Reggie Weber Honored With Sewing Party

A unique "sewing party" honoring a bride-elect, Miss Reggie Weber, was held at the home of Mrs. Walter Betts on Tuesday evening. As the guests arrived they were presented with white dish towels which they were asked to first write their name on and then embroider their signature. After a pleasant evening of visiting and sewing and delightful refreshments, the finished towels were then presented to Reggie as a remembrance of each person present.

The hostesses for this unusual party were Mrs. Hue Nunnallee and Mrs. Andrew Miracle. Reggie was also presented with a kitchen clock as a gift from the hostesses.

The marriage of Miss Weber to Wendell Conley, II, will be an event of October 29, 7:30 P.M. at the Old Union Congregational Church.

Candy Strippers Awarded For Service at Walker Memorial

Isn't it great that in spite of all the negative things that are being said about our youth today there's still many of them that are doing something worthwhile with their lives.

We don't have to go to New York or California to see the good that is being done. For example, our last should be the good that is being done by the Candy Strippers, who presented the hostesses with an elegant iron, and helping with the hostesses were Mrs. Arline King, William Stewart, Mrs. Charles Ginn, Mrs. Cecil Skipper, Mrs. James Stevens and Mrs. J. C. Murphy.

These young ladies go after school for training to become Candy Strippers, and after they complete the required number of hours they receive their cap and pin. Such an occasion took place on October 12 at Walker Memorial Hospital, when Miss Nelda Strenth, 308 N. Anoka Ave., Avon Park, was pinned by George Walper, Administrator of the hospital. Nelda is a student at Avon Park High School, and like all the other Candy Strippers has completed her work in the afternoons after school.

It was a happy occasion as all the Candy Strippers gave a hearty applause when Nelda received her pin and cap. Not every girl is lucky enough to have her very own brother be the newspaper photographer covering the story with his camera. If the picture isn't good, Bruce Strenth, of the Avon Park Sun, had better watch it when he gets home. Nelda will have a few words to say about the pinning ceremony. The Candy Strippers had their regular business meeting in the dining room of the hospital after which refreshments were served by Mrs. Gene Hudson, Food Service Director.

In evaluating a hospital program one would have to think of operating a hospital without the valuable services of the Pink Ladies and Candy Strippers. Every hospital program is greatly enriched by their very dedicated service of long hours and efficiency. Walker Memorial feels very fortunate to have Mrs. Pauline Tondae as Director of the Pink Ladies and Candy Strippers. The smooth running program indicated the excellent job she is doing. She is very proud of her girls and so is the hospital.

A new group of young ladies appearing on the horizon of volunteer service, is a dozen young ladies from The Highlands School for Girls. Present, which you will hear about in the near future.

Just a suggestion — when we hear so much criticism and are prone to think the world is all bad, let's look for the good that is being done in the world and give a word of praise where it is due.

The group stayed at the Edson Court where they enjoyed swimming in the pool and, during their free time, they were shopping and toured the home of Thomas Edison. On their way home Sunday afternoon, they had a picnic in the park at LaBelle, Florida.

Those attending were: Miss Cheryl Guerni, Mrs. Gerald Wicker, Jr., Mrs. Ophelia Riber, Mrs. Mary Ann Almon, Mrs. Art Turner, Mrs. Milton Bass, Mrs. Ray Wells, Moore Henshaw, Mrs. Debbie Rober, Miller, Iva Elyea, Karen Elyea, Amy Williams, Cindy Williams, Jill Reeves, Nelda Watson, Lynn Camp, Debbie Rober, Lorna Elyea, Karen Reeves, Judy Almond, Kathy Bass, Carol Wicker, Nelda Strenth, Cindy Williams, Betty Turner, Marcia Collins, Barbara Ewell.

in pink knit dresses, that they made. The mother, Mrs. DuBose, wore a white Orchid Cape. Laura DuBose, a daughter, kept the guest book at the entrance, on a table covered with a white linen cloth and a silver tray with fern and a purple orchid.

The serving table, covered with a white lace trimmed with a white lace cloth, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. Pink candles in silver holders were on either side of the cake, and silver compotes held nuts and pastel mints. At one end of the table, the pink punch was served from a crystal punch bowl, encircled

Lutheran Women To Beautify Church

The Lutheran Church Women of Resurrection Lutheran met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eva Marsh at 328 E. Pine St., with Lucile Hurst, president, presiding.

Beside regular business a project was started to purchase new paramounts to beautify the church edifice. October 28 is the day for sewing, to be in the church parlors at 1:30 in the afternoon. Everyone is invited.

Pastor Gregg asked the blessing on a delicious lunch served by the hostess, Mrs. Eva Marsh, assisted by Mrs. Mary Patten.

The next regular meeting will be November 11, at the home of Mrs. Ellen Blooming. God has given him a great passion for souls and he feels that in this field of labor he can fulfill his calling best.

The music will be furnished by Rev. Paul J. Tinsley and on Friday through Sunday, The Melody III from Winter Haven. The Melody III will thrill you with their harmony and the old and new gospel songs that they sing. You are cordially invited to attend the services, they are open to anyone of any faith, and you will not be embarrassed. You will miss a chance to see and hear some great news, if you do not attend.

United Thank Offering To Be Held Nov. 1

The Episcopal Church Women met for their regular meeting on Wednesday, Oct. 13, in the parish house of the Church of the Redeemer, after the mid-week communion.

In the absence of Mrs. James A. Johnson, Jr., Mrs. Walter Mandis presided. The treasurer and secretary's reports were read and approved. Mrs. Sherman Francisco reported on the success of the recent Rummage Sale.

The semi-annual Deaneys meeting will be held at Auburndale, today (Thursday), Oct. 22. Registration, 9 A.M., communion 10 A.M. For reservations for the luncheon and transportation, members are asked to contact Mrs. James A. Johnson, Jr., phone 453-3256.

The United Thank Offering ingathering will be on November 1, at both services. Members are asked to keep the date in mind.

A covered dish luncheon will be held on Sunday, Nov. 15, to launch the "Every Member Canvass." All families are asked to make an effort to attend. Father Knapp promises a good program after the meal. Father Knapp announced a Diocese Conference on Prayer, to be held at Camp Winemans on Friday and Saturday, Nov. 20, 21. Board and room will be $8. Without room, meals can be purchased separately. Our bishop is hoping for a big turnout. Starting with 3 P.M. supper, Friday, it will continue until 10 P.M. Saturday, 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. It is hoped many will attend. It promises to be a very interesting session.

Mrs. Walter Mandis, introduced George Cone, who shared with them and gave a most interesting talk on the Aldersgate Retirement Center, south of Kissimmee. He is well qualified to speak on the subject, as he and Mrs. Cone are working at the Center on a volunteer basis, supervising various phases of the construction of the new Home, which is a very important part of the Center. The Center is being financed by the sale of first mortgage bonds, at seven per cent interest, to the females which decreases the rent on apartments, mobile sites, etc. This plan of financing has proved the best, so far devised.

Mrs. Walter Mandis is planning for the Antique Flea Market, which will be held early in March, the date not yet set. She asked members to keep it in mind. Hostesses for the delicious refreshments were, Mrs. E. Hise, Miss L. Brandt and Mr. G. Cone.

The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 11, after mid-week communion, at the home of Mrs. E. G. Tinsley. Everyone plan to attend.

Thanks for joining me again this week, and if you are reading this October feature for the first time—well, heard, I am the "spirit" of the Junior Women's Club, an energetic group of young ladies who sponsor this city's annual Halloween festivities.

A few of the members gathered together and swapped recipes for their favorite holiday—yes, you might like it—Halloween! Listed below are a sampling of treats for trick-or-treaters you might like to stir up for the big event!

Also, remember that on Saturday, Oct. 24, at Donaldson Park, there will be many treats at the carnival to entice you!

It takes a little witchcraft in the form of special food to feed impatient little hobgoblins and their friends on Halloween. Although they enjoy a tasty meal, they also are eager to start making a little mischief.

Starting with 3 P.M. supper, Friday, it will continue until 10 P.M. Saturday, 9 A.M. to 4 P.M. It is hoped many will attend. It promises to be a very interesting session.

SFJC's Annual Powder Puff Football Game Set

The athletic highlight of the school year for the female members of South Florida Junior College is the annual "Powder Puff" football game to be played at Memorial Field, Avon Park, Saturday night, Oct. 24 at 7:30 P.M.

This fourth annual renewal of the struggle between the Freshman and Sophomore women is replete with the practice, play making strategy and spicing of their male counterparts.

The freshman coach, Peter Pollard, Sebring, and sophomore coach, Jim Nunnally, Avon Park, both predict their gorgeous players will be the winners in the Saturday night fight for the "Powder Puff" victory.

The game is open to the public and no admission will be charged.

Avon Park Lakes News

GL 2-8532

Cynthia T. Calvert

THE ROBERTS BROTHERS of Wauchula caught a good string of "Specs," drifting deep with Missouri minnows, while fishing out of Lake Bonnet Camp Ground.

FRANK WHEELER of Naples, caught this 6½ pound bass on a shiner, while spending a few days at Lake Bonnet Camp Ground.

A Plugged Nickel?

Although an ordinary "nickel" is worth only five cents, there are five "nickel" coins valued at $50,000 apiece. This came about because five unauthorized Liberty Head "nickels" were minted in 1913, the year the Buffalo design took over. The "nickel" is actually 25 per cent nickel and 75 per cent copper.

Numbers will be drawn for door prizes; first prize, courtesy of Ben Franklin, will be a salad set; second prize, courtesy of Rexall Drug, will be a glass case and a change purse; and third prize, courtesy of Western Auto, will be a football.

Tickets will also be sold before school and at lunch in the Avon Park High School halls.

FIX-IT TIP

You can take the edge off some of the noise around you in your home by trying a few simple remedies. Heavy drapes are a good start. Wall-to-wall carpeting over thick padding will deaden footsteps, cut out echoes. Rubber or felt weatherstripping around storm sash will deaden some noise.

ONCE AROUND TILLMAN'S TALLAHASSEE

Number 2 in the series

This is Silver Lake Plantation, a secluded, over 500 acre ranch, near Monticello in North Florida. The plantation is owned by Silver Lake Plantation, Inc., a Florida corporation composed of: Jimmie K. Tillman, President; Donald E. Heath, Vice President; and Warren S. Henderson, Secretary. The plantation was purchased in the Spring of 1969 and has since been used by the threesome during their stays in Tallahassee on legislative business, and for other reasons. The main house is a rather sizable structure, and is reported to accommodate quite a number of couples.

What appears above is not speculation. Silver Lake Plantation is a reality. The visible, undeniable link between Senator Henderson, State Rep. James K. Tillman, and former State Rep. Donald Heath.

The threesome lived at Silver Lake Plantation, at Silver Lake Plantation, and at Silver Lake Plantation. It can therefore be reasoned that they talked over their plans, the legislation to be acted upon and their general strategy for the entire legislative session at Silver Lake Plantation. It is also an undeniable fact that former State Rep. Heath introduced a bill to legalize "Casino Gambling" in the last session, while he was living, eating, sleeping and entertaining at Silver Lake Plantation, with Rep. James K. Tillman and Senator Warren S. Henderson.

What really transpired at Silver Lake Plantation will probably never be known. It is simply a situation where the known facts raise a whole series of questions that should be answered. Whether they will or not, only time will tell.

1. Did Senator Henderson and Rep. Tillman know in advance that Rep. Donald Heath was going to introduce a bill to legalize "Casino Gambling" in Florida?

2. If they claim they did not know, how was it possible for them to live with Rep. Heath all those weeks and months without knowing?

3. Was Rep. Heath known to lock himself in his room for long periods without explanation?

4. If they did know, why didn't they stop him or, at least, sound the alarm and let the public know the "Casino Gambling" bill was about to be tossed in the hopper?

5. Is it possible that all three planned the "Casino Gambling" bill together and, therefore "expediently," Henderson and Tillman "talked" him into introducing it. Was Don Heath the "patsy" for Tillman and Henderson?

LAST WEEK, Mrs. Martha Wester, took her kindergarten class to the Fire Department, during Fire and Safety Prevention Week, not knowing she would soon have need of our fire department. The Wester's son, Tommy, called the fire department around 5:21, on October 14, to their home, 10 East Winthrop Street, where the blaze had almost destroyed the utility building, and had spread to the adjoining garage. Albert Wester, owner, said a new washing machine and other things were stored in the building, with an estimated $1500 damage.
