A Frostproof Governor?

Called Ben Hill Griffin this week to find out the why's and wherefores of a recent article in a Tampa paper which intimated that he is considering running for the governorship next year, Griffin said that the Tampa Tribune reporter had made an appointment to talk to him on a completely different subject. During the conversation the subject of politics came up.

Griffin said he gave the reporter his views. "I've never made a secret of the fact that I'd like to run for the office, but business affairs haven't been such that I could see my way clear. Now that they've moved the primary up to September, it's no longer an impossibility. If I can see where I'll be able to give full attention to the campaign, I may throw my hat in."

As a result of the appearance of the article, Griffin said he had received a tremendous number of unsolicited calls and letters from people all over the state, assuring him of their support if he decided to make the race. "This has been very gratifying to me," he added.

The idea of having a governor from Frostproof had been pretty well abandoned by Frostproof people after Griffin publicly announced he was retiring from politics at the end of his last term as state senator. Now local residents are hoping they will have an opportunity to again support him for a state-wide race. They'll have to wait awhile, though, because Griffin says he hasn't made up his mind yet.

Inflation

Money doesn't seem to stretch as far as it did even a year ago—and if you have a big appetite you might be feeling the pinch more than many. Because of each $1 of rise, food counted for 17.4 per cent.

Slicing up each dollar of rise, we found that mortgage interest took 13.9 per cent, clothes and clothes care, 11.8 per cent, medical care 8.2 per cent.

Skyrocketing medical and new housing costs don't affect everybody, of course, since millions of American families are not and never will be property owners. And many more millions won't see the inside of a hospital next year or the year after or the year after that.

One of the things which leaps out of the statistics is that the brunt of today's inflation is being borne by many who can least afford it—the big families—the ill—the people with young children buying a home with a big mortgage.

Highlands County Government Costs Each Resident $241

Just how much it costs, per capita, to keep the wheels of government turning in Highlands County, as compared with the cost in other communities, is brought out in a new study released by the Department of Commerce.

In Highlands County, the figures show, the cost of such services amounted to $241 in the year for every man, woman and child in the county.

The comparable cost, in other parts of the country, was $209 per capita and, in the State of Florida, $279.

The figures are contained in a voluminous report, the first of its kind since 1962, based on the latest Census of Governments. Such surveys are made every five years.

In it are detailed, for each of the 3,000-plus counties in the United States, the revenues, expenditures and outstanding debt incurred in connection with local government operations.

Indicated is how much is spent in each area: health, education, roads, police and fire protection, health, welfare, housing, sanitation, general administration and the many other functions performed.

Nationally, the outlay for health services alone in 1967 came to $90.5 billion in the year, as against $93.1 billion in 1962.

The rising cost of government has been a problem in almost every locality, with public payrolls, the price of materials, the demand for services and the cost of borrowing all moving.

Pro-God Activism Punishable?

Naming Mr. and Mrs. Middle America as "Man and Woman of the Year," Time magazine says, "The Supreme Court had forbidden it, but they prayed defiantly in a school in New York, N. J., reading the morning invocation from the 'Congressional Record'."

The statement made by "Time" is inaccurate. The Supreme Court has never ruled that the reading of the invocation from the "Congressional Record" is unconstitutional.

However, it is well known that many school boards have sought a way to have prayer in school and stay within the bounds of the court's rulings. In this area have been incorrect, but also believing that the decisions have the force of law.

"Free Exercise" of Religion

In Leyden, Mass., the school committee adopted a policy which stated, "On each school day, before class instruction begins, a period of not more than five minutes shall be available to those teachers and students who may wish to participate voluntarily in the free exercise of religion as guaranteed by our U. S. Constitution. This freedom of religion shall not be expressed in any way which will interfere with others' rights."

However, after a very short time, Massachusetts Attorney General Robert H. Quinn ruled that this practice was unconstitutional.

The absurd lengths to which some officials will go to demonstrate recently in Fremont, Calif., when an 18-year-old high school student was punished for talking to his class-mates about God.

The young people had eaten lunch and were waiting for the afternoon classes to begin, when a teacher overheard this boy telling other students about his faith in God.

The teacher took the student to the principal, who suspended him from school. The charge was that he had violated the educational code, which prohibits teaching or instruction of any sectarian or denominational religious doctrine in school. This has been proved to exclude any teaching about God.

"Pro-God Activism"

Criticized for his "pro-God activism," the boy was told not to return to school until he and his parents would guarantee that he would never again talk about God in school.

Later, he was exonerated when it was determined that his talking about God was not "teaching" or "instruction" within the meaning of the educational code.

But the fact that such a preposterous charge would even be seriously considered is cause for concern. How far we have wandered from the principles of our founding fathers, who set God and the Bible always in the place of prominence as their guiding lights!

How far some of our educators and legislators are from acknowledging that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom!"

What are you doing to restore the nation to the proper course of action in this area? Are you making your influence felt on the side of God and righteousness?

We need more people devoted to "pro-God activism."

BUSINESS AND THE STOCK MARKET

LIFE INSURANCE INDUSTRY — CHANGING STATUS

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., January 8, 1970. The concept of the holding company has brought about a revolution in the life insurance industry. After being limited to insurance operations for many years, largely because of conservative managements and ultraconservative and often archaic state laws, this industry has begun a new life. Through the establishment of a holding company, management now has the opportunity to go beyond the traditional insurance business.

Thus far, most of the industry's diversification has been directly related to finance operations. Real estate development and mutual funds are popular diversification areas at the present time. But, more exciting future expansion into computer services, financing and tax services is likely.

Computerization

The life insurance industry was one of the first non-scientific industries to utilize the computer. Having been a leader in the early stages of this dynamic field, the industry has gained a tremendous amount of experience which it can put to good use. The acquisition of software companies to go along with the expertise and capital resources of the life insurance industry opens up a new, profitable field. The industry has also made a number of changes within its basic internal framework. Mergers and pooling of resources, particularly among smaller companies, is a trend that should continue.

New Investment Ideas

Changing emphasis in the investment portfolios of the life insurance companies is a prime example of the more aggressive attitudes now pursued by managements. Gone are the days when over half of a company's investment portfolio consisted of government bonds. Today, due in part to recent changes in various state insurance regulations, the trend has been to reduce the amount in fixed-income securities in favor of common stocks and mortgages. The mortgage field has become very complex in recent years, as high interest rates and inflation have brought about some basic changes. Today, the life insurance company has several alternatives when making a large mortgage loan. Perhaps the most common is receiving part of the "action."

A Growing Industry

From a fundamental viewpoint, life companies are well situated to participate in the expected growth of the 1970's. Population and personal income advances mean gains for the whole industry. The increase in the younger (under 30) generation should prove to be a boon because the bulk of new sales is to this segment of the population. Rising income should mean larger policies.

On the negative side, the public's growing interest in the equity markets in recent years has resulted in the insurance industry's losing the percentage of savings dollars that it once had. People are more conscious of other forms of investment, thus forcing the insurance industry to enter the fields of mutual funds and variable annuities.

Another serious problem facing the industry is the cost of labor. Labor is the prime expense for the life insurance company, even though historically their employees have been one of the lowest paid segments of the population. But, in recent years they have made marked gains in income. The insurance industry has only partly alleviated the increased costs through the expanded use of computers.

Because of their growth prospects, the Research Council of Babson's Reports recommends the following companies: Republic National Life Insurance Company, 20, buying limit 25; and Standard Security Life Insurance, 22, buying limit 25.

Under our new policy, we will still rush emergency food to famished lands, but we will do more to help them GROW THEIR OWN, and we will demand EVIDENCE that they are doing MORE TO FEED THEMSELVES, before simply giving them food. It has been said by the newspapers that we are called heartless for thus holding up shipments of wheat to a starving land. This is not heartless. It is a principle. This writer has seen it printed that, due to a silly religious belief of some of the departed souls take up birth in the bodies of cattle, and that over 700,000,000 cattle roam at large and are fed enough that people could eat.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOBE

AMERICANS ARE GIVING UP SMOKING

The UPI from Washington, D.C., sends out the report that the American people are kicking out the cigarette habit at a record rate, government authorities say. In 1969, for the first year before a probable ban on cigarette advertising on television begins.

The National Clearinghouse for Smoking and Health said a decline in U.S. cigarette consumption, which started in 1968, accelerated last year. Prior to 1968 cigarette consumption had increased despite warnings by the U.S. Surgeon General and other health authorities that smoking caused lung cancer and other fatal diseases. The number of Americans who have stopped smoking is not known, but one estimate by the Senate Commerce Committee, said 7 million may have quit smoking during the past two years alone.

The Senate passed a bill last year that would outlaw the cigarette's biggest promotional medium — television and radio commercials. The cigarette industry did not oppose the ban and the House backers predict the House will accept it.

THE WORLD'S CRISIS IN FOOD

Within the past year the United States has officially reversed its position in the matter of how it will help feed hungry nations — not a minute too soon. To put it very simply, we've reversed our basic so-called "Food For Peace" program. Under it — since 1954 — we had been either giving away our surplus to hungry lands, or selling them on such easy terms that the poor could buy it. Now we're going to "sell" it — and we're going to charge a price that will give us a claim on two-thirds of her currency if we should demand payment.

Under our new policy, we will still rush emergency food to famished lands, but we will do more to help them GROW THEIR OWN, and we will demand EVIDENCE that they are doing MORE TO FEED THEMSELVES, before simply giving them food. It has been said by the newspapers that we are called heartless for thus holding up shipments of wheat to a starving land. This is not heartless. It is a principle. ## City-Wide Evangelistic Crusade Gets Underway Sunday In Avon Park High School Auditorium

Plans are now firming up for the Evangelistic Crusade to be held in the Avon Park High School auditorium January 11 to 18, sponsored by the Avon Park Area Ministerial Association. The Rev. Aden Childress is the general chairman. The Evangelist will be the Rev. Dr. Arthur Rich of Lakeland and his staff.

At the January 5th meeting of the Ministerial Association the leaders outlined the planning progress so far. Ted J. Ward, finance chairman presented the budget for the various local expenses. This was approved. The Rev. Aden Childress scheduled the presiding clergy for the various nights.

Sunday, the chairman with T. J. Ward; Monday, Rev. Duane Zoller; Tuesday, Rev. E. B. Boykin; Wednesday, the Rev. Warren Wall; Thursday, the Rev. J. L. Knapp; Friday, the Rev. H. D. Greetz; Saturday, the Rev. Paul Trissel.

All effort will be made to get Sunday evening's service off to a good start with clergy urging congregations Sunday morning to attend the first evening's service of the Crusade and continue throughout the week. Monday night will be Sunday School Night with all school children attending and representing their churches by groups.

Wednesday night will be Church Night. When local churches will be recognized as groups.

Saturday Night will be Youth Night with a 9:30 P.M. hot dog roast followed by a 6:30 P.M. movie.

On all evenings a nursery will be set up in the school building of the First United Methodist Church for people who wish to have care for their small children. A special luncheon for local clergy and wives will be held Monday, Jan. 12 at noon at the First Baptist Church Hall. Another luncheon for clergy and wives will be Friday noon at the First United Methodist Church Hall.

Prayer vigils are planned in many churches this week to pray for the success of the Community Crusade, and a Community Vigil will be led by selected folk Saturday, the 10th from 7 A.M. to 7 P.M. in the First United Methodist Church. Everyone is urged to participate in one of all these.

The chairman mentioned the urgent need for ushers, choirists, and counselors. These are to meet in groups at the high school auditorium at 6:30 P.M. during the Crusade. The counselors must sign up for special training sessions before they serve.

The object of the Crusade is to deepen the spiritual life of our community inside the people, and is interdenominational, sponsored by the local Ministerial Association.

Another good party idea—give the prizes to the couples who go home first.

Should We Yield Or Resist?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN
The best way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it. As said by Oscar Wilde, I think, and he might be fairly credited with a capsule summary of our whole culture.

Freud's psychology has given academic sanction to this view and has encouraged its suggested behavior on the grounds that most of our problems result from trying to resist our basic impulses.

The word "temptation" in Freudian thinking puts an artificial judgment of immorality on drives which are normal and therefore good.

"Yielding to temptation" then means "acting as you were made to act." Thus Oscar Wilde's maxim becomes in contemporary idiom: "Do your own thing."

Why Resist?
The Bible raises a counter-suggestion to Wilde and Freud and to our society.

It is true, the Bible teaches, that yielding alleviates temptation and produces pleasure—King Solomon gave much of his life to proving that principle, but the Bible says further that such pleasure is only temporary and that temptations satisfied give place to new desires in endless sequence.

The counter-suggestion is to resist. Resist the Devil and he will flee from you.

Great advice, but impossible in practice, someone says. Besides, why should we resist? Because the process of yielding to temptation "wears against the soul." Yielding to temptation is the process that destroys you as a person.

Freud says, rather, that it frees you. But if Freud is right, if giving in to all your natural desires really frees the "inner you" and increases your independence.

pendence and individuality, why is it that even intelligent and self-interest is often helpless to control temptation?

For example, do informed people yield to the temptation to use alcohol, drugs, and acid to escape pressures—when they know that the "addiction" itself causes worse problems?

Not because these free them, but because they are helpless to do otherwise. What Freud says is true, the Bible says enslave.

Still, to resist on our own is impossible, we say from experience, and the Bible agrees. However, the Bible also tells us that God has provided help.

Way of Escape

"No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it."

One reason why Jesus came to us as a man was to undergo the same temptations as we do, so when He returned to heaven He could understand and help us properly.

With Jesus' help, no temptation is irresistible. We are not shielded from exposure to temptation, but we are protected from its power.

Notice, however, that Jesus teaches us to escape temptation by separating ourselves from society. Besides, it won't work. Temptation comes from within as well as from without.

Many people abandoned the Bible because of Freud. Today many psychologists have abandoned Freud. Before you try some new psychologist, try Jesus.

SEJFC Panthers Meet Orlando In Avon Park Thursday Night

By COACH TERRELL
Thursday night at the Avon Park High School Gym, South Florida Junior College will meet Valencia of Orlando in a conference basketball game beginning at 7:30. The Panthers met Valencia in Orlando before Christmas and held the Matadors to a 45 to 45 halftime score, only to wilt in the late stages of the game to lose 65 to 72.

The Panthers left the cage wary to battle the books and came out better than usual as only one boy was lost by grades, M. Turner of Hope, Ind.

SEJFC entered the Manatee classic in Bradenton and it was evident the first night that they were not in shape as a tall and talented group of Gulf Coast cagers from Panama City jumped to an easy 159 to 65 victory. However, the same sight Edson edged Manatee 29 to 21 in the second game. On Saturday night the Panthers played Edson in another up and down game that ended with Edson winning 121 to 100.

Score at half time found Edson leading 64-60. In the second game between Manatee and Gulf Coast never more than two points separated the two teams until the last two minutes when Gulf Coast eased out to win 95 to 88.

"We could not get all the boys together during the holidays for practice and we were not in shape. Gulf Coast came into the game undefeated with 15 straight wins and left Bradenton 17-0. We played a good team and were not ready for them and as a result got our butches whipped," Coach Terrell said, "but we played Valencia Thursday night in what should be a good game."

Bonnie Brae Mobile Home News

We are happy to hear Wilbur Whitney is on the road to recovery in Walker Memorial Hospital and may come home sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Coen Cloyd of Nashville, Tenn., who are wintering at Highland View Estates visited with Thelma Chalmers during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pelt of Orlando also stopped for a short visit on Saturday. On Friday, Mrs. Ethel Putman, Mrs. Maude Foote, Mrs. Thelma Chalmers and her sister, Mrs. Janet Lynn of Manchester, N. H., spent the day visiting and shopping in Sarasota. Mr. and Mrs. Earle Lynn who have been visiting her sister, Mrs. Thelma Chalmers, left on Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Ingraham of Clearwater. Thelma will visit for two days before going to Sarasota for the rest of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Foote were happily surprised when Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weinstein of Schenectady, N. Y. drove in Wednesday afternoon and called on them. Charles and Frank are Knapp shoe salesmen. A few years ago they had a booth at the County Fair for the Knapp Shoe Company.

Ethel and Max Putman left for Louisiana Tuesday, where they will rendezvous with Margaret and Gene Brown. They are on their way to tour Mexico with a third party. The Gene Browns were here for a couple of months and left just before Christmas to spend the holidays with their family in Michigan. We wish them a wonderful trip. We are going to miss seeing Max on the shuffleboard courts, as he is one of the regulars.

Harry Mason with his Suse will be leaving for a week to visit friends for a few days in Fort Myers and then go on to visit with his brother in Vero Beach. Enjoy yourself Harry then hurry back.

Neil and Ellen McGonigle bid farewell to their son and family. Monday. They were visiting for the holiday.

Southland Trailer Court News

By Bessie Paxton

Christmas bells have ceased to jingle, decorations have been stored until next year, New Year's resolutions have been made, some folks have the flu and income tax has to be figured.

But to start the new year, a delightful surprise open house on New Year's Eve in the Recreational Hall with Anna and Harry as hosts was well attended. Barbara Lumpkin's organ had just been placed in the Hall, so music during the evening was furnished by Jim Ritchie. He not only played the organ, but accompanied the group for the singing and two solos by Betty Chapel. Michael Chapel sang a number from his nursery school and pleased everyone. Lovely refreshments of punch, cookies, fruit cake and different dips were furnished by the Barths. Thank you for a lovely evening Anna and Harry.

Tuesday morning, coffee break had a good attendance. People still like donuts and coffee, and the fellowship of that get-together on Tuesday morning.

Now that Christmas decorations made by the craft class are completed our thoughts are turning to items for the hobby show to be held in March.

Friday evening the McClareys, former owners of the park, the Kiracofes and Mary Strickland were entertained at dinner by the Hostettes.

The Ritchies have their trip to Nassau all arranged and are scheduled to leave January 16. Those going from Southland are Mr. and Mrs. George Hindley, Marie Stirovich and the Ritchies. Bingo Friday night was attended with Robert Moynihan and Stewart Dilts in charge. Everett Paxton won the grand prize again.

Ben Henningham is still in Walker Memorial. He is much improved but thinks he should remain in Walker a few days longer.

No one showed up to shuffle Friday afternoon. The weather was not beach weather, nor shuffle weather either it seems.

Mrs. Ivah Bittel is in Walker Memorial for observation. She entered Friday and will perhaps remain in the hospital for a few days. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Rose and Sam Walton, Mary and Ernie Thomas were guests New Year's Day of the Paxtons.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Allen of Hammond, N. Y. were visitors of Mr. Elthorpe last Friday. He enjoyed seeing his old friends and neighbors.

His daughter, of Orlando also came Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zastrow of Minneapolis, Minn., friends of the Maxwells, have joined Southland for the remainder of the winter. They are located in the trailer immediately south of the office apartment. We hope they will enjoy their stay in Southland.

Byron Jeremy has been released from the hospital after being there for a few days. He is having a birthday this week. Do you know why birthdays are like a dog's tail? They are bound to occur. Happy birthday, Byron.

John Ferrilli was injured Monday morning while helping with some improvements near their trailer. Mr. Chapel immediately took him to Walker Memorial where his injuries were not considered serious, but will probably remain in the hospital a day or two.

Rebecca Hostetter is also

THESE KIDS could hardly believe their eyes as Santa actually came and they got to see him and talk with him on the night before Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown at Ben Hill Griffin's Section 16.

in Walker Memorial where injuries from a fall she had Sunday are not considered serious. We hope she and Mr. Ferrilli will both return to their homes soon and recovered from any injury.

Laura Bernthal, Dorcas Young and Betty Peterson entertained neighbors from Ann Arbor, Mich. on Friday and Saturday. Mrs. Frieda Mattson and Mrs. Helen Frost visited Southland on their way to St. Petersburg and other Florida cities for two weeks.

Class of 1942 Holds Reunion

The graduating class of 1942 held its reunion December 27 at Griffin's Restaurant. Twenty-two former Avon Park students out of 23 located attended the reunion. The class had 36 graduates with two deceased.

Rev. Jack Witt acted as master of ceremonies with the class president, Desmond Roberts calling the class roll.

Each member was presented with mementos, such as Mary Carroll was given a bag full of carrots and Leon Sheumaker, who works for the State Board of Health was given a can of "raid".

The class motto was "We Stand, Divided We Fall" and the class song was "Stormy Weather" with the class colors of green and gold, and class flower, the Periwinkle.

When the class had their banquet (which was called back in '42) from today they had a nautical theme, so to carry that out for the reunion, name tags were made of gold anchors with green ribbon. Periwinkles were placed down the center of the tables.

Entertainment was hearing what each had done in the "27" years since graduation. Solomon Abrams, class member now living in Athens, Ga., showed an old film he had taken in 1940.

Guests for the evening, Dr. and Mrs. Stanley N. Reeves of Wausula who was principal at the time, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roberts, the class sponsor at the time who is now assistant principal at St. Petersburg High School.

Class members came from far off places. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dowler, (former Louise Bishop) came from California, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carson came from Rochester, N. Y. (the former Lillian Kelley and Mrs. John Carabaris from Connecticut, (the former Peggy Mandis).

After reviewing the old movie they were entertained at the Mandis home on Lake Letta for refreshments.

Everyone agreed that it was a memorable occasion and made possible by the efforts of Rev. and Mrs. Jack Witt and Mrs. Eloise Sharpe.

Winter Guests Observe Christmas

Winter guests at the Connell Apartments 900 North Lake celebrated Christmas in a pleasing manner by having a cooperative dinner served at 12 o'clock noon, in the large music room of Mrs. W. T. Connell's apartment.

Five tables were attractively decorated with red Christmas roses as center pieces and small red fans with green bows at each place had "Merry Christmas" written in red ink for favors. The afternoon was spent by singing Christmas carols, reading several poems and sharing the verse of some interesting greeting cards.

A social time was enjoyed by all.

With the addition of a few more couples who arrived during the week, the folks assembled again for a New Year's dinner. White roses were added to the red center pieces, and the favors were small white roses with curled stems on a card saying, "Happy New Year." Dinner was served at noon with the traditional sauerkraut, black-eye peas and all the trimmings.

The afternoon was spent by singing love songs of yesteryears, a contest appropriate for New Year's and a poem entitled New Year's written for the occasion by Mrs. Wilbur Milligan.

Those present from Michigan were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Warner, two guests, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tibb, Miss Doris Negus; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Walters; and six guests, from Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Teal, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Byler, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gunning and a guest from Ohio: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Milligan. From New York, Charles Allard, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wyant and Pennsylvania, Guy Yeager.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Culver arrived from Canada, New Year's dinner. White roses were added to the red center pieces, and the favors were small white roses with curled stems on a card saying, "Happy New Year." Dinner was served at noon with the traditional sauerkraut, black-eye peas and all the trimmings.
