EVERYONE TAKE A look at your local talent at work. Practice for the Follies has been going on each night. Monday through Friday, at the Episcopal Church parish house. Everyone has developed several sore spots and have gone to the rubbing medicines. But it will all be worth it for the great time everyone will have. - Photo by Sharpe

Jr. Women Ready For Follies

As soon as the Jr. Women catch their breaths, they will present the Follies Bergere or oooooooooooooooooo my aching feet. It's one and two and up and kick and three and four and up and come on girls, get 'em up and there higher, higher, HIGHER!

For the Jr. Women, the huffing and puffing, this follies business is puff, puff great fun. "Oxygen, please, I hadn't realized I was so up-fit!" is the general expression of those participating. Now that they have caught their breath, they will tell you about the show.

The show sponsored by the Avon Park Junior Woman's Club, is a wee bit of nostalgia, music from the 1890's, the World War I years, the Roaring Twenty's and World War II. There are Rockette lines and Can-Can's, impressions of Eddie Cantor, Al Jolson, Sophie Tucker, Comedy Acts, precision drills and Charlestoners. They will travel South of the Border to see Carmen Miranda and Latin Dancers.

The March of Times moves on up to date with an Aquarium setting, black lights and a hippie number.

The highlight of the evening will be the Strippers coming on strong with surprises.

Evelyn Metcalfe at the piano and Chuck Metcalfe on drums, gives the performance plenty of punch.

Sets and Scenery for the productions has been the handy work of Mrs. Frances Dalmon and her committee.

The show opens this Friday night, Jan. 19, for the first performance in the two night presentation of the musical, starting at 8 p.m. and again on Saturday night, Jan. 20.

Tickets are available at Stinson's Gulf, and Ridge Florist, through Thursday night and may also be purchased at the door. Adults are $2, students, $1.

The cast members are made up of many local officials and residents, along with many Sebring friends.

Monies made will go to help with the full scholarship to South Florida Junior College, that the club furnishes each year. Also to help with the Ridge Area Day School, Girl Scouts and the many other local activities the club helps with.

Make plans now to attend this gala affair, that the Junior Woman's Club and others have planned and worked so hard for all to see and enjoy.

As I am behind in my correspondence, I would like to thank that wonderful person in St. Petersburg for the delicious cake she baked and sent to me. It was my favorite kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Miracle had as luncheon guest on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith of Merritt Island. The Miracles and Smiths met in 1944 when both couples were honeymooning at Miami Beach. Both men were pilots during W.W. II, and had just returned from overseas. The Smiths were both from Texas, and Theda and Andy Miracle were both from Kentucky. The two couples have only been together on one other occasion in the past 29 years, so a lot of catching up took place.

why 88 the movie on Thursday night perhaps they decided that a surprise party always creates special interest. Just as we were returning to reality after viewing "Light, Strong and Beautiful"—the story of aluminum—then "The Year of 1999 A.D.", the lights came on and all joined in singing "Happy Birthday" to Emmette Wright as a large cake was presented to him. While the cake was being cut and punch prepared to serve, we had a real treat of music. As special requests from the group, Warren and Juanita Bryer sang "He touched Me" and Emmette sang "The Love of God". Sallie Wright at the piano accompanied both numbers. We do appreciate the talent of these people and always enjoy hearing them. That was a welcome surprise for all present.

Folks are reminded to pay their dues to the Federation of Mobile Homes. Some are a little past due, but if in doubt see your Secretary-Treasurer Catherine Baker. She will tell when yours are due. Remember "United We Stand, Divided We Fall". Let's keep our Federation going. $2.50 per person.

The monthly dinner will be served in the recreation hall this Thursday, Jan. 18, at noon. All residents of the Park are invited to come, bring a covered dish and table service. THE SALVATION ARMY

Compassion in action
