Alcoholic Center May Be Renamed Soon

Two legislative committees, mental health and state Institute, are considering a bill renaming the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center of Avon Park.

The proposed title, "The Florida Alcoholism Treatment and Research Center" which would more accurately describe the activities of the in-patient facilities, according to Joseph C. Ziesenheim, FARC Administrator.

"The years ahead will see more time devoted to training professionals from across the state and conducting needed research," says Ziesenheim.

Representative Granville H. Crabtree, Jr., of the 119th District which includes Highlands County, is a member of the Mental Health Committee.

FARC has existed under its present title since 1956.

School Board Changes Meetings To Thursdays

Nothing is on time for the mid-January meetings of county boards. Highlands County School Board has officially changed its meeting to the second Thursday of each month, but could not get ready for a January 9 session so postponed its meeting until Tuesday, Jan. 13, 7:30 P.M.

The county commission will meet on Thursday, Jan. 23, instead of its usual third Tuesday. Meeting time will be 8 A.M.

The county planning and zoning board does not contemplate changing from its 8 P.M. meeting on the second Tuesday of each month—but it may add a second meeting for each month.

Inoculation Clinic To Be At Fire Station Sat.

It's licensing and inoculation time again for Highlands County pooches. In fact the deadline was December 31, but for the tardy, special clinics have been set up January 18 and 25.

Licenses and the mandatory rabies shots cost $5 altogether. A total of 2,166 dogs were licensed in the county last year, first year for county-wide licensing. There was one license for a guide dog for the blind.

Dr. Handley will conduct the clinic at the Avon Park fire station January 18 from 10 to 12 A.M. and 2 to 5 P.M.

Tropical Is First Over 25 Million

Tropical Bank and Trust Company surged into the New Year with a whopping $25,415,287.64 in assets—the first financial institution in Highlands County to top the $25,000,000 mark.

"This goal could only be reached by the confidence the public has placed in our 44 years of service," declared a jubilant president Kenneth H. Grady.

"It is a result of good fruit and cattle prices and the rising economy of the area," he continued. "This shows that the area is growing and we are proud to see these results."

Assets have jumped $4,122,455.28 in the past year. As of July 1, assets were $23,490,912, showing a 133.40 per cent increase in deposits in the decade since 1958.

Tropical was the only financial institution in the county to survive the depression of the early thirties. It was then located in Lake Placid, but later was moved to the more central location in Sebring, in order to better serve the county which by then had no other commercial bank.

The bank only last month installed a new $225,000 computer because of the rate at which its business is growing.

Highlands Citizens Circulate Petitions To Hold Referendum

Highlands County citizens today began circulating petitions asking the county school board to hold a referendum on a $4.5 million bond issue. The bonds would provide the bulk of the money for building new high schools in Sebring and Avon Park, and adding new facilities at Fred Wild and Woodlawn Elementary in Sebring, Avon Elementary in Avon Park, and Lake Placid High and the elementary school in Lake Placid.

Total cost of the program, according to State Department of Education estimates approved by the Highlands County school board Tuesday night, will be $5,357,967, exclusive of furniture.

Bonds backed by race track taxes will provide $1 million of the building funds, and regular state capital construction money will reach about $397,000 by 1971 when building could probably get underway, Superintendent George F. Douglass said.

Major debate of the three-hour board meeting Tuesday night centered on whether the bond issue should include funds for equipping new classrooms.

Supt. Douglass began by pointing out that a $4 million bond issue could be financed without any increase in county school taxes, but he could not assure the board that furniture money could be obtained without a tax increase later.

Chairman Henry Bailey led the fight for a higher ceiling on the bond issue. "It's this board's responsibility to come up with a realistic figure for a bond issue. I don't want to be in the position of telling people we can build these schools and not increase millage, then, come back and say we have to buy furniture and increase taxes. I think we should face the hard facts now."

Sebring board member Ted Cason finally moved that the cost of school furniture and equipment be included in the bond issue. With prompting from Member Jack Wirick, Cason changed the motion and it emerged with a $4.5 million price tag.

Although Douglass said he "could not and would not make and out-and-out statement that there will be no increase in millage," he resisted the board's coaxing to recommend a higher bond ceiling and the board worked out the furnishings estimate without a specific recommendation from the Superintendent.

Rising Costs

Members of the board and Douglass frequently came back to the point that delay costs. Wirick reminded the board that the adverse vote on the $3.25 million bond issue in 1967 has "already cost the taxpayers $1.25 million."

At the request of Board Attorney Frank Bryant, Douglass reminded the board that "affirmative action to get a building program started will give our attorney a stronger position for convincing Health, Education and Welfare that this board really intends to provide quality education for all children." "Highlands school board has been charged with maintaining inadequate schools for Negro children.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the board, at the request of Wirick, delayed until February action on the Professional Affairs Agreement requested by Highlands Education Association.

Agreed to enter the state pool for purchase of three 66-passenger school buses and authorized sale of two older buses.

Awarded the bid for school typewriter and adding machine service to Bell Typewriter Service of Ft. Meade.

Agreed to spend just under $1,000 for a new walk-in cooler for Lake Placid School cafeteria.

Over 1,000 Attends Opening Of Highlands' 33rd Annual Fair

More than 1,000 persons trooped through the gates of the Highlands County Fair Monday night for the biggest opening day in the event's 33 years.

It was about as cold as usual for a Highlands County fair opening, staying around the low fifties through mid-evening and getting down to a biting 39 before morning. Opening night temperature low, last year for opening night were 40 and 41.

Russ Albritton, Jr., president of the Highlands County Fair said 1,022 persons attended opening night as compared to 800 a year ago.

"This is a great fair" declared Fair Manager Bert Harris, Jr., "When I say that they think I'm just saying it, but I really think so. It is the best livestock show we ever have had, quality wise, and there are more fat steers."

The fair continues through Saturday, opening at 1 P.M. each day, with buildings closing at 10 P.M. each night.

The livestock sale will be conducted at 3 P.M. Friday and the second half of the beauty contest will be on stage at 8 P.M. The band from the Avon Park Correctional Institution will play on the open air stage Saturday.

More, Better Exhibits

To onlookers, it appeared that this year's fair had more and better exhibits than a year ago, which was one of the county's best fairs in history. The 1969 fair has the only show of swine in the state.

All commercial booths have been sold out for weeks and there were no empty spaces. A total of about $150,000-175,000 in tractors alone was on exhibit.

Even the Midway seemed greatly improved this year with, among other attractions, a new ferris wheel gadget called the Zipper which was getting a big play—a ride in which you're locked in your seat and tumbled a frightening end over end high in the sky.

Cotton Candy

The usual cotton candy, candy apple and popcorn concessions were around, a monkey race, sideshows — "come see Freda the Frog Girl From Hamburg, Germany" — games of chance with huge stuffed animals overshadowing the tiner prizes which are so much easier to win.

Both booths of fair buildings had a little help with the cold from gross heaters, which probably kept fairgoers standing around a lot longer and chatting.

Avon Park Won

Avon Park again this year won first prize for best community booth, with Lake Placid second and Sebring third. The Chamber of Commerce prepared the booth.

Strolling through the fair, visitors will find movies and colored slides getting the message across in several instances. There are many television sets on display, programs going full tilt, and several music firms are showing organs, one complete with drums!

Safety Booth

A gyro-matic safety control for your car can be seen and explained to you. Kitchen cabinets with the new center door openings and fancy scrolled hardware and special corner cabinets which go round and round are shown. Mica patterns on the cabinets look like wallpaper.

A retirement fund has a pleasant man to explain how it works for you. Large, illustrated Bibles in a variety of handsome covers are for sale—and on credit.

The latest in—of all things—tombstones—are on display together with varieties of rock and marble for home decor.

The music of the organs is everywhere as those in charge of the booths play as well as those coming in to try the merchandise.

A display of Mexican items is accompanied by a placard explaining that Senior Girl Scouts need help if they are going to take a trip to Mexico in 1970.

Kitchen Ranges

The booth of the extension homemakers is filled with good things to eat and pretty things to wear—entered in competition and all home made.

"It was tough when we got all the entries and nobody had eaten," remarked one of the housewives in the booth.

The Avon Park Correctional Institution has a display of handcrafts made at the institution including lamps, handtooled leather purses, which the inmates sell. Proceeds go to their individual bank accounts. There is a large display of orchids, raised in the three large greenhouse at APCI, but these are not for sale.

Handsome Beef

The livestock building has some handsome beef. Assistant County Agent Tim Hurner said probably all of the animals will be sold and go to slaughter—and for the young people who raised them — "it will mean tears for many. I tell them to think of all the money they'll get." Owners can expect a better price at the fair than in the open market.

In addition to the steers and swine, there are several large rabbits entered in competition.

Four Young People Injured In Accident

Three Avon Park young people were still in the intensive care unit in Lakeland General Hospital today after an accident opposite the Howard Johnson restaurant at Southgate Saturday.

Reported in poor condition were Edwin Powell Townsend, 20, his sister, Gwen, 17, who is still in coma, and Debra Fowler, 13, with a broken ankle and shoulder; Leila Fowler, 16, sister of Debra, was taken Monday from the intensive care unit. She had a broken jaw.

Edwin who suffered a head injury in Vietnam, was injured about the head, complicating the old injury and lapses in and out of consciousness.

Trooper James Vann of the Florida Highway Patrol said Edwin Townsend apparently drove through a stop sign from US Alternate 27 to US 27 and was hit broadside by a pickup truck driven by John Suryon of Davenport. Suryon was not severely injured.

Charges are pending.

Mothers March Of Dimes Underway

The Junior Woman's Club of Avon Park has for many years and is again this year, sponsoring the Mother's March to fight birth defects.

The club members under the leadership of Carol Tomlinson have mailed over 400 letters throughout the city, asking women for an hour of their time to march on or before January 28, the last Tuesday of this month. At that time the money will be turned in at the Woman's Club on Verona St. across from the "Shop and Go Market."

The club members are calling those who received the letters and have received much help. If you did not receive a letter and would like to march, please call one of these captains: Mrs. Sandy Mattox, Mrs. Myra White, Mrs. Betty Spurlock, Mrs. Connie Thomas, Mrs. Eileen Martin, Miss Cheryl Guerndt, Mrs. Fred A. Jones, Mrs. Carol Palsgrove, Mrs. Ernest Sims.

Let's make this the biggest year for Avon Park to help and give to The March of Dimes for medical care, research and education on birth defects.

AGAIN THIS YEAR the Avon Park community booth scored the most points in the judging at the Highlands County Fair. The booth was prepared by Avon Park Chamber of Commerce.

City Ready To Negotiate United Telephone Franchise

The Avon Park City Council authorized city clerk, Malcolm Crews, Monday night at their regular meeting to notify United Telephone Company their franchise expires November 6, 1969, and the city is ready to begin negotiations on a new one.

The present franchise was acquired in September of 1939 and went into effect in November of that year. In the franchise the city does not receive any taxes on receipts or any free services where as the Florida Power pays four percent tax on their gross receipts which amounts to approximately $22,000 annually. The power company also provides extra services for the city such as putting up Christmas lights at no charge.

United Telephone recently raised their rates and some members of the council agree that the company should pay some for having the franchise in the city.

In other action

J. T. Landress, president of Avon Park Athletic Association, expressed thanks to the city officials for their help and extended an invitation to the football banquet Saturday night.

Motion by Mr. Scott, seconded by Mr. Howard for the city to carry fire and extended coverage on the new airport hangar. Motion carried unanimously.

To accept proposition of Avon Park Flying Service to build office space, restrooms as specified or better and the city to reimburse them up to $2,500 and the first month's rent to start February 1, 1969. Mr. Lane abstained because he thought the offices should be built as a lean-to.

To close taxiways at the airport and to mark them until they can be resurfaced.

The mayor called attention to the offer of Mr. Marrs to give a quit claim deed to the four lots near the east-west runway. He said this should be in the lease.

Approved purchase of $20,000 City of Avon Park refunding 3 percent bonds at 75 percent.

The city clerk gave a report of investigation of vacation time due former Chief of Police Claude Carroll. He reported on conversations with former bookkeeper Virginia Henderson, assistant chief Campbell and former mayor, E. A. DeLaney, Sr. Motion by Mr. Howard, seconded by Mr. Scott to decline payment of vacation pay to Claude Carroll. Mr. Scott, Mr. Howard and Mr. Lane voted nay. Mr. Martin and Mr. Duggan abstained.

The mayor said that E. B. Hicks had been asked by the bi-racial committee to work with city officials on possible sites for the cemetery.

Charles Watson of Florida Power Corporation appeared and presented a proposed new power contract with the City of Avon Park. The new contract drops the possibility of an equipment rental charge. Motion was made to execute new power contract with Florida Power Corporation after approval by the City Attorney.

SILAS, Inc. of Frostproof requested the city consider selling a parcel of land on U. S. 27 for a restaurant. The mayor said the city could sell land for industrial use without bids but would have to take bids on land sold for commercial use. Mr. Lane said he had seen a trailer like the one proposed for use as a restaurant. Action on the land was tabled until a future meeting.

Jim Cravey and Don Conroy appeared representing Hilltop Sales and Service, Inc. They said they had purchased the former bakery property at the corner of East Main Street and S. Highlands Ave. and were planning to open a business of lawn mower and boat sales and service there. Motion was made to issue a license to Hilltop, Inc. provided they comply with zoning.

Approve a new price on gasoline purchase of 22.65c per gallon effective February 1, 1969. Morris Adams Pure

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

January is Alcoholism Information Month across America, a time when many forces cooperate to focus the attention of this nation on what the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare terms our third biggest health problem.

January is the time of year when many of us pause to take stock of ourselves and try to appraise our situation in life. It's also a good time to stop and see where we are—and how far we've gone—in the prevention and treatment of alcoholism.

In many cases, physicians hold the key to whether or not an alcoholic will regain sobriety. The medical profession is slowly accepting its responsibility for treatment of the alcoholic; in many cases, however, the patient's resistance or the physician's attitude can prevent a successful result.

There is still hesitation on the part of many physicians to treat alcoholics. Yet problem drinking is a major cause of death for middle-aged people, either directly or indirectly. Alcoholism many times is the reason for liver or heart failure, gastro-intestinal hemorrhage, accidents, or suicide.

Not often will a patient see his doctor with the complaint that he is drinking too much. He usually goes only because he is suffering either physically or mentally to the point that he needs relief. It's generally difficult to get him to admit he has a drinking problem.

Thus, the first visit to the doctor is extremely important in terms of how the alcoholic will do in therapy—that is, whether he'll cooperate and whether he'll continue. A key factor is the attitude of the physician regarding alcoholism.

In 1964 a study made among physicians in San Francisco revealed that 76% of the 695 polled said they did treat alcoholic patients. But in half the cases the physician provided only medical care and made no effort to counsel or to refer the patient to specific alcoholic treatment agencies.

The American Medical Association has officially taken the position that alcoholism is an illness. Yet many doctors here in the closing years of the Soaring Sixties are apparently not thoroughly convinced.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program is especially anxious during Alcoholism Information Month to get its literature to M.D.'s in the Sunshine State. We stock a number of pamphlets of interest to those in the field of medicine, including "Management of Alcohol Withdrawal States," "Office Management of the Alcoholic," "Treatment of the Alcoholic," "The Role of Psychiatry in the Field of Alcoholism," "A Chart of Alcohol Addiction and Recovery, "The AMA Statement on Alcoholism," and others.

Just address your literature request to FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Good Time to Call For Day of Prayer

It has been proposed that Sunday, Jan. 19, be designated as a Day of Prayer for the new president of the United States, Richard M. Nixon. His inauguration is to take place on Monday, Jan. 20.

In response to a request by American Legion posts in many of our cities, churches have declared their intention of observing the Sunday before the inauguration as a day of special prayer for the man who is to assume the heavy burdens and awesome powers of the presidency of our nation.

Churches and synagogues which observe Saturday as their day of worship can have their day of prayer on Saturday, Jan. 18.

The new administration would be off to a good start if it could take office in an attitude and atmosphere of reliance on Divine Providence such as characterized some previous administrations — particularly in the early history of our country.

Washington Knelt in Prayer

Nobody can fail to recognize the readiness with which the early leaders of our nation confessed that they needed the help of God.

The picture of George Washington kneeling in the snow at Valley Forge, during the Revolutionary War, is well known to all of us.

The nation's first president said, "Providence has at all times been my only dependence, for all other resources seem to have failed us." That God did not fail us when we acknowledged our dependence on Him should be apparent to all.

Referring to the Bible, Abraham Lincoln said, "This great book . . . is the best gift God has given to man . . . But for it we could not know right from wrong."

One of our recent presidents — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower — when he was inaugurated, quoted a Scripture which is just as timely today as it was then. It was God's promise to come to the aid of His people when they call upon Him, originally spoken to Solomon in these words:

"If My people, which are called by My name, shall humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."

"In God We Trust"

When this nation was established, our motto was "In God We Trust," an inscription which is still on our coins. The question is: Is it still in our hearts?

J. Edgar Hoover has said, "The spectacle of a nation praying is more awe-inspiring than the explosion of an atomic bomb. The force of prayer is greater than any possible combination of man-controlled powers, because prayer is man's greatest means of tapping the infinite resources of God."

As he takes the helm of the nation in this time of manifold crises, Richard Nixon is going to need all the help that he can get—both from the wisest men in the land and from God.

Will you join in prayer for him at this time?

hundred people who braved the low 50's temperature, 12 girls from Sebring, Avon Park and Lake Placid paraded on the open air stage to the accompaniment of country music by Chet Good and the Good Guys.

Two of the girls, Jan Zachary and Laurie Woodruff had on bathing suits with short cap sleeves—which may have helped a little in the goosebump weather.

Judges were Claude Jones and Bill Clements of Arcadia. Lyman Merriam, who is in charge of the contest for the sponsoring Jaycees and Highlands County Fair Association, did the chores of emcee. Each girl received $10 and Miss Hansen received an additional $25 for best overall.

The girls will parade again in evening gowns and additional prize money Friday night at the fair. The show will be 8 P.M. and Lynn Phelps will be at the organ.

In addition to girls previously announced as entrants in the Miss Highlands County contest, three girls from Highlands School for Girls competed. They are Susan Seetoo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Seetoo, of Thonburg, Ontario, Canada, an ice skater and cheerleader. She is on the dean's list and annual staff; Jan Zachary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Zachary of Marietta, Okla., a majorette, pianist, and debate winner; and Laura Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Woodruff, Columbus, Ga. Joanne Williams of Lake Wales has dropped out of the contest.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

THIS IS NOT NEWS — IT'S JUST AMERICA!

To read the papers you'd think we were a nation of hoodlums. But, newspapers or not, what makes this wonderful nation it is, keeps right on happening . . . quietly.

Remember for example:

The thousands of hard-working, dedicated teachers who stay after school to help straighten out the twisted thinking of troubled boys and girls.

The countless nurses and young interns who don't quit at the end of their shifts, but go back to the bedside of a frightened child or desperately lonely old woman.

The workers who donate weekends to rebuild a widow's cottage shattered by storm, or a small town church destroyed by fire.

The young men who risk their security and their savings to launch a business — for profit, yes, but also to try to create something worthwhile in this country of ours.

The countless parents who deny themselves necessities to give their children health and educational advantages they never had.

And under-paid ministers, hard-working fund raisers, and especially — ESPECIALLY those young men in uniform offering their futures, their lives for their country.

There may be no news in good news like this, but it helps you rise above a lot of the sordid kind, doesn't it? — WARNER & SWASEY, Cleveland, PRECISION MACHINERY, SINCE 1880.

IN RE MR. EASTMAN

I had made a New Year resolution to pay Mr. Eastman, of Sebring, no attention whatsoever for his comments on my poor contribution to this excellent newspaper. He is right; David Lawrence gave me written permission to use anything he wrote in this col., provided I did not make people believe I wrote it myself. No higher compliment Mr. Eastman could bestow on anybody trying to write for the public. Judging what Eastman has turned loose so far, I judge him to be one of the half-formed minds to approve of taking over the colleges and trying to make something out of dirty, wooly brats, boys and girls who do not know whether they are going or coming in this world.

His English is splendid and I would not be afraid to make a bet that he will come out among the young men who see the follies of this age and decide that an old chap 83 years old, who went through high school and went to college, taught history, ancient and modern, General and United States, wasn't as dumb as he thought.

How old are you, Mr. Eastman? I'll make a guess: You are not twenty; you came from a fine, well-to-do family, and never had anything denied you since the day you were foaled. Am I right?

I predict that one day you will be among splendid scholars, maybe a member of Congress, a Senator at Tallahassee or Washington, and will be somebody Sebring will be proud of. I'll not be here to see if this prophesy is right, but I hope it is. Study more of David Lawrence and you will come out all right, God bless you and all the young people. I love them, but deplore some of the habits of the young who want to be what the Old South called "Trash!"

INAUGURATION DAY IN 1969

When Washington is swarming with men of sterling worth, all bent upon reforming the heavens and the earth; they will come from far Savannah, they will come from Texarkana and points in Indiana, with loud outbursts of mirth; they will come from far Alaska where snow is heaped on snow; they will come from rich Nebraska where the big corn huskers grow; the famed, the wise, the witty, the timid and the gritty will show up from Kansas City and pretty Kokomo; their hurrahs will be thrilling as they go marching by, for Republicans are willing to bravely bleed and die to guarantee this nation a fine Administration; each wants a situation to fill himself with pie; each relies on Dickie Nixon to do heroic fixin' on a nation that is foundering in red ink 'till it's credit's apt to die.

The editors of journals will be marching in the throng; the old and war-worn colonels will go teetering along; and friends of Andrew Jackson and Jefferson, now waxin' a trifle old, are taxin' their dusty throats with song. No office need go begging before this mighty host; he need go a-legging for masters of the Post; he has to do no pleading; they bring the help he's needing; of dying and of bleeding they will make no modest boast. And Dick will view the strangers from Maryland and Maine, the tall, be-whiskered rangers who till the western plain; the men from desks and foyers, the sheepmen and the sawyers, the lumberjacks and lawyers. All will come to ease the strain; he will view the dusty millers from Minnesota land; the shining social pillars from Boston's sacred strand; the men from 'hill and valley will all be there to raly (and on the jobs keep tally) reach with a helping hand. "My fears are in the distance" will be Nixon's lusty song; "What foes can make resistance against this mighty throng" SO let us, lawyer, farmer, Colored Man and social charmer, don G. O. P. — made armor and push good times along!"

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Airlines Have Growth Problems

By BABSON'S REPORTS INCORPORATED

Wellesley Hills, Mass., Jan 16 — Problems currently afflicting air transportation are the direct results of its rapid growth. True, the industry is gratified by the upzoom in its traffic; but, as contrasted with earlier in this decade, the airlines stocks have attracted much less investor interest. The vast majority are quoted well below their previous highs.

Profitless Prosperity

Although revenues have shown continued gains, costs also have soared. As a result, margins have narrowed so that 1968 produced virtually no profit growth for the nation's airlines. Also, the increase in carrier capacity and the rise in overhead costs associated therewith have taken a toll on profits.

Another factor limiting earnings is the congestion at major airports. While efforts have been made to ease this acute condition by reducing the number of flights during peak hours, this has provided only a partial answer. Much more must be done in traffic control.

Sizeable Capital Outlays Slated

A major difficulty confronting the airlines, and related to the industry's rapid growth, is the necessity of huge capital outlays for new planes. In 1969, the new Boeing 747s will go into operation. These ships have a price tag of over $20 million each, with a passenger capability of 490 per craft . . . although most airlines plan to order models which will carry only 350 passengers.

In the 1970's, smaller jumbo jets (the so-called airbuses), the Lockheed 1011, the McDonnell-Douglas DC-10, the supersonic transports, and the short-takeoff-and-landing aircrafts will enter service. During the next decade the industry plans to spend approximately $17 billion for new planes and for ground support equipment, of which about $10½ billion must be raised by 1971.

Efforts To Improve Profitability

Most important . . . the airlines should continue to grow at a fast clip; thus traffic increase will help to narrow the gap of the current excess carrier capacity. But, despite the expected impressive revenue gains in 1969 and beyond, Babson's Reports is convinced that the lush benefits realized from the transition from propeller-driven aircraft to jets will not recur.

Furthermore, size is not the sole determining factor for profitability. Hence, while still reaching for new and lucrative runs, the airlines are trying to stem the erosion on profit margins by cutting back on promotional fares and seeking selective fare increases.

Outlook For The Airlines

In the Babson view, the industry faces a formidable set of challenges which must be met before the airlines reach a new plateau of profitability. Relief of significant proportion may not be seen in 1969. Indeed, airport congestion and delays, higher labor and operating costs, and excess carrier capacity could prolong the squeeze.

The problems of the industry must, however, be viewed as growing pains. The longer-range outlook is still favorable, and continued growth progress is expected. Bear in mind that the dominant mode of intercity passenger movement.

Investment Merits

While profits prospects for the current year are not particularly impressive, the air transportation stocks at current prices appear to be reasonably valued in most instances, especially when viewed in terms of the industry's growth potential. Most of its problems seem already to have been discounted by the stock market.

Hence, it is the opinion of Babson's Reports that investors now owning the common shares of such carriers as American Airlines, Delta, Eastern, Flying Tiger, Northeast, Northwest, Pan American, TWA, Western, and United should certainly hold their positions. For purchase now, the common stock of National Airlines looks attractive for growth, along with the Continental Air Lines convertible 3½ per cent bond of 1992 and the Pan American World Airways convertible 4½ per cent bond of 1986.

Agreement Signed For Final Phase Of Watershed

The project agreement and operation and maintenance agreements have been signed for the $517,000 third and final phase of the Upper Josephine-Jackson Watershed project.

Sam Polston, Highlands County conservationist, said they anticipate starting to advertise for bids this month, that bids will be opened in February and the successful bidder must start work within 20 days.

"The work should be in progress around the first of March," Polston estimated.

George Moore will be the project engineer, and he was in Sebring this week. He lives and headquarters in Sarasota, but will relocate here temporarily. He is a civil engineer with the soil conservation service. The inspector for the job has not yet been designated.

The agreements were signed between the county and the federal government. Leon Tubbs, caladium farmer, was designated as contracting officer by the soil conservation district and Jim Alderman, branch manager for Borden's as alternate contracting officer. Both men own property in the watershed.

This third phase of the $800,000 project is the section affecting the City of Sebring, Lake Jackson and Lake Charlotte.

The project is being paid for jointly by the federal government and about 1,000 property owners. Most of the owners already have their money up and right of way has been obtained.

Taxpayer Didn't Ride with Lindy Says Housewife

According to the newsmen, they can't understand why we can't all get excited about all the money squandered on the moon.

They think we was more excited over Lindbergh's first flight over the ocean. I am only a housewife.

My answer would be that Lindy didn't take the American taxpayer along on the ride.

Your Social Security

Question—I get social security retirement checks. My wife is almost 62 and will be applying for them on my social security record. Will this mean that my check will be less?

Answer—No. The amount of your benefit check will remain the same. Your wife's benefit will be paid in addition to the payment you get.

Question—I have heard that anyone 72 or over can get social security even if he never worked or paid social security contributions. Is this correct?

Answer—Not quite. People who reached 72 before 1968 can get these special payments even if they never worked under social security. People who reach 72 after 1967 need credit for some work under social security to get them. The special payments may be reduced if the person is receiving public assistance or other government payments.

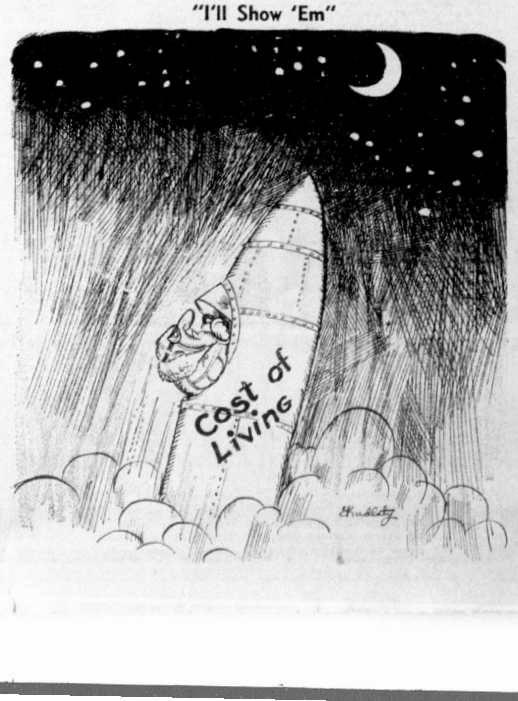

Question—At what age may a widow who has no children under 18 start receiving social security benefits on her deceased husband's record?

Answer—A widow who is not disabled may start her social security benefits at 60. A disabled widow may begin receiving benefits as early as 50 if she becomes disabled before her husband's death or within seven years after his death. Also, a widow who receives benefits as a mother with children may receive payments if she becomes disabled before those payments end or within seven years after they end. The full amount of a widow's benefit, payable at 62, is 82½ per cent of her deceased husband's retirement benefit. If she starts receiving benefits between 50 and 62, the amount is permanently reduced.

Question—What is meant by the "lump-sum death payment" and what is the amount?

Answer—The lump-sum death payment is the payment made after the death of an insured worker. The amount varies from $165 to $255, depending on the worker's average yearly earnings under social security. The payment is made to the surviving spouse who was living with the deceased at the time of death. If no such spouse survives, the payment is made to the person who paid the burial expenses. If the burial expenses have not been paid, the lump-sum payment can be paid directly to the funeral home upon authorization from the person who assumed responsibility for the expenses.

Outside the long buildings housing the booths, automobiles and animals, there is a large display of mobile homes, tractors, and trailers. The American Red Cross first aid station is in this area.

The schools display showed on a screen some of the methods being used in teaching children to read. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Explorers of Troop 810 were having problems giving away coasters they had made. Visitors couldn't believe the attractive handiwork wasn't for sale.

And there was much more.

Whitaker Busy Attending New Conferences

Last weekend he was in Sarasota for the Legislative Weekend. Others from Highlands County attending this traditional get-acquainted and lobbying confab were Commissioners Robert Skipper, Ben McGee and Earl Crutchfield; Clerk Earl Rich and Administrator Charles Morgan.

Whitaker and McGee attended a session of the directors of the State Association of County Commissioners at Jacksonville. Whitaker is a member of the roads and highways committee and McGee is a member of the taxation and revenue committee.

At the beginning of next week Robert Skipper, Whitaker and McGee will be in Tallahassee for the bi-annual Conference for County Commissioners. The conference, to be held at the Florida State University center for continuing education, is sponsored by the state association of commissioners.

Highlands To Sponsor Teacher Training

The Child Evangelism Fellowship of Highlands County will sponsor a Teacher Training School in Sebring, Thursday, January 23rd. All Sunday School Teachers, parents, grandparents, Sunday School Superintendents and home Bible class teachers are welcome!

The instructors for this course are from the faculty of the Child Evangelism Institute in Muskegon Michigan. All teaching is inter-denominational, stressing great basic Biblical truths. Miss Wanda Nuhn and Miss Wilma Wilkerson have specialized in this training field for nine years and will teach such courses as "Teaching the Bible to Children" "How to Lead a Child to Christ" "Visual Aids and Methods" "How to Teach Bible Memory Verses and Sons."

Since it is commonly accepted that two out of three children in the United States do not attend any Sunday School, it should behoove every church member to take a second look at the children of today and ask themselves what they can do about it. They can do something about it! They can marvelously increase the attendance at their own Sunday School!

At the present time there are twenty Bible clubs sponsored by the Child Evangelism Fellowship, called "Good News Clubs" taught weekly in private homes, utilizing visual aids and finding children enthusiastic and responsive. These are in Highlands County and approximately 375 children are enrolled.

Miss Myra Laird of Frostproof is Director of the Highlands County Work, and announces this as a one day class only, beginning at 9 A.M. Meeting will be held at the Southside Baptist Church, corner South Commerce Street and Orange Streets. — meeting continues until 2:30 P.M. Please bring a sandwich. Beverage and dessert will be furnished.

Local Veterans To Receive Increase Benefits

Increased benefits are on the way for about 220 Highlands County veterans and their dependents.

Their monthly compensation and pension checks will be bigger than ever, thanks to two laws passed by Congress during the past year, adding up locally to $252,000.

In addition, for those who are veterans of World Wars I and II and hold G. I. insurance policies, there will be an increase in dividend payments.

One of the laws provides for a new schedule of compensation payments to veterans who were disabled while in active service.

It increases, by $235 million, the annual amount to be paid to the 1,952,000 veterans now getting such aid. They had been receiving $2 billion a year, which averaged out to $1,025 per person. The new average will be $1,145.

Just how much any particular veteran will receive will depend upon the extent of his disability. Those with 100 per cent disability will now get $4,800 a year, as compared with $3,600 previously. For those with 20 per cent disability, on the other hand, the compensation will be $516.

Approximately 220 of Highlands County's veterans will be getting bigger compensation checks as a result. Payments to them will total $252,000 this year, it is estimated.

The increased rates will show up in the checks for January, which will be arriving in February. The Veterans Administration states that recipients will get the increases automatically, without application.

The second action taken by Congress will boost payments to other Highlands County veterans who are getting pensions for total disability that was not incurred while in active service.

The average increase, for the 1,100,000 throughout the country who are getting such pensions, will be $110 a year.

Their increase will be based upon a new formula that relates the amount they will get to other income they are receiving.

The VA announces, also, that local veterans who served in the two World Wars and have G. I. insurance policies will share in $236 million in dividends that will be distributed during the course of the year. It is $13 million more than was paid out last year.

Glennda Jessee - John Rodgers Wed In Episcopal Church

The Episcopal Church of the Redeemer was the scene of the wedding of Miss Glennda Jessee, daughter of Mrs. Sari R. Morse, Brooksville, and Alfred G. Jessee, Kingsport, Tenn. and John Allen Rodgers, Tampa, son of Mrs. Mary W. Rodgers of Avon Park and Allen Rodgers of Sparr. The double-ring service was performed by Rev. John F. Mangrum, December 14, at 3 P.M.

The bride given in marriage by her stepfather, Frederick Louis Morse wore a gown of white bridal satin, fashioned with a straight skirt, empire waist, set off by a satin bow, which led into the all-lace chapel train. The dress featured long lace sleeves, pointed at the wrists. Her multi-tiered veil was held in place by an elaborate arrangement of beads. She carried a cascade of white carnations with satin streamers.

Attending the bride, Miss Barbara D. Landley of Deland was maid of honor with Miss Lenore R. O'Steen and Miss Marilyn J. Kovac of Tampa as bridesmaids. They were gowned identical in emerald green, made empire with ruffled long sleeves and neckline. They carried red carnation bouquets.

William E. Dudley of Indian Harbor Beach, served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were, James E. Rodgers, brother of the bridegroom, Avn Park and Charles J. Piantieri, of Orlando.

After a weekend wedding trip to Courtney Campbell Causeway, Causeway Inn, the couple will reside at 12727, N. 17th Fernwood Gardens Apts., Apt. G-21, Tampa.

Reception

The reception was held in the parish house of the Church of the Redeemer. Miss Kathy Kovac of Tampa, presided over the bride's book. Miss Linda Moon of Atlanta, Ga., and Miss Judy Rewis of Avon Park served the three-tiered cake, punch, nuts and mints.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By GEORGE WALPER

Guy Garrett was presented by Harry Hood at the recent Rotary meeting in a classification talk. Mr. Garrett as principal of Avon Park High School presented a brief resume of a few of the responsibilities of his position.

In getting a start in the educational field, Mr. Garrett began as a Biology and Physical Education teacher. Later he entered into coaching of baseball and football. Prior to his assuming his present role as principal, he served under Mr. Art Wilhite as assistant principal and assistant football coach.

Today in his responsibility, he wears many hats. As supervising principal of the elementary schools of Avon Park, he is responsible for some 2,400 young people in grades, kindergarten through 8th grade. As principal of the high school, he is responsible for an additional 900 students. Here in this area of education with 50 teachers and only 45 areas in which to teach, the problems can be rather difficult at times.

Mr. Garrett's prime objective is to teach youngsters to be good citizens and thus utilize their mental and physical capacities to the utmost. To do this, he is most interested in obtaining the best teachers possible and then place them in an environment in which they are able to work most effectively. Mr. Garrett praised the majority of his faculty for the high quality of teaching that is being done.

PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION
Date December 31, 1968
Pay to the Order of The Federal Intermediate Credit Bank
356,600 and 00/100 Dollars
Herbert E. Cook
General Manager

Farm-Users Now Own The Credit Group

Southwest Florida Production Credit Association's farmer-users are celebrating the New Year due to their PCA sharing in the full ownership with 61 other PCAs in the two Carolinas, Georgia and Florida of the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Columbia.

Herbert E. Cook, general manager of the Association, said all government capital remaining in the Credit Bank was paid to the U. S. Treasury at the end of the year, thus giving PCA farmer-users complete ownership for the first time in the Bank's 45-year history. The Bank has been paying a franchise tax for use of the government capital since 1923. The Production Credit Associations purchased an additional $8 million in stock and now owns the Credit Bank which has assets of $415.9 million and net worth amounting to $32.2 million.

Production Credit Associations were founded in 1933, to provide short and intermediate term credit directly to farmers, growers and ranchers in the four-state area and the PCAs have been farmer-owned for more than 14 years.

The farmer-owned and operated Southwest Florida PCA serves Manatee, Sarasota, Charlotte, Glades, Hendry, Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto counties and is extending $23,636,042 to 510 farmers, growers and ranchers in these counties for their needs for operating and capital investment credit on an intermediate-term basis. Since organization in December, 1933, the Association has loaned a total of $160,255,964. Mr. Cook stated. Jimmie Downing is local manager.

The Association's home office is located in Bradenton and branch offices are located in Wauchula, Arcadia, Sebring and Clewiston.

Mlle. Genevieve Musy of France is beginning an Amity Teacher Aide assignment at the Highlands School for the period between January 20 and June 3.

Mlle. Musy comes to the United States under the sponsorship of Amity Institute of Del Mar, California, a private, non-profit educational organization authorized by the United States Department of State. Annually it assigns over one hundred volunteer teacher aides and exchange teachers throughout the United States for the dual purpose of improving foreign language instruction and of creating better understanding between nations. One of the schools in Florida also affiliated with the Amity program is Indian River Junior College in Fort Pierce, which also had a French teacher aide.

Amity Aides are required to assist the regular language teacher three hours a day in such activities as preparing language tapes and conversing in their native tongue with small groups of students about their country, language and culture. They also pursue a personal study program for which they receive credits in Conversational English, American Civilization, and Student Teaching.

Mlle. Musy's first Amity Assignment took her to Duluth, Minn., and she is now in Burgaw, North Carolina. She has a French teaching certificate in modern literature and has specialized in contemporary French writers. She is very fond of nature, hiking, and skiing. Her other interests are varied and include painting, the modern cinema, and such American writers as Faulkner and Fitzgerald.

She is eagerly looking forward to sharing her unique and valuable experience with the students and community of Avon Park.

Four-Day Cruise In This Week's All Florida

It seemed like a wonderful idea . . . cruising around the state of Florida, more than 2,000 miles of tidal coastline, in a houseboat.

All Florida Magazine was happy to accept the invitation on the first leg, the shakedown cruise, of a seagoing houseboat which the Florida Development Commission had outfitted for such a venture.

Jack Harper of the magazine staff drew the happy assignment and next week, All Florida features his four - day cruise, from Fernandina Beach to Cape Kennedy.

TV schedules, easy-to-read, complete for the week.

Litter Problem Increasingly Important

The closer people work and live together, the more important it is to be courteous and considerate to avoid "getting on each others nerves." This nation's population is growing at such a rapid rate that it is increasingly important to mind our outdoor manners, as well.

Many people make it a rule to leave a picnic ground or campsite cleaner than they found it. Keep America Beautiful, Inc. suggests that we make sure that our trash is put in a container or carried home for disposal.

Take a look around public places in Avon Park, especially the Post Office and our parks. Let's do a little picking up instead of adding to the litter we see, as our own contribution toward keeping Avon Park and everywhere beautiful.

BAHÁ Ú LLÁH

The Founder of the Baha 'i Faith, revealed this prayer for mankind: "O MY God! O my God! Unite the hearts of Thy servants, and reveal to them Thy great purpose. May they follow Thy commandment and abide in Thy law. Help them, O God, in their endeavor, and grant them strength to serve Thee. O God! leave them not to themselves, but guide their steps by the light of knowledge, and cheer their hearts by Thy love. Verily, Thou art their Helper and their Lord.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home News

Clyde Barrett of Sebring was a dinner guest at Bonnie and Dick Sherman's during the week.

The big surprise of the week was when Hazel and Roy Podevels arrived on Thursday from their home in Janesville, Wisconsin. Everyone had just about given up hope that they would make it down to the Sunny South this winter. So good to have them back to join the rest of the fishing group.

Mr. and Mrs. Elta Lamson spent most of Sunday afternoon visiting their many friends at Bonnie Brae. Edna and Elta were residents of the park before moving to their home on Highland Avenue.

The Shortens (Ellen and Chris) left Sunday morning for Miami where they boarded a plane to return home to Fredrickton, New Brunswick. Chris is to undergo surgery at a hospital near his home. Mr. and Mrs. Orland Sanborn drove them to Miami. Hazel Sanborn is a cousin of Ellen's. Best wishes are extended to Chris from all his many friends at Bonnie Brae for most successful surgery and a very rapid recovery.

The Hemillers (Albert and Mary) have had as guests their nephew and wife, Emma and Walter Hemiller of Janesville, Wisconsin. The Walter Hemillers returned the end of the week to their home after a nice visit- in the Sunny South.

On Sunday afternoon Albert and Mary Hemiller entertained her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Burgess of Punta Gorda.

It is with deep regrets that we saw the Hesline Mobile Home pull out of the park on Friday. Howard has been transferred to Tampa and they have placed their trailer at Holiday Park. Mary and Howard were one of the younger group and always a delight to be around. We shall miss them.

The Burke's (Catherine and Harold) have installed a new heating and cooling system in their Skyline. Harold is also busy skirting his trailer with decorative blocks. It sure looks nice.

Mrs. Lulu Damon invited Albert and Mary Hemiller and Emma and Walter Hemiller on a picnic to Highlands Hammock State Park during the week, where a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Hannah of Toronto, Canada are in the overnight section where they will spend a month or so while here in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt have received their new trailer and have placed it at the Harry Johnson's in Sebring. Janet and Jim are old friends of the Johnson's. We miss them but wish them much happiness.

Word has been received that Neil McGonagle is improving and hopes to be able to return in April for a month or two with Ellen. In the meantime they have rented their Mobile Home to the McCusker's (Helene and Henry) of Moody Beach, Maine, formerly of Claremont, New Hampshire. Welcome McCuskers ! ! !

Mrs. Alice Tansil who has been confined to Walker Memorial Hospital for several weeks returned home during the week. Glad to have you back, Alice.

Russell Pinney has purchased a new fishing boat and has launched it at Lake Bonnet. Belated birthday greetings to Russell who celebrated his birthday during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Knapp were guests at the birthday dinner.

The Browns (Margaret and Gene) returned during the week from Michigan where they spent the holidays. They visited enroute in Alabama. So glad to have them return safely.

The Vandevenders (Margaret and Wyatt) visited Mr. and Mrs. Ciurd Campbell of Frostproof on Saturday night. On Sunday they visited their many friends at Brentwood Park.

Mrs. Freda Simmons, Catherine Hager and Louise Shengle spent sunday afternoon in Davenport, Florida at the Bargain Barn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons called on Louise Shengle on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Comfort entertained Catherine Hager at dinner on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baldwin called on Catherine Hager on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Simmons entertained Louise Shengle and Catherine Hager at dinner on Thursday evening.

Sunday afternoon visitors at the Waverly Porter's were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yale of Clearwater, Florida and Mrs. Delia Yale of Primgar, Iowa.

Wednesday afternoon Catherine Hager spent the afternoon shopping in Wauchula.

Danny Moss has returned after spending the holidays with his parents in Clewiston. Danny is a student at the South Florida Junior College.

The unexplained phenomenon in the western sky Monday evening was observed by several people at Bonnie Brae Mobile Estates.

Redeemer Women Meet In Parish Hall

The Episcopal Churchwomen met on Wednesday for their regular monthly meeting in the parish house of the Church of the Redeemer.

Mrs. Mabel Paine, Mrs. Grace Kinner and Mrs. Susie MacKenzie were co-hostesses and served refreshments before the meeting.

Mrs. Sherman Francisco brought the meeting to order and Mrs. Charles Romilly, devotional leader opened with prayer and Bible reading. Mrs. Ed Hall, program chairman took over, announcing her subject "Labor Diligently." This is a continuation of thie series started last year. Discussion groups were formed and questionnaires given to each group. General discussion followed.

Mrs. Sherman Francisco opened the business session. Mrs. Paul Calvert, chairman of the annual card party, reported that her committees are formed and plans well underway. The event will take place Tuesday, Jan. 28.

The afternoon party will be 1:30 P.M., the evening 7:30 P.M. All types of games may be played and there will be door prizes for each table and dessert will be served before play starts. A large attendance is hoped for, as this event is looked forward to all year. Mrs. Ed Hall is ticket chairman, phone GL 3-6265 for tickets, $1.00 each.

Father Knapp closed the meeting with prayer.

Next meeting will be Wednesday, Feb. 12, after the regular weekly communion.

New Life Mission Program Fills Church

The New Life Mission Program with Rev. O. Dean Martin as Minister, ended with the Friday evening service. Special music was rendered each night through the week under the direction of Rev. Paul Gentry, at the First United Methodist Church.

Average attendance each night through the week was 197 with young people meeting at 6:45 before the evening service. The Bible study held by Rev. Martin each morning at 10:00 o'clock in Wesley Hall had an average attendance of 50. During the week Rev. Martin spoke at the Civic Clubs and to the schools, while he was here.

Rev. Martin returned to Nashville, Tennessee, his home office and repeats his New Life Mission program every other week some where throughout the United States, speaking between 25 and 30 times during the program.

His messages were most inspiring and a blessing. Rev. A. G. Hardee, pastor of the First United Methodist Church is continuing with a study, every Wednesday at 7:00 P.M. in Wesley Hall, with the Sermon on the Mount — a New Church for a New World.

School Of Religion In Session

The School of Religion at the Union Congregational Church has begun its 14th year and will continue on Tuesday mornings in January, February and March. Rev. Herbert D. Graetz is teaching the New Testament course. This year the studies are in the Gospel according to St. Mark. This class meets at 9:00 o'clock. At 9:50 there is a coffee break. Mr. Paul Zuck teaches the course on "Living With Our Troubles" at 10:10. Mr. Zuck was engaged for years in the field of psychology and social studies and is equipped to throw some real light on some of the vexing problems of our time. Dr. Ruth Phillips substituted for Mr. Zuck for the first two class sessions. Mr. Zuck will take his class this coming Tuesday.

Those who are interested in furthering their knowledge of the New Testament and methods of dealing with our personal and social problems are invited to attend these sessions.

Community Appreciation By Judge Rehrer

We in Highlands County are on the verge of seeing the completion of a new, modern detention facility for the delinquent, dependent and underprivileged children of Highlands County. We are extremely proud of this accomplishment because it is a community effort accomplishment.

We would like to give public acknowledgement to each and everyone who has participated in this worthy project and we hope to do so in time.

At this particular time, we wish to acknowledge three particular units which are doing so much toward the completion of this work at a great saving to Highlands County.

First of all, our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to the Division of Corrections, for the State of Florida from Mr. Louie Wainwright a former county resident, down through the custodial personnel, all of whom have made every effort to make this help available to the construction of the juvenile facility. Without their assistance the completition date would be somewhere far off into the future and the expense to the community would be thousands of dollars more.

Secondly, those six dedicated inmates at the Avon Park Correctional Institution whose names we are not in a position to disclose at this time who are laboring so earnestly and with such a dedication to the job at hand that the building will be completed way ahead of the projected date.

Thirdly, as one of the conditions in providing inmate help, we had to give them the assurance that a good cooked meal would be provided each noon. Through the efforts of Mrs. Margaret Turnbull, one of the Trustees of Youth Care, Inc., various groups have volunteered to prepare and serve this cooked noon meal. The first two weeks of food service were provided by the Women's Clubs of the Congregational Church, Avon Park and of the Episcopal Church, Avon Park. The meals the next week were provided by the Brethren Church, Sebring and this week by the ladies of the Faith Lutheran Church, Sebring.

As of this time there are no definite committments for the following two weeks, but we know that the ladies of the churches will come through with flying colors.

Let us all show our appreciation to these people as we meet them on the street or in our homes and say "Thank You" for a job well done.

Survey Wants Televisions

A sample of residents in this area will be asked about the television sets in their households as part of a nationwide survey the week of January 20.

The questions are aimed at determining the proportion of households in the U.S. with television sets, the proportion with color sets, and the proportion with sets which can receive UHF. Answers to these questions help government and business in decisions affecting the establishment of new broadcasting facilities.

The survey is taken annually. Last year's figures showed that approximately 94 per cent of the households in the United States had at least one television set. Approximately 18 per cent of the households had a color set and 42 per cent were equipped for UHF reception. Mrs. Christine Oates will interview.

Redeemer Elects Officers

At the supper and annual parish meeting last Sunday, the following were elected to the vestry: James P. Turnbull, Ben B. Gurtner, Milton F. Stokey, and Lawrence S. Ford. The delegates to the Diocesan Convention selected are: James A. Johnson, Paul J. Calvert, George R. Cone, and Karl E. Swanson. After a delicious covered dish supper arranged by Mrs. Ben Gurtner and her committee, a hymn sing was enjoyed by all. The rector then showed pictures of Camp Wingmann showing the year round life there, giving the background of the Diocesan Center as developed through the years.

Reports were presented by leaders of the various parish groups—the rector summing up with accounts of his activities and projections ahead.

Panthers Meet St. Petersburg In Conference Game Monday

By COACH TERRELL

Monday night in Avon Park, South Florida Junior College will host St. Petersburg in a conference game beginning at 7:30. This will mark the first time the St. Pete basketball team has played in Avon Park.

St Pete at present is in second place in the Division III race. Brevard leads the division with Polk, South Florida, Manatee, Valencia and Orlando still fighting it out for a play-off berth against St. Pete.

Polk 85—SFJC 70

Last Thursday night in Wauchula, Polk Junior College defeated the Panthers 85 to 70 in a game much closer than the final score would indicate.

The Panthers held the lead until just before the half, regained it briefly in the second half and lost it with six minutes of playing time left. The Polk team started the freeze and the foul shots increased their lead to the final margin.

Jeff Asher led the Panthers in scoring against Polk with 21 points on 25 attempts from the field. A bright spot for the Panthers has been the improved play of Chuck Smith and Willie Marovish. These two are the teams who was moved to the wing to get more rebound strength. In the Polk game Smith had 10, Marovich and Allen seven each and Ron White with five rebounds.

We have cut our mistakes down, but instead of 100% effort, its going to require 120% effort for us to win with our height disadvantage.

Stetson 91—SFJC 68

Saturday night in Avon Park in another tough game the Panthers fought, clawed and almost bit their opponent and fell short as a fine JV team of Coach Glen Wilke of Stetson emerged a 91 to 68 victor.

Neither team could score early and only until just prior to the half did Stetson widen their margin. In the second half the Panthers made a brief surge to narrow the margin to nine points, but Stetson's superior height prevailed and outscored the Panthers in the last few minutes.

FRESHMAN GUARD Don Sisemore is the number 2 Red Devil in total points scored with 139 after ten games for a 13.9 avarage per game. The young cager took game high scoring honors in Sebring last week with 19 points as the Red Devils dropped a 55-53 squeeker to the Blue Streaks.

The Red Devil varsity evened out its record at 5-5 last week with a 74-54 victory over the Lake Placid Green Dragons and a heartbreaking 55-53 loss to the Sebring Blue Streaks. Both games were away.

The Devil cagers returned home for a game with the LaBelle five Tuesday and will play the Okeechobee Brahmans a return match in Okeechobee Friday (tomorrow) night. Next Tuesday the Devils will host the Wauchula Wildcats here at the high school gym.

In the Lake Placid game the two teams played on fairly even terms until the third quarter when the Red Devils scored 20 points while holding the Dragons to 9 and then hit for 26 in the final period while the losers scored only 19.

Donald Strange netted 10 field goals and 3 free shots for a total of 23 to pace the Avon Park win. Don Sisemore hit five outside shots and 5 from the free shot line for 15 and Lorris Welch and Clyde Sumbry scored 9 each.

Last Friday night the Red Devils traveled to Sebring and came out on the short end of the score as Rodney Hollinger sank a two-pointer with three seconds left in the game to break a 53-53 tie and give the Streaks the hotly contested win.

The Blue Streaks played a slow, deliberate offense which the Devils couldn't rattle even with their smooth operating full court press. Avon Park hit only 30 percent of its floor shots during the game but the Devils had their best night at the free shot line sinking 19 of 25.

Don Sisemore led the losing effort with 19 points closely followed by Strange with 16 and Charles Magenheimer with 11 points.

The Avon Park "B" team lost both games last week to move to a 1-9 mark.

Sweet May Be On His Way Back To Jail According To Constitution

Judging from the hassle now going on all the way to Tallahassee, John Sweet, convicted of the murder of Charles Von Maxcy and sentenced to life imprisonment, got his release bond okayed just in the nick of time.

But the possibility he may have to go back to jail today hangs heavily over him, although it admittedly is a long shot.

Under the new Florida state constitution, persons convicted of capital offenses or an offense punishable by life imprisonment are no longer entitled to bond. The new constitution took effect Tuesday, Jan. 7.

Under the old constitution, they were entitled to bond at the discretion of the court.

Apparently aware of the impending deadline, Attorneys James McEwen and Walter Manley rushed through the proceedings to free their client. And the Second District Court of Appeal in Lakeland on Friday, Jan. 3, allowed Sweet to go free under $50,000 bond pending an appeal of his November 8 conviction.

State lawyers, including Assistant Attorney General Reeves Bowen, chief of the criminal appeals division of Attorney General Earl Faircloth's office, confirmed that "we have been talking about it." "We have not come to any firm decision as to what to do—if anything."

Should they decide that Sweet must go back to jail, they would be faced with picking up all other persons now out on bail who fall in this same category.

Reeves added that under terms of the old constitution, when the bail was granted "we could not prohibit them from releasing Sweet on the theory that the order was void when it was made."

Sweet's bail was posted at 12:30 P.M. January 7 and he walked out of Polk County jail in Bartow a few miutes later. The new constitution went into effect that day.

Under questioning, Bowen declared that "you might say, although I haven't taken a firm position on it—that because of the coming in of the new provision in the constitution he is no longer entitled to bail.

"Therefore we could apply for a setting aside of the appeal court order. And if they don't do it, bring it up before the supreme court."

Such an idea to bring the 52-year-old man back to jail might not develop because of lack of precedence. The court in Lakeland would have to grant a certificate declaring the matter of "great public interest." Bowen thinks, in order for a test of the new bail provision to occur.

"And that court down there has been adamant against giving certificates of great public interest. They haven't given but one in 11 years. And that's the only way I know of we could possibly get it to the supreme court."

Bowen said the appeal court, though, is "not given to backing off from orders they make down there, and as I pointed out to you, there's not hardly a chinaman's chance that they would give us a certificate."

He did say, though, "no conclusion has been reached" concerning an attack on Sweet's bail.

The $50,000 bond is double the amount set on Sweet after his 1967 Highlands County indictment in the slaying. The grand jury indicted him on testimony given by his mistress Irene Maxcy and Roma Trulock, investigator for the old Florida Sheriffs' Bureau. Sweet's first trial in October of 1967 ended in a hung jury. He was retired in November, 1968, found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Red Cross Executive Resigns

Mrs. Florence L. Peach, Executive Secretary, of the Highlands County Chapter, of the American Red Cross, resigned at the Executive Committee meeting held on Friday.

Mrs. Peach had resigned on two previous occasions, citing lack of cooperation of the community at large. She stated that the responsibility was too great for one individual to handle.

Earlier the board had refused to accept her resignation because they felt her services were too valuable to the chapter and the Highlands County communities, hoping that they might enlist the help of more volunteers to keep the chapter open.

Mrs. Peach, at the time of her resignation, stated that cases had doubled in the past year and that she could not possibly do the work alone; that even with volunteers, she had little time to orient them to the Red Cross effort. She stated her resignation would be effective Jan. 25.

The Board of Directors is at a loss as to how they can keep the Highlands County Chapter open, a spokesman said. The chapter will lose its charter when the door closes. The board realizes too, that the board alone, cannot keep the doors open, that it must be a county united effort from concerned individuals.

One of the problems facing the chapter is the fund drive which begins in March, without a fund campaign chairman.

The Highlands County Board of Commissioners granted permission for the chapter to use an office in the Courthouse Annex.

1968 Was A Bad Year For Forest Fires

Another hot forest fire year was experienced in 1968 — making two bad years in a row, according to C. H. Coulter, state forester.

Coulter said widespread incendiarism, and light general rainfall during spring and summer made things "rough" for Florida Forest Service firefighters.

During the year ended December 31, a total 7,246 separate forest fires burned 129,550 acres, Coulter said. This is a slight decrease — 2.8 per cent — in fires over the '67 year and a 23 per cent decrease in the acreage burned.

The year was characterized by periods of the most critical fire conditions in recent years. This was reflected by the Governor placing 52 counties in the spring of 1968, under a no-burn ban. Coulter said that "excellent attention in alerting the public as to fire conditions by the news media these periods, assistance by local law enforcement agencies and awareness on the part of the general public prevented more serious fire losses."

The state forester said that fire season is here again and urges everyone to exercise caution in the use of fire in or near the woods.

Opening Sunday at Noah's Ark Development Center

Avon Park residents are invited to drop in at Noah's Ark between two and four o'clock Sunday afternoon, according to an announcement made here today by Robert Thompson, President of the Board, at the open house and exhibit to be held on Carolina Street, next to the Apostolic Church of Jesus.

"The real name of the enterprise is Noah's Ark Child Development Centers" explained Mr. Thompson, a well known Main Street Merchant. "In two places we provide both care and education for pre-school children of working mothers. The Centers are open every day public school is open, and a staff of six teachers handles the 50 or 60 youngsters each day. The seventh employee is a social worker and home visitor."

IN ITS THIRD YEAR

Visitors to the open house will see abundant evidence of busy and creative program. Without the centers, many children between the ages of 18 months and five years would be neglected when their mothers get work, or else cared for by school-age sisters staying home to look after them. To meet this need a small group of concerned citizens organized the effort in May, 1966. Mr. Mearl Robinson is Vice-President and Mr. Donald Eastman is Secretary and Treasurer.

No Government Handouts

"The city ought to be proud of the Noah's Ark Program," said President Thompson, "because here is a local self-help approach to a problem without waiting for a Federal grant. We are grateful to the Avon Park City Council for fencing the playground, but we have not waited for Washington before acting. We also appreciate the helpful snacks made possible each morning and afternoon without charge by the Flo Cal Company."

A budget of over $6,000 a year is made up from gifts by individuals, churches, and other groups, to supplement the daily fees of 75c paid faithfully by the parents of the children served.

Among America's precious natural resources, under-educated children may be the most important and the most neglected. Sun readers are invited to the Carolina Street Open House Sunday afternoon to look and to ask questions of the staff.

Tom Tonwsend Named Best Football Player at Banquet

Avon Park's all-state center, Tom Townsend, was named the best all-round football player for the 1968 season at the Avon Park Athletic Association's annual grid awards banquet last Saturday night. The popular senior won the trophy for his outstanding contributions to the Red Devil team as offensive center and defensive linebacker.

Also winning coveted trophies were Orlando Libran, the best lineman; Billy Richards, the best back; and Ed Reck, the most improved player. All three boys are seniors and were chosen for the awards on the basis of their play this season on the Red Devil varsity by a committee of the Avon Park Athletic Association.

Gene Ellenson, assistant head football coach at the University of Florida, talked to the athletes, cheerleaders, parents, and fans about the youth of today and urged the students to begin early in their school career to prepare themselves for college or some career.

Other distinguished guest present at the event were former Avon Park athlete Bobby Coleman who is now a member of the University of Florida football team and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter, former Red Devil coach.

A large crowd enjoyed the banquet and program which featured the coaches and players of the three football teams and the cheerleaders. The banquet was held at the Avon Elementary Cafetorium.

Red Devils Win Over LaBelle

The Red Devil varsity basketball team held on to a 500 record last week as they lost an over-time decision to LaBelle by a score of 73-71 here last Tuesday week and then romped over the Okeechobee Brahmans in Okobee's brand new gym 67-39 last Friday night to set a 6-6 mark with 9 more games on the regular season schedule.

Last Tuesday the Devils were scheduled to take on the Hardee High Wildcats here and Friday night will be open due to Moore Haven caffceling out the second game of that series. Next Tuesday night the local team will travel to LaBelle for a re-match.

The two-point loss to LaBelle came in an over-time session when the game ended with the score tied at 64-64. The game was close all the way. LaBelle led 14-12 at the end of the first quarter but Avon Park had a 33-28 advantage at halftime in the third period LaBelle moved out to a 53-49 lead and then the Devils sank 15 counters in the fourth period to LaBelle's 11 to tie the game up. In the final minute of the game the Devils attempted to win with a one-shot play but LaBelle blocked the shot to throw the game into the over-time period.

In the three minute extra time played, LaBelle jumped off to a quick lead as Avon Park seemed unable to hit. The Devils cut the lead to two points and had the ball as the final whistle blew but didn't have time for a shot. Devil forward Donald Strange kept the Avon Park team in the ball game scoring 29 points to take scoring honors for the game. LaBelle's Herbert Brown sank 29 for the winners.

In Okeechobee last Friday night It was easy sailing for the Red Devils as they led all the way to the 67-39 victory. At the end of a slow first quarter the Devils were ahead 9-7 and then jumped to a 33-15 lead at halftime. At the end of the third quarter the score was 49-24 and the final score was 67-39 as Devil coach Fred Sandlin cleared his bench for the final period.

Again it was sharpshooter Donald Strange who led the scoring with 16 points closely followed by Dan Sizemore with 15 counters, Charles Magenheimer hit for 8. Joe Hardy and 7, Lorris Welch scored 6, Clyde Sumbry had 5, Willie Seigler and Roy Clatt had 4 each and Neal Caswell scored 2 points for Avon Park.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Pastors representing nearly every religious persuasion are becoming increasingly aware that in addition to its theological implications, alcoholism is an illness.

This is not an attempt by any means to justify the alcoholic and his actions, and to free him of all responsibility for his condition.

But once alcoholism has become established in an individual, it manifests itself in many ways as an illness, and many wise pastors these days are attacking the problem along psychological lines, as well as using spiritual dynamics.

It does little good to tell an individual who has become an alcoholic that he shouldn't have let himself drift into his condition. What is done is done, and the question now is how to help the problem drinker out of the morass of alcoholism.

Often an alcoholic finds it difficult to "own up" and admit to himself that he has a drinking problem. Many alcoholics try to lull themselves into falsely believing that booze is no problem to them — that they can take it or leave it anytime.

The first step in the right direction is made when an alcoholic admits that he has a problem. Sometimes he will take his problem to a clergyman in whom he has a great deal of confidence. This is when the pastor must muster up all the wisdom and tact he can find within himself, and when he often turns to God for direction to know how to handle this individual who has come to him for help.

A wise pastor will not let the alcoholic "con" him into doing all the thinking for the alcoholic. Often the alcoholic will expect the pastor to provide a magic formula, thus relieving the alcoholic of the responsibility he must recognize if his life is to be changed.

Many pastors nowadays realize the necessity of getting to the heart of the alcoholic's problem. There is usually some psychological or spiritual reason why this individual has taken to drinking as a crutch for his life. When this reason can be detected and proper psychological or spiritual principles applied, the individual usually is able to rise above his drinking problem and conquer it.

Certainly God can be the answer to the alcoholic and his problems. But a wise pastor will also help the alcoholic work out the psychological kinks from his personality, or will refer him to someone who is trained to do so.

January is Alcoholism Information Month, a time when special emphasis is given, around the nation and here in Florida, to creating in the public a deeper awareness of the problem of alcoholism.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program welcomes requests for literature from pastors. We have material we believe can assist clergymen in helping alcoholics. Just write FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Does TV Increase Crime, Violence?

"Television and the movies have a powerful effect in influencing young people's actions," said Mr. Walter Varney Magee, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, an 11-million-member organization, recently.

"Motion pictures are saturated with sex," she added, "and television is a sort of copycat. The violence in the movies and on television is disturbing."

But there are some who defend the status quo, declaring that the violence which is seen on the screen will not necessarily be reflected in the personal attitude of the individual viewer.

In testimony recently before the National Commission on the Causes and Prevention of Violence, Dr. W. Walter Menninger, well-known psychiatrist, said, "I think you overlook the capacity which all healthy people have to develop and distinguish between reality and fantasy."

Saw It on Television

Others who testified disagreed sharply. Ben H. Bagdikian, writer and formerly a Saturday Evening Post editor, declared, "It is as though we delivered our children to someone who took them away for four or five hours of every day in their formative years to watch . . . gangsters beating enemies . . . and assorted daily demonstrations in how to kill and maim."

The day before the commission opened its hearings in Washington, D. C., a court in Newcastle, England, sentenced an 11-year-old girl to life imprisonment for killing two small boys, three and four years old.

In the course of the trial, the girl was asked where she had learned how to kill the boys by strangling. She replied that she had seen it on a television show that she had been watching—and she named the show.

Are you satisfied with the kind of television shows your children are absorbing into their minds? Will they make them become more loving, mature, well-balanced individuals?

Or will they have the opposite effect?

Television, Movies Guilty?

To what extent should television be held accountable for the current wave of lawlessness that is sweeping our country? How much blame do motion pictures share for the sharp decline in the nation's morals?

It might be interesting to note what kind of thoughts the Bible says should fill our minds and to compare this with the fare that we receive on television.

Here is what the Bible says: "Whatsoever things are true . . . honest . . . just . . . pure . . . lovely . . . of good report . . . think on these things."

How do the television shows that you and your children watch score, when rated by this standard?

Parents, especially, have a God-given responsibility to see to it that what goes into their children's minds is fit for them to have as mental nourishment.

When we do the opposite of what God tells us to do, what result should we expect?

Miss Beverly J. Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Turner of Avon Park, is a recent graduate of the Northeast Airlines Stewardess Training Center, Logan International Airport, Boston.

Miss Turner is presently based in Miami and will fly Northeast's East Coast routes stretching from Montreal to Miami and the Bahamas.

Your Social Security

Question—I am 62 years old and receive social security benefits as a widow. If I remarry, will my social security checks stop?

Answer—No, social security benefits will continue to be paid to you on your late husband's earning account. Anyone receiving widow's benefits or widower's benefits who remarried at age 60 or later continues to receive the benefit but the amount of the check will be reduced to one-half of the deceased spouses benefit amount.

Question—I receive social security benefits because my husband is deceased and I have minor children in the home. If I take a job that pays $90 a week, will my children's social security checks be affected?

Answer—No, the only change made by your work and earnings will be in your social security benefit. Your work will not cause any change in your children's checks.

Question—I will be 72 years old next month. I am enrolled in Medicare and I continue to work. Is it possible that I might soon receive social security benefits even though I continue to work?

Answer—Yes, regardless of the amount of your earnings, social security benefits can be paid to you for any month you are age 72 or over.

Question—I am receiving social security benefits but I am working part-time. My employer deducts FICA taxes from my check. Is this proper?

Answer—Yes, F. I. C. A. tax is to be paid on your wages even though you do receive social security benefits. The F.I.C.A. tax is deducted because you have earnings, and is in no way determined by your age or by whether or not you receive social security benefits.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Labor Problems Facing Nixon

By Babson's Reports, Inc., Wellesley Hills, Mass., Jan. 23— Many labor bigwigs were deadset against Nixon before the elections; some still look upon him with undisguised suspicion. Now that the White House is his, most union leaders have adopted a watchful-waiting attitude and are ready to give the new Chief Executive the benefit of the doubt until he proves himself.

Campaign Promises

Actually, union officials don't expect Nixon to seek anti-labor legislation, if only because of their confidence in the strength they hold over Congress. They do, however, want to see whether or not he will stick to his pre-election claims.

While campaigning, Nixon made statements in support of free collective bargaining. They were neither pro-business nor anti-labor promises, but many unionists responded warily. The then-candidate said that he did not approve of the government's sitting in at every bargaining table. That if he were elected there would be a hands-off approach toward union negotiations. The federal government would step in only if the health or safety of the nation were endangered or if existing legislation—such as the Railway Labor Act—required.

Government's Role Neutral

If the government were forced to take part in bargaining at any time, he guaranteed absolutely unbiased intervention with no favoritism for either management or labor. Nixon appears sincere in his labor pronouncements, and those closest to him expect him to follow through.

One touchy issue: The need for early action on strikes of public employees. Few insiders doubt that legislative proposals will soon be drafted for resolving disputes affecting state and city workers.

Laborites are anxious to see what, if anything, the new President will do to checkrein wage-price inflation. Both Nixon and his Labor Secretary appointee George Shultz have expressed skepticism about the effectiveness of guideposts. Neither labor nor employers are likely to pay much attention to the retiring Johnson Administration's swan call asking unions to hold the pay-raise ceiling for 1969 below 5% and management to keep profits in line with the 1967-68 average.

Breather for New Administration

There are some factors working in Nixon's favor which could give him time to settle into his berth in Washington for a while before having serious labor problems forced upon him. For example, multi-year contracts are now in effect for such key lines as steel, autos, trucking, bituminous coal, telephones, rubber, and aerospace.

During the year just ended, close to 5 million employees covered by big agreements were engaged in negotiations, many in pattern-setting fields. But in 1969 only 2.7 million big-contract workers will be facing expiration or wage reopening. Most 1968 agreements will run until 1971, almost all at least until 1970.

Walking a Tightrope

There will, however, be some situations that could come to a head this year and reveal the stance of the new Administration. Perhaps most threatening are the deadlines for railway engineers, shop workers, and road employees.

Also, beginning at midyear, seagoing workers in the maritime industry will have a number of expiring contracts to argue out. Construction could well breed more trouble as contractor employers try to hold down labor costs that have soared so spectacularly that building has been curbed and pay differentials with other union groups have been knocked entirely out of whack.

AFL-CIO President George Meany has summoned citizens of all political persuasions to support responsible efforts of the new Administration to meet the problems of our time. Should President Nixon be placed in a position where he would feel he had to side against the unions on a fundamental labor issue, a flare-up against him on the part of the Federation and other union groups would be instantaneous. It will be an interesting tightrope that Nixon walks during 1969, with the eyes of all union and pro-union leaders upon him.

DEL MURPHY of Avon Park sold his Reserve Grand Champion steer to the First National Bank of Sebring. The 900 pound animal brought 65 cents a pound for a total of $595. With Del and the steer is Al Roepstorff, vice president and cashier of the bank.

Saturday night in Orlando, a determined group of Panthers upset the Orlando Junior College 82 to 77 to make their conference record 2 wins against 4 losses.

With Coach Terrell home fighting the flu, Coaches Will Beamel, Powell Waite and Dan Walsh directed the Panthers in their win.

Larry Allen, who has been doing an all-around job all year, found the scoring range and totaled 23 points to lead the scorers. Park members attending the Tuesday night Masonic dinner and installation were Harry and Ann Barth, Herb and Emily Renaud, George and Marie Monxs, Everett and Bess Paxton, Neville Clark, Ben Henningham and Bob Duthie. Marie Monxs, who is a member of Eastern Star, helped serve the delicious meal.

The public was invited to attend the installation of new officers of the Chapter for the ensuing year. Among other officers Bob Duthie was re-elected and installed to the office of Treasurer, which office he has held for several years. Bob Elethorpe came in time to see his son, Truman, installed as Scribe.

Following the Chapter, installation of officers for the Commandary were also installed. Ben Henningham, retiring as E. C. was installed to the office of Senior Warden. Bob Duthie was re-elected and installed as Treasurer.

Ben Henningham was cited for the many hours of hard and profitable work done in both organizations. For this service he was presented with a Past Commanders jewel which was a gift to the lodge by the sister of a former P. C., now deceased, Alfred E. Peterson, who requested that the jewel be presented to some deserving member. Congratulations from your friends in Southland, Ben.

Coffee hour was attended by thirty two people Tuesday morning. The Lores, friends of Mary Strickland, were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Frye, newcomers in Park were there. Activity sheets for the New Year were passd out.

Forty eight people came to the monthly pot-luck dinner Wednesday noon.

The Baldwins were in charge; assisting Art were Harry Barth, Herb Renaud, and Everett Keister. The committee did a good job in serving the meal and keeping the coffee cups filled. The men were supposed to have prepared the food but from the appearance and taste we believe the ladies had something to do with it, or else we have some good men cooks. Hats off to the men for a nice meal and an enjoyable time. Several of our new residents were there. We all appreciate the fine job the committee did washing and waxing the floor at the hall.

Sixteen people came out to shuffle Friday afternoon. Both courts were filled three times, then the play off on the west court won by Rev. Hutchens and Fred Frye over Hilda McClary and Stewart Dilts by a score of 78 to 45.

January 18, bingo, a nice crowd was present to enjoy the evening. The two grand prizes were won by Mary Strickland and Emily Renaud. The McClarys furnished the two grand prizes and served doughnuts and cider for refreshments.

At Friday night miscellaneous cards 19 people enjoyed the evening; one table of Black-out, one of 500, one of uchre, and one of pinochle.

Golda Daun and Betty Peterson drove to St. Petersburg Monday where they will visit friends for a few days.

Circle 4 of the W. S. C. S. of the M. E. Church met in Wesley Hall of the Church for luncheon at noon. Rev. Hardee returned thanks. Mrs. Charles Wesley acted as chairwoman in the absence of Mrs. Frank Thayer who was ill. After the luncheon Mrs. Wesley called up Mrs. Chester Lewis to lead in prayer. Then the different committees gave their reports. Mrs. Ezra Hutchens was the speaker for the afternoon followed by the benediction.

Mrs. Hettie Cook, Myrtle Heffernan, Harriet Meinzel and Mr. Arma from Southland Trailer Court attended the Charles Fensterman funeral Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Fensterman who several years ago lived here in Southland Court, was a near neighbor to Mrs. Heffernan.

Thank you for helping us achieve our goal . . . service to the community and to the future!

By the end of 1968 total assets have grown to nearly 14½ million dollars, showing steady increases since the institution was organized in 1956.

Six Couples Honored By Winter Guest

Sunday was the occasion, with a full house of 270 in attendance, to celebrate the 50th wedding anniversary of those members who were married 50 years in 1968. Six couples were so honored.

A musical program, with Albert Cushing as M.C. and Jerrold Perkins at the piano, was most entertaining. Charles Danforth sang a tenor solo "Sunshine and Smiles," an oldtimer that everyone remembers. Rogers played a beautiful number on his saxophone, Bonnie Brown gave a lovely piano solo, "Ben Hur." Mr. Cushing played his violin in his usual fine way. Mildred Long, the lovely sang "Because of You." She was accompanied by Harold Wolcott. Mr. Cushing and Mr. Rogers played a final duet "Angel Voices" on their violin and saxophone. Jerrold Perkins pianist, accompanied several numbers.

These couples were married in 1918, the year of the end of World War I. This was represented by Harry Wilde and Sylvan Baker in army uniforms. Now, these folks are all retired and spend much of their time playing, represented by Paul Hoppe and Scott DeGoiyer with their shuffleboard cues. The background music was the singing of "We Won't Me Home Till It's Over."

To the music of "Here Comes the Bride," Walter and Gertrude Baxter, Ivan and Deborah Chambers, Charles and Irene Pearce, Joseph and Ida Scott, Leo and Bertha Wagner and Paul and Ethel swearingen, came up the aisle and took their places on the stage.

Rev. A. G. Hardee talked about the memories these folks must have, many happy, some sad, in their fifty years together. He closed with a prayer that they may have many more happy years together.

Couples who have been married more than the 50 years were asked to stand up. Quite a few stood up. Mr. and Mrs. John Dickson, having been married 61 years, the longest, were given a yellow corsage.

The couples then lined up in a receiving line to greet everybody. They all signed their guest register.

Cake and punch was served from a beautifully decorated table, with a gold cloth and candles. Serving was done by Minnie Brown and her capable helpers.

Ushers were Glenn Long, Harmon Heffner and Floyd Heinrich.

LEO AND BERTHA WAGNER, met at a Sunday School picnic and it has been a picnic for 50 years. They are one of the couples who were honored on their golden year at the Winter Guest Club. They have been coming to Avon Park for the past 18 years and are the parents of three children, nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

PAUL AND ETHEL SWEARINGEN had a hometown romance in the high school at Champaign, Ill. Now residing in Detroit, Mich., they have spent their winters in Avon Park for the past eight years. This is their golden year which was celebrated Sunday with their friends at the Winter Guest Club of which they are active members. They are the parents of two children and five grandchildren.

CHARLES AND IRENE PEARCE had a hometown romance in Dollar Bay, Mich., were married and celebrated their 50th anniversary this year. They are the parents of two children, six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

JOSEPH AND IDA SOTT, from Moran, Mich., met at a sleigh ride party that lasted 50 years. They are one of the couples who was feted at the Winter Guest Club Golden Party. They are the parents of three children.

OLD FASHION cane grinding can still be seen at D. M. Earnests in Avon Park. Of course something has to be made modern these days so D. M. has the cane mill pulled with his tractor instead of a mule. Earnest grows the cane mostly as a hobby and only sells to his close friends. His two helpers this year were Burkett and Arlin King. The cooker shown holds 40 gallons of cane juice and makes approximately 8 gallons of syrup.

Some of the winners are residents of Avon Park and Lake Placid, but most of them live in and around Sebring.

The Fair Art Committee was headed by Mrs. Charles Hoke, assisted by Mrs. Marvin Kahn and Mrs. Schneck. The committee for hanging and arranging of the art items consisted of Col. Stephan, Frank Beck, Dee Hoepstorff and Marj Richardson. Volunteers from the Art League served as receptionists at the art booth, working in three hour shifts.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

Bert Harris, Jr., County Agent of Highlands County, was the guest speaker on Wednesday. Harris is not only a very capable County Agent, but also serves as manager of the highly successful Highlands County Fair.

Bert spoke to us about the Effective Use of Pesticides. Statistics have shown that insects and weeds destroy several billion dollars worth of food per year. Much of this destruction could be prevented by the effective use of pesticides. The wise and proper use of pesticides in the U.S. has helped us to produce the largest and best quantities of pest free food of any country in the world.

Crop production is greatly increased when pesticides are used properly, many times an increase of 25 to 200 per cent. The area where the lack of pesticides hurts the most is in the farmers pocketbook. A few examples related by Harris show that without using pesticides corn would cost 52c per can, milk 47c per quart and apples $2.00 per dozen. When pesticides are used properly the cost of corn is 26c, milk 35c and apples 69c.

There are some organizations and individuals who have been very critical of the use of pesticides. These criticisms have hurt agriculture because of certain instances being blown out of proportion.

There is no doubt that pesticides are dangerous, but so are most medicines. Statistics in the State of Florida show that more people die each year from aspirin than from pesticides. The public needs to be educated on the proper use of all types of pesticides. Regardless of the type pesticide we use or in what quantity it should be used exactly as the instructions state. Several million dollars is spent in research before this pesticide is sold; therefore, we should use it in the proper manner suggested by the manufacturer.

Christian Science Lecturer Howard H. Irwin will speak on "You Are Needed" at the Science Church, Sunday February 2.

Science Church Lecturer Here Sunday, Feb. 2

A reassuring discussion of man's close and constant relationship to God will be heard in Avon Park, Sunday, February 2, when Howard H. Irwin, C.S. of San Diego, California, lectures to a public audience.

Mr. Irwin will speak in the edifice of Christian Science Society, Avon Park Lakes, at 3:00 P.M. under the auspices Christian Science Society, Avon Park. Admission is free.

Lecturing in three languages — French, Spanish, English — comes naturally to Mr. Irwin who served with the United States Military Intelligence in Continental Europe during World War II. After the war, he entered the full time public speaking practice of Christian Science healing. He is currently on tour throughout the United States for the Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Legion Bingo Thursday Night

Preceding the regular Thursday night Bingo Party given by the American Legion in their home on W. Bell St., there will be a carry in dinner at 6:30 P.M. Each one should bring a dish to pass and their own table service. Bingo will follow at 7:30 P.M.

A good crowd is anticipated as every one is assured of good home cooked food, plus an evening of fun playing Bingo.

CARD OF THANKS

My sincere thanks and appreciation is extended to all my many friends for the flowers, cards, prayers and gifts I received during my month long stay in Walker Memorial Hospital.

You're Wrong! It's a sedan.

That's because our Simca 1204 Runabout has a door in back, that makes it part wagon, part sedan, and all versatile.

It also has versatile front wheel drive, for that big-car feel on expressways. And it will take you places ordinary cars can't go. Through mud, sand, sleet and snow.

Other standard equipment includes reclining bucket seats, 4-speed transmission, full carpeting, disc brakes and radial-ply tires.

Probation and Parole Figures Released For Highlands County

The success of the Florida parole and probation system was pointed up here this week with the release of yearly figures of accomplishments in District 32, which is Highlands County.

The average caseload for the district supervisor for the year was 73 and parolees earned a total of $73,992 and probationers a total of $88,644. Had they been incarcerated, they would have cost the taxpayers money, Clifford M. Ables, II, district supervisor who has just replaced Robert Bolkcom, pointed out.

In addition, these people paid out $1,887 in restitution. Ables pointed out that most of the earnings were spent for general living expenses in local retail establishments.

The local office completed 41 pre-sentence investigations during the past fiscal year. There were five post-sentence investigations, 11 pre-parole and seven specials for a total of 64 investigations. In addition, there were 35 investigations made at the request of other districts for a total investigation load of 99.

State-wide, a report showed that 33 per cent of the convicted felons released on parole or placed on probation in 1968, were under 21 years of age, 25 the threshold of their wage-earning life.

To meet the growing need for rehabilitation of the young lawbreaker, the Florida Probation and Parolee Commission by legislative authority has established a Division of Community Services in which it is enlisting citizens in the common cause of crime suppression.

"This may be one of the most significant steps Florida has taken in recent years to merge the professional efforts of the state with the informed actions of the communities to restore lawbreakers to productive work and to slow down or halt the spiraling tendency of the younger element in particular toward law violations," said Roy W. Russell, Chairman of the Commission.

He reported that the courts of Florida in 1968 placed 6,564 convicted persons on probation. The courts call on the Probation and Parole Commission for presentence investigations of those convicted, which aids the courts in determining the sentences and the question of probation or confinement. The Commission since its creation has seen 40,721 persons placed on probation and has assumed the responsibility of supervising these, as well as the others released from prison on parole. Of the probationers, 88 per cent successfully completed their probation and were rehabilitated.

Shuffling

Several teams of shufflers went to Auburndale this past week to an "A" and "B" tournament of the District. Harmon and Gladys Heffner came home with trophies winning first place. We are proud of them.

No tournament on Wednesday in deference to Charles Fensterman, who has been one of the Club's best shuffleboard players. He will be greatly missed.

Points were given at the Saturday's tournament with 16 courts in play. Welcome Miller and Larry Robinson won in the Main over Hazel Thompson and Dave Dickerson. Consolation winners were Alva Thompson and Charles Romilly over George Coombs and Caroline Webber. These were "A" players.

The "B"s had 10 courts in play. Mary Smith and Sarah Kerr won first with Francis McRae and Sylvan Baker the runners-up. Clyde Getchell and John Knickebourn won in consolation with Catherine Baker and William Near the runners-up.

Card Games

In Pinochle on Monday the winners of the high scores were H. Reddick with 705 and Fred Hughes with 703. Almost tied. Six tables were in play.

On Tuesday the door prize went to Grace Beauvais. Stella Moon had the high score of 5140, while Maurice Brevoort had the second high of 3990.

The new project on Thursday in Crafts was Tile, which seems to be most popular. Also the making of hats was taught, both one with a scarf and one of yarn. These will be given for several weeks. New projects will be introduced every two weeks or so.

If anybody wants supplies for the projects in the past, they can be obtained from Hallie Wetmore at her home at 60 No. Highlands on Monday or Thursday afternoons.

BAHÁ 'U 'LLÁH

Know ye not why We created you all from the same dust? That no one should exalt himself over the other. Ponder at all times in your hearts how ye were created. Since We have created you all from one same substance it is incumbent on you to be even as one soul, to walk with the same feet, eat with the same mouth and dwell in the same land, that from your inmost being, by your deeds and actions, the signs of oneness and the essence of detachment may be made manifest. Such is My counsel to you, O concourse of light! Heed ye this counsel that ye may obtain the fruit of holiness from the tree of wondrous glory.

Band Will March At Gasparilla

Avon Park High School band is to appear in Tampa in the Gasparilla Day parade on February 10. This prevents the regular meeting of the Band Boosters Association on that date. The next meeting will be held Monday, Feb. 3 at Avon Park High School auditorium, at 7:30 P.M.

Billy Martin, president, runs a fast moving agenda and asks that members come on time.

Mrs. Josie McDaniels will be on hand to issue membership cards to all who have not yet taken the opportunity to join this hard working organization. A membership of 102 is quite a record.

For $1 per single parent and $2 per family membership the band student gains a feeling of security that his parents are really interested in his progress. Mrs. McDaniels is hoping for 100 per cent cooperation this year.

Donald E. Heath and Jim K. Tillman, both representing Highlands County, toured the Avon Park Correctional Institution and the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center in Avon Park.

In addition to touring the above facilities, Heath and Tillman toured the recently constructed Juvenile Detention Home in Sebring. Vandalism Increase In City Prompts Council To Hire 2 New Policemen

With increasing vandalism in the city, Police Chief Earl Gordon appeared before the Avon Park City Council Monday to request the council to employ two new patrolmen.

Chief Gordon said Sunday night alone there had been at least two breaking and enterings, one attempt and the tires slashed and both headlights smashed in on a car.

The two patrolmen that come on duty at midnght ride together for their safety and Sunday night ran up on two men taking groceries from Starling's Market. One of the men escaped but the other one was arrested.

Another store broken into was Lane's Record and TV and missing was a color television and a black and white portable TV, no arrests have been made in connection with that.

Two new patrolmen riding would help to curb some of the violence that is taking place. With only one car out after midnight vandals can locate the car and go to another section of town to break-in a store or steal a car, said Gordon.

The South Florida Junior College is offering a 50 hour course in basic law enforcing beginning February 3 at the city hall. Cost would be $20 per man but the college has offered to let the rent on the use of the city hall be the cost for the policemen attending.

Gordon said all his men were going to attend including the two new patrolmen to be hired.

Highlands County Fee Officials' Tax Return Jumps 72 Per Cent

Highlands County fee officials' returns to the county funds jumped more than 72 per cent in 1968. An excess fee increase of $20,994 from Tax Assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin's office accounted for the largest chunk of the $27,381 increase shown in the annual financial reports formally accepted by Highlands County commissioners at their January 23 meeting.

Total returns from five fee officers were $47,264 in 1968 compared to $19,883 in 1967. At the beginning of the 1968-69 fiscal year the county commissioners estimated an income of $28,500 from excess fees. Income from the supervisor of elections and the large increase in the tax assessor's return had not been anticipated, but other estimates proved to be close to the actual income.

Tax assessors across the state experienced fee difficulties because of the property revaluation program, but legislation was adopted in 1967 adjusting the assessor fees.

Total income in Assessor Martin's office was $85,080. Office expense was $53,343 with $46,438 going into salaries. The excess fees of this office are divided with 75 per cent going to the county commission and 25 per cent to the school board.

Only two of the county offices showed a drop in excess fees. The county judge's fees were down less than $100 and the tax collector's fees dropped $4,045.

Clerk of Circuit Court Earl Rich's report showed a healthy increase—from $3,965 to $6,060. Rich's office handled total receipts of $65,678 and reported expenses of $49,117. Salaries accounted for $45,915 of the expense.

The income from the Supervisor of Elections rose from $1 in 1967 to $340 in 1968. That office reports the income from the motor vehicle inspection stations—$14,281 for the last half of 1968. Current expense for the stations, exclusive of buildings and equipment, was $15,359.

Total income reported by Supervisor Roland X. Droit's office was $26,200. Droit is also the county vehicle tag agent, but virtually all the income of that agency goes directly to the state.

The small claims court, presided over by Judge David Lonier, had an income of $2,116 and expense of the office was $7,500.

Total income for County Judge Mervin Rehrer's office (which includes civil and criminal cases, probate and juvenile court work) was $40,899. Expenses for the office were $29,993.

Judge Rehrer is the only official whose annual reports include a staff salary break-down person by person. In 1968 the county judge employed 10 different persons. The four who worked for the whole 12 months were paid salaries which ranged from $6,965 down to $3,420.

Tax Collector W. H. Prescott reported total receipts of $58,679. Office expense was $32,424 with $23,947 going for staff salaries.

Elected officials receive annual salaries of $10,500. In addition to this salary as county judge, Rehrer receives $2,520 for his work as juvenile judge.

The officials' salaries are deducted from the office's net income after all other expenses are paid and are not included in the office's staff salary report.

Sales Tax collections in Highlands county in December 1968 were up a wtropping 69.49 per cent above December a year ago and totaled $113,499.80. Sales tax collections for December, 1967, were $66,940.25.

GAS TAX COLLECTIONS

Gas tax collections in Highlands county during November were up this year compared to a year ago, but down from the $96,011.37 collected for October, of this year. November collections were $74,830.49 as compared to $61,238.17 a year ago.

Commission Refuses To Negotiate With Youth Care

Highlands County commissioners have refused to re-open negotiations with Youth Care on a proposed lease for the almost-completed Youth Care home. They'll stick with the present lease.

Mrs. Virginia Rebman, newly elected president of Youth Care, Inc., appeared before the commissioners at their January 23 meeting and requested the board to draw up a new lease with wording in a reverter clause which would coincide with the organization's charter.

Mrs. Rebman expressed fear that some future county commission would use a lease termination provision to "take property we have no right to give away."

County Attorney Hue E. Nunnallee, visibly annoyed, responded that the present lease is "worded just like Youth Care requested and it has been sent to the attorney general; I am at a loss to comment."

For several months the county commissioners and Youth Care have been seeking a way the county could legally spend funds to operate a county juvenile home in the privately constructed Youth Care home.

Nunnallee said last week he "had received many conflicting directives with at least 20 people directing me," in writing a lease which would be acceptable to Youth Care and the Florida Attorney General. He said any desired changes must be presented to him in writing and if the commissioners wish he will forward these suggested lease changes to Tallahassee.

"The Attorney General has said that the project is wonderful, but in all previous communications he has told us that the county cannot spend public funds for this. We are hopeful that the lease will be acceptable," Nunnallee said.

Mrs. Rebman said work on the home is progressing very rapidly and the completed home coud be ready for occupancy in "two or three months."

No Help for Pageant

Lyman Merriam of Sebring Junior Chamber of Commerce hit the public fund restrictions when he requested financial aid for the Miss Highlands County pageant scheduled for February 22.

Commission Chairman Jean M. Whitaker suggested that Merriam and his Miss Highlands County pageant committee present their request to each of the county's Chamber of Commerce who, by special legislation, receive advertising funds from the county.

At the January 23 commission meeting the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission renewed its request for the county to find a new location for the former number 6 boat ramp on Lake Placid.

The county had to abandon the ramp after adjoining property owners protested the ramp violated a restrictive clause in their deeds. The ramp site had been a gift from the land developer and the county returned the land to him.

The county promised to report to the state agency within two weeks on possible new locations for the boat ramp. If a suitable site cannot be found the county will have to reimburse the state, $2,000 for the abandoned ramp.

Other Business

In other business the county commissioners accepted the resignation of Joanna Williams, secretary for the planning and zoning board. On recommendation of County Administrator Charles Morgan this office will not be filled at this time. "We need a draftsman more than a secretary at this time," Morgan explained.

Sebring Villas and Orange Blossom Estates were promised some road patch jobs but major work "will have to wait for funds."

At the request of Polk County commissioners, Highlands approved an increase in salary for Mrs. Rosalind Smith, circuit court secretary, to $508 per month. Highland's share of the increase is $72 per year.

Chairman Whitaker asked the State Road Department to cover all or part of the $20,000 to $35,000 reduction in road funds coming to the county under the new constitution. Whitaker said special grants are being considered to cover the rest of this fiscal year only.

Red Devils Defeat Wildcats; To Host Blue Streaks February 10

Coach Fred Sandlin's Red Devil basketball team moved up to a 7-6 record last week with a 64-54 victory over the Hardee High Wildcats of Wauchula here at the high school gym. The Red Devils now have wins over Haines City (2), Okeechobee (2), Moore Haven, Lake Placid, and Wauchula and have lost to Arcadia, Santa Fe of Lakeland, Frostproof, Ft. Meade, Sebring, and LaBelle in an overtime session.

Last Tuesday night the two Avon Park teams were scheduled to travel to LaBelle for a re-match with the teams which the "B" squad defeated and the varsity lost to by a score of 73-71 in an over-time period. Friday night the Red Devils will be at home to the strong Frostproof Bulldog teams with "B" team action starting at 6:30 o'clock. Next Tuesday night, Feb. 7, Avon Park will host the Sebring Blue Streaks in the big game of the season. The Streaks topped the Devil varsity down there in a real nip and tuck battle that ended up 55-53 in Sebring's favor.

The Devil varsity jumped off to a big lead against Wauchula last week and held a 13-8 advantage at the end of the first quarter. The Avon Park boys held on to the lead and went to the dressing room at halftime ahead 31-22. In the third period the Hardee five closed the gap outshooting the Devils 21-14 to set the score 45-43 in favor of Avon Park at the end of the third quarter. But in the last period, Donald Strange, Devil forward, found the mark again and paced the Avon Park quintet to the 64-54 victory. The sharpshooting Red Devil hit 12 field goals for a total of 24 points to take high scoring honors for the game. Devil center, Clyde Dunnbry scored 15 points and Joe Hardy hit for 12 points to back up Strange. Donald Sisemore contributed 9 points, Roy Claitt hit 3 counters and Charles Magenheimer scored 1 for the winning team.

The Avon Park junior varsity team won its third straight game by thumping the Hardee jayvee squad 51-40. Philip Hall paced the junior Devils with 16 points closely followed by Herbert Stuhen with 12, and Thad Tate with 11. Clayton McNeal scored 8 and Joe Franza added 4 more to the total score.

State Officials Plan Regular County Visits

State Representatives Jim Tillman and Donald Heath, both of whom represent Highlands County, spent the day in Sebring, Lake Placid and Avon Park Thursday, seeing the county commissioners, citizens and county administrator-engineer Chuck Morgan.

Both declared they will welcome hearing from citizens on problems or questions related to state matters. Both said they are planning to visit Highlands County on a regular basis "so that we can effectively represent the citizens of this area in the Legislature."

The All Knowing Physician hath His finger on the pulse of mankind. He perceiveth the disease, and prescribeth, in His unerring wisdom, the remedy. Every age hath its own problem, and every soul its particular aspiration. The remedy the world needeth in its present-day afflictions can never be the same as that which a subsequent age may require. Be anxiously concerned with the needs of the age ye live in, and centre your deliberations on its exigencies and requirements. The evidences of discord and malice are apparent everywhere, though all made for harmony and union. The Great Being saith: O well-beloved ones! The tabernacle of unity hath been raised; regard ye not one another as strangers. Ye are the fruits of one tree, and the leaves of one branch.

Doris Goddard To Serve As First Reader

A a recent meeting of the members, Christian Science Society elected Mrs. Doris Goddard to serve as First Reader for a 1-year term. In this position Mrs. Doris Goddard will conduct the Sunday and Wednesday evening services at the church. She replaces Mrs. Hazel Morrill.

Assisting her on Sundays as Second Reader will be Mrs. Ruth Straifer, elected at the same meeting. The retiring Second Reader is Mrs. Edna Driam. The new Readers begin their term on Sunday, Feb. 2, 1969.

The Christian Science church consists entirely of laymen, and local members are democratically elected to fill all administrative posts and to conduct services.

The two elected Readers carry the main responsibility for the Sunday and Wednesday evening services at the church. Their primary duty is to read the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on Sunday. This is a weekly compilation of related references from the Bible and the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

During the week, the same references serve as a Bible Lesson on a specific topic such as God, Man, Reality, Sacrament, or Matter. It is studied by Christian Scientists throughout the world. Read at the Sunday service, it becomes the sermon. Hymns, prayer, responsive reading by the congregation, and a solo constitute the rest of the service.

The Wednesday evening meeting, conducted by the First Reader, includes a period when individual members of the congregation speak informally of experiences of Christian healing as understood in Christian Science.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported by BOB GAY

On January 22, 1969, Charles Whitehead gave us a blow-by-blow description of the hunting-fishing trip he shared with Morris Adams and Sam.

If anyone has cause to question the truthfulness of Charlie or Morris, he can check with Sam, as I did.

Seems like Morris had an oil jobber's convention to attend in Denver, Colorado, the mile high city. Rotary International had a convention there in 1966. In any case, Morris left here looking like the proverbial Gypsy — Jeep (4-wheel-drive, air conditioned, etc.), pulling his camper-trailer and carrying his aluminum canoe on top for they were going to hunt birds in their spare time.

Morris and Sam met Charlie in Denver where Morris had already used the joint, so to speak — then off for the great open spaces of northwest Colorado they sped. No use dwelling on gasoline consumption; if you need any information on this, ask Sam. The last town of any size they went through before the hunt area is Craig, Colorado, nestled in the Green River Valley. On westward our heroes sped towards the extreme northwest corner where Colorado is joined by Utah and Wyoming.

Somewhere close to the Flaming Gorge Recreation area, the Canadian honkers and the Green heads have a flyway. It is said that the honking bounces from hillside to hillside as the geese fly down the valleys.

Sure enough both men were successful in getting their quota of birds and Charlie (Isaac Walton, Jr.) landed several rainbow trout on 5" spoons, no less! Charlie says the Chucker is the most elusive of birds; and Sam says they can't get me swimming in that cold river for anybody's money — even if the Boss does!

Illustrating his talik with colored slides we were smothered by the profusion of game — we who profess to be hunters and fishermen were shown deer, geese, ducks, pheasants in profusion. Seems like Sam was much in demand as a sleeping companion during the cold nights.

As all good things must come to an end, our heroes had to start home via Nebraska, where they encountered pheasant and snow. Did you ever see a bird dog with a dead bird in his mouth, holding a wounded bird with his paw in snow up to two feet deep? Quite a sight, as Charlie describes it.

The boys were able to bring some of their game home, thanks to the cold weather and efficient ice chests. All of us resent our inability to go, as Morris and Charlie did, but we do appreciate the ability of both of these partners to tell us of their trip.

If they tell you in person of anything that doesn't quite ring true — you can check with Sam —I did!

C of C Thanks Helpers At Highlands Fair

Mrs. Alma Hooper, Executive Secretary of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the Chamber's 1969 Fair Booth Committee, this week expressed her appreciation to the members of her committee. For the second year, Avon Park's exhibit won the first prize in the Community Booth division at the Highlands County Fair.

This year's exhibit featured Avon Park's newest industry, Critchfield Marine. Adding to the attractiveness of the display were plantings of ornamental shrubs and cactus supplied by Cole's Nursery. Some 70 varieties of fruit were used in the exhibit, with most varieties furnished by Ward's Nursery.

Mrs. Hooper said, "Without the cooperation of the members of the committee and other interested individuals in the community, we could not have won." Helping with the exhibit were Franklyn Ward, Ward's nursery; Claude Cole, Cole's Nursery; Jimmy and Anne Johnson, Kern's Furniture; James McNabb; Larry Hooper; Dick Enoch; Western Auto Assoc. Store; and Crawford Thompson and Larry Morris of Critchfield Marine.

Parolees Need Supervision After Release

TALLAHASSEE — Nearly two-thirds of the state convicts released from prison without professional supervision and control for the reentry period will return to crime, says the Annual Report of the Florida Probation and Parole Commission.

By contrast, figures compiled for the 28 years of the Commission's experience show that 88 per cent of those released on probation and 79 per cent of those freed on parole under supervision of the trained personnel of the Probation and Parole Commission do not again return to criminal beavior and prison, the report continues.

Southland Trailer Park News

Eight people came out Friday to play shuffle. The playoff was won by Harold Arms and Blanche Kiracofe over Rev. Ezra Hutchens and Elmer Kiracofe by a score of 81 to 39.

At Wednesday nights pinochle party, 12 were present. No scores were kept, but everybody played and had a good time.

Recent callers on the Elethorps were Loren and Bernadine Ames and Mrs. Potter. Friends in the Park will be glad to know that Mrs. Potter is getting around now with aid of a walker, after being shut-in for a number of weeks.

Supper guests Wednesday evening of the Elethorps were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Elethorp, Mrs. Harvey Coughtry and son, Wayne and Miss Caroline Sherwood.

Mrs. Byford Burch and daughter, Mary Beth, from Bloomington, Ind. have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Wm. Baxter for several days. Mr. Baxter remains about the same.

Rev. Ezra Hutchens very quietly celebrated his birthday at home on Monday.

The Mel Johnsons have moved their trailer to Tavares, where Mrs. Johnson's sister lives. Mr. Johnson is in the hospital at Eustis, and is suffering with his eyes.

Thirty-one were out for coffee Tuesday morning. No business was transacted but friends drank coffee and ate doughnuts and had a good time.

Ben Henningham says he hasn't caught a fish for seven weeks. The reason, he hasn't been fishing. However, he is much better off nursing his cold. With these warmer days I am sure we will see him loading fishing tackle anytime.

Quite a bit of excitement on dead end street Tuesday morning as the new Skyline mobile home of Dorcas and Laura was being placed on their location. They will be busy for a few days getting their 12 ft. Mobile home arranged, we know they will be very happy.

Martha Ayers is in Walker Memorial after having an accident east of Wauchula Sunday evening. The car turned on its side and she is suffering from a neck injury. She will return home after checkup and x-rays.

We think warmer weather will be coming our way very soon. The mocking bird that sat high on a light pole in front of our trailer had a major note in his song, that light, airy, encouraging note. Could be it is the same bird I heard at Barths visiting around, calling on all of us. Or, could be he has sent word, somehow, to his cousin Bill, wherever he is, it is now time to abandon the woolens and come to Southland. Let's get the feeders and water pans in order and scatter the cats. Make way for that natural, free-giving song they give to us.

While birthday comings may not be as welcome as song of birds, they have a way of greeting us every year. We have a very lovely person in the Park who celebrated her birthday last Wednesday, one whom we know and love. Guess who.

Ten people came to the hall Friday night for miscellaneous cards but everybody played pinochle and had a good time.

Evelyn Fritz entertained at Sunday dinner her nephew, wife and their daughter, of Clearwater and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Comfort of Bonnie Brae.

Mrs. Hetta Cook and Mrs. Harriett Meissel attended church and dinner at Lake Placid on Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stanling Shilling, the occasion being Mrs. Meissel's birthday.

Ann Antony and Goldia Daun drove to Tampa on Sunday. They went to Curtis Hixon Hall to see the Lippizan horse show and out to dinner. It was very nice to see the beautiful horses perform.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl McWithey entertained with a birthday dinner Wednesday evening. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Meissel, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wyant of Castile, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter of Sloanville, N. Y. were also evening guests.

Marie Srtoobant spent last weekend in Orlando visiting friends.

Vandels Destroy Girl School Sign

Highlands School for Girls has been the target for much destruction of school property and county road signs. To direct parents and friends of the students to the location of the school which is located some distance from the highway, it is necessary to post a sign on the road, Alt. 27, showing the location of the school. This sign will disappear, sometimes within 24 hours after it is erected.

All the school asks is for common courtesy from the students or pranksters, that they may conduct their school on a dignified basis. Students should feel a pride and honor to have such a beautiful private school within the area of our city. It has been in operation for over three years and have met with all minor problems resulting from lack of maturity on the part of the youth of this community.

Now, they are appealing to the parents, who should know if their son or daughter have any of these signs in their rooms and report it to the school or return them. Parents should be aware of their childrens pranks and not soft pedal them. They should be reported to the school.

President Kennedy was the fifth President to serve during the lifetime of his father. The others were John Quincy Adams, Fillmore, Grant, Harding, and Coolidge.

Court Orders Children Returned

Three of the four surviving children of Mr. and Mrs. Harley J. Murphy of Avon Park were ordered returned to the custody of the parents Monday, but a 9-year-old boy will remain in Highlands County Juvenile Home until a psychiatric evaluation has been completed.

The Murphy children have been housed in the juvenile home since mid-January when a fifth child, Mary, age 11, was shot to death.

Juvenile Judge Mervin Rehrer required the parents to move from a house at the edge of Lake Letta subdivision off Alternate 27 and provide better family living conditions.

After a hearing on Monday, Judge Rehrer told Mr. and Mrs. Murphy they could take sons, Chris, 6, Virgil, 5, and a daughter, Vickie, 13, to an apartment in Avon Park. The 9-year-old son will remain at the juvenile home until examinations have been completed, the Judge said.

Graduates From Radar School

Airman Vaughn H. Jenkins, son of Mrs. Juanita Jenkins, 924 Pineland, Avon Park, has been graduated at Keesler AFB, Mississippi, from the training course for U. S. Air Force Radar operators.

Airman Jenkins, a 1967 graduate of E. O. Douglas Vocational High School, Sebring, is being assigned to Fort Lee Air Force Station, Va., for duty with the Aerospace Defense Command.

Drive the Simca Runabouts. New way to go from the Chrysler People.

Our new 1969 Simcas. They're built for active people who need the practicality of an economical second car, but who also like to drive a small car with big-car feel. For '69, our Runabouts are loaded with unusual features. Like the extra door in back of the Simca GLS 1204s. It makes them part-time sedans and part-time wagons. According to your whims. And they have front wheel drive, for that big-car feel on expressways and to take you places ordinary cars can't go. Through mud, sand and snow.

You'll also find reclining bucket seats, 4-speed transmissions, full carpeting, disc brakes, radial-ply tires and map pockets on the doors. Our 1969 Simca Runabouts. They're all backed by the Chrysler People, and priced very very low. That's standard too.

Captain James W. Sisemore, son of Mrs. Willie E. Sisemore, Terry Place, Ranger, Tex., has been decorated with the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross and his second through seventeenth awards of the Air Medal.

The Silver Star was for his heroic defense of an an allied convoy, ambushed between Da Nang and Thuong Duc last February.

Flying a light 0-1 Bird Dog aircraft, Captain Sisemore provided liaison between the beleaguered ground troops and higher headquarters and, when the attackers attempted to set two vehicles afire, made a strafing run that scattered the enemy. Although his aircraft received several hits, the captain flew protective cover for the beleaguered troops until he was forced to return to base to refuel.

Once more over the site, he coordinated landing zones for heliborne troops, directed aeromedical evacuation of the wounded and made additional low level strafing runs that led to breaking the assault. Then, despite a dwindling fuel supply, he escorted the convoy to its destination.

In September 1967, Captain Sisemore directed the tactical airdrop of essential supplies to army troops pinned down by enemy fire and brought in airpower to repel the enemy. He was awarded the DFC for extraordinary achievement during the mission.

While a member of the 20th Tactical Air Support Squadron headquartered at Da Nang Air Base, Captain Sisemore earned the Air Medal 11 times for demonstrating superior skill while flying small observation planes as an aerial scout over both North and South Vietnam.

Captain Sisemore is a Millsap

State Fair Exhibits Space Craft

TAMPA—An "out-of-this-world" exhibit can be found at the Florida State Fair, February 4-15, with a full scale model of the Apollo Command Module to be on display.

The model is a reproduction of the craft which Apollo 8 Astronauts Frank Borman, James A. Lovell and William Anders flew 10 revolutions around the moon December 24.

A cone-shaped craft, the Apollo Command Module is 10 feet, 7 inches in height and 12 feet, 10 inches in diameter. It is the control center where astronauts live and work during their 240,000 mile journey to the moon and return to earth.

Fair goers will get to view this space craft free at the southwest corner of the Florida Building all 12 days of the fair.

Winter Chautauqua At Lake Byrd

Dr. Archie Hargraves, Associate Professor of Urban Mission, Chicago Theological Seminary, will be the resident lecturer at Winter Chautauqua at Lake Byrd Lodge this coming week. Dr. Hargraves was the co-founder with Dr. Donald Benedict of East Harlem Parish on the upper east side of New York City, a ministry that has had nation-wide attention.

Winter Chautauqua is patterned, in part, after the famous Chautauqua held each Summer in up-state New York. The purpose of Chautauqua, according to Davis H. Sandstrom, director of the local Chautauqua, is "to offer a vacation which combines rest and recreation with religious and cultural features."

Other morning lecturers during the successive weeks of February will be Dr. Amos Wilder (brother of Thornton Wilder, the novelist), Hollis Professor of Divinity Emeritus, Harvard Divinity School; Dr. Clarence Jordan, author and founder of Koinonia Farm in Georgia; and Dr. Hartland Helmich, executive secretary of the council for Lay Life and Work, United Church of Christ.

The Chautauqua is a program of the Florida Conference of the United Church in Christ.

Worship starts each day at 9:30 A.M., followed by a lecture, which is open to the public.

Sixty policemen, sheriffs deputies and prospective law enforcement officers enrolled this week in a basic law enforcement course taught by South Florida Junior College.

The college in cooperation with the sheriffs and police chiefs of DeSoto, Hardee and Highlands Counties has begun a two-hundred-hour basic course in law enforcement.

Dean Griffin, director and coordinator for the course has announced the school will satisfy requirements passed by the Florida Legislature for the policemen and will qualify a law enforcement officer to be employed in the state of Florida.

Sixty law enforcement officers have enrolled for the course and will attend classes four hours a day for the next 50 days. The course is compulsory for anyone seeking employment as a law enforcement officer and will be very helpful to those officers who are already employed.

The effort and dedication of the law enforcement officers to attend a concentrated school such as this is highly commendable. These men give many hours of their own time in order to become qualified in the field they have chosen for their careers.

$2 Million Secondary Road Program Outlined By County

Although admittedly "going in the blind," Highlands County commissioners have come up with a secondary road program which may cost over $2 million.

The program—which includes 74 miles of road surface work, five sets of railroad crossing signals, right-of-way and engineering costs over half-a-decade—will be financed from Highlands County's share of state secondary road funds.

Exactly how much money that will be no one knows. State Road Department officials readily admit their confusion at applying the new formulae called for in the new Florida constitution. To date two sets of estimated income figures for the 1969-70 fiscal year have been provided to Highlands County commissioners.

County Engineer Chuck Morgan, who drafted the Highlands County secondary plan, received late Monday new estimates setting this county's secondary budget for next year at $300,296 or $75,500 less than first estimated.

Using his own version of the new state formulae, projections on state growth and cost trends, Morgan has planned for annual increases in secondary budget—up to $497,900 in the 1973-74 year. The County Engineer emphasizes that such a budget may be far from fact. "It's almost pure guess," Morgan said Tuesday.

Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield complained Tuesday that county officials are "going in the blind" in planning which involves money from the state. "The state doesn't know what percentage of decrease we are going to get," Crutchfield lamented.

Commission Chairman Jean M. Whitaker added that strong movements are already afoot to revise the new constitution.

In a work session Tuesday the commissioners and Morgan reduced the 1969-70 road program to fit the smaller budget. The whole five-year program will be presented to the commissioners for formal approval on February 18 and to the State Road Board on March 5.

The annual secondary road hearing is set for Wednesday, Mar. 5, at Bartow, 9 A.M.

Priorities for New Year

The number one priority Highlands County will request for 1969-70 is the re-surfacing of State Road 17A from State Road 17 East and South to the northern limits of Sebring for a distance of 2.4 miles. Estimated cost is $35,000.

A $10,000 re-imbursement for county engineer's salary is the number 2 priority, and $30,000 for engineering costs is the number 3 item. Number 4 is $20,000 for acquiring right-of-way. These three items appear in each year's priority list, for the next five years at these same figures.

The 5, 6, 7 priorities next year are for railroad signals for Seaboard Coast Line Railroad crossings. In order, they are, signals on State 17 North of State 700, $10,000; signals on State 17A East of State 17, $10,000; signals of State 17A at Highlands Avenue, $18,500. All are in the central part of the county.

The 8 priority, and most expensive on the list for next year, is re-surfacing and widening of 2 miles of the Power Line Road from State 17 East and South to State 17A. Cost estimate is $70,000.

Number 9 is a set of railroad signals on Power Line Road, $10,000.

Grade, pave and structures on a 1.2 mile stretch from Sebring Airport northward to the present State 623 will cost an estimated $25,000.

The longest stretch on the list is 7 miles of re-surfacing of State 17 East and northeast to the Polk County line, $62,296.

Morgan pointed out that the State Road Department works down an annual priority list as long as the money holds out, then any uncompleted projects are automatically dropped to the top of the list for the next year.

Projects for Four Years

Projects listed, in order, for 1970-71 are re-surfacing of State 64 for 7 miles, from State 17 East and northeast to the Polk County line.

Grade, pave and structures for Raley and DeSoto City roads from US 27 East and North to State 623 for 2.5 miles.

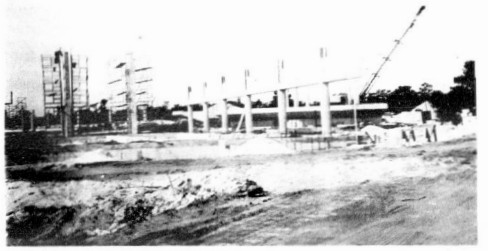

Grade, pave and structures for State 700A from Arbuckle Creek Road to State 17A and East to Arbuckle Creek.

The 1971-72 list has two road projects: State 700A from Arbuckle Creek Road to State 17A East to the creek; State 17 from US 27 North through city of Lake Placid back to US 27.

Two re-surfacing projects on State 17 are listed for 1972-73: from State 70 North to US 27 and State 731 North to State 70. Thirteen miles of road re-surfacing throughout the county completes this year's list.

The final year of the five-year plan calls for nine miles of re-surfacing in the county: grade, pave and structures on Henscratch and Clark roads North to Josephine road.

HUGE CRANES and scaffolding stretch skyward as construction proceeds at a brisk pace at the new campus of South Florida Junior College located between Avon Park and Sebring. Construction is scheduled for completion in mid-November and that's when SFJC President Dr. William Stallard, his faculty and students hope to move in.

FOLKS WHO HAVEN'T been out to take a look at the a-building South Florida Junior College will be amazed at what's going on. Several buildings are 'way out of the ground and now awaiting the huge pre-cast sidewalls. Construction is said to be right on schedule.

County Republicans To Hear Florida's Lieut. Governor

Florida's new lieutenant-governor Ray C. Osborne of St. Petersburg will be the speaker for the annual Lincoln Day dinner to be held here next Wednesday at the Sebring Hotel.

Osborne, the state's first lieutenant-governor was appointed just January 7 by Gov. Claude Kirk. Kirk was the speaker here at dinner in the hotel just last May.

The public is invited to the dinner, chairmanned by W. J. Atkinson, wife of Col. Atkinson, county Republican committee chief. Dinner is by reservation only and she cautioned that reservations will have to be made by this weekend.

"Each year we have a sell-out crowd," said the colonel. The dinner is sponsored by the Highlands County Republican Women's Club.

LT.-GOV. RAY OSBORNE

Time of the dinner is 6:30 P.M. Tickets can be obtained from Republican precinct chairman or Mrs. Atkinson.

"People will like this fellow," commented Atkinson. "We are very happy that he is making one of his first speaking engagements in Sebring."

"He will have a message the people will appreciate. I presume he will talk quite a bit about the program of the state administration which will probably involve some of the things to be recommended to the Legislature."

Osborne, 34, voted an outstanding member of the 1967 session of the Florida Legislature, is a practicing attorney. He was an unsuccessful candidate for the post of public service commissioners.

Some Progress Being Made On City Cleanup

The city's beautification advisory board, made up of representatives of clubs and civic organizations, urges continued efforts to rid the town of unsightly conditions regarded as health hazards to our citizens.

Some progress has been made. Some garbage cans have been moved to inconspicious storage places, some old cars have been hauled to the dump. Yet there are more that need to go. Have you missed the antiquated building at the corner of East Pine and South Lake?

Avon Park has some of the same problems as larger cities. After the health hazards are cleared away, a concentrated effort could be put on beautification!

Red Devils Will Host Sebring Blue Streaks Here Friday Nite

The Red Devil varsity basketball team lost a couple of close ones last week to fall back to an 8-7 record but the Avon Park junior squad continued on its winning streak and made it five straight with wins over LaBelle and Frostproof last week. The "B" team's record is now 6-9 for the season.

Both teams have six games left on the regular season schedule. Last Tuesday was an off date for the cagers but tomorrow night (Friday) the two Devil squads will host the Sebring Blue Streaks here at the high school gym. Action will start at 6:30 P.M. with Coach Howard McGlennon's junior varsity team squaring off against the Streak "Beas." In the nightcap the two Highlands County rivals will be fighting it out. Sebring won the last game between the two varsity's by a score of 55-53 in the last second of play so Avon Park will be extra anxious to take the victory tomorrow night.

Next Tuesday the Red Devils travel to Alva and next Friday, Valentines Day, the Avon Park squads will go to Lakeland to play the Santa Fe quintets. The Alva game is a single on the schedule but the Santa Fe teams both defeated the Devil teams when they met here before Christmas.

In LaBelle it was another nip and tuck game for the varsity with the score seesawing back and forth throughout the entire game. At the end of the first quarter Avon Park held a 13-12 lead and then dropped behind to a 32-27 halftime score. At the close of the third period the Devils were back out front 51-50 but a last minute surge by the LaBelle team gave them a 71-69 score as the final whistle blew. Avon Park's Clyde Sumbry was fouled just as the game ended but was unable to sink his two free shots that would have tied the game and thrown it into overtime. It was the second time this season that LaBelle defeated Avon Park by just two points.

Devil Donald Strange was the leading scorer for Avon Park with 24 points followed by Don Sisemore who hit for 18 counters. Willie Joe Seigler swished through 8 points, Sumbry and Roy Claitt had 6 each, and Charles Magenheimer scored 4. Joe Hardy contributed 3 in the Devils losing effort. LaBelle's Brown scored 29 points to take high scoring honors for the game.

Last Friday night it looked for three quarters like Avon Park might upset the Frostproof Bulldogs but in the last period the Devils cooled off and the Bulldogs couldn't miss to take the 65-55 win.

The Red Devils held a one point lead at the end of the first three periods with a 16-15 score at the end of the first quarter, a 30-29 advantage at the end of the first half, and a 44-43 lead at the end of the third period. Then Frostproof took over and scored 22 points in the final period while Avon Park could only manage 11. The Red Devils had 30 fouls called on them in the fiercely fought game while the Bulldogs committed 16. Frostproof hit 25 free shots and the Devils only scored 13 points at the line.

Frostproof's big center, Bill Franklin, scored 26 points on 8 field goals and 14 free shots and Bulldog Jerry Stephenson sank 19 points for the winners. The Bulldogs held Avon Park's Donald Strange to 17 points as he fouled out late in the game. Joe Hardy and Don Sisemore got 9 points each, Sumbry hit for 7, Magenheimer got 6, Seigler got 4, Claitt scored 2, and Lorris Welch added 1 point for Avon Park.

The Avon Park "B" team defeated LaBelle by a score of 50-31 with the scoring well spread out among the Devil jayvee players. Phillip Hall scored 10, Thad Tate had 9, Clark Jackson hit for 8, Clayton McNeal had 7, Herbert Stukes scored 6, Lorenzo Nelson scored 4, and Wally Pierce, Joe Franza, and Howard Sizemore all added 2 points each.

Community Concert Monday

Monday, Feb. 10, Miss Doris Yarick, a soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will appear at the Lake Wales High School at 8 P.M.

Members of the Highlands Community Concert Association are welcome to attend, upon presentation of membership card by the Lake Wales Community Concert Association.

Junior College Construction Proceeding On Schedule

Work is proceeding on schedule on the nine impressive buildings now rising on the lakeside campus of South Florida Junior College between Sebring and Avon Park.

It is expected the college will be able to move from its jammed and makeshift quarters on the Avon Park mall by mid-November.

"The contractor, Jones Mahoney, of Tampa, has 365 days to complete the work and he started November 15," pointed out Dean Dean Griffin. "As far as we can determine, things are on schedule, and we are quite pleased with this."

Persons who drive to the site just off Route 27 will find huge pillars awaiting the pre-cast concrete sides which will be installed. The nine buildings will be the natural concrete color, with some white painted areas.

Among the buildings under construction, there is no cafeteria, "although we hope to have a cafeteria in the next phase which has to be approved by the Legislature," Griffin said.

The, nine buildings, include, however, a student center, which contains numerous classrooms and a space for vending machines. The other buildings are the library, science building, administration building, lecture center containing two rooms with a capacity of 90 students each; cosmetology building, drafting building, physical education building and the building for automotive mechanics and agricultural mechanics.

Dr. William J. Stallard, president of the university, recently announced that full accreditation was accorded SFJC in the unusually short time of less than three years. Accreditation is retroactive and covers all individuals who have received degrees during the short history of the college. This means that students attending may transfer credits earned to any institution of the higher learning in this country and receive full value therefore.

A highly successful vocational-technical program launched in 1968 contributed substantially toward an 18.4 per cent enrollment increase over the previous school year. A further substantial increase in enrollment is anticipated for 1969-70.

Dean Griffin is dean of the vocational-technical school and Dean Wilford Beumel of the Academic school.

The Lion's Club asks the residents of Avon Park to support them in their many projects. Come and enjoy a good dinner and at the same time you will be helping others that need help.

It's Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13

Scouting's 59th anniversary will be celebrated throughout the world and by most Scout units in Gulf Ridge Council's eight county area beginning tomorrow, February 7 and extending through February 13. Scout Sunday will be observed February 8.

Packs, Troops and Posts already have started arrangements for window displays or special exhibitions around town. If you went to the Highlands County Fair, you saw an exhibit on Scouting and you may have received a small home made gift from a Boy Scout. This is tied into Scouting month.

Traditional Blue and Gold banquets are planned during this month by many Packs as well as service projects for many Troops and Explorer Posts.

Over 1,000 churches in the Council area will receive sample program covers for Scout Sunday and have been encouraged to recognize the Scouting program and those active in Scouting.

A big hurrah for our Boy and Girl Scouts. They're our citizens of tomorrow—the people to whom we'll be turning over the running of this great country.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, the Boy Scouts of America, the Nation's largest youth organization, was founded February 8, 1910, and chartered by the Congress in 1916 for the purpose of promoting "the ability of boys to do things for themselves and others, to train them in Scoutcraft, to teach them patriotism, courage, self reliance, and kindred virtues;"

WHEREAS, since its founding 59 years ago, the Boy Scouts of America has given over 44 million boys unique training which has provided them with an appreciation of nature, conservation, and outdoor life, while instilling in them the principles of good citizenship so ably expressed in the Scout Oath and the Scout Law;

WHEREAS, this year, the 6-million adult and boy members of the Boy Scouts of America have launched a dynamic, long-range expansion plan known as BOYPOWER '76 that will extend to 1976, the 200th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence. Using as its theme "America's manpower begins with BOYPOWER," the Boy Scouts expects to reach out to serve one out of three boys and make Scouting more relevant to the needs and concerns of today's youth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I James M. Doerr, mayor of Avon Park in recognition of its past achievements and its promise for the future of our youth, do hereby declare and proclaim the period of February 7-13 as Boy Scout Week in this city. All organizations and citizens are urged to conduct meaningful and appropriate observations in recognition of the material contributions of the Boy Scouts of America to the Nation and this community.

Done at the city of Avon Park this 1st day of February 1969

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Now that the 91st Congress is underway in Washington, expectations are that appropriations will be made in order to fund the nation's first statutory comprehensive program for alcoholism care and control, passed by the last Congress and signed by ex-President Johnson on October 15.

The new law amends the Community Mental Health Centers Act of 1963 and authorizes assistance to states and communities for constructing and staffing facilities for treatment of alcoholism.

It authorizes up to two-thirds of costs for construction of alcoholism treatment facilities to be borne by the federal government over a period of 91 months. For professional staffing of new facilities, it will provide up to 75 per cent of the first year's costs, up to 60 per cent for the second year, and up to 45 per cent during the third year, in federal funds. Assurance must be given that the project will continue after federal funding has ceased.

In order to be covered by the new law, a facility must include the five essential services required in the community mental health center: In-patient service, out-patient service, 24-hour emergency care, consultation, and education. Also authorized are matching funds for construction and staffing of other specialized facilities, such as for post-institutional care.

The new act recognizes that alcoholism is an "illness demanding extensive federal involvement," and declares that the intent of Congress is for use of all existing health legislation, whenever possible, in combating alcoholism.

Making recommendations for the bill were the North American Association of Alcoholism Programs, the National Council on Alcoholism, and the National Association for Mental Health.

Alcoholic disorders in the United States now cause about 11,000 deaths each year, according to an article in last September's "Today's Health" magazine, published by American Medical Association.

But aside from these fatalities, alcoholism causes untold misery and suffering among the living—not only to the alcoholic himself but also to his family, close friends, and his employer.

With alcoholism as America's number three health problem (according to the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare), it is no wonder that Congress passed the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Act of 1968. Of course, implementation of the act will take some time.

Meanwhile, alcoholism continues to plague our nation and our Sunshine State. If you desire more information on the subject, it's yours for the asking. Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program has some 60 pamphlets available on all phases of alcoholism. Just write FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

No Stops In Avon Park Granted Railroad

The Florida Public Service Commission has denied a request by Seaboard Air Line Railroad Company to discontinue the conditional stop of the Silver Meteor at Okeechobee.

In the same order, the Commission authorized the railroad to permanently discontinue the conditional stops for the Silver Meteor at West Lake Wales, Indiantown, Lake Worth, and Avon Park.

The Commission said "the petitioner's ability to get interstate traffic is largely determined by the time and speed within which it reaches destinations. Interstate passengers should not be required to pay for fast transportation, then forced to travel local."

The City of Avon Park had filed a petition for reconsideration of the Commission's previous order approving discontinuance of conditional stops at Avon Park. The Commission held the discontinuance traveling public in Florida and elsewhere.

The Commission found further that the entraining on and detraining of passengers from the Silver Meteor and Star at Sebring instead of Avon Park constitutes a slight inconvenience to them as opposed to the delay imposed on interstate traffic and possible deterioration of through passenger service between New York and Florida.

Boy Scouts To Hold Mock Camp Out

The week of February 7-13 has been declared nationally as Boy Scout Week. Boy Scout Troop 156, sponsored by the Union Congregational Church, and Troop 157, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Avon Park, are planning an encampment in Donaldson Park on Saturday, Feb. 8 to mark observance of the week. Tents will be erected as they would at an encampment in the field and displays of cooking and other Scoutcraft will be manned by the scouts of both troops.

Troop 157, the oldest troop in the Highlands District having been chartered by the Avon Park Rotary Club in 1924, got a jump on activities by holding a Board of Review Monday evening, Feb. 3 at the Episcopal Parish House. Tenderfoot Scout William Burley appeared before the Board and was passed to rank of Second Class Scout. Another Board of Review is scheduled in two weeks to review applications for advancement of two other Tenderfoot Scouts.

Scoutmaster Joe Murphy of Troop 157 reported that the troop was currently engaged in a cooperative project with the Gulf Ridge Council in selling imported Dutch tulips, which are guaranteed to bloom by Valentines Day. A pot of 6 growing bulbs sell for $2.50. Funds raised by the project will be used to buy new tents for the troop. Tulips will be on sale at the encampment Saturday in Donaldson Park.

Boy Scout activities are open to any boy between the ages of 11 and 14. Parents with boys in this age range can obtain further information from Scoutmasters Joe Murphy and Elton Lawrence or from Scout Neighborhood Commissioner, C. F. "Johnny" Johnston.

Boy Scout Week Feb. 7 to 13

Boy Scout Week will be observed the week of February 7 to the 13.

All Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and their leaders will assemble at the post office and parade in their uniforms to the railroad tracks and back to Donaldson Park, where they will pitch their tents and hold a mock campout on Saturday, Feb. 8. The parade will start at 9 o'clock from the post office.

They will demonstrate Boy Scout activities and publicize scouting. Their leaders will plan the activities.

On Sunday all Boy Scouts will attend their respective chruch in uniform.

Are Communists God's Children?

Are Communists children of God? They deny that there is a God—yet some people consider that they are His children, just the same.

Explaining why the American Friends Service Committee had provided medical supplies to people in Viet Cong-controlled territory in South Vietnam, the AFSC board issued a statement which said, in part, "Sometimes our service has been among those whom other men call enemies, sometimes with others call friends. They are all children of God."

If Communists are to be considered children of God, even against their will, it might be worthwhile to consider what some of these "children of God" have done to certain of their fellowmen who have fallen into their hands.

Bucher's Testimony

Commander Lloyd Bucher, skipper of the ill-fated "Pueblo," described one illuminating incident, during his testimony before the naval board of inquiry.

Bucher said that he was shown a tortured man, who had been strapped to a wall. "They told me he was a South Korean spy," he testified. "He was alive . . . but had a compound fracture of his upper right arm, with the bone sticking out . . . He had completely bitten through his lower lip. His right eye had been put out . . .

There was a lot of black matter running down his right cheek."

He said his Communist captors told him that this man had been a spy and added, "That's what happens to spies, and you are spies, and you will get exactly the same."

Fine-Sounding, but False

Regardless of how fine and pleasant it sounds to say that all men are children of God, the Bible does not support this doctrine. Quite the contrary, in fact, Jesus said to a group of His enemies one day, "Ye do the deeds of your father."

"We have one Father," they retorted, "even God."

Jesus replied, "If God were your Father, ye would love Me. . . . Ye are of your father, the devil . . . He was a murderer from the beginning . . . He that is of God heareth God's words. Ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

Could anything be more explicit?

In another place, the Bible declares, "In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God."

In still another place, the Scripture states, "As many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

Should American citizens give aid and comfort to the enemy on the basis of the totally false allegation that these malicious monsters are "the children of God"?

Irene Maxcy Weds Pompano Beach Man

Thrice-married Irene Maxcy, wealthy widow of murdered citrus millionaire Charles Von-Canon Maxcy, took a fourth trip to the altar Tuesday of last week when she exchanged I Do's with a handsome Pompano boat builder before a justice of the peace in Folkston, Ga.

Commented her erstwhile lover, John J. Sweet, the stocky, balding land salesman sentenced to life imprisonment for killing Maxcy:

"Nothing surprises me that Irene Maxcy could do any time."

Sweet is in Sebring at liberty under a $50,000 appeal bond, living in his modest apartment on South Commerce street.

The sexy widow, a grandmother, key witness in the murder trial, confirmed from her Deerfield Beach apartment that she and Jerome Louis "Jerry" Wells tied the knot, flying to Jacksonville, then taking a car to Folkston. Georgia has no three day waiting period.

The couple was unattended. Mrs. Maxcy wore a blue wool suit with navy blue accessories and a white orchid corsage for the single ring ceremony. They returned to Deerfield Beach that night. Sebring friends of the bride who have seen the couple here and at Deerfield Beach said they seem "very much in love." Wells is described as "very attentive, curly haired, with a mustache."

The bride said they intend to take a honeymoon later, but she does not know just when. They are living at the apartment on SE Eighth Street in Deerfield Beach where Mrs. Maxcy and her eight-year-old daughter Marivon have been for some months. Wells will continue in his boat building business, which his bride said is "mostly houseboats."

Irene said she had seen Sweet once since his release Jan. 7 from jail in Bartow. The marriage came three weeks to the day of his release. Apparently Sweet saw his former girl friend shortly afterwards, as Irene said Thursday she had not seen him in about three weeks. She said he had had no comment on her impending marriage.

She said she has known Wells, who has been married "once before," about four months.

Mrs. Maxcy, one of the twin daughters of an Alabama farmer, met her first husband, Joe Heath, now of Orlando, picking cotton in the fields there. They married in 1939. He is the father of her other daughter, Mrs. Ernest Higgins of Sebring.

Irene's second husband Horace Davis was a dairy worker at Ramer's Dairy who she divorced to marry Maxcy. She has been in contact with both Heath and Davis socially since Maxcy's death, friends say, although both are re-married.

During the trial, Mrs. Maxcy testified she and Sweet were lovers, and that she had paid to arrange her husband's death. She was granted immunity to testify against Sweet.

Maxcy was found stabbed and shot Oct. 3, 1966, in the bedroom of their luxurious Sparta Road home west of Sebring.

The home has been leased. Mrs. Maxcy says she does not presently contemplate returning to this area.

County Adopts New Schedule For Holidays

Highlands County Commissioners have adopted a new schedule of paid holidays for county employees, deleting two previously observed.

On the recommendation of County Administrator Chuck Morgan, the commissioners at their Tuesday meeting adopted a resolution setting holidays as New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Veterans Day, Thanksgiving Day and Christmas Day.

At Tuesday's meeting the commissioners again turned thumbs down on a request for county funds for promotion and advertising. The Automobile Hall of Fame asked the commission for a $250 contribution toward the cost of the parade planned for the eve of the Sebring 12 Hours of Endurance. The parade committee also suggested that, at a cost of $300, the county could update the Highlands County float which appeared in the Governor Hayden Burns Inaugural parade.

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee ruled that these expenditures would be contrary to state law.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the commissioners promised to present to the State Road Department the request from Avon Park city council for a turnoff from State 64 to the Avon Park Airport. The commissioners pointed out 64 is a primary road and work on it should be paid for by primary road funds.

A delegation from precinct 5 was promised that a central location for the precinct polling place will be sought. Commissioner Robert Skipper said he is working with Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Droit in trying to find a satisfactory site.

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee said some confusion had arisen over newspaper stories about the commission's relation on Youth Care and the new Youth Care home. "The commissioners are eager to work with Youth Care in finding a solution to the problem of a lease for the home. It is not that we—the county attorney and the commissioners—refuse to work with Youth Care, but we are severely limited by law," Nunnallee explained.

THE PHYSICAL EDUCATION program of the Avon Park Elementary School is now busy getting students grades one through sixth ready to pass a Highlands County physical fitness test. The test consists of the following skills. Fifty yard dash, flex arm hang for girls, pull ups for boys, standing broad jump, sit ups, softball throw, shuttle run, 600 yard run, and walk for both boys and girls. In getting the children ready for the test, the students have been practicing on th obstacle course under their teachers, Margaret Collins and Elmo Roberts.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

"The fastest growing business in the United States is coming to Avon Park." These were the words of Mr. Michael Haynes, president of Avon Park Flying Service who spoke to the Rotary Club on Wednesday. Mr. Haynes is the founder and president of three Flying Service Companies, a top rated instructor in all aspects of flying and a determined young man to be the best in his field.

There are three areas of aviation: Military, Commercial Airlines and Civil Aircraft. Of these three, Civil aircraft has more than five times as many planes as the others. Avon Park Flying Service will be operating in this third level of commuter air service.

Mr. Haynes pointed out that for his company to best serve the community, he must know the needs of the people. Surveys will be taken to determine the number of people who will use plane service and to what extent.

A Flying Service such as Mr. Haynes is planning will offer First, business men can make great use of the local airport Avon Park several advantages to get them directly to other cities in the state or as a taxi service to Tampa, Orlando or Miami for flights all over the U. S. By having the local airport a businessman can cover several thousand miles in one day. Another advantage is the recreational benefits for the individual or for the whole family. Many people fly just for fun. A third advantage is the financial benefit to businesses in the area. Most people who would fly into Avon Park will remain at least a few days and spend their money here. So the airport does not just benefit a few people who like to "fool around" with airplanes.

Mr. Haynes is asking for the support of all the people in Avon Park. Even though you may not fly, you can encourage others to use the airport. There are many jobs available in the airline industry and a great shortage of people to fill those jobs. One of Mr. Haynes major objectives is to get more people enrolled into vocational schools and train for jobs with the small airline companies.

From the attitude shown by our speaker and the response from the club members, Avon Park is fortunate to have such a man operating our airport.

The Tom Chockleys accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ormond, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Whitmer and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snoddy went to Kissimmee for a tour of the Tupperware Home Parties, Inc., where they viewed the dish museum and exhibition.

The picnic that has been planned so many times during the last few years, became a reality on Thursday. The day was nice and everyone packed a lunch and headed for Highlands Hammock State Park about 10:30 A.M. A three mile walk was enjoyed before lunch and after lunch several decided to take the train ride. Others played cards until the rest returned. Then all returned to thier cars and drove to the Cypress Swamp, before returning to Bonnie Brae. Those on the picnic were, Marjorie Brubaker, Florence and Jerry Affholder, Ethel and Max Putman, Harry Mason, Mary and Albert Hemiller, Margaret and Gene Brown, Lorraine and Frank Robertson, Minnie and Palmer Snyder, Catherine and Paul Whitmer, Jessie and Lyle Gunn, Grace and Howard Snoddy and Thelma Chalmers. At the meeting Frank received a gold 16 year award which was pinned on him by John Clayton, a representative from the factory at Brockton, Mass. Fellowship RA's Have Busy Month

Gator Chapter of Fellowship Baptist Church Pioneer Royal Ambassadors is "on the grow" again after approximately half the chapter, which has become over-age, formed its own Ambassador Chapter of RA's.

During the month of January the 'Gators took two overnight camping trips, spent one evening at the Highlands County Fair, and helped eat a large quantity of fish at a church fish-fry sponsored by men of Fellowship Baptist Church. The 'Gators also spent one evening doing visitation during the month.

Enrollment of the 'Gator Pioneers is currently eight, with two more boys waiting to be voted in upon completion of membership requirements.

Membership at present includes Dennis Avery, Edward Bennett, Phil Cloud, Eddie Hill, Curtis Lamb, Jack Moree, Franklin Shaffer, and Danny Sims.

Basketball and more camping is on the chapter agenda for February. Membership is open to any boy aged 12 through 14, and more information on the chapter may be had from any member or its leader, Paul C. Foraker.

Howard H. Irwin Lectured Sunday

A challenging gap exists between man's self-assured advances in science and technology and his hunger to feel wanted, needed, and appreciated, a Christian Science lecturer told his audience here Sunday. The gap can be bridged, he said, by being sure our understanding of God is keeping up with our devotion to technology.

In a lecture titled "You Are Needed," Howard H. Irwin, C.S., of San Diego, California, emphasized that each individual in the world today is here because he is needed both by God and his fellowmen. He said we can prove this spiritual fact as we get a clearer understanding of our relationship to God.

A study of the Bible, he declared, discloses a constantly enlarging concept of God's nature.

New names for God are used to match new understanding, new stages of experience, he said. In the New Testament, Jesus calls God "our Father," and the apostle John refers to Him as "Love," he recalled.

For the past hundred years he said Christian Science has been sharing with others a "scientific concept of God which greatly illumes His nature" and clarifies man's relationship to Him.

Christian Science teaches that God is the source, or cause of man, he explained. "It's the nature of cause to express itself in effect. It's the nature of divine Love to express itself in its beloved son, man.

"We are all important to God because He is conscious of us, loves us, and is expressing His nature in the true being of each one of us.

"For God to be fully expressed, not one individual expression can ever be cast off re reejected."

To prove we are needed by our fellowmen, all we have to do is extend a helping hand to someone, Mr. Irwin continued. Any feeling of loneliness or of not being needed will quickly disappear. He quoted Jesus' words, "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven" (Matt. 5:16).

"Remember," he added, "because God's love is universal, your opportunities for expressing this love, for proving you're needed, are just as wide as anyone else's."

"As we gain a scientific understanding of God as universal infinite Love and of man as His expression, we'll see . . . that God has a niche He needs us to fill and that we certainly need God.

"By blessing others, through our own spiritual understanding, we'll find our own blessing . . ."

At one point in his lecture, Mr. Irwin touched on "God is dead" theology and commented "There's nothing new or modern or up-to-date or 'with it' in that thought; it needn't disturb anyone."

Then he added "There have been people who doubted God's existence, others who thought Him too great or too busy or too far away to trouble Himself about man, and still others who misunderstand Him in many other ways.

"But there wasn't ever a time when God's being was interrupted. There's always been the continuity of a growing understanding of Him and His expression of Himself in man. God hasn't stopped being, today or ever."

Mr. Irwin is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. He is currently on tour throughout the United States.

BAHÁ'U'LLAH

(Glory of God) the Founder of the Bahai Faith calls mankind in this words:

O ye children of men! The fundamental purpose animating the Faith of God and His Religion is to safeguard the interests and promote the unity of the human race, and to foster the spirit of love and fellowship amongst men. Suffer it not to become a source of dissension and discord; of hate and enmity. This is the straight Path, the fixed and immovable foundation. Whatsoever is raised on this foundation, the changes and chances of the world can never impair its strength, nor will the revolution of countless centuries undermine its structure. Our hope is that the world's religious leaders and the rulers thereof will untidely arise for the reformation of this age and the rehabilitation of its fortunes. Let them, after meditating on its needs, take counsel together and, through anxious and full deliberation, administer to a diseased and sorely afflicted world the remedy it requires.

Church Teachers Training Series Planned

Four Tuesdays in March, 4, 11, 18, 25, have been selected for a series of Church School Teacher Training Sessions by a committee representing five Avon Park churches, Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal, First Baptist and Union Congregational. Rev. John E. Pickens has been asked to serve as Dean.

The Teacher, the Pupil, Learning Methods, Teaching Methods, Teaching the Bible to Children, Curriculum and Courses, Activities, Audio-visuals, and other important phases of Church School work will be studied during this series.

Each session will be two hours 7:30 to 9:30, with worship conducted by one of the ministers, a general session, and a separate group session on graded basis — pre-school, primary, junior and high school. All sessions will be held at the Union Congregational Church. Each church will contribute to a fund to defray expenses in order that paid registrations will not be required.

Tuesday, March 4th, worship will be conducted by Rev. A. H. Hardee. Leadership for the training periods will be furnished by Christian Education Directors of Florida United Church of Christ and Community Churches, who will be meeting at the Lake Byrd Conference Center. The theme will be "Creative Training." The Minister of Christian Education of the Florida Conference, U.C.C., Rev. T. Albert Lawrence, will be in charge.

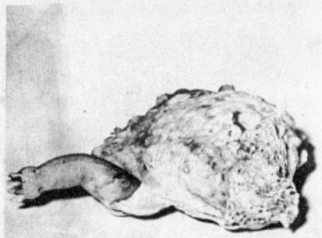

At the second session, March 11th, Rev. R. Marshall Wilson will conduct the worship. The first training session will be in charge of Miss Myrna Laird, Child Evangelism Fellowship of Highlands and Hardee Counties. The theme "Teaching God's Word to Children." Leaders for the graded groups will be announced later.

Rev. John L. Knapp will conduct the worship for the third session, March 18th. "The Church School at Work" will be the theme, with Mrs. Margaret W. Hollis, coordinator of Children's Work, United Methodist Church of Florida; and Mrs. E. H. Ormiston, Elementary Education Director, United Methodist Church, will be in charge.

At the last session, March 25th, Rev. Herbert D. Graetz will conduct the worship. The program for this night has not been completed, but Miss Marge Whitaker, Director of Christian Education, Lake Wales Presbyterian Church, will be one of the leaders.

This series is open to all interested in the education of children by the church. If other churches desire to cooperate, minister or Church School leaders, should contact Rev. John E. Pickens, GL 3-3909, who will be happy to discuss the school with them. This is the first interdenominational teacher training school to be attempted in Avon Park and is expected to be very successful.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT—the oyster that found the doll's arm and held it so close, they grew together. That is what Josh Gaster, Wayne McConnell, Bill McConnell, Joe McAfee and Milton Stokey found while oyster hunting north of Vero Beach, last Saturday. This oyster measured over 5 inches across and according to an article released last week in one of the daily papers, it takes 10 months for an oyster to grow five inches under ideal conditions and this only happens in tropical waters.

Highlands Art League Exhibit

On Sunday, Feb. 2, the Art League held open house in honor of F. Lyder Frederickson, who is in charge of the new Art Gallery at the Kenilworth Hotel. The time of the showing was from two to five in the afternoon, and there was no admission charge.

A short resume of Mr. Frederickson's background and work appeared in the Dec. 26 issue of the Sebring News. He was born in Norway, received his B. A. at University of Oslo, and later won a scholarship to the Art Students League, New York City. He is now a U.S. citizen. He has had one-man shows and exhibited in Norway, France, England and in this country.

Also showing, though the artist was not present, was the work by Pierre Jacquemon. This man was born in Lyons, France, and has had exhibitions in many cities of Europe, and also in this country.

The Art League was very much pleased to have the opportunity to show these works of art, which were in a style somewhat different from our previous shows.

By COACH TERRILL

Tuesday night at 7:30 P.M. at the Avon Park High gym, South Florida Junior College Panthers will host the Brevard Titeons of Cocoa in a division three game. Brevard leads the division three with a 9-0 record.

The two teams met earlier in the season at Cocoa with Brevard taking a 103-87 victory. The Panthers will be trying to move up in Division III where they are sixth in nine teams.

However, three quick fouls against the Panthers enabled the Falcons to emerge with 4 of 6 free throws to win 89-85.

Douglass Outlines Building Plans At Meeting

At an open Community meeting held at the high school on Tuesday Jan. 28th, County Supt. George Douglass outlined plans of the school board for financing the building of new schools in the county.

One avenue of financing is for the school board to exercise its authority to raise the milage of taxes now being paid for education. Another method of procuring money for the desperately needed new schools is for freeholders to vote in favor of a school bond issue.

Petitions are now being circulated throughout the county which call for a such a bond issue election.

Gene Scheck of Sebring, petition coordinator, spoke to the group briefly. He pointed out that the Highlands County schools are in danger of loss of state accreditation due primarily to deficient facilities. He called for the cooperation of all Avon Park voters to sign the petition which does not approve or disapprove the issuance of school bonds, but only requests that a school bond election be held.

The overcrowded conditions of our schools at present was discussed. Douglass announced the very likely possibility that our schools will be forced to operate on an extended session next year to accomodate the steadily increasing enrollments:

The Avon Park City Council agreed Monday that something must be done about people driving on the runways at the Airport and the only solution is to put a fence around it.

Wayman Carver of the Airport Committee has warned the council that it was only a matter of time before someone caused an accident.

The Airport is out of the city limits and police do not patrol that area so the council is advertising for bids to fence the area.

New lights have been installed along the north-south runway and cars could do considerable damage if any of the light fixtures were run over.

The Council designated Avenue A as one way from North to South with 15 mph limit.

A discussion of sidewalk between Woodrow and Carolina Ave on Castle Street as requested by the Bi-Racial Committee was held. The City will build a sidewalk between Woodrow and Carolina on Castle Street.

Motion was made to authorize Dawkins and Associates to prepare for bids on installation of sewer line at the Junior College with trench to be left partially open for installation of water main by the City.

Agreed to have the City Attorney write delinquent taxpayers who have signed time agreements for payment and tell them payments must start in 2 weeks or property would be foreclosed when their 12 months time limit has expired.

Approved employment of Thomas H. Hawks on the Park Department, and Densby Jackson and William Jessie Scott as police patrolmen.

Will not pay for time police attend school and to take a raise under advisement for those completing the law enforcement course.

Annual conference for mayors, city councilmen and city attorneys will be held in Orlando, March 2, 3 and 4.

To have the City Attorney prepare local legislation to amend Chapter 67-1087 to $250,000 debt limit and to raise the limit required for bids on items from $200 to $500.

Possible application to H.U.D. for sewer loan discussed. The City Clerk is to check further on this.

A discussion was held of electrical work at the new hangar. The Council decided that any cost of construction on offices above the $2,500 previously approved would be the liability of the lessee.

Howard reported a silk oak tree at Warren's Taxi Stand on S. DeLaney needed to be cut down.

To send two Park Department employees to South Florida Junior College Landscaping course February 18, 25, March 4 and 11.

Red Devils Defeat Blue Streaks; To Meet Santa Fe Friday Night

Coach Fred Sandlin's Red Devil basketball team outclassed the Sebring Blue Streaks last Friday night before the largest home crowd of the season to take a comfortable 69-40 victory from the Highlands County rivals from the south.

The Avon Park "B" squad set the stage for the Avon Park sweep when it eeked out a 42-41 win over the Streak jayvees in the opener. It was the sixth straight win for the Avon Park junior vars'ty and set the record at 7-9 for the season.

The varsity win gave Avon Park an even 8-8 mark in season play as they faced four away games out of the final five of the regular season. Tuesday the Red Devils were scheduled to play in Alva. Then tomorrow night (Friday) the squads will travel to Lakeland for rematches with the tough Santa Fe teams and next Tuesday February 18, the Devils will host Lake Placid in the last regular home game of the season. The final two games will be against Fort Meade and Wauchula and both will be away. Avon Park's varsity will host the Class B Group 13 tournament here at the high school gym starting February 26.

Red Devil Don Strange continued to swish the nets at an amazing pace last Friday as he pumped in 11 field shots and 7 free throw points for a total of 29 for the game. The sharp-shooting senior equaled his high point mark of earlier in the season with the 29 points. When Donald came out of the game in the final quarter as Coach Sandlin emptied his bench to give the reserves some action, he had scored more points than Sebring had at the time. Also hitting in the double figures for Avon Park were Don Sizemore with 11 and Clyde Sumbry with 10 points. Joe Hardy hit for 7, Roy Claitt scored 6, Lorris Welch had 3, Mike Reck scored 2, and Neal Caswell added 1 for the total 69 points.

The Streaks, playing with a squad that had been cut recently because of disciplinary measures, were completely outclassed by the hustling Red Devil squad which controlled both backboards most of the evening. Streak George Aparicia was high scorer for Sebring with 13 — three field goals and 6 free shots. Sebring scored 20 points from the field on 10 field goals and the other 20 from the free shot line for the total 40 points.

Avon Park led 18-7 at the end of the first period, 31-14 at halftime, 49-24 at the end of the third quarter, and then 69-40 at the end of the game.

The "B" squad game was a real crowd-pleaser as Avon Park jumped off to an 11-7 first quarter lead and went on to a 27-14 halftime advantage. Then the junior Devils went cold and scored only 4 points in the third period while Sebring pumped in 16 to set the score at 31-30 as the third quarter closed. It was nip and tuck from then on as Avon Park would edge ahead only to have the Sebring "Bees" close the gap. With one second showing on the scoreboard clock, Avon Park led 42-41 but fouled a Sebring player. The Blue Streak boys could have tied the game up and thrown it in to over-time, but he missed the shot and gave Avon Park the coveted win.

Thad Tate paced the Avon Park winners with 11 points followed by Herbert Stukes with 10 and Phillip Hall with 8. Wally Pierce, playing one of his best games of the year, scored 5 counters and Clayton McNeal and Clark Jackson both added 4 points to the Avon Park winning effort. Stan Walker scored 14 points to lead Sebring's offense.

School Board Expects Legislature To Extend Improvement Fund

Faculty for Highlands County schools next year could be a very tough problem if the Legislature fails to extend the life of the Education Improvement Fund.

The special fund established by the special education session of the Legislature a year ago has a one-year life and only a promise for consideration in the 1969 Legislature.

Highlands County currently has 36 teacher units under this Education Improvement fund. 1—1 over 10 per cent of the total teaching personnel.

Superintendent George F. Douglass, in a special report prepared for the county school board, said the improvement fund is supplying $150,000 in teacher salaries as well as financing for special on-the-job training for instructors.

The Minimum Foundation Program allots 225 teachers to the county for the 1968-69 year. For many years Highlands (and many other Florida counties) have hired about 10 per cent more teachers than the state formula calls for.

These extra teachers had to be supported entirely from local funds. When the improvement fund was set up last year, Highlands shifted the salaries for some of the specialized teachers (librarians for example) and hired a like number of new specialists to be paid from the Education Improvement Fund.

Federal money pays eight teachers—three in migrant education and five reading specialists. Federal law also sets up funds for paying clerks and para-professionals to assist teachers.

The county still provides all the financing for 15 teacher units.

"We speak of state units and sometimes forget that for each teacher alloted under the Minimum Foundation the county must still come up with some salary," Superintendent Douglass said.

Financial Crisis

At every opportunity the Superintendent explains that Highlands schools may face a financial crisis on three fronts in 1969-70.

If the improvement fund is not extended it may be very difficult to find salary for 340 teachers (total teaching personnel for 1968-69).

Under present state law the county will have to put $36,000 into personnel retirement funds next year.

The largest budgetary threat comes from a new law requiring that each county must put into the Minimum Foundation up, from county taxes, the equivalent of three mills on the county's roll.

This year, under an old law, Highlands County had to put the equivalent of three mills of 95 per cent of an average county tax roll (all 67 counties figured into that average).

That meant that the Minimum Foundation participation cost the county $630,000 this year. But if the three mill equivalent is figured on Highlands County's tax roll, the Minimum Foundation participation in 1969-70 would jump to $955,000—even if the tax roll did not go up.

"This kind of new requirement penalizes the county that has fair assessments and rewards those counties which have not made fair assessments," Douglass complains.

He is hopeful that the Legislature will reassert an old principle of school financing that the Minimum Foundation Program cost will not rise by more than five per cent per year.

Chamber Of Commerce Week March 23-29

IT TAKES TWO . . . thus begins the slogan of the national observance of "Chamber of Commerce Week" to be held March 23-29. The complete slogan, "IT TAKES TWO — YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND YOU!" will herald the week set aside to recognize the importance the Chamber of Commerce plays in the affairs of Avon Park.

W. R. "Bill" Reck, President of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, announced that the nationwide observance of this special week is being coordinated by the American Chamber of Commerce Executives. He outlined the threefold purpose of the observance: To create public understanding of the purposes and needs of the Chamber of Commerce; To recognize the efforts of volunteer community leaders and staff of the Chamber: and to further strengthen the relations with organizations and agencies in our community.

Mr. Reck also had this to say about the Chamber of Commerce and its work: "The activities of a Chamber of Commerce are varied and vital. Practically every aspect of community life is involved. As a consequence, a large number of people are affected; and, through people, the common goal of the Chamber can be realized: development of the total community, not for some, but for all. To this extent, then, the Chamber Week slogan certainly makes sense. "IT TAKES TWO — YOUR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND YOU!"

During the week of March 22-29, the nation will unite in saluting the important role Chambers of Commerce play in this total development of community life, as it celebrates Chamber of Commerce Week.

Salute your Chamber . . . IT TAKES TWO!

Nine Trustees Candidates Cleared for Call

With the certifying of 9 trustee candidates the Avon Park Lakes subdivision has cleared of a special tax district election.

At their meeting Tuesday the Highlands County commissioners formally received the trustee nominations, and the Supervisor of Elections was authorized to proceed with plans for holding a special election.

Registered freeholders in the subdivision will vote on setting a special tax to pave and maintain roads within that area.

Legislators Plan Public Hearings To Be Held in Highlands County

The Highlands County legislative delegation will hold public hearings in the county February 27 in preparation for the 1969 session of the Florida Legislature.

It's part of an attempt to better represent their constituents. Listening to the problems and requests of the community will be Sen. Wilson H. Boyd, Rep. Jim K. Tillman, Rep. Donald E. Heath and Rep. Granville H. Crabtree, Jr.

Hearings are scheduled in all three cities at 10 A.M. in the Lake Placid City Council meeting room; at 2 P.M. in the Avon Park City Council meeting room and at 7:30 P.M. in the county commissioners meeting room in the court house in Sebring.

"The hearings will give the people of the county an opportunity to be heard on all local and general legislation which may affect them at the approaching session," said a spokesman.

"Your delegation requests that all local legislation be submitted at the hearings if it is to be introduced in the 1969 session.

"Your delegation feels that all legislation which is being proposed by municipal and county governmental bodies should be submitted at these public hearings in order that the people can have an opportunity to express their feelings.

"Since local bills must be advertised for 30 days prior to introduction in the Legislature, we urge that bills be submitted in final bill form whenever possible so the advertising can be completed to allow introduction during the first week of the session."

It was pointed out that legislation which affects the health and welfare of citizens can be classified as "emergency" and introduced, even though it has not been first submitted at a public hearing.

The legislators, in announcing the hearings, laid down the following ground rules:

All proposed bills presented by public boards and public officials are to be presented in final bill form whenever possible at the public hearings.

All citizens will have the right to come before the legislation delegation to present ideas for local legislation, or ideas for statewide legislations. We do not require that any such bill be in final draft form.

Your delegation will not argue the merits of legislation which is proposed during these hearings, nor will they make commitments to support or oppose legislation which is submitted during these hearings.

Information To Be Simplified By Phone Co.

The phrase "Directory Assistance" will greet telephone callers for "Information" beginning February 15, according to Oscar Holway, General Traffic Manager for United Telephone.

United's introduction of the new phrase to its customers coincides with the nationwide trend by telephone companies to eliminate the reference to "Information."

"The institution of the directory assistance term is designed to improve our service to the customer," Holway said. "It will mean faster service, because we will be answering only questions for directory assistance and hopefully, only those for numbers that aren't listed in the directory."

Holway noted that the new phrase "Directory Assistance" is being used to emphasize exactly what the former information service was supposed to be, nothing more. "It's amazing some of the questions our operators receive," Holway said. "People wanting to know the time of day, the weather, and the temperature are almost daily occurrences. People also call to get the high and low tides, even directions to get someplace.

"Of course, our operators don't have this sort of information available and when they can't, provide directions to Cypress Gardens, for example, the caller isn't very happy."

To remove this program, the telephone company hopes to emphasize the fact that operators will be strictly employed for directory assistance.

During the annual busy season, which is here, directory assistance operators will handle some 11,000 calls per day.

"We have had an increase of Community Concert Here Tuesday

The Third Community Concert of the season will be presented by the Highlands Community Concert Association at the Avon Park High School Auditorium, Tuesday, February 18th at 8:00 P.M. The Turnau Opera Players will perform the opera LaBoheme in English.

The Turnau Opera Players was originated thirteen years ago on the belief that well-performed opera is becoming in the United States, as in Europe a widely-enjoyed and practical part of life. To this end the company has staged over 750 performances of 65 operas, including 7 premieres of contemporary works.

THE TURNEAU Opera Players recreate the masterpiece Opera LaBoheme in the Avon Park High School auditorium February 18 at 8 P.M.

The Turnau Opera Players recreate the masterpiece, "La Boheme," with the youthful freshness and polish for which they have become famous across America. Some of the finest young professional artists in the United States have combined forces to present this work with reverence and imaginativeness. In an era in which operatic production standards shift and slide and in which hope a companies come into dubious existence and soon die, the National Music League is proud to put before the public the always excellent interpretations of this unique and thriving company which was founded in 1955 and has enjoyed an unblemished reputation ever since.

LaBoheme is a study in contrasts; a richness of spirit is set against the drabness of garret life, colorful flashes of comedy brighten the bitterness of poverty and the surging in spirit of youth is quelled by the pall of fatal illness. The genius of Puccini has succeeded in compensating for the tragic death of Mimi — the music which has brought her story and the Bohemian kingdom to life endures forever.

Every February

February is a month of observances—Lincoln's Birthday, Valentine's Day, Washington's Birthday—and probably the one that creates the most interest is Valentine's Day—with all the candy, flowers, valentines, and parties associated with this day of love and affection. The light, the gay, the fun thing.

Our first great martyred President also receives a large share of attention—Lincoln Day dinners—the symbol of Republicanism. There is a dinner here this week.

When Washington's birthday comes along, which will be next week, out come all the cherry tree jokes, reminders that he had one of the first sets of dentures (wooden ones) and George and Martha anecodotes will enliven the TV.

Of course Washington and Lincoln were great men—probably as time dims memory, too great for us to comprehend. We wonder if any succeeding presidents, and surely we will have great ones, ever will approach their stature.

These hectic times of ours seem to cry out for somebody to come along and oversee the solving of all the complex problems in this complex world.

We wonder if there will be such a man—and if there is—will he rank beside the two great men whom we commemorate this month.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

People who chronically resort to whiskey usually do so for a great variety of reasons. If there was only one reason for a person's problem drinking, it wouldn't be too hard to pinpoint a cure.

But there are a great many reasons why people drink to excess. One of the major ones is to run from a deep feeling of humiliation and failure.

Humiliation usually involves a reduction from a former higher social status to a lower level. A good example of this is the American Indian, who was originally lord of all he surveyed. Then as the colonists pushed westward across our continent, the Indian was demoted — deprived of his land, his buffalo, and even of his freedom to travel as he wished.

Thus the Indian became exceptionally vulnerable to booze, because it fogged his brain temporarily and permitted him to have a throwback in his imagination to the time when he exercised lordly rule.

Business executives today, as well as many attractive wives, may also resort to liquor when they have fallen into a lower financial or social stratum.

If a man loses his job or a big advertising contract or any other status symbol, he may rush to a bar to get drunk. And a woman who was happy as a bride may later find she can't have a baby. This severe deflation of her feminine ego humiliates her and she may become a chronic alcoholic.

Alcohol and narcotics, as well as LSD, are thus crutches that are often sought by frightened or humiliated people.

The biggest problem is, a vicious circle soon develops when folks try to use this kind of "escape" from reality. After every spree, they wake up more humiliated than ever, so they want to make another fast exit via booze—or, as the case may be, narcotics or LSD.

Alcoholism which develops after the age of 40 often denotes a "theoretical" or platonic husband, or a scared wife who, ouring her menopause, believes the fallacy that ability to have children is the main basis of her feminine appeal to her mate.

All this is food for thought and makes interesting reading. But as we have stated, there usually is no single cause for alcoholism, and thus rehabiliation is often rather complex. Yet, there are tens of thousands of former alcoholics around the world today who can enthusiastically attest to the fact that alcoholism is treatable.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program seeks to prevent alcoholism as well as treat it. This is the reason for maintaining our large selection of literature which is free for the asking.

Just address your request for information or literature to FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is Rebellion Respectable?

Is there an effort underway to make rebellion respectable?

As dissident students, nonstudents, and the "dedicated revolutionaries" on some college and university faculties do their utmost to disrupt our society, some are now praising their attacks on the "establishment" and declaring that the rebels may some day be acclaimed as heroes.

In line with this thinking, a nationally syndicated columnist wrote recently, "When you read about the first years of the Christian church as reported in the New Testament, you discover that many of the faithful spent more time in prison than in the pulpit."

What Were They Doing?

The question is: What were these faithful men doing that led to their being thrown into prison—rioting, shouting obscenities at the authorities, seizing or destroying property that did not belong to them, inflicting physical harm on those who disagreed with them?

Of course not. They were not engaging in any of these presently popular methods of expressing dissent.

Why, then, were they in prison?

Their offense was preaching the Gospel and delivering people from the oppression of Satan.

Authorities of the Roman government, seeking to stamp out Christianity, persecuted the early Christian leaders.

Let's not smear the memories of the great Christians of that early era by equating their imprisonment for preaching Christianity with the jailing of those whose claim to fame is that they have succeeded in disrupting the operation of a college where other young people are attempting to secure an education.

No Justification

Nowhere in the Scripture is there justification for unlawful and unruly acts such as are being committed on the campuses of our colleges and universities by the militant minorities that would impose their will on the properly constituted authorities.

On the contrary, the Bible is clear in its teaching that those who would please God should "live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world."

The revolution which Jesus advocated was a revolution of heart and mind, resulting in an internal change in the individual who adopted the way of Christ as his own.

It is impossible to imagine the early Christian leaders taking part in some of the demonstrations which have in our days been adorned by the presence of some clergymen—men of the cloth who have chosen to lend the weight of their influence to disruptive and unlawful activities.

No doubt, there are inequities in the operation of some colleges. No doubt, some changes should be made in their policies and practices.

Where there are inequities, they should be corrected. But this must be done in a peaceable manner, without resort to violence.

The teaching of the Bible is the direct opposite of the doctrine which is being proclaimed —and practised—by the rebels whom some are seeking to justify.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Personal Incomes Up 9%

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., February 13. Personal income increased by 9% in 1968, substantially exceeding the 7% rise of 1967. This was the largest relative gain in 17 years.

Pillar of Economic Strength

The persistent climb of personal income has been one of the most consistently strong aspects of the long uptrend in business the Babson's Reports staff has noted in the pat few years. Latest figures show December's rise greater than November's, but less than September's.

There have been some slowdowns in this barometer in recent years, but most of them have been due to labor strikes, or other factors such as the riots that occurred last Spring. Even the 1967 mini-recession failed to stem the advance in personal income.

Salaries and Wages Set Pace

Primary factor in its sustained rise has been the strength in salaries and wages. This is the most important component of the personal income index. The uptrend in salaries and wages has accounted for about 70% of the advance.

The extended business boom, which has kept employment high and the average factory work week over the 40-hours mark since January 1962, has contributed to the increase in wages and salaries. Another important factor has been the steady round of new wage hikes. In the past year, wage boosts averaged more than 18 cents an hour.

Other Components Add Impetus

Non-farm proprietors, including unincorporated businesses and professional groups (doctors, lawyers, and dentists), have also received higher incomes during this prosperous period. This reflects the steady inflation of the costs of services and the increasing importance and growth of the personal services sector of our economy.

The lesser components of personal income have also contributed to the climb of this index. Interest rates have been skyrocketing and, on a percentage basis, have made the advance in interest income the greatest of any component in the index. This rise has made investments in bonds more lucrative and has forced the upward trend of interest paid on savings accounts. Rental incomes have increased steadily, but dividend income shows an irregular advance.

Year-End Strength Well Distributed

The December-over-November rise in personal income can be related to the same factors which resulted in the growth for the year. Factory payroll increases were fairly evenly distributed over durable and nondurable lines. The advance in employment and higher wages contributed equally, while the average factory work week held steady.

A large increase in government payrolls was due primarily to the end of the teachers' strike in New York City and their return to work. The distributive industries (wholesale and retail trade), transportation, communications, and public utilities, however, posted smaller gains in December than in November. Farm income was stable. The non-wage components were up or stable, with dividends and rental income rising somewhat. Personal interest income and transfer payments (such as Social Security benefits) continued to trend higher.

Slower Growth Ahead

The Nixon Administration has moved to dampen inflation pressures. This should have a like effect on personal income. The projected personal income figure for 1969 calls for a 6% rise, which is substantially less than the 9% of 1968. In slowing down the inflationary economy the Administration may tolerate a moderate increase in unemployment.

The "breadwinner" should not be greatly affected by this, but Babson's Reports looks for the teenager and the housewife out supplementing family income to feel the pinch. Overtime may be reduced, and there could be some reduction in the number of days worked.

Plant shutdowns predicted for the auto industry are an example of this slowdown. Also, labor unions may be restrained, to a degree, from obtaining really big hikes in wages at the bargaining table. Thus, while personal income should continue upward in 1969, Babson staff opinion is that it should be at a slower pace.

High School Equivalency Test Scheduled

Florida High School equivalency diploma tests will be given at 8:30 A.M., February 20 and 21 at Sebring in the courthouse.

Those who take the tests must be 20 years of age or older at the time of application, residents of the state, must have high school credit in American History and Government or demonstrate competency in these subjects by examination.

Candidates also must attain satisfactory standing on comprehensive examinations prescribed by the State Department of Education and must submit individual applications with essential personal data, education and training record.

There is a fee charged for the tests. Further information can be obtained from J. Homer Bible, general supervisor of Highlands County Schools.

County Engineers Call Hearing March 6

Apparently reacting to dissatisfaction of property owners, Army engineers have called a hearing here for 10 A.M. March 6 at Highlands County court house in connection with modifying the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control Project.

According to the announcement, the meeting is in particular reference to provisions for improvement of flood protection and water-level control in the Lake Istokpoga area.

Several meetings of landowners have been held protesting too-early lowering of the lake in the Spring.

"They want them to hold a higher lake level longer in the Spring," said Sam Polston, district conservations with the soil and water conservation service.

Polston said he has been at some of the meetings and that landowners are not happy with the pre-planned schedule—the expected rains in these last two Springs of drought haven't come along soon enough to fill up the lake properly after it's been lowered.

"I think this called meeting is a good thing," said Polston.

The hearing will be a public one at which landowners will be heard. It could result in a change in the programming of water raising and lowering.

In calling the hearing, the Army engineers explained:

"The original Central and Southern Florida Project proposed a levee along the South and southeast shores of Lake Istokpoga. Later studies found the most economical plan to be a system of canals without the levee to provide 10-year-flood protection. However, changes in land use and drainages and irrigation practices, conflicting interests of urban and agricultural groups and potential hurricane-tide damage to urban lands being developed around the lake have led local interests to request more suitable controls of the lake."

The purpose of the hearing, said Col. John McElhenny, district engineer, is "to discuss with local interest the flood control and related problems of this area and to receive their views relative to the need and feasibility of providing flood protection and water-level control."

All interested persons, including state, federal and county representatives, may make oral statements, but it is urged that for accuracy of record, all important facts and arguments be submitted in writing in quadruplicate since the records of the hearing will be forwarded to the Department of the Army.

County Economy Shows Healthy Progress

The Highlands County economy moved ahead in sturdy fashion in the four-year period since 1964, in line with advances made at the national level.

The progress was especially evident in the increased volume of business done by local retail stores, according to figures released by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

In the four years the sales volume in Highlands County retail stores rose from $34,513,000 to a total of $36,250,000. Part of this increase is attributed, of course, to higher prices for merchandise.

The overriding credit for the gain goes to the local consumer and to his ability and his willingness to spend freely.

Neither the talk of a possible recession, nor the hike in Federal taxes, nor the various national problems at home and abroad deterred him.

He spent confidently, with the feeling that he had a job he could count on, an income that was steadily rising and a future that was financially protected, thanks to pensions, health insurance and personal savings.

Related to the local population the retail sales were equivalent to spending at the rate of $4,354 per family, which was well over the $4,374 per family four years ago.

Nearly every branch of retail business shared in this growth. People bought more cars, more and better clothing, finer furniture, food, cosmetics, household equipment and electrical gadgets.

Directly affected were the 183 retail stores in the local area and the 1,009 people employed by them. Their payroll rose from $2,912,000 a year to $3,456,000 in the period.

With the beginning of the new year, the consensus among economists is that the American economy will continue on its upward course in 1969, as it has for the last eight years, but at a somewhat slower rate during the first few months.

Much depends upon the progress made in settling the Vietnam situation and upon putting the brakes on inflation, they say.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

NIXON STARTS OFF WELL

The Gallup poll-taking folks will take a poll on anything they think needs polling. They found out by asking around over the nation that twelve people like the way Nixon is going to where one does not. That makes me sick! Why not unanimous?

THE FRENCH FOUND GOD WAS NEEDED

I am glad I have read a lot of history. A person who does not have a good knowledge of history should not be allowed to vote in a country that is ruled by the masses. (I some times think it should be spelled "Them asses!" The history of the world is made up, to a large extent, by the story of efforts made by people to rule themselves, and though that story is the record of those efforts were made in vain because of the ignorance of the people themselves.

The French people, got so disgusted with the combined rule of kings and priests that they rose in their wrath, killed the king, queen, a lot of fat-bellied priests and nobles and publicly declared God was dead, and elected a lovely harlot "Goddess of Reason." The resulting saturnalia of crime and debauchery was so terrible that the National Assembly decided a mistake had been made somewhere. One old wise member made a motion that France should revoke the law outlawing God and let religion come back. The gentleman said, "If there is no God, it behooves us to make one!"

The past eight or ten years has seen the United States following in the path of the French Revolutionists; God has been taken out of the schools, books circulate declaring God is dead, crime has been allowed to run loose without let or hindrance. We might do like France did; if there is no God, we'd better create one!

PARIS — "A new outbreak of disorders at the Sorbonne and other schools — Red flags and black flags of revolution ar anarchy were raised—"

SPEAKING ABOUT LIMERICKS

Well, it's partly the shape of the thing
That makes the old limerick swing.
Those accordion pleats
Full of airy conceits
Take it up like a kite on a string.

—oo—

Pray search the whole land with a glimmer-stick
For there must be some lad at his primer quick,
Who, when pressed, can supply
A lot better than I
An acceptable rhyme scheme for Limerick.

—Elmo Calkins

—oo—

I'm bored to extinction with Harrison;
His limericks and puns are embarrassing'.
But I'm fond of the bum,
For, dull as they come,
He makes me feel bright by comparison!

—oo—

The Limerick is furtive and mean;
You must keep her in close quarantine,
Or she sneaks to the slums
And promptly becomes Disorderly, drunk and obscene.

—Morris Bishop

—oo—

No matter how grouchy you're feeling,
You'll find that a limerick is healing.
It grows in a wreath
All around your front teeth,
And thus keeps the face from congealing.

—oo—

There was a young jaster named Gwinn,
Who was so exceedingly twinn
That when he essayed
To drink lemonade,
He slipped thru the straw and fell inn.

almost 25 per cent over the previous year, Holway continued. "As a matter of fact, we handled 4,072,645 information calls in 1968." Holway noted that a puzzling aspect of this service is that the majority of numbers requested are already listed in the telephone directories.

Holway reiterated the fact that the primary responsibility of the directory assistance service is to provide the customers with numbers that do not appear in the directory, because the listing is new or has been changed.

Key Club To Have Program

Key Club is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Your Social Security

Question—I have a lady who works for me in my home one day a week. She works for someone else three days a week and they take out social security taxes. She says I don't have to report her wages. Is she right?

Answer—No. It makes no difference how many employers she works for. Each employer, if he pays her $50 in cash wages in a calendar quarter, must report these wages. There are 13 weeks in a quarter, and if you pay her at least $4 per day she would earn over the $50.

Question — Why do domestic workers have to pay social security taxes when they don't make much money anyhow?

Answer — Domestic workers need social security protection for old age or disability, and protection for their families in event of their death, the same as any other worker.

Question — I frequently hire cleaning women by the day, but not always the same one. During the quarter I paid one of them $22, another $75, and still another one $78, and still another one $10. Must I pay taxes on all of them?

Answer—No. You are required to file a report and pay the tax only if you pay a person $50 in cash wages in a calendar quarter, so, you would only pay taxes on the $75. No report is necessary and no taxes are paid on the other two since they were paid less than $50 in cash wages during the quarter.

Question—We recently hired a yard man who is 65 years old and is receiving social security checks. He says I'm not supposed to take out social security taxes from his pay. Is he right?

Answer — No. Earnings from work in or around a private home must be reported if they amount to $50 cash wages or more, in a calendar quarter. It doesn't matter how old the employee is.

Patricia Furr, Betty Crocker Homemaker

Patricia A. Furr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Furr has been named 1969 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Avon Park High on the basis of her score in a written knowledge and attitude test on homemaking given senior girls here December 2.

Patricia's achievement has made her eligible for state and national scholarships. She also has been awarded a specially designed silver charm from General Mills, sponsor of the Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow.

A state Homemaker of Tomorrow and runner-up will be selected from the winners of the schools in the state. The state winner will receive a $1,500 college scholarship, and her school will be awarded a complete set of the Encyclopaedia Britannica by Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc. The runner-up will earn a $500 educational grant.

The Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow from this state, together with those from all other states and the District of Columbia, each accompanied by a school advisor, will join in an expense paid educational tour of Washington, D. C., and Colonial Williamsburg, Va., next spring.

The national winner — the 1969 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow — will be announced at an American Table dinner in Williamsburg. The choice will be on the basis of her original test score plus personal observation and interviews during the tour, and her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. Second, third, and fourth ranking Homemakers of Tomorrow in the nation will have their original scholarship grants increased to $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 respectively.

This is the 15th year of the Betty Crocker Search, initiated in 1954-55 by General Mills to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career. More than six million senior girls have participated in the Search program since its inception, and 1,460 winners will have earned scholarships totaling $1,591,500 at the conclusion of the current program.

The 620-564 girls from 15,116 schools registering for the 1969 Betty Crocker Search established a new record for the program.

Former Highlands Sheriff To Investigate Cattle Thefts for State

BROWARD COKER

Commissioner of Agriculture Doyle Conner today announced the appointment of Broward Coker, former sheriff of Highlands County, as chief livestock theft investigator for the Florida Department of Agriculture.

Commissioner Conner, commented that Coker, who retired last month after 20 years as sheriff in Highlands County, will be responsible for developing a program to cut losses to Florida cattlemen estimated at $3.5 million per year.

The Florida Cattlemen's Association, in making that estimate of the loss in cattle through theft, vandalism and wanton slaying of livestock, said cattlemen are losing 125 head of cattle per week. Cattle rustling is on the increase; the association estimated net losses on the preceding year at $2.5 million.

"This job is going to be a decided challenge," Coker commented, "and I hope to work with other law enforcement agencies and the cattlemen to do something about rustling."

The Department of Agriculture's road guard service mans stations on major highways to look out for trucks carrying stolen stock. It also has roving road guards moving about little-traveled roads seeking to clamp down on cattle thieves.

Two men are now under $26,000 bond on charges of cattle theft and the Federal Bureau of Investigation is probing the interstate movement of stolen cattle from Florida. The case was first reported by a Department of Agriculture Road Guard Service inspector.

Coker, as sheriff of a cattle county, said he has had some experience with rustlers and agreed that part of the problem is because the cattle are generally out in the country with not many people around to keep an eye on them.

Thieves have been known to cut fences in remote pastures, drive trucks into the fields, slaughter cattle and load the meat into the trucks during the hours of darkness and vanish without a trace.

There was some recent speculation that organized crime had a hand in cattle rustling. The Mafia, it was said, used stolen meat in the kitchens of restaurants it controls on the Lower East Coast.

Conner scoffed at that theory: "You just don't butcher a Florida range cow and serve the meat in a Miami restaurant." That's because grass-fed beef does not taste the same as beef dressed out in the Corn Belt, or in closely tended Florida feed lots.

Coker said he will have only a small staff and will rely on cooperation with local law enforcement agencies to plan the attack on rustlers.

One of the founders of the Florida Sheriff's Bureau (now the Florida Law Enforcement Bureau), Coker has been engaged in law enforcement since January 3, 1933, except for 44 months service in the Army during World War II.

He was a Highlands County deputy from 1933 to January 1949, when he took office as sheriff and served in that post 20 years.

Coker, 61, served as a platoon sergeant in a self-propelled tank destroyer battalion, entering the Army in March 1942. After the Battle of the Ardennes Forest, he served the same outfit as first sergeant, receiving an honorable discharge in January, 1945. He is a graduate of DeSoto High School and attended various police schools and seminars.

In addition to helping found the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, he was a founder of the Florida Sheriff's Boys Ranch.

Coker and his wife Betty have moved from their home in Sebring to 736 E. Tennessee Street, Tallahassee. He will be headquartered in Tallahassee, working out of the Division of Animal Industry in the Nathan Mayo Building.

Conner said Coker soon will be in touch with local law enforcement people to set up a plan of enforcement and he is relying on Coker to head one of the most effective anti-rustling programs in the nation. If it is indicated, the commissioner said additional legislation will be sought to clamp down on rustlers.

Coker's long association with Florida's county sheriffs and his good rapport with the cattle industry should assist in providing an effective anti-rustling program, the commissioner added.

Panthers Will Play Here Monday Night

By COACH TERRELL

The basketball season is ending in a rush for South Florida College Panthers as they met Brevard the number one team of Division III Tuesday night, will meet the Edison Junior College Thursday and will end their season Monday night against Manatee Junior College at the Avon Park gym.

Thursday night, at the Sebring High gym, the Panthers will take on the Edison Bucs. The Bucs have a one two punch in Neilson, a flashy guard that has already caught the attention of the Magicians, a pro basketball team and big 6'7" Luther Adams. The Panthers met Edison in December and came off on the short end of an 89 to 87 score. Since that time the Bucs have managed to stay in second place in Division IV while the Panthers have sixth place in Division III.

Monday night the Panthers will close the season as they host the Manatee Lancers. Manatee won 86 to 69 in Manatee.

The Panthers, who continue to show improvement with each game, gained sweet revenge for an early season defeat at the hands of Lake Sumter as the Panthers won an exciting 81 to 80 game to spoil the Lakers homecoming.

The Panthers trailed 43 to 41 at halftime. In the second half, Jeff Asher, sharp shooting Panther guard, bombed the nets for 15 points to pace the Panther attack. Larry Allen chipped in with three field goals and 11 free throws for 17 points as did Ron White with six field goals and five free throws. Smith with 13, Marovich, eight, Dixon, four, and Starratt, one completed the Panther scoring.

Fewer Firearm Accidents in '68

There were fewer firearms casualties but more fatal accidents in 1968 than a year previously, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission reported.

Gun accidents resulted in 251 casualties during the year and of these 68 were fatal.

Of the total casualties, 113 were self inflicted. Four victims were mistaken for game. Three were shot hunting deer, four hunting turkey. A total of 110 accidents occurred in the home or yard.

A total of 21 resulted from cleaning a gun, 22 from horse play, 11 were hit by stray shots, and 18 didn't know the gun was loaded. Seventeen were hurt just examining a gun.

County Makes Strides In Fashions

Highlands General Hospital ended its 1968 fiscal year in the unusual position of making money—$39,081 to be exact.

According to the hospital annual audit filed with the Highlands County Commissioners, the hospital revenue for last year totaled $924,651—$852,006 directly from patient services.

Total operating expense for the year was $885,570.

The hospital tax district collected $127,935 for the year. Of this $8,683 went for tax collection fees nad $29,000 for debt retirement. The hospital received $93,252, or 12 per cent of its current operating budget, from county taxes.

W. Harold O'Neal, hospital administrator, says "good experience with collection from patients," keeps the hospital books in the black.

He points out that 87 per cent of the revenue for last year came directly from patients. One per cent of the budget came from other sources such as memorial gifts.

"Medicare accounts for a good percentage of the patient income in a year," O'Neal said. "A total of 61.87 per cent of our patients last year were over 65 years of age.

"Medicare assures prompt payment, but it does not pay the total cost of hospital care for a patient," the Administrator said.

Last year the Medicare payments to Highlands General Hospital totaled $57,221.

Indigent care, a serious drain on many hospitals, cost $26,900 last year. Welfare agencies contract with the hospital for a flat per day fee for patient care. When actual care—drugs, operating room expense, therapy—costs more than the indigent patient fee, the hospital must absorb the difference.

Uncollected accounts for the year amounted to $17,359.

Wages Big Expense

Under the current operating costs the largest item is salaries. The audit showed $516,114 paid out in wages with $369,092 listed as professional care.

Supplies and other expenses came to $325,761, and depreciation cost $43,694.

In the income column, routine service for semi-ward care accounts for the largest chunk of cash—$270,445 last year. Newborn care brought in only $1,983. Private room care came to $76,135 and intensive care cost patients came to $38,829 in the "routine service" column and another $2,389 under "special services."

Operating room fees brought in $29,260; anesthesiology, $24,324; laboratory, $89,722; electrocardiography, $27,622; radio isotope, $1,748; delivery room, $2,825; radiology, $86,913; medical and surgical supplies, $35,115; physical therapy, $2,531; drug charges, $122,521; oxygen, $26,679 (including $1 for outpatient care).

Of these total charges $809,753 came from in-patients, and $29,291 from out-patients.

40 Patients Per Day

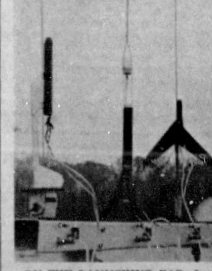

In the 1967-68 year the hospital averaged 40.3 patients per day or for the whole year was 68 per cent occupied. The total number of patients was 2,027 who received a total of 14,762 days of care.

O'Neal said the total figures for the year are a "little confusing. "He points out that in mid-Winter the hospital may be crowded, but in the Summer there may be several days when the hospital has vacant beds.

The total value of the hospital plant, according to the audit, is $1,466,740. Outstanding bonds total $721,000.

Over 3 Million In Banks At End of Year

Highlands County ofices nao more than three and three-quarters million dollars in bank deposits on December 31, 1968, according to a report released by the state comptroller.

The state-wide release showed a total of nearly a billion dollars for the county governmental agencies and Junior colleges.

The junior college total was $50,045,000, and the county offices' totals came to $886,148,000.

The Highlands County reported total was $3,807,000. The largest share of this would be for Highlands County School Board. The county commission total would include $63,975 in a special account to cover a year's payments on the race track tax certificates of indebtedness.

At this time of year the deposits of the tax collector are large—W. H. Prescott reported an expected high mark of $1,200,000 for the month of January.

Deputy Commission Clerk Jim Pyle pointed out the comptroller report is "a little misleading" since the report shows the highest level of deposits for a month and does not take into account checks outstanding or that the same money may show in two accounts. For example, money in a tax collector deposit at the first of the month may end the month in a school board account.

Here's Advice To Motorists

While driving down a highway, you come upon a wrecked auto. Inside, an injured person is slumped over the steering wheel. How would you react to the situation?

According to Dr. J. Dillard Workman, of the Highlands Health Department, knowing what to do in a situation like this could possibly mean the difference between life and death.

"Stifle the urge to rush the accident victim to a hospital immediately," Dr. Workman says. "Moving a victim too hastily could be a fatal mistake."

You rarely need to worry about rushing an accident victim to a hospital if adequate care and first aid can be administered on the scene, he says.

Instead, Dr. Workman suggests "remain calm and see what you can do to comfort and aid the victims."

Many safety officials agree that in most auto accident cases, the few minutes gained do not make much difference in the ultimate outcome.

Also, a high-speed, jarring ride to a hospital through traffic could increase physical shock to the victim or result in a second accident causing additional injuries.

Your first concern should be to stop serious bleeding if there is any," Dr. Workman says.

Cuts around the face or scalp will bleed profusely because of the rich blood supply of these areas. By applying pressure with a clean cloth or tissues, bleeding can be controlled.

If the cut involves one of the main arteries, however, such as in the arm, wrist, finger, leg or foot, bleeding can best be compressed by using a tourniquet.

"But," Dr. Workman cautions, "it must not be left in place longer than 15 minutes without relaxing at the point where it is tied."

Once the bleeding is under control, a drive "at a reasonable speed to the nearest hospital or doctor's office" could save a person's life, he adds.

WELFARE PAYMENTS

JACKSONVILLE—The Florida Department of Public Welfare provided financial assistance to 274,448 aged and handicapped persons in January to help cover primarily the cost of decent shelter, nourishing food, and adequate clothing. In Highlands County 1,473 persons received $44,612.

Meeting Of Retired Teachers

The Regular Luncheon Meeting of the Highlands County Teacher's Association was held at the Circle Cafeteria in Sebring, Feb. 6th. Among the honored guests were Mr. W. Worthington, President of the State Retired Teacher's Chapter of F. E. A., and Mrs. Grace Stephens, Chairman of the Legislative Committee. These key speakers brought to the attention of the group some of the deficiencies now existing in present legislation and made recommendations for the 1969 Legislative Session.

Of the 7,400 Retired Teachers now in the state, 2,385 of them were born on or before 1904. Three hundred and eighty five of this number received no increase as did the others, because of a restrictive clause. Also there are some teachers among the Retired Teacher's Association who taught when salaries were very low who are faced with the rise in the cost of living and today find their pension insufficient. For this reason the Retired Teachers will be requesting a "Cost of Living" increase. Other recommendations will be (1) Provide that retired Teachers may take at least one course each term at our State Universities or Junior Colleges without payment of Fees (2) Add a retired teacher to the board of trustees of the Teachers Retirement System (3) Provide that retired teachers who do substitute teaching be able to qualify for social security income. (4) The Legislature should make larger contributions to the reserve of the Retirement System.

Robert King Provided Information On Sign Found at Golf Course

Thank you for your interest expressed in the unidentified sign which is on display in this office. Pictures were published last week in the Avon Park Sun and in the Herald Advocate weekly newspapers.

These pictures with accompanying stories have caused much comment and the result has been that we have been able to identify the sign.

Robert R. King, local Realtor, and former owner-operator of the Jacaranda Hotel was the first to give us information as to the origin of the sign. It seems that about 1950 King also for one season operated the Pinecrest Lake Country Club and Hotel (now the Highlands School for Girls). Guests of the hotel at that time were a Mr. Cunningham and a Mr. Dreyfus. Becoming tired of the walk necessary from the Hotel via the public road to the first tee of the Pinecrest Golf Course they constructed a foot bride across the canal between the hotel and the first tee. The sign was erected more or less as a gag.

With the wording of the sign it certainly seemed official and we thought perhaps it had historical interest. However, with the above explanation it seems that the interest is of a local nature only. Again, please accept our thanks for your interest.

J. R. Duggan Leads In Insurance Sales

J. R. "Jack" Duggan, was recently awarded a citation for being the Leading Agent in 1968 in the Lakeland, Florida District.

The General Agents and Managers Association of Polk County held a dinner meeting at the Ramada Inn on Wednesday of last week to honor the Leading Agent of each company.

Mr. Duggan had an outstanding record and qualified for Metropolitan's President's Award. Duggan will celebrate his nineteenth anniversary with Metropolitan in August of this year. He and his wife reside at 67 North Highlands Avenue, Avon Park.

Disabled Vets Organize DAV Chapter

For the first time the disabled veterans of Highlands, Hardee, DeSoto, and South Polk Counties will unite to form a new chapter of the DAV, a national organization devoted to serving the needs and problems of all disabled American veterans who have from 0% to 100% service-connected disabilities from either World War, the Korean conflict, or the Vietnam action.

The need for such an area chapter to be located centrally at Avon Park was foreseen by Don Roussey, past district commander of the Florida DAV, who is presently the resident service officer at Bay Pines Veterans Hospital in St. Petersburg. He invites all qualified veterans to support the DAV plans by attending the first meeting to organize on Thursday evening, Feb. 20, at 7:30 P.M. in the Florida Power Company Lounge at 600 W. Main St., Avon Park.

It is very important that every disabled veteran be on hand to discuss not only the organizational plans but to learn of new national laws which the DAV helped to establish that benefit veterans such as the considerable increase in compensation that just began on January 1.

Other related problems will be discussed also by Mr. Roussey and several other DAV officials who are coming to Avon Park just for this special purpose. It can be said that every veteran with any degree of service-connected disability has much to gain by attending this meeting, so be sure to come and bring along any qualified veteran buddies who might not hear about these plans.

Please contact Melvin Oft at Avon Park GL 3-6552 if you have any questions or are interested but cannot attend for some reason. Mailing address is Rt. 2, Box X443, Avon Park.

Commission Changes Time For Meeting

Highlands County Commissioners have resigned from their "early bird" role. For several years the commissioners have commenced their meetings at 8 A.M., but beginning Tuesday, Feb. 18, the regular meetings will start at 9 A.M.

At the meeting Tuesday Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield introduced a motion that the meeting time should be on first and third Tuesdays with meetings to begin at 9 in the morning. The motion passed unanimously, without debate.

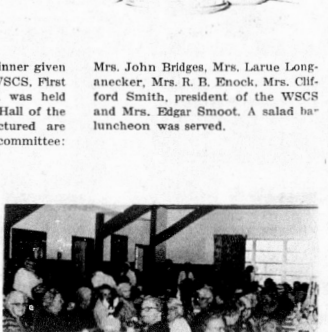

Reporters and members of the audience at Tuesday's meeting asked to be included in the record as voting in favor of the time change.

Interest at 5½% on a $12,000 house for a 40 year span equals $17,708.00 or 148% of the price of the house. (For 30 years, $12,528, and for 20 years, $7,811).

Local Man Low Amateur Golf Winner

John Parsons, resident of Avon Park, playing out of the Avon Park Golf Club was first place winner in the Amateur Division Pageant Golf event held last weekend at the Edison Pageant of Light in Fort Myers. He had a total of 144 for the two-day event and received a trophy and $100 in merchandise certificates. Parsons lead was never challenged during the final round as he won the A Division by five shots.

An estimated 3,000 people watched the action on Sunday, which was played under bright sunny skies, but with high winds prevailing throughout most of the day.

SIX TABLES were decorated according to the months representing the birthdays of the individuals. Birthday cakes were centered on each table. Mrs. Thomas Clarke had charge of the program.

Fewer Elected Officials Conduct Gov't Operations

How many elected officials are there in Highlands County, conducting local government operations?

How many are there, by way of comparison, in other localities across the country?

According to a special governmental study, the number of elected officials serving the local area is smaller than in most communities.

It lists a total of 43 such officials, or approximately 17 per 10,000 population, who hold elective office locally.

This is less than in most parts of the United States, where the average number in elective positions is 26 for every 10,000 people.

For the Southern States, the figures show 16 such officials per 10,000 and, in the State of Florida, eight.

The findings are detailed by the Department of Commerce in its new Census of Governments, the first it has conducted since 1962.

All told, according to the survey, there are 508,720 officials who are elected throughout the United States to run local government operations. Some 4,716 of them are functioning in Florida communities.

The totals are much higher in the North Central States than in other sections of the country. Although they have a population equal to only 28 per cent of the national, they have 48 per cent of the elected officials on their payrolls.

The situation is quite different in the South, which contains 31 per cent of the population but operates with only 19 per cent of the country's elected officials.

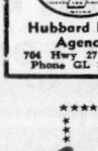

One reason given for this small number is the fact that school districts in the South are organized in terms of larger areas than elsewhere and are generally administered by boards that are appointed rather than elected.

Also, the South does not go in for township governments such as exist in most other parts of the country.

Of the 43 persons who are holding down elective office in Highlands County, there are 13 serving the county itself, 20 who are with local municipalities, five with school districts and five with special districts.

The total has been adjusted in cases where officeholders are connected with more than one branch of government.

THE CAREFREE ALL-ELECTRIC MOBILE HOME!

Mobile homes have come a long way from yesterday's cramped, utilitarian trailer. They're spacious, decorator-styled, and all-electric . . . providing clean, safe, flameless heating and cooling, cooking and refrigeration, water heating and garbage disposer. Therefore they give you the utmost in modern easy care, convenience, and comfort. That means built-in leisure . . . more time to enjoy the beautiful settings, recreational facilities, and congenial neighbors of today's mobile home parks.

Isn't carefree living the key reason you're interested in a mobile home? So the last word in mobile homes is all-electric. That makes it the best investment—an idea to consider from

Junior Scout Cadets Plant Seedlings

Two thousand pine seedlings were planted by Girl Scouts in "Operation Tree Planting" at the Avon Park Bombing Range Saturday. This reforestation project was planned for the Girl Scouts by Lt. C. E. McMerrill, forester.

The approximately 100 girls participating were taken by Air Force bus and private cars to the Bombing Range, and then to the field which was to be planted. With the help of a number of Air Force personnel, the 30-some teams, composed of three girls each, planted 2000 North Florida Slash Pine seedlings.

These seedlings are a year old and are 18 inches long. When planted, only four inches of the seedling is visible above the ground. The proper method of planting was demonstrated and with a little practice the girls mastered the technique.

A heavy tool, called a "dibble," is used to make the hole deep enough for the long tap root. After all the trees were planted, the Scouts were taken to a campsite on Lake Arbuckle where three Senior Girl Scouts had prepared a hot meal for the tree planters. Lt. McMerrill gave a short lecture on the importance of conservation and he outlined the planting and harvesting program being followed at the Bombing Range. The girls were fascinated with the fact that all their trees will have been harvested in 80 years and the area replanted again—by their great grand-daughters perhaps.

This is the second year this reforestation project has been undertaken by the Jacaranda Neighborhood. Troops making up this neighborhood are Brownie Troops 67, 140, 143; Junior Troops 206, 305; and Cadette Troop 117. The Senior Scouts who planned, shopped for, cooked, and served the meal were Sue Ferguson, Donnell Brassell, and Barbara Flowers. Senior Cathy James worked as a Program Aide.

The leaders of these troops are to be commended for making this day possible for their girls. Where else but in Girl Scouting can one find busy, young women who care enough for girls to give up their Saturday to plant trees in a far away four acres of the Bombing Range?

The ratio of female to male alcoholics in the U. S. A. has been narrowed to one-to-one, says Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program. In Switzerland, the ratio is one out of 12; in Norway it is one out of 23.

Mrs. R. Moffett Gives Lecture To Church Group

Mrs. Robert Lee Moffett, an internationally known lecturer who has traveled in more than 65 countries of the world and lectured in many of them has been meeting with church groups and holding fireside chats at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Amin Jazab, resident doctor at the APCI, where she has been a guest. She gave her last fireside chat at the home on Tuesday and has now returned North, to her home in DeMoine, Iowa.

She spoke at the Union Congregational Church last Tuesday evening. On Thursday, Feb. 6, at 7:30 P.M. at the staff training building, ending with a fireside chat Tuesday, Feb. 11.

Ash Wednesday Starts Lent February 19

Family ties may be stronger at Christmas—often louder, too.

BAHÁ Ú LLÁH

the Founder of the Bahai Faith says:

O contending peoples and kindreds of the earth! Set your faces towards unity, and let the radiance of its light shine on you. Gather ye together, and for the sake of God resolve to root out whatever is the source of contention amongst you. Then will the effugence of the world's great Luminary envelop the whole earth, and its inhabitants become the citizens of one city, and the occupants of one and the same throne. Arise and, armed with the power of faith, shatter to pieces the gods of your vain imaginings, the sowers of dessension amongst you. Cleave unto that which draweth you together and unto it invite you.

Pancake Day Shrove Tuesday At Redeemer

Grapefruit, pancakes and sausage, and coffee, will be served by the ladies of the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer in Avon Park on Shrove Tuesday, Feb. 18, from 7:30 A.M. until 2:00 P.M.

The ladies have been doing this for many years and it has become a traditional part of the life of Avon Park. The recipe is an old family one that produces real enjoyment.

In spite of the general rise in prices you will still be able to get all you want for $1.25 per adult and 75c per child — same as last year.

There will also be a counter of home-made delicacies from the favorite recipes of the E. C. W. members.

So plan to come with your friends or meet them at the Church of the Redeemer Parish Hall on N. Verona Avenue.

The Bible Speaks To You On Radio

HERBERT J. RUTHERFORD was killed instantly Thursday morning when his car was hit by a Seaboard Coastline freight train at the crossing on West Bell Street in Avon Park.

HEW Lawyers Seeking More Time To Prepare Case Against Schools

Delay is a game two can play—Highlands School Board is learning.

When the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare began administrative proceedings against the school board, for alleged non-compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964, schoolmen here counted on the slow pace of legal machinery to get them through much of the current school year.

But Highlands County School Board won the first round of hearings, and the hearing officer ordered the administrative proceedings dropped. The appeal is coming from the HEW lawyers.

At its February meeting the Highlands school board learned that HEW lawyers are seeking their third extension of time to prepare an appeal. Superintendent of Schools George F. Douglass said he assumes the extension—to February 22—will be granted.

School Board Attorney Frank E. Bryant has requested the right to make oral argument if and when an appeal is filed.

On the whole, Douglass told the school board, the delays asked by HEW "are to our advantage." So long as the legal machines are grinding the flow of federal funds into this county's school programs will continue. At the beginning local schoolmen had feared funds might be terminated in midterm.

Not only are funds still coming, but administrators have been informed that this county has been removed from the "deferred list" of school districts which cannot be considered for new programs.

But the delay in getting a final settlement has its thorny side too—it is a big block in the future plans process.

Most serious charge against the Highlands school board is that it operates "small and inadequate schools" used exclusively by Negro children. The hearing officer interpreted this as applying to Hopewell Elementary and Junior High in Avon Park, E. O. Douglas Elementary and Junior High in Sebring.

Detailed planning for 1969-70 is held up. A possible HEW appeal outcome could be to close Hopewell and Douglas completely or it might be that these schools can continue to operate if all the inadequate facilities are eliminated and only the good classrooms at Hopewell and Douglas used.

At the February meeting the school board learned that area supervising principals — Aubrey Morris of Lake Placid, Billy Cason of Sebring and Guy Garrett of Avon Park—are working on class schedules for next year.

Garrett and Cason will face very serious space problems if the HEW appeal ends with complete closing of all-Negro schools ordered. The junior and senior high schools will have problems—with or without the closing of all-Negro schools.

Douglass said Thursday night that the most probable solution for the Sebring and Avon Park problems will be use of the school buildings for more class hours each day.

Members of the audience, including officers of Highlands County Education Association, present at the school board meeting professed keen interest and complete bewilderment at the variety of solutions Douglass quickly outlined. Everyone agreed specific planning will have to wait on the HEW appeal.

Irene Maxcy Wells Arrested Monday On Perjury Charges

Newlywed Irene Maxcy Wells was free on $25,000 bond today after her arrest Monday on perjury charges in connection with the second trial of her former lover, John J. Sweet, convicted of the for-hire murder of her third husband, Charles Von Maxcy.

A Polk County grand jury on Friday indicted Mrs. Wells, now of Deerfield Beach, for perjury. The penalty could be as severe as the life imprisonment sentence handed Sweet with his conviction in November.

Mrs. Wells was surrendered by her attorney, Fred Saussy, of Tampa, at 2:30 P.M. Monday to Polk County Sheriff Monroe Brannen in Bartow. It was three weeks to the day of her January 28 marriage to Jerome Wells in Georgia.

Mrs. Maxcy and Saussy went together with Brannen to the jail where she was booked on the charges. The Padgett Bonding Company of Bartow posted the bond to secure her release.

Only Took 10 Minutes

The appearance at Polk County's handsome new jail in Bartow took only 10 minutes. Sgt. Donald Smith, booking officer, said Mrs. Maxcy chatted casually, "seemed very normal." She and Saussy left immediately.

State's Attorney Glen Darty, who obtained the conviction against Sweet last November, obtained the indictment against Mrs. Wells. Only witnesses before the grand jury were Roma Trulock, investigator for the old Florida Sheriff's Bureau, who broke the Maxcy case in May of 1967 and testified at both trials, and court reporters Rosa Sclafani and Emily Mann.

Declared Darty: "It was a parent at the second trial that the testimony conflicted with that given at the first trial."

Darty said the indictment has been certified to the Criminal Court of Record. It now is up to the county solicitor to file a criminal information to which she will plead. This could take about two months. Judge J. H. Wilson, who took the jury's report, certified the indictment.

If she pleads not guilty, the case will go before either Judge Roy Amidon or Judge Tom Langston in Criminal Court of Record.

Trial 4-6 Months

In the ordinary course of events, depending on the court load, the case could go to trial within four to six months.

Darty emphasized that the two cases—those of Sweet and the one against Mrs. Maxcy — are not tied together. In the words of one of the court attaches—"this is a new ball game."

The indictment charging Mrs. Wells with perjury specifies that she "did willfully, knowingly, falsely and feloniously and corruptly testify to and before the court and jury" on November 1, 1968, during the second Sweet trial.

The alleged perjured testimony concerned the disposition of money which the state successfully claimed was paid by the then Mrs. Maxcy to Sweet for use in hiring killers to dispose of Maxcy.

An excerpt from court records included in the indictment for perjury notes a statement by Mrs. Wells saying:

"Well, I took $5,000, gave Harry Lee $20,000 and went to the bank and put $5,000 in there, and I got a thousand dollars out to give to Mr. Sweet that I owed. And Mr. Trulock told me not to say anything about that at the other trial."

The indictment alleges that Mrs. Wells did not give Sweet $1,000 of $5,000 she had earlier put into a bank account and that Trulock had not informed the woman that she should not talk about the money during trial proceedings.

She Was Chief Witness

Mrs. Wells was the prosecution's chief witness at both of Sweet's trials, although at the second trial last November in which her balding lover was convicted, she was a reluctant one. She had been granted immunity in exchange for her testimony. The charges of perjury are not covered by the prosecution immunity granted earlier. If she is convicted of perjury in a capital case, which this is, Mrs. Wells could face a sentence as heavy as life imprisonment.

Sweet currently is free under $50,000 bond pending proceedings before the Second District Appeals Court in Lakeland.

Reached at his modest apartment on Commerce Street in Sebring, he had a "no comment" on the arrest of his former mistress. He has steadily insisted she perjured herself.

Methany Complains Of Litterbugs

"If I could have my way I'd charge a fee of 10 cents a can on every can of beer sold and turn the money over to the county to pay for picking up the cans," County Commission Chairman Jean M. Whitaker said Tuesday.

The chairman's frustrated outburst came as a part of a discussion of litter problems brought before the commission this week by Harley Methany of Avon Park. Methany complained he had paid for "three-quarters of a day's work by a bulldozer last week just to clean up the trash dumped on me."

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee explained the state has an anti-liter law but enforcement is difficult because the offending litter-bugs must be caught in the act.

Sheriff Joe Keene said if proof of the origin of the trash is located he will talk with the responsible persons "but that is about the best we can do unless we actually catch them in the act."

Whitaker said trash dumping is a big problem in the county with drink cans contributing a major portion of the litter.

Class B Basketball Tournament Schedule To Open Here

The Avon Park Red Devils moved to a 9-9 mark last week as they surprised the Alva quintet with a 64-62 win and then dropped a game to the Santa Fe Hawks in Lakeland last Friday night.

Last Tuesday the Devils were scheduled to meet Lake Placid for their last home game of the season and will travel to Fort Meade tomorrow night (Friday) for a return match with the Miners. Next Monday night the Red Devils will close out the regular season play with a game in Wauchula against the Hardee High Wildcats.

Next Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Class B Group 13 tournament will open here at the high school gym with a single game. Starting at 6:30 P.M. two more games will be played Thursday night. Pairings for the meet will be set this Wednesday night.

The Avon Park 64-62 win over Alva on the losers home court was a real thriller. With only a few seconds left on the scoreboard Alva led by one point and had control of the ball but called a time-out. The time-out was one too many and the Alva five drew a technical foul. Devil Donald Sizemore stepped up to the free shot line and cooly sank the free shot to tie the game up 62-62. Then the Devils got the ball out of bounds at mid-court because of the technical foul and Sizemore drove straight in for a two-point lay-up to give Avon Park the lead. Alva tossed the ball in and charged down the court trying to hit a last second shot but the player committed an offensive foul and Avon Park took possession and held on to win the game.

Don Sizemore hit 14 of 15 free shots and 6 field goals to score 26 points for the winning Devils. Charles Magenheimer had 14 counters, Don Strange hit for 12 points, Joe Hardy had 3 points, and Clyde Sumbry add-

Our Men in D.C.

With the 91st Congress in session, the evaluations on how our representatives to that august body voted during the 90th session are in.

Americans for Constitutional Action who work to elect constitutional conservatives rate Cong. Paul Rogers 91%, Sen. Ed Gurney 95% and our former representative James Haley 100%.

The National Associated Businessmen who work to get government out of competition with private enterprise rate Rogers 100%, Gurney 100% and Haley 100%.

Attendance records at the 90th listed Rogers at 95%, Gurney 43% and Haley 91%. Of the Florida delegation, Charles Bennett of Jacksonville had the highest attendance record—100%—and Gurney and Sid Herlong of Pinellas the lowest—43%.

The committee assignments for the 91st have Rogers on Commerce and merchant marine, our old friend Haley on veterans affairs and interior.

The record of the 90th shows Rogers, Gurney and Haley solidly aligned against the bill to remove the gold reserve requirement for currency which passed, 250-171; the foreign aid bills, all three of which passed.

The three approved the anti-crime bill, which passed, and the amendment denying federal funds to student rioters.

Haley and Rogers, voted "yes" on the consumer protection bill requiring disclosure of actual interest rates on all loans, the auto insurance bill, authorizing study of the automobile insurance industry, and the congressional ethics bill, establishing a code of ethics and financial disclosure. These all passed. Gurney did not vote on these.

Rogers and Gurney voted for grants for state vocational education programs and for the house bill to ban mail order sales of guns.

We think on the whole our men in Washington voted the way a lot of us would have, had we been sitting in their seats.

In this new session of Congress, wouldn't it be a good idea if, on a controversial issue, we wrote a letter to tell them how we feel they should vote, instead of writing them later to complain if they voted in a way we disliked?

It doesn't take much time to sit down and write a letter and Uncle Sam carries it all the way to Washington for you for only six cents.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

The larger the annual income, the bigger the chance that the subject drinks.

That's the conclusion reached by Dr. Harold A. Mulford, associate professor of Research for the Departments of Psychiatry and Sociology, and director of Alcoholism Studies at the University of Iowa.

Dr. Mulford in 1963 compiled some facts and figures which showed that only 54 percent of persons with annual incomes under $3,000 use alcohol. For those with incomes between $3,000 and $4,999 the percentage of those who drink jumps to 64 per cent; for those with incomes between $5,000 and $6,999 the figure is 68 per cent; for those with incomes between $7,000 and $9,999 the figure soars to 85 per cent; and for those with incomes of better than $10,000 the percentage of those who drink is 87 per cent.

Another interesting fact is that widowed people are less apt to drink than either their single, married, or divorced counterparts. Only 51 per cent of widowed people use alcohol. Among divorced persons, 69 per cent drink. Seventy-two per cent of married people drink, while those who are single imbibe most of all — 79 per cent!

Occupation-wise, laborers, private household workers, and janitors seem to drink the least, along with farmers, carpenters, and painters. Approximately 68 per cent of those in these occupations use alcohol. Among electricians, construction foremen, nurses, real estate and insurance agents secretaries and draftsmen the figure rises to about 84 per cent, and up to 87 per cent for college professors, scientists, and engineers. Among dentists, lawyers, judges, and physicians the percentage of those who drink is even higher.

Another of Dr. Mulford's studies revealed drinking habits according to religious preference. Those of the Jewish faith are most apt to drink, while Baptists are least likely to imbibe. Ninety per cent of the Jews were found to use alcohol to some extent. Among Catholics the figure was 89 per cent; among Lutherans 85 per cent; among Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Episcopalians 81 per cent; Methodists 61 per cent; and Baptists 48 per cent. The Baptist figure included Baptists in the North as well as Southern Baptists.

Interestingly enough, the percentage of persons who had formerly used alcohol but had quit drinking ranged from 2 per cent among those of the Jewish faith up to 11 per cent among the Baptists.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center at Avon Park is probably the most well-known segment of the state's alcoholism program. But don't forget that the Program also operates out-patient clinics in five key Florida cities—Miami, Tampa, Orlando, Jacksonville, and Pensacola.

Don't forget either that you can receive literature on alcoholism anytime — free and postpaid — by merely writing FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is Great Society Possible Now?

Is the Great Society dead—now that Lyndon Johnson has moved off the center of the stage?

Perhaps a better question would be: Was the Great Society, as propounded by LBJ, ever a really attainable objective? And a closely related question: Is a Great Society possible in this imperfect world?

"Real Great Society"

Without waiting for someone to step in with massive financial assistance, he set about, five years ago, to create what he calls "The Real Great Society."

He and a few others—who believed in helping themselves and others with what resources they had available—began to assist elementary school children in their neighborhood with reading and writing.

When people saw what these high-school young people were doing, they wanted to help them.

The Astor Foundation gave them $15,000, then followed this with two other grants of funds.

Now the young man, Angelo Giordani, who is a senior in college, is directing the operation of a school for drop-outs, where young people who have dropped out of the regular school system can study and attain a high-school equivalency diploma, fitting them for entrance into college.

"I'm interested in all people," Giordani says. However, his work has been primarily among Puerto Ricans because, as he puts it, "Where there's a weak segment of our society, we have to build up that part of it first."

"Love Thy Neighbor"

While Giordani calls his organization "The Real Great Society," it seems to be a manifestation of the commandment, "Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself."

While other dissatisfied young people are shutting down great institutions of learning with their divisive and disruptive tactics, here is a young man who is putting into the action the concern for others which is the foundation stone of real progress.

When will we learn that, far from being idealistic and unrealistic, Jesus' principles are the only sound basis for a really great society?

When the Master was asked, "Which is the great commandment," His reply was—you remember—"Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind."

"And," He added, "the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

When we have a Great Society, it will be built on this principle.

Massive hand-outs from the public treasury will not do it.

Destructive attacks on our system of higher education will not do it.

Following the commandments of the Master will bring about the Great Society.

When will this be done? You can start today to do your part.

Sweet Files Suits Against Irene Maxcy Wells

John J. Sweet has filed two suits in Circuit Court, one for $13,000, one for $750 against his former mistress, Irene Maxcy Wells, claiming she owes him money.

Sweet, free on $50,000 bond in the for-hire murder of Mrs. Wells' third husband, millionaire C. Von Maxcy, claims that about November 1, 1966, he entered into an oral agreement to undertake to manage her various business properties and business matters. It was understood, he claims, that he would be compensated at the rate of $25,000 per year.

He did this work, he said, until May 7, 1967, when he was arrested "to a large extent as a result of the efforts and testimony of the defendant before the law enforcement officials and grand jury of Highlands County."

He "performed all the services, ran errands, assisted in many personal matters and was not paid," the complaint states. A demand has been made on many occasions, to be paid, he said, at the rate agreed upon, but the defendant has refused and "is now indebted approximately $13,000."

A second suit asks $750. According to the complaint, Sweet and Mrs. Wells on January 28, 1966, entered into a declaration of trust. This appears in Highlands County official record book 271, page 514-15-16 and this is still in effect.

On or about January 10, 1967, says one complaint, arrangements were entered into whereby 320 acres of real property in the trust were sold or contracted to be sold to J. Hall. $2,500 was paid to Mrs. Wells, the suit states, and under the trust, Sweet is entitled to 30 per cent which he says she refuses to pay.

The suits were filed by Gibbons, Tucker, McEwen, Smith and Cofer. McEwen represented Sweet at both his trials for murder, the first ending in a hung jury, the second, last November, in a life sentence.

Florida Juvenile Boys School In Marianna Judges Inspect

Judge and Mrs. Mervin Rehrer, this past week attended the Winter Convention of the Florida Council of Juvenile Court Judges held in Tallahassee.

Judge Rehrer has served the Florida Juvenile Court Judges as their president since October of 1967. He is succeeded by Judge Don Stone, senior Dade County judge.

As part of the program the judges had their formal opening in the Florida bar center, following a tour of the bar center, they traveled by bus to Marianna where they had a first hand look at the Arthur Dozier School for Boys which has been the target of some criticism lately.

The entire day was devoted to a tour of the physical plant and then a session jointly programmed by the juvenile court judges and the division of youth services. The judges had several observations to make concerning the overall operation and philosophy of a proper detention facility and then by resolution, endorsed the program of the youth services division under the able directorship of Ollie J. Keller.

Fridays program was devoted to constitutional revision of the judiciary article, proposed new legislation and a review of the new proposed rules of procedure for the Florida juvenile courts.

Among the judiciary legislators and state dignitaries to attend and participate in the program were our own Representative Jim Tillman who spoke to the group on what we might expect in new legislation for 1969.

Senate President Jack Mathews was the Friday luncheon speaker and Senator R. Askew was the speaker for the banquet.

Judge Rehrer's personal friend of many years standing, Chief Justice Richard Ervin of the Florida Supreme Court spoke briefly at the banquet and installed the new officers for 1969-70. Justice Joe Boyd of the Supreme Court, also attended the reception and banquet.

The toastmaster for the banquet was Senator Richard Stone of Dade County with him was Representative Gantier of Dade also.

Others to respond to Judge Rehrer's invitation to attend the convention and meet the judges were: Lt.-Gov. Osborne, Comptroller Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, a former schoolmate of Judge Rehrers' and representatives from the offices of Commissioner Conner, Secretary Adams, and Treasurer Williams.

At the banquet Judge Rehrer was presented a beautiful placque in recognition of and appreciation for his serving as president of the council of Juvenile court judges for the past one and one-half years. He was highly praised by his fellow judges and by the Chief Justice of the Florida Supreme Court, for the able leadership and the forward thrust of the juvenile court program under his presidency and the programming of the conventions, all of which were reportedly instructive, constructive and educational.

Red Devils

ed 4 for the winning effort.

It was a different story in Lakeland last Friday night as Avon Park couldn't seem to find the basket and hit only 16 per cent of their field goals in the first period. The game ended up with Santa Fe winning 73-60 as the Red Devils played one of their worst games of the season. Strange led the scoring with 21 points. Sisemore had 18, Magenheimer hit for 10, Welch had 6, Sumbry had 4 and Hardy scored only 1. Santa Fe's Stanton and Higgins pumped in 20 points each behind Altenburger's 22 to swamp the Red Devils.

The Red Devil "B" team lost both games with Alva taking a 46-42 win to remain undefeated and Santa Fe winning by a score of 58 to 42.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Prospects for Industrial Prices

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., February 20. A central theme in recent discussions of the business situation has been the continued substantial uptrend in industrial prices. Inflationary pressures predominate in the various sensitive indices as well as in the Bureau of Labor's Index of Industrial Commodity Prices.

Where We Are

Industrial prices at wholesale as measured by the Bureau of Labor Statistics are more than 10 per cent above their 1957-59 base. Nearly one-third of this increase has occurred within the past year. Beginning in January 1968, moderate price upturns gave way to more widespread and cumulative movements.

Expanding demand for industrial raw materials and products gave a heavier upward push to prices. Such pressure was, of course, materially increased in the case of items in short, or even narrow, supply. Added to these influences was the impact of higher taxes such as the 10 per cent federal surcharge and the proliferation of state and local levies.

Burden of Rising Labor Costs

But there was also pressure stemming from the burden of rising labor costs. It is this latter force that has played a big role in recent advances in industrial prices. Time was when industrial prices included basic commodities and a moderate number of other items. Today industrial items include many more finished and semi-finished products.

The result is that a growing number of these industrial items are much less affected by fluctuations in the prices of their component raw materials than by changes — up or down — in unit manufacturing costs. In 1967, a number of important labor contracts came up for negotiations, and their settlements were costly to management and consumers. 1968 agreements were even more costly and their inflationary influence will be felt for quite some time to come.

Near-Term Outlook

We are convinced that industrial prices are more directly and more importantly influenced by trends in labor and other costs (including taxes in the totality of their impact) than by supply-demand rations and/or trends in quotes for industrial raw materials. Accordingly, the Babson's Report Research Staff forecasts higher industrial prices between now and midyear and probably beyond that point.

Still heavier expenditures for defense—plus larger total outlays be federal, state, and local governments combined—lie just ahead. These, together with advancing labor and transportation costs and expanding personal income will outweigh—for the time being at least — growing world supplies of raw materials and sharper competition from foreign producers of manufactured items. However, the near-term additional gains in industrial prices which we are predicting should be more moderate than those of 1968.

What To Do

The slower pace of price increases will derive more from forces already in motion as a result of past excesses in spending, etc., than from any massive new doses of inflationary fuel. Certainly, the Nixon Administration will try hard not to rock the boat. Hence, our hope is that the federal government will now be more of a stabilizing influence on prices than otherwise, but it is going to be difficult to keep the lid on.

Those readers who own industrial enterprises or are active in industrial management would be well advised to pursue rather conservative inventory policies on balance, not because prices are likely to decline soon but because the cost of carrying inventories is high and still rising. It just isn't good business to buy too far ahead to beat the gun on price boosts if—because of high money rates—it's going to cost you more than the difference to finance and store the overlarge inventory purchase.

Your Social Security

Question—I got a letter from the Lakeland social security office asking me if I wanted to sign up for Medicare and social security benefits. I am still working full time and do not plan to retire any time soon. Why should I sign up for Medicare and social security now?

Answer—You were asked if you want to apply for Medicare and social security benefits because our records show you are or will soon be age 65. Everyone who wants Medicare coverage should apply for it during the three months before the month of his 65th birthday to have full Medicare protection when he is 65. The fact that you are continuing to work does not affect your right to Medicare benefits. As far as social security benefits are concerned, it is a good idea to file for them, even if you are working. In this way, all the necessary paper work will be completed, and your benefits can start without delay as soon as you do retire.

Question—Can a disabled person get Medicare benefits? I have been getting disability checks from social security for over two years.

Answer—Medicare benefits are not available to anyone before age 65. When a person receiving disability benefits becomes 65, he then qualifies for Medicare.

Question—I understand that home health benefits can be paid by either the hospital insurance or the medical insurance part of Medicare. Under what circumstances can this happen and who decides which part is going to make the payment.

Answer — Yes, home health benefits can be covered under either part of Medicare. When hospital insurance is used, it pays all the costs of covered services. When medical insurance is used it pays 80 per cent of the covered service after you have met the $50 annual deductible. Because hospital insurance pays more, your hospital insurance home health benefits are used when you have both, unless you prefer that your medical insurance be used. You can be eligible for home health benefits under hospital insurance only if you have been a patient in a hospital.

Girl Scout Troop 206 Learns Basic Cooking Techniques

Eight girls from Girl Scout Troop 206 are currently leading basic cooking techniques through the efforts of Miss Faye Gordon, home economist of Florida Power Corporation. When finished with their course, in approximately eight weeks, they will have fulfilled all of the requirements for their cooking badge. This phase of Girl Scouting is always a joy to the girls as they can carry home the products of their endeavors from each weekly afternoon session.

Also eight other girls from Troop 206 are working on their sewing badge under the leadership of Mrs. Evelyn Klein. They are learning the fundamentals of using the sewing machine, following patterns and completing a simple garment of their own.

The troop has already enjoyed two camping trips this year. The first was a primitive camping trip to Highlands Hammock in the early fall. And the first weekend in February, 24 girls, four Cadette guests and three adults had a fun-filled weekend at Camp Winding Creek, near Sebring.

The troop is under the leadership of Mrs. Thevenow DeLaney and Mrs. Edward Culbertson, her assistant. On the camping trips, Mrs. Lewis Mundt leads the girls in camping skills and Mrs. John Johnston has been a willing chaperone.

CD Officer And Commissioner Exchange Words

Into an angry exchange with a state civil defense official County Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield tossed the query, "Why do we always have to get in a foul mood every time you come? I think maybe your attitude is wrong in approaching this board."

J. E. "Buck" Buchanan denied that he intended to be critical of the county commission but all three of the items of business he discussed with the board at its February 18 meeting evoked argument.

Allotments To Teachers Will Increase

A proposal to revise law 238.07 (10)g is expected to come before the Legislature when it convenes. The purpose of the revision is to provide a decent allotment for teachers retired on disability.

In the state of Florida there are 6,000 teachers on disability, 40 per cent of whom receive pensions inadequate for their actual needs.

The retirement pension law was enacted in 1939, but teachers retired in the 30s and early 40s had received salaries ranging from $40 to $100 per month, and naturally the assessment was very low. Two increases have been given since then.

In 1967 an increase of $20 per month was given, but if the individual had Social Security, personally acquired or a share from the husband, he was denied the increase if his monthly income was $160. To clarify: the retirement total was the sum of Social Security plus enough money from the pension fund to total $160.

There are many deserving teachers receiving less than $160 per month. If the individual were receiving $300 per month, it would purchase about $126 worth of goods.

These teachers are not asking for charity, just for justice.

In the bygone years the school days were long, class rooms over crowded, facilities poor, and salaries too low to provide for health care. In many instances the conscientious teacher purchased class room supplies from her meager salary as the state had not yet become education conscious.

The Retired Teachers Section feels that retirement disability should come from a state revenue fund rather than from school funds as the disability was incurred while the individual was in service for the state. It should be a permanent structure for all retirees, both new and old.

The proposal for change suggests a minimum of $350 per month to go into effect when law is passed.

We urge you contact the congressmen on appropriations, M. K. Tillman, 2046 Main St., Sarasota 33577; G. H. Crabtree, 2058 Main St., Sarasota, and Donald E. Heath U. S. 41, Tamiami Trail, Nakomis, Fla. 33555.

While the legislators are considering new bills, along with salary increases for themselves we pray that they will consider the teachers retired on disability.

County And Youth Care Near Agreement

An opinion from Florida Attorney General has removed some of the major obstacles to Highlands County's leasing of the new Youth Care home. At the Highlands County commission meeting Tuesday, County Attorney Hue E. Nunnallee read a letter from Earl Faircloth which said, in part, that a lease submitted by Nunnallee "does not appear objectionable."

Nunnallee said a few problems remain to be ironed out, but the written opinion will aid in their solution. He explained to the commissioners and Youth Care President Virginia Rebman that the Attorney General has asked that a clause specifically exempting the county from any responsibility for a mortgage on the new home be inserted in the proposed lease.

Negotiations have been underway for several months for a lease which would make it legally possible for the county's juvenile court to use the privately built Youth Care building to house dependent and delinquent wards of the court.

Traffic Problems

Two traffic problems submitted to the county commission by Sebring City Council failed to meet with any promise of immediate solution by the county.

Traffic surveys relative to possible installation of traffic lights at two points on South Lakeview Drive were asked by the city.

County Engineer Chuck Morgan said traffic lights may not be the answer to prevention of more accidents at the intersection of South Lakeview and US 27 at Southgate Shopping Center. "It's hard to tell where the parking lot stops and the road begins," Morgan explained.

He suggested that the state road department's traffic division should be asked for recommendations.

"We shall not have any funds in the secondary road budget this year," Morgan said in response to Sebring's request that traffic lights be paid for out of these funds.

"The city of Sebring already has a permit to install a light at South Lakeview and Kenilworth Drive," Morgan reported, and the commissioners said the city should be encouraged to proceed with this installation.

The county road priority list was revised to insert paving for a mile and a half of Richards Road. Morgan said immediate attention to this road will prevent loss of the road base.

The commissioners received a request from the county planning and zoning board that the present county plat law be expanded to include a provision that all land being sub-divided for sale must be on a recorded plat. The county attorney and administrator were asked for further recommendations on this request.

The board authorized the county attorney to take immediate action on a performance bond and/or an escrow account from the Highlands Park Estates to assure construction of roads within the sub-division which meet county specifications.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the county commissioners authorized setting up a hearing on a petition to close a portion of the never-constructed Dinner Lake Drive.

Purchased a county promotion ad in All Florida magazine to appear the week prior to the 12 Hours of Endurance race.

Approved a $20 per month salary increase for the county animal control officer.

Vernon Wilkins Dies In Hospital Friday

Vernon Wilkins, 51, died Friday in a hospital in Miami. He was born in Senath, Mo. and lived in Avon Park for a number of years before moving to Miami 15 years ago. A retired Farmer, his survivors include his widow, Mrs. Dorothea Durrance Wilkins; a brother, R. Chester Wilkins, West Memphis, Ark.

Funeral Services were held Monday morning at 10 A.M. in the Chapel of Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home with Mr. Hadwin officiating. He was laid to rest in Bougainvillea Cemetery.

O'Neal Resigns From Highlands General Hospital

W. Harold O'Neal, administrator of Highlands General Hospital since before it opened its doors four years ago, is leaving March 10 to become Executive Director of the United American Medical Services, Inc., hospital in Sarasota.

Under O'Neal's direction, the local hospital has had many plaudits in its brief existence and this year reported a profit of nearly $40,000.

Speaking for the hospital commissioners, Frederic W. Jahna, chairman of the board, declared:

"It is with regret that we announce the resignation. Mr. O'Neal was selected from many applicants to lead in the establishment and operation of our hospital. He came to Sebring in the early days of construction and played an important role in that phase of the project.

"He was instrumental in the interior decorating of the hospital along with the equipment purchasing. He recruited an unusually good staff of technical and professional people from a field that is beset with shortages of qualified people.

"The hospital has operated successfully under his administration. Attesting to this are the good services available at the hospital, the good financial position the hospital has been in through the years, meeting the standards of the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, qualifying the hospital for Medicare participation, complying with the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and maintaining the hospital equipment and grounds in superb condition."

Mr. Jahna, one of the original board members, said he could appreciate the accomplishments of Mr. O'Neal better than anyone else and stated Mr. O'Neal's loss would not just be felt in the hospital but in the community as a whole because he was active in Red Cross and church work."

Commissioners have not yet begun interviewing to replace the administrator.

Mrs. McAllister Dies Friday

Mrs. Matilta McAllister 78, passed away Friday in Arcadia. She was born in Philadelphia, Pa. and had lived in Avon Park for the past 10 years coming from Livingston N. Y. A member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church. Survivors include one son Harold Brown, one sister Mrs. M. B. Jarvis both of Avon Park.

Services were held in the Adventist Church Monday at 1:30 P.M. with the Rev. Robert Kerr officiating. Interment at Bougainvillea.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

Our speaker for last week, Henry Swanson, Agricultural Agent for Orange County, was one of the most energetic and enthusiastic speakers we have had in a long time. Mr. Swanson's talk was of particular importance to many of our area residents since it centered around agriculture. It was also very important to any citizen who is interested in conserving our natural resources of land, air and water.

The major point of Mr. Swanson's talk was the fact that more and more of these resources will be consumed or destroyed as the population increases. Today Florida has about six million people, in two years the population is expected to reach eight million. How will this effect the use of our three most important resources? For every 1,000 new residents they will need (1) 120 acres of land for homesites, (2) 120,000 gallons of water per day, (3) 2 miles of roads, and (4) 7 more class rooms for their children.

Many citizens are not concerned over these statistics because they feel there is nothing which can be done. There is much which can be done on the local level to see that the proper use is made of our land, water, air and other resources. Plans must be made in advance and certain zoning restrictions must be established. Items to be considered in local planning are: (1) aerial photographs, (2) topographic maps, (3) soil surveys, (4) water inventory, (5) general area maps, and (6) a group of people who are willing to move on these plans.

Mr. Swanson pointed out the problems which have plagued California in its population explosion and reminded us that the same things could happen to Florida. We must be careful not to take too much of our good agricultural land out of production to build houses and highways. With proper planning the areas not suited for agriculture can be made into ideal homesites, but poor land cannot be made into good agricultural land.

A major problem all over the United States is getting the people to see the need for conservation. Many people can only see the financial rewards of progress and are blind to the future damage they may be causing. Mr. Swanson stated that some people would be willing to replace the state flower the orange blossom for the "concrete cloverleaf."

Ben Hill Griffin Appoints Hull Market Manager

The appointment of Robert H. "Bob" Hull as vice president in charge of marketing for Ben Hill Griffin, Inc., was announced today by Ben Hill Griffin, Jr., president of the citrus processing company.

Hull has been active in the citrus industry for the past 23 years. His experience includes responsibilities in sales, marketing, fruit procurement and production for firms involved in processing concentrates, single strength juices and sections.

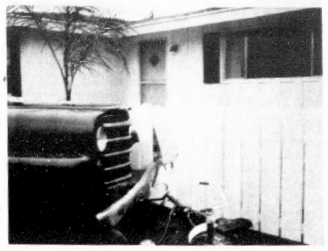

"Bob Hull's association with our company is a significant development in our long range planning. He brings to us a wealth of experience that makes him a leader in the citrus industry. He has earned the admiration and respect of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances within our industry and among the trade factors," Griffin commented.

"Bob's association with us is a milestone in our efforts to process and market a high volume of quality product with maximum return to our growers and our industry," Griffin concluded.

A native of Virginia, Hull has resided in Florida since 1924. He was educated in the public schools of Lakeland, and attended the University of Florida. During World War II he enlisted in the U. S. Marines. He was retired from the Marines with the rank of Major after participating in major invasions in the Pacific.

WE'LL MISS OUR HOME! But 5 bedrooms, 3½ baths is too much for us now. If you like a cozy fireplace, a large friendly kitchen with plenty of cupboards and built-in appliances plus a snack bar that will easily accomodate 10 people, then see this place. On two beautifully landscaped lots near Woodlawn Elementary School, and with 8 orange trees that provide fruit year round, the outside will never need painting. Other features are: central air and heat; drapes; intercom in each room and at all outside doors—intercom also carries AM-FM music into all rooms; master bedroom has "his and hers" closet with private dressing room and bathshower; a large pantry with peg board facility and storage space; utility room inside; den or music room that closes off from the rest of house; 2700 sq. ft. completely carpeted (even kitchen) of beautiful living. Outside has flood lights that can be controlled with one switch from master bedroom; a barbecue pit with marble top; and a very large concrete patio for "fun" times. Can be bought either furnished or unfurnished. Shown by appointment ONLY! 1209 Hawthorne Road, phone 385-7141, Sebring.—tdhfc

FIX-IT TIP

There is an unusual marble-type finish you can achieve with antiquing kits. The secret is in the way you handle the surface after you have applied the toner. First, apply a relatively heavy coat of toner and lay a large piece of wrinkled clear plastic lightly on the top of the area. Pat the plastic lightly with a cloth to make sure that wrinkles and air bubbles appear. Next, pick up the plastic quickly and carefully—don't drag it. You also can achieve this same effect by using a sponge, burlap, a feather or any combination of these.

Your writer had an opportunity to read an article taken from the Burbank Daily Review (Feb. 3rd issue) on the activies of Mrs. Helen Dehart, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Dean Conrad of our Park, and Urbana Ohio. Mrs. Dehart is not only a wife and mother of 17 year old twins Carol and Dave, seniors in Burbank High School, and a son Dean who is a senior at Stanford, she is also active in many other fields. Mrs. Dehart herself attended Ohio State and Wittenberg Colleges.

She is participating in many acting assignments, and during the last 8 years she has accumulated more than 40 credits in commercials and on programs like Alcoa, Goodyear Theaters, M-Squad, Donna Reed, Alfred Hitchcock, Loretta Young, Witchita Town, Danny Kaye, Interns and many Court shows. Mrs. Dehart said (I quote) "At the age of 11 I told my dad I was going to be an actress someday."

"He stressed the importance of education and experience and told me to live and get experience from people." Throughout the article she gives praise to her parents for their help and encouragement.

She is not only interested in acting but in education, nutrition and parapsychology and youth activities as well. Combining this enthusiasm with her show business she and Eddie Albert are working on plans for a show or series in this field. It would indeed be a pleasure in meeting Mrs. Helen Conrad-Dehart, and we wish her continued success in the many fields in which she is so interested.

Panther Baseball Team Works For Opener Here Wednesday

With two weeks of work behind them, South Florida Junior College Panthers baseball team is beginning to take shape. Cold weather Monday ran the squad indoors for some heavy calisthenics.

Pitching seems to be the possible strong point with the addition of two left handers to the squad. Roy Nelson, 6'1, from Mobile, Alabama, has demonstrated his ability to throw from the port side and Gary Mann, also a newcomer to the Panther squad, is showing promise as a left handed pitcher. Hoppy Rewis, the steady righthander from Avon Park still leads the list of right handers and Rewis is the leading winner of Panther pitchers. Ralph Starratt, a steady performer last year as a freshman, will report Tuesday from the basketball squad as will Bonnie White, an outfielder and infielder. Freshmen right handers are Robert Sizemore, Avon Park, Mike Harak, Tampa Catholic, and Henry Rieda, of Belle Glade.

Next week, a run down on the Panthers prospects at catching, infield, and outfield, will be presented.

The Panthers will open their season at home Wednesday, February 26, at 3:00 P.M. at Head field in Avon Park against Edison Junior College of Fort Myers. The Panthers open the season on Tuesday, February 25th, in Fort Myers.

BAHA'U'LLAH

(Most Great Light)
The Founder of the BAHA-I Faith says:

The purpose of the one true God in manifesting Himself is to summon all mankind to truthfulness and sincerity, to pity and trustworthiness to resignation and submissiveness to the Will of God, to forbearance and kindliness, to uprightness and wisdom. All men have been created to carry forward an ever-advancing civilization. The Almighty beareth Me witness: To act like the beast of the field is unworthy of man. Those virtues that befit his dignity are forbearance, mercy, compassion and loving-kindness towards all the peoples and kindreds of the earth. The betterment of the world can be accomplished through pure and excellent deeds and well-approved and agreeable conduct."

You are cordially invited every Friday evening to the house of Dr. and Mrs. A. Jazab, A.P.C.I., Avon Park for an open discussion, or refer to the public library for the books about BAHA'I Faith.

"The Lord God hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned." This verse is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon titled "Mind," and will be read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday.

One of the selections to be included from the denominational textbook is the following: "Mind is not necessarily dependent upon educational processes. It possesses of itself all beauty and poetry, and the power of expressing them. Spirit, God, is heard when the senses are silent. Science and Health with key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

School Board Approves Resolution Covering Points By Teachers

Highlands County School Board has gone part way on meeting the Highlands County Education Association's request for a formal professional negotiations agreement. A resolution covering many of the points requested by the teachers' group was unanimously approved at the school board's February meeting.

The resolution does not include a provision for building arbitration. Carl Harner, president of HCEA, said this is the major difference between the approved resolution and the one requested by the teachers.

Henry Bailey, president of the school board, said, "We have felt we have had good relationship with our teachers and the resolution puts on paper practices we have tried to follow.

"The teachers have repeatedly said they have no quarrel with this school board but they wish to have some safeguards because this board may not always be around," Bailey said.

A push for formal negotiations agreements came to the fore during the Florida teachers walk-out a year ago, and the Florida Education Association is expected to work for passage of legislation which will provide for professional negotiations and arbitration.

Bailey said few Florida counties have taken advantage of legislation permitting professional negotiations agreements. The state association of school boards has announced it will oppose any bill providing for arbitration by a third party.

The approved Highlands County resolution specifies the Professional Affairs Committee of HCEA will meet with the board, superintendent or "their designated representatives" to discuss and make recommendations "on policies governing recruitment of teachers, community support for the school program, curriculum, in-service training, teacher turnover, personnel policies, salaries, working conditions, instructional materials and any other subject which may be mutually agreeable."

The resolution formally recognizes the Highlands County Education Association as the negotiating representative for the school personnel—a moot question at this time since it is the only teachers organization now active in the county. However, the resolution provides that HCEA's continuing as the negotiating agent is contingent upon its maintaining a majority of the teachers as members. A membership report will be made to the school board by November 15 each year.

In-service Training

A decision on an in-service training expenditure was questioned at the February school board meeting. HCEA President Harner asked Superintendent George Douglass what benefit the school system could expect to derive from Sebring Principal Billy Cason's attendance at a secondary principals conference in San Francisco.

The board had, on Douglass' recommendation, approved Cason's attending the conference on money provided by the state's education improvement funds. Douglass said such conferences are approved as in-service training because they broaden the outlook of the person attending and expose that person to many new ideas in education.

"Those who have attended in the past have found them valuable but in recent years we just have not had the money," the Superintendent said.

INVITATION TO BID

The Highlands County School Board will accept sealed bids until 3:00 P.M., Monday, March 10, 1969 for the moving of Portable Classrooms at the Lake Placid Elementary School, Lake Placid, Florida, to the new location of the Lake Placid Elementary School; also to move portable classrooms from Lake Placid Elementary to the Sebring Area. Specifications and drawings may be obtained at the office of the County Superintendent of Schools, Third Floor Courthouse, Sebring, Florida. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Seventh Grader Tells of His Day at Florida State Fair

By REID WALL
7th grade AP Junior High

There is always a feeling of uncontrollable anxiety as you are riding toward the fair. It was this air of great anticipation that I felt as we drove to the Florida State Fair in Tampa on Tuesday morning.

We arrived at the gate at 10:30 and since father's always do the intelligent and reasonable things, we first toured the Exhibition Buildings. I cannot say they were exciting, but most of them were interesting.

My older brother and father enjoyed a fashion show in the first building. Personally, I thought it was a waste of time, but what do I know about pretty women? This building was filled with many women's interests.

The next Exhibition Building was called "Old McDonald's Farm." All the usual farm animals were there. It was fun to see the mother dog and her puppies. There were also families of kittens and pigs. We saw chicks hatching out of their shells. The baby calves were feeding. And of course, the beautiful horses were the main attraction. We saw a new breed of chicken called Japanese Silk. It was white all over with a black ring around its neck.

We visited the art exhibit and saw an original painting of Napoleon Bonaparte. Most of the other paintings looked like my sister's paint cleanings. They didn't make much sense to me.

Little sister was eager to get to the rides so after the art exhibit we went out to the World's Largest Midway. I am not much of a rider, although I enjoyed riding the Italian Bumper cars that one steers himself. I also had a good time watching other people get scared silly. Then I enjoyed the many side shows which consisted mostly of freaks and monkies.

The aroma of onions, hamburgers and hot dogs had been playing havoc all this time with our taste buds, so around 1:30 P.M. we were ready to hold a family powwow to decide what and where to eat. My father and older brother had noticed some fancy hickory-barbecue displayed in one of the exhibits so they wanted to go back and try that. I really didn't care as I was more interested in quantity than quality. As we sat down to order I spied a submarine sandwich which looked huge to me so I ordered it. I must report that it was as delicious as it was big.

We also saw Governor Claude Kirk. He had honored the fair with his presence and he also made a speech.

At about 4:30 P.M. we had to turn our faces back toward Avon Park. Grasping one more tangerine ice cream cone we bade farewell to this once-a-year madness and headed back to sanity.

Panthers End Basketball Season Monday

Monday night saw the end of the basketball season as the Panthers played host to Manatee Junior College.

As far as records go, the season was a disappointing one. However, this was to have been a rebuilding year as the Panthers started the year with no starters from last year and only one reserve. The freshmen crew of 12 boys had considerable height but this was gone by Christmas when final grades were posted.

As a result the Panthers were forced to play the remainder of the schedule with four freshmen in the lineup and some games, five freshmen and this produced some fine wins and close games and valuable experience for next year.

Playing their last game were Ralph Starratt, Larry Allen, and Tim Gillis. Expected to return next year are Willie Marovich, 6'5", Ken Dixon, 6'2", Ron White, 6', Chuck Smith, 6'3", and Mike Turner, 6'.

In the Manatee game the Panthers played one of their best games only to lose 105 to 90. The score was tied at 37-37, 48-40, 67-67 and 85-85.

Manatee scored ten points in the last 55 seconds to win the game. Willie Marovich led the Panthers scoring with 31 points.

Cadette Troop 117 Spends Day At State Fair

Saturday, Feb. 15, Girl Scout Troop 117 spent the day at the Florida State Fair in Tampa. In spite of tornado warnings, rough winds, and the rain, all were in high spirits and full of pep when they returned later that day.

Wally White, Mrs. Lila Behal and Mrs. Ruth Durden served as drivers and they were accompanied by Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, troop leader.

In spite of the weather the troop is in full swing with plans for a two-day camping trip this coming weekend.

The girls who were able to attend the fair were Cindy Green, Sylvia Tomek, Renee and Darlene Vieta, Dee Dee Jahna, Lindy Barben, Leor Behal, Thea Tomlinson, Debra Crawford, Lou Ann Johnson, Patty White, Shaver, Teresa Andrews White and Charlene Rowland.

Ashton H. Wing Died Tuesday In Hospital

Funeral services for Ashton H. (Ash) Wing, 62, will be held at 10 A.M. today (Thursday) at Warren Funeral Home chapel. Death claimed the veteran newsman early Tuesday at Highlands General Hospital where he had been a patient since mid-February.

He had undergone surgery for removal of gallstones and for more than a week his condition was considered critical.

Rev. George C. Stulting of First Presbyterian Church will officiate at the funeral services. Burial will be at Port Orange Cemetery near Daytona Beach.

Wing came to Highlands County in September, 1965, to head the Sebring bureau of the Tampa Tribune. He came here from Osprey. Immediately before joining the Tribune's state staff he was director of public relations for the amusement center, Floridaland.

He was a native of Maine, but Wing had resided in Florida for more than 30 years and had become well known as a newsman and for his work with Boys Clubs.

He founded the Boys Club in Gainesville and when that club moved into a new home recently a large portrait of Wing was hung in the clubhouse.

He was writer of a nationally syndicated humor column, "Between Us Girls," which appears in newspapers with circulation in excess of two million.

He was the first editor of the All Florida Magazine. For seven years he was connected with John H. Perry newspapers.

Wing did public relations work for Holiday on Ice and for Florida State Fair. He had worked on newspapers in Orlando and Sarasota, for a time was city editor for the Tampa Times. Wing once owned three weeklies in Florida.

His last illness interrupted work on a novel which in first draft had received favorable attention from New York publishers.

Wing was a member of the Pine Shore Presbyterian Church in Sarasota, Elks in Sebring and was a member of Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic fraternity.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Frances Wing, Thurston Avenue; a son, Allison Thibodeau of Fairfield, Me.; a daughter, Mrs. Mildred Evers of Gainesville; his mother, Mrs. Mary Wing of Orono, Me., and 11 grandchildren.

Rev. Chester Lewis Displays Flag To Encourage More Patriotism

All Florida Magazine, about a year ago, had an article about a neighborhood in Tampa—perhaps two or three blocks—where all the residents agreed to fly the U. S. flag on national days and some other special days, perhaps a dozen in all each year.

Rev. L. Chester Lewis talked to some of his Lake Isle neighbors, and they agreed it would be nice to adopt the custom in ttheir little section of Avon Park.

But this year one of them had moved to Sebring and two others said, "We left our flag in our northern Summer vacation home."

Lewis determined at least to have his own flag pole. It is an 18 foot steel pole in his front yard. He used it first last week.

Saturday, Washington's birthday, on several important streets of our city, including the Mall, he saw only six flags being flown by private homes and businesses. We ought to show our patriotism and love for country better than that.

It would be great if Avon Park could become known, not only as the city with the "Mile Long Mall," but also as the South central Florida town where folks are patriotic and show their patriotism.

Legislative Hearings Today

The three state legislators who represent Highlands County will hold public hearings today (Thursday) preparing for the 1969 session of the Florida Legislature. Hearings are being held at 10 A.M. in the Lake Placid City Council meeting room and at 2 P.M. in the Avon Park City Council meeting room.

Bill To Get Bond Issue Before Voters Heads List At Legislative Hearings

Legislation which would enable Highlands County School Board to get a bond issue before the voters without the headache of petitions tops the list of bills to be discussed with state legislators.

In a session set for the county commissioners meeting room in the courthouse at 7:30 P.M. (Thursday), Sen. Wilbur Boyd, Rep. Jim K. Tillman, Rep. Donald E. Heath and Rep. Granville H. Crabtree, Jr., will discuss with public officials and the general public local and general legislation pending in the 1969 Legislature.

School Board Attorney Frank E. Bryant has drafted for presentation tonight a bill to exempt this county from an old Florida law requiring counties of less than 25,000 population to obtain petitions from 25 percent of the county's voters before calling a bond election.

Such petitions are now being circulated in the county and workers report slow progress toward obtaining the necessary 4,000 signatures. Although Highlands County has passed the 25,000 mark in population it is still bound by the official 1960 census.

School Board Chairman Henry Bailey urged the Highlands board to take the lead in a move to abolish the old petition law, described by Bailey and Bryant as "cumbersome" and "confusing."

Senator Boyd, who is chairman of the Senate's education committee; the state Department of Education and the state association of school superintendents have endorsed the move for repeal, but the Highlands board is taking no action on a general legislation. The bill Bryant has drawn is a local bill which would specifically exempt Highlands County.

Other School Bills

Bryant has also drawn for presentation tonight an amendment to the state school law dealing with pay for superintendents. A general law approved by the last Legislature knocks out special laws setting different salaries for elected officials within the same county. For Highlands County School Superintendent George F. Douglass and Sheriff Joe Keene this amounts to a 37 percent decrease in salary—from $16,500 to $10,350.

Keene, who came into office in January, has been reluctant to seek a special act setting a different salary for himself, but he has stated that he would support a general law which would set salaries all over the state by a formula related to the county's population and geographic size.

"This office is overpaid right now," Keene says, "and I do not see any reason for the sheriff to make as much money as the school superintendent. County offices are not all alike, and there is no reason for all of them to have the same salary."

Superintendent Douglass and the school board had indicated they would seek some avenue to enable the local board to set the superintendent's salary, and amendment to the state school law is to be the approach, Chairman Bailey said.

The school board also will seek an amendment to a special act enabling the board to sell $1 million in certificates of indebtedness to be repaid from the board's share in race track tax funds. The original act earmarks the sale proceeds for rchool construction, and the board has delayed sale to tie-in with a county-wide construction program.

The county commissioners had obtained a special act providing for the race track tax certificates, and the commissioners did sell a $1 million issue. The commissioners have discussed seeking an amendment to their act also, but formal decision has not been made.

The commissioners and school board have agreed informally to repeal of a special act earmarking $50,000 of the county commission's income from race track taxes for South Florida Junior College support. Actually the repeal will make no overall difference in either the commissioners' or school board budgets. The commissioners will be assuming about $50,000 in collection costs for the county school taxes.

Superintendent Douglass described the proposed repeal as a move "to get the county commission out of school business and get the commission in line with new tax laws."

Commissioners Bills

The package of bills from the county commission, usually a lengthy one, may not be ready for presentation tonight. Commissioners Jean Whitaker, Ben McGee, Robert Skipper, Attorney Hue Nunnallee and County Administrator Chuck Morgan spent the early part of the week at a State Association of County Commissioners conference which included special seminars on pending legislation and the new constitution.

Some changes in proposals for local laws may be made as a result of the Jacksonville conference. Commissioner Earl Crutchfield said.

BILLY MARTIN, president of the Avon Park Band Association and Mrs. Donna Ferguson, chairman of the band auction is shown looking over some of the merchandise that has been donated to the band. The Country Store will be in the old Kerns Furniture Building on Friday, Mar. 14 and the auction will be Saturday, Mar. 15 on the mall.

Avon Park Band Auction Scheduled for Saturday, March 15

The chant of auctioneer Col. Harry Van Buskirk will ring out at 12:30 P.M. Saturday, Mar. 15 on the mall announcing the annual band auction, sponsored by the Avon Park Band Association.

On Friday, Mar. 14, prior to the auction, all merchandise will be displayed at Ed Touchton's warehouse on South Forest Ave. formerly occupied by Kern Furniture Factory.

Bargains galore will be arranged in genuine "Country Store" style and if you have never visited an old-fashioned country store with all the trimmings, you are in for a real treat.

According to Billy Martin, president of the Band Association, a committee, headed by Dona Ferguson will be on hand in authentic old-fashioned dress to assist customers in their shopping and serving refreshments from the cracker and cider barrels.

A large quantity of new and used merchandise, including household appliances, furniture, antiques, sporting goods, garden tools, toys, foods, and many other items too numerous to mention, have been donated, with much more yet to come in.

All items will be tagged at bargain prices during the county store sale on Friday. Any unsold items will be placed on the auction block Saturday afternoon on the mall.

All proceeds will be used to help cover the costs of uniforms, instruments, music, etc. needed annually by our accomplished and striking Avon Park High School Band under the capable leadership of Vic Mickunas.

Donations of new or saleable items in good condition will be most welcome. Simply call Dona Ferguson 453-3746; Gina Bradberry 453-6315; or Lou Nickoley 453-6517.

Group To Kick-Off Concert Drive

The 1969-70 drive for the Highlands Community Concert Associations starts Tuesday and ends March 19.

The talent committee has selected three of the concerts for the season. They are Don Shirley, pianist; Longstreth and Esscosa, duo harpists and the Columbia Operatic Trio. A fourth concert will be chosen later.

Memberships will be the same price as last year. Membership cards may be used to attend concerts in Lake Wales and Bartow as well as the concerts in this county. All memberships paid by March 18 will allow the member to attend the final concert of this present season on that date. Christopher Parkening, classical guitarist, who studied under Segovia, will play.

Avon Park membership chairman is Mrs. Calvin Mason, 115 East State Street, who will have an open house between 7 and 9 P.M. Tuesday in her home to kick off the membership drive. Refreshments will be served and persons interested in helping with the membership drive are welcome to attend.

Panther Nine to Face St. Pete At Head Field

By COACH TERRELL

Monday night at 5 and 7:30, at Head Field in Avon Park, South Florida Junior College Panthers will face St. Petersburg Junior College in their first conference baseball games. This is a double-header and the price to see two games is 50c for children and $1 for adults.

Roy Nelson, ace left-hander will probably pitch the opener, with ace right-hander Hoppy Rewis taking the mound in the night cap.

The catching chores will be handled by Tom Foster of Sebring and Henry Rionda of Belle Glade. Tom was a starting catcher last year for the Panthers. Rionda is a freshman from Belle Glade and will also play third base and pitch.

Rounding out the infield is Tim Gillis, the Pahokee flash, at short. Tim played left field for the Panthers last year and has done a fine job moving into the shortstop position. At second base when not pitching will be Hoppy Rewis. Hoppy played short and pitched last year but was moved to second to give Gillis a full time job at short.

Charlie Jones a newcomer from New Jersey and who is in the Air Force, but also taking a full load at South Florida Junior College will back up Rewis. At first base is Gary Mann and Roy Nelson. Nelson from Mobile, Ala., will pitch and play first when not pitching.

8 Arrested In Gambling Raid Saturday

The Avon Park Police Department staged a gambling raid Saturday night at the "Vietnam" Club in Rainbow Park.

Engineers Recommend City Raise Sewer Rates

The Avon Park City Council Monday night at their regular meeting asked Dave Tower representative of Dawkins and Associates how did the city sewer rates compare with other cities in this area. According to Tower, Avon Park has the lowest in the area.

The council stated that the present revenue from sewer was not enough to pay the electricity bill and the salary for one man that works at the sewer disposal plant.

Tower said he would take the rate that was suggested four years ago and come before the next regular meeting of the council and recommend any changes at that time.

The council also has to furnish sewer to the new housing project which is expected to be completed by October and a line to take care of the waste put down Central Avenue will cost $200,000.

Bids were opened on a sewer pumping station for the Junior College. Bids were:

E. R. Crocket Co. on Topco unit $6,912.00; Davis Meter & Supply on Daveo Unit $8,735.00; B & H Sales on Smith & Loveless Unit $8,610.20.

Motion by Mr. Martin, seconded by Mr. Lane to refer bids on the pumping station to the engineers for recom-

Doug will conduct his research on the Georgia Tech campus beginning in September. He has been congratulated for his excellent work and the support he has, not only from Georgia Tech, but also from business friends.

Doug is the son of Boswell D. Stone, of Lotela Road and is engaged to be married to Miss Gail Bennett, of Lake Brentwood, in August.

Avon Park Red Devils Open Baseball Season Against Lake Placid Green Dragons Tuesday

The 1969 Red Devil baseball season will open next Tuesday 4 P.M. when Coach Ralph Hill's nine will take to the field in Lake Placid for a seven inning bout with the Green Dragons. The Avon Park team has a 16 game schedule with eight home games and eight games away.

Season tickets for the home season are now on sale for $5 for adults and $3 for students. The eight home games will all charge regular admission of $1 for adults and 50c for students so a savings of $3 can be realized on an adult season ticket and a dollar can be saved if a student buys a season ticket. Tickets may be purchased at Leon's Sporting Goods or Albritton's Barber Shop or a fan may call the high school and a student will contact him for the sale. Season tickets may also be bought at the gate for the opening game.

The first home game for the Devils will be Friday, Mar. 7, against Okeechobee here at Head Field at 4 P.M. The game had to be re-set for an afternoon session because of the senior class play at the high school Friday night. The following afternoon, at 2 o'clock, the Devils will travel to Wauchula to take on the Hardee High nine. That's Saturday, Mar. 8.

The Red Devil squad will be sprinkled with newcomers to the varsity this season. Working out in the catching position are Glen Sizemore and Ricky Dick with Glen scheduled to get the starting nod for behind the plate action next Tuesday night. Larry LaFlam and Bill Jackson are expected to share the hurling duties in the opening game with Larry starting on the mound and Bill coming on in relief midway in the game.

Mike Vanderbilt will be back this season at first base after sitting out much of last season due to an injury. Also working out at first is junior Bill Smith.

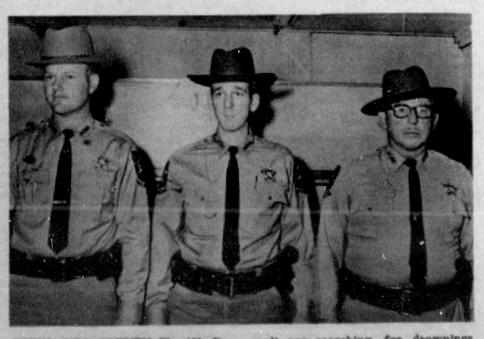

Three boys are competing for a starting position at second base—a position left vacant by an injury to Denny Monstadeca, who held down that spot for two seasons. Denny will be strongly missed this season but the plucky senior will be on hand to coach first base each game and will be helping out at practice each day. Trying to fill Denny's slot at second are George Copeland, Steve Craven, and Ralph Barnes.

Veteran Larry LaFlam will be the starting shortstop with Dennis Hart set to move into that position when Larry is on the mound. At third base will be Bill Jackson who will bring some experience back to the hot spot on the infield. Steve Hartt will take over third when Bill pitches this season.

The outfield will have Billy Richards in left, Steve Walker in center and Gene Landress in right. Young Clark Jackson and Don Sisemore, who have been playing basketball, are expected to bring the pitching staff to four and also work out as outfielders. Jackson reported to baseball practice this week after the basketball "B" team finished out its season Monday night but Sisemore is still playing with the varsity basketball squad and won't report until that season is over.

By PAUL C. FORAKER

Editor, Information Services

Prevention of suicide is an important public health responsibility. Although reliable figures are not available for many areas, it has been estimated that an average of at least a thousand persons a day commit suicide throughout the world.

This figure of about a third of a million persons per year dying by their own hand represents only a small part of the total problem connected with suicide.

It has been estimated conservatively that the ratio of attempted suicides to actual suicides is eight to one. Thus, there are likely to be several million people attempting suicide in the world in any one year.

As a cause of death, suicide has ranked among the first five to ten here in North America and in most European countries for many years.

There is general agreement that in many countries heavy drinkers are strongly represented among persons who attempt or commit suicide. A high incidence of alcoholic parents has also been found among young people attempting suicide.

Many persons dependent on alcohol, or on other drugs for that matter, could also be diagnosed as suffering from depressive illness, which is the mental disorder most frequently found as a background to suicidal acts.

All studies indicate that a person who has made a previous attempt on his own life is more likely to die through suicide than one who has no history of suicide attempt. If there have been two previous attempts, the subsequent risk of suicide is increased even more.

An attempt has been made to assess the "seriousness" of suicide attempts. Some have divided those who attempt suicide into three groups:

1. Those who follow a strong impulse to die and leave little to chance. These are largely males.

2. Those who are mainly crying for help and who would appear anxious to insure survival.

3. An intermediate group which is confused and undecided and acts on impulse, leaving the chance of survival to fate.

Alcoholism has been termed "the slow suicide" by many who are familiar with this problem which now afflicts 180,000 residents of Florida. Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program has literature on the subject of alcoholism which is yours for the asking.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is This Prophecy To Be Fulfilled?

Are we really on the road to ruin?

Looking at the disorder and dissension on our campuses, as well as other troubled areas of our national life, a writer in the London Daily Telegraph predicts that 1972 will be a fateful year for the United States.

By that time, he says, "The American nation will be in a state of nervous collapse."

Our condition, just three or four years from now, he prophesies, will be like that of the French nation last May—when France was paralyzed by strikes and simultaneous student rebellion—but with the significant difference that we will have no "Great White Father" to restore the people to sanity.

Will events prove the prophet of doom to be right? Or will we act wisely, as a nation, and control our own destiny?

Not Only Here

The disorder is not confined to our country. Student rioters and rebels have caused havoc and destruction in other places —as far away as Tokyo University and as near as Sir George Williams University in Montreal, where damage estimated at $2,000,000 was done by students and non-students who occupied the school's computer center for 13 days.

Although the current wave of disaent, disorder, and disruption is not limited to our country, it is our country for which we are responsible. It is in our country that we must take the actions required to halt the destruction of our society.

It seems quite clear now that many of the radicals leading the disruptive movements are not at all interested in integration in this country. Their goal seems to be disintegration.

Will they succeed?

The Kerner Commission, investigating civil disorders in the United States, declared that the country's greatest need was to "generate a new will."

Another way to express this thought would be to say, "We need to regain our sense of purpose and principle."

Though it has become fashionable to sneer at the Puritans and our other early leaders, it is difficult to believe that these God-fearing people would have allowed our nation to get into the position that it is now in.

In First Place

The Los Angeles Times, in an editorial some time ago, said, "The old-fashioned folks who founded this republic put religion first in their program. It was the brightest star in their sky. . . . They rose above their seas of trouble on the wings of faith."

Was it the fact that they put God first that led to the growth and prosperity of the nation?

Jesus said, you know, "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you."

This is still a sound principle—for individuals and for nations.

God does not lead those who follow Him to adopt unsound courses of action. On the contrary, He guides and guards His own.

But can we expect God to lead us out of our present difficulties while we lock Him out of our schoolrooms?

How about putting into practice again our national motto, "In God we trust"?

9 Grades Eliminated at Hopewell, E. O. Douglas

Highlands County School Board strengthened its racial desegregation plan this week, voting to eliminate ninth grade classes at E. O. Douglas School in Sebring and Hopewell in Avon Park next September.

At the same special session Tuesday night the board voted to launch pilot programs in middle school at Douglas and Hopewell.

Board Attorney Frank E. Bryant advised the school board, "Don't look for these moves to eliminate all troubles with Health, Education and Welfare and possibly the Justice Department. Nothing short of a bond issue to build adequate schools will do that job, but this will help you educationally."

Highlands County school board is currently involved in administrative proceedings brought by HEW, charging the school board is violating the Civil Rights Act of 1964 by "maintaining small, inadequate high schools" at Hopewell and Douglas.

The first hearing ended with a victory for the Highlands board. Bryant reminded the school board an order for dismissal had been entered because the hearing officer believed "you are moving steadily toward the goal of total desegregation. If you ever stop or go backward you'll make everybody angry, especially that hearing officer."

Moving the Douglas ninth grade to Sebring High School will bring enrollment at that school to approximately 1,058. Enrollment at Avon Park High will climb to about 1,000 when Hopewell ninth grade is eliminated.

Superintendent George Douglass said that with or without these additional students the Avon Park and Sebring High schools are slated for extended-day schedules for 1969-70.

Douglass commented, "It is unfortunate that many people think overcrowding in our schools is because of integration. We'd be crowded without any integration, and the integration increases the pressure."

Board Member G. F. Ward, who says he is worried about resistence to the board's request for a $4.5 million bond issue for school construction said Tuesday, "People think you're kidding when you talk about extended day."

The bond issue, in the main, provides money for new high schools in Avon Park and Sebring. The new buildings are built grades five through eight will be housed in the old high school building as "middle schools."

The school board action Tuesday approves re-organization of Hopewell and E. O. Douglas schools so that each school will have two distinct divisions: grade one through four as a primary school and grades five through eight as a middle school.

Douglass said it will still be necessary to use some substandard classrooms at Hopewell and Douglas, but the new middle school will vastly improve the curriculum and give students "a good foundation for high school."

Pay Raise Dropped

In a review of special legislation to be presented at the public hearing tonight the school board took a longing look at a pay raise but backed away for fear such a request would "give more ammunition to opponents of the school bond issue."

Ward, who became a member of the board in January said, "I hate for this to come up at this time. When I ran for the board I didn't even know there was a salary, and I'll be darned if the first thing I do is vote myself a raise. The chairman spends about 10 times as much time on board work as I do and I'd gladly recommend a salary of $3,000 a year for him; he is worth much more. I hate to see a pay raise for the entire board be an additional excuse to be against the bond issue."

Bucky Campbell, executive for the county's taxpayers organization, echoed Ward's fears that the bond issue is already in deep trouble with strong opponents "hunting new reasons to be opposed."

Training Institute Starts Tuesday

"Creative Teaching" is the theme for the first of four inter-denominational teacher training session to be held Tuesday, Mar. 4, 7:30-9:30 P.M., at the Union Congregational Church.

The Institute is sponsored by four Avon Park churches — Congregational, Episcopal, Methodist and Presbyterian—but invitation is extended to church school teachers, and other interested persons from any church.

The Rev. A. G. Hardee, Union Methodist Church, will lead the devotional period for this first session. Leadership for the training periods will be furnished by Christian Education Directors of Florida United Church of Christ and Community Churches. The minister of Christian Education of the Florida Conference, U.C.C., Rev. T. Albert Lawrence, will be in charge.

The program includes a general session when the theme "Creative Teaching" will be presented. This will be followed by separate group sessions on graded basis. Mrs. Richard Poe, Christian Education Director of the Community Church, Anna Maria Island will lead the pre-school, primary group. Mrs. John Phillips, Pilgram Congregational Church, St. Petersburg, the Junior (grades 4-6) group. Mrs. Ann Cordray, Christian Education Consultant, Miami, the junior and senior high school group.

Each night there will be opportunity to view filmstrips helpful in teaching and of interest to all grades. A library of books will be available which can be taken home for study during the week. Exhibits of course books, charts, teaching materials, etc., now being used by the various churches will be on display.

A number of local teachers, church school and public school, will act as resource persons in the various grades. Robert Cushman of the Methodist Church school staff will be in charge of the high school classes.

Additional information, printed programs on the Church School Institute can be secured from ministers and superintendents of the sponsoring churches, or from Rev. John E. Pickens (60 E. Wolf Str., GL 3-3909) who is serving as dean.

DAR Presents Awards To 3 At Meeting

Members of Patriots Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, observed George Washington's birthday at a luncheon Saturday, Feb. 22, at Hotel Sebring. Hostesses for the luncheon meeting were Mrs. W. J. Atkinson and Mrs. Joseph A. Vasek, assisted by Miss Thelma L. Merrill and Mrs. J. D. Watson.

Mrs. Ralph Koerber, regent, presided. Mrs. J. W. Ingle, chaplain, gave the invocation, and Mrs. Van Howell led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Guest soloist, Jack Smith, sang "How Great Thou Art" and "God Bless America." He was accompanied by Miss Hester Fleck.

Mrs. I. H. Ford, chairman of the DAR good citizens committee, presented awards to Jean DuBose of Avon Park, Jo Tylar of Lake Placid, and Nancy Payne of Sebring. These girls are high school seniors and are chosen for this patriotic award by their classmates and school faculty.

Mrs. Vasek, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker, Robert Fitzgerald, instructor of American History at South Florida Junior College.

Mr. Fitzgerald said: "Our Constitution is the greatest political document in existence today. The success of any Constitution in a democratic society is measured in terms of how well the Constitution balances individual liberty with the necessary police power of the state.

"We are living in a world of turbulence and unrest. We can see reflected in the thoughts and actions of many, that which should be the immediate, and permanent concern of all Americans. The age old issue in a democratic government — the problem of liberty versus authority.

"At a moment of crisis in our nation's life, Abraham Lincoln asked: 'Must a government of necessity be too strong for the liberties of its own people, or too weak to maintain its own existence?' He was referring to the basic problems that confront the citizens of a democratic society, that of finding a satisfactory balance between the liberty of the individual to live his life as he will, and the authority of society to protect and enhance the welfare of all people.

"We in America believe in the central importance of the individual. We must remember that respect for authority is an American tradition. We have always shown a willingness to support authority while seeking liberty. Americans prize both liberty and authority. From political beginnings, choosing between authority and liberty has created problems that have plagued the architects of governments. We search for a satisfactory balance between governmental authority on one hand and individual liberty on the other.

"The essential American belief is that liberty and authority can be reconciled, can be balanced, brought into a satisfactory working relationship. Liberty is dependent upon authority for its very existence. A powerful motivating force leading to the creation of government, is a desire to preserve and protect liberty, without such protection, our liberty would become meaningless.

"Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes said: 'Civil liberties, as guaranteed by the Constitution, imply the existence of an organized society maintaining public order without which liberty itself would be lost in the excesses of unrestrained abuses.'

"Liberty is relative, not absolute. Liberty and authority can be made compatible. All rights in an organized society are relative rather than absolute.

"Liberty is a changing concept —a satisfactory balance between liberty and authority has been effected by changing attitudes toward various liberties.

"Liberty is always changing with the conditions of time and place. Liberty has to find terms upon which to live with authority.

"Liberty is of value to society as well as the individual. Government safeguards our rights of a fair trial and the right to vote. Society and government must recognize and observe the rights of the individual, and the individual must recognize and accept a responsibility toward his fellow man and toward the government which serves all men. Individual freedom is no matter of uncontrollable conduct by anarchists.

Class B Basketball Tournament Starts Today In Avon Park

The Class B Group basketball tournament will get underway here at Avon Park's high school gym this afternoon (Thursday) at 4 o'clock when Lake Placid's Green Dragons will meet the second-seeded Bartow Union Academy in the opening game of the meet.

At 6:30 P.M. Thursday the second game of the tourney will pit third-seeded Frostproof against Fort Meade and then at 8:15 P.M. the Avon Park Red Devils, who were seeded fourth in the meet, will tangle with the team from Jewett of Winter Haven. First-seeded Mulberry with a 16-4 record drew a bye in the first round.

On Friday night the winner of the Frostproof vs Fort Meade game will play the winner of the Lake Placid vs Bartow Union Academy at 6:30 o'clock and the winner of the Avon Park vs Jewett will take on top-seeded Mulberry at 8:15 o'clock.

The finals will be played at 8 P.M. on Saturday in a single game.

Red Devils Close Season With 12-9 Record

Coach Fred Sandlin's Red Devil basketball varsity swept the last three games on the schedule to close out the regular season with a respectable 12-9 record. The Devils who steadily improved as the season wore on won five of their last six games to post the winning record.

Tuesday night, a week ago, the Devils trampled Lake Placid 83-66 here in the last home game of the season. Then last Friday night in the Avon Park quintet shocked Fort Meade, who had won an earlier encounter by a score of 62-48, with a 71-63 victory. Last Monday night the Devils closed out the regular season in Wauchula with a come-from-behind win by a score of 68-60 in a real nip-and-tuck battle the second half.

The Red Devils will play here tonight (Thursday) in the Class B Group 13 tournament meeting Jewett of Winter Haven at 8:15 after a game between Frostproof and Fort Meade which will start at 6:30 P.M. The Devils are hot and local fans who have followed this scrappy, fast moving squad all season are hoping the boys can pull some upsets in the meet and possibly take the championship from first-seeded Mulberry and second-seeded Bartow Union Academy. A big crowd of Red Devil fans would help the team Thursday night so let's fill the gym by 8 P.M.

Young left-handed Don Sisemore sparked the Devil win over Lake Placid last week as he hit 15 of 18 free shots and scored 6 field goals for a total of 27 points. Sharpshooting Don Strange was right behind Sisemore with 23 points scored on 11 field goals and one free shot. Clyde Sumbry added 11 counters to the winning cause as Coach Sandlin cleared his bench in final quarter to let all his reserves play. Giving fans some hope for next season was the play of Mike Reck whose work under the boards looked encouraging and the play of Roy Claitt and Joe Hardy, both of whom have seen considerable action this season.

In Fort Meade it was Sisemore again who pumped in the most points, 22—on 5 field goals and 12 free shots but senior guard Charles Magenheimer turned in perhaps his best performance of the season to contribute 18 points on 7 field shots and 4 points from the free shot line. Lorris Welch also had a great night scoring 13 points on 6 outside shots and 1 free shot. Strange hit for 10 points and Hardy had 4, Sumbry had 3, and Claitt hit 7 for the 71 total. A terrific guarding job held Ft. Meade's Ash to 12 points as the Red Devils led all the way for the big win.

Last Monday night the Hardee High Wildcats jumped off to a 19-12 first quarter lead and moved on to a 32-24 half-time advantage as the Red Devils couldn't hit the broad side of a barn. Then in the third period Avon Park started hitting and went ahead 38-37 as the Wauchula shooters cooled off. The lead changed back and forth the remainder of the game until the Devils moved out for the 8 point win at the end of the game.

Red Devil Clyde Sumbry turned in his best performance of the year against the Wildcats scoring 18 points on 8 field shots and 2 free throws and controlling the backboards for Avon Park. Don Sisemore pumped in 16 points, Magenheimer had 15, and Don Strange added 12 points in the final win of the year. Joe Hardy came across with 6 important points and Lorris Welch added 1 on a free shot.

Four seniors will be playing their final games for Avon Park in the tournaments. Don Strange, who has led the Devils in shooting and rebounding this season; Charles Magenheimer, the team play-maker and outside shooter; Lorris Welch, who had come through in several games to give the Devils the boost they needed for the win; and center Clyde Sumbry, who has worked along with Strange under the boards for rebounds and come on strong toward the end of the season in the scoring department.

Returning for next year's team will be Willie Joe Seigler, perhaps the teams most improved player this year; Don Sisemore, a freshman who has sparked the team's fast break and aggressive defense as well as leading the scoring along with Strange; Joe Hardy, a center who has seen a lot of action this year; Roy Claitt, an aggressive, fast guard; and Mike Reck, who could add some height to next year's team.

The Avon Park "B" squad dropped all three of its last games to finish out the season with a record of 8 wins and 13 losses. The young squad showed much improvement after dropping its first six games and played some exciting ball during the 21 game season.

Southland Trailer Park News

On Thursday evening at 7:15, Feb. 27, Mrs. Pearl Smith will show slides of her trip to the northwest. This will include Victoria, Vancouver B. C., Banff Lake Louise and Jasper. This will take place in the recreation hall of Southland Court. We hope for a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Forbes, Mrs. Hallie Rhoades and Mrs. Pauline Israel of Armington, Ill., visited with Emma Gerdes, Tuesday. They are spending two months at Clearwater Beach.

At miscellaneous cards Friday night 500 was played, Herb Renaud was high with a score of 3,140, Willie Lumpkin scored 2,320.

Rebecca and Lem Hostetter have been attending the Sunday afternoon high school band concerts. They feel these band concerts are very fine and improving with each performance. Hope more of our park members will make it a point to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kuhl of Huron, Ohio, have been visiting Alta Robinson, Mrs. Kuhl is Alta's sister. After visiting other points in Florida they will return here for a few days.

At the shuffle match Friday eight people turned out to play. Winnie Lumpkin and Omer Snyder were the winners over Dorcas Young and Hilda McClary in the play-off by a score of 78 to 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stevens of Bowling Green, Ind., and Mrs. Byford Burch of Bloomington, Ind., are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Barber.

Last Friday Byron and Bessie Jeremy,, with Myrtle Heffernan, drove to Ft. Myers to visit Leona Hopkins. They report she lives in a beautiful newly erected retirement home. She sends her love to friends in the park.

Mrs. Pattel of Brown Brook, N. J., and her daughter of Orlando, were guests of Lem and Rebecca Hostetter Thursday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Lancaster, Pa., wintering in Sarasota were also overnight guests of Rebecca Lem.

Park members were delightfully entertained Wednesday evening with a pot-luck dinner. About 55 were seated at tables conveniently arranged and serving was excellent. A short program was carried out before the meal by pledging allegiance to the flag and singing "God Bless America," led by our chairman, Betty Peterson with Evelyn Fritz at the piano. Omer Snyder returned thanks.

Tables were attractively decorated in keeping with Washington's birthday, with streamers of red and blue crepe paper on white, hatchets of red paper and large bowls of azalea blossoms and the aroma of good food brought forth a good appitite.

Well filled coffee cups, and refills, were appreciated. "Happy Anniversary" was sung to Ann and Harry Barth who celebrated their 51st anniversary recently.

We want to thank the Barths who were in charge and their several helpers for an enjoyable evening. We wish to thank the management for new tables which added comfort for the group. Each one proudly carried home a small flag as a favor.

Twenty-six were out for coffee and doughnuts Tuesday morning. B. Jeremy is a brave soul venturing out each chilly morning to prepare for these coffee breaks.

Thirteen of our members were out Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Miller, one of our new comers, showed us how to make hats. Several other items were brought and exhibited. We hope everyone will get their exhibits ready for the hobby show which will be sometime in March.

COMMODITIES TO 1,168

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service reports that 196,330 needy Florida residents received food aid during December through its commodity distribution program. This was 4,391 persons more than the number that took part in the program during November. C&MS officials attributed the increased participation to a slack in seasonal employment. In Highlands County 1,168 persons received commodities.

AIR CONDITIONING

Carrier's secret flip-top.

See it in action.

If you want the newest thing in room air conditioners, see the good-looking "Cosmopolitan" by Carrier. And you'd better insist on a demonstration. Otherwise, you might not recognize the "Cosmopolitan" as an air conditioner. At least not until you've seen it flip its lid.

Be on the lookout for Carrier's special pre-season offer on room air conditioners in this week's issue of Life Magazine. Then let us show you the quality Carrier Weathermaker units which mount flush inside, feature the famous "touch-control" comfort center, and start cooling your room, quietly, in just 10 seconds.

Buy now and save! For just pennies a day, you can beat the summer heat once and for all.

Bieros Spent $10 on Ads; Sold 3 Houses

SEBRING BUILDER Walter Bieros spent less than $10 advertising in the Sebring News classified section that he had homes for sale and he sold three of the seven—one for $15,900, one for $16,400 and one for $14,000. In addition to that he received many inquiries. He also sold a car from just one classified ad.

HE GETS PLENTY OF ROOM when he walks his cat. Hiroaki Kosho adopted "Leo" after reading a Tokyo newspaper story about the lion's needing a home.

SOVIET SPORTS were offered this short, tweed, checked jacket at the Leningrad Fashion House. The coat was in a collection approved by Moscow.

A big part of what you buy in a '69 Mercury is a feeling of confidence. That your Merc won't quit when the going gets tough. That it's going to provide truly trouble-free operation for as long as you own your boat — with an absolute minimum of maintenance. And that's exactly what you get with a new Mercury outboard. Take ignition. Nobody likes an outboard that won't start. So Kiekhaefer Mercury engineers introduced Thunderbolt electronic ignition. Thunderbolt delivers such a wallop to the plugs that the engine starts the first time — every time — regardless of the temperature. (We know, because it gets pretty cold in Wisconsin.) Thunderbolt has some other advantages too. No breaker points to wear out or replace. No ignition tuneups either. And because Thunderbolt delivers such a high-voltage spark (40,000 volts) it fires even dirty, oiled and fouled spark plugs. So you can expect your Thunderbolt-equipped Merc to go through a set of plugs every year or so. Or 2. Or 3. Next, carburetion.

Who wants to tinker with a carburetor? Mercury figures you don't. Ever. So Mercurys have fixed high-speed jets. You'll never need to think about them. Next, lubrication. When water stays out, lubrication stays in. So Mercury casts the driveshaft and lower unit housings in one rugged piece. No nuts or bolts to loosen. No gaskets to leak. Gears and bearings stay in permanent alignment. Tougher too. And when you do hit something underwater (who doesn't?) Mercury's shearproof drive takes it in stride. Instead of a shear or drive pin, Mercury splines the prop to the shaft and transmits power through a live-rubber safety clutch that "gives" on impact. Finally: corrosion. If an outboard can't take corrosion, you haven't got anything. So Mercury for 1969 makes corrosion resistance the "last" word on every model. We started with a special new alloy, "XK." We engineered out as many corrosion points like joints, etc. as we could. Then we developed a new multi-coat baked enamel paint process that makes paint stick like glue.

Mark Hollis Speaks to Rotary At Annual Ladies Night Banquet

By DAVID LANIER

The guest speaker for our Ladies Night Meeting was Mark C. Hollis of Lakeland He spoke to us about our young people today, what qualities they should develop and what they expect from us as adults. Mr. Hollis said "We have, right here in our own backyard, 'Acres of Diamonds.' We have the potential for world peace; we have the dynamics for democracy; we have the force for freedom; we have the capability for compassion; we have the vigor for victory over prejudice. Yes, we have acres of diamonds . . . and they're right in our own backyard.

These diamonds are our young people, our sons and daughters, and our grandchildren. On these shoulders rests the Hope and Promise of the future.

As we adults travel along the winding road of life, as we begin climbing the last long hill, we find it so easy to stop and look back over our wealth of experience. Suddenly, we feel very qualified to issue sage advice to the upcoming generation.

What is required to transform a rough-cut diamond into a beautiful and valued gem? Above all else, we need young people who show a well developed moral, ethical and religious sense. Our young people have seen the sham of today's materialism and are on the threshold of a religious revolution. Whether this revolution will be turned, by satanic influence, to evil . . . or whether it will be directed to Godliness, depends a great deal on You and Me.

Our young people need to develop a sense of responsibility. General Robert E. Lee wrote to his son, 'Do your duty in all things. You cannot do more. You should never wish to do less. Above all things, do not appear to others what you are not.' This is the spirit we should expect from our young people—and how grateful we are for all those who exemplify this spirit of duty.

Another characteristic is that vigorous and hopeful quality which we call Ambition. Today we need young people with ambition, young people with vision . . . but, in the name of Almighty God, may this ambition be directed toward that which is Good and Righteous!

We dare not preach to these young folks about what We expect from them . . . without, first, delivering something ourselves!

What then, should our young people expect from us? What then, should they find in our example? First, above all else, they should find Integrity. Second, we must demonstrate to our people Emotional Maturity. If we are truly honest with ourselves, we must confess that any single day offers dozens of situations which test our emotional maturity.

And lastly, our young people should expect from Us an effective use of Authority.

I believe, that if We don't evidence effective use of our authority as adults and parents with our young people, they will take that authority away from us. And those who feel that this is impossible should see what's happening at Berkeley and other places all across the country!

Effective use of authority is not dictatorship, nor is it anarchy. It's discipline mixed with love; it's understanding and patience and concern. It's listening and reasoning and sharing; and, sometimes, it's saying 'Son, I was wrong . . . forgive me!'

The ultimate regard of the parent who has discovered the most effective way to use authority is a Son or Daughter: who can face life boldly, with a well developed moral, ethical, and religious sense (built upon the foundation You layed); who can face their follow man with respect and concern (because they saw how You have of yourself to others); who can face the tasks of life with responsibility (as they have seen You live a responsible life); and who can direct their energies and ambitions toward the high and noble causes which You have shown to them.

These are no more than lofty expressions of idealism unless we, as adults, have acted upon our own obligations."

Barbara Waters To Head Retarded Drive

February is national membership month for the National Association for Retarded Children which this year named NBC's Barbara Walters as their honorary membership chairman.

Steve Roberts, 18, president of the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children and Mrs. Ellen Ward, of Avon Park, chairman of the board and secretary of the association. Joel Ross is director.

In starting on the annual membership drive, it was pointed out that the average zoo in this country spends $7.15 for the care and feeding of its human sized animals; the average institution spends $6.71 for each of its retarded residents.

Surveys show that mental retardation occurs six times as often in the slum ghettos of the cities as in the higher income areas. There are an estimated 6 million retarded in the country.

The Ridge Area Association is one of 1,300 affiliated units of the national association working on behalf of the retarded of all ages.

Verily the Spirit of Truth is come to guide you unto all truth. He is the One Who glorified the Son and exalted His Cause. The Comforter Whose advent all the scriptures have promised is now come that He may reveal unto you all knowledge and wisdom. Seek Him over the entire surface of the earth, happily ye may find Him.

W. R. "BILL" RECK, president of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Larry Hooper, executive secretary of the Chamber look on as Mayor James M. Doerr signs a proclamation designating March 23-29 as "Chamber of Commerce Week."

Proclamation on Page Two.

Mayor Doerr Proclaims March 23-29 C of C Week

Mayor James M. Doerr in an official proclamation, gave recognition to the week of March 23-29, 1969, when he designated it "Chamber of Commerce Week" and urged all citizens of Avon Park, to learn more about their Chamber of Commerce—its purposes, accomplishments and goals for the future.

In an official ceremony, Mayor Doerr signed the official proclamation specifying the week-long observance. In noting this event, the mayor reminded everyone of the slogan of Chamber Week, "It Takes Two—Your Chamber of Commerce and You!" and recommended that every citizen apprise himself of the vital role the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce plays in community life.

This will be the sixth annual observance of Chamber of Commerce Week, coordinated throughout the U. S. by the national management society of Chamber executives, the American Chamber of Commerce Executives. Locally it is being sponsored by the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, W. R. "Bill" Reck, President, who commented, "The Chamber of Commerce is a nucleus of progress in our community, through which volunteer leaders are constantly at work to implement a common goal: improvement of our community for all citizens. These leaders, as well as the Chamber staff, deserve our support. Learn more about what your Chamber is doing for you. It Takes Two."

Residents Asked To Back Bond Issue; Sign Petitions

Highlands County School Board is leaving no bases uncovered in its drive to get a county-wide school construction program going—a drive vitally linked to keeping out of trouble with the federal government.

"This is why we are asking for a local bill to exempt Highlands County from the petition requirement, even though general legislation is expected to knock out the law," School Superintendent George F. Douglass explains.

"We expect to hear this week from the latest request for an extension of time for Health, Education and Welfare to prepare an appeal in our case," Douglass said, "but regardless of that answer we must prove to HEW and the Justice Department that this county is making every possible effort to provide for the education of all children.

"Both the petition and the bill to get rid of petitions are efforts to get a bond issue before the citizens. Some people believe that since we have asked for the special bill we no longer need to work on the petitions, and that just is not true," Douglass said today.

"Successful completion of the petitions would enable us to get to an election much faster. The Legislature doesn't start meeting until April; if we must wait on action in Tallahassee, it will slow us up considerably," the Superintendent complained.

The law now requires that counties having less than 25,000 population based on the last federal census must have a petition from not less than 25 per cent of the county's voters requesting an election before the school board can bring a bond issue to vote. In six weeks backers of the proposed $4.5 million bond issue for building new Highlands County schools have been able to obtain approximately half the needed 4,000 signatures.

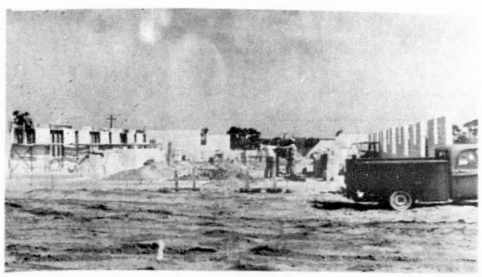

Throughout this school year the Highlands County School Board has been defendant in administrative proceedings launched by HEW. The local board is charged with operating inadequate schools for Negro children.

At a hearing in Washington last Fall the federal agency's lawyers had recommended assignment of all students in the one grades to given school buildings, pointing out that such a plan would place the burden of inadequate facilities equally on Negro and white students.

The hearing officer, in a decision favoring Highlands County School Board, recommended giving the local board and citizens another chance to provide adequate buildings for all students.

By using an extended day schedule at Avon Park and Sebring High Schools next Fall, the number of students at the all-Negro Hopewell and E. O. Douglas Schools will be reduced next year, but it will still be necessary to use some converted barracks buildings at Hopewell and Douglas.

"We still must use sub-standard buildings at these two locations," the Superintendent told the school board.

NEW 90-BED nursing home is now under construction in Avon Park. Total cost when completed is estimated at $400,000 and 60 people are expected to be employed.

Class B Basketball Tourney Opens Here Friday Night

The Avon Park High School gym will be the scene of the Class B, Region 4 basketball tournament this weekend with two games set for Friday night and the finals scheduled for 8 P.M. Saturday.

The Union Academy Tigers of Bartow, the team that defeated Avon Park in the finals of the group meet last weekend, will meet Gifford High School of Vero Beach and Immokalee will be pitted against Miami Monsignor Pace.

Gifford, Immokalee and Pace are all repeaters in the regional from last season. Mulberry represented this group in last year's meet but Avon Park's Red Devils knocked the Panthers from the group tourney in the semi-finals before bowing to Union Academy in the finals.

Gifford of Vero Beach went on to the state meet last year from Region 4.

The first game on Friday night will start at 7:30 with the second game set for 9 P.M.

The Union Academy Tigers of Bartow stormed through the Class B Group 13 tournament held here last weekend winning over Lake Placid, Frostproof and the Avon Park Red Devils in the finals to take the championship and earn a berth in the Class B Region 4 meet which will also be held here starting Friday night at 7:30 P.M.

But the big story of the tournament was the victory of Coach Sandlin's mighty midget Red Devil squad over the top-seeded Mulberry Panther team in the semi-finals played on Friday night. The Avon Park five won its opening game on Thursday night over the Jewett Wolverines of Winter Haven by a score of 68-45 to move into the semi-finals against the Mulberry squad which had been picked as a favorite to win the Class B state this year. The Panthers had an impressive 18-4 record and the difference in height between the Avon Park team and the Mulberry squad seemed to give all the advantage to the visitors.

Five Avon Park players hit in the double figures to pace the 80-76 win over Mulberry Friday night in the most exciting game Avon Park fans have seen in many a year. The Red Devils trailed 19-14 at the end of the first quarter but pulled to a 36-36 tie by halftime. Then in the third period the Red Devils went crazy as they went into a full court press and completely rattled the Mulberry five. In one 56 second period Avon Park scored six field goals while Mulberry went scoreless.

The Devils scored 24 points in that third quarter while Mulberry could only manage 12 counters. Then in the final period with Avon Park leading 60-48, both teams hit at a torrid pace with the Devils sinking 30 points and the Panthers scoring 28. Not a single player on either team fouled out during the exciting action of the game.

Leading Avon Park scoring was senior forward Donald Strange who hit 11 field goals and three free shots for a total of 25 points. Don Sisemore scored 19 points, Charles Magen-

Avon Laborer Held In Murder Of Bill Morrison

Itinerant farm laborer, Ronald David Hooper, 40, is being held without bond on a second degree murder charge after a loud argument in Woodard's cabins which resulted in the death of Billy Morrison, 49, another laborer.

Police and sheriff's deputies had been called to the place about 5:45 P.M. Saturday after Mrs. Porter of Porter's Trailer Court nearby reported a loud and angry argument. Sheriff Joe D. Keene said apparently the men had been drinking.

The lawmen arrived about 15 minutes after Hooper had fled to a neighboring orange grove. They found him there. He did not resist arrest.

According to his story they got into an argument, Morrison started after him with a butcher knife and he seized a half inch iron pipe, and hit Morrison in the head, killing him. He had fled the cabin in which Morrison resided, before the law arrived. Avon Park police and Deputies Charles Snelgrove and Wayne Harrison investigated.

Funeral services were held at 2 P.M. Tuesday at the Scott-Stephenson-Smith Funeral Chapel with the Rev. E. B. Boykin officiating.

Band Auction Will Be Held March 11

Avon Park Band "Country Store" will be open all day, March 14, at Ed Touchton's warehouse on South Forest Avenue, formerly occupied by Kerns Furniture factory. The committee is making big plans to make this an interesting and enjoyable occasion.

On Saturday, Mar. 15, Col. Harry Van Buskirk will begin the annual auction on the Mall promptly at 12:30 P.M.

Chairman Mrs. Dona Ferguson says, that although many people have donated generously and nearly all donations are in good condition, the auction and country store committee still has far to go in its collection campaign for merchandise for the auction which will be preceded by the "Country Store." You are urged to help by contributing any item or items you may wish to give. In past years the band sold everything from paperback books and phonograph records to major appliances and furnishings.

The band is counting on the "Country Store" and auction to go a long way toward meeting the budget which covers cost of uniforms, instruments, music and other expenses which are not furnished by the school system.

If you have any items which you wish to donate for the "Country Store" and auction, or if you have any questions, please phone one of the following, Mrs. Dona Ferguson, 453-3746, Mrs. Gina Bradberry, 453-6393 and Louis R. Nickoley 453-6517.

Let's Rescue The States

The 50 sovereign states of the Union have a common problem: They cannot compete with the federal government in collecting taxes.

The U. S. Treasury collects about two-thirds of all taxes in the nation. States and local governments collect about one-third.

The problem is compounded by the rising demand for state services, especially in the field of education and welfare. So the governor of New York, where the problem is magnified by sheer numbers and by an excess of political liberalism, looks to Washington for rescue.

In this he is not alone. But Gov. Nelson Rockefeller has a plan for federal "tax sharing" that would perpetuate both the problem and the income tax surcharge which President Nixon has pledged to phase out as soon as practicable.

In brief, Gov. Rockefeller proposes:

—To retain (permanently) the 10 per cent income tax surcharge and distribute the proceeds to the states and local governments for education.

—That the federal government immediately establish national welfare standards, and eventually take over the entire welfare system. This would be financed by earmarking a substantial part of the annual growth in federal revenues—now estimated at $15 billion a year—for welfare.

Full implementation of the Rockefeller plan would go a long way toward sweeping away what little sovereignty is retained by the states. And it would fasten on the people of those states a heavy yoke of taxation almost certain to grow heavier with the years.

Rockefeller's proposal carries the same note of defeatism as the Guaranteed Annual Income and the Negative Income Tax. It, too, trumpets the failure of the free enterprise system, and asserts that only a strong central government with unlimited taxing power is capable of dealing with today's social and economic problems.

We challenge that sterile philosophy. We challenge the federal government to an all-out effort to solve state and national problems by making the free enterprise system work.

One possible way of doing this is through the National Dividend plan.

National Dividend is a proposed constitutional amendment which would divert corporate income tax money from the federal treasury and divide it equally among the nation's voters.

Based on 90 million voters and $45 billion in corporate income taxes (at a maximum rate of 50 per cent), this would put about $500 additional spending money in the hands of each voter every year—$1,000 a year for each married couple.

Last November, 2,187,805 Floridians voted in the general election. Under the National Dividend, this would have brought $1.093 billion into the state —of which, statistics show, 94 per cent or $1.028 billion would have quickly entered trade channels, channels which would bring more production, profits and payrolls instead of bureaucratic overhead and new, inflationary taxes which merely put a drag on the economy.

A nice boost for Florida business—right?

But that would be only a beginning. According to former President Lyndon Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers, the economic impact of new money pumped into trade channels is more than three times the initial amount. Thus, the $1-plus billion brought to Florida under the National Dividend would have bolstered the economy by some $3.5 billion. In subsequent years, the amount would increase.

Florida government would benefit, too. Assuming that most of this $3.5 billion would be spent on items subject to the state sales tax, additional revenue of well over $100 million would be realized for such state expenses as education and welare.

Under this plan, too, welfare costs would tend to decrease, since it would provide an incentive for people to work rather than the incentive to get on and stay on welfare built into the Guaranteed Annual Income and the Negative Income Tax and the Rockefeller plan.

Further, and perhaps even more important, the personal income through the National Dividend would be generated by the people of Florida—and other states—exercising their own free choice of how to spend their own money. It would be done with no increase in taxes. Every voter would be a profit-sharing partner in the American free enterprise system, with a personal stake in seeing that it does not fail.

With this sort of incentive, there would be real hope for solving the problems of poverty and education and transportation and urban decline—without extortionate taxation.

There could be a healthy decentralization of government rather than the threatening over-centralization in Washington.

And there would be hope again that the federal-state relationship envisioned by the drafters of the Constitution of the United States will survive and prosper.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Russian Atheists Are Upset, Too

Atheists are still smarting from the effects of the reading of the creation story from the Bible by the Apollo 8 astronauts.

Not only did a quick reaction come from Mrs. Madalyn Murray O'Hair.

Soviet atheists felt the necessity, too, of responding to the recognition of the Creator by astronauts Borman, Lovell, and Anders.

Russian radio suggested that the Bible reading was meant as a joke or, perhaps, an "attempt to strengthen the authority of religion which had been shaken by the flight itself."

Why they should think that the flight might have had an adverse reaction on faith in God is impossible to explain unless you first accept their unsound theory that science and God are at enmity.

Christians know that God established the laws that scientists are discovering and learning how to use. There can be no conflict between God and true science.

Fallacious Reasoning

However, a Russian atheist magazine states that many children in that country say that they do not believe in God because cosmonauts, during space flights, reported that they did not see Him.

When Russian scientists succeeded, years ago, in photographing the dark side of the moon from an unmanned orbiting spaceship, a priest in that country told his congregation, the next Sunday, that he had become an atheist because science—not God—had enabled men to photograph the hitherto unseen side of the moon.

If you have difficulty in trying to follow his reasoning, you are not alone.

It would be as logical to say that, because I can see a light bulb—even take a picture of it from any angle—I no longer believe that there ever was such a person as Thomas A. Edison, who invented and designed the incandescent light bulb.

No wonder the Bible says, "The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God'."

Is This Consistent?

The man who can walk on God's green earth, bask in God's golden sunshine, breathe God's fresh air, and then say, "There is no God," is like a man who pours Heinz ketchup on his hamburger and says, "There never was a Howard Heinz."

He is like a man who puts a Stetson hat on his head and says, "There never was a John B. Stetson."

He is like one who gets into his Ford car, and, as he starts the motor, says, "There never was a Henry Ford."

Such a person is not to be hated. He is to be pitied.

But equally pitiable is the man who says, "Yes, I believe in God," but whose life proves that his statement of faith is only theoretical—he has never let God show what He could do for him.

God, who made man, as well as the universe, is waiting for us to call on Him for help in solving the problems of our daily lives.

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Starts Saturday

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale began on March and will last through March 15. Momentarily you can expect that yearly visit from the Girl Scout in your neighborhood with her smile and her assortment of Girl Scout Cookies. This year there is a new variety—KoKo.

In case her customers may not know, the profits from these cookie sales have provided a permanent camp for Girl Scouts in the Heart of Florida Council at Wildwood. The camp is composed of 257 wooded acres on a lake with a magnificent new junior olympic sized swimming pool.

There are accommodations there for 64 girls and a primitive unit. In the Summer time, established camps are held there, but the rest of the year any troop within the council may reserve the camp for a weekend.

heimer hit for 16 points, Willie Joe Seigler scored 14 for his season high, and Clyde Sumbry dumped in 12 counters. Also scoring for Avon Park were Joe Hardy and Neal Caswell with two points each.

In the final game of the tourney played Saturday night between the champion Union Academy Tigers and the Avon Park Red Devils, it was simply a matter of too much height as Unions side. The Tigers used 6'4" center Howard Brown, a sophomore, and 6'3" John Dilworth to completely control the backboards most of the game to pace the Union Academy 81-68 victory. Brown scored 26 points for the champs before he fouled out in a foul-filled game. Junior forward Gregory Sanders hit the nets for 18 points for the Academy and junior William Davis scored 14 to help sink the Red Devils.

Avon Park by no means looked bad as the mighty midgets scored 68 points against the Tigers in spite of obvious fatigue from the effort expended the night before. At the end of the first period the Devils trailed by only two points, 15-13, but in the second quarter the Academy boys pulled out to a 13 point lead and went to the dressing room with a 40-27 advantage at half-time.

Both teams scored 15 points in the third period quarter and both scored 26 points each in the final period to give the Tigers the 81-68 win. However, at one point in the fourth quarter, Avon Park pulled within six points of the Academy before dropping back to the 13 point deficit.

Four Red Devils managed to score in the double figures, but just barely, against the Union Academy team. Don Sisemore sank 17 points, Don Strange had 15, and Magenheimer and Sumbry had 12 each in the losing effort. Joe Hardy scored three points before he fouled out early in the first half and Magenheimer and Sisemore joined him on the bench with five fouls each before the game was over. The Red Devils had 25 fouls called on them and Union Academy committed 24 fouls.

In the opening rounds of the meet Union Academy defeated Lake Placid in an afternoon session on Thursday by a score of 76-52 with junior Carver Young leading the Tiger scoring with 22 points and Senior Marshall Bush adding 14. Lake Placid's Norman McNimms sank 17 points to lead the Green Dragon's scoring.

Frostproof moved into the semi-finals with a 70-48 win over the Fort Meade Miners in the second game of the meet played Thursday night at 6:30 o'clock. Big Bill Franklin dunked in 25 points for the winning Bulldogs and John Stevenson and Nicky Davis added 13 each for Frostproof. The Miners never seemed to get moving against the aggressive Bulldogs and the top scoring Fort Meade effort was a nine point one by Lorenzo McCutchen.

The Thursday night nightcap was a match between Avon Park and Jewett of Winter Haven. The Red Devils were slow starting and trailed 14-11 at the end of the first quarter but after they moved into the lead in the second period, they were never topped as they went on to a 68-45 victory. In the second quarter Jewett managed to score only five points and in the third period the Wolverines were held to eight points by the hard pressing Red Devils.

Don Sisemore paced the Devils with 17 points, Strange had 16, Joe Hardy had 12, and Charlie Magenheimer hit for 11 points.

On Friday night Frostproof and Union Academy met in the opening 6:30 game and the Bartow boys came on strong after a slow start in the first period. The Tigers jumped to a 23-16 first quarter lead, but fell behind just before the half to trail 40-39 as they went to the dressing room. The third quarter proved to be the Bulldogs' undoing as they were held to eight points while the Academy hit for 21 to take a commanding 60-48 lead at the end of the third quarter.

Frostproof's Jerry Stevenson fouled out early in the third period to hamper the Bulldog effort and big Franklin fell victim to foul problems in the fourth period to further weaken Frostproof's attack.

Your Social Security

Question—My husband died in 1966. I am 57 years old and completely disabled. I have never worked under social security and do not have any children under age 18. Is there any way I can receive social security benefits?

Answer—A recent change in the social security law makes it possible for disabled widows between 50 and 60 years of age to receive monthly benefits. You should contact your social security office and file a claim for benefits as soon as possible.

Question—I operate a rather large farm but it appears that I will have a loss for last year. Is there any way I can get any social security credit for 1968?

Answer—Yes. A farmer who operates at a loss may file a tax return on the optional method and claim 2/3 of his gross income but not more than $1600 as self-employment income for the year.

Question—When my wife died in 1965, I received the lump sum payment but was told that no monthly benefits could be paid under age 18. Is there any way her support and had not worked six out of the 13 quarters ending with her death. Has this been changed?

Answer—Yes. The law concerning payments of children's benefits on the mother's record has been changed. You should contact your nearest social security office and file a claim.

Question—I was 65 years old in March 1968 and did not sign up for the doctor bill insurance under Medicare. When can I sign up for this?

Answer—The general enrollment period is January through March of this year. You may sign up anytime during this period.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Clayton J., aged 52, was a recent patient at Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Avon Park.

Many and varied are the roads which lead ultimately to an alcoholic applying for admission to the FARP in-patient Center. Clayton's story is not exactly typical, but it is real because the patients at the Center are real people with real problems.

A successful businessman, Clayton was divorced six years ago and now lives alone in one of the Florida Gold Coast high-rise apartment complexes. He says uncontrolled drinking began only two years ago, at which time he had stopped his active role in the business which had taken all his waking hours. He feels he now has too much spare time and that this has contributed to his drinking problem.

In the past he was active in many civic organizations but now has pretty much withdrawn and has isolated himself. Loneliness is a major problem, and he says he has been, prior to his hospitalization at the Center, a regular customer at a nearby lounge in order to be with people.

Clayton says he didn't begin drinking until the age of 21, when he was in college. He had learned at an early age that accomplishment and achievement would gain him greater acceptance by his parents, and thus went "all out" at everything he tried. A law degree, a highly successful time of military service in which he rose to the rank of major, and then success in business all attest to the fact that to Clayton, achievement has been the most important thing in life.

Yet Clayton has come to the FARP in-patient Center seeking treatment for alcoholism. Whether or not his hospitalization has resulted in his rehabilitation remains to be seen.

But the case serves to further dispel the myth still held by many people that the average alcoholic is a skid-row bum. Nothing could be farther from the truth. Although Clayton may not exactly be a "typical" patient at the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, there are many, many alcoholics in his social stratum. In fact, only some six per cent of the nation's alcoholics are of the skid-row variety; a far greater per-centage are successful businessmen — or businesswomen!

Facts are needed and wanted by the public regarding the problem of alcoholism, and one of FARP's jobs is to get these facts before the people of Florida.

If you have a drinking problem — or if you know of someone who does — and if you'd like information on the subject, just drop a card or letter to FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825, and tell us what you need.

Panthers Will Host St. Pete In Avon Park Thursday Night

By COACH TERRELL

Thursday night, at 5 P.M., at Head Field in Avon Park, South Florida Junior College Panthers will host St. Petersburg in a doubleheader. These will be the first conference baseball games for the Panthers. The Panthers will be striving for a playoff berth and must be first or second out of six teams. These teams are Manatee, St. Petersburg, Polk, Valencia, Brevard and South Florida.

Manatee won the state championship and lost the national championship after gaining the final undefeated, only to lose to Mesa Arizona, in two straight.

Probable starters for South Florida will be left hander Roy Nelson and right hander, Hoppy Rewis. Nelson is from Mobile and Rewis is from Avon Park. Foster will catch and is from Sebring. Back up pitching duties will have Robert Sizemore of Avon Park, Ralph Starratt of Hardee, Mike Harak of Tampa Catholic, and Henry Blonda of Belle Glade.

Last Wednesday afternoon, South Florida and Edison tied up in a usual Spring game that saw the Panthers take an 8-1 lead, saw Edison tie it with seven runs in the seventh inning, Edison go ahead 11-8 in the ninth and then saw South Florida come back in the bottom of the ninth to score two runs and have runners at second and third as the game ended with a close play at first.

Terry Mann drove the ball to deep short and the throw was wide but the first baseman came up with the ball as the two Panther runners crossed home plate. This throw was the third out to end the ball game.

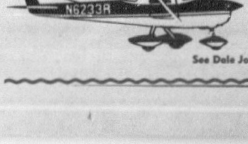

Hoppy Rewis started on the mound and held the Bucs to one run and three hits until the seventh inning. Here the ball bounced the wrong way as he gave up three runs and left with the bases loaded on two hits, two errors, one hit batsman and one walk.

Starratt relieved and gave up two hits and one walk. Mike Harak relieved in the eighth and gave up two runs in the ninth.

The Panthers are an explosive ball club and have proven they can produce runs, having scored 17 runs in two games but have given up 22 runs.

"As our pitching gets stronger we should cut the other teams' run production down. The biggest thing we need is a couple of good wins."

World Day Of Prayer Friday

World day of prayer is Friday and Harry R. Hunt submitted this poem for this occasion.

Prayer

Prayer is that communion with God!
Which releases or sets in motion in us;
The irresistible force of God,
That the fruition of Christ be in us,
That virtue might flow from us to others;
Even that others might find God.
To be forgiven and freed from their sins!
And that through us they might be healed of, their illness, mental, physical, or spiritual.

They have six children, Louis H. Stubbs, Alabama; Mrs. Ouida Russell, Arcadia; Emory M. Stubbs, Avon Park; Edward Stubbs, Fort Walton Beach; Mrs. Janie Carroll, Avon Park, and John C. Stubbs of Fort Walton Beach.

Grange Members Hold Panel Discussion

Avon Park Grange No. 203 met Tuesday evening, Feb. 25 at the First United Methodist Church with Master, Louise Clarke, in the chair.

Two applications turned in at the last meeting were balloted upon and a new one was received. March is New Member Month, and degree work will be held at different Granges at that time. Fifteen visiting Grange members were present from Hardee Grange, Ohio, Indiana and New York.

Grange policy — The Grange participates in distinct efforts aimed at international service and understanding. Past National Grange Master Newsom has served as president of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers, the only international agricultural organization in the world.

A panel discussion was in charge of Harry Brown, assisted by Zeno Warner, Alfred Haviland and Elmer Fullmer. The crops sold on one acre out of six are sold aboard. We cannot understand existing foreign policy, nor help future foreign policy without a knowledge of the background. Mr. Brown was on a tour which inspected farms in six European countries, but the discussion was limited to their experience in Russia.

On this 39,000 acre state farm they raised poultry, sheep and cattle and had a large dairy. The cows were kept in herds by men on horseback. Milk production per cow was about one-third of what it is here.

Crops grown were corn, oats, buckwheat and sunflowers. The sunflower seed is ground and used as soy bean meal in the United States. Egg production was a big business.

Many interesting points were brought out.

Avon Park Advancement was related by Louise Clarke.

Thought for the day—Washington said: "We must make the best of mankind as they are since we cannot have them as we wish."

Refreshments were served by Harriet Higgs and LaVerne Fullmer.

The next meeting will be held in the Junior Sunday School room on the South side of the First United Methodist Church on March 11, at 8 P.M. The program will be in charge of Keith and Miriam Debo.

Southland Trailer Park News

Friday, Feb. 28, 12 people came out to shuffle. In the final round, Francis McRae and Charles Wetts won over Byron Jeremy and Myrtle Heffernan with a score of 86 to 55. On the west board, Winnie Lumpkin and Evelyn Fritz won over Harriett Meissel and Blanche Kiracofe with a score of 80 to 53. Through the efforts of Mr. Jeremy, Mr. Watts and Mr. Paxton, our shuffleboard courts had a good scrubbing and waxing.

There were 11 players at pinochle on Wednesday evening. Goldia Daun was the winner at the table of five and the men beat the women at the table of six.

Barbara Lumpkin took a carload of Southland ladies over to the Kapok Tree Inn in Clearwater on Tuesday evening. This includes Barbara's mother, Winnie Lumpkin, Kay Hoover, Goldia Daun and Betty Peterson. The line was a block long when they arrived, and even though they had to wait two hours to be served, the beauty of the gardens and the grandeur of the dining rooms kept them well entertained.

Blanche and Elmer Kiracofe, accompanied by Grace and Victor St. John, friends of theirs who are living in Rev. Hutchen's Travel trailer, spent the day Monday with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Baumgardner near Bair's Den, south of Lake Placid. The Baumgardners operate a 1200 acre ranch, raising Black Angus. They have 800 head of cattle. The men enjoyed a jeep ride back in the wilderness where bear, deer and wild turkey and other wild life habitate. They all enjoyed the day, since the Kiracofes and St. Johns are interested in farming and cattle raising.

Rebecca Hostetter, Grace St. John and Blanche Kiracofe spent the day Wednesday in Sebring with Ladies Aid of the Church of the Brethren.

Miscellaneous cards Friday night there were four tables of 500 and one of pinochle. Neville Clark was high scorer for the evening. Art Baldwin won the booby prize. The pinochle players don't play for high score and don't know who won.

On Thursday evening at the hall, Mrs. Pearl Smith brought us slides of her Canadian trip. There was a good attendance and everyone enjoyed the pictures. We look forward to having her return.

Park friends are saddened by the passing of Mr. Baxter, Friday at Walker Memorial Hospital, after an extended illness. Mingled with this sadness is a feeling of security and a provision made by the Great Plan of life. We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Baxter and other members of the family. They left Saturday for his home in Ohio, where funeral services and burial will be conducted. A short service was held Saturday morning at Mizelle Funeral Home with Rev. Hardee in charge.

As we neared the hall Tuesday morning we ask ourselves, is this Tuesday morning? As we neared the door the chatter of 25 familiar voices was heard as they ate doughnuts and drank coffee. We are missing the familiar faces of some of our old coffee drinkers and hope they can soon join us again.

More signs of the coming of Spring! Mr. McClary and his corps of workers have cleaned the shop. Every hoe, rake, spade and digger is in its place.

Goldia Daun, accompanied by Marie Stroobant, Emma Gerdes and Evelyn Fritz, visited the Tower at Lake Wales Sunday afternoon. They report the flowers were beautiful. The wild life and the beautiful music of the chimes make it a very restful place to go.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clark of Lapeer, Mich., wintering in Brandon, entertained Omer Snyders last Friday at dinner. They are neighbors in Michigan and had many things to talk about.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Qualkinbush of Bedford, Ind. were guests Tuesday of Rev. and Mrs. Hutchens. Also, Rev. and Mrs. Marshal Wisley of Bloomington, Ind. Mrs. Ruth Burch also of Bloomington, Ind., were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Hutchens, Mrs. Burch is Mrs. Baxter's daughter.

Nine ladies were out for sewing Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Miller gave additional instruction in hat making and several new items were displayed. Again we want to remind the ladies that the hobby show date is fast approaching.

Rev. Hutchens who has been confined to his home is much improved at this writing.

The bingo party Saturday night was well attended. Everyone came with high hopes of winning and envious eyes were cast towards Elmer Kiracofe and Francis McRae who won the cash door prizes.

Mrs. Hetta Cook and Mrs. Harriet Meissel left Monday to visit relatives and friends at Port Richey and New Port Richey. They also visited Ft. Ogden on Thursday.

Russell Lumpkin entered the hospital at Sebring Monday. He is suffering from an attack of emphsema; we hope he will soon be able to return home.

The Jeremys and the Moynihans were in Lakeland Thursday and called on the Omer Borcks. Many friends will remember the Borcks living in the Park last winter.

Hospital Administrator Explains Walking Blood Bank to Kiwanis

Information of concern to each of us in our community was presented at the weekly Kiwanis meeting by George Walper, administrator of Walker Memorial Hospital. The topic which interests each of us was blood banking and its availability to us in our area.

Due to ever changing medical and surgical procedures, and the rapid continuing growth of our county, the need for all groups and types of whole blood is greater than ever before. As a result, Walker Memorial Hospital is making an all out effort to enroll every eligible donor in this area as a member of the "Walking Blood Bank" program.

A walking blood bank is any group of persons who, after having their blood typed, are eligible and available, upon call to donate blood when the need arises. This walking blood bank is necessary as only a limited amount of whole blood can be kept on hand in the hospital because whole blood deteriorates in 21 days.

Various groups, churches civic organizations, and business establishments have set up blood banks with the hospital for their employees. Those eligible to give must be within the age limit of 18 through 49.

Walker Memorial Hospital blood bank is accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks. This means that high standards of quality are maintained, that they have access to the clearing house of the association for transfer of credits of blood as well as for obtaining blood from other accredited blood bank sources.

Of the various types of blood, O is the most common with approximately 45 per cent of the population in this group. Forty-one per cent of the population are A type, 10 per cent B type, and four per cent AB type. The average person has 12 to 13 pints of blood and can give one pint every two months.

The blood recruitment program is designed to help people help themselves. It has been said that "Love of mankind is an empty phrase unless we can first learn to love our neighbor."

During the Kiwanis meeting a number of the Kiwanians had their blood typed and became members of a blood bank group. Others interested in joining a blood bank group may contact the hospital laboratory. This will not only be of help to their neighbors and friends, but also can be beneficial to the contributor or his family.

Small News Ads Sold House and Other Articles

MRS. DALE SMITH

"I could hardly believe it," Mrs. Dale Smith told the Sebring News, as she related that with two classified ads totaling $4.55 they sold their house and other articles including a washing machine, trailer, refrigerator, lawnmower and shotgun. And got full price.

"We had several calls last Wednesday night when the paper came out and the house was sold Thursday morning. It seemed like I answered the phone all day and all night. I lost count how many people called," she declared.

"We are very happy with the results we got from the advertising."

WE'LL MISS OUR HOME! But 5 bedrooms, 3½ baths is too much for us now. If you like a cozy fireplace, a large friendly kitchen with plenty of cupboards and built-in appliances plus a snack bar that will easily accomodate 10 people, then see this place. On two beautifully landscaped lots near Woodlawn Elementary School, and with 8 orange trees that provide fruit year round, the outside will never need painting. Other features are: central air and heat; drapes; intercom in each room and at all outside doors—intercom also carries AM-FM music into all rooms; master bedroom has "his and hers" closet with private dressing room and bath-shower; large pantry with peg board facility and storage space; utility room inside; den or music room that closes off from the rest of house; 2700 sq. ft. completely carpeted (steps often) of beautiful living. Outside has flood lights that can be controlled with one switch from master bedroom; a barbecue pit with marble top; and a very large concrete patio for "fun" times. Can be bought either furnished or unfurnished. Shown by appointment ONLY! 1209 Hawthorne Road, phone 385-7141, Sebring.—ddhfc

On Monday, Feb. 24 they boarded the shanty boat "The Lazy Bones," to cruise up to Lake Okeechobee and return. This cruise took five and a half days and was a most relaxing and delightful experience. Many wild birds were sighted such as the wood ibis, snowy egret, galanhule, anhinga and many others. A swamp buggy ride into the Lykes preserve along Fisheating Creek and an air boat ride into the Everglades were enjoyed by all and "locking" along the Caloosahatchee a most interesting experience.

Eating and delightful conversation were the order of the day. Fifteen passengers from nine states made for varied and congenial diversion. At night fall the Lazy Bones was moored in different channels among the lily pads and Bill caught himself three lovely black bass one evening which were enjoyed by all at breakfast the next morning.

Upon the return to home base on the Orange River, the Robbins and Mrs. Radcliffe returned home via Tampa staying at the new Manger Motor Inn overnight and enjoyed the Holiday on Ice show at the Curtis-Hixon auditorium.

Educational Program Set For High School

The Avon Park lay advisory committee for education invites Highlands County citizens to attend an informative program on educational specifications March 17, 7:30 P.M. at Avon Park High School auditorium.

Educational specifications are the basis for educational facilities and building plans. Your community, your child and his educational program decides the school plan you would like for your children and the youth of the future.

The county educators are presently requesting that departmental heads make known the program and plans they expect to accomplish to give your child a desirable education for his and her future.

Upon request of this public service, Floyd T. Christian, Superintendent of State Department of Education, has made available to Highlands County, Robert J. Wehking, consultant of the educational facilities planning section for this meeting.

Council Agrees To Enforce Southern Building Code

An effort to put more teeth in Avon Park's building code was made at the council meeting held Monday night. The new building inspector William Spurlock is taking his job seriously. The main trouble, he said, is not so much the home owner construction as it is with the contractors who ignore requirements. It is proposed to more strictly enforce the "southern standard building code." This requires the submission of floor plans and specifications in more detail when applying for permits.

It is claimed that much more building is going on then the city permits would indicate. Some contractors and builders are using permits to do much more than their requests would indicate, while others do not even bother to request permits. Careless workmanship and the loss of city revenue has resulted.

It was proposed that the exact wording of the new regulations be postponed until the next meeting of the council when fire and electric wiring regulations can be included. The council agreed also that extra copies be printed when the new code is advertised in the local paper so copies can be given out to applicants for city permits.

City Sewage Still a Problem

Bids were opened on the already agreed upon extension of the city sewer line to the junior college. A tabulation sheet was prepared in advance by the city engineering firm "Dawkins and Associates," for a breakdown of bids submitted by Aliens of Florida, (Indianatlantic), Bumby and Stimson, (Orlando), and J. I. Newton, (Barton). After tabulations the bids were turned over to the engineers for study and recommedations.

The feasibility of sewer line extensions before approaching the Federal Government for funds was discussed. It was feared that funds for main lines without the income producing materials might be rejected. It was also shown that an overall system taping in the majority of city home owners would be a great asset in getting either loans or grants subject to federal government approval. The voters rejected the sewer plan submitted four years ago remains a sore spot. Costs have risen so tremendously in the intervening years that it is an increasingly difficult problem to determine how far ahead the taxpayers are able to visualize the city's needs.

Other items discussed at this meeting of the city council include the following:

The city operated golf course continues to show as a good investment. Bill Beck, president of the association reported a return of $4021.33 for February of this year. A plan was proposed to have October 1 as a uniform date for completing payment of annual dues, current dues to be prepaid accordingly.

Questions of city police authority on the golf course as compared to the airport were discussed. It was pointed that that legislative authority is given city police for airport surveilance which is not available for other city operated projects outside its incorporated limits.

A report of the activities of our recently enlarged police force was read and a few side street arrests were made over their deal which included three arrests for "disobeying an officer."

Among the more pleasant items of business were Mrs. Decker representing the Woman's Club, requested permission to plant and care for a gift magnolia tree on the Mall; and the library association letter of thanks to the council for their help in recent improvements.

Property Owners Hear Need For Water Control

A jammed Highlands County courtroom of worried property owners from the Lake Istokpoga area on Thursday heard Army engineers explain that the meeting was called to find out what is needed in the way of water control.

And not called to announce the building of a big new levee.

"We are here to find out what you want," said Col. John J. McElhenny, district engineer from Jacksonville.

"Leave it like it is," came a chorus of voices from the crowd.

"We are here to report back to the Congress with a survey report on what you want us to do," he repeated patiently. The local sponsor is the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control district and on questioning, he said the hearing had been requested by Sen. Spessard Holland.

Rumors that the Army engineers were planning to build a levee to keep the water at a 45 foot elevation level—it now is 39.16—spread rapidly and have had property owners in an uproar.

Awaiting the engineers besides about 150 people was an inch thick sheaf of petitions signed by about 250 property owners. Attorney Hayward Davis, who prepared the petitions, said the signers were mostly owners of lots and houses in the area. The petitions requested that no action be taken without complete notification to all of them. Davis said these people actually would like to see the level stabilized between 38.5 and 39.5 feet. They objected to any construction which would interfere with the view or use of the Park.

Dail Was There

G. E. Dail, Jr., executive director of the flood control district, who came from West Palm Beach, stressed he felt a public hearing was necessary to "again evaluate the impending need for this levee," and said he had asked that the hearing be called.

Allen Wagganer of Lykes Bros., Inc., large landowners in the area, proposed a limited levee to attain the 40 elevation, such a levee to be constructed outside the existing tree line. His people, he said, oppose a large levee.

"We feel experiences with water since 1930 qualify so to speak up," he said. Present regulation, he said, is "more than adequate."

Stewart, Reynolds Object

Also speaking against a levee were Lamar Johnson, a consulting engineer from Lake Wales representing Stewart brothers who own 7,000 acres in the marsh watershed; C. L. Reynolds and Smith, who do much of the work for the Army engineers, and Edna Pearce Lockett, representing the Istokpoga marsh watershed association.

All were anti-levee. Reynolds pointed out that the lake had "everflowed once in 32 years and that was during a hurricane and we are willing to take chances on overflow caused by hurricane wind tide."

Rep. Jim Tillman pointed out that some of the canals already in "are drying us up."

So Little Difference

Conservationist Sam Polston remarked later that many of those present "were surprised to find that there was so little difference between the low level boys and the high level boys. What makes it hard is that in lake level control, rumors get out before the fact and then people make up their minds and choose up sides with the high or low level people. There is not much difference between the 39.16 foot and 40 foot elevations and they have been trying to hold at 39.50. This is difficult because there are weak dikes and in some places, no dikes. Rebuilding and plugging dikes would help."

The engineers promised that if any further hearings are called all persons who signed cards at the meeting, would be notified.

Among those from out of town attending were Oscar Rawls, chief of project planning for the engineers, Joe J. Koperski, chief engineer for the U.S. Army engineers, Joe Goode, hydraulic engineer, all of Jacksonville. Col. Julian Sollohub, Florida Board of Conservation in Tallahassee and Dail.

Today, modern chambers of commerce are daily at work—doing their job so quietly and so well that, oftentimes, we are unaware

South Florida Junior College has been notified by the Office of Congressman Paul Rogers, D. Fla., that approval was granted on the application for a supplemental grant of $94,118 under terms of Title I of the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963.

When bids were originally taken for construction, rising building costs had driven estimates higher than funds available for construction. The low bid on the project was some $250,000 above available construction funds.

The College was able to obtain a loan of $251,000 from the Internal Improvement Fund and then immediately applied for assistance under Title I. Before this emergency arose the college had obtained a grant of $475,155 from Federal sources.

With the supplemental grant the total Federal involvement in the construction at South Florida Junior College is $589,273. It should be emphasized that this supplemental money is not available for added facilities but is pledged toward repayment of the loan advanced by the Internal Improvement Fund.

Short Agenda Set For School Board Meeting

Progress reports on the South Florida Junior College and school desegregation are scheduled for the Highlands County School Board meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7:30 P.M.

School Superintendent George F. Douglass announced a short agenda which includes receiving of bids on moving portable classrooms and request for permission to advertise for bids on furniture for the new Lake Placid Elementary School.

County Store Sale To Benefit Band; Auction Set For Saturday

On Friday, Mar. 14, prior to the annual band auction, a "Country Store" type of sale will be held at Ed Touchton's warehouse on South Forest Avenue, formerly occupied by Kern Furniture Factory. (Old timers around here call this building the "old hatchery.") All merchandise collected will be on sale at prices set by the committee. There will be bargains galore.

An old-fashioned "Country Store" atmosphere will prevail, including ladies in old-fashioned dress. Refreshments will be available in a "cracker barrel" setting. Come and bring your friends.

So far we have collected many interesting items including a dressmaker's form, electric heater, window fan, two black and white TV sets (they work), toys, dolls, dishes, clothing and an antique or two, etc. Baked goods will also be sold.

To make this project a success, we need many more donations of goods to be sold, and we hope every one will help us by looking around for good items to contribute.

Items not sold at the "Country Store" will be auctioned off on the Mall (weather permitting) on Saturday, Mar. 15. Our very capable and experienced auctioneer, Col. Harry Van Buskirk, who resides at the Golden Age Villas, will begin the auction at 12:30 P.M.

Col. Van Buskirk has had many years of experience as an auctioneer in Ohio.

Anyone wishing to make any contributions for the "Country Store" and auction may bring them to the Ed Touchton warehouse any time on Thursday, Mar. 13. Or, to have items picked up, phone any one of the following: Mrs. Dona Ferguson, 453-3746; Mrs. Genia Bradberry, 453-6393; Louis R. Nickoley, 453-6517.

Disabled Veterans Organizing Area Chapter

Disabled American veterans from Highlands, Hardee, DeSoto, and South Polk Counties will meet for the second time on Thursday night, Mar. 20, at 7:30 P.M. in the Florida Power Lounge at 600 West Main Street, Avon Park to finalize the organizational procedures for a new area chapter.

An acceptable number of eligible disabled veterans attended the first meeting a month ago and unanimously joined the national DAV organization in order to qualify for a central Florida chapter to serve the many needs of its members on a personal and legislative basis.

Any disabled American veteran who was injured in line of duty between September 16, 1940 and the end of World War II, during the Korean conflict, the Vietnam action, or World War I should seek membership now to become a charter member providing he is currently rated from 0% to 100% disabled.

If in doubt of eligibility, attend this next meeting anyway to discuss the matter.

Election of temporary officers and outlinings a constitution will be accomplished at the March 20 meeting under the direction of Florida Department Adjutant Edward H. Tietjen, and Past State Commander Don Roussey. Wives of veterans are invited to attend and help form an auxiliary. For further information call Melvin Orl at Avon Park.

Devils To Play Blue Streaks Here Tuesday

The Avon Park Red Devil baseball team will travel to Fort Meade tomorrow afternoon (Friday) for a 4 P.M. encounter with the Miners. Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock the Devils will host the Hardee High Wildcats here at Head Field and next Tuesday the Sebring Blue Streaks will invade Head Field for an inter-county battle with Avon Park. Don Sisemore is slated to start on the mound for the Devils against Ft. Meade and Clark Jackson will probably start against Wauchula Saturday night.

Last Friday afternoon the Red Devils suffered their first loss of the season when the Okeechobee Brahmans shut them out by a score of 3-0 behind the four hit pitching of Dugg Williams.

Okeechobee scored two runs in the second inning when second baseman Bill Shipp reached first on a throwing error by the Devil shortstop and then advanced to second base when the Devil secondsacker dropped the ball trying to tag him on a fielder's choice. The Brahman scored on another error when Avon Park's pitcher overthrew third base attempting to pick him off stealing third. Brahman third baseman, Marshall Coker followed Shipp around the bases and then scored from third on a sacrifice fly to left field by catcher Robert Watford.

In the top of the seventh, Okeechobee scored another run when Coker drew a base on balls, went to second when the followin g batter also walked, took third on a single by Watford, and scored on a fielding error by the Devil pitcher.

Avon Park threatened only twice. Steve Walker singled in the fourth and Bill Jackson followed with a double after Larry LaFlam had been retired. But with only one out and men on second and third the Devils were unable to push a man across. Then in the fifth inning Dennis Hart reached third after he singled, stole second, and moved to third on a passed ball but Gene Landress flied out to short centerfield and the next two Devil batters struck out to retire the side. The only other hit by Avon Park was a single by Bill Jackson in the sixth frame.

Larry LaFlam went the distance on the mound for Avon Park giving up only two singles to the Brahmans. The senior righthander struck out eight batters, and walked four during his seven inning stint on the mound. The loss set LaFlam's record at 1-1 for the season.

The Avon Park Red Devil baseball team won its opening game in Lake Placid Tuesday, March 4 with a convincing 13-4 victory over the Green Dragon nine in a seven inning affair.

Centerfielder Steve Walker blasted out a triple and a home run to pace the Red Devil batters as they pounded Dragon hurler Danny Watson for 13 hits.

Homestead Exemption Deadline April 1

Time is running out for filing for homestead exemption for 1969. County Tax Assessor J. W. "Billy" Martin said today about 500 Highlands County homeowners have not returned exemption renewal cards. Deadline is April 1.

New residents who purchased homes in this county during 1968 and who expect to apply for homestead exemption, should contact the assessor's office immediately to inquire about eligibility, Martin said.

Martin said some old residents forget that when they change homes they must make a new application for homestead, and he urged old residents who moved during 1968 to file their new applications without delay.

"New applications received to date indicate we have about 500 new homeowners this year, setting a record of approximately 6,000 total homestead properties. This is a good sign of the healthy growth in the population of Highlands County," Martin said.

The tax assessor pointed out all owners of tangible and intangible personal property must file their reports no later than April 1 to avoid penalty under the law.

Gold Again

A year ago this week, gold was devalued by the back door, so to speak, when a double standard was set up for buying gold.

At the time we wondered how soon they would have to give in and devalue completely.

Well, here it is March again and another crisis.

It will be interesting to see how the administration of Richard Nixon handles this solid gold hot potato.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Alcoholism has some pronounced symptoms that drinkers would do well to heed.

There are earliest danger symptoms of approaching alcoholism; there are also signs of alcoholism in the middle stages and late stages.

Here are a few of the earliest danger symptoms:

1. Feeling that parties or festive occasions aren't "complete" without a few drinks.

2. More frequent use of drinking to "relieve" tension and fatigue; to "get over" disappointment, frustration, home and business quarrels.

3. Ability to handle more alcohol than others and a need to have a "few extras" when drinking with others.

4. Beginning of blackouts when parts of the previous evening cannot be remembered although the individual did not pass out.

Alcoholism in the middle stages usually is characterized by these symptoms:

1. Heavier drinking is more noticeable to others. The individual resents being told about it and develops "explanations" to himself and others for his drinking behavior.

2. When starting to drink, he now gets the first few down quickly; he sometimes prefers drinking to eating.

3. He wants to have alcohol available at all times and feels uncomfortable when it is not; he drinks to calm unexplainable fears and "nerves."

4. He makes unsuccessful attempts to cut down on drinking; he has increasing difficulty with his job, his family, and others.

Late-stage alcoholism has the following earmarks, among others:

1. The individual now gets drunk on less alcohol, and length of drinking bouts increases.

2. He feels depressed, guilty, or sick most of the time, and relieves these feelings with more alcohol.

3. Neglect of eating; obsession with fears; anxieties and resentments; inability to get going during the day without a drink or drinks.

4. Constant tremors, relieved only by drinking; severe deterioration of health, family, work, and other relationships.

An individual who drinks and who is honest enough to face facts can profit by examining himself in the light of these symptoms. Alcoholism, like cancer, is far more successfully treated in its early stages than it is later on.

Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program is an agency of the State of Florida and as such belongs to the people of the Sunshine State. For more information on alcoholism — free of charge — just write FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

Most birds can see at right angles of their head, but not ahead, like humans. Birds of prey, like hawks and owls, are exceptions.

The Mississippi River transports some 400 million tons of soil into the Gulf each year—some 40 to 50,000 tons per hour.

The mantis is the only insect that can turn its head like a human.

Sex Revolution Going Too Far?

One of the several revolutions which we are living through in this disturbed time has been named the "sex revolution."

Filthy films, which would not have been permitted under the old motion picture production code, now besmirch the screens of what used to be the best theaters.

Books which would not have been sold by reputable merchants, a few years ago, are now praised by reviewers as having literary merit.

Perhaps the most extreme changes are being made on the campuses of our colleges and universities.

Students Make Rules

To meet the demands of some of the students, numerous colleges, across the nation, have relaxed dormitory rules—in some cases permitting the students to set the rules themselves.

In one university—which I prefer not to name—the rules permit students living in a dormitory to decide when students of the opposite sex may visit their friends in that building, and whether doors of dormitory rooms may be closed during the visits.

The visiting students, must, however, leave by midnight on most weekdays. On Fridays the visiting time is extended to 1 A.M. Saturday, and on Saturday nights the required leaving time is 2 A.M. Sunday.

Does this shock you?

Then what do you think about the fact that a New York City doctor—an obstetrician—said at a university gathering, earlier this year, "An engaged couple should enjoy sex together . . . as a healthy, enjoyable thing."

The name of this obstetrician who apparently considers himself an authority in matters of morals is Dr. Selig B. Neubardt and he was speaking at a conference held at Michigan State University.

He recommended that these engaged couples should use contraceptives, but also stated that he favored abortion, in cases of unwanted pregnancies.

The Biblical injunctions against immorality of this sort apparently have no effect on his thinking.

Perhaps it should be pointed out that the obstetrician's views on morality and religion should be considered just as authoritative and valuable as a clergyman's advice on obstetrics would be.

God's Rules Still Sound

The rules that God has set for human welfare have not changed—no matter what some self-styled experts may say.

The best advice for young people who aspire to live a happy life is still the counsel that Paul gave to his young friend, Timothy, "Flee also youthful lusts, but follow righteousness."

The young person who heeds this wise counsel will have nothing to regret.

On the other hand, the young person who adopts as his code of conduct the permissive standard urged on him by some who ought to know better will, some day, be sorry that he did not use as his life's guide the Book which points the way to genuine happiness.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW — Focusing on Photography

By BABSON'S REPORTS Incorporated

Wellesley Hills, Mass., March 13, 1969. Taking pictures is not only a pleasurable hobby—it's also a big and still growing business. In the period 1961 through 1966 the photography industry in this country grew at an average annual rate of about 15 per cent—or twice the annual rate of the Gross National Product. In 1967 the value of photographic merchandise shipments advanced to about $3 billion, and last year it was even higher.

Bright Future

Aided by more leisure time, the increase in the teenage population, higher disposable income, new product developments, the emphasis on color, more extensive traveling by the public, and wider use of photography in education, business, and the sciences, the photographic industry could sustain a growth rate of 10 to 15 per cent per annum during the coming decade.

Amateur photography, which consumes nearly 40 per cent of photo merchandise produced in the U. S., is booming. More expensive color photography has been expanding at an extremely rapid pace. Nearly 75 per cent of all amateur still pictures are now in color.

The rapid increase in picture taking over the past decade has come about largely because of simplified instant loading cameras, instant print cameras, an affluent consuming public, and the dynamic "youth" market. The overseas sector has also been an area of strong growth, and in the future may outstrip the domestic advance.

Many Participants

The three dominant companies in this industry are Eastman Kodak, Polaroid, and Bell & Howell. But there are other large firms that have an important stake in photography. For example, about 10 per cent of Minnesota Mining Manufacturing's sales come from photographic products. GAF Corp. derives nearly 25 per cent of its sales from photo products. Berkey Photo, fast-growing film producer, distributor, and processor, had sales last year of over $125 million, while Technicolor's 1968 revenues exceeded $116 million.

There are also numerous smaller companies with important interests in some area of the industry. A few such are Ehrenreich Photo-Optical, Perfect Film and Chemical, Pako Corp., Fox Stanley, Viewlex, Argus, AIC Photo, Fotochrome, DeJur-Armsco, and Interphoto.

Looking at the Leaders

Eastman Kodak is far and away the industry's leader. About 90 per cent of its 1968 sales of over $2.6 billion came from photographic equipment and supplies, which included the Instamatic still and Super 8 movie camera lines, film projectors, and color processing services. Kodak also produces synthetic textile fibers, chemicals, and plastics.

This company has one of the finest growth records of any industrial firm, reflecting astute management, aggressive policies, well-accepted product line, and new product developments. Kodak's future growth should be augmented by its overseas business. Hence the Babson's Reports staff feels that Eastman Kodak may be purchased for growth.

Polaroid has compiled a tremendously impressive growth record largely because of its frequent introduction of new products. Research and development have been the company's strong points. Polaroid plans to introduce an entirely new product line of cameras, including a low-cost color model which will be priced under $30.

Aided by the new line, plus its probable entry into other fields such as slides and copiers at some later date, Polaroid's growth prospects remain good. Polaroid traditionally sells at a high multiple of earnings and is very volatile, but it is a good long-term holding.

Bell & Howell's common stock is now priced well below its former high due largely to a temporary flattening in the company's earnings. In the future, Babson's Reports expects a recovery in earnings and B&H benefits from some of its late developments.

These include a new method of adding sound to home motion pictures; a new fully instamatic focusing system for home movie cameras; a new electro-static copier; several new cassette audio tape recorders; and a new color television camera. Bell & Howell may be bought for appreciation.

Half Million In County Taxes Still Unpaid

A larger percentage of the annual tax roll is paid up than was true in Highlands County this time a year ago. Highlands County Tax Collector W. H. Prescott said today that 84.4 per cent of the 1968 tax roll had been paid by February 28.

By the end of February, 1968, a total of 83.8 per cent of the 1967 taxes had been paid.

But even with the better percentage, the actual amount of money outstanding is higher this year than last and there is a larger number of items on the unpaid list.

The 1968 tax roll in 1967 was $2,415,941. By February 28 of this year the county's taxpayers had brought in $2,413,763—almost as much as the total roll for the previous year.

The roll for 1968 is $2,858,832 and the unpaid balance is approaching a half-million dollars. The over 4 thousand items still on the unpaid list account for $445,068.

Tax Collector Prescott said today he expects most of the unpaid taxes to come in during March. Beginning April 1 a three per cent penalty is added and after April 10 advertising costs are added on all unpaid taxes.

Irene Files For Divorce Second Time

According to an Associated Press story, Irene Maxcy Wells of Deerfield Beach, widow of slain Von Maxcy, has filed suit for a second time for divorce from fourth husband, Jerome Louis Wells.

The first suit was filed February 11 in Palm Beach County, two weeks to the day she married Wells in a fast Georgia ceremony. It was reported they reconciled but separated again February 16. She filed a second suit in Broward County March 3. The first suit charged drunkeness and according to court records at Fort Lauderdale, the second "habitual intemperance and extreme cruelty."

Mrs. Wells is is under indictment for perjury in the trials of her former lover, John J. Sweet, for the hired murder of Maxcy. Sweet, free on $50,000 bond from his murder conviction, has filed a $250,000 damage suit against Mrs. Wells charging she falsely accused him of participating in Maxcy's murder.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

BIRTHDAY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

The man who really started the Republican Party was Stephen A. Douglas who, through vaunting ambition and selfishness, tinctured with short-sightedness, caused a bill to be passed by Congress, called the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, repealing the Missouri Compromise, which prohibited slavery North of a certain line and allowed it South of the line. This bill of Mr. Douglas gave the people in these two territories the right to decide the slavery question for themselves. It was sarcastically called "Squatter Sovereignty" with a certain amount of truth.

Douglas had no particular sympathy for the Negro. The only thing he thought of with any affection was a certain, short-legged, smart gent named Stephen A. Douglas. He said more than once that, "between the Negro and the white man he preferred the white man; between the Negro and the crocodile, he preferred the Negro."

The passage of this Kansas-Nebraska Law was immediately followed with the muttering of the storm that split the country along where Negro slavery paid and where it didn't. Douglas himself said it "would raise a hell of a storm," and it certainly showed he did not much care for anything but Senator Douglas.

Party lines began to snap at once. Untold thousands of Northern Democrats withdrew from the party in deep indignation; the Whigs, already split along what later was called the "Mason Dixon Line," completed the "frazzeling out" of that party for years dying. Some of the Whigs went for the South, but most of them joined a new party, later to be called Republican. Douglas raised the storm that wrecked him politically and almost wrecked the United States of America.

As early as February 28, 1854, a large group of Whigs, Democrats and Free Soilers, met at Ripon, Wisc., and resolved to form a new party to oppose the further spread of slavery, if the Kansas-Nebraska Bill became a law. On Many 9, several anti-slavery Congressmen met in Washington boarding house and advocated the same course of action; on May 6, a great mass of citizens, aroused over the drift of things nationally, came together at Jackson, Mich., and adopted the name "Republican, emulating the "Democratic-Republican Party" of Thomas Jefferson, and the "storm," aptly described by the man who raised it, astonished its creator himself. Thousands of wrathful people were meeting all over the map where slavery was not profitable and decided to work for a new political party.

The "storm" started in Kansas. The slave interests, always first to get "rough" poured into the territory and "elected" slavery as the wishes of the "citizens," nearly all of them living in Missouri. They got up a "constitution" and selected a place called Lecompton as the capital. The anti-slavery folks, most of the really settlers, also got together and got up a constitution and selected Topeka for the capital. Fighting began between the factions at the "drop of the hat," and Douglas dropped it himself, without intention. When this writer was a little "kid," people along the Kansas-Missouri line, didn't like each other any too well.

John Brown, a half-wit about like the nut who shot Robert Kennedy, got up a crowd and murdered several people one night. This brought on retaliation by Missourians, and the war-jig was on, called "Border Warfare."

Showing the spontaneity of the movement, seven states later claimed to be the birthplace of the Republican Party, and in some states the Free-Soil element got together almost immediately; in others it took as long as several months. Some Whigs and Northern Democrats held off leaving the "party of our daddies" for much longer, but the Republican party gave Fremont, the "Path-Finder," a whopping vote the first time it threw its hat into the ring. The Kansas-Nebraska Bill allowed the new states to decide for themselves if they wanted slavery or didn't want it, and that aroused the North to the conviction that the matter would, in the final hours, be settled by the sword, the "hell of a storm," predicted by Douglas.

Lincoln and Douglas, contending for the office of Senate, brought on a great debate. Douglas advocating "Squatter Sovereignty" for new states, won the office by a vote taken by districts, 54 to Lincoln's 46. Abe chuckled, "He won the Senate, but he'll never win the presidency now." Douglas' stand divided the Democrats, causing the split of that party in the Free States to join the new Republican Party. The new party met in a frame building, called the "Wigwam," in Chicago, and after a long, hard session, nominated Abraham Lincoln for President. At the general election the Democrats had two candidates: Douglas and Breckenridge, the "Do Nothings" as they were called, but who called themselves the "Constitutional Union" party, had a man named Bell. The vote rolled in to Lincoln's official HDQ: Lincoln had 1,866,452; Douglas 1,376,957; Breckenridge 849,781 and Bell 588,879. In spite of the fact that thousands of people sneaked North to take on the Blue Uniform and fight the South later, Lincoln did not get one vote in the deep South! Vote-stealing, evidently, is not a new art in this country. The electoral vote went 173 for Lincoln, Breckinridge got 72; Bell 39 and Douglas 12. When Lincoln gave his first inaugural address, he could find no place to put his hat. Douglas, who was on the platform, jumped up and held it, with the sports-manlike remark: "Well, I can't be President, but I can hold his hat when he does."

The Southern Democrats then left the Union and fought more than four years to keep darkies in slavery, shedding lakes of rich American blood. In the last election 92 per cent of the free darkies voted for the Democratic Party except those "

Academy Fakes A Disaster Thursday

As a result of a "mock" disaster which occurred at Highland Lakes Junior Academy on Thursday, Mar. 5, 15 students were rushed to Walker Memorial Hospital to participate in a hospital and school disaster drill.

As the students began to arrive at the hospital shortly after 2 P.M., Dr. Gregg Watters, chairman of a Disaster Committee for the medical staff of the hospital, was present to sort the "patients" according to severity of the patient's condition and to direct the hospital personnel in meeting the "emergency." In preparation for their arrival at the hospital, all disaster victims had been tagged with various injuries that would utilize the various departments of the hospital.

Following the disaster drill, Dr. Watters met with the hospital personnel to review the various activities and the efficiency with which these were carried forward. Generally speaking, it was felt that the personnel had met the disaster most completely.

Such drills are conducted several times each year at the hospital that personnel might be better able to meet the actual needs when they arise. Since the hospital census was at peak capacity, this drill gave the administration opportunity to analyze the conditions of patients already admitted in the hospital in comparison to those being admitted from the "disaster," realizing that in case of a real disaster of any extent, it would, no doubt, be necessary to discharge patients with lesser injuries or medical need.

Highlands General Hospital Will Celebrate Its 4th Birthday Sunday

Highlands General Hospital will celebrate its fourth birthday Sunday. Since opening its doors on March 16, 1965, the modern institution on US 27has treated more than 7,000 patients and pumped over $2.5 million into the county's economy.

The hospital's record of service in its first four years were reported to the past and present hospital board members in a luncheon at the hospital. The report was made by Harold O'Neal, original administrator for the hospital who concluded his service with the hospital on Monday.

Honored guests for the luncheon were Robert King, Jr., of Avon Park, Miles Baker of Sebring and Richard Dressel of Lake Placid. All three were members of the first board for Highlands General Hospital.

Mrs. Edna Pearce Lockett of Ft. Bassinger and Frederic Jahna of Avon Park, members of the original board are still serving. Other current members are Marshall S. P. Pollard, Lake Placid; Miss Gertrude S. Bates of Sebring and Henry L. Caffee of Avon Park.

King, Baker and Dressel each received a small reproduction of the dedication plaque in the lobby of the hospital.

Patient Revenue

In his report, O'Neal said the hospital had collected $2,020,438 from inpatients. Outpatients accounted for $91,910 of income.

The O'Neal report commences with March 16, 1965, and covers all hospital transactions through January 31, 1969.

"Most of this patient care revenue actually was called into the county by the hospital. The money came from insurance, Medicare, other sources from outside the county," O'Neal said.

The income from patients has soared. In 1965 inpatients accounted for $212,753 and the outpatients $10,225.

In 1966 the outpatient income zoomed to $22,534 and since then has climbed slowly to $29,291 last year.

In the first year the hospital's inpatient income grew almost 100 per cent—to $420,993 in 1966. In 1967 that figure climbed to $576,938 and jumped to $809,753 in 1968.

In the four years of its life Highlands General Hospital has admitted 7,055 patients. A total of 626 babies have been born at the hospital, and 309 patients have died.

Patient days of care total 48,029; number of operations, 2,374; electrocardiograms taken, 4,497; laboratory procedures, 56,586, and 15,049 x-rays procedures.

Patients have been served 125,576 meals. O'Neal said the figure does not include any of the meals served to personnel or outsiders in the cafeteria.

The hospital now has 127 full-time employees. Gross payroll for the four years is $1,377,215.

There are 11 physicians on the hospital's active staff, and many specialists are now available on the consultant staff.

Since the opening of the hospital the taxpayers have contributed $340,858 through the county-wide hospital tax district.

(Great Announcement)

Religion is the greatest of all means for the establishment of order in the world and for the peaceful contentment of all that dwell therein. The weakening of the pillars of religion hath strengthened the hands of the ignorant and made them bold and arrogant. Verily I say, whatever hath lowered the lofty station of religion hath increased the waywardness of the wicked, and the result cannot be but anarchy. Religion is a radiant light and an impregnable stronghold for the protection and welfare of the peoples of the world, for the fear of God impelleth man to hold fast to that which is good, and shun all evil.

Members of the two squads will be eligible to attend cheerleading camp this summer and will be ready for the 1969 Red Devil football season in September.

Bartow Union Academy Defeats Gifford in Basketball Tournament

Bartow Union Academy's hot basketball team outscored defending champion Gifford High of Vero Beach and Miami Pace to take the Class B Region 4 title here at the Avon Park gym last Friday and Saturday nights. The Bartow team will now advance to the state basketball tournament in Jacksonville and are scheduled to play Port St. Joe at 10:30 A.M. tomorrow (Friday).

The Union Academy Tigers defeated Avon Park the previous weekend in the finals of the Class B group 13 tournament also held here. In the regional meet the Tigers set down Gifford by a score of 61-57 behind the shooting of Gregory Sanders who hit for 24 points.

In the nightcap Friday night the Monsignour Pace Spartans topped the Immokalee Indians by a score of 87-78 to advance to the region finals. Both teams used a full court press and fast break to the delight of the fans who filled the local gym for the tournament. The scrappy Miami team took advantage of the fact that Immokalee's top scorer was ineligible for the meet to take the win from Coach Vic Kirk's Indians.

In the finals Saturday night Union Academy jumped ahead of the Pace team and were never topped as they moved on to the win. Pace did move within a point of the Tigers in the final minutes of play but couldn't overcome the height advantage held by the Union Academy team. The final score was 83-78 with Sanders again setting the pace for the champions with a 28 point effort.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported by George W. Walper

George Douglass was a most welcomed visitor of the Rotary Club of Avon Park this past Wednesday as he was introduced by Joe Franza, program chairman. In his meeting with the club, Douglass spoke on problems confronting the Highlands County Educational Department at this time.

It was stated that in 1948 our county had 3,000 children enrolled in school. By 1959, 4,700 were enrolled. Today we have 6,300 with approximately 160 additional being enrolled yearly. Frequently we feel that our population has a greaer number of those in the Medicare age rather than the youth. However, 35.8 per cent are under 18, 27.9 per cent 19 through 44, 21 per cent 45 to 64 and only 15 per cent over 65. With figures such as this, we must not close our eyes to the needs of education.

Some have felt that we should utilize only a pay as you go plan for our education. This however, does not give a complete program, for facilities do not equal student needs with this procedure. Frequently we have seen building completed room by room only to find when we are through with the total project that we have a tripled program and must then go out and start it anew. The need for additional school facilities to meet the education growth is greatest in Lake Placid, Avon Park, then Sebring. Each of our cities must become vitally interested in this and do all within their power to meet this need.

We must look at education as an investement, not as an expenditure, for if we do not, we will surely be in trouble. Our educational program today is standing on the threshhold of a growth period.

Let us look at what has been done in the past. The county school board has assessed the needs for our students. But have established a base for growth in all 3 communities. They have also initiated action in order to reach this goal.

What can be done in order to meet this growing need? We must each as citizens of this community become informed of the needs and the manners of solving this problem. We must then become convinced that the school board is doing what they feel is right, for the decisions they are making are being made only after much study. A bond issue for this purpose seems to be the only answer. Each of the communities must do its part in meeting this need. Petitions are now being circulated in each of the communities requesting the availability of funds for this purpose. All registered voters may sign one of these petitions to bring the issue before the public. May we each do our part to see that our children will have the opportunity of getting the best possible education that we may have a stronger tomorrow.

Bank President Is New Treasurer Of Seal Campaign

Rex E. Bond, president of the First National Bank of Sebring, has accepted appointment as Treasurer in the Highlands County area for the 1969 Easter Seal campaign, March 1-April 6.

In making the announcement, Don Jonas, Seal Chairman for the Central Florida area, pointed out that this will be Bond's third consecutive year of service.

Last year some 250,000 handicapped people, regardless of the cause of crippling, regardless of race, religion, national background or economic status, were provided rehabilitation services throughout the U. S. In Florida alone, Bond said, Many benefits are derived from special or summer sesions at Camp Challenge, Florida's only camp for the handicapped, and one which is supported by Easter Seal contributions.

We had seven tables at duplicate bridge on Thursday, March 6. The Mitchell system was used. Juanita Carr and Grace Beauvais were high with 83 points, and the Curtis Hawkins were second with 78. This was North-South. East-West high was the William Moons with 75 points, with the Joe Nickersons second with 67.

The door prize was won by Herman Wurster.

Next week we give up Thursday afternoon to the hobby show. But will have bridge on Friday, March 14. So lets have a good turnout.

Dances

There was a very good turnout at both Monday and Friday evening dances with George Mills directing.

Friday evening a square of square dancers, four couples, came from Lake Placid to visit and enjoy our dance. We had six squares that evening.

Monday evening, March 10, Art Gorsuch will direct the dancing. He will continue until a regular director is named by the board.

Entertainment

Crafts

The hobby show will be all day Thursday from 9:30 to 5 o'clock. Do come and see all the beautiful things folks have made this past year. Punch and cookies will be served from 3 to 4 o'clock. Demonstrations of how to make several different things will be in progress all day. Each year the show gets better and better.

Last Thursday the club room was crowded with ladies who were learning to make hats, pins and ear rings, tooling leather, and other things.

Saturday Supper

The Floyd Ribordys and the Gust Diesslins were hosts to the 52 members and guests present at the supper Saturday evening.

Mr. Ribordy welcomed all the folks, and Mrs. Ribordy gave the table grace.

The tables looked quite festive being decorated with tree orchid flowers and greenery.

A guest was Mrs. Lawrence Spring of Snyder, N. Y., and new members present were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Leet of Dewittville, N. Y.

The program started with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag led by Mr. Diesslin. Poems were read by Mrs. William Bayes, Mrs. Ribordy and Mrs. Diesslin. Mrs. Robert Wallace led the group singing, and the last of the program was the singing of "God Bless America."

Glenn and Mildred Long wish to thank all those who sent cards and those who came to see them express their sympathy in the recent death of their 13 year old grandson.

Southland Trailer Park News

Thirteen were out to shuffle Friday afternoon. In the playoff on the East court it was Dorcas Young and Everett Paxton winning over Francis McRae and Harold Arms the score 61 to 16.

Emma Gerdes entertained the birthday group of Ann Antony, Evelyn Fritz, Betty Peterson and Goldia Daun for a delicious dinner at the Holiday Cafeteria at Sebring Friday.

The annual hobby show will be held Wednesday, Mar. 19, at the hall. The regular monthly potluck dinner will be held the following Wednesday. All exhibits should be brought to the hall not later than Tuesday, Mar. 18, to be arranged to exhibit. Friends of the park are welcome to bring articles to exhibit. Bee and Byron Jeremy are the chairmen, with their helpers, Caroline Morrision, Marie Stroobant and Evelyn Fritz, have announced the hours from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. Refreshments will be served.

Word has been received from Winnie Lumpkin that they arrived at the home of their son in Wilmington, Ohio, and that Russell is feeling very well. The son, Bob Lumpkin, met them at Orlando and took them on to his home. After getting them on their way with their son, Harry Barth, Lynn Watkins and Barbara Lumpkin were driven back to Avon Park by Goldia Daun. The address is Mrs. Russel Lumpkin, 663 Prairie Ave., Wilmington, Ohio 45177.

The Elethorpes will be leaving Monday morning for their home in Hammond, N. Y., on account of the serious illness of their son-in-law. Their son, Truman, will be driving them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyndon Watkins of Indiana have been visiting his mother, Louise Garrison, for the past week.

Mae Belle Hall of Sebring, formerly of Avon Park, will be locating soon in a new 12 ft. mobile home on the lot East of Art Baldwins.

Neville Clark received word from Mrs. Baxters daughter, Ruth, saying she arrived safely. She expects her mother to return to Indiana after attending Mr. Baxters funeral in Ohio.

At miscellaneous cards Friday evening Herb Renaud won in 500 with a score of 2860. Ann Barth and Steward Dilts won in pinochle. Several people were out for the Friday night cards.

Twenty-five were out for coffee Tuesday morning. Cards were passed around for all to sign to send to Leona Hopkins, who is now living in a retirement home in Ft. Myers and to Mary Baxter who has returned to her home in Indiana since the death of her husband. These cards were personally taken to each home in the park for those who did not attend the coffee hour to sign. We want to make mention of the time spent and the efficient service of this committee.

THE CAREFREE ALL-ELECTRIC MOBILE HOME!

Mobile homes have come a long way from yesterday's cramped, utilitarian trailer. They're spacious, decorator-styled, and all-electric . . . providing clean, safe, flameless heating and cooling, cooking and refrigeration, water heating and garbage disposer. Therefore they give you the utmost in modern easy care, convenience, and comfort. That means built-in leisure . . . more time to enjoy the beautiful settings, recreational facilities, and congenial neighbors of today's mobile home parks.

Isn't carefree living the key reason you're interested in a mobile home? So the last word in mobile homes is all-electric. That makes it the best investment—an idea to consider from

WE'LL MISS OUR HOME! But 5 bedrooms, 3½ baths is too much for us now. If you like a cozy fireplace, a large friendly kitchen with plenty of cupboards and built-in appliances plus a snack bar that will easily accomodate 10 people, then see this place. On two beautifully landscaped lots near Woodlawn Elementary School, and with 8 orange trees that provide fruit year 'round, the outside will never need painting. Outside has flood lights that can be controlled with one switch from master bedroom; a barbecue pit with marble top; and a very large concrete patio for "fun" times. QUALITY
By Harold Bartee

The quality built into every Merc is really something. Take bearings for example... throughout each Merc, roller and ball bearings are used exclusively. More expensive, but it's part of the reason Mercs idle smoother, troll slower, run faster, and last longer.

Only top grade aluminum is used to die-cast Mercs . . . not re-melted scrap. In fact, the clamp brackets on 20 hp Mercs and bigger are even forged to eliminate the possibility of failure. Every Mercury part is engineered for trouble-free performance.

You get lots more in a Merc . . . quality materials, plus exclusive features to make your fishing and boating more enjoyable. Drop in and we'll tell you more about why your next outboard should be a Mercury.

Three Homes Burn

According to the Avon Park Fire Department, it seems that a spark from a train might have been the cause of the chain reaction of three of Metcalfe's houses to go up in flames last Wednesday afternoon in Rainbow Park.

A grass fire spread to the hull of a shack, which set the next two on fire. One of the houses was occupied.

Following the dinner each evening, the budget for 1969-70 fiscal year will be explained by means of a "budget parade" where individuals will give pertinent facts about the various budget items. One of the selections to be read from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, by Mary Baker Eddy, is the following: "The everlasting I am is not bounded nor compressed within the narrow limits of physical humanity, nor can He be understood aright through mortal concepts. Dept Paid In Full

Found: on Dr. McCarthney's grave in Bougainvillea Cemetery last Friday, Mar. 7, a dollar bill. It was found by Rex Furr, former manager of the cemetery.

Was this the balance of a debt due the doctor?, or a wind blown dollar, lost by a passer-by?

CARD OF THANKS

My stay in Walker Memorial Hospital was much brightened by the many cards, visits, gifts and flowers sent to me by my many friends. Friendships means so much. My sincere thanks to everyone who remembered me, with such kind thoughts.

Firm Gains Membership In Boat Association

Critchfield Marine's Marketing Director, W. Crawford Thompson, accepts for the company membership in the world's largest association of boat manufacturers, Boating Industry Association and Outboard Boating Club of America.

"The union was inevitable," Thompson explained, "since the goals and efforts of Critchfield Marine and BIA are identical—to raise the standards of safety and quality. It is just about impossible to find a fiberglass pleasure boat anywhere, built by anybody, that doesn't embody design techniques and construction features created and pioneered by Bill Critchfield. And the work done by BIA toward greater fun and security on the water is altogether admirable. We're honored to join them."

Critchfield boats are manufactured in Avon Park and shipped nationwide on the company's own fleet of trucks.

In all of Critchfield's national advertising and publicity, mentions are made of Highlands County and photographs made locally are incorporated.

Little League Meeting Set For Thursday

There will be a meeting of the Avon Park Little League Thursday, Mar. 20 at 7 p.m. at the Avon Elementary School on West Winthrop St. All boys who wish to play minor league should attend with their parents.

Parents of players on Little League teams are also urged to attend. Registration slips were passed out at the school Wednesday and these should be completed and brought to the meeting.

All boys who want to play baseball will have the chance to do so on one of the minor league teams. The full cooperation of all parents is necessary to make this program a success.

At a Little League meeting held last Friday night Durrah Martin was elected President, Alton Elder Vice President, Malcolm Crews Secretary and Leon DeLaney Treasurer. Plans are being made for another fine season.

HOLIDAY FOR RACES

The Avon Park schools will be on vacation Friday, Mar. 21, so students may attend the Grand Prix races in Sebring.

New Airport Operator To Speak At Chamber Dinner

Michael K. Hynes will be the featured speaker for the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce Annual Membership Dinner next Thursday, Mar. 27. The dinner will be held at the Avon Elementary Cafetorium beginning at 7 P.M.

Mr. Hynes is the operator of the Avon Park Airport, and owner of Lakeland Flying Service. He is an active public speaker for civic groups in the Lakeland area, emphtasizing aviation's value to the community, businessmen and youth.

Hynes, 33, has been in aviation for 3 years, beginning his career as an Air Force mechanic working off duty at a local airport washing airplanes in exchange for flying lessons. He progressed with his training through commercial pilot while working line crew duties and then line chief. Following his discharge from the Air Force, he became a full time charter pilot and instructor.

In early 1938 Hynes formed his own company, Professional Pilot Service, Inc., and acted as pilot and manager for several business firms. Later he purchased Air Florida, Inc. in Lakeland, and founded the Lakeland Flying Service, Inc. to operate this facility. Hynes has, in addition, performed management duties in construction and engineering fields.

Hynes has a total flight time in excess of 9,000 hours, having flown in excess of 130 makes and models of aircraft ranging from a J-3 Cub to the Douglas DC-8 Jet. He acts as a standardization check pilot and Flight Instructor, and regularly receives FAA proficiency checks and has graduated from the FAA Flight Instructor refresher course conducted by personnel from the FAA Academy at Oklahoma City in 1968.

In addition to his flying interests, Hynes writes professionally, and has sold five magazine articles which have been published in four leading aviation magazines.

Hynes and his wife live in Lakeland. They have a son, 11, and a daughter, 8.

Tickets for the Dinner are available from any Chamber director, or at the Chamber of Commerce office, 28 East Main Street.

Avon Park Red Devils Meet Lake Placid at Head Field Tonight

A 5-1 win over the Frostproof Bulldogs, a 7-7 tie with Fort Meade, and a 12-3 victory over Hardee High last week set the Avon Park Red Devil baseball varsity record at 3-1-1 with the big intercounty game with Sebring to be played last Tuesday night here at Head Field.

Tonight (Thursday) the Devils will host the Lake Placid Green Dragons here at Head Field starting at 7:30 P.M. and tomorrow night (Friday) Coach Hill's squad will travel to Arcadia for a 7:30 P.M. game with the DeSoto Bulldogs. Next Tuesday, Mar. 25, the Red Devils will play in Frostproof.

Tuesday a week ago, the Frostproof Bulldogs jumped off to a one run lead in the first inning here at Head Field when lead-off batter Nicky Davis drew a walk and moved on to third on two passed balls. He scored on an error by a Devil infielder before a double play by Avon

Property Owners Oppose Commissioners Pay Increase

Opposition to the proposed increase from $3,600 to $6,000 in county commissioners' salaries came today from the Highlands County Property Owners Association, Inc.

And the association also took a stand opposing legislation establishing the salary of the county judge on a fixed differential to the salary of any other public official.

Reserving their right to take a final position on the school bond issue when specific plans become available, the group in their annual membership meeting held last week at Tropical Bank and Trust Co. voted to support the circulating and signing of the present school bond petition.

In voting their support for the signing of the school bond petition, members of the association raised numerous questions concerning the amount of space to be included for teachers' lounges, administration, type of construction and numerous other questions which can not be answered until detailed plans are available.

In other actions, the membership voted to commend Sheriff Joe D. Keene for his announced stand in not seeking a salary increase for the office of sheriff.

The group voted to have the association dispatch letters to the various legislative representatives from this area, announcing support of the proposed legislation to authorized establishment of the post of County Administrator.

In the same letter the association will take exception to the proposed increase ($3,600 to $6,000) in county commissioners' salaries on the basis that establishment of the county administrator's office will substantially reduce the administrative and engineering duties previously carried by the commissioners.

The Association will also oppose legislation to establish the salary of the county judge on a fixed differential—$2,000 less than the circuit judge—to the salary of any other public official. The membership took the stand that salaries should be based upon the merits and responsibilities of the position being considered.

With regard to other legislative proposals by the county pertaining to other salary increases, the membership voted the appointment of a committee to review these proposals and to report their findings and recommendations to the directors of the association for final action.

In concluding the meeting, the membership re-elected four directors for new three-year terms. These were: Andrew B. Jackson, Lake Placid; Norman Todd, Avon Park; Russ Albritton, Jr., and C. M. Payne, of Sebring. New directors elected for three year terms were Henry Webster, Sebring; R. L. Padgett, Avon Park, and Charles Reynolds, Lake Placid.

MORE MONEY FOR SFJC

Funds totaling $5,162,234 were distributed to Florida's 27 junior colleges this week for use during March. The allocation was $2 million greater than the disbursement made to junior colleges in March, 1968. South Florida Junior College received $25,280 as compared to $11,634 a year ago.

Stop Sign Violations Lead In Arrests

Disobeying stop signs lead the number of arrests made by the Avon Park Police Department for the month of February with 11 arrests. The highest arrests were 10 for being drunk, two indecent exposure, four with no driving license.

Five for unlawful speeding, two reckless driving, three for driving while drinking, one improper opening of door, seven failing to have vehicle under control, one failed to yield right of way, one attempting to elude a police officer.

Three persons were arrested for driving while intoxicated, one for profanity, one failed to use due care, one for leaving the scene of an accident, one for improper backing of an automobile.

Three for disobeying a traffic light, one for speed too great for conditions, one disorderly conduct, seven for gambling, two for assault and battery, three disobeying police officer, two contributing to a minor, two drinking in public place and one for petit larceny.

The police department made a total of 193 investigations, 203 services rendered. There were 17 accidents. The number of miles traveled by all police cars was 6,742.

Last Monday night Big T. Oil Co. on 101 Canfield was robbed. Theives walked off with approximately $2,000 in checks, credit cards and cash.

Gordon Eisenman, owner of Big T, reported the loss Tuesday morning, to the Avon Park police Department.

This is the second time that a robbery has taken place at the Big T. Both times entrance was made through a door.

Centralized Vehicle Maintenance Expected To Save County Money

Two money-saving moves were announced at Highlands County commission meeting this week. County Engineer Charles Morgan said the county "definitely will save" under a program of centralized motor vehicle maintenance.

The commissioners said they are hopeful money will be saved under a new agreement they propose to make for capture and care of stray animals.

The plan for centralized vehicle maintenance was revealed when Sheriff Joe Keene asked to be permitted to buy gasoline from the commission. He said the new contract the commission awarded for gasoline (to Sinclair on a bid of 21.91 cents per gallon for high test) is "2 cents under the price I'm getting."

Keene added he is currently paying $2 per oil change. Morgan said this and other routine maintenance work can be done in the county barn, utilizing equipment and crews already on hand.

The sheriff's department would be charged for the actual cost of materials and maintenance work, Morgan said. He added that while he has not completed cost studies in this county, records from other counties indicate that the oil change cost would be less than $1.

Morgan said the plan is for all vehicles owned by the county to be serviced at the county barn. This does not include privately owned vehicles used for county business.

Earlier this month the commission had voted to add county shop supervisor duties to those John Gercken was already carrying as director of the motor vehicle inspection program. Gercken's pay is to be increased from $125 to $185 per week.

Humane Society

A long discussion on stray animal control culminated in the commissioners' adopting a policy suggested by Commissioner Earl Crutchfield: the county will provide a dog catcher, a truck and other apparatus needed for catching stray animals. Fees from the sale of pet tags are to be paid into the county general fund and transferred to the county's humane society for the operation of an animal shelter.

Under the current budget the county had agreed to pay $4800 for a dog catcher's salary and to contribute $2500 toward the operation of a shelter. The humane society had appealed to the board for additional support, specifically asking that the board assume responsibility for the truck.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper said the Crutchfield proposal would save the county money and "pinpoint exactly what the county's responsibility is."

"If the cities put in the money as they did last year the society will be within $77 of balancing its budget," Skipper added. Sebring and Avon Park contributed $1500 each last year and Lake Placid $150.

County Attorney Hue Nunnallee offered to negotiate with Sheriff Keene on the problem of stray cattle and horses. State law gives this responsibility to the sheriff, but a special act covering Highlands County says the humane society will be responsible for "all stray animals." The commissioners said they wish to limit their responsibilities to cats and dogs. Commission Chairman Jean Whitaker said the animal shelter has an average daily population of 40 strays.

Other Business

Col. W. J. Atkinson, frequent critic of the county spending, commented Tuesday that travel allowances are too high: "$8,000 per year for travel for five members of this board in a county this size is out of line."

The current budget sets up $8,000 as the travel fund for in-county travel for the commission. Board members may collect up to 10 cents per mile for travel within the county on road inspection business only; no charges may be made for trips to the court house.

Fans Head Toward Highlands County For Big Race

The eyes and ears of the racing world will turn to Highlands Saturday as 70 high powered cars roar off in the 36th and possibly fastest running of the 12 Hour Grand Prix of Endurance.

With this race just in the offing, the sponsoring Automobile Racing Club of Florida announced that there will be another international race in Sebring this year—December 28. It will pit the powerful Formula A cars, which race at Indianapolis.

With records of past years tumbled unofficially in practice runs two weeks ago, excitement mounted for Saturday's race. Racing buffs have said from the beginning—and they were not backing off—that any one of five cars could take it all—Ford, Lola Chevrolet, Porsche, Ferrari or Alfa Romeo.

The competition this year is the fiercest it ever has been, judging from the entries, racing people say. Sebring is the first of four races for points which determine the prestigious F.I.A. Manufacturers Championship, the others being Targa Florio in Italy, Nurburgring in Germany and LeMans in France.

And most of the world's famous racing drivers will be there—Mario Andretti, who won here two years ago; Chris Amon, Ferrari's top driver; Mark Donohue, Daytona winner who unofficially broke the track lap record last week; Jo Siffert and Hans Hermann, who won here last year; Pedro Rodriguez of Mexico who has raced here many times; Lucien Bianchi of Italy, a former winner here. To name a few.

So it is a Sebring with the best of the fast cars—and most of the best fast drivers. And it will be the thrilling LeMans start again this year when the green starting flag is dropped by Cypress Gardens' Dick Pope.

Judging from advance ticket sales, race attendance may easily top the 50,000 mark this year, according to Alec Ulmann, ARCF president. Fans are expecting to see the fastest race ever run, in high contrast to last year's rather uneventful event which was swept 1-2-3 by Porsche.

Of the first 15 cars to go through technical inspections in mid-morning Tuesday only five passed. A new requirement is for a circuit breaker, which is a fire safety provision. They were expected back later with the missing equipment in place.

There was the usual admiring crowd on hand to see the fast cars and proceedings in general. Inspections continued through Wednesday. Registration and medical inspections were set up at ARCF headquarters on Route 27.

Time trials to determine starting positions will take up today and Friday.

Preceding the big race Saturday starting at 9 A.M. will be two hours of preliminaries, including a re-run of Friday's parade. And just before the start of the race, Brian O'Neal of Miami will drive a Formula A Lola Chevrolet racing car around the track to let the crowd see what the December racers will look like.

Again this year drivers may think they're seeing Porsches at every turn—and they well may be with 19 entered. There are nine Camaros entered and five each of Ferrari, Alfa Romeo, Lola Chevrolet and Corvette.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Many teen-agers today face a tough problem. It's nothing new, but it seems to be an increasingly prevalent situation.

We're talking about alcoholic parents. In more homes than most Americans care to realize, one or both parents are alcoholic. The impact of such a home situation on a teen-ager or a younger child can be devastating.

But like it or not, the problem exists. What can the teen-ager do about it? Should he just capitulate under the strain, using his parents' alcoholism as an excuse to "go bad"? Or should he work even harder to be the kind of person he'd like his parents to be?

Various teen-agers react to parental alcoholism in various ways. But Alcoholics Anonymous has some pointers which can be helpful to teen-agers who have an alcoholic mother or father — or both.

First of all, there is a growing nation-wide organization exclusively for teen-agers who have alcoholic parents. Its name is Alateen, and it consists of several hundred groups of young people around the United States who help themselves and each other to learn about alcoholism. More information on Alateen can be gotten through any AA member.

Back to the pointers: Teen-agers with one or both alcoholic parents should learn the facts about alcoholism and not hesitate to discuss the subject frankly with a non-alcoholic parent or close friend.

Remember that another person's addiction to alcohol is no reason for you to be ashamed or embarrassed.

Since you are not responsible for your parent's alcoholic drinking, don't waste time and energy feeling guilty.

Ask for help when you need it, from persons of knowledge and experience.

Realize that millions of other teen-agers are going through the same torments. Feeling sorry for yourself solves nothing and destroys your dignity and character.

Let family and friends know you have faith in your parent's eventual recovery.

Be patient with your drinking parent. It took a long time for him to get where he is; it may take a long time for him to recover.

Forgive your parents for real or imagined wrongs; for having wasted money needed for your schooling, for having spoiled what could have been happy times, for lacking interest in your activities, and for failing to let you know of their love and concern for you.

More pointers on this subject are available in the booklet "Youth And The Alcoholic Parent." It's good reading, and it's yours free of charge. Just write FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

Plans To Inaugurate Middle School Programs Draws Local Comments

Plans to inaugurate some middle school programs apparently brought out the crowd which overflowed the school superintendent's office for the March 13 meeting of Highlands County School Board.

The audience, quiet through most of the meeting, came to life and began peppering questions at the school board and Superintendent George F. Douglass when the Superintendent recommended hiring of a middle school consultant.

Newspaper clippings about plans to establish middle school programs (for grades 5-8) at E. O. Douglas and Hopewell schools were whipped out and waved at the board with demands: "What provision is there for training teachers for middle schools?"

"When are teachers going to be involved in planning?"

In face of the barrage of questions, Superintendent Douglass withdrew his recommendation that the board name James Ferrel Smith as a part-time consultant on middle schools.

Smith currently is on leave as curriculum coordinator for Highlands County schools. A major portion of his studies at University of Florida deals with middle schools and Smith is visiting such schools as far away as Ohio, Illinois and California.

Douglass said a more complete plan—including possible use of a consultant—would be presented to the board at its April meeting.

Revise Policy

At its March meeting the Highlands County School Board revised its evaluation procedure for administrative, instructional and supervisory personnel. Douglass explained that Highlands County has long had an evaluation program, but now it is revised and extended by new state laws.

In response to questions from Board Member Ray Wells, Douglass explained, "There is a way to remove teachers who are under continuing contract. Tenure in and of itself is not bad, but the ways it has been used are bad."

He agreed with Wells' assumption that the evaluation process for all teachers and staff is a way of "getting rid of those teachers no one is proud of." Douglass added he prefers to think of evaluation as helping teachers improve.

Other Business

In other business the school board let a contract for moving portable classrooms to Murphy Housemovers. The bid for moving at least six classrooms within the Lake Placid area was $450 each and for moving three classrooms from Lake Placid area to Sebring, $650 each.

Authorized advertising for bids for furniture and cafeteria equipment for the new Lake Placid Elementary School.

Accepted the resignation of Mrs. Vera Lee Nightingale, Woodlawn teacher, and the appointment of Miss Patricia Ann Hartman to replace Mrs. Nightingale.

Charles R. Whaley, Lake Placid High School basketball coach and teacher, was placed on sick leave for the rest of the year. Mrs. Whaley was placed on substitute "on call" contract.

The resignation of Charles Carnes as school bus driver was accepted, and the dismissal of Charlotte Clark as a teacher aide at E. O. Douglas was approved.

Permission was granted for sixth graders at Woodlawn Elementary to make a field trip to the Kennedy Space Center on April 25. That date had been designated a holiday for students and a work day for teachers, Douglass said.

The board approved a request to waive policy on married students and permit a senior boy to return to Avon Park High School to graduate with his class in June.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Church Changing Too Much?

Is the church changing too much, too fast?

A recent survey conducted by the Ladies' Home Journal, in which 1,000 women were asked about their attitudes toward the church, contains some interesting information and raises some disturbing questions.

Some women objected to the social-action programs of their churches.

"Churches are interfering more than is necessary in civil rights and other social problems, endorsing strikes, parades, and disorders," said one.

Others are dissatisfied with the kind of sermons they are hearing. "Sunday sermons don't penetrate my life," was the response of a young mother. "They always slide around issues of right and wrong."

Wrong Program?

In the Journal article, written by Kenneth L. Woodward, the replies of women across the country paint a picture of dissatisfaction with the message and the methods of some of the churches today.

Are these women justified in feeling as they do?

Have some churches left the program established by the Founder of the church, to follow a different course?

Certain church leaders have gone so far as to redefine the evangelistic mission of the church, stating that the goal of the church in evangelism now is not just to reach individuals and bring them to acknowledge Christ as Lord of their lives, but rather to work to bring about changes in the entire society.

This may sound like a better plan, for certainly there are changes that need to be made in our society.

But is it God's way?

Is it the task which the Lord set for the church?

There were great social problems when Jesus walked among men. What was His approach to them?

Did He favor political action to right these wrongs? Did he organize marches, protests, demonstrations, and sit-ins?

Never did the Lord participate in political action to accomplish His objectives. His objectives could not be achieved by these means.

The Lord's Message

His message was always to the individual, "Follow Me."

His final command to His disciples was, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved."

This is the message that the church has to proclaim. This is the work that Christ expects His church to do.

Actually, this is the best way to bring about changes in the society. When men are changed, the society in which they live is changed automatically. This happened in the time of the early church.

But the primary objective of Christ and those who truly follow Him is to lead people individually to become Christians—"sons of God and joint-heirs with Christ."

Anything other than this is no satisfactory substitute.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Pampered Pets

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., March 20, 1969. When considering growth industries, most investors turn to computers, oceanography, electronics, pollution control, hospital supplies, etc. However, there are other less glamorous areas where past performance and future potential compare favorably with some of the so-called "hot" industries. One is the pet business, which has a strong growth rate and shows no sign of dwindling.

Doggie Dinners

All segments of the business—the sale of pets, medicinal aids, garments, accessories, and toys —are doing very well. One of the largest and fastest-growing is pet foods, which account for 40%-45% of total industry sales.

This year sales are likely to reach $1 billion; dog and cat food sales alone have increased 48% since 1965. Because of the rapid rise in demand for pet foods, many nationally known food companies have been attracted to the business.

Among them are General Foods, National Biscuit, Quaker Oats, Ralston Purina, Armour, Borden, Carnation, and John Morrell. We are currently recommending purchase of National Biscuit and Borden.

Multiplying Markets

The market for dog and cat food is expanding at least twice as fast as that for the average grocery store product. Volume has been growing like wildfire at a compound annual rate of 14% since 1965. Most pet foods are sold in supermarkets where the competition for shelf space is very severe.

Furthermore, extensive advertising must be maintained if a particular brand is to remain in consumer favor. Lorillard and Liggett & Myers both entered this field, not only because of the benefits derived from diversification but also because the same advertising media for both cigarettes and pet foods can be used to reach the same broad spectrum of customers.

The fastest-growing segment of the pet food business is gourmet specialties. Although it is still small relative to the entire pet food market, the results so far have been very impressive.

Apparently when it comes to feeding one's pet, the affluent consumer is not balking at the high prices of such gourmet pet food items as liver pate or beef in burgundy.

Owners are tending to treat their canine and feline friends as humans. This humanization aspect could explain why pets are bedecked in such sartorial splendor as expensive poodle coats and gem-studded collars. In fact, there are even specialty shops which carry complete animal wardrobes.

All this growth has interested many acquisition-minded companies—particularly the dog food business, which comprises the lion's share of the industry.

The companies which appear attractive are promoting in a regional area commanding a large share of the market through a favorable price or a local flavor. It is no surprise at all that many large corporations are moving aggressively into this rapidly growing business.

Although many national food and tobacco firms have gone into pet foods, the market also supports nearly 2,000 companies, many of which are tempting to the corporate investor.

K-9 Health Care

Any pet owner who has had to take his pet to a veterinarian for one thing or another knows that it can be a very expensive proposition. Shots and medicines of various kinds are all included in the broadening business of pets.

This means a great deal of added business to the many drug firms that are firmly entrenched in animal health care. It has become a big and fast-growing area.

Just about anyone who is anyone in the drug industry has interests in the business of animal health. For the most part, of course, veterinary items are only a small but promising portion of the overall business of veterinary product sales, but Merck, American Cyanamid, Pfizer, and Norwich are generally recognized as leaders.

Other firms are expanding rapidly, however. Currently, we are recommending retention of all of the drug companies mentioned as being involved in animal health. For purchase we favor Merck and G. D. Searle.

Kiwanis Sponsoring Barbecue

The Avon Park Kiwanis are sponsoring a chicken barbecue at Donaldson Park in Avon Park, March 29. The proceeds from this barbecue will be used in projects for boys and girls.

In 1968 the Kiwanis sponsored two scholarships to the South Florida Junior College and a Little League baseball team. They also made contributions to many worthwhile organizations. Please patronize this barbecue. Enjoy a good meal and help Kiwanis to help these youth programs.

Barbecue will be served from 12 noon til 6 P.M.

Tickets are $2 for adults and $1.25 for children and may be bought from any Kiwanis member.

Park put the side down. It was the only run the Bulldogs managed to score as senior hurler Larry LaFlam held them to 3 hits—scattered singles—the remainder of the game. LaFlam struck out nine batters, walked six and hit one batter during the seven inning affair.

Avon Park scored its five runs on seven hits including a double by first-sacker Mike Vanderbilt. LaFlam had 2 singles, Vanderbilt had a single as well as his double, and Dennis Hart, Gene Landress, and Steve Cravey all had a single.

The 7-7 tie game in Fort Meade was called after seven full innings because of darkness. Coach Hill hopes to either play off the tie or play another game to erase the tie but nothing definite has been set as yet.

Avon Park used three difference pitchers trying to please the umpire who had trouble deciding what to call the pitches. Young Don Sisemore started on the mound for Avon Park and went 2 innings before Larry LaFlam came on in relief. LaFlam finished out the third inning and then Billy Jackson came on to start the fourth inning. He lasted 2⅓ innings before he needed help and LaFlam came back on to finish out the game.

Ft. Meade got eight hits off the three Red Devil pitchers which they combined with 10 walks and 4 Avon Park errors to score the 7 runs.

The Red Devils scored two runs in the top of the first inning when Steve Walker hit an in-the-park homerun—his second of the year—and then Dennis Hart made first on an error, stole second and third and scored when the pitcher balked. Ft. Meade went ahead in the bottom of the first, however, scoring three runs on two hits and two walks. In the third the Miners added another run and then made the score 6-2 in the last of the fourth when they scored two more runs.

In the top of the fifth Avon Park managed to score three runs on two walks, an error and a double by Mike Vanderbilt. Then in the top of the sixth, Avon Park went ahead 7-6 by scoring two more runs on singles by Glenn Sizemore, Steve Hartt, and Billy Richards.

Fort Meade bounced across the game tying run in the last of the sixth on two singles and two walked batters.

Neither team could score in the seventh inning although Avon Park got a man around to third and Ft. Meade had men on second and first when the game ended after seven full innings. It was too dark to continue to play.

Contributing to Avon Park's 9 hits were Mike Vanderbilt with two doubles, Walker with the homerun, Glenn Sizemore with two singles, and a single each by Billy Richards, Larry LaFlam, Gene Landress, and Steve Hartt.

Last Saturday night the Red Devils took a convincing 12-3 victory from the Wauchula Wildcats at Red Field behind the 3 hit pitching of freshman lefty Don Sisemore. The young hurler struck out 14 Hardee High batters and gave up only one walk while posting his first win of the season.

Avon Park jumped off to a good start by scoring 5 runs in the bottom half of the first inning after Hardee had pushed over 2 runs in the opening half of that frame. Thirdsacker Billy Jackson was responsible for three of the runs as he slammed a homerun over the left field fence with two men on for Avon Park.

The Devils added a single run in both the second and third innings while Hardee finished out its scoring by pushing over 1 run in the third. In the bottom of the fourth frame the Red Devils went wild again at the plate and scored five more runs on two hits, two Hardee errors and a couple of walks issued up by the second of three Wildcat hurlers.

Don Sisemore hit two singles for three at bats to go along with Jackson's homerun and singles by Steve Walker, Larry LaFlam, Mike Vanderbilt, and Dennis Hart.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

NO SLIPPERS ON THE FARM!

How well I remember the days long departed, when I was a boy living down on the farm, the varied equipment with which crops were marted, the implements swung by my own good right arm: the wagon, the stone-boat, the bob-sled and hayrack, the phaeton, carry-all, buggy and sleigh, those hauled by dumb oxen, a bow on each neckback, those drawn by good horses claimed full right-of-way, but neverr a slipper to pull on my flipper to make me more chipper when done for the day. The sickle, cradle the scythe and the handrake were wonderful pals in the summertime sun, the horses, the cattle, the pigs and the back-ache did all that they could to add to the fun; the brush-scythe, the mattock, the broad-axe, the grub-hoe in Springtime and Fall had their own part to play, while cross-cut and bucksaw that dated the Dodo made glorious sunrise and sunset more gay, but nary a slipper to slip on my flipper and make me feel fitter to flit for the hay. The plow-share, the disker, the hoe and the harrow, the shoe - hammer, currycomb, manicure brush; the pitchfork, the shovel, the jaunty wheelbarrow; how fond recollections come back with a rush! The stalk - cutter, sheepshears, the old horsehair clipper, the washpan, the tar-soap, the towel so gray, yes, e'en the rude bucket and deep-dented dipper we welcomed with joy when the day dropped away, but nary a slipper was bought for my flipper when, worn and exhausted, I slumped in the hay!

NOTHING LIKE PURE DICTION

"Orville Lesley," said my Pater, and his voice was sad and stern: "I detest the slang you're using; will you never, never learn that correct use of our language is a thing to be desired? There is nothing more delightful than a pure and careful speech, and the man who weighs his gabble always stacks up as a peach, while the guy who shoots his larynx in a careless, slipshod way looms as a selling plaster, and gets branded for a jay. All your common, bughouse phrases makes the cultured highbrows shy; and if you tried a job at teaching, you would sure as heck get fired.

"In my youth my father soaked me if I entered his shebang handing out a line of language that he recognized as slang. He would take me to the cellar (where we kept our mice and rats, and with an un-smooth sticks of stovewood he'd play solos on my slats. Thus I gained a deep devotion for our language undefiled, and it drives me nearly batty when I hear my only child spouting wads of hardboiled language such as dips and yeggmen use, and I want a reformation or I'll caress you with my shoes.

Using slang is just a habit; just a cheap and dopey trick; if you bump yourself and try to, you can shake it pretty quick. Watch my curves and imitate them; weigh your words before they're sprung; in old age you'll bless the habit that you formed when you were young."

CHANSON TRIESTE

When the evening shadows fall, very clearly I recall other evenings, far away and long ago, when with my play, I would climb my mother's knee (long ago to sleep went she); clasp my hands and bow my head, while the smiple lines I said: "Now I lay me down to sleep; I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to keep." I have journeyed long since then in this weary world of men; seen the wars that laid to rest millions of our boys, the best the Country could afford to give that Democracy could live; seen the awful graveyards grow: Flanders' Fields, along the Po, dark Vistula and the Don; Singapore and Arlington; seen the mothers, weeping, go through the crosses, row on row; heard the mourners' solemn song, as I wondered: "God, how long ere the shrilling bugles cease to call "To Arms!" and call to Peace? Still the Youth in rapture sings and the world with gladness rings, but the ones I love to know ever into Shadows go, no races I have known 'til I'm almost all alone. Now there's only wife and me to meet around the Christmas Tree. Now the Sun of Life sinks low; it's little while we'll go where our friends and comrades wait for us by the Jasper Gate —"If I should die before I wake, I pray Thee, Lord, my soul to take."

ABIDE WITH ME
(SOLILOQUY ON MY 83RD BIRTHDAY)

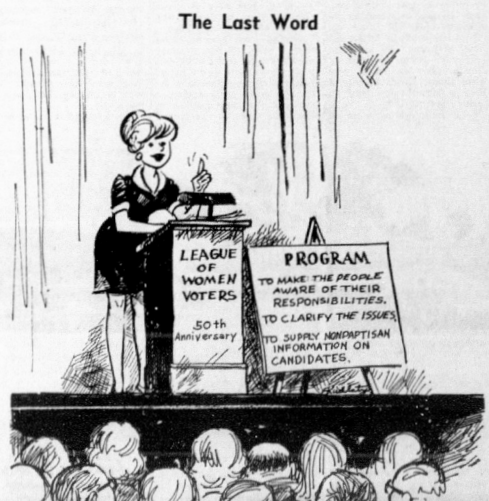

The day Thou gavest, Lord, is nearly done;
The sun sinks low in everdarkening skies,
The hour-glass sands for me are nearly run—
Now comes the hour of evening sacrifice.
'Tis true Zaccheus spreads a better board,
And Simon's home, they say, is fair to see,
But all I have I offer to my Lord—
Abide with me, O Lord, abide with me.

Thou wert beside me from the very first
Faint grayish tints of incense-breathing morn,
When dewdrops turned to diamonds with the burst
Of glory when my infant day was born.
The poor accommodations I can show
I feel a tinge of shame to offer Thee;
Perhaps to better homes 'twere best to go,
But still I wish Thou couldst abide with me!

In manhood's vigor Thou wert always near
To lend Thy arm and counsel every hour;
In the full splendor of the noontide year
I conquered every problem by Thy power.
My darkening home perhaps Thou shouldst depart,
Unless my sacrifice is sweet to Thee;
(A very humble and a contrite heart)—
In which case, Lord, abide with me!

With Thee at hand, I calmly view the end
Of day in which my dying sun sinks to his bed,
Unless there is some far more worthy friend
With whom my Lord would rather lay His head?
While on Life's transient tide away,
I long to hear the Master say to me:
"The evening is the best part of the day;
Sleep, thou, in peace, while I abide with thee."

The Last Word

Your Social Security

Question—I applied for social security in July 1968. I had stopped working at that time and showed the social security office my pay stubs showing I had earned $4,516 prior to retirement. Now I've been told I have to file a report and tell social security how much I made in 1968. Since I've already done this, must I do this again?

Answer—Yes, since you earned over $1680 in 1968, you must file an annual report prior to April 15, 1969, giving us the exact amount of your earnings and also the months in which you earned $140 or less. This is necessary to insure that you receive the proper amount of benefits.

Question—I retired in 1966. This past year I started a small cabinet business in my home and my records show I made $1800 before expenses. Do I have to report this income to social security?

Answer—If the profit from your cabinet business was over $1680, you must file an annual report with the Social Security Administration before April 15, 1969. Your local social security office can supply you with the proper form. However, if you find that you did not make $1680 after taking your business expenses into consideration, no report will be necessary.

Question—My son was 18 in February 1968. He received social security checks until June 1968 as he was a full-time student. In July he started working and earned $2180 for the year. Since he wasn't working when he got checks, do I have to report his earnings to social security?

Answer—Yes, since he earned over $1680 during the year and received social security checks, an annual report must be filed with the Social Security Administration before April 15, 1969.

Question—I was 72 years old in March 1968. In July I took a position as consultant with a new business in our area and was paid a total of $2400 for the year. I did no other work during the year. Since I'm over 72, must I file a report of these earnings with social security?

Answer — Yes, even though your work did not begin until after you were 72 and you were entitled to receive all your checks for the year, an annual report must be made as you were under 72 for some months of the year. However, this will be the last annual report you'll be required to make.

Farm Zoning Deadline Is April 1

Anyone who, in 1968 bought land for agricultural purposes must file an application for agricultural tax classification next week.

Commissioner Earl Crutchfield pointed out at county commission meeting Tuesday that April 1 is the deadline for seeking the special classification which carries with it a decided tax advantage.

The law which set-up the agricultural zoning board specifies that farm land, when it is sold, does not carry with it the special tax classification. The new owner must file an application.

Anyone who has converted land which had been under tax class to agricultural use must file for new classification.

The classification of the land, Crutchfield explained, depends upon the use being made of the land as of January 1, 1969. The county commissioners must sit as a zoning board and review the applications before the tax assignment is made definite.

The State Association of County Commissioners are seeking to have the 1969 Legislature assign the whole agriculture classification task to the tax assessors. "But the law now requires the county commission to act, and they can act only on the application filed by April 1," Crutchfield said.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

The Rotary Club had as it guests last week two high ranking officials of the U.S. Department of State. These two men were part of a team of Foreign affairs specialists who were visiting South Florida Junior College. The purpose of their visit was to better inform the citizens of our state about our activities in other parts of the world. Both speakers made introductory statements and then answered questions concerning the respective areas of the world they represent.

The two speakers who visited our club were as follows:

Frederick W. Flott

Frederick Flott was born in Chicago, Ill. He received his degree from Carleton College in Northfield, Minn., and the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies in Washington, D.C. During World War II, he served as an officer in the U.S. Army.

Panthers Upset Manatee Thursday

By Coach Terrell

Last Thursday night at Head field, South Florida Junior College's Panthers pulled a major upset as they handed the Manatee Lancers, the number two team in the nation, a 5-2 loss.

Roy Nelson, big left - hander for the Panthers, went the full nine innings for the Panthers' first win of the year.

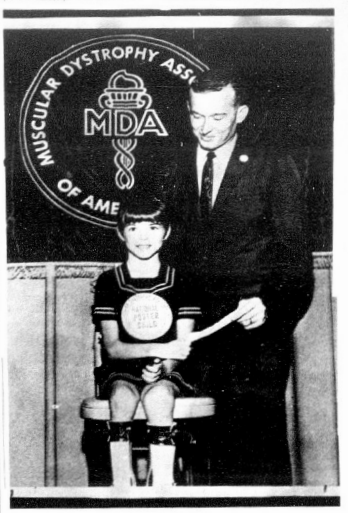

Manatee took a 2-0 lead into the bottom of the eighth as they scored single runs in the third and 6th innings. Here the Panthers erupted for five big runs, and Nelson made the baseball look small to the Lancers in the ninth inning to preserve the win.

The eighth inning started with Cesar Martinez striking out. Terry Mann laced a single past third. Ren White sacrificed Mann to second, Starratt singled, and Gillis singled to load the bases. Gary Mann singled to tie the game and Rionda produced two runs with a long single to left center. Rewis walked. Nelson singled off the shortstops leg and Rewis was out at the plate from a throw from the left fielder.

"This has to be our biggest win in three years. However, this league is tough and we will still have to improve to play 500 ball. It was just great to beat Manatee"—Coach Terrell. Polk 8-2, South Florida 1-1.

Monday night, South Florida Junior College Panthers, still orbiting the earth from their win over Manatee, were brought back to reality as they dropped two hard fought games to Polk Junior College 8-1 and 2-1. In the first game, Polk scored three runs on two singles, a walk and an error in the first inning. The Panthers narrowed the gap to 3-1 with a single tally in the third. Thats the way it stood until the last inning when Rewis tired and gave up five runs. Harak relieved and retired the last two Polk batters.

In the second, Roy Nelson was going for his second win of the year and for seven innings it looked like Tim Gillis, the demunitive shortstop for the Panthers, would win it as he lined the second pitch to him for a homerun. Gillis was the first batter for the Panthers. In the top of the seventh, Nelson walked the first batter who eventually scored the tying run. In the ninth, Russo singled and, after two were out, scored as the catcher, threw low to third in an attempt to get Russo stealing. The Panthers put a man on in the last of the ninth, but were unable to move him around. The Panthers will lbe on the road Wednesday against Manatee, Friday at Lake Sumter, Monday in Cocoa, and then back home to Sebring against Lake Sumter Thursday the 27th.

HEW Grants 20-Day Extension To File Desegregation Response

The reviewing authority of the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare has granted a Highlands County request for a 20-day extension of time to file response in civil rights proceedings against the Highlands school board.

The extension moved to Thursday, Apr. 3, the deadline for filing of the Highlands response.

The school board is charged with violating the Civil Rights Act of 1964 in maintaining "small and inadequate" schools for Negroes. In the first hearing, an HEW officer ordered the proceedings dropped because he found the local board moving toward a single, integrated school system.

The formal statement of exceptions to the hearing officer's initial decision was received here last week. In his request for an extension, School Board Attorney Frank Bryant pointed out the 56-page statement of exceptions cites 38 different cases.

Bryant explained, "In all of the law offices and law library in Highlands County there are no subscriptions to the federal cases containing the latest citations." Bryant says Bartow would be the nearest place for him to research these cases.

To date Bryant has not received a reply to his request to present oral arguments if HEW does grant an appeal in proceedings against the Highlands board.

New officers have been named by the Board of Visitors of Highlands County Juvenile Court. C. Lamar Carlton is the new chairman. Carlton, who is a chemist with the Citrus Development Company, succeeds Mrs. William Guenther who had held the chairmanship since October.

Other officers who were elected at a board meeting last week are Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, secretary, and Major Eugene Flint, vice chairman.

The board visited the county jail and submitted to the Sheriff's Department a list of recommendations for the care of juveniles who may be confined to the jail.

Highlands County New Sheriff Looking Forward To The Race

If you've never met a law enforcement man who enjoys the prospect of working with mobs of cars, people, campers, college students romping through a holiday weekend — then you haven't seen Highlands County Sheriff Joe D. Keene lately.

"I'm really looking forward to the race," is the characteristic comment Keene makes when asked about plans for traffic and crowd control.

In the months between his selection as Highlands County Sheriff and his swearing in early in January, Keene worked on plans for Race Week. He could draw on experience: a former highway patrolman, Keene has worked at every race since 1957.

He likes the fans, feels certain that if law enforcement men approach their tasks during Race Week with the attitude of "helping the fans" then the fans in turn will support necessary control measures.

"Public support is the key to any law enforcement," is a favorite Keene theme. He believes that a policeman whose attitude communicates helpfulness will get cooperation.

"The laws here are no more than the laws the fans live with at home," Keene observes.

It may seem paradoxical then that there will be more lawmen than ever on hand for the race. The Florida Highway Patrol staff will be up to about 50, and the race day crew will include top FHP men like Col. H. N. Kirkman and Lt. Col. Reid Clifton. The field work will be directly under the supervision of Capt. Jake Raulerson of Bradenton.

Approximately 100 FHP auxiliarymen from all over the state will be here. The out-of-town staff will begin coming in Thursday and the full force will be working Saturday.

All regular deputies of the Sheriff's Department and the Sheriff's Rescue Unit will work extra all week.

"The Rescue Unit is purely volunteer, and those men work very hard all week," Keene said.

Inside the city, Sebring police put in long hours with extra duties.

Extra equipment is brought in, too. The FHP airplaine and its special riot control truck—dubbed The Monster—will be on hand.

A new job for the lawmen this year will be helping with the big pre-race parade on Friday. Keene is pleased about the parade, says his department is glad to participate, but the idea that he personally might wind up in parade as 'royalty' is something the Sheriff had not counted on.

The Sheriff and his wife are candidates in the contest to name the king and queen of the Grand Prix Ball. "Someone said, 'will you represent Kiwanis at the Grand Prix Ball?' and I said, 'sure, I'm going anyway,' and now I find we're in a contest," Keene explains.

Maybe his presence in the contest is one measure of public support?

Local Grange Hold Regular Meeting

The Avon Parke Grange met in its regular session Tuesday night, Mar. 11 with 13 members and 11 visitors present. The Master Louise Clarke conducted the members during which three new members were obligated.

These were Mrs. Arlene Lane, Harriet Meisel and Hetta Mae Cook. Brother Ebert of Hardee Grange obligated these three sisters at the request of the Master.

At the opening of the Lecture's program they were welcomed with a special song "Welcome to New Members," sung to the tune of "My Bonnie Lies Over the Ocean."

In the absence of the regular Lecturer, Mrs. Elmer Fullmer, who has been to Lakeland to have her eye operated on, Keith Debo took over the program. It was reported that Mrs. Fullmer had come through her operation very well, in fact so well, that she came home on Sunday. Her friends were so happy to hear it.

Another part, and a most interesting one, was the report from a book which he had read on the History of Avon Park, given by Brother Joseph Bloomquist. He first gave us some idea of how he came to Avon Park and then on to the history in brief of the town and its struggle to become a town and then to stay one. After several natural disasters and the depression it finally became stable and became what it is today. One section he gave in detail and that is how the Mall came to be a part of the town. This Mall came up for quite a bit of discussion later and the wish was expressed by some of the members and visitors that it could be restored to its former beauty. It was brought out that in the Automobile Club tour book it is listed as a must to see this thing of beauty and that for which Avon Park is famous. Brother Debo had the experience of having one out-of-state visitor ask him where the Mall is that is listed in the tour book. Some other sugestions were made as to how to make this town, which is a pretty good one all agreed, a still better place to live and move around in.

The Traffic light at Lake St. being one of the things brought up, it is so small it is hard to see, especially when driving West in the afternoon. Another comment was that it is hard to find some of the streets because as you get away from the center of town they are not marked.

This was followed by readings "Seeds and Men" by Edgar Guest; "Spring Cleaning"; the Grange Garden, in which it was brought out the need to plant carefully rows of "Peas" Preparedness, participation, promptness, and perseverance; also rows of "Squash" Squash gossip, criticism, indifference; then plenty of "Lettuce." Lettuce be faithful, helpful, hopeful, truthful, and thankful. And no Grange garden is complete without "turnips": turnip for church, for Grange, and with real determination and with a smile.

Before closing, remarks from the others were asked for. A few came forth and then the program was closed with a poem, "I Worked With God" and the Thought for the Day: Do the best that you can with what you possess, thought it isn't much it could be less. He invites defeat who gives up to sighing. But the battle is won when you keep on trying.

The Grange closed then by the Master until March 25. After which a delicious lunch was served by her and her helpers. A lovely Anniversary cake was brought in which said "Happy Anniversaries Grangers" but was especially in honor of the Edwin Swansons of LaPorte, Ind., who celebrated their 52nd Anniversary Mar. 12.

ELEVEN LEGIONNAIRES and their wives were invited as special guests of Post No. 69 for the Legion's Golden Anniversary dinner. These men who are members of the three Legion Posts in Highlands County, held 50-year continuous membership cards. Back row, Ernest L. Stegemeller, Robert B. Fisk, Walter F. Lineville, Dr. N. W. Field, Sebring, Joe Schaffer and Harry G. Toops of Frostproof. Front row, John F. Arnold, Lowell C. Allen, Sebring, Demas Mandis, Avon Park. Not present were Fletcher Payne, Lake Placid and Louis Marvin, Sebring.

Highlands Post 69 Celebrate 50th Anniversary

A capacity crowd was present March 11 when the Highlands Post 69 of the American Legion and its Auxiliary met to observe the Legion's Golden Anniversary.

Joe Schaffer a Past Post commander presided at the meeting which was preceded by a carry in dinner.

Mrs. Lowell C. Allen, Sebring a Past National Chaplain of the Legion Auxiliary gave the prayer. Mrs. William Eisele, Port Charlotte, Department Vice-President let the Preamble.

James Heim Adjutant of Post 69 introduced the 50-Year Legionnaires describing briefly their years of service. Post Commander Phil Briggs presented each of them with a Golden Anniversary Service Certificate.

Schaffer called attention to the fact that four past state presidents of the Auxiliary were in attendance. Mrs. John P. Arnold, served Florida as president in 1963-1964. Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Ernest Duckett and Mrs. R. M. Mount served the Department of Illinois.

Mrs. Lena Lowe and Mrs. June Schell, Immokalee presented Post 69 with a birthday cake.

Others from out of county included Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland, Punta Gorda, William Eisele, Port Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer Albritton, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Corrigan and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Robinson of Sarasota.

Department Vice Commander J. W Bill Clark, Winter Haven was the speaker. He stated that never before in the history of man had an organization of war veterans banded together for such noble purposes, as those set forth in the Preamble to the American Legion Constitution.

Only once before in the history of our nation, at the time of the drafting of the Declaration of Independence, had men of such keen insight into human nature, such a grasp of future course of history and with such a feeling for their fellowmen come together for a common purpose.

The first World War brought them together: Theodore Roosevelt Jr., Thomas Miller, Eric Fisher Wood, Bennett Champ Clark, Hamilton Fisher and the other great men who were truly the first in modern American history to "sacrifice their all" to preserve the peace and freedom of the Western World.

Now, continued VC Clarke, we are celebrating the 50th Birthday of the founding of the American Legion. If we fail to accomplish the tasks which the Legion must undertake in the years ahead we will, by our own omission, have failed those far-sighted men who founded the organization.

Clarke praised the Post 69 for the accomplishments it had achieved. He recalled their many years in the Junior Baseball, their Bay State Program, School Awards and service in Americanism and Community Service.

Girl Scouts 305 Active In Many Areas

Seven girls from Troop 305 have recently completed all requirements toward their Cook badge. The seven girls are Lou Ann Tatum, Kathy Green, Annie Allen, Kelly Griffin, Kim Smith, Barbara Spurlock and Mary Smith.

Under the direction of Miss Faye Gordon, the girls attended weekly cooking classes at the Florida Power Lounge. As a final requirement the girls prepared a full dinner at which they invited their mothers as guests.

The menu consisted of grapefruit half, tossed salad, tuna casserole, broccoli, orange juice, bread and chocolate cake.

Under the direction of leaders Mrs. James Cravey and Mrs. Richard Hamm, Girl Scouts of Troop 305 had an all-day bicycle hike one Saturday. Starting at the Episcopal Church at 9 A.M., the girls cycled to the home of Mrs. Cravey on Lake Angelo where they worked on various badges.

Lunch was prepared by Mrs. Gravey and Mrs. Hamm and several of the Scouts.

The Scouts report that they earned the cyclist badge that day. Troop 305 meets every Thursday after school at the Episcopal Church.

CRAVEY APPOINTED

Secretary of State Tom Adams announced this week the commissioning of James M. Cravey, Route 1, Avon Park as a member of the Highlands County Jury Commission. He replaces Milton Stokey, whose resignation was accepted January 7 by the county commissioners.

Notice of School Desegregation Plan Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964

This notice is made available to inform you about the desegregation of our schools Keep a copy of this notice. It will answer many questions about school desegregation.

SECTION I DESEGREGATION PLAN IN EFFECT

The Highlands County public school system is being desegregated under a plan adopted in accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The purpose of the desegregation plan is to eliminate from our school system the racial segregation of students and all other forms of discrimination based on race, color, or national origin. Your school board and the school staff will do everything they can to see to it that the rights of all students are protected and that our desegregation plan is carried out successfully.

The plan adopted by the Board of Public Instruction and approved by the office of Education on June 25, 1965 is based upon a combination of non-racial, geographic attendance zones and a freedom of choice plan. All grades (1-12) are applicable this school year (1969-70).

For those who live in the geographic zones, Section II of this notice will provide complete information. For those who live outside of an attendance zone Section III of this notice will apply.

SECTION II NON-RACIAL ATTENDANCE ZONES

1. Under the desegregation plan, the school each student will attend depends on where he lives. An attendance zone has been established for each school in the system. All students in the same grade who live in the same zone will be assigned to the same school, regardless of their race, color, or national origin and regardless of which school they attend now.

2. TRANSFER TO SCHOOL IN ANOTHER ZONE

A student may transfer from the school to which he is assigned only under the following conditions:—(Transfers for any other reasons will not be permitted.)

a. To continue or initiate a course of study not available in the school in residence zone.

b. To attend school with member of family.

c. Special needs such as physical, or other handicaps as identified by parent, doctor, etc.

3. NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT

On or before March 27, 1969, the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student enrolled in this system will be sent a letter stating the name and location of the school to which the student will be assigned for the coming school year. The letter will also give information on any school bus service provided for the student's neighborhood. A copy of this notice will be enclosed with each letter. The same letter and notice will be sent out on the above date for all children the school system expects to enter the school system for the first time next year. This includes children entering the first grade and children entering from a new student after the above date, it will promptly send the student's parent such a letter and a copy of this notice.

4. MAPS SHOWING ATTENDANCE ZONES

Maps showing the boundary lines of the attendance zones of every school in the school system are freely available for inspection by the public at the Superintendent's office. Individual zone maps will be available at each school.

5. REVISION OF ATTENDANCE ZONES BOUNDARIES

Any revision of attendance zone boundaries will be announced by a prominent notice in a local paper at least 30 days before the change is effective.

SECTION III FREEDOM OF CHOICE PLAN. (For those who do not reside in attendance zones)

1. THIRTY-DAY SPRING CHOICE PERIOD

Each student or his parent, or other adult person acting as parent, is required to choose the school he will attend next school year. The choice period will begin on March 27, 1969, and close April 25, 1969.

2. EXPLANATORY LETTERS AND SCHOOL CHOICE FORMS

On the first day of the choice period, an explanatory letter and this notice will be sent by first-class mail to the parent, or other adult person acting as parent, of each student then in the schools who is expected to attend school the following school year. A school choice form will be sent with each letter, together with a return envelope addressed to the Superintendent. Additional copies of the letter, this notice and the choice form are freely available to the public at any school and at the Superintendent's office.

3. RETURNING THE CHOICE FORMS

Parents and students, at their option, may return the completed choice forms by hand to any school or by mail to the Superintendent's office, at any time during the 30-day choice period. No preference will be given for choosing early during the choice period. A choice is required for each student. No assignment to a school can be made unless a choice is made first.

4. CHOICE FORM INFORMATION

The school choice form lists the names, locations and grades offered for each school. The reasons for any choice made are not to be stated. The form asks for the name, address and age of the student, the school and grade currently or last attended, the school chosen for the following year, the appropriate signature, and whether the form has been signed by the student or his parent. Any letter or other written communication which identifies the student and the school he wishes to attend will be deemed just as valid as those submitted on the official choice form by the school system. The names of students and the schools they choose or are assigned to under the plan will not be made public by school officials.

5. COURSE AND PROGRAM INFORMATION

To guide students and parents in making a choice of schools, listed below, by schools, are the courses and programs which are not given at every school in this school system.

A. All Elementary Schools offer the same course of study.

B. All Junior High Grades (7-8-9) offer the same course of study.

C. Avon Park High School offers the following courses not offered in every other school:

(1) Latin, Economics, Adv. Shop, Adv. Math, Biology II.

(2) Diversified Cooperative Training, Physical Science.

D. Sebring High School offers the following courses not offered in every other school:

(1) Adv. Biology, French, Journalism, Latin, Diversified Cooperative Training.

E. Lake Placid High School offers the following courses not offered in every other school:

(1) Humanities.

E. O. Douglas and Hopewell Schools—Grade levels 5-6-7-8 will be departmentalized and organized under a middle school concept. Grades 1-2-3-4 will be primary grade levels for these two schools.

6. SIGNING THE CHOICE FORM

A choice form may be signed by a parent or other adult person acting as parent. A student who has reached the age of 15 at the time of choice, or will next enter the ninth or any higher grade, may sign his own choice form. The student's choice shall be controlling unless a different choice is exercised by his parent before the end of the period during which the student exercises his choice.

7. PROCESSING OF CHOICES

No choice will be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In cases where granting all choices for any school would cause overcrowding, the students choosing the school who live closest to it will be assigned to that school. Whenever a choice is to be denied, overcrowding will be determined by a uniform standard applicable to all schools in the system.

8. NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT, SECOND CHOICE

All students and their parents will be promptly notified in writing of their school assignments. Should any student be denied his choice because of overcrowding he will be promptly notified and given a choice among all other schools in the system where space is available.

9. STUDENTS MOVING INTO THE COMMUNITY

A choice of school for any student who will be new to the school system may be made during the spring 30-day choice period or at any other time before he enrolls in school. An explanatory letter, this notice and the school choice form will be given out for each new student as soon as the school system knows about the student. At least seven days will be allowed for the return of the choice form when a choice is made after the spring 30-day choice period. A choice must be made for each student. No assignment to any school can be made unless a choice is made first.

10. STUDENTS ENTERING FIRST GRADE

The parent or other adult person acting as parent, of every child entering the first grade, or kindergarten (delete "or kindergarten" if not offered), is required to choose the school his child will attend. Choices will be made under the same free choice process used for students new to the school system in other grades, as provided in paragraph 10.

11. PRIORITY OF LATE CHOICES

No choice made after the end of the spring 30-day choice period may be denied for any reason other than overcrowding. In the event of overcrowding, choices made during the 30-day choice period will have first priority. Overcrowding will be determined by the standard applied for in paragraph 8. Any parent or student whose first choice is denied because of overcrowding will be given a second choice in the manner provided for in paragraph 9.

12. TESTS, HEALTH RECORDS AND OTHER ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Any academic tests or other procedures used in assigning students to schools, grades, classrooms, sections, courses of study, or for any other purpose, will be applied uniformly to all students without regard to race, color or national origin. No choice of school will be denied because of failure at the time of choice to provide any health record, birth certificate, or other document. The student will be tentatively assigned in accordance with the plan and the choice made, and given ample time to obtain any required document. Curriculum, credit, and promotion procedures will not be applied in such a way as to hamper freedom of choice of any student.

13. CHOICES ONCE MADE CANNOT BE ALTERED

Once a choice has been submitted, it may not be changed, even though the choice period has not ended. The choice is binding for the entire school year to which it applies, except in the case of (1) compelling hardship, (2) change of residence to a place where another school is closer, (3) the availability of a school designed to fit the special needs of a physically handicapped student, (4) the availability at another school of a course of study required by the student, which is not available at the school chosen.

SECTION IV INFORMATION WHICH APPLIES TO ALL PLANS

1. ALL OTHER ASPECTS OF SCHOOLS DESEGREGATED

All school-connected services, facilities, athletics, activities and programs available to all on a desegregated basis. A student attending school for the first time on a desegregated basis may not be subject to any disqualification or waiting period for participation in activities and programs, including athletics, which might otherwise apply because he is a transfer student. All transportation furnished by the school system will also operate on a desegregated basis. Faculties will be desegregated, and no staff member will lose his position because of race, color or national origin. This includes any case where less staff is needed because schools are closed or enrollment is reduced.

2. ATTENDANCE ACROSS SCHOOL SYSTEM LINES

No arrangement will be made, or permission granted, by this school system for any student living in the community it serves to attend school in another school system, where this would tend to limit desegregation, or where the opportunity is not available to all students without regard to race, color or national origin.

3. VIOLATIONS TO BE REPORTED

It is a violation of our desegregation plan for any school official or teacher to influence or coerce any person in the making of a choice or to promise any benefit in connection with or promise favors for any choice made. It is also a violation of Federal regulations for any person to intimidate, threaten, coerce, retaliate or discriminate against any individual for the purpose of interfering with the free making of a choice of school. Any person having any knowledge of any violation of these prohibitions should report the facts immediately by mail or phone to the Office of Civil Rights, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, D.C., (telephone 202-962-0333). The name of any person reporting any violation will not be disclosed without his consent. Any other violation of the desegregation plan or other discrimination based on race, color, or national origin in the school system is also a violation of Federal requirements, and should likewise be reported. Anyone with a complaint to report should first bring it to the attention of local school officials, unless he feels it would not be helpful to do so. If local officials do not correct the violation promptly, any person familiar with the facts of the violation should report them immediately to the Department of Health, Education & Welfare at the above address or phone number.

BILLY KANGETER and Donna Ferguson rode in this old surrey last Friday advertising the Country Store sponsored by the Avon Park High School Band. It was reported the band netted over $600 from their store and auction held Saturday. The band thanks parents, merchants and friends who made this annual event possible.

World War I Barracks And Auxiliary Meet

World War I Barracks No. 1130 Auxiliary met Thursday evening, Mar. 13.

The Americanism Chairman, Illeon Kull, read a very interesting article from the P.E.O. Record about the origin of the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. At the time of the 400th anniversary of Columbus's discovery of America, Francis Bellamy composed this now famous Pledge.

Mr. Bellamy was an ordained Baptist minister from Mount Morris, N. Y. and served his church until he joined the staff of Youth's Companion, whose editor James Upham had plans for every school to fly a flag. He requested Mr. Bellamy to write a short salute.

The work of Francis Bellamy was officially designated as the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag by Public law 287, 79th Congress, approved December 28, 1945.

The Bible Speaks To You On Radio

Many college students want to change the world dramatically by dissolving injustice and lifting limitations. But must society first be torn apart? Christ Jesus was a radical who healed multitudes and changed lives, but he built on the good already existing. Listen Sunday, Mar. 23, to WJCM 9 A.M. to "Achieving Something Meaningful at College."

WE'LL MISS OUR HOME! But 5 bedrooms, 3½ baths is too much for us now. If you like a cozy fireplace, a large friendly kitchen with plenty of cupboards and built-in appliances plus a snack bar that will easily accomodate 10 people, then see this place. On two beautifully landscaped lots near Woodlawn Elementary School, and with 8 orange trees that provide fruit year round, the outside will never need painting. Other features are: central air and heat; drapes; intercom in each room and at all outside doors—intercom also carries AM-FM music into all rooms; master bedroom has "his and hers" closet with private dressing room and bath-shower; a large pantry with peg board facility and storage space; utility room inside; den or music room that closes off from the rest of house; 2700 sq. ft. completely carpeted (even kitchen) of beautiful living. Outside has flood lights that can be controlled with one switch from master bedroom; a barbecue pit with marble top; and a very large concrete patio for "fun" times. Can be bought either furnished or unfurnished. Shown by appointment ONLY! 1209 Hawthorne Road, phone 385-7141, Sebring.—idhtfc

FIX-IT TIP

Use the rubber heel from an old shoe to make a handsize, flexible sanding block. Cut slits lengthwise along opposite edges to the heel to hold the sandpaper. The rubber's flexibility permits easy insertion and removal of the paper and its gripping power holds it snugly while in use.

Weather Station

San Diego — (HK) — General Dynamics has developed and built for the U.S. Navy's Office of Naval Research a pieplate shaped buoy 40 feet in diameter that can serve as a seagoing weather station. Anchored in water up to 30,000 feet deep, it radios to land an almost minute-by-minute account of 100 different environmental conditions, ranging from radiation levels to the temperature of the ocean at various depths.

More pleasure boat racers use Mercury outboards because they count on a Merc to run faster and stay together. That's why Merc-powered rigs win most of the races. So, people will usually tell you a Mercury is the fastest outboard you can buy.
But boaters prefer a Merc for other reasons too . . . things like superior dependability and trouble-free performance . . . quieter, more economical operation . . . and exclusive Mercury features not found on other outboards: Jet Prop exhaust, Shearproof Prop Drive, one-piece lower unit, and Thunder-bolt electronic ignition.
Stop in soon and find out why your next outboard should be a Merc.

GO

Then You Should Come Out and Test-Drive A New 140 H.P. MERCURY MOTOR!

A new Merc will outrun, outpull and outlast any other outboard in its class.
Mercurys have won more performance and endurance records than all other outboards combined . . . they're designed to run at full throttle for as long as you like. Revolutionary new Thunderbolt electronic system has made the ignition one of the most reliable parts on the engine. Spark plugs last seasons instead of days. There are no distributor points to replace. The engine starts instantly and runs smooth as silk from slowest idle to full bore.

Here's the Answer

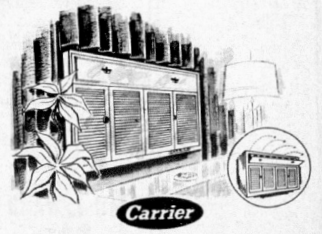

FASTEN YOUR SEAT BELT. Last year, 8,000 persons who lost their lives in highway accidents would be alive today had they worn seat belts, says the National Safety Council. Another 2,000 motorists who were in serious accidents in which they might otherwise have been killed, are alive today because they were wearing their seat belts when the accidents occurred.

Carrier's secret flip-top. See it in action.

Carrier

If you want the newest thing in room air conditioners, see the good-looking "Cosmopolitan" by Carrier. And you'd better insist on a demonstration. Otherwise, you might not recognize the "Cosmopolitan" as an air conditioner. At least not until you've seen it flip its lid.

This happens when you open the left hand louvre door and press the "cool" button. Carrier's attractive top panel flips open — automatically. Cool, clean, dry air flows out the full width of the top opening . . . starts cooling you off, quietly, in just 10 seconds.

Air flows reach the farthest corners of the room, or into adjoining rooms, without drafts or hot spots. For just pennies a day, you can beat the summer heat once and for all.

Science Church Sunday Services

"Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth." This is the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon to be heard in all Christian Science Churches this Sunday. The subject is "Matter."

Passages from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following: "To ascertain our progress, we must learn where our affections are placed and whom we acknowledge and obey God. If divine love is growing nearer, dearer and more real to us, matter is then submitting to Spirit. The objects we pursue and the spirits we manifest reveal our standpoint, and show what we are winning."

All are welcome to attend the service.

WHEN THE prisoners from the Avon Park Correctional Institution finished up some eight weeks of helping with the construction of Highlands County's new juvenile home, County Judge Mervin Rehrer treated them to steak lunch, even cooking the steaks himself. Left to right are Juvenile Counselor Robert Lindsey, E. Scott, A. Arline, A. Gibbs, L. Ireland, the judge and E. Porter.

Judge Rehrer Treats Prisoners For Work Done On Juvenile Home

County Judge Marvin Rehrer, provided and cooked steaks last Wednesday at the new juvenile home for the prisoners from Avon Park Correctional Institution who have helped out so enthusiastically in construction of the home.

The judge provided 16 pounds of two-inch thick sirloin, baked beans and potatoes, and home baked pie. He cooked the steak and Mrs. Rehrer and Margaret Turnbull the other goodies. Mrs. Turnbull has arranged for meals for the men the past eight weeks they've worked at the home.

Also invited to eat steak were Mrs. Walter Rebman, president of Youth Care, Inc., the organization providing the new facility, contractor Ken Grubb and two of his carpenters.

There weren't any leftovers, the judge noted!

Only through the judge's agreement to oversee the men were their services made available to help with Youth Care project. He has commented on the hard work they have done —plunging in immediately upon arrival and scarcely stopping to eat lunch.

Because of their work, the home has been completed sooner than it would otherwise have been.

The excesses of youth are drafts on age—payable about 30 years later, with compound interest.

Adventists Vote To Air Condition Church

In business meeting Sunday night, Mar. 16, the Seventh-day Adventist Church voted to air condition the sanctuary and Sabbath school rooms. The church is located on Lake Lillian about three miles north of Avon Park via Route 27.

The contract is to be let to Long and Sensenig of Avon Park. The work is to be completed within the next 30 days and will be ready for use before the summer heat and gnats arrive.

Dr. C. J. Larsen, first elder of the church, presided at the meeting. Dan Sandeford, assistant administrator of Walker Memorial Hospital, is chairman of the Capital Improvements Committee and presented the plans for air conditioning. Robert Sanborn read Long and Sensenigs' proposal and answered questions. Dr. Wesley Osborne, the third member of the committee, also had part on the program. This committee is also raising the funds for the project.

The church has just completed a new classroom at its Highland Lakes Junior Academy, located about 2 blocks west of the church. The new room was first used for classes on March 10. Last year the church completed a new gymnasium at the academy. Both school programs and church socials are held there.

Last Session of Teacher Training Institute Will Be Held Tuesday

The Fourth and last session of the inter-denominational Church School Institute for Teacher Training, will be held Tuesday, Mar. 25th, at the Union Congregational Church. Rev. Herbert Graetz will lead the devotional service at 7:30. The general period following will have two parts. Miss Marge Whitaker, Director of Christian Education, A.R. Presbyterian Church, Lake Wales, will demonstrate the use of puppets and object lessons. Mrs. Adra Jackinson, Lake Byrd Book Store, will present books and teaching materials which are now available.

During the graded-group classes Miss Whitaker will divide the time between Pre-school, Primary and Junior teachers. Rev. T. Albert Lawrence, Director of Christian Education, Florida United Church of Christ Conference, will lead the High School group, with Robert Cushman as chairman.

All will return for fellowship and refreshments to be furnished by the Congregational Church School. This will be the time for a general evaluation of the Institute. The idea presented at this time will be recorded by the Dean, Rev. John E. Pickens, as suggestions for a future Institute. This Institute has been successful, but perhaps we can do a better job next time.

Four Avon Pk. Churches have sponsored the Institute — Congregational, Episcopal, Methodist and Presbyterian. All interested people will be welcome at the closing session next Tuesday.

BAHA U LLAH

(Spirit of Truth Who will) guide you into all truth

Regard the world as the human body which, though at its creation whole and perfect, hath been afflicted, through various causes, with grave disorders and maladies. Not for one day did it gain ease; nay its sickness waxed more severe, as it fell under the treatment of ignorant physician, who gave full rein to their personal desires, and have erred grievously. That which Lord hath ordained as the sovereign remedy and mightiest instrument for the healing of all the world is the union of all its people in one universal Cause, one common Faith. This can in no wise be achieved except through the power of a skilled, an all-powerful and inspired Physician. This, verily, is the truth, and all else naught but error.

Join us each Friday evening to study the word of God for this age.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Jazab, A.P.C.I.

The Club room was decorated beautifully with purple bunches of paper grapes, made by the busy fingers of Marie Hall and her many helpers.

Besides the gift of Lingerie given to Hallie Wetmore to express their appreciation of her untiring leadership, she received a corsage of shells in the shape of a bunch of grapes.

Elsie Dickerson was also given a gift, for she has never missed helping in a class since Hallie started eight years ago.

Mrs. Wetmore also wishes to express her appreciation of the wonderful cooperation of all the helpers in making this 1969 an outstanding show.

So many articles exhibited showed the imagination and ingenuity of making attractive articles from things one would throw in the waste basket. Small hospital medicine cups were fashioned into a Christmas Tree. A cross was made from burned matches. A small turkey from small pine cones. Animals, a lamp and many other things were made from chlorox bottles.

At the apron table, Flora Hoppe demonstrated an apron, that, with the help of a couple of snaps was turned into a sun bonnet (when Grandma wanted to gather some strawberries to give to a departing guest).

Some kind of a record was set by the city council at its regular meeting held Monday night. It was the shortest regular meeting in many months, some of which have lasted until midnight.

A number of absentees marked the session, with City Clerk Malcolm Crews attending a special group study being conducted for city clerks at Cocoa.

Rodney Lane was confined to his home by illness and illness of our city mayor kept him away. In the course of the meeting, chairman, Jack Duggan was taken ill and had to leave. Councilman Scott was appointed to take his place for the remainder of the meeting.

At the beginning of the session, B. F. Camp voiced some objections in regard to the zoning changes required for the building of a condominium at the corner of Verona Avenue and Pleasant Street overlooking Lake Verona. However, objections were overruled and the first reading for rezoning was given by our City Attorney J. H. Hancock.

Sherman Drawdy and Howard Bennett appeared before the council requesting some action be taken to restrain the railroad in its use of the property along the ACL tracks, just north of the Mall. They claimed a public nuisance to nearby property owners due to the dust raised in unloading freight cars. It was pointed out that the property does belong to the railroad and not the city and there was little chance for success in any legal effort to restrain them in the use of their own property here.

In a third zoning problem a petition was submitted by residents in the neighborhood of Green's Surplus Stores to prevent extension of area used for storage and display of surplus goods over into recently purchased residential property. The police were given notice to report any unauthorized extension of the present commercially zoned area.

Group Hears Educational Consultant

A group of interested citizens, concerned with the severe and ever increasing overcrowded conditions at the Avon Park High School heard a lecture on Educational Facilities planning last Monday night at the high school auditorium.

Robert J. Wehking, planning consultant for the State Department of Education presented slides on new school facilities throughout the United States. This was followed by a question, answer and discussion period.

The pressures of steadily increasing enrollment are becoming acute in the Avon Park High School. The present school which was built 43 years ago to house 500 students is now accommodating nearly 1000 students.

All citizens are urged to be mindful of the pressing need in our community for a new school facility.

Red Devils Meet Arcadia In Big Game Here Saturday

The Red Devil varsity baseball team ran into a little trouble last week and dropped a 4-2 game to Sebring Tuesday a week ago and then lost 4-3 to Arcadia last Friday night in Arcadia. The one bright spot in the week was an 11-1 win over Lake Placid here at Head Field last Thursday night behind the two hit hurling of Don Sisemore.

The two losses and the single win set Avon Park's record at 4-3-1 with the season half over. Last Tuesday night the Devils were scheduled to play in Frostproof against the Bulldogs whom they defeated 5-1 in an earlier game here. Tomorrow night (Friday) the Devils will host Naples and Saturday night the Arcadia nine will be here at Head Field for a return bout. Both home games will start at 7:30 P.M. Next Tuesday night the Avon Park squad will travel to Sebring for another game with the Blue Streaks.

Last week Sebring scored one run in the second, third, fifth and sixth innings to take the win on only one hit. Avon Park pushed over two runs in the bottom of the third frame but couldn't manage any more.

Senior Devil hurler Larry LaFlam started on the mound for Avon Park and tossed 5-2/3 innings of hitless ball at the Streaks who never-the-less managed to score four runs. The Red Devils committed five errors and LaFlam gave up six walks and hit two batters to aid the Blue Streak cause.

LaFlam, Dennis Hart, and Billy Richards were the only Avon Park batters who hit safely with each getting a single off winning pitcher Jack Miller.

On Thursday night the Red Devils put Lake Placid down in five inning game scoring 11 runs on 11 hits while committing only one error. Steve Walker boomed out a triple, Billy Richards, Mike Vandebelt, Don Sisemore, and Billy Jackson all rapped out two singles each, and Larry LaFlam and Dennis Hart connected for a single each off losing pitcher Bobby Duncan who went the distance for Lake Placid.

Young Don Sisemore gave up only two hits and one run to the Green Dragon batters and that all came in the second frame. The lead-off batter singled and moved to second when the next batter also singled. He went to third on a fielders choice and then scored on an Avon Park error. Sisemore struck out nine batters in the five inning game.

In Arcadia last Friday night the Red Devils jumped off to a three run lead scoring one in the top of the first and then two more in the second frame. But Arcadia scored two in the fourth inning and then went a head in the fifth inning scoring two more on one single and two Red Devil errors. The Avon Park team threatened in the fifth and sixth but couldn't get another run and took the 4-3 loss at the hands of the Bulldogs.

It was simply a matter of too many errors—the Red Devils made nine miscues during the seven inning game committing five in the fourth inning. Arcadia's winning pitcher, Washington, gave up only three hits —singles by Steve Walker, Bill Jackson, and Steve Hartt.

Larry LaFlam started on the mound for the Devils and went the first two innings. Then Clark Jackson came on to start the third frame and hurled an inning and 2/3 before being relieved by Don Sisemore who finished out the game.

Site Selected For Proposed New Avon Park High School

Approximately 35 acres of land just South of the Bombing Range Road and East of the city limits has been chosen as the site for the proposed Avon Park High School.

At a special meeting Monday afternoon Highlands County School Board announced it had arrived at a "firm price from two of the three property owners involved." The board authorized its attorney to begin formal proceedings for obtaining the land.

Board Chairman Henry Bailey said the State Department of Education had given its approval for the site. He declined to make public the purchase price "because we are still negotiating."

The land is adjacent to the city limits so that city water and sewer lines will be available, Bailey said. He said the ready availability of these lines was a major factor in making the final selection of this site.

In Sebring, site selection has hit a major obstacle—high prices. Bailey said the board had retained the services of an accredited appraiser from outside the county to appraise a parcel which would fit into the State Department of Education specifications.

"We feel the prices we have been quoted are unrealistic," Bailey said. Bailey, who is a realtor, said the quotes are "about twice what they should be."

The school board has $100,000 in its current budget earmarked for site purchase. Bailey said the board could stay within that figure if the Sebring site can be purchased a price similar to that now contemplated for Avon Park's.

High School Chorus Gets Superior Rating

Saturday, Mar. 28, the Avon Park High School Choruses under the direction of Kenneth Eberle participated in the District Contest held at the Manatee Junior College, Bradenton.

The mixed chorus received a rating of superior on performance and good on sight reading. This gave them an over-all rating of excellent. This is just under the superior rating that is needed to go to state contest. They sang "The 100th Psalm" and the "Lord is a Mighty God."

The Girls Chorus received a superior on performance and an excellent on sight reading. This gave them an over all rating of superior, thus enabling them to go on to state contest. They sang "Cantical of Praise" and "We Sing thy Praise."

This chorus is new and this is the first time they have been to district contest. They have only been organized for two months with practice twice a week on Tuesday and Thursday nights.

Kay Green played a piano solo "Balade" receiving a rating of excellent. Beverly Pollard also received an excellent rating on a vocal solo "Morniny" and "The Ashe Grove."

The Girls Chorus will be leaving sometime in May for state contest at Hollywood.

Ford Wins 12 Hour Race In Exciting Finish

"Maybe some day you'll have a big race here," he told Alec Ulmann, looking around at the primitive facilities.

Saturday was the day for both men, when Wyer's GT-40 Ford with hard driving Jackie Ickx and Jack Oliver won this most exciting of all the Grand Prix races. And race president Ulmann saw a record crowd of nearly 60,000 spectators assembled from all over the world.

The towering Englishman's mighty little men, Jackie and Jack, edged out 1967's winner Mario Andretti and team mate Chris Amon in Ferrari's great new car by a scant less than three-minute lap.

Ulmann—termed this 19th annual Grand Prix the "most exciting race and most exciting finish."

The last 45 minutes of the race saw excitement mounting as the blue-gray Ford took over. The crowd began to grow at trackside, jamming into the bleachers and other areas near the finish line to watch the Ford and Andretti battle it out in the closing minutes.

Wyer Took Lead

The Wyer car took the lead when Ferrari hauled into the pits for a disastrous 10 minutes less than two hours before the checkered flag signaled the end of the race at 11 P.M. Overheating. Previous minutes were lost before Andretti could take off again.

With only 20 minutes to go, the car roared into the pits again. Overheating. The crew splashed water on the smoking gear box and Andretti screamed off again smoking, trying to make up the lost time and catch the Ford. He was within one lap distance when the flag went down.

103.566 mpm

The Ickx-Oliver team held on for victory at a record speed of 103.566 mph despite a late pit stop caused by a flat tire.

They turned 239 laps to the Andretti-Amon team's 238. A rubber course marker flipped into the path of the blazing-fast Ferrari by a small car probably cost Italian Enzo Ferrari the coveted victory.

It closed off the nose cone of the Ferrari, cutting off the intake of air and causing the car to overhead and boil out the water. As a result, the Ferrari ran the last five hours virtually without water, the oil doing all the cooling of the engine.

The overheating problem caused the engine to refuse to start during pit stop which lasted a shattering 10 minutes and brought defeat to the blood red car from Modena.

Earlier, Andretti and Amon had survived a flash fire in the pits, a spin out on the course and headlight trouble to hold a three-lap lead over Ickx and Oliver at the 10-hour mark.

Lead Changed 13 Times

The lead changed hands a total of 13 times during the sunny up-to-87-degree Florida day and the cool, comfortable in-the-60's night.

There were six different cars in the lead at various stages. Car 31, a Porsche driven by Jo Siffert of Switzerland and Brian Redman of England led the first 30 laps.

Roger Penske's No. 9 Lola-Chevrolet driven by Ronnie Bucknum of LaCanada, Calif., and Mark Donohue of Media, Pa., led on laps 31-41. The Ferrari took over on laps 65-85 after the lead see-sawed between the Lola and the Porsche. From laps 86-97, the Porsche No. 29 of Gerhard Mitter and Udo Schutz, both of Germany was in the lead. Then the lead passed back and forth between the Ferrari and the 29 Porsche from laps 98-182.

Come lap 182, the No. 27 Porsche of Joe Buzzetta of Smithtown, N. Y., and Rolf Stommelen of Germany led the pack for five laps until the Ferrari came on strong again. Not until lap No. 205 did the Ickx-Oliver No. 22 Ford take over. They were never topped.

Smothers a Winner

TV Comedian Dick Smothers and Fred Baker of Mound, Minn., in Smothers' Porsche, captured top honors in the under 2 litre Group 6 Prototype. Baker was turning laps at an average of 3.05 or about 101 mph and Smothers at a slower 3.12 or about 97 mph.

A total of $60,000 in prize money was handed out to winners, with $5,000 going to Ickx and Oliver. Amon turned the fastest lap in the race at 115.641 mph, a trip over the 5.2-mile course of 2:41.88. It was the 14th lap.

A full field of 70 cars started the race. Twelve hours later, 45 finished.

Last year Hans Herrmann and Jo Siffert won in a Porsche 907 prototype, in 12 hours making 227 laps at an average 102.512 mph.

Defending World Champions

The winning GT-40 Ford is the defending world team champion. They were as much as 20 miles behind the leaders in mid-afternoon, but kept a steady pace as troubles beset the faster machines.

The race got off to a false start as drivers raced toward their cars and were called back. The false start was caused by

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER

Editor, Information Services

Death rate for cirrhosis of the liver in Florida has increased noticeably during the most recent two years for which statistics are available, that is, 1966 and 1967.

After ranging between 10.0 and 11.9 deaths per 100,000 population for a nine-year period, the death rate from cirrhosis of the liver climbed to 13.6 deaths per 100,000 population in 1966 and up to 15.2 deaths per 100,000 population in '67.

Alcoholism was mentioned on 339 cirrhosis of the liver death certificates, or on exactly one-third of these cases.

Nation-wide, the death rate from cirrhosis of the liver has climbed steadily since 1950. That year there was 9.2 deaths per 100,000 population attributed to liver cirrhosis. In 1955 the rate had risen to 10.2; in 1960 it was up to 11.3; in 1964 it had climbed to 12.1; in 1965 it had risen to 12.8; and in 1966, the most recent year for which nation-wide statistics are available, it had jumped to 13.6.

Liver cirrhosis is one of the potential physiological hazards which may accompany alcoholism or even heavy drinking. There are others — among them, gastric disturbances and nutritional diseases which affect the nervous system. Medical examinations of alcoholics also reveal such conditions as a swollen or tender liver, and such disorders as hallucinations.

"How Alcohol Affects The Body" is one of Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program's most asked-for pamphlets. It is produced by Rutgers Center of Alcohol Studies and deals with how drinking affects the various organs of the body — not only the liver, but the brain, stomach, kidneys, glands, heart, eyes, and even ears.

This pamphlet is yours for the asking, at no charge whatever.

More and more Floridians are taking advantage of the opportunities afforded them by FARP to learn more about alcoholism. More than 60 pamphlets are free for the asking, and these deal with many varied facets of problem drinking.

Each pamphlet is written by leading, recognized authorities in their field, and the information contained therein is dependable and factual, as well as being unbiased.

One of the newest brochures now being offered is "The Broken Glass," a 48-page booklet produced by FARP in cooperation with the University of Florida. It is a composite of selected five-minute radio programs and is probably the most in-depth and objective examination of alcoholism ever done on radio.

All this material is yours by writing FARP's Information Services, Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla., 33825.

Seventh County Auto Fatality Occurs In Freak Accident

A Miami woman lost her life in a freak accident at the underpass on Route 27 just North of Lake Placid Saturday afternoon to become the county's seventh fatality of the year.

Mrs. Hilda Jenkins, 58, was instantly killed in the accident in which her husband, Samuel, 68, received head, neck and internal injuries. He was transferred from Highlands General Hospital to Winter Haven hospital.

The Jenkins car was traveling South on Route 27 at 5:38 P.M. when a car driven by William Clark, 24, of Winter Park, ran upon them from behind, going too fast, hit them in the rear and drove the Jenkins car into the concrete abutment at the underpass. Clark was treated and released. His new car received about $1,000 damage and the Jenkins 1967 Rambler was a total loss.

Florida Highway Patrolman Ralph Hough, investigated, assisted by Patrolman Wilbur Woods and charged Clarke with reckless driving.

Clements Uninjured

Wilburn Clements walked away uninjured from an accident at 10:15 A.M. Saturday on State Road 17 at Lakemont which his car turned turtle. Clements, of Avon Park saw the railroad warning lights come on, applied his brakes, lost control, skidded into the right shoulder and rolled over doing $150 damage. Florida Highway Patrolman Frank Williams investigated, assisted by Deputy Sheriff Lewis Pollard, Jr., and charged him with failure to use due care.

Carol Mehaffy, 21, of Miami, was charged with reckless driving after she ran over her husband, Charles at 8:30 A.M. Sunday on Route 27 a half mile North of Lake Placid. Mehaffey was admitted to Highlands General Hospital with a broken collarbone, bruises and lacerations. He later was transferred to another hospital. According to Florida Highway Patrolman Frank Williams, they argued, she locked the doors to their Corvette and would not let him in, he went in front of the car and she ran over him. The car was undamaged.

Motorcycle Flips

A 14 year old boy, Frederick Hartzell, of Lake Placid, received bruises, abrasions and lacerations when his motorcycle ran off the road at 2:05 P.M. Sunday, struck a mail box and rolled over two times. The accident occurred on the Sylvan Shores road 1.9 miles East of Lake Placid. Trooper J. E. Vann investigated. Charges are pending.

Edwin Paul Townsend, 20, of Avon Park, was charged with reckless driving by Trooper Williams after he ran his 1968 car off a curve, and struck a pole and a tree one mile North of Avon Park on County road. The accident happened at 1:30 A.M. Monday.

Barbara Pellerin of Avon Park struck the rear of a car driven by Leonard Smith III. Damage to the Pellerin car was estimated at $150, to the Smith car, $125. Officer Ken Cunningham charged Miss Pellerin with careless driving.

Tuesday afternoon Billy Ray Morris of Lake Bonnet was involved in a mishap that landed him in the hospital with his right leg injured and under observation.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

What Does Love Really Mean?

"Make love, not war," the hippies proclaim by the cards that they carry and the slogan that they inscribe on the walls of buildings.

But what do they mean by "love"?

Do they mean the deep emotion which causes men and women to sacrifice themselves for those whom they love —or do they mean the cheap gratification of a physical desire?

There is a great gulf between the various meanings of the word "love."

Some have cheapened the word till it means to them hardly more than an animal biological urge.

But this is not the true meaning of the word that is intended to express the deepest and noblest emotion of which the human heart is capable.

True love does not impel one to do that which will gratify the whims or satisfy the passions of the lover at the expense of the one who is loved.

Rather, true love will lead the one who loves to do that which will be of greatest benefit to the one who is loved.

Sometimes the working of true love is at great cost to the one who loves.

Sacrificial Love

While there are those who declare that our military effort in Vietnam is "immoral and unnecessary," there are others who have seen with their own eyes a Vietnamese father carrying the lifeless body of his young child, killed by the Viet Cong, and who have a very different opinion of the morality of defending these people against the murderous terrorism of the God-less hordes of Ho Chi Minh.

One Marine corporal in Vietnam has sent to columnist Ray Cromley a poem which Cromley mentioned in a recent column. In it, the Marine asks God whether he (the Marine) has the heart to live or to die for other men. He is afraid that he won't measure up to the situation that he is facing.

The poem closes with the declaration by this young man, "I think that I would rather be right here, where I can take my stand, and with my hand, make life alive for another man."

No Greater Love

Jesus said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

It is this kind of love that we need in the world today.

It is this kind of love that Jesus manifested, 19 centuries ago, when He—the guiltless one —went to the cross to die for the guilty ones.

God gave His Son. The Son gave His life.

But the tragic truth is that, in too many cases, while God loves men, men love darkness rather than light—and go on stumbling through life until they stumble headlong into the place of perdition that Jesus died to save them from.

"God commendeth His love toward us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."

What is your response to this manifestation of God's love for you?

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Labor's Image of Nixon Changed

By Babson's Reports Incorporated

Wellesley Hills, Mass., March 27, 1969. Most of the nation's labor leaders were highly suspicious of candidate Nixon when he was running for President. They didn't like him or trust him, and they did everything possible to create an image of him as a dangerous foe of organized labor. Hubert Humphrey was the unions' White Knight, and many fought hard for his election.

So Far: Benefit of the Doubt

The contest was hair-breadth, but Nixon won. Since his inauguration, labor officials—and the rank and file— have been watching to see if he would prove himself to be as much of a "reactionary labor-hater" as had been suspected. Nixon still hasn't been in office very long, but he has had plenty of time to reveal any deep-set anti-labor bias.

Thus far, he hasn't shown any, and more and more labor authorities are ready to give him the benefit of the doubt. After all, the new Chief Executive has proposed no legislation to restrain union powers, so it is impossible for fair-minded labor representatives to label him an arch-enemy. In fact, even in his earlier days in the White House, Nixon took some steps that could not fail to give courage to the AFL-CIO and its supporters.

No Compulsory Arbitration

Federation executives noted with relief that Nixon allowed the East Coast dock walkout to run its prolonged course without asking for compulsory arbitration, even though the strike obviously dealt a serious blow to business and the public interest.

It was recalled that, earlier in the game, Johnson had called for an 80-day cooling-off period under the Taft-Hartley Act when the original stoppage was only two days old. Nixon's stance certainly indicated stronger intention of protecting the process of free collective bargaining than had his ostensibly more pro-labor predecessors.

Another surprise for the doubting-Thomas laborites was Nixon's immediate call for study of legislation that would guarantee union organizing and bargaining rights for farm workers, who are now denied them.

While his demand for such a survey does not necessarily mean he would give solid support to the extension of such rights into agriculture, union men see no reason for his making the suggestion if he is satisfied with the status quo in the industry. So, additional reluctant converts in the house of labor have drawn toward the President.

Only a few die-hards say they expect Nixon might negate bargaining rights won for farm hands by proposing that harvest-time strikes be banned. Such a move would undoubtedly be avoided by Nixon, since it would smack of hypocrisy to the union leaders whose loyalty he is apparently seeking.

Goodbye to Guidelines

Murmurs of approval from the union camp arose when Nixon said a formal farewell to the guideline system of wage and price controls that proved completely ineffective under the Kennedy - Johnson administrations.

This should now, however, be interpreted as White House permission for wage-price inflation to run riot. If inflationary fires are not cooled by money pressures, Congress could be asked to tie raises and price boosts to productivity gains by law.

If Congress should go along with this the results would not be anti-labor legislation — although the unions would probably so view it.

The President's campaign vow to do away with the Job Corps if elected seemed to many union people a sharp step away from the Great Society of Johnson.

Whether or not Nixon thought better of his threat to abolish the Job Corps, to date this controversial agency rests in the hands of the Labor Department, operated by progressive staff men approved by unionists.

Clearly, Nixon does not want to offend labor. His success or failure in this direction will be determined when critical problems arise involving strikes, jobs, pay, prices, taxes, or labor legislation.

Superintendent Named for Roads And Bridges

A general superintendent for Highlands County Road and Bridge Department was named at a special meeting of Highlands County commissioners Tuesday.

On the recommendation of County Administrator Charles Morgan, James Bridges was named for the new post. Morgan told the board, "Our present Road Superintendent, James Pearce, is planning to retire at the not-too-distant future. We need to begin breaking-in a man, and while a good man is available I feel we should move."

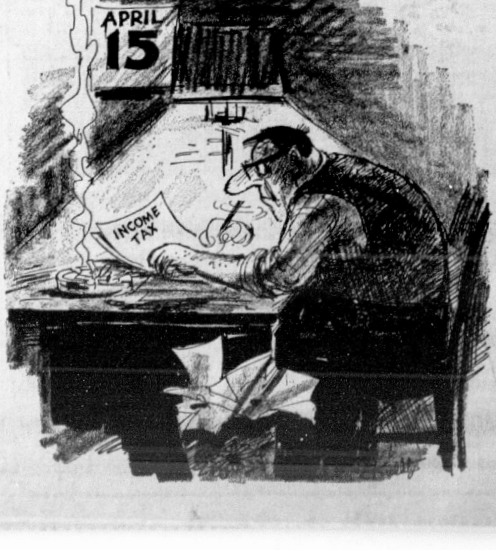

Bridges comes here from Sarasota County where he has worked for 17 years. He was a member of the county road and bridge staff there when Morgan was superintendent of public works.

Bridges will come to work in this county on Monday, Apr. 7.

At the commission meeting Tuesday the board approved leasing of a car for Morgan's use.

Morgan said the lease price of $120 per month (from National Car Rental) appears to be the cheapest arrangement that can be made at this time. He said the county budget would not permit purchase of a car at this time.

Lest We Forget

Sheriff Applauds Race Fans And Lawmen

The sun was hot Race Day, but law enforcement crews and most of the fans "kept their cool," and everyone agreed traffic and crowd control had never been better.

"I am well pleased," Sheriff Joe Keene said early this week. "The courtesy shown by racing fans made it possible for everyone to have a better time. Of course there were mistakes—but I don't know of any big ones."

Top lawmen, from both inside and outside Highlands County, preached courtesy and consideration for the racing fans to their forces. In turn, the volunteer and professional crowd control men went into the fan-congregating areas and asked for patience and consideration among the fans.

Sheriff Keene repeatedly praised the racing buffs who jammed the county and the airport in particular.

"Attendance has been estimated at 60,000," Keene said, "but I think it may have been more. Mr. Ulmann says it was our largest crowd ever. Anyway it was a lot of cars and a lot of people. We have a few traffic accidents — no serious ones. And some couple will just beg to be arrested. Friday night we had to arrest eight.

Gasoline Sniffing

"The most serious case we had over the whole weekend came up Saturday—two young boys who were wandering around sniffing a can of gasoline.

"Mayor Chuck Hall of Dade County came to us and said he'd been watching these fellows and he was sure they were headed for trouble. Mayor Hall guided Deputy O. L. Raulerson from our staff to the boys and we picked them up and charged them.

"We held them at the track until we had a paddy wagon coming to town and sent them to the county jail. They were crazy by the time we got to them, and by the time they went to jail they were in a sort of stupor. They weren't causing other people trouble, but they were damaging themselves and we really needed to get them under supervision to protect them," Keene explained.

"That was our most serious case and Mayor Hall's concern for the safety of the fans and cooperation we got all week-end," Keene said.

Special Mention

The Sheriff singled out some lawmen for special mention. "Deputies Raulerson and Wayne Harris of the Sheriff's Department, coordinated the work of all the lawmen. Captain Jake Peterson headed up the work for the Florida Highway Patrol. Col. Paul Denham, the assistant chief of police from Miami, handled the parking.

"The Hialeah Police Reserve, real experts in traffic direction, helped. All these people did the hard work. The Highlands County Rescue Unit headed by Col. Milton Parnell was great.

The bouquet-tossing Sheriff flung some compliments to the press too. "Just before the race ended some race officials mentioned they thought the police work had been good and went on to say that it is usually police brutality that makes the headlines—but I said the press has been very fair to us here, and I thought the newspapers and radio should receive some of the praise for the cooperative attitude of the fans."

Few Arrests

At the almost empty county jail Monday, the deputies counted and found they had records of 53 arrests for the weekend. The Florida Highway Patrol had made 29 cases and the Sheriff's Department 23.

Deputy Vickie Crist picked out cases obviously not related to the race and estimated that maybe a dozen of the 53 arrests could be termed "routine," the kind the FHP and Sheriff have every weekend.

The one sour note in the whole picture came from—the Sheriff. When he got home—at 3 A.M. Sunday—he crawled into bed with a bad case of flu and a worse case of medicine reaction.

The Sheriff felt a cold coming on Wednesday of Race Week. In a wild fight to beat the cold Keene said he began to take "all kinds of medicine anybody would recommend, and it worked on me just the wrong way."

On Monday his family physician set to work to get the flu under control and undo the upsets caused by the self-prescribed medicines. Tuesday, Keene was still in bed, far from well.

He did feel good enough to put in a plug for his good friend Wilbur "Cracker" North, the renowned chef who took command of the mess tent for the law enforcement and tract personnel staffs during the race.

"His food was great — just like it always is. We had wonderful roast beef, fried chicken and a stew that was something terrific.

Alabama To Help Against Cattle Theft

TALLAHASSEE — Alabama has pledged its cooperation to Florida in assisting in the creation of a strengthened cattle theft enforcement program for the Sunshine State.

Alabama's Department of Agriculture and Industries, through its Commissioner Richard Beard and his staff, will be working closely with the Florida Department of Agriculture and Broward Coker, recently appointed by Commissioner Doyle Conner as the Department's chief livestock theft investigator.

Meeting in Montgomery, Ala., last week with Beard and his staff were Conner, Coker, Dr. Clarence L. Campbell, director of the FDA Division of Animal Industry; Robert Chastain, FDA attorney; Joe Hilliard, member of the brands and theft committee, and Art Higbie, executive vice president, of the Florida Cattlemen's Association.

Hosting the joint state meeting was the Alabama Cattlemen's Association, with Comer Sims, president, and Edward Wadsworth, treasurer, in attendance.

Conner and his staff explained Florida's existing program and planned operations for cutting cattle theft losses to Florida cattlemen, estimated at $3.5 million yearly.

It was pointed out that livestock owners should be warned to be on the alert for strangers around their property and that livestock market operators be aware of strangers who do not properly identify themselves.

The Alabama officials urged Florida cattlemen to protect themselves by following these suggestions:

Using a registered brand; locate loading facilities near residences but not directly accessible to highways; make pens inaccessible by installing double gates or locks; write down license plate numbers of strange cars and trucks seen parked in or frequenting the area.

Your Social Security

Question—I work for various people as a domestic and earn $5 - $7 per week from each. Are all of my employers supposed to withhold social security contributions?

Answer—Each employer who pays a domestic employee at least $50 in cash wages in a calendar quarter must report these wages and pay the required contributions.

Question—How can I be sure that I am receiving credit for the work that I do?

Answer—First be sure that you give your employer your correct name and social security number. Also the social security office can give you a form to check on your account to be sure it is correct.

Question—Will the social security that I pay in one state be good in another state?

Answer—Yes. Social security is a federal program and all credits earned are made a permanent part of your record, no matter where you worked or lived.

Question—I am married and my husband works under social security. I work as a domestic. Is it necessary for me to pay social security contributions.

Answer—Yes. Your employer must withhold social security taxes and report your earnings to Internal Revenue Service each calendar quarter, if he pays you at least $50 in cash wages in the calendar quarter.

Question—I am a domestic worker over 62 years old and have been told I did not have enough work to receive social security benefits. Can I pay up some back time and receive benefits?

Answer—No. You cannot pay up back time. The only way you can receive social security credits is to work in a job covered by social security and have the employer send in proper reports to Internal Revenue Service.

Question—I worked under social security long enough to qualify for benefits on my own record. However, I receive widow's benefits on my husband's record. Will a lump sum death payment be made when I die?

Answer—Yes. A payment can be made to the person paying the burial expenses or to the funeral home if authorized by the person who assumes responsibility for payment of the expenses.

Panthers Play Here Friday Afternoon

By COACH TERRELL

Thursday night at Firemen's Field in Sebring, South Florida Junior College will try to make it two in a row over Lake Sumter Junior College of Leesburg.

Last Friday night in Leesburg, Hoppy Rewis and Roy Nelson combined pitching talents for a 9-1 victory. Leesburg scored first, but the Panthers came back with one in the second and three in the third. Rewis started on the mound and went four innings giving up one run and three hits. Nelson went three innings and gave up no runs and two hits.

Friday afternoon at 1 P.M. at Head Field in Avon Park, the Panthers face one of the top ranked teams in the state in Seminole Junior College of Sanford. Seminole holds an 8-1 record with one of the wins a 16-8 victory over South Florida in Sanford.

Monday night in Sebring, in a doubleheader, beginning at 5 P.M., the Panthers will face Valencia Junior College of Orlando. Valencia holds the No. two spot in Division III behind Manatee.

Monday night, the Panthers journeyed to Cocoa for a doubleheader with Brevard, and lost two tough games. Roy Nelson lost a heart breaking 3-1 first game, and Hoppy Rewis lost a tough 8-6 game in the night cap. Rewis gave up only seven hits while the Panthers gathered six.

However, it was the little dribblers in front of the plate, pitchers mound, third base that gave Brevard a big five runs in the fifth inning. The Panthers could not make the play obvious enough to get the close play at first and at home.

The Panthers made several threats to get Nelson his second win, but could not come through with the hit when it counted leaving seven men on base, two at third.

County Residents To Pay Over $7 Million Taxes On Personal Income

Beware the Ides of April, for that is when the taxman cometh to Highlands County.

He will be on hand to collect personal income taxes from local residents on the basis of their 1968 earnings.

And the likelihood is that his visit will be more profitable for him than ever before.

The way it sizes up, local taxpayers will be forking up considerably more than they did last April 15, when they produced close to $6,083,000 for Uncle Sam.

That is the approximate amount that was turned in locally, as determined by an unofficial breakdown of the statewide figures announced by the Internal Revenue Service, and from local income reports.

They show that the personal tax payments from the State of Florida as a whole came to $1,738,000,000.

Some 0.35 percent of this total was contributed by residents of Highlands County.

And this year, because of the 10 per cent surtax that is now in effect and because of the bigger earnings and higher employment ratio that prevailed in 1968, the expectation is that the tax yield generally will be about 20 per cent greater than it was a year ago.

The current budget, submitted to Congress in January, indicates just how much of an increase is counted on by the Treasury Department. It calls for $94.4 billion in personal income taxes, as against $68.7 billion last year.

Taxpayers in the local area will be paying a commensurate share of this $15.7 billion rise. On the basis of their economic gains in the past year, their forthcoming contribution is expected to be close to $7,470,000, or about $1,387,000 more than in 1968.

Some idea of what the next fiscal year will be like, from the standpoint of Federal taxes, is indicated in the new budget.

With the 10 percent surtax retained, it counts on collections of $80.4 billion in personal income taxes a year hence, or $6 billion more than at present.

For Highlands County residents to carry their share of this rise without adjusting their mode of living would necessitate an average increase of seven-per cent in earnings during 1969.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By GUY GARRETT

The Rotary Club had as its guest Fred Jahns and Earl Q. Martin of the Portland Cement Company of Florida.

Mr. Martin, who has been in the cement business over 30 years, presented a program concerned with the new trends in the building industry. The highlight of presentation was a film showing revolutionary methods used in the construction of the Hotel Placio Del Rio in San Antonio, Texas.

This 26-story hotel was completed in May 1968. The total construction time was 10½ months. Only the main floor and central core were constructed on the building site.

Five room units were built on another site over seven miles from the hotel. The rooms were completely painted, carpeted and furnished prior to being moved to the hotel proper.

All that was left to be completed was making the beds and placement of towels in the bathrooms.

The rooms were built of reinforced concrete with custom made forms. The forms alone cost more than one-half million dollars. In spite of this, the overall construction price was not extreme for the completed hotel.

After completion, the rooms were moved by truck to the hotel. Then, they were lifted by crane and flown into position at the rate of 15 units each day. After 30 days, all rooms were in place. One day, 30 rooms were placed into correct position. The finishing touches were made and the hotel was ready for its first guest in less than a year.

In the discussion period that followed the film, Mr. Martin explained that the new concept was developed because of the rising cost of labor and scarcity of skilled craftsmen. Time and lack of space also were contributing factors.

Evidently, in these times when men are being flown into outer space, there are developments in building that are out of this world, too. Even in Texas. Think of the changes since the pyramids were built just a few hundred years ago, or maybe Abe's cabin.

The deserts of our southwestern states often produce up to 700 varieties of wild flowers, whenever rainfall is adequate.

Twenty-two of the 50 leading magazines of 1900 are out of business—including Literary Digest, American, Country Gentleman, and Colliers.

Doctors Protest Firing Anesthetist At Highlands General Hospital

Things had apparently simmered down at Highlands General Hospital today after last week's flap which saw doctors transferring at least six surgical patients to Walker Memorial Hospital.

And the telephone wires humming between Sebring and the governor's office in Tallahassee.

Doctors Robert Rengarts, chief of staff, Julio Sanguilly, chief of surgery and V. Gregg Watters found themselves "disappointed" with the hospital administration last Thursday after the firing, without notifying them, of Ray Massa, anesthetist at Highlands, who they consider to be very competent.

However, Sanguilly and Watters are operating at Highlands as usual. Rengarts does not do surgery.

Rengarts said that key personnel and good employes have been dismissed without consulting with medical personnel.

"The chief of surgery is not consulted when new employes are brought in or old employes let go," he said. "The doctors have no control over the medical care of patients in the hospital. This means that all medical persons on salary are hired and fired by lay people. The physicians do not get to know this until it has happened."

Dr. Sanguilly declared "we want what is best for the patient. We do not want to fight. I am living a very unhappy life in the last few days. We were very disappointed when Mr. Massa was fired. We would like to be consulted when key members of surgical or anesthetic staffs are hired and fired. Those people work with us and we are responsible for what they are doing because they are under our supervision."

Part of the altercation apparently grew out of a difference of opinion on procedure between Massa and the chief anesthetist Mrs. Julia Graham.

Dr. V. Gregg Watters declared he was "very disappointed in what they did in letting Mr. Massa go. I think he is a very fine anesthetist."

He added that "we did not try to go off the staff here or anything. I simply signified my protest by taking my next patient to Walker. We would like to have Mr. Massa. We need two anesthetists."

Rengarts said Massa is particularly valuable because he is trained in intensive care management of the post operative patient and that he is now attending the post-operative patients at Walker's intensive care unit. At the same time he is teaching intensive care management in post operative care in the elderly and very ill patient.

Marshall Pollard, acting administrator at Highlands General, said the hospital board, which is appointed by the governor, is not reconsidering on the dismissal of Massa. He added that "we are in the process of straightening things out, we hope. We believe it was a little misunderstanding."

A special emergency meeting of the medical staff of Highlands General Hospital was called Tuesday concerning the Massa incident. The doctors gave him a full vote of confidence on his performance as an anesthetist at Highlands General. A letter was sent to the hospital board requesting he be reinstated in his former position at the hospital.

The annual hobby show held Wednesday, Mar. 19, was enjoyed by about 100 park members and friends. Hobby shows are very interesting and it takes time to study the different exhibits and there see the personality expression that the exhibitor seeks to convey. Byron and B. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sowers of Crawfordsville, Ind., wintering in Lakeland were callers on the Paxtons Saturday afternoon.

B. Jeremy and her helper served doughnuts and coffee to 25 park members at the coffee break Tuesday morning.

Edith Snyder's mocking bird is a happy fellow and very practical too. The deluge of a few days ago found him perched in their orange tree with head up and tail down taking a bath as he sang. Don't birds have it easy. Said the robin to the sparrow, I should really like to know why these anxious human beings rush about and worry so.

WE'LL MISS OUR HOME! But 5 bedrooms, 3½ baths is too much for us now. If you like a cozy fireplace, a large friendly kitchen with plenty of cupboards and built-in appliances plus a snack bar that will easily accomodate 10 people, then see this place. On two beautifully landscaped lots near Woodlawn Elementary School, and with 8 orange trees that provide fruit year round, the outside will never need painting. Other features are: central air and heat; drapes; intercom in each room and at all outside doors—intercom also carries AM-FM music into all rooms; master bedroom has "his and hers" closet with private dressing room and bath-shower; a large pantry with peg board facility and storage space; utility room inside; den or music room that closes off from the rest of house; 2700 sq. ft. completely carpeted (even kitchen) of beautiful living. Outside has flood lights that can be controlled with one switch from master bedroom; a barbecue pit with marble top; and a very large concrete patio for "fun" times. Can be bought either furnished or unfurnished. Shown by appointment ONLY! 1209 Hawthorne Road, phone 385-7141, Sebring.—idhtfc

EASTER ENCHANTMENT

IS A

FAMILY AFFAIR

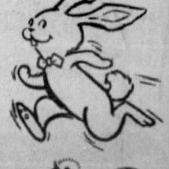

When there are small children, the day begins with the excited shrieks of children as they run to hunt the colored eggs the Easter Bunny left. And after breakfast, the family dons their finery to go to church . . . shiny patent slippers and pretty pastel sheers . . . handsome new suits for father and son. Then a heavenly Florida Spring Day to be enjoyed as friends join the family for an Easter feast. This year, enjoy your Easter shopping at

Not weeds

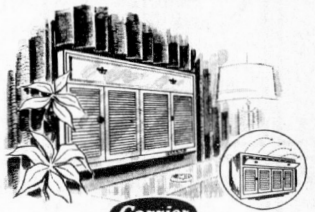

The lower unit of a Mercury fishing outboard is one smooth, streamlined blade — no bumps to catch and hold weeds. And it's built on a slant to slice through, instead of getting hung up. Up above, the tilted powerhead keeps a Merc running smoothly, whether you're trolling slowly or speeding home with your limit. Mercury's shearproof drive eliminates vulnerable shear or drive pins, gives on-impact, then resumes running. Plus full gearshift, remote fuel tank, and all-metal cowl. And Mercury's exclusive System of Silence and patented Jet-Prop exhaust make this the quietest fishing motor ever built. Mercury fishing motors come in 4 sizes: 4, 7.5, 9.8, and a 20 with optional electric start. One of 'em is just right for your kind of fishing. Let us help you pick it out!

AIR CONDITIONING

Carrier's secret flip-top.

See it in action.

Carrier

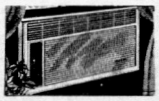

If you want the newest thing in room air conditioners, see the good-looking "Cosmopolitan" by Carrier. And you'd better insist on a demonstration. Otherwise, you might not recognize the "Cosmopolitan" as an air conditioner. At least not until you've seen it flip its lid.

This happens when you open the left hand louvre door and press the "cool" button. Carrier's attractive top panel flips open — automatically. Cool, clean, dry air flows out the full width of the top opening . . . starts cooling you off, quietly, in just 10 seconds.

Air flows reach the farthest corners of the room, or into adjoining rooms, without drafts or hot spots. For just pennies a day, you can beat the summer heat once and for all.

Chancel Choir Will Sing At Congregational Church Thursday

The Chancel Choir of the Union Congregational Church will sing Stainer's beloved composition "The Crucifixion" on Holy Thursday evening, Apr. 3, at 7:30 o'clock.

This great musical work begins with "And they came to a place named Gethsemane" and from there follows the biblical record of the arrest, trial and crucifixion of Jesus. It contains one of the best known and loved anthems, "God So Loved The World."

This meditation on the sacred passion of the Holy Redeemer is for a full chorus of mixed voices with solos for tenor and bass. Messrs. Buford Jasper, Gary Hasson and John Hasson will carry the solo parts. Mrs. Victor MicKunas is the director of the Chancel Choir and Mrs. Earl Jackson is the organ accompanist.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

This Sunday morning at the 9 and 11 o'clock services of worship, Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem will be observed. Rev. Herbert D. Graetz will preach to the subject: "On The Road With Jesus." Mrs. Victor MicKunas will sing the great, interpretative song for Palm Sunday, "Open The Gates Of The Temple." The Chancel Choir will sing an anthem appropriate for the day.

Cancer Holds No. 2 Spot For Deaths Here

Although cancer holds the number two spot in Highlands County among the major causes of death, the chance of surviving a battle with the disease is better now than it ever was.

Today, one out of three victims is being cured, according to cancer specialists. And that ratio could be raised to one out of two, they say, if everyone saw a physician when the first symptoms appeared.

Interest in their findings, revealed at the National Concer conference in Denver, is heightened by the fact that next month has been designated "Cancer Control Month."

The cancer figures for the local area, and the way they compare with those of other sections of the country, are brought out in the latest annual report of the U. S. Public Health Service.

They show, among residents of Highlands County, a total of 47 deaths in the year from the various types of cancer. Not included are cases in the local area involving non-residents.

It was equivalent to a rate of 189 cancer deaths per 100,000 population, as against 154 per 100,000 in the United States as a whole and 179 in the State of Florida.

Lung cancer, and its relationship to cigarette smoking, has been receiving more attention than the other forms of cancer.

This has been due to the rapid increase in lung cancer mortality. With 55,000 victims in the past year, mostly men, the death rate is ten times what it was 30 years ago.

The official figures show that lung cancer caused 18 per cent of all cancer deaths in the United States and 22 per cent in the State of Florida.

In Highlands County, the report shows, it was responsible for 30 per cent of them.

Slowly but surely, progress is being made in coping with certain forms of cancer, according to the National Cancer Institute.

New drugs and new combinations of treatment have boosted the survival rate in cases involving cancer of the colon, rectum, cervix and breast.

As to lung cancer, however, there has been little progress.

The five-year survival rate is still under 10 per cent. Under the circumstances, the recommendation is "stop smoking."

St. Patrick's Day Theme Used By YMF Class

St. Patrick's Day was in evidence at the class social of the Young Married Fellowship of the Florida Avenue Baptist Church.

Mrs. Virgil Choate was hostess with Mrs. Larry Bond. Mrs. John Pipkin was in charge of arrangements. A covered dish supper was enjoyed by the class.

Redecorating and refurnishing of the church nursery was discussed with plans being made for a work day.

Holy Week At Redeemer

Palm Sunday will be ushered in by a work session of the Episcopal Young Churchmen making palm crosses in the parish house this Saturday at 1 P.M. This is fascinating and a rewarding task. All seventh graders through 12th graders are expected to help out.

Palm Sunday services will follow the first Sunday of the month schedule: 7:30 A.M. and 11:05 A.M. Eucharists, while the family service at 9:30 A.M. will be morning prayer, church school, and sermon. There will be special music.

The Lenten Wednesday evening service will conclude this Passion Week at 8 P.M. Holy Week, the evening service will be on Maundy Thursday at 8 P.M.

Wednesday morning Eucharists continue til Summer at 9.

Science Church Sunday Services

The Golden Text that will be read at services in all Christian Science Churches this Sunday is from Psalms: "Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness."

Passages to be read from the denominational textbook, Science and Health with key to the scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following: "In the material world thought has brought to light with great rapidity many useful wonders. With like activity have thought's swift pinions been rising towards the realm of the real, to the spiritual cause of those lower things which give impulse to inquiry."

The subject of the Bible Lesson-Sermon is "Reality" and all are welcome to attend the service.

Ministers Sponsor Good Friday Service

The Good Friday service of worship sponsored by the Avon Park Ministerial Association will be held in the First Baptist Church at 7:30 P.M. Pastors of our local churches will participate. Rev. Clifford Dance will preside and have the invocation.

The Scripture Lesson will be read by Rev. Herbert D. Graetz. Rev. Earl Denny will give the prayer. Rev. A. D. Childress will have charge of the offering.

Music will be by the choir of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Otis Strickler, director. Rev. A. G. Hardee will preach the sermon. Rev. Marshall Wilson will pronounce the benediction.

All members of local churches are urged to attend. Calvary was not far from Jerusalem. It is not far from any city today. It is not far from Avon Park. The sacrifice of Christ has a vital relationship to all of our lives, and the life of our community. Please come and help to make this service a real outpouring of love and praise for our crucified Lord and Saviour.

Church of God Friday Dinner Menu

Weekly Friday dinners are served by the Ladies Society of the Church of God. Red Devils Meet Fort Meade Tonight In Last Home Game

The Red Devil varsity baseball team was hot and cold again last week but finished out last Saturday night with a win over Arcadia to set a 6-4-1 mark for the season with only four games left on the schedule.

Last Tuesday night the Devils were scheduled to try to gain a win over Sebring down at Fireman's Field and tonight (Thursday) they play their last home game of the season against Fort Meade. Next Tuesday the Avon Park nine will travel to Okeechobee for an afternoon game against the Brahmans and Friday week, April 11, they will play Naples again in Naples at 4 P.M.

Tuesday a week ago Frostproof exploded in the bottom of the fifth inning to score eight runs and tie up the game 8-8 and then went on to take a 10-8 victory from Avon Park in Frostproof. But last Friday night the Red Devils pulled themselves together and shutout Naples 3-0 behind the one-hit pitching of Larry LaFlam. Then on Saturday night the Devils avenged an earlier loss to Arcadia by taking a 5-3 win from the Bulldogs here at Head Field with Don Sisemore doing the hurling.

The game in Frostproof was a case of all Avon Park in the first 4½ innings and then all Frostproof in the last 2½ frames. The Red Devils had moved to an 8-0 lead by scoring two runs in the second inning on a single and two Frostproof errors; one more in the fourth inning on another single and two more Bulldog errors and five runs in the top of the fifth on a single, a grand-slam home run and two more Bulldog errors.

Then Frostprof took over in the bottom of the fifth and scored eight runs on three singles, a double, and a grand-slam homer of their own in addition to two costly errors by the Avon Park players. In the last of the sixth the Bulldogs iced the game up with two runs scored on a hit batter, a single, and two more Avon Park miscues.

Thirdsacker Billy Jackson slammed out Avon Park's bases-loaded homerun and Frostproof's catcher Ellis Thornton blasted out one for the Bulldogs to keep them in the game. Jackson also had two singles during the evening and Steve Walker, Larry LaFlam, Mike Vanderbilt and Glenn Sizemore all had a single each for Avon Park's total of seven hits off winning pitcher Murray Wilson.

Don Sisemore was the losing pitcher. He gave up five hits, walked three batters, and struck out four before he was relieved in the fifth by Larry LaFlam. The Bulldogs connected for a double and a single off LaFlam and scored two runs during his 1-1/3 innings on the mound.

Red Devil hurler Larry LaFlam pitched his best game of the season against Naples last Friday night. The senior right-hander held the Eagles to one single in the fifth frame and that runner was picked off by LaFlam at first base. Larry fanned only four batters but had excellent backing as the team did not allow a single runner to get past second base in the seven inning game. The Naples team had an impressive 6-1 record before meeting the Red Devils too.

Avon Park scored one run in the last of the first inning when lead-off batter Billy Richards drew a walk, stole second, went on to third on an error and scored on another error as the Naples team tried to throw him out all around the bases. Then in the last of the sixth after nursing the one-run lead all through the game, the Devils pushed over two more runs. Steve Walker walked and stole second. After one out, Mike Vanderbilt also drew a walk and then Bill Jackson singled in Walker; Don Sisemore was safe at first on a fielders choice when Jackson was tossed out at second and Vanderbilt scored when Sisemore drew the fire in a slow attempted steal of second. Sisemore was put out but Vanderbilt scored before the out was made.

Avon Park got only four hits —all singles—off losing hurler Eddie Frank. Hitting along with Jackson were Larry LaFlam, Mike Vanderbilt, and Glenn Sizemore.

Last Saturday night the Bulldogs of Arcadia jumped off to a one run lead in the top of the third inning when the Devils committed two costly errors. Avon Park moved into the lead in the last of the fourth by scoring two runs on two singles and a double. Jackson led off with a single and then Don Sisemore doubled. Gene Landress drove them both in with a single.

The Bulldogs scored another run in the top of the fifth to tie it up again. The ninth batter singled, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a passed

LaFlam Wins Leon's Fishing Contest With 10 Pound Bass

Alton LaFlam, well known local fisherman, won Leon's Fishing Contest with a bass weighing 10 pounds and nine ounces. This big one hit a black spoon with a yellow skirt while Alton was wading and casting with a reel and rod.

L. A. Renfro came in second with his bass weighing nine pounds and eight ounces caught on a top water rebel plug while casting with a reel and rod.

Kenneth Young from Lake Placid took third place with a bass weighing eight pounds and six ounces. Kenneth caught his bass on a live shiner using a reel and rod.

Fourth place went to Tommy Douberley a local man who caught his seven pounds 14 ounce bass on a purple worm fishing in Arbuckle Lake.

Lee Maness, Avon Park school teacher took fifth place with his bass weighing seven pounds and eight ounces, caught on a purple worm in Lake Istokpoga.

John Alsterda, a winter tourist in Avon Park for many years, took sixth place. John caught his bass in a Lake Streedy on a black spoon and yellow skirt.

John Gray took seventh place with a bass weighing six pounds and 12 ounces. He caught his bass on a live chub using a reel and rod in Lake Bygate.

R. E. Braxton's bass weighings six pounds and seven ounces took eighth place. His bass was caught on a live shiner in Lake Dather using a reel and rod.

L. DuBose took ninth place with his bass weighing six pounds and seven ounces caught on a black spoon and yellow skirt in Little Redwater Lake.

John Gray, Jr., a school boy took last place with a bass weighing seven pounds caught in Lake Isis on a purple worm.

Kiwanis Hear Patrol Speak On Safety

The Avon Park Kiwanis Club listen to a very inspiring talk from Sgt. Whitey Knutsen of the Florida Highway Patrol, Bradenton, Tuesday noon.

After hearing the number of deaths on Florida Highway and the climbing numbers from year to year the Avon Park Kiwanis Club proclaimed the month of April as Safe Driving Month.

In 1968, 2,000 people lost their lives on Florida Highways. There were 327 traffic deaths the first three months of this year.

The number one cause of accidents according to Sgt. Knutsen, is the violation of right of way, improper passing, traveling on wrong side of highway, failure to stop at stop signs, speed to great for conditions.

It was noted that one out of every six drivers that are involved in an accident have been drinking.

The greatest need we have to avoid accidents is for everyone to obey the law, and drive defensively.

Board Waivers Maternity Policy To Save Two Lives

By ALBERTA JONES

"It takes a while to play God," a member of the audience observed as Highlands County commissioners bleakly weighed fiscal, legal and moral responsibilities for an obstetrician's bill.

A vague state law, a clear county policy were no help as the five commissioners spent over an hour on Tuesday's meeting studying a letter from Dr. J. W. Osborne and Dr. Walter M. Ost—a letter stating that without a Caesarean section an 18-year-old indigent and her unborn child would both die.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper finally took the plunge and moved that the county stand good for whatever part of the $260 bill the physicians cannot collect.

The case wound up on the commissioners' agenda because they had adopted a clear-cut policy: no maternity payments under county welfare.

Dr. Osborne, Avon Park obstetrician, who conducts a prenatal and family-planning clinic in connection with the County Health Department, has pointed out that this 18-year-old patient was experiencing a very difficult pregnancy and would have to be delivered by Caesarean.

Mrs. Anna Dee Church, county welfare director, told the commissioners, "The girl's condition is serious; she needs to enter the hospital today."

She described the patients as a "borderline retardate," who has moved around with labor forces. She is, Mrs. Church said, clearly a legal resident of Highlands County but because she has traveled as an agricultural worker, the federal government will pay up to 80 per cent of hospitalization costs for her as a migrant worker.

Migrant funds do not provide for Caesarean sections.

The girl at one time said she had been married in Michigan "a couple of years ago," but she has no idea where her husband is now. She cannot remember when she last saw him.

Mrs. Church said a sort of liaison may exist with a Highlands County man whose home is near the trailer where the young mother-to-be lives North of Avon Park.

Attorneys present at the commission meeting agreed it is unlikely that a lawyer could be found who would volunteer the time and money to enter a paternity suit through Circuit Court.

Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield's comment, "I'm not for paying for illegitimate children," was echoed by each of the commissioners. But they voted unanimously for the motion Cecil Skipper made after he had observed, "We have to think of our liability."

This is the young mother's second Caesarean, her second child of vague parentage, but when commissioners raged, "This must not be repeated," their attorney reminded them, "That is a decision clearly outside this board's authority."

Red Cross Launches Fund Drive

Highlands American Red Cross Chapter has launched its annual drive for funds—and they're citing an impressive record of service for the past year.

The most recent activity was at the race track, where they had a trailer set up. During the three days, they gave aid to 112 cases. This all was done with volunteer help.

A little-known service is the Resusci-Anne, a resuscitor that is available at all times and has been used to instruct students at Sebring High School. Only last week, the nursing staff at Walker Memorial Hospital obtained instruction on this equipment.

South Florida Junior College will utilize the Highlands County Red Cross for instruction in basic first aid beginning April 18.

The local chapter has handled a total of 558 cases for the military during an eight month period—458 active services cases, 31 veteran cases, 69 civilian cases.

A total of 183 certificates were issued to a total of 35 classes in water safety involving 13 volunteer workers. Seven volunteers were issued certificates to 120 in first aid.

Three Gray Ladies are serving at Cottrell Nursing Home. Six volunteer drivers have made 31 trips to other cities with people that did not have transportation, as well as many trips locally to doctors and hospitals.

Two fire cases involving 14 persons were given immediate needed care; including clothing and furniture.

The annual funds drive kicked off on Tuesday with a goal of $15,000.

TWO FLORIDA Power Corporation bucket truck crews were busy last week replacing incandescent city street lights with modern, more efficient, mercury vapor fixtures. Here, lineman Wendell Smith completes one installation on South Glenwood Ave. There were approximately 50 units installed by FPC in cooperation with the City Council as part of a continuing program for the replacement of old lights with the brilliant mercury vapor units throughout the city.

Counterfeiting Operation Broken Up in County; One Arrest Made

A small counterfeiting operation was broken up in Lake Placid this week with the arrest of E. Walter Blakeley, 38. It was not known at this time if any of the bogus bills were passed here.

Blakely appeared before County Judge Mervin Rehrer Tuesday at a preliminary hearing charged with making forged notes and possession of forged notes. He was bound over to Circuit Court and bond was set at $2,000 on each case. He also pleaded not guilty to a vagrancy charge and bond was set at $50.

Sheriff's Deputy Norman Heinemann stumbled onto the operation last Wednesday when he went to Blakeley's apartment in the Williams building on the Mall looking for stolen cigarets. The sheriff's office had heard that cigarets were being offered for sale in the area by Blakeley at unusually cheap prices.

Sheriff Joe D. Keene said Heinemann asked Blakeley if he had cigarets for sale. Blakeley said he had, and asked him to come in. Once inside, Heinemann saw bills and counterfeiting equipment around. He promptly placed Blakeley under arrest.

He was assisted by Lake Placid policeman Miles Miller. Criminal Investigator J.C. Murdock of the Sheriff's Department came later to serach and pick up equipment. Murdock said Blakeley was making $5, $10 and $20 bills but they were just "fair" replicas — "you could look close at them and tell they were not real."

Blakeley, Sheriff Keene said, had bought dye and chemicals from the Lake Placid Journal and was using Xerox paper in his enterprise. He was brought Monday before County Judge Mervin Rehrer and requested the preliminary hearing which was held Tuesday.

Panthers Win Three Before Losing

By COACH TERRELL

South Florida Junior College Panthers were on the prowl last week and won three straight before losing the fourth game by a Panther whisker 4-3.

They began by edging Lake Sumter 4-3 in Sebring as Ralph Starratt pitched all the way. Starratt had a 4-0 lead until the sixth when Lake Sumter center fielder hit the first pitch over the centerfield fence for a home-run. Two errors and a hit gave the Lakers two more in the top of the seventh but Starratt struck out the next man to end the game.

Friday, the Panthers won a thrilling 2-1 eleven inning game from Division II leader, Seminole.

Rewis started on the mound and gave up one run in the first inning. The Panthers tied it 1-1 in the third. Sizemore came on and pitched three scoreless innings for the Panthers. Roy Nelson came on in the seventh to

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

Drugs are generally classed in two distinctive groups. There are the addictive drugs, on which we can get both physically and psychologically hooked, and the non-addictive drugs, on which we can become psychologically dependent.

Into which category does alcohol fall? Well, as any alcoholic knows, alcohol is an addictive drug. That is, a user can get both physically and psychologically hooked on it.

As an addictive drug, alcohol falls in the same category as:

1. Heroin, morphine, and all poppy opium derivatives. These are usually induced into the bloodstream with a hypodermic needle; but they're also obtainable in capsule form.

2. Cocaine — a drug derived from the coca plant of South America. Cocaine is no longer a prevalent addiction in the United States.

3. Cough mixtures containing codeine or alcohol.

4. Barbiturates, sleeping pills, and tranquilizers. One Iowa hospital reports that one out of every six patients admitted is addicted to "pills" of some type.

5. Glue-sniffing. This does permanent damage to liver and brain.

The non-addictive drugs on which we can become psychologically dependent include:

1. Marijuana—sometimes called "pot" or "smoke."

2. LSD—lysergic acid diathalamide, called "acid," "hawk," "chief," and "big-D." Authentic LSD is difficult to obtain.

3. Pep-pills, or amphetamines. These are sometimes taken by long-distance truck drivers to offset fatigue. Slang name is "bennies."

Although alcohol is a drug—that is, a fast-acting chemical that depresses the central nervous system, impairs coordination, and slows up defensive reactions to danger signals—we ordinarily do not class alcoholics in the same category as drug addicts. Possibly this is due to alcohol's social acceptance.

At any rate, the nation has less than 100,000 hard drug addicts, but at least six million alcoholics—of which 180,000 are here in Florida.

Youngsters who are at the stage at which they must decide whether to drink or not to drink should know that a can of beer contains the same amount of alcohol as a shot-glass of whiskey, gin, or vodka, and that one in every 15 persons who drink will become alcoholic.

Southland Trailer Park News

Friday, Mar. 28, nine were out to play shuffle. The playoff on the east court was won by Francis McRae and Myrtle Heffernan over Stewart Dilts and Elmer Kiracofe by a score of 83 to 7. In consolation Dorcas Young and Blanche Kiracofe won over Hilda McClary and Robert Moynihan by a score of 75 to 40.

The Barrs left Wednesday for their home in Muskegon, Mich. We hope they have a safe journey. Their plan is to return to Southland next Fall.

The Hansens have received word of the arrival of their first great-grandchild. This little Miss will be an added attraction as they return to their New York home in a few weeks. Congratulations to the Hansens.

Fifty-nine came to the hall Wednesday evening for the monthly pot-luck supper. Harriet Meissel and her committee made the hall very attractive in keeping with the Easter season. The tables were decorated with streamers of purple and gold crepe paper and baskets of varicolored Easter eggs. Clusters of purple grapes made of heavy paper added color. Two lovely red roses picked from Mr. Duthie's yard and placed on the television to greet the guests. Rev. Hutchens returned thanks. Harriet Meissel and her helpers did a good job of serving the meal. Several of the men were on hand to help serve the coffee and watch for empty cups. Stewart Dilts is the handyman as head of the clean up gang and always leaves things in order.

The last word from the Lumpkins is that Russell is getting along very well.

The Grants and the Renauds are leaving Monday for their respective homes. We hope they will have a safe journey and will return to Southland in the Fall.

Elmer and Blanche Kiracofe will be leaving for their home in Ohio Tuesday. It seems as April 1 approaches winter guests get the urge to return to their homes in the North. Rebecca and Lem Hostetter will also be returning to their home in Pennsylvania Tuesday. They plan to sell their home while they are North this Summer and locate permanently in Southland.

Hilda and Harvey McClary entertained 30 Park members at a bingo party Saturday night. It seems that some people picked a lucky card and some didn't. Everyone was envious of Neville Clark, who won five times; even carried home the one wrapped and topped with a pretty bow. Rebecca Hostetter and Herb Renaud won the two cash door prizes. Refreshments of cider and cookies were served. Thanks to the McClarys for an enjoyable evening.

Word has been received from Mrs. Kolk, she is with her daughter and family. Mr. Kolk is in a nursing home. His eyes are good enough that he does a lot of reading. The address is Middletown, N. Y., Rd. 4, c/o Chas. Kirby.

Marie Stroobant entertained Mrs. Ruby Davidson of Sebring and Mrs. Davidson's brother and wife of Sarasota for Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hise who have been spending the Winter here on Highlands Avenue, stopped by Sunday to say goodbye to Ben Henningham, they were on their way home in Alexandria, Va. Ed Jefford who has been visiting with his cousin, Mrs. Paine. Mr. Jefford is leaving this morning, Monday, for his home at Kingston Mines, Ill., also stopped for a cup of coffee and to say goodbye to Ben Henningham.

pitch his three innings. However, he had to go five innings and emerged the winner. Rewis singled after two were out in the bottom of the 11th inning and stole second on the first pitch to Starratt. Starratt then lined the next pitch over the left fielder's head for a double to produce the winning run.

Monday night, the Panthers won their third one run decision in a row as they edged Valencia Junior College of Orlando 6-5. Hoppy Rewis started on the mound and went all the way to gain his second win of the year.

In the second game, a wicked line drive off Roy Nelson that curved away from Robert Sizemore for a triple and put the Valencia team ahead 2-1. Another hit and an error gave the visitors a 4-1 lead. The Panthers were not to be counted out as Gillis, lead off man in the ninth, was hit by a pitched ball. Rionda promptly lined a single to send Gillis to third and Rionda to second. Gary Mann singled scoring Gillis and sending Martinez to third, with Mann going to second on the throw in. Roy Nelson singled to center scoring Martinez but Mann, the potential tying run was out at the plate. Starratt lined a hard smash to the shortstop for the second out and Harak flied out to right to end the game.

This win streak gave the Panthers five wins this year setting a school record for longest win streak and total wins in a year.

It is a pleasure to be winning. However, we have our work cut out for us to win 10 games this year. To do that, we will have to win five of our last eight games—including two against Division leaders Brevard in Sebring Thursday night. This is a double header. The last six games are on the road against Polk, St. Pete and Valencia.

The Panthers have been getting good pitching from Lefty Roy Nelson, Hoppy Rewis, Ralph Starratt and Robert Sizemore.

An observant person enjoys experiences three times—in anticipation, in realization, and in memory (recollection).

Avon Park Lakes Residents Defeat Road Tax

Property owners in the Avon Park Lakes subdivision North of Avon Park mauled a proposed road tax district, defeating it 89-to-27.

The proposal voted on in Avon Park Lakes Tuesday was for establishment of a special tax district which would raise $6,000 per year for three consecutive years. This money was to be used to pay for street construction in the subdivision.

The millage to raise the $6,000 per year would be based on the tax values in Avon Park Lakes only, and would have added approximately two mills to the tax bills in that district.

SFJC Agriculture Club Entertains Committee

Paul Foraker Speaks At Grange Meeting

Avon Park Grange No. 203 convened Tuesday evening, Mar. 25, with Master Louise Clarke in the chair. Keith Debo was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker of the evening as follows: "The Grange is one of the few places where the entire family can still participate in discussion, programs, contests, projects and legislation.

The active Grange takes an interest in the community. From its organization 101 years ago, the Grange has opposed intemperance in any form. Therefore, it is fitting that tonight we welcome into our midst a man from a very important institution which is located in our community and which is doing such a worthwhile work. We wish to know more about this institution and have invited as our sepaker the manager of publicity services of the Florida Alcoholics Rehabilitation Center, Paul C. Foraker."

In brief, Foraker explained that the Center was opened in 1955 and draws its patients from clinics in five Florida cities and some are recommended by their family physicians. But they must realize that they need help and come voluntarily. Upon entry their physical condition receives first consideration.

They attend church every morning and then hold group discussions under the guidance of a counselor. They are kept busy by vocational therapy and different kinds of recreation. They are considered rehabilitated when they learn to be happy without drinking.

The usual stay is four to seven weeks and the Center usually places them in a job and recommends that they join an A.A. group to keep up their morale.

The rest of the program consisted of a poem, "Just For Today," written by an A.A., a puzzle about a hobo and a reading, "The Touch of the Master's Hand." Thought for the day: Let your heart feel for the afflictions and distresses of everyone.

The next meeting will be held at the First United Methodist Church on April 8 at 8 P.M.

Pomona Grange No. 10 will meet at Pioneer Park, Zolfo Springs, April 11 at 8 P.M.

A message to the modern woman . . .

A TOTAL ELECTRIC MEDALLION HOME gives you more time to do the things you want to do!

Reason: Flameless electric appliances free you from the drudgery of housework.

- Self-cleaning ovens and non-frosting refrigerators eliminate messy cleaning jobs.
- Year-round comfort conditioning keeps the house white-glove clean. You stay fresher, too.
- Automatic clothes washers and dryers free you from heavy lifting and stretching to hang clothes on a line to dry.
- Time-saving dishwashers and disposers banish dishpan hands and messy garbage bundles.
- Quick Recovery water heaters provide instant hot water — no waiting, no matter how much laundry or dishwashing you do.

To make certain you get the electric appliances, lighting and wiring you need, ask your builder or realtor to show you a TOTAL ELECTRIC MEDALLION HOME when you go house-hunting. You'll live happily ever after!

We'll Buy Less Cars In '69 Survey Shows

Households in this area will be included in a nationwide census survey during April of consumer expectations to make major purchases and to buy home repair services.

The most recent survey—made in January—showed that consumer expectations to buy cars and houses were close to the levels of last October but well below peak levels of July 1968. There had been a decline in expectations to buy new cars during the October-December 1968 quarter but an upswing in expectations to buy household durables. Expectations to buy houses remained virtually unchanged.

Bureau interviewers will ask householders about their plans to buy a house, a new or used car, or major household appliances during the next year. In addition, the interviewers will ask about repairs and alterations made during the past three months and any planned for the near future.

There will be five events in this year's field day for boys and girls. The events are 50 yard dash, baton relay, softball throw, grand prix relay, and 100 yard dash.

The public is invited to attend and requested to sit in the stands behind first base.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported by GUY GARRETT

Our guest last week was Florida's only Heisman Trophy winner, Steve Spurrier. He is a former All-American and one of three SEC players to ever be awarded the title of the Best Football Player in America. Presently, he is playing professional football in the National Football League under a four-year contract, George Mira, Miami's former All-American is on the same team.

Steve spoke to us about the formation of a Chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes at Avon Park High School. This is a national organization made up of some of the outstanding professional, college, and high school athletes. The college and professional, athletes spend most of their time speaking to varius youth groups about Christianity. The theme of their discussion is that "It isn't sissy to be a Christian."

Steve next made a comparison of pro football to college and high school. Basically, the pros are just a whole lot bigger and better. The thing he misses most is the enthusiasm of college. The pros get the job done without a whole lot of emotion. One exception he made of this was the Lombardi coached teams. Evidently, real champions have the pro approach without losing the spirit and enthusiasm of college and high school players.

After he finished, he answered questions from the audience. Some of them were dealing with his future in pro ball, Florida's chances in '69, time quarterback has to release the ball, controversial out-of-bounds call in FSU-Florida game, speed of professional pass defenders, reputation and ability of Joe Namath. Steve handled these questions and others as flawlessly as he guided the Gators just a few years ago.

Shuffling

Twenty-four teams entered the Doubles Tournament last Monday, with the two teams coming into the finals winning trophies. Al and Art Reinhardt came in first with Chris Cabezas and Francis McRae coming in second.

This was the final week for points, with "A" players Ralph Wernham and Welcome Miller getting their trophies. The "B" players to get their trophy were Ely Merchant, Edith Stevens, Leslie Hildreth, Hubert Smith and Estelle Swyers.

On Wednesday there were 10 courts of "A" players and four courts of "B" players. "A" winners were Welcome Miller and Elaine Kerr over Art Reinhardt and Everett Paxton. Henry Troutfetter and Kellie Larrew won in consolation with Henry Retter and Georgina Wernham the runners-up.

"B" winners were Otto Kroeger and William Trapp over Harold Wolcott and Estelle Swyers. Grace Hildreth and Art Jordan won in consolation over Hubert Smith and Eva Chamberlain.

Saturday, Helen Gaut and Fred Bolton lost to Harmon Heffner and Ernest Thomas, who won in the "A" class. Milton Higgs and William Bell won in consolation over Lloyd Young and Walter Swyers.

Card Games

High score went to Loretta Simpson with 766 in pinochle on Monday. Fred Hughes came in second with 711.

There were six tables in play in bridge on Tuesday. Joe Nickerson had the high score of 4510, with Herman Wurster second with a score of 3950. Fred Bolton won the door prize.

Duplicate bridge was played on Thursday with five and one half tables. The Mitchell movement was used. The north-south pairs, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Brevoort was high with 28 points, and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hawkins on a half point behind with 27½ points.

East and west high was Evelyn Fritz and her guest, Ann Barth, with 30 plus points. Second was Fred Bolton and Juanita Carr with 27 plus points. The door prize was won by Harry Lions.

Crafts

Thursday morning crafts will continue all during April with new projects, as well as continuing on with the old ones already started now. Marble lamps, lense pins, leather tooling, etc.

Entertainment

Al Reinhardt showed his movies of the Everglades taken on a trip about 20 years ago. It was most interesting. Included was a movie of a deer hunting trip in Canada.

There will be no entertainment at the Club on Thursday, Apr. 3. On April 10 Albert Cushing will show professional slides of Japan, Congo and England, with a musical background.

Dances

There were four squares on both Monday and Friday evenings with the usual good time. Now is the season when we say goodby to departing guests, wishing them a safe trip and to hurry back in the Fall.

Supper

Minnie Brown and Hazel Higgs were hosts to the 65 members present at the regular Saturday evening supper. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. David Wilkenson of Venice; Miss Myra Staley of Gloversville, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reynolds of Lancaster, Pa.; W. H. Carter of Tampa, and Miss Margaret Carter of Groton, Vt.

Birthdays celebrated this week were Mrs. Fred Robinson and Charles Park.

On the sick last: Gordon Baker, but is much improved now.

Alton Wetmore and Hazel Higgs both gave readings. Paul Hoppe gave three numbers on his accordian, and he also recited a poem.

Membership

We now have a membership of 727 with John Williams joining. Mr. Williams has been coming to Avon Park for 19 winters.

Hymn Sing

Many attended the last hymn sing of this season. Harry Brown led in the singing with Mildred Long at the piano, and Albert Cushing with his violin.

Mr. Cushing played a hymn that had been composed by a minister friend, that had baptized five members of the Cushing family.

We closed with the singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds."

Mr. Brown wished all departing members a safe journey home.

Orville Marshall gave the closing prayer.

Navy Recruiter Presents Film At Girl's School

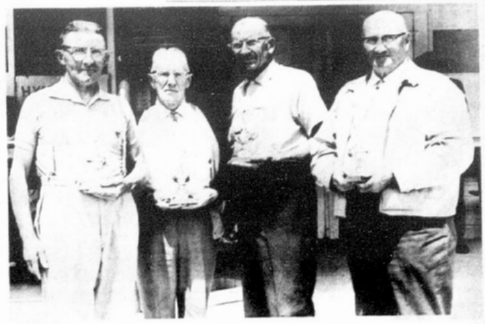

Petty Officer Ron Kramek, our Navy recruiting service representative, located in the Federal Building at Lakeland, gave a presentation at the Highlands School for Girls, this past week.

A film was shown on the Navy Waves, how they live, job opportunities available to them (21 to be exact), travel and education afforded them with a question and answer period following a talk on qualification requirements for a young lady to become a member of this proud organization. What are they? High school graduate, 18 and over, of good mental and physical health and the determination to improve oneself.

Over 100 young ladies attended the showing and talk, and much enthusiasm was shown when it was learned that a Navy Wave receives the same rights and privileges as does her male counterpart including pay and, yes, even the G.I. Bill.

So if your motivated for "Go Navy," drop up to Lakeland and see Chief Frank Bodin or his partner, Petty Officer Kramek and hear the lovely picture that they can paint of the young ladies who serve so well.

Recently, Russian scientists dug down through some 50 feet of ice in Siberia, and found a crudely built barn, housing several horses, two of which were still harnessed.

CLASS A and class B winners of the Winter Guest Club, are shown: Ralph Werbham, class A; Leslie Hildridth, class B; Welcome Miller, class A, and Hubert Smith, class B.

We Specalize in Clean One Owner Cars

On a 50-mile cruise, a 50-hp Mercury uses the same amount of gas as a competitive 40 hp.

But you get there an hour earlier.

With a new Merc 500 you can have your cake and eat it too. At full throttle, a 50-hp Merc is 6 MPH faster than the top competitive 40 hp — and it gets better gas mileage. With the throttle backed down to trolling speed, the Merc will run 8 hours on 6 gallons of gas, while the competition runs out after just 6 hours. And with both throttles on a "cruise" setting, the Merc is 10 MPH faster, gets you there an hour earlier — on almost exactly the same amount of gas (6.1 vs 6.4 MPG)!* If you're considering an outboard in the 40-50 hp class, these are the kind of figures that should turn your head our way.

Josephus, the Jewish historian, tells us that, at the time of Christ, Galilee had 204 cities of 15,000 or more population, the country was prosperous, all sorts of crops and fruits were produced there, and good roads led in all directions. Now it is semi-desert, most of the towns are heaps of rubble, and the population mostly wandering bands of nomads.

Pvt. Chestnutt Completes Field Artillery Course

Private James W. Chestnutt, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Chestnutt, Avon Park, completed the basic field artillery (cannoneer) course at Ft. Sill, Okla., Feb. 21.

The eight-week course, given at the U. S. Army Training Center, Ft. Sill, Okla., is the last phase of instruction a soldier receives before being assigned as a crewman in a field artillery unit.

Training includes the use and care of artillery weapons, from heavy machine guns to howitzers, as well as ammunition handling and communications.

Much of the training centers on preparations for combat in Vietnam. Thus trainees learn counterinsurgency and Viet Cong war tactics. Furthermore, many of the instructors are Vietnam veterans themselves and pass on to students their benefits from practical experience.

"Who raised up the righteous man from the East, called him to his foot, gave the nations before him, and made him rule over kings?"

This passage from Isaiah is part of the Bible Lesson-Sermon that will be heard in all Christian Science churches on Easter.

"In his ressurection and ascension, Jesus showed that a mortal man is not the real essence of manhod, and that this unreal material mortality disappears in presence of the reality."

This correlative passage from Science and Health with key to the scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy is included in the week's lesson on "Unreality."

All are welcome to attend.

Avon Park Red Devils Win 2 From Fort Meade 10-8, 8-0: Defeat Sebring Blue Streaks 6-2

Coach Ralph Hill's Red Devil baseball team won three straight last week to set a 9-4 record with just two games remaining on the regular season schedule. The big win was a 6-2 victory over the Sebring Blue Streaks Tuesday before last in Sebring at the improved Fireman's Field. Then last Thursday night the Devils and Miners played off a 7-7 tie game with Avon Park winning it in eight innings by a final score of 10-8. The Red Devils also won the regular game against Fort Meade shutting them out 8-0.

Last Tuesday afternoon the Red Devils were scheduled to play an afternoon game in Okeechobee against the Brahmans who handed Avon Park its first loss of the season with a 3-0 score. Tomorrow (Friday) afternoon the Devils will close out their regular season with a re-match in Naples with the Eagles. Avon Park took Naples 3-0 in the first game played here between the two teams.

Against Sebring last week the Red Devils scored the six runs on seven hits and six errors by the Blue Streaks. Bill Jackson and Don Sisemore both got two singles each off losing hurler Jack Miller and Billy Richards, Mike Vanderbilt, and Steve Hartt all hit one single each for Avon Park.

Larry LaFlam went the distance for Avon Park on the mound striking out 11 batters, but also putting 11 men on base with walks or by hitting batters with a pitched ball. The Streaks got only four scattered hits off the senior righthander. Avon Park's team made only two errors in the game with both of these coming in the last inning when Sebring pushed over one run on two singles and the two errors.

Last Thursday night at Head Field the Avon Park nine and the Fort Meade team squared off at 7 P.M. to resume play of a game which had ended with the score tied 7-7 after seven full innings of play in Fort Meade on March 14. The Red Devils came to bat first and secondbaseman George Copeland was safe on an error and Billy Richards sacrificed him to second. Then Steve Walker singled and Larry LaFlam brought Copeland home with a sacrifice fly to right field. Dennis Hart singled in Walker and went on to third after stealing second when the catcher threw wild. He stole home on a double steal involving Mike Vanderbilt who had drawn a walk and stole second while Hart went home. So Avon Park scored three runs on two hits and two Fort Meade errors.

The Miners managed to score one run on one hit, a walk, and an error by the Red Devils before they were put out in the bottom of the eighth and Avon Park took the win 10-8. Larry LaFlam became the winning pitcher and Keith Belcher took the loss for Fort Meade.

It was all Avon Park in the second game as Devil hurler Don Sisemore held the Miners scoreless allowing only three scattered singles during the seven inning game. The freshman pitcher walked three batters and struck out 10 as he chalked up his fourth mound win against one loss.

The Red Devil batters rapped out eight hits off two Miner pitchers. Steve Hartt had a double for the only extra base hit of the game, Larry LaFlam had three singles, Mike Vanderbilt hit two singles and Steve Walker, and Don Sisemore both had a single each.

Alcohol, Bad Drivers Cause Fatalities, AAA Study Shows

Alcohol is involved in more fatal traffic accidents than any other factor.

This is one of the chief conclusions of the second in-depth study of Florida accidents conducted by the American Automobile Association as part of its "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" program.

Compiled with the full cooperation of the Florida Highway Patrol, the study covers all fatal traffic accidents reported in the state between Memorial Day (May 30) and Labor Day (September 2), 1968. A total of 456 persons were reported killed in 371 accidents during this period.

Here are some of the conclusions reached by the AAA about the accidents:

—Alcohol helped cause 152 (41 per cent) of the fatal accidents. An additional 35 drivers were not listed as drinking in the accident report, but they had a history of driving under the influence of alcohol. In light of this fact, and the uneven standards of accident reporting in Florida, the AAA estimated that alcohol might have been involved in a much higher percentage of the fatal accidents.

—Driving without a valid license was also a significant factor. A total of 143 of the 535 operators of motor vehicles (figure excludes bicyclists and railroad engineers) had lost their license at least once previously (26.7%); many were driving without a license at the time of the accident under study.

—Single car accidents accounted for 46 per cent of the 371, far more than any other category.

—Drivers were victims in 49 per cent of the fatalities; passengers, 32 per cent; pedestrians, 16 per cent; and bicyclists, three per cent.

Sixty-six and one-half per cent of the drivers involved had points on their driving record.

—Drivers in the 16 to 20 age bracket were involved in more fatalities than any other age group—100, as compared with 74 in the 21 to 25 age group and 53 in the 26 to 30 age group.

—Saturday and Sunday are the worst days of the week for fatalities. Together, they accounted for 29 per cent of the 371 accidents.

—Most of the accidents occurred in open country—54 per cent, as compared to 24 per cent in business and 22 per cent in residential areas. By far the heaviest traffic is carried in the latter two categories.

—Accidents on two-lane roadways claim more lives than multi-laned roads. Of the total, 60 per cent occurred on two-lane roads, pointing up the need for improved highways in the state.

—More of the accidents occurred in daytime, 59 per cent, and on dry surfaces, 75 per cent.

—Between the hours of 2 and 3 P.M., more fatal accidents occurred than during any other hour. Second most dangerous was from 9 to 10 P.M. Tied next in order were the hours between 4 and 5 P.M. and 11 and 12 P.M.

—Most accidents (72.3 per cent) occurred within 25 miles of the victims' homes.

The report, written by William B. Wellons, Jr., Director of Traffic and Safety for the East Florida AAA Division, recommends stern action against drinking drivers and those who continue to drive after their licenses have been suspended or revoked.

"Florida's Driver Responsibility Law requires a driver to surrender his license plate if he is involved in an accident and and has no liability insurance," the report says. "Perhaps the drunk driver should get the same treatment."

The AAA recommends that people whose licenses have been suspended or revoked be checked periodically to make sure they are not driving.

"Perhaps consideration should be given to harsh penalties, including even confiscation of the automobile, for persons driving while their license is suspended," the AAA says.

The report lists the driving record of 13 "bad drivers" who were involved in fatal accidents. One of them, who killed two other people but survived the crash himself, had 51 points on his record. His license had been suspended or cancelled eight times previously.

After the fatal accident, he was found guilty of failure to use due care and drew a $200 fine and 30 days in jail. His license was suspended for one year. "He is still alive—probably driving a truck," the AAA said.

The report notes that 73 of the persons killed were ejected from their vehicle. "Obviously, they might not have died, at least from the same cause, had they been secured by seat belts."

Less Than 300 Signatures Needed To Call Election

The drive to obtain signatures on the school bond petition is in its final stages with less than 300 names needed to complete the requirements to call for an election.

Those persons who still have petitions are asked to turn them in at the Chamber of Commerce not later than Monday.

Supt. George Douglass said "successful completion of the petitions would enable us to get to an election much faster. The Legislature doesn't start meeting until April; if we must wait on action in Tallahassee, it will slow us up considerably."

The law now requires that counties having less than 25,000 population (based on the last federal census) must have a petition from not less than 25 per cent of the county's voters requesting an election before the school board can bring a bond issue to vote. In six weeks backers of the proposed $4.5 million bond issue for building new Highlands County schools have been able to obtain approximately half the needed 4,000 signatures.

Negotiations for purchase of a site for a new high school in southern Avon Park have hit a snag. School Superintendent George F. Douglass said today the price per acre for the site chosen just outside the city limits will apparently be more than originally anticipated and may cause delays while the board and the property owners negotiate further.

The school board had hoped to complete purchase of the new high school sites in both Sebring and Avon Park by the close of the 1968-69 fiscal year. The site money is a part of the current budget.

Throughout this school year the Highlands County School Board has been defendant in administrative proceedings launched by HEW. The local board is charged with operating inadequate schools for Negro children.

At a hearing in Washington last Fall the federal agency's lawyers had recommended assignment of all students in some grades to given school buildings, pointing out that such a plan would place the burden of inadequate facilities equally on Negro and white students.

The hearing officer, in a decision favoring Highlands County School Board, recommended giving the local board and citizens another chance to provide adequate buildings for all students.

By using an extended day schedule at Avon Park and Sebring High Schools next Fall, the number of students at the all-Negro Hopewell and E. O. Douglas Schools will be reduced next year, but it will still be necessary to use some converted barracks buildings at Hopewell and Douglas.

"We still must use sub-standard buildings at these two locations," the Superintendent told the school board.

Preliminary plans for two radical innovations in Highlands County school programming for 1969-70 will be presented to the school board tonight (Thursday).

This will be the first public explanation for the extended day schedules on which Avon Park and Sebring junior and senior high schools will operate next year.

Superintendent George F. Douglass said at the March board meeting that initial plans for the middle schools at Hopewell and E. O. Douglas will be announced at the April meeting.

A year ago the county schoolmen had said the current year would be the last for stuffing swollen enrollments into the present buildings. Erection of a new elementary school will relieve pressure at Lake Placid, but Avon Park High faces an enrollment 35 percent above capacity, and at Sebring High next year's enrollment will be 29 percent over capacity.

Sebring Supervising Principal Billy Cason and Avon Park Supervising Principal Guy Garrett will unveil tonight their plans for extending the school day and staggering classes for grades 7 through 12.

At a February board meeting Garrett had asked the school board to consider revising its policy to relieve the school administration from responsibility for students throughout the school day. He said such a revision would be necessary if portions of the student body are to be sent away from the school grounds for one to two hour intervals in the middle of the day.

Middle School

Questions about middle school peppered the school board at its March meeting. In February the board had approved elimination of all ninth grade classes at Hopewell and Douglas and launching of new programs for grades 5 through 8, to include special aids for children from deprived backgrounds.

Tentative agenda for tonight's meeting—set for 7:30 P.M.—includes receiving of bids for furniture for the new Lake Placid school.

Ridge Area Association's Annual Membership Meeting Is Monday

Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children will hold its annual membership meeting Monday, Apr. 14, at 7:30 P.M.

The meeting will be held in Ridge Area Day School for Retarded Children at Avon Park.

Directors for the association and new officers will be elected at this meeting.

Joel Ross, executive director for the Association, said special emphasis is being placed on attendance by the families of retarded children.

"The association's program has grown steadily and now includes many more children than it did even a year ago. We hope that all persons who are interested in retarded children—but particularly the parents of retardates—will be present Monday to participate in planning for the year ahead. A special feature of the annual meeting will be a report on pending legislation related to retardates," Ross said.

New Spraying Service In This Area

Avon Park is growing. Construction, new building sites, and in this fast growing citrus community an agricultural spraying service will soon be in operation, on Highway 27 across from the new South Florida Junior College site.

Alco Helicopters, Inc. agricultural spraying service primarily for citrus, formed by Consolidated Financial Corp., Sebring and Alico Land Development Corp. of Labelle.

The two companies originally organized a charter in July 1968 for the spraying service in South Central Florida.

Now operating out of Lake Wales, officers of Alco are president, J. R. Spratt, vice president, W. J. Perdue; chairman of board, Elgin Bayless and secreetary and treasurer, James Holsonback.

Police Investigate Rash of Breaking And Enterings

Layes Standard Oil on Highway 27 was broke into early Tuesday morning and approximately $300 worth of tools were reported stolen.

This is the second time in the past month that Layes have had a breaking and entering.

Also Windy Hill Truck Stop was broke into and $10 and keys to drink machines reported missing.

J. C. Murdock and Glen Hartsfield from the Sheriff's office are investigating.

Carol Spurlock injured her neck Monday afternoon when she was involved in an accident six miles South of Avon Park on Alt. 27.

According to Trooper W. R. Huff, Carol hit the rear of a car driven by Mary J. Metheny who was making a left turn.

Last Friday H. L. Crews of Bereah going west on Pine St. crashed into Eaton's Department Store breaking three plate glass windows.

Damages were estimated at $500.

Grace Bell To Visit FARC

Mrs. Grace W. Bell, chief of the community services section, National Center for Prevention and Control of Alcoholism, will arrive at Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Avon Park, Monday at 9 A.M. for a three-day visit.

In addition to her tour of the Center, Mrs. Bell will also visit the Winter Haven Mental Health Center, the Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program out-patient Clinic at Orlando, the Family Service Agency at Merritt Island, and will accompany a FARP staff member on a home visit at Merritt Island.

Beautification of Mall Starts With Spot In Front of Post Office

Beautification on the mall is now in progress, thanks to city hall and a committee made up of representatives of civic minded groups.

This committee was formed out of the Clean-up Spruce-up campaign that the city inaugurated last September.

Removal of dirt; fill, irrigation and sod mark the first evidence of improvements at the small mall South of the post office. Committees are working on a masterplan for the entire sections of the mall.

The work is done by city workmen with financing of the actual cost coming from civic groups.

All clubs are urged to participate, if interested in the beautification program pelase contact Alma Hooper at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Young Athletes Will Meet In Avon Park For Physical Testing

Highlands County's would-be Olympians will have opportunity to exhibit their prowess in the first county-wide physical education testing day, April 25.

One boy and one girl from each grade level, grades 3 through 12, in every school will participate in the activities which have been scheduled for 9:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M. at Avon Park High School.

The screening process to select the testing day participants is going on in each school, according to Glenn Odham, county coordinator for physical education.

Miss Ann Karrick, president of the Highlands County Physical Education Association, is in charge of testing day plans.

Students who achieve high ratings will receive an emblem from the President's Council on Physical Fitness. Highlands County schools also will make awards for outstanding achievement.

Odham said physical education teachers are seeking to motivate students to maximum individual achievement and not competion among the students. The President's Physical Fitness Council sets certain standards of achievement for given age levels, grading of students is based on those standards rather than comparative ratings among participants.

"We think the presence of spectators does encourage students to try harder, so we hope that spectators will come out for our testing day," Odham said.

WELFARE PAYMENTS

The Florida Department of Public Welfare provided financial assistance to 274,749 aged and handicapped persons in March to help cover primarily the cost of decent shelter, nourishing food, and adequate clothing. Welfare checks (grants) to these needy persons totalled 8,345,919 with the state paying $1,772,551.51 and the remaining $6,573,367.49 paid by matching Federal funds. A total of 1,457 persons in Highlands County received $45,000.

Get On With 4-Laning

We wonder what kind of thinking there is at the State Road Department in connection with the approaching opening of Disneyland near Kissimmee which plans no four-laning in the immediate future for the strip of Route 27 North of Avon Park to Lake Wales.

We are inclined to think there hasn't been any. It's a miserable 20-mile strip of two lane road which can look forward to nothing but frustrated, unhappy motorists once Disneyland gets going.

All you have to do is pick up a map of the state of Florida. And it becomes very apparent that Route 27 will be one of the main traffic arteries to funnel the horde of Disneyland visitors in and out of the comnlex.

There should be heavy traffic from the Florida gold coast area of Miami and Ft. Lauderdale as well as traffic of northern visitors going on down that way after visiting the attraction.

Of course a lot of people will use the turnpike, but a lot of people won't. And it will be a lot shorter for them to use Route 27 particularly going to South and West sections of Miami and South beyond Miami.

Driving between Lake Wales and Avon Park on a recent Sunday, we met a line of 18 cars, piled up behind a slow moving truck, unable to pass. Can you picture what this road will be like come 1970 and Disneyland?

Paving of this road is in a 16-year-plan of the road board just announced, but what kind of tardy thinking is that? Nothing at all is planned in the next five years and it should be in progress right now in order to be finished and operating by the time Disneyland opens a little over a year from now.

Our Highlands County commissioners are to be highly commended for their forward-looking four-laning of Route 27 within this county. By 1972 Route 27 should be completely four-laned within this county to within 6.7 miles of the Glades County line. And by the fiscal year of 1972-73 that strip is scheduled for four-laning.

And right there is another bottleneck of 8-10 miles until the four-laning starts North of Moore Haven. Nothing is planned by the road board before 1973 for that stretch—maybe not then.

Politics being what it is, maybe we're stepchildren in central Florida because we aren't a big lusty population with our politicians pushing for us in as many numbers as the urban areas. Maybe a powerful somebody or somebodies don't want the tourists to learn about our wonderful area in the center of the state and they're making it hard for the average tourist to negotiate this golden strip along the ridge.

We feel that the folks who go to Disneyland will probably need all the entry and exit routes they can find. Can't somebody light a fire under our slow-thinking road board people and get them on the ball to four-lane Route 27 right through to Greater Miami from Lake Wales?

Even this little rap on the knuckles is latecoming and while the wheels of progress grind along there are going to be a lot of accidents and a lot of ulcers. And it could all be prevented.

All contracts for four-laning in this county will be let this year. Things should be fine at a local level, but that's not enough. For the general business health and progress of the Ridge area, we need a complete four-laning of Route 27.

Why aren't we getting it?

War Goes On and On

Here we are in the new Republican administration and we're still waiting for that promised plan to end the war in Vietnam.

Vietnam, this nation's longest war, now has become the third costliest in lives. Our death toll surpassed the 33,629 Korean War mark last week. Only the two world wars have cost more men killed than Vietnam in U. S. involvement in foreign combat. The Civil War cost 214,938 lives, World War II, 292,000.

We notice that there is a cut in military spending, a step in the right direction. We hope it means a gradual withdrawal and an end to this needless killing in a war which we won two years ago—say the computers—but which we have not won in reality.

When will this country ever learn that we cannot police the world? Why should we anyway? And in this particular war, there has been increasing questioning of what we are accomplishing.

As the war continues, our taxes go up, it will be harder and harder to own homes, to rent nice homes as building costs escalate. The good life will be farther away than ever for many as their paychecks are decimated by rising inflation.

It's the war that's not only killing the cream of our young men but is causing a lot of the current inflationary woes, woes brought home pungently to many people in our community who are on pensions—which have not inflated along with prices.

Can't somebody stop the miserable thing?

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Should the Army Rule Out God?

Overruling the protests of atheists such as Mrs. Madalyn Murray O'Hair, Postmaster General Blount has determined that the words, "In the beginning God . . ." will appear on the six-cent postage stamp to be issued in commemoration of the historic Apollo 8 flight around the moon.

The stamp is to go on sale in Houston on May 5 and elsewhere in the country on the following day.

The postmaster general said that he had received a great number of letters from citizens who wanted the Scripture quotation to be included in the design of the stamp.

God Ruled Out

But, while the recognition of God is attested by the issuance of this commemorative postage stamp, God has been ruled out of another segment of American life.

Chaplains of the U. S. Army have been forbidden to mention God in their lectures which are delivered to soldiers for the purpose of instilling moral responsibility.

The foreword to character guidance manuals, in use by the army for many years, declares that the program is based on the American philosophy, expressed in the Declaration of Independence, which "regards man as a creature of God."

"As such," the manual continues, "every soldier is responsible and accountable to the Creator for the way he performs his civic and military duty, for the maintaining of his own and the nation's honor, and for the quality of service he renders to his country as a soldier."

But now, because of a complaint from the American Civil Liberties Union, the Army has ruled that a chaplain may not mention God or religious philosophy in the required lectures on moral responsibility.

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord," the Bible says.

"Them that honor Me I will honor, and that they despise Me shall be lightly esteemed," declares the Lord.

Is not this a time when we should be calling on God for help in solving our problems—both foreign and domestic—rather than excluding Him from our lives?

What can we expect as a nation if we allow this trend to continue?

If we forget God, will He forget us?

Should This Be Changed?

What is your opinion of this U. S. Army order?

If you think that an effort should be made to have the army rescind this order and permit chaplains to mention God in these lectures, write to me in care of this newspaper, telling me what you believe should be done.

The issue may yet be settled in favor of God—and in favor of our historic national recognition of our dependence on God—if we take action now.

"In God we trust" is still our national motto. Shall we hold to it?

Resident Questions Bill On Indebtedness

Letter to the Editor:

Are you aware what the city fathers are asking for in the following advertisement that appeared in the Avon Park Sun on March 27, 1969.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given of Intention to apply to the Legislature of the State of Florida at its regular session, 1969, for the passage of a local bill as follows:

An act to repeal Chapter 67-1087, Laws of Florida, which ineffectively attempted to place a ceiling on the issuance by the City of Avon Park of revenue certificates or certificates of indebtedness.

In case you are not familiar, this was the $100,000 limit on certificates of indebtedness that the council could issue without the voters approval.

The voters voted for this limitation about three years ago. To me, the attempt by the city fathers, or at least a majority of them, to throw out a mandate of the voters, by the way they are attempting is a little sneaky. If they think it is a good idea why did not they let the voters vote on it again?

Could they be afraid? On second thought maybe they should have used a little more care with city funds then they would not need more money so badly.

If the voters feel as I do, perhaps they would like to write their Senator and Representatives listed below and ask them to attach a referendum to any bill if they pass one:

Representatives Jim K.Tillman, Donald E. Heath, Granville H. Crabtree, Jr., Florida House of Representatives, Tallahassee; or Senator Wilbur H. Boyd, Florida State Senate, Tallahassee.

Your Social Security

Question—I read that a 19-year-old boy qualified for disability benefits. How can this be? I understood you had to have five years work credits to qualify for disability payments.

Answer — The requirements were changed last year so that those who become disabled before reaching aged 31 need less work credits. For example, the boy who became disabled at 19 needed only 1½ years work out of the three years before he became disabled.

Question—My husband is 52 and he has had several heart attacks. I am 52, is it possible for me to receive social security or will I have to wait until age 62?

Answer — If your husband's heart condition prevents him from working he should apply for disability benfits now. Unless you have a child under age 18 or a disabled adult child in your care, you must be at least 62 to draw a wife's benefit.

Question—I became disabled two years ago last July. I draw a veteran's pension. A friend told me I could not draw this pension and social security, so is never applied for my social security. Now I wonder if my friend is right.

Answer—Your friend is wrong. I would advise you to come in to see us right away and see if you can qualify for social security.

Question—I am 79 and still work. Are they supposed to take social security taxes out of my pay—and if I become disabled can I draw disability benefits?

Answer — Yes, your employer is required to take the social security tax out of any wages he pays you. This is so regardless of your age. You cannot qualify for disability benefits after age 65. Retirement benefits are paid instead.

Pros and Cons of Convertibles

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., April 10. An increasing number of convertible securities have been issued by corporations in recent years. To a great extent, this has reflected the fast pace of merger activity and the tight money situation. Thus, many companies have used convertibles in making acquisitions and consummating mergers, while others have issued convertible securities as a means of raising capital at a cost below prevailing money rates.

Convertibles Have Dual Characteristics

Convertible securities posess some of the characteristics of both a senior security and a common stock. Generally, they offer a certain degree of safety, a dependable yield and, through the conversion feature, an opportunity for capital appreciation. Although convertible bonds and convertible preferred stocks represent two different types of senior securities with different features, they are usually viewed as a homogeneous group. This is because their differences tend to be over-shadowed by their common characteristic of convertibility.

Convertibles Do Not Offer "Something For Nothing"

At first glance, it might appear that all convertibles are ideal investments which offer "something for nothing" through their convertibility feature. Such, however, is not usually the case. Generally, the investor must make some concessions in terms of quality and/or yield (in comparison to other fixed-income securities) as the price for the convertibility feature.

If one's investment objectives are safety and stability, then the investor will usually do better in non-convertible bonds or preferreds. The investor who sacrifices quality for convertibility could be making a costly mistake. From a yield standpoint, a convertible holder may also be at a disadvantage. This is because the convertible feature does not automatically guarantee appreciation. If none occurs in the common stock, then the investor has given up the higher return he might have had from a non-convertible fixed-income security.

A Matter of Selectivity

Perhaps the best opportunities in convertibles arise when they are viewed as an alternative to the purchase of a common stock. In this respect, the investor must look first at the common. If the common stock of a company offers a worthwhile opportunity for capital appreciation and/or growth, then the company's convertible issue (assuming one is available) could be even more attractive.

When considering which issue to purchase (the common or the convertible), the investor should look at the price of the convertible in relation to its conversion value, and at the yield. If the market price of the convertible security is too far above its conversion value, it will have lost any possible advantage. Also, the yield on the convertible issue should be at least equal to, and preferably greater than, that available on the common.

Generally speaking, a convertible should be purchased as an alternative to a company's common stock . . . when the convertible is selling at or near its conversion value; and when it has a yield equal to or higher than the common.

Some Selective Opportunities

Every convertible issue is not an attractive investment commitment. Often, the advantages of a convertible exist in form only and prove quite illusionary. Nevertheless, many opportunities do arise for the watchful investor. It is the opinion of the Babson's Reports staff that convertible securities certainly warrant investor consideration in today's investment climate.

Convertible debentures which currently appear attractive include Armstrong Rubber 4½s of 1987, Greyhound Computer 6s of 1986, and The Offshore Company 8s of 1992.

Investors should also consider the following convertible preferred stocks: Amerace-Esna $2.60, Beneficial Finance $5.50, and the Cooper Tire & Rubber 5%.

The okapi, often called a living fossil, and only recently discovered in Africa, has a skelton identical to the samotherian, a native of Crete, some eight to 10 million years ago. It has the body of an antelope, the hooves of an ox, the legs of a zebra, the head of a giraffe, and the neck of a horse.

Doctors Suggest Teenage Baby Sitters Have First Aid Knowledge

Every teenager who spends a good deal of time baby sitting should have a thought knowledge of first aid.

Dr. J. Dillard Workman of the Highlands County Health Department says, "First aid can be a valuable asset to the baby sitter, since usually the sitter is the only grownup left in charge of the household should an emergency arise."

Dr. Workman points out that the teenage sitter should have some knowledge of what to do in cases involving suffocation, burns, falls and electrical shock.

"The sitter should also be prepared for an emergency in the case of accidental poisoning," he notes, adding, "Accidental poisoning is one of the leading causes of death among children."

According to figures released by the National Safety Council, there were more than 4,000 fatal poisonings in the United States in 1967.

"Of these, 3,100 occurred in the home," Dr. Workman replies. "Common household products represent the greatest potential hazards because they are in easy reach of toddlers."

Baby sitters should also know where to contact parents, as well as reliable neighbors, the family physician and police and fire departments in the case of an emergency.

He notes that accepting a baby sitting job without knowing what to do in the case of an emergency could be a serious mistake.

"I would suggest that the baby sitter spend some time planning for an emergency which could possibly occur while left in charge of the home," Dr. Workman says.

Sitters should not accept the responsibility of a job if they have no emergency telephone numbers close at hand.

"Should an accidental poisoning occur, the sitter can call the family physician immediately. If he cannot be reached, advice can be obtained from a hospital emergency room, poison control center on the fire and police departments," he notes.

"If a child begins to suffocate, the sitter should first clear the throat and give rescue breathing immediately. It is sad to learn about an untrained baby sitter running next door for help when a suffocating child has only about three minutes to live without air in his lungs," Dr. Workman says.

"Accidents are the major causes of death among children. These accidents don't just happen" he notes. "The baby sitter can do much to prevent or control a child's injury or even his death."

Judith Lynne Walton and John F. Comer, Jr., Exchange Vows

St. Luke's Episcopal Church was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Judith Lynn Walton and John Fletcher Comer, Jr.

Rev. Carl E. Jones, Auburn, Ala., Rev. Martin Tilson, Rev. Edward Campbell and Dr. Huey M. Hudson administered the sacrament of marriage and Holy Communion.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lamar Walton and the granddaughter of Mrs. C. E. Wesley of Avon Park, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a victorian gown of candlelight peau de soie overlaid with organza. The empire bodice and leg-of-mutton sleeves were accented with medallions of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The dress featured an old fashioned high neckline at which she wore her grandmother's heirloom cameo broach. She wore an heirloom cathedral length mantilla of illusion, appliqued with hand embroidered Brussels lace. She carried a French Colonial bouquet of daisy mums and lace on her white Bible.

Miss Betty Frank Parsons, Fairfield, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of butterfly yellow crepe, featuring an empire waistline, wrist length raglan chiffon sleeves and train. Her headpiece was of chiffon roses and illusion veil.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Maddox, Miss Marion MacDonald, Miss Cathy Louise Argo, Jackson, Miss., cousin of the bride, Miss Helen Comer and Mrs. George M. Strain of White Sand, N. M., sisters of the bridegroom. They were similarly attired. Each carried a colonial bouquet of daisy mums.

John Stewart Lucky, cousin of the bride, served as page and carried her white prayer book.

The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Fletcher Comer was attended by his father as best man.

Groomsmen were Hugh Thomson Comer, brother of the bridegroom, Jack Lamar Walton, brother of the bride, Robert Thornton Comer, Jr., cousin of the bridegroom, William Thomas Cleage and George Metzger Strain.

The Crucifer was Warren Bacon of Demolopis, torch bearers were Maury Musgrove and Nelson Debardeladen. Acolytes were Gary Dunn, Auburn, Ala., and Terril Nell of Pensacola.

Following the wedding reception, held at the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to Sewanee, Tenn. They will be at home in Auburn, Ala., where they are both in graduate school.

Food Program May Be In For Change

The food assistance program for Highlands County's low income or welfare families may be in for changs. County Administrator Charles Morgan noted at the last county commission meeting that storage is a problem. The number of perishable items available under the commodity program has risen sharply in recent months.

A month ago Commissioner Earl Crutchfield had noted that the number of commodity items has been rising and in February 23 different products were given out.

Last week Morgan said more butter and cheese have been in recent shipments. "Only the unusually cool weather has prevented a serious problem. We don't have any cold storage available," Morgan noted.

"If the number of perishable items increases, a change from commodities to the food stamp plan might be indicated," Morgan said.

Morgan said studies he had made indicated that the food stamp program "does not appear to be any advantage to the county costs—unless we do have this storage problem."

In the month of March there were 1275 residents eligible for commodities. This included 845 welfare recipients, 365 others. This was an increase of 73 over the total number of eligible persons in February.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Dr. John Glotfelty, ophthalmologist from Lakeland, was introduced as our guest speaker by program chairman Lew Miller at last weeks meeting.

Dr. Goltfelty, who has been practicing in Lakeland since 1961, discussed contact lens, after briefly tracing the history of eye glasses.

He said that eye glasses date back to the time of the ancient Egyptians, some 5,000 years ago. In fact, several thousand years prior to Benjamin Franklin, who is frequently credited with development of bifocals, people were wearing bifocals.

What are contact lens? They are small, approximately half the size of a dime, plastic lens which fit directly on the eyeball over center of the pupil.

Contact lens, which have recently come into wide spread use, are not new. The first contact lens were made in the 1900s. However, their development was slow due to the necessity of making a mold of the eyeball, without anesthesia and also due to the rather crude lens made from glass.

In the late 1800's and early 1900's the use of contact lens began to increase due to improved manufacturing methods. But the real success came after World War II with the development of plastic which could be shaped to near optical perfection, and from which very small lens could be made that were comfortable to the wearer. Further, precise measurement of the eyeball's curving surface could be made without touching it.

The contact lens have many advantages over regular glasses. They are invisible. They do not fog or get wet in rain. There are no frames to cause depressions in the nose or other parts of the face. There is no distortion. No part of the wearer's view is blocked by frames, especially side vision.

Contact lens can be used in all types of sports including football and swimming. There is no glare from them due to lights at night.

Who can wear them? Most people do not have any difficulty adjusting to them, Dr. Glotfelty said. However, a person must want to wear them and be willing to train themselves to do so. It takes several weeks to become accustomed to the lens fitting directly on the eyeball.

A recent development in contact lens are bifocals.

Dr. Glotfelty held a question and answer period after his talk and showed examples of the regular clear lens and of tinted lens made for individuals who have a malformed eye. He was assisted by Bill Wedlock and Kevin McGee from his office in Lakeland.

THE CAREFREE ALL-ELECTRIC MOBILE HOME!

Mobile homes have come a long way from yesterday's cramped, utilitarian trailer. They're spacious, decorator-styled, and all-electric . . . providing clean, safe, flameless heating and cooling, cooking and refrigeration, water heating and garbage disposer. Therefore they give you the utmost in modern-day care, convenience, and comfort. That means built-in leisure . . . more time to enjoy the beautiful settings, recreational facilities, and congenial neighbors of today's mobile home parks.

Isn't carefree living the key reason you're interested in a mobile home? So the last word in mobile homes is all-electric. That makes it the best investment—an idea to consider from

WOMEN'S SECTION

Judith Lynne Walton and John F. Comer, Jr., Exchange Vows

St. Luke's Episcopal Church was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Judith Lynn Walton and John Fletcher Comer, Jr.

Rev. Carl E. Jones, Auburn, Ala., Rev. Martin Tilson, Rev. Edward Campbell and Dr. Huey M. Hudson administered the sacrament of marriage and Holy Communion.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lamar Walton and the granddaughter of Mrs. C. E. Wesley of Avon Park, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a victorian gown of candlelight peau de soie overlaid with organza. The empire bodice and leg-of-mutton sleeves were accented with medallions of re-embroidered Alencon lace. The dress featured an old fashioned high neckline at which she wore her grandmother's heirloom cameo broach. She wore an heirloom cathedral length mantilla of illusion, appliqued with hand embroidered Brussels lace. She carried a French Colonial bouquet of daisy mums and lace on her white Bible.

Miss Betty Frank Parsons, Fairfield, was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of butterfly yellow crepe, featuring an empire waistline, wrist length raglan chiffon sleeves and train. Her headpiece was of chiffon roses and illusion veil.

Other bridesmaids were Miss Suzanne Maddox, Miss Marion MacDonald, Miss Cathy Louise Argo, Jackson, Miss., cousin of the bride, Miss Helen Comer and Mrs. George M. Strain of White Sand, N. M., sisters of the bridegroom. They were similarly attired. Each carried a colonial bouquet of daisy mums.

John Stewart Lucky, cousin of the bride, served as page and carried her white prayer book.

The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Fletcher Comer was attended by his father as best man.

The Crucifer was Warren Bacon of Demolopis, torch bearers were Maury Musgrove and Nelson Debardeladen. Acolytes were Gary Dunn, Auburn, Ala., and Terril Nell of Pensacola.

Following the wedding reception, held at the church, the couple left for a wedding trip to Sewanee, Tenn. They will be at home in Auburn, Ala., where they are both in graduate school.

Guests attending the wedding and pre-nuptial parties from Avon Park were Mrs. C. E. Wesley, Mrs. Sybil Padelford, and Miss Betty Ann Padelford who served at the reception.

Food Program May Be In For Change

The food assistance program for Highlands County's low income or welfare families may be in for change. County Administrator Charles Morgan noted at the last county commission meeting that storage is a problem. The number of perishable items available under the commodity program has risen sharply in recent months.

A month ago Commissioner Earl Crutchfield had noted that the number of commodity items has been rising and in February 23 different products were given out.

Last week Morgan said more butter and cheese have been in recent shipments. "Only the unusually cool weather has prevented a serious problem. We don't have any cold storage available," Morgan noted.

"If the number of perishable items increases, a change from commodities to the food stamp plan might be indicated," Morgan said.

Morgan said studies he had made indicated that the food stamp program "does not appear to be any advantage to the county costs—unless we do have this storage problem."

In the month of March there were 1275 residents eligible for commodities. This included 845 welfare recipients, 365 others. This was an increase of 73 over the total number of eligible persons in February.

First Baptist Wins Close Track Meet

The 11 thru 14 year old boys of the First Baptist Church of Avon Park won a close track meet March 29. The final score showed First Baptist with 85 points, Frostproof Assembly of God with 84 points, Avon Park Assembly of God with 61 points and Fellowship Baptist Church of Avon Park with 43 points.

The meet consisted of 10 events: the 100-yard dash, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, one mile run, three classes of weight lifting, running broad jump, standing broad jump, high jump and softball throw. Each church was represented by a fine group of boys.

The boys learned as the Bible says—I Cor. 9:24 "Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain."

In life man must be dedicated to the task and put forth extra effort and work if he wants to accomplish the goals of his life.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Dr. John Glotfelty, ophthalmologist from Lakeland, was introduced as our guest speaker by program chairman Lew Miller at last weeks meeting.

Dr. Goltfelty, who has been practicing in Lakeland since 1961, discussed contact lens, after briefly tracing the history of eye glasses.

He said that eye glasses date back to the time of the ancient Egyptians, some 5,000 years ago. In fact, several thousand years prior to Benjamin Franklin, who is frequently credited with development of bifocals, people were wearing bifocals.

What are contact lens? They are small, approximately half the size of a dime, plastic lens which fit directly on the eyeball over center of the pupil.

Contact lens, which have recently come into wide spread use, are not new. The first contact lens were made in the 1600s. However, their development was slow due to the necessity of making a mold of the eyeball, without anesthesia and also due to the rather crude lens made from glass.

In the late 1800's and early 1900's the use of contact lens began to increase due to improved manufacturing methods. But the real success came after World War II with the development of plastic which could be shaped to near optical perfection, and from which very small lens could be made that were comfortable to the wearer. Further, precise measurement of the eyeball's curving surface could be made without touching it.

The contact lens have many advantages over regular glasses. They are invisible. They do not fog or get wet in rain. There are no frames to cause depressions in the nose or other parts of the face. There is no distortion. No part of the wearer's view is blocked by frames, especially side vision.

Contact lens can be used in all types of sports including football and swimming. There is no glare from them due to lights at night.

Who can wear them? Most people do not have any difficulty adjusting to them, Dr. Glotfelty said. However, a person must want to wear them and be willing to train themselves to do so. It takes several weeks to become accustomed to the lens fitting directly on the eyeball.

A recent development in contact lens are bifocals.

Dr. Glotfelty held a question and answer period after his talk and showed examples of the regular clear lens and of tinted lens made for individuals who have a malformed eye. He was assisted by Bill Wedlock and Kevin McGee from his office in Lakeland.

FOR THE BIRDS!

GAINESVILLE — The birds may not know it, but University of Florida wildlife experts are mixing birdseed-size birth control pills into feed to control the growth of pigeon populations. The tests are aimed at finding out if a birth control bait, used successfully in other parts of the country, will work on southern pigeons whose prolific breeding has become a year-around problem.

Over the Easter weekend Anna and Harry Barth were visited by their daughter and her husband, and their grandchildren from Pittsford, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Judson Mason, Joyce, Joanne, and Lee stayed with the Barths during part of their Easter trip to Florida. They enjoyed fishing for bass at Taber Lake with Harry, and all going to Highlands Hammock State Park for a picnic and a walk through the cypress swamp where they got a close glimpse of an alligator. The Masons had a very pleasant stay at Southland Trailer Court, and attended the Easter Sunrise service at Bok Tower with the Barths while in the area.

Bill Zargable had company from Detroit over the past week. Bill, Jr., along with his wife, Joan, the three grandsons, Mike, Chris and Jeff and of course the new granddaughter, Julie Ann, we all have heard about so much. The three boys and Gramp's had the usual good luck fishing.

Last word received from the Lumpkins is that Russell is feeling real well and that Winnie was working. They probably will not return to Florida until Fall.

Activities in the park have virtually been cancelled this week. Many have been returning to their northern homes and those remaining have been busy entertaining relatives and friends with picnics and visiting places of interest. The weather has been delightful and we hope all of the guests have enjoyed the Florida sunshine.

MILTON YOKEY

Good Response To Mr. Yokey's Ad for Typist

Milton Yokey, of Lorida, is 80 years old, and he is writing a religious book. He is about to finish the book and he needed a typist to help him with the final drafts.

So he advertised last week in The Sebring News, spending $1.45 on the ad. He received six replies and he was very happy that he had this fine response to his ad for help. All of the six, he said, seemed qualified to do the work.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

Pinochle was played in the recreation hall Monday, Mar. 31. High scorers for the ladies went to Agnes Heimberger and Roy Girten was high for the men. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens will be in charge of the games April 7.

We are happy to report that L. Geib is back home after being confined in Walker Memorial Hospital for some time. His friends all wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Howell spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lass in Bradenton. They are all former LaPorte, Ind., friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shoemaker found fishing excellent at Lake Okeechobee last week. Through their generosity their neighbors enjoyed fish fries. If only their friends in LaPorte could have seen that "catch."

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, New London, Conn., were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten were luncheon guests on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Winkler.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Nagy and Mrs. Elizabeth Kormash of Sebring called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Halfacre had as their guests, her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Enise Slaton from Evansville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller and granddaughter Bonnie of Okeechobee visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten Thursday morning.

Mrs. Larue Longanecker spent the weekend with her son, Don and family near Orlando.

Mr. and Mrs. Clemans entertained her sister Mrs. Bertha Cummins of Kalamazoo, Mich., last week. While here they enjoyed the day at Highlands Hammock State Park.

Frank Foote visited Mr. and Mrs. Roy Girten Thursday afternoon to wish them a safe journey to North Carolina where they will spend the Summer. The Girtens left for the North Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Krontz will leave for Butler, Ind., Saturday. We wish Basil and Rose a safe trip home.

Among the many in the park who dined out of town was, Mrs. Bess Raas, Mrs. Lola Maddrell, Rosa Bennington and Bee Tingler. They enjoyed their Easter dinner at the Lake Placid Restaurant, then returned to the park and were entertained at the Bee Tingler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Biggers had as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Leamasters of Lavonia, Mich., Mrs. Viola Akers of Pontiac, Mich., and her daughter, from Ocala, Mich.

Miss Ruth Ann Russell of Rolling Prairie, Ind., has been the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott the past week. Points of interest visited during her stay were Cypress Gardens, the retired Cunard Liner Queen Elizabeth at Port Everglades, the Aquatarium and the MGM ship the Bounty at St. Petersburg. Tuesday Miss Russell will leave via jet to New York and Vienna, Austria, for an indefinite stay.

Mrs. L. Geib wishes to express her thanks to the park residents for the lovely plant sent Mr. Geib while he was in the hospital.

Christian Athletes Organize With Jim Nunnallee To Be President

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes have recently organized a Huddle Group for athletes who are interested in Christian ideals. The primary purpose of this group is to provide an opportunity for each athlete to discover what he believes and to learn how to live by faith in Jesus Christ and Christian convictions. This organization is not to take the place of the church but instead to complement and support the church. Each boy is encouraged to serve the cause of Christ through the church of his choice.

Newly elected officers of this group are: president, Jim Nunnallee; vice president, Charles Magenheimer; secretary-treasurer, Gene Landress; and bulletin chairman, Walter Nunnallee.

The Bible Speaks To You On Radio

Many look to marriage to find happiness. Later they may wonder whether marriages are made in heaven after all! But we can look beyond the faltering human sense of love to God and we can find a permanent basis for a joining of hearts. Listen Sunday, Apr. 13, 9 A.M. to WJCM to "Preparing for Marriage."

BAHÁ 'U'LLÁH

The Founder of the Baha 'i Faith says:

O Son of Spirit!
The Best beloved of all things in My sight is Justice; turn not away therefrom if thou desirest Me, and neglect it not that I may confide in thee. By its aid thou shalt see with thine own eyes and not through the eyes of others, and shalt know of thine own knowledge and not through the knowledge of thy neighbor. Ponder this in thy heart; how it behoveth thee to be. Verily justice is My gift to thee and the sign of My loving-kindness. Set it then before thine eyes.

Golf Tourney To Benefit Cancer Crusade

A tournament to benefit the Avon Park Cancer Crusade Drive will be held at the Avon Park Golf Course on Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20.

According to Bill Reck, president of the Avon Park Golf Association the entry fee for the tournament will be $2.50 for each day. Both days will be played as one tournament and players may enter both days by paying the entry fee each day. This will give them two chances to win. Of the $2.50 entry fee $1 will go to prize money and $1.50 will go to the cancer crusade.

The tournament will be medal play less handicap. Those players who do not have an established handicap will be handicapped under the Calloway System.

There will not be a green fee charge for those non-members who enter the tournament on Saturday or Sunday.

American Legion Road Block Aids Children

Legionnaires of Post No. 69, Avon Park, under Commander Phil Briggs put in a busy day last Saturday contributing to various community activities. From 9 A.M. until 3 P.M. Commander Briggs, H. T. Sasser, J. A. Wise, Joe Shaffer and Al Hadd conducted a road block for the benefit of the programs of Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children. All vehicles passing through the intersections of Main and Lake were stopped and drivers tossed coins and folding money into jingling buckets. The wind sometimes played hi-jinx with the greenbacks but it took little time for the workers to weigh the paper money with solid coins. All in all, the five Legionnaires collected over $300 for the benefit of Highlands County. These funds will be used in the pre-school programs conducted in Sebring and Avon Park and the three different camping schedules being offered the retarded of this county.

Traditionally the Legionnaires of the county have conducted road blocks in Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid during the annual fund drive in November and December. Last winter illness prevented their usual participation but members of Post No. 69 organized and conducted the road block last Saturday in spite of the heat, so that their contribution to Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children would be available for handicapped children.

Council Pospones Selling Restaurant Property Site

The sale of some city property in industrial park on US 27 South adjacent to the South Florida Junior College is apparently building steam between some of the Avon Park City Council members.

Silvio Fazzini of Frostproof wants the property to put a barbecue restaurant on. The trouble is that some members of the council believe that the restaurant will not be the quality that should be near the college and if the city kept the land a chain restaurant such as McDonald's might locate there.

Still others maintain that the property is an industrial park and should not be sold for other than industrial purposes.

Wil Beumel representing the junior college, said he and Dr. William Stallard, president of South Florida Junior College had discussed this and agreed that a good wholesome restaurant would benefit the college for awhile because they did not have funds to build a cafeteria the first year or two, but plans one in the future. Dr. Stallard is in Washington and could not attend the meeting.

Council President Jack Duggan said he knew at least two other people that are interested in the property and asked other members of the council if they knew anyone interested to have them present at the next regular meeting.

In Other Action

—Council voted to grade the area in front of the Presbyterian Church after Mr. Culbertson, youth leader for the church suggested the city and youth cooperate in beautifying the lakefront.

—Asked city attorney, Jack Hancock to prepare an ordinance on airport regulations as recommended by the Airport Committee. It was stated that Shelley Marrs would accept the proposed lease but had requested three changes. They were: the city to maintain the new taxiway, give Marrs option on a fix base operation if another one was granted and Marrs be permitted to release any land covered in the lease in one acre tracts with a corresponding reduction in the amount of the lease.

The Airport committee agreed with the first item but was not in favor in the last two, so the council voted to follow the committee's recommendations and Marrs could either accept or reject the lease.

Waymen Carver told the Council that Don Serdynski had been appointed chairman by he (Carver) and Charles Whitehead.

—Voted to pay the Humane Society $500 budgeted after the society asked for $1500.

—Appointed Joe Kensey, Jr., fireman.

Lane quoted statistics on frame dwellings located within the city limits. He said the difference in insurance premiums each year on frame dwellings would be $3,683.93 less if the city would qualify for NB 4 rating rather than present NB 5 rating.

County-Wide Election On $4.5 Million School Construction Bond Assured: May Vote in June

A county-wide vote on a $4.5 million school construction bond issue was assured Tuesday afternoon when the Highlands County School Board formally received petitions requesting the election.

The citizen committee which spearheaded the petition drive is pushing for the vote to be taken before the current school year ends on June 9.

Exact date for the election cannot be set until the State Department of Education has approved the school board's resolution calling the election.

At the regular school board meeting April 10 Gene Scheck, chairman of the citizens committee, had urged the board to set an early date for the election, possibly June 3. Superintendent George Douglass said so early a date would hardly allow time for getting through the required red tape, but it may be possible.

Another of Scheck's recommendations was lost when the board voted to propose the bonds for a 20-year maturity date. Scheck said a slogan like, "New schools without new taxes," would give the bond backers a strong selling point.

Scheck suggested a 30-year repayment period. After taking a long look at discount rates, interest levels and total interest costs, the baord voted to ask for the traditional 20-year issue.

No Architect

The board had no hesitancy in turning down a request from the Property Owners Association that plans for the proposed Avon Park and Sebring High Schools be made available for study prior to any vote on a bond issue.

Board Chairman Henry Bailey responded, "We have no authorization to hire an architect and we surely would be severly criticized if we went out and hired an architect and paid him 5 percent of a proposed bond issue for plans we may or may not get to use."

Bailey suggested the Property Owners involve themselves in the work of committees now drawing up descriptions of what citizens want the schools to be and to teach. "Then we'll build to meet the needs," Bailey explained.

Superintendent Douglass added, "I want to hit this word 'frill.' Everyone envisions something different. For example, say air conditioning and this seems like frills to some, but if we are going to plan for a 12-months operation then we have got to plan for air conditioning. Everyone's idea of frill is different," Douglass contented.

Red Devils To Meet Zephyrhills In Class B Tournament Tonight

The Avon Park Red Devils, who finished the regular baseball season with a 9-6 record, will be pitted against Zephyrhills in the Class B sub-group 6 tournament starting in Frostproof tonight (Thursday) at 7 P.M. The Devils finished in fifth place in the 16 team district and will be playing the fourth-seeded team as a result of the season records. Zephyrhills finished with a record of 9 wins and 5 losses.

In other action tonight in Frostproof, the first-seeded Bulldogs will play Mulberry 30 minutes after the first game ends and the finals of the sub-group will take place tomorrow night at 7:30 P.M.

In Plant City at Mike Samone Park, the second-seeded Turkey Creek nine will host the other B-6 group meet. In the 7 o'clock game Lakeland Santa Fe with a record of 6-3 will play Plant City Marshall who finished 6-5 and in the night-cap, Turkey Creek (11-4) will take on Clearwater Central Catholic (9-9).

The winners of the two sub-groups will play next week in a best-of-three game series to determine the B-6 champion.

The Red Devils dropped their last two games last week to set the 9-6 record. Tuesday a week ago the Devils lost to Okeechobee 6-1 in an afternoon game in Okeechobee and last Friday afternoon, the Avon Park squad lost the season closer in Naples by a score of 5-1.

In Okeechobee, the Brahmans pushed over two runs in the last of the third to take a 2-0 lead on a single and an error. Then in the bottom of the fifth, the Okeechobee team scored another run on two singles to move out to a 3-0 lead.

Avon Park scored its lone run in the top of the sixth when Mike Vanderbilt, with one man down, walked and a walk and took second on a passed ball. He moved on to third on Don Sisemore's single and then scored when the Brahman firstsacker errored on a catch.

The Brahmans wrapped things up in the last of the sixth by scoring three more runs on a triple and two singles in addition to two Avon Park errors. Okeechobee was the only team able to defeat the Red Devils both games this season. The Brahmans won here early in the season by a score of 3-0.

Dodd Williams, the winning hurler, held Avon Park to three singles—Billy Richards and Bill Jackson hit safely along with Sisemore—and also struck out nine Devil batters. Don Sisemore took the mound loss for Avon Park to set his final regular season record for his freshman year at 4-2.

In Naples last Friday afternoon, the Eagles jumped on the Red Devils in the bottom of the third and scored four runs on two singles plus an Avon Park error. Avon Park scored a run in the top of the sixth. Steve Walker singled, went to second on a passed ball and was driven in by Bill Jackson's single.

Avon Park could get only three singles off winning hurler Barley. Glenn Sizemore had a single along with Walker and Jackson.

Larry LaFlam took the mound loss for the Red Devils. He gave up six hits and walked only two during the seven-inning affair. The loss gave Larry a record of 5 wins and 4 losses for the season.

Board Oppose Change In County Judge's Salary

Highlands County commissioners are "completely opposed" to legislation tieing the county judge's salary to the wages paid circuit judges. At Tuesday's meeting the commissioners voted unanimously to notify legislators they are opposed to the special bill requested by County Judge Mervin Rehrer.

The bill authored by Rehrer proposes that the Highlands County judge be paid "2,000 less than the resident circuit judge."

The judge now receives $10,500 as county judge and $2,520 as juvenile judge. Since Florida circuit judges are currently drawing $24,000 per year, the proposed bill would up Judge Rehrer's salary to $22,000.

The bill would prohibit the county judge's engaging in any private law practice.

In introducing the motion to go on record opposing the Rehrer bill, Commissioner Cecil Skipper pointed out there is a movement afoot to get circuit judges salaries boosted to $30 or $33 thousand a year "and think where that would put the county judge's salary.

"We are opposed to any official's salary being tied to any other office," Skipper said.

Contracts for Service

At their Tuesday morning meeting the commissioners approved contracts for service with three Highlands County service organizations.

Thomas R. Johnson, Jr., submitted a $2,202 budget for a Summer education - recreation program for retarded children. The program would be administered by Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children. The commission approved payment from funds budgeted for mental health and mental retardation services in the county.

The long-debated contract with Youth Care for use of a newly constructed juvenile home, was given formal approval.

A new agreement with the Humane Society was signed Tuesday. Under the terms of the agreement the county furnishes a dog catcher and the supplies he requires, and the Humane Society turns over to the county all funds received from sale of dog tags.

The commissioners voted to include a request for periodic financial reports from the Humane Society.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the commissioners promised to check into causes for Leisure Acres Mobile Park's lands being flooded last week. A check of records showed that a road right-of-way in the park which had been deeded to the county specifically excludes the right to build drainage and water controls there.

County Attorney Hue Nunnalee reported that a performance bond posted by the original developer of Highlands Park Estates was not a bond from a bonding company but a company agreement which had expired. Commission Chairman J. M. Whitaker suggested that Nunnalee investigate into the possibility that the county may claim the $100,000 the developer has in escrow with Florida Land Sales Board and earmarked for construction of roads.

The commissioners approved the purchasing agent's attendance at a purchasing conference in Orlando, April 27-30 and the welfare director's attendance at a welfare conference in Hollywood Beach.

Garrett Unveils Extended Day To Accommodate More Students

Sebring will have some very early risers and Avon Park some 10 o'clock scholars if the tentative schedules presented at the April school board meeting are adopted.

School Superintendent George F. Douglass has announced that both Sebring and Avon Park junior and senior high schools will be forced to adopt "extended day" schedules to accommodate more students in the 1969-70 school year.

Guy Garrett, Avon Park supervising principal, also plans to use band, chorus and physical education classes to relive pressure on other classrooms during his peak hours—periods 4 and 6.

Garrett tentatively plans for students to begin their classes in Avon Park junior and senior high at three different times—8 A.M., 9 A.M. and 10 A.M. He said "every attempt will be made to keep the students who are under 16 years of age on campus from 8 A.M. to 3:30 P.M."

The Avon Park administrator asked the school board to adopt a new policy which will relieve the principal of responsibility for each student during the entire school day. This, he explained, would enable him to plan to release 11th and 12th grade students from campus during their study halls.

To assist the principals in administration of the large student bodies over the larger days, the school board has approved adding an assistant principal at SHS and at APHS.

At the university, Griffin served as pledge master and inter-club council representative for the Alpha Beta Alpha chapter of the international fraternity of Delta Sigma Pi. He is also a member of the Chapter Class of the university.

He and his wife, Lynne, are living in Ft. Myers where he is employed as a district commercial supervisor by the United Telephone of Florida.

Policeman Is Accidentally Hit at Range

A 37-year-old Arcadia policeman, George Markham, was accidentally shot in the rest Wednesday morning at the Avon Park bombing and gunnery range by an Avon Park policeman, Joe Townsel who was putting the gun into a police car.

Markham was rushed to Walker Memorial Hospital where he was admitted and treated. He was reported in good condition. An investigation by the Polk County Sheriff's department ruled the shooting accidental.

Markham, on the Arcadia police force for five months, and Townsel were attending the 200-hour police school which is part of the curriculum offered at South Florida Junior College. Police officers from Highlands, Hardee and DeSoto counties attend.

Townsel was trying to unload a 12 gauge shotgun and the injection slide jammed. He was unable to unload the gun and while putting it into the police car it fired, going through the screen and windshield and hitting Markham.

Tax Deadline

The deadline for paying our income taxes was Tuesday—and what a relief to have that chore over again!

Much has been written about the miracle of millions of people handing their hard-earned money over to Infernal Revenue with scarcely a murmur.

But this year there are rumblings. And more and more is being said and written about people who are millionaires and pay no taxes. Like the Miami Herald headline: "Earn $1,700 or 10 Million —and Pay No Taxes." Americans who have cut their teeth on the idea of the American spirit of fair play are getting up in arms. They don't like this a bit.

And why should they? The tax man takes a tough bite out of us. And although lots of us are thankful we are earning enough to pay taxes, it still gripes us that the bill is so big. And if you are late—socko! And being an average guy, you're stuck. Yet they settle huge claims with crooks, hoods, big corporations and big shots for so much on the dollar. And often for minor infringements.

Take the case of a local businessman. His accountant got too busy and got mixed up on the date his return was due. The man's business was one that closes out December 1 each year. The return went in a month and three days late. Back came a letter from Internal Revenue demanding a 10 per cent penalty. The accountant wrote to protest that this was an unreasonably large penalty. No answer came from Internal Revenue.

About six months later a representative from the department came pussyfooting into the office where the man's wife works, stating tax was unpaid at much embarrassment to the wife, who knew nothing of the incident. The investigator was pretty tough. The wife got her husband to the phone. The husband was informed that the investigator had come looking for him twice before and couldn't find him. Yet the firm is listed in the telephone book and has an answering service. Why hadn't Internal Revenue ever answered the letter, instead of waiting and sending an investigator? Why waste the government's money to this degree when a telephone call or letter would have done the trick?

To add insult to injury—the business man sent his return in early this year and promptly got a note back saying they had his check but where was his return? They had been sent in together. The man wrote to say his return went in with the check, but he would be happy to send in a copy if they wanted it. Within two weeks there was another letter. They had his check, where was his return? He patiently sat down to write them another letter offering to send a copy of the return.

And that's where it stands. He wonders if check and return will ever get together again.

There are lots of things wrong with our tax setup. Someone has written that if the oil depletion allowance were disallowed, our budget deficit would be completely cured, so much money would flow in.

Recommendations are coming thick and fast for tax reforms and when the smoke and the lobbyists and the special interests are cleared away, it will be interesting to see what we have.

Lower taxes for the deserving? More reasonable men in the Internal Revenue offices? Taxes for the rich-rich?

If we sit passively by and let ourselves and our pocketbooks take the beating—there won't be a heck of a lot of change. It's time we made ourselves heard.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is This Way to Eliminate Crime?

Concerned about the increase in crime in our country, some Americans have decided to do something about it.

It is hardly news any more when the Federal Bureau of Investigation reports, as it did recently, that crime is up again in all categories.

We should be shocked, angered, and incensed when we read that there were 29 percent more robberies in 1968 than in the previous year—which also showed a deplorable increase in crime over the year before.

How Much Longer?

But we're not shocked. We apparently take it as a matter of course, now, that conditions will become worse every year. How long can this be allowed to continue?

Over-all crime was up 18 percent in cities and suburban areas, 12 percent in rural parts of the country.

However, in Indianapolis, the Women's Anti-Crime Crusade is working to bring crime under control in that city. Women there have been working together for seven years in this program to make the city safe for lawabiding citizens. Progress, while not spectacular, has been encouraging.

On the other hand, the members of the Detroit Common Council have voted to try a different approach to the problem of controlling one kind of crime—prostitution.

By a 6-2 vote, the Common Council has approved a Model Cities program which includes legalized prostitution in isolated areas of the city.

The plan has been submitted to the Department of Housing and Urban Development with the hope of getting a $1.5 million grant for this purpose.

This reminds us of Al Capp's reply to the question, "Should marijuana be legalized?"

Capp's answer, according to Time magazine, is, "By all means. Also murder, rape, and arson. Then we could do away with all crime."

Repeal God's Laws?

Is the answer to our problem to repeal God's moral laws—as some have, in effect, been advocating?

Or is it, instead, to ask God's help in meeting the challenge of the prolonged assault on everything that is good and wholesome in our society?

There are some hopeful signs. Postmaster General Blount decided to include the Scriptural quotation, "In the beginning God" in the design of the Apollo 8 commemorative postage stamp.

Defense Secretary Melvin Laird has overruled the Army decision to require chaplains to eliminate God from their lectures on moral responsibility.

Let's hope—and pray—that the tide is turning in Washington and that our nation will qualify for the benefits included in the Scripture, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

The Red Devil track team will host the Lake Placid Green Dragons in a dual meet here at the high school track east of the football field starting at 3:30 P.M. today (Thursday).

Scoring for Avon Park with first places were Clyde Sumbry who won the mile run and the half mile run; Willie Seigler who won the 220-yard dash, and Charles Magenheimer who took the high jump event. The Red Devil 880-yard relay team of Hall, Caswell, Claitt, and Seigler also took first place.

Other Red Devils contributing to the total Avon Park score were Walter Nunnallee with a third place in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles; Willie Seigler with a second and Roy Claitt with a fourth in the 100-yard dash.

Fred Jahna with a fifth in the mile run; Wally Pierce with a fifth in the 440-yard run; and Roy Claitt with a fourth in the broad jump. Also scoring were Roy Claitt with a fourth and Winkie Hall with a fifth in the 220-yard dash; Jimmy Magenheimer finishing fifth in the high jump; Winkie Hall and Wally Pierce taking fourth and fifth in the pole vault; and the mile relay team of Jahna, Rihner, J. Magenheimer, and Franza finishing third in that race.

300 Girls Sign Up For Softball

Over 300 girls from grades four through 12 have signed up to participate in the girls softball program according to Ann Karrick, physical education instructor at Avon Park High School.

The two leagues are now set with nine teams in the senior league for girls in grades seven through 12, and six in the junior league for girls in grades four through six.

Each team in the junior league is coached by high school girls with some fourth, fifth and sixth graders on each squad. The 15 teams will practice at the discretion of their captains at the high school softball field without adult supervision in the afternoons.

League play will start May 1 with the junior league teams playing from 5 to 6 o'clock on Monday, Tuesday and Thursdays and the senior league teams playing from 6 to 7 P.M. on the same days. League games will all be played at the softball field between Head Field and the Little League Field at the northwest corner of the Avon Elementary playground.

Helping Miss Karrick organize the program are Lorraine Howard, physical education instructor at Hopewell School and Miss Suzzanne Reeb, fifth grade teacher at Avon Elementary.

Interested parents will be needed to help umpire the games starting in May and all parents are reminded that the practice sessions for all 15 teams will not have adult supervision but are to be held only at the high school playground.

Please contact Miss Ann Karrick if you are interested in helping

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
—Editor, Information Services—

Larry C., 21 years old, recently underwent a 28-day cycle of treatment at Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center, Avon Park.

Although certainly not the youngest patient ever treated at the Center (the record was 17 years old), Larry is much younger than the average alcoholic. Average patient age at the Center is 45.

How can a person be an alcoholic at 21? Larry's story proves it's entirely possible, and that one can become an alcoholic on beer.

Both of Larry's parents drink. Larry had his first sip at the age of five. During his boyhood years he would sneak up and take an occasional sip of beer—and if he was "caught" his parents would only laugh.

Larry's home life deteriorated to the point that he left at 16, moving to another state with an older friend. It was at this age that Larry began to drink in earnest, getting his supply through his buddy who had a phony ID card. Larry's boozing consisted entirely of beer, and five years later when he was admitted to the Center as an alcoholic, beer was still his "sauce."

A school drop-out, Larry was encouraged to return to high school by his employer who took an interest in Larry and invited him to move in with him and his family. A month before graduation Larry had his first—but not last—brush with the law. During a drinking spree one night he was arrested for breaking into parking meters with his older "friend." He was placed on probation and ordered to return to Florida to live with his parents.

Now 19, Larry was drinking to "get drunk"—and his booze was beer. He made new friends in Florida. Most of them drank, and Larry joined them, still not realizing he was becoming an alcoholic. Four months after returning to Florida Larry had his second scrape with the law, this time being charged with reckless driving and illegal possession of alcoholic beverages. A fine and more probation time followed, and Larry's scrapes began to assume a definite pattern: A bout with the law, a period of sobriety for two weeks, then 3½ more months of drinking, then more trouble with the law.

At this point, however, Larry still did not realize he was an alcoholic, although he was getting arrested regularly every four months as a result of his drinking.

He tried enlisting in the armed services, but was turned down due to his jail record. Blackouts became more frequent, and each bout with the law became more serious.

Finally last November Larry found himself with his probation revoked and a stiff jail sentence. Now aware of his alcoholism, he gladly made arrangements to come to the Center as he groped for help.

Today Larry is back on his job, living a day at a time, but he's sober. Larry is 21 . . . and he likes beer.

Public Invited To Open House At County's New Juvenile Home

There will be open house this week at Highlands County's new juvenile home on Highlands Avenue, and the public is being invited to come see how well their money was spent.

The home, funds for which have been raised through a volunteer group, Youth Care, Inc., will be open from 1 to 6 P.M. both Saturday and Sunday. Members of the board of Youth Care will be stationed through the building to answer questions. There will be entertainment during the open house hours by organ, piano and accordion music.

There are about nine children in the present quarters and they will be moved into the new home some time next week. The home will be dedicated in June, Mrs. Virginia Rebman, president of the board of trustees, said.

The book now show the cost of the building around $44,749.21 without all bills completely in, and furnishings estimated at $7,000.

The total amount of money secured for the building was $55,220.88 of which $33,000 was a mortgage from First National Bank of Sebring and Avon Citrus Bank of Avon Park. A total of $22,-575.88 was donated by over 400 people of the county.

There were 138 dependent children in the home last year and 68 children in jail. The new home will alleviate the necessity of putting children in jail, since it has security facilities.

The Youth Care home is primarily for underprivileged, delinquent and dependent children who have come under the jurisdiction of the county judge either by loss of parents, abuse of parents or through delinquency.

On the present board of directors with the president are Mrs. Andy Jackson, vice president; Mrs. Beau Brummel, secretary; Al Roepstorff, treasurer; William Guenther, Ken Grubb, Mrs. Edward Westfall, Fr. John Knapp, Steve Roberts, Mrs. W. J. Lockett, Mrs. James Turnbull, Mr. Clayton and Mrs. Lionel LaGrow.

Girl Scout Encampment

On Friday, Apr. 25, the squirrels at Highlands Hammock State Park will find themselves invaded by some 150 girls.

The Jacaranda Neighborhood of Girl Scout Brownies and their leaders will begin a three-day encampment on that day.

For weeks the leaders have been planning menus, gathering tents and equipment, and preparing a busy schedule for this three day outing.

At 10 A.M. on Friday, Apr. 25 the girls will be assembled at the campsite at Highlands Hammock Park, and at 11 A.M. the flag will be raised to signify the opening of the camping session.

On Saturday, the 26th, the Girl Scouts will be joined by three troops of Brownies and another full day including trailing and tracking, a talk from the park ranger and more real preparation will begin.

Anyone who has never worked on an encampment such as this cannot possibly imagine the amount of time and work that goes into it. Alma Hooper Heads County Auction Drive

Mrs. Alma Hooper, executive secretary of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce, has been named chairman for Highlands County during the second annual WEDU Chanel 3 Television Auction. Mrs. Hooper was an active member of the auction staff last year, when the station raised over $100,000 in additional operating expenses.

Highlands County's auction drive got underway Tuesday with a lively kick-off party at the Elks Club in Sebring. Along with Mrs. Hooper, acting as hostess, other leaders of the local drive, and R. LeRoy Lastinger, General Manager of the Tampa Station, were present. Mr. Lastinger gave a short talk, outlining the objectives of the auction, and presented video tapes of some of last year's auction activitey.

Mr. Lastinger explained that WEDU is a community, non-profit, television station, used in the school systems in a nine county area. WEDU programs 35 hours of weekly in-school classroom instruction and 48 hours of community television on such subjects as art, politics, world affairs, cooking, theatre and jazz. City Clerk Speaks To Grange

Avon Park Grange No. 203 met in regular session Tuesday, Apr. 8, with master, Louise Clarke, in the chair.

The Grange seeks to promote the highest type of citizenship and quicken our sense of civic responsibility. The speaker of the evening was Avon Park city clerk, Malcolm Crews, who explained the official business of the city and answered questions put to him by the members who are nearly all property owners and voters in Avon Park. Following the discussion, an April program was presented as follows:

Thoughts of April by the members: an April fool game called "Rabbit"; decorating the altar, "The cross signifies that Christ died to atoue for our sins." Cross placed by chaplain; "the Easter lilies are symbols of the resurrection." Flowers placed by Flora; "the lighted candle is a symbol of eternal life." Candle placed by Ceres. Song "In the Garden."

What does Easter mean to you? by Zeno Warner; poem, Easter by J. A. Blomquist. Song, "The Church's One Foundation." Thought for the day—our Lord laid hold of the world, not by speeches or by the sermon on the mount, but by His blood, His suffering on the cross.

Following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed, during which time refreshments were served by Arlene Lane and Grace Warner. The next meeting will be held at the First United Methodist Church on April 22 at 8 P.M.

Mrs. J. Turnbull Heads Girl Scout Fund Drive

Mrs. James Turnbull has been named Chairman of the 1969 Girl Scout Fund Drive for the Avon Park area. This drive is slated to begin April 18.

Mrs. Turnbull has served this community in many ways through the years. She is a past president of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club and has been a member of the Senior Woman's Club, serving it as vice president.

At the present time she is an active director of Youth Care, Inc. When the new Youth Care Home was being constructed, Mrs. Turnbull arranged for the feeding of the APCI prisoners who were working on the job.

The First Baptist Church and Avon Elementary School too claimed much of Margaret's time. She is Sunday School superintendent of beginner dept. Four at the church and has helped for many years with the daily vacation Bible school. Among the many things she does for Avon Elementary, is listen to children who need additional help, read. In addition to these many civic activities, she is the mother of nine children.

The fact that this busy young woman is devoting many hours to the organization of the Girl Scout Fund Drive indicates her opinion of the importance of the Girl Scout program. The goal for the 1969 Drive is $999. Mrs. Turnbull says that she is certain that the citizens of Avon Park will give generously to this drive since it very directly benefits the youth of our town. She says, "We will reach our goal."

Origin of the diamond in dustry is lost in the mists of time, but you can bet it was some prehistoric gal who first used the word "mine" in connection with precious stones.

A message to the modern woman . . .

A TOTAL ELECTRIC MEDALLION HOME gives you more time to do the things you want to do!

Reason: Flameless electric appliances free you from the drudgery of housework.

- Self-cleaning ovens and non-frosting refrigerators eliminate messy cleaning jobs.
- Year-round comfort conditioning keeps the house white-glove clean. You stay fresher, too.
- Automatic clothes washers and dryers free you from heavy lifting and stretching to hang clothes on a line to dry.
- Time-saving dishwashers and disposers banish dishpan hands and messy garbage bundles.
- Quick Recovery water heaters provide instant hot water — no waiting, no matter how much laundry or dishwashing you do.

To make certain you get the electric appliances, lighting and wiring you need, ask your builder or realtor to show you a TOTAL ELECTRIC MEDALLION HOME when you go house-hunting. You'll live happily ever after!

MAVERICK—newest breed from the Ford Division goes on sale at Avon Park Motor Company Thursday, Apr. 17. Seating a family of four and offering economy of purchase and operation, it is aimed at boosting Ford sales in the booming small car market and serving the needs of buyers who formerly went to imports.

Avon Motor Co. Will Introduce The New Maverick Thursday

Avon Park Motor Co. will introduce the long heralded 1970 Maverick, new small car from Ford Division, on Thursday, Apr. 17.

This $1,995 car is a two-door sedan of modified fastback design with a hint of an air spoiler or "ducktail" at the rear. Designed to carry a family of four with adequate luggage, it is powered by a six-cylinder engine in either of two sizes, 170 or 200 cubic inch displacement. In normal city-suburban driving, Maverick can be expected to deliver 22½ miles per gallon of gasoline.

John Naughton, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, calls Maverick "the greatest automotive value ever offered in terms of price, upkeep and features included at no extra cost."

Planned to be economical in purchase price, operating cost and maintenance, Maverick offers a longer, lower, wider body than the principal import, yet turns in a tighter radius for easy handling and parking.

Transmission choice includes the fully synchronized three-speed-manual, the three-speed automatic with an optional shift-for-yourself feature, and, for the first time, a new semi-automatic transmission. Cheaper than the automatic and clutchless, it permits a change of gears with a single movement of the hand lever.

"Maverick will live up to its name in being a unique, independent kind of car," said Bill Owens of Avon Park Motor Co.

"It's bigger and roomier than the imports, but quicker and lighter than the American compacts. Even some of the color names carry out the car's individualistic character—Thanks Vermillion, Hulla Blue, Freudian Gilt, Anti-Establish Mint and Original Cinnamon."

David Perdue Receives Medal

Army Specialist Five David Perdue, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Perdue, 1020 S. Delaney Ave., Avon Park, received the Air Medal near Cu Chi, Vietnam, March 8.

He earned the award for combat aerial support of ground operations in Vietnam.

Spec. Perdue is a flight engineer in the 1st Aviation Brigade's 242nd Assault Support Helicopter Company. He entered the Army in November 1967, completed basic training at Ft. Benning, Ga., and was last stationed at Ft. Eustis, Va.

HELLO SEBRING!—It's time to get acquainted. We know the owner of almost every vacant lot in the area and one little sale a month will keep the wolf barred. We call ourselves, "Lot Headquarters," a title we filched from an honorable Swede in Dade County. After Korea, we huffed and puffed to get our organization to average a sale a day for six years. After we surrender in Vietnam, there will be another boom. Get ready now! Not with our help, however, except for a lot, because our office hours are strictly by appointment, and the phone is answered only before 10, or after 7. Is that any way to operate a real estate office? We suggest an alternative: There is a gal here who calls herself the "Real McCoy." We haven't met the lady, but blonde wig, or not, from 46 years in the game, we know she is on the ball. She has offices almost everywhere, plenty of help, and "For Sale" signs everywhere else. She also belongs to the "Inner Circle," called the Realty Board, where, for a fee she can swap stories with other members. So, if you will listen to a voice of experience, and want to dabble a little in vacant lots, give us a call. Otherwise, call a Realtor. We buy deposit receipts by the 100 and will gladly make a dozen offers to help you steal a $500 lot. That's the way its got to be in this market. ROY KEY REALTY, 385-0703 before 10; after 7.

BOATS and MOTORS

There's an easy way to tell a Mercury from other outboards.

It's the quiet one.

If you don't believe us, just drop down to the nearest lake or marina and give a listen. A Mercury outboard is quieter than other outboards to begin with because of the way it's built: internal reed valves, tighter-fitting parts with closer tolerances and patented Jet-Prop exhaust. But that's just a starter. Mercury adds a rubber-mounted aluminum wrap-around cowling with sound-absorbent liner, Dyna-Float suspension, Power-Dome combustion chambers and sound-sealed remote control and fuel line fittings. But enough details. The important thing is that a Mercury isn't just quieter than any other outboard — it's the quietest outboard you can buy! We will be happy to arrange a listen.

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home News

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jedrey have had his granddaughter, Miss Jean Harris of Newburyport, Mass. as a guest for the past ten days. Jean is enjoying a vacation from studies at Andover Institute of Business. While here she spent two days at Miami with Hazel and Harry, also Bok Tower, Spook Hill and other places of interest. She left Sunday morning from Tampa Airport, tanned, rested, but reluctant to leave. She has had a lovely visit and enjoyed meeting everyone in Bonnie Brae Park and wishes she could have stayed longer.

The Putman's (Ethel and Maxi and Thelma Chalmers enjoyed a trip to Vero Beach last Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Findley Mason and his brother Harry.

Mrs. Louise Shengle has sold her trailer to Mr. and Mrs. Thatcher who will take possession about the first of June. Louise has moved to the Martin apartments in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall who have been wintering in Sarasota spent Friday night with Thelma Chalmers before returning to their home in Eastham, Mass., at Cape Cod.

Science Church Sunday Service

"What doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God."

This verse from Micah sets the theme of the Bible-Lesson on "Doctrine of Atonement" which will be heard Sunday in all Christian Science Churches. All are welcome to attend.

A correlative passage from the denominational textbook comments: "Every pang of repentance and suffering, every effort for reform, every good thought and deed, will help us to understand Jesus' atonement for sin and aid its efficacy; but if the sinner continues to pray and repent, sin and be sorry, he has little part in the atonement—in the at-one-ment with God—for he lacks the practical repentance, which reforms the heart and enables man to do the will and wisdom." (Science and Health with Key to the scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy).

The Avon Park Red Devil varsity baseball team lost out to Zephyrhills 4-3 in the opening game of the Class B Group 6 sub-group meet held in Frostproof last Thursday and Friday. The Zephyrhills team went on to win the sub-group tourney by defeating the winner of the Frostproof vs Mulberry game and will play Turkey Creek in a best of three game series this week to determine the B-6 champion and representative to the state tourney.

Avon Park opened the first inning by scoring two runs as lead-off batter Billy Richards singled ,then moved on to second on a passed ball. Larry LaFlam also singled after one man was down to drive Richards in with the first run. Then LaFlam just continued around the bases as the Zephyrhills team committed two errors trying to put him out. He scored on a throwing error by the right fielder.

Zephyrhills scored their 4 runs on 3 hits and committed 4 errors while the Red Devils scored their 3 runs on 5 hits and committed only 2 errors. The winning pitcher, Chico Chauncey, struck out 11 Avon Park batters and walked five while losing hurler, Don Sisemore, fanned only 6 Zephyrhills batters, issued five walks, and hit one batter.

Judge Clifton Kelly recessed court late Tuesday morning and ordered the arrest of the witness needed for prosecution of a scheduled rape trial. When sheriff's deputies had not found the witness by Tuesday afternoon Judge Kelly ordered the trial delayed until June.

Earlier Tuesday Reggie Swan Thelwell had been found not guilty on a charge of assault to murder. Thelwell had waived trial by jury and was tried before the court.

In a jury trial on Monday Frank Lindsey, 33, was found guilty on a burglary count. Judge Kelly sentenced Lindsey to 15 years in the state penitentiary at Raiford.

Lindsey was charged with breaking into a soft drink plant at Avon Park last July.

A heavy schedule of criminal trials is scheduled before Judge Kelly this week and includes the trial of Mathew Alston for murder.

Whitaker Changes Registration; First Republican Elected Official

The chairman of the Highlands County Commission, Jean M. Whitaker, 41, of Lake Placid, changed his voting registration on Friday from Democrat to Republican, climaxing a day of wildly spreading rumors that he would do so.

In so doing, he became the first Republican elected official ever to serve in this county. His wife, Doris, also changed her registration from Democrat to Republican. The Whitakers appeared about 4 P.M. before deputy Elections Supervisor Jimmy Whitehouse. The history-making incident took only a few minutes. And they left as quietly as they had come.

Asked later why he had taken the step, Whitaker declared "I have several good reasons. I think it will be good for the county, don't you?"

Asked to elaborate, he said he feels it is good "that we have a Republican office holder. I think we need the two-party system. It was not a snap decision. I have been thinking about it for a year and a half. I think we need Republican office holders in Highlands County. I think we are definitely a two-party state from here on out."

Col. W. J. Atkinson, chairman of the Highlands County Republican Committee declared "we take great pleasure in this and we agree that we definitely are a two-party state."

JEAN M. WHITAKER

Whitaker was elected to the County Commission for the first time in the 1966 November election and took office January 2, 1967. He had won over Jim Creel, Democrat, in the primaries. But when he faced Republican Bill True in the November election, he was defeated in his own precinct, although winning county-wide.

The Whitakers own Highlands County's tallest landmark, the Lake Placid Tower, the Tower gift shop and fruit stand and Tower Fashions. He formerly was an owner and officer of Whitaker Brothers, Inc.

Prisoner Escapes Deputy Sheriff

A husky 26-year-old Negro wanted for grand larceny in Mississippi, fought his way to freedom in the early evening darkness Friday as Deputy Sheriff Leonard Baggett attempted to take him into Highlands County jail.

An all points bulletin was out today for LeRoy Pough, six feet two inches, 205 pounds, who tusseled with Baggett, losing part of his shirt and pants. Baggett fired a warning shot into the air but the fugitive escaped in the darkness, running toward the Circle.

Six deputy sheriffs, three men and three bloodhounds from the Avon Park Correctional Institution, tried for four hours to track the fugitive but were unsuccesful. They later learned he had hidden at the Nazarene Church and had been seen on the Circle.

Pough, a laborer, was picked up on an FBI warrant charging flight to avoid prosecution. Located at his parents' home in Avon Park, he offered no resistance when apprehended. But as Baggett took him from the patrol car, he jumped the deputy and they tussled.

Girl Scouts Kicks Off Fund Drive, Goal Set at $999

The 1969 Girl Scout fund drive has begun, Mrs. James Turnbull, chairman, announced that letters have been mailed to many residents of the Avon Park area and that a follow-up campaign will be initiated in two weeks.

At that time Girl Scout mothers will call on citizens requesting donations for this worthy cause. The goal of $999 must be met in order to insure that the many services offered by the Heart of Florida Council to the Girl Scouts in this area can continue.

There are nine Girl Scout Troops within Avon Park. Approximately 225 girls benefit from the Girl Scout program here and there is a standing invitation to any other girl who would like to join. There are 42 adults registered who are working to bring the best of scouting to the girls.

Through the Scout council, camp sites are maintained, camping and boating equipment are available, training for troop leaders is given, and professional Girl Scout workers are available to help with problems that arise.

With all these things in mind, it is hoped that the response of Avon Park will be generous. Our Scouts need your help.

MRS. JAMES TURNBULL, center with her two co-chairmen, Mrs. Malcolm Tatum, left and Mrs. Marvin Rehrer, right, who are sending letters to merchants and residents asking for voluntary contributions toward their goal of $999 for the Girl Scout fund. The committee is confident the goal will be reached as the money directly benefits the youth of Avon Park.

Socko!

Happy day, all you jolly taxpayers! Here we go to the cleaners again as our men in Tallahassee sock it to us.

Naturally, shall we say, they're taking good care of themselves. The proposal is to boost their salaries from $1,200 a year to $12,000. And oh yes! They may just discontinue a part of the $7,200 a year allowance they get for expenses.

How many of us have had a wage boost like that recently? From where we sit, they all run for office with the full knowledge of what kind of pay they'd get. We see no reason for raising it. If you don't like the way the water looks, don't swim in it, we might point out.

And while they're raising pay, they're considering a uniform bill to set salaries of county officials in the state. And although it is aimed at erasing inequities, you can bet your sweet bippy everything will be eased upward overall. Have you ever heard of it going downward anyway?

The result of this uniform pay bill will be pay raises for some and slight deductions for others.

Sen. Alan Trask of Fort Meade, who is working on this, pointed to the disparity in present pay, for instance of the court clerk in DeSoto County who is paid $7,500 and his counterpart in Gulf who gets $12,000. The counties have about the same population.

Under a 1967 law, most fees now going to county officials to augment their salary are eliminated as of July 1. This would mean automatic pay cuts, some substantial. For instance, the Palm Beach County circuit court clerk draws a salary of about $10,000 and fees of $8,000.

One of the advantages of a uniform pay bill, that is, uniform pay for officials in like-sized counties and jobs, and no more fees, would be that people would know what their elected officials are getting. Some officials now get more in fees than in salary.

The pay range has not been decided, but it probably will run from about $3,500 for the lowest paid school board member to $21,000 for the highest paid county judge.

It would be interesting to see how our legislators would vote on bills such as these affecting the pocketbook if the pocketbook were their very own and the State of Florida a private business—their very own business. Don't you know they'd be taking a second look at all this!

Scout Troop 157 On Overnight Boat Trip

The seven winners of an attendance contest in Boy Scout Troop 157 collected their award this past weekend by participating in a two-day boat trip on the St. Johns River. The two boats making the trip were packed with food and camping gear Friday evening. Departure was dampened by the early morning rain Saturday but the sun came out before the caravan reached the Lake Monroe boat ramp at Sanford at midmorning.

The boats tied up for lunch in Blue Springs Run, where the boys enjoyed a refreshing swim in 60 degree crystal-clear water. Trolling brought no results but built big appetites for supper cooked on the banks of the St. John where the river widened into the southern tip of Lake George.

Sunday morning after breakfast of bacon and French toast, the boys participated in a 30-minute religious ceremony, then loaded the boats for a run across Lake George to Silver Glen Springs. After a brief and chilly swim the group returned to Blue Springs for a late lunch and swim in the Spring's boil before returning to the Sanford boat ramp and home.

Those making the trip were second class Scouts Joe Murphy, Barry Beumel and Johnny Johnston and Tenderfoot Scouts Brad Beumel, Jamie Tomlinson, David Metheny and Grant Stallard. Adults supervising boat handling and navigation were C. F. "Johnny" Johnston and Franklyn Ward.

LEWIS LLEWF'LYN

Is This a Time For Hatred?

Is this a time for hatred? Dr. Nathan Hare, a professor at San Francisco State College, says it is—and he quotes the Bible in support of his position.

Dr. Hare, who was to have headed the "black studies" department at the college—until Dr. Hayakawa, acting president of the institution, announced that his contract would not be renewed—said last month, "The Bible says there is a time for everything and I think this is a time for hate."

In Chicago, after memorial services for Dr. Martin Luther King were held on April 3 in some of the city's high schools, Negro students poured out of the schools and indiscriminately attacked white people, throwing bricks, bottles, and stones at passing cars.

A Negro journalist who was an eyewitness reported that the "outburst was a demonstration of hate."

Sharp Contrast

There can be little question that there are some in our nation who are feeding the fires of hatred, attempting—with far too much success—to pit one group of people against another.

This is exactly the opposite of the attitude of Mary McLeod Bethune, noted Negro educator who was the founder of Bethune-Cookman College, at Daytona Beach, Fla.

Dr. Bethune said, "I leave you love. I leave you hope . . . I leave you a respect for the use of power. I leave you faith. I leave you racial dignity. I leave you a desire to live harmoniously with your fellowman."

What a difference between this statement and that of Dr. Hare!

In his eulogy of former President Dwight Eisenhower, President Nixon said, "He was genuinely puzzled by frenzy and by hate because he was incapable of it himself . . . He was puzzled by the hatred he had seen in our times."

It is true that the Bible says, "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: . . . a time to love, and a time to hate."

The quoted passage is from the third chapter of Ecclesiastes. However, this book records the thoughts of Solomon —not the commands of the Lord—as anyone who takes the time to read the book should readily understand.

Hatred—or Love?

It is possible, by taking Scripture quotations out of their context, to make the Bible appear to support almost any notion that anyone may wish to promote.

Satan is quoted in the Bible. It would be possible to take his words and quote them, saying, "The Bible says . . ." But it would not be a valid use of the Scripture.

Nor is Dr. Hare's statement a valid use of the Scripture.

Everyone knows that Jesus taught love—not hate.

Perhaps this would be a good time for us all to pray the prayer of St. Francis of Assisi, "Where there is hatred, let me sow love."

MRS. STEVE ROBERTS of Ridge Florist is shown donating to the Avon Park High School band fund for state contest. Julie Kangeter and Mangy Howard band members smile in appreciation. Tag day will be April 26, and band members will be at the Kwik Chek, Drug Store and Shopping Center, Friday, 3-7 P.M. and Saturday, 9 A.M. to 5 P.M., to collect money to attend the state contest in Pompano Beach on May 8.

Track Team Wins First Meet Here With Lake Placid Thursday

Avon Park's Red Devil track team won its first meet of the season last Thursday afternoon here at the high school track in a dual meet with Lake Placid. The Red Devils scored 66 points to the Green Dragon's 52 to take the meet.

Last Tuesday afternoon the track team participated in the Highlands County meet, which was to be held in Lake Placid this year. This is the third year the Highlands County meet has been held and Avon Park has won it the two previous years.

The next meet the Red Devils will participate in will be the Class B District 6 meet to be held in Fort Meade on May 2. Preliminary events will take pla.e in the afternoon starting at 3:30 with the finals set for 7 o'clock that night. Individuals who place in this district meet will be eligible for participation in the state meet later in May.

Sprinter Willie Joe Seigler tied Harold Callaway's 100-yard dash school record last Thursday with a time of 9.6 seconds. Callaway had set the mark in 1966. Seigler had a perfect start and ran the 100 yards as straight as an arrow according to starter Frank Burns. Willie Joe also tied for first place in the 220-yard dash and anchored the winning 880-yard relay team which ran in a time of 1:33.5 last week.

Altogether Avon Park won nine first places and tied for another out of the 14 events held. The mile-relay was not run since neither team wished to enter a team. Taking first place in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles was Avon Park's Walter Nunnallee with a time of 16.5 and 22.3 respectively. Devil distance runner Clyde Sumbry chalked up firsts in the mile run (4:50) and the half-mile run (2:17.5). Winkie Hall won the pole vault with a 10' 6" effort. Charles Magenheimer took first place in the high jump with a 5' 8" jump and then branched out to win the 440-yard dash with a time of 53.4 seconds. Magenheimer also placed third in the pole vault event —his first effort in that event this year.

Other scoring for Avon Park were: Roy Claitt who took third in the 100-yard dash, second in the broad jump, and third in the 220-yard dash; Freddy Jahna with a third in the mile run; Wally Pierce with a second in the pole vault; Joe Franza who placed second in the quarter mile run; Neil Caswell tied for second in the 180-yard low hurdles; Winkie Hall who took third in the discus throw; and Jim Magenheimer who came in third in the high jump.

The winning 880-yard relay team was made up of Winkie Hall, Neil Caswell, Roy Claitt, and Willie Joe Seigler.

ENTERTAINMENT at Saturday's eighth annual patient reunion at Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center was provided by a musical combo from Avon Park Correctional Institution. Gospel music was also presented during the afternoon, furnished by the youth choir of the Avon Park Church of God. Close to 250 former Center patients attended and two of them are shown here "shaking a leg" to the music of the APCI combo.

On Saturday, Leslie Hildreth and Alton Wetmore won with Helen Gaut and Clay Kull the runners-up. Thos. R. Clarke and Charles Romilly were consolation winners over Lois Johnson and Walter Swyers.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By POWELL WAITE

John S. (Jack) Short, Highlands County Director of Planning, explained to the club certain features of the 1967 Legislature Act which set up zoning and planning laws for all counties. The purpose of such a law is to promote health, welfare and safety of the entire county population, not just the urban areas. Some of the problems which will be eliminated by these zoning laws are over crowding of residential areas, businesses locating too closely to schools, industries being assigned certain areas to locate and agricultural land being used unwisely.

The use of Land Use Surveys gives valuable information to the seven member zoning board and helps them determine zoning requirements for certain areas. These Land Use Surveys include such information as soil types, how is land being used now and how it will be used in the future, lakes and streams, recreation facilities, transportation routes, and other information.

Mr. Short stated that after the zoning board has classified land the owner will be given opportunities, at public hearings, to have their classification explained to them or changed.

The term Mazda as used by a brand of light bulbs comes from the name of a Persian pagan god, and means wise or holy.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

We regret very much to report the sudden passing of one of our fine residents, Milton Valentine. Milton passed away Tuesday night in the Walker Memorial Hospital. His death was a shock to us all. Our deepest sympathy to his widow and his family.

We have learned that Dr. and Mrs. R. Dean Conrad met with a serious car accident while on their way back home to Urbana, Ohio. Both suffered serious injuries and are in the Leesburg hospital, near where the accident occured. Their car was completely demolished. We all wish Addie and Ray a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Howell left Sunday for their home in LaPorte, Ind. after spending the winter in our Park. They were Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Robinson.

Saturday morning, Mrs. Paul Bennett, Avon Park Lakes, Mrs. David McDaniel, Avon Park, and Mrs. Lucile McPherson drove to Tampa to attend a board meeting of the Presbyterian churches of Florida. Mrs. Bennett is the president, Mrs. McDaniel is recording secretary and Mrs. McPherson, corresponding secretary. It was announced at this meeting that there would be a dedication of the new Presbyterian church Sunday, 3 P.M. at Lake Wales.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wolcott recently spent the day in St. Petersburg with Mr. Wolcott's brother, Carl Wolcott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers of Ormond Beach, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Long last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bell of L'Anse, Mich., are guests of Mrs. Bea Tingler.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall have written they had car trouble when a tire blew at Leesberg. No serious personal injury was reported. The Marshalls were on their way back home in Syracuse, Ind.

Another Park resident had an accident on their way back home. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Weideman had their accident at Fort Oglethorp, Ga. Complete information has not been received, but Mrs. Weidman is in the Tri County Hospital in Ft. Oglethorp. Her address is room 254. Mr. Weidman is staying in a nearby motel and their son John is coming down to have the car repaired and return it back North.

Mrs. Harry Longanecker attended the Sate Conference W.S.C.S. at United Methodist Church in St. Petersburg which was held April 15 thru the 17th. After the Conference she spent three days with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Mossersmith in Clearwater whose home is in South Bend, Ind. Sunday they drove Mrs. Longanecker home. Reports are the Conference was inspiring and educational as it was the first Conference of United Methodists the Southern Conference since uniting with Florida state.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Turngren of South Holland, Ill., visited the Raymond Fries last week. They also called on our friends in the Park.

The Fries have received word that their new granddaughter has been named Regina Marie.

Raymond and Margaret Fries observed their 29th anniversary and Raymond's birthday by having a barbecue supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Halfacre.

Homemakers Visit Alcoholic Center

There are 40 Alcoholic Rehabilitation Programs in the United States, and Avon Park ARC ranks third best in the nation. Twenty-three Extension Homemaker members and seven husbands returned to their homes in Avon Park, Sebring, and Lake Placid, April 17, after a three hour tour and lunch, learning what a fine program our county has to help the alcoholic.

Donald Thieme, director of information, set up the tour and was the main speaker. Five patients answered questions, and took the club on a tour of the departments in the building, introducing members to some of the staff.

In the ARC program they hold group psychotherapy, marathon therapy, vocational rehabilitation, and occupational therapy, family therapy. There are groups that meet regularly in many communities to help the alcoholic; Al-Anon, Alcoholics Anonymous, and Al-Ateen.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

Chains of chronic illness can't bind us forever to a sickly body. Christ Jesus showed men how to be free. "Wilt thou be made whole?" he asked. Listen Sunday, Apr. 27, 9:30 A.M. to WJCM to "Are We Willing to be Well?"

Panthers Split Doubleheader With St. Pete, Ends Season

Last Tuesday in St. Petersburg, South Florida Junior College Panthers split a doubleheader with St. Pete to close out the athletic season for the Panthers.

The Panthers almost accomplished a feat that has eluded them for three years. After Roy Nelson had pitched and Rionda, Gillis, Foster and Mann had batted the Panthers to a 5-3 first game victory, the Panthers nursed a 1-0 lead through six innings. The Panthers scored with two out in the fifth. Gillis singled and scored on a hit and run triple by Rionda.

The Panthers lost another run at the plate later as Gillis was called out sliding home. A perfect peg from the right fielder also cost the Panthers another run as Terry Mann and Sizemore's single.

In the seventh inning, Rewis had the St. Pete runner picked off but the ball went between the runner and the first baseman allowing the runner to go to third. He scored the tying run as the next man hit a two strike single.

In the bottom of the eighth St. Pete put runners on second and third with two outs. A slow roller to Starratt's left was bobbled and St. Pete scored its second unearned run.

In the top of the ninth the Panthers again threatened. Rewis and Starratt went down, but Sizemore singled. On the attempted steal of second the catcher's throw was wide and Sizemore was safe, but the umpire ruled that Gillis, the batter had interfered with the catcher's throw and the game was over. St. Pete winning 2-1. It was Rewis' best pitched game of the year and a tough one to lose.

For the Panthers baseball team it was a successful year and showed continued improvement as they won six games and lost 18. Seven of the 18 losses were by one run. The Panthers also set these new marks for school record:

Most wins in a season (6); first time to beat Manatee; first time to beat St. Petersburg; first time to beat Valencis; first time to beat Seminole; longest winning streak (3); most conference wins (3).

Individual records are: most wins in a season, Roy Nelson, three; most total wins in two years, Hoppy Rewis, four.

These are not outstanding records but when you consider the Panthers won only one game their first year, three games their second year and six games the third year, it shows improvement every year.

Our program is still a long way from matching Manatee, St. Pete, Brevard, etc., but for a bunch of kids to beat Manatee even once and Seminole, it's a feather in their caps. Somewhere, somehow, we must have additional financial help to get on a par with our competitors.

Child's Hearing Will Highlight HACUS Meeting Monday

A special program on hearing will highlight the April meeting of Highlands Association for Children Under Six (HACUS), Monday night. The session, set for 7:30 P.M. at Sebring First Christian Church, will be led by Mrs. Mary Ann Reddick.

"Teachers often have had opportunities to learn new ways of working with young children, but the mothers who really have the responsibility for the child's education do not always hear about new discoveries which could be so helpful—even exciting for mothers as they work with their children," said Mrs. Horton.

HACUS includes private and public school kindergartens and nursery schools in the county, church school classes and parents, Mrs. Horton said.

Attending the entire conference from April 16th thru 20th from this area were Mrs. Kathleen Whitcomb and Mrs. Rosa Lee from Avon Park and Mrs. Ray Waters and Mrs. Martha Horton from Sebring. The local organization known as Highlands Association on Children Under Six (HACUS) meets monthly.

Camp Wingman Plans For Summer

The Episcopal Camp and Conference Center four miles north of Avon Park is getting ready for a big Summer season of youth activity including horseback riding. An additional ten acres has been cleared out, fenced and a stable built, largely with volunteer help. More work groups are coming to further thee job and make ready for the horses.

Groups represent many parts of Florida coming for weekends to help. The incentive is free meals for the weekend in return for eight hours of work. A new outboard ski boat has arrived and a "Sailfish" is on the way, to add to the fleet of prams, rowboats, and the "Rebel" sloop. We hope to obtain a couple of canoes as well for this Summer. The lakefront building has been "Winterized" and work tables and sink added for craft work. An electric Kiln is being installed for ceramics.

Mr. E. R. Johnson, of Redeemer, Sarasota, a high school teacher, will again direct the entire Summer program, with a team of 10 college age counselors and a nurse. This year all camps will be "coed" and two week span offered as well as one week span (except the junior and senior high school camps of one week). There will also be an adult conference for those over 55 years of age, run by the Rev. John F. Mangrum, well known former rector of Redeemer, Avon Park.

The traditional camp for underprivileged children paid for by Episcopal churches throughout Florida, will continue.

There will be a "choir camp" week in the schedule. The Rev. J. L. Knapp serves as rector of the camp year round. While the camp program is operated for the youth and adults of the Episcopal Diocese of South Florida, non-Episcopalians are often in attendance and most welcome. Beside the worship and religious program, sports, crafts, adventure, and group projects are part of the busy and fascinating days for our youngsters.

Chancel Choir To Present Program Sunday

The Chancel Choir of the Union Congregational Church will present the program at the Family Night Supper on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock in Fellowship Hall. This is an annual event and Mrs. Victor Mickunas, choir director, will be in charge. Members and friends are asked to bring a covered dish and table service.

The Evening Circle will meet on Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hue Nunnallee on Lake Byrd.

Few Seek Lower Taxes

There are only about two dozen applications from Highlands County property owners to have their land assessed at the lower agricultural values. Tax Assessor Billy Martin said this week.

"We went by the law last year and got most of the applications ironed out," he explained.

The current applications are from those who did not file last year or are newly being used for agricultural purposes.

"We still have a few to check before they go before the Board of County Commissioners setting as the agricultural zoning board," he said.

Florida's so-called Green Belt law requires the county commissioners, the tax assessor and county agent to determine whether a tract of land is used for agricultural purposes and should be given the lower appraisal.

Fellowship Baptist Revival Starts Sunday

Fellowship Baptist Church of Avon Park announces a revival meeting to begin Sunday, Apr. 27, and continue through the following Sunday, May 4. Services will be held nightly at 7:30 at the church, located at 1000 Thomas Streeet, just east of U.S. Highway 27 in the north part of Avon Park.

Evangelist for the revival will be Dr. W. A. (Al) Hand, pastor of First Baptist Church in Frostproof.

Plenty of gospel music will be included at each service, according to Pastor Harrison Crews. Leading the music will be Miss Cheryl Guerndt of Avon Park. At the organ each night will be Mrs. Carol Jenkins, with Paul C. Foraker at the piano. Special singing will include music by the choir, a trio, and solo numbers from time to time.

Dr. Hand was pastor of Central Baptist Church of Leesburg four years prior to coming to Frostproof. Before that he pastored churches in Texas, Oklahoma, and California. He is a graduate of Southwestern Baptist Seminary of Fort Worth, Tex., and is a proven evangelistic type of pastor, according to Mr. Crews. The Frostproof church is currently enjoying a great year under his ministry.

Fellowship Church has been scheduling prayer meetings nightly this week in preparation for the revival, and Mr. Crews says the church is expecting a "great moving of God's spirit during the coming week."

The public is cordially invited to help the revival effort by attending each service.

PFC Will Present Service At Church of God

Pioneers For Christ, of Chicago, will be in Avon Park for one service only on Saturday, Apr. 26. Theirs is a ministry to the inter-city ghettos, gangs, etc., reaching the lost for Christ with a full-gospel message which transforms the aimless, purposeless life into a wholesome, well-founded citizen.

Through songs and testimony you will hear how God has changed their lives from a life in the Chicago streets to a life for Christ. You will hear how young men have been set free and then go back to the streets to win their buddy to Christ. You will be thrilled . . . both young and old will be challenged.

Don't miss this special service Saturday night at the Avon Park Church of God, 105 North Florida Avenue at 7:30 P.M.

1,200 People Attend Open House at Highlands County's New Juvenile Home Sunday

Eight boys and girls who have not had it so good in this tough old life will walk into a brighter world some time this weekend.

Dreamsville? Fairyland? It may very well be from where they're looking at it.

Highlands County's new juvenile home threw open its doors to the public last weekend and 1,200 to 1,500 people came to visit and admire before the eight children who currently are wards of the court move in. They now are at the old juvenile home.

The visiting public liked what it saw. There are pretties in the girls' four-bed dormitory, like snow white bedspreads with a pink velvet throw pillow; bright plaid spreads for the boys' dorm; burnt orange for the dorm that will serve either boys or girls. And handsome arrangements for flowers in the rooms and the baths.

The shiny modern baths have vanetted. There is a big kitchen with lots of mica cabinets, two refrigerators and two stoves. Throughout the home is a wall to wall beige carpet. The kitchen has terrazzo. The living room has a cozy corner with soft pumpkin color leather couches and a white table lamp.

This will be home. The likes of which most of the new occupants never have known. There is a wide lawn outside on which to romp. There will be swings, a ball diamond.

As visitors oh'd and ah'd and declared "I can't believe it!" they left over $1,200 in the Wishing Well which had been placed in the living room-dining room area.

Everything was in place Sunday for the visitors to see except the bedspreads in the boys and girls dorms and the chairs for the dining room.

The nursery was complete to child's bed, crib and bassinette. House parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd have a small private living room next to their bedroom and bath and in it were a play pen and swyngalong (automatic swing) for the tinier people who may be entrusted to them.

The dorms have a two-way window, through which the house parents may look without being seen. And an intercom keeps them informed as to what's going on in the house at all times.

On the sadder side, there is a restraint room for boys with two beds and mesh over the windows and another for girls.

Youth Care president, Mrs. Walter Rebman, who explains that most of the unfortunates "come to us in nothing but a blanket" pointed to the care which had been taken in the restraint rooms—like no glass mirrors. One 15-year-old girl recently had threatened suicide. There was nothing in these rooms which would have aided this child in carrying out her threat.

Most of the children funneled through the juvenile home to foster homes or on to correctional institutions or back to parents or other relatives are mostly unfortunate—underprivileged. Some few are seriously delinquent, and eventually end up at a state institution.

A total of 138 children, including 11 babies, were cared for by the Highlands County Juvenile Home last year, while 68 others were jailed.

The home is a five-acre tract of land donated by the City of Sebring near Fred Wild School. The children now being cared for all attend school.

It cost about $45,000 to erect and furnishing are estimated to have cost $7,000. It is air conditioned.

The county is leasing the home for the children who become wards of juvenile court, although public donations from hundreds of people, solicited through the Youth Care people, have brought the new home to reality.

Entertaining the visiting crowd during the weekend were Mrs. Mike Rapp at the organ, Bill Whedon at the accordion and the Fyre Combo.

Robert Lindsay, juvenile counselor for seven years, County and Juvenile Court Judge Mervin Rehrer and Marshall S. P. Pollard, three-time president of Youth Care, have been with Youth Care since it was chartered. Commented Lindsay:

"Making a pleasant atmosphere in the home will help condition the young minds of those living there."

To be on time for church Sunday, Apr. 27, be sure and set your clocks ahead one hour before retiring Saturday night.

Delegates From 70 Churches Attend Annual Conference In Orlando

Three hundred and five delegates from the 70 congregations of the United Church of Christ this afternoon concluded a three day annual meeting with a special service in the First Methodist Church of Orlando. The 60 ministers and 245 lay delegates heard an address by Rev. Nathanael Guptill of Connecticut and were led in music by massed choirs directed by William Hardy.

The Conference voted without dissent a resolution urging Florida schools and welfare officers to revise policies and practices covering unwed school girls. The Conference "deplores the human waste and human suffering resulting from the discharge of indigent pregnant school children from the public school systems of Florida and urges the public school authorities of each county in Florida to jointly establish and operate schools for the continuing education and care of pregnant school children."

Officers elected included Rev. E. Wallace Mast of Miami Beach as Moderator and a Winter Park attorney, Harold F. Ward III, Assistant Moderator. A Madeira Beach civil engineer, Leroy M. Chace, was elected treasurer.

Starting Friday evening, April 18, at the Robert Meyer Motor Inn, the program featured an address by the National Moderator, Dr. Gibson Daniels, who outlined the programs of the United Church of Christ and answered questions.

First United Church of Orlando served as official host, its pastor, James C. Trimble, presiding at the Sunday morning celebration of Holy Communion.

On Saturday night the delegates were treated to a real swinging youth-dominated coffee house program. The lights were dim, coffee tables filled the room, folk singing and guitar music prepared the way for intimate group conversations in small groups. Fifty college students from several Florida schools engaged their elders in dialogue about the church and the world.

The 87th Annual Meeting of the Florida Conference of the United Church of Christ will be held in Lake Worth in April 1970.

VOLUME XLV NUMBER 26 | AVON PARK, FLORIDA 33825—THURSDAY, MAY 1, 1969 | GL 3-4351 GL 3-4355 | 10c PER COPY

THE NEW Avon Park Post Office is well underway in being constructed. Workers now have blocks laid approximately ten feet high all the way around the 10,000 squa.e feet floor. Cost of construction is estimated at $180,000. It will have a 24,000 sq. ft parking lot.

Postmaster Announces New Routes

Postmaster Robert Young announced today that approval has been granted for the establishment of "Park and Loop" routes to serve the city delivery area of Avon Park, replacing the present bicycle routes.

On April 24, 1969, bids were published advertising for three vehicles to be leased by the Post Office Department to serve the three routes. Persons interested in leasing a vehicle to the Post Office Department to use on these routes may contact the Postmaster, Avon Park, for further information.

Establishment of these motorized routes is another step in the modernization of the Post Office Department under the able leadership Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

June 10 Set For Vote On $4.5 Million School Bond Issue

The proposal to authorize Highlands County School Board to sell up to $4.5 million in bonds to finance school construction will go before the voters on Tuesday, June 10.

Who will be eligible to vote is still a confused question, but in a special meeting on Tuesday morning the Highlands school board voted unanimously to bring the issue to a vote just one day after the county schools officially close the 1968-69 year.

School Board Attorney Frank E. Bryant advised the board that Florida's new constitution may provide that all persons paying county taxes—not necessarily real estate taxes—may be eligible to vote. Owners of property which is totally exempt may not be eligible to cast ballots.

Interpretation of the new constitution has had attorneys and members of the Florida Attorney General's staff busy for several weeks. Highlands School Superintendent George F. Douglass assured the board Tuesday that bond attorney Frank Watson of Jacksonville will send the board a complete opinion "very soon" and he added that "Watson will not take chances on any thing that might cause trouble in any later bond validation suit."

Elections Supervisor Roland X. Droit, who was present for the school board meeting, said eligibility to vote will begin with registration as a voter. The books will be open at the elections office in the county court house annex through May 9.

"Anyone who wishes to vote on June 10 must be registered to vote," Droit said, "and we can work out later about establishing eligibility as a taxpayer."

Board Pledge

At the request of George Hensley, a member of the citizens committee promoting the bond issue, the school board members formally promised that they would sell only as much of the $4.5 million bond issue as will be needed to finance construction of new high schools in Sebring and Avon Park and new classrooms for elementary and middle grades throughout the county.

Henry Bailey, chairman of the school board, said legislation which so far has been received wide support in Tallahassee, would make state money for construction available and assure the local board greater flexibility in its use.

In response to Hensley's question Tuesday, Bailey quickly said, "I am not anxious to pay any property tax if there is any other money available to build our schools. This board certainly is not going to impose any millage not necessary."

Col. Guy Campbell, executive for the Property Owners Association, asked, "Are you saying that any part of the $4.5 million not needed to build new schools will not be sold?"

Superintendent Douglass and Bailey pointed out the vote would be on authorization to "borrow up to $4.5 million," and the Highlands board would borrow only what would be needed to supplement state construction money. "We want to emphasize that the ceiling would be $4.5 million," Douglass said.

In the only other business considered at the Tuesday meeting, the school board approved rewriting of an application to get more federal money for a county school program.

Douglass said he had been advised that $110,000 will be available through the Florida Child Migrant Program. This is $27,800 more than the school board had originally asked for a Summer pre-school program and Summer training for teachers who will work in the new programs at Hopewell and E. O. Douglas schools next year.

Accused Murderer Set Free; Police Assailant Goes To Jail

An accused murderer went free and a convicted police assailant went back to prison after hearings in Circuit Court this week.

Circuit Judge Clifton M. Kelly granted a defense motion to drop charges and free Russell Chester Stackhouse, but denied a motion to free Kenneth J. Steinhauser.

Stackhouse, now 72 years old and in poor health, was first arrested in August, 1953, and charged with murdering his wife. The dismembered body of Janie Stackhouse was found in a shallow grave in an orange grove near the Stackhouse home in Avon Park.

The couple met through a lonely hearts club and had been married only a short time when Mrs. Stackhouse disappeared. It was one of this county's most sensational murder cases.

Stackhouse was declared legally insane, incompetent to stand trial and was ordered committed to a mental hospital —a move defense counsel later claimed is "tantamount to a jury verdict of acquittal" because of insanity.

In 1964 the staff of the mental hospital at Chattahoochee declared Stackhouse sufficiently recovered to stand trial and he was returned to Highlands County. While waiting disposition of the case Stackhouse became ill with shingles.

During his illness he entered a plea of guilty to a manslaughter charge and was sentenced to 10 years in prison. After serving two years of his sentence he successfully petitioned the court to set aside the plea and sentence entered while he was painfully ill and "not fully aware of what he was doing."

He asked for "speedy trial" on the original murder charge. Defense Counsel Edward C. Fiord petitioning for trial in the Fall Term, 1967; Spring Term, 1968, and Fall Term, 1968.

In the hearing this week Judge Kelly asked what plans the State Attorney's office had for trial and was told the prosecution has not been able to find witnesses to the 1953 events and so had no plans for trying Stackhouse.

Stackhouse, who has been free on bond since November, 1967, said he is in poor health and wishes to be free to spend his last years with his family.

Motion Denied

The 23-year-old Steinhauser did not fare so well in his bid to have set aside a five-year prison sentence for assault to murder in the first degree.

Steinhauser, a Kansas City salesman, and James Cohen had been charged with shooting and seriously wounding Avon Park Policemen Wayne Bass and Earl Gordon, February 27, 1967.

The policemen said they surprised Steinhauser and Cohen as they attempted a burglary. The pair, accompanied by Steinhauser's girl friend, Verla Jane Frye, escaped, but were later apprehended in California.

In his motion to have his sentence set aside, Steinhauser claimed he had been in police custody on another charge on the date of the shooting in Avon Park but he had agreed to plead guilty to gain the release of his girl friend.

He failed to convince Judge Kelly in a hearing this week, and the motion to vacate was denied.

Severs Resigns As Golf Course Greens Keeper

In a recent clash of personalities at the golf course, Jim Severs suddenly resigned as greens keeper and left town, with no forwarding address. As is frequently the case there has been no shortage of advisors among the members but all the factors in this clash of personalities are not known.

To fill the void a group of influential members requested that county commissioner, Cecil Skipper take over. Skipper stated at the meeting of the city council Monday night that he would accept temporary assignment to the post subject to the approval of the council. Needless to say when Cecil said he was the lowest paid man available offering to serve without pay the council whole heartedly approved the interim appointment, until a new keeper of the greens could be found.

Local National Guard Unit Leaves Sat. For Summer Encampment

The top-rated National Guard unit from this area takes off early Saturday morning for the earliest Summer encampment in the unit's history.

The six officers and 83 enlisted men of Battery B, Second Battalion, 116th Artillery, are scheduled to leave the armory at Avon Park at 6:30 A.M. Saturday. They will spend May 3-17 at Fort Stewart, Ga.

The Second Battalion, which has headquarters in Lakeland, has units in Lakeland, Bartow, Winter Haven and Haines City as well as the unit in Avon Park. Battery B includes men from Sebring, Lake Placid, Avon Park, Frostproof and Wauchula.

Commander is Capt. Ira C. McKenzie, formerly of the Avon Park Correction Institution staff who recently was named head of the correction division at the state prison at Raiford.

Executive officer for Battery B is First Lt. Carroll Lloyd of Sebring. First Lt. Ernest Gillilan of Sebring is forward observer and motor officer. Lt. Lloyd is employed as legislative auditor with offices in the county courthouse annex in Sebring. Lt. Gillilan is employed by Senkarik Glass and Paint Co.

Other officers in the battery are First Lt. Don G. Webb, an Orlando accountant who is fire direction control and mess officer; Second Lt. Joseph L. Lanier formerly of Wauchula now with Tampa Electric, forward observer and communications officer; Second Lt. Gary R. Roberts of Avon Park, APCI staff, forward observer and training officer.

Jerry B. Childress, an Avon Park television technician, is the battery's first sergeant.

Last year, when training in Summer camp was divided between artillery instruction and practice and riot training, Battery B won a superior rating.

Lt. Lloyd explained that teams from regular US Army evaluate the National Guard units as they are in Summer training. Emphasis is on combat efficiency of the unit. Battery B, which in the past has won direct fire awards, will compete on May 15 for the first battery award.

The battery officers are aiming to bring home both the firing award and another superior rating in combat efficiency, but they are less optimistic about winning the Eisenhower Trophy again. Two years ago Battery B won the big trophy for overall superior performance.

"Winning the Eisenhower Trophy is a once-in-a-lifetime honor," says Lt. Lloyd. "We'll be trying, but it's almost too much to hope we can win it again."

Full Schedule

The full schedule for Battery B calls for leaving Avon Park at 6:30 Saturday morning and travelling to Folkston, Ga., where the battery is to camp on the high school grounds Saturday night.

Arrival at Ft. Stewart is scheduled for mid-morning on Sunday. Unlike other years when field training was late in the schedule, the field exercises will commence early—on May 6.

Three nights are to be spent on bivouac. Formal parade is scheduled for Saturday, May 10. Most units will have Saturday afternoon and Sunday off, but Battery B has been assigned guard duty for weekend.

The graded army training test is to be administered on May 14 and the firing tests on May 15. Training in a mock-up of a Vietnamese village is tentatively scheduled for May 16.

The unit leaves Ft. Stewart early on May 17 and plans to arrive in Avon Park about 8 P.M. that night.

Shoplifting Serious In Avon Park

Mayor James M. Doerr said this week that shoplifting has become a serious problem in Avon Park and is costing local merchants thousands of dollars annually, and all murchants who apprehend shoplifters should turn them over to the police for proper handling.

"We are making every effort to curtail shoplifting in this area. Bond has been increased from $50 to $100 effective immediately said Doerr.

The police department has been instructed to give local merchants full cooperation in breaking up this practice. It is felt that close cooperation between the police and local citizens is the only way to combat shoplifting effectively.

Shoplifting is a serious offense and is punishable by a fine of up to $100 or 60 days in jail or both.

Accident Report Released

The State Department of Public Safety this week released accident figures for the year of 1968, showing there were 495 persons injured in 683 accidents in Highlands County.

There were 12 fatal accidents in which 15 persons lost their lives. Ten of the fatal accidents occurred in rural areas and 391 of the accidents were in rural areas.

Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in the Chamber office Thursday, May 1 at 8 P.M. Members are urged to attend.

City May Land Law Enforcement Academy with Property Near SFJC

At the meeting of the city council held on Monday night considerable discussion revolved around the sale of land in the vicinity of the new college campus. Two parties are interested in the purchase of sites.

One proposed purchase is of approximately five acres for the construction of a law enforcement training academy. The other proposed purchase is by a Mr. Fazzini for the manufacture of restaurant trailers. Fazzini's plan includes the operation of one of these trailers to furnish restaurant service to the college students.

A letter from the local Chamber of Commerce raised objection to the sale of any land in this industrial park area for other than industrial purposes. A motion to this effect was carried by a three to two vote of the council.

Following this action, a motion to work out a five acre tract of land near the campus for a police academy was unanimously carried.

A wedge shaped piece of land with approximately 400 feet on Highway 27 was discussed as a possible site for Fazzini's enterprise. Scott made a motion and Lane seconded it that if this piece of land was not wanted as a part of the police academy site it be sold to Fazzini. The motion however ended in a tie vote, with Mr. Howard abstaining.

Other Action

In other actions of the city council the city clerk was requested to place ads in the paper for a second lifeguard at the city beach. A motion was carried unanimously to employ Billy Richards as full-time lifeguard at $1.50 per hour provided that he has a Red Cross life saving certificate.

A lease satisfactory to the airport committee the city council and to Shelly Marrs has finally been worked out. Although Marrs has now incorporated as Modern Aireo Refurnishing Service, Inc. the lease is being prepared with the personal endorsement of Shelly Marrs in regard to the transfer of stock.

Cecil Skipper announced that as county commissioner he is seeking permission of the State Road Dept. to remove signal lights from along the Atlantic Coast Line tracks, where no longer in use. His objective concurred in by the council is to place these at essential crossings of the newly formed Seaboard Coastline R.R. within the city limits.

Little League Will Parade Saturday

The Little League season will begin with a parade Saturday, May 3 at 3 P.M. Parade route will be from the post office to the railroad. The Avon Park High School band will lead the parade.

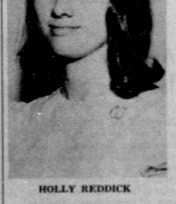

Following the parade a triple header will be played at the Little League Field on N. Anoka Ave. In the first game Kiwanis meets Bagwell at 4 P.M.; the Lions and First Baptist play the second game at 6 P.M.; and the nightcap at 8 P.M. will be between Avon Citrus Bank and Rotary.

Fire Protection Outside City Costs Residents

The problem of answering fire calls outside the city limits was again before the council Monday. It was pointed out that residents within the limits are being heavily penalized on insurance costs due to fire department commitments to serve beyond the city limits.

Sebring and other communities have secured a better insurance rating by refusing to serve outside the corporate limits.

A motion proposed by Howard was passed after much discussion, to require a $2 per thousand of assessed value toll for fire protection outside the city limits, after a survey by the fire chief and his assistants. The motion seconded by Martin ended in a tie vote when Duggan abstained, requesting a little more time for analysis of the situation.

Highlands County Welfare Cost To Jump As Result of Court

Highlands County's welfare costs appear certain to take a big jump upward as a result of the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision abolishing residency requirements.

And how the county is going to foot the additional bill, described as "staggering" is anybody's guess. Florida now has a one-year residence requirement.

"We have had no word yet on when the directive goes into effect and how far the county is expected to go toward carrying it out," said Mrs. Anna Dee Church, Highlands County Welfare director.

"But it will be terrible. We denied at least 200 cases this Winter because of the residence requirement."

The county welfare office supplements state welfare. Nursing home care now starts at $300 a month, of which the state pays only $120 and boarding homes at $250, of which the state pays only $75.

The state welfare office will also feel the impact locally, but fortunately for the county its funds come from state and federal sources. Mrs. Sadie Salley, supervisor of state welfare in Highlands and Glades counties, said old age assistance in Highlands was denied 10 cases last year and aid to dependent children in nine cases because they could not meet residency requirements.

The average spent per year per case on old age assistance is $587, on aid to dependent children, $768 per family. For the 19 cases refused, this could have totaled $12,782 last year.

In addition to those cases actually denied, Mrs. Sally said, numerous people telephoned to learn residency requirements and, upon learning them, did not file application.

Mrs. Salley's office has as yet had no directive in the wake of the Supreme Court decision, and "we are waiting for an interpretation. The test case was on family aid to dependent children."

Mrs. Church pointed out that counties throughout the state send supplementing state and federal funds "which are not taking care of the needs of the indigents entirely. Counties and states have to work together and we do splendidly as long as the money holds out."

The state and federal governments pay no doctor bills. "We have to pay doctor bills and medication and you see where that puts us."

Highlands County's administrator-engineer already is worrying about this year's budget with the prospect of considerably decreased state monies. For instance, should a bill now proposed setting allotments for public health purposes on a per capita basis, Highlands County's share of the state funds would drop from about $34,000 to about $18,000, he pointed out. And other legislation now pending in other fields will affect county funds.

Mrs. Church said she is "fearful the Legislature won't pass the Medicaid bill and we will lose all those federal funds."

Northerners, feeling their indigent old folks will be better off in the sunshine, are a cinch to bring them down here "and dump them on us," Mrs. Church pointed out.

"They do it now. We try to get them to go back to where they can get their assistance and where they had residence.

"We have numbers of people like this. This will really open the door, no question about it. It will be terrible. Poor old Highlands County. All the people can come in from the larger counties with bigger budgets. A lot of them wear out their welcome elsewhere and are running from bills and problems and come here. We have numbers of families who come into the area to be near relatives who are at the Avon Park Correctional Institution or at the Alcoholic Rehabilitation Center. I try to get them on the road back home immediately. What can I do now?"

There is some thinking in the state that snowbirds won't flock to Florida because of this state's bare-bones welfare program. Although Florida ranks 13th in wealth in the nation, it ranks 47th in welfare payments. New York, for instance, gives persons on welfare some $200 a month and picks up most of their medical and hospital costs. The maximum in Florida is $75 a month for old age assistance.

FLORIDA ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION PROGRAM

alco-topics

By PAUL C. FORAKER
Editor, Information Services

During the past hundred years there have been several major changes in America drinking patterns.

Back before the turn of the century, more alcohol was consumed in the form of distilled spirits (whiskey, gin, etc.) than beer and wine combined.

Presently beer is the most prevalent alcoholic beverage. A hundred years ago distilled spirits accounted for about 75% of the total consumption of absolute alcohol, allowing for the smaller concentration of alcohol in beer and wine. Now this figure is just over 40%. Most of this change has come from an increase in beer consumption which currently accounts for about half of the absolute alcohol consumed--compared to a hundred years ago when beer accounted for only 20%. Wine accounts for the other 10%.

Yet, although percentage-wise people are drinking less "hard liquor" and more beer, alcoholism remains itself as an ever-increasing problem in our society. The answer to this riddle is simple: An individual can become an alcoholic by drinking only beer just as easily as he can using whiskey or wine.

Another major change in American drinking patterns is the preferred settings for drinking. As recently as 50 years ago most drinking took place in public places such as bars and saloons. Nowadays two-thirds of all imbibing is done in homes and private clubs. Some say this is a good trend; others are not so sure. You can find some pretty strong opinions on both sides of the question.

Another recent trend — and we're not saying it's necessarily a good one — is the greater acceptance of drinking in the presence of women, and their increasing participation in drinking alcoholic beverages. By the way, the male-to-female alcoholism rate is now pegged at one-to-one.

Regardless of trends, alcoholism is the chief concern of Florida Alcoholic Rehabilitation Program as it works in the fields of prevention and treatment.

This column receives many letters inquiring as to admission policies of FARP. In other words, what does it take to be accepted for treatment at the Avon Park in-patient Center or at any of the five out-patient clinics located at Miami, Tampa, Orlando, Jacksonville, and Pensacola?

The answers are simple: Admission to the Center must be effected out through any licensed Florida physician or osteopathic physician, or through one of the five out-patient clinics. Admission forms may be had by writing the Admissions Department at the Center in Avon Park. Treatment at the clinics may be had by merely calling or dropping in for an appointment. Because FARP is an agency of the State of Florida, only bona fide Florida residents may be accepted for treatment.

LEWIS LEWELLYN

Misunderstood, Misrepresented

The young people of our country are being grossly misunderstood and misrepresented.

They are being misunderstood by their elders, who have associated youth with irresponsible rebellion.

They are being misrepresented by the three or four percent of their age group who have rebelled so vociferously against all authority that they have created the impression among some of us that they constitute a majority.

The truth that often escapes our notice is that there are many reasonable, responsible young people for every one of the minimiinority of militant malcontents.

What a Student Thinks

One of these young people—a high school senior—has told us what he thinks, in a letter to the editor of his home-town paper.

"The violence and disruption going on in colleges across our country today are a disgrace to the American nation," he says. "When I go to college, I don't want to be kept from classes by a few asinine idiots . . . Millions of dollars are wasted each year by putting up with spoiled brats that want everything their own way."

This young student—who is, I am sure, far more typical of the majority than are the bearded militants who are bent on destroying what they cannot control—points out that students sometimes break the rules and he adds, "When the parents, teachers, and authorities don't crack down on students, they have no right to complain afterwards."

Where have we failed the young people?

Some of us have failed to obey the Biblical admonition, "Train up a child in the way he should go and, when he is old, he will not depart from it."

Some of us have listened too well to the once popular but now discredited theory that children should be allowed to do whatever they want to do, rather than being required to obey their parents and other authorities.

How about returning to the teachings of the Bible—the book which was so highly honored by the men who led our country to greatness?

Useful, Respectable Citizens

Of this book, John Quincy Adams said, "So great is my veneration for the Bible that the earlier my children begin to read it, the more confident will be my hope that they will prove useful citizens to their country and respectable members of society."

Henry Ward Beecher said, years ago, "The Word of God tends to make large-minded, noble-hearted men."

If the Bible is eliminated from the education of a young person, the surest foundation for a successful, satisfying life has been left out.

We should not be surprised when a building collapses, if we have failed to build on a sound foundation.

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW

Tax-Exempt Bonds

By Babson's Reports Incorporated

Wellesley Hills, Mass., May 1, 1969. Having recently completed their annual accounting with state and federal tax agencies, investors are more conscious of taxes and their effect on income.

The higher-bracket taxpayer is particularly aware of the tax bite and consequently should seek out opportunities that will allow him to retain more of his investment income.

Some will look at oil ventures and cattle ranches, which, while providing high expense deductions, could prove to be too risky for most investors. It is at this point that consideration should be given to tax-exempt municipal bonds.

Issued by cities, towns, and other local governmental bodies, "municipals" provide the funds to carry out major municipal projects. One may also include in this group municipal industrial development bonds, issued to finance commercial ventures within a community.

Income from such bonds has been exempt from federal income taxes and also, in some instances, from income taxes of the issuing state. Hence they bear a coupon rate lower than corporate issues.

Coupon Rate vs. Yield

A word about "yield." Prices for bonds are usually quoted in terms of yield to maturity, which is a reflection of coupon rate and the length of time the bond has to run to maturity. This also translates into a dollar price for the bonds. (Dollar price runs counter to yield—as price declines, yield rises.)

A bond priced below par will have a yield to maturity higher than its coupon. Also, if held to maturity, a portion of the proceeds could represent a capital gain. Recently the average corporate bond yield, as expressed by Moody's averages, was 7.21%.

On the same date the average yield on municipal bonds was 5.28%. This latter rate would, in itself, seem highly favorable —tax exempt! But the advantage is even greater for the higher-bracket taxpayers, as the following table illustrates:

Yields on Tax-Free Bonds	Equivalent Yields on Taxable Income for Various Tax Brackets
	36%	42%	45%	50%
2.50%	3.44%	4.30%	4.55%	5.00%
2.75	4.30	4.74	5.00	5.50
3.00	4.70	5.17	5.47	6.00
3.50	5.47	6.03	6.38	7.00
3.75	5.87	6.46	6.83	7.50
4.00	6.25	6.89	7.30	8.00
4.50	7.04	7.75	8.20	9.00

An investor in a 50% tax bracket holding a municipal bond bearing a 4% coupon receives the equivalent of an 8% return on a taxable bond.

Selection

With the great number of state and municipal subdivisions in existence, there is obviously a wide choice of municipal bonds available. However, in selecting an issue we must look beyond the purpose of the issue, or even the yield.

While most municipal bodies probably will not default on their bonds, this has happened. A measure of the quality of a bond may be found in its rating —usually Moody's—from highest AAA to the seldom seen C. These ratings are essentially an evaluation of the issuing body, based on a variety of factors, roughly comparable to an individual's credit rating.

As might be expected, the better-rated issues will command higher prices (and produce lower yields) than those of lesser quality. This is also true of the bonds of a large, well-known community, as compared with those of a small community; the bonds of the lesser-known issuer will be less marketable, especially in small or odd lots.

In this situation it is possible for an investor to find himself forced to hold bonds to maturity because there is no ready market at realistic prices.

Tax-exempt bond investments, perhaps more than other types of investment, must be personalized. But we offer, as suggestions, a few issues which look attractive to the Babson's Reports staff.

First is the Illinois Toll 4¼'s of 1998, yielding 5.05% to maturity. Second is the Fairfax County, Va., Water Authority 5's of 2007, yielding 5.22%. Also, we like the Austin, Texas, School District 4.90% of 1991, yielding 5.25%.

Highlands Gets $183,691 In School Funds

Educational funds totaling almost $40 million were distributed to Florida county school boards for use by the state's 67 counties this month, Comptroller Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson, Jr., reported today.

Dickinson said this month's release was about 65 per cent higher than the disbursement in April, 1968, when $24,694,098 went out to the county school boards.

The amount received by Highlands County this month compared with the April, 1967, distribution was $183,691 compared to $118,263 a year ago.

Farmers seldom worry over getting their animals to eat their food. They watch the kind and quality presented to them. Ministers with shrinking congregations should take note.

Any woman who doesn't pretend to know a thing can make a fool out of a man who knows it all.

Save Free TV Drive Being Pushed Here

The national campaign to SAVE FREE TV has enlisted the local support of Southside Rocking Chair Theatre, it was announced by manager John E. Charron.

Few people Charron stated, are aware that the Federal Communications Commission has authorized Pay TV beginning June 12, 1969 and that unless Congress enacts legislation prior to such date amending the Communications Act, prohibiting the FCC from authorizing Pay TV, Pay TV will become a reality on that date and mark the beginning of the end of the public's right to free television viewing.

Mr. Charron declared that Pay TV, in any form, is a massive giveaway to private interests and that unless the public registers its protest to their U.S. Senators and Congressmen, they will find themselves having to subscribe and pay for the same type of television programs they now receive on free television.

"The objective of the national committee," Mr. Charron declared, "is to join with local, civic, fraternal, labor, social, old age, school, hospital and other groups in soliciting a minimum of 25,000,000 signatures on petitions urging their Senators and Congressmen to take immediate action to preclude the FCC from authorizing Pay TV, in any form, whether over-the-air or by cable, and to preserve their right to free television viewing.

"There are many people in our community," Mr. Charron added, "who depend on free television as their main source of entertainment, recreation, education and information, who would be unable to pay for programs on Pay TV. Some of these people are shut-ins, aged or sick. In some cases where there are children in the family the parents would be hard pressed to pay the children's viewing bills, no less their own. These people, as well as all members of the public, have the right to the free airwaves, which should not be usurped for the benefit of special interests.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

OLD LADY NICOTINE NOW AHEAD OF MARS

John W. Williams, a St. Petersburg man, sent to the Tampa Tribune some statistics on tobacco and war that need reprinting in all the papers of Christendom: Think these facts over when you watch the ladies and gentlemen sucking cigarettes, amid scenes of heavenly beauty, as displayed on that wonderful, thing called "TV":

"A recent news broadcast said that 198 men were killed in Vietnam that week. The same day the Tampa Tribune listed statistics of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, stating that each year there are 50,000 deaths from lung cancer, 25,000 from emphysema, and that one-third of the deaths of men between the ages of 35 and 60 are related to cigarette smoking.

"This official report means that about a thousand men die each week from lung cancer, 500 from emphysema, and many more than both of these from other diseases caused by cigarette smoking.

"This means that for every soldier killed in Vietnam last week five persons died at home from lung cancer; one half of that amount from emphysima, and more than both of these diseases died from other trouble caused directly by cigarette smoking.

"Can the tobacco industry and its Washington lobby be so strong politically that we will permit this horrible slaughter of our men and women to continue? I wonder."

SENATE CRITICIZES

Howseat? Howz at? Oh, yes, I see. I see. Kirk is a Republican; the men he fired are old-line Democrats! How natural! Kirk fired a "Democrat" here in Polk County, and he wound up convicted of being "light-fingered." When one party stays in office for a century or more, it is natural for things like that to happen.

This is one of the blessings of having two political parties, but some of our people took a long time to find it out. It happened in Kansas and the Republicans lost the statehouse; it happened here and there and is happening oftener all the time, as people learn how to run their own government. What this nation needs is fewer Democrats and Republicans and more Independents! Selah!

LISTEN TO THE SOLONS HOWL!

The vetoing of the outrageous raise the legislature voted for themselves by a wise Governor named Kirk, caused an almost universal hurrah among the newspapers and voters of Florida. Now and then, papers like the Tampa Tribune took the side of the legislators. This paper printed a list of what wonderful salaries some of the states paid their "Solons," and more than intimated that Kirk should get something like the dose handed out to assassins and people who object to town dogs barking all night in the next yard. I can remember teaching history to kids and telling them about barefooted men and boys wading through the mud and snow and risking their lives in the service of their country, under a gent named Washington. Most of them never got a "Continental" for their sacrifice. In these days of world-wide warfare threatening our country, and taxpayers groaning under ever-increasing burdens, a raise in salary of ONE HUNDRED PER CENT, not mentioning all the other digs they make into the yoeman's pocket, is not to be pardoned because it is the custom in the states. Not in my opinion, at least. A Solon, working a month or two (many of them taking bribes at that) and then sitting on their pants practicing law the balance of the year, raising his own salary that much makes one's "gorge rise," as Shakespeare said once.

Kirk's veto gets 95% of approval from the burdened taxpayers, many of them watching the price of living shoot skyhigh all the time, and he can have another term as Governor, if he can stand it.

Many of these "Solons" will come up wondering what hit them when the voters get a whack at them.

Of course, Kirk is a Republican, so the Tampa Tribune is expected to join the "Solons" and add its voice to their howls. That's how it gets its bread and butter. Think of YOUR OWN INTERESTS, Mr. Voter!

Your Social Security

Question — My medical expenses in 1968 were less than $50. Am I entitled to any reimbursement for those expenses?

Answer — No. Medical insurance does not pay any of the first $50 in medical expenses for 1968. However, if any of these expenses were incurred during the last three months of 1968, these expenses can count toward your $50 deductible for 1969.

Question—I receive social security benefits on my husband's record. I applied for Medicare, and my Medicare card has his social security number on it. Since I have a social security number of my own, shouldn't my card have my number rather than his?

Answer — No; since you receive benefits on your husband's record, his number must be on your Medicare card.

Question—I will be 65 in July but I do not plan to retire until December. Should I wait until December to file my retirement papers?

Answer.—No. You should file two or three months before you are 65. Your application for retirement payments is also an application for Medicare. By filing early your health insurance coverage under Medicare will be effective the month you are 65.

Question— I am signed up for Medicare, when I went to the hospital in July of 1968, I had to pay the first $40. In January of this year, the same hospital charged me $44. Why?

Answer—Due to the rising cost of hospital services, the deductible under the hospital part of Medicare was raised from $40 to $44 for the first 60 days of hospitalization. This increase was effective January 1, 1969.

Average Family Faced With Housing Shortage; High Interest

Now that the peak home-buying season of the year is at hand, more Highlands County families than usual are expected to be in the market.

Among the problems that will confront them are the limited supply of new houses available this year, the increased cost, the high interest rates on mortgages and the monthly carrying costs.

Under present conditions, how much can a local family with average income afford to spend for a home?

According to recommendations from the American Bankers Association and others, the amount should be not much more than twice its annual income, before taxes.

In practice, the ratio is usually lower than that for families in the upper brackets and somewhat higher for those with smaller incomes.

Using these guidelines, the average-income family in Highlands County can afford a house costing about $18,500. The controlling factor is its gross income, before Federal taxes, which is approximately $7,100, according to most recent figures.

This represents, in many families, the combined earnings of two or more people.

An investment of this size is more than can be considered by families in many parts of the country, because of lower incomes.

Highlands County families that enjoy above-average incomes may spend much more for their homes while using a smaller proportion of income for the purpose.

Those in the $20,000-a-year bracket could comfortably go to $40,000 or more for a home, under the formula, but frequently do not. Those in the $7,000 range, however, might have to spend up to $17,500, or 2½ times earnings, to get satisfactory housing.

As for the monthly expenses for taxes, mortgage, insurance, utilities and maintenance, they should add up to not more than one-fifth of monthly income.

Health Director Resigns In Fued

A long-standing feud between the county health director and Highlands County commission has resulted in the resignation of Dr. John Dillard Workman.

Dr. Workman, who succeeded Dr. William Hill, Jr., two and a half years ago, said he has submitted his resignation to Dr. Wilson T. Sowder, state health officer. He named June 30, end of the state health department fiscal year, as terminal date for his services as the Highlands County health director.

While the resignation applies to a three-county position — health director for Highlands, Glades and Hendry counties—it is uncertain whether Dr. Workman's services to Glades and Hendry counties will be terminated.

Personal Problems

Jean M. Whitaker, chairman of the Highlands County commissioners, said Tuesday, "We have no official notice of Dr. Workman's resignation, but I expected it. There have been rumors about it for two or three weeks. He was not able to keep personnel problems in hand."

Vice-chairman Earl Crutchfield, frequent critic of county and state health department procedures, was sharper in his comments on the resignation: "Good riddance."

Crutchfield said the staff of the county health department had threatened to walk out en masse because of "favoritism within the staff."

Complaints were laid before Dr. Malcolm Ford, deputy state health officer, in conferences here and, Crutchfield said, Dr. Ford agreed that his investigations revealed serious "lack of communication."

The county commission and Dr. Workman were frequently at odds over money. Last Fall the commissioners ran afoul of state personnel procedures in their attempt to give staff raises while denying Dr. Workman a pay boost.

In the end the Highlands commissioners capitulated and accepted the state's recommendation of $17,500 as Highlands' share of the health director's salary. (The other two-fifths of the director's salary comes from Glades and Hendry counties).

Chairman Whitaker complained that the director spends more than two-fifths of his time in the smaller counties.

Division of Unit

While the Highlands County commission has not officially heard of the Workman resignation it did receive a copy of a letter Dr. Ford sent to the Hendry commission.

In the letter Dr. Ford said the state does not see any reason to dissolve the tri-county health unit as Dr. Workman had suggested.

When contacted in Sebring, Dr. Workman denied he had recommended the division of the unit, but rather the Glades and Hendry county commissioners, when they learned of his resignation, had approached him and asked him to stay as health director for the two smaller counties.

Dr. Workman said he had resigned because of the "difficulties posed by all the travel required." He said travel among the clinics in the three counties come to not less than 2,000 miles per month.

"My present car is less than a year old and it has 33,000 miles on it," the doctor explained. "Travel on 27 is really something. First it's the tourists, then oranges, then vegetables, and now the four-laning puts an additional strain on drivers who have to make almost daily trips on the road."

He said he was willing to stay on as health director in Glades and Hendry counties, pointing out that the distance to travel among Clewiston, LeBelle and Moore Haven "is not much more than going from Lake Placid to Sebring to Avon Park."

He added that he would like to be nearer his aged parents who reside in Lake Worth.

Dr. Workman agrees with the Highlands County commissioners on one point: the county needs an independent health department.

Commissioner Cecil P. Skipper, said there had been some discussion of a different type organization within the health department to allow for a full-time physician who would be actively involved in treatment of indigent patients.

Crutchfield suggested working out an arrangement between the Highlands General Hospital board for the county and hospital to share a physician's time and salary.

Whitaker said that while he favors an independent unit the state health department has indicated it will not agree to a joint arrangement with another governmental agency—like the hospital board—and would approve such an arrangement only on a temporary basis.

He said the state health department had said they do not have any applicants to be recommended to this area at this time. The health director hired by the three counties must be approved by the state.

The Bible says: "They had no poets, therefore they live not." History tells us that two other men (Samuel Prescott and William Dawes) were equally involved in the Midnight Ride of Paul Revere—Longfellow made Revere immortal in his poem, and the other two are overlooked.

Plan Works Out For SBA Ties In County

The way was paved this week for the Small Business Administration to help business in this county by guaranteeing loans in the area.

The board of directors of Sebring Chamber of Commerce on Monday approved a plan for cooperating with the SBA to aid small business firms in the county which are in need of financial assistance.

All banks in the county have agreed to cooperate, a Chamber spokesman said.

Miami headquarters of the SBA serves this area and has authorized the Chamber to set up appointments for its authorized representatives to come to the county to explain the provisions of SBA guaranteed loans. The loans are arranged through local banking facilities and there are immediate participating loans available to businesses in financial distress.

Businessmen who are interested in obtaining full details are requested to contact the Sebring Chamber of Commerce and make an appointment to meet the SBA representatives. Such plans are reported to now be operating in Vero Beach, Eau Gallie, Fort Myers and Sarasota.

Chamber officials assured interested business people there is no obligation or expense in making inquiries and obtaining information about SBA loans.

Any life can be long and tiresome if one sits idly by, looking out of a window.

Shirley Hardee Honored By Church Women

Wesley Hall of the First United Methodist Church was the setting for a lovely miscellaneous shower, honoring Miss Shirley Faith Hardee, who will become the bride of Michael Dean Garrett of Springfield, Pa. at 7 P.M., May 5.

The well attended shower was given by the WSCS, Wesleyan Service Guild and all circles of the church, Friday evening, Apr. 25.

The Hall was gaily decorated with arrangements of Spring flowers, and a wishing well in which all the guests was asked to make a wish for the bridal couple, and drop it in the well. The bride-elect then read them to the guests. The bride-elect and her mother were presented with rose corsages.

Mrs. Bell Martin attended the bride's book.

Two refreshment tables were placed at one end of the hall from which punch, sheet cake, snacks and nuts were served. A miniature bride's cake was placed on one which was topped with a bride and bridegroom. Arrangements of roses were also featured on these tables.

The two gift tables, at the opposite end of the hall held arrangements of flowers, an umbrella and a wedding bell. Shirley received many beautiful and useful gifts, which filled both gift tables.

She was assisted in opening her gifts by her mother, and Mrs. Don Hardee.

Woman's work is never done—at least, not on the days dad is left in charge of the house.

Cathrin Shupp-Rev. Connie Westberry Married in Eloise

Miss Cathrin Shupp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Shupp, Eagle Lake and Rev. Connie Westberry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Westberry, Avon Park, were united in holy wedlock, March 22, in the Eloise Church of God, Eloise, Fla.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. J. D. Free. Mrs. Edward Broom, organist, accompanied the soloists, Miss Diann Whidden and Larry L. Tillman with nuptial music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal gown which she fashioned and made, in white satin, with a chapel train of chantilly lace. Her shoulder length multi-tiered veil of illusion was held in place by a satin rose. She carried a cascade of miniature red carnations centered with a white orchid.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Norrell and Mrs. Gary Oliue, who were dressed identical in rose satin with red velvet ribbon. They carried arrangements of red and white carnations.

Miss Darlene McKinley flower girl wore a matching dress of rose satin. Miss Rhonda McKinley and Eddie Broom were ring bearers.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pastel green.

The bridegrom's mother wore a light blue shift with lace overlaid.

David N. Westberry served the groom as best man. Ushers were Kenneth Spurlock and Bobby J. Tillman.

The reception was held in the dining hall of the church. Diann Whidden attended the bridebook.

Assisting in serving were Mrs. D. L. Free, Miss Sandy Yeluenton, Miss Reva Stewart and Mrs. Alton Whidden. The couple will make their home in Eloise.

Each day's production of postage stamps, by the U. S. Government, would cover some acres, and be worth some $60 million.

Grange 203 Hold Meeting

Avon Park Grange No. 203 met in regular session Tuesday evening, Apr. 22, with Master Louise Clarke in the chair.

National, state, county and local Granges have definite safety and accident-prevention programs and many worthwhile projects have been successfully completed.

The Tuesday evening program was in charge of the lecturer and all of the members took part in discussion on various phases of traffic safety.

More people are killed on our highways than in all of the wars the United States has fought. A National Safety Council report revealed that 98% of the fatal accidents are caused by drivers and only 2% by mechanical difficulties. The two classifications of speeding drivers and drinking drivers account for an estimated 83% of the fatal accidents. Perhaps we should give more emphasis to the three Cs—Courtesy, Caution and Consideration in our own driving habits. According to a police report, here are the five most frequent causes of accidents:

1. Following too close to another car.
2. Failing to give the pedestrian the right-of-way.
3. Failing to give another vehicle the right-of-way.
4. Failing to stop on signal.
5. Improper turn—failing to keep to the right and disregard of signs.

A local reprot brought out that there has already been 59 accidents in Avon Park during the first three months of this year, and one fatality. During 1968 there were 145 accidents and three fatalities.

Last year more than a million cars were stolen in the United States. More than 80% of the cars stolen had their doors unlocked and nearly half of these had the keys in the ignition.

More disturbing is the fact that auto theft has started more youngsters on a life of crime than any other thing. More than 50% of the cars stolen were taken by persons under the age of -18, and 90% by persons under the age of 25.

One of the most effective ways to cut down on this crime would be for each of us to lock our car before leaving it—even for a few minutes. Do not think "it can't happen to me."

Thought for the day — the thing which must be clearly understood is that most accidents need never happen if we were to observe the rules of safety.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Louise Clarke. The next meeting wil lbe held at the First United Methodist Church on Tuesday, May 13, at 8 P.M.

Eight and Forty Salon 687 Donate High Chair

Mrs. John P. Arnold, Mrs. Samuel McConnell of Sebring, Mrs. Edward Teppert and Mrs. Viola Vorisek of Avon Park, visited the W. T. Edwards TB Hospital in Tampa, last Friday and presented a high chair which had been donated by Eight and Forty Highlands Salon 687.

A subsidiary organization of the American Legion Auxiliary the Eight and Forty is dedicated to Fun-Fellowship and Service. Their major project is that of Tuberculosis in children.

When the American Legion Auxiliary's representative to the TB hospital learned that there were many small children that were not able to be fed at the table due to the fact that there were no high chairs she passed this information along to the Eight and Forty Salons of this area.

The chair which was donated by the Highlands Salon was the fifth high chair to be presented by Eight and Forty. Members of Salon 687 were assured by the hospital authorities that this was ample to meet the children's needs.

During a tour of the facilities members of Eight and Forty learned of many items which would add much to the comfort of the patients of the children's ward.

Will Meet With Property Owners

Good Spring Weather Brings More Golfers Out To Play

The lovely Spring weather continues to encourage good amount of play at the Avon Park Golf Course. We have grown enough now that when some of our Northern tourists return home we still have enough members and greens fees to keep us busy.

Here are the results of some of the tournaments run last week (and which we will continue to run throughout the Summer.) Results of Pro Am Best Ball played April 23—six teams competed with Lou Alleman's team winning with a net 59. (It was a best ball of the foursome using the handicap strokes where they fall on the score card). The rest of the players with Lou were Bob Young, Bill Reck and Auggie Berline.

On Thursday we were host to the Polk County Womens' Golf Association. There was a very good turnout with 55 ladies from the various clubs participating. Everyone was quite pleased with our golf course and we were very happy to have them play here. We look forward to having them back in the future.

Saturdays point tourney resulted in a tie at plus six—Aaron Cravens and Guy Garrett.

Sundays mixed scotch foursome was won by Hugh (Bud) Dowling and Tommie Reck with a net 70.

Barnacle Goose

In medieval times the fact that no eggs or goslings of the species were ever found gave rise to the legend that the barnacle goose emerged, fully developed, from barnacles, hence its name.

Girl Scouts Have Successful Campout

Over 100 Girl Scouts, Brownies and their leaders enjoyed an unforgetable experience in camping at Highlands Hammock State Park on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Apr. 25, 26 and 27.

The Scouts postponed the opening of their camp from 10 A.M. on Friday until 3 P.M. that same day. This change was to enable the girls to participate in the inter-county physical fitness competition under the leadership of Miss Ann Karrick. But by 4:30 P.M. on Friday tents were put up, gear stowed, and fire crackled merrily awaiting the dinner preparations.

During the weekend the girls enjoyed a variety of menus, planned and prepared by themselves. From the always popular hamburgers and hot dogs, spaghetti and even fried chicken.

The girls caught glimpses of deer and were visited several times by racoons and a colorful group of peacocks.

Mrs. Judy Mundt gave the girls an exciting glimpse of what it would be like to attend a Girl Scout roundup, as she described to them her own experiences at Button Bay, Vt. at the Roundup of 1962.

Ranger Miller from the State Park took the girls on a short hike and told them some of the historical background of the Park also pointing out different kinds of trees and plants.

A surprise visit was paid the girls by Mrs. R. E. Maughn, field advisor for this district, and Mrs. George Costello the executive director of the Heart of Florida Girl Scout Council. As these high officials of Scouting appeared many Scouts were seen scurrying to their tents to replace dirty and informal outfits with something a little more fitting for a proud Scout to be seen in.

Always a favorite time with the girls were the evening campfires where entertainment and singing were the order of the day. And after taps that most delightful time for girls at this huge slumber party, giggling, whispering, and snacking.

By 4 P.M. on Sunday the girls were back at Donaldson Park and met by their families. This concluded a thrilling weekend with new experiences for the girls and also concluded weeks of planning and work by the leaders. If you are proud of this hard working group of women who are the Scout leaders, why not make a financial contribution to thier fund raising effort taking place right now. Send any contributions to Mrs. James Turnbull, Lake Lotela, Avon Park.

Here are the names of women who worked on this camp out: Mrs. Louise Hamm, Mrs. Vernell Crarey, Mrs. Peggy DeLaney, Mrs. Judy Mundt, Mrs. Edward Culbertson, Mrs. Carolyn Tomlinson, Mrs. Peg Fells, Mrs. Fran Davenport, Mrs. Doris McInvale. Mrs. Barbara Cribb, Mrs. Shirley Secrist, Mrs. Allie Cain, Mrs. Nan Murphy, Mrs. Alice Johnston, Mrs. Jane Barben, Mrs. Tim Fisher and Mrs. Evelyn Klein.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

Some people are unhappy with their lives when all seems to be doing well. They can't answer the question, "What am I going to do with my life?" Outward success losing its meaning. Getting interested in what God means to us here and how can being a radical change for the better. Listen to WJCM Sunday, May 4, 9 A.M. to "Where are we living."

Salom Rizk Speaks To High School

Salom Rizk was born in 1909 in a tiny poverty stricken town in Syria. Although he grew up as a Syrian, when he was 12 years old he discovered that his mother had been an American citizen and that he could claim American citizenship. Two brothers paid his passage to the United States, but he arrived in this country, penniless, homeless and with no knowledge of our language.

To millions of Americans, Salom Rizk needs no introduction. His absorbing life story appearing first in the Reader's Digest brought more mail from men and women in every walk of life than any other article published up to that time, and the demand for reprints was phenomenal.

His autobiography, "Syrian Kankee," telling the moving story of his discovery of the "inside facts" of America has become required reading in many public schools. Excerpts from it appear in a number of leading textbooks and anthologies and it has been translated into several foreign languages for use in schools abroad.

Mr. Rizk's greatest contribution to American self-understanding has come through personal appearances before numerous audiences from coast to coast. Speaking before men's clubs, women's organizations, teachers' institutes, business groups, industrial organizations and school audiences of every sort, he has carried the dramatic and humorous story of his American odyssey into thousands of towns and cities. Today in these critical times of world upheaval his message has acquired a new timeliness.

During the past 13 years Mr. Rizk has lectured under many auspices, including the Readers Digest, Rotary International, both in Canada and the United States, and a most sought after speaker by leading national and international conventions such as the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the National Congress of Parent Teachers Associations, and State Education Conventions of Florida, Pennsylvania and many other states. His story is of a true American who made his way by courage and perseverance.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By BOB GAY

On April 23 our Club was addressed by Bob Lindsey, Highlands County Juvenile Counselor. Bob was introduced by Norman Todd who said "Bob's accomplishments are unmentionable." Bob, born and educated in Pennsylvania, has received many awards in Florida for his work with juveniles and in juvenile counseling.

Juvenile problems in Highlands County are the same as in larger counties, reduced in number in direct proportion to the population.

The philosophy of school children is not the same today as it was 20 years ago. We (the parents) have made it different. We don't get stupid kids in court; we get stupid parents. Kids use adults as much as they can: father against mother; against father; and each against schools, teachers, the law, and the establishment. Bob feels his calling, as many ministers do, stating the first business of a social worker is to be objective—however, compassion takes hold and counselors get dedicated.

At present our problems in the dope area are not as large as in the larger counties but they can grow; and Bob asks that parents be on the alert for any sign of dope addiction in our usage, especially in the early stages.

Kids learn of social evils and use them as excuses, such as: "Both my parents work," "I'm a one-parent child," "My parents drink," etc. Kids use impulse, then opportunity as motive for action, few commit for notice. Dad drives 55 miles per hour in a 30 mile zone for years, taking kids to school—Junior gets his driver's license and gets a traffic ticket for driving 55 in a 30 mile zone.

Bob has unending faith in the kids of today, stating counseling takes over when parents fail. The juvenile home in Highlands County is a monument to local people who didn't have to go running to Tallahassee or Washington to get what was needed at a price under the estimated costs.

Bob urges Rotarians to get involved—stay involved—as has been our past history.

Ridge Area Children Camp Out

The Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children sponsored a "camp-out" this past weekend (April 24-27) for a group of handicapped children from the Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid area. Lake Bonnett Campground was this site for this fun-filled weekend. Activities for the children and their camp counselors included: camping in tents, cooking, hiking, swimming, volley ball, horseshoes, softball and badminton. In addition to these activities, one group of these youngsters attended a movie at the Sevon Drive-In Theatre as guests of the management.

The camping schedule provided separate camping days for the camp-out. The boys arrived on Friday and stayed through Saturday afternoon, while the girls camped from Saturday afternoon through Sunday. The girls, upon their arrival Saturday, were treated to a lunch prepared by the boys and the boys' camp counselors.

Camp Counselors for this event were: Gray Handley, Tom Jones, Robert Lineback, Patrick Chambles, Harold Worden, Virginia Hubbell, Pat Lagoni, Barbara Dorman and Ann Karrick. Visitors to the camp during the weekend included, Bobby Lineback, Loren Bennett, Judy Rewis, Mildred Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Ward, and Mr. and Mrs. Gallimar.

Ronald Hooper Draws 20-Years For Murder of Billy Morrison

Ronald David Hooper, 40, an itinerant farm laborer charged with the second degree murder of Billy Morrison, 49, another laborer, was sentenced to 20 years in prison by Judge Clifton Kelly Friday.

Hooper was charged when Morrison was found dead after a loud argument in Woodard's cabins, Avon Park. Hooper changed his plea to guilty of manslaughter midway of the trial after listening to testimony.

Kitchen Fork Stabbing

Matthew Alston, 55, a tractor driver for Crutchfield Grove Caretaking, charged with second degree murder in the stabbing of his landlady, Jeannette Bivens with a kitchen fork, was sentenced to 20 years in prison when he changed his plea to guilty of manslaughter.

Alston changed the plea to the lesser charge as Assistant State Attorney Joseph Macbeth prepared to introduce a recording made by Criminal Investigator J. C. Murdock in which Alston admitted killing the woman January 19.

Haywood Shavers, of Sebring, was found guilty by a jury of four men and two women of a charge of burglary by breaking and entering. Sentencing was deferred pending a pre-sentence investigation. Shavers was accused of breaking into the E. O. Douglas school cafeteria last October 22 taking frozen turkeys, pork roasts, eggs, bacon and lard.

Guilty Pleas

Cases disposed of by guilty pleas before Judge Kelly were:

Marshall Gorman Foster, charged with maintaining, aiding and assisting Ellis Marlow Haskey, an escapee from the Avon Park Correctional Institution on March 4, 1966—six months to seven years in the state penitentiary.

Willie James Jones, charged with aggravated assault with a pistol on Geneva Evans November 2, 1968—60 days in county jail on a plea to guilty of the lesser charge of assault and battery.

Horace Butler, charged with aggravated assault by knife on Annie Ruth Butler—pay a $250 fine or serve 60 days on his plea of guilty to the lesser charge of assault and battery.

Sentencing Deferred

Willie Peterson, charged with aggravated assault with a .32 caliber pistol on James Norther February 23—plea of no defense, sentenced deferred pending presentence investigation.

Louis Lee Lewis, charged with burglary by breaking and entering a trailer owned by Elmo Johnson in Venus August 28—sentence deferred for pre-sentence investigation.

Clinton Austin, charged with burglary by breaking and entering Chris' Place in Avon Park December 23—five years in the state penitentiary.

Sumbry Sets New Record For Mile Run

Avon Park high school's distance runner, Clyde Sumbry, set a new school record in the mile run at the Highlands County track meet held in Lake Placid Tuesday before last as the Red Devil team came in second behind Sebring. The Blue Streaks scored 63 points to edge out the Avon Park thinclads who racked up 61 points in the three-team meet. The Lake Placid Green Dragons took third place with at total of 56 points in the closest finish ever in the three-year-old county meet.

This afternoon and tonight the Red Devils will participate in the district meet to be held in Fort Meade. Only the first two finishers in each event will qualify for the state track meet to be held in Gainesville next week.

Several individual Devils are expected to qualify for the state event and possibly a relay team can make the cut in the big district meet. The afternoon session will be the qualifying round and then starting at 7 P.M. the finals will be held.

Sumbry, who runs the 880-yard event as well as the mile, has been pointing for the record-breaking time for several meets. The previous school record was set by Cothran — a 4:37.6 time and Sumbry lobbed off the six tenths of a second with a time of four minutes and 37 seconds even.

The final outcome of the meet was undecided until the final event—the mile relay. With 14 events finished, Avon Park led with 61 points, Sebring had 53, and Lake Placid had 50. The Red Devils needed to finish first or second in the mile relay to win the meet and they just couldn't pull it off. Ten points are awarded to first place and six points for second place with none for third place in a relay event in a tri-meet.

Other Avon Park boys winning a first place in the county meet were Charlie Magenheimer who took the 440-yard dash with a time of 53.4 seconds and the high jump with a 5'7" effort; Billy Richards who won the broad jump with a 19'8½" jump; and Sumbry who took the half mile (as well as the mile) with a time of 2:12.7.

Also scoring for the Red Devils were: Walter Nunnallee who took second place in both the 120-yard high hurdles and the 180-yard low hurdles; Willie Joe Seigler who with a second in the 100-yard dash; Billy Richards with a second in the 440-yard run; Winkie Hall who took second in the pole vault and third in the 220-yard dash; Steve Walker with a fourth in the 220-yard dash; Jimmy Magenheimer with a second in the high jump; Wally Pierce who took third in the pole vault; and Roy Claitt with a fourth place in the broad jump.

The Devil 880-yard relay team and the sprint medley relay teams both came in second. The half mile was run by Winkie Hall, Neal Caswell, Roy Claitt, and Willie Seigler. Mayor Says Gas Companies Charge too Much

Mayor Jimmy Doerr told the Avon Park City Council Monday night that residents of our city are not being treated right by the gas companies that serve this area. For instance Sebring residents buy butane and propane gas for approximately ten cents less per gallon than the companies sell to Avon Park residents and besides that the gas companies transport the gas from Avon Park to Sebring, said Mayor Doerr.

The subject came up when City Clerk Malcolm Crews read letters from Ridge Fuel and Coker Fuel asking the council to adopt the NFPA regulations instead of the gas regulations in the Southern Building Code manual. All the gas companies in Florida are regulated by the NFPA rules and by adopting these there would be no conflict between the city and the gas companies.

Cause of the lower price in the cost of gas in Sebring is the companies bought Se-Utilities and in the agreement the prices would be comparable to that company's prices.

No action was taken on the discrimination between the prices in the two cities but the council did agree that the matter should be looked into.

FIX-IT TIP

If a faucet continues to leak after you have replaced the washer, chances are the brass seat is worn. You can buy an inexpensive tool called a valve seat grinder or dresser at the hardware store. Twist the tool gently against the seat to smooth it. Then reassemble the faucet.

Crutchfield To Ask Elected Officials For Budget Figures

County budget fights may get under way early this year.

In a special meeting of the county commission on Tuesday, Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield announced that he plans to seek detailed budget figures from elected county officials as a part of the background information he needed in drafting the 1969-70 county budget.

Crutchfield said he believes that all county officials should provide the commission with reports on number of employees, salary paid each, travel and other allowances granted employees.

The commission made a similar request last year but met with little success. Crutchfield said Tuesday, "The county commission is expected to draw up a budget which includes excess fees from various offices as a part of the budget, but how can we budget fees when we don't know how much it takes to run an office?"

The Sebring Commissioner readily named the tax collector, tax assessor, clerk of the circuit court and county judge as the main targets of his inquiry. He said the sheriff's department operates on a budgetary system which is different from that used by fee officers.

Budgets are announced in July, go into operation in October each year.

Crutchfield's announcement came at the close of a meeting called early Tuesday for the commission to take official action on three pieces of pending legislation.

Board Approves

The county board voted to notify legislators that the Highlands County commissioners are in favor of a bill which proposes to make available to the counties 100 per cent of the occupational license fees collected in each county.

At present the county retains one-third of the fee and the rest is sent to the state. If approved, this bill would boost Highlands County general fund income by approximately $16,000, County Administrator Charles Morgan said.

The commission went on record—and notified legislators—in opposition to two proposals which cut into county income.

Morgan said most serious threat is from a bill which proposes to redistribute the state's public health funds on a per capita basis. The present proposal would reduce the state contributions of Highlands County Health Department from $39,060 to $17,900 next year.

"This would seriously handicap any public health program in Highlands County," Morgan said.

The commission also registered objections to a bill to require that all trucks carrying sand, gravel, marl, garbage to be covered while travelling on the highways.

"We have no objection to the bill's aims," the county administrator explained, "but the cost to the county would be high. Some estimates are as high as $25,000 a year, but I cannot say for sure what the cost would be.

"We certainly would have the

$5,717,000 Will Go To Local Residents

From a dollars and cents standpoint, how good a "buy" is Social Security proving to be for the average Highlands County worker?

After he retires, does he stand to get back more or less than he paid into the pension fund over the years?

According to studies made by the National Federation of Independent Business and others, Social Security is a real bargain for some, but considerably less so for others.

Those who are now retired, or are soon to be so, are the big winners. They will break even in less than five years and, after that, they will be ahead of the game.

For the young workers, who will be contributing to the fund for many years to come, it is quite a different story.

To refer to the records, the latest official figures show residents of Highlands County to be collecting Social Security benefits at the rate of $5,717,000 a year.

Only a fraction of that payout, however, was contributed to the pension fund in any one year by the recipients. The remainder came from employers and from workers who are not yet eligible for retirement.

According to the studies, a young man in Highlands County, entering the labor force this year at age 25 and paying the maximum tax for the next 40 years, will personally be paying about $17,000 toward Social Security.

With interest figured at four percent, this will accumulate to a fund of nearly $38,000, exclusive of contributions made for him by his employer.

What he and his wife will get back, assuming that they live 14 years after reaching 65, which is the normal expectancy at that age, will be approximately $55,000.

Taking Highlands County's entire 25-year-old male population, now numbering close to 170, as an example, their tax payments and interest in the 40 years would amount to some $6,460,000, and their total returns, if married and living the full span, to $9,350,000.

In answer to contentions that a person could do better by buying insurance with the money, or keepine it in savings, the Social Security Administration points out that financial aid in cases of disabling illnesses, widowhood, needy children and other contingencies are also included by Social Security for the worker and his family.

Avon Teacher Displays Art At Center

By MAY WILTSE

The Highlands Art League, in its two seasons of existence, has tried to give art lovers a variety of one-man shows and the display last Sunday by Gene Brenner, art teacher at Avon Park High School and South Florida Junior College, carried out this intention.

His work is done in a variety of media, plus five pieces of metal sculpture. Of these last, a life-like replica of an owl occasioned much laughter and genial comment.

Most of the paintings are in the modern style. This show will be on display at the Art League, 7 W. Center St., through the month of May, from 10:30 A.M. to 3:30 P.M., every day except Sunday.

Punch and cookies were served during the viewing hours. Louise Kelly and Fay Nelson, both of Lake Placid, were in charge of the refreshment committee. Others hleping serve were, Gale Durrance, Marj Richardson, and May Wiltse, also Carol Thieme of Avon Park.

Betty Spurlock Go-Getter For Avon Park

Mrs. Betty Spurlock will be the official "Lady Go-Getter" for Avon Park during the WEDU Chanel 3 Television Auction May 31-June 7.

Mrs. Sourlock, an active member of the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club, will be contacting merchants in the Avon Park area for donations which will be auctioned during the week-long activities.

Last year, during the first annual WEDU Auction, merchants in this area donated more than $500 worth of new items, ranging from a college scholarship to antiques.

Money raised during the Auction is used for operating expenses for WEDU, a non-profit, educational station, which is based in the Highlands County school system, along with eight other bay area counties. Last year, over $100,000 was raised through the auction, according to R. LeRoy Lastinger, General Manager of the station.

Over 1000 Participate In Physical Test

CINDY BASS is timed in the flexed-arm hang by Mrs. Theda Miracle as Miss Betty Phillips checks out her form at the Highlands County Physical Fitness Test Day last Friday at Memorial Field. Cindy won the event for the eight and nine year olds.

MARY ANN STEVENS takes her turn in the standing broad jump as Red Devil track coach Paul Roberts stretches the tape at the Highlands County Physical Fitness Test Day held here in Avon Park last Friday.

The first annual Highlands County Physical Fitness Test Day took place last Friday at the Avon Park High School track and football field with approximately 1000 students from grades one through 12 from school centers in Sebring, Lake Placid and Avon Park participating.

The students were eligible to be tested in any three of the seven skill tests and on the whole the first such program was heralded a huge success by witnessing parents and educators.

Miss Ann Karrick, president of the Highlands County Physical Education Association, said, "We made several mistakes but we feel these can be corrected next year. This is the first time a program of this size has been attempted by the physical educators and the number of students taking part was great. The competition was very close but the superior numbers of Avon Park entries gave this area an advantage in total points."

The Avon Park area students scored a total of 657 points, Sebring area students scored 288 points, and Lake Placid, which did not have elementary students in the program this year, scored 282 points with students from grades seven through 12 only.

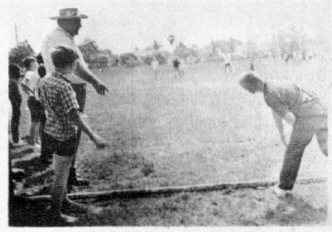

Avon Park students who scored the top score in each event in the different age levels were as follows:

Girls Flexed Arm Hang—Juanita Swartz, Cindy Bass, Mary Linda Derkman, Gay McAfee, and Gwen Elmore; Boys Pull Ups—Timmy Cribb, Frank Brown, David Jahna, David Lanier, Johnny Hall, and Fred Jahna; 50-Yard Dash—James Barnes, Vesta Hall, Bruce Roberts, Ava Jones, Ted Packer, Alice Johnson, Ricky Jones, Sophia Wyche, Gary Curlee, Greg Blake, Jackie Prevatt, Danny Carroll, Mark Howard, Eddie Ezell, Rosiland Jackson, and Donald Strange.

Shuttle Run—Tim Cribb, Carolyn Nicholas, Ricky Anderton, Linda Klein, Gary Curlee, Brad Beumel, Jackie Prevatt, Curtis Foster, Mary Tate, Sara Nunnallee, Irene Coleman, and Albert Moss; Sit-Ups—Millette Wyche, Johnny Harrison, Jimmy Bennett, Tim Booth, Sue Nunnallee, Gene Haywood, Jamie Tomlinson, Jane Eberle, Wesley Watson, and Elaine Wiggins; Softball Throw—Greg Gray, Tracy Serdynski, Ronnie Johnson, Maureen Murphy, Ricky Anderton, Reginald Baker, Della Kirkland, Lee Anderton, Mary Wright, Lisa Hulen, Victor Williams, Tim Underwood, and Albert Moss.

Standing Broad Jump—David Sisemore, Vesta Hall, Scott Morgan, Lou Ann Reid, Ricky Anderton, Lynn Livingston, Brad Beumel, Sharon Dover, David Lanier, Jackie Prevatt, Ricky Wells, Susan Sisemore, Susan Lee, and Billy Richards; and the 300 or 600 Yard Run-Walk—Casey Roberts, Jeffery Adams, Barbara Miller, Bridget Randolph, Milton Jackson, Sharon McRae, Verick Freeman, Sylvia Blake, Susan Sisemore, Lani Newton, Brenda Grey, Clyde Sumbry, and Irene Coleman.

Complete results with the first three finishers in each event may be seen at the different school centers if parents or students are interested in others who scored high in these physical fitness tests.

GLENN ODOM, Highlands County Physical Education Supervisor, instructs as a boy takes his turn at the softball throw for distance at the Highlands County Physical Education Test Day last Friday at the Avon Park track and football field.

Included in the 35,000 square foot addition will be 80 beds including an 11 bed intensive care unit, a laboratory addition and three major surgical suites. 6,000 Freeholders May Vote On School Bond Issue

Only freeholders not wholly exempt from taxation will be allowed to vote on the school bond issue June 10.

With 9,519 registered freeholders in the county, an estimated 6,000 of them will go to the polls under this ruling, new with the new state constitution, Supervisor of Elections Roland X. Droit predicted today.

"When freeholders come to the polls, they should have tax receipts in hand or be prepared to sign an affidcait to the effect that they paid taxes," said Droit.

Attorney Frank Bryant representing the school board pointed out that a freehold is real estate and that the people concerned in this election will be strictly owners of real estate who pay taxes on it. There are many real estate owners who under Homestead Exemption laws have homesteads valued so low they do not have to pay taxes, it was pointed out. These people are ineligible.

Unsual Polling Places

Polls will be open at the usual polling places from 7 A.M. until 7 P.M. The ballot is for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued in an amount not to exceed $4,500,000 to provide new construction and improvements for the county's schools. Such bonds would mature in not more than 20 years.

The money realized from such bonds would go toward acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing and otherwise improving buildings or school grounds or for any other exclusive use of public schools in the county.

New Senior High Schools

The projects toward which money realized from the bonds would go are a new senior high school in Sebring, $1,959,270; a new senior high school in Avon Park, $1,959,270; additional facilities at Fred Wild school, $411,994; new elementary school, Lake Placid, $479,164; additional facilities at Woodlawn elementary school, $95,573; additional facilities at Avon Park Elementary school, $167,696; major alterations to facilities at Lake Placid high school, $414,722.

May 9 Deadline

Voters who voted in the last general election generally are not required to re-register. New freeholders have until 5 P.M. Friday of this week to register if they are not already registered, Droit said. The voters will pull one of two levers—"For Bonds" or "Against Bonds."

The construction and improvement program in detail includes:

Sebring High School—16 classrooms, two science laboratories, vocal music room, language laboratory, homemaking suite, gymnasium, business education suite, driver education room, agriculture classroom and shop, DCT room, auditorium, library, cafeteria, administrative suite, student activity and conference room, six toilet rooms, teacher planning room, storage-mechanical, etc., site expansion.

Avon Park High School—identical to Sebring High School.

More Primary Rooms

Fred Wild school—three primary rooms, one exceptional child room, two kindergarten rooms, library, cafetorium, administrative suite, teacher planning-storage, site expansion.

Lake Placid Elementary school—10 primary rooms, two kindergarten rooms, one exceptional child room, library, administrative suite, teacher planning, four toilet rooms, storage-mechanical, etc.

Woodlawn Elementary school—multipurpose room, two kindergarten rooms, major alterations impervious treatment to walls to floor of kitchen.

Avon Park elementary school—five intermediate rooms, two toilet rooms, two kindergarten rooms, major alterations, impervious wall treatment to floor of kitchen.

Lake Placid high school—vocational, home economics, industrial arts and mechanical drawing, conversion home economics to science laboratory, expansion of administration area to provide guidance, sickrooms, workroom, storage, conference and student activity room.

26 Students Graduate From South Florida Junior College

"If we are to reverse present trends and break out of the cycle which has characterized the downfall of other great nations, we must re-kindle this great American Dream of Freedom," graduating students at South Florida Junior College were told Tuesday night.

Speaking to the 27 graduates and friends and relatives assembled for commencement exercises at Avon Elementary school was Rep. Jim K. Tillman.

"We must recapture some of the courage, the hardness and discipline which permitted our forefathers to carve a great civilization out of a wilderness. We must recapture our moral strength and our faith in God," he said.

Various historians have pointed out that throughout history, he said, the average age of the world's great governments has been only approximately 200 years. "We will celebrate the 193rd anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence July 4."

One historian wrote he said, that nations moved from liberty to "abundance, from abundance to complacency, from complacehcy to apathy, from apathy to dependency and from dependency back to bondage.

"I will leave it to your own discretion to decide whether we, as a nation, fit into this pattern, and if so, just where in the cycle we now seem to be."

Law and order are the foundation upon which successful government and civilized society must stand he pointed out. And "there are those who place great emphasis upon their rights, but show little regard for the rights, welfare and safety of their fellow man or the interest of their nation or society as a whole. This is nothing but an expression of the law of the jungle."

Rev. George Stulting, pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Sebring, gave the invocation and benediction, the South Florida Junior College Chorus conducted by Buford Jasper sang, Deans Beumel and Griffin presented the candidates, and President William Stallard conferred the degrees.

Little League Kicks-Off Season With Parade

The 1969 Little League season got off to a rousing start last Saturday with a parade led by the Avon Park school junior band dressed in funny hats. The band was followed by officials of the Little League and the six teams with their coaches and managers.

The parade was followed by a triple-header which saw Kiwanis defeating Bagwell in a long, eight inning game interrupted by showers to the tune of 13 to 12, First Baptist winning over Lions 10 to 0, and Avon Citrus Bank downing Rotary 8 to 3. Monday night games were Kiwanis 5 and Avon Citrus Bank 1; Lions 17 to 7 over Rotary. Thru Monday night, standings are:

Team	W	L
Kiwanis	2	0

Haskew Gets 10 Year Sentence For Escape

A 10-year prison sentence was meeted to Ellis Marlow Haskew in Circuit Court Monday. Haskew pleaded guilty to escape. He had originally been sent to prison in November, 1965, on a forgery charge.

In March, 1966, he escaped from Avon Park Correction Institution and four months later was placed on 10 years probation. State probation and parole officials charged Haskew had violated the terms of probation. Disposition of the case had been delayed to permit psychiatric evaluation.

Haskew's was the only case completed in a long session of Circuit Court which lasted until 6 o'clock Monday night. Judge Clifton Kelly presided.

Commissioners Will Study Budget Salaries For Officials

For over a year elected officials and Highlands County commissioners have haggled over fees and budgets.

But an offer to switch one of the fee offices to a budget system met with only lukewarm response at Tuesday's commission meeting.

Faced with responsibility for guaranteeing an income for a county office chilled some enthusiasm for accepting the change proffered by County Judge Mervin Rehrer. Such a change could cost the county money.

In response to a letter from Judge Rehrer, Commissioner H. Earl Crutchfield said, "As you are well aware I'm very much interested in all fee offices going on the budget system. I move we accept this for study."

Commissioner Ben McGee opposed the motion until assured that the action was approving study and only study of the Rehrer proposal.

Commission Chairman Jean M. Whitaker observed: "Fees last year (in the county judge's offfice) were not adequate to pay salaries," and set off questions about the wisdom of guaranteeing an office income. Under a budget system all office income goes to the county.

In his letter Judge Rehrer admitted that fees in the county judge's office were down last year, citing a drop in criminal cases as the cause. He suggested that negotiations toward a budget system for the office use 1967, rather than 1968, as the base year.

Judge Rehrer offered to contact legislators immediatly and ask for appropriate legislation to change his office to an annual budget system. County Administrator Charles Morgan and County Attorney Hue F. Nunnallee demurred, citing a 1961 Attorney General's opinion to indicate that change from fee to budget system may be made by county commission resolution.

Nunnallee cautioned the county board that he had not had opportunity to research the matter and new laws and rulings since 1961 may change his "no legislation" opinion.

Crutchfield repeated, during the Tuesday morning commission meeting, the request for full financial reports from each county official. He specified that each officer should indicate the amount of excess fees he anticipates being able to turn over to the county next year.

Last week Crutchfield complained that a similar request last year had not produced the information he felt the commission needed.

Elected county officials have countered that they did comply with the board's requests and had, last year, given complete statements including equipment and salary budgets.

Insurance Costs

Col. W. J. Atkinson, chairman of the Republican executive committee in the county and long-time critic of county salary policies, switched his target Tuesday. He used the occasion of the county's signing workmen's compensation agreements to raise the question of self-insurance.

George Hensley, Heacock Insurance agency executive, had presented a report on workmen's compensation rates which include provision for adjusting rates according to the county's claims record.

He indicated a small refund would be forthcoming on the basis of claims filed between 1965-68. The report indicated the highest risk jobs in the county are in the road and bridge department, and the claim rate in the sheriff's department is down.

Col. Atkinson said, "Some study should be given to self-insurance. The county pays out $60,000 in insurance fees—roughly $30,000 from the county commission."

The commissioners pointed out claims from one man are now approaching $10,000. Commission Chairman Whitaker, who changed his political registration from Democratic to Republican two weeks ago, found himself at odds with his new political ally as he responded to Col. Atkinson, "The State Association of County Commissioners has studied this and found self-insurance is not feasible until premiums exceed $100,000 per year."

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the commissioners authorized, on the basis of three months' detailed travel reports, $105 per month travel pay for Commissioner Robert Skipper. Skipper's reports show road business travel of more than 1,000 miles per month.

CONSTRUCTION has begun on new bowling lanes to replace the Grand Prix bowling lanes which burned to the ground a year ago this month. John Perlaki, who was the major mortgage holder and orginial owner of Grand Prix, is doing the building on the site of the Grand Prix Lanes with his son, Bill. The new establishment will contain two more lanes than the former one and a separate room for billiards. Of the 11 companies which carried the insurance on the burned lanes, only one has yet paid off. They hope to have it open in time for Fall League play.

Smoking Clinic To Be Held At Hospital

Dr. R. H. Overholt and Chaplain Danforth met at the National 5-day Plan Congress held in Chicago at the Sheraton Hotel. The discussion you might guess was the tragic loss of life in America due to smoking. Dr. Overholt is the director of the Overholt Thoracic Clinic, Boston, Mass. and is known the world over for his knowledge in this field. He, along with Dr. Luther Terry, former U. S. Surgeon General, Dr. Daniel Horn, Director, National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health, Dr. Jeremiah Stamler, Director Chicago Health Research Foundation, were among the noted guests that attended the 5-Day Plan Congress.

All of these men, as well as the directors of this smoking congress, were headed for an appearance in Washington, D. C. to fight tobacco advertisements on radio and T.V. Dr. Overholt, in quoting the late Sen. R. F. Kennedy, stated that every 24 hours, 4000 children in America start smoking, 300,000 people a year lose their lives.

Dr. C. J. Larsen and Chaplain Danforth will be conducting the 5-Day Plan again this next week at Walker Memorial Hospital here in Avon Park.

Postal Deficit Responsible For Increase In Mail Rates

An "inherited" postal deficit of $1.2 billion is responsible for the proposals to raise the postage bill for residents of Avon Park Postmaster Robert Young said today.

Mr. Young said he had been advised by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount in Washington, D. C. that the record $1.2 billion 1970 deficit compelled President Nixon to seek postage rate increases. Without higher rates the Department will be left with a staggering deficit that would become an added public tax burden.

In addition to increasing letter mail from 6 to 7 cents, as proposed by the Johnson Administration, President Nixon also asked that second and third-class mailers help reduce the large postal deficit which would otherwise be paid by taxpayers, the postmaster said.

For bulk third-class mail and most magazines and newspapers, the rates would be increased 16 percent to 20 percent above today's levels, he noted. These percentages include rate hikes already scheduled by previous action of Congress.

The President's recommended increases will reduce the 1970 postal deficit by more than $600 million.

The postmaster listed these other details on the proposed increases:

First-class mail: Letters and post cards would be increased one cent, to 7 cents an ounce and 6 cents a piece, respectively, on July 1, 1969. Airmail postage would remain at 10 cents. This will yield $557.2 million in new revenues.

Second-class mail: A handling charge of 3/10th of a cent per piece for circulation outside home counties would become effective July 1, 1969. This would yield $15.3 million annually and would represent a 12 percent increase in addition to the 8 percent rise scheduled to take effect January 1, 1970.

Third-class mail: For single pieces, rates would be increased one cent per piece. This would yield $12.4 million. For regular bulk third-class, the minimum would be increased to a uniform rate of 4.2 cents January 1, 1970, as contrasted with the present rate of 3.6 cents. The 1970 increase would lift revenues by $46.8 million annually.

Judge Kelly Changes Dates For Court

In the wake of a jammed criminal court docket, Circuit Court Judge Clifton Kelly this week issued an order which will prevent accused persons from being held in jail an unreasonable length of time.

The order provides that there will be jury trials of criminal cases at least four times each year, effective immediately. Dates for such trials for the remainder of the present year are set as the first weeks in June, September and December.

Beginning in 1970, the criminal court trials will be held the first weeks of March, June, September and December, excluding holidays, which fall within those dates.

These trial times were set up, the order noted, "in order to be sure that certain criminal cases presented are regularly disposed of with as much dispatch as the circumstances permit."

The trial docket last week was so full that the judge had to set another week of criminal trials.

In one case last week, Prince Lee Brewer, charged with bigamy, who had been in jail 195 days (6½ months) awaiting trial, was freed by Judge Kelly after the judge sentenced him to 195 days upon conviction of the charge.

Until last week, there had been no criminal jury trials since December 9.

Red Cross Membership Meeting May 19

Annual meeting of the membership of the Highlands County Chapter of the American National Red Cross will be held May 19 at 7:30 P.M. at St. Agnes parish hall, 4000 West Lakeview Drive.

Every person who has contributed $1 or more during the 1969 Fund Drive, are members of the Red Cross and are responsible for taking an active part in electing the 11 new members of the board of directors.

"An unusual meeting is planned," says Dr. J. Dillard Workman, chapter chairman, "it will be quite a surprise and will be entertaining." Assisting Dr. Workman on his committee, will be Mrs. Lois Vasek and Mark Richardson.

Here is the opportunity for the community to show its support of the local Red Cross Chapter.

New Underpass May Be Delayed

Construction on the costly and difficult four-laning of US 27 in the Lake Placid area may not get underway until very late Summer. State Road Department officials have set July for taking bids on the four-mile section between Lake Henry Drive and State 29.

Contract time will probably be 18 months. Extra time will be allowed on this contract because of the plan to realign the road to the East and construct a new railroad underpass.

W. M. Cochran, assistant district engineer for the State Road Dept., said a new underpass is needed because "the existing vertical clearance at the underpass structure does not meet current design standards."

The shift to the East "will also improve the intersection of State 17 that intersects US 27 just North of the underpass," Cochran said.

County Attorney Hue E. Nunnallee has filed condemnation proceedings for additional right-of-way needed for this new section of US 27. The suit filed on Tuesday is a long one with many parcels involved, but one not involved is the Lionel LaGrow building near the present underpass. LaGrow reached a settlement with the State Road Department for compensation for the land and building where the new road will run.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Do We Want This To Happen Here?

Is sex education in our public schools part of a conspiracy to weaken our nation by degrading the morals of our young people?

This charge has often been made, but the proof offered to substantiate it has not always been convincing.

Recently, Congressman James B. Utt (R-Calif.) sent to his constituents a newsletter, in which he specifically mentioned SIECUS, the Sex Information and Education Council of the United States.

The newsletter said, "Obviously, SIECUS is not interested in morality, since its treasurer, Isadore Rubin, an identified Communist, is editor of the pornographic magazine 'Sexology.' SIECUS founder Dr. Lester Kirkendall and other officials also are connected with 'Sexology.' "

"Concerned"

Another Californian, Assemblyman Newt Russell, in a statement to the California State Board of Education, said:

"There are many of us who feel that sexual relationships in our country are based on the Judeo-Christian concepts which are found in the Bible and are taught in our churches . . .

"I am concerned lest the teachings of sex bring us to the point where Sweden finds itself, with the venereal disease rate running rampant and where the majority of young people experiment with sex before marriage."

It may be difficult—or impossible—to prove that there is a Communist conspiracy behind the current drive for sex education.

However, it is possible to review what has happened in a country which has had sex education for more than a dozen years and to see what has happened there.

Then we can ask ourselves, "Do we want this to happen here?"

Sweden has had national compulsory sex education since 1956.

Recently, a survey was conducted to determine the attitudes of the people toward sexual conduct. The results of this survey are to be published in August in a book, "The Contraceptive Society," by Hans L. Zetterberg.

Look magazine and the Reader's Digest have published articles, based on this information.

"Never Teach Morality"

Today, 93 per cent of all Swedes, according to this survey, consider it acceptable for people who are engaged or "going steady" to engage in what is referred to in the Bible and in law as "fornication."

One third of Swedish brides are pregnant on their wedding days.

Dr. Maj-Briht Bergstrom-Walan, internationally known Swedish psychologist, says, "We should never teach morality, but we should present different attitudes."

This is the opposite of what the Bible teaches.

The Bible says clearly, "Be not deceived. Neither fornicators . . . nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind . . . shall inherit the kingdom of God."

The question is, Whose advice do we want to follow?

What kind of chances should we take with our children?

BABSON'S POINT OF VIEW — Quality Still Important

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., May 8, 1969. Those who have followed the market closely over the past year or so are no doubt aware of the increasing popularity of the less-than-Blue-Chip stocks.

The higher quality stocks have—to a large degree—taken a back seat, much to the chagrin of many investors who are holding a preponderance of good-grade securities in their accounts. Does this mean that the majority of high-grade issues have run their course and henceforth will be on the descendancy?

Is this the time to shift out of them in favor of lower quality stocks? Our answer to both of these questions is "No." In our judgment, this is definitely not the time to forsake quality.

Naturally, we do not propose that an investor hold only the best-quality stocks to the exclusion of all others. We believe a well-balanced portfolio should also contain some attractive stocks of average grade, as well as a few well-chosen speculations. Over the past year or so, we have suggested many secondary issues that must be classed well below the Blue-Chip category. Currently, among others, we favor the following:

Medusa Portland Cement
Addressograph-Multigraph
Bell & Howell
Continental Oil
Southern Natural Gas
Columbia Broadcasting System

We have also recommended many speculative-grade stocks, and still favor such issues as:

Eagle Clothes
Castle & Cooke
Coronet Industries
General Tire & Rubber
Avco Corp.
Beech Aircraft

Although all of the above stocks are attractive for purchase, in our opinion, we certainly do not suggest that investors "load up" on them, or sell high-quality stocks to buy them. Such premier issues as American Tel. & Tel., Eastman Kodak, du Pont, General Electric, etc., should represent the largest portion of most portfolios.

The following are examples of other good-quality stocks that we currently favor for purchase:

Sterling Drug
INA
Standard Oil (N.J.)
Aetna Life & Casualty
Union Carbide
Citizens Utilities

Investors who have been active in the market for any length of time realize that practically all stocks, including most high-quality growth issues, have temporary periods of market price inactivity.

For instance, the stock of Union Carbide, an acknowledge growth company, has made no basic gain marketwise for several years, nor have Corn Products (now CPC Intnt'l.), General Electric, and American Tel. & Tel.

Nevertheless, we do not consider that the investor who owns such issues is losing out and should replace them with a group of secondary lower-quality stocks that may currently be popular.

In our opinion, the stocks of the firms that set the pace in their respective industries will continue to provide the patient holder with the long-term growth that most investors desire.

In addition, these issues are the ones that provide the steady and usually increasing income and a degree of defensiveness in periods of stress.

It is true that many of the Blue-Chip and Pale-Blue-Chip stocks are selling at relatively high price/earnings multiples. But over the years this relationship has almost always been true.

Fortunately, the well-established, strongly managed companies appear able to increase their earnings continuously over a period of years. Hence, if the price of the stock remains stable for any length of time, the price/earnings relationship eventually improves.

There is no denying that a nimble trader can often make money by "playing" the market favorites—switching from one to another on a short-run basis after a few points of profit. Here, the quality of the stock is of little or no importance.

But trading in this manner takes a good deal of agility; one has to be in very close touch with the market at all times. And most investors are not in a position to do this. Hence, a longer-range investment program, with emphasis on good-quality stocks, seems the best means of protecting and building up one's capital and investment income.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

HOME WITHOUT MOTHER

What is home without a Mother?
Hangs the motto on the wall,
Fastened in a place obtrusive,
Where it can be seen by all,
And a person seldom pauses
To picture what the home would be.
But when Mother drops her burdens,
And from household duties free,
And her load devolves on others,
Then the other household members,
With a shock are quick to see.
Mother washes all the dishes;
Cleans the rugs of every spot,
While the girls surround the TV,
Rapt in Elvis Pressly rot;
Mother labors in the garden,
Where the weeds and sandspurs are,
While the "Old man" reads the paper
While he smokes a dime cigar;
She works 'till she drops in her tracks
And goes to her rest up above,
Ignoring the pain, work and the tax,
And the only thing looked for is love.
When the tools of Mother's labor
Fail and falter in her hand,
Then will Father and the "younguns"
Get awake and understand.

MORE HONORABLE MENTION

In a moment of thoughtlessness, I wrote to Billy Graham's home address and asked him what he got for a nice book lately published for Bill Alder by the Random House, Inc., 457 Madison Avenue, New York City. His home is in Montreat, N. C. with his wife, Ruth, three daughters and two "kids."

I told Billy I wanted to use excerpts from this book to liven up and sorta purify and evangeline my "Random Thoughts" column in one of America's finest weekly papers, edited by one of the most erudite judges of columnar matter. He uses a lot of "stuff" from Lewis Llewellyn, who is a preacher, but uses two "L's" more than needed in his name. The Welsh are kinda funny about their spelling, though. Babson's "Point of View," Rose Mallory Rice, a most charming writer, whose brilliant contributions, next to mine, often illuminates my own columns when they get gloomy and sad. Bill and Hettie Hetherington, occupy the left-hand corner of the editorial page, as a sort of counterweight for what is sometimes light and frivolous matter in the area "West" of theirs. A little bit of Billy Graham, who is a Baptist, but otherwise harmless to every living thing but the Devil and the whiskey business, will appear often in my own billingsgate, for I want to help Llewellyn out in his noble efforts to make sinners see the light through the powerful agency of "Printer's Ink." (Here is a hint to the latter: My family name was once spelled Schwobe, but the first guy with that name, when he came to Virginia in 1732, was stingy or something, and discarded the "e" and the "w" and thus saved time and ink, though it might have been done to throw some peace officer off the trail back in the German-speaking section of Switzerland.) But to get back to Billy Graham. His secretary was kind enough to say:

"Billy Graham, Montreat, N. C., 28757, April 29, 1969.

"Dear Mr. Shobe—Thank you for your good letter of April 24. I am sorry that Mr. Graham cannot reply personally to all the nice letters he receives from friends like you. He is presently engaged in preparations for the forthcoming New York Crusade. I know he will appreciate your prayers. (I don't remember I said anything about prayers, for I don't do as much praying as I do about talking about that job.) To resume—"God bless you, and again thank you for your words of encouragement. Sincerely yours, Martha Warkentin, Secretary to Mr. Graham."

From now on, the religious minority that reads my brilliant effusions of balderdash will get something worthwhile, but it will be branded with Billy's range-mark to let the readers know who wrote it. I don't want him to get credit for something I wrote myself; he has honor enough with his own words without soaring into the literary blue sky on MY wings.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE!

It begins to look like the Communist "Comrades," China and Russia, are on the verge of a real hassle. If this happens, it is my suggestion that we, the people of the United States, get our war manufacturing shops to go at full tilt and furnish each side with everything they need to wipe out the other.

Your Social Security

Question — I am a bachelor and will be 65 in July. I have no social security credits. Will I be eligible for Medicare?

Answer — You will be eligible to enroll in the voluntary doctor bill insurance part of Medicare, but you will not be eligible for the basic hospital insurance. The hospital insurance part of the Medicare program is financed out of social security tax contributions and people who reach 65 after 1967 need credit for a certain amount of work covered under social security to have the hospital insurance. A person 65 this year needs credit for six calendar quarters of work—about 1½ years—to be eligible for hospital insurance.

Question — I have never worked under social security and have no social security credits. However, I will be eligible for widow's benefits on my deceased husband's social security record when I am older. Will I be eligible for both hospital and medical insurance under Medicare when I reach 65?

Answer—Yes. Since you will be eligible for social security benefits, you will be eligible for both hospital and medical insurance under Medicare when reach 65 and after you have signed up for the voluntary doctor bill insurance.

Question — My husband and I are receiving social security benefits but we are not yet 65. Do we have to sign up for Medicare when we become 65?

Answer — You will automatically have hospital insurance at 65 as you are receiving social security. You will be mailed an appplication several months before you are 65 so you can sign up for the voluntary doctor bill insurance.

Shirley Faith Hardee - Michael Garrett Exchange Wedding Vows

The First United Methodist Church of Avon Park was the setting for the impressive wedding ceremony uniting Miss Shirley Faith Hardee, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Addison Guy Hardee and Michael Dean Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Garrett in holy wedlock, Monday evening, May 5, at 7 P.M.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. Addison Guy Hardee in the presence of a capacity church of friends and relatives.

Schaffler plants served as the background on the altar with spiral candelabra, entwined with white daisies, leading to the large fan shaped candelabra for the candlelight service. The cross was flanked with four-branch candleabra centered with flowers and single candles at vantage points. Two large baskets of pastel colored Spring flowers completed the altar arrangement. Relative pews were marked with pastel colored satin bows. Mrs. Jay DeShong, organist, accompanied Rev. Paul Gentry, soloist, who sang, "If Ever I Would Leave Thee," "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and the "Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose an old fashioned wedding gown of white organza, with Venise lace, high neckline, long sleeves, high waistline with wide blue satin ribbon trim. Down the front, sides and back were rows of white daisies, which carried through to the hemline and edged the chapel train which fell from the waistline.

Her multi-tiered waist length veil of illusion was held in place with pearl covered hearts topped with silk rosebuds. She carried a colonial bouquet of pastel colored Spring flowers, arranged with baby breath and blue satin ribbon.

Mrs. Daniel Mattioli, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Her gown was azure blue, dacron crepe, made old fashioned, tiny puffed sleeves, high waistline trimmed with wide white satin ribbon, large bow in front. Her matching head veil was caught with an arrangement of pastel colored Spring flowers. She carried a white basket of matching Spring flowers and satin ribbon.

Mrs. A. G. Hardee Jr., sister-in-law of the bride from Fort Collins, Colo. and Miss Margy Merryman, sorority sister of the bride from Montreal, Canada, were bridesmaids. They were dressed in formal gowns identical to the matron of honor.

The old fashioned theme was carried through to the flower girls, Linda and Brenda Mattioli, nieces of the bride, who wore yellow dacron crepe long dresses, trimmed with white satin ribbon and carried white baskets of Spring flower petals, which they sprinkled in the path of the bride. The little ring-bearer, Nathan Hardee, nephew of the bride, carried out the theme in his black suit which had white lace ruffles around the neck and sleeves. He carried the rings on a lace edged white satin pillow.

Thomas Garrett, brother of the bridegroom from Gaithersburg, Md., served as best man. Ushers were Dean McGinnis, from Lakeland and Dwight Pugh, from Lake Placid, fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother wore a street length dress of pink lace over pink crepe, pink hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of red rosebuds.

The bridegroom's mother wore a two piece ensemble of aqua crepe, elbow sleeves edged with Venise lace, hat to match white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds.

The bridegroom is a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army. After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Springfield, Pa.

Reception

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wesley Hall of the church.

Spring flowers and candelabra were used in decorations for the cake table and refreshments table from which punch, nuts and mints were served.

The tables were covered with floor length white cloths, pleated around the cake table and topped with lace. The three-tiered cake, was decorated with white and light blue flowers and topped with real pastel Spring flowers. White doves held the layers apart.

Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell, presented the guests to the receiving line. Patty Newcomer attended the bride's book.

Serving cake were, Mrs. William Meux, Mrs. Samuel Willis, both from Sebring; pouring, Mrs. Pauline Smith, Olga Bridges, Mildred Ferguson and Joy O'Steen. Junior hostesses, Jill Stone and Darlene Viets.

Out of town guests attended from Fort Collins, Colo., Tampa, Montreal, Canada, Springfield, Pa. Gaithersburg, Md., Overland Park, Kan.

CAVAID HOMES! We now have plans for a 2 bedroom, 2 bath home designed for Chronic Ailment victims. Some say that grandpa and grandma did all right, but they do not mention that the average life expectancy of our elders was 40 to 45, while it is now 70 to 75 and we are aiming for 120! Anyone is welcome to examine our plans if they deposit $10 in our escrow account, until the plans are used, or returned to us. ROY KEY REALTY, 385-0703 before noon.—3tpM22

THE RIDGE has the altitude, pure air and low humidity: should be the Health Spa of the World! Better grab a little sandy loam soil before outsiders get wise! Consider these cripples: Sebring 50x142, $500; Sebring Hills, near beautiful homes, 65x155, $500 or 75x141, $700; Lake Placid 80x125 $500. First Baptist R.A.'s Take Fishing Trip On Arbuckle Creek Friday

When school was dismissed on Friday afternoon, May 2, 13 R.A. boys along with four counselors headed for Arbuckle Creek with much enthusiasm. They put their two boats and three canoes in at the "Burnt Out Bridge" and their fishing expedition was underway.

Many stops were made along the creek while fishing. All the boys and their counselors carried lunches to fortify themselves as they spread out and fished during the night. Eventually they made their way ten miles down the creek to Hart's Ranch and pulled out at daylight.

The boys were returned to their homes by mid-morning Saturday. The purpose of the trip was to catch enough fish for a fish fry to entertain the Mens' Brotherhood of First Baptist Church.

Only those boys who had advanced in steps set forth in their Royal Ambassador manual were privileged to go on the trip. The R.A. boys enjoyed the exciting adventure and Christian fellowship. Also they were pleased with the results of their efforts as follows:

Gigged 26 gars, five bullfrogs. Caught eight mudfish, 24 catfish, 12 bass, two water snakes, one 3 ft. alligater, (which was released after they removed eight leeches from his feet).

It was decided however, more fishing must be done for the Brotherhood fish fry.

Boys making the trip were: Tommy Reynolds, Billy Sauls, Charles Snelgrove, Virgil McInvale, Jim Wood, Tommy Bean, Doyle Gaines, Dennis Crews, Hal Worden, Vic Mickunas, Gerald Huff, Dennis Johns, and Warren Hasen. Counselors, Curtis Nelson, DeWayne Lemler, Lawler Wells and Mike Rihner.

He hath crowned Himself with the glory of God's Revelation, and hath unlocked to the face of men the doors of His ancient Paradise." Let all rejoice, and let every ear be gladdened, for now is the time to gaze on His beauty, now is the fit time to hearken to His voice. Proclaim unto every longing lover: "Behold, your Well-Beloved hath come among men!" O lovers of His beauty! Turn the anguish of your separation from Him into the joy of an everlasting reunion, and let the sweetness of His presence dissolve the bitterness of your remoteness from His court.

Pairings Completed For Annual Golf Club Championship Tourney

The club championship gets under way this week. Pairings have been made and are posted in the club house or you may call GL 3-4200 at the golf shop and we will be happy to let you know with whom you are paired.

Fifty-three players are competing at match play in four flights according to handicap. One match a week for four weeks will determine the champions in each flight.

In the Pro Am last week a field of nine teams battled it out for top honors. The result was a tie between two teams. The first team to make their points was the team of Robert King, third, Ricky Dressel, Don Ford, and Bob Lee.

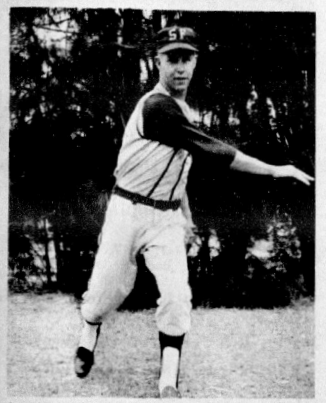

The second team to make their points was captained by Vern Lanier with W. A. Maddox, Hugh Dowling and Auggie Berline. This called for a sudden death playoff. Bob Lee and Auggie Berline split their share of the prize.

The balance of the two teams went to the first tee to battle head to head to determine the winning team and the honor of preparing the cookout on May 28 (last Wed. of the month). The eventual winners (being cheered on by the large gallery) were Vern Lanier, W. A. Maddox, Don Ford, Bob Lee and Auggie Berling.

Congratulations men—let's make the next Pro Am and cookout bigger and better than ever!

Saturday, May 3, the blind partners tournament was split into two groups. Pete Peterson and Bob Barben won the first group with a net 68. Harry Hood and Jarvis Hartt with net 65 were the winners in the second group.

With this Sunday being Mother's Day there will not be a mixed tournament Sunday afternoon but let's all come out for a fun time the following Sunday—Happy Mother's Day.

RANCE "HOPPIE" REWIS JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rance L. Rewis of Avon Park is pictured warming-up for the South Florida Junior College Panthers. Hoppie was a regular starter for the Panthers. He started for the Panthers as both a pitcher and second baseman. Hoppie, in 55 trips to the plate came across with a .269 average to spark the Panther Nine.

Armed Forces Day To Be Held May 17

Armed Forces Day will be observed throughout the country, Saturday, May 17. Again this year the theme for Armed Forces Day will be "Forces for Freedom." This will be an occasion for reporting to the American people, whenever they may be, about the activities of servicemen and women during the previous year.

In support of Armed Forces Day, the Honorable Robert E. Hampton, Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, made the following statement:

"I salute the members of our Armed Forces, and the million and a quarter Civil Servants who support the military establishment at home and around the world. Wherever they work—in offices, laboratories, factories, or military bases—civilian employees of the Department of Defense may take pride in the knowledge that they are invaluable partners of our uniformed Forces for Freedom."

Retired Persons To Meet

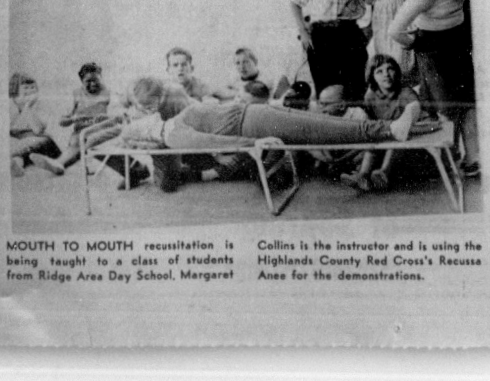

Highlands County Chapter 222 of AARP will hold their regular monthly meeting Tuesday, May 13 at 7:30 P.M. in the Sebring Manor Hotel.

This will be an open discussion meeting. Highlands County AARP insurance coordinator E. C. Ludington is scehduled to be present and will answer any and all of your questions in regard to your AARP insurance plans.

This will be the last meeting before recessing for the summer months. Regular meetings will resume Tuesday, Sept. 9 at 7:30. Notices will appear in the local papers and on both radio stations. Anyone 55 years of age or over is eligible to become a member whether or not retired.

Visitors are always welcome.

Despite Florida's small welfare payments Mrs. Church feels that the sunshine will lure many of them here. And living costs are much lower, especially in our Ridge area, she pointed out.

MOUTH TO MOUTH recussitation is being taught to a class of students from Ridge Area Day School. Margaret Collins is the instructor and is using the Highlands County Red Cross's Recussa Anes for the demonstrations.

Guard Reaches Half-Way Mark In Training

National Guard units from this area are approaching the half-way mark in their annual Summer encampment. Six officers and 83 enlisted men left Avon Park early May 3 for two weeks of intensive training at Fort Stewart, Ga.

Men from this area serve in Battery B, Second Battalion, 116th Artillery. Commander is Capt. Ira C. McKenzie, formerly of Avon Park. First Lt. Carroll Lloyd of Sebring is executive officer, and First Lt. Ernest Gillilan of Sebring is forward observer and motor officer.

Last year, when training in Summer camp was divided between artillery instruction and practice and riot training, Battery B won a superior rating.

Lt. Lloyd explained that teams from regular US Army evaluate the National Guard units as they are in Summer training. Emphasis is on combat efficiency of the unit. Battery B, which in the past has won direct fire awards, will compete on May 15 for the first battery award.

The battery officers are aiming to bring home both the firing award and another superior rating in combat efficiency, but they are less optimistic about winning the Eisenhower Trophy again. Two years ago Battery B won the big trophy for overall superior performance.

"Winning the Eisenhower Trophy is a once-in-a-lifetime honor," says Lt. Lloyd. "We'll be trying, but it's almost too much to hope we can win it again."

Full Schedule

Three nights are to be spent on bivouac. Formal parade is scheduled for Saturday, May 10. Most units will have Saturday afternoon and Sunday off, but Battery B has been assigned guard duty for weekend.

The graded army training test is to be administered on May 14 and the firing tests on May 15. Training in a mock-up of a Vietnamese village is tentatively scheduled for May 16.

The unit leaves Ft. Stewart early on May 17 and plans to arrive in Avon Park about 8 P.M. that night.

T-Sgt. Sellars Receives Citation

Technical Sergeant William C. Sellars, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Sellars of Avon Park, distinguished himself by meritorious service as non-commissioned officer in charge of welding shop, while assigned to the 318th Fighter Interceptor Squadron, Osan Air Base, Korea, from January 24, 1968 to August 5, 1968.

During this period, Sergeant Sellars' outstanding initiative and personal ingenuity enabled him to manufacture and repair equipment and parts that were not available through normal channels, while also willingly sacrificing his time to assist the base and other branches of the military service in the repair of their equipment. Sergeant Sellars' outstanding performance was instrumental in the squadron's achieving and maintaining a 2.5 percent aircraft operational rate, the highest sustained by any F-106 unit in the field. The distinctive accomplishment of Sergeant Sellars reflect credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.

Even if you are on the right track, you'll soon get run over, if you just sit there.

Property Owners Will Support Highlands School Bond Issue

The powerful Highlands County Property Owners Association, which numbers many of the area's larger landowners in its membership, this week threw its support behind the school bond issue which goes before the voters June 10.

The same group led the fight against the bond issue two years ago and it was defeated at the polls.

Announcement that the property owners would support the measure this time came after a meeting Monday night of directors with representatives of the citizens group which is advocating passage of the issue. The meeting was held at Howard Johnson's restaurant, and directors at the close of the session voted to support the $4,500,000 bond issue.

A spokesman said the decision by the directors to support the referendum was based on: (1) recognition of the urgent need for additional and improved facilities in Highlands County; (2) the fact that a bond issue appeared to be the only acceptable recourse to financing the required construction program; (3) confidence in the members of the Highlands County school board to assure that the ultimate construction program would fulfill the essential school facility requirements within the principles of economy and sound business practices.

In addition to supporting the school bond referendum, the directors expressed their willingness to assist the school board in review and examination of plans and specifications as they progress toward finalization.

At the invitation of the property owners, Rex Bond, representing the citizens organization for school construction, made the presentation in favor of the bonds at the directors' meeting.

He was accompanied by Henry Bailey, chairman of the school board and George Douglass, superintendent of schools. The three collaborated in answering numerous questions from the directors. One factor was pressed home in particular—the schools have no source available to pay except the bonds to get the needed money.

Among the many aspects covered during the discusion was an explanation by the school officials on how they expect to spend the bond issue with 1.7 mils, relating this 1.7 mill requirement to the 1.5 mills now levied for site acquisition. They pointed out the increase to the taxpayer is only 2 of one mill to service the bond issue.

Highlands Top Students Honored At Scholarship Banquet Saturday

ASTRONAUT CHARLES DUKE was the stellar attraction at the Scholarship Recognition dinner Saturday night at Hotel Sebring. At left is Perry Pollard, Sebring High School's valedictorian and at right is Patricia Lou Miller, valedictorian at Avon Park high school. Valedictorian honors at Lake Placid this year were shared by Beryle Tylar and Tommy Tyson, who weren't around for the picture-taking.

"If I were president of a college they wouldn't take over my office without a fight because it's wrong," Tampa Mayor Dick A. Greco, Jr., told Highlands County honor seniors at the 1969 Scholarship Recognition, Inc., banquet.

The youthful Tampa mayor pitched his speech to the honor students in the senior classes of Sebring, Avon Park and Lake Placid high schools along patriotic lines, stressing that the United States still is a land of hope and opportunity for those persons willing to work hard.

"There are many changes in our land—and some of them we should be concerned about. I am a politician—and make no mistake about that. There is nothing wrong with being a politican. There are people dieing this minute to preserve the privilege of self-government."

"Too many people in this time have their hand out, and thank God we live in a country where you can live that way, but citizenship is like farming—you have to put something back into the ground to keep getting something out of it," Greco said.

After the Mayor's speech each of the seniors who had maintained at least a B average through four years of high school was called to the front of the Sebring Hotel dining room and given a small key.

The awards were handed out by Major Charles M. Duke, a member of the astronaut team chosen for the space shot later this month.

Other program participants were Jack Hancock, Marshall S. P. Pollard, Rex Bond, Glenn Odham, George F. Douglass, Billy Cason, Aubrey Morris and Guy Garrett.

Patricia Lou Miller of Avon Park received a special award from Holiday Inn of Lake Placid. Miss Miller's 3.904 grade average is the highest among the three high schools in the county.

25 Percent More Delinquent Taxes This Year

About 25 per cent more properties are delinquent on their taxes this year than last, Tax Collector W. H. Prescott disclosed this week as he advertised that the delinquent properties will be sold on the courthouse steps May 29.

The main difference comes, he said, in the fact that the developers and owners of Orange Blossom Estates have not yet paid. They are in the process of litigation with the Florida Land Sales board and Circuit Court has ordered appointment of a receiver. A total of 224 parcels remain unpaid.

Another large taxpayer who is delinquent is James Watson who owns a 6,450 acre ranch in the southwest part of the county.

Community National Life Ins. Co. which bought 3,257 acres of ranch land from the Touchton family in the Avon Park area, has not yet paid the taxes.

Again this year Highlands Park has not paid tax—in fact has not since 1967. They are still in federal bankruptcy court.

Prescott said there "is some indication we may get the taxes on the Highlands Park property this Summer. They are hopeful the reorganization will be approved."

All properties can be redeemed before the sale date by payment of a three per cent penalty plus advertising costs. The deadline for paying without penalties was April 1.

Shuffling

Eight and a half courts played on Wednesday evening, a beautiful time to play. Winners were Ray Johnson and Francis McRae over Blaine Kerr and Alton Wetmore. Jennie Baker and Herb Shauger won in consolation with Lois Johnson and Alta Robinson the runners-up.

Card Games

Four tables of pinochle players had their game on Monday afternoon. Grace Beauvais came in first with a score of 887, while Minnie Brown was second with 830.

Dances

The dances continue on Monday and Friday evenings with one and two squares. The evenings this week were cool enough so not too hot to dance.

Supper

There was a real nice crowd out Saturday evening for the regular supper, with 26 in attendance. Alta Robinson was the hostess and Irene Ayling returned thanks.

Caroline Webber, Vonna Beall, Helen Good and Anna Spring all gave such interesting readings. Fern Haas told the funny "Story of the Flying Corpse." Agnes Dentler on the piano and Fred Robinson with his harmonica played a few tunes. The meeting ended with "God Be With You Till We Meet Again."

All stayed and played cards.

Chit-Chat

Ruth Jordan stayed a few days in the hospital, but is now home and back at the Club.

We heard that Scott DeGolyer was transplanting an azalea at his home on a hillside in Castile, N. Y. His spade broke and he had a little spill, but didn't do down the hill.

Lura Pickell is home from Hammond, Ind. where she has been visiting her brother. She will be located in the Martin apartments.

The William Bensons are entertaining his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Benson, from St. Louis, Mo.

The brother of Elsie Dickerson entertained at a family dinner party to celebrate the 50th anniversary of David and Elsie Dickerson. In the afternoon there was an "open house" for friends to come to wish the Dickersons a "Happy Anniversary." Altogether a very happy day for them.

The Glenn Longs arrived home in Plantsville, Conn. to be greeted by six members of the family, who helped them unpack, the granddaughter prepared the family supper. The table was decorated with a beautiful floral arrangement.

In the evening the rest of the family came in to welcome them home, also to help them celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary.

Remember my P. O. Box is 1265. Will be so glad to hear from all of you.

Ridge Riders To Entertain FFA Meeting

The Avon Park Chapter of Future Farmers of America is fortunate in obtaining the Ridge Riders to entertain at their Eighth Annual Banquet this year. We are also pleased to announce that Chet Good of radio station WSEB in Sebring will serve as master of ceremonies for this excellent group of musicians.

This band is becoming widely known in this area for playing country-western and blue-grass music. They play at outdoor activities such as rodeos, horse shows, grand openings as well as square dances and parties. They also play variety and novelty music for various occasions.

The annual Father-Son banquet is intended to express appreciation to the parents and friends of FFA. It is also intended to promote a feeling of comradeship and cooperation between the parents and son with reference to the farm business. The Father-Son banquet also gives the chapter an opportunity to recognize outstanding members and persons in the community who have contributed to the success of the chapter. And last but not least the banquet provides an opportunity to entertain parents and guests and show them an enjoyable time.

This year's banquet will be held at the elementary school cafetorium at 7:30 P. M., May 12.

THE RED DEVIL track team will have representatives in four events at the state Class B track meet tomorrow (Friday). These four boys will run in the sprint-medley relay having qualified in the district meet last week with a time of 2:04.3 for second place. From left to right are, Charlie Magenheimer who anchors the relay, running the 440-yard leg; Billy Richards who runs the 330-yard lap; Willie Seigler who runs the 220-yard second lap; and Roy Claitt who starts the race off with the 110-yard leg. Also competing at the state meet will be Clyde Sumbry in the mile and the half mile races; and Charlie Magenheimer in the high jump.

Devils To Compete In State Meet

The Avon Park Red Devil track team placed fourth in the Class B district meet held in Fort Meade last Friday afternoon with a total of 32 points and qualified in four events for the state meet to be held in Gainesville tomorrow (Friday).

Red Devil distance runner, Clyde Sumbry broke his own school record in the mile by taking first place in the district meet with a time of 4 minutes, 45 seconds and also took first place in the 880-yard run (half mile) with a time of 2 minutes, 5 2/10 seconds.

Charlie Magenheimer qualified in the high jump event by taking second place with a jump of 5 feet, 10¼ inches.

Then the Devil sprint-medley relay team qualified for the state meet with a second place district time of 2 minutes, 4 and 3/10 seconds. Running the sprint-medley for the Devils were: Roy Claitt running the first lap of 110 yards; Willie Seigler running the 220-yard second lap; Billy Richards taking the 330-yard third leg; and Charlie Magenheimer anchoring the relay by running the 440-yard final lap.

The Red Devils will send six boys to Gainesville to the state meet. They will leave Thursday and compete in the Class B events on Friday. In addition to the five boys who qualified, Coach Paul Roberts will take Neal Caswell as an alternate for the sprint-medley relay team.

Also scoring in the district meet for Avon Park was the 880-yard relay team which took fourth place. The relay team was made up of Claitt, Winkie Hall, Neal Caswell, and Zeigler.

Jim Magenheimer also scored for Avon Park with a sixth place in the high jump. Jim jumped 5 feet, 4 inches.

The district meet was won by Plant City's Marshall, Union Academy of Bartow took second place, and Fort Meade came in third.

Highlands School Board Lists New Teachers For Year Appointments

Tightening of continuing contract requirements for Highlands County teachers was reported by Superintendent George F. Douglass at the May school board meeting.

A total of 28 continuing contracts were approved by the school board May 8, but Supt. Douglass told the board, "We have several teachers not placed on continuing contract." Douglass has said he hopes to make attainment of tenure a "real achievement."

Board Chairman Henry Bailey noted, "Teachers should not be given continuing contract just because they have been in the county three years."

Seven Sebring teachers were granted continuing contract at the meeting last week. They are Joan Carlton, Norma Curry and Kathryn Smith, of Woodlawn faculty; Connie Rankin, June Stoutamire, Lynwood Williams, Elbert Gibbons of Sebring High.

In Avon Park continuing contract was approved for Frank Burns, Gladys Chapman, Edward Culbertson, Theda Miracle, Fred Sandlin of Avon Park High; Virginia Crews of Avon Elementary, Mae E. Brewton, Cleveland E. Henry and Edna J. Jackson all of Hopewell.

Half of the new continuing contracts went to Lake Placid teachers: Daniel Durrance, Olene Gillenwater, Phyllis Johnson, Sam A. Green, Daniel G. McPherson, Carroll Phillips of Lake Placid High; Cora Van Keuren, Thyra Robinson, Virginia Dunty and Betty Phillips of Lake Placid Elementary; Mary K. Merilatt and Frances M. Finnell of Carver.

Assistant Principal

The newly created assistant principal positions at Avon Park High and Sebring High were filled by appointments announced last week. John Freeland, veteran baseball coach and this year social service director at SHS, will move into the second assistant principal position at SHS.

In Avon Park High the second assistant principal post goes to a newcomer, Leon Garner.

Few of the appointments approved by the school board were for teachers just coming into Highlands County: Garner, Paul Curtis Foraker, Roy Herbert Rowe, Jr., William Meux, Jr., for APHS; Mrs. Jimmie C. Garner, Mark H. Springer, Helen C. Springer and Shirley S. Rogers for Avon Elementary; Phyllis Anne Love for Hopewell.

Doris Gentry, William F. Locke, Etta Marie Hill for SHS; Minora V. McPhail for DeSoto City-Fred Wild; Shirley Blackman, Mary Elizabeth True and Nancy C. Ward for Woodlawn Elementary.

Each school has several faculty members on continuing contract returning next year to the posts they held in the current year.

Solutions Sought For City Parking

As the problem of parking in business areas increases there is a good chance that in the future it may become necessary for the city to require off-street parking space before a permit is given for the construction of business buildings. A similar requirement may be made of churches to be constructed in congested areas.

At the last meeting of the city council, city attorney was asked to seek information as to what is being done along this line in other cities so the best course of action for Avon Park can be taken.

In other matters of granting building permits our city building inspector has been seeking clarification of regulations especially in areas classified as residential. The problems of corner lots, half-blocks and street-to-street property raise many questions. According to Councilman Lane our building inspector has interpreted the zoning law to require accessory buildings to be 25 feet from rear property lines.

Under many circumstances such a requirement would severely restrict the rights of the property owner. A broader interpretation of the law eliminates such restrictions in lots with more than one street front.

There are cases where residential zones have found certain businesses to be a community asset. The improvement of the Scott-Stephenson-Smith property is a good example. However, questions have been raised concerning what can and cannot be in the way of construction and lighting by a business so situated. Owners of the property are at present apparently in violation of zoning regulations in the construction of a storage building too near the front line and in their neon sign. A motion was made by Scott and seconded by Howard that the building inspector give written notice to the owners to stop construction if it is in violation of the zoning code, and the motion was carried, unanimously.

Lane pointed out a dangerous situation in the use of neon lights over doorways. Such lights carry as much as 15,000 volts and were low enough to be grabbed by accident. If one were to slip in wet weather the contact could be fatal. It was agreed that the electrical inspector be requested to check into places of business where such dangers exist.

City Charges Non-Residents Fee For Using Dump

City employees and others have recently brought to the attention of the city council the use and abuse being made of the city dump. Trash and garbage is being brought in by numerous individuals both inside and outside of the city and scattered without any regard for roadways or excavations. The life of city truck tires has often been greatly shortened by this indiscriminate dumping, and health hazards have been created by uncontrolled scavengers.

At the council meeting Monday night the council unanimously agreed to place a gate at the dump, to hire a gate keeper who will charge dump users 50c per vehicle and who will have exclusive rights as scavenger. Such collections and rights will be retained by gate-keeper as his pay for services rendered.

Other actions taken at the last meeting of the city council:

A car which has been parked in the parking lot behind Ridge Florists is to be hauled to the city barn for storage or if unclaimed, for salvage of any useful parts.

Lettering designating the building as an airport hangar on the Critchfield Marine leased building is to be painted out by the city.

South Florida Junior College has been granted use of the municipal tennis courts from 8 A.M. to 11 A.M. daily.

Some injustices are bound to occur when principles are written into a rigid law. We all have suffered from technical perfection of government red tape but our city council is adjustable where ordinances create injustice. A three dollar charge for commercial garbage collection at the Steel Products place of business was reduced by the council to an office charge of 75c, when it was pointed out that the company has no garbage and handles its own scrap metal.

Dr. Ted W. Ward Named Director Of MSU Research Institute

Dr. Ted W. Ward, son of Ted J. Ward, professor and director of Michigan State University's Learning Systems Institute, has also been named director of the MSU Human Learning Research Institute.

Dr. Ward, who has served as acting director of the research institute since 1967, was approved as director Friday (Feb. 21) by the MSU Board of Trustees, effective as of January 15, 1969.

The institute, jointly administered by the university's College of Education and College of Social Science, conducts research on problems closely related to learning. Specific projects have included verbal learning, concept attainment, cultural differences in intergenerational attitudes and cooperative behavior in small groups.

Dr. Ward, who will continue his present assignments in the Learning Systems Institute, has been a member of the faculty since 1956. He recently visited American overseas schools in Latin America, Europe and Asia concerning learning problems.

He has taught at the University of Miami, University of Florida and Wheaton Academy (Ill.). His first position at Michigan State was as a resident coordinator of the MSU-Pontiac Teaching Center. He served as curriculum coordinator for the College of Education before becoming director of the Learning Systems Institute.

Dr. Ward is the author of two guide booklets widely used by student teachers, "You're in for a Surprise" and "What Makes the Difference?" He has served as section editor of the 1961 and 1963 yearbooks of the Association for Student Teaching. He is past president of the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra Association and is active in church music in Lansing.

He holds a bachelor of music education degree from Wheaton College (Ill.) and a master of education degree and Ed.D. from the University of Florida.

Former City Councilman Dies Of Gunshot Wounds Tuesday

Wayne Albright, former Avon Park City Councilman, who made headlines on an assault charge a year or so ago, was found Tuesday noon shot in the chest, lying in the yard behind his home at 1012 Lake Blvd.

He was 43. Coroner Mervin Rehrer termed the death suicide by shotgun wound "self-inflicted. He was alone at the time of the shooting at 12:45 P.M.

Albright was found guilty in January a year ago of aggravated assault by threatening roofer James K. Cobb with a pistol in the Avon Park fire station. He received a sentence of $500 or six months in jail, appealed and had the sentence confirmed. He paid the fine.

Albright, 43 years old came to Avon Park in 1948 from Martins Ferry, Ohio. He was a veteran of WWII, a licensed auctioneer and was a member of the Christian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Helen Welch Albright, two sons, Mark Wayne and Timothy Jay, one sister, Mrs. Waneta Hilligas from Adena, Ohio; one uncle and three aunts.

Ridge Area Welcomes G. Myer To Their Staff

The Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children has employed the services of Gene Myer for the position of full-time secretary-bookkeeper. Mr. Myer has recently completed 21 years in the United States Air Force when he had attained the rating of Senior Master Sargent. As a Manpower Management Superintendent in the Air Force, Mr. Myer had extensive experience in personnel work as well as in clerical duties. These qualifications will be very beneficial to the Ridge Area Association.

Although his Air Force career has taken him to Panama, Japan, England, as well as Alaska and other points in the United States, Mr. Myer considers Avon Park his home town. Family members in Avon Park include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Myers, and a sister, Mrs. Virgil (Pete) Sizemore.

Gene Myer and his wife, Esteen are the parents of seven children. The two oldest children, Sylvia and Gary attend Avon Park Jr. High. The children, Merry, Brian, and twins, Iris and Ivy attend Avon Elementary. The youngest, Anita, will enter the first grade this Fall.

The Ridge Area Association is delighted to welcome Mr. Myer to the staff.

SFJC Students Make Better Grades In Senior Colleges

Clamor about the failures of junior college graduates' in senior college is adding to the stature of South Florida Junior College.

In a report to the Highlands County School Board, Dr. William A. Stallard, SFJC president, said the Highlands-Hardee school is one of the three Florida junior colleges having a "plus correlation."

"That means," President Stallard said, "that former South Florida Junior College students have done better work, and made higher grades in senior colleges than at South Florida."

When asked how SFJC had achieved this unusual record Dr. Stallard was quick to point out, "We are still small and young. But we do make an all-out effort to prepare the students in the college parallel program for work in senior college.

"We really hold their feet to the fire. We have had as high as 50 or 60 percent of the students on academic probation—and quite a few flunk out.

"Please understand we are talking about the students who are headed for college. The vocational division is another matter. Preparation for a job has different requirements, but the students who come to us as college-bound are made to understand they must buckle down and work."

Academic standing will not prevent a student's entering SFJC; it receives all comers who have a high school diploma or its equivalent. To date, not one of its college-parallel graduates has flunked out of a senior college.

Dr. Stallard is warm in his praise for the SFJC faculty: "We have well trained, experienced teachers. Large junior colleges, like large universities, have the number problem—too many students per teacher. At junior college you do have the chance to have an experienced teacher, not a graduate assistant just beginning.

"And junior college faculties have a real break in that they are expected to teach—not conduct great research or write books. They are teachers. Some of the large junior colleges have had to hire people without experience, but again, South Florida is lucky," Dr. Stallard says.

Right now graduating from South Florida Junior college would appear to be good senior college insurance.

902 Persons In County Under 60 Receive Social Security Benefits

A record $3,389,000 in monthly social security benefits was being paid to residents of Hardee, Highlands and Polk counties at the end of December 8 1968, an increase of 23 per cent above the amount payable at the end of February 1968, according to William E. Arnold, district manager for social security.

In Highlands County 902 people under age 60 are receiving benefits. That figure breaks down into 492 under 18; 68 from 18-21, and 342 in the 22-59 age bracket.

"Throughout the country, monthly benefits payable at the end of 1968 amounted to nearly $2.1 billion, some $350 million higher than at the end of 1967," Arnold continued. "Approximately three-quarters of the increased monthly amount resulted from higher benefit rates authorized by the 1967 Amendments to the Social Security Act. The remainder of the increase was simply due to a greater number of beneficiaries."

By the end of May 1969, social security will be paying monthly benefits to more than 25 million people—one out of every eight Americans. Retired workers comprise the largest group of beneficiaries, almost one-fourth of all people receiving benefits are under 60. There are currently more than 3.8 million children and .5 million young widowed mothers receiving payments. Yet the public continues to think of social security as a program for old people.

Many students would have been unable to continue their educations were it not for the 1965 Amendments to the Social Security Act which extended survivors and dependents insurance benefits to students until their 22nd birthdays. In 1968, that provision resulted in continuing benefits for 470,000 students.

Monthly payments to the family of a worker who dies leaving a widow and two or more children range from $82.50 to $434.40 a month, depending on the worker's average earnings under social security. Payments to the young family of a worker who dies at an early age could total as much as $85,000 to $100,000.

State School Superintendent Tells School Board "Don't Wait"

Commendation for local efforts to meet local needs was sounded in a short speech Floyd Christian, Florida commissioner of education, made in an impromptu visit to the Highlands County School Board meeting.

Christian dropped by the school board meeting just as financial consultant firms were making proposals for marketing the bonds when and if the proposed $4.5 million bond issue is approved.

Christian, formerly superintendent of schools in Pinellas County, noted, "Let's see what the Legislature will do is a song I've heard for years and while you wait the needs grow. My advice is you're better off to go ahead and make some local provision for construction money," the state cabinet officer said.

The school board told the financial consultant firms they are not ready to talk about marketing of bonds, but board members and members of the audience "pitched in" to make suggestions for a bond "fact sheet."

School Board Chairman Henry Bailey asked that the fact sheet emphasize that the proposed $4.5 million issue would up taxes only .2 of one mill above the present level; Robert H. Hubbell suggested that proposed expenditures for each building be listed, and Superintendent George F. Douglass explained that passage of the bond issue would enable the board to move on all building proposals at once and save money on building plans and materials.

Explusion of Student

In the May school board meeting Supt. Douglass recommended explusion of John Miners from Highlands County schools. Douglass said this is the first explusion he has recommended since becoming superintendent in 1965.

He explained the 15-year-old Miners had been suspended from Sebring High School four times in the current school year —mostly for rebelling against all authority within the school. Only the school board may take final action on an explusion which takes the form of a formal resolution entered into the board minutes.

Bids Approved

Teachers present at the board meeting explained that Highlands County Physical Education Association is working toward preparation of new specifications for physical education equipment.

School Board member G. F. Ward said some suppliers had complained that vague specifications were resulting in the schools' obtaining inferior equipment.

Glenn Odham, county supervisor for physical education, said introduction of many imports is making selection of durable equipment more difficult.

McCord Business Machines won the bid for typewriters for Highlands County schools next year, and Townsend Lumber Company won the paint and floor maintenance materials bid.

Out-of-county suppliers won the bids for audio visual equipment and furniture for schools.

The board voted to lease public address equipment for the new Lake Placid Elementary School, Lake Placid High and part of Woodlawn Elementary.

Board members Ward, E. Ray Wells and John Wirick were named to represent Highlands County on the South Florida Junior College budget review board. Two other review board members will be named from Hardee County.

Federal Silence

Supt. Douglass said no communications have been received from the Federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare concerning the proceeding charging Highlands County with violation of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

On the recommendation of the board attorney, Frank Bryant, the board approved transfer of all students who applied under the county's desegregation plan. Supt. Douglass said the complete freedom of transfer is in line with practices of other years.

Move Lights

The city of Sebring has asked the school board to consider permitting moving of athletic field lights from E. O. Douglas football field to the play field opposite SHS gym.

Rev. W. J. Jackson, founder of the Sebring Teens of Progress (STOP) has asked the city to provide a lighted field where STOP softball teams could play this Summer.

Realtors Observe Realtor Week May 18-24

Realtors and their Associates (salesmen) throughout Florida will observe "Realtor Week," beginning Sunday through May 24. Many Boards of Realtors have scheduled events highlighting this annual event.

James E. Hollenbeck, Jr., of West Palm Beach, president of the Florida Association of Realtors, attended ceremonies in Tallahassee when Governor Claude Kirk signed a proclamation heralding "Realtor Week" in the state.

The proclamation hails the right of private property ownership; cites Realtors for contributing to public confidence by their pledge to uphold the "Code of Ethics" of the National Association of Real Estate Boards; and honors Realtors for their contribution to every level of local and state government by their participation in public affairs and charitable and educational causes.

The Florida Association of Realtors has a current membership of 14,000 Realtors and Associates throughout the state. This year's "Realtor Week" theme is "Home Ownership—Foundation of the Nation."

Youth Should Be Given Volunteer Work Assignment In Community

Helen Keller at the age of seven slapped, kicked and bit everybody who came near her, Why? It was simple because, being deaf, dumb and blind, she had found no other outlet of communications. A growing mind with no outlet is like a bomb, ready to explode on contact.

The problems of a restless world the same. We are growing so rapidly, that people with knowledge, insight and ability are suppressed and denied the opportunity for self expression and usefulness. Even the demand for law and order is basically a demand for the status quo rather than progress.

The fundamental gaps in understanding between nationalities, classes, creeds, races, education and age have a common denominator. Almost invariably it is a struggle between the governing and the governed in common organization. Our democracy is supposed to have a cure for that.

Our society today is topheavy with economic, political, religious and social "specialists." In the field of medicine the general practitioner known and loved by all, knew his people, but in his place today are all kinds of specialists able and willing to diagnose only a small fraction of the individual and his problems.

Nowhere is rebellion more obvious and vigorous than is todays youth. As adults we have power and control in a growing society not through superiority but through seniority alone. Why all this rebellion against social tradition, law and order? Is it not that our youth live in a world of handouts and keepouts; except when the military demands their services. They are given defending a government they feel no part in. They are given tremendously increased ability and at the same time decreased responsibility. In the meantime parents leave home and struggle along years so their children can get ahead.

Two generations ago the average 12-year-old had more limited educational opportunities but more definite responsibilities. Today we cram them with ten more years of education and ten less years of application. Is it any wonder that with one-third of their lives already gone they feel that the world owes them a living?

Naturally they seek a soft, secure occupation with short hours as specialists. Free from competition with common people.

We have been talking with youth guidance in Avon Park and asked is guidance going to come through more buildings, more places of entertainment and more seniority control; or will it come through responsibility and meaningful participation? Youth needs participation not in more entertainment with childhood games but in the vital essential world of adult living.

If we really desire a youth guidance program suppose we have an organization which might be called "Youth Volunteers Incorporated, instead of paying money for membership, let it be based on say 100 hours of designated community service.

In hospitals, the higher the overhead cost rises the greater the demand for volunteers to do the work. Let's stop raising the cost for other community services by the same method. Instead of hiring more specialist, more policemen, firemen and specialized labor why not give the youth a chance to learn by doing.

Much could be done toward a youth program with the salary of even one less person on the public payroll. Let's reward youth as an organization with common objectives of their own choosing instead of as individuals whose only desire is to ruthlessly get ahead. Then they would feel themselves coworkers instead of antagonists of government and society.

Let's request our city government and other public services to secure the cooperation of an ever increasing costly school system in outlining a plan of youth participation in all phases of our community life.

When specialists leave and when our government becomes too costly to service we then might have an experienced reserve ready and willing to fill in.

Farm Bureau Opposes Bond Issue

The 500-member Highlands County Farm Bureau went on record this week as opposing the $4,500,000 school bond issue for school construction which goes before the voters June 10.

The Farm Bureau took no stand on the school bonds issue when it came up for vote two years ago. However, many of their members are members of the Highlands County Property Owners Association which actively opposed the issue at that time.

The Property Owners this go-round are backing the issue along with an organization of interested citizens and parents. Voters defeated the school bond issue by 231 votes in mid-April 1967.

In a statement signed by Rick C. Dressel, president of Highlands County Farm Bureau, members said they oppose the "further mortgaging of Highlands County property by the sale of bonds for necessary improvements or expenditures brought about by an increase in population."

The step was taken, it said, "after much discussion and careful analysis of the problems and needs of our local government."

The Farm Bureau "sympathizes" with the problems faced by local government, the statement notes, "but we believe that this is not altogether a local problem, but is in fact state-wide."

The statement points out:

"Since government was established, property has been the principal base for securing monies to finance operations. As time progressed and needs increased the majority of the burden has been carried by property taxes on a local basis.

"Current county and municipal operating and maintenence costs have driven property taxes to a dangerously high level. With increased needs, through an ever increasing population, we can only expect these costs to increase in proportion.

"We therefore urgently request that our state legislature and executive branch earnestly and conscientiously pursue a new concept of bond collateral, whereby bonds payments can be guaranteed by some other means than by a mortgage on private property."

Guests at the supper included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith from Jacksonville, who are visiting their sister-in-law, Vonna Beall.

Highlands School Girls Chorus Concert May 17

The 32 member Highlands School Chorus will present their annual spring concert in the assembly room at Highlands School on Saturday, May 17, 8 P.M.

The program will include both secular and sacred selections from the chorus repertoire. Also, featured on the program will be soloist Derinda Cain from Jasper, Ala., and Dory Kopituk from Miami. A flute trio will be performed by Linda Hicks, Grace Williams and Sally Sandidge in addition to flute solos. Camille Kelly and Evelyn Metcalfe will play a piano duet and numbers will be performed by a sextet drawn from the chorus.

This concert is presented in conjunction with the annual open house weekend for prospective students of Highlands School and the public is invited to attend.

The Highlands School Chorus, accompanied by Billie Truesdell from Washington, D. C. has just recently attended the state choral contest in Hollywood, Fla., where they received an excellent rating. It is hoped that all those interested will come to the Spring concert.

Sacred numbers will be, "This Little Babe," "Brother James Air," "Thou Knowest Lord."

Secular or popular, "Mame," "Hello Dolly," "The Happy Wanderer," "Greetings" by Brahms, "The Year's at the Spring."

Girl Scout Fund Drive Stands At $800

The Girl Scout Fund Drive for 1969 stands now at $800, Mrs. James Turnbull, chairman has announced. The response to letters sent to businesses and individuals in town has been very good. With the $900 goal in sight, Mrs. Turnbull has set Tuesday, May 20 as the day personal follow-up calls will be made. On this day, members of the Fund Drive Committee will call on those who received letters reminding them of the need of the Girl Scouts for their contributions.

Belonging to the Girl Scout Council has many advantages. Without their equipment and the training they make available to adult volunteers, leaders would find it difficult to offer girls a quality program. Through the council, girls may apply for national and international opportunities. Better yet, though, any girl in Avon Park who so desires can be a Girl Scout. There is a service team responsible to the Heart of Florida Council that will not only find leaders for new troops, but will train them. Due to increased interest and demand, it appears that next year an additional Junior Troop as well as a Senior Troop will be added to the roster here in Avon Park.

In speaking of this fund drive and the importance of its success, Mrs. Turnbull has said that now is the time, when many are worried about our young people across the nation, to give to this organization which encourages young girls in love of their home, their country, and God.

MR. AND MRS. TED J. WARD and friends at the Pyramids in Egypt, taken during their 22-day tour of the Holy Land, with a group of 25 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ward Return From Holy Land

Mr. and Mrs. Ted J. Ward have just returned from a 22 day jet flying trip to the Holy Land, where they took many sight-seeing bus trips through the countryside traversed by Jesus, Paul and the Apostles. Time was spent in Cairo, Egypt; Beirut, Lebanon; Jerusalem, Bethhehem, Beersheba, Nazareth, Capernaum and Jericho, Israel; Izmir, Pergamos and Istanbul, Turkey; Salonika, Kavala, Philippi and Athens, Greece, and finally in Rome, Italy, where visits were made to the catacombs, the beautiful St. Peters Church and the Vatican City where the Pope appeared on a balcony for a short time to address the people in Latin. Both going and coming, fueling stops were made at the Lisbon, Portugal, Airport. New York was the point of departure and arrival.

The only 80 degree weather was in Cairo where all of the 25 members of the party enjoyed a camel ride. Mostly, the evenings were quite cool and the days were in the 60's and low 70's.

War preparations were apparent everywhere but the tourists were not delayed in their sight-seeing as were those riding in other vehicles than a bus. Cairo business places had plate glass windows taped as we do for hurricanes. Sand bags by the thousands were also apparent. One night a few heard noises like we sometimes hear from the Bombing Range, but it was reported the next day as just an exchange of artillery fire.

Everywhere the people were friendly, though their customs were quaint the food was very good, and the water supply in the large cities was considered safe for drinking.

One of the best meals was served at an Israeli Kabutz, one of their communal farms which has played such a large part in restoring their nation.

The most delightful experiences was visiting the excavations, the cave of the Dead Sea Scrolls, and seeing the Bible come to life in the area where it was written, made the whole trip worthwhile. Usable buildings 1500 to 2,000 years old were almost unbelievable but proved beyond dispute.

The Wards were glad they had an opportunity to go with other Christians and the trip was the greatest they could imagine.

Famous last line: "It surely is good to be home again."

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By Powell Waite

The Highlands School Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Metcalf, presented a beautiful program of music. The chorus has just recently been rated as Excellent in the state contest and prior to the state rating received a Superior rating in the district.

The chorus presented several numbers they used in state competition and several "old time" tunes to fit the tempo of the audience.

Among the songs presented were: "This Little Babe," "From Sea to Shining Sea," "The Years at the Spring," "Greetings," "I Could Have Danced All Night," "Hey Look Me Over," "Mame," and "I'm Getting Married in the Morning." The chorus was accompanied on the piano by Miss Billie Truesdell of Washington, D.C. One outstanding feature of the program was the singing of Miss Derinda Cain of Jasper, Ala., who sang two solos, "When I Have Sung My Song" and "The Sound of Music."

A Spring concert will be presented by the chorus at the school on May 17, at 8 P.M.

Keep It Beautiful

If America hired people for the job, it would take the largest sort of army to keep our country free of litter.

But there's no need to hire anyone. It's a job we can do for ourselves. All of us. Every family that spreads a picnic lunch. Every boatman who cruises the lakes and waterways. Every motorist who uses our roads and highways.

It is the pleasure of the U. S. Brewers Association each year to give its fullest support to the Keep America Beautiful Campaign. Remember: Every Litter Bit Hurts. This is our land. Let's treat it right.

Remember, you don't have to spend a million to look like a million. Just be sure to get a lot more for your money.

Example: Cutlass S. This one's got Olds class and quality written all over it.

There's a Rocket 350 V-8—that runs on regular gas. A genuine Olds ride and handling action that make you feel like a million, too. There's even an anti-theft steering column lock you can't get on many cars at any price.

Put them all together and they add up to extra value that goes far beyond the modest Cutlass price.

How to look like a million on the same old budget you had before.

Brownie Troop End of Season Activities

After first having a proper flag-raising ceremony in front of the elementary school, giving a final salute to the flag and then singing "America," Brownie Troop 150 burned an old, old flag.

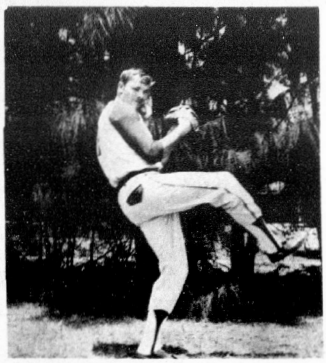

Learning how to do things properly is an important part of Girl Scouting. The girls were glad to have this opportunity to learn what to do with a flag that can no longer be used.

If you have a flag that is worn out, tattered, or badly faded, perhaps you would like to give it to the Girl Scouts for this kind of ceremony.

My kitchen is equipped with a dishwasher, garbage disposal, built-in oven and table top stove. I have two utility rooms, one inside and one outside also a car-port. For your comfort I will keep you warm in winter and cool in summer with my central unit. How about some kind soul buying me and turning me into a home instead of just a house. Price? CAVAID HOMES! We now have plans for a 2 bedroom, 2 bath home designed for Chronic Ailment victims. Some say that grandpa and grandma did all right, but they do not mention that the average life expectancy of our elders was 40 to 45, while it is now 70 to 75 and we are aiming for 120! Anyone is welcome to examine our plans if they deposit $10 in our escrow account, until the plans are used, or returned to us. ROY KEY REALTY, 385-0703 before noon.—3tpM22

FIX-IT TIP

When draining the old oil out of your power mower this spring, flush first by adding enough oil to top off the crank case. Then run the engine until it warms up. Drain while the oil is still hot and most of the winter sludge will come out with it. Then refill with fresh oil.

Hospital and Dr. C. J. Larsen Is Being Sued For $5,000

Damages in excess of $5,000 are asked on each of two counts in a suit filed in Circuit Court against Walker Memorial Hospital and Dr. C. J. Larsen.

Highlands Insurance Co. filed the suit for itself and on behalf of Claude H. Prater. It charges that Dr. Larsen failed to obtain Prater's "informed consent" before performing surgery at Walker Memorial Hospital and then performed the surgery in such a way that the nerves of the inguinal area (groin) were damaged and there was damage to the spermatic cord.

The suit claims that Prater was permanently and totally disabled and will require medical treatment indefinitely.

The suit maintains that the hospital had failed to live up to its responsibility to avoid performance of unnecessary surgery and allowed negligent acts in the care of Prater.

The suit was originally filed in Hillsborough County in September and named a Tampa physician as one of the defendants. Circuit Court in Hillsborough divided the case and ordered the portions related in Highlands County to be tried here.

A hearing before Judge A. H. Lane is set for 1:30 P.M. on June 5.

Methodist Church Starts Renovation

The First United Methodist Church has started their program of renovating the church sanctuary.

During this period, the sanctuary worshiping will be held in Wesley Hall, Sunday, May 18 and 25.

It is requested that those attending would come to the early service at 8:45 instead of 10:55 to help spread the attendance to accommodate the smaller capacity of Wesley Hall.

The whole renovating plan includes an acoustical plaster ceiling in the sanctuary, redoing the walls, resurfacing the floors and protective glass over all the stained windows. The church will be completely repainted and all necessary repairs throughout will be made.

Clarence Smith, chairman of the Board of Trustees says, "Please excuse the ladders, paint and mess, we think you will like the results."

Remember worship services will be held in Wesley Hall for the next two Sundays. The church will not be closed for the repairs.

DIANE AND Michael Palsgrove prepare to take their loaves of bread banks to church last Sunday.

Bread Banks Hold Special Aid For Disasters

Last Saturday, May 10, members of Walker Memorial Church participated with the Seventh-day Adventist churches in North America in taking a special offering for disaster and famine relief.

In February members were given small plastic loaves of bread in which to save coins for starving and needy people around the world. These were brought in Saturday along with many checks and cash offerings.

This special offering is taken every two years. In 1967 the churches raised $346,402.88. Added to this offering were gifts of clothing, bedding, medical supplies, etc., making a total value of relief given as $2,962,907.09.

The disasters for which aid was given were hurricanes Inez and Beulah, city riot victims, Alaskan floods, Indian famine, Venezuelan earthquake, floods in Argentina and Brazil, earthquake in India, Biafran refugees, etc.

The church maintains a disaster warehouse in each of their local state conferences. Surplus from these are sent to warehouses in New York City and San Francisco from which shipments are made to disaster areas overseas or can be withdrawn in major disasters here.

Messer Tries To Keep Out Of County Jail

Charles D. Messer is not in Highlands County jail now and he has begun legal manuevers to keep out. Messer, who is currently in jail at Ocala, has filed for a writ of habeas corpus, claiming Highlands County has no right to re-arrest him for an old breaking and entering charge.

In his petition Messer states he was arrested in July, 1968, but the charges he had broken into an Avon Park building were dismissed in preliminary hearing and he was freed.

Deputy Sheriff J. C. Murdock said today new evidence implicating Messer had been discovered and the state's attroney had filed a direct information again charging Messer with breaking and entering.

The case has been assigned to Circuit Judge Clifton Kelly.

County Teachers Seeking Financial Assistance For Advanced Study

Financial assistance for advanced study is part of the fringe benefit program Highlands County Education Association is seeking from the county school board. Miss Ann Karrick, Avon Park High teacher who is chairman of the HCEA professional negotiations committee, presented the package of requests at May 8 school board meeting.

Board members, who have promised action later this Spring on the requests, showed the most interest in the advanced study proposals.

One suggestion is that teachers receive $50 per semester hour for credit earned during Summer school. The recommendation stipulates that the credit would have to be in the teacher"s field of instruction or in a field approved by local administrators.

Teachers present at the school board meeting said costs for Summer school run $25 to $35 per semester hour for Florida universities, and teachers often sign up for three to six hours of study. Miss Karrick said arranging for tuition, books, room and board may run the cost of Summer school to $2,000 and "makes advanced study very difficult for people who have families."

Another proposal was that teachers who take advanced training during the school year receive remuneration from the school board equal to the amount of their tuition—again providing the study is in a field approved by local administrators.

In response to questions from Chairman Henry Bailey, Miss Karrick said these proposals are not payments from month-to-month but are rather like scholarships awarded for a given amount of study at one time. "It encourages new teachers who hold Bachelor's degrees to begin study for their Master's, and is one way of upgrading the level of education for our county's teachers."

Two proposals recommended by HCEA are in the reim of health: school board payment of health insurance costs based on single teacher rate or about $96 per year by present rates; reimbursement to teachers for required medical examinations.

Superintendent George F. Douglass said legal difficulties would be encountered in implementing a request for terminal or severance pay. He said state law provides for terminal pay but on a different formula than that proposed by HCEA.

Douglass said his recommendations for salaries will be distributed for study soon but he does not anticipate any changes in the basic salary schedule for teachers. He said some changes will be recommended in the non-Instructional pay scales.

CAROL OWENS, right, chairman of the cancer drive and her co-chairman, Donna Littrell, are preparing for their residential cancer drive in Highlands County. The kick-off meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Owens May 10. Mr. A. B. Wilhite is Avon Park crusade chairman.

Cancer Crusade Distributes Leaflets

As a major weapon in its 1969 educational and fund-raising Crusade, the American Cancer Society is distributing 45,000,000 leaflets across the country, Mrs. Bill Owens, Avon Park Residential Chairman, Highlands County Unit, announced today.

"This leaflet challanges many widespread bits of misinformation, cliches and legends about cancer," Mrs. Owens said. It is hoped to have it placed in every home in Avon Park when the Cancer Crusade is launched on May 19. Distributed personally by ACS volunteers, the leaflets cover reads, "If you ignore it, maybe it'll go away" and other cancer legends.

The inside page lists several other familiar alibis people have used to avoid the truth, such as, "What I don't know won't hurt me." Or, "It can't happen to me. I feel fine," or the unlikely boast, "I've never been sick a day in my life."

"The aim of the leaflet," Mrs. Owens pointed out "is to persuade those adults, who do not go regularly for checkups, to do so. The Cancer Society found in a recent survey that 57% of the public do not go for checkups. And of those that do, there are three times as many women as men."

The Chairman stated that the leaflet also lists several vital phrases that can be readily used to unmask these legends and old wives tales about cancer. "Among these," she said were "One in three is being saved now. Or, one in two could be saved if people saw their doctors early. And go for a checkup when you're feeling fine."

According to Mrs. Owens, the leaflet contains on the last, or back panel, a space to indicate a specific appointment for a checkup with a doctor. The leaflet also lists the seven warning signals of cancer as a reminder to be alert to one's health at all times. "The slogan of this year's Crusade," Mrs. Owens said in conclusio is, "Help yourself with a checkup and others with a check."

New School Record Set In Mile Run

The Red Devil track team representatives placed in two events at the Class B meet held in Gainesville last Friday with Clyde Sumbry coming in third in the mile run with his best time of the year and a new school record of 4 minutes, 40.5 seconds.

Also placing was Charlie Magenheimer who came in fourth in the high jump event with his best jump of the year—an even 6 feet.

Sumbry's 80-yard time of 2 minutes, 10 seconds was good for only eighth place at the state meet and the Devil sprint-medley team of Roy Clatt, Willie Seigler, Billy Richards, and Charles Magenheimer also came in eighth with a 2:09 time.

The Red Devils scored a total of seven points at the meet but the individual efforts of the five boys who competed in the top Class B competition was outstanding and the team is to be congratulated for its progress this season.

Woman Dies After Accident South of City

As her husband watched helplessly, Mrs. Jewel G. Prescott, 49, drove into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Kathleen Ellis, 36, of Frostproof Thursday and was fatally injured.

Mrs. Prescott, drove to just South of Avon Park on Route 27 where her husband, Jesse, is one of the contractors on the four-laning. She wanted to know when he would be home for supper and he told her "in a little while." It was 5:40 P.M.

She got back in her parked car and was attempting to turn into the southbound lane of Route 27 when struck broadside by the Ellis car.

Her husband witnessed the crash and raced to the wreckage, helping to extricate her through the windshield. She was taken to Walker Memorial Hospital suffering internal injuries and multiple fractures and died at 11:15 P.M.

Trooper W. R. Hough of the Florida Highway Patrol investigated. The accident report noted that Mrs. Prescott failed to yield right of way after starting from a parked position.

The death of Mrs. Prescott was the second tragedy in the past two years. Their son, Ronnie, 18, was killed February 3, 1967, in an automobile accident North of Sebring in which Marcia Wolfinger also died.

The Prescotts' son, Jackie, frequently accompanied his mother, but stayed home to play with a friend. With her last Thursday was the small chihuahua dog, Missy, which survived with bruises.

The Prescott Rambler was demolished in the accident and the Ellis car sustaind $1,500 damages. Mrs. Ellis is reported in good condition at Walker Memorial Hospital with multiple fractures sustained in the crash.
