Construction Begins On Bowling Alley

A 160-foot roof span, longest clear steel roof span in Florida, is being set into place this week for the area's new bowling lanes, replacing Grand Prix lanes.

The new lanes, rising on the site of the burned down lanes, will be called Ridge Bowling Lanes. When completed it will have an all steel exterior, including colored steel panels. The interior will be concrete blocks and there will be carpeted floors and indirect lighting.

The parking lot is being redesigned and enlarged for more and easir parking. Plans include 18 bowling lanes, separate billiard room, meeting room, nursery, locker rooms and snack bar.

Contractor K. D. Grubb estimated the lanes will be completed before the start of the Fall bowling season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Perlski and son, Bill, owners of Ridge Lanes, will be assisted by Sy Dunton and wife Vi in operating the lanes.

City Amends Electrical Code, Provides Fines For Violators

Complaints that some contractors are not getting permits before they remodel or wire houses brought a heated discussion at the Avon Park City Council meeting Monday.

Councilman Rodney Lane said a Mr. Myers had called him about remodeling work done by a local contractor. Myers said he was getting an electrical shock from the water faucets both inside and out of the house and the contractor would not make the correction.

Mack Flowers, city electrical inspector checked the faucets and found that the wiring was giving 140 volts in the shower and 130 volts on the outside faucet. After Flowers traced the trouble to the heat pump the contractor corrected the trouble Monday. Flowers also said that the contractor had not secured a wiring permit and it was impossible for him to make a complete inspection because most of the wiring was covered up now, but there were some uncovered junction boxes.

After a lengthy discussion, Councilman Scott made a motion to amend the electrical code to provide a $50 fine for first offenses, $100 for second offenses and revocate license on the third for failure to obtain a wiring permit when required.

The council also decided to require the contractor on Myers' house to make all necessary corrections in the work before a permit was issued by the city.

In Other Action

Milton Stokey appeared in regards to the current 50c charge for use of city dump. He felt it unfair for those who pay for service in the city to have to pay at the dump. A discussion was held by members of the council. Motion to table any action on the dump until next regular meeting.

Eugene Flint recommended some form of controls for the swimming area at the beach on Lake Verona. City Clerk Crews reported the school swimming program would be held at the beach and Coach Franza had suggested installation of drums with cables in this area. This was agreed to by the city council.

Jerry Melendy of Coker Fuel spoke on the proposed franchise for natural gas. He said he came to listen to the proposal. Mr. W. W. Selzer of Florida Gas Company spoke of the provisions of the proposed franchise. Mr. Melendy said they would like time to have a lawyer prepare a proposal to submit to the city from their company for gas service.

Mr. Watson of Florida Power Corporation commented they would like to pay 6% or even 10% franchise tax with no city taxes otherwise.

Mr. Selzer said he did not see how a propane gas company could afford a distribution system as they sold gas to large commercial customers cheaper than the local propane companies could buy it.

J. T. Landress invited the city council, mayor, city attorney and city clerk to be guests of the Avon Park Athletic Association at the Spring Sports Banquet Saturday night.

Miss Marie Alice Crano presented drawings of proposed building to be built on property now owned by the city on U. S. 27 South if sold to Silvio Fazzini. The city clerk read the proposal and offer of $3,000 for the property by Fazzini. Motion by Scott, seconded by Lane that the city sell land on U. S. 27 north of drainage ditch to Silvio Fazzini (Sil's, Inc.) for $3,000 as per offer. Howard, Martin and Duggan voted Nay.

Motion by Lane, seconded by Scott that the city cease fire calls outside city limits after publishing notice in local newspaper for two consecutive issues. This not to apply to hospitals, schools, churches, civic clubs or city property.

Hancock reported he had written Ralph Marsciano, attorney for the Florida League of Municipalities for sample ordinances on requiring off street parking with new construction of a commercial type.

"The year 1973 is just around the corner and the cost of building new classrooms is not going down. A bond issue now would enable us to provide new space at every grade level," Hummel said.

Resource leaders at these appearances by members of the speakers' bureau have been School Board members Henry Bailey, E. Ray Wells and G. F. Ward; School Superintendent George F. Douglass, Principals Billy Cason, Jack Ingle, Ellis Watson.

ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION

FLORIDA alco-topics PROGRAM

By PAUL C. FORAKER

Editor, Information Services

Many people wonder what, if any, connection exists between Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program and the Alcoholic Anonymous organization.

To set the record straight, FARP and AA do maintain sound relationships, but they are two distinct and separate entities.

A specific area in which FARP and AA work together is the AA orientation at the Avon Park in-patient Center, to explain the principles of AA to FARP patients. In addition, regular demonstration-type meetings about AA are also held at the Center for patients.

Also, many patients are referred to AA at time of their discharge from the Center, with AA aiding in follow-up.

AA is an informal society of some 400,000 members throughout the world, functioning in 14,000 local groups. Its members are men and women who once drank irresponsibly but who have achieved sobriety by sharing their experiences and knowledge with anyone else desiring rehabilitation.

There are two types of AA meetings—the open and the closed. During the open meeting the general public is invited, but the closed meetings are limited to the alcoholics themselves.

AA had its beginnings in 1935 at Akron, Ohio. It is financially self-supporting; there are no dues or fees; the size of members' contributions is limited; and no contributions are accepted from non-AA sources.

It is not a religious movement in the denominational sense, but it does affirm as a basic principle the belief in a "Power greater than themselves" as essential to rehabilitation of its members.

The answer to AA's success seems to stem from its belief that only an alcoholic can make sense to another alcoholic. The sober alcoholic can approach the drinker with sympathy and objectivity derived from having once been in a similar position.

When an individual turns to AA for help, several things occur:

First, he is told the only demand which will be made of him is his sincere desire to stop drinking. Next, he is encouraged to attend as many group meetings as possible. During these meetings he is told of the drinking experiences of other members and their subsequent life of abstention. As the individual gains confidence in his own sobriety, he is called upon to work with other alcoholics who still need the help he has recently found.

More information on AA or on FARP may be had by merely dropping a card or letter to FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825. There's never any charge for literature. Be sure to include your zip code number!

Letter To The Editor

Letter to the Editor:

I would like to urge the citizens of Highlands County to vote for the school bond.

I realize that for some retired people even the slightest tax increase is a hardship. But think of our children who must have schooling now, not ten years from now, when the money may be available. Also many of you have grandchildren going to schools in other states. Someone is paying taxes to support their schools, someone who didn't have children in school paid taxes to support your childrens schools, and, God willing, some day I'll pay taxes to support other people's children in school.

If you will take the time to inquire you will find your taxes will be raised very little. Also it will increase the value of our property and attract new families to our county if we have a good school system.

Please wake up, ask questions, take an interest, find out all the facts, and vote June 10.

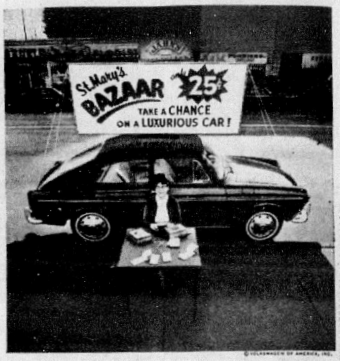
Produced Current

Luigi Galvani, an 18th-century physiologist, was the first to produce an electric current, during his experiments on the anatomy of frogs. He discovered a correlation between the twitching of their muscles when in contact with copper and iron.



Is anyone willing to take a chance?

Dear Reverend, Father or Rabbi:

We understand why you love to raffle off Cadillacs, T-Birds and Continentals.

They draw the crowds.

But consider the poor soul who wins.

He has to pay about $1000 in income tax. At least $425 a year for gas. And who knows how much for oil and antifreeze.

Now think how charitable it would be to raffle off a Volkswagen Fastback Sedan.

It needs only about $420 for income tax. About $150 a year for gas. No antifreeze. And, it takes pints of oil, not quarts.

Now you may ask, what makes this Volkswagen fancy enough to raffle off?

Well, it comes with wall-to-wall carpeting. Front seats that adjust to 49 positions. Fold-down arm rests in the rear. An electric clock. And, as options: automatic transmission and air conditioning.

So, if you're thinking of raffling off a fancy car, lift up your eyes.

And behold.

The Volkswagen Fastback Sedan.

Action Slows In Softball League

End-of-school activities have slowed action in the girls softball leagues as five forfeits took place last week when the teams didn't have enough players on hand to field a team. Usually the girls who do come divide up and play a game anyway but the conflicts have seriously affected the league play.

The only game actually played last week was between the leaders of the junior league, the Soul Children and the Mustangs. The Soul Children won 6-5 to keep their record unblemished with four straight wins—all played rather than won by forfeit.

In other junior league action or non-action—the Unbelieveables won by forfeit from the Sock It To Me's and then the Turbines also won by forfeit from the Sock It To Me's.

In the senior league the Bobcats won by forfeit from the Hotrods, the Impossibles won by forfeit from the Topcats, and the Wildcats won by forfeit from the Mixed Generation.

Christian Young People Will Have Youth Rally Friday at First Baptist

A "first" for Avon Park will get underway at 7:30 P.M. Friday when Christian young people from nearly every church in the city will gather for an interdenominational youth rally.

The rally will be held in Fellowship Hall of First Baptist Church, with succeeding rallies to be held at other churches in Avon Park.

Eleven churches have thus far expressed interest in the youth rallies, designed to help Christian youth to have fellowship and strengthen spiritual principles among young people. These churches include First Assembly of God, Fellowship Baptist, First Baptist, Church of God, Our Lady of Grace Catholic, Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, Church of the Nazarene, First Christian Resurrection Lutheran, First Presbyterian, and First United Methodist.

The rallies are being planned by a committee of young people representing each church. Pastors are not taking an active part in the rallies, but are urged to cooperate by giving the project their moral support.

Friday night's rally will begin with group singing led by Quentin Atkins. The program will also feature a stunt by Marsha Wilson, a solo by Paul Day, and special music by the Happy-ettes and the Ridge Trio, both of Avon Park. Main speaker will be Coach Jimmy Trotter of Lake Placid High School.

Young people from Lake Placid, Bowling Green, and Arcadia will be on hand to help with the rally, which will also include a "Miss America contest," a business meeting, and refreshments, as well as a time of personal testimonies by various young people.

Bill Wall will emcee the program.

The Bible Speaks To You On Radio

Is it really easier to toss off a drink than face responsibilities? It may seem to be if you've lost self-respect and ability. But basic strength and character is never really lost or diluted.

The Bible helps to show why. Listen Sunday, June 1, 9 A.M. to WJCM Radio to "Facing Up to One Aspect of Problem Drinking."

MR. AND MRS. V. O. WATERS

V. O. Waters Retires From Fla. Power Corp.

"This is your life Mr. Waters," was depicted by sketches created by E. A. DeLaney, Jr., during the retirement party given by the Florida Power Corp., plant employees and their wives for V. O. Waters in honor of his retirement after nearly 25 years of service with the company Friday night, May 23.

James Whitehurst, assistant plant superintendent, Avon Park steam plant was master of ceremonies and narrator for the sketches which were shown on a screen. Starting with Mr. Waters as a baby in a cradle, then a boy going fishing, his first job of loading fertilizer, driving a truck, then his tour in the armed service during World War II, next he takes a wife and shows his marriage, then his career as an employee of the Florida Power Corp. as a mechanic and master mechanic. Last sketch shows the couple as retirees enjoying their hobby of fishing.

Miss Helen Tuten and E. A. DeLaney, Jr., were in charge of the extensive decorating theme of "Fishing." Pictures of fish, all kinds, were used on the walls, down the tables, among fish nets. The focal point of the decorations was arranged in one corner of the club house, depicting a cabin on the river, a replica of their cottage on the Kissimmee River, in miniatre, with the river running in front which took on a natural look with the use of lights. The cottage was banked with myrtle bushes and palms and Florida greenery. Mr. and Mrs. Waters were shown in miniature sitting beside the river in their chairs as retirees.

The honoree started to work at the Florida Power Corp. at the Avon Park steam plant on October 16, 1945 and worked as mechanic and master mechanic until his retirement, as of May 31, 1969.

Mrs. Trumey Hayes organist furnished dinner music and tape recordings that she had made.

By DAVID LANIER

Our guest speaker last week was Mark Wheeler of the Florida Power Corporation. Wheeler is working with the community development services of the Florida Power Corporation and spoke to the cuub about the importance of community development.

He recalled that approximately 11 years ago a community development program was held in Avon Park which was well attended and in which very much interest was shown by the people in Avon Park.

In a community development program, suggestions for community development and improvement are suggested however, to be effectual, these suggestions or ideas must be carried out by the civic leaders of the community, and then, this can only be done by the people of the community being willing to work with and support the civic leaders in their efforts.

Today, this is far more important than even 11 years ago with the rapid growth of Florida which effects practically every community in the state. The community development programs are designed to find out what the people want in their community in industry, schools, churches, recreational facilities and how to go about planning for them to maintain a good "image" for the community.

This "image" is what new industries, visitors and others see when they are seeking a new community in which to live or work.

A community with citizens who will assume the responsibility for community improvement efforts and citizens who will lend their support will be able to create this good "image" resulting in improvement for themselves and their community.

—To keep Highlands County in the market for attracting new industry

Schools Are the Key to a County's Progress

Good Buildings Don't Make a Good School System but They Help.

Socrates could teach under a tree in 400 BC. He had two or three students. With 6,000 students and 600,000 gnats, this method just won't work.

What the Bond Issue Will Cost

Based on our present tax roll and a projected interest rate of five and one-half percent (5½%) for twenty (20) years, it will require 1.7 mills to service the Bond Issue. The School Board has pledged one and one-half (1½) mills of present millage to be used in servicing the Bond Issue. This means the actual millage increase to service the Bond Issue will be two-tenths (.2) of one mill on assessed value above the $5,000 homestead exemption.

ASSESSED VALUE Above $5,000 Homestead Exemption	APPROXIMATE Cost at .2 Mills Annually

7,000	1.40
8,000	1.60
9,000	1.80
10,000	2.00

Probable Cost of Pay-As-You-Go

The School Board can legally levy 10 mills. Present levy for all phases of school operation is 8 mills. If the bond issue fails, the only way left to the Board for financing buildings is by the levy on county property. An increase of 2 mills instead of .2 mills is almost inevitable.

Court Rules Bang's Law Constitutional

The Florida Supreme Court has ruled that the Florida Department of Agriculture's brucelosis (Bang's disease) law is constitutional.

The ruling, handed down Wednesday of last week, overturned a Martin County Circuit Court decision issued last September by Judge D. C. Smith.

"I'm glad it's cleared up the confusion," commented County Agent Bert Harris, Jr.

More than 75 per cent of the cattlemen in Highlands County, owning more than 51 per cent of the cattle, had petitioned the state to test here, and have been going ahead with testing on a voluntary basis while the ruling was in limbo.

The Supreme Court granted the cattlemen who had contested the department's police power to test their animals 15 days in which to seek a rehearing, which would be a deadline of May 29. If no rehearing is sought, the ruling will then be final.

Brucellosis causes cows to abort. Once a cow is found positive, the owner has 15 days to get the animal to slaughter. The cattle are appraised and the U. S. Department of Agriculture makes up the difference between the slaughter and appraisal price up to $37.50 per animal. Several factors have been found in this county.

In announcing its decision, the court said it could find nothing unconstitutional in the provisions cited by the cattlemen and agreed upon by the lower court. The court said the laws cited were within the police power province of the Legislature, which passed the laws creating the department's participation in the state and federal brucellosis testing program.

The Supreme Court said that the contention that an epidemic or emergency must always pre-exist before summary proceedings may be employed to eradicate infections and contagious diseases appears to have no support in decisions throughout the country.

Brucellosis is transmissable to man under certain conditions as undulant fever. In humans, it is primarily an occupational disease which historically has affected veterinarians, packing house workers and farmers.

When the Martin County court issued its decision last September 11, numerous states immediately placed embargoes upon the shipping of Florida cattle to their states.

When the appeal was filed, six states—Nevada, Kentucky, California, Indiana, Maine and Montana — lifted the embargo pending a decision by the upper court.

Embargoes are still in effect for South Carolina, New Hampshire, New Jersey and Tennessee. The Department of Agriculture is notifying these states immediately of the court's decision and hopes that the embargoes there will be lifted.

Numerous other states, including Utah, Colorado, Alabama and Georgia, were ready to institute embargoes at the time the appeal was filed but decided to await the Florida Supreme Court decision.

FIX-IT TIP

Give your interior garage walls a quick beauty treatment. Buy low-cost, knotty, rough boards of any western wood and nail them horizontally across exposed wall studs. Then, using exterior-grade stain, finish the boards in a warm gold shade. Add black-stained 1x3-inch battens vertically to cover joints.

When using a torch near wooden beams or joists, tape a piece of aluminum foil or an aluminum foil cake or pie pan to the wood. The aluminum will reflect the heat from the torch and keep the wood from overheating and igniting.

It was a happy night for the 12 eighth graders who graduated last Sunday night. Mrs. Juanita Kerr, their homeroom teacher, stated that this was the largest eighth grade that the school has ever graduated.

The commencement address was delivered by Elder Herman Ray who is the chaplain of Orlando sanitarium and hospital. His address enlarged upon the 'aim' of the class—Heaven our Goal, and the 'motto' "Earth our Challenge."

Mrs. T. Paul Bonney, the principal of the ten grade school, stated that they have had another excellent school year. A new classroom was added during the year and air conditioning is presently being installed.

Mrs. Irva Baessler was honored during the ceremonies for her 43 years of teaching in the Seventh-day Adventist educational system. Next year she will be teaching in Ocala where she began her teaching career in 1925.

EIGHTH GRADE graduating class of the Highland Lakes Academy received their diplomas during ceremonies Sunday, May 25 in the school auditorium. VOLUME XLV NUMBER 31 AVON PARK, FLORIDA 33825—THURSDAY, JUNE 5, 1969 GL 3-4351 GL 3-4355 10c PER COPY

AVON PARK Area Supervisor Guy Garrett presents Red Devil Bill Richards the trophy for the Outstanding Senior Athlete at Avon Park High School for the year 1968-1969. Richards played fullback on the Red Devil football team, handled the left field chores on the baseball team and then when the baseball season ended, he reported out for track and competed in the Highlands County track meet, the district meet, and won a spot on the relay team which qualified for the state meet.

AVON PARK Coach DeWayne Lemler presents the new Fellowship of Christian Athletes sportsmanship trophy to Walter Nunnallee at the Spring sports banquet held last Saturday night. The trophy was donated by Townsend Lumber Company.

People Complain About Mail Received

Postmaster R. D. Young reported today an increase in complaints from Avon Park families receiving advertising in the U. S. Mails which they have found to be offensive or believe to be morally harmful to their children. While in most cases the ads are not legally obscene and are therefore mailable, they are clearly unwelcome in many homes. The law gives families the right to decide they want no more mail from a firm sending out what they consider pandering advertising, but it does not deny others the right to an unrestricted flow of material which is mailable.

An advertisement is considered pandering if it offers to sell material which is, in the opinion of the recipient, "erotically arousing or sexually provactive." The material can be in the form of a display, classified, or editorial-style advertisement.

The individual mail patron is the sole judge of whether an advertisement is offensive to him. If an individual or family finds material offered offensive and it is of a pandering nature, they can ask a postmaster to direct that the promoter send no more mail of any kind to them.

The sender is also ordered to remove the family's name from any mailing lists he owns, controls or rents.

To file a prohibitory order, the patron must complete a form, available at all Post Offices, and submit the advertisement together with the envelope the advertisement was mailed in.

For further information contact your local Postmaster.

Big Vote Expected On School Bond Issue Tuesday, June 10

On June 10 approximately 8,600 registered freeholders who paid county property taxes in 1968 will have a chance to vote "For" or "Against" on the School Board's proposed $4.5 million bond issue. There are 9,537 freeholders but some are ineligible since they were exempt of taxes under the Homestead Exemption Act.

Roland X. Droit, supervisor of registration, estimates that about two-thirds of the eligible voters will come out to the polls and that there will be around 75 absentee votes cast.

Droit emphasizes that voting precincts will be the same in this election as they were in last November's. Proposed changes in polling places will not go into effect until next Fall.

Frank Bryant, attorney for the School Board, has prepared the affidavit which all voters must sign saying that they paid county taxes in 1968. Bryant emphasized that voters must have two qualifications: they must be registered and they must have paid taxes.

No tax receipt is required at the polls. Everyone must sign the affidavit, regardless of whether he has the tax receipt or not.

Polls will be open from 7 A.M. to 7 P.M. Absentee voters that are being mailed in must be postmarked no later than Friday, June 6, but absentee votes may still be cast in Droit's office until 5 P.M. on Monday, June 9.

Reasons For Bond Election

In a School Board Facts bulletin entitled "Too Late To Wait," the Board has published the needs of the county and the amount of money it will take to build the facilities. To quote from this bulletin:

"To provide the necessary housing for your children, the School Board must have the authority to borrow money. A bond issue approved by the qualified taxpaying freeholders will permit the School Board to borrow the necessary funds.

"We need the facilities now because present facilities are over-crowded and inadequate; over 25 per cent of our classrooms are temporary or portable; the state and regional accrediting agencies have noted deficiencies which must be corrected; and pay-as-you-go piecemeal construction is expensive and inadequate to meet existing needs."

The 4.5 million bond issue would build three new schools—an elementary school at Lake Placid, a high school at Sebring, and a high school at Avon Park.

It would also pay for major alterations to Lake Placid High School, an addition to both Avon Elementary and Woodlawn, and major new facilities at Fred Wild.

Why Board Favors Bonds

It has been pointed out by Board Chairman Henry Bailey that a bond issue will cost property owners 90 per cent less per year than maximum legal millage. A .2 mill increase of present tax rolls is all that will be necessary to service and retire the bonds over a 20 year period. Maximum millage allowed by law is 10, and the Board now levies eight. Bailey says that pay-as-you-go will force the Board to go up 2 mills on its ad valorem levy.

Bailey points out that there are many other reasons to vote for a bond issue.

Buildings can be built immediately before further inflation. Bailey estimates that defeat of the 1967 bond issue cost the tax payer $1.25 million through rising costs of building materials and labor in the past two years.

Costs are cut when similar buildings are going up simultaneously.

Future residents will have to share in the cost, and with a rapidly expanding population, this is only right; and

There is little likelihood that state or federal money will ever be available for school construction (a pledge has been made to the taxpayer that should other funds be made available, they will be used first).

Other Sources of Money

Opposition to the bond issue has advertised that the Board has $1 million in race track money stashed away.

Bailey's reply to this: "True, we do have the authority to sell $1 million in bonds to be repaid from race track and jai alai taxes. This issue has not been sold because $1 million will not do the job and because the interest rate in the bond market for this type bond has not been favorable. We do not have the phantom $1 million."

Bailey says the whole controversy boils down to the fact that property owners are going to decide whether they want to borrow the money through a bond issue and get the buildings now, paying .2 of a mill, or whether they want to do piecemeal construction on a pay-as-you-go plan over a 10 year period and pay 2 mills.

BIDS FOR NEW construction at Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center at Avon Park are inspected by Architect Jim Heim (left) and Joseph C. Ziesenheim, administrator for FARP. Bennett and Moseley, Avon Park contractors, apparently had the low bid, $180,000. The only other bid was from Sam-Mac Construction Company of Ft. Meade at $189,606. The new 8,000-square-foot structure will contain large and small group psychotherapy rooms, observation rooms and related offices. The project is expected to require 280 days work and will commence within 30 days of final approval by the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions, Tallahassee. The new building will increase not only the Center's treatment facilities but will increase its training capabilities 400 per cent, Administrator Ziesenheim said.

County Asks City to Continue Fire Protection

Highlands County commission voted Tuesday to request the Avon Park City Council to continue fire protection to areas outside the city limits now receiving such protection.

A delegation from Avon Mobile Home Park attended the commission meeting and protested withdrawal of fire protection.

At the May 20 commission meeting the Avon Park City officials had requested the county to subsidize fire calls outside the city limits, but the County Attorney said that state law specifically prohibits use of county funds in that way.

The Avon Park Fire Department has announced it will refuse calls outside the city—except to schools, churches and clubs—after Friday.

The Highlands County commission has written for an attorney general's ruling on the law, and county board voted to request the city to wait for that ruling before ending protection.

Bob Padelford Wins Second Annual Membership Golf Tournament

In a 36 hole playoff, Bob Padelford defeated Bob Barben 4 and 3 to become the second club champion of Avon Park Golf Club succeeding Wayne Knowles who did not defend his title.

Fourth flight champion found Russ Stevenson taking the measure of Virgil Hall 5 and 3. Consolation winners, first flight Al Sanders defeated Ricky Dressel 4 and 3. Second flight Larry Ford over John Giddens 1 up 19 holes. Third flight Dick Martin defeated Bill Reck 3 and 2.

A goodly number of spectators were out rooting for their favorite players and stayed over for the awards presentation and social hour.

Last week's Pro-Am drew nine teams. The winning team, Pete Peterson, W. A. Maddox, Donald Ford and Bob Lee with plus 3. Individual winners were Pete Peterson plus 7, W. A. Maddox even, John Gray and Harry Hood tied with plus 2, Talmage Sparks with plus 1.

Low Net Tournament on Saturday was won by John Giddens who shot his all time low with a very fine round of 75. This gave him a low net of 61 far outdistancing his nearest competitor.

Be sure to read the new sign on the first tee.

Steps Being Taken To Curb Cattle Rustling

Cattle rustling is big business in Florida and although it has been on a minor scale here, steps are being taken locally to try to cut it off altogether.

"I'm sure we're losing some cattle," says County Agent Bert Harris, Jr., "But I don't know how many."

Harris went on to say that "our new sheriff, Joe D. Keene, has got a system in now and we are sending cards to all cattlemen. These cards record the cattleman's mark and brands."

Harris went on to explain that if sheriff's deputies, under the system set up by Keene, see a truckload of cattle going down the road, at night, they check the marks and brands, call the owner to see if he actually is shipping cattle at that time. If he isn't the driver, truck and cattle will be taken into custody.

"We are still getting registrations, on all the marks and brands in the county," said the sheriff. "Those who have not filled out the cards can obtain them at our office."

He added that "once we get a complete system, we will be able to check and prevent a lot of cattle rustling."

It has been estimated that it is costing Florida cattlemen close to four million dollars a year.

Thefts range from a single cow or calf to bolster a depleted home freezer to highly organized rings connected with slaughter houses or hamburger joints," explains Art Higbie of Kissimmee, executive vice president of the Florida Cattlemen's Association.

There are standing rewards as high as $3,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of thieves, Higbie said, but "in spite of this, the practice thrives."

Today's cattlemen are even more vulnerable than their predecessors because of the size of their ranges. Ranches in
