Free Enterprise Is Best

Much is being said for and against Florida's free enterprise system of developing automobile insurance rates, sometimes called the California Plan because it has been used there successfully for 22 years.

Just how is this year-old law working in Florida? How is it protecting you and me? Let's look at the record:

—Heretofore we took whatever insurance we could get; but now we can walk into almost any insurance company or agency office and buy the kind of insurance we want.

—For the first time in years, we can shop for our insurance. We can compare prices and coverage and choose the best product at the lowest price, which is the heart of the traditional American system of free enterprise.

—Although our teen-aged children still cause our insurance rates to rise when they use the family car, now the insurance industry is offering us special discounts for teen-aged students who complete driver education courses or who maintain at least a B average in school.

—Those of us who were in the high-priced Assigned Risk market simply because there was no other insurance available (and not because of our driving records) were able to return to the standard market where prices are lower and coverage is broader.

Of course, it's true that insurance rates have risen in recent months. But it's also true that they would have risen regardless of the laws on our statute books.

It is inconceivable to imagine that insurance rates can be lowered or even remain steady while the cost of everything else is rising.

During the past decade, the cost of parts and labor for repairing damaged automobiles has doubled, the cost of the automobile itself has nearly doubled, and the cost of hospital care for traffic accident victims has doubled. Who can argue intelligently that the cost of insurance to protect against these perils should remain constant?

All in all, Florida's free enterprise insurance rating law is a realistic law, recognizing that prices should be set in the market place and not in political offices.

Today's butcher does not sell prime ribs of beef according to 1935 prices. Nor does he sell cheaply simply because his customers would prefer it. He sells at the lowest price he can to stay in business.

Insurance is like that. And the free enterprise law is working to help keep it like that. That's the American way. That's the best way.—Lake City Reporter

Tax Injustice

Soon the Senate will be deliberating on the tax reform bill—and there are prognostications that they'll water it down considerably at the expense of the average taxpayer.

The little guy should know by now that he's not going to win the battle for the buck to any great degree. Not when he's got the special interests and the big contributors to campaigns on the other side.

It's the same way when he gets into tax trouble. He doesn't owe as much as some of the big boys, so consequently he can't afford a lawyer and accountant to do a little fighting and horse-trading for him. He pays right through his thin old wallet and he'll get clobbered if he doesn't. He doesn't have the equipment to fight 'em with.

Not long ago, it was revealed that more than half of the $329 million in federal taxes written off as uncollectible last year was owed by only 444 persons. Of this, $102,456 labeled "income tax withheld at the source," was written off. Other taxes written off included $10,355,504 in wagering taxes and $47,098,689 in excise taxes on marijuana.

The biggest single writeoff in the IRS list was from the Brooklyn office where $8,070,812 owed by an E. and R. Mondener on individual income tax was written off. The offices having the poorest collection records were in Brooklyn and Manhattan, N. Y.; Austin (L.B.'s backyard) and Dallas, Tex.; New Orleans, Reno and Jacksonville.

Sen. John J. Williams, of Delaware, has suggested that there should be some checking as to far below the national average.

If the little guys go on meekly and uncomplainingly paying taxes which are unjust, either to hard-billed Internal Revenue men or to a government which isn't giving them a fair deal, they have only themselves to blame.

Grange Hear Legislative Policies

Avon Park Grange No. 203 met in regular session September 9 with Master, Louise Clarke, in the chair. Two new members were received by demit, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Shay. The program was on Legislation. Each year Grange Headquarters produces a "Summary of Legislative Policies and Programs," which outline the National Grange position, not only on Agricultural developments and growth, but also on matters of International Relations, National Welfare, Education, Health and Transportation. It will be seen that the Grange interest is not confined strictly to matters affecting the rural population, but is equally directed toward the well-being of all citizens and their general prosperity.

Zeno Warner explained how this legislative action is brought about. An idea is set forth by a member and discussed first in the local Grange. From there it goes to Pomona Grange, to the State Grange and to the National Grange. After that it is introduced in Congress. If it is a worthy cause, it eventually becomes a law of the land.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke made some of these accomplishments. The Grange was solely responsible for Rural Free Delivery and the Parcel Post system. It sponsored legislation which established our Agricultural Experiment Stations. It was the dominant force in bringing Social Security to the farmers and to self-employed persons.

Since 1887 it has been a mainstay for rural roads and the Interstate Highway system. It championed School Lunch and the National School Lunch Act. Peace programs, now frequently taken for granted, it is noted far and wide for its vigilant efforts to curb and control two nopolies.

In short — the Grange accomplishments have contributed mightily not only to a better way of life for the farmers, but has been the foundation for and infinitely higher standard of living on the part of all. Not originally for political reasons, it has become one of the most potent influences in the Nation's capital.

All of the members present joined in a discussion about local and county legislation.

A humorous reading was given by Mrs. W. H. Clarke, a hit on Highway safety by the Lecturer, a guessing game and thought for the day — If you do not see the importance of cooperation, consider what happens to a wagon when it loses a wheel.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. W. H. Clarke and Mrs. E. J. Shay. The next meeting will be held in Junior Sunday School Room, at the First United Methodist Church on September 28 at 8 P.M.

During the Florida boom of the mid-1960's, some 20 million building lots were platted. If it had been sold, built on and houses occupied, they could have housed half of population of U.S.

Youth and advanced age are each called the "Golden Years." Wonder what the 20's to 60's are—nickel plated??

Red Devils

action. This 145 pound junior should improve each game and add the power needed to fill out the Devil backfield.

Junior Dennis Hart is expected to fill in for Seigler or Claitt and Walter Nunnallee is ready for action in the fullback position. Hart has had some trouble with injuries as has alternate quarterback Winkle Hall, a 15 pound junior who doubles as defensive safety back.

On defense senior Howie Godwin and sophomore Clark Jackson seem to have an edge on the end positions and Randy Ward and Danny Albritton will play the tackles along with Greg Albritton. Randy is a 200 pound sophomore who lettered last year. Danny weighs in at 180 and sat out his sophomore year last season with an injury, and Greg is also a junior who hits the scales at 185 pounds. Larry Tolbert and Denny DeLaney will take turns playing the "nose man" on defense.

Willie Joe Seigler and Roy Claitt will move to the cornerback slots and play "monster men" for the Devils this year on defense. Dennis Hart will probably back up these two boys. Starting inside linebackers should be Steve Hartt and Walter Nunnallee with Jarvis Hartt and Ricky Dick backing them up as reliefs. Nunnallee is a 140 pound junior fireball who saw some action last year with the varsity and Jarvis Hartt is just a freshman who weighs in at 170 pounds and shows a lot of promise. Ricky Dick is a letterman in his junior year and hits the scales around 200 pounds.

Junior back Jimmy Magnheimer who weighs 127 pounds soaking wet will get the nod for right safety back on defense this week. The lanky back played junior varsity last year as a freshman but was sidelined with an injury last season. He is being hailed as the most improved defensive back on the squad. Winkle Hall or Joe Franz will probably play left safety back.

Hall injured his knee last week and his status is not known yet for this week's game. Franz, at 145 pounds, is in his junior year and is showing impressive improvement at offensive end and defensive halfback.

Mike Smith will also see action as a safety back as well as offensive end. He missed action in the jamboree because of an injury but is fighting for a position this week. Junior Julian Kendrick will serve as a utility defensive back and will see plenty of action. Kendrick weighs in at 137 pounds.

Expected to see action later is 185 pound lineman Gene "Bull" Rushing who along with Harvey Jones and Lorenzo Nelson was late reporting for practice and will have some catching up to do. Jones and Nelson are backs.

Other players who will see action on the squad this season are Mike Rihner, Tom Culbertson, and Keith Richards. Junior back Fred Jahn who is perhaps the lightest boy on the squad impressed fans at the soap scrimmage with his aggressive play and determination.

The Red Devils are opening against a tough team which is expected to finish at least third in the always strong Southwest Florida Conference and then travel to Mulberry the following week to take on the Panthers in the Phosphate Bowl before returning home for four consecutive games in October.

Avon Park's "B" Team Will Play First Game With Fort Meade

The Avon Park "B" team will play its first game of the season next Thursday night, Sept. 25, here at Memorial Field against Fort Meade. Starting time is 7:30 P.M. for all home "B" games and admission will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Captain Dewayne Lemler said the Devil jayvees would be working on defense all this week and then will spend next week pulling ends together for the opening game Thursday night. The 30 boys out for the junior varsity have been working hard since before school opened in hopes of hitting the win column this year.

The backfield this season will have Bruce Peterson, Bill Phillips and Jimmy Cole at fullback and Artis Bass, Ray Lemm, Danny Lewis, Eddie Ezell and Wayne Yudd at halfback and Leon McRae, Greg Hartt and Anthony Williams at quarterback.

On the line Nathaniel Packer, Bud Wester, Eugene Flowers, Bobby Sloope are trying for the two end positions and Ray Culpepper doubles at end and tackle.

The guards will be chosen from Mike Talley, Del Murphy, Tim Underwood, Jimmy Hopson, David Moss, Andy Presscott and Earl Strong.

Working out in the tackle slots along with Culpepper are

Tim Shields, Charles Jones, James Walker, Arnold Davis, Ricky Lanier, Ted Long, Virgil McInnis, Glen Gray and Danny Sims.

The candidates for center are David Meeks, Ray Revels and Johnny Edwards.

Coaches Lemler and Culbertson seem to think the squad is going to play some good ball this season in spite of the fact that it is dominated by freshmen and 8th graders. Fans are urged to turn out Thursday, Sept. 25, to see the team play Fort Meade in the season opener.

QUOT A TALENT
Jack Adams, pleasure boat captain at Florida's Weeks Wachee, uses a quilt-throwing technique to toss bread slices into the outstretched paws of the ever hungry raccoons along the river bank. Jack reports he's now "bating" around 667 for accuracy.

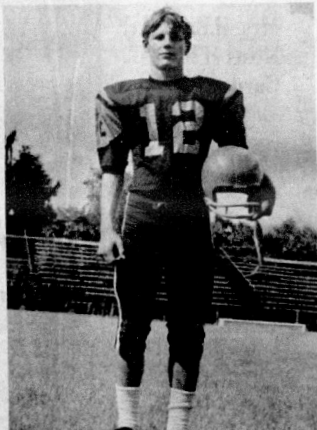

WHAT HEAT?
During the torrid heat of Summer weather Florida's Weeki Wachee mermaids have no trouble keeping their cool while performing in the underwater show where the Spring maintains a constant temperature of 74.5 degrees F.

Three new sports, youth-oriented models—the Cyclone, Cyclone GT (above) and the Cyclone Spoiler—give Lincoln-Mercury Division new appeal in the growing intermediate market for 1970. All two-door hardtops with rakish rooflines that accentuate their top performance capability, the new models are offered with a host of power plants, including two all-new 351-cubic-inch V-8's and three versions of the 429-cubic-inch engine. Vertical European-type Cyclone running lights highlight the dramatic grille. Sporty new high-back bucket seats with contemporary design are standard on the Cyclone GT and Cyclone Spoiler models. Front and rear air fans are standard on the Cyclone Spoiler.

New 1970 Lincoln-Mercurys Will Go On Display At Avon Park Motor Company Friday

The first completely redesigned Lincoln Continental in nearly a decade and an all-new expanded line of intermediate-size Montegues and Cyclones highlight Lincoln-Mercury Division's automobiles for 1970.

"Thirty-nine new models ranging from the classic Mark III to the muscular new Cyclone Spoiler give Lincoln-Mercury the broadest market coverage ever," said M. S. (Matt) McLaughlin, Ford Motor Company vice president and division general manager.

The new Lincoln-Mercury models on display Friday at Avon Park Motor Co.

"During the Sixties American car buyers showed an ever-increasing appetite for variety and premium quality. We expect that trend to continue and accelerate during the Seventies and our new models for next year are designed to meet this demand."

There are new power trains and a host of comfort, convenience and safety features standard on all car lines, including a more convenient three-point seat/shoulder belt system, a locking steering column, bias-belt tires, flow-through ventilation system and an oval steering wheel.

The new Lincoln Continental, while undergoing the most substantial change since 1961, remains clearly identifiable as a Continental with a strong grille theme and understated elegance. While outside dimensions are almost identical to previous models, wheelbase has been lengthened one inch to 127 inches and front and rear tread are increased. As a result, interior roominess is substantially greater. The model line-up remains the same as in 1969, with a single series consisting of a two-door hardtop and four-door sedan.

The divisions intermediate line has been dramatically redesigned for 1970 and consists of three Montague series, including a new four-door hardtop, and three performance-oriented two-door hardtops, the Cyclone, Cyclone GT and Cyclone Spoiler.

Both Montague and Cyclones have their own distinctive appearance.

The Cyclones have a racy look with a forward-thrusting grille and unique European-type running lights. Montagues share the same contemporary profile, but with the addition of a luxurious, full width grille.

Wheelbase on all models has been increased one inch to 117 inches (114 inches on wagons) and overall length has been increased nearly four inches on sedans and hardtops and eight inches on station wagons.

The most completely equipped personal sports car in its class, Cougar for 1970 features an entirely new front end appearance with a vertical textured grille. Overall length has been increased to 186.1 inches—nearly three inches longer than last year. All of the extra length is at the front, increasing the sports fair appearance of the long hood/short deck proportions of the car.

The division's medium price lines—Marquis, Marouze and Marauder—boast engineering and design refinements and a broad range of new options. The 1970 Marquis maintains its Continental look and, like the Monterey, has newly designed grilles and taillights. The sporty Marauder and Marouze X-100 retain their performance-oriented rear appearance with recessed rear window, swept back rear roof pillars and unique quad taillights.

The Continental Mark III, America's finest personal luxury car continues its classic elegance for 1970 with modest design modifications. Changes include new concealed windshield wipers, new wheel covers, redesigned tail and parking lamps. There are extensive interior changes, including gearshift and walnut trim on the instrument panel, steering wheel and door panels. All Mark IIIs will have as standard equipment Michelin steel-belted radial tires with a warranty of 40,000 miles. Among the new features standard on the Mark III and optional on all other two-door models is an automatic seat back release. With this new feature, front seat backs are automatically released when either door is opened, making rear seat entrance or exit much easier.

While the Mark III will be equipped with Michelin steel-belted radial tires, all other Lincoln-Mercury Division cars will have as standard equipment new fiberglass belted tires which offer increased mileage, better resistance and improved handling.

A convenience feature standard for all car lines is a modified oval steering wheel. It offers increased wheel-to-seat room, while affording an unobstructed view of the instrument panel.

All models, except convertibles, will have as standard equipment a unique three-point lap and shoulder belt restraint system featuring a "mini-buckle." The buckle is nearly half its former size. The new restraint system eliminates the need for inboard shoulder buckles while providing the same degree of protection as the former method.

New safety and security features on all car lines, in addition to the three-point seat belt, include side marker lights that flash with the turn signals, a tamper-resistant odometer and a three-way locking steering column. The three-way locking column is designed to deter car thefts by locking the steering wheel, transmission linkage and ignition switch when the key is removed.

Farmers Are Reminded Of ASC Election

Farmers were reminded today of a very important part of the election process for Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) County Commis-sioners, especially where ballots are mailed in to the ASCS County Office. In Highlands County, the deadline for returning ballots in the ASC election is Friday, Sept. 19.

Otis E. Everett, county office manager, ASCS, points out that two envelopes have been mailed with the ballots sent to all eligible voters of record in the County Office. One envelope is plain and the other has a statement printed on the back which the farmer needs to sign. A witnessed mark will also qualify as a signature.

The ballot should be marked and sealed inside the plain envelope. Growers are cautioned not to enclose any other material. Also, they should not write on the plain envelope. This assures the secrecy of their vote.

The plain envelope should then be put inside the envelope with the statement on the back. The envelope should then be mailed or otherwise delivered to the ASCS County Office.

Red Cross Needs Money For Hurricane Victims

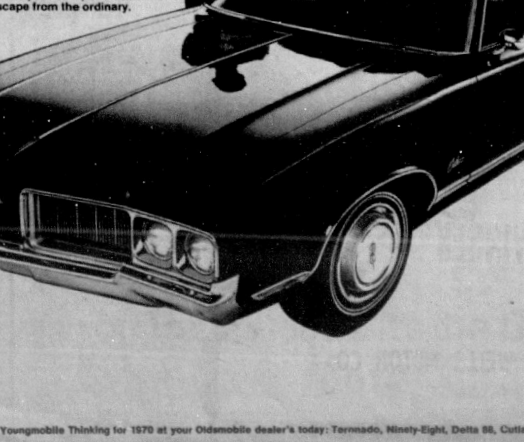

"Money not materials" is the plea of Highlands County Red Cross as it continues its drive for aid to the victims of Hurricane Camille.
Mrs. Florence L. Peach, executive secretary for Highlands County Chapter of American Red Cross, said the residents of this county have contributed \$668 toward this county's quota of \$1087 for the 30 feet of the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 1, and the N $\frac{1}{2}$ of Lot 2, etc., \$25,400.
Palm City Ice Co. to Miles Baker and Anne Baker, Lots 15, 16 and 17 in Block 28 in the Original Town of Sebring, $2,500.
Camille Disaster Fund.
Relief supplies have been sent too, Mrs. Peach said, but officials at the Red Cross recovery center in Gulfport, Miss., reported this week enough relief supplies are now on hand and to more are needed.
Red Cross Supply Chief William McGarvie said an overflow of materials now jam a 200,000 square foot Gulfport air terminal hanger, surrounding storage space and some of the air port flightline.
"The warehouse was filled and emptied dozens of times during the first two weeks after Camille blew in, but the stuff keeps rolling in. We've got twice or three times over what was originally needed," McGarvie said.
But the need for cash goes on. Red Cross officials point out. To date almost $4 million have been committed to Camille relief, and now, a month after the hurricane, Red Cross is still providing shelters for approximately 600 persons and feeding centers—three food and eight mobile units—are still in operation.
Mrs. Peach said cash contributions for the disaster fund may be sent to her office at the Highlands County Court House Annex.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported by Powell Waite
Jack Seims of Tropical Bank & Trust Co., Sebring and son of our deceased Past President Roy Seims, spoke to the club about one of the fastest spreading services ever offered the American people, the BankAmericard. This credit card was established by the Bank of America in California in 1959. It served the West Coast area until 1966 when it was adopted nationwide by many banks.
The Barnett First National Bank of Jacksonville is the licensed agent for BankAmericard in Florida. They plan to have 1,500,000 cardholders in the State with 5,000 merchants honoring the card. Nationwide there are already 20,000,000 cardholders and 60,000 member merchants.
BankAmericard is the most versatile of all credit cards. It can be used to purchase more than 250 different categories of goods and services. Cardholders may use it to obtain small loans, payments may be spread over a period of time, and its shape and design are standard everywhere.
The cardholder has many advantages in using the BankAmericard, such as one monthly bill, very little extra cost, all purpose usage, automatic credit, and reasonable credit requirements.
The advantages to the merchant are immediate credit, immediate cash, additional sales, less record keeping, tourist income, impulse buying, and nationwide advertising.
Tropical Bank & Trust Co. of Sebring is the local agent for BankAmericard. Mr. Seims said they expected to have 6,000 cards issued in Highlands and Hardee counties by November.

Retired Persons Hold First Fall Meeting

By MARGARET SHEPHERD
Highlands County Chapter 222 of AARP held the first meeting of the Fall season, Tuesday night, Sept. 9 in the Sebring Manor Hotel with 95 attending. President R. Wesley Smith presided and led the opening prayer.

Rev. Joe Toile, pastor of First United Methodist Church gave an interesting talk on his recent trip to the Holy Land.

John Roman, legislative chairman had the secretary, Bertha Cooper read three letters which he had received from Senators Holland, Rogers and Gurney assuring him that they were each one backing the pending bills on aging and cost of living increase in Social Security payments.

The chapter purchased three books to be presented to libraries in Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid. They are attractive books, titled, "Wisdom of Ethel Percy Anders" and are a tribute to the dynamic personality of the founder of NRTA-AARP who was a retired teacher herself, and contains 49 editorials written by Dr. Anders for Modern Maturity Magazine and the NRTA Journal during her 17 years as editor. These books have already been placed on the best seller list.

The Fall insurance enrollment gets under way this month and ends October 31. Information is being mailed to members with enrollment forms. This is an opportunity to adjust your health insurance plans. Members between the ages of 55 and 67 will be offered an opportunity to enroll for up to four units of coordinated life regardless of health or any other insurance carried.

All persons 55 years of age or over are eligible for membership whether or not retired.

WELLS MOTOR CO.

A LOOK OF ELEGANCE is joined with economy in the 1970 Dodge Coronet 500. New split grille and rear bumper highlight all twenty-four Coronet models. On display in dealer showrooms throughout the country beginning September 23.

Dodge Coronet Will Be Displayed Tuesday At Wells Motor Co.; Featuring Longer Body Style

Coronet, Dodge Division's broad and butter car will receive a wide spread of product restyling and engineering improvements in 1970.

The new Coronet takes much of its direction from sales trends in the hottest portion of the automotive marketplace, where a conglomerate of bright colors, wide tires, slippery aerodynamic shapes and sound abound.

"The intermediate segment of the market has been running at about 28 per cent of domestic sales," said Mr. Wells of Wells Motor Co.

"Our performance car entries," Mr. Wells said, "have been making solid gains during this past year. Coronet Super Bee and Coronet R/T sales were up 27 per cent over 1968."

"In Coronet for 1970, we have made a wide variety of changes, which we feel will take further advantage of these gains and continue our penetration in this important segment of the automotive market."

"We enter the new decade with what has to be the best product lineup Dodge has ever had in its 56-year history. We have put a lot of effort into making our intermediate offerings for 1970 the best in the industry," Mr. Wells concluded.

Longer Body
Major styling changes in the 1970 Coronet, which goes on display in dealer showrooms September 23, include lengthening of body by nearly three inches and extensive front and rear end changes. The wheelbase remains at 117 inches.

The split grille is surrounded by twin bumpers. A distinctive black paint treatment will be featured on Coronet 500 and performance car grilles.

Coronet rear styling receives significant changes, including a new deck lid, and caps and uniquely styled taillights set into a metal trim panel.

The Coronet lines will be continued in five series with a full line of models, engines, and accessories.

The modestly priced Coronet Deluxe will be available in a two-door coupe, four-door sedan and two-door station wagon. Six-cylinder and V-8 engines will be available in this model.

The five-door Super Bee for 1970. In the Coronet 440 series, five body styles with two and three-seater wagons, two-door coupe, hardtop and a four-door sedan will be offered. Six and eight-cylinder engines will also be available.

Coronet 500 brings a touch of added luxury to the series with high-line appointments and options available in a two-door hardtop, convertible, two and three-seater wagons, and a specially-trimmed four-door sedan.

The Coronet 500 station wagon features wood-grain side panels and pull-down center armrests as standard equipment. Bucket seats will also be available.

High performance Coronet R/T and Super Bee models will round out the line for 1970. The two Coronet "Scat Pack" cars will be available in two-door hardtop and convertibles in the R/T version, and two-door coupe and two-door hardtop packages in Super Bee models.

New Three-Speed Trans
A new three-speed, floor-mounted manual transmission with synchronized low gear will be standard on the Super Bee model. A four-speed manual transmission will be optional.

Most standard tires on the Coronet will be increased one full size on 1970 models. The standard tire on most eight-cylinder models, for instance, goes from 7.75 to GTR 14 fiber-glass-belted. There will also be a wider high-performance polyglas tire available in P60 x 15 size.

Style and Protection
Buyers will also be able to order a vinyl roof in alligator grain texture and vinyl body side insert moldings to protect the exterior finish from door chips in parking lots.

Mechanical innovations and improvements for 1970 include a steering wheel horn switch — you just squeeze the wheel to sound the horn — headlamp delay switch, new disc brakes, a steering wheel locking device and an improved cleaner air system.

The optional steering wheel horn switch improves visibility of the instrument panel by removing the standard sounding mechanism and provides easier access to the horn regardless of steering wheel position.

The full circle horn switch is operated by squeezing a soft strip on the inside of the steering wheel rim and making contact between two circular wires moulded into the rim.

A headlamp delay switch is offered on Coronet for 1970. The mechanism provides a time delay unit which allows 90 seconds of headlight availability after the dash switch has been turned off.

Steering Wheel Lock
A steering and transmission linkage locking device is standard on all Coronets for 1970. The device is controlled by the ignition key located on the steering column. With the mechanism in the lock position, the steering wheel cannot be turned. To prevent loss of steering control with the car in motion, the mechanism cannot be turned to the lock position until the transmission is shifted to "Park" or "Reverse" with standard transmission. A warning buzzer reminds the driver to remove the ignition key if it is still in place when he opens the door.

Lane Change Signal
A lane change turn signal is another new standard on 1970 Coronets. Turns are signaled as before, but when the turn signal lever is pressed lightly, the signals will flash only as long as the lever is held. This feature is especially useful in expressway driving where the signal is used for only a few seconds to signal a lane change.

The new disc brake incorporating single piston actuation and floating caliper provides improved brake resistance and longer lining life.

Evaporative Control System
Through an improved cleaner air system, labeled "ECS" for "Evaporative Control System," fuel vapors are stored in the engine crankcase when the engine is shut off. When the engine is running, these vapors are drawn into the engine and burned. Under test, the ECS reduced evaporation losses by over 80 per cent.

Homemakers Hold Joint Meeting Tuesday

The regular monthly meeting of Avon Park Extension Homemakers Club was held Tuesday at the Florida Power Community room. This was a joint meeting with the Sebring club. Three members of Avon Park club and eight from Sebring attended the meeting.

Miss Faye Gordon gave an informative demonstration on the care of small electric appliances, and the multiple uses which may be found for them.

Samples of the foods prepared in the blender and electric fry pan were enjoyed by all.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 21 at the home of Mrs. Olga Bridges.

size. The result—a neater, more convenient, more comfortable system that is as safe as ever. Externally adjustable headlamps on Ford, Torino, Mustang, Maverick and Thunderbird make it unnecessary to remove the headlamp rims to adjust the beams.

On the same models, standard front and rear side marker lamps—amber in front and red in the rear—flash with the turn signals to provide side visibility of the driver's intention to turn.

All cars manufactured for delivery in the state of California will be equipped with an evaporative emission control system.

back design. The higher seat backs incorporate integral head restraints and provide added comfort.

For the performance buffs, all optional four-speed manual transmissions feature the competitive Hurst Shifter, known for fast, smooth shifting.

An automatic release for the two-door safety latch is available on Ford, Torino, Mustang and Thunderbird models. Both front seat-back latches are automatically released when either door is opened, thereby making it easier to get into and out of the back seat.

New steering wheels on Ford, Torino, Mustang and Thunderbird models are semi-oval in design for easier driver entry and exit and better visibility of the instrument cluster.

On all models except Falcon, odometers are tamper-resistant and non-reversing. A three-way locking steering column on all models except Falcon is designed to deter car thefts by locking the ignition, the transmission linkage and the steering wheel with the ignition switch.

A new three-point Uni-Lock Safety Harness lap and shoulder belt system—available on all models except Mavericks, Falcons and convertibles—permits outboard front seat occupants to "buckle-up" faster. The separate buckle for the shoulder belt has been eliminated and the three remaining front seat buckles are only half the previous Torino is completely new for 1970 with 13 models offering from hot performance to elegant luxury. For the first time, a four-door hardtop is offered in the Ford Division intermediate line. The four-door hardtop is available in the Torino and Torino Brougham (top) series. The Torino GT SportsRoof (bottom) is available with seven engines from the standard 302 V-8 to the red hot 429 Cobra Jet V-8.

All New Ford Models Will Be Displayed Friday At Avon Park Motor Co.; To Serve Refreshments

When the new 1970 Fords are shown in Avon Park Friday, they will be seen in Avon Park at Avon Park Motor Company's show room.

Ford Division passenger cars for 1970 are highlighted by all-new Torino and Thunderbird lines, a new ultra-luxurious LTD Brougham series, a new mid-range engine, premium quality tires standard on most car lines and more comfort, convenience, safety and security features.

"The 1970 model year may become the first year in which the sales of intermediate-size cars catch, or surpass, sales in the standard-size market," said John Naughton, Ford Motor Co. vice president and Ford Division general manager.

"This may be the year of the intermediates," and Torino is our most dramatically redesigned car. Torino is longer, lower and wider with aerodynamic styling, hot performance engines and options, and our first intermediate-size four-door hardtop models," he said.

"Thunderbird also has an all-new look with a bold front-end design with longer, lower hood, a forward-thrusting grille and exposed headlamps.

"More quiet-car luxury is offered in the standard-size Ford. The entire Ford line presents a more formal appearance with new grilles, ornamentation and rear-end design.

"Mustang comes on stronger and sportier than ever with design changes, hotter engines, bright "Grabber" colors, and interiors with upbeat stripes and headrested checks.

"Maverick, introduced in April as the first car of the Seventies, will remain our 'simple machine' with very few changes.

Mavericks produced after September 30 will have side marker lights which flash with the turn signals, and three-way locking steering column.

Falcons move into the 1970 market with the proven features of fast economy, room interior and durable performance," Mr. Naughton said.

Several new security, comfort, convenience and performance features are included in Ford Division's 51 models for 1970. Standard tires on Fords, Torinos, Mustangs and Thunderbirds will lag longer, have greater resistance to puncture and provide better traction. Radial-ply tires will be installed on all 1970 Thunderbirds, and fiberglass belted bias-ply tires will be standard on all Fords, Torinos and Mustangs.

An all-new 351-cubic-inch-displacement V-8 engine, developed with the latest computerized technology and assembled on the auto industry's most advanced production line, will be offered on 1970 Mustangs and Torinos. The engine is compact, relatively lightweight and delivers excellent performance and economy.

All bucket seats offered on Ford Division cars are of high-

Final tabulations on the Har-dee Highlands Feeder Steer Sale sponsored by the two County Cattlemen's Associations in August, indicate that this was the most outstanding sale in the fourteen-year history of the event.

With 961 animals consigned, the total sale amounted to $131,858.89. The average price per pound was 29.55 cents with animals averaging 464 pounds per head.

Top selling price for an individual animal was $33.75 per hundred weight. The three top buyers were J. J. Cashman, $24,338.75; Magnolia Farms, $24,305.90; and Roland Skipper, $13,262.04.

The top four consignors in the sale were Albert Carlton, 75 head; Boney & O'Neal, 60 head; Cowart Grove & Ranch, 56 head; and L. T. Stephens, 56 head.

Thanks

My thanks to God for the faith so many people in Avon Park have shown in me. That many thinking people, free of group or grapevine control, are never really a minority. We are really as small or as big as the things we live for.

Our human problems are not basically "right vs. wrong" but MISSED-UNDERSTANDING. Let us CARE enough to bridge the gap. Let us be constructive in any criticism and rally to the support of all that is good in the efforts of our elected community leaders.

(What Your Best Friends Won't Tell You) We Just Heard Why We Received So Small A Downtown Vote

This Candidate for Mayor Was Seen, "Riding Around Town With Colored Girls" (To put it politely)

THAT IS TRUE

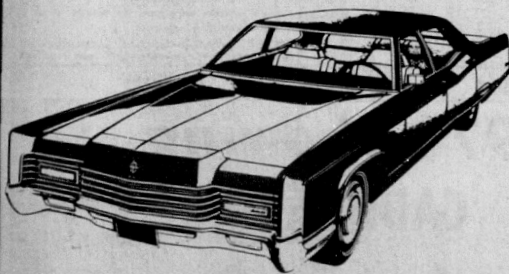

While your candidate was without his car he "bummed a ride" whenever he needed to go down town, with the first customer who appeared at Western Union. He couldn't leave business long enough to walk both ways.

I am not ashamed to be seen with any person living in Avon Park — good or evil; red, black, yellow or white; male or female.

Who Am I?

By DAVE LIEWELYN

Who am I? This is a question which everyone asks himself, at one time or another.

Fortunate is the person who finally finds a satisfying answer to this inescapable question.

Who am I?

I am one man among billions in this generation.

But I am a human being, and so I am more valuable than any inorganic matter or any other type of living thing—because I have the power of choice and can direct my existence so that I participate in activities that have true meaning.

I am valuable in proportion to my contribution to meaning in my world. Since this is a result of choice, my value depends on my ability to choose.

World Without Meaning

However, I have no value—and the world has no meaning—according to most contemporary thinking. Psychological and social determinism are thought to control my actions so that I have no power of choice and I am trapped with all matter in the spiral of evolutionary development.

I believe man is different from all other matter. I am not controlled by determinism. My power of choice is not imaginary but real.

Because man is unique, I can find value and meaning in life by serving other men. This is the love philosophy popularized by the hippies and now accepted by millions of ordinary people and many world leaders.

But even here I see that this is only an illusion of meaning, for though the good I do passes on to other men and their children's children and on apparently forever, I know that in the end it will all come to nothing.

Though it might take billions of years, eventually the universe will be empty.

verse, if let alone, will run out of energy and mankind will die.

I am especially conscious of this because of the increasing likelihood that the universe will not be let alone and we will destroy ourselves even before natural processes can destroy us.

The Indestructible Part

Who am I? I am a unique man, but I live in a meaningless world — unless there is something in man that can never be destroyed.

This indestructible part of me, this spiritual part, is what makes life meaningful.

But, by the very definition of evolution, the immortal cannot have evolved.

Who am I? I am either a man whose life has meaning because I have a soul given by God, or else I am a man whose life has no meaning because there is no God and I have no soul.

King David also asked, "Who am I?" (II Samuel 7:18). But instead of asking it of himself as we do, he asked Jehovah.

Jehovah responded by showing him that He existed and that David had a soul, and that God was concerned with the meaning in David's life. He authenticated His existence and David's value by using His power on David's behalf.

Who are you—an animal or an immortal? Ask God for proof and then accept His Spirit into your life and become more than an ordinary man.

Perhaps the best comment on this universal question is this one given in a poem entitled "Who Am I?" by theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

"Who am I? They mock me, these lonely questions of mine. Whoever I am, Thou knowest, O God, I am Thine!"

Tuesday, Sept. 2, is a big day for boys eight through 13 in the Avon Park area for they can start registering for the ninth annual Punt, Pass & Kick Competition in which they will show their football skills in punting, passing and kicking and compete for trophies and the chance to represent Avon Park in future competitions.

Registration and entries will be accepted from September 2 through October 10 at Avon Park Motor Co. A parent or guardian must accompany the boys to register. The entire competition is absolutely free. There is no body contact in PPAK competitions and all equipment such as footballs and kicking tees are provided.

Every boy who registers will receive a free Punt, Pass & Kick Tip booklet which features stories and competition tips from NFL stars Don Meredith and Mike Clark of the Dallas Cowboys and Billy Lott of the Atlanta Falcons. The booklet also features Don Latta, the coach of the Baltimore Colts, and includes physical fitness exercises for boys in the PPAK Competition age group.

Every boy who participates in PPAK has an equal chance to win for he competes only against boys in his own age group. Points are awarded for each foot of distance the ball travels on the fly, with points subtracted for each foot the ball lands to the right or left of a center line.

The overall competition is divided into six levels — Local, Zone, District, Area, Division and National. The first level — the Local competition — features 18 handsome trophies which will be awarded locally by Avon Park Motor Co.

Gold trophies go to first place finishers, silver to second and bronze to third. The first place winners then move up to Zone competition.

Winners of Zone competitions will receive trophies and runners-up are awarded certificates. Zone winners move to District competitions where 218 District champions will be awarded trophies and go on to compete for Area championships at NFL stadiums. Area champions will compete in Divisional competitions in NFL stadiums in Dallas or Detroit where twelve finalists are chosen — six from the NFL Eastern division and six from the NFL Western division. Winners are accompanied by both parents to all Area competitions.

The twelve Division winners go, with their parents, to the Orange Bowl in Miami, for the National Finals during the annual NFL Play-Off Game. All 12 National finalists and their parents will then tour Cape Kennedy, the site of the historic Apollo moon shots, and the Air Space Museum.

Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League sponsor the Punt, Pass and Kick Competition nationally. Co-sponsors in Avon Park are Avon Park Motor Co.

Registrations continue through October 10 at Avon Park Motor Co., Avon Park, for all boys eight through 13 years of age.

Dances

Spectators watched the group learn a new square "The Wash Cannon Ball". It was quite intricate and took several tries before all could do it. Several new folks came in on Friday evening, so at one time there were two squares. This time they did the square "Walking to Kansas City."

For example, here is how some Ridge Area youth people spent their summer: Miss Libby Kahn and Miss Marcia Ward worked as counselors at the Camp Mountainview residential camp for retarded children at Clarksville, Ga. Becky Tomek, Diane Murphy and Gray Handley were part of a staff of 40 young people at the Florida Association for Retarded Children Camp in Silver Springs.
