Democratic Convention

The aisles were jammed and at least one-third of the people on the convention floor were constantly on the move. TV and radio personalities wandered through the crowd seeking interviews. We recognized Mike Douglas and Garrison Kilday of TV. And silver haired Sen. Stuart Symington was easy to distinguish in the Missouri delegation just below us.

A vander wearing a Nixon mask was hawking bumper stickers imprinted "Free Martha Mitchell." A group of young people carried huge letters in a long snake-like line which read "stop dike bombings."

We got hungry about 10 p.m. after being there three hours. Two skimpy ham sandwiches and two cups of black coffee cost $2.80. Thick Democratic books about the convention which sold for $5 earlier in the week were going for $2.

The Rices left the hall about 11:30 a.m. after the chairman announced there would be eight candidates for vice president to be nominated, with a nominating speech and two seconding speeches for each one. After that would come the roll call.

We did a little quick calculating. It would be about 3 a.m. before Presidential nominee George McGovern and running mate Eagleton would come in to greet the convention. Three and one-half hours of boring speeches and fortissimo amplifiers to sit through.

As we walked out the convention front door, we noticed the National Guard fellows, looking tired and worried. Anything still could happen. (The gateman had searched my handbag for possible firearms as we went in). There was no crowd outside, just some buses waiting to take conventioners back to their hotels.

Other people were leaving the hall. A stream of cars had started to pour down the street. We wondered how we would get across, but Miami Beach policeman helpfully stopped traffic for us. We thanked him. He grinned: "Happy days are here again!"

After you have attended three big national conventions over the years, does a fourth one turn you on?

County Democratic Chairman Edna Pearce Lockett, despite the long all-night,

"WE DIDN'T BELIEVE THE 'whole family' was along, when Bruce J. Scott, of Ft. Myers, came by to see us at the Sun office on Monday, July 17. But sure enough, there they were, most of them, dressed alike in eye-catching tops in patriotic colors of red, white and blue, with the blue-trimmed picture hat trimmed in the same material, with the words "Vote" splashed all over. They arrived in two

Avon Mobile Home Park News

Julian Wright

Sorry I had to cut the news off so abruptly last week, but you will be glad to know that I did get it in on time, though just barely. This week I am typing the news about two and a half hours before the deadline, so I believe that will give me enough time for what little news we have (hint, hint). Now that the July rent is in, only a few letters come trickling into the office now and then. But I shouldn't complain - I'm sure my dad prefers those letters with checks much more than the letters without!

Guess what! Our number is summer residents dwindled once again this week. With Rosa Bennington's departure to the north this past weekend, our number is now down to a startling 23. Doesn't anybody like us anymore?

LaRue Longanecker's son and daughter-in-law, Veri and Martha Longanecker from Ocoee, visited her this Sunday, along with LaRue's great-grandchildren from Michigan.

Mildred Timberg is enjoying a little more rest than usual these days during a well-deserved two-week vacation from her work at Ben Franklin's.

Thelma Skuce returned late last week from a few days at Walker Memorial Hospital. We wish her a speedy recovery and God's blessings as she recuperates.

Mrs. Robert Alwood attended the wedding of her son, John, this past Saturday, July 15, in Greenville, Florida. We wish this new couple much happiness in the days ahead.

Court No. 34 is occupied this week by Mildred Shearer's son and daughter-in-law, Veri and Joan Shearer from Canton, Ohio, and their friends, Muriel and Dean Lorton, also of Canton. While in Florida, they are visiting many attractions such as Silver Springs, Disney World, Cypress Gardens, Bok Tower, the Great Masterpiece, etc. They will leave Friday on a cruise to Nassau, in the Bahamas, after which they plan to go on down to the Keys and various other points of interest. The Shearers and Lortons will then stop once more in Avon Park before going back to Ohio. It is certainly a pleasure having them with us in the park this week, and we hope they enjoy their stay here in the Sunshine State.

History was made in Avon Mobile Home Park this week as our own dear Ol' Field took his first ride ever on a three-wheeler. It was a memorable occasion indeed, with Charles Buckley, Jonathan Wright (me), and Mae Dupuis witnessing the event. It all happened at 8:50 p.m. on Sunday, July 16, as the well-known outspace took the handlebars of Mae's three-wheeler and whizzed down First Avenue, doing quite well to say the least! After the short ride, Doc commented sincerely, "I'd rather have a two-wheeler."

Don't we do exciting things here in the summer? Ora and Ruby Myers arrived safely in Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they will spend part of their summer. They are presently enjoying their stay at Lake George with their daughter.

We are very sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Rowe Weller, of Oil City, Pennsylvania. Lavina reports that he has had two heart attacks, five or six blockages, and a stroke, within a short period of time. He has been in the intensive care unit of the hospital. Let's remember Mr. Weller in our prayers, that God's will shall be done in this matter. Remember - He is able to do exceedingly abundant above all that we ask or think.

News of the Week

Elizabeth Clarke called on Floyd Ribordy near LaPorte, Ind. and Harold and Ruth Wolcott. A visit was also made on Jo and Marnard McKimmon at their cottage near Ganges, Mich. and Alberta Mitchell at Benton Harbor, Mich. Elizabeth Clarke will be returning with Isn't that great?

Lew and Nellie Becker arrived safely in Connersville, Ind., July 8. They report a nice trip with good weather and no rain, and plan to visit the Smiths and other friends in Ohio this week. The Beckers are feeling fine and send their greetings to all the park folks.

Walter and Flo Coady report that they had a very nice trip until they arrived in Connecticut, where "it has been raining ever since." They are presently visiting friends and relatives. Flo says she misses the Florida sunshine.

George and Merceda Beasly left Rochester, Ind., July 14, to travel to Mexico, where they will visit their daughter, Janis, and new granddaughter which they have not seen yet. They expect to be gone for approximately one month, and send their regards to all their friends in the park.

So goes another week in the park, and the Lord continues to watch over us and love us as usual, underscoring as we are. Isn't He terrific? He certainly deserves to be No. 1 in our lives! May He continue to bless you throughout the week in all you do.

Beulah Winkler very soon. She has had a wonderful time but will be glad to be back at home in Avon Park.

Caroline Webber writes that the Avon Park picnic in Chautauque County will be held this year at the Mayville Grange Hall on Route 17, North Erie Street in Mayville the first Wednesday in August 2 at 12 noon. All club members are invited to attend.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Nellie Askew after a long illness in the hospital. Friends can send cards to her daughter, Mrs. Irene Covert at 719 Midland, Royal Oak, Mich. 48073. The Askews lived in Avon Park several years.

The Ira Shaders are spending a week in New York, seeing the sights.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Holland

Pamela Parnell-Billy Holland United In Marriage July 8

Miss Pamela Elaine Parnell and Mr. Billy Joe Holland were united in marriage in an afternoon ceremony at The Church of God, Saturday, July 8.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parnell, Sr., Avon Park, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Holland, Avon Park. The Reverend Don Staten performed the ceremony before a background of sheffera palms and white latticed woodwork decorated with lily-of-the-valley and clusters of jade fern.

Floral arrangements of yellow and white gladioli and daisy pompons were placed in white urns on white columned pedestals at each side of the latticed woodwork. The kneeling bench, covered with antique white satin, completed the setting. Family pews were marked with cascading arrangements of lily-of-the-valley accepted with large white bows.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Ray Johnson, pianist, and Mrs. Eugene Hamlin, soloist, who sang "Whither Thou Goest," and "Always."

Bride Wears Crushed Crepe
The lovely bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white crushed crepe, which featured a wide scooped neckline and long sleeves. Seed pearls and crystal sequins accented the neckline and front panel of her gown. Her bridal veil of silk illusion held in place by a crown of white roses entwined with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascading designed bouquet of yellow and white daisies with white streamers.

Miss Delia Ann Montemayor of Crystal River, attended her cousin as maid of honor. She wore a yellow crushed crepe, floor-length gown fashioned similar to that of the bride, with a head piece of yellow daisies and seed pearls and ribbon, and carried a traditional colonial style bouquet of yellow and white daisies with a touch of purple French stat.

Darrell Landress of Miami, uncle of the bride, attended the groom as best man. Ushers were Wendell Parnell and Bobby Holland, brothers of the bride and groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Parnell wore a jaquard, double-knit dress in blue and white shantung dress with white accessories, and a white tailored carnation corsage.

Mrs. Holland chose for her son's wedding a blue and white shantung dress with white accessories. She wore a white tailored carnation corsage with a touch of blue.

Mrs. T. G. Landress, the bride's grandmother, wore a dress of red, white and blue, with matching accessories. Her corsage was white carnations.

Sally Colip has just returned from Salina, Kansas, and said the hospitality was great there, and she stayed longer than expected in the wheat country. She said the farmers were real pleased to receive an average of 37 to 45 bushels of wheat per acre. While Sally was there, she joined the Western Din-A-Ling Club and this is what she wrote to me in a note before she came home. "I get stoned on sunshine, getting high on air—Gettin' to it naturally, really gettin' there; Gettin' such a howl on, lovin' what I do—I'm so full of happiness, hooked on something new. My pot is filled with flowers, my grass is bright and green, my tea is brewin' in my cup, and still I make the choice: Please don't try to change me, I love the world I've found. Gotta fly my own sweet way, don't try to shoot me down."

Sally said she missed the swimming while away from Florida but went home back riding instead, and added too, she had a wonderful time. She missed the "Avon Park Sun."

Dr. and Mrs. Albert M. Collier and sons, Mark, Dennis and John, Chapel Hill, N. C. were guests of last week's party. Mr. and Mrs. Milford W. Collier.

Mrs. Anna Belle Worden was in Orlando Monday evening to see grandson, Tony Wilson playing the position of first base and right field. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilson. Mrs. Wilson is the former Elaine Worden of Avon Park and his father John formerly starred on the Lake Wales Football and baseball team.

Double Ring Ceremony Unites Couple At Presbyterian Church

The First Presbyterian Church, Avon Park, was the setting for the wedding of Miss Leila Edlsten and Michael Ray Hobbs on Friday, June 23, at 7:30 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lanier of 1006 W. Bell Street, Avon Park. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Henry Hobbs of Rockledge, Fla.

Twin seven-branch candelabras cast a soft glow for the double-ring ceremony performed by Reverend W. O. Ragdale.

A large massed mixed arrangement of glads, carnations and daisy pompons was beneath the lighted cross on a white antique pedestal with arrangements of mixed flowers on each side of the altar. The white kneeling bench was centered in a background of arched wedding palms. Boxwood greenery accented with white satin roses marked the family pews.

Mrs. Jerome Shiltz, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music which included the traditional wedding marches.

Bride wears
Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in an empire style gown of white organza and lace. The lace bodice featured a low neckline with long sheer sleeves with a cap of lace, falling full from the cap to the fitting lace cuff. Her long mantilla veil of illusion was lace trimmed and fell from a pillbox of material which matched the gown. She carried an elongated colonial style bouquet featuring two large white cattleya orchids with white miniature carnations and daisy pompons. The bride's only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Denis Whitaker, sister of the bride from Lake Placid. She wore a lined voile gown of turquoise featuring empire waistline and bell sleeves. The sleeves and bodice was trimmed with lace, and she wore lace trimmed ribbon in her hair. Antique white lace complemented her colonial style white baskets of white and turquoise daisy pompons.

Bridesmaid was Miss Carla Uts of Avon Park. She was groomed identical to the matron of honor, and carried the same colonial style bouquet.

Flower girls were Karen McConnell, cousin of the bride and Theresa Hobbs, the bridegroom's sister, of Rockledge. They were groomed in identical lined printed voile with bell sleeves. They wore ribbon in their hair and carried white baskets of white and turquoise petals and streamers.

Ringbearer was Edward Alan Bennett, nephew of the groom. Best man was James E. Bennett, brother-in-law of the bridegroom of Avon Park. Usher-groomsmen were Jerry Batts and Stanley Wells, both of Avon Park.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lanier wore an apricot ensemble of imported lace over a sheer lined empire waistline trimmed with matching lace. She wore white accessories and a yellow cymidium orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hobbs wore for her son's wedding a lined sheer lace dress with princess styling and long full sleeves. She wore matching accessories and a pale pink cymidium orchid corsage.

Reception
Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Lanier entertained at a reception in the church social hall. Joan Ellen McConnell, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. The bride's table and punch table were covered with floor length imported lace cloths, over yellow voile. Twin silver candelabras, with three turquoise candles, flanked the wedding cake made and served by Mrs. James E. Bennett, sister of the bridegroom.

The pure white cake was heightened by rich dimensional embellishments. The square, three-tiered cake was surrounded by a white lace ruffle and rested on a square silver tray. Sweepstakes were between the tiers, and cascaded over the sides of the cake. Sweepstakes surrounded the top of the cake which was crowned with a classic ornament of a filigree dome under which included traditional miniature bridal couple stool.

Silver compotes of nuts and mints and the bride's bouquet completed the decorations for the bride's table.

Mrs. Joseph C. McConnell and Joan McConnell, aunt and niece of the bride, from Rockledge, served punch from two bowls on a table centered with the groom's cake. The groom's cake, also made by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Bennett, was a white swirl resting on a turquoise lace.

When new Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs left on their honeymoon to Ft. Myers Beach, the bride was wearing a turquoise double-knit dress with empire waistline and bell sleeves. The sleeves and bodice was white and she wore a white cattleya orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After their return, the newweds will be at home at 98 North Prospect Avenue, Avon Park, where the bride is employed by United Telephone Co., and the bridegroom is employed by Wells Motor Co., as Parts Manager.

Rehearsal Dinner
The rehearsal dinner for the Edlsten-Hobbs wedding party was held on Thursday, June 22, following rehearsal, at the Presbyterian Church social hall.

The buffet dinner was hosted by the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Hobbs, of Rockledge.

A wedding motif was used in decorations, with the focal point being the centerpiece for the bride's table, a cake made by Mrs. James (Darlene) Bennett, sister of the bridegroom. A sheet cake was topped by the bridegroom in his tuxedo and by a bride doll cake, holding a miniature bouquet of fresh flowers, bringing out the bride's color scheme of turquoise.

Pre-wedding parties for Leila Edlsten, bride-elect of Michael Hobbs, included a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring her June 21 at the home of Carla Uts on Lake Lotela.

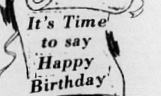

A bridal motif was carried out in decorations in the party rooms. The shower cake,

Cord of Thanks

WE WISH TO EXPRESS our sincerest thanks to all our many friends and relatives who sent cards, flowers, and cards during the loss of our daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Martz and family

THE FAMILY of Joe Lee Elder wish to express their deep appreciation, and especially to Rev. Clay Jennings, friends and relatives who showed so much kindness during the family bereavement of their mother, Mrs. Ada Elder.

IT BEING impossible to thank each person for their kindness shown to me during my stay at Highlands General Hospital, I shall use this "Cord of Thanks" which each employee on the first floor, especially Mrs. Quigley, also want to thank my friends, neighbors, and family, for the cards, flowers, and prayers. My deepest appreciation goes to Rev. R. L. O'Quinn and my daughter-in-law, Sharon Houpe, Mrs. James H. (Fannie) Houpe.

Two International Scouts Were Guests Of Troop 156 This Week

Two International Scouts were guests at a recent meeting of Boy Scout Troop 156 in Avon Park. Luis "Gino" Palau of Ecuador and Masahide "Matt" Wakaugawa of Okinawa are spending the summer at Camp Flaming Arrow in Lake Wales. Arrangements for the visit to the troop meeting were made by Scoutmaster Larry Hooper, who is program Director at the Camp.

Members of the troop showed some of the lightweight backpacking equipment which they will be using on the upcoming trip to hike the Appalachian Trail in North Carolina. The foreign Scouts, in return, had on display books, badges and other items used in Scouting in their respective countries. It was interesting to note that "Matt" was the first Scout in Okinawa to attain the rank of Eagle Scout, and "Gino" was the second Scout in Ecuador to attain the rank of Condor Scout, the equivalent to Eagle in the Boy Scouts of America.

"Matt", 25, is a graduate of the University of Arkansas. He is employed by a natural gas firm in Okinawa.

"Matt", 25, is a graduate of the University of Arkansas. He is employed by a natural gas firm in Okinawa, and is a Scoutmaster. "Gino", 22, is a university student in Ecuador studying to be an electronics engineer. He is a Commissioner in Scouting. Since Gino will not be returning to his home country until late in August, he is planning to accompany Troop 156 on the Appalachian Adventure, for a real outdoors experience with the Boy Scouts of America.

Women's Council Hold Meeting July 13

Mrs. Clifford Dance and Mrs. Gilbert Dance were the hostesses for the Women's Council of the First Christian Church, which met Thursday evening, July 13, in the Fellowship Hall of the Church. Mrs. Byron Harwood continued her lesson study of the Book of Acts. At the business session, the president, Mrs. H. J. Rutherford, presided. The Secretary's report was given. Mrs. Glen Ruffner reported she had bought a table and other articles for the kitchen. The hostesses served refreshments, from a beautifully decorated table with a centerpiece of roses and garlands of hibiscus and greenery. The August meeting will be omitted.

too late for those azaleas, camellias, and hydrangeas.

In April, I cut our crotons back to six to eight inches from the ground. With a monthly feeding of 8-8-4 fertilizer, they are even and healthy. I was late getting to them, but such a severe cutting will keep them full and lovely for next year and maybe longer. Also remember regular feedings on your chrysanthemums.

BROMELIADS: These are native to the American Tropics and are members of the pineapple family (Bromeliaceae). Spanish moss (Tillandsia usneoides) is the most familiar, but least known, in Florida. There can be a great deal of variation in the light requirements of Bromeliads, yet a well filtered location will do for most of them.

They not only offer some dramatic tropical effects in the shady parts of your landscape, but they are the easiest of plants for inside the home. For months on end, they seem immune to air-conditioning or heating. Propagating from the off-shoots (pups) is simple. Sever from the parent plant with a knife and insert in the ground or a pot. For potting mix, use equal parts of peat moss, leaf mold and sand.

Gusmania, Vriesea and Tillandsia will do their best when potted in osmund, bark, or tree fern fiber. Do establish a monthly fertilizing program for them. A water soluble, balanced fertilizer, 10-10-10, will produce good plants. Watering is also easy.

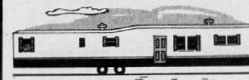

They have a natural 'vase' at the top and add water to this as it becomes dry. You still have to give the pot a complete watering, but as long as there is water in the 'vase' the plant will not die if the soil goes dry for short periods of time. In a Florida room, patio, or porch, you can have a lot of pleasure bringing a pineapple into bloom. They can be a lasting decoration, plus you can eat the final results.

It's A Woman's World

Most thrifty homemakers refrigerate leftovers as soon as they are brought in from the dining table, but here's the rub! Unless a mental tab is kept on these accumulations, all at once the refrigerator is cluttered with odds and ends that only end up getting thrown out on refrigerator cleaning day. But what can you do with a cup of this and a dab of that? Here are some suggestions:

One-half cup sour cream dip? Add to cooked green beans and bask in the compliments on your seasoning skill.

A couple of frankfurters? Make truck ham salad spread. Put in a blender container: 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire and 1 small sweet pickle. Cover and blend until smooth. Add frankfurters, cubed, cover container, and blend on low speed until frankfurters are chopped. Yield: 1 cup.

...A cup of cooked diced beets? Make blender borscht. You will also need 2 cups commercial sour cream, 1 thin slice lemon, peeled and seeded, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 small onion. Put 1 1/2 cups sour cream and remaining ingredients in blender. Cover and blend on high speed until smooth. Chill and serve cold with remaining 1/4 cup sour cream and sprig of parsley for garnish. Yield: 2 1/2 cups.

Three egg yolks? You have refrigerated these yolks, for a day or so, covered with water in a plastic container. Now put yolks in strainer; lower into simmering water and simmer until hard cooked. Remove and mince with fork. Use as a garnish for curry; add to a tossed salad; or moisten with mayonnaise and add chopped stuffed olives for a sandwich spread.

One-half cup salted peanuts? Blend peanuts, 2 large carrots cut in pieces and 1/4 cup mayonnaise until carrots and peanuts are chopped medium fine. You can make four people happy with this sandwich spread.

One-half cup corn cut off the cob? Make corn fritters. To corn add 1 egg beaten until light. Then add 3 tablespoons flour, 1/4 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, pinch nutmeg. Bake on oiled griddle using tablespoon of batter for each fritter. Yield: 6 fritters.

One pound leftover beef steak? Make easy Beef Straganoff. Cut steak into thin slices and saute in a few tablespoons shortening. Add 2 cups sliced mushrooms, 2 tablespoons minced onion and half cup bouillon. Cook over low heat 5 minutes. Stir in a cup of sour cream and heat through. Serve over buttered noodles. Yield: 4 servings.

Remember, It's A Woman's World!

Old Yellow

By Fred Gipson

When a novel like HUCKLEBERRY FINN, or THE YEARLING, comes along, it defies customary adjectives because of the intensity of the response it evokes in the reader.

Such a book, we submit, is OLD YELLOW: to read this eloquently simple story of a boy and his dog in the Texas hill country is an unforgettable and deeply moving experience.

The big, ugly, yellow dog showed up out of nowhere one night and stole a whole side of hanging pork, and when Travis went for him the next morning that dog started yelling like a baby before he was touched. Then he got into the spring water with five-year-old Arliss.

Travis took an easy hate to Old Yellow, as they started to call him; in fact, he would have driven him off or killed him if it hadn't been for brother Arliss' loud and violent protests. So Yellow stayed, and Travis soon found he couldn't have got along without him.

Pa and Ma and Travis and Arliss lived on Birdsong Creek in the Texas hill country. It wasn't an easy life, but they had a snug cabin that Pa had built himself, and they had their own hogs and their own cattle, and they grew most of what else they needed. The only thing they and the rest of the settlers lacked that year in the late 1860's was cash money so the men decided to get together and drive all the cattle up to the new market in Abilene, Kansas, more than six hundred miles away.

Travis was only fourteen, but he was proud of his new role as man of the family and determined to live up to his responsibility. It was hard work, too, plowing until his legs ached, chopping wood until his hands were raw and his head was spinning, weeding the garden in the hot sun, toting the heavy buckets up from the spring, and trying to keep his mischievous little brother in line.

But there were pleasant moments, too: his Ma treating him like a man, and deer hunting in the early-morning stillness, and hot summer nights out in the corn patch under the stars with Old Yellow, trying to keep the coons and skunks out of the winter food supply. And there was plenty of excitement, like the fight between the two bulls, and the time Arliss nearly got mauled by the bear, and trying to catch and mark the new hogs. Here the suspense and excitement reach a peak, only to be topped a few pages later when the crazy-sack loafer wolf goes for Ma. Both times it is Yellow who saves them. Only the second time it is not Lucky for Yellow, as Travis comes to find out. And in finding out, Travis learns just how much he has come to love that big ugly dog, and he learns something about the pain of life, too.

OLD YELLOW is a story that will be read and treasured by many thousands for years to come. In a shorter form, this has appeared as a three-part serial in COLLIER'S. OLD YELLOW has also been made into a movie.

Other books by the same author include: THE TRAIL, DRIVING ROOSTER, RECOLLECTION CREEK, COWHAND, THE HOME PLACE, HOUND-DOG MAN, and FABULOUS EMPIRE.

Increase In Parolees Reported

The Florida parole and probation commission district office in Sebring reports a 31 percent increase in the number of persons placed on probation or parole to this area.

The state for some time has attempted to grant earlier paroles and longer probations as a better means of rehabilitating criminals.

The total caseload for J. Edward LaVoie, district supervisor, and probation officer Terry Wolfe, now is 162. In the past year they have completed 220 investigations of various types.

A total of 41 persons have successfully completed probation or parole during the past year, LaVoie said in his annual report. Eighty-nine percent have committed no material violation of the probation. Only 16 persons have been revoked.

LaVoie pointed out that the people under their supervision, who otherwise could be in institutions costing the taxpayers money, paid taxes on an estimated income of $413,185 the past year. In addition, the officers are enforcing child support on quite a few of these cases.

LaVoie and Wolfe also have conducted three group therapy

Council Passes Record $631,400 Budget Monday

The city of Avon Park passed a record budget of $631,400.13 at their regular meeting held Monday night.

The new budget, which takes effect October 1 of this year is an increase of $105,006.37 over last year.

The city fathers placed the $123,500.00 this year into the general government account, an increase of $12,600. Into the building department account, the council placed $10,890 and increase of $735.00.

$29,842 was placed into the cities property maintenance account which is an increase of

$4,342.00 over last years budget. With the possibility of the city taking on the responsibility of maintaining a public library, the city fathers placed $27,800 into their publicity account, an increase of $21,400, which includes $23,000 for the library fund.

The fire department received $59,878.17 this year compared to $54,963.07 last year. The police department received $117,147.03 compared to $102,342.37 in the 1971-72 budget.

The park department received an increase of $8,000 over last years budget, bringing their total, 1972-73 budget to $23,750.

$146,200 was awarded to the Sanitation and Street Departments an increase of $6,680 while the Golf Course received $49,560 compared to $47,340 last year.

The city lists $8,790 as debts a decrease of $310, while $26,942.50 was placed in reserve, compared to $4,563.32 last year.

The city council increased city employees wages by 10 per cent and placed funds for a library in this new budget without raising any taxes.

Gallen Meets With Area Businessmen

Representative Tom Gallen, a candidate for the Florida Senate from District 24, met with Avon Park community leaders last week and announced he will use Highlands County as a district office if elected.

The newly formed 24th Senatorial District includes Okeechobee, Highlands, Glades, DeSoto, Hardee and Manatee Counties. Gallen is an attorney and a State Representative from Manatee County.

"The difficulty of adequately representing the people of so large an area is in maintaining constant contact with the residents of the area," Gallen said. "By opening a full-time Senate office in Highlands County, I will be able to effectively serve this area and the surrounding counties of Okeechobee, Glades and De Soto Counties."

Gallen indicated he will appoint someone from Highlands County as his legislative aide. "This will insure the people of this area a direct pipeline to Tallahassee," he added.

The candidate also discussed his position on agriculture with the Avon Park group, citing a strong letter of support from the Florida Farm Bureau, and from the Chairman of the House Committee on Agriculture.

Gallen now represents Hardee and Manatee Counties, both agriculturally oriented, in the House of Representatives. His experience in the Legislature is Gallen's strong point in the campaign. Neither of his opponents have any experience in Tallahassee.

Gallen's six years in the House of Representatives have been served during the most active period in the history of Florida government. He has attended six regular sessions of the House, and a total of seventeen extended and special sessions.

His contacts in Tallahassee and his legislative know-how is expected to make him an efficient legislator, and his record in the House is strongly conservative and pro-agriculture.

"There's no substitute for experience," Gallen said, "whether the task is growing oranges, building a house, or serving the people in Tallahassee, and I intend to campaign on that theme."

"I believe I can be more effective in serving the people of this district," he said, "and I respectfully solicit their vote."

Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation, accompanied by Norman Pinardi, a former employee of the agency and resident of Avon Park. He later talked with South Florida Junior College president Dr. Stallard, and met with Democratic Committee officials in Sebring.

Insurance Premiums Will Increase

Hospitalization insurance premiums for county employees will increase a whopping $8 per cent beginning Sept. 1, the Highlands County Board of County Commissioners was advised Tuesday by the insurance carrier, Pan American Life Insurance Co. of New Orleans.

According to the letter, premiums collected to insure some 260 county employees during the past 12 months have totaled $47,228.69, while claims have amounted to $53,824.65, an excess of $6,600.

"I'm trying to prepare for the future," said Sizemore. "I'm not knocking or criticizing Crews." Duggan said that if the city were to switch to a city-manager type of government, which would have to be passed by the public, he would suggest Crews for the job since he knows "what to do and how to get it done."

In other actions taken by the council at their meeting, all former bids for the construction of Tee Hangars at the airport were rejected, and new ones will be taken August 28 for one, this time the bids must include erection.

George Haynie, representing the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce came before the board and requested that October be designated as Clean Up-Green Up month. He reported that the groups plan to have a horticultural speak to local people on September 21. The council made the request into a motion which was passed unanimously.

5 County Officeholders Will Have No Opposition

Qualifying for the Fall elections closed Tuesday noon and five Highlands County officeholders will go back into their jobs without opposition.

They are Superintendent of Schools George Douglass, Circuit Court Clerk Earl Rich, Tax Collector W. H. Prescott, Tax Assessor Billy Martin and Elections Supervisor Jim Whitehouse. Martin and Rich live in Avon Park and the others in Sebring.

Only one elected constitutional officer in the county has opposition and that is Sheriff O. L. Raulerson, Jr. Running against him is another Democrat, J. C. Murdoch, a chief deputy sheriff for many years.

Another county office holder who goes back in without opposition is G. Franklyn Ward, of Avon Park, District 4.

However, to fill the seat on District 2, which has been vacated by Ted Casson, are two Sebring women, Ruth Davis and Valeria McElhannon. Mrs. Davis listed as her treasurer herself and Mrs. McElhannon listed Kay Heffner.

Commissioners there would only be three County Commission seats up for election, but with the resignation of County Chairman Andrew Jackson, his post is up in District 4 and four Democrats and two Republicans are after the job.

Democrats are R. T. "Brad" Bowen, Jr., who listed Judith Bowen as his campaign treasurer; C. J. "Buddy" Wise, who listed Roger Polk as treasurer; John W. Wirick, III, and Charles M. Rucker, who listed themselves as treasurers.

Republicans are Jean Whitaker, who listed himself and wife as treasurer, and H. R. "Bob" Hjort, who listed Edith Hjort as treasurer.

District 3 drew two

Democrats and one Republican. All listed themselves as their own treasurers. It was good news to Republican Kenneth Wilkinson when no other Republicans qualified by Tuesday noon. He will oppose Democrats Allen B. Collier and Woodrow Waldron in the November election. Waldron waited until Tuesday morning to qualify. All candidates are from Sebring.

District 5

Another Republican, James R. Dale, who listed Marcia Dale as his treasurer, will face one of the three Democratic candidates.

Democrats running for the District 5 Commission seat are incumbent Robert Skipper, who listed Marguerite Skipper as his treasurer; Robert Brooks, who listed Lillie Brooks, and Willard Durrance, who listed Mary Lee Durrance.

District 1

James Rimes, Republican, of Avon Park, found no opposition within his own party for the seat in District 1. But in November he will face the winner of a three-way race for the Democratic nomination. Democratic candidates, all of Avon Park, are Melville C. Bass, who listed June G. Cooper as his treasurer; Wendell "Winkie" Williams, who listed Ed Touchton, Jr., and Willard Gene Selph, who listed himself as his treasurer. Selph was the last candidate to qualify paying his fee and filing just shortly before noon Tuesday.

In the Sheriff's race, Raulerson listed Judy Raulerson as treasurer and Murdoch listed himself.

The primary is Sept. 12, runoff Oct. 3 and general election Nov. 7.

Under new laws passed by the Legislature, County Commissioners newly elected will take office about two weeks after the Nov. 7 election. Constitutional officers elected take office Jan. 1.

All commissioners will be elected for four year terms with the exception of District 4, which will be for two years.

City Employees Get 10% Raise

Employees of the City of Avon Park will receive a ten per cent raise across the board, pay raise beginning Oct. 1.

The city council deliberated for two hours July 20 at a special meeting to consider a tentative budget for the 1973-74 year.

Councilman Clarence King suggested that some type of base form be prepared to cover raises, but the majority of the council members felt that a base scale would be useless because of the fluctuating cost of living. Mayor Robert Barben was also against flat raise. "A Flat across the board increase," enables the lazy workers to earn the same amount as the ambitious ones. Once again the majority felt that higher wages would enable the city to attract better workers so they could get rid of the lazy ones. Council President J. R. Duggan stated that "Town is growing more every day, and regardless of salaries, more services are needed."

The pay increase, which will cost the city approximately thirty thousand dollars overall, was passed unanimously into the budget, which goes into effect October 1 of this year.

The city fathers also decided to increase the equipment budget in the street and sanitation department by three thousand dollars in order to purchase a new trash hauler with a hydraulic bed situated on a trailer which can be hauled behind a regular trash truck.

Another increase in the tentative budget was made in the cost of the city attorney Jonathan Hancock. His salary was increased by four hundred dollars, bringing it to $2400 a year.

The city council also decided to leave the golf course in the budget, and let things continue until October at which time they will decide whether to continue with the golf course.

At the regular meeting held Monday, July 24, councilman

Herman Sizemore made a motion to increase councilman's expense money to fifty dollars a month, an increase of thirty dollars. When the motion was brought before the members for a vote, the motion was passed by yes votes from Duggan, Howard, and Sizemore, with King voting NO and Martin Abstaining.

Sizemore, keeping the council busy, also suggested placing funds in the budget for a city superintendent. Sizemore stated that city Clerk Malcolm Crews is presently swamped with work and this would take a load off his shoulders. Duggan stated that he didn't feel that Crews should be "reallocated to a secondary position" since he knows the people, circumstances, and layout of the city. King said: "I have learned in the past towards a city-manager form of government but after seeing other cities going bad under that type of system" he is now against the idea.

"I'm trying to prepare for the future" said Sizemore. "I'm not knocking or criticizing Crews." Duggan said that if the city were to switch to a city-manager type of government, which would have to be passed by the public, he would suggest Crews for the job since he knows "what to do and how to get it done."

In other actions taken by the council at their meeting, all former bids for the construction of Tee Hangars at the airport were rejected, and new ones will be taken August 28 for one, this time the bids must include erection.

George Haynie, representing the Kiwanis Club and the Chamber of Commerce came before the board and requested that October be designated as Clean Up-Green Up month. He reported that the groups plan to have a horticultural speak to local people on September 21. The council made the request into a motion which was passed unanimously.

Counterfeit Circulating Here

The Avon Park Sun, at the request of Police Chief Ferland Cribb and Mayor Robert J. Barben, held their story last week concerning counterfeit money, being circulated in Avon Park.

This week, the police department is still not confirming or denying any reports, but stated some news could possibly be released later this week.

According to last reports, approximately $2000 worth of counterfeit twenty dollar bills were spread throughout Avon Park Friday, July 14.

The police department received a call Saturday from the Avon Citrus Bank, who reported that a teller, while routinely going through her duties came across a twenty that looked odd and notified her superiors.

After the call to police, both began calling businesses in Avon Park and notified them of the phonies.

Chief Cribb stated that the last city council meeting that he had picked up another phony Monday, July 24, which he believed came from the original batch. He also said that the Secret Service is presently wrapped up in Miami with the conventions and is allowing the police department to investigate the case. Cribb stated his department can now call for approximately $900 of the fake bills.

It was stated from another source that approximately $250 to $300 has left town while Sebring has confiscated five of the bills.

Cribb told the council members that he and agents of the federal government were investigating numerous leads and feel that they are making some progress. He also stated that they are trying to tie this case in with the big counterfeit ring recently uncovered in Miami.

Four plates were used in the making of the counterfeit bills with serial numbers of D0558434A, D31785117B, B9917756A, and D2358418A.

Investigations are presently still going on. Cribb told the Avon Park Sun that a complete story would be released possibly later this week or early next.
