JARVIS HARTT, Red Devil deep back, gets hit low by a Green Wave tackler after taking in a punt in the game against Father Lopez last Friday night.

Red Devils Will Meet Mulberry Friday Night

The Avon Park Red Devils will be back at home this week taking on a Ridge area opponent—the Mulberry Panthers—after traveling to Daytona Beach last Friday and taking a 28-15 defeat at the hands of the high-flying Green Wave team from the Father Lopez school there. Pre-season reports that the Father Lopez team was tough again this year were borne out when the Green Wave passed for 290 yards against the Red Devils to score four touchdowns and two 2-pointers for 28 points while holding the Devil offense to 15 hard-earned points.

The Father Lopez team had out-done DeLand in the jamboree this season for one quarter and DeLand upset a state ranked Class AA Gainesville team last Friday indicating that the Green Waves will be a tough contender for the Class B title again this year.

The Avon Park eleven came out of the fray with few injuries, however, and should be at near full strength for the Panthers tomorrow (Friday) night here at the season home opener for the Red Devils. The Mulberry team won its opening game last Friday by a score of 12-0 over East Bay of Tampa, scoring a TD in the third quarter and then punching over another in the final period to take the win.

Devil fullback Steve Hartt pulled a muscle near his waist in the battle last Friday and was out of action most of the game. Jarvis Hartt moved into the full-back slot to finish out the game. Steve is expected to be ready for this week's game. Several other minor injuries should be healed and the Red Devils are expected to bounce back against the Panthers.

Although the Devil offense moved for only 50 yards net gain on the ground from scrimmage, six different receivers pulled in passes from Don Sisemore and one from Clark Jackson for a gain of 134 yards in passing yardage. The Devil's screen pass was escpecially effective as the Lopez line rushed Sisemore strongly all evening.

Senior end Joe Franza led the pass receivers with four of six receptions for a total of 47 yards and one touchdown. Walter Nunnallee pulled in three of six passes tossed him for a total of 35 yards.

Another bright spot in the Devil game was kick-off and punt returns by Avon Park backs. Dennis Hart had two returns of 50 and 29 yards (the 50 yard return set up the first Devil score), Curtis Jackson toted one back 22 yards and Frank Davis had a 26 yard return.

The Red Devils won the toss of the coin to start the game and received the ball to start the season off. Curtis Jackson took the ball in at the 10 and returned it to the 32-yard line. The Devils tried to move on the ground and came within inches of a first down on the first three plays but had to punt out. Lopez couldn't move on the ground or in the air on its first series and punted back. Again Avon Park moved for over nine yards in three plays only to have to punt out again.

Then Lopez moved for a first down to their own 25 yard line but drew a 15 yard penalty and went half the distance to the goal to the 12. One running play moved the ball to the 16 and then the Green Wave quarterback, Jimmy Sullivan, a 5'11", 190 pound senior, dropped back and hit a receiver who had gotten behind the Devil defense and the boy tore loose from the Devil safety and scooted some 30 yards to pay dirt for an 84 yard pass play. Lopez tried a pass for the two pointer but Avon Park's defense broke it up so the home team led 6-0 mid-way in the first period.

On the ensuing kick-off, Devil

New Sheriff Plans No Changes In Personnel

Highlands County's new sheriff, O. L. Raulerson, Jr., said this week he plans no personnel changes in the office to which he was appointed by Governor Kirk last week.

He also said, upon questioning, that it will be a "little while yet" before he will appoint a chief deputy sheriff. Raulerson, until the death of Sheriff Joe D. Keene, had held the chief deputy post for a year.

The appointment of Raulerson to the $16,500 a year job of sheriff came as a surprise to some, since he is a Democrat.

However, the County Republican executive committee talked with him several times, the last time, Tuesday night of last week, and on last Wednesday morning called the governor's office and recommended him.

Col. W. J. Atkinson, county Republican executive committee chairman, was first to learn the news locally, when the Governor's office telephoned him about 3 P.M. The Governor, a Republican, made the official announcement at 5 P.M.

There had been much speculation that the new sheriff would be a Republican. Public sentiment appeared to be with Raulerson, however, who the late sheriff had said should succeed him "if something happens to me." Sheriff Keene, 42, died of a heart attack just a few days before he was to submit to major surgery in Miami.

The new sheriff, a tall, dark-haired man who lives with his wife and children next door to the Keenes on South Lakeview Drive, has had much responsibility in the last year, putting in about 1,400 hours overtime, according to the late sheriff.

Sheriff Raulerson, son of an Okeechobee grocery store owner, was born in that city, played football and graduated from Okeechobee High School. At 29 years of age, he probably is the youngest sheriff in the state.

He enlisted in the U. S. Air Force and in 1963 joined the Florida Highway Patrol. He was assigned to Ft. Lauderdale and was transferred in September, 1965 to Highlands County where he worked under Keene, then FHP sergeant in charge. When the sheriff took office January 1, 1969, Raulerson joined him as a deputy. The late sheriff's term has two years and three months yet to run.

Raulerson is married to the former Judy Rains, of Cocoa, and they have two children, Laurie, 3½ years and Todd, 19 months. He is a member of the Florida Peace Officers Association and the National Sheriffs Association.

Duggan, Martin And King Elected To City Council

Incumbent city councilmen J. R. "Jack" Duggan, Jr. and Durrah Martin were reelected along with former councilman Clarence F. King to the Avon Park City Council Tuesday.

Martin polled the most votes with 803 while Duggan had the next highest with 661 and King with 623.

Candidates defeated were former councilman Rodney Lane polled 552; Charles Howze 233, and J. A. Wise with 523.

Only 38 percent of the voters took time to go to the polls. There are 3125 eligible voters and only 1217 voted in Tuesday's election. There were 23 absentee ballots cast.

JACK DUGGAN

DURRAH MARTIN

CLARENCE KING

The biggest political issue of the campaign was a sewer program that would cover 96 percent of the city. The city would borrow approximately $2,100,000 to finance the program. King said that the interest on this program would run in the neighborhood of $4 million and he didn't think the Avon Park could afford it at this time.

Last week the Sun reported that the city owed a million dollars on a bond of indebtedness however the city owes only $835,000. The old 1928 bond issue was refunded in 1954 which brought the total to $1,376,350 and has since been reduced to the present figure.

In September the city council voted to pay $30,000 on the bonds which must be paid off by 1984. The city also has $195,000 invested in marketable securities to be paid on the debt in 1975.

Voting by precinct went as follows:

	Prct. 1	Prct. 2
Duggan	558	103
Howze	215	18
King	553	70
Lane	453	99
Martin	701	102
Wise	467	56

Droit Predicts 40 Percent Of Voters Will Cast Ballots

Voters will go to the polls next Tuesday in Florida's second primary of the 1970 Fall elections — and not much of a crowd is expected.

Elections Supervisor Roland Droit figures maybe 40 per cent of the electorate might go to the polls — "but I missed it by a long shot last time."

His prediction had been 65 percent and a disappointing 46.7 percent of the county's 13,555 registered voters pulled the levers.

With 46.7 per cent of Highlands County voters going to the polls in the first primary, this county made a somewhat better showing than the rest of the state, which had around 40 per cent.

With no local contests on in this second primary, there appears small chance of anything but a very light vote.

"There is no question about the Republicans going to vote — but as to the Democrats, I don't believe even 40 percent will vote," he said on second thought.

Republicans will have only one decision to make — whether they want incumbent Claude Kirk or challenger Jack Eckerd for this state's governor.

But Democrats have four races on which to make a decision. In the U.S. Senate race, they will decide between walkin' Lawton Chiles or former governor Farris Bryant. In the governor's race, they will have a choice between young (he's 41) Reuben Askew or the present Attorney General Earl Faircloth, once before defeated for the office.

In the attorney general's race, they must decide between two state legislators, Senator Robert Shevin, of Miami, and Senator Elmer Friday, of Ft. Meade.

The fourth choice will be between Wilson Wright who has been in the attorney general's office in Tallahassee for nine years, and William Bevis, state legislator from Ft. Meade.

Republicans will not be opposing Democrats until November 3. At that time, amendments to the Florida State Constitution and precinct committeemen and committeewomen of each party will be voted upon.

Highlands County Commissioners Decide To Seek An Engineer

In an emotion-packed special night session Tuesday, Highlands County Commissioners came to an unofficial decision to seek a county engineer.

The engineer would partially replace resigned county administrator-engineer Charles "Chuck" Morgan, who now is in Bay County. In a previous meeting they had decided against the expense of hiring an engineer.

The meeting had been adjourned and Circuit Court Clerk Earl Rich and Clerk Jim Pyle had already gone home when the discussion on the engineer position arose. The matter was brought up by Zoning Director Jack Short, who produced a letter, addressed to him, from the profession and occupation regulation agency of the state.

In the letter, Short was warned that a registered surveyor is not qualified to pass on the work of a professional engineer.

Short cited to the Commission the state law on professional engineers. It says county employees, who are not engineers, can only pass on engineering decisions which involve less than $2,000.

Short told the board "I would like careful delineation on the limits of county employees."

License in Jeopardy?

He told the board his surveyor license may be in jeopardy.

At this point the meeting became emotional with Commissioner Earl Crutchfield declaring:

"It was never my intention to leave Highlands County without an engineer. We have had plats flying through here since Chuck Morgan left. I am a taxpayer in Highlands County. I do not like to see all this vast extension of subdivisions in Highlands County without a registered engineer for the county to see that regulations are carried out. You do not have problems in subdivisions until the people move in. The subdivider is gone, let it rain a little, and the county has to come in and build the subdivision."

At this point there was a series of "amens" from the audience.

Crutchfield added: "Put this in the paper. I asked the Commission to seek an engineer so they can't do anything to these good men here," looking at his fellow commissioners.

Several times during the meeting Crutchfield, who was defeated for reelection, said "they can't do anything more to me."

Pushes for Commitment

Late in the unofficial tail end of the meeting, Crutchfield pushed the other commissioners for a commitment on a salary for zoning director Jack Short. Short said he would stay on for a minimum of $12,000, $2,000 more than he now is earning.

Commissioners nodded affirmation. Cecil Skipper declared that "at the next regular meeting I'll vote to give you a raise."

Actions during the meeting proper were:

— Asked the county attorney to check on operation of an unlicensed junk yard in Lorida.

— Authorized proceeding with work on Cowhouse Road, although it will involve moving road material from other projects.

— Indicated they probably will have a special meeting next week to consider hiring an inspector for the new building department. By law, electrical inspections must begin October 1.

Criminal Seeks Rehearing Next Week

Ezell Walker, convicted in June, 1969, of rape at Avon Park, and sentenced to prison for the balance of his natural life, will seek a rehearing during criminal court trials next week before Circuit Judge Clifton Kelly.

It was Kelly who sentenced him after a Highlands County jury found him guilty.

Other cases which will come up before Kelly include the following:

Robert James Burnett, violation of parole. Burnett, a Lorida truck driver, was found guilty of assault and battery on his wife, Imogene. A condition of his parole was to refrain from drinking alcoholic beverages. According to the criminal information filed, he admitted to drinking beer.

Jerry Wayne Massey, 17, Avon Park, uttering a forged instrument, a check for $45 on Annie Sue Brooks. Massey also will be tried for breaking and entering the Ben Cutrafulla home in Avon Park and the August Berline home in Avon Lakes.

William Joseph Baldwin, Sebring, burglary by breaking and entering at J. C. Enterprises.

Tony Veasey, Avon Park, forgery, two $15 checks at Bill's Corner, and $20 at Stimson Texaco.

Jackson Challenged On Eligibility

Defeated County Commissioner Jean Whitaker attacked the eligibility of the man who defeated him, Attorney Andrew Jackson, at a special County Commission meeting held Tuesday night.

Whitaker cited the new state law requiring candidates to resign from other public offices. He pointed out that Jackson had not resigned from the County Planning and Zoning Commission prior to seeking the Republican nomination for the District Four seat.

The Commissioners instructed Circuit Court Clerk Earl Rich to seek the attorney general's opinion on the eligibility of the Lake Placid attorney.

Jackson, if the election stands, will face Jimmy Creel, of Lake Placid. Creel failed to file his financial report by noon Monday as required by law, and filed at 11 A.M. Tuesday, 23 hours late.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

My name has been brought into the discussion concerning transporting students from the Bombing Range area into Frostproof schools. From newspaper reports, it seems that each time the subject comes up someone makes the statement that they "understand that Ben Hill Griffin is interested in seeing that these students are transferred to Frostproof.

For the record, let me say that I have never discussed this proposal with anyone, officially nor unofficially. And now that I have been forced to examine the situation I can tell you and your readers that I would never have supported the proposal.

I am against busing school children unnecessarily for any reason. I don't think these additional children will make or break Frostproof schools. And, even, if the children and parents were happy with the transfers, I would still oppose them because of the unnecessary waste of taxpayers' money.

We are, right now, in the middle of a national struggle against busing children past schools to other schools. The school board has promised to keep Frostproof schools in Frostproof (and I'm certainly in favor of that because schools give a community much more than an education for its children). To transport these children to Frostproof we are spending additional money for transportation as well as rushing the construction of a road which is costing thousands of dollars.

For these reasons I am opposed to this proposal and hope that I will not be quoted again to the contrary.

Sincerely,
Ben Hill Griffin, Jr.

Editor's Note: The Avon Park Sun did not quote Mr. Griffin in connection with this situation.

Editor Sun:

My pet kitten was hit and killed by a car late Thursday night and left lying in the street.

I did not know it until I went out on the porch Friday morning and saw it lying on the chair. In passing by, some kind person saw it and placed it in a chair on my porch. I will never know the person but sincerely hope they will read this note and accept a sincere "thanks" for the courtesy. It showed they had a heart, for any driver who will not stop and at least take an animal off the road certainly is not entitled to a drivers license. There are many of those heartless kind and someday they too may be killed by a car.

September Is Membership Month

The RAY ARCS (Ridge Area Youth Association for Retarded Children), have designated September as "Membership Month." Teens who are interested in becoming a member of this active group are asked to contact an officer or a board member of the RAY ARCS.

Newly-elected RAY ARC officers include: President, Janie Brandt (Sebring); Vice President, Diane Murphy (Avon Park); Second Vice President, Gail Whitehead (Sebring); Secretary, Debbie Sherwood (Sebring); Treasurer, Sandra Allen (Avon Park).

Members of the Board of Directors are Patricia Whitaker and Sally Pogany (Sebring), Bobbie Newton and Debbie Ward (Avon Park). The Lake Placid positions have not been filled at this time. Mrs. Lorraine Howard of Avon Park, is the RAY ARC advisor.

Each year, during September, groups of retarded youngsters from the Sunland Training Center at Ft. Myers are given an opportunity for recreation and camping at Camp Wingmann in Avon Park. In 1969, a group of Highlands County teens, accompanied by Miss Ann Karrick, visited the camp for several evenings. During this time they became acquainted with the retarded youngsters and assisted them with special activities, such as talent shows, parties and dances.

From this experience, a friendship developed between many local teens and the retarded children who live in Highlands County. This friendship became the basis for founding the RAY ARC organization. With much enthusiasm, the RAY ARC membership raised the funds and contributed most of their free hours to provide enjoyable activities for retarded children.

September, 1970, begins a new year for the RAY ARCS.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Reported By RAY STOKES

Program Chairman Bob Gay, with the aid of a tape recorded took the club to the Rotary International Convention in Atlana, Ga., to hear the address of James Conway, President of Rotary International.

Having visited Rotary Clubs throughout the world, President Conway noted that Rotary was a thriving, friendly organization in need of continued growth through increased membership. He noted that Renew and Review, his challenge for the year, had proven to be most successful, and suggested that Renew and Review should be continued on an annual basis, conducted during the first month of each Rotary Year by every club.

President Conway presented the following for Rotarians to think about:

The need for revision of present classification regulations; (2) The modernization of the legislative process; (3) The organization of additional clubs in cities with 500,000 plus population.

(These recommendations were to be revised by the convention legislative body, appearing as Bills 7055, 7010, and 7020.)

The subject of Rotary's attitude toward women's clubs was raised during Conway's administration. He supports the formation of female clubs because they could complement the work of Rotary. According to Mr. Conway, every club now existing may wish to consider having a female counterpart.

The question regarding Rotary's role in world conflict was assessed by Mr. Conway. He suggested that Rotary extend its efforts for World Peace.

In closing, Mr. Conway suggested that Rotary cannot rest on its great accomplishments, but must look to the future and adopt an attitude that will maintain Rotary as a Living Force. To do this, he believes the club must maintain a perspective in keeping with the world of today.

Only 3 Days Left To Register For Local PP & K Competition

There is just one short week remaining for boys in Avon Park to register for the local Punt, Pass & Kick Competition.

Avon Park Motor Co. sponsoring the popular youth activity in this area, said that registrations would be taken through Saturday, September 26. The Avon Park PP&K Competition is scheduled for Tuesday, Sept. 29 at 5:30 P.M. Boys can register Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Although time is growing short, any boys 8-13 years of age can still compete," said Bill Owens. "All he needs to do is come into our showroom, accompanied by a parent or guardian, and fill out the PP&K registration form. There's no entry fee or charge of any kind, and that goes for all six levels of competition, up to and including the national finals.

The Ford Dealer pointed out that 1st, 2nd and 3rd place trophies will be awarded in the local competition in each of the six age groups. Increasing the boys' chances of winning one of the 18 trophies is the fact that each boy competes against other boys his own age. And since there is no body contact, a boy's size is not as important as his ability to punt, pass and place-kick for distance with accuracy.

Winners can keep right on going up through the zone, district, area and division contests to the national finals," the Ford Dealer said. It's possible that one or more of our local winners could wind up in the finals, which this year will be held at the pro All-Star Game in Los Angeles on January 24. That means an all-expense-paid trip to the Coast for the contestant and his parents, a special tour of Disneyland, a Banquet of Champions celebration, and the chance to meet some of the top professional players and coaches.

"Registering for PP&K right now in our dealership could mean all that for some youngster or youngsters here in Avon Park, but they should register right now," the dealer concluded.

When he registers, each boy gets a free PP&K Tips Book. It contains helpful pointers from the pros on punting, passing and kicking. In the '70 edition are suggestions from NFL stars Dave Lee, Bill Nelsen and Fred Cox, plus Coaches of the Year Hank Stram and Bud Grant. Complete PP&K rules and suggested conditioning exercises for contestants are also included.

This is the 10th anniversary year for PP&K. From its inception, the youth activity has been sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America and the National Football League. In that time more than 6,000,000 boys have taken part in PP&K, making it the largest and fastest growing activity of its kind in America.

To honor Gladys Smith on her birthday when refreshments were served, all members sang, "happy birthday," which came as a surprise to Mrs. Smith. It is now time to pay dues for the new year.

Joe Found a Better Way

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

Joe was an immigrant. In his own country he was pretty well off, but here he was trash. People noticed his dark skin, peculiar nose, black hair, and heavy accent.

On top of that, he had a peculiar religion.

He was a country boy — a ranch kid, and here he was in a city — and he was broke. Oh, he had a job, all right, as a domestic servant — live in, meals, no pay. It was slavery, but there was nothing Joe could do about it.

About the only thing that went right for Joe was that he was safe from any of the neighborhood toughs getting out of hand with him. He worked for the chief of police.

Maybe it wasn't all bad. At least, he wasn't in the ghetto. He had enough to eat. He had clothes, and a roof over his head. What more can you expect when you are an unskilled, minority-class, alien kid at 17?

Dreams of Greatness

Remember when you were 17? If you do, you know Joe expected a lot more.

Back home, Joe used to tell his family about his dreams of the future. He was going to be great — a leader equal to anyone in his nation's history. His parents wondered at his visions, but they let it go at that, waiting to see what would happen.

His brothers, however, hated "the dreamer." In fact, they forced him to leave home.

All those hopes he had — yet the fact was that he was a slave to a system that wanted to keep him that way.

Impossible though it may seem, things got worse. The boss's wife got her eye on him. One day, when her husband was gone, she asked him to go to bed with her.

How could anyone blame Joe for doing it? After all, life didn't seem to offer anything better, and it could give him some special standing around the house.

But he didn't do it. She was infuriated. Every day, she asked again, and, as she was repeatedly refused, she developed a hatred for Joe that wouldn't quit. Finally, she told her husband that Joe had tried to rape her.

Joe landed in prison—without trial and with no chance to appeal.

Joe's responses to his mistreatment would look peculiar today. He didn't threaten, or riot, or sabotage, to get back at people or the repressive society. He didn't grab pleasure when it was wrongly offered.

The Better Way

Joe was a disciplined man. His discipline did not come from accepting hardship with passive stoicism. It wasn't that Joe thought there was nothing he could do — nor that he masochistically rejected pleasure. He wanted to be free to be a whole person and to enjoy himself.

It's just that Joe found a better way. Joe knew God and knew that God had promised to take care of him all the way. So he let God do it.

Joe always put out his best efforts, wherever God put him — but he left the planning to God.

This Joe was the Joseph of the Bible, who became the prime minister of Egypt. God did a good job for him.

"God can be trusted," Joe said. "He will turn everything for good."

Walker Memorial Pink Ladies Meet Monday

President Edna Henderson presided at the bi-monthly meeting of the Walker Memorial Auxiliary on Monday evening, Sept. 21. George Walper opened with prayer.

After the usual business and committee reports, Walper spoke to the group. They were reminded that technology leaps forward with such amazing speed that the new equipment needed for laboratory work in blood chemistry is too sophisticated to explain to the layman.

We are indeed fortunate to live in a community where the two hospitals in the county work together to bring us the professional services of a pathologist. Tissue work is done at Highlands Geenral, blood work at Walker Memorial.

Those in attendance voted from their treasury $1500, with more to follow later, to be used to pay for some of this new equipment.

High point of the meeting was the "pinning" of Dorothy Shannon for 500 hours of service.

Some of the members were not at the meeting because they were attending a class in nuclear disaster training, along with many hospital employees.

Golfettes Meet For Breakfast

Nine ladies of the River Green Golfettes, met Tuesday morning for breakfast and golf.

Dorothy Shannon and Aggie Dowling won the blind partners match.

The "Golfettes" will meet again next Tuesday at 8:30 for breakfast and golf. A luncheon will be served after the game.

Any women interested in playing golf on Tuesday mornings, should contact either Lois Bagwell or Elaine DeLaney.

Church Women To Sponsor Rummage Sale

The Episcopal Church Women of Avon Park will sponsor a three-day rummage sale, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Rena Smith. The sale will be held in the parish house of the Church of the Redeemer, corner of N. Verona and E. Pleasant.

The sale will start at noon, Thursday, Oct. 8, until 5 P.M., Friday, 7:30 A.M. to 5 P.M., Saturday, 7:30 A.M. to 1 P.M. Mrs. Smith has a large variety of goods including furniture, clothing and dishes.

Any member having material to donate, can leave it at the parish house.

The Fall Deanery meeting will be held in St. Albans, Auburndale, on October 26. Members are asked to keep the date in mind, and make a special effort to attend.

Fidelis Class Has Covered Dish Supper

The Fidelis Sunday School Class, of the First Baptist Church, had a covered dish supper, Saturday, September 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Owens. MR. AND MRS. REED BENSCHOTER

Nancy Mitchell, Reed Benschoter Wed In First Baptist Church

Miss Nancy Sue Mitchell became the bride of Reed Benschoter, Saturday, at 8 P.M., in a candlelight ceremony, at First Baptist Church in Avon Park.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee T. Mitchell of Avon Park and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Benschoter of Sebring.

Wedding music was provided by Jerold Perkins at the organ, with soloists, Buford Jasper singing, "One Hand, One Heart" and Quintin Atkins, "I Believe." The ceremony was closed with a prayer by Rev. Aden D. Childress, and a rendition of "The Lord's Prayer" by Quintin Atkins, as the couple knelt at a white satin kneeling bench.

Rev. Childress officiated at the double-ring ceremony, performed before the altar banked with palms, centered with a curved 15-branched gold arch candelabra, with white tapers. Two large gold pedestal baskets of pink and white roses and gladioli accented the kneeling bench.

White satin bows marked the family pews. The church was aglow with lighted tapers entwined with fern and roses in each window of the sanctuary.

Satin and Lace Gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride's gown of white bridal satin, overlaid with lace was designed and fashioned by her mother. The long lace sleeves were scalloped at the wrists and seeded with pearls. The satin center of the gown was scalloped on either side with lace and seed pearls. A double pleat hung from the high waist in back, topped by a satin bow and wide satin streamers that hung the length of the train. The elbow length veil of illusion hung from a tiara of satin blossoms, leaves and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Miss Trudie Mitchell of Jacksonville, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a short sleeved gown of pale blue brocade, with empire waistline, adorned with blue velvet ribbon, with bow attached to back. For a headpiece, she wore a short veil attached to a Dior bow of matching brocade with blue velvet ribbon streamers. Her flowers were a cascade of mixed roses with satin streamers.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Gale May of Sarasota and Miss Ronelle Wells of Bradenton, wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, with matching headpieces. They also carried cascade bouquets of mixed roses with satin streamers.

Roni Dean Benschoter of Sebring served his brother as best man. Ushers were Ross Benschoter and Rick Benschoter, brothers of the bridegroom, and Larry Ford, all of Sebring, and Ray Ramer, Jr., of Avon Park.

Mrs. Mitchell wore for her daughter's wedding a lemon yellow outfit of linen. The sheath had deep lace, circling the bottom and sleeves and repeated around the bottom of the sleeveless coat. Her accessories were beige, and she wore a corsage of peace roses.

Mrs. Benschoter wore a mint green taffeta sheath, with a lace coat, and long sleeves. She wore matching accessories, with a corsage of roses.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore an empire, fitted A-line dress of pink peau de soie, with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of roses, grown by her father.

They will tour Florida on their way to Tallahassee, where they will make their home.

Nancy was a majorette with the Avon Park High School Band for two years, graduating in 1968. She attended South Florida Junior College, transferring to Florida State University, Tallahassee, January, where she is a junior.

Reed played football with the Sebring Blue Streaks and was a member of the track team. He won the 1966-67 most valuable award given by the Tropical Bank and Trust Co. He graduated in 1967 from Sebring High School and from South Florida Junior College in 1969. He is now a senior at Florida State University.

Wedding Reception

A reception was held following the ceremony, in the church social hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Benschoter, the bridal couple and the wedding party, greeted guests as they entered the reception hall. Mrs. Sharman Duhm sat just inside the entrance, to one side, at a small round pedestal table, covered with white satin, overlaid with lace, where she kept the bride's book and gave miniature wedding scrolls to each guest. The scrolls were inscribed with a message from the bride and bridegroom and with their names and date of the wedding.

A three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and groom, underneath an arch with bell, was centered on the bride's table covered with an imported cutwork cloth, over pink. Napkins were inscribed in gold, with Nancy and Reed—September 12, 1970.

The punch table also covered with cutwork cloth, held the crystal bowl, encircled with fern and roses. On either side were silver candelabra, on both the bride's table and punch table, holding pink lighted tapers. In center of candelabra was a nosegay of roses and babysbreath. Silver compotes held nuts and mints. Roses and fern was used at focal points throughout the social hall.

Bonnie McCloud, cousin of the bride from Orlando, passed out pastel rice bags.

Assisting at the cake table were, Mrs. A. S. Turner, Jr., and Mrs. Sharon Wicker, Mrs. Ophelia Rihner, Marion Turner, Marsha Ward, and Jane Nunnallee were at the punch table.

Donna Revell and Maxwell Still Wed In Methodist Church

Miss Donna Carroll Revell and Howard Maxwell Still were united in marriage Friday, Sept. 11, at 7:30 P.M. in an impressive candlelight ceremony at the First United Methodist Church in Avon Park.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Carroll, of Avon Park and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Virgal M. Still of Avon Park.

Reverend Duane R. Zoller officiated at the double-ring ceremony, with a background of palms and greenery on the altar rail.

A single lavender candle in candelabra was on either end of the communion table. On each side of the communion table was twin pedestal baskets of lavender and white mums and gladioli accented with lavender candles.

Mrs. Jay DeShong presided at the organ, while Lucky Dixon sank "The Wedding Prayer."

At the close of the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom knelt as Rev. Zoller and the congregation joined in the Lord's Prayer.

Virgal Still served as best man for his son, and ushers were Lanse Padgett of Ocala, and Reese Parrish, of Parrish.

The bride was lovely in a gown of lilac chiffon over bridal satin. Dainty flowers embroidered in shades of avocado and purple circled the neck, Empire waistline and long sleeves at the wrists. Her circular veil fell from a lilac satin Dior bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of lavender and purple mums and white pom-pons, centered with a white orchid, with lavender streamers.

Mrs. Sue Moseley, matron of honor wore an identical gown and headpiece in a deeper shade of lavender. She carried a cascade bouquet of lavender and purple mums in shades darker than the bride's with white pompons and lavender streamers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Carroll, wore for her daughter's wedding a bonded avocado green sheath, overlaid with lace, with matching accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Still, wore for her son's wedding, a turquoise bonded crepe dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. C. W. Harsey, wore deep rose with white accessories and her corsage was a white orchid.

For her wedding trip, touring Florida and Georgia, the bride wore a gold bonded A-line dress with brown, black and white neckline scarf and black patent accessories. She wore the white orchid, lifted from her bridal bouquet.

FTG3 Still is on active duty with the U. S. Navy, stationed at Norfolk, Va.

Reception

A reception was held following the ceremony in Wesley Hall.

The social hall was decorated with palms and baskets of lavender mums and gladioli.

The serving table was covered with lilac overlaid with lace. Silver candelabras with lilac and purple candles were on either side of the three-tiered wedding cake, with white and lavender flowers. The top tier of cake held a single cross with entwined wedding bands. The large crystal punch bowl was encircled with fern and held lavender punch.

A table covered with white satin and net held the bride's book, which was presided over by Miss Pam Maness of Avon Park.

Mrs. Josie McDaniel presented the guests to the receiving line.

Mrs. Solveig Gerrard and Mrs. Judy Mundt helped at the cake table and Mrs. Gertrude Craft and Mrs. Joy O'Steen served the punch.

Reggie Weber Honored With Linen Shower

Reggie Weber, bride-elect of Wendell Connoly, was feted at a linen shower last Thursday night at the Florida Power Lounge.

As the guests entered they were given a corsage of purple net with a tiny bride in the center. This was part of a game which was later played. Reggie was given an orchid corsage which complimented the purple dress she was wearing.

The room was decorated in a wishing well theme to portray wishes to Reggie for happiness during her coming marriage. A large stone well with a purple roof and twined with greens held the gifts from the guests.

The table on which the opened gifts were displayed also held a small wishing well which was a replica of the large one. The guests made wishes for Reggie, wrote them on a small card which had a shiny penny attached to it, and then dropped their wishes into this small well. The other table held a crystal punch bowl and the refreshments which were served after the guests enjoyed playing several games and Reggie opened her gifts. The main attraction on this table was a tall white candelabra covered with ivy and holding purple tapers. In front of the candelabra was a doll-sized bridal party consisting of the bride and her two attendants.

Hostesses for the shower were, Janet Hood, Angie Barbara, and Pat Miller.

What Mr. Eckerd's Friends Think of Gov. Kirk

To the People of Florida:

For two years the State of Florida has had a strong hand at the helm. The pride we take as Republicans in the record of Governor Kirk is shared equally by many independents and discerning Democrats.

We have prepared this booklet so that you will have a guide to the massive record of accomplishment which progressive, conservative Republican leadership has provided. Ours is not a negative campaign based upon the old politics, but a positive, forward moving demonstration of the new leadership that the Republican Party has brought to Florida government.

Sincerely,

Bill Murfin
