Schools To Start Tuesday With Record Enrollment

A 500 pupil increase in enrollment in Highlands County Schools with Avon Park Elementary excepted to increase the most among the Avon Park Schools when they open Tuesday.

The Sept. 4 opening is the latest in several years. Schools usually have begun the school year the week before Labor Day.

Principals in the various schools estimated a 7,465 total enrollment, which includes about 300 for kindergartens. This compares to an enrollment last year on opening day of 6,956.

This will be the first year public kindergartens have operated in Highlands County. There will be four sections in each of the county's three cities, hopefully, of 25 students each this initial year.

Superintendent of Schools George Douglass said he feels the 7,465 estimate is a little high, although he feels there well be an enrollment increase.

There will be 79 new teachers in Highlands county schools, including 12 for the kindergartens. Thirteen of the new teachers will be for new units and the remaining are replacements for resigned or retired teachers. New units include specific learning disability classes in Avon elementary, Woodlawn elementary and Lake Placid elementary schools.

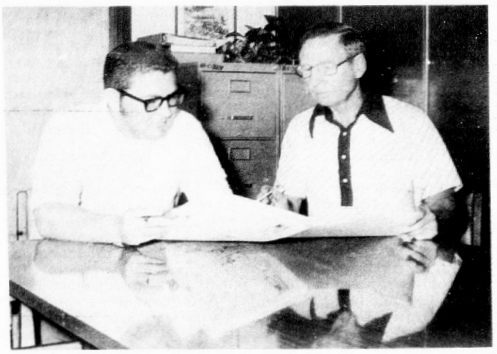

Projections

Figures on opening registration a year ago and this year's predictions are as follows: Woodlawn Elementary, 507 last year, 700 this year; Fred Wild 545 - 650; Sebring Middle School, 684-750; Sebring High School, 720 - 950; Lake Placid Elementary, 839 - 1,050; Lake Placid High, 751 - 860; Avon Elementary, 775 - 900; Avon Middle, 796 - 879; Avon Park High, 659 - 726

Kindergartens

Kindergartens throughout the county will be in session from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. There will be a 45 minute period for lunch and a hot type A lunch will be served for 45 cents.

Children who bring lunch can buy milk for 10 cents. Kindergarten children who ride the buses will ride the regular school buses. To enter kindergarten, a child must attain the age of five by Jan. 1, 1974.

Askew Expected To Take Action Against Mel Bass

Official action by Gov. Reubin Askew with possible removal from office appeared likely today for County Commissioner Melville Bass following his third arrest on drunk driving charges.

Asked if the governor has ordered an investigation, Hayward Davis, chairman of the governor's advisory committee in this county, said "I think you can rest assured that the matter is under investigation by the governor."

Davis added that he was aware that several calls had been made to the governor in connection with the matter.

Contrary to some opinions, Davis said, the governor does not have to wait for a petition of citizens before ordering an investigation in a matter of this sort. He can do this whenever he chooses.

The Sun attempted to reach the governor's office early Wednesday, but was unable to obtain further information.

Arrested

Bass was arrested at 11:05 p.m. Aug. 26 on the truck route west of Avon Park after the sheriff's office received a call there was a drunk driver on the road. Deputy Leonard Williams arrested Bass after he found the commissioner driving down the middle of the road alone. His car was taken to his home in Avon Park.

Bass was taken before County Judge Mark H. Richardson Jr. who set bond at $250. He will be brought for plea before the judge Sept. 7. Meanwhile he is in Highlands County Jail. He did not attend Tuesday's county commission meeting.

Bass previously was arrested May 27 at Avon Park and Aug. 6 at Avon Park for drunk driving. He then spent some time in the Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation and had been attending drunk driving school at South Florida Junior College on orders of Judge Richardson.

Commissioners critical

Two fellow county commissioners voiced their unhappiness with the Bass situation at Tuesday's meeting. Commissioner Ken Wilkinson introduced the subject and said he wants the commission to go on record requesting the governor to investigate the conduct of Bass. He said he thought this was necessary because it was an embarrassment to him.

Chairman Robert Skipper immediately replied that he thinks that it is not a matter for the commission to decide. He pointed out Bass was elected by the people of the county and it is up to them to do something if they want a change.

Commissioner Buddy Wise said he thought an investigation should be made because Bass "evidently has a problem that is keeping him from performing his job."

MELL BASS

Clerk of Circuit and County Court Earl Rich then interjected that "as of yesterday, the matter is being looked into." He declined to elaborate further.

Audience comment

From the commission audience, Don McSheffrey said he has been given to understand that the Bass matter had been brought to the governor's attention and that the governor does not want to take any action until he gets recommendations from the Highlands County Democratic Executive Board.

Commission Attorney Robert Dunty then advised members of the county commission that they do not have to discuss the Bass matter with anyone and he thinks they are in error if they do so as a commission. He said they could discuss it as individuals if they want to but he believes it improper to do so as a government body.

County Democratic Committee Chairman Edna Pearce Lockett said she had discussed the Bass matter with state Democratic chairman Jon Moyle and he had informed her some time ago that it was not up to her committee to act. She quoted Moyle as saying that it is up to the people of the county to get up a petition for his removal, circulate it, get it to the governor. The governor then would order an investigation, consider the results, and make his decision.

Said Mrs. Lockett: "We all like Mel Bass. Everybody has tried to help him overcome his problem. He has to help himself."

Bass, elected to his first political office, the commission, a year ago, was high man on the ticket for the Democratic primary.

Board Issues License To Heiring

The county commissioners ordered their building director Tuesday to issue a master plumber's license to Bill Heiring of Avon Park, reversing their Board of Adjustments, Appeals and Examiners' recommendation denying issuance of the license.

Heiring appeared before the commissioners to appeal the examiners' decision not to license him in Highlands County.

He claimed that board members had asked him only two technical questions, one of which he had gotten right. The response he gave to the second question, Heiring conceded, was not correct according to the Southern Standard Building Code recognized by the county.

His answer was right, Heiring contended, according to references used by the H & H Block plumbers examiners and by plumbing codes used in Dade and Broward Counties.

The commissioners agreed that it was unfair of the examiners to deny Heiring a license based on his giving one wrong answer out of two. Furthermore, they were impressed by the applicant's nine years of experience and by his having qualified for a plumber's license in Hardee County.

Building Director Bill Young told the commissioners that the board's vote to deny the license was based on a three-to-two vote. Young went on to say that on the basis of Heiring's experience and record of financial responsibility he deserved to be granted a license.

The commissioners' vote to grant Heiring his license was unanimous.

In other actions, the commissioners (Mel Bass, District 1, and Norman "Jug" Heston, District 2, absent):

--Asked the county engineer to inspect the southern 10 acres of county property at the Agri-Civic Center to determine what the final elevation of the land will be after the high ground there has been moved into adjacent low areas. The school board's decision on using or not using this property depends on the county engineer's finding.

--Reiterated their stand taken at last week's meeting that they will consider assuming maintenance responsibility for lakeside beaches in Avon Park Lakes subdivision only after the owners of such property submit title abstracts with their requests that the county accept deeds to the lakefront park areas.

--Instructed the county administrator and county attorney to investigate complaints lodged by P. A. McMasters and Chuck Shane that the county's civil defense director was adjusting radio equipment in violation of Federal Communications Commissions' rules and regulations.

--Authorized the road and bridge department to use its spray equipment to apply herbicides on hyacinths growing in Lake Glenada on condition that materials used are supplied by South Florida Junior College.

--Heard the county administrator report that a contract for resurfacing the Avon Park truck route had been awarded to Ewell Engineering and Contracting Co. of Lakeland at a price of $106,881, about $16,000 above the 1972 cost estimate.

--Approved raising the weekly pay of Circuit Judge Clifton Kelly's secretary to maintain comparability with salaries paid by Polk County.

Board Considers Possible Sites For School Complex

Highlands County School Board, meeting Tuesday to consider possible sites for a new schools office complex agreed they still have no "best" site.

Land on Route 27 offered by the County Commission is low, access to the 10 acres the board owns at the E. O. Douglas School site is not convenient and it is not known whether a 20-acre wooded piece, which might be suitable on Youth Care Road, is available.

It was decided to have superintendent George Douglass and Board Chairman Henry Bailey go before County Commission to ascertain if the county would make available acreage on their site which would not need fill.

Stores To Close Labor Day

Most stores in Avon Park will be closed for the Labor Day holiday next Monday.

Winn Dixie and Pantry Pride supermarkets will be closed.

Avon Park post office will be on regular holiday schedule with no delivery of mail.

City, state, county and federal offices will be closed. The auto inspection station will be closed.

City employes will observe the Labor Day holiday Monday, Sept. 3. However, regular garbage pick-up will be made. Citizens are urged to put garbage cans out early Monday morning.

City Hall will be closed.

The Avon Park Sun will be closed. Deadline for classified advertising copy will be noon Tuesday--for display advertising and editorial copy 5 p.m. Tuesday.

City Holds Line On Taxes As It Passes Record Budget

The Avon park City Council held the line on taxes Monday night by approving a record budget of $689,927 against $631,400 a year ago and lowering the total millage by one-half mill.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews said the city was able to do this because of the funds received from the federal revenue sharing.

The operating millage will remain the same as last year at 6 mills. the debt service millage in territory A will be 3.5 and in territory B the millage will be 2.5.

The ordinance establishing the budget was put on first reading Monday and may be changed at the next regular meeting of the council.

Councilman Martin commented, "In all my years of service, this is the closest budget we've ever produced."

Councilman Sizemore made no secret of his disappointment when the council decided against hiring a city superintendent with an engineering degree. His belief in the need for such a move gained added fuel later in the meeting with the appearance of street superintendent John Ziegler.

Superintendent Ziegler, faced with the problem of laying sidewalks and attempting to handle super, seasonal trash collections with a shortage of labor and inadequate trucks, brought his dilemma to the council.

16th Fatality Recorded This Week

Highlands County's 16th traffic fatality was recorded Tuesday when 20-year-old Leon Claxton Johnson of Sebring died in the crash of his cycle with a car.

A passenger, Wilbert Mills, 20, of Sebring, was thrown 15 feet in the crash and suffered a broken leg and other injuries. He was admitted to Highlands General Hospital. Johnson lived on Broad Street, and Mills at 810 Shirley Street.

Mathis Dennis, 45, of Avon Park, at 1:30 p.m. Monday had stopped at the stop sign on Highlands going south, then started to make a left hand turn into the Shop and Go parking lot.

In the car with Mathis were his wife Bernice and Eddie Hamilton of Avon Park, both of whom were injured.

Bailey Is Assistant Principal

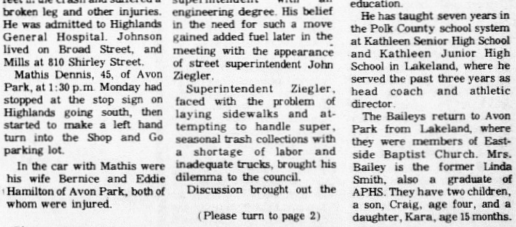

Darrell M. Bailey, former Avon Park resident, has assumed duties as Assistant Principal of Avon Park High School. A native of Central Florida, he was born in Wauchula, and was graduated from Avon Park High School.

He is a graduate of Berry College, Mt. Berry, Ga., with a Bachelor of Science degree and received the Master of Education degree from Rollins College, Winter Park. Mr. Bailey is a member of Kappa Delta Pi, an honor society in education.

He has taught seven years in the Polk County school system at Kathleen Senior High School and Kathleen Junior High School in Lakeland, where he served the past three years as head coach and athletic director.

The Baileys return to Avon Park from Lakeland, where they were members of Eastside Baptist Church. Mrs. Bailey is the former Linda Smith, also a graduate of APHS. They have two children, a son, Craig, age four, and a daughter, Kara, age 15 months.

Four Teams Will Meet For Football Jamboree

The four-team football jamboree between Sebring, Arcadia, Wauchula and Avon Park has been definitely set for Friday, Aug. 31, with special permission from the State Athletic Association to be played before September. The annual pre-season jamboree will be played here at Memorial Field starting at 7:30 p.m. with Wauchula meeting Sebring in the first quarter of play. Avon park's Red Devil squad will see action against Arcadia in the second quarter. Wauchula and Arcadia will play the third quarter and arch rivals--Sebring and Avon Park will close out the exhibition game in the fourth quarter. The Blue Streaks and the Red Devils will not meet again until Nov. 21 in the final regular season game for each team.

Sebring and Wauchula are both ranked as Class AAA schools, according to enrollment, while Arcadia and Avon Park are both Class AA schools. Arcadia has been moved into the same district with the Red Devils this season.

Admission for the Jamboree will be $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Big Things Happening

From time to time big, big plans for a variety of projects such as subdivisions, shopping centers and hotels have been announced.

Big things are happening all around us these days in the way of growth. Announced just in the past few weeks are a new Ramada Inn for Avon Park. And Deltona, a very solid outfit, just bought land for one of its tremendous planned communities just north of Avon Park.

And people continue to flock to Highlands County, a great many of them from the lower east coast which is getting pretty crowded.

It is sort of hard to realize all that is taking place here, but people who were in Miami as it was starting to move forward after World War II are comparing it.

Of course, everything is on a considerably smaller scale here, Miami being much larger to begin with, but the pattern of surging population is well defined. And almost every week a new business or so opens its doors.

It is rather exciting to be in on a fast-developing area. And the word has gotten to Miami that real estate prices up here have "gone out of sight." That's what this writer heard on a recent trip. But we explained there still are many bargains to be had. And Highlands County prices look reasonable compared to Miami's.

Those who have doubts as to what is happening in this area have only to drive around the county and see homes built 'way out in the boonies—lots of them—and to notice the difference in the traffic. Like there is so much more of it.

And we need to get our house in order on a variety of fronts—zoning, traffic control, etc. because the growth is not just a lot of conversation and wishful thinking.

Things will catch up with us before we know it.

Drive Carefully

There will be an extra hazard on Avon Park streets beginning Tuesday of next week when thousands of school children go back to school.

Many of them will walk—and some of them will be driving cars to school for the first time.

The Peninsula Motor Club, Triple A, has suggested emphasis on the following driving habits now that school is open:

Strict observance of posted school zone speed limits. Besides, the ticket you save may be your own.

Extra alertness for children crossing streets at unexpected places such as from between parked cars or in midblock.

Cooperation with school safety patrols who have proved to be an effective force for reducing traffic deaths and injuries among school children.

Extra care when following an approaching school bus, observing the requirement to stop for flashing red lights.

As for parents, AAA reminds them to map out a safe walking or biking route for their youngsters, and to hold a short instruction session for them at home—before school gets under way—in the 'see and be seen' rules of traffic safety.

Tag Deadline

The deadline for buying the new Florida vehicle tags now has been shoved ahead to Sept. 19. Difficulty in obtaining the tags has been a major problem for some counties, although Tag Agency Supervisor Jimmy Whitehouse says his Highlands County office has plenty of the tags.

City Holds

fact that some property owners are conducting what amounts to land clearance of after-construction clean-up, leaving immense piles of trash for city pick-up. In addition, Ziegler's men are finding discarded appliances, furniture and mattresses along the streets. On occasion, three or four trips to the dump have been necessary to handle a single household's discards.

Tentative suggestions were made, such as rulings that tree limbs must be cut in four-foot lengths, cuttings and leaves bagged and charges made for loads after the first one.

The problem was tabled for further study.

Fire Chief Flowers reported the need for a new fire truck. After consideration of the city's needs, $40,000 for a new fire truck and $4,000 for a new bucket to be mounted on the existing truck and waste water system construction $107,765 was incorporated into the Planned Use of Federal Revenue Sharing Funds for 1973-74.

In Other Action

Leased two acres of land at the old dump on state road 64 to Sanders Paving contracting co. for $50 per year with burning, pollution violations or keeping of animals not permitted.

Appointed Alton Elder to the Civil Service Board to fill the unexpired term of Charles Hoke.

From The Police Docket

By OFFICER GENE HANCOCK

Investigation by the City Police Department disclosed that at approximately 10:05 p.m. Wednesday evening, Aug. 22, two unidentified colored males entered Bill's Corner, located at the intersection of S. Highlands and E. Cornell St. While inside the store the subjects robbed the cashier, Mrs. Florence George, of an estimated $604 and several eight-track tape cartridges that were in a paper bag on the counter. Subjects were said to have been armed with a rifle or shotgun and what was believed to be a .38 caliber pistol. After taking the money, both men left on foot in the direction of the Elton Crews buildings. The Sheriff's Department was notified and deputies aided the local police in the hunt. Sgt. Paul Sheffield of the Avon Park Correctional Institute was called and he and two other APCI personnel arrived with a team of dogs in an effort to track down the two robbers. The dogs were able to trail the subjects for approximately five blocks before the scent was lost. Patrolman Archie Hancock stated that foorprints identical to those near Bill's Corner were found at the Hopewell School and the Crate mill. However, a search of that area met with negative results.

In a report filed by Officer George Champion, it was disclosed that between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 25, person (s) unknown took a total of 14 watches from the showcase in Jordans Jewelry Store, located on Main St. The total value of the watches taken was estimated at $420. The investigation is continuing by the Police Department.

Chambers - Carlton

No charges were filed as the result of a minor traffic accident in the parking lot of the Winn Dixie Supermarket. Investigation by Assistant Chief Grady Campbell disclosed that at approximately 6:04 p.m. Monday, Aug. 20, the 1969 Chevrolet, owned by Shirley Chambers, was improperly parked and, as Betty J. Carlton tried to back her '70 Chevrolet from the parking space, she struck the Chambers' vehicle causing approximately $75 damage to it. No damage was reported to the Carlton vehicle.

Fields-Campbell

Grethel Clayton Fields, 51, was charged by police with driving while intoxicated, as the result of an accident which occurred at approximately 3:45 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 25. The accident happened as Fields was operating a '63 Ford and traveling east on W. Main St., and was driving too far to the right and struck a '65 VW which was parked near the Main St., Prospect Ave., intersection. The VW owned by William Ray Campbell sustained damage estimated at $700. Damage to the Ford Thunderbird was estimated at approximately $300. Officers Clark and Oberther investigated the accident.

In a single car accident, Mrs. Patricia McCardle, 28, and her four children sustained injury when her '66 Volkswagen struck the wooden embankment of the railroad underpass located at S. Verona Ave. and E. Sixth St. Mrs McCardle stated the accelerater stuck causing her to lose control of the vehicle. This accident, which occurred at 10:42 p.m. Friday, Aug. 24, was investigated by Patrolmen Brown and Clark. No charges were filed, according to the report.

Accident

The northbound cycle skidded 64 feet, hit the car, pushing it three feet backward. Johnson was thrown beneath the car in the crash which totally wrecked both cycle and car. Florida Highway Patrolmen estimated the cycle was traveling 45-50 mph at impact.

Patrolman George Cooper of Sebring police investigated assisted by FHP Troopers Ralph Hough and Jim Vann. Charges are pending.

If you think going to school is kid stuff...

Employers don't kid around these days. If you don't have a good education, you just don't have it. Period! But lots of other people do. And they'll be the ones who get the good-paying jobs...not you. You'll be lucky to get what's left over.

Today, to get a good job, you need a good education. Employers insist on it. Good jobs demand it. So you'd better get it...if you want to enjoy a really successful and rewarding future.

So, if you're in school now.....stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, there's plenty of valuable training available outside the classroom. Find out about it. Get in touch with the Youth Counselor at the local office of your State Employment Service. Or visit a Youth Opportunity Center.

Linda Bonnett Is Honored With Linen Shower At Massey Home

Miss Linda Bonnett, bride-elect of Kim shaw was honored with a linen shower on Monday evening, Aug. 27, at the home of Miss Gussie Massey. Miss Massey welcomed the guests at the door, and directed them to the bride's guest book, before introducing them. The Bride's Book Table was covered with a white linen cloth, and adorned with two red rosebuds in a wedgwood vase. The bride's book was presided over by Mrs. Judy Sharpe, sister of the bridegroom-elect.

The bride-elect was lovely in a purple crepe dress with empire waistline, featuring V-neckline with four tiny white buttons. the hostesses presented her with a pink carnation corsage, and mothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. Charles Bonnett and Mrs. Julia Shaw, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. W. P. Martin with pink rosebud corsages.

Mrs. Paula Nicholas helped Linda with the opening and recording of her gifts, which were displayed on a table covered with a lace-work linen cloth, and bedecked with a delicate pink umbrella. After the guests watched Linda open her many gifts, Mrs. Ruth Nolin and Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb served them refreshments from a beautiful table draped with an imported hand-crocheted lace cloth. A tasty fruit and lime sherbet punch was served from a crystal bowl surrounded with fern and hibiscus in the bride's color of pink. Nuts, mints, cheese straws, open face and ribbon sandwiches, home-baked fruited cookies, and cake squares in colors of pink and white, were served along with the punch and coffee. the bride's colors of pink and white was used throughout in decorations, with beautiful arrangements of roses at vantage points in the home.

The co-hostesses along with Miss Massey, Mrs. Ruth Nolin, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. Elizabeth Mackintosh, Miss Marjorie Moseley and Miss Ila MacKintosh, presented the bride-elect with a white antique heirloom bedspread.

Linda and Kim will be wed on Saturday, Sept. 8, at the First United Methodist church.

Chamber To Host Reception Thursday

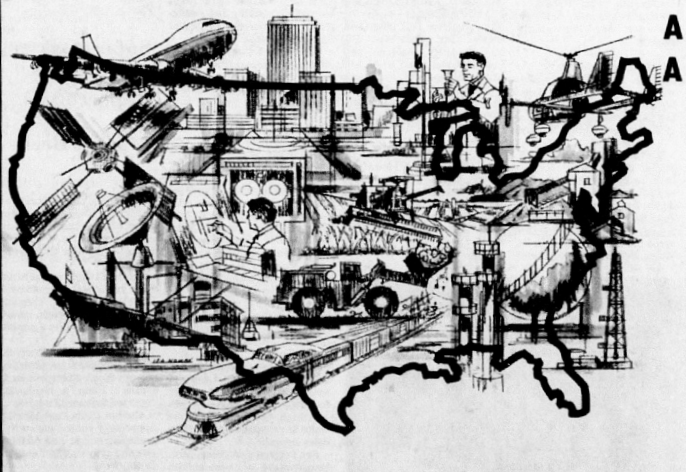

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce will host a Teachers Reception Thursday evening, Sept. 6, at the High School Cafetorium. The hours will be 7:30 until 9 p.m.

The public is cordially invited to attend this "get acquainted" affair, and welcome the teaching staff.

LABOR DAY

A Day of Relaxation, A Day of Retrospection

Enjoy yourselves, you've earned it. It's the last big outdoor holiday of the year, so let's sit back and enjoy it. But in our enjoyment let us not forget why we celebrate this great day. It's a day honoring the labors of the American worker, to whom we owe the industrial growth, development, and prosperity that means a better way of life for us all. We salute the American worker for these hard earned attainments as we observe Labor Day, 1973.

Mrs. Robert Stanley Sizemore

Brauer-Sizemore Wed In Doublering Nuptials

Saint Michael's Lutheran Church in Fort Myers was the scene on Saturday, Aug. 18, of the marriage of Miss Nancy Lee Brauer and Robert Stanley Sizemore. Pastor Dwayne Hoyer performd the double-ring nuptials at 3 p.m.

Parents of the bridal couple couple are Mr. and Mrs. James J. Brauer of 1043 Averly St., Ft. Meyers, and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sizemore of North Florida Avenue, Avon Park.

Allen Long, organist presented a program of nuptial music. Candelabras with burning white tapers cast a soft glow in the sanctuary which was decorated with arrangements of pink and white mums, carnations, baby's breath and gladioli.

The Bride

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of candlelight silk organza with chapel-length train. Pink satin ribbon enhanced with dainty flowerettes of lace outlined the tucked bodice, standup collar and wrists of the leg-of-mutton sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion fell from a matching candlelight head-piece fashioned of lace and seed pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses, daisies, stephanotis and baby's breath on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Robin D. Robinson of Cincinnati, Ohio, gowned in a full-length ensemble of pink crepe with a short matching jacket edged with daisies. She carried a bouquet of daisies.

The bridegroom's brother, R. Glenn Sizemore of Avon Park was best man. Ushers were James R. Brauer, brother of the bride, and Howard Sizemore, the bridegroom's brother of Avon Park.

Mrs. Brauer wore for her daughter's wedding a pink chiffon gown with V-neckline and capelette effect sleeves. She wore white accessories and a corsage of orchids.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Sizemore chose a formal gown of pink double-knit with high neckline. Her accessories were white and she wore an orchid corsage.

Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Brauer hosted a reception immediately following the ceremony at the Holiday Inn, Fort Myers. Miss Karen D. Krieger of McLean, Va., presided over the bride's guest book.

The three-tiered wedding cake in colors of white and pink was topped with a crown of daisies and mums. Silver candelabra arrangements of pink carnations, white mums and baby's breath adorned the tables. Silver appointments were used throughout, with the focal point being a flowing fountain. Assorted hors d' oeuvres, party sandwiches, nuts, mints, coffee and punch were served to the many guests.

Out-of-town guests

Among the out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. H. B. Meyer, grandmother of the bridegroom, Avon Park; Lee and Glenn Sizemore, brothers of the bridegroom; Mrs. Betty Barker, Amy Shaner, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DeLaney, Mrs. Ann Stevens, Mrs. Peggy Sisemore, Mrs. Ann Owens, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sizemore, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sizemore and son, Howard, all of Avon Park; Mrs. Hermie Harvey and daughter, Debbie, Mulberry; and Mrs. Ramona Hall and daughters, Johnnie and Connie from Fort Meade.

Honeymoon in Carolina to live in Lakeland

Lakeland will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sizemore after their return from a honeymoon to Franklin, N.C. When the bridal couple left for the mountains, the bride was wearing a red and white pantsuit with matching short sleeve jacket.

They will live in Lac Chateau Apts., in Lakeland, where both are Florida Southern College students. Mrs. Sizemore is a senior business education major, and Mr. Sizemore will graduate in December with a degree in accounting.

Women Voters To Tour Jail

The League of Women Voters of Highlands County (Provisional) will open its fall program of activity with a tour of the County jail on Saturday, Sept. 8 at 10 a.m. "This tour of inspection is intended as the beginning of the League's study of Florida's penal system," stated Mrs. James A. McConihe, League president. "We will continue our study by discussion at the Open Meeting on Sept. 27."

League plans for further acquainting its members with Florida's penal institutions include a workshop in October in Gainesville. At this time workshop participants will inspect the prison at Raiford.

The Sept. 8 jail is open to a limited number of non-League persons. Anyone interested in joining the tour should call Mrs. McConihe at 453-6544 to make reservations.

"A Note"

A note in the Tipoff column in Sunday's Miami Herald: "They had to take the vending machines out at Avon Park correctional Institution, too many burglaries."

Put another star on the board, or another feather in the caps of Avon Park residents. A very nice lady told us at the Sun office that Avon Park should be proud of its men folk, young and old. She said in most towns people almost run-over you (so-to-speak) while walking on sidewalks or in stores, but not so here in our wonderful little town. She stated on numerous occasions while going in or out of our Post Office, everyone was so polite, opening the door for her, as well as others—something she rarely sees anymore in other places and she just thought it was worth mentioning.

Bride Elect Honored With Shower

The United Telephone Co. Lounge was the setting on Thursday evening, Aug. 16, for a lingerie and linen shower given in honor of Miss Brenda Grey, bride-elect of George Miller.

The bride-elect was presented with a pink rose corsage. The mothers of the bridal couple were presented with a corsage of pink carnations.

The guests were served refreshments of cake and punch from a table covered with a pink cloth, and adorned with fern and miniature pink roses, and a silver and white wedding bell.

Focal point was the gift table, which featured blue, pink and white streamers reaching to the ceiling.

Fellowship was enjoyed by all, after which Brenda opened her many lovely gifts, which included a lace-trimmed floral sheet, and a salad bowl with silver servers, presented to her by the hostesses.

The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tharon B. Grey of Frostproof, and the bridegroom-to-be is a son of Mrs. Irma Miller, and Harry Miller Sr., both of Lakeland.

Hostesses for this party for Brenda were Mrs. Judy Coullitte, Mrs. Sandy Wineberger, Mrs. Ann Johnson, Mrs. Marilyn Bradley, Mrs. Carolyn Palmer, and Verlin Marshall.

Brenda and George will be wed on Friday, Aug.31, at 7:30 p.m. at the Union Congregational Church, Avon Park.

Library Reports Aim To City Council

Almost a year ago, residents of Avon Park went to the polls and voted overwhelmingly in favor of a city-owned and operated library.

At its regular meeting on Monday, City Council heard the report of J. T. Landress, president of the appointed Library Board, on the status quo of this new branch of city activity.

Landress stated that the board's aim has been to repair and rehabilitate the present building, to that end, the library is being repainted inside and out; it will have a new roof and improved landscaping.

Since the $23,000 budgeted for the library during fiscal year 1972-73 must be expended by Sept. 30, Mrs. Moore, new librarian, has concentrated on an actual physical inventory of the books on hand and found about 50 percent unusable. Many of those retained must be rebound.

The balance of the funds available for this fiscal year will go into new books, reference volumes will be purchased to replace present encyclopedia which were published 20 years ago.

Mrs. Moore will concentrate her efforts and available money on the children's department which she feels is of the utmost importance. For the future, she and the board will develop the library to meet the needs and interests of all age levels of the city's population.

MRS. STEVEN D. KNIGHT

Couple United In Marriage August 17

The First Presbyterian Church in Homestead was the scene of the marriage of Miss Patricia Sue Locke to Steven Dority Knight on Friday, Aug. 17. The bride is a daughter of Homestead Councilman and Mrs. Charles O. Locke III (former Avon Park residents) NW Ninth Avenue, Homestead. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Knight, NE Second Avenue, Homestead.

Officiating at the ceremony at 7:30 p.m. was Dr. Luther Price of Avon Park, who married the bride's parents 26 years ago. Organist was Miss Vicki Peterson, with Bruce Campbell as soloist, presenting a program of nuptial music, in a setting of candelabras, flowers and greenery.

Bride wears mother's wedding gown

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her mother's wedding gown, an original Joel design fashioned from imported brocaded satin in tiny fleur-de-lis and iris brocade. The Elizabethan era was accented in the fitted bodice designed with rolled stand-up neckline, and in the full puffs heading the long sleeves, which came to a lily point over the hands. The full skirt featured six groups of pleating placed around the entire skirt, and continuing into a full rounded train. Her veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a headpiece of lace centered with pearls and encircling a satin and chiffon bow. She carried a bridal bouquet of white daisies.

Maid of honor was Miss Melissa Locke, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Donoghue and cousins of the bride, Miss Laura Camp and Miss Lynn Camp of Avon Park; and Miss Mary Kay Collins, Jacksonville.

The maid of honor wore a full-length gown of polyster dotted swiss, fashioned with fitted midriff, square neckline and ruffled cap sleeves in pale yellow. A large back bow defined the waist. The bridesmaids wore matching gowns in pale green, with yellow daisies in their hair. They carried small baskets of yellow daisies.

Best man was Steven Brussa. Ushers were Ricky Vihlen, and the bridegroom's brothers, Michael, Larry and Gerry Knight.

Mrs. Locke chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of yellow double-knit lace featuring elbow-length sleeves and high neckline. She wore white accessories and a white daisy corsage.

Mrs. C. E. Lanier, paternal grandmother of the bride, Avon Park, wore a white formal gown of organza with floral bodice. She wore a yellow daisy corsage.

Reception

The Officers' Club at Homestead Air Force Base, was the scene of a reception held immediately following the ceremony, hosted by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Locke. Mrs. Darrell Campbell was the reception coordinator, with Miss GeeGee Grawe presiding at the bride's book.

Mrs. Frank Camp Jr., sister of the bride's mother, Avon Park, and Mrs. Vernon Collins, sister of the bride's father cut the cake. At the punch service was Miss Lynda Daniels. Mrs. Willa Perkins was the florist and bridal consultant.

After a wedding trip to Disney World, the new Mr. and Mrs. Knight will live in Tallahassee.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Luther Price, Mrs. J. L. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lanier, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camp Jr. and daughters, Laura and Lynn; Mrs. Bea Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dilley, all of Avon Park; Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Collins and daughter, Mary Kay, Jacksonville; Mrs. Larry Knight, South Carolina; and Mrs. Michael Knight, Tallahassee.

Patricia is a graduate of South Dade High School and Pensacola Junior College of Dental Hygiene. She will be employed as a dental hygenist in Tallahassee. Steven graduated from South Dade High School and attended Miami-Dade Community College. He is a student at Florida State University.

Supermarkers Report Black Market Beef

Supermarkets in Florida are reporting they are getting offers of black market beef and cattle rustling took a sizable jump in July over the previous month.

But local supermarkets said they have had no offers of black market beef. They also said prices have been slow in rising on foodstuffs generally this past week.

A special investigator has been appointed in Highlands County in an attempt to catch rustlers. Edna Pearce Lockett reported that one of her cows in a Glades County pasture had apparently been stunned by a tranquilizer gun, had its throat cut and only its hind quarters taken away.

Krystal Lyn Oft And Charles Bishop, Jr. Speak Wedding Vows August 22

During an impressive candlelight ceremony with diminutive touches of "yesteryear," Krystal Lyn Oft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Oft of Avon Park, was united in sacred marriage to Charles Edwin Bishop Jr., Wednesday evening, Aug. 22.

Desiring their wedding to be Christ-centered, with a special spiritual emphasis, the bride's maternal grandfather, Pastor D. B. Myers of Onaway, Mich., officiated by performing an extraordinarily meaningful service before an altar setting of live palms, entwined greenery, twin brass candelabrum each with seven flickering white tapers, and the traditional satin-covered kneeling bench. The floral theme featured white, pink, blue, and yellow tinted daisies and mums. Ribbon bows and daisies marked the family pews, thus beautifully coordinating the church decorations.

Ushers, John Thomas Jr. of Jackson, Miss., and Patrick Edgar Muse of Florence, Miss., escorted the bride and bridegroom's families to forward pews, lit the candelabras, and unrolled the white aisle cloth before the bridegroom and the clergyman took their positions to await the bridal procession. Krystal Lyn chose to come without escort in deference to her father who, though proudly attending, forewent this privilege by reason of disability.

In the waning moments of sundown and into eventide, Krystal's radiance was enhanced by her bridal gown of demure simplicity, a white polyster satin of empire styling, a flowing train, delicately trimmed with lace, with a finger-tip veil. Not only was her wedding perfect for the occasion but a very special tribute to the bride from Mrs. Grace Larsen who lovingly designed and created this cherished adornment. Complementing Krystal's trousseau were select yellow daisies and mums fashioned into her bridal bouquet, these being among her favorite flowers.

The bridal pair bestowed kisses upon their parents to publicly express their heartfelt devotion to their families. Then Krystal Lyn and Charles shared with all the precious words and beauty of "Wither Thou Goest," as touchingly sung by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kirstein of Apopka.

As a token of his enduring love and promise, Charles presented Krystal with a white Bible which she, in turn, accepted in like spirit, a gift that would be the very foundation of their lives together, their home, and their family.

While kneeling together in a prayer of dedication and blessing, "The Wedding Prayer" was next significantly sung by Elder C. J. Danforth of Dania, who was the former chaplain here at Walker Memorial Hospital. Together Charles and Krystal each withdrew a lighted candle from a candelabrum of three tapers, in act and spirit then lit the center one to signify the new union of their lives in marriage, while extinguishing those flames which no longer burn separtely but now and forever as one. Vows were exchanged and the newlyweds introduced to all comers as Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwin Bishop Jr.

Krystal's attendants were attired in very attractive and long gingham gowns in varied colors to match the floral hues, trimming of daisy patterns, white hats and gloves, each with her bridal basket of tinted daisies. Maid of honor, Miss Debbie Clark, of Highlands Lakes ably served and was Krystal's college roommate last year. The bride's younger sister, Twyla Noelle Oft, and Miss Nancy Bishop, sister of the bridegroom, were lovely as bridesmaids.

Equally entertaining was the young Bible boy, Master Clarence Merrit of Avon Park Lakes.

Charles chose as his best man Daryl Oft, brother of the bride, and a former roommate in the men's residence of Pine Forest Academy.

The mother of the bride, Juvernia Oft, chose a becoming double-knit jersey dress in a light-blue flowered pattern with a pastel-blue long vest, matching blue hat, white accessories, and an exquisite corsage of miniature pink roses.

Mrs. Joan Bishop of Asheville, mother of the bridegroom, selected an attractive dress in shades of dark brown with raspberry pink coordinates and matching accessories which also blended well with her corsage of roses. She is a registered nurse at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Following the ceremony and photographs expertly organized and implemented by Mrs. Carolina Martin and Dr. John Palsgrove, the newly-married couple discovered an unusual surprise parked before the church door. Through the generosity and courtesy of Robert Sanborn, a retired industrialist and local resident who collects and restores antique cars, Charles and Krystal loaded into the rear seat of a charming 1922 Studebaker touring sedan, gleaming black and in near-mint condition. Thus they were chauffeured in elegant style of days past to the reception.

Through the kindness of Walker Memorial Hospital where the new bride has been employed as a licensed practical nurse, a very enjoyable reception for several hundred guests was held in the gracious dining room overlooking Lake Lillian. An adjoining private dining area served as the receiving and serving line for the wedding cake and punch bowl refreshments. Still another glass enclosed area was arranged for a glittering and handsome display of many, many much-appreciated gifts of both beauty and function in the Bishop's new home at Collegedale, Tenn. 37315, where both Krystal and Charles will continue their college training as juniors. The bride is majoring in Elementary Education while her husband is enrolling in a vocational curriculum emphasising Constructional Arts. Both are hoping to serve in some aspect of the educational, medical, or institutional programs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Before returning to the campus of Southern Missionary College and their new apartment this week, the Bishops are "honeymooning" enroute, presumably in the Southern Appalachian Mountains where much of their courtship evolved.

Among the hundreds of wonderful guests, special recognition is deserving for Miss Carol Clark of Avon Park, another college friend who presided over the guest book, church and reception; for Mrs. Marjorie Cook and Dorothy Williams who orgnaized and directed the fine reception; for Fire Chief and Mrs. Milton Myers of Merryville, La., who, with Miss Bonnie Brown of Collegedale, Tenn., so artistically handled the gifts display - not to overlook the others "un-named" but appreciated for their helpfulness.

Other notable guests included all of the bride's grandparents, Elder and Mrs. D. B Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Oft. The bridegroom's relatives also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bishop, Pam, and Jeff. Perhaps the senior guest to honor the wedding is a favorite aunt of the Oft family, Mrs. Clara Chessman of St. Petersburg.

Shower Honors Karen

A miscellaneous bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Karen Beane, bride-elect of Paul M. Hummel, Saturday, Aug. 25, at her home. Hostess was Miss Gail Beane of Clearwater. Arrangements of colorful flowers were used at focal point in the lovely home overlooking Lake Verona.

Karen was presented a corsage of white carnations to match her red pant suit, trimmed in white, and her mother, Mrs. Melvin Beane was presented a corsage of yellow carnations which complemented her turquoise and white double-knit dress with hemline kick pleats.

Games were enjoyed by all and prizes were presented to the winners. Karen opened her many gifts from a table covered with a white linen lace trimmed cloth, centered with a stem vase of yellow carnations and fern. Miss Gail Beane, cousin of the bride-elect helped with the opening of the gifts, and Mrs. Linda Laye was in charge of the bride's book.

Guests were served from the dining room table which was covered with a green linen lace trimmed cloth, overlaid with a beige hand-crocheted lace cloth. Punch was served from a crystal bowl, along with dainty party sandwiches in colors of pink and green, cake squares and assorted nuts and mints.

Karen and Paul will be wed on Saturday, Sept. 15, at 7:30 p.m., at the Congregational Church, Avon Park.

HAPPINESS IS—opening gifts at bridal shower which Karen Beane, bride-elect of Paul Hummel, does as she smiles happily. Karen's mother, Mrs. Melvin Beane stands by with another gift as Karen admires the one just opened. Funeral Services Held For John Delegal

Funeral services for former Avon Park resident, John Delegal, age 43, were held in Jacksonville, followed by services at graveside in Bougainvillea Cemetery on Thursday, Aug. 23 at 3 p.m. Mr. Delegal passed away last week in Jacksonville, after having a heart attack on July 26.

He was employed with Dupont and was a son of the late John L. and Jewell Delegal, well known to residents of Avon Park, as manager of the Telephone company in Avon Park, until his retirement. He is survived by his widow, Ann and two children of Jacksonville, and a sister, Mrs. Pope Scurry, (the former Charlene Delegal) who teaches in Fort Lauderdale.

New Business To Open Here

City Council has given its blessing to a new business venture for Avon Park.

Henry C. Long, of East Walnut Street requested the council's permission to establish a taxicab service here.

A relative newcomer, Long came to Avon Park from California about a year ago. He is part owner of an apartment building on E. Walnut and S. Lake Ave.

The cab and limousine service, as planned, will be based at the parking area of the Winn-Dixie Supermarket. the most important feature of the project, as far as local residents are concerned, is the 24-hour service it will offer.

For the future, Long plans to develop a regular bus tour service to Disney World and other points of interest in southern Florida.

Devils Shape Up For Jamboree Friday

The Red Devil varsity prospects have gone back to two practices a day this week as they prepare to meet Arcadia and Sebring in the second and fourth quarters of the four-team jamboree to be played here at Memorial Field tomorrow (Friday) night starting at 7:30 p.m.

The Avon Park boys donned pads last week and have been working hard since then under new head coach Ralph Hill and new line coach John Pilcher. The 28 boys who are trying for starting positions on the Devil varsity will be attempting to make up for size with quickness and speed this year since only two players out this fall weighed in over two hundred pounds.

Senior Buddy DeWitt and sophomore Jerry Robinson will share the quarterback job in the jamboree exhibition tomorrow night. DeWitt moved into the starting signal calling job last season and finished out the year in that spot for the Devils. Robinson was the number one junior varsity quarterback last year and moved up to work out with the varsity last spring.

Running backs for the Devils this year will be Danny Lewis, a senior veteran player; Ricky Claitt, a junior runner who missed a lot of action last season because of injuries; William Burley, another junior back who will see action in the fullback slot; Timmy Massey, a sophomore up from the junior varsity; Lawrence (Poncho) McRae, a junior who will double at end and back; Mickey Claitt, a junior up from the junior varsity who will also be both an end and a back; and Barnard Jackson, a senior end and back. Moses Anderson, Leonard Green, Mearl Robinson, and Steve Myers are also working out at backfield positions and will probably see defensive action in the jamboree.

The Red Devil line will be smaller than usual this year. At center will be senior Tim DuPree and possibly junior Jamie Tomlinson. At guard will be Greg Hartt on offensive action only; Ronnie Dick, who will miss the jamboree with an injury; Mike Poll, Dennis Johns, Dennis Avery, and Mark Lewis.

Working out at tackle positions are senior Jimmy Carter, Sean Murphy, Nate Williams, and Bill Murphy. Nate Williams is the senior experienced tackle who will probably see action at linebacker on defense.

Nathaniel Packer will lead the end prospects. Packer is a senior this year and has played offensive end for the Devils before. Along with him will be Marvin Jackson, a senior who will also kick-off and place-kick; Harry Stukes, and McRae and Mickey Claitt. Leonard Green will also double at end as will Mearl Robinson.

The only two boys expected to miss the jamboree because of injuries are Ronnie Dick and Leonard Green. Everyone else was still in good shape at press time.

Athletic director Joe Franza said that there will not be a soap scrimmage and athletic association fish fry this year but that plans are being made to hold a Bar-B-Q supper before one of the home games.

Other Action at the Avon Park Athletic Association meeting held last Monday night included the possibility of considering moving the Sebring vs Avon Park game from Thanksgiving Eve, Nov. 21, up to Friday, Nov. 16.

DOWNTOWN AVON PARK

Hill Presents Rotary Program

August Program Chairman Charles Collins presented Coach Ralph Hill of Avon Park High School as a home town student who played football during 1948-49 and 50 seasons. Ralph went off to Erskine College, played more football, got his degree and returned to Avon Park High School to teach along with being an assistant Coach.

Coach Hill stated that Principle Aaron Cravens had given him a crying towel which he immediately proceeded to use as he told the Rotarians that eighteen players of last years varsity squad didn't return because of graduation, moving, etc. There were only four of last years squad returning both for defense and offense.

In making further use of the crying towel, Coach Hill told how last years team was big, fast, and brave in contrast to this years players appearing little slow and scared. But Coach Hill just didn't have the looks of a coach who was worried.

In describing the type of season the Avon Park High School Football Team will have this year, Coach Hill summerized it in this manner. First, the season depends on the attitude of the players and their will to win. Second, what type of attitude the opponents have and third, injuries such as the freak broken bones of last year.

In describing his new assistant, Coach John Pilcher, and how he believes in work, Hill only skirted around a prediction with "if work will win, we'll win a few."

This Years Jamboree Game to be played at 7:30 p.m., Friday night will have the same four teams playing, with First Quarter - Wauchula and Sebring; Second quarter - Avon Park and Arcadia; third quarter - Arcadia and Wauchula; fourth quarter - Avon Park and Sebring. The following week, Thursday night, Sept. 6, the traditional soap scrimmage game between the Varsity Squad members will be held. The price of admission being bars of bathe soap.

Overall Coach Hill asked for no favors or breaks in the game and conceded none to the opponents. He had the overall confidence of a coach who knows his team will make their own breaks during the game.

MILLAGE DOWN

The governing board of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District approved at its meeting Aug. 17 a reduction of the District's ad valorem tax millage for the third consecutive year. The current tax millage of .52, or 52 cents per $1,000 of assessed real property value, was reduced by today's Board action to .485, a 6.7 per cent drop. In fiscal 1971, the millage was .59; in fiscal 1972, it was .53.

Jackson's Team Leads League With 17-0 Record

With just one more week of play remaining in the Avon Park slow-pitch Softball League, Jackson's team is still leading the standings with a perfect 17-0 record. The number one team in the 10-team league was set to play its final game tomorrow night, Friday, Aug. 31, but the game has been postponed and rescheduled for next Wednesday night Sept. 5, because of the high school football jamboree which will be played here at Memorial Field on Aug. 31.

After last Monday nights play Avon Body shop was still in second place with a 10-6 record, First Baptist and A.P.C.I. were tied up for third place with 9-6 records and the Episcopal Church Godfathers dropped down to fifth place with a 9-7 mark. Coca Cola and Air Force were both at 8-8 in a sixth place tie, Blackman Ford was 6-9 in eighth place, Sears was 3-13, and Jahna remained in last place with an 0-16 record.

Rained out games from Monday, Aug. 20, remained to be made up between First Baptist and Blackman Ford and between A.P.C.I. and the Godfathers. Tonight (Thursday) Blackman Ford will play A.P.C.I. at 7 p.m. and First Baptist will take on Avon Body Shop at 8:30 p.m. Next Monday night it will be Air Force vs. Sears early and Coc Cola against A.P.C.I. in the second game.

Next Tuesday night one game is scheduled between Avon Body shop and the Godfathers and next Wednesday night the make-up game from Friday's postponed schedule between Jackson and Blackman Ford will be played.

McFarland To Head Six Plants As Division Material Manager

Clement A. McFarland has received a promotion within the Brunswick Corporation from Material Manager for the Sherwood-DeLand Plant to Division Material Manager for MacGregor. Mr. McFarland will be working with the six plants within the MacGregor Division. MacGregor is one of the leading manufacturers of sporting goods equipment.

Mr. McFarland has been with the Brunswick Corporation for ten years. He received a B.S. Degree in Mathematics from Stetson University, DeLand. He served two years as a Lieutenant in the United States Army. Mr. and Mrs. McFarland, with their two boys Patrick and Sammy, will make their home in Albany, Ga.

While in DeLand, Mr. McFarland served as past Music Director of Stetson Baptist Church. He was also on the Board of Directors of the West Volusia United Fund.

Mr. McFarland's parents are Mr. and Mrs. P. A. McFarland of 28 West Charles Street, Avon Park. His wife's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Howell of 402 S. Central Avenue, Avon Park.

Mosser Enlists In Air Force

A native of Avon Park has entered the Air Force's Delayed Enlistment Program (DEP).

David B. Mosser Jr., son of Mr and Mrs. James A. Jordon of 420 W. Bell, will depart for active duty on Sept. 20. However, he has already begun accruing time in the Air Force for pay purposes as a member of the DEP.

Upon entering active duty status, he will be flown by jet airliner to Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., where he will undergo a brief six-week military training course. He scored exceptionally well on a series of tests which qualified him to enter the law enforcement field of training.

He is a 1973 graduate of Avon Park High School where he was a member of the football team. He was also active in the Future Farmer of America.

He was enlisted in the Air Force by Sergeant Ray J. Gutzler of the Sebring Recruiting Office located at 101 S. Circle.

Use what you need, save what you can.
That's good air conditioning advice this summer.

It's good for you, for us, and for all the customers we serve.

Because, in addition to saving yourself some money, you'll be helping us all save valuable energy.

So here's what you do.

Set your thermostat up.
Set it up to the highest possible temperature comfortable to you.

Fan setting?
Operate for your individual comfort. "Auto" gives better humidity control and economy. "On" provides more uniform air motion, sound level and temperature. Of course, to conserve money and energy, we recommend "Auto."

When you're away.
Set your unit at 5 to 10 degrees above normal setting with fan on "Auto" for mildew protection and quick comfort when you return.

Filters.
Replace frequently. Clogged filters make units work overtime.

Outdoor section.
Keep clear of plants and obstructions. Anything that interferes with air flow increases operating costs.

Air grills.
Don't block air flow with furniture or drapes. Anything that gets in the way of delivery or air return gets in the way of proper cooling.

Windows and doors?

Insulation.
It's amazing how many Florida homes were built without adequate insulation. And insulation is important. It'll give you lower operating costs, so make sure you have it.

Just follow these 8 simple suggestions and you'll conserve money and energy this summer and still be comfortable.

And if you'd like a whole bookful of ways to get more out of your electricity, for less, stop by any Florida Power office and ask for our "Helpful Hints" pamphlet.

Let's all conserve together this summer.

You may think you'll go places with a small education. But you're wrong! Starting to work with a too-small education is like running a race in cement track shoes. It's almost a sure bet you'll come in last in the race for the good-paying jobs.
Today, to get a good job you need a good education. A good education is the first thing employers ask for. It proves you've got what it takes to handle a good job . . . a good-paying job . . . a job with a future that really goes someplace.
So, if you're in school now . . . stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, you can still get back in the running. There's plenty of valuable training available outside the classroom. To get the facts, see the Youth Counselor at your State Employment Service. Or visit a Youth Opportunity Center, which has been set up in many cities to help you.
To get a good job, get a good education

You've had some education?
(Now maybe you'll get some kind of job.)
Some kinds of jobs really aren't much. Not much fun. Not much pay. Not much future, either. And you may have to settle for a job like that . . . if you don't have a good education.
Today, it's a fact. Having some education just isn't enough if you want a good-paying job. To get a good job, you need a good education. It's the first thing employers ask for.
So, if you're in school now . . . stay there! Learn all you can for as long as you can. If you're out of school, you can still get plenty of valuable training outside the classroom.
For information, just visit the Youth Counselor at your State Employment Service. Or stop in at a Youth Opportunity Center, which has been set up in many cities to help you.

Mrs. Virginia Balding from Kissimmee visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Balding last Friday.

Mrs. Gerard Liggiero returned home recently from a six weeks trip to New York where she visited friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Welker and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haskin were visitors in Lakeland last Wednesday.

A special Labor Day pot luck dinner will be held at the club house on Monday, Sept. 3, at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dettinger left by plane from Orlando after receiving word of the death of Mrs. Dettinger's mother. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Edwards drove them to the airport.

The regular monthly salad bar luncheon will be held at the the club house on Thursday, Sept. 6, at 12:30 p.m.

A special Board meeting of the Avon Park Lakes Association was held last Friday at the club house.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Eugene Cottrell visited Mr. and Mrs. Milton Braasch in Lakeland last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Liggiero returned to the lakes last Thursday from a four days visit with Mrs. Edward Dowd in Pinellas Park, and celebrated Mrs. Dowd's birthday while there. They also visited William Burkhart who had suffered a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Tanner have moved into their new home on Longbottom Road.

In spite of the rain 16 folks played in the Wednesday evening shuffling tournament with the following results. Paul Manegold and Geraldine Long won in the main event with Howard Long and Bernice Long the runners-up. In consolation Charles Buckley and Steve Brown won over Edward Edwards and Chris Steen.

On Saturday evening 32 folks lined up and started to play, but right away the rain stopped them.

On both Monday and Friday afternoons there were four tables of pinochle players. Loretta Simpson came in high with 710 on Monday, with Chris Cabezas a close second with 693. On Friday William Benson was high with 727, and Bill Klenk 710.

Charlotte Dickson has returned from California and she will be living at the Jacaranda Hotel.

Grace Warner has returned to her home here in Avon Park after a ten-week visit with various members of her family in and around Clyde, Ohio.

Illeon and Clay Kull are home from a three-week tour in Europe, spending most of their time in Switzerland and Austria. there were 23 in the group, and the tour was "Alps of Europe". They found prices three and four times as high as when they were there before, what with inflation and the dollar devaluation.

Leverne and Grace Staley spent a week at Canada Lake in the Adirondacks the latter part of July. While there they were able to have Leverne's three daughters, their husbands and some of their children plus Grace's daughter and husband and children for a day. What a nice reunion that would be.

Grace writes they look forward to reading the Sun each week.

HEALTH CONFERENCE

★ Honor God Sunday
★ Honor Labor Monday

SPECIAL DAYS . . . Monday has been set aside by man as a day to honor labor. Throughout the year, man works hard and deserves this recognition and rest. However, even before man saw this need for rest, God set aside one day a week for rest and worship. Attend church each Sunday. Worship the Lord in His house, on the day that He set aside.

"And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it He had rested from all His work which God created and made."

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Mr. And Mrs Clay Kull Return From 24 Day Tour Of Alps Of Europe

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kull have returned from a 24-day tour of the Alps of Europe, covering portions of Switzerland, France, Austria, Italy, West Germany and Liechtenstein. It was much warmer and there was less snow than on previous visits.

In Geneva they visited the United Nations Palace. A morning drive into France took them thru the seven and one-half mile Mt. Blanc tunnel into Italy for lunch.

Returning to Switzerland via scenic railway to Zermatt where they viewed the Matterborn. Aboard the Glacier Express they saw the Rhone Glacier, the Furka Pass, and later drove over the St. Gotthard Pass to Locarno for overnight and then to Lugano and Lake Como.

From St. Moritz they entered Austria and the Tyrol to Innsbruck, and witnessed an excellent Tyrolean folk entertainment. The green valleys included many campers with their colorful tents. The streets thru the village were narrow and crooked but interesting with the bright flowers in the window boxes and pictures painted on the houses.

Approaching Villach they ascended thru many hairpin curves to Franz Josefs Hohe to see the snow-covered Grossglockner Peak, 12,461 feet, and the Pasterzen Glacier.

On the way to Vienna they stopped at the Lipizzaner Stud Farm to see the mares with their foals.

Among the many sights in Vienna was the Schonbrunn Palace where Maria Theresia and Marie Antoinette had lived, and where they saw the opera, "The Barber of Seville". They rode on the Great Ferris Wheel which takes ten minutes to revolve once.

In Salzburg they were shown where Mozart was born and also scenes form the "Sound of Music".

Entering West Germany they proceeded to Munich, thru green, rolling country, prosperous with cows, crops and large three story masonry houses, some with barns attached. Munich has that beautiful English Gardens park, four miles long. The tour included several of King Ludwig's castles and the site of the Olympic games.

Our motor coach now headed south to the woodcarver's village of Oberammergau, site of the Passion Play, a quaint place, colorful with flowers.

The journey continued again into Austria to St. Christoph, near the Alberg pass for the night. The next day they were in Vaduz, capital of tiny Liechtenstein, then into Switzerland thru the most spectacular scenery of the trip, over the Klausen Pass, 6404 feet, winding around cliffs a sheer 2000 feet above the valley below. Here our lives depended upon a good driver.

On thru Altdorf of William Tell fame, they came to Lucerne for three days - their last stop. By steamer across Lake Lucerne and cog-railway to the top of Mt. Pilatus, they descended by cable car. Lucerne is probably the most popular place in Switzerland.

Everywhere there was much construction: houses, high-rise apartments, highway improvement, bridges and tunnels.

Applications Being Taken For Judge Liles Replacement

Governor Reubin O'D. Askew has announced that Judge Woodie A. Liles of the Second District Court of Appeal has submitted his resignation from that post effective Oct. 1, 1973. The Second District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission will be considering applications for this vacancy from members of The Florida Bar who are qualified.

Sections 13 and 13A of Article V of The Florida Constitution require that no person shall be eligible for the office of Judge of a District Court of Appeal unless he is a citizen of the State of Florida, a member of The Florida Bar in good standing and for a period of at least ten (10) years has been a member of The Florida Bar.

Any interested parties meeting these qualifications should immediately contact William O. E. Henry, Post Office Drawer BW, Lakeland, 33802. Completed applications must be in the hands of the Second District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission no later than Tuesday, Sept. 4.

RELIGIOUS RESOURCES WORKSHOP

Laymen, Sunday School teachers, Ministers and Christian Education directors are invited to attend "A Creative Resources Workshop" on Saturday, Sept. 8, between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

The workshop is sponsored by the Lake Byrd Book Store and will be held at the Union Congregational Church which is located at Church Street and Forest Avenue in Avon Park.

Bill Scott, director of Creative Resources, Waco, Tex., will conduct the Workshop. During the three-hour session, Mr. Scott will direct a series of learning experiences from the Serendipity books created by Lyman Coleman. His demonstration will include showing Cassette tapes.

Two reasons why now is the best time to move up to a '73 Chrysler.

1. '74 prices will probably go up. 2. Right now, we're offering year-end prices.

And there are more.

1. Chrysler runs on regular fuel.
2. Standard Electronic Ignition System. No points or condenser to wear out. You can get up to 18,000 miles before spark plugs need replacement.
3. Up to 35% more voltage than conventional starting systems for faster starts in any weather.
4. No recommended maintenance for the standard Torque-Flite transmission under normal driving conditions.
5. Chrysler Newport has more front and rear hip room and trunk space than any car in its class.
6. The luxury of Torsion-Quiet Ride.
7. The strength of unibody construction.
8. Standard safety items including extra-protection bumper system, fuel-tank impact protection, padded dashboard, energy-absorbing steering column, locking steering wheel.
9. Elegant Chrysler styling and beauty.
10. For all its room, comfort and luxury, Chrysler is still surprisingly affordable.

Food for Thought

By Jane Nickerson

It's been called the flower power food. It's the quickest source of human energy, ancient as vegetation so much in demand that the price has more than doubled in three years. Youngsters like it with peanut butter, the natural-foods group adds it to yogurt and old-fashioned Southerners have been spreading it on hot biscuits since Robert E. Lee attended West Point. I refer, in case you haven't guessed, to honey.

Levulose and dextrose, its principal sugars, need no digestive changes; the body absorbs them immediately. Therein lies the unexcelled efficiency of honey in quickly fueling the human motor.

And because it is free from refinement and additives, honey is what some call a "natural food." Packers heat and filter honey extracted from the comb, but such processing is so slight that it is still classed as a raw agricultural product by the Food and Drug Administration.

Demand for the natural foods, including honey, has increased throughout the world. Charles H. Leighton of Haines City, a honey packer since 1950, told me he could sell all his output this year to Japan were he willing to turn his back on long-standing customers. He was packing honey with a label in German, to be shipped to Hamburg, the day I called. He said he had paid beekeepers 16 cents a pound in 1971 and that he was now paying 42 cents.

But the higher tariff does not keep most of us from savoring honey. That thick liquid made from nectar and stored in wax combs by only four kinds of bees among 20,000 varieties is a typical delicacy of Florida, the land of flowers. The value of last year's crop was $4 million.

We rank third in commercial honey production, next to California and Minnesota, and first in the total harvest. Half our honey never enters trade channels; small "hobby beekeepers" hold it for themselves. They are most numerous in Florida and becoming more so. Leighton began as one in the 1940s when he eased his tensions as City Manager of Haines City by experimenting with a few colonies of bees.

Part of the appeal of Florida honey, like honey anywhere, is its variety. The blooms the bees sip determine tint and taste. Each of our honeys—orange blossom, tupelo, palmetto and gallberry—has unique characteristics, easier to perceive than describe. Even location may be a factor. Leighton said that orange blossom honey from high land along the central Florida ridge was lighter-hued than that from a lower area.

Citrus honey from whatever source, orange, tangerine, tangelo or grapefruit, goes by the name of "orange blossom", and accounts for more than half our crop. Citrus gives the most nectar per acre of any major honey plant; you may recall shaking a large drop of it from a single orange flower.

Four pounds of nectar from two million blooms yield a pound of honey, needing the labor of 160,000 bees. All in this country descend from honeybees introduced in New England about 1640 by the English. The Indians called them "the White man's fly", but no fly they knew had ever given such gastronomical gold.

Tupelo gum trees, growing as high as 70 feet in or near the Apalachicola River, give a greenish-gold honey produced nowhere else in the world. L. L. Lanier of Wewahitchka, virtually born in a beehive, he said, estimated there were only about 30 beekeepers in Liberty, Calhoun, Gulf and Franklin Counties who harvested honey from bees who had fed on tupelo trees. They bloom only about two weeks in April.

Following that bloom, the keepers move the bees out of the river area on barges to better feeding grounds. Tupelo wood cannot be used for pulp and gives soft lumber, so the trees are countenanced in the pulp-producing panhandle. Lanier thinks, only because of their glorious honey. Because of its high levulose content, it never crystallizes.

Leighton reminded me that honey is best kept on a shelf because the lower temperature of a refrigerator encourages crystallization. Should it occur, the remedy is simple: Put the container in a pan of warm water to reliquefy the product.

Many of Leighton's jars of extracted honey contain a section of comb honey. Before 1906, when the Pure Food and Drug Laws were enacted, liquid honey often was adulterated with cheaper sugars. A preference developed for that in the comb, which could not be tampered with; the bees meticulously close each cell with wax.

Early in the century beekeepers often used small wooden frames, about four inches square, in which the bees built and filled their combs. These the keepers shipped to shops, where they were considered a table treasure. But the frames required a balanced number of bees in the hive and were delicate to handle in stores. Markets now sell them as infrequently as wild strawberries.

Connoisseurs still claim comb honey is the finer product. They argue that heating and filtering honey impairs its flavor. Heating temporarily reduces viscosity and delays crystallization, making honey easier to pack. Filtering gives clarity. It may remove particles of beeswax, which is digestible if you have a taste for the gummy.

What better transmitter than a pot of tea, a stack of toast, a jar of honey or, if you prefer, a sectioned comb on it? And here are other ideas:

Fruit Salad Dressing: Combine equal parts of fresh lime juice and honey.

Sticky Buns: Mix a fourth-cup orange juice concentrate with two tablespoons honey. Brush over one package of ready-to-bake dinner rolls. Sprinkle with a half-cup raisins. Bake 15 minutes at 375 degrees. Baste with the honey blend.

Ice Cream Sauce: Combine one cup honey, two tablespoons finely shredded orange peel, one-half cup orange juice and a pinch of salt. Let stand over hot, not boiling, water for 30 minutes. Serve warm.

Baked Pears: Cut in half six firm pears. Stick a clove in each half. Arrange in a shallow, buttered, baking dish. Spoon over the pears, cut-side up, two tablespoons each lemon or lime juice and honey, spiced with a half-teaspoon ginger. Dot with a tablespoon butter. Bake at 350 degrees till tender, about 15 minutes. Serve warm or cool with sour cream.

Mel Bass Apologies To Board

County Commissioner Melville D. Bass appeared Aug. 29 before County Judge Mark H. Richardson Jr. and was ordered to the Nuway Center for 13 weeks.

The judge ruled on all three of the drunken driving charges lodged against Bass that day. Bass was first arrested May 27 - again Aug. 6 - and then again Aug. 26. On the first arrest, the judge withheld adjudication until he completes 13 weeks at Nuway and assessed him court costs of $100.

On the second arrest, adjuication was withheld until the 13 weeks are up and his license was revoked for one year. A charge of having no valid driving license will be heard Sept. 24.

On the third charge, Bass, through his attorney, S.C. Pardee, pleaded not guilty and will go to trial Sept. 24. He was released on $250 bond after his first arrest, and was released on his own recognizance the other two times, although bond was set at $250 all three times.

The Nuway Center is located in the old Sunny Haven Retirement Home in DeSoto City. Its patients there are both voluntary and involuntary. Director Bob Clift said the average stay is 56 days and the patients may leave only by permission. There now are 16 men and women there although they have had up to 25. Purpose of the center is to rehabilitate problem drinkers.

Some of the patients are allowed to work and a regular bus service transports them downtown and to work.

At Meeting

Bass attended the Sept. 4 meeting of Highlands County commission. In the portion of the meeting where each commissioner is given an opportunity to introduce business, Bass said, "I should like this to go on record. I owe it to you and the people of Highlands County."

"You don't know how embarrassed I am. I know I have a problem. I have learned how I can lick it. I won't go into it more, but I can assure you, it won't happen again."

MOTHERS' PRAYERS come true—as childrens' dreams fade away! Pictured above is a scene at Avon Park High School on Tuesday, Sept. 4, after the Labor Day holiday ended the summer vacation, signaling the start of another busy year of learning. Schools Open With Enrollment Up 673

Highlands County schools got off to a smooth start on the 1973-74 school year Tuesday with a record 6,949 opening day enrollment, 673 more pupils than on opening day last year.

However, the figure was boosted by 301 students who showed up for Highlands County's first public kindergarten. So the gain over last year—without the kindergarten—would have been 372.

The opening day figure was considerably short of a prediction by principals of 7,465. Superintendent of Schools George Douglass had said previously he felt the predicted figure was too high.

Sebring High School, as predicted, had the biggest gain of any school in the county adding 180 students above last year's opening day figure.

More than expected

However, the response to the voluntary kindergartens was more than expected and Douglass said he probably will put an extra kindergarten unit in Avon Park and one in Sebring. Not more than 25 children are assigned to a unit.

"We will be growing in attendance during this first week, since we have a number of incoming people," Douglass said. He added he was pleased with the smoothness of the first day of operation. This is the latest schools have opened in some years.

Buses

There were a few minor incidents in a very smooth first day opening, he said, where people were passed by the school buses but "they did not wait for the third bus which was supposed to pick up in their area," he said.

"George Crist, safety officer and route coordinator is reviewing all of the routes and will be making some recommendations to balance out the bus routes during this first week," said Douglass. "A great many parents brought children to school Tuesday morning, but most children went home in the buses in the afternoon."

He said there were no reported turndowns because a child had not been immunized. Immunization now is a state law.

Attendance figures

Opening day attendance compared to last year was as follows:

Avon Park elementary 846, an increase of 66. This includes 130 children in kindergarten.

Avon Middle School 841, an increase of 25; Avon Park High School 681, an increase of 22.

Woodlawn elementary school 613, an increase of 106. This figure includes 96 kindergarten students. Fred Wild elementary 605, an increase of 60; Sebring Middle School 755, an increase of 71; Sebring High School 901, an increase of 180.

Davis First To Qualify In Up Coming City Election

As the books opened Tuesday, Sept. 4, for the upcoming elections, J. Marshall Davis was on hand to throw his hat into the ring for the office of mayor.

Along with the office of mayor being open for grabs, two council seats will also be vacated, those of incumbants Milton Howard and Hermon Sizemore.

Davis, a native Floridian, was born Feb. 26, 1911 at Walnut Hill, and lived there until coming to Avon Park in 1937.

Upon arriving in Avon Park, he worked at Highland Crate Co. until 1943 when he took a position with the postal service, moving up to the position with the postal service, moving up to the position of Assistant Postmaster, a job he held for 15 years. He retired from his post in April of 1973. Not satisfied completely to retire, he has taken a part-time position with Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home.

Davis is married to the former Katie Wickham Norris of Tarboro, North Carolina and they have four children, Mrs. Virgil (Gloria) Tondee, Jr. of Avon Park; James Davis of Lafayette Hill, Pa., an administrative analyst for I.B.M.; Rene Davis of Titusville, Fla. who is associated with MacMillian Buchanan Insurance Agency Inc.; and Leslie Norris of Avon Park who is owner of the Screech Owl.

Along with these four children, Davis is the proud grandfather of eight.

He is an active member of the First Baptist Church and is very active in the Lions Club, holding the office of Secretary and Vice President of the Christmas Cheer, Inc. and the Youth Guidance, Inc.

Incumbant Mayor Robert Barben refused to comment on his intentions as to run or not when contacted by phone late Tuesday evening.

However, incumbant councilman Milton Howard, eagerly stated he will seek office again, planning to place his name on the ballot within the next thirty days. Howard has been a councilman for six years this coming October, first obtaining the office in October of 1967. Howard informed the Sun he will have a full statement available at the time of his qualification.

Herman Sizemore was unavailable for comment as to his intentions. He has served only one term of office, being elected in December of 1971.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews stated that prospective candidates should first come by city hall and obtain all the vital registration information and necessary forms before trying to qualify. "The candidates must submit a check from their official campaign fund" Crews told the Sun.

A qualifying fee of $25 is necessary for all three offices.

Crews said the books will open for those wishing to run for election and also for those citizens who haven't yet registered to vote until November 2 at city hall during all working hours.

The city officials are urging all city residents to take an active interest in this election, along with all other governmental elections.

"In recent years the percentage of turnout has steadily declined" Crews told this reporter.

At the last election in December, only 30 per cent of the qualified voters choose to turn out to place Clarence King, Durrah Martin, and "Bob" Woodruff into office, that election reached an all time low for the city.

JOHN CLARK, President of the Avon Park Kiwanis Club, presents Mary A. Anderson with the annual Kiwanis Junior College Scholarship. Mary resides with her aunt, Mrs. Ruth Kelley, on West Pleasant St., Avon Park. She came here from Winter Park in 1972, attending the 11th and 12th grades at Avon Park High School. She was a member of the Devilettes, played the flute in the Grenadier Band, and was among the senior students recognized at the annual Highlands County Scholastic dinner. Mary is now attending South Florida Junior College, where she is majoring in business education—and works part-time in the County Tax Assessor's office. - Photo by Sharpe

Avon Park Comes Under Flood Control Tax District

Implementation of the State Water Resources Act will bring the northwest six townships of Highlands County under the flood control district - and the Sebring and Avon Park residents for the first time will feel the tax bite.

The remainder of Highlands County has been in the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District since the 1940's.

The millage for taxpayers in the district's 17 counties last year was [illegible] and in this county raised $[illegible],525.50. The millage for 1973 is .485, slightly less than a nickel per $1,000 of assessed valuation.

The tax bills which go out in October 1974, will have the millage added to the taxes of all taxpayers in Highlands County. The act went into effect July 1.

The millage is assessed to pay for maintenance and operation of the flood control district. And what do the taxpayers get for their money?

District Soil Conservationist Sam Polston said the district regulates water control, and the primary purpose is to relieve flooding problems.

The district also holds back water for irrigation purposes and keeps Lake Istokpoga at a certain level. The Kissimmee River straightening and the channels leading out of Istokpoga were projects of the flood

Little League Meeting Scheduled Tonight

There will be a very important meeting of all persons interested in Little League and Senior League baseball at the Avon Park High School Auditorium tonight (Thursday, Sept. 6) at 8 p.m.

Red Devil varsity baseball coach Ronnie Jackson and Avon Park Little League president Henry Dennis have called the meeting to discuss plans for next year's program when the senior league will be officially added to the Avon Park program.

A board of directors will be formed and new officers elected for the 1974 season. Also the meeting will be used to bring up any suggestions for improvements of the program so all coaches, managers, parents, concession stand workers, and interested fans are urged to be at the meeting.

With the addition of the senior league to the program, additional volunteer help is manditory. The two leagues will play simultaneous schedules with the eight Little League teams playing as usual at the Little League Field and the senior league playing at Head Field.

Any men interested in coaching minor league, little league, or senior league should be at the meeting to apply for a coaching or manager position. Next year every father and mother of each player involved in the program will be expected to help with the execution of the activities in some manner. So if you wish to express an opinion concerning the Avon Park Little League total program, best be on hand at the meeting tonight at the Avon Park High School Auditorium.

Devils Tie In Jamboree

Coach Ralph Hill's Red Devil football squad held a couple of highly ranked pre-season teams to ties in the four-team jamboree played here at Memorial Field last Friday night. The Avon Park squad came from behind to tie 6-6 with the DeSoto High Bulldogs from Arcadia and then played to a scoreless tie with the Sebring Blue Streaks in the fourth and final quarter of action.

Sebring put the most points on the board when they racked up 19 points against Hardee High of Wauchula in the opening period. The spirited Wildcats couldn't score against the Streaks. In the third period Hardee held Arcadia scoreless until the final three minutes of the quarter when Frank Moseley ran a punt back some 75 yards for a touchdown and Dale Redden ran over the extra points to give Arcadia an 8-0 victory. Avon Park's lone score came on a 70-yard drive with Danny Lewis and Ricky Claitt moving the ball well on the ground. The touchdown was scored by end Marvin Jackson on an eight-yard pass from quarterback Buddy DeWitt. Nate Packer's try for the extra point kick was blocked. The Red Devil defense intercepted two passes in the two quarters of play to stop potential threats.

Coach Ralph Hill commented after the game that he felt the Devils had done well in most instances considering the fact that the defense had not worked as a unit before the jamboree. Hill also pointed out that the offense ran from quite a few formations for this early in the season.

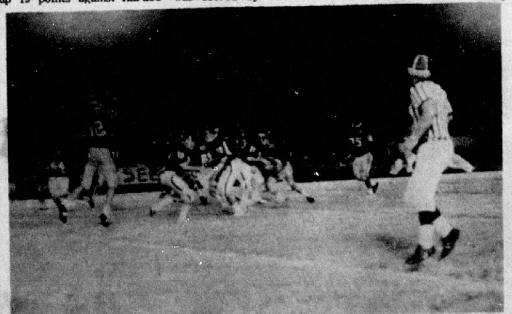

Sean Murphy, 196 pound senior tackle, was impressive in the two quarters of action for the Devils. Barnard Jackson saw some action at offensive guard after moving over from end when Ronnie Dick was sidelined last week. Greg Hartt played strictly offensive guard. Senior Tim DuPree was at center the first quarter and junior center Jamie Tomlinson came on in the fourth quarter when Jerry Robinson took over the quarterback slot from DeWitt.

Nate Williams looked good at tackle and linebacker, Jimmy Carter played some defensive tackle, and Steve Myers saw some action as a defensive guard. Newcomer Mike Pool, up from the jayvee team, got into the game and Dennis Avery played some defensive guard.

In the backfield on offense it was Buddy DeWitt at quarterback with William Burley at fullback, Rickey Claitt at halfback and Danny Lewis as a flankerback and halfback. Robinson spelled DeWitt in the final period.

On defense the backfield was filled with Timmy Massey, Lawrence McRae and Nate Williams at linebacker slots; Mickey Claitt and Mearl Robinson at halfback; and Danny Lewis at safety back. Nate Packer and Marvin

Chamber To Adopt Plan For Solicitation Control

A plan for solicitation control will be adopted by the Avon Park Chamber of Commerce as a membership service. This action was taken at the Board of Directors meeting held at the chamber office this past Thursday night.

A committee will be appointed by the Chamber to screen and approve of all solicitation in business firms that are members of the local Chamber of Commerce.

Many Chambers throughout the state are giving this service and a study is being made in regards to a solicitations control system that can be used as guide lines for implementing a program to serve local needs for Avon Park.

A called meeting of the Board of Directors was held Tuesday afternoon to work out further details concerning this system.

Other action taken at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors was for the chamber to host a reception for new school teachers which will embrace faculty members of the local public schools as well as South Florida Junior College. The date and place of this welcome reception will be announced later.

Commission Anticipates More Illegal Hunting

TALLAHASSEE—Increased vigilance, statewide, by wildlife officers of the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission will mark the opening of the marsh hen hunting on Sept. 1 in an effort to thwart the threat of deer poaching and other game violations.

The Commission anticipates an increase in illegal hunting activity in areas other than Florida's marshes and enforcement officers will be on accelerated patrol duty both day and night in wilderness area throughout the state.

The Commmission's Law Enforcement Chief, Brantley Goodson, does not expect excessive violations of marsh hen hunting laws or in the marsh hen areas but does anticipate that the opening gun of the 1973 hunting season will trigger an increase of illegal hunting in other areas.

Goodson said, "There has always been some increase of illegal hunting during the early fall months and we expect this type of action to accelerate this year due to a combination of food prices and beef shortage."

"We have already noted an increase in fire (night) hunting and feel this will increase as the hunting season draws near. With inflated food prices we expect increased market hunting activity which includes the sale of deer and other wildlife as well as rustled beef," Goodson reported.

The Commission has spent much of the summer preparing for the accelerated enforcement program. The addition of 17 wildlife officers authorized by the Florida Legislature plus six additional wildlife inspectors will enable the Commission to better combat the anticipated increase in hunting and fishing violations.

As the annual hunting season draws near Commission personnel normally assigned other duties will be assisting wildlife officers. This extra enforcement force includes fish and wildlife management personnel as well as information and education officers.

In discussing the increase in illegal hunting Goodson said, "There is always the unscrupulous individual that will kill wildlife by illegal methods for the purpose of selling such wildlife for a profit. We will make every effort to apprehend this individual and make the practice unprofitable; however, the enforcement officer needs the support of both the sportsman and citizen in discouraging market hunting activity."

Market hunting is not limited to deer and might include other wildlife and fresh water game fish. There is apparently established markets for species such as rabbit, raccoon, quail and migratory birds such as duck and coot. While some wildlife may be peddled from the trunk of an automobile in other areas, it is an under-the-counter sale in established markets.

The increase in Florida market hunting activity is not as high as that reported from other states. Colorado reported an increase of almost 95 per cent and Oklahoma indicates a statewide increase of 200 per cent.

Goodson expects the crucial period of game law violations to range between early September and the opening of the statewide hunting season on Nov. 10. The Nov. 10 opening signals the arrival of the legal hunter to Florida's forest and fields and the presence of sportsmen has a tendency to curtail the activity of the illegal hunter.

Commissioners Delay Decission On Landfill

The landfill long sought for Highlands County is available and although the price tag is more than a third of a million dollars, county commissioners are inclined to "take it while we can get it."

At its Sept. 4 meeting the commission opened the lone bid submitted for the landfill. For 170 acres, lying west of U.S. 27 between Lake Josephine and Josephine Creek, Consolidated - Tomoka Land Co. asked $2,100 per acre. The bid is subject to the site's being approved by state pollution control, health and any other agencies which exercise any regulation of sanitary landfills. The parcel is somewhat larger than the board had hoped to find, but Consolidated - Tomoka officials told Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens the company would not consider selling any less.

County Attorney R. P. Dunty, Jr. pointed out that the bid does not include the portion of Consolidated - Tomoka land fronting on U.S. 17. He said there would be some advantages to having this highway frontage and the commissioners agreed to inquire whether this property could be purchased along with the land in the original bid.

Commissioners said this week that the board has been seeking a landfill site for about three years. "If we have to condemn land I feel like a jury might wind up awarding more money than we are talking about in this bid," Commissioner Norman Heston said.

Relay a week

However, the commissioners unanimously supported Commissioner Ken Wilkinson's motion that action on the bid be tabled for a week. "I'd like to see how we are going to finance this," Wilkinson said.

The bid calls for a down payment of 29 per cent of the total purchase price and three equal installment payments.

The board has earmarked a portion of federal revenue sharing funds for purchase of a landfill to serve the entire county. In addition to land, the county will budget funds for fencing, some paving for access, and in a separate budget, equipment for landfill maintenance.

At the meeting this week Heston said the Sebring city dump now being used by the county will be filled "within six months and Avon Park will soon be exhausted too." Commissioner Buddy Wise said "Lake Placid has about a year to go."

Problems at Avon Park

Commissioner Mel Bass reported that new problems have arisen at the Avon Park dump by Pioneer Lake. He said that individuals are "coming into the back site of the dump and putting raw garbage along the outside of the fence."

Bass said a state pollution control officer had taken that same back road and "saw what was happening." The Avon Park commissioner suggested that the county "deputize someone to look into this and make an example of a few cases to put a stop to this mess."

Last week sheriff's deputies had spotted a trash - laden auto headed into the back road Bass had referred to, but when deputies followed the car the driver "kept right on going."

Planning Board

At the Sept. 4 meeting Highlands County commissioners granted a 90-day extension for Highlands County Planning and Zoning Commission to complete its revision of building and zoning regulations. Revision time which had been scheduled to run out Sept. 15.

The commissioners gave brief review to the proposed by-laws of a regional planning council. Commissioners noted, with approval, that Highlands and other central Florida counties participating in the council will have three members each on the planning board. "I'm glad to know we'll have equal voice with larger counties," Heston noted.

Other Business

—A request that the county accept maintenance for Hoyt Avenue in Oakland Subdivision (south of Sebring) was denied.

—A plat for Mir-Wood Estates (near Sun 'n Lake in south Highlands County) was accepted for recording.

—Ramer Street and parks in the old Tia Juana subdivision (off Old Desoto City Road) were officially vacated.

Track Team Preparing For Season

The Red Devil Cross Country team has been preparing for the 1973 season with practice starting on Aug. 15. The Red Devil's are defending State 2A Champions. the boys out have been running between 50 and 75 miles per week as they prepare for their season opener on Sept. 13 in the Tutusville Invitational in Titusville.

The 1973 squad of harriers is lead by tri-captains: James Brown, Reid Wall and Eugene Sneed. All three boys are senior lettermen who placed in the top ten in the State Cross Country Meet. James Brown is the state mile record holder and runner-up in the state two-mile run from this past track season. He finished 4th in last years state Cross Country meet held at Lake Worth. Reid Wall was the most improved distance runner on the Red Devil track team this past spring. Reid was 11th man in the State Cross Country Championship. Eugene Sneed was injured in a summer accident and is still questionable for this season. The senior runner placed 10th last season in the state meet and would be sorely missed by his teammates.

Larry Sneed and Raliegh Turnbull are two juniors who are showing great promise for the coming season. Turnbull has been an especially hard worker in practice sessions thus far. Coach Chet Brojek is counting heavily on top performances from these two juniors if the Devils are to repeat as State Champions. Turnbull lettered in both Cross Country and Track, while Sneed lettered in Track the past school year.

Leading the returning sophomores are Doug Fletcher, Frank Anderson and Walter Newton. These three will be counted on to add depth to the Red Devil squad. they are joined by many others. New members to the squad include Soph. Jerry Sensenig who has been running well. Junior Ricky Spurlock looks like a great prospect. senior Ken Collinsworth is also going to be quite helpful this season. Other returning team members from last year include Edward Moses, Jackie Roberts and Eward Jones. All three are experienced runners who could break into the top seven this years team. Eddie Williams and Eric Simpson may also take part in this fastest growing sport in the State of Florida.

Coach Brojek is hoping to have additional members added to the squad once the school year begins. He expressed the hope that he might pick up four or five members from the incoming Freshman class at Avon Park High. the Red Devil's will be outfitted in new running outfits this year. The new uniforms will be solid Red with white lettering.

Flood control districts

Well Drillers

The most immediate effect of the new legislation is on the well drillers, Polston said.

"It now requires a permit from the flood control district in West Palm Beach to drill any well over two inches in diameter," he said.

Implementation of the water resources act, according to a spokesman for the FCD is the "first big step" in providing Floridians with enough good water for coming generations. William Storch, director of resources planning for FCD, said the law establishes some important controls over the uses of water in order to protect "this vital natural resource."

Would eliminate abuses

"Once we know where the water is, who is using it and how, we can eliminate abuses and take some meaningful measures to see that our water supply does not dry up or become too polluted to use," Storch said.

The state legislature assigned the State Department of Natural Resources the job of learning the who, what, where, how and why of all water uses in the state. It established the water management districts to take care of most of the background work and to serve as watchdogs on the uses of water.

A Florida water plan will be prepared, whose purpose is to insure enough water for municipal, agricultural and environmental uses and to provide for protecting the quality of all state waters.

Proposed rules and regulations on water use permits now are being prepared. After preliminary approval by the FCD governing board, public hearings will be held to allow citizens throughout the district to voice their opinions.

The board will review the regulations again after the hearings and when final approval is given they will be forwarded to the DNR for its approval.

They are looking to Dec. 1 for full implementation of the law. The FCD is urging potential new users of water to check with the FCD to avoid conflicts with the act later.

Current water users will have two years from the effective date of the regulations in which to apply for a permit. Present FCD permit holders will be allowed to continue their water use, but must go through the formality of the receipt of a new permit.

SPECIAL DAY

Gov. Reubin Askew has proclaimed Saturday, Sept. 22, as Florida's Hunting and Fishing Day. In signing the proclamation, Governor Askew urged every Floridian to join with the sportsmen of Florida in a re-dedication to the wise use of natural resources for future generations.

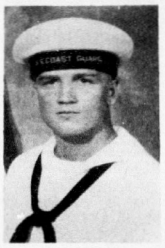

Devils

Jackson handled the end slots.

Not seeing action in the jamboree were Ronnie Dick, Leonard Green, and Bill Murphy, all out with injuries or illness, and Moses Anderson, Harry Stukes, Dennis Johns, and Marvin Williams.

The Red Devils worked out last Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons and will be hitting again today but will have only an early and short practice tomorrow (Friday) so some may go see opponents play in another jamboree. Next week it will be four days of practice and then the opening game here at Memorial Field on Friday night. Sept. 14, against Tri-County Conference foe Santa Fe of Lakeland.

Coach Hill reminds fans that there will not be a soap scrimmage game tomorrow night, Sept. 7, but urges everyone to pick up a season ticket before the opening game on Sept.14.

The Clay Hut To Observe Ceramic Week

JOHN ASTIN, star of stage, television and motion pictures, got his first opportunity to play a dual role in the CVD Studios production of "The Brothers O'Toole," a family-rated Western comedy being shown at the Hilans Theatre. The film will be presented for two days only—Friday (tomorrow) and Saturday. The film was made entirely on location amid the scenic splendor of Colorado.

The Clay Hut Ceramic Studio in conjunction with the National Ceramic Manufacturers Association has designated the week of September 10-15 as National Ceramic Week.

To kick off this week, The Clay Hut will be having a Ceramic Show and Open House on Sunday, Sept. 9, from 2-5 p.m. All present and former students of The Clay Hut have been invited to enter two finished pieces in the Ceramic Show. These pieces will be judged on workmanship, originality and beauty. One of the judges will be Mrs. Dorothy Burdick, nationally known instructor for Jacquelyn Ceramic Arts, Inc. Mrs. Burdick will also be demonstrating new techniques in Ceramics.

Sherry Statler, owner of The Clay Hut will also have many of her finished pieces on display.

The public is cordially invited to attend this Ceramic Show and Open House at the Clay Hut. The Clay Hut is located on Lakewood Road, two blocks off Highlands Hammock Road.

Blue - Pixler

No injuries were reported in a two-car accident that occurred at approximately 3:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 27. The accident happened when Sarah A. Blue, 49, was traveling west on Main St., attempted to make a left turn onto S. Verona Ave., and her vehicle was struck in the left side by a '70 Mercury operated by Dorothy J. Pixler, 73, of Avon Park. The Mercury sustained damages of $125, while the other vehicle, a '67 Plymouth, received damage estimated at $400. Patrolman Archie Hancock investigated the accident and filed no charges.

In a report filed by Patrolman Bob Oberther, his investigation disclosed that when Charles Klein, an attendant at the Hess Oil Station, went into the office of the station, at approximately 3:30 a.m. Sunday morning to deposit some money in the safe, he discovered that person (s) unknown had taken two bank deposit bags containing an estimated $1260.80 in cash. Klein told Oberther that the safe was left unlocked, with the door just pushed to, and that anyone could have taken the money. A search of the surrounding area failed to turn up any additional evidence.

Mrs. Louise McCall reported to police that sometime during the night of Aug. 27, person (s) unknown had taken a two-way radio antenna valued at $35 from a '72 Ford pick-up truck which was parked at the railroad depot. The incident is being investigated by Officer Clifford Godfrey.

-o-

No charges were filed in a minor accident which occurred at the intersection of Castle and Delaney Ave., at approximately 12:20 p.m. Tuesday, Aug. 28. Patrolman LeRoy Prevatt stated that both vehicles were traveling west on E. Castle St. and they stopped for a stop sign at the intersection. A '71 Oldsmobile, operated by Donald Simmons, backed up and struck a '71 Chevy that was driven by Lorris Earl Welch. The Chevrolet sustained damage estimated at $50 while the Olds had no damage.

-o-

Investigation by Officer Lenard Clark disclosed that Hazel Morrill, operating a '70 Plymouth, was attempting to park near the intersection of S. Lake Ave. and E. Main St. and while doing so struck a '70 Pontiac being driven by James Anderson, who was just pulling away from the curb parking space. No injuries were reported in the accident; however, total damage to both vehicles was estimated at $500.

-o-

In a parking lot accident at the football game Friday night, David Louie Smith's '73 Ford truck sustained approximately $90 damage when an unknown vehicle struck the right door and left the scene. Bob Oberther is investigating.

-o-

Isoide Buxbaum, 20, was cited for following too closely as the result of a minor accident at the intersection of S. Verona and E. Main at approximately 9:15 p.m. Friday night. The accident occurred as Mearl Robinson was traveling east on Main St. in a '71 Chevrolet and was attempting to make a right turn onto S. Verona Ave. and was struck in the rear by the Pontiac. Officer Bob Oberther investigated and stated that no injuries were sustained.

-o-

Investigation by Patrolman George Champion revealed that as Harry E. Rice was traveling east on Main St. near Railroad Ave. he attempted to change lanes and pulled into the path of Terry Akin who was operating a '71 Olds and also traveling in the same direction. The Rice vehicle, a '67 Chevrolet, had damage estimated at $200, while the Oldsmobile received damage of approximately $150. Mr. Rice was issued a citation for improper change of lanes.

Franklin Lastinger failed to yield right of way, forfeited $52.

Migel Angel Cabrera ran red light, forfeited $27.

Kathryn Robinson, no driver's license, fined $52.

James T. Bain, reckless driving, fined $102.

Gary Prescott, unlawful speed, fined $27.

Horace Dale Harvard, unlawful speed, fined $27.

Thomas John Culbertson, careless driving, fined $27.

Lonnie Cruse, assault, fined $102.

Terry K. Fleck, disorderly intoxication, forfeited $27.

Florence Bullerd, shoplifting, fined $102.

Bernard Cornett, disorderly intoxication, fined $27.

Johnnie Lee Byrd, fighting, forfeited $37.

Raymond Curry Jr., fighting, forfeited $37.

On Wednesday evening it did not rain so the winners in the shuffling tournament were Bernice Long and Floyd Stevens over Clay Kull and Herman Wurster. Consolation winners were Grace Romilly and Bob McBeth, with Martha McBeth and Ota Gibson the runners-up. There were nine courts in competition.

On Saturday evening nine and half courts of folks started to play when the rain came down gently.

Twelve folks played pinochle on both Monday and Friday afternoons. High scores went to Herman Wurster 701, Sarah Spindler 667, Bill Klenk 671 and Sheila Wurster 658.

Returning this past week were Helen Baker from a six-week vacation in Iowa and Toledo. Agness Dentler spent six weeks in Iowa, Ann Arbor and Detroit, Mich. They travelled together and had a wonderful trip both ways.

For their 50th anniversary Estelle and Walter Swyers spent a week of surprises, parties, calls, gifts and so many cards. They enjoyed every remembrance, and every day was a joy. They are looking forward to their return to Avon Park.

In a note from Flora Hoppe she says she is having a wonderful time this summer, what with having folks in for lunch and being invited out. One day there was a family reunion with 61 present. That is always a fun day. But she says she doesn't plan on coming to Avon Park this winter as she has no place to stay. Anyone know of a place for Flora? She also says how much she enjoys the Sun with its news of the Winter Guests.

Ray and Lois Johnson report a bit of cooler weather in Nobel, Canada, with the fireplace going in the mornings. Fishing isn't good.

When it rains and interrupts the tournaments in shuffling, the Wednesday evening tournament will be held on Thursday mornings at nine. The Saturday evening tournament will be held on Monday mornings

Last Saturday's tournament was held on Monday morning with the following results; Bernice Long and Lloyd Young won in the main with Allene Howard and Paul Manegold coming in second. In consolation the winners were Howard Long and Herman Wurster with Chris Steen and James Chamberlain the runners-up.

NEW COVERAGE

All companies writing automobile insurance in the State of Florida must, on Oct. 1, under a new law, offer uninsured motorist coverage to their policyholders. The amount of coverage must be equal to the bodily injury limits that each policyholder chooses to carry.

Shower At Florida Power Lounge Honors Linda Bonnett

Miss Linda Bonnett, bride-elect of Kim Shaw was honored with a kitchen shower at the Florida Power Lounge on Thursday evening, Aug. 30. The hostesses, Miss Lynn Camp, Mrs. Kathleen Johnson and Mrs. Paula Nicholas, presented the bride-elect a corsage of mums which complimented her floor length gown of hot pink. Mothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. Charles Bonnett and Mrs. Julia Shaw were also presented corsages.

White lace-trimmed cloths covered the refreshment and gift tables. An arrangement of roses in a milk-glass compote centered the refreshment table, flanked by the punch bowl surrounded with mums and greenery. On the opposite end, guests were served from a double wedding-ring effect cake, adorned with a bride towering over. Pastel mints and assorted nuts were served along with the refreshments.

The hostesses presented Linda with a set of Corning Ware for her new home. Among the guests attending was the grandmother of the bride-elect, Mrs. W. P. Martin.

Linda and Kim will be wed this Saturday evening at the First United Methodist Church, at 8 p.m.

Couple To Wed This Saturday

The marriage of Miss Linda Bonnett and Kim Shaw will be solemnized this Saturday, Sept. 8, at the First United Methodist Church, Avon Park. The Rev. Bentley A. Williamston will perform the ceremony at 8 p.m.

Linda is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bonnett, and Kim's parents are Mrs. Julia Shaw and Mr. Charles Shaw, all of Avon Park.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend both the ceremony and reception, which will follow immediately in [illegible] Hall at the Church.

Picture Of Average Consumer Is Not True

Many people paint the average consumer as young, lovely, brilliantly happy, intelligent, fluent, interesting, socially active and sophisticated. That is not the total picture.

Twice as many are over 44 as under 35. Eleven million are widowed or divorced. One-third are working outside their home. And millions are poor.

The average shopper likes to shop on weekends and [illegible] only two or three stores. But she grumbles about waiting at the checkout counter and tends to rate the store by its quality of meats, its produce and the bag boy's courtesy.

Over 60 percent no longer make shopping lists. And those who do seldom use them. They usually wind up with more things which weren't on the list than were on it.

She goes to the supermarket three times a week, spends about 27 minutes and has a family income in the neighborhood of $120 per week. According to a survey, she prefers cents—off promotions to any other kind. She also reads the labels and is satified with what she finds on them.

In the case of non-prescription medicines, for example, 77 per cent are satified with the direction and only four per cent feel that they need more information.

Surveys also show the average consumer is concerned with status symbols and takes pride in talking about having bought the very newest thing–whether it is a washing machine or a new brand of orange juice.

For instance, when instant coffee was introduced, psychological experts predicted housewifely resistance. But they were wrong.

She passes about 4,000 items in 12 minutes which is roughly 333 items per minute. A decision to buy must be made within one-fifth of a second.

While she may appear to be a troubled stranger in paradise, she is a prowling computer and a bargain hunter with razor sharp senses.

And list or no list, she is much more sophisticated than her mother was 30 years ago. Thus, she has—and will—press for better products and service.

SMOKING PARENTS

Children want their parents to kick the cigarette habit. Now. A University of Louisville study of 2,000 children showed an astounding finding. Of those aged 7 to 12, some 72 per cent said they would love their parents more if they stopped smoking.

Miss Baerman Honored With Shower At Turner Home

Miss Robin Baerman, bride-elect of Charles (Butch) Snelgrove was honored at a miscellaneous bridal shower on Aug. 30, at the Lake Lillian home of Mrs. Art Turner. The bride-elect was presented a pink rose corsage, complimenting her pink print dress, while her grandmother, Mrs. Lyle Trotter and Mrs. Charles Snelgrove, mother of the bridegroom-elect, were presented with red rose corsages.

A floor-length pink and white cloth covered the refreshment table centered with a gorgeous arrangement of roses. Nuts, mints, open-face sandwiches and petits'fours' decorated in the bride's colors were served along with a tasty pink punch. Beautiful arrangements of roses were at vantage points throughout the party rooms.

Peggy Snelgrove, sister of the bridegroom-elect and Wendy Jordan helped with the opening and recording of her many gifts.

The hostesses, Ophelia Rihner, Silda Murphy, Peggy Wells, Dorothy Adkins, Sharmon Duhm, Betty Lou Wells, Jane Wells, Mildred Gay and Marva Turner, presented the bride-elect with an electric mixer.

Robin and Butch will be wed on Saturday, Sept. 15, at the First Baptist Church.

JILL STONE, bride-elect of Ray Culpepper, beams with delight as she opens gift at bridal shower honoring her on Aug. 28 at Wesley Hall. Ready for more gifts for her are mothers of the bridal couple, Mrs. Boswell D. Stone and Mrs. James Culpepper. - Photo by Sharpe

Phillips' Host Tri- State Picnic

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin W. Phillips of Millersburg, Ind. were host to a Tri-state picnic, (Michigan, Ohio and Indiana) of folks that wintered at Sunny Ridge Trailer Park in Avon Park, during August.

Attending from Michigan were Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Brewer and Mr. and Mrs. Al Harrison; from Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. G. Lautzenhieser, Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wood from Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. H. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNulty. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Johnson from Avon Park.

A nice time was had by all, even though a lesser crowd was present than anticipated, due to a lot of illness. Plans have been made for the next picnic to be held in Bowling Green, Ohio.

Jill Stone Feted With Bridal Shower At Wesley Hall

Miss Jill Stone, bride-elect of Ray Culpepper, was the honoree at a miscellaneous bridal shower on Tuesday evening, Aug. 28, at Wesley Hall. Jill was presented with a corsage of red roses upon arrival by the hostesses, which complimented her white double knit A-line dress.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace, and held a centerpiece of pastel roses. Twin candelabras were on either side of centerpiece. A lime punch was served with cake squares decorated in the bride's colors, along with nuts and mints.

Potted green palms decorated the party room, with one single red rose bud adorning the table where Miss Linda Bonnett and Miss LuAnne Johnston Kept the bride's book.

Helping Jill open, record and display her many gifts on lace covered gift tables adorned with a bridal umbrella accented with pink flowers, were Beth Ferguson and Michelle Walker, niece of the bridegroom-elect from Sebring.

The hostesses, who presented Jill with a toaster, were Mesdames Richard Derkman, Cecil Ferguson, I. H. Ford, Earl Rich, O. F. Laye, M. B. Dick and Solveig Gerrard.

Jill and Ray will be wed on Wednesday, Sept. 19, at the First United Methodist Church at 5 p.m.

Morman Church Workers Are Here From Utah

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, commonly known as the Morman Church, have a program, where they will give free of charge to any public or school library, four of their best books. These are special hard bound library editions and have to be requested by the librarian or principal, through the missionaries in their area.

The books are "The Book of Mormon", "Articles of Faith", "A Marvelous Work and a Wonder" and "The Essentials in Church History." The First Presidency of the Church are doing this, to help people who are interested in different religions, or learning about the restoration of the true gospel of Jesus Christ, to the earth and what they teach, may have an opportunity to get this information through these books.

Elder and Sister Lee arrived in this area from Salt Lake City, Utah in June, and have been working in Highlands County, knocking on doors and talking to people to acquaint them with the teachings of the church. They will be happy to come and present their program or talk to, or present film strips or all three, to any group or church or club or Person or family at any time. Please contact them at Rt. 1, Box 805, Avon Park, Fla., 33825, or call 385-3819, early or late.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints hold services in Wauchula, in the old Wauchula hotel on 5th Ave., and in the American Legion Hall in Sebring on N. Pine St. They hold Sunday School at 10:30 a.m. at both places, and hold a combined Sacrament meeting at Wauchula at 5 p.m. on Sunday. The public is cordially invited at either meeting.

Relief Society of the Church is held on each Tuesday in Sebring at 10 a.m., at 442 SE Lakeview Drive. Here interesting lessons are taught to the mothers to help them in many areas of their home life to become better mothers and wives, and many other interesting and useful things. All women are invited.

New Opportunities For The Concerned Parents

Parents who have children with learning disabilities and-or behavior problems will be able to learn about new opportunities in Highlands County schools at a meeting of concerned parents.

Dennis H. Ehrhardt, consultant, specific learning disabilities, education for Exceptional Children in Highlands County schools, will be present to discuss and answer questions concerning programs in each local school for children who are not performing on their age level and-or have behavior problems. This meeting will take place at 8 p.m. on Sept. 13 at St. Agnes Episcopal Church, 660 NW Lakeview Drive.

This program is being sponsored by the Highlands County Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. The association is composed of parents who have children with learning disabilities and-or behavior problems and professionals such as pediatricians, psychologists, clergymen, etc.

The association will present four programs during the school year on various areas affecting children or youth who have learning disabilities and-or behavior problems. The purpose of the association is "to advance the education and general welfare of children and youth of normal or above normal intelligence who have learning disabilities or related problems."

This purpose shall be implemented by: promoting better understanding of learning disabilities among educators, doctors, parents and the general public; furnishing information through the public libraries with reprints of articles and by workshops and seminars; helping parents find appropriate diagnostic help; and stimulating public and private school procedures and programs which meet the needs of learning disabled children.

"Consumers Ask"

Question: How do I know just what ingredients are used in frankfurters? Do they all contain about the same thing?

Answer: As with other foods, read the table of contents listed on the label to know which ingredients are used. However, a new USDA regulation, which applies to frankfurters and bologna, becomes effective on September 7, 1973. It designates labeling of three types of cooked sausages.

First, those labeled frankfurters and bologna shall contain only skeletal meat (which can be up to 15 per cent chicken) and the normal ingredients such as water, sweeteners, and curing substances.

The second type are products which contain meats from only one particular source. This source is identified by the name on the label, for example, "beef frankfurters".

The third type contain skeletal meats, normal processing ingredients and meat by-products, for example, hearts, tongues, etc. This type product must be distinctly labeled to reflect ingredients, for example, "frankfurters with by-products" or "franks with variety meats".

Question: D Do you have to be a full-time student at a four-year college in order to qualify for a low-cost Federally Insured Guaranteed student loan?

Answer: In Florida you need not be a full-time student to qualify for this type loan. However, some states do require that you be a full-time student.

Eligible educational institutions not only include regular colleges and universities, but many vocational, technical, business, trade and correspondence schools—some foreign schools as well. In all, some 8,300 schools, colleges, and universities are in the program.

Question: I bought a new car in 1972. I was to pay for the car over a period of two years. After 10 months I had to refinance it. I still owe $1,500 on the car. I refinanced it for two more years. They charged me $330 for carrying charges. I believe they are over-charging me. What can I do?

Answer: Legally, they have not overcharged you. When you refinanced your car it was no longer considered new, since you had driven it for 10 months. Your car, therefore, fell into class 2 of the Florida Motor Vehicle Sales Finance Act. This act says that for used cars which are not over two years old the ceiling on finance charges is $11 per $100 of original debt. You refinance $1,500. Therefore, for financing you may be charged up to $165 for one year. For two years it is 2 x $165 - $330.

It is wise to shop carefully for credit since charges often vary from one source to another. Many places extend credit at rates considerably below the legal ceiling set by Florida Law.

Question: Is there any way I can trade in my used mobile home as a downpayment on a new, larger one, if I finance it through an FHA approved lender?

Answer: The Department of Housing and Urban Development has decided in cases of Federally Insured Loans to permit used mobile homes to be traded in as a downpayment on a new one. However, the old home's trade-in value (based on blue book ratings) must be at least equal to or greater than the minimum downpayment HUD's definition of the downpayment remains the same: Five per cent of the first $6,000 of the total cost of the mobile home, plus 10 per cent of any amount of any over $6,000.

On a single unit mobile home, the greatest amount that can be borrowed is $10,000 with up to 12 years to repay the loan. On a two or more unit mobile home you can borrow up to $15,000 with up to 15 years to repay the loan.

Any prospective mobile homeowner may apply at a bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or finance company which is an FHA approved lender.

For further information which will help you with your consumer problems, write to "Consumer Information", Extension Home Economics, University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida 32611, or contact your local County Extension Home Economics Agent.

SHERWIN MACKINTOSH

Mackintosh Returns Home From Ohio

Sherwin MacKintosh, son of Mrs. Elizabeth MacKintosh of 1103 W. Circle St., Avon Park, has returned home after working in Cleveland, Ohio during the summer months.

Sherwin will attend a three-day seminar at the University of Florida in Gainesville, and then will be home for three weeks before returning to the University.

EARL MIXON

Mixon Completes Training

Earl Mixon, a 1973 graduate of Avon Park High School has completed his training at Lackland Air Force Base, June 21, and finished his six weeks training by August 6.

While stationed at Lackland, Earl was road guard. He is now squad leader, stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base, near Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mixon was employed at Wells Motor Company in Avon Park for a year, but now plans to make a career in the Air Force, in Aircraft Maintenance. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hayward Watson of Avon Park.

Scott To Direct Workshop

Laymen, Sunday School teachers, Ministers, and Christian Education directors, are invited to attend "A Creative Resources Workshop" on Sept. 8, which is a Saturday between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

The Workshop is sponsored by the Lake Byrd Book Store and will be held at the Union Congregational Church which is located at Church Street and Forest Avenue, in Avon Park.

Bill Scott, director of Creative Resources, Waco, Texas, will conduct the Workshop. During the three hour session, Mr. Scott will direct a series of learning experiences from the Serendipity books created by Lyman Coleman.

You can test the validity of the materials with your own involvement. Mr. Scott will also demonstrate the dynamics of the total learning experience through the use of the exciting medium of cassette tapes.

This Workshop could be that "something new" for which you have been looking. A $3 registration fee per person will be payable at the door. This fee covers materials that you can take with you and use for weeks to come in developing your own educational programs.

Please, mark this date on your personal calendar and then spread the word to others you may know who are looking for that "innovative" something to aid them in their Christian Education programs.

Grand Opening At McDonald's Saturday

Ronald McDonald will arrive by helicopter with helium balloons, hand puppets and McDonaldland posters for all the children as Sebring's and Highlands County's first McDonald's Restaurant holds its grand opening Sept. 8.

Ronald, one of THE McDonalds, will be dressed as a clown. He will meet and greet all his young friends from 1 to 6 p.m.

Ribbon cutting ceremonies will be conducted at 11 a.m. and the restaurant, U.S. 27 South, Sebring, by Wes Ward, WJCM radio. Among those attending will be Sebring Mayor Eugene Sauls and Robert Skipper, chairman of the board of Highlands County Commission.

Labor Day Weekend Bloody

The Labor Day weekend in Highlands county was a bloody one with 13 accidents Sept. 1-3, including two at Bair's Den Monday. Six persons were injured, all out of county.

The Florida Highway Patrol investigated six accidents Monday, two of them at the Bairs Den, but with no persons suffering serious injury; four accidents Saturday, one person injured and three accidents Sunday, with five persons injured.

This compares to only two accidents and no injuries for the 1972 Labor Day weekend. There were no accidents in Sebring; Police Chief Bob Broadbent reported, noting that his men have been "enforcing right and left."

Phillips

William Phillips, 18, of Avon Park damaged his Porsche convertible aan estimated $5,000 in the week's most spectacular accident and he and a companion, who had safety harnesses fastened, were uninjured. A Sebring girl who did not was thrown out.

Phillips, northbound at 1 a.m. Aug. 30 on S17, four miles north of Sebring near Salvador Avenue was traveling too fast to make the turn. He hit several mailboxes, ran 186 feet and became airborne, going end over end at least one complete turn, landed on the wheels, traveled 80 feet, was airborne again, cleared a four-foot chain link fence and hit two oak trees.

Florida Highway Patrol Trooper J. E. Vann estimated he was going between 80 and 90 miles per hour. He was charged with driving while intoxicated. In the car with Phillips were Judy Lewallen, [illegible] of Sebring who was injured [illegible] transfered to Winter [illegible] and Joseph Murphy, 18, of Avon Park.

Tubbs - Shannon

Linda Ruth Tubbs, 19, of Sebring was charged with careless driving after an intersection accident at 9:22 a.m. Aug. 28 at NE Lakeview Drive and Grove Road. With Miss Tubbs was Doug Sanders, 19, of Sebring. The car was owned by Leon Tubbs. Cpl. Mike Carr of Sebring police estimated damage to the Tubbs car at $600 and to the car of Lottie Ownes Shannon, 40, of Sebring at $200.

Doyle - Thiele

Jimmie Doyle, 27, of Sebring was charged with failure to yield after an accident at 4:55 p.m. Aug. 31 at Highland and West Jackson. Patrolman Canoy estimated damage to her car at $450 and to that of Kathleen Thiele, 22, of Sebring at $400.

Gill - Gustat

En route to check a breaking and entering report, Patrolman Steven Gustat of Sebring police at 4:03 a.m. Aug. 29, turned off his police cruiser lights on Center St., so as to not alert any suspects. But he ran into the unoccupied car of Ted Gill of Sebring at Pine and Center. Damage to the Gill car was estimated at $200 and to the cruiser, $200. There were no charges. FHP Trooper C. B. Wells investigated.

Mrs. Walton Speaks To Rotary

For the last meeting in August Program Chairman Charles Collins brought Francis Walton of the United Telephone Company with a presentation of "Courtesy Procedures" with the use of the telephone.

Francis told the Rotarians that the way a person answers and uses the telephone gives the caller a distinct impression of the individual, family or of a business company. Courtesy in the use of the telephone is much the same as courtesy with individuals talking face to face.

To illustrate the point a movie entitled "Your Voice is Showing" was used to show the effects of both desirable and undesirable telephone procedures and mannerisms.

In a question and answer session it was pointed out that in direct dialing sometimes there is no ring on the called party's phone. This may be the result of equipment problems, inasmuch, as the original direct dial equipment was installed in 1959. Subsequential additional equipment has been modified and in some cases later modified equipment has been installed with modified equipment.

With the present telephone equipment it is now possible to make direct dial business calls from one's home or other phone. New equipment being worked on will eliminate this feature in that such calls would then have to go through an operator. It would also eliminate some of the calls being charged to your phone number and being made by someone else.

Charges made to some other phone number are so numerous that the Ft. Myers telephone office has 20 girls assigned to the job of trying to properly place the charges for these calls. The charges that cannot be properly placed are absorbed by the phone company which in turn leads to higher phone rates for everyone.

Indicative that the times are changing is that women have gone to jobs with the telephone company other than that of operator, for example: female switchman and others. But then the next time a man answers the telephone operator trying to help you get your call through.

Carlton Elected Director

Doyle E. Carlton Jr., prominent Wauchula businessman, rancher and former state senator, has been elected a director of the United Telephone Company of Florida, the company announced.

In addition to business interests in the cattle and citrus industries, Carlton serves as chairman of the board of Havatampa Cigar Corporation in Tampa.

Jackson Remains Undefeated

The standings stayed almost the same during the last two weeks of play in the Avon Park Slow-Pitch Softball League with Jackson's winning three to remain undefeated at the top with a 15-0 record through last Monday night's play.

Avon Paint and Body Shop won three and dropped one to stay in second place with a 10-4 mark. The Episcopal Church "Godfathers" moved up into third place with three wins for a 9-5 record and a rained-out game to make-up. The First Baptist team dropped into fourth place perhaps because of two make-up games to be played as they won one and lost one for an 8-5 record.

Fifth place was held down by A.P.C.I. with an 8-6 record and a make-up game to be played. Coca Cola moved into sixth place with a record of 6 sins and 7 losses and a rained-out game to be played. The Air Force team was 6-8 after Aug. 20 and Blackman Ford was 5-9 needing one make-up. Sears was 3-12 and Jahna Concrete stayed in tenth place with a perfect 0-14 record.

Jackson's defeated Coca Cola 20-1, Jahna Concrete 53-4, and Sears 9-2 for its three victories. Avon Body Shop won over Jahna Concrete 9-0 (forfeit), A.P.C.I. 5-4, Air Force 11-4, and lost to Blackman Ford 13-5. First Baptist won over Sears 9-8 and lost to the Godfathers 13-6. The Godfathers defeated Sears 9-0 (forfeit), Jahna Concrete 9-0 (forfeit), and First Baptist. A.P.C.I. defeated Jahna Concrete 28-1 and Sears 8-6. Air Force won over Blackman Ford 9-4. Coca Cola beat Blackman Ford 10-9. Blackman Ford defeated Sears 16-10 and Avon Body Shop 13-5.

Last Monday nights games were both rained out. Last Tuesday night Coca Cola was to play Avon Body Shop and Jahna was to take on the Air Force team. Tonight (Thursday) A.P.C.I. will play First Baptist at 7 p.m. and Jackson will play the second place Avon Body Shop at 8:30 p.m. Tomorrow night the Godfathers are to play Air Force and Coca Cola will tackle Sears. Next Monday night it will be the Godfathers against Jackson's and Blackman Ford against Jahna Concrete.

ORDINANCE NO. 359

AN ORDINANCE TO ANNEX WITHIN THE CITY THE WEST HALF OF THE NORTHWEST QUARTER OF THE NORTHWEST QUARTER OF SECTION 27, TOWNSHIP 33 SOUTH, RANGE 28 EAST

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Avon Park having been petitioned by James H. Andrews Ltd., the sole owner of approximately twenty acres contiguous to the southwest corner of said City, for inclusion of that tract within the City, as particularly described below, and it appearing the best interest of the City would be served by extending the area of the City to include this parcel of land because it would tend to square up the southwest corner of the City, and would include a newly planned development within the City's regulation before development begins.

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the City of Avon Park as follows:

Section 1. The limits of the City of Avon Park are extended to include the following described tract of land, to-wit:

The West half of Government Lot 4, Section 27, Township 33 South, Range 28 East, said Government lot 4 being the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 27, Township 33 South, Range 28 East situated in Highlands County, Florida.

Section 2. The limits of the City of Avon Park, Florida, are hereby re defined as follows:

Pvt. Ferguson Graduates From Basic Training

Private Richard Ferguson is home on leave after graduating from Basic Training, Aug. 23 at Fort Knox, Ky.

Richard's mother, Mrs. Donna Ferguson, flew up to Louisville to attend graduation exercises. Donna's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Steitz, drove down from Ohio to attend their grandson's graduation.

Richard flew home with his mother to Avon Park, and after a 13-day leave, will go to Fort Eliss, Texas, where he will be stationed.

Food Prices Up All Over World

A recent report by the Foreign Agricultural Service shows that food prices rose 243% in Chile last year alone.

In other countries, 1972 food prices were up 6.7% in Canada, 7.4% in the United Kingdom, 11.3% in Ireland, and 4.3% in the United States.

In Japan, where food prices are higher than those throughout most of the world, the increase was only 3.7%

HIGHLANDS COUNTY was well represented at a recent Extension Homemakers Council at the University of Florida in Gainesville. The ladies are, from left, Betty Bolin, Sebring; Mamie Kate Oxer, Venus; Jan Cole, Shirley Pryor, Faye Nelson and Jackie Jenkins, Lake Placid; and Margaret Bush, Avon Park. Jo Townsend, extension home economics agent, was present for the council meeting but not for the picture. The 49th Annual Extension Homemakers Council was built around the theme, "Today's Emerging Woman." The ladies attended workshops in family life, health, cultural arts and leadership. After receiving training in these areas each will conduct programs throughout Highlands County.

Chamber Reviews Past Activities

This past year the Chamber of Commerce sponsored, directed, organized, programed and participated in the largest Christmas Parade ever before staged in the city of Avon Park. Over fifty units and two bands took part in this affair and it was the biggest turnout in history. The Chamber selected and decorated for the city street Christmas displays. Also contacted several business concerns and were able to get them to add to their outside lighting and decorations. Assisted in sponsoring of competition for home outside Christmas decorations.

Updated, had published and issued largest city map ever to be printed. Furnished the City, and delivered to majority of business concerns, these maps.

Spearheaded-raised money and had planted 75 trees and bushes in Mall. Also cooperated with the Grange in planning of "putting more color" into the Mall by way of flower beds, etc.

Conducted "Get out and Vote" program for past City election. Painted signs on business windows, used news media, and direct telephone contact to implement this.

Held meetings which were open to public concerning City and County Zoning, Beautification of City, Telephone service, get Acquainted with New Business in City, and Chamber of Commerce Program of work.

Work toward securing better bus and freight service for City.

Assisted in getting county to purchase land for purpose of building for County Offices located in Avon Park. Appointed committee to work with commissioners on design and plans for this building.

A Chamber representative has attended every County Commissioner weekly meeting since March of this year, thus making an effort for closer communication with county officials and attempt to be better informed on county's activities and needs.

Hosted banquet that received "Best Ever" raves from everyone that attended. One hundred and fifty were in attendance.

Instrumental in getting lights installed at end of North Lake Ave. and intersection of State Road 64 and SR 17.

Compiled and issued Industrial Information of Avon Park, General Information, Fact Cards, Pictorial Folders, Listing of Churches, civic Organizations, (Officers, Meeting Dates, Mailing Addresses) Business Directory of Chamber members, and the History of Avon Park.

Act as daily rental service by taking listing and description of all available rentals called into Chamber office. Assist walk in traffic and mail requests in getting permanent and temporary housing.

Many projects have not been publicized because they are still in the planning stages and the committees have not finalized their program.

In addition to above items listed, the Chamber gives written and office information service pertaining to our city, county, and state. As many as 75 visitors daily have been served by our office plus local and long distance telephone calls and daily mail.

The Chamber business member firms on their employment needs and operates a bad check alert system on notice from the Sheriff's Department.

The above are merely highlights of routine activities for the past year.

Methodist Women Hold First Fall Meeting Tuesday

The United Methodist Women held their first Fall meeting, Tuesday morning, Sept. 4, in Wesley Hall. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Edgar Smoot.

Mrs. Solveig Gerrard gave the devotions, after which Mrs. Hubert Bussard presented Mr. George Douglass, County Superintendent of Public Instruction, who gave a most interesting and informative talk on Public Education. A question period followed.

At the business meeting that followed, it was announced that the Methodist Women would host a District Workshop, Nov. 3, from 3 until 6:30 p.m.

Dalton Is Studing In England

Joe Dalton, son of Col. and Mrs. H. G. Dalton, has reported on lots of interesting trips while living in London, studying with the Florida State London Study Center.

The Sophomore left June 16 with a group of 52 students from Florida State University, and will be in London through December, living at the Monark Hotel.

On the weekend of 17th of August, he was a guest at "Winstable", home of Mayor and Mrs. Kenny in Kensington, England. Joe has visited the Houses of Parliament on the River Thames, the "old Roman Baths" at Bath, England; Buckingham Palace, and spent some time at Stonehenge.

They rented a car in Brussels, touring Germany, Switzerland and France. He has visited the Arc De Triomphe, La Madeleine, Notre-Dame, Le Louvre, the Pantheon, Obelisque, Palais De Chaillot, Hotel-De-Ville, Eiffel Tower, and the graves of Voltaire, Napolean Bonaparte, and Rousseau just to name a few.

Joe said he must have walked over a hundred miles while touring, but he enjoyed every minute of it. He is having an exciting and educational trip, while also making good grades. Joe said some of the places he has visited were so beautiful, just breath-taking, and he was unable to find pictures to show the true beauty of the places.

Adult Registration Open Until Sept. 10 At Junior College

Adults may still register for any non-college credit class that has openings through Sept. 10 at South Florida Junior College, or at any of the classes off campus.

Classes with openings at the SFJC campus in Avon Park include Fundamentals of Drawing and Painting, Typing, Business Law, Shorthand, Salesmanship, English, Developmental Reading, French, G.E.D. Prep., Nurse Aide, Clothing Construction, General and Business Math, Ecology, Biology, General Science and American History.

Classes at Sebring High School with openings include Fundamentals of Drawing and Painting, Carpentry Blueprint Reading and Woodworking. Classes at Sebring Middle School still available are Clothing Construction and Black History.

Any adult 16 years or older is eligible for these classes and information as to costs and nights offered may be secured by calling 453-6661 in Avon Park.

A course in American Negro History will be offered on Monday evenings beginning Sept. 10 at the Sebring Middle School in Sebring.

This course will be taught by Orbia Hill, curricula coordinator at the middle school. The course will cover all phases of Black History, and should be of interest to a great number of people.

Cost for this program is a $3 fee plus books. Any person desiring to register should do so at the registration office at South Florida Junior College during the week of Aug. 27 through 30 during the day time hours, and Aug. 27 and 28 in the evening from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Any person desiring further information should contact the Adult Education Office at South Florida Junior College, 453-6661.

Real Estate Law Course To Be Offered At SFJC

For the first time, South Florida Junior College will offer a course in real estate law to assist people in preparing for the state real estate salesman examination. This is a program intended to prepare persons for the exam that is taken by those persons who have already had the real estate principles and practices course.

This program will be instructed by Edgar Dickerson, a registered real estate broker, who has had experience in the Broward County area in teaching the real estate law course. The cost for this program is $20 and any person who has had real estate principles and practices I may enroll for the program.

Persons desiring futher information may contact the adult education division of South Florida Junior College in Avon Park, 453-6661.

Ecology Course To Be Offered

The Adult Education Division of South Florida Junior College will offer Ecology and the Environment during the fall 1973 semester. This is an introductory course in environmental science designed to acquaint the layman with the ecosystems of this area and some of the environmental problems brought on by technological changes and urbanization.

Topics covered will include: An Introduction to Ecology, Pesticides, Radioactive Waste, Air and Water Pollution, Human Populations, and Agricultural Environments.

Ecology and the Environment will begin Sept. 5 and meet at 7 p.m. each Wednesday for 15 weeks. Larry Hooper will be the instructor.

AFTER VISITING the classroom building, English Professors Don Cowart, Wauchula, and Caroline Peacock, Belzoni, Miss., pause to look at one of the paperback English textbooks they will be using this semester. Majoring in English, Caroline received her B.A. degree from the University of Southern Mississippi, Hattiesburg, Miss., and earned her Master of Arts degree at Southeastern Louisiana, Hammond, La. Caroline joins the teaching staff at South Florida Junior College after having taught English at Valley Forge Academy at Amite, La.

☆ Make a Wish ... ☆

FOR HIS FUTURE

A birthday party really thrills the children, and probably the climax comes when they blow out the candles, and make a wish. His wish would probably be for a bright shiny new toy, but you as a parent would wish for him the things that really count, such as good health, happiness, friends and along with these deeper and more serious things should be a prayer for him to have the right interest and relationship to God. You can help these things by taking him to church

Questions And Answers

Could you tell me who are the "Brides Class" or the "Little Flock" and what are their duties, if any? - Mrs. R. S.

Dear friend: These two names apply to the same group of people. It is to be remembered the "Brides Class" or the "Little Flock" are few in number when compared to the population of the earth.

Do you know the entire Gospel Age was set aside by God?

"God at first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for His name." (Act-S15:14) "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom" (Luke 12:32).

"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies living sacrifice, holy and acceptable unto God, and your reasonable service." (Romans 12:1). It means a voluntary surrender of the will, and hence of all that we possess, to the service of God and His Message of Grace. It means such a complete revolution that those who take this step are called in the Scripture "New Creatures in Christ Jesus, members in particular of the Body of Christ." Such are the "begotten again" ones, styled by the Apostles.

These New Creatures now aspire to be "heirs of God, joint-heirs with Jesus Christ their Lord." (Romans 8:17. And they have the assurance of attaining a share of His glory, honor and immortality if they get the higher appreciation, hearing the Word of the Lord, "All things are yours—for ye are Christ's and Christ is God's." (1 Cor. 3:21,23).

They aspire then in harmony with the Divine invitation, not only to the possession of all power but to all riches—not for selfish uses, but that they may lavish Divine favors and blessings during the Millennial Age upon the whole world of mankind, which then will enter the blessed epoch of Restitution—"times of Restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the holy Prophets since the world began." (Acts 3:19-21)

Nor does the love for knowledge abate one whit, but rather increases, though it takes a different turn and relies for guidance upon Divine revelation rather than upon human guesswork, speculation and philosophy.

Content to admit ignorance of many things, these have an assurance that by and by they shall know even as they are known—perfectly; and that in the present time, by following the counsels of the Divine Word, they are really wise toward God—however foolish they may appear to the worldly wise. They are content to believe that the outcome will show that God is true, and will prove many so-called wise men to have been in error in many of their guesses respecting Truth. (Romans 3:3, 4) May the Grace of the Lord add His blessing.

Food for Thought

By Jane Nickerson

The day I saw him Peck Smith had just driven back to Perry from Tallahassee where he had cooked swamp cabbage, fried mullet and stirred up cheese grits for a party planned for 100 but attended by 300. A state legislator who represents his district in Taylor County gave the fish fry for some of his colleagues.

Peck got into the act not because he is tax collector of that northeast Florida county, of which Perry is the seat, but because he is among the brilliant kitchen stars of the Panhandle. He is an amateur who cooks like a professional, whose melt-in-the-mouth sweet potato biscuits are the kind Juno might have served Jupiter—had they lost their Latin accents and become Southerners.

But it was of that regional Florida delicacy, swamp cabbage, and not of biscuits, that we chatted recently. As every native son can tell you, swamp cabbage is no kin to cabbage at all. Rather it's the pale, tender, delicately flavored core of the sabal palm, our state tree and the commonest variety of palm in Florida, spreading its graceful branches from the Keys to Pensacola. Hearts of palm is another more elegant, and to my mind more descriptive, name for this—well, what shall we call it, a vegetable?

Wooded Taylor County, the self-styled Tree Capital of the South, boasts more trees than people, supplying lumber for the paper mills in the region. Peck said the sabal or cabbage palms sprout in planted-pine areas there, producing "vintage cores" that taste superior to those grown elsewhere. The region is a Burgundy for sabal palms.

The 45 palms for his Tallahassee fish fry came from private property; a law forbids cutting them on state-owned lands. Experienced hands extract the bud in less than 30 minutes. But the rest of us would take all day to hack and strip off the layers of tough sheathing that protect a palm-heart a foot or more in length and about six inches in diameter.

Though felling a palm and cooking its cabbage are not things I plan to do this summer, I was curious about the preparation. Peck told me.

"Don't trim the bud too close to the base, which can be bitter. Slice it across in rings about a fourth-inch thick. Fry out some bacon or country-cured meat. Add the cabbage. A lot of folks put in water and sugar. But you don't need either. The cabbage gives up juice of its own. Cover tightly and simmer till tender, 30 minutes or so. Season with salt and pepper and a mite of onion."

But it was the cheese grits even more than the swamp cabbage that stole center stage at the fish fry, Peck said. He told me he served two dishpanfuls and when they were just about gone, "one lady came up and raked the spoon."

"I'm a Southerner all right," Peck said. "I was born in Georgia and I've lived in Florida since 1941, when I came here on my honeymoon. But I can't tell any difference between instant grits and the long-cooking kind. I use the instant and stir in shredded cheddar cheese to taste. Sometimes I add a pinch or two of garlic powder. Even Yankees like 'em."

Peck told me he didn't rightly know how he got into cooking.

"It's just a hobby I fell into," he said. "My sister's a caterer in Pelham, Ga. But that didn't have too much to do with it. Before I collected taxes I was in the nursery business. I still spend almost as much of my free time in the garden as I do in the kitchen. I reckon I've got 5,000 blooms in my yard now."

Peck earned his spurs when a few years ago he undertook to supervise the cooking at the giant free fish fry the city of Perry annually stages the last Saturday in October. Last year he and 125 volunteers cooked and served 7,500 pounds of dressed mullet, 840 pounds of hush puppies, 650 pounds of grits flavored with 150 pounds of cheese and 240 gallons of pork and beans. More than 7,000 people, including Gov. Reubin Askew, attended—and applauded.

As the choice for a fish fry, Peck reminded me, mullet has two or three things to recommend it. A high fat content keeps it from drying out in cooking. And because it's among the most plentiful fish in Florida waters, it's more available than many species. Peck thinks the skin must be retained in filleting, because it helps the mullet hold its shape in cooking.

Some of his other suggestions are written into this recipe, which I edited from directions he gave me, scaling down his quantities for household use.

PECK SMITH'S FRIED MULLET

3 pounds mullet, filleted but not skinned
2 teaspoons salt
Peanut oil
Yellow cornmeal

1. Salt the fish an hour or so in advance of cooking and let stand at room temperature. Chilled fish excessively lower the temperature of deep fat.

2. Choose a heavy iron skillet or an automatic deep-fat fryer. Add peanut oil to a depth that will cover the fish completely. Heat the oil till very hot but not smoking (375 degrees F.). Peanut oil is excellent because it can be heated to a high degree before it starts to decompose, signaled by smoking.

3. Dip the salted fillets in cornmeal, shake off any excess, and drop them in the heated oil. Do not overcrowd. Cook 3 to 5 minutes. Drain on paper. Keep hot. Serve as soon as possible.

Yield: 6 servings.

For the mullet, you may substitute catfish, if you like, but be sure it is skinned.

Two reasons why now is the best time to move up to a '73 Chrysler.

1. '74 prices will probably go up. 2. Right now, we're offering year-end prices.

And there are more.

1. Chrysler runs on regular fuel.
2. Standard Electronic Ignition System. No points or condenser to wear out. You can get up to 18,000 miles before spark plugs need replacement.
3. Up to 35% more voltage than conventional starting systems for faster starts in any weather.
4. No recommended maintenance for the standard Torque Flite transmission under normal driving conditions.
5. Chrysler Newport has more front and rear hip room and trunk space than any car in its class.
6. The luxury of Torsion-Quiet Ride.
7. The strength of unibody construction.

Council Adds $5,000 To Budget For Policeman

The Avon Park City Council Monday night approved the city budget for the 1974 fiscal year after tacking on an ammendment to add $5,000 to the police budget upon recommendation of Mayor Robert J. Barben.

The Council also passed a motion to decrease the city tax millage from six and one-half to six mills.

Barben said that the extra finances for the police department will not be taken out of money allocated for other purposes but will be added to the police department from the reserve fund.

"After talking with the chief of police, I have decided that these funds are needed," Barben said. From the $5,000 increase, one new car and the salary for an additional patrolman will be added to the police force. One of the police cars now in use will be traded in upon purchase of the new car. $2,000 and $3,000 were allocated for the purchase of the car and the patrolman salary, respectively.

Barben said that he had received several calls from area citizens wanting more police around the schools in the mornings and afternoons. "This is sort of an insurance policy that I am offering," Barben said.

He also cited the fact that four of the present 10 patrolmen will be attending a school in January as a reason for adding another man to the police department.

Barben said that if the council did not approve the police department increase that he would go so far as to "veto the budget". Councilman Milton Howard made the motion that the increase be accepted and it was passed unanimously.

The segregated city budget for next year includes: general government, $138,100; debt, $8,646; property maintenance, $39,830; publicity, $24,800; fire department, $75,349; park department, $15,850; police department, $143,951.44; sanitation and street department, $197,500; recreation department, $14,265; building department, $12,891; reserve funds, $18,745. Total expenses are $689,927.44.

City revenues for 1973-74 are projected at: Taxes $161,047.44; occupational licenses $17,000; permits, $10,000; fines and forfeitures, $26,000; airport rentals, $6,780; county road tax, $14,500; Florida Power franchise, $31,500; United Telephone franchise, $2,000; cable TV franchise, $1,100; sanitation service, $70,000; miscellaneous, $12,000; gasoline tax refunds, $2,000; utility tax, $60,000; ambulance service, $4,000; revenue sharing - state, $272,000. Total revenue is $689,927.44.

The balanced budget for the Avon Park water system, which is separate from the city budget, totals $227,700.

In other council action, Mrs. Helen Britt, a representative of the St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church asked the Council for information concerning the installation of a sewer line to the new church building location.

Clarence King, president of the Council, said that the policy of the city at present is to install the sewer facilities if an individual party will furnish the materials such as pipe and connections.

Mrs. Britt also asked the Council about the paving of Carolina Avenue, which runs by the church. She also asked about the installation of sidewalks in the vicinity.

The Council agreed to have the street paved from funds within the 1974 budget but said that a labor shortage had been hindering the building of sidewalks and therefore could not promise anything in the near future.

Discussion on a proposed lease of two acres of land at the old city dump to a paving company was ended when the motion was tabled. The Council agreed that the lease contract should be more specific in nature.

Steve Roberts, a spokesman for a franchise garbage collection agency, questioned the council about extending the operations of his company in Avon Park. He was told to prepare a cost sheet for the Council to study.

A bid of $37,897 by Ward LaFrance Co. on a fire truck was accepted by the Council as being the only bid received meeting the specifications of the city.

The city also accepted the bid of Bill Owens Ford Co. on a 1974 Ford two-ton truck with twin hoists for $4,619.97 plus $100 for stronger tires.

Board Draws Protest Over Landfill Proposal

Plans for establishment of a county sanitary landfill have drawn protest , proposals for alternate sites and at least one more week of delay.

Highlands County Commissioners have received two firm offers for sites which would cost about $200,000 or roughly half the price tag placed on a controversial Josephine Creek-Lake Josephine area location.

Residents of the Lake Josephine Josephine area crowded the county commission meeting room Sept. 11 and presented a petition objecting to the county's announced plan to establish a landfill project between Lake Josephine and Josephine Creek.

At its Sept. 4 meeting the board opened a bid from Consolidated-Temoka Land Co. for 170 acres at $2,100 per acre. The board delayed action pending investigation of possibly including some highway frontage in the parcel and investigation of financing methods.

Alternate Sites

The Consolidated-Tomoka bid brought not only protests but alternate sites.

The Sun has learned that both alternates are in the general south-of-Sebring area.

One site includes 100 acres west of U.S. 27 near State Road 66. A wooded area would border one side and pasture lands are on the other sides. The owner is quoting a price of $1,780 per acre.

A second alternate location is not available for sale, but the owner has proposed a lease for up to 120 acres for a maximum of 10 years at $20,000 per year.

This proposal calls for the 120 acres to be divided into 40-acre tracts and as a tract is filled, it would be released to the owner and returned to the tax rolls.

This 120 acre parcel is east of U.S. 27, off State Road 17 South, surrounded by grove and pasture.

The county commission had carried on a three-year search for a landfill site. At the Sept. 4 bid-opening Commissioner Ken Wilkinson had observed that land might become available when "owners learn that we are willing to pay $2,100 an acre."

The proposed price tag did have a bearing on the new offers. Edee Nahrstedt, associated with the Longfield-Smith agency, and George Forst, associated with Grayce McCoy, said, "We felt we surely could find something at a lower price and save the county some money. These are firm offers."

Landfill not a Dump

Commission Chairman Robert Skipper told the angry Lake Josephine residents, "There is a big difference between a dump and a sanitary landfill."

He said that although trash would be taken to the site, there would be machinery to cover it immediately during the 12 hours per day the operation would be in progress.

He further stated most of the noise from the machinery would be diminished and almost non-existent because the machinery would be operating deep in the ground.

The protesters disbursed quickly when the board promised that no action would be taken at that meeting. The board announced plans to show a movie about landfill operations. The movie is to be a part of the, commission meeting at 9 a.m. on Sept. 18.

Commissioner Skipper urged the protesters to return to see the movie and said if the commission meeting room would prove to be too small for the crowd, the meeting would be moved to the circuit court room on the second floor of the courthouse.

Highway lots

At this week's meeting the commission learned that Consolidated-Tomoka is willing to sell the county the highway frontage adjacent to the parcel originally bid for the landfill.

Including the highway lots in the parcel would raise the total price for the land to $410,000. The county has earmarked revenue-sharing funds to help with the landfill expenses.

Commissioners told the protesters that the county has to move quickly. The county, as well as the cities of Sebring and Avon Park, have been cited by the state agency for pollution control. The county could be fined $5,000 per day, commissioners explained, if conditions are not improved.

Realtors To Meet In Winter Haven

On Sept. 14, the 10th District, Florida Association of Realtors will hold its second, one-day educational seminar. It will be held at the Cypress Gardens Sheraton in Winter Haven.

Larry S. Roberts, vice president, Roberts and Gillman, Realtors of Orlando, will lecture about contracts and pit-falls of contracts.

Smith Qualifies For Council

As the second week of qualification time elapsed, only one person has decided to officially throw his hat into the ring, seeking one of the two council seats soon to be vacated.

Making his intentions official, Wilson Smith of Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home, completed the necessary qualification regulations at city hall Friday, Sept. 7. However, Smith was unable to make any comments at the time of this writing.

Councilman Milton Howard, already stating he will seek re-election to the post he has occupied for the last six years, is expected to complete his qualification within the month.

Incumbant Councilman Hermon Sizemore has still made no comment as to his intentions for the position he has held for only one term.

Marshall Davis has placed his name on the ballot already for the position of mayor. Present Mayor Robert Barben, has not yet come forward with his intentions.

City Clerk Malcolm Crews told the Sun that voter registration has not yet begun at city hall. He said, to date, no one has registered.

Avon Park Couple Hospitalized In Auto Accident Near Sebring

By Officer GENE HANCOCK

An Avon Park couple was hospitalized Sept. 4, following a two-car crash on State Road 17, 1.2 miles north of Sebring. Alfred Richardson, 82, was admitted to Highlands General Hospital suffering from multiple cuts and bruises. His wife, Elsie Richardson, 78, was transferred from Highlands General to Winter Haven to receive treatment for facial injuries.

Richardson was northbound on 17 when the auto he was driving was involved in a collision with a car being driven by Benjamin Sterner, 44, of Hallendale.

Sterner, who was southbound, was attempting a left hand turn. Florida Highway Trooper Percy Gettings charged Sterner with careless driving.

Sterner and his passenger, Gloria Sterner, 46, Hallendale, were taken to Highlands General Hospital where they were treated and released.

Richardson was charged with driving without a license. Damage to the Richardson car was estimated at $1,800 and to the Sterner auto at $2,000.

In a minor traffic accident on W. Thomas St., Frank McReynolds of Tampa backed his 1971 Dodge truck into a 1973 Ford which was parked, and being operated by Joe Mazac, of Avon Park. Patrolman Bob Oberther stated that no damage was done to the truck, however the car sustained damage estimated at $50.

No charges were filed in a two-car accident at the intersection of U.S. 27 and W. Main St. Wednesday, Sept. 5. The accident occurred when Wayne Burke, Atlanta, Ga., had stopped for the stop sign at the intersection and, before he cleared the intersection, Jerry McKenzie, Avon Park, started up and struck the rear of Burke's '72 Volkswagen causing approximately $100 damage. The '70 Ford Bronco of McKenzie's received damage estimated at $35. Patrolman George Champion reported no injuries in the accident.

Daniel Smith, Avon Park, was cited for failure to yield right of way as the result of a two-car accident at the intersection of W. Main and N. Butler. Investigation by Patrolman Archie Hancock disclosed that Franklin Suzanne Prescott, 21, was traveling east on West Main St. when Smith, operating a '64 Pontiac, pulled out in front of the '71 Pontiac operated by Prescott. No injuries were reported in the accident.

In a report filed by Sgt. Presley Selph, it was disclosed that Barbara Thrower of Ft. Myers was parked in the parking lot of Hooper's Laundermat. As Mary Thompson of Avon Park entered the lot her vehicle struck the right rear of Mrs. Thrower's Oldsmobile cuausing approximately $95 in damage.

Devils To Meet Santa Fe

The 1973 high school football season will get underway tomorrow (Friday) night and the Avon Park Red Devils will host the Santa Fe Crimson Hawks here at Memorial Field. The season opener for Avon Park will be an important Tri-County Conference game with the always tough Hawks from Lakeland. Kick-off time is set for 8 p.m.

Both teams will be starting the season with new head coaches. The Red Devils will be under Ralph Hill who moved up from assistant coach to replace Joe Franza who retired after last season from active coaching to remain athletic director. The Crimson Hawks will be coached this year by Skip Phoebus, a former Sebring assistant coach.

Two weeks ago the Avon Park team tied Arcadia 6-6 and played Sebring to a scoreless tie in the four team jamboree held here at Memorial Field. Santa Fe lost to both Frostproof and Mulberry by scores of 6-0 in a jamboree last week.

The Red Devils were dealt a severe blow this week when speedy, veteran halfback Danny Lewis transferred to Haines City. The Lewis family will be moving to Haines City where Coach Eddie Lewis will serve on the coaching staff.

The Avon Park offensive line will probably have Nathaniel Packer and Marvin Jackson at ends; Sean Murphy and Nate Williams at tackles; Gregg Hartt and Ronnie Dick or Barnard Jackson at guards; and Tim DuPree at center.

The Devil backfield will have senior Buddy DeWitt at quarterback, William Burley at full back, and Ricky Claitt and Lawrence (Poncho) McRae or Timmy Massey at Halfbacks.

The Devil defensive team will probably start with ends Marvin Jackson and Barnard Jackson; tackles Sean Murphy and Nathaniel Packer; guard Steve Myers or William Burley; linebackers Ricky Claitt, Nate Williams, and Timmy Massey; halfbacks Mearl Robinson and Micky Claitt; and safety Lawrence McRae.

Other Red Devils on the squad are: guards Mike Pool, Denis Avery, and Dennis Johns; tackles Jimmy Carter and Bill Murphy; ends Marvin Williams and Leonard Green (on injured list); quarterback Jerry Robinson; center Jamie Tomlinson; and halfback Moses Anderson. Coach Hill hopes to give all 26 of the boys some action this week against the Hawks.

Coach Hill wouldn't make a prediction on the opening game but did say that the Santa Fe team will be a passing team and hopes his defense can hold the wide open offense of the Hawks. With the loss of Danny Lewis, the Red Devil offense will have to lean heavily on the running of halfback Ricky Claitt and fullback William Burley. Claitt was injured most of the season last year but was very impressive in the games he played.

The Red Devils defeated Santa Fe last year in the season opener in Lakeland by a score of 20-18 for the only loss suffered by the Hawks. The Santa Fe squad will be putting on the line against the Red Devils tomorrow night.

Coach Lemler said that the coaches are working several boys at different positions trying to find the best combination for a starting 11 for the opening game against the Miners.

Veteran Red Devil football announcer Welch Fisher has retired from that position this season after many years of dedicated service. Jimmy Prevatt, former Red Devil athlete, will take over the announcing duties for the 1973 season.

Telethon To Aid Demos

"Most effective way to clean-up politics" is the way Mrs. Edna Pearce Locket describes the current drive the Highlands County Democratic Executive Committee is making to obtain many small financial contributions.

Mrs. Lockett, who is chairman of the Highlands committee, said the local committeemen are participating in the drive tied to a national telethon. The telethon is scheduled for 7 p.m., Sept. 15 to 2 a.m. Sept. 16. In central Florida it will be seen on Channels 8, 20, 7, 2 and 5.

"We can strengthen democracy by participation. This is our country and we ought to support it. By going public and raising political funds from many small contributions we can eliminate the problems which go hand-in-hand with financing from a few giant contributors," Mrs. Lockett said.

Sen. Gallen To Speak At Meeting

The Highlands County Farm Bureau will host its annual Farm Bureau Meeting and Barbecue on Sept. 13, at 7 p.m. at the Highlands County Agricultural and Civic Center. All members of Highlands County Farm Bureau are urged to attend and bring the family. It is a covered dish, with Farm Bureau supplying the meat, drink and bread.

We would appreciate your printing an article on this for us in your edition for that week. There are 600 family members of Highlands County Farm Bureau. The principle speaker will be the Honorable Tom Gallen, Senator representing our county.

Four directors will be elected for the coming year at the general business meeting. The annual Conservation Award will also be presented.

Adventist Schedule Revealed

Robin Baerman Feted With Bridal Shower Tuesday

A miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Robin Baerman, bride-elect of Charles Snelgrove, was held at the Florida Power Hospitality Lounge on Tuesday, Sept. 4. The bride-elect was presented a mixed corsage of white daisies and pink sweetheart roses, complimenting her green dress. Mrs. Lyle Trotter, grandmother of the bride-elect, was presented with a corsage of white daisies and pink carnations, and Mrs. Charles Snelgrove, mother of the bridegroom-elect was presented with a white daisy and red carnation corsage.

Several games were played and enjoyed by all. A colorful mixed dried arrangement was given to Janice Murphy, winner of the door prize.

The refreshment table was covered with a white floor-length imported cutwork cloth, and centered with a crystal punch bowl surrounded with ivy and green, blue and pink daisies—the bride's colors. Single white candles flanked the bowl on either side, adorned with Lilly-of-the-Valley candle rings. Nuts, mints and decorated cake squares were served along with the fruit punch.

The guest of honor was seated in a special antique Chippendale chair with clusters of areca palms grouped on either side. Arrangements of flowers in the bride's colors, were used on the gift tables and at points of interest in the lounge. Peggy Snelgrove, sister of the bridegroom-elect and Mrs. Frances Dennis helped with the opening and recording of her many lovely gifts.

Baerman - Snelgrove To Speak Vows Saturday

The marriage of Miss Roberta Lee Baerman to Charles Edward Snelgrove Jr., will be solemnized this Saturday, Sept. 15, at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. Aden D. Childress will perform the ceremony at 8 p.m.

Roberta is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Trotter, and Charles is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snelgrove, all of Avon Park.

All friends and relatives are invited to attend the ceremony and reception which will follow immediately at the Church Social Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Rhodes

Rooney-Rhoades Wed In Lake Wales Church

The First Presbyterian Church in Lake Wales was the scene of the marriage of Miss Mary Ann Rooney of Haines City and Frederick L. Rhoades of Lake Wales on Saturday, Aug. 11. The Rev. David Rockness, pastor of the church, officiated at the double ring ceremony at 11:30 a.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Margaret Wilkinson of Haines City, and Robert M. Rooney Jr. of Saugerties, N.Y. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rhoades of Avon Park.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Corinne Butler presented a program of nuptial music. The altar was banked with palms and two large pastel arrangements of yellow pom poms, carnations, daisies and white gladioli.

The Bride

The bride was escorted to the altar by her stepfather, Frank D. Wilkinson Jr. of Haines City, who gave her in marriage. She chose a formal gown of silk organza styled with an Empire waist, encircled with a satin ribbon and featuring Bishop sleeves. The high neckline, transparent yoke, cuffs of the sleeves and the hemline of the gown were all edged with scalloped Chantilly lace, embellished with sequins. The attached sweeping chapel train was also edged in Chantilly lace. Her long mantilla veil of silk illusion, bordered in Chantilly lace was held in place by a cap of Chantilly lace and seed pearls. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and yellow rosebuds interspersed with baby's breath and love-knotted satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Miss Robin Rooney, sister of the bride from Saugerties, N.Y. Her floor length gown of pastel green was fashioned by the bride's mother, and featured an empire waist and cape collar trimmed with white lace. She wore a large white picture hat with matching trim and carried a nosgay of yellow daisies.

Carol Rooney, sister of the bride from Haines City, was bridesmaid. She wore a yellow gown fashioned identically to the maid of honor's with hat and flowers to match.

Alan Ball, cousin of the bridegroom from Avon Park, was best man. Usher was Michael Rooney, brother of the bride from Cape Cod, Mass.

Mrs. Wilkinson wore for her daughter's wedding a pastel orchid and white patterned floor length gown of chiffon. She wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Rhodes chose a pale blue dress accented in white, with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Luncheon Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, a luncheon reception was held at the Lake Wales Woman's Club. A bridal motif was featured in the floral arrangements on the bride's table and the serving tables.

Mrs. Geraldine Roskam, grandmother of the bride, presided at the bride's book, and Joyce Pettus presided at the bride's table. Others assisting with hospitalities were Marion Davis, Haines City; Myrna Myers, Winter Haven; and Marcia Foelker, sister of the bridegroom from Avon Park and Fort Worth, Texas.

Sanibel Island Honeymoon

Sanibel Island was the destination of the couple's honeymoon and they are making their home in Lake Wales.

The bride is a native of Utica, N.Y., and was graduated from Saugerties High School. She is an Inhalation Therapist at the Lake Wales Hospital.

The bridegroom graduated from Avon Park High School and attended Berry College in Rome, Ga. He received a bachelor of arts degree in zoology from the University of South Florida, Tampa, and is working toward a master's degree in special education at USF. He is Home Supervisor of the lower dorm, at the Vanguard School in Lake Wales.

Marian Turner Honored With Miscellaneous Shower

Miss Marian Turner, bride-elect of Larry W. Saucier, was honored with a miscellaneous bridal shower on Monday evening, Sept. 10, at the Social Hall of the First Baptist Church. The bride's book was kept by Miss Lynn Douglass of Sebring.

The bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Art Turner, and her grandmother, Mrs. T. M. Weekley, were all presented with novelty corsages of colorful net dish scrubbers.

Bouquets of roses were at vantage points around the room. The refreshment table was covered with green and overlaid with a white lace cloth. Pink punch was served from a crystal bowl surrounded with vari-colored Hibiscus and fern. Nuts and mints, home-baked cookies, and party sandwiches, were served along with the punch. Focal point on the table was a gold candelabra arrangement of multi-colored roses centered with a large pink scented candle.

The gift tables were all covered in white, with a bridal umbrella and the bride's multicolor theme carried out in decorations. Centering the gift tables was a white ceramic vase of mixed roses held by three ceramic cupids. Helping the honoree open and record her gifts were Miss Cathy Turner, her sister; Mrs. Wesley Turner, her sister-in-law; and Mrs. Roger Gurganus.

An electric skillet was presented to the bride-elect by the hostesses Jane Wells, Ophelia Rihner, Lois Fout, Dorothy Atkins, Sharmon Duhm, Debbie Vanderbilt, Frances Gurganus, Goma Stallard, Virginia Henderson, Mildred Gay and Mary Bass.

Marian and Larry will be wed on Oct. 6 at 6:30 p.m. in a garden wedding at her home on Lake Lillian.

Jackson's Team Softball Champions

For the fourth straight year Jackson's took the Avon Park Slow-Pitch Softball championship with an undefeated record of 18 straight victories. The team from A.P.C.I. came from behind in the final week to edge out Avon Body Shop for second place finishing up with a 12-6 record. Avon Body took third place with an 11-7 mark.

The Episcopal Church "Godfathers" and the Air Force team tied for fourth place with 10-8 records and First Baptist ended up in sixth place with a record of 9-7. Rain caused First Baptist to come up two games short as the season ended with games between Blackman and First Baptist and Jahna and First Baptist being cancelled due to lack of time to play.

Coca Cola finished in seventh place with an 8-10 record, Blackman Ford of Sebring came in eighth with a 6-11 record, and Sears of Sebring took ninth place winning four and losing 14 games. Jahna Concrete finished winless with a 0-17 record for the season.

Members of the championship Jackson team were Coach Densby Jackson, Joe Jackson, Billy Jackson, Ronnie Jackson, Clark Jackson, Howard and Glenn Sizemore, Don Sisemore, Danny Woodham, Dennis Hart, Johnny Todd, Buddy DeWitt, and Charlie Hansen.

Highlanders To Present Sacred Music At Baptist Church

"The Young Highlanders", a young peoples' vocal group from Highlands County, under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Jones, Avon Park, will present a sacred musical of love, "Come Together" by Owens at the First Baptist Church, Avon Park, Sept. 19, at 7:45 p.m.

Vic MicKunas Jr. will be narrator and soloist along with Kathy MicKunas, Renee Clenney, Lorie Longshore, Dennis Crews, Mike Eberle, and David Flowers. Chrissy Jones will be the pianist and David Flowers will be guitarist.

The Young Highlanders have been busy throughout the summer with new music, programs and several new members. The latest programs in this area have been sacred concerts at The First United Methodist Church and the Congregational Church, Avon Park. "Come Together" musical presented at The First United Methodist Church, Sebring and a light musical program at the Avon Park Lions Club. The calendar is filling up quickly for these programs and through these programs this group has been able to fully support themselves with the necessary materials. The Young Highlanders are grateful for all the fine support the people of this area have given them. Watch the newspaper for further programs this year so that you can mark your calendars and attend the programs.

If you have not heard "The Young Highlanders" then don't miss the "Come Together" musical Wednesday night, Sept. 19, at 7:45 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Avon Park.

Miss Turner Honored With Shower

Miss Marian Turner, bride-elect of Larry Saucier, was honored with a linen shower at the L. T. Mitchell home on East Walnut St., Friday, Sept. 7. The bride-elect was presented a single red rose corsage.

Guests were served from a beautiful table overlaid with a lace cloth over pink. The table centerpiece was a gorgeous bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Wesley Turner, sister-in-law of the bride-elect assisted in opening and recording the gifts.

The hostesses, Mrs. L. T. Mitchell and Mrs. Cecil Ferguson, presented Marian a pair of embroidered pillow cases.

Development Program To Begin Sunday

The Church Officer Development program of the First Presbyterian Church will begin Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. at the church. The training program will continue each Sunday afternoon through Oct. 21.

The first session of the Development program on Sunday afternoon will be led by the Rev. Henry L. Smith, pastor of the Covenant Church in Winter Haven. The session will center around The Westminster Confession of Faith.

The second session on Sept. 23 will deal with the "Form of Government". Officers of the church will teach. The third session on Sept. 30 will deal with the work of the Elders and Deacons. The textbook for Elders is "The Noble Task", and for Deacons "Chosen to Serve". The church officers will teach. The fourth session will be taught by the Rev. Grady Oates of the Bartow Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church. He will deal with the pastoral ministry of Elders and Deacons. The fifth session will be led by Miss Annie Ackerman, Director of the Synod Office of Christian Education. Miss Ackerman will be speaking about church officers and the Christian Education program of the church. The sixth session will deal with Church Ushering. Edward Smoak a deacon of the Presbyterian Church in Lake Placid will lead this session. Smoak is associated with Smoak and Sons, Lake Placid.

Spiritual Week To Start Sept. 18

The Church of the Nazarene, 707 W. Main St., Avon Park, will begin a Spiritual Deepening Week on Sept. 18.

The special workers are the father and mother of the pastor, the Rev. Paul Trissell. You will be challenged by the messages and thrilled by the great gospel music they present.

All denominations are welcome and the people of the Church of the Nazarene have time to care about you.

These Special Services will begin each evening at 7:30 from Sept. 18 to 23. Please plan to attend and enjoy the Presence of the Lord.

4-H Horse Club To Elect Officers

On Thursday, Sept. 13 the first 4-H meeting of the Avon Park Rebel Riders 4-H Horse Club, for the year 1973-74, will be held at the Congregational Church. On the agenda will be the election of officers and leaders.

The executive committee meeting will begin at 7 p.m., and the regular meeting at 7:30. All 4-H members are urged to attend and help elect the officers for the coming year. Members should bring one or both parents. If you are not in 4-H and wish to join, come to the meeting.

The officers for the 1972-73 (the club's first year) were as follows: President, Mary Linda Derkman; vice-president, Margaret Lynn Miracle; secretary, Candis Jahna; treasurer, Janet Filppula; and reporter, Stacey Sharpe.

The leaders, to whom the club owes great thanks for making the Club's first year a happy and successful one were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Elder, project leaders; and Mrs. Kenneth Filppula, organizational leader.

Avon Park Red Devils vs Santa Fe Friday

THE SANTA FE Crimson Hawk defensive linemen might get a look at this action tomorrow night here at Memorial Field if Devil center Tim DuPree would stand for them to look through at quarterback Buddy DeWitt handing off to halfback Ricky Claitt. But DuPree will be down knocking a few linemen out of the way and DeWitt and Claitt won't pose for the Hawk defense in the season opener this week. Kick-off time is 8 p.m. Avon Park vs. Santa Fe is a Tri-County Conference game.

Mrs. Harrison Visits Son In California

Mrs. Sara Harrison returned Saturday from a five-week visit with her son Mike and family in California. She accompanied her daughter Salie of Hollywood, Fla., when they flew out of Miami for San Francisco. Salie continued by helicopter to Oakland where she attended a Music Seminar conducted by Internationally known musicians from Europe, for a week before coming to San Jose.

The Mike Harrisons have a vegetable garden, which began when daughter Leigh brought home a bean plant she had started at Nursery School. Tomatoes, lettuce, broccoli, cukes, mustard, chard and squash were enjoyed fresh from the garden. One squash weighed nearly two pounds and was 14¼" long, and 10½" around the largest part.

The last week Sara was in California, she and granddaughter Leigh visited relatives who have a lovely home in the mountains. One day they went Jeep riding, hunting pretty rocks and pine cones. The Ponderosa Pines have cones a foot long, or longer. At a mountain brook watercress was found, and some of it taken home to add to the salad greens. No deer were seen, even tho it was in deer country but one-half set of deer horns was found and added to the collection of cones and rocks. It was a lovely visit, but as always, Florida looked good on arrival at Tampa airport.

Deputy Powell

Niece Of Local Resident Is Deputy Sheriff In Georgia

Reason (Pete) Shivers, former Avon Park City Councilman (he was elected for two terms), has something in common with a niece in Georgia who is also interested in government. His niece, Joyce Powell of Worth County, is not the only female deputy sheriff in Georgia, but she is the only one who can outshoot her husband, escort women criminals, direct her church choir, teach Sunday School, sew most of the clothing for her family, study for a degree in Criminal Justice, and conduct an unofficial "Dear Abby" type department—all at the same time.

In private life Deputy Powell, (the former Joyce Pope), is Mrs. John L. Powell, living in the Doles Community with her husband who is a technician at a textile factory, and nine-year-old daughter, Kelly June. Joyce formerly worked at Sylvester Textiles and as a cashier at Colonial Stores, and said the field of law enforcement had never entered her mind until Sheriff Leo Pritchard offered her the job as deputy.

The five-foot, nine, green-eyed beauty likes to tell about her husband's reactions when she first mentioned her deputyship to him. She said his jaw just plain fell open, but he later agreed.

Joyce was bonded and sworn in on April 1, 1972, and her commission carries the same authority as does that of any male deputy in Georgia. For practical reasons, most of her duties lie with the civil side of law enforcement, simply because these duties require all of her time. She handles the fines and court fees, operates the shortwave radio, keeps the warrant books, mans (or womans) the telephone, and maintains all the office records. She also has to keep sharp on the Georgia Code in order to advise inquirers accurately, and also lend a sympathetic ear for callers with personal and psychotic problems.

In referring to her "Dear Abby" duties, she told of one woman being so appreciative saying, "The main thing I like about you is that you don't use all them big words." Joyce said she didn't tell her that the reason she didn't use all them big words was because she didn't know any BIG WORDS. Joyce also told of the time a woman came into the office carrying a pistol and said, "I just killed my husband", and how she had to take custody of the gun and woman, searching her and escorting her to quarters—all without assistance.

Dishonest people perturb Joyce, and she dislikes people who pretend to be what they are not, although she likes to be compatible with all people.

Joyce and Nadine White of Sylvester Police Department are the only two females in the current Criminal Justice course being taught there under the auspices of Abraham Baldwin College, and they are shooting for a degree in the subject.

Joyce enjoys keeping house, sewing, discussing the Bible, gospel singing, listening to the tales of oldtimers, and visiting historical places. She has two sisters and a brother, none of them in law enforcement. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Pope of Sumner, Ga. Mrs. Pope is a sister of Pete Shivers and Joyce has visited in Avon Park many times with her uncle.

Republician Club To Host Statewide Meeting Here

The Highlands County Womens Republican Club will hold a covered dish "pot luck" luncheon Thursday, Sept. 20 at 12:30 p.m. at the Sebring Pier.

All Republicans are invited to attend and to bring their own table service and a double amount of food or casserole in order to accomodate the more than 20 out-of-town guests who will be present. These guests are members of a statewide Membership Committee who will meet earlier in the day with the Florida Federation of Republican Womens' vice president, Mrs. Eleanor Swarz of Winter Park, at the home of Mrs. Frank Crowder who is state membership chairman for the Federation.

Mrs. Swarz will address the luncheon gathering with a pep talk titled, "What's it all about?". Also on the program will be members of the statewide membership committee who will give three sentence reports on the best membership gimmick they have ever experienced.

Reservations should be made so that the committee can prepare enough seating accomodations. Persons in Sebring may phone 385-6266, 385-6201 or 385-0093 for reservations.

SENIOR CITIZENS
We are pleased to announce a memorial estate program especially designed to provide substantial savings for senior citizens. The new approach will be of particular interest to retired residents with fixed income budget considerations. If you do not own cemetery property locally, it could prove advantageous to know details of this unusual new program. Complete information will be delivered at your request.

ORDINANCE NO. 561

AN ORDINANCE LEVYING AND ASSESSING TAXES FOR AND BY THE CITY OF AVON PARK IN HIGHLANDS COUNTY, FLORIDA, FOR THE YEAR 1973 UPON ALL PROPERTY, REAL AND MIXED, SUBJECT TO TAXATION UNDER THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA AND LOCATED WITHIN THE RESPECTIVE TERRITORIAL LIMITS OR FORMER TERRITORIAL LIMITS OF SAID CITY AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SINKING FUND FOR THE PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST OF REFUNDING BONDS SERIES "A", "B", "AB" AND "C", ISSUE OF 1950, AND FOR PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST OF REFUNDING BONDS SERIES "B", "C", AND "D", ISSUE OF 1946 OF SAID CITY OF AVON PARK AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A SINKING FUND FOR THE PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON REFUNDING BONDS SERIES "A", "B", "AB" AND "C", ISSUE OF 1950 AND FOR PAYMENT OF PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST ON REFUNDING BONDS SERIES "B", "C", AND "D", ISSUE OF 1946 OF SAID CITY OF AVON PARK, AND DISTINGUISHING AND DESIGNATING THE RESPECTIVE TERRITORIAL LIMITS OR FORMER TERRITORIAL LIMITS OF SAID CITY BY LETTER "A", "B", AND "C".

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF AVON PARK, HIGHLANDS COUNTY, FLORIDA:

Section 1. That for the purpose of taxation, the territorial limits of the City of Avon Park, as defined under Chapter 6862, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913, shall be known as Territory "A", being the original Town of Avon Park; and the territory of said City as defined by Chapter 16,316 Laws of Florida, Acts of 1933 exclusive of Territory "A", shall be known as Territory "B", and that territory of said City as defined by Chapter 10,320, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925 and Chapter 12,514, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1927, exclusive of Territories "A" and "B", shall be known as Territory "C", and said territory being outside of the limits of the City of Avon Park as defined by said Chapter 16,316, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1933, but within the areas defined under Chapter 10,320, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, and Chapter 12,514, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1927.

Section 2. That a tax of mills on each dollar of value for the general or ordinary purposes of said City, and no other purposes, designed to meet and pay the appropriations for ordinary or operating purposes of said City as made and established by Ordinance No. 560 passed on the 10th day of September, A.D. 1973, said appropriations being for the fiscal year beginning October 1, 1973, and ending September 30, 1974, be and the same is hereby levied and assessed by said City for the year 1973 upon all property, real and personal or mixed, subject to taxation for said purposes under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida, within said Territories "A" and "B" as above defined, being the area within the limits as defined by Chapter 16,316, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1933.

Section 3. That a tax of 1 mill on each dollar of value for the purpose of establishing a Sinking Fund for payment of Principal and Interest of refunding bonds, Series "D", Issue of 1946 having been issued in exchange for an equal par value of Refunding Bonds, Series "A" and "AB", Issue of 1950 of Said City of Avon Park, be, and the same is hereby levied for the year 1973 upon all property, real, personal and mixed, subject to taxation for said purposes under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida, within said territory "A" as above defined, being the area within the original Town of Avon Park, as defined by Chapter 6862, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1913, the proceeds of which tax when collected, shall be deposited in a Special Fund and disbursed only for the purposes above mentioned.

Section 4. That a tax of 2.5 mills on each dollar of value for the purpose of establishing a sinking fund for the payment of principal and interest of Refunding Bonds, Series "B", Issue of 1950 and Refunding Bonds "B" and "C", Issue of 1946, having been in exchange for an equal par value of Refunding Bonds Series "C", Issue of 1950, of said City of Avon Park, be and the same is hereby levied and assessed by said City of Avon Park for the year 1973 upon all property, real, personal, and mixed, subject to taxation for said purposes under the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida, within the said Territories "A", "B", and "C" as above defined, being the area within the limits of said City as established by Chapter 10320, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1925, and Chapter 12541, Laws of Florida, Acts of 1927, the proceeds of which tax, when collected shall be deposited in a special Fund and disbursed only for the purposes above mentioned.

Section 5. The Tax Assessor of said City is hereby commanded to calculate the amount of tax or taxes as levied and assessed in Section 2, 3, and 4 of this Ordinance as against each piece of property, real, personal and mixed, which may be legally assessed under the Constitution and laws of the State of Florida, and located within the respective territorial limits of former territorial limits of said City of Avon Park as defined herein, and to enter the amount of said taxes against each piece or parcel of said property upon the assessment roll of the said City for each year. Whereupon, the Tax Assessor shall attach to said roll his certificate as to the correctness thereof and his warrant in the manner and form prescribed.

Section 6. All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval by the Mayor and upon its being published one time in a newspaper published in said City.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of Avon Park, Florida, this 10th day of September, A.D. 1973.

Food for Thought

By Jane Nickerson

Lee Ward of Tampa, fiftyish, white-haired, tanned, vigorous, assured but unassuming, looks like a man with a taste for sole a la bonne femme and Pouilly Fuisse. But he talked the other day of "chicken and those cheese-light dumplings" and "a quick but good collard greens soup."

Not only was his sophisticated appearance at odds with his homey words, but so was his posh office. He directs Paul T. Ward, Inc., a thriving interior design firm founded by his parents 50 years ago and now houses in a pillared mansion built in 1890 by a banker. It's a showcase for furniture, art objects and such curiosities as a tall Italian stove of blue and white ceramic.

Delicate French prints hung on a wall and Ward spoke of spear fishing, hook and line fishing, cooking fish and "at last finding out how to fry conchs." His grasp of what he called "good solid cooking and eating" was plain. But his preferences seemed incongruous in the setting, which called for a subdued explosion of a champagne cork and the fragrance of aged brandy in Baccarat crystal.

"I've been cooking," Ward said, "since I began to fix things for myself when my parents were working. When I married 35 years ago, I'd prepare dinner if I happened to return from the office first. My wife is also an interior decorator with the company."

Seated across from me at a flawless walnut table, Ward tossed out these hints:

Fried Fish: Dip skinned, filleted fish (just caught, if possible) in beaten egg thinned with milk. They must be at room temperature. Shake in a paper bag containing equal amounts of cracker crumbs and flour, seasoned with salt and pepper. Cook in deep, hot fat. "There's one secret," Ward cautioned. "Don't overcook. A few minutes are enough."

Collard Greens Soup: Put about four quarts of cleaned, sliced greens in a pot with two cut-up chorizo sausages. Add half as much water as greens. Cook, uncovered, till almost tender. Add two or three one-pound cans of drained, Great Northern beans. Finish cooking. Season to taste. "Great with Cuban bread," Ward noted.

Leg of Lamb: Remove and discard exterior fat. Brush all over with bottled French dressing. Mash a couple of garlic cloves and press over the top; add salt and pepper. Refrigerate all day. Sear in a hot oven, reduce heat to moderate and cook till desired doneness.

Editor's note: About 170 degrees on a meat thermometer. "Roast potatoes and onions along with the roast, if you like," Ward said.

Ward was about seven when his parents moved from Kansas City to Tampa, to a desolate area near the Bay. By the time he was 13 he had built a 26-foot sailboat. Many boats have followed, some he has built and others with professional help. His present boat is open, Diesel-powered, 28 feet long, of white cedar and fir, in which he traveled around the Tortugas, Key West, and Bimini for six recent weeks. His base was a house in Bimini.

"The Tortugas are lonely, unspoiled and fascinating," Ward said. "Fish are profuse and so unafraid you can almost pat them when you're skin-diving. We played tag with the tarpon. It's an old folks' home for crawfish; they're bigger than anything ever marketed. You see strawberry and black groupers; red, hog, mutton and mangrove snappers; trigger fish."

His recipe for a hog snapper of about three pounds could be used with a grouper or red snapper of that size:

Clean the fish; leave whole. Squirt generously with lime juice; dot with thin-sliced limes and onions. Broil slowly 20 to 30 minutes, basting often with olive oil. Do not turn. When tender, increase heat just long enough to brown lightly.

Conchs used to be a regional delicacy of south Florida. But the tough mollusks in the beautiful, pink, spiral shells have been fished out near our coastline; a conservation law limits the number that may be taken. Ward found them still plentiful around Bimini.

You release them from their shells, he instructed, by inserting a knife near the top of the spiral and cutting a certain muscle there. Then cleaning, pounding, soaking in salted water, freezing and breading follows. In contrast to such chores, actual cooking is brief - a couple of minutes in shallow fat.

When Ward prepares that Southern classic, chicken and cumplings, he is unintimidated by tradition. His short-cut version goes like this:

CHICKEN and DUMPLINGS

Water
6 celery branches with their leaves, coarsely sliced
1 onion, quartered
Concentrated chicken bouillon (sometimes called "instant")
Salt, pepper
2 cups biscuit mix

1. Cover the chicken with water. Add the vegetables. Cover the pot, bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer till barely tender, about 30 minutes. Remove the vegetables with a slotted spoon and discard.

2. Add the concentrated bouillon—about a teaspoon for each cup of liquid in the cooking pot. Add salt and pepper to taste.

3. Combine the mix with just enough water to make a soft dough (about a half-cup). Stir just enough to moisten the dry ingredients. Bring the broth in the pot to a boil. Drop spoonfuls of the dough on the broth. Cover tightly, reduce heat and steam 20 to 30 minutes.

Yield: Four portions.

INVITATION TO BID

The City of Avon Park will accept sealed bids for the purchase of one new garbage truck with 20 cubic yard capacity. Specifications may be obtained from office of the City Clerk. Delivery time following delivery to factory of an acceptable truck shall be specified.

Bids will be received until 5:00 p.m., Monday, October 8, 1973, at City Hall. The City reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids.

MEL C. BASS

Highlands County freshman commissioner Melville C. Bass was suspended from office Sept. 18. Governor Reubin Askew announced the suspension early Tuesday, citing "neglect of duty and incompetence" among the reasons for the action. The suspension will be reviewed by the Florida Senate at its next session.

Spokesman for the governor said an interim appointment to fill Bass's position on the county commission will be made soon, possibly next week.

Bass received a call from Gov. Askew's office during the Sept. 18 commission meeting. Near the close of the commission session Bass announced that he had been notified that he was being suspended "pending a Senate hearing." Effective date for the suspension was 5 p.m. Sept. 18.

In a statement to a Sun reporter, Bass spoke hopefully of a review at the next session of the Senate, perhaps in October or November. In Tallahassee, however, the governor's office said such cases are rarely placed on the agenda for a special session of the Legislature. Rather, such items are handled during the regular sessions, which would mean a review of the Bass case after the April 1974 convening of the Senate.

Elected in 1972

Bass was elected to a four-year term on the commission—first beating out Wendell "Winkie" Williams in the Democratic primary run-off—then Republican James Rimer in the general election.

Bass left the hospital, where he was under treatment for pneumonia, for the swearing-in ceremony for commissioners and he had to leave before the meeting had concluded.

Frequent absences from the commission began to make Bass a controversial commissioner. In his suspension statement the governor noted that Bass had attended 25 of the 45 commission meetings held since he took office.

The governor also listed three arrests—on May 27, Aug. 6 and Aug. 8—for driving while intoxicated. Bass is presently under treatment for alcoholism and living at Nu-Way Center.

Best Interest of Citizens

Gov. Askew, in his statement, said, "Based upon the report of Glen Darty, state's attorney for the 10th Judicial Circuit, and upon an investigation conducted by this office, it appears in the best interest of the citizens of the state of Florida that Melville C. Bass be immediately suspended from the public office he now holds."

The governor's statement also states that it is "the duty of an elected official to refrain from conduct unlawful or illegal and the probable consequences of which may result in incarceration and thus in substantial impairment of the official's ability to perform official duties."

Committee Recommendations

Governor's staff members said the governor will confer with an advisory committee of Highlands County citizens prior to making the interim appointment.

Lake Placid Attorney Hayward Davis is chairman of this advisory committee. Other members of the committee are Mrs. Hazel Scarborough of Lake Placid, Mrs. Edna Pearce Lockett of Ft. Bassinger, Frank Walker, Leon Tolar, Rex Bond of Sebring, Harold Worden and Maurice Albritton of Avon Park.

Davis is on vacation, but late Tuesday Walker and Worden said they would anticipate an early meeting of the committee. Members of the committee refuse to discuss possible recommendations.

In Avon Park, Williams, whom Bass defeated for the District I commission seat, is frequently mentioned as a possible nominee.

Two Local Men Given Conservation Awards

Veteran agribusiness leader L. L. Holmes was a surprise honoree at the annual meeting of Highlands County Farm Bureau. Holmes was presented with a special Farm Bureau Award for contributions he has made to agribusiness through his Farm Bureau work.

The award, first of its kind, was announced at the Bureau's dinner held Sept. 13 at Highlands Agri-Civic Center.

The conservation awards traditionally made by Florida Bankers Association went to Rick Dressel of Avon Park and Lake Placid for ranching; Jack "June" Hendry of Lake Placid, farming, and Willie Williams of Avon Park, citrus. Hendry is engaged in caladium growing.

The awards were presented on behalf of the bankers by Ken Grady, president of Barnett Bank at Sebring.

Gallen Speaker

The principal address for the annual meeting was presented by Tom Gallen who represents Highlands County in the Florida Senate. Gallen endorsed a right-to-work amendment for the U.S. Constitution but was equally opposed to the current drive for a federal amendment guaranteeing equal rights for women.

Gallen scored lengthy explanations of the recent jumps in prices, placing full blame for the price hikes on deficit spending by government.

The Bureau's dinner program included announcement of the results of the election for Farm Bureau directors. The winning directors are Dr. Frank Handley, C. M. Payne, Marvin Kahn and Bill Holmes.

W. R. Cannon Jr., Bureau president, presided and the nominating committee was headed by Russ Albritton.

Watershed Chairman

In addition to his work in Farm Bureau, award-winner Holmes has been active in Highlands Soil Conservation District. He served as chairman of East Chain of Lakes Watershed Project.

This project—developed jointly by the soil conservation district and private property owners, with assistance from federal and county governmental agencies—was the first such project in the United States.

Such projects are to be found in all parts of the nation now but Highlands County has retained a position of leadership in watershed development, a position recognized by awards from the United States Department of Agriculture.

Holmes is a former member of the Highlands County Farm Bureau.

Commissioners Still Undecided On Landfill

Highlands County commissioners turned thumbs down on two possible sanitary landfill sites but have delayed for at least two weeks action on a bid from Consolidated-Tomoka Land Co.

At its Sept. 18 meeting the commission was advised, by County Engineer Gordon Hays, that of three sites offered to the board, the 170 acres bid from Consolidated - Tomoka is best suited to use as a landfill.

This site, lying between Josephine Creek and Lake Josephine is drawing fire from area residents. Some other citizens have objected to the site's $2,100 per acre price.

This week Hays told the board that utilizing the Consolidated - Tomoka site at the rate of four acres per year, the property would last for 42.5 years at a cost of $4,800 per year."

Hays said that the Tauchens tract, located south of U.S. 98, would wind up costing the county approximately $987,200 in lease fees for a 30-year period. This proposal had been for a lease of up to 10 years on 120 acres of land. Hays had investigated on the basis of 30 years which he figured would be the life of this site.

A second alternate site, of 100 acres off Highway 66, is, Hays reported "one-third high ground, one-third swamp and

Car Smashes Front Of Station

Investigation by Assistant Chief Grady Campbell disclosed that at approximately 3:15 p.m. Thursday, Stanley Yeager, operating a '61 Chevrolet was traveling south on S. Verona Ave. and pulled out into the path of Donald Lee Bentley, who was operating a '72 Ford and proceeding west on E. Main St. After the Yeager vehicle struck the Bentley vehicle in the right front, he then lost control and rammed into the front of Moran's Service Station at the intersection of S. Verona and E. Main. Damage to the Chevrolet was estimated at $350 with about $125 damage to the Ford. The service station received extensive damage to the entrance, but no estimate was immediately available. Mr. Yeager sustained a cut arm, but no other injuries were reported.

In a report filed by Patrolman LeRoy Prevatt, he stated that during the early morning hours of Wednesday, Sept. 12, person (s) unknown entered the office of Mosley Contractors at 1002 W. Main St. by breaking a window and cutting a hole in the screen. While inside the office, subjects took approximately $105 in change, a $40 coin collection and a safe that was approximately 20" in width and 36" high. The safe contained no money, but did miscellaneous papers and receipts in it.

Casley-Hardy

In a two car accident at the intersection of E. Main St. and Highlands Ave., James Ronald Casley, 19 was cited for careless driving by Sgt. Presley Selph. The accident occured when Willie G. Hardy, age 30, was traveling north on Highlands Ave. in a '70 Dodge and Casley, who was prodeeding west on E. Main St. disregarded the stop sign and as a result his vehicle struck Hardy's car in the front. The Dodge received damage estimated at $650 while the Casley vehicle, a '64 Chevrolet,

Devils Defeat Santa Fe

The Avon Park Red Devils gave new head coach Ralph Hill and new line coach John Pilcher an impressive 35-0 victory over the Santa Fe Crimson Hawks in the 1973 season football opener played here at Memorial Field last Friday night before a large crowd of Peace River Valley Conference fans.

Tomorrow night (Friday, Sept. 21) the Red Devils will travel to Mulberry for another conference game in the Phosphate Bowl. The Panthers won their opener also by a score of 28-0 against Lake Weir. Last year Avon Park won 7-0 over the Panthers here at home. Scouting reports indicate that the Mulberry team is big and fast so the Devils will have to give another all-out effort to top the Panthers again this year.

Against Santa Fe last week, Ricky Claitt scampered for three touchdowns and one two-point conversion to lead the scoring for Avon Park as the 25 man Red Devil squad put together a total team effort to completely outclass the Crimson Hawks from Lakeland. Every player dressed out for the game saw action in the Devil's first victory performance.

The game statistics pretty much tell the story of the game. The Red Devils made 14 first downs to Santa Fe's 4; rushed for 200 yards on the ground while holding the Hawks to only 12 yards; passed for 75 yards but gave up 124 yards in the air to Santa Fe; intercepted two Hawk passes - but lost none. The Devils fumbled away the ball three times in the final quarter but Jimmy Carter recovered a Santa Fe fumble late in the third period to stop a drive. Ricky Claitt punted twice for Avon Park for a 31-yard average while Santa Fe punted four times for only a 24-yard average. The aggressive and eager to hit Red Devils drew 140 yards in penalties and had four touchdowns called back by these penalties. Santa Fe had no penalties in the first half but drew 66½ yards in the second period.

Avon Park scored twice in the first quarter. Late in the period the Devils took possession on the Santa Fe 43-yard line and drove in for the score in spite of a 15 yard penalty. An 18 yard pass reception by Marvin Jackson highlighted the drive along with a 13 yard gain by halfback Lawrence McRae with the help on Nate Williams who recovered a forward fumble at the end of McRae's run. On third down from the Hawk 13-yard line, halfback Ricky Claitt swept around right end for the touchdown. Nathaniel Packer kicked the extra point to give Avon Park a 7-0 lead.

Only minutes later Santa Fe was forced to punt from its own 47-yard line. Lawrence McRae took the ball off the ground with tacklers coming from all directions and burst straight through into the clear to run 75 yards for a second Devil TD. The speedy halfback veered to the right sideline after he cleared the first onrush and was never in danger as he raced into the endzone. Again Nathaniel Packer booted the extra point straight through the uprights and Avon Park had a 14-0 advantage.

DEVIL OFFENSIVE end Nate Packer (80) hauls in a pass and starts to follow his blockers, Ricky Claitt (25) and Marvin Jackson (82) for a nice gain against the Santa Fe Hawks last Friday. Avon Park won the game by a score of 35-0.

College And BAR To Host Conference

South Florida Junior College and the Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation (BAR) will host the Gulf Coast Health Conference on Thursday, Sept. 20, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. President of the conference is Glenn V. Hough, M.D., director of the Highlands County Health Department.

Sponsors for the conference of County health department directors and medical personnel are the Highlands County Health Department, Division of Mental Health, and the Bureau of Alcoholic Rehabilitation (BAR). Directors from over 16 counties will be attending the sessions.

A film, "The Other Guy" will be shown at 10 a.m. and Joe G. Marquart, education and training specialist at the BAR will lead discussion on the film. This will be followed by an address by James A. Alford, M.D., chief at the BAR. The address is entitled, "Medical and Nursing Aspects of Alcoholism", and it will be given at 10:30 a.m.

Other parts of the morning program will include a talk by Martin J. Campbell at 11:15 a.m. on "Overview of Recent Legislative Actions and Their Impact on Health Services Personnel". The speaker is program consultant at the BAR.

Mel Thomas, clinical psychologist at BAR will give a talk on "Sociological Problems, at 11:30 a.m.

City Resurfaces Over Five Miles Of Streets

The resurfacing of over five miles of streets in Avon Park was due to be completed Tuesday, according to Malcolm Crews, city clerk.

Thirty streets were included in the improvement program. The contracting company was Ewell Engineering and Contracting Co.

Crews said that an additional one and a half miles of streets will be paved with asphalt in the near future. Highlands county and the city will work together on this project.

Crews said that due to problems in securing workers sidewalk installations is almost at a standstill although the City Council has authorized several sections of sidewalks to be built.

City Ballot Gets No Additions

City Clerk Malcolm Crews reported to the Sun that no new forms have been filed during the third week of qualifying for city government.

Last week, Wilson W. Smith of Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home, stepped forward and placed his name on the ballot.

At age 51, Smith, a resident of Avon Park for the past fifteen years, stated he hopes to "work for the betterment of the community" if he is elected.

A graduate of Florida Schools, Smith graduated his mortuary schooling in St. Louis, Mo. While there he met his future bride, June Pummill of Illinois.

Smith, a veteran, is a member of the Lions Club, the Masons, the Volunteer Fire Department, and the First Baptist Church.

Wilson Smith

The Smith's have one son, Mark, age 15, who is a Freshman at Avon Park High School and a member of the band.

"With my business experience and sound judgement, I believe I can benefit the community" he stated.

If elected, Smith said he plans to "take a good look at the city budget" to determine just where all the money's going.

Crews also told the Sun that Incumbant Councilman Milton Howard has picked up from city hall all the necessary filing forms and plans to qualify within the next two weeks.

Eddie Williams Awarded Scout Golden Tomahawk

Scout Eddie Williams was the recipient Monday night of the Golden Tomahawk Award, presented annually to the outstanding member of Scout Troop 156. Williams received the award at the troops Parent's Night and Court of Honor held at the Fellowship Hall of the Congregational Church.

Williams, 15, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. James Williams. He holds the rank of Life Scout, and is a Brotherhood member of the Order of the Arrow. Eddie completed a 50-mile hike on the Appalachian Trail with his troop last summer; completed the junior leader training session, Woodlore, at camp Flaming Arrow this summer, and also attended the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Pennsylvania. He is a sophomore at Avon Park High School, and a member of the Grenadier Band. His name has been placed on the troops honor plaque, along with that of last years honor Scout, Darryl Zoller.

In the Court of Honor ceremonies, new Scouts Charles Smith, Kelly Graham, Jaque Thomas and Ken McLeod were welcomed to the troop.

Awards for completing the Mile Swim at the troops summer camp were presented to Marc Hooper, Danny Luke, Philip Statler, Frank Batson, James Goodwin, David Batty and Bobby Batson. A Senior Lifesaving and Water Saving certificate was presented to Billy Tharp, and a Junior Lifesaving and Water Safety certificate went to Marc Hooper.

Merit Badges were presented to Jaque Thomas and James Goodwin for - Basketry; Ken McLeod, and Frank Batson, Motorboating; Bobby Batson, Motorboating and Swimming; Marc Hooper, Cooking and Lifesaving; Billy Tharp, Nature, Reptile Study, Conservation of Natural Resources, Mammals, Fish and Wildlife Management, Basketry, Forestry, Citizenship in the Nation, Citizenship in the Community, Water Skiing, and Soil and Water Conservation.

Scoutmaster Larry Hooper then outlined some of the activities which are being planned during the coming year. These include a canoe trip on Peace River, a survival campout with Ross Allen at Silver Springs, and a diving trip to Key Largo. The troop hopes to make good use of the three canoes, which they recently bought, on a one week trip planned for the Suwanee River at the close of school.

Scout Frank Batson was presented with a lightweight nylon backpacking tent for selling the most tickets to the Scout-O-Rama last Spring.

Color slides of the National Jamboree were shown by Scoutmaster Hooper. It proved to be a most memorable opportunity for the three Scouts, who attended, Marc Hooper, Eddie Williams and James Goodwin.

one-third pasture with a high water table." This land had been offered for sale at $1,730 per acre. Hays said he had not made test borings on any of the proposed sites.

Would Lease

Ted Hill of Tampa who attended the Sept. 18 board meeting said he owns 20 acres of high ground off road 17, near the fire tower at DeSoto City. "I won't sell it", he told the board. "But I'd be willing to sign a contract today, leasing the property for the next five years."

The Hill proposal drew applause from the audience. Hill said he had not contacted the board earlier because he had not known the board would consider a lease.

Commissioner Ken Wilkinson suggested that the board develop a program for leasing. "Plenty of people would come up with 40 acre sites to lease for $15,000 a year, knowing they'd get their land back in 10 years," Wilkinson said.

The board has earmarked a portion of federal revenue sharing money to finance the landfill operations. Wilkinson pointed out that if the commission could place on deposit the $190,000 it now has budgeted for landfill, the interest could be used to pay for a lease. He said at 8 per cent interest an income of $15,000 would be coming in annually.

Stodden

Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet Stodden, age 86, who passed away Thursday, Sept. 13, were held on Saturday, Sept. 15, at 10 a.m. at graveside, Bougainvillea Cemetery. The Rev. Jimmy J. Norred and the Rev. Herbert D. Graetz officiated.

Mrs. Stodden was a long time resident of Avon Park, coming here with her husband, Richard Henry Stodden in 1912 from Michigan, building a home on Deer Lake. Mr. Stodden preceded her in death in 1935. In her active years, Mrs. Stodden was a member of the Founders Circle of the Garden Club; Order of Eastern Star; and a staunch supporter of the schools and P.T.A. She was self-employed in the citrus industry, and a member of the Congregational Church.

She is survived by one son and daughter-in-law, Richard and Myra (McCabe) Stodden, and three granddaughters, Bonnie, Anita and Clarice Stodden, all of Rockledge, Fla.; and two nephews, Paul Hoskin of Miami; and Ted Hoskin of Chicago.

Lambert

Ralph C. Lambert, age 83, of Leisure Oakes Nursing Home, Defiance, Ohio, passed away the morning of Sept. 6, at 3:25 in Defiance Hospital.

Mr. Lambert resided on N. Prospect Ave. in Avon Park for several years, and was a member of the Avon Park Tourist Club. Born Jan. 6, 1890, in Ayersville, the son of Jesse and Francis (Brechbill) Lambert. He was married to F. Mildred Davis on March 22, 1914. She died Jan. 23, 1965.

He married Eva (Blake) Hurley in February of 1966, and she died in January of this year.

He began his married life farming around the Ayersville area, and in 1920 moved to Akron, where he was in the insurance business. He went to Defiance in 1933 as a McNess distributor. He was the Defiance County Deputy Treasurer from 1944 to 1952, and the Defiance County Treasurer from 1953 to September 1967. He was a member of Ayersville Methodist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. E. R. (Florence Mildred) Coddington, Akron; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Also surviving are two stepsons, Joseph Hurley, Norwalk, and Blake Hurley, Findley.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 8, in the Mast and Mock Funeral Home with the Rev. Edwin D. Beach officiating. Burial was in the Ayersville Cemetery.

Red Devils

was scored by sophomore Timmy Massey early in the second period as he went 7 yards to culminate a 34-yard drive on the ground. Ricky Claitt had dashed over from the 21-yard line earlier only to have it called back by a clipping penalty. But Massey had a 10 yard burst from the 25 to the 15 and later shot through the middle for the score. This time Ricky Claitt ran the two-point conversion to put Avon Park out front 22-0.

Defensive halfback Mearl Robinson set up the fourth Avon Park score when he intercepted a Hawk pass at the Avon Park 38-yard line and returned it to the Santa Fe 20-yard marker. That 42-yard pass interception run inspired Ricky Claitt on the very next play as the stocky halfback took a pitchout and outran the Santa Fe defense into the endzone for his second TD of the evening. Packer's kick for the extra point was good again and Avon Park took a 29-0 lead to the dressing room at half-time.

The second half was clouded with penalties for both teams. Santa Fe drove to Avon Park's 23-yard line early in the third quarter but gave up the ball on three consecutive incomplete passes.

The entire last quarter was played in Santa Fe territory but the Devils were unable to score as they lost fumbles on the 15, the 45, and later on the 20 yard line. Mearl Robinson was robbed of a touchdown when an off-sides penalty cancelled a beautiful pass reception in the endzone by the reserve end from reserve quarterback Jerry Robinson. Robinson played the entire last quarter at quarterback and also engineered the last Devil scoring drive in the third period.

Veteran Devil quarterback Buddy DeWitt moved the Avon Park offense very effeciently as he marched for touchdowns on all but two possessions while he was in the game. DeWitt completed 4 of 7 passes for 47 yards. Jerry Robinson, a sophomore playing his first varsity game, completed 2 of 3 passes for a total of 28 yards.

The 200 yards gained on the ground by the Devil backs was picked up by Ricky Claitt with 88 yards in 12 carries; Lawrence McRae with 50 yards in nine totes; William Burley with 47 yards in 11 carries, Timmy Massey with 28 yards in six carries, and Nate Packer netting 11 yards for two carries. DeWitt and Moses Anderson both had minus yardage.

But the real stars of the big Red Devil win were the offensive linemen and the defense.

Cross County Team Host Meet Friday

The Avon Park Red Devil Cross-Country team will host a home meet Friday (tomorrow) at 6 p.m. at the high school. Santa Fe, Venice, Wauchula, and others will compete in the first home meet for the Devil Harriers. The Devil Cross Country team opened its season last Tuesday when it competed in the Venice Invitational. Avon Park did not participate in the Titusville meet last week due to schedule problems.

The home meet tommorrow evening will be over the standard 2½ mile distance course. Course record holder in James Brown with a 12:29 time last season. Brown will be running to defend that record or better it tomorrow.

There will be a junior varsity meet at 5:15 p.m. with the varsity run to start at 6 p.m. Varsity runners include: James Brown, Eugene Sneed, Reid Wall, Larry Sneed, Edward Jones, Raliegh Turnbull, and Doug Fletcher in the coveted "top seven" spots. Junior varsity members include: Frank Anderson, Jerry Sensenig, Ricky Spurlock, Ken Collingsworth, Edward Moses, Jackie Roberts, Willie Washington, Clarence Spry, Greg Blake, Walter Newton, and Eric Simpson.

Interested cross-country fans may view the start and finish of the meet from the front of the high school. All are welcome.

Avon Park Grange Report

By LAVERNE M. FULLMER

Avon Park Grange has grown so much in the past few years that it was necessary to find a larger hall. The first Fall meeting was held Tuesday, Sept. 11, at 8 p.m. in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church Of The Redeemer with past-master Louise Clarke in the chair. It was reported that Harriet Higgs was in Walker Memorial Hospital for tests. The report of the Community More Beautiful Project has been sent to Grange Headquarters.

The Lecturer's program was as follows, In observance of Constitution Week, Bessie Trude read The Political Religion of America written by Abraham Lincoln. In part, he said, "To the support of the Constitution and laws, let every American pledge his life, his property and his sacred honor." The Florida number by Mary Haviland was about the State's Official Play, "The Cross and the Sword" produced at St. Augustine six nights a week every summer. Louise Clarke spoke on Ecology. Loyd Slocum said, "The 70s should be the decade of the plant to produce oxygen". And Gertrude Slocum asked, "Who Is to Blame for Pollution?"

The last part of the program was on school days in charge of Ralph Fullmer, a retired school teacher and counselor for 18 years. He had prepared an interesting centerpiece consisting of a globe, a slate, a handbell, a McGuffey's Reader and other articles formerly used in a school room. He spoke of new and changing concepts in education including electronic calculators in elementary schools and the use of computers at the high school level. The increase in and advantages of vocational education were mentioned as a big plus at the high school level. Emphasis was also placed on the roll of the counselor in our fast expanding education and rapidly changing society. Several members added remarks and related memories of comical happenings in school. Thought for the day—"It's what we learn after we know it all that is important."

Refreshments were served by Ralph and Ione Fullmer during the social hour. The next meeting will be held in the Parish House Of The Church of The Redeemer on Tuesday, Sept. 25 at 8 p.m.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Mr. and Mrs. Kim Eugene Shaw

Methodist Church Scene Of Candlelight Ceremony

In a candlelight ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 8, Miss Linda Kathryn Bonnett and Kim Eugene Shaw were united in marriage at the First United Methodist Church. The Rev. Bently A. Williamston performed the ceremony at 8 p.m. in the evening.

Parents of the bridal couple are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bonnett, Lake Denton; Mrs. Julia Shaw, W. Pine St; and Charles Shaw, Lake Denton, Avon Park.

The double ring ceremony was performed before a background of palms centered with a 10-branch brass fan candelabra, accented with stately white wicker baskets on either side, holding arrangements of pink glads, and white pompons. Adding further to the candlelight ceremony were twin spiral candelabras with burning white tapers. The family pews were marked with white satin bows and stephanotis.

Sherwin MacKintosh, organist, presented a program of nuptial music which included "Love Theme from Romeo and Juliet", and while the bridal couple knelt on a prayer bench, the "Lord's Prayer" was rendered by the guests, as they all stood together.

THE BRIDE

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a silk organza gown, featuring high neck and Empire waist trimmed with sequined scalloped Chantilace. The A-line skirt was trimmed with elongated rows of lace ending at the hemline, and the organza Bishop sleeves also ended in a cuff of lace. The detachable chapel train and chapel veil of pure silk illusion were outlined with Chantilly lace. She carried a delicate collage bouquet of white stephanotis, starburst pompons, and miniature carnations, trimmed with bongi greenery and white lace.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Paula Nicholas, gowned in printed crepe in shades of pink, featuring a square neckline, short sleeves, and ribbon trailing from a back bow. She carried a Victorian styled bouquet of blending shades of pinks, using miniature carnations, rosebuds, stephanotis and babies breath.

Best man was Tim Williams of Avon Park. Ushers were Roy Lamly and Tommy Sharpe, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, both of Avon Park.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bonnett wore a pink gown of knit lace, featuring long sleeves and high collar trimmed in lace. She wore white accessories and a tailored corsage of pink miniature carnations with pink satin trim.

Mrs. Shaw chose for her son's wedding, a floral knit gown with accents of beige and white. The gown featured long sleeves and velvet ribbon circling the waist with bow and long streamers in front. She wore matching accessories and a tailored corsage of pink and white miniature carnations with pink satin trim.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Bonnett entertained at a reception immediately following the ceremony, in Wesley Hall. Mrs. Kathleen Johnson presided at the bride's book, on a table with a centerpiece of mixed pink flowers of miniature carnations, babies breath and starburst pompons. A background of palms were used at focal points in the Hall.

The three-tier all white wedding cake centered the bride's table, which was covered with a white satin and pink lace floor-length colth. On either side was a pair of silver, five-branch candelabras with clusters of ivy and pink satin roses. The tiers of the cake were separated by white columned swans and accented with clusters of stephanotis. The cake rested on tiers of circular white net, and was crowned with a tall floral arrangement featuring two white doves and double wedding rings. Dainty white napkins were inscribed in silver with the names of Linda and Kim, and their wedding date, Sept. 8, 1973. The bridal bouquet lay in front of the wedding cake, completing the table decorations.

The punch table, also covered with a floor length cloth, in satin and pink lace, was centered with a large silver punch bowl, flanked on either side by silver candelabras with clusters of ivy and pink satin roses. Pastel mints and assorted nuts were served from silver compotes.

Assisting with the serving were, Janet Ewell, Patti Peterson, Lynn Camp and Sherri Ellerbe.

KEY WEST HONEYMOON

When the bridal couple left on their honeymoon for Key West, the bride was wearing a gold and brown-check pantsuit with brown accessories, and a corsage lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Upon their return, their new residence will be Velvet Shores, Avon Park. Both the bride and bridegroom are employed at Charlies Outboard.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS

Attending the wedding on Saturday from Jacksonville were Mrs. C. G. Bonnett, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Bonnett, aunt and uncle of the bride; Eugenia Martin, cousin of bride; and Linda Freeland and Jeff Luten.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, Bowling Green, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ziesenheim, Sebring, also attended.

REHEARSAL DINNER

The rehearsal dinner for the Bonnett-Shaw wedding party was held on Friday evening, Sept. 7, in Wesley Hall, preceding rehearsal. The buffet dinner was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bonnett.

The tables at which the 20 guests were seated, were covered with white linen and centered with a floral arrangement in the bride's colors of pink and white. A bridal motif was used throughout in decorations.

Linda and Kim presented gifts to each of their attendants.

Junior Women Holds First Meeting Of The Year

The Junior Womens Club of Avon Park got started back in full swing with their first meeting of the new year on Tuesday, Sept. 11, 1973. President Eileen Martin called the meeting to order. Myrtis Guerndt gave the devotional and lead in the flag salute.

The guest speaker for the evening, Miss Jo Marilynn Townsend, was introduced by Lois Sachsenmaier, program chairman. Miss Townsend, who is the Extension Home Economics Agent for Highlands County, gave a very interesting and informative talk on the proper storage of food.

Refreshments of cookies and cokes were served by the board members, hostesses for the evening.

The business part of the meeting was called to order with the reading of the roll call and minutes of the last meeting by the secretary, Grace DeLaney.

The new budget was presented by the treasurer, Karen Boyer. This was voted on and passed by all club members.

Under old business, the coming Folies were discussed. The date of Jan. 25 and 26 has been set up as the nights the Folies will be given. Keep these dates in mind.

The Club Project for the month was for each member to bring a gift to be given at a later date to the Sunland patient that the club sponsors in Fort Myers. This way, she is remembered each month and not just on her birthday and Christmas.

The Club welcomed several new members.

Newton- Wigand Wedding Held At Catholic Church

Liliuokalani Newton and James Joseph Wigand were united in marriage on Saturday, Sept. 1 at Our Lady of Grace Church in Avon Park.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Welch Fisher of Avon Park; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wigand, of Ft. Lauderdale, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Palms and greens formed a background for the nuptial mass which was celebrated by the Rev. Father Antonio Pons.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was exquisite in a floor-length white gown with full skirt and train of satin. The fitted bodice with deep V neckline and long sleeves, was of imported lace. A deep border of lace edged the face-framing veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of "First Love" white roses with ivy and greens.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Bobbi Newton. Janice Turnbull, Cindy Robbins, and Melody Heatherly, of Avon Park and Mary Ann Wigand, sister of the bridegroom, served as bridesmaids. They wore Empire gowns in varied pastel shades, with short puffed sleeves. White lace outlined the wide, curved necklines and front panels. They carried Meadow Lark arrangements of daisies, feathery fern and baby's breath.

Thomas Wigand was best man and John and Robert Wigand, all brothers of the groom, were ushers. John and Walter Newton, brothers of the bride also served as ushers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Fellowship Hall at the Congregational Church.

Lace-edged white cloths covered the serving tables. The wedding cake, circled with fern and pastel mums, centered the bride's table and was flanked by white tapers in crystal candelabra. Crystal punch bowls were also circled with fern and mums.

Assisting with the reception were Mary Ellen Ward, Tracy Heitsch, Virginia Crews, Jane Baraben, Margaret Turnbull and Nancy Weber.

Sue Onken, of St. Petersburg, and Candi Reddick, Pat Morris and Frieda Long, of Avon Park assisted at the punch bowls.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. Fisher, was attired in azure blue with white embrodidery. Mrs. Wigand, mother of the bridegroom, wore a frock of deep rose lace. Each wore a cluster corsage of white daisies.

Out of town guests at the wedding included Nancy Donaldson of Lakeland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. Freeman Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. George Fields of Wauchula; Meredith Millan of Ft. Lauderdale; Mrs. Mose Livingstone and daughters Lynn, Brenda and Sylvia of Groveland.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Wigand are making their home in Gainesville, where James is a student at the University of Florida and Lani attends Santa Fe Community College.

Women's Council Fellowship Dinner Set

On Thursday evening, Sept. 13, the Womens' Council of the First Christian Church, held a meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the Church, with Mrs. Clifford Dance and Mrs. Gilbert Dance as the hostesses.

Mrs. Byron Harwood continued the lesson study, using the 18th Chapter of the Acts. Reports were given by the officers and the Sunshine Committee. Several projects were introduced for future consideration. The infants' sets of clothing, intended for the use of a Rhodesian hospital will soon be sent. The Council is sponsoring a Fellowship dinner, to be held at Lake Aurora Christian Camp, Sept. 30.

After the meeting, the hostesses served refreshments. The table was centered with a beautiful arrangement of orchids and greenery.

Free Adult Education Classes Start At SFJC

Do you know someone who cannot read this article? If so, you may do them a favor by telling them that a series of classes will be starting soon in Highlands County.

The program is called Adult Basic Education. It is sponsored by South Florida Junior College, and is open to any adult who was not able to finish school through the eighth grade.

A person may attend these classes at no cost. Books and materials are furnished through a grant from the State Department of Education. The class is open to all, regardless of educational background, and everyone will be allowed to proceed at their own pace. Classes will be held each Tuesday night at Avon Park Middle School, Sebring Middle School, and Lake Placid High School. Residents of these communities are urged to attend the class that is closest to their own home.

To register, all a person has to do is to go to the class and fill out a very short form.

Capping, Pinning Ceremony Honors Auxiliary

WALKER MEMORIAL Hospital Administrator, John McClellan, congratulates Josie McDaniel who received a 500-hour pin, while Jane Wells and Grace Krenerick look on. Mrs. Wells and Mrs. Krenerick received corsages and pins representing 1,000 hours of service. Receiving 500-hour pins, but not present for picture, were Mrs. Fannie Roche and Mrs. B. M. Sharion (known as Miss T.). - Photo by Sharpe

MRS. MARJ SLOCUM is being congratulated by Walker Memorial Hospital Administrator, John McClellan, as Mrs. Lydia Ruskjer looks on with approval.

Receiving their caps and 100-hour pins were Mesdames Doris McClellan, Edna Mende and Rosemary Clarke.

Five-hundred-hour pins were awarded Mesdames Fannie Boche, Josie McDaniel and B. M. Sharian, (popularly known as Miss T.).

Mrs. Jane Wells and Mrs. Grace Krenerick received pins denoting 1,000 hours of service.

A pin for 2,000 hours was received by Mrs. Lydia Ruskjer.

Mrs. Marj Slocum topped all others, with a record of 10,000 hours.

During the summer the following pieces of equipment have been purchased for the hospital by the "Pink Ladies".

A recliner-rocker for use by mothers who need to stay long hours with their small children. It is planned in the near future to have a room especially for tots, complete with toys, bright decals and the comfortable lounge chair for mother.

A "Tomac Surgilift"; this piece of equipment is designed to take the patient from his bed, to table, to X-Ray, or whatever is needed with no strain or effort on his part, as well as none on the nursing staff.

A "Nyematic L.P.N. System" by which it becomes easier and quicker, as well as more accurate for the doctors to communicate their messages to the records department.

Also purchased, but not yet received, is a new system of patient identification. A heavy plastic card will replace the metal one now in use. Patients on first floor, South, will no longer have their nights punctuated by the clanking of the machine imprinting the metal plates.

A tour of the "mezzanine" floor to show the inner workings of the Nymatic - L.P.N. system was conducted by Mr. McClellan, and much appreciated by the "pink ladies." It's always gratifying to see what you have spent your money for.

These projects, and many more through the years, are financed by TV rentals, gift shop sales, Tupperware sales and an occasional gift. Also a couple of rummage sales added to the fund.

What does the Auxiliary do besides buy equipment for the hospital? They try, in every way, to give those little extras for patient comfort; a paper purchased, a soft drink brought, a letter written, a phone call made, assisting in admitting and discharging patients, are a few of the things. Also a separate file is kept, giving each patient's religious preference, for the convience of the pastors. Visitors, who are strangers, are conducted or directed to their destination. Patients' mail and flowers are delivered by the "pink ladies."

Do you want to join? Volunteers are needed. People who are willing to serve for the joy of helping those who so sorely need someone just to listen, to take time to be a friend. Being ill is often a frightening, lonely experience. The pink ladies try to bridge the gap between necessity and concern. This is an "equal opportunity" organization.

Assisting the "pink ladies" after school hours are the "candy-stripers"; highschool - junior and senior girls of good scholastic standing. They have a "candy cart" from which the patient can borrow magazines and purchase candy and incidentals. If they forget to bring a comb or toothbrush, the "stripers" have it.

Pallbearers For Elder

Pallbearers for Funeral Services on Sept. 10, for Alton E. Elder, who passed away Friday, Sept. 7, were as follows:

Active: Grady Campbell, Judge Kelley, Dick Robinson, Gene Durrance, Billy Durrance and Ed Touchton Jr.

Honorary: S.C. Pardee, Randy Ward, Joe Fann, Raymond Elliott, Leon DeLaney and Clarence King.

Founders Circle

Founders Circle of the Avon Park Garden Club met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Thomas R. Clarke with Mrs. H. B. Donaldson as co-hostess.

After a brief business session, Mrs. C. Pabor gave a paper on Anti-Litter. We should be ever mindful for the beauty of our surroundings. Keep them free of litter and plant colorful flowers. Plantings help also with ecology.

'73 CHARGER.

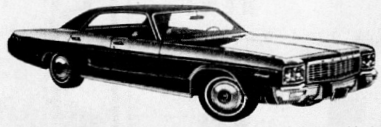

Gives you more of what's new. Style. Features. And choice.

Dodge Charger's great styling is still in a class all by itself. What's new for '73? A unique Torsion-Quiet Ride, front disc brakes as standard, a choice of three vinyl roofs, and a "super quiet" Charger SE.

'73 POLARA.

The big Dodge makes a lot of sense again.

It's an easy step up in price to get Dodge Polara's full-sized looks, luxury, and equipment. But it's the engineering features, such as Electronic Ignition and Torsion-Quiet Ride, that make Polara an outstanding buy.

Gibbs Gift Gallery Opens This Week

GIBBS GIFT GALLERY opened this week in downtown Avon Park, at 21 South Lake Ave.—just four doors south from the Gibbs Gifts and Office Supplies. Their former location will now be Gibbs Office Furniture and Supplies.

The first shop of its kind in Highlands County, Gibbs Gift Gallery is reminiscent of the fine gift shops in Orlando's Park Avenue, or along Worth Ave. in Palm Beach. Decorated by Jean Gibbs with cool greens, white wicker and fine antiques, the atmosphere is gracious and inviting, yet relaxed.

Gibbs Gift Gallery is a beautiful and spacious store for your shopping convenience, a place where the folks really Care about You and are anxious to help you choose just the proper gifts. Since your family and friends deserve the best, do stop in and browse. You will find gifts that will be remembered and cherished for a lifetime.

The new store offers a Gourmet Kitchen Cupboard, a Grandmother's Corner—as well as Bridal Selections, card and paper party goods, jewelry, handbags, fine china and crystal—as well as an outstanding selection of men's gifts.

Visit the Kitchen Cupboard for great gift ideas like enameled cookware, herb gardens, bulletin boards, fruit centerpieces, hand-crafted wooden spoons and bowls, wire whisks and colorful cannisters, also gay linen napkins and place mats—plus all the extras that make dining more fun. You can find everything you could need for casual living, too,—picnic supplies, ice buckets, bar equipment, baskets, patio dishes, pillows.

The men's section is filled with new and unusual gifts for men. In the wide variety there'll be no problem at all in finding the right gift for the "man who's hard to buy for."

In Grandmother's Corner you'll find stuffed toys and other hand-crafted crib toys, embroidered bibs, stainless steel or sterling cup and spoon sets, plus many more gift ideas for the precious new arrival.

The Gibbs "Glass Shelves" area is simply loaded with exciting gifts. You're sure to find what you are looking for. You can choose from collectors' plates, cut glass bowls or decanters, hand-painted Limoges, footed trays, Lladru figurines from Spain, Hummels from Germany, Staffordshire birds from England, handblown art glass from Fenton, or unusual quality Oriental Art decorator pieces.

In the Gibbs Bridal Room, a "Bride of the Week" is featured on a gold tripod stand. This department has been expanded to encompass a wider range of patterns in china, crystal, silver, stainless and silver plate. Just a brief survey of the brands here reveals quality products from Haviland, Franconia, Hutschenruther Bavarian China, Tiffin and Franciscan Crystal, Oneida, Heirloom, International, and Rogers Brothers silver and stainless. The new Bride's Corner is the perfect place to select all your patterns. You'll find Bride Books, and you can order invitations, select printed napkins—just everything for today's bride to cherish and remember.

Gibbs Gift Gallery reflects the southern hospitality of the owners—Jean J. T. Gibbs. Everyone is friendly and willing at all times to help in every way possible, with free gift wrapping, lay-aways, consultations and help in planning—all the little personal extras that add up to a great (and helpful) shopping experience.

THE TRISSEL FAMILY of Lake Mary, Fla., who will be appearing at the Church of the Nazarene, 707 W. Main St., every night this week at 7:30 p.m., with "Services of Music and Bible Preaching", are pictured above.

Johnsons Return From European Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson of Sunny Ridge Mobile Home Park, 1002 W. Church St., recently returned from a seven week vacation.

Seventeen days were spent in Europe visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. J. L. Kindrick and their two daughters, Angelia Faye and Jennifer Lynn, who were in Baumholder, Germany. During their stay they visited Belgium, Luxinburg, Germany and Austria.

During the balance of their trip in the states, they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olis and family at 18909 Darden Road, South Bend, Ind. Also Mrs. Hazel Johnson, mother of Mr. Johnson. Friends they visited while away were, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith of Bowling Green, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Theron Brewer of Michigan. They also spent a few days with Mrs. Johnson's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Alyea of Lowell, Ind., who has been on the sick list lately.

Home looked good to the Johnsons after being away for several weeks.

BUILDING STONE for your BUSINESS and HOME

Very little in life has been more reliable or a bigger bargain down through the years than electricity.

And we'd like to keep it that way.

Right now, new customers are moving into our service area at the rate of 250 each working day. 64,000 a year.

Over the next 5 years we'll need to invest a billion dollars for new construction to meet the growing demand for power. And this money must come from investors.

That's why it's so important that Florida Power maintain adequate earnings.

If we can't show a fair return to investors, it will become exceedingly difficult to get the money needed to continue construction of vital facilities.

If we can't get the money, even crossing our fingers won't help.

Florida Power

One Starr Son Home Another Off To Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Tal Starr, Fred, Tim and Darlene, of 410 E. Canfield, Avon Park, left for Tampa airport on Aug. 22, to bring home one traveling son, David and to send another son, Fred, off.

David spent three weeks in Elyria, Ohio with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis V. Kon (Mrs. Tal (Inga) Starr's parents). While in Ohio, he visited with his uncle, Richard Starr (Tal's brother) in Amherst; went on a week vacation with Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Papay (Mrs. Starr's sister) and their six children to King's Point, Columbus, Ohio; then on to Rock City, Tenn., via the scenic route through the Smokey Mountains.

David left the Cleveland airport for Tampa, about the same time Fred was boarding his plane for Cleveland.

In Cleveland, Fred joined his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kon, on a continuing journey to visit relatives in Bremen-Bluenthal, Germany (hometown of Mrs. Starr).

From Cleveland to London, 24 hours of sightseeing and on to Bremen, Germany. It was the first return trip for any of Inga's family in 26 years. Fred wrote it was a happy, but tearful reunion for his grandparents. After three weeks in Germany, Fred's postcards are written with mingled German.

Fred has visited high school in Germany with his cousin, Wolfgang Domminzak, regularly, and still has had time to travel extensively through north western Germany. One of the highlights of the trip was for Fred to visit the monument of Friederick Johann Volkens, (Fred's great-grandfather) in downtown - Bremen-Blumenthal, after whom Fred is named.

Fred will celebrate his 16th birthday, Sept. 21, on his return flight from Germany. Another 24 hours in London, and on back to Cleveland, arriving in Tampa, Sunday, Sept. 23. Fred is a student at Avon Park High School, and will start classes after his return.

S-4 MELVIN JOHNSON

Sp/4 Johnson Participates In Marches

Army Specialist Four Melvin Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie F. Johnson, 1208 S. Delaney Ave., Avon Park, participated in the 57th international four-day marches, July 17-20, at Nijmegen, Netherlands.

The 13,000 marchers, including military and civilian participants, completed approximately 25 miles a day with a 22-pound pack through the countryside and villages of the Netherlands.

The Armys V Corps provided mess, bath, laundry, medical, press and transportation facilities for the American teams.

The marches, sponsored by the Royal Netherlands League for Physical Culture, were to develop endurance and encourage friendship and goodwill among the 22 participating nations.

Spec. Johnson is regularly stationed in Germany as a driver with Company C, Second Battalion, 36th Infantry of the Third armored division in Kirchgoens.

Spec. Johnson entered the Army in December 1970.

Before entering the Army, Spec. Johnson was employed by the Delucia Brothers, New York City, as a truck driver.

Volleyball League Starts

The Avon Park Recreation Department is going to start a Men's Volleyball League soon. All interested churches, businesses, civic organizations, and independent teams who wish to participate in such a league, have the team representative contact either the Avon Park Recreation Department at 453-6881 or Dennis Guenther at 453-5221 for further details.

Mrs. Morris Is Member Of National Careers Museum

Mrs. Mae B. Morris of Delaney Heights, Avon Park, is an Exhibiting and Contributing member of the National Carvers Museum, which is now open to the public on a beautiful eight-acre site north of Colorado Springs along Interstate 25, directly adjacent to the U.S. Air Force Academy. Called "The Carving Captiol of America", this 10,000 square foot Museum already houses the work of over 2,000 American Artist and Craftsmen.

Outstanding resident carvers and wood identification expert are on the premises to answer any and all questions.

The Museum was incorporated in November 1969, in the State of Colorado as a Not-For-Profit Foundation whose purpose is "to foster and promote the Art, Craft, of skill of carving", and "to provide a Museum or exposition hall for the display of the art, craft, or skill of carvers, past, present and future."

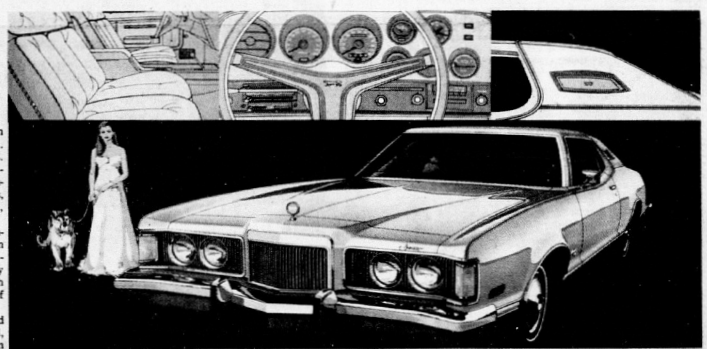

The Museum Foundation also has as one of its basic purposes the stimulation of the general public's interest in elevating woodcarving to the position it so richly serves. The Museum will encourage the understanding of woodcarving by providing cultural, artistic, educational and instructive information to all visitors.

If you are interested in woodcarving as a hobby the Foundation has an Educational Program with memberships available at a nominal fee. For further information send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the National Carvers Museum Foundation, 14960 Woodcarver Road, Monument, Colorado 80132.

MOTOR STOLEN

An outboard motor has been reported stolen by R. P. Dunty Jr. The 9.5 horsepower motor was taken from a boat docked at Dunty's home on Lake Placid. Dunty reported the theft to Highlands County sheriff's department on Sept. 6.

Cougar XR-7 In size, this new breed of Cougar is like Grand Prix and Monte Carlo. In every other way, it's like nobody else's car. Totally new for '74. New wide buckets, new dash with tachometer and hooded gauges mounted in deeply padded vinyl. Distinctive new Landau roof. Elegant opera window. Steel-belted radials. All standard.

FRIDAY IS THE DAY OF THE CAT

Marquis Brougham
Today a great ride is just not enough. So we designed the '74 Marquis to be more economical to maintain. Gave it steel-belted radials, standard. And Marquis does not require premium gas.

Montego MX Brougham
This personal-size Mercury is designed to ride like a big car. On an extra-wide stance and the same type suspension system as Lincoln-Mercury's most expensive luxury car. But with the economy of a mid-size car.

Comet with Custom Option
Who says gas economy comes only in plain little cars? Even though Comet's stingy on gas, it's generous on luxury. Because this Comet's got a little Cougar in it. Now you don't have to give up luxury to get gas economy.

Not shown: Mercury Monterey, the medium-priced car with the famous Mercury ride.
See the whole new family of wagons, too. The kind only Mercury could build.
It all happens "The Day of the Cat."

MERCURY

Optional equipment shown: Marquis Brougham—WSW tires, wheel covers; Montego MX Brougham—vinyl roof, WSW tires, wheel covers; Cougar—WSW tires, radio, stereo tape, air conditioner.

PAINT . . . Protects wood and metal
GOD'S WORD . . . Protects the soul

As paint protects wood and metal from decay, rust, and corrosion, so the promises found in God's word protect the soul from the evils of sin, anxiety and despair. Hear God's wonderful promises proclaimed from the pulpit in the church of your choice this Sunday. These promises so heard will accomplish wonderful things in your soul and heart, for God says of His Word, "It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." Isaiah 55:11.

Last Monday when they played the Saturday before tournament, there were seven courts of players. Dorothy Gruber and Paul Manegold won first place, with Grace Warner and Floyd Stevens coming in second. Third was Geraldine Long and Ethel Laubensheimer with Anna Manegold and Herbert Woolscroft the fourth.

On Wednesday evening with eight and a half courts in the line-up, Paul Manegold and William Oleson won in the main over Herman Wurster and John Wolfe. In consolation Floyd Stevens and Anna Manegold won with Doc Fields and John Harp the runners-up.

Thirty-eight folks lined up to play in the shuffling tournament on Saturday evening. Winners were John Harp and John Wolfe with Bernice Long and Paul Manegold the runners-up. Clay Kull and Ed Edwards won in consolation over Herman Wurster and Doc Fields.

The folks in the line-up sang Happy Birthday to Harry Gibson who was celebrating his 88th birthday. Many more happy returns, Harry.

On Monday afternoon there were three tables of pinochle players, and on Friday there were four tables. High scores went to Frieda Steen, 754, Ota - Gibson, 767, and again Frieda Steen on Friday 696, Chris Cabezas 645.

Via the grapevine, we hear that Caroline Webber will be returning to Avon Park in October with a new husband. She will be Mrs. Evan Crump. May she have a happy marriage.

Irene Ayling had hip surgery this past week in the Buffalo General Hospital in New York, zip code 14200. She had a broken hip two years ago and this was for repair work.

Welcome Miller is in the Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak, Mich. He suffered a very slight stroke.

Charles Fenstermaker, a very old time member, passed away in Amanda, Ohio, this past week.

Saturday evening we welcomed back to Avon Park, Duke Christensen, who spent the summer in Moran, Mich. Also Arlene Lane, who visited her son for two months. They live in New York state.

Had a nice letter from the Sylven Bakers in Urbana, Ohio. They are looking forward to their return to Avon Park. They hope the dances will pick up soon. They have been able to do a bit of square dancing this summer. They visited several Avon Parkers, namely Caroline Webber, Audrey Near and Elizabeth Hyatt. They also attended the Avon Park picnic in Bourbon, Ind., with the Russell Smiths. They almost thought they were back in Avon Park, they saw so many friends.

School Night For Scouting Set At Avon Elementary

"School Night for Scouting" has been set for 7-9 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 20, at Avon Park Elementary School, W. Winthrop St., Avon Park.

Avon Park District Commissioner W. J. Kiff (Bill) is chairman of this year's Boy Scouts of America School Night Program.

The annual event offers the opportunity for boys of Cub and scout age and their parents to go to the school and meet with adult Scout leaders who will explain Scouting, its aims, purposes, and objectives. Boys can also join the Scout Units on that night.

Boys who are eight years old or in the third grade through 10 years old are eligible for Cub Scout membership, and boys 11 years old or in the sixth grade through age 17 are eligible for the regular Scouting program.

Local People Attend Conference For Retarded

The 20th Annual Conference of the Florida Association for Retarded Children was hosted by the Leon Association for Retarded Children at the Tallahassee Hilton Sept. 13-15 in conjunction with the Florida chapter of the American Association on Mental Deficiency. Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Ward, Avon Park and Mrs. Howard Thomas, Executive Director of the Ridge Area Association for Retarded Children attended from Highlands County. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ward are past presidents of the Ridge Area and Florida organizations.

Of particular interest to the conference participants was the tour of the Trout Pond Recreation Area where facilities have been designed to accommodate handicapped persons. Paved walks in the area have been planned so that people in wheel chairs can travel from car to swimming pool to fishing pond to services at easy grades through wide doors and up and down accessible ramps. Drinking fountains, picnic table, outdoor stoves and other facilities are all built for the ease of use by handicapped persons and their families. Family and group camping is encouraged.

Big news of the conference was given in the session "New Directions for the Division of Retardation" in serving the mentally handicapped. Jack McAllister,former resident of Avon Park and presently Director, Division of Retardation, presented a plan for action and progress toward implementation, outling the work yet to be done to provide services for the handicapped at community levels. Dr. Landis Stetler, Administrator, Exceptional Education, State Department of Education, described the differences in providing education for the exceptional child under the newly legislated formula for funding. Dr. Stetler stressed the need for parents to serve as "watch dogs" of program quality much as they do for other areas of education. David Sellers, Program Supervisor with the Florida Division of Vocational Rehabilitation discussed ways in which his agency can assist the retarded but had to stress the limitations resulting from curtailed funding at the national level.

The Highlands delegation was especially interested in the presentations, slides and discussions by a number of different agency representatives, of their experience in developing community group living arrangements for adult retarded persons and for the care of all ages of retarded citizens in foster homes. Ridge Area ARC members are currently studying ways and means of establishing opportunities for the county adult handicapped to live more independently than they can as children in parental homes or in the total cloister of institutions.

Sharpe To Head Rebel Riders Club, Murphy Vice-Pres.

The Avon Park Rebel Riders 4-H Horse Club held their first meeting for the year 1973-74, on Thursday, Sept. 13, with 38 attending.

New officers were elected for the coming year. They are as follows, President, Stacey Sharpe; vice-president, Janice Murphy; secretary, Janey Filppula; treasurer, Laurie Peterson; reporter, Kara Elder.

Adult leaders are, organizational leader, Mrs. JoAnn Serdynski; project leader, Mrs. Joy Murphy, with Mrs. Freida Long as assistant; food committee, Mrs. Mary Taylor and Mrs. Carol Hall; and transportation chairman, Preston Roberts.

The riding club is going into its second year, and has made great progress with close to 45 members.

The club expressed appreciation to their leaders for last year, Mrs. Ken Filppula, and Roberta and Sam Elder for their help in making last year a success.

Meetings will be held on the first Saturday of each month, unless members are notified differently. New members are welcome. Everyone is looking forward to an informative and fun-filled year.

Agi. Research Meet Set

The Annual Meetings of Agricultural Research Center, Inc., and Applied Agricultural Research, Inc., 1305 East Main St. Lakeland, will be held Sept. 19, at Strollo's Restaurant, located across from our office.

The business meetings will be held in the morning sessions, beginning at 11 a.m. After lunch, the guest speaker will be Jim Luttrell, Grower Division Director on Florida Citrus Mutual, who will be speaking on the future of citrus in Florida, problems and profits.

The public is invited to the afternoon session, beginning at 1:30 p.m.

Bud Lannon Is Named Manager

Norman W. "Bud" Lannon has been named fresh fruit product manager of the Florida Department of Citrus.

Lannon joined the department as a merchandising specialist in Washington, D.C.-Baltimore in 1965. He had been serving as district manager in that marketing area.

Prior to joining the department, Lannon was with the U.S. Tobacco Company. He is a graduate of City College High School in Baltimore and attended McCoy College, a division of Johns Hopkins University.

We've moved to our new location on old Desoto City Road in Sebring.

Food for Thought

By Jane Nickerson

Mrs. Thomasina Sutherland McKenzie whacked the coconut she held with a stone she had picked up from the driveway. The husk split, liquid splashed out. She had taken the first step, she said, in making rice and peas, Jamaica's national dish. It is cherished from Montego Bay to Kingston, she assured me.

Who better could show me how to prepare this delicacy than Thomasina? The friendly, middle-aged, black woman, who has lived in mid-Florida two years, is a native of the fascinating island 150 miles long and 50 miles wide that lies 400 miles south of Florida.

She began cooking on the five-acre farm of Cecil Sutherland, her father, in the parish of Portland, her girlhood home near Port Antonio. Later she attended cooking school in Kingston. Since leaving Jamaica 16 years ago she has cooked professionally in Canada, Connecticut and New York. Annually she returns for a visit that revives her spirits till another year.

Jamaica has more to boast of than the world's richest deposits of bauxite, Thomasina reminded me. Fruits of the sea and the earth as well as of the trees are among its treasures, explained this good cook, the best I've met in many months.

From blue waters, she said, come snapper, grouper, mullet, kingfish, shrimp. From the rich soil, guinea and yellow and negro and white yams, yam peas, chocho and the familiar okra, spinach, cucumbers, sweet potatoes. And from the trees, some thriving on the cloud - capped Blue Mountains rising 7,000 feet above the sea, come coffee beans, cacao beans, jack fruit, breadfruit, coconuts, mangoes, soursop, custard apples, akee, bananas. Even a gourmet if he's a foreigner, needs an encyclopedia to take full advantage of such riches.

Much of the beef must be shipped in and often it's poor, Thomasina admitted. But when you can breakfast on escovitch, lunch on brown stew fish, dine on rice and peas and snack on mangoes, do you develop a hamburger hang-up? Do you miss meat?

Jamaicans, she said, are devoted to fresh food—fresh fish, fresh vegetables, fresh fruit. And they take time to prepare them; they really cook, she insisted. Americans don't cook seriously, she argued, and they're lost without a joint.

A joint? British, you recall, for roast. Much that is English comes out in the vocabulary and diction of a woman who lived in an area governed by Great Britain for 200 years. Broad a's gaze heard in break-fahst and grahss. She speaks of soaking fruits in rum for the Christmas plum pudding. And occasionally, she says, we end a company dinner with a trifle. That English classic is trivial in name only, a fattening, irresistible dessert of sponge cake, sherry, soft custard sauce, whipped cream.

Back now to my kitchen and three memorable Jamaican dishes Thomasina cooked for me, proving, oh she said she would, that high meat prices need not cripple menus. The peas of rice-and-peas turned out to be small, dried, red beans. Thomasina simmered them in coconut milk and seasoned them with thyme, a favorite herb of the island. Fragrant of coconut, the dish was as good to sniff as to savor.

Jamaica Rice And Peas

1 cup small, red, dried beans or, if unavailable, red kidney beans
2 cups grated, fresh coconut
2 slices salt pork, about 3x2x¼ inches
¼ cup chopped onion
1½ cups rice
⅛ teaspoon dried thyme
Salt to taste

1. Wash the beans; drain. Put them in a heavy, two-quart saucepan, cover with water and let soak overnight. In the morning add enough water to give a depth of a half-inch above the beans. Simmer them, covered, 30 minutes.

2. Cover the coconut with 3½ cups of water, let stand a few minutes and strain off liquid, pressing the grated coconut to extract all the moisture, called "milk". Reserve it and discard the coconut. You should have about 3 1-3 cups milk.

3. Add the milk to the beans. Cover and simmer till beans are tender, an hour or longer.

4. Meantime let the pork brown lightly over low heat in a small fry pan. Increase heat to high and cook the onion in the fat that will have melted out of the pork; do not remove the pork when you do this. Add fat, pork, onion, rice and thyme to the tender beans. Simmer, tightly covered, till rice has absorbed the liquid, 20 to 30 minutes. Taste and add salt.

Yield: 12 servings - a sophisticated dish for a buffet.

(Note: One way to open a coconut is to wrap it in a towel, put it on cement, tap it all over with a hammer and give it a hard whack or two. The towel keeps the pieces from scattering. If you want to use the liquid inside, bore holes through the eyes and drain it off before opening the coconut.)

Escovitch is the Jamaican version of the Spanish escabeche - fried fish, put in a mild pickle and refrigerated. It provides a zesty appetizer, luncheon main dish, late-evening snack or, in Thomasina's view, a breakfast delectable.

It is seasoned with allspice, berries that grow on an evergreen tree and that taste like a blend of cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. Jamaica is the world's largest producer. if you cannot find whole allspice, buy the product called "pickling spice" and sort them out of that. The berries are smooth, round, dark brown and a bit larger than peppercorns.

Escovitch

1½ pounds kingfish steaks or snapper fingers.
½ fresh lime
Salt, pepper
5 tablespoons oil
3 small, hot peppers
1 large onion, sliced
2 teaspoons whole allspice
6 tablespoons wine vinegar

1. Wash and dry the fish. Rub all over with lime. Salt and pepper generously. Let stand 30 minutes.

2. Heat oil in a heavy 10-inch fry pan till hot but not smoking. Brown the fish in it on both sides, reduce heat to medium-low and cook till done - about 5 minutes.

3. Quarter the peppers with a sharp knife, holding them steady on a board with a fork. Do not touch the cut peppers; their flesh can burn your skin. Substitute a pinch of dried red peppers, if you wish.

4. Layer the fish in a small, deep casserole. Heat the oil left in the pan till hot and turn the onion in it till it looks clear. Add not peppers, allspice and vinegar and pour over fish. Cover and refrigerate overnight.

Yield: Six to eight servings.

Brown Stew Fish

1 pound boneless mullet, mackerel or kingfish
½ fresh lime
Salt, pepper, flour
2 tablespoons fat
¾ cup thin-sliced onion rings
¾ cup diced fresh tomato
1-3 cup hot water

1. Wash and dry the fish. Rub all over with the lime. Salt and pepper generously. Let stand 30 minutes. Dust lightly with flour.

2. Heat the fat over high heat in an 8-inch pan till hot but not smoking. Brown the fish in it on both sides. Reduce heat to low. Add onion, tomato and water. Cover tightly and simmer till fish in tender, about 5 minutes. Season additionally if desired. Serve immediately.

Yield: Three servings.

VANDALS AT LORIDA

Vandals caused approximately $150 damages to an empty house at Lorida. The damages were discovered on the night of Sept. 12 and the county sheriff's department notified. Deputies found that the McClelland house, off U.S. 98 at Istokpoga Canal, had been broken into, windows broken and a freezer damaged.

Plans Told Of Centers For Exceptional Children

The Highlands County Association for Children with Learning Disabilities met Sept. 13 at St. Agnus Episcopal Church, Sebring, for its first meeting of the new school year. Dennis H. Erhardt, Consultant, Specific Learning Disabilities, Education for Exceptional Children for the State of Florida and Mrs. Jean Moore, Coordinator, Exceptional Child Education for Highlands County Schools were the special guest.

Mr. Ehrhardt presented to the 32 people present the plans for the model centers being established for children with learning disabilities in three counties; Jackson, Putnam and Highlands. These centers were established under the 1968 Florida Legislation as model centers to demonstrate to the other sparsely populated districts and hopefully will spread to surrounding districts.

The Florida State Department of Education has adopted this definition of specific learning disabilities: "a disorder in one or more of the basic psychological processes involved in understanding or in using spoken and written language. These may be manifested in disorders of listening, thinking, talking, reading, writing, spelling, or arithmetic. They include conditions which have been referred to as perceptual, handicap, brain injury, minimal brain dysfunction, dyslexia, developmental aphasis, etc. They do not include learning problems which are due primarily to visual, hearing, or motor handicaps, to mental retardation, emotional disturbance, or to an environmental disadvantage."

The elementary schools in Avon Park, Sebring and Lake Placid will be in the Highlands County models. Children may be recommended for testing to enter the program by parents, teachers, counselors, or psychologist. Each child will be tested and then if qualified will be included in the program. Especially trained teachers have been employed to operate the resource room in each school where a child may spend the amount of time he needs working on various problem areas. The child may spend from 15 minutes up to five hours in the Resource Room according to his special needs.

Mrs. Jean Moore, Coordinator for Highlands County answered questions posed by interested parents. Mrs. Moore explained how the Resource Room would work in the various schools and how a parent may request the guidance counselor to have their child tested.

The Highlands County Association for Children with Learning Disabilities is an organization for parents and concerned individuals. The Organization will seek to promote better understanding of learning disabilities, furnish information, help parents find appropriate diagnostic help and stimulate interest in public and private school procedures and programs which meet the needs of learning disabled children. You are urged to attend the next meeting of the Association on Nov. 29, 8 p.m. at St. Agnus Episcopal Church, Sebring, when the program will feature a panel discussion with a pediatrician, psychologist, parent and a school representative.

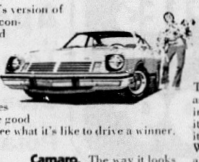

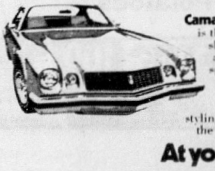

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The '74's are here!

Come see all the beautiful new 1974 CHEVROLET line at
I. H. FORD MOTOR CO.

1974 Chevrolet
A better-than-ever way.
GM
When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Caprice Classic. Introducing an elegant motor car, just asking to be enjoyed. Outside: an imposing new grille, and on the Coupe, a distinctive new roof line. Inside: peace, quiet and convenience. With standard power steering to do most of the turning, standard power front disc brakes to do most of the stopping, and a standard Turbo Hydra-matic transmission to do the shifting. If you want the luxury and comfort of a car that leaves little else for you to do but enjoy the ride, you don't have to look beyond the '74 Caprice Classic. However, the freedom of the open road begins with the freedom of choice.
Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting. That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic—and all the 1974 Chevrolets. The ones shown here, plus Impala, Monte Carlo, Nova, Corvette, pickups, vans and all our new cars and trucks.

Center Will Be Named Grant City

Intercoast Southeast Equities Ltd., a development firm, plans to apply within the next two weeks for a building permit in connection with the construction of a new shopping center planned for Avon Park, a city official said Friday.

The City Council Monday night brought construction one step closer by agreeing to ask the Department of Transportation approval for the drainage for the proposed shopping center parking lot to be connected with the state drainage system.

Grant City—Avon Square, the name proposed for the new facility, will house a total area of 104,874 square feet of retail stores. A W. T. Grant department store will take up 55,000 ft. of the space. W.T.Grant is one of the principle companies involved in building the center.

Eckerds Drugs, another large chain store, will also be located at the new facility along with at least one large supermarket. There will also be room for an estimated five or six more retail stores.

The shopping center will be located on approximately 10 acres near the intersection of U.S. Highway 27 S. and Cornell St.

The total gross land area of the facility will be 414,017 sq. ft., with a 288,942 sq. ft. paved parking lot which will be designed to accommodate up to 528 vehicles.

LOWELL ALLEN, local Shrine Club president, shows the special Shrine newspaper Shrine Club members will be selling in Avon Park this weekend to help benefit Shrine hospitals for crippled and burned children. Plans are being made for a Highlands County child to be flown to a Shrine hospital in January for facial surgery to repair disfiguring scar tissue that resulted from bad facial burns. - (Photo by C. Ten Names Submitted For Commission Seat

A list of 10 names and recommendations for five of them have been submitted to Gov. Reubin Askew to fill the interim post of District One County Commissioner created by suspension of Mel Bass.

Mrs. Hazel Scarborough, co-chairman of the Highlands County Governors Advisory Committee, said Monday the committee met for the purpose of submitting names to the governor to fill the interim appointment.

Mrs. Scarborough said "the Governor may appoint anyone to fill this vacancy in District One but it was his feeling and that of the members of the advisory board that the appointee should come from District One. For this reason, only those persons living in that district were considered by the board.

She added that all names suggested to the advisory committee as well as those submitted by the Highlands County Democratic Executive Board were sent to the governor for his review.

Mrs. Scarborough would not divulge the names on the list. Some action can be expected from the governor possibly by the end of the week, Mrs. Scarborough said, "possibly the first of next week."

The governor has a total of 10 names. The Democratic Executive Committee recommended four of the 10, the advisory board, two. Mrs. Scarborough said only one person had been recommended by both the Democratic committee and the advisory board.

Bass, of Avon Park, serving his first term on the commission, was suspended after three arrests for drunk driving. He had an attendance record of 25 out of 45 commission meetings. He says he will fight the suspension. He currently is at No-Way Center undergoing treatment.

Norris Qualifies For Seat

With the fourth week of qualification for public office passing for the City of Avon Park, one more candidate has stepped forward seeking the office of city councilman.

Leslie R. Norris, operator of the Screech Owl located on Main Street, made the move Friday, Sept. 21.

Norris is married to the former Mary Chenault of Versailles, Ky. They have two daughters, Marcia, nine, and Karla, seven.

"As a young businessman here and having two young girls in the Avon Park School System, I truly have an interest in the city," Norris told the SUN.

"I feel that the people of Avon Park can be better represented by a young man who is aware of the problems of the city," Norris continued, "and a young man that is interested in helping solve these problems and seeing Avon Park prosper."

Norris is a graduate of Carolina Military Academy and he also attended East Carolina University in Greenville, N.C.

He and his family moved to Avon Park after he was discharged from the United States Army where he served as a medical specialist.

Norris is currently serving as President of the newly formed Avon Park Jaycees.

"One of the largest concerns of the people of Avon Park" Norris said, "is the tax situation."

Norris continued by stating, "I feel that the people have a right to know exactly where their taxes are going.

"To accomplish this, I propose that by the tenth of each month the city publish in the Avon Park Sun a financial statement for the preceeding month.

"This way everyone interested will be able to tell exactly what is spent and exactly what it is spent for," he concluded.

Norris also gave his opinion as to why voter turn-out has been so low here.

"Perhaps one of the reasons for the poor turnout of voters last December was due to the fact that the people felt they did not have any control or any power to make decisions concerning the city administration."

To rectify this, Norris stated, "I will say now that if elected to the office of city councilman, I will invite anyone in Avon Park to call me at anytime day or night and I will be happy to discuss any matter with them." He continued, "Perhaps with the youth and enthusiasm I have I can generate enough interest in the citizens so that we don't have only 30 per cent of the qualified voters choosing to vote this December."

To date, according to a spokesman at city hall, only four persons have registered to vote for the upcoming elections in December when two councilmen and the mayor will be elected.

LESLIE R. NORRIS

Marshall Davis has qualified to run for the office of mayor, trying to take that job from incumbant Mayor Robert J. Barben who has yet to announce whether he will see re-election.

The council seats of Milton Howard and Hermon Sizemore will also be up for grabs. So far, along with Norris, Wilson Smith has decided to run. Howard is expected to complete the qualification forms shortly. Sizemore still hasn't announced his intentions, however he told the Council while in session Monday evening that he will make an announcement by Oct. 15.

Recreation Committee Complains Program Is Moving Too Slow

The City Council and its Recreation Committee have ironed out at least a few of the problems that have been hindering the city youth recreation program from getting into full swing.

Recreation committee members the Rev. Paul Trissell and Gene Brenner, and director of the recreation program, Dennis Guenther, aired their complaints to the City Council at the Council meeting Monday night.

The Rev. Mr. Trissell explained to the Council that the members of the recreation committee had believed that after they had found a director for the program, that their responsibilities to the program had ended. He also asked the Council why work on the building which is to be used as a recreation center has gone so slowly.

The Council explained that there had been difficulty in obtaining electrical equipment to help renovate the building and that this had hindered the progress. The Council also explained that the terms of the committee members were still in effect.

Guenther explained that with the condition of the building, "It is hard to get anything going." Guenther was hired as Recreation director earlier this summer.

After a lengthly discussion, it was agreed by the committee and the Council that a lack of communication had caused the whole situation and that plans should be now made for the two groups to work together to get the program going. A motion was passed to appoint W. C. Warner, of Avon Park, and Milton Howard, councilman, to the recreation committee to replace two who had resigned.

The Council voted to write the Highlands County Commission requesting the release of $10,000 designated for city recreation purposes. This action was brought about when the council learned that the county schools will offer no funds for a summer recreation program next summer.

In other council action, Bud Bailey presented plans and cost estimates for sewer extension on E. Canfield street to serve a housing project. He asked for help from the city in defraying costs. The plans will be referred to Dawkins and Associates, the engineering firm used by the city, for study and comment and for recommendation as to the city's participation in the cost construction.

Suggested amendments to city laws concerning trash collection were discussed by the Council members. Among the changes discussed were putting leaves and grass in plastic bags and charging for any hauling away of excessive amounts of trash. An ordinance is being prepared by the city attorney.

Mayor Robert Barben told the Council that he had been informed by the Department of Education that no state funds could be usd to build an auditorium at the middle school as long as classroom space was needed. He said, however, that local funds could be used.

A motion was passed to change Tulane Circle between S. Lake Avenue and S. Feagin Avenue back to two lane traffic.

An application for a refund in federal funds on part of the cost to the city for construction of the sewer plant in 1967, was decided to be prepared. City Clerk Malcolm Crews said that the renumeration could be more than $10,000.

Crews told the council that the street paving had overrun the projected amount by $2,718.19. The Council voted to transfer the overrun from unexpended funds in Federal revenue sharing to pay the paving company a total of $62,718.19.

Dr. Walter Ost Retiring After 13 Years Practice

Dr. Walter M. Ost, who resides on Lake Lillian, Avon Park, will leave this week to take up duties that will take him throughout the world, after practicing medicine in Avon Park for the past 13 years.

A graduate of Loma Linda University, Loma Linda, Calif., he came to Avon Park 13 years ago from Tampa, and was associated with Doctors Coleman and King at the Medical Building in Avon Park. While practicing medicine in Avon Park, Dr. Ost served a term as president of the County Medical Society and also served as Chief of Staff of the Walker Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Ost is an active member of the Walker Memorial Seventh-day Adventist Church. In 1969, in company with Robert Sanborn, he traveled around the world, visiting and studying the foreign missionary work of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Though retiring from medicine, Dr. Ost will be active in a larger field of labor. This spring he was appointed as World Layman of the Seventh-day Adventist Denomination. Serving in this capacity for the church, his work will center in the denominational headquarters in Washington, D.C. from which he will travel throughout the world. His itinerary will include traveling to India this fall and to the Far East including New Guinea in the spring.

DR. WALTER M. OST

He very recently lost his beloved wife, Blanche, after a short illness. He stated that they very much enjoyed this area. He also stated that this is one of the nicest places in the world to live, and the people are some of the nicest in the world. Dr. Ost plans to make this his home when he retires.

Local Property Owners Will Be Taxed Under Control District

The new state water resources act due soon to go into full effect will take a tax bite for the first time out of Sebring and Avon Park city residents.

And it makes things a lot tougher on all but domestic users of water.

A hearing on the new act will be held in Sebring at 10 a.m. Oct 9 at City Hall by an officer of the Central and Southern Flood Control District at which time the effect of the act will be discussed. Hearings are also slated for seven other cities.

For the first time, the FCD will establish and maintain a system of permits for all usages of water except domestic use and permits will be issued or denied on the basis of "reasonable-beneficial use."

The permit system will cover all wells larger than two inches, all canals, reservoirs, lakes, ponds, rivers, and all forms of impoundments such as dams, dikes and pumps.

Under the act, the FCD will have authority to control not only surface water but all ground water as well within the 18-county district. Copies of the Act can be obtained from the FCD, P.O. Box 5, in West Palm Beach and mail requests will be honored.

Taxes

Most of Highlands County has been under the FCD since the 1940's but the new act for the first time brings in the northwest six townships which include the cities of Sebring and Avon Park and puts the county completely under FCD.

The act went into effect July 1 but full implementation is not expected until late this year.

Hearing Set For October 1 On Merger Of United Telephone

With United Telephone Company of Florida facing possible public hearings in this county over complaints of poor service, it was announced this week they are seeking a merger with Florida Telephone Company.

William T. Mayo, commissioner of the Florida Public Service Commission, said that at 3 p.m. Monday, Oct. 1, the PSC will hold a conference with United Telephone of Kansas to discuss the merger which is under way between Florida Telephone and United Telephone of Florida.

The main purpose of the conference, said Mayo, is to discuss with the parent company the benefits, if any, to the subscribers of both companies as well as what effect it will have on the two local companies of Florida.

There will be another conference at 10 p.m. Oct. 2 with UTF to discuss the quality of service, operations, financing, growth and the company's present and projected plans for ahe foreseeable future as requested by UTF Aug. 22.

A public hearing will be announced shortly after both conferences have been held.

Said Mayo, a former chairman of the commission and long time member: "I have always been very concerned over the quality of service a telephone company rendered to its subscriber-public, as per my efforts over several years which were finally successful in obtaining passage of the rates and service law in 1967.

PTA Will Meet Tonight

The Avon Elementary PTA will meet Thursday, Sept. 27, in the Avon Elementary Cafetorium at 8 p.m.

Officers for the 1973-74 school term will be installed.

Plans will be made for the annual Halloween Carnival to be held at Donaldson Park.

Open House will be held after the business meeting and parents will be able to visit their student's room and meet their teacher.

Solicitation Control Goes Into Effect

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce Solicitation Control will go into effect this week.

All Chamber business firm members will receive their no solicitation cards which states "Our Policy Prevents Us From Making Any Contribution Unless Cleared Thru The Chamber of Commerce."

All local and out-of-town organizations or individuals planning any solicitation will be asked to fill out an application form for clearance to solicit in any business firm that is a member of the local chamber. This application then will be immediately reviewed by a secret committee and if cleared will then be given a letter of clearance.

In past years the business firms have been besieged with solicitation demands that have proven to be costly. This is an attempt on the part of the Chamber of Commerce to "weed out" all undesirable solicitation and give an added membership service.

Anna Belle Worden, executive manager of the Chamber, stated that the Board of Directors wished to stress that this was in no way aimed at any worth while local solicitation, and she felt confident that it would allow the business firm to continue contributing to their pet projects.

Devils Meet Miners Friday

Three first quarter touchdowns and a second quarter safety by the Mulberry Panthers proved too much for the Avon Park Red Devils to overcome in spite of a great second half effort so Mulberry took a 20-9 Peace River Valley Conference victory from Avon Park last Friday night.

The Red Devils will be back at home at Memorial Stadium this week to host the Fort Meade Miners in another conference tilt. The Miners are 2-0 with wins over Wauchula (42-6) and Frostproof (14-13) while the Red Devils are 1-1 with the 35-0 win over Santa Fe and the 20-9 loss to the Panthers last week. Scouting reports on the Fort Meade club indicate that the Miners are a strong running team with passing abilities. The Miner defense is strong and experienced according to reports. Fumbles by the Miners last week against Frostproof kept the score from being much different.

The Avon Park team played last week without head coach Ralph Hill who was out all week with the flu. After a disasterous first quarter in Mulberry's Phosphate Bowl last Friday, the Red Devils settled down and held the Panthers to a meager two points the remainder of the game. But the Devil offense lacked the necessary passing thrust to effectively move the ball in spite of the superb running of junior halfback Ricky Claitt. Ricky picked up 123 rushing yards on 15 carries to pace the Devil's running game against the big Mulberry defense. Avon Park completed only 1 of 13 passes and had two of those intercepted by Panther defenders.

Mulberry scored on its first offensive drive. The Panthers moved the ball from their own 32-yard line in for the score in just six plays with David Keys romping for a 40-yard gain around left end and then going in from one yard out for the TD. A 23-yard pass play from Panther quarterback Jeff Sheridan to split end Raymond Hardee had moved the ball to the one.

Property Owners Group Urges Board To Utilize School Lands

Highlands County Property Owners Association has gone on record in favor of locating new county school offices on land already school-owned.

In a letter addressed to School Board Chairman Henry Bailey, the Property Owners said, "We encourage the school board to utilize its presently owned property to accomadate construction requirements; this, in lieu of acquisition of additional land."

The letter outlined four possible plans which the Property Owners believe to be under consideration; use of some of a portion of the 40-acre site at E. O. Douglas School; use of a one-acre portion of the Sebring High School site; purchase of a 10 - acre tract near Fred Wild Elementary School; use of a 20-acre tract offered by the county commission.

The property group commented that the county commission offer, land near the Agri-Civic Center, is for "low wet ground which would require an expenditure of funds for fill and drainage to make it suitable for construction."

Land not for sale

At the Sept. 13 meeting of the school board School Superintendent George F. Douglass reported that the owner of a 10-acre tract near Fred Wild School is not interested in selling. He also reported that County Engineer Gordon Hays had not been able to prepare a report on drainage, fill needs and possible costs of using the land adjacent to the Agri-Civic Center.

The new offices will house the school superintendent and other personnel presently grouped on the third floor of the county courthouse – space the county commission is eager to obtain for other county offices.

Douglass has, from time to time, mentioned the desirability of consolidation of administrative offices, maintenance facilities, bus motor pool and storage areas. The Property Owners commented that such consolidation "should not be an overriding requirement that would preclude utilization of presently owned property otherwise suitable under a decentralized concept."

The board members did not comment on the Property Owners letter.

In other business at its Sept. meeting the school board accepted a bid from Roberts Motor Company for purchase of two mini buses (15 passenger) for a total of $10,180.

–Approved purchase of two large tractors, under the state bid price of $2,900, for use at Sebring and Avon Park High Schools.

--Approved aid-in-lieu of transportation for Walter Waldron. The Waldron family lives on Scrub Pens Road, approximately five miles from a school bus stop.

–Approved admitting Ben Toney to a special Sebring High program. He had been expelled last year.

–Ratified an agreement with Polk County allowing Highlands County to provide transportation and instruction for the children living on the Avon Park Bombing Range.

–Granted out-of-state leave to Billy Cason, Sebring area supervising principal, to attend a meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, in Houston, Tex., Dec. 9-12.

--Approved deposit of $250,000 for three months with First Bank of Lake Placid which bid 8.92 per cent interest. Avon Citrus Bank was named as depository for the newly established food services bank account.

VFW Celebrates Anniversary

Four bands will highlight a parade through Sebring Saturday morning to join in the nationwide celebration of the 75th birthday of Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Playing and marching their way through the city will be the MacDill Air Force band of Tampa, the Naval Air station band of Orlando, Sebring and Lake Placid High School bands.

Sebring VFW post is organizing the parade and later in the day will have a T-bone steak dinner and dance in the post home.

The parade will kick off at 11 a.m. from the ACL railroad station, proceed down North Ridgewood Drive, around the Circle, down South Ridgewood, and disperse near Cottrell Nursing Home.

Among the parade units will be Sebring police, Highlands County Sheriff's Department, Florida Highway Patrol, Sebring Fire Department, the National Guard, Avon Park police, Vanguard electric cars, Hall of Fame antique cars, the color guard of VFW post 4300, a float from Orange Blossom Estates, Lake Placid Riding Club, Girl Scouts, Smokey the Bear, Turf and Beach Club and civilian band radio.

Among those in the parade will be VFW Commander Bud Gossard, Mayors Eugene Sauls, Bob Barben and Lionel LaGrow, County Judge Mark H. Richardson Jr., Representatives Ray Mattox and John Clark, and state Republican chairman Tommy Thomas.

A T-bone steak dinner, $5 for two persons, $3 for one, will be served at 7 p.m. at the post home. The Florida Playboys band will provide music for dancing beginning at 9 p.m.

Col. W. J. Atkinson will be parade marshal. Gene Lowery is parade chairman.

Commander Gossard said the actual date of the VFW birthday is Sept. 25. Things got started 75 years ago when a veteran named James Romanis, who served in Cuba, came home healthy and decided after seeing his fellow countrymen sick with disease, placed an ad in the Columbus Dispatch, calling on veterans of his 17th infantry to meet.

An organization was formed named American Veterans of Foreign Service. The first motto used in 1899 still prevails. It is "honor the dead by helping the living."

Rotary Club Hears Talk On County Growth

Morris Adams, program chairman, introduced Wes Ward of Radio Station WJCM, Sebring, who provided many thought provoking ideas during his short visit at the Avon Park Rotary Club Wednesday noon podium.

Wes, born in Dixie County, has been and is involved in many things in Highlands County. He observed that Highlands County is growing fast, that some people want it to be a retiree's community while others want it only for agriculture. So which direction shall we go?

The 1970 census revealed that of the more than 27,000 residents of the county, 31 per cent were over 60 years of age and during the Christmas and winter season this swells to over 50 per cent retired.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce states that each retiree needs three people to provide the services the retirees need and want. As a county we can't afford to be a full retirement community as more services are needed along with more roads, more utilities, more hospitals, more transportation, etc. There is also a need of a way to keep these retirees productive, as many soon get bored without anything productive to do after a busy lifetime elsewhere.

Wes believed that people like Highlands County or we wouldn't be getting our share of the 3000 new residents who come to Florida every week. The Social Security Administration reported the county had 50,106 people in January 1973.

That there is opportunity and responsibility here is evidenced by a 30 per cent increase in business over last year. Thus we need to attract young people with their skills, talents and ideas. This in turn would encourage industries and other businesses to come to the area.

A Highlands County Chamber of Commerce, stated Wes, using Countywide thinking would be able to accomplish things that the present three chambers are not able to do by themselves even though they are doing a good job with their staffs and budgets. Thus as a united county group, we could decide where we want to go and what we want to do without depending on other governmental organizations and their entangling and time consuming red tape procedures. County officials don't have time to devote to special studies and activities as they have their own jobs to do.

In concluding, Wes pointed out that a balanced growth in Highlands County would include people, industry and business working together with busy people needed to take the lead in developing this balanced growth and that by avoiding state and federal governmental units, we would be preserving our freedom to act and he quoted the following: "The principle reason to preserve freedom is that freedom allows us to make of ourselves what we will — To live a life free of controls and to reach as high a standard as we wish — To grow as much as we wish."

It's a fundamental law that we grow or die and Wes Ward concluded his talk by quoting Captain Eugene Cerna, who on the splash down of Apolla 17 stated, "Either you must grow or you must die!"

Avon Park VFW Post Installs New Officers

The first slate of officers of the newly formed Avon Park VFW Post No. 7672 were installed during ceremonies held Aug. 30 at the Catholic Church. State Commander James Graham of Fort Myers administered the oath of office immediately following elections.

Sworn in were James Prah, Commander; James Paul Sr., vice-commander; Larry Hart Jr., vice-commander; John Williamson, quartermaster; Leon Stewart, chaplain; and Dave Brown, adjutant. Also in attendance was Ace Hornsby of Winter Haven, District 4 Commander.

Avon Park is the first in the state to sponsor a new post during the new fiscal year, which began Aug. 1. The VFW is open to all males (forgive us Billie Jean) who have served in a combat zone during wartime. All those who join before Dec. 1, will have their names permanently inscribed on the Post Charter, which will hang in a place of honor.

A committee has been appointed by Commander Prah to investigate prospects of securing a building for a permanent meeting site and other post activities. Meanwhile, meetings are being held through the courtesy of Avon Citrus Bank in their board room.

The next meeting will be Oct. 3, at 7:30 p.m. All eligible veterans are urged to attend.

Base Housing Office Hours Extended

The commander of the Avon Park Air Force Range, Lt. Colonel Donald A. Griffing, announced today that the Base Housing Referral Office is now manned on a full-time basis. This action is an effort to improve the off-base housing program to meet the needs of the military and civilian personnel being assigned to the installation.

Bill, looking at a tray of tomatoes planted by the Horticulture Class at SFJC, is a native of Sebring and obtained his B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees at the University of Florida. He served as County Agent in Collier County and grew tomatoes, cukes, peppers and other vegetables along with bananas and ornamental plants in Latin America before returning to Sebring.

Weekend Project Is PlannedBy Shriners

Highlands County Shriners will appear in colorful fezzes and bright sales aprons at the shopping center and street intersections here this weekend in behalf of a new project to further their organization's 22 charitable hospitals and institutes for crippled and burned children, it was announced yesterday by Lowell Allen, president of the local Shrine club.

They will distribute copies of a special Shrine newspaper explaining these philanthropic programs, tell how to make application for admission and then appeal for public donations to the cause.

Since the first Shrine hospital was opened at Shreveport in 1922, more than 200,000 young patients, victims of serious or crippling or severe burns, have been cured or materially helped.

Each of the 19 hospitals for crippled children and the three burns institutes is open to all youths under 15 years of age, regardless of race, creed or religion, whose parents are unable to pay for the needed surgical medical and hospital facilities.

Help for local girl

In January, a Highlands County 10-year-old girl will be flown to the Shrine Hospital in Galveston, Texas for facial surgery to remove scar tissue caused by a bad fire. The scars make it impossible for the child to smile, and she has been the butt of other children's cruel jibes. It is hoped that the operation will give the child an entirely new outlook on life and help restore her spirits.

The girl will be driven to the Tampa Airport by Mrs. and Mrs. Lowell Allen, and she will be placed in the charge of a special stewardess and met by a Shrine Hospital nurse at Galveston. While in treatment, her regular school work will continue in the special classes, provided by the Shriners.

JERRY H. JONES

Deltona Surveyors To Begin Soon

Jerry H. Jones of Donna Drive, Ochopee, Fla., who is Assistant Project Surveyor for Deltona of Miami, a Mackle Brothers Company, who recently contracted to acquire 15,745 acres of land in South Polk County just north of Avon Park, was in Avon Park last Wednesday looking over the housing situation.

Mr. Jones told this reporter that two crews will be here within the next two weeks, starting surveys on its property, with development to follow later. Jones stated there was no specified starting date, because they wanted to have everything right, with the state, ecology wise.

The purchase of this tract of land (purchase price of $11.8 million, or about $750 per acre) will be the third largest development among the other eight Deltona Communities. The two largest are Sunny Hills, near Tallahassee of 20,000 acres; and Deltona near Sanford, of 16,200 acres.

Basil Kustodowicz officiating. Interment in Bougainvillea Cemetery. Donations may be made to the American Heart Association. Stephenson-Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

C Of C Women's Division Is Re-Activated

The Avon Park Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors voted to re-activate a Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce - this action was taken at the regular meeting of the Board this past Thursday evening. Mrs. Anna Belle Worden, Executive Manager of the local Chamber, was appointed to set up this program.

The Directors felt there was an increased need for women to carry out expanded activities in the Chamber. This past year several committees composed of women did an outstanding job in acting as hostesses and making arrangements for various Chamber functions.

The Women's Division of the Chamber will hold regular meetings and set up goals and projects. However, they will be considered a part of the local Chamber of Commerce, and in no way be a splinter group of that organization.

Debbie Cruse Named In Who's Who

Debbie Cruse, former Avon Park resident, now living in Lakeland, has recently been named to "Who's Who in American High Schools". Debbie is the daughter of Gene Cruse, DDS, who has offices in Avon Park, and resides at Lake Haven Estates, Sebring, and Mrs. Betty Johnson of Lakeland.

Debbie attends Santa Fe Catholic High School in Lakeland, where she is a varsity cheerleader, a member of the Pep Club, member of the National Honor Society, and she was elected to attend the presidential classroom in Washington, D. C.

Debbie is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Ford of Lake Lotela, Avon Park.

The program is that of post-operative help for mastectomy (breast-removal) parients, and is called "Reach to Recovery". It is both national and international in scope. Highlands County will now join other Florida counties in this important rehabilitative service.

In announcing the inaugurration of the new project, Mrs. W. C. Smith, (Avon Park), Public Information chairman of the Highlands County unit, said, "This is a hospital-oriented program. It is carried out only upon the request and with the cooperation of the attending physician, in the hospital, and with trained personnel. Its basic purpose is to provide rehabilitative aid to mastectomy patients in the first three or four days after surgery. These are the most difficult days, when the physical, and sometimes the emotional, results of the operation put most strain on the patient. Many of them very much need help, even with sympathetic and understanding families and friends."

The "Reach to Recovery" program was installed here with the cooperation of an Indian River County volunteer, a member of the IRC Reach to Recovery Team. Volunteers are carefully trained and screened and have been through the operation themselves.

Calls for this service may be made by calling the Highlands County unit at 385-7322.

Miss Turner Honored At Luncheon

Miss Marian Turner, bride elect of Larry Saucier, was honored with a luncheon on Saturday, Sept. 22, at the lovely Lake Lotela home of Mrs. Walter Mandis. Hostessing with Mrs. Mandis was her daughter, Mrs. Phil Barker of Tampa.

The buffet table was beautifully arranged with delicious food and a crystal candelabra centerpiece of candles, mixed carnations and babies breath in the bride's colors of yellow, apricot, blue, and pink. Each table was decorated with dainty centerpieces of the same.

The guest list included high school friends of Marian's and all enjoyed conversing and reminiscing. Others attending were the mother, grandmother and sister of the bride-elect, Mrs. Art Turner, Mrs. T. M. Weekley, Miss Cathy Turner, and the mother of the hostess, Mrs. Fred McHaffey.

Ray's Homes Company Opens New Sales Firm

A new mobile home sales company has opened on U.S. 27, south of Avon Park. The new firm, which is in the Ray's Homes franchise group, is owned and operated by Wayne and Sandy Knowles.

Knowles is a native of Avon Park but has been engaged in manufacturing in Georgia and Kansas, and more recently living in Lake Wales.

He met his wife, the former Sandy Weaver, when she was on the office staff for Dr. B. C. Ostling, Avon Park physician. Mr. and Mrs. Knowles have a 10-year-old son Gregory.

The Knowles' are golfing fans and are members of Lake Wales Golf Club and Pinecrest Golf Club in Avon Park.

Knowles explains that Ray's Homes began in Vermont and have spread into Florida, North Carolina, Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, New Hampshire, Vermont, Maine and into Canada. There are five of the Ray's Homes firms in Florida each owner-operated, Knowles explains. The Sebring company opened Sept. 17.

Club To Sponsor Garden Program

Are you interested in "Growing Your Own Vegetables"? And who isn't with the high price of potatoes, onions and lettuce, some of the more easily grown vegetables. Interested? Then attend the "Grow Your Own Vegetables" meeting sponsored by the Avon Park Federated Garden Club, tonight, Thursday, Sept. 27, at the Florida Power Lounge, between 7 and 9 p.m.

Speakers will be backyard gardeners in this area who have had success "growing their own vegetables". A question and answer session will follow. It is hoped there will be enough interested participants to have one evening meeting a month. Both men and women are welcome.

Couple Celebrates Anniversary

The Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Albrecht, who have recently moved into their new home on Lake Brentwood, Avon Park, celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary October 16. MR. AND MRS. ROBERT G. LANDRESS

Mr. And Mrs. Landress Honored On Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Landress honored their parents with a "golden wedding reception" on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16, at the Florida Power Lounge in Avon Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Landress were married on Sept. 15, 1923, in Arcadia, residing there for five years, before moving to Avon Park, where they have resided for the past 45 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Landress have six children; Mrs. Ellis Watson of Sebring; Mrs. Richard Mason of Miami; Mrs. William Rutherford of Plant City; Richard Landress of Cocoa; Mrs. Elton Pennington of Atlanta; and Phil Landress of Miami. All were present to host the occasion. Completing the family picture were the Landress' 15 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Greeting the guests were the four daughters, after which Mr. and Mrs. Landress received their guests in a garden setting. This was also the scene where the "bride and groom of 50 years" repeated their wedding vows. Officiating in the ceremony on Sunday, was the Rev. Alex Day, minister of The Church of God, Avon Park.

Attending the bride as matron of honor 50 years ago, and for this occasion, was Mrs. George Roland, cousin of the bride from Sanford.

The table which held the cake and punch was skirted in gold taffeta and overlaid with matching lace festooned at either end, and the center of the table. The centerpiece was a bouquet of yellow peace roses and white pompons. Crystal candelabras with gold candles flanked each side of the bouquet, with a crystal punch bowl at the end of the table. The anniversary cake, the focal point of the table, was made by the oldest daughter, Mrs. Watson. The four tiers were decorated in white with accents of yellow roses and gold leaves. The top tier held the "50-year bride and groom" with the traditional golden wedding bands in the background.

The table which held the canap'es and hor d'oeuvres was overlaid with a yellow sheer cloth and underlay of deep gold satin. The centerpiece was a crystal brandy sniffer, which contained a mellon ball salad. Crystal serving pieces held the open-face sandwiches and miniature tart shells, filled with creams, berries and cherries. Roses and gold appointments were used at vantage points throughout the room.

Assisting in hospitalities were the granddaughters, Mrs. Jimmy Crutchfield, Mrs. Kenneth Crews, Mrs. Roger LaGrone, Miss Lisa Landress, Miss Paula Mason, and Miss Susan Pennington. Also Mrs. Earl Rich, Mrs. Joyce Rutledge, Mrs. Ray Rutherford, Mrs. H. J. Rutherford, Mrs. Phil Landress, Mrs. Richard Landress, Mrs. Alex Day, Mrs. Scott Landress, Mrs. C. M. Parnell, Mrs. George Proctor and Mrs. G. W. Proctor. Ronnie Watson assisted with the gifts.

Approximately 250 guests called to share in this joyous occasion with Mr. and Mrs. Landress. Out-of-town guests included family and friends from Atlanta, Miami, Plant City, Sebring, Cocoa, Tampa, Bradenton, Lake Placid, Arcadia, Lakeland, Lake Wales, Orlando, Sanford, Clearwater, Naples and Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Landress would like to express their sincere appreciation to their friends and relatives for calling and helping to make this a joyous occasion.

Indiana Picnic October 14

The third annual Indiana picnic will be held on Sunday, Oct. 14, at Highlands Hammock State Park at 1 p.m. Those desiring to attend please notify Mrs. Loyd Wells by Oct. 1. Phone 453-3472. A large attendance is anticipated.

Luncheon Honors Miss Baerman

Miss Robin Baerman and her bridesmaids, the Misses Janice Murphy, Wendy Jordon, and Belinda Todd, were honored at a luncheon on Saturday, Sept. 8. Hostess for the happy occasion was Mrs. Gerald Wicker Jr., sister of the bridegroom-elect, Charles Snelgrove Jr.

Also present were Mrs. Lyle Trotter, grandmother of the bride-elect, and the future bridegroom's mother and sister, Mrs. Charles Snelgrove and Miss Peggy Snelgrove.

Guests were served a buffet luncheon of baked ham, scalloped potatoes, mixed vegetables in butter sauce, cranberry gelatin salad, and hot cinnamon muffins with ambrosia and assorted cookies for dessert. A beautiful arrangement of mixed roses centered the serving table.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Hummel

Beane, Hummel United In Evening Ceremony

Miss Elizabeth Karen Beane became the bride of Paul M. Hummel on Saturday, Sept. 15, at the Old Union Congregational Church. The Rev. Herbert D. Graetz officiated at the candlelight ceremony at half past seven in the evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Beane and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Florence Hummel of Fairview Heights, Ill.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Clayton Rhoades, organist, and Mrs. Vic MicKunas, soloist, who sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and the "Lord's Prayer", while the bridal couple knelt at a prayer bench.

The couple exchanged their wedding vows at the altar which was beautifully accented with a background of palms and branched candelabras holding lighted candles and spiral candelabras holding white tapers. An arrangement of lavender glads and white daisies centered the chancel with white wicker baskets of lavender glads and white daisies on either side of the altar. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbon bows.

The bride given in marriage by her father, Melvin Beane, was lovely in her original gown of imported white silk organza. The bodice featured a ruffled Victorian neckline of reembroidered Alencon lace touched with tiny pleated ruffles of silk organza. The Alencon lace was edged with tiny cord. Double panels of lace extended across the shoulders and into her Renaissance sleeves, which were accented with delicate ruffles of organza. The cuffs were enhanced with small bows of satin ribbon and touched at the wrist with reembroidered Alencon lace and tiny buttons. From her Empire waistline fell her A-line skirt of imported silk organza with ruffles around the hemline and extending gracefully into her Cathedral - length train. The train was reembroidered and also edged with Alencon lace. Her shoulder - length veil of imported French illusion was held in place with petals of net and bouralis and edged with tiny seed pearls. Tiny sequins embellished the center of each petal. The bride carried a supremely feminine softly styled traditional bouquet of white roses, white miniature carnations, traditional English ivy and tinted orchid babies breath.

Miss Gail Beane, cousin of the bride from Clearwater was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Linda Laye and Miss Mary Green. The bride's attendants wore matching gowns of pale orchid organza. The bodice of their gowns was accented by panels of Alencon lace which extended across the shoulder from back to front and down the long sleeves of Alencon lace. Alencon lace circled their waists from which fell the bouffant skirts of the same matching organza overlaid with pale chiffon. Each attendant wore white wide brimmed picture hats with ribbons and streamers of the same pale orchid with slippers to match. The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of glads, florets, babies breath, statice, orchids and daisies of orchid shades. The bridesmaids carried a Colonial style bouquet of the same flowers.

Miss Dena Tondee was flower girl and she wore a dotted swiss gown of white and pale orchid trimmed in lace and orchid satin ribbon. She wore orchid ribbon in her hair and carried a basket of white and orchid daisies.

Tommy Beane, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushergroomsmen were Richard Birt and Rocky Dowd. The father of the bride best man and attendants, all wore pale blue tuxedos with black velvet lapels and pants. Blue ruffled shirts with black trim enhanced their attire. The bridegroom wore a royal blue crushed velvet King George style tuxedo with black velvet trim and pants. A ruffled blue shirt with black trim and bow tie completed his attire.

Mrs. Beane, wore for her daughter's wedding, a formal two-piece ensemble of pink knit polyester. The gown was enhanced with ruffles of silk organza down the front of the bodice and around the edge of the jacket. She wore matching pink slippers and a tailored corsage of pink rose buds with pink satin trim.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church social hall, decorated with palms at focal points throughout the hall. Miss Ruth Wilkinson, cousin of the bride kept the bride's book and registered the guests.

The bride's table was covered with a beige hand-crocheted lace cloth made by the Monks in Canada, and was centered with the elegant all white four tiered wedding cake. The cake was accented in silver with white roses, and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom under a canopy trimmed in lace. On either side of the cake were silver candelabra arrangements of white candles, heather, star-dust pompons and statice. The bride's bouquet lay in front of the cake. A background accent for the cake table was a white lattice screen ornamented with clusters of greenery and white bows. Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. Nita Renfro and Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson, aunt of the bride.

A large silver punch bowl centered the punch table covered with white linen and overlaid with lace. Twin tiered candelabra arrangements of blending shades of orchid flowers accented the punch bowl. Assorted nuts and mints were served along with the punch and cake. The bride and bridegroom drank a toast from silver goblets, and dainty white napkins were engraved in silver with their names, "Karen and Paul," and their wedding date, "September 15, 1973". At the punch service were Mrs. Virgil Tondee Jr. and Mrs. Marshall Davis.

Bahama Honeymoon

Upon their return the couple will be living at 18 North Highlands Ave., Avon Park.

Out-of-town guests

Attending the wedding on Saturday were the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Florence Hummel of Fairview Heights, Ill.; the bride's grandmother, Mrs. C. J. Walden; Aunt and uncle of bride, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson, sons, Ricky and Thomas, and daughter Ruth, all of Jacksonville. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brookins and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Norton, all from Sebring.

Miss Dick Honored With Linen Shower

Miss Kathy Dick, bride-elect of Ted W. Johnson, was honored with a linen bridal shower on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, at the Florida Power Hospitality Lounge in Lake Wales. The bride's book was kept by Miss Debbie Mazac.

The bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. Robert G. Dick, and Mrs. Warren Johnson, mother of the bridegroom-elect, were all presented with carnation corsages.

Several games were played and enjoyed by all. Winner of the door prize was Mrs. Preston Pickles of Lake Wales.

The refreshment table was covered with a white lace table cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl surrounded with pink roses. Nuts, mints and decorated cake squares were served along with the fruit punch.

The guest of honor was seated and crowned Queen for the Night. Linda Gilliard and Glenda Koruschak of Orlando helped with the opening and recording of her many lovely gifts.

A gold and green sunflower blanket was presented to the bride-elect by the hostesses Myra Cochran, Mazelle Kytle and Eunice Kytle. Kathy and Ted are planning a Nov. 30 wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johns

Lisa Sicard - Charles Johns Speak Vows

Lisa Sicard and Charles Johns were united in marriage on Friday, Sept. 14, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grice, 1125 W. Pine St. Avon Park.

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Sicard, and Mrs. Myrna Cobb, Florida Ave., Avon Park.

The bride and bridegroom exchanged vows before the large picture window in the living room of the lovely Grice home. Twin floor candelabras with white candles and mums and blue ribbons and fern accented the setting for the double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Paul J. Trissel, at 8 p.m.

The Bride

The bride's gown was floor-length double crepe with a white lace overlay on an Empire bodice. The scoop neckline was accented with white ruffled lace. The long full sleeves were gathered to a three-inch cuff that were fastened with tiny pearl buttons. Her chapel-length veil was attached to a white lace Juliet cap edged in lace ruffling. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations circling a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Hancock served as best man and matron of honor. Mrs. Hancock's floor-length gown was pink floral chiffon with a sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves. Her corsage was white carnations with pink ribbons.

Mrs. N. L. Sicard, mother of the bride, wore a lovely mint green double-knit dress with long sleeves and a wide tie belt. Her corsage was white carnations accented with green ribbons.

Mrs. Howard Cobb, mother of the bridegroom, wore a white polyester knit dress with an embroidered bodice in pastel shades. She wore a corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Reception

Miss Patti Ann Sicard, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book at the reception, held in the home, immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Clara Grice and Mrs. Diane Hancock served the guests.

A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake with accents of blue, was the focal point on the bride's table covered with white lace over a blue cloth. The cake featured a miniature bridal couple between the second and third layers, which were seperated with tall colonial columns. The top layer was adorned with wedding bells. Complimenting the bridal cake were crystal candelabras with an arrangement of white mums and fern, and a large crystal punch bowl.

Honeymoon Touring Florida

The couple left shortly after the reception for a short wedding trip touring Florida. For her travel attire the bride chose a royal-blue knit dress with white collar and cuffs. Her collar was graced with the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Johns will make their home at 834 S. Verona Ave., in Avon Park.

Elementary Education Classes For Adults

Do you know someone who cannot read this article? If so, you may do them a favor by telling them that a series of classes will be starting soon in Highlands County, to help those adults who do not have an elementary education.

The program is called Adult Basic Education. It is sponsored by South Florida Junior College, and is open to any adult who was not able to finish school through the eighth grade.

A special emphasis will be placed on reading, writing, regular mathematics, American government, and a number of items pertaining to consumer education, especially in management of money will be taught.

A person may attend these classes at no cost. Books and materials are furnished through a grant from the State Department of Education. The class is open to all, regardless of educational background, and everyone will be allowed to proceed at their own pace. Classes will be held each Tuesday night at Avon Park Middle School, Sebring Middle School, and Lake Placid High School. Residents of these communities are urged to attend the class that is closest to their own home.

To register, all a person has to do is to go to the class and fill out a very short form. Any one who would like further information should call South Florida Junior College at 453-6661, Avon Park, and ask for the Adult Education office.

Band Will March Friday

The Avon Park Marching Grenadier Band will be preforming this Friday for the third time.

The Band has been working hard on these shows, and hope that you enjoy them, so come and see the High School Marching Band this Friday night at Memorial Field.

Karon Timlake Celebrates 2nd Birthday

Karon Timlake celebrated her second birthday Sept. 24. Karon enjoyed all of the fun and activities with horns, balloons and all of the trimmings. One of the major events for Karon was blowing out her candles and getting to cut her own cake.

BIBLE TRUTH WE BELIEVE —

MAN

Only the grace of God can bring man into His Holy Fellowship and enable man to fulfill the creative purpose of God. The sacredness of human personality is evident in that God created man in His own image, and in that Christ dies for man; therefore every man possesses dignity and is worthy of respect and Christian love.

WELCOME to the Grand Opening of the beautiful new
Gibbs Gift Gallery
21 South Lake Ave., Avon Park
STARTING NEXT MONDAY — OCTOBER 1

DO come and see our large and beautiful home on South Lake Avenue — just 4 doors South of our former location. We promise you, you'll be amazed!

Here you will find Gifts from all over the World — Gifts for Every Occasion — presented in a pleasing and relaxing atmosphere. You'll find such famous names as Haviland, Limoges, Robers Brothers-International, Hutchenruther Bavarian, Lladru figurines from Spain, Oriental Art decorator pieces — and literally a Host of others.

In our Gourmet Kitchen corner you'll find the more practical Gift ideas such as enameled cookware, herb gardens, kitchen bulletin boards, handcrafted wooden spoons and bowls, wire whisks and colorful canisters. You'll also find things for the more casual living, too, such as picnic supplies, ice buckets, bar equipment, baskets, patio dishes, plus pillows.

Our Bridal Corner (always famous) has been greatly expanded. It is now the perfect place for the Bride-to-Be to select all of her patterns of China, Crystal and Silver, and to order invitations, printed napkins, (printed on our own facilities) — her Bride Book and just about everything in the wedding plan.

And we haven't forgotten the Men's Gifts either. We have them here by the hundreds and we guarantee you'll have no difficulty in selecting the right Gift even for the man "who has everything."

It has been true for years: "If you want the Right Gift for any occasion, you'll find it at Gibbs" — and

NOW - IT'S MORE TRUE THAN EVER

Boy Scouts Spend Weekend Canoeing Down 28 Miles Of Peace River

Twentyone members of Trailblazing Troop 156 spent an excitement-filled weekend canoeing a 28 mile stretch of the scenic Peace River.

Setting out about 9 a.m. Saturday morning from Ft. Mead, the group of 13 canoes made their way down one of Floridas outstanding Canoe Trails. A swift current made paddeling easy for the young canoeist, but at times proved more than a match as it swept them under low hanging branches without warning. Wildlife was abundant along the banks; many Herons, Egrets, Ibis, and Anhingas were sighted by the scouts.

Lunchtime found the group in a low swampy region, so sandwiches and snacks were eagerly consumed in the canoes. After lunch canoeing was resumed under cloudy and threatening skies. A small shower drenched the canoe party about mid-afternoon and some of the younger Scouts began to tire, one canoe capsized, causing a 30 minute delay and the loss of some equipment. The leaders decided that to avoid further mishap, it would be best to stop for the day. Camp was set up on a high bank of the river and the Scouts ate a hearty supper, enjoyed a rousing campfire, and most were sound asleep by 9 p.m.

Sunday morning found the canoeist rested and ready to go again. After a quick breakfast, camp was broken and canoes were back in the river. A quick pace was maintained and all 13 canoes pulled into Pioneer Park at Zolfo Springs by 12:15 p.m., here the Scouts enjoyed lunch and a visit to the museum while waiting for their transportation to arrive for the return home.

Members of Troop 156 making the trip were Bobby and Frank Batson, Greg Batty, James Goodwin, Steve Grice, Marc Hooper, Charles and Danny Luke, Phillip Statler, Billy Tharp, Steve Thompson, Eddie Williams, Fred Wheelehan, Kenny McLeod, Chuck Smith, Billy Barben, Blake and Ronald Otto, J. C. Goza, Kelly Graham, and Lawrin Ellis. Leaders along were Scoutmaster Larry Hooper, assistant Scoutmaster Jim Rice, and committee chairman Gene Statler.

Rotary Club Views Slides On Hurricanes

The regualr weekly Rotary meeting was held at the Walker Memorial Hospital cafeteria with Don Farrens, presiding in the absence of Ed Bailey. Following the regular session, Program Chairman, Morris Adams presented Rotarian Chuck Watson, district manager, Florida Power Corporation who in turn introduced Tom Tataris their Commerical Representative.

Pertinent to this season of the year Tom Tataris presented a slide illustrated program on "Hurricanes" and their awesome destructive power and what individuals and families can do in preparing for the gigantic storm.

A large area of sea water, in the Gulf, Carribean or the tropical Atlantic heated by the sun to above normal temperatures is the usual birth place of the massive atmospheric disturbance. Starting out as an easterly wave it intensifies into a tropical depression, then a tropical storm and finally into a full scale hurricane with winds of 75 miles per hour or more circulating counter-clockwise around the eye or center of the depression. Various advisories are given as the storm moves towards land areas.

What can a person or family do to prevent damage to their home or injury to themselves? Store inside or securely fasten down any loose object from garbage cans to boats. Cut off loose limbs or palm fronds to prevent flying debris.

Tom recommended that families have on hand flashlights, candles, battery operated radio, campstove, food that requires no refrigeration and containers of water, even fill the bath tub. Set the refrigerator and deep freezer at the coldest setting and in case of power failure open them only on necessity.

Above all Tom cautioned the Rotarians not to go outside during a lull in the storm when the eye of the hurricane passed over the area as the winds and rains would resume shortly from the opposite direction. After the hurricane had passed one should be on the lookout for fallen power lines, washed out roads, sewer and water lines and debris.

In a question and answer session Chuck and Tom pointed out that if there is a power outage, power would be restored in the following sequence: Substations, transmission lines, hospital, police, fire departments and other emergency areas and finally residential areas.

The question of using portable electric generators for power in the home brought a word of caution and warning. If used the generator should be connected to the house circuits with a standard three prong socket with the switch to the entrance electric line in the off position to prevent energizing the power lines. In working on power lines the standard practice is to ground the lines which in turns grounds out the electric generator. When service is finally restored the electric power company current would then burn out the home generator.

Chryslers On Display Friday

The Chrysler passenger car enters its Golden Anniversary year with all-new styling and a list of major engineering improvements which contribute to quiet ride and ease in servicing, safety, and comfort, it was announced by Wells Motor Co.

The new styling gives the 13 models in the line a low, lean look for 1974. The belt line has been lowered two inches, resulting in increased glass area and contributing to the sleek silhouette.

There are two new grille designs, one shared by the New Yorker, New Yorker Brougham, and the Town and Country station wagon; the other is common to the Newport and Newport Custom.

Rear end treatment of the New Yorker and New Yorker Broughham features a strong horizontal taillamp theme, including a full-width periphery molding. The Newport and Newport Custom offer vertical outboard taillamps.

The appearance of functional luxury is apparent in both the exteriors and interiors of the new models. Interiors featuring high quality materials are available in five different colors in cloth and vinyl trims and in six colors in all-vinyl upholstery.

—Numerous serviceability features including easier access to engine components than in previous models; easier access to all instrument panel controls and gauges; more convenient location of the fuse block.

—Quieter, smoother ride than in previous models through refinements in suspension, shock absorbers, and the addition of noise-dampening materials.

—A "door ajar" light, a windshield washer fluid level indicator, and a new electronic gauge alert system—indicating overheating, low fuel, and low battery voltage—all standard on New Yorker Brougham and optional on other models.

—Improved stability resulting from a wider front track (64 inches versus 62.1 inches previously).

New Services Offered By Post Office

Postmaster Bob Young announced today that a new "Stamps by Mail service is now being offered in the Avon Park area.

According to Postmaster Young, this new service will permit customers to purchase stamps and stamped envelopes through the mail using a personal check or money order.

The Postmaster noted that "This service will be of great benefit to all our customers and especially shut-ins, the elderly and working wives. It will enable them to satisfy their postal needs simply, rapidly and inexpensively from their own homes." Leaflets spelling out the details of the service are being distributed to area households and small businesses this week.

"This new service has been tested in selected cities nationwide with very positive results" said Postmaster Young.

A 40c fee will be charged to defray the cost of two-way postage, internal processing of checks and other costs associated with this new service.

Rebekah Lodge Meets

After a summer recess, the Eleanor Seaverns Rebekah Lodge No. 65 held its regular meeting at the Lions Club on Monday, Sept. 17.

Lodge was opened by Noble Grand Nancy Shay and she welcomed back all her officers. A special welcome was extended to the visitors from Sebring.

The Charter was draped in memory of Sister Sarah Kerr and again for Sister Hazel Schaller, P.P., I.A.R.A. Reports were given on members who had been sick during the summer.

Bessie Decker chairman of the banquet committee reported that it will be held at the Church of God, N. Florida Ave., on Friday, Nov. 2, at 6:30 p.m., with meeting to follow at 8 p.m. This is when Margaret Land Assembly President makes her official visit.

D.D.P. Louise Clarke announced that a school of instruction would be held on Oct. 31, at 7:30 p.m. All officers and members should make a special effort to be present. Sister Gladys Carpenter P.P. of Lakeland, Grand Instructor will be at the meeting. This is a district meeting comprising Sebring, Arcadia and Avon Park.

The next meeting, Oct. 1, will be when the District Deputy President will be honored. There will also be a renewal of our Obligation Ceremony. All officers to wear long white dresses. Bertha Barker, Ethel Harrison and Mildred Waddell are in charge of refreshments.

After the meeting, there was a social hour with refreshments of homemade cookies and squares, served by Nancy Shay and Louise Clarke, and enjoyed by all.

Baptist Loyalty Dinner Draws 200 Guests

The annual Loyalty Dinner for First Baptist Church, attended by over 200 guests, was held at the church's new social hall on Thursday evening, Sept. 20. The new social hall is located on East Church St. adjacent to the main sanctuary and was used for the first time for this occasion. The dinner served a dual purpose, a time for the dedication of the new building as well as a major part of the stewardship emphasis now in progress at the church.

Decorations carrying out the theme, "Reaching for the Stars'" used a silver and pink color scheme. Pink covers with silver lace down the center were used for the tables, and candles decorated with silver stars provided the candle light setting. The area back of the head table featured a stairway, leading to the stars while overhead were silver stars amidst white floating clouds.

Carl Arant Jr. served as master of ceremonies and E. Ray Wells led the prayer of dedication. Members of the Acteens served the delicious ham dinner. Lovely dinner music featuring songs about stars was provided by a men's quartet, a ladies' ensemble, a solo, and a duet, and was greatly enjoyed by all. Various forms of entertainment added fun as well as focus on the church budget for the coming year. The pastor, the Rev. Aden D. Childress, introduced the Rev. J. Ray Dobbins of Jacksonville who brought the inspirational message. The Rev. Dobbins is Director of Field Missions for Florida Baptists.

Mrs. Ophelia Rihner served as general chairman for the dinner and was assisted by other chairman and church members.

CARL ARANT JR. was master of ceremonies at the annual Loyalty dinner for First Baptist Church on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, which was held in the new social hall on East Church Street. Theme for the dinner, "Reaching for the Stars", was carried out in decorations. Ophelia Rihner was general chairman of the affair. - Photo by Sharpe

Elizabeth King Returns To FSU After Visit

Elizabeth King has returned to Florida State University, Tallahassee, after a short visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. King Jr., on Lake Lotela.

This past summer, Elizabeth spent 10 weeks at Zermatt Switzerland, where she was a staff member of the Ski and Mountain Climbing Camp, sponsored by the European Camp Association. Young people from 30 states and several foreign countries were enrolled at this camp. They participated in the sports, social and cultural activities of the Swiss community.

Elizabeth enjoyed her summer, especially the skiing and the interesting young people from assorted European countries.

Cross Country Team Wins Over Sebring

The Red Devil Cross Country team opened its season with a third place finish in the Venice Invitational on Sept. 18 and then won its first meet of the young season last Friday here over Sebring, Hardee High and Santa Fe of Lakeland.

The Red Devils will compete in two big invitationals this week-end. On Friday (tomorrow) they will run in the Palmetto Invitational at 5 p.m. and on Saturday in the Clewiston Invitational at 10 a.m.

James Brown led the Devil harriers in the Venice Invitational as he set a new course record of 13:17. His new mark broke the year old record of Kevin Holzwart of St. Petersburg Bishop Barry. Reid Wall, Larry Sneed, Eugene Sneed, Doug Fletcher, Raliegh Turnbull, and Edward Jones followed Brown placing seventh, tenth, twelfth, thirtyfourth, thirtyseventh and fourtyfirst, respectively.

St. Petersburg Bishop Barry (State AAA Cross Country Champions) won the meet in Venice meet with a total of 46 points. Second place went to Cypress Lake with 63 points. Third was Avon Park with 64 points, fourth was Riverview with 100, fifth was Venice with 113, Palmetto was sixth with 128, Charlotte High was seventh with 147, and Sarasota was eighth with 150 points. Low score wins in Cross Country meets.

In the "B" team race at Venice the Devils also placed third. Leading finisher for Avon Park was Ken Collingsworth in tenth place. Jerry Sensenig took twelfth place, Frank Anderson was thirteenth, Walter Newton finished fifteenth, Jackie Roberts came in eighteenth, and Eric Simpson was nineteenth.

Coach Brojek expressed his pleasure with the performance of the top four varsity runners and commented on James Brown's newest record. Coach Brojek feels the gap between fourth and fifth place finishes will hopefully be closed up during the next week or so. The top five finishers count for each team.

Avon Park won the meet held here last Friday with a score of 19 points to defeat Sebring (67), Hardee (77) and Santa Fe (80). The Red Devil runners captured five or the first eight spots in their impressive win. James Brown paced the Devils with his customary first place finish in 13:10. Second place went to Eugene Sneed with a 13:53 timing. Third place was won by Reid Wall with a 14:10 time. Fourth place was won by a Santa Fe runner and Larry Sneed of Avon Park took fifth with a 14:25 time. Raliegh Turnbull came in eighth with a time of 15:07. The other varsity finishers were Edward Jones in eleventh place with a time of 15:35, Doug Fletcher in 16th place with a time of 16:07, and Ken Collingsworth in 20th. place with a 16:43 time.

In the "B" squad meet run prior to the varsity event, the Devils nipped the Sebring "B" team 21-47. As mentioned before, low score wins in cross country meets. Frank Anderson paced the "B" team with a fine winning time of 15:13. He was followed by teammates Walter Newton (3), Jerry Sensenig (4), Ricky Spurlock (5-unofficially), Clarence Spry (6), Jackie Roberts (7), Eric Simpson (8), Edward Moses (10), Greg Blake (15), and Charles Lake (16). Melvin Britt had leg cramps and was unable to finish but should be ready for next week.

Coach Brojek was well pleased with the teams fine showing in this first home meet. He also noted that the number five and number six men from last year's team, Matakiah and Hezakiah Fogle, had been working out with the squad. These two boys could help fill the gap evident in the first meet of the year.

Fake Punt Play Gives Junior Varsity A Win

Freshman halfback Reggie Baker ran a fake punt around left end for a 30-yard touchdown and then ran in the two-point conversion to score all of Avon Park's junior varsity points in the 8-0 win over Fort Meade last Thursday night here at Memorial Field. It was the season opener for the Red Devil junior varsity.

Tonight (Thursday, Sept. 27) the Devil "Bees" will travel to Frostproof to take on the Bulldog junior varsity in the second game of the season. Coach Dewayne Lemler said this week that the Frostproof team is tough this year. He indicated that his squad would not be able to loose 6 fumbles this week as they did against Fort Meade and still expect to win. The Devil jayvee also had two passes intercepted last week for a total of 8 turnovers.

The offensive backfield last week had John MicKunas at quarterback most of the game with Dale Sisemore seeing some action. Reggie Baker and James Ross did most of the running from halfback with Charles Anderson and Kenny Burley also running the ball a few times. Randy Cobb filled in at fullback for Anthony Gaines who was sidelined with an injury.

The offensive Devil line had Charles Glenn, Ben Wight, and Mort Jackson alternating at ends; Jim Stewart and Noel Braithwaite at tackles; Harry Shukes, Mike Cobb, Tommy Pralo, Steve Roberts and Joe Galimore playing guards; and Freddy Moore at center.

On defense Bill Tharp came in at tackle for some action. McArthur Rouse also played some defensive tackle, and Melvin Collins was at the noseman slot until he was injured slightly in the first half.

Red Devils Lose To Mulberry 20-9

Continued

The Panther's second touchdown came on the very next Mulberry drive after Avon Park was unable to make a first down. Mulberry drove from its own 38-yard line for this score. Except for a 12-yard pass to Hardee to start the drive, the Panthers stayed on the ground with big David Keys chomping out big gains. Keys bulled through the middle of the line on third down for the TD but Ronald Hardee's kick for the extra point was no good.

Jeff Sheridan intercepted a Red Devil pass at the Avon Park 35 on the next Devil drive and returned it to the 20-yard line to set up the next Mulberry score. From the 20, the Devils held for no gain for three yards but on fourth down with nine needed, Sheridan dropped back and hit Marty Moore in the end zone for the third and final Mulberry touchdown. A bad snap on the attempted kick for the extra point forced Ronald Hardee to attempt a pass and it was incomplete. So the first quarter ended finally with Mulberry leading 18-0 and the Devils yet to cross into Panther territory.

Early in the second period, Mearl Robinson intercepted a Panther pass and had a good run back only to have the play nullified by a holding penalty called on Avon Park before the interception. But the Panthers fumbled on the next play and Sean Murphy fell on the ball for the Devils at the Avon Park 40. Ricky Claitt and William Burley quickly picked up two first downs but the drive was stopped at the Mulberry 34-yard marker and Ricky Claitt punted into the end zone. The Devils held Mulberry on three consecutive plays and the Panthers punted out short to Avon Park's 45. Lawrence McRae returned it to the 50 and the Devils moved quickly to the Panther 25-yard line before McRae fumbled the ball and it was recovered by a Panther.

The last Mulberry drive in the first half was a long 74-yard march on the ground to the Avon Park one foot line where the Red Devils held to take over possession with only seconds on the clock. But on the second play from the one, Micky Claitt tried to slide down the line when the hole up the middle blocked up and was tackled in the end zone to give the Panther's safety and boost the score to 20-0 at the end of the first half.

Avon Park got a safety early in the third quarter when the Devil defense drove the Panthers back to the six from the 26 and then the Mulberry center overshot his punter and the ball rolled out of the end zone for an Avon Park safety and put two points on the boards for the Devils.

The Devils also got a touchdown out of the affair as Mulberry punted from its 20 following the safety and the Avon Park offense rolled 51-yards for the score. Nathaniel Packer returned the punt to the 49. Then Ricky Claitt burst through for a beautiful 26-yard gain. McRae picked up four and then Burley got a first down at the 10 with an 11-yard run. McRae moved it on to the two with an 8-yard dash and finally Ricky Claitt went in from the one for the six pointer. Nathaniel Packer booted the extra point to set the score at 20-0.

The only other scoring threat came in the fourth quarter when Mulberry drove to the Avon Park five only to lose the ball on a fumble. The game ended on an interception by Panther linebacker Bill Dempsey.

The fine defensive play of the Red Devils in the final three quarters was encouraging to discouraged Avon Park fans at the game. Nate Williams had a total of 11 tackles and three assists foe the evening. Ricky Claitt got credit for six tackles and an assist and Jimmy Carter had five tackles and two assists. Ronnie Dick and Nate Packer were also high on the tackles.

Penalties were low. Avon Park drew 50 yards and Mulberry had 25 against them. The Devils had 11 first downs to Mulberry's 15. The rushing yardage was close with Avon Park netting 154 yards and Mulberry picking up 156 on the ground. The passing game was perhaps the difference. Mulberry completed 6 of 13 passes for 93 yards and a touchdown while Avon Park completed only one of 13 for five yards. Ricky Claitt punted four times for a 33-yard average but lost yardage on an attempted fake punt and run. Mulberry punted three times for a 32-yard average. The Panthers lost two fumbles and Avon Park lost only one but had two interceptions.

Man Is Unique Animal

TALLAHASSEE—Man, by his own evaluation, is a most unique animal. He is, again according to his own estimation, the only creature endowed with the power to reason. Sometimes his actions cause you to wonder.

We are now in a peculiar time in the history of Man. Seemingly, the species, Homo sapien, has suddenly come to realize that, along with the admonition of Genesis, that Man will have dominion over all things, he must also, assume the responsibility to use his gifts of reason to insure the continuation of not only his own species, but, also, the other creatures of the earth.

In his continuing rush toward what seems an increasingly refined level of civilization, man has taken little time to recognize and admit that he is but a part of a much greater total. His continuing "me first" attitude has cast a dark shadow over the chances of survival for certain creatures, his penchant for stubbornness has caused him to learn certain of his lessons too slowly, and some species have been lost forever as a result.

Now a new awareness has been pervading the world society, and some have become doomsayers while others maintain an attitude of relative indifference. But, man will not survive alone as a species, and this is a lesson that the creature, Homo sapien, must learn.

The catch phrase of today is "ecology", a term bantered about not only by the sincere, but also the bandwagon chasers. The word comes from the Greek, "oikos", which means, house; and beneath the umbrella of this definition comes an understanding of the mutual relations between organisms and their environment. It is important that we take the true meaning of the word seriously.

For years men have sought to eliminate those things which they thought were of little or negative worth. All too frequently the end result of this half-thought was a deer herd that starved to death because of absence of natural predation, or an eagle's egg that would not hatch because of residual insecticides. Man has made mistakes and seen the error of his ways; but, still, too frequently he fails to take remedial action.

The folly of Man is his reasoning. We curse the industrial pollutor, but never give a second thought to the paper cup or tin can that we throw from our speeding automobile. We denounce the wastefulness of our industrial corporations, but leave lights burning when they serve no purpose. We decry the amount of water used by big manufacturers, but think nothing of the water we waste as individuals. We reason that the causes of our problems are the making of another, but each of us has a hand in preserving what is naturally ours.

Man is indeed a unique animal. He does, indeed, have the ability to reason; and he must realize that the natural necessities of life are not unlimited. His power of reason will decide his future.

Spring Lake Tennis Clinic Has Openings

The Spring Lake Racket Club wishes to announce that there are still several openings for its Saturday morning tennis clinic. The clinic consists of six tennis lessons each and is designed to provide both beginning and intermediate instruction for all age groups. Fees for the clinic will be $15 for all six lessons, payable at the first clinic, or $3.50 per lesson if lessons are attended separately.

Spring Lake residents will have priority as participants in the clinics, although non-Spring Lake residents will be welcome when vacancies are available.

For registration and further information call Al Marrow, 385-5340.

Sarvis Shines In Baseball

Word has recently been received here in Avon Park, from the Green River Star, Green River, Wyo., that Joey Sarvis is still doing good in baseball. The summer recreation news of Green River tells us that Joey was the winning pitcher setting a new record for strike outs, with 16, and while at bat he hit two doubles and two singles. He attended both Avon Elementary and Middle schools here. He is also beginning to ride in the rodeos at Green River. Joey is the grandson of the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas H. Holmes Sr.

Humane Society Faces Money Problems

Highlands County commissioners threatened Tuesday to withdraw financial support from the county's humane society. Commission Chairman Robert Skipper said problems with operation of the animal shelter near Sebring airport "have existed for about three years now with no solution," adding that if the problems can not be resolved the board would withdraw funds.

Commissioners were joined by members of the audience at the commission's Sept. 18 meeting in complaints about the humane society.

Discontent was voiced over the hours of operation. "The shelter opens at 2 in the afternoon and closes at 6. This is a problem for the dog catcher who has to hold the dogs he picks up between the hours of 6 p.m. one day and 2 o'clock the next day," audience members told the commissioners.

The new power symbol?

Very little in life has been more reliable or a bigger bargain down through the years than electricity.

And we'd like to keep it that way.

Right now, new customers are moving into our service area at the rate of 250 each working day. 64,000 a year.

Over the next 5 years we'll need to invest a billion dollars for new construction to meet the growing demand for power. And this money must come from investors.

That's why it's so important that Florida Power maintain adequate earnings.

If we can't show a fair return to investors, it will become exceedingly difficult to get the money needed to continue construction of vital facilities.

Local Student Named In National Scholarship Program

Principal Aaron Cravens has announced that one student at Avon Park High School has been named a semifinalist in the 1974 National Merit Scholarship Program.

The student is Dan Davis,a senior,son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan A. Davis, Lake Lotela, Avon Park. He will compete for about 3,100 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in the spring. In the 18 annual competitions completed to date, 34,450 students have won Merit Scholarships valued at more than $95.5 million.

According to Edward C. Smith, president of National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC), "The approximately 15,000 semifinalists are representative of the nation's most academically talented young people, and they bring honor not only to themselves, but also to their families, their teachers, and their communities."

"From this group will come many future leaders in business, industry, and the professions," he said. "The future success of these young people will, however, depend upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels that they are capable of attaining."

The semifinalists were the highest scorers in each state on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test-National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT-NMSQT) administered last October to over one million students in about 17,000 schools nationwide. These students, who constitute about one-half of one per cent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

NMSC identifies the semifinalists to all regionally accredited U.S. colleges and universities. Many semifinalists find this recognition useful in seeking financial aid from sources other than the Merit Program and in the process of gaining admission to college. There were 385 semifinalists from 157 high schools in Florida out of 22,506 seniors from 348 schools in Florida.

Semifinalists must qualify as finalists to advance in the competition for Merit Scholarships. To become finalists, the semifinalists must fulfill requirements that include receiving the endorsement of their schools, confirming their high PSAT-NMSQT scores on a second examination, and by providing evidence of their academic and other accomplishments. Ninety per cent or more of the semifinalists are expected to become finalists, and each finalist will receive a Certificate of Merit in recognition of distinguished performance in the competition.

Every finalist will be considered for one of the 1,000 National Merit $1000 scholarships that are allocated on a state basis, according to each state's precentage of the total U.S. high school graduating class. A selection committee made up of experienced college admissions officers and secondary school guidance counselors judges all information about each finalist in combination—his high school academic record, accomplishments, leadership qualities, extracurricular activities, as well as test scores. The winners of these one-time awards of $1000 that are financed by sponsors and NMSC will receive a single payment next fall, after they enroll as full-time college undergraduates.

Many of the finalists will also be considered for renewable four-year Merit Scholarships supported by some 450 corporations, foundations, professional associations, colleges, unions, trusts, and individuals. Winners of renewable Merit Scholarships receive up to $1,500 per year which can amount to $6,000 over the four college years.

NMSC will release the names of the Merit Scholarship winners in 1974 through the news media in three public announcements, winners of standard four-year Merit Scholarships financed primarily by corporations and businesses will be announced on April 11; the winners of one-time National Merit $1000 Scholarships will be named on April 25; and the announcement of college-sponsored four-year Merit Scholarship winners will occur on May 2.

Large Crowd Attend Showing Of New Cars Saturday

On Friday and Saturday, Bill Owens Ford, Inc., presented Avon Park and the surrounding area with the grand showing of the 1974 Ford and Mercury new cars.

On Saturday the crowd was really swinging with Leroy Brock and the "Swinging Doors", who appeared live from 3 to 6 p.m. WAPR Radio Station was on hand broadcasting live, talking to the public and Bill Owens' Ford salesmen, Billy Sebring, Joe Mazac, Lew Mundt and Del Delaney.

The highlight of Saturday was at 5:30 p.m. when Billy Sebring auctioned off a 1964 Mercury 2 door Park Lane. The highest bidder and now new owner of the car is Waldee Sullivan of Avon Park.

Shortly after the auction, little Carol Ann Owens, drew the names for the winners of the door prizes. The winner of the electric oven was George Daniels of Sebring; the crock pot was won by Bill Norton; the toaster was won by Hugo Plaag; and the electric mixer was won by Mrs. Evelyn Landress, all of Avon Park.

The Lincoln Mercury "Day of the Cat" sweepstake winners will be announced nationally at a later date. So those of you who entered, be sure to be listening.

Mr. Owens would like to take this opportunity to announce the re-appointment of Harold Hicks as our used car manager. We are very pleased to have Mr. Hicks back with our organization.

Bill and all the employes of Bill Owens Ford appreciate their friends and customers coming by to view the new models.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnes returned home recently from a vacation trip of two and a half months. They stopped in Chicago to see their son and grandsons for a month, then left for Steinauer, Neb., to visit their daughter. While there Mrs. Barnes was surprised with a visit from her brother and sister-in-law from Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gay from Charleston, W. Va., arrived at the lakes Tuesday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Welker. They all spent Wednesday at Disney World and on Thursday they left.

Mrs. Frank Alley returned home last Wednesday from West Alexandria, Ohio where she had gone to attend the funeral of her sister.

Forty-one members and guests attended the potluck dinner at the club house last Thursday evening. Mrs. Kempton's talk on the school for the retarded children was well received. Hostesses for the dinner were Mrs. W. T. Haines, Mrs. Eugene Cottrell and Mrs. George Burroughs.

A special board meeting was held at the club house on Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 10 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keys were visitors in Winter Haven on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Guenzel have returned home from a trip of eight weeks that took them to Newton, N.J. to visit her son and family for a week, then to Damerest, N.J. to visit friends and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Chris McCormaack and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Duffy in Bergenfield, N. J. They spent two weeks in Woodside, Long Island, N. Y., visiting Mr. Guenzel's brother, August Guenzel. Later they returned to Newton, N.J. for another weeks visit with her son and family, before they left by plane for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmid returned home Monday from St. Petersburg where they visited her cousin, Mrs. Julia Zitzmann, at the Town Shores in Gulfport.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sattler have returned home from a two-months vacation trip. They attended the Yung Family Reunion on Aug. 5, and saw many of their friends and relatives. They spent five days with their son and family and enjoyed a cookout there. Those attending were Richard and Thelma Sattler and children, Judy, Louise, grandchildren, and great grandchild Briam Baldwin, Walter and Marlin Crouch and daughters, Nancy and Janey; Wayne Athony and family, a niece Regina Athony and Mr. and Mrs. William Shank and daughter Billie all from Butler, Pa. Also visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Harvey and family in West View, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sabo, Mrs. Raymond Seitz, Miss Clara Gehring, Mrs. Nola McCarty, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sattler and family all from Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Thelma Harvey and daughter Arline from California.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haskin and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Welker visited in Sarasota last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Calvert returned home last Wednesday from an eight days visit with son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Calvert in Maitland and Mrs. Calvert visited her sister, Mrs. Michael Callas from Owensboro, Ky., and St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Frank Alley entered the Winter Haven Hospital Monday to undergo eye surgery Tuesday.

Nominations For Handicapped

Nominations for a Florida disabled person to be honored as "Handicapped American of the Year" and receive the President's Trophy are open until Oct. 15.

This annual award is made to demonstrate that ability counts, not disability, and to encourage, inspire, facilitate and promote the useful employment of the disabled, regardless of color, creed, age, sex, location or formal education.

Selection criteria includes nature and severity of disability; initiative and persistence manifested in work situations; respective activities and accomplishments beyond job requirements and other pertinent factors.

All choices should be forwarded to Art Kavanagh, P. O. Box 1000, Pompano Beach.

Winter Guest Club News

ELIZABETH CLARKE
Phone 453-6733

The Wednesday evening shuffling tournament was postponed to Thursday morning on account of rain. The results of the tournament are as follows, Al Ross and Leroy Hankins won with Floyd Stevens and Paul Manegold coming in second. Consolation winners were Anna Manegold and Duke Christensen over Edith Stevens and Geraldine long.

On Saturday evening eight and a half courts started to play. They played one game. It rained and the tournament was postponed to Monday morning Sept. 24.

Pinochle games continue on both Monday and Friday afternoons. Last Monday there were four tables in play with Allene Howard 688 and William Benson 685 receiving the highest scores. On Friday there were four tables in play. Loretta Simpson had the score of 750 and Duke Christensen had 671.

Helen Dickenson has returned home from her northern vacation. She visited relatives in Massachusetts, Connecticut, and Indianapolis, Ind. She made the whole trip on Amtrack and said it was most interesting.

Agness Dentler drove to Port St. Lucie last Friday to pick up her son, Jack Dentler, who had been at a convention there. Jack, who lives in Ann Arbor, Mich., spent the weekend with his mother.

News has been received of the death of James Gorsuch in Elkhart, Ind. He was the son of Art Gorsuch, who was the club's dance director for several years.

Two Prisoners Escape From County Jail

Two prisoners jumped from a second floor window and fled Highlands County jail early Tuesday afternoon. Freedom lasted a little over an hour for Robert Blomberg; Cecil Wayne Evans was back in a cell by 1 a.m. Wednesday after a massive search of the Sebring Airport area by dogs and men in cars, airplane and on foot.

Deputies said this was "the second or third break" since the present jail was placed in use 16 years ago. Blomberg and Evans were not in their cells at the time of the escape. Both had been appeared at hearings in circuit court Tuesday afternoon. They and other prisoners who had been to court were being returned to their cells when Blomberg and Evans managed to remove a heavy screen from window that opened from a cell block catwalk.

Food for Thought

By Jane Nickerson

The thick slice of a green plantain clings to the flesh like a kid glove to a plumb hand. When I asked David Teague how he peeled it off, he replied, "why, ma'am, I don't."

You wait, he explained, till "a plantain ripens, softens and is so flecked with black it looks like a banana you'd throw away. Then the skin slips off easily, and you slice and fry the flesh for breakfast. Great with morning coffee."

Teague, member of a mid-Florida wholesale produce company, was taking an Anglo-Saxon view of a tropical staple savored throughout that 2,600-mile chain of islands that stretches from Florida to Venezuela across the Caribbean Sea. He shrugged, smiled and admitted that fried, ripe plantains summed up his acquaintance.

But our Cuban residents fry green specimens, put them in soup, bake ripe ones and prove the plantain, though starchier and less sweet than its next of kin, the banana, is more versatile. And thanks to demand by those same Cuban residents, plantains have become increasingly available in Florida markets.

Shipments from Central America and Ecuador arrive in Tampa on banana boats, but unlike bananas, plantains need no special warehouse conditioning. They ripen best, Teague said, at 70 degrees; refrigeration impairs their quality. Their size tends to be almost thrice that of bananas. And is there anyone who doesn't know by now that plantains must be cooked? They are too bland when raw to be palatable, and like a tomato are a fruit more often used as a vegetable.

An Eastern legend claims the serpent which tempted Eve hid in a bunch of plantains—or was it bananas? They were the forbidden fruits on the Tree of Knowledge, though the plant on which they grow is not a tree at all, because its "trunk" is composed of leafstalks and not wood. The botannical Latin name of plantain is fruit of Paradise (Musa paradisiaca) and that of banana is fruit of Paradise and knowledge (M. paradisiaca var. sapientum)

Let's turn from that garden to a Florida kitchen and an expeditious way to peel green, unripe plantains. Mrs. Amelia Cuervo of North Palm Beach suggested this method:

Slice the ends from a green plantain; discard. Cut the fruit in half vertically. With a small, pointed knife, make four lengthwise, evenly spaced slits in the peel of each half, cut through to the hard flesh from one end to the other. Starting at the center of one slit, lift the peel away a strip at a time. Pull it off croswise rather than lengthwise. Complicated? More in the telling than the doing.

Having peeled an immature plantain, you're ready to fry those plantain chips that Floridians returning from a cruise in the Caribbean always talk about. They're crisp, delightful nibbles that do not go amiss with a frozen daiquiri, the high-rise kind that used to pass over the long bar at Sloppy Joe's in Havana in a happier day.

PLANTAIN CHIPS

Vegetable shortening or cooking oil
Salt

1. Peel the plantain as indicated in the foregoing. Slice in paper-thin slices with a razor-sharp knife.

2. In an automatic fryer or heavy saucepan equipped with a frying basket, heat enough shortening or oil to give a depth of two to three inches. Heat to about 375 degrees F.

3. Drop the plantain slices in the hot fat and let them cook two to three minutes, or till a golden brown. Fry a few at a time; do not crowd and do not let the slices stick together. Drain on paper. Season lightly with salt. Serve warm or at room temperature with drinks, soups, salads.

Yield: About two cups.

You may, if you wish, pulverize plantain chips in a blender, then stir them into chicken broth for a green-plaintain soup that Cubans cherish. A Miami company prepares plantain for quick use such as in a soup, selling the powdered product in plastic envelopes in shops catering to Cuban tastes. Was I exaggerating when I said the fruit was versatile?

A second way to fry green plantains is, in fact, to twice fry them—that is, turn the slices in hot oil, transfer them to a wooden board and press them flatter, then return them to the pan and fry them briefly again. The crisp wafer that results is an intriguing substitute for a hot bread at lunch or dinner. In Haiti they are known as banane pese.

TWICE FRIED PLANTAINS

Peel green, unripe plantains as indicated. Cut crosswise in pieces a half-inch thick. Fry in deep hot fat (about 375 degrees) two to three minutes on each side, just long enough to turn the slices a pale brown. Drain on paper. Transfer to a board and with a pancake turner, press each piece to a flat round about two inches in diameter. Return to the fat, still hot, and fry to an attractive brown—a minute or two. Again drain on paper. Salt to taste. Serve hot. Two medium plantains give four to six servings.

Floridians who may have grown plantains in their yards refer to them as "frying bananas" and prepare the ripe ones in the style to which Teague referred. He nominates fried ripe plantains for breakfast, perhaps with sausage if you can still attord it. Mrs. Marguerite Gray of Sarasota says her grandmother always had a plantain tree out back and fried the ripe fruit for dessert. Like this:

RIPE PLANTAINS FLORIDA STYLE

Peel ripe plantains. Cut crosswife in very thin slices. Fry in hot, shallow butter till a delicate brown, turning only once. Both butter and ripe plantains burn easily, so keep the heat lower than you usually do in panfrying. Remove the slices to a warm serving platter, sprinkle generously with a blend of cinnamon and sugar and serve immediately.

And please don't forget the Cuban coffee.

TO OPEN BIDS FRIDAY

Commissioners Sidestep Sanitary Landfill Issue

Highlands County commissioners sidestepped a political "hot potato" Oct. 2 when they again delayed action on selection of a sanitary landfill site.

The commission room was filled—even folding chairs across the back of the room taken—for the first commission meeting in two weeks. Chairman Robert Skipper opened the meeting with the announcement that no action would be taken on the landfill.

He explained that to meet publication schedules it had been necessary to set the bid opening up to Oct. 5.

"Bids will be opened at two o'clock Friday and we will not be taking up the landfill at all today," the chairman said. He said the bids will be discussed at the board's Oct. 9 session, adding, "I hope it can be decided then." I thought I should make this announcement early since I'm sure many of you came because of the landfill question."

Dampen proposals

Engineer Gordon Hays presented detailed studies showing that the southern end of the county-owned parcel would need considerable fill to bring it up to suitable level for building. Hays estimated a five-foot cut from the higher portions of the county land would have to be moved to the part offered to the school board.

Commissioner Buddy Wise complained that the county cannot spare men and machines for so large an operation at this time and other commissioners observed such an operation would ruin the trees on the property. Commissioners did agree to offer the school board the land—but with no help.

Scrub Pens Road

Hays told the commission that flooding of property on one side of Scrub Pens Road has been aggravated by construction of the road, across a natural drainage, and the addition of culverts to drain the road. The board approved removal of the culverts until Hays can prepare a recommendation for long-term solution of the problem.

Other Business

--Authorized advertising for bids for construction of a bridge on Skipper Road.

--Accepted for county maintenance Sparta Circle and a quarter of a mile of Lakeview Drive in Sebring at Western Auto store.

Turnovers Set Up Miners' Victory Over Avon Park

A blocked punt, an intercepted pass, and a fumble recovery set up three Fort Meade touchdowns last Friday night to give the Miners a 19-6 Peace River Valley Conference win over Avon Park at the Devils Memorial Field. The loss gave Avon Park a 1-2 record while the victory kept the Fort Meade team unfeated with three straight wins.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the Red Devils will be at home again at Memorial Field hosting the winless Hardee High Wildcats of Wauchula. The Wildcats lost to Fort Meade by a score of 42-6 in the season opener, then lost 8-6 to Charlotte High, and last week lost to Venice 33-6.

Against the Fort Meade team last week the Red Devil defense gave up only one touchdown. That score came on a 20-yard run by tailback Arthur McKenzie after the Devils had lost a fumble on their own 35-yard line and a 15-yard penalty had moved the ball on to the 20.

But early in the game Fort Meade had driven the Devils back to their own 12-yard marker with the aid of 20 yards worth of penalties against the Avon Park team. Then on fourth down, Ricky Claitt dropped back to punt and the Miners broke through to block the punt into the end zone and fell on it for the six pointer. Chris Aycock blocked the punt and covered it to get credit for the miner touchdown. John Clyatt kicked the extra point to give the Miners a 6-0 lead.

Avon Park moved down to the Miner 23-yard line on the next offensive drive with a 31-yard jaunt by Ricky Claitt setting the ball there. The offense bogged down after a five-yard penalty and a fourth down screen pass attempt failed when the ball was dropped.

The second Fort Meade touchdown came in the second period by McKenzie after the Red Devil fumble. The rest of the second period was a defensive battle with neither team able to muster enough drive for a first down. The half ended with the Miners leading 13-0. The extra point attempt after the second Miner TD was a kick by Clayatt that was wide.

The Red Devils received the kick-off in the second half and moved to mid-field before being forced to punt. The Miners were held deep in their own territory without a first down and punted out to the Avon Park 47-yard line. From there Avon Park drove in for the only score of the game. Nate Packer picked up five yards on an end around. Then Ricky Claitt added six more, Timmy Massey picked up three yards and Ricky Claitt drove for five and a first down at the 35 of Ft. Meade. Then Ricky Claitt took the ball and burst through the Miner line to race all the way to the one yard line before he was brought down. On the next play, the husky Devil back drove through the middle for the touchdown. On the attempted two-point conversion, Claitt was stopped just short of the goal line.

On the following kick-off, Avon Park faked a long kick and booted an on-side which Devil Nate Williams recovered at the Miner 48. It looked like the Devils were back in the ball game but four downs netted only eight yards and Fort Meade took over.

Early in the fourth quarter the Miners drove on the ground to the Avon Park 12-yard line before the Devil defense dug in and drove them back to the 30 with the aid of a five yard penalty. Bernard Jackson tackled the Miner tailback for a 10-yard loss when he attempted to pass on third down and the Devils stopped the fourth down run at the line of scrimmage to take over with three minutes and 45 seconds left in the game.

On the second Devil offensive play, after a five yard pass gain from Robinson to Packer, Chris Aycock picked off a pass intended for Marvin Jackson and ran it in from the 30 for his second TD of the evening. Again the kick for the point after was no good by Clayatt, but the Miners had the 19-6 score that held up for the conference win.

The big difference in the two teams was in the line. Fort Meade completely dominated the Avon Park offensive line breaking through time and again before the Devil backs could get a step forward. The Miner pass coverage was also tough although the Avon Park passers never had time to get off a proper throw so completed only four of 14 for 18 yards and had the one intercepted and run for a TD.

The statistics were fairly even. Avon Park had only five first downs to Fort Meade's nine. The Devils rushed for 123 yards net while Fort Meade had 144 on the ground. Fort Meade completed one pass of three attempts for 15 yards. Both teams lost one fumble. Avon Park had three punts for only a 14 yard average what with the blocked minus yardage. Fort Meade punted three times for a 30-yard average. Avon Park drew 70 yards of penalties—three 15-yarders and five 5-yarders while the Miners had only 50 yards of penalties walked off against them.

Public Hearing Set On Flood Control

A public hearing will be held in Sebring at 10 a.m., Tuesday, Oct. 9, in city hall on the regulations proposed by the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District to govern all uses of water, except domestic use, by citizens in the 16-county district.

This hearing, similar to others being held during October in seven other cities in the district, is expected to generate considerable interest among water users. The FCD thinks many will have comments and questions on how the water-use permit system, to be operated by the FCD under the new regulations implementing the State Water Resources Act of 1972, will affect their business or environmental interests.

The FCD has spent months preparing these proposed regulations, which spell out FCD authority under the state law to control the use of all ground water as well as surface water within the district.

Following the public hearings this month, and possible subsequent review and revision by the FCD governing board, the regulations will go to the Department of Natural Resources in Tallahassee for DNR and Cabinet approval. When approved at this level the regulations will then go into effect.

AT THE FIRST MEETING of the Avon Elementary P.T.A. (Parent-Teacher Association), it was voted on and passed to change the name of the Association to P.T.O. (Parent-Teacher Organization). The name change will enable the Organization to do more on a local level. The committees for the Halloween Carnival were announced and, between now and Oct. 27, you will be reading about what they are doing. Plan now to attend the parade and carnival. Pictured above are those elected to serve during the 1973-74 school year. Seated, from left, Mrs. Larry Pate, treasurer; Mrs. Mae Malcolm, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Swearingen, president. District One Seat Remains Vacant Governor Ponders Appointments

The post of suspended Highlands County Commissioner Mel Bass remained unfilled this week.

Hayward Davis, chairman of the Governor's Advisory Committee in this county, said he talked to Gov. Reubin Askew Monday night and no decision had been reached.

The committee has not announced the names of the men being considered for the interim appointment, but the Sun learned from other sources that at least four men have been recommended.

They are Jack DeLaney, son of a former Avon Park mayor and hardware store owner and operator; Charles Watson, district manager for Florida Power Corp.; Jack Duggan, insurance man; and Kelley Phillips, who works for United Telephone of Florida.

The advisory committee and the Highlands County Democratic Committee have recommended five men to the governor in the list of 10 names sent in. It is not known who the front runner might be. The committees agreed on only one man, it was learned.

Meanwhile, Commissioner Bass attended Tuesday's commission meeting, sitting in the audience. He is fighting the suspension. A source close to the situation, asked if there is pressure being put on the governor, noted wryly that "they're having the usual blood bath in Avon Park."

Bass was suspended by the governor Sept. 18 after three arrests on drunk driving charges and a poor attendance record at commission meetings. Bass currently is at Nu-Way center for treatment of his drinking problem.

After Tuesday's commission meeting Bass questioned commissioners about details of some of the problems discussed at the meeting. He observed that he intends to keep abreast of the board's work and in response to a reporter's question said he intends to defend himself when charges against him are heard by Florida Senate (probably at its 1974 session).

Bass grinned as he observed, "I'm too much of a "Cracker" to give up without a fight."

Shortly after Bass' suspension the Governor's staff had been asked whether the suspension could be interpreted as being in conflict with Governor Askew's plea that employers keep alcoholics at work, encourage them to seek help rather than firing them.

Staff had responded that the Bass case "is different" because "he is an elected official, representing citizens" and these citizens deserve to have a responsible representative.

Telephone And PSC Conference Delayed

A conference which had been scheduled by the Public Service Commission for Oct. 2 with officials of United Telephone Company to discuss the company's quality of service has been postponed indefinitely at the request of the company. Public hearings will be conducted as planned in the area served by United at times and places to be announced.

In a letter to the Commissioners, Ed Mason, who represents the company, said, "At the time United requested this conference, it was not aware of any discussion regarding the Commission holding a public hearing in its service area."

He said that since the question of a public hearing has entered the picture, "United would prefer and respectfully suggests to the Commission that the scheduled conference be postponed until the Commission determines it will conduct such a public hearing. If the Commission decided a public hearing is necessary and proper and should be held, the conference should then be delayed until after the public hearing is completed."

He added that in the company's view, "no useful purpose would be served by the conference preceding such a public hearing."

Bids Let For Traffic Light Here

An Illinois company has won the bid for installing a traffic light at the intersection of State Roads 17 and 64 on a bid an astounding 41 per cent below budget estimates.

At county commission meeting Oct. 2 the commissioners learned from the Florida Department of Transportation that the bid had been let for $8,230. The project had been budgeted for $14,000.

Bank Women To Attend Dallas Meeting

Two prominent women bankers from Avon Park, will be among the delegates attending the 51st Annual Convention of the National Association of Bank Women, Inc. in Dallas, Texas, Sept. 30, - Oct. 3. They are Lois Sizemore, assistant cashier and Frances Whidden, assistant vice president.

The Convention which will be held at the Fairmont Hotel, is expected to bring between 1,500 and 2,000 women bank executives to Dallas for a program that will be focused on the banking industry of the future.

Avon Park's Share Of Recreation Funds May Be Long Time Coming

A bid for greater county participation in recreation funds drew lukewarm response from Highlands County commission at the board's Oct. 2 meeting.

In a letter to the board, School Superintendent George F. Douglass pointed out that the state Department of Education has ceased financing of a summer recreation program, and he asked for a joint meeting among county, city, and school officials.

At the same time the Avon Park City Council sent a letter to the board asking for $10,000 of the federal revenue-sharing money which the county had promised to the cities for recreation budgets.

Commissioners instructed County Administrative Assistant Charles Cullens to remind Avon Park that the federal revenue sharing money ($50,000 in all) is to be made available to the cities after the courthouse annex has been built. "And we agreed we should pay bills as they are presented; money is not to be handed out in lump sums," the commissioners said.

The commissioners said that in response to Douglass' request they are "willing to meet" but reluctant to make commitments.

Some Helps

Recreation did get some positive boosts, however. The City of Sebring was granted weekend use of a county dragline to work on a Lake Jackson boat ramp.

The board okayed a request from Commissioner Ken Wilkinson for County Engineer Gordon Hays to work with him in preparing a proposal for county help in the Sebring area on clearing a recreation field. Wilkinson said he is projecting clearing for two small fry baseball diamonds and a softball field.
