LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Shall We Follow The Pied Pipers?

Are the editors of some of our respected national publications deliberately trying to break down the morality of our nation?

Dr. David Reuben, author of the book, "Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Sex — But Were Afraid to Ask," is now writing a monthly column for a national magazine. In one of his columns he says:

"The outmoded and punitive criminal laws against abortion, adultery, fornication, need to be reexamined critically. It's nobody's business what an American adult does in the privacy of his or her own home — with another (consenting) adult, of course."

He declares limiting one's sexual life to marriage, as too restrictive.

Decency?

He says, "As long as personal sexual behavior is controlled by ancient and unrealistic laws, there is no opportunity for real decency to prevail." When he refers to "ancient and unrealistic laws," he means, I'm sure, based on the Ten Commandments — such as the laws which have been in effect in our nation from its earliest days. By abandoning these laws, he proposes to establish the climate for "real decency."

Quite content to pit his wisdom against God's, he has come to the conclusion that adultery and fornication should be acceptable and abortion should be permitted.

This is real decency?

Another national magazine recently featured a report to "Gay Pride Week" put on by homosexuals in New York and Los Angeles. The magazine said, "With cause, the homosexuals were protesting police harassment."

Evidently, according to their view, the police are wrong in enforcing the law and the homosexuals are right.

The same magazine carried a favorable report of a church in Hollywood, California, catering to homosexuals — with a homosexual "minister" — in spite of the fact that the Bible condemns this gross sin in no uncertain terms.

Is it right that we should move toward a totally permissive attitude toward sex outside of marriage?

Is it really a forward step to make the killing of unborn children permissible, as Dr. Reuben proposes?

High Standard

Or would we do better to read and heed the word of the Lord, instead of the pronouncements of the self-anointed experts who pour out their folly in magazines which used to deserve our respect?

There are many who claim that the Old Testament law was too strict, saying that Jesus teaching was milder, easier to live by.

Not so. Here is what Jesus said about adultery: "You have heard that it has been said, 'Thou shalt not commit adultery.' But I say to you that every man who looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart."

Here is no permissiveness, as is advocated by some who proclaim themselves to be authorities.

Here is a firm insistence that thoughts, as well as deeds, must be controlled — held to a high standard.

Let's not be led by the destruction by the Pied Pipers of moral decay.

Area Growers Appointed To Committee

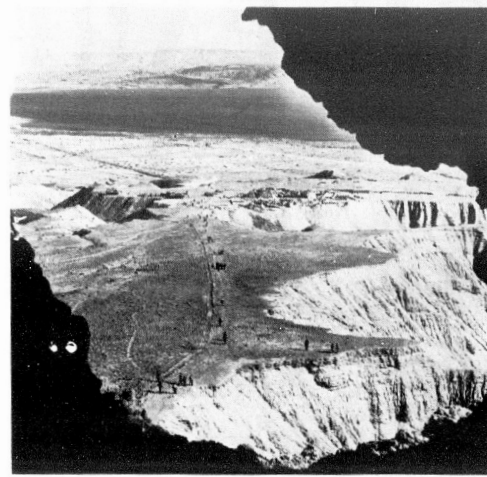

LAKELAND, Fla. — Appointment of nine members and their alternates to serve on the Growers Administrative Committee of the Florida citrus marketing agreement and order was announced today by the Consumer and Marketing Service.

Also named were eight members and their alternates to the Shippers Advisory Committee.

Officials of the U.S. Department of Agriculture agency said members and alternates of the two committees—selected by growers and shippers—will serve through July 31, 1971. The purpose of the federal marketing order program, officials explained, is to keep lower grades and undesirable sizes of oranges, grapefruit, tangerines and tangelos off the fresh market.

Periodically during the harvest season, the Shippers Committee makes recommendations as to the grades and sizes of citrus that should be marketed. These recommendations are reviewed by the Growers Committee, which in turn submits final recommendations to the Consumer and Marketing Service. The Growers Committee serves as the official administrative body under the marketing order.

Members and alternates named to the Growers Committee from Highlands County are: Charles G. Metcalfe, Avon Park, and Cole Danley Jr., Lake Placid. James W. Bowen, Lake Placid, was named to the Shippers Committee.

Murder Trial Ends When Defendant Pleads Guilty

The trial of Allen Rivers on a second degree murder charge ended abruptly last week when Rivers changed his plea. Rivers, an Avon Park resident who had been charged with the fatal stabbing of Ish Rivers, entered a plea of guilty to aggravated assault.

Assistant State's Attorney J. O. Macbeth had completed presentation of the prosecution case when Rivers, represented by the public defender, changed his plea.

Judge Clifton M. Kelly ordered a pre-sentence investigation.

Four defendants charged with aggravated assault changed their not guilty pleas and entered guilty pleas to the lesser charge of assault and battery.

Herbert Wiggins of Lake Placid was sentenced to 30 days in jail. Willie Odell Gilbert of Lake Placid, who had been charged on two counts of aggravated assault and battery and on one count of carrying a concealed weapon, was sentenced to 90 days in jail.

Jimmy Lewis of Lake Placid, was fined $251. Ola Mae Wright of Lake Placid, is to be sentenced in September. An aggravated assault case against T. W. Higginbotham of Sebring, was nolle prossed.

Higginbotham entered a plea of guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon and a pre-sentence investigation ordered.

Misuse of Credit Cards

Donald Gene Depriest of Bowling Green, accused of using his Bank Americard after it had been revoked, pleaded guilty and a pre-sentence investigation ordered.

Edward W. Christian of Haines City, accused of using a Phillips 66 oil card without the owner's permission, also entered a guilty plea. Sentence is withheld from day-to-day and term-to-term.

Melle Sylvester of Sebring, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was fined $251 and 90 days in jail.

Burglary Charges

Howard Roanigan of Babson Park, who had been charged with burglary by breaking and entering in connection with break-ins at Yogi Bar and Circle Cafeteria, changed his plea to a plea of guilty on possession of stolen property, and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered.

Frank Willis Lamar, Alfred Daniel Kerklin and Johnny Mack Farrel—who were charged with burglary by breaking and entering, last week Judge Kelly ordered all four of the men turned over to Hillsborough County authorities and returned here later for sentencing.

Andrew Scott of Winter Haven, charged on two counts of robbery, objected to being represented by the public defender and was given until July 20 to obtain legal counsel.

Jay Ingram of Sebring, charged with burglary by breaking and entering the Harder Hall pro shop, pleaded guilty and a pre-sentence investigation was ordered.

Sampson E. Armstrong pleaded guilty to possession of stolen property and a pre-sentence investigation ordered.

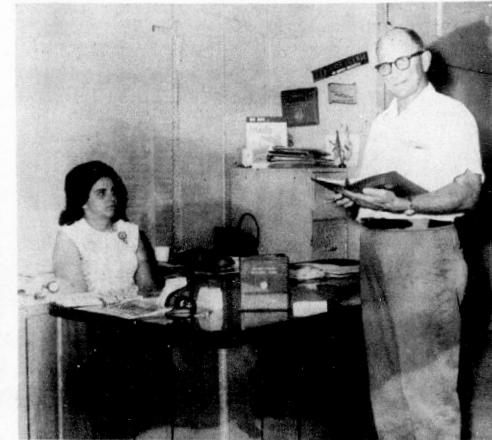

Edie Lee Williams and Arthur Flowers of Avon Park pleaded guilty to two counts of accessory after the fact and pre-sentence investigations ordered. No action was taken on two counts of robbery against them.

A charge of possession of stolen property against L. J. Johnson of Sebring, was nolle prossed.

Melvin Inlow who had previously pleaded guilty to two counts of uttering a forged instrument and one count of failure to appear, was sentenced to 10 years in prison and 10 years probation begin at the end of the time spent in prison.

We can't help but wonder what kind of a world the meek will inherit.

It seemingly never occurs to a teenager that someday, they'll be as dumb as their parents are, now.

FORMER Avon Park City Councilman Clarence King is shown with the building, plumbing, and electrical codes which he reviewed. The codes are on public display at the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce. A hearing to discuss possible adoption of these plans will be held on Tuesday, July 21, at 10 A.M. at the county courthouse. Executive Secretary of the Chamber, Mrs. Alma Hooper, is pictured with King.

Inflation Stops Families From Buying Homes

With inflation stopping many families in Highlands County from buying new homes, they are turning, to a greater extent than usual, to improving their present ones.

Much of the money that would have gone toward the purchase of new homes is going, instead, into additions, alterations, replacements and repairs.

In the past year alone, they spent no less than $1,746,000 in this direction, it is estimated, based upon the latest nationwide sampling survey conducted by the Department of Commerce.

In the local regional area, the average outlay per dwelling unit was approximately $221. Nationally it was $235 per unit.

That was the average. Some home owners, who went in for major alterations and remodeling jobs, spent a great deal more than that. Others, who may have done considerable overhauling a year or two ago, spent less.

Nationally, according to the survey, a record $13.5 billion went for home improvements in 1969. This was $600 million more than in the prior year.

It all boils down to the difficulties people encounter when they decide to move and begin shopping for another house.

They discover, very quickly, that new houses are not easy to buy nowadays. When they are, financing them becomes a problem, what with tight money, mortgages hard to get and high interest rates when they are obtainable.

They decide, therefore, that their best bet is to stay where they are and remodel.

How was the $1,746,000 outlay in Highlands County for home improvements spent?

According to a breakdown of the regional figures, some 61 per cent of it went for alterations, replacements and other construction work.

BUREAU OF ALCOHOLIC REHABILITATION

By JOHN A. WILLIAMS
Editor, Information Services

Sitting in a group therapy session the other day when the question was posed as to how the alcoholic should return to society should answer a tickish question that might pop up on a job application.

That question — do you drink? If so are you or have you ever been a problem drinker? Not all applications include such questions but when they do they pose a particularly difficult problem for the alcoholic.

If he answers yes he might not get the job. Even if he is a recovered alcoholic. If he answers no, he might have to live with a guilt ridden conscience each time he is called in to see the boss.

Or it might be embarrassing if the boss should do a little more checking and find out that he had once been in treatment for his drinking problem, or even worse, fired for a drinking problem.

Any way you look at it the recovered alcoholic is caught in the middle and only an enlightened boss is liable to take a chance on hiring him if the job hunter is honest and admits that he once had a drinking problem.

An honest answer to most questions is usually the best, most of us agree. But for the recovered or recovering alcoholic, industry and the public are not always ready for the honest approach.

Thus the problem is one which every recovered or recovering problem drinker must answer for himself or herself.

Most of the patients at the Avon Park Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation honestly feel that society is not ready, particularly job-wise, to accept the truth on an application for employment.

decision, one the alcoholic can most comfortably live with.

There are a few who thought honesty the best policy. That is, until one's stomach becomes empty and they may have been turned down on six or seven tries for a job.

The recovered alcoholic, with the help of enlightened management, actually can be a much more valuable person on the job because he really wants to stay sober, make a full comeback, and be a useful part of society.

For more information on the illness we call alcoholism and what current knowledge tells us you may write to the Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation, Information Services, P.O. Box 1147, Avon Park, Fla. 33825.

We can give you some honest answers and in most cases renewed hope.

Your Social Security

Question — I recently had a heart attack and my doctor told me that I would never be able to work again. He advised me to file a claim for Social Security disability benefits. I am 47 years old. If I qualify for benefits, will my check be reduced?

Answer — No. Your benefit would be figured as if you were age 65 at the time you became disabled. There would be no reduction in your monthly benefit.

Question—I was married to my husband for 33 years. About 3½ years ago we got a divorce. I have heard that I might be entitled to social security checks on his record, even though we are divorced. Is this true?

Answer—There is a possibility that you can draw on your former husband's record. You should contact your nearest social security office immediately to see if you might qualify. Certain requirements must be met before you could be entitled. You should bring with you a certified copy of the divorce decree.

Question—I am drawing a social security disability check each month. If I get better and return to work, what should I do?

Answer — You should contact the social security office immediately and let them know that you have returned to work. If you fail to do this, there is a possibility that you might be overpaid and have to pay back some money to us.

County Costs Up But Taxes Stay At 13.5 Mills

tor-Engineer Charles Morgan urged the commission to get out of time payments as quickly as possible, so both the current and new budgets provide for new equipment to be purchased on a cash basis only.

The total road and bridge budget for the coming year will be $675,000.

Cut Restored

In the early stages of its budget work the commission had cut $2,000 out of the fine and forfeiture budget. At its session July 9 the commission restored the cut but put the money into the reserve for contingencies.

They chided Sheriff Joe Koon for recommending a "dangerous low" $400 contingent fund. The total fine and forfeiture budget is up from $307,722 to $355,000.

Salary Fight

Sharpest disagreement during the final budget work session was on a single salary. A five per cent pay boost for County Purchasing Agent Eugene Hamlin was approved with the non-candidate commissioners out-voting Candidates Jean Whitaker and Earl Crutchfield.

Commissioner Cecil Skipper said a $1,200 raise given to Hamlin in March — boosting him to $9,000 — was to bring the salary for the position in line with what counties of similar size are paying their purchasing agents. He was joined by Robert Skipper and Ben McGee in contesting that excluding Hamlin from the general pay raise would be unfair.

Whitaker, candidate for Republican nomination for District 4 commissioner, argued that adding five per cent so soon after the $1,200 increase in "too much too fast." He demanded a roll call vote on a raise for the purchasing agent.

Chairman Crutchfield, candidate for the Democratic nomination from District 2, paused before registering his negative vote.

The commissioners authorized advertising the full budget on July 23 and 30 and the public hearing will be on August 4.

Swimming Instructions Will End This Week at School

Although the school summer enrichment program will continue through July 31, the swimming instruction will finish up this week. Leon Garner has been teaching some 25 students in junior and senior lifesaving courses at the private pools of Judge Mervin Behrer and Mayor Robert Barben each week-day afternoon and Mrs. Margaret Collins has been instructing 80 elementary boys and girls in beginning, advanced beginning, and intermediate swimming courses at Lake Verona and the pool at the home of Mrs. Lena Wright.

The boys and girls who successfully complete the courses will receive Red Cross cards and pins. Assisting Mrs. Collins with the swimming classes the past three weeks were Marilyn Smith, Janice Turnbull, Patricia Cravey, and Kim Smith. Also helping with the swimming instruction in the afternoons was Mrs. Loretta Ellis.

Tomorrow (Friday) will also be the last day for the pre-school program at Avon Elementary where activities to ready incoming first graders have been held each morning from 9 to 11:45 o'clock.

Starting next Monday only Mrs. Collins will be on duty with the recreation program at Avon Elementary. She says there will be crafts of all types and that from 9:30 to 10:30 each morning Patti Turnbull will instruct in cheerleading for those interested and from 10:30 to 11:30 Nancy Pearl will teach majorette activities. Next Friday afternoon from 1 to 3 the group goes to Ridge Lanes for bowling.

The past two Wednesdays the high school recreation staff has taken bus loads of boys and girls to Vero Beach. The first Wednesday 96 students made the trip to the beach for a day in the sun.

The gym is open in the mornings and the weight room is in operation in the afternoon each Wednesday from now until July 31 and boys and girls are welcome to join in the program.

Eckerd Will Address County Republicans at Holiday Inn

TALLAHASSEE — Republican Jack Eckerd has formally entered the race for governor and said he expects his campaign to have "one primary issue."

"The primary issue in this campaign is Claude Kirk himself," Eckerd said.

"I am convinced that the only way to correct our course is to defeat the man who for the last four years has covered-up reality with floundering and rash promises," said Eckerd, a life-long Republican.

As he filed his qualification papers with the Secretary of State's Office here, Eckerd also disclosed that he's spent some $800,000 laying the groundwork for his gubernatorial campaign. In addition to Gov. Kirk, Eckerd will also be opposing L. A. Bafalis.

JEAN G. MOSIER

Jean Mosier Returns From Two Weeks of Training

Jean G. Mosier, counselor at the Bureau of Alcohol Rehabilitation, BAR, Avon Park, has returned from two weeks in psychodrama training at the Moreno Institute in Beacon, N.Y.

She has completed the first four levels towards becoming an accredited psychodrama therapist. Psychodrama has been evolving since 1914 when Dr. J. L. Moreno began his "Theater of Spontaneity."

Many hospitals use psychodrama as an adjunctive technique that complements analytical approaches to psychotherapy. It is used as a therapeutic technique in treating alcoholism at the Bureau.

She has been in training with Mrs. Zerkia Moreno who is the wife of Dr. Moreno. Along with psychodrama the counselor has been learning various techniques in sensitivity and encounter groups. All of these methods have proven beneficial in the treatment of the alcoholic. Jean lives with her husband, Robert, and four children in Sebring, and has worked at the BAR for the past 14 years. The therapist said she "is quite enthusiastic about the psychodrama field — mostly because action (the psychodrama) produces healthy emotional results."

$3,422,000 A Month Is Paid In Social Security In 3 Counties

Social Security benefits paid to residents of Highlands, Polk and Hardee counties (the Lakeland Office Area) totaled $3,422,000 a month as 1969 ended, William E. Arnold, Social Security District Manager, reported today.

A benefit increase, signed into law by President Nixon on December 30, 1969, has also raised the monthly rate of payment by 15 per cent for the 41,966 social security beneficiaries living in the three-county area.

Of the social security beneficiaries living in the three-county area, 25,665 are retired workers and their dependents. Another 9,642 are receiving benefits as the survivors of workers who have died, and 2,654 are getting benefits as disabled workers or the dependents of disabled workers.

Arnold pointed out that although the majority of social security beneficiaries are older people, about one out of every four is under age 65.

In the State of Florida, 212,136 people under age 65 are collecting social security payments each month. The 122,250 who are under age 18 are receiving payments because a working father or mother has died or is getting social security disability or retirement benefits.

Of the 17,742 who are 18 through 21 years of age, most are getting student's benefits under a provision which permits the continuation of a child's benefits past his or her 18th birthday, and up to age 22 if he or she is attending school full time.

But in this 18 to 22 age group, Arnold said, are some other types of beneficiaries, illustrating the broad family protection that is provided working people of all ages under the social security program.

A number are the children of retired, disabled, or deceased workers who became disabled before they reached 18 and who will probably never be able to go to work and become self supporting. The benefits of these young people, severely handicapped by physical or mental disabilities, will continue indefinitely and benefits are payable to their mothers if the disabled son or daughter is in the mother's care.

Another small but significant group of youthful social security beneficiaries are those who are receiving social security benefits as disabled workers. Under a 1967 change in the law, disability benefits that he paid to a person who becomes disabled for work even if he has less than five years of work under social security. As little as a year and a half is required in the case of a worker who becomes disabled before age 24.

M-Sgt. Bass Is On Aerial Mapping Team

TOPEKA, Kan. — Master Sgt. Vernon E. Bass, son of Mrs. Vera E. Bass of 728 W. Bell St., Avon Park, is a member of a special Air Force aerial survey team that has been conducting aerial mapping photography in South America.

Sgt. Bass is an electronic systems technician with the Air Force's Aerospace Cartographic and Geodetic Service (ACGS), headquartered at Fort Belvoir, Ill. He has been flying over the towering, rugged peaks of the Andes Mountains to photograph some 25,000 square miles of the border between Chile and Argentina.

Aerial photography—the end result of the project—may better determine the exact international boundary between Argentina and Chile. Reunited by the two South American countries, the project began in late January and was suspended in May because of snow cover and atmospheric conditions. ACGS personnel will return to complete the project in January 1971 when weather conditions improve.

Aircraft were flown at altitudes of 40,000 feet above sea level to obtain acceptable photography of the border area.

The sergeant is a 1948 graduate of Avon Park High School. His wife, LaBonne, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Lewis of 825 S.W. 12th St., Fort Lauderdale.

Local Couple Weds In Double-Ring Ceremony Tuesday, July 14

Mrs. Anna Dee Hardin and Charles Shaw were united in marriage Tuesday, July 14 at 2 P.M. in a quiet double ring ceremony by the Rev. John P. Fickens at the home of Mrs. Harlen on Lake Denton.

Mrs. Louise Park of Lakeland served as matron of honor and Charles Fout, Avon Park, served as best man.

The bride wore a street length dress of yellow double knit, A-line and a yellow carnation corsage.

Guests attending were: Miss Judy Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Boney, parents of the bride, Mrs. Charles Davis, Wauchula, Miss Mary Leaphart, Lakeland, and Craig Fout.

A reception in the home followed the ceremony. The couple will reside at their home on Lake Denton.

The South Florida Junior College campus was a lonely deserted place Sunday noon, but that didn't seem to bother this plump sleepy looking toad. With eyes half closed the toad sat at the edge of an uncovered underground water spigot, in the warm shade of the agriculture machinery building, possibly waiting for Sunday dinner to come by.

Is This Theory Scientific?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

Here is a scientific fact: Simplicity and chaos never develop by themselves into complexity and order in a closed system. Indeed, unless energy from an outside source is introduced into a complex and orderly system, it will tend to degenerate into simpler forms and chaotic relationships.

Here is a scientific theory: the universe, as a closed system, began as a disorderly mass of atoms and elements and developed by natural principles and without outside intervention into an extremely complex and orderly unit.

There is no evidence either from experiment or observation that questions the scientific fact, yet the "scientific" theory is widely accepted. Even though the fact and the theory disagree, both are almost universally taught to be true.

Why?

While science has determined by destroyed all superstitions and mystical faiths it ever encountered, and does so often with open scorn and ridicule, how could scientists ever agree to a theory that conflicts with one of the most basic axioms of their thinking?

That's the worst kind of faith there is — believing something to be true when the facts clearly indicate it is not so. It is for alleged "blind faith" like this that Bible-believers have been laughed at.

What are the scientific alternatives to this paradox? Basically there are two.

First, it could be held that the God who is not a closed system, that energy and matter are not conserved.

Second, it could be held that some force has been operating in the universe to develop and sustain its complexity and order.

This second alternative is what the evidence most logically suggests, for it is abundantly clear that natural forces could not have this effect.

What could this mysterious force be that created the complexities of our universe? The Bible says it is God: "He commanded, and they were created." (Psalm 148:3)

Largest Outcome

It is surprising, then, to discover that a belief in God should be a logical outcome of the study of science. After all, many scientists have been telling us the opposite for over a hundred years now.

Why has a belief in God become so rare among scientists today? I think it is because science has made it appear reasonable for people to do just about anything they want to — and yet the logical outcome of a belief in God is that God made the world and we should do what God wants us to.

And most scientists don't want to.

Willful ignorance is a high price to pay for independence. You wouldn't pay it if you were not also ignorant of the love of the God whom you want to be independent of.

Local Man Goes To Punta Gorda For Ceremonies

On the 4th of July, a group of American Legionnaires from several counties, representing Posts in Avon Park, Sebring, Punta Gorda, Port Charlotte, Harbor Heights, Fort Myers and Lehigh Acres met at Punta Gorda to perform an unusual ceremony: the disposal of unserviceable flags, flags that have become faded and worn in the service of their country.

At sundown the men, District Commander J. Craigton, District Sergeant at Arms Carl Rappe, Department Sergeant at Arms Ben Grist, Aide to the Commander Lillian Cleveland, and the Host Commander of Punta Gorda, placed the flags in the registered mare under 5 class. Janice placed third in showmanship and fifth in western pleasure, 13 and under. Janice was also in the grand and reserve champion mare class.

DR. ROBERTO A. CASO

Pathologist Robert Caso Joins Highlands General Hospital

Highlands General Hospital Administrator T. S. Yeager has simultaneously announced the arrival of Dr. Roberto A. Caso, pathologist, and the expansion of the hospital's laboratory services.

Dr. Caso, who completed his residency in pathology at Orange Memorial Hospital in Orlando in June, has entered into a contract agreement with Highlands General and Walker Memorial Hospitals, to provide pathology service for the two hospitals.

Dr. Caso received his medical education at the University of Havana where he was graduated in 1957. He served an internship and medical residency at the University Hospital, "Calixto Garcia," in Havana and was assistant internist at the National Hospital, also in Havana.

Dr. and Mrs. Caso are residing at 17 LaGrange.

New Department

With the coming of a pathologist, Highlands General Hospital is adding a histology department, Administrator Yeager announced. Histology is the study of normal and diseased tissues. Since its opening the hospital has sent all tissue work to a laboratory in Ft. Myers.

New equipment to set up the histology department has been purchased with funds provided by the Memorial and Designations Funds Committee of Highlands General Hospital Association.

The committee forwarded to Yeager a check for $10,324 to purchase a microtome, tissue processor, tissue embedding unit, staining equipment for surgical tissue specimens and cytology study, in addition to a self-contained microtome-cryostat which enables the technician to freeze tissue rapidly for quick diagnosis by the pathologist.

Joint Effort

Dr. Caso will provide professional supervision and diagnostic work at both Highlands General and Walker Memorial. "The two hospitals are participating in this joint effort to better utilize the pathology coverage and avoid duplication of expensive equipment," Yeager explained.

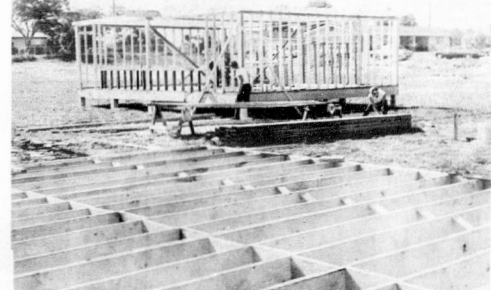

"Highlands General will provide histology services for both hospitals, and Walker has purchased expensive equipment to do all blood work," the Administrator said.

He explained the new equipment at Walker includes a SMA-12 machine which runs multiple tests from one sample of blood.

"It is felt this cooperation between the two hospitals will best serve the needs of the citizens of the county in addition to better utilizing the money and equipment available to both hospitals," Yeager said.

GOVERNOR CLAUDE KIRK'S new highway safety campaign being "kicked off" this month is receiving an assist from Florida Power Corporation. Vehicles of the safety-conscious utility will display "ARRIVE ALIVE" front plates during the six-months program, and special safety films will be shown to employees. Tony Mitchell, chief clerk in FPC's Avon Park office, is shown with one of the plates.

FOUR MORE portable schoolrooms are being added to the Elementary school buildings. The classrooms, being built by Edwards Construction Company of Avon Park cost $9,200 and will be completed before school begins this fall.

Adult Education May Expand This September

Highlands County schools may expand their program this fall to include basic adult education. Initial plans for the program were unveiled at the July 9 meeting of Highlands County School Board.

Superintendent George F. Douglass said Samuel E. Nixon, coordinator of middle schools, could head the county-wide program to provide basic education (reading, "ruling and rhyming") wherever it is needed. "State funds may pay for five instructors at the rate of $7 per hour.

Classes, for most part, would be night classes, Douglass said. A night school offering high school courses could be included in the program, Douglass said.

Budgets and Bids

Study of budgets and bids was the principal business of the July board meeting.

Bids for school lunch milk in the 1970-71 year were received, and the contract awarded to Southeast on a base bid of .075 cents per half-gallon. The bid for last year was .074 cents.

Bids for food items for lunchrooms will be received later, but if they reflect the general price rise it may be necessary to "discuss a price increase for school lunches," Supt. Douglass said.

The board voted to continue the student accident insurance with Farmers National Life, the same company that has held the contract for the past two years. The board voted to increase the price 25 cents per policy to gain a $10 per day increase in hospital room benefits.

The board extended its contract with WEDU educational television for another year. The cost, based on average daily attendance, will be about $7,500, Douglass said.

A bid for some lots the board owns in Avon Park was tabled.

Personnel Changes

Mrs. Gayle Johnson was approved as a teacher for DeSoto City School, and Catherine Ann McCann as math teacher for Sebring High.

In non-instructional staff the following appointments were approved: Elijah Murphy, bus driver for Sebring area and custodian at DeSoto City; Mrs. Sally Cheshire, bus driver for Ridge Area Day School in Avon Park.

Clyde Johnson, bus driver and custodian in Lake Placid; Charles F. Nichols, bus driver for vocational rehabilitation bus; Mrs. Jeanette Crews, on call bus driver; Glenn Odham and Ralph Genio, substitute bus drivers; Mrs. Elaine Genio, secretary in county schools office.

Mrs. Barbara Grantham's resignation as a bus driver was accepted.

STATE SENATOR Reuben Askew will be honored at a barbecue at the Scarborough Ranch, South of Lake Placid, Saturday night. Senator Askew is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

Toll charges too high? Records show that one strip of toll road, near Comstock Lodge charged $36.00 per wagon and team, for orcharders, in the good old days, some 115 years ago.

Income Up In Highlands County

NEW YORK, July 11—Income in Highlands County was up in the past year and, as a result, consumer spending continued at a high level. The figures show that many local merchants equalled or exceeded their previous year's volume, due to the release by the Standard Rate and Data Service. It gives comparable figures for families in all parts of the country.

In Highlands County, food stores got a sizeable piece of the retail dollar. They accounted for approximately 29 cents out of every dollar that was spent.

For grocery stores, supermarkets, bakeries, meat markets and other food emporia in the area, it added up to a sales volume of $12,880,000.

This was solely for take-home food. It does not include expenditures in outside eating and drinking places.

If this outlay for food were divided equally among all local families it would average $1,517 per family.

Compared with the expenditure for food in most other areas of the country, this was a relative large amount. The average in the United States was $1,261 and, in the State of Florida $1,202.

The SRDS report shows that consumer buying of other kinds of merchandise was also sturdier than might have been expected.

Sales of automobiles, motorcycles, boats and other automotive equipment amounted to $10,479,000.

Department stores and other shops carrying general merchandise accounted for $1,959,000. The year before it was $2,243,000.

Apparel stores and specialty shops handling dresses, hats, shoes and other articles of clothing ended this year with a total of $1,665,000, compared with the former year's $1,128,000.

Sales of furniture, household appliances and home furnishings came to $1,220,000. In 1968 they amounted to $1,133,000.

In recent months, reports indicate, consumers across the country are showing more restraint in their spending, reflecting their concern over the war and inflation.

a "hot" issue in September 8's primary. Ernest P. Norris, 33-year-old insurance agent, is challenging Col. W. J. Atkinson for the state executive committee post from this county.

Atkinson, a retired Army colonel, has been chairman of the Highlands County Republican executive committee for many years.

Norris, district chairman for Florida state Young Republicans, does not duck terms like "rebel" or "young Turk." While sidestepping specific statements this week he promised a "real fight" for the seat on the GOP state committee.

Eleven Republicans have filed as candidates for precinct committee posts. To date all are without opposition.

On the Democratic side not one candidate has filed for party office.

County Officials
Within the past week three additional candidates have qualified for county office, bringing to 11 the total number now seeking nomination for either school board or county commission.

A November fight for school board began taking shape with two candidates qualifying so far. Incumbent E. Ray Wells, veteran board member from District 1, qualified on Tuesday for the Democratic nomination.

Last week Johnny C. Johnston qualified for the Republican nomination for the District 2 school board seat.

So far neither has opposition in the primary.

The Democrat who was the nomination for the District 2 county commission seat will have opposition in November.

Lions Club News

Mid-summer notwithstanding, the meeting on the evening of July 7 was well attended. Members who could not attend missed a fine dinner prepared by ladies of the Rebekahs. Ham, escalloped potatoes, salad, beans and choice of sour cherry or peach pie is typical of how these fine ladies held our interest in matters Lion.

Lion Fred Hughes did double duty by first receiving his 24th consecutive perfect attendance award. Quite an achievement. Secondly, he reported on activities of the recent state Lions convention. His interpretation of the solemn necrology service well fulfilled his assignment as delegate.

Two local high school youths, Walter Nunnallee and Greg Albrighton, who were Boys Staters this year, rounded out the program by telling of their experiences. They spoke in serious vein of the values associated with their learning some of the inside functioning of all levels of state government.

Each participated in organizing Boys State political bodies, including electioneering and all its frustrations and satisfactions. Both were proud to be able to recall that some of their legislation served as a basis for subsequent legislation by the state legislature. In keeping with the mood of the times, the thrust of their action was in environmental problems and hopeful solutions.

Lions appreciated the humorous but soundly based remarks by Walter and Greg on the attempts by students to disrupt Boys State. It seems that the boys found it not to their liking to be ignored but that such a tactic by the Boys Staters succeeded.

In summary, both boys said that they were more than over proud to be Americans following their association with over 500 others in Boys State activities. Those of us who listened to them are proud too, that they are Americans and particularly so as representatives of Avon Park.

No human is wise enough to know everything, or stupid enough to know nothing. Most of us fall somewhere in between.

Youths Strip Car Charged With Grand Larceny

Donald Ray Ruse 26, of Lumberton, N. C. and two juveniles one of Avon Park and one from Fairmont, N. C. have been charged with grand larceny after a car was stripped at Avon Park Motor Company Tuesday night. Avon Park Police Officer Paul Ward saw one of the juveniles at the company's car lot Tuesday night with a set of spark plug wires in his back pocket, and this juvenile's statement led to the arrest of the other two youths, who had fled from the scene.

Ruse was also in possession of a stolen car, which he took from the Lumberton Motor Company in North Carolina. He is presently in Highland's County Jail. Several city and county law officers helped to apprehend the three youths.

According to Chief Gordon, of the Avon Park Police Department, the youths were said to have been stealing a radiator, starter, gear shift boot, drive shaft assembly, back up light switch, spark plug wires, and a set of radio knobs.

Only 10 minutes after the police began investigating the car stripping, Officer Duggan was called away to investigate an accident. Robert Gregory, Jr., collided into the rear end of a car driven by Jerry Wayne Massey on Main Street at the South Anoka intersection. Both cars were travelling the same direction when Gregory hit Massey's car. Gregory has been charged with failure to have his vehicle under control. Damage to the vehicle was $1000 according to the Chief Gordon.

No human is wise enough to know everything, or stupid enough to know nothing. Most of us fall somewhere in between.

Novel's Symbolism
Herman Melville's novel, "Moby Dick," symbolizes the conflict between two opposing spiritual forces. The whale stands for the spirit of evil and the captain represents the will of man that fights against his destiny.

English Pope
Only one Englishman has ever been Pope of the Roman Catholic Church. Bishop Nicholas Breakspear of England was elected Pope in 1154 and took the name of Hadrian IV.

JOHN PAUL GUST, right, attempts to break five two-inch slabs of concrete in a karate demonstration put on for the summer band students at the Avon Park High School. Although John did not break the five slabs, he did break four, John, and his brother Scott, left, have both earned the first degree black belt. Gary, who also took part in the demonstration, has earned the blue belt.

THREE BROTHERS, Gary, John Paul, and Scott, kneel in front of the summer band students at the Avon Park

High School. The three youths demonstrated karate techniques at a special exhibition last week.

The Gust Brothers Demonstrate Karate Techniques To Summer Band Students

The Gust brothers, John Paul, Scott, and Gary, demonstrated karate techniques last week for the summer band students at the Avon Park High School. John Paul and Scott have earned their first degree black belts and

Gary has a blue belt. The two older karate experts, John Paul and Scott, began their training seven years ago, while Gary has been learning karate for only the past three years. The youths were trained by Daniel K. Pai, an eighth degree grand master and an All-American karate man, when they lived in Richmond, Va., before moving to Avon Park two years ago.

They demonstrated various aspects of karate. Scott slowly went through one series of movements, called a kata, which karate students memorize, showing the different hand and foot movements which are executed during a bout. He pointed out that speed was a vital factor in the effectiveness of this type of self-defense, and after his slow trip, he then completed the routine which included 14 foot movements and 31 hand movements in 10 seconds. Band Director Victor McKunas timed Scott with a stopwatch.

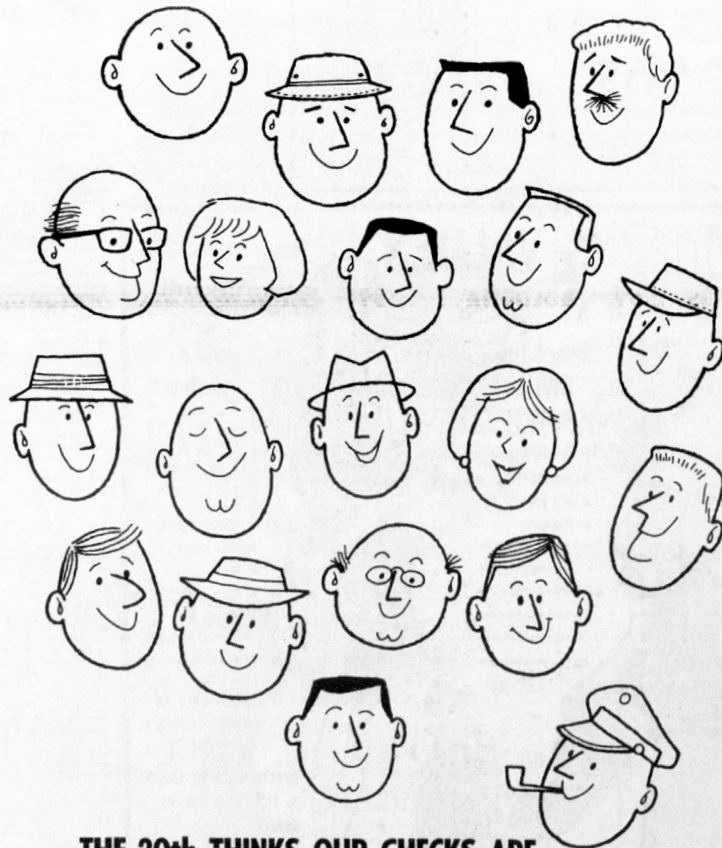

They also explained why those who practice karate yell "ki-yi" before they strike. Respiration is important in karate, and by yelling they can exhale more air and gain better muscle control.

There are several ranks in karate, and promotions are granted by professional associations on the basis of individual knowledge and ability. The beginner is given a white belt, which is followed by the blue belt. Then the advanced karate can earn a brown belt. The highest level is the black belt, which is further divided into degrees. A first degree black belt is called a shodan, and he is at the bottom of the black belt ladder. The intermediary degrees, from four through seven, designate those who have earned the degree of master, and eighth through 10th degree men are called grand masters. Daniel K. Pai, had attained the eighth degree. Only one grand master is given the status of 10th degree at a time, and the one who earns that title keeps it as long as he lives.

The three young men are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. Gust. John and Scott have both competed in national karate tournaments. John Paul will enter South Florida Junior College as a freshman this fall. Scott will be a junior at Avon Park High School and Gary will be an eighth-grader. Scott said that he would be willing to train others in proper karate technique. In talking about using karate in a fight, Scott gave this word of wisdom, "the best thing to do is to try to avoid a fight."

The trunk of the elephant (alone) contains more muscles than the entire body of any other known creature.

Home Juice Golf Invitational Set For Sept. 26-27

The Avon Park Golf Course will sponsor its third annual Home Juice Invitational tournament on September 26 and 27, according to Alex Ogilvie, the course's pro. The champion golfer will receive a replica of the large trophy which is kept at the course, and winners will receive trophies, certificates for merchandise, and prizes. A trip for two to Nassau will also be given away after the final round on Sunday.

The tournament will be composed of 10 flights of 16 players. Golfers will be divided into flights according to their handicaps. After 18 holes of play, the flights will be further divided into A and B sections, according to scores on the first 18 holes. Invitations will be sent to last year's contestants first, and then to other golfers.

Bob and Mariana King won the Mixed Scotch Foursome on Tuesday, July 14, at the Avon Park Golf Course. Their score for the front nine holes was a net 36. Second place went to Larry and Mildred Ford with a net 37. Frank and Libby Hall took third place with a net 38. In Wednesday's Pro-Am tournament, Ricky Dressel, Andy Miracle, Dick Thayer and George Hurst took first place with a net best ball score of 61.

In Saturday's action, Neil Redd won the Ladies' Low Net tournament with a score of net 70. In the Blind Partners play, Bob and Mariana King placed first with a score of net 62. Pete Peterson and Jim Turnbull took second with a net 65.

Commissioners Nix Zoning Referendum

Highlands County commissioners heard—then filed away—a demand that they submit proposals zoning and building regulations to a referendum. A formal request for a referendum was read to the county board Tuesday just prior to the opening of a public hearing on proposed building, plumbing and electrical codes.

Melvin Ott, of Avon Park, read a statement proposing the referendum. On the basis of the audience that the board vote on the proposal, the commissioners unanimously approved a motion by Commissioner Jean Whitaker to file the referendum request.

The board took no action on the proposed building, plumbing and electrical codes Tuesday. During a spirited 70-minute hearing no one raised objections to the content of the codes but concentrated their fire on lack of public information and possibility of uneven enforcement.

Del Preston Jones observed: "I feel if general contractors and special contractors were opposed to these codes would be up here today protesting, and by their absence they're acquiescing."

Building business professionals in the audience were asked for their opinions and each agreed the content of the codes "is good" but each stressed the need for competent, fair enforcement.

Rancher Ira Ellis argued the whole idea of zoning and building codes is good for the cities "but I can't see zoning the whole county for Sebring."

Rancher Payne gave a qualified endorsement to the idea of zoning but asked for an explanation of the board's no referendum attitude.

Cecil Skipper said his "personal, and only my personal response" would be, "I'm elected by the people and I feel I'm qualified to make decisions. When the people feel I can't do that, they can go to the polls and vote me out."

Amount of Mail Leaving City Increases In '70

Postmaster Robert Young announced today that gross postal receipts for fiscal year 1970 at the Avon Park Post Office were $139,371, an increase of $7,733.65 over 1969 fiscal year receipts. During fiscal year the Avon Park Post Office processed 2,671,253 pieces of originating out-going mail, an increase of 90,344 pieces during fiscal year 1970.

Sgt. Smithson Receives Bronze Medal For Vietnam Service

Sergeant First Class James E. Smithson, operations sergeant in the Department of Bio Sensor Research at Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious achievement in ground operations against hostile forces in the Republic of Vietnam.

He is married to the former Mary P. Poole whose mother, Mrs. Alfred Poole, lives at 105 N. Anoka, Avon Park. Sergeant and Mrs. Smithson are the parents of four children. The family resides locally at Otrs. 6518-B Hawthorne Dr., Edgewood, Md.

Presented by the Arsenal Commander, Colonel Paul R. Cerar, the citation accompanying the medal, read, in part: "Through the exercise of his professional competence and devotion to duty, he invariably performed his duties in a resolute and efficient manner. Energetically applying his sound judgment, he contributed materially to the successful accomplishment of the United States mission in the Republic of Vietnam."

The citation further stated, "His initiative, zeal, sound judgment, and devotion to duty have been in the highest traditions of the military service and reflect great credit upon himself, his unit, and the United States Army."

A veteran of over 18 years service in the Army, Sergeant Smithson is a native of New Brunswick N. J. He is a graduate of Sarasota High School, Class of '52, Sarasota, and entered the Army in February, 1954.

In addition to tours of duty in Vietnam and Edgewood Arsenal, he has served overseas in Korea, Germany, Hawaii, and Panama.

Sergeant Smithson's decorations and awards, in addition to the Bronze Star Medal, include the National Defense Service Medal, United Nations Medal, Korean Service Medal, Vietnam Campaign Medal, Vietnam Service Medal, and Good Conduct Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters.

The sergeant's mother, Mrs. Florence Medley, lives at 6750 17th Way North, St. Petersburg. His father resides at 330 Shackle Island Rd., Hendersonville, Tenn.

SFJC Gets State Funds Totalling $27,678 In July

Educational funds released to Florida's 27 state-supported junior colleges totalled $5.8 million in July, state Comptroller Fred O. (Bud) Dickinson Jr. reported.

South Florida Junior College received $27,678. In the same period in 1969 the allocation was $23,354.

City Council Moves Voting Date To September 22; Martin Qualifies

In a quick move to comply with state laws regarding changes in city elections, the Avon Park City Council changed the election date from December 1 to Tuesday, Sept. 22, at their special meeting Thursday, July 16. The council will approve the city's revised 1970-71 fiscal year budget at their next regular meeting Monday, July 27, at 7:30 P.M.

Incumbent City Councilman Durrah Martin, presently serving his third term on the city's governing body, has qualified for a fourth two-year term on the council.

The council is the only one who has qualified for one of the three vacant seats to be filled in the September 22 election.

Council President Jack Duggan stated today, "As of right now I'm not running in the next election."

Two-term councilman Russell Scott, told the Sun, "I have decided not to run again." Scott was elected to the council in 1969.

Martin further commented on his stand on issues in the past. He said, "I'm running on my past record. If anyone wants to know how I have voted, they can check with city hall."

Martin stood firmly in support of the city's proposed 1970-71 fiscal year budget plan. He claimed, "I've always been in favor of it. We need it and we should have it."

The councilman further stated, "I think it will pass if the people understand it." He also mentioned that he thought that the measure should be brought to a referendum before it is put into effect.

The city usually conducts its elections on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in September. However, the state chose to use that date for its primary elections this year, so the date for the city elections was changed. Both city and state elections can not be held the same day because the election machines will not accommodate the number of names the combined ballot would include.

Rankins Found Guilty of Child Deprivation

John Rankins, 46, was sentenced to a $50 fine for depriving his three-year-old ward Connie Gainer the necessary medical care she needed in January of this year. The young girl died from internal hemorrhaging.

Rankins was arrested and charged with depriving the child medical treatment in a court appearance about two weeks ago. Rankins lives at 306 Third Street in Avon Park.

according to City Clerk Malcolm Crews.

The city law requires that the city's books be open not more than 90 days prior to the election and closed 31 days before the election. This gives voters time to register and candidates time to qualify.

The usual two-month period for registering and qualifying has been shortened to about one month, and the books will close Friday, Aug. 21.

City Zoning
The city council met with members of the zoning board at the same meeting to discuss the relationship of existing mobile home parks to zoning regulations.

Building Inspector W. E. Spurlink stated that there are some parks within the city limits, nine of which are said to be small. These parks are scattered throughout the city.

The city ordinance passed on May 11, 1970, with regard to mobile home parks states that the park must have at least 15 spaces. Smaller parks therefore make use of their land in a way which does not conform to the present zoning code.

The present opinion of the council is to allow the smaller parks to operate since they have been licensed to operate in the past. However, any future additions to mobile home parks which would constitute a non-conforming use of the land will have to be approved before these additions will be allowed.

The procedure which the council plans to adopt would require those who presently do not comply with the city zoning code to present their plans for expansion to the zoning board. Those who desire to establish new mobile home parks would follow the same procedure. The zoning board would study each request and present its recommendation to the city council.

If the land which was proposed for a non-conforming use of the land will have to be approved before these additions will be allowed.

Building Inspector W. E. Spurlink stated that there are some parks within the city limits, nine of which are said to be small. These parks are scattered throughout the city.

The city ordinance passed on May 11, 1970, with regard to mobile home parks states that the park must have at least 15 spaces. Smaller parks therefore make use of their land in a way which does not conform to the present zoning code.

The present opinion of the council is to allow the smaller parks to operate since they have been licensed to operate in the past. However, any future additions to mobile home parks which would constitute a non-conforming use of the land will have to be approved before these additions will be allowed.

The procedure which the council plans to adopt would require those who presently do not comply with the city zoning code to present their plans for expansion to the zoning board. Those who desire to establish new mobile home parks would follow the same procedure. The zoning board would study each request and present its recommendation to the city council.

If the land which was proposed for a non-conforming use of the land will have to be approved before these additions will be allowed.
