inspiration to hundreds of his students and athletes. He also has had the cooperation and respect of thousands of Avon Park fans and citizens. Easy going and friendly, Joe seems never to be in a hurry or too busy to talk with anyone but always manages to get the job done. He has been active in community affairs. He is a member of the Union Congregation Church, a member of the Rotary Club, and has served as Grand Master of Poincianna Lodge of Masons in Avon Park. He has been and is active in many other organizations and has served as officer in the old Ridge Conference, the Lake-Ridge Conference and the present Tri-County Athletic Conference.

Avon Park principal Aaron Cravens stated this week that finding a replacement for Franza will take time and thought. He accepted the veteran coaches' resignation with deep regret. Announcement of a new head football coach for the Red Devils will come as soon as possible. Cravens said this week. Due to the lack of vacancies on the high school teaching staff, a replacement will either need to already be on the faculty or be able to fill any vacancy which might occur for the coming year. Assistant coach Ralph Hill has also turned in his resignation for next season but will remain on the faculty as a mathematics instructor. Mr. Cravens said that he will look into all aspects of hiring a replacement for Franza and will try to find a man who can carry on at Avon Park in the fine tradition of winning and exhibiting good sportsmanship set by Joe Franza in the past 24 years.

stop the cars going down Bell st. and onto the airport property, crossing it and entering onto Hwy. 64. Woodruff said that he had gone out to the scene and watched for 45 minutes and counted 17 cars doing this. This is dangerous, he stated, because of airplanes which are taxing and landing on the runways that the cars are speeding across.

The council decided to erect some fence of a sort to prohibit the entrance of autos onto the airport property by this route. Woodruff also said that he had received 14 calls complaining about city trucks delivering fill dirt to citizens' residences. The council stated that the practice was for people to request any spare dirt the city had, then if the city workers had any, they would drop it off at the citizen's home instead of placing it into the dump.

Because of the complaints, the city council decided to completely stop that practice. Now the city will keep all of its spare dirt. The dirt will be placed on a city-owned lot located behind Franklin's Inn.

Devil B Team Wins Seventh Victory

The Red Devil "B" squad basketball team racked up its seventh straight victory to remain undefeated last Saturday night with a 57-46 win over Mulberry here at the high school gym. The Devil "B"s" had won over Sebring 73-46 last Friday night and over Lake Placid 74-43 on Tuesday Jan. 2.

Mickey Claitt led the Red Devil junior varsity players in scoring in the Lake Placid and Mulberry games with 19 points for each game and Lawrence McRae took game high scoring honors against Sebring with 20 points and against Cleveland before the holidays with 30 points.

After seven games Lawrence McRae was leading the Devil scorers with a 18.9 average per game. McRae had a total of 15 rebounds. Mickey Claitt has the second high scoring average with 17 points per game, and also is second high in rebounds with 86. Jimmy Caldwell leads in the rebound department with 89 pull-downs to his credit. Caldwell also has a 10.4 shooting average. Mickey Claitt has averaged 11.1 points per game and has gathered in a total of 75 rebounds in the seven games. The other "B" squad starter, William Burley, has hit for 4.4 points per game and pulled in 22 rebounds. The four other boys on the winning squad are Curtis Foster, Tommy Wester, Ben Wright, and Dean Duboise.

The Red Devil "B" team plays the same schedule as the varsity except for tourney games. Last Tuesday night they were to host Frostproof Jayvee squad at 6:30 p.m. at the high school gym, and tomorrow night (Friday) and Saturday night they will also be at home taking on Santa Fe on Friday and hosting Okeechobee on Saturday. These junior varsity boys, coached by Tom Lund, play fast, aggressive ball, and hope to keep the winning streak alive this week with the three home games.

Local Man Wins Prize In International Exhibit

Ealon R. Lamphier, formerly of 3833 Kent Road, Stow, O., now living at 1202 S. Florida ave., Avon Park, won high honors in the ninth international exhibit and sale of paintings by the disabled, which was sponsored in Minneapolis by the Auxiliary of Sister Kenny Institute. Judges awarded him third prize on his entry entitled "Old Homestead." Judges represented the University of Minnesota, Walker Art Center in Minneapolis, and St. Catherine's College in St. Paul. Entries were received from all parts of the world and from members of the Association of Mouth and Foot Artists of Lichtenstein. Most of the painters use a brush held in the mouth; others use techniques developed for foot, forehead, or disabled arms. Purpose of this exhibit is to stimulate interest in the rehabilitation of talented persons crippled by arthritis, stroke, neuromuscular disease, and accidents. Proceeds of sales go to the artists.

Lamphier or "Lamp" as he is called, was stricken with Polio in 1940, and has been in a wheel chair ever since. He was in the Navy and had been with the National Park Service before being disabled.

He met his wife Ruth two years ago while she was caring for him and they decided to make it a twosome. She lifts him into bed and out with a hydraulic lift, and they also have one for the car.

"Lamp" is also a "Ham Operator" (with call letters KRABP) and enjoys talking to people all over the world. Paintings of this organization are reproduced on calendars and Christmas cards, which they sell. This writer viewed several of "Lamp's" cards, and they were beautiful. Orders may be placed in August or September for these personalized creations of "Lamp's".

"Lamp" is working on a painting for little Shari Kekes of Toledo, O., The Easter Seal Child of '69, which was requested by her mother.

When I asked "Lamp" what he did for pastime, he asked, "What pastime?" He stays busy painting and doing whatever he can because that money, plus a small pension, is his livelihood. He is real indignant about people on welfare not trying to help themselves. "Lamp" was on welfare for a little while, but got off the public rolls by painting with his mouth. He also sells paper weights made beautiful with his paintings. He paints five or six days a week at four to five hour intervals. "Lamp" and wife Ruth said they love Avon Park, and might make it their permanent home. All of you who like beautiful things place an order with "Lamp" for a painting, paperweight, or in August, for some beautiful Christmas cards personalized with "Lamp's" paintings. Help someone who is helping himself. He may be contacted at 1202 S. Florida ave., Cottage No. 7.

Faye Gordon Speaks To Womans Club

At the Avon Park Woman's Club meeting held at the Florida Power Lounge on Jan. 5, Faye Gordon, Home Economist for the Florida Power, spoke on Consumerism, Best Buys. She advised the members to "eat before shopping", "a bargain is not a bargain if you cannot use it", and to notice posted signs on items in the store for the Unit Price to help make the best purchase.

The Woman's Club received a Red Cross Award for the work done on the Food Stamps Program. The workers interviewed 150 people. Katie Rehner received the citation and presented it to the Club. The Club will have a Bake Sale on the Winn-Dixie porch on the morning of Jan. 12. There will be lots of goodies for sale to help with the Building Fund. The Tour of Homes will be in March under the guidance of Alice Smith.

At the next meeting, Feb. 2, at the Club House there will be the annual fashion show, chairman, Alma Smoot. Garments modeled will be hand made by the members, and will be judged. Best of show will model her garment at the Fine Arts Festival in Lakeland on Feb. 19. Also at the meeting on Feb. 2 there will be an arts and crafts display of articles made by members. Olson Olsen has charge of this and she is asking members to bring their articles to the Club House in the morning so they may be properly displayed.

Leoma Maxwell passed around her little black book for all members to indicate what they will do to help with the Building Fund. Members are busy, and we are off to a good start on the making of $10,000 this year.

After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served from a beautifully decorated Tea Table. The committee consisted of Ruth Brandstedt, Lois Johnson, Alice Shader, and Frances Guenzel.

In response to an appeal made by Mrs. T. H. Maxwell, chairman of the building fund, to begin some money making projects, several of the members agreed to begin a series of card parties, luncheons and dinners, for the benefit of the building fund.

The Club president, Mrs. W. Carlyle Smith, will begin a pyramid of card parties within the near future. One group of ladies will serve a luncheon at the Club House this month, and another will serve a dinner. All members are urged to do something to make some money to add to the building fund.

One group is considering serving a real Georgia Brunswick Stew. The annual Food Sale will be held on Friday of this week in front of the Winn-Dixie Grocery. These ladies are good cooks and they will offer a variety of baked goods, cakes and pies for sale.

The affairs that are open to the public will be advertised in advance and the general public is invited to support the efforts of the ladies to increase the Club's building fund.

TO CHOOSE QUEEN

The 1973 Florida Citrus queen, annually one of the most photographed girls in America, will be chosen the night of Feb. 19 at Florida Citrus Showcase in the wake of a concert by Anita Bryant.

Bette Chapel - 453-6258

A new year sees a new writer come, Bette Chapel, after the well deserved retirement of a long and faithful writer of six years, Bessie Paxton. Anyone who knows her has had the privilege of knowing a knowledgeable, interesting person with a keen wit, alert mind, and strong desire to do her part well in services to friends and countrymen. Mrs. Paxton is the proof that age need not dull desire to contribute time and energy to what one believes in. Our sincere thanks, Mrs. Paxton, for your faithfulness to the hundreds of articles well written, and our sincere best wishes in many more years of life, health, and happiness.

Last Friday night 37 came to play Bingo. Marion Learned's niece, Caroline Weber's sister and Charles Leber were guests. Esther Breister and Ann Condit tied for grand prize. Peppy Ferrell occupied his own chair and seemed much interested.

New Year's greetings were exchanged at the Hall Monday night with Bingo (Martha Long won grand prize), songs, punch, coffee, and cookies, and cheerful reminiscing of earlier days. Our thanks to Hannah Tebo, Harriet Wandover, and all the others who helped. May these moments of joy keep our minds and hearts tuned to a year of good old fashioned kindness and neighborliness. Our new coffee hour chairman, Clara Engard, took over Tuesday morning with Clara McEwen helping. Regardless of over-eating, late hours, and entertaining, several were out for coffee.

500 was played Wednesday night at the hall at two tables. Rosco Perkins was high with Goldia Daun second.

There were four tables of Aggravation Thursday night. Hetta Cook and Millie Joseph were high, winning five games.

Last week at the shuffle court, F. Hutchins and M. Tebo were the winners. This week with another day of wonderful weather and nine players, N. Trompkins, F. McEwen won in the main first place 88 to 6 over R. Wandover and R. Long second place. In the consolation, Hutchins and L. Breister won over R. Engard and Tebo, Score 96 to 39.

This Friday 37 were out for Bingo again. Esther Breister was lucky winner twice plus the grand prize. Peppy was on hand to pick up a few more pointers.

A warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sinclair who will be spending their winter at Lot 131. They are here from Ontario, Can. We also welcome a permanent winter residents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Newcomb of Rochester, N.Y., who are now at Lot 161 located in the lovely new addition of the park. We are also happy to welcome back Doug and Iris Mitten of Ontario for a month's stay in their home here.

Rebecca Hostetter and all the park welcome her sister Elizabeth Hostetter of Longbeach, Calif., who will be spending a month with Rebecca.

Mr. Wilbur Roman celebrated a birthday Wednesday. Thursday Mr. and Mrs. K. Barr helped Byron Jeremy celebrate his birthday by taking him and his wife, "B", to dinner. Louise Garrison happily returned home from the hospital again Wednesday after another illness. Our thoughts and sympathies are still with Harold Adams at Walker Memorial where he remains in very poor health. Get well Harold!!

Soup, water, elbow grease, some painting, and pride for home brings a dazzling appearance throughout the park as residents remove the summer's collection of dust and grime and rejuvenate what weather wears on.

Welcoming guests and paying visits also was a part of the New Year. Football was viewed on TV and friends filled the McEwen's home Saturday night as Bob Lowery of Ind., Rolie Hendricks of Nebraska, and the Rev. Paul Trissell cheered their team. A visit from Mrs. McEwen's sister, Leola Drisdorf of Bradenton, also pleased the McEwens on Tuesday.

All park members of the Federation of Mobile Homes are reminded to stop by the office to pay this year's dues which are urgently needed to carry on the Federation's endless fight to guarantee our chosen way of life. Persons seeking information or membership please see TOBY. This week's column and those to follow will be through the results of several. We only hope it will continue to be a pleasure to read and that being a park column everyone here will feel free to contribute to make it truly interesting.

Tax Forms

Do you need tax forms from the Internal Revenue Service? If so, you will probably find that they are easier to obtain this year.

The Ft. Pierce IRS office has installed a new Code-A-Phone system for handling all requests for tax forms. Ft. Pierce area taxpayers can now reach an automatic recorder by dialing 465-2219.

"These recorders," according to A. J. O'Donnell, Florida IRS district director, "ask the caller to state his name, mailing address and zip code, the specific tax forms needed and quantities of each."

An additional benefit of the Code-A-Phone number is that a person need not call during normal office hours of IRS. The recorders will be running 24 hours a day, seven days a week, permitting the taxpayer to order at his convenience.

ANTIQUE SHOWS

An Antique Show will be held Feb. 24 at Miami Beach Convention hall; Feb. 6-11 at Bayfront auditorium, Miami. There will be an antique bottle show Feb. 17-18 at Bayfront auditorium, Miami.

GOOD EXAMPLE

Many citizens, whenever they see a policeman—or even a police car—suffer a slight shiver of fear. Others feel a twinge of guilt. Some become enraged. If asked why, most could not give a sensible answer. Psychologists have said that this fear, guilt and rage has been instilled into them while they were very small children by parents, guardians or others who unthinkingly threatened to call the police to come get them when they didn't behave.

In a free society, the police are not persons to be feared. They are, rather, the guardians of the rights of the majority, an aid in times of trouble and the protectors of the public welfare. Besides this, they are good examples for parents to point out to their children. In general they and their equipment are neat and clean; they are courteous and helpful. They, too, are citizens and their jobs require that they be GOOD citizens. Let us all be the good citizens that we should and recognize our police as the good friends and neighbors that they truly are. SUPPORT AMERICA by supporting our police!

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal—that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known.

Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours—ours because we are Americans.

Golf Team

Begins Practice

Coach Andy Miracle's Red Devils golf team started practice this week in preparation for its twenty meet schedule which will start Jan. 23 in Bartow against the Yellow Jacket team.

Returning to the squad this season will be lettermen Greg Hartt, Wayne Todd, Bud Wester, Gary Bagwell, Ricky Lanier, Tommy Wester, and Gregg Burch, along with David Hicks, Richard Birt, and Jim Wood. Others are expected to try out for the Avon Park varsity golf team this week, according to Coach Miracle.

The Avon Park Golf Association has again given the Avon Park team permission to play the high school matches on the Avon Park Golf Course this year and the boys went to work last Monday trying to whittle down the scores to be ready for the tough Bartow team on the 23rd of this month.

The first home meet will be on Friday, Jan. 26, with the Acadia team coming here to play the top Avon Park golfers. The Avon Park team will sport new red golf bags this season thanks to six Avon Park businesses. Ed Touchton of Avon Drugs, Charles Hoke of Avon Citrus Bank, Morris Adams of Ridge Air Conditioning, Donald Ford of I. H. Ford Motor Co., Al Yarborough of Eaton's Department Store, and Tommy Bagwell of Bagwell Lumber each donated a golf bag for the top six members of the Avon Park team.

APCI Nursery

"How We Grow Them"

by Jim Kiser, inmate

My goal for 1972 was to present a gardening guide to our local area. It was the only way of expressing gratitude for all the assistance we have received from the many of you that have visited us here at APCI Nursery. I may not have fulfilled these goals for everyone, but all I have been able to present was made possible by all the encouragement I constantly received.

Even though I will not have a column in 1973, we are still here to welcome all that wish to visit the Nursery. Mr. Williams, Nursery Supervisor, will continue to make these visiting arrangements for you on request. Through his direction we feel we have had some measure of success and anticipate another year of progress with our horticultural pursuits.

The knowledge I have of plants was given to me here at the institution. The "gift of growing" came as a result of assistance given. We would not exist here as Vocational Training in Horticulture without public support, so all you play a vital part in our futures.

Plants and people alike respond to "T.L.C." (Tender Loving Care) and I want to say, "Thanks" for a beautiful year of growing.

JANET FILIPPULA and Dixie Red are surrounded with trophies and ribbons while congratulating each other for a fine performance at the United Way Charity Youth Horse Show in which they participated on Dec. 30 in Palmetto. Dixie Red is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bryant.

Local Girl Enters Horse In Show At Palmetto

Janet Filippula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Filippula of Avon Park, attended the First Annual United Way Charity Youth Horse Show in Palmetto on Dec. 30. The large number of entries in each class kept Judge James C. Heid, Extension Horse Specialist from Raleigh, N.C., busy until dark.

Janet showed her new quarter horse mare, 4 W Taylor's Baby, in several classes on the flat to introduce the young mare to horse shows.

In the hunter over fences division Janet jumped Mr. and Mrs. Morris Bryant's mare, Dixie Red, and just about wrapped up the classes for youths 13 years and under by winning Junior Working Hunter and Junior Hunt Seat Equitation and placing second in Novice Hunt Seat Equitation.

Those present to cheer Janet on were her parents and brother, Dean, Mrs. Bert Bryant and Miss Stacey Sharpe.

PARENT-CHILD CONFLICT:

Advice to Teenagers

(Last week a teenager, S.N., asked me to write a column giving advice to parents concerning parent-teenage conflict related to courtship. I did so with the understanding that this week's column would be on the same subject, giving advice to teenagers.)

Attention all teenagers! So you've finally reached that "Golden Age" (the teen years), but these days of "puppy love", "going steady", "broken hearts", and "parentitis" are not all they are cracked up to be. Right? This is especially true when those parents of yours are always nagging, prying, snooping, and bossing. That's the way you see it now isn't it? O.K. So let's look at this case of parentitis as a whole, and let's look at the situation calmly, objectively, and maturely. Do you think you can handle all that?

Her we go! Let's imagine you are the parent and your parent is you (too difficult!). Next attribute your attitudes and behavior to them and begin analyzing. How would you react to your own mannerisms and behavior if you were in their shoes? Now let's discuss other ways of bridging the gap between you and your parents.

How many times a day do you violate your parents' trust in you? Lying about destinations and other facets of dating is underhanded, immature, and inconsiderate. Snaking out (whether to off-limit places or not) or seeing a person secretly also "goes against the grain". Anything which may violate your parents' code of ethics (smoking, drinking, using drugs, profanity, immorality) will naturally put a barrier between you and your parents. Is this what you really want?

Just who is the real problem, you or your parents?

Do you ever misuse the freedom your parents have given you? Parents set rules and regulations out of a life's experience and for a purpose—to help you grow up! Violating the freedoms and restrictions set up by these rules can also be seen as a sign of selfishness (along with maturity). So no sense of responsibility. These may also be described as a "gimme attitude". Many times you make unreasonable requests of your parents and think you should be allowed to do anything, go anywhere, and have everything with no strings attached. Again, this is what you really want? Being self-centered, selfish, and inconsiderate of family members will not exactly make you a glorious child in their eyes! There are times when you must take "time-out" from yourself and check the needs, wants, and ideas of your parents.

Sometimes you think that your parents think they know it all, but don't you often think you know more than your parents? Now, really do you know more? You may consider your parents' moral code is out-of-date and unfair and certainly doesn't apply to your day and age. Let me fill you in on a little secret. Times do change, but good basic moral codes and beliefs do not change! (Don't question your parents' values. They are intelligent human beings too.) You must not be impulsive by thinking there is no tomorrow, that you must have everything now; one day you may carry this too far.

Remember, you don't have all the answers, just as your parents don't, and you can't very well get along without their advice. So, instead of giving some credit where credit is due—to your parents?

Do you criticize your parents? Many teenagers do, and then still expect parents to hand over everything they want when they want it. You also expect them to be there when you need them to give you money. You may even expect them to overlook all of your mistakes! Criticism, on your part, usually makes you look worse than the parents you're criticizing. This type of behavior embarrasses your parents and distorts both your and their social image. Think before you talk!

Many times during your courtship period your parents may feel slightly uneasy or unneeded; you should be sensitive to these feelings. Your pulling away from the nest is expected, but it is alarming and frightening when it actually happens! Try to understand their problem, and let them have a chance to understand yours. Your parents are interested in you. They are concerned in you. They love you. Don't rob them of knowing your dates or of the seriousness of your courtship. I know yours is an age of mobility where you really need a place to be somewhere all the time, but parents need and want a few minutes of your time to talk to you and your date!

Finally I should like to talk on the area of stubbornness! Once again, you have that "know-it-all" attitude and refuse to listen to anything. Naturally you regard the approval and advice of your peers as being superior to that of your parents! You're out to prove your parents wrong because you resent their authority over you. You usually approach this in many ways: (1) you simply won't understand the word "date"; (2) you're not willing to cooperate or communicate, and; (3) you promptly give the silent treatment! Exactly where is this getting you? Is this not pure ugly stubbornness?

O.K. Stop! Think! You should realize that all these

Junior Basketball Teams Will Play Tonight

The Avon Park Junior basketball league will play its last regular season games tonight (Thursday) at the Middle School gym with Franklin's Inn meeting Maryland Fried Chicken in the first game at 6:15 p.m.

In the second game, which will start at 7:15, Palmer will take on Jackson's Masonry and league-winning Winn-Dixie will try to close out the season with a perfect record as they go against Starling's Grocery in the third game at 8:15 p.m.

On Friday, Jan. 19, an All-Star team will play the league champions at the high school gym in a preliminary game before the jayvee game between Avon Park and Zephyr Hills.

Last week Winn-Dixie defeated Mort Jackson's

Masonry giving Winn-Dixie a 9 - 0 record and dropping Jackson's to a 6 - 3 mark. Franklin's Inn beat Starling's Grocery in the second game last week to edge into third place with a 5 - 4 record while Starling's moved to the cellar with a 1 - 8 record.

In the final game last week Maryland Fried Chicken upset Palmer for its second win of the season dropping Palmer to a 4 - 5 record and fourth place in the league. Maryland Fried moved into fifth place with the one game left in regular season play.

Red Devil forward Nathaniel Packer sank a clutch basket last Saturday night in the final seconds of the game with Mulberry to give Avon Park a 55 - 53 victory over the Panthers. Packer is the leading rebounder on the Devil varsity squad this year with an average of 11 per game. The big junior forward is averaging 12.9 points a game for the Devils who have set a 7 - 2 record through last Saturday night.
