Bullet Hits Joni's Dog While Out For Sunday Afternoon Walk

It was a quite, late Sunday afternoon, Sept. 14 on DeLaney Avenue, neighbors were visiting each other and then there were others just out enjoying the calm afternoon.

Children were playing and Joni Murray, daughter of Mrs. Jackie Murray was walking her puppy down the street. As she approched the front of Walter Heim's home a shot rang out, Joni dropped to her knees, the neighbors came running, they heard the shot and saw Joni screaming. Her puppy had been shot at her feet.

One neighbor called the police, but there was nothing they could do after all, there were no witnesses to who fired the shot that missed Joni by a few inches and hit her puppy.

This is not the first time things have happened on DeLaney Avenue. Bob Barben said he had found several arrows with steel tips that have been shot at his dog. They missed, luck is that no children were by the dog, they might not have been as lucky as Joni. The bullet missed her.

Of course, most all cities have laws against discharging firearms inside the city limits, but someone has to witness the incident and swear out a warrant before anyone can be arrested.

Now the residents on DeLaney Ave. will have to wait until another shot is fired and hope someone sees the one that does the shooting. The only bad thing about it is the bullet might miss the little dog and hit some little girl or boy. Who knows.

Shuffling

Both tournaments were rained out this past week. Six courts were playing until the semi-finals when the rain started. On Saturday evening 28 people lined up to play, but it started to sprinkle and wet the courts just enough so the courts were all wet. Several tables of pinochle started up in the club house.

Card Games

Fred Hughes had the high score of 789 in pinochle on Monday afternoon. William Trapp came in second with 696. Three tables were in play.

Dances

On Monday evening there was the usual one square, but on Friday evening there were two squares. Emil Korcek has returned from his trip North, as has Evelyn Wallace.

Chit-Chat

Clay and Illeon Kull have returned from a two week vacation to Henderson, N.C. While there Clay had the opportunity of playing in the North Carolina Inter-state Doubles.

The Jordans, Art and Ruth are home in Avon Park after a three-week vacation visiting their families. Day before Labor Day there was a family get-to-gether of 40, which included the sons and daughters, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. Since returning home they have had word of three new great-grandchildren, two girls and one boy.

Ralph and Mabel Crocker spent the Summer at their home in Conneaut, Ohio. Their granddaughter, Tamara Shumake has a great interest in her horse, which she entered in several county fairs, winning first in the Painesville County Fair. The Crockers have returned to their mobile home in the Avon Mobile Home Park.

Ray and Lois Johnson report that it got down to 35 degrees, at their cottage at Nobel, Ontario, Canada.

Basses - Smiths Surprised With Party Saturday

The social hall of the First Baptist Church was decorated in an artistic circus theme Saturday night honoring Mary and Milton Bass, June and Wilson Smith on their wedding anniversaries.

Both husbands arranged with the Pioneer Training Union, of which both are members, to plan a party and surprise Mary and June on their anniversaries.

Incidentaly, Mary and June have the same birthdays in the month of June.

On September 18, the Bass's were married 15 years and on September 20, the Smiths were married 23 years.

Homemade ice cream and cake were served to the 40 guests attending.

24 Treated With Turtle Dinner

The party dinner was held at Major Flints Horse Hammock pavilion on Arbuckle Creek.

Guests enjoyed a social time and dancing.

How Florida Power and Mississippi Power fought Camille's aftermath.

When Camille's winds stopped blowing, Mississippi Power faced a tremendous clean-up task. But they didn't face it alone.

All utilities in the southeast have a mutual agreement that they will come to the aid of each other in times of emergency. Camille was such an emergency and Florida Power Corporation was there.

Before Camille's winds stopped blowing, men and machines from Florida Power Corporation were on their way to help repair the damage.

Should it ever happen here, it's good to know we won't face it alone.

TACKLE RANDY WARD is a sophomore letterman on this year's Red Devil varsity which speaks highly in itself for this tall, 200-pounder. Last season Randy saw plenty of action and started off the 1969 year in great form last week against the Lake Wales Highlanders as offensive and defensive tackle on the left side of the Devil line. This tough sophomore will make things rough for opponents all season and fans may well watch number 70 on the Devil line this year for some outstanding action.

JUNIOR RICKY DICK is one of the two returning lettermen to the Red Devil line this year. The chunky center weighs in at 200 pounds and lettered last season with the varsity as a relief center and defensive lineman. This year he plays mostly on offensive, centering the ball, but also is used as an alternate inside linebacker on defense. Ricky has played junior high, junior varsity and now varsity ball for Avon Park.

Clothes For Goodwill Set November 7

Plans for the Goodwill School Clothing Collection this Fall have been announced by George Douglass, Highlands County School Superintendent.

Formerly held in October, the collection this year will take place in mid-November, with the theme — "Thanks for Giving."

County school administrators, teachers and students in 29 West Florida counties will participate in the "Thanks for Giving" clothing drive to help handicapped persons help themselves through rehabilitation and employment at Goodwill.

Students are asked to take Goodwill bags home from school on Friday, Nov. 7 and return them on Wednesday, Nov. 12, filled with repairable clothing.

Parents are requested to help youngsters fill their Goodwill bags. Along with clothing, other used or repairable items are needed, such as small appliances, toys and household wares.

Trucks volunteered by business firms will collect the filled bags from the schools and transport them to Goodwill. There the materials will be repaired or reconditioned and then sold in Goodwill stores to provide wages for over 600 handicapped persons.

Serving West Florida counties are Goodwill Rehabilitation Centers in Tallahassee, St. Petersburg, Sarasota and Fort Myers. There are also 24 Goodwill stores throughout the area. Handicapped men and women at Goodwill become taxpayers instead of tax burdens and acquire skills valuable to private employers.

Student participation in the school clothing collection fosters good citizenship, say school officials. Handicapped persons at Goodwill, aided by the materials collected, are rehabilitated, trained and frequently placed in private employment, opening the door for Goodwill to serve others.

Heading the overall "Thanks for Giving" school drive is John W. Seay, Florida's Deputy Commissioner for Education.

In a recent letter to county school superintendents, he said, "... handicapped persons wish to contribute, not take. Goodwill-Suncoast gives these people their chance and offers them that most essential quality, self-respect. With its expanded and intensified rehabilitation program, Goodwill gives us good cause to assist."

What's the catch? There isn't any.

The price includes the Federal excise tax and import duty.

It also includes the built-in heater/defroster, windshield washer, electric windshield wipers, outside rearview mirror, padded dash, front seat headrests, and seat belts front and back.

Not to mention the new electric rear-window defogger and the new ignition/steering lock. (When the key is removed, the steering wheel is locked in place.)

What else do you have to pay?

The charge for transporting the car from the port of entry. The dealer delivery charge. And local sales tax.

There is one optional that makes a lot of sense. The automatic stick shift. (It eliminates the clutch pedal.)

Well, that's it.

Unless, of course, you count the cost of gas and oil it takes you to get here in your present car.

Our Esteemed Associate
has prospered in this area for many years.

She has more real estate listings in her memory than others in their files. She knows more owners on a first name basis than all other salesmen combined.

Right now, we are fresh out of rentals! You should buy an unoccupied dwelling and ask Sophy how to use soap and paint to make it look like what it ain't! She enjoys a constant flow of coin of the realm from her rentals and knows most of the answers.

Sophy plans a world tour in the winter of '70-'71, just for fun, and will depart without leaving any accounts payable.

One of Larry Gore's Prize Charolais

Avon Park Man Raises Prize Charolais Herd

Larry Gore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gore, Avon Park, is making quite a name for himself as having one of the largest purebred Charolais cattle operations in Farragut, Iowa.

"We're mighty proud of that bull," said Larry, speaking for himself and William Tarpenning of Shenandoah, Iowa. The bull that Larry was speaking about is Amour de Nutmeg, who at 24 months is a 2,500 pound giant of an animal which has walked off with a large number of firsts in the show ring.

Gore, and his father-in-law, Bill Tarpenning, have one of the largest purebred Charolais cattle operations in that part of the country. The T & G Charolais Ranch is located southwest of Farragut and is rapidly becoming a showplace for purebred cattle.

The list of winnings of Amour de Nutmeg in the show ring is long and impressive. In 1968, he placed second for winter bulls in the Harrisburg, Pa., Exposition; first place winter bull in the Eastern National, Timmonium, Md.; first place winter bull, New York State Fair, Syracuse; first place winter bull Eastern States, Exposition, Springfield, Mass.; third place winter bull, International Livestock Exposition, Chicago, and first place winter bull and Junior Champion Bull at the American Royal in Kansas City.

His 1969 winnings have been just as impressive. At the National Western in Denver, he received first place winter bull, Junior Champion Bull and Reserve Grand Champion Bull.

In the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show, Ft. Worth, Tex., Amour de Nutmeg was named as first place winter bull, Junior Champion Bull and Reserve Grand Champion Bull. He was named second place winter bull and Reserve Junior Champion Bull at the SanAntonio Livestock Exposition, and was the first place winter bull at the Houston Stock Show.

The Charolais breed was introduced into the United States from France in 1936. Through small numbers, with only about 90,000 purebreds registered, the Charolais is becoming increasingly in demand by cattlemen to improve their herds. Although the calves when born are nearly the size of an Angus or Herford, they soon outdistance other breeds in rate of gain. The bull calves will average 100 pounds per month in rate of gain performance and four pounds a day is not uncommon. Many cattlemen, who place, emphasis on rapid growth, efficient gains and easy fattening for the economic production of high quality beef, choose the Charolais bull.

At the T & G Charolais Ranch, record keeping is a big, but a necessary chore. Breeders of purebred cattle are responsible for developing the qualities desired in high quality beef animals. Through the use of progeny testing, feeding tests, rate of gain and variety of other records, they can tell in an instant the exact performance of any given animal. A card file is kept on each animal from the moment of birth. The card tells the sire, the dam, date of birth and other information necessary to a prospective buyer.

Tarpenning got into the purebred Charolais breeding in 1963, beginning with 12 cows. He has since seen the holdings grows into a fine herd. Larry, who shares his father-in-laws enthusiasm for purebred Charolais, majored in animal husbandry at the University of Florida.

Out of Town Speaker Will Highlight Workshop Saturday

Addresses by Dr. Tommie Hammer, supervisor of Child Development Center at University of Alabama, will highlight the morning sessions at the workshop for children's workers Saturday, Sept. 27, at Layton Hall of First United Methodist Church.

The workshop, sponsored by Highlands Association for Children Under Six, is for kindergarten and nursery school teachers, child care center workers, church school teachers and parents of children under six years of age.

Dr. Hamner's first address, "The Establishment—or the "In Group," is scheduled for 9:30 A.M. At 10:30 A.M. she leads off the resource sessions with an address on "Identifying and Dealing with Behavior Problems."

Other out-of-town leaders who will speak Saturday morning are Mrs. Doris McIntyre, day care center consultant for the Division of Family Services with the State Department of Public Welfare, Jacksonville; and Mrs. Mickey Roberts, kindergarten coordinator for the Polk County schools.

Mrs. Martha Horton is chairman of the workshop program committee. Mrs. Paul Jones of Avon Park is chairman of the exhibits which have been collected from kindergarten and nursery school classes throughout the county.

Mrs. Virginia Hubbell is workshop registrar; Mrs. Willie Mae Waters is publicity chairman; Mrs. Kathleen Whitcomb, hospitality chairman. Mrs. James Hurley and Mrs. John Huber are hostesses for the luncheon.

The luncheon is scheduled for noon at the church and the resources sessions are to resume at 1 P.M. with closing scheduled for 2 P.M.

Mrs. Whitcomb, HACUS president, said no advance registrations are required for the workshop. A small fee, which will include the price of the luncheon, will be collected as participants arrive Saturday morning.

Coach Terrell Injured In Baseball Game

South Florida Junior College athletic director Dunning Terrell is back at work after being injured in a baseball game last week.

Coach Terrell was filling in at second base. A quick peg from the pitcher caught Terrell on the side of the head, breaking his jaw and bruising his face.

He was treated at the Wauchula hospital after the accident on Tuesday and returned to his duties at SFJC on Friday.

Dr. Williams Will Lead Bible Class

Drs. James and Helen Williams will lead the session of the Pilgrim Bible Class at the Union Congregational Church on Sunday morning at 9:15 o'clock. They will present for discussion the problems that arise through the use and abuse of drugs and alcohol. There is a wide variance of opinion as to what can be done. An interesting session is assured.

Rev. Herbert D. Graetz will preach to the subject: "How To Kill Christianity," at the 10:30 o'clock service on Sunday morning.

The Senior Youth Fellowship will meet at 6:30 o'clock in Pilgrim Chapel. The group will hold a planning and organizing session under the leadership of Mrs. Philip Weber.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank Dr. Ost, and staff at Walker Memorial Hospital, for the care I received. I also wish to thank friends and relatives for flowers, cards, and other acts of kindness during my confinement at the hospital.

Loyalty Banquet Held At First Baptist

Loyalty Banquet held yearly in September to promote Stewardship emphasis of the Church was Thursday night, September 18, in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Jamie Edge and Mrs. Aden Childress wrote a midget show with helpers, Milton and Mary Bass, Carl and Reba McWilliaks, and Betty Lawhon.

Cheryl Guerndt featured a skit with her pet flea. Also, Gerald Wicker and Bud Werden dressed in unusual clown attire performed during the program.

Bud Edge "Ring Master" introduced Rev. Milton Durrance, pastor of The First Baptist Church of Williston, who was the main speaker for the evening.

Mrs. Ophelia Rihner was General Chairman of the gala affair and the G. A. girls serving the dinner.

Solomon Gives the Answers

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

What would Solomon say about his life if questioned today? The following is an imaginary interview:

"King Solomon?"

"Yes."

"You were once known as the wisest man in the world, right?"

"Yes."

"How did you get your great wisdom?"

"From the Lord."

"Oh, did the Lord give you your wealth, too? It was once said that you 'exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.'"

"The Lord also gave me my wealth, yes. Everything of value I ever had was given me by the Lord."

"You must have worked awfully hard to be blessed so much by Jehovah."

Gifts from God

"No. As a matter of fact, I was afraid that I wouldn't be able to rule Israel with my inherited reasoning ability, so I asked God for wisdom. He gave it to me just for the asking. The wealth He gave as a bonus blessing."

"Everything you became then resulted from these gifts from the Lord?"

"Almost."

"It may comfort you to know that you still have quite a reputation for wisdom and wealth. Actually, only one fact about your life is better known."

"Really?"

"Oh, yes. Solomon is remembered as 'the man with a thousand wives.'"

"Oh."

"People these days really envy you for that."

"No comment."

"Why did the Lord give you so many wives?"

"No comment."

"Well, how did the Lord decide which women were to be your wives? Did you just ask Him for them or did He give them to you without asking?"

"Listen. The Lord didn't give me my wives; I got them myself—every woman I wanted."

"Oh . . . well, let's change the subject. What I most want to ask you about is your book ECCLESIASTES. I realize you wrote many songs and proverbs and articles on natural science, but this book of philosophy is the major work that has endured."

The Empty Life

"ECCLESIASTES isn't a book of philosophy; it is a book of experience. It is an evaluation of life by the world's richest and wisest man."

"That's exactly what I want to know about. Most of your book says that life is 'vanity of vanities'—sheer emptiness—but right at the end you seem to paint a different picture when you say, 'Remember also thy Creator in the days of thy youth' and 'Fear God, and keep His commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.' Which is right?"

"Before I married my wives, I served Jehovah. But my wives preferred the gods Ashtoreth and Milcom, so I began worshipping them."

"What did they give you?"

"Nothing. Then I discovered how empty life really was. But I still remembered how real Jehovah had been to me in my youth, and I said so in the end of my book."

"Yet you went on serving these impotent gods even after experiencing the power of Jehovah?"

"That's right. I didn't want to disappoint my women."

"I thought you were the wisest man in the world!"

"I was, but wisdom is worthless without obedience and the will to live your convictions."

WOMEN'S SECTION

MRS. ROBERT LEE LOWERY

Cynthia Gerling - Robert Lowery Wed In Presbyterian Church

Miss Cynthia Irene Gerling became the bride of Robert Lee Lowery in a 3 o'clock ceremony at First Presbyterian Church Saturday, Sept. 13.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gerling, 68 Wolf Drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Lowery, Alt. 27 North.

Rev. George Stulting officiated at the double-ring rites. Preceding the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Frank Morgan, organist.

Accenting a color theme of pink and white, the church was decorated with two large baskets of white gladioli, daisies and pink carnations flanking the pulpit, against a background of schefflera.

Wears Peau de Soie

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, by whom she was given in marriage, wore a formal floor length gown of white silk peau de soie over taffeta. The gown was styled with short lace sleeves, scoop scalloped lace neckline, empire bodice and A-line skirt. She wore a detachable chapel train of silk organza, bordered by lace matching her gown.

Her elbow length silk illusion veil was gathered on a headpiece fashioned of bridal satin to form a cluster of roses, accented by tiny clusters of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white tailored carnations and stephanotis, centered with small pink rosebuds.

Miss Sara Jane Richter of Miami, attended as maid of honor. Her floor length silk faille gown was in two shades of pink. The light pink bodice was designed with high neck and soft collar, and long full sleeves in light pink chiffon. A wide self belt in rose pink was at the waistline of the A-line skirt. A Dior bow headpiece, held her short illusion veil matching the light pink portion of the gown. Her flowers were a bouquet of white daisies and pink rosebuds.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue A-line silk shantung dress with matching jacket. The rolled collar and cuffs were accented by tiny matching braid. She wore white accessories, and a lavender orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother chose a light pink bonded jersey, complemented by white accessories, and a lavender orchid, in corsage.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Clara Lowery, was wearing for the occasion a beige lace dress, white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

Danny Lowery attended his brother as best man. John Dean, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as an usher.

Reception Follows

A reception following the ceremony, was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Handley, Dinner lake. The bride's table, covered with sheer white lace over pink satin, held as its centerpiece, a three-tiered wedding cake. The cake was centered by a miniature bridal couple, and carried out the bride's color theme of white with light pink roses.

The cake was flanked by burning tapers in silver candelabra, and silver compotes on the table held nuts and decorated mints. The bridal bouquet completed the table decorations. Baskets of white gladioli, daisies and pink carnations were on either side of the table.

Punch was served from an heirloom sterling silver bowl, belonging to Mrs. Katherin Waggaman. The punch table was covered with an imported white embroidered cloth, and held an arrangement of white daisies, gladioli and pink roses. Silver compotes of nuts and mints were on the table.

Mrs. Sandra Doerr and Mrs. Betty Meyer served at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving cake from the bride's table were Mrs. Carl Bentley and Mrs. Tommy Warren. Miss Sue Lowery, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the bride's book. Mrs. Handley assisted in receiving the guests.

Tiny packets of rice, wrapped in pink net, tied with pink ribbons, were fashioned and passed among the guests by Mary Ann Handley and Sue Handley.

When the bridal couple left for a weekend wedding trip, the bride was wearing an A-line navy blue dress with matching accessories. She wore the corsage of pink rosebuds lifted from her wedding bouquet.

The bride is a graduate of Sebring High School and Jones College of Business in Jacksonville. She is employed as a secretary at First National Bank.

The bridegroom graduated from Sebring High School, and served three years with U. S. Army Communications. He is presently employed by United Telephone.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilson of Sarasota, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weed, sons, James and John, and daughter, Melinda of Wauchula.

The couple will make their home at Lakemont, Sebring.

Junior Women Schedule Halloween Parade For Saturday, October 25

The home of Mrs. Eileen Martin, on Lake Lelia, took on a very spooky atmosphere at 8 P.M. last Tuesday evening, Sept. 16, as 10 members of the Junior Woman's Club met to discuss the annual Halloween parade and carnival, which is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 25.

The members of the Junior Woman's Club feel that Halloween trick or treat has gotten entirely out of hand. If you don't believe it, you should try to drive down North Lake Avenue and see the total confusion on Halloween, or better yet, you should live on North Lake Avenue, which is only one example.

We are appealing to the city officials and parents to help us make Halloween what it should be so that it can be enjoyed by everyone.

The Junior Woman's Club took over the responsibility of having the annual Halloween Carnival after it was given up by everyone else. However, it has grown from a responsibility to a Task, and it has become bigger than our membership can handle alone. As a result, the young women in the club have had to sacrifice their own children's enjoyment of Halloween because they are at the carnival Slaving to make the carnival possible for everyone else.

The club does not sponsor the parade and carnival for the money we get out of it, because, frankly, the money made is compared to a drop in the bucket to the work involved. Each year, we urge other organizations to help us with booths, parade entries, etc., so that it can truly be a community affair. Again this year, letters are being sent to clubs and businesses pleading for participation. It is hoped that the response will be greater than ever before.

The Bed Race is a new attraction and will be explained in full in a later edition of the paper, so watch for details!

Mrs. Martin, chairman of the carnival, announced the following chairmen of Junior Woman's Club activities:

The program concluded with presentation of an original worship service prepared by Mrs. Sam Rush.

Mrs. William Sayer, CWF president, presided for the business session during which the First Christian women extended an invitation to Fellowship of Sebring Churchwomen to hold World Community Day at First Christian on October 16.

Girls Needed To Fill Brownie Scout Troops

"What is happening to our young adults today?" Chances are you have asked this question yourself sometime in the past six months, and even wondered if there was something you could or should have done differently that would have been a worthwhile influence on them.

The young adults of today have their morals and beliefs firmly set by now, but the young adults of tomorrow, right here in Avon Park are desperately in need of your worthwhile influence now. There are enough interested young girls in Avon Park to fill three Brownie troops, two cadet troops and one senior group.

Scouting is one organization which could have a vast affect on how our young adults of tomorrow feel and act. Scouting teaches love of country: patriotism is stressed in various badges which the girls earn after learning proper handling of our flag, and studying how our democratic government works. Scouting stresses love of God; girls are urged to take an active part in their individual church and the troop as a whole participates in many church activities.

Respect for authority is taught: not just blind obedience, but a healthy respect for rules and regulations that have been set up for the troop, in many instances by the girls themselves. When the biographies of many of our American heroes and leaders are written, they are quick to mention that they were a member of the scouting organization in their youth, and to point out that experiences in scouting have had an effect upon their lives. We in Avon Park have girls, over a hundred of them, eager and waiting to have their lives shaped by the adults around them. What we don't have is leaders.

Women are desperately needed to say that they will take a troop and play a part in the future. It takes time, but those who have given this time repeat again and again that they gained so much themselves from putting forth this effort.

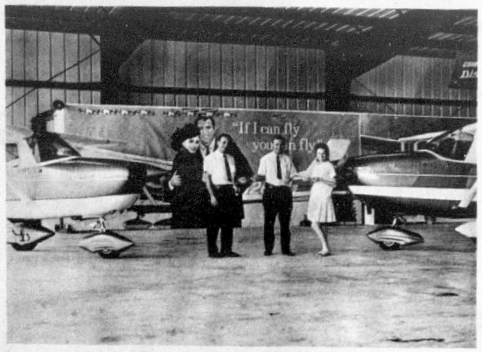
If you have never had a troop there is a huge book presented to each new leader, full of so many ideas you could not possibly use them all, and answering any questions that you may have and even some you hadn't thought of.

There is an excellent small group of experienced leaders who are willing to offer advice or help whenever they are asked. If you are working, scout troops can meet on Saturday or in the case of cadet and senior groups, they can meet in the evenings.

Don't give our young girls a chance to say tomorrow that the adults in their home town were to busy making a living to care. Don't wait for the other mother to volunteer. We have no other mothers, all we have is you. Please help! Call Mrs. Robert Barben GL 3-3806 or Mrs. John Sechrist GL 3-4873.

LIVESTOCK PRICES STEADY

Prices were steady to slightly higher at Wauchula Livestock Market last week. Slaughter calves and vealers were $1 to $1.50 higher, and feeder classes were $2.00 higher.



DON GOSSICK, president of Avon Park Flying Service and Mrs. Gossick are presented the keys to two new airplanes by Mike Hines (center), owner of Lakeland Flying Service. The planes will be for rent and for flying instructions.

Bill Owens Will Head Salvation Army's Annual Fund Drive Here

Captain Richard Leatherman, head of the local Salvation Army unit announced today the chairmen who will head the annual appeal for funds this year.

Campaign chairman will be Joe Stiles, who has worked with the Army for several years, and who encourages everyone to give generously to this worthy cause.

Avon Park chairman will be William Owens, with Henry Caffee as his co-chairman. Lake Placid drive will be headed by Roy Peoples.

In Sebring, Elmer Sherwood will head the drive among the businessmen with Ralph Clements, chairman of special gifts. Roy Gilbert and Jack Hancock will also work in the special gifts division. Frank Crowder is public information chairman.

Recognizing that Army services are becoming more and more valuable and vital to Highlands County, Chairman Stiles said, "I hope every person in the area will make a generous donation to this appeal."

The budget for 1970 has been increased about $2,000, because the Army's program and the needs of the people are expanding.

Captain Leatherman said "We plan to personally contact every business man in town to solicit his support. We will make a mail appeal to those individuals we are unable to visit. We need the help of everyone to raise the money needed for next year."

The general Army appeal is scheduled to begin October 13, with the special gifts group getting a head start on October 6.

Avon Park "B" Squad Plays Here Tonight Against Ft. Meade

The Avon Park "B" team will open its eight game scheduled tonight (Thursday) here at Memorial Field against the Fort Meade Miner jayvee squad. Kick-off time is set for 7:30 for the young Red Devil squad which is coached this year by Dewayne Lemler and Ed Culbertson.

The offensive team for Avon Park will have Leon McRae and Greg Hartt alternating in the quarterback slot tonight with Eddie Ezell at left halfback and Danny Lewis at right halfback. Bruce Peterson or Bill Phillips will run in the fullback position to complete the offensive backfield. The offensive ends will be Bud Wester and Nathaniel Packer with Tim Shields and Ray Culpepper holding down the tackle slots. At guard will be Tim Underwood and Del Murphy and the center chores will be handled by Charles Johns.

On defense the junior varsity Red Devils will have Mike Talley and Virgil McInvale on the nose, Shields and Culpepper at guard and Bobby Stopps and Eugene Flowers or Earl Strong at defensive ends. Ezell and Phillips will play linebackers and McRae, Wayne Todd and Artie Bass will be the defensive halfbacks.

Coach Lemler said that others who are almost certain to see action are Roy Lamb, Johnny Edwards, Ray Revels, Glen Gray, Anthony Williams, James Walker, Ricky Lanier, and others.

The young coach also commented that freshman David Mosser had done an outsanding job in several positions at practice but will not see action this week because he is not eligible with the state office yet due to his birth certificate being sent in late. The coaches are counting heavily on Mosser in future games if he continues to show improvement.

Also sidelined for the same reason are Jim Hopson and Andy Prescott.

THE "POISON IVY" GRAPEVINE

(Expose Roots to the Sun-light and Let It Die)

Our churches, both white and colored, seem full of good people waiting for GOD to do something, while politicians with church titles, and "whispering saints" (save souls who live like saved heels) use them to divide and control the community.

Fifty-five percent of the registered voters didn't bother to vote. Bob Barben and special interests became mayor with 22 percent of the registered voters. His small vote in the Quarters probably explains why the "machine" used different strategy there.

Some Negroes are willing to keep their own people in slavery as long as they can make a dollar out of it.

Don Serdynski, tho relatively unknown seems honest and capable as highest vote getter. We trust he will not feel politically obligated but stand on his OWN convictions, as hits Jack Duggan.

When special interests seek "most-favored treatment" we will miss the "backbone" of Rodney Lane.

We meditated long between "Genteel" Howard and "Corney" Wise because what Wise has done for the community has been out of his OWN pocket.

Bud Worden will make a good councilman or mayor in another election if he makes time for interest in the city government beforehand.

We are all more human than divine. Let's not idolize some and scorn others. Let's work together for the common good but . . .

Let's Kill Whispers — Let's Be Open!!

Civil Cases To Be Heard In Circuit Court Next Week

A heavy docket of civil cases is scheduled for Circuit Court next week. Judge Clifton M. Kelly is to preside for the trials which include two right-of-way suits and two damage cases.

Three days have been alloted for trial of a damage suit filed by Jack E. Wellington, father of the late Sue Ann Wellington who died in an auto-train accident in Avon Park late in 1967.

The Wellington girl was a passenger in a car driven by Pamela Carlton. The car and train crashed at the West Main St. crossing in Avon Park on November 7, 1967. Both teenage girls were killed.

In the suit, filed on behalf of Wellington by the Miami law firm of Nichols and Nichols, The Seaboard Line Railroad is charged with failure to maintain the West Main St. crossing in a "reasonably safe manner" and operating a train at excessive speed.

The Carlton's girl's father, William E. Carlton is also a defendant in the suit which charges that his daughter ignored warning lights, whistle and bells and tried "to beat the train."

Right-of-Way Suits

The week opens with a complicated right-of-way suit filed by Central & Southern Florida Flood Control District for land and easements for a canal near the Kissimmee River and Istokpoga Creek.

The suit, filed in 1964, originally involved 13 parcels with estimated values ranging from $90 to $102,385.

The last trial scheduled for the week is a right-of-way suit for land sought for the four-laning of US 27 South of Lake Placid. That trial is set for Thursday, Oct. 2.

A damage suit filed by Roger E. Miller is set to begin on October 1. Miller charges that Couch Construction Company, Inc., damaged a sub-division he is developing by using some of the land for a borrow pit.

Couch in turn filed a claim against Whitaker Brothers, Inc., and First Bank of Lake Placid.

A cross claim has been entered by Whitaker Brothers against Couch Construction.

The right-of-way cases will require 12-man juries, and the damage suits will be heard by six-man juries. Those called for jury duty are as follows:
