

Avon Park City Council

State Asked To Clarify Code

Ordinance To Protect Citizens

"This whole bundle of mechanics is not for the trades. It's primarily to protect the citizens. And that's the overall thing. The whole purpose of this thing is not to keep anybody out locally or state wide or anything. It's to protect," stated Jim Heim, City Council member at the joint meeting of the City Council and the City Council last Monday night.

The special meeting of the city council and the City Council was called to review the city's Ordinance No. 569 in the light of the state codes on the certification and registration of contractors, which was brought about when the city's building department refused to register James L. Jim McWilliams Jr. as a roofing contractor even though he was licensed as a roofing contractor in Highlands County in 1969-70 and 71.

Building Inspector C. W. Ellerbee stated that Jim McWilliams had been denied registration as a roofing contractor in March 1975 because he did not have a roofing contractors license on July 22, 1974, when Ordinance No. 569 was adopted, nor was evidenced presented that he had taken and passed an H & H Block roofing contractor test.

In the matter of McWilliams receiving a Highlands County roofing contractors license in March 1975, Kelly Phillips, County Commissioner from this district, pointed out that the license had been issued through error.

Considerable discussion of the City Ordinance and the state statutes took place between contractors, board and council members, City Attorney Jack Hancock and Terry Verner, Field Investigator of the Florida Construction Industry Licensing Board.

It appears there is a contradiction in the state statutes that permits a building contractor to build the entire building foundation, walls and roof it is all one contract. But the contractor cannot go back later to repair or replace the roof he built if he does not have a roofing contractors license. President of the Competency Board Ken Long, cited the same experience in his business. When making a new air conditioning installation he can hook up the electrical disconnect but on an old installation he must have an electrical contractors license in addition to his air conditioning contractors license to make the disconnect hookup.

A clarification of the terms state certification and registration by Field Investigator Verner revealed that a contractor taking and passing the state examination can go into any county and pull a permit to do work in his occupation, while state registration means that a contractor has local competency which may or may not be recognized in another local area.

On the question of notification of contractors when the state law on roofing contractors was changed on July 1, 1973 — Verner stated contractors had a 90 day period to qualify under the grandfather clause with news of the change being sent to newspapers, radio, trade magazines, various boards and departments. Attorney Hancock stated that legal notices are almost always by newspaper as the media treats everybody alike.

To resolve the situation without working hardships on anyone it was agreed that City

Attorney Hancock contact the State Attorney General for clarification of the state statutes before the Council makes any decisions.

Council President Wendell Williams stated the Council had no reason to keep anyone from getting a license but didn't want to be in a position where the city was not complying with the state law. The question was asked by Williams, "what can we do by law to help — but at the same time we must also abide by and uphold the state law. But the Council doesn't want to change the law (Ordinance No. 569) and penalize others who have complied with the law.

County Applies For Permit To Operate 3 Landfills

Highlands County commissioners barely averted a stalemate, in working out an agreement to take stop-gap action on temporary landfills. In their meeting Tuesday commissioners reluctantly agreed that engineer Gordon Hays Jr. should gather information necessary to apply for a pollution control variance, which would permit use of a proposed landfill in the Lake Placid area.

Commission Chairman Buddy Wise said he spent most of April 21 at the regional offices of the state Pollution Control Board. After hearing Wise's description of the proposed operations, the staff at Fort Myers said it would probably go along with a recommendation that Highlands County be granted a variance for use of the site.

Commissioner Ken Wilkinson questioned whether the county would have to make expensive investments in equipment, if the Lake Placid site was placed in use.

Wise said he had been "under the impression the county would continue to operate three landfills" as it had in the past. At present, landfills are in use near Avon Park and DeSoto City, but there is none available in south Highlands County.

Wise said residents of that southern region are becoming bolder over the inconvenience they are suffering. He had been thinking that the county should and would provide a landfill more readily available for the southern part of the county.

Wilkinson said he is opposed to making extensive investments in equipment; he favors hastening to a long term solution to the county's solid waste disposal problems.

In response to questioning Hays said the county has never operated by state standards for waste disposal, but "if the state continues to let us use temporary standards" the Avon Park and DeSoto City landfills may be useable for a two-to-three year period.

He estimated the possible life of the proposed site at Lake Placid as six to seven years, depending upon exact level of the water table.

Unable to agree on any other approach to the landfill headache, the board authorized the county engineering department to compile information needed in applying for the variance.

The commission also heard about a meeting in Orlando this week where the requirements of a law on "resources recovery" will be presented. The law includes provisions for recycling some types of waste, and later in the meeting commissioners observed that this requirement may force still more changes in local solutions to waste disposal.

Assistant engineer Carl Cool will represent Highlands County at the meeting in Orlando.

Promotions For Two

At Bank Announced

The Board of Directors of the Avon Citrus Bank, at their April 18th meeting, announced the following changes:

Chairman Charles Hoke said that the bank had promoted Lloyd E. Cornell and Robert P. Leaphart.

Mr. Cornell was promoted to Assistant Cashier. Mr. Cornell formerly from Endicott, New York, came to Avon Citrus Bank in December of 1973 and has been employed in the advertising division of the bank.

Mr. Leaphart was formerly with International Business Machines of Endicott, New York.

Mr. Cornell and his wife, Carol, have been residents of Sebring for the past six years and are the co-owners of Lloyds Shoes in the Southgate Shopping center. They have two children; Alan, who attends Santa Fe Junior High in Gainesville and th, who is attending the Spring Middle School. Mr. Cornell is active in the Avon Club of Avon Park. Mr. Robert P. Leaphart, formerly Assistant Vice president of the Avon Citrus Bank, was elevated to the position of Vice President in charge of Advertising and New business.

He was born in Sebring, Florida, and graduated from Spring High School in 1946. Since retiring from the Air Force in 1967 after twenty years service, he was employed by the Tropical Bank and Trust Co. in Sebring as a teller.

Mr. Leaphart came to Avon

Citrus Bank in February of 1973.

He is a member of the Sebring Lodge 249 F & AM, Scottish Rite, Karen Shrine, Highland Shrine Club, Kiwanis Club of Avon Park, Sebring Elks, American Legion and is active in the Dixie Youth Baseball, serving on their Board of Directors.

Neighbors Complain

Animals Must Go

His animals are getting his neighbors' goat, so an Avon Park Lakes resident may be going to court if his chickens, ducks and goats don't make a hasty exit.

Zoning Director Bill Stephenson reported to Highlands County commissioners that residents of Avon Park Lakes had complained about the livestock in their residential area.

So far conferences have not produced results. The commissioners at their meeting Tuesday authorized Stephenson to proceed with enforcement of the zoning law. Early Tuesday afternoon Stephenson said he had not taken steps to obtain a warrant. He plans to make one more contact, to explain that prosecution will be forthcoming if the law is not obeyed.

At the commission meeting Highlands County Property Owners executive Bill VanBalsen expressed surprise that Stephenson "had to ask the board whether to enforce the law."

The commissioners said it is a zoning regulation that the board be given prior information about pending prosecution.

Minimum Of Five Hours

Recommended For Seniors

Highlands County School Board member Franklyn Ward suggested to the Lay Advisory of the Avon Park High School that they think about a minimum of five hours class for seniors, more involvement and participation for parents and four years of Language Arts, during their meeting at Highlands County Media Center on April 14.

Guidance Counselor Robert Watts presented an informative talk on the following units a student needs for graduation. These are: Three units in English, two in Social Studies (Civics and American History), two in Math, two in Science, and two in Physical Education.

The minimum number of credits for graduation is 20 and the maximum is 24, with 15 credits being earned in the last three years.

Graduating students are asked to fill out their schedules with a special form on after-graduation plans. These schedules are used by the Guidance Counselor to aid the student in his future choice of a career. These forms will be sent out in May and must be signed by parents or guardians and returned promptly.

Driver Education will be scheduled after Physical Education courses, stated Dr. John Crittenden. If a student does not take P.E., they cannot take Driver Education and the student must be 15 years old to be eligible to take Driver Education.

Each student will be given a suggested schedule of recommended subjects and alternate subjects with Civics being required by all Freshmen.

Seniors will have a checklist attached to their schedule as many are taking courses at the Junior College, are on the Senior Job entry program, etc. and are off campus when announcements are made that concern them.

A special meeting of the Lay Advisory Committee has been called for 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 28, at the high school Media Center to discuss the five hours for seniors, more participation by parents and four years of Language Arts. Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Bombing Range Has Two Missions-States Griffing

In January of 1942 authority was granted (from the office of Chief of Engineers Washington, D.C.) for construction of a General Bombing and Gunnery Range to be located 10 miles northeast of Avon Park for which the Government had acquired 106,210 acres.

Lt. Col. Donald A. Griffing, commander officer at Avon Park Air Force Range (A.P.A.F.R.) stated that the Range has two missions:

First, the basic mission is bombing and gunnery training for newly hired fighter pilots and fighter air crews. He also stated, "We train these new fighter pilots to drop bombs, and hit what they are looking at, before they get into a war time situation. Its the same as the police department train their policeman to use their weapons."

Second, they have an electronic warfare mission. Where they train the pilot and fighter air crews how to determine when enemy radar controlled weapons have them locked in on their scope and launch what kind of weapon is pointed at the airplane. This enables the pilot to have time to do some type of evasive maneuver or get to a place where the weapon can not shoot his plane down to have him continue his mission.

The pilot can also jam the enemy radar unit so it can not track him.

The type of bombs used at the Range are only practice bombs. They use a 2 1/2 inch folding fin aerial rocket, BDU33 practice bomb which simulates a free fall bomb, and an MK106 practice bomb that simulates a retarded bomb.

When these bombs and rockets hit the ground they set off a charge of white smoke so the planes can tell where the bombs hit.

When the pilots practice at night they drop flares (each flare has about two million candle power) which enables them to see the target. These flares were used extensively in South East Asia.

Lt. Col. Griffing stated if one of the practice bombs fell from a plane and hit a house the only damage it would do is put a small hole in the roof and very little more (it would not do any extensive damage). If it hit a person inside the house it could injure them, if it hit the right place even kill them, but the chances of this happening is very slim.

All air craft systems are set up with this safety in mind. There are a series of switches and interlocks to keep anything from just falling off the plane unless the pilots want it to fall. But that does not mean these switches do not malfunction or that pilots don't make mistakes and turn the wrong switch sometimes. But, the pilot usually does not turn these switches on until he is over the gunnery range.

Always keep in mind they do not use any "real or live" bombs on the range stated Col. Griffing only ones with a spotting charge of white smoke.

The Air Force also leases land at the Range to cattlemen. Griffing stated they have very few cattle killed while the planes are bombing. He said he had a senior officer with him on the range and some cattle were in the target area. The senior officer asked Col. Griffing what he did about the cattle in the target area. He stated, "call the owner and tell him his cattle are in the area." "But don't worry, Griffing said, "The cattle always move away before the planes arrive." Sure enough five minutes before the fighter planes arrived the cattle moved out of the target area.

If you are wondering what you hear on the weekends its generally the National Guard artillery. They bring Howitzers, self propelled cannons, (105 and 155 mm) to the Range and use live ordinance. Part of the noise you hear in town is not necessarily the artillery round when it hits the ground but everytime they fire a cannon that size it makes a lot of "bang" when the gunpowder explodes inside the gun and that what makes the noise.

Occasionally you will hear explosions during the week. The flares they use for night bombing are very incendiary if they do not ignite. Crews from MacDill come to the Range and clean up anything that could be dangerous to people or animals.

The crews gather up any unignited flares, take them to a disposal area on the Range, packs them with a powder charge and blows them up so they are no longer dangerous.

During hunting season he doesn't get mean but the air corps has a mission to perform at the range which accounts for the Range being closed during some weekends. Cattlemen also have their troubles with hunters cutting fences and leaving gates open. The Air Force tries to keep the Range open as much as possible for recreation, but when they have military missions (National Guard or Homestead) in on Saturday they can't allow the general public on the Range because of safety reasons.

If an unauthorized civilian happens to get into a target area where the military is practicing all work has to stop until the civilian is taken out of the area.

It cost quite a lot of money to take a fighter air craft flight, have fighter crews briefed, take off from MacDill, come to the range and for their training missions.

Griffing stated any interruption the flights have costs the taxpayer money so we don't allow people to come on the Range except for business purposes when there is a military mission.

There are no jets or any type of air craft kept on the base. But each day air rescue helicopters come over to the Range just in case there is a crash or emergency. These are the same helicopters that perform the MAST (military Assistance to Safety and Traffic) missions. But in three years there has only been two planes crashes.

In the squadron there are 171 military personnel assigned, another 20 military Tenet personnel, six weather observers and 14 communications personnel (telephone and radio maintenance). There are also 81 civilian employees working on base. Altogether about 275 people are assigned to A.P.A.F.R. The total military and civilian payroll monthly is about $161,000.

One of the major problems the military families face when they come to this area is housing. Hopefully the new housing area being built on base will help. The housing units are expected to be finished around Christmas and will house 50 families. There are about 50 families who already live on the base in trailers.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. Griffing are presently living in Sebring. As soon as the family housing project is finished they will move on base.

The Griffings have three children, Michael who is a senior at Sebring High School, Kathleen who is married to a Sebring resident and Donald who is also married English girl and now living in Sebring.

Enrolled in our local school systems there are between 100-110 military children.

While the Bombing Range has been at Avon Park since World War II Col. Griffing felt that many people know what we are doing. There are not many people in downtown Avon Park or Sebring that have an overall picture of what goes on out here.

TWO MILLION CANDLEPOWER flares light up the target area at night on the gunnery range at the Avon Park Air Force Range. As some flares descend and burn out other flares are dropped to provide continuous light for the practice run. Motorist fell off seeing the flares from the Haines City area. A yard light is visible below the horizon tree line. Photo—Miller.

THIS IS WHAT one section of Bravo Range looks like from one of the Range towers. If you wonder what a garbage truck and a station wagon is doing in the middle of no where, they are used as targets for the fighter crews. Other targets are in the distance. Photo—Cornell.

Keyettes Put On Variety Talent Show

April 14th through the 18th was Keyette week at Avon Park High School.

Monday was comic character and movie star day. Oh! My aching back. Those were the moans of Keyettes who designed, dug, and planted a rock garden on the A.P.H.S. campus, Monday between 4:00 and 6:00 p.m. Congratulations girls. We think it looks great. Tuesday was Holiday Dress Up, where the Keyettes dressed up for their favorite holiday. Most of the girls dressed up for Valentine's Day. Wednesday was Athlete Day where the students dressed up as baseball players. They also had a softball game between the Avon Park Keyettes and the Sebring Keyettes. The game got off to a bad start with Avon Park trailing 2-0. But the Avon Park Keyettes came through with a thrilling victory of 13-3. After the game, refreshments were served to the teams and the umpires, Wyse and Miss Cox. Congratulations Keyettes for a victory!

Two Keyettes, Mary Wright and Linda Klein, were the Masters of Ceremony. Brenda Cooper started the show off by reading the devotions. Next, was the Flag Ceremony which consisted of the presentation of the Flags and the Pledge of Allegiance.

The entertainment started off with Tracy Sutherland singing, I Won't Last a Day Without You. The second participant was Cynthia Merritt and Arlene Braitwaite, who performed the dance Satin Soul. Clifford Coleman sang Raindrops Keep Falling On My Head.

Lee Barber, Billy King, Mike Ryan, Jeff Flagg, and Craig Skipper presented a Percussion Ensemble directed by Kevin Murphy. Mr. Robertson, the vice-principal also got in on the act. He played the guitar. The Stage Band played the theme from Soul Train, TSOP. Larry Greene and Kim Charlesville presented a comedy sketch, Peach Pie, which got a lot of laughs. The 8th act was a trio of Tami Love, Sue Allen, and Diane Cox, who sang the Boogie Woogie Bugle Boy.

There was a short break in the program while the President of the Keyettes, Kim Kempton, talked to the students about becoming a Keyette and about the accomplishments of the club. The next performance was by Lee Snider and his band, presenting Elton John. Elton John was played by Butch Farless who sang the Crocodile Rock.

The funniest act was put on by four members of the faculty: Mr. Strickler, Mr. Duhm, Mr. Wyse, and Mr. Project. Mr. Strickler and Mr.

Duhm sang Hey! Look Me Over, while Mr. Wyse and Mr. Project danced. Mr. Still did a soft-shoe dance and Terence Johnson sang The Impossible Dream. There were two presentations made during the program. The Keyettes presented the Keyette

Sweetheart, Jamie Tomlinson, with a key and they also presented their sponsor, Mrs. Betty Burch, with a bouquet of flowers to represent their appreciation for her guidance. Mr. Robertson ended the program by congratulating the Keyettes for putting on a fine talent show.

SGT. AND MRS. MILES A. SMITH

Lynne Griffiths-Miles Smith In Double Ring Wedding

Holy Trinity Church, Headington Quarry, Oxford, England, was the scene of a very impressive ceremony on November 8, 1974, uniting in marriage, Miss Lynne Diane Griffiths and Staff Sgt. Miles A. Smith. Reverend Ronald E. Head performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Griffiths of 10 Flexney Place, Headington, Oxford, England. The bridegroom's parents are Kermit Leon and Gussie Massey of 410 W. Circle St., Avon Park.

THE BRIDE

When the lovely petite bride was given in marriage by her father, she was carrying a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses. Her high-neck gown featured full long sleeves banded at the wrist with rows of dainty lace. Lace also enhanced the front bodice of the gown which fell softly into a chapel train. Her long mantilla and veil of silk illusion was held in place by a face-framing band of flowers.

The bride's three sisters, Denise, Terry and Tracey Griffiths, served as bridesmaids. They wore complimentary gowns and carried nosegays of carnations.

Miles chose as his best man, Staff Sgt. Joseph Sprouse, U.S. Air Force, Upper Heyford England. Groomsman were Leo Carry and Shaun Griffiths, brother of the bride.

RECEPTION

The bride's parents entertained at a reception at 7 p.m. at the Barton Community Centre. The bride's colors were used throughout, with the bride and bridesmaids' bouquets adorning the bride's table. The large square cake, measuring two feet at the base, had graduating tiers adorned with love birds, wedding bells and slippers. Topping the work of art was a bouquet of flowers. Punch and other party snacks were served along with Skrunch, the cake to the many relatives and guests attending.

The bride is the private secretary to the general manager of the New Theatre, Oxford, and does cordon bleu cookery.

Miles is attached to the 20th. Security Police Squadron, stationed at the U.S. Air Force Base at Upper Heyford, England, and is a USAF soccer coach.

Gussie and Leon were unable to attend the wedding in England, but their home was a place of excitement when they received the picture album of their son's wedding. It was the "next best thing" to being there. The Masses are now anxiously waiting to meet their new daughter, Lynne.

Proud Grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Martin are the proud parents of a daughter, Candice Lynn, born April 19, 1975 at Lake Wales Hospital weighing 15 lbs. 5 oz.

Her paternal grandparent is Mr. C. A. Martin and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elzye.

Doctor Said

Baby Boy

Would Not Live

On April 18, 1962, a boy was born near Lancaster, Ohio by the name of Arthur Fisher. The doctor said that he would not live, but how he fooled the doctor, because ninety three years later, here at his home at 20 N. Summit Ave., Avon Park, his neighbors slipped in to give him a surprise party.

Mrs. Della Lewiston was the hostess. Mrs. J. Marsh baked a large white birthday cake with ninety three candles. Mrs. Katie Wyckoff baked a chocolate cake and Mrs. J. McDonald served the punch. After the refreshments and opening of the gifts everyone left. The enjoyable evening proved that Senior Citizens can have as much fun as children.

When asked about his long life Mr. Fisher stated, "It was the good Lord up above and the wonderful Florida weather."

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph March, Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. V. Watson, Rev. Mrs. Russell Howard, Rev. Byron Shortinghouse, Mrs. Jessie Lewis, Mittle Tompson, Katie Wyckoff, Bill Martin, Herbert Adams.

Library Is Genuine Recreation Bargain

The recent annual meeting of Friends of the Library marked the beginning of the new year, 1975-76, for that organization.

The name "Friends of the Library" is an exact, descriptive term for this group of Avon Park citizens. It is dedicated to promoting and assisting the Avon Park Public Library.

In the past, it has replaced an ancient typewriter with a modern electric one and provided a small refrigerator for the use of staff members who work through the lunch hour. It plays an active part in the excellent summer program for children, offered by the library and provides tapes and extra material which enhance the scope of library service. These are all services which lie outside the budgeted city funds.

These things are made possible by yearly dues paid by the members of Friends of the Library.

Membership is open to anyone who is interested in the library; who recognizes it as Avon Park's greatest asset in the field of cultural advancement and a genuine "recreation bargain." Membership cards are available at the library for a contribution of one dollar or more. Donations may also be mailed to Mrs. W. Carlyle Smith, membership chairman, at 708 W. Canfield St. Avon Park.

A COUPLE OF minutes at the Lion's Clubhouse was all that was required for a simple pressure test by Dr. Ronald "Ron" Sevigny, Optometrist, (left) to determine if one had an abnormally high pressure within the eye, which could be an indication of glaucoma (loss of sight). At the Lion's glaucoma clinic Fred Hughes (seated) has a tonometer placed on his left eye which directly measures the pressure inside the eyeball at the moment. Normal pressure is considered below 21 millimeters of mercury while a pressure above 21 mm is considered suspicious. As fluids are continuously being secreted within the eye, high pressures may be the result of over-production of fluid or inadequate drainage. Approximately 95 per cent of glaucoma patients have the chronic type which can be controlled with medication such as pilocarpine ophthalmic solution drops or others. Roughly five per cent of glaucoma cases are acute, which may require surgery. Helping with registering and bookkeeping were: (left-right) Bob Pearl, Lou Nickoley and Robert MacDougall. Photo—Miller.

Realtors Observe National Week

"All brokers are not Realtors but all Realtors are brokers," stated Irene Roy, President of the Avon Park Board of Realtors in observance of National Realtor Week, April 26-28.

The Avon Park Board of Realtors is the smallest in the state but is known statewide and is a leader in the 10th district. There are eleven districts in Florida with 76 boards of Realtors.

The National Association of REALTORS now boasts a membership of almost 500,000 REALTORS, and REALTOR-ASSOCIATES. There are 1700 local Boards of Realtors in the fifth states. These local boards work through their state associations to form a nationwide communications network.

Various Institutes and Councils serve the Florida Association of REALTORS. A few of these include the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, Florida Real Estate Exchanges, Institute of Real Estate Management, National Institute of Farm and Land Brokers, Real Estate Securities and Syndication Institute, REALTORS National Marketing Institute and Society of Industrial REALTORS. These Institutes and Councils all have a common goal and that is to upgrade the real estate profession through educational seminars which keeps members up to date in their chosen specialties.

The entire REALTOR organizational structure is governed by the REALTOR

CODE OF ETHICS. Each REALTOR and REALTOR-ASSOCIATE subscribes to this code of ethical conduct and through the chain of local, state and national cooperation, the buying and selling public is better protected in Real Estate transactions.

A person can become a real estate salesman by taking a 15 week Real Estate course and passing a state examination and be affiliated with a broker. All salesmen are encouraged to become brokers by taking a ten week brokers' course and passing the state brokers examination after serving a one year apprenticeship with a broker.

Avon Park Realtor Ted Ward has taught both the salesmen and brokers courses at South Florida Junior College for several years.

The Avon Park Board of Realtors meets the last Tuesday of each week month at a luncheon meeting at the Steak-Out restaurant.

Each year the Florida Association of REALTORS holds three statewide meetings. The inaugural meeting was held in Orlando January 8 - 11. The next meeting will be held in Naples June 13 - 16. REALTORS from all over the state will assemble to attend educational sessions, discuss common problems, and statewide matters affecting real estate.

Serving with President Irene Roy are John Morris, Vice-president and Malcolm Crews, Secretary-treasurer.

SFJC Splits Doubleheader To Place Fifth

South Florida Junior College entered the last doubleheader of the season last Friday against St. Petersburg needing to win both to capture fourth place in the tough Division III. The Panthers lost the first game but came back strong to win the second and end in fifth place-the highest finish in Division II in the history of Panther baseball.

SFJC, after a poor start this season (3-9), began to jell and played over .500 baseball (11-10) the rest of the way to conclude the season at 14-19. The Panthers beat everyone in their division at least once except for Hillsborough. Included were three wins in four games with Florida College and splits with Polk and St. Pete and big wins over powerful Manatee and Brevard-the Division leaders. They made a clean sweep in the two game series with Edison, defeated powerful and State ranked Seminole, New England, 1974 champs Housatonic, Conn., and split with number eight state ranked St. John's River C.C. River C.C.

Many of the Panthers will be returning since there are only three sophomores on the roster. With the experienced players, plus eight or nine new freshman Coach Hill will recruit, a winning season and a trip to the state tourney will be the immediate goals for the 1974 Panthers.

Coach Hill expects to fill two key positions that plagued the defense last season - shortstop and second base. Three hard throwing pitchers, another outfielder and one more catcher to back up Buddy DeWitt will make the Panthers contenders for the division crown next year.

Coach Hill was pleased with the support and spectator turnout as the season progressed. "As baseball improves at SFJC, the number of spectators will increase. I'm sure we will draw real well next year", stated Hill. "Any good program always has strong support of the community and community support helps achieve success."

When you go shopping, take a shopping list with you. And resolve to stick to that list, no matter what. Otherwise you might throw your budget way out of whack with impulse buying.

Florence and Ron Boyer drove Rachael Stormont to Bradenton on Friday where she will spend the week-end with friends before returning to her home in Ohio. Florence and Ron, and Rachael Stormont were recent dinner guests of Ellen and Harry Hunt.

Several neighbors gathered at Mabel Nelson's home recently for an old-time quilting bee and tied off a most attractive spread type quilt which Mabel had made. Everyone enjoyed this almost lost bit of Americana.

A most enjoyable "Mr. Mrs." tea-coffee was held in the recreation hall on Friday afternoon. Hostesses were Hazel Jedrey, Cathlene Curry, Sylvia Fabiny and Maude Baker.

The tea table was covered with a lace cloth with a centerpiece of purple petunias in a crystal bowl, flanked by candles in tall holders. Smaller bouquets were placed at intervals on the table at which the guests were seated and a variety of cookies and sandwiches contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Among those present were Mary and Cedric Weirman, former residents of Bonnie Brae, and Mrs. Francis Slavoda who was a guest of the Begals. Special recognition

High School 1 Of 30 Schools In Nation For Evaluation Study

A public hearing, seeking assistance under the 1974-75 Emergency School Aid Act, is to be held Tuesday, at 8 p.m. in the Fred Wild Elementary School multi-purpose room.

In order to submit an application for funds for the 1975-76 school year, a public hearing must be held, attended by parents, teachers and secondary school students. Those present will have an opportunity to understand the program for which assistance is being solicited and to offer recommendations, according to Aubrey Morris, director of federal projects for Highlands County schools.

A district-wide committee has been appointed to serve as an advisory group to school officials on implementation of Emergency School Aid Act funds. The group will also consult with officials in identifying and assessing needs.

District-wide advisory committee members are Mrs. Dona Badman, Mrs. Lee Tate, Mrs. Ethel Ellis, George Baker, Miss Norma McGahee, Hugh J. Veley, Miss Verneka Lawrence, Clarence A. Phillips, Samuel C. Nixon Jr., Aubrey Morris, Vincent Ascutto, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Jackson, Ernest E. Sims, Mrs. Clara Boone, Dixie H. Scott and Leroy McGahee.

There is also a student advisory committee in each secondary school affected by the program.

Sebring High School committee members are Verneka Lawrence, Mora Brice, Charlotte Breed, Wilbert Williams, Sergio Sardinia, Vincent Ascutto.

Lake Placid High committee members are Norma McGahee, Steve Randolph, Lynel Moore, George Baker, Janice Hall and Janet Fleming.

Avon Park High School is not affected by the rulings and has no student committee since it is not receiving ESAA funds. It has, however, been selected by ESAA as the only school in Florida and one of only 30 nationwide for an in-depth "Evaluation Study."

Highlands County is one of several districts in Florida participating in a nationwide evaluation of the ESAA programs. Under the plan, officials in Washington, D.C. have selected two schools for comparison purposes, with one receiving funds and the other not. The funded school is called the treatment facility, and the other is a control school. In this county, Lake Placid is receiving funds and is considered the treatment facility, while Avon Park does not receive funds and is considered the control school. The evaluation will involve only certain students and teachers in grades 10 through 12.

Highlands County's application for funds for 1975-76 is in the amount of $213,543. It represents $137,562 in a supplemental reading program, $69,438 in the Time-Out Room program and $22,543 in staff training and development.

Calvin's Column

By
CALVIN GIBBS

Hi Friends,

It was in April 1789, that George Washington became the first president of the United States. The Constitution had finally been adopted, and the founding fathers set out to establish a more perfect union. One has only to refer to the preamble of that document to vision to the foresight of those Americans. The Bill of Rights is further evidence of their wisdom.

Time has produced some changes and additions to this document, in the form of amendments, but the essence of its basic provisions remains unaltered.

It is our responsibility to see that the kind of government described in Lincoln's Gettysburg Address (of the people, for the people, and by the people) does not perish from the earth.

As citizens, we must register to vote. Once registered, we must vote. We must also learn how well candidates' records and platforms conform to our conceptions of democratic principles and ideals. Then we will be able to cast a very intelligent and significant vote at the polls.

The books are open now and are made available to you to register at City Hall daily from 8 to 5 p.m.

Note: This message above is irrespective of race, creed or color. It is intended for Americans.

Signed, Calvin C. Gibbs.
Church News:

Mrs. Maggie Lawrence
Very special recognition was given to Mrs. Maggie Lawrence at Saint Mark Baptist Church, for more than forty years of faithful service.

A memorial was paid to the late Deacon Dave Seaton for services rendered during his lifetime.

The Apostolic Church of Jesus rendered appreciation ceremonies for Elder and Mrs. Thomas Brown. Friends and followers were there from far and near.

Mrs. Reatha Jones and children attended the dedication services of the Peaceful Baptist Church on Sunday April 20, 1975 in Ft. Meade, Fla. The Rev. S. D. Pollard Jr. is pastor. The theme was: "With God, All Things are Possible."

Correction: Mrs. Essie M. Boone will be in charge of the program at St. Mark on the third Sunday in May.

Know your Ministers:

Elder C. Fogie
Elder Fogie is a native of South Carolina but by his tenure of more than 25 years in Avon Park makes him, wife and children full fledged citizens of the highest calibre. Elder and Sister Lula Belle Fogie are humble but significant people who are concerned about the progress of all mankind.

Again, I was most pleased to recognize how hospitable they were in receiving me as a guest to their serene and gracious home.

I directed several questions to Elder Fogie, and his responses were all courteous and concise. He feels that one of his major achievements is the fact, that from his ministry in Avon Park, have come sixteen preachers and three superintendents which extend from Ocala, Fla. to Baltimore, Md. And although once considered an Avon Park minister, he is currently pastor of churches in Lake Wales and Apopka, Fla.

The fellowship dinner, sponsored by his local church, at Brother's Restaurant last Saturday, was a tremendous success, and the sponsors are proud of their wisdom.

Sponsors are also presenting the Mississippi Blind Boys at the Hopewell Elementary School on Saturday night, April 26, at 8:00 p.m. Donations are $2. (advance) or $2.50 at the door.

Civic and Social:

Wilma Howard
Wilma Howard who was the Daughter Ruler of Highlands Progressive Temple No. 1192 I.B.P.O.E. of W. from April 12, - 18th, Mrs. Howard made the trip by car, and had the good fortune of sharing a room with niece, Mrs. Rosa Lee Miller, who was a delegate from Unique Temple No. 438, Ocala Fla.

Lois Does It Again:

Mrs. Lois M. Catlin (Parent and Business woman)

Mrs. Lois M. Catlin was elected president of a newly organized civic and social club, The Peace-Makers, which has as its objectives: (1) To make moral and financial contributions to civic organizations and worthy causes. (2) To provide wholesome entertainment for teenagers, and (3) To promote social affairs for adults. Mrs. Catlin has already donated her establishment to whatever functions considers beneficial toward the achievement of the are: Calvin Gibbs, vice president; Shirley Roberts, recording secretary; James Green, financial secretary; William Dickey, treasurer; Mikki Love, business manager; John Moss, parliamentarian and James Bailey, chaplain.

The public is cordially invited to affiliate with this organization, which meets weekly on Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at Lois' place.

Observation or comment:

Mrs. Mary Rushing (Parent and Teacher at Avon Park Middle School)

"It's common or everyday occurrence that you meet people who are disgruntled, and who can find fault of everybody and everything about them, and therefore, it is upon this observation that I would like to make this comment. It's about time that we stop enumerating our curses and begin counting our blessings. We live in a small and friendly town which makes everyday living slightly easier than that in spacious, yet congested cities. We have good schools and churches, with dedicated teachers and ministers in command. We're located at such a geographical advantage, that many states and cities afford visitors and tourists for us, whenever convenient for those to whom I have reference. We have social problems at a minimum compared to those in other areas, and we have peace and tranquility, that most foreigners would accept at any price. We have food on our tables, and shoes on our feet, and although we may still have a long way to go, we have to admit, we've come from a mighty long way."

Introducing and Presenting Paul:

Paul Williams
Paul Williams is a local youth, and inmate at A.P.C.I. Paul is studying in a rehabilitation program from which he expects to graduate soon. Paul wishes that I express a friendly "Hello," to you, and best wishes for your continuing health and happiness in a free society. He also expresses a concern that maybe, he too, can contribute something of benefit in writing to other youths in present day society.

Guest of the week:

Jerry Swain
Jerry Swain, nephew of Mrs. B. Dasher on Carolina Avenue, was here for a few days after attending funeral services for his brother in Fort Pierce. Jerry attended the local schools here and makes his home now in Chicago.

For Whom the Bells Toll:
Final bells tolled for the late Robert B. Jordan on Saturday April 19, at Mt. Olive A.M.E. Church at 2:15 p.m. The family is most grateful for courtesies and kindnesses rendered during its bereavement.

Citizens of the Week:

Mrs. Lucille Tate
Mr. and Mrs. Thad Tate, who live at the South end of Carolina Ave., are the citizens of the week. Last week when I visited this lovely and well kept home, I found the surroundings equally as attractive and well kept. "Congratulations," on a job well done. Keep up the good work. (Be sure and drive by to see as I did.)

Honor of the week:

Wives seek their husband's advice by asking them to approve something they've already done.

English Lesson for the week:
Wrong: Everybody will do their own work.

Right: Everybody will do his own work.

Explanation: "Everybody" and "his" are singular. (A pronoun should agree with its antecedent.)

Wedding Bells:

"Here comes the Bride" will be the theme song for Ervane Harris and Hayward Tramel, on Saturday evening, April 6, in Dania, Fla. Congratulations, Hayward and best wishes to you Ervane.

Meals on Wheels:

The people at Meals on Wheels appreciate the support we have given, but are soliciting other volunteers, who will make their program more effective by giving free time, to deliver meals to elderly citizens who need them and appreciate them so much. Please call, Joyce, 438-7896.

Hospitalized at Press time:

Levi Thomas, Eldis Crumbley, Willie M. Hunter, Shellie Clark, Jeanette Armstrong, and Sally Strickland.

Thought Conditioner for the Week:

"So often, many of us are lacking in energy. Our vitality is low. We are sometimes filled with inner conflicts. We are dull and seemingly hopeless. It is then that we should fill our minds and hearts with Christ, and remember: I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly. John 10:10.

Yours truly,
Calvin C. Gibbs

shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.

Luke 10:27

The basis of God's first and greatest commandment is love. God gave man the freedom to choose
... and therefore will not force his love on anyone. God took the first step and is always ready to receive any who would come to Him.

©Coleman Adv. Ser.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
