School Board Sells $4.5 Million Bond Issue For New Schools

To keep school construction on schedule the Highlands County school board Tuesday reluctantly sold a $4.5 million bond issue at a rate which will almost certainly boost county taxes.

After almost an hour of debate the board, on a 3-to-1 vote, accepted First National Bank of Miami bid which averages 6.874 per cent for the 20-year issue. Superintendent George F. Douglass gloomily predicted that a millage increase — he mentioned ¾ of a mill — would be inevitable.

George Shaw, who represented the board's fiscal agent Wainwright and Ramsey at the bid opening, said 700 prospective bidders had been contacted. Two bids were received: William R. Hough Co., for a combination of bidders, entered a bid of 7.676 per cent.

Ironically, the Highlands board's debt-free status was a strong contributing factor to the higher-than-expected bids. Bankers Rex Bond and Ken Grady who attended the bid-opening, pointed out that the bonds carried the lowest rating a bank is permitted to bid on, and the low rating was due in large measure to Highlands school board's "lack of experience" in the borrowing business. No general obligation school bonds had been marketed in more than two decades.

Cases Opposed
As soon as the bids had been read Board Member Ted Cason moved that both bids be rejected, observing, "We can build a lot of barracks for that kind of money." He was unable to find a second and Chairman Henry Bailey finally declared the motion dead.

E. Ray Wells, moved that the low bid be accepted and John Wicks gave a quick second, both emphasizing their fear of costs of money and construction going up. "I haven't seen time do anything but hurt us," Wells commented.

Wicks pointed out that plumbers in Miami are negotiating for a $112 a day rate, adding, "Not all that raise will come up here but some will. If we delay construction, costs will go up more than the interest rate will come down."

Bailey said, "It is important to meet our construction schedule. We have a bid opening on June 15 (for the new Avon Park and Sebring High Schools) and we can't let contracts without funds in hand."

On the voice vote only Cason voted no.

Over the 20-year life of the bonds, total interest costs will be $3,927,250.
The board is currently levying 1.5 mills for construction and Douglass said at the present mill value over 2 mills will be needed for debt service.

City Rejects Bid On Land For Computer Center Site

A special meeting of the City Council was held Wednesday, April 22 in trying to reach an

City Wants Nursing Home Property Back

The regular meeting of the Avon Park City Council was held Monday, Apr. 27, at 7:30 P.M. Bob Herman and his attorney, S. G. Pardee, appeared in reference to land adjacent to Golden Age Villas given by Universal Builders to the city and subsequently deeded by the city to Hillcrest Nursing Home.

Since that time the Nursing Home was built at a different location. On January 12 the city council agreed to wait 90 days before taking any action to see what Hillcrest Nursing Home planned to do with the property. Pardee requested return of the 5½ feet of land given by the Universal Builders to their successors, Avon Investment Company. A motion was made by Martin to return the city attorney in cooperation with attorney Pardee to proceed to recover the property. All the council members, with the exception of Scott, voted Aye.

A discussion was held on the operation of the city dump. The county has agreed to pay $75 per month and the city will pay $30 on the caretaker's salary. Buck Johnson, caretaker, was present and said the pay of $100 per month was satisfactory for a five-day work week.

Scoutmaster Joe Murphy of Troop 137 and a group of scouts attended the council meeting to request permission to clean up right-of-way of State Road 17, State Road 64, and US 27 within the city limits. Their generous offer was accepted and the boys were commended for wanting to undertake this very worthwhile project. They were told they would be doing a real fine service for the community and it will be greatly appreciated.

Cecil Skipper spoke on the need for additional equipment for work at the city course. Mayor Barben said the city plans to install irrigation for work at the Phillips materials to be donated by the Avon Park Golf Association.

In other action the council agreed to check the possibility of putting up barriers on the city street at the Phillips to the airport to keep cars from driving off road onto runways.

It was also decided to post "No Parking" signs on both sides of West State St. from meeting Lake Ave. to Reagan St. Complaints have been received that due to parking near the City of Avon Park, motorists had difficulty in using that portion of the street as a two-way street.

Mayor Authorizes Use of Radar Speed Check

Mayor Bob Barben at the city council meeting Monday night authorized police chief, Earl Gordon to use the radar equipment to check speed any time he could borrow it from the Sebring Police Department without warning or telling the public, for the safety effect it would have.

Chief Earl Gordon stated that the few days that we had the radar in service in Avon Park, that the people slowed down, but now that it was not in service the same old problem was back. Only last week one young man was stopped on South Central going 85 miles per hour.

Councilman Don Serdynski stated that he felt the need for radar equipment had been acute for a long time and that the council would be doing the city a service by purchasing one.

The council suggested that a bid be made for the lease and possible purchase of this radar equipment.

agreement with Highlands Computer Center for and required for their building and to discuss proposed water and sewer improvements.

Charles Hoke, president of Avon Citrus Bank and John Gross, manager of Highlands Computer Center were present in hopes that the city would agree to sell them the 100 feet in Industrial Park, facing Highway 27, that they had previously made an offer on.

During the last meeting several of the council members said they were afraid this land would be needed at a future date for expansion in the sewer program. Jack Duggan said that he did not feel it would be needed for the future to sell this piece of land and made a motion that the council accept the Computer Center's offer. Scott seconded the motion, but upon roll call Howard, Martin and Serdynski voted nay.

Mayor Barben stated he was against selling the land, because he feels it will be needed later when the new sewer system goes into effect.

Dr. Stallard, president of South Florida Junior College, was invited to express his opinion. He felt it would be an advantage to the college to have the Computer Center nearby. He said there would probably be a great

Court Action Looms In Highlands Desegregation Plan

Threat of court action in Highlands County desegregation loomed today with a challenge to the amended desegregation plan coming almost simultaneously with a summons for top school officials to meet with federal Department of Justice representatives.

School Superintendent George F. Douglass, School Board Chairman Henry Bailey and School Attorney Frank Bryant are to go to Jacksonville today (Thursday) for a 2 P.M. session with the federal and state offices.

Floyd T. Christian, Florida commissioner of education, told the Sun he had called today's meeting in the request of the justice department "to determine whether we can get a number of counties in compliance without suit."

He said the meeting would include representatives from four Florida counties cut off from federal funds because of non-compliance with federal civil rights law and it counties including Highlands whose desegregation plans have been challenged.

Christian said it is his "assumption" that if satisfactory agreements cannot be worked out today, suits, instituted by the justice department, may be filed soon.

Plan Challenged
The amended Highlands County desegregation plan, adopted at the March school board meeting, has been challenged by the federal Department of Health, Education and Welfare "because the desegregation of the E. O. Douglass School has not been assured."

The amended plan calls for all students at the all-black Carver School to be transferred to Lake Placid Elementary next year. The presently all-Negro Hopewell at Avon Park will be integrated next year by the assignment of all fifth grade students in that area to Hopewell. These parts of the plan are unchallenged.

The plan had proposed transferring all students into a county-wide school with a special non-graded kindergarten through sixth grade program.

Legis. B. Henderson, in a letter to Superintendent Douglass, deal of leverage offered the college if the center was located near the turn-off. The students would be allowed to use the computer as a training course, when not in use by the businesses it will serve.

Jim Heine attended the meeting and said the Chamber of Commerce was interested in seeing that the city and Computer Center get together on a site. Hoke said the Chamber of Commerce is advertising lots for sale in Industrial Park and they should stop advertising land that is not available after an offer is made on it.

Hoke also feels that when the City Council turned down his offer to buy land for the computer site, they turned down a big opportunity for Avon Park and for the future of our college students. He stated that he could not understand the city giving away land and not selling the 100 feet Computer Center needed. He thanked the council members for their time and consideration and said they would investigate other sources for an available site.

Ermy Dawkins and Bill Thompson, of Dawkins and Associates, Inc. were present to discuss future plans for the proposed sewer system. Dawkins recommended a $250,000 program for water and sewer improvements. He showed maps on proposed water system improvements and on proposed sewer system additions. These sewer improvements would provide service for about 96 per cent of the town. He suggested the council make application to the Housing and Urban Development Program for a one-half million dollar grant.

Dawkins also recommended that possibly the mayor and city clerk visit Atlanta to discuss the program with representatives of Department of Housing and Urban Development.

In other action the council members authorized Mayor Barben to execute necessary documents to update the PL660 grant toward pollution control facilities.

Change In Mail Service Explained

In order that all patrons understand the mail service change the post office announced the following schedule.

All city and rural carriers deliver 2 A.M. mail will arrive at 6:30 A.M. There will be no delays to patrons receiving mail by carrier. This will, however, eliminate mail delivery to post office box patrons in the afternoon at 4:45 P.M.

The star route has been discontinued in the interest of economy since the volume is small and does not justify the cost. The mail also arrives too late in the afternoon to be of benefit to most business firms until the next morning.

trool, the truck hit the car from behind. The truck driver, Carixto Perez of Miami was charged with failure to have vehicle under control. He was injured in the mishap which caused $22,000 damage to the tractor-trailer.

Teenage Suicide Points Out Need For More Juvenile Facilities

The suicide of a 15-year-old Avon Park boy in Highlands County jail has pointed out the fact that juveniles accused of felonies are still being kept in jail.

This is despite the fact there are two maximum security rooms at the new juvenile home. The purpose of building the new Youth Care home was to remove children from the jail, declared Mrs. Virginia Reiman, immediate past president of Youth Care Inc., which built the home. There have been many tears and much agonizing since the youth's death.

Following the death of the boy "we have had conferences with law enforcement officers who feel we must build a separate cottage for the more serious offenders and then provide them with good behavior in the main building," she said.

Law enforcement officers have no power to say where a child is placed, Mrs. Reiman pointed out.

"The child is placed in jail at the discretion of the county judge."

However, juvenile offenders arrested on felony charges are sent routinely in the county jail and not the home, although the maximum security rooms are there. In fact, there are several young people in jail on felony charges at the present time, Sheriff Joe D. Koenig said, adding that this is and has been standard procedure since he took office.

The 15-year-old boy was found dead two weeks ago after he hanged himself in his jail cell. County Judge Mervin Rehner, who also is the juvenile judge, said the boy had originally been sent to the juvenile home on a previous charge for a time was in one of the maximum security rooms there. He was later transferred to one of the regular rooms and began going to school again on orders of the judge.

Then one day he and two of the girls at the home did not come back from school. The boy was later picked up in Jacksonville. The girls returned about a week later.

The boy's last arrest before the suicide was for three breaking and entering in the Lake Placid area.

"I had gone as far as I could go," said Rehner, in explaining why the boy had not been placed back in the juvenile home. "Under state law we can transfer them to the adult court if we feel we have done all we can do."

He added that he "did not even know he had been picked up when I was called as coroner on the case."

The Sheriff's office, however, had promptly notified juvenile counselor Susan Edgar. The boy was picked up on a Tuesday night and was informed early Wednesday morning. He was found dead in his cell Thursday morning.

It is the juvenile judge's prerogative to assign juveniles accused of a felony to the juvenile home. The sheriff must take them to the home.

Rehner said the youth had had three "serious breaking and entering cases since running away from the home. If they have a previous history of arrests I am not too deeply concerned about seeing them that first day they are apprehended."

Lemar Carlton, chairman of the Board of Visitors, appointed by the judge, said it is not part of his group's obligation to determine where offenders are lodged.

The board of visitors is never consulted in cases like this," he said. "Our job is to tend to the internal running of the home and we are so charged by statute."

It is the job of the juvenile counselor and the judge in matters such as those where juvenile offenders are placed, he said, "and there is no need for us to be consulted."

Mrs. Louise Guenther, a member of the Board of Visitors, took a different view, however. "We came back from the state Woman's Club meeting to discover we had been winning fourth in the state for our work on the Juvenile Home Community Improvement Project to find a 15-year-old boy had been put in jail and not in the Youth Care home."

"The same has two maximum security rooms that could take care of anything a cell in county jail could. No member of the Board of Visitors is notified in this case. We read it in the paper. The Board of Visitors is supposed to have charge of any place where a juvenile, a ward of the state, is placed, and to see that they are properly taken care of."

A felony is a crime carrying a large fine of more serious law violations, including arson, rape, forgery, breaking and entering involving more than $100.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

There has been a good deal of discussion about the city selling land for a proposed center. The action of the majority of the City Council was based on recommendation of the City engineers as to future need for the land in question as per the copy of their letter attached.

Sincerely yours,
William K. Crews
City Clerk

Dear Mr. Crews:

In response to your letter of April 17, we have studied the foreseeable land requirements for additional polishing ponds and sludge drying facilities. We conclude that in conjunction with expansion of the Water Pollution Control Facility an additional pond area of 3.4 acres is required. This land is held by state and federal regulations. Also, this area is sufficient to allow evaporation and percolation in excess of treated wastewater flows for a number of years. Evaporation and percolation will provide a 100 percent degree of treatment according to state policy. Also, an additional area of 0.35 acres will be required for sludge drying beds.

The total area required is 3.75 acres — 95 percent of the area in question. Therefore, we recommend that the City of Avon Park retain all its land holdings between US Highway 27 and Lake Glenda, South of the Water Pollution Control Facility and North of the hosiery factory.

If there are any questions in this regard, please call us. Dawkins & Associates, Inc. Consulting Engineers.

The group left Thursday by private automobile and enjoyed a picnic in a park on the shore of the Suwannee River. Saturday the troop visited the Childrens Museum, a museum of pioneer days in Florida. Later the girls had lunch at Florida State University and took a tour of the campus. At the FSU art museum they enjoyed a special showing on psychedelic lights by a group of young artists at the university. They also saw a special exhibit of works by Mr. Zee, artist in residence of the university.

Saturday evening the girls were guests of Jim Turnbull's mother who treated them to a hamburger supper at MacLay Park.

Sunday the girls attended church and on the drive home stopped for three hours at Rainbow Springs.

30 Seconds That Can Change Life?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

Thirty Seconds That Can Change Your Life!

Everyone, from weight-reducing clubs to investment salesmen, have used that advertisement catch-line!

And, no doubt, it has caught a lot of attention, too — because almost everyone is alert to the call of instant success.

Can anyone seriously maintain the idea that such success could actually come in 30 seconds? Even the most ambitious "rags-to-riches" schemes are not as fast as that!

Thirty seconds can be the introduction to an idea that can eventually have life-changing effects — but the changes themselves come more slowly.

Everyone knows that, in the area of business, yet its significance is often realized in the area of spiritual truth.

Instant Metamorphosis?

Countless Christians proclaim that an instantaneous transformation will occur, the moment a believer accepts Jesus Christ as his personal Savior. And they are usually right in what they say — that Jesus will give eternal life and the Holy Spirit will lead to abundant life — but often what they imply is misleading.

The implication is that the new convert will be immediately noticeably different.

And he may be. The classic example is Paul, who, as Jesus briefly, on the way to Damascus, and was suddenly transformed from a persecutor of Christians to the chief of Christ's apostles.

This account, however, is not quite accurate — or, at least, not quite complete. Paul did not become a mature believer overnight.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Talk given April 22, to Avon Park Rotary Club on "The Pollution Problem." Robert Barben, program chairman for April, arranged for the program Wednesday, April 22, and Sam Polston, our guest speaker, spoke on water pollution control. He pointed out that there was a growing concern nationally about our water pollution as well as air.

He reminded us that President Nixon has committed us to spending several billion dollars to help maintain our air and water more pure. Mr. Polston stated that people create the pollution problem. The daily by-products of people providing for their existence and livelihood without regard for the future is the main reason for our polluted planet.

Mr. Polston listed eight different categories of water pollution agents and elaborated on each of them: sediment, sewage, infectious agents, salts, organics, atomic heat. He noted that, to most our surprise, that salt and sediment was by far the biggest problem in water pollution.

Most of all water pollution can be identified readily back to the source—except sediment. Millions of tons of this is created by poor farming practice, as well as the development of urban sprawl—for example, like the ones now going on around Washington, D. C. Along the Potomac River where the soils are highly erodible.

He pointed out that not only the population explosion, but the concentration of the population into the urban areas, only serving to magnify the pollution problem. The mechanization of agriculture is also making it necessary to concentrate our livestock population into larger feedlots and dairies. The concentration of livestock creates a problem whereas, if they were spread out there would be none, but this is no longer profitable to the farmer.

Mr. Polston said "to clean up the polluted matter that we have made it to be expensive, we all agree that something needs to be done about it soon. Let's be sure that what we do is right, and not act in haste, because that makes waste, and above all let's be sure we are willing to pay the price, because it is going to cost us."

County Signs Contract For Public Dump

Highlands County commissioners have concluded a contract with the city of Avon Park to provide a public garbage dump for the northern portion of the county.

The city had been charging a fee for dumping at the city's dump pits. At the commission meeting Tuesday the county board approved payment of $900 per year to city to provide the space and supervisors who will work five days per week.

The dump will be open six days per week. Commissioner Cecil Skipper, who negotiated the new agreement with the Avon Park City Council, said the county will provide some equipment for periodic pushing of the waste materials.

"We hope these new arrangements will encourage people to take trash to the proper dump and stop a lot of this littering along the roads," Skipper said Tuesday.

Council Criticized For Rejecting Sale of Land

Members of the Avon Park City Council have received considerable criticism this week for not selling a piece of property in industrial park to Highlands County Computer Center. The property was in the area near the sewer treatment plant and Dawkins and Associates advised the city that the land was not suitable for the plant because it will be needed in the future if the city ever expands its facilities.

The engineers said, the little more than three acres, should be used as a drainage field to purify water from the plants. To purify water without the field would cost approximately 20 cents per thousands gallons of water. Now the city uses 30,000 gallons per day, which would cost $42 per week.

The council offered the computer center some property joining Highway 27 across the road but officials said the land was not suitable and would look for a site elsewhere. There are reports that land was purchased further south on 27.

County Schools Receive $181,522

For its April allocation of funds from the Minimum Foundation Program Highlands County schools received $181,522, according to a report from Fred O. Dickinson, Jr., comptroller of Florida. The allocation from MFP was $183,081 in April, 1969. Robert Stewell, finance officer for Highlands County schools, said this county received a small cut in its basic MFP appropriation for 1969-70, but overall this county's share of state funds have not been cut for this year.

REGISTRATION For the first term of the Summer semester moved along with students discussing their classes while waiting to register at South Florida Junior College Friday. Roberta Flowers and Mrs. Dan Bennett is fascinated by the sights and sounds of the strange new world of the college campus.

lyn Smith with cards and papers ready is listening to Charlie Maggenheimer and an unidentified student tell of their class plans. Jimmy Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bennett is fascinated by the sights and sounds of the strange new world of the college campus.

Plans Made For Road, Bridge Headquarters Building

A proposal to build a Highlands County Road and Bridge Department headquarters at Lakemont was unveiled at Highlands County Commission on Tuesday.

County Administrator Engineer Charles Morgan said he hopes much of the road track bond money budgeted for road and bridge building and equipment $100,000 can be used for a modern shop which would replace the present county barns at Sebring and Avon Park.

All mechanical work is concentrated in the Sebring area on Hawthorne St. "It is extremely difficult to maintain a piece of equipment under the conditions we have," Morgan commented.

"We have no place to work except out in the open. This is a 'shade tree' operation without the tree. I'd like to see our mechanics have a shop to work in."

"I'm a strong believer in preventive maintenance," Morgan said, adding that without a hotel and other garage equipment maintenance is almost impossible. He indicated that he had been studying a piece of county-owned land near State Road 17 between Sebring and Avon Park as a possible site.

He noted that the county owns a 25-acre tract, "part of it swampy and not suitable for much." At another point in the meeting the commission received an offer from Highlands Shrine Club to purchase approximately two acres in the North-east corner of that tract, the site of the fish and game club which the Shriners have under lease.

County Attorney Hue E. Nunnallee advised the board that if the parcel is to be sold the commission must advertise the property and sell it to the highest bidder.

The commissioners said they would discuss these provisions with the Shrine Club before deciding whether to offer the property for sale. They pointed out that the Shriners have made extensive improvements on the fish and game club and may not wish to risk losing their investment to a higher bidder.

Morgan said possible sale of the fish and game club area would interfere with his proposal for building the new road and bridge headquarters.

The fish and game club is currently being used by the county as a polling place for precinct 4.

Shorter Meeting
The commissioners completed their meeting just before noon Tuesday, making it one of the shortest meetings of the year.

Much of the almost-three hour session was given to drawing up a list of design changes to be requested for the southern segment of US 27. The changes, most of them suggested by Commissioner Jean Whitaker, would include adding an extra cross-over between those now proposed.

Afternoon Star Route Will Continue

Postmaster Bob Young announced today that the afternoon Star Route mail from the Lakeland Sectional Center Facility which had been cancelled will continue until further notice. Word of the cancellation of this intended change in service was received from Regional Headquarters Thursday, Apr. 30 prior to the effective date of May 2, but to late to make last week's edition of the Avon Park Sun.

vided at State Road 17 at Lake Placid and Lake McCoy Drive, deceleration and acceleration lanes on the East side of the highway at Holiday Inn, move the first crossover North of the Blair's Den to line up with an existing road, provide highway entrances for all streets coming out of Highway Park.

Morgan read a letter from Carl E. Royer of Lake Placid criticizing the board for spending too much road money on 27, complaining, "Sometimes someone wants to go somewhere other than 27."

Support Legislation
Several pieces of legislation were studied Tuesday and received the formal support of the commission. One bill calls for the state to pay all salaries for county health units and half of the non-salary operating costs. Morgan said this bill could cut costs in this county from $56,374 this year to $7,200.

A constitutional amendment is proposed to require a vote with-in the affected areas before any county can be abolished or merged with others.

Another bill clarifies home rule provisions of the new constitution.

Other Business
In other business Tuesday the board set a 30 miles per hour speed limit for the extension of DeSoto Road East of the DeSoto City Rd.

Received a letter from L. N. Winters, Jr., "N. Lakes" developer, outlining the board that overly strict zoning regulations would hamper county development.

Band students that performed solos and ensembles in the Florida Bandmasters Association annual band contest last Saturday in Sarasota, and received superior rating were Mike Bradberry, tuba solo, Mike Eberle, trumpet solo, horn quartet, John Harrison, Gail Metheny, Sherwin Mackintosh and Debbie Clark.

Those receiving excellent rating were David Flowers, cornet solo, Debbie Hebenwal, trombone solo, Vic McKinnis, trumpet solo, drum quartet, Milton Howard, Tom Capron, Don Streeth and Bruce Peterson; clarinet trio, Roberts Bearman, Phyllis Boardman and the Mackintosh; Gail Metheny, piano and Sherwin Mackintosh, piano.

Judges for the solos and ensembles were Dr. Gale Sperry of the University of South Florida, Tampa, and William Gower, Hattiesburg, Miss. The University of Southern Mississippi.

Mayor Vetoes Phone Tax As Company Increases Rates

Mayor Bob Barben vetoed the telephone franchise ordinance which was on a five year basis with one percent of the gross receipts of Avon Park going to the city. The mayor in his veto requested the franchise to be put on a year-to-year basis subject to cancellation by the city on a 60-day notice.

The one percent franchise is all the public service commission will allow on a telephone company. Anything over that must be passed on to customers. For the past 30 years the company paid the city no franchise tax.

The PSC just granted the company a rate increase. Bills for telephone service in this area after May will reflect the recently approved rate increase, up from 66c to $1.50 on residence phones, 50-70c for business phones.

L. E. Travis, president of United Telephone, said that the rate increases and adjusted service charges now approved by the Florida Public Service Commission will be reflected in all customer bills dated on or after May 1.

Travis said the order involves monthly increases in all basic residential and business rates as well as the reduction or modification of certain equipment and service charges.

Here's how the rates were upped here:

Junior College
Will Increase Tech Curriculum

South Florida Junior College will increase its vocational-technical curriculum by 100 per cent when the 1970-71 school year opens August 1.

Courses being initiated in the Fall term are cosmetology, auto mechanics, agricultural mechanics, lawn care and commercial house-keeping.

These are being added to programs already being offered: refrigeration and air conditioning, television electronics, child care and drafting and design.

H. Dean Griffin, dean of the SFJC vocational-technical division, said registration for all these programs will be conducted August 26 through 28 at the admission office on the Junior College campus. Classes begin on August 31.

Dean Griffin said students who wish to enter SFJC as vocational students must be at least 18 years of age. In the registration and admissions process, he said, students will be tested and evaluated to help determine whether each applicant has the background and training necessary to successfully complete the course he wishes to enter.

High school students may enroll in vocational training courses in connection with their high school studies.

from $6.80 to $7.45; two-party, $4.74-$6.45 (70c); four party, $3.10 to $5.70 (60c); and multi-party $4.60 to $5.10 (50c).

Business: one party, up $1.50, from $11.70 to $13.20; two party, up from $8.90 to $10.40; three party up 95c, $7.70 to $8.65 and multiparty, up $1 from $7.20 to $8.20. All prices are plus tax.

Almost other charges are a $10 one-time installation charge for phone jacks and elimination of the present 40 cents monthly recurring charge. However, the rate for extensions is unchanged.

Increases will, in addition be more effective for moves, and equipment changes and installations. These monthly charges will now range from $7 to $11 for residences and $8 to $16 for businesses.

The company said that all customer bills reflecting the new rates would contain a special printed insert explaining details of the changes.

A company official pointed out that the newly authorized rates do not include state or local taxes where applicable.

LAW ENFORCEMENT officers in this area are learning from competent instructors skills necessary in their job. Shown above are left, Jessie Massey, Chief of Police, Frostproof and right, Elijah Smith, Deputy Sheriff of Highlands County being instructed in the use of a traffic computer by instructor, R. A. According to H. D. Griffin, Dean of Vocational, Technical and Continuing Education at the college, all prospective officers and new employees in the law enforcement field are required to successfully pass this course prior to being authorized to perform their duties. Members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation of Miami, local law enforcement officers, and experts from other areas are utilized as instructors throughout the course.

Former Business Manager Highlands General Hospital Denies Charges by County GOP Leader

The following is an open letter to the Board of Commissioners of Highlands General Hospital, a copy of which was sent to The Avon Park Sun. In the interest of presenting both sides of a story, we are hereby reprinting it.

I have recently submitted my resignation as business manager of Highlands General Hospital to the administrator, Steve Yeager, as result of certain misleading, reckless, highly emotional charges made before this Board with regard to my character, general conduct and ability to do my job.

Needless to say, these accusations have caused me great mental anguish because, like Pandora's box of troubles, once unleashed, the rumors, half-truths, and outright fabrications, can never be undone. Highlands County has been my home for many years, and what this has done to my wife and nine children is beyond my ability to describe. I do feel, however, that I must make some effort to set the record straight.

Because I was involved in an unfortunate accident that could have happened to most of the decent, law-abiding, God-fearing persons I have associated with in Highlands County over the past 20 years — given the same set of circumstances — this situation has been exploited and distorted seemingly without regard for the consequences to anyone.

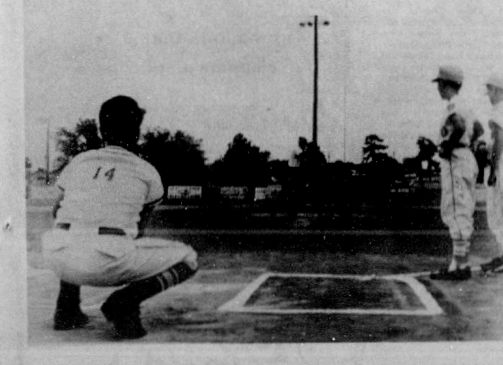

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Yeager for the kindness and consideration he has shown me during our time together. He would not be stampeded by threats nor demands, but based his decisions always on the facts before him, and those decisions have been his honest convictions. He has not asked for my resignation, and I shall always be grateful to him. As your business manager since January of this year, I have had an opportunity to observe the results of his efficient and effective administration. I should like to point up some of his accomplishments.

He has brought stable relationships to all segments of the staff. Most important, he has brought sound fiscal responsibility to the hospital and improved its total operation in all areas.

I could hope that my resignation would serve the purpose of allowing Highlands General Hospital to return to its primary function of serving the medical needs of the citizens of Highlands County. However, I believe the same individuals, and one in particular, that have made these reckless, inflammatory statements against my

City Council Holds Special Meeting With Zoning Board Monday

The Avon Park City Council and zoning board met in a special meeting Monday to hear recommendations the zoning board had on several items at the council's request.

The parking of trailers anywhere in the city is an old problem. The city is trying to get all trailers in good trailer parks where there are good sanitary conditions, and some are being lived in. The city has an ordinance to restrict trailers to trailer parks and also sanitary regulations, but they have not been enforced. Many have been in violation for 20 years or more.

The zoning board suggested the city attorney make a thorough study of the trailer and zoning ordinances and make a comprehensive report to the city council. They also recommended that when the city prepares their next budget to include in it the salary of a full time building inspector.

three days before the building inspector could make him move. When he (Heim) asked about sanitary conditions the owner said he had seen raw garbage running on top of the ground at one trailer park in the city.

There are presently 11 trailer parks licensed in the city which contain from one to many trailers and the city sells most of them water at the bulk rate, then owners sell the water to individual trailers, this the zoning board seems to think was against the law and that the city should have their own meter. This would prevent water from backing up from big storage tanks some of the trailers have and contaminating other people's waters.

The zoning board suggested the city attorney make a thorough study of the trailer and zoning ordinances and make a comprehensive report to the city council. They also recommended that when the city prepares their next budget to include in it the salary of a full time building inspector.

Crash Program To Eradicate German Measles Starts This Week

A crash program to eradicate German measles will begin with the vaccination of 1500 Highlands County children next week.

Dr. J. C. Brooks, acting director of Highlands County Health Department, said his staff will be vaccinating children in day care centers, kindergartens, first and second grades. Only children whose parents have given written permission will be vaccinated.

"German measles — or rubella — is harmless to children who are already born, and this type of measles can only be had once. But if a woman catches rubella during the first two months of pregnancy, it can cause blindness, other physical disabilities, even mental retardation or death," Dr. Brooks said.

"The concept is to vaccinate all children up to the age of puberty, removing the major portion of those who carry the disease. The immediate result of the rubella vaccination effort will be to keep children from catching the disease, then carrying it to mothers or women of child-bearing age in the neighborhoods," Dr. Brooks explained.

He said that even limited vaccination of lower grade students — where rubella epidemics travel quickly — can make a "major reduction."

A permission slip to be signed and returned to the school, day care center or kindergarten, The Highlands County Medical Society has approved the drive, and the vaccine is being provided by the state Division of Health.

The vaccinations will be given by members of the county health department staff. The drive opens in Sebring and Avon Park on Monday, May 11. Vaccinations will be given at Avon Elementary and a Hopewell school on Monday.

Agricultural Bill Passes

The House Agriculture Committee has temporarily passed a bill to provide matching funds for local agricultural fairs and livestock shows although Rep. George Baumgartner, of North Miami, said state revenues may be short and funds not available.

The bill would allocate $500,000 to several counties, with Highlands County slated for $8,000. County Agent Bert Harris, who manages the Highlands County Fair, said "we are thinking about a little remodeling work—probably closing in around the stage and a little more."

The building housing the skating rink and auto show at the Fairgrounds were built with the aid of state matching funds, Harris said, and cost the county $20,000 "ages ago."

Here is a capsule report of some of the actions this past week in the Legislature, now in session in Tallahassee.

Legislation dealing with automobile thefts and providing someone convicted of stealing a car automatically has his driver's license revoked, is before Gov. Claude Kirk for signature.

A Senate committee Friday rejected a bill allowing branch banking in Florida.

The Senate approved the canoe fishing bill requiring almost every fresh water fisherman in Florida to buy a $5 license.

Florida's competent insurance firms must pay for the mistakes of had companies under a security fund bill which sailed through the Legislature Friday.

What Is Answer To Drug Problem?

What is the answer to the problem of drugs? What advice should be given to young people wondering whether they should experiment with drugs to enlarge their understanding of themselves?

Conflicting advice comes from many sources.

Here is some advice from young people who have had experience with drugs.

A young university student — Andy Anderson — committed suicide by dosing himself and his car with gasoline, then starting a fire. He left a note, in which he said:

"Please forgive me, parents, for quitting after I have ruined me, but I cannot live with myself any longer."

"This 'Death' I had a very bad experience with a drug called mescaline. I have smoked a little pot before, but I tried mescaline only once. Since then I have not been in control of my mind. I have killed myself because I can no longer run my own affairs and I can only be trouble and worry to those who love and care for me. I have tried to strangle myself out, but things are only getting worse.

"To those of my friends who might also think about learning about themselves with mind-expanding drugs — don't."

A tragic end to a life which had been full of promise.

I could feel the control over myself slipping away."

His wife, he said, "felt something like this, too."

But they were fortunate. They met some Christians — real Christians — who were interested in them. They went to the community where these people live.

"It was in this Christian community that we began at last to find answers," Jeff said.

"One You're Searching For"

"One day, all by ourselves, we had our own Pentecost and accepted Jesus. Later we were both baptized in the creek and also legally married. People came from everywhere for the wedding — hippies still on acid, and straight people. We spent the whole day telling them, 'Jesus is the One you're searching for!'"

His young wife, Carrie, said, "The Holy Spirit has power — greater power than the untold spirit." He enabled us to kick drugs in a matter of days when we'd been on them for so many years — and that's a miracle."

It's tragic that the young man who killed himself did not know of the power that is able to set people free — even from drug addiction.

The Bible says, "Ye shall know the truth — and the truth shall make you free."

The best answer to the problem of drug abuse is for young people to take the advice of those who have learned the hard way — don't do it.

For those who are already hooked, there is a way out. It is the way that Jeff and Carrie found.

character and ability without knowing me, will continue to plague this administration in a raw political attempt to control and run this board on a political basis.

I would certainly hope that those here tonight who are of mine who have observed the behavior of this individual, would take note of what he is doing and what he is doing it.

The fact that I have given my resignation does not excuse the careless and unfounded charges, nor the character assassination indulged in, and to the full extent of legal recourse, I intend to seek justice. Free speech and responsibility go hand in hand and I presently have all statements that are a matter of public record under legal surveillance, so an individual, who has been sheltered by the board of directors, and privilege most of his adult life, can be held accountable for the legal damage he has done.

Highlands County is my home, I pay taxes, go to church, and work. I would like to say that this experience will not affect me in the years to come, but this is my home, and therefore, it is my hope and wish to do anything that will contribute to making Highlands County a more desirable place to live. Certainly, an outstanding hospital helps to meet this goal.

If this board will do what most of the decent citizens of Highlands County, be they Republican or Democrat, desire — and that is to take politics out of the operation of this facility — the general public and the administration, then the Highlands General can meet its challenge. I call on the public to hold you accountable, should you take the other course.

Question — I am 66 years old and have never signed up for the supplementary medical insurance under Medicare. I've decided now that I want this insurance. When can I sign up?

Answer — You may sign up anytime between now and April 1, 1970. Although you may sign up during this period, your medical insurance will not be effective until July 1, 1970.

Question — I am a widow, aged 65. If I re-marry next month, can I draw social security on my first husband's record at age 65?

Answer — No. However, if you re-marry after age 60, you could draw your widow's benefit on the record of your first husband.

Question — I receive widow's benefits and am almost 65. I want to sign up for Medicare, but I have never worked under social security. Do I have to have any quarters of coverage to qualify?

Answer — No. Since you are receiving widow's benefits, you will automatically be entitled to Medicare when you reach age 65.

Question — My husband is the owner of a small business. I work for him occasionally and he pays me just as he does other employees. Should social security taxes be sent in on my earnings?

Answer — No. Earnings of an individual working for his or her spouse are not subject to social security tax, or to social security credit.

Question — I've heard that I must report my mail's earnings if I pay her at least $50 in a calendar quarter. Just what is a calendar quarter?

Answer — Divide the year into four parts (or quarters), three months each. January, February, and March make up one quarter; April, May, and June another; July, August, and September the third quarter; October, November, and December comprise the final quarter of the year.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOB

THE NATION'S YOUTH

NOT MAJORING IN HISTORY?

Judging on the contents of a five-column article in the Tampa Tribune on Sunday, April 12, the nation's school population is not making a very great effort to keep up with late history, and, judging by that, most likely, on ancient history either.

Merriman Smith, UPI White House reporter sent out a five-column story with a 500-word headline: "New Deal's Creator of 'Vas' Social Change Heralded Mainly Now As A Foe On A Dime." A college history major put aside his senior year paper on government and remarked: "The main thing most young people today know about Franklin D. Roosevelt is that his picture is on a dime."

A high school senior, approached on the same subject, responded, "Actually, we heard more about Teddy Roosevelt in school — the charge on San Juan Hill and things like that."

These reactions may not be typical, but they do indicate that many young Americans do not appreciate how greatly the innovations of FDR and his New Deal have influenced their day-to-day lives. Twenty-five years, ago, April 12, Franklin D. Roosevelt died, the victim of a massive brain hemorrhage suffered at Warm Springs, Ga., a resort and healing spa which he made famous.

Roosevelt was one of the most controversial and personally powerful figures to hold the American presidency — defeating Herbert C. Hoover, Alf M. Landon, Wendell Willkie, and Thomas E. Dewey. The Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in December, 1941, and Roosevelt's leadership during the war have drawn so much opposition, the draft and lend lease, moved about swiftly and the glamorous Willkie was defeated easily.

This poor writing, viewing the manner in which many of the high school and college attendants have conducted themselves during the past few years, is not vastly astonished that they have heard very little about the great men of the past in the United States. The Communist influences around our institutions of learning (?) have managed to handle the youth in colleges and high schools in their campaign that has brought multiplied thousands of them into almost rebellion against that the U.S.A. once stood for.

I BELIEVE IN THE CHURCH. Most of us agree that Protestants have never hammered very hard on the duty of going to church. We have said all the time: "It is necessary for the church to make itself attractive and interesting so that people will want to come." There are obligations on the part of the people not to sit home and listen to the radio or watch the television. This is too easy. Do something difficult. Go through rain and snow. You have to feel that you are part of the greatest organization on earth and that it is going to outlast all the rest of them. You've got to feel the importance of your own participation in its life. You can't go around tramping from church to church and failing that obligation. You've got to settle on one church and throw your life into it and help build it up. Who would want to go to a picnic all the time and eat out of other people's baskets?

It is an obligation as members of one church or another church to give ourselves to it. It is the only hope of peace and goodwill to men that exists among us. It is the Church and its Savior, the Prince of Peace, and is a high and holy opportunity to support it with your undeviating loyalty." — Carl Sandburg

Those songs of sense and feeling, the songs of long ago! The "Jungle Joy" effusions and kindred rounds really will do to him and whistle throughout the busy days; and in the garish time-right the jazzbands may shoot and yell on my TV when the racket sounds like Hell!

Sing a song of long ago, now the weary day is done, and the breeze is sighing low dirges for the vanished sun; sing a song of other days, ere our hearts grew tired and old, sing the sweetest of ancient lays, "Silver Bells Are Ringing." The old — Or when the daylight cares are over and worries all laid in the shade, then let some master of the fiddle play that "Schubert's Serenade." Then before you get too weary, I can hear them over and over, and hear the something sweet and cheery from that gem "Il Trovatore."

The modern airs are awful and far from being sweet; we hear them on the TV and whistled from the street. Some lulling jazz-time holder that's rocking and gay will gain the public favor and hold it—for a day? The Law of Diminishing Returns

Wednesday was a banner day for Rotary Club of Avon Park. Our guest speaker was Mrs. Kenneth Fisher, the wife of a prisoner of war in Vietnam.

Mrs. Fisher is a member of the National League of Families with prisoners in Vietnam. Her project has been aided by Mr. Perot, the millionaire from Texas who promoted "United We Stand."

As we have been aware the league has been active visiting Paris, Washington and elsewhere to present their petitions for assistance. Her talk was impromptu but deeply sincere and effective. Her appeal was for letters to our Congressmen, the New York Times and others. She particularly referred to:

Senator Spearhead Holland, U. S. Senate Bldg., Washington, D. C. 20500.

Representative Paul Rogers, Sam Rayburn Office Bldg., Washington, D. C. 20500.

A hard-to-be stressed was the difficulty wives have been subjected to with the absence of their husbands when they want to dispose of securities or real estate to raise funds.

Over 25 million men, women, and children now receive Social Security checks every month. These checks amount to over $2 billion.

Post Office Expands City Delivery

Effective May 2 city delivery service was extended to many areas formerly receiving delivery by rural carrier. The change provides 90 percent of the patrons living inside the city limits with city delivery.

In making the change, patrons affected will be able to use street names and house numbers for their mailing addresses. This will eliminate the necessity of changing addresses as was the case when changes were made in a rural route line of travel. All patrons inside the city limit should contact city hall for their correct house numbers and display them on the front of the house, visible from the street. Mail boxes in these areas must be located at the curb. It is desirable that patrons locate their cub boxes in groups of two's at the property line of adjoining neighbor. This will assist in keeping the boxes clear of parked cars and allow the carrier to serve two boxes with one stop.

Business firms should take advantage of the free service provided them in the updating and correction of their mailing lists. The post office corrects patrons mailing addresses free of charge when a change is made in delivery services requiring address changes. Address Corrections not resulting from a delivery service change are made for a charge of 5c per address. For further information please call the post office 453-6669.

Perry Named Juvenile Counselor

On the recommendation of Judge Mervin Rehner, John Perry, III, has been named chief counselor for Highlands County Juvenile Court.

Highlands County commissioners, at their meeting Tuesday, approved the appointment at a $7,500 salary. Commissioner Ben McGee, who represented the commission on the Merit Board committee which screened applicants, said Perry is now a graduate student in the Florida State University social work school. He is 28 years old. His wife is a school teacher.

McGee said it is his understanding that Mrs. Susan Edger, who has been acting as counselor since the resignation of W. Robert Lindsay, would remain on the counselor staff, working on a part-time basis with girls who are wards of the Juvenile Court.

Lamar Carlton, chairman of the Merit Board, said the board had received many applications for the counselor post and had seriously considered 16. Perry is expected to assume his duties here in two weeks.

Young People Explores Drug

Young people of Avon Park will explore the current drug scene here Friday night. The evening, sponsored by the Adult Training Union Department of the First Baptist Church, centers around the film, "The Youth Drug Scene," which will be shown to create interest and concern and lead to questions which will be answered during the panel discussion which will follow. Panelists who plan to share their knowledge with the youth will include: Maynard Hall, pharmacist; Dr. Samuel King; O. L. Raulerson, county sheriff; Department; Rev. Aden D. Childers, pastor, First Baptist Church, and Gerald Wicker, Jr. A question and answer period will also be included to attempt to clear the air of many decisions to be reached by the young people.

The session will be held Friday, May 8, at 8:30 P.M. in the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church, corner of North Lake Avenue and Church Street.

A period of folk singing, recreation, and good food will follow the program and the fun will continue until midnight. The entire evening is free of charge and all Avon Park young people are invited to come to the drug Friday night. And bring a friend!

Scout Troop 814 Celebrates 1st Anniversary

Monday, Apr. 27, was family night for members of Boy Scout Troop 814 and members of their families and friends as they celebrated their first anniversary.

The four active patrols entertained with skits and Charles Klein, Sr. Patrol Leader and Barry Beumel entertained with magic tricks after which the decorated birthday cake, ordered for occasion, was enjoyed with punch served by the mothers committee.

It was not all play, however, as the following scouts were advanced: Second Class—Richard Norris and Larry Green; Tenderfoot Class—Jan Johnson and Tommy Johnston. Charles Klein was advanced to new Junior Assistant Scoutmaster and Barry Beumel was advanced to Sr. Patrol Leader.

Johnny Johnston, Scoutmaster gave a brief history of the troop stating that the first meeting was held one year ago with five charter members, Charles Klein, Steve Tomek, Bobby Young, David Melhry and Johnny Johnston. Today the troop has 28 registered members.

The troop is holding a father and son fishathon Saturday, May 9 and the mothers will join them for a fish fry, at Camp We-Dun-It on Lake Arbuckle, that evening.

BOY SCOUTS that were advanced in ceremonies Monday, Apr. 27 are left to right, Tommy Johnston, and Jan Johnson, advanced to tenderfoot; Richard Norris and Larry Green, advanced to second class. Their mothers stand behind each boy.

DONNIE DeLANEY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon DeLaney is shown here practicing his putting game for the Bagwell Lumber Company's first annual Junior Golf tournament, to be held at River Greens Golf course June 12, 13 and 14. Miss Debbie Pack is the pretty caddy.

Four Members Track Team Qualify For State

The Avon Park Red Devil track team placed third in the nine-team District 7, Class B meet held in Fort Meade last Friday. Four members of the Devil squad qualified for the state meet to be held in Gainesville tomorrow (Friday). In order to qualify for the state competition, a boy had to finish first or second in the district meet.

Roy Claitt took first place in the 100-yard dash with a time of 16.1 seconds and also finished first in the 220-yard dash with a time of 22.55 seconds. Walter Nunnallee qualified in the 120-yard hurdles with a second place time of 15.65 seconds and Willie Joe Seigler earned a berth in the 220-yard dash with a second place behind Claitt in 23.0 seconds.

Then the Avon Park 880-yard relay team qualified with a second place behind the Fort Meade team. The Devil relay team was clocked at 1 minute, 32.8 seconds. James Perdue ran the first leg of the half mile relay. W. Nunnallee picked up the baton for the second leg. Roy Claitt ran the third leg, and Willie Joe Seigler was anchor man on the team. These four boys will go to Gainesville with Devil coach Chet Brojek this week to represent Avon Park at the state meet.

Fort Meade won the Class B District 7 meet last week with a total of 97 points. Frostproof came in second with 97½ points and the Red Devils took the third place right behind Frostproof with 96 points.

Others scoring for Avon Park in the district meet were Jim Magenheimer with a third place in the high jump with a leap of 5' 6" and Leroy Collins with a third place in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:08.6.

Finishing fourth in the nine-team competition were Seigler in the 100-yard dash with a time of 16.35 seconds; Nunnallee in the 180-yard low hurdles in 21.8 seconds; Joe Franza in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:10.9; and the mile relay team with a time of 3:54.2.

Fred Jahna turned in a fifth place in the mile run with a time of 5:10.7 and Sam Dasher took sixth place in the 440-yard run to close out the Devil scoring.

To Live better "in the 70's" this summer... check your air conditioning NOW!

Pick a warm day soon and turn on your air conditioning. Summer's just around the corner - and so's your air conditioning service man. Is every room as cool as you like it? Need new filters? Repairs? Maybe it's time for a new unit. Or a whole new system. Have you asked about heat pumps... for automatic year-round comfort?

And if you do not yet enjoy the blessings of air conditioning, now is the time to install it. Because many dealers and contractors offer off-season inducements. Many offer attractive easy terms.

Before you know it, summer weather will arrive. For the sake of your own cool comfort, for the sake of economy, check your air conditioning now!

check list for efficient, economical air conditioning

- FILTERS Replace filters frequently. Clogged filters make unit work harder and cause higher operating costs.
- OUTDOOR SECTION Keep clear of plants and other obstructions. Anything that interferes with air flow makes unit work harder.
- RETURN AIR GRILL Keep furniture or drapes clear of grill. Anything that interferes with delivery or return of air will not allow unit to cool properly.
- WINDOWS AND DOORS Use drapes or provide outside shading to shut out heat from the sun.
- INSULATION Adequate insulation will result in lower operating costs. Proper attic ventilation increases the effectiveness of insulation.

operating hints:

- TEMPERATURE SETTING For economy set the thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature. (Usually about 78°)
- FAN SETTING Operate the fan on "Auto" or "On" for your individual comfort. "Auto" gives best summer humidity control and economical operation. "On" gives more uniform air motion, sound level, and room to room temperature.
- AWAY FROM HOME Operate your air conditioning unit at 5° to 10° above normal setting with fan on "Auto" for mild protection and quick comfort when you return.

SAVE $50 Remember... any Florida Power Corporation residential customer who removes flame-type heating and replaces it with whole-house electric heating and cooling between now and May 31, 1970 will receive a $50 installation allowance from us. (Minimum capacity, 18,000 BTU's.) Ask your dealer or contractor for all details.

This is Oldsmobile's year at Indy.

Isn't it your year for an Olds?

The knowing folks at Indy just named Olds 4-4-2 official pace car for this year's 500. For good reason. Olds is not only an excellent performer, it's a winner in looks and ride as well.

The fact is, every 1970 Olds is a peacemaker. And it goes far deeper than performance.

You find it in great engineering, in exceptional comfort in ride and handling that are outstanding. And in the solid quality and dependability you've come to expect from Oldsmobile.

In fact, it's this quality that leads many people to believe that Olds is priced out of their reach. A mistaken notion that might keep you in an ordinary car, instead of an Olds.

The truth of the matter is that many Olds models are priced right down with the low-price names.

Now that you have the facts, isn't this your year to go Oldsmobile? You can probably do so for no more than what you've been paying. See your nearest Olds dealer!

Three Men Rob Liquor Store Saturday

Last Saturday afternoon at approximately 2:30 P.M., three colored males, all described as in their early twenties, entered the Prescott Liquor Store on West Castle St. and robbed Mrs. Patricia Foster, the clerk on duty of an estimated $800.

After entering the store two of the men approached the counter and one went toward the shelf to get a bottle of liquor, he then walked to the opening behind the counter and pulled a gun. He told Mrs. Foster to put all the money from the cash register on the counter, after doing this she was asked if that was all the money there was and after she told him it was he told her to get in the back room. He cocked the gun and told her not to come out. Upon leaving the telephone wires were cut so no calls could be made.

Patricia said she tried to see the car from where she was but could only tell it was light in color and could not make the make. After seeing they were gone she then ran over to the Prescott home and called the police department.

Chief Gordon and Officer Joe Townsend answered the call. Chief Gordon called Officer Britt and Sgt. Connors. The sheriff's office was notified by the station of the holdup and given the description of the men.

Deputies Raulerson, a and Hartfield assisted the local police department in the investigation.

Crackdown On Narcotics Spreads With Youth Arrest

The crackdown on narcotics users and sellers widened this week to Avon Park, with the arrest of a teenager suspected of selling marijuana.

Ernest James Stack, 18, was arrested by Sheriff's deputies Jim Jacobs and Richard Cooper as he drove into Southgate Shopping Center at 9 P.M. Saturday. He was alone. His car yielded no drugs.

Sheriff Joe D. Keene said Stack is suspected of selling to Sebring and Avon Park teenagers. He was arrested on a warrant charging him with unlawful selling of narcotic drugs, issued by County Judge Mervin Rehner, and was arraigned Monday before Rehner. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to Circuit Court on a $3,000 bond. The bond was posted promptly and he was released Monday afternoon.

Two Avon Park girls were picked up Wednesday for questioning only.

The sheriff said the investigation, launched a few months ago, has extended to other cities where suspects have moved within the last two months. Information uncovered here, he said, has been turned over to law enforcement officials in Brevard, Hillsborough and Orange counties. The sheriff said local supplies of drugs are believed to be coming from Tampa, Ft. Lauderdale and Orange County.

The sheriff said his office first started hearing about the narcotics problem at the local level about a year ago "but we were unable to get anything concrete until the last three to six months."

He has had 30,000 pamphlets printed on how to recognize a person who is using drugs and what affect use of such a drug has on a person. They are available free of charge from his office and in the county's financial institutions.

After investigation is completed, criminal information, it is expected, will be filed in the case. Previously arrested were Rick Benscher, charged with selling and Jeffrey Brabant, charged with using hashish, a concentrated form of marijuana. Both are of Sebring and both are free on bond.

After filing of the information, the youths will be arraigned before Judge Clifton Kelly in Circuit Court for plea. Assistant State Attorney Joseph MacBride said there is little chance their cases would come before the June term of court, but it was likely they would be set down for the Fall term.

MEMBERS OF The First Baptist Church hold ground breaking ceremonies for their new $505,000 Sanctuary.

First Baptist Breaks Ground For New $505,000 Sanctuary

A ground-breaking service was held May 11, for a new sanctuary to be built adjacent to the present facilities of First Baptist Church.

Rev. Aden D. Childress, pastor, read scripture from the Psalms of thanksgiving and praise. E. Ray Wells, chairman of the building committee, led in a prayer of dedication.

Those participating in breaking ground were Rev. Childress, Malcolm K. Crews, construction committee E. Ray Wells, building committee and Sol Moseley, contractor.

Attending the ceremonies were superintendents and directors in the following church organizations: Sunday School, Training Union, Brotherhood, Woman's Missionary Union, music, library. Also present were Deacons, church secretaries, members of building and property committees, church members and friends of the church.

This service was a climax of six years work of planning and preparing by property and building committees with the approval of the church. The building program will cost $505,000, which will include the new sanctuary and furnishings and remodeling the present sanctuary.

The new sanctuary will have a seating capacity of 1,050 and will include the pastor's study, music director's office, music practicing rooms, choir robes room, five new classrooms, four new classrooms downstairs, six primary departments upstairs, and enlarged and improved church library, as well as the business office and class rooms already in use.

Building committee members are: E. Ray Wells, chairman; Paul A. McFarland, Malcolm K. Crews, L. H. Ford, Jack DeLaney, Lee Gurganus, Mrs. W. C. Touchton, Mrs. R. E. Lawson, Mrs. Larry Abbitton.

Lloyd Frank Van and Associates, Miami, is the architect; Bennett and Moseley, contractor, are scheduled to complete the sanctuary in 240 days.

Group Attends City Council Meeting To Clarify Trailer Parking Ordinance

Avon Park is growing and the city council is beset with many problems and details as to where to allow free wheeling and where to place restrictions to prevent unsightly or extravagant precedents.

Although there are some outliers where the shoe pinches the city council at least feels the city has benefited greatly through the employment of an efficient and dedicated building inspector. The council feels he has brought money to the city treasury in the form of more building permits, etc. which in the past have often been overlooked, and that his efforts have more than paid his salary as part time employee. Now however, he is seeking full time employment and true to employee tradition has notified the council of advantageous offers elsewhere. Some discussion was held concerning the possibility of using his services part time in other capacities of city employment rather than employing him as full time inspector. The council agreed to discuss his requirements further before taking action of a permanent nature.

Another sign of a city's "growing pains" revolved around questions of mechanization. More, better and more expensive city equipment is a subject continually arising in the council meetings. Bookkeeping machines for the city hall was one of the first topics of discussion on the agenda. Present mechanization has been found not only to be unsatisfactory in its output but excessively expensive. The possibility of buying two less expensive but more reliable machines seemed feasible and the motion was carried that the city advertise for bids on bookkeeping machines.

The subject of radar machines for traffic control was again on the agenda. A motion was passed to have bids for lease purchase of one radar machine. Councilman Martin had some reservations but felt it worthwhile to see what bids would be offered at least. Councilman Floyd, whose ear is often closed to the man on the street, cast a negative vote.

Council chairman Duggan, had earlier been excused to visit his wife in the hospital. Councilman Serdynski took over the gavel for the majority of the session.

In the field of traffic problems there was also some discussion concerning the making of a one-way street, that part of Tulane Circle near the Coca Cola plant. Numerous problems have arisen here due to on-street parking of Coca Cola employees and the lack of visibility at a dangerous railroad crossing.

Coca Cola management has encouraged off-street parking and the council felt a request made for their cooperation in eliminating this traffic hazard would be heeded.

Trailer Parking

The largest group of citizens attending this week's council meeting were present to express their concern in regard to the parking of trailers in the city limits. Our present ordinance on the subject permits only 24 hour parking of visiting trailers in city. J. Paxton Hill spokesman for the visiting delegation sought further information and clarification of the ordinance in regard to trailer parking. City Attorney Hancock said his interpretation of present city law would prohibit parking and living in trailers but would not prohibit the parking of an unoccupied trailer. Mayor Barber, who was a member of the city council when the ordinance was enacted in 1954 expressed the belief it was not intended to bar travel trailers. Councilman Martin, representative on the Zoning Board said the basic concern over trailers was their tendency to lower real estate values in the city, but that trailer-zone areas were under consideration by the Board. Higher standards for existing trailer parks within the city was also discussed.

Other Matters

Many other matters of public concern were touched upon before the meeting adjourned at 11:45 P.M. In spite of the absence of Chairman Duggan for most of the meeting however, only once did any council vote end in a tie.

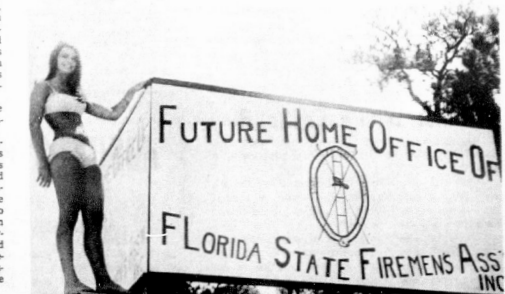

The Telephone Franchise reappeared in mini-skirted attire following the veto of the earlier franchise by Mayor Barber. Previously reduced from a proposed 25 or 30 year franchise to a five-year franchise the latest mini-skirted form covered only barest necessity of a one-year term. After its full and final reading, a copy of the ordinance was delivered to the telephone representative and taken by him for acceptance or rejection by the Telephone Company.

Two matters were on the agenda in regard to city beautification. The matter of clearing up vacant lots and the matter of signs along the city mall between sidewalks and streets. The mayor favors a per diem fine against lot owners who fail to clean up vacant lots. No further action was taken at this meeting.

The city clerk was authorized to request owners to remove signs from the city right-of-way along Main St.

Other citizens appearing before this session of the council were: Phil Briggs requesting grave markers for 12 veteran's graves; County Commissioner Skipper to witness the opening of bids for golf course equipment; Charles Watson speaking for the Florida Power Co. and requesting the council to wire state representatives and senators on pending legislation in Tallahassee approved by the Florida League of Municipalities; Jack W. Seaman relative to bond financing for the proposed city sewer program; and Mrs. Edna Dixon, who braved this traditionally men's territory (being the only woman present) encouraging the city sewer program and demonstrating considerable interest in other activities of the council.

Five hundred dollars was approved for the local chamber of commerce and another $500 for the library. Councilman Serdynski expressed interest in having the city library open some evening during the week for those who cannot visit it in daytime hours. Other councilmen claimed previous attempts to having any evening hours proved unsuccessful.

MISS CECIL ELDER, "Miss Flame" is shown helping erect the new sign that marks the future home office of the Florida State Firemen's Association, Inc.

Dr. Joseph Bondi Will Speak To Lay Committee

Dr. Joseph Bondi of the School of Education, South Florida University, will be guest speaker on Monday, May 18 at the regular meeting of Avon Park Lay Advisory Committee on Education.

Dr. Bondi is the consultant to the Highlands County Schools on the "Continuing Progress Plan" better known as the "Middle School Concept" currently being conducted at Hopewell School in Avon Park and E. O. Douglas School in Sebring.

The Lay committee meets at 8 P.M. at the Avon Park High School. All persons interested in this challenging educational plan are invited to attend.

Our Kids and Drugs

Those of us who thought it couldn't happen here to kids using drugs—were very shocked and depressed to learn that here too, the cancer of narcotics has spread to our young people.
Sheriff Joe D. Keene is spearheading the drive to alert parents and others to youngsters who may be using drugs. He has had 10,000 pamphlets printed for distribution to parents and others on how to spot a user.

The Sheriff's Department is working very hard to get to the facts and the lawbreakers—in this narcotics crackdown. They have the community wholeheartedly behind them. The investigation is continuing at full steam.

Realtor—With a Capital R

Realtors throughout the state have put on a determined drive to get Realtor spelled with a capital R.

The R signifies that Realtor is a trademark word. And it signifies that they have a special place in our society—with a special job to do of which they are very proud.

This next week is a special week—National Realtor Week—and this is the week Realtors let you know they are the professionals in the business world and the community in general.

There are more than 15,500 Realtors and sales associates in Florida alone. Realtor Week enables them to further alert the public to the professional services they render.

The preamble to the Code of Ethics begins: "Under all is the land, and under the land, the survival and growth of free institutions and of our civilization."

The term "Realtor" means that a broker is a member of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, the Florida Association of Realtors, and a local Board of Realtors. To be eligible for membership, a candidate must demonstrate a superior knowledge of the business, possess a record of business integrity, and subscribe to the strict Realtors' code of ethics.

Realtors, well-known for consulting with home seekers and home sellers, also serve as appraisers, industrial experts, property managers, company courtyards, farm experts, and in other capacities related to real estate.

So next week is their week—with a capital R—for capital people, whom we are happy to have in our community.

Local Residents May Be Eligible For New Black Lung Benefits

Some Polk, Hardee, and Highlands counties area residents may be among the first of several thousand disabled miners and widows of miners who are entitled to new black lung benefits that they have been found eligible for the new black lung benefits.

William E. Arnold, Social Security District Manager, said that notices of eligibility are being sent directly from Social Security Headquarters in Baltimore to the first group of beneficiaries whose claims have been decided.

They can expect their first checks early in May, he said. These first checks will include benefits paid to the date the beneficiary applied. If, for example, a disabled miner applied for black lung benefits in February, his first check will include benefits for three months—February, March, and April.

The Social Security Administration is making every effort to speed action on the 10,000 applications received so far and will get notices as soon as possible to the people who applied, telling them whether or not they qualify for the black lung payments, Arnold said. The Lantana Social Security Office will not get a notice of the decision until the applicant has been notified, Arnold said. About 20 persons applied for the black lung benefits in the three county area.

The first group of people awarded benefits consists mainly of persons who had applied for social security disability benefits in the past and where the medical evidence in social security files, combined with evidence obtained from State workmen's compensation offices, was enough to support an award of benefits.

The amount of the black lung benefits will be higher than originally announced. Arnold noted, because the black lung benefit amount is tied to the

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Is Sex Always Sinful?

"The ultimate virtue in Christian theology—at least in its negative, fundamental form—is 'has been celibacy,' according to Dr. William Masters and Virginia Johnson, whose claim to fame is that they have conducted extensive sexual research and have written two books—'Human Sexual Response' and 'Human Sexual Inadequacy.'"

Perhaps their statements on sexual response and sexual inadequacy are more dependable than their dictum on Christian theology. Or, perhaps not.

People who make unfounded statements in one area may, quite likely, make unfounded statements in other areas, also.

Here's another quotation from Dr. Masters and Johnson. "Orthodox Christianity, whether Catholic or Protestant, drew from the context of sex is 'sin' to put a negative connotation on the sexual side of marriage."

Who Invented Sex? It is possible that some religious leaders have equated sex with sin, but the Bible does not.

In fact, the Bible tells us that God invented sex and blessed the man and woman when He made. Genesis declares, "God created man in His own image. Male and female created He them. And God blessed them and God said unto them, 'Be fruitful and multiply and replenish the earth and subdue it.'"

Since the method of man's multiplying was sexual union—the man with his wife—this was, in effect, a command by God to Adam and Eve to have sexual relations with each other. Can obeying a command given by God be sin? Obviously, the answer is "No."

Then where did the idea come from that sex is sinful?

Could it have come from those who believe in advocating it?

The sexual conduct which these people say they favor is, indeed, evil.

Speaking in a seminar on "Toward Authentic Morality for Modern Man," in Atlanta recently, Alvin Toffler, publisher of "Playboy," said, "We feel there has been quite enough emphasis in our culture over the past 200 years on the dark, terrifying possibilities of sex. We've heard quite enough about its terrors and its tyranny, about the disease and wrecked lives and tortured souls."

He poked fun at the "horrible implications that can result from going to bed with someone without a marriage license."

Why Abuse It? But there are no "dark, terrifying possibilities of sex" with the marriage relationship. There are no "disease and wrecked lives and tortured souls" as a consequence of sex when used as God intended it to be.

The Bible says, "Marriage is honorable in all, and the best undefiled." But it adds the warning that "fornicators and adulterers God will judge."

Those who abuse one of the greatest gifts that God has given to us must blame only themselves when they suffer the "disease and wrecked lives and tortured souls" which may come as a result of flouting God's law, which was established for our benefit.

POLLUTION CONTROL STOCKS

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., May 14, 1970. Stocks of companies involved in pollution control were among the market's best performers during the closing weeks of 1969 and the first months of this year. The crest of publicity surrounding the need for greater environmental control and reflecting investor enthusiasm over the industry's future outlook, most pollution control stocks surged upward in an otherwise drab market climate.

As a result, many issues within this group were selling at relatively high price-earnings ratios, and were vulnerable to profit taking. Thus, these same issues fell sharply when the market again weakened. At this time, investors may well ask if current prices are over a new buying opportunity in this field.

ECONOMIC FACTS OF LIFE

Now that much of the early fanfare about pollution control investments has subsided, a hard look at economic realities is in order. While there is little doubt that a good deal of money will be spent on curbing pollution in coming years, the near-term outlook is somewhat more sobering. Despite the political outcries concerning environmental controls, enactment of legislation may move more slowly than anticipated. Many states are still dragging their feet, especially those trying to lure new industry. Another question mark is how stringent such laws will actually be enforced.

While businessmen are very much aware of the public's enthusiasm for cleaner air and water, they also know that the expenditures involved add to the cost of doing business. Therefore, meaningful voluntary expenditures by industry may fall considerably short of expectations without the spur of government legislation.

A Closer Look

The pollution control industry, like any other, has its own peculiar characteristics. Among the most significant of these is the problem of meeting highly specialized needs. Equipment must often be designed to fit rigid requirements of a particular industry, geographic location, plant size, specific pollutants, etc. To complicate matters further, acceptable standards which must be met are being continuously upgraded. This puts great stress on scientific expertise. Even more important, the industry is highly vulnerable to spiraling cost pressures which erode profit margins on fixed contracts with long lead times.

Investors considering pollution control stocks should also recognize that for many companies sales of such products still account for only a small percentage of total revenues. The bulk of revenues for many so-called pollution companies are derived from other and often cyclical areas. Therefore, these firms, despite above-average growth in pollution control sales, are still subject to the restraining effects of the economic slowdown over the near term.

Current Advice

The longer-term picture, however, is still bright despite the somewhat dark nearby look. The strong and growing support for pollution controls guarantees greater outlays by business or by the government over the years ahead. Thus, companies heavily dependent on business of this type should show above average growth in the 1970s.

Nevertheless, in view of the currently unsettled market climate, the dependence on cyclical lines for many concerns, and the above-average price-earnings ratios, investors should be cautious. The Research Department of Babson's Reports does not advise purchase of most pollution control stocks at this time. However, investors who wish to participate in the industry's probable longer-term outlook may consider purchase of American Air Filter convertible debentures, due in 1990, providing adequate yield plus the opportunity for capital appreciation.

Rambling Thoughts

By O. L. SHOE

VIOLENCE EARNS NO DEGREES

The violence that is sweeping over this country, all of it aided and abetted by the enemies of our nation, and at the same time, aiding and abetting the enemies, has made me entirely unable to express the thoughts that arise in my mind. I know of no better way to say what I would say than to copy a part of the lead editorial in the last Sunday Tampa Tribune.

"After four nights of fire bombings at the University of Wisconsin, the president quit. The torch was put to 12 other colleges across the country."

"At the University of Florida 89 students took over an auditorium and chanted, 'On strike, burn it down, burn it to the ground.'"

Why? These threats and acts of violence occurred during the wave of college student protest of President Nixon's sending troops into Cambodia and the killing of four Kent State University students Monday by national guardsmen.

But the anti-war protests served as a cover for some other unusual happenings. For example: "At the University of Wisconsin student groups roamed over areas of Madison, smashing store fronts and vowing to 'radicalize' Madison."

"Student leaders in Florida State University planned workshops in 'Marxism.'"

"University of Florida students presented demands to the administration, disarm campus police, hire more Negro professors, enroll more Negro students, grant amnesty to striking students and University employees involved in union organizations."

"Radicals at New York State University seized a $6 million computer and demanded a $100,000 ransom."

Do any of these actions have any bearing on the war in South Asia or on the Kent State shooting? We believe not.

NO ONE CAN DISAGREE with the principle of protest. This nation was founded by protests went unheeded, but the nation then put its faith in THE LAW and resolved to settle differences and protests in courts and the ballot box. This system has worked.

Now there are campus radicals determined to blast this system to bits. Thumbing their noses at the law, they want to do things THEIR WAY by burning, looting, rioting, seizing college buildings and making impossible demands upon college administrators. Unquestionably we have spawned anarchy.

It is significant that World War II ended 25 years ago yesterday, May 8. The seeds of that war were actually sown when gangs of toughs with violence as their only creed, engaged in way to national power with Adolf Hitler as their leader. Three Soviet armies were the first victims of these hoodlums.

IN OUR OPINION emotion is no substitute for intelligence. We had to find a logic to support these violent protesters, who claim that President Nixon's war policies are responsible for the deaths of the four Kent State students.

THERE MUST BE serious and immediate reappraisals of higher education. We look upon the college and university as an organized association engaged in the pursuit of knowledge. This does not include granting a Bachelor's Degree in Protest and Violence—Tampa Tribune.

Methodists To See Film

Sunday Evening Worship at the First United Methodist Church will feature the film entitled, "The Parable." This color film was shown in the Protestant Pavilion at the New York World's Fair, and received critical acclaim as one of the outstanding religious films of all times. "The Parable" has no dialogue throughout the 25 minute run, only music. After the showing, there will be a general discussion. The community is welcome to attend this service which will begin at 7:30 P.M.

Volunteers Helping Parole Officers

The law, which authorizes appointment of citizens to assist in rehabilitation, is primarily directed to upgrading vocational skills and education levels. Case aides are from all walks of life.

The vacant position in the local office requires a college degree in sociology, criminology or psychology. Personnel from the Barrow area office are expected to give assistance in investigation for the courts in the interim.

Volunteer case aides to law-breakers placed on probation or prisoners placed on parole have come forward to help with the whopping load of the Florida Parole and Pardon Commission in this area.

Clifford M. Ables, III, district supervisor for the commission in this county, with offices at the Courthouse annex, reports that at present he is assuming responsibility for more than 100 cases (three times the nationally recommended caseload) while an associate supervisor is being sought.

"Local citizens have promptly come forward to assist and are performing a vital service," says Robert E. Bokom, regional coordinator, who directs the program in eight central Florida counties from his office in Sebring.

"Giving counsel, showing interest in their personal lives, providing encouragement to return to school, giving job assistance, tutoring marriage courses, these are some of the activities performed by the more than 16 persons in Highlands County," he said.

The program was begun here early last year, he said, and "hopes ultimately to involve at least 50 persons on a continuing basis."

In the local area, it appears, a sizeable number of people have given up smoking entirely. Others have been trying with varying success, to cut down.

In Highlands County, on the basis of the statewide figures, an estimated 2,064,000 packs of cigarettes were consumed the past year.

In terms of the local population over age 18, this amounted to 184 packs per person. It was a lower rate than the national, which averaged 207 packs for those over 18. In the South Atlantic States the rate was 197.

Most health authorities believe that the case against smoking has been clearly proved. The tobacco industry maintains, however, that the evidence is merely statistical and that there has been no laboratory proof to connect smoking with the rising death rates from lung cancer and some other diseases.

It contends, also, that most smokers remain unconvinced and that the drop in it is due chiefly to the increased taxes levied on cigarettes. They were raised in 18 states in 1969.

You will need more than one screwdriver if you plan on doing maintenance work on your home, as there is no such thing as an all-purpose tool. Consider buying one of those sets that many hardware stores feature. There will be six or seven screwdrivers in the set, which should cover just about everything. Besides a variety of widths and thicknesses in blades, look for at least one that has a short handle to work in tight places. The set should also include one or two with the special four-way tip for Phillips screws.

By DAVE LLEWELLYN
We have here today a three-sided conversation — in which you are one of the participants. Please put in your responses at the appropriate times.

The Charge
Satan: God, I have the title, "Accuser of the Brethren" and I take my job seriously. This man has deceived You today, God (speaking to you). That is a serious charge. If you are convicted, it will mean eternal death for you. Do you deny the charge?

Satan: Deny it? What do You mean? You know "There is none righteous, not even one," "for all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God." He can't deny it.

God: Nevertheless, he must answer the question. Have you disobeyed Me?
Your response:

God: Perhaps you feel you have a valid reason for your actions or attitudes?
Satan: Let me make some suggestions: His laws are impossible to keep. You didn't know He had any laws. You have always done the best you could. Anyhow, nobody else keeps His laws either. But let me tell you — none of those excuses will make it.

The Prosecution
Satan: This person's attitudes and actions are absolutely foreign to Your character. In short, like the rest of Your human race, God, he is totally depraved. I demand a judgment of "Guilty" and a sentence of damnation. What does the law of God demand?
God: A sentence of punishment, without appeal.

What Response Will You Make?

Satan (speaking to God): To be fair, let me suggest some reasons for You, Why not say that You made a mistake in Your law, and so acquit him? If you are willing to overlook his guilt and declare him innocent? Or why not give him credit for some good he has done? Or why not just reduce the penalty? Or — if You're omnipotent — why not make him morally perfect?

God: All of your suggestions would require Me to compromise My character or to destroy man's independence. They are rejected. He is condemned.

The Sentence
God: For failure to achieve the pure life which is required the punishment is death. That is the sentence, and the law must be fully satisfied.
Satan: I never lose a case.
God: However, My Son has made a provision for the legal term for it is justification. You see, He has already paid the lawful death penalty for you. If you are willing to accept, in good faith, Who He is and what He has done for you personally, I will judge that your punishment has been completed. All of your previous failures will have been pardoned and any future offenses will be also reckoned as having been covered by His sacrifice. Henceforth I will not say as having not sinned.

Satan: I wouldn't trust him, I've seen you.
God: Of course, you have the right to reject the mercy of the court and pay the law's penalty yourself. I want you to know that you have the legal recourse to claim "justification by faith in Christ."

Sweet Asks For New Trial

The attorney general's office has applied for a rehearing of the John Sweet murder case in a brief filed before the Second District Court of Appeals in Lakeland.

Another — his third — trial on charges of murdering Charles Von Maxcy, Sebring millionaire cattle and citrus man, was ordered by the court a few weeks ago in a split decision.

Justices Joseph P. McNulty and T. Frank Hobson, Jr., voted for a third trial with Justice William Pierce dissenting. The state is fighting this.

The state in filing for rehearing, hopes to swing the 2-1 vote by pointing up possible judicial errors and avoid a third trial. Should Hobson or McNulty change their votes, the conviction of first degree murder would stand. The 54-year-old Sweet, land salesman and gambler, was sentenced to life imprisonment. He is free as a $50,000 bond.

A decision on whether they will grant the rehearing can be expected anywhere from "two to several weeks," court officials said.

In the brief filed by Michael N. Kavoukian, assistant attorney general, He stated: "The majority opinion necessarily failed to consider the decisions that were set forth in Judge Pierce's dissent. Also, even if the majority opinion is correct on the admissibility of the proper testimony, the judge's rejection of it was no more than harmless error, particularly when considering the appellant's own admission to the murder and the abundance of competent evidence to support the jury's verdict even without Trulock's testimony.

"This conclusion appears to be commanded even by the majority opinion, which specifically held that the other points raised by appellant were without merit. Those points, of course, attacked the sufficiency of the evidence and the admission in evidence of appellant's incriminatory statements to Trulock."

"In the majority opinion written by Judge McNulty, he said Judge William C. Love, who conducted the trial, erred in barring from the jury, defense proffers of the cross-examination of Mrs. Maxcy the widow of the murdered man and Sweet's mistress and C. R. Trulock, investigator for the old Florida Sheriff's Bureau. McNulty commented that evidence proffered by the state was "manifestly insufficient to convict Kelly and VonEtter of the actual homicide if they were on trial."

The state had attempted to show McNulty noted, that Sweet had hired William Kelly and Andrew VonEtter, Boston underworld characters to do the actual killing.

MESSAGE TO THE PUBLIC

We use the word narcotic for a number of drugs that seem to make people feel better for a short period but that are very dangerous and illegal unless they are used under a doctor's orders. A person who uses narcotics regularly will usually form the habit of using them and cannot easily rid himself of the habit. He is then said to be addicted. An addict comes to depend so much on the drug that if necessary he will commit a crime to get it.

Narcotics are often called "dope," or simply "drugs." Strictly speaking, a narcotic is a drug that produces narcosis, a condition in which a person loses most or all of his power of feeling and may lose consciousness (fall into a deep sleep from which he cannot awaken until the effects of the drug are ended). However, there are other drugs that produce the opposite effect—make a person more wide awake than ever—and some of these drugs also are called narcotics.

Doctors can make good use of narcotics, to relieve patients who are suffering great pain, but in some ways narcotics are a danger to the entire world. This is because of the way they are used by certain criminals. The criminals encourage young people to try narcotics, hoping to make addicts of them. Once a person is an addict, the criminal can control him by threatening to shut off his supply of the drug.

A person can be addicted in either of two ways. Certain narcotics cause bodily addiction. This means that the victim's body will become dependent on the narcotic, and he will suffer great agony if he cannot get it. Furthermore, the victim's body will build up a tolerance for the drug, which means that every day he will need more and more of it to satisfy him. Since every narcotic is poisonous, an addict of this kind will soon die unless he can be taken to a hospital in time and cured.

Eye-on-Crime Narcotics Identification Chart

It is possible to save a user of narcotics from a life of horror if detected early. There are not enough doctors in this world to examine each and every possible user, but there are enough parents.

We have prepared this booklet in order to alert parents to the various symptoms that drugs produce. Observe your children and note unusual changes in normal behavior.

If you suspect that your child is using narcotics, call your family physician, or, the Highlands County Sheriff's Office—Avon Park, 453-5331; Sebring, 385-8141; Lake Placid, 466-3311.

Ridge Area Day School Students Participate In Special Olympics

Three students from Ridge Area Day School earned a berth in the Florida Special Olympics to be held at Fort Walton Beach on May 15 and 16 by finishing first in their events in the Region 4 meet which was held in Tampa last week-end.

Ivory Hunter and Janet Moody from Sebring and Bonnie Revels from Avon Park will represent the Ridge Area Day School at the state meet in four different events. Ivory won his blue ribbon in the 30 yard dash, Janet took first place in the 50-yard dash and the 300 yard run, and Bonnie Revels won blue ribbons in the 100 yard dash and the softball throw. These three students will be accompanied to the state meet by their coach Mrs. Lorraine Howard. Two RAYARCS will also go along on the trip—Sally Pogany and Debbie Sherwood.

Six Ridge Area Day School students participated in the Region 4 meet in Tampa last week-end and all six brought home at least one ribbon and of course some won two ribbons. Roy Leitner of Sebring entered and won third place in the 50-yard dash and Melvin Barber took second place in both the standing long jump and the softball throw. Robbie Ward placed fourth in the standing long jump and the softball throw. Then the 44-year-olds relay team of Leitner, Ward, Barber, and Hunter finished third in the open race against all age competition.

Competition was divided into divisions according to sex, age, and ability and the Regional meet was held at the University of South Florida track with 12 schools participating. Accompanying the group last week along with Mrs. Howard were Mrs. Judy Rewa, a teacher aide at Ridge Area, and two RAYARCS—Libby Kahn and Janie Brandt of Sebring. Rocky Nicholas, a student at Ridge Area, also went along to the meet.

The Florida Special Olympics is in its first year and the state meet in Fort Walton Beach will be sponsored by the Fort Walton Beach Jaycees, the Okaloosa County School Board, and Special Olympics, Inc. Joseph P. Kennedy Foundation.

The Jaycees of Avon Park, Lake Placid, and Sebring will finance the Ridge Area representatives at the state meet.

Nunnallee Takes Second Place In Class B State Meet Friday; Claitt Comes In Third

Avon Park Red Devil track starts Walter Nunnallee and Roy Claitt scored points at the Class B State Meet held in Gainesville last Friday. Nunnallee took a second place ribbon in the 120-yard high hurdles with a time of 1:6 seconds and Roy Claitt came in third in the 220-yard dash with a time of 22.2 seconds.

Roy had tough luck in the 110-yard dash event. Because of loose starting blocks, the speedy Red Devil fell at the start of the finals after qualifying with a good time earlier in the day. The finish judge felt Claitt should have been able to run again but the starting judge over-ruled him so he got no time in the 100.

The Red Devil 880 relay team of James Perdue, Walter Nunnallee, Roy Claitt, and Willie Joe Seigler finished seventh with a slow time for them—1:32.2. The team had run a 1:32.8 in the district meet to set a new school record for Avon Park.

This year's team also saw Walter Nunnallee tying Mike Coleman's record in the 120-yard high hurdles of 15.4 seconds.

The Red Devil tracksters, under the coaching of Chet Brojek, turned in some fine performances this season and with a stateable squad out this year, the young coach should have some real good prospects back next season.

course he will lose Claitt and Seigler who are on two school record teams—the 880 relay and the sprint-medley relay.

Ladies' Turbans Said Dangerous

The Federal Trade Commission has announced that tests of certain "turbans" used by women in holding hair in place have shown the fabrics in such "turbans" to be dangerously flammable.

These "turbans" are manufactured by Lu Wane Products Company, Wayne, N. J., and are marketed under the name "Lu Wane Magic Turban."

The product is made of a treated self-adhering fabric which is wrapped around the hair. When worn, it covers the ears and part of the temples and upper neck, as well as the head. It comes in colors of white, pink, blue and purple. Turbans in all colors have been shown to be dangerously flammable. The front of the carton shows the picture of a woman wearing the "Magic Turban" while the back contains instructions and illustrations.

The product is sold in various retail outlets throughout the country, including Laddgett—Madison—Lane and Touchton drugstores in Sebring and Avon Park. Management of these stores has notified the Commission that the product is being taken off sale from the counters of all stores.

Member Lions at the Tuesday, May 5 meeting of the Avon Park Lions Club participated in a full evening of song, business and education. Songfest leader, Lion Billy Martin stoned for several weeks absence by leading several encores at the vocal request of other Lions in a singing mood.

Agreement was reached on moving the night for installation of incoming officers from June 16 to June 2. Member Lions take note and give both sets of officers a full den on that night.

Delegates were selected to represent Avon Park at the State Lions Convention in St. Petersburg from May 21 through 23. Those named are: president elect, Lion Jack Acari and Lions Fred Hughes, Dick Enoch, Dick Thayer and Chuck Smith. Five alternate delegates to be certified to the convention election committee will be notified by secretary, Lion Marshall Davis.

Dr. V. G. Watters of Sebring presided over the educational portion of the program. The subject of cancer was most ably presented from the viewpoint of a surgeon and humanitarian. Dr. Watters derided the unnecessary suffering and loss of life attributable to a person's disregard of symptoms or failure to undergo routine health check ups at reasonable time intervals. Although their viewing is not recommended following a dinner meeting, if one has a choice, every adult would benefit from seeing Dr. Watters' photographic slides on the subject. Dr. Watters used them to illustrate situations where surgeons could or could not successfully treat malignancies on various internal organs of the human body.

To those concerned with contributions to the cause of reducing the problem of cancer and how such are used, Dr. Watters noted that research and public education mobilize the major balance of attention. Activities relating to professional education, patient and community services form the major balance of organized fight against the dread disease.

To Live better "in the 70's" this summer... check your air conditioning NOW!

Pick a warm day soon and turn on your air conditioning. Summer's just around the corner - and so's your air conditioning serviceman.
Is every room as cool as you like it? Need new filters? Repairs? Maybe it's time for a new unit. Or a whole new system.
Have you asked about heat pumps... for automatic year-round comfort?

And if you do not yet enjoy the blessings of air conditioning, now is the time to install it. Because many dealers and contractors offer off-season inducements. Many offer attractive easy terms.
Before you know it, summer weather will arrive. For the sake of your own cool comfort, for the sake of economy, check your air conditioning now!

check list for efficient, economical air conditioning

- FILTERS Replace filters frequently. Clogged filters make unit work harder and cause higher operating costs.
- OUTDOOR SECTION Keep clear of plants and other obstructions. Anything that interferes with air flow makes unit work harder.
- RETURN AIR GRILL Keep furniture or drapes clear of grill. Anything that interferes with delivery or return of air will not allow unit to cool properly.
- WINDOWS AND DOORS Use drapes or provide outside shading to shut out heat from the sun.
- INSULATION Adequate insulation will result in lower operating costs. Proper attic ventilation increases the effectiveness of insulation.
- operating hints:
- TEMPERATURE SETTING For economy set the thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature. (Usually about 78°)
- FAN SETTING Operate the fan on "Auto" or "On" for your individual comfort. "Auto" gives best summer humidity control and economical operation. "On" gives more uniform air motion, sound level, and room to room temperature.
- AWAY FROM HOME Operate your air conditioning unit at 5° to 10° above normal setting with fan on "Auto" for mildew protection and quick comfort when you return.

SAVE $50 Remember... any Florida Power Corporation residential customer who removes flame-type heating and replaces it with whole-house electric heating and cooling between now and May 31, 1970 will receive a $50 installation allowance from us. (Minimum capacity, 18,000 BTU's.) Ask your dealer or contractor for all details.

Will there ever come a time when there is peace on earth? When there are no wars between nations, no civil wars, no brushfire wars?

When that day comes, can we do away with all armies? There is one army we would like to keep marching in our midst. The Salvation Army.

When complete peace comes to our planet, it will be due—at least in part—to the peaceful qualities the men and women of The Salvation Army express in their lives—and try to help others to express.

There would be no war if all of us followed the golden rule and loved our neighbors as ourselves. The Salvation Army lives by that rule all year round. That is one reason why I take this opportunity to salute the Army on the eve of its special week—National Salvation Army Week, May 11 to 17.

Night Templar Ascension Day service of the Winter Haven Commandery last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hurst and her mother, Mrs. Margaret Harrietha drove to Lake Placid and then to Ft. Myers where they enjoyed dinner at Howard Johnson's to celebrate Mother's Day. Enroute home they stopped at Immokalee Lake to try their luck at fishing.

SENIOR CITIZENS

A Salute To Senior Citizens

The employees of Walker Memorial Hospital take this opportunity to salute the senior citizens of Highlands County. The month of May has been designated as Senior Citizens Month. We feel it only appropriate that the senior citizens of our community be recognized at this time of year when the hospital is also celebrating its National Hospital Week with the theme of "Your Hospital Cares." May happiness and health accompany your days through the coming year.

George Walper, Administrator

Walker Memorial Hospital Celebrates National Hospital Week

National Hospital Week, an annual observance established by the American Hospital Association to focus attention on the work that hospitals are performing in providing high quality year-round care in the community. In 1921, leaders in the health field recognized the importance of telling the public the human side of hospitals. For this purpose, National Hospital Day was initiated. May 12 was designated because it is the anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, whose efforts lead to the improvement of the hospital system in both England and America. In 1953 National Hospital Day was extended to a week long observance and since then we have had National Hospital Week. Today, most of the nation's nearly 7000 hospitals keep this observance.

The 1970 theme of "Your Hospital Cares;" and the secondary theme of "Our First Concern is Your Health" will be used throughout the year rather than just during National Hospital Week. The key word in this theme is "Cares." This word focuses attention on the main message that hospitals do indeed care, that they are ready to meet today's demands for health care and are preparing to meet the increasing demands of tomorrow.

The activities at Walker Memorial Hospital to celebrate National Hospital Week began with the recognition of all mothers in the hospital. On Mother's Day George W. Walper, Administrator, presented corsages to each of the women who were patients in the hospital.

To complete the National Hospital Week activities for the hospital, a banquet is being held for the Medical Staff, Employees, Hospital Auxiliary, Advisory Board, and Board of Trustees of the hospital.

Your Medicare health insurance card shows the protection you have

The people at the hospital, doctor's office, or wherever you get services, can tell from your health insurance card that you have both hospital and medical insurance and when each started. This is why you should always have your card with you when you receive services.

When a husband and wife both have Medicare, they receive separate cards and claim numbers.

If you ever lose your health insurance card, the people in your social security office will get you a new one.

This is your personal health insurance claim number. It must be shown on all Medicare claims exactly as it is shown on your card—INCLUDING THE LETTER AT THE END.

This shows you have hospital insurance.
This shows you have medical insurance.

The list below describes the kinds of benefits that hospital insurance will help pay for when you are a bed patient in a hospital and some of the services that it cannot pay for.

Part A Helps Pay For:		Bed in a semiprivate room (2-4 beds in a room) and all meals, including special diets.
		Operating room charges.
		Regular nursing services (including intensive care nursing).
		Drugs furnished by the hospital.
		Laboratory tests.
		X-ray and other radiology services.
		Medical supplies such as splints and casts.
		Use of appliances and equipment furnished by the hospital such as wheelchairs, crutches, braces, etc.
		Medical social services.
Part A Does NOT Pay For:		Personal comfort or convenience items (such as charges for telephone, radio, or television furnished at your request).
		Private duty nurses.
		Any extra charge for use of a private room, unless you need it for medical reasons.
		Doctors' services (your medical insurance helps pay for these).
		Custodial care.

When checking into the hospital remember to have your Medicare card and any Medicare supplement policy you may own.

The patient pays the first 52 dollars for each benefit period. A new benefit period starts 60 days after the date released from the hospital.

The hospital takes care of all the paper work for Medicare patients.

Local National Guard Unit Wins Governor's Trophy

National Guardsmen from the area returned Saturday from annual training camp bringing with them the Governor's Trophy awarded annually to the "most outstanding company size unit" in Florida National Guard.

The trophy was presented to Battery B, Second Battalion, 116th Artillery, at review and parade which closed the first week of the May 21 training period at Ft. Stewart, Ga.

The trophy is awarded on the basis of efficiency and high rating throughout the calendar year.

The unit is judged on the percentage of authorized strength it has maintained for the year, the average attendance at drills, attendance at field training, annual army inspection and performance on Army Field Training tests.

During the 1969 annual training session Battery B won several awards for outstanding achievement. An excellent (top) rating on the AFT contributed heavily to the battery's winning the Governor's Trophy.

The unit's name is engraved on the trophy which remains in the battery's possession for one year. For its permanent possession it is given a certificate from the Governor.

Battery B also has received the Superior Unit Award, according to an announcement from the office of the Adjutant General of Florida National Guard. Four such awards were made in the state.

Great Outfit

Battery B commander Capt. Carroll Lloyd of Sebring repeatedly emphasized that the awards are "great incentives. This is a great outfit; every man cares about what kind of job he is doing."

He was especially enthusiastic in his praise for Sgt. Donald Bailey the administrative supply technician (AST) who handles recruitment and administrative.

Simulated Disaster Slated For This Week

A simulated major disaster will take place somewhere in Highlands County sometime next week to test the ability of the Civil Defense units to cope with emergency conditions and to improve any weaknesses in their relief program.

Announcement of the "disaster," the nature of which was held secret so the surprise element will be fully effective, was made Monday by Jim Lawson, Highlands County director of Civil Defense. Details as to the time and place were undisclosed.

A conference of the various agencies to be involved in the disaster program was held at the County Health Department office to plan details of the part each group will take in alleviating the effects of the "disaster" such as caring for injured, identification and removal of bodies of fatal victims, rescue operations, emergency housing, relief activities and any other required services.

Lawson explained that the purpose of the simulation is to see how well the various agencies are prepared to cope with a real disaster and to extend their planning to overcome any deficiencies that may become apparent in the drill. He emphasized that the program will not be used to rate the efficiency of the CD units and related agencies.

Walker Memorial Receives $500,000 Federal Grant

Official notice was made to more than 250 people who included members of the city council, county officials, citizens of Avon Park, members of the hospital medical staff, ladies auxiliary and employees, that Walker Memorial Hospital has received its grant for construction.

Following a brief, but interesting history of the founding of Walker Memorial Hospital by Charlie Metcalf, president of the advisory board of the hospital, Dr. Walter M. Ost, Chief of Staff, and President of the County Medical Society, commented on the needs for hospital construction. Dr. Ost indicated the support of the staff toward the hospital program and expressed appreciation in behalf of the staff for the Board's insight in endeavoring to meet the needs of medical care for this community.

H. H. Schmidt, President of the Board of Trustees of Walker Memorial Hospital, stated the interest of the Board in meeting the needs for medical care through Walker Memorial Hospital. He expressed appreciation to the medical staff, the employees, and the friends of the hospital for their loyal support. He told how the hospital currently has a $100,000 grant for construction and how these funds have been reserved for matching federal funds. On May 4, he stated that he had received the following telegram from Governor Claude R. Kirk, Jr., which read, "I am pleased to advise that Dr. James A. Ray, Secretary Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitation Services, has approved a federal grant of $500,000 to assist in the cost of an addition to the Walker Memorial Hospital. This grant of $500,000 together with the funds acquired by the hospital earlier, makes available $1,000,000 for our first phase of construction.

In comments by Mr. W. O. Cow, Vice President of the Board of Trustees, and chairman of the building committee, it was stated that present plans call for an addition on the laboratory, new pharmacy, new areas for housekeeping, linen, kitchen, dining areas, and central receiving. A new operating suite including a major operating room, an intensive care unit of 8 beds, plus recovery room and 54 patient beds is also included in the first phase of construction.

A second phase of construction will include an additional 40 beds and areas for general administrative offices, medical records, and physical medicine. With this phase completed the total bed capacity will be approximately 160 beds. Master plans have been drawn which will permit additional construction beyond this stage to meet the future growth of this community.

With the additional funds available, several more months of planning will be required to incorporate the additional facilities. Construction is slated to begin in early Fall.

Fire Burns 112 Acres On Range Road

As this area's drought worsened, fire fighters of the Florida Forest Service kept on the run battling fast spreading flames, particularly in muck areas.

And many residents complained of low water pressure.

A wild fire burned 112 acres on the Avon Park Bombing Range Tuesday afternoon. The land is owned by Stokely Van Camp and Bob Barringer.

"There is much there and we got to take some action or it will escape and get into another big bay full of muck," said Robert Dempsey, ranger in charge in this area. "We had two crews there and we are trying to put plenty of water on it."

The Highlands County area now is considered critical, he said. The last good rain was in the latter part of March and the last sprinkle was April 6 with .96 of an inch.

"We would like to caution people to hold off on burning trash in barrels or incinerators in this extremely dry weather until the wind goes down about sundown," he said.

The area investigated for the Florida Forest Service, N. Tydings, of Ft. Myers, was in the county Tuesday attempting to find out how the fire are starting. The muck fires are particularly worrisome, he said.

Thirty acres of improved pasture on the Long Bay Ranch near Avon Park burned on Tuesday.

Unfairness

Throughout the history of our great country, there has been one thing above all which has caused dissension and strife, even as it is doing now.

Unfairness.
Our kids—an awfully lot of them—don't think it is fair to send them to Vietnam and possible death and maiming when they are not considered adult enough to have the vote in the war-waging or to have other privileges that adults have.

They do not consider it fair for older people, in particular our Congressmen—many of whom are pushing 70 and 80—to decide to send them to war—when the people who make the decisions are far removed from any possibility of going to war.

They do not consider it fair for the administration, not just Mr. Nixon, but their Congressmen, to fluff off their demands and argue that they shouldn't be demonstrating and raising Cain.

Granted that they should not throw rocks and bottles and more lethal objects and burn structures. It is not the great alarmed majority which is doing things of this sort. It is the violent few.

We want to make it perfectly clear that we, in no manner, condone these acts. There is a vast difference between honest dissent and hell raising. Some students enjoy hell raising just for the sake of it. It matters little to them what the issue is. They are hunting up excuses to skip classes and create disturbances. They should be arrested and given the full extent of the law.

Some of the administration people howl that the demonstrators are Communists. It's completely possible some of them are and there are others who are revolutionaries and anarchists. But we believe the great majority are very sensible young people who are greatly alarmed at the military course this country is taking. And they are terribly worried because they feel nobody who counts is listening to them.

It was unfairness which brought this country into being two centuries ago—the unfairness of taxation without representation. You may recall stories of the great Boston Tea party, when the highly taxed tea of the British was thrown into the harbor. It was a forerunner of the American Revolution.

We hope the blood baths of Kent State University and Jackson State University in Mississippi are not the forerunners of a revolution of our young people in this country—if we do not already have a revolution.

May we cite other instances of historical unfairness?

The Great Civil War, when brother fought brother, in the bitterest war the world ever has known, was caused by part of a nation's feeling of unfairness—that slavery be allowed in America, the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Molly Malones took to violence shortly after the turn of the century in the Pennsylvania coal fields when they felt the mine owners treated them unfairly.

The employees in the great auto factories took to violence in the 1930's when they felt the automobile manufacturers were treating them unfairly.

And all around us are many more minor instances of unfairness, and the reaction. Your little boy may punch his big sister if he feels she's divided the ice cream or the candy unfairly. The awareness of fair play has always been an ingrained thing with most Americans.

Have you talked to any of the kids who are thinking about the problems of today's world? We talked recently to a youth who probably is as average an outstanding American young man as you can find. He attends the University of Florida. He is an onlooker, not a demonstrator at the UF disturbances. He seems to echo, upon questioning, the confusion that many of his fellow students doubtless feel—that there's something wrong, they want to do something about it, don't quite know how to get the job done—really want to do the right thing, the American thing. But end the war.

The kids have been smart enough, we learned from him, to challenge the honesty of an administration putting out glowing statements, which, when dissected are pure disillusionment. Like the announcement that 150,000 men will be brought home from Vietnam next year.

They were bringing home 12,000 men a month anyway before the announcement," he said. "So really, (6x12 equals 144) what they were doing was only bringing 6,000 men home they hadn't already planned to."

The disillusionment—there is a lot of difference between 6,000 and 150,000.

With things like this happening, can you blame the kids for not believing this country's leaders?

We read where Senators are organizing to prevent any further involvement beyond June 30 in Cambodia. That they are listening more intently for the cries of "complete withdrawal now."

We read where our action in Cambodia has drawn China and Russia more closely together—rather than shoved them apart.

And there we are with our wonderful, fine young men, far from their shores in an alien land, facing the great wall of a militant China and its 700 million people. And the great Russian Bear to the North.

It is a very frightening prospect to thinking people. We think it is time we of the older generation who may be inclined to relax and enjoy the good life we feel we have earned should listen to our kids and their great surge against unfairness.

There is unfairness.

Fire Damages Car Friday

Fire that began in the motor extensively damaged a car owned by Gilbert Hips, a student at Avon Park on North Highlands Avenue, about a mile and a half North of Sebring on Friday, May 15. Hips drove the car to the side of the road where the fire caused damage estimated at $2,500.

A driver who crossed the center line to avoid a slower car ahead of him was forced by an approaching vehicle to return to his own lane where he collided with the car he tried to avoid originally, Trooper Vann reported.

The accident happened about 11 P.M. Saturday on Route 27 nearly three miles North of Avon Park.

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

What Caused the Killing at Kent?

Why did four students have to die on the campus of Kent State University, in the tragic confrontation between a rioting mob and Ohio National Guardsmen?

The gravity of the situation is recognized by all. A friend who lives just 16 miles from Kent has written me, "It is sad that four lives were lost, but if those rocks, cement, and canister-throwing kids had been able to disarm the Guard, it could have been a real slaughter. There were guns and knives taken from some of the arrested students, according to the local papers."

Let's look behind the scenes at Kent State University—where the situation which prepared the way for the tragedy.

"Kill Your Parents"

It is well known that the SDS has been active there for some time. About a week before the riot, Jerry Rubin, in a speech on the Kent State campus, said:

"The first part of the Vippie program, you know, is to kill your parents. And I mean that quite seriously, because you're prepared to kill your parents you're not really prepared to change the country, because our parents are our first oppressors."

Another bit of advice that Rubin gave the Kent State students was "kill being students. Become criminals. We have to disrupt every institution and break every law."

How did Jerry Rubin get started on his career of violence and revolutionary activity? It is interesting to note that he, himself, said that childhood experiences with his parents shaped his life.

In an article in "Esquire" magazine—written by J. Anthony Lewis and entitled, "The Making of a Vippie"—there is this revealing statement:

"They wanted a child so badly they would do anything for me, Rubin said of his parents. 'I know if I cried I'd get my way. If I cried I'd get my way. If I screamed I'd get my way.'"

"Many of the tactics I now use I learned at home. . . . I'm really convinced that the whole of my recent activity in the movement has been a playing out on a massive political scale of the things I learned in the family."

total permissiveness in child-rearing—called "progressive" by its proponents—has fostered in some children the feeling that if they just demand long enough and insist long enough, they will get what they want.

This permissiveness—which now pervades our society—may be our undoing.

It was this spirit of permissiveness to which Christ referred when He spoke of the broad way and the narrow way. The broad way is the way of total permissiveness. "Anything goes." The narrow way is the way of obeying the rules laid down by a Higher Authority.

This is what the Master Teacher taught: "The wide gate has a broad road which leads to disaster, and there are many people going that way. The narrow gate and the hard road lead into life, and only a few are finding it that way."

Our nation was founded by men who believed in following the narrow way of right living. Shall we now allow it to be destroyed by those who sneer at the sacred, make a mockery of morality, and revel in rioting?

Bitter Plans for a Better Society?

YOUTH NOT RARING FOR WAR

Selective Service Director Curtis W. Tarr trained the concept of an all-volunteer army to four different groups of college students recently, but conceded that there is one big trouble with the idea. To make his point, he asked many of those present would be willing to volunteer. Not one of the 700 students raised a hand. Looks like modern war is not looked upon as an ideal career. It is in my opinion that looking at the TV has about knocked the "Spirit of '76" out of patriotism.

AGNEW POPULAR TALKER IT SEEMS

The Vice President is in great demand as a public speaker to such an extent that Nixon's administration has expanded this office so that his office can be kept running efficiently while he is out talking to the folks, and at the same time acting as vice president.

HOW DID O'CLOCK ORIGINATE?

The original form of the term was OF THE CLOCK, of which O'CLOCK is a contraction. The term O'CLOCK began to appear first in the 18th century. In Chaucer's time OF THE CLOCK was used. Later A CLOCK or OF CLOCK was used.

HOW ARE CANNON SPIKED?

In former times when the old form of cannon was used the guns were disabled by driving iron spikes into the hole at the breech where the fire is connected with the powder. This was called SPIKING THE CANNON. The phrase is retained in modern military usage. Spiking a cannon now means carrying away the breech mechanism, making it impossible to use the gun without considerable repairing.

WHY IS YORKSHIRE DIVIDED INTO RIDINGS?

Yorkshire, the largest county in England, is divided into three administrative districts known as Ridings—North Riding, East Riding and West Riding. This is an old Scandinavian institution and Yorkshire has been so divided since ancient times. In Anglo-Saxon the word was written thrilling or thriling and it literally meant a third—the riding being a third of a larger district. The divisions of Tipperary in Ireland are known as ridings at the present time.

VFW Supports Nixon's Policy On Cambodia

Support for President Nixon's Cambodia policy as a means of saving the lives of American fighting men was urged today by Commander Roy Nelson of Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 4300.

Commander Nelson said that "anything we do in Cambodia that results in saving American lives should have the full backing of the American people."

Commander Nelson said amendments in Congress such as the Cooper-Church Amendment which would block funds to support American troops in Southeast Asia "amount to the abandonment of our forces—our sons and daughters—who are fighting a cruel and inhuman enemy who might otherwise be at our very doorsteps. Congress put our men there in full support of the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution."

He said the "destruction of tons and tons of equipment and other supplies stored by the Communists in Cambodia for use against our men in Vietnam proves that President Nixon made the right decision in ordering the Cambodian incursion."

Resident Says Interest Is Great To Borrow Money For Sewer Program Now

Editor, Sun:

For information, I had prepared at my expense the following revenue bond amortization schedule. The engineers for the city of Avon Park recommended a sewer program that will include 96 percent of the city at a cost of $2,850,000. The federal government would grant the city $500,000. Using a net figure which is more or less $2,350,000.

The schedule was prepared for a period of 30 years. Note the interest would be $3,331,241.42 and the total to pay for bond and interest $2,850,000.

I say we can't afford it. Better talk to your councilmen. They have the full

CABLE (COMMUNITY ANTENNA) TV

By Babson's Reports Incorporated, Wellesley Hills, Mass., May 21, 1970. Born right after World War II, Cable TV (formerly known as CATV) has grown into a viable rival of the major broadcasters. It began as a system erected in mountain communities (where reception was poor) to receive and distribute television programs from original broadcasters.

Through a network of coaxial cable and electronic components to the homes of individual subscribers for a nominal fee.

However, the industry's frontier has been extended to the metropolitan centers where an even larger market promises a far more rewarding profit potential.

In addition, recent regulatory decisions concerning Cable TV technology are expected to stimulate expansion far beyond the initial goals of the founders. The FCC now authorizes the origination of program and the right to sell commercials. Also, the Commission will permit the industry to transmit via microwave—possibly making way for a national Cable TV network.

And there we are with our wonderful, fine young men, far from their shores in an alien land, facing the great wall of a militant China and its 700 million people. And the great Russian Bear to the North.

It is a very frightening prospect to thinking people. We think it is time we of the older generation who may be inclined to relax and enjoy the good life we feel we have earned should listen to our kids and their great surge against unfairness.

There is unfairness.

What The System Provides

Besides beaming in TV of adequate quality, the cable system provides reception of far higher fidelity, vastly improving both the picture and the sound. The betterment is particularly substantial in the case of color TV where there are "ghosts" or shadows.

Cable TV means greater program selectivity—many more channels than are ordinarily provided—and offers far more services such as around-the-clock weather information, local educational broadcasts, stock market and financial reports, public service, and a number of local entertainment programs.

The industry and competition

Although this industry is still fragmented, there is a trend toward consolidation by major operators. There are—according to latest available count—some 2,300 Cable TV systems in operation, running their cables into an estimated 3.6 million homes, mostly in small cities and towns. But despite the phenomenal growth in the last three years, only 12 percent of TV households are wired for cable systems.

Total industry revenues now stand at about $50 million. Charges for service run around $5 a month, plus an additional $25 one-time installation fee. The ten top operators account for 29 percent of the total industry. As it stands this time, the contenders in the field are the Cable TV operators, the national broadcasters (many of whom own such systems), and the pay or subscription TV proponents.

Profit Picture

For most manufacturers and distributors of coaxial cable and electronic components, the industry has offered lucrative opportunities. Except for the component suppliers, many of the firms are involved in more than one segment of the industry. Most systems are depreciated on schedules of ten years even though they have a usual life expectancy of 20 years.

The fast write-off policies produce a substantial cash flow and significant tax shelters. Subscribers pay an average of $60 annually, while operating expenses are around $30. Thus, the pre-tax profit potential can be considerable.

Current Recommendation

General Instrument Corp., a diversified electronics company, is the long-term electronics company in the industry. Its Jerrold division is one of the leaders in Cable TV. Earnings are adversely affected by temporary problems in Jerrold's activities for the fiscal year ended Feb. 28, 1970, plus production difficulties in semi-conductor operations.

Management, however, has indicated that a return to former levels of profitability is in store for fiscal 1971. The speculative stock near 15 (NYSE) appears to be turnaround candidate for appreciation.

Avon Park Grange Meets

Avon Park Grange met May 12 with Master, Louise Clarke, in the chair. Mrs. Floyd Hayes was welcomed into the Order. Announcement was made that 8 farm couples left New York May 6 for a 3-week visit to Denmark. Each couple will live on a Danish farm the first week and on a different farm the second week. The third week will be spent on various side trips under the sponsorship of Farmers and World Affairs of America. Plans are being made to host a group of Danish farmers in the United States this Fall.

The Commendation was by Dwight D. Eisenhower. "A critical test for any organization is the challenge of a National emergency and the demand made on its members for quick and full service to the country. This is the test which the National Grange has met with distinction. The Grange, through the years, has earned the appreciation and respect of America."

For Mother's Day — Mom's the Word by Harriet Higgs. Occupation — Mother by Louise Clarke and The Measles Mother by Mary Haviland. Fifty-five Planes Participate In Fly-In

The Fly-In breakfast Sunday at the Avon Park Flying Service was most successful. This was the first attempt at the airport for this sort of gathering. Fifty-five planes were flown in representing many of the cities of central Florida—Vero Beach, Venice, Titusville, Clearwater, Walhasso, Ft. Myers, Tampa, St. Petersburg, Miami, Lantana, Plant City, Bonhill, Punta Gorda, Orlando, Hollywood, Naples, Mulberry and others. The first plane, an Ercoupe, arrived at 7:30 A.M. and was piloted by Charles Potts of Vero Beach. The last plane arrived about 11:20.

Prizes of large mugs inscribed with the event and Avon Park Flying Service were awarded to the following: the youngest pilot was Craig Pearlman, 17, of Orlando, flying a twin-engine Apache. The oldest pilot was John Swain, 70, of Venice, in a Cessna 150. The pilot from the greatest distance was Fred Lownd of Miami in a Cherokee 140. The first woman pilot, to land was Hazel Hilton of Brunswick, Ga. flying a Bonanza. The spot landing contest was won by D. R. Hopkins of Tampa in a Cessna 172. Judges of the spot landing contest were Ike Hart and Carl Lindius of Sebring.

One of the most interesting of the planes was a home-built plane of the early '30's—a Corben Baby Ace. This single place open cockpit plane was piloted by Charles Strong of Walhasso. John M. Johns of Plant City also flew in an interesting plane of World War II days—a Fairchild-24.

The Sebring Kiwanis Club served a pancake breakfast to nearly 300 people. The members of the Ridge Flying Club were also most helpful. Danny Moss, with the help of line boys, did most of the work of assisting planes to park by using his "pick-up" with a sign which said "Follow me." This was quite a task to park planes, while other planes were landing, taking off and in the air.

Proper lubrication is more than a squirt or two of oil. Check the manufacturer's instructions on appliances, for example, and don't use more than the recommended amount of lubrication. Use the right lubricant for the job and, whenever you can, first clean the things you plan to lubricate.

Couple Weds In County Jail Monday
Two well-dressed, well-mannered men sat on the big blue leather couch and watched quietly while her dad and his mom were married.

The bride, a big girl with long, flowing brown hair, wore a short white lace shift over pink satin. She was missing a front tooth. The bridegroom wore a white linen coat jacket with slightly rumpled blue plaid pants and black cowboy boots. The bride had black spike beehive pumps and a corsage of white carnations.

It was not too much different from many weddings, except the ceremony was performed in the blue walled office of Sheriff Joe D. Keene and the bridegroom was fresh from his jail cell.

The Sheriff pinched his best-man when the matron of honor's husband, James Robbins, of Auburndale, couldn't make the ceremony.

The Robbins had introduced the couple, Helen Louise Wade, 28, a waitress, of Tennessee and Auburndale, to John Edward Boyd, 32. The vows were taken at 2 P.M. Monday before the Rev. Robert Bateman, pastor of First Baptist Church. The couple exchanged plain gold wedding bands.

Following the ceremony, the bride party was left alone in the sheriff's office. Afterward, Boyd was returned to his cell. His bride, cry softly as he was led away.

He was to leave Tuesday morning for the Avon Park Correctional Institution to start serving a two-year sentence for breaking and entering the Southern Railroad at Avon Park and getting

Hospital Auxiliary Meets

The regular meeting of the hospital auxiliary coincided with the banquet given on Monday evening at the Highlands Academy auditorium.

At this time, it was announced that building plans are definite and work can begin, hopefully in the Fall. In this happy setting, among candles and flowers and after a delicious meal, the following received honors:

In the short business meeting that followed the banquet, the treasurer reported that $3,475 had recently been given to the hospital for purchase of a portable Cardiac Defibrillator for use in the emergency room and for intensive care unit equipment that will be a teaching aid.

A "thank you" from the board of trustees for these and for an earlier gift of blood gas analyzer was read to the 27 members present by President Henderson.

The bride who will live in Avon Park and commute to her job in Winter Haven plans to visit him Saturdays and Sundays.

The future holds problems beyond the APCI term, however, because Indian River County authorities also want Boyd for breaking and entering. This was the first time Boyd had been in trouble with the law in 10 years he said. That, too, was breaking and entering. He is a construction worker in terrazzo.

The couple had planned to marry before Boyd got into trouble and they just "did not want to wait," they agreed. She will take care of pretty Lisa Marlene Boyd, 3, along with her own handsome six year old son, James Allen.

This was the first wedding in Highlands County Jail in about 20 years.

Pictures Show Palm Tree Being Planted at Junior College

Where does one plant the first tree or shrub when the whole campus is devoid of trees, bushes and flowers? This was just another problem for Dr. William Stallard, minor one but just as perplexing as any that came along since South Florida Junior College started to take form and shape several years ago.

Bids considerably higher than cash estimates forced the elimination of all landscaping projects. With dedication approaching the student agricultural club members planted grass seed in the amphitheater and lake-front areas to tie down the shifting sands. Interested friends offered trees and other plants but the college without funds or equipment to handle these materials

Lemler Chosen Most Valuable At Wofford

Dean Lemler, former Avon Park Red Devil athlete of the year, was chosen as the most valuable player on this season's Wofford College baseball team. Dean is a sophomore at Wofford this year and although he is attending college on a football scholarship, this Spring he made the varsity baseball team.

The former Red Devil catcher and outfielder opened the season at Wofford with a spectacular day at bat as he boomed out three homers in the first game. At Wofford, Dean played first base and finished the season with a .300 batting average. In addition to the three homers he belted in the first game, the popular athlete hit a grand slam homer in another and turned in eight homers in all during the season. Dean is the son of Mrs. Lucille Lemler of N. Central here in Avon Park and is the brother of Avon Park high school teacher and coach, Dewayne Lemler.

Tax Sale Set For May 29 At Court House

Tax sale for properties with unpaid county taxes will be held at noon on Friday, May 29, in the courtroom on the second floor of the county courthouse.

Tax Collector W. H. Prescott said today that his office will open at 9 A.M. on May 29 and will remain until the sale has been concluded.

At their meeting on Tuesday Highlands County commissioners approved May 29 as a holiday for county employees, but Prescott will proceed on the announced sale date.

County Administrator Charles Morgan pointed out that May 30 is one of the holidays granted according to the annual schedule of county employees and policy has been to grant another day off when the designated holiday falls on a weekend.

could do little to move them and accomplish the beautifying of the campus.

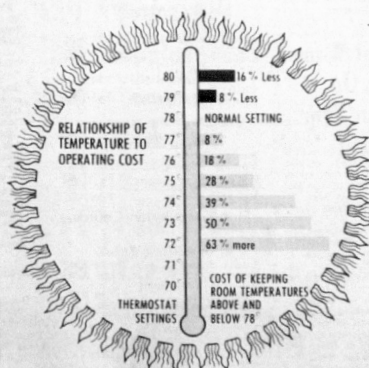

In early April a committee composed of nurserymen, Ronald Lambert, Wauchula Road, Claude Cole, Avon Park and John Washington, Sebring Road along with Robert Gay, Rotary Club and A. Miller of the Junior College agricultural department met with Dr. Stallard to formulate plans for landscaping the campus grounds. All agreed that the place to start was at the entrance to South Florida Junior College where students and visitors alike could enjoy and appreciate the plantings as they were made. Further that this first planting should be a specimen planting in the center of the turn around drive.

This magnificent specimen planting, a Phoenix reclinator or Senechal date palm was donated by the Avon Construction Company. Under the direction of Claude Cole, Residents of APCI pruned, tied up and excavated around the clump of palm trunks and dug the new hole in the turn around.

Service men from Florida Power, United Telephone and the TV Cable Companies stood by while a three-ton capacity forklift tractor from Townsend Lumber Co. tugged and strained to bring the palm cluster into the earth. But the real clump of 10 tall trunks and several smaller stems with its large base would not be budged.

Highlands County Commissioners then provided a mobile crane which slowly wrestled the huge palm clump out of the gaping hole and carefully placed it on a AAA Paving Company trailer much to the satisfaction of several Golden Age villas residents.

To insure the safety of workmen and passing motorists chief Earl Gordon and his men escorted the trailer and palm to the campus planting site. Several weekend visitors to the Junior College campus in commenting on how the palm had changed the campus appearance stated, "It is a beautiful group of palms but you planted it the wrong place, you should have taken it to my yard."

Here's how to make certain you don't waste electricity when running your air conditioning!

TEMPERATURE SETTING: For economy set the thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature (usually about 78°).

FAN SETTING: Operate the fan on "Auto" or "On" for your individual comfort. "Auto" gives best summer humidity control and economical operation. "On" gives more uniform air motion, sound level, and room to room temperature.

AWAY FROM HOME: Operate your air conditioning unit at 5' to 10' above normal setting with fan on "Auto" for mildew protection and quick comfort when you return.

AIR CONDITIONING FILTERS: Replace filters frequently — clogged filters make unit work harder and cause higher operating costs.

OUTDOOR SECTION: Keep clear of plants and other obstructions — anything that interferes with air flow makes unit work harder.

RETURN AIR GRILL: Keep furniture or drapes clear of grill — anything that interferes with delivery or return of air will not allow unit to cool properly.

WINDOWS AND DOORS: Use drapes or provide outside shading to shut out heat from the sun.

INSULATION: Adequate insulation will result in lower operating costs. Proper attic ventilation increases the effectiveness of insulation.

JOINED OUR NEW EQUAL PAYMENT PLAN?

Now you can eliminate higher seasonal electric bills ... pay the same amount each month, summer and winter. There's no charge for this convenience. Just call our local office for details.

American Legion Auxiliary Will Sell Poppies Friday

"Over every remembering heart—a poppy." This will be the message of the American Legion Auxiliary to the people of Avon Park, Friday, May 22.

Members of the Highlands Unit 69 Legion Auxiliary will be on the streets with their baskets filled with the little red crepe paper flowers.

The little red memorial flowers have been made for the Auxiliary by disabled war veterans working in hospitals and convalescent workshops. Mrs. Rodney Lane, the Unit president explained, "They are fashioned of crepe paper and wire in replica of the wild poppies of France and Belgium which grew in such profusion between the crosses, row on row, in battle cemeteries in those countries."

"The women and girls who will be offering the poppies on the street Friday will all be volunteers giving of their time and energy to help bring the symbol of patriotism and remembrance to the people of our community," continued Mrs. Lane. The women receive no compensation for the living victims of war, the disabled veterans and their children. All contributions received will go into the Auxiliary's rehabilitation and child welfare funds. The poppies to be worn here have been made by the veterans hospitalized at the Vetren's Administration Hospital, Bay Pines.

"In talking about the men who make poppies," Mrs. Lane continued: "Many hours are passed in good physical therapy by men who have been made infirm from the rigors of war." If you happen to receive a poppy which is fragile, remember, Please, it was not a machine made. Rather, it has been fashioned by hands of a man who has already given much of himself to preserve the American way of life.

As you see these followers, the "Memorial Poppies," appearing in our community won't you give your means to continue, "service to those who served for you?" concluded Mrs. Lane.

Does Christianity Have Answers?

By DAVE LLEWELLYN

"Christianity is a religion for peasants and women," people used to say.

Now some charge that Christianity is a faith for middle-class Americans. On university campuses it is condescendingly explained, "I went to church sometimes when I was a kid, but I grew up."

It is true, of course, that Christianity is for peasants, women, children, and middle-class Americans. But the implication is not true that Christ has nothing to offer mature, intelligent, and thoughtful people.

Jesus, the man popularly accepted as the greatest Teacher of all time, has been passed off by our academic structures as unworthy of consideration.

Yet this is not a new trend. People who prided themselves on their intellect rejected the message of Jesus in the first century. In Athens, Greece — the cultural center of the world — Paul was received by the academic vanguard as an "idle babbling."

Message for Intellectuals

Paul did have a message for intellectuals, though, and in 19 centuries its significance hasn't changed.

It begins with the problem: "You don't know God."

The Athenians admitted that they didn't know God. They even had an altar with the inscription, "To An Unknown God."

But not knowing God was not then — and is not today — the usual conception of the problem.

"Yes, we are agnostic, but it isn't God we need to know — it is man. Let's study psychology, sociology, city planning, political science, ecology, and medicine."

Sunday School Lesson for May 24, 1970.

One of our problems aren't with knowing God. They are with understanding our fellowmen and our environment.

What does Paul have to say to that?

"The God Who made the world and all things in it, made from one every nation of mankind... that they should seek God... for in Him we live and move and exist." (Acts 17:24-28)

If our problems are with man and the environment, why not find out what God has to say about them? After all, He made them both.

Simplistic? Most people think so, because most people haven't taken the time to think it through — and certainly not to try it.

See What Bible Says

Some like to justify their opinions, study the Bible to find credit. This negative investigation, however, is unscientific. Dr. Francis Schaeffer, of Switzerland, suggests, "Let's not ask first of all, 'Is the Bible true?' Let's see what the basic questions are and find out what the system taught in the Bible has in the way of answers."

Doubters, many observers have concluded that the failure of the organized church is sufficient testimony to the invalidity of the Bible. But those who realize that truth must be evaluated first-hand are likely to come to different decisions.

If you have assumed Christianity to be intellectually unsound, gather up some serious questions about life and see for yourself what the Bible has for answers.

You might discover that God has learned a lot while you've been growing up.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

By Florence Young

We are pleased to report that Bland Nieskirk has returned home from Walker Memorial Hospital and is recuperating rapidly from his signs of flu and kidney infection. Bland extends many thanks to his friends for all the kindnesses extended to Maude and cards which were sent to him.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gibb were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Macksville, N. C., and Mrs. Earl Smith of Winston-Salem, N. C. and Tony Smith of Mount Airy, N. C.

A trip was recently taken by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Biggers with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone to Pompano Beach, Fla. to visit Mrs. Stone's relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benson from Los Angeles, Calif. were visitors last week with the Biggers and they all took an overnight trip to Key West finding beautiful weather and pleasant traveling. The Bensons left here on Monday for home.

We are pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. William Stone residing here temporarily on Court No. 59 while their new home is being built in Avon Park.

Lulu Maddrell received a card from Bea Reas stating that she had a rough flight back to Chicago with delays and much rain. Bea's daughter picked her up in Chicago, where she is living until June 8 when Bea and her daughter will go to Shell Lake, Wis., where she will stay for the Summer, and she is feeling good.

Lu also heard that her son, Dean Maddrell from Monroe, Wis. arrived home in 36 hours driving through heavy rain and flash floods. She is relieved to know that they are all safely home.

Bea Tingle has been away visiting friends, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Loehen, on Marmar Isle near Fort Lauderdale. She is expected back this weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Daer, left for South Canton, Ohio last week end word has been received of their safe arrival, although, they too, had rain most of the way home.

Steve Miller of Richmond, Va., grandson of Mrs. Nina Miller will graduate from Presbyterian Seminary on May 19. ("Mother" Miller was very happy about this event.

Attention residents! We will have a pot luck on Thursday, May 21 at 6 P.M. in the recreation hall. Listen for announcements by Emmett Wright.

FOR EDUCATION-TREATMENT — Four individual group therapy rooms plus a 100 seat auditorium are housed in this new education-treatment building at the Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation, Avon Park. The area within the auditorium contains a movable stage, areas for audio-visual equipment, a projection booth and screen. It also contains movable seats that can be shifted to accommodate a variety of activities including large and small psychotherapy groups.

$130,000 Educational Building Added To Florida Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation Complex

A new $130,000 education-training building has been added to the six building Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation complex here.
Designed by architect James A. Heim, the new building is the first structure in the complex that has an auditorium that will seat 100 persons. It adds an additional 8,000 square feet to the existing state-supported complex, according to Bureau Chief Joseph C. Zisenheim.

The added treatment center first opened its doors in 1956 to study and treat the illness of alcoholism. The new building greatly enhances our opportunity to upgrade training for additional professionals in the treatment of the alcoholic and now enable the Bureau to qualify more people to work in their home communities. Zisenheim said.

In memory of our dear son and brother, Sgt. Willie L. Kirkland, who God saw fit to take from us one year ago, May 18, 1969. The family circle has been broken, and a vacant place that no one could fill is left. May God ever grant you peace. Sadly missed by family and friends.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

Rotary was favored last week with a film on Florida Dunesland, furnished by Tom Southern, assistant administrator of Walker Memorial Hospital.
The theme of Dunesland is entertainment, education and relaxation. The planned city is illustrated in the film as well as the two large booklets. Words fail to express the serenity of the project but the film, running about 30 minutes, put across the thought that it is huge as a complex.
They promise completion of this huge portion in October 1971. It will then require several days to complete, cover all phases of it. Then we understand further development for later disclosure will be underway.

How To Destroy a Country

Affirm man's animal origin, nature and functions to the exclusion of every thing else, and ridicule all references to his spiritual qualities.

Inculcate general disrespect for any kind of authority by urging people to obey their own impulses in the name of freedom.

Hamper in the enforcement of the criminal code with decisions that slow down the judicial process and make it difficult to arrest, convict and sentence a culprit for an offense against society.

Create general distrust of law enforcement officers, whether local police, sheriff's deputies, state troopers or federal agents.

Import vast supplies of hallucinogenic drugs and make them readily available to youth of the land; then provide the youth with plenty of money with which to buy them.

Take military training out of the liberal arts colleges, thereby establishing a gulf between the soldiery and the citizenry that will make them try to cancel out each other.

Divide the country into ethnic groups and then incite insurrections by each group with the intent to launch a civil war.

Loosen all restraint on the entertainment media so that sexual license may be presented to the public in its rawest form.

Use the mass media to make all normal marriages appear dull and perversion to appear interesting and exciting.

Corrupt the youth of the land by permitting pornography, obscenity, and general immorality to be indulged in freely without fear of arrest or prosecution.

Conduct a war in a far distant country in such a way that it will prove highly unpopular and sow deep disunity throughout the land.

Encourage subversives who advocate the violent overthrow of the government to sponsor disorderly protests, incite riots, and damage public and private property with impunity.

Soft pedal all discussion of loyalty, responsibility, patriotism, duty, and sacrifice in order that freedom of dissent may be established.

Convince minority elements in the population that justice can never be secured by them through due process of law, but only by armed revolution.

Foster loopholes in the law that will permit giant economic combines and "defense" manufacturers to pilfer large sums of money from the public purse.

Develop an unbalanced economic system that will make the rich richer and the poor poorer.

Split the older and younger generations by encouraging them to distrust each other and to condemn each other's institutions.

Lull the intellectual leadership into believing that Communism is no threat; that the tyranny evident in present-day European countries is not an inherent part of the Marxist philosophy and could "never happen here" under a Communist government.

Pollute the air, the streams, and lakes, and erode the land until the environment is so poisoned that life can no longer be enjoyed.

Tax the churches and force thousands of them out of existence.

Discourage the practice of prayer and Bible reading, especially in the schools.

Indoctrinate the public into believing that Jesus Christ is a myth, Christianity a byword for an ancient superstition, and the church an institution that mankind has outgrown.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

By Powell Waite

The members of the Rotary Club were honored on Wednesday to have an International guest as our speaker, Pedro Cifuentes from Bogota, Colombia. Pedro is attending South Florida Junior College on a scholarship from the Florida-Colombia Alliance. Pedro expressed his pleasure and appreciation to the people of Avon Park for accepting him into the community and school. He came to the United States one year ago and was unable to speak any English. His progress during this year has been remarkable as evidenced by his ability to speak to this large group.

Pedro comes from an agricultural family in Colombia, where his family is engaged in the cattle business. He is studying agriculture at South Florida with the intention of returning to his country and using the knowledge gained here to upgrade the agricultural economy of his country.

All of the members and guests were pleased to hear Pedro say that the people of Colombia are generally in favor of the United States and our way of government. He said there are a few radicals who attempt to start anti-American movements.

With his pleasing personality and gracious appreciation of international goodwill, which is one of the objectives of Rotary.

City Council—

pensive accounting machine purchased not too long ago has proven unsatisfactory because of the difficulty of keeping it in repair. As a result there has been talk of buying two less elaborate machines on a trade in of the present machine. National Cash Register bid on a single machine with extra "essentials" amounting to a total price of $18,990 with only a $3,000 allowance for the trade-in. A sales representative was on hand to describe its features. Burroughs offered one dual printer for $6,490 and an electric accounting machine for $10,580. After discounts and a trade-in amounting to $10,264, however, this left a balance of payment amounting to $5,164. All action in regard to this was postponed.

Other Matters
Other subjects for discussion before this meeting of the council included the following:

Rider Boping Club requested a lease of city property in the airport complex. Experimental rodeos have been held in the past and the club has made some substantial donations to the Rider Area School for Retarded.

On suggestion of temporary chairman, Mr. Serdyne, club representatives agreed to look over the property and submit a sketch of proposed use.

Charles Baker requested a lease and possible purchase of ten acres of city property for construction of a Go Kart track. A motion by Scott and seconded by Martin to table any action was unanimously carried.

An ordinance adopting the Southern Standard Plumbing Code with modifications, received its first and second reading by the city attorney, City Attorney Hancock, also discussed proposals for further ordinances to trailer parks within the city limits, and to cleaning up of city lots. He stated there appeared to be ample ordinances on the books already. Many concerned people can breathe a sigh of relief, and hope that Avon Park will not completely smother itself in new ordinances.

The appointment of a full-time lifeguard for the city beach after the close of school was voted and the matter of his jurisdiction placed in the hands of the city clerk and his department.

Some questions were raised concerning the rights of a home owner on Lake Isis to extend fences on his property down to the waters edge. It was agreed that no lake property owner has jurisdiction beyond the mean high water line, or to place obstructions beyond the legal fence line, out into the water of the lake.

Happiness has been compared to potato salad — mix it with others, and you have a picnic.

Four Gets Opportunity For Restitution

In county judges court last week four Highlands Countians were given opportunity to reduce penalties by making restitution in their respective cases.

George Allen Heiler of Sebring, who had pleaded guilty to false representation of a credit card, was fined $200 or 90 days if he makes restitution.

If no restitution is made, he is to serve three months in jail.

John Allan Johnson of Sebring was given a three months jail sentence for reckless driving, three months for attempting to elude a police officer and one month and ordered to make restitution for destruction of county property. All sentences are to be suspended except the restitution and Johnson is to be placed on probation for two years.

Tony R. Veasey, who pleaded guilty to a worthless check charge, was fined $16 or 15 days if restitution made or if no restitution, the fine is to be $50 or 30 days.

Dorothy Baldwin, who pleaded guilty to a worthless check charge, was ordered to make restitution and pay a fine of $16 or five days in jail. If no restitution is made the Avon Park woman is to be fined $75 or 30 days.

An Avon Park man, Davy Ray Parham drew a 30-day jail sentence on each of three counts of assault and battery. All jail sentences were suspended on condition that Parham be on probation for one year, subject to being extended, no drinking and stay away from in-law's property. Other conditions may be imposed by the probation supervisor.

Ernest Fleming, who pleaded guilty to assault and battery, was fined $250 or 90 days in jail.

Eddie Tucker of Lake Placid pleaded guilty to a drunk charge and was fined $26 or 13 days. On a profanity charge Martha Wilkinson of Sebring extorted a $35 bond.

Hiram Vester Snow of Avon Park extorted a $50 bond on an improper change of lane and direction change made in connection with an accident.

Frank William Meeske of Lake Placid pleaded guilty to improper passing and was fined $30 or 10 days.

Rafael Lopez of Lake Placid pleaded guilty to violation of restrictions on driver's license and was fined $16 or five days.

Joe Martin of Avon Park pleaded guilty to trespassing and was fined $26 or 10 days. Colinto B. Perez pleaded no defense to failure to have vehicle under control and was fined $35 or 15 days.

winning pitcher Tommy Lewis.

Tommy Lewis was the big gun at the plate for the winners also. He hit a double and two singles and Larry Dought added a single.

The Thursday night games were postponed until Saturday night because of the fourth grade chorus concert.

In the first game on Saturday night, second place Rotary beat First Baptist by a score of 7-4. Rotary third sacker Ed Dorsey hit a home-run in the second inning to go with a single he had in the first.

Tony Underwood hit two singles and Dan Dorsey and Mike Cobb had a double each. David Barbee and Bill Cravey hit a single each.

Jerry Robinson and Butch Farless pitched for the losing Baptist team. Mark Gaynes was the winning hurler and he gave up six hits—a double by Smokey Hill, two singles by Danny Lamar, and lone singles by Danny Choate, Jerry Robinson, and Ray LaFlam.

Leon's team won over the Lions 11-1 in the second game last Saturday night as Billy Young and Mark Lewis held the Lion batters to four hits including one double by Tim Maates and singles by John Barker, Keith Crews, and Ralph Hart. Leon's batters got eight hits off John McKunas and Mike McKenzie. Leading the winners at the plate was Reggie Talbot with a double and two singles. Mike Minard had two singles, and Mark Lewis, Charles Pough, and Craig Skipper had a single each.

Last Monday night's games had Rotary beating I. H. Ford 10-5 and Avon (Crus) defeating First Baptist 7-5.

Athletic Assn. Buys New Weight Machine

The Avon Park Athletic Association has invested in $2600 worth of new equipment to be used by the high school and junior high school physical education classes and the athletic program at Avon Park high school in the coming years. The new equipment is a fascinating machine which is called a Universal Weight Machine but is actually a group of 14 different stations designed to exercise every part of the body at each individual's capacity.

The association and the high school coaches have installed the new apparatus in a new room built on the side of the field house at Memorial Field. The new room will also be used next fall for skill practice and as a film room for studying films of opponents and of the athletes themselves.

Last week Coach Joe Franz and Coach Ralph Hill demonstrated the new weight machine to the Sun sports reporter and Sun publisher, Ed Carter. The two coaches are the full time physical education instructors at Avon Park High School and they first explained that the machine was especially attractive to them. First was that the machine is designed so that it is very safe as far as falling weights or apparatus is concerned. No weights can fall on a student, even if he cannot hold the weight up. Second was that 26 boys can be moved through the 14 stations in 15 minutes getting the needed exercise for each part of the body. If the boys participate in this program daily, they are expected to show marked improvement in many areas.

The machine is built to serve students of different sizes by merely pulling and replacing a pin at each individual's working capacity. Each student finds his maximum lift at each station and then drops to 60 percent for daily workouts. Franz and Hill have weighed and measured approximately 70 Red Devil athletes noting chest, arm, leg sizes and have also timed these boys on the 40 yard and 50 yard dash. After a certain length of time of working on the machine, the athletes will be re-weighed and re-measured and re-timed to check improvement.

The 14 stations of the Universal Weight Machine are as follows: 1. Leg Press Station, 2. Chest Press Station, 3. Shoulder Press Station, 4. High Lat Station, 5. Low Pulley-Quad and Dead Lift Station, 6. Chinning Station, 7. Dipping Station, 8. Hip Flexor Station, 9. Abdominal Conditioner, 10. Thigh and Knee Machine, 11. Back Hyperextension Station, 12. Rowing Station, 13. Neck Conditioning Station, 14. Wrist Roller Station.

So far the boys physical education classes and the football hopefuls have been working out on the machine. Coach Franz is working on plans for some evening use by adults in the future if interest is shown.

Right now the big problem is paying off the balance due on the apparatus and parents and athletic fans are invited to go down to the field house and look at the equipment and then donate to the cost of the new equipment.

Hensley Assigned To Vietnam

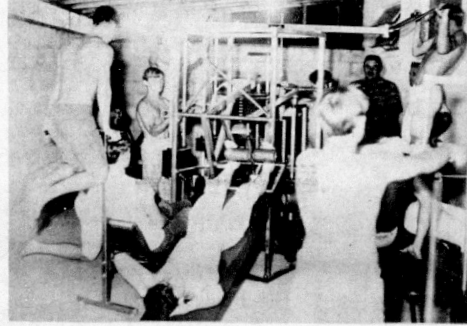

Army Private First Class Jerry D. Hensley, 20, son of Mrs. Mildred M. Burns, 397 Carroll Drive, Athens, Ga., recently was assigned as a clerk-typist with Headquarters Detachment, U. S. Army Support Command, Da Nang, Vietnam.

His father, Carl F. Hensley, lives on Route 3, Avon Park.

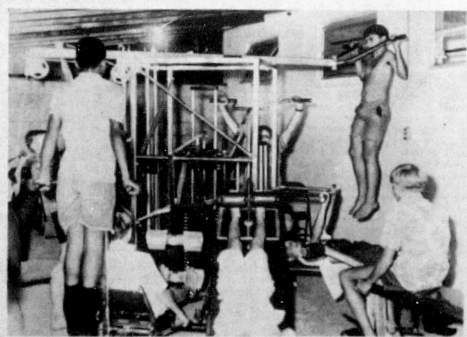

FOUR BOYS who will be senior members of the Red Devil football team next fall work out on the new Universal Weight Machine recently purchased by

PROSPECTIVE RED DEVIL football players demonstrate action on the new Universal Weight Machine at the field house at Memorial Field. The new machine was purchased by the Avon Park Athletic Association for $2600 of which $1600 is still needed. Fans may donate to the cost of this machine.

BOYS FROM a junior high physical education class work out in the new exercise machine owned by the Avon Park Athletic Association. Twenty-six boys can work through all 14 stations in approximately 15 minutes according to Athletic Director Joe Franz.

Teachers Break Communication Barrier With Students

Hearing and intelligence are at least normal, but when he gets that bluish look you know Johnny has not understood one word you have said. You might as well be speaking Japanese.

The idea is perfectly clear to you, but you can't find the words to explain it.

The situations are not uncommon and may seem to pose major problems—unless you are a teacher with 26 students and at least half of them are experiencing difficulty with communication skills.

The teacher knows that the black stares and fumbling speech in class are related to Johnny's struggle with reading.

In Highlands County this year four teachers have broken the tough communication barrier with children who hear but do not comprehend, who talk but do not say much.

Using a unique program developed especially for this county by Mrs. Barbara Heilig and Mrs. Joan Moore, 24 children were selected from the grades 2 through 4 at Hopewell and E. O. Douglas schools. These children were placed in groups of five children each and each group met three times a week under the direction of an exceptional child teacher—Miss Isabella Armstrong and Mrs. Myrtle Ward at E. O. Douglas, Mrs. Arletha Sims and Miss Gloria Edwards at Hopewell.

Six Approaches

Mrs. Heilig and Mrs. Moore identified six approaches to the communication problem and then they wrote lessons which shifted from one approach to another. To this work they brought their special skills and experiences.

Mrs. Heilig is a certified speech therapist and Mrs. Moore is certified in special education; both have had extensive experience in working with children who have learning handicaps. They are members of the county-wide instructional staff working with T. R. Johnson, Jr., coordinator of pupil personnel services for Highlands County schools.

Some lessons have been directed at learning to identify sounds. Learning to hear small differences in sound is related to learning to distinguish words which sound almost alike but have very different meanings—for example, flat and flap.

Considerable attention has been given to lessons directed at learning to follow directions. Vocabulary building lessons include learning new words by making correct identifications.

Course visual aids have pictures of 30 different kinds of insects. (Did you know many children think the same for that little garden pest is "hopper grass"?)

Accent the Positive

One of the key elements in the program is the use of the modern discoveries in behavior science—that children learn good habits faster when their progress is praised and failures to a large degree ignored.

When children in the special communication skills groups consciously try to do their best and when they do achieve well, they are given small gifts, often candy. That part is easy. It is harder for experienced teachers to refrain from criticism, telling a student that he is wrong.

Mrs. Heilig and Mrs. Moore beam as they talk about the four teachers. "Their enthusiasm and their understanding have been very rewarding. They pay their own expenses to come to the weekly meetings and even though they have already put in a full day of teaching, we have to push them out the door at five o'clock."

Writers Honored

Mrs. Heilig and Mrs. Moore are receiving recognition too. They were invited to present a day-long workshop for teachers at Sarasota, a special program for the State Federation of the Council for Exceptional Children and most recently they were the only non-Pd's on the program for the annual convention of the Florida and Georgia Speech and Hearing Association.

Right now they are not sure what lies ahead for this program. Mrs. Heilig and Mrs. Moore know they would like to expand the program. Ideally, they say, it should start with kindergartners and probably be used throughout the primary grades.

They could stay busy just answering the questions coming from all over the Southeast, but they emphasize, "This is a program for the children of Highlands County; it is uniquely Highlands County."

Ernest Sims Honored Sunday

By BOB HANFORD
An unheralded but significant event took place in Avon Park on Sunday, May 24. It had been quietly organized by a group of individuals who in genuine love were attempting to surprise the honored guest and his wife, Ernest E. Sims, Principal of Hopewell School.

The "surprise" party was no easy accomplishment. Few times in the career of this public servant has he received a "dirty look" from his friends and co-workers. Thus it was indeed disconcerting to him when during the previous week he "barged in" on some unofficial and unannounced gathering of his faculty and staff, and actually found himself frowned upon.

One of the factors which makes this event so significant is that it actually signals the breaking up of "the old order" in Avon Park. In the next school year there will be a genuine not "broken" integration of our school system. But "progressive" and essential as this is there are many nostalgic memories among those who have thrived together silently through thick and thin over the long years when they found themselves so rigidly a fixed "minority group."

This was basically an invitation affair and some very attractively composed invitations had been mailed out to a number of specially selected guests. One thing which made the gathering unusual was the absence of professional politicians on the program or in the audience. This was basically a gathering of friends who really cared.

The "program" honoring professor and Mrs. E. E. Sims had been carefully prepared and copies neatly printed for distribution to those in attendance. A Bible verse appeared on the front page of the folder—Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

A religious tone in today's sophisticated educational activities—most beautifully presented the whole program.

Mrs. Clara T. Boone presided. After the "Moonlight Sonata" was rendered as a prelude by Mrs. A. R. Williams, the audience was requested to stand for the congregational singing of "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Rev. J. W. Daughtry then read from the Scripture and offered the opening prayer. Doubtless with many of the audience remembering the surprise heart attack of Principal Sims this past year.

Four personal tributes were given starting with Miss Deon White reciting, "I've never seen God but I know who I feel." Then facing Mr. Sims squarely he went on, "It's someone like you who makes Him so real."

Participating in the program were Homer T. Williams, A. B. White, Aaron Cravens, Calvin Gibbs and the speaker for the occasion, Prof. Samuel Nixon of the E. O. Douglas High School in Sebring.

Following the singing by a choral group, "God is Our Refuge" and a solo presentation were made by teachers, Mrs. Shirley Furr, and Mrs. Queen E. Coward, to Principal and Mrs. Sims.

The response by the honoree was unique. After humorously mentioning some of the surprise elements of the occasion he asked the audience to join him in prayer, a form of conversation in which Prof. Sims is very much at home.

Through the years Mr. Sims has been a big factor in the spirit of peace and good will which has kept Avon Park free of the turmoil so prevalent in the country today.

Free Heart
Test
Appointments are now being taken for free Heart-Stroke testing at the Health Department in Sebring. The testing, which is done by appointment only, and takes only 15 minutes, is done on Fridays between the hours of 9 A.M. and 3 P.M. Included in the tests are blood pressure and pulse check, electrocardiogram, and a blood test for glucose, uric acid, hemoglobin, cholesterol, and others.

This program is designed to discover potential heart and stroke problems BEFORE a person is stricken, so medical care can be obtained, and is sponsored by Highlands County Health Department and the Florida Division of Health.

Those who have not had these tests, can call the Health Department for appointment.

Monday and Friday evening dances were held at the club house. Each evening there was just one square to dance but all enjoyed dancing to both old and new records. Some of our dancers have left for a week vacation of square dancing at Fontaine, S. C. Among those going are Mayme and Elmo Corne and Grace and George Kilohe.

Supper
Mrs. Anne Janke was hostess at the Saturday night supper. Fourteen came. Mrs. Wetmore asked the blessing. Mrs. Kellings read a letter from Germain E. Smith thanking the group for a birthday card sent to him on his 102nd birthday. He also wrote that his health is fairly good and he is able to get along without assistance. We had no program but after a good supper some went home and others stayed to play cards.

Memorial Day which is this next Saturday, there will be a supper at 5:30 P.M. and everyone is welcome. Bring a covered dish and your table service.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

By Florence Young

Our friends and neighbors in the North will be happy to know that the rains finally came, were erasing thirsty lawns and flowers to new beauty and color for the enjoyment of we "stay-at-homes."

Word was received from Dr. and Mrs. Dean Conrad of their safe arrival, good health, and a busy schedule.

Recent visitors of Arthur and Jo Peep were Mr. and Mrs. Ren Howe, Mrs. Mary Allen, of Owasco, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Rex Fuller of Robinson, Ill., and Mr. Jay Foley of Haines City, Florida who was a resident of our park a few years ago.

We wish a Happy Golden Wedding Anniversary to Mr. and Mrs. Rowley Glastier, Winter residents of our park. The date is June 11, 1970 and their address is 1200 North Main St., Fitchburg, Ohio 44840.

The monthly potluck dinner was attended by 30 residents and guests of our park on Thursday, May 21. We wished a Happy Birthday to Sally Wright, Lawrence Robinson, Mrs. Nana Miller, Jonathan Wright and Nellie Becker.

Flora was following the potluck dinner entitled: High in the Himalayas, Candy Town USA, Cranberry World, and Adventures of X-14, by Emmette Wright, our able movie projectionist. We enjoyed the fellowship and fine food as usual. Some of the plays played a few games of shuffleboard.

A birthday party was held for Lawrence Robinson in their home on Friday evening with eight guests. Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Warner, Mrs. Frank LaFollette, Mrs. LaRue Longenecker, Mrs. Laura Wareham, and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Wetmore pepping up the affair with cards, gifts and games after the dinner. Lawrence was happy and grateful for their thoughtfulness.

Taking a short weekend vacation, the Mr. and Mrs. Ed Beckers visited Mrs. Geraldine Nichols in Deland, Florida. The presentation was made by Mrs. Welch Fisher at the regular meeting of the Union Congregational Church on Sunday.

Mrs. Clemmans was awarded the certificate in recognition of her work on the booklet which will be used in the training of workers for Girl Scout Day Camps. It required over 30 stencils and the mimeographing of over 2,000 printed sheets.

Mrs. Fisher representing the Host of Fla. Girl Scout Council stated that this booklet will be used for years in the training of new leaders in six counties and so Mrs. Clemmans' work will be a continual tribute to her kindness.

Our best wishes to Mrs. Blaud Nieuirk who is having minor surgery this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf are entertaining their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Wolf of Elkhardt, Ind. Mr. Wolf is going into Wal-Mart Medical Hospital this week for surgery and our thoughts will be with him during this time.

The Robinsons spent another day in Sarasota this week on business and shopping with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Converse.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Mrs. LaRue Longenecker, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Bigger, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone, Mrs. Laila Maddrell, Mrs. Beatrice Tingler and Mrs. Frances Bleser, a former resident of our park, attended the First United Methodist Church to hear the Avon Park Correctional Institute Choir and "Gospel Travelers" sing many old time favorite hymns, and some new rhythms to old songs, on Sunday evening, resulting in meaningful feelings and inspiration for all present.

Visiting Emmette and Sallie Wright on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wright of Bradenton, Florida. Emmette and Sallie have just returned from Daytona Beach where Emmette was a lay delegate to the district assembly for The Church of the Nazarene. Also congratulations are in order, Emmette, for being received into membership recently to the Avon Park Rotary Club and also the Gideons International.

How to Get Rid Of Guilt

By DAVID LEWELLYN

Nobody can live a healthy life without the presence of guilt feelings.

Psychologists today say their primary job is to help people to live with their guilt feelings.

Many psychologists do not feel that "redemption," however, by counseling their patients that no one has the right to condemn another person and what is wrong for them or to make them live their lives. This misconception from all restrictions, guilt feelings do exist.

The feelings associated with guilt are very difficult for most people to overcome — so difficult, in fact, that some psychologists have concluded that guilt is not always just a culturally imposed condition.

Guilt Is Real

The practical experience of these men has convinced them that there actually exists a moral standard in the universe, and it is the hidden consciousness of man, and they have decided that the eternal reward and dependency arising from guilt feelings results in a false illusion but from guilt that is actual.

The viewpoint of modern psychological thought has, by personal investigation and analysis, arrived at an old Testament concept of life.

Guilt was the pre-scientific experience of the Israelites, according to Ezekiel's prophecy, and it made them miserable. "Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we give away in them. How then can we live?"

"How then can we live?" with our guilt? Ezekiel's answer is: "Repent."

FLORIDA FORESTRY serviceman Buddy Long of Avon Park ate, breathed and exhaled smoke while fighting the stubborn fire that rolled across Bob Barringer's pasture and the rear of the Stokely Van Camp lemon grove. The fire whipped along by high winds jumped two fire lines ploughed through the grass and dry muck by the Forestry Service plough. Dense billowing smoke several times completely enveloped both Long and the brushy background while he saturated the flaming areas with a high pressure water hose. The acrid fumes of burning muck could be smelled in the Avon Park area until Sunday's rain put out most of the muck fires.

THE WIND WHIPPED fire racing through a woods adjoining the lemon grove produced enough heat to melt this six inch aluminum alloy irrigation pipe. The bright spots at the ends of the hole, are blobs of molten aluminum alloy that had dropped to the ground. This damage pipe was about 60 feet from a booster pump and engine along with 200 gallons of gasoline that did not explode despite the heat. Robert Harvey, grove foreman, estimated that approximately 200 lemon trees were severely damaged by the searing heat. They had the same dry leaf appearance as trees damaged by the December 1961 freeze.

Here's how to make certain you don't waste electricity when running your air conditioning!

TEMPERATURE SETTING: For economy set the thermostat at the highest comfortable temperature (usually about 78°).

FAN SETTING: Operate the fan on "Auto" or "On" for your individual comfort. "Auto" gives best summer humidity control and economical operation. "On" gives more uniform air motion, sound level, and room to room temperature.

AWAY FROM HOME: Operate your air conditioning unit at 5° to 10° above normal setting with fan on "Auto" for mildew protection and quick comfort when you return.

AIR CONDITIONING FILTERS: Replace filters frequently—clogged filters make unit work harder and cause higher operating costs.

OUTDOOR SECTION: Keep clear of plants and other obstructions—anything that interferes with air flow makes unit work harder.

RETURN AIR GRILL: Keep furniture or drapes clear of grill—anything that interferes with delivery or return of air will not allow unit to cool properly.

WINDOWS AND DOORS: Use drapes or provide outside shading to shut out heat from the sun.

INSULATION: Adequate insulation will result in lower operating costs. Proper attic ventilation increases the effectiveness of insulation.

Point scores by Roy Claitt, Walter Nunnallee and Willie Siegler. The three combined totaled 36 points. Nunnallee captured the high hurdles with a time of 1:56. This time was not his best. Then later Nunnallee made a bid for first place in the low hurdles but his bid fell short five-hundredths of a second with 21.5. Roy Claitt took the 100 yard dash with a time of 10.1. Then he missed first in the 220 by two-tenths of a second with a 27.7. Seigler took fifth in the 100 and fourth in the 220.

They also ran the 800 relay with James Perdue to take second place with a 3:33.2. Colvin Stone managed to get fifth place in the mile run. His time was 5:08.4. Leroy Collins then placed third in the 800 in 2:09.4 with Joe Franzina getting fifth with 2:10.7. In field events Wally Pierce took fifth in the pole vault 10'0". Avon Park High Tracksters Compete In State Meet

By SCOTT GUST
The Avon Park Track Team concluded a successful season this year with several boys making the trip to the State Track Meet in Gainesville. The Red Devils were involved in many six team meets this year and consistently placed first or second.

The Devils were led by tri-captains, Walter Nunnallee, Willie Seigler, and Roy Claitt. Nunnallee is the crack hurdler, running both the high and low hurdles. Wally and Roy provided strength and speed in the 100 yard dash and the 220 dash for the season. Jimmy Magenheim proved to be the Devils' outstanding high jumper with Joe Franzina and Mike Rihner lending support. Wally Pierce and Magenheim were the pole vaulters this year. Doyle Book, Dave Flowers, Seigler, Claitt, Dasher, and Perdue were the Devils' long jumpers and medley relay team.

Both sophomores. They teamed with Joe Franzina to form the Devil mile relay quartet. The Distance Corps was headed by Freddie Jahna, Eugene Flowers, Leroy Collins, Joe Franzina, Scott Gust, William Nickoley, Calvin Stone, Bruce Trescott, and Joe Dalton. Many of these boys are underclassmen and will be back next year. The field events had some bright spots for the Devils this year. Mike Bradberry provided points both the discus and shot put. Mandy Howard, Mike Archer, Virgil McVane, and Charles Johns added depth to these events.

"Double, Double, toil and trouble. Litter mounts and tempers bubble."

Chorus Presents Spring Concert

Aquarius was the theme for AFHS chorus when it presented its annual Spring concert at 8 P.M. May 19. Half of the program presented the mixed chorus singing: "The Sounds of Silence," "The 5th Street Bridge Song" (Feeling Groovy); "Melodie D'Amour," and "Carnet."

The other half presented the Girls' Chorus. It sang: "Good Morning Starshine," "Sunrise Sunset," "Sunny," "Hey, Look Me Over," "What Now My Love," and "Windy."

Friday 13th — Double Trouble in '70

By MIKE SLEAR
This year (February and March an oddity of the stars occurred — two months in a row, Friday was on the 13th — the most unlucky day of the year. You know its here when— You've just put the used blade in the medicine cabinet slot and realized you're out of blades. You wear your new Fall to school and the wind blows it halfway down the block. Your first day of drivers Ed. you cream a cop's car. Your science teacher says "Now My Love" and "Windy."

timephase." And your economics teacher asks you to define — total organizational flexibility. The guy you sit next to in Spanish I looks remarkably like Castro. You get a New Years Eve party invitation two months before. You forget to wear a tie for senior pictures. You're trapped in the restroom between classes with your shirt hopelessly stuck in your zipper. But somehow we always manage to live through it.

Sweetheart Has Secret Identity

Mandy Howard, APHS senior, was chosen as FHSA Sweetheart for 1970. The "sweetheart" was announced at the annual Twirp Dance held by the Future Homemakers of America. Besides being honored as club sweetheart Mandy received a tie tack with his initials engraved on it. Each year the girls of the FHSA choose a senior boy to be their sweetheart. The boy is chosen by a popular vote of the members. Then, his identity is kept secret until the night of the dance, held on or around Valentine's day.

Students Give Ideas Of Good Vacations

Linda Bennett: "My idea of a good vacation is to go some place where you are not known and meet a different set of people, but most of all do your own 'thing.'"

Suzette Nelson: "My idea of a good vacation is to go to a place where there is water and people—nice people."

Velma Watson: "When your man is here you're on Cloud 18; but when he's not in town, there's not a 'thing' to do, but be bored."

Delores Crumedy: "My idea of a good vacation is when I can rest, without being bothered. Also when I can be with my man."

Altamere Wilcox: "My idea of a good vacation is to go to a place where you can be in a swinging town with swinging people—especially your man, and really digging swinging things."

of a good vacation is being in a groovy place with groovy people, listening to groovy music."

Freddie Brown: "My idea of a good vacation is having lots of money, lots of fun and lots of girls."

Connie Howard: "My idea of a good vacation is being with your sweet man, having a groovy time in a city, and really digging the people."

Patsy Hippis: "A good vacation is being digged and really digging other people, especially your man. You can really get the groove with a good vacation."

Chada Sanders: "My idea of a good vacation is when you can be in a swinging town with swinging people—especially your man, and really digging swinging things."

Take a Look at More Than Books In Our Library: News, Magazines

By DOROTHY MARTIN
The library is more than a storehouse of books. It is an agency of continuing education for young and old. For an example, let's take a look at some of the reference books at Avon Park High School.

World Book.
The American Educator.
Picture Encyclopedia of American History.
Young People Science Encyclopedia.

abridged and unabridged dictionaries.
Avon Park High School library receives different kinds of magazines such as: "The Outdoor Life," "Look," "The Life West," "Frontier," "Times," "Astronaut," "Modest," "American Girl," "The True West," "McCall's," "Boating," "Popular Mechanics," "Grade Teacher," "Young Miss," "Science News," "Sky and Telescope," "Esquire," "Reader's Digest," and "Popular Science."

Police Acquire New Radar

"You'd better watch it when you come speeding out of the parking lot at lunch or after school."

This is not just a silly warning. The police department has finally gotten the electronic eye.

Avon Park Police Department recently acquired a radar unit by which it can watch both lanes of traffic at the same time and catch speeders. Several students have been caught already and there is no warning, you get a ticket to take home with you.

So obey the law and the new radar shouldn't be harmful to you.

Seniors Have Tough Time In English

By MIKE SLEAR
This year, seniors will not receive their diplomas without an English IV credit. This credit is not so easy to acquire as it may seem.

In the past few weeks seniors have had lots of English with everything from vocabulary tests to term papers. The term paper included note cards, outlines, rough drafts and typewritten copies. While doing the term paper, character sketches and reading assignments were also a part of the English curriculum.

Although these activities are very worthwhile it seems odd that our little old English teacher would wait "Till the Night Before" to assign them... even if "The Night Before" was—Feb. 20!

Weaking To Muscle Man?

The weight machine is a project to help football players build up their legs, arms, neck, chest and grip.

The machine is coming from donations and funds from last football season. The Devils Club donated $200 toward the machine.

We should have a good team says coach Joe Franzina.

The machine is being used before it gets paid for.

The machine has 750 pounds to build up legs, and 150 pounds on another leg builder. A 100-pound man could turn into a 150-pound football player at the end of the year.

Victory Taken By Avon Park

Roy Claitt won the 100 yard dash in a three team County meet including Sebring, Lake Placid and Avon Park Claitt's time was 9.8, with Willie Joe Seigler taking second place in the run. Runners for the 800 relay and the 220 were for Avon Park.

The team won the mile run and the mile relay with Lake Placid coming in second in both events.

Avon Park came out with victory in the track meet.

Keyettes Help Needy Runners Dress Up

Members of the Keyettes Club sold 200 cupcakes during the period Feb. 26-Mar. 18, raising $20. The money is to help the boys of the track team to buy uniforms and any equipment they will need.

ANN LANDERS SAYS: Be Cool....Wise

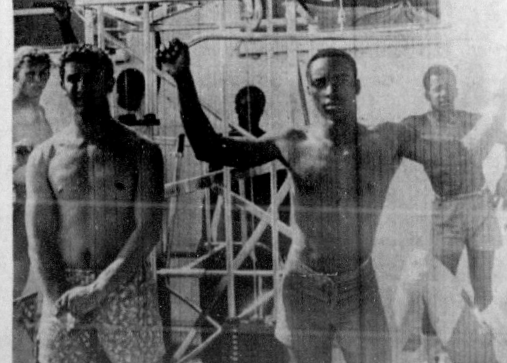

Dear Readers: With so much being said and written about teenagers these days I thought you might be interested in an open letter that I had my desk today. Here it is:

Dear Kid: Today you came to me for a job. From the look of your shoulders as you walked out, I suspect you've been turned down before, and maybe you feel by now that kids out of high school can't find work. Well, don't believe it. I hired a teen-ager today. Perhaps you saw him on your way out. He was the boy with the polished shoes. He wore a necktie. He didn't have any experience either—but his attitude put him on my payroll instead of you. That boy cared enough to make an impression. He left his leather jacket at home. His suit was a little shabby but it was pressed. His fingernails were clean. His hair wasn't exactly short, but it was neat. And it wasn't the first thing you noticed when you looked at him.

The way to get a job is to use the same approach as when you are trying to get a girl. No guy in his right mind would try to impress a chick with a dirty shirt and faded jeans. And it doesn't hurt to ease the situation. Have some facts. The kid I hired instead of you went to the trouble to find out what we manufacture.

You might not believe it but there are hundreds of employers in this town who are looking for bright, young people who are smart enough to go after a job in the old-fashioned way. When they find one they like they can't wait to unload some of their responsibilities on them. For both our sakes, get eager, will you? The Man Who Passed You By

Willie Davis, Joseph Todd, James Coleman, and Earl Strong.

Keyettes Elect
New Members

Members of the Keyettes have collected applications for new members for next year. The applicants will have to be in grades 9-11 with a 2.5 average. They also have to submit a written essay telling why they want to be a member of the Keyettes Club. Last month members of the club collected applications and voted on them, finding out which ones were logical. They also will elect new officers for next year. They are planning Keyette week, having a special activity taking place each day.

American States
Youth "Equality"

By ANGELA KELLEY
I am an American and have a right to be here.
I am sick of everyone putting me down when they don't even know me.
I am sick of people telling me how to dress when they dress as they please.
I am sick of nationalists who think they know everything but really don't know anything.
I am sick of everyone saying "get a haircut" when our forefathers wore their hair long.
I am sick of adults telling me not to drink and smoke when they do it.
But most of all I am sick of people who pass judgment on other people and don't give them a chance to prove themselves.

I Remember, I Remember
The Fabulous Sebring Race

I remember, I remember The fabulous Sebring Race In March it was the 21st And all was there.

I remember, I remember The traffic underflow. That clogged the roads for many miles All the way to Sebring. Even now I fear there is no doubt That many still are there attempting to get out.

I remember, I remember Steve Cooper. John McMillan. Mike Reek. Tony Peebles. Connie Howard threw it down and "hon" stomped it. Patrus threw three paper at Tony Tate (her boy friend). I saw a classmate of mine, Jonathan Wright, pick up some paper.

I must say It doesn't pay To drop some paper. It's a dirty caper So if you do . . . You know you're through!

When you drop paper, and all those fugs Just think—you're nothing but nasty litter bugs.

"I shot some litter in the air and where it landed I did not care. Until I saw it landed there. Now I care!"

Success is defined in the dictionary as a degree or measure of succeeding. To obtain this degree you must want to be a success and then work hard to achieve it. Many students at APHS say "Oh I don't care." "I can't." "What's the use in it?" But we the students are the future government of the United States and we must at least try. Success is what has made our country what it is and as long as we have success it will continue to be a nation.

The ladder of success is: 100%—I did 90%—I will 80%—I can 70%—I think I can 60%—I might try 50%—I suppose I should 40%—What is it 30%—I wish I could 20%—I don't know 10%—I can't 0%—I won't

Prisoners Cast
Show at APHS

Criminals walking around the APHS campus? Yes! That was the case in January, for inmates of the Apalachee Correctional Institution put on a program in the auditorium. One of the highlights of the program was the band which played songs such as "Homeward Bound," and "Summertime" between the talks given by the other inmates.

This program centered around the problem of drug abuse, but also included crimes such as robbery. This seems to go hand-in-hand with drugs, for much money is needed for the drug habit.

This program did not try to influence the students of APHS in any way, but merely presented the facts of drug abuse and left the decision up to the individual himself.

ECCP Projects:
Pollution Crisis,
Data Processing

Last month, the E.C.C.P. class attended the University of South Florida for the purpose of working with digital computers.

This was the first time for the class to work with larger computers. At the university they worked under Dr. Wimmer, head of data processing.

The class, being one of few in the state, enjoyed Dr. Wimmer's gratitude and expressed its gratitude before leaving the campus.

On April 22nd the class participated in a nation-wide program called Environmental Teach-In, which was designed to inform students of the serious problems of pollution.

Dirgey Laundry
In Spoon River

Man lives in ignorance and fear. He doesn't realize . . . He has a lesson to learn from the dead.

"Live every moment with the realization that it will quickly pass away." Everything changes but death.

Man is not immortal. He will go home someday and then he'll realize. But it's far too late when he passes away . . .

Excuse me, I must go. Spoon River is calling me home.

Trackmen Run
In State Meet

Several of this year's varsity track players qualified for the state track meet at Gainesville. The meet was held May 8 on the University of Florida track field.

These players were Walter Nunnallee, Roy Clait, Willie Seigler, and James Perdue.

Walter Nunnallee captured second in the high hurdles with a time of 1:56. Roy Clait finished third in the open 220. His time was 23.2. The 880 relay team finished seventh.

"Deterioration in the Deep South which has resulted due to lack of awareness."

No longer have I a "talent" for I has helped into the red clay.

Vocabulary? A high-class word.

Who needs "book-learnin'"? I have lost my mind — my powers of self-expression.

Perhaps the score has run dry?

No longer can I pour my soul into a pencil, etching its crude hieroglyphics upon a sheet of nothingness.

What has happened that I have seven?

But maybe the seeds were planted on rocky ground.

Only to sprout up for a moment in eternity . . . and then die from the heat of the Sun of Ignorance.

Lions Club
News
The regular meeting on May 19 was planned for attending Lions to plan for "Installation night" set for June 2. Lion Fred Hughes volunteered to lead a spruce up crew to paint the outside trim of the den. Entertainment for the big evening will be supplied by staff of the Kennedy Space Center, who are expected to give interesting highlights and sidelights of the moon program.
Lion Malcolm Crews, program chairman, accepted the evening's public interest discussion. His subject concerned the status of improvement in the city sewer and water systems.
Lion Crews ably inter-acted with a report by Dalton and Associates, engineering consultants to the city. A sound case was made for acting now to adequately pre-prepare for current and long term needs. There is little doubt that if Avon Park is to provide water conforming to state portable water standards, the very vital resource, treatment and storage facilities must be assured.
In the matter of sewage disposal methods, many advantages were identified with modern disposal systems as against the currently pre-dominant septic tank system. In summary, Lion Crews invited one and all residents to city hall to go over the consultants' report and recommendations.
The local club was represented at the Florida State Lions Convention in St. Petersburg on May 21 to 23, by four delegates and their ladies. Incoming president, Lion Jack Aciri and Lions Hughes, Enoch and Smith were impressed with the solemnity of the opening session comprising ceremonies of flag raising and offering of the most clever style talk given by Judith Keith, eminent public speaker in that field.
