited in Calcutta and New Delhi. Elephant rides were made from Jaipur and Amber, the deserted city of the Rajputs.

In Teheran, Iran the crown jewels were seen, and a visit to a Persian rug factory was made. Small children as young as five years old were working on the designs. Isfahan, the former Capital of Persia, was also visited in Iran.

The group attended the "Sound and Light" performance at the Pyramids and Sphinx in Cairo, Egypt. In Luxor, King Tut's Tomb was visited. Everyone had camel rides at the Pyramids.

At Beruit, Lebanon, a full days excursion to the "Cedars of Lebanon" was made, which is 7000 feet above sea level. On the way up, a stop was made at Byblos, the oldest town in the world. Here is where the first alphabet was invented.

From Beruit the group flew to Cyprus, then to Tal-Aviv, Israel. Many famous Biblical places were visited in Jerusalem, Bethlehem and Jericho.

Istanbul, Turkey, has some interesting historical places, especially the old Seraglio, (Sultan's Palace) with its fabulous jewels. Many Mosques were seen.

The last country visited was Greece. In Athens all of the old historical places were visited. A motor coach trip was made to Corinth which is 60 miles South of Athens.

After the Kennedy-Onassis wedding, the Kennedy family stayed in the same hotel (Grande Bretagne) as the NRTA-AARP group. The group flew from Athens to New York on the "Olympic" Anassia Airlines back to the states, and returned to their home at the lake last week after a most pleasant trip around the world.

Legion Bingo Party Thursday

There was a good turnout for the pot luck supper at the American Legion hall on West Bell Street last Thursday night. The supper was followed by bingo. Everyone had a good time. There are bingo games every Thursday night at 7:30 with a pot luck supper every fourth Thursday. Anyone may attend.

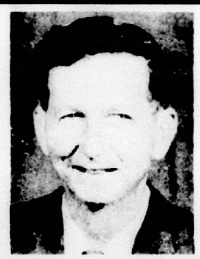

The next meeting of the American Legion Post No. 69 will be held next Wednesday at 8 P.M. This is the Legion's 50th anniversary and all veterans, whether or not they are members of the Post are urged to attend to help plan the Legion's 50th anniversary celebration.

The Bible Speaks To You on Radio

When grades or friendships seem to be going wrong, high school students needn't accept frustration. Christ Jesus found strength in a humility that recognized God as the source of ability. We can learn from his example. Listen Sunday, Nov. 3, 9 A.M., WJCM, to "Helping Youth Cope with Frustration."

Bombing Range To Open For Hunting Saturday, Sunday

Hunters will head for the woods and fields Saturday as the season on quail, deer, bear, turkey and squirrel opens.

Avon Park bombing range will be open Saturday, this first day of the season, and will be open each Sunday during the season, the office of game manager Olive Ivey said.

Hunters will be let into the bombing range at 4 A.M. Saturday and they must be out by 8 P.M. Sunday.

Whether the bombing range will be open on succeeding Saturdays will depend on whether the Air Force plans to use it for bombing, an office spokesman said. Announcements will be made from week to week.

Predictions by the Game Management division of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission are that hunters are assured this year of a "generally good to outstanding season." They predict that deer, dove, quail and snipe hunters will harvest more of these species this year than in previous years.

Several Highlands County hunters in past weeks have run afoul of the law—and very active game wardens—and have been hauled into court for taking over the limit in doves. It's been costing them fines of $25 in county court.

Turkey hunting state-wide is expected to be slightly below par. The wildhog population is believed unchanged. The squirrel harvest outlook is dampened only by the continual loss of habitat to other land uses.

Florida last year was eighth in total deer harvest, second in duck harvest in the 17 state Atlantic Flyway, third in turkey hunting in the nation, and first in number of dove hunters in the 16-state Eastern Management Unit of the United States.

A record number of 7,873 hunters banged away at assorted game on the 196,000 acres of the bombing range last year. Among the kill were two 10-point bucks.

There is no shooting on the range during week days because it is used by bombers practicing from MacDill Field, Tampa. Hunters between the age of 15 and 65 must obtain a hunting license and all hunters over the age of 16 must obtain a duck stamp before hunting ducks.

Hunters who hunt on the bombing range wildlife management area are urged to exercise extreme caution. There are unexploded bombs and rockets scattered about and "do not touch or disturb" is the key warning for sportsmen. The unexploded ordnances are not duds and each is armed and may be set off by a minor disturbance.

THE REFEREES SIGNAL a touchdown for Avon Park as fullback Billy Richards ploughs through the line for the Red Devil's first TD in last week's game with Arcadia. Richards scored another touchdown in the fourth quarter as Avon Park upset the Arcadia team 25-19. Richards carried the ball 34 times for Avon Park during the evening gaining a total of 119 yards.

Highlands Goes Republican Following Statewide Trend

It was Nixon for President and Spiro Agnew for vice president in Highlands Couty as this area went Republican as usual in a national election.

In the lone contest for county office, early returns gave the race to Democrat Robert Skipper, but the traditionally heavy Republican absentee vote could turn the tide for Republican Herb Harmon. Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Droit estimated that counting on the 660 absentee ballots may continue into today (Thursday).

Although votes for individual offices varied sharply there was evidence of much straight party voting for offices outside the county. Ed Gurney, Republican nominee for US Senate, piled up a whopping 5,464 votes to lead the ticket in this county. He bested former Democratic Governor LeRoy Collins state-wide.

Robert Rust won the Highlands vote for Congressman, but incumbent Democrat Paul Rogers, with a 22,000 margin boost from his home county of Palm Beach, swept to a 93,665 to 69,511 victory.

Republican Granville Crabtree, who led in Highlands, took an early district lead over Russell Jordan (D) in his bid for a second term in the Florida Legislature. With 78 out of 81 precincts reporting, Crabtree had run up 33,739 votes to Jordans 22,908. Sarasota, home county for both candidates, gave Crabtree a margin of almost 12,000 votes.

Fellow Republicans Jim Tillman and Donald E. Heath were without opposition for the Florida House, and Democrat Wilbar Boyd had no opposition for the state Senate.

Thirteen county officials without opposition needed only one vote each to be elected, but each piled up heavy votes, and eight went over the 4,000 mark. Democratic nominee for sheriff Joe Keene ran up the largest county vote—4,412.

George Wallace ran a strong second in the Presidential race in Highlands County, receiving 3,304 votes to 4,148 for Nixon and 2,430 for Hubert Humphrey. In the Lake Placid area, where former State Senator Hayward Davis was campaign ing for Wallace, the third party candidate came out on top.

Court Race Close

Tightest race in the county, was the Justice of the Florida Supreme Court, Group 3. Governor Claude Kirk's controversial appointee Wade Hopping squeaked past Vassar B. Carlton (the statewide winner) by a six-vote margin.

Republicans C. Richard Leavengood (opposing Joe Boyd) and David L. McCain, opposing James C. Adkinson, Jr., received Highlands County's support, and Republican Joseph P. McNulty got the county's nod for District Court of Appeals, Group B over Carl Durrance. Democrat T. Frank Hobson, Jr., was unopposed for District Court of Appeals, Group C. Boyd, Adkins and Durrance won.

In the race for Public Service Commission, Republican Ray C. Osborne was given a 600-vote margin in this county (not enough to overcome Jess Yarborough's big margins in large counties).

State Attorney Glen Darty and Public Defender Lee Roy Horton, Jr., both Democrats, ran up more than 3,000 each as unopposed candidates.

Judge Denies Motion For Mistrial On Last Day of Maxey Case

As Circuit Court Judge William K. Love denied defense motions for a mistrial and a directed verdict of acquittal, the murder trial of John J. Sweet today had moved into its final phase.

A Circuit Court jury of six men and six women began deliberations in the sensational case, which at one time appeared headed down the drain when the star witness, widow Irene Maxey, turned up in a psychiatric hospital.

Defendant Sweet, as in his first trial a year ago in Bartow, for the murder-for-hire of citrus millionaire Charles Von Canon Maxey, took the witness stand to declare his innocence.

New Testimony

Testimony not brought out at the previous trial came to light Tuesday as attorneys for Sweet charged that investigator Roma C. Trulock had "immoral relations" with Mrs. Maxey, free-wheeling widow of the murder victim.

Attorney James McEwen, representing Sweet, declared this is why Trulock recommended Mrs. Maxey be granted immunity from prosecution in the slaying in trade for her testimony against Sweet. He said Trulock, special investigator for the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement, expected to gain financially from the Maxey estate.

The jury was dismissed while McEwen argued for the directed verdict of acquittal. After the jury was sent out of the court room, the other defense attorney, Walter Manley, told the judge that Von Maxey had had an illicit relationship of long standing with an unidentified woman and said the woman would take the witness stand to tell the jury her husband once threatened to kill Maxey.

But Love told Manley he would need more evidence than an indication of animosity between the mystery woman's husband and Maxey before authorizing the defense to call the woman.

Traded Guilty Plea?

In other developments Tuesday, defense attorneys maintained that Trulock, employed by the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement, had attempted to strike a deal with Sweet by trading a guilty plea for a charge of lesser seriousness than the first degree murder charge.

The 53-year-old Sweet took the stand briefly to testify about the alleged deal offered and to say that he had rejected it.

In a question-and-answer session, Trulock denied any improper conduct with Mrs. Maxey or taking any money from her. Later in the afternoon, Mrs. Maxey took the stand again to assert Trulock had had sexual relations with her on several occasions.

"He came to my house almost every day after Johnny Sweet was arrested," she said. On one occasion, she said, after "we did some drinking, he had sexual relations with me. He told me he had a license to do that and was going to protect me."

Mrs. Maxey also charged Trulock had kept $5,000 of a total of $40,000 he had helped her transfer from a Bartow savings bank in Wauchula and Sebring institutions.

Judge Love said he was denying letting the jury hear this testimony because it was outside the question of Sweet's guilt or inocence. Mrs. Maxey's accusations of improper conduct, he added, might be the subject of another investigation.

The state rested its case at 11:30 A.M. Tuesday after calling some 50 witnesses and putting in 55 exhibits, including a bloody shirt and sheet, and a slashed tire into evidence.

One of Tuesday's defense motions centered on the absence of Boston hoodlum Billy Kelly from the trial. Kelly, with the late Andrew von Etter, had been placed in the state and in Sebring the day of the murder. Kelly's absence from the trial was attacked by McEwen, who pointed out the man is in a Massachusettes prison and could be summoned to Florida.

Sweet's first trial ended November 11 a year ago in the same Barlow courtroom when a jury of 11 men and one woman found themselves unable to agree. The case was moved to Bartow when it proved impossible to obtain an impartial jury in Highlands County.

It is estimated the first trial cost taxpayers a considerable amount of money. Highlands County alone paid out $15,000, for which the state reimbursed them $1,800.

SEEN AT FARC was this two foot non-poisonous spread-netter snake trying to devour a large frog for its dinner and would have succeeded if one of the maintenance men had not caught it in the act. After the picture was taken by Don Thieme the snake's head was severed, releasing the frog who made fast tracks getting away from the scene.

Retarded Children's Meeting Monday

The annual fund drive and opening of developmental training centers in Highlands County will head the agenda for the meeting of the board of directors of Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children Monday. The meeting is scheduled for 7:30 P.M. at the Ridge Area Day School in Avon Park.

Steve Roberts, Jr., association president, said sites for developmental training centers for preschool handicapped children have been prepared adjacent to Ridge Area Day School in Avon Park and at First Christian Church in Sebring.

"Pre-school enrollees have been identified, a program outlined, space requirements met and application to the Florida Division of Mental Retardation for grant assistance has been completed," Roberts said. "Applications are now being received for persons interested in serving as center directors."

Roberts said inquiries about working in the pre-school centers should be directed to him or to the Division of Mental Retardation office at the courthouse annex.

The directors of Ridge Area Association will, at their Monday night meeting, also receive information on the observance of National Retarded Children's Week, report of the recent national conference on the prevention of mental retardation and report of the day camping program in Highlands County this past Summer.

First Concert To Be Presented November 19

Highlands Community Concert Association will launch the season's series of four concerts in Sebring and Avon Park Tuesday night, Nov. 19.

Collene Conks' Dance Co., will appear that night at 8 P.M. in Sebring High School.

The second concert features David Barillan, pianist, at 3:30 P.M. Sunday, Jan. 5, in Sebring.

The Avon Park concerts, in the high school are at 8 P.M. Tuesdays. The February 18, concert will feature the Turnesu opera "La Boheme" in English. Christopher Parkening, classical guitarist, will appear March 18.

Membership in the Highlands association entitles members to attend other community concerts in the United States. The nearest associations are Bartow and Lake Wales. The schedules are:

Bartow: 8:15 P.M., December 3, Marlowes, twin pianists; February 3, Norman Luboff choir; March 20, Christopher Parkening, guitarist.

Lake Wales, 8:15 P.M. January 14, Hogans and Howard, duo pianists; February 3, Marta Backett, pantomimist; March 21, Varel & Bailly, French singers.

Highlands president Buford Jasper has asked members interested in entertaining any of the artists to contact Jack Smith. Such parties can be arranged, Jasper said, if the artists' schedule permits, and is appreciated by them if they have a free day or two before the concert.

Membership cards were put in the mail today (Thursday).

DEPUTY KING RESIGNS

Deputy Sheriff Gerald King has resigned from the Highlands County's Sheriff's office to become a deputy sheriff in Palm Beach County. His wife, Sheila, is secretary to juvenile counselor Bob Lindsay. The Kings will move to Palm Beach County shortly.

Let's Remember Veterans Day Nov. 11

How busy are you? None of us should be too busy to pause from our daily routines this 11th day of November—Veterans' Day—to honor those who helped to preserve our freedom.

Fifty years ago today, the guns of World War One were stifled. Today, we honor four generations of war veterans who have shown that dedicated and willing men and women from all walks of life will meet the highest obligation of their citizenship.

The American Veteran symbolizes the deep-rooted determination necessary to defend the cause of freedom. Let's show him our appreciation and support by our participation in the Veterans' Day observance here in Avon Park.

SOCIAL SECURITY CHANGE

Jack Carter, Social Security representative to this area, said he will not be at the postoffice annex as usual on Monday, Nov. 11, but will be there on Tuesday, Nov. 12 from 9:30 to 11 A.M.

Red Devils Upset Arcadia 25-19 In First Home Game

The Avon Park Red Devils finally generated a full game of crushing offensive power to upset the DeSoto High Bulldogs 25-19 here at Memorial Field last Friday night as they opened a four game home stand to close out the season.

The win was especially sweet since the Arcadia team was riding a high-scoring 4-1 record and the Red Devils were winless in six tries. Also the Bulldogs had shut out Avon Park 19-0 last year in Arcadia.

Tomorrow (Friday) night the Red Devils will have an open date before finishing out the season here at Memorial Field against first, Okeechobee on November 15, then Lake Placid on November 22, and finally the big Thanksgiving Homecoming game against Sebring on November 27.

The Avon Park offense ground out 372 yards of rushing yardage against the Arcadia defense with fullback Billy Richards carrying the ball 34 times for a total net yardage of 119 yards, halfback Willie Joe Seigler toting the pigskin 21 times for 178 yards and an 8.5 yard average per carry, and halfback Neil Caswell carrying 11 times for a gain of 85 yards and a 7.7 yard average per carry. Quarterbacks Gene Landress and Don Sisemore alternated in the signal-calling slot and Landress chalked up his first TD of the season with a ten yard run for the winning six points.

The Red Devil defense contributed to the scoring effort with a fumble recovery by Tom Townsend which set up the second Avon Park touchdown and a pass interception by Bill Richards on his own 8-yard line to stop an Arcadia threat and set up the Red Devil's go-ahead TD in the fourth quarter.

Arcadia jumped off to an early 13-0 lead as they moved from the opening kick-off for a 67-yard scoring effort on three completed passes and one three yard running gain. The TD itself was scored by end Jeff Varnadoe as he gathered in a pass from quarterback Rex Smith and ran some 20 yards into the end zone. The play covered 38 yards. The kick for the P.A.T. was no good.

On the following kick-off Avon Park drove to the DeSoto 26-yard marker before they were driven back and gave up possession on the Arcadia 32-yard line. From that point, Arcadia moved in for another score grinding out the 68 yards on the ground this time. Slot back Charles Washington went in for the DeSoto score from six yards out on a reverse play around right end. The extra point was kicked by Dorsey Scroggins to set the visitors out front 13-0 midway in the first quarter.

Avon Park took possession of the ball on their own forty after the next kick-off after some contraversy when Arcadia tried an onside kick. Devil halfback Neil Caswell scampered around his right end after taking a pitch-out for a thirty-yard pick-up to the Arcadia 30-yard line on the first play from scrimmage and then with the help of Billy Richards and two five yard penalties against Arcadia the Devils moved in for the score. Caswell had another ten yard gain in the drive and Richards went in from the one foot line for the TD. Sisemore's kick for the point after barely missed to leave the score 13-6 early in the second quarter.

The Red Devils struck again quickly after Avon Park center Tom Townsend recovered an Arcadia fumble on the Avon Park 45-yard line before the Bulldogs could generate another drive. Again the Devils moved on the ground with Richards, Seigler, and Caswell grinding out the yardage. A fifteen yard personal foul penalty against DeSoto aided the Devil cause early in the drive. The touchdown came from the sixteen yard line on a fourth down with about fifteen yards needed for the first down. Willie Joe Seigler took a pitch-out and outran the Arcadia defense around left end for the six pointer. Sisemore's boot for the extra point was blocked and the Devils trailed 13-12.

The remainder of the second period was a defensive battle. Arcadia moved to the Avon Park 31-yard line before they were forced to punt and then Avon Park moved from its 2-yard line out to the Bulldogs 38-yard line before a lost fumble stopped the drive. The Bulldogs went to the air as time ran out in the first half and moved to the Devil eighteen before they threw four incomplete passes and the half ended.

The third period was scoreless. Avon Park lost possession on its first drive with a pass interception at the Arcadia 35-yard line. Then Arcadia moved to the Devil's 35 before they were driven back and forced to punt. Avon Park moved out from its own fifteen to the 47-yard line and again lost possession with a fumble. The Bulldogs looked certain to move further ahead as they passed to the Devil 18-yard line but Devil 18-yard line but defensive halfback Billy Rich-

First Round Of Inspection Ends In November

Highlands County is approaching the end of the first motor vehicle inspection period "in good shape." Judging from the number of tag sales in the county, approximately 1500 vehicles are still to be inspected by the end of November.

Inspection Director John Gercken said the stations in Avon Park and Sebring can handle that number easily "if they come on in and don't wait until the last week."

Gercken said the two stations are handling between them, 100 to 125 cars per day. This includes "quite a few" vehicles from other counties, Gercken said, but he did not have the exact out-of-county count readily available.

At this week's county commission meeting Gercken reported that he and two others men had been named to draft a charter for a new state-wide motor vehicle inspection organization. The new group will be connected with the highway safety council and the Florida Highway Patrol.

Hunting, Fishing and Dollars

It's no secret that hunting and fishing is one of Florida's great industries and that it accounts in large measure for the Sunshine State's annual tourist business.

The recreational delights of these sports are matched by a growing awareness that—dollar-wise—hunting and fishing contribute to the bank account of all Florida citizens. And the hunting and fishing are just gr at in Highlands County.

According to W. B. Copeland, chairman of the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, hunters and fresh water fishermen contributed more than an estimated $183 million to Florida's expanding economy during the fiscal year 1966-67, and will contribute even more during the year, ending June 30.

Expenditures by hunters in 1966-67 were estimated to be $27,317,648.50 and $156,472,622.94 by fresh water fishermen, for a total of $183,790,311.44.

Expenditure by sportsmen in Florida is above the average. Florida also has one of the longest hunting seasons in the nation. These opportunities for outdoorsmen result in far more man-days participation in both hunting and fishing than the national average.

The big, big hunting season heareabouts starts a week from Saturday, when quail, deer and turkey are fair game. There won't be something for everybody—there never is—but what fun trying! And think of the money going into circulation!

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Because of the mental anguish and emotional upheavals brought about by alcoholism, most people's thoughts on this subject are centered around these two aspects more than the results of excessive drinking from the physical standpoint.

And among the bodily derailments brought about by alcoholism, probably the most commonly-talked about is cirrhosis of the liver. Yet cirrhosis is far from being the only physical problem caused by excessive drinking.

Out of 100 patients afflicted with alcoholism, ten are likely to have "fatty livers" although only one of these fatty liver conditions ordinarily develops into cirrhosis.

This is the word from Dr. Jared Kniffen of the Department of Gastro-enterology, College of Medicine, J. Hillis Miller Medical Center, University of Florida.

In other words, although only one patient out of 100 alcoholics will likely develop actual cirrhosis, there are ten who will have a fatty liver condition which can and usually does cause discomfort and eventually more serious problems.

A fatty liver sometimes offers no early symptoms; other times it causes the patient to have a feeling of enlargement.

Dr. Kniffen says there are a whole spectrum of diseases of the liver resulting from alcoholism, in addition to cirrhosis. One of them is acute alcoholic hepatitis which is not uncommon among those who drink excessively. This causes the liver to become swollen and tender, and can cause temporary interference with normal actions of the organ.

It can thus easily be seen that the hazards of excessive booze are not limited to loss of jobs, loss of friends, and loss of family. It can also bring loss of health—physical as well as emotional or mental.

Why then do some six million Americans continue to live as alcoholics? Well, the consensus among specialists in this field today is that people misuse alcohol because of hidden emotional problems.

No one knows all the answers by any means. But we are beginning to see that alcoholics have some major lacks in personality and emotional outlook. They lack some skill in the art of living.

The main thing to remember is that the very first step for the alcoholic is to recognize that alcoholism is his problem. This may be easier said than done.

If you'd like more information on the subject of alcoholism, the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program has it, and it's yours free for the asking.

WILLIE JOE SEIGLER, number 36 on the Avon Park team, carries the ball in for the Devil's second touchdown against Arcadia here last week. Avon Park went on to win 25-19 over the favored Bulldogs. Seigler averaged 8.5 yards per carry as the Devils racked up 372 yards of rushing in the big win.

Red Devils

ards stepped in front of big Charles Washington and stole a pass to give Avon Park the ball on its own ten yard line.

From the ten the Red Devils started rolling and marched the 90 yards for the go-ahead TD with Richards slamming in from inches out to culminate the drive. Again Seigler, Richards, and Caswell took turns gaining through the line and around the ends with Landress and Sisemore alternating at the quarterback position. The extra point attempt was successful this time as Don Sisemore faked a kick and passed to Seigler in the end zone. The score stood 19-13 early in the final quarter.

The Bulldogs recovered an on-side kick by the Devils at their own 46-yard line and moved for the tie TD with just 7 running plays. Charles Washington raced eighteen yards around right end for the touchdown. However, the kick for the extra point was wide and the score stood 19-19 midway in the fourth quarter.

The Red Devils returned the Bulldogs kick-off to their own thirty and then slowly marched the needed 70 yards for the final TD of the game. Seigler opened the drive up with a 25-yard scamper and then the Devil backs just ground out the yardage to DeSoto ten yard line. There with fourth down and four yards needed for a first down, Gene Landress started to pitch out but saw a tackle break through and turned back to the line with the ball. The senior quarterback was hit twice but broke through into the clear just before he crossed the goal line for the TD. Seigler was stopped short on the extra point run and DeSoto took the kick-off with less than a minute left in the game.

In that final minute Arcadia ran five plays with Avon Park drawing one fifteen yard penalty and the Bulldogs drawing a fifteen yarder before three incomplete passes and the final whistle gave Avon Park the much needed victory.

The Red Devil offensive line which opened the way for the 372 yards of rushing had Curtis Hulen and Tim Braswell at ends, Orlando Libron and Randy Ward (a freshman) at tackles, Horace Watson and Jim Nunnallee at guards, and Tom Towns and at center, Head Coach Joe Franza refused to single out any linemen for special praise after viewing the film of the game Monday but did say that all of them made some exceptional plays and mistakes.

The defense which held the Bulldogs to 19 points had Richards, Landress and Caswell at halfbacks; Seigler, Townsend, Sisemore and Dennis Hart playing linebacker; Braswell, Hulen and Hamilton handling the end positions; and Libron, Watson, Ward, Ed Reck, Ricky Dick, Walter Nunnallee, and Jerry Kendrick switching around at defensive tackle and more slots all evening. Larry Tolbert and Lorenzo Nelson saw action on the kick-off team as Franza played all members of the varsity squad sometime during the game.

The main business of the program was the new blood bank project for our community, introduced by Bro. Danforth, who, with George Walper, explained the charges for administering blood, and for purchase of blood, $20 and $45. This will be published by the hospital. There is a clear need for a blood bank (Walking Bank), where people who are willing donors for their group (church) would be on file as to type, etc. to give when needed, and credit their group on its ledger sheet. Accounts could be traded between groups. The hospital would set up a time and place for our people to register and be typed, and notify the churches and other groups.

Assignments for services at Hillcrest Nursing Home were checked on the schedule already sent out to members.

Report of the Thanksgiving Service committee made by Bro. Hardee. It will be at First United Methodist Church, Thanksgiving day at 9 A.M. Assignments were checked by outline sheet to members. It is to be publicized that this is for the whole community and the offering to go toward helping stranded strangers by our local clergy, and for sending local youngsters to Summer Camp.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and gave a financial report.

Since Bro. Sleepe our president had moved to Orlando to another Charge, the election of a new president became a necessity. Bro. Dance was nominated and unanimously elected. Bro. Lester Miller was elected vice president. The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Bro. Danforth.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

Hue Nunnallee introduced the "progressive conservative" congressman from Palm Beach, Paul Rogers, to the Rotary Club on Wednesday. Mr. Rogers is presently serving as a United States Congressman and is seeking re-election to the position from the 9th Congressional District. Mr. Rogers presented a very interesting talk which was of great interest to all of the members present. He elaborated on most of the important issues facing this nation, such as Vietnam, Law and Order, the Crime Bill, Federal Spending and many other issues.

Congressman Rogers stated that he favored a bombing pause in Vietnam, but only if the North Vietnamese cease being the aggressor after the bombing halt.

On the subject of crime and the breakdown of law and order, the Congressman stated that this problem exists at home as well as in the larger cities. Recent statistics show that Miami, Jacksonville and Tampa have higher crime rates than Washington, D.C. This point alone emphasized the need of more state and local support of law enforcement. According to Mr. Rogers, one of the major causes for the crime increase in this country is the soft attitude of the courts toward criminals. Too much probation has caused many criminal repeaters. The last session of Congress attempted to take away the control of the Crime Bill from the Attorney General and give it to the state and local authorities. Steps were taken to reverse recent Supreme Court decision which have given the criminal an advantage over the police.

Mr. Rogers stated that he felt the present Attorney General was the worst this country had ever had; and unless he is replaced, the criminals will continue to receive all the breaks.

On the subject of federal spending, Mr. Rogers stated that there must be a limit on the federal "give away" programs. Although some of the programs are very good, a large percentage of them are being mismanaged and serve no useful purpose. It is the opinion of Mr. Rogers that in several large cities these federal aid programs financed riots and destruction.

Mr. Rogers ended by saying the United States is still the greatest nation in the world and all of us should be proud to be a United States citizen.

'B' Team Will Close Season Against Sebring

The Avon Park Red Devil "B" team will close out its season tonight (Thursday) in Sebring against the Streak junior varsity starting at 7:30 o'clock.

When the two teams met earlier in the season the game ended in a 6-6 tie, so both teams will be anxious for a win tonight.

Avon Park is winless in four starts this year having lost to Fort Meade twice by scores of 13-0 and 19-6 and once to Arcadia by a score of 33-0.

Fans are urged to back the junior varsity in sebring tonight. The game scheduled for them against Arcadia last week was cancelled so the boys on the junior varsity could work out with the varsity to strengthened the squad for last Friday's battle with Arcadia. Evidentally the "B" squad boys boosted the morale of the varsity quite a bit since the senior squad upset the DeSoto High team for its first win of the season.

Recommend "Dr. Pest" As Sure-Fire Insecticide for Household Use

Do it yourself . . . be your own professional exterminator . . . save from $50 to $100 per year!

Sounds nice doesn't it? Well — it can be done, provided you have two things going for you. Without them it's money down the drain.

First, the insecticide formula you use must be designed to kill resistant German roaches, and not just some of them, but every last one of them. A single female, giving birth to 40 roaches with one egg, may be the ancestor to as many as 38,000 roaches in one breeding season.

Roaches are tough! Fossils found in coal indicate that giant roaches roamed the earth some 300 million years ago, or 200 million years prior to the advent of man. They can survive for a month without food or water and can last a few days with their head cut off.

Etymologists say that "cockroach" is derived from ably 5,000 species of cockroaches, but only four are the Spanish; cucaracha; Entomologists say there are probably found in Florida dwellings. Of these the German roach gives the most headaches.

Roaches are smart too! They have already achieved the "Great Society."

A formidable adversary . . . but Dr. Pest is even tougher.

The formula of Dr. Pest is available to and used by many pest control operators. The residual killer used in Dr. Pest, Dieldrin, was credited back in the early 1950's with completely solving the cockroach nuisance on ships.

Despite this toxicity to roaches, it is no more toxic to humans or pets than most other insecticides on the market and in addition to roaches it kills almost every other variety of insect pest.

The second item you need to do your own exterminating is a sprayer which will do everything that the ones used by the professionals will do. You have to get at the hard-toreach-places where roaches congregate and it cannot be done with an aerosol type spray. The sprayer furnished with Dr. Pest is a heavy duty industrial model of the type you are familiar with on other products.

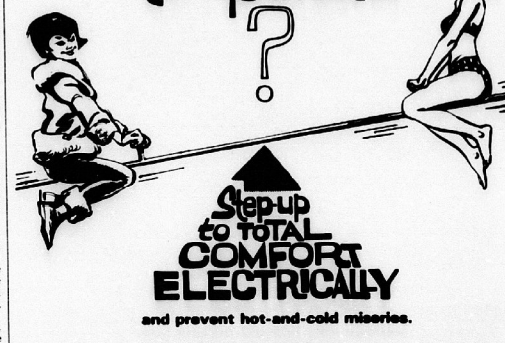

With the formula and the sprayer, you can be your own professional exterminator and enjoy the feeling of spraying when you want to and the feeling of independence from both insects and exterminators. Spray when you see bugs, or spray more often and never see them. The choice is yours.

Not only does Dr. Pest take over the professional's job, but it's built to order for those other jobs around the house that cost you extra money. Dr. Pest contains another insecticide — the one they hang in strips to kill flying insects. Spray your screens against gnats or "no see 'ems." Adjust nozzle to stream and spray outside under the eaves for spiders, mud daubers and wasps. Keep your lawn clear of ants.—Adv.

Projects underway for the club are dedication of the flag, donated to them by Rep. Paul Rogers and the flag pole, to be held November 11, 8:30 A.M. at the club house. Details listed in a separate item in this paper. The rummage sale will be held at the club November 8 and 9. Mrs. Charles Sargent in charge. The club house will be open Wednesday and Thursday to receive materials for the sale. The sale will open at 8:30 each day. Early buyers will receive the choice articles. Another money project is the sale of place mats containing pictures of Florida, $3 for a set of six. These may be purchased from any member of the club. November 21 is the highly successful yearly tour of all type of homes in Avon Park. Tickets for the tour are $1 and may be purchased from any member, or at the club house where tea will be served and maps included with each ticket, showing location of each home on the tour.

The club is very grateful to Malcolm Crews and Mr. Wells of the Florida Power Corp. for their assistance in erecting the flag pole in front of the club for the new flag.

Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, program chairman, presented Joe Keene, Sheriff-elect of Highlands County who gave a most interesting talk on "Crime Control" based on his experiences received during his 18 years as a law enforcement officer. "People are more concerned with rights and privileges than discipline, law and order," he said, continuing that 71% are becoming victims of a crime." He cited the need for young people to choose respect their heritage, the need to keep them busy, active in school work, to work closer with the youth and to give a deep concern for their future. He will assume office as Sheriff of Highlands County the first of the year.

A social hour with refreshments was held following the meeting, by hostesses Mrs. Dennis Roche and Mrs. Herbert Hoppe.

An unusual and seemingly profitable occupation, and one that is employed no place else on earth, is followed in the swamps of southern New Jersey.

MRS. HUDSON, director of food services at Walker Memorial Hospital, lights the candles on the cake which was to honor George Washington Wilson on his 104th birthday. The party was never held. The honoree fell a few hours previous and broke his hip.

Young Married Class Hold Halloween Party

The Young Married Fellowship Class of the South Florida Avenue Baptist Church, enjoyed a Halloween Party last week. The party was held in the staff training building at the Avon Park Bombing Range.

Weiners were roasted over an open fire and eaten by candlelight, witches, skeltons, goblins looking on.

A costume fashion show was staged with prizes awarded to Mrs. Virgil Choate and Mrs. Wendell Williams, which was very amusing.

Patsy Perez Honored With Linen Shower

Miss Patsy Perez, bride-elect of George Parnell, whose marriage will take place November 22, was honored with a linen shower, given by Mrs. J. E. Johnson at her home Tuesday morning, Oct. 29.

Flower arrangements of bronze mums in straw containers holding yellow umbrellas were used on the table and throughout the home. The bride-elect was presented an imitation corsage made of three linen handkerchiefs, arranged with ribbons and a flower center. Gifts of a linen handkerchief was given to each mother of the couple.

Instead of playing games each guest was given a large and small cloth which they decorated with textile paints. Mrs. Dale Durden won the prize for the best decoration.

Gifts for the bride-elect were placed in an old time linen chest box. The hostess gift was a pair of crochet edged pillow cases.

The Birthday Party That "Wasn't"

Places were set for 16 guests in the dining room of Walker Memorial Hospital, Sunday, Nov. 3 in anticipation of the 104th birthday celebration of George Washington Wilson of Frostproof. The table was centered with a large decorated "Happy Birthday" cake in gold, with a large candle on each corner, symbolic of the second hundred years which was four years on the way. Flower arrangements of red Hibiscus adorned the table, all was ready for the guest of honor, Centenarian George Washington Wilson, who only a few hours previous fell, while doing some chores around his farm, and broke his hip, and now confined in Lake Wales Hospital.

With much regret his close friend, Mr. Double of Frostproof, the one who had helped plan the party, broke the news to the guests who were waiting.

Mr. Wilson, was very active for his years, doing his own gardening and enjoying good health. Coming from Fort Meade, he and his wife, 28 years his junior, have lived in Frostproof for the past 40 years. They are the parents of one son, Druid Wilson, who is a geologist in Washington, D. C. and one daughter, who passed away one year ago.

The cake was taken to the hospital, where he enjoyed it with attendants and friends.

NOV EDUCATION WEEK

WHEREAS, The quality of life in our nation's future will be determined largely by the direction given to and the character developed by today's youth; and

WHEREAS, Our nation's schools play a paramount role in defining that direction and shaping that character by endeavoring to—

Offer pupils the opportunity to learn and practice society's values, direct intellectual development toward recognizing, making, and evaluating choices, and consider the curriculum in terms of its total impact on the value development of children;

Recognize the needs of a complex society, view education in terms of national goals, encourage international understanding, and foster divergent and creative thinking as a means of improving society;

Encourage the teaching of children as individuals and employ only teachers with the preparation and personal qualities necessary for effective teaching;

Offer each child a meaningful education suited to his individual needs regardless of the child's ability level, geographic location, or socioeconomic status;

Stimulate continuing inquiry, with emphasis placed on the value of learning for its own rewards, and provide opportunities for a broad general education.

Contribute to economic progress by providing early and realistic career counseling, educating all students to the full extent of their abilities, and maintaining a vocational educational program of the highest quality;

Enhance the human quality of students by helping them discover and develop their abilities and live contentedly within their limits, advocate constructive attitudes toward leisure interests, and encourage both adaptability to change and action to direct change in ways beneficial to humanity; and

WHEREAS, In the achievement of these endeavors lies the happiness and well-being of the individual as well as that of society as a whole; and

WHEREAS, One of the primary duties of an enlightened citizenry must, therefore, be knowledge of, interest in, and responsibility for the quality of our schools,

Now, Therefore, I, James M. Deerr, Mayor of Avon Park, Florida, do hereby designate November 10-16, 1968, to be American Education Week and urge all citizens to examine more closely the existing and projected programs of our schools, as well as their own efforts to ensure the highest quality education for all.

Band Students, Parents Work Together

One opinion on which the experts agree concerning parent-student relationships is that parents who stay close to their student's interest enjoy a happier companionship and experience less of the generation-gap.

All parents of band students appreciate the joys of working together and the music appreciation which band students in Avon Park High School experience under the able direction of Vic Mickunas.

How can these parents improve relationships and show their concern?

Very simply! By showing up at 7:30 Monday night, Nov. 11, in the band room. At present count there are 87 students in the senior high band and 70 members of the junior high band. This means a good many parents are not making the effort to attend meetings. How does one become a member of the Band Boosters—simply by paying a membership fee of $1 per parent (of course both parents is ideal and that is $2).

The fee may be sent via the student or better yet brought in the hand of the parent. Mrs. McDaniels is membership chairman and she will be ready with membership cards.

The Band Boosters' president, Billy Martin, runs a fast moving agenda with a number of controversial items planned for this meeting.

Maybe such a colossal dream as a collapsible band shell or a homecoming ballet will be in order — maybe not — but whatever is in the planning stage should be discussed by all parents.

These years when the child is in high school are fleeting — have some happy memories of times together by backing up your band student and his director.

The world's smallest backboned creature, and the smallest known fish, is native to creeks and ponds in the Philippines. It attains a maximum length of one-half inch, or about size of an ant.

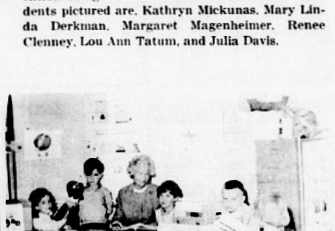

MRS. OUTLAWS fouth grade class—Mrs. Ann Mickunas is the music teacher. The purpose of the music education program is to present a well balanced program of singing, listening, and music theory. Through the study of rhythm, learning to read notes and the correct method of voice production, students are learning to appreciate and enjoy music.

Students To Have Holiday Monday

November 11 is a holiday for Avon Park school students and parent-teacher conference day for teachers and parents.

Teachers will be available in their classrooms for conferences from 8:30 A.M. to 12 noon and from 1 P.M. to 3:30 P.M. Parents are encouraged to visit teachers of their children.

Some of the teachers will be attending a county-wide social studies meeting in Sebring on November 11 from 1 P.M. to 4 P.M. However all teachers will be available at their respective schools in the morning.

Parents conferring with high school teachers should register in the foyer of the main building where copies of their child's schedule are available for their use. Many of the Future Teachers of America will provide this service and also act as guides.

Parent-teacher conference day is of particular significance since report cards for the high school and Hopewell will go out to students on November 8, and on the 7th for the Avon Elementary School.

Show Your Spirit Week A Success

The cheerleaders of Avon Park High School placed SYS signs throughout the school halls last week.

Minutes after the signs were hung in the halls students and teachers began guessing what SYS stood for.

Friday during the pep rally the cheerleaders announced what SYS stood for. If you haven't guessed what SYS stands for it's, "Show Your Spirit."

The purpose of SYS Week was to build up the school spirit at the high school.

The cheerleaders and teachers seem to think SYS Week was a success.

Jr. Class Elects Candidate For Homecoming

The junior class had a meeting Wednesday, Oct. 30. This meeting lasted the better part of first period and was held for the election of Homecoming Queen Candidate. Marica McDougald was elected.

Marcia is a member of the Senior High Student Council, the annual staff, the honor society, and is a majorette for the third year.

At a previous meeting the juniors discussed a change in their class rings. They decided on a large ring, with a choice of a red chipped stone or a smooth one, and the band can be either white or yellow gold.

The officers of the junior class are: Manja Howard, president; Daryl Bennett, vice president; Bonnie Rowland, secretary; Nikkie Hancock, treasurer.

Assigned Seating Made In Assembly

The administration asked that assigned seating be made in the assembly by English sections so that attendance might be checked. This seemed advisable since homeroom sections are not in use in the school this year. Teachers assigned to these sections made specific seating assignments because many of them were not acquainted with the students. If a better method of checking attendance in assembly is desired present one through the Student Council.

Avon Park High School Glee Club To Perform Friday In Assembly

The students of Avon Park High School will be hearing, for the first time this year, the Avon Park High School Chorus under the direction of Kenneth Eberle, on November 8. The assembly will have a patriotic theme and the chorus will sing songs which are patriotic.

Songs include: "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," "From Sea to Shining Sea," "With a Voice of Singing," and "Turn Back Old Man."

Other special numbers will be sung also Friday. "The Cruel War" will be sung by Myrna Denny, John Hason, and Mike Bradberry. "They Call it America" will be sung by Beverely Pollard, Nickie Runner, Becky Tomek, and Barbara Bewis. Beverly Pollard will sing a solo "The Green Berets."

The Chorus gave their first concert of the year October 7 for the Nazarene Church in Avon Park. The congregation enjoyed them so much they took up an additional offering which they presented to the Chorus. This money will go toward the new blazers the Chorus is working for. The money was greatly appreciated.

In addition to their annual Christmas Concert they will be singing for various clubs and churches. They will present Sunday afternoon concerts and special concerts throughout the year.

So far they have had three successful money-making projects. The first was a Victory Dance. Another smaller project was a "Spook House" at the Halloween Carnival. The students not only made money, but had fun too. The largest project has been the "Candy Sale." They sold "Worlds Finest Chocolate" and made more money on this than any other single project of the past years. This money will go toward buying new blazers.

For the first time the Chorus has no officers. Instead there is an Executive Committee whose members were chosen by Mr. Eberle last year. The purpose of the committee is to discuss and work out problems and projects of the Chorus. They meet once a week. This new idea is working quite well. The members are Myrna Denny, Nita Howze, Gail Chestnut, Beverly Pollard, Becky Tomek, Barbara Bewis, Roger Gurganus, Linda Hebenthal, Maureen Collier, Donald Batts, and Marsha Wilson.

Mr. Eberle and the committee have drawn up new rules for the Chorus. Each student is given a pledge which they sign that states most of the major rules. New students wishing to join the Chorus must try out before the committee and Mr. Eberle.

All these new rules have been drawn up to build a better Chorus. The students all feel this year will be the best yet for the Avon Park High School Chorus.

Education Week Schedule

The week of November 11-15 has been designated as American Education Week. Activities for this week have been planned as follows for Avon Elementary School:

Parent Conference Day, November 11, 8:30-4; School Visitation Day, November 13, 1-3; PTA, November 14, 8 P.M.

The following schedule is to be observed on November 11 in order that each parent will have sufficient time with the teacher:

X, Y, Z, 8:30-9:30; A, B, C, D, 9:30-10:30; E, F, G, H, 10:30-11:30; I, J, K, L, 11:30-12:15; lunch hour, 12:15-1:15; M, N, O, P, 1:15-2:15; Q, R, S, T, 2:15-3:15; U, V, W, 3:15-4.

If it is impossible for you to confer with the teacher at your designated hour, please contact the teacher for another appointment. To avoid interruption during conferences, please go by the office before going to the classroom.

The parent-teacher conference should help the parent to understand the type of work his child is doing as well as the rate of progress he is making.

Week's Testimony Was Often Sensational

Testimony Began Wednesday

Testimony in the case began last Wednesday, with Mrs. Cathryn Higgins, whose son Ernest Higgins is married to Mrs. Maxcy's daughter, Johnnie Ruth, first to appear.

Mrs. Higgins was with Mrs. Maxcy the night of October 3, 1966, when they went to the Sparta Road home and discovered the body of the slain Maxcy.

Using last year's trial transcript, Defense Attorney James McEwen double checked Mrs. Higgins on one point. She testified that "she thought" Mrs. Maxcy had left the room of Johnnie Ruth Higgins at Walker Memorial Hospital the night of the murder to make or get a telephone call. McEwen pointed out she had previously testified that Mrs. Maxcy had left the room to make or get a phone call.

McEwen also double checked the testimony of Mrs. Vee Vee Stiles who said she heard a gunshot as she passed the Maxcy home the night of the murder. She pointed out her previous testimony was that she had heard what sounded like a gunshot.

Former Sebring policeman Earl Crawley testified he saw Von Maxcy's car parked at Southgate the night of the murder. He said he was just leaving Southgate when two cars, containing Mrs. Maxcy, Mrs. Cathryn Higgins, Dutch VanInwagen, John Sweet and Walter Pickett stopped him to tell him there was something wrong at Maxcy's house. They then went out to the house and found the body.

Thought She Saw Von

Mrs. Garnet Sherwood testified she saw Von Maxcy's car and somebody in it who she though was Von come off Route 27 and go toward the shopping center about 5:50 P.M. the night of the murder. She said, however, that the man's hair was windblown, and that his shirt was grayish, although Von seldom wore anything but khaki and plaids and his hair was always slicked down. Mrs. Higgins had seen Maxcy at 5:30 P.M., she testified, at the intersection of Ridgewood and Pine when their cars stopped for the light. He was headed towards the Circle, she said.

Among other testifying were Doug Estes, former radio operator for the sheriff's department, who dispatched officers to the Maxcy home the night of the murder; Deputy Sheriff George Crist, who testified the walls of the Maxcy home were very bloody. He had with him the blood-soaked shirt the victim was wearing.

Deputy J. C. Murdock said he checked the Maxcy home the night of the murder and found no evidence of forced entry.

Sheriff Broward Coker testified to the intensive investigation which followed the murder, including fingerprinting and checking of suspects' guns. He also said no fingerprints of William Kelly and the late Andrew VonEtter of Boston were found in the home. Prosecutor Darty in his opening statement to the jury had said Kelly and VanEtter driving a dark-topped car had driven to Sebring the day of the murder.

New Testimony Friday

Charles Von Maxcy's automobile tire was slashed in an apparent effort to kill him a week before he was murdered, widow Irene Maxcy testified, a fact which did not come out at the first trial.

Sweet stared at his ex-mistress, his arms folded and feet braced on the legs of his swivel chair, as she testified. She was one of about a dozen persons who testified Friday. Among them were microanalysts and weapons specialists of the Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement.

Ralph Galimore, of Sebring, gas station operator, identified the tire as having come from Maxcy's car and showed slash marks to the jury.

Among other exhibits were checks totaling $36,000 which Mrs. Maxcy said she gave to Sweet "to pay the killers with."

Sweet, she asserted, told her he had spent $75,000 "of his own money" to bring about Von Maxcy's death.

No gun has ever been linked to the slug, Leslie Smith, bureau firearms expert, said.

Saturday's Testimony

Ex-bartender Tommy Baddock, bodyguard for Irene Maxcy, testified Saturday "I thought I was in love with her (Irene Maxcy) at one time."

The 30-year-old Baddock was hired by Sheriff Broward Coker in July, 1967, shortly after Sweet was released under $5,000 bond. Baddock said he prevailed upon Mrs. Maxcy to hire him when he learned from his sister, Mrs. Dutch VanInwagen, that the widow was seeking protection. He lived in her house, borrowed money from her and let her pick up the tab when they went out for evenings and to Las Vagas.

"She Bought Me Clothes"

"She bought me clothes which I didn't ask for," Baddock said, and made her car available to him for a trip to Ft. Lauderdale.

Darty's questions brought out an account of an evening at Lake Wales Yacht Club when Baddock, Irene and Sweet were there together, late in July, 1967. Baddock said he heard Sweet "try to tell her she could change the story she told the state without committing perjury." He said Sweet gave her a look on perjury. He admitted he had had eight or nine drinks during the yacht club evening and "might have needed help" to get out of the place but asserted he was aware of what transpired and "I didn't pass out."

He said they got into an argument at an Avon Park cocktail lounge later and "she wanted a servant, not a bodyguard. That's why I was leaving."

Monday Testimony

John J. Sweet took the stand Monday, briefly, and while the jury was absent from the courtroom, to deny that he had sought any kind of deal with Sheriff's investigator Roma Trulock, and to say that he had agreed to talk to Trulock only upon the insistence of Mrs. Maxcy.

With the jury out of hearing late Monday, there was a dress-rehearsal of testimony to be drawn from Trulock about reported efforts by Sweet to strike a deal with the state for a charge less than the capital offense that now faces him.

Sweet said he had accused Trulock of carrying on an affair with the woman at one of the two meetings the agent and the defendant had late in the Summer of 1967.

Among those testifying before the jury Monday were Bostonites Annette Etter Abrams, beautiful blonde, and Jeanne (Mrs. Billy) Kelly, a dark haired barmaid. Prosecutor Glen Darty has said he intends to prove two Boston hoodlums did the actual murder of Maxcy. Their testimony has placed their husbands in Florida at the time of the murder.

Mrs. Etter's first husband, Andrew, was found murdered February 2, 1967. Kelly, a service station attendant, is serving time in a Massachusetts prison for "possession of burglarous implements."

During part of the time the jury was out of the room, defense attorneys attempted to get the judge's approval of testimony showing that the husband of a woman with whom Von Maxcy was intimate had threatened to kill him.

The judge cautioned Attorney Walter Manley that more evidence than animosity between Maxcy and the unidentified husband would be necessary to get jury consideration of the woman's testimony. Manly said the wronged husband's gun was tested by law officers during their unsuccessful search for the revolver which pierced Maxcy's skull. Sheriff Broward Coker earlier in the trial had testified that all gun tests turned up negative.

Brother of Von Maxcy at Trial

It's Been Awhile But John Smiled, Laughed

By ROSE MALLORY RICE

It was 1 P.M. Friday. Time to go back into the Bartow courtroom where John J. Sweet, 52, is on trial for his life in the murder-for-hire of Sebring millionaire Charles Von Maxcy.

Sun streamed through the long window in the lobby of the second floor rotunda. It was a beautiful Autumn day outside. Sweet, minus his black horn-rimmed glasses, sat in one of the chairs in the rotunda, just outside the courtroom. His neat charcoal gray suit became him. His seat commanded a good view of the elevator and of the two flights of stairs up which anybody must come to get into the courtroom.

He appeared jovial. His one-time mistress, Irene Maxcy had spent more than two hours testifying in his trial that morning —and she had forgotten much. The couple have been seen together several times since that first trial—the most recently a week ago.

Sweet's seat was beside a white-haired, elderly man he seemed to know. He lit a cigaret and chatted. He heard the noise of the elevator and looked to his left. Irene Maxcy, slightly rumpled, in a deep pumpkin suit, looking very tired, emerged. She did not glance in his direction. But he coughed a loud, noisy cough. She still did not look. His eyes followed her to the ladies powder room door at the end of the hall. She went in.

He sat and smoked another cigaret. He laughed and smiled. It was the first time this reporter had seen and heard John Sweet smile or laugh since the grisly business of the murder accusation came out 18 months ago.

The door to the powder room opened. Mrs. Maxcy emerged. She looked straight ahead, still not seeing him and went on into the witness room nearby. His eyes followed her as long as she was visible. He seemed pleased with what he saw. Then he crushed out his cigaret and went into the courtroom.

Irene Maxcy had spent much of the noon hour recess sitting on a bench on the courtroom lawn with her attorney, Fred Saussy, tall, elderly, graying, from Tampa. They seemed to have little to say to each other, and she mostly just sat and watched the traffic go by. She freshened her orange lipstick just before they arose to go inside.

As court reconvened, she was again called to the stand. Entering the courtroom from a side door, she passed directly in front of the counsel table where the defendant and his attorneys, James McEwen and Walter Manley were seated.

She looked at Sweet, a rather long look, then proceeded to the elevated witness box beside the black-robed presiding judge, William K. Love. As Irene passed, Sweet, lowered his eyes to the counsel table and slightly swiveled the leather chair.

The cross-examination was concluded in about 20 minutes. As she walked out, she did not glance at Sweet nor did he look at her. Once she was gone, he put on his black-rimmed glasses and picked up a yellow scratch pad, preparing to take notes on the next witness, whoever that might be.

He seemed cool and confident.

Jury Could Find Sweet Guilty of Lesser Offenses

Although John J. Sweet is on trial for his life—if found guilty in the first degree of murdering Charles Von Maxcy—he also could be found guilty of much lesser offenses—even manslaughter.

The question of capital punishment threatened to disqualify some jurors in the current trial, but Judge William K. Love has explained to them that their first obligation in the jury room will be to decide Sweet's guilt or innocence on the first degree count.

That verdict must be unanimous, he has pointed out, and if a unanimous guilty verdict is achieved, a simple majority of the jury may then recommend mercy to the court reducing a mandatory death sentence to life imprisonment.

The judge also has said that lesser offenses than first degree murder may be considered, none of them carrying a capital penalty. This is in substance the information he gave to the jury trying the case a year ago.

"I Don't Know; How Can I Remember?"

Sometimes weeping, sometimes defiant, widow Irene Maxcy was led through her testimony Friday at the re-trial of her former lover, John J. Sweet.

Appearing depressed and about 20 pounds heavier than when she testified at the first trial just a year ago, the widow of murdered Charles Von Maxcy flared at one point to Prosecutor Glen Darty.

"I don't know. How can I remember everything in the book?" referring to the transcript of the first trial's testimony. "I've been trying to forget all those bad things."

Wearing a silk and wool boxy suit in a deep pumpkin color, orange patent handbag and shoes and with her brown hair in a heavily teased up-do, the busty 45-year-old widow caused an audible gasp as she entered the courtroom. The bright outfit and the fact that she was there at all apparently came as a double surprise.

The trial had been thrown into turmoil only the day before when she failed to appear and her attorney said she had been admitted early that morning to a Lakeland psychiatric hospital. She had sought medication at Lakeland General Hospital, moaning and groaning, "too much pressure, too much pressure. Darty's out to get me."

As the widow came into the half-filled courtroom from a side door, she passed the counsel table where Sweet sat. She walked very slowly.

Her antagonism toward Darty was soon apparent as she answered his questions. He continually went to the bulky year-old transcript of testimony to "refresh" her memory as to what she had testified a year ago.

She had been judged "competent to be a witness in this trial" by Dr. Wilfred Jorge, Lakeland psychiatrist who had arranged her admission to Lakeland Manor, a private psychiatrisc hospital, where she spent Thursday.

Fortified with a nerve pill just before she took the stand, Mrs. Maxcy said her murdered husband had usually gotten along well with Sweet, although he "had troubles with him. Words. I guess you wouldn't call it a fight."

"About what?" Darty asked.

"Me." she said. "They'd come back, shake hands, make up again."

"Do you know why John Sweet hired the killers?" Darty asked.

"I guess it was to get me. That's what he said," she answered.

At another point she said she knew of three women whom her husband had been involved. She named them as Betty Benschoter, Doris Foster and "a woman from Lakeland." She said Mrs. Benschoter's husband, Harvey, was aware of the situation—"I told him."

As Darty concluded his examination, Attorney Walter Manley representing Sweet, began the questioning. He went back to the day that Mrs. Maxcy had given informaion in a Sebring motel room to state investigator Roma Trulock.

When Trulock questioned you, had you been drinking whisky?"

"Yes, all afternoon. He had a glass in my hand all the time he was there."

"Did this have any effect on you?"

"Yes it did have an effect on me. He came that night to the house, about 11 or 12 o'clock and drank more whisky until 2 or 3 in the morning."

"Did he stay all night?"

At the conclusion of her testimony she asked presiding Judge William K. Love "Can I go back to my motel room now?" She had been at a Holiday Inn in Lakeland.

She apparently is not staying in the luxurious Sparta Road home where her husband was found stabbed and shot in a pool of blood two years ago.

Is Irene Telling The Same Story as Before?

Is Irene Maxcy's testimony at the murder trial of her former lover John J. Sweet, whom she is known to be seeing again, substantially the same as at the first trial a year ago?

She has "forgotten" much, but Prosecutor Glen Darty has led her carefully through that first testimony, using the trial transcript.

Has she perjured herself?

Members of the press corps covering the trial feel she has not. Although one of them raised the question that she might have violated her immunity.

Has she violated her immunity? This is a difficult legal question. Her immunity was granted by Circuit Court Judge William K. Love on recommendation of Prosecutor Glen Darty, whose star witness she was before the grand jury which indicted Sweet for the murder of her husband, millionaire Charles Von Maxcy.

She also was the star witness at the first trial a year ago of the 32-year-old Sweet. Darty, on this go-round, has informed the court he expected her to be a hostile witness. She turned out to be particularly hostile to Darty on the witness stand. She was called not as a witness for the state this time, but as a witness for the court.

But back to the question of her immunity. The chances that she violated her immunity are slim, an informed source said, since she has appeared to testify, and confirmed much of what she previously had said.

Union Congregation Church Celebrating 75th Anniversary

Sunday will be a red letter day at the Union Congregational Church. The congregation will renew the covenant at the 75th anniversary Communion Service at 11 o'clock. Rev. Robbins Ralph, D.D., superintendent of the Florida United Church of Christ, will be associated with the pastor in this service.

The 75th anniversary supper for members and friends of the church will be held on Sunday evening in Fellowship Hall at 6 o'clock. An interesting program will follow. Rev. John E. Pickens will host a panel of men and women whose connection with this church dates back as much as 50 years. History will come alive in their reminiscence and anecdotes. There will also be a display of pictures of people and scenes of early days.

The Union Congregational Church grew out of the felt religious needs of the people who settled Avon Park. The town was founded in 1886 by Oliver M. Crosby, president of the Florida Development Company. He was attracted to the site because of its many clear water lakes, open pine forest, abundance of game and fish and freedom from malaria and mosquitoes. The town's immediate growth is indicated by the fact that a school house was built in 1888. This structure was painted blue, in defiance of tradition, and became the center for early communal affairs and religious services. An old record book states that the first real church service was held on August 31, 1890 on which day the congregation filled the school house both morning and night. Of this service it was written: "Singing was hearty with chants without an organ. Mr. Gilman leading with coronet. Responses glad and hearty."

The pioneers who settled the vast reaches of our country not only built schools but churches as well. In November of 1890 the Florida Homeseeker published the town's decision to build a church edifice, dimensions 36 x 48 feet, with a small neat tower attached" to be called the Union Evangelical Church. Funds for this purpose were raised by public subscription. Oliver M. Crosby and his wife Emma M. Crosby donated the building plot with the stipulation that should intoxicating liquors ever be "Manufactured, sold, or otherwise disposed of as a beverage" upon the granted premises, the land would revert to its original owners. The attractive white frame edifice was completed in 1893. F. M. Nettleton was the architect. A western extension to the sanctuary was added in 1894. The church had from its inception a cottage organ that was donated by A. B. Wilbur. The pulpit, made of curly pine, was designed and hand carved by Sam Brown, a ship-wright from Philadelphia. This old pulpit is now used as a prop in story for the church's Book of Remembrance.

The church was formally incorporated in May, 1893 and its first pastor, Rev. Francis Dwight Hood, assumed his duties on October first of that year. The provisions of the 1893 charter have marked the course which has been followed down to the present day. The charter reverently states:

"The government of this Church is vested in the members who compose it. It acknowledges the headship of Christ and receives the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments as the only infallible guide in matters of faith, order, and discipline. Its control of its own affairs, according to its understanding of God's word, is independent; its majority vote is final, and it is not under the authority of any ecclesiastical body."

When the church was built, Avon Park was a town of some 600 inhabitants who were engaged in the setting of citrus groves and the growing of pineapples. The town then boasted a school, a general store and a hotel. There were no means of communicating with neighboring communities but by sand roads. All supplies had to be hauled in by mule teams from Fort Meade, the nearest rail point.

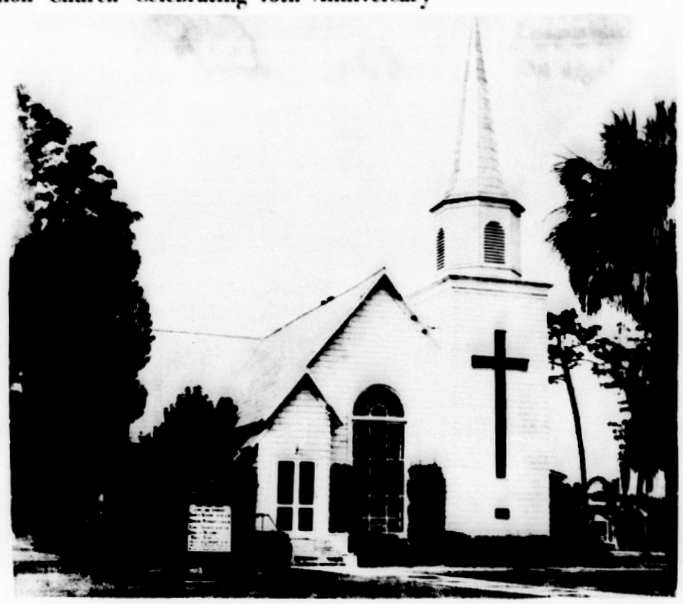

Avon Park continued to grow until the great freeze of 1895 which killed mature orange trees. The settlers viewed the ruin of their groves and gardens with sad hearts and many of them left. The population dwindled until in 1908 less than 150 people remained. This trend was reversed in 1912, when the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad came to Avon Park and by 1939 there were 3,355 inhabitants.

The Old Union Church reflects in its history the varying vicissitudes of the town's fortune. It, too, has experienced both good and bad times. In 1911 its membership dropped to a low of 22—"eight males and 14 females, six of these being non-resident at present." For many years the church had difficulty in paying even a meager stipend to its minister. In spite of all difficulties however, the devotion of its people kept the church alive and made it possible for it to achieve its present distinction of being the oldest church in continuous service in the lower ridge area of Florida. The following names call to mind the sturdy people who held on when the going was hard: Richardson, Brown, Armstrong, Whitnall, Shockley, Dilley, Davidson, Woodruff, Reck, Bennett, Butler, Wild, Hauptmann, Donaldson, Wood, Merwin, Caldwell, Kellog, Bruyere, and Boyd. Among them, Prof. E. L. Richardson, Sam Brown, "Bro" Boyd, "Auntie" Armstrong, and Miss Alice Davidson are remembered especially for their work in the Sunday School. The present generation owes a debt of gratitude to these and the other great souls who struggled for the future of the Old Union Church and the town of Avon Park.

In 1911 the original "small neat tower" was altered to accommodate a bell, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Butler, a civic-minded couple who built several of the homes on Forest and Butler Avenues. Through the years memorial stained glass was substituted for the clear glass in the windows. In 1948-49 the church interior was altered, the eastern section, which had been used as a social hall, was incorporated into the sanctuary, and a lovely chancel was added with a rose nativity window executed in stained glass by the Willet Studios of Philadelphia. A memorial steeple was raised in 1951 in memory of two prominent citizens of the community—C. Parke Anderson and Charles H. Shepherd. This steeple contains a stained glass window in the form of a cross which shows the symbols of the crucifixion and is of unsurpassed beauty, when illuminated at night.

The church has been graciously served by ten devoted ministers, together with others who served in supply. The ministers regularly settled were: Francis Dwight Hood, 1893-1898; Stephen J. Townsend, 1899-1906; Samuel V. Dilley, 1906-1910; Charles Wesley Meyers, 1910-1912; Benjamin Stock, 1912-1925; Milo J. Sweet, 1925-1926; Arthur P. Vaughn, 1927-1936; Alfred C. Elliott, 1936-1940; Emmanuel D. Hedgebeth, 1942-1947. Herbert D. Graetz, 1947 of the most colorful, was Benjamin Stock, an Englishman and a bachelor, described by an acquaintance as "the most complete Christian I ever met." Rev. Mr. Stock knew a little medicine and was often called on to minister to the body as well as the soul. He once saved the life of a girl by amputating her arm which had been crushed in a cane mill.

The Old Union Church, which early affiliated with the Congregational Conference of Florida, has always been a community type church. It was begun in love, rather than doctrine, and has served through the past 75 years as a bridge over the chasms that so often separate people. It is the mother church of Protestantism in Avon Park, and as in its beginning, continues to welcome to its fellowship and services all followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, no matter the faith or creed in which they were reared.

Congregational Church represents historical land-mark in Avon Park.

Ever wonder why lovers are said to "spoon"? Likely, it came from the Swedish word "oefle," which means spoon, and looks a lot like lover in English.

SFJC Will Open Basketball Season In Avon Park

JOHN BATTELLO and Ed McAllister, SFJC Panthers prepare for their first game with St. Joseph College in Avon Park Tuesday, Nov. 19 and with Jacksonville Junior College Thursday, Nov. 21.

With the opening game only two weeks away, South Florida Junior College Panthers are diligently trying to put a team together. The Panthers lost all five starters from last year and only three reserves are back from last years squad. Basically the Panthers squad is composed of freshmen and they are green on defense and only fair on offense.

Several Panthers are beginning to find themselves as Larry Allen and John Battillo are rounding into form. Newcomers Church Smith, Willie Morovick, Ron White, Mike Turner, Jeff Asher, Ronnie Combs, Ed McAllister, Willie Cope, Bobby Johnson and Ken Dixon are all battling for a starting berth.

Right now the squad is like a man hunting on posted land. They are looking over their shoulders at the grades situation and also toward the upcoming teams on their schedule —sooner or later they must face both.

November 19 at the Avon Park gym is the first scheduled game of the year against St. Joseph College of Jensen Beach.

TERMITE DAMAGE

Termites do millions of dollars worth of damage to residential and commercial construction every year. No building is safe in areas in which termites occur. From colonies in the soil, termite workers forage for wood. They also construct mud tubes over concrete or masonry, to reach wood. Their damage is seldom apparent until it reaches a serious stage, because they work within wood and do not break the surface. Badly infested buildings may suddenly sag, because termite feeding has weakened main timbers. By the time that termite damage becomes apparent, costly repairs may be needed.

POOR GASOLINE MILEAGE CAN BE ATTRIBUTED to improper driving habits and incomplete maintenance to your car. Sudden bursts of speed force excessive amounts of gasoline into the engine, which is not burned. Quick stops waste energy already built up in your engine. Larger engines obviously burn more fuel as do such additional equipment as air-conditioning. Out-of-tune engines can reduce mileage by 1/3! One gallon of gas out of ten can be saved with proper tune-up! Your carburetor, air cleaner and P.C.V. "positive crank case ventalation" valve all must be checked and cleaned periodically! A low temperature or faulty thermostat will cause a slow engine warm up. A cold engine will use three times the fuel! Too heavy lubricants will result in excessive friction in moving parts. May I suggest that you select a reliable service center for your car maintenance. Let them assume the responsibility of keeping your car on the go. You'll realize "miles of smiles" with regular and complete maintenance.

Main St. Business and financial reports will be received. Three members will be elected to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors will hold a meeting immediately after the session.

Fire is a simple process by which oxygen from the atmosphere combines with carbon and hydrogen from some fuel, and releases light and heat in the process. Men early learned that the size of the fire could be controlled by regulating the supply of either ingredient.

Paxton Hill Tells Of Summer Tour

Mr. and Mrs. J. Paxton Hill of 516 S. Highlands Ave., Avon Park have just returned from the summer in Canada and New England. They traveled 13,691 miles towing their 30 ft. Airstream Sovereign of the Road travel trailer and stopping at the extremes in Parks. They spent 42 days in the lovely city of Montreal parked between Rue Notre Dame Est and the St. Lawrence River, right in the city.

While in Quebec Cy visited La Citadelle, Chutes Montmorency, and the Shrine at Ste. Anne de Beaupre. Then around the Gaspe thru Riviere du Loup into New Brunswick. They were the honored guests of the city of Edmundston, N.B. where they stayed on the City Hall Plaza. They crossed the bridge there into Madawaska, Me. to get some good old American groceries and then on down the St. John River to Bristol, where they stayed a few days, for the purpose of exploring the Miramichi back country in search of Atlantic Salmon. Very little rainfall in last two years had made all the streams very low and with no flow, the salmon just didn't come up. They saw the world famous tidal bore at Moncton, where the tide rises and falls 35 ft. Then into Nova Scotia at Amherst and to beautiful Victoria Park in Truro and to Juniper Park at Halifax, N.S., where they went thru the Citadel Museums and to picturesque Peggy's Cove.

The 250 mile trip around the picturesque Cabot Trail, thru the Margaree Valley and Cape Breton Highlands National Park was one of the high spots of the trip, also visiting the Alexander Graham Bell Museum at Baddeck.

Along Lake George via Ft Ticonderoga and across Tongue Mountain thru Glen Falls, Saratoga Springs, Ballston Spa, Schenectady, Oneonta to Belden Hill Manor into Pennsylvania, through Scranton down the Susquehanna River thru Harrisburg into Maryland to the farm home of cousin Frank Hill, where they stayed a couple of weeks. Then via by-roads thru W. Va. and Va. to Bristol, where they waited for the foliage to turn before coming thru the Great Smokies. Due to inadequate rainfall in the mountains, the leaves did not color up like they would in a normal year. The Smokies were pretty anyway, and one just can't find any more majestic scenery east of the Mississippi river.

While in Nova Scotia, they were initiated into L'Order De Bon-Temps, the oldest social order in the world, and had, all in all, a real wonderful time. They experienced no trouble whatever with the Pontiac wagon and the Airstream trailer and when the snows melt in the Rockies, they will be off next spring on a rock hunt.

People living in the tropics have about 12 hours of daylight, the year around. People in Stockholm, Sweden, enjoy some 18 hours of sunshine per day during the Summer, and those living within the Arctic Circle enjoy a day 3½ months long.

Church Women Of Redeemer Will Meet Nov. 13

Two interesting programs are planned by the Episcopal Church and the Redeemer of Avon Park for the next week. This Sunday, Nov. 10, our young people are invited to share an evening at Camp Wingfoot with the Youth group of St. Thomas', Miami. A service of Corporate Communion will be celebrated at 5 P.M. at the Camp Chapel of the Holy Angels, followed by supper at 6 P.M. and group discussion on the subjects of "Love, Behavior, and Justice." The meeting will close by 7:30 P.M. Cars will leave the church yard in Avon Park at 4:45 P.M. Each person is asked to bring $1 for supper. Members may bring guests, $1 each.

On Wednesday, Nov. 13 the Episcopal Church women will meet after the 9 A.M. Eucharist in Church, to have coffee and program in the parish house. The subject for the program will be "The Three Rs."

November Vestry meeting, Wed. the 13th at 8 P.M. in the Rector's office.

Sunday, Nov. 10 at the morning services, special prayers for our servicemen, especially those from Redeemer. Parents are expected to be present for any service.

The Library Corner

Many readers have been Louise Andrews Kent fans for years. This 1966 edition was written when she was over 80 years old. She has revealed the true identity of Mrs. Appleyard in her book. "Mrs. Appleyard and I." Mrs. Kent has written many adult books, stories for young people, and articles for the Ladies Home Journal.

Mrs. Appleyard and I begins when her older sister, Katherine, walked to her grandmother's house to announce the birth of Louise. From there she takes us through the years of her life, mostly in her home in Brookline, Mass., and her husband's former home, and for many years their home at Kent's Corners near Montpelier, Vt. When she was young, summers were spent at French-men's Bay on the island, Iron Bound. Her experiences with her grandmother, aunts, parents, sister, brother, husband, children, grandchildren, and friends interweave the life story to make a delightful mosaic or quilt with some dark colors. It is a love story, a coming-out party, antique hunt, a developing author, a cook, painter, decorator, teacher, musician.

"It would be wrong to tell the whole story here, but right to say it is one of the most congent and happily ended stories imaginable."

By RUTH E. ROBINSON

Welcome back to your Winter homes. Mr. and Mrs. Alva Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Lynwood Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Heffner, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. John Bieser, Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wagner.

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Thompson in the loss of his brother-in-law, George Duff, who passed away recently and suddenly, after celebrating a wedding anniversary of 40 years with his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Oma Marshall are delayed for health reasons, but expect to arrive here about the 15th. We all send them best wishes for good health.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Marion Howell, new owner of the Fisher trailer and our wishes for a speedy recovery are also sent to him, so they can come South soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Yates trip South has also been delayed due to health, but they hope to be here soon, if they don't experience more delays.

Mr. and Mrs. James Stark will not be here as early as they would like, due to an operation on Mrs. Stark's eyes. We hope she will recover very soon, also.

The Floyd Stevens had a pleasant visit for three days with their daughter in Louisiana. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Weber, on their way down to Florida.

There will be a dedication ceremony of a United States flag and pole, on November 10, at 2 P.M. in honor of Clifford "Scottie" McPherson. It will be held in front of our park recreation hall, and will also commemorate the 50th anniversary of the signing of the Armistice. Mr. McPherson held the office of Commander of LaPorte, Ind., Barracks of World War One Veterans of the American Legion, Veteran of American Legion of Goshen, Ind., and Yeoman First Class of U. S. Navy during World War One. Veterans of World War One of Avon Park will follow the ritual of dedication, and Rev. Marshall Wilson of the First Presbyterian Church, will speak and give the benediction.

Remember the ladies of our park are having a meeting at the Florida Power Lounge on Friday, Nov. 8 at 1:30 P.M. for a Holiday Work Shop by Faye Gordon. Refreshments will be furnished by the Ladies of Second Avenue. Plan to attend, and tell your monitor.
