Commissions Hold Final Hearing On Zoning Regulations

Highlands County commissioners and members of the county planning and zoning commission held a final hearing on the new zoning regulation Tuesday.

Chairman Earl Crutchfield of the county commission thanked the 30 people attending for their points of view and said the commission would give the matter further study and will take a position on some of the items. He did not indicate when this would be.

Carroll Payne raised the point of adoption of electrical, plumbing and building codes. County Attorney Hue Nunnally pointed out that Florida statute requires the commission to conduct public hearings before adoption of such codes. He said he did not indicate when this would be.

Cal Guy Campbell, representing the Highlands County Property Owners Association, re-affirmed their previous support of the resolution as an orderly way to direct growth in the county.

Stanley Davis, president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association, pointed out that the man who builds a $40,000 home should have equal consideration and protection with the mobile home owner.

The three-hour session was conducted in the county commissioners' room, 414 to appear in the final hearing beginning in the resolution was Delbert Jones of DeSoto City.

He said that some provision should be made for living on the water, such as in a houseboat, in the county. Some relief should also be given to those whose livelihood depends on their business in their home, he said.

On Non-Conforming Use. On the non-conforming use of land, "I got sick I could not continue my business. I was out of business over 60 days."

That's an act of God," said Nunnally. "If you get sick I think you would be okay." Then he added as an afterthought and some laughter followed, "I could expand that a little and call it an act of the devil."

Jones then brought up the problem of the mobile home trailers in their side yards and rent, then depending on the income to support themselves. Would they love to rent to them if one were vacant 60 days?

He was told there can be changes in the rental — just so there is no change in use.

Who Will Pay? And then, who is going to pay somebody for running around finding all the non-conforming property and there will be a charge for these.

He was told that permits will be issued on non-conforming property and there will be a charge for these.

Jack Short county zoning director, said, "I know where quite a lot of non-conforming property is." He added that his department "just wants to know where they are and the law will only be for new installations not existing non-conforming structures. Mary Ellen Ward, chairman of the planning and zoning commission, said conforming units already are registered and have health department approval and are in parks or subdivisions.

Terms Vary The terms of her commission are four, three, two and one year, she said, upon questioning, they serve without pay. They serve only in their own capacity, to the county commission she said.

As Jones concluded, Ellen Johnson took the floor to declare, "I would like to see the whole thing passed and get along with the resolution."

Hetty Dembits asked in conversation with 30 acres he owns on Fairmont Drive and was told that the zoning map "goes along with the resolution."

Dembits pointed out the machinery to change the zoning order. It is passed each by a landowner a sale if the prospective owner wants to use the property for other than what it is zoned.

Is This the Way We Will Go?

Is there such a thing as too much freedom — freedom to depart from established patterns of life, freedom to experiment with drugs, freedom to discard the accepted moral code?

Noted New Jersey sociologist Manheim Shapiro, addressing the Women's Committee of Service in Miami recently, said: "The family as we have known it for the past generations is finished. He believes that the pattern of the hippie communes will be widely adopted."

"Our society will become more Oriented in its first outlook on drugs," he predicted, saying that within the next 50 years the use of drugs will be generally accepted, with an increase in smoking of marijuana, hashish, and opium.

There will be fewer legal restrictions on abortions, and a continued increase in homosexuality, he predicted.

Time to Call a Halt?

Is he right in these predictions?

Certainly he has analyzed the trends correctly — but must we let them continue to the present point? Or is it time to change direction?

Dr. K. Ross Todd, professor of history at the University of Montana, says, "I am terribly disturbed."

There is a freedom which is permissive, our approach to discipline an apology and a retreat from standards. It's time to call a halt.

The psychologists, the educators and the preachers who are rebelling against our ancient customs and morals — our narrowness as parents — Balderdash!

The permissiveness that pervades our society is a kind of freedom which destroys freedom.

Freedom to vote, to smash, to break, to violate every law of God and man is a freedom that cannot continue. It must be stopped.

There is a freedom which preserves freedom.

Long ago, there was a Teacher Who said, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

What kind of truth did He mean? What kind of freedom?

He was referring to the kind of truth and the kind of freedom which are based on a common which a truly free and noble of consumer credit controls for a thousand, or possibly six months, period, provided price inflation gets so much worse that something has to be done. Jawbone tactics of the sort employed by Johnson might even be resumed in a voluntary effort to reduce retail prices and pay rates.

No matter what may be tried or even if things are left to find their own level, the balance in the cost of labor is bound to continue for some time. Hence, investors with an eye for balanced investment portfolios should have a substantial quota of securities in fields heavily burdened with labor expenditures. Lines with a history of stable labor relations are also worth considering.

Some Stock Recommendations Favored in this way are banking, chemicals, insurance, drugs, petroleum, utilities, real estate, and foods. The Research Department of Babson's Reports recommends for representation in these fields: Nalco Chemical, Culligan, Inc., Castle & Cooke, Beneficial Corp., Standard Security Life Insurance, Rorer, Amchem, Cities Service, Florida Power, Tenneco Inc., and McCulloch Oil Corp.

But demands were spelled out well in advance by him, and his success. Leonard Woodstock will hold out for heavy pay hikes and contry fringes. Two further demands could also be met: weighty to labor costs: Pension of at least $500 a month after thirty years of service and elimination of the ceiling on living-cost hikes.

Wage-Price Curbs A new campaign for wage-price controls is being heard from some quarters, reflecting the hope that inflation might be slowed or even stopped by the legal application of a compulsory freeze. President Nixon, however, has consistently rejected rigid restraints of this type.

More likely is the imposition

Michigan's Upper peninsula is twice the size of Massachusetts.

Fads then, too! Some 400 years ago, English dandies started wearing broad-topped shoes, and finally, some reached 15 inches per shoe in width. Parliament passed a law limiting the width of each shoe to 8 inches.

Michigan's Upper peninsula is twice the size of Massachusetts.

A culture which is built on the Bible will not collapse.

What Kind of Freedom? If Shapiro's predictions turn out to be true, whose fault will it be?

If we continue on our present course will history record that our civilization went down because we failed to look up?

As Americans, we are proud of our freedom. We are proud of our freedom to choose the course which leads to disaster.

People in other times have exercised their freedom in this way.

The people of Sodom were free to sin — and free to burn. The people of Noah's time were free to do all manner of evil — and free to drown.

Do we really want to be free from all restraint — and free to perish? Or is it "time to call a halt?"

Jesus said, "If the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed." This is the imperative freedom.

What kind of freedom do you want?

New Method Of Issuing Licenses

Tallahassee — After 30 years of issuing driver licenses through the 67 counties, Florida switches July 1, 1970, to a new central issue system.

Licenses renewed as they expire after that date will be mailed directly to the driver from the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles in Tallahassee.

Advantages of the new issuance procedure are greater convenience to the driver, who may renew without ever leaving his home, and greater efficiency, and a greater safeguard against issuance of fraudulent licenses.

For the driver, the changes involve only the method of renewing his license. He still will renew in his home, but expiration of his present license, the new license still will be good.

There is a small fee which will remain the same.

Jazabs Are Leaving For South Africa

After two years of service to the State of Florida, at the Avon Park Correctional Institution, Dr. A. Jazab and his family are leaving Florida and the United States, for service in other parts of the world. His family consists of his wife, Nesha, herself a graduate Doctor of Pharmacology, and two daughters, Elham, age eleven and Aram, ten.

The Jazabs are natives of Persia, (now Iran) but can more truly be classified as "world citizens" not only because of their travels but of their fundamental conviction that, "The earth is but one country and mankind its citizens." Their names, sound strange and difficult to remember, but their spirit of loving service is not so easily forgotten.

Dr. Jazab while here, has been resident physician for the six to seven hundred men at the Correctional Institution, The Institution has a forty-bed hospital and a paid staff. In addition inmates, often well qualified in background and assigned to hospital according to their needs at any given time.

Workers in Florida's prison camps are not exempt from Florida, when they become sick are also sent to this hospital for treatment, records show.

Dr. Jazab, not state employed, beside being a housewife and having her rendered part-time service in the laboratory of the Walker Memorial Hospital.

The girls have been attending the Avon Park Elementary School, and have been active in Girl Scouts and other community organizations.

VA Benefit Claims Can Be Reopened

Potential beneficiaries for VA Benefits—During the mid-1940's, some parents claim for death compensation were apparently disallowed, due to their excessive income at that time. These individuals accepted the VA decision as final. Many of these parents are unaware of their rights to reopen their claim now they are retired, and have their income substantially reduced.

M. T. Dixon of the Division of Veterans Affairs said, in such cases, the liberalization of income limits for dependents in dependency compensation benefits may open the door for these elderly people to qualify for payments.

Dixon says, Veterans County Service Officers are conveniently located throughout the state, so these parents may obtain assistance in filing for their benefits. Write him at P.O. Box 1437, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Louise Clarke Leads Grange Meet

Avon Park Grange met Tuesday evening, June 9 with Master Louise Clarke in the chair. The next meeting date was postponed until June 30. The program covered Memorial Day, Flag Day, and Father's Day. Commendation by former Sec. of Agriculture, Orville L. Freeman—"The Grange's traditional objectives—character building, encouragement of education, promotion of sound legislation, and the ready acceptance of individual and community responsibility—are known and appreciated by all who are working for the betterment of agriculture and the social, cultural and economic development of rural America. America's agriculture importance in achieving international peace and cooperation cannot be minimized, for, to achieve these goals, the levels of nutrition and the standards of living must be elevated by all the people of the world."

Florida Wildlife number—Snakes Can Kill—except "Although coral snake venom is the most deadly in this country, the snake is seldom a menace except to barefoot children and unguided gardeners. Use caution around logs and bushy places. Look carefully before sitting on the ground. Learn the rules for giving first aid for snake bites."

Game—What Are Matches Made Of?

The memorial program honored the memory of Sherman K. Ives, first Master of Florida State Grange, other members who passed away since last Memorial Day, and the servicemen and women who paid the supreme sacrifice during the past year. One of these was Staff Sgt. Roy W. Cobb of Avon Park who was killed in action February 11, 1970.

Thoughts for the day—The greatest use of life is to spend it for something that outlasts it.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Grace Warner.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

We were entertained and educated last Wednesday by John Perry III, Juvenile Counselor of Highlands County Rehabilitation Center. The aim of his office, handled almost exclusively by him, even though a large well qualified committee could not fully cover all phases of the work.

Their interest is in juveniles under 18 years and their problems are many. They could use relief parents every other week in the Rehabilitation Home. Frequently the caretakers are compelled to work day after day without sufficient rest.

They also make an appeal for clothing for 16 years old boys. They have identified clothes for three year olds. He wanted specifically against leaving clothes uncollected since 27% of adults thefts have been conducted by boys under 18.

His talk provided many questions as evidenced by the number of questions fired at him.

FREDERICK EARL WRAY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Ellis Wray, Montgomery, Ala., and grandson of Mrs. Cora L. Wray, Avon Park, received a Master of Science degree from Auburn University June 9. He has accepted full time employment in the Department of Institutional Research at Auburn University, where he has been employed during his graduate work.

The program opened with the Joint Worship Service in which the entire school participated as it did each day. Following this, a few minutes were given for Teacher Recognition. Certificates were presented to each teacher by principal, Mrs. Melvin Kangster.

Pupils in each department:

Beginner, Primary, Junior and Intermediate had a part in the program telling some thing about what they had studied in Vacation Bible School. A reception followed in the church social hall and all parents and friends were asked to visit the various departments and view the handwork done by the pupils. Refreshments were served.

How Important Is Your Body?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

True spiritual worship of God is to present your body to Him.

Sophisticated, modern men that we are, we conceive of our complete selves as being ruled by our rational minds and conclude that our choices are not equivalent to giving ourselves.

Both of these assumptions are false.

First, it is wrong that most of our lives are directed by our intelligence. In fact, only a severely mentally warped society could possibly look at the ways we spend our time and resources and conclude that our choices have been made on rational grounds.

Thinking or Reasoning?

Do people read "Playboy" and watch "I Am Curious 'Yellow'" to settle their earnest questions about where life came from?

Do we pay for comfortable homes and cars, color TV sets and swimming pools and country club memberships to provide opportunities to meditate on the meaning of our existence?

Do we attend mass, church, or the university, or invest in real estate and life insurance because of some insight into the future?

Or — for those of us who do not do or have these things — are we without them because we understand them to be rationally inadequate, or is it not because we are too poor or have found other pleasures?

No, we use our minds to rationalize, to justify the choices our bodies have made to satisfy their appetites. Few of us think. And those few think all most exclusively about plans directly or indirectly to indulge themselves.

The people who think most of all, I suspect, are those who concentrate their minds on schemes to satiate abnormal and irrational psychological hungers, such as for fame or power.

These people are not controlled by their rational minds, either.

Physical desires come first; psychological drives perhaps second; rational commitments definitely last.

Real Commitment

You value most what you commit your body to.

So the Bible says "Present your bodies to God" (Romans 12:1). Very explicitly it teaches that spiritual worship and spiritual service is to "present your bodies."

Spiritual worship is not performed by spiritual meditation alone, nor by mental assent to doctrine. Worship is best seen by the presentation to God of your body.

Indeed, there is no commitment of the body: that is the second fallacy.

Our neighborhoods are full of people who give mental assent to certain political and spiritual doctrines but allow themselves to be led otherwise because they have no real commitment.

Mental and spiritual change fill only physical commitment (Romans 12:2), but the body must first be given.

Who opposes our spiritual maturity? As Pope says: "We have met the enemy, and they are us."

Avon Park Flying Notes

Highlight of the last week at the airport was the four bombing contest Sunday afternoon. The object was to hit a target painted on the ground with a two pound bag of flour from an altitude of 800 ft. This was no easy task, the target looked like a postage stamp from this height.

Company Increases Assets $9 Million

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company increased its invested assets in Florida by nearly $9 million last year, reports Harold "Bud" Worden, the firm's local agent.

The nation's fourth oldest life insurance company—celebrating its 125th anniversary this year—has a total of $135,997,000 invested in businesses, farms and commercial and residential property throughout Florida, Worden continued.

"This is a $41,210,000 increase within the last five years," said Worden, adding that Florida ranks as the fifth state in the nation in total Mutual Benefit investments.

He said the company paid $7,499,000 in benefit payments to Florida. "Approximately 60 percent went to living policyholders, with payments consisting of dividends, matured endowments, cash surrender values, annuity benefits, disability and accident and health payments."

Worden noted there was $26.6 million in new insurance on residents of Florida last year bringing the total insurance in force in the state to $270,781,000. Nationally the company's total sales were $1.4 billion, the fifth consecutive year sales exceeded a billion dollars.

The company's assets climbed $74 million last year to a record $2.5 billion.

Clinic For Children Set For Saturday

A diagnostic and evaluation clinic for children with learning problems will be held at Highlands County Health Department on Saturday, June 20.

Five children — the youngest 4 and the oldest 13 — are to be tested in the program scheduled for 9:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. The clinic is being sponsored by Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children and the Division of Mental Retardation with the cooperation of the county health department.

Members of the health department nursing staff will assist with the clinic. Other staff members will include Dr. Ray C. Wunderlich, pediatrician, and Mrs. Maile Cawthorne, physical therapist, both of St. Petersburg. Dr. Wunderlich is author of a new book, "Kids' Brains and Learning."

Dr. Fred Fields of Sebring is to administer vision tests. Mrs. Colleen Chambliss of Sebring, speech and hearing evaluation; Miss Lillian Depp of Sebring and Mrs. Elizabeth Nellis of Avon Park, psychometric examinations.

The state Division of Mental Retardation provides grants for diagnostic and evaluation clinics to pinpoint learning difficulties. Recent studies have shown that early and proper therapy may enable a child to overcome learning handicaps.

A proverb is a short statement, usually gleaned from long experience.

Junior College Class Sees Tomato Picker In Action

In the future if the tomatoes you purchase in the store do not have that distinctive vine ripened flavor it's because this tomato picking machine was designed to pick the tomatoes when they are firm, but not fully mature, to avoid bruising of the fruit. Built in California this picker was modified for Florida tomato field conditions, and put through field trials at the South Florida Field Laboratory at Immokalee. Modifications included padding and a water spray to wash sand off the tomatoes. In the once over operation the tomato vines are sheared off the roots by a V-shaped knife under the pick up reel. The vines and fruit are elevated to a shaker platform behind the operator's seat, where the tomatoes are gently snapped off the vines. The vines are discarded in the field while the tomatoes are conveyed to a truck running along side.

til rain softened the ground and the machine sank in the soil. Five special breeding stocks for a jointless petiole tomato are being grown to find a variety that has the necessary market qualities along with the jointless petiole. This one shot harvesting operation means that a tomato vine must have as many blossoms set fruit as possible in a short time. Some of the crown fruit may be fully ripened but the bulk of the tomato crop should be of a marketable grade and quality.

Dr. Paul Everett at the South Florida Field Laboratory stated that the machine was doing excellent work un-

Owners Must Register Boats Before July 1

Boat owners are being notified this week by Tax Collector W. H. Prescott that their boats must be registered before July 1. The owners may mail in their old registration certificate, with a check for the correct amount, and the new certificate will be returned by mail. All boats using more than a 10 horse power motor must be registered. The law now requires that boats be titled before a new registration is issued. County Sports Enter Hit, Pitch Throw Contest

All Highlands County representatives bettered their scores but failed to place in the South Florida District of the Pitch, Hit and Throw Contest.

Boys 9, 10, 11 and 12 years old completed at Fort Lauderdale Saturday. The Highlands County contest winners who entered were Ricky Ragland, 12, of Sebring, Tommy Lewis, 11, Avon Park, Steve Shumard, 10, of Wauchula, Adrian Toney, 9, of Sebring.

Ten-year-old Steve boosted his 33 points Saturday over his county-winning total. Ricky, Tommy and Adrian also showed gains over their county scores.

Winners — from Bradenton, Fort Myers, Hialeah and Fort Lauderdale — now go to the regional contest at Atlanta.

The Highlands County entries were accompanied to Fort Lauderdale by their families and Clarence Polston of the E. O. Koch Oil Co. staff.

Pitch, Hit and Throw is sponsored by Phillips Oil and the major leagues of professional baseball. Polston said today Koch plans to cooperate with the national contest again in 1971 and next Spring will be staging another Highlands County contest.

For most of us, the worst thing about our past is its length.

COLVIN STONE and Cheryl Godwin received plaques for excellent leadership from Wilford Beumel, past president of the Avon Park Kiwanis Club, at the Outstanding young man and woman seniors for the last semester at Avon Park High School. Colvin, who was president of the Key Club this year, was given a scholarship by the ROTC of Georgia Tech. He was also a representative to Boys State in Tallahassee, and an active member of the Student Council and the Methodist Church. He is the son of Boswell Stone. Cheryl, who was vice president of the Keyette Club, was noted for tutoring other students while in school. She was selected as a Homecoming sponsor and was a member of the Future Teachers' Club. She attends First Baptist Church, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Godwin.
