New Year Celebration Around The World

While you may raise a glass of Dewar's and sing "Auld Lang Syne" when the clock strikes 12 on New Year's Eve, your Japanese counterpart may sip cola from America while singing "Otanjoshi Omedeto Gozaimasu" ("Happy Birthday To You") for the stroke of midnight means it's everyone's birthday!

Celebrating the first day of a new year is an age-old custom. Nearly all peoples have marked the coming of the year. However, the time selected as New Year's Day has varied widely. The First Day has been celebrated as early as the autumnal equinox, about Sept. 21, and as late as the summer solstice, about June 21.

In most European countries during the Middle Ages, March 21 was the beginning of the New Year. And the Russian people, long ago, welcomed the New Year in with a hundred cannon shots at midnight.

In ancient China, people took a different approach to the First Day. They cleaned house, paid debts and closed their shops. Then they shot off their firecrackers—and who can ever forget a New Year's in Chinatown of a big American city, with its colorful procession and fiery paper dragons breathing good cheer to everyone.

Near China, in old Japan, New Year's was a time for everybody to don new clothes, take three days off from work and visit their friends. Each gatepost would be adorned with green pines and bamboo. And over each door would hang red lobsters, crabs and scarlet tangerines, standing for long life and happiness.

Italians just consider January 1st as part of their Yuletide festival, and so revel until Twelfth Night, 12 days after Christmas. In France, New Year's Day is so singular that adults let Christmas pass by and exchange presents on January 1st. In the United States today, celebrants frequently toast the new year and themselves with a glass of scotch, a long-time favorite.

Tradition has it that in Scotland the first one in a house on New Year's Day gets a big bear hug. Why? Because he has brought the best good luck. Midnight Scot celebrators carry cakes and speeded ale to wish their host a good year.

A VERY HAPPY NEW YEAR

Offices In Courthouse Moving To New Locations

It has been and will be moving day at Highlands county courthouse until after Jan. 1, as offices are shifted to make room for increased court facilities.

Effective Jan. 1, the entire second floor will be devoted to courts and courtrooms and related offices. Only Circuit Judge Clifton Kelly and his secretary will remain where they are.

The present County Commission room on the second floor will be remodeled into a second courtroom but will still be used as a County Commission room. The clerk to board of County Commissioners' office will become an office for the new county judge, Mark Richardson.

The former law library and office of Circuit Court, criminal division, will house the visiting Circuit Judge. For the first six months of this year, the judge will be Thomas Langston.

The office where Administrative Assistant Charles Cullen has been located will become a jury room.

On the first floor of the building the present county judge's three offices will be designated as offices for the probation division, Cullen, and Clerk to Circuit and County Courts, Earl Rich.

The offices of Tax Collector W. H. Prescott will be occupied by the clerk to the board of County Commissioners and bookkeeping department for Clerk of Circuit court and clerk of County court.

The law library will be in room 104 along with a telephone answering system for incoming calls for clerk of both courts, Earl Rich.

Rich's office now will care for many more matters since probate and juvenile affairs now are under the circuit judges and a county court was created.

Public defender Tom Johnson, of Bartow, and assistant public defender George Ojebvok, of Sebring, will use Room 106.

School board offices will continue to occupy the third floor of the building until some place can be found to move them.

In the courthouse annex, the county building department already is in the offices formerly occupied by the district soil conservation service which now is in the Agri-Civic center.

The office of Jim Whitehouse, supervisor of elections and tag agency, is moving to the voting machine warehouse on Route 27 near the Agri-Civic center. Tax Collector W. H. Prescott and his crew will occupy the former elections office. State Attorney Glen Darty's assistant will be in the Room 105 office which formerly house the probation and parole office. County health department and welfare offices will remain in the annex.

There will be no changes in the courthouse basement office of Tax Assessor Billy Martin. The small claims court in the basement will be a witness waiting room, since Small Claims court has been abolished.

Under Article V as passed by the Legislature, Small Claims court was made a part of the County court with claims up to $2,500 to be processed there.

Singer, Actor To Present Program At First Baptist

Redd Harper, known across the English speaking world as song writer, singer, and actor, portrays a midwestern farmer whose faith in God surmounts both antagonism and disappointment in the color motion picture feature, "God Loves People," which will be shown at First Baptist Church on Sunday, Dec. 31, as part of the Annual Watch night activities. Together with Lisa and Joey, his niece and nephew in the film story, Redd defends a band of migrant hippies whose appearance incites fear and antagonism throughout the placid community.

Then a rural agriculturalist serves as the Devil's advocate in the testing of the farmer's faith, as do two stunning losses in personal resources, but trials only bring into finer the facets of faith in a Christian's life.

Redd sings two new songs in the film, one called "God Loves People," the title music, and the other, "The Good Life," a melodic statement of how faith in God can turn the ashes of bitterest disappointment into joy and meaning.

Program features in addition to the film showing will be a talent contest sponsored by the church training departments, an all church fellowship, a special evening worship service led by college students and a Prayer Service that will extend through the passing of 1972 into 1973.

Prayer For The Season

The Christmas Season is the most marvelous time of the year—a time when each of us should count our many blessings and renew our personal commitments toward wholesome and meaningful goals which often become obscured by the day-to-day pressures we all experience. With this in mind, we should like to pass along to you the following prayer—an invocation given at the Florida League of Cities Banquet on Oct. 21 by the Rev. J. Lawrence Vences of The Church By The Sea at Bal Harbour, Fla.:

"Almighty God, we thank Thee for a free land where private property is a sacred reality. For millions it is not. Among us, Lord, are millions who own no home, no land, and no business. Owning nothing, they demand everything from a paternal government. Dear Lord, we fear they are potential victims for the panacea of socialism."

"Help us, our Father, to remember that all we have—our schools, businesses, homes, banks, farms, mines, and buildings—are here because somebody worked for them and worked hard."

"Shake out the cobwebs among us, dear Lord, and give us a fresh look at ourselves. May there be enough problems to sharpen our wits and enough opposition to clarify issues. Bless all among us who work, produce, save, and invest, creating real wealth for our well-being."

"Help us to rely less on government and more on ourselves. Gird us to fight anything that destroys incentive, kills initiative, penalizes superior ability, and subsidizes laziness."

"Remind us strongly, O God, that without good business with a good profit, we can have no non-profit churches, schools, foundations, hospitals, tax-paid politicians, or a government giving away so-called free benefits or welfare subsidies."

"Preside at our meal, O Lord, sanctify our conversation, and may the glow of Thy Presence shine on all our faces. In the Master's Name. Amen."

On behalf of the entire staff of the Avon Park Sun, our sincere wishes that the New Year may bring you the very best in happiness and personal fulfillment.

Florida Writer Honored At Meeting

The December meeting of the Game and Fresh Water Fish commission was highlighted by recognition of Fred Jones, well-known Florida writer, acknowledgment of outstanding service on the part of several commission officers, and by commemorating the retirement of several others.

Revered with certificates and resolutions of their service were Wildlife Officers Richard Fowler, Glenn Lee, Dave Thompson, Ron Walsingham, Floyd Ware, George E. Smith and Lang Strickland. These seven were credited with saving the lives of four persons involved in a truck-car collision near the Commission's training academy close to Tallahassee.

Four of the officers were particularly noted for the personal risks taken in prying the truck's driver from his burning cab. All of the seven were still in training, and had not been assigned to field duty at the time.

Accident

from Winter Haven where she had undergone minor surgery. Driving the White car was Paul Gross, while Mr. White followed a few minutes behind in the other White car.

Gross stopped behind another car which was stopped for construction in the area when a Mississippi car plowed into the rear of the White Marquis, slamming the White vehicle into the one in front of it and severely damaging it.

The First United Methodist Church of Sebring was the setting for the wedding of Miss Barbara Lee Miller and Joe A. Rice at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 17. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Odell G. Miley.

The church was decorated with multiple candelabra which had greenery fastened to simulate a Christmas tree and green holly topiary trees accentuated with large white mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length white satin dress with an empire waistline, embroidered bodice trimmed with tiny iridescent pearls and long sleeves with ruffled cuffs. The full-length train was similarly trimmed. The bride also wore a full-length mantilla veil trimmed with imported Alencon lace. Barbara carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid corsage and tiny red rose buds.

The bride's attendants were Miss Beverly Wicker, Avon Park, maid of honor; and bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Miller, Columbus, Ohio, sister of the bride; Mrs. J. C. Smith, Tallahassee, sister of the groom; Miss Gail Metheny and Mrs. Paul Day, both of Avon Park. Miss Linda Mattox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mattox of Winter Haven was the flower girl. All the attendants wore long sleeved red velvet dresses trimmed at the neckline and wrists with white lace. The bridesmaids each carried a bouquet of large white mums wreathed by gold cone and red holly berry rosettes, green holly leaves and with long velvet streamers. Linda, the flower girl, scattered white mum petals up the center aisle of the church.

Rotary Report

by Joe Johnston

Program chairman Corky Pardee turned the program over to Frank Crowder, Sebring, director of the Salvation Army advisory board, who introduced Major Richard Farmer of the Salvation Army. Major Farmer spoke of the various programs which the Salvation Army provides during the Christmas Holidays to help the less fortunate members of our society. He told of the work with prisoners in getting lists of gifts for the members of their families. The Salvation Army then takes these lists and tries to find people interested in donating the needed items.

Major Farmer spoke of other programs which are operative on a year around basis and which get special emphasis at Christmas time such as: Working with the needy, helping migrant worker families, providing lodging for the transient and visiting nursing homes to provide gifts, write letters, read the Bible and pass out small gift packages to the elderly who often times have no close family or friends.

Major Farmer illustrated his talk with a slide show series depicting the work of the Salvation Army with various groups of people and their reactions of gratitude on receiving some type of essential help. The slide series and talk also illustrated the Salvation Army's work of continuing the Christmas Spirit through every day of the year.

Mrs. Ruth Burgess of Rochester, Mich., spent a few days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Walling, while her son-in-law, daughter and two granddaughters, Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCaren visited Disney World.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Walker spent Thursday and Friday last week with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Smith at Vero Beach to help celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary.

Billy Nickoley, son of Louis and Ruth Nickoley, arrived home last Friday from Kolla, Mo., where he attends a branch of the University of Missouri. Bill will be working next semester, as a part of the Co-op Program of the University, for a company in Atlanta, Ga. Bill had been hired to start work for the company on June 1, but was notified on his arrival home to start Jan. 2 instead. So Bill and his father left Tuesday morning for Kolla to pick up Bill's belongings. They expect to be home Saturday.

Christmas Eve guests at the home of Emil and Lucy Holaday were their son, Jack, and his wife from Ann Arbor, Mich., and their grandchildren from Lakeland.

Bill and Marie Good said goodbye on Christmas morning to their granddaughter and her husband, Beth and Tom White of Toledo, Ohio, who have accepted teaching jobs in Australia. Their journey sounds interesting - leaving Detroit on Dec. 28 at 9 a.m., arrive in San Francisco at 11:30 a.m., leave San Francisco at 8:30 p.m., and arrive in Honolulu at 11 p.m. They will stay one day there after crossing the International Date Line, which will be New Year's Day, and arrive in Sidney, Australia, in 4 or 5 hours, total flying time about 22 hours. We all wish the best for these young people. Beth is the former Beth Scobie who has visited her grandparents here several times.

the Star

CHRISTMAS tree ornaments are made to resemble snow, unusual patterns of ice, and frost; however, the most beautiful ornament and symbol is the star for the top of the tree. This is to remind us of that wonderful day when the child Jesus was born in a manger and the star shown the way... "for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him." Let the star on the tree remind you to attend church and worship him too.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

wishes of the inner man, but good. In keeping with the purposes of Lions, each family remembered their less fortunate neighbors with gifts of toys and the like to add to the needy. Table decorations of red crepe paper center stripes and appropriately placed Florida holly added to the Christmas like setting.

Honorable mention is once again made of the contributions of hand made dolls, girls hand bags and child quilts and the willing hands of the Knit Wt Club of Sebring Ridge. Many young ladies will be happier this Yuletide as a result of the efforts and abilities of Mrs. Watkins, Mrs. Mae Sadler and her sister, Mrs. Grace Clark and others who form the informal group. Everyone cheered the offerings of Cheryl Dunning, Diane Lamler and Mrs. Sieger who led a Christmas sing-along assisted by the youngsters most enthusiastically. Lion MacDougall as Santa topped off the evening by handing out Christmas stockings to the wide eyed younger ones.

Thursday, the 21st, found the Lions back in business. Once again local members gave hours of their time and energy to sorting toys and foods into boxes for the needy of the Avon Park community. Lion George Kelsey and his band of volunteers played a big part in making this year's final phase of the Christmas Cheer Inc. program a real success.

Construction Underway on Christian Science Building

Construction is under way on a new phase of the international headquarters of the Christian Science denomination in Boston, Mass., and Christian Scientists in Florida are enthusiastic about the progress being made.

Roy Bottorff, the Committee on Publication for Florida, who recently returned from a trip to the Christian Science Center, reported that a new entrance, designed by I. M. Pei & Partners, Architects, is being added to the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

"More than 100,000 people from many lands come to the Christian Science Center every year, and the new open approach and central entrance will make it easier for people to visit the Mother Church," Mr. Bottorff stated.

Rising 224 feet above Boston's Back Bay, the domed extension of the Mother Church has been a landmark in the city for the past 66 years.

The integral relationship between the Church and the Christian Science Publishing Society, home of the Christian Science Monitor, the denomination's well-known daily newspaper, will be accentuated by a new landscaped area featuring lawn and trees.

Needed facilities provided by the new entrance or portico will include more space in the vestibule and two large elevators to take visitors to the auditorium and first two balconies. The new construction is expected to take two and a half years to complete.

An unusual aspect of the development is that the new entrance, like the rest of the center, is being paid for through wholly voluntary contributions from branch churches, members, and friends. Mr. Bottorff said, noting that there are 97 branches of the Mother Church in Florida.

The Center itself includes a 26-story Administration Building, a Sunday School Building (also used for church conferences), the five-story Coronado Building which will house television and film studios, a 700-foot reflecting pool, and a 550-car underground garage.

The new portico features Italian limestone columns, turned and carved to match the original detail of the Mother Church extension.

Space needed for the new phase of the development will be provided in the removal next spring of the old Administration Building and an adjacent block-long set of buildings owned by the church for more than 40 years.

Across the street from the new entrance is a new 508-unit apartment complex built by private developers on land made available by the church. On the new perimeter of the development some 885 units of low- and moderate-rental housing are proposed to meet neighborhood needs. These include 387 units of low-rent housing for the elderly.

Annual Pre-Christmas

Tour A Success

A new type of day tour, the result of joint planning by Captain Travel's Branch Office in Avon Park, operated by Ritchie Tours and Travel Service, and their regular Greyhound driver, Lee Griffin, proved so enjoyable and successful that a repeat has already been planned for next season, as well as an earlier Shopping Tour to Orlando.

Last Tuesday's (Dec. 19) tour departed from Sebring at 1 p.m., stopped at Avon Park and Frostproof for the guests, then went directly to the Colonial Plaza Shopping Center in Orlando, featuring the Jordan Marsh Department Store, where a one and a half hour stop was made for last minute shopping. Dinner was at the nearby Morrison cafeteria, then Lee drove the party to the Winter Park Mall, where another hour was spent in shopping. About 7 p.m. the two-hour illumination tour was started, and Mr. Griffin gave a running commentary on all the beautiful lighting displays he took us to see in Winter Park and Orlando, both in the business districts and residential areas. On the return trip, group singing of Christmas carols, led by Mrs. Margaret Palmer of Sebring, and accompanied by Frank Goddard of Frostproof on his harmonica, made a fitting climax to a most beautiful and rewarding "Preview to Christmas", another "first" for the Captain Travel organization. The following were members of the tour party:

From Sebring - Lawrence Freude, Miss Eva Hulson and Mrs. Margaret Palmer. From Avon Park - Mrs. M. Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Max Baader, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Barr, Mrs. L. Clark, Mrs. L. Crosby, Mrs. Jennie Fason, Mrs. E. Hall, Alice Johnson, Mrs. V. Kelly, Mrs. B. Miller, Lucy MacKenzie, Mrs. A. S. Paine, Edith Sargent, Nancy Shay, Nellie Smith, Mrs. Lucille Williams, and Marion and Linda Whalen.
