4A—The Avon Park Sun, Avon Park, Florida, Dec. 18, 1971

At this season, many questions arise concerning Christmas decorations and lighting. Here are a few hints to make it easier for you.

The first point to remember is to adopt your lighting to your particular home and surroundings. Ask yourself what features can be emphasized—perhaps there is an architectural feature that can be the focal point.

Whatever you decide to be the main point of interest should have strong illumination. This does not mean garish illumination, but instead the creation of a brighter spot that immediately attracts the eye. This focal point can also be emphasized by color contrast style and size. Slightly subdued lighting should be used on secondary points of interest that help to carry out the theme.

Your doorway can say "Merry Christmas." Pick out a simple but pretty Christmas card and reproduce it on a plywood panel (oil paints). Then, attach the panel to the door spotlight the area, and frame the door with greenery.

Don't forget about using the broad expanse of garage doors as potential backgrounds for Christmas displays. Accented with a weatherproof par lamp, it will provide an excellent focal point.

Remember to always conceal all sources of light. Often shrubbery, a hedge or foliage can provide natural concealment for fixtures. If this is not possible, a shield can be made from a piece of galvanized metal, painted to match the surroundings.

Don't place lights too close to decoration or shrubbery, as this will cause a spot of glare to be reflected into the viewer's eyes, and detract from your display. Aim lights so that they don't interfere with your neighbors' privacy or eyes.

Use the same care in planning your Christmas lighting display that you do in choosing your Christmas cards, because your display is your holiday greeting to all who pass by.

FAVORITE CHRISTMAS RECIPES

VANILLA WAFER CAKE
1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
6 eggs
1 bx (12) oz vanilla wafers
1/2 cup milk
1 pkg. (7 oz) flake coconut
1 cup chopped pecans.

Cream butter and sugar until smooth. Add egg, one at a time, beating after each egg. Add crushed vanilla wafers (blender does a quick job) alternately with milk. Add coconut and pecans. Bake in greased tub pan approximately 2 hours at 225 deg. es.

Happiness is homemade cookies! I thought I'd share some of my cookie recipes (and happiness) with you. Try them for the holidays.

HELLO DOLLY SQUARES
1 stick butter
1/2 cups granola cracker crumbs
1/2 cups chocolate bits
1 pkg. (4 1/2 oz.) chopped nuts
1/2 cups coconut
1 can sweetened condensed milk.

Melt butter in 8 x 11 inch baking pan. Sprinkle granola cracker crumbs over the melted butter. Next, layer the chocolate bits, then the nuts and last the coconut. Pour condensed milk evenly over all. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Cool in pan. Cut in squares when almost cool.

CHRISTMAS RIBBON COOKIES

1 cup butter
1/4 cups sugar
1 egg
2 tsp vanilla
7/8 cups sifted flour

Poole-Thomas Wedding Set For Saturday

The wedding of Miss Brenda Poole of Sebring and William DeRoy (Billy) Thomas of Avon Park will be solemnized this Saturday, Dec. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church in Avon Park with Rev. Aden D. Childers officiating.

BWC Christmas Banquet Monday

The Christmas banquet of the Business Women's Club of Avon Park will be attended on Monday, Dec. 13, by members and guests.

A delicious buffet dinner was served, with all the holiday fare, by Mrs. Callaway, Sr., of the Jacaranda Hotel. The group participated in the singing of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. Jean Adams, with lots of fun derived with the group participating in the singing of "Twelve Days of Christmas." The gift exchange was enjoyed after the singing of carols.

Hostesses for this lovely affair were: Juanita Haddock, Ida McDougal, Mary Lee King, Reba Turner, Mary Taylor, Jean Adams, Elizabeth Nellis, Frances Whidden, Jackie Roberts, Fannie Roche and Hazel Lasse.

1 1/2 tsp baking powder
4 tsp salt
1/4 cup chopped candied cherries
1 square unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/4 cup chopped nuts
3 tsp chopped citron
Cream butter; add sugar gradually. Stir in egg and vanilla, mixing well. Sift together flour, baking powder, salt. Add to creamed mixture; blend thoroughly. Divided dough into three parts. Add cherries to one part, chocolate and nuts to another; citron to a third.

Line a small bread pan with aluminum foil. Place the cherry dough on the bottom, then the chocolate dough, then the citron dough. Cover the foil. Chill overnight. Lift out dough with aluminum foil. Cut into thin slices. Cut each slice in half. Place on greased cookie sheet. Bake in 375 degrees oven 10-12 minutes. Do not allow cookies to brown. Makes 4 dozen.

A Merry Christmas to all. Remember, it's a Woman's World!

Town Topics

I had lunch and a tour of The Highlands School for Girls last Thursday, which I thoroughly enjoyed. The school is really a home away from home for the girls, with all facilities for a well rounded education and pleasing atmosphere.

Then on Saturday night, Hubby, Ed and I were invited to attend the Junior Woman's Club progressive Christmas party, which is one of the highlights of the "holiday season" in Avon Park. Everyone really had a fabulous time, the food was delicious, the homes decorated prettily for the holiday season and the fellowship was enjoyable. It's really the season for "joy and merriment." Are you ready for it, shopping finished, cards sent?

Betty Padelford, Lawrence Gilbert United In Marriage Dec. 2

On Thursday evening, Dec. 2, in a candlelight ceremony at 7 p.m., Miss Betty Anne Padelford and Joseph Lawrence Gilbert were united in marriage at First United Methodist Church in Avon Park. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Padelford of Lake Ave., Avon Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Gilbert of Lakeview Drive, Sebring.

Reverend Duane Zoller officiated at the double ring ceremony performed before a background centered with an arch candleabra entwined with fresh greenery, holding 14 burning tapers. On either side were twin beveled candleabras, each holding 20 candles.

The altar rail was draped with green garland scented at the corners with white satin bows. On either side of the altar were white columns holding large white urns of white gladioli and pink roses. Gold cherubs holding bouquets of pink roses, marked the family pews.

Bobby Alexander, organist, of Sebring, and Beverly Mann, vocalist, of Avon Park, rendered a program of pre-nuptial music, which included selections of "One Hand, One Heart" and "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet."

Bride Wears Crepe and English Lace
Given in marriage by her father, the blonde bride was lovely in a Victorian style gown of candlelight crepe, featuring English lace on the empire bodice and cuffs. The chapel length train fell softly from behind of the high empire waistline. Her headpiece was of lace with a cluster of petals adorned with seed pearls, from which a shoulder length illusion veil fell.

She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, pink and white miniature carnations and baby's breath. Her only ornaments were a tiny cameo necklace, belonging to the bridegroom's great-grandmother and pearl earrings, a gift from the bridegroom.

For something "old" the bride wore a cameo necklace, something "new" her wedding gown, something "borrowed" the veil, and something "blue" a garter.

Serving as matron of honor was Mrs. Robin Rowson, sister of the bride from Bradenton. She wore a formal length gown of deep pink, with empire waistline. Ruffles adorned the high collar and cuffs. Her headpiece of deep pink allusion was attached to velvet bows.

They were matching shoes and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white miniature carnations and daisies.

Larry chose for his best man, his brother-in-law, John Townsend of Orlando. Ushers were, Allen and Robert Padelford, brothers of the bride of Avon Park, Robert Gilbert, brother of the bridegroom of Sebring, and Dean Rowson, brother-in-law of the bride of Bradenton.

Mrs. Padelford wore for her daughter's wedding a light blue crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid, trimmed in blue. For her son's wedding, Mrs. Gilbert chose a pink brocade ensemble with pink accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage trimmed in pink.

Mrs. Roy Gilbert, Sr., and Mrs. J. S. Burkett, grandmothers of the bride and groom, each wore blue dresses with matching accessories and yellow rose corsages.

Honeymoon to St. Petersburg Beach
For their honeymoon to St. Petersburg Beach, the bride wore a tweed skirt and sweater with black patent accessories. She wore a pink rose for her going away corsage.

After their wedding trip to St. Petersburg Beach, the Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert will be at home at 109 E. Walnut Street, Avon Park.

Betty graduated from Avon Park High School in 1970 and is employed at Avon Citrus Bank. Larry, a graduate of Sebring High School, is presently attending South Florida Junior College, where he is president of Phi Theta Kappa.

Reception
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Padelford entertained at a reception in Wesley Hall, immediately following the ceremony.

Hostess was Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, with Mrs. Nancy Pearl in charge of the bride's book.

The bride's table, covered with a white cloth, embellished with lace, held the three tiered wedding cake, topped with two white doves. The top tier was placed on Roman columns, with clustered roses in shades of pink, intertwined with sweet peas underneath. Miniature sculptured doves nestled throughout the cake. The top tier was saved for the bride and bridegroom to share on their first anniversary. Completing the table decoration were the bride's and attendants' bouquets.

A piece of the bride's cake was air mailed to a dear friend of Betty's, Gwen S. Hafford, in Panama, Canal Zone. Serving the cake were Mrs. William Owens and Mrs. Edward Sharpe.

A table covered with white taffeta and net held the chocolate groom's cake, served by Mrs. Leon Lotz of Sebring. The cake was adorned with purple grapes, trimmed with green leaves and encircled in fern.

The punch table covered with a white lace trimmed cloth held a beautiful arrangement of pink gladioli and roses on one end of the table, with the crystal punch bowl at the opposite end, from which tasty pink punch was served. Compotes held nuts and mints, which were also served from this table. Dainty napkins were inscribed with "Betty and Larry." Miss Barbara Reavis presided at the punch service.

Mrs. Billy Dixon presided at the silver coffee service at a table covered with a white lace trimmed cloth. Flanking the silver service on the opposite end was a large silver candleabra holding pink candles in hurricane globes, surrounded by pink roses at the base. This gorgeous arrangement was by Larry's grandmother, Mrs. J. S. Burkett of Sebring.

Roses used at the wedding and reception were from the J. C. Murphy garden.

Out-of-Town Guests
Out-of-town guests other than Sebring were, Mr. and Mrs. John Townsend, Fr., of Orlando, Mrs. James Hancock, Maitland, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Rowson, Bradenton, and William Gilbert of Tennesse, Ga.

DAVE LLEWELLYN Ask for Your Free Present

Here's the announcement: "A great joy which shall be for all the people." Nobody can force you to be happy. Because of God's gift, though, nobody can force you to be unhappy, either. Joy is available for everyone, but forced on no one.

"And on earth peace among men who desire goodness." God has presented to men the possibility of peace, but responsibility to put peace into practice lies inseparably within men. Peace is possible only for those who love goodness. What most people call "peace" actually means, "Do things my way."

Real peace, however, requires cooperation and, often, submission to someone else's plans. To submit to just anyone would be dangerous folly. Consequently, only among men who honestly love goodness more than they love to have their own way, only among such men is peace possible.

Christmas, these days, is all parade and no game. The pageantry remains, but the performance is all substitute. People exchange gifts without even remembering that the event celebrates God's gift of joy and peace to man in the person of Jesus.

"The magic of Christmas!" There's no magic; there's power. And it's not in Christmas; it's in Jesus.

The Present
How, then, can you become a person who experiences joy and peace? Accept the gift. Until you open it, a Christmas present is only a tantalizing package of promises. Until you accept Jesus, His promised life of peace and joy remains a pretty illusion.

God gave the world an invaluable present. And He now offers it personally to you. Copyright Dave Llewellyn 1971

Kenneth Hisey Home Scene Of Christmas Party

The Women's Council of the First Christian Church held their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hisey Thursday evening, Dec. 9 with a large attendance.

The home was beautifully decorated in the Christmas theme. Mrs. Clifford Dance conducted the devotions, reading the Christmas story from the bible and other appropriate selections.

The president, Mrs. H. J. Rutherford, presided at a short business session. Reports of the officers and committee chairmen were given and plans discussed for a dinner to hold later. Gifts were given to all present.

The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Johnie Berry, Mrs. Paul Nuzzo and Mrs. Harris Whigham, served delicious refreshments from a gaily decorated table. All joined in singing Christmas carols.

Anita Bryant Joins Arrive Alive To Expedite Safety Program

Anita Bryant, well known songstress, has joined in the fight to make Florida highways the safest in the nation. With her help, traffic safety officials are hoping the fastest way to play a big role in reducing traffic accidents during the forthcoming Christmas and New Year holidays.

"We are asking women in Florida to lend their support to safety by actively participating in the Arrive Alive program being spearheaded by Governor Reubin Askew," said J. Dan Wright, director of the Governor's Highway Safety Commission.

A major effort is being made to encourage holiday party givers to keep their guests sober or away from the wheel of an automobile. Each year during the Christmas season, thousands of motorists are involved in traffic accidents following traditional holiday parties.

A significant number of these mishaps occur as a result of the impaired judgment of a "happy" party-goer returning home from the house of a best friend.

"We hope hosts and hostesses all over Florida will make a special effort to help their friends Arrive Alive during the holiday season," stated Wright. "We want everyone to think of the horrible tragedies that often result during the Christmas and New Year season, as motorists attempt to drive home after a joyful reunion with friends and neighbors."

The Governor's Highway Safety Commission recommends party-givers follow a few simple guidelines in planning holiday festivities. "Serve a combination of beverages, so guests returning home by automobile will be able to partake of non-alcoholic punches and soft drinks," suggests

Wright. "Since Florida is the Orange capital of the world, we recommend the favorite holiday punch recipe of simple Anita Bryant. The refreshing beverage is sure to bring compliments from everyone at the party."

Florida Party Punch
3 cups boiling water; 2 tablespoons tea or 8 tea bags; 1/4 cup sugar; 1/4 cup lemon juice; 1/4 cup orange juice; 1/4 cup lime juice; 1 pint orange sherbet, softened; 1 bottle (1 quart) sparkling water; 2 bottles (16 ounces each) quinine water; 2 Florida oranges, sliced and halved sliced strawberries.

Bring water to a full boil in saucepan. Remove from heat and add tea. Brew, uncovered, 4 minutes. Stir and strain into large container; cool. Stir in

Third Phase Of Dove Season To Open Saturday

Florida sportsmen will open the third phase of the 1971-72 dove season Saturday, Dec. 18. Hunting will be allowed from 12 noon until sunset through January 10.

According to the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission this is the final phase of the dove hunting season. The bag limit for the third phase season will remain at 12 doves per day.

At press time Wednesday the Avon Park Bombing Range was scheduled to be open for hunters campers Friday, Dec. 17, at 5 p.m. (or after military activities) with hunters to be out of the Range at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 19, according to Richard McClelland, supervisor of the Avon Park Wildlife Management Area.

The game taken at the Range last weekend were six deer, four turkeys, 32 quails, 50 squirrels, eight ducks, six hogs, 114 snipes and 1,473 hunters checking in at the Range.

Florida hunters are reminded that the season for hunting deer and turkey was extended by the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The original season, as printed in the summary of hunting rules was scheduled to close on January 2. The hunting extension which allows an additional seven days of deer and turkey hunting does not apply to the northwest region, but will extend the deer hunting season throughout the balance of Florida through January 9.
