JACK DUGGAN, president of Avon Park City Council, is shown here as he qualified for re-election Tuesday. Virginia Henderson takes the check for $25. Duggan has served two terms on the Council.

Duggan Is Second To Qualify For Council; Deadline Friday

Tomorrow, Friday, August 21, is the last day for candidates to qualify for the three council posts to be filled in the city. It is also the deadline for voters to register for the city elections.

The Avon Park elections will be held on Tuesday, September 22. County and state elections will be held on Tuesday, September 8. Deadlines for registering to vote in the county and state elections have already passed.

Incumbent City Councilman Durrah Martin, who is presently serving his third term on the council, has been joined in seeking re-election to the city's governing body by Council President Jack Duggan, who previously had stated that he would not run.

Duggan qualified Tuesday.

In speaking of the proposed $2,500 sewer and water plan, Duggan stated that he was in favor of the program and that he would like to have a town meeting to discuss the program. He said that the engineers would be available to answer questions

if such a meeting were called.

New School Teachers Listed For This Year

Supervising Principal Aaron Cravens announces that the High School faculty was complete but is now minus one. Henry Marshall, Junior High Math and Junior Varsity Basketball Coach resigned just this week leaving a vacancy very difficult to fill.

The school year opened Tuesday, August 18 with all teachers new to the county meeting for orientation with Superintendent Douglas and the supervisors and coordinators from his office.

Wednesday, August 19 all teachers met in their respective schools with the Principals of each school. General and Special sessions will be daily all next week in preparation for the children on Monday, August 31 when all high school students will report. 7 and 8th grades will assemble in the gymnasium at 8:00 A.M. and grades 9 through 12 will meet in the High School auditorium at 8:30 A.M.

Dress codes will be much the same as last year. The student council of the 3 high schools in the county have discussed this question. The Principals and Superintendent Douglas have discussed it. Parents must realize that Education is a formal activity and a low informal approach will detract from the educational process. All have agreed that dress codes and ideas change and many people want to accept the changes. One concession has been made to the boys. Socks may not be worn. It was also agreed that on days of extreme cold girls might wear slacks. However, levis, dungarees, and jeans are not slacks.

My (Cravens) personal note is that most of our students have been reasonable and sensible. We expect them to continue to be that way.

The bus management asks that we inform you parents that the times will be approximately the same as last year and to be patient the first few days until a routine is established.

Teachers and assignments:

William Bowman, Jr. High English, John DePierri, Geography, William Firth, General Math, Mrs. Jimmie Garner, Reading, Miss Lexie Harper, Business Education, Cleveland Henry, Jr. High Science, Mrs. Lorraine Howard, Physical Education (girls), Miss Patricia Lee, Latin and English, Miss Phyllis Love, Physical Education (girls), Tom Lund, Social Studies, Edgar Sanders, Jr. High English, Kenneth Shackelford, Jr. High Resource, Ernest Sims, Assistant Principal, and Harry R. Williams, Math.

Avon Park Offers 10 Acres To State For Police Academy

A package of brochures, letters, maps and other pertinent data was sent this past week to Tallahassee as this area intensified its efforts to locate the state's "little FBI" academy here.

The City of Avon Park in a letter offered the state 10 acres of land West of Route 27 across from Lake Glenada South. Avon Park, tax free, promised to clear all land necessary for the construction of the site of the police academy, promised to provide free water, sewage service and garbage collection for five years.

And they agreed to construct a building or buildings according to the specifications of the state architects and make this available for lease or lease purchase.

The committee which went to Tallahassee to push for the Academy a couple of weeks ago is expected to return there, possibly September 1. "We next the State Cabinet meets. The decision will be made by Gov. Claude Kirk and the cabinet on location of the academy."

On Committee

On this committee are Chuck Watson, president of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce; Jack Duggan, president of the Avon Park City Council; Martin Grubler, executive secretary of the Sebring Chamber; Jack Stroup, Sebring city clerk; County Commissioner Ben McGee; Legislators Jim Tillman and Don Heath.

Tillman said that he and Heath will be in Tallahassee to present the Highlands County case when it comes up. He is vice-chairman of the committee which drafted plans for the Academy.

In addition to the city's offer for the Academy, Watson, Betts, vice-president of Brickell Properties, Inc., has offered use free of the second floor of the Brooks building in Avon Park for a temporary location of the academy while permanent facilities are being readied.

The building housed the classrooms of South Florida Junior College before the Junior College moved to its new location not far from the proposed location of the academy.

CHUCK WATSON, president of Avon Park Chamber of Commerce looks over the Police Academy brochure with Wade Wilfong, governmental relations of Florida Power Corp. The brochures were sent to Florida State Cabinet members and representatives of this district.

County Commission Adopts Proposed Zoning Ordinance

Highlands County Commissioners in a surprise move voted three to two Tuesday to adopt the proposed zoning and building code, effective January 1.

Commissioners Jean Whitaker and Robert Skipper vigorously opposed adoption of the controversial code after Commissioner Ben H. McGee submitted the resolution. Both Whitaker and Skipper favored a referendum on the code which was the subject of public hearings several months ago. The hearings drew hundreds of property owners who were divided in their views.

Commission Chairman H. Earl Crutcheff introduced the subject of the zoning and building code Tuesday in a statement without any preliminary reference to the code.

He emphasized that he had even much thought to the code and to the fact that a demand for a referendum had been made July 23 just before a public hearing was opened on a proposed plumbing and electrical codes. At that time the commissioners deferred action on the referendum request.

Referring to the July 23 demand for a referendum, Crutcheff said any request for a referendum should have been made at that much earlier date. He also commented that he considers the Zoning Commission which formulated the code and made some revisions in it after hearing many witnesses at the public hearings had done a good job.

Prior to the vote Whitaker urged public advertising of the zoning code. The Board of Building Inspector W. E. Spurlock is proceeding with action against six structures which have been condemned by the city.

The council authorized City Attorney Jack Blanton to prepare an ordinance to show the proper course of action for the city and individuals to take whose buildings are condemned. The owners of six condemned structures have been notified by the city that they must present to the Board of Adjustment any reasons why these houses should not be condemned or demolished at the Board's next meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 1.

After the Board has heard any reasons why they should not be demolished, the city will then act on the recommendation and make a decision. Those structures which remain condemned will have to be demolished.

The owner is responsible for demolishing his property or bringing it up to proper city standards. Those buildings which are not repaired will be demolished within 30 days by the owner or the city will destroy the houses. If the city razes the buildings they will charge the owner. And if the owner does not pay the bill, the charge will be assessed as a lien against the property and will be added to the tax roll.

The ordinance which is being prepared will enable the city inspector to follow this method for dealing with condemned housing in the future.

He stated that he had a "flood of letters from the public opposing provisions of the zoning code and declared that he disapproved of many of the code provisions."

Also preceding the final vote, Robert Skipper offered a resolution to provide a referendum on the code before voting on adoption. His resolution was made after McGee's resolution was approved. The other was no longer relevant.

Whitaker referred to the adoption of the code into law as "cracking it down the throats of the people."

Opponents of the zoning code contended that it severely restricted their use of the property, both currently and in the future, especially in regard to mobile home sites. Realtors were especially vigorous in presenting that view, which was also expressed by a number of property owners at the public hearings.

However, some of the public hearings held drew only a handful of property owners.

This council is composed of the sheriff and chiefs of police of Polk, Hardee, DeSoto, Highlands, Okechobee, Indian River, St. Lucie, Martin, Glades and Hendry counties.

The package sent to Tallahassee included letters from the Highlands County Commission, which in a special meeting held Thursday adopted a resolution endorsing the 10-acre tract of land offered by Avon Park.

From Other Groups

There were letters from other groups, including the City Council of Sebring and Avon Park, the Chambers of Commerce of the two cities and of Lake Placid, as well as from county officials and community leaders.

The package also contains an area site map, a map showing distances to popular areas of the state, and a list of recreational and service facilities for Highlands County.

The purpose of the academy is to better train law enforcement officers. It proposed to train men in a 10-week course and eventually to offer a bachelor's degree in law enforcement.

Four other cities seek the Academy and Bill Reed, head of the Florida Department of Law Enforcement, has expressed a preference for Tallahassee. The other cities are Sanford, Gainesville and Bartow.

Chamber To Meet Tonight

The Board of Directors of the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce will hold a meeting tonight, Thursday August 20, at 8 P.M. in the Chamber office, according to Executive secretary Alma Hooper.

Bombing Range Students To Attend Frostproof Schools

Polk County school children in extreme southeastern Polk County, who have been attending Avon Park schools, will have to go to Polk schools this year.

About 55 children, mostly elementary students, who live in the Bombing Range Road and Pittsburgh Area near the Highlands County line, are affected.

Children in these areas always have attended Avon Park schools because they are only five miles away, while Frostproof is 19 miles away. Their leaving would mean a loss of $16,000 to Highlands County.

The situation came to a head when it appeared that because of lack of students in Frostproof, their schools might be combined with Lake Wales — with Frostproof children being bused to Lake Wales. Frostproof civic pride was aroused at the possible phasing out of their schools.

Highlands County school board on Thursday adopted a resolution indicating their willingness to grant service to the Polk students. The final decision must be made by the Polk County school board, which last week ordered the children to attend school in Polk.

"Unless they rescinded their action, the decision to bus the children to Frostproof stands," said Highlands County Superintendent of Schools George Douglas.

Some of the families feel so strongly they are contemplating moving back to Avon Park as their children can attend Avon Park schools, Douglas said. If feeling is too strong, he said, the economic factor of sending a bus for just a few pupils, might cause the Polk board to reverse themselves.

Douglas said the controversy had reached all the way to the governor's office, "which has been in touch with us."

Band Rehearsals Slated

Vic McKunas, Avon Park High School band director, has called pre-school rehearsals for band members on August 20 and 21, Thursday and Friday, from 7:30 P.M. to 9 P.M.

All band students are urged to bring their instruments and be on time.

City Will Push Down Houses If Owners Won't

As a result of the City Council's last meeting, August 18, Building Inspector W. E. Spurlock is proceeding with action against six structures which have been condemned by the city.

The council authorized City Attorney Jack Blanton to prepare an ordinance to show the proper course of action for the city and individuals to take whose buildings are condemned. The owners of six condemned structures have been notified by the city that they must present to the Board of Adjustment any reasons why these houses should not be condemned or demolished at the Board's next meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 1.

After the Board has heard any reasons why they should not be demolished, the city will then act on the recommendation and make a decision. Those structures which remain condemned will have to be demolished.

The owner is responsible for demolishing his property or bringing it up to proper city standards. Those buildings which are not repaired will be demolished within 30 days by the owner or the city will destroy the houses. If the city razes the buildings they will charge the owner. And if the owner does not pay the bill, the charge will be assessed as a lien against the property and will be added to the tax roll.

The ordinance which is being prepared will enable the city inspector to follow this method for dealing with condemned housing in the future.

Avon Park Red Devils Begin Football Practice Wednesday

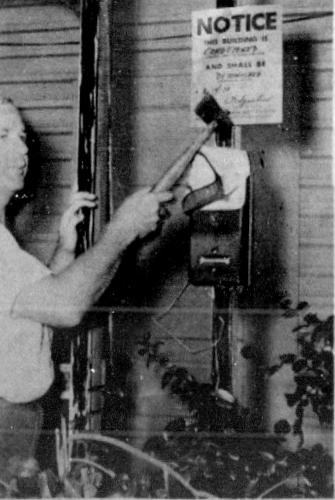

The Avon Park Red Devil football team started practice yesterday afternoon under the direction of head coach Joe Franza and his staff of junior high "B" squad and varsity coaches.

The returning lettermen spent Wednesday getting physical checkups while the other candidates worked out in the Memorial Field. The remainder of the group will be checked this week.

The Red Devils will host the annual Football Jamboree again this year on September 1, a Sunday night game at Memorial Field. Hardee High, Sebring, Avon Park and Arcadia get together in the pre-season game and each team plays two quarters while fans from all four communities get a preview of the season to come. The Jamboree is supposed to be held in Arcadia this season but the "Bulldogs" field is not in shape and Wausatcha is in the same position so Avon Park will host the event for the second time in three years. Last year the four teams played in Sebring. The Avon Park team will open its regular season in Daytona Beach on September 12 this year against the powerful Father Lopez team in place of the Lake Wales game. The first home game of the season will be September 25 with the Mulberry Panthers as guests.

The Devil squad will have

Local Post Office Join Nation Wide Postal Clean-Up Week

Postmaster Robert D. Young today announced "CLEAN-UP WEEK" for the Avon Park Post Office as part of a nationwide postal activity announced in Washington by Postmaster General Winton M. Blount.

The Postmaster General announced the program Sunday "to establish the post office as a symbol of good housekeeping and as a credit to every community in the nation."

Locally, Postmaster Young stated, "We are all concerned nowadays about the quality of the environment, and the Post Office—as a representative of the Federal Government—is always pleased to conduct activities that are in the best interests of the communities we serve."

"Our Post Office is one of the busiest and most visible activities in Avon Park, and whatever we can do to improve it is of special value to our community."

The Postmaster pointed out that, in addition to improved appearance for postal facilities, the national "CLEAN-UP WEEK" is designed to provide practical values, removal of safety and health hazards designed to reduce accident and illness, and repairs wherever feasible.

Mr. Young noted that more than 60,000 post office stations and branches over the nation are joining in the "CLEAN-UP WEEK" proclaimed by the Postmaster General. This includes the Post Office Department Headquarters in Washington, as well as the 15 regional offices across the country.

E. Ray Wells Seeks Sixth Term On County School Board

Incumbent School Board member E. Ray Wells, presently serving his fifth term on the board, stated that business experience is important for a school board member. Wells has owned Wells Motor Company for about 40 years.

This is Wells' first time to face any opposition in his seeking the school board seat. His opponent is Johnny Johnston.

He mentioned that in all of his years on the school board, only this past year have funds ever been granted by the citizens of Highlands County to give students adequate classroom facilities.

Wells pointed out that the school board's budget for this present fiscal year approaches $10 million because of the construction of the two new high schools in Avon Park and Sebring.

Wells favors rating teachers, a policy which the school board formerly applied in order to determine whether to accept an applicant for a teaching position, and to terminate the teacher's pay. These tests have been ruled out by the government, however.

He has been a Chamber of Commerce director for 22 years and a bank director for 16. He also has served on the hospital advisory board of Walker Memorial for about 10 years, and has taught Sunday School for 40 years.

Avon Park's Shame

Editor:

About two weeks ago I witnessed a good house destroyed by fire while a crowd of sad and very sober people looked on. Have you had the experience of watching a house burn to the ground? I mean a good house. Somebody's home just burnt to the ground for lack of fire protection? A fire so hot that everything burns and the heat so intense that people and cars stay a good distance. In the ashes the only recognized parts of metal are the shell of what was a cooking stove and a refrigerator and the crumbled piece of metal that was once a bath tub. Think of it. In this day and age of mechanical and electronic wonders somebody's home is a house throw from the city limits burns to the ground while the fire fighting apparatus stays in the barn.

Surely the city fathers and the county officials should be able to get together and work out a simple problem such as fire protection. Is the city council aware that home-owners insurance policies contain a clause that will pay the city for making the trip? Do the business men of Avon Park realize that the city fails to help their customers in time of need? Whatever the excuse from the City of Avon Park to deny fire protection to people outside and adjacent to the city limits, it seems mighty weak to the person that lost a house.

The time's too late for those who lost their home but it is not too late to do something about the next fire. The time is here now. Now to question the moral obligation of the city to serve these people outside the city limits. Continuing the present arrangement of no-service will only antagonize these neighbors without protection and create dissent that will eventually cause a barrier to the solution. NOW is the time for the city council to do something. After the next fire will be too late for someone. How about it?

Why Remember
This Man?

By DAVID LEWELLEN

Name the first person to come into your mind who lived in America. (Genesis 12:1)

The nation God promised was the one that had some days—especially in the tenth century B.C.—but the time of her real greatness is still to come.

The second, third, and fourth promises were all persons in Abraham. He was richly blessed, economically and spiritually, and he was a man of great faith.

The fifth promise is history. Great nations have fallen because they transgressed in this respect.

The sixth promise is a threat more ominous than a promise. Great nations have fallen because they transgressed in this respect.

Blasphemy in World World six ancient promises have been fulfilled and are still being fulfilled. But there was a promise to "be a nation of the earth" in the family of the earth in Israel.

Israel today falls somewhat short of an international blessing. Yet through it the whole world has been blessed, because Jesus was a Jew.

But that's not all. When the day comes when Israel becomes a truly great nation it will be great because it will be a blessing to the entire world. And it will be both—blessed and a blessing.

Abraham was simple enough to believe God. Two thousand years later, Jesus believed God. Two thousand years later, we do.

So will you, some day, if you do not already believe Him. I believe that God who made me can't forget Abraham. Copyright © Dave Lewellen 1969
