Council Elects Duggan President For 1972

An organization meeting was held Monday night by the Avon Park City Council to swear in two councilmen, mayor and fire chief.

Mayor Bob Barben was sworn in for his second term as mayor, Milton Howard for his third term as city councilman, Hermon Sizemore for his first term as city councilman and Mack Flowers as fire chief.

Flowers, who has been acting fire chief since the retirement of Wilbur Giddens, was sworn in by City Clerk Malcolm Crews. He has been with the fire department for 16 years.

Councilman Jack Duggan was elected president of the city council, and Councilman Durrah Martin vice president.

Mayor Barben made the following recommendations for city department heads:

Malcolm Crews, city clerk; Ferland Cribb, police chief; Mack Flowers, fire chief; John Ziegler, street and sanitation superintendent; Snodie L. Parkerson, building official; Willie E. Willis, water superintendent, and Tyndell Trowell, golf greenskeeper.

All councilmen voted to approve the Mayor's recommendation for the department heads.

Willis has been with the city for over 30 years, and Ziegler for 25 years.

Mayor Barben said the City of Avon Park was in the best financial condition in many years. He commended Don Serdynski, outgoing president of city council, for a job well done, and welcomed Sizemore as a new member of the council.

The Mayor also commended all city employees, particularly department heads, for the fine work they had done during the past year. He spoke favorably on the police and fire departments on the operation of the city ambulance, and recommended the city continue operating the ambulance service for the benefit of local citizens. Mayor Barben said, "The city has been run like a good ball team, with everyone working together."

Council President Duggan spoke of the fine job Mayor Barben has done for the city.

Sizemore was named as council member of the Civil Service Board, and Aileen Downs was hired for 60 more days as temporary clerk.

Telephone Company Plans To Spend $20 Million On Projects

The United Telephone Company today announced that it will spend more than $20 million for new facilities and equipment replacements in 1972 with several projects scheduled for the Avon Park area.

Gordon Smith, district commercial manager, said that planned service improvements here include the addition of 600 local lines, significant additions to toll switching and ticketing equipment and five buried cable projects to meet new growth and reduce multi-party service.

The Avon Park toll center provides long distance service for nine communities in six counties, Smith said.

Included in local cable projects are provisions for new or improved service in the South Lake Avenue area, the Lake Lotela area, the Minute Maid housing development, Smith's Mobile Park, South Florida Junior College, the new National Guard Armory and the Firemen's Convention Center, the company said.

United Telephone now serves nearly 17,000 telephones in Highlands County, including 5,650 in Avon Park. The company is adding telephones at a net rate of 1,000 per month in its south central and southwest Florida operating area.

Board To Study Lot Buying

Greater protections for buyers of lots in Highlands County subdivisions are being studied by Highlands County commissioners.

Gordon Hays laid the proposals before the commission Tuesday in his initial appearance as the county engineer. Hays, who has won national honors for his work as a small county engineer, began work in Highlands County in mid-December.

He suggested that the commission strengthen subdivision plat regulations on roads and waste disposal plans. Hays recommended that the county require installation of adequate streets and presentation of percolation test reports prior to the county's accepting a plat for recording.

Under present regulations the county accepts plats which have lots meeting the county's planning and zoning regulations and which have approved drainage plans and property title proofs attached. The plats have dedications for streets, but the county will not accept the streets for maintenance until they meet minimum construction requirements set by the county commission.

"As the subdivision fills up, the developer has less and less interest in providing good streets, and the property owners have more interest," Hays told the board.

He counseled the county, that if the streets are required "as the lots are sold cost of good roads can be incorporated" into the lot price.

He pointed out that if the county does set up stricter subdivision requirements then some land owners will choose to sell parcels without platting them as a subdivision but in those cases the lots are served by private roads.

Test Reports

The engineer proposed that the board require a percolation test report to show whether the land in a proposed subdivision is suitable for use of septic tanks.

At present the county makes no requirements beyond the health department regulations. Hays pointed out, "A person buys a lot in good faith thinking he can build on it. Then, if the percolation test shows that a septic tank cannot be installed and the subdivision has no central sewage system, he is stuck."

Hays asked the county commission to consider the stricter requirements as a protection for the buyers and for the county commissioners who become the targets of the disgruntled buyers.

Hays also told the board he may be recommending higher minimum standards for construction of subdivision streets.

Man and Machine

Two requests Hays made Tuesday were tabled for study. He sought authorization to hire a long time colleague as party-chief-inspector. Hays said a man he had worked with for 20 years in state and county engineer work is available and could later be placed in charge of the survey party Hays hopes to add to the county road and bridge department.

Commissioners Cecil Skipper, Robert Skipper and Chairman Andrew Jackson said they would favor delaying a decision until the board and Hays have completed revision of the county road and bridge job classifications and salary schedule.

The board also delayed a request for purchase of a large tractor which would be used primarily for maintenance of watershed canal banks.

Bridge Authorized

The county commissioners authorized Hays to proceed with plans for installation of a concrete bridge on Cloverleaf Road. Hays said materials for a concrete bridge would cost about $5,000 and for a treated timber bridge about $3,600.

He was authorized to contact the Seaboard Coast Line for permission to widen the crossing where Old State 8 crosses the railroad at Hicoria, and for permission to install sidewalks at the crossings near Lake Placid Elementary and Sebring High Schools.

Hays was given permission to attend a meeting in Washington, D.C., Jan. 17. He is a member of a national research committee.

Over $1 Million In Building Permits

Building in Avon Park went over $1,000,000 during 1971 according to the record of building permits issued by the City of Avon Park.

A total of $1,020,298 worth of building permits was issued during the year with Darryl Edwards, contractor, getting a $24,000 permit the last day of 1971 to put the building permits over $1,000,000 for the year.

In January of 1971, $12,064 worth of permits was issued; $57,825 in February; $38,850 in March; $95.504 in April; $42,330 in May; $74,820 in June; $70,885 in July; $87,555 in August; $147,560 in September; $63,850 in October; $92,755 in November; and 21 permits were issued in December for $236,300.

In 1970 , $1,027,660 worth of permits were issued, $7,362 more than were issued in 1971.

Lowell's Second Operation Set For Tuesday

According to Lowell DuBose Sr., the second of three operations for Lowell DuBose Jr., is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 11.

The first operation held December 21, which lasted for six hours, was a success. Lowell has been in University Hospital in Minneapolis, Minn., since October to correct serious spinal curvature.

Lowell DuBose Sr., will leave Saturday, Jan. 8, for Minneapolis to be with his son for the operation, which will be the most serious of the three. Mrs. DuBose has been with Lowell since he was admitted to the hospital.

Mr. DuBose said after the third operation his son would have to be in a body cast for a year or more.

Citrus Men Concerned Over Heavy Winds

The exceedingly warm winter weather, which forecasters say will last through January, has not worried citrus men as much as the heavy winds.

"The drying winds have caused considerable leaf droppage," said Tim Hurner, assistant county agent, citrus. "This causes new foliage. New growth comes and if cold weather arrives, it will cause far more damage to a tree which is growing than one which is dormant. It puts you on edge."

The warm weather has caused blooming on some trees. Hurner pointed out that this sec ond bloom "is real unusual and not very good."

County's Emergency Ambulance Service Going Smoothly Now

"Everything is all right so far" on the county's emergency ambulance service—except how much to charge and who will collect the bills.

A special meeting of the county commission is scheduled for 1 p.m. today (Thursday) to settle the details of the ambulance work which the county began on Jan. 1.

At the county commission meeting Tuesday Sheriff O. L. Raulerson, Jr., said all three ambulances have arrived, been equipped and are in service. "We have had six or seven calls so far," he reported, "and everything is all right."

County commission attorney R. P. Dunty, Jr., was ready with an emergency ordinance to cover the ambulance service, but once again the commissioners hit a snag on assigning bookkeeping duties.

Deputy Clerk Jim Pyle pointed out that many of the calls would involve insurance payments. "There is more to it than putting a bill in an envelope and sticking a stamp on it," Pyle advised.

Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens said Carroll Lloyd of the Legislative Auditor's staff had obtained permission from his supervisor to work with the county in setting up a bookkeeping system for the ambulance service.

The committee which will work out the details will meet with Lloyd this morning. Chairman Andy Jackson will represent the county commission. Other members of the committee are Cullens and

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I would like to reply to Elsie B. Hall's letter published in the December 20 issue of the Sun.

Mrs. Hall, I can assure you that the purpose of the Boy and Girl Scout organizations have not changed. We are still trying to build character and be of service to others. You are quick to point the finger of blame at the parents and leaders of today's youth, when in reality you are a generation or two off. You say you can't see any evidence of character-building, honestly have you even bothered to look? Like too many other people in this country today you only seem to see what is wrong with everything.

Why didn't you write a letter of appreciation in behalf of the people at Rest Haven when a local Girl Scout Troop took them a Christmas tree, decorate it, then stayed to visit and entertain them, or when the Boy Scouts distributed and picked up over 1200 Goodwill Bags to help the handicapped. Then there are projects SOAR and ECO-ACTION where our Scouts have picked up trailer loads of trash and garbage along our streets and highways. I could go on and on, but there isn't enough time or space to list all the good things these organizations do.

You speak of showing appreciation by leaving property in as good condition as it was found. This really surprised me coming from a member of a generation that gave us a world war, the atomic bomb, deficit spending, an astronomical national debt, and pushed our country to the very brink of ecological disaster.

For your information Mrs. Hall the Scouts cleaned up the property that they used, we apologized for making you SICK on your way to church, we cleaned up the lot that afternoon and indeed left it in better condition than we found it.

Let me futher assure you as a leader of a local Scout Troop that the parents, would by no stretch of even the wildest imagination, "tell me off" in uncertain or any other terms. The parents of my Scouts are most helpful and appreciative of what we are trying to accomplish. They would all like to help more, but most are too busy trying to earn a living and provide for their families to help as much as they would like to.

We are trying to keep our esteem up, but it takes a lot of manpower, if all the citizens of our community would take time to help as well as criticize we would all be better off.

Sincerely,
Larry C. Hooper
Scoutmaster

Dear Editor:

A note of warning, to all boys, both large and small, who likes to shoot a gun. "They will kill you."

We have just experienced the most awful tragedy we have ever had. My 14-year-old nephew, little Archie Provau of Arcadia, lost his life, when a 13-year-old, seemed not to realize the danger of a gun. Yes, he was buried in a garden of flowers, the church was packed with people, and many prayers were prayed in their behalf.

All this was greatly appreciated, but this didn't bring little Archie back to the sorrowing parents, brothers and sisters, grandparents and loved ones. I'm sure this will leave a scar on the little boy's life, who was responsible, and his parents also.

So, boys when you shoot a gun, know where you're shooting.

An aunt,
Mrs. Robert Landress

Dear Sir:

Would you please allow us the opportunity of the use of your media to thank the many volunteer participants for their help in providing the Emergency Medical Technician training for our Highlands County Sheriff's Department Ambulance Staff.

When Sheriff O. L. Raulerson asked us to participate in providing the training for these men who would so often be dealing with matters of life and death, it was imperative that an expert staff be available and that the training be of the highest quality. Consequently, Sheriff Raulerson and myself called upon the Highlands County Medical Association to provide assistance in providing expert guest lecturers for this program. The following doctors from our community lent personal assistance for this cause: Dr. Robert T. Rengarts, Dr. J. Wesley Osborne, Dr. A. H. Foster, Dr. J. Culpepper Brooks, Dr. Glenn V. Hough, and Dr. Walter C. Price.

Others who volunteered their services were Wilson Smith of Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home, Dixie Scott of Scott-Stephenson Funeral Home, Sgt. Whitey Knutsen of the Florida Highway Patrol, Judge Mervin Rehrer, Highlands County Court, and the emergency room staffs of Highlands General and Walker Memorial Hospitals.

We feel that the public of Highlands County will be very pleased to know that all eleven men who have finished this program have had 253 concentrated hours of direct study in the emergency medical field during the monts of November and December. They have taken the Intermediate and Advanced Red Cross First Aid program under the leadership of Thurmond Haywood of the Sheriff's Department and have all demonstrated in tests and practical application a very high degree of professional competency. South Florida Junior College has been very proud to participate in this program and we look forward to these men serving the people in Highlands County.

Dear Editor:

While I am spending Christmas Day in our wonderful hospital, I have so much to be thankful for. First, that my son-in-law, Frank Waddell, could be stationed here at our APCI, so my dear daughter, Mildred, can look after me.

Christmas Eve, my only son, Ellis, his wife, Love, their only son, Earl, his wife Carolyn and little Star, all phoned from Montgomery, Ala. It was next best to seeing them. Larry, my oldest grandson, lives in Haines City (but has recently been transferred to Eckerds Drug Store in Lake Wales), his wife Nancy and my only great-grandson, Howard Lawrence, Jr., seven months old, came to see me.

Then David, produce manager at Public, from Orlando, ran in for a few minutes, while Marion Mathis, who is manager of a Publix store in Orlando (after a serious heart attack a few months ago) helped drive Mr. Asa Paschall home, after spending Christmas day with his daughter, Virginia and family.

David and Judy are very happy, as they just adopted a little baby girl at Christmas time, and named her Holly Ruth, after David's grandmother, Mrs. Paschall.

So you see, even if I am on in years and spending Christmas in the hospital, I have lots to be thankful for.

Sincerely,
Cora Wray

Raulerson had suggested a fee of $15 for the county ambulances, but said Tuesday that perhaps the fee should be $20, to be more in line with prices charged by private ambulance services operating in the county.

The new ambulance service made its first run at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, to Sebring Tourist Club where a woman had fallen.

Improved Bond Market May Save Re-financing

An improving bond market may open the way for Highlands County commissioners to save money by re-financing a 1969 issue of certificates of indebtedness.

At its meeting Tuesday morning the county commission authorized Courtland Rudolph of Arch Roberts Investments Co. to proceed with preliminary plans for re-financing of an issue backed by the county's share of race track taxes.

In July, 1969, the county sold $985,000 at 7.5 per cent. Tuesday Rudolph told the board re-financing that sale could result in a saving of $75,000 to $90,000 to the county.

He said the savings would not be realized immediately but would be seen in the 1980's, near the maturity date of the certificates.

He said his company would bear the expenses of arranging the re-sale.

Schools Interested

Highlands County School Board sold $1.5 million of the certificates of indebtedness backed by racing taxes. Superintendent George F. Douglass said the board has been eyeing the improving bond market and has indicated an interest in re-financing to obtain a lower interest rate.

To date the board's fiscal advisors, Wainwright and Ramsey, have not recommended a re-financing, Douglass said, "but we have asked to be kept in touch with the situation," the Superintendent said.

DAR Hears Osceola At Meeting Monday

Seminole Indians in Florida still are living in a state of poverty and considerable suffering on the reservations, members of Patriots Chapter, DAR, were told at their Monday meeting.

Speaking to the group was Joe Dan Osceola, 30, service unit director of the Indian Health Service in Hollywood and a past president of the Seminole Tribe of Florida.

He cited the importance of a better understanding between the red men and the white men, indicating that the language barrier and their philosophy are the paramount differences.

He presently is establishing Indian health clinics on the Indian reservations in Florida. In addition to his work, he related Indian historic legendary deeds and exploits.

He was accompanied here by his wife and baby. He is a 1962 graduate of Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky. He is past president of the United Southeastern Tribes; a member of the executive board Americans for Indian Opportunity; a member of the executive board South Florida Council Boy Scouts; a member of the State of Florida Commission of Indian Affairs, and is a former member of the National Congress for American Indians.

He even has been named an honorary Kentucky Colonel.

He told his audience he is proud of his Indian ancestry and is dedicated to the uplifting of the American Indian.

Mrs. W. J. Atkinson, vice regent, presided.

Hostesses for the afternoon tea were Mrs. P. V. Forest, Mrs. J. M. Albritton, Mrs. Alfred Butler, Isabelle Gladney, Mrs. J. W. Ingle, Margaret Walker and Thelma L. Merrill.

AFTER COMPLETING 250 hours of classroom and laboratory work at South Florida Junior College these men comprise the first graduating class of Emergency Medical Technicians with the Highlands County Sheriffs Department and will serve Highlands County residents as ambulance attendants starting January 1. Youth Rally Postponed Until Saturday

The area youth rally to be held in the Hardee County High School Athletic Stadium has been rescheduled and will be held at 7 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 15 —instead of Jan. 8, as originally announced.

The featured speaker, Tom Lester, who plays "Eb" in the Green Acres television series was injured in a hunting accident in Mississippi during the Christmas holidays. However, he has now been released from the hospital and will speak at the rally.

Savings Bonds Sales Up

November sales of Series E and H United States Savings Bonds in Florida were $9.3 million—up $500,000 over November 1970. During the 11 month period ending November 30 Florida Savings Bonds sales totaled $106.7 million—up $17.5 million over the same period last year. Florida achieved 108.2 per cent of its 1971 sales goal November 30.

A. Clewis Howell, State Volunteer Savings Bonds Chairman, reported November sales in Highlands County were $44,378. At the end of November the county attained 150.2 per cent of its 1971 goal.

Know Your Hospital

by John McClellan Administrator
Walker Memorial Hospital

When the subject of health care comes up, usually the word cost is part of the conversation. Frequently neglected is the increased cost to the provider of this medical care, the physician. When we hear that a certain doctor receives so much in payments, most persons assume that the figure represents the physician's actual income. However, it should be remembered that the physician also has operating expenses, and these amount to from 35 per cent to 45 per cent of his gross income. As these expenses increase, the doctor's charges must also increase.

There are several factors that are common to the increasing costs of most physicians. Most important is the general inflation of the economy. The doctor is just as affected by the rising prices of food, clothing, shelter and luxuries as is the average person. Unlike the average wage earner, however, the physician must also purchase the services of clerical and medical personnel.

Salaries are the physician's largest expense. With the public demands for quality health care increasing, physicians must hire additional nurses and medical assistants. Third party payors have increased paper work tremendously, which means more secretarial and clerical employees. In the future with added emphasis on delegation of responsibilities and the training of paramedical personnel to handle minor procedures, the doctor may find it necessary to further increase his staff.

The cost of office rental space has gone up 20 per cent in the past three years as reported in October 12, 1970 issue of Medical Economics magazine. This is the second largest practice expense for most physicians, making up nearly 6 per cent of the average internist's operating expenses.

Though the number of doctors in the United States has risen in the past 20 years, the supply has not kept up with the tremendous increase in demand, placing on the physician a burden of more working hours and increased staff. In 1969, physicians worked an average of 63 hours per week. Under current prevalent construction contracts, a sheet-metal worker could earn $51,802 a year, and a carpenter could earn $48,793 a year if they worked the same number of hours as the physician.

Many other elements of the physician's expenses are increasing, forcing the doctor to increase his charges.

Malpractice protection insurance premiums are the most rapidly advancing cost item of private practice.

Utilities, office and medical supplies, business insurance and equipment are also constantly rising. Many doctors have improved their efficiency and productivity by improving office procedures and by delegating some medical tasks to qualified and well trained personnel on their staff.

Some physicians have joined together to operate out of the same office in order to share expenses, thus decreasing individual overhead expense.

The cost of medical care is rising, but with the combined help of the public, the physician and the health care system as a whole, we can solve the cost problems of today while improving the health care of tomorrow.

Immunization of County School Children To Begin Tuesday

Mass immunization of Highlands County school children against measles is scheduled for Tuesday.

Each of the county's public schools--elementary, middle and high schools--will be visited by a team from Highlands County Health Dept. and every student up to 17 years of age will have opportunity to receive a shot to immunize him against rubeola.

Parental permission slips went home this week and must be returned by Tuesday in order for the student to receive the immunization, Dr. Glenn Hough, county health director said.

Dr. Hough and his staff had been planning a mass immunization for this winter, but when a massive measles epidemic hit the Pinellas County in early December the Highlands County plans were rushed to completion.

"We do not have any fences around the county," Dr. Hough said, "and the only way to prevent an epidemic traveling into the county is to achieve a high level of immunity here."

Rubeola is also known as red measles or hard measles, Dr. Hough said. Some children will have received an immunization for it, but if parents are uncertain they should check with their private physician.

In each of the school areas a member of the county health department staff will be assisted by a team of volunteers. Heading the drive in Sebring is Mrs. Joan Endicott, in Avon Park Mrs. Janet Richardson and in Lake Placid Mrs. Ruth Hill.

Craftsmen Who Fail To Register Face Prosecution

Building craftsmen who fail to register with the county are facing prosecution. Under building code revisions adopted by the Highlands County commission Tuesday, failure to comply with registration and licensing provisions of the county building code becomes a misdemeanor.

Bill Young, who heads the county building department, told the commission that while the code originally adopted by the county required licensing, there were no specific penalties for failure to comply.

The codes require tests for competence. These are available in "about 25" construction trade specialities. Young told the board. In response to board questions he explained the code provides for a "building maintenance" classification to apply to the workman who handles small jobs of less than $500.

Young was the only speaker who appeared for the commission's public hearing on the building code changes. Most of the changes were shifting references to standard building codes to later editions of these codes.

Inspector Resigns

At its meeting Tuesday the county commission accepted the resignation of Spencer Pickett, one of the inspectors on Young's three-man inspection crew.

Young asked the commission about possible starting salary for Pickett's replacement, explaining he had received inquiries about the job from an experienced inspector who would not be interested in the work at its present pay. The board decided to stick to the $7,500 per year pay for initial employment of inspectors.

Later in the meeting, in response to Administrative Assistant Charles Cullen's questions, the board again declined to modify its salary structure. The cost-of-living increase granted a few weeks ago will not automatically be applied to the pay of each employ as he passes the six-months county employment anniversary, the board said.

A road and bridge job classification and pay study is under way, the board noted.

Cullen revealed that Austie Heacock and John R. Skipper, presently employed by the county to work on the surplus commodity program, have applied to shift to the food stamp program. The food stamp program is directly under federal regulations and financing.

Other Business

In other business Tuesday the county commission approved employment of Miss Elizabeth Ann Downey as the county home economic extension agent.

April 4 was selected as the date for holding a referendum on establishment of a special tax district in Avon Park Lakes.

Approved plats for several sections of Sun 'N Lakes and for Sebring Hills South.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Bueche

Stewart-Bueche Married Dec. 27 In Our Lady of Grace Church

At 2 o'clock Monday afternoon, December 27th, in Our Lady of Grace Catholic Church, Miss Mary Louise Stewart became the bride of Joseph Owen Bueche.

Miss Stewart is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Stewart. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Bueche of Elmhurst, N.Y.

Father Antonio Pons officiated in the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Laurinda DeShong presented a program of organ music. Baskets of white and red flowers and seasonal greenery decorated the church.

Miss Stewart is a graduate of South Florida Junior College and she attended the University of South Florida, Tampa. Mr. Bueche graduated from Newton High School, N.Y., and entered the U.S. Air Force where he became a staff sargeant and served in Viet Nam.

BRIDE WEARS LACE

The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her to be married. Her gown was designed with a full length bouffant skirt made with tiers of scalloped lace and a cathedral train. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and red roses. Her shoulder length veil of illusion fell from a tierra of pearls.

Mrs. Thomas Walters was the bride's only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of blue velvet and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white flowers with blue velvet ribbon matching her gown.

The groom wore a hand tailored tuxedo of white brocade trimmed in white in white satin, which was a gift to him while he was still in military service in Viet Nam, to be worn at his wedding. With this he wore a white ruffled shirt and a red rose in his coat lapel.

S-Sgt Bruce Johnson, USAF attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Tommy Thomas and Roger Stimson.

Mrs. Stewart chose for her daughter's wedding a street length dress of azure blue knit trimmed with matching lace. Her corsage was of red roses.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart entertained with a reception at the Florida Power Lounge Honoring the bride and groom and wedding guests. Mrs. Roger Stimson kept the bride's book.

Mrs. G. W. Neubauer, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake. The three-tiered cake was topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines, and a pair of golden wedding bands and white doves nestled in the blossoms that decorated the cake.

At either end of the bride's table stood a tear-drop crystal candelabra. A silver filigree basket and a silver compote held assorted nuts. The bride's bouquet which was a cascade of red roses and white chrysanthemums, was laid in the center of the table to complete the decorations.

At another table, Mrs. G. W. Stewart, aunt of the bride, cut and served the groom's cake. The double tiered chocolate pound cake was covered with white frosting. The decorations of blue flowers were held together by ribbon like garlands of white icing, and the cake was topped with blue blossoms.

Miss Mary Ruth Pardee, another aunt of the bride, presided at the coffee service. At the opposite end of this table holiday punch was served by Miss Alice Felknor. A nut covered cheese loaf with a variety of crackers and dainty sandwiches completed the refreshments. The table centerpiece was a silver candelabra holding three red tapers and triple poinsettia blossoms at the base.

All the tables were covered with white linen cloths overlaid with net flecked with gold and silver threads. Potted poinsettias, cut poinsettias and baskets of flowers from the wedding were used to decorate the Lounge.

Hostesses assisting with the Reception were Mrs. T. Hayes Maxwell, Mrs. O. B. Cantrell, Mrs. Charles Wesley and Joanne Wenger.

Each guest was given a handful of rice from a dainty silver bowl to shower the happy couple as they left the reception. The bowl and scoop were each designed with sprays of silver lillies of the valley forming the handles.

Late in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Bueche left from the Stewart Home on North Lake Avenue for a honeymoon trip to the east coast. She wore a champagne knit dress with matching accessories.

What could be more apropos at the end of the Holiday Season than a column on losing weight? I suppose everyone tends to overeat at times with so many tempting foods available everywhere.

However, if you have decided you must lose weight, don't go for one of the "Fad" diets, such as the vinegar diet, the grapefruit diet, the banana and milk diet, etc. It takes many kinds of food to supply all the dietary essentials for good health--no good is perfect.

It is important to know many calories each of us needs each day to keep trim and full of energy. For a general guide, let's decide what is our ideal weight . Extremely active adults and fast growing teenagers should multiply their dieal weight by 20 to obtain their approximate daily calorie requirement. Modertely active adults should multiply their best weight by 17. Adults whose work is moderately sedentary should multiply by 15.

For any major weight loss, consult your doctor. However, to lose approximately a pound a week, subtract 500 calories from your daily requirements of calories. To do his successfully, keep an honest record of the food you eat with approximate calories consumed (using a calorie chart). This sounds like a lot of trouble, but you'll find you will soon learn the calories for various foods, and you'll be proud of yourself each day that you will stay wintin the limit.

Remember , however, to include each day several foods from each of the following basic food groups:

I. Milk and Cheese (fluid or dry skim milk and buttermilk and cheese made form skim milk are lower in calories than other types of milk and cheese).
II. Meat, Poultry, Fish, Eggs (trim fat from meats).
III. Vegetables and fruits (eat a variety without sauces sugar or cream).
IV. Bread and Cerals (chose whole grain, enriched types).
Now for several low calorie tricks for you to try:

SOUR CREAM SUBSTITUTE

Place cottage cheese in blender. Blend until smooth consistency, adding small amount of lemon juice. If necessary, add just enough skim milk or water to keep mixture moving through blades. When smooth, use as desired. For dip, add seasoning, such as packaged onion soup mix, and blend. I rounded tablespoon equal 30 calories.

QUICK SLAW

Place approximately ¼ of cabbage head (cut into several pieces) in blender. Cover with water and turn on low speed for a few seconds. Use high speed to shred extra fine. A carrot or other raw vegetable may be added prior to blending for color. Thoroughly drain and add dressing. ½ to ¾ cup, shredded equal 15 calories; dressing extra.

MELBA TOAST

With electric knife, slice chilled two or three day old bread into very thin even slices. Place slices in oven and bake at 300 degrees until delicately rown and completely dry. Serve unbuttered. one slice equals 25 calories.

Now--that the holidays are over, we can settle down to a brand new year, 1972. How many times have you mistakenly written 1971 instead of 1972? Relatives, guests and students are returning home and bask to school and college, waiting for spring vacation and Easter time.

ROTARY CLUB NEWS

BY EMMETTE L. WRIGHT

Our program chairman, David Lanier, presented the last of series of very informative and interesting programs. Judge Mervin Rehrer spoke to us on the subject "Proposed Legislative Changes in our Judicial System".

Our present Florida Constitution was written in 1885. The original ARticle 5 of the Florida State Constitution concerning the state's judicial system has become antiquated. Several proposals for a revision of Article 5 have been made to amend Article 5 scope of legislation in dealing with today's judicial problems.

Judge Rehrer discussed a few of these problems with us such as the backlog of court trials in felony cases in all courts-county, circuit, district, and supreme courts.

There is also a conglomeration of courts in different counties. Some counties have Justice Of Peace Courts, City Courts, and Juvenile Courts, as well as County and Circuit Courts. It is difficult when going from one county to another to know exactly which of these courts it is proper to try your case in.

Under the new proposed ARticle 5, there will be some uniformity of trying court cases. It will seek to try as many cases as possible at one trial level court and not more than two.

Article 5 proposes that:

Judges should not be in office by political appointment.

Judges should be those who have been admitted to the bar.

Judges should be qualified and devote full time to job.

Judges should have adequate compensation.

Article 5 further proposes that there be four courts only; namely County Court, Circuit Court, District Court, and Supreme Court.

Avon Park Flying Notes

BY ELEANOR TRESCOTT

This was a good week for flying. Several made cross county flights. Bruce Johnson of the Air Force Base flew to Mulberry and Arcadia. Billy Welbaum of Frostproof flew the Cub to Okeechobee and ARcadia. Dave Robinson of Lake Placid flew to Ocala and Zepherhills, Evelyn Jones flew to Winter Haven and Deland. Bruce Trescott flew to Okeechobee and Charlotte County.

Kenny Ziesenheim of Sebring was out flying some during his vacation from Stetson University.

Park Ernsberger, who is 78 and does some flying most every day, was delighted to give his friend R. T. Elethrope of Hammond, N.Y. who is 88, a ride around this part of Florida.

Floyd Horning of Norwalk, Ohio, also went flying with Park.

Several local pilots were checked out for night flying last week by Don Gossick. They were Rodney Lane, LaMar Carlton, Stan Trescott and Charlie Hoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Mae McLaughlin, friends of the Gossicks from Peoria, Ill., flew their Navion to Avon Park for a visit.

Stan and Eleanor Trescott made a flying trip around South Florida and the Everglades stopping at Homestead and Charlotte County before returning to Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Burrell S. Sparks of Mansfield, Ohio, flew in for a short visit in their tri-Pacer. They were stationed here during the war and were interested to see the many changes that have taken place since.

Dr. and Mrs. Don Jones of Avon Park flew to Winter Haven Wednesday night.

Dwight Conaway of Logan, Ohio, has been taking some dual instruction in aerobatic maneuvers from Walt Pierce in the Stearman.

Tommy Monterastelli who is staying thejwinter at the Avon Park Flying Service had the distinct thrill Sunday of riding the wing of the Stearman while Walt Pierce put it through the maneuvers: the loop, slow roll and the barrel roll. You get no dual instruction for that kind of flying!

Don and Shirley Gossick along with Shirley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunnuck flew to Miami New Years Day for the Orange Bowl game between Nebraska and Alabama.

Panthers Host Polk Thursday At Avon Park Middle School Gym

Thursday night at the Middle School gym in Avon Park, South Florida Junior College Panthers will host the Polk Vikings in a return match. The Panthers defeated Polk 79 to 75 in Winter Haven in early December.

Saturday night at the New Sebring High School Gym, the Panthers will play Daytona Beach in a basketball game beginning at 7:30 p.m. The Panthers will be seeking to avenge a first game 80 to 69 loss in Daytona.

All but one Panther escaped the knife as final grades went out over the holidays. However, there are still a few problems to be ironed out and they will have to be done quickly as the Panthers will have three games this week. Tuesday night the Panthers journeyed to Fort Pierce for a game with highly ranked Indians of Fort Pierce. The Panthers entered this game with only one days practice after the holidays.

Probable starters for the Panthers will be Robert Forte and Kim Malcolm at the low post, Mike Herbert and George Heine or John Stephenson at the wings and Walter Scott at the point.

Showing steady improvements are Steve Bond, Wilmon Edward, Mike Maddox, Joe Franza and Reynold Edwards. Joe Battles and Jerry Austile are still working with nagging injuries but should be ready to go shortly.

Best Year Ever Says Christmas Cheer Inc.

The Board of Directors, of Christmas Cheer Inc., wishes to thank all, who in any way, helped to make it a real Christmas for some 61 deserving families.

There was ample food and the best collection of dolls and toys in several years. The Lion's Club distinquished itself in gathering of those things, which thrill a child's heart and by their work in preparing the Christmas boxes.

It is an excellent illustration of what can be done, when good people set their hearts on doing that which makes for a successful job well done.

There were 1,437 hunters at the Avon Park Bombing Range over the New Years holidays, Friday, Dec. 31, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 1 and 2. Game taken were five deer, five turkeys, 213 quails, 22 squirrels, 20 ducks, four doves, eight hogs, and 129 snipes.

Notes On Helping The Handicapped

The following poem seems to be so appropriate for this season of the year. The poem comes to us via the Sunland Hospital Tallahassee's bulletin "Our World" with the notation that they received it from the Tallahassee Junior Women's Club.

"Very Special Child"

A meeting was held quite far from earth, it's time again for another birth,
Said the angel to the Lord above, this child will need
much love.
His progress may seem very slow, accomplishments he may not show,
And he'll require extra care,
from the folks he meets
down there;
His thoughts may seem quite far away, in many ways he won't adapt
And so he'll be known as handicapped.

So, let's be careful where he's sent,
we want his life to be content.
Please, Lord, find the people who, will do a special
job for you;
They will not realize right away, the leading part they are asked to play,
But this child sent from above,
grow stronger ties
and richer love.
They'll soon know the privilege given,
in caring for this gift from Heaven,
Their precious charge
so meek and mild, is Heaven's Very Special Child.

DAVE LLEWELLYN

Watch Your Step

"Happy is the man who keeps from stumbling over Me."

Jesus knew He caused controversy. His life confused and upset people. How could it be otherwise? How could God appear among men and be exactly what men expected?

He claimed to know Abraham, Moses, and David personally. The Bible, He said, predicted His life. He interpreted the Old Testament authoritatively. Thousands thought He performed miracles. He accepted worship as God and forgave sins. He demanded absolute allegiance. Naturally, He was upsetting.

They Stumbled

Those who expected the Messiah to rise as a political activist stumbled over Jesus. Those who awaited a Messianic military conqueror stumbled over Jesus. Those who hoped for the rise of Jewish nationalism stumbled over Jesus. Those who longed for a metamorphosis of nature and human nature and the emergence of indestructible peace stumbled over Jesus. These fell away because they anticipated, not the Messiah Himself, but the Messianic age, an event which — 2,000 years later — is still future.

Others stumbled, too — the religious people. They expected the Messiah to be a deeply religious Orthodox Jew. Jesus was not very religious, yet He was truly spiritual. He overlooked the religious structures and concerned Himself with spiritual needs. Those satisfied with static orthodoxy scorned Jesus, so He gave Himself to people who saw clearly their spiritual despair.

"Why do you, Jesus' disciples, spend your time with thieves and sinners?" grumbled the scribes and Pharisees, thinking to expose Jesus as an unspiritual fraud.

"Not those who are well need a doctor," Jesus replied, "but those who are sick. I have come, not to call righteous men, but sinners to repentance." (Luke 5)

Convincing Proof

John the Baptist, surprisingly, also stumbled briefly over Jesus. The son of a priest, and a dedicated Nazarite, John wondered about Jesus' activities, too, even though he had personally heard God's endorsement, "This is My beloved Son, in Whom I am well pleased."

"Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for someone else?" John had his disciples ask Jesus.

"Go and report to John what you have seen and heard," said Jesus. "Blind men see, lame men walk, lepers are cleansed, deaf hear, dead are raised, the poor have the good news preached to them." (Luke 7)

If Christians today gave themselves to the needs of the helpless, rather than to the comfort of the comfortable, idly religious people would be confused and upset, but people in acknowledged spiritual need would be convinced of Jesus' love and power.

Happy are the people who keep from stumbling over Jesus.

Avon Mobile Home Park News

BY JONATHAN WRIGHT

With the holidays over, our relatives home, and the kids back in school, things are pretty much back to normal here in our park. These past two weeks have really been bustling with activity with visits from friends and relatives, but we are now settling down to our regular park activities. As our family and friends make their long trek back to the cold, snowy, icy north, they likely think longingly of the bright, sunny, warm land they have left behind. Isn't it great to live in Florda?

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO YOU! Our New Year's Eve party was held last Friday evening, Dec. 31, in our recreational hall from 10 p.m. to a little after midnight. Two very interesting hours of activity were provided by our committee, made up of Dorothy Keys (chairman), Rosa Krontz, and Mary Mishey. Sixty park residents attended the party, along with two guests, Mrs. Evelyn Sawvel (Rosa Krontz's sister) and Mrs. Laura Thompson (granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Thompson). A cute "wiener dog" of balloons, all shapes and colors, romped on top of the fireplace while other balloons swayed in the breeze, hanging from the lights.

Two games were played- "Trademark" and the Lifesaver-passing game on straws. The "Trademark" game was won by Ham Byrer, and was educational as well as fun. As the door prize drawing was about to take place, much anticipation filled the air. Miss Laura Thompson was chosen to be the "name puller," being the youngest one present. Much to her surprise, she drew her own grandfathers name-Alva Thomspon. An no tricks, either! Alva went forward, but found that his prize was too large to carry, as it was about 27 inches wide, 7 feet tall, and 1½ inch thick. Where will that DOOR (prize) be used? No ones seems to know yet.

After an hcurof table games, noisemakers, ribbons, and balloons were passed out as themidnight hour approached. Pandmonium broke loose as "Father Time" (Harmon Heffner) old and weak, dragged himself and his scythe throught he hall, soon followed by robust, diaper-clad, ribboned Baby 1972 (Basil Krontz), running and chasing Old Man 1171 (Basil nearly froze). It was truly a New Year's party to remember.

High pinochle scorers Monday evening were Herman Yougg with 1093 and Marguerite Feehan with 1034.

Lawrence and Ruth Robinson entertained friends, Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Warner, Mrs. Alta Robinson, and Mr. and Mrs. James Robenstein of Big Rapids, Mich, with an oyster supper on Christmas Eve. The following Wednesday evening the Robinsons enjoyed dinner at their home with Mr.and Mrs. Julius Converse and the Robensteins, long time friends of the Converses. Lawrence and Ruth had Mrs. Allen Kindel as their dinner guest on New Year's Day. They enjoyed watching the parades and football games on television, as well as celebrating Mrs. Kindel's birthday with her birthday cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Kellie Larrew were visitors over the holidays by Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Irenogle, of Casey, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Loflands of Shelbyville, Ill., helped Kellie celebrate his birthday Monday evening.

Harry and Eva Brown were visited Dec. 18 by Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown and daughters Elaine and Christine. They returned from Key West on Dec. 28 to celebrate Donald's birthday, and during the evening were surprised by a visit from Harry's nephew, Rev. Richard Hoblin and family from River Falls, Wis., who were on their way to Miami. The Donald Brown family left Dec. 31 on return home to Dryden, N.Y. Eva and Harry were visited Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. Otis Ames of Richfield Springs, N.Y.

Visitors in the Alva Thompson home the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Thompson and daughter Laura and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lowry, all of Argos, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Cooper of Elkhart, Ind., Mr. Nelson Kindig and son of LaPorte, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kindig of Smith's Mobile Home Estates of Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baxter were called upon Tuesday, Dec. 28, by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baxter of St. Cloud, and Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Baxter of Summit, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bacon had as guests Tuesday, Dec. 28, Mr. and Mrs. James Doolittle and daughters Susie, Mary and Jennifer, of Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. Doolittle is a nephew of the Bacons. The Bacons visited the Doolittles at Treasure Island last Friday, where the Doolittles were vacationing. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Garret Veenstra in Bradenton, who are former residents of Racine, Wis.

On Wednesday evening, Dec. 29, John and Edna Wolf were called upon by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fietz and family of N. Liberty, Ind., Bob's mother and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Williams of Lake Letta Estates in Avon Park, Mr. and Mrs. Erma Jimmer, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Moyer of Sebring.

Time to go back to college! It's been a pleasure writing the park new while home for the holidays, but a whole new semester awaits me in Oklahoma. Take it away, Mrs. Robinson.....it's all yours again!

LEWIS LLEWELLYN

Christ a Rebel?

In an apparent attempt to justify the actions, attitudes, and personal habits of the malcontents, drop-outs, radicals, and revolutionaries among us, some writers and theologians are painting Christ as a rebel.

In a widely publicized commentary by UPI religion editor Louis Cassels, called a "portrait of the Savior," Jesus was described as "a young man who wore sandals, a beard, and long hair."

Cassels said, "He left home, and dropped out of respectable society. . . . He had no money and lived like a vagrant."

What was presented as a portrait of Christ is a caricature.

Misleading

Cassels failed to mention that, at the time of Christ, everybody wore sandals — common people, members of the Establishment, everybody except those who went barefoot.

Whether Jesus' hair was long or short nobody knows. While most portraits show Him with long hair, this is only the artists' conception. Our only accurate record of Him — the New Testament — tells us nothing at all about His hair. The hirsute hippies' supposed physical resemblance to Jesus is based on imagination.

To say that Jesus "left home" when He began His public ministry is as accurate as it would be to say that Evangelist Billy Graham has left home in order to go to London, or Los Angeles, or some other city to conduct a crusade. Of course, He left His home to go to other cities and towns to preach and teach and heal the sick. But He returned to His home, and went out again to minister.

It is not true that He "dropped out of respectable society" — and Louis Cassels should know this. The leading members of the religious establishment were against Him and conspired to have Him killed, we know. But He was accepted in the homes of both the wealthy and the common people. To characterize Jesus as a "drop-out" is indefensible.

"Criminal Revolutionary"

But, as inaccurate and misleading as this description of Christ is, there is a statement by William Stringfellow which is worse. Said Stringfellow, "According to the Gospels, Jesus was not a non-conformist, not just a protestor. He was a criminal revolutionary."

Stringfellow is a lawyer. He should know better than to make such a statement.

The record of the Gospels is clear. The Roman governor, Pontius Pilate, sitting as judge in the trial of Jesus, declared, "I find in Him no fault at all."

Shortly before His crucifixion, Jesus said to His disciples, "I have called you My friends."

Both Louis Cassels and William Stringfellow consider themselves to be Christians — friends of Christ.

With friends like these, who needs enemies?

Andrew Jackson Board Chairman

The lone Republican on the Highlands County Board of County Commissioners will be the board chairman in 1972.

Andrew Jackson, district four member of the board, was elected to the chairmanship at the Jan. 4 meeting. Jackson succeeds Cecil Skipper of Avon Park.

Robert Skipper of district 5, vice chairman for the past year, was re-elected for a second term.

All appointed county employes were retained.

Jackson, lawyer and rancher, resides in Venus and has his law office in Lake Placid. He was elected to the board in 1970, in his first bid for elective office. He is the first Republican elected to the commission in this county. His father, the late N.B. Jackson, served on the county commission as a Democrat.

Avon Park Grange Report

BY LAVERNE M. FULLMER

Avon Park Grange met Tuesday, Dec. 28, with Master Louise Clarke in the chair. She will be attending the State Grange session in Daytona Beach Jan. 5 to 8. Two applications for membership were balloted upon favorably. February 8 was set for the First and Second Degrees and March 14 for Third and Fourth Degrees. A discussion was held on No-Fault Insurance.

The program opened with Christmas carols; Gertrude Slocum read a poem written by the State Grange Lecturer, Lolo Geil of Melbourne, Fla.; a minute skit by Miriam Debo and Lloyd Wyant; comical quiz by Lecturer; second portion of the National Grange report by Lorena Wyant. She told of the top National Grange sewing prize winner who was a 13 year old sewing whiz of Oklahoma. This prize is a cruise to Nassau, $1,000 from a fabric manufacturer, a $100 bond to the sponsoring Grange and an electric steam dry iron as a gift to the State Grange Director. Orpha Imgmire is the daughter of a wheat farmer. The winsome winners is in the 8th grade, active in sports, music and 4-H work and began sewing doll clothes at the age of 5. The garmet was a "With-it" pant suit.

The Junior Grange which placed first in the Nation has a master who is 10 years old. Three hundred youth were present Saturday for the Youth Program. John W. Scott, Master of the 600,000 member National farm-rural organization, saluted the "ladies of the Grange" adding: "Many of the finest things that have happended to the grange have come to us because of the women. I believe one of the strengths of our Grange is in its organization and sharing as a family group."

Mrs. Helen Livingston Smith of Care, Inc., New York, presented a set of Friendship Bells to the chairman of the Women's Activities on behalf of the people of Panama for the most recent Grange assistance, providing and equipping kitchens.

The National Grange adopted a new program this year as a project, aid to the deaf and hard of hearing, One comment was: "We are convinced that hearing people would want to help deaf people if someone would explain the need."

Caroline Webber gave a recipe for Making Holiday Pudding. Thought for the day- "Money still talk, but it takes more and more of it these days to be heard."

Refreshments were served by Lloyd and Lorena Wyant and Arlene Lane. The next meeting will be an open installation of officers by Walter Wood and staff of Venice, Fla. It will be held in the Wesley Hall of the First United Methodist Church at 8 p.m. on January 11.

All bright Christmas lights are down, stored in boxes and placed under the bed or in Fibber McGee's cabinets. The W.P.A. gang werked very hard Monday helping with this annual job. Activity sheets have been distributed and everyone is giving thought to his appointed job. "What do you do down there" is a question frequetly asked by our friends in the north. Did everyone make a New Year's resolution Friday night? Was it a resolution to carry out the resolution made last year? We wish for everyone a gainful New Year in whatever way enlightenment comes to them.

Myrtle Heffernan was very pleasantly surprised Monday when Mr and Mrs. Vance Vaneer of Miami called. These friends were originally from Myrtle's home town and are now residing in Miami. They were returning from a trip to the Caolinas. Myrtle was also happy to have Floyd and Edith Steeets of Avon Mobile Home Park call on Wednesday.

Last Wednesday morning Ann Antony, Caroline Morrison and Goldia Duan drove to Aldergate to visit Betty Peterson, Laura Bernthal and Dorcas Young, who were very happily surprised to see them. They ate lunch at the Paddle Wheel in Kissimmee and had a wonderful visit with their friends. These friends want to be remembered to all in Avon Park.

Fifty folks turned out Friday night for the regular bingo, which happened to be New Year's Eve. Grand prize was won by Louise Davidson. Refreshments of home made cookies and punch were served by the committee.

Monday night there were four tables of aggravation at the hall. This game still ranks high is being true to its name. Ann Barth was high.

Nineteen turned out for coffee and do-nuts Tuesday morning at nine sharp. Goldia Daun and Eleanor Pardee served us.

Did all members of the Federation of Mobile Homes receive their December issue of the publication? There are many items of interest and benefit to the mobile owner in his issue.

In the shuffle match Friday afternoon eight came out to play. The play-off game was played by Marvin Tebo and Leo Breister; Omer Snyder and Leo Pertl with a score of 7 to 26 in favor of Pertl and Snyder.

TO RECEIVE DEGREE

Stephen H. Booth, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Booth Jr., of Avon Park, was one of 110 students that completed their work for various degrees at the end of the fall quarter, at Emory University in Atlanta. The degrees will be formally awarded at June commencement exercise. Booth will receive a BA degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bucher of Bloomington, Ind., visited with Martha Ayres a few days last week. Mrs. Bucher is Martha's sister.

Michael Chapel visited three days last week with friends in Bartow. Bette took advantage of the opportunity. She and Mellissa visited in Orlando with Bette's parents. Toby stayed home and kept the fires burning; and batched.

At cards Wednesday night Herb Renaud was high on 500 with a score of 2370. One table of bridge with high score tied between Esther Pertl and Ann Barth with Leo Pertl and Harry Barth play off next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Linden Watkins of Delphi, Ind., visited with Louise Garrison last week. Mr. Watkins is Louise's son. On the way down they visited with their son, who is in the service stationed at Jacksonville. They will remain a few days with their son on their return trip home.

These nice warm days it is a real pleasure to see the lovely grass in the little park near the south entrance. The sprinkling system installed during the summer by the management is responsible for this attractive place.

Mr and Mrs. Jim Dockham of Lapeer, Mich. and wintering in Zephyrhills, were Sundaa afternoon callers of the Snyders.

Do you really want your brother-in-law to know how much you earned last year?
Of course not. It's nobody's business but your own.
However, annually millions of taxpayers bear this kind of personal information to people who really shouldn't know. For what? Just so they can save a few dollars doing their income tax.
That's some price to pay.
You see, for only a few dollars more than it costs to do it with any amateur who might not know that work clothes in some instances are deductible, or that income averaging might save tax dollars, you can have your tax return done by a specially trained member of the H & R Block team with complete confidentiality. There are thousands of them in over 6,000 conveniently located offices. H & R Block's fees start at $5 and the average cost was under $12.50 for the 7 million families we served last year.
Furthermore, if your return is audited we will accompany you, at no extra cost, to the Internal Revenue Service and explain how your return was prepared, even though we will not act as your legal representative.
This means that H & R Block is ready to offer you year 'round tax service for just one low fee a year, with no extra charge for audits and estimates.
Yes, we cost a little bit more than your relatives or friends or neighbors but when you think of what we deliver, you can't afford anything less than H & R Block.
DON'T LET AN AMATEUR DO H&R BLOCK'S JOB.

Spring Lake: The good life is closer than you think.

The good life is just a few miles away from Sebring. On U.S. Highway 98 at Lakeview Blvd. That's where Spring Lake, a planned, total community, is taking shape. Spring Lake is being built by Coral Ridge Properties....the people who built the famous Galt Ocean Mile at Fort Lauderdale and the popular new city of Coral Springs.

There are presently nine furnished model homes for you to look through... priced from $17,400. And you not only can choose from the homes we offer, but you can also tell us what you'd like and we'll help you build that dream house. The homes are on half-acre, sodded lots, too. Spring Lake features street lighting, all underground utilities to preserve the natural landscaping. And lakefront privileges for residents.

Drive out and visit today. See what we have to offer... like the Greenmont, a three bedroom, one bath home designed to keep the high-traffic areas away from the sleeping areas. Or the Greenbrier, a two bedroom, one bath home with Westinghouse appliances and wall-to-wall carpeting. Both homes have central air conditioning and heating by Westinghouse.

If you can't come out soon, call 385-6113 for immediate information. Ask for Mr. Ireland Sanders, our Resident Manager. He'll tell you everything you want to know and answer all your questions.

Spring Lake
Florida...the way it should be.

Mystery of Lincoln's Death Probed

President and Mrs. Lincoln depart for the theatre on that fateful night in a scene from the TV documentary, "They've Killed President Lincoln!" to be shown on NBC-TV February 12.

One hundred five years after the event, mystery and confusion still surround the assassination of President Abraham Lincoln. Was this tragic murder the lunatic act of one man, or was it a conspiracy?

On Lincoln's birthday, February 12, a television special of exceptional authenticity will re-examine the events that historians still dispute. "They've Killed President Lincoln!" will be shown on NBC-TV at 7:30 p.m. EST (6:30 CST). Sponsored by The Quaker Oats Company, it was produced by Wolper Productions, Inc.

Using modern documentary techniques, the special recreates what newsreel cameras might have recorded had they existed a century ago. Richard Basehart is narrator and Civil war historian Bruce Catton served as historical consultant.

The entire program was filmed on location in and around Washington, D.C. Recreated action and eyewitness interviews, with special film treatment for vintage documentary effect, are combined with photographs from the era to give history a sense of immediacy.

Several scenes were filmed at the White House, at General Grant's field headquarters, at Ford's Theatre where the assassination took place, and at a farm where John Wilkes Booth was tracked down and shot in a burning barn.

The documentary begins in the closing days of the Civil War, as the President worked valiantly to bring the nation together in peace and understanding, to form "a more perfect union" with freedom for all of the nation's citizens. A series of interviews with Booth's sister and his actor friends reveals how the plot progressed, from kidnapping Lincoln during the war for the ransom of Confederate soldiers, to murder in lunatic desperation after the war was over.

Other witnesses, a bar tender, a War Department clerk and a Cabinet member—tell what they know either about a conspiracy or the actions of Booth that last day of Lincoln's life.

The documentary illustrates that mystery abounds in the President's murder, and that the truth may never be known. But it makes clear that the assassin's bullet that killed Abraham Lincoln could not destroy the living ideas he made part of the American faith.
